BEVERLEY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY (founded 1946)

Version A (1972)

Circular, chrome with brown and blue enamel Diameter 26mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse. No manufacturer shown

The central roundel is loosely based on the arms of Beverley: 'Argent three Bars wavy and a chief Azure thereon a Castor Beaver reguardant biting at the fur Or'

'The most striking innovation must be the production of the Society badge, with its distinctive design of the Beverley Coat of Arms surrounded by ten silver bells. Our thanks go to Ian Campbell for negotiating the production of the badge.'
Beverley & District Ringing Society annual report for 1973

Version B(i) (1982)

Circular, chrome with dark red enamel border Diameter 19mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse Manufactured by ' VAUGHTON / BIRMM'

'Society Badges £97.86' Beverley & District Ringing Society annual report for 1982

Version B(ii)

As above but later pressing with lighter red border

No manufacturer shown