

London below - York Surprise Minor - Cambridge above

Certain Surprise Minor methods are formed by ringing one method when ringing below the treble and a different one when ringing above the treble. The ringer changes from one method to the other as he passes the treble.

York consists of London below the treble and Cambridge above.

There are 41 regular Surprise Minor Methods which can be formed in the same way. See table on following page.