The 22 cwt. Tenor of the Ring of 8 Dedicated at Birstall, Leeds, on October 4th, 1919,

THE PAST AND THE COMING YEAR.

A year ago we were turning our backs upon a period of horror and sadness, scarred deep by the tragedy of war, and looking forward to brighter days of returning prosperity and happier conditions of life for the nation. The hopes that we, as a people, cherished on the threshold of 1919, have by no means all been fulfilled, and the future is looming large with difficulties. Despite this, however, there is much to give encouragement in the Ringing Exercise in the revival that has taken place in the last twelve months. Those organisations which, through the war, had allowed their energies very largely to lapse, have put their machinery into working order again with commendable promptitude, while those who, despite all the handicap, did their best to carry on, have reaped a reward from the very satisfactory manner in which they have gone forward since the return of peace.

Much more quickly than one expected, the bell-founding industry has been getting back into its stride, and the activity of the principal firms must be gratifying to every ringer. Peace bells have given an impetus to the industry which had come largely to a standstill during the war, and the revival of bell work gives every promise of going lorward in the coming year at an increasing rate. There is a double, or shall we say a triple advantage in this. Not only does it keep the foundries engaged, and provide ringers with additional peals of bells upon which to practise their art, but it spreads interest in bells among the public, which is all to the good.

Of the recovery in the Exercise itself, our columns have provided ample evidence, and the ever-increasing demands upon our limited space are a source of serious concern. In the coming year we may safely anticipate, among other signs of the revival, a considerable increase in the peals rung, as well as a larger number of meetings being held, for most of the men who have been spared to return are now back in the towers, and have taken up the art with a new zest. Ringing promises to come into its own again quicker than most people expected, and interest will grow as the practice of ringing expands. Ringers, we know, will look to their journal to keep them posted in the doings of the Exercise, as in the past, but we hope they will, at the same time, realise the difficulties which face us in trying to meet the increasing requirements of the times. To maintain the "Ringing World" in the face of the rising cost of production it is necessary to go with the greatest caution, reckless development might, and probably would, end in disaster. It may be disappointing to many to find that paragraphs in which they are interested do not always appear, but they may rest assured that it is not because they have been singled out for omission, and we hope they will believe us when we say that we endeavour to do the best we can for all, having in view the general interest of the great body of the Exercise. The real key to the situation is circulation. If ringers would individually support the paper instead of, as is done unfortunately in all too many cases, taking one copy for the tower, they would quickly see the result in a larger journal, adequate to the growing requirements of the Exercise. At the opening of this New Year, therefore, we feel we may be permitted to appeal to ringers throughout the land to send up the circulation to proportions commensurate with the strength of the Exercise, and thus, by their efforts, secure a paper of dimensions equal to the needs of the future.

BELFRY GOSSIP. "All our friends throughout the Exercise we extend our hearliest good wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. Boxing Day was the anniversary of the long peal of Superlutive Sur-prise Major at Crawley, Sussex, the record length of 9312 changes being rung in 5 hrs. 20 mins. It hardly seems possible that this per-formance took place five and twenty years ago, but so it is. 'The real standard of excellence in our Association.' say the com-mittee of the Lancashire Association in their annual report. ' is to be proud not in the length of its peal list only, but in the variety of methods which can be accurately rune in many of its towers, and in the high quality of its Sunday ringing.' The death has taken place at Sedeley. Staffs, of William Mills, who for 35 years was a ringer at All Spints' Church. The peal of Stedman Cinques, rung at Waltham Abbey and re-corded in our issue of Dec. 19th, was rung under the auspices of the London County Association. One of the ringers who took part in the opening touch on the new bells at Overseal had rung in 208 towers and said in his opinion Overseal were the best light peal he had heard.

The handbell peal, rung at Leicester on December 20th, was unique as a 'family' affair. Mr. J. Morris and his two sons are intimately connected with St. Margaret's Church. Mr. E. Morris is adesman, Mr. J. Morris verger, and Stedman Morris is a chorister, the peal being rung on the twelfth birthday of the last named.

The work of our hands, establish Thou it. The true dedication he said, was not merely of the pieces of metal, but of their own hearts. Referring to ringing, he said it was a wholesome and fascinating recreation, intellectual as well as physical. Every gift of body and mind was for Christ's service, and men who wanted to do something for the Church with their hands would find it in the helf's. The old preduce against the pingers as could find it in the helfry. The old prejudice against the ringers as day was all against the baser forms of indulgence. In the quiet day was in against the baser forms of induscince, in the quet country places it was almost the salvation of the young men who took to it. The life of the good bell ringer and of the good man was the best kind of preaching. He asked their sympathy for and support of the bell ringers, into whose care these bells were now handed over to be well and truly used, dedicated to the service of God.

The offertory was to meet the expenses-over .260-incurred in the necessary overhead of the old bells, etc.

The new bells bear the following inscriptions: Treble 'In Thee, O Lord, do we put our trust.' 'G. M. Baker Lieut., King's Liverpool Regt., 1919.' Second, 'Thanks he to God who giveth us the victory. 'W. G. Baker, Lieut., R. Innis, Fusiliers, 1919.'

After the service a number of fouches of Grandshie Triples and Plain Bob Major were rung, the ringers including Messrs. J. Thomas and W. J. Hazell from the Whitechapel foundry, and representatives from Ware, Munden, and Hertford towers. The bells are the product of the bugnerorough foundry, and their beautiful tones are much admired, for although the peal is a light one, they are a most musical octave. The tablet, which is of white marble, bears the inscription, 'The peal of bells in the tower and this tablet were placed in this church to the glory of God and to the men of the parish who haid down their lives in the great war 1914-1919.' MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. NORTH AND EAST DISTRICT MEETING.

A very successful meeting of the North and East District of the Middlesex Association was held at Christ Church, Cubitt Town, on Saturday, December 20th, when about 40 members attended. The ringing started punctually at 3.30, with a touch of Stedman Triples and touches in other methods followed. Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. Hartley), who gave a short address on the message of the bells. The organist and choir were present, and added con-siderably to the harmony of the proceedings.

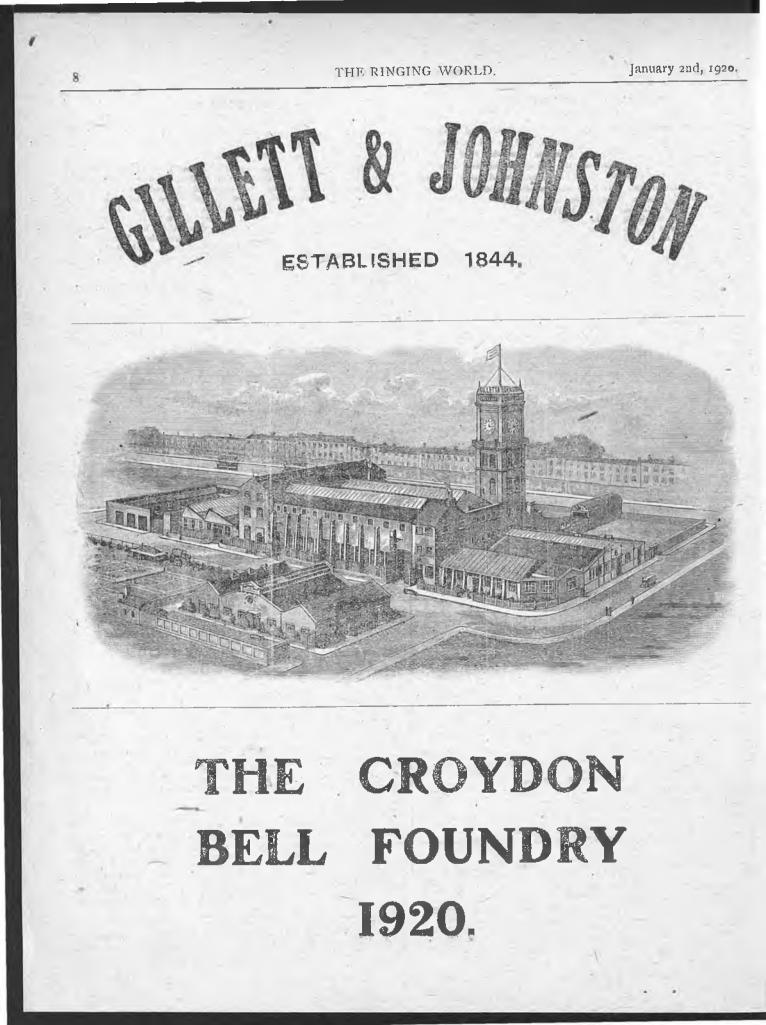

Tea was served in the Parish Room, followed by the business meet-ing, at which four new members were elected, whilst two elections made prior to ringing peals wore confirmed.

The District Master (Mr. J. Armstrong) proposed that the next meeting which would be the annual meeting of the district, shou't he held at Southgate, and he took the opportunity to inform the members that Mesrs, Mears and Stainbank had received the order to add two new trebles to the existing peal of eight at that church. Secretary (Mr. C. T. Coles), in seconding the proposal to hold the next meeting at Southgate, stated that they would all look forward to the reopening of the peal after the new hells were added, and he was quite sure that the firm who had east the present splendid peal would make every effort to add two bells worthy to take their place with them. thom.

them. Mr. J. Waghorn asked the ringers present to give their support to the 'Ringing World,' stating that the paper had had a hard struggle to exist during the war.—The Hon. Secretary said that he would like to see all ringers taking a copy as it was only by increased direulation that the present difficulties could be overcome. The Chairman (Mr. F. A. Milne, J.P.) proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for his address at the service and for the use of the bells: to the organist and choir; and to Mrs. Hodgson Mrs. Hawkins, and fringle for so well arranging the tea — This with a vote of

During the period afterwards available for ringing some conital touches were rung, including courses of London and Brislol Surprise, followed by Stedman Caters, Troble Ten, and Double Norwich Major on handhells.

BRISTOL SURPRISE !

To the Editor.

Dear Sir, I read with much interest your leading article of Decem-ber 26th. I notice that you refer to the 'Central Council's definition of a Surprise Method.' Naw, I may have been mistaken but I was always under the impression that the definition was mine. Some years ago a long discussion on this subject took place in the columns of the ago a long discussion on this subject took place in the columns of the Bell News,' II was when the controversy was almost worn out that my attention was first drawn to it; and I at once posted off my de-finition to the Editor, who consigned it to the waste paper basket. He afterwards explained that he thought sufficient had been said on the subject. Finding that my letter was to be ignored I sent copies of it to my two old friends, Mr. Henry Dains and Mr. George Baker. Mr. Dains was delighted with it, and wrote to say that he would get it pub-lished; which he did, but made no membion us to where he got it from; but Mr. Baker wrote the next week and accused him of using my work, and I had to write and explain. Those who have the old files of the 'Bell News' can verify these facts for themselves. Let us see then what the definition is.

Let us see then what the definition is.

A Surprise method is one in which the treble has a dodging hunt, and a place is always made at a cross section.
 A cross section is the point at which the treble moves on from

2. A dross section is the point at which the tighte norts of right one set of dodging places to another. That is the definition as I made it for myself in 1890. It is carefully worded to avoid the very point that Mr. Carter is now bringing up. When the treble lies her whole pulls in eighth and at lead she does not more on from one set of places to another, but merely dodges the other way round in the same places. In framing this definition, I had two objects in view. First to in-clude the old Surprise Methods, and secondly, to embrace all the best methods that could be obtained in the class that had always been regarded as the highest.

been regarded as the higness. If Mr. Carter wishes to alter the definition, will be please tell us in the first place what is his reason for doing so, and also show what advantages we are to obtain by it?—Yours truly, E. BANKES JAMES.

Seafield Park, December 26th.

Dear Sir,-Not only is Bristol Surprise my brother's method, but the definition of a Surprise Method in the Methods Report is also my brother's, and is first laid down in a letter by him to Mr. Henry Dains, which letter is in my possession and from which I copied the definition for the report.

Cross-sections are peculiar to Truble Bob Methods and the whole pull of the Treble in front and behind is not a cross-section; it is something far more, it is a lead division in Double Methods, and a lead division and half lead division in Single Methods and complex methods; it is common to Tueble Bob Methods and Plain Methods. Bristol is not a Bob Surprise Method; but it is a Mixed Court Sur-prise Method, - Yours truly, Surfleet, December 24th, 1919.

Dear Sir,-Mr. Carter is mistaken. Bristol is a Surprise Method, according to the Central Council definition as an examination of the according to the Central Coulcil dominion as an examination of the adopted report on classification will show. Mr. William Snowden was the only authority who held that a Surprise Method nutst have second's made at the lead ond. In the 'Bell News ' for August 17th, 1907, will be found tables by Mr. Law Jumes from which all Treble Bob Methods can be worked out similar to Mr. Carter's tables in this week's 'Ringing Workl.'-Yours etc., Foling Christian Fin 1920. DEATH OF MR. J. I. DOMAN. A LOSS TO LLANELLY, BRECONSHIRE.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mr. J. I. It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mr. J. I. Doman captain of the Llanelly band of bell ringers, which sad event took place at the Victoria Cottage Hospital, Abergavenny, after au illness lasting four months. The cause of death was consumption, following an operation for a septic abscess in the left groin, which was caused by a wound in the knee, sustained by falling from his motor bicycle in July last. Having sold the motor, decaused journeyed to Burghill to attend the quarterly meeting of the Horeford Guild on August 9th on an ordinary push hicycle. He contracted a chill on use homeward journey and this developed into consumption. Subsc-quently he was removed to hospital at Abergavenny, where an opera-tion was successfully performed. For some weeks the patient im-proved, but three weeks before his death he had a relapse from which he nover recovered. he nover recovered.

he nover recovered. Mr. Doman had been a ringer for eight years, learning the rudi-ments of the art at Llanelly, and further improving at Merthyc 'Tydvil. Returning to Llanelly, he was elected captain of the local band. Although not a great peal ringer deceased could ring Grand-sico, Plain Bob, Stedman and Kent Troble Bob up to eight bells, and was a member of both the Hereford and Llandaf Associations. The funeral took place on December 20th, and the service, conduct-ed by the Rev. E. A. T. Roberts was fully choral. Among the many foral tributes was a wreath from the Llanelly ringers, who acted as bearers. After the committal, the 'whole pull and stand' 29 times (deceased's age) was rung on the towar bells, and on Dec. 22nd a peal of Doubles, with the bells helf-muffled, was rung as a tribute to his memory by the local band.

WELCOME HOME.

As a welcome home from service abroad of members of the All Saints' and St. Andrew's ringing societies, Hertford, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung for service on Sunday, December 14th, at All Saints' Church by four members of each society: W. A COURT OF APPEAL?

Much interest was excited by Mr. John Carter's announcement that in his opinion Bristol is not a Surprise method, and the prompt replies of experts who take the view that it is rightly included in the Surprise category was only to be expected. In our article a fortnight ago we showed how Bristol first came by its name, and how by all the accepted views of that time it was entitled to be classed with the highest group of methods. The correspondence which we published last week showed how the method was, by the intention of the author, kept within the definition of a Surprise, for the definition which was embodied in the report upon methods and adopted by the Central Council, was drafted by the Rev. E. Bankes James With that explanation before the Exercise it himself. will be difficult to quarrel with the designation of Bristol, but there is still room for argument on the views put forward by Mr. Carter, who tells us this week that the passing of the treble from 7-8 up to 7-8 down is a cross section, no more and no less.

While the complexity or interest of a method is neither increased nor diminished by the name we give it, it does seem that the definition of a Surprise method might have been still more closely laid down, if the point had been clearly made that the treble's whole pull in front or behind was not to be considered a cross section. But in this, as in many other things in ringing, we see that definitions that are provided for our guidance are not all they might be. It is quite certain, from this discussion on Bristol, that our experts are not agreed upon what the meanings of some of the definitions are, for here we have Mr. Carter, who we believe signed the Central Council's report, differing from other members of the committee as to the exact application of the terms. What we need is a court of appeal to settle these matters. Indeed it would add quite a refreshing variety to the procedure of the Central Council if a bench of, say, five 'judges' were set up and the contending parties argued their case on something like the same lines that legal actions are conducted in the High Court. This, perhaps, might be the solution of one of the complaints against the present procedure of the Central Council that the debates on the scientific side of ringing are too dull, or else too technical to interest the main body of members. Speeches by 'counsel' and the examination and cross-examination of witnesses would certainly add zest to some of the discussions, and even if it tended to introduce a little levity into the proceedings, we should, at all events, be able to have a ' considered judgment' of experts upon a subject after they had heard both sides of the question.

PEAL CORRECTION.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-In the ' Ringing World ' of last week there is a report of a peal of Bob Major rung at Heptonstill by the Lancashire Association, and given as being the first in the method on the bells. I beg to say that the first peal of Bob Major on the above bolls was rung by the Yorkshiro Association on March 21st, 1914, conducted by P. J. J. BROADLEY. Johnson.-Yours, etc.,

ESTIMATES SUBMITTED

For Rehanging, Retuning and Recasting.

Musical Handbells in sets, Bell Ropes, &c.

At the Handbell Contest held annually in Manchester the First Prize for the last 16 years has been awarded to bands using our bells, and on fourteen of those occasions they have pained the Second Prize also,

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The new peal at Watford cast by Mesers. Gillett and Johnston, are to be dedicated on Saturday afternoon, January 174b. It is difficult in these days to do something new, but, following upon

It is difficult in these days to do something new, but, following upon a handbell peal by two husbands and their wives, four fathers and four sons have now scored a peal of Grandsite Triples at Erith. John Hartill, aged nine years, and son of the Vicar (the Rev. Edgar Hartill, M.A.), started to practise bell ringing six months ago, and is now quite capable of rising or falling (not in peal) the third. He also roug last Sunday the same bell for twenty minutes, in rounds, Queens. Whittington and Tittums, keeping the bell well under control, and making the change every time without a mistake. Mr. J. W. Bed-dard, hon. scoretary of the Penn band, who sends this information, asks if this is a record in point of age for a church bell ringer. Mr. Samuel Grove writes to point out that the 9312 Superlative at Crawley, rung on Boxing Day, 1894, is not the record, as was men-tioned in a paragraph in this column last week. The longest length of Superlative was rung by the Worcestershire Association, viz., 9728 in 5 hrs. 52 mins., at Clent: also on a Boxing Day, Dec. 26th, 1910. We ought not be have forEotien the later record, hut what was at the moment in our mind was that a quarter of a century had elapsed the moment in our mind was that a quarter of a century had elapsed since that first long length. Most of the Crawley band are, happily, still with us.

still with us. In connection with a peal rung at Thornham Magna, on Boxing Day, it is interesting to recall that the same band, with the excop-tion of the ringer of the 2nd, which bell was rung by Mr. E. Youngs, rang the first peal in fourteen Troble Bob Minor Methods (10,080 changes) for the Norwich Association. This peal, which is still a record for the Norwich Association, occupied 5 hrs. 10 mins., and was conducted by G. Cattermole. A. H. Winch, known to his friends by a much more intimate name was the ringer of the 5th in the nonl at Leatherhead on December 20th, and not H. White, as published.

PAINSWICK LONG PEAL ATTEMPT. UNFORTUNATE END AFTER 7.600 CHANGES.

The attempt for the long peal of Grandsire Cinques at Painswick on Boxing Day by twelve members of the Ancient Society of Pains-wick Youths, a Society established in 1686, had an unfortunate end-ing. After ringing about 7,600 changes in excellent style in 5 hrs. and 15 mins., and when everything was going well, indisposition caused one of the ringers to set his bell.

Another attempt will be made as soon as possible,

AN INTERESTING RECORD, BAND UNBROKEN FOR 30 YEARS.

BAND UNBROKEN FOR 30 YEARS. At Newchurch, in Lancs, there is a band of ringers with an extra-ordinary record of long and unbroken service. A company was formed there in 1889, and its ten members have remained associated with the tower ever since, the eight bells being regularly rung by these long service men. At the moment one is ill, but he is still a member; the others are doing active service. They are James Taylor, Thomas Har-rison, James Ashworth, Lawrence Taylor, Sam Lord, Ormered East-wood, Walter Taylor, J. T. Wright, John W. Ormered, and Harry Walls. We feel sure this must be a record for any single tower, and this band of voterans will have the best wishes of the Exercise for many more years of regular and unbroken association with their ancient church and belivy. ancient church and belfry.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION. A BUSY BOXING DAY,

A district meeting of the North Notts Association was held at East A district meeting of the North Notis Association was held at East Relford, on Boxing Day, with a view to giving an impetus to the new band of ringers who have taken up the art at the Parish Church. The bells of West Retford and Ordsall were also at the disposal of ringers all day, but there was only a moderate attendance. Lock of num-bers, however, was compensated for by the quantity and quality of ringing at all three churches. A start was made at Ordsall at 10.30 a.m., and by 1 p.m. touches and 720's in the following methods were rung: Canterbury, College Single, Bob Minor, Stedman Doubles, Ox-ford and Kont. ford and Kent.

At East Retford, the announcement was made that two bells had broken stays, and another bell had been thrown out of the cage by the local juniors, who had been tugging hard to herald the Christmas festival. However, a bit of tinkering by one or two old hands made the bells ringable, and touches of Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples, and Bob Major were rung, and the bells lowered in peal, two of them being rung without stays

A move to West Retford was made at 5 p.m., where touches of Plain Bob, Oxford and Kent brought an interesting day's ringing to an end, the ringers being thanked by some of the inhabitants of Ret-ford for giving them a little Christmas music. Ringers were present from Worksop, Rotherham, Wigan, Gains-horough, Brigg, Ordsall, West Retford and East Retford and a pleasant day was spent.

The ringers desire to thank the Vicar of East Retford and the Rectors of Ordsall and West Rotford respectively for use of bells.

SURPRISE METHODS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I have read the three letters that were in last week's 'Ringing Warkl' on the subject of Surprise Methods. Mr. E. Bankes James gives his definition of Surprise Methods. He says (1): A Surprise method is one in which the treble has a dedging hunt, and a place is always made at a cross section. (2) A cross section is the point at which the treble moves on from one set of places to an other. Now, when the treble is moved from 7-8 up to 7-8 down it is really a cross section, the same as when the troble is moved from 3-4 up to 5-8 up. Nothing more or loss.

Mr. William Snowdon had a word with me about Surprise methods able within showoon had a void with the about surprise methods some years ago. He said that a Surprise method is the one that has a bell running from behind to lead without a place being made what-ever. I replied that we had better stick to the old school, and that is why I picked out Superlative for my guide, and I have stuck to it throughout. Which are we going to have as the standard, Bristol or Superlative, for a Surprise method ?-Yours faithfully

'LONG TEN.'

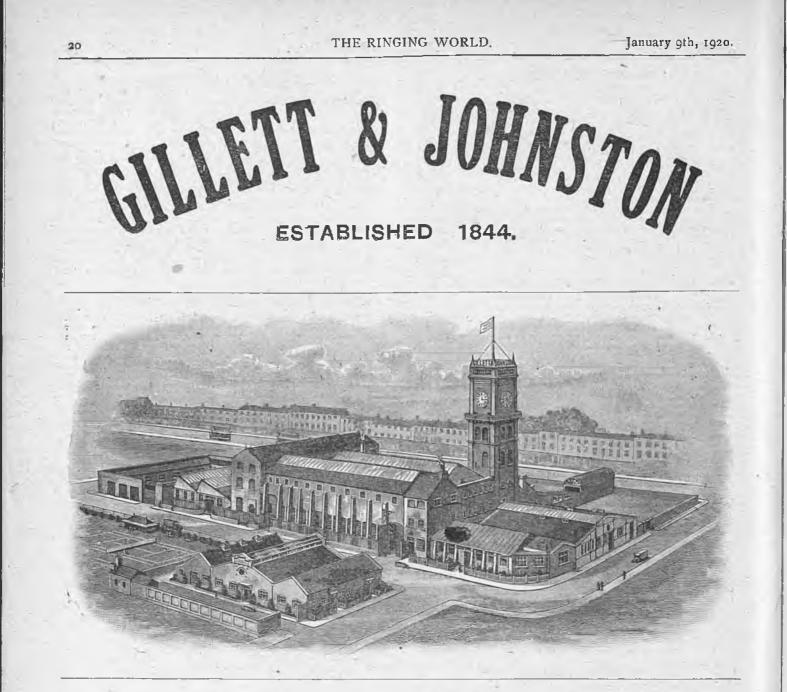

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-In your issue of Dec. 26th Mr. J. R. Jerram 12345 advocates a few additions to the Glossary of technical terms. Is Mr. Jerram correct in his definition of the 'Long Ten' P He calls it Grandsire Doubles. I give the figures of what 21435 24153 42513 I have always known as the Long Ten, and whatever the method is, it certainly does not look like Grandsire as there is no single dodge behind at the start. It is much more like Plain Bob. The first ten changes of Grandsire Doubles could hardly be repeated again and again on Mr. Jerram's rules as the load end comes 12534.—Yours bruly, WILLIAM J. White, the well-known and very highly respec-ed captain of the Do-ing company. The band, together with Mrs. White and a few other friends, were afterwards entertained to tea by the St. Martin's Guild a feature of which was a silver wedding. White and a few other friends, were alterwards entertained to tea by the St. Martin's Guild, a feature of which was a silver wedding cake. During the tea, Mr. White was presented with a silver bell inkstand, suitably incribed, and Mrs. White with a pierced silver clasp, by Canon Chichester, the Vicar of the parish, on behalf of the St. Martin's Guild. Canon Chichester made a happy speech, in which he expressed the hearty esteem and affection in which Mr. White is held by all who have the privilege of knowing him, as well as the house that the Guild would one day have the pleasure of redoicing here by an who have the privilego of knowing tim, as well as the hope that the Guild would one day have the pleasure of rejoicing will him and his wife in the occasion of their golden welding, a hope which, fortunately, seems quite possible of fulfilment, owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. While are unusually young to be keep-A happy evening came all too quickly to an end.

BELLS AND THE PUBLIC.

Periodically there breaks out in the columns of the Press protests against Church bell (inging, generally from people who feel they have a grievance on account of the noise of the bells. The latest of these attacks to be brought to our notice has developed at Portsmouth, where a correspondent in a local paper writes that the bells of St. Thomas' Church 'as rung recently are an abominable nuisance to me.' This writer endeavours to show that Church bell ringing is o pagan origin, and as such should be vetoed by the Christian Church. He also becomes facetious at the expense of 'Messrs. Grandsire, Stedman Triples and Bob Major.' The bells are finding a champion in Mr. Aitken, who will doubtless give a satisfactory answer to the complaints and the suggestions of 'Imperfect Peace.'

It is well that those who quarrel with the ringing of church bells at reasonable and appropriate times should have their public grumbles publicly replied to, but it is, as a rule, a mistake to treat these people, and especially those who write anonymously, too seriously. Not in every case, of course, but very frequently, they are people whose opposition to bells is only one way of expressing their general opposition to the Church. They do not love the Church, therefore they do not love the bells which belong to the Church-and that is the root of all the feeling which they bring into their letters to the newspapers. We do not know anything about the local circumstances in St. Thomas' parish, Portsmouth, except that the bells are a very fine peal of eight; but we venture to suggest that, if there is anything whatever in the complaint which is anonymously made in the Press, the writer might find quicker redress by going personally and in a reasonable spirit to the proper quarter to make his representations.

Whenever a person complains under the cloak of a newspaper nom-de-plume, the ringers should invite him (or her) to come out into the open. Then, if he has the courage of his convictions, or rather, perhaps, what he considers his inflictions, it would be possible to judge the bona fides of the complaint. Generally speaking there is very I tile backing in these objections to bells which crop up from time to time, but as a little spark may be fanned into a big flame, so these outbursts of an annoyed minority shou'd be closely watched, and when shown to be genuinely based, met in a reasonable spirit. That is what, we believe, incumbents and ringers generally try to do, and in these days of a 'touchy' public it is wise to act thus. But the bells have their stated and proper occasions, and from their rightful use on these occasions those in authority should not recede one jol.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Through the generosity of Colonel L. H. Hanbury, of Hitcham Grange, the parish church of St. Mary, Hitcham, new possesses a peat of six miniature bells, as well as a seventh bell used as a ' Sanctus. The small lower was formerly thought too weak for a peal, but difficulties have been overcome and the bells have been dedicated by one Bishop of Buckingham.

Bishop of Buckargham. Congratulations to the Leiston band, upon ringing their first peal of London Surprise. Even in these days, a 'first peal of London by all the band " is a rarity, and it is still a highly creditable perform-ance. Leiston men, and particularly the brothers Bailey, are making things 'burn in the Norwich Association. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert, of Woburn, have just celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Herbert was one of the founders of the Bedfordshire Association in 1882, and is still one of its vice-presidents. Eligit. Sourd Fred Halden who has research here stationed in the

The Oxford Guild was nover in such a flourishing financial position as at present. It was stated at a meeting last Saturday that the balance on the year's working was £47 15s. 5d., and the total worth of the Guild £186 12s.

On the completion of a short touch for a peace celebration in a Shropshire Church recently, the foreman chained fourpetter from one of the company, home on short leave, who had forgotten to remove his spurs. The claim was made under the old rules of 1744, which are set out at length on a large stone in the tower, and say :-

Or if you ring in spurr or halt,

Fore pence you must pay for that. Mr. E. Maurice Atkins met with a cycle accident the other day. falling from his machine and dislocating his right shoulder. He is, happily, now making favourable progress. It is interesting to record that after a lapse of thirty-five years another peal of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus has been rung at St. Maryle-Tower, Ipswich.

During 1919 there were rung at St. Peter's Church, Curdridge, Hants thirty-three 504's of Grandsire Triples, two 1260's, 110 six-scores of Stedman Doubles, one 720 and one 360 of Bob Minor.

THE FIRST 1920 DATE TOUCH.

One of the first 1920 Date Touches, if not the very first, was runz on handbells at Long Stanton Vicarage on New Year's Day, being 480 of Little Bob Minor and two 720's of Bob Minor, in 39 mins., by W. II J. Hooton (conductor) 1-2, J. B. Woolley 3-4, C. W. Woolley 5-6. --On December 28th, the same trio rang 1440 of Minor made up of a spliced 720 of Double Bob and Plain Bob, and a 720 of Plain Bob.

THE ANCIENT SOCIETY.

BY AN ENTIRE OUTSIDER.

So the College Youths have decided to exclude lady members; and that in a year when all sex disqualifications have been logally reothers on the Bench of Magistrates. What are we to think of it? Is it bravery or cowardice? Is it a case of the old lady trying to keep It bravery or cowardicer is it a case of the old hady trying to keep back the Atlantic with a broom; or of the Soven Thousand in Isruel who refuse to bow the knee to Baal? You may be sure that the society will be hotly condemned in all quarters. And yet it seems there is another side to the matter.

there is another suc to the metter. Mr. John Hawthorne leaned back in his easy chair and smoked for 3 minute or two in silence. Then he continued, 'The partisans of hady ringers consist entirely of foul fathers, lovers, sentimentalists, and leaders of bands who are hard put to it to find enough men for Sunday ringing. Take them away and you will find the Exercise has no particular liking for lady ringers." "But surely,' I said, ' it is only a stupid and unreasonable prejudice

But survey, I said, it is only a sample and unreasonable, and per-that is dying out. 'Prejudice I grant you,' he answered, and unreasonable, and per-haps dying; but stupid-no. I should call it a rather subtle form of the struggle for existence. Your male ringer has a prevision of the reming time when he will be squeezed out of the bellery altogether. Not that I, personally, object to lady ringers as ringers. But I do like good striking."

A grout structure. being I becau. ' The interrupted, ' and then the responsibility will not be mine."

But surely,' I objected, ' some ladies can strike. What about Miss Fulmer? She rings and strikes Surprise methods as well as you could expect of any man."

One swallow does not make a summer,' he replied, ' and of course there are exceptions. Do you expect us to be logical in our pre-judices? All the same, I do not illink the College Youths have handled the matter in the deftest manner. If I'd had the ordering of the matter I should have said nothing about sex. I should simply have made a rule that nobody could become a member of any society have made a rule that nonody could become a member of any society unless he or she could ring rounds properly.' 'That's very drastic,' I said, ' Very drastic and also very effective,' he replied. ' Not only would it get rid of the present trouble, but I calculate that it would reduce the Exercise to three-sixteenths of its present size. Of course, there would be a lot of anger and had language among the rejected. They would probably go and ring peals of Stedman Triples and London Surprise Major to pretend they were really ringers. But it would be worth it. We that were left would get some decent ringing.' . Should we be left?' I queried.

He did not reply directly, but helped himself to some more heer. 'No. I am afraid the College Youths have not handled the matter will no doubt keep the young women out for a time; but in the long ran they'll find the young ones too strong for them. I don't expect to see a female Archbishop of Canterbury in my time, the obstacles are rather many. A she Prime Minister is more likely, and I shall be surprised if we shan't have, before long, a " mistress " presiding at the Coffee Pot, and calling Stedman Cinques from the eleventh at Saint Paul's.

DEATH OF MR. H. H. BARNBY.

We regret to record the death of another young and promising ringer, in the person of Mr. Henry H. Barnby, who passed away on New Year's Eve, at the early age of 25. The deceased was a mem of the College Youths and the London County Association, and a member of St. Leonard's, Streatham, band, He was well known in a large number of London belfries, and had rung in nearly 100 towers in all parts of England,

A MIDNIGHT QUARTER.

At the Priory Church, Dunstable, Beds, on New Year's Eve, a quarterpeal of Grandsire Triples was rung in 50 mins., the bells running into Grandsire Triples was rung in 50 minutes, the bells running into Grandsire Triples was rung in 50 minutes, the bells running into raunds on the stroke of midnight: F. Ramsey (ist quarter-peal) 1, Canon W. W. C. Baker 2, R. Harris 3, C. E. King 4, F. Baldoek 5, A. E. Sharman (conductor) 6, G. Heley 7, C. T. King 8. It is also inter-cating to note that this was the first quarter-peal ever rung in Dunstable by an entirely local band.

'LONG TEN.'

To the Editor. Sir,—The first lead of Plain Bob Doubles, given by Mr. W. J. Fuller in your issue of January 9th, is not the 'long ten' to which I re-ferred. It is the first lead of Graudsire, as I said before: in which it so happens that after leading each bell follows each of the others in regular rotation all round. What Mr. Fuller gives does not fulfil this condition. The Graudsire 'long ten' is simply repeated for an un-imited number of the start of the other in the simply repeated for an unlimited number of times, and when the conductor considers that they have had enough of it, it is jumped into rounds, or an extra change 12354 inserted to bring the bells round.—Yours, J. R. JERBAM.

SURPRISE METHODS.

THE CROSS SECTION.

To the Editor.

Sir,-I am much interested in the question regarding Bristol Surprise raised by Mr. John Carter, and in your last heading article, but guide disagree with the statement that the passing of the treble from 7-8 up to 7-8 down is a cross section, 'no more and no less.' Certainly, and to my mind unfortunately, it is not required that $i \in$ working bells should cross in plain course order at the half lead which permits an internal place at this point, but even when this orcurs it is different to a cross section. Let it be granted, however, that what applies to the crossing when the trable leads, also applies when the trable less behind. Mr. Carter does not seem to differentiate, and the two positions are actually equal. except that plain course carler at the latter point is not insisted on. Then these two positions are distinct from a cross section, because here the trolle soparates from the working bells, and hunts alone (leading or lying), while the working bells are also plain hunting as a separate enfity.

This is clearly illustrated in plain Bob Major, which has a pure plain course with a fixed treble. In it there is nothing whatever but plain hunting, for when the treble leads (i.e., hunts separately), the working bells merely alter their plain hunting order by the front bell leading over the treble, instead of the other extreme lying behind. They are again different to a cross section, for in every method, at these points, the work is fixed and unalterable, nothing being permitted but the plain hunting of the working bells, and the treble. As a matter of fact, they are the dominating features of every plain course, whether with a plain or dodging hunt. It is essential that the bells shall pass from one lead to the next in plain course order. and this cannot be so if an internal place is made. Experiment w.D prove that there can be nothing but leading or lying whole pulls if the coursing order is to be retained unaltered. Therefore, no internal place may be made when the treble is leading full. Although the second's place at the lead end crossing is between the treble and or remainder of the working bells, it is in theory the extreme working bell leading a whole pull, and may be exchanged for a whole pull anhind by the other extreme bell without altering the coursing order. It follows that the second's place and a whole pull behind are equal both being part of the plain hunting of the working bells, and the reverse of each other.

This plain hunting with the treble leading full, being a feature of every method, cannot affect the classification. Methods only differ by the places made within the lead, therefore these places only define the class to which a method belongs.

The Rev. E. Bankes James' system has removed the obstacles to exact classification, and now is the time to make the terms of the definitions quite clear to the general body of ringers.

In conclusion, it may be remarked that Mr. Carter's guide ' Superlative has the bells crossing of the half lead in plain course order. Wherever this is so the method has four variations, produced by varying the plain hunting of the working bells when the treble is behind or in front. In the case of Superlative three of these variations are usable, viz., the double method with 7ths and 2nds, and the two single methods with a whole pull in front at the half lead and 2nds at the mothods with a whole pull in front at the half lead and 2nds at the lead end, and vice verst. All of these, of course, have exactly the same changes in the plain course, undisturbed in full half leads, these half leads merely occurring in different order. The fourth variation, with a whole pull in front at the half lead, and a whole pull behind at the lead end, comes round at the first lead end.

It will be interesting to learn how Mr. Carter proposes to classify the three usable variations.—Yours faithfully, JOSEPH W. PARKER.

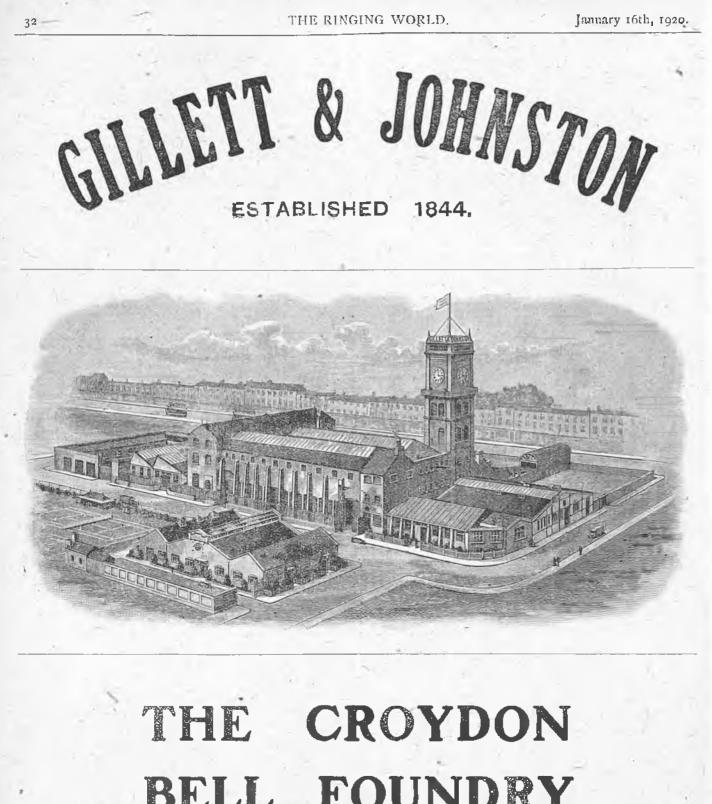

Sir,-As long as Mr. Carter is content with making assertions, unsupthe two questions that I asked him in my last letter I may enter further into the matter.-Yours, E. BANKES JAMES.

It was derided to ask Birstail for permission to hold the annual meeting there in March.—A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Viear and war-dens for the use of the bells.—The Viear, in replying, said how much the elergy and wardens appreciated the work of the ringers, and how pleased he was that his bells were rung during the war. He also thanked the visitors (especially the Leeds Parish Church company) for assisting them during that critical period. He hoped it would not be long before they would have another meeting at Hunslet. Mr. Johnson moved a vote of thanks to the local company for mak-Ing before they would have another instants at Transier. R. Kemp, of the local band, replied.—The tower was again visited; a well-struck touch of Stedman Triples terminated the meeting. meeting.

ELY AND ST. EDMUNDSBURY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION SUCCESS OF FIVE-BELL TOWER MEETING.

SUCCESS OF FIVE-BELL TOWER MEETING. A district meeting of the Archdeaconry of Ely branch was held at fen Ditton, near Cambridge, on Saturday week. About 25 ringers were present from Saffron Walden, Ickleton, Great Chesterford, Saw-ston, Stapleford, Fulbourn, Cambridge, Dry Drayton, and Fen Ditton. Ringing on the five church bells commenced between two and three o'clock, and continued at intervals until five o'clock, when the As-sociation's form of service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector, the Roy. G. R. Christie, who also gave a very able and in-bresting address. At the conclusion of the service, the ringers pro-worked to the Rectory where a submitted two and unvertex. teresting address. At the conclusion of the service, the rugers pre-needed to the Rectory, where a sphendid toa was provided by the Rector. At the business meeting which followed, Swaffitum Prior was selected as the place of the next meeting. Twelve new members were elected, including nine of the Fen Ditton ringers. The Rector also foined as an honorary member. A very heavy vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for granting the use of the bells, for conducting the service, and for his generosity in providing tea. Cigarettes and tobacco were handed round, and handbell ringing took place, courses of Grandsire Triples and Caters and Bob Major being accombished of Grandsire Triples and Caters, and Bob Major being accomplished Ringing on the tower bells was continued until about eight o'clock.

This is the first moeting that has been held at a five-bell tower for several years, and it was very encouraging to see such a good attend-auce. The bells are a minor five, and hopes are entertained that an additional bell may be provided in the near future.

AN APPEAL COURT.

The proposal which we made in this column a fortnight ago, half in jest, that the Central Council might set up a Court of Appeal to decide questions of a theoretical kind, seems to have raised unexpected interest in one or two quarters; and upon examination there does really seem to be something to be said for the idea. On the other hand, the science of ringing is a serious matter, and as there would be an element of burlesque in setting up such a tribunal and conducting proceedings before it, it is hardly to be expected that so sedate a body as the Central Council would favour the scheme. All the same, some body with more delegated authority than any committee now in existence appears to be necessary to settle contentious points.

In a letter elsewhere, Mr. J. A. Trollope suggests that there is already a Court of Appeal in the Exercise itself. That is true in much the same way that the final court of appeal in this or any civilised country is, or should be, to public opinion; but, even so, it is necessary to have a bench of judges to interpret and administer the laws which public opinion, through Parliament, have set up. It is not difficult to draw an analogy in connection with ringing affairs. There are decisions by the representative assembly of ringers which experts interpret differently, and it needs some kind of tribunal to settle the differences and to say who is right and who is wrong.

One of the drawbacks of legislation on theoretical matters has been the fact that in the past the experts often have failed to agree, and neither side has been prepared to accept the views of the other. That was illustrated not long ago by the 'Lead-ends' controversy. Now we have an equally strong disagreement between men of high repute upon the subject of what constitutes a Surprise method. These instances could, of course, be multiplied, but they are quite sufficient to show that work could well be found for a tribunal of the kind mentioned. Whether such a 'court' is ever likely to be established is doubtful, and discussion on procedure is valueless until some sort of scheme is put forward in authoritative quarters. Whether, if established, the tribunal would be more effective in convincing the Exercise than the present committee of the Central Council, would depend to a great extent upon the personnel and the methods by which it conducted its inquiry. But this much is certain, to be of use it would have to be composed of men who command the confidence of the Exercise, and its decisions would have to be arrived at by some shorter method than an interminable correspondence in which the parties wander off into bypaths that lead to nowhere and only confuse the issue.

ESTIMATES SUBMITTED

For Rehanging, Retuning and Recasting.

Musical Handbells in sets, Bell Ropes, &c.

At the Handbell Contest held annually in Manchester the First Prize for the last 16 years has been awarded to bands using our bells, and on fourteen of those occasions they have pained the Second Prize also,

BELFRY GOSSIP.

In connection with the funeral of the late Mr. G. W. Bemrose, at Bolsover, it should have been mentioued that unong the wreaths was one sent by the Midland Counties Association, of which acceased was a valued member.

consect was a valued memoor. ⁴-Something new under the sun!' A brothers' 12-bell peal. Six of the Leiston Baileys have scored a peal of Kent Maximus ' in hand,' the first time such a thing has been done, and so there is something new under the sun. It wasn't altogether unexpected either, for those who have watched the brotherly peals, first of Major and then of Royal, have seen this coming. Congratulations again again.

A peal report has been sent from Worsley, Lanes, without the name of the method. Will the sender, also unknown, kindly forward.

The death has occurred at Sherborne, near Northleach Glos., of Mr. F. Pitts, who passed away after a short illness. He was an enthusiastic ringer, and although his opportunities were not great he followed the doings of the Exercise with the keenest interest, Progress is being made at Worcester Cathedral, which has now been opened for ringing practice, and the first touch of Cuters was been opened for ringing practice, and the first touch of Caters was rung on Wednesday of last week. A peal tablet has been unveiled at Daventry by the Rever (the Rev. A. S. Lindsay) recording a peal of Stedman Triples, which was run on June 10th 1919. The tablet was creeted by the ringers as a memorial to the late Mr. A. Andrews, who was an enthusiastic member of the Daventry before and the Northants Association. Congratulations to the Rev. H. B. Woolley and his sons upon scor-ing a 'family ' peal of Minor on handbells. The enthusiastic View of Long Stanton has done much to encourage ringing, not the least height the institutions to the Ger. weak of eight and the participation of the least being the installation of a peal of eight in his parish church tower. The conductor of the handbell peal is a ringer of only 13 years of age. The Rev. E. B. J. will be proud of his pupil.

Guildford, we think, can boast of the oldest ringer in Mr. John Heathorn. He has rung on Holy Trinity bells several times since h-passed the age of 90, and in celebration of his 96th birthday a handbell peal was rung, of which the old gentleman was the principal witness.

WATFORD'S NEW BELLS DEDICATED.

The new peak of eight at Watford, cust at the Croydon Foundry, were dedicated at a largely attended service at Watford Pari-Church on Saturday,

The bells are a magnificent ring, and in their place in the tower more than justify the hight opinion formed of them when they were heard in the foundry by a number of interested visitors some rew weeks ago.

In connection with that visit, we mentioned the new 'slider ' that had been introduced, and Messrs, Gillett and Johnston have also mbuild in the fittings a device for preventing the chapper from re-bounding on to the bell after striking. Experts have long been looking for a successful device of this kind and Messrs. Gillett and Johnston have taken out a provisional patent.

ROMNEY MARSH GUILD. ANNUAL MEETING.

ANNUAL MEETING. The aunual meeting of the Romney Marsh and District Guild was held on Saturday week at Appledore. The following towers were represented: Ashford, Brockland, Great Chart, Kingsnorth, Lympne, Mersham, Ryc, Stone, Tentenden, Wyc, Woodchurch, and the locat band. Several touches of Graudsire Triples and Bob Major were successfully brought round before service, which was held in the church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. O. Scutt). Afterwards, 37 members sat down to tea at the Swan Hotel, presided over by the Vicar. the Vicar.

At the business meeting which followed, the Hon, Secretary (Mr. H. Balcomo) read the report for the year, showing the Guild to he in a good sound position.

The Chairman was re-elected president, Mr. H. Balcomb hon, sec., and Mr. George Billenness, who had been on service (but was not present) is to be invited to take up his old position as Master. The refiring committee was re-elected, and two new members were elected

Stone was selected as the next place of meeting, and a hearty rote of thanks was accorded to the hon, secretary for his work during the past year, and especially for the great pains he took to make the summer outing to Croydon such a great success.

The Chairman was thanked for the use of the bells, for the service in church, and for presiding at this meeting, and the Vicar suitably responded.

Some capital recitations were given by the Hon, Secretary, and song, by Messrs, F. Apps, J. Barling, W. Cook, S. Coleman, L. Hoad Gilham, A. Johnson, A. Monk, C. Noakes and C. Tribe. Messrs, F. Burt C. Player, A. Daw, G. Johnson and C. Tribe gave several touches on the bandhelie. touches on the handbells.

SURPRISE METHODS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Carter asks which, are we going to have as the Standard Surprise Method, Bristol or Superlative? The answer, of course, is neither by itself! The Method Committee had to find a definition to cover not what they thought a Surprise Method ought to be, but what the whole Exercise has agreed to call a Surprise Method, and they adopted Mr. Bankes James' definition, because u is the only one that has ever been suggested that does not at once break down when you apply it to things as they are and not to things as people fancy they should be. Of course, Mr. Carter is entitled to have his opinion on the matter, but I do not think the committee would have been well advised if they had suggested a definition which would have excluded not only Bristol but Norfolk. Brighton and Gloucester. The Exercise rings these as Surprise Methods, and, say what you like, they will continue to be called by that name. Doesn't that settle the matter?

You, Mr. Editor, talk about a court of appeal. May I suggest that we have already a court of appeal in the whole Exercise? To it ail these questions must ultimately go, and the suggestions of the Method Committee, and of any other authority, stand or fall, as they pass that test or not.—Yours, Ealing.

J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE.

MR. CARTER'S REPLY.

To the Editor Dear Sir,—In reply to the Rev. E. Bankes James, who says:— 'Will he please tell us in the first place what is his reason for doing so, and also show what advantage we are to obtain by it,' all that I have to say is that Bristol is not—a Surprise Method, as it has not interior place making at the cross section, while the treble is in front or behind, the same as in Superlative.

THE RINGING WORLD.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

The first meeting in the New Year for the Manchester Branch was held at the Cathedral, when about 50 were present from the towers in the branch and surrounding district, and the members were pleased to welcome Mr. Lane, of Loughborough, who is working in the district. There was a great call for Grandsire Caters all through the evening, sandwiched with Kent and Stedman. The business meeting was presided over by Mr. J. W. Washbrook

The business meeting was presided over by Mr. J. W. Washbrook and St. John, Deansgate, was chosen as the next place of meeting on February 21st. Three new members were elected, and a discussion on the advisability of having a branch committee with a brance president, was eventually adjourned till a later date, with the idea of getting it in working order by the commencement of the association's new year, on September 1st.

Mr. Washbrook gave his theory on how peals and touches should be struck, and advised the members, when they got one method properly, to attempt something higher. The meeting closed with the best thanks to the Cathedral authors-

The meeting closed with the best thanks to the Cathedral authoritics for the use of the bells, to the local band for having everything ready on this occasion.

PRESTON BRANCH.

A well-attended meeting of the Preston Branch was held at Chorley Parish Church on Saturday last, over 40 members putting in appearance, representing 11 towers in the branch. In the course of the afternoon's ringing everyone was given the opportunity for a pull. An adjournment was then made to the Imperial Hotel, where tea had been kindly provided by the Rector of Chorles (the Rev. Archdeacon Alten). Slight indisposition unfortunately prevented to reverend gentleman from attending, much to everyone's regret.

reverend geutleman from atteuding, much to everyone's regret. At the business meeting the Rev. J. H. Rideal (curate) presided, and in replying to a vote of thanks, remarked that that was his first appearance amongst ringers, but he was so much struck with the brotherly spirit that seemed to exist amongst them that it certainly, would not be his last.

A hearty vote of thanks was also accorded to the Rector for so generously providing tea and granting the use of the bells.

Four new members were elected, and Higher Walton was chosen as the next meeting-place, to be followed by Tarleton. The tower was again visited, and the bells kept going till 8.30, everyone voting the meeting a huge success.

The methods rung during the day were Bob Minor and Woodbine Treble Bob. Grandsire Triples, Bob Major, Kent Treble Bob, Stedman Triples, and Double Norwich.

THE FIRST 1920 DATE TOUCH.

Haslemere, Surrey, can, after all, probably claim the first 1927 date touch. It was begun at midnight, and consisted of 720 of Woodbine, 720 of Oxford and 480 of Kent Treble Bob, and, occupying 64 minities, was brought round at 1.4 a.m. on New Year's Day: r. White 1, T. Mack 2, J. Madgwick 3, E. Pressling 4, G. Goodchild 5, R. Hayes (conductor) 6, A. Wisdom tenor (covering).

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION. NORTHERN BRANCH MEETING.

On Saturday last, a splendid gathering of ringers met at St Thomas", Stoubbridge, for the first quarterly meeting of the year. After ringing during the afternoon, between 60 and 70 members atlended the choral service, which was conducted by the Vicar, one Rev. M. Stanhope Newland), assisted by his curate. A fitting address was given by the Vicar, and after service the members adjourned to the Church House, where a splendid ten was set out, between 70 and 80 sitting down.

At the lusiness meeting which followed, the Vicar presided, and Hagley was selected for the next meeting on June 19th. The quarterly peal is to be attempted at Stourbridge. Twenty-one new members were elected which shows that the branch meetings are doing good work.

On the proposition of Mr. A. E. Parsons, and seconded by Mr. W. R. Small, a very hearty vote of thanks was given to the Vicar for arranging the service; and for his very instructive address, and to the donors of the tea, and also to Mr. A. J. Skelding and the hadies who had so greatly helped to make the meeting such a success.— The Vicar, responding, said it gave him the greatest pleasure to have the meeting at Stourbridge, and he hoped to have the pleasure of their presence later on. Arising out of the address given by the Vicar, a very friendly

Arising out of the address given by the Viear, a very friendly discussion took place at the meeting with reference to the attitude of the clergy towards their ringers, and there is no doubt that a little heart to heart talk at such gatherings can be the means of clearing up any little difficulties that may arise. The discussion showed that the faults, if any, were not always on one side, and every member left the meeting with the impression that to talk such matters over could only be for the better welfare of the Exercise

The bells were kept going during the evening in the four standard methods, and also in Bristol and London Surprise. Some tunes and a course of Grandsire Caters on the hardbells brought a most successful meeting to a close.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION. ANNUAL MEETING OF BEDFORD DISTRICT.

On Saturday week, the annual meeting of the Bedford district was held at Bedford, the gathering being a most successful one, with ringers present from St. Paul's and St. Peter's, Bedford, Harrold, Sharnbrock, Biddenhan, Elstow, Claphan, Kempston, and Willington, Beds; Olney and Bletchley, Bucks; Wellingborough and Isham. Northants. Service was held at St. Peter-de-Merton Church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. E. Gilbert), who stands high in the esteem of Bedfordslive ringers. His homely address on the standard of a ringer's calling, and his warm welcome to the members as 'fellow workers, was very much appreciated. Tea was served in St. Peter's Hall, about 40 sitting down. Afterwards, the Rev. A. O. Cheney (Rector of Clapham) was voted to Tea was served in St. Peter's Hall, about 40 sitting down. Afterwards, the Rev. A. O. Cheney (Rector of ClipPian) was voted to the chair, and those present included Miss E. Steel (vice-president). Mr. E. P. Dufield (general scenetary and treasurer), Mr. H. L. Hurlow (hon. district scenetary), the Rev. J. E. Gilbert, Miss D. Steel, Messrs, C. W. Clarke, H. Sear (Bletchley), E. M. Atkins (Isham), The Vicar of St. Paul's, Bedford (Cauon J. H. Speck), was absent through indisposition, and other clergy and friends were unavoidably prevented from attending.

The committee's report was adopted, and Miss E. Steel and the General Hou. Secretary spoke of the excellent work that had been done in the past year by Mr. Harlow, as district secretary, in arranging practice meetings, and in assisting young bands in surrounding villages. Although the year does not end until Faster, eleven practice meetings had been held, all arranged by him. Twelve peals had been rung by members of the district, several ringing their first peal. The progress in several belfries was very gratifying.

The methods rung before the service and after the meeting varied from London Surprise to Doubles for the ' young hands.'

THE PEAL AT NEWCASTLE.

A peak of Stedman Cinques was arranged at Newcastle-on-Type Cathedral for four visitors from Manchester (Messrs, R. F. Deal, Amos Trippier, Harry Chapman and J. W. Washbrook, junr.), and one from Birmingham, Mr. Jas. George. The Manchester men wired at the eleventh hour that they had missed their connection at Normauton and would return home. Fortunately, a stuplits of ringers furned un, and the peak rung, but the Newcastle men regret exceedingly to have lost the pleasure of a peak with their Lancashire friends. Mr. Ferry has now rung a 5,000 on every bell in the Cathedral lower, a record he is justly proud of.

MR. C. J. BOWEN COOKE'S GIFTS.

An interesting coremony tools place at Crewe, on January 6th, when a memorial, containing the records of two peaks rung at Christ Church, was unveiled in the helfry by Sir Henry Fowler, chief mechanical engineer of the Midland Railway, and a new set of bell ropes, presented by Mr. C. J. Howen Cooke, C.B.E., chief, mechanical engineer of the L. and N.W. Railway, and Moster of the Chester Diocesan Guild, were dedicated. Mr. Bowen Cooke, who, anidst his multifarious duties, finds time to be in the first set the set of the cooke of the cooke.

Mr. Bowen Cooke, who, anidst his multifarious duties, finds line to take part in the ringing at the parish church, introduced Sir Henry Fowler, and said the tablet commemorated two peals rung during his office as mayor of the borough. One peal was rung simultaneously with the service held in St. Paul's Cathedral in honour of the fallen railwaymen. The ringers present were all railwaymen, and they were glad to be able to pay tribute to their fallen comrades. For that peal they reproduced on the tablet the great bell at St. Paul's Cathedral, which weighed approximately seventeen tons. The tablet also recorded the peal that was rung to commemorate the conclusion of the war. Thus the tablet had a kind of threefold connection—with the way the town, and the time during which he was honoured to be Masler of the Guild.

Sir Henry Fowler said he was delighted to know that they not sir Henry Fowler said he was delighted to know that they not commemorated the work that had been dono-the work of sorrow, sadness and rejoicing. They were fortunate in having Mr. Bowen Cooke as Master of the Guild, and the ringers were very proud af the interest ho was taking in bell ringing. In ringing the bells they were doing a great service to the church. They were rung to spread news and to express sorrow and rejoicing. He had great pleasure in unveiling the tablet, and trusted it would be looked upon as an undying memorial of those events which were inscribed on it (applause).

phause). The Vicar (the Rev. W. Bidiake) said the bell ringers of Grewe were recognised as church workers, just as much as any official of the church (hear, hear). They were fortunate in having Mr. Bowen Cooke's great interest in that belfry. He had done a great deal to keeping the men together and to promote contradeship (hear, hear). He proposed a vote of thanks to Sir Henry.—This was seeonded by Mr. R. T. Holding, and tributes to Mr. Bowen Cooke's interest in the belfry were also paid by Ald. G. P. Wooldridge (warden) and Major J. N. Jackson, and acknowledged by Mr. Cooke. Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Bob Royal were there were and attempting the whole accurate median for Henry.

Teuches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Bob Royal wer: then rung, and afterwards the whole company, including Sir Henn Fowler, the Vicar, churchwardene and ringers, were the guests of Mr. Bowen Cooke at Chester Place. The memorial, which is the gift of Mr. Bowen Cooke, records the two peaks of Grandsira Caters rung in the tower during Mr. Cooke's Mayoralty—one on May 14th 1919, with the bells muffled in memory of fallen railwaymen, simultaneously with the memorial service in St. Paul's Cathedral, and the other a Fence Peak, on All Saints' Day, November 1st, 1919.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSOCIATION. YEAR'S WORK IN WOTTON BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Wotton-under-Edge and District Branch was held at Wotton-under-Edge, upwards of 30 members attendin from the following towers: Berkeley, Dunley, Thornbury, Wotton, Stone, Nibley, and Wickwar. Some very good practice was put in during the afternoon and evening. A special service was held, the Rev. F. C. Black officiating, in the absence of the Vicar (the Rev. F. J. Greenham), who was ill. Tea was partaken in the Parish Room through the great kindness of the Vicar.

Hev. F. C. Black officiating, in the absence of the vicar (the new, F. J. Greenham), who was ill. Tea was partaken in the Parish Room through the great kindness of the Vicar. At the business meeting which followed, the Secretary read a short report of the year's work, which showed that twelve meetings had been held, with an average attendance of twenty at each meeting. Two honorary and 24 performing members had joined during the Seat, the total number of the branch now being 60 performing and nine honorary members.

The balance sheet was passed as satisfactory.-Mr. H. W. Fussen (chairman) expressed a wish to resign, but the members would not hear of it, and he was re-elected, as was Mr. W. A. Lewis (branch hen secretary), several members testifying to his abilities and good work for the association during the past five years.

Mr. A. Burcombe was re-appointed representative on the management Committee, and Mr. F. Oakhill was elected vice-chairman, in the place of Mr. G. Sheppard. It was proposed to hold the next meeting at Yate, on January 31st. Five now members from Wolton were elected.

Were elected. Mr. F. R. Howell voiced thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and for the excellent len provided, also expressing the hope that he would soon be restored to health again. Mr. Howell also thanked the nurchwardens (Messrs, II, Ford and E. L. Webber) for their attendance and interest.—Thanks were also due to Mr. R. Marmont for his services at the organ, and to the local band who had worked so hard to make the meeting' such a success.

THE PRACTICE OF HIGHER METHODS

In an address to members of the Oxford Guild at a meeting of the Sonning Deanery Branch the Master (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) gave some very sound advice, which might be taken to heart by ringers outside as well as inside the Oxford Diocesan Guild. There is no one in the Exercise more respected than the Master of the Oxford Guild, and advice from him, matured by experience, carries weight through all sections of the ringing community. One point upon which the Rev. Cecil Jenkyn touched may well be emphasised, and that is the need for greater endeavour to achieve the ringing of the higher methods. It is not a new question; but it is just as necessary that it should be kept in the forefront of ringing policy now as it ever was. The last three or four decades have seen an immense advance in the standard of the methods generally practised. Thirty years or so ago the ringers who aspired to Surprise ringing formed a very limited circle; to-day there are numerous bands throughout the country, and a Surprise peal is not looked upon as an extraordinary performance, unless the attendant circumstances are exceptional. Yet, when the growth of change ringing is considered, it is doubtful if the practice of the higher methods has grown as much as it ought to have done in comparison. Leaving out of the question change ringing in the more difficult methods on more than eight bells, which is restricted more particularly by the facilities which a man has for practising on the higher numbers, there ought to be no limitation to the aspirations which a change ringer should have to rise from one stage to another. Unfortunately too many are content to be satisfied with ringing the plain methods, or, at the outside, what are known as the four standard methods. But these are only the bottom rungs of the ladder, which should serve as steps on the way to higher achievements.

Encouragement will go a long way towards increasing the practice of the higher methods, and generally speaking the enthusiast in ringing will seek out his own opportunities for advancement. More, however, might be done by the ringing organisations. They send out instructors to teach the rudiments of change ringing; but why should not competent ringers be sent out to instruct bands in methods something higher than Grandsire or Plain Bob? A good many who have already attained to skill in ringing advanced methods may be inclined to say that those who want to learn should do as others before them have done teach themselves. That, however, should not be the policy of the present day; and if at the moment no other course is open, more might be done on the lines of the Oxford Guild, who have arranged combined practices for Surprise methods. Thirteen peals had been rung by members of the branch. Thirty-three members had served during the war, and of these five had given up their lives—W. Fudge and S. Phillips, of St. Many's, Taunton, were killed in France; F. Norman, of Milverton, died in Salonika; H. Webber, Bishop's Hull; and W. Weaver, Truit, died in Ludia. JOHN TAYLOR &

HE LEADING BELLFOUNDERS

LOUGHBOROUGH.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

What wonderful things some of our young men can do! Here is an example: Leave Birmingham on Wednesday night, ring the 11th in a peal at Newcastle-on-Tyne on Thursday, return on Thursday night, reach Birmingham on Friday, stand in an attempt for a peal at Bow, Cheapside, on Saturday, and once again in Birmingham the same night! This was the New Year record of that increasingly youthful ringer-Mr. James George, at the age of 66.

Loughborough has decided by a plebiseite upon the erection, as an eloquent memorial to her fallen fighting men, of a tower to contain a carillon of 45 bells, the largest weighing 3 tons. It will be the finest carillon in the British Isles, and will be provided by the famous Loughborough foundry,

Mr. Harry Mason, the Master of the Dudley and District Guild, has left Stourdell, Old Hill, Staffs, and removed to 15, Tregenver Hoad, Falmouth, where he has gone to reside for the benefit of his wife's health.

By an error the peal rung at Beeston, on December 27th, was credited to the Middlesex Association. It should have been the Midland Counties.

This year is the 350th of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry-the oldest business in London, and probably in England. Since the Armistice this ancient foundry has been employed upon a good deal of London work, in addition to contracts in the provinces. The augmentation of Westminster Abbey bells and the restonation of St. Clement Danes, are two important undertakings which have been completed; All Hallows, Tottenham; St. Mary's, Bow, E. and St. Thomas', Brentwood, are now in hand, and St. Andrew's, Holborn, will shortly be commenced.

WATFORD'S NEW BELLS. THE REOPENING.

Some 80 to 103 ringers from all parts of Hertfordshire and the Metropolis attended the reopening of St. Mary's bells Watford, on Saturday, 17th January, as already briefy announced in these columns. The proceedings commenced with service in the church at three o'clock, by which time there was a full attendance. The service took the form of shortened evensong, with special dedicatory prayers by the Very Rev. the Archdeacon of St. Albans, who also preached from the fext. Wes unto me if I preach not the gospel. The preacher dwelt on the unusual inscription which was on the old treble bell, and which had been roproduced on the new bell and suggested that the use of the word 'subscribers' was due to the irreligious cond-tion of the country which obtained about the middle of the 1... A few rounds were rung immediately the dedication was complete, and subsequently the bells were rung to various methods from Grand-sire Triples to London Surprise. The elergy and ringers were enter-tained to tea in St. Mary's Church House, the visitors being cor-dially welcomed by the Vicar (the Rev. Cecil F. Ayerst), who is presi-dent of the Hertford County Association, and is also a ringer. He took part in several touches during the evening. The general opinion ex-pressed by all the ringers present and others was that the founders Saturday, 17th January, as already briefly announced in these columns.

part in several touches during the evening. The general opinion ex-pressed by all the ringers present and others was that the founders (Messrs. Gillett and Johnston) had succeeded in casting a beautiful peal, which, heard from a distance, added still more to their charm. The ringers desire to express their appreciation of the Viear's gener-ous invitation, and the lavish hospitality meted to them. The oc-casion was a very happy reunion, carrying many of those present back in thought to days long ago when they were flushed with the enthusiasm of youth. The following is taken from the tablet which is exhibited in the ringing room: exhibited in the ringing room :-

The eight bells in this tower were recast, tuned on the five-harmonic principle, and rehung in a now steel and iron frame, and supplied with new ringing fittings throughout, January, 1920.

COURT OF APPEAL.

To the Editor. Sir .- The proposal to establish a Ringers' Court of Appeal to review the work of our technical experts is faced by a practical diffi-culty which appears to be insuperable. The members of the legal Court of Appeal are normally chosen from the most learned of judges of the King's Bench. When the Central Council appointed its Legitimate Methods Committee it naturally selected those who were re-garded as having the greatest expert knowledge in the Exercise. It the Central Council made a wise selection then, the Court of Appear to be appointed now would but consist of the old committee under another name. On the other hand, if the Legitimate Methods Committee no longer possesses the confidence of the Exercise, the remedy is sufficiently obvious.

is sufficiently obvions. I do not think that even Mr. Trollope goes quite far enough. The real Court of Appeal does not consist of the members of the Exer-cise at any particular time, as the verdict of history can alone de-cide where the truth lies. When the present definitions were drawn up, Woodbine and Violet were very popular methods; now they are dying, if not dead. The reason is not that the members of the Exer-size are obviour children doiny what they are told by the Leavedring, if not dead. The reason is not that the members of the beet rise are obedient children doing what they are told by the Legi-mute Methods Committee; something better has been found to re-place these methods. If ringers generally would regard the published decisions of committees of the Central Council not as arbitrary mactments, but as an intelligent anticipation of the probable trend of events, a good deal of opposition to these decisions might be avoided. and much disappointment might be saved many bands who spend time practising methods which they eventually abandon as unsatisfactory.

Taking as an example your reference to the lead ends controversy. it appears evident that unless the history of the future is to negative that of the past methods with 'illegitimate,' lead end, have no prospect of permanent survival. The reason, of course, is not that they are banned by the Central Council, but simply that ringers find them unsatisfactory in practice.-Yours, ctc., Holbeton Vicarage, Plymouth.

E, S. POWELL.

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD SOCIETY. MEMBERS' PRESENTATION TO OLERICAL SECRETARY.

A quarterly meeting was held at Christ Church, West Bromwich on Saturday week. It was originally arranged to take place at Woor Green, but through the indisposition of the Vicar other arrangements had to be made. Various methods were rung on the bells hearts had to be made. Various methods were rung on the bens during the afternoon and evening, including Superlative and Can-bridge Surprise Major; also some rounds on the twelve in which Miss Reeves (the local ' sexton ') took part. The Rev. W. Solly, Vicar of St. Philip's, West Bromwich, delivered a helpful address, and also informed his hearers that he remembered a few faces before him members are presented to the second who wore present at the same church when he was privileged to ad-dress a similar assembly some 28 years carlier. He missed one notable figure, he said, who was at the earlier meeting, and that was the late Mr. Samuel Reeves, who had acted as hou. lay secretary for t considerable number of years. He exherted the young members to follow in their footsteps, and to try and carry on stedfastly in their duty as Churchmen.

Tea was provided in the Parish Room, and after the company were scatted at the tables, Mr. Wm. Rock Small, the senior member, was asked to make a presentation to the Roy. C. H. Barker, L.Th. (hor, clerical scenetary and treasurer), on the occasion of his recent marrange. This he did in a humorous style, accompanied with a little fatherly advice, wishing the newly-married couple long life and much happiness, with the hope that they would live to celebrate their golden wedding as he and his partner did a few years ago. The present consisted of a packet of Treasury notes, subscribed by

In responding, the Rev. C. H. Barker, on behalf of himself and his wife, most heartily thanked the members for the gift and an-nounced that when they went to their new home they would be best able to choose how to spend the money they had received. The Rev. W. Solly made a few kind remarks, and expressed has good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Barker.

Mr. J. Bradney moved a vote of thanks to the Vicar (the Rev. B. Nicholas) for the use of the church and bells, to the Rev. W. Solly for his kindly address, and to the ladies who had catered for the tea. This was carried with acclamation. The next meeting is provisionally arranged to take place at St.

Peter's, Welverhampton, on April 17th.

DEATH OF LINCOLNSHIRE RINGER.

On December 31st there passed away at his home at Barkston, after a short illness, one of the oldest members of the Southern Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, Mr. Thomas Watson, who had been a member of the St. Nicholas' Society for over 30 years, and was always a regular attendant at service ringing.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM. THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held at the St. Martin's Hotel on January 20th, when the chair was taken by the presiding Ringing Master, Mr. Alderman, J. S. Pritchett, M.A.

The officers were re-elected en bloc, and a hearty vote of thanks accorded to them for past services.

The Secretary having reported that a room had been secured at the Imperial Hotel for Saturday, March 27th, is was agreed to hold the Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinner on Teat date, and an announcement to that effect will appear in due course.

Soveral new members were clocted, among them, on the chairman's proposition, being Mr. Jack Withers, junr., of Northfuld, of whom the chairman remarked he was the most promising boy he had seen for years, and although he had only recently commenced to learn he could already ring an inside bell to several methods. He (Mr. Pritchelt) thought he would in all probability turn out another barber. This is not to be construed as a prophecy that he would develop and au 'Artist in Hair,' but is a reference to a gentleman well known in the Birmingham district, but whose present address is ' somewhere in the North of England,' Durham and Newcastle papers please copy year's working, which is to be refarded as satisfactory in these times. Ringing was indulged in on the tower bells prior to the meeting, among those present being the Rev. — Wilkinson, of Mansfield, Notts, a frequent and welcome visitor to the tower of St. Martin's, who also attended the business meeting later. The only unfortunate thing in connection with this gentleman, said the chairman, was the fact thet he was 'Mr. Wilkinson, of Mansfield,' instead of 'Mr. Wilkinson, of Birmingham,' with which remark the reverend gentlman was understood to agree. Mansfeld papers please don't copy. The Master of the Worcester Association, Mr. Albert Parsons, wa-also of the company, and pleaded eloquently for subscriptions towards the cost of erecting the momorial window in the closters of Wor-coster Cathedral, and his appeal did not entirely fall on stony ground of among thorns.

The Tipton vetoran Mr. Wm. Rock Small, helped the matter for-ward in his usual breezy manner, and the Chairman heartily com-mended it to the consideration of all present. Letters will find Mr Parsons, if addressed to --eauty Bank, Old Hill, Staffs.

Routine business being disposed of, the Chairman said he thought it would be the wish of the members to place on record their appresiation of the efforts of Mr. George in connection with the test-monial to the Editor of the 'Ringing World,' and he therefore proposed ' that the members of the Guild heartily congratulate Mr. Jas. George upon the great success of his indefitigable exertions in ton-nection with the Goldsmith Testimonial. —This was seconded by M^{*}. Godden, and, needless to say, carried nem. con. The honour was duly acknowledged by the gentleman hereinbefore mentioned, and it is beyond all argument that it would be a weary wicked world if absolutely every flower were born to blush unseen,

DEATH OF DARLEY DALE RINGER.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Thomas White a member of the band at St. Helen's Church, Darley Dale, Derbyshire. Mr. White rang his 51st peal at Darley Dale as recently as New Year's Eve, and was at his work as usual on the 14th instant. - He was taken ill about midnight, was sent to Derby Infirmary on Thursday evening, the 15th, but died a short time after his arrival there. His death is a terrible shock to all who knew him, He was well known in ringing circles throughout the county, both as a splendid ringer and for his pleasant personality. It was largely owing to his keen interest that the first peal of Double Norwich by the local hand was interest that the first peal of Double Norwich by the local hand was rung at Darley Dale on New Yoar's Eve. After the funeral, on January 29th, a course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the grave by J. L. Wright, A. C. Wright, W. Taylor and J. Siddali, junr., and this was followed by a peal on the tower bells. A card on one of the many wreaths expressed the appreciation of all who knew Tommy that 'he was a man.'

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

A quarterly meeting of the Warwickshire Guild was held at Rugty A quarterly meeting of the Warwickshire Guild was held at Rugly on Saturday week, and was well attended, members being present from Allesley, Birmingham, Coventry, Nuncaton, Northampton and Rugby. Ringing took place during the afternoon, and at the business meeting after tea, the Ringing Master (Mr. A. Roberts) presided. It was decided to held the next quarterly meeting at Warwick, and also to hold monthly meetings in February and March. A vote of thanks was accorded to the late Master for his services to the Guild to which Mr. James teorge responded.—Mr. Roberts theo

January 30th, 1920.

THE CROYDON BELL FOUNDRY 1920.

NEW BELLS AT HITCHAM, BUCKS.

A MINIATURE PEAL.

A MINIATURE PEAL. An addition to the church bells of Backs has recently been made at Hitcham, through the generosity of Col. L. H. Hanbury, C.M.G. of Hitcham Grange, and the parish church of St. Many new possesses a really wonderful peal of six miniature bells, fitted with modern iron frame and fittings complete for proper ringing. The gift also in cludes a 7th bell which is used as a 'Sanctus,' and was pealed by Mrs. L. H. Hanbury in the course of the dedication services. The small tower in which those bells huns was always considered too weak for a 'peal ' of bells, but the 20th century art of the Eng-lish bell founder and bell hanger has overcome all obstacles, and musical and practical ring can here be heard without danger to the ancient fabric. The weights of the respective noises are as follows:— ewt. gr. lb. evt. qr. lb.

Treble			19 G	4	4	1	5	D

Their casting and hanging is most creditable to the contractors, Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, of London, who went to much pains to ensure success, and designed a new set of cones and ropes specially for this peal, which are destined to become a standard mould for future similar orders.

future similar orders. The Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Buckingham performed the dedica-tion ceremony, assisted by the Rector (the Rev. Harold I. Wilson, M.A.), before a crowded congregation, numerous chairs having to be provided for extra seating accommodation. This Lordship climbed -a difficult ladder to bless the bells, and after holy dedicatory prayers. handed them over to the care of the Rector and churchwardens by passing over the six ropes (duly tied together) just as they were received at the hands of the donor in the ringing room, which is on the ground floor, and open to the nave of the church. A very pretty effect was produced by the rays of the setting sun shining through the west window, the six salies of red, white and blue tuffing hanging round the old stone font in the centre of use tower; the white-robed clergy; and the ringers stripped for their task tower; the white-robed clergy; and the ringers stripped for their task standing by, with the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn (Master of the Oxford Diocesan Guild of C.B.R.) and Col. Hanbury on either side of the stone archway.

Whilst the procession made its way back to the chancel a non-conducted six-score of Grandsire Doubles was performed by Messrs. Alkier, Parker, Fussell, Martin, Henley and Welling, the same band in the same order also finging a 720 of Kent Treble Bob Minor at the conclusion of service. An appropriate homely address was given by the Bishop, who referred to bells and their use and value, and the symbol of Christianity they embody. Mrs. and Miss Hanbury had thoughtfully provided tea for those ringers who had come a long journey, which was much appreciated

on a stormy day. The tower was afterwards again visited, and touches of Bob Minor and Stedman Doubles rung, in which Messrs. A. A. Hughes (White-chapel Bell Foundry), the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn, M.A., and Mr. D. Smith took part, the first named representing the bell founders. An excellent 720 Oxford Bob Minor was rung for the evening service by Messrs. Macdonald, Parker, Welling, Martin, Fussell and Henley (and details). (conductor).

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

POSITION OF THE NORTHERN DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of the Northern District was held at St Anne's, Highgate, on Saturday week, but was not so well supported as it should have been. The bells were kept going, however, giving the beginners a good drilling in Grandsire and Stedman. At the business meeting held subsequently in the Church Vestry, two new members were elected, viz.: Mr. A. Howell, of Dalston, and Mr. E. G. Hibble, of Hornsey.

and Mr. D. G. Hibble, of Hornsey. All the outgoing officers were prevailed upon to carry on for the ensuing twelve months, it being the view of the members present that a fair chance had not been given them to organise the district, their term of office expiring so closely upon cessation of hostilitres. The officers on the other hand, strongly expressed their opinion that success could only be attained by support: and it is hoped that mem-bers will bear this in mind when future meetings occur.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

A successful meeting of the Southern Branch of the Lincoln Guild was held at Grantham on Saturday week, when 50 ringers were present. During the afternoon and evening, the touches attempted included Grandsire Triples and Caters, Stedman Triples and Caters. Kent Major and Royal, and Bob Royal.

Kent Major and Royal, and Bob Hoyal. At the business meeting, the Vicar of Grantham (Ganon Hancock) occupied the chair, supported by the Rev. II. Law James and - e Rev. C. J. Sturton (Vicar of Orston). It was decided to hold a meeting at Peterborough on Saturday, July 3rd.—On the proposition of the Rev. II. Law James, a hearly voto of thanks was accorded to the Vicar of Grantham for the use of holds the service, and for meeting at the meeting of bells, the service, and for presiding at the meeting.

CHANGE RINGING AND PUBLICITY.

Change ringing, so little understood by the general public, received a generous appreciation last week through a leading article in the 'Morning Post.' In another column we quote what this influential daily paper had to say concerning our art, and our readers will observe that the treatment of the subject, while picturesque, was nevertheless written by, at all events, a sympathetic spirit. It is some years since any similar article appeared in any equally important journal; but one recalls the very valuable contributions which have appeared in the public Press from time to time from the gifted pen of Canon Papillon. Such articles must, in themselves, work for the advance of change ringing, because they educate public opinion, and, as we have always argued, the enlightenment of the lay mind is, in our view, one of the best methods of safeguarding the interests of the art. As we can interest a wider public than the mere ranks of those actually within the Exercise, so we gain a stronger foothold, and it ought to be the aim of every Association to enlist the sympathies and interest of the public as widely as possible. By its action in extending the scope of reference of the Literature Committee, the Central Council at the Gloucester meeting took a wise step, but there is a much wider field yet for its work in organising an educative campaign, which should be carried outside the limit of the ringing circle. In conjunction with the various Associations, much valuable work might be done among the public by means of lectures and so forth, as well as by instructive Press propaganda, and we hope to see, at no distant date, some scheme on well organised lines for giving effect to this. It could well form part of a greater scheme, which might include lectures of a more technical kind for the special benefit of ringers, for there is not one of us who could not learn something to improve his knowledge of the art from thoughtfully prepared papers by some of those men among us who, admittedly, have a deeper insight into our inexhaustible science than has the average ringer.

Such a scheme of educational propaganda may seem to some a trifle too advanced, but it could be reached, and reached effectively, if those who are in the position to do so were to take advantage of their position. It needs the Central Council as the mainspring, with the affiliated Associations acting in their respective areas, but it is a scheme which requires thoughtful preparation and unity of action. Upon the value of such propaganda work we need not here dwell, except to say that one of the first advantages of educating the public more widely than at present would be to demonstrate that church bell ringing is not a practice which is carried on on suffrance, but that it is established by immemorial right as part of the duties required by the church service.

NORTH AND EAST DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING. Between 50 and 50 members attended the annual meeting of the North and East District on Saturday, at Christ Church, Southgate, when from 3 o'clock onwards, except during the interval for service, tea, and business, the fine peal of bells was kept going to a variety of methods ranging from Grandsiro Triples to London and Bristol Surprise.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Prof. R. de Goey-Hampsen, who gave a very interesting address on the duties of ringers to-wards the church, whilst the singing, led by the choir, was accom-panied by the organist, Mr. P. Bigg, himself a member of the South-panied by the organist, Mr. P. Bigg, himself a member of the South-gate band and of the association. Following tea at the Cherry Tree hotel, the business meeting was held, and the members were welcomed by the President (Mr. A. T. King, I.S.O.), who was supported by the Rev. R. de G. Hampson, Mr. C. E. Barker, Mr. F. A. Milne, J.P. (hon. treasurer), Mr. J. Armstrong (Master), Mr. W. H. Oram, etc.—The Hon. Secretary (Mr. C. W. War Loan stock so that the financial condition could be considered as War Loan slock, so that the infancial condition could be considered as satisfactory.—The balance sheet was passed subject to audit, and a short statement was made by the hon, secretary on the work of the district during the past year. As far as he could judge, said Mr. Coles, the district was quickly recovering from its war-time losses. Most of the bands had been reformed, and although it had not been possible, during the short period that had elapsed since his own re-turn the model around not be thereaft he could be as that turn, to go over the whole ground, yet he thought he could say that they were well on the way to a complete recovery of all they had lost during the war. In 1919 there had been elected one honorary and a ringing members, whilst three members had been lost by death. There had been a considerable number of lapses of membership through nonpayment of subscription, and they would probably find their membership about the same as at the end of the previous year.

The whole of the retiring officers were re-elected, and the presi-dent thanked the hon, secretary (pro tem.), Mr. W. H. Oram, whose services during the last three years had been of such value to the society.

Nineteen new members were then elected, including the Rev. R. de Goey-Hampson and Mr. C. E. Barker, both of Southgate as honorary members.

A vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the Vicar (the Rev. C. F. Poploe) for the use of the oells, and to all those who had contributed to the success of the meeting.

The handbells were brought into use immediately after tea, when a 'bob course ' of Stedman Cinques was rung by Messre, J. B. Wil-liamson, J. Thomas, W. Pye, G. R. Pye, W. Hewett, and G. M. Kilby.

DEATH OF A NORTHANTS RINGER.

The Central Northauts Association has lost an enthusiastic member, and the Higham Forrers band a loyal colleague, by the death of Mr. Arthur Chapman, who has passed away at the age of 39 years, after nine weeks' illness, leaving a widow and two children to mourn their loss. The decased had been a river for about 20 years, end range loss. The deceased had been a ringer for about 20 years, and rang his first peal (Grandsire Triples) at Higham Forrers on Oct. 19th, his first peal (Grandsire Triples) at Higham Ferrers on Oct. 19th, 1901. His best peal was at Cardington, Beds, on August 23rd, 1913, when he rang the treble to a perfect peal of Cambridge Surprise Major, which was rung from start to fitish without a trip. Deceased's last peal was at Higham Ferrers, on February 19th, a half-muffled peal of Grandsire Triples, for the late Mr. J. B. Martin. The funeral took place at Higham Ferrers Cemetery, when the local rivers who sant a wrasth wave argumented by Mean Bart

The function took place at trigging regress centerry, when the local ringers, who sent a wreath, were represented by Messys. Ran-dall, Everett, Garrett and Sweathers. SURPRISE METHODS.

SUPERLATIVE'S ' GAUDY OUTSIDE.'

To the Editor. Dear Sir,-Since Mr. Carter will not answor my questions I turn to the Appeal Court: the Exercise at large.

to the Appeal Court: the Exercise at large. First, then, let me try and make it quite clear to them what a cross section is. For this purpose we will place the chart of a treble bob method upon the map of England and we will choose the South Coast. The treble dodges in 1-2 in Hampshire, it then crosses the county boundary—a cross section, and dodges in 3-4 in Dorset, another cross-section, and we dodge 5-6 in Devon, and after the third cross section we dodge 7-8 up in Cornwall. We now make a place and dodge 7-8 down, but we are still in Cornwall. We have not had any cross section, we have crossed no county boundary, and if we irry to cross the boundary at the Land's End we shall be at sea, as we all shall be if we follow Mr. Carter's lead.

I am sorry that I cannot myself answer the two questions that a put to Mr. Carter. In the first place I cannot imagine why he wishes to change the definition, nor can I think of any single advantage that we should get by doing so. Perhaps, then, I had better tell the Exercise why I do not want it changed.

If we are to follow Mr. Carter's rule, we can take Superlative and leave out screnth's place, and we have a variation which is nearer to Superlative than any other method can be, but one is to be classed as a Surprise Method, and the other is not. If I take Bob Major and put in another place, 7ths, when the trable lies behind, we have Double Bob. Are we to have different classes for these two methods? Now, to be logical, if we are to have methods in different classes for these small differences, we must have different classes for any greater differences; and so in the end we shall have as many classes as there are methods, which hardly seems to me to be an advantage.

Again, in the Central Council's collection of six-bell methods there are forty-one Surprise Methods, all of which have been practised and, as far as I know, approved of by the six bell ringers.

If we are to follow Mr. Carter, twenty-one of these will cause to be Surprise Methods. The collection will have to be reprinted. Again I ask why? And again I shall receive no answer!

In conclusion, let me make an assertion: I do not see why all the asserting is to be on one side.

Bristol Surprise is Bristol Surprise, and it will be known at Bristol Surprise, and rung as Bristol Surprise when Superlative is resting in elernal silence.

For Superlative is like the shows at a fair; all the attraction is on the outside, but when you lift the tent door and look inside what do you full? A divty nigger, perhaps, in a pair of cotton drawers and some wicked-looking boxing gloves, with which he is quite ready to damage your countenance.

Are you aware in Superlative that the seventh only comes up behind with the tenor for ten rows in the plain course and the sixtthe same? All the rest of the time the tenor is dodging with the fourth and fifth, and better nutsic you cannot have. The plain course is the gaudy outside of the Superlative show, but as soon as you call a few bobs to get a peal, up comes the second like the devil at prayers and puts an end to the golden dream. Don't tell me of your twelve courses with the sixth at home, it is only 120 rows that she us behind with the tenor in the whole lot of them. Cambridge, which only allows five courses of Bristol we can get 576 rows. And in the best peals of Superlative the second will be up behind with the tenor for 168 rows, while Charlie Middleton's peal of Cambridge puts it to shame with only 72, and any respectable peal of Bristol will be content with 0. Superlative has had its day, it is time to strip off its gaudy covering and show the nasty nigger inside.—Yours faithfully, E, BANKES JAMES.

A PEACE PEAL AT RANMOOR, SHEFFIELD.

A well-struck peak of Grandsire Triples was rung on the bells of Rammoor Church, Sheffield, on January 17th, in commemoration of the ratification of the Treaty of Peace with Germany, which occurred a few days earlier. The peak was notable in several respects. It was the first neace peak rung in the City of Sheffield, and, being the first peak (rung at the first attempt) by the Vicar of Rammoor (the Rev. J. R. Lee Nicholls), it is the first time in the Diocese of Sheffield that

At the conclusion of the peat time in the booses of bis own church, an incumbent has taken part in a peal on the bells of his own church. At the conclusion of the peat, the View received the hearty congratulations of the band on his performance and on his excellent handling of his bell, and he responded by inviting those present to join him in a substantial test at the Viewage, which was greatly ap-Deviated, and to which full justice was done.

Preciated, and to which full justice was done. It may be added that the bank was appropriately chosen, the two members from the Cathedral being ex-Raumoor ringers (the conductor, Mr. Sam Thomas, having taught soveral of these present the art of change ringing), and the ringer of the 6th coming from All Shinis', Pitsmoor, where Mr. Nichells formerly held a curacy, and where he first learnt to handle a bell.

The Church anthorities intend to record the peal, by placing a suitably inscribed peal board in the ringing chamber at an early date.

THE LAUGHTER OF MUSIC.

Under this heading, the 'Morning Post,' which not many days proviously had published a long article upon carillons, printed a leader upon bells. It is a step forward when a newspaper of the importance and influence of the 'Morning Post,' gives editorial prominence to such views as are expressed in the following:--

' Change ringing has been called the laughter of music. But it is much more than that to all of us. It decorates the fleeting time with arabesqueries of coloured sound, which form a fitting accompaniment to the emotions, he they joyous or sorrowful, of those that hear it. The soul-compelling powers of hells, it is true, have been minished since the waning of the Middle Ages, the great age of Christianity when Earth seemed the ante-chamber of Heaven and the strait gates of mortality stood always ujar. We no longer believe that the music of bells laughs to scorn and drives away the blue malignant mists which brood over a plague-smitten land. And, since we cannot believe in it, so salutary a miracle is now impossible. But, we cannot believe in it, so salutary a miracle is now impossible. But, in the countries of the vine, at any rate, there are many simple. Christian folk who are sure that the clangour of great bells will break and dissipate a storm of lightnung and pelting hall more effectively than the wide-mouthed noise-guns invented for the same purpose. Yet the love of change ringing, which caused England to be called ' the Ringing Isle ' in a bygone century, is still quick in' the hearts of Englishmen. Therefore, we wish good fortune to all the frateonities of bell ringers, both great and small, who ply their long-descended eraft—a noble athletic pursuit indeed!—in immumerable helfrics, and have the art always to turn a holiday into a bely day. beliries, and have the art always to turn a holizlay into a holy day. During the war women often took the places of the ringers who had some to the war, and many of them attained such skill that they still keep their place in the aerial choirs. Change ringing will dous-less remain the Englishman's favourite form of music in the heavens, for he is still the most conservative of racial types in all matters that appeal to that giant heart of memories and toars and laughter which subtle art of bell music will be cultivated in this country—the art of the keyboard earillon, which enables the artist to interpret noble compositions for the largest and loftiest of instruments and is a heritage of the people in Belgium and Holland. So that it is good tidings to know that a tower is to be built and a fine keyboard carillon installed therein at Loughborough as a War Memorial to the fallen townsmen."

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION. A QUARTERLY MEETING.

The third quarterly meeting of the Midland Counties Association was hold on Saturday, January 17th, at North Wingfield, Derbyshire, when members from Nottingham. Derby, Duffield, Leicester, Clusterfield, Loughboro', and the surrounding neighbourhood, put m an appearance. The bells of the parish church—itself a landmark for a considerable distance—were kept going in various meethods, from Grandsire to London, that doughty warrior, John Flint, being mainly responsible. Tea was served in the schoolroom adjoining, when 31 sat down to an excellent ' uncontrolled ' repast, and were excellently waited on by ladies, who, although 1920 is Leap Year, had evidently not got into their stride (in sporting parlance), and whose gracious medesty made gastronomical exertion both a pleasure and a delight.

The business meeting followed, Ald. R. B. Chambers, vice-president, occupying the chair. Matters of a purely routine character were dealt with, but notice of motion for alteration of rules were given, viz.: To raise the entrance foe to 3s, and the yearly subscription to 1s, 6d., instead of £s. 6d. and 1s, as formerly, and to provide for a vice-president in each of the seven districts,"

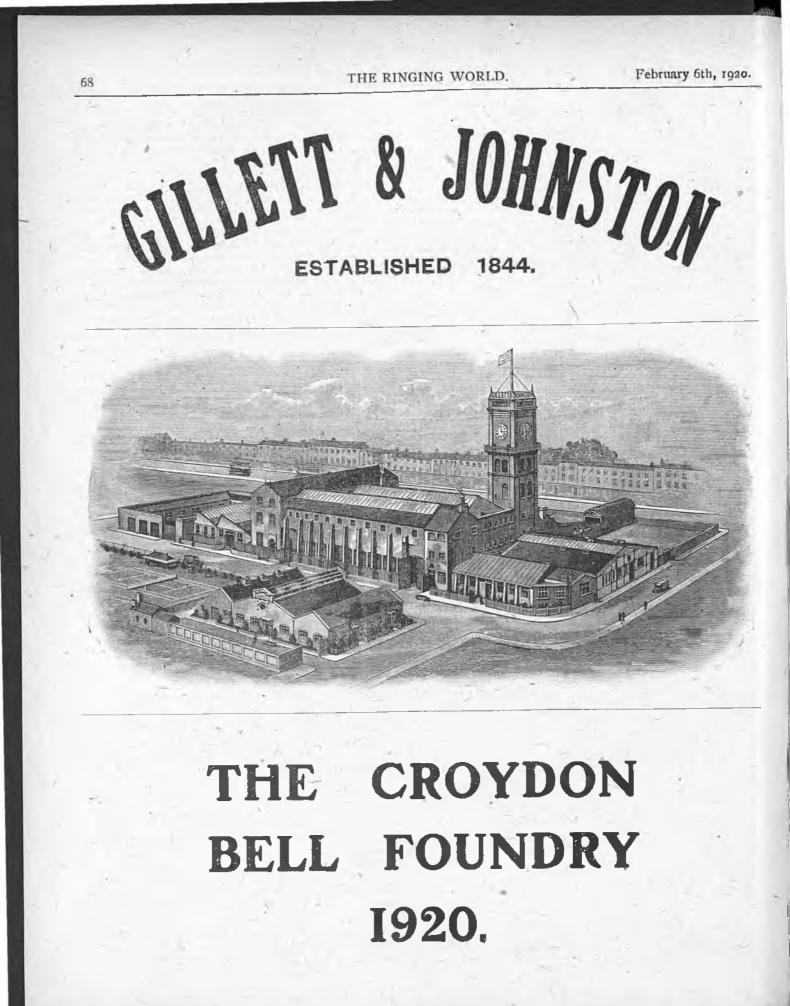

18. Out, instead of its, out and its, as formerly, and to provide for a vice-president in each of the seven districts? The Hon, Secretary (Mr. A. C. Wright) read the minutes of the special committee meeting held at Derby, at which it was resolved to produce a report for the war period, 1915-1919. Commenting upon Central Council criticisms, the Chairman remarked that with new blood and new ideas no doubt the Council could be got back into its former state of efficiency.

former state of enciency. The Hon, Treasurer, Mr. W. Willson, said that he thought one or two delegates would be quite sufficient to represent the Association. In fact, he had come to the conclusion that the day of the Council's usefulness was over. That there was little the Council could do that the Association could not do for themselves. In this he was in agreeuent with Mr. Arthur Knights.

It may be mentioned that it is probable that the strength of the membership will not call for four delegates as formerly.

About 20 ringing and honorary members were made the Derby district coming out quite ' top of the poll ' in this respect.

A hearty vote of thanks to the chairman for his respect. A hearty vote of thanks to the chairman for his presence, to the local company for their arrangements, and to the Vicear for the use of the bells, brought a successful meeting all too soon to a close, when those who could afford to laugh at railway companies elimbed one more to the ringing room, in which time the unlucky ones ran to eatch their train.

THE OXFORD GUILD.

INTER-BRANCH MEETING.

An inter-branch gathering of members of the Sonning Deanery and the E. Berks and S. Bucks branches of the Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Warfield, when a successful afternoon's muster took place, held at warnew, with a successful architection is inflated book proceed-about 45 hands taking part in the ringing, service, and toa. Proceed-ings began with the ropes at 3 p.m., with Doubles and Minor, and ended with Stedman and Major methods at 9 p.m.; several 'young hands venturing upon the most difficult task of all—the accurate strikming of their own bells in rounds. Service was held at 5 p.m., the Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) assisting. The address was given by the Zierr the Rev. Clifford Toogood), Tennyson's old poen, 'The Bells,' and much that it conveys in these days of labour and domestic difficulties, forming an appropriate theme for a congregation of men.

The Master read out the list of 17 men belonging to the Sonning Deanery Branch, who had ' fought and won,' as follows: F. Baston, F. W. Emblem S. Stacey, A. Huwkes, N. Hale, S. Gaaring, G. Howard, A. M. Priest, E. W. Lloyd, A. Doe, G. Collins, F. Collins, E. Cox, A. V. Loader, C. H. Bidout, T. D. Russell, A. Norcott. An interval for prayer by the congregation standing in silence was observed.
The Master occupied the chair at the tea, which was held in the Brownlow Hall, a fine building given for the use of the parish by the late Field-Marshal Sir O. H. Brownlow, who was also the means of restoring the tower and the long-silent bells of St. Michael and All Angels' Church in 1913 to the memory of Lady Brownlow.—The Master was supported by the Vicar of Wanfield, Mr. R. T. Hibbert (diocesan secretary), two lady ringers—Misses A. H. Walker and V. Robinson—and Messre. Bristow, Brant, Giles, Paice, Jos. White, and others. Canon Coleridgo wrote expressing regret at not being able to be present. A pleasant hour was spent by diocesan ringers (who were ignor. It was disappointing to the landbell men to find an ancient set of twelve with boxwood clappers were past double-handed work.

Mr. Hibbert was responsible for a vote of thanks to the Vicar for his address and kind arrangements for the combined practice and refreshments, and Mr. S. THE YOUNGEST RINGER.

To the Editor.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,—With regard to your paragraph re John Hartill, I heg to inform Mr. J. W. Beddard, with all respect to his pupil's ability, that the lad has not created a record. Mr. James W. Washbrook, junr, raised and folled the sixth hell at Arklow for the death or Queen Victoria, on January 22nd, 1901, being then only eight years of ege. He made his first attempt for a peal within a few months of that date.—Yours faithfully, RICHARD F. DEAL.

Another ringer who began his campanological career at an early age was Mr. T. Groombridge, junn., who, at the age of nine years and three months, was able to hunt the treble to a six-score of Grandsire Doubles. Before, however, he had advanced far enough to attempt an age record for a peal on tower bells ill-health compelled him to relinquish the art until the age of seventeen.

LINKINCHESTERBRIDGE GUILD OF STRANGE RINGERS.

Bab Myner had a motor-car, 'twould cough and squeal and sob, and when he took it down the street 'twould dodge like troble bob. The people hunted feft and right and sought to make a place, and gladly would have missed a bob for any racant place. The car it made no inside place, close to the curb it flies. Now was this merely a Delight or was it a Surprise?

Answers to the above, together with threepence in stamps to be forwarded to Mr. Robert Cauler (hon. sceretary), 168 Queen's Row, Dobell Court, London, W.M.H. The funds thus collected will be utilised in making bobs at home.

THE COLLEGE YOUTHS.

Further alterations to rules have been made by the College Youths In rule 3 ' twopence ' is substituted for ' one penny,' and in rule 7, instead of ' threepence ' ' sixpence ' is to be read.

SOCIETY OF ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS. ANNUAL DINNER TO BE REVIVED.

ANNUAL DINNER TO BE REVIVED. The annual meeting of this society was held on Saturday last, at St. Martin's in-the-Fields, by the kind invitation of the Vicar (the Rev. H. R. L. Sheppard), himself an hon, member. As usual, the reverend gentleman provided a substantial tea in the church room, to which about sixty sat down, including a fair number of ladies, but the proceedings were somewhat lacking through the absence of ane genial Vicar himself through indisposition, more particularly as he has made it his invariable custom to be with the members on this annual mode it his invariable custom to be with the members on this annual occasion. Shortly after three the old belfry was housing a goodly occasion. Shortay arear times the ord being was housing a goody number of ringers from various parts, which gradually increased until 'standing room only' was the order. Touches in various methods were brought round en eight, ten, and twelve bells until six o'clock, when the adjournment took place for tea. Following this the usual business was got through in a fairly ex-mitting memory the only hous of extension being the substituronowing cans the usual balancess was got through in a rathry ex-peditious manner, the only bone of contention being the question of delegates to the Central Council, some members—in common with other societies—feeling that the benefit derived from the Council was hardly worth the expense. However, the matter ended in the sub-scription to the Council being voted. Another item of interest to members who were unable to be present was the determination evinced to resuscitate the annual dinner. Members are, therefore, requested to make a note that it is hoped to arrange this for a Saturday at the end of April.

end of APTI. The election of officers resulted as follows: Master, Mr. J. D. Mat-thows: socretary, Mr. H. J. Bradley; treasurer, Mr. B. Foskett; senior steward, Mr. F. Smith; junior steward, Mr. J. W. Cornford; trustees, Mr. Chapman and Mr. R. Warner. During the evening Mr. elac-Master, churchwarden of St. Martin's, looked in, and gave a few words of cheery welcome. The next quarterly meeting it is hoped to arrange for Leatherhead.

The balance sheet was considered very satisfactory, as also was the number of now members made during the year. The remainder of the evening was spent in little remions among old friends, while a fine peal of handbolls, at one time the property of that late stalwart of the society and ringing in general. Mr. H.

Dains, received a fair share of attention. A special general meeting will be held on Saturday. March 13(h, at the King of Denmark, Old Bailey, following the practice at St. Bride's to consider an important matter with regard to finance.

THE POWERS OF THE COUNCIL.

A considerable number of the large Associations hold their annual meetings at Easter, and will soon be preparing their programmes for these proceedings. How many of them, we wonder, will include in the agenda the question of whether the Central Council is to be given power to enforce its decisions? From the published reports of the meetings of those Associations which have held their annual gatherings since last Whitsuntide only a few, apparently, have concerned themselves with the subject, and we doubt whether, when next the Council meets, it will be in possession of the considered views of anything like a majority of the affiliated bodies. If only all those who meet between now and Whitsuntide will take the opportunity of coming to a decision on the point upon which they have been asked to express an opinion, it will be some guide to the feeling of ringers; but it is strange that matters concerning the Central Council, unless it is the triennial election of members, are more often than not ignored.

Somehow or other it seems, with some Associations, that it is nobody's business to bring before the members the various subjects that from time to time get remitted from the Council for consideration, either, as in the present instance of the question of plenary-powers for the Council, by direct reference, or by the adjournment of a subject for a year in order to sound the opinion of the rank and file. The question of its future powers is a matter of prime importance to the Council, and the organisation of the Exercise, but, so far as we are able to ascertain, not half the Associations who have met for their annual business have troubled to discuss it. Whose fault this is we are unable to say. We are unaware whether the Council has itself formally circularised the affiliated bodies on the matter, as it ought to have done, but in any case it should be the duty of the representatives to see that such questions are brought to notice at the proper time. Unless they do this they fail in their responsibilities, for while they are not merely delegates to vote as directed, but are given the widest discretion, they are, after all, the connecting link between the Associations and the Council, and ought to be relied upon to keep the two in touch.

The future of the powers of the Council is really an important subject, however we may view the question of enforcement, and, when the numerous meetings at Easter and in the succeeding weeks are held, we hope that something will be done to have the matter discussed. Upon the decisions of the Associations must depend the shaping of the future of the Council, and no satisfactory policy can be settled upon if only half the affiliated organisations have expressed an opinion upon the subject.

LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.

To-morrow (Saturday), February 14th, twelve members of the Ancient Society of Painswick Youths, that ancient Gloucestershire ringing or-ganisation, which was established 1686, will attempt a long peal of Grandsire Cinques at Painswick, starting at 10 a.m.

THE PEAL AT MANCHESTER TOWN HALL.

The peal of Stedman Caters rung at Manchester Town Hall was a peace peal for the City of Manchester. The composition was rung for the first time, and is the longest length yet accomplished on the bells. Messrs, Perrens, Swann, Walker and Groves journeyed from Birmingham for the peal, which is, therefore, a sequel to a visit part to that city by four Manchester ringers at the close of last year. Owing to long draught and springy ropes, a peal at the Town Hall is, at the present time, a somewhat difficult undertaking. The thanks of the band are due to Sergt, Walter Billinge, of the Manchester Police Force, for making the necessary arrangements with the authorities.

DEATH OF MR. H. EVANS. A WELL-KNOWN SUSSEX RINGER.

The death of Mr. Harry Evans, of Goring, Sussex, has removed on-of the oldest and most respected ringers from the County Association. Mr. Evans passed away on danuary 30th, at the age of 77 years. He was one of the earliest members of the Sussex Association, which he joined 25 years ago, and from 1900 to 1914 was the hon, secretary of the Western Division, in the welfare and progress of which he took an especial pride. It is recalled that he had rung the bells of his parish church on 55 consecutive Christmas days church on 55 consecutive Christmas cays. He had rung peals of Kent Treble Boh Major, Double Norwich, Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples. The funcral took place on January 30th, the following members of the Sussex County Association being present: Messrs, A. W. Groves (hon, secretary Western District), E. H. Lindup, H. Meetins, C. Hills, G. Gatland, Chipper, and several members of the local band, who acted as beavers. The bells were rung half-mufffel.

THE BELLS OF PENN.

NEW FEAL OF SIX FOR THE OXFORD GUILD.

Dedicated on Christmas Day, a new treble has been added at the Farish Church of Penn. The third, which was cracked, has been recast, the other of the old bells quarter-turned, and the whole of the peat hung in a new frame and fittings, making a capital peal of six. The Vicar's warden, Mr. A. H. Birch-Reynardson, has generously provided the funds for rehanging and retuning the fine old bells and the recasithe funds for rehanging and retuining the fine old bells and the recasi-ing of the third, while the Vicar and other parishioners gave the new treble, which is to be known as the 'Peace' bell, and is inscribed, "Gloria in Excelsis Den. Pax, June 28th, 1919. The gift of Parish-ioners. B. J. S. Kerry, Vicar.' The inscription on the recast 3rd is 'To the glory of God. This bell was recast and the peal rehung by the generosity of A. H. Birch-Reynardson, Esq., Churchwarden. For Victors in the Court Ware, 1914. Victory in the Great War, 1914-1919."

The work has been spleudidly carried out by the Whitechapel Foundry.

The new bell, after being dedicated, was rung alone for a few pulls by the foreman ringer-a grandson of Tom Fryer, who helped to ring the bells for the long period of 67 years-and after the service an excel-lent touch was given by the Fenn Society, viz.: A. Raudall (foreman), F. Allen, A. Bates, E. Busby, E. Bates, H. Camvin, and S. T. Blackmore.

The tower was opened on January 7th to neighbouring members of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, when, in addition to the local team, the following met-to try the bells, and expressed their satisfaction with the 'go' and the work: Messrs. Starr, Fiburn and Edwards, of Amer-sham; also Messrs. J. Blackmore, G. Gutteridge, C. Mayne, R. Buck-land, R. Young, and W. Henley (conductor), who rang a 720 of Kent Treble Bob Minor.

THE YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING AT YORK

The annual meeting of the Yorkshire Association was held at York on Saturday, January 31st, in dull and unsettled weather. The hum of the great bells in the peal at the Minster met visitors on them arrival, their admiration of the same being countered by some local residents wondering at the unaccustomed bustle and noise at their famous Minster.

The day's proceedings commenced with a committee meeting, after which Divine service followed in the Minster at 4 p.m. The magniwhich Divine service followed in the Milister at 4 p.m. The magnificent singing will be a treasured memory to many visiting ringers, flic anthem, 'Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever' (Goss), being worthy of special commendation. The preacher, the flov. Canon G. C. Bell, M.A., took as his text the words, 'Every member of the church in his vocation and ministry may truly and godly serve Thee,' taken from the second collect for Good Friday. The Canon gave a brief history of bells and their sacred and secular uses, and speaking of an experience on Lake Maggiore, said how he was impressed by the reverence of the heavers of the evening Angelus hell. Ile pointed out how the ringers' call was to the community to worship, and not to a small section of it. Change ringers in their art had no soloists but must all act corporately, or else the flow of changes was interrupted. The clergy looked on the ringers as their fellows, and as such hoth must be men of high character, and not be mere signposts; they must impress those around them by their Christian examples. Ten followed in the Ebor Hall, after which the moeting was held in the Schoolroom of St. Michael-lo-Belfry. The President (the Rev. C. C.

Marshall) was supported by the officers of the association, and the vari-out, clergy of York, interested in bells, were present. Apologies were received from Messrs, F. Willey (Shoffield), and H. Williams (Leeds) .-Notice of motion was given to abolish life membership, and it was decided, on the motion of Mr. J. Cotterell, seconded by Mr. G. B. Bolland, to hold a general meeting at St. Chad's, Far Headingley, on Easter Monday.

The balance sheet was passed, on the motion of Mr. G. Horner, secanded by Mr. W. Horner, and a vote of thanks to the Dean of York, Cauon Bell, and the various clergy who had placed their bells at the disposal of the meeting, was proposed by the President, and seconded by Mr. T. M. Barker.-In reply, the Rev. C. J. Alexander (the Vicar of Clifton) extended a most kindly welcome to the visitors, to bag ancient city of York, and this was supported by the Rev. J. Young, at St. Michael-he-Belfry.-Mr. F. Earnshaw replied to a vote of thanks to the local company, and hoped the association would visit York again at an early date.

Mr. C. Glenn was re-elected as hon, general secretary, Mr. P. J. Johnson consenting to act pro tem, until Mr. Glenn was at liberty to Twenty new members were elected, these includresume his duties. ing an entire band from Pickering.

The Rev. C. C. Marshall was elected as trustee, in the place of Mr. 337 Whitaker, who had resigned the post owing to his advanced age and increasing infirmities. Great regret was expressed at the resignation of Mrs Whitaker, as he forms one of the small hand now surviving contemporatios of the late Jasper Snowdon.aud was the first secretary of the association. The hope was expressed that he would long live to culoy his retirement.

Hundbell and tower ringing at the Minster, with Clifton and Biskop-hill, brought train time all too soon, and left happy memories of a most pleasant meeting and kindly reception to all who undertook the journey, to this, one of the most ancient and glorious old eitics of our country. P. J. J.

DEATH OF BOTTESFORD RINGER.

We regret to announce the death, at the age of 69 years, of Mr. Baniel Gikling, a much respected member of the band at St. Mary's Church, Bottesford, Leicestershire. Mr. Gilding had been a ringer at the Parish Church for a number of years until quite recently, and was a most reliable ringer, being a great lover of Grandsire Triples. He had been a member of the Framland Society almost from its forma-tion, and was had in his bare for a lower har almost from its formation, and was held in high respect by all who knew him, being of a cheerful disposition, and always ready with a helping hand. He was regular and punctual in his attendance at both service and practice, but was obliged to resign in October last, owing to ill-health. He was sout to Nottingham Hospital on January 24th, and underwent an operation, from which he never recovered.

The deceased was a native of Bottesford, having spent the whole of his life there. His father was a ringer at St. Mary's for half a conter3'.

Here, the was laid to rest in his parish churchyard on Saturday, January Slat, six of his brother ringers acting as bearors. As a tribute of respect the St. Mary's band rang, in the evening, a half-muffled quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles (1260 changes), with ten different callings, in 50 mins.; M. Bend 1, *J. R. Jackson 2 t Blakey 3, *W. Hallam 4, A. W. Ward (conductor) 5, H. Thorlhy 6, L. J. Abbott 7, *J. Reynolds 8, Rung with 4, 6, 8 covering. * First marter-neal quarter-peal.

THE ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

NORTH-EASTERN DIVISION'S NEW OFFICERS.

The recent division of the Essex Association into five instead of four divisions will, it is hoped, give a further stimulus to ringing in the county, and the first meeting under the revised scheme in the North-Eastern District, at Colchester on Saturday, January 31st, was cer-tainly a success. Ringing took place at St. Peter's Church, where ser-rice was held, at which the Rev. Canon C. Triffit Ward officiated, and gave a short address. The usual form of bell ringers' service, 8.5 sanctioned by the Bishop of the Diocese, was used. An enjoyable tea was then partaken of in St. Peter's Parish Room.

An enjoynom tea was then parasken of in St. Feter's Farish Room, there being present: Canon Triffit Ward; the Rev. H. T. W. Eyre, the Hon. Treasurer and Secretary; Mr. C. H. Howard, of Braintree (Master); and Messis. H. F. Cooper and B. Ridgewell; Divisional Officers for the Northern district. Over 40 members were present, and the following towers were represented: Braintree, Bocking, Rayne, Colchester, Great Bentley, Earls Colne, Feering, Kelvedon, Stisted, Witham, Mistley, Great Bromley, Great Totham, Great Henry, Ten-dring, Horkesley, Foxearth, Goldhanger, Maldon, Langham, Edmen-101, Sible Hedingham, Greensted Green, Croydon. At the business meeting, which followed, Mr. C. H. Howard presiding, Mr. William J. Nevard, of Great Bentley, was cleeted District Master, and Mr. H. T. Pyc, of Colebester, District Secretary. Tus following new members were also elected: Messrs, J. D. Buckingham C. G. Mann, J. R. Owers, G. A. Neville, A. Apploton, H. S. Clarke, A. Lungford; G. W. Moss, and G. T. Honeywood C

The Chairman said that during the war they had built up a large reserve fund, which they would now have to expend on increasing the membership of the Association, and in doing much important work which had necessarily been untouched during the war. He mentioned that the Association had decided to hold its annual meeting on Whit-

Monday, in Colchester, when the members would have an opportunity of viewing the antiquities and interesting features of the town. The Rev. H. T. W. Eyre, proposing a vote of thanks to Canon Triffit Ward, said that in Canon Triffit Ward the Association had a very old friend. This was a familiar task to him, for he had been present on initial variables. similar occasions in St. Peter's Parish Room for over forty years. 14 proposed a vote of thanks to Canon Ward for his presence there, and for the use of the Parish Room,

Mr. Howard, seconding, endorsed these remarks, saying that they were always sure of a hearty welcome when they come to Colchester. THE RINGING WORLD.

February 13th, 1920.

THE CROYDON BELL FOUNDRY 1920.

BERE REGIS AUGMENTATION.

NEW THEBLE DELICATED.

The re-opening of Bere Regis (worset) bells took place on Thursday in last week, and was attended by soveral members of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, including the Master (Major Hughes D'Eath), the general secretary (the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards), the branch secretary, and a strong contingent of the Dorchester Branch, whose district this tower is in. Here possessed a fine musical peal of five bells, with tenor 18] cwt. in E flat, the troble dated 1656, 4th 1709, tenor 1698. These have been to the foundry of Mears and Stainbank, and have been overhauled, a new troble added and all rehung with new fittings in a new iron frame. The general opinion expressed was that the founders had made an excellent job, the splice of the trobe being perfect Bere can now boast not only of its grand edifice with its fine Transition Norman work, carved wood roof of the nave, reasurkable with its fine beams decorated with effigies half life-size in the dress of the time. royal residence, but also of one of the finest peaks of six bells in the Diocese of Salisbury. Readers of Thomas Harviy's novels, especially 'Tess of the D'Urbervilles,' will be quite familiar with Bere, 'King s where two fine canopied tombs of the D'Urbervilles, in Purbeck Bere. marble, are to be seen. Provious to the service of dedication the following band rang the opening touch of two 120's of Grandsire Doubles: H. A. Runyard, Wool, I; Major Hughes D'Eath, Buckhorn Weston 2; II, Thomas, Fordington, 3; Rev. F. Ll. Edwards, Kington Magna, 4 2. H. Holnars, Fordington, 5; Rev. F. El. Edwards, Kingson Magnet 4; C. H. Jennings, Wyke Regis, 5; H. Runyard, Wool, 6. The grant edifice was crowded. The Rev. R. C. Y. Hodge (Vicar) officiated, and the Rev. A. L. Helps, R.D. (in the absence of the Lord Bishop) dedi-cated the new bell. This ceremony was followed by a few rounds on the bells by the above band, and the Rural Dean then gave a very fine address, taking for his text, 'Teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.' Following the service, ringing was kept up by the visitors for another hour, the local band ringing the last touch. Before leaving the belfry, the Branch Secretary in-pressed upon the local band the advisability of joining the Diocesau Guild, and its objects, and honed they would take up change ringing. At the kind invitation of the Vicar and Mr. W. Bedford (who has consented to act as secretary for the ringers) the visitors adjourned to the Vicarage and partook of a sumptuous supper, being waited upon by Mrs. Hodge and the Misses Bedford. The objects of the Diocesan Guild and change ringing were explained, and the Rev. F. Ll. Ed-wards proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the donors of the feast for their great kindness. This was supported by Major Hughes D'Eath and the Branch Secretary, and the Vicar, in replying, sold he was very grateful to the members of the Guild for what they had already done. He thought a great deal of enthusiasm was displayed in golf, but he now believed the bell ringers surpassed it. Everything points well for the Here Regis bells and ringers, which should provide another tower in union with the Guild. The visitors, through the medium of the 'Ringing World,' extend their thanks to the Vicar and Mr. W. Bedford and the local ringers for their kind hospitality during their visit.

On Saturday, February 8th, some members of the St. Peter's Soclety, Bournamouth, visited the tower to try the bells. Touches of Minor and Doubles were rung, the 18% cwt. tenor and other bells responding perfectly to the slightest pull of the rope. What was once a sponting percently to the shearest part of the tope. What was once ring of five are now a fine mellow peal of six worthy of the historic lower and church, for Bero Regis Church possesses one of the finest examples of hammer roofs in the whole of England, erected by Cardi-nal Morton in the reign of Henry VII. The ringers were kindly entertained to tea at the Receivery after the ringing.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of the Southern District was held at St. Gues Camberwell, when about 50 ringers were present, and the ten bells were going in the various methods soon after 3 p.m.-A short service was held in the church, when the Vicar gave an interesting address on the bells and their history. Tea was afterwards partaken of in St. Giles' Hall, which was kindly given by the Vicar, who extended a hearty welcome to the Association.

After tea, the business meeting was held, six new members were elected, and the balance sheet and report, which showed that the district had a record year for new members and attendance, were adopted.

The following officers were elected for 1920: Mr. H. Burton, Master; Mr. F. Smith, secretary; Mr. H. Mance, treasurer; and Mr. J. merberis, steward .- After a unanimous vote of thanks had been passed to the Vicar for his sindness, the tower bells were again rung till 9 11.171.

ACCRINGTON RINGERS' JUBILEE. TRIOS' LONG SERVICE.

On Saturday last, an interesting gathering took place at Messrs. Hoyle's Cafe, Accrington, when total ringers and friends met to celebrate the completion of 50 years' service, in St. Janes' Tower, Accring-ton, by three of the local band, viz., Messrs, R. Scholes, J. Hindle and T. Newall.

The proceedings commenced with an ideal tea, presided over by the Rector of St. James' (the Rev. A. J. Morris), who was accompanied by Mrs. Morris, After tea, the sector hearthly congratulated the three veterans on their splendid record, and in mentioning the fact that Mr. Scholes used to ring the curfew bell at 8 p.m. to send people to bed, he (the Rector) wished Mr. Scholes could send everyone to bed by ringing a bell at 10 p.m. now. The Rev. A. Horsfall (curate of St. James') said, nowadays everyone was being advised what to do to keep fit, but he had not yet seen the taking up of change ringing advocated, though, judging by results, in the present case it was evidently conducive to longevity and renewod youth.

In replying for the ringers, Mr. J. Hindle and Mr. T. Newall gave some annusing ringing reminiscences, and concluded by informing the company that each of the three rivgers had received a congratulatory letter from the Bishop of Manchester.

The evening was then devoted to songs, charades, dancing, etc., dur-ing which ' Papa ' Newall demonstrated how some of the ' owd uns ' could still ' trip the light fantastic toe.'

A vote of thanks was passed by the guests for a very memorable and enjoyable evening, and was suitably replied to by Mr. Hindle for the ringers.

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF THE COUNCIL.

Not the least interesting part of the Central Council eetings is the social side of the gathering. Any ringer who has attended the annual assembly realises that the opportunities of fraternising and friendly intercourse which are offered make the journey to the venue of the gathering always worth while, even though the proceedings of the Council are themselves sometimes dry and uninteresting. Apart from stimulating the spirit of camaraderie charac-teristic of ringers, it helps to broaden one's views on subjects campanological, and get us out of the parochial feeling which long confinement to our own towers is bound to promote. Sometimes it has been argued that Associations ought not to bear the expense which is involved by sending representatives merely to give them 'a good time'; but very seldom, if ever, we feel sure, does any part of the cost of the 'good time' fall upon the ringing organisations. This part of the expense comes out of the pocket of the representative, and whether he enters into the social side of the gathering or not makes no difference to the amount of his railway fare, or the cost of his hotel accommodation. As long as he attends to the duties for which he was appointed he has fulfilled his obligation to his Association, and if he gets a modicum of pleasure from his visit to a distant town it is no loss to the Association that sends him. In the long run, in fact, it is a gain, for his presence interests the representatives of other societies in the welfare of his own Association, and thus serves to promote a closer relationship between all the organisations.

But up to the present the social character of the proceedings at the Central Council meetings has been largely made by private effort. Except for the gathering after the business meeting, nothing is officially arranged, and some may probably incline to the opinion that such matters are best left to private enterprise. A member of the Council, however, makes a valuable suggestion in our columns this week, and it is one which will, we think, commend itself to those responsible for organising the proceedings. This is that an official 'headquarters' should be established by the Council and the Association in whose area the meeting is to be held, to be available for the use of members from the preceding Saturday until the day following the meeting. These headquarters, it is suggested, should be a place where the visiting representatives could gather at any time during their stay in the town, enjoy rest and social intercourse, handbell ringing, and the like, and at the same time make use of it as a centre of information. With a little elaboration the Council might certainly, by this scheme, add to the attractions of the annual gathering, and, as the proposal is made in ample time, it might be inaugurated at this year's Northampton meeting.

I took part, is several peals with him, and always found him an excellent striker of a heavy bell in spite of hi₀ diminutive stature. He is a brother of Mr. Harry Chapman, Manchester, a noted back-end man. There is a slight error in your report; his first peal being on Oc-19th, 1901; Stedman Triples at Higham Ferrers, conducted by John W. Barker; the late John B. The first peal of Little St. Lawrence Major, otherwise known as The first peat of Little St. Lawrence major, otherwise known its Hot 'Fon,' another of the progeny of the Rev. E. Bankes James, was rung last week by the Holy Trinity Society, Guldford. It is proposed to hold the annual meeting of the E.B. and S.B. Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild at High Wycombe on Easter Monday. Four towers will be open for the day.

The 700th anniversary of the laying of the foundation stones of Salisbury Cathedral occurs this year. There is to be a fitting calc-bration. Why should not an effort be made to induce the author-ties to put a neal of twelve into the tower? A correspondent suggests that the Central Council might move in the matter.

Every reader of this paper must have followed with interest the notable achievements of the Bailey Brothers, of Leiston. They were the first hand of eight brothers to ring a peal on tower bells, and six of them were recently the first to ring a peer on cower bells, and six of handbells. Last Saturday, eight of them, including six who have been demobilised, rang at the first attempt a tower bell peal of Double Norwich Major. Of the band, Wilfred, Allen, Frederick, Leonard and Charles, sarved oversels. Charles served overseas.

In a peal of Minor, rung at Denton on Saturday week, there were 13 Treble Bob methods, the last three of the seven 720's each com-prising three spliced methods. This is, as most ringers will agree, a distinctly good, as well as interesting performance. One of the ringers, Mr. Harry Bardsley, is to be specially congratulated, for it was his first peal.

Having had complaints of the annoyance arising from the ringing of a bell at a convent. Wilfesden Council reports that it has no jurisdiction

The eight bells at Epsom Parish Church, Surrey, are to be recast and rehung in new fittings and framework. The order has been placed with Messrs, Mears and Stainbank.

LONG PEAL AT PAINSWICK. 13,001 OF GRANDSIRE CINQUES.

At the third attempt, the Ancient Society of Painswick Youths, whose organisation dates back to 1586, have scored their long peal of Grandsiro Cinques, the length being 13,001 rung in 8 hrs. 45 mins. The striking was good all through, and, on account of the excellent 'go' of the bells, which were rebung by Messrs. Taylor and Co. as long ago as 1902, and the unremitting attention which they received from Mr. as 1902, and the unremitting attention which they received from Mr. Frank Cole, the steeplekeeper, the peal was rung without any undur-fatigue to the men taking part. When the bells ceased the ringers wore heartily welcomed by a large number of admiring parishioners. Unfortunately Mr. William Hale, the Youths' popular hon, secretary, was unable, through indisposition, to take part in this attempt. The peal, which was rung for the Gloucester and Bristol Associa-tion is the description burgers there for such as former helds.

tion, is the Association's longest length rung on these famous bells, the two previous local records being 12,006 Grandsire Caters, in 7 hrs. 55 mins., on April 18th, 1737, and 12,312 Grandsire Caters in 7 urs 44 mins., on May 5th, 1817.

CENTRAL COUNCIL MEETINGS.

A SUGGESTION.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir, -There is a growing tendency among some delegates and friends attending the meetings of the Central Council to make he occasion one for a longer visit than the actual work of the Council demands; some arriving on the Saturday previous to the meeting, and remaining till the following Wednesday. This social side of the meetings is one which should be encouraged and developed, for it gives ringers from widely separated areas an opportunity to know more of each other.

In order that full advantage could be taken of these visits, I would respectfully suggest that the Central Council, together with the Association, in whose area the meeting is to be held, should hire a suitable room from the Saturday till the following Tuesday, or possituate roam from the secondary of the Club Room for any visiting or local ringers during that period. Suitable ringers should be in charge to answer inquiries as to positions of hotels, apartments, churches, etc.

churches, etc. A notice board could give the information as to times and towers available for ringing. Peal bands, if desirable, could be made up. handbells and a piano should be available for impromptu concerts, while facilities for writing would be an added boon. These suggestions should not entail a great expense, but whateve: it was it could be equally shared by the Central Conneil and the local association concerned; while the convenience it would afford would add much to the enjoyment of the visitors. Should these sug-gestions meet with the approval of either, or, preferably, both the parties concerned, due notice of it can be given in the 'Ringing' World.'-Young truly, Bradpole, Dorset. T. BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

LUTON DISTRICT SECRETARY'S RESIGNATION.

The annual meeting of the Luton District was hold at Leighton Buzzard on Saturday list, members attending from Woburn, Dunstable, Luton, Tring, Linslade, and the local tower.

The bells were kept busy during the afternoon and evening in standay, matheds from Minor to Caters.

dard methods, from Minor to Caters. The business meeting was held at Messrs. Woods' Cafe after tea, presided over by Mr. R. Harris. The following officers were elected for the year: President, Rev. Canou W. W. C. Baker, of Dunstable; vice-president, Mr. A. King, of Luton. Committee: Mr. Cyril Herbert, Woburn; Mr. H. Smith, Crawley; Mr. W. Chibnall, Aspler Guise; Mr. G. Itealey, Dunstable; Mr. J. Nicholls, Leighton; Mr. A. King, Ltuon. The heat sceretary, Mr. A. King, of Luton, who has held the office since the inception of decentralisation of the Association eight years ago, by the formation of three districts, viz., Luton, Bedford and Biggleswade, tendered his resignation owing to ill-health. He informed the members that he had attended all the meetings her during his tenure of office with the exception of one held in Decemher last, his absence then being due to illness. He hoped the memhers would rally round their new honorary secretary.

Mr. A. E. Sharman, of Dunstable, who is a keen exponent in the art, was elected to fill the vacancy, and the hope was expressed that the towers would give him the deserved support, which is necessary for the welfare of the Association.

As a tribute to the late honorary secretary's entlusiasm and interest taken in the welfare of the Association duving his 16 years' membership, the members elected him a vice-president, and an enthusiastic and hearty rote of thanks was accorded him for his past services, to which he suitably replied.

. Vote of thanks were also accorded the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the Chairman, who carried out his duties in an efficient manner.

The next meeting will be held at Dunstable after Easter.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD. CLUN DISTRICT.

The third quarterly meeting of the Clun District was held at Knighton, Radnorshire, on Salurday, Feb. 7th, when a strong company of least members and three from Chun put in an appearance. Grandsire Doubles and Triples were rung during the afternoon, and the company sat down to a bountiful tea, provided by Mrs. Dutton, in the Parish Room. They were joined by the Viear (the Rev. T. J. P. Griffith) and Canon Singer Davies, R.D., Rector of Llandrindod Wells, who said he was very pleased to meet the ringers. Unfortunately he had no tower or bells at his church, or he would have been delighter to welcome them to Llandrindod. He hoped, however, to have a peal of bells some time in the future.

After tea, the usual business meeting was held, when Mr. Roland Teneh (Knighton) presided, in the absence of the Rev. H. J. Scott-(District Ringing Master), owing to ill-health.

The View of Knighton was elected an hon, member, and it was deeided to arrange a meeting at Clumbury, or Tydbury North, for combined practice soon after Easter, and the annual meeting at Clum later

In reply to a question from Knighton as to their position when the new Clurch Act came into force, it was explained that they would remain members of the Hereford Guild, although their tower would then be in St. David's Diocese.

Afterwards the members attended evensong, when the Rev. T. S. Dutton, late of Chun and Bucklebury, officiated, and in place of the second lesson read a portion of the 'Golden Legend,' which has recently been made very familiar to ringers by its use at memorial services. After the service ringing again took place, and concluded a very endoyable meeting.

very enfoyable meeting. The Rev. T. S. and Mrs. Dutton are shortly going abroad, having accepted a living in South Africa. They will be much missed in Knighton, where Mr. Dutton has had such excellent results with his young pupils in the bellry.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE ROWLAND CARTWRIGHT.

By consent of the family, it is proposed to erect a memorial at the grave of the late Rowland Cartwright in Wombourn Churchyard; and in order to do this members of the Stafford Archdeaconry Society and other friends of the deceased are invited to subscribe to this worthy object to perpetuale the memory of one who did much spadework for the art of change ringing. Subscriptions will be gratefully received by Rev. C. H. BARKER, 147, Bromford Lane, West Bromwich, or H. KNIGHT, 15, Rugby Street, Wolverhampton.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In reply to the Rev. E. Bankes James' letter in your issue of the 61t inst. I do not want to condemn Bristol, but it is not a 'Surprise Method,' as there is no interior place making when the troble is behind or in front. It ought to be called 'Delight.' Nor do I want to travel over to the south to explain my method, but if the Rev. E. B. J. will only write out No. 6 in my list he will soon hn i that it is a perfect method, for the plain course shows that it contains twelve 7—8's, 8—6's, 6—4's, 4—2's, 2—3's, 3—5's, and 5—7's. These bells dolge together both in front and behind throughout. He should not only write out my No. 6 but No. 9 and the other two. Birmingham.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD. TWO NEW BELLS FOR ALDERSHOT.

A meeting of the Guildford District was held on Saturday last, at St. Peter's Church, Ash, and was well attended. The well-kept before and nice little peal of six (the treble having been recently added) met with general approval. The arrangements for tea in the Church Room, which had been carried through by the local lady ringers, also met with well-deserved praise.

The Reading Branch held their annual meeting at Reading on Feb. The rectains branch next near annual means at rectains on red. 7th, and it proved to be well attended and interesting. Proceedings commenced with ringing at the towers of St. Mary's and St. Late rence's, which was followed by a service at the latter church. The sermon was preached by the Master' of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Lanky), who pointed out how in Accounting the complex wight Jenkyn), who pointed by the master of the Gund (the file), c. W. O. After the election of the officers, the Secretary asked the members if they would suggest means where the means of the support of the function of the officers. by an increase in the number of honorary members could be obtained as it was by them the Guild lived .- Some members thought the Guild should live by its own efforts, and this raised the question of the Guild subscription. After a very lively discussion it was decided to recommend to the Guild Committee that steps be taken to increase the annual subscription to the Guild.

Then followed the que tion of the annual report, which was contain the roll of honour, and when the secretary of the Guild (Mr. contain the roll of honour, and when the secretary of the Guild (Mr. R. Two auditors and a press correspondent were added to the list of officers, and finally the Master congratulated what he called a really live branch on the help it had given him in the work of the Guild by such keen and useful discussion. THE POWERS OF THE COUNCIL.

To the Editor Sir,-A prolonged, though not serious, illness has prevented me from replying to Canon Fapillon's letter in your issue of December 5th. May I suggest that there are a good many ways in which the Coun-cil can ' endeavour to co-ordinate the efforts of the Associations to increase, improve and organise, ringers and ringing,' without going to any, or much, expense. For instance, they could ascertain the offerent ways in which the Associations give assistance in instructing young bands, and tell u_S which are most successful, so that half-taught ringers who more their residences may find other bands ready to (ako up the work on similar lines. This would only be one advantage of such co-ordination. Every ringer knows how often a promising recruit is lost because he leaves and can get no one to help him in his new home. Similarly they could help with the introduction of change ringing, where it is not yet prastised: and with the difficult question of towers on the borders of two or more Associations.

So long as some rule making the office of president terminable be introduced, the actual term is not of great importance.

As to the question of date of meeting, I have asked many members and all (with one exception) have replied: 'It is a date most inconventent to me, but I believe it is the only one that suits most members. If this be so, let us hear who they are, and we will sladly sacrifice our convenience to theirs. But we need not all inconvenience ourselves for a bogic. The one exception said any date would suit him just as well. In order to get an opinion, I would suggest a fortnight laterthe Tuesday after the first Sunday after Trinity. Is this inconvenients to anyone?

With regard to procedure, some such time-table as this might be found useful, the Secretary to give notice that any proposed subject for discussion be sent him by December 1st, togother with the names of those likely or willing to give papers on it, such paper or papers to be published in your columns, if possible, during January. All reports of committees and statements of accounts to be sent to the secretary early in January. If not complete by then, an outline to be furnished him, together with an intimation whether any explanatory papers would be necessary or advisable, such reports, etc., and paper or papers to be published in February, if possible. The Secretary would endeavour to arrange that there should not be less than one such paper each year, and not more than two, or at most three, in all, in any year. This would not prevent other subjects being brought forward later, it being understood that they would come under the ton-minuto rule.

Theoretical subjects might be kept to the morning session, practical to the afternoon, reports in each case coming first. Ufford Rectory, Woodbridge. HE

ago, reminding Associations of the fact that they have been asked to decide whether or not the Central Council should be vested with powers for enforcing their decisions, was not ill-timed, and we are glad to learn that several of the important societies who will meet between this and Whitsun will discuss the matter. Officially, we believe, it is required that the decisions of the Associations shall be sent in by the end of April, but there are some organisations whose annual meetings are not held until nearer Whitsun, and they, of course, will not be in a position to express their views until after the date fixed for notifying the Council. At the meeting of the Stockport Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild the other day, the subject was discussed and a resolution against powers of enforcement being placed in the hands of the Council was passed. Up to the present this has been the attitude of the majority of those who have debated the question, and we believe that, in the end, this is the feeling that will prevail. On the face of it, of course, it would seem to vest the Council with greater importance if it were given authority to enforce its decisions; but, as we pointed out last year in commenting upon the proposal, the difficulties which arise in giving practical effect to the suggestion are almost insurmountable, and it would be disastrous to the Council's future to give it an authority which could be ignored at will by any individual or Association. All the while a ringer was in agreement with a decision he would accept its enforcement, but directly he was opposed to it he would, as likely as not, ignore it, and no compulsory powers which might have been set up by resolution could make him obey the Council's ruling unless he pleased. The same thing would apply in the case of an Association and might lead to secessions which, ultimately, would wreck the Council.

This is the most formidable obstacle in the way of giving effect to the proposal, and the future of the Council must, it appears to us, rest upon the extent to which the Council can retain the loyal support of the Exercise by proving its utility and extending the interest in it. The Hon. Secretary of the Herts County Association contributes a useful suggestion for helping to keep the Council in touch with the affiliated bodies, and it is in such directions, rather than in setting up an authority which cannot be maintained, that we must look for the future increase of the Council's influence. And in discussing the particular proposition which the Associations are asked to express their views upon, we ought to get many valuable suggestions.

THE POWERS OF THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

To the Editor.

Sir,-I agree with your leading article of February 13th, and bruse it will lead many Associations to discuss the subject of the powers of the Council before the Council meets. The Herts County Association will discuss the matter at their Easter meeting at St. Albans, the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt-Drake having given me notice of a resolution. I appeal to all our applies to the tritter. aroans, the new, B. H. Friender having given no norted of a resolution. I appeal to all our members to thoughtfully consider the matter, and then to come to our annual meeting prepared to express an opinion, and to vote according to their judgment. . I would suggest that it should be imperative that all Association representatives on the Central Council should furnish a brief written summary of the annual meeting they attend, which should afterwards summary of the annual meeting they attend, which should afterwards be incorporated in the report issued by the Association they represent. This would help to bring the Contral Council into close touch with ringers. And, Mr. Editor, might I suggest that these reports, or an epitome, should be inserted in the 'Ringing World,' which would onable us all to get a glimpse of ringers' thought in concrete form.-Yours truly, G. W. CARTMEL, Hon, See, Hertford County Association.

CONGRATULATIONS TO WHITECHAPEL FOUNDRY.

At the London County Association's annual meeting, the hearty congratulations of the Association were presented to the firm of Messrs Mears and Stainbank upon the 350th anniversary of the establishment of the famous Whitechapel foundry, in what was then the outlying fields east of London. This was in 1570. Stow, London's famous historian, speaking of the time, says, east of Bishopsgate were ' fair hedgerows of elm frees, with bridges, and citizens therein to walk about.' How we wish old John had thought to describe the new foundry, too! St. Clement Danes has, by the way, as the Rector reminded the meeting, an early example of this foundry's work, viz., the Sanctus bell, dated 1588.

PRESENTATION TO A TAUNTON RINGER.

A pleasant little ceremony took place on Sunday morning in the belfry of St. James' Church, Tunton. Recently, Mr. J. Maddock was re-elected, for the thirtieth year in succession, conductor of the St. James' Guild, and his fellow ringers saized the opportunity to ex-press their appreciation of the manner in which Mr. Maddock has dis-charged his duties, and to show in tangible form, the good feeling existing in the Guild.

The Vicar, in well-chosen remarks, presented Mr. Maddock with a gold pendant in the shape of a bell, engraved on one side, "The Bath gold benuint in the snape of a ben, engraved on one suce. The Date and Wells Diocesan Association of Change Ringers,' and on the other ' Presented to Mr. J. Maddock by the St. James' Ringers, Taunton, February, 1920.'-Mr. Maddock, who was taken quite by surprise, 1.3 acknowledging the present, said he should continue to do all he could be the details of the state of the should continue to do all he could for the benefit of the ringers and the church.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE MR. HENRY WHITE.

At a recent meeting of the Basingstoke Combined Society (St. Michael's and All Saints') it was decided to open a fund with the object of erecting a suitable memorial in recognition of the long and valuable services of the late Mr. Henry White, whose indefatigable enthusiam in the advancement and general uplifting of the ringers' art was so widely recognised. It is proposed, with the consent of the nuthorities, to place a brass tablet, with suitable inscription, on the interior west will of St. Michael's Church, underneath the tower, and to have a framed photograph of it hung in the beftry, and, as far as funds permit, to underlake the renovation of St. Michael's beftry, which was for so many years under Mr. White's special care, and to which nothing has been done since the bells wree re-hung in 1879. An advertisement respecting the proposed memorial appears in our At a recent meeting of the Basingstoke Combined Society An advertisement respecting the proposed memorial appears in our advertising columns, and we commend the object to the large number of ringers who were favoured with Mr. White's genial and happy friendship.

LLANDAFF CATHEDRAL BELLS.

NEW TREBLES DEDICATED.

As a thankoffering for the blessing of peace, two new bells have been added to Llandaff Cathedral by the generosity of Mr. J. T. Duncan, of Llandall, thus raising the peal from eight to ten. relianging the existing octave has also been defrayed by Mr. Duncan, relianging the existing octave has also been derrayed by Mr. Duncan, who has been a great benefactor to the Cathedral, having only quit-recently installed a new heiting apparatus, and provided also for its future upkeep in the way of fuel, etc. He has also paid for a new Cathedral porch, and only last week, on account of the Disestablishment of the Welsh Church, presented £1.000 to the Cathedral.

The old eight bells at the Cathedral have the reputation of seing one of the finest rings in the country, and came from the White-chapel Foundry about forty years ago. They have now been relung chapel Foundry about forty years ago. They have now been rehung with all new fittings, and the two trebles hung in a new iron frame with an new nitrogs, and the two troples many in a new iron frame in over the old eight. The splice is a splendid one, and the work reflects the highest possible credit on the firm of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, the 'go ' of the bells being perfect.

The dedication was performed by the Lord Bishop of Llandafi on Saturday last, a large congregation attending the service, the bells being rung for the first time while the Bishop, clergy and choir reneing rung for the next-lower to their places. A special lymn turned from the north-west-lower to their places. A special lymn 'Over hill and valley peaking come the voices of the hells was sung, and immediately the service closed, the hells went of into well-struck Grandsive Caters.

The bells were available for the whole of the evening, and full advaniage taken of testing them by the large number of ringers that numbered from various towers in ble diocese. At tea, to which the visitors were entertained by Mr. Duncan, a distinuished company as-sembled, including the donor of the hells, with his wife, the Bishop of the Diocese, the Dean of Llandaff, the Archdeacon of Monmouth Dr. Green, Mr. A. A. Hughes (representing the founders), etc. The Dean took the opportunity of thanking the donor, and saying how grateful the authorities were for what he had done, by placing the Cathedral on a level with any older church in the diocese in having ten bells.—The gratefulness of the Llandaff Diocesan Association of Clange Ringers was expressed by the hon, secretary (Mr. J. W. Jones), and the Bishop also coupled his name with all that had been said.

MR. T. BEADLE'S RESIGNATION.

The summal meeting of the South and West District was held at Isleworth on Saturday, February 7th. LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A RECORD MEETING.

The annual general meeting of the London County Association was held at St. Clement Danes on Saturday, February 14th, a record num-ber of members being present. The bells were kept going from 3 to 5 p.m. in Grandsire, Stedman and Treble Bob. At the service, which followed, the Association's form of service was used the majority of members taking part. The lessons were read by Messrs. R. A. Daniell and E. A. Young. The Rector (the Rev. W. Pennington Bickford, M.A.), Hon. Chaplain to the Association, conducted the service, and gave a most interesting address. Taking his text from the 150th Psalm, ' Praise the Low on the high-sounding cymbrils,' the Rector dwelt on the means of praise to God from the time of the Psalmist to the present day; how the bells themselves entered our daily life by their joyful notes, as well as that of mourning: the need for harmony be-tween the parson and the ringers, and also the necessity for unity and good feeling between the ringers themselves. A move was then made to the Parish Hall, Clare Market, where a substantial ten had kindly been provided by the Rector and Mrs. Pennington Bickford.

Arrangements had been made for 60 persons, but considerably more than this number being present, several were entertained at an al-joining tearoom by that enthusiastic member, Mr. E. A. Young.

Over 100 members were present at the business meeting, the Master, Mr. T. H. Taffender, being in the chair .- Five new members were elected.

The Master drew attention to the strainened circumstances of the widow and family of the late Mr. Fred Davis, and a subscription list was at once headed by the Rector and Mr. C. Dean, Rules 1 and 12 were aftered, rule 1 to include ' Patrons, honorary and ringing members,' and rule 12 to read ' Life ringing members' sulscription to be 5s., and henorary members to subscribe not less than 2s. 6d. per annum?

A collection was made toward the Restoration Fund at St. Clement's the sum of 25 5s, being handed to the Rector, who thanked the Ar-sociation for their help, both in this respect and for their services on Sundays.

Mrs, Pennington Bickford then determined to have a hand in the proceedings, and generously gave a donation of ±2 2s, to the Associa-tion, the funds being in a low state.

The Master read the unnual report, and called attention to the Association's loss of a valuable supporter in Mr. Hubbard, Forty-five new members were elected during the year 1919, and 14 peals were rung, the conducting being shared by Messrs, T. H. Taffender 10, A D. Baker 2, F. Skevington 1 and R. F. Deal 1. Two twelve-bell peals D. Faker 2, F. Skevington 1 and K, F. Deal 1. Two reviewed peak were amongst this number. Great prohad been made in peal ringing in as he was pleased to say that since the district was formed they had rung the first peal of Triples ever rung by local men, at Burghill, on rung the next point of trupics ever rung by local meen at Burghill, on September 27th, and the first local peal of Triples over rung in the city was rung at the Cathedral on Wednesday. February 4th, con-ducted by his colleague, Mr. Williams. He urged upon all present the duty of keeping their bells going regularly for service, if only good rounds were rung. The Rev. G. W. Turner proposed that Mr. Edwards be re-elected as

DONOR OF ERITH BELLS DEAD.

On Tuesday, February, 10th, the death occurred, at Bournemouth, of the Rev. Canon A. W. Boulden, Vicar of Christ Church, Erith, at the age of 73. During his 28 years' incumbency he had spent a sum of more than £10,000 on improving and beautifying his church. The crowning act of his life, as he so often described it himself, camo about five years ago, when he gave a new tower and spire, and a peal of eight bells to complete the church.

He often expressed great satisfaction and thankfulness at having been spared to see its completion. One of his very last wishes was that he might be taken back to Erith to be within the sound of his beautiful bells, and arrangements had actually been made for him to be brought back in a motor ambulance on the Wednesday, but he died the previous evening. To show how interested he was in his ringers and bells, he sent special message at Christmas to Mr. E. Barnett, of Crayford, asking him to do whatever he could to interest and help to meet them again at some other centre. Knebworth was chosen for the next meeting. Business over, St. Mary's tower was again visited, and the bells were kept going until 8.30 p.m.

The recent meeting of the Wotton-under-Edge Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association was attended by members from Dursley, Thornbury, Borkeley, Wotton and Nibley. After service and tea the usual business meeting was held, when Mr. F. K. Howell spoke in support of the scheme for providing a memorial for the fallen ringers of the diocese and voiced the thanks of the ringers to the Rector (the Rev. E. R. Mosley). Some good ringing practice was obtained during the afternoon and evening.

RECRUITING THE RANKS.

At a recent meeting of the North Notts Association there were expressions of regret that a larger number of young ringers were not coming into the Exercise, and an appeal was made by the Vicar of Worksop that efforts should be made to increase the strength of the ringers from the ranks of the congregations. The experience of the North Notts Association is not unique, and yet we find curious contrasts in other districts, where whole bands of young enthusiasts are being added to the roll of the Associations. Those, however, who are having no difficulty in keeping up the strength of the local companies, and consequently maintaining the membership of the Associations to which they are affiliated, are in an enviable position.

The case of those who lack the regular infusion of young blood is a matter for serious concern. To begin with, it results eventually, as removals and deaths occur, in so reducing the numbers at the tower affected that it becomes impossible to ring all the bells for the services, it limits the scope of practice for those who remain and, in time, undermines their enthusiasm. This in turn reacts upon the Association for the area in which the tower is situated, resulting, perchance, in the ultimate loss of this belfry. The matter, therefore, is one of more than local concern, and the North Notts Association, at any rate, recognises it in this light, and some helpful suggestions were put forward.

The first step in the remedy is unquestionably to interest the incumbent of the church, because it can generally be taken that where there is a lack of ringers there is also lack of active interest in the ringers by the parson, while, usually, where the clergyman is keen about the bells and the ringers, there will be found a flourishing band. With the help of the parson, half the difficulty in securing recruits for the belfry is overcome, for then an appeal to the congregation as a whole, or to the local branch of the C.E.M.S., is never without result. Indeed, as we have more than once pointed out, the Men's Society, which is now to be found in almost every parish, is the recruiting ground which offers the best chance of success, for it includes in its ranks men pledged to the service of the Church, who would be only too glad of the opportunity of proving their desire to help in any direction where help is needed. Interest in Lells and ringing could also be stimulated by the methods so often advocated in this column, and, given the active aid of the clergy, there ought to be no purish where, despite counter attractions of a more exciting nature, there is genuine ground to lament the absence of necessary recruits for the belfry.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE REV. H. A. COCKEY.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Many ringers who know the late Rev. H. A. Cockey may be interested to know that a memorial revelos has been placed in old land Church, where he was Vicar for many years. The following is an extract from the church records: 'Dec. 14th, 1919. At 11 a.m., a Revelog in memory of the hute Herbert Adolphus. Cockey. PROPOSED RING OF 12 FOR TAUNTON.

PROPOSED RING OF 12 FOR TAUNTON. A meeting of St. Mary's Guild, Tuunton, was held in the belfry on Monday evening, the Rev. Freb. Corfield presiding; Major Lightowhers (churchwarden) being also present. After the election of officers to the ensuing year, the conductor asked the chairman to unveil a board recording a peal of Bob Royal (5040 changes), the first peal of Royal rung in the country by resident monbers. The Chairman congratulated the band on their performance, and an interesting discussion followed on the ways and means of obtaining the money to relauge the bells in St Mary's tower, as it is considered detrimental to the tower to ring them in their present condition. The tower contains 14 bells—10 rung in peal and four carillon bell It is hoped to have two of these utilised and a new treble added to make a ring of twelve, and a light ring of eight, with the present 7th as tenor. It is hoped subscribers will be forthcoming in the near future.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION. ROCHDALE BRANCH MEETING.

The members of the Rochdale branch of the Lancashire Association add an exceptionally successful meeting on Saturday week at St. Thomas', Moorside, seventeen towers being represented. There were 34 members of the Rochdale and Manchester branches present, and Thomas', Moorside, seventeen towers being represented. There were 54 members of the Rochdale and Manchester branches present, and the ringers were delighted to welcome a great many friends who at-tended this meeting to show their respect to the memory of the lat-Mr. Harry Hampson, who had passed away as a result of wounds re-neived while serving in the Great War. It had been specially arranged to hold the meeting at Moorside in order to unveil a peal tablet re-cording the muffled peal that had been rang on June 25th, 1919, t is little ceremony being impressively performed by the Rev. J. H. (ar-nett, M.A. (Vicar of the Parish). On behalf of the Moorside band, sir. Herbert Barlow then handed over this tablet to the Vicar's care, and the Vicar said he was very pleased to receive this beautifully designed board, as it would certainly be an ornament to their tower. The bells were kept going in touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples, and Kont Treble Bob and Plain Bob Major. The business meeting was presided over by the Vicar. The tower chosen for next meeting was Resided Parish Church, the date being left in the hands of the branch secretary (Mr. T. K. Driver). A resolution received from the Bolton branch recommending that the annual meeting of the association be held carlier in the year (about Whit-Week) was fully discussed, with the result that the majority of the Rochdale members were not in favour of any change being made. It was decided to leave over the making of any decision until other members, unable to be present on that occasion, were given an oppor-tunity of staing their views.

The meeting concluded with the customary vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the tower, and to the local band for having everything in readiness.

Later in the evening the mombers of the branch were favoured with the presence of the President of the Association (Rev. Canon Elsee, M.A., Vicar of St. George's, Bolton), who spent a short time in the tower, and expressed his personal satisfaction with the tone of the bells. The members afterwards adjourned to the Moorside Hotel. where touches of Grandsire Triples were included in on the handbells. Attempts wore made at Grandsire Caters, but owing to lack of prac-tice, this did not prove quite as successful as might have been desired. Mr. John Mitten (of Todmorden) gave his usual excellent display of tune ringing.

PENTRE RHONDDA.-Liandaff Association.-On Monday, Januarv 26th, 1920, at St. Teter's Church, for the consecration service of St. David's Church, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1260 changes), in 48 mins.: H. DEATH OF A VETERAN YORKSHIRE RINGER

CLOSE OF A LONG CAREER.

After a ringing career of more than 60 years at the church, where his father before him was a ringer for half a century, Mr. John Wilson Lang has passed away at his home at Livorsedge, at the ripe age of 79 years. As son of the late Mr. Obadiah Lang, formerly of Listing Lane Farm, Liversedge, the decased was well known throughout the ringing circles of West Ricing of Yorkshire.

Mr. Lang had been in failing health for some time, and refired from business 15 years ago, having been a partner in the firm of Messrs. O. Lang and Sons, blankot manufacturers, of Valley Road, Liversedge, for many years. His early years were spent at the Listing Lane Farm, which had been in the occupation of members of the Lang family for a few generations, and it was there that blanket manufacturing was first started. There is at the present time at the farm, a building which is known as the 'shop,' and it is believed handlooms were at work there long before power-looms had been introduced to the district.

When Mr. J. W. Lang was only a boy his father had already earned for himself a name as a first-class bell ringer, being regular in attend for hunsen a number as a new conception ranger, news respectively in a constant of the Liversedge Parish (burych, When still in his teens the deceased evinced a keen interest in the art. So much so, that at the age of sixteen years he frequently accompanied his parents to the helfry and received his instruction. He shortly afterwards joined the band of ringers at Liversedge, and when 26 years of age (in 1867), he participated in a peal of 6,240 changes, which was accomplished un three hours and 42 minutes, at the Liversedge Church. An accontplishment of which he was very proud was that he constituted one of the ringers at Liversedge when 10,272 changes were rung in two minutes short of six hours. For a period of about four years he was a member of the Birstall Parish Church beltry, and he was connected with the local handbell ringers. His father and he were the proud possessors of several campanological trophies. It was only in November of last year that Mr. Lang found it necessary to relinquish his connection with the Liversedge ringers. He was in attendance at the church when the news of the signing of the Armistice was pealed out on November 11th, 1918. He had attended prize ringing all over the North of England, and had won the following first prizes along with his company -Rawmarsh Almondbury, Brighouse, and Huddersfield, as well as many seconds and thirds. Mr. Lang had rung posts at all towers in the surround-ing districts, and secured numerous prizes for handbell ringing; and he had also accomplished the feat of ringing all the bells at Liver-sedge three times round in peals of 5,000, which probably constitutes a record.

There was a large attendance at the funeral, including ringers from Liversedge, Birstall, Mirfield, Earlsheaton, Huddersfield and Lindley After the committal a course of Grandsire was rung over the grave by W. Knolt 1-2, W. Thomas 3-4, G. Bolland 5-6, S. Goodall 7-8. In the evening a date touch of 1920 Keut Treble Bob was rung on the parish church bells by B. Cook, Liversedge, 1; W. Knott, Liversedge 2; W. Clark, Birstall, 3; A. North, Mirfield, 4; S. Gocdall, Liversedge. 5: E. Lister, Liversedge, 6: E. Crother, Birstell (conductor), 7: W. Brearley, Lindley, 8. On the following Saturday a muffled peal of Kent Troble Bob was rung.

A BELLS REPAIR FUND.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-I have often wondered why there has never been estabhehed a direct church bell fund for the repair or recasting of bells. I Think there should be one in every county. Why should bells in various bellries be so neglecked that the time arrives when they can-nel be rung at all? It makes no difference how good and expert the ringers are, good ringing cannot be obtained on bad going bells.

I would suggest that a church hell fund should be started in every county, and a Sunday appointed in each year for collections in aid. think the first Sunday after Christmas would be a good time. The general cry is when money is wanted for this purpose, where is it to come from? I think my suggestion would put an end to that. I would further suggest that all collections should be merged in one fund and placed on deposit at some appointed bank until it is required,

To me the belfry and balls are as sacred as any other part of the church, and it has its rights as well as its duties. But in general the balls and belfry are the last consideration. That should not beyours fruly, Reigate.

SURPRISE METHODS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Mr. Carter's last lotter does not seem to help us much. We all know what Mr. Carter wants. What we want to know is why he wants it, and what advantage we are to get by it.-lours fultifully, E. BANKES JAMES.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION. TUNBRIDGE WELLS NEW BELLS.

Tunbridge Wells, with its new ring of eight bells at St. Peter's Church, was the venue of the recent Tonbridge district meeting ot the Kent County Association, and the attraction of ringing on this fine peal helped to bring together an attendance of 60 members from all parts of the district. Ringing was kept up during the afternoon, and the association's form of service was used in church, the Vicar (the Rev. W. H. Ferguson) officiating. The choir led the singing, and the Vicar gave a short address.

Tea in the Parish Room was presided over by the Vicar, supported by the two churchwardens, Mr. R. R. Collins and Mr. C. F. Catt, and also by Mr. C. Dean (representing Messrs, Gillett and Johnston, Bell Founders, Croydon). At the conclusion of the tea, the District Secreto leave owing to another engagement, and he proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and Parish Room, and for conducting the service and presiding at the tea; and to Mr. Collins for his attendance.—The Vicar, in reply, said that it gave him the great-est pleasure to meet the members, and he also announced that the debt on the bells was entirely wiped out. This announcement way received with applause.

The business meeting followed, Mr. C. F. Catt presiding .- The Dis-trict Secretary read his annual report and balance sheet, which were considered very satisfactory.—About 30 new practising members and three new hon, members were elected. It was decided that the quarterly meetings for the ensuing year should be held at Edenbridge East Peckham, Sevenoaks or Staplehurst, and the next annual meeting at Tonbridge,

The District Secretary was re-elected. Mr. Latter returned thanks for his re-election, remarking that he had held that office for 25 years, and thanked the secretaries of the various bands for their kinf assistance.--Mr. G. Edwards (Penshurst) was re-elected district represeptative).

The District Secretary then made an earnest appeal to the members for subscriptions to the Association's War Memorial, which it was proposed should be the addition of two bells to the peal of ten at Canterbury Oathedral, and the erection of a tablet in the Cathedral. He said that about 60 members of the Association had laid down their lives in the Great War, and he read the names of 12 members of this district. He hoped that the members would enable the committee to carry out the scheme, and thus perpetuate the memory of their fallen brothers in true ringers' fashion.

Mr. . G. H. Stonesteet, of Toubridge, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Catt for presiding at the meeting, and also to Mr. Colthanks to hir. Cart for presiding at the meeting, and diso to hir. Col-lins and the late and present Vicars for the part they had taken in getting the bells recess and relung; and dwelt on the vast improve-ment in the tone and 'go ' of the bells os compared with the old ones.—This was seconded by Mr. C. Dean (Croydon). The District Secretary, in putting the resolution, spoke of the enor-mous difficulties that had been overcome in carrying out the work by the opposition gove people had approved to the work by gove the opposition some people had expressed to the work being done. and also of the difficulty in raising the amount required (nearly .2500). He also said that the ladies of the parish deserved the highest praise for the manner in which they organised and carried out the house-tohouse collection and the concert, which had so materially helped to wipe out the debt.

Mr. Catt, in reply, recounted some of the difficulties they had en-countered, but they were amply repaid now by possessing such a beautiful peal of hells, which had been pronounced by that well-known expert on bell-(uning (Mr. W. W. Starmer) to be absolutely correct in He was also gratified to hear the favourable comments of the ers present that day. He also mentioned that the whole of the tone. members present that day. money had been raised within a year.

Votes of manks to the organist and choir for their services concluded the meeting, and the members again adjourned to the lower, and the bells were kept going until nine o'clock.

SALOP ARCHIDIACONAL GUILD.

On Saturday last a monthly meeting of the Salop Archidiacoust Guild was held at St. Leonar Ps Church, Malius Lee; and the weather being favourable, there was a fair attendance of members, about being present, several members evolus 15 miles to the tower. The following branches were represented: Shrowsbury, Conbrookdale Bridgnorth, Malins Lee, and Stauton-on-Hineboath. Tea was provided by Mrs. Woodvine and friends in the parish hall. During the afternoon and evening, touches in the following methods were rung: Sted-man. Plain Bob and Grandsire Doubles and Plain Bob, Double Court College Single, Kent Troble Bob and Canterbury Pleasure Minor.

BENHILTON, SURREY .- On Thursday, Feb. 5th, at a 68th birthday compliment to the conductor, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at All Saints: Church: Miss V. Shorter 1, A. J. Perkina (conductor) 2, H. Skelt 3, F. Ford 4, R. Lathbury 5, A. Clark 6, R Brough 7, B. Hall 8.

THE CROYDON FOUNDRY BELL I920.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION. DEARTH OF YOUNG RINGERS.

A quarterly meeting of the North Notts Association was held at Worksop on Saturday, February 7th, when 30 members assembled from Anston, Blyth, Gainsborough, Harthill, Lincoln, Shireoaks, Nor-ton Cuckney, and Worksop. The Priory bells were most kindly placed at the disposal of the members, and many touches were rung of Ox-ford and Kent, Violet, Woodhine, Plain Bob, Standard and Cambridge Summer, the administry of which was shured by Messre J. S. Betts Surprise, the conducting of which was shared by Messrs, J. S. Betts (Lincoln), C. F. Fowler and H. Stonton (Anston), F. Hargreaves (Shireoaks), and H. Haigh (Worksop).

The Vicar (Canon D'Arcy) presided over the tea and the business meeting which followed. Mr. D. Linton, of Norton Cuckney, was elected a probationary member; and the next meeting (annual) will be held at Retford in May.

The Hon. Secretary drew the members' attention to the importance of electing as many vice-presidents in the association a_S possible; in fact, every town or village affiliated should be represented by at least one hon. member, and when elected the members of the tower should keep in touch with them, and not allow their membership to lapse He admitted the elergy had passed, and were still passing, through a very critical period, financially; in fact, they were having the most trying time of their existence, but all were auxious to keep in touc with the association.

The Hon. Secretary moved a vote of thanks to the Rev. Canon I) Arcy for presiding over the tea and meeting, and also for granting the use of the bells.-Mr. J. Guest (Harthill) seconded, and the motion was carried with acclamation.

The Chairman, in acknowledgment, paid a great tribute to the ringers' activities as church workers. Many years ago their science, ho said, was not regarded with the respect and reverence that it was to-day. He did not know why, unless it was because the tower and ringers were isolated from the rest of the church and the ringers were ringers were isotated from the rest of the church and the ringers were unseen by the people. What he particularly noticed that day amongst the ringers present was the many old and middle-aged men, and only one young new member had been elected. Many of the men there, by that of hard work, and assiduous perseverance, had become experts in their beautiful art of campanology. He did not understand much about it, nevertheless he knew it was a most extraordinary art to unstable the ment there there there is benefitible the agent work here the manipulate the ropes and produce those beautiful changes which has come down from the ages. Where were all the young men of Work-sop and other places? Why were they not following in the footsteps of their predecessors? He was just afraid the rising generation of young men all over the country found-something with more fun an.? excitement to occupy their spare time, and were not so interested in the art as their forefathers. But what was going to happen when the old ringers passed away or others left the neighbourhood? Who would fill their places? He exhorted the young members to follow in the footsteps of their elders, and to try and carry on stedfastly in their duty as churchmen. Continuing, the Chairman remarked that their duty as churchmen. Continuing, the Chairman remarked that the hon, secretary had hit the nail on the head when he alluded to some of the poor clergy resident in North Notis and other places. They could meet one almost every day trying to carry a smile on his face, ready to crack a joke, but who, in the innermost recesses of his heart, had a feeling of heaviness. They were almost broken-hearted not because they were thinking or themselves, but the future of their wives and children. A fund had been started in that district, but no one liked to accept charity. What a man wanted was honest work and respectable pay. There would no doubt be a change some day. A steam roller moved very slowly, but when it got to work it did its work powerfully and well. He asked the ringers to carry on the good work they were doing, and make known in the town and village. good work they were doing, and make known in the town and village, wherever they were doing, and make known in the town and village, The Hon. Secretary thanked the Canon for his most inspir-ing address, and said he had touched on the fringe of two subjects that would give food for reflection for many days to come,

Further ringing was included in during the evening, and the belie were lowered in peal at 8.30 p.m. H. H.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

The quarterly meeting of the Winchester District was held at Win-chester on February 14th. KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

UNVEILING CEREMONY AT LEWISHAM.

The quarterly meeting of the Lewisham district was held at Greenwich, members turning up in good force. Touches of Grandsire and Steiman Triples, Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Superlative Surpris-Major, Grandsire and Stedman Cators, and Treble Bob Royal were range and service was held in the church, over fifty being present, in-cluding the two churchwardens (Mr. J. East and Mr. W. C. Fretwell). The Vicar (the Rev. F. J. Tackley) officiated, assisted by the Rev. D. R. Evans (curate), the organist and choir also being present. Mr. F. W.

Thornton read the lesson. Previous to the Nunc Dimittis, the clergy, choir and the church-wardens proceeded to the west end of the church, and the Vicar dedi cated a marble tablet recording a quarter-peal of Stedman Caters, rung to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the consecration of the building, and a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major, to celebrate the con-building, and a peat of Kent Treble Bob major, to celebrate the con-clusion of the great war. The Vicar then gave a short address, in which he spoke very kindly of ringers and their duties, and also made feeling allusion to those who had given their lives for their country. Ten followed, the Vicar and churchwardens sitting down with the company. The business meeting was held in the Church mouse, Ar. W. J. Jeffrics in the chair. Fifteen new members were elected, and Beckenham was selected for the next quarterly meeting in April.

Mr. W. J. Jeffries then read his report of the Central Commu-es meeting, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him. Cordial thanks were also accorded the Vicar for the use of the bells, his ad-dress, and the use of the room, to the organist and choir, and others who assisted to make the meeting so successful.

The Hon. Secretary of the Devon Guild, in writing upon the position taken up by Mr. John Carter in the question of the definition of a Surprise method, touches upon an important aspect which ought not to be overlooked, and that is that after a lapse of years Mr. Carter puts forward views which do not coincide with those to which he had previously subscribed his name as a member of the Central Council's Legitimate Methods Committee. Without entering into the question whether Mr. Carter's contention is right or not, we have in this controversy, as we have had in others, the spectacle of a member of a Committee disagreeing with a report to which he has been a party. Every man, of course, is allowed to change his mind; but when the Council's experts, to whom the Exercise look for a lead, disagree thus strongly upon a matter of principle, the faith of the general body of ringers in the Council's authority, or its ability to legislate, is shaken.

It can hardly be hoped that on any subject relating to method construction and classification we shall get unanimity among the experts, and failing this the Exercise must presumably accept the views of the majority; but the position of the Council is a little difficult when committeemen throw over the findings of their own Committees. In Mr. Carter's case, his views upon Bristol Surprise, if accepted, would rule out of the Surprise class several of the six-bell Surprise methods, for the classification of which he was jointly responsible with others. In change ringing the methods came first and the definitions were made to suit the methods-Bristol included. The whole argument in this particular case, of course, turns upon what is meant by a 'cross-section,' and as the definition was specially drawn by the author to cover Bristol and methods of kindred construction, the Exercise, we think, will be prepared to accept the Rev. E. Bankes James' claim.

But the broader question remains: what is to be the position of the Council in attempting to guide the Exercise if those whom it selects to give that guidance disagree among themselves? We had a striking instance of this disagreement in the controversy on Lead Ends, and now we have another example. As a correspondent remarks, 'Under such conditions, what authority are we to attach to the Central Council publications, which are perhaps the most important and lasting work which the Council has done for the Exercise?' The Council has no way that we can see of guarding against a sudden change of view on the part of a sponsor to a report; but the committeeman who had committed himself to a proposition by adding his name to it might reasonably be asked officially to give the reasons for his change of view.

SURPRISE METHODS AND THE ETHICS OF AUTHORSHIP To the Editor.

Sir,-Will Mr. Carter allow me to remind him, with all respect, that a collection of methods was published some years ago, and is still being offered for sale under the authority of a committee of the Central Council, Mr. John Carter himself being one of them? Among these methods are several denominated Surprise which have no inter-ual places oither at the Treble's full lead or lie. While everyone has a perfect right to change his mind, those who look to these publica-tions for guidance as the considered opinion of the experts responsible tions for guidance as the considered opinion of the experts respondence for them have surely the right to know why they are now asked to adopt a different attitude from that previously indicated to the and, above all, to expect that no doubt be cast on the bona-fide sub-scription of members of Central Council Committee to the opinions they publish.—Yours, etc., E. RECRUITING THE RANKS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Your leading article in the current issue, commenting and enlarging upon the appeal of the Vicar of Worksop for more recruits into the ranks of counge ringers will be read with very great interest by all who have the science of campanology at heart, for it touches upon a problem which is of vital importance to the future of the Exercise. It is, however, not a problem without a solution, and vour valuable suggestions, if carried out, ought to go a long way towards solving the difficulty.

There is, however, another question arising out of it, to which I would like to draw the alteration of all bands of ringers, and especially to bring to the notice of branch sccs., and that is the question of 'lost recruits,' for it is a fact that large numbers of recruits are lost to the Exercise for the want of a system which I am going to suggest. -1 Exercise for the want of a system which I am going to suggest. -1 think that it will generally be agreed that the largest number of recruits are obtained in country districts, where facilities for practice are greater than in the towns, and where there is not the continual danger of causing annoyance and a nuisance by the discord of badly rung bells, but the day when young men are content to live and die in the village in which they were born is long past, their horizon is in the village in which they were born is long past, their horizon is extended, and now as the result of higher education we find them launching out in all directions, and the home belfry is continually faced with the necessity of obtaining recruits. Now what becomes of these former recruits? A large majority of them are undoubtedly lost. Owing to natural shyness and a feeling of inefficiency, the majority do not care to introduce themselves to the local band, or, some being only six bell ringers, do not care to ap-proach an eight bell tower, and so the Exercise loses a great deal of its very promising material. Now, my suggestion is this, every branch secretary ought to be notified when a ringer leaves hig district, and in introduce should be sent by him to the secretary of the district mo which the ringer has gone to reside, and the captain of the into which the ringer has gone to reside, and the captain of the nearest band should be invited to extend to him a welcome. It would be an excellent thing if, for this purpose, the Central Council would compile a complete list of names and addresses of all branch secretaris as a book of reference, for I am convinced that the result obtained would more than justify the effort made. Yours faithfully, Newton House, Gloucester. A. ALLAN BENNETT.

BRISTOL SURPRISE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-I was the first individual to call attention in the ' Bell News ' to the qualities of Bristol Surprise Major, and among other things I pointed out it was the first Surprise Method published, with Bob Major Lead-ends, without adjoining places; also that the method had a clean proof scale, tenors together, that the bells were always in proper coursing order in front and behind. All of these qualities nau long been searched for by many of us, but to the Rev. E. B. James belongs the credit of this discovery, and to no other. I have taken the trouble to write out and examine the four methods mentioned by Mr. Carter in your last issue. It is quite true of all of them to say that the bells are in proper coursing order in 7-8, but by no stretch of the imagination can they be said to be in proper coursing order in 1-2. Following is the first lead of my method Brighton Surprise plus 7th's and 2nd's places added when the treble is behind and in from respectively.

It is quite true we get a variation in this way of the original method, but 7th's and 2nd's places next the treble, or any other bell have been objected to by most of the modern method builders.

In the foregoing method it can be truly said the bells are always in proper coursing order in 1-2 and 7-3, and the method also has a clean proof scale, tenors together.

In conclusion, I might say that I adopted the Rev. E. Bankes James definition for a Surprise Method as soon as it was sent to me, and I see no reason at present for altering it.—Yours faithfully, GEORGE BAKER.

TRIUMPH FOR BRITISH BELL FOUNDING. FIFTY-SIX BELLS FOR WASHINGTON

The Loughborough Bell Foundry, it is reported, is to make a carillon of 56 bells-the heaviest and finest of its kind in the world-for the War Memorial at Washington, U.S.A. The bells are to be placed in a tower 500 feet high. This is a great triumph for British bell founding

The ' Morning Post ' says: ' The idea of installing keyboard caril-The Morning Post'says: The idea of installing kcyboard carll-lons, on which music suitable for bells can be artistically interpreted, as war memorials is evidently catching on. The sum required for the Loughborough bell tower and carillon is already assured, and other towns, such as Spalding, are likely to follow this excellent example. A true carillon-not the aerial musical box grinding out airs which, much more often than not, are quite unsuited to bells—is manifestly the best means of recalling the service and self-sacrifice of our Glorious Dead since all who hear it must needs remember the warlike past, as Longfellow did when he listened at night to the famous Dumery befis at Bruges."

at Bruges.⁴ ⁴ America is also adopting this method of commentorating her fallen fighting men. The War Memorial at Washington, U.S.A., is to be a great building, of which the central feature will be a tower, not less than 500ft, in height, in which a carillon of 56 bells is to be in-stalled with the most modern appliances for playing it. Except at Buffalo, where a set of 45 bells (of which only 20 are in Use) exists, where head at ultime write in the United States ⁴. no keyboard carillon exists in the United States."

CARDIFF PEAL TABLEY UNVEILED.

An interesting little ceremony took place in the Ringing Chamber of St. John's, Cardiff, on Thursday, March 4th, when the Vicar of the Parish, the Rev. M. J. Powell, D.D., with the two churchwardens, Dr. H. E. Skyrine and Mr. F. Fordsdike, together with their wives, attended for the purpose of unveiling a peal board recording the fact that a peal of Grandsire Caters was rung on the bells on December 27th lat her methods of the March 25 27th last by members of the Llandaff Diocesan Association. Prior to the unveiling, it being practice night, various touches were rung.

The Hon. Secretary said a few words in reference to the peal, men-tioning that it was one which really deserved recording for more than one reason, the peal itself being beautifully struck, and, as was menbirthday peal for the veteran, Mr. John Clutterbuck, one of the birthday peal for the veteran, Mr. John Clutterbuck, one of the originators of the Association: and the other, that it was a peace peal for the city of Cardiff on the termination of the great European Var. After the unveiling, the Vicar made an excellent speech, and said he was most pleased that the peal was rung under such unique circum-stances, and that it should be so worthily recorded. Both the wardens said how pleased they were to be present. They were so impressed with the board that they propose having a dupli-cit of it could be so worthild be on the they propose having a duplicate of it, only in more substantial and lasting material, placed in the church so that all could see, and future generations would knox what was done in the nature of ringing after the most terrible war in the history of the world.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

SOUTH WESTERN DIVISION.

A very successful meeting of the South Western Division was held at Hornchurch on Saturday week. Ringing took place in the after-noon, and service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Chas. Steer). Tea was partaken of at the King's Head, and was followed by the business meeting, which was presided over by the Viear, supported by the District Master (Mr. W. Theobald).—The Hon. Secretary ex-plained why the suggested by-meeting fixed for Barking was not held. One new honorary member and twelve ringing members were elected, nine of whom belong to the newly-formed Hornchurch band. who are making splendid progress under the able tuition of Messrs. Chaplin, Dale and Watson.

Chapter, Date and watson. Chigwell Row was selected for the next meeting due to be held in May.—The meeting concluded with a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for granting permission for the meeting, and to Mr. Dale, the steeplekeeper, for having everything in readiness. The majority of those present again returned to the tower.

those present again returned to the tower. A feature of one of the buckes was that four of the oldest mem-bers of the association took part, viz.: Messrs. W. Doran, T. Crau-field, J. Waghorn, senr. and A. J. Perkins, whose combined ages totalled over 280 years. During the afternoon, between 30 and 40 members were present, 36 partaking of tea, and the touches in various methods ranged from Grandsire to London Surprise. In the opinion of some of the oldest of those present, it was voted the best meeting for the S.W. District that has been held for a great number of years. Amongst the towers represented were: Barking, Dagenhar, Kom-ford, Little Bentley, West Ham, Leytonstone and Hornchurch, together with several non-resident life members from various parts.

THE RINGING WORLD.

March 12th, 1920.

THE CROYDON BELL FOUNDRY 1920.

THE LONG TEN.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,-I have read with interest the letters from your corro-spondents, Messrs. Jerram and Fuller. Both are right. The Exercise is not confined to one 10, but I would remind Mr. Fuller the go off is not comment to bills 10, but I would remain and Fille incely. n Grandsire Doubles 21354 follows his 12534 quilte nicely. I commenced my ringing career at Harby, Leicestershire, in 1887. One member of the band possessed a copy of Troyte's ' Change Ringwhich among other useful information treats extensively of ling." Grandsire Doubles.

Change ringing proper was quite beyond our ability. At least, so we thought. It meant study and hard work, and grave doubts were entertained as to whether it was practised anywhere, as laid down by Mr. Troyte on account of its intrinser as each by Mr. Troyte, on account of its intricacy, so each man stuck to his own bell, and learnt by heart the bells he had to follow in the first ten of Grandsire Doubles, and kept on ringing them over and over again until the captain thought ringers and public had had enough. Then he called them round (after the treble had led) at hand stroke, the tenor having to jump two places, but that was a mere detail. By the way, the captain always rang the treble, then he knew when he had led.

About this time a neighbouring village hand paid us a visit and rang a different ten, which ran into rounds every 10th change or so, when the captain—on the treble, of course—called ' Bob.' We were jealous of his ' bob '—we hadn't got one, but we scorned a ten with rounds in it, so stuck to our own. The next step was to learn the 30 (plain course). This took an awful lot of doing, as it was impossible to put anyone right once they struck after the wrong bell, which caused much heated argu-ment, and sometimes loss of temper, and was the cause of losing more than one promising ringer.

After much practice, we learnt to do it fairly confidently, and used to ring the ten nine times, then the 30 to finish up with-120. We got on so well we could ring the 30 four times over, equalling

120-same thing, but much more difficult. We were quite cock of the district, and thought we had attained about the last word in change ringing, when, lo! one fine day Mr. W. E. White came along with a party from Cotgrave, Notts, and look the wind out of our sails properly. They rang real 120's with real bobs and singles. At least, Mr. White said they did, and we were inclined to believe him, because, although he rang the trable, he didn't call them out so often as the other captain had done, and the bells didn't run into rounds every time. Then, when ringing had finished, and we were talking things over in the village tavern he spoilt it all by saying Grandsire wasn't the only method they had rung-they had rung 120's of Canterbury and Plain Bob as well. Well, that did it! Some believed him, but the majority voted him a bigger fraud than the other chap, and said it was nothing more than a new kind of ten (or 30 at the mest). that we didn't know of. It was utterly impossible for mere man to do what they said they had done. How could they remember them all?—and in different order, too! Pshuw, all bosh! But there was no gotting away from the fact that White's men knew more about ringing than we did, because some of them stood in with us and rang our 10 and 30 as well as we could do it ourselves, but we couldn't ring theirs, so they took a bit of conceit out of of us. In the subsequent controversy as to whether they did, or did not ring real 120's, opinions differed to such an extent that our band was completely smashed up. Some never rang again, and others, including myself, did not touch a bell rope for more than two years. About that time, the Rev. C. H. Lacon was secretary of the Framland (N. Leicestershire) Ringing Society, and he arranged with Mr. W. Willson, of Leicester, to give a course of lessons throughout the district at churches with not less than five bells. A new band was formed out of the relics of the old, with some new blood added, and under Mr. Willson's tuition rapid progress was made. Within a year he called a peal of Minor in three methods, with five of his Framland pupils completing the band.

Training outputs completing the band. The socials he sowed have borne fruit. Change ringing flourishes in every tower he visited, and has been handed on to many others, both within and over the county border. My own serviceable band, which alas! got so sadly knocked about in the war was entirely (if indirectly) due to Mr. Willson's excellent toaching in the early 90's.

In recalling these memories of the past, one incident makes me feel rather uncomfortable. I wonder if any of the Harby ringers have had the politeness to apolo-gise to Mr. White for doubting him about those Bobs and Singles? 12345 21354 23145 32415 34251 and Singles: P.S.—Although we breated Mr. Fuller's Loug Ten ' with distain in the past, I always use it now to break youngsters in, but there is no doubt the other (Grandsire) is THE Long Ten—it has no ending. WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

A very successful and enjoyable monthly meeting of the Warwick-A very successful and enjoyable monthly meeting of the Warwick-shire Guild was held at Allesley. Nineteen members and friends were present from Allesley, Coventry and Knowle. Touches of Doubles and Minor were rung, and at the service the Guild's form was said. The tower was again visited, and touches of Kent Treble Bob and Bob Minor and Grandsire Doubles were rung.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION NEW SECRETARY OF CHEW DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Chew Deanery Branch of the Bath and The annual meeting of the Chew Dealery Branch of the Bart and Wells Association took place at Long Ashton, over 50 members attend-ing from Barrow Gurney, Chew Magna, Clapton, Easton-in-Gordano Portishead, Wraxell, Wrington, Tickenham, Yatton, Taunton and Bristol. Service was hold in the church, the Association's special form being used, and an excellent address was given by the Vicar (the Rev. J. E. Varley). Tea was provided at the Church House.

The business meeting followed, presided over by the Rev. J. E. Varley. The chairman, Mr. Thomas Wyatt, was re-elected, but the hon. secretary, Mr. George Yeo, had given notice at a previous meethon. secretary, Mr. George Yeo, had given notice at a previous meet-ing that he thought that it was time for him to retire in favour of someone else, as he had held the post for 17 years, and during that time had not missed a single meeting. Although again pressed to remain on another year it was of no avail, and the members then thought that the next best thing was to have Mr. Yeo's son, and Mr. Percy G. Yeo was unanimously elected here coretary cut traceurer hon, scoretary and treasurer. The vice-chairman, Mr. W. Gillingham, and Mr. G. G. KEEPING TOUCH.

A very useful and quite practical suggestion was put forward by a correspondent in our last issue on the subject of keeping touch with young ringers who migrate from their native towers. How often is it lamented that when a promising beginner has been brought on, force of circumstances has taken him away from the tower where he learnt to ring a bell! He has been lost, not only to his parent belfry, but to the Exercise, for lack of machinery to keep him in touch with ringing when he has moved from one village or town to another. There are many reasons which may deter a young ringer from going into a strange belfry, for he has not had the opportunity of realising the spirit of fraternity that exists among the members of the Exercise and the welcome which would await him—in most towers.

How best to introduce him to the new circle is a question which may find many answers. Some may say that if the man is worth his salt as a ringer he will find his own way to the belfry; but among those who take up the art are men who, conscious of shortcomings in their qualifications, would have a reluctance to enter a strange belfry. Yet, with encouragement, they might be capable of development into valuable additions to the Exercise. It is the first introduction to the new tower that is the necessary link for the continuation of the beginner's ringing career, and it ought not to be difficult to suggest some simple machinery by which this could be secured. If the invitation, as our correspondent suggested, could come from the tower nearest to which the stranger has gone to reside, it would give a greater feeling of welcome and comradeship than if the advances were made from the opposite side, and for that reason the method put forward by Mr. Bennett is a good one.

There might be objections to the publication of a book of names and addresses of secretaries by the Central Council, inasmuch as this would rapidly get out of date with the frequent changes that are made, but it might be possible to get some leisured member to undertake to keep an up-to-date list, and to forward information of removals to the right quarters. Or again, such a thing might be possible by being passed directly through the General Secretaries of Associations. Anyhow, the method, as long as it is efficient, matters little; what is wanted is someone to take the initiative in setting up a workable scheme by which migrating ringers—ard it is particularly the young ringer that has to be catered for, because the old ringer will always seek out the belfry wherever he goes—can be retained in the Exercise, and thus save the wastage of much good material. 134

SURPRISE METHODS.

To the Editor.

"To the Editor. Sir,—In reply to the Rev. E. S. Powell's letter in last week's issue of the 'Ringing World,' please allow me to point out with regard to the publication of the 'Collection of Legitimate Methods ' that I was not on the committee when that collection was published in 1907, and my name ought not to have been placed on the list of committeemen at all.—Further, I did not agree even then to all the methods in that collection, and did not sign it. Again Mr. Powell says that ' among these methods are several de-nominated Surprise which have no internal places either at the treble's full lead or fie,' but if he will turn to the preface, article 6 (methods founded on Principles), he will find this statement: 'Surprise Methods. having places made at all cross section,' and it is this for which I am standing.

Again, twenty-one methods (Numbers 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 10, 15 19, 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 33, 34, 36, 37, 38, 40), denominated Surprise on Farrs 31-40, are not Surprise at all. They should have been put in with Dolight Methods.

I marked these when I received the Collection in 1907, and have held this attitude all through, so that there has not been any change of mind at all.

May I further say that Snowdon's ' Standard Methods ' is the best ook for Surprise Methods?-Yours truly, JOHN CARTER. book for Surprise Methods?-Yours truly, ROCHESTER DISTRICT AND ANNUAL COUNTY MEETING.

A quarterly meeting of the Rochester District was held at Swans-combe on Saturday, March 6th, and, in spite of the heavy rain, over 50 members attended. A short service was held, the Rector of Swanscombe (the Rev. Campbell-Ward, an hon. member of the As-sociation) officiating, the organist also being in attendance. A col-lection on behalf of the Kent Ringers' War Memorial realised £1 0s 6d. After service, the Rector and Mrs. Ward entertained the ringers to an excellent tea in the Parish Room, which was much appreciated. The business meeting followed presided over the the Rector who

The business meeting followed presided over by the Rector, who welcomed the Association to Swanscombe. He said it gave Mrs. Ward and himself great pleasure to entertain them all to tea, and assured them that a future visit would be appreciated. A proposition was unanimously carried: 'That the decision of the Central Committee altering the date of the annual meeting from Whit-Monday to Easter Monday be referred back for further consideration,' and the dist-ict secretary was ordered to have this matter placed on the agenda at the annual meeting.

It was further recommended that it be brought forward that all annual meetings of the Central Council be attended by at least two of the county's representatives.

It was also decided that in the event of there being an election of representatives this year, Mr. W. Haigh should be nominated from the Rochester district as a candidate.

Twenty-right new practising members and two non-resident life members were elected, and the towers of Cobham and Hartlip again brought into union.

The next quarterly meeting was fixed for Cliffe on the first Saturday

In June. M. W. Haigh proposed that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded to the Rev. and Mrs. Compbell-Ward for the excellent tea they had provided, to the Rector for the use of the bolls, and for his address at the service; to the organist, and to Mr. and Mrs. W. Harper-for their valued help.

BELL ROPES, MUFFLES, &c. The Rector suitably responded, and after a course of Triples on the handbells the tower was again visited. Fourteen towers in the district were represented at the meeting.

CENTRAL COUNCIL ARRANGEMENTS.

To the Editor.

Sir,-It seems a pity that no one has taken up your suggestion of a Sur, -- to seems a pirst that no one has taken up your suggestion of a sort of Club Room for the meetings of the Central Council, as it is a requirement, which is much needed, and might much facilitate busi-ness. The chief difficulty would be, of course, the financial one. It would, however, bo worth while adding to the subscription of mem-bers a sufficient sum to cover the cost.

There is another suggestion which would not have this objection : that is, that there should be official excursions arranged to places of interest near the town of meeting. These should be quite apart from any peal ringing arrangements, and should be subject to sufficient payments being sent in to a local secretary by a certain date. If the meeting were held on a Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning, the Tuesday morning and the Wednesday afternoon might be given up to excursions.

No one has a word to say in defence of the present date. As, in-cluding this letter, the date has been questioned four times in your columns, may we assume that it really suits no one? And as no one has raised any objection to my suggestion of a fortnight later, that that would sult everyone? Not only is Whitsunweek an awkward time for church officials be away, but it is a time when most Associations hold meeting, online which members of the Council ought to be present. If my memory is correct, for some time after the Council was started, few or no Associations did this. Now that the practice has changed, it makes it difficult to deckle which one should attend. In order to attend both, one distinguished member of the Council travelled all night la t This was not possible for our two representatives and our ab year. sence from our own Association's meeting was most unfortunate, as it happened. In this case, instead of the Central Council helping, it has harmed the Association. has

NORTH BUCKS BRANCH MEETING.

A quarterly meeting of the North Bucks Branch was held at Newport Pagnell, on Saturday, March 61h when about 40 ringers attended from Bletchley, Chicheley, Emberton, Stony Stratford, Ol-ney, Calverton, North Orawley, and the local tower, while a very hey catterion. North Orawley, and the local tower, while a very pleasant surprise was spring upon the ringers by the appearance of the Master (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn), who came unexpectedly, but owing to the long distance before him, very reluctantly had to leave again before the service. A short address was, therefore, given by him in the belfry on the business of the Guild. The Vicar (the stev. B B. Gunnery) officialed at the service, and the Fresident of the Branch (the Rev. J. R. Vincent, of Shenley) gave an interesting ad-dress. About 36 sat down to tea, arranged by the Rev. F. B. Gun-nery, to whom and to the workers who assisted him thanks were pro-nosed Posed.

The methods rung during the meeting were Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob and Superlative Surprise.

A few ringing friends from the Bedfordshire Association attended A rew highly mends from the best meetings hold since the con-the gathering, which was one of the best meetings hold since the con-clusion of the war. It is hoped this is a sign that the branch will soon make headway and return to pre-war standard. One more tower, with soven ringing members, joined the branch.

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

At a special general meeting held on Saturday last, it was decided to increase the entrance fee to 5s. The rule with regard to steeple-age has also been amended. RECRUITING THE RANKS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Mr. A. Allen Bennott's suggestion is a most excellent one, which I believe is carried out in many branches of the C.E.M.S., when a member removes to another district.

In our tower we have two enthusiastic ringers, originally six-be ! men. One attended morning and evening services for months, when, quite by accident, I heard he was a linger, and at once approached him, and as a result he became attached to the tower. The othera Metropolitan policeman-used to wander round the church on his beat on practice nights, but did not find his way up for some con-siderable time, until I got into touch with him. Now with some such means is force as Mr. Beunott edggests, these two ringing friends would not have been lost to the 'Exercise' so long, but would have been welcomed at once.—Yours truly,

ROBERT HOLLOWAY.

THE DEMANDS UPON SPACE.

The discussion which took place at the recent meeting of the Middlesex Association and the resolution which was passed with regard to " The Ringing World " is interesting and not altogether unwelcome. It is interesting because it reveals how little the average ringer knows of the difficulties which beset such a publication as this in these abnormal times, and it is not unwelcome because it gives an opportunity of replying to criticisms which sometimes reach us and which, on this occasion, are publicly made. We have endeavoured from time to time to show how the handicap of the existing conditions prevents us from expanding as we would desire, but it is evidently necessary to remind the Exercise of some of the facts that govern the position.

The resolution asks us to put aside advertisements, peals and correspondence on the subject of composition in order to publish touches and other matter which would be beneficial to beginners. Now, no one is more anxious than we are to cater for those who are taking the fir-t steps in the art, but those who argue that this should be done to the exclusion of matters which interest those who have gone beyond the beginner stage have lost the sense of proportion. It is, we think, unnecessary here to enter into a justification of the publication of peal reports and of correspondence in which those interested in the higher branches of the art take part. Not unnaturally many people who send a contribution to a paper, whether it be a peal, a touch, alletter, or the report of a meeting, consider that their particular item is the most important for the next issue; but it is the unprejudiced mind in the editorial chair, coupled with the knowledge of the mechanical limitations which have to be coped with, that must finally decide which contributions shall have precedence, and we ask our contributors to believe that the choice of what shall appear is made as far as possible in the best interests of the majority of the readers, and without " fear or favour, affection or ill-will."

But now we come to the wider issue, which is touched upon by the suggestion that a sacrifice of advertisements should be one of the methods by which the limitations of space should be overcome. Those who talk in this strain are unaware that the present cost of printing and distributing " The Ringing World " is just about one farthing more per copy than the twopence which they pay for it, so that without a substantial advertisement revenue there could be no " Ringing World " at all. If we make a comparison with the pre-war cost of production, it may surprise many to know that paper such as this journal is printed upon is costing five times as much and labour is three times as high now as in 1914. Paper is still soaring, and was never higher in war time, while one never quite knows when another demand for higher wages may have to be met. With these complications, it is impossible to do more than carry on from week to week, making the best of the position.

The solution of the problem of providing for the wants of beginners is not on the lines suggested at the Middlesex meeting, viz., the exclusion of matters of interest to others more advanced, or the elimination of one of the most important sources of revenue, but a larger paper. This, at a time when paper is more difficult to obtain than under the war-time rationing scheme, is practically impossible. In any case, it could only be done at an increased charge. One of the difficulties of newspapers is that, unlike the draper or the grocer, the owner is not able to pass on every rise in the cost of production and material to the customer. The alternative lies between bring content for a time with the present limitations or having a bigger journal at a higher price. This is no easy choice, for no one knows better than we do the growing demand for expansion, nor, we presume, the obstacles to a larger journal circulating, as "The Ringing World " does, among a limited public.

SALOP ARCHIDIACONAL GUILD. RINGING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

RINGING UNDER DIFFICULTIES. On Saturday, March 20th, a monthly meeting of the Salop Archidia-conal Guild was held at Cound, where there is a ring of six belle cast by Rudhall in 1726. Ringing commenced at 3 p.m., and several good touches of Grandsire and Stedman Doubles and Bob Minor were rung. A 720 of Bob Minor was scored, this being a difficult task owing to the fact that the bells go very heavily, and the ropes slip wheel. They is also a very long draught, the ringing chamber being on the ground foor, and the ropes being without sallie guides. The 720 was rung by: J. Garbett 1, G. L. Hewitt 2, E. V. Rodenhurst 3, W. Freeman 4, W. Saunders 5, C. R. Lilley (conductor) 6. The local ringers complimented the visitors on the excellent striking. Tea was partaken of in the Guildhall, and was very kindly given by Mrs. McQuorquadale, of Count Hall. After tea, the ringers returned to the tower and rung several Hall. After tea, the ringers returned to the tower and rung several touches of Kent Treble Bob Minor, and a few call changes for the learners (one or two of whom were nearly hanged owing to the long draught).

Ringers were present from the following places: Shrewsbury, Coal-brookdale, Wroxeter Stantou-on-Hino Heath, Much Wenlock, Malins Lee, Cardington and Cound.

THE YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION. SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETING.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETING. Despite the inclement weather, a good number of ringers attended the annual meeting of the Southern District at Raumoor. The bells were kept going in various methods for about four hours. Service was held at 5 o'clock, the Vicar (the Rev. J. R. Lee Nicholls) preaching a appropriate sermon from the text, 'At what time ye hear the sourd fall down and worship '(Daniel jii. 5). Tea was provided in the Schoolroom by the local company and their ladies. The Vicar presided over the business meeting, supported by Mr. Tindall (churchwarden) and Mr. F. Willey (vice-president). Messre, Shackleton and Potter were re-elected to the committee and Mr. G. Holmes elected in place of Mr. J. Hohman, resigned. Good progress was made with regard to new members, the tower of Sprotborough furnishing six, Doneaster four, Conisbore and Raumoor one each. Arksey was the place chosen for the next quarterly meeting in June, A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar and local company for their services.—In replying, the former urged the necessity of training young ringers to fill vacancies in the belfry.—Mr. Havnes brieffy replied on behalf of the local ringers.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Owing to Good Friday falling in next week, the ' Ringing World' will be published on Thursday, and notices, etc., intended for publication must reach the Editorial Office not later than Monday.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

' House Full ' is already announced in connection with the Johnson Dinner to anorrow. The company is expected to number 180, and many late applications have had to be refused. Those who, as in pre-vious years, have dropped in promiscuously at the last minute will not on this occasion find accommodation.

We understand that as a war memorial the tower at St. James', Northampton, is to be completed and equipped with a peal of bells and a clock.

A whole day might be put in at the Wycombes on Easter Monday.— The caves beneath the hill on which the church stands at West Wy-combe are well worth a visit. The ball on the top of the church spire will seat half a dozen men. How about a double-handed touch in bec_1 comantie nooks?

By the generosity of a well-known resident two more hells are to be added to the present ring of six at the Church of St. Mary, at North Mymms, Herts. The work has been entrusted to Messrs. Mears an-Stainbank, and, when complete, the ring will make one of the most musical peaks in the county with a tenor of 15 ewt. A band who have just rung a peak in seven methods at Sweffling, Suffolk, will be glad to have information as to whether it was the first peak on the bells. There seems reason to suppose that there was a peak rung there about 40 years ago, but there is no actual record of the performance.

THE COUNCIL AND ITS COMMITTEES.

The COUNCIL AND ITS COMMITTEES. To the Editor. Sir,—Mr. Carter will, perhaps, forgive me if my last letter appears to reflect on him at all. Older members of the Central Council are probably aware of the circumstances under which he resigned from the committee before the publication of ' Legitimate Methods,' but to those not possessing that information the situation is an extraordinary one. Whe C.C. has spent considerable but a publication of the circumstances and the situation of the situation of the second worse than wasted unless the Exercise can accept its literature as expressing the genuine conviction of those ostensibly responsible for a That the name of a committeeman who resigned office before the publication of his committee's book should have been retained on the title page for 13 long years reveals a most regretiable laxity or levity somewhere, and an explanation is imperatively needed. Can the secre-tary to the C.C. perhaps furnish one? To me it seems a relatively small matter how these 21 Minor Methods and the corresponding Major Methods are classified . but that gentleand the corresponding Major Methods are classified. but that gentle-men who do not agree with their fellow committeemen, and whose re-signation has conceivably been not unconnected with that disagree-ment, should be held officially responsible for their committee's find-ing, is indeed ruinous to the Council's prestige. Other publications by C.C. Committees are in preparation. May I venture to express the hope that every means will be taken to pre-vent the repetition of a similar disaster? And is it too much to ass that the name of Mr. Carter be expanded from the title page of any remaining conice of the ' Collection of Legitimate Methods' as Yet, un-remaining copies of the 'Collection of Legitimate Methods' as yet un-sold? The retention of his name is fair neither to the Exercise nor to himself.

The reform of the Council is much to the fore just now. A begin-ning might well be made with its relationship to its own committees. Before it assumes legislative authority over the Exercise at large it might with propriety adopt administrative control of its committee? want of which is probably responsible for the glaring case under review. Let it not be forgotten that it is not the Legitimate Methods Committee alone that is concerned. Delegates will remember a cer-tain lordly detachment of the Council from others of its own commit-tees.—Yours, etc.. E. S. POWELL. tees.-Yours, etc. Holbeion Vicarage, Plymouth.

Holbeton Vicarage, Plymouth. LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD. To the Editor. To the Editor. At the last ammal meeting, held in Lincoln last April, it was oc-cided to raise funds to add four trebles to the ring of eight in the Cuthedral in memory of those members who had fallen in the war, and also to put up a tablet with the list of names in the Ringers' Chapel. Collecting cards are now distributed in all the towers in the diocese, and every member is asked to give or get ton shillings for the fund; but we have a large number of non-resident life members whom I can only reach through the 'Ringing World,' and I should be glad if you can let me have space for this letter to ask their kind assistance, if they will kindly send me what they can.—Yours truly. Burfleet, Lines. H. LAW JAMES.

BEGINNERS' INTEREST.

MIDDLESEX ASSOCIATION'S RESOLUTION.

We have been asked to publish the following summary of a discussion which took place at the South and West District meeting of the Middlesex Association, and the resolution that was passed. It seems to us that the meeting discussed the question with indequate knowledge and from a one-sided point of view. A general reply to the criticism will be found in our leading article. The report of the meeting states: While many regretted the la k of support accorded to the 'Reging World,' expression was given that the paper did not lend itself to ex-tension, as the vital point was to gain the interest of the younger generation, i.e., beginners, and this could not be done by advertise ments, publication of peaks and correspondence on composition. What was required was news to attract such support by the publication of touches, quarter-peals and matters of general interest, the following touches, quarter-peaks and institution of general interest, the following resolution being carried without one dissentient: "The Middlesex As-sociation and London Diocesan Guild, S. and W. district, view with regret the absence of quarter-peaks, elementary touches, and other mat-ter beneficial to young ringers in the "Ringing World." '

BERKS AND BUCKS RINGERS.

POINTS FROM AN OXFORD GUILD MEETING.

Another excellent muster of members of the East Berks and South Bucks Oxford Diocesan Guild took place at Bray. Being Saturday, and the afternoon springlike, coupled with the hospitality of the Vicar and ringers of Bray, nearly a hundred were inought together for prayer and praise upon the 'loud cymbals. The following 17 towers were represented: Boyne Hill, Cooklam, Bray, Berconstilled, Slough, Stoke Poges, Fulmer, Warfield, Windsor, Marlow, Farnham Reyal, Waltham St. Lawrence, Old Windsor Clewer, ful-elam. The visitors were: J. B. Williamson, Whitwell; W. Lawrence, Eating; Miss Williams, Hillingdou; H. D. Barker, Islington; A. J. Harding, Reading.

Evening service was much appreciated, as four clergymen were pre-sent. It was attended by 76 ringers, one more than the number who courteously signified their intention to be present, and, who, by their presence, helped to destroy the reproach occasionally made with re-gard to the weekly church attendances—or, shall it be said, ringers' absence? The Guild's form of service was employed, conducted by the Master, the Vicar of Bray presiding at the organ. An address was kindly given by the Rev. Hurold Willson, M.A. (Hitcham), and brought forth new points for the consideration of change ringers, who were reminded that he, the preacher, would often think of the r such organ that settiments as he could go Ray (once own his window were reminded that he, the preacher, would often think of the r gathering that afternoon, as he could see Bray tower from his windows at Hitcham, and thus he would recall the privilege of addressing such a prosperous brotherhood. Tea went off gaily, the Vicar and Miss Riddlesdell, Mrs. Deadman, the Misses Stokes and Miss Watts doing the Jion's share of waiting upon so large a family. The room was packed, and inquiry was made as to whether it was an 'amual.'—The Master, amidst cheers, gave away certificates to some dozen men re-cently qualified, and offered a hearty welcome to the members of the St. George's Society, Windsor, congratulated the Bray team (in-cluding the Vicar) upon their six scores, and welcomed the visitors from more distant helfries. more distant belfries.

more distant believes. A course of Grandsire Caters on handbells was brought to a 'lead end ' by Messrs. Mayne, Barker, Williamson, Martin and Welling.—The Hon. Secretary reported progress by the branch, and mentioned that All Saints' Society, High Wycombe, had appointed a small local com-mittee to help make the Baster Festival of the branch a success, even if there was no incumbent appointed by them. Mention of the publication of the annual report for 1919 showed that copies would cost the Guile Qd aced, but sufficient numbers would be publication of the Guild 9d. each, but sufficient numbers would be printed to allow everyone to procure a copy at 6d. who wished to have one to themselves

Following their local custom, the party was not allowed to disperse without personally thanking those who had so generously helped in without personally thanking those who had so generously helped in the day's proceedings, by official voles, as follows: Mr. Kirk, to the Rector of Hitcham for his encouraging address; Mr. Williamson, to the Vicar, ringers and ladies of Bray for tea; Mr. Copsey, to the or-ganist, choir boys and tower foreman: Mr. Harding, to the Master (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn), and Mr. R. T. Hibbert (Diocesan score-tary), for their attendance and help.

What of the ringing? The prime factor in all this report, the prac-fice may be summed up thus: The 'service touch 'was rung by the home side, with the foreman conducting: a Cambridge M.A. rang the tenor to a course of Cambridge Surprise Minor as Master of the Ox-ford Diocesan Guild; three ladies and three elergymen took ropes dur-ford Diocesan Guild; three ladies and three elergymen took ropes dur-ing the day Backs and Bucks can sumple-within infactorie the law. ing the day. Berks and Bucks can supply - within rifle-shot-the two extremes for a ring of six bells: Mighty Bray 30, and Little Hitcham E who, it is hoped, to mobilise for training shortly. Maidenhead can boast of a fine ring of eight by Warner and Sons, London, and an excellent team of ten change ringers: unfortunately both are standing where the authorities concerned will not repair the bell fittings Where the cycles were stored, and what became of the bread and cheese the ringers can tell, but it is left to the recorder for the parish to hand down to our successors the simple additional facts of this behaviory dear February day,

DUDLEY AND DISTICT GUILD. ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the above Guild was held at St. Thomas' Church, Dudley, on Saturday, March 6th, and owing to the inclement weather it was not surprising to find that very few attended. The heantiful peal of ten bells was available. The service in the church was conducted by the President of the Guild (the Rev. A. H. Pheli was conducted by the President of the Guild (the Rev. A. H. Phelin M.A., Vicar of Dudley), who also gave an eloquent and interesting ad-dress. At the close of the service, an edjournment was made to the Schoolroom, where a bountiful tea was in readiness, Mrs. A. H. Phelips Mrs. J. W. Nayler, Mrs. and Miss Tail presiding at the tables. Among those present were the Rev. A. H. Phelips, Messrs. J. Me D. Thu (people's warden), J. Bayliss, Arthur Spittle, etc. About forty mem-bers and down to tea, representing among others the towers of Aston. Bilston, Birmingham, Coseley, Dudley, Old Hill, Tipton, Sedgley, Stourbridge, Wood Green, Weinesbury, Bradley, etc.

At the business meeting which followed, the Rev. A. H. Phelips pre-sided, and gave the members a hearty welcome again to Dudley. The Secretary, having read his annual report, which, with the bal-ance sheet, was passed, it was decided to leave the question of printing the report and balance sheet until next meeting, together with the question of raising the subscriptions owing to the high cost of printing and other expenses incurred by the Guild.

It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Halesowen, sub-ject to the usual consent of the Vicar and the local band being ol-tained, the arrangements to be left with the secretary.

Harry Mason, Arthur Spittle and Councillor Wilkes. Mr. John Goodman, junv. (Dudley), was elected Ringing Master in the place of Mr. H. Mason, who has resigned, owing to his having left the district.—Mr. A. E. Parsons, in voicing the feelings of those present, expressed regret at Mr. Mason resigning the Master-bia and proposed that the hest thanks of the meeting be accorded to hip, and proposed that the best thanks of the meeting be accorded to him for his past valuable services and support to the Guid.—The pro-posal was carried unanimously, and Mr. Mason briefly replied. Mr. Herbert Sheppard (Dudley) was re-elected hon, secretary and Mr. Ben Gough (Coseley) hon, treasurer, whilst Mr. A. E. Law (Coseley)

and Mr. John Smith (Tipton) were re-elected auditors. At the close of the meeting, a hearly vote of thanks was passed to the president for his kindness in conducting the service for presiding at the meeting, for the use of the tower, bells and schoolroom, to the subscribers to the tea fund, to the organist (Mr. Cutler), to the ladies for presiding at the tables, also the ladies for prevaring and serving the tea, not forgetting the Vicarage maids for their services, and to have heavier and the match of the meeting a successful out. all who in any way had assisted to make the meeting a successful our.

NEW SUGGESTIONS ON ORGANISATION

The organisation of ringing associations has, in the course of years, developed in a variety of forms, but. chiefly upon a territorial basis, with the county or diocese as the unit. When the towers affiliated were comparatively few in numbers such units were easily run with centralised administration, but the expansion brought about by the rapid growth in the popularity of change ringing resulted in decentralisation being necessarily resorted to in the case of most societies. In regard to peal ringing, however, the only acknowledged claims are those of the parent associations, and the branch or division to which the ringers may belong is only of subsidiary importance.

On this matter some interesting points are raised by the Rev. H. Drake, who is keenly interested in the improvement of the administrative machinery of the Exercise, and he puts forward a number of suggestions which will doubtless be read and debated with interest among ' ringers. Briefly his most important points are that associations for peal recording purposes should be broken up into smaller units, such as Archdeaconries, and that every peal should be credited to the Archdeaconry in which it is rung, irrespective of the association from which the Further, Mr. Drake suggests that the ringers come. Central Council should be amended in its constitution in order that administrative details and matters of organisation should be dealt with by representatives of these Archdeaconry units, while the scientific section is left in the hands of a body appointed on existing lines.

Such suggestions are a little too sweeping to pass an opinion upon without very careful thought, and there are objections as well as advantages to be considered. This, however, ought not to prevent the suggestions outlined by Mr. Drake being ventilated and discussed. We think it hardly likely that at first sight many associations, or ringers, for that matter, will jump at the proposals ; but the more one thinks about the suggestions the more one has to admit that there are phases of the proposals which commend themselves as being worth development. The organisation of the Exercise has proceeded steadily in one groove for many years, and it is not likely to be upset in any revolutionary manner; but it does not follow that it cannot be improved upon, and, if for no other reason, Mr. Drake's suggestions can be welcomed as providing a starting point for discussion. We should like to see consideration of matters such as this beginning at district meetings and going forward in due course for debate at the annual meetings of the associations, where matured thought could then find expression and a carefully considered decision be arrived at.

THE COUNCIL AND ITS COMMITTEES.

The COUNCIL AND ITS COMMITTIEES. To the Editor. Sir,—I agree with the Rev. E. S. Powell that reform of the Council night well begin with administrative control of its committees; of which hitherto there has been little or none. I have been for many years a member of the 'Literature 'Committee, which (whatever may have been its past services) has of late become a byword for dilator-ness and inefficiency. For this I accept my share of responsible as ' convener ' for getting the committee to work, nor (so far as I know) made any attempt to ascertain whether it is doing anything between one annual meeting and another. If this is the case with the Council's other committees no worder that, complaints are beard of ' laxiv or other committees no wonder that complaints are heard of ' laxity or levity somewhere'; no wonder also that time and patience are wasted at the Council meetings over details that ought to have been thrashed out beforehand by committees.

out beforehand by committees. I know the difficulty of cating together busy man who are widely scattered. But with proper organisation, responsibility and super-vision, it may be found that after one meeting of a committee, us business could be transacted through the post. Someone, however, must be made officially responsible for this duty, and someone above must see that he does it. T. L. PAPILLON. St. Albana.

ASSOCIATIONS AND PEALS. BY THE REV. H. DRAKE.

The practice of ringers scoring peaks away from home has long ...con a hone of contention. It certainly does not seem to many fair that ringers, living and usually ringing in one part of the country, should go to another part, and score a peal to the credit of another Associa-tion, simply because they all nappen to belong to it. This custom arose when ringing societies were few and far between; and so long as the whole country was not covered, it could hardly be arranged otherwise. Now, however, there is no reason for continuing a course wave, must necessarily lead to friction and jealousy. At this time, too, all records have been upset by the war, and it will be a year or two berecords have been upset by the war, and it will be a year or two be-fore things get into so normal a course as to make any cort of com-parison very useful. Therefore, now is clearly the time, if ever, when a new rule could be made. Let us all see what is practicable; and, to begin with, I will suggest a way out of the difficulty. For the purpose of recording peak, let the whole country be rigidly marked out into units; and let all peaks be scored, so far as the yearly useful is converted to be units where where it is extended marked out into units; and let all peaks be scored, so far as the yearly analysis is concerned, to the unit within whose borders it is actually rung. I would suggest that the unit be an Archdeaconry. This usually consists of between 100 and 200 parishes, and is a district comfortably worked by one secretary. Those who do not belong to the Arch-deaconry could be elected members before starting, in the usual way, as at present. This method would encourage more local spirit among ringers, and would decidedly help to increase the number of ringing towers. The present system often hinders the increase of ringers. The larger associations could go on as at present, and in their re-ports record peaks, for their own satisfaction, which are rung by their own members. It may be thought, at first sight, that this would tend to reduce the membership of the larger associations; but it seems much more probable that anyching which increased the number of ringers would also increase their membership.

Indeed these smaller societies might be affiliated to the larger ones. Alrendy there are some societies for different Archdeaconvies and tess method of working has proved its value. They can do work which method of working has proved its value. They can do work which would be impossible if too much ground is attempted to be covered. In Dorset I adopted the following plan: A circular letter was sent to every incumbent, churchwarden, and captain of ringers in the dis-trict, pointing out the use of the society, even where there was only one bell, and a copy was also sent to every new incumbent. In this way we got hold of places where new bells were proposed; or sug-gested the idea of new bells where they would not otherwise have been thought of. A four-page leaflet was brought out containing a list of all towers where there were ringers. Their names were all printed, and started if they belowed to the society with a cross in addition. all towers where there were fugers. Their names were all printed, and starred if they belonged to the society, with a cross in additio i, if they were change ringers. The day and hour of the weekly practice was recorded, together with the methods rung. If this were to be done uniformly in each of these societies—and printed, say, at the 'king-ing World ' office—all these leaflets could be bound up each year or so into a most useful Ringers' Year Book. I venture to think this would do more to help the cause of ringing throughout the country than any other single effort. than any other single effort. The result of our ' intensive culture ' of Dorset, is that there are now two flourishing societies, where at that time there was not a single band in going order.

If some such scheme as this were carried out, the Central Council might be altered to correspond. Let the existing arrangements be car-ried on exactly as at present; but let them discuss only scientific queetions, and let them meet only in the morning. Then let a new body tions, and let them meet only in the morning. Them let a new body be constituted by letting each of the new territorial societies send one representative. This could be easily so arranged as to consist largely of the same people as the other (the present body). Let these only discuss practical questions, and let them meet in the afternoon. In this way people who are bored stiff with scientific questions, but are keen on organisation, or vice versa, could each attend the meet-ing they were interested in, and avoid the other. The present arrange-ment, by which members are forced to attend what does not interest them in the least while it is interesting to others must al-them in the least, while it is intensely interesting to others, must al-ways cause complaints. The combined working of the two bodies would not be so difficult as at first sight might appear; and is in constant use with Boards of Guardians and District Councils.

At present both the small society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford, and the overgrown Midland Counties Association (to each of which J have belonged), stand on the same footing with regard to the analysis of peaks. This is not good for either. It discourages the smaller so-cieties by putting them in a hopeless position, and makes the larger associations think that they are doing very well, when probably they are not ' pulling their vergit ' by any means.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

A correspondent asks if there is any peal board in England which contains the names of Rector or Vicar and the two churchwardens, all honorary members of the Guild or Association, under whose auspices the peal was rung. We should think there are many such, but we may be wrong.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

PRESTON BRANCH MEETING.

A very successful meeting of the Preston Branch was held at 'farleton on Saturday last, about 30 ringers attending and enjoying some good ringing on the fine new peal by Messrs. Taylor. Unfortunately none of the local band were present to welcome the visitors, and a rotice on the blackboard in the ringing chamber ' to ring six bells caused some delay. Upon examination, however, the bells were found to be all right, but the discovery was made that the ' Hastings ' stay is not understood at Tarleton. Matters were soon put right by the use of the oil can, and attention to a few other details, and the bells were then raised, and were soon humming merrily to Stedman Triples, followed by touches in various other methods. The business meeting was held in the churchroom, presided over by the Vicar, who welcomed the association, and romarked that it had been a revelation to him that afternoon to hear the bells rung so well. His own ringers were not change ringers, but he hoped he would be able to secure the sorvices of an instructor from amongst the visitors, and make a start.

Considerable discussion took place on the proposition of the Bolton Branch to alter the date of the annual meeting, and eventually a resolution was passed that the Preston Branch did not favour the alteration of the date, but was in favour of a whole day meeting in September.

Standish and Chipping were chosen as the next meeting-places, and the business terminated with a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and presiding at the meeting. Ringing was afterwards indulged in, some good practice being obtained in Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Grandsire Triples, Bob Minor and College Single.

Mr. J. R. Taylor, of Penwortham, undertook the task of instructor to the local band, and it is to be hoped that when the turn of Tarleton comes round again for a meeting there will be a promising band of change ringers instead of disciples of 'stony.'

MEETING AT BARROW.

The half-yearly business and ringing meeting of the Furness and Lake District Branch of the Lancashire Association was held at Bartow-in-Furness, and proved a most enjoyable reunion of members from Barrow, Ambleside, Broughton, Kirkby, Dalton, and Kendel, several lady members from Broughton also gracing the gathering. Amging commenced by mixed bands carly in the afternoon. Mr. Tom Gibbons, the secretary of the Barrow company (a very old and ardent ringer), having attained the age of 74 years the day previous. Mr. Robinson, of Ambleside, quickly got together a band to ring a birthday touch in tenour of the event, and Mr. Gibbons was also the recipient of a beautiful bunch of Lenten lilles from his Broughton lady friends, presented on their behalf by Mr. Barker. The special touch consisted of 350 Grandsire Triples rung by: Tom Gibbons 1, H. Smith 2, John Jurrow 3, W. Atkinson 4, W. Robinson (conductor) 5, Jas. Burrows 6, Chas. Cushing 7, E. Berch 8. Three new members were elected.

A question was again raised by the secretary as to two additional bells being placed in the tower of the church at Hookborough to make a ring of six.—Mr. Robinson read a letter he had received from Lord Richard Cavendish, in which he expressed his approval and support.— After discussion, it was resolved, on the motion of Mr. Gibbons, that the secretary should write to his lordship, in reply to his letter, and also that copies of his lordship's letter should be sent to the Vicar and churchwardens of Hookborough, asking them to take the matter up, and saying that the association would help them all they could. Votes of thanks were tendered by Mr. H. Smith, of Barrow, to Mr.

Votes of thanks were tendered by Mr. H. Smith, of Barrow, to Mr. Robinson, the secretary, for his long services, and for his very active and nunctual attendance to the association's business.

The Rev. A. Partridge (a ringing member) proposed a vote of thauks to the Vicar for presiding, and for his encouraging and able address, and use of the bells.—This was seconded by Mr. Gibbons, and unantmensly passed.

Twenty-five members sat down to a very excellent tea in the Schoolroom, the tables being presided over by several willing ladies.—Mr. Rohinson proposed a hearly vote of thanks to the Barrow churchwardens for their kindness in providing the toa, and also to all the ladies for their catering and attendance.—Mr. Barker of Broughton, supported the vote, which, needless to say, was cordially carried. YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

REVIVING THE NORTHERN DIVISION.

A meeting of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire Association was held at Pickering on Saturday, March 20th, and was attended by some thirly members, representing Scarborough, Thornaby, Helmsley, Satburn, Headingley, and the local companies. Touches of Plain Bob, Troble Bob and Grandsire were rung, many of the ringers scoring their first touches on eight bells. The husiness meeting was held in the Schools, with the president (the Rev. C. C. Marshall) in the chair.

After the Chairmon had given a brief precis of the meeting and its object, the Rev. E. Drage was elected President of the Northern Livision on the motion of Mr. T. W. Robbins, seconded by G. Finch. -On the motion of Mr. J. R. Barton, seconded by Mr. G. Finch, Miss A. Henderson was elected secretary of the division, while Mr. H. Fergusson, of Scarborough was elected as Ringing Master, on the motion of Mr. J. R. Barton, seconded by H. Gibson.

The following committee was elected: Miss I. Horner, Messrs, T. W. Robbins, G. A. Peck, J. R. Barton, and A. Coates, and power was given to the next meeting to cleot three more committee members.

It was decided to hold a meeting of the Division at Scarborough on June 12th.

A short service was held in the delightful Norman Church dedicated to SS. Peter and Paul, at which the Vicar of Pickering gave a hearty welcome to the visitors, and gave them most kindly words of encouragement in his address.

More ringing, and tea followed a delightful day coming all too nuckly to its end, leaving memories with the visitors of a rare spirit of enthusiam and harmonious working in this wide and scattered district and which memories give great hopes for the future. P. J. J.

SOUTHWOLD RINGER'S DEATH.

It is with deep regret we have to announce the death of Mr. Thos. King, who passed away at his rosidence on March 11th, at the age of 49 years. He served for over four years in his Majesty's Forces, but was discharged early last year as medically unfit. He obtained a situation a few weeks ago as rate collector for the waterworks. In returned from his round on Monday evening, March 8th, and went to bed with a severe attack of bronchitis and asthma, death taking place on the following Thursday.

Previous to the war Mr. King was employed by Messrs. John dar ner and Sons, of the Spitalfields Bell Foundry. He was captain of the Southwold company for many years.

The funeral took place at Southwold on Wednesday March 17th. The bells were rung fully muffled for the funeral, and on the following evening a half-muffled peal of Bob Major was attempted as a last tribute of respect but was unfortunately lost owing to a 'shift' in the 40th course, after 2 hrs. 45 mins. good ringing, the band being: J. Jillings 1, J. Spencer 2, J. Lerter J. G. Greenacre 4, E. Nunn 5, 1. Naunton 6, N. Bailey 7, F. Naunton (conductor) 8.

The deepest sympathy of the Exercise will go out to deceased's widow and four children who are left to mourn their loss. Unfortunately Mr. King's only son had to have his leg amputated a few months ago.

On Thursday, March 18th, members of the Norwich Association from Halesworth, Chediston, and Wissett companies met at St. Andrew's Church, Wissett, and rang the bells half-muffled in touches of heat Treble Bob, Grandsire and Plain Bob Minor, as a last mark of respect and esteem to the memory of the late Mr. Thomas King, who had been for several years a honorary performing member of the Halesworth band. The following ringers took part: Captain and Mrs. Reeves, Messrs, F. C. Lambert J. Howard, T. Crane, L. Hammond, F. Peck W. Warren, W. Kerrison, W. Kemp end A. Peck.

THE EASTER MEETINGS. The Easter holiday is a popular one among ringing success. It is a season convenient to most ringers, and there seems a tendency more and more to concentrate upon this bank holiday for the principal meetings of the year. The choice of a date is not always a simple matter, as many Associations know, and it is certainly not to be suggested that any effort should be made to carry through all the meetings on one day, but it is a fact that Easter Monday meetings are uniformly well attended. This year some of the Associations have found a number of important topics to discuss. Some have had seriously to overhaul their finances, for, with the increasing expenses which they are called upon to meet-the present high cost of everything reflects upon ringing associations as with other organisations-they have to find the means of increasing their income. The small annual subscription of the members, with which many Associations were content, are not sufficient in these days, and, while it may be distasteful to ringers to have to raise the amount which they should contribute, it will be found to be, in many cases, an essential action if the Associations are to maintain a sound financial position. One of the chief items in the expenditure of ringing associations is the publication of the annual report, and the rise in the cost of this is in itself a serious menace to the scanty reserves of some of the organisations. In some cases this is to be met by imposing a charge, or an increased charge, for the reports; but we believe it will in time become necessary for all those Associations whose subscriptions remain at their pre-war level to increase them, in common with the rise in prices which has to be met in practically every walk of life.

Another subject which engaged some of the Associations on Monday was the question of the future authority of the Central Council. The organisations who are affiliated have been asked to express an opinion as to whether the Council should be given compulsory powers, and divergent views found expression. On the whole, however, we gather that ringers whose opinions have been sought this week are generally against conferring such powers, largely for the reason that they can see no means of enforcing the decisions of the Council, even if the decisions arrived at were the unanimous opinion of the Council accepted by the majority of the Exercise. Until some way out of this difficulty can be found, any attempt at compulsory legislation seems idle. On the other hand, there are some who would not entrust compulsory powers to the Council, and between these two sections there does not appear much chance of carrying the thing through.

BREASTON CHURCH BELLS DEDICATION.

On Saturday, March 20th, the Rev. Canon Field, Vicar of St. Mary's, Nottingham, in the absence of the Rural Dean (the Rev. A. W. Bell), through illness, dedicated the three new bells which have been added to the three existing ones at Breaston, making a peal of six. The bells come from the foundry of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, of White-chapel, who have also put in a new steel frame, recast one of the old bells, and tuned the other two.

A large congregation filled St. Michael's Church on Saturday week, including many ringers from the neighbourhood.

After the dedication the bells were rung by the Stanton ringers who also rang touches later: E. Scattergood, F. Tansley, H. Fawcett, H. Doar, F. Sisson, W. Bower and L. Smith. The new bells are the gifts respectively of Mrs. and Miss Watson, in memory of Captain Thomas Palmer Watson, and Mr. George A. Perks in memory of the work of the V.A.D.'s, while the cost of the frame, etc., has been borne by the congregation, the total cost being £518.

The Rector (the Rev. Bingley Case) expressed the gratification of all who have had the pleasure of hearing the new bells, both with their richness of tone, and the harmony with which the whole peal blend.

A new chine of eight bells (tenor 7; cwt.), which Messrs. Taylor and Co. are now hanging in the tower of St. Barnabas Church Shef-and co. are now hanging in the tower of St. Barnabas Courch, Sher-field, is to be dedicated on the afternoon of Sunday, May 16th. In answer to the question as to whother there has been a peal rung at Sweffling, Suffolk, Mr. T. E. Slater writes to say that a peal of Doubles was rung there in 1884, and is recorded in the Norwich Association Report. It may also interest the band to know that a 7,080 of Doubles has been rung at Wrentham.

As a mark of esteem and appreciation, the members of the Llanishen band have presented a case of brushes to Mr. J. W. Jones (hon. secretary of the Llandaff Diocessan Association) in recognition of his kindness and tireless energy in instructing the company in Grandsire Doubles.

Mr. Tom Russam has attended the Johnson dinner ever since its inception, a record which can be claimed, we believe, by no other man.

It is reported that Mr. Harry Withers will ' positively appear ' at the next Johnson dinner. He disappointed many friends by his absence from the programme the other day.

RAWTENSTALL'S NEW PEAL TABLET.

An interesting event took place in the belfry of St. Mary's Church, Rawtenstall, on Saturday, March 20th, when a unique form of peal record was unveiled. Mr. John Smith, of Blackpool, one of the ori-ginal ringers performed the unveiling ceremony, and related inter-esting reminiscences of the happy times spent in the tower. Alr. Smith was leader of the ringers when the bells were opened, on December 20th, 1888, and had the difficult task of teaching the new band to master the art of change ringing. The tablet is in the form of an ornamental oak casement, with a glass panel door at the front. The peals are recorded on white em-bosed cards, and fixed on a dark navy background of velvet, wa.cn gives a very pleasing and pretty effect. gives a very pleasing and pretty effect. The records of ten peaks are placed in the frame, and with a rearrangement of the cards, room can be made for many more. The whole of the peaks rung in former years by local ringers are recorded, and include many first peaks in different methods by the men who took part in them. Perhaps we best record is the 'reace peak' of Stedman Triples rung on woy. 8th, 1919. This was the first peak in that method by all the band. Mr. J. H. Banks, ringing secretary of the Lancashire Association congratulated the local ringers on the unique form of recording peak ringing, and ventured to assert that the method adopted in use tower

The work in connection with the making and fixing of the tablet vas carried out by Mr. Thos. Collinge, one of the local ringers, and he was highly complimented on its artistic finish.

There was a good muster of ringers present, along with the clergy, churchwardens and sidesmen, and many well struck touches of Grand-sire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob and Treble Bob were rung cefore and after the event.

THE LATE BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS.

THE HENRY JOHNSON COMMEMORATION DINNER.

As already briefly reported, the 32nd annual Henry Johnson Com-memoration Dinner was held at Birmingham on March 27th, at the As already briefly reported, the 32nd annual Henry Johnson Com-memoration Dinner was held at Birmingham on March 27th, at the Imperial Hotel, and was attended by a company of over 130, a record number. The chair was taken by the new Rector of Birmingham (Canon Gorse Hodge), who was supported by the Rector of Solibull. Sir Edward Malins (churchwarden of St. Philip's Cathedral), Mr. J Kendal (churchwarden of St. Martin's), and the following officers of the Guild: Vice-Presidents, W. H. Godden, T. Russam, J. An excellent repast was served, at the conclusion of which the loyal toast was cordially honoured; and Mr. A. Paddon Smith an-nounced that apologies for absence had been received from Alderman Pritchett (who was in hed with an attack of lumbago), Mr. A. E. Pritchett (who was in bed with an attack of jumbago), Air. A. E. Parsons, Master of the Worcestershire Association (who was prevent-ed from attending by the death of his mother), Mr. J. Roskell, Mr. John Buffery (the oldest member of the Guild in point of member-ship), Mr. C. J. Bowen Cooke (Master of the Cnester Diocesan Guild), Mr. Arnold Butler, and Mr. Wm. Cheshire, Sir Edward Malins proposed the toast of 'Church and State.' He wangfed that the constitution or the Church hard member.

remarked that the constitution of the Church had never for hundreds of years past come to such a crisis in its existence as it had done by the recent legislation affecting its functions and its powers. The Church of England. Enabling Act, which had just been passed, The altered the constitution, altered the character and altered the status of the Church's proceedings and those connected with it. Dr. Malins briefly traced the evolution of the Church's powers through the centuries and said the new Enabling Act would enable the Church to enter upon a line of progress hitherto unknown to it, and unhampered by the contradictory conditions of the past.

A NEW EXPERIENCE.

The Chairman, whose name was coupled with the toast, said how exceedingly pleased he was to be present that evening. It was one of the new experiences that had crowded on him during the last four months, and he had already seen enough to find that it was one of the most pleasant (applause). He had heard and seen them at their work, and he valued very highly the connection of St. Martin's Guild with their great church. He knew very well that he owed the Guik a great deal, and he hoped that some day Birmingham might come to believe that it owed them a great deal, too. When first it was mooted to him that he should come to Birmingham he did not want to do so, for he was very happy in his work in the little place which they in Birmingham did not think much of-London (laughter). It was a little difficult to face the uproving at any time, and so ne looked about for reasons why he should not go to Birmingham. In-stead of this he got thrust upon him a very large number of reasons why he should. Gradually it seemed to him as if it were a call too serious to be refused, and he began to look round to see if there were any solid reasons why he should go, and, among the reasons may was an opportunity that should be jumped at it was urged both by the Bishop of the Diocese and by their late Rector, Canon Willink, that they had one of the most magnificent peaks of bells in Eng-band and the first Guild of bell ringers anywhere (applause). That any solid reasons why he should go, and, among the reasons why it of course, was irresistible, and was among other arguments that drew him to Birmingham. He was grateful for the arguments which and prevailed, for he had spent four exceedingly happy months with them and he was grateful for the fellowship which had helped to make these months happy. Having referred to the origin of the neient Guilds, the Chairman remarked that St. Martin's Guild was founded nearly 160 years ago, and had been going on ever since, as was shown by the records enshrined by their beautiful book which it was a treut to look at, and pursuing a course wholly beneficent and making for harmony among them all. In briefly surveying the hisbuy of the uses of bells, Canon Hodge said one thing had passed away which he fain wished might remain with them. There was a which he fain wished might remain with them. There was a blessed time when at eight o'clock every night the curfew bell used to sound when everybody had to put out his light and go to bed (laughter). What a blessed thing it would be if only they could have that custom back (laughter and applause) instead of scrambling through their work in order to get to bed before twelve o'clock! (hear, hear and laughter). The ringers could not bring back that time, but many kindly things they did do. They did not now refuse to allow bells to be rung by people who did not think exactly uke, themselves. It was not very long since no dissenting place of wor-ship was allowed to have a bell at all. Many things of that kund were laid down by public opinion-not by any definite legislation. In these days they took a wider view, and when he had been into a helfry he had found a brotherhood there which was really felt by them all. He was glad to see how wide their relations were. There were men from a wide circle; there were men from villages which he knew, and others of which he had heard and hoped to know some day, and he found before him not only strength and intellect, bu. grace and beauty (appla use). It was a very happy thing that they were able to gather together as they had done that evening, and he hoped St. Martin's Guild would continue to grow and flourish and ever make for the harmony, without which life would be a poor thing indeed (applause).

The following telegram was received from the late Rector, the pre-sent Dean of Norwich: ' I send you my heartiest greetings, and wish very much I could be with you. May your gathering be most suc-cessful.—Dean of Norwich.' The reading of the message was received with loud applause.

HENRY JOHNSON.

The torst of the evening, 'The Memory of Henry Johnson, was submitted by Mr. W. H. Gedden, one of the few surviving friends of the old Birmingham worthy. That was, he said, the 32nd anni-versary dinner of that kind, and it was almost impossible to toll them anything that they had not already heard about the late Henry Johnson but there was one thing that struck him in connection with the various speeches he had heard, and that was that too little nad been made of his social character. Now, Henry Johnson, although work a very scientific may in character lity was also a very sociable such a very scientific man in change ringing, was also a very sociable man, and those who knew um were always glad to be in his company to hear his remarks, and listen to the many the pathy and tell for he was a big reader. He was a man of sympathy and kindness, and that was one thing that made Mr. Johnson so dear to the big big big hear a great example to them all. He them all in his lifetime. He was a great example to them all. ne would like to protest against anyone, as they had sometimes heard, nuthing atrocious grammar into his mouth (hear, hear). He was a man well versed in the three R's, and it would have been almost impossible for him to have used the bad grammar he had heard recounted of him (hear, hear).

The toast was honoured in silence.

The toast was bonoured in silence. Mr. J. Kendal, in the absence of Alderman Pritchett, proposed ' Continued prosperity to St. Martin's Guild.' He said the nector had told them he had had experience of the ringers for four months. He (the speaker) had the pleasure of hearing the hells rung before the Rector was born. He could remember the bells of St. Martin's more than 60 years ago, and it was always a great pleasure to listen to them. There was one thing in which, he thought their parish church ringers were scarcely up to date. There were lady ringers connected with St. Martin's Guild but unfortunately there were no ladies connected with the parish church. He hought there were no connected with ist. marsing Guila but unfortunately there were to ladies connected with the parish church. He hoped they would take that as a hint and bring the company up to date. The bells of the parish church of Birmingham had been ringing regularly for 165 years on Tuesday evenings almost without a break. Unfortunately they had a break recently when the Rector indvertently arranged a service in the church on one Tuesday evening, and consequently the ~ells could not be rung. He believed the ringers now had an assurance that the Rector would be careful in future and make his appoint-ments so that that they would not clash with the weekly practice (laughter and applause).

Mr. A. Paddon Smith, whose name was coupled with the toast, salu if he had been able to do anything that met with their approval it had been not through his humble efforts, but because of the loyal co-operation of every single member of the Guild. They had had no setbacks, and it helped one immensely in organising anytaing of that kind when they had, as he had, not only the loyal co-operation of the ringers, but also, in a great measure, the loyal to operation choirmen (applause). Mr. Smith added that not only were the choir-men giving them their services without fee, but they had remen giving them their services without fee but they had refused an engagement for which they would have got a good fee, simply to come there and do their little bit (applause).

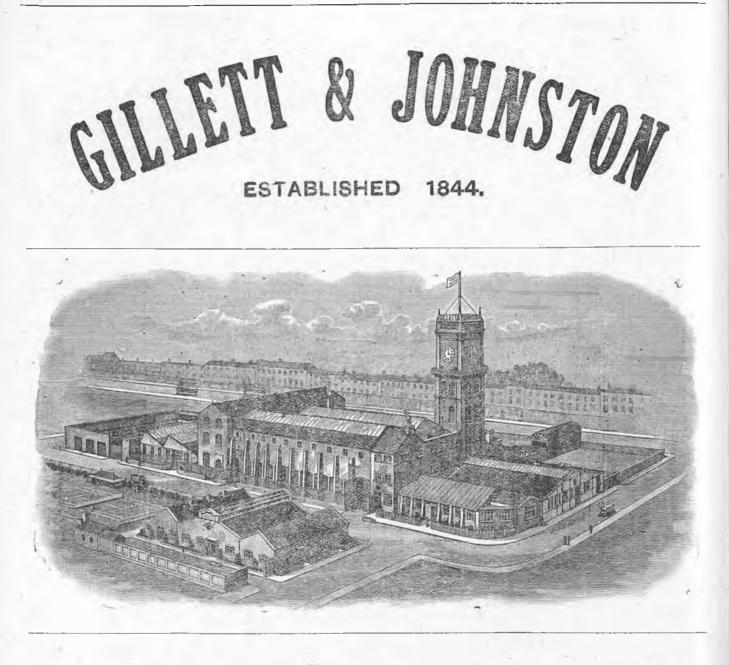

' KINDRED SOCIETIES."

Mr. Smith afterwards proposed ' Kindred Societies.' They had, he Mr. Smith afterwards proposed 'Kindred Societies.' They had, he said, quite a number of representatives present from other ringing societies all over the country. First and foremost, there was air. C. H. Horton, Master of the Aucient Society of the College Youths, one of the premier ringing societies of the country with a great re-putation, in the main for 12-bell ringing. Of course, with practice, they could ring Major like some Birmingham ringers (laughter), but their great forte was twelve-bell ringing. With Mr. Horton was an old friend they were always pleased to see, dear old 'Teddy 'Horrex (applause). Mr. Horrex was the father of the College Youths, and it took more to be the father than the Master (laughter and applause)

THE RINGING WORLD.

April 9th, 1920.

THE CROYDON BELL FOUNDRY 1920.

April 9th, 1920.

He would like publicly to congratulate Mr. Horrex upon ringing the treble in a peal of Treblo Bob Maximus at Cornhill Church recently on his 82nd birthday. He had no doubt it was a magnificently struck peal. He (the speaker) had rung with these men. It had been his peal. He (the speaker) had rung with these men. It had been his privilege to meet them fairly frequently in the belfry of St. Faut-Cathedral, and it was a pleasure to see and hear Mr. Horrex ring the troble there—and it was no 'kid's 'job. The way he rang and struck his bell was simply marvellous, and there were many men -alf his age who could not do it, and would never be able to do it. Young ringers looking forward to their career should go next morning to St. Martin's to see Mr. Horrex ring and take notice (applause). Among others who were with them that night were Mr. Harry Chapman of Manchester and a number of other ringers remessabling the Lan-Manchester, and a number of other ringers representing too Lancashire Association. Tacre was also Mr. John Austin, a former Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association and Mr. and ...rs. Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association and Mr. and ...rs. Missier of the Gloucester and Bristol Association and Mr. and ...rs. Wilkins, of Bristol. Mrs. Wilkins had the evening before rung a peal of Stedman at St. John's Church--no kid's job either (ap-plause). Others present were Mr. Wilde, of Wrexham representing the Chester Guild, and seven or eight members of that Guild from Crowe; Mr. Herbert Knight, hon, secretary of the Staffordshire As-sociation; Mr. Harry Mason, of the Dudley Guild; Mr. Wm. Willson and friends from Leicester, representing the Midland Counties As-sociation; Mr. Wallon, of Irthlingborough; and many members of the Ladies' Guild. They had with them representatives of three of the largest bell founders in this country, one representing the largest in the world, Mr. Denison Taylor, of Loughborough; Mr. Albert Hughes, representing the oldest bell foundry in the world, and Mr. Dean, secretary of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston's. If it was possible for one of them to go back to the foundry with an order for a heavy peal of twelve for Birmingham Cathedral everyone in that room would be very pleased (applause). He did not say it was pos-sible for the order to be written out that night, and there might b. sible for the order to be written out that night, and there might be some doubt as to its being done on the morrow. It might never be done at all, but they did not accept ' never.' They were glad to have with them such a distinguished gentleman as Sir Edward Malins, who was churchwarden of the Cathedral-in fact, he was St. Philip's (laughter)-and he suggested that the bell founders get hor-of Sir Edward Malius and talk to him seriously about the deficiencies of the bells (laughter and applause).

DEATH OF A CUMBERLAND YOUTH.

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr. William J. Miles, at the comparatively early age of 47 years. Having joined the army in 1917, he was soon serving in France, and there it was that through exposure be contracted the disease that has now ended fatally. Since being demobilised he has been a great sufferer and passed peacefully away on March 12th. Coming to London from Hertfordshire, Mr. Miles joined the Royal Cumberiand Youths in 1896. His ringing, however, was chiefly con-fined to the churches in North London, and he was a member of companies at St. Stephen, Hampstead; St. Anne's Highgate; and St. Martin's, Gospel Oak, He had rung several peaks in the two first-named churches, and his genial presence will be corely missed by att his brother ringers. his brother ringers.

At St. Martin's, Gospel Oak, the 'whole pull and stand.' and touches of Minor were rung with the bells muffled as a token of esteem and runembrance, by: R. Bevan E. Bonfield, C. Pryor, E. Turle, E. Young, W. J. Norton, A. Harwin, H. Watson, and Miss Kitty Smith

A peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was also rung at St. Anne's, Highgate.

THE RINGING WORLD.

A BELLS REPAIR FUND.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Many people will sympathise with Mr. A. Lorkin in his zeal for bells and belfries. They generally do get the last consideration. His suggestion to have a county fund would be a boon, but even if agreement could be obtained, there would be difficulties of representation and administration. A sinking fund at each church would be more simple. Whather the new Church Councils coming into existence next month, under the recent Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act will, in time, give attention to such matters, remains to be seen. But the statement of a distinguished churchman expresses the heart of the question—until the people as a whole contribute as generously to the needs of the church as their ancestors did they must not look for the same results.—Yours truly TEMPLE NEWELL.

A CHANGE OF METHOD.

Now that the Association Easter meetings are over, attention will turn to the forthcoming Central Council meeting to be held at Northampton at Whitsun, when, once more, we presume, the question of the Council's own future will be discussed. It has been and still is difficult to arouse interest, outside the Council Chamber, in the doings of the central body, although we believe that years of striving in these columns have, at last, had some little effect in bringing home to a supine Exercise the fact that the Central Council is a body which might still be made useful, and in which every member of every Association ought to take a direct interest. No one disputes the fact that the Exercise, split up as it is into so many different organisations, must have some central body to bring into touch all its separate units and to co-ordinate its energies, and yet there are still a great many who look upon the present Council as a useless body.

In the discussions which took place at various meetings on Easter Monday, there was a general admission that the Council had done valuable work in the past, but a body like the Council cannot retain its position merely upon its past. It must make a future as well as contemplate a past, and the making of the future depends upon the manner in which it makes and utilises opportunities in the present. The Council is, without doubt, anxious to further the interests of ringing; but there is, we have always felt, one fatal defect in the present system. It ought not to be left entirely to the Council to find subjects for discussion. It should be the aim of every Association to find matters of importance to the Exercise which their elected representatives should be instructed to ventilate at the Council meetings. In this way a greater variety of topics might be found, and it could not then be laid at the door of the Council that its only discussions were upon abstruse problems or uninteresting subjects.

If the matters for debate, outside the purely domestic affairs of the Council, came for the most part from the Associations, it would have the double advantage of providing the Council with work of the kind it is ready to do, and also bring the deliberations more closely home to ringers in general, inasmuch as matters for eventual discussion by the Council could be raised by any member of the Exercise, by first getting a resolution passed by his own association. This starting of the ball from without, seems to us, to offer greater opportunities to the Council for usefulness, than the present method of waiting for everything to be proposed from within, and if the Associations could be educated up to this view we feel quite certain much good would result.

THE JOHNSON DINNER.

Mr. C. Horton Master of the College Youths, replying to the toast of 'Kindred Societies,' said the chairman had spoken of the brotherhood that existed in St. Martin's Guild, and he could assure him that that brotherhood existed over the whole country where ringing and church bells were. It was that spirit of brotherhood which surmounted the difficulties of change ringing, and enabled the various Guilds of the country to rise to the fine position that they did. The College Youths claimed to be the premier ringing society of the country, and they did their utmost to uphold their position, especially in twelve-bell ringing. Kindred societies fully appreciated the kindly hospitality shown them when they came to the city of Birmingham. When their little party arrived from London that morning they found a glorious welcome awaiting them, by men from nearly every part of the Midlands and Northern Counties. On the 13th November next, all being well, the College Youths would hold their dinner at the London Tavern, and he invited as many of the men of Birmingham as could do so to attend, so that the London ringers might in their turn give them, if possible, an even bigger welcome (applause).

Mr. Albert Walker proposed the 'Ringing World,' and referring to the resolution passed at the meeting of another association, when it was suggested that advertisements, peal records and correspondence should be omitted from the paper to make room for matter more interesting to beginners, said it seemed to have been overlooked that advertisements, were necessary to the life of a paper and that the firms who advertised had a right to occupy a portion of the space in the only ringing journal that there was, as there was no other way by which they could keep their names before those connected wit bells and befries. As to the peals and the correspondence, it must not be forgotten that a large number of ringers were interested a this section of the paper. What was wanted was that every ringer should give his individual support to the paper, and that the custom of taking one paper for the tower should be put an end to. If it was necessary there should be no hesitation in increasing the price, for the paper was essential to all who had any interest in ringing outside their own tower (applause).

difficulties which still confronted the running of the paper-difficulties not one whit less then in war-time, for the cost of paper was as high, and the cost of labour higher than at any period whit the war was on. The rapid revival of ringing unquestionably required a larger paper, but a reckless policy might easily result in disaster. In any case, under present conditions a larger paper was not possible except at an increased price, and the choice had to be made between that expedient and a continuation of the paper in its present size. In conclusion Mr. Goldsmith cordially thanked Mr. James George for the great kindness shown by him in initiating and carrying through the recent testimonial scheme, and the members of 81. Martin's Guild for the very great support they gave to the scheme.

St. Martin's fuild for the very great support they gave to the scheme. Mr. A. Paddon Smith submitted, in felicitous terms, the toast of 'The Chairman.' He hoped that evening would have added in some measure to the sum of the happiness he had derived during his stay in Birmingham. It was a grand thing to see the Rector of a large city like that, probably the husiest man in the city, spending a Saturday evening with them. It was a great compliment to them, and he could only congratulate their Rector in following so ably m the footsteps of Canon Willink than whom, he was sure, there was no better pattern (applause). He hoped they would have the Rector with them again next year (applause).

and he could only congratulate their Rector in following so ably in the footsteps of Canon Willink than whom, he was sure there was no better pattern (applause). He hoped they would have the Rector with them again next year (applause). The toast was drunk with musical honours, and the Rector, in replying, said he did not think he had had that kind of welcome since he left Cambridge. There was, he said, a delightful atmosphere of friendliness about the gathering. Bell ringing after this would have quite a new meaning for him. He had no idea of its ramifications. He hoped to learn more of them in the future, and that he would he able to accept their kind invitation to come again next year (applause).

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

To the Editor.

Sir,-May I remind hon, secretaries of affiliated Guilds and Associations that time is passing apace, and that those who have not for-warded their affiliation fees should do so without delay? As yet only comparatively few have reached no. I would also remind members of Council that notices of motion should reach me not later than the 24th inst., and that intimation of the view taken by the various Guilds or Associations on the queetion of conferring compulsory powers on the Council should reach me not later than 25th.-See minutes of last year's meeting. The President has also written asking me if I have received any further names since last year for inclusion in the roll of honour. CHARLES D. P. DAVIES, Hon. Sec., 12th April 1920. Deane Rectory, Overton, Hants.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting was held at Canterbury on Easter Monday, and was attended by about one hundred members. The programme of pro-ceedings was very much the same as is usual on these occasions, and ceedings was very much the same as is usual on these occasions, and was successfully carried through. The hells of the Cathedral (10) and the other churches, St. Stephen's (8), St. Alphege (6), St. Dunston's (6) and Holy $\operatorname{Cros}_{\mathfrak{S}}$ (5) were kept going merrily both before and after the Cathedral evensong at which the Rev. Canon Gardiner (life mem-ber) addressed the members. The te_i and business meeting followed. The report and balance sheets, read in the course of the business, showed the Association's gradual recuperation from the effects of the GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION. THE WAR MEMORIAL SCHEME.

The annual meeting of the Gioucester and Bristol Diocesan Association was held at Swindon on Easter Monday, when probably the weather was responsible for a rather small attendance, but some of those pre-sent travelled 30 or 40 miles in motors.

The service at Christ Church was conducted by the Vicar (the nev. Maynall), who extended a very hearty welcome to the Association. The organisti (Mr. Fainter) provided the music, and was ably assisted up the Association's professional ' Blower.' At the conclusion of the service, an adjournment was made to the King's Arms Hotel, where dinner was served.

At the business meeting which followed, the Master (the Rev. M. E. Thorold) presided.—The Hon. Treasurer presented the balance sheet, which was adopted.

The Master, in his report strongly advised the members to see that they were represented on the parochial roll of the Church Enabling Act.

Mr. W. A. Cave was elected Master of the Association, Mr. E. Guise was re-elected hon, secretary, and Mr. F. K. Howell hon treasurer. Mr. A. W. Seviour was elected peal secretary. The question of the powers of the Central Council was then discussed,—The Rev. M. E. Ukaneld mandet, in That this matter believes the action of the Central Thorold moved: 'That this meeting believes the work of the Centrol Council in the past has been of great benefit to the Exercise generally, and is the principal cause of the marked advance in recent years of the science and art of change ringing. In consequence, the meeting is prepared to support the further efforts of the Council as far as pos-sible, but is of opinion that for the Council to have powers conferred upon it to make such support obligatory would not prove satisfactory."

The scheme for the war memorial which is to take the form of two new bells to be added to the eight at Berkeley Campanile, was confirmed. It was mentioned that over £40 had already been subscribed. and with other moneys not yet sent in the total would be over .250. Those who have not yet subscribed are reminded that small donations will not suffice, as the Association aims at a minimum of £100.

Mr. E. Guise (hon. secretary) introduced a registration scheme, which could be carried out at an annual cost of 10s, to the Association and one penny per member. He explained that it was absolutely necessary that members joining or paying their subscriptions should be re-gistered with the general officers of the Association at once, and not at the end of each year or possibly six or eight months later still.-The scheme was adopted.

Lydney, Glos., was chosen as the place of the Management Committee Meeting Sept. 18th, 1920.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the auditors (honorary), the Vicar of Christ Church, the organist, and Mr. E. Bishop, for as-

At the close of the meeting it was decided provisionally to vote £10 from the Association funds to the war memorial. Tea followed, nearly 40 sitting down. Ringing at Christ Church and St. Mark's was then indulged in until time for departing to far distant homes.

Congratulations of the meeting were extended to the Painswint Youths upon the long peal recently rung by them and recorded for

ANNUAL MEETING AT NOTTINGHAM.

Once in four years, the above city becomes the ' G.H.Q.' of the Once in four years, the above city becomes the "office," of the Association, and on Easter Monday, ringers from all parts of the Mid-lands began at an early hour, to foregather at the far-famed haunts of Robin Hood and Frier Tuck. The pro-Cathedral of St. Mary is a magnificent pile, the massive lower of which would accommodate a magnificent pile the massive tower of which would accommodate a carillon on one level; the ring of ten dating back 200 years, occupying only a corner, albeit the tenor is 35 cwt, reputed. In the eighteenth century Nottingham was famous in its change ringing achievements. At that time the Leicester men were keen rivals, and both towns were striving for a record length of Grandsire Caters. Leicester got home first with 10,080 in 7 hours 12 minutes, on February 25th 1777 but nothing daunted, the lacemen went one better on March 3rd, 1778, with 102601 In each case the tenors were rung by two ringers, but it should be observed that the peal at St. Margaret's, Leicester, was rung after ' ye ringers had rung 5,000 on ye morning of ye same day when ye mann with ye 3rd bell missed his sallie and ye of ye same day when ye mann when ye day ben missed in same and ye peal was lost.' In those days no stay or slider was used, and the ringer had perforce to master his bell-or take a joy-ride. The ' boh eatler : of the Nottingham long peal was Mr. Doubleday Crofts, a local lawyer, whose name appears in ' Shipway ' as a composer, and whose gravestone is in St. Mary's Churchyard. For ringing the two long peals both bands were presented with a peal of cup handbells. Those of the Notts Society were in existence 20 years ago, and the writer, when on a visit, rang on them. Wherever they are to-day they should be revered as an heirloom from a memorable past.

St. Peter's Church had originally a ring of eight, and recently were augmented to ten by the steeple keeper (Mr. R. Cobbin), but up to the present no 5,000 has been recorded upon the ten. Both rings of ten and also the two eights at Lenton and Daybrook respectively, were kept going throughout the day with Caters and Royal at the Cathedral, and everything from Grandsire to London Surprise at St. Peter's. Service was held at the Cathedral at 3 p.m., when a large majority of the ringers attended, a short address, suitable for the occasion, being given by the Rev. Canon Field.

Later on, over 100 sat down to tea at the Co-operative Hall, and the annual business meeting immediately followed in St. Peter's Schoolnumber on since the second sec France

In opening the meeting, the Chairman apologised for his presence in the chair, remarking that owing to the demise of the late Presi-dent (Mr. J. W. Taylor) he was 'filling the gap.' 'En Passant,' it may be said that if he ' fills the gap ' as ably as he has done, he bids fair to remain President !

The year's finances were presented by the hon. treasurer, Mr. W. Willson. His budget was briefly as follows: Balance in hand, 1918, £27 14s. 11d. During the war there was no ' report ' printed, hence the balance was carried forward intact. In 1919 the income from all sources was £78 17s. 11d.; expenditure, £29 4s. 74d., leaving a balance in hand of £49 13s. 34d, which is very nearly a record for the Association. The 'chancellor' drew the members' attention to the fact that the monetary value of the £ sterling was 135 per cent. lower than 1914 for home products, hence the balance only represents about £20. The report for the war period, 1915-1919 inclusive, had to be paid for. Prices were vising again in the paper trade, and shortly in was very likely a rise, in price both for newspapers and the production of all printed matter would be necessary. Fortunately, the Association had benefited by an extraordinary influx of new members, both ringing and honorary; the latter mainly due to the fact that many of the public men of the Midlands were totally unable to resist the seductive wiles of the vice-president—once Mayor of Derby [...The Hon. Treasurer then made the prediction that the year 1920 would constitute a record if all unnecessary expenditure was turned down. The report, now in the hands of the members, had been produced by the ' Ringing World ' Office at a most reasonable figure and issued in a clean, compact form,

The balance sheet was then moved, seconded and carried unani-mously as was the auditor's report (Mr. C. Draper).

The new members elected were given by the hon, secretary, Mr. A. C. Wright, as follows: 1 life, 19 honorary, 61 ringing. Previous to the mosting, the strength of the M.C.A. was: Honorary members, 68: ringing, 568, excluding life members .- On the proposition of the Rev. J. P. Hales seconded by Mr. J. Griffin, the Chairman was unanimously elected president, and Mr. A. C. Wright and Mr. W. Willson were re-elected to the offices of secretary and treasurer respectively. Considerable discussion ensued on the resolution regarding alteration of subscriptions. An increase from one to two shillings per annum was moved, but the Hon. Treasurer pointed out that unless Saunders 3, J. Garbett (first quarter in the method with a bob bell) the entrance fee (now 2s. 6d.) was also increased, it would encourage 4, R. Jones 5, G. L. Hewitt (composer and conductor) 6, W. Lago 7, members one year in arrear to run out and rejoin rather than pay A. S. Bayley 8. Longest length as conductor. Alfred S. Bayley was up. Ultimately it was agreed that the entrance fee be raised to 3e.

Another rule was varied to admit of a vice-president for each district-7 in all-instead of one only as at present.

A silent vote of sympathy with the relatives of the late president, Mr I. W. Taylor was put in appropriate terms by the chairman, and acknowledged by the meeting standing.—It was agree that Leicester be the place of the next annual meeting, and that quarterly meetings be held at Loughborough, Chesterfield and Ashby-de-la-Zouch.

Voies of thanks to the clergy for the use of the bells and their presence, to the local branch for their arrangements, were duly carried, and one of the most successful meetings the M.C.A. has held came to an end, some returning to the towers to ring, others to the ringers' room at 'The Eight Bells,' where handbell ringing was included in until train time,

NEW PEAL FOR DUDDINGTON. OPENED BY A DISTINGUISHED COMPANY.

Duddington, near Stamford, is a picturesque old-world place, some five miles from the village which, owing to a certain legend, became known as ' Wansford in England.'

Formerly, Duddington had only one bell of quite indifferent musical ability. But the ancient church tower has recently been the cause of lively interest to the parish, whilst a peal of six bells, as a memorial invery interest to the parisi, whilst a peal of six bells, as a memorial of an officer of the Northamptonshine Regiment, was being installed. The final act took place on Wednesday, April 7th, when Archdeucon Whitlingham, of Oakham, dedicated the new bells, and delivered a striking and original sermon, in which he spoke of the voice of one bells as representing the voice of God. At the close of the service, the bells were 'opened' in a somewhat novel way largely by ladies parti-cularly interveted in the aprile and present at the communicularly interested in the parish and present at the ceremony. The Marchioness of Exeter led off with rounds and a few changes on the clavier, and was relieved in turn by Mrs. Whittingham (the Archdeacon's wife). Mrs. Flamank (wife of the Vicar). Mrs. Goldard Jac. son (of Duddington), and the Marquis of Excler.

The bells are hung at present only for chiming, and in addition to the clavier, they are fitted with a mechanical player which the sexton can operate by turning a wheel, and which has been specially designed for the purpose.

It only remains for some official or enthusiast of the ringing association covering the district to gently influence the generous donor to hang the bells for ringing, and for this same official to offer to instruct in the elements of change ringing, the distinguished band toopened them for chiming, so that the same performers may ' ring the first touch' when that happy day arrives.

The tenor weighs slightly under 7 cwt., and is a flat B, and the peal is a product of the Croydon bell foundry. Mr. Cyril Johnston, o-Messrs, Gillett and Johnston reseived congratulations from all the e present, on the charm and musical properties of the new bells.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. FORTY-FOUR NEW MEMBERS ELECTED.

The annual meeting of the Central Division was held at Southover. Lewes, on Easter Monday. A short service was held in the church, at which the Rev. G. M. Davies (Rector and President of the Southover Guild) gave a brief practical address on bell founding, comparing it in a most interesting manner with the life of a God-fearing Christian, from the mining of the ore and casting of the metal through all the stages up to the finished article of which they had ten good examples in their own tower.

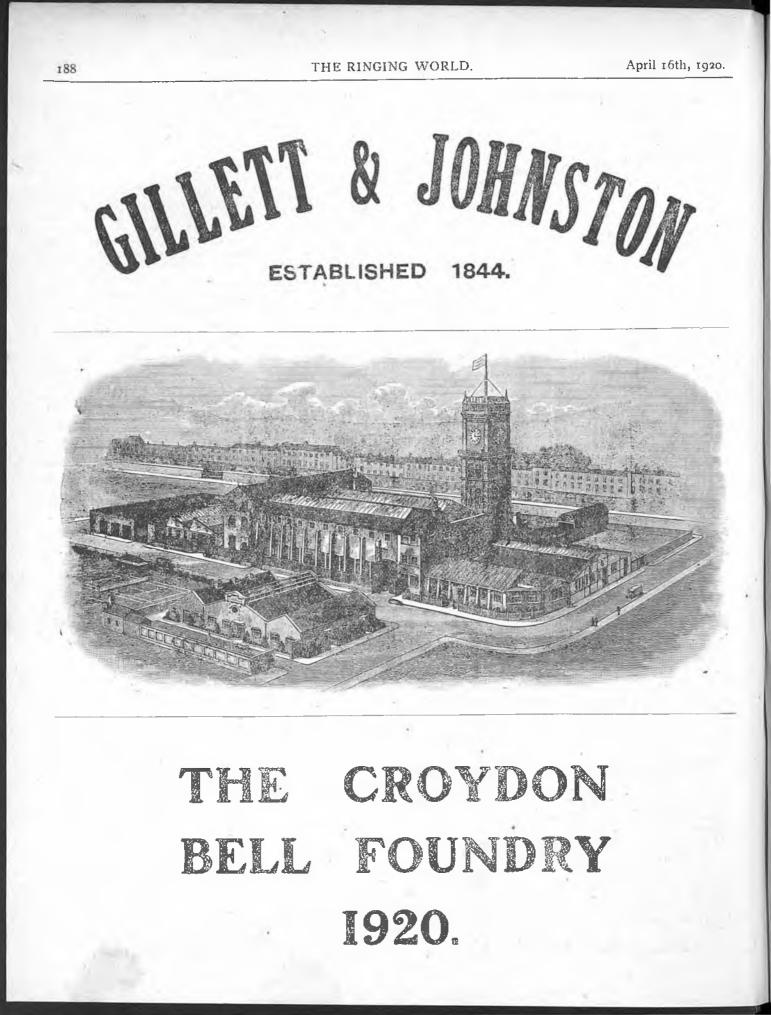

The company adjourned to the Church Hall, where about 50 of the The Rector presided, supported by Mr. J. Thornton Rickman. At the meeting, which followed, 44 new members were elected. Mr.

A. D. Stone was re-elected divisional hon, secretary, and Messrs, R. J. Dawe, E. C. Merritt and Wm. Waits, senr., were elected as committee .- A hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for presiding, for his address in the church and for the use of the bells, and also to Mr. - 1e² S. White for his services at the organ, was, on the motion of Mr. Rickman, seconded by Mr. Keith Hart, enthusiastically carried. The party subsequently returned to the tower, touches in various methods from Grandsire to London Supprise being rung. The following towers were represented: Aldrington, Brighton (St. Feter's and St. Nicholas', Crawley Cuckfield, Ditchling, Eastbourne (All Saints'), Henfield, Hurstpierpoint, Lindfield, Mayfield, Seaford, Southover, and independent members (including Mr. H. R. Butcher general hon, secretary). It is expected to hold the next Central Division meeting at East Grinstead, in June.

BISHOP IN THE BELFRY.

Before conducting a Confirmation service 4t Coalbrookdale, the Bishop of Hereford visited the belfry, where the ringers were as-sembled. After the service, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes) was rung in 43 mins.; W. S. Crawford 1, J. Hauley w one of the candidates confirmed.

MAKING ENDS MEET.

transmission as a newspaper.

The financial difficulties with which some of the Associations are faced have been revealed by the Easter meetings, and in several instances it has been found necessary to increase the subscription of the ordinary members. This course was inevitable. With the sovereign worth a good deal less than half its pre-war value, ringing associations, like all other organisations, have had considerable trouble in making ends meet, and in many cases would not have been able to do so had there not been during several years a suspension of activities, including the dropping of the publication of an annual report, which generally accounts for a substantial portion of the average ringing society's outlay. The general policy of increasing the amount of the subscriptions of members was, of course, the only method by which anything like a substantial increase of revenue could be obtained, and we anticipate that practically all the Associations who have not yet done so will have, sooner or later, to follow the example of those who have already found it necessary to adopt the expedient.

And not only the Associations, but the Central Council itself, will have to resort to similar measures if its work is to be extended. Indeed, it is rather wonderful that it should have managed in the past not only to eke out an existence, but to create an accumulation of funds upon the meagre contributions which have been extracted in the shape of affiliation fees. The time has come, however, when the Council must expand its activities, and this, coupled with the necessity for a larger income to meet the diminished value of the currency, makes it imperative that the Council should face the matter boldly.

In the Associations who have already decided to increase the amount of subscription there seems to be, generally speaking, a ready acceptance of the necessity, but it is not altogether certain that the Yorkshire Association, by abolishing life membership, and bringing all their resident members under the common annual levy, have in this particular respect found quite a happy solution of their Some, at any rate, of the old members leef troubles. aggrieved at the step which has been taken, for they feeli that they have been robbed of a rather cherished privilege. We are quite sure that it is not for the amount of money involved, but because they look upon the change as the breaking of a contract, and this, we are convinced, is the last thing the Association would intentionally do. Perhaps it may not be too late to remedy this matter by a compromise which would enable existing life members to continue to enjoy the privilege--if they wish. Many, we believe, would only too readily make an annual payment.

THE RINGING WORLD.

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING AT THE CATHEDRAL CITY.

Although the weather conditions were unfavourable, the annual meeting of the Worcestershire and Districts Association, on Master Monday, proved most successful, with a record attendance showing that, although during the war there was so little ringing done, the interest in and love of it was very quickly revived. In fact, there are many signs that, in this district at least, ringing will soon be in a stronger position than it has ever been, for many new bands are being

The general meeting of the Association was held in the Cathedra Chapter House, with the previously they were never attempted. The general meeting of the Association was held in the Cathedra Chapter House, with the president (the Very Rev. Moore Ede, D.D.) in the chair, supported by the Rev. J. F. Hastings, the Rev. T. C. de la Hey, and the Master (Mr. A. E. Parsons), there being present over 100 members. 100 members.

The question of expenditure, especially in regard to the cost of printing the annual report came in for serious consideration, for, with increased expenses, particularly in the cost of the reports, which would he over £30, and the amount allowed for instruction, £32, it was evident that by the end of the year the reserve fund would almost have disappeared. It was decided, on the recommendation of the commit-tee, which had met earlier in the day to consider the question, that the performing members' subscription be increased from 1s, 6d, to 28, and that there be no travelling expenses paid to delegates, with the exception of the Central Council representatives; both of these decisions to come into operation on January 1st, 1921. It was also decided that the committee consider the curtailment of the contents of the annual report.

Several new members were elected, and the arrangements of the annual peal were left in the hands of Mr. W. Short. There was no doubt as to where to hold the next annual meetin: Worcester being manimously chosen.

The Master then brought forward for discussion a resolution in re-gard to the powers of the Central Council, remarking that if the Binging World was supported as it should be, there would be no need to state the reason for bringing forward this motion, nor for him to make any remarks in regard to it.

It was finally decided that this association was not in favour of giving any further powers to the Central Council other than those at present in existence.

The report of the treasurer of the Memorial Window Fund showed receipts amounting to £129 9s. 6d. Some £30 more was required, and it was decided that collections should be made at each meeting. At the service following the amount collected was nearly £3.

The Dean had the artist's designs on view, and explained the various incidents depicted, the window being one of a series being put in the cloisters, showing the history of this Cathedral. In the centre light will be put the names of 23 members who gave their lives in the war. An application was received from St. Mary's Church, Kidderminster, for a grant from the belfry Repairs Fund, and the sum of four guineas was voted.

All the officers were re-elected, although the Master expressed a wish for someone to take his place.

The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the President and the incumbents who had grauted the use of the various rings of bells in the city.

The meeting was concluded in time to attend the afternoon service in the Cathedral, which, on these occasions, is always much appre-ciated, it heing a great pleasure to hear a service so beautifully roudered. The address was given by the Dean, and was one that is not likely to be forgotten by those who heard it. Afterwards, in the College Hall, 128 sat down to ten.—A vote of thanks was passed at the close to Mr. II. Mason for assisting toward the cost, and much regret was expressed at his having how to remove from Old Hill to Falmouth, Unfortunately the bells of St. Helen's Church were unavailable owing to illness, and, therefore, those at All Saints' were much opporcialed, as the peal at the Cathedral were only open for a short time. A course of Cambridge Royal was brought round at All Saints'.

CHELSEA SOCIETY'S TREASURER DEAD.

The St. Luke's (Chelsen) Society regret to aunounce the death, on March 31st of one of their members, Mr. W. J. Barber, who passed away at the age of 60 years, after a short but painful illness. Mr. Barber, who had been a member for over thirty years, was at the time of his death the society's treasurer, and was universally respected.

The usual whole pull and stand was rung on the evening of the funeral, and on Saturday, April 17th, after two unsuccessful attemuts for a peal, a quarter-peal of Stedman Caters, with the bells half-muffled, was rung by Messrs. Taffender (conductor), King, Ellis, Reeve, Burton, Hessey Iles, Essery, Mance, and Pickett.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. Alfred Bowell, of Ipswich, has just added two trobles to the ring at Linton, Kent, to raise the peal to an octave. A peal of woth Major was rung on the new eight after the dedication service.

There are not very many one-armed ringers, and the peal rung at Belton by ex-Corpl. Unurchill with his left arm only is remarkable. He struck his bell perfectly dodging clearly and with precision. In lost his right arm in Bazentin Wood, on the Somme in July, 1916 but that has not deterred his enthusiasm or ambition in the belfry He now does most of the conducting for the Belton ringers. The peal was rung by ex-Service men.

It has been found impracticable by the Hertford County Association to carry out a suggestion made by the Bedfordshire Association that a peal by the combined associations should be attempted at St. Albans on April 22nd, on the occasion of the enthronement of the new Bishop, whose diocese includes the counties of Herts and Beds.

On the occasion of the Royal Cumberlawl's dinner, on Saturday May lst, the tower of St. Bride will be open at 3.30. Other towers may also be available. The secretary will close his list on Tyesday morning next, although every effort will be made to oblige any who may find it convenient to come at the last moment.

Owing to pressure on our space we are compelled to hold over some of the reports of Easter meetings which have reached us.

A NEW BELL FOR ST. PETER MANCROFT, NORWICH.

St. Peter Mancroft has just come into possession of a new bell-a fourteenth, the thirteenth bell having been added to the ring of twelve in 1910, to form the Gabriel ring of eight. The new bell-i Sanctus bell-has been given as a war memorial, and it has been hung in the N.E. (urret above the chancel. The ropes are arranged so that the W.E. (direct above the chancel. The robes are arranged so that the bell can be struck by a direct pull both from the high altar, and also from the altar in the side (Jesus) Chapel, where it will be used at the daily celebrations. The bell is in tune with the ring of twelve, the note being 'A' (a whole tone above the treble of the twelve), and the weight just under 2 cwt. It bears round the crown the inscription \vdash

+ OHRISTUM IN CRUCE IMMOLATUM ANNUNTIO: PACEM PRO DEFUNCTIS IN BELLO IMPLORO

MDCCCCXX.

On the waist, there is a richly decorated device of vesica design, m the centre of which is a crucifix with the surround-' Requiem acternam dona eis Domine."

The bell has been supplied by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon, by whom the whole of the details of the work have been successfully carried out.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

ABOLITION OF LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

A general meeting of the Yorkshire Association was held at St. Chad's, Far Headingley Leeds, on Easter Monday, and was attended by about one hundred ringers representing some twenty-five towers. Ringing commenced on the fine peal of eight at 3 p.m., various methods being rung until nightfall brought a cessation. During the afternoon Mr. H. Percy Richardson gave a recital on the fine organ in the church, which was much appreciated by those present.

A committee meeting was held in the Schools, after which tea was served.

The business meeting followed, the President (the Rev. C. C. Mar-shall) being supported by the principal officers of the Association. The proposal to abolish life membership, and to make a fixed annual subscription of 1s. 6d., was passed by a large majority. Mr. G. B. Bolland gave a hearty invitation to the association to hold a general meeting at Tong, in September, and the meeting expressed its appreciation of their respected vice-president by enthusiastically accepting the generous invitation of Mr. Bolland.

accepting the generous invitation of 'Mr. Bolland. A hearty vole of thanks to the president who is also Vicar of St. Chad's, was proposed by Mr. G. B. Bolland, this being seconded by Mr. J. R. Lawson, and the Chairman, in replying, said how pleased he was always to welcome the association to Headingley. He also pro-mised to convey the warm thanks of the meeting to the wardens, and to Mr. Richardson, the organist, for his kindness in giving a special restal for the members of the rescription. A vote of thanks to the local company for their kind arrangements.

and to the ladics who assisted at the tea, was proposed by Mr. P. J Johnson, and seconded by Mr. H. Williams.-Mr. W. Whitaker respond ed on boasif of the local company, and hoped they would visit Head-index again in the near future.

Before taking the committee roll call, the Chairman asked the meeling to vise uncovered, as a tribute to the memory of the late Mr. David Brearley, of Bolsterstone, who was an old and valued member of the association, and who was also a member of the general com-mittee the secretary at the same time being instructed to send a letter of condolence to Mrs. Brearley. The meeting terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

April 23rd, 1920.

NEW DIVISIONAL SCHEME ADOPTED.

A general meeting of the Norwich and Ipswich Association was held at Stowmarkot on Easter Monday, and over fifty members attended from the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk. By kind permission of the incumbents, the ring of eight bells of the Farish Church of Stowmarket and also the rings of six at Great Finborough and Barking were available for the use of members. Dinner was served at the King's Head Hotel. The President (the Very Rev. the Dean of Norreaded, upported by Rev. F. Fawceit (Vicar of Stowmarket) the curate and churchwarden of Stowmarket, the Rev. W. C. Kearson, the Rev. H. Drake, Mr. C. E. Borreit (vice-president) Messrs. G. F. Burton, A. L. Coleman (general secretary), W. L. Duffield, T. Fitzjohn, G. E. Symonds and E. E. Diaper, hon, secretary for the Stowmarket district.

After dinner, the toast of ' The King ' was eloquently proposed by the president.

On the motion of the President, a vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicars and churchwardens for the use of their bells and was acknowledged by the Rev. F. Fawcett, Vicar of Stowmarket. The general business of the Association was then transacted. To facilitate the re-organisation of the association, the President suggested the suspension of the standing order in respect of the alterations of rules, and this was agreed to.

The Secretary, in giving a brief outline of the re-organisation scheme, said the association had shown great wisdom in not splitting into two associations when the diocese was divided. A strong association was a far greater power for the progress of the art of change ringing that two weak ones. The association had in the past on several occasions been the premier association had in the past on several occasions been the premier association had been werkened by division. The scheme for re-organisation to be submitted to the members, he thought idealto continue as one powerful united association, with two branches a Norwich branch for Norfolk and an Ipswich branch for Suffolk, with a committee of government for each, which would bring the association into two convenient, workable areas, and double the unmber of general meetings. Each branch would still be sub-divided into districts as hitherto, with an hon, secretary for each district, whose duty it would be to arrante for periodic meetings in their districts, while the annual meeting of the association would be held alternately at Norwich and Tpswich as hitherto.

Coming to the business part of the proceedings, the Secretary announced that the committee had that morning elected 31 new members, and re-elected five old members. The list of new members was read out and their election ratified: the Secretary also announced that Mr. Willoughby E. Maulden had been elected hon, secretary for the Framlingham district, and this election was also ratified.

Mr. E. C. Borrett proposed, and the Rev. H. Drake seconded, that the title of the association be amended to ' The Norwich and Ipswich Association of Ringers,' with a sub-title, ' For the Diocese of Norwich and Archdeacoury of Suffolk,' and the motion, on being put to the meeting, was carried.

The President read out the proposed rules for the government of the branches, and after a short discussion on the motion of Mr. G. E. Symonds, seconded by Mr. Hobart Smith, they were adopted.—It was resolved that the Association Rule XI, be deleted, and that the consequential alterations be made to Rules 1., IV., VII, on the adoption of the new rules for the branches.

The Secretary read Mr. C. J. Sedgley's motion in respect of holding the annual meeting on August Bank Holiday handed in at the annual general meeting, October 9th, 1919, and this receiving no support was dropped.

The Secretary also read the Rev. H. Drake's six resolutions in respect of the proceedings of the Central Council, which were handed in at the annual meeting for discussion at this meeting.

It was felt that these resolutions dealt with matters for the representatives in Council to deal with rather than an association. On reconsideration, the Rev. H. Drake did not press his resolutions, and the matter dropped.

Before closing, the President asked all the members of the Inswich branch to form a meeting to uppoint an hon, secretary to convene a general meeting for the election of officers and committee for their branch. It was decided to elect the officers and committee for the Norwich Branch at the general meeting, to be held at Great tarmouth on Whit-Monday. May 24th.

bearty vote of thanks was passed to the Dean of Norwich for pre-

At the subsequent meeting of the Ipswich Branch Mr. Edward Younus proposed, and Mr. W. Tydeman seconded, that Mr. George E. Symonds, of Ipswich, be appointed hon, secretary to convene a general meeting of the Irswich Branch of the Association for the election of officers and committee The motion on being put to the meeting was carried.—Mr. Edward Evans proposed, and the Rev. H. Drake secondd that the meeting he held at Ipswich on Saturday. May 1st, 1920. This motion on being put to the meeting was also caried. Twenty-six Suffolk members were present.

THE HOME-CALL OF MR. HENRY LEWIS. DEATH OF A ST. ALBANS VETERAN.

Mr. Henry Lewis, one of the pioneer change ringers of St. Albans fifty years ago, ' set his bell ' on Thursday evening, April 8th, to the sorrow of his many ringing and other friends, after having completed a ' course : of 74 years. Familiarly known in ringing circles as ' Mr. Lowis,' he became endeared to many by his singularly happy disposition, his yarns of bygone days, ringing and ornithological, recounted at the Easter meeting at St. Albans, in the street, and at other times. affording delight to his many friends. He was passionately fond of ringing, and he had the satisfaction of knowing that success followed his perseverance. His father, the late Mr. John Lewis, a prominent citizen and Mayor of St. Albans in 1856, was also a bell ringer, and hy his efforts raised sufficient money to present in 1868 two trebles to St. Peter's Church, making the peal into twelve. Much has been said from time to time as to the quality of these new trebles, but Mr. Lewis, senior, appeared quite satisfied, for commenting upon the peal to his son Henry on the first trial touch, rung specially for Mr Henry Haley to hear, said ' they sounded like a great band of music. The town appear delighted with the addition—so far it is gratifying to me.' A marble slab, recording the gift, can still be seen upon the walls of the belfry. It is interesting to place on record that the first ' touch ' of call changes upon the ring of twelve was rung on Friday, May 8th, 1868, by the following men, mostly local: Henry Haley I, G. Harton 2, Fraucomb 3, John Lewis 4, William 5, W. Hull 6, J. Lawrence 7, Baptiste 8, G. Richardson 9, T. Woolfield 10, T. Waller 11, Ellis 12, In 1876 there existed at St. Albans a society called ; The St. Albans Society of Change "ingers,' the late Mr. Henry Lewis being the Master, and Mr. E. P. Debenham secretary. Mr. J. R. Haworth are Matt. Wood, both of London, acted as instructors to the company. From a report issued in January, 1877, the members seemed satisfied with their progress for in it they stated that 'the officers believe tord pear delighted with the addition-so far it is gratifying to me."

Society of Change Aingers,' the late Mr. Henry Lewis being (76 Master, and Mr. E. P. Debenham secretary. Mr. J. R. Haworth and Matt. Wood, both of London, acted $a_{\rm S}$ instructors to the company. From a report issued in January, 1877, the members seemed satisfied with their progress for in it they stated that 'the officers believe tart the society is now on a firm footing, and if progress is made during the coming year in proportion to that which is now drawing to a clue, the St. Albans Society of Change Ringers will they trust, soon attain to a prominent place among the ringing societies of Hertfordshire.' But this high position was not reached, and the society came to an end.

In October, 1884, a meeting was held at the Rectory of the Abbey Church, with the Rev. Walter J. Lawrence in the chair when -ne Hertford County Association of Change Ringers was founded. Mr Henry Lewis was present on that occasion, becoming one of its constituted members, and during the 36 years of its existence he has passed through the presidential chair, and continued his membershill to the end. The list of constituted members is now remarkably small reminding us that ' time and tide wait for no man.'

remaining us that ' time and tide wait for no man.' Mr. Lewis was buried at St. Albans Cemetery, on Tuesday, April 13th, when, in addition to the family mourners, there were present at the graveside Messrs. W. H. L. Buckingham (president), E. P. Debenhum (treasurer), G. W. Cartmel (secretary), and E. Livermore (librarian), officers of the County Association and members of the St. Peter's Society, and Mr. W. H. Buckingham. At the conclusion of the service, Messrs. W. H. L. Buckingham, Debenham, Cartmel and Livermore assembled round the grave and rang a course of Grandsire Tuples upon the handbells, a fitting good-bye to a dear brother ringer, many of the family being deeply moved by this parting touch of affection.

The first portion of the service, which was choral, was kindly taken by the Rev. Canon Glossop, at St. Peter's Church (in the tower of which the decrased had spont so many happy hours) and the committal sentences at the cemetery by the Rev. E. E. Pinnix, curate-incharge of St. John's Church. There were many beauiiful floral emblems, The St. Peter's Society contributed a wreath, and the Herts Association a perfectly shaped floral bell with clapper complete, hearing the following inscription: 'A tribute of respect from the President, Officers and members of the Hertford County Association of Change Ringers.

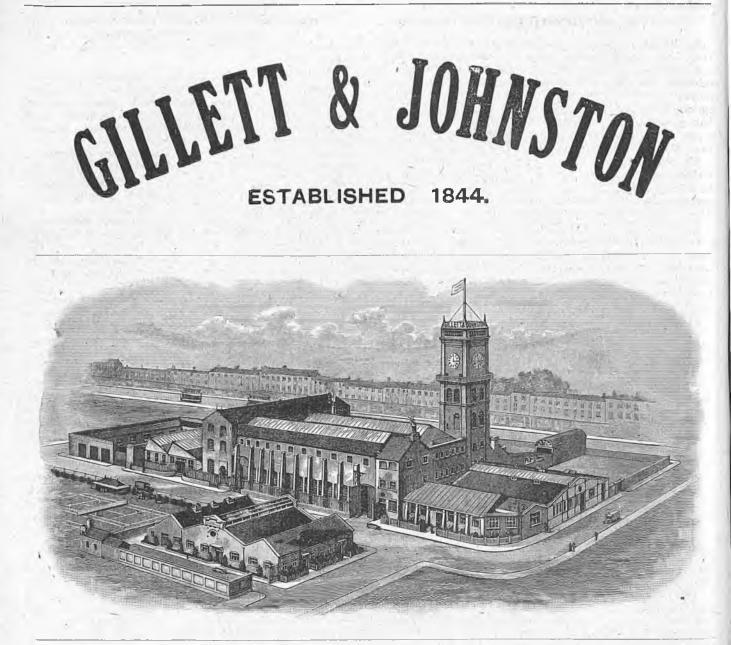

By a coincidence, the local newspaper which reported his death also contained among the excepts of 50 years ago, April 2nd, 1870. Mr. Lewis's first peal of Grandsire Triples, Holt's Original which was rung at St. Peter's Church. Mr. Ted Horrex, who is still going strong in peal ringing, rang the tenor upon that occasion. Mr. Lewis rang about 20 peals upon handbells and in the tower, in Stedman, trandsire and Bob Methods, his business that of a chemist preventing him from indulging to the full in peal ringing. He derived the greatest enjoyment in handbell ringing, and many peals and beautiful touches have been rung in the little room at the back of the shop. Taose days cannot be recalled, and we think of our brother now in the presence of Him he tried consistently to follow. One desire of Mr. Lewis was not fulfilled, and that was to reinstate the two trebles which his father had such an interest in. If this could be done by the family, or by subscription, it would form a fitting memorial io our departed friend, and give back to Hertfordshing is only peal of twelve bells. Throughout Sunday April 11th and on the evening of the function

AN INTERESTING CENTENARY.

Last Saturday was the centenary of the first peak of Kent Treble Bob Maximus ever rung. This was at St. Martin's, Birmingham, and is re-corded on a tablet in the belfry as follows:--The company of St. Martin's Youths, Birmingham, desirous to be-queath some memento of their labours which may excite posterity to emulate them in the science of ringing cause THIS TABLET to record two excellent peaks of changes rung on the twelve bells of this church by the persons whose names are inscribed thereon. NON-RESIDENTS' SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The question of inter-affiliation for members of Associations has again been raised at one annual meeting, but the present is scarcely an appropriate time for putting forward this scheme, when so many organisations are contemplating an increase in the subscription of non-resident members. In the past a small inclusive life-membership fee for those residing outside the area of an Association has been the means whereby a large number of ringers have become members of numerous societies all over the country, usually on the occasions of peal ringing. This has been a very useful source of income, and one which associations would not lightly throw over in any event. Again, the payment of a definite admission fee gives the ringer a certain sense of direct relationship with the organisations which he joins in this way, and a close and more permanent interest in their doings than he would have under an inter-affiliation scheme. These arguments applied in the 'good old days' before the war, but, in view of present financial difficulties, inter-affiliation is less likely to commend itself, now that executives are looking round for methods to augment the incomes. Just at the moment the principal question is how to provide more funds, rather than cheaper facilities for members.

Opinion seems to vary as to the effect that raising nonresident members' entrance fees is likely to have. On the one hand, it is felt that when ordinary members are having their contributions increased, those who come in from outside should similarly be asked to pay more. On the other hand, there is the fear that a larger tribute from the casual visitor will result in fewer life members, as many of those who wish to join for the sake of a peal will prefer to pay one annual subscription and then drop out. This difficulty might be got over by making it a rule that any ringer living outside the area covered by the Association should be admitted only on life membership terms, and not given the option of becoming an annual subscriber, although, we date say, many of our readers would object to the adoption of such a course. At any rate, the question of out-members' contributions is a rather knotty problem, and the best test as to the advisability of raising the fees against would-be members of this class will be provided by time. A seven-and-sixpenny fee, such as proposed by the Middlesex Association, for instance, may be considered a rather large toll to take from a man who wants to ring just one peal with the Society, although for the man who is going to make frequent use of his privilege it is not an exorbitant amount to ask. It will be interesting to watch the experience of the Middlesex Association in this matter.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

ALTERATIONS TO RULES.

The annual gathering of the Beds Association was held at Bedford on Easter Monday, and those present took away with them memories on Easter blobuly, and those present took away with them memories of a very pleasant and satisfactory meeting. The bells of St. Paul's and St. Peter's, Bedford, and Elstow, were available during the morn-ing. St. Paul's being raised shortly after 9 a.m., and kept going untu-the hour of the service at 12.15. This was conducted by the Vicar of St. Paul's, who also gave, in a short address, an Easter message of victory and peace. He exhorted the ringers, when ringing for them various purposes, to carry out their duties in a manner worthy of the highest traditions of durch workers, and ministers doing God's hole work.

Service was followed by a luncheon served in the Drill Hall of the st. Paul's Church Lads' Brigade, kindly lent for the purpose. Close upon fifty sat down. The business meeting was rather lengthy. Miss njon filly sat down. The business meeting was rather lengthy. Miss, Evelyn Steel (vice-president) occupied the chair, in the regretted ao-sence of the president, and amongst those present were Canon J. H. Sneck, Rev. R. Copenian, Miss D. D. Steel, Messrs, F. Hopper (presi-dent, Central Northanis Association), W. Perkins, A. Tyler, W. Rogers, J. R. Sharman (London), J. Houghton, A. E. Sharman (district secre-tary), H. L. Harlow (district secretary), and E. P. Duffield (general mentary). Anothering for the measured forms when the Rest in the formation of the secretary). secretary). Apologies for a sence were received from the Revs. J. L. Gilbert, J. J. Atkins, C. Squires, Messrs. C. A. Pratt and A. King. whilst the late secretary, the Rev. A. Rust, sent his best wishes for a successful meeting.

The committee's report was read and adopted, and the balance sheet which showed a balance on the year's working of y.2.19s., was approved. Canon W. W. C. Baker was re-elected president; Messrs, E. Ranson, Charles Herbert, and Miss E. Steel re-elected vice-presidents with the addition of Mr. A. King. Mr. Edward P. Duffield was again with the addition of Mr. A. Kins. Mr. E. Manuel, S. Bunnett was again elected hon, secretary and treasurer, and Mr. F. W. Tanqueray hon additor. The officers were thanked for their past services, and six new members were elected.

On the proposition of Mr. Harlow, Rule 6 was altered to read:-'All subscriptions are due on January 1st,' instead of Easter, thus making the year of the Association January 1st to December 31st Tris will enable reports to be printed in time for the annual meeting. A proposition to raise the non-resident members' subscription to 5s was withdrawn it being felt that it would be in the interest of the A ociation for it to remain at 3s. In connection with this Mr. Marlow expressed himself in favour of some kind of inter-affiliation, and so low expressed nimself in favour of some kind of inter-amilation, and so abolish the present system of non-resident subscriptions. On the propositions of Mr. Harlow and the Hon. Secretary re-spectively, Rule 11 was altered as follows: 'The time and place of the annual meeting shall be fixed at the annual general meeting,' and the following words omitted: 'Half fares shall be paid to members attending the annual meeting.'

Bodford was again chosen as the venue for the annual meeting of 1921, and Woburn for the summer festival.

The Chairman proposed that the hon, secretary be instructed to write to the hon, secretary of the Heris Association, suggesting that a peal should be rung at St. Albans on April 22nd on the occasion of the enthronement of the new Lord Bishop of St. Albans by a band representative of the two associations. The counties of Herts and Beds constitute the Diocese of St. Albans, and it was thought that this would be an appropriate method of welcoming the new Bishop, and of showing good fellowship between the two societies. The secretary had been instructed to invite the Bislop to become the patron of the association, a position held by the late Bislop. (The Secretary of the Herts Association has since replied to the hon, secretary's letter declining the suggestion of a combined peal of welcome. As explained elsewhere, illness made this impossible.) On the question of the Central Council's powers and the so-called 'enforcement of decisions,' the opinion prevalent was that any such change would be unnecessary, and certainly not a practical sugges-tion. It was felt that if the Council gave a lead, ringers at large would follow its suggestions, and that no ringing societies would cut them-solves off from other ringing bodies by severing their connection with the link that holds them together. It was fell that the Council was appreciated in that it keeps record of such matters as peal totals, and other inter-association affairs, irrespective of its other useful work. It was held that some ringers expect of the Council what it was never intended for.

The usual voics of thinks to the chairman for presiding, and to ...e incumbents for the use of their bells, concluded the meeting. Further ringing was included in until about 7 p.m. the methods rung including Stedman and Grandsire Caters, Treble Ten, London, Superlative and Cambridge Surprise Major.

Eight Georges of the Midlands celebrated the festival of the patron saint of England by a peal of Stedman Triples at Harborne.

We are asked to announce that the winning number of the draw at Oklbury for 12 handbells is 470, the winner being Mr. J. Fisher, Red Hill, Dudley.

On the day of enthronement of the Bishop of St. Albans, illness, in close proximity to the Cathedral, made it impossible to attempt a peal. Also ringing at St. Peter's was curtailed through illness of T Waller, a very old ringer. We hear that Mr. Waller is now much better.

Holt's Original has just been rung at the Church of St. John or Sepulehre, Norwich, and it is interesting to recall that it was at St Giles' Church, Norwich, that the Original was first called without ' prompts,' this being in the year 1751.

BRISTOL BRANCH AND A CLERICAL VICE-PRESIDENT. At the monthly meeting of the Bristol Branch, held at Iron Acton on April 17th, the following resolution was brought forward by Mr. H. T. Howell: That a clergyman be selected from the list of honorary members to be an acting vice-president, and take an active part in the members to be an acting vice-president, and take an active part in the Association, and shall be a member of the Executive and Management Committees.'—This was seconded by Mr. E. Guise, general secretary, and supported by Mr. R. J. Wilkens, who said it was a step in the right direction to get a clergyman interested in ringing to be at the head of affairs. They had had one in the position of Master for the last two years, and dd not want to lose him; but as the office of Master and an active and there were so many for a binary of the last two years. Master was an annual one, and there were so many good ringers cap-able of filling it, it should go round, and it had come to the time when they should make the new office. The resolution was carried unani-nously, and will be brought before the committee at the next meeting at Lydney.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD. NORTHERN BRANCH MEETING.

A meeting of the Gainsborough District was held at Corringham, on Saturday, April 10th and although the weather was not altogether propitious, a good number were present from Gainsborough. Stow, Bigby and Mistorton, in addition to the local company. The bells, a nice and handy ring of six, were available during the afternoon and evening, and kept going in the methods of Grandsire. Plain Bob and Treble Bob.

Tea was provided in the Schoolroom, to which 28 sat down, and was followed by the business meeting. The Rev. R. Thornton, Vicar of Corringham presided, and was supported by the Revs. J. Barber and

The Chairman gave a very hearty welcome to the Guild.—The follow-ing were elected as performing members: Messrs, W. Cooper, G. Anderson, E. Atkinson, E. Dalingwater, H. Morgan, A. Hewitt, 14. Noble, all of Gainsborough and H. Deulon, of Stow. Votes of thanks to the church authoritics for the use of the bells;

Mrs. Prescott for so kindly undertaking the arrangements for the tea, and others who had helped to make the meeting a success concluded the business. Evensong followed, and was attended by a good number of the ringers. Further ringing then took place until close upon eight o'clock, when a successful and profitable meeting, particularly for the younger members, was brought to a close.

ELY AND ST. EDMUNDSBURY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the above Association was held at Bury St Edmunds on Easter Monday. A short service was held in the Cathedral Church of St. James, conducted by the Rev. Canon R. F. Wilson, who in his address, spoke of the important duties devolving upon ringers, and urged them not to forget that, such duties involved responsibilities

After the service, twenty-cight ringers sat down to lunch at the Suffolk Hotel, the Rev. H. B. Woolley, Vicar of Long Stanton, Cambs presiding. The unsettled state of the weather no doubt had a good deal to do in preventing a larger attendance.

At the conclusion of lunch the business meeting was held, the Rev. H. B. Wootley being in the chair. The report and balance sheet were read and adopted; eleven new members were elected, and thirfeen others were re-clected. Mr. T. R. Dennis, the general secretary having expressed a desire

He was sure they appreciated very much the work that Mr. Dennis had done, and hoped that he might be spared many years longer to give them his experi-tation and advice. ence and advice.

SUBSCRIPTIONS INCREASED.

The annual general meeting of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild was held at All Saints', Fullam, on Saturday April 10th, and the attendance, whilst not a record one, was well up to the average, between 70 and 80 members attending during the afternoon and evening. The bells at St. Mary's, Putney, as well as those at Fulham, were at the disposal of the members and good use was made of both reals, most of the standard methods from Grandsire Triples to Cambridge Surprise Royal, being rung.

Triples to Cambridge Surprise Royal, being rung. The service was taken by the Vicar of Futham (the Rev. G. K. S. Marshall, M.A.), who based his address on Rev. xxii, 17, ' The spirit and the Bride say, Conc.'- This,' he said, ' is the message of the Holy Spirit of God to His Church-" Come." Fut away all indulgence in sin and solfishness, and in its place set up love, righteousness, truth. Biessed are those who are privileged to send out the message—" Come in time the church found out a new way to sound the invitation. Thus the base date in trainer of a rate of balls to give out the most Christian message, " Come and worship God." The first bell ringers were carnest Onristians, and their hearts were more in the message than in the bells. The privilege of their work came first: and it was the sacredness of the message of the bells that gave them their work and meaning. Of all our powers the greatest is sympathy, and most of all in matters of religion. If ringers are in sympathy with their message the bells will ring true; if they are sincere and loyal Christians the bells will appeal to the spirit of those who hear them and will evoke a response. Otherwise the bells no doubt will be pleasant to listen to; but will produce no valuable results. I appeal to you, therefore, members of the Middlesex Association, to make hell ringing a real service for God. More than any other men, ringers ought to be regular and devout worshippers. The church is calling in these days for reality in all who take part in her services. As your betts sound out the message " Come, come and worship," see to it that your lives are in accord with the message, and do not fail to be yourselves worshippers." The hymns chosen for the service were people that on earth do dwell,' and ' Hark, hark my soul." All

After tea, the business meeting was held in the Parish 12011, one chair being taken by the President, Mr. A. T. King, I.S.O., who was supported for part of the lime by the Vicar; and by Mr. P. A. Milne bon, treasurer; Mr. W. Pye, Master; Messrs, J. Armstrong and C. S. Bird, District Masters; Messrs, C. T. Coles, and W. H. Oram, hon, secretaries, and a large company, including a number of lady ringers.

The report and balance sheet were submitted by Mr. C. T. toles, and were unanimously adopted. The report shows that during 1919 there were elected two honorary and 67 ringing members. About a similar number had been struck out, mostly owing to losses through war-time disorganisation, and including nine by death. The roll of honour contains no less than 31 names of members who made the supreme sacrifice for their country. During the year 35 peaks were rung, including three rung to commemorate the peace celebrations. The Master (Mr. Wm. Fye) had equalled the record in point of numbers made by the late Rev. F. E. Robinson, by the ringing of a peal of London Surprise Major at St. Matthew's, Upper Clapton, on 100, 13th and a few days later had made a new record. Twelve meetings were held during the year, exclusive of the annual general meeting, with good results. The report contains much of interest, and is quite up to the pre-war standard in quality, if not in quantity.

The balance sheet showed a balance in hand of £10 4s. 9d. on the Central Fund. a loss of nearly £4 on the year's working, incurred mainly through the ever-increasing cost of printing the annual report.

Seven new members were admitted. Mr. J. H. B. Hesse retired from the office of vice-president of the S. and W. District, and the romaining officers were unanimously re-elected, with Mr. T. Beadle appointed to fill the vacancy.

The financial position of the Central Fund was discussed. On behalf of the Central Committee, Mr. C. T. Coles proposed an increase in the subscriptions. At the two district annual meetings held earlier in the year, said Mr. Coles, the bulance sheets showed that the districts were in a healthy condition, financially, especially in view of the fact that during 1919 there were still a number of soldiers away w. eso subscriptions were excused. This year they hoped to get all the soldiers back, and there would be very little to fear in the districts. The Contral Fund however, was in a different position, as that fund had to bear the whole dost of printing the annual report, the price of which for the report just published was about £26 for a 48-mage issue, about twice the cost of a very much larger pre-war report. This cost had to be met and the committee recommended that the subscriptions of life and ringing members be increased by 50 per cent, making the subscription of a compounding member 7s, 6d., and of a ringing member 1s. 6d. per annum. Further, they considered that as the cost of the reports was now about 90, per copy, it would be necessary to charge life members 6d, per copy, to help cover the increase in the price. With over 100 life members it would be impossible to provide in the past. The proposals were seconded by Mr. F. A. Milne, who added that the committee's recommendation included that of the transfer of 76 per cent. of the subscriptions to the Central Fund instead of the present 60 per cent, which would mean that practically the whole of the increase would go to that fund.

Mr. W. Hewett proposed as an amendment that the subscription for life membership should remain at 5s., stating that he thought that visiting ringers generally would not pay 7s. 6d., but would join as ordinary members. Mr. D. L. Clark seconded.—Mr. G. Kilby opposed the amendment stating that he thought 7s. 6d. none too much for a life membership of such a society as the Middlesex Association.— Mr. Coles stated that the increases in outgoings did not stop with the report. Printing and advertising had gone up, postage had increased and he thought that any increase in subscription should include prospective life members, for money nowadays had not the same value as before.

The amendment was defeated by a substantial majority, and the proposal to increase the subscriptions of life and ringing members by 50 per cent., with the other proposals contained in the Central Committee's recommendation, was passed, with only one dissentient.

The President proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicars and churchwardens of Fulham and Futney for the use of the bells, and for all they had done towards making the meeting a success; to Mr. J. Driver and Mr. T. Bolton for having the bells in readiness, and to Mr. W. H. Hollier for assistance given to the hon, sees.—This vote was unanimously passed, and the members adjourned to both towers for further ginging, making as much use of the bells as was possible during the time available for that purpose.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION. ANNUAL MEETING.

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Hertford County Association was held on Easter Monday at St. Albans. There was ringing during the day at the Cathedral, St. Nicholas', and other churches, and the members attended choral evensong at the Cathedral and an address was delivered by the Rev. J. B. Hooth, Vicar of St. Stephen's Church, St. Albans,

A course of Stedman Cinques was rung in the north aisle of the Cathedral, upon handhells, by six ringers from Oxhey and Bushey towers, as a concluding voluntary at the service, the elergy and congregation remaining in their seats. One commentator afterwards stated: 'The touch was splendidly rung, and the effect simply grand. It definitely marked the occasion a_8 a ringers' service.'

stated: 'The touch was splendidly rung, and the effect simply grand. It definitely marked the occasion as a ringer's service.' Afterwards the annual ten was held at the Abbey Institute, under the presidency of the Rev. C. F. Ayerst Vicar of Watford. This was followed by the annual business meeting, which the Denn of St. Albans and several local clergy attended, while letters of regret were received from Canon Parnell, the Archdeacon of St. Albans, and Col. Fremantle.

The Chairman said he was glad to see present so many silver badged men, and men who had served, and referring to the fact that the bells at Watford had been recast and rehung, said they would be glad to welcome any of those present at Watford whenever they could go.

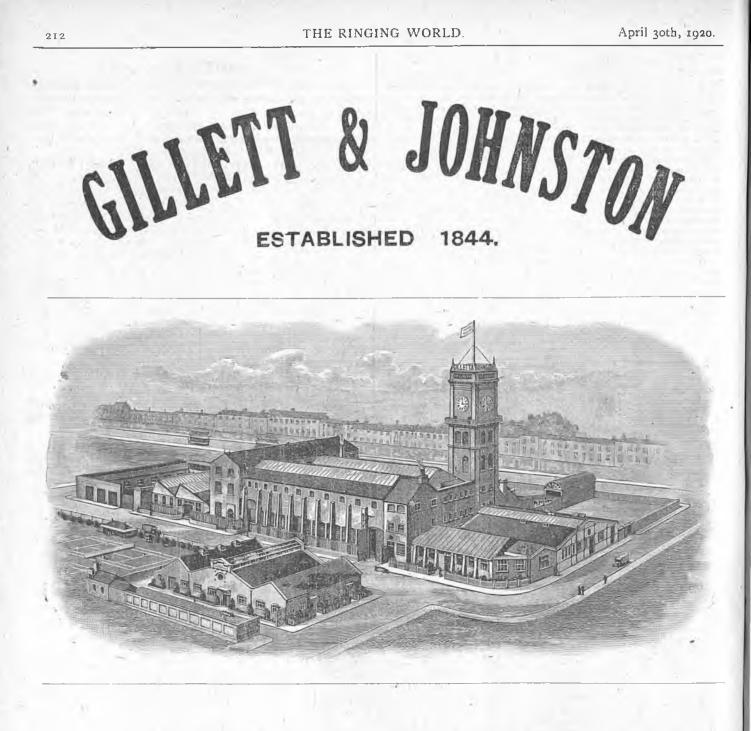

The Treasurer (Mr. E. P. Debenham) presented a satisfactory statement of accounts, and was congratulated by the Chairman ' on the way he amassed wealth ' (laughter).

THE ANNUAL REFORT.

The Secretary's report included many items of interest, from which we take the following:----

With regard to the condition of ringing throughout the county, enthusiasm is being revived, and a rapid recovery is being made to prewar days. This is shown especially by the peal list, which this yearmumbers twenty-three, and is as follows: — Nine peals of Grandsire Triples, three peals of Stedman Triples, two peals of Superlative, one London Surprise, one Kent Treble Bob Major, and seven peals of Minor. The peals were rung in seventeen different towers, eighty-nine different ringers having taken part. During the year Bengeo peal has been increased to eight, through the generosity of Mr. Alfred Baker Watford St. Mary's peal has been recast and refitted and a new belfry made, through the zeal of our President, the Rev. C. F. Ayerst; and Mr. A. C. Chauson, K.C., one of our honorary members, has given the order for the North Mimus peal to be increased to eight. Royston neal has also been increased to eight, and I hear it will not be very long before they score their first peal on their increased ring May Watford band soon follow their example. We heartily thank these gentlemen for the interest they have shown to the cause of bells and bell ringing.

The suggestion in my last report with regard to an Association War Momorial, has not fructified, and we yet require a 'move on ' if any permanent memorial is to be raised. Another proposal is to join in the Diocesan Scheme for filling the great west window with stained glass, as a general memorial to every one of the fallen, whether they (Continued on page 213.)

were officers or men, rich or poor. If a small panel could be reserved for the ringers perhaps this would meet with their approval. But the whole question is one which the committee should carefully consider before making any recommendation, so we must await results. But I would suggest there is one step we might take at once, and that would be to record at the end of our Peal Book a list of all men who were called up, with their rank. This could be furnished to me by the secretary of each tower in affiliation, and would form an ac eptable memorial off our own bat.

The question of giving powers to the Council will be brought to your the dustrian of going percentative, and you will be asked to rate upon the same. But who is asking for powers to enforce decisions? Have we a direct mandate from the committee seeking such powers? If so, have they explained the salient reasons for such? No communication has reached me from the committee, and my information upon the subject has been gleaned chiefly from the ' Binging World. MY own personal opinion is that if the Central Council need powers to enforce decisions they should first lay their claims before the whole ringing community in a proper form for discussion by members of each Association. The Council is a most useful body, but its future rests entirely upon its members to fashion for good or ill. For the moment 'We don't know where we use. But we do owe a dobt of gratinude to the Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt Drake, our representative on the Central Council for his services, and we ask him to accept our appreciation of his work.

After expressing thanks to the district secretaries for their services, the report adds: We record with thankfulness the continued interest taken in our society by our honorary members, and the incumbents of the various churches, who so readily grant facilities to the ringers for any special ringing. But the ringers would like to see them more often in the belfry, as their presence would often be helpful. To the var-ous bands I would say do your best to pull together in perfect unison, and to the individual ringer, if you can't always make others see your view point, never mind, endeavour to see theirs. Your opinion may be possibly right, but to weaken a band by leaving is hardly fair to the majority with whom you have had no difference of opinion. Our chies and sales in ringing should be an act of worship- the offering of time and talent in God's service. Life is too short to squabble, and remem-ber right in the end wins. The Easter message proves this. May we all return to our respective companies endoused with a keener desire to fulfil not only our ringing functions, but to put litto practice those higher duties pertaining to our Heavenly Citizenship. THE NEW PRESIDENT.

Gauon Papillon, proposing the election of Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham, of St. Albans, as President of the Association for the ensuing year said that gentleman would not be merely a figure head, but was one eminently qualified to give sound advice on bell ringing. The resolution was seconded by Mr. H. Eden, and carried with en-

Replying, Mr. Buckingham said they had conferred on him an hon-our he had not expected but he would do his best to fill the position. He congratulated the Association on its prosperity and progress, and he thanked Canon Papillon for his very kind references to himself. His mind was taken back to happy times at Chelmsford, and also when he was with the Bushey ringers. They had to remember whilst they practised that their object was to be proficient for Divine service. One enthusiastic Norwich ringer had expressed himself as follows on this subject :--

May good ringers flourish: may had ones mend: May change ringing last till the world's at an end; When we meet may we meet in brotherly love

And when we part hence, must in the tower above.

(Applause.)

(Applause.) Mr. E. P. Debenham was re-elected hon, treasurer, and Mr. G. W. Cartmel hon, secretary, both with acclamation and thanks for past services.—Mr. Cartmel remarked he was Mr. Debenham was secretary for study before be became secretary. Mr. Debenham was secretary for interview many but that der their had at closed bins (the specific part) for stated years, but that day they had re-elected bin (the speaker) for the seventeenth time, so he had beaten Mr. Debenham by one. The thanked them all for their support during the year, and said they could not sufficiently thank the district secretaries (applause).

THE PEALS ANALYSIS.

transmission as a newspaper.

The tabulated results of the past year's peal ringing are published to-day, and, as always, are extremely interesting. Thanks to the labours of the Central Council's Committee, the Exercise has the opportunity of seeing in compact form exactly what has been done throughout the country, and to compare, as far as comparisons are of value, the efforts of the various Associations. The most gratifying feature of the present analysis is the evidence which it provides of the recovery of ringing from the effects of the war. The peals, which increased in volume as the year progressed, passed the four-figure level before the end of December was reached, and, as further evidence of the revival of the art, there is the fact that peals in a variety of the higher methods reappear in the table.

The decision of the Council to continue the publication of the analysis in alphabetical order largely robs it of official recognition of the competitive spirit, but peal ringers will scan the figures with interest to ascertain which association has the best results. The divergence of view with regard to the merit of awarding peal points is responsible for the decision of the Council, but this attitude is hardly in consonance with the adhesion to the points principle. If points are worth recording, then there can be no objection, it seems to us, to giving full recognition to the competitive spirit, and placing the associations in the table in the order of point merit. On the other hand, if the opinion is that competition in this direction should not be encouraged, then there is little valid reason for recognising points at all. The present is only a halfand-half arrangement. Granted that peal ringing in the main is really a gratification of personal ambition, and that success in this direction gives an added glory to the records of an association, there is little valid reason why the point-scoring method should not be fully accepted as the basis of the analysis, for there is no doubt that in peal ringing, as in any other pastime, the competitive spirit makes for keenness among the members. But the point system is one upon which there is never likely to be unanimity of opinion.

The report which accompanies the Analysis Committee's tables is, as usual, full of interesting statistics, and there is one matter to which we feel compelled to refer. The Committee complains of the late publication of certain peals. In regard to three of these we must take the blame, two reports having been overlooked, while the third, defective when originally sent in, was kept back through a misunderstanding. Having thus made open confession we hope we may be forgiven, and plead, in mitigation of punishment, the many thousands of peals which we have published without exceptional delay in past years. But at the risk of castigation, may we ask the Committee a question? They tell us that two of the late reports are omitted from the analysis because to have included them would have involved 20 alterations to the figures. Would the task of making the alterations have been much more prodigious than going through the table to count up the places where the amendments would have had to be made/?

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

PROPOSED DIVISION OF E. BERKS AND S. BUCKS BRANCH. PROPOSED DIVISION OF E. BERKS AND S. BUCKS BRANCH. The annual meeting of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Dioc.san Guild was held at High Wycombe on Easter Mon-day, when members and friends numbering about 100 were cordially welcomed by the churchwardens and the All Saints' Society. The towers represented were those of High Wycombe, Highenden, Marlow, West Wycombe, Slough, Beaconsfield Wooburn, Penn, Great Missen-den, Bledlow, Culmor, Old Windsor, Warfield, Bray, Boyne mill (Maidonhead). Overslam, Burnham, Binfield, Stoke Poges, Chalfont St. Feter and Chalfont St. Giles' Cookham. Windsor (Parish Church and Curfew Tower) and Hillingdon.

A special service was arranged at the Parish Church, the choristers being present under the direction of Mr. G. F. Andrews A.R.C.O., to lead the singing of the hynns. The Rev. Canon F. H. Elliot, of Slough, gave an address of encouragement and helpfulness to ringers, and reforred particularly to their inclusion in the corporate life of the church.

Tea was served in the Church House, a band of ladies attending to the wants of those partaking of the repast, which was under the super-vision of Mr. F. Hayes.

vision of Mr. F. Hayes. The annual business meeting succorded the tea, the proceedings being under the chairmanship of the Master of the Guild (Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn, at.C.). Among those present were the Revs. P. H. Elina (Slough), A. L. Whitfeld (Hughenden), O. F. Spearing (Marlow), W. U. Wooler (West Wycombe), E. J. Teresdale (Bledlow), Dr. Lewis, W. Reynolds. Mr. W. H. Fussell (Hou, Secretary of the Branch), Mr. R. T. Hibbert (Hou, Secretary of the Guild), Mr. Geo. Twitchen (non. Secretary, Wycombo), and also the following visitors: Messrs. J. Thomas and G. Paice (Edmonton), J. C. Truss (Marlow), W. Simmonds and H. Simmonds (Caversham), W. R. Malville (Guildford), C. Smith (Maidenhead), R. Marshall (Dentford), G. R. Fordon (Shepherd's Bush), D. Twyley (Stackwell) A. D. Barker (Islington), etc. D. Taylor (Stockwell), A. D. Barker (Islington), etc.

The Master first introduced and welcomed the Rev. P. H. Elliot, the new Chairman of the Branch, in succession to the Rev. Conon Drum-mond; while Mr. Bennett of Beaconstield, referred in terms of gratitude to the reverend gentleman for the inspiring address he had given that afternoon in church. The Rev. P. H. Elliot briefly acknowledged the kind expressions and assured the members that he should do his best to forward the welfare of the Guild.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the organist and choir of All Saints' Church for their services that day.

The balance sheet for the year was presented showing receipts amounting to £49 8s. (including a balance in hand from the 1918 ac count of £19 15s. 2d.). After the payment of the expenses, there was a balance in hand of £19 8s. 5d. The financial statement was adopted.

The election of officers resulted as follows:- Chairman, Rev. P. H. Elliot; hon, secretary and ireasurer, Mr. W. E. Fussell (who was heartily thanked by the Master for the valuable services he rendered to the Guikly; representatives on Guild Committee Messrs. Allder, Buckland, Martin, Borcham, Leader, Truss, Twitchen, Blackmore, Welling White, Kirk, and Smith. The Hon. Secretary submitted his annual report, as under -- The good work carried on by the members of the Branch continues to expand and the number of members increase, which means that sooner or later a division of the area covered must arise. There is a sugges-tion that the Walthams and Warfield might be thrown into the Sonning Branch, like Binfield. Again, it is rumoured that an Amersham Branch might be made. The formation of a Diocese for Bucks may compel us to amend the district. I have referred these matters to you for consideration, but the committee named to report to you on the subject have not been able to meet. It was hoped to do something at Bray, but owing to the numbers present, everyone was too occupied by friendly reminiscences of war and peace days. I feel strongly that we should be wise in adopting two districts, as divided by the Thames, and thus preserve the original titles— East Berks ' and ' South Bucks.' In this connection, we sadly miss Boyne Hill tower as a rally-Bucks.' In this connection, we sadly miss Boyne Hill tower as a rally-ing point for the Maidenhead Deanery, owing to their bells being practically unringable. We have to report with regret the deadth at an early age, of the Rev. Walter Thackeray, of Boyno Hill, and the Rev. C. A. Raymond, late of Bray, both good friends of the ringers, and hon, members of this branch. Also, by removal to other counties, of the Kev, Sir John Horschel, Braywood; Canon Ridsdale, of thigh Wy-combe; and the Rev. H. H. Skrino, Maidenhead. The present was a fitting time and place to mention the loss of two Wycombe ringers, Masser Wm Harna and W Phinas whose deaths in the prime of st Messrs. Wm. Horne and W. Phipps, whose deaths in the prime of a useful ringing career, were sadly felt by us all. Since our meeting at Windsor last year, we have been strengthened by the addition of at windsor last year, we have been guergenered by the addition of Penn lower, and a promising young team of change ringers; and we have hopes that Hitcham, with a new ring of six bells, will shortly become affiliated. There are still a number of parisless where the clergy and ringers have not co-operated with the Guild, and I would suggest that the ringers and honorary members who do belong, use their infinence to bring these towers in. The new Earbling Act means that the result of the result of the work of the burget that ringers must assert themselves more in the work of the church. We have been favoured by the patronage of the Very Rev. the Dean of Windsor, and the majority of the St. George's Society of Ringers have joined us. Now that His Majesty King George V. is in residence at Windsor, and a near neighbour, we may possibly be privileged to add the Head of the House of Windsor to our list of patrons.

INCREASE OF NUMBERS.

Our numbers increase. Some of our ' boys ' have returned from war, like veterans, so that the total strength of the Branch is now 623-about one-third that of the whole Diocese. We have 32 towers in union (including a double parish), with 474 performing members, 366 of whom have studied change ringing sufficiently to earn the title and the Guild certificate. This total includes 43 ladies, 33 of whom are change ringers, and 11 clergymen who are practical ringers. The hom change ringers, and 11 elergymen who are practical ringers. The hon-members muster 68-10 being on the 'life' list, and 44 have kindly contributed to our funds for the year 1919. Non-resident church ringers total 84, and the unattached 15. The roll of war service in-cludes 223 men who have served in H.M. Forces-24 of whom have patriotically made their ' hast stand ' for England. During the past year, meetings for combined practice and friendly intercourse have head belt at Warfold Beaconsfeld and Bran-all well attended and year, meetings for combined practice and friendly intercourse have been held at Warfield, Beaconsfield and Bray-all well attended, and supported by our beloved master, the Rev. C. W. Jenkyn, whose per-sonal interest in the Guild is only excelled by his war service. There are still living some five or six of the original founders of the old Berks and Bucks Association of 1877, including Canon Drummond (ite president for over 40 years) and Mr; J. J. Parker, noted for his rescarches in the mysteries of composition all over Great Britain where bells and ringers flourish.

The report was adopted.

The report was adopted. Mr. W. H. Fussell (branch hon, secretary) said that they regretted the absence of the new Vicar of Wycombe, but owing to the kudness of their friends and a committee formed by the All Saints' Society, they had been able to make the gathering equal to and, worthy of any of its predecessors. The co-operation of the Wycombe hon, secretary (Mr. G. Twitchen) had been extremely cordial and helpful —Dr. L. W. Reynolds replied.

After a cordial vote of thanks had been passed to the Master of the Guild, and Mr. R. T. Hibbort having said a few words, the meeting ended.

ended. During the afternoon and evoling ringing was indulged in on the fine neal of twelve bells, the methods including Maximus, Stedman Cinques and Caters, Treble Bob Royal, Treble Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples, etc.; and ' rounds ' on the twelve bells were rung several times, to ensure every visitor an opportunity of having a ' pull.' The ringing concluded with a fine course of London Surprise on the back solit. on the back eight.

PRESENTATION AT NEWCHURCH.

A presentation has been made to Mr. Jas. Ashworth, who retires after 31 years' service as a bell ringer at St. Nicholas', Newchurch, in Rosseudale. The ringers of Newchurch, with the addition of Messre. Haydock and Leach, of Ramsbothum, and Amos Trippier, of cendle-Taylor, J. T. Might and O. Eastwood had rung 210 of Grandsire Triples. at the church, and afterwards 500 in the same method was rung by J. Taylor 1, J. H. Haydock 2, Jas, Ashworth 3, Samuel Lord 4, R. Leach 5, Walter Taylor 6, O. Eastwood 7, Amos Trippier 8. A con-Leach 5, Whiter Taylor 5, 0. Eastwood 7, Allos Trippier being in the vivial evening at the Boar's Head followed, Mr. Trippier being in the chair. During the evening, Mr. Trippier made the presentation of a walking stick, suitably engraved, to Mr. Ashworth, with a few well-chosen remarks.—Mr. Walter Taylor and Mr. Haydock also spoke in highest terms of Mr. Ashworth for his long services, and expressed regret that they were to lose him through business reasons.—Mr Ashworth suitably responded, and thanked the company for the present they had made him.-Messrs. L. Taylor, W. Taylor, E. Taylor, J. Taylor, R. Leach and A. Trippier contributed to the evening's harmony.and the singing of Auld Lang Syne, brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

The quarterly meeting of the Grimsby District of the Northern Branch was neld at Barrow-on-Humber on Saturday in fine weather Branch was need at Barrow-on-Humor on Saturday in the weater ringers being present from Grimsby, Bigby Barton, and Thermon-Curlis. The proceedings started with 720 Bob Minor: J. W. Crowder 1, W. F. Heyhoe 2, J. W. Seamer 3 Hy. Hebatson 4 H. E. Dannatt 5, C. Taylor (conductor) 5. Afterwards other visitors arrived and the bells were sept going to Oxford and Kent Treble Bob. Stedman, Bob Minor and Grandsire. Evensong followed, and was attended by all the ringers, the Association form being used, and the od-dress by Mr. J. Bentley in the absence of the Vicar (the Rev. D. Stedman)

Afterwards tea was provided by Mr. J. Parking. The husiness meeting followed in the belfry, and further ringing was indulged in during the evening.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A meeting was held at Midsomer Norton, on Saturday April 17th when 19 towers were represented by 50 members. A service was held in the Parish Church at 3.30, at which the Rev. W. H. W. Williams officiated, being assisted by the Rev. J. E. W. Honnywill, of Leighton-Mendin. Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Holmyard tea was partaken of in the Schoolroom, after which the business meeting was held. In the absence of the Master, through illness, Mr. Honnywill was voted to the chair, and a vote of sympathy with the Master was passed.

Two now members were elected. It was announced that the annual meeting of the Association would be held at Minohead on July 10th. A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and

A hearty voic of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and arranging and officiating at the service was heartily carried, n_{θ} was also a vote of thanks to Mr. Honnywill for presiding, and to the lattices who kindly assisted at the ten.

This concluded the business, and a move was made to the tower, where touches of Kent Treble Bob Stedman and Grandsire Triples were rung.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION.

The most successful meeting of the Kettering District was held at Desborough on April 10th, 54 members being present from Barton Burton, Broughton Crausley Cranford, Islam, Orlingbury, Northampton, Kettering, Weekley, Wellingborough, and the local tower. A short address was given by the Vicar (the Rev. H. J. T. Eacott), and a collection was taken for the Belfry Repairs Fund, which amounted to 14s, 04d. Tea was partaken of in the schools, presided over by the Vicar. One new member and also three life members were elected. The question of the Central Council's powers was discussed at some length.—Mr. E. M. Atkins proposed that it was time that the Central Council had power to enforce their devisions, and hoped that members would vote on the same at the annual meeting of the Association. He also hoped that members would look to it that they only sent their best men to sit on the Central Council.

Kettering was chosen for the next meeting, and a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the hudies for providing such an excellent tea. A move was again made to the helfry, and some of the party went to Harrington, where the bells were set going to Doubles, Plain and Treble Bob Minor until a late hour.

SOCIETY FOR THE ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD.

A quarterly meeting was held at St. Feter's Collegiate Ohurch. Wolverhampton, on Saturday, April 10th. The Rev. J. J. G. Stockley. M.A., R.D. (Rector), conducted the service, and gave an inspiring address, taking his text from I Cor. xii. 17th and 18th verses. Amogest the items of ringing during the afternoon and evening were Cambridge Surprise Major, Grandsire and Stedman Caters, and Kent Treble Bob-Royal. An attempt for a touch of Stedman Cinques came to an untimely end. For more than a quarter of a century it has been the custom to arrange for all present to sit down together to tea, but on this occasion members were obliged to go to various restaurants to satisfy the inner man, as it had been found impossible to make better arrangements.

As the estimates for printing the report have so greatly increased, some means must be found to meet the additional cost; thus it proposed to raise the annual subscription and to make a noninal charge to those ringing peals for booking the same—which is also a costly item. Both these matters are to be brought up for discussion at the annual meeting in June, at Lichfield. A statement was made with regard to the fund re the Rowland Cartwright Memorial. It is a htue disappointing that denations are coming in so slowly; and it is hoped that members who wish to pay tribute to the deceased for his valuable assistance in past years will do so at their earliest convenience. On the proposition of Mr. J. Bradney, a hearty bote of thanks was

On the proposition of Mr. J. Bradney, a hearty bote of thanks was accorded the Rector for his address, use of the bells, etc.; to aur. Hughes for presiding at the organ, and to the choir boys for their valuable assistance.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

A successful quarterly meeting of the above Guild was held at Warwick, on Saturday, April 17th, when about 30 members attended from Allesley, Birmingham, Coventry, Nuneaton, Northampton, Rugby and Warwick. Ringing commenced at Emiscote at 3 o'clock, and touches of Bob Minor, Grandsiro and Stedman Triples, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major were rung.

Surprise Major were rung. The business meeting was afterwards held. It was decided to hold the monthly meeting in May, at Corley and Fillongley, and the June meeting at Berkswell.

After tea, the ring of ten at St. Mary's was ruised, and touches of Double Norwich Major, Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Bob Royal were brought round.

There were two peaks on handbells non-conducted, and one peak was published without the name of the conconducted, and one peal was published without the name of the conductor. Three ladies appear among those who have conducted peals viz.: Miss E. K. Parker who conducted a peal of Stedman Caters, and two peals of Stedman Triples; Miss E. Hole, who conducted a peal of Grandsire Triples for the Bath and Wells, and Miss C. Thorp, a peal of Grandsire Triples for the Lancashire Association. It will be of interest to note that Mr. W. Pye rang his 1.251st peal in Novem-ber, thus passing the record of 1.250 peals rung by the late Rev. F. E. Robinson, [Continued in next Column.

REPORT OF THE ANALYSIS COMMITTEE, 1919.

In their report for 1918 your committee stated that they looked forward to more arduous duties in the years to come, and with the coming (more or less) of beace, that expectation is being fulfilled. The total number of peaks on tower bells has risen from 229 in 1918, to 968 in 1919. The number of handbell peals has also increased from 48 10 80 so that the grand total has once more reached four figures, 1,048, which is greater than in any year before 1901 viz..

viz., 1,046, which is greater than in any year before 1901. The greatest number of peals on tower bells was rung by the Lan-cashire Association viz., 71, Kent County and Norwich Diocesan coming next with 70 and 67 respectively. On handbells, the Win-chester Guild heads the list with 14, followed by St. Martin's, Bir-minghem, and Norwich with 13 and 12; the greatest number of tower and handbell peals combined being 79, rung by the Norwich Associa-tion tion.

The number of ringars taking part in their first peal was 362; first with a bob hell, 31, away from tenor, 3 first as conductor, 32, of which one was on handbells. First peal on the bells jumped to 27, first since augmentation, 4, after rehanging, 10, first by local hand. 10. There was also a first peal by officers only and the whole Exat cise must sympathise with those who rang in the first attempt for this, which was brought round successfully, but proved to be false. There was also a first peal in which a Mayor took a rope.

Pasls in commemoration of peace were 167, muffled peals in con-nection with the war, 35: other muffled peals 38; Welcome Home peals were 28, including one of Bob Royal at Worcester for the parade of 10.000 men returned from the war, in which the tenor was turned in for the first time and there were 13 other peals of welcome to soldiers home on leave Bishop's Enthronement, new incumbents, etc.; Peals for Church Festivals, 7: Empire Day, 7: Farewell, 9; Royal Qccasions. 6; Anniversary, Quarterly, etc., 15: Harvest, 2: (Continued on page 227.)

THE CROYDON FOUNDRY BELL I920.

Watch Night, 4. One peal was rung by Oddfellows, and one populited by railwaymen for railwaymen killed in the war. A considerative number of neals, were rung as usual for weddings and birthdays. It must be understood that these figures are only approximate, as the occasions of peals are frequently not clearly stated, and are some-times omitted atogether. In addition to the officers' real mentioned above two other peals were withdrawn,

A peal rung at Oldhum, published on October 31st, kauses some difficulty. The date given is Wednesday, June 19th. If the date be correct, there can be no excuse for withholding the publication of the peal until the end of October, but June 19th was not a Wednesday. peal of Minor rung at Gaywood on Nevember 11th did not appear until February 13th, and a peal of Stedman Caters at Saffron Walden (stated to be the first peal on the bells!) on December 28th, was not published until March 5th. The committee have decided to include these peaks, but would urge on conductors to see that reports of peaks are sent within a reasonable time of their performance. There can be no possible excuse for holding them back for months. Since the completion of the Analysis, two more belated accounts of peals have appeared; a peal of Grandsire Triples by the Oxford Diocesan Guild at East Hagbourne, rung on December 27th, published on March 19th, and a peal of Double Norwich Major by the Lincoln Diocesan Guild at Caythorpe on December 26th published on March 26th. A footnote to the latter real leaves it uncertain whether the omission was the fault of the sender or the printer. Had these two peals appeared earlier (and surely it is not too much to ask that reports may be sen, in within two months) the total number of peaks on tower bells would have been 970, and on tower and hand bells combined 1.050. To where included these in the Analysis would have involved 20 or more alterations in the figures. It will be remembered that the Council decided that two months afforded quite sufficient time for the publication of peals. There is one other complaint we have to make with regard to the reports of peals. Three peals were repeated, in one case with some alteration, but in none of the three was there any hint that the peaks had been published before.

Ages of ringers have always an interest when they are above or below the ordinary. We find ringers of 70, 76, 78, 79, while Mr. mark Owen rang his first peal at Wockbester on his 80th birthday hav-ing been a ringer for 60 years, and Mr. W. R. Small celebrated his 80th birthday by ringing two peals within a week! Mr. E. Horres rans in a peal of Stedman Caters at Wimborne on September 13th. rate in a post of Steuman Caters at Wimborne on September 13th, but it was not mentioned in the report that he was more than a year older than Messrs. Owen and Small. It is to be hoped that these youth: will be sparsed to continue their ringing careers for some years yet. The boy, are also in evidence, several being mentioned of the ages of 12, 123, 14 and 15. The Analysis, it is interesting to notice, contains the record of the performance of peaks in two new methods. Victory Major and College Mainer a true of Stedmen Triples is a which a contract of the ages of 12.

Major, a peal of Stedman Triples in which a father, mother and son and a peat on handbells successfully accomplished by two took part married couples.

LLANDAFF DIGCESAN ASSOCIATION. QUARTEREN MEETING

A well attended and successful quarterly meeting was held Beidgend on Salurday last, members attending from practically all over the diocese. The bells were raised, and kept going during the afternoon until 5 o'clock. The Lus ness meeting was then held in the Schoolroom, presided over by the Viewr (the Rev. D. Phillips), who welcomed the association to Bridgend, Arising out of the minutes was the question of the Memorial Tablet to the Association's tailen ringers. The drawing and plum was ex-hibited to the members, and it was unanimously decided to go on with the work by placing the owley immediately the permission of the

with the work by placing the order mimediately the permission of the Dean and Chapter was obtained. The charman vory generously subscribed one guines towards the cost, remarking that they could but give of their best to the memory of the brave lads who had fallen Instructors' repeatively from Fontypridd, Machen, Magnor St. Athan and Lanishen.—It was decided to hold the next Glamor-gan meeting at St. Nicholas', or, fulling that, St. Nicholas', Borril-ther and the methods.

stone the next Monmouthshire meeting to be held at Blaenavon. The election of new members, and various other items were dealt with and at the conclusion a substantial meat tea, very kindly pro-vided, was partaken of. The bast thanks were accorded the Vicar for his exceptional kindness and hospitality. The bells were after-wards rung in the various Standard methods, and this closed a very pleasant meeting.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM

The spring meeting was held at King's Norton on Saturday, April. 24th, and was well attended. This pleasantly situated village, about five miles from the city has long been a favourite meeting-place with Birmingham ringers. The church stands in a commanding position at the top of the village green, around which the old cottages comprising 'Okl ' King's Norton are clustered, and from its tower, which is in the Perpendicular style summounted by a lofty crocketed spire, a splendid view of the surrounding country may be obtained. From this vantage-point may also be seen the city, with its octopus-like tentacles stretching out into the country ever further and further, and one realises that it cannot be many years longer before King's Norton will be ' joined up.' So far the fates have been fairly kind, and the place has developed mainly along the lines of a garden suburb, so that its rural aspect has not yet suffered appreciably.

The lower contains a very melodious peal of eight, tenor 14 cwt. in E and sounding much heavier.

It will be remembered that here was rung, a few years ago, the record peal of London Surprise Major, on which occasion Mr. Harry Withers took down every course-end as it was rung, from outside the tower. Talk about conceptration of mind!

Tea was provided in the old Schoolroom, or Guildhall, an ancient half-timbered building standing in the churchyard, and was followed by the business meeting, with the Presiding Ringing Master, Alder-man J. S. Pritchett, in the chair. Routine business being quickly disposed of, Mr. Alderman Pritchett Routine business being quickly disposed of, arr. Alternan rational proposed a very hearty vote of thanks to Canon Price for the use of the hells and that very ancient room, and to the ladies who had pro-pared the tea and waited at table. It may be mentioned that the ladies were Mrs. Frice, the Vicar's wife, and Mrs. Pritchett, the Master's wife, and both were indefaligable in attending to the wants of a somewhat large and very hungry party.—This was seconded by Mr. Albert Parsons, supported by Mr. Wm. Rock Small, and, needless to say carried manimously.

The Secretary then said that he thought the person or persons who so kindly and generously provided the tea should be thanked heartily and Mr. Alderman Pritchet; said that the donor who wished to re-main anonymous, would be sufficiently thanked by the knowledge that it had been so much enjoyed .- Mrs. Price briefly responded, but Mrs. Pritchett would not be drawn.

During the afternoon and evening the bells were kept going in various methods, among them being Grandsire, Stedman, Treble Bob, Superlative, Cambridge London and Bristol.

THE LADIES' GUILD.

MIDLAND DISTRICT MEETING.

A quarterly meeting of the Midland District was held at Handsworth Old Church on Saturday April 24th. Although the month of April had been tearful throughout, it managed to smile cheerfully on this occasion: consequently a good attendance of ringers resulted. The first contingent arrived at three o'clock and the bells, a light, easy-going ring of eight, were soon set going to the tune of Grand-size Triples. A short service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector (Canon H. G. Daniel Bainbridge), at which the Guild form of service was used for the first time in that district. The Rector, in extending a hearty welcome to the Guild, expressed the hope that at some future date he might be able to reuew the welcome. He then gave a brief but interesting history of the local bells re-marking that originally there were only four bells but in the year 1601 they were recast, and two more added by a firm named J. Smith of Edgbasion, that being the first peal by that firm. The bells re-mained six until the year 1880, when two trebles were added and dedicated on March 26th of that year, since when they had not been altered. It was the custom to ring the Curfew Bell at standsworth until the year 1688

After service, a move was made to the schoolroom, where several enterprising members had thoughtfully arranged tea, to which about so at down. At the business meeting which followed Mrs. Groves was unanimously elected to the chair. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Erdington about June 26th. The invitation of Mr. Cyril Johnston to visit the Croydon bell foundry was received with pleasure but the majority of the members regretted their inability to be present.

A general discussion then took place with regard to combined practice for members, several towers being offered for this purpose. It was decided to hold monthly practice meetings, the first of which will be held at Erdington on May 29th.

A hearty voto of thanks was accorded the Rector for his services in church, to Mr. Danby and the local company for having everything-in readiness; also to the organist. The tower was again visited, and touches of Grandsire, Stedman and Boh Major brought round. About 8 o'clock the bells were lowered in peal, and a very successful meeting brought to a close

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

To the Editor.

Sir,-A week or two ago, on the suggestion of the President, I asked representatives of the various committees to send for publication in the 'Ringing World ' a report of the work of the committee for the past year. Mr. A. T. King, for the Analysis Committee, cas forwarded the analysis which I enclose herewith; and for the Methods Committee, the Rev. H. Law James says that all he has to report is that Mr. Lewis has got out all the little ' methods, and proposes that they should be printed with the selection of Plain Methods, which last is at present in the hands of the hon, secretary of the Council, .He adds that he has also 105 pure T.B. The representatives of the other committees are doubtless sending direct to your columns.

In accordance with the resolution passed last year that Affiliated Guilds and Associations should send in their decisions on the question of conferring compulsory powers on the Council not later than 26th inst. I have to report that I have received the following :-

The Chester Guild is of opinion that such a course would not prove satisfactory.

The Gloucester and Bristol Association adopt the Chester resolution.

The Kent County Association asks the Council to indicate how they would propose to make their decisions binding.

The Lancashire Association considers that the Council will best do its work as an advisory body as hitherto.

The Norwich Diocesan Association does not consider the Council as at present constituted to be fitted to enforce its decisions, and that for such a purpose it would require to be fundamentally remodelled.

The foregoing is an epitome of the sense of the various resolutions which will, of course, he read in their entirety at the meeting. Before closing let me reiterate an appeal for immediate payment of affiliation fees. As yet only about one-third of the number have come in, there still being twenty-three unpakt! CHARLES D. P. DAVIES,

Deane Rectory, Overton dants, 27th April, 1920. Hon, Secretary,

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the Swindon Branch was held at Chippenham on Saturday, April 24th and was attended by members from the Swindon district, and the local towers of St. Andrew's and St. Paul's, the bells of which were available during the effernoon and evening. Some useful practice was obtained in Stedman Triples, Double Norwich and Kent Treble Bob, Grandsire being left on the shelf. It was gratifying to learn that the Chippenham members had made advance in these methods, and congratulations must be ex-tended to Mr. Pearce, who rang his first course of Double Norwich at the first attempt.

The Association form of service was conducted by the Rev. Parsons St. Andrew's Church, and a substantial tea was partaken of at the Waverley Cafe. The business meeting Bishop Branch President, in the chair, The business meeting followed, with Mr. Ernest Bishop Four new membors were elected three of whom were hon, members. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the respective Vicars for the use of the bells and for the service.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A very successful and enjoyable meeting of the Luton District was A very successful and encyators meeting of the Inton District was held at Dunstable on April 17th, when members were present from Luton, Leighton Buzzard, Linskide, Wolurn Tring, Berkhamstend, Harpenden, and the local tower. A very pleasing feature was the large number of the local band who attended, ten members being present to welcome the visitors. The following methods were rung: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Kent Troble Bob Major, Double Norwich and Superlative Surprise Major. After tea, which was held at Wilson's Restaurant, a business meeting was held, with the Rector (Canon W. W. C. Baker) in the chair, supported by Alderman A. W. Webb, churchwarden-The Rector brought forward the question of granting more power to the Central Council and this provoked an interesting discussion, and the following resolution was afterwards passed: ' That this meeting while recognising the good work we That this meeting, while recognising the good work wate the Central Council has done and is doing; and while being willing to respect the Council's decisions, thinks it undesirable to graut more power to the Council. -Four new members from the local tower and one life member (Mr. O. Bayes, of Berkhamstead) were afterwards elected, and Husborne Crawley and Aspley Guise were selected for the next meeting to take place on May 14th.

BELL RESTORATION IN KENT.

Mr. A. Bowell, of Inswich, is just now very basy in North Kent and has completed the restoration at Halling, where the old peal of five have been recast, and a new steel frame for eight and a new treble added, the addition being the ' Peaco ' bell. The five at Suodland have also been rehung and a new trable added. Mr. Bowell is at present rehauging the eight at Chatham, and goes from there to Northfleet to rehaug the present six and add two now trebles.

On Monday evening, April 26th, the dedication service took place at Halling before a large congregation by the Archdoucon of Roches-ter, Canon Tait. During the singing of the hymn, ' Now at length our bells are mounted,' the choir and clergy proceeded to the ringing chamber, where the dedication prayer was said, and a short touch rung by members of the Rochester district of the Kent Association. In a stirring address, the Archdeacon reminded the congregation that above all the first message of the bells was a call to service; he also paid a glowing tribute to the bell ringers of to-day, and complimented the various County and other Associations on the reforms that had taken place in belfries during later years.

At the close a collection was taken for the bell fund and it is hoped that by the end of the year sufficient funds will be raised to add two more bells to complete the octave. The ringers were welcomed by Mr. A. Bowell, and the bells were kept going from 8 until 40, and their tone and 'go' were much ad-mired, the tenor being 11 cwt. in F slurp. Two 720's were rung of Kent Treble Bob nr/l Double Oxford, and other methods were in-dulged in. Rachester district was represented by the secretary district representatives, and members from Prindsbury, Gillingham. Milton-next-Gravesend, Rochestor and Maidstone, The travelling members would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Halling for their kindness in entertaining them after the ringing.

NORWICH AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION. To the Eilstor

Sir,-The report of the meeting in your issue of April 23rd, while not incorrect, may convey the idea that we treated the affairs of the Central Council rather cavalierly. What happened was, that the resolutions which you have fully printed previously, were brought up. and discussed, somewhat cursorily, it is true, but as fully as could be was proposed and seconded that these points should be left entirely to the elected representatives. In the division I believe, this was carried nem, con.—Yours HERBERT DRAKE.

MANCHESTER BRANCH.

On Saturday, April 17th, the Manchester Branch met to do honour to the memory of the esteemed vice-president, Mr. Joseph Ridyard, of Worsley. Owing to the widow (Mrs. Ridyard) having to heave early, the simple yet beautiful ceremony of unveiling a memorial tablet to the memory of Mr. Joseph Ridyard was reverently performed by Canon Elsee, M.A., prior to service in church, where he gave a eulogy of the exacutor and disposition of the deceased. Another peal tablet was also unveiled in the befry to the memory of those who gave their lives in the great war.

A goodly number of ringers and friends did homage by their attendance at the service, the following branches being represented: Manchester, Bolton, Rochdale, Preston, Rossendale, Liverpool Diocesan Guild, etc.

Tea was partaken of in school, after which the business meeting was held, presided over by Canon Elsee, M.A., supported by the Ray. H. W. Thorne, M.A. (Vicar of Worsley), who was elected an honorary member of the Association.

It was proposed by the branch that it be recommended at the annual meeting to alter the date of the yearly meeting to a date earlier in the year a little before Whitsuntide. Reddish was chosen as the next meeting-place on the 15th May.—A

THE COMING COUNCIL MEETING.

The agenda of the Central Council meeting, to be held next Tuesday week at Northampton, contains no very striking items, and yet it provides material enough to make a session quite long enough to satisfy the desires of the most enthusiastic member. Three only, out of a considerable number of Committees, have, up to now, published their reports, and it seems as if the effort to get some of the Committees to record their work before the general body meets is rather a hopeless task, although it must be admitted that in a few instances there is very little indeed to be said. One of the reasons for this may perhaps be that the Council's Committees never actually meet, but do all their work by the more laborious process of correspondence. If they have any business, would it not be better that they should meet and discuss it? There should be no insuperable difficulty in this being done on the day before the meeting of Council in whatever centre the Council proposes to sit.

The Council's own future is not the least important subject which the members will have before them, in continuation of the debate which has already taken place at two meetings. Last year the Council invited the affiliated associations to express an opinion upon whether the central authority should be invested with compulsory powers, but even in this matter very few societies have yet communicated with the honorary secretary, although others, besides those given in the epitome last week, have, we know, passed an opinion. Certain it is, however, that nothing like all the affiliated bodies have had the matter brought officially before them, and it is these half-andhalf methods that rob the Council of much of its value to the Exercise.

If the Associations could be brought to give a direct vote upon whether the Council should be continued or not, we do not hesitate to say that the decision would be in the affirmative by an overwhelming majority, yet the societies show very little energy in assisting the Council with its work. The mere fact that the honorary secretary has to make numerous appeals to get in the small affiliation fee from many Associations in time to enable the representatives of those organisations to vote at the Council meeting, shows how little some societies concern themselves with the interests of the Council, and another illustration is to be found in the fact that although asked for twelve months ago, and reminded again earlier this year, several Associations have not yet complied with the request to send in their roll of honour. Ringers grumble. often enough about the Council; here, surely, the boot is on the other foot.

BOLTON BRANCH.

About 50 members attended the Bolton branch meeting held on About 50 members attended the botton branch meeting head on Saturday last at Leigh. The towers of Bolton Parish Church, Deane, St. George's, Newchurch Walkden, Tyblesley, Hindley, Pendleton Pendlebury, Ashton, Manchester, and the local band, were represent-ed, and the ringing included touches of Grandsiro and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Kent Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Superlative in the Major section.

Canon Elsee, M.A. (president), took the chair at the meeting, and congratulated the members on having achieved the highest number of peaks on tower bells during 1919. Westhoughton was chosen for the June meeting.—A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, brought a very successful meeting to a close.

ROCHDALE BRANCH.

The monthly moeting of the above branch took place on Saturday last at Middleton Parish Church, the towers represented being Middle-ton, Milmow, Balderstone, Todmorden (Parish and Unitarian), Heywood for, Milmow, Balderstore, Todmorden (Parish and Uniternal), Heywood and Miles Platting, Owing to the fact that a G.F.S. service was held in the afternoon, ringing did not commence until 5 p.m., but after this the members enjoyed almost three hours with the bells. The usual business meeting took place in the Clubroom at the Ring of Bells, and this was presided over by Mr. W. Crabtree. It was decided that the next meeting should take place on June 12th, at St.

Albaus, Rochdale.

After some discussion on the question whether the annual meeting should be held earlier in the year, the Rochale branch expressed themselves quanimously in favour of this, and suggested that it might be held on the first Saturday following Whit-Saturday

The Milnrow representative made a strong appeal to all members of the Lancashire Association for financial assistance, as the bells in their tower were being thoroughly overhauled and rehung; this involving such great expense as to justify them in asking for some donation from the Association.

Mr. John Multon was admitted a performing member of the Association and the meeting concluded with a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the tower and bells; also to the ringers for having everything in readiuses. During the remainder of the evening handbell ringing was indulged in.

HERTFORD COLLEGE YOUTHS. AN OLD SOCIETY RESUSCITATED.

From the annual report presented by the hon, secretary (Mr. G. W. Cartmel) to the meeting of the Hertford County Association, we learn that the Hertford College Youths, which had long been in abey-ance as a society, has been reformed. The report says: It is noteworthy to record that the Hertford College Youths has been resuscitated, and the bands of All Saints; St. Andrew's, and Bengeo, have become united together as a town band. The old Society was originally formed on the 5th September, 1767. The truth of the motto, Unity is strength,' I trust will ere long be proved in this instance, and Hertford once again become a strong centre of change ringing. The old Society was wont to meet for business at the ' World's End Inn (the top of Fore Street), and held its annual festival on Midsummer Day, and we are told it was well attended, seldom less than 200 persons sitting down to dinner, served in the Council Chamber of the Shire Hall, to which the Marquis of Salisbury every year sent a fat buck. In 1769 the Hertford Society visited St. Albaus, and on June 5th, 1770, the St. Albans College Youths returned the compli-ment. Whether the St. Albans Society kept a record of their doings I am unaware, but the Hertford Society sank into a state of suspended animation after the year 1822, and no minutes were kept between the year 4838 and 1817 but it is remarkable that is returned the ween animation after the year 1822, and no minutes were kept between the years 1838 and 1847, but it is remarkable that it preserved an un-broken succession of members. The handbells were conveyed to trustees, viz., the Mayor for the time being, and the clergy and church-wardens for the time being of All Saints' and St. Andrew's, and to their successors, ' to be kept by them in perpetuity as an heirloom. for the use of scientific change ringers in the town of Hertford, and for no other purpose.' The minutes of the proceedings of the Society, and Peal Book from 1767, Name Book, Touches, etc., by J. F. Powrll. Esq. were conveyed to the same trustees, to be preserved among the muniments of the borough. Might I suggest that St. Albans emulate am confident that if this were done every band in the city would be strengthened, and the pleasure derived from meeting one another would be of inestimable value in many ways. I am inclined to taink we need a gentle shaking, with someone to lead. Perhaps our new President (Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham) will take the hint, and make year of office memorable.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Major C. Hughes D'Aeth, Master of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, in his annual report, expresses regret that in so few towors in the diocese having six bells is Minor in any method practised.

A double-handed peal of Minor, comprising fourteen 720's'in different methods, is a performance to be proud of, and the Sible Hedinghum trio who brought off this achievement last Saturday are to be congratulated upon their enterprise and success. Mr. H. Brownlee West, after nine years' energetic service, has re-signed the hon, secretaryship of the Devizes Branch of the Salisbury Guild

Mr. Joe Sykes is 'settling down.' For about the next two years -...returnstances permitting-his address will be care of Messrs. Holmes and Co., English Oilfields Camp. Setch, King's Lynn.

What, we believe, is the first peal of Double Oxford Bob Royal was rung last Saturday at Surfleet, where the Rev. H. Law James and his hand are making good use of the ten bells by ringing peals in little practised methods.

Mr. E. A. Young, 1, Station Buildings, S.E.5, will be glad to receive any information which old ringers can give either from memory or tradition as to the carly days of the St. James' Society (now the Lon-don County Association), and incidentally also of Mr. Tolladay or other of its early supporters.

LONDON CHURCHES. PROPOSED DEMOLITIONS.

The City Churches Commission, appointed by the Bishop of London propose, in connection with the reorganisation of the ecclesiastical propose, in connection with the reorganisation of the ecclosinstical parishes and Church finance in the City, some drastic steps, including the removal of 19 City churches, whose capital site value alone is quoted as being near one and three-quarter million pounds. Ringers and ringing are intimately associated with some of these churches, and and Highing are intrinately associated with some of these entrines, and in connection with some of them it is gratifying to learn that the Commission recommend the retention of the tower. This is so in the case of St. Michael's, Cornhill (12 bells), and also St. Magnus the Martyr (10), St. Dunstan in the East and St. Botolph, Aldgate (8), Churches which it is proposed to sweep away entirely include All Hallows Lombard Street (10), and St. Stephen, Coleman Street (8). There is already considerable opposition to the removal of some of the churches proposed, and among the influential advocates for sav-ing St. Michael's, Cornhill, is the Lord Mayor of London, who says: ' My impression is that the list of threatened churches is far too lengthy. I certainly hope that the proposals will not be carried out in their entirety, as such a sweeping demolition would change the face of the City, and rob us of many historical landmarks. Some of the churches might possibly be demolished, but the whole subject should first be carefully considered by a committee of experi archishould first be carefully considered by a committee of experi archi-tects and archæologists. I am very sorry to see St. Michael's, Corn-hill, figuring in the list. The church is a very beautiful edifice and attracts a good congregation every Sunday. The best of the Wron churches should certainly be preserved, but there are Wren churches and Wren churches. I have not yet had time to study all the facts, but I can see no special objection to the removal of such a church as St. Catherine Coleman, near Fenchurch Street. It has no particular historical associations, and I believe its average Sunday congregation is three.' is three.

Mr. E. Alex. Young, writes:-We Londoners cannot spare one of our City churches, not even St. Paul's. They are akin to the very atmosphere of City life, the whole are of prime interest, and many are exceptionally beautiful specimens of the English Renaissance. Wren overshadows his cotemporaries, but it must not be forgoiten that for the pure artistry of architecture, he was surpassed by Inigo Jones who immediately preceded him and by Nicholas Hawksmoor, his own most famous pupil who followed him. Hawksmoor's out-standing work is undoubtedly St. Mary Woolnoth. Both interior and exterior are exceptionally fine, and the dotail in perfect ' scale ' with the composition. I trust it will be remembered that the Sunday uses of these churches is secondary nowadays to their value in giving opportunity to City workers to enter them daily for silent prayer and meditation, and to their uses for concerted services such as we had at St. Clement's last year.

I would remind you that St. Clement's and St. Mary-le-Strand. were only saved by a tough fight 30 years ago. What would the East Strand look without them?

I trust that Church folk up and down the country will feel that the two million pounds is dearly bought at such a loss. Indeed after such, nothing would be safe.

So far as the bells are concerned, there is an opportunity for the BELL ROPES, MUFFLES, &c. May 14th, 1920.

The evening gathering will take place at 8.30 p.m. at the Grand Hotel in Gold Street.

Northampton is an ancient and historical borough. Chief among its features comes, of course, the famous round Church of the Holy Sepulchre, comparable with the Temple in London which most of us know, and with the round Church at Cambridge which many of us saw when the Council met there. St. Peter's Church is characterised by fine Early Norman arches. Among other ' sights ' should be mentioned the old house known as Cromwell House, and just outside the town, Queen Eleanor's Cross, one of that line of which includes Banbury Cross and ends with Charing Cross,

REPORT OF THE PEAL COLLECTION COMMITTEE.

In accordance with the instructions of the Council at its last meet ing, an estimate has been obtained for printing the Collection of Peals of Treble Bob, but as this estimate largely exceeds the avail-able funds, the work could not be put in hand. The MS. submitted to the printer contains 298 peals of Major, in five, three, and two parts, the cost of printing which would be £100-£125. There remain the peak of Major, in one part, peaks with tenors parted, and peaks of Royal and Maximus, about as many in number of those already sent to the printer. The present cost of printing the whole collection would therefore, be over £200. The last half of the collection has not been finally arranged for the pross,

ROLL OF HONOUR.

LADIES' GUILD.

A meeting for practice in connection with the Western District was held on Wednesday, May 5th, at Clapton-in-Gordano, about 1/ miles from Bristol, where there are four regular lady ringers. The beautiful old church in its rural surroundings was much admired and a large party of ringers from neighbouring towers (including Clevedon and Portishead) enjoyed the outing, and very nuch appreciated the generosity of the Clapton lady ringers, who provided for them such a delicious and daintily served tea.

It is hoped during the summer to hold othe, meetings of this kild. as they bring together ringers who are not always able to attend the regular quarterly meetings.

GATHERING AT CROYDON FOUNDRY.

A very enjoyable gathering of members of the Ladies' Guild and their friends was held at Croydon, on Wednesday May 5th. Members were present from Aldersbyt, Bedford, Childingfold, Clapton, Clap-ham, Dorking Edmonton Guildford, Kingston, Hillingdon, Merstham and Worplesdon.

Ringing took place at St. Peter's, Croydon, and for the first time the bells were rung in rounds by ten members of the Guild. After the ringing a visit was paid to the foundry of Messrs. Gillett and John-Mr. Johnston and his staff conducted the party round the ston. works, where they saw turret and small clocks in course of manu-facture, and then saw a peal of six bells for St. Paul's, Canonhury. through which a bell has to pass before being ready for ringing.

 $M_{\rm F}$ Johnson then tapped some selections on the carillon of 23 bells which is to be installed in the befry at the works. This was greatly enjoyed by the visitors.

Tea was served in the canteen and about 60 sat down including Tea was served in the canteen and about 60 sat down including Sir Frank Newnes, Bart., and Lady Newnes, Mr. Dennis Herbert, M.P. for Watford, the Mayoress of Oroydon, and Mrs. A. A. Johnston. After tea, Mr. Johnston said how pleased he was to have an oppor-tunity of welcoming the Guild to Croydon, and he hoped that the Guild would continue to flourish.—Miss Steel, of Bedford, replied and thanked Mr. Johnston, on behalf or the members for his kindness in entertaining them. She was sure all had had a very animable of the entertaining them. She was sure all had had a very eujoyable after-noon, and greatly appreciated the time and trouble taken by Mr. Johnston and his staff to make the visit such a success.—Miss Feltham, of Hillingdon, also spoke and fully endorsed Miss Steel's remarks. Sir Frank Newnes and Mr. Herbert also made short speeches wish-ing the Guild success.—The Secretary of the Guild then proposed Lady

Thus ended an afternoon which will be long remembered by all who were present.

STOCKPORT BRANCH.

The second quarterly meeting for the year of the Stockport Branch was held at Disley, on Saturday May lst, and considering the un-settled state of the weather, was well attended, about sixty members being present. The six bells were kept going to Treble Bob. Stedman and Grandsire Doubles. The performance of the ringers from Holy and Grandsire bounds. The performance of the ringes from rink Trinky, Stalybridge, who were only enrolled members of the Guild at the last meeting, was encouraging, and speaks well for their tutor.

On account of the church being in the decorators' hands, a service could not be held, but a splendid tea was provided in the Schoolroom. This was followed by the usual business meeting, the Vicar of Disley presiding.

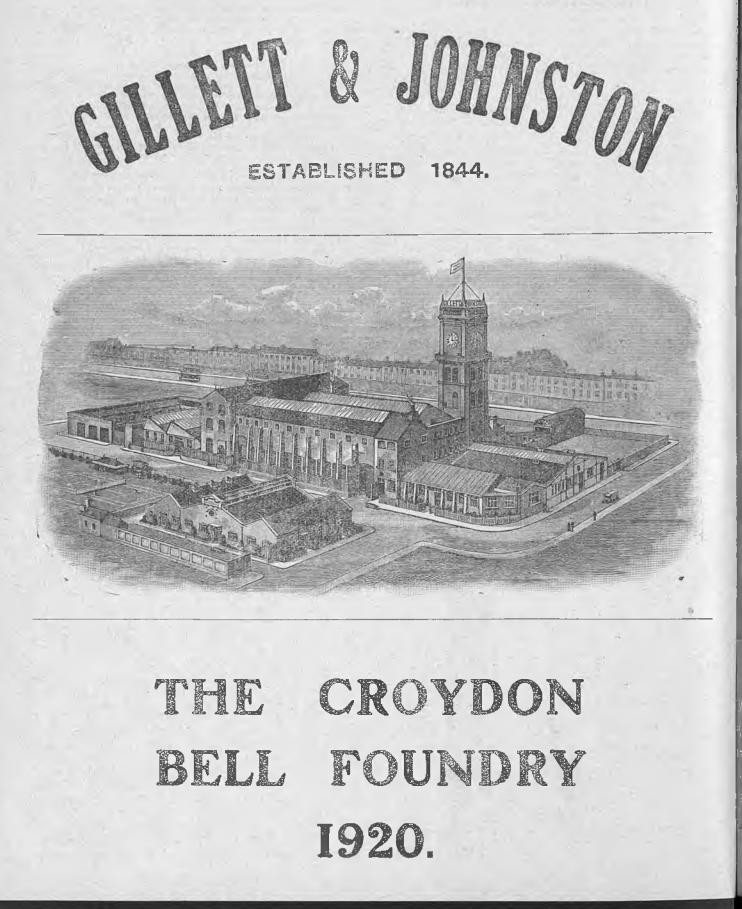

With reference to a War Memorial the Hon. Secretary reminded the members of the suggestion of the General Committee, that a peal he rung in those towers which had lost ringers, and a suitable tablet erected recording such peal and the object for which it was rung. If any such tower found it impossible to provide a band from its own members assistance could be obtained from other towers.

Two new members were elected and Marple was chosen as the place of the next meeting, to be held on June 19th, 1920.-A vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar for the use of the bells and presiding at the meeting, also to the local ringers for making all arrangements, and this brought the meeting to a close. The bells were again requisitioned and kept going until 8 p.m.

THE RECORDING OF PEALS.

To the Editor.

Sir .-- Now thut the need for economy is so pressing, is there any justification for publishing twice in full detail the reports of all peuls rung They usually appear in the ' Ringing World ' and afterwards in the Association reports. To my mind only a small proportion are worth recording at all out even one mount of a satisfied if they were published once,-Yours, etc., R. O. STREET. worth recording at all but even the keenest onthusiast should be

THE OSCILLATION OF TOWERS.

HOW IT IS AFFECTED BY THE HEIGHT OF THE BELLS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-I have twice been asked during the last twelve months to express an opinion as to the effect of lowering the bells in towers where the oscillation of the towers was considerable, and I think it might be desirable to state the general principles upon which I based my replies to these inquiries.

The experiments which I made before the war appeared to justify the two following assumptions :---

(1) That the average towor could be regarded as an elastic structure.

(2) That it was not far wrong to regard the moment of inertia of a section of a tower about a neutral axis as being fairly constant at different heights, up to the point of suspension of the bells.

There is much room for further investigation into the truth of these assumptions. But I see no chance of being able to carry out such investigations in the near future. With these two assumptions the behaviour of a tower under applied horizontal faces, due to the revolution of the bells, is that of a vertical cantilever of uniform section. Then if y be the deflection of a tower at a height x, due to a horizontal face H applied to the tower at height h, we have the following equation :--

$$\frac{l^{2} y}{l x^{2}} = \frac{M}{E.l} = \frac{H (h-x)}{E.l} \dots (1)$$

Where M is the bending moment at a height x, E is the modulus of elasticity, and I is the moment of inertia of the section about the neutral axis.

Integrating this equation (1) we get the inclination at a height x b $x = x^2$

$$= \frac{d y}{d x} = \frac{H\left(\frac{b x - \hat{x}}{2}\right)}{E.I} \dots (2)$$

Integrating the equation (2) we get the deflection at a height x

$$= y = \frac{H\left(\frac{h}{2}\frac{x^{2}}{2}-\frac{x^{2}}{6}\right)}{E 1} \dots (3)$$

(again there is no constant for y = 0 when x = 0)

Now, if x equals h we have the deflection at the height of the bells

This shows that the deflection of the tower (and consequently the difficulty of ringing caused by that deflection) varies directly as the cube of the height at which the bells are hung. So much for the effect on the ringers. Now for the effect on the

So much for the effect on the ringers. Now for the effect on the lower.

Suppose the total height of the tower to be t. The deflection of the top of the tower equals the deflection at the height h plus (t-h) x inclination at height h. From equations (2) and (3) this equals

$$\begin{array}{rcl} \frac{\mathrm{H}}{\mathrm{E.I}} & \times & \frac{\mathrm{h}^{}}{3} & + & \frac{\mathrm{H}}{\mathrm{E.I}} & \times & \frac{\mathrm{h}^{}}{2} & (\mathrm{t-h}) \\ & = & \frac{\mathrm{H}}{\mathrm{E.I}} & \times & \mathrm{h}^{*} & \left(\frac{\mathrm{t}}{2} - \frac{\mathrm{h}}{6}\right) \end{array}$$

To take a concrete example, suppose a tower 100 feet high with the bells hung at 30 feet. If the bells be lowered 20 feet the deflection of the tower at the point of suspension of the bells is reduced in the $(60)^{n}$ ratio $\binom{50}{80}$, a reduction of 57.8 per cent. In other words, if the bells be dropped by one quarter of their height, the difficulties of ringing due to the oscillation of the tower would be reduced by more than helf.

Again, consider the effect on the tower. The deflection of the top of the tower would be reduced in the ratio.

EDWIN H. LEWIS

GAINSBOROUGH RINGER'S DEATH.

With the bells half-muffled as a tribute of respect to Mr. G. Wilson, who was for a number of years a much-respected ringer at the church and to the regret of his old commades, passed away in Lin-coln County Hospital on Thursday, April 22nd, and also to the late Crown Princess of Sweden, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at All Saints' Church Gainsborough, on May 3rd in 53 mins.: F. This was the longest touch of Cinques for the minore first blast and and may have an increase of the ringers of the treble and 2nd, and was rung on the anniversary of the Accession of King George, and also to celebrate the 27th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wilkin's wedding day.

ELY AND ST. EDMUNDSBURY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

On Saturday, April 24th, a meeting of the Huntingdon Arch-deacomy was held at St. Neots, where the helfs, a peal of eight, have been entirely recast and rehung by Messrs. John Taylor and Co. Loughborough, with the result that the tower now possesses a very fine peal, with a tenor of 29 cwt. Kinging commenced early in the afternoon and continued, with short intervals, until five o'clock, when the Vicar Archdeacon Hodgson, conducted a short service. After the service the ringers adjourned to the Church Room for tea. The Archdeacon presided at the tra and also at the business meeting which Archdeacon presided at the tea, and also at the business meeting which immediately followed.

It was decided that the next meeting should be held at Huntingdon the date being left for the district secretary to arrange.—Seven new members were elected.—A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Archdeacon for the use of the bells, and for conducting the service.— In reply, he said it was a great pleasure to have the ringers there, and in reply, he said it was a great pleasure to have the ringers there, and hoped they would go there again. The meeting then concluded, and further ringing took place. Eynesbury tower, which is only two or three hundred yards away, was also open, and various touches were rung on the six bells.

12,000 MILES TO ONE TOWER.

The neal of Superlative, rung at Coggeshall, Essex, conducted by Mr. W. Keeble, was interesting for several reasons. It was rung to Mr. W. Kreble, was interesting for several reasons. It was rung to relebrate the 44th anniversary of the opening of the two trebles which took place on Easter Monday, April 17th, 1876, and at which Mr. J. Sadler, the ringer of the 5th, was present. During the 44 years ne claims to have walked over 12,000 miles to this tower. This peal was also the conductor's 333rd peal, rung on 200 different dates. In 17 towers, in 26 counties, in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, with 303 ringers, 42 of whom are named William like himself. Fortz-two is also the conductor's age, and the composers of the peals also num-ber 42. The conductor's number 26, and the peals were rung under 15 County Associations and Diocesan Guilds.

THE COUNCIL'S BUSINESS.

Apart from the routine business and the discussions that are likely to arise out of the various Committee's reports, there are several items of interest to which the members of the Central Council will be asked to give their consideration at the meeting at Northampton next Tuesday. It is to be hoped, therefore, that valuable time will not be frittered away at the morning session, as has been done at many past meetings, by discussing at length points of trivial importance. Among the matters that will claim chief attention will be, as already mentioned, the future of the Council itself, which will, presumably, be dealt with on the report of the Standing Committee, for at the last meeting it was resolved that this Committee be instructed to consider the procedure of the Council and take such action as they think fit. This reference gives the Committee plenty of scope, and one of the matters to which they might give attention is the provision of a time table for the business. Generally, however, we hope a definitely enterprising policy will be decided upon.

Of the resolutions down for discussion, two at least will commend themselves to the Exercise generally, and we should like to see the scope of the motion authorising the Council to compile and keep up to date an official list of the first peal and longest peal rung in each method and on each number of bells, extended (if it is not the mover's intention already) to include the record of the progressive lengths, in the various methods, wherever it is possible to obtain it. Such a record would be invaluable in generations to come, for the longer its compilation is left the more difficult the task is likely to be. The resolution suggesting that steps be taken to get an exhibit in the Victoria and Albert Science and Art Museum is also an excellent one, and one which there is little doubt the Council will at once adopt.

The motion on the question of the definition of a Surprise method will give the 'professors' their opportunity, although circumstances may force the discussion on this topic to be rather one-sided. Much more divergence of opinion is likely to be shown upon the suggested alteration in the date of the Council's meeting. It is true that the Tuesday after Whitsun is inconvenient to members whose own society holds its annual meeting on Whit-Monday, especially when the Council meeting is at a distance; but we doubt if the proposal to hold the meeting on the Tuesday after the first Sunday after Trinity is likely to commend itself very highly to the majority of the C uncil, as it would rob the members to whom working days are important, of the advantages of the Bank Holiday, which provides the opportunity of a more extended visit to the district where the meeting is held. 246

SHEFFIELD AMALGAMATED SOCIETY.

ANNUAL MEETING AT CHESTERFIELD.

The annual meeting of the Sheffield District and Old East Derbyshire Amalgamated Society was held at Chesterfield on Saturday, May sairo Analgamated Society was held at Chestornau on Statuday, may Ist, upwards of fifty members being present from 19 towers, viz.: Bolsover Chosterfield, Darley Dale Derby, Dore, Ecclesfield, Eck-ington, Ilkeston, Killamarsh, Mansfield Woodhouse, Norton Raw-marsh, Rotherham, Ranmoor, Sheffield (All Saints' and Cathedral), Stareley, Worksop and Workley. During the afternoon and evening a Therefore will I praise Thee . . . playing upon an instrument of musick ' (Psalm lxxi, 20).

Ton was partaken of in the Cluttch Room, followed by the business meeting Canon Shaw being in the chair. The balance sheet showed a slight loss on the year's working owing mainly to some non-recurring expenditure. The bank interest, however, more than covered the loss, there remaining in the bank rather more than £15.

The hon, secretary's report showed an increase in membership of 19 during the year, the number of towers in union being 23. The number of peaks rung during the year was 15, a considerable increase over the years of war ravage.

Mr. J. P. Tarlton was re-elected president: Mr. A. Knights and Mr. J Holman vice-presidents; Mr. J. E. L. Cocky was elected hon treasurer; Mr. J. Plint was elected auditor, vice Mr. G. W. Bemrose; and Mr. S. Thomas was re-elected hon, secretary .- A vote of thanks to the chairman closed the business.

Everything seems to be gelting into going order again, a quiet con-fidence in the future of the society being the keynote of the meeting, and when the best part of a score methods have been rung at one meeting it augurs well for a bright future.

ANOTHER 'CAS'CLE.'

A 720 of No. 22 of the 3rd's Place Delights, from the collection of Legitimate Methods, was rung at Poynton Church, on Saturday, Mar 27(h. by: D. Wilde I, A. E. Marshall 2, H. Bardsley 3, Rev. A. T. Berston (conductor) 4, W. Wilde 5, J. Hickingbottom 6. If the above has not been rung previously the band wish it to be called 'Leasowe Castle.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

A RINGING MASTER TO BE APPOINTED.

Another very successful meeting was hold at Marden, on Saturday, Another very subsets in medoring was nod at billion, on Saunday, May list, when about 36 members were present from Allensmore, Burg-hill, Manden, Moreton-on-ong, Kingstone, Madley, Bredenbury, Pipe and Lyde, Wellington, Stoke Edith and Hareford towers. Twelve new members were elected, bringing the total of the Hereford district to 114 active and 14 honorary members. Tea was provided at the Vicarage. Mrs. Rowlands kindly undertook the catering, as no one in the village would do so, and the thanks of the members are due to her for the evcellont sourced. excellent spread.

The Vicar presided at the business meeting when the secretary re-ported excellent progress of the district.

A motion was unanimously carried that in future all members must pay 6d. towards the cost of tea at the meetings. The Secretary, Mr. C. Erlwards, informed the members, that at the Central Committee meeting, held in Hereford on April 29th, it was decided to hold the annual festival at Leoninster on Saturday, June 20th and that the meeting with the allocation and a start and a start and the secretary with the allocation and a start and a start and a start and the secretary at the secretary and the secretary and the secretary and the secretary and the secretary at the secretary at the secretary and the secretary at 19th, and that they were faced with the obligation of finding a new secretary in place of the Rev. J. S. Roper, resigned. Also that there would be an extra official of the Guild appointed, viz., a real live Ringing Master for the whole of the Guild.

During the afternoon and evening the fine peal of six were kept going, chiefly in instruction to beginners. Several members visited Moreton-on-Lugg, to ring on the light peal of six (7 cwt. tenor) Tms is a peculiar circle as the third rope hangs in the centre of the rms-ing chamber, but with a good band it was thought possible to get a peak of Minor there sometime shortly. Mr. J. H. Shepherd looked in here during the afternoon, and his presence was welcomed.

IN AN AEROPLANE.

At the R.A.F. Cadet College, Cranwell, on Sunday, April 25th, 168 Grandsire Triples was rung on bandbells by Miss K. A. Jutson R. Richardson, F. A. Holden and H. R. Richardson, in the fuselage of super Handley-Page, the machine being on the ground. One п. wonders if this is the first touch in an aeroplane. Afterwards, in one sergeants' mess much to the delight of the many listeners, the above rang 364 of Grandsire Triples.

During 1918 one of the before-mentioned band smuggled another of the same quartet into camp on three occasions, and with the help of two other ringers (S. Bragg and S. Riddell, now demobilised) were keen on ringing a touch in the air: the weather however, proved a disappointment on each occasion. Then the glorious peace prospects came along, and so damped the arrangements.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The Doan and Chapter of Llaudaff Cathedral have gladly and willingly agreed to the proposal to place in the Cathedral a tablet to those members of the Llandaff Diocesan Association who gave their lives in the great war. The order has been placed, and the work is in hand.

the great war. The order has been placed, and the work is in hand. It is to be of Hoptonwood stone. A victory peal of six bells has been placed in the Church of Holy Trinity, Capenhurst, Cheshire. They were cast and hung by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, the tenor being about 13 evt. Mr. John Thornton Rickman, M.A. the new Master of the Sussex County Association, is an enthusiastic ringer, who began his ringing career, we believe, with Combridge University Guild. He was the donor of the Peal of ten, creeted just before the war at St. Peter's, Brighton and some years previously, in conjunction with his revered mother added two trebles to the ring of eight at Southover, Lewes Lewes.

Mr. H. B. Tompkins, whom Mr. Rickman succeeds, has had a long official connection with the Sussex Association, first as hon, treasurer, and for many years as Master. The peal at St. John de Sepulchre's, Norwich, recorded last week was rung in 2 hrs. 56 mins., and not in four minutes under four hours as printed.

A few Yorkshiremen intend being in Northampton for the week-end, and will be pleased to see friends.

A BUSY FOUNDRY.

Among the orders which Messrs. Gillett and Johnston have in hand are the following:

Royal Exchange.—The heavy peal of 13 to recast. Rochester Cathedral.—New trebles to be added to make a ring of 10. Carrickfergus, Iceland .- New ring of 8, now awaiting the completion of the tower. Carlton, Beds.—The ring of 4 to be rehung, etc. Tidebrook Place, Sussex.—New chime of bells.

Blendworth Hants .- New chime of bells.

Canonbury, St. Pau's.—New chime of six bells. Fasthone, Much Wenlock, Salop.—Chime of five bells.

SALISBURY GUILD MEMBERS' WAR SERVICE. A MAGNIFICENT RECORD.

In the annual report of the Hon. Secretary of the Salisbury Dio-cesan Guild, the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards writes: One feature in this re-port should ever be enshrined as a proud and glorious memory in the traditions of our Guild. We publish this year the final edition of our roll of honour. Our normal membership numbers a little under 750. No less than 525 of our ringers responded to the country's call to arms—the great majority of these in the days of voluntary enlistment. Fifty-six of that number gave their lives in the great cause. The six-bell tower of Lychett Minster contributed twenty men to the Vinger forces. King's forces. We wonder whether any association in the kingdom can show a finer record. As long as the church in this diocese is served by laymen with such a splendid spirit of devotion to duty she may face all the difficulties of these anxious days with triumphant confidence.

In accordance with the resolution passed at the last annual meeting, muffled ringing took place at Dorohester Devizes and Salisbury, in memory of those members of our Guild who made the supreme sacri-fice in the service of our King and country. Our Diocesan Memorial has been left in the hands of a committee who are in consultation with the Bishop on the subject. But the grandest and most worthy me-morial of all will be thest of the living hand work by merch is we morial of all will be that of the living hand week by week, if we succeed in restoring to this Diocese, the ancient Peace Bell as a perpetual tribute to the fallen and a solemn call to duty.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP. RESTORATION OF EAST ILSLEY BELLS

RESTORATION OF EAST LESLEY DEDLES. To the Kditor. Sir,—At a parish meeting in this village of the Berkshire Downs some time ago it was decided to add a bell to the existing peal of five in memory of 22 galant lads of the village who gave their lives in the great war. (The total population in 1914 was 475 souls, of whom 142 served with the colours.) The amount required for this purpose was raised in the place, which is a very poor parish, and then the real trouble began. The firms who were called in to give an estimate are unenimous in their verdict that nothing can be done until the old phanimous in their verdict that nothing can be done until the old frame. floor and supporting beams are cleared out and replaced by new. This meant a further £350. The greater part of this money has been subscribed. The Rector (the Rev. Canon Whitham) has asked me as a ringer, and as a native of the village, to help them in any way a can, and through the generosity of friends I have sent them up-wards of .280. Now, will the ringers of England-or rather Great wards of .280. Now, will the ringers of England-or rather Great Britain-help us a bit further and enable us to complete the octave? If a hundred ringers would raise a 'Bradbury ' each and send me it would go a long way towards completing the job. How muc-could the members of the Central Council send from Northampton? (Several of them have given me a good lift.) Now please don't read this and forget it, but help me get it done. I will promise to show a clean balance sheet at the end. R. T. HIBBERT. Wgrren House Lodge, St. Peter's Avenue, Caversham.

TUNING OF CHURCH BELLS.

MR. C. F. JOHNSTON'S CHALLENGE. In a recent issue of the 'Sunday Times,' a correspondent writing upon the tuning of church bells, complained that peals tuned on the Simpson five-tone principle have a dirge-like, mournful howl with them when being rung in peal, while the old tuned rings have a bright, cheerful effect.' The only reason I can find for this effect which cheerful effect.' The only reason I can find for this effect which is agreed to by the majority of ringers with whom I have come in contact,' says the writer, ' is that Simpson-tuned peaks consist of a succession of octaves and fifths in harmonics which, as every young student of music knows is against the first laws of harmony whereas the old tuned peals, with their strike notes and sevenths (instead of the octave) give the effect of an incomplete cadence, and so brighten the sound of the bells when rung in peal.

Mr. Cyril F. Johnston, of the Croydon Hell Foundry, has taken up the cudgels on bohalf of those who stand by the Simpson principle, an makes a sporting offer. Writing to the 'Sunday Times,' he says:-Sir,-A lotter recently appeared in your paper from a bell ringer denouncing the improved method of tuning bells. I do not know if he speaks as a musician and a bell ringer, or as a bell ringer only-it is possible to be one without the other. At any rate it is hard to be-lieve that a hell is more pleasing to the ear if its hum-note (or oclave heve that a held is more pleasing to the ear if its num-note (or oclave helow the strike-note) is at the interval of a seventh below—in prefer-ence to an oclave below. My advice to any of your readers who are interested is to 'Try it on your plano.' My reply to the writer of the article referred to is by way of a challenge, (1) Will be disclose his identity? (2) Will be meet a re-presentative assembly of accredited musicians at our foundry to hear for a function and a fully a fully according to the strike to the presentative assembly of accredited musicians at our foundry to hear presentative assembly of accretion musicians at our formary to hear a famous London peal of bells after completion—which is about to be recast so as to be tuned scientifically? I would errange to have bells with 'sevenths ' instead of ' octaves ' side by side with the recast peal (which will have ' octaves ') and if the company assembled agree with our critic and prefer the bells tuned in the old way I will pay £50 to some charity to be agreed upon.

CYRIL F. JUANSTON (of Gillett and Johnston). Bell Foundry and Clock Factory. Croydon, May 4th.

A great blow, by the hand of death, was inflicted on the Exercise A great now, by the hand of death, was indiced on the Exercise generally, and on the Sheffield area particularly, by the death of David Brearley, who succumbed to a sharp attack of pneumonia on Palm Sunday. He was at the weekly practice at Bolsterstone on the Tuesday and about his business on the Wednesday before his death. Bow at Bradfield on the 13th April 1855 Mr. Breavley first came

Born at Bradfield on the 13th April, 1855, Mr. Brearley first came into touch with ringing on the six bells in the church there, but his ringing as well as his business life was centred at Bolsterstone, where he worked hard to get the present peal of eight installed in the year 1892, and where he raised and taught a band to ring them and kept a company together when the difficulties were steat, the encourage-ment of those in office non-existent and the raw material hard to get head of. But he stuck it: he climbed the hill from Deepcar, Sunday and practice night, stormy or fair, out of sheer love of the art, and now has left it, full of a right spirit, and his memory will not be effaced during the lives of the youngest of his pupils whose respect for him amounted to affection.

Mr. Brearley's activities were by no means confined to Bolsterstone, he being one of the band who determined to raise the practical standard of ringing in the neighbourhood, and entered into method ringing with all his energy with what success his peal record amply demon-strates. His peal book contains over 190 peals, of which some 30 were in the Surprise Methods (London, Cambridge, Yorkshire Peterborough and Superlative), and a good number of Double Norwich Major and Royal. He also took part in a 10,464 of Bob Major and 11,232 of Kent Treble Bob.

As a builder and contractor he was widely known and highly respected. In the year 1902 he was placed head of the poll for the Urban District Council, polling 50 per cent, more votes than the second. Taking a full share of committee work, as well as duties of chairman, Taking a full share of committee work, as well as duties of chairman, magistrate, etc., his business abilities found full scope and his nature was unspoiled by success. He was the same David Brearley in 1920 as when the writer rang his first peal with him in 1890. He was laid to rest in Bolsterstone Churchyard, the whole country-ide being present to pay their last tribute, the church being crowded. The Vicar (the Rev. F. M. Brooks) officiated, and the organist and choir were in attendance. The muffled bells added their plaintive tones to the last sad vites and a cruise of Grandeire Tuilles are sume to the last sad rites, and a course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the open grave after the committal.

A muffled peal was attempted during the evening, but was lost, quarter-peal being accomplished under the conductorship of Mr. George Lewis. A muffled peal of Superlative was rung at Norton by some of those who had rung many good peals with him, and one of Treble Bob was later rung on his own peal by a majority of his pupils.

So we leave him to a well-carned rest. Men of his class are hard replace, S.T.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

GUESTS OF THE BISHOP. When a few weeks ago the Bishop expressed a wish to entertain the Salisbury Diocesan Guild in the Palaco Grounds at Salisbury it was felt that such an honour was one which would justify the management committee in arranging to hold the annual meeting in the city. This meeting, which took place on Saturday, May 8th, will in-deed pass down to history as a veritable 'red-letter ' day. By train, cycle and motors of various sizes and degrees of comfort the members arrived in the mother city some undertaking a journey of over 60 miles in order to be present, for this huge diocese badly served by railways, is upwards of 100 miles between its extreme points. However, obstacles only exist in order that man's ingenuity may over-come them, and overcome them they did to a remarkable degree, for nearly 400 were present at one time during the afternoon. The new president, the Earl of Shaftesbury, took the chair at the business meeting held in the Church House and a capital chairman he mayle. In thanking the members for his election he made an excellent speech on the uses of bells and the impressions they left on the mind of the average man. He surprised not a few by the indeavouring to overcome what he termed the 'wild, wilful, wayward action of a bell ' when in the hands of a novice, and the ease with which to work till every tower in the diocese was affiliated to the Guild. hading to the publication in the report of the final roll of honour and roll of service, he stated that to be president of a guild of between seven and eight hundred members, of whom no less than five hundred and twenty-five had joined some branch of H.M. forces-the greater part of them voluntarily-was an honour anyone might be proud or, and one for which words seemed altogether inadequate to express the feelings while to the memory of the fifty-six who had given their lives he paid a most cloquent and sympathetic tribute. The officers, with very slight alterations were re-elected, and the Master (Major Hughes D'Aeth), in replying on their behalf, gave some good advice to the ringers on the necessity of combined practices for lighter methods, open leads, and improved striking. These remarks were given in such an carnest, homely manner that they went right and doubtless improvement will result. He apologised for the home fact that the finest peal of eight in the city was unavailable, and re-marked that the very tradesmen who offered objection to their being rung were those who were benefiting by the visit of 400 people to the city that day. Again his remarks went ' home,' for, before the meet-ing was closed, word was passed round that St. Thomas' bells would be available from 2.30 till 5.30. The suggested alteration to rule 2 brought forth a lengthy discussion, and it was left to the officers to re-draft this rule according to the wishes of the members.

Then came the Guild service in the Cathedral. And what a service it was? One of those services which so beautifully solendid in its dignity and simplicity, most assuredly left its mark on many a ringer whose home is in some remote village of old Wessex. As the ringers whose home is in some reactor time of the transferred of the set of the set organ. Then came the procession of choir and clergy. How many ringers' Guilds have ever been so fortunate to have assembled for their benefit, a Bishop two Archdeacons, Canons, both residentiary and honorary, the Chancellor of the Cathedral the Precentor, and clergy holding less important posts? Yet such was the procession which the ringers rose to meet.

In the main, the Guild's service was incorporated with ordinary evensong. The first lesson was read by the Earl of Shaftesbury, and the second by Archdeacon Carpenter. Besides three hymns from the service, the choir gave a beautiful rendering of one of S. Wesley's service the choir gave a beautiful rendering or one of 5. Wesley's anthems, which was listened to with rapt admiration. Then came the sermon by the Bishop. He prefaced his discourse by remarking that owing to the threatening nature of the weather he had deemed it wise to have ten in the Church House, but trusted the ringers would make full use of the Palace Grounds. Basing his sermon on the text, 'I magnify my' office,' he preached a most helpful discourse pointing out that in many ways people nowaday, were anxious to magnify themselves rather than the office or place they filled m The one was pure selfishness, while the other showed such the world. a love for the thing they undertook that all ideas of self were efficed, and only the matter in hand or the interests of those who assisted to carry out such matter were thought of. These lessons he brought to carry out such matter were thought of. These lessons he brought home to his hearers in many ways, not the least being the way in which such lessons were ospecially applicable to ringers. The service over, most of the visitors wended their way back to the Church House for tea and a club, others to ring-but what are four peaks amongst so many ringers?—others on sight-seeing bent and so the party gradually broke up. The weather, though dull, forfunately kept fine all day.

Ringing on such days as these cannot by any stretch of imagination be called 'great,' but the opportunity of meeting widely separated ringing friends is so very great that these big thereings are quite justified. It was in this way that the ringers, by visiting Salisbury, fook their share in the 700th anniversary of the founding of the present Cathedral.

SURPRISE METHODS.

Dear Sir,-In view of the Central Council meeting on Whit-Tuesday, and of item 9 on the agenda, I should be glad if you can and space for this letter re the definition for a Surprise Method.

If we examine any Major method with Plain Bob coursing order we shall find as lead onds the following simple transposition rows, out not necessarily in the order here given :--

The proving value and the face value of each separate row are identical, and it would be instructive to learn the true reason why it is suggested that any one of the last six rows may be used for the first lead end of a Surprise Method, but not the first row.

It will be obvious to everyone that second's place could not be made at the end of first leads when the simple transposition row is 12436587, otherwise rounds would turn up; it is equally obvious that when use simple transposition row at first lead end is 13254768 there is no alternative but to make second's place if a method is to be obtained. Either of the remaining five rows can be used as first lead end, with or without second's place, but they are still simple transposition rows just as much as the two first mentioned.

It should be understood by everyone that 7th's or 2nd's place next the treble, or any other bell, does not alter the coursing order of the bells, but on the other hand every other internal place is a bob pure and simple, and the coursing order is altered according to the bob or bobs used.

A brief consideration of these facts by those interested will, I think, be quite sufficient to upset any attempt to tamper with two definition for a Surprise Method that has now been recognized for a number of years.—Yours faithfully, GEORGE BANER.

THE SIX-BELL TOWERS.

The plea of the Master of the Salisbury Guild, in the recently published Report, that six-bell towers in the Diocese should make fuller use of the opportunities of change ringing, by practising Minor methods, is one which may well be extended to towers beyond the counties of Wilts and Dorset. The six-bell towers form a large proportion of the belfries of the country, and of numerous societies, as in the case of the Salisbury Guild, comprise more than half the branches. Yet it is unfortunately only too true that, for the number of towers concerned, there is not the same enterprise shown in change ringing in these as there is in the belfries possessing a higher number of bells.

There must be a reason for this. It cannot be that there is lack of variety open to those who would practise the art, for there are a greater number of methods rung on six bells, probably, than on any other number, and when the fascination of ringing the extents in the scores of methods that can be rung has paled, then ringers have open to them the further field of spliced extents, which adds not only interest, but extended scope, to the opportunities of the six-bell ringer. It is not, either, entirely the fault of the men of the six-bell towers. To be frank, we believe a good deal of the absence of change ringing, or of progress in change ringing, at these belfries, is to be found in the attitude of Associations. The members of six-bell towers are welcomed to the fold of the Associations; they are given encouragement to practise on eight and ten bells if they choose; but how many of the county and diocesan organisations make a point of really going to the aid of their six-bell brethren and helping them to become masters of the art of Minor ringing? Indeed, how many of the men who practise regularly in the eight, ten and twelve bell towers actually trouble anything at all about six-bell ringing, except, perhaps, when on an occasional visit to a six-bell tower, they will ring the Minor variation of some method which they have practised on the higher numbers?

Generally, the six-bell ringers are left to shift very much for themselves, and the progress which they make is usually the result of their own efforts to advance. There is plenty of room for Associations to develop their work among the six-bell towers, and they would find it useful ground for the development of the art. When it is remembered that probably fifty per cent. at least of towers in the average county are beliries with only six bells, it will be realised what the possibilities are; but they will not be fully utilised until the Associations come down to the six-bell towers, instead of waiting for the Minor men to RECORDING OF PEALS. To the Editor.

Sir,-In your issue of the 14th, your correspondent, R. Street, com-ments on peaks being recorded twice. I fail to see where there is much publicity in association's reports and surely peals are worthy of record in one weekly journal, otherwise they are not worth ring-ing, and my contention is this, if a paper cannot be produced to record them and other ringing matters for twopence, we must increase the price as all other daily and weekly papers are increased. As to what Mr. Street says about only a small proportion of peals being worth recording at all, I think most ringers will agree that this is nothing more nor less than a nasty slur on peal ringers as a whole. It nothing more nor less than a hasty slut on pedi ingers as a whole. It certainly does not say much for Mr. Street's own performances. With my wide experience as a ringer. I should not like to make such a statement, as it certainly would not have any foundation; but it is the same whether in ringing or anything else, those persons who are most found of expressing their opinions are, in ninety-nine cases out o' every hundred, inexperienced folk, whose opinions are not worth the snace they occupy,-Yours, W PYE

Sir,—May I be allowed to state that for one I cannot agree with Mr. R. O. Street's letter as to the recording of peaks. Surely one of the chief reasons for the Exercise requiring a ringing journal is to re-cord ringing performances; therefore, if it is impossible to find space for all the touches which are rung, it should at least record peaks.— Yours truly, 39 Winter Road, Norwich.

GEO. CROSS.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the Lewisham district was held at Beckenham. The bells are an easy-going ring of eight, and Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Superlative, Cam-bridge and London Surprise Major were tapped off in good style, a course of Briskol failing in the last lead. At the service, at which the Association's form was used the Rev. J. T. Flowden-Wardlaw (Rector) read the prayers and the Rev. F. S. Harding (curate) the lesson. The Rector also gave a very instructive address, taking for his text the first words of the Magnificat, ' My soul doth magnify the Lord.'

Tea followed in the Church House, the Rector sitting down with the company. The business meeting followed. Mr. W. J. Jeffries being voted to the chair, the Rector having to leave to take a service.-Ton new members were elected, six elections in towers ratified, and the Rev. F. S. Harding elected an honorary member.-Chislehurst was selected as the place for the next meeting in July.

Selected as the place for the next meeting in July. Mr. W. J. Jeffries (district representative) read his report of the Central Committee meeting, and a hearty vote of thanks was ac-corded him for the same.—A hearty vote of thanks was also passed to the Rector for the use of bells, and for his address to the Rev. T. S. Harding, and the organist, for their services, and to Mr. and Mrs. W. Dennis and Mrs. W. smith for kindly erranging the tea.—A, hearty vote of thanks to the chairman concluded the business. Some of the party returned to the tower while others studied in the Rector. of the party returned to the tower while others strolled in the Rectory garden.

DEVON'S NEW PEAL OF TEN.

Devon will soon have another fine peal of ten. Messrs. Taylor and Co. have recast the troble, 2nd and 6th of the old eight at Cullomp-ton and edded two new trobles, the bells having been hung in en-tirely new fittings and new iron framework. The dedication is fixed for June 5th, at noon.

VICTORY BELLS.

A 'Victory ' peal of six now bells has been placed in the tower of Holy Trinity Church, Capenhurst Cheshire, and these have been dedicated, together with a memorial for those of the parish who fell dedicated, together with a memorial for those of the parish who fell in the great war, by the Bishop of Chester. The bells, the tener of which is 13 cwt., were cast and hung by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, who have installed them in the most up-to-date fittings the work having been carried out under the supervision of Mr. T. Dexter. The service of dedication was of a most impressive nature, and the Bishop delivered a touching address. As the congregation left the clutch the bells were rung by the following members of the Backford company: J. Dutton I, J. Edwards 2, W. Johnson 3, L. Edwards 4, R. Williams 5, G. Thomas 6.

A SOMERSET RESTORATION.

BELL HANGER LAYS FOUNDATIONS OF A NEW BAND.

Another portion of the scheme at Nunney Parish Church, Somerset, for the celebration of peace and victory in the great war has been completed by the restoration of the bells, which have been dedicated by the Ven. Archdescon Farrer of Wells. The following clergy were by the Ven. Alcadescon Farrer of Wells. The following clergy were present: The Rev. F. W. Clough (Rector of Nunney), the Rev. J. E. W. Honnywill (Leigh-on-Mendip), and the Rev. A. R. J. Young (Marston Biggott). The opening hymn was 'O God, our help in ages past.' A shortened form of evensong followed, and the special lesson was read by the Rev. J. E. W. Honnywill. After the third collect, the was read by the flev. J. E. W. Holinywill. After the third collect, the hymn, 'All people that on earth do dwell,' was sung. During the chanting of Psalm exxii, the Archdescon with the clergy, pro-ceeded to the ringing chamber, preceded by the churchwardens. The actual dedication having been performed, a picked body of ringers from Midsomer Norton, viz., Messrs. J. T. Dyke, J. Hambleton, A. Speed, S. Carter, T. Griffen and I. B. Holmyard rang the bells while the clergy returned to their places. The Archdeacon gave an address He made touching references to the men. IZ in number, who had heft He made touching references to the men, 17 in number, who had left the parish, served in the forces and made the supreme sacrifice, and proceeded to give many illustrations of the meaning of the sound of the bells to those living in the parish. He exhorted all to obey the call and strive to be more and more active and energetic in their work as Christians.

During the singing of the hymn ' The Church's One Foundation,' a collection was made, which realised £1 18s, 6d., and was given to the Chiming Apparatus Fund.

After service, the ringers were provided with tea in the Church Room, kindly arranged by Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Compton.

The Nunney ringers rang a short touch at the close of the church service. Other ringers present were: Messrs. W. Bishop, W. Flower, C. Ledbury L. Bishop, D. Flower and J. Offer (Frome, St. John's), F. Chivers (Midsomer Norton), Rossiter, and others from Leigh and and Wanstrow

The work of bell restoration included the recasting of the tenor bell (weighing 11 cwt.) and the 5th bell, the rehanging of the peal in the latest patent vertical cantilever, riveled, steel bell frames, with all modern fittings, together with a chiming apparatus, while provision In modern nutrings, together with a chiming apparatus, while provision is being made for the addition of two new treble bells to complete the octave. The bells have been tuned upon Canon Simpson's five-tone principle, and the tone and 'go' leave nothing to be desired. The whole of the work has been carried out by Messrs. John Warner and Sons Ltd. of the Spitalfields Bell Foundry, London, to the great-est satisfaction of everyone concerned.

The local ringers received instruction in change ringing from Mr Frank Smith, Massrs, Warner's bell bonner. He found them very pre-lent material and there is no doubt that a very promising band will soon be built up from this local talent.

BISPHAM'S NEW BETTS

A new peal of six has been put in at All Hallows, Bispham, near Blackpool by Messrs, Mears and Stainbank, and at a trial which took place on May 20th great satisfaction was expressed by those who heard and handled the bells. A 720 Bob Minor was rung by: E Howarth 1, J. Smith 2, W. Wild 3 T. Crookall 4, G. Maries (con-ductor) 5, A. A. Hughes (London) 5. The bells will be dedicated on June 16th, probably by the Bishop of Manchester.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

SUMMARY OF TUESDAY'S BUSINESS.

At the meeting of the Central Council at the Town Hall, Northampton on Tuesday, the members were officially welcomed by the Mayor. The President (the Rev. A. H. F. Boughey) was in the chair, and there were 59 mcmbers present. The accounts of the Council showed receipts amounting to £66 12s. 3d. (including £16 13s. 2d. from sale of publications), and a balance in hand on the year of £63 15s. 7d.

On the recommendation of the Standing Committee, it was resolved to establish a library, the nucleus of which will be a number of books and MSS. left by the late Sir Arthur Heywood.

At the suggestion of the Standing Commetee, a circular is to be sent to Bishops, Archdencons and clergy, pointing out the desirability of encouraging good ringing and especially, good change ringing in a. towers with peaks of bells.

There was an impressive interruption of the business at 12 o'clock noon, when the tenor bells at several of the local towers were tolled, and the members rose in their places to honour the ringers who gave their lives in the great war. The President read the names of the fallen men, the list including over 950 names. It was reported that only seven associations had sent in expres-sions of opinion as to giving the Council powers to enforce its decisions and these were all adverse to granting these powers. The reports of other committees followed, and the Rev. A. T. Beeston was added to the Peals Analysis Committee. The Rev. C. E. Matthews reported that he had succeeded in obtaining the MS, from Mr. R. A. Daniell in connection with the work of the Literature and Press Committee, and that Mr. Daniell had done much valuable work. The thanks of the Council were accorded ...r. Daniell for his labours.

The Council passed a resolution to hold over the printing of the Collection of Treble Bob peals on account of the present prohibitive cost, and referred the matter back to the committee with a view to having copies typed and placed in the new library for use

A resolution was passed urging upon the Bishop of London's Com-mission the desirability of preserving all towers in the City of London in which there are notable rings of bells an amendment to include the churches themselves being defeated, the feeling being that to take this step would be to go outside the province of the Council.

The Council decided to compile and keep up to date an official list of the first peal, and the progressive record lengths in each method on each number of bolls, and appointed the Rev. A. T. Beeston, the Rev. H. Law James and Mr. T. H. Beams a committee to carry out the work.

It was resolved that steps be taken to approach the authorities of the Victoria and Albert Science and Art Museum with a view to the for the exhibition in London of bells, models, papers, drawings etc.. illustrative of campanology as a science and art.

No support was found for the proposal to alter the date of the annual meeting, and the motion with regard to Surprise Methods was passed over, as the member who had given notice of the matter was not present.

Votes of thanks to the Mayor and Corporation, to Mr. F. Wilford for having made the arrangements and to the President, concluded the business.

Afterwards the members were entertained to tea at St. Giles' Church Hall by the Northants Association, and later in the evening there was a social gathering at the Grand Hotel.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY BELLS.

At Westminster Abbey, on May 18th immediately preceding the historical coromony of the installation of the Knights of the most honourable Order of the Bath, in King Henry VII.'s Chapel (the Chapel of the Order), a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung by eight members of the Ancient Society of College Youths: Edwin Horrez 1, Alan R. Macdonald 2, John Thomas (conductor) 3, Albert A. Hughes 4, Herbert Langdon 5, Cornelius Charge 6, Alfred B. Peck 7, Samuel Andrews 8. Thus on this occasion of great historic and national interest the bells, and, incidentally, the Ancient Society, alardet their mark played their part.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

NORTHERN DIVISION PRACTICE MEETING.

The monthly united practice of the Scarborough-Pickering branch was held at Malton on Saturday, and proved a great success, and a happy augury for the future development of change ringing in an isolated but heautiful part of the northern division. Twenty-five ringers attended from Helmsley, Pickering Malton and Scarborough. This being essentially a practice meeting no long touches were in-dulged in, and no time wested in arguing whether Bob Doubles was a Surprise method (it proved so to some present), thus enabling everyout who attended to take part in a touch of either Doubles. Minor or Triples.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. NEW MASTER ELECTED.

The 35th annual meeting of the Sussex County Association was held The 35th annual meeting of the Sussex County Association was held at Brighton on May 8th. Ringing during the morning was followed by luncheon at St. Nicholas' Parish Hall, at which the Master (Mr. F B. Tompkins) presided, supported by the Rev. H. M. Hordern (Vicar of St. Nicholas'), the Rev. C. H. Clarke (Chiddingley) Mr. Eilman Brown, hon. treasurer, Mr. J. T. Rickman, and about 55 members representing Brighton, Lewes, Eastbourne Hastings, Sea-ford, Battle, Rusper, Heathfield Angmering, Shoreham, Fulborough, Heene, East Grinstead Rotherfield, Chiddingley, Chickester, Hurst-piermoint, Hemfeld Bolnew etc.

pierpoint, Henfield, Bolney, etc. The Master proposed the toast of the 'King' and also the 'Church and State.' Responding to the latter, the Rev. H. M. Hordern re-ferred to recent church reforms and the necessity of greater church unity. He asked church bell ringers to further efforts in this direction and expressed the opinion that all children should be taught to know their duties towards ' Church and State.'

The business meeting followed, and Mr. F. B. Tompkins resigned the mastership .- It was resolved that a hearty vote of thanks be passed to him and recorded on the minutes in appreciation of the twelve years'

Mr. J. T. Rickman was then elected as Master. Mr. G. H. House and Mr. Smith, of Eastbourne, were elected audi-tors, and thanks were accorded to the retiring auditors, Messrs. Bray and Hanfrey.

The balance sheet was presented, and showed that it was necessary to draw on the reserve resources to the amount of £24, the Hon. Treasurer pointing out that it would be necessary to consider the financial position of the association at an early date.

Fourteen new members were elected and it was reported that the Hailsham tower had become affiliated to the association. The Warner' Challenge Bell 'was presented to the Salehurst band who had won with 77 points out of a total of 400. Ten towers competed.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicars of St. Nicholas' and St. Peter's for use of bells during the day and to the Rev. H. M. Hor-dern for the use of the St. Nicholas' Parish Hall for luncheon and meeting

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

INTERESTING MEETING AT STOW.

A combined meeting of the Gainsborough and Lincoln Districts was held at Stow on Saturday, May 8th. and was well attended, ringers being present from Gainsborough Corringham, Scotter, Lincoln (St. being present from Gainsborough Corringham, Scotter, Lincoin (St. Botolph's) and Dunholme, in addition to the local company. The bells were available during the afternoon and evening and kept going ex-cept at intervals, touches of Grandsire, Plain Bob and Treble 100b being rung; also rounds and call changes for the benefit of learners. Tea was provided in the Schoolroom, and was followed by the busi-ness meeting at which Mr. F. F. Linley presided, supported by the Revs. J. Barber and S. Wild incumbents of Stow and Dunholme re-meting.

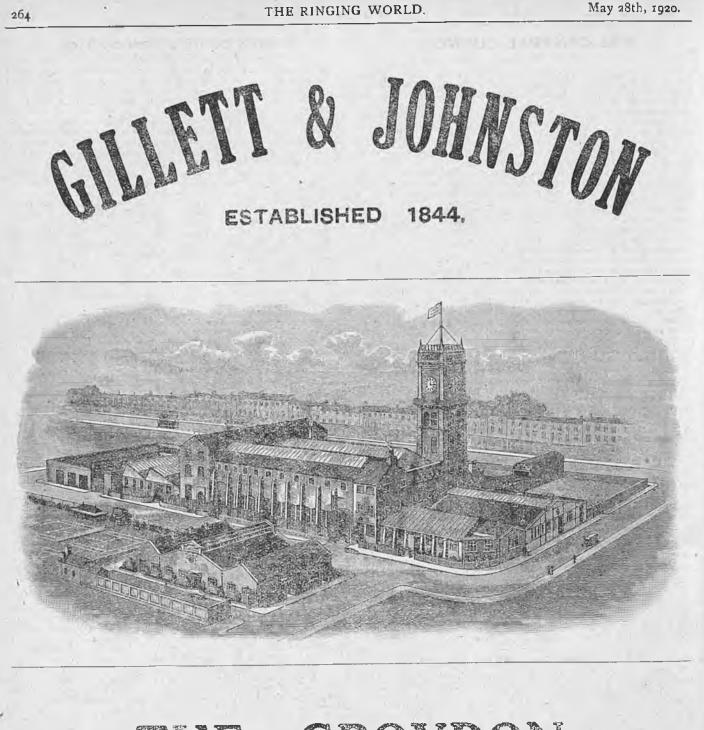

spectively. Apologies for being unable to attend were announced from Canon Hicks. Messingham; the Rev. R. Thornton, Corringham; the Rev. H. T. Parry Bigby; and Mr. G. Chester, hon. secretary, Lin-coln District. The following new members were elected: Mr. Cyril Atkinson, Gainsborough, performing member; Mr. J. C. Tinker, Gainsborough transferred from performing to non-resident life member: Mrs. Wardle, Miss Bowen, Mrs. Howell, all of Stow; and Mrs. F. F. Linley Gainsborugh as honorary members. After the routine of business had been transacted. Mr. Linley read a very interesting and instructive paper on Stow church and its closely linked connection with the bishops of the diocese from the seventh century onwards. He also alluded to the use of handbells during the same period.-The Rev. S. Wild proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Linley, and votes of thanks were also accorded to the church authorities for the use of the bells, to the ladies of Stow for their very efficient catering and attendance at the ten tables, to Mr. F. F. Linley for presiding, and to others who had helped to make the meeting a success. Chorel evensong was then held, at which the Rector officiated and Mr. F. F. Linley read the lessons. After the service the ringers and several of the parishioners made their way to the ringing chamber for the dedication of a handbell case. This very neat and most useful piece of furniture has been presented by the choir and ringers of Stow church, and was made by a local gentleman. The wood for the front of the case is of oak and has been taken from a beam 500 vears old, which at one time served its purpose in some part of the church.

At the close of the dedication service Mr. Linley gave a few words of good advice, after which further ringing took place and a very enjoyable meeting was brought to a close.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

NEW BANDS ADDED.

Upwards of 50 members attended a meeting of the N. and E. custrict of the Middlesex Association at St. Giles-in-the-Fields on Saturday, May 1st, the main object being to establish the recently formed local band as a branch of the Diocesan Guild. Ringing during the afternoon included rounds for the beginners, and Grandsire. Stedman, Double Norwich, London Surprise, etc., for the more advanced ringers.

A short service was held at which the Rector (the Rev. W. 11. Davies) welcomed the Association, remarking that it was the largest gathering of ringers that he had ever had the pleasure of addressing. He was glad to meet them, and thanked those members who were helping his own ringers. The war had hit them very hardly at St. Giles', as not one of the old band remained in the parish. Some hat lost their lives, whilst others had gone away, and they had had to start afresh. He hoped that with the help of the Association they would soon have a competent set of ringers again. The Rector went on to urge upon the members present their duties as Churchmen us well as ringers, and hoped that with the help of these duties. Ther ringing would be listened to that afternoon by many people who would appreciate their efforts. He stated that before he came to St. Giles' he was Rector of Spitalfields, one of the poorest parishes in one East End of London. The church there is situated in some gardens much frequented by the very lowest who lived in the common dosshouses of the district. These people, with all their sin and vice, could only be touched in two ways either by speaking to them about their mothers, or by the ringing of the bedls. When the bells of Christ Church had been ringing he had seen these people in tears, for the bells brought back to them thoughts of their childhood, before their sins and vices had brought them down. There were many bed-ridden old people in the neighbourhood of St. Giles', too, who listened eagerly to the bells, and to whom joy would be brought every time they were rung. He hoped all the members would be worthy of their ringing. The service was concluded with the singing of the hymn, ' Fight the good fight,' and with the Blessing.

Afterwards tea was served in the Church House, Dyott Street, the members being the guests of the Rector and the St. Giles' Guild of Ringers and a sumptuous meal was partaken of.

At the business meeting, which followed the chair was taken by the president, Mr. A. T. King, I.S.O., and the Hon. Secretary proposed the election of the Rev. W. H. Davies and nine members of the local Guild as members of the society. Mr. Coles stated that he h id been approached some short time ago by the Rector about starting a new band, and he had obtained for them the services of Mr. A. W. Coles as instructor. With some good help during the last few weeks from Mr. G. W. Fletcher thore had been considerable progress made, and he hoped the new branch of the society would soon be efficient.—Mr. A. W. Coles seconded the proposal, which was unanimously passed. The President welcomed the new members to the society, congratu-

The President welcomed the new members to the society, congratulating them on their progress, and giving them some good ringers' advice.—In addition to the above 14 other new members were made, including nine of the All Hallows'. Tottenham, Societ y, where the band had been re-formed, after losing nearly half of their members from rarious causes during the war.

The Hon. Secretary proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for his address at the service and for the use of the bells and also to the St. Giles' Guild, for the hospitality shown to the members of the society that afternoon. He also thanked the lady organist for help at the service; the Rector of St. Andrew's, Wells Street, for nermission to ring at that church; and Mr. Dyas, the tower keeper, for making the necessary arrangements.—The President seconded, adding that it was a great pleasure to have the company of the Rector of St. Giles' with them, and he hoped he would be repaid for all his irouble by soon having a band second to none in the county.—The Rev. W. H. Davies replied, again thanking the members for the help given to him, and wishing the society every success.

The Hon Secretary stated that if any member of the society had not received their copy of the annual report, he would be glad to hear from them. Any life member could have a cony on application, for the small sum of 6d. He also had a number of war-time reports left, which probably might be of interest to those who had been away. The meeting closed with the ringing of a course of Stedman Caters on arr. J. Rayner's handbells by Messrs. G. M. Kilby, J. Armstrong, G. R. Pye, W. Pye and C. Charge.

Ringing afterwards took place both at St. Giles'-in-the-Fields, and St. Andrew's, Wells Street, there being a large company at the latter tower to hear the fine-toned peal there these bells being heard by many present for the first time. Short touches were the order, to give all an opportunity of singing, and amongst the methods rung were Grandsire and Stedman Triples London, Bristol and Kent Treble Bob. This splendid peal, with a tenor of ZI owt, was greatly admired, and it is to be hoped that they will be heard much more in the future than they have in the past. The meeting broke up at 9 o'clock, and it was considered a most successful one from all points of view.

A RECORD RESTORATION.

PRINCESS MARY'S VISIT TO WEST HAM.

On Tuesday, May 11th, H.R.H. Princess Mary visited the historic Parish Church of West Ham--800 years old--and attended the opening of the Home Craft Exhibition in the Church Hall. Her Royal Highness was received by the Vicar (the Rev. Canon T. Guy Rogers, M.C.), who served in France with the Brigade of Guards; also by the Mayor of West Ham, the churchwardens and local dignitaries. While the Princess was being conducted round the church and inspecting some of the famous old brasses, the heavy peal of ten bells was merrily ringing out their first quarter-peal of 1,260 changes since their restoration, which had been undertaken and completed in the record period of three weeks by the Croydon firm (Messrs. Gillett and Johnston).

The Royal party then proceeded to the Church Hall, where the Mayor extended to the Princess a hearty welcome on behalf of the laity of the parish.—The Vicar, in a short and happy speech, expressed the appreciation of the honour conferred that day on West Ham and all its parishioners, and in conclusion presented the Princess with a beautiful eldding of the church by a local artist of more than local fame, the frame being the work of an elementary school in the parish. An exhaustive tour of the exhibition then took place, followed by a tea. At the conclusion of this, amongst those who had taken an active part in the organisation of the day's proceedings who were presented to Her Royal Highness by the Vicar, was the principal of the firm of bell founders and Mrs. A. A. Johnston. The Princess expressed to Mr, C. F. Johnston her great appreciation of the ringing at the tower, and was much interested in the fact that the bells had been restored at such short notice especially for her visit.

The runcess received a great ovation in the borough and was loudly cheered both coming and going. Mr. C. Dean, of the staff of Messre. Gillett and Johnston, took part in the day's ringing, and one following rang in the quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters which occupied 58 minutes: W. Doran (conductor) 1, W. Theobald 2, H. Torble 3, J. Waghorn 4, E. Wigg 5, J. Scholes 6, H. Flanders 7, J. Moule 8, G. Hayden 9, G. Potter 10.

SALISBURY GUILD. DORCHESTER BRANCH.

The quarterly meeting of the Dorchester Branch was held at West Lulworth on Thursday, April 29th, and proved very successful. West Lulworth is one of the beauty spots along the Dorset coast, with its famous and romantic cove and is a remarkable feature of a very remarkable coast. It is hardly discernible from the sea, being guarded by two projecting spurs of rock, which form the pillars of Hercules to the miniature Mcditerranean, and so well known to many holiday makers and known as Lulstead in Thomas Hardy's novel, 'Far from • e Madding Crowd.' Lulworth Costle is pleasantly situated near the village, in a fine well-wooded park of 640 acres. Members attonded from Charminster Dorchester Hulton, Puddlatown, Wool, Wyke Regis, and West Lulworth, altogether 36. The bells, a light peal of six (by Mears and Stainbank), were kept going to Doubles, two lady ringers from Charminster taking part. The Guild service was held, the choir led the singing, and a good congregation was present. The Rev. Dr. Powell, who officiated, gave an address, taking for his text, 'O pruise God in His holiness.' Following the service, the ringers adjourned to the Parish Hall, where they were kindly entertained to tea by Dr. and Mrs. Powell, the ringers being waited on by a willing band of ladies. Dr. Powell gave the Guild a hearty welcome to his parish.

The business meeting followed, presided over by the chairman (Mr. R. N. Dawes), supported by the officers of the branch.—The Chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. and Mrs. Fowell for the bountiful entertainment, to the doctor for the service, the use of the bells, etc.; also to the choir and local ringers. — This was seconded by Mr. Hewlett and supported by the secretary. — Apologies for absence were received from the Master, Major Hughes D'Eath the genoral secretary (the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards), and the Revs. Canon Barclay, R.D., O. C. Cox, C. A. Phillips, E. H. Melling, Messre. W. Bedford, J. T Godwin, J. North, T. Page, and Martin Stewart.

The Chairman reported on the progress of the memorial tablet, and the meeting agreed that a suitable Saturday in June would be convenient for the unveiling ceremony, the secretary being asked to ascertain which date would suit the majority of the members.

One new member was proposed, and, on the invitation of the Bere Regis members, that place was chosen for the summer meeting, the date fixed being July 8th. This concluded the business and after 4 few more 120's on the bells the visitors motored to Wool, where are the remains of Bindon Abbey founded in 1172. A doggeret couplet asserts that the former bells (a peal of 12) were appropriated by the neighbouring parishes of Wool, Coombe and Fordington. Wool Church was visited, and further ringing was indulged in, good practice being made by some of the beginners.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

Reviewing the proceedings of the Central Council meeting at Northampton as a whole, there will be, among the members, at any rate, a feeling that the gathering was more productive of results than any meeting for many years past. The debates were not upon subjects introduced merely for the sake of discussion, but the Council had before them a series of practical proposals, they dealt with them in a businesslike way, and we hope the meeting is the first step in a new career of usefulness and enterprising effort. The causes which have led to this revived activity are mainly, we think, to be found in a general recognition of the fact that the Council had to do something to justify its existence in the eyes of the rising generation of ringers, and also that it has received a new impetus from the new President, who has brought freshness of mind to bear upon the work, and has been able to view the possibilities of the Council from the perspective of one who is actively in touch with ringers of to-day.

We shall have further opportunity of dealing with the various matters discussed by the Council, but there is no question as to the soundness of the decision to establish a library for the reception of books and manuscripts relating to bells and ringing for the general use of the Exercise. Such a central library has long been wanted, but hithertothe difficulty has been to find the nucleus round which to build it up., The disposal of the late President's ringing books and papers has now made the project possible, through the kindness of the Cambridge University Guild, to whom the volumes and MSS, were bequeathed. Various small libraries for ringers exist in the country, but these are available only to a limited circle, while there are other ancient books and papers in some of the great public There is, however, no collection of works, libraries. large or small, readily available to the general body of ringers, and by setting up such a library the Council will be rendering a great service to future generations of the Exercise, for in it can be placed documents and records which may be of much interest to future students of the art, but which, at present, have no place of deposit where they can be readily accessible.

In this connection would it not be possible to have suitably enscrolled and deposited in the library that sad but striking list of names of the men who went out from the Exercise and fell on the field of honour? The long list of nearly a thousand ringers was read at the meeting at Northampton, and is a list which deserves preservation in the archives of the Exercise. What better place for it than the new library? 270

TONBRIDGE DISTRICT MEETING.

TONBIGIDGE DISTICUT MEETING. A meeting of the Tonbridge District was held at Edenbridge on May 15th, and was attended by upwards of 40 members, including Messre. I. Emery (Bromley) W. Hewett (Camberwell), D. Wright (Croy-don). Ringing took place during the afternoon, Stedman being the principal order of the day. The members attended a special service, the Vicar (the Ray, F. W. Edwards) officiating. The Association form was used and the Vicar Eave a short address. After service the members adjourned to the Church House, where an excellent tex was kindly provided by the Vicar. kindly provided by the Vicar.

The business meeting followed, the Vicar presiding .- The District Secretary reported that a young band of ringers had been formed at Staplehurst the members of which were to be elected as probationers that day. They had applied for an instructor, and Mr. C. H Sone, of Linton, had undertaken the task.-Sixteen new members (includ-of Linton, had undertaken the task.—Sixteen new members (includ-ing the Stapleburst Band) were elected and the election of Mr. W. C. Hart of Brighton, as a non-resident life member, was confirmed. The District Secretary also reported that the combined practice for Double Norwich which was arranged at Tonbridge recently proved a failure, only six members turning up, although he had sent post cards announcing the meeting to all the surrounding towers. After some discussion as to the desirability of arranging another practice, it was decided to hold one at Tonbridge for Wednesday June 9th, at 6 p.m., when it is hoped that members will make an effort to attend and thus pressure the way for other united practice, it be higher methods. prepare the way for other united practices in the higher methods. This District Secretary also announced that a short explanatory pamphlet on the method had been prepared by Mr. F. White of Tun-bridge Wells, for sale at 6d. each, the proceeds to be devoted to the Association War Memorial.

Association was memorial. The District Secretary also announced that the next meeting of the district would be held (by kind invitation of the Rev. G. C. E. Ryley, Vicar) at East Peckham, in July. Votes of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells for arranging and officialing at the service and for generously entertaining the members to tea, to Mrs. J. W. Steddy, and the other ladies who so kindly waited upon them at tea, and to Mr. J. W. WINCHESTER GUILD. YORKTOWN DISTRICT MEETING.

Ottershaw Church, Surrey, standing high on one of the pine-clad hills which abound in the district, was the venue of the quarterly meeting of the Yorktown District of the Winchester Guild on Saturday, May 22nd. The tower contains a capital peal of six, with a 16th cwt. tenor. but owing to the distance from town or railway, those who visit Ottershaw for ringing are mostly cyclists. The attendance was smaller than the usual number who pedal to the village, but no doubt the Whitsun holiday had a lot to do with this. Ringing took place during the afternoon, and the Guild form of service was held in the Church, conducted by the Vicar, while Mr. W. Shepherd presided at the organ.

After service, a move was made for tea at the Parish Hall, and full justice was done to an excellent repust. While the tables were being cleared, the Vicar conducted the visitors round his garden, which was much enjoyed.

The business meeting was not a long one, but it is interesting to learn that the district is performing good work in the shape of instruction and combined practices, as well as in other ways.—The next meeting is fixed for August Bank Holiday, when it is hoped to visit Yorktown, Hawley, Sandhurst, Fineliampstead and Yateley. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for his many kindnesses, after which further ringing took place in various methods.

GUILDFORD DISTRICT.

A meeting of the Guildford District was held at Leatherhead, on Saturday, May 22nd, but owing to the holidays, only about 30 ringers put in an appearance.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. - Hobson), who apologised for the heavy ' go ' of the bells, but said he saw no immediate prospect of their being rehung, although he lived in hopes.

The Ringing Master's report showed that good progress was being made, and it was resolved to leave arrangements for the next district peal in his hands.

The Secretary was directed to make arrangements for a meeting at Merrow and Clandon in July, and to revive the pre-war summer outing at Ranmore Common, Mr. Dobinson assuring the meeting that they would meet with a hearty welcome.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The dedication of the new bells at Cullompton, Devon by the Arch-deacon of Exeter, will take place on Saturday, but the hour has been altered from 12 noon to 2.30 p.m.

The peal of Double Oxford Bob Royal at Surfleet was not the first in the method. The first was rung at Wednesbury by the Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford on January 2nd 1909, conducted by Joseph Pigott.

Mr. John Thomas has removed to 24, Suffolk Road, Ponder's End, Middlesex.

The first 5024 of Cambridge Surprise Major ever produced was rung at St. Stephen's Westminster, in August, 1902. It was composed and conducted by Mr. Fred Deuch, who, however, has lost all trace of the figures. For historical reasons he would like to recover them, and if any ringer who has the figures will send them to Mr. Dench, at 39, Pleasant Valley, Saffron Walden, his action will be appreciated

THE SIX-BELL TOWERS.

To the Editor. Sir,-The remarks in your leader of May 28 are very true, and it is a certain fact that in the majority of instances, the six-bell towers are very much ignored by those fortunate enough to possess a full octave and over. I can vouch for this in and around Leicester, where not only are five and six bell ringers ignored by eight and ten bell ringers, but practically shunned. Some twenty years ago Mr. Wm. Willson did a great deal of good in this district among the five and six bell towers teaching and getting many bands through a variety of methods and peals. This however, was not supported, and couse quantly many members have been lost to our Association. I know in a number of instances where such members have been welcomed to the Association with open arms, principally for the sake of funds, and then left entirely to their own resources and ultimately forgotien. They have never received either help or encouragement, and have figurehead and nothing more. Before the war I undertook to teach one or two six-bell bands, and had the satisfaction of getting them from one to seven method peals before I left. In this instance I had only the help or support of one solitary friend, and my six-bell peals with these bands were openly scoffed at by the Leicester ringers of higher numbers, who were very glad of my help to them in scoring their peals on eight and ten.

I think this case is but an example of many other districts, and it certainly is up to the Associations (as you say in your leader) to give more attention to their six-bell towers. Not only would they find support, but their individual strength of membership and funds too, would be definitely and materially increased.-Yours 24, Coventry Street, Leicester. ERNI ERNEST MORRIS.

'THE RINGING WORLD.' WHAT ALDERSHOT HAS DONE.

Several members of the Central Council spoke with emphasis at the meeting at Northampton upon the fact that the ringers' only journal, 'The Ringing Workl,' was not supported as it ought to be. -The Rev. H. Law James said it was a scandal that so many towers took only one copy for the whole band. Needless to say, we endorse this view, and much more could be Needless to say, we endorse this view, and mitch more could be done in the interests of readers if every reader were a subscriber. In connection with this matter, an interesting point was made by Mr. J. Mann, speaking at a Winchester Guild gathering at Aldershot the other day. He said they could only expect to see an improve-ment in ' The Ringing World' if there was a greater sale for it. Ringing Masters had, from time to time, impressed on the members the necessity of increasing the circulation, but that did not appear to here be a set of the could be a set on the members. why they have had sufficient effect. He saw no reason, however, Church authorities should not be asked to assist in the matter. paid their organist and choir, and even the boy who pumped wind into the organ, but very little was done for the ringers. He had asked his own Vicar if the could see his way to subscribe for eight copies of the relation World ' weekly and he (the Vicar' had consented to do so. By gaining that point he considered he had got in the ' thin end of the wedge,' and he thought it was up to all ringers to assist in driving it home, because if Aklershot Church authorities could subscribe for as many copies as there were bells in the tower, all other Church ruthorities could do the same, and ringers would then get a paper which would be interesting to learners as well as to advanced ringers.

in Sets of any number. An interesting record marking the progress of ex-Service men comes from Chinpenham, Wilts. On Whit-Sunday, for morning service, 1152 Kent Treble Bob Major was rung: A. Dale 1, F. Pearce 2, R. Pearce 3, F. Lamboth 4, E. Perry 5, L. Ambrose 6, W. Hulbert 7, S. Wilt-shire (conductor) 8. All these men are regular Sunday service ringers at the church, and learned to handle and ring a bell in the same tower. The ringers of 2, 3 5, 6, 7 and 8 are ex-service men, and have learned the method since Christmas. We look for a peal shortly.

A MAYORAL WELCOME.

An official welcome was given to the members by the Maxov of Northampton (Councillor F. Kilby), who, in an interesting speech referred to Northampton's historic past and its importance in the present as an industrial centre. Northampton, he pointed out, had been the meeting-place of Parliaments and the residence of kings and the scene of many stirring events in history. They were also proud of their municipal record for he was the 73 of Warer is direct or of their municipal record for he was the 731st Mayor in direct succession. He mentioned that his first recollection of bells was seeing the great bell of St. Faul's Cathedral pass through the streets of Northampton on its way from the foundry at Loughborough to London.' He was not sufficiently well versed in bells to know whether they had particularly good bells in Northampton, but he knew they had peals of bells, and they heard them frequently, and with a great deal of pleasure (hear, hear). He hoped the visit of the Council would be a pleasure to the members, and that their deliberations would be profitable (applause).

The President said although a formal vote would come later they could not let the Mayor depart without expressing to him how highly they appreciated his kindness, and the honour he had done them in allowing them to meet in that chamber, and in gracing their meeting with his presence. They felt the great dignity of meeting in such a town as Northampton. He was not born in Northampton himself-but he did the next best thing and when he wanted a wife he selected one from Northampton (applause).

The Mayor then left, and the business of the agenda was commenced.

The minutes of the meeting at Gloucester, having been published in the 'Ringing World,' were taken as read, and confirmed. Arising out of them the Hon. Secretary said he had received a very nice letter from Mrs. J. W. Taylor, in reply to a vote of condolence with her nased at the last meeting. her passed at the last meeting. 'The President said the Council's address to the King on the termination of the way, was first of all formally acknowledged, and later came a most gracious reply that the King was much touched by n. was glad to receive it, and returned his thanks for it (applause).

The President also said in reference to the roll of honour of fallen ringers which secretaries had been requested to send in, they had received the names from all the affiliated societies except the Surrey, the North Notis and the North Wales Associations. It was proposed to read the roll at 12 o'clock noon, at which hour, by the kindness of the hon, scoretary of the Central Northants Association, it had been arranged that bells should be tolled for a short space at some of the principal churches of the form principal churches of the town.

The Secretary announced that apologies for absence had been re-ceived from the Rev. E. W. Carpenter, Mr. John Carter, the secretary of the Bath and Wells Association on behalf of all their representatives Mr. C. Edwards, Miss Gillingham, Mr. J. Griffin, Major Hesse, Mr. E. H. Lewis, Mr. J. W. Jones, Rev. C. C. Marshall, Canon Papillon, Mr. F. Willey, and Mr. Harry Chapman.

INCREASED SALE OF PUBLICATIONS.

The Hon, Secretary presented the statement of accounts which showed the total receipts to be £66 12s. 3d, including £12 10s, from affiliation fees, and £16 12s. 3d, from sale of publications. The expenditure had been £2 16s. 8d., which left a balance to carry forward of £63 15s. 7d. Referring to the amount received from the sale of publications, the Secretary said when they realised that previous sales had been about £2 per year — in one year they did receive as much as £4-they would see what progress had been made in the hands of the hon. librarian (applause).

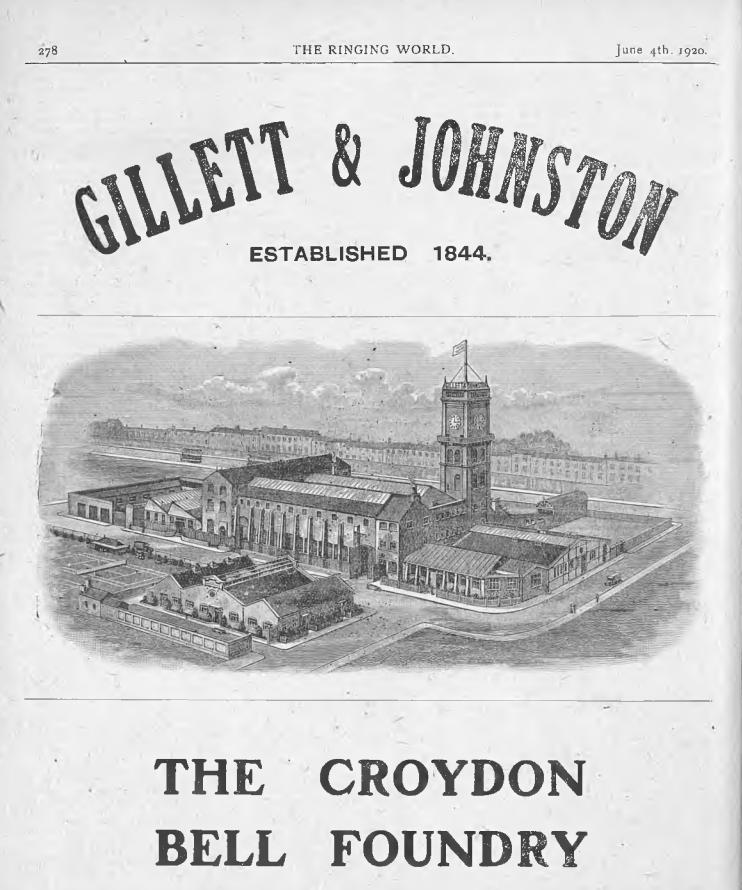

The Roy, C. W. O. Jonkyn presented his report as hon, librarian. The Roy, C. W. O. Jonkyn presence ins report as non-attraction. He said that last year the Council adopted two proposals: first that the Council's publications should be advertised regularly in the columns of the 'Ringng World,' and secondly, that parcels of books should be sent out to Associations on sale or return. He thought the Council would agree that in assenting to these proposals they did wisely when he reported that whorcas since he had been librarian, the sale of books in any one year had never realised more than £3 los. this year he had been able to hand to the treasurer a cheque for £16 13s. 2d. It appeared, therefore, that it would be wise to continue this policy, but at the same time he would point out that the fact that so many companies and associations throughout the country were starting afresh after the war would account for a large demand for the books, and should prevent their expecting the librarian always to be able to show as good a profit on the year's sales even if the policy be able to show as good a profil on the year's sales even if the policy were continued. The gross receipts had been £24 3s. 4d: (£14 13s. 8d. by direct sales and £9 9s. 8d. through the associations), and the ad-vertising and other expenses £7 10s. 2d. The face value of the pub-lications left in stock was £153 10s. 6d. On the motion of Canon Coleridge, who had audited the accounts, seconded by Canon Baker the accounts were adopted, with thanks to the librarian for his excellent services.

The following honorary members were re-elected for a term of three years, on the motion of Mr. J. S. Pritchett, seconded by Mr. Beams, Miss Nellie Gillingham, Rev. E. W. Carpenter, Mr. James George, and Mr. H. W. Wilde.

The Hon. Secretary said he had to announce with pleasure that the Irish Association had again become affiliated to the Council, the representatives being Canon Scott and Mr. Gabriel Lindoff.

A CENTRAL LIBRARY TO BE ESTABLISHED.

The President said the Standing Committee had met that morning, and there were one or two things that they wished to propose to the Council. The first was the question of a library for the Council. The idea of that started largely with himself owing to the fact that their late honoured president, Sir Arthur Heywood, left all his ringing books and manuscripts where he thought they would be appreciated, namely, to ringers, and he left them to one of the Guilds with which he was connected, the Cambridge University Guild, a bequest which was particularly touching to him (the President) as Sir Arthur entered the same College at Cambridge at the same time as he did. The bequest, however was perfectly free, so that the Cambridge University Guild could do exactly what they liked with any or all of the ringing books and manuscripts. As the Guild already possessed copies of several, it seemed to them to be a good thing if the others could be used more widely than for their own necessarily small.Guild at Cambridge, and the idea occurred that with the books of Sir Arthur Heywood they might begin a library for the Central Council (ap-planse). They could start with a considerable number of his books and manuscripts and there were others who were prepared to add and manuscripts and there were grain who were prepared to follow sir Arthur's example and leave their ringing books to the library ibrarian Mr. Jenkyn, as to possible details, and he had kindly said that he would do anything that, seemed to be required to carry out the scheme (applause). The Standing Committee, therefore made to the Council the definite suggestion that a library of the Central Council be started and be kept up, that it he begun with the books he had mentioned of Sir Arthur Heywood and any others that might be given to it, that it he, at any rate for the time being in the pos-session and keeping of the honorary librarian. The details of course would have to be left to somebody to work out, but the idea was that as many of the books were of very great value, especially to those who followed the more scientific side of ringing-would-be composers, for instance-it should be possible for any ringer of an association affiliated with the Council to borrow these books. He thought in time aminated with the contrait to borrow these books. He thought in time the library would be very valuable indeed, and he hoped ringers would make good use of it. But if it did not turn out to be of such use as they anticipated it would be of some use however little, and it could not do any harm (hear, hear). The President then proposed a formal resolution, embodying the recommendation of the Standing Committee.

The Rev. Maiiland Kelly seconded.

Mr. T. H. Beams said the suggestion was an admirable one. cently he happened to get hold of a copy of one or two books be-longing to Mr. Ellacombe and judge of his surprise when he came across in them two letters of Mr. Hubbard's pasted in the books. They were most interesting letters and it struck him they ought to be preserved and it would be a good thing if there was a place where such things as this could be deposited for the benefit of the whole of the members of the Exercise.

The Rev. C. E. Matthews asked if it was proposed to add the various county histories of bells,

The President: The auswer to that is ' Certainly.' There are some in Sir Arthur Heywood's collection, and some I am prepared to give myself at once, and others will come. I think it would add much to the value of the library if all books on ringing and church bells were included.

Mr. G. P. Burton asked whether the fundamental idea was to have a reference library or a circulating library. If they were to have these manuscripts, it would not be the safest thing to circulate valu-able works as had been suggested.

The President thought the most valuable manuscripts and books would soldom be wanted to be sent out, but if they were required by any scientific student be thought incautions could be taken to safeguard them.

Mr. Burton said the reason he asked was that he loaned his copy of 'The Clavis' a year ago to one of his oldest ringing friends on the strength of his promise to return it in a few days, but he had not seen it yet (laughter).

Mr. Pritchelt said it would be interesting to know how many books there were in Sir Arthur Heywood's collection. With regard to the loan of valuable books, there was a scheme among public libraries for sending valuable books from one library to another, and it could easily be arranged that any book that could not be replaced could be sent to a public library to be read there by the ringer who wanted it (hear, hear).

The resolution was carried, and the Rov. Cyril Jenkyn said that if this scheme was to become a working reality he hoped that ringers who wished to consult these valuable books and manuscripts would make his house the library and consult them there so that they would not have to go out at all (applause).

The President said he was sorry lie was not then in a position to say how many books there were in Sir Arthur's collection. Some were at Trinity College, Cambridge, and some in the possession of Mr. Law James

It was resolved that the details of the scheme be left in the hands of the President, the Secretary and the Librarian.

The President said the Standing Committee suggested to the Counil that a circular letter should be sent to some of the clergy in order to encourage them, and to get them to encourage others, to be bell ringers and efficient bell ringers. The President read the proposed draft of the circular, which laid emphasis upon the importance of the hells being well rung even if only in rounds or call changes, and pointing out that ringing afforded an excellent way of getting hold of and of improving lads and young men, both in the country and town.

NEARLY 1,000 FALLEN RINGERS.

At this point the proceedings were interrupted for the reading of the roll of honour it being exactly the hour of noon, and as the members rose in their places came the sound of the distant tolling of a church bell. The President read the list while the members remained standing, and so lengthy was it that it occupied almost half an hour in the reading. It contained over 950 names of those who had made the supreme sacrifice, many of them intimately known to those present, and the long list was proof of the great losses which we Exercise sustained by the war.

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

SUCCESSFUL GATHERING AT REVIVED DINNER.

The holding of the annual dinner of the Royal Cumberland Youths Society was resuscitated after a lapse of some twenty-five years, and a happy gathering of ringers with their wives and daughters, clergy, and Mr. Robert Warn er, of the Spitalfields Bell Foundry, met at the Old Bell Restaurant, _ol_orn,-Mr. J. D. Matthews (master) presided, and after dinner submitted the loyal toast.

It fell to Mr. Warner's lot (appropriately-for church and bell are surely allied!) to ' toast ' the Church, and in a few well-chosen words Mr. Warner showed what we owed to the Church. His speech aptly illustrated by the quotations, ' Prosperity to the Church ' and ' Peace and Good Neighbourhood '-mottoes taken from old bells-affirmed that a Church which could send out the type of Padre as its repre-sentiative which yould she had not at the funct stord in a poor sentative, which rank and file had met at the front, stood in no need of appreciatory speeches.-The Rev. A. Taylor, of St. Bride's Church, Fleet Street, in response, stated that never more than at the present time was the need of the Church felt. He referred to the extremely time was the need of the Church felt. He referred to the extremely pleasant people whose acquaintance he was continually making in the belfries and expressed the hope that ringers would consider them-selves Church workers.—The Rev. Preb. F. W. Isaacs, of Cripplegate, also responded, and informed his hearers that, being new he had not had sufficient time to discover everything in his parish, but he had realised that the parish had once possessed a bell foundry in its pre-cincts, when Messrs. J. Warner's Foundry was in Jewin Crescent (since removed to Spitalfields). Mr. Isaacs spoke of the high opinion in which he held ringers generally and mentioned Several pleasant in which he held ringers generally, and mentioned several pleasant experiences he had had in their company.

In Mr. J. McMaster, churchwarden of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, who gave the toast of the Society, the company felt they were listening to an authority on bell ringers' lore. In racy language, he poured forth a wealth of detail of past ringers of London much of which was very amusing and all most interesting. He gave proof of Queen Elizabeth's delight in having bells rung on each and every occasion, quoting the actual sums paid to the ringers on various festivals. Mr. McMaster dispelled any lingering doubts ringers might still entertain with regard to the 'Nell Gwynne' suppers, and showed that the 1s. suppers mentioned in the annals of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields referred suppers mentioned in the annals of St. Martin S-in-the-fields referred to the sumptuous suppers of mutton that ringers were supposed to obtain for that modest sum, after their arduous labours were over, at the 'Nell Gwynne' Inn. Mr. McMaster rather reproved the so-ciety for altering the spelling of the word 'scholar.' As the Society was the child of the old 'London Schollers,' Mr. McMaster thought that the parents' honourable and distinctive name might have been entried. retained.

The honour of replying to the toast was given to Mr. Ben Foskelt. as the oldest member of the Society present, but Mr. Foskett said that he was in his position on rather false protences, an older member than he being present in Mr. Chapman. In a speech of delightful simplicity, Mr. Foskett recounted his initiation into the mysteries of bell ringing. He related an adventurous prowl over somewhat bogeylike graves one dark night and the trepidation with which he opened the church door to be shot into the midst of ogres who turned out kindly sympathetic ringers. The toast of the ' Fallen Ringers ' was proposed by the Master, and everyone sympathised with him when he remarked that though a short one, he had to accomplish the most difficult toost of the evening. Mr. Frank Smith warmly greated the 'Kindred Societies,' and spoke of the benefit and pleasure derive., not only individually, but also by the societies themselves, through the interchange of the members of the various Societies. the various Societies.

To this toast Mr. Young of the London County Association, re-plied, referring to the many pleasant visits he had paid to the varius Societies up and down the country, where invariably a kindly and sympathetic welcome was extended to him. — Mr. F. E. Dawe also replied, and mentioned the halo which surrounded the names of Cox and Haley, and recounted that a would-be or new ringer's position was always judged by his acquaintance with these names. These to whom they held no meaning were beyond the pale of ringers' estimation. Mr. Drawe stated that Haley had originally belonged to une Cumberlands and had changed to the College Youths, whilst Cox, first a member of the College Youths, had afterwards gone to the Cumberland Society. Mr. Dawe suggested that the reason for the change lay in the fact that no one society could contain two such stars at the same time.

Mr. W. Ayre very cordially welcomed the visitors, whilst the Rov. Palmer, in reply, entertained the company with illuminating stories from the trenches,

The toasts were interspersed by several musical items which were thoroughly appreciated, whilst the courses of Grandsire Caters and of Royal on the handbells were followed with great interest.

The Society of Royal Cumberland Youths can be congretulated on the success of this initial dinner after the 'Interregnum,' and all present hope that the dinner is an augury of future happy meetings.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT COLCHESTER.

The 41st annual meeting of the Essex Association was held on Whit-Monday at Colchester, and was attended by representative bands of ringers from all parts of the county. This was the first annual meeting the Association had held at Colchester, and it proved one of the most enthusiastic in the history of the Association, ample proof being afforded that now the war is over and normal ringing conditions are being reached there is a great revival goming in the county. During the morning the eight bells at St. Poter's Church were kept in constant use by several bands, and other towers in the town and surrounding villages were also visited. Service was held at St. Peter's Church in the afternoon, the ringers' form of service being used. Canon Triffit Ward (the Vicar) officiated, the Rev. H. T. W. Eyre, hon. secretary of the Essex Association, read the lesson, and a suitable address was given by the Rev. J. Evans. M.A., Rector of St. Giles', Colchester, in the course of which he dwelt upon the art of ringing as being a service to the glory of God, and urged ringers ever to romember the object for which church bells are rung.

RECOVERING FROM WAR'S EFFECTS,

The annual business meeting followed at the Old Schoolroom, Crispin Court, which was crowded. Mr. C. H. Howard, Master of the Association presented his report for the year 1919, as follows:--

My first duty is to refer to the marked progress which has been shown by our association in the first completed year of peace. anticipations fast year of a revival of interest in our proceedings have been more than fulfilled. The greater interest and attendance at our meetings has been very gratifying. Our membership shows an uncrease of 93, of whom no less than 14 are honorary members, including three ladies. In matters of finance our expenditure for the year exceeds our income by £5 15s. 4d., due very largely to the increased cost of printing and postages. We shall have to seriously consider means of adjusting our moome to meet current expenditure. The subscription of 1s. a momber can hardly be expected to meet our needs at present-day prices. Our reserve fund stands at £101 12s. .9d., but we ought to aim at meeting our general expenses each year and hold the reserve for propaganda and extraordinary expenditure. After a practical cessation of peol ringing during the war, I am pleased to record that 27 peals have been rung in methods varying from Minor to Stedman Cinques which gives proof of the return of pre-war enthusiasm. In belfry improvements I am glad to state the work which was held up during the war is now being put in hand. Already a new ring of six has been erected at Wormingford and a new treble added at Fryerning, and other improvements are in contemplation. Most of our members have now come back from the war, and they have showed such a spirit or enthusiasm that the revival in the work of the association is largely due to them. It is a great pleasure to be able to welcome their return, and we are grate-In to know that the interest they are showing is having this effect. During their absence it was the great endeavour of those older membors who remained at home to maintain the association intact pending the time when the Founger members should come home, and in this the ladies who joined the association rendered invaluable assistance. Now we are glad to have the fighting members with us again, and their enthusiasm is most acceptable to those who kept the association going in their absence. I cannot conclude my report without reference to the untiring energy displayed by the honorary secretary, auditors and district officers in carrying out their respective duties. The large increase in members is a result of their efforts to restore the association to its pre-war position.

The report and balance sheet were unanimously adopted, and the Master quilted the chair during the election of Master which followed Mr. G. A. Black, Woodford, being appointed chairman pro fem.

THE MASTER'S RE-ELECTION.

For the office of Master in the ensuing year there was only one nomination, the re-election of Mr. C. H. Howard, Braintree, being proposed and seconded in several parts of the room, and, upon being put to the meeting, the motion was carried with acclamation, there being a marked testimony to the great popularity of the Master among the Essex ringers. Mr. Black announced Mr. Howard to be unanimously re-elected, and vacated the chair in his favour. The Master thanked the meeting for the renewal of confidence in

The Master thunked the meeting for the renewal of confidence in him, and he took it as approval of the manner in which he had discharged the duties during the past eleven years. The Master added that he did not, look upon that office as belonging to one man, and said it should be open to those members who aspired to it. He had now been Master of the Association for eleven years—that was the twelfth occasion upon which he had been elected to the office, and the time had now come for the association to consider the appointment of a successor. If it was decided next year to have a change in the Mastership, and it was thought a younger man with new ideas would

Mr. Howard said he had been a member of the Essex resolution since 1885, and during his term of Mastership he had received unlimited support from them. He thanked them for the enthusiastic way he had been re-elected, and assured the members that he very much appreciated the confidence shown in him (applause).

The Rev. H. T. W. Eyre was unaninously re-elected hon, secretary and treasurer, and in accepting the office, said if the Master retired next year he should ratire with him, as they had an understanding to continue in office together. .ar. Eyre said he had held office for 30 years, and he was appreciative of the confidence shown in him.

INCREASING ENTHUSIASM.

The Peal Committee was re-clected, as were also the representatives to the Contral Council and the auditors. Mr. F. Jacob (Felsted) was elected an hon, member and 20 new ringing members were elected, including 12 from Galleywood. The Master said it was very pleasing to see the revival of ringing interest at Galleywood, in the Chelmsford district, as shown by the nomination of new members. They had admitted more new members at that meeting than at any previous annual meeting he could remember. In the report, the membership was given at 878, but others had been elected since the report was printed, and with those now proposed the membership must be getting near to a thousand. It had always been his ambition to have a thousand members in the Essex Association, and he hoped to see that ambition fulfilled next year (applause). There was a wave of entihusiasm for ringing evident all over Essex, which was very gratifying, and spoke very highly for the future prospects of tare association. The association was rabidly growing and increasing its usefulness; it had already more than recovered the ground lost during the war (applause).

THE WAR MEMORIAL,

Designs were submitted and approved for the white marble memorial tablet, with black marble border, which is to be placed in Chelmsford Cathedral, through the kind permission of Canon Lake and the Cauedral anthorities, to the 45 members of the association who fell in the war. At the top of the tablet is to be a bell, followed by the unscription: 'To the glory of God and in memory of the members of the Essox Association of Change Ringers who fell in the Breat war. 1914-1918.' After the names, which are to be in alphabetical order, without regard to military rank, will be carved the words: 'Erected by the Essex Association, 1920.'

In view of the greater expenses now incurred, it was decided to increase the present subscription of 1s, a year to 1s. 6d. commencing in 1921, and to ask non-resident members to pay 6d. each if they require a copy of the annual report. The subscriptions of hon, members is to remain as before. It was decided to hold the next annual meeing at Walthamstow on Whit-Monday, 1921.

A cordial vote of thanks was passed to the Master for presiding. In closing the meeting, the Master suid he should ever remember the pleasant gathering they had held at Colchester, and the enthusiasm which had prevailed (applause).

Tea was held at the Parish Room, the Master presiding. The Rev. H T. W. Eyre proposed thanks to Ganon Ward and his wife; Mr. H. T. Pye, and the wife of the churchwarden for the splendid tea they had provided for the ringers on their first visit to Colchester. Mr. Eyre mentioned that before the siege of Colchester, 1643, there were 14 bells in the eleven churches of the borough, and of those seven were by Miles Gray, who was at that period one of the most successful bell founders in the country. — The Master seconded the vote, and visited had ringers been better looked after than at Colchester.— Canon Ward and the Rev. J. Evans pesponded.

In the evening the bells of St. Peter's were rung again in all the Standard methods.

LADIES' GUILD.

A meeting of the Midland District for general practice was held at Envlington on Saturday last, members being present from Solihull, Stirchley and Smethwick. Some good practice was obtained in Doubles and Triples and also a course of Major was rung. The thanks of the members are extended to the local company for their thition; also to Mr. and Mrs. Preston for so kindly entertaining them to tea afterwards.

THREE GENERATIONS.

In a date touch of Grandsire Triples, rung in 1 hr. 8mins. at Stoney Stanton, Leicestorshire, on May 22ud, three generations of Briggs took part: W. Wright 1, H. Broughton 2, G. Wood 3, H. Briggs (conductor) 4, C. Brown 5, H. Webb 5, C. Briggs 7, W. Briggs 8. It was a birthday compliment to W. Briggs, and his longest length. The conductor has been a member of the beffry for over 50 years.

SOLDIERS' BELLS.

RED-LETTER DAY FOR ALDERSHOT.

On Saturday, following the dedication of the new 'soldiers' bells' at Aldershot, there was a happy gathering of ringers at the Old Parish Church from all parts of the diocese to ring and pass an opinion on the completion of the octave. Visitors came from Sandhurst Camberley Bugshot, Chertsey Pirbright, Worplesdon, Guiklford Godalming, Crauleigh, Chidding'old, Basingstoke, Farnham Alton Winchester, Binsted, Outlands Fark, Hersham Haslemere, Dorking, Puttenham, Hawley, Walton, and the Whitechapel Bell Foundry. Touches of Grandsire Triples Stedman Triples and Bob Major were Touches of Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples and Bob Major were rung during the afternoon, and the ringers attended a short service, and listened to an excellent address by the Vicar (the Rev. E. Garth Ireland), touching on the brotherbood and sisterflood of ringers as church workers, and on the use of bells. Afterwards in the Parish Hall, 65 sau down to a very nice tea prepared by the local lady ringers, who also waited on the gathering. Following tea, the Vicar extended a warm welcome to all, and explained that the two new bells were entirely due to the efforts of Mr. Mann, who conceived the idea and took upon himself the task of collecting funds for the purpose. The cost of the bells, together with the inscriptions, amounted to g148 15s. 4d. and Mr. Mann had handed him (the Vicar) the contractors' receipt for that amount.

' SOLLAERS' BELLS 1920.

' These two trebles were erected by Soldiers in memory of their contrades who fell in the Great War.'

Mr. Mann, in reply, said that listening to the opening touch more than report him for the trouble he had taken in gotting the bells. Expert ringers had informed him that the splice was an excellent one, and reflected great cyclit on Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and that was all that need be said.

The company were then treated to a good touch on handbells by Mr. and Mrs. Hazleden, and Mr. Melville, of Guildford and Mr. William Shepherd, of Hersham.

Afterwards, the ringers returned to the tower, where touches of Double Norwich. Oxford and Kent Treble. Bob and Stedman, were rung. At one period during the afternoon the whole eight bells were being rung by lady members, many of whom are to be thanked for the way in which they have kept the bells going, and kept bands together while the men folk were away on active service. It will be a very long day before those who were present will forget the Guild's opening day of the 'soldier's bells' at Aldershot.

DEATH OF A YOUNG RINGER.

After only a few days' illness the death occurred on May 5th of Albert Martin, at the early age of 14 yours. The deceased was one of the young band formed at St. John's, Deritend, Birningham, where two of his brothers were also ringers. He began ringing with a number of lads last August. He was of a very happy disposition, and showed promise of making an excellent ringer. His death came as a great shock to his fellow members, whose sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. The funeral took place on May 8th, and Mr. Fred Walker, representing St. John's Sunday band, acted as one of the bearers. In the etening an attempt for a muffled peal came to grief but a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung, together with the 'whole pull and stand '14 times by: W. Robinson 1, J. Neal 2, T. Miller 3, M. J. Morris 4, A. T. Seriveus 5, O. G. Norman (conductor) 6, A. E. Norman 7, G. Yendell 8.

MEMORIAL BELLS.

On Whit-Sunday afternoon, a ring of six new bells was dedicated at Troutbeck Church, near Windermere, by Canon Irving the Rural Dean. The bells are stationary, and played from a manual—the reble being 1 ewt, 1 gr. 26 lb., and the tenor 5 ewt. 0 gr. 26lb. The church was full of parishioners and Whitsuntide visitors, and the service was very delightful. The Rev. W. G. Jones, who is in charge of the parish, in the regrettable absence of the Rev. W. S. Unwin (an old Oxford Blue), on account of ill-health, assisted. Mr. Stabler the parish clerk, chimed the bells immediately after the dedicatory prayers.

Cauon Irving, in the course of an interesting and impressive address, spoke of the earliest bells as being quadrilateral and not round. He commended the parish for having retained their old bell which bears the data [631 and the insertition: 'Jeaus be our speed.' He recalled some of the historic events concerning which it had tolled its ad for rung its cheerful note, and he spoke of the practical uses of bells, and of the messages which they carried into every house in the parish every week

The bells are the gift of Mr. Arthur Brook Dunlop of The Howe. Troutbeck, and his daughter, in memory of William Eric B. Dunlop and Launceloj Lindsay B. Dunlop, who gave their lives in the war.

The Rector (the Rev. G. A. Jackson) conducted a bright service in the church. In a short address he took for his text the words from St. Paul: 'Yea, woo is unto me if I preach not the Gospel.' These words he said, are inscribed in Latin on the great bell of St. Paul's Cathedral; they were selected by the late Canon Liddon; and it was the duty of bell ringers to preach the Gospel of the bells, which was their calling.

Tea at the Lytton Aims was followed by a business meeting at which two new members were elected, and a vote of condolence was passed with their old friend and steeplekeeper, Mr. John Dennis, upon the loss of his devoted daughter who was laid to rest only a few days previously.

Thanks were returned to the Rector for his stirring address, and for the use of the bells the ringers wishing him health and happiness in his new sphere of work, and regretting his removal from the list of honorary members. Touches of Grandsire Triples, Bob Major, Treble Bob Major, Sted-

COUNCIL'S PUBLICATION DIFFI-CULTIES.

Not the least of the difficulties which confronted the Central Council at their Whitsuntide meeting was a financial one. Last year both the Peals Collection Committee and the Methods Committee reported that they were ready to print further sections of their work, and it was hoped that by the time the Council met at Northampton one or other would at least be in hand, preference, by priority or resolution, having been given to the former. The rise in the cost of production, however, has been such that the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, in whose discretion the matter has been placed, found it necessary to take counsel with the Standing Committee, and, as a result, it was decided that, for the present, printing on the scale proposed was out of the question, as one publication alone would swallow up all the available funds. Conse-quently the printing of both the Treble Bob compositions and the Plain Major Methods, which are ready for the Press, are shelved indefinitely.

With the facts before them, the Council, at their meeting, could find no other practical alternative, although various suggestions were put forward. It is quite certain that it will be a considerable time before, if ever, there is any considerable reduction in the cost of printing - the present tendency is all in the opposite direction-so that the Council must look forward to long delay in publishing any further works unless, in our opinion, they adopt one or both of two courses of action. The first line open to them is to increase their available funds by raising their All the while the Council merely draw affiliation fees. upon their funds for the expenses of their meetings, the half-crown affiliation fee is sufficient for their needs, and it is out of the accumulation of these moneys that from time to time the various publications of the Council have been printed. Extra funds could be obtained if the Council substantially increased the fees, but even then it might be several years before the nest-egg was considered sufficient to warrant launching out. There is, moreover, another side to the question. The Council, while not seeking to make profits on its publications, expects to cover costs by the time an edition is sold out, but when the cost of production is so high, the selling price would have to be such as might very probably considerably limit the sales, and the result would be a bad investment for the Council from a commercial point of view. If, of course, they are prepared to be philanthropic and to subsidise future publications, that would be a different matter; but, judged as an investment, a necessarily highpriced article might not sell to a degree at all commensurate with the outlay of time (given voluntarily by the responsible committee) bestowed upon preparation, or the cost involved.

There is an alternative course, however, which might provide the Council with a way out of the difficulty, and that is to publish the two proposed works in ' parts,' By this means they would spread the cost over a period of time, say, three or four years; they would, while being committed to only a small portion of the total outlay, be able to gauge from the sale of the first part of each work whether the demand would justify continuing with the remainder, and, in addition, would-be purchasers would be called upon to make their expenditure by instalments, and would not thus be so much inclined to refrain from buying on account of the cost. On the score of the scope which the works, published by this means, would provide, there would be nothing to complain of, for, say, twenty-four pages of new methods or new compositions would be ample for use for one year, if the decision was to publish one part annually. We make the Council a present of this suggestion.

June 24th. A ringers' opening is to be arranged at a later date. The small chime at Troutbeck, Westmoreland, the dedication of which was reported last wee, were cast and fixed by Messrs. Taylor and Co.

FIRST PEALS AND RECORD LENGTHS.

The Central Council has set up a committee to compile a record of the first peaks in each mothod on each number of bells, and of the various record lengths which have from time to time been rung in different methods. The committee will value any information which can be given them to make their work authentic, and conductors who have called the longest length in any mellod even though it may have been afterwards exceeded, are asked to send details to the Rev. A. T. Beeston, New Mills, Stockport.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

After 13 years of splendid service, Mr. F. Wilford has resigned the secretaryship of the Central Northants Association. The time of the handbell peal of Kent Royal at Leiston, published on

The Subury District of the Ely and St. Edmundsbury Association has reelected Mr. A. Symonds as hon, secretary, with thanks for his admirable work in the past. At the same meeting four new members were elected.

MEARS &

STAINBANK,

When the business was resumed, the President, on behalf of the Standing Committee, moved that a circular in terms somewhat as those he had read be sent, in whichever way was considered best to the chergy of towers where there were bells sufficient for change ringing. Ho bhought, perhaps, the best way to distribute the circular was that the Council should have them printed and sent out in bundles to

Association secretaries to send to the clergy in their own areas. Canon Helmore seconded, and Mr. Beams suggested that the circular should also go to the Bishopa. Canon Baker ventured the opinion that it would do more good if it went to the Archdeacons, Canon Coleridge: Still more so to the Rural Deans (laughter).

Canon Baker: It might be sent to the Rural Deans with the suggestion that it should be discussed at their Chapters. It would be good deal more interesting than many things we have to talk about (applause),

The Rev. H. Drake suggested that if the circular were to be sent out it should go to others besides those who already had peaks of bells A church with one bell to-day might not always remain like that. What they wanted to do was to get hold of people who thought of having bells and to interest them. He also thought some reference should be made to the care of bells. That might be put in a covering letter which should be sent out by the secretary of the Association forwarding the Council's circular.

The President did not think it would do to mix up an entirely different subject like the care of bells with a matter like the one they were discussing. The letter was long enough as it was.

Members were invited to send suggestions for the improvement of the letter, and the motion was carried nem, con.

The Standing Committee reported that they had considered the question of procedure at the Council's meetings, referred to them at the meeting, and suggested that the wisest and simplest course was leave the regulation of discussion in the hands of the President. The Council last year determined that the question of compulsory powers should be referred to the Association, and they were asked to report to the secretary by the end of April. So far as reports had been received, no association was in favour of compulsory powers.

received, no association was in tavoir of complusory powers. The Hon, Secretary said only seven associations had reported at all: Chester, Gloucester and Bristol, Kent, Yorkshire, Norwich and Ips-wich Oxford, and Sussex, and they were all against. Mr. Wilford (Central Northants) said their association had met on the previous day, and their opinion was the same as the rest of the associations who had reported. Mr. W. E. White (Midland Counties) said his association did not thick it was desirable that the Counties) said his association to the previous day.

think it was desirable that the Council should have powers to enforce its decisions.

The President said other associations to his knowledge had passed association desirous of giving the Council compulsory powers.

Canon Baker asked whether in view of the result of the referen-dum, it was not rather absurd that they should go on calling their resolutions 'decisions.' What he intended by his resolution at Giouces-ter last year was that the associations should be asked to say whether in their opinion, there should be a body which should say what are the rules of ringing. Apparently the associations did not wish that. He was glad the discussion had taken place in the associations that had consented to notice the thing, because it had cleared the air. It was now plain that the Council was a body for discussion and not for legis-lation and a great deal of the criticism of past years had been proved out of place. It seemed to him that, the associations having definitely recorded the fact that they were to have no power, it was absurd that the Council should go on publishing what they said were decisions of the Council, because they bound nobody. The members of the Council were at liberty to go back to their own associations and deliberately break any decision they came to at that meeting. He did not regret the decision taken. The usefulness of the Central Council was that it brought them together once a year, and they saw a great many people they never saw at any other time, and they would miss that far more they never saw as any other pile, and they would miss that far more than anything else, perhaps, in the whole course of the year. ...e was quite willing to go from one end of England to the other for the pleasure of sceing Mr. Coleridge once a year (applause and laughter). and whether the Council could enforce its decisions or not would not remove that pleasure (hear, hear). The Rev. H. Drake said when they were asked as associations to discuss whether they should give the Council compulsory powers they were not asked anything about legislation at all. A legislative body was different from an administrative body. This was a legislative hody, and would continue to be in spite of any resolution on compulsory powers

Canon Baker: Can you have legislation without compulsion? You can in Ireland, perhaps, but not here (laughter). The Rev. H. Drake: That is a different matter. That was not the question raised by your resolution.

of the Council until they are rescinded? That is what was in my mind.

The Rev. H. Drake: That is quite a different thing.

A Member: Our resolutions are docisions, and nine times out of ten they are respected.

The Peal Collection Committee's report, which had been published in the 'Ringing World ' was next dealt with. This report stated that the cost of printing the collection of Treble Bob peals would at pre-sent rates, be between £100 and £125. The President said the mesent price of printing and paper made it prohibitive to print the Peal Conlection, and the Standing Committee suggested that the Council should refer the matter back to he Peal Collection Committee, suggesting (we alternatives either that the printing should be deferred until it became oheaper, or that a number of copies should be typewritten to be kept in the library. By the latter course the peaks would be open to any who wished to see them.

Various members pointed out the disadvantages of compositions (ypewritten by a person who -new noming of ringing, and the Rev. A. T. Beeston asked whether it would not be better to have a fair copy of the peals written and put into the hands of the librarian, and to rescind the resolution to print the Treble Bob compositions. There was already a book of Treble Bob compositions sufficient for anybody who wished to call peaks and there was other literature of the Council which really had a prior call on printing to this Treble Bob Collection. After the luncheon interval, the President stated that Miss Parker.

a skilled typist as well as a great bell ringer, was willing to give the committee the benefit of her advice and help, and it was, therefore, resolved to refer the matter back to the committee as suggested.

BELL BIBLIOGRAPHY.

The Rev. C. E. Matthews, as ' convener,' reported for the Literature and Press Committee. He was glad to be able to say that he had and a successful interview with their friend, Mr. Duniel, and he had sot from him, he thought everything they wanted (applause). Mr. Daniell had given him various papers and documents, and they were extremely interesting reading. Mr. Daniell had done a good deal towards the classification of the work, and as far as he (the speaker) had been able to gather, his scheme had been to divide ringing litera-ture under two heads, the earliest known records of change ringing and the mile of the old societies (as contained) in documents in libraries such as the British Museum and the Bodleian), the names of celebrated ringers and the names of methods; secondly, to make a complete list of all the books published, both ancient and modern. The thought this section would give them a catalogue of something like 300 or 310 books. Mr. H. B. Walters, of the British Museum had very kindly offered to help in the tabulation of the bell literature. thought the Council should decide whether the committee was to continue in its present state, and what its future work should be; whether it should be authorised to publish and add to Mr. Daniell's notes. Apart, from the consideration of cost, he was humbly of opinion that it was doubtful if a pamphlet on the subject would be read by the ordinary change ringer. It would probably be very interesting to members of that Council and to antiquarians. The Council owed a great debt of gratitude to Mr. Daniell for his thorough and devoted work, without which no committee could possibly commence such a record. The reason why they had not had all this information before was that Mr. Daniell had been extremely ill. He had ha a very serious operation, and at one time was unable to answer any letters at ell. was the reason of the long delay, but they ought publicly to acknow-ledged his services of very careful research, and ho (Mr. Matthews) wished to move 'that the sincere thanks of the Central Council be acwished to move that the sincere trains of the central resource at a corded to R. A. Daniell, Esq., for his useful and valuable researches into the history of bell literature generally. -Mr. Young seconded. 'Mr. J. S. Pritchett, in supporting, said he had had the pleasure of Mr.

Daniell's personal acquaintance for many years and could bear testimony to the great amount of time and energy he had expended on vis literary labours in connection with bells and bell ringing. It was a matter of deepest regret that his health broke down in the way it did, and that he was not permitted to complete his labours. It would cheer him very much to know they had been thinking of him, and that they thoroughly understood how much he had done and the reasons which had kept him away from them now for a number of year.

Mr. King rejoiced that the cause of Mr. Daniell's silence had been removed, and that he was in course of being restored to health. With regard to the catalogue, he hoped it would be one so compiled that u would indicate in some way what the broks contained. The difficulty was with many publications that they did not know where to look up them for any particular information they required. He wanted somp help if he could get il, to form, year by year, a table of contents of the 'Ringing World,' so that they might know where to put their hand on anything. At present it was a hopeless task, but he would be only too glad, as long as strength and age permitted, to help to provide an index year by year, but is a few of them put their shoulders to the wheel it would not be a heavy task.

The vote of thanks to Mr. Daniell having been carried, the President destion raised by your resolution. Canon Baker: Do affiliated associations agree to respect the decisions was afraid from what they had already heard that it was impossible to suggest printing. He did not suppose many copies would be desired. Forhans the work that was already done might be typewritten, and be deposited in the library and added to from time to time by the Literature and Press Committee. That would preserve the extremely valuable work that had been done, and allow for more work in the foture being added to it.

future being added to it. Mr. Faulkner: Does that mean that it will never be published, but just placed in the library ?

The President: Possibly the next Council being either richer or more reckless, may decide to have it published. I think the present is an extremely bad moment to print and publish.

PEALS AND POINTS.

The one breeze that ruffled the surface of an otherwise absolutely tranquil Council meeting, was the outcome of the Rev. H. Law James' request that certain peals that had been excluded from the Peals Analysis on account of their late publication should be added to the records before the report and the tables were finally lodged with the archives of the Council, and the suggestion that the points allocated to the peals should be eliminated. The first portion of the request was a modest one, but it met with blank refusal at the hands of the chairman of the Committee. The compilation of the analysis is a formidable task, but in the interests of the accuracy of the record we do not think Mr. James' request was an unreasonable one. We fancy that any member of the Committee, with all the rest of the material before him, could make the amendments that would have been necessary without any great sacrifice of time or patience. But while the Committee have declined to do what was necessary, a happy solution of the difficulty was found by the President, at whose suggestion the Hon-Librarian-whose duties seem to be multiplying-will make the necessary alterations.

On the other point raised—the elimination of the points from the table—Mr. James found himself under a mis-apprehension as to the decision of the Council, and he did not, therefore, press this matter. His condemnation of the peal points, however, was not altogether without reason. The Committee have carefully and laboriously allocated the points to all the peaks in the analysis but two, and these two, having been rung in new methods, are left without points, and, therefore, are not included in the averages of the Associations to which they were credited. We have always understood that one of the duties of the Committee was to fix point values; indeed, if memory serves us aright, one of the members of the Committee was added especially to assist in this branch of the work. But the Committee, having ignored the point value of these new methods, can scarcely be said to have completed their labours, and the omission to do so certainly detracts from the value of the analysis, so far as the points are concerned. We mentioned a few weeks ago that to award competitive points and then try and remove the competitive element from the analysis by arranging the Associations in alphabetical order, is only a half-and-half way of doing the thing, and if new methods as they are rung are to be altogether ignored, peal points will be reduced to a farce.

SOLIHULL RECTOR'S BIRTHDAY.

The Rev. T. B. Harvey Brookes. Rector of Solihull, who celebrated his 71st birthday on Saturday. June 5th, is justly popular among ringers in the Birmingham district. He is always willing to place his bells at the disposal of a band desirous of attempting a peal, and takes a keen interest in the result of the attempt for nothing gives him creater pleasure than to hear the bells ringing. In henour of his birthday the local band attempted a peal of Grandsire Triples, which was lost after 1 hour and 46 mins. excellent ringing.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The 9th of June was the 70th anniversary of the peal of Grandsire Triples rung at Philadelphia, U.S.A. It was conducted by Henry Haley, and was the first peal rung on the other side of the Atlantic. The first peal of London Surprise Minor ever rung was at the Church of St. Giles', Killamarsh, on June 14th, 1919; it contained 120 bobs. It was composed and conducted by Charles Severn.

The 'Ringers' Opening ' of the new peel of ten, crected by Messis, Taylor and Co., at St. Giles', Pontefract, is fixed for August Bank Holiday. The dedication takes place on the 24th inst.

Holiday. The dedication takes place on the 24th inst. Mr. William Bolton, of Cardiff, has been presented with a framed photograph of the Pector and ringers at Alverstoke Hants, in re-cognition of his services in instructing a new company at the church. The bells were installed in November, 1919 and eight of the new members can now ring Grandsire Triples.

It is suggested that the Bedford District of the Beds Association should be divided, so that more help can be given to young bands. The district secretary is anxious that new towers should not be left in the hurch after they have joined the association, and the matter is to

The surch after they have joined the association, and the matter is to come before the next annual meeting. The 'all conducted 'peal at Gaywood, on May 17th, comprised seven 720's of Oxford Treble Bob Minor, not Plain Bob as reported. The many ringing friends of Mr. Edward P. Duffield the hon. secre-tary of the Bedfordshire Association, will be interested to learn that he is to be married on July 31st. The bride-elect is Miss M. A. Willoughby, and the ceremony will be at 2.30 p.m. at St. Peter's. Sharnbrook.

CHESTERFIELD CENTENARY.

HOW THE OPENING WAS CELEBRATED IN 1820. HOW THE OPENING WAS CELLEBRATED IN 1820. To mark the centenary of the opening of the bells at Chesterfield Parish Church, a peal of Grandsire Caters was rung on May 22nd. Pre-vious to the peal a photograph of the ringers with the Vicar (Canon F. L. Shaw), the Rev. J. F. Amies, and Churchwarden Councillor W. Cross-ley, was taken. At the conclusion of the peal, the ringers were enter-tained to dinner by the Vicar, together with the two churchwardens. Councillor W. H. Edminds (the Mayor). Councillor W. Crossley, and the Rev. J. F. Anies, who joined the clergy shaff quite recently, and is himself a ringer.

After dinner, the Vicar thanked the ringers for their attendance that afternoon, congratulating them on having rung a splendid peal, and spoke of the pleasure it had given him to hear it.—The Mayor and Councillor Crossley also spoke fully endorsing the remarks made by Canon Shaw.—Mr. S. Thomas replied on behalf of the ringers, thanking the Vicar for his great kindness, and for the pre-sence of the churchwardens on such an historic occasion. He also gave very interesting details some dealing with the history of church bells and campanology, and with the bell the Heathcotes and Oldfields, whose bells are still to be found in the northern towers, and which can be identified by the founders' name or initials.--Mr. A. Knights also spoke, and reminded the Vicar and wardens that the present peal had served their purpose, and were not in keeping with the beautiful church. He was looking forward to the day when the tower would contain the first peal of 12 bells in the county used on the latest principle, and then there would be some-thing to enjoy, both from the ringers' and general public standpoint. It may be of interest to know that on the opening of the bells in 1820 no less than six peals were rung upon them in three days, viz. 5,147 Grandsire Caters by the Oklham Society, 5,003 Grandsire Caters by the Sheffield Parish Church company, and 5,120 Treble Bob Royal by a mixed bend. This was on the first day. On the second day the by a mixed band. This was on the hist day. On the second day the Ashton-under-Lyne ringers rang a peal, and on the third day the Not-tingham ringers rang 5,764 Grandsire Caters and the Mottram ringers also rang a peal of Grandsire Caters. The peal of Treble Bob Royal is in Snowdon's ' Treatise on Treble Bob '-composer unknown-but has since been found to be the composition of Mr. J. Tebbs of Leeds. His-tory does not say how the majority of ringers came to Chesterfield but it is known that the men of Notids walked the whole distance a mutter it is known that the men of Notis walked the whole distance, a matter of about 26 miles for their peal, and it is to be conjectured that the rotreating order was not in vogue on the return journey.

TRIBUTE TO A SOLDIER.

At Cotgrave, Notts, on the cor of the interment of Walter Hen stock, aged 22, who fought in the group war the 'whole pull and stand ' was rung with the bells half-muffled, several of his soldier friends taking part, and in the evening a quarter-peal of 1,260 changes Frank Spencer 2, - Loach 3 David Burton 4. THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

Mr. Faulkner said he should like to see the bibliography published. What would cheer Mr. Daniel most would be that the work was appre-ciated by the whole Exercise and that could only be done if it were published in hook form. He did not agree that many copies would not be wanted. He knew of a case where an old ringer borrowed a copy of the 'Church Bells of Essex,' and copied the whole of it into a fool-scap book. It took him two years to do it. He quoted this to show what an interest the ordinary ringer took in antiquarian things. The Kev. C. W. O. Jenkyn asked whether it would be possible to make arrangement with the ' Ringing World ' to publish certain extracts.

The Rev. C. E. Matthews said he thought this could be done, but his duty was merely that of 'convener' of the meeting, and to gen hold of the papers. He did not think he was a permanent member of the committee. The Hon. Secretary: Oh yes. The Rev. C. E. Matthews said he was not aware of that.

He thought the catalogue of books ought to be published as a Council pamphlet; it would be most valuable.

pamphlet; it would be most valuable. Replying to a question, Mr. Matthews said there was a great deal perfectly ready for press, but some consisted merely of notes and articles that had appeared in 'Bell News.' He would have to get hold of these articles to complete the work. The Rev. H. Drake asked if it would not be well for the Literature Committee to go on getting the thing ready for publication in the hope that by the time it was completed printing would be easier. Mr. A. E. Parsons said it was a pity that the publication of the work should be shelved for want of funds. It might be tears before the Council could hold out any hope of being able to provide funds either for printing this matter or the Treble Bob compositions. Was it possible to ask for voluntary subscriptions? He proposed that a subscription list should be opened-for the purpose.

Mr. James George seconded.

Mr. J. S. Pritchett asked if it was wise to make precedents of that kind. There were many other worthy objects one could imagine they would like to appeal for if they made a start. He doubted very much whether it would be a bood thing to do.

Mr. G. P. Burton referred to the other side of the committee's work. of which no report had been received, viz. the propagand side, Articles appeared from time to time in the public press with regard to tinging, which were altogether erroneous and misleading. He understood the committee were to subscribe to a press-cutting agency with a view to answering and correcting misapprehensions that appeared m the public press, but he had not heard that anything had been done. Mr. Burton added that the publication of the catalogue which the committee had in hand would be welcomed by the librarians of the various public libraries, who were only too glad to receive works of reference of this kind.

Mr. Parsons' proposal did not find support, and was withdrawn, and a resolution was carried that the committee continue its labours in compiling a ringing bibliography to be deposited in the Council library, and to publish in the 'Ringing World,' or in a pamphlet any portions which they thought fit, if the expense was approved by the treasurer.

THE COLLECTION OF MAJOR METHODS.

The Rev. II. Law James moved the adoption of the report of the Methods Committee which had already been published in the 'Ring-ing World.' He did not see that the committee could go very much further until the work they had done had been published and placed in the hands of the Exercise. They had collected all the Plain Major Methods, and placed the copy in the secretary's hands, and he presumed it would be handed over to the librarian. They selected a certain number of Plain Methods for publication, and he understood the secretary was instructed to get a price for printing, and if possible, to print. Apparently no price had been got for the printing. He really did think that the publication of these Plain Major Methods was of far more importance than the publication of strings upon strings of courses of Treble Bob. Treble Bob was rung by the Union Scholars in 1718 and the thing was worn out and done with. They did not want to go on for ever doing the same thing over and over again. Let them publish something new to enable the ringers of the country to get out of the old rut. These Plain Major Methods were more musical than Kent or Oxford Treble Bob. The committee had something like 600 Treble Bob Methods to work on but he did not think it was worth while beginning until what they had done had been published. It was far harder work than the Plain Methods, because every method must have a proof scale got out before they knew whether it was of aug value or not. He thought the Plain Methods should be published before the Treble Bob peals because there was already in Snowdon's book as many peals of Trable Bob as any ordinary person would want to call in a lifetime (hear, hear). Mr. James added that he had received from Mr. Lewis the collection of all the Little Methods. He suggested that a collection from these should be printed with the Plain Methods. He proposed that a selection of the Plain Major Methods and Little Bob Methods printed, if and when the funds in the hands of the treasurer permit. The Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn seconded, and said the Collection of Methods section 1, had the largest sale of any of the Council's publications during the year, by about 30.

The Rev. B. H. T. Drake said he was only a plain ringer, and not a figure merchant, and he hoped if any further printing of this sort was done it would be less cryptic than the last collection of methods. Country ringers could not understand from the publication low the bobs and singles had to be made, and he suggested that in future the figures of these should be given in addition to the lead.

The Rev. H. Law James said directions were laid down in the Collection of Minor Methods that in every single case 4th's place had to be made at a bob, and he did not think that statement wanted printing at the bottom of every method.

The Rev. B. H. T. Drake said it would be simpler if the four rows of figures were given showing how the bob, or single was made. Mr. H. W. Wilde said in the case of the Little Bob Methods Mr. Lewis Air, H. W. Wilde said in ghe ease of the Little Bob Methods Mr. Lewis had done this. For himself he would like to see the selection of the Plain Major Methods printed rather than the Treble Bob Peals Col-lection. There was no doubt if the Major Methods were produced it would be the most saleable book they would have. On the motion of the Rev. B. H. T. Drake, seconded by Mr. H. Narborough, a resolution was carried instructing the committee to include the figures of bobs and singles with the methods when printed.

CONTROLLING THE FUNDS.

Mr. P. J. Johnson said the cost of printing was likely to be high for some time to come, and even is the Council went to the expense of printing a selection of the Major Methods it would cripple itself effectually for publishing anything else for years to come. He wondered, therefore, if it would be possible to publish these methods through the Ringing World,' spread over a period of time. If they put them away in the library with the other ringing literature he doubted whether any man living would see them published at ali. Mr. J. S. Pritchett said he did not like entrusting the spending of the Council's money to one individual, even though he be one who deserved so much at their hands as their treasurer. He thought the proper course was that the committee should submit an estimate at the vext meeting of the Council. He thought they ought to keep control of their funds in their own hands,

The Hon. Secretary (who is also hon. treasurer): I should be only too thankful to be relieved.

Mr. Pritchett suggested that the motion should be amended to read ' If and when the Council think it advisable.'

The Rev. H. Law James said he did not mind which course was followed, but if they accepted the amendment they would have to wait another twelve months before anything was done.

Mr. Pritchett: No harm done.

The amend nent, on being put, was carried. Mr. Burton thought they ought not to lose the advantage of getting the methods nublished piecemeal in the "Ringing World." The Rev. H. Law James: I am quite willing to send them piecemeal if the Editor is willing to publish them. That is for him to say not for the Council,

Mr. Johnson did not think the Council or any body of ringers ought to expect the periodical to publish anything for nothing. It was being published for their convenience, but what he did say was that by publishing these methods piecemeal they would be spreading the cost over a period of years, whereas if they laid down a large sum now in printing they would effectually cripple themselves from printing other works. He had no doubt the Editor would undertake to let these methods appear on a contract.

Rev. H. Law James: On the other hand, I think the Editor of the 'Ringing World 'would be prepared to do it for nothing, if only ringers would back the 'Ringing World ' up and make the circulation four or five times what it is (applause).

Mr. Johnson: You will have to get ringers to buy more than our covy for a belfry.

The Rev. H. Law James: There are towers sending up two or three

Mr. Johnson proposed that steps should be taken to have the methods published in the ' Ringing World '-Mr. Burton seconded.

Mr. James George said if they were to have this information through the 'Ringing World' the paper would have to be enlarged, and that could not be done without better support. They could not get the peaks un to date now on account of the number that was rung. Undoubtedly neals ought to be made a greater number of changes; they were too cheap (laughter). He would have pleasure in supporting the resolution provided il ev could get the paper enlarged.

Mr. Pritchett said he had the same objection to this resolution as he had to the previous one namely that they were deputing someone else to spend their money. If they wanted to make a contract to publish the collection, an estimate should be obtained beforehand, and sub-mitted to and approved by the Council. Then they would know where they were.

Mr. Dean pointed out that if these methods were published piecemeal they would not have them in a concise form in the cud.

Mr. Johnson's motion was then put by the President in the following terns: 'That the committee be authorised to publish such methods as they think dit in the "Ringing Workd," payment being made by the Council.'-This being voted on was lost by a large majority.

RELEASE DERIVERSION OF THE RELEASE O

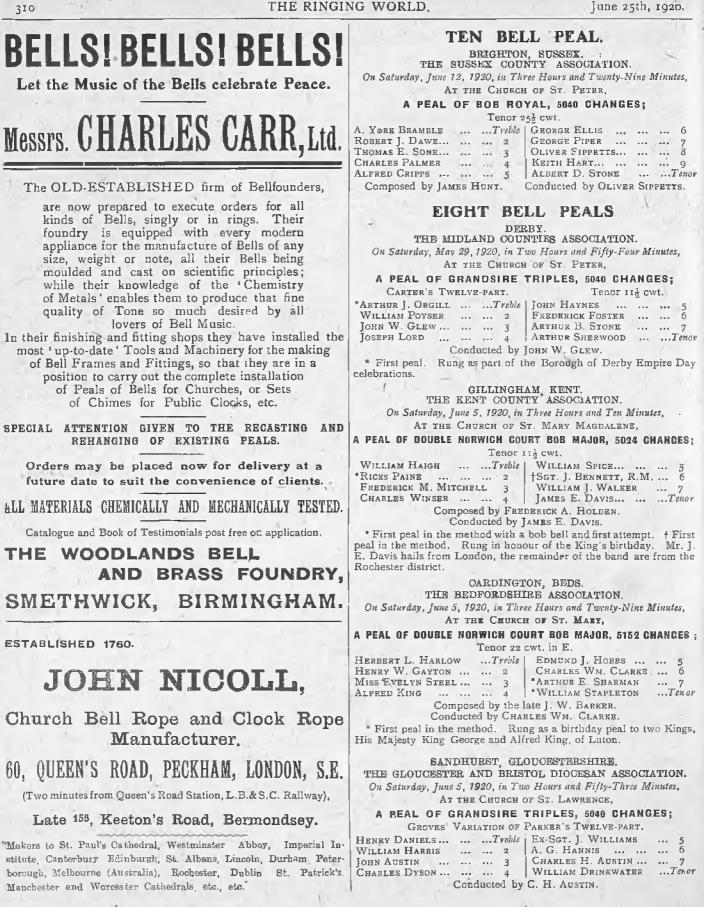

The 22 owt. Tenor of the Ring of 8 Dedicated at Birstall, Leeds, on October 4th, 1919.

BELLS, CARILLONS, CLOCKS.

AN ENDLESS CONTROVERSY.

The 'lead ends' controversy seems perennial, it springs up, is debated and appears to die a natural death, only to pop up again later with new vigour. Settled, apparently, many years ago by the report of the Central Council's Methods Committee, it was revived some six or seven years since by the Hon Secretary of the Council, when he endeavoured to get the Council to upset its previously adopted decision. Through the war period it led to a lengthy newspaper debate; Mr. Davies produced a pamphlet on the subject, and at the Council meeting at Gloucester it resulted in some strong speeches. There for a year it rested so far as the Exercise was concerned, but, as our readers will see, the question cropped up again at the Northampton Council meeting. The Hon. Secretary crowded into ten minutes the outcome of twelve months' thought in bis efforts to prove the error of the Committee's ways, and there came a brief response from the Rev. H. Law James, as the champion of the other side. No vote was asked for or taken, nor could there well be any decision. A discussion, as the President pointed out, was a matter of days, if not weeks and months, and the Council passed on to the next business. Indeed, such a technical matter could not be settled by a debate in the Council, and, as it has now been definitely decided that the Council's resolutions are to be binding on nobody it would be as well if this question were now left alone for everybody to enjoy their own opinion.

If, however, its settlement on lines other than those laid down in the Committee's report is really essential, we think Mr. Davies should take some action to bring the matter to a head How this can best be done there is no one better qualified than the Hon. Secretary of the Council to decide. If the Committee decline to reconsider their findings, it would be equivalent to a vote of want of confidence to set up an ther tribunal to investigate the matter afresh ; and yet, without the considered conclusions of a body of experts to guide them, the Council could not be expected to throw over their own 'd-cisions' as set out in a report which they have accepted and published. It is a difficult position for Mr. Davies, whose sincerity of purpose in this discussion is in itself almost enough to convince 'the man in the street'; but the recrudescence of the topic is beginning to get wearisome, and it should be carried to a conclusion or dropped. The Exercise does not want to see public debate of this question carried on without fiinality. It is, in fact, rather indifferent to the whole subject, and the general opinion certainly is that it is useless to continue the argument unless something is done to bring the question to a head, and get the Council to revise or confirm its 'decision.' To bring about an alteration, Mr. Davies will need the weight of the 'experts,' but at pre-ent they do not appear to be on his side.

DEVON'S NEW PEAL OF TEN.

DEDICATION OF CULLOMPTON BELLS

An interesting and important restoration has taken place in Devon-where Cullompton bells have been rebuing, three of the peal recast, and two new trebles added to make a ring of ten. The work has been carried out at a cost of over £1,100 by Messus. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, and the reopening and dedication took place on Saturday week. The Vicar (the Rev. R. N. F. Phillips) conducted the service and the lesson was read by the Rev. E. J. Barton chairman of the N.E. branch of the Devon Guild. The Archdeacon of Exeter performed the dedication, and preached from the text, 'Woe is me, if I preach not the Gospel.' The local ringers rang a few rounds on the bells immediately after the dedication. The ringers from St. Sidwell's, Exeter, under the leadership of Mr. Edwin Shepherd, had been invited to onen the bells and rang touches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters. All the ringers in the neighbourhood were also invited and ringing was indulged in until late in the evening by bands, or individual members from St. Mary's and St. James' (Taunton), Tiverton, Halber-ton, Uffeulme, Holcombe Rogus, Clyst Hydon, Kentisbeare, Thorverton, Bardninch, Plymtree, Ottery St. Mary, Huntsham and Bampton, Mr. Denison Taylor represented the Loughborough foundry, and Mr. J. II. Shepherd, of Swindon, was also present. All the ringers were very kindly entertained at a public tea in the Vicarage Grounds. The restoration hus included the rehanging of the bells in a new iron frame carried on steel girders, and the recasting of the old treble, second and sixth. The new treble inscribed 'Thanks be to Gol for Victory and Peace, 1918.' is the gift of the Vicar, and the second is a ' memorial ' bell. If has been given by Mr. A. Burrow and is un-scribed 'To the gloxy of God and in memory of the men of Cultonpscribed 'To the glory of God and in memory of the men of Cullomp-ten who died for their country in the Great War, 1914-1918.'

The bells are hung on ball bearings, but it is necessary that there should be no confusion, especially, in Devenshire, between this prin-ciple and that adopted by Messis, Aggett, of Chagford, whose system is really that of roller bearings. The peak was much admired, and the 'go' was perfect, it being possible to ring the tenor with one hand quite easily. Cullompton is much to be congratulated on now possessing a fine peal of ten, the fifth in the county. The local ringers are taking up change ringing, and have applied to the Devon Guild for an instructor through the local branch secretary,

It is interesting to note that the original peal was cast in 1746 by Thomas Bilbie of Chewstoke, and the tenor (19 cwt. 2 qrs. 4 lbs.) bears an unusual inscription: 'Me resonare Jubent—pietus mors— Atque Volupfas. Richard Bevis, Esq., Richard Harvard, Richard Wills Thomas Hone, Franc. Webb, G. H. Wards, Bilbie the Founder, Bush the Hanger, Heathfield the man that rings the tenor, 1746.'

Cullompton was for about 100 years (1715-1818) the home of a bell foundry carried on by the Bilbies, who also had the foundry at Chewstoke and they are believed to have cast 352 bells for Devonshire. The business was taken over by William Pannell, a tinman, who removed to Exeter. His business came to an end in 1855. He is buried in Cullompton Churchyard.

LABOUR TROUBLE.

A demand by workers in the printing trade for an increase of wages as produced a delicate situation. The Typographical Association A domand by workers in the printing trade for an increase of wages has produced a delicate situation. The Typographical Association (which includes compositors and machine minders) have asked for an increase of 20s. per week and have been offered 10s. The offer has been refused, and notices have been banded in, which will expire on Saburday, unless a settlement can be effected in the meantime. The threatened withdrawal of labour applies only to the provinces, but as it affects the office at which 'The Ringing World ' is printed, we feel compelled to make this brief statement. It is hoped that a strike may be avoided, but the position is critical.

DEVON RESTORATIONS.

The fine peal of six bells at St. Gregory's, Sealon, have now been completed by Messrs. Agget and Sons, of Chagford, two new bells having been added, and one of the old bells (the 4th) recast. The oldest bell in the tower dates from 1430. The bells have been hung in massive iron frames on steel girders and modern principles have been introduced into the hanging, including Messrs, Aggett's patent adjustable bearings. The bells were dedicated on Thursday, June adjustance bearings. The bells were dedicated on "Enursday, June 3rd, by the Archdeazon of Exeter, in the presence of a large congre-gation, and opened by the Colyton band of ringers, under the Rev. Molineaux, captain. The bells were rung after the service; also by numerons sets of ringers, who all expressed great satisfaction at the tone and especially at the easy 'go' of the bells. Messrs, Aggett hope to commence this year the fine peal of six at Botus Fleming (Cornwall), the peal of St. Mary's Abbey, Buckfast, and the peals of six at Poughill and Rockbeare.

WEST WALES ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the West Wales Association was held on Saturday, June 5th, at St. Gatherine's Church Gorseinon, there being a good attendance of members from the surrounding towers. The bells had atcendance of members from the surrounding towers. The bells had been set going to Grandsire Triples, owing to a very serious case of illness close to the church the bells had to be stopped. Service was held, conducted by the Rev. W. J. Thomas (Vierr), who gave a very practical address and Mrs. Williams presided at the organ. The sorvice concluded with the hymn, 'Fight the good Fight.' The Vicar invited the mombers to tea at St. Catherino's flall, and a vote of thanks was accorded him for arranging and officiating at the service. and for so generously entertaining the members to tea. The ladies who so kindly waited at tea were also warmly thanked.

Who so kindly wated at tea were also warmly thanked. The business meeting followed, at which the Ringing Master (Mr. J. A. Hoare) expressed regret at the absence of the hon, secretury (Mr. C. Morse), who was unable to attend owing to the death of his daughter, who passed away at the early are of 18 years. The decret sympathy of the meeting was extended to the bereaved family. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Raglan on Sept. 4th, when it was hoped that members will make a special effort to attend.

OXFORD GUILD.

NORTH BUCKS BRANCH PROGRESSING.

The annual meeting of the North Bucks branch was held at Shen-The annual meeting of the North Buck's branch was held at Shen-ley on Saturday, June 5th, when about 120 members attended, re-presenting Bletchley, Beachampton, Calverton Chicheley, Emberton, Fenny Stratford, creat Horwood, Linslade, Maids Moreton, Milton, Keynes, Newport Pagnell, North Crawley Olney, Stony Stratford, Simpson, Twyford, and the local ringers of both Shenley and Lough-ton. After an hour's ringing, a service fully choral, was held, and was much appreciated by all those who had the pleasure of attending thanks to the splendid arrangements of the Rector and President of the branch (the Rev. J. R. Vincent) who had asked the Rev. Karney (Diocesan Missioner) to give an address. The preacher related soveral experiences whilst a prisoner of war in Germany, and while serving as chaplain to the prison camp. chaptain to the prison camp.

After service an adjournment was made to the Rectory grounds, and tea was served on the lawn. The business meeting followed, the Rev. J. R. Vincent being in the chair. The balance sheet and report nev. 5 R. vincent being in the team, The branch speech and report read by the secretary, showed the branch to be in a satisfactory con-dition.—The Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) was pre-sent much to the delight of all the members. At the request of the meeting he spoke of the progress of the Guild, and also referred to the proceedings of the Central Council at the Northampton meeting. A few kindly remarks were also passed in favour of supporting the Bioging World'. Ringing World.'

The usual vote of thanks was extended to all who had so ably as-sisted in providing the tea, to the Rev. J. R. Vincent for so kindly making arrangements and placing the grounds at the disposal of the branch, to the Rev. Karney for his splendid address, and to the Master (the Roy. C. W. O. Jenkyn) for his personal attendance.

After the meeting further ringing was indulged in until it was time to propure for home. The methods rang included Grandsure and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob, Kent Treble Bob, Double Court and Cambridge Surprise Minor. The meeting generally was a complete success, and everyone who attended was well satisfied that the North Bude, branch we once more writing head to its pressure full. Bucks branch was once more getting back to its pre-war state.

The Hon. Secretary, with the consent of the President, real a lengthy statement which he had prepared on the ' Lead Lands ' question, in which he set out arguments in support of his contention that bob leads are those only at which calls are made, and that no place made within the lead, which is part of the regular work of the lead, can be corned a box. This contention he clauned, was supported by the termed a box. This contention no claimed, was supported by the Councits own Glossary and by the Exercise at lange, and he argued that the conclusions of the report of the Methods Committee were therefore, wrong, and that their contention that all methods must have either Grandsiro or Plan Bob lead ends was equally wrong, because it was based on false premises. There might, added Mr. Davies be some conceivable justification for their plea for the exclusive use of Grandsire and Flam Bob lead ends, if they achieved any real advantage, but they conspicuously failed to secure the one quality which it was their special mission to secure, viz., the maintenance of the same coursing order, which was conclusively proved by his method B in the pampulet ' Lead Ends,' in which though the lead ends were Grandsire ones, the bells go down in a different coursing order in every lead. The true position might well be summed up in a few concise statements: (1) a bob is an alternative; (2) on the occurrence of the bob position there may be a bob, or there may not be a bob; (3) a bob is a substitution of one rule for another; (4) a bob is always a link; that which is not a link caunot be a hob; (5) no place which is invariably made is ever a bob; (6) any lead not containing a bob in the souse indicated above is a plain lead; (7) a plann lead may be of any form, provided always that its cycle of repetition produces as many leads as there are working betts. Mr. James, con-tinued Mr. Davies, complained that he (the speaker) called any lead a plain lead in which a bob was not called. So flid the ' Glossary.' Nor plann lead in which a bob was not called. So this the 'Glossary.' Nor did Mr, James improve his case by objecting that the employment of the term ' plain lead ' was only colloquial. So was nearly every other term in the science. The important thing was not the term itself but the sense in which it was used, and in this instance ' plain lead,' on the authority of the 'Glossary ' (and of all ringers except Mr. James and his friends), meant a lead devoid of calls. This was not a fight about names it, was a fight for freedom. Ware methods with light about names it was a fight for freedom. Were methods with non-Grandsire and non-Plain Bob lead ends to be banned and stigmalised, or were they to be ocknowledged as 'regular' and to be es-teemed as fit for use as the others? To stigmatise a method as 'irregular' involved a very clear attempt to get rid of it. The majority of ringers and conductors would have heard that such and such a method was ' contrary to the rules,' and would not trouble any further about it. Therefore, he would not rest until all criticism of methods not having Grandsire or Plain Bob lead ends was absolutely and finally withdrawn, so far at least as concerned their lead ends and coursing order.

DECIDED BY THE EXERCISE.

The Rev. H. Law Jumes said the question raised by Mr. Davies had been settled by an authority they could not get away from, and that was the Exercise as a whole during the last 200 years. He had had the opportunity of reading in Sir Arthur Heywood's collection of books everything that had been written on the subject, and previous to Troyte (who disclaimed any idea of being scientific and simply published his book to teach beginners) no one had used plain lead, bob lead and single lead in the way in which Mr. Duvies meant it. These bob terms were quite modern and, as Mr. Davies said, were the collequial language of the befry. That, however, was of no use for scientific purposes. In Banister's book was published a list of the peals rung by the Ancient Society of College Youths down to 1875. There were several hundred peals, and there were among them just six peals which broke the rule with regard to lead ends. They rang two peals of Union Triples in 200 years. The same was true of the Union Scholars They rang one peol of Union Triples; all the rest kept the rule of Bob Major lead ends and if they exentined the peal books of other societies they would find about the same average. The thing had been settled, to his mind, by the Exercise before any of those present were born.

There being no proposal before the meeting, the Council passed on to the next business, the President remarking, amid laughter, that any discussion upon the subject raised by Mr. Davies was obviously a matter of days and weeks and months.

PEALS ANALYSIS.

PEALS ANALYSIS. The report of the Peals Analysis Committee, already published, was noved by Mr. A. T. King, who also proposed that the Rev. A. T. Beeston be added to the committee. The Rev. H. Law Junes asked that the analysis should be com-pleted before it was deposited in the archives. With regard to the points, they were absolute rubbish. The committee were instructed last year not to publish them. He would suggest that they be crossed with Scoundle. out. Secondly, there was one peal rung by the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, and one by somebody else which had not been included. The committee, in their report, made some strictures upon these peaks; but it was not the fault of the conductor, as the peals were sent up for publication, but by some means failed to oppear. He thought the committee might have taken the trouble to put them in. Lastly, the committee had noticed two peaks rung in new methods, but they had allocated no points to them.

The Hom Socretary said there was only one instruction given to the committee last year, and that was that the associations should be entered in alphabetical order.

Mr. King said the committee waited until the close of February before they completed the analysis and surely two months was quite enough to enable any association to get its reals or mitted. As regards his grievance, the Editor had confessed that these peals were mislaid. Were the committee to be blamed for that? He thought Mr. James should apologise.

The Rev. H. Law James said he only asked the committee to put the analysis right before it was laid by in the archives of the Council. Mr. King warmly remarked that those who had not had the trouble did not appreciate the work the committee had to do. Let them scrap the whole thing if it was of no interest, but surely two months was quite sufficient time to give for the publication of peals.

The Rev. H. Law James said if it was put by as it was the analysis for 1919 would be worthless. He did not see why the committee should not take the trouble to complete it if it was to be of value for the future the future. Mr. G. Williams (a member of the committee) supported what Mr. King had said. The committee had a tremendous lot of work to do, and he was supprised Mr. James had attacked it in the way he had. The Rev. H. Law James said he was not attacking anybody, he only asked, for the sake of the future, that the analysis should be com-plete. He was not blanning anybody. The President said he thought he saw a way out of the difficulty.

He would ask their patient long-suffering, ever-ready, ever-genial librarian (applause) when he got this analysis to put into the newlyestablished library to make the corrections that Mr. James desired (applause)

The Rev. A. T. Beeston was added to the committee, and the report was adopted.

TOWERS AND BELFRIES COMMUTTEE.

This committee's report by Mr. E. H. Lewis, who was unavoidably absent, was read by Mr. E. A. Young as follows: At the mosting of the Central Council in 1919 this committee made a request that representatives would report to them any cases where harmful action was being taken by the societies or individuals to prevent hells being hung in the best modern manner. No such reports have been received by the committee during the year. As the result of work already done by the committee and the publication of 'Bell towers and bell hanging,' the members have been consulted individually with regard to the hanging,' ing of peals of bells (Major Hesse, Mr. E. A. Young and Mr. E. H. Lewis, each on four occasions). Advice has been given in these cases, but the commuttee do not consider it advisable to publish the details. The pressure of other work has been so great on members of the committee that they have not been able to initiate any further research specific case which may be brought to their notice.

The report was adopted.

Canon Elsee reported for the Bells of Belgium Committee. He said their difficulty was that they had no reliable information as to the actual state of the towers and bells in Belgium. Mr. Lewis had hoped to get some definite information so as to put a proposal before the Council, but he had not yet been able to do so. He was hoping to go to Belgium in the near future and to get first-hand information on the spot.

The report was accepted.

(To be continued. UNIQUE PERFORMANCE RECORDED.

On Saturday, May 29th, a good number of ringers assembled in the belfry of All Saints' Church, Corston near Bath, on the occasion of the unveiling of a peal board, crected to record a peal rung last year, id in which, for the first time father, mother and son took part. The Rector (the Rev. C. C. Parker), Master of the Bath and Wells Association unveiled the tablet, and said how pleased he was to have Association involuent the fabler, and said now pleased he was to have it in his tower. He hoped it would be an incentive to his own ringers to persevere and he able to accomplish a similar performance. He thanked the donors of the board (Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins), and con-gratulated them on the unique record they had achieved.

Mr. Wilkins, in acknowledging the thanks and congratulations, said how pleased they always were in meeting the Rev. C. C. Parker, who, as Master of the Bath and Wells Association for many years, had done as Master of the Bath and Wells Association for highly years, had done a lob of work on behalf of ringers and ringing. The following is the inscription: 'Gloucester and Bristol Dioresan Association.—On Wednes/ay, July 9th 1919, in 2 lus, and 50 mine., a peal of Stedman Triples (5040 changes): Sir A. P. LADIES' GUILD.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT AT OHIDDINGFOLD.

A meeting of the Southern District of the Ladies' Guild was held at Childringfold on Saturday, June Sila when a very enjoyable alternoon and evening was spent by over thirty ringers from Aldershot, Dorking, Bagshot, Creanleigh, Shalford, Guildford Puttenham, Witbooking, Bagshot, Cranleigh, Skalford, Guildford Puttenhan, Wit-ley and Godahning. Owing to the station and village being nearly three miles apart, it was practically a cyclists' meeting. Many visit-ing Childdingfold for the first time were charmed with the pretty village, the church and the easy-going little ring of cight bells, which were rang for the first time in rounds by ladies. During the after-noon and evening touches of Grandsiro and Stedman Triples, Bob Major and Kent Trololo Bob were brought round, in all of which methods bulles tools not methods ladies took part.

The Guild service was held at 4.30, the singing being led by the local lady ringers, who are also members of the church choir. One looks forward with confidence to the time when the performance of these young ladies in the belfry will equal their work in the choir .- The Vicar (the Rev. C. O. Lefroy) gave the address, and, with the organist sat down with the company to a substantial tea, provided in the Parish Hall,

After tes, a touch of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by Messrs. Mclville, Steere, Hazolden, and Mrs. Hazelden.—Miss Fisher (Dorking) in a happy little speech, thanked the View and local ringers for the very hearly welcome and most enjoyable time they had given the visitors, and especially for the almost inspired words the Vicar had spoken to them in church.

At the short business meeting two ladies from Aldershot were elected members.—It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Chertsey, as the hon, secretary had ascertained that a meeting there would be much appreciated by the Chertsey members.

After further ringing, the bells were reluctantly lowered at 8 p.m., and the cycle ride homewards, through the beautiful pinewood and the cycle ride homewards, through the scenery, was certainly a perfect end of a perfect day.

WESTERN DISTRICT MEETING.

The quarterly meeting was held at the Parish Church, Weston-super-Marc, on Saturday, June 12th. Members were present from Briszol, Fortisheud, Clapton-in-Gordano, Bridgwater and Midsomer Norton, and were assisted by several local ringers. The bells, a beauliful ring of eight, were thoroughly appreciated. A short service was con-ducted by the Rector, who kindly gave a very interesting and helpful blow of the Rector, who kindly gave a very interesting and helpful address and was present at the ten which took place immediately after the service at 'Messrs. Brown's Cafe High Street. A short business meeting followed, at which Miss Gillingham presided and at which a vote of thanks, proposed by Miss Gillingham, and seconded by Mrs. Wilkins, to the Rector (the Rev. Preb. Norton Thompson) for his kindness in lending the bells, and to the steeplekeeper, Mr. Stubbins, for the lending the bells, and to the steeplekeeper, Mr. Stubbins, for the trouble he had taken to have everything in readiness. was puesed.

It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Bath in September, and if possible to have an evening meeting for practice at Portbury early in July.

ENCOURAGING SIX-BELL RINGERS. To the Editor.

Sir.-Mr. Morris, in his letter to six bell towers makes mention that the 8 and 10 bell ringers of Leicester were very glud of his help in scoring their 8 and 10 bell peaks, while they openly scoffed at his beals on six. Let me inform Mr. Morris that for every peal he rang on 8 or 10 bells with our society, a first-class ringer of our band stood out to give him the opportunity. Let him also remember that our society got for him his first peaks of Stadman Triples and Caters. Grandsire Caters, Double Norwigh, Superlative and Treble Ten.

Grandsire Caters, Double Norwigh, Superlative and Treble Ten. As regards ringers of 6 bells being shunned by the 8 and 10 bell ringers of Leicoster, I ask the question, is there a ringer in existence who can truthfully say that they were never given a chance, or one who never received anything but assistance or encouragement to get on from our society? Often have we met for a special practice, a stranger turns up, who only rings ' so and so,' promptly our own aspirations have been turned down to give him a chance to rung his aspirations have been turned down to give him a chance to rung his first jouch of something or other. As regards what Mr. Morris has done for the 6-bell ringers of Leicester, I say he has done it for the sake of self-glorification alone. It would be better if Mr. Morris realised that our society made him. not he, us. Mr. Morris supert is analy in this case, I expect but we had his 'help.' We should be grateful, but I am afraid that we are not. I have written the above to correct a probably wrong impression abroad, that the 8 and 10 bell societies of Leicester owe their successes to Mr. Ernest Morris.—Yourg faithfully, FRED H. DEXTER.

FRED H. DEXTER, St. Martin's Society, Leicester. P.S.-On looking up our records I find that 40 ringers rang their first peal, and over 140 rang their first peal in a new method, from Triples to Royal, with this society. Mr. Morris figures largely in this.

NEW FIELDS.

The art of change-ringing never stands still, there are always new worlds to be conquered and new fields to be explored. When the investigation of six-bell methods had been completed, and there seemed nothing else to be achieved in Minor, enterprising ringers found interest and further variety in splicing methods together to obtain the extent. The exploration of eight-bell methods is not yet complete, but we are beginning to hear of a similar splicing of Major methods as an added spice to the charms of peal ringing. Last week was recorded a peal by the Cambridge University Guild in which Bob Major and Little Bob were combined, and, rung double handed, it was certainly no mean performance. This week is recorded a peal which, under the name of 'Worcester,' is a combination of Kent and Oxford Treble Bob. The author, to whose ingenuity the Exercise owes a great deal, puts forward the claim that by the adoption of the plan now published, a peal can, for the first time, be got without bob or single! Put shortly, Worcester Treble Bob means that Kent Treble Bob is rung, but, when a bob is called, Oxford places are substituted for Kent places, and the contention is, we suppose, that, as both forms of placemaking are plain-lead forms, no bobs are mace throughout the peal. We can see a nice point here for discussion. According to the standard work on the subject, 'The Glossary,' a bob is a call made 'to cause certain bells (three, or other uneven number) to effect an alteration'in their regular work'; and a 'plain lead' is 'a lead introduced without "a call."" Now we have this proposition : here is a method in which a call is made to effect an alteration in the regular work of the bells, but instead of it affecting an uneven number, it affects an even number, and in that respect it does not comply with the preconceived notions of a bob. On the other hand, the change of place-making is introduced by a 'call,' and, according to 'The Glossary,' that lead cannot therefore be termed a 'plain lead.' These seem briefly to be the points, and the claim of the author must be left to wiser heads than ours to settle.

But what we want to draw attention to is that the evolution of ringing is going on. In the practice of Major ringing, these two instances of the amalgamation of methods to obtain a peal may be only a small step, but it opens the way to greater possibilities, of which ringers will only be able to reap full advantage when they have in their possession the collection of eight-bell methods which the Central Council's committee have partly completed and partly in preparation. We may yet see 'the day when five thousands are made up of a variety of methods, when with every call the bells will switch on to a fresh method, and so add to the present intricacies some further allurements to those who practise the art.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A very pleasant meeting of the North and East district was held at All Hallows, Tottenhum, on June 19th. Ringing commenced about 4 o'cleck, and continued until 5.30, when a short service was held, at which the members of the Association were welcomed by the Rev. Denton Jones, who also gave a very interesting address on the subject of bells and their uses.

ject of bells and their uses. Tea was afterwards served in the Church Hall, and an excellent meal was enjoyed. Before the business meeting was held a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells, brought by Mr. J. Rayner, by Messis, A. Mason, C. T. Coles, W. Pye, C. Charge, and G. Fletcher-At the meeting the chair was taken by Mr. W. Orusha, who was supported by Mr. A. Richards, both being churchwardens. The former gave the society a heavity welcome to Tottenham and said how glad they were to hear the bells again after their long silence through the war and during the neting unior to their being relevant. the war, and during the period prior to their being rehung.

hoped the society would prosper, and continue its good work. Before the meeting closed, the Hon. Secretary proposed a vote of thanks to the Rev. Denton Jones for the use of the bells, and for his address at the service; and thanks were also given to the churchwardens, and to Mrs. Crusha and friends for their helping to make the meeting a success by proparing such an excellent tea for the ringers.

The bells were afterwards made much use of, the methods rung inchaling Aristol, London, and Superlative Surprise, besides Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Kent and Double Norwich. In spite of the short notice given, brought about by a mishap to the advertisement sent to ' The Ringing World,' there was a good attendance, and including reinforcements after tea, about 40 members were present during the afternoon and evening

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING AT REFFORD.

One of the best annual meetings of the North Notts Association was held at East Retford on Saturday week. Ringers were present from Anston, Barlboro', Harthill, Shireoaks, Norton Cuckney, Rother-ham, Worksop, Tuxford, Lancham, Lincola, Gainsborough, Misson. by F. Hargreaves, C. F. Fowler and J. S. Betts. Upwards of 50 ringers sat down to a good meat tea at Howard's Restaurant, presided over by the Vicer of East Reiford (the Rev. C. Bailey). Afterwards twelve new members were elected from Barl-borough, Tuxford, Lancham, East and West Reford and Workson. The next quarterly meeting was fixed for Blyth, in July. The re-election of all officers, with Mr. Joseph Hall, of Worksop, as asistant secretary, took place, after which came a hearty vote of thanks to the incumbents of the three churches for placing the bolls at the dis-posal of ringers during the day. The Rev. C. Bailey replied, and welcomed the ringers to East Ret-ford. They had got practically a new band at his tower, and he rejoiced to know that they were keenly interested and making good progress as probationers. Further ringing took place, and brought a most enjoyable meeting

The balance sheet showed receipts amounting to .211 4s., and expenditure to .211 17s., with a balance in hand, or invested, of £22 3s. 10d.

The report recorded two peals rung during the year, and a roll of 13 honorary, 127 performing and 21 probationary members.

WORCESTER TREBLE BOB.

BY THE REV. P. BANKES JAMES. This method, the first peal in which was rung at Worcester on June 5th, is a combination of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob. The main body of the peal is Kent, but when a call is made two sets of Oxford places are substituted for the Kent places as the trable dodges in 1-2 down and 1-2 up. By making a call at 3 in every course we get a five lead course in which neither the tenor nor the 7th ever goes in slow. We can put together 60 of these courses, and so get a peal of 9600 changes. The call takes effect during the next eight changes after it is made. A peal without a bob or a single in it is, I believe, a novelty.

LEAD ENDS.

To the Editor. Sir. In reference to the leading article in your last issue, may I say that I hope later on to send to your columns a short and concise statement of what in my opinion should be the principles and rules to which ' regular ' methods should conform? Hitherto my task has been which regimer includes should contain related by the high seen the unwelcome one of pulling down, i.e., of showing the fullacies and worthlessness of the Committee's Report on Legitimate Methods, and it is only fair that having, as I contend, demolished it, I should erect something to take its place. What we all want is not mere negative criticism, but positive work—work which I can assure you that at least I myself shall find far more agreeable. CHARLES D. P. DAVIES.

WEIGHTS OF TENORS.

To the Editor Dear Sir .- In looking through reports of peals rung, I have been struck with the great uncertainty which appears to exist as to the weight of tenor. In the last three or four issues of the ' Ringing World,' I find about a dozen tenors which appear to have lost weight the loss varying from 1 cwt. to actually 8 cwt. -since the year 1919: while in one or two cases the tenors have put on weight-one of them while in our of two cases the tenory have put on weight-one of the iner-no less than 2 cwt.-within the last few months. In none of these in-stances has there been any recasting noted, which might account for it. May I appeal that greater care be exercised by those who furnish reports of peals?-Yours faithfully, St. Philip's Vicarage, Bristol. MICHAEL E. THOROLD.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION. RETIREMENT OF CANTERBURY DISTRICT SECRETARY.

The annual meeting of the Canterbury District was held at Chilham on Saturday, June 26th, when 35 members from various towers attended. The usual procedure was followed-ringing, service, tea, business, ringing. The Rev. C. W. B. Cobbe, district secretary for the last four years wrote to say he must decline the honour of re-election, as owing to and living on the edge of such a large his distance from a station, and living on the edge of such a large district, he found he was unable to carry out the duties of the office satisfactorily.

Mr. E. G. Buesden (Canterbury) was elected as successor to Mr Cobbe.

Messrs, C. R. Millway (Dover) and F. G. Brett (Canterbury) were chosen as representatives on the Central Committee. Sixteen new members were elected, and it was arranged to hold meetings at Birchington and Quex Park in the autumn, at Teynham in the spring, and at Dover in the summer.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION. AWAKENING ENTHUSIASM IN THE NORTHERN DIVISION.

The quarterly meeting of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire The quarterly meeting of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire Association took place at Scarborough. Upwards of thirty ringers were present from Pickering, Helmsley, Malton, Thornaby, Fyling-dales, Tanfield and Scarborough. During the afternoon and evening St. Mary's beautiful peal of eight bells was at the disposal of the visi-tors. A short service was held, at which the Rev. Maclaren gave a helpful address. Tea was provided in the Parish Room, after which the business meeting was held, the Rev. E. Drage (vice-president) pre-siding.—A vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the Rev. C. C. Cooper, Vicar of Scarborough, for his kindness in placing the bells at the disposal of the visitors, and to the Rev. C. C. Marshall, president towards making the day a success.—The Rev. C. C. Marshall, president of the association, wrote expressing his regret at not being able to be of the association, wrote expressing his regret at not being able to be After much discussion, it was decided that an effort be made to analgamate the Cleveland Association with the Yorkshire Association. It was the general opinion of these present that if such a union could be brought about much good would result from it.

be brought about much good would result from it. Twenty-one new members were elected from the various towers in the district, a fact which indicates the growing enthusiasm of the ringers, and speaks well for the future prosperity of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire Association.

CITY'S THREATENED CHURCHES.

Canon Elsee moved a resolution: 'That an appeal be sent by this Council to the Bishop of London's Committee, urging the desirability of preserving all towers in the City of London in which there are notable rings of bells.' He said averyone knew that in the recent report of the Bishop of London's Committee it was recommended that 19 London Churches should be removed. In the case of some of them they proposed to retain the towers, but he thought the Central Coun-cil would be fully justified as a body representing the bell ringers of the country in urging that all the towers should be retained.

The Hon, Secretary said Major Hesse had raised the same question in a letter which he had written to him.

Canon Elsee said he thought if the Council went outside what was in that resolution they would be renturing on rather difficult and cer-tainly debatable ground. Although their sympathies might be very strongly on one side or the other, without full information they would, he thought be ill advised to express any opinion on the quetion whether City churches in certain cases should be removed. With all sympathy for preserving ancient buildings and churches, in the in state of the needs of the Church as a living body, he thought they would not be justified in criticising what a responsible committeo had advised. Their ground was different, however, when they make about the towers in which there were notable rings of bells, and for that reason he proposed the resolution. He imagined that all the towers contained bells, but in some cases there would be only a very few bells of no particular interest or value, but there were some of the churches suggested for demolition that contained very notable rings of bells. It was proposed to rotain certain of the towers, but he thought it would strengthen the hands of those who desired to retain them if they passed that resolution. The Rev. F. Ll. Edwards seconded, and said he would like to set the resolution extended to the churches themselves. Mr. G. P. Burton moved that they should add to the resolution words which would include the churches as well as the towers. He wanted to strengthen the resolution, for it would appear that this procedure would not merely apply to London. There were signs that the same harmful movement was going on in his own city of Norwich. The city was full of cliurches, and Bristol might also share the same fate. As Churchmen and bell ringers they should protest against the action Bishops were taking over this matter. He hoped, therefore, they would adopt a stronger resolution than had been proposed by ineluding the churches.

Mr. T. Faulkner, as a London ringer and the representative of a society (the College Youths) that rang at most of the City churches. said he felt it was an act of gross vandalism to destroy those churches. After all, the churches had been consecrated and dedicated to the allory of God and they had no right to descent them for the sake of pounds, shillings and pence. There was no resolution that could be teo strong to condemn the proposed action (applause). There were signs of this thing happening in other towns and they should protest against the descention of God's Honse (hear, hear).

F. Ll. Edwards: Liverpool is already suffering, The Rev.

Canon Baker said the amendment touched upon ground on which they were not, as a Council, entitled to express an opinion any more they were not, as a Council, entitled to express an opinion any more than they were mon now other burning question of the day. To do than they were upon any other burning question of the day. To do so would be opening the door to the introduction of a wide number of subjects which had nothing to do with them, from Free Trade to Pussyfoot organisation (laughter). They had to do with bells and bell ringing, and, therefore Canon Elsee's proposition was in order and was one which they could well support. If they went beyond and was one which they could well support. If they went beyond that they would be going beyond their legitimate purview, however much they might feel on the subject individually. Canon Coleridge said he could not vote either way on this matter. It was quite true the daily press had had great headlines, 'Destruc-tion and Demolition of City Churches,' but that was a small part of the whole thing. He was not going to be led away by scare headlines in the daily mess. There was a great deal of substance in the report that desuvad the consideration of all Churches, but part of the the consideration and that deserved the consideration of all Churchmen before they proceeded to vote upon it.

Mr. Burton's amendment, on being put was declared defeated by 18 votes to 14.

Another amendment was moved by the Rev. H. Drake to add the words ' at least ' before the word towers, but this was also lost, and the resolution as moved by Canon Elsee was then put and carried.

COLLECTION OF RECORDS.

The Council then came to the consideration of the first resolution on the agenda paner, Mr, E. H. Lewis laving given notice to more the following: 'That the Council compile and keep up to date an the following: 'That the Council compile and keep up to date an official list of the first peal and longest peal rung in each method and on each number of bells.'—The Hon. Secretary, in the absence of Mr. Lewis, moved the resolution, and quoted from a letter from Mr. Lewis in which the latter said that his idea was exactly what was detail? in that week's 'Ringing World ' editorial. He thought a record should be kept of the first-real and each subsequent longer length in each method on each number of bells. The original compilation would take a good deal of work, but a great deal might be done by correspondents in different parts of the country. The standard methods had been well done in Snowden's ceries. Once the back numbers were hunted out it would not be difficult to keep up to date, if the Peals Analysis Committee could undertake to pass on to the committee, which would probably have to be appointed to keep the record, a list of the claims to first peaks which they came across in making up the snalysis. If the committee were to publish their work in sections, asking for corrections and additions a fairly accurate historical record could be made before it was too late.

The Rev. H. Law James seconded the motion, which was adopted without discussion, and the following members were appointed a committee to carry out the work and to be known as the 'Records Committee ': The Rev. A. T. Breston, the Rev. H. Law James, and Mr. T. Hervey Beams.

A SCIENTIFIC EXHIBIT.

Mr. E. A. Young moved: ' That the Central Council take steps to approach the authorities of the Victoria and Albert Science and At Museum with a view to the possibility of obtaining from them the allotment of a suitable space for the exhibition in London of bells, models, papers drawings, etc., illustrative of campanology as a science and art. Mr. Young said he had thought for some years past that. from a propaganda point of view, they might do more to educate the public, and a cheap way to do it, if they could only get the Government to fall into line, was to place in a museum an exhibit showing ment to fail into line, was to place in a museum an exhibit showing what they had done were doing, and were trying to do. It did not follow that they would get this space allotted to them, but he thought they should endeavour to do so. Knowing there was no exhibit of the kind in any of the miscums he interviewed, Mr. Dickenson, an as-sistant director on the science side at Kensington, and he science a little astonished at the subject, but he kindly allowed him (Mr. Young) to explain it. He thought he converter him to the view that there was remething in the Mr. Dickenson include which is the science as was something in it. Mr. Dickenson inquired whether it was a science or an art, and he (the speaker) suggested that it was both and that the exhibit might be erected on these lines, but when it was hinted the exhibit might be erected on these lines, but when it was linted to him that this would involve putting part of the exhibit in one museum and another part in some other part of London, he thought that would be very undesirable. He had the privilege when at Bir-mingham of seeing that woulderful machine of Mr. Carter's, and the thought passed through his mind. What was to become of it when he had passed away? It was a masterpicce and its resting-place should be in some such place as these great galleries devoted to science which they had in London. London was the centre of the Empire, nd there was no city or town which ringers as a whole visited so much as London. If they could persuade the Government to give them much as London. If they could perside the forefulnes to give the give a space they might put there, among other things, some of the re-markable old peals boards which were now neglected in some of the towers or photographic copies of these, and the remarkable old docu-ments which existed in the British Museum. These, with models and other items would go to make up an exhibit which would be national in character, and would show future generations that there was something more in ringing than most people appreciated.

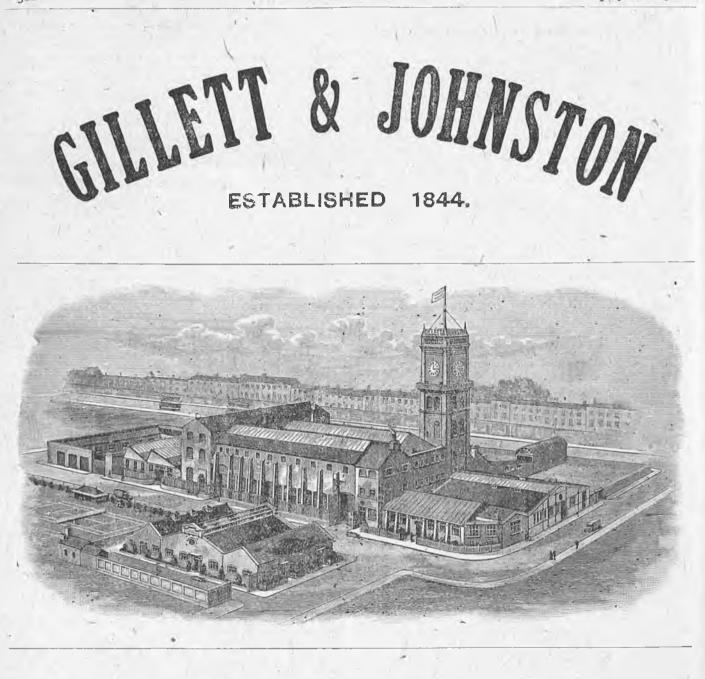

The Hon. Secretary in seconding, said Mr. Carter's machine was a He had, however, often been puzzled as to what was a most wonderful thing, but the Council had no call on it whatever. He had, however, often been puzzled as to what was to become of it when Mr. Carter was dead and goue, but he would be rather sorry to see it placed in a museum, for this reason, it was a machine and if they once put it in a museum no one would ever know all the beauties and wonders of it, and no one would see the working of it. But as far as everything else that had been mentioned he would like to see them in a museum.

The President said he believed Mr. Carter had made his own arrangements as to the future of the machine. Suggestions were made that the exhibit should be extended to originals and models of ancient and famous bells not necessarily con-nected with change ringing, and the methods of hanging from the most primitive type to the latest patterns.

The resolution on being put was carried.

NO CHANGE IN DATE OF MEDTING. The Rev. H. Drake moved: ' That arrangements be made for the Council to hold its annual meeting on the Tuesday after the first Sunday after Trinity ' (i.e., a fortnight later than at present). He suid he had really no wish to bring forward any ideas of his own, he shift he had really no want to bring to what was the wish of the simply desired that they might vote as to what was the wish of the Council and what was the most convenient day. He had tried three times to draw discussion on it in 'The Ringing World.' but each time he had drawn a blank. The present date, he thought was inconven-ient to many of them because they had the annual meetings of their time at the present date and if the attended to the own associations on the previous day, and if they attended to the duties of their associations it was obvious that only those who lived in that part of England where the meeting was to be held could attend the Council meeting the next day. There was another renso which applied to some of them, they had other things to occupy them Those who were parsons and church workers had during the holiday. church work which occupied them, and there was a conflict in the claims upon them at this important senson of the Church's year. It had been suggested that the Council should meet on the Tuesday after August Bank Holiday but there were objections to that as it would interfere with the holiday season. He thought, therefore, if they made it a forhight later than al present it would be sufficient.

Mr. Rock Small raised strong objection on the ground that use working men members would not be able to attend except at a time when there were general holidays.

when there were general holidays. The Hon. Secretary thought if they altered the day to the one now proposed they would halve the attendance, and Mr. George Bollaud said Whitsuntide was the most convenient time. If they wanted to alter the date at all let them make it Whitsun Monday. The Hon. Secretary: I can see what you want to do, you want to got rid of the parsons (laughter). Mr. Bolland: The parsons can come at any time, we can't; we have business to attend to (laughter). Mr. W. E. White said the working men could not afford to have mother holidae, a forthight after Whitsun.

another holiday a fortnight after Whitsun.

Canon Coleridge referred to the remark made by Mr. Drake, that Usion Coloridge referred to the remark made by Mr. Drake, that those who had association meetings on the previous day could not attend if they had to go to another part of England. They had there a splendid example to refute that. The Rev, Maitland Kelly, presi-dent of the Devon Guild, attended the meeting of the Guild in Exeter on the previous day, and was there in Northampton usat morning, and he was only excelled in age by Mr. Rock Small himself (analyzed) (applause).

No one voted in favour of Mr. Drake's motion, which was, therefore, defeated.

The only other notice on the agenda had been given by Mr. John The only other notice on the agenda had been given by Mr. John Carter ' to consider the question of the term "Surprise Method," and, if thought advisable, to move a resolution.' As Mr. Carter was not present, the Council decided to pass on to the next business. VOTES OF THANKS. The President moved a vote of thanks to the Mayor and Corpora-tion of Northampton for allowing them the use of the Council Chamber, and remucked that they were especially grateful to the Mayor for his kindness in welcoming them personally, and for his interesting speech (applause). — The motion was unanimously carried.

The Hon. Secretary said the arrangements for the meeting were supposed to fall upon the secretary, but when the meeting took place in the country he always found a good friend to do the work for him who knew the ropes better than he did, and on the present occasion no botter or fuller arrangements could possibly have been made than had been made by their friend Mr. Wilford (applause). Personalls, he felt he owed him a deep debt of gratitude for all he had done for the next has over him a deep debt of gratitude for all has done for obtaining the use of that excellent and comfortable chamber, and fer his arrangements for the ringing which had been made. He wished, therefore, to propose a very hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Wilford for what he had done.—This was at once carried by acclamation. Canon Coloridge proposed a vote of thanks to the President, and remarked, amid applause, that he was sure it would be the desire of the members that Mr. Bourbor, chould southing a covern the office the members that Mr. Boughey should continue to occupy the office.

The President replying, sold that anything that lay in his power he was only too happy to do. His services were at their disposal as long as he could give them, but it was most important that when the new Council assombled there should be a new president more active, more vigorous and more capable than their present president, though he could not exceed him in his desire to further the interests and wel-fare of the Council. In conclusion he thanked the secretary, the librarian and others who had done the work.

The meeting then terminated, and the members adjourned to St. Giles' Hall, where they were the guests at tea of the Central Northants Association, a hearty vote of thanks being accorded to the association for their hospitality. Later in the evening there was a social gathering at the Grand Hotel.

BELL BEARINGS.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,-We see by your report that Cullompton bolls are hung on ball bearings, which, the writer states is different from our design, which he says is that of rollers. First, please, let us contradict his statement. Our patent adjustable bearing contains no rollers or ball races as these are useless in a bearing for the pendulum motion a bell has. The weight of a bell when rung thrusts itself threefold. The result is that the bottom balls or rollors take all the weight. After a time the case hardening wears off these rollers and balls, and the bell

The patent adjustable bearings we make, and only, and the ben goes hard—proof may ret find this out. The patent adjustable bearings we make, and which are in use throughout Devon and Cornwall on over 3,000 bells from 30 cwt, down wards, give the highest satisfaction. They consist of a solid gun motal round bull. This is fitted to a pedestal into which a stud is fitted to prevent the ball from turning round. The axle of the bell fits and swings in the middle of the ball, and is allowed to oscillate to any and when there is a interface in the first on the prevent here. any angle, where there is a sinkage in the frames or beams, or headstock. The ball gives to the swing of the bell and axle, thus providing an even bearing. There is a top cap fitted on this with a recess for oil: also a canopy to prevent dust and grit. It is self-inbricating. We hope shortly to send an illustration for publication in the ' Ringing World.' Much has been said by Guilds and ringers who are ignorant of what the bearing we use is hke.-Yours faithfully,

Chagford, Devon. WM. AGGETT AND SONS.

DEATH OF A LANCASHIRE RINGER.

In bell ringing circles, both far and near, the news of the death, on Tuesday week, of Mr. John Millett, of Heywood, will be heard with feelings of profound regret. The deceased, who was 57 years of age, had been a ringer at St. Luke's Church, Heywood, for the long period of 41 years, and he was also one of the old handbell ringers in the town. The late Mr. Millett was a member of the College Youths, and the conductor at St. Luke's, and had rung 55 peals.

town. The late Mr. Millett was a member of the College Youths, and the conductor at St. Luke's, and had rung 55 peals. At the funeral, which took place on Saturday last. Heywood ringers noted as bearers, and the Lancashire Association was represented by members from Pendleton. Middleton, Moorside, Glodwick and Oldham. Owing to a prior engagement the president of the association (Rev. Canon Elsee, M.A.) was unable to be present. As Mr. Millett had also been a respected sidesman, the service was fully choral. Mr. Stanley Roberts presided at the organ, and the officiating clergyman both at the service and the graveside was the Rector (Rev. J. H. Clark, B.S.). At the conclusion of the last sad rites, a course of Grandsire Triples was rung most effectively over the grave by Messrs. H. Chapman, J. Schofield, S. Stott and E. B. Shaw.

MORE ENCOURAGEMENT WANTED.

A few weeks ago we urged upon Associations the importance and value of making greater efforts to interest the six-bell ringers, pointing out that in many cases very little is done to encourage the men in these towers to advance in the practice of Minor methods. It opens a field for much useful work, and needs to be approached in a broader spirit than that displayed in the policy of holding an occasional district meeting at a six-bell tower. In one or two notable cases combined practices at six-bell towers have become a regular part of association work.

There is, of course, every reason why the men of sixbell towers should not only be welcomed to belfries with rings of eight or more bells, and encouraged to become proficient on the higher numbers; but it should also be recognised that eight, ten or twelve bell ringing is not in itself the be-all and end-all of ringing. There are hundreds of six-bell towers throughout the country where men have little prospect of going, as a matter of regular. practice, beyond the range which these limited rings offer, and the object of every Association being to encourage the art of change ringing, this limitation ought to be more fully recognised and greater opportunities made of raising the standard of the methods rung. There are many sixbell bands who have nothing to learn in the way of striking, and who set an example which not a few companies ringing on higher numbers could well afford to emulate, yet so far as encouragement in their own branch of the art is concerned, they receive none from their parent Association, or at most only a kind of patronising approval.

A real active policy, generally adopted, and not acted upon, as at present, in a few isolated cases, is required, and good results would soon be apparent. Even the eight and ten bell men would, on their part, find a new interest if they would seriously tackle the ringing of the multitudinous methods which are now practised on six, and extend these operations to the performance of spliced ex-The gain would, therefore, be mutual, and we tents. hope to see Associations before the summer is out planning measures by which they will be able to extend practical and regular help to their six-bell towers, and especially to those who are backward in the campanological sense. It is often said that those ringers who desire to get on will make their own opportunities of doing so. This is true, for they succeed despite all the discouragements. How much more, therefore, might be done by giving these men full encouragement and a greater incen-For every one who now gains protive to progress? ficiency by self-made opportunities, half a dozen might be set upon the high road to success.

BISHOP AMONG RINGERS.

INTERESTING RECORDS UNVELLED AT WELLS.

It is not often that ringers take ten with a Bishop, and it is cer-tainly unique to unveil a peal board recording two such peals as one tainly unique to unveil a beal board recording two such peals as one to celebrate the Armistice and the other to commemorate the com-pletion of fifty years' office as Bishop by the Right Rev. Bishop Stirling, D.D., canon-in-residence at Wells Cathedral. Nor, thank goodness, does it always rain as it did on Saturday, when the un-veiling ceremony took place. A representative body of ringers was present, including Messrs. W. and P. Cave, S. Abraham, A. Reeves, J. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, of Bristol; Mr. T. Kmg, of Bath: Mr. J. Dyke, of Midsomer Norton and Messrs. Griffin and Pain, of Redstock, whilst the Cathedral ringers were present in good numbers, headed by that enthusiast. Mr. Wulker Farley. The unveiling was performed by Dean Armitage Robinson, who, in a happy speech, re-ferred to the two events to commemorate which the peals had been rung. He culoused in glowing terms the work of the Bishop, and paid a graceful tribute to the excellence of the ringing -Mr. W. A. Cave and Mr. T. T. Hayward replied in suitable terms.

a graceful tribute to the excellence of the ringing.-Mr. W. A. Cave and Mr. T. T. Hayward replied in suitable terms. A short touch of Grandsire Caters was rung by the peal bard, and was followed by a touch of Stedman Caters. The party then ad-journed to tea, the Bishop presiding in a genial manner which wou the hearts of all. Tea over, handbells were produced and used in Grandsire Caters, tunes, and ' the Scokling-Lady,' the latter allegat to have emanated from the fertile brain of Mr. John Carler. Thanks to the Bishop were ably expressed by Messre, Wilkins and Hayward. His Lordship suitably replied, and after shaking hands with all present, in his own words, ' went to tell his wife what nice people the ringers were.

people the ringers were." A little light was shed on the Bishop's work, on which he is very reticent, by the Rev. R. E. Lewis, of the Wells Grammar School. At-the age of twenty-five, Bishop Stirling was told by a specialist that he had but two years to live. He at once determined to spend those two years in missionary work. The field he chose for that work was Therra del Fuego, where, according to Darwin, the inhabilants were less than human. Either, said he, they will get me or I shall get them. With what success he got them, in spite of daily danger, is now well known. Now, at something over eighty years of age, the phesied hadly, but he did better than he knew. With something to think about, the party again went to the tower, where that noble ring of bells, was kept going to several more touches until train time.

LADIES' GUILD. MIDLAND DISTRICT MEETING.

MIDLAND DISTRICT MEETENG. A quarterly meeting of the Midland District was held at Frilington Parish Church on June 26th, members being present from Solibult, Stirchley, Smethwick and Erdington. The bells, a light, easy-going of eight, were utilised during the afternoon, and a service was held at which the Guild form was used, the presence of the organist being much appreciated. In the absence of the Rector, the service was conducted by the Rev. C. W. D'Ombrain, chaplain in charge of St. Chad's Church, who gave an inspiring address. After service a photograph of the group was taken near the church door. A move was then marke to the Church House, where an excellent tee, provided by the local confpany, was in readiness, and which was partaken of by the local company, was in readiness, and which was partaken of by between 30 and 40 members and friends, presided over by the Rev. C. W. D'Ombrain.

Rev. C. W. D'Ombrain. Before the business meeting, a hearty vote of thanks was proposed by Miss S. Pigott, seconded by Mis, A. E. Foster, of Solihull, to the Rev. C. W. D'Ombrain for his services in church and presiding at tea, to the organist, and to Mr. Preston and the local company for having everything in readiness, and entertaining the Guild to tea.—This was carried with acclamation, and Mr. Preston, in responding, expressed the pleasure it gave them to welcome the Guild. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Preston, and it was decided to hold the next gathering at Selly Oak, in September, subject to the necessary per-mission heing siven mission being given.

After the meeting Mr. Preston, on behalf of the local company. Invited the Guild to foin them atom outing to be held in July. This was received with much pleasure, and the suggestion adopted. The bells were afterwards kept going to touches of Grandsire. Stedman and Bob Major by mixed companies until a very sujoyable meeting was brought to a close about 8 p.m.

WESTERN DISTRICT.

WESTERN DISTRICT. There was a meeting for practice at Portbury, near Bristol, on Thursday evening, July lst, but once more the members were very unfortunate in the weather, and only a small number braved the elements. Those whose enthusiasm conquered their fear of a wetting enjoyed a good practice in four methods, viz., Grandsire, Plain Bob. Stedman and Kent Treble Bob, kindly coached by Mr. R. J. Wilkins. Portbury bells, after being unringable for some time, have lately been relung by Me s.s. Llewellins and James, of Bristol. This is the first time in their history that these bells have been rung by six ladies, and the best thanks of the Guild are due to those who gave them the opportunity.

THE ANALYSIS.

In our leading article on June 18th we did the Contral Council's Analysis Committee an injustice. We stated that the committee had failed to award points for petils in new methods rung, and that their omission to do so certainly detracted from the value of the analysis, so far as the points are concerned. We bused this statement on the fact that methors in the table of availation in the statement of the fact that nother in the table of analysis nor in the report was the alloca-tion of points to these new methods shown, but Mr. A. T. Kung, chairman of the committee, informs us that points were allocted and chairman of the committee, informs us that points were allotted and included in the total points. Mr. King says the committee gave Victory Major the same as other Little Bob Methods, which are in Class III., viz., 12 points; and College Major (h4 committee thought came under Class VIII., and awarded it 16 points, the same as Double Norwich. To College Single, which could hardly be counted as a new method, they awarded eight points. We are glad to have the oppor-units of converting any false more as a base have been proptunity of correcting any false impression we may have created, but the misapprehension would not have occurred in our minds, and in the minds of many others, had the committee indicated in their report what points had been allocated.

Tea was provided on the Lawn at the Vicarage by the Vicar and Mrs. Paice, fo whom a hearty vote of thenks was accorded, on the motion of Mr. J. E. Sykes, seconded by Mr. Harry Robinson.—The business meeting followed, when nine new members were elected from various towers in the district, which speaks well for the future prosperity of the Association. HOW MARPLE OBTAINED ITS FINE BELLS.

The third meeting of the year of the Stockport Branch was hald at The third meeting of the year of the Stockport Branch was held at Marple, on Saturday, June 26th, about sixty members and friends attending. The service was conducted by the Rev. A. T. Beeston, in the absence of the Vieur, who was busily occupied with a garden party at the Vicarage. Tea was served in the School Room, and was fol-lowed by the usual business meeting. The chair was occupied by Mr. J. Heckingbottom, of Donton, and the Secretary reminded the mem-bers present of the annual Guid meeting to be held at Oxton, o August Bank Holiday. He also brought forward, for careful con-sideration, the question of the printing of the annual report. In size of the survivan increase in the estimates he had withheld phesuperation, the question of the printing of the annual report. In view of the surprising increase in the estimates, he had withheld pluc-ing the order for printing. What action would be taken would he decided at the annual meeting; nevertheless, much discussion toos place, and several proposals were made to meet the difficulty.—Five new members were identified, and Warburton fixed as the place to:

the next meeting, to be held on Saturday, Angust 28th. The business concluded with votes of thanks to the Vicar and wardens for the use of church, bells and schoolroom, and to the loca. ringers and ludies for the excellent catering arrangements. The line old ring of six were well requisitioned until a pretty late

The line old ring of six were well requisitioned until a pretty late hear. They were cast by Rudhall, of Gloucester, and were hang in the Parish Church of Stockport, in 1731, where they remained until was taken down in 1810. For some years they were stowed away, partly in the hearse house and partly in an old mill. The successors of Messrs. Rudhall having contracted for a new peal in 1816, offered £400 for the old ring of six, but owing to their sweet tone, a strong desire prevailed that the bells sliould be retained in the parish, and is Marple Church and been rebuilt with a tower, the Stockport. Parish Church authorities resolved that Marple should have the preference o purchase at the price offered by Mr. Rudhall. An appeal was made to the inhabiliants of Marple not to suffer the bells to be converted to the inhabitants of Marple not to suffer the bells to be conveye to the inhabitants of Marple not to suffer the bells to be conveyed from amongst them for over. As a result, several local gentlemen guaranteed the amount and concluded the bargain. The same day April 29th, a dray was sent for the tenor and treble, and two carts for the remaining four. On June 30th, 1816, they were opened, and the, day kept as a gala day. They were rehung in the early part of 1885 by Messes. Taylor and Co., and reopened on Baster Sunday of the tene by the Marcheld sincers. year by the Hayfield ringers,

It is strange to note that there is no record of a peal having been rung on them.

The church is on an eminence which commands an extensive view the bold swelling hills of Derbyshire, and of the more fertile vales of Cheshire, and no situation could be better adapted to give the ful effect of the uncommonly fine tone of the bells. On the present occasion, several visitors ascended to the top of the tower and found sufficient reward for their effort in the prospect presented to their gaze.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A very successful meeting of the Northern District was held at All Saints', Edmouton, on Saturday, June 26th. This fine peal of bells, situated, amidst pleasant surroundings, attracted a large number of ringers. The methods rung were very varied, including Super-lative, Cambridge, London and Bristol Surprise, and the striking was excellent.

At the business meeting the chair was taken by the Master (Mr. W At the business meeting the chair was taken by the Master (Mr. W G. Matthews), one new member being elected, viz.. Mr. Amos Clarke, of Groydon.—A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar/for the use of the bells, also to the ever-genial steeplekeeper, Mr. G. Paice, for having everything in readiness, and who, with the local band, helped to make the meeting a very pleasant and successful one. After the meeting, fouches of Stedman and Grandsire Caters were rung on Mr. Barker's new peal of handbells by Meesrs, W. Hazell, A D. Barker, F. G. Symonds, J. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas.

SIX NEW BELLS AT CANONBURY. DEDICATION SERVICE.

The first anniversary of the signing of peace was honoured at St. Paul's, Essex Road, Canonbury, by the dedication and inauguration of a clime of six bells, which marks the thankoffering of the church for victory and peace. A large congregation attended the special ser-vice. The first lesson was read by the Rev. John Pitts minister of Salter's Holl, Essex Road, and the second by the Rev. Hugh Parry, minister of Harecourt Chapel. Prayers were said by the Rev. T. Hope Steen, Vicar of St. Matthew's Church. In the gallenes were the children of St. Paul's day schools, and previous to the sermon they

The sermon was by the Rev. H. Foster Pegg, M.A. Vicar and Rural Dean, of Battersea, from a pulpit that was draped with the Union

OXFORD GUILD.

MEETING AT CHALPONT ST. PETER.

A pleasant little summer tune gathering of ringers of the Oxford Guild took place in the picturesque parish of Chalfont St. Peter, when evening service was held at the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. C. S. A. Whittington), -- Canon Coleridge, who made a long jonrney from Canleigh, by rail and cycle, fave an audress of much value and interest to the ringing craft, founded upon the three bell work of the favourite method of the late Masler of the Guild. and the lesson of the Holy Trinity thereby conveyed to all Churchmen. Tea was provided at the Church Room, the windows overlooking the churchy ard adjoining, with the old brick tower smilingly looking down upon the company as much as to say. 'Don't be too long over the tea cups, there are other tongues that need wagging.' About 30 mombers were present from some 14 towers of the branch.

and the kindness of the ringers and Vicar in giving hospitality was much appreciated.—The Vicar said how pleased he was to we to me them to Chalfont, and regretted to say he had lost the help of the Rev. J. F. Aimes, who was not able to be present after making pre-paration for this meeting, and looking forward to it as a sort of farewill before taking up duties at Chesterfield. He also referred to the work of Mr. Stone (foreman) and Mr. Gutteridge (instructor) in and all those who had helped to make the party welcome and happy, to which Canon Coleridge and Mr. Stone replied.

The Branch Secretary took the opportunity to remind the company f the annual Guild Festival, to be held at Reading on 24th July Also that the Rector of Hitcham and a team of 13 ringers had joined the branch the previous week (applause), so that the towers now totalled 33.

The belfry, a spacious one for so small a church, was well patronised from tea-time till 9 o'clock by the ladies, viz., the Misses Fuller, Ceoper, Gudgin, Feltham, Williams (conductor), and Patrick, who rang their six-score; and by the gentleman who rang their Cambridge, 'Brummagein' George was present to pay tribute to the shrine of George was present to pay tribute to the shrine of bis ancestors, for Buel's lays claim to him as much as Rugby. Nech-less to say that Sergeant Major Minor and Miss Captivating Doubles were loudly announced to the world at large on this eventful day in the reign of King Charles I., which Bucks upheld on Oak Apple Day.

A short service was held in the old Stockton Parish Church at noon, at which the Rev. E. A. Douglas, M.A. (Vicar of (hurden up noor, at anost interesting and instructive address upon the aucient church and the bells, some of which date back more 200 years. He explained the meaning of several of the stained glass windows, and also the carvings on the paw ends. One is especially interesting, from a ring ers' point, having a bell, wheel and rope, just in the position of striking the last peal in commemoration to the late Mr. G. J. Clarkion, a gentleman who was one of the first to infro-duce change ringing into the North, and also first president of the Association.

Lunch was provided at the Spread Eagle Hotel Stockton, the president (the Rev. J. L. Kyle) being in the chair, and presiding over the meeting which followed. The loyal toast was honoured with enthusiasm and afterwards the secretary presented the report and balance sheet, which showed that the work of the association had been at a standstill during the years 1916-19 on account of the great war. Twenty-four members made the supreme sacrifice, and about 10 members had been engaged in the great conflict. The balance sheet showed a balance at the bank of £50 8s. Votes of thanks to the Vicar of Stockton for his address and use of the bells, also to the Vicars of Thornaby and Middlesborough for the use of the bells at their churches were carried.

Votes of thanks were also accorded to the retiring officers for their services from the year 1915.

MIDLAND COUNTIES' ASSOCIATION

The post-war revival shown by the Midland Counties' Association in its highly-successful meeting at Loughborough must be most gratitying to all concerned. To some extent the M.C.A. occupies a unique position. We are not sure that its 'sphere of influence' is geographically the largest of the territorial organisations—the Yorkshire Association may cover more acres—but it covers a most important district, with many big industrial centres, and links up quite a number of counties. Its activities extend over the county of Leicestershire and considerable portions of Derbyshire, Notts and Rutland, while it brings in also portions of Staffordshire and Warwick. Its influence is wide and its scope is large; but, putting aside the special attractions which Loughborough offers to ringers, an attendance of nearly 250 at a quarterly meeting is something to be proud of, and not only sets the seal to the popularity of the Association, but is a guarantee of its present prosperity, and a matter of great promise for its future success.

Two points were raised during the meeting which are of interest to every ringer, and one of them has often been a bone of contention. The attendance of ringers at church after ringing for service is a subject which, to some extent, ringers get rather tired of hearing about, for, whenever the opportunity occurs, it is the unfailing theme of the clergy. There are many degrees of opinion among the ringers themselves, and most of the arguments are by this time worn threadbare. There is, however, a broad view which may very well be put forward without going to either extreme. Those who take up the art of ringing in these days are, or ought to be, churchmen from conviction. As churchmen they have a desire, and they also recognise that they have a duty to join in the services of worship in their church. Let ringers honestly discharge the dictates of conscience as churchmen and no one, we think, can find fault with them.

The other matter which the M.C.A. discussed was a very practical one, and that was the advisability of placing a 'Ringing Master' in charge of the tower on the occasion of a meeting, to obviate that very unfortunate practice, which some conductors are prone to when they find themselves in charge of a band, of long touches to the exclusion of other ringers. Nothing is more thoughtless than for a ringer to keep the bells going for a long length while others are waiting for a turn at the ropes. If no one is officially in charge of the ringing on the occasion of general gatherings of ringers, the selfish conductor gets his chance -and generally avails himself of it. A 'Ringing Master,' if only appointed for the meeting, could casily regulate the (Continued on page 346.)

This is the first anniversary on which it has been possible to arrange a muffled peal, the Church of Ranmoor being selected, as it was here that the first Battalion Church Parades from camp were held in December, 1914, and here many of those who served worshipped in civil life.

METHOD 'SPLICING.' To the Editor.

Sir,-Your remarks in the leading article of July 2nd make me think that it is high time that Scafield Alliance was put in print, so I am writing to ask you to make room for it. It is the composition of O. W. Woolley, and he first brought it to my notice before he turned twelve years old. To obtain a soven hundred it must be united with hith Redu. The rule is simple. The method spliced with Little Bob. The rule is simple. The methods must be changed every time a single is called. All seven hundreds of Bob Minor go true. I may mention that Woolley has produced at vast number of those Alliance methods.

May I also call the attention of our six-bell friends to the 720's which do not come round? They afford possibilities of new domboditions for peal ringing. In the amesed figures you ring 720 true change, of Cam-bridge and start your next 720 from 34256. Is you ring three such 720's to start your peal, the fourth 720 will start from rounds an usual,

Yours truly,

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION. THE INCREASED SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The June meeting of the above was held at Lightcliffe, when about 40 members and friends attended, representing 15 towers. The bells, a usel of airbit, with town 20 with wars the offer one to a former the offer one. a peal of eight, with tenor 20 owts, were rung during the afternoon and evening in short touches of Kent, Stedman and Double Norwich. and evening in short touches of Kent, Stedman and Double Norwich. Tea was partaken of in the Schools, and followed by the usual busi-ness meeting. Mr. P. J. Johnson was in the chair, supported by the Rev. H. L. Taylor (Vicar of Lightcliffe). Letters of apology for ab-sence were read from the Rev. C. C. Marshull and Mr. G. Bolland. The place for the September meeting was brought forward; the Chairman said Mr. Bolland, on behalf of the Tong complany, had ex-pressed a desire that the September meeting should be a combined one of the whole of the Association, and invited the members to Tong on Saturday. Sept. 11th.—This was put to the meeting, and uRam-mousky cassed. mously passed.

The Chairman then made a few remarks upon the increased sub-scriptions. He mentioned the fact that they come into operation at once, and those that had paid this year's contributions would now have to pay another 6d., while life members joining in 1866 and after must now pay the same as current members joining in 1000 and after must now pay the same as current members. A vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar and wardens for the use of the bells and schools, and the Vicar, in renlying said it was a great pleasure to meet the members at Lighteliffe, and was sorry the bells did not give the satisfaction they should, and hoped the members would have very pleasant memories of their visit to Lightcliffe. The vote of blanks to the local company and ladies who prepared the ten was responded to by Mr. J. Lawson.-The tower was again visited, and further ringing brought the meeting to a close.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

A most successful and enjoyable monthly meeting of the Warwick Guild was held at Berkswell on June 19th, members and friends to the number of 36 being present from Allesley, Berkswell, Coventry, Emscote, Erdington, Knowle, Nuneaton, Solihull, Sutton Coldfield, and Warwick. Doubles and various Minor methods were rung, and a short service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector, the Rev Canon Back (president of the Guild). The members were afterwards eniartained to tea by Canon and Mrs. Back, and a hearty vote of tharks was accorded to them, on the motion of the Ringing Master (Mr & Roberts) for their kind basultality to which both Canon Back (Mr. A. Roberts) for their kind hospitality, to which both Canon Back and Mrs. Back replied oxpressing the pleasure it gave them to wel-come the members to Berkswell. The tower was again visited in the evening.

ENCOURAGING SIX-BELL RINGERS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Owing to the great bereavement that has just befallen me in the death of my dear wife, I hardly feel in the humeur or mood to enter into any controversy; but I cannot let Mr. Dexter's letter pass without comment, for there are many statements therein wholly unjustifiable. My previous letter simply stated facts in relation to the six-bell towers, as I find them in this district, and mentioned no individual or society's name.

Mr. Dexter must remember St. Martin's is not the only society in Leicester, and I should, therefore, like to know who authorised him to answer for all the city! He says that for every eight and 10-bell peal I rang with his society a first-class ringer stood out. This is a deliberate lie, and he knows it. When we began practising the higher methods, I was one of the original band, and—as such—asked to take part in their peals. This band was not entirely St. Martin's Society, as they could not find sufficient at that time to make up either for practice or peals. Every peal Mr. Dexter quotes was made up by the combined companies of St. Martin's, St. Margaret's, St. George's, and others outside the city.

As for the chances, Mr. Dexter gives to others outside his own society —since he mentions it—let him say how many companies have been allowed the use of St. Martin's bells since he got into the saddle. How many conductors have called peak there? The answer to both questions is not one. Mr. Dexter should be a good judge of 'self glorification,' for his whole letter teems with it in order to belittle me, who did nothing but assist when asked. If there is any glorification I feel due to me, it is the knowledge that my record shows '39 first pealers,' and as near as I can ascertain '62 first in the method,' which I have personally conducted. These figures compare very favourably with his society's, which he frankly admits I figure prominently in.

society's, which he frankly admits I figure prominently in. Mr. Dexter says his society should be grateful for the 'help 'i gave, but that they are not. I need none of their gratitude, it means nothing to me. I should, however like to hear the riews of the other members of that society on the subject—not the present company, augmented recently by ringers from elsewhere—but the original hand who first practised together and referred to above. Mr. Dexter finally states that his letter was written to correct an impression flux the eight and 10 bell societies of Leicester owe their successes to no. This is absolute piffle and senseless. Their reputation was made (as hislory shows) long before either he or I were thought of.

Knowing my present bereavement, almost any other ringers would have either communicated with me direct, or better still, have seen me personally, if they thought they had a grievance, instead of artacking me in this unmanly fashion. Such is the fellowship of agsociation.

I still, however, maintain that the six-bell towers are sadly neglected around Leicester—the same as in other districts, from whom I have received several letters supporting my views, and it is up to the lowers with higher numbers (backed up by the associations) to give them help and encouragement.—Yours sincerely, 24, Coventry Street, Leicester.

ASHFORD DISTRICT CELEBRATES PEACE ANNIVERSARY.

A very cordial invitation having been extended to the members of the Ashford District by the Vioar (the Rev. S. K. Lockyear) to visit Brabourne on July 3rd to commenorate the anniversary of the siguing of peace, about 40 members accepted; and, needless to say, spent a most enjoyable time. Touches of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Plau Bob Minor and Stedman and Grandsire Doubles were rung during the afternoon, and a special service was held in the church.—The Vicar officiated, and a very instructive address was given by the Rev. Carus-Wilson, curate of Aldington, on good fellowship and brotherhood. Mr. W. E. Pitman, Mus.Bac., presided at the organ, and a collection was made on behalf of the local tower restoration fund.

The Vicar entertained the visitors to a bountiful (as in the Vicarage grounds, and with Mrs. Lockycar and a band of willing helpors, including the local ringers' wives, waited upon the company. The Vicar was heartly thanked for his kind invitation and generous hearticity, and in a repla entrance.

LOWESTOFT'S NEW BELLS.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM.

DO ENGLISHMEN TAKE THEIR PLEASURES SADLY?

It was very wet on Saturday. July 3rd, when the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham held its summer meeting at Perry Barr. Nevertheless more than fifty members braved the elements, and an exceedingly enjoyable meeting resulted.

Perry Barr (in Domesday ' Pirco) lies about three miles north of the City, on the River Tame, and is fortunate in having retained its agricultural character almost unspoiled. Hereabouts the Tame forms the City boundary, and the church itself and the old cottages comprising what is called ' Perry Village ' are just outside the boundary.

The Church of St. John is a building in the Gothic style, and its low western tower contains a ring of eight, tenor 13 ewt. in F sharp, by Taylor, put in 1868 to the memory of the 4th Lord Caliborpe. It is quite a little country alturch, lighted to this day by oil lamps, so that it is difficult to imagine one is so close to 'the workshop of the world.' The Guild's Form of Service was held at 4.15, the Vicar (the Rev. Cocil H. Watts Reod, M.A.), giving an excellent and most appropriate address, taking his text from Numbers x. During the reverend gentleman's discourse the ' country ' effect was heightened by the music of a mowing nucleus operating in a hayfield a stone's throw away.

Then was held in the old village Schoolroom, and was very kindly provided by the local members, who have an enthusiastic leader, in the person of Mr. George Mikhieson. This gentleman was indefatigable in his efforts to make everyone comfortable, and with a willing band of helpers he easily succeeded.

Alderman J. S. Fritchett, M.A., presided at the business meeting following, at which seven new members were elected, including four of the local band viz.: Messrs, Maurice Watts Read (son of the Vicar) Eric Weston, R. C. Ingram and F. W. Richworth. The Vicar was elected an hon, member. At the conclusion of the business, the Chairman proposed that a hearty rote of thanks be accorded to the Rev. Watts Read for the use of his bells, for his inspiring address, and for his presence at the meeting; to the organist and members of the choir for their welcome assistance in the musical portions of the service; and to Mr. Geo. Mitcheson and his hand for their kindness in providing an excellent tea and making the necessary arrangements. In acknowleding the vote of thanks, the Vicar said he felt honoured

In acknowleding the vote of thanks, the Vicar soid he felt honoured by being elected a member of the Guild, and although he was not a ringer himself he had given two of his sons to the cause, one of whom was a member of the local band. He would be delighted to have them at Perry Barr, when their turn again came round.

The Secretary then said that the Guild had received a handsome gift from their good friend, Mr. Albert A. Hughes, of London, ' as a token of his appreciation of the Guild and its work, and of its ever cordial welcome to visitors.' The gift took the form of a peal of 12 handhells in B flat, and the tenor had been suitably inscribed since their receipt. Lond cheers greeted this announcement, and a vote of thanks was enthusiastically passed to the generous donor. More will be heard of them anon.

Afterwards the Guild was requested to 'open's new peal of 12 hundbells acquired by the local band, and this was done by the following members ringing a touch (three courses) of Stedmap Cinques: A. Paddon Smith 1-2, A. Walker 3-4, J. E. Groves (conductor) 5-6, T. Russam 7-8, J. F. Smalbwood 9-10, Morris J. Morris 11-12. The bells are a beautiful lot tenor size 17 in A, and reflect great credit on their makers, Messrs. Barwell, and on Mr. T. Miller in particular. The latter linen called 305 of Grandsire Caters rung by P. O. Lafin 1-2, W. Kent 3-4, J. F. Smallwood 5-6, T. Miller 7-8, A. Norman 9-10.

This was followed by the star turn of the evening, when the little son of Mr. Laffin, Percy O., junr., rang 5-6 to a course of Bob Minor This boy is only 7 years of age, quite an infant prodigy! We gather that this young gentleman is also taking an interest in tapping, and we would advise the dulcimer experts to look to their laurels, lest ' a little child shell lead them '!

little child shall lead them '! Later on, in ' another place,' a room having been reserved, the handhells were again requisitioned, and touches of Stedman Cinques, Triples and Caters, and selections of tunes were performed.

At times the place was not as quiet as it might have been, wit the result that the saveral conductors had on occasions to raise their rolces somewhat. This browglit up Mr. Tom Miller with one of his characteristic remarks, uttered in his own inimitable style, and in his own his very own—descriptive vernacular. He was on one occasion ringing in a twelve-bell tower, and they had been ringing rounds for reveral minutes, when the conductor, who was next to him, 'discomposed 'him entirely by hawling out, 'Gow, Stedman Cinques, Bawb, in such style, said Mr. Miller, that it was just like ' bosting a tenpenny ball'!

After this the company was not at all disposed to be serious, ancedotes of ringing and old ringers filling in the remainder of the evening.

And we were not very sad either; in fact, the answer to the question at the loginning of this article is a decided negativo. A. P. S.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION. QUARTERLY MEETING AT LOUGHBOROUGH.

Ever since the Association made the town of bell-founding fame a district of its own, it has been the most popular of meetius places The first year of the war saw the M.C.A. in low water, and at the Loughborough meeting of 1914-the last previous gathering-many thought the golden days of ringers' reunions were over. But we were mistaken, Loughborough has risen again like a phonix When the rumour went round that Messrs, Taylor, with their acentroned generosity, were giving open house to all, it was not a of ' Who's going to Loughboro'? but the reverse. Tell it not in Gath or Leicester, publish it not in the streets of Beeston-or Nottingham' There's no need, but nearly 50 per cent, of the members made a raid on Loughborough in the small hours of Saturday afternoon, July 3rd, and created a record-for a M.C.A. meeting. Like an army of invaders, they came from all parts, from Manchester on the north side to Cambridge on the south. Thunder and lightning did not stop them. Pooh! What mattered storm and tempest when a visit to the bell foundry, where Harry Withers, of Birmingham. ' thumped the box of dominoes,' a ring on a glorious peal of ten bells, and (xofily) a free meat tes awaited! True it ' put the wind up ' the caterer, but he bravely stood his ground, and-although the Victoria Cross may have been awarded for lesser deeds-he had the satisfaction of seeing -and hearing-236 sets of teeth in thorough working order. The Rector of Loughborough was away from home, but the curate of ...1 Soints' (the Rev. C. Elliott) supported the president (Ald. R. B. Chambers), as did the churchwardens also the Rev. S. Rhys Williams, of Stanford Mesers, E. Donison and Mr. Pryce Taylor while Mrs. R. B. Chembers graced the fertive board boside her estremed husband. The business meeting immediately followed. The chairman gave a ine, Though of a number work, and spoke of the great revival of ring-ine, Though ook a numberal ringer by was, practical morker, and his work far in matter hepperary members for the Association. In this connection it may be said that owing to the activity of the pressdent the M.C.A. hes reached what is up to the present a high-water mark with its finances

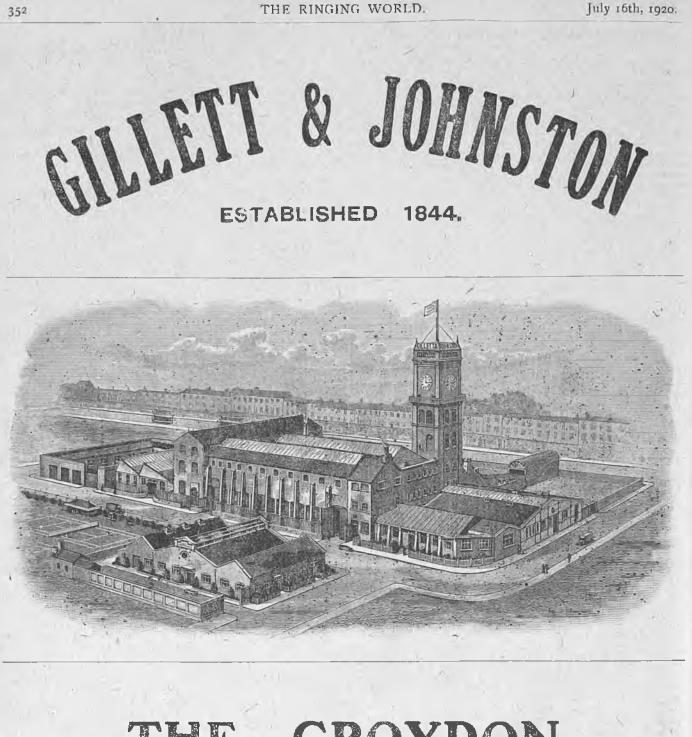

Thirty-nine honorary and 33 ringing members were elected, on the proposition of Mr. J. Swinfield, seconded by Mr. A. Ballard.

A discussion arose regarding the ringing of long touches on meeting days to the restriction of opportunities of others who wished to ring and were not thereby afforded a chance to do so.—Mr. W. E. White suggested that, someone should be put in charge of the befry to see that all had their opportunity.—This was seconded and carried. In passant, it may be easier said than done. Where a change ringer is steeple keeper, there is usually equality of opportunity, and it would be unwise and difficult to override his authority, but a practical change ringer ought to be at all times the Ringing Master. Probably the airing of the grievance will solve it.

Mr. Joseph Griffin, many years secretary to the Association in its early days, moved a heavy vote of thanks to Messrs. Taylor for their generosity in providing the tea.—Mr. Wm. Wilson, hon. treasurer seconded, saying some in the room would look backwards to when 'Old Mr. John Taylor ' was at the head, then to young Mr. John-afterwards president, and now to Mr. Denison Taylor. Faces passed away with years, but their hospitality did not pass away (applause). As it was in the beginning of the M.C.A., is now, and as long as the centre of attraction—the bell foundry—remained, Loughborough would hold the foremost place in their thoughts.—This motion was carried with acclamation, after Mrs. Chambers had added a charming tribute to Messrs. Taylor, instancing a certain episode in which she was interested.—Mr. Denison Taylor feelingly responded.

The Chairman moved a vote of thanks to the clergy for the use of the bells, and for their presence, seconded by Mr. H. E. Norman. In his reply the Rev. Rhys Williams (Stanford) said he sometimes thought that the ringers were hardly consistent in calling others to church. In a racy and humorous speech, he said he had noticed wi one eve sometimes, the ringers slink out of church instead of practising what they preached, i.e., calling folk to worship. He said he knew ringers couldn's always be in church, but the force of example was badly needed to-day; therefore, play the game, stand by the church, as well as the church bells, and he as Rector would always welcome them.—Mr W E.White said he thought there was good retson why some ringers did not stop to church. They had to root down,' and when they got down to clearch they found all the best seats filled.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman and to Mrs. Chambers was moved by Mr. W. Willson, seconded by Mr. H. E. Norman, and carried unanimously, after which the bells of the Parish Church (10), the Foundry tower (8) and Stanford (8) were again called into action until a late hour. Some patronised the busy market-place, some ' a place within the meaning of the Act.' where they rang the long peal over again between the intervals of the liquid nourishment, but all acreed that.' Loughborough will take some beating.' And so ay all of us.

AIT. 3. Branney was infantionally voted to the chain, and experimonsly discharged the duties entrusted to him. The report and balance sheet were read and passed and ordered is he printed. net with little or no opposition, and was accordingly agreed by. A suggestion was made that members on ringing a peal should pay 6d, per head as a booking fee. Some discussion took place, and when put to the vote the motion was lost.

The following places were chosen for the coming meeting: Tazaworth (September) Willenhall (January), Sedgley (April), and the annual (June) at Lichfield.

It was thought advisable that the war memorial—in the form of printed cards suitable for framing with a list of members who gave their lives, together with the names of their contrades who were for-tunate enough to return—should not be dealt with at the present time on account of the high cost of printing. A statement was made regarding the 'Rowland Cartwright Memorial' Fund. AN UNSYMPATHETIC DEAN.

What, to the majority of ringers, will seem a strange attitude, has been adopted by the Dean of Wells towards the scheme to place in Well's Cathedral the memorial to the fallen members of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association. A simple tablet recording the names of the 54 members who made the supreme sacrifice was proposed, but, apparently, the Dean desired something much more elaborate and ambitious, and refused his consent unless the scheme included the filling of a vacant niche in the Cathedral with a statue. A memorial of this kind was beyond the reach of the ringers, and, the Dean refusing to give way, the upshot has been that arrangements have been made for the tablet to be placed in Bath Abbey.

Happily, the various war memorial schemes which ringing associations in other parts of the country have promoted have been received in a much more sympathetic spirit than that shown by the Dean of Wells, and we think the Association was fully justified in the dignified resolution of protest which was passed at the annual meeting the other day. The ringers, who are a diocesan organisation connected with the work of the Church, and in no way to be treated in such a matter as an outside body like the Freemasons, whose memorial the Dean proposes to accept because they are prepared to erect a statue in accordance with his desire, are entitled to look upon the Cathedral as their mother church, and they have strong claims over any unsectarian body to preferential treatment in a matter of this kind. It may be a laudable desire on the part of the Dean to further beautify the interior of the grand old building now under his care, but it scarcely shows appreciation of the sacrifice which these fallen ringers made-ringers who lived simple lives and died the simple death of heroes-to refuse the simple memorial which their fellows desire to erect.

Moreover, the making of prohibitive conditions shows a poor recognition of the work which, Sunday by Sunday, year in, year out, the ringers of the Bath and Wells Diocese are doing in the interests of the Church, of which the Dean is a pillar.' His treatment of the Association in this matter, it was complained, was very much like his method of dealing with them in the past, when the members have been desirous of holding meetings in the Cathedral city. The fact that the Association have decided not to meet at Wells in the near future, as had been their intention, will probably not greatly disturb the Dean, but it may impress upon him that the protest is something more than mere words-that it is backed by the unanimous feeling of the members. The Dean's attitude is in striking contrast to what has happened in many other places, and, as far as we are aware, is, happily, an isolated instance of its kind.

Before ascending the church tower, from the summit of which could be plainly seen Peterborough, Crowlend Abber Lingoin and Ele Cathodala ar Crowland Abbey, Lincoln and Ely Cathedrals, an inspection was made of the interior of this well-kept church, which is in the Decorated etyle. SAFFRON WALDEN RINGING DAY.

A district meeting of the North Western Division, Essex Association, A district meeting of the North Western Division, Essex Association, was held at Saffron Wilden on Saturday, June 26th, combined with the 29th anniversary of Saffron Walden Soujety's 'Great Ringing Day.' Ringing commenced at 9 o'clock, with two courses of Cam-bridge Surprise Major, and finished in the evening with four beauti-fully struck courses of Stedman Cinques by the local company, and during the day various tonches on tower and haudbells were rung. Visitors came from Bishon's Stortford, Barley, Cambridge, Ickleton, London, Royston, Rickling, Sawston, Stansted, etc. At noon a short course was held conducted by the senior cursts (the Barl G. Montaru service was held, conducted by the senior curate (the Rev. G. Montagu Benton), who gave an interesting address on the history of Saffron Benton), who gave an interesting address on the history of Saffron Walden Society, stating that undoubtedly there was ringing in 1623. The first publication of any record of scientific ringing was in a local paper, that ' on Cluristmas Day, 1753, John Holt's one-part peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in 3 hrs. 20 mins., conducted by Charles Baron,' and stating, ' this is the first time this peal has been rung without the use of manuscript.' Two peaks of Bob Major were rung in 1812, and Double Norwich and 1,500 Superactive Surprise and 1845. Without a doubt these were unique performances for that and Double Norwich and 1,600 Superlative Surprise' Major m period. Mr. Benton also spoke of the great power in the music of hells in reminding us of the life hereafter.

At 4 o'clock adjournment was made to the Abbey Temperance Hotel,

At a o clock augumment was made to the hobey remperance Hotel, where a substantial meat tea was provided by Host Scottney, to which 32 sat down, and this was followed by the usual business. The Master, Mr. F. Pitstow, in welcoming the visitors, thanked them for coming and making the day so enjoyable.—Votes of thanks were accorded to Mr. Benton for his address; the Vicar (the Rev. L. Hughes) for the use of the bells; Mrs. Leverett for presiding at the organ; and last, but not least, the choir-boys who had given up their play hour to be present.

We are asked to state that the Rev. G. Montagu Benton, of Safiron Walden, is anxious to write the annals of the Walden ringers, and would be very grateful if ringers could supply him with information relating to the earlier performances of this company.

The following towers were represented, namely, Pullborough, Billingshurst, Slinfold, Heene, and the local band. Amongst the visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Hazelden of Guildfold; Miss Fisher, of Dorking; Messrs, Dean and Marner, Leatherhead. Some very good touches in the Standard Methods were rung, the ladies taking part. At 5 o'clock fit sat down to a substan-tial tea at the Sussex Oak Inn.

At the business meeting which followed, Mr. P. Doick was voted, to the chair. After the minutes were read and confirmed, it was pro-posed to hold the next quarterly meeting at Pulborough at the end of September. The usual vote of thanks were tendered to Mr. Doick for presiding, Mr. Woodman for making the necessary arrangements; when the View Car B. B. Servett, M. t. The members very much regret to learn of a serious accident to Mr. H. LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

A Grinsby district meeting of the above Guild was held at Thornton Curtis on Saturday July 5th (by the kind invitation of the new Vicar. the Rev. Dr. Cocking), in the place of a meeting at Louth abandoned owing to the great calamity. Various touches of Minor were rung on the bells, and a short service for ringers was held in the church, the Guild form being used. The ringers were then invited to tea by the Vicar's wife and ladies of the village.

A meeting followed, presided over by the vice-president (the Rev. H. T. Parry, Rector of Bigby), and attended by 39 members from surrounding towers.—In replying to a vote of thanks for the use of the bells, the Vicar gave an interesting address about the church and bells, the former having been connected with Thornton College Abbey For about seven hundred years. He was alraid he would be the last Vicar of a long line extending from the 12th century.

A vote of sympathy was accorded to the District Ringing Master Mr. J. W. Seamer, on his recent accident, and Mr. Seamer, who was present, said he would do his best again for ringers as soon as it was possible.—A vote of thanks to the ladics for providing the tea and to the Chairman concluded a successful meeting.

NORTHAM BELLS DEDICATED BY KING'S OHAPLAIN.

The rededication and reopening of the bells of Northam, where the work has been carried out mest efficiently by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, took place recently. The old peal of six has been recast and two trebles added, the dedication being performed by the Very Rev. the Dean of Windsor (Dr. A. V. Baillie), Registrar of the Order of the Garter and Chaplain to the King. The living of Northam is in the gift of the Dean, and Chaplain to the King. is in the gift of the Dean and Canons of Windsor, is in the gift of the Dean and Canons of Windsor. The two now bells were given, one in memory of Miss Stella Temple by her mother, and the other by Mrs. Brayley-Brayley in memory of her bushand, Mr. George Brayley-Brayley, of Wellesbourne Northam. Miss Temple, who was a very well-known golfer and a fine sports-woman, did exceptionally good work with the Red Cross in France, and died last year from illness contracted on service. There is an inscription on each of the new bells, that on the treble being: 'To the glory and praise of God, and in Memory of Stella Temple, 1919.'

The original peal of six bells was cast by Thos. Bilbie of Cullomp-ton, 1770, and the original inscriptions have been retained, with the addition of the fact of their being recust in 1920 during the vicariate of the Rev. G. Payne Cook. The old inscription on the fenor bell is:---

In tuneful peals your joys I'll tell, Your griefs I'll publish in a knell.

The recasting and rehanging has cost £1,100, practically the whole of which has been raised. The recopening of the bells on Saturday week was taken part in by 50 ringers from Northam Barnstaple Parish Church, Pilton, Bideford, Appledore, Abbotsham and Westleigh. The ringers were entertained to tea by the Vicar, who warmly thanked them for their attendance. Unfortunately, owing to the inclement weather, an outdoor fete and programme of sports which had been arranged had to be postponed.

In the evening a very successful dance was held in the Schoolroom. There was a large congregation on Sunday morning at the dedica-tion service, which opened with the processional hymn, ' God of Glory, King of Nations.' After Psalm xl., and the Lesson (1 Chron. xxix. 9-14) read by the Rev. Evolyn Smith, and the Jubilate Deo, the Dean, clergy and churchwardens proceeded to the entrance of the palfor interpreted by the Rev. the Dean, clergy and church wardens proceeded to the enfrance of the belfry, where the Dean, at the request of the Vicar, impressively dedi-cated the bells in the words, 'I hereby solemnly set apart and re-dedicate these six bells, and dedicate these two bells newly presented. to the Glory of God, and the use of this Church.' The bells were rung as the Dean and Chapter returned to the chancel. After the prayers in connection with the coremony and the hymn:

Lifted gently in the Tower. Now our Bells are set on high, had been sung by choir and congregation, the Choral Eucharist was conducted by the Vicar. An impressive and thoughtful sermon was preached by the Dean of Windsor, taking as his text Rom. xvi, 1: For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth.

NEW BELLS.

THREE DEDICATIONS IN ONE DAY

On Sunday week, dedications took place at no less than three churches of new bells cast at the Whitechapel Foundry and hung by Messrs, Mears and Stainbank. These included a new peal of eight (tenor 11 cwt.), at Heathfield, two new trebles to make a peal of ten at Christ Church, Southgate, where the back eight were refung, and two trobles at North Mymms, Herts.

In addition, on the preceding Thursday the reopening took place after relanging, of the peal of six at Holy Trinity. Barking Road, E Messrs. Mears and Stainbank have also just rehung with new fittings and framework, the peal of six at St. Mabyn, Cornwall, while at Cal-verley, Yorks, they have recast the fifth and rehung the peal of eight, and the utmost satisfaction has been expressed at the admirable way in which the work has been carried out.

THE NEW BELLS AT SOUTHGATE.

On Sunday, July 11th, the fifty-eighth anniversary of the dedication of Christ Church, Southgate, the Bishop of London during the morning service dedicated the two new bells which have been added to the peal of eight at this church. The new bells have been presented as a mamorial to the late Mr. Arthur Rowland Barker and his wife, Ada Barker (Mr. Barker was a churchwarden for over thirty years), by their children, and were cast and hung by Messrs. Mears and Stain-hank, of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry. The treble (5 cwt. 1 qr. 20 lb.) is inscribed: 'Sursun Corda ' (Lift up your hearts) and the 2nd (6 cwt. 1 qr. 20 lb.), ' Gratias agamus Domino Deo Nostro ' (Let us give thanks unto our Lord God).

The Bishop having formally handed the ropes of the two bells to the Vicar of the Farish, the Rev. C. F. Peploe, M.A., L.Th., the aug-mented peal was rung in rounds for a few minutes by the local rungers, and at the conclusion of the service touches were rung. The bells were The bells were also rung for the afternoon service, and before and after the evening Several visitors from neighbouring towers and the country service. took part in the ringing during the afternoon and evening, the methods rung being Grandsire and Stedman Caters, Bob and Kent Treble. Bob Royal.

The ringers and parishioners were unanimous as to the splendid splice which the founders have effected, and it was felt that the fame Southgate already held in respect of its peal of eight bells would be enhanced by the increase to ten.

The Vicar and churchwardens have taken the opportunity to have the original eight bells rehung, and the 'go' of the bells is excellent. A new steel frame for two bells has been fixed above the existing wooden frame, in which the new treble and the old second bell have been hung, and this arrangement has enabled the founders to effect a splendid circle for the ten ropes. The cost of rehanging and restora-tion of the bells is being borne by the parishioners.

NORTH MYMMS BELLS.

The two new hells at St. Mary's Church, North Mymms, Herts were dedicated on Sunday, July 11th, by the Archdeacon of St. Albans, who addressed a large congregation from 1 Corinthians x. 31, 'Whatso-ever ye do, do all to the glory of God.' The bells were rung after service, and Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated on making a splendid splice, the bells being perfectly in tune.

On Saturday, July 17th, an opening meeting was held when ringers were present from Southgate' Brockley, Luton, St. Albans, Harpenden, were present from Southgate' Brockley, Luton, St. Albans, Harpenden, Hertford, Edmonton, and the local tower. The methods rung were: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob 'Major, Kent and Oxford, Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Superlative. Tea was kindly provided by the Vicar (the Rev. C. G. Ward), who is a ringer himself and is to be found in the belfry at every opportunity he gets. Everyone was pleased with the tone and 'go ' of the bells.—Mr. B. Jarman (Har-penden) moved a vote of thanks to the Vicar for providing the visitors with tea and for the use of the bells and the Vicar, in reply, said that he hoped that was only one of the many times they would meet in the tower. in the tower.

SURREY ASSOCIATION.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Central District was held at Dork-A very enjoyable meeting of the Central District was need at Dors-ing and Ranmore Common on Saturday last, when about 25 members and friends attended. Some of the party, who went to Rammore, were well repaid for the climb by a few touches on the lovely peal of eight at St. Barnabas'. Owing to a late start, those who went there were unfortunately too late for the service at Dorking, kindly arranged by the Vicar (the Rev. Canon E. A. Chichester), which was rather poorly attended attended.

The tea and business meeting was held at the Wheatsheaf Inn, where Mr. Dodd had made splendid arrangements. Mr. E. Weatherby, o. Dorking, was elected a member of the Association, and Mitcham was chosen for the next quarterly meeting in October. A vote of thanks to the Rector of Ranmore and the Vicar of Dorking for the use of the bells, and to Mr. Dodd for making all arrangements, was proposed by the Master (Mr. J. D. Drewett), and carried unanimously

The bells at St. Martin's were made good use of in the evening, when several touches, from Grandsire to Double Norwich, were much enjoyed by the visitors.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

SUCCESS OF THE DISTRICT SCHEME.

The annual festival of the Hereford Diocesan Guild was held at Leominster, when the members assembled at the Priory Church and took part in a service arranged by the Vicar Rev. R. Gillenders, M.C. Archdeacon Maude, of Shrewsbury, gave an able address. He was sure they would agree with him when he said that those who were sure they would agree with him when he said that those who were getting on in years had seen and were seeing, great improvements in all connected with their belfries, and it was quite time. As Arch-deacon for 21 years in North Shronshire, he had visited many belfries, and he had seen great changes in the lofts into which he used to creep in some mysterious way as a boy, and it was very difficult to get into some of them at all. Some belfries were reached by stone stairs, and others be crear lodders many define a grant area. others by crazy ladders planted on equally crazy floors. In the belfry they usually saw a huge pile of sticks, straws feathers, and other rubbish, the indefatigable work of jackdaws, but, speaking generally. rubbish, the inderatigable work of jackdaws, but speaking generals, there had been a great cleaning up. Incumbents, as a rule, held the key of the belfry, but they did not see to-day what used to be a common-place. When asked for the key the incumbent used to say that he would lend it, but informed the visitor that he would find a great mess up there, adding that he had never been up there himself. great mess up there, adding that he had never been up there himself. He considered archdeacons had a duty to perform, and should go up and see that the structure and the bells were all right. Nothing used to give him greater pleasure than to find a well-cared-for belfry, used by good Englishmen who had a pride for their calling. It was just this change that he had spoken of that a guild of bellringers could bring about and have such an influence for word. Aften simplers duty the model halfer, they second the think a grind of berringers had visited a model belfry they seemed to think good. After ringers had visited a model belfry they seemed to think that it was time to set their own house in order. Dealing with the historical interest attached to church bells, the Archdetcon said no one knew for certain when they were first introduced into our Christian churches, but large bells were comparatively recent in origin, the carliest being found in Normandy (1211). Bells had had an influence on the architecture of our churches more than anything else and they and, above all, they had formed a grand English tradition. A ringer was often proud to say that his father and his grandfather before him had been a ringer in the church. In conclusion, he asked that the members of this diocesan guild might always live worthy of their vocation. As they were the means of summoning other people to worship, he appealed to them not to fail to be regular worshippers themselves. he appeared to them not to fail to be regular worshippers themselves. He asked them to realise that there was a dignity about their calling, and to try to so live that their lives had got the ring of true, honest, and clean Christian men in them. A few minutes of silent prayer in remembrance of the members of the Guild who had fallen in the Great War followed the singing of the hymn, 'O God, our help in ages past.' and 'All people that on earth de dwell ' was sume as the recessional hymn.

The President, Vice-Presidents and Master were all re-elected. The Rev. J. S. Roper having announced that he was unable to con-tinue to hold the office of hon. secretary. Mr. C. Edwards proposed the ' Rev. G. W. Turner, Vicar of Madley, as hon. secretary. Mr. Turner said before he could consent to act he wished to know the reception his proposition, that Mr. Edwards be Ringing Muster, would receive. Permission having been obtained from the meeting. Mr. Turner's proposition, seconded by Mr. W. Mead, was discussed. The appoint-ment meant that Mr. Edwards would be able to go to any district that needed help, and would partially supply the place of a paid in-structor who went from tower to tower and was able to report to the structor, who went from lower to tower and was able to report to the scoretary. The Ringing Master would not interfere in any way with the position of the Master.—The proposition was put to the meeting and carried unanimously.

The Rev. G. W. Turner was then unanimously elected hon, secretary, The rules were altered to meet the new appointment, and district secretaries and ringing masters were made ex-officio members of the committee.

Mr. C. Thomas having written that he could not act as hon. secretary of the Ledbury district, Mr. R. Thomas was appointed hon. secretary, and Mr. C. Layton Ringing Master of the Ledbury district.

After the business meeting, 54 members sat down to lunch at the Central Restaurant. The following towers were visited by ringers: Kingsland, Eurdisland, Kimbolton, Stake Prior, Bodenham, and, of Kingshild, Eurofinisten, Kinooldon, Stoke Prior, Botennian, and, or courso, Leoninster, touches of Grandsire and Stedhnan Caters, Grand-sire Triples, Treble Bob and Double Norwich Major being rung. The last twelve months have been of great importance in the history of the Guild. Exactly a year ago it was decided to divide the Guild into districts. The experiment has been a great success, and has put new life into the Guild. The quarterly meetings in each ustrict have created an interest in bell ringing not only among the members, but among people generally, BATH AND WELLS WAR MEMORIAL. PROTEST AGAINST THE DEAN'S CONDITIONS.

At the recent annual meeting of the Bath and Wells Diocesan As-At the recent annual meeting of the Bath and Wells Docesan As-sociation, held at Minehead, Somerset, the principal matter of discus-sion was the proposed war memorial to the 54 fallen members.—The Master (the Rov. C. C. Parker) presented a report, which stated: 'It was agreed by all of us that the most fitting place for the memorial would be Wells Cathedral. Ours is a diocesan association, and ob viously the centre to which every such association should look is the mother church of the diocese. On approaching the Dean of Wells, hencever we found cartain difficulties in the way which we have not mother church of the diocese. On approaching the Dean of Wells, however, we found certain difficulties in the way which we have not been able to overcome. The Dean makes it a condition that if a tab-let were erected it must be accompanied by a handsome gift to the Cathedral and proposed that we should place a statue in one of the nickes behind the high altar. The cost of the statue alone would be not less than £100, and the committee decided that this amount, in addition to the cost of the tablet, was a sum greater than they were prepared to call upon the association to raise. The Dean m-sisted on this condition, and the committee had no alternative, there-fore, except to relinquish the idea of placing the memorial in Wells Cathedral. The report went on to state that in the circumstances the committee decided on Bath Abbey as the most appropriate place for the erection of a tablet and they had proceeded with this alternative. committee decided on Bath Abbey as the new appropriate pince for the receiption of a tablet and they had proceeded with this alfernative. the Rector of Bash having kindly given his consent. A design had been prepared, the total cost of which would be about £85. In the course of the discussion that followed on the choice of places in the course of the discussion that followed on the choice of places

In the course of the discussion that followed on the choice of plices for the renue of the next three quarterly meetings the question of including Wells was brought up. In this connection the Chairman took the opportunity of saying that the association had not been treated very well at Wells. The principle on which the Dean acted in the matter of within the association had not been treated very well at Wells. The principle on which the Devi acted in the matter of putting up a tablet was certainly not one which com-mended itself to most of them, because when he (the chairman) first wrote to him he demanded that the association should put up some-thing handsome in the Cathedral. The Dean stated that the Free-masons, who wanted to put up a tablet, were giving a statue to the Cathedral. He (the chairman) explained that the position of the association was altogether different. It was a discessin association that done a creat deal for the discuss and the the position of the insociation was anogener unerent. It was a diocesan association that had done a great deal for the diocese, and he (the chairman) felt that the association should not be put on the same level as the Free-masons, who were not necessarily part of the diocese at all. The Dean took no notice of that, and he (the chairman) felt if very much because it seemed to him that Wells Catherral ought to be the mother shureh of the diocese. church of the diocese. He had received a circular from the Dean ask-ing for subscriptions in which it was stated that it was the duty of everybody in the diocese to subscribe to the mother church. When, however, the Dean had made the mother church not a mother, be (the chairman) did not see how they could subscribe. It seemed to towever, the Dean had made the mother church not a mother, de (the chairman) did not see how they could subscribe. It seemed to him that although the bell ringers had not so much money, they were the children of the diocese, and their mother ought to have wel-comed them and been glad to recognise their position by allowing them to put up a memorial to those ringers who had laid down their lives for their country (applause). It made them feel that they were not recognised as they should be in the centre of the diocese by the Dean and the Chapter: it was nothing to do with the Bishop, because the whole matter was in the hands of the Dean. That being so, it was entirely out of place for the association to go and have a meeting at Wells immediately afterwards. Perhaps they would give them a little reproach by having their meeting at Bath when they dedicated the tables (applause).

A GREAT MISTAKE.

The Rev. J. H. Doorbar (Kewstoke) said he thought it was a matter that should not be shelved. Ho thought it would be well to send a strong protest to the Dean from that meeting. It was treating the association with less than human feeling. Members had died for their country, and in the circumstances the proper place for their country, and in the circumstances the proper place for the tablet was in the mother clurch, and that one man should have the right to stand in the way was to his (the speaker's) mind Boing to the extreme in these days of domocracy. Surely a body of men like the ringers should be strong enough to make the Dean feel that on this requirements he had made a creat methods.

ringers should be strong enough to make the Dean feel that on this occasion he had made a great mislake (applause). The Hon. Secretary (Mr. E. E. Burgess) observed that if all the tingers were to parade in front of the Dean it would make him feel small. He thought it was very dirty, to say the least of it. The Rev. J. H. Doorbar said they did not want to put the Master in an invikious position but this was an opportunity when they ought to let the Dean know that they were en bloc very much dis-gusted with the way he had treated the association. He (the speaker) had served with the men on various fronts during the war, and he felt deeply about the matter; Dean or no Dean, it did not make any difference to him. difference to him.

The Chairman: I must say that the Dean said the names of the men would be recorded in the big book which is to go in the Cathedral, and included in that as Somerset men.

The Rev. J. n. Doorbar pointed out that that would be paid for by the Somerset Memorial Committee.

In reply to a question, the Chairman said the Rector of Bath was quite aware of what had happened, and had written to Wells ex-plaining that the tablet was to be put in the Abbey, not in any spirit of hostility to Wells, but because he (the Rector) was in support of having a memorial of that kind for the ringers.

Mr. J. Hunt (Taunton) said he would propose that a resolution as sent from that meeting to the Dean of Wells to the effect that the members of that association present that day had decided to evect a members of that association present that day had decided to effect a tablet in Bath Abbey to commemorate the lives of their brother ringers lost in the Great War, and that as a body of ringers regarding the Cathedral as their mother church they very much regretted they could not place the memorial at Wells. Mr. W. Evans (Bridgwater) seconded the motion, and the hon. secre-tary was instructed to draft a resolution expressing the opinion of the meeting and forward it to the Dean of Wells. He was also directed to write a letter of thanks to the Rector of Bath for the context shown by bin in the matter. courtesy shown by him in the matter.

courtesy shown by him in the matter. The Hon. Secretary remarked that ever since he had known any-thing about the association they had always been treated in that way at Wolls. They had never been able to do anything there in any comfort. When they got there they had probably been allowed to use the bells for about two hours. He wrote to the Dean one year and asked him if he would kindly say how he thought 100 ringers wild all account to got a ring in two hours hours be an original did not and asked him if he would kindly say how he thought 100 ringers could all manage to get a ring in two hours, but the Dean did not reply. Once or twice they had been refused there altogether, and at other times the use of the bells was practically refused to them, as two hours was not enough. He thought himself that they had been treated very budly at the Cathedral. During the discussion the design for the tablet which is to be erected in Bath Abbey was passed round for inspection. It is a hand-some design, with the ringers' badge, of which a bell forms the centre. at the top, a floral border surrounding it. Underneath are to be the names, 54 in number, of the fallen ringers, incised in the stone. It was a condition laid down by the Rector of Bath, the Chairman mentioned, that the architect enguged to prepare the design should be the Bath Abbey architect, so that the tablet should be in keeping with its sur-roundings.

A BINDING LINK.

In a letter which is published in another column the Rev. H. Drake returns to the question of the powers of the Central Council, and, in view of the general attitude of the various affiliated associations in declining to give the Council compulsory authority-which they could not effectively enforce-makes another suggestion to the Exercise. Compulsory powers being out of the question, the Council must forego any desire which may exist to become an administrative authority, and content itself, as it has done in the past, with being a legislative body, and Mr. Drake's view is that Associations or individual towers should be induced to incorporate in their rules a resolution that they agree to abide, so far as the 'laws of the game ' are concerned, with the regulations laid down by the Council.

Generally speaking, there can be no doubt that the spirit of this idea is very largely carried out now, and, this being the case, it could easily be argued that no further action is necessary; indeed, Mr. Drake himself adopts this line. But is not the suggestion worthy of further consideration ? There is a genuine desire on the part of many people to see a more binding link between the Council and the Associations. The proposal of compulsory powers went too far, and would have been lacking in effectiveness, because control is, in the present state of affairs, impossible. There is nothing in the rules of any Association that we know of linking it with the Council, but the incorporation of a rule, both in the belfries and the Associations, giving effect to Mr. Drake's suggestion would provide a tangible tie with the Central body, and become a public acknowledgment of the Council's authority to lay down the rules that should govern ringing. At any rate the subject is one which deserves more than passing notice, and we hope in due time it may be properly considered by the Council and passed on to the Associations.

At the same time the Council will have to take some steps to settle once and for all-if that is really possiblethe differences that exist among its own experts upon some points in connection with the principles of ringing, differences, the existence of which shake the confidence of the Exercise in the competence of any body of legislators to lay down rules. There are some outstanding subjects which ought no longer to be in question, but which, with present methods, look like dragging on to eternity. Those who have the knowledge of these technical matters, and who have the courage of their convictions, could quickly bring the thing to a head by resolution. The Council would then have to express its opinion or confess its own incompetence to do so, and the Exercise would know where it stands.

RINGING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

On Sunday last five members of the Salop Guild cycled to Hodnet, On sunday last five members of the Salop Guild cycled to Hodnet, where there is a fine peal of six bells by Rudhall, 1769. The visitors were met by Mr. E. V. Rodenburst, and succeeded in ringing a 720 of Rob Minor in 25 mins.: W. Wase 1, W. Weatherby 2, W. Lago 3, W. Saunders 4, E. V. Rodenburst 5, C. R. Lilley (conduc-tor) 6. This is the only 720 rung on the bells within memory, and is in all probability the first on the bells.

It was also a very difficult performance, as the bells go very heavily, having been relung by a firm of builders about 20 years ago, and having received attentions from the village blacksmith from time to time since. The bells go round 123485 and are hung back-handed, while the 4th and tenor are wellnigh unringable. A six score each of

The band were afterwards entertained to tea by Mr. E. V. Rodeu-hurst, and rang several touches of Triples and Major on handbells The band then made tracks for Stoke-on-Tern where there is a musi-cal ring of six by Mears. Here they were met by Mr. W. Lycett, of Stanton-on-Hincheath who had cycled seven miles in the heavy roin, and they rang a 360 Bob Minor and several six scores of Grandsire and Stedman Doubles.

BISHOP AT RINGERS' FESTIVAL.

The Bishop of Buckingham attended the annual festival of the High Wycombe ringers and preached a powerful sermon at the service that was held. After tea, provided at the Church House, the Vicar of Wycombe welcomed the visitors, and the Rev. E. J. Teesdale '(Vicar of Bledlow) proposed a vote of thanks to the Bishop, who suit-ably responded.—Mr. W. Lawrence proposed thanks to the ladies for providing tea.—The pipture during the effectment of the ladies for providing tea. The ringing during the afternoon and evening in-cluded a course of Cambridge Surprise Major and touches of Stedman Cinques and Caters, Kent Treble Bob Royal, Bob Major Stedman and Grandsire Triples.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION.

SUBSCRIPTION DOUBLED,

The annual meeting of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, held at Minebead, drew together a large gathering of ringers from Bristol, Weston-super-Mare, Bridgwater, Taunton, Ilminster, Dulver-ton Minehead, etc. The Master (the Rev. C. C. Parker), who presided, presented the annual report in which it was studed that there was a promising m-crease in membership, and that the association was recovering from the effects of the war. There were a considerable number of peals and some variety of method, though Grandsire Triples led the way with a large majority. Details given in the concluding part of the report showed that new members totalled 243, and the number of peals rung had been 33.

The Hön. Secretary presented the statement of accounts for the year ending June 1st this showing that there was a balance in hand of £74 7s. 114d. The receipts amounted to £129 3s. 10d., and the expenses were £54 15s. 104d.

In expressing satisfaction with the state of the finances, the Chair-man hinted at the necessity which existed for increasing the subscrip-tion to meet growing expenses.

The report and accounts were passed with a vote of thanks to the auditor, Mr. D. G. Taylor,

The report and accounts were passed with a vote of finances to the auditor, Mr. D. G. Taylor. The election of officers was then proceeded with: The Rev. C. C. Parker was re-elected Master of the Association; Mr. Burgess, hum. secretary and treasurer; and Mr. Taylor, auditor. To each one hearty thanks were expressed for the work he had done for the association. The following were elected new members: F. Jennings, Weare; F. Arney, P. Arney, B. Harden, L. Harden P. Rich W. Tucker and R. Whitting, Brent Knoll; W. Mapstone, P. Gallop, C. Hall and W. Hall Chew Magna; A. Bellamy I. Farmer, and H. Parker Carbampton; H. Howe Cutcombe; W. Burge, Dulverton; E. Gould, E. Drew (Dulverton) and Rev. A. G. Looke (Carhampton). An application from the Wiveliscombe branch of the Dunster Deenery that their tower should be transferred to the Taunton Decomption initiated as law discussion on the autient of the Dunster

Deauery initiated a long discussion on the subject of the transfer of Dealery initiated a long discussion on the subject of the transfer of towers and the general working of the district between Minehead and Wiveliscombe. It was felt that some adjustments were needed for the sake of convenience, and ultimately it was resolved that a re-commendation go to the general committee that they work out a scheme for the division of the diocese into ringing districts, each dis-trict to have its Ringing Master, Chairman and Secretary. A decision of the committee that 3d, be paid for each peal entered in the neal book caused some discussion it being stated that this was decided on for the purpose of raising funds. The meeting, however was of opinion that the raising of the subscription would meet this need better than the payment referred to, and it was resolved that the subscription to the association be raised from one shilling to two shillings, shillings. The meeting concluded with expressions of thanks, heartily accorded, to the Rev. E. P. Liddon (Vicar of Minehead) for having kindly per-mitted the use of the tower that day and for arranging the service which was to be held afterwards, and to Mr. G. Atkins and the Mine-head engers, from whom the visitors had received a great deal of courtesy.—Mr. Atkins, in responding said it was a great pleasure to have visitors there, and they would always be pleased to see them at Minchead. The discussion upon the War Memorial was reported in our last issue.

issue. The party afterwards adjourned to the Queen's Cafe for tea, and here they were joined by other ringers from Old Cleeve and Slogum-ber, whose train was so late in arriving that the meeting was practi-cally over by the time they got to Minchead. Subsequently, most of the party made their way to the parish church for the special chorat evensoing which had been arranged. In an impressive and appro-priate address, the Vicar (the Rev. E. P. Liddon) discoursed on the message of the holls. message of the bells.

During the day touches in a variety of methods were rung on the Parish Church bells.

RINGER FOR SIXTY-TWO YEARS.

At Paignton on July 8th, members of the Mid-Devon Branch of the Devon Guild by the kind permission of the Vicar rang a quarterpeal of Grandsire Doubles (1260 changes) on the Parish Church bells in 50 minutes, with 6. 4. 8 covering: A. Roznolds 1. J. Collings 2. T. Collings 3. T. Mitchell 4. C. Austin 5. F. Allwood 6, H. J. Hole (conductor) 7. F. Parnell 8. This is the first quarter-peal rung on the bells, and first attempt by all the band except the conductor. It was rung as a compliment to Mr. C. Drew on his 77th hirthday, he having been a ringer at Paignton Parish Church for 62 years.

The 2nd is 'Dedicated to Lowestoft Fishermen,' the 3rd is 'The Drifters' Bell ' the fifth ' The Trawiers' Bell' the sixth is dedicated to 'The Gallant Dead 1914-1918,' and the 7th ' dedicated to the memory of Skipper Thomas Crisp, V.C., of the trawler " Nel-son," who gave his life for his country, August 15th, 1917.' WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

A meeting of the Guildford District of the Winchester Guild was held at Merrow and Clandon on Saturday July 17th. The Guild service was held in Clandon Church, and was conducted by the Rector. Rev. Sir John Herschel, Bt., who is general secretary of the Association. An address was given by Canon Coleridge. Vicar of Crowthorne, who told his hearers, in his usual forcible manner, of some faults of which ringers are guilty, and urged them to try and over come so that the strands they were weaving would help to make a glorious apparel for the church, who was the bride of the living Christ, their Lord and Saviour.

of the visitors. Sir John Herschel, in apologising for the silence of his bells, spoke in feeling terms of the death (from sleeping sickness) and funeral of William Day, a much respected member of the Clandon band, and said he was sure his bearers would agree with him that the silence of the bells was the most fitting tribute of respect that the schene offer. He was pleased to say that in addition to Merrow bells, Shal-ford would also be open during the evening. The Rector of Merrow (the Rev. A. H. Fletcher) became an hor member.

The annual outing to be held on Bank Holiday at Ranmoor was referred to. A member remarked that the bells were worth going a long way to-hear, and he once heard ' Alfred H.' remark to the steeplekeeper that if he saw the Germans coming he was to take the hells down and bury them, as they could never be replaced.—The Ringing Master sent an apology for his absence, and deferred his report to the next meeting.

A SALISBURY GUILD MEMORIAL.

On the north wall of St. Peter's Church Borchester, immediately belów the belfry, has been erected a tablet of Sicilian marble in memory of the nine members of the Dorchester and District Branch of the Salisbury Guild, who gave up their lives in the great war. The tablet is inscribed: 'This tablet is erected to the glory of God and in faithful memory of E. Foote, Church of the Holy Rood Buckland Newton; F. C. Northover St. Mafy's, Charminster; W. A. The unveiling ceremony, which was performed by Major C. C. Hughes D'Acth, Master of the Guild was attended by a large num-ber of visiting ringers. PONTEFRACT'S NEW BELLS.

The dedication of the new peal of bells which have been placed in the Parish Church at Pontefract was performed on Midsummer Day by the Bishop of Beverley. The Mayor and Corporation attended in State, and there was a crowded congregation. After the service, a reception was held at the Mayor's rooms. The belis are a fine ring, with a tenor 18 cwt. 0 qr. 19 lbs., and all the old inscriptions have been reproduced with one slight alteration, including the names of the present donors. The work has been curried out by Messrs, Taylor and Co., and has given great satisfaction. The firm was represented at the ceremony by Mr. Denison Taylor, and there was a considerable number of visitors present, who made good use of the bells afterwards.

THE BATH AND WELLS WAR MEMORIAL. To the Editor.

Sir,-As one belonging to that dreadful little city of Wells, and as one of the Cathedral ringers, I should like, with your permission, to say a word or two about what took place at the Bath and Wells meeting at Minchead, which unfortunately I was unable to attend. I quite agree that the memorial for the fallen ringers of the diocese, should be placed in the Cathedral, but might I ask if the Denn of Wells was approached personally on the matter? My experience with the Cathedral authorities here is, that as they have never been mixed up with ringing and ringing matters, like some of our dergy they want a bit of education. I have had several interviews with the Dean on ringing matters, and after sufficient explanation have gained my point each time.

Now, Sir, I am strongly of opinion that had a small deputation, which might have included one of the local ringers waited on the local and explained to him fully just what was wanted to be done, and the amount of money that was to be spent on it he would have and the amount of money that was to be spent on it he would have readily granted the nercessary parmission. Just one thing more, is "it right for an association like the Bath and Wells to boycott the city" just because they could not get what they wanted. What has the Vicar of St. Cuthbert's Church done to be trented so? He has always taken as keen interest in the associa-tion, which my rights friends at Castle Cary can bear out better than I can. Is that the best way to promote the interests of the associa-tion in Wells?

tion in Wells? Some of us have been working for years to get ringing and the as-sociation on a better footing here, and we have quite recently seen some results of our habours; but I am afraid the unchristianlike and unjust remarks passed at Minchead will give us a severe check from which it will take us some time to recover. This is not the only place that ringing has been restricted at a meeting. Last year at Bath only one hour's ringing was allowed at the Abley but nothing mer add a bath that and meetings are effected to held there. The was said about that, and meetings are still to be held there. Personally, I do not think all the blame can be attached to the Dean and Chapter of Wells Cathedral. Some may be on the other side. Yours truly Wells.

CHATHAM'S 'VICTORÍA' BELLS.

Ringers in the Rochester District of the Kent County Association met at St. Mary the Virgin's Church on Saturday, July 17th, the occasion being the reopening of the 'famous ' Victoria ' peal of bells famous, as any ringer who has attempted to ring a peal on them will understand.

The frame supporting the bells has been thoroughly overhauled and strengthened considerably, and the whole of the bells have been hung in steel headstocks, and fitted with new bearings throughout.

in steel headstocks, and fitted with new bearings throughout. The work of rehanging was entrusted to Mr. Alfred Bowell, of Ipswich, and great credit is due to him for the manner in which he has carried out his task. Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob. Kent Treble Bob. Double Norwich, Superlative Surprise, and Victory Major were rung, and the rungers—many of whom were present when the bells were first opened in 1897—were unanimous of the opinion that never here the bells were and have the bells run so well. The local band wish to make it known that Sunday ringing is from 9.50 to 10.30 in the morning, and 5.45 to 6.30 in the evening. Prac-tice on Monday evening from 7.30 to 9, and any ringer will be heartily welcomed at any time.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

Tea was provided by the kind invitation of the Rector (the Rev. R. Moddings). The business meeting was afterwards held, and the Rev. F. B. THE PEACE BELL.

The Salisbury Diocesan Guild has taken the lead in introducing the ' Peaco Bell ' as a perpetual memorial to the fallen. In a circular, signed by the Bishop, Lord Shaftesbury (who is president). Major C. C. Hughes D'Aoth (Master) and the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards (hon. sec.), and issued to all incumbents in the diocese, it is stated : ' The mid-day Peaco Bell is quite distinct in origin and significance from the Angelus. In the modern Roman use it has become merged with the morning and evening bells into a third Angelus, but originally it was rung on Fridays only, in honour of the Passion of our Lord, and the devotions associated with it, took the form of Prayer for the peace and security of the realm. The special use of this Bell under Pope Calixtus III. (1456) and Alexander VI. (1500) as a call to prayer 'contra Turns' affords an interesting parallel to our own noontide Bell during the War. Now that the War is over and we are in the act of settling terms of peace with the last of the belligeronts, it is proposed, that as a perpetual memorial to the fallen, we restore in this Diocese the ancient use of the Peace Bell on Fridays at noon, thus uniting an act of solemn remembrance with Prayer for the peace and concord of this realm and of all Christendom through the merits of our Saviour's Cross and Passion. For this purpose the recitation of a short Office is Cross and Passion. suggested.

Such a " Use of Sarum " as that suggested here will be the Church's own War Memorial in this Diocose and while the solemn sound of the bell on Fridays will bear its compelling witness to the cardinal truth of our Redemption, it is felt that no more fitting trihute could be paid to the memory of these who made the subreme sarrifice in the cause of right and freedom, then that of renewing the weekly call to prayer for the preservation of that peace which they died to win. Nor should the special opportunity be overfooked of died to win. Nor should the srectal opportunity be overlooked of intercession for the unity of Christendom. ⁴ It is understood that more than half of the Incumbents of the Diocese have expressed themselves in favour of such a return to the pions custom of our forefathers. To all those an append is hereby made to arrange for the ringing of the Peace Bell from Friday 18th June, onwards, so that the great Cathedral Commemoration on S. John's Day may find the restoration of this ancient usage an accomplished fact. It is hoped that many others also will join in this move mont, and that members of the Guild of Ringers everywhere will do their utmost to facilitate the revival of the Peace Bell to the Glory of Christ our Savour, and in grateful rememorance of our fellow-countrymen, who gave their lives for England's peace.'

WINCHESTER GUILD RINGER SUCCUMBS TO SLEEPING SIOKNESS.

A summer day, a picturesque Surrey village, a sad procession, a voice reciting the hopeful words of the burial office, the lovely soft tones of handhells, and an open grave. It is with impressions such as these that baes mind is crowded when altempting to describe the funeral of Mr. W. Day, which took place at West Clandon on Thursday week (July 15th).

William Henry Day was one of a company of young men which in-chuled the late Mr. R. Blake and the brothers Savage all killed on active service, who some years ago begun to practise at West Clandon, and who later became famous for their Surprise Minor performances. Mr. Day, together with almost the whole of his fellow ringers, joined H.M. forces at the outbreak of war in 1914. He was wounded at Albert in 1916, but otherwise seemed to have survived its dangers. He was demobilised soon after the Armistice in apparently sound health, to judge from his appearance there was good reason to suppose that he had many years of happy life before him. If the however died of sleeping sickness on Sunday July 11th. The funeral was fixed for the Thursday following and shortly be-fore the hour arranged representatives from parishes in the immediate district began to assemble, and, with the arrival of the family mourners, the church was well filled. The service was taken by the Roy. Sir J. Herschel, hon, secretary of the Winchester Diocesan Guild, who is also Rector of West Claudon. The coffin was borne to its resting-place by, six old school friends three of whom were ringers, and immediately after the Danchitism - wayfast entry of Gundains result of the formed and the formed acted as teller for the ' whole null and stand.' A large number of beautiful wreaths were sent, including one from Lord and Lady Onslow, the Winchester Diocesan Guild the Clandon ringers, and the Claudon Cricket Club, of which Mr. Day was an active and useful member. Ringers present, in addition to those mentioned, were Mr.

J. J. Jones, Mr. Boniface (Merrow) and Mrs. Hazelden. To the memory of the late Mr. F. Day, 720 Kent Treble Bob Minor was rung on Sunday morning, July 18th, for service with the bells

ARE THE COUNCIL'S RESOLUTIONS BINDING? To the Editor.

Sir,-Evidently when you say, in your leader on June 26th, that ' it has now been definitely decided that the Council's resolutions are to be binding on nobody,' you are not serious, or you would not have continued the discussion of the matter you had taken up. But as worth while to explain exactly how it has arisen.

At the Gloucester meeting of the Council Canon Baker said he thought the time had come when the Council should cease to be merely the ' consultative body,' which its founders designed it to be, and should take the same place as the Jockey Club with regard to Racing the M.C.C. with regard to Cricket, or the Football Association with regard to Football. He therefore, proposed that they should ask the associations whether they would give the Council power to cu-force its decisions. The argument seemed to several of us an anacoluthen: and the Secretary asked how it could exercise such For myself I pointed out that the only suitable subject nower. matter for such power was in Points for Peals, and that it already had and used such power. Novertheless, Canon Baker carried his resolution, and the associa-tions have been duly mystified with it. At the Northampton meeting he explained, to the surprise of some at least of us, that ' what he intended by his resolution at Gloucester last year, was that the associations should be asked to say whether, in their opinion there should be a body which should say what are the rules of ringing. But if so, why did he not propose it in those words? Had he done so,

I do not think anyone double that every member of every associa-tion would have answered 'Yes.' It was Canon Baker's unstituble examples which misled us. He mentioned the Jockey Club, which has to deal with sharpers and cheats, and disqualifies people, or warns them off the turf. No one wants to disqualify a band of ringers because they have rung a touch of Grandsire Minor, or to warn them out of the belfry because they happen to have suggested Plain Bob Triples. Again the M.C.C. is equally unique. No other pastime is so controlled. Moreover, all the years I was playing cricket at least one of the more important when the forms the number of ball is an one in the difference. rules-that fixing the number of balls in an over was deliberately disobeyed in the majority of matches. While the Football Association seems to an outsider most concerned in buying and selling players.

None of these cases have much analogy with ours. A better parallel would have been Lawn Tennis. We have this week started a Lawn Tennis Club here. By the way, the members are much the same as those of our ringing band: so on fine evenings we play tennis, and on wet ones we ring bells.

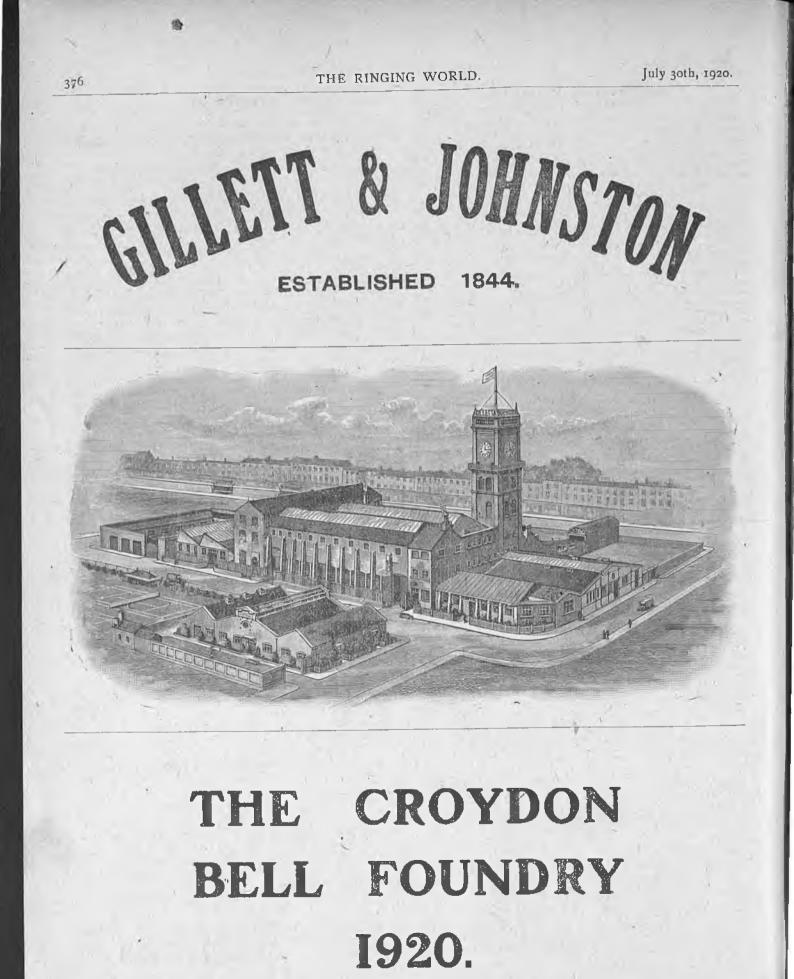

Now one of the rules which we have adopted as a matter of course, Flayers shall be bound by the rules of the game, as played by runs:

runs: ' Mayers shall be bound by the rules of the game, as played by the All-England Lawn Tennis Association.' Now, if we substitute the Central Council for the last few words of this rule, we can easily make a rule which would be very suitable for our different ringing bands. This would put us all in a right relation to one another. The Cen-tral Council would be the legislating body, and the separate com-panies would be the administrative bodies. If Canon Baker wishes to that the ariging as the Everyias last high propose that such a rule be test the opinion of the Exercise let him propose that such a rule be added to the model code of rules for a company. For my own part, I do not think it necessary: not only, as the President said, because we do not have competitions but rather because it is so universally carried out that it does not need stating. WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

THE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION.

The annual meeting of the Warwickshire Guild was held at Nuneaton on Saturday, July 17th. The bells of St. Nicholas' were made good use of during the afternoon, and a good muster attended service at 5 o'clock. The Guild form was used, and the Rev. Canon Back (president of the Guild) gave an appropriate address. Tea was afterwards particles of at the Empire Cafe, members from Allesley, Berkswell, Birmingham, Coton Croft, Enscote, Rugby, Coventry, Stoke Golding, Stony Stanton, Nuneaton and Warwick being present. Then followed the general meeting, the Rev. Canon Back occupying the chair.

char. The report and balance sheet were read, and passed. The accounts showed a fair balance on the right side.—The Rev. Canon Back was re-elected president; Mr. A. Roberts, Master, and Mr. J. H. White honorary secretary and treasurer; Mr. O. J. Hunt, auditor. Each tower will elect its own representative upon the committee. The Contral Council representatives, Mr. H. Argyle and Mr. A. Roberts were also re-elected.—It was decided to forego the printing of the annual report this year.—The question of raising the annual subscription was discussed, and it was decided to bring the matter up again at the next quarterly meeting, to be held at Stoko-in-Coventry in October, which will be a special general meeting.

It was decided to hold monthly meetings at Coleshill in August, and at Dunchurch in September.

During the evening Chilvers Coton tower was visited, and touches in various methods from Grandsire Triples to Bristol Surprise Major were rung.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. THE FINANCIAL POSITION.

A most successful quarterly meeting of the Eastern District was held at Heathfield on Saturday, July 17th, when members representing the following towers were present: Battle, Brighton (St. Peter's), Eastbourne (All Saints' and St. Saviour's) Hastings (Christchurch, Blacklands), Mayfield, Pevensey, Rotherfield, Salehurst Shoreham, and Waldron. The following unattached members were also present: Messrs. G. II. Howse, W. D. Smith, A. and E. Gower A. Piper of Eastbourne; and Mr. F. Benuett, of Brighton, Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob and Double Norwich Major, were rung during the afternoon and evaning.

Major, were rung during the afternoon and evening. A service was hold in the church at which the Vicar (the Rev. Grahame-Clarke) officiated and gave an eloquent address upon ringers and their calling as church workers. Following the service, the ringers took tea at the village hostelry. The success of the meeting was greatly enhanced in consequence of the arrival of a party of ringers, and their friends from Shoreham, who joined in at tea, at which the Vicar presided.

which the Vicar presided. In view of the fact that the bells had recently been opened, that subject was not allowed to pass without notice.—Mr. G. H. Howse congratulated the Vicar upon the splendid toned peal of bells that had been provided by Messrs, Mears and Stainbank, of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry the 'go ' and fittings leaving nothing to be desired, and being quite in keeping with the best traditions of the foundry. Mr. Howse also spoke of the pious thought of the donor of the bells, Mr. J. E. Groves, of The Park Heathfield and also the donor of the clock, Mr. A. C. Langdale, of Heathfield House. The bells and clock, combined give to Heathfield a long-felt want apart from the actualities which they are intended to commenorate.— The Vicar in responding to this, and also a voto of thanks for the use of the bells, said it gave him the greatest pleasure to welcome the members of the association, and he would always be pleased to do so.

members of the association, and he would always be pleased to do so. At the business meeting which followed, with Mr. Ellman Brown in the chair, Mr. G. H. Howse made a touching reference to the passing of Mr. C. H. Harfley, of Easthourne and moved that a vote of condolence be passed. Mr. Harfley had been an old and respected member of the association since its inception, and was for a great number of years a member of the Christ Church band Eastbourne.—The motion was seconded by the divisional hon. sec. and was carried while the whole company stood in silence for a few moments. The Divisional Secretary brought the matter of the financial position of the association before the proceeding white the thet the

The Divisional Secretary brought the matter of the financial position of the association before the meeting, pointing out that the association was not in such a flourishing condition as could be desired, and as a result of a conversation, in which Messrs. G. H. Howse Challen and Merritt took part, it was resolved that a voluntary levy be made upon those present, and the sum of two pounds was collected in the room. This amount would go towards helping to defray the expenses of the meeting.

Subsequently it was proposed by Mr. G. H. Howse and seconded by Mr. A. Piper, that an instruction be passed to the Standing Committee, that at the next annual meeting the matter of raising all subscriptions by 50 per cent. be considered.—This was put to the meeting in the form of a resolution and carried unanimously.

A vote of thanks to the chairman terminated the meeting.

Both touches were conducted by W. Miller, and all agreed that Messrs. Mears and Stain-bank had carried out the work of restoration satisfactorily. The ringers of Holy Trinity, who, by the way are all novices are deeply indebted to Leytonstone ringers for assistance given and promised.

FINANCIAL STRESS.

Price 2d.

The heavy decline in the purchasing power of money is being felt in the operations of the various ringing organisations, and nearly all of them have been forced by necessity to raise the amount of the annual subscriptions of their ordinary and non-resident members. The growing cost of everything has made this inevitable, and those societies which, like the Oxford Guild the other day, have only added fifty per cent. to the modest shilling which was previously the amount of the ordinary member's contribution, have dealt very modestly with the position. There is, naturally, a keen desire not to increase the affiliation fee more than is absolutely essential; but Associations, whose subscriptions are to be only eighteenpence in the future, will have to go very economically to work if they are to make ends meet each year.

In the past some Associations have not been very ready in the disposal of their funds for the benefit of their members, and if any of them have laid up a store thereby, they will probably to day be congratulating themselves upon their successful financial policy. Now, however, it behoves all to keep a close hand upon the purse strings. At the same time there is one direction in which it might be well if societies gave some help. The increase in railway fares, which comes into operation to-day, may have some effect upon the attendance at ringing meetings. In the case of district gatherings large numbers of ringers reach the venue in these days by road, but it is not unlikely that the new impost may bear hardly upon those who wish to attend an Association's annual meeting or festival. There has been much fuss made about the additional burden which the new fares will place upon holiday makers, but the extra expense added to a week or fortnight's holiday would seem a bagatelle beside a similar additional expense added to the cost of a single day's outing.

Some few Associations, notably the Sussex County, give a grant towards the railway fares of members attending meetings, and it is possible that provincial Associations generally may find it in future good policy to expend money in this direction. It is a matter that needs to be very carefully approached, or a society might quickly head for bankruptcy. On the other hand, the new fares are almost certain to curtail attendances at meetings where considerable distances have to be travelled, and a falling off in this direction might lead to a diminution of interest and eventual loss of membership. Those who make the effort to attend meetings, particularly at a distance, deserve encouragement, and grants towards the increased fares might help to maintain attendances, and thereby promote the interests of ringing. The matter is important, and Associations ought not to lose sight of it.

THE MEMORIAL FUND.

A very successful meeting of the Bristol Branch of the above Association was held at Olveston on Saturday, July 17th. A party making the journey from Bristol in a lorry bus reached Olveston soon after 3 o'clock, and received a very hearty welcome from the local ringers. The fine peal of 8 bells was kept busy in various methods until the service, at which the Rev. Canon Fisher (Vicar) officiated. By the kind invitation of Canon and Mrs. Fisher, the party was entertained at the Vicarage to an excellent tea to which some 40 members and friends sat down. The Vicar presided at the husiness meeting at which several new members were elected, including Mr. T. White, who had been a ringer at Olveston for over 53 years. During the meeting the Hon-Sec. (Mr. E. Guise) re-ferred to the memorial scheme, stating that there was about $\pounds70$ in hand, but that a good deal more was wanted. He impressed upon the members the necessity of doing their utmost to make it a success. Mr. J. Little suggested passing round ' the hat,' and as a result the sum of £1 10s, was added to the fund, Mr. H. T. Howell thanked the chairman and Mrs. Fisher, on be-half of the branch for their kindness in entertaining the Associa-tion and the Conon suitable realid tion and the Canon suitably replied.

Some of the party then went on to Thornbury, where the fine peal of 8 bells were made good use of, while others had the pleasure of looking over the castle and grounds.

BELL ROPES, MUFFLES, &c.

Bishop's Stortford has just celebrated, the centenary of the opening of the peal of ten bells at St. Michael's Parish Church by a peal of Established Grandsiro Caters, recorded in another column.

The first mention of bells at this church was in 1430, when the churchwarden's accounts refer to a heavy peal of five, which by 1819 had been increased to eight. In that year the bells were removed for the rebuilding of the tower, and the old bell frame was tempo-rarily re-erocted in Market Square, and the old bell frame was tempo-it. Remaining there for some weeks, they were then stored for 52 weeks at 1s. 3d, per week. Then the late Mr. Joseph Tucker can-vassed the town for subscriptions to provide two new bells to make up the peal to ten. They were re-cast, and the whole peal of ten bells was re-hung in 1820 by Mr. John Briant, of Hertford. In 182d Mr. Joseph Tucker was appointed to the office of secton, which was successively held by his widow, the late Mrs. Jemina Tucker; his son, the late Mr. W. H. Tucker, and his grandson, Mr. H. J. Tucker of Langham House, Thorley, until the office was abolished in 1904. By July 19th, 1820, the bells had been re-lung, and the ringers were entertained to a dinner in anticipation of the opening on the follow-ing day. The first peal on the bells was not rung until September 2nd and was accomplished by ten members of the Society of College Youths, who rang a peal of Grandsire Caters, 5,039 changes, con-ducted by Mr. Henry Symondson senior. The centenary peal was composed and conducted by Mr. H J. Tucker. for the rebuilding of the tower, and the old bell frame was tempo-

Mr. H. Edward Norman and Miss Nellie Norman, of St. John the Divine, Leicester, have joined up for the duration of-life! This culminated thoughts turned towards running in double harness. This culminated in the wolding mentioned above, for the two were made one at St John's on July 24th, 1920. The wedding march was rendered by the organist, Mr. J. H. Taylor, while the ringers, up aloft sent out their message of goodwill to the tune of 5,088 Double Norwich. At the previous Monday evening practice the Vicar (Rev. Shirley White, M.A.) handed to the prospective groom a silver-plated eruel from the company expression their hour bloc the rough addresses be

Ted Norman has rung in many peals both in hand and on the tower bells, and a right good fellow is he. May the present peal 'in hand' be a long one. W. W.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

On Saturday, July 24th, the 39th Festival of the Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Reading. Proceedings commenced with service at St. Laurence's Church, for which good touches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters were rung by early arrivals. A most inspiriting address was given by the Rev. F. Burnett, of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Reading, who preached from the last verse of Psalm lxxxvii. (Bible Version) ' As well the singers, as the players on instruments, shall be there; all my springs are in Thee."

shall be there; all my springs are in Thee.' The business meeting was held in the Abbey Hall, and was attended by 104 members, representing 52 towers. Alterations were made to two of the rules. The annual subscription was raised from 1s, to 1s, 6d, to date from the end of the current year. To make life membership prohibitive, the 15s, in Rule VI, has been increased to $\pounds 2$ 2s., and a non-resident life member will be required to pay 5s, instead of 3s, 6d., as herotofore. The officers were re-elected, and the secretary (Mr. R. T. Hibbert) was voted an honorarium of $\pounds 20$ in recognition of past services. Dinner took place in the Small Town Hall the mayor of Reading (Dr. Abram) presiding over a company of 136.

After the usual toasts the members dispersed, and ringing, which was above the average for a general meeting was indulged in at St. Laurence's (10 bells), St. Mary's and St. Giles, Reading; Caver-sham, Tilehurst, Sonning, ShiPlake Twyford (8 bells each) Pang-hourne and Furley (6 bells each). The towers of Mapledurham and Shirofuel (2 bells each) were also open but more too far field for Shinfield (3 bells each) were also open, but were too far afield for visitors to reach.

LOWESTOFT'S BELLS. DEDICATION OF THE NEW PEAL.

As briefly announced in our last issue a peal of eight bells has been placed in the Parish Church of St. Margaret, Lowestoft, and was dedicated by the Dean of Norwich (Dr. Willink) at evensory was dedicated by the Dean of Norwich (Dr. Willink) at evensong of the Patronal Festival. One of the reasons that have prevented of the Patronal Festival. One of the reasons that have prevented placing a peal of bells in Lowestoft before has been the fact that the tower was not considered safe to hold them. The Rector (Rev. Evan Morgan) worked with enthusiasm to got the tower put in order and this accomplished, Mr. T. Sergeant, who for many years had set his heart on seeing a peal erected in the church very quickly col-lected the funds necessary to achieve the object. The bells and fittings are the product of the Loughborough Foundry and they are encoded in inscriptions. which specially interesting, as will be seen from the inscriptions; which are as follows;

sons and daughters.

The dedication was attended, says the ' Lowestoft Journal,' by a The dedication was attended, says the 'Lowestoft Journal,' by a crowded congregation and was performed by the Dean, in the course of an impressive service. The Dean preached an eloquent sermon from the words, 'Render therefore to all their dues... honour to whom honour is due.' They had assembled, said the preacher, to dedicate that peal of bells, a noble addition to the equipment of their noble church, in grateful memory to those who died that we might live. Surely, he added we were doing the right thing in thus gather-ing together to praise God and to tell our brothers how they thanked them. This was but one of the memorials which this parish and this This was but one of the memorials which this parish and this them them. This was but one of the memorials which this parish and this grateful town intended to dedicate to Almighty God. But no finer memorial could be imagined than this. Their church was wonderfully equipped in many ways, but he remembered how in olden days it had ever lacked a peal of bells. From that night the reproach was rolled away and those bells, which for a transient moment they had listened to, would for all succeeding generations tell by their melodious chimes what was in the hearts of all that day. It would be what for memorials water an entreal to the of a consult for the start of the be what few memorials were, an appeal to the err as well as to the eye and to the heart. He warmly congratulated their church and indeed the borough upon this great accession to their equipment. He thanked God that it was put into the hearts of the generous donors to come forward in such a wonderful way to provide the necessary funds for the completion of this memorial. By this peal of bells they were proving to this and future generations their thank-fulness to God for the heroism of their dead who sacrificed themselves for home and God and liberty. Such a death was immortality, and they were enstrining their memories in the melody of these bells, whose message he could best give in those Norman French words which literally defied translation, and yet sent home the message to every heart—Noblesse Oblige. The preacher concluded by point-ing the lessons of the responsibilities that were theirs through their blessings and privileges.

The first touch on the bells was 42 Grandsire Triples: Chas. E. Borrett (conductor) treble, Frederick Knights 2nd, Frederick a. Borrett 3rd, George H. Cross 4th, Albert Rought 5th John Oldham

Frederick H. Knights 7tb, Arthur L. Coleman 8th. At the conclusion of the service 288 changes of Kent Treble Bob Major and a touch of Bob Major were rung, and the bells were then lowered in peal.

Subsequently, on the invitation of Mr. Sorgeant, the ringers were entertained to supper at the Grown Hotel. The Rector of Lowestoft entertained to supper at the Grown Hotel. The Rector of Lowestoft was in the chair, and included in the company were the church-wardens (Messrs. H. W. Bevan and C. D. Dance, jun.), Mr. Lancelot Orde, Mr. Woodley, Mr. J. Okihani and Mr. L. Dexter (representing Messrs. John Taylor' and Co., the bellfounders). At the conclusion of the repast the Rector warmly thanked the members of the Diocesan Association of Ringers for coming there that evening to ring St. Margaret's Bells. He cordially acknow-ledged the efforts of Mr. Screening in raising the money for the bells. Mr. Coleman returned thanks for the timers and said how fitting

Mr. Coleman returned thanks for the ringers and said how fitting it was that the Dean, who was President of the Association, should have been present that evening to dedicate the bells. — Mr. C. Borrett spoke highly of the bells. They were of beautiful tone, and it was a pleasure to ring them. Mr. J. Oldham, on behalf of his firm, acknowledged the ever since he came to Lowestoft. But the state of the tower preever since he came to Lowestoft. But the state of the tower pre-vented him carrying out the idea. When, however, the architect pronounced the tower safe and sound, he got to work and obtained money for the bells of Lowestoft. The bells were variously in-scribed. There was the one, 'To the Gallant Dead,' the Drifters' Bell, and the Trawlers' Bell, provided by those engaged in the in-dustries. Then there was the Bréach bell, given by members of that highly respected family; and there was the V.C. bell, to the memory of gallant Skipper Orisp. So in one way and another the peal was very comprehensive. He added that his father was instru-mental in obtaining a peal of bells and chimes for Bedford, and that example must have inspired him to do the same for St. Mar-garet's. When those bells rang to-night, concluded Mr. Sergeant, I said to myself: My father hears these bells. Mr. Woodley formerly a ringer at St. Paul's Cathedral (who had

Mr. Woodley formerly a ringer at St. Paul's Cathedral (who had been mentioned by the Rector as willing to form and teach a band been mentioned by the flector as writing to form and teach a band of ringers), stid he was prepared to do what he could. It would be uphill work, but if the young men who volunfeered would only put their hearts into it they would soon learn, and there was no reason why they should not have a good guild of ringers for St. Margaret's (hear, hear). Some of the ringers then gave selections on the handbells, and thanks to the Rector ended a very delightful time.

THE LEICESTER CONTROVERSY.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-There would have been no controversy had Mr. Morris confined himself to the subject of his first letter. He wishes to know who gave me permission to answer for Leicester. If have the author-ity of those 8 and 10 bell societies to whom his letter reterred—the society who, while they openly scoffed at his 6-bell performances, were very glad of his help in scoring their 8 and 10 bell peals. Mr. Morris only rang 8 and 10 bell peals with our society, in Leicester. Alorris only rang 8 and 10 bell peals with our society in Leicester. This was the society that gave him every opportunity to become a first-class ringer. If my assertions be deliberate lies, how does he reconcile the fact, that from the time St. Martin's Society com-menced ringing Major methods we had a company who rang Double Norwich. Superlative and London for Sunday services among our Sunday ringers? My letter, he says, teems with self-glory in order to belittle him. I hope that he will believe me when I say that it is impossible for me to do this. Now my position as a ringer st is impossible for me to do this. Now, my position as a ringer at St. Martin's does not warrant me in either giving or refusing per-mission for the use of the bells. Mr. Morris says that he would like the views of other members of St. Martin's. These views were expressed in my last letter which was sent for publication at their request. Unfortunately, not being a believer in spiritualism I can-request. Unfortunately, not being a benever in spiritualism a can-not get the views of past members. Mr. Morris compares the performances he called with the peals of our society, again to his glorification. I was much too modest to give mine. 'Agreed ' they do compare very favourably, in numbers. Now, when Mr. Morris accuses me of making attacks ou him dur-ing his sad bereavement and to do so knowingly, he does me an injunction my rate of the Sundor following the publication injustice; my reply was posted the Sunday following the publication of his letter, at that time we had not heard of the illness of his wife. But if he could publish his accusation, a letter that was underlined with venom, then most certainly he must read a letter in defence. Does Mr. Morris think that I have nothing better to do than run round after every Tom, Dick or Harry who make public their wild statements and then squeal when they have a reply by the same medium. In reference to the assertion that no one has a chance to call a peal at our church but myself, surely it is up to me if I obtain permission to attempt a peal to find a conductor?

Failing that I certainly call it, I leave this question to those who do know whether any chances are to be had. Finally, remember there are two sorts of conductors, one who does it all for self-glory, the second who does it to oblige the band and would prefer others to do it. I suppose Mr. Morris claims to belong to the second, certainly.

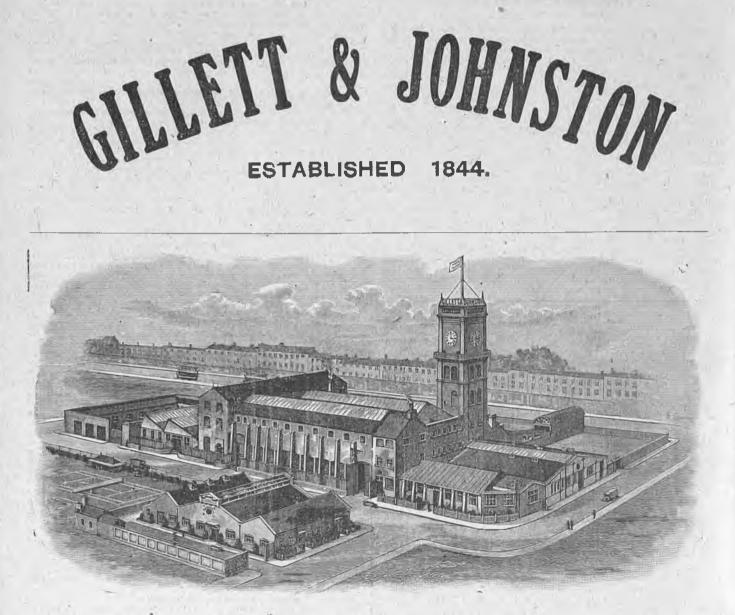

Yours faithfully, FRED. H. DEXTER.

The report of the Standing Committee on procedure at the meet-ings of Council stated that the committee had duly considered the subject and were of opinion that it would be best to leave the pro-cedure in the hands of the President.

The Hon. Secretary reported that only seven affiliated Guilds and Associations had signified to him their decision on the question of compulsory powers being conferred on the Council, and that none of them was in favour of it. A few of the members present then reported similarly of the Associations which they represented, and, after a brief discussion, the subject dropped.

For the Peal Collection Committee the President read the report Por the Peal Collection Committee the President read the report published by the Rev. H. S. T. Richardson, and Mr. H. W. THE REVIVAL.

To ringers generally it must have been very gratifying to notice the activity there has been up and down the country in the opening of new or augmented peals of bells in recent months. Very largely, of course, this has been due to bells erected in celebration of victory and peace, for in a large number of parishes the provision of a memorial of this kind has appealed to the public as a type which will for all time serve as a permanent reminder of the sacrifices of this generation in the world's greatest conflict, and yet fulfil a useful purpose. In not a few cases the proposal for the bells, and the provision of one or more, has originated with the ringers themselves, specially to perpetuate the memory of fallen colleagues. The Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association and the Winchester Diocesan Guild are among the associations that are now raising funds for the same purpose, the former to add two trebles to increase a peal of eight to a ring of ten, and the latter to raise the bells at the Cathedral to a ring of twelve. The Peterborough Association has just decided to follow the same lead, and funds are to be raised to add one of the new bells which it is hoped to place in the Cathedral. Inspired by the sacrifice which was made by those of their members who gave all for their country, the Association will doubtless raise the required sum, and thus substantially help further to enrich the mother church of their diocese.

Apart, however, from the impetus which is given to ringing by these numerous additions to the peals of the country, the work which has thus been created has come at a time when stimulus to the bell founding industry was vital. The war had brought bell founding practically to a standstill, but the provision of memorial bells has resuscitated the industry quickly and effectually, in spite of the heavy rise in costs, which might, under other circumstances, have proved an almost insuperable obstacle for long years to come. The foundries would, of course, have gove on without bell making; the enterprising management which is behind the firms who to-day lead the world in the bell making industry would not have collapsed because there were no bells to make-they would have made other things, as they did during the war. It is the Exercise that should be gratified that they have been able to return so successfully to their pre-war activities, and at present there is every indication that the revival, made with such unexpected rapidity, will be a lasting one. The success of the industry is inseparably wrapped up with the success of the ringing Exercise, for though one might exist without the other, it has only been-and can only be-by the continual advance of each that the limits of expansion can be widened.

THE PEAL AT BAMBURGH, NORTHUMBERLAND.

For some years the Newcastle Cathedral Guild have contemplated ringing a 5,000 on the fine peal of bells at Bamburgh in one of the most beautiful and historic villages of the county, but on the outbreak of war all ringing was stopped, the result of the loyalty of the ringers who joined the forces to a man, except one or two who were beyond fighting age. No less than six members of the Bamburgh Guild made the supreme sacrifice—a record which we doubt, any other guild of ringers in the country can equal. The bells are by Mears and Stainbank, augmented from two old bells to four, then to six, and finally to eight in 1913. All this was carried out by the energy and interest of the Vicar himself, the Rev. E. Williams, who is not only a ringer but has taken to himself the task of raising a new band of ringers to fill the place of the old Guild, so terribly depleted by war. While the peal was going on, the other members of the Guild and

While the peak was going on, the other members of the Guild and four of the ladies who honoured the event by their presence, were taken round the clurch, which dates back to the 10th century, and were much interested in the beautiful and artistic monument to Grace Darling, who lies buried in this ancient and romantic churchyard, which overlooks the scene of her heroic efforts in saving so many lives from the good ship Forfarshire, in 1847 when she and her father were in charge of the lighthouse on the outer Fern Islands.

By kind permission of the present occupant, Mrs. Pease, the visitors were allowed an interior acquaintance with the keep of the grand old feudal castle of Bamburgh which stands like a grim sentinel, guarding the shores and islands round about. Then they had tea at the Crewe Arms Hotel, and left by motor to catch the last train to Newcastle at 4.50 p.m.

The Vicar himself kindly made all the arrangements, and also sent his own car to meet the train at Belford, four miles away, at 8.36 a.m., a very welcome service which all appreciated as the party had to leave Newcastle as early as 6.20 a.m.

Mr. Edmund Williams, the Vicar's son kindly photographed the band who rang in the peal at the church door, and promised to have the photo placed below the peal board, which the Vicar has generously promised to have creeted in the beliry to commemorate the first 5,000 on the bells.

The members of the Guild wish to place on record their warm appreciation of the kindness and interest of the Vicar in their visit, and also wish to thank the steeplekeeper, Mr. Wallace, for having the bells in good going order for the peal. C. L. R.

Many excellent touches were rung during the day in the slandard methods. The ringing, too, was above the average of general meetings and a most successful and enjoyable meeting was passed. The total attendance of members was approximately 35. It was announced that the annual general meeting of the Association would be held at Ipswich on Wednesday, October 6th 1920.

BATH AND WELLS WAR MEMORIAL.

To the Editor. Sir,-I have read Mr Farloy's letter, and whilst I do not wish to enter into any argument as to the conclusions arrived at by those attending the meeting at Mincheed, yet I must at once point out to your cor-respondent that the actual time allowed for ringing at the Bath Abbey was docided by several local ringers after taking into consideration the then existing circumstances. I hasten to explain this in case your readers wrougfully attribute the limited ringing to the Rector of Bath On application to him for the use of the bells, he at once granted them. Of application to him for the use of the bells, he at once cranted them, lelling me to see the tower master, but pointing out at the same time the reason why they should not be rung too long. However, it was left to my committee's judgment. The Rector of Bath is second to none in his wishes for promoting the association and has given up very many hours of his time for our benefit. In conclusion, we all regret that the Vicar of St. Cuthbert's should suffer because of the ban on Wells, yet, in spite of your correspondent's concluding remark I have confidence in the ability of both our Master and the Rector of I have confidence in the ability of both our Master and the Rector of Bath in approaching the Dean and Chapter of Wells in a proper man-ner, and that all the vital facts well explained to him.—Fred C. Rich, local secretary, Bath branch.

Pulling, Atkins and Richardson.

Afterwards, the visitors with the local band, were entertained by the bridegroom to an excellent meat tea at the Swan.-Mr. Pulling moved a vote of Hanks to Mr. Dufield for his bospitality, and wished the bride and bridegroom every happiness.

DEATH OF A VETERAN SUSSEX RINGER.

On July 23rd after only a few days' illness there passed away at Childingly, Sussex, James Brook, a veteran ringer of the Parish Church, at the age of 74 years. He had been runging since the age of 15, and was one of the most regular and conscientious of the parish ringers. Although age was creeping upon him he was ringing for service only ten days before his death, and within the hast six menths had taken part in his first quarter-peal. Nine of his sons fought for King and country in the great war, and he was a well known and greatly respected figure in the neighbourhood, having worked on one

DEATH OF MR. JOEL HERN.

A LOSS TO DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSOCIATION.

It is with deep regret we have to announce the passing of the oldest ringer in the two northern dioceses, Mr. Joel Hern, of North Shields. He was an original member of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association, and served many years as one of its vice-presidents. Some Association, and served many years is one of its vice-presents, some years ago he celebrated his jubilee as a ringer, having started his carcor in 1867 in Norfelk, and with his brother, the late Mr. Johnson Hern, he joined the Parish Church band at North Shields in 1873. The leader of this band at the time was the late Mr. Wm. Reed, the first president of the Association, when the writer often heard express the opinion that 'Joel' was the most elegant handler of a rope, and the finest striker he had over had the privilege to ring with. The the finest striker he had ever had the privilege to ring with. The deceased rang in a great number of peals in a large diversity of methods, including London Surprise Major, Kent and Oxford Treile Bob Royal and Major, Stedman Triples and Caters Double Norwich and Double Oxford Bob Major, Grandsire Caters and Triples, etc. He was laid to rest in the churchyard at Preston, North Shields, but owing to the short notice of his interment few of the prominent interment of the Association were present with to their reveat as they ringers of the Association were present, much to their regret, as they would have counted it a high privilege to pay the last solemn tribute to so worthy a man and to such a sound ringer. However, a band was quickly got together to ring a muffled touch on the afternoon of the funeral,

The members of the Association feel his loss very keenly as leader of a band who not only promoted the best of ringing, put his heart and soul into the work, but kepl, the band together and in union by his own strong and genial personality.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. BANK HOLIDAY MEETING AT SOUTHGATE.

On August Bank holiday, by kind permission of the Vicar (the Rev C. F. Poploe M.A.), ringers were afforded the opportunity of a 'pull' on the renowned peal at Ohrist Church Southgale, which have recently been augmented into ten by the gift of two trebles by the chil-dren of the late Mr. Arthur Rowland Barker, as a memorial to their father and mother. Despite the inelement weather, ringers from all hather and mother. Despite the inelement weather, ringers from all parts (even as far disturt as Grantham, Northampton and Beacons-field) took full advantage of the opportunity thus given to them, and over 80 were present. Touches in various methods were rung during the afternoon, and all present spoke highly of the splendid ' splice' which Messrs. Mears and Stainbank have effected. Southgate may well be proud of its bells.

By the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. C. Barker, a sumptuous lea was partaken of at their residence ' Churchfields,' which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

Unfortunately ringing had to cease about 6 p.m., owing to a case of illness near the church, but the four hours during which the bells ha heen available was made good use of. Evensong was afterwards held in the church, when an excellent and most fitting address was given by the Rev. Professor R. de G. Hampson, who took his text from Ecclesiasticus, parts of 44, 1-15: ' Let son, who took his text from Ecclesisticus, parts of 44, 1-15. Let us now praise... our fathers that begat us... such as did bear rule... leaders of the people by their counsels.... Rich men furnished with ability living peaceably in their habitations... these were merciful men whose righteousness hath not been forgotten Their seed shall stand fast, and their children for their sakes. Then bodies are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore. The receipte will tell of their wisdom and the congregations will show forth their praise."

At the business meeting, which was held in the tower, presided over by the president (Mr. Arthur T. King), one new member was elected and it was decided to hold a mid-week meeting on Thursday, August 26th at Finchley, if it were possible to arrange this .-- Votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicar for the use of the bolls, and to Mr. and Mrs. C. Barker for providing tea and to all who helped to make the meeting so pleasant. Various touches were rung on the handbells during the evening.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Axbridge Deanery Branch was held at Cheddar on July 31st, 24 members being present, representing Burnham Bristol. Cheddar Hininster, Midsomer Norton, Brent Knoll, Mark, Worle. Weston-super-Mare Wells and Weare. Ringing commenced early in the afternoon, and service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. F. H. Wallis), who gave a very appropriate address. After tea at the Valley Restaurant, the business meeting was held. With the president (the Rev. M. I. Holme) in the chair, one new honorary member and two performing members were elected. East Brent was selected for the next meeting, to be held in about eight weeks' time.

The President proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for arrang-ing the service, and for the use of the bells, which were kept going during the afternoon and evening to Grandsire Stedman and Plan Bob.

PETERBOROUGH AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

A MEMORIAL BELL TO FALLEN MEMBERS.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough and District Association was held at Peterborough on August Bank Holiday among those pre-sent being the Rev. H. Law James, Messrs, F. Wilford, R. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pulling, Miss Lumley, and Messis, Moorhouse, The towers represented were March, Chatteris, Wisbech Wmittlesey, Fleet, Maxey, Deeping, etc. Owing to illness, only St. Mary's bells were available.

The Rev. H. L. James conducted the service and the Vicar (the Rev. A. C. Neely) gave the address. Afterwards, 50 sat down to tea in St. Mary's Schoolroom. The president (the Dean of Peterborough) presided at the business meeting which followed, supported by the Rev. A. C. Neely (vice-president and treasurer).

A statement of accounts showed a balance of £6 10s. 10d: in hand .-The Secretary stated that 14 peals had been rung during the year, including one of Minor in ten spliced methods (the only one rung last year); also one of Grandsire Triples at St. John's, Peterporough, the only other previously recorded at this church being a peal of Grand-sire Triples in March, 1773.

The whole of the officers were re-elected, with the addition of Mr. J. Puplett (March) and Mr. J. Barker (Peterborough) on the committee. Mr. J. Barker was also elected assistant secretary.

After a statement by the Dean with reference to the Cathèdral bells, and the proposal to erect a tablet as a war memorial had been reforred back to the committee, it was decided to raise a fund for a treble bell to a peal of ten or twelve, the names of the fallon members of the Association (seven in number) to be inscribed thereon. The subscription was increased to 2s, 6d. 1s. 6d. or which is to be de-voted to this fund. The profit on the tea, gl, was also voted for $(h)_{a}$ purpose.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION. SUMMER MEETING AT BLYTH.

The mid-summer meeting of the North Notts Association was held on Saturday at Blyth-an ideal place for a summer gathering. Blyth is three or four miles from the nearest railway station so a waggonette, a motor charabane, the poor man's useful back, the bicrele, or shank's pony has to be called into the service of the North Notis brethren when they meet there, and a very pleasant ride or drive it is from whichever point of the compass they come all the roads tuither traversing a well-timbered undulating country until they converge upon the picturesque village. Standing on the banks of the River Rylon, embowered with noble beech trees and other fine timber, the rillage is grouped on either side of a remarkably wide main street, which opens out at one end into a well-shaded glen. At the other end stands the venerable church which, architecturally, is most interesting. Members and friends turned up for the meeting in good numbers, and the following towers were represented: Worksop Gainsboro', Tux-ford, Sutton-on-Lont, Ordsall, Norton Cuckney and Blyth, and a num-her of interested ladies were also present. Ringing commenced about 4 p.m., and tea was provided at the Commercial Hotel. The chair was The next and use was provided at the comparent riotol. The chaft was occupied by Mr. John Hind, in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar (the Rev. A. L. Phillips), and he was supported by the hon, scerefary (Mr. H. Haigh), ex-Sergt. W. H. Johnson, V.C. and 30 others. The Rev. G. E. Summers, Rector of West Relford, was elected vice-traident and the part matrix contrast for Mark 1. In the second s president, and the next meeting was arranged for Tuxford, in Septemher,—Mr. Hind, in the absence of the Vicar, gave the association a very hearty welcome to Blyth and the members were enthusiastic in their pruise of him and the hon, secretary for the splendid arrangements for tea and meeting.

Some very good touches were rung on the bells in Plain Boh, Kent The Worksop ringers early in the afternoon also rang and Stedman. at Harworth (by the and permission of the Rev. F. D'Arblay Burney). This ring is considered to be one of the most musical peals of six in North Notts. The villagers took a keen delight in some well struck touches, and the bells wore raised and lowered in peal in good skyle.

A pleasant drive home in the cool of the evening, after a gloriously fine day, formed an agreeable ending to a successful meeting. H. II.

WORCESTERSHIRE RINGER'S DEATH.

His many friends will be deeply sorry to hear that Mr. R. Jamos, of Lye, passed away on July 29th, after a long and very painful illness, most patiently borne. Deceased was a member of the Worcestershire and Districts Association, and although he had not rung many peals he always obliged and helped wherever he could. The funeral look place on Tuesday, August 3rd, at the Lye Cometery. At the same time at St. Thomas' Church Stourbridge, 1344 of Grandsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled as a last tribute of respect to the deceased by the following ringers: C. W. Cooper J. J. Bass 2, T. Heathcock 3, W. Slort 4, A. E. Whatmore 5, S. Grove 6, R. Mathews (conductor) 7, W. A. Pugh 8. The ringers came from Clent, Oldswinford Stourbridge, Wollaston and Selly Oak.

THE RINGING WORLD.

August 13th, 1920.

ON PLEASURE BENT. RINGERS' EXOURSIONS.

The six-bell hand at Leytonstone Essex, usually accomplish a good day's work when they go for their annual outing, and this year's excursion was no exception to the rule. Leaving Liverpool Street at 5.53 a.m. (hey breakfasted at Audley End, started ringing at Wenden's Ambro at 8.45, and, thereafter were busily engaged in scoring 720's of Minor for the greater part of the day in various towers with touches of Superlative and Treble Bob Major, and Stedman Triples thrown, in at Sawston.

The day's touches included the following :--

WENDEN'S AMBRO (Essex).-720 Durham Surprise: H. Torble 1, W. Theobald 2, A. Prior 3, G. Dawson 4, W. Miller (conductor) 5, J. Moule 6.

LITTLEBURY (Essex). - 720 Ipswich Surprise: W. Riches I. W. Theobald 2, T. Faulkner 3, G. Dawson 4, W. Miller (conductor) 5, J. Moule 6.

ICKLETON (Cambs).-720 Lincoln Surprise: W. Theobald 1, H. Torble 2, A. Prior 3, G. Dawson 4, W. Miller (conductor) 5, J. Moule 6. WHITTLESFORD (Cambs).-720 Wells Surprise: W. Riches 1, G. L.

Joyce 2, A. Prior (conductor) 3, W. Smith 4, W. Miller 5, J. Moule 6, STAPLEFORD (Cambo).—720 London Surprise: T. Faulkner 1 W. Theobald 2, A. E. Austin (first in the method) 3, G. Dawson 4, W. Miller (conductor) 5, J. Moule 6, 720 York Surprise: H. Torble 1, G. Duwson 2, A. Prior 3, W. Miller (conductor) 4, J. Moule 5 A. Hardy 6, SAWSTON.--448 Superlative Surprise: G. Hayden 1, H. Torble 2, T. Faulkner (conductor) 3, W. Miller 4, A. Prior 5, W. Theobald 6, J. Moule 7, A. Hardy 8; and touches of Stedman and Treble Bob, with some of the local men standing in.

The ringers wish to tender their thanks to the various incumbents for the use of the bells, also to all the local ringers who met them and made them so welcome, and especially to Mr. A. E. Austin, to whose assistance the splendid success of the outing was largely due.

Penwortham (St. Mavy's) Society paid a visit to several towers to the north of Lancaster for their outing. Travelling by charabanc from Lancaster they moved swiftly through the fine country which skirts the coastland of Morecambe Bay, towards the village of Beetham, which was the first of the halts. Here the bells were raised, and while a 720 of Kent Treble Bob Minor was in progress, the non-ringing members of the party found much to interest them in the quaint architecture of the church, the listoric relice of the vestry, and the fine archivay of roses, stretching half-way from the gate to the tower. Over the hill to Burton was the next step, and here also some good ringing took place, a 720 of Oxford Treble Bob Minor being added to the list; the fine roomy belfry and the good ' go ' of the bells making it a specially attractive tower. A fine rolling country opened out be fore the party on leaving Burton, and the winding, switchback roads from there to Silverdale afforded much pleasure and made them keen to try conclusions with the bells of Silverdale. A 720 of Bob Minor resulted followed by a touch in conjunction with three of the local hand. At Milnthorpe a meeting of the Furness and Lake District Branch was in progress, but owing to the great distances to be travelled in order to arrive at these meetings, only a few other ringers were met. However a further 720 (making one at every place visited) this time of Oxford Treble Bob Minor was successfully brought round, and after a final touch the bells were rung down and the party set off on the homeward journey. Thanks are due to all who so willingly offered the use of the various towers, and to those who had everything in readiness to give a great welcome to the visitors.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION. BANK HOLIDAY GATHERING.

A most enjoyable day was spent by members and friends of the above who visited Hythe and Folkestone on August Bank Holiday. In spite of long queues at the booking offices and trains going before you could get a ticket, missing trains, flat tyres, loaded 'buses and other * ills ' ills ' that flesh is heir to, all turned up smiling and made the bells pay full compensation. The towers of Sellindge (6), Saltwood (6) and Hythe (8) were visited in the morning, and Grandsire, Stedman and Treble Bob Methods were rung.

A full complement was present at Folkestone in the afternoon, and after the local ringers had rung a well-struck touch for a wedding the visitors took the ropes and made full use of this fine peal of bells, all the four standard methods being enjoyed. Two ladies took part in the ringing, Miss Thomas ringing the treble to a touch of Grandsire Triples, and Miss Jarvis the third to a touch of Stedman Triples.

Two visitors, Mr. W. Dyer of Gloucestar and a 'brother string' from Hull, joined in during the day, and they also rang a quarter-peal for the Sunday evening service. There were also several experts from the Canterbury district, and the striking (on the whole) was very good throughout. very good throughout. Best thanks are due to Mr. Binfield, of the Folkestone tower; Mr. S. Gower, of Hythe, and Mr. Gower, of Salt-wood for helping to make for the visitors a very happy day.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

THE STORY OF AN ANCIENT PEAL BOARD.

A meeting of the Northern Division of the Essex Association was held at Finchingfield, when 33 members were present from Sible Helfingham, Rayne, Dunmow, Black Notley, Braintree, Wethersfield, Gr Yeldham, Stedding, and Stisted. A short service was held in the Parish Church, the Vicar, the Rev. H. Jordan, officiating, and an excellent address being given by Mr. A. W. Ruggles-Brise, J.P., C.C. on honorary member of the Association.

The was served in the Schoolroom, and followed by a business mect-ing, at which Mr. H. F. Cooper, District Muster, presided, supported by the Vicar and Mrs. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. RugglessBrize, Mr. C. H. Howard, Master of the Association, the Rev. H. T. W. Eyre, hon. socretary, and Mr. B. Redgwell, hon. district secretary.-The Rev. R. Jordan, Vicar of Finchingfield, and the Rev. D. B. Barclay, Vicar of Braintree, were elected honorary members. Messrs, P. French, T. Wollard, W. Dare, S. Chapman, R. Hardy, Finchingfield; J. Bloomfield, Wethersfield; and H. A. Pratt, Black Notley, were elected probationary members.

The Rev. H. T. W. Eyre proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the preacher for his address, remarking that it was the first time the ringers had been addressed in church by a layman.-The Master, in thanking the organist for his services, and the local ringers for making all the arrangements, expressed a wish that the restoration of the bells might be undertaken in the near future. In their present state it was quite impossible to ring the bells for any length of time. The bells, a very fine ring of eight in E flat, with a tenor of 19 cwt, were erected in 1781. They needed rehanging and quarter-turning. Ou account of the Freat need of restoration, it was very doubtful if the present generation had ever heard them at their best.-The Vicar and Mr. Brise responded. The Vicar said they had an estimate for the work needed to restore the bells, which amounted to a very considerable sum, but he hoped they might be able to raise the money at some not far distant date.

The Saffron Society on May 30th, 1825, rang 5,120 Oxford Treble Bob-the only peal ever rung upon Finchingfield bells-and erected a handsome board in the church recording it. When the church was handsome board in the church recording it. When the church was restored the board was taken down and found its way into the Green Man Inn adjoining the church. A few years ago, Mr. F. Pitstow, a present member of the society, made arrangements with the owners of the inn for the board to be restored to its former position in an church, but before this could be carried out the inn was burned down, and the board was destroyed. Fortunately Mr. Pitstow took a copy of the record, which was read to the meeting by the Master.

The Vicar and churchwarden expressed their regret that the board should have been allowed to be taken from the church, and asked for Although the bells go very heavily indeed, several very fair touches of Grandstre Triples were brought round. It has been recorded by more than one writer that Finchingfield is the pretriest village in Essex. The same might be said of the Vicar-age garden and grounds to which the ringers were invited and heartily welcomed by the Vicar and Mrs. Jordan, who, with their friends present, very much enjoyed the touches of Grandsire Triples and Caters, Treble Bob, etc., and tune ringing on the handbells by mixed hands. mixed bands.

NORTH-EASTERN DIVISION.

A meeting of the North-Eastern Division was held at Great Horkesky, on Saturday, July 24th. Ringing commenced at Wormingford, on the recently restored and augmented peal of six bells, and afterwards at Little Henkeden when one one in user water and the bells at Little Horkesley where some six-scores were rung on the five bells, and a touch of Triples upon the handbells. At Great Horkesley some good touches of Bob Minor and Troble Bob were brought round. At the business meeting which followed tea at the Rose and Crown Mr. W. J. Novard, District Master, presided, supported by Mr. C. 11. Howard, Braintree, Master of the Association; Rev. H. T. W. Eyre, Witham, secretary; Mr. H. T. Pye Colchester district secretary; and Mr. E. J. Nevard, churchwarden, Great Horkesley.—The last-named, in the absence of the Rector, gave the members a hearty welcome. and expressed his pleasure in once again meeting the Rev. H. T. W. Eyre amongst the members. — Mr. E. J. Nevard was unanimously elected an honorary member, and Messrs. G. Balls, E. Leggett and R. Leggett of Wormingford, ringing members.—Tollesbury was selected, if convenient, for the next meeting, and Mr. C. H. Howard con-gratulated the Vicar and churchwardens on the excellent condition of the church and bells, and the splendid manner in which the churchyard is kept .- A hearty vote of thunks was passed to the District Master for presiding, and also for his kindness in providing the tea. Afterwards the belfry was again visited and a well-struck 720 Kent Treble Bob was rung. Ringers were present from Langham, Great Bromly and Thorington.

MOVING THE CLERGY.

CROYDON, SURREY.

The 22 cwt. Tenor of the Ring of 8 Dedicated at Birstall, Leeds, on October 4th, 1919.

BELLS, CARILLONS. CLOCKS.

In an interesting letter to the 'Diocesan Magazine' for the county of Suffolk, comprising the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Rev. Herbert Drake, of Ufford, at the request of the ringers of East Suffolk, very concisely puts forward the claims of change ringing for the consideration of those officially connected with the churches of that part of the county. He points out the ways in which a ringing association helps in Church work, and refers to the difficulties which have to be faced in instructing new hands where change ringing has never been practised, or where bands have been broken up owing to the war. It is a letter which, coming under the notice of responsible and thinking men, is likely to sow seeds which may bear much fruit in the future. It is the kind of propaganda work which promises excellent result among those whom it is of the greatest importance to interest, both in the art of ringing and in the welfare of the ringing organisations.

At their last meeting the Central Council decided upon the issue of a circular, on somewhat similar lines, to Bishops, Archdeacons, Rural Deans and Clergy, and it is gratifying to see localised effort made to support the general appeal which is being issued. A good deal of whatever neglect now exists in belfries can be attributed to ignorance and thoughtlessness, and if, throughout the country, after the Council's letter has gone out, the various associations will each get one of their practical ringing clergy to support it by an appeal such as has been madein anticipation-by the Rev. H. Drake, the effort of the Council may have an even better result than a single general letter can be expected to achieve. But more than this, we hope Canon Baker's suggestion that the subject should be brought up for discussion at Ruridecanal conferences will be seriously taken up, for it is by this means best of all, if the matter be properly handled by men who know what they are talking about, that lasting results may be obtained.

Here is a very definite piece of propaganda work which the associations all over the country can take up. When the Council's circular gets into the hands of the clergy all over the country, as we understand it soon will do, the officials of the various associations should at once take steps to get the subject placed on the Ruridecanal Conference agenda papers throughout their respective areas, by the aid of their clerical members; they should ensure speakers in support of the subject and provide them, if necessary, with information. In this way they would be able to get 'right home' with the clergy, who are at present indifferent to the matter, and would awaken an interest which would probably be stirred less effectually in any other way.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD. BANK HOLIDAY MEETINGS.

BANK HOLIDAY MEETINGS. The summer meeting of the Yorktown District of the Guild was held in the neighbourhood of Yateley on Angust Bank Holiday, under slightly damping conditions, but as thange ringers enfoy shelter from the storm in pursuit of their calling the downpour did not dim the ardour of those who enjoyed the day out. Mr. G. Miles, the hon. secretary, was enabled to offer the ropes of five belfries in four coun-ties (including a portion of the Oxford Diocesan Guild's area) for operations during the holiday, viz.: Yorktown, Hawley, Sandhurst, Finchampstead and Yateley, and some three dozen ringers joined in the practices representing Chertsey, Oatlands Park, Grawley, Slour Finchampstead, Guildford, Sandhurst, Stoke Poges, Hawley, Leather-head, Yateley, Old Windsor, Wokingham, Yorktown and Staines. The trusty cycle was the chief means of transport round the winding lane of Berks and Hauts, except where roads were covered with flood wider, when 'fields and pastures new' were trodden. The standard methods were employed at, each place, more or less successfully in water, when ' fields and pastures new ' were trodden. The standard methods were employed at each place, more or less successfully in order that everybody should have his or her spell at the tail end. Cambridge Minor at Sandhurst, and Superlative Surprise Major at Yateley, adding to the repertoire of achievement. Service was held at Yateley Church at 4.30, conducted by the Vicar who gave an address and a welcome to all from the chancel steps. The Guild's form of service was used and the ladies manued half the business meeting was presided over by Mr. W. H. Fussell. The Ringing Master's report for the year was received with thanks as it rontained reference to the Central Council meeting at Northampton, comments on the proposed increase of subscriptions for 1921, and the comments on the proposed increase of subscriptions for 1921, and the recent seven-method yeal, the first in the district. The election of new members found two names to add, Miss Iris J. Fowler, of Oatlands, and Mr. Albert Goodall, of Yateley, and they were received into the fold with joy -- Votes of thanks were accorded to the clergy and the foremen of the towers visited, and by a manimous show of hands it was resolved that the favours shown to the Guild should not be allowed to die out, but that a letter of thanks be sent direct to each lowed to die out, but that a lotter of thanks on sent direct to each parish. The Chairman closed the meeting by referring to the history of ringing in the Yorktown district, and the generous support given in the past by the Stillwell family. Mr. J. P. Stillwell, now in his 37th year, was too poorly to come out in such ' changeable ' weather, but Miss A. E. Stillwell was present to kindly cheer them on in the good work.

Another hour's ringing was indulged in with a decent touch of Stedman Triples to finish with, Miss Stillwell taking part. The ancient Hampshire limbers of the campanile were at last left to their stately solves wondering who next was coming to try their strength and from where? Some of the visitors present had travelled over 20 miles to attend this 'gathering of the clans,' but the Miles from Owlsmoor would be just too much for Bucks men. Everyone felt the district secretary had scored heavily against the clork of the weather. Surely the sound of the church bells must have warmed up some lonely be-violated heavily dependent of Surely on this corners on nighted heart amongst the drooping pines of Surrey on this occasion. Method ringers cannot ' bottle up ' their Double Norwich or Treble Bob, and it is well to remember this.

A 'SUMMER' OUTING AT RANMORE.

A 'SUMMER' OUTING AT RANMORE. A gathering of the Guildford District of the Guild had been ar-rauged to take place at Ranmore—a beautiful spot, with beautiful hells on the top of the Surrey hills. The meeting is best described in the following letters. The District Secretary (Mr. J. J. Jones) writes: 'After going through a perfect deluge I arrived at Ranmore, only to find Mr. Dobinson the tower keeper, in a disconsolate mood. We tried to cheer each other, but finally decided that no one would turn up, and we parted—he to let the bells down; I to catch the 'bus. I had got down the hill (two miles) when I heard the grand ring in full swing. If I had only known who was there, I should certainly have elimbed back again, but the weather decided me to go on. The rest of the story is better told in the enclosed letter—from Greenwich: Dear Sir.—I had hoped for the pleasure of meeting you yesterday. The notice of the meeting at Ranmore Common was too inviting to resist, but like Mr. E. F. Cole, of Hammersmith, who arrived there about noon a short time ahead of myself, it looked (at 2.30) as if ' no speeches.' May I just detail the proceedings between 3 p.m. and 5 p.m., in case you get no other report? At 3 p.m., Mr. Cole and I were joined by Messrs. T. Beadle (Isleworth) and J. Waghorn (Fast Ham). A few minutes later up turned one of the Reigate bond, and Mr. Thomson, of Ranmore. Then followed two ' brother strings ' from Windsor. So we made a start with a well-struck touch of 280 Grand-ing Trinks. We were then reinformed br. Messre F. C. Newman

Mr. Thomson, of Rammore. Then followed two ' brother strings ' from Windsor. So we made a start with a well-struck touch of 280 Grand-sire Triples. We were then reinforced by Messrs. F. C. Newman (West Ham), and A. Hardy and A. Faulkner (Barking) with two or three other Reigate men, and three lady ringers-two from Aldershot Three courses of Grandsire with the ladies were rung, conducted by a Reigate man. Then 336 Stedman Triples conducted (as was the 280 Grandsire) by myself. Later, two courses of Kent Trable Bob, con-ducted by A. Hardy. A plain course of Grandsire concluded the ringing at 5 p.m. Despite the dismol weather, the little gathering was very successful, even though brief and I am gratified that I made the trip, and breasted the two-mile hill for the pleasure of listen-ing to and ringing upon the grand ring at St. Barnabas Church. LLANDAFF DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

ANOTHER PEAL OF EIGHT IN PROSPECT.

A quarterly meeting of the Llandaff Diocesan Association was held at St. Nicholas', on Saturday last, and proved a great success. The church contains five bells. It is on the main South Wales Road, be-tween Cardiff and Cowbridge and is almost unique, inasmuch as there is to be seen in the chancel, fixed close to the roof, an old Sanctug bell.

The late running of the train accounted for several members putting in a late appearance, but they arrived just in time to join with the rest at tea, which had been very kindly provided by Miss Cory, a keen supporter of the church.

Afterwards, the business meeting was held, presided over by the Rector (the Rev. J. O. Olston), who by the way, has only been re-cently inducted to the parish, having been formerly in Ireland, and close to the grand peak of bells in Arklow. The Chairman read a letter received from the Rector of Bedwellty,

The Chairman read a letter received front the received of inclusions, thanking the association for sending the hon, see, to give advice on the Bedwellty bells. Since the visit the order has been placed with Messrs, Taylor to complete the octave by adding two trobles. Mention was made that the tablet to be placed in the Cathedral to the Association's fallen ringers was nearing completion.

New members were elected from St. Athan, Bonvilstone, and the whole of the St. Nicholas' hand, which numbers eleven,

It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Liangibby on Sept. 25th.— The usual vote of thanks terminated the meeting. The bells of Bonvilstone were available for ringing, and several took advantage of the opportunity thus afforded. The weather was glorious, and a most enjoyable time was spent.

THE LEICESTER CONTROVERSY. To the Editor.

Sir,-My, appreciation of your leader on six-bell towers, and subsequent defence of the five and six bell ringers of this district has branched off into a purely local matter, having no bearing on the subject whatever, and I, therefore, ask you kindly to publish my final reply to Mr. Dexter. He says no controversy would have been raised had I kept to my subject, but forgets the fact that he himself caused this by assuming himself an injured party, and taking upon kimself the responsibility of the whole eight and ten bell towers when no names were mentioned. (There were four societies at the time stated, now reduced to three.)

Not knowing how to answer directly and to the point, he quibbles about 'my self-glory ' and his ' modesty,' while his latest bluster about the troubles of Tom, Dick and Harry are amusing but not very convincing, and only go to show how he is trying to wriggle out of an awkward nosition. All through, his letters have cast insulting re-marks on my integrity and honour as a ringer, but I leave it to your readers who know me to judge as they think fit, and to the local societies to either condemn or uphold me.

societies to either condemn or uphoid me. I attended the last two meetings of the M.C.A. in the hope of seeing Mr. Dexter personally, and having this matter over before the members, but his absence from any activities beyond his own society makes this impossible. I reconcile my statement that it is a deliber-ate lie to say a first-class ringer stood out to allow me a privilege and his remark that they ring Surprise methods for Sunday services, thus: For years his society only rang Grandsire and Stedman, and on many occasions I have been asked to make up their bands for this. (I cau occasions I have been asked to make up their bands for this. (I can give dates if necessary.) It is only during the last twelve months or give dates in necessary.) It is only during the last twelve months or so they have rung other methods for services, and that owing to the augmentation of their band by 'ready-made' ringers from other churches. My first letter clearly states 'before the war.' Mr. Dexter still persists in stating (falsely as all local ringers know) his society made me what I am, so evidently I still belong there, not having had notice to the contrary. If his remarks on spiritualism, written with the consent of St. Martin's Society, are the best respect they can pay to those members who have passed away, and the gene-ral Durport of his remarks their thanks for service pendered then ral purport of his remarks, their thanks for services rendered, then J take this opportunity to ask them to erase my name from their records wherein they at one time were pleased to quote me as a member.

coids wherein they at one time were pleased to quote me as a member. Finally, 'Mr. Dexter's last remark on two kinds of conductors fits his own case very well, for on his own showing he has to find a con-ductor, and a perusal of St. Martin's records shows he asks himself every time without fail. I prefer to belong to that class of ringer who will join in assisting a local band to score a peal of Doubles or Minor, with the same enthusiasm as in joining a first-class band on a peal of ten or twelve bells. The former is not beteath my dignity. nor the latter above my aspirations.

I refuse to say any more on this subject, either privately or through the press, but leave the matter entirely to the judgment of the local ringers as stated above. Apologising for again trespassing on your valuable space yours sincerely, Leicester.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE REV. H. A. COCKEY. UNVEILING CEREMONY AT OLDLAND,

The memorial, erected by the ringers of this country, to the late Rev. H. A. Cockey, was unveiled at St. Anne's Church, Oldland, Bristol, on Saturday last. It consists of a tablet placed in the chancel of the church in connection with a handsome reredos recently erected by means of subscriptions from the parishioners, and to which the bell ringers also contributed in recognition of the late Vicar's practical interest in change ringing. The inscription on the tablet reads: 'The Bell Ringers of England contributed to this reredos erected in the memory of the late Herbert Adolphus Cockey, hon, treasurer and past muster of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association of Change Ringers.' Prior to the service the following ringers from St. Stephen's, Bristol, rang a plain course of Grandsire Caters on hundbells over the grave of the late Vicar, viz.: Messrs. H. T Howell 1-2, A. Reeves 3-4, R. J. Wilkins 5-6, G. Condick, juur., 7-8, and C. Gordon 9-10.

7-8, and C. Gordon 9-10. At the service the officiating clergy were the Vicar of Oldland (Rev. S. R. Worters) and the Rev. C. D. P. Davies, Rector of Deane, Hants, hon, secretary of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, and late Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association. Among those also attending were the Rev. M. E. Thorold, Vicar of SS. Philip and Jacob, Bristol, bute Master; Mr. W. A. Cave Master; H. Howell, chairman; F. K. Howell, treasurer; and E. Guise, secretary of the Gloucestershire and Bristol Association; and the ringers present included visitors from Wotton-under-Edge, Berkeley, Dursley, Stinchcombe and Thornbury. The Rev. C. D. P. Davies gave an address based on Hebrews xiii.

The Rev. C. D. P. Davies gave an address based on Hebrews xiii. 7 and 8, 'Whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.' He remarked that the late Vicar was one who worked in the parish with fuith and zeal for many years, and one who it was a great privilege of his to be friends with ever since Oxford days. He knew how thorough he was, and he had the valuable quality of being very methodical and businesslike. He sat for many years on the Contral Council of Church Bell Ringers, and they knew how sound and valuable his advice was. They among whom he lived, particularly those who held offices in the church, must have known how true his (the speaker's) remarks were. The late Vicar also had a sense of humour. What a help it was if they could see the lighter side of things! Taking especially the religious quality, how steadfast he was in his faith! He was steadfast in friendship. They had known each other for forty years, and also kept him going in faith and friendship until the last, and also kept him going in his work perhaps too long. He worked until his health failed, and he could work no longer. Referring to the form of the memorial, the reredos and beautifying of the altar, the speaker said nothing delighted the heart of the late Vicar more than to make the worship of God in church as beautiful and as reverent as he possibly could The beautifying of the altar came at an opportune time because one great work the Church of England had before it was to get hack the scrince of Holy Euclarist into its proper place, as it had been put in a secondary position. They could not render any service too beautiful, but at the same time they must not relegate the great and beautiful service to a secondary place.

beautiful service to a secondary place. Following the service about 100 visitors were entertained to tea in the Parish Hall, arranged by Mrs. Worters, Mrs. C. Willmott, and Mrs. W. Fudge, with many lady helpers.—The Vicar beartily welcomed the visitors, and read a letter from Mr. J. E. L. Cockey, of Sheffield, a change ringer and a cousin of the late Vicar, apologising for absence and referring to the great esteem in which the late Vicar was held. He was a man of God in the truest sense of the word, and would always be held in kindly remembrance by all change ringers. Canon Papillon, of St. Albans, Herts, also wrote apologising for absence, and referred to his association with the late Vicar as a bell ringer in Essex in 1884.

bell ringer in Essex in 1884. On the motion of Mr. W. A. Cave, seconded by Mr. R. J. Wilkins, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Rev. C. D. P. Davies for attending. At the instance of Mr. Guise, seconded by Mr. F. Howell, the Vicar was thanked for the arrangements for the service and tea, and the Vicar made suitable acknowledgment. Selections on the handbells were given during the proceedings and ringing afterwards took place at Warmley Parish Church and St. Stephen's, Bristol.

HERTFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Northern District was held at Royston on Saturday last, when some 25 members and visiting ringers were present. Touches were rung upon the recently augmented peal of bells, and a service, very kindly arranged by the Vicar (who was unavoidably absent, was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Smith. After teal at a neighbouring restaurant, the business meeting was held, the Rev. W. H. Smith being unanimously voted to the chair. Three new members were elected, and it was agreed to hold the next meeting at ritchin in November. Thanks were expressed to the Rev. W. H. Smith for presiding over the meeting and for conducting the service, to which he suitably replied; also to the Vicar for arranking for the service and for the use of the bells. The ringing embraced seven methods, ranging from Plain Bob to Double Norwich Major.

RINGERS' EXCURSIONS. THROUGH DORSET BY MOTOR.

The motor charabanc is now the favourite means of touring the country for a ringers' outing, and the Wyke Regis band made a wide sweep of Dorsetshire, when they had their annual trip recently. The party, numbering 28 including the Rector, curate, churchwardens, and adult members of the clioir, visited many of the beauty spots and historic places in the county and rang at no fewer than eight churches. At Sherborne the old city and abbey were inspected, but the first ringing was done at Charlton, Hornethorne, and the next at Milborne Port, where the visitors were met by the Guild Master (Major Hughes D'Aeth). The next call was at Kington Magna, the home of the genial hon. Sccretary of the Guild (the Rev. F. Li. Edwards), who gave the party a hearty welcome, and rang in the Doubles on the five bells of his church. An illustration of his great love of hell music is the lovely sweet-toned peal of handbells, hung beside the organ (in the same pitch), and he gave the party an exhibition of tapping, accompanied by the organ, which was admired by all. Lunch and ringing at Gillingham was followed by a visit to Shaftesbury or Shaston, the ancient British Palladour. Shaston is in itself the vity of a dream-vague imaginings of its castle, its three mints its magnificent apsidal abbey, the chief glory of South Wessex, its twelve churches its shrines, chantries, hospitals, mansions—all now ruthlessly swept away. Shaston was the burial-place of a king and a queen, of abbots and abbesses, saints and bishops, knights, squires. for holy preservation, brought Shaston a renown which made it the resort of pilgrims from every part of Europe. It has a unique posi-tion on the summit of a hill rising out of the deep alluvial vale of Blackmoor. The view from the top of the tower of Holy Trinity (on the six bells of which the party rang), over three counties of verdant pasture was grand. A Iwerne Minster, which once belonged to Shaflesbury, and which has the distinction of possessing the only stone spire in Dorset, with the exception of Steepleton and Trent, the visitors enjoyed ringing on the six bells before proceeding to Blandford, where tea was partaken of. Advantage was taken of this interval to thank the hon, secretary for the admirable arrangements he, with us committee, had made for the tour. From Blandford, the journey was resumed to Wimborne, and finally to Bere Regis, where ringing for the day was concluded at 9.30 p.m. Wyke Regis being reached at 11.15 n.m., after a most happy and enjoyable day,

NUNHATON RINGERS' OUTING.

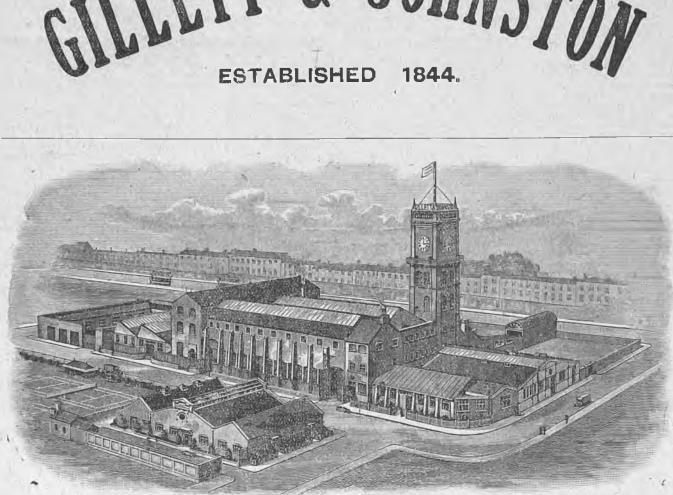

A most enjoyable time was spent by the Nuneaton Parish Church Society, when the members, together with their wives and several shire Guild, and Mr. H. Briggs of Stoney Stanton, journeved to sally clock-la-Zouch by molor charabane. A call was made at Nether-seal, and the party were given a hearty welcome by the Rector (free Rev. H. E. Worthington), who had kindly granted permission for the bells to be rung. An hour's ringing was indulged in, and touches of Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich and Superlative Surprise were brought round. After expressing their thanks to the Roctor for the use of the bells the party proceeded to Overseal, where everal touches in various methods were rung. Tea had been arranged in the schools hy Mr. A. Jackson and the local ringers, and the wants of the company were attended to by Mrs. Jackson and several other ladies, to whom at the conclusion a hearing vote of thanks was massed for the substantial meal provided.—A vote of thanks was also ac-conded to the Rector for use of the bells, and to the local ringers for the splendid arrangements made and the welcome they had given. After a few more touches on the delightful peal a move was made for the historie town of Ashby-de-la-Zouch, where touches of Double Norwich and Stedman Triples with members of the local band, were again brought formund concluding with a course of Cambridge Sur-prise. A pleasant hour was spent with the local ringers, to whom thanks were expressed for meeting the narty. The day's enjoyment of the rinners and their friends was made complete by the hearly welcome given by the incombents at the places visited, and the arrangements and hospitality afforded by the local bands.

A VISIT TO THE ISLAND.

The North Stoneham ringers spent their outing by a visit to the Isle of Wight, travelling by heat from Southampton Pier to Cowes, and en route obtaining a good view of the 'Imperator ' and the 'Mauritania,' both of which mammoth ships were in Southampton Docks. Another interesting craft was the large steam yacht lying off Cowes, which the ex-Kaiser had built while the war was in progress at a cost of over £4,000.000 to enable him to cruise round the world after the Germans had won the war. This ship has just returned from a voyage to India for the P. and O. Company. A short journey on the wonderful Isle of Wight Central Railway brought the party to Newport. The eight bells there are unringable at present, several being cracked, but it is satisfactory to know that a fund is being raised for the restoration of the peal, and a fete to be held at Carisbrooke Castle shortly, to be opened by M.R.H. Princess Beatrice, is expected to realise a good sum towards the project. The hells have been inspected by the bell hangers, and it is hoped the job will soon be put in hand. The peal boards on the walls of the bolry show that a flourishing ringing society existed at Newport and Carisbrooke about the year 1777.

Mr. Upton, of the Newport band had kindly made arrangements for dinner, and had also got permission from the Vicar (the Rev. C. H. Thompson) for ringing on the eight bells of the Parish Church at Newport, which, however, was limited to one hour, as the church as situated in the business part of the town. Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major and Kent Treble Bob Major were rung, Messrs. Upton, Calloway Phillips and Scanmel, of Newport, taking part. Then followed a visit to Godshill, which is a protty village about 51 miles from Newport. The Vicar (the Rev. Bartlett) readily gave permission for ringing and the bells were found to be a musical ring of six. Tea was provided by one of the inhabitants, who acted as guide. As there was no convenient train back to Cowes from Godshill the party had to go on foot to Morston Junction, but the walk was much enjoyed, in spite of the two long Isle of Wight miles, the scenery by the way being much admired. Cowes was reached in time to catch the 7.35 p.m. boat, and another pleasant water trip brought the party safely back to Southampton, after having spent a most enjoyable day.

WYCOMBE RINGERS' TRJP.

The annual outing of the High wycombe ringers was held on Wed-nesday week. The ringers were accompanied by wives and children, and the Vicar, who motored with the party, kindly conveyed a Pas-senger in his sidecar. The remainder journeyed by charabanc. Wat-lington was the first stop and the bells were soon set going. After several good touches. Wallingford was next visited, and here some good ringing was indulged in. Dinner was partaken of in al fresco fashion; and this part of the Programme was also enjoyed. Dor-chester Abbey and church were next visited. Owing to illness, no clester Abboy and church were next visited. Owing to liftess, no ringing could be done here, but a stroll round this famous historic building proved very interesting. Abingdon was the next call, and on arrival the ten bells were soon in motion. After a well-struck touch of Sledman Caters the party adjourned for tea, and ringing was then again resumed. Treble Bob, Stedman and Grandsire Caters being brought round. Dusk beginning to fall, a move was made for home the party safely reaching Wycombe just before ten o'clock, the party having had a most successful day's outing.

KENT AUGMENTATIONS. NORTHFLEET WAR BELLS DEDICATED

On Saturday evening last, the two new trebles at Northfleet, Kent, were dedicated by the Von, Archdeacon of Rochester. These two bells have been given as a war memorial by the inhabitants, and the inscriptions are as follows :-

Treble .- Given by the people of Northfleet in memory of the men of this parish who gave their lives in the Great War, 1914-1918."

2nd.- Presented by the people of Northfleet in commemoration of the Declaration of Peace, 1919.

The old six bells have been restored and quarter turned and rehung in the fine old oak frame which was erected in 1757, and now make an excellent peal of eight with a tenor of 15 owt. This work was entrusted to Mr. A. Rowell, of Ipswich, this being his 25th restoration in the county of Kent, and the ringers present at the opening were unanimous in the opinion that he had not made a bette 'splice,' as the tone and 'go 'were all that could be desired. M Bowell was unfortunately unable to be present to receive the ringers' congratulations.

The church was well filled when the service of dedication took place, and during the singing of the opening hymn 'Now at length our bells are mounted,' the choir and archdeacon, who was supported by five dergymen of the district, proceeded to the western supported by nive energymen or the district, produced to the model of door. The dedicatory prayer having been said, a few rounds were rung by the local ringers.—The Archdeacon in his address, congratu-lated the people of Northflect on their spendid memorial, and re-minded them that the sound of the balls was a call to service. The a collection in aid of the bound of the balls was a call to service. The service concluded with the hymn, 'Now thank we all our God,' and a collection in aid of the Bell Fund realised over £4. The bells were afterwards kept ringing until 9.30 in various methods, and in addition to the local band, Rochester district was represented by the secretary and representatives, and members from Swanscombe, Gravesend Milton and Rochester Towers. Lewisham Dis-trict was represented by Mr. T. Groombridge, secretary, and Mr. 1 Barnett. All were heartily pleased to see Mr. John Cheeseman at the ropes again, and congratulated him on his recovery. Rochester District ringers are fortunated in on his recovery. Rochester District ringers are fortunate in the bell restorations taking place in their midst. Hulling and Northflect have been added to and restored. The 'Victoria ' peal at Chatham has been rehung, and visitors will now find the ' go ' perfect. Rochester Cathedral are in the hands of Messrs. Guliett and Johnston and it is hoped before long the district will have its first peal of ten ready for ringing in the old Cathedral. The five at Frindsbury are to be augmented into a peal of eight, and the five at Stockbury are to be rehung. The order for the two latter rings are in the hands of Mr. A. Bowell.

CENTRAL NORTHAMPTONSHIRE ASSOCIATION. PEAL BOOKING FEES.

A fine afternoon brought over 40 members and friends to the quarterly meeting of the Northampton District held at Cogenhoe on Saturday last. The very fine ring of six was kept going in several methods during the afternoon. Evensong was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Stebbings), after which tea was served in the school-room, ably propared by the ringers' wives, and enjoyed by everyone. The Vicar gave the ringers a hearty welcome to Cogenhoe, and t Inc vicar gave the inters a hearty welcome to cogenite, and i business meeting which followed was presided over by the vice-presi-dent, the Rer. — Frend, of Collingtree (who, by the way, was the previous Vicar of Cogenhoe, and was the means of getting the old three bells made into a peal of six). Seven new members were elected.

elected. Mr. Law brought up the question of the fee for booking peals. He thought the fee should still be collected, and should go towards the cest of printing peals in the annual report.—The Secretary promised to bring the question up at the next committee meeting. Afterwards several members cycled to Whiston, about a mile away, and made use of the bells there, which were placed at their disposal during the data.

A KENT VICTORY PEAL. DEDICATION OF PEAL BOARD.

On Sunday morning, July 11th, an interesting ceremony took place at Shorne. Kent during the morning service, when a board recording a peal of Minor, rung for the peace celebrations at the termination of the war was unveiled and dedicated in the Parish Church by the Vicar (the Rev. C. E. Marsh, M.A.). The peal recorded on the board was in six methods and the second to be rung on that day by the Miltonnext-Gravesend band. To commemorate the ringing of the peal at his birth-place, Mr. John Avis, one of the ringers, very kindly provided the permanent record, which is a valuable addition to the ringing chumber. Midway through the service, the Vicar proceeded to tue ringing chamber, where he was met by the ringers and Mrs. Baker, wife of the churchwarden, who graciously performed the unveiling Latin of the sixth century. After the pravers and a few rounds on the bells the Vicar took for his sermon the words from Zecharial xiv, 20, 'And there shall be upon the bells on the horses. Holines, unto the Lord.' He likened the horses unto war, and the bells to peace, and in congrotulating the ringers upon their ' peace after victory ' peal, urged upon them to follow the motto that had enabled them to be victorious in the war-not 'go '-but' come.' Some ringers after ringing thought they had done their part but he wanted their motto be 'Come with me '-bring paople to church and then go themselves. A very impressive service finished with the hymn, 'Now thank we all our God.'

Previous to the service, the Millon ringers rang 720 Cambridge Surprise on the bells: John Avis 1, H. Argent 2, G. A. Jones 3, G. R. Ambrose 4, F. Hayes 5, F. Mitchell (conductor) 6. A 720 Kent Treble Bob was also rung, in which C. Winser (Frindsbury) and two of Mr. A. Bowell's employes, together with G. Barden, one of the local ringers (who thus scored his first of Troble Bob), with F. Mitchell (conductor), and G. Morrad, took part.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. J. Avis for providing the board.

Those who were in no hurry spent a pleasant half hour while Mr Avis piloted the party round some of his old haunts of nearly sixty years ago. The cottage where he was born and the holly tree planted by him as a boy show signs of age. 'The place where I smoked my first pipe' was pointed out, and the consequent result was dramatically told .- In proposing the health of Mr. Avis the leader of the Milton band expressed the hope that his connection with the Milton tower, which had been upwards of 30 years, would still last on, and that he would enjoy good health for many years to come.

The performance of the Cambridge University Guild on May 191 in ringing on hardbells the first peal of spliced Major Methods is worth more than passing notice. This was a composition combining Plain and Little Bob, ingeniously arranged by Mr. E. M. Atkins, the first 117 courses each consisting of a lead of Plain Bob followed by a let of Little Bob and another lead of Plain Bob. The requisite number of changes was made up of three full courses of Plain Bob the whole peal being 5016 changes. And, when one comes to think about it, the ringing of such a peal is not quite as easy as may at first sight ap-Dear.

ENCOURAGING YOUNG CONDUCTORS

The letter of a correspondent in another column reopens a question which has been referred to more than once in this journal, viz., the lack of encouragement given to would-be conductors. There are very many instances to be found in which, from motives sometimes of jealousy sometimes of selfishness, men who might develop into firstclass conductors are given no chance to cultivate any talent they may have in this direction. They happen to be associated with a man who, having got into the position of authority in the belfry, is determined to maintain himself as the bob caller, to the exclusion of all others. This is always a misfortune, and, in the interests of ringing, a barrier to progress. It is, however, always difficult to get a selfish man to take a broad view, otherwise the gentlemen who look upon conducting as their exclusive prerogative would realise that, instead of adding lustre to the Exercise at the moment, they are doing the future of the art a great disservice. The sudden departure of a conductor of this type has often left an otherwise promising band greatly handicapped.

At the same time it must not be forgotten that the appointment in a tower of a man whose duty it is to organise ringing, and to see that the best use is made both of the material at his disposal and of the bells themselves, is essential to efficiency. Usually the conductor of a band is elected by his fellows and has their confidence, and if he loses this confidence by his arbitrary action in monopolising that which his colleagues feel should be shared, they generally have the remedy in their own hands, for ringing societies, whether local or otherwise, are set up in these days on a democratic basis. If a conductor is jealous or selfish he should be plainly told that he is standing in the way of the progress of others, and asked to provide the opportunities that are desired for other members of his band. If, then, he still refuses, the first legitimate opportunity of removing him from his position should be taken, although we doubt if any man would decline to acquiesce in suggestions tactfully made.

But while it should be the ambition of every man to reach to highest achievements in the art, it must not be forgotten that all men are not capable of developing into conductors. Many are bob callers, but real conducting is to a large extent a gift, and if a band is intent on making progress with their ringing and of going from method to method, they will be content to leave the conducting for the tim- in the hands of their most capable member. It is the surest way of progress, provided one safeguard is taken, and that is that the conductor has an understudy. The best solution of the difficulty, after all, is the creation of a brotherly spirit which leads to co-operation and mutual advancement, and without which any band must be a thing of disintegrated units. BARNSLEY @ DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

A very successful gathering of this association was held at Hoyland-swaine, on Saturday, August 14th under the happiest conditions. This village is near yet seems to escape the dust and smoke of the mines surrounding Barnsley, and is situated five hundred feet above sea level. Delightful views are obtainable and there is a musical ring of six bells (tenor 10 ewt.) in the model village church tower. To these atbeing idenor to ewt.) In the model vinage control tower. To these at-tractions were added the personal and unstinted welcome of the Vicar and Mrs. King. Members were present from Horbury, Worl-ley Wath, Darfield, Barnsley, etc. By the kind invitation of the Vicar and Mrs. King tea was served at the Vicarage, and very much enjoyed. The Vicar, who is a 'brother string,' took the chair for business meeting. A discussion took place as to the best procedure to raise the statue of the society. New members, were closed to raise the status of the society. New members were elected and a hearty vote of thanks for tea and use of bells were unan-mously passed to the ladies, the Vicar and churchwardens.

Sir.-Recently you made an appeal to the Associations generally to do more to encourage their six-bell ringers. May I ask you to to do more to encourage their six-bell ringers. May I ask you to raise your voice in support of those who have another grievance? I refer to very little encouragement given to young conductors by 'old hands.' In my tower, for instance, our conductor admittedly a capable man., monopolises the calling on all occasions. I do not think it is selfishness altogether. It may be he imagines no one else could do it, but unless he gives others the chance how are we to learn and how are we to provide for the future? One or two of us, at least, are a little ambitious but no opportunities for calling touches are put in our way, and we have to be content with re-maining in the rut. I have no doubt there are many others simi-larly placed, but you may, perhaps, be able to awaken sufficient interest to get the matter ventilated in the various associations.--Yours truly

PROPOSED NEW BELLS FOR MALDON.

A quarterly meeting of the South Eastern Division of the Essex Association was held at Maldon, when the bells of All Saints' and St. Mary's towers were kept going throughout the afternoon and evening to various touches. About 20 members were present from Broomfield, Chelmsford Goldhanger, Writtle, Hull, and the local companies. Ser-Chemistoria Goldnanger, writtle, full, and the local companies. Ser-vice was held at All Saints' conducted by the Rev. Seymour (Vicar), and tea was followed by the business meeting, the Vicar presiding. Mr. J. Sitch, of Fryerung, was elected a ringing member. The next place of meeting was left to the Master and secretary to decide so that in the event of the association's war memorial being ready for dedication, it can be arranged to take place at Chelmsford.

It was proposed to hold a bye-meeting at Rettendon in September.

Mr. W. Lincoln proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and the Vicar, in responding, said he was pleased to see the ringers there, and hoped that Maldon would soon possess a peal of eight. They had had several estimates for two trebles, and if the money could be raised the bells of All Saints' would be overhauled and the bells added.

Subsequently a call was made at Ringmer Church, where the Vicar warmly welcomed the visitors. Time would only permit for short touches on this fine peal of eight. Rogers, for the arrangements made and for their welcome

A DAY IN BRISTOL.

The ringers of Weston-super-Mare paid a visit to Yate in Glouces-tershire, for their outing the party numbering 14, journeying by motor-cars. The bells at Yate, a peal of 6, were found to be in a very bad condition; in fact, they had not been rung for six months. very bad condition; in fact, they had not been rung for six months. However, all the band had a pull, several six scores of Grandsire being brought round. Bristol was then reached. Mr. W. Thomas, of St. Stephen's, had kindly arranged a luncheon at the hostelry of Mr. Jesse Tyler, another St. Stephen's ringer, where a good substan-tial meal was thoroughly enjoyed. St. Matthew's was then visited, and on the well-kept peal of eight several touches of Grandsire and Statemen ware how with scand including a well-truth FOM of the Stedman were brought round, including a well-struck 504 of the latter method.

latter method. After tea the party were kindly entertained at St. Stephen's, where, with the help of the St. Stephen's men, several of the hand rang their first touch of Grandisive and Stedman Caters. A touch of Double Norwich was also rung, in which a couple of the Weston band took part. At 8 o'clock tracks were made for home, Weston being reached at 9.45. The weather during the day was splendid. Much of the credit for the successful day is due to Mr. W. Thomas, who met the band at Yate auranged the meals and obtained the use of St. Matthew's tower; to Mr. Knight for procuring the use of St. Stophen's bells; and to the St. Stephen's ringers who gave the visi-iors a hand during the evening. The pleasure of the outing was made complete by the presence of Mr. W. Mundy, of St. Martin's, Leicester, who for many years was a member of the Weston band. band.

ROCHESTER CATHEDRAL BAND'S OUTING.

The Rochester Cathedral band had a motor charabane drive through Kent and Sussex for their annual outing. The company, augmented by friends of the ringers, to the number of 32, assembled at the Town Hall, Chatham, at 7.45 a.m. in a heavy downpour of rain, which tended to mar the prospects of a good day's outing. Fortunately however, as they reached the outskirts of Meopham the weather cleared, the sun in its immatured splendour seemed to be groping its way through the few remaining clouds, brightendout seemed to be groping its way through the few remaining clouds, brightening the spirits of the little excursion party, whose gay laughter, testified to their anticipation of a beautiful day. The first stop was made at Wrotham, which was reached shortly after 9 o'clock the fino old peal at St. George's Church being made good use of in Grandsire and Stedman during an all too brief stay. The party then headed for Tunbridge Wells, and after a somewhat circular course (owing for Tunbridge Wells, and after a somewhat circular course (owing to irregular pilotage) reached there at 11.15 a.m. Short touches of Grandsire Stedman and Treble Bob were rung on the new peal of eight by Gillett and Johnston at St. Peter's till noon, when a more was made to St. Deny's Church. Rotherfield. Here again, owing to time, they had to be contented with a few short touches of Grandsire and Stedman. It was pretty evident that several of the party were very reluctant to leave this grand old peal, with a tenor about 23 ewt., to journey on to the highest point of Sussex, viz. Crowborough Beacon, where dinner had been arranged. Passing on to Mayfield the party spent an hour on Standard Matheds in the on to Mayfield the party spent an hour on Standard Methods in the tower of St. Dunstan's. A long ride back over the border into Kent brought the visitors to Linion, where they enjoyed the bountiful tea that awaited them in the Parochial Hall, opposite which is the Church of St. Nicholas, where some good touches in various methods (intermingled with handbell ringing close by) was the sub-shance of the entertainment until 8.30, when they departed for Chatham.

A TRIP INTO DEVON. WELLS RINGERS' 200 MILES RIDE.

A very pleasant trip took place on Sunday, August 8th, when a party of eight ringers in two cars motored from Wells, Somerset to party of eight ringers in two cars motored from Wells, Somerset to Northam, Devon. A 4.30 a.m. start had been arranged, but ' go' was not called until 4.45, as there were one or two late arrivals. All went well as Taunton, Wiveliscombe, Bampton and South Eiolion ' oourse ends ' rolled up splendidly, until a ' shift course ' occurred to one of the cars within a few miles of Barnstaple. This caused a delay of about 40 minutes but Northam was reached about 10 a.m., after a run of 96 miles through some beautiful country. The party at once visited the tower, which contains a nice musical ring of eight bells (quite recently dedicated) by Taylor. The tenor is 15 ewt, and the 'go' perfect. After a good ' rise ' in peal, the first touch ever rung on the bells was brought round conducted by Mr. W. Farley, for service. W. Farley, for service.

W. Farley, for service. The Vicar had kindly promised to entertain the party for the day, and met them at 2.15, and extended to them a hearty wel-come. After lunch, the bells were again set going and a well-struck quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in 45 minutes by: T. T. Hayward 1. W. J. Mills 2. J. T. Dyke (conductor) 3. E. G. Lush 4. A. M. G. Daniel 5. A. E. Mills 6. W. Farley 7. G. Radford 8. It was intended to start for a peal, but as there was a special service at 3 o'clock, this proposal had to be cancelled. After enjoying a walk some of the party Equip as far as Westward Ho all met st walk some of the party going as far as Westward Ho all met at the Vicarage for tea, when the Vicar took the opportunity of thank-ing the visitors for coming. He had enjoyed the ringing very much indeed and trusted he would have the pleasure of welcoming them again at Northam.

The tower was once more visited. After another touch, the bells were lowered in peal, and a start made for home Wells being reached after a most delightful trip, which covered nearly 200 miles.

VISIT TO TAMWORTH.

Tamworth (the name of which is derived from its principal river, the Tame, and ' worth.' a farm or estate is seated in an undulating country with a fine old castle standing on an eminence above the river Anker. Its large and beautiful Church of St. Editha has a lofty tower containing eight bells, with a tenor of 221 ewt., was visited on the occasion of the annual outing of the members and Friends of the brington Parish Church Society and the Midland section of the Ladies' Guild, the two groups joining to make the outing more successful. The party journeyed by 'bus and train, arriving at their destination about 2.30 p.m. those going hy motor-'bus heating the railway travellers by ' a short head.' At the arriving at their destination about 2.50 p.m. these game. At the 'bus beating the railway travellers by 'a short head.' At the church the visitors were met by Mr. J. Pratt who gave them a wel-come, and escorted them to the tower, the staircase of which is a double spiral of 106 steps, having two distinct entrances intended respectively for the parish and college ringers, and believed to be the only one of the kind. Touches of Grandsire, Stedman Kent Teable Bob Major Bob Major, etc., were rung. Twenty-two sat Treble Bob Major Bob Major, etc., were rung. Twenty-two sat down to tea and afterwards the ladies paid a visit to the Castle and the beautiful grounds, while the gentlemen again paid a visit to the tower. In the belfry are a number of tablets recording peals rung on the bells including the one rung for the Millenary of Tanworth Castle, in which the late Miss Margery F. Sampson, a great favourite of the ladies and Erdington ringers, took part.

A VISIT TO EVESHAM.

The choir and ringers of Solihull Church visited Evesham by motor charabanc. A preliminary survey of the riverside and 'Bell Tower ' was taken, and a few unrecorded historical facts by a totally unreliable member of the party caused some merriment. The afternoon was taken up by a steamer trip, the scenery up the river being much admired. (At the risk of appearing cynical, the writer would like to state that there are advantages in losing a return ticket!) Through the kindness of Mr. H. Middleton arrangements had been made at the Bell Tower, and after tea the ringing members of the party, assisted by Merys. Middleton and Phipps, rang Grandsire Stedman and Plain Bob on this magnificent ring. Afterwards, in the cougenial atmosphere of ' another place,' handbells were produced, and a touch of Grandsire Triples, followed by a course of Grandsire Caters was rung. The ringers wish to thank very heartily Mr. Middleton and Mr. Phipps for their trouble in making arrangements, and being present at the tower.

RINGERS' WEDDING.

On August 9th at the Parish Church, Swainswick, the wedding was solegonised between Mr. A. Clark and Miss K. M. Short, both bride and bridegroom being members of the Swainswick band of ringers. The bells were fired as the wedding party left the church, and afterwards a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung by the following members of the Bath and Wells Association: Miss A. E. Watson 1, J. Hallett 2 J. Bell 3, J. Taylort 4, C. Bell (conductor) 5 B. Clark 6. In the evening the bells were again rung, friends coming from Bathcaston, Weston and Bath, and touches of Plain Bob and Grandsire brought round. The local band presented the happy couple with a very handsome travelling clock.

HARWICH RINGERS' TRIP.

The Harwich company of rinkers had a most enjoyable outing to Sudbury the journey being made by motor, and after a most enjoyable ride through very pretby scenery reached Sudbury at 4.45; and after tea at the Christopher Hotel a visit was paid to All Saints' Church, where a few touches were rung on the bells by kind permission of the Vicar. The return journey was commenced at eight o'clock, and home was reached shortly before midnight bringing to a close what was voted the most successful and enjoyable outing the company had ever had.

THREE PEALS IN 190 YEARS.

An interesting point occurs in connection with the peal of Kent Treble Bob at St. Mary's Church Ellesmere, Salop, on August 14th. In the towar is recorded a peal of Grandsire Triples rung by a local company in 1730, in which A. J. Langford took part. The next peal was on September 15th 1894, after 164 years, in which R. D. Langford, senr., took part and conducted by R. T. Holding, senr., who rang the 7th, R. D. Langford ringing the 5th. On August 14th, 1920 the 3rd peal on the bells was rung, and on this occasion R. D. Langford, junr., rang the 5th, and R. T. Holding, junr., the 7th. Thus, in all three peals rung at Ellesmere in a period of 190 years a Langford took part; a record in its way, we should imagine.

Y.A.C.R. AT PONTEFRACT.

On Monday, August 2nd, the members of the association were invited to try the new peal of ten hells that have been put in at the Parish Church by Messrs. Taylor and Co. A number of ringers turned up and there was plenty of enthusiasm. The bells were kept going from 10 a.m. to 8.30 at night in various methods from Minor to Royal and Grandsire Triples to Caters. The bells of All Saints' were also placed at the disposal of the visitors, and they claimed a fair share of attention. Tea was provided in the All Saints' House by Mr. B. Moody, one of the local ringers, some 110 ringers and friends sitting down. After tea, the Rev. Cosway, senior curate of the Parish Church, addressed a few words of welcome to those present and also read a letter from the Vicar (the Rev. Capron), who was away on holiday, expressing the pleasure it gave him to have the association's visit to Pontefract. The Vicar of All Saints' (the Rev. Shipley) also spoke a few words.—On the motion of Mr. W. Pearson a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Messrs. Taylor and Co. for their kind hospitality that day, and congratulating them upon the great success that had attended their work in the tower of the Parish Church.—This was seconded by Mr. H. Walters, and responded to by Mr. R. Taylor. Mr. Senior, local ringer, took an excellent photograph of the party. Ringing was again taken up at both churches, while others adjourned to the Elephant Hotel, where a room was placed at the disbosal of ringers for social intercourse and handbell ringing. The Pontefract ringers were congratulated on having two such lovely rings as now hang in both towers. The following towers were represented: Bolton, Bradford, Earlsheaton, Leeds Holbeck Wakefield, Barnsley, Killamarsh. Worksop, York, Halifax, Lowmoor, Huddersfield Wath, and others. Mr. B. Sheppard, of Swindon, also spent a short time anongst the ringers. The Loughboro' foundry was represented by Mr. Taylor, and along with him were Mr. J. Oldham, R. Lane and two others.

THE KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The quorterly meeting of the Lewisham District was held at Chislehurst, on Saturday, August 17th. The bells were raised at 5 p.m. and during the afternoon and evening touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Superlative and Cambridge Surprise Major were accomplished. Service was held at 5 p.m., the association form being used, and a short address was given by Canon J. E. Dawson (Rector). The members then adjourned to the Village Hall where test, kindly provided by the Rector and churchwardens (Messrs. Evan Edwards and A. Li. Sturge) was availing them. After the Rector had said grace he gave them a hearty welcome to Chislehurst, and was glad to be able to entertain them better than on their last visit.—Mr. F. W. Thornton then proposed that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded the Rector for the use of the bells and his address, also to him and the clurchwardens for their kind hospitality. This was seconded by Mr. W. Smith, and carried by acclamation.—The Rector thanked them for their kind remarks, as also did Mr. Sturge on behalf of himself and cowardens. The business meeting followed Mr. Sturge in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The election of Mr. H. Palmer of Skirbeck, Boston, Lincolnshire, previous to a peal attempt, was confirmed. St. Nicholas', Deptford, was selected for the annual district meeting them and presiding. who, in reply, said it had been a great pleasure to him and interesting; he was only a young churchwarden, and did not know there was such a society. He also promised to become an hon, member. About fifty ringers were present during the day, ten towers in the district represented; also members from Cubitt Town Gravesend, West Ham and Leatherhead, and friend's from Hornehurch and Coggeshall, Essex.

HELPING LOCAL BANDS.

With the coming of the longer evenings bringing with them a diminishing desire for out-of-door recreations, ringing companies will be able to turn their attention to improving their position in the Art. We refer particularly to the many bands throughout the country who either drop their practices entirely throughout the summer or whose efforts to maintain weekly meetings during the long days are attended by only poor results. In wellestablished companies summer seldom interferes with the customary routine, and the towns are affected least of all; but in the country districts, even if the demands of the garden and of harvesting do not relegate week-night ringing to the realms of impracticability, the claims of the open air often render a regular practice impossible, and the next few weeks should be utilised to draw the ringers together again. This is a task which no enthusiastic leader will neglect, but his work in this direction is not always easy.

Is there not here to be found another way in which the Associations can lend a helping hand to their affiliated towers? Where there is trouble in drawing a band back to the tower, an evening's ringing, in which a few capable ringers from neighbouring parishes gather round the local leader to give the new winter practices a good sendoff, might do a lot to stir up the enthusiasm that is required. Such arrangements as these could easily be made by a district secretary in touch with his towers, and at practically no expense to his association. It is in small matters like this that the ringing organisations could do much good work if they awoke to the possibilities of the position, and it is not too late yet for those secretaries who are keen on showing that their associations are really out to promote the interests of local bands to take a lead in the matter. The offer of help to arrange a really useful practice, if tactfully made, would always find ready acceptance, and might be the means of doing much good.

There can be no question that in many cases the Associations do not show sufficient initiative in these small matters, which, after all, are the things which bring the organisations closest into touch with their members. Too often the larger societies are content to leave their interest in local bands to drawing their subscriptions, arranging district meetings to which the members may be invited and taking any kudos that may come from the unaided efforts of the ringers. This is a state of things which every well-wisher of the Art must desire to see changed, and the good intentions of the Associations can best be displayed by such little acts as that suggested above.

WAR MEMORIAL AT WHISTON.

YORKSHIRE PEAL TABLET UNVEILED.

The Bishop of Sheffield on Saturday week unveiled and dedicated a memorial peal tablet in the Whiston Parish Church, Yorks, erected to the memory of 30 men belonging to the parish who laid down their lives in the Great War. Preceding the dedication ceremony, a halfmufiled touch of Grandisre Triples was rung by the band who rang the peal in October last, the ringers standing in the same order as on the the peal was rung. day day the peal was rung. The service commenced with the singing of the hymu, 'We love the place. O God,' followed by a shortened form of evening prayer read by the Rector (the Rev. A. G. Allton). The Bishop then proceeded to the west end of the church, to the tower wall, where the tablet was covered with the flag of 'SL George.' After the dedicatory prayers, the Bishop released the fastenings of the flag and as they fell to the ground exposed to view a beautiful polished marblette tablet with incised gold lettering, etc. The design is very simple, yet effective, and emblematic of the Christian soldier. From the sides rise 'The Falms of Victory.' The point of honour is filled in with 'The Crown of Glory 'shining above 'The Shield of the Crusader.' Surrounding the shield and crown are placed laurels also emblematic or victory. the shield and crown are placed laurels also, emblematic of victory. Above these symbols of the Christian soldier come the words which form a kind of early English arch, 'St. Mary Magdalenc, Whiston. The remainder of the inscription reads as follows:--'To the Glory of God and in memory of 30 men of this parish who fall in the Gray War War 1914-1918.'

to the Great War, 1914—1918.' Lindof's Ten Part Peal of Grandsire Triples (5040 changes) was rung with the bells half-muffled, on Saturday, October 4th, 1919— in three hours by the following members of the Yorks Association. who crected this tablet:-

Arthur Hague (treble), Miss Winifred M. Hague 2 Colin Ryder 5 Sidney Briggs 4 William Warburton 5, Alfred T. Baker 6, Fred Edgar C. Garrison 8. Conducted by Fred Watkinson Watkinson 7

Watkinson 7 Edgar C. Garrison 8. Conducted by Fred Watkinson, Rev. A.G. Allton, Rector. The frame is of English oak of a rich brown colour, which stands on stone corbels, and is over three feet in height. The upper portion of the frame is surmounted by an oak pediment, in the centre of which is carved in relief a Calvary Cross, which is also covered with gold leaf. Otherwise the frame (which was supplied by Mr. H. Bearks-ley of Ilkeston, also a ringer) is in itself the essence of simplicity and excellent workmanship, and reflects great credit upon him. When the ceremony of unveiling had been performed, Miss Winifred Mague placed a laurel wreath immediately below the memorial as ' a bell ringers' tribute to those who saved us from the hand of the vandal and murderer.

After the singing of the hymn, 'For all the Saints,' the Bishop addressed those who had assembled to witness the solemn ceremony. His Lordship based his remarks upon the lessons taught by this In Lordship based his remarks upon the lessons taught by this greatest of wars, pointing out in particular to those ringers who were assembled that the true spirit of conradeship should be the same amongst them as it was among those who had fought their battles, and that they as ringers had a duty to perform even as the soldier in the field. They should be witness even as those who had made the mpreme sacrifice. The Bishop then pronounced the blessing after which was sung the hymn ' Saviour, again to Thy Dear Name we raise, which concluded the gervice.

Subsequently, his lordship, the ringers, parishioners, and friends par-look of tea in the Church Institute. The Bishop while tea was in progress, moved from table to table chatting with one and another, Tea finished, the Bishop before leaving again addressed the gathering, basing his remarks upon the reformation which had taken place in the belfries of today compared with the past, and giving encouraging counsel to those who were witnesses of Christ Jesus. The Bishop men-tioned that for some time past he had had in mind the idea of a Shetfield Diocesan Society of Ringers, However, finding the Yorkshire As-sociation's Southern District and the Sheffield and Old East Derbyshire Society so well organised and doing good work in practically the whole of the churches in the diocese he had decided to let the project drop.

As the Bishop left for another important engagement in Sheffleld, the hells in the steeple hurst forth with clarion voice clear and mela-dious, reminding one of the words which had so recently re-echoed within the sacred walls of the beautiful little parish church :

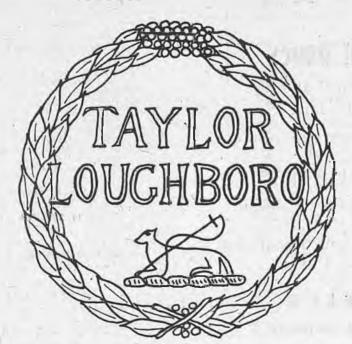

'But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;

The Saints triumphant rise in bright array ;

The peal, which the memorial tablet records, is believed to be the first half-muffled peal in the tower although Whiston has possessed bells since 1450.

THE PRESERVATION OF CONDUCTORS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Every ringer knows that constant practice is necessary it he wishes to keep fit for ringing; but it does not always strike him that constant practice is even more necessary if a man is to be a good conductor. I admit that it is hard on the youngster who desires to get on to have to stand aside and see the old one worn out first but I do chosen conductor of his band. Let us take an instance.

Old Bob had been the conductor of the Slopperton band for many years, and had called them many good peals; but some promising youngsters were coming on, and because he seemed to be monopolising the calling, Bob was given a hint that Harry and Ben would like to have a turn, and he readily consented. The youngsters had their turn and after several peal attempts had broken down there came an occasion when the Slopperton men were most anxious to score a peal, and, of course they all declared that Old Bob must call, and started and, of course they all declared that Old Bob must call, and started for the peal with the utmost confidence, but after two hours' ringing there cause a hitch and in keeping the bells right the conductor left out a bob. Of course, old Bob was very sorry, and the rest of the band were astonished. ' Never knew him do such a thing before.' Couldn't have believed it.' ' He must be wearing out.' Such were the com-ments of the mortified band. But they were wrong. The truth was that Bob was out of practice.

Now this is not an imaginary case. I have seen it happen again Now this is not an imaginary case. I have seen in nappen again and again during my experience in the tower. A good conductor is a precious possession, and should be enrefully looked after when once you have found him. If you once let him fall back for lack of practice he will never be the same man again, for he will lose that confidence in himself which is half the battle in calling a peal. If we turn to the records of the past we find that whenever a band has come to the front and scored a good bag of peals, they have al-most always had one conductor in whom they put their front. If a most always had one conductor in whom they put their frust. If a conductor is standing in a peal which a youngster is calling, he is almost sure to follow the composition, but only in a half-hearted way, there is not that concentration of mind which is the result of knowing that the responsibility rests on him alone. Hence is generated a lazy habit of following the coursing order, which reproduces itself when next he has to call.

It is not selfsimess that makes the good conductor cling to his calling, but it is the necessity of keeping in practice. You can't have two cocks in the poultry yard noither can you have two conductors in one tower. You may have two or more bob callers, but neither of them will be able to do himself full justice because he will not get sufficient practice.

sufficient practice. I admit that it is hard on the youngsters who naturally desire to get on, but it is much harder on the band who find out too late that they can no longer make sure of a peal, because when fortune sent them a dependable conductor they have allowed him to go stale for want of practice.—Yours faithfully, E. BANKES JAMES.

MOVING THE CLERGY. To the Editor

To the Editor. Sir.— 'Moving the Clergy ' to take interest in their bells and ringers and in the gentle art of change ringing, is troublesome, and at times disheartening work. I tried it myself by voice and pen, for over twenty years, with but little visible result, as far as the clergy were concerned. 'Mr. Drake I hope, may effect more by beginning at the top with diccesan authorities. A Diccesan Magazine is usually the Bishop's organ of communication with his clergy. What appears in it has his imprimatur, and may command attention when circulars or letters addressed to individual parish clergy by the Master or secretary of a ringers' association may be resented as interference, and find their way to the waste-paper basket. If Mr. Drake can convert a Bishop or Archdeacon or one of the few ' leading clergy ' who pull diocesan strings, he may, through them, move the rank and file of those who refuse to hear the voice of the campanological charmer, charm he never (as we may think) so wisely. I wish him all success. T. L. PAPILLON.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

POCHESTER ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Rochester district was held at Borden on Saturday, August 21st, and upwards of 50 members, uttended. A short service was held in the church and an able address given by the Vicar the Rev. Barrett), who, in his romarks extended a hearty welcome to the association to Borden. The organist, Miss Mears, brightened the service considerably, and a collection at the close for the Kent Ringers' War Memorial realised 14s. 6d. Tea was partaken of at the 'Maypole Inn,' to which 46 sat down and at the business meeting which followed Mr. W. Spice was voted to the chair, in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar.

The Secretary submitted his annual report, which showed that 20 towers in the district were in union with the association, and the num-ber of practising members was 170. During the past year he had visited 16 towers, and was pleased to report that he found that the holls were in nearly every instance being rung regularly for Sunday services, which showed that ringers now they had got settled down after the war, were taking interest in their work, and he hoped it would be maintained. Meetings had been hold at Sittingbourne Gilwould be minimum anext. Meetings and obeen held at Suthenburyle Un-lingham, Cobham, Swanscombe and Cliffe during the year. He spoke of the bell restoration going on in the district, and hoped before long they would have their first peal of ten ready at Rochester Cathedral. He reminded the members that this year they had to elect two representatives to serve on the Contral Committee instead of one .- On the proposition of the District Representative the Secretary's report was unanimously adopted.

Three new practising members and one non-resident life member were elected. Mr. E. A. G. Allen (Rochester) was re-elected district re-presentative, and Mr. W. Spice (Tunstall) was unanimously elected as the additional representative.

the additional representative. Mr. F. M. Mitchell (Milton-nexl-Gravesend) was re-elected district secretary and thanked for his report and work for the association during the past year, to which he briefly responded. It was decided to hold a by-meeting at Northfleet, where the bells had just been restored and two new trebles added, on Saturday Sept. 25th, and the next quarterly meeting was fixed for Saturday, December 11th, at Chatham.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and his address to the organist for her assistance, and to Mr. W. Spice for presiding, terminated the business.

The tower was again visited, and visits were also paid to Newington and Tunstall where the two peaks of six were kept going until 9 p.m. Members from the Maidstone District and Prittlewell, Essex, attended and helped to make this a highly successful meeting.

REV. C. J. STURTON'S MARRIAGE. PRESENTATION AT GRANTHAM.

One of the best known elerical ringers in the Midlands the Rev. C. J. Sturton, Vicar of Orston, Notts was married on Wednesday of last week, the bride being Miss Emmeline Bonser of Hawkesworth, w.ere the wedding took place.

C. J. Sturton, Vicar of Orston Notts, assembled at St. Wulfram's, Grantham, to make a presentation to the Rev. C. J. Sturton, The pleasing duty of making the presentation fell upon Mr. S. Proetor secretary of the South Lincoln Guild, who spoke of the fellowship that had existed for several years between the ringers present and the Rev. C. J. Sturton, and of the many pleasant hours spent together in the various belfries in the locality. He remarked that the reason why the company had assembled that evening was to give a practical expression to that fellowship and he asked Mr. Sturton to accept an electro-plated entree dish. Mr. Proclor expressed the hope that the Vicar of Orston and this bride would be spared to enjoy many years of happiness together. The Rev. C. J. Sturton, who had been taken by surprise thanked the company for their handsome present, and said he hoped to meet

THE LEICESTER CONTROVERSY. To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Being under the impression that our little affair m Leicester had burnt out, it was a surprise to see another letter from Mr. Morris. His first letter contained a thinly veiled attack on St. Martin's in spite of his constant reiteration that no name or particular society was mentioned. Now, Sir, please let me get right down to the awkward position that I find it so difficult to wriggle out of, right down to the part where I can neither answer direct nor to the right down to the part where I can neither answer direct nor to the point. Two of our societies peals will do for the wriggle: the first of Norwich and Superlative rung by a local resident band. Now in both of these peals the treble was rung by competent inside men and three good Stedman Cater men stood down, any one of whom was quite as capable of ringing the treble as Mr. Morris was of ringing inside. Further, Len Allen an compile competent inside stores who unite as capable of ringing the trede as mr. alorns was of ringing inside. Further Len Alten, an equally competent inside ringer, also stood down to oblige. St. Martin's made a practice of asking those who practised with them to ring in their peals; this does not or should not be misconstrued into the fact that Mr. Morris was a necessity when not be misconstrued into the fact that Mr. Morris was a necessity where he was asked to stand in a peal. These peals were rung in 1910 and 1913 (before the war). In 1913 we were ringing Superlative for Sunday services, and shortly after-wards we were ringing London without any assistance whatever from St. Margaret's or elsehwere. Is this direct and pointed enough? Mr. Morris makes the request that we should erase his name from our records. We bleed him on the variance list order north whether worth records. We placed him on the retired list over twelve months past. But he can do the following for himself, erase all the peaks that he rang with our society from his peal book, and cease to count them in ois lotal. If he is consistent he will, of course, already have done so. In Lu. conclusion, I would advise Mr. Morris not to let jealousy get the master st his battar judgmont - Yours faithfully. FRED H. DEXTER. of his better judgment .- Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,—As present secretary of the St. Martin's Society, Leicester, there are points in the last letter published by Mr. E. Morris, that in fairness to both Mr. Dexter and the society, I count pass without comment—nuch as I regret joining in a controversy of any kind. Mr Morris states that a perusal of our records shows that Mr. Dexter as asked himself as conductor without fail. A glance only at the portion of the records during mide Mar. Morris was without the portion of the records during which Mr. Morris was ringing peals with this society shows that his memory has failed him somewhat. Nor has Mr. Dexter taken part in or conducted all of the peals rung since hir, Morris ceased to come amongst us. In all peaks that he has conducted, however, whether for this society, or with mixed bands, he has not done so without first asking others to relieve him of the office. The re-mainder of our ringers will youch for this, as will also the ringers from other towns who have taken part in peals with us-men well known to the Exercise and whose integrity is entirely above suspicion, even it there happens to be any doubt about our own. Mr. Morris furtuer states that methods other than Grandsire and Stedman have only been rung for service during the past twelve months or so, and that by the help only of 'ready-made 'ringers from other churches. When a joined the society early in 1913 Surprise ringing for service was the When 1 rule rather than the exception, there seldom being less than eight members present who were quite capable of ringing an inside bell an two Surprise methods, and the number of ringers increased later on. Of the pre-war band there are still sufficient remaining to ring Surprise methods for service without any help whatever-whether ' ready-made ' or otherwise. So far from the so-called ' ready-mades ' being the means of our ringing Surprise I am in the position to know and have their authority to say that all that they know of the higher methods they have learnt since they have been with us in the tower of St. Martin's. Thanking you for the insertion, and apologising for troubling you,—Faithfully yours, HY. BROUGHTON.,

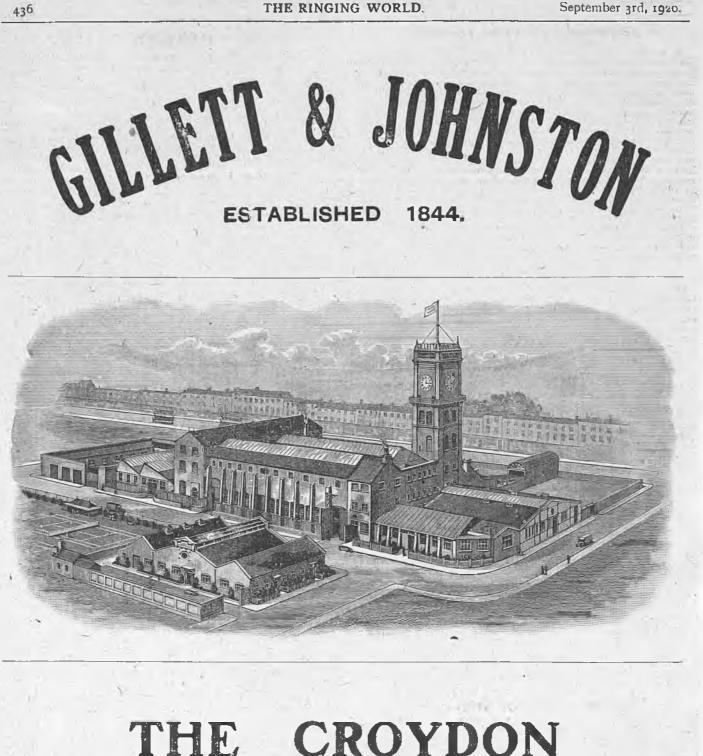

Sir,-Your recent leader on the above subject and the subsequent controversy that has arisen in Leicester on account of Mr. Ernest Morris writing on behalf of his district, tempts me to ask you to pub-Morris writing on behalf of his district, tempty me to ask you to pub-lish facts we, in this district, know regarding Mr. Morris. During his two years' stay in York, whilst on military service he looked up ringing matters in the district, and went about among towers containing 5 to 12 hells, with equal enthusiasm, rendering assistance and doing much good work. The testimonial from the York Minster Society given to him on leaving that city, shows plainly their appreciation of his ser-vices, while we in Selby can voich for his keenness in outside towers when he conducted peals of Doubles, Minor, Triples and Major.

We in this district have no inside knowledge of local Leicester affairs nor do we wish to interfere or to have anything whatever to do with here, but we cannot but feel that there was every honest motive in Mr. Morris's defence of the 5 and 6 bell towers and no sense of injustice meant towards any other tower of higher numbers.

If other ringers of Mr. Morris' experience would only go about in the manner he did, we are sure the Exercise would benefit and more of the little-known places take greater interest in the art. . May we hope that you will be good enough to publish this in your valuable maper and allow us to thank you in anticipation for so doing? -Yours sincerely, F. CRYER (Captain).

BELL RESTORATION.

The proposed demolition of a number of churches in the City of London awoke a desire among ringers to save the towers and bells, if not the threatened buildings, and the Central Council at the Northampton meeting gave voice to the feeling which arose. In not all of these churches are the bells preserved in the best condition, and it is a matter of regret that similar neglect of the belfry is to be found in numerous other churches in the metropolis. This state of affairs is recalled by the letter of a correspondent who laments the condition of the bells of St. James', Bermondsey, which are now practically unringable. It is some years since these bells were pealable, and suggestions for their restoration seem to have fallen upon deaf ears. The case of Bermondsey has parallels in many places, and there is ample work for the bell-hanger, even in London. Although ringers rejoice to see the many restorations which are being carried out, it is regrettable that so many peals of bells remain the most neglected part of the churches in which they hang. The efforts of the ringing associations during the past thirty years have done a great deal to effect an improvement, but much might still to be done. One of the things which church authorities overlook is that bells, like any other machinery, get out of order by neglect; and there are few things in regard to which the old adage, 'a stitch in time saves nine,' is more applicable than to the preservation of bells.

In London there has been recent cause for gratification at the restoration of St. Clement Danes' bells, and the work at Westminster Abbey, where a peal in keeping with the dignity of the grand old church has been installed. But there are other churches, like Bermondsey, where it would be good to know something was being done to secure improvement. The great cost of present-day work is, of course, one deterring factor; but difficulties are only made to be overcome, and we should like to see some of the influential societies, which take London within their ambit, moving in the matter. Any step which adds another ringable peal of bells makes for the advance of the art, and is a valuable adjunct to the exercise. Sometimes the neglect of a belfry continues only for the want of a tactful appeal in the right quarter, for there are no church authorities who would deliberately desire to retain their bells in a state of dilapidation. If only the importance of giving the belfry proper attention were brought to their knowledge in the right way, it may be through the powers above, or through those who serve in more humble spheres, more might be done in many cases, although it is not to be denied there are still clergy who not only fail in their duty with regard to the belfry, but prefer the bells to remain silent.

THE PRESERVATION OF CONDUCTORS.

THE PRESERVATION OF CONDUCTORS. To the Editor. Dear Sir,—I was much surprised to read the article in this week's 'Ringing World' by the Rev. E. Bankes James on 'The Preservation of Conductors,' for, were this principle accepted in general one is faced with a gloomy prospect in contemplating the position of the Exercise in the next generation. One question will suffice to explain my meaning: What happens to the Slopporton band when Old Bob makes the last long journey? Furthermore, it is a debatable point whether a bag of peals scored by one particular band and one parti-cular conductor represent so much advancement to the art excent cular conductor represent so much advancement to the art, except when other computies are fired with ambition by the example set; and, as sometimes happens, receive help from those who have fired that ambition.

I do not wish to detract from the merit of bauds who hang together and make a big show; I raise my lat to merit wherever show, but i wish to point out that really to benefit the art progress must not bu accompanied by selfishness on the part of any individual or band, but accompanied by semanness on one part of any individual of band, our must be instead accompanied with the policy of the 'open door,' and true spirit of brotherhood otherwise—but I think past history of noted bands itself gives the answer. On more than one occasion the death or removal of an 'indispensable ' conductor has spelt mination to one entire company, and the same remark applies to individual ringers. All entre company, and the same remark applies to individual ringers. All the while one man is indispensable the existence of that company hangs by a thread, and surely the future of the Exercise is better served by a number of moderate men of average ability than by hav-ing to rely on a few super-men. Generally I notice such men can maintain their position without squeezing out these whose ambition muy be as great without, perhaps, the same ability.—Yours futin-fully, T. GROOMBRIDGE, Juur,

Dear Sir,-The letter from W. M. H. in your issue of August and Dear SI, -- Ine letter from W. M. H. in your issue of August -- ta raises points that should receive the careful and thoughtful considera-tion of responsible officials of a belfry and the Exercise in general. The letter from the Rev. E. Bankes James seems to be a plen for the retention of a 'One Man Band.' The illustration of 'Old Bob' is certainly amusing if not convincing: while the analogy to the poultry yard can hardly be classed as refined or complimentary. If 'Old Bob' yard can hurdly be classed as refined or complimentary. If 'Old Boh' had been denied opportunities in the initial stages, would he have proved a success? Again, if 'Bob' left, what would happen?—the band stranded for the want of a conductor owing to the folly of envi-ing the legitimate desires of others who were anxious to improve themselves in the work they had undertaken. Mr. James bemeans the loss of a peal with an imaginary chorus of wails from the dis-appointed band. But sturely, as a clergyman, he does not think the scoring of 'a bag of peals' of more consequence than ringing for Divine service—peal ringing is, or should be of secondary considera-tion. Mr. James admits the hardship on budding conductors, but oner-no remedy: on the contrary he rather suggests they are a hind rance. binne setter pear inights, or a storing be or second and y conductors, but on ar-no remedy: on the contrary he rather suggests they are a hindrance, because 'Oil Bob' suffers from want of practice. If I may introduce a rather personal element, the tower I belong to has at least six members who can and have conducted peals. While, in ringins for services, there are others, in addition, who call and conduct touches. This, I suggest, creates an enthusiasm that is all to the good, and brings out that esprit de corps so essential in lowers. The 'One Man Band ' has been the cause of a good deal of friction; besides the ' bottling up of bands where the monopoly of conducting was secured by one person with the consequent lack of keenness by others. Again, interest is strengthened when after ' pricking out a touch ' at nome an opportunity is given to bring it to fruition in the tower. One hesitates to criticise an authority like the Rev. E. Bankes James, but this bugbear of the ' one and only ' should be scotched. It is not in my opinion, conducive to the good of the Exercise to confine con-ducting to any one person. Even if a poal is lost occasionally, it is far better to suffer that, than to jcoPardise the enthusiasm and the keen-ness that is created when frequent changes are made in conducting. High Wycombe. G. T.

ST. JAMES', BERMONDSEY.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,-As an old parishioner of Bermondsey, and a ringer of many years at St. James' Unurch, Jamaica Road I have used my many years at 5. James' church, Jamaica Road I have used my best endeavours to persuade the authorities of this church to get the bells a peal of 10, repaired. For many years now they have re-mained totally unringable, broken wheels bent, and rusty iron stays: covered with pigeon refuse—quite a deplorable sight to witness m the house of God? But my efforts have been to no purpose. If all the authorities adopted the same principle bell ringing would go by the board. In nine cases out of ten, the bells are rung gratuitously; increfore, it would be creditable to the ' powers that be' to keep them in a ringable condition. Bell ringing is now taught to a young begiuner, and not ' picked up' promisenously as I have experienced. We all know it is a long and tedious art to learn. Careful coaching should be imparted to the aspirant, and opportunities held out for him or her to embrace— (pardon, Mr. Editor, I am writing figuratively, not filially)—so that the ' superiority ' so often exhibited in the beltry would be entirely eradicated, as pointed out in your Editorial of August 27th.—Yours faithfully., faithfully

Bermondsey.

HAMPSHIRE CHURCH BELLS.

A small volume of some 116 pages has just been published by Messrs. A small volume of some 116 pages has just been published by Messrs. Warren, of Winchester, on the church bells of Hampshire; and is a very valuable addition to the records of other church properties in the Winchester Diocesse which have already appeared. We are indebted to the Rev. W. E. Colchester A.K.C., Rector of St. Maurice, Win-chester, and hen, treasurer of the Winchester Diocesan Guild for this addition to the county works on bells. The book gives a record of 1416 bells, but onits small bells in mission churches which are generally of no antiquarian interest. Out of this 1416, the Isle on Wirldt contains 119, and these latter the remented on semantely form. Wight contains 119, and these latter are reported on separately from notes supplied by Dr. J. L. Whitehead. This leaves 1,297 in Hampnotes simplied by Dr. J. L. Whitehead. This leaves 1.237 in Hamp-shire, and of these 98 are meditaval. The carliest dated hell (A.D. 1555) was found at Penton Mewser. An interesting list of the num-her of hells cast for the county in each decade commencing 1580-90 down to 1900 and onwards, reveals the revival or decline of hell founders' operations—largely dependent upon the religious life of the county, and of the country generally. A bell foundry probably never existed in Hampshire, and though there are evident traces of the pro-ductions of the review of the main submine atmear to have come existed in Hampshire, and though there are evident traces of the pro-ductions of itinerunt poinders, the main supplies appear to have come in from the fraternity attached to Chertsey Abbey (Surrey), Salisbury and London. Mr. Colchester deals with these sources briefly and refers us to other County Histories of Church Bells for further details, i.e. 'Surrey' and 'Kent' by Stabischnidt, 'Dorset' by Dr. Raven, the Wilts Record Society, 'Essex' by Deedes and Walters, 'Sussex' by Tyssen and Walters' 'Church Bells of England.' Con-sidering the size of the volume we are provided with a large number of illustrations of founders' medallions, marks, stops, initials friezes and type letterings. Every one of these, 124 in all have been ac-curately drawn from trabilities cases or nhotographs by Mr. Colchester curately drawn from rubbings, casts or photographs by Mr. Colchester and reproduced by the lithograph process. No blocks have been bor-rowed from other publishers of similar works. It is here that this Rampshire bells record excels. On the other hand, in the list of bells Hampshire bells record excels. On the other hand, in the list of bells with inscriptions (pages 66-116) we find no weights given, not even those of tenor bells, no measurements or notes, and no records from Edward VI. Commissioners Lists of Church Furniture. The dedica-tions of the parish churches might have been included; and in one or two instances the spelling of doggerel verses on some bells has been corrected, instead of being reproduced as cast; for example the tenor at Farcham, and the second line of the verse on the Hamble treb'e. However, it must be remembered that the author was pressed to publish much earlier than he intended, and he generously admits that publish much earlier than he internet, and to generated a second the the emissions we have the records cannot be absolutely complete, while the omissions we have referred to may be due to the enormous extra cost of printing. Messrs Warran of Winchester are the publishers. C. E. M.

EARL SOHAM RINGER'S DEATH.

On Tuesday, August 17th, there passed away one of the oldest ringers of Earl Soham Suffolk in the person of George Balls. Deceased, who was 58 years of age, commenced ringing in 1877, at the early age of 15 years on the old ring of five at Earl Soham. Those were the days when ringers rang their 120's of Grandsire by heart, and any variation from the usual course would bring down severe censure on the head of the offender. Deceased was the last of the veteraus of this hand and up to the time of his death had taken part in seven peals. all of Minor for the Norwich Association, which he joined in 1859 The last time he rang was on Christmas Day, 1919. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, and his usual remark before attempting a fresh method, ' Burr, I think I can ring it,' will be long remembered by all his fellow ' strings.'

On the day of his funeral half-muffled touches of Oxford Treble Bob and Double Court Bob Minor were rung by Messis, L. C. and G. A. Wightman C. Woodcock, H. Hall R. Abbott, W. Miller, junr., S. Rogers, E. Jenkins and W. G. Crickmer (conductor).

RINGER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

PASSING OF A WELL-KNOWN RUTLAND FIGURE. We much regret to record the death of Mr. Richard Westbrook Baker, of Langham, Rutland, who passed away suddenly, on August 22nd while in hed. Deceased, who was 56 years of age, and of inde-pendent means, was a hachelor, and lived alone in one of his own houses. On Sunday, the 22nd ult, he failed to keep an appointment and on entry being made to his house it was found that he had died in his hed. Deceased was highly astronact in Rutland, and was made in his bed. Deceased was highly esteemed in Rutland and was vice-chairman of the Oakham Board of Guardians and Rural District Couneil. At the inquest, which was held, the coroner vacorded a verdict of 'death from natural causes.' The deceased was formerly a mem-ber of the Leicestershire Yeomaury, and served in the South African WEIT

Mr. J. J. Jackson, of Belton, writes .- The death of Mr. R. W. Baker, of Langham Rutland, will be severely felt by many in the Baker, of Langham Ridland, will be severely fell by miny in the Oakham area, but by ringers especially, as he was one of the pioneers and great personalities of the art locally, and always did his best to encourage good ringing, whether it be on five six or eight bells. He could not often be persuaded to take a 'changing bell' on eight, but he was always willing to—as he termed it—' play the accompan-ment '--this is, ring the tenor to Grandsire or Stedman Triples, and he did a sight well too striking the heavier bell. with meaking he did it right well, too striking the heaviest hells with machine-like precision. The writer well remembers one of his achievements at Colston Bassett (one of the most beautiful peals in the country) The band consisted of two pairs of brothers, a father and son, and two oddincuts from Rutland. A peal of Stedman Triples was attempted with that accomplished ringer, the late Mr. A. P. Wakley, Burton-on-Trent conducting, and Mr. Baker on the tenor. When the peal (...,040 changes) had been in progress some two hours, it was noticed div. Baker was in great distress, with quite a pool of perspiration on the floor in front of him, that had dropped off his forchead, so the condoubt asked him to hold on a few more minutes and he would call the bells round, which he did successfully, but, of course the peal was lost. as only about two-thud; of it had been completed. The bell was tried as only about two-thirds of it had been completed. The bell was tried by other members of the band at the cossation of peal attempt, and the wonder was how Mr. Baker had stood it so long. It was found on examination the bell (23 ewt.) was binding on the sudgeon. Deceased was a member of the Midland Counties Association, and a vice-president of the Frauland Society. His jovial personality en-deared him to all, and he will be greatly missed by others besides his ringing colleagues,

At the funeral, the Rev. J. G. Pattison (Vicar) and Mr. Jackson (Belton) and Mr. R. H. Bartram (Melton Mowbray) represented the Midland Counties Association, the Framland Society and Belton St. Peter's Guild. Before and after the funeral the bells we're rung Peter's Guild. muffled.

THE MAKING OF THE CONDUCTOR.

The recent article upon the encouragement of young conductors has opened up a subject which, apparently, is one of close interest to many ringers. The defence of the monopoly of the old conductor by no less an authority than the Rev. E. Bankes James has promptly brought replies from among those who challenge the attitude he takes up, and knowing, as we do, that Mr. James is ever ready to break from tradition when to depart from it means progress, we are almost inclined to think that his letter on the 'preservation of conductors' was but a sally aimed to draw discussion. For Mr. James, in view of all he has done to encourage 'the young idea,' would be the last to place obstacles in the way of any aspirant to honours in the higher spheres of the art.

Conductors, it is sometimes said, are born, not :nade ; but it is astonishing what a degree of success a man may attain to if he is given the opportunity to practise, even though he be not a genius. There are many ringers, perhaps the majority, who have no aspirations in the direction of conducting, but if the art of ringing is to retain its standard we must look to the future, as well as to the present, and for this reason alone the young conductor should be encouraged. There is nothing like conducting, as distinguished from bob calling, to encourage a man to become master of a method, and yet there is little inducement or, indeed, possibility of acquiring ability in this direction, unless a ringer becomes a bob caller. It is the responsibility of calling the bobs and keeping the bells right which brings out the talent of the real conductor. Only a man of genius can reverse this order of things-one brilliant example was the late Mr. Ernest Pye. His peals as conductor could be counted almost, if not quite, on the fingers of one hand, and yet a no more skilful 'conductor' ever entered a belfry.

But what we have to do in these days is not only to encourage the man of genius—his ability will show itself in spite of repression—but to find opportunities for the man of average capacity to fit himself to take the place of the 'Old Bobs' of the present. The days when the beginner at ringing has to sit in the belfry for many long and weary evenings and see the others ring have passed, and so, we hope, have the days when, year in and year out, 'Old Bob' so steadily guards his preserves that the wouldbe conductor is carefully kept out in the cold. A conductorship should not be looked upon as a freehold for an individual, but the opportunities should be open to all to seek them. The encouragement of the young man need not mean the displacement of the old, but it does mean assuring the future of the Exercise, and it is in this light that the question should be vi-wed. 454

THE PRESERVATION OF CONDUCTORS. To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Kindly grant me space to express my views upon the above subject, as it is one in which I have always interested myself. I may say that my views are in opposition to those expressed by Mr. James.

I have always been strongly in favour of supporting the venu-conductor, and not damp the young ringer's enthusiasm by not giving him a chance of calling.

By giving him such opportunities it encourages a young ringer to prick and learn that part of ringing which he otherwise would know nothing about, and this in turn teaches him more about ' coursing order ' and such like, and in the end helps him to become more effective in method integers. efficient in method ringing.

Mr. James' argument about ' Old Bob ' with Harry and Ben ' is like using a size to carry water,' for if Old Bob had given Harry and Ben as much practice in calling as the latter had given Old Bob, it might have proved that both the youngsters were better conductors than the old man. I have seen six Surprise ringers in a band of eight, who after ringing a dozen rounds, found that neither could call a touch of Grandsire so little did they know about calling, and one of the onlookers in the belfry had to call the ' bobs ' for them. This was simply because neither of them had ever been encouraged in calling, the first step towards becoming a good conductor, not Mr. James have felt very small had he been one of Would the men who had been so little encouraged?

I agree that conductors require practice, but this should, as far an possible, be distributed, and not be as Mr. James suggests, that the conductor of a band monopolise that position the whole of his life.

I personally do not aspire to such a position, but none the more, I consider I have a right to call when I desire to do so, after con-sulting the 'Master' of the combany to which I belong I certainly am in farour of giving all the band or, at any rate those who have the ambition, the practice of calling so that when Old Bob can no longer take his rope Ben and Harry are ready to call the barry to Boring. The his rope Ben and Harry are ready to call Old Bob can no longer take his rone Ben and Harry are ready to call from Minor to Maximus or Plain Bob to Cambridge, and if the bard suffer the loss of either going away, Bill and Ted are equal to the occasion, and are exable of calling a touch or peal in any method. I do not know but perhaps Mr. James is the so-called conductor of his commany, and is satisfied with the position he monopolises, but u not. Old Bob, no doubt in consideration of the resition Mr. James held in the during would gold this to be any or provide the termine would be the during the dubit the holds in the ringing world asks him to call now and again while the remainder of the hind ' ave to be satisfied with knowing that as many bolls as you take before the treble, take before you dodge hob or no bob.—Yours faithfully, ALFRED PITSTOW. bob .- Yours faithfully,

AMONG HERTFORDSHIRE TOWERS.

A most enjoyable time was spent in Hertfordshire by members of St. Mary's, Acton. Society. including the Rev. Routh. B.A., and Messrs. R. Holloway, C. Brown, C. Breeze, H. Wincote, R. Fardon, R. H. Boddington, J. W. Fruin, J. H. Hunnisett, L. H. Page, W. T. Vickery and J. Rootes. At Oxhey, they received a hearty welcome from Mr. F. W. Brinklow and Mr. Eade, and the nice light ring of eight were soon off into changes, and Stedman and Grandsire Triples and Kent Treble Bob Major were rung. The next call was Bushey, where Mr. Maurics nibbert was on the look out for the party. The ringing here was much enjoyed, touches in various mothods being brought round. Lowering the bells at 5 p.m., and not having made brought round. Lowering the hells at 5 p.m., and not having made special arrangements for tea, Mr. M. Hibbert and Mr. Brinklow at once most kindly fixed up a splendid 'ringers' tea' at the Red Lion, which was much appreciated and enjoyed by all. Having half an hour to spare, the visitors were taken by the two local friends to see the wonderful and interesting stone residence of Professor Von Herkomer. The next call was Wattord Parish Church where a warm wolcome from Mr. Oakley and the Vicar (who is a ringer) awaited the party, and on this truly magn ficent peal touckes of Grandsire and Stedman and on this trilly magn ficenit peal fouches of Grandsre and Stedman Triples and Kent Troble Bob were brought round. Then on to King's Langley, where the party were met by Mr. Clark, and ringing was enjoyed on the light bells, a holping hand being given to a few of the local band who thrended their way through touches of Grandsire Triples, and were much pleased. This concluded a most enjoyabl-day, and best thanks are tendered to the 'brother strings' mentioned for their hearty welcome, and also to the Vicars of the respective churches. churches.

STAINBANK,

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD SUCIETY.

TAMWORTH'S INTERESTING BELLS. A successful meeting of the Society for the Archdeacomy of Stafford was held at St. Editha's, Tanworth, on Saturday week. Letters of apology for absence were read from the Rev. C. H. Barker (hon. secretary and treasurer) through illness, and from Mr. J. Bradney. ' The peal of eight hells-which were rung to the tune of the four standard methods and Double Norwich-form an interesting collection. The trebles are by Taylor and Co., also 3rd recast 1883; 4th, 1621, by High Watts; 5th, 1629, and 6th, 1628, by G. Oldfield, junr.; 7th, 1656, by B. Elduidge; and the tenor recast by Taylor and Co., 1884. They are hung in a tower quite unique, for it is believed to be the only one in the world to have a double staircase-one leading from outside and the other from inside the church. So that when one is ascending on the one set of steps another may be walking on the former's head. The inte ior of the church, too, is well worth a visit. Here we have the uncommon view of a large inside window, i.e., stone framowork, on the castern side of the tower, which gives a beautiful effect. Further, we see in the spacious vestry safes filled with registers dating from the early part of the 17th century, together with communion plate of silver some centuries old. The inhabitants of Tanworth may well be proud of their grand old church. The ringers are to be congratulated upon possessing a Vicar and churchwardens who take such a lively interest in their doings, and who take their regular stand at the ropes week by week. This interested trio to-gether with the local band, did their utmost to give the visitors a warm welcome. And right well did they succeed. The Vicar (the Rev. H. Rosher, M.A.) gave an inspiring address Cards were distributed with a hymn 'Lift them gently to the steeple,' also a prayer, specially printed for the occasion, and the members were asked to accept it as a souvenir of their visit. After the service was over, the Vicar gave an interesting description of the church.

A capital tea was kindly provided by the churchwardens, to which helwcen 40 and 50 did full justice. Mr. W. R. Small-in quite his own style-moved a vote of thanks to the Vienr for his helpful address etc.; to the churchwardens for the splendid tea provided ; to the ladies who assisted at the tables, and to the organist for his appreciated assistance.--The Vicar and Mr. Churchwarden J. W. Parker suitably re-ponded.

As previously published the Rowland Cartwright Memorial Fund reached the sum of ± 20 198, 6d. Since then the following sums have been received: Coseley ringers, 138.; Nottingham (per Mr. C. F. Vickers), 108.; Mr. T. Horton, 5s., making a total up to date of ± 22 7s. 6d. The next meeting is provisionally arranged to take place at Willowill as Language the Willenhall on January 8th.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

The Northern District meeting of the Essex Association was held at Foxearth on Saturday Sept. 4th, there being a good attendance of members from Braintree, Stisted, Sible Hedingham, Notley, Great Yeklham, Rayne, Croydon, and the local company. The Rev. H. S. Carpenter (Rector) conducted a short service and gave an address welcome to the ringers.

Tea was served at the Clubroom and was followed by the business meeting. Mr. H. F. Croper presided, supported by the Rector. Mr. Wm. Underwood, of Cavendish, was elected a non-resident mem-her, and four ringing members from Finchingfield were also elected.-It was unanimously decided to hold the annual district meeting at In lasted in December.—The District Master proposed a hearly vote of thanks to the Rector for his services, and this was seconded by Mr W. H. Dyson, who said he felt sure every one of those meetings was the means of bringing the ringers and clergy together into one brotherhood .- The Roctor, in replying, said he was very pleased to have the ringers at Foxearth, as he quite realised that ringers were great church workers, working together in harmony for the love of God and His church.

Ringing during the afternoon and evening included touches of Plain and Kent Treble Bob, Grandsire and Stedman Triples.

WICKHAMBREAUX RINGER'S DEATH.

The death has occurred at Wickhambreaux, Kent, of one of the local ringers Albert Johnson. He was laid to rest on the 4th inst., and on the following day the bells were rung deeply muffled for the services. and a 720 Rob Miror brought round by E. Wood I, W. Maxted 2. W Savage 3. H. PEAL ATTEMPTS IN CANADA.

' KHAKI ' RINGERS BACK IN VANCOUVER.

The lost Canadian mail brought an interesting letter from Mr. A. C. Limpus of Vancouver, B.C., who is known to many ringers in England with whom he became acquainted whilst with the Canadian the issue of July 2nd, I noticed that my esteemed friend in Seaford Sussex, Mr. Robert J. Dawe, was ringing in a peal of Stedman at Southever, Lewes, which prompts me to assume that the Seaford hand would like to hear something from those of us who had the pleasure of ringing with them in 1918-1919.

'Our Vancouver hand includes no less than five " khaki " ringers who were at Seaford Camp viz., Mr. A. Watts, Mr. H. Hollis, Sergt.-Major G. Chaplin, Sapper H. Whiteman, and myself, and we all wish to be remembered to those at home.

Since returning we have made two attempts to gain another peal, but, alas! after an hour's ringing came to grief on both occasions at exactly the same place. Those taking part were: George W. Foster (conductor), Major F. M. Bressey, F. Dunaway W. R. Warner, M. C. Bennett, A. Watts, Farrington Jones, Jennor, and myself, so you see we are much the same band as in 1911. Mr. Gilbert Pearce is in Bristol, and Mr. R. J. Carrier, Vancouver Island, some 80 miles dis-We are getting a much-needed new set of ropes on which we tant. hope to ring the first peal of Stedman away from the British Isles."

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD. QUARTERLY MEETING AT KINGSWINFORD.

On Saturday week, a quarterly meeting of the Dudley and District Guild was held at the beautiful village church of St. Mary, Kingswinford. The bells were available during the afternoon, and the Guild's beautiful form of service was used. The Rev. A. H. Messiter (Vienr beautiful form of service was used. The Kev, A. H. Messiter (Vienrof Kingswinford) officiated, and gave a very forceful and interesting address, at the outset of which he extended to the members a heartw welcome to his church and parish. At the conclusion of the service an adjournment was made to the Schoolroom, where a hounteous lea was awa ting those present, and, needless to say, full justice was done to the good things provided.

The business meeting followed presided over by the Vicar. Several new members were elected, including the Rev. A. H. Messiter as an honorary member .- The next quarterly meeting, at the invitation of the St. Leonard's company, will be held at Bilston, of which due notice will be given. It was proposed to attempt the Guild's quarterly peal at Kingswinford, the arrangements being left in the hands of Mr. John Bass

At the close of the meeting, hearty votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar for his freat kindness in grauting permission for the meeting to be held at Kingswinford, also for conducting the service in church and for his helpful address, for presiding at the meeting, and for the use of the Schoolroom and bells; to the Rev. H. Hemmingway (ourate) for his assistance in the nusical part of the service; to Mr. E A. Lownes and Mr. H. Morgan and their wives and lady friends for providing and serving the tea, and to all who had assisted in any in making the meeting a successful and hanpy one.

After the meeting some of the members strolled round the beauti-ful country village, whilst others adjourned to the belfry and made good use of the bells in the time at their disposal.

WEST WALES ASSOCIATION. SUCCESSFUL QUARTERLY MEETING.

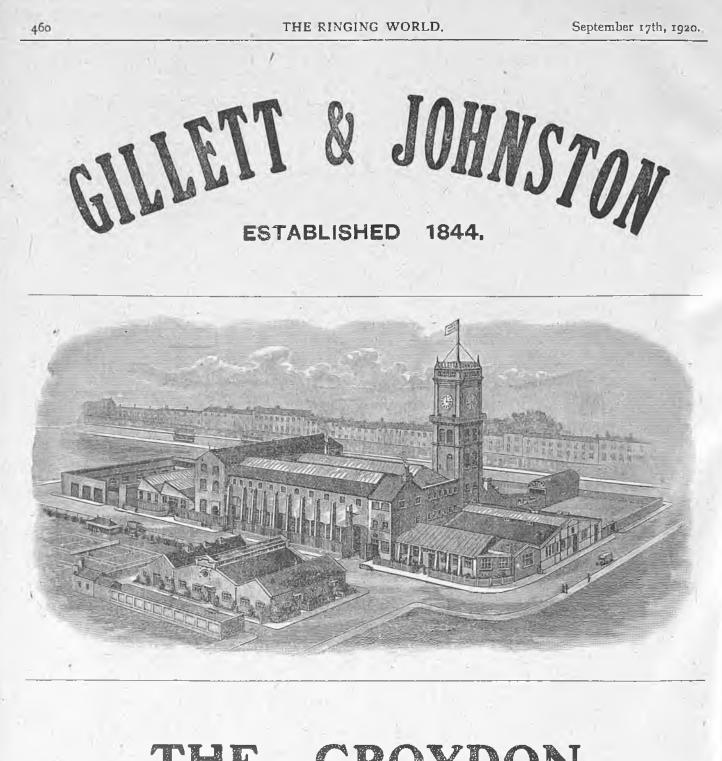

On Saturday, Sept. 4th, the quarterly meeting of the West Wales Association was held at Baglan, where the bells, a nice ring of six were kept going during the afternoon and evening in a variety of methods. There was a good attendance, the towers in the Associa-tion being well represented. Mr. J. W. Jones (secretary Lland of Association) and Mr. Shepherd, of Swindon, were welcome visitors.

Service was held in the beautiful church, at which the Vicar (the Rev. E. G. E. Richardson) gave an appropriate address on bells, and gave some good advice to the ringers in regard to their duties to the church generally.

After the service, the party (which included some lady ringers) adinurned to Baglan Hall, where a capital ica was enjoyed, over which Mrs. R. W. Llewellyn presided .- Thanks are due to Mis, Llewellyn and Mrs. Bellringer for helping to make the tea a success. A short meeting was afterwards held, at which Mr. Jones said he was glad to see that the moetings of the Association were now advertised in the ' Ringing World,' as a result of which he was able to attend.—He was followed by the Ringing Master (Mr. A. J. Filman), who impressed upon the ringers to support the 'Ringing World ' dividually, and said no doubt that the more support the ringers' dividually, and said no doubt that the more support journal had, the better the paper the Editor would be able to produce for them

After the meeting, the ringers again made for the tower for further ringing and an enjoyable day was brought to a close by a well-struck 720 Bob Minor, conducted by M. A. Hoare.

'FORTY AND TWO MONTHS.'

Students of the prophecy of the Book of Revelation should read this little brochure, written by the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards (secretary of the Salisbury Guild of Ringers). In the past, many commentators have endeavoured to expound the interpretation of the words of Revelation xi 1, 2; but none of the explanations put forward bear the same examination, in light of the facts, that can be applied to Mr. Edwards' theories. If his assumptions are correct, he has solved the problem after the fulfilment of the prophecy, and in that respect approached it under more advantageous conditions than previous writers. But whether his views are accepted or not, be certainly marshals facts, ngures and arguments in thoughtful and well-developed manner, and the booklet which may be obtained direct from him at Kington Magna Rectory, Dorset, is worthy not only of perusal, but of cureful study. The price is 3d, post free.

LANCASHIRE AEFAIRS.

The Lancashire Association has always been one of the best managed of the ringing organisations in this country, and it is quite certain that it maintains among its members as great an active interest in its affairs as can be boasted by any society. Another proof of this will be found in to-morrow's annual meeting at Eccles, when the agenda for the business proceedings will give the members some real, live topics to discuss. There is, for instance, keen competition for the privilege of representing the Association upon the Central Council, and it must be some 'years since an association had nine candidates putting up for the maximum of four places. This seems to us an indication of revival of interest in Lancashire in the Council, and we hope to see this revival followed in other bodies in the Exercise.

An important matter bearing upon the future of the Association will be discussed upon the motion sent up by the Bolton Branch, viz., that probationary members be admitted to the Association. A good many of the ringing organisations already do this in some degree or other, but Lancashire, up to the present, has received only those who can pass an elementary test in change ringing. The experience of those societies who admit probationers has, we believe, been such that none would now draw the stricter line of limiting membership to qualified change ringers only. Probationers cannot, of course, expect to have a full voice in the affairs of an association, but the fact that they are enabled to become attached to the parent body tends to quicken their interest, and to encourage them to seek to advance in the practice of ringing, so that they may at the eartiest moment enter into full membership. The Association also benefits financially, and there is no respect, we think, in which it can be urged that it is against the interests of a Change Ringers'

Association to admit probationers-under proper rules. Another matter in which the Lancashire Association will be interested to-morrow is the date of its future annual meetings. This has been a vexed question for some time past, but it is doubtful if any day could be selected for such an event which could even be made convenient for all who would like to attend. But in Lancashire there is another matter which complicates the issue, and that is the holidays which the textile workers in the great industrial centres take en masse during the late summer. To-morrow the Lancashire ringers have got to decide whether they can with advantage change the date of the annual gathering, and whatever their decision, the discussions which this matter has raised at the Branch meetings shows that the members have a live interest in their association.

RINGERS' JUBILEES.

In honour of the 50th birthday of Mr. F. Salmone, a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at Heptonstall, Yorks, on August 28th. The ringers and their wives were entartained to tea by Mr. Sal-mone, who received the congratulations and thanks of his guests. Last Saturday Mr. Fred Wilford, who for many years was hon secretary of the Central Northants Association, also celebrated his jubiles with a peal of Superlative which he conducted at Irthling-here the united the mode which he induces at Irthlingborough. He received the good wishes of his brother ringers,

'AMONG THE BELLS.' To the Editor.

Sir,-May I strongly advise ringers who do not possess this record of the late Mr. Robinson's ringing career, and 'perhaps have never seen or heard of it, to take the opportunity now offered of securing a copy at pre-war cost? Apart from change ringing the photo-graphs of over 400 churches at which Mr. Robinson rang peals, with carefully ascertained statistics of the weight and founders of their bells, are a record of great ecclesistical and antiquarian interest, which might well find a place in diocesan or parochial libraries, as well as in the homes of the dergy. Ten-and-six may seem a lot to spend upon it; but some who grudge that will not think twice about twelve-and-six for a bottle of whisky! I need hardly add that, though I was privileged to assist Mr. Robinson in the preparation of his book I have no personal interest in its sale.—Yours faithfully, of the late Mr. Rohinson's ringing career, and perhaps have never have no personal interest in its sale .- Yours faithfully book I have St. Albans, T. L. PAPILLON.

MELTON MOWBRAY'S OLDEST RINGER, DDATH OF MR. C. T. DALBY. On Monday, Sept. 6th, there passed away, after some months of illuess Melton Mowbray's oldest ringer, in the person of Mr. Charles Thomas Dalby. Deceased, who was 73 years of age, was a native of West Ham, and went to Melton about 45 years ago. He at once joined the St. Mary's Ringers' Society, and later acted as captain of the company up to 1899. Although nover very far advanced in change ringing, he rang 23 peals of Minor, Grandsive Triples and Bob Major. Ho wus a member of the Framland Society and of the Midland Coun-ties Association for several years. Always most regular and puncties Association for several years. Always most regular and punctual in his attendance at Sunday service ringing, his place will be difficult to fill.

difficult to fill. Ho was buried on September 9th, four ringers being the bearers: Messrs. R. H. Bartram, W. James, T. H. Gillett and Jos. Gilson, and after the committal Messrs. R. H., Ernest and J. R. Bartram and W. James rang the handbells over the open grave. In the even-ing his old colleagues rang the whole pull and shand on the halt-mufiled bells of St. Mary's Church, and several touches of Grandstre Triples (including 518), conducted by R. H. Bartram. There were many beautiful wreaths including one from his only daughter, Mrs. Armitage, of Croydon, and ' Charlie ' (his grandson).

NEW PEAL OPENED AT LIVERPOOL.

There was a great gathering of ringers at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, Salisbury Street, Liverpool, on Sunday Sept. 12th, for the reopening of the peal of eight, which have just been recast by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. Short touches were the order of the day to make it possible that all present might particinate

The opening touch of Grandsiro Triples was rung by: John Donnelly (conductor) 1, Fercy Haves (West Derby) 2, Wm. Bond 3, Thomas Donnelly 4, James Meldrum 5, Herbert Ashton (Rainhill) 6, Isaac Clarke 7, James Moran 8. At intervals during the day the ripging was taken part in by bands, which included Messrs. Sholicar, J. H. Parks and P. Harvey, of Ormskirk: Mr. Hill, of Walton; Mr. Old-ham, Loughborough (representative of Messrs, Taylor), and Mr. Percy Hayes, of West Derby, besides many from other towers in Liverpool and neithbourhood. and neighbourhood.

The arrangements were in the hands of Mr. John Donnelly, and it was evident when ringing ceased at 8.30 p.m. that satisfaction had heen given to all, and Opinion was unanimous that Messrs. Taylor and Co. had done their work well, the musical tones of the bells being greatly admired.

THE LADIES' GUILD.

SOUTHERN BRANCH MEETING AT CHERTSEY.

A quarterly meeting of the Southern District of the Ladies' Guild-was held at Chertsey on September 11th. After ringing during the afternoon the Guild service was conducted by the Vicar of Cherteey, who gave an address. Tea in the Churchroom followed, and was much appreciated by those who had cycled some distance. A company of appreciated by those who had cycled some distance. A company of 25 assembled round the teatable, it being the smallest meeting since this district was formed, but what was lacking in numbers was made up by the enthusiasm of members present, one having come from Dorking, and another having cycled some 20 miles alone. At the business meeting, Miss Nash, of Wargrave was elected a members member.

The Secretary reported that Mr. Charman, of Oranleigh, had in-vited the Guild to hold a meeting there and the offer was accepted It is hoped to make this the district sumual with much pleasure.

With much pleasance. The Minor in four methods at Puttenbam; also The Misses Mills, of Aldershot, were heartily congratulated on rug-ing their first peal, viz., Minor in four methods at Puttenbam; also Miss Fisher of Dorking, on her first quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples Ringing was continued for a short time after tea, and considering the somewhat heavy bells and long draught of rope the members acquitted themselves very creditably.

A TRIP TO OXFORD.

On Saturday, September 4th, the Berkhamsted ringers with a few friends, visited Oxford by charabane for their annual outing. The first halt was called at Stone, where the oburch possesses a pretty little ring of six, which were soon cealing out some very good touches of Grandsire Doubles and Bob Minor. From Stone the journey was routinued to Haddenham, a picturesque village about two miles on the Aylesbury side of Thame. The poal of eight here were kept going for about three-quarters of an hour, and all were very sorry at having to leave them so soon. The next call for ringing was made at Thame, where the ancient church possesses a heautiful peal of at Thame, where then so soon. The next call for inging was made at Thame, where the ancient church possesses a beautiful peal of eight bells. Various touches were rung for upwards of half an hour, and then the party made for Oxford. After dinner the visitors had a look round the various colleges, and other places of interest. Upon the stroke of six o'clock they started off from St. Gilcs' on the homeward journey which was completed in about five hours after a thoroughly enjoyable trip.

A SUCCESSFUL TOUR.

Eleven peals in fourteen attempts were scored on the ringing tour last week organised by Mr. William Pye. The peals rung comprised three of Bristol Surprise, three of London three of Superlative and two of Cambridgo. Those lost were one of Bristol, one of Super-lative and one of Stedman Cinques, owing to illness.

EIGHT BROTHERS' SURPRISE PEAL.

The Bailey Brothers-that extraordinary family of ringers at Leiston, Suffolk-have added a bit more to ringing history. Last Satur-day they scored the first Surprise peal by eight brothers, this being a peal of Superlative rung at the first attempt. It will be remem-bered that eight of the family rang a peal of Bob Major some years ago, and that was followed up by some interesting family peals upon handbells. Now, however, they have again organised into an eight bell band—it is all the more extraordinary that they are not exactly the same eight—and have added Superlative. As most of them have rung peals in other Surprise methods—well the rest will surely follow with average luck. Previously the only Surprise peals rung by a band of brothers have been the handbell peals by the four brothers Pye-George, William Ernest and Alfred.

A TRIUMPH OVER WAR'S HANDICAP.

A TRIUMPH OVER WAR'S HANDICAP. On Sunday, Sept. 12th, for evening service, at Christ Church Southgate, the first quarter-peal of Caters was rung on the newly augmented peal, namely, 1.263 Stedman Caters in 52 minutes: J. Armstrong (conductor) 1, A. R. Ghassock 2, G. Bester 3, H. E. Balaam 4, E. G. Tomlunson 5, N. A. Tomlinson 6, J. E. Miller 7, H. Miller 8 W. Pickworth 9, A. G. Crane 10. This was the first quarter-peal of Caters as conductor by J. Arm-strong. It is particularly interesting also for another reason. It was arranged for H. E. Balaam who lost his right arm in the war. He rings admirably with his remaining arm, and is to be congratulated upon the way he has overcome this serious handicap. He was on a visit to his home. visit to his home.

BARNSLEY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

A very successful meeting of the above was held at Royston on Saturday last. The church, tower and bells are all old and much venerated. The ringing room is lighted by a noble oriel window with five lights, and the writer noticed several persons comfortibly placet in this roomy alcove watching the ringing with evident interest. Members were present from Wath, Darfield, Wragby Felkirk, Crof ton, Barnsley, etc. Many Minor methods were tried, but owing to the shyness of beginners the higher flights of Treble Bob were the most successful. Seven new members were elected, and roles, of thanks were present it by View Owen Thomas B.A.) and church were passed to the Vicar (the Rev. Owen Thomas, B.A.) and church-wardens, for the use of the bells, and the local company for all arrangements made for the visitors,

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

THE DATE OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

The much-discussed question among branches of the Lancashire Association, as to the date upon which the annual meeting of the Association shall be held in future years is to be decided to-morrow, when the association will meet at Eccles. The following resolution is on the agenda: 'That the committee having carefully considered the proposed alteration of the date of the annual meeting, are of opinion that the present date is best for the association, but if an alteration is desired they recommend the second Saturday after Whit-week as

The Bolton Branch are submitting a motion that ' members be admitted into the association as probationary members who are not qualified under the present rules, but are desirous of learning, or belong to a band, conditions being left to the committee.' There is plenty of competition for the four places on the Central Council, no fewer than nine members baving been noninated.

PRESTON BRANCH PRACTICE MEETING.

A combined practice was held at Whittle-le-Woods on Saturday last, and was well attended, some 34 members enjoying the ringing on the fine peal of eight. It was 3.45 before proceedings commenced, owing to a funeral, but from that time up till 8 p.m. the bells were never idle for more than the few moments necessary in chang-ing one hards extended with the filling of the bells. ing over bands. Standard methods with the addition of Double Nor-wich Major were rung, as well as Bob Minor and Cambridge Surprise for the six-boll onthusiasts.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar and loc.t ringers for the use of the bells, this being suitably acknowledged by Mr. G. Bradley, of the local hand. The towers represented were: Aughton Parbold, Standish, Chorley, Brindle, Leyland Parish and St. James', Penwortham, Preston Parish, Blackburn, and the local hand. band.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD.

The annual ringing week of the Cambridge University Guild was this year arranged in East Hertfordshire. The headquarters were at Thundridge Vicarage near Ware, members being also billeted in the school house and one private house. Two motor-ors and three birreles calved the problem of locomation. The programme was: bioyeles solved the problem of locomotion. The programme was: Monday night, September 6th, Ware Parish Church for short touches. for these effectively say ' Shan't ' to anything longer.

for these effectively say shart to any many burger. Tuesday morning was spent at All Saints', Hertford (a fine peal by Mears), tenor 25 owt. in rinking touches, and the afternoon at St Andrew's, Hertford. In the evening a peal of Double Norwich was rung at Bengeo, the first peal of Major on the bells.

Wedneeday began with a visit to Bennington, the village made famous by Squire Proctor and his band. Two of the latter listened with interest to a peal of Little Bob Major, the first in the method on the bells. Afterwards a short visit was paid to Great Munden, where the Rev. A. G. Langdon, a member of the Guild, is Rector Then on to Braughing, where more touches were rung on bells made famous by a long length of Bob Major about 1792.

Thursday's journey was to Waltham Abbey, where the magnificent ring of twelve by Taylor was enjoyed for an hour and a balf, touches of Caters and Triples being rung. On the home journey Cheshunt was visited where the hells are a recent peal by Gillett and Johnstone. Next a peal of Double Oxford Bob Major was rung at Broxbourne.

On Friday, a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major was altempted at Hunsdon, but proved a failure. Afterwards short touches were rung at Holdesdon, a peal by Warner. In the evening a peal of Double Norwich was attempted on handbells, but failed after $1\frac{3}{4}$ hours' ringing.

Next year's tour is planned to take place in Northamptonshire.

SOUTHERN DIVISION SECRETARY RETIRES.

The quarterly meeting of the Southern Division of the Yorkshire Association was held at Conisbro' with all its historical lore of the old castle, on Saturday last, and although there were various other meetings held in the district on that day, there was a very good muster of members and friends representing Sheffield Cathedral, Rotherham, Doncaster, Alj Saints', Sheffield: Wath, Whiston Bolster-stone, Arksey and Sprotborough. Ringing in various methods from Bob Minor to Double Norwich took place under the conductorship of Mr. G. Halksworth, the Ringing Master.

A short service was held, at which most of the visitors were present, and some sound advice and good counsel were given by the Vicar (the Rev. W. A. Strawbridge, M.A.), who exhorted his listeners to be more than ringers in their church work for although it some-times entailed a great amount of self-denial, they would one and all reap a rich reward hereafter. He assured them that by closer study and constant practice a greater desire would come to them to follow and carry on the work of the Divine Master.

Afterwards a sumptuous tea was provided by the wives and lady To the great regret of the members, the vice-president read a letter from the honorary secretary (Mr. Arthur Hague) tendering his resignation. This came as a great surprise to many but under the circumstances it was felt it must be accepted for a time, althougait was hoped that before long they would have the same gentleman back in harness with a helpmate, who is also a ringer, from another shire.

source. Δ vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Hague for his past valuable services, and the vice-president was instructed to write him a letter of thanks from all the members of the Southern Division. On the proposition of Mr. G. Clarke, of Arksey seconded by Mr. H Woodhouse, Mr. F. Clarke was unanimously elected to fill the vacant post.

Soven new members were elected, and, as no invitation was put forward for the next meeting to be held in December, the place will be selected by the committee.

A very pleasing duty fell to the Vicar at this point of the business avery plasms duty left to the vicer at this point of the bushness proceedings when he was asked to make presentations to two mem-bers of the local company, who had just recently entered into the bonds of matrimony.—The Vicar said he had fairly lectured them at the wedding service and as they were both ringers, and that was a ringers' gathering he would ask the vice-president to make the pre-sentation sentation.

Mr F. Willey, in a few well-chosen words, made the presentation on behalf of the members of the Conishorough company, and trusted that in years to come they and their wives would be blessed with health and happiness.

The Vico-President reminded all members that the increased subscription was now due, and trusted that those who had already paid would remind other members in the various lowers who were apt to forget that the subscriptions must be paid by September 30th, to ensure their names appearing in the next published report.

BISPHAM'S NEW BELLS. AN ENTHUSIASTIC INSTRUCTOR.

A handy ring of six bells have been placed in the tower of Bispham Church, near Blackpool by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, in memory of the fallen heroes of the war. As soon as the scheme was begun money flowed in very freely from many quarters, and after all de-mands have been paid there is still enough money left to put in two trobles, which is the wish of many parishioners. As the ringing chamber is only about 8 feet 6 indee sectors will not be much chamber is only about 8 feet 6 inches square there will not be much room left when eight men are at a similar number of ropes hanging there though the bell founders say they can make a good circle should they get the ord cr. 'The tenor is 11 cwt.

According to rumour, many years ago a wealthy parishioner decided to present a ring of eight bells to the church and one Saturday night be invited the Vicar to supper and discuss the pros and cons hight be mynted the vicar to supper and discuss the pros and cons of the scheme. Owing to the lateness of the evening, and as the gentleman was about to make out a cheque, the Vicar told him not to trouble about it, and he would call round on Monday. Alas! the gentleman was taken seriously ill on the Sunday and died before the Vicar could see him, so Bispham Church the mother church of Black-pool, has had to wait nearly twenty years for the bells.

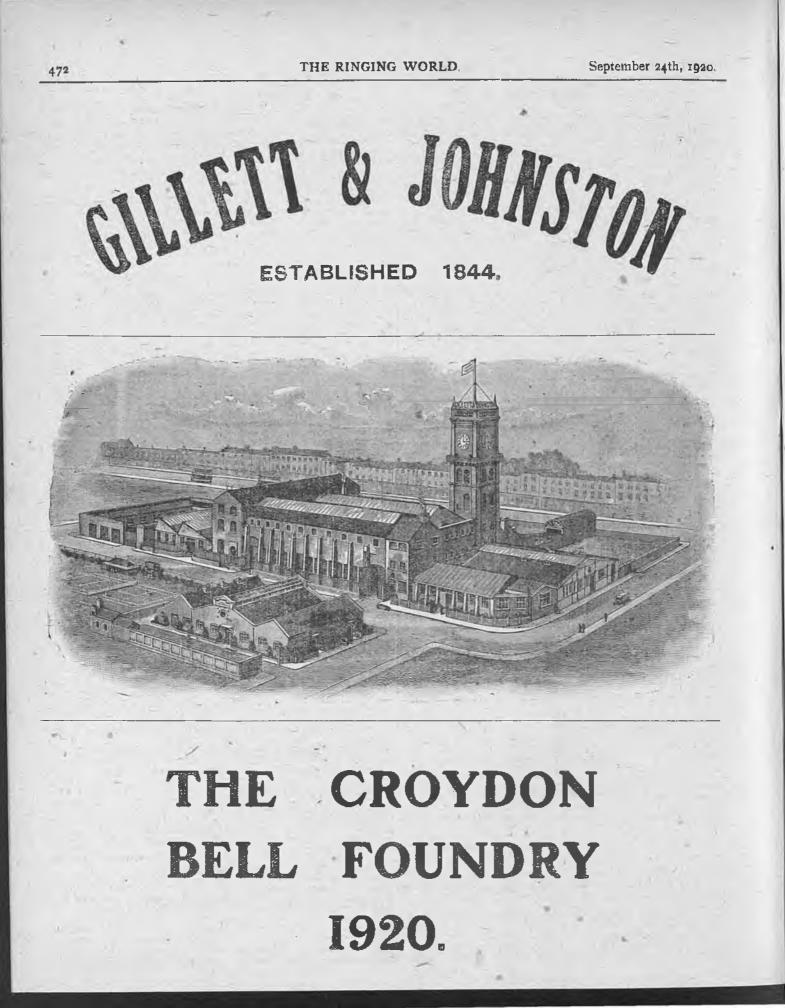

A promising band of men have been got together for the purpose of ringing the bells under the tutorship of Mr. C. Sharples, many years leader at Immanuel. Oswaldtwistle, but now residing in Black-pool, North Shore, Mr. Sharples, along with Mr. Robt. Parkinson and Mr. Isaac Whalley, were the pioneers of change ringing in Oswaldtwistle, and were practically self-taught by Ropesight, though nuch encouraged by various members of the Blackburn Branch of the Laucashire Association. A great help and impetus was given when In Sharples hought a set of eight handbells and here the three can claim to be absolutely self-taught, for they received instruction from no one. They were the first in the annals of change ringing to ring nno one. They were the first in the annals of change inging to ring a peal of Minor in seven methods, double-handed, now about twenty-four years ago. Owing to pressure of business, Mr. Parkinson, who had been leader and conductor of Immunuel for many years moved out of the district, and Mr. Sharples was elected leader, a position he held for nearly ten years until business calls caused him also to relinquish the leadership, though he often took part in the Sunday ringing. Under the leadership of Mr. Parkinson who, by the way, is now living and teaching a band in County Durham, the first peal on the bells. Plain Bob Minor, was rung after the bells had been in Plain Bob Minor, was rung after the bells had been in twenty years. Then followed peals in three and four the bells. the bens, Fight Bob Shabi, was rung after the bens had been in the tower twenty years. Then followed yeals in three and four methods until, just before leaving, a peal in seven different methods was rung. When Mr. Sharples got the reins his desire was to ring a peal of Treble Bob in seven methods, which was scored a year or two after struggling with learners. This was the first Treble Bob Minor by the Blackburn Branch. Mr. Sharples next aimed at a Surprise Minor peal, and this also was achieved after several years. This peal was the first Surprise peal by the Blackburn Branch. His next step was for 10,000 of Surprise in fourteen methods, and this was rung on May 17th, 1908 in five hours forty-two minutes, a commemorative brass being placed in the porch, at the cost of the Vicar and church officers, in honour of the event, the Vicar giving the worthy conductor a most excellent. ' rubbing ' of this brass mounted in a suitable oak frame. A few months after Mr. Sharples left Oswaldtwistle, his one regret being that there was still one more field to conquer, namely a non-conducted peal. This latter he was the chief means of getting in 1913, the band calling on his aid owing to temporary absence of one or two men.

At Bispham, Mr. Sharples has already imbued his well-known enthusias into the recruits, who, like Oliver Twist are asking for more. He is a great believer in teaching every ringer as much as possible, both in method ringing and conducting, a contradiction of Mr. Bankes James' recent letter in the ' Ringing World.'

CREWE RINGERS VISIT DERBY.

On Monday, Sept. 6th the ringers attached to Christ Church, On Monday, Sept. 6th the ringers attached to Christ Church, Grewe, had their annual outing, the place selected this year being Derby. the Chief Mechanical Engineer at Derby. During the afternoon a visit was paid to St. Alkmund's Church tower, where the ringers were met by several of the local band, and a pleasant afternoon was spent. Here several short touches of Sted-man Triples, Bob Major and Double Norwich were rung on the splendid peal of bells, and the Crewe ringers take this opportuunity of thanking those gentlemen who so kindly contributed towarus making this visit so successful and enjoyable. The rest of the time be-fore departure was spent in looking round the town, and Crewe was reached shortly after 9 p.m., after a most enjoyable day's outing.

RINGING TOURS.

There is a delightful uncertainty about peals, and it is this element that really makes them worth the ninging. The same seriousness does not always enter into peal attempts, but however well-intentioned and determined a band may be, there are many causes which may bring the best endeavours to an uncompleted end. If what some people generalise as 'luck' enters into peal-ringing, then surely the men who have just concluded an itinerary in Herefordshire have had the worst that any bell-ringing tourists have experienced. To attempt a peal, and sometimes more than one, every day for a week and not to meet with a single success, is just about the limit of fickleness on the part of Dame Fortune; but doubtless the visitors, who gathered from distant parts of England, found some compensation in the social side of the outing, for we read that they were not ' downhearted.'

Contrast this lack of success—counted in terms of peals with the result of the tour in Essex, the records of which are published to day. Here, eleven peals, all of them in Surprise methods, were rung, and there were only three failures. To score peals in the higher methods at this rate is a triumph, even for a band of such excellent ringers as formed the Essex party, but it can hardly be termed a ' holiday' except in the sense that it is a change of occupation. Those who have taken part in peal-ringing tours arranged by Mr. William Pye know the earnestness with which they are undertaken. On these trips the peals are the thing, and one has only to turn to the records to see how successful in their main objective these well-organised tours have been, whether in districts where the bells are light or heavy or go well or badly. What is more, these excursions are undertaken by 'mixed' bands, which makes the result all the more creditable.

There is a pleasure in it, too, for the ringers. Unless there was a full measure of enjoyment, men would not, year after year, engage upon the strenuous type of holiday which continuous peal ringing means, and no one has a right to quarrel with the choice of those who spend a week in this way. But probably the majority of ringers would prefer the kind of ringing holiday which was indulged in by members of the Cambridge University Guild, who found recreation in one peal attempt a day, and visits for shorter lengths to other towers. This makes the serious business of the tour less of a physical tax, and gives more opportunity for the social phase of the re-union, which is so enjoyable a feature of these gatherings. To those who seek relaxation in their holidays, outings of this description have a great charm, and when one can, in addition, tour the country by car, there can be little more required to make this type of excursion one of the most pleasant that any ringer could desire.

AMONG THE TEN-BELL TOWERS OF EAST RIDING.

The lure of Beverley and its neighbouring towers, replete with musi-cal rings of ten, tempted the Newcastle Cathedral Guild to put them to the test, and after depositing our luggage at the hotel and some lunch inside us, we essayed a 5001 at the Minster. The homing-course, however, proved too much for the nerves of some of the 'veterans,' and a beautifully struck peal of Stedman Caters was lost 'veterans,' and a beautifully struck neal of Stedman Caters was lost in the last five sixes, after 3 hours and 35 minutes of it.—The Vicar (Cauon A. E. Nolloth), who had so kindly granted us the use of his magnificent peal with its noble tenor of 42 cwt., afterwards displayed to us the beauties of the Minster, and without a doubt it was the most interesting hour and a half the Guild has ever spent. Steeped in bell-lore and antiquarien knowledge as the Canon is it was delightful to listen to him as he took us over nave and chancel, screens, shrines, ohapels, windows, statuary, monuments, and the hundred and one things his beloved church is famous for. Should he chance to see this things his beloved church is famous for. Should he chance to see this report we trust he will be assured of our gratitude. The following morning and afternoon we rang for service at both Minster and St. Mary's, the latter being a grand second in musical properties to the former. At three o'clock we set off for Hull, and rang several touches at Holy Trinity for evensong. There we met our old friend and former hon, secretary of the Durham and Newcastle Association, Mr. A. M. C. Field, with many of the local ringers. The methods tackled were Firm and Stedmen Catons and Forward Royal methods tackled were Erin and Stedman Caters and Forward Royal, methods tacked were form and Steeman Caters and Forward Royal, and we wish here to compliment the local men on the excellent condi-tion of their hells and tower. Next day, Monday Sept. 13th (unlucky day), we started early for a peal of Erin Caters by kind permission of the Rev. G. H. Kirby Vicar, but shortly after the bells had been turned into the inverted home position, the bells ran round through a change-course at the light end, after 2 hours and 20 minutes' pretty tapping. Bidding light end, after 2 hours and 20 minutes proof the still anathema-farewell to Beverley and its hospitable ringers, though still anathema-tising our ill-luck, we mide for the Abbey at Selby, where we were heartily greeted by Mr. Cryer and his merry men. He graciously tising our ill-luck, we made for the Abbey at Selby, where we were leartily greeted by Mr. Cryer and his merry men. He graciously allowed us to handle his ' pets ' to a few touches of Caters and Royal and right glad were we of the opportunity, for the bells were not only worth listening to, but were so fine in the ' go ' that the men at the heavy end had little more exertion than those at the light. Indeed this can be said, too of the rings at Beverley, and we are grateful to both the steeplekeepers there for the painstaking way in which everything was made as safe and comfortable as possible for a peal. At 8.30 we separated, four of us to return to Newcastle, the other six making for Pontefract, where they enjoyed a ring on another fine peal of ten on the Tuesday, and also sampled a peal of teipht. This

A correspondent thus epitomises the week's tour of members of the Hereford Diocesan Guild in the counties of Horeford and Salop, and adds: The members of the party were not 'down-hearted,' and from accounts to hand appear to have had an enjoyable time. The 'Ringing World ' is asked to convey the thanks of all those on tour to everyone who helped in the arrangements for bed, board and rope, Thirteen towers were visited, and three of them on a second occasion, but no hindrance or dolay occurred at either belfry. Mr. C. Edwards. for Herefordshire, and Mr. Wm. Mead, for Shropshire, kindly acted as local organisers.

It will probably never be known how Chesterfield spire got the hump All historians differ in their theories That the sun had warped it (being built of wood) is current in some quarters; another, that the original arrangements did not include a spire, but the builder had to put one up before he was allowed to see the colour of me money and in revenge he threatened to build one to be remembered! and another, that it was an architect's freak-and on examination this is most likely. Certain it is that it commences from the battle-ments as a 'spiral 'spire, but finishes off hump-backed obviously before reaching its intended apex. Still, it is a landmark and a first. rate advertisement.

rate advertisement. Saturday, Sept. 18th, saw the above associations meeting at the twisted steeple, and visitors came from Derby, Notis, Burton-on-Trent, Loughboro', Leicester, etc. The ten bells were going soon after 2 p.m., when Troble Ten, Stedman and Graudsire Caters were rung, and, later on, Superlative, Cambridge and London. The tower is a fine old structure inside and out. The former appeals most to the ringer, and there he can read upon the walls of the deeds of those doughty men long gone to dust. A hundred years ago the bells were doughty men long gone to dust. A hundred years ago the bells were opened and three teams took part. The first day's ringing coverent three peals complete! The local ringers say that Chesterfield bells require rehanging. If they are rehung it should be as a ring of twelve, but thanks to whoever looks after them to-day, the writer saw no cause for complaint compared with some rings.

Chambers, J.P.), the Rector of All Saints', Chesterfield, the Rev. Canon Shaw was roted to the chair, on the proposition of Mr. W. Willson (trea-surer), seconded by Mr. A, C. Wright (secretary). The business of the meeting was of a Durely routine character, several new homorary and ringing members being elected.—Votes of thanks to the local officers and to the clergy were carried unanimously, and Canon Shaw roulied in a humorous sneech.

and Canon Shaw replied in a humorous speech.

It should be mentioned that although Chesterfield is known throughout the world for its crocked spire, it is better known among ringers for a still more remarkable product.—Mr. Arthur Knights, whose name will last as long as the spire W. W.

Thureaston on Sept. 11th, when a good number of members attended. Ringing was indulged in during the afternoon and evening, when all expressed their approval of the new floor, which has made an almost deafening peal quite a pleasure to ring, while the new trebles have provided a fine light peal of eight within easy reach of Leicester. At the business meeting, held in the Vestry, Mr. G. Cleal presided After a discussion on the recent controversy in the 'Ringing World it was moved, seconded, and carried, that 'The Leicester District had every confidence in Mr. E. Morris as a member of the committee.' Arising out of the above discussion, a resolution was passed asking for a portion of the general funds to be used for furthering the in-struction of country members in the art. An amendment was also suggested for the wording of rule 12, re beal ringing on meeting days. These motions were to be brought before the general meeting at Chesterfield.—Votes of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, to the local band for their hospitality, and to chairman for presiding, brought the meeting to a close. LADIES' GUILD PRESIDENT'S WEDDING.

The marriage is to take place at St. Michael's Church, Basingstoke, next Thursday, at 2.30 p.m., of Miss Roselta Alice White (elder daughter of the late Mr Harry White), and Mr. Joseph C. Salvaneschi, General Manager at Liverpool of the Liverpool Telephone (New

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

THE YEAR'S WORK.

The annual meeting was held at Eccles, near Manchester, on Saturday last, when the lowers of Pendleton and Worsley, as well as the Parish Church, were thrown open from 10 a.m. In two of them the carly birds attempted a peal, but with nothing to record. The service was arranged by the Rev. H. N. Ross, B.D. (Vicar), who was assisted by the Rev. G. Vaughan, while the address was given by the Rev. H. L. Fosbrook, the Vicar of Pendleton.

In the course of his address, the speaker said he only undertook the task of speaking to such a gathering of ringers on the under-standing that he knew nothing of belt ringing. He appreciated the man who could tell the difference between Grandsire Triples, and, say Surprise Major, but in the interviews he had had with his 'skipper' he got further muddled instead of getting a clearer insight into the mysteries of the art. Speaking in general terms, he could not help mysteries of the art. Speaking in general terms, he could not next thinking that bell ringers are not quite an ordinary set of men. Men who would spend a Saturday afternoon within the four walls of a tower, working hard, perspiring freely, looking into each other's faces with that earnestness which the art of bell ringing domands, were men out of the common. The ringers in the past, he thought, had themselves to blume somewhat for their bad name. His first recollections were of a hole in the wall in the church out of which eight or nine and came when service began. He used to wonder how such hig men could get through such a small opening. They walked straight down the aisle and out of the west door, passing two or three pews with a cord across, which, as he got okler, he found were reserved for the ringers these men he had watched come out of the hole in the wall so often. Coming to later times he mentioned the Church Councils under the new Act, and spoke of one ringer who was duly elected to that Council, but who the Vicar of the parish ruled out, as he was not a regular communicant, according to the prayer-book teaching. That ringer and the rest of his band had come out on strike as a protest. The speaker concluded by exhorting those present to live up to the ideal of heing church officers, as well as men.

Insuediately following the service, the tea was held in the schools, arranged by the local ringers. The one jarring note of the day came in here, the caterers complaining that only 47 names were received, while nearly 140 arrived, which necessitated two sittings with a certain amount of disconfort to all.

The business proceedings were presided over by Canon Elsee, who thanked the Vicar and others for the kind welcome extended to the association.

Mr. J. H. Banks read the roport of the committee, which stated that the association was 1,340 strong, with 1,084 performing members in the county. The income for the year was £46 17s. 2d., while the expenses wore £55 1s. 5d. The chief items of expenditure were repreentatives' expenses to Central Council, the annual reports, and, owing to the railway strike, extra expenses and loss on tea at Liverpool last year. The peak recorded were 59, the tilfference in the total compared with the Central Council figures being accounted for by the financial year closing on August 31st. Special mention was made of the dealds of Messrs. W. Heaton of Colue, aged 87, and John Millett, of Heywood. The committee, added the report, were keeping in minthe formation of a new branch at Wigan, and had received an offer of a secretary pro tem. The bells at Holy Trinity, Bolton, which were burnt out last November, had been recast by the original founders. Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and were ready for rehanging. All four of the association's representatives attended, the Central Couneil. The report closed with the best thanks to the branch secretaries for carrying on the work of the association.

As there was only one nomination for each of the offices of president, general secretary and treasurer, they were re-elected, win thanks for past services, which they suitably acknowledged.

A ballot was taken for the election of Central Council representatives, which resulted in the Rev. Canon Elsee and Messrs. J. II. Banks, J. Low and W. E. Wilson being elected.

The discussion on the alteration of date of the annual meeting resulted in the present rule being retained, and, therefore, the association will continue to hold the meeting on the last Salurday in September.

The motion with reference to the admission of probabionary members was not carried, the members being of opinion that the time was not ripe for alteration of the constitution of the association.

The meeting closed with thanks to the various authorities for the use of the bells: to the ringers at the various towers for meeting the members; and to the Eccles ringers, with their lady friends, for arranging such a good tea.—Mr. John Jackson, in reply, said the late Mr. Barratt set them a high standard of catering, and they were pleased to think their efforts were appreciated.

NORWICH AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.

A district meeting of the Norwich and Ipswich Association was held at Stradbroke on Saturday last. The attendance was affected by the rain, but representatives were present from Aldburgh, Debenham, Eve Pressingfold, Laxfield, Pulham Market, Redenhall, Sibton, Thefford and Thornham, and touches of Plain Bob, Grandsive, Oxford, Supertative and Stedman were rung.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

MEETING AT MILTON ABBEY.

The last of the summer meetings of the Dorchester Branch was held at Millon Abbey on Saturday, Sept. 18th. Milton is a favourite and charming place for these meetings. The Abbey is a structure of great architectural beauty, and worthily entitled to rank among the noblest ecclesiastical buildings in the country. The county of Dorset is the only county in England which contains three great Minsters of noncathedral rank, viz., Sherborne, Wimborne and Milton, and each of these Minsters is of Saxon and royal foundation. King Athelstan grandson of Alfred the Great, founded the Monastery and Collegiate Church of Milton in the year 938, as a thankoffering to God for a remarkable revelation which he received on Milton Hill, and which told him that he would conquer his many enemies and become King of all England

The village is a model grown old. Its story is very simple. When Joseph Damer, afterwards Earl of Dorchester, became possessed or the Milton estate, it was a prosperous town, and he found it too near to the spot where he intended to build his mansion. With the fine quarter-deck, high-handedness of the 18th-century squire, he ordered the offensive object to be removed, and it was so. This old town possessed many streets and many taverns. It possessed a brewery of great renowny as well as a Grammar School, founded in 1521. It almost passes belief that the whole re this ancient town, its rectory. its school, its almshouses, etc., were all swept off the earth because Its school, its illusinouses, etc., acto an oclose to his residence. He this Joseph Damer decreed the town too close to his residence. He foll more it and declarged it as Vestivius overwhelmed Pompeii. One fell upon it and destroyed it as Vesuvius overwhelmed Pompeii. One resident put a difficulty in his lordship's way by refusing to sell his lease, so the waters crept round his premises. This resident entered lease, so the waters crept round his premises. This resident entered an action against him for flooding his house and won his case. A few days afterwards his lordship went to London, and on his way 1.0 Blandford he heard the bells of the Abbey Church. This he inter-preted as a sign of parochial joy at his defeat and departure, and nothing would satisfy him but the sale of the offending bells. The bells were really ringing to commemorate Guy Fawkes' Day; it was the 5th of November. But the bells had to go for his lordship ' the autocrat' had spoken, and his friend the Dean of Norwich (different to the present one) had said bell ringing caused much idleness and drinking. The great tenor bell weighing 35 cwt, was sold to Bath Abbey, and two other of the bells were given to St. James' Church Milton, but what became of the rest is not known. There is a record however, that when the parishioners saw their old bells carted away they stood at their house doors weeping. Happily, however, Milton has now another peal of bells. The motor char-a-bane was in evidence for Saturday week, and

The motor chara-bane was in evidence for Saturday week, and starting at one end of the district picked up members on the way until it was halen, and unfortunately some were disappointed in not getting a lift. The drive and scenery were greatly enjoyed. A hall was called at Puddletown, the 'Weatherbury' of Thomas Hardy's 'Far from the Madding Greet' and a touch on the six bells was indulged in. The road from here goes over the downs, and then sinks into a wooded glen at the shalowy entrance of which it vanishes. Once in the woods it makes a bend, and on a sudden this famous village of Milton bursts into view. The first impression is one of anazement, for the place is both extraordinary and unexpected. Indeed, there is nothing like it in any part of England.

Members atlended the meeting from Buckhorn Weston, Dorchester, Fordington, Hilton, Swindon, Swanage, Wool and Wyko Regis, and there was a full muster of the local band. The bells were rung during the afternoon, and the Guild service was held in the Abbey conducted by the Vicur, the Rev. F. W. Aldros, who also gave an excellent address, and welcomed the Guild to Milton.

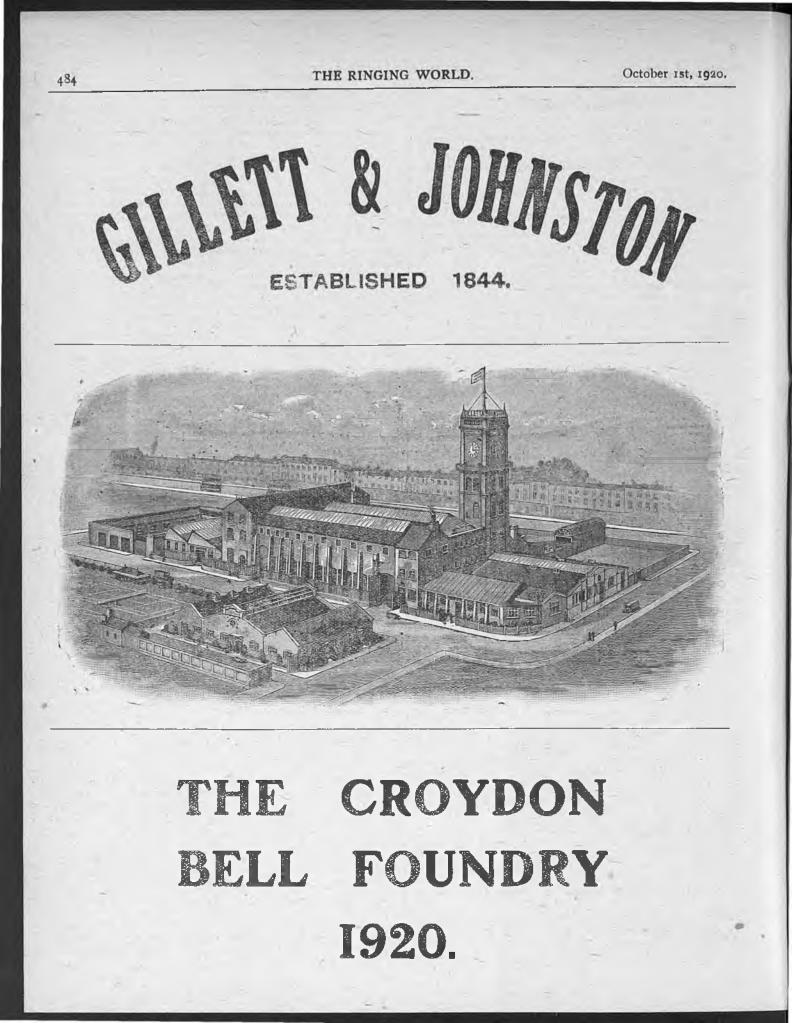

Tea was provided at the Hambro Arms, the members (41 in number) being the guests of the Vicar.

The business meeting followed. In the absence of the chairman of the district, Major Hughes D'Aeth (Master of the Guild) took the chair, and was supported by the Vicar, Mr. J. H. Sheppard (Swindon), and officers of the Guild. Apologies for absence were received from the Rev. F. L. Edwards (general secretary), the Rev. C. A. Phillips (secretary East Dorset Branch), the Rev. C. C. Niven, Canon Barclay and others.

CLAIMS TO AUTHORSHIP.

The validity of many claims of the authorship of peals is raised again by a correspondent who points out that a number of new composers' names are appearing in conjunction with statements that the peals are rung for the first time, and suggests that many of the peals thus claimed are probably old ones or variations of old compositions. What the writer has to say has probably got a great deal of truth in it, and he proposes as a solution, so far as the peals of Treble Bob are concerned, the publication by the Central Council of the Treble Bob Collection enable composers to verify their claims, or alternatively that they should be published in 'The Ringing World.'

Dealing with the latter alternative first, we used in the past to publish, as far as we were able, all compositions rung for the first time, but the congestion caused by the present size of the paper is a handicap, to say the least, to any such course at the moment.

The other suggestion the Central Council have themselves ruled out for the present, on account of the high cost of printing. The manuscripts, however, will probably go into the new library, and will be available for inspection by those who desire to search its pages. To this mode of checking his products the genuine seeker after originality may be directed : but the composer, who attaches his name to a collection of course ends that run out true at something over five thousand changes, merely that he may have the self-satisfaction of seeing his name appear with the records of the peal, is scarcely likely to go to any such trouble. As a matter of fact, the mere publication of the figures of a peal is no sure safeguard against an old composition or a variation of it being claimed as original.

What is really wanted is some sort of central authority by whom all new compositions should be examined before any claim to originality should be admitted. To establish this body would be the business of the Central Council, although it would probably be a somewhat formidable task to organise the work at the outset. Such a method, however, seems to be the only way by which a real check could be established. With the many hundreds of peals of Bob Major, Double Norwich, Treble Bob, and so on, in existence, it is obviously a very difficult matter to get anything new that is worth ringing, for the manner in which the courses with the best music in them can be produced is more or less limited, particularly when it comes to productions which contain extents with bells in certain positions, and it therefore seems to need some kind of central authority, with all the compositions collected in easy reference form at its disposal, to settle claims to originality for every new peal that is rung.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION. The autumn quarterly meeting of North Notts Association was ueid at Tuxford on Saturday, Sept. 18th. Tuxford possesses a ring of six bolls, well hung, and in good order, but not the best for quality of tone. The place is easy of access by road and rail, so that it was not surprising that members turned up in good force from Barboro', Norton Cuckney, Oudsall, East Markham, Laneham, Sutton-on-Trent, Gainsborough, Worksop, and Tuxford. The association was pleased to welcome the following members of kindred associations: Flight-Sergeant F. A. Holden (who had cycled 30 miles), the Rev. C. J. Sturton (Vicar of Orston), and Mr. Arthur Mackears, of Long Ben-nington. The Vicar of East Markham, where there is a handy and musical ring of six in good rging order, had kindly placed the tower at the disposal of ringers, and five touches and a 720 of Kent Minor were brought round, the airman taking part in it. He also gave some valuable help to the juniors who look part in subsequent touches. The business meeting which followed tea, was presided over by the

The business meeting which followed tea, was presided over by the Vicar of Tuxford, who gave the ringers a cordial welcome, and said how delighted he was to hear the bells so skilfully rung. Good ringing, especially on a Sunday morning put life and vigour into the preacher for the day, but a few bells tinkled took the life out of him. He wished the association every success, and hoped it would not be five visited the association every success. years before they came again, although, perhaps, the war had had something to do with the long interval since their last visit.

something to do with the long interval since their last visit. Mr. Arthur Mackears was elected a non-resident life member, and Mr. W. Atkius, of West Refford, and Mr. H. Kirk, of Barlboro', per-forming members. The next meeting was arranged to be held at Barlboro', at the end of October if possible, or early in the new year Mr. J. T. Wilson moved and Mr. H. Haigh (hon. secretary) seconded, a vote of thanks to the Vicor of Tuxford for the use of bells and presiding over the meeting. Mr. Wilson remarking that such meetings with members present from kindred associations to exchange views and discuss the proc and cons of ringing affairs. brought about riews and discuss the pros and cons of ringing affairs, brought about a better feeling and a fuller bond of friendship towards one another.

Mr. Haigh gave the visitors of kindred associations a hearty wel-come. Alluding to the recent marriage of the Rev. C. J. Sturton, he said he was perfectly sure the ringers would join with him in wishing the reverend gentleman and his bride long life, happiness and prosperity.—The Rev. C. J. Sturion thanked the ringers, on behalf of the visitors, and also the secretary for all the kind things he had said about him, and remarked that during his experience as a ringer he had derived the most pleasure when in the company of that fraternity.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A general meeting of the Yorkshire Association was held at Tong, near Bradford, on Saturday, Sept. 11th. The day was delightfully fine, and nearly two hundred ringers assembled to partake of the hospitality of the Tong ringers. The peal of six in the Parish Church and the fine peal of eight at St. Paul's, Drightington, were available throughout the day, and were kept busily going in a large variety of methods. methods.

A committee meeting was held in the church vestry during the afternoon, this being followed by a bountiful tea in the Schoolroom During tea the visitors were entertained in a novel manner by the Bourneville Wizard,' Mr. H. Withers who arrived unexpectedly on the scene, accompanied by his close friend, the famous dulcimer. Various musical selections entortained the uninitiated, while the ears of the more expert were regaled with methods ranging from Bob Major to London Surprise, some of the performer's efforts in methods assounding the company, who heartily appreciated the efforts of Mr. Withers

Reliable the company, who hearting appreciated the chorts of bit. Withers. The business meeting was held on the village green, the president (the Rev. C. C. Marshall) being in the chair, supported by the prin-cipal officers of the association, and a large gathering of ringers. On the motion of Mr. T. B. Kendall, seconded by Mr. Elliott, it was decided to hold the annual meeting in January, at Earlsheaton. A vote of condolence to the relatives of the late Rev. C. Farrow, who passed away at the age of 85 years, and who had been Vicar of Tong for 54 years, was accorded by all standing with heads un-covered to the memory of a genial friend to all ringers.—A vote of thanks to the authorities of Tong and Drighlington for the use of their bells was moved by the Chairman, and seconded by Mr. G Renard.—The Rev. C. G. Farrow responded, and said how it would have delighted his father to have once more welcomed the associa-tion to Tong, and expressed the hope that wall the visitors had enjoyed their visit to that delightful old-world village. Messrs. J. Broadley and J. Cotterell respectively moved and seconded a vote of thanks to the local company and their ladies for the arangements for itea, this being responded to by Mr. C. J. Salla-way.—Messrs. John Austin, of Gloucester, and Mr. H. Withers, were elected life members of the association.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Wednesday, October 6th, was the anniversary of the first peal of Stedman Cinques, which was rung at St. Martin's in the Fields in 1788. Mr. Tom Russam, one of Birmingham's worthies, look part last week in a peal of Grandsire Cinques, in hand.' He was the only one week in a peal of Grandsire Cinques ' in hand.' He was the only one of the hand who had previously rung a peal of this kind on hand-bells, and that was in the Peal rung at Birmingham in 1886! The peal of Grandsire Cinques at St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, on Saturday week, was the first by the Salop Guild. The last peal of Grandsire Cinques on the bells was rung on May 15th, 1894, by the Society for the Archdeaconvy of Stafford and was composed and con-ducted by Mr. John Cantor ducted by Mr. John Carter. A peal of eight bells, as a war memorial, is to be placed in the Church of St. Leodigarius, Old Basford Nottingham, at an estimated cost of £1,500.

The friends of Mr. F. E. Dawe, will learn with resret, that as the result of the sting by an insect, he is now in a London Nursing Home suffering from blood poisoning.

Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are engaged in overhauling and augmenting the peal at Kinver. The six old bells are being tuned and lung in new fittings and framework, and two trebles are being added to complete the octave.

OLD PEALS BY NEW COMPOSERS. To the Editor Dear Sir,-1 have been watting for an abler pen than mine to draw attention to the fact that in almost every issue of your Paper one reads that certain peals are published as being composed by individuals who have just come into the limelight as composers. In fairness to those who produced peals many years ago, I think the Peals Com-mittee of the Central Council should publish without undue delay the Collection of Treble Bob 5,000's (which method a long time back was said to have been 'worked out ') so that anyone composing in this method would be able to see if his composition is a variation of one by an old Master, in the same way as one can at present consult Collection of Peals, sections 1 - 2 and 3.

I have no axe to grind, neither do I depreciate the endeavours of persons to construct new peals, but before such peals can be claimed the figures should either be published in the 'Ringing World,' or sub-mitted to the Peals Committee for their decision, whether original or otherwise

On page 173 of Collection of Peals, section 2, is a peal of Bob Major by the late Mr. Annable, capable of 410 variations, with a note stating, a large number of these have been rung and published as original compositions .- Yours truly, G. E. SYMONUS.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION.

A very successful quarterly meeting of the Kettering District was held at Weldon on Saturday week. The Rector (the Rev. J. R. Yates) kindly placed the bells of the church at the disposal of the visitors, who came from Kettering, Barton, Isham Geddington, Desborough, and Weekley. During the afternoon the Rector and the Weldon ringers gave the visitors a very hearty welcome, and several touches were rung on the bells. A short service was held in the church, and a collection was taken for the Belfry Repair Fund, which realised τ_{c} old 7s. 94d.

Tca was served at the Woolpack Inn, and was followed by the business meeting the Rector being in the chair, supported by Mr. Walter T. Wilson, of Isham (treasurer of the association), and Mr. D. J. Nichols (general secretary).

J. Memory (general secretary), The general secretary apologised for the absence of Mr. R. F. Turner (district secretary), of Kettering, who was unable to be pre-sent owing to the very serious illness of his wife.—The Rector of Weldon was elected an honorary member of the association.—The Rector thanked the members and promised to try and take an active part in the work of the belfry. The following were made ringing members of the association: 11. Spriggs, W. Burditt, G. Smith, R. Gilby, W. Frisby, G. Sharpe and W. Bull, all of Weldon; also Miss D. Lewis, of Isham; and Mr. Manning, of Desborough. It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Broughton, and also a special meeting at Weekley in October. — Mr. Wilson merude a heaver work of the We the Restar for the wells

BURTON LATIMER BELLS.

NEW PEAL DEDICATED.

Burton Latimer helfry has been completely reorganised. For many years it has had a tuneful peal of six bells, with the tenor just under The old wooden frame which has done duty for centuries, 11 cwb. was considered to be unsuitable, and the ringing was setting unsafe. A meeting of the parishioners was, therefore, called, when it was decided to relang the six tells, and to add two new bells to complete the octave. This has now been done, the work having been most satisfactorily carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., of Lough-borough. The eight bells are hung in new steel frames and swing on ball bearings, making quite an up-to-date belfry. The new treble bell was given by Mrs. Jacques, the patroness of the living, in memory of her late husband, the Rev. W. B. Jacques, and of her son Edward, who was killed in the war,

The second bell was added in commemoration of peace, and the peal of eight gives a fine musical octave, the tenor being 104 cwt.

The bells were opened on Saturday, Sept. 25th, by the Very Rev. Archideacon Whittingham, of Oakham, during a most impressive service. After the prayer of dedication, the local ringers rang a course of Bob Major in fine style the ringers being: George Lines 1, J. Pettit 2, M. Hobbs 3, H. Saddington 4, H. Meadows 5, J. Hendry o, PERIC Z, M. HODOS S, H. SEGGINETON 4, H. MERGOWS 5, J. HERGY 5, J. Saddington 7, B. Saddington 8. Among those present were Mr. E. Denison Taylor and Mr. Pryce Taylor, representing the Loughborough foundry, Mr. E. P. Duffield (hon, secretary of the Beds Association), Mr. D. J. Nichols (general secretary), and Messrs, R. F. Turner and W. Perkins (district secre-taries), of the Central Northants Association, Mr. F. Wilford (North-umber late general secretary) and about a hundred single.

The cost of the restoration was about £560, most of which was in hand before the opening ceremony.

The day's proceedings were very successful, over £25 being added to the fund and all the ringers expressed great satisfaction with the manner in which the work had been carried out.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

Northaw was the venue of a meeting of the North and East district of the Middlesex Association on Saturday last, and although situated. as the President put it, ' at the back of beyond,' a company of 20 or so ringers gathered together to enjoy a few hours' ringing on a nice toned peal of six bells, and to give some encouragement to the local ringers, who seemed exceedingly auxious to take advantage of the opportunity of some good practice in Grandsire, Stedman and Plain. Bob. Besides those methods there were rung courses of Cambridge Surprise and Kent Minor; also a course of the latter in which the Vicar (the Roy. & R. Bonsey) took part, it being his first in the method.

A short service was held, conducted by the Vicar, the lesson, taken from Romans xii., being read by the President. After tea, the usual business meeting was held in the Parish Room, the Vicar taking the business meeting was held in the Parish Room, the vicar taking the chair. Soven new members were elected, and the place of the next meeting decided upon.—The President (Mr. A. T. King, I.S.O.) moved ihat a hearty vote of thanks be passed to the Rev. F. R. Bonsey for the welcome given to the society, and this was seconded by Mr. F. A. Milne, and carried unanimously.—The Vicar roplied, thanking the members for their presence, and expressing the hope that they would over which they expressing the hope that they would soon visit Northaw again. A touch of Stedman Triples on handbells by Miss E. K. Farker u. W. Fletcher, J. Armstrong, and C. T. Coles, followed, and another visit to the tower brought the meeting to a close.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A very successful by-meeting of the Rochester District was held at Northfleet, on Saturday, Sepi. 25th. The bells were raised at 3, and kept going until 9 p.m., with the exception of the tea interval, some very good ringing ranging from Grandsire Triples to Superlative Surprise taking place.

This peal of eight has recently been restored, the old peal claix The work certainly reflects great credit on the bell hanger, Mr. A. Bowell, of Ipswich, as all were pleased with the tone and 'go.' Members attended from Rochester and Lewisbam Districts, and Prittlewell, Essex, and nearly 40 took advantage of having a pull on this restored ring.

NORTHERN BRANCH SECRETARY RETIRES

The quarterly meeting in connection with the Northern Branch of the Worcestershire and Districts Association was held at the pretty village of Chaddesley Corbett, on Saturday, Sept. 25th. The weather could not have been more glorious, and the result was a large and representative meeting. Unfortunately the service which had been ar-ranged was not hold. Tea was served in fine style by Mr. and Mrs. Perrins on the lawn.

The Vicar, who arrived about 5 o'clock, apologised for his absence. oricket match had been arranged between veterans of Chuddesley and Bellbroughton, and it was not over in time to hold the service at 5 p.m. The reverend gentleman offered to have the service, but owing to the lateness of the hour, the members thought it would be botter to get on with the meeting.

On taking the chair, the Vicar gave a hearty welcome to the association, and said how pleased he was to hear the old bells ringing out. If at any time any of the ringers came that way he would be very pleased to meet them and conduct them round the church. It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Dudley, in January, 1921.—Seven new performing members and one hon. mem-ber were elected.—Mr. W. H. Webb, of Halesowen, was re-elected branch Ringing Master, and Mr. S. Grove, Selly Oak, was elected in the place of Mr. J. Pigott (resigned) on the Central Committee.

At the previous quarterly meeting the scoretary had given notice that he would have to ask the association to fill his place, and in accepting the resignation of Mr. E. J. Dowler, Mr. A. E. Parsons (Master of the Association) sold how deeply they regretted his giving up the position, for upon the shoulders of the secretary mininy rested the making or marring of the association. In 1911, when the association was formed into branches it was predicted by many that the association was making a false move. In answer to that he would call their attention to the number of members on the annual report at that time and now. Continuing, Mr. Parsons said he was more than pleased with the work which had been done by the branches of their association, and he felt sure he was voicing the opinion of all present when he said how grateful they were to Mr. Dowler for the very efficient and able manner he had carried out his duties. He also stated that he had received a letter from Mr. J. Newman, the general secretary, saying how sorry he was to lose the services of Mr. Dowler, and he thanked him most heartily for the valuable help he had received from him in the past.

In reply the Secretary thanked the members for their expression of goodwill, and regretical having to take that step, but in giving up the secretaryship he was not giving up the association, and hoped to be with them for many years to come .- Mr. Alfred Davies, of 20, Hampton Street, Netherton, near Dudley, was unanimously elected branch secretary and treasurer.

A collection on behalf of the memorial window to be placed in the Cathedral at Worcester in memory of those members who made the supreme sacrifice in the war realised £1 13s, 6d.-A vote of thanks Ringing in the standard methods, Cambridge, Bristol and London Surprise Major brought to a close a most successful meeting.

LEANDAFF DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A most successful quarterly meeting was held at Llangibby, Mon . on Saturday, Sept. 25th. The bells a musical ring of eight, with a tenor about 14 cwt., were available the whole afternoon and evoning, the four standard methods being rung. Service was splondidly at-tended in the Parish Church, and was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. Herbert Addams Williams), who gave a most helpful address Following the service, the business meeting was held in the School-room. Several new members were elected, and augmentations and restorations were reported on.

The annual meeting is fixed for Cardiff, on Bank Holiday, Dec. 27th.

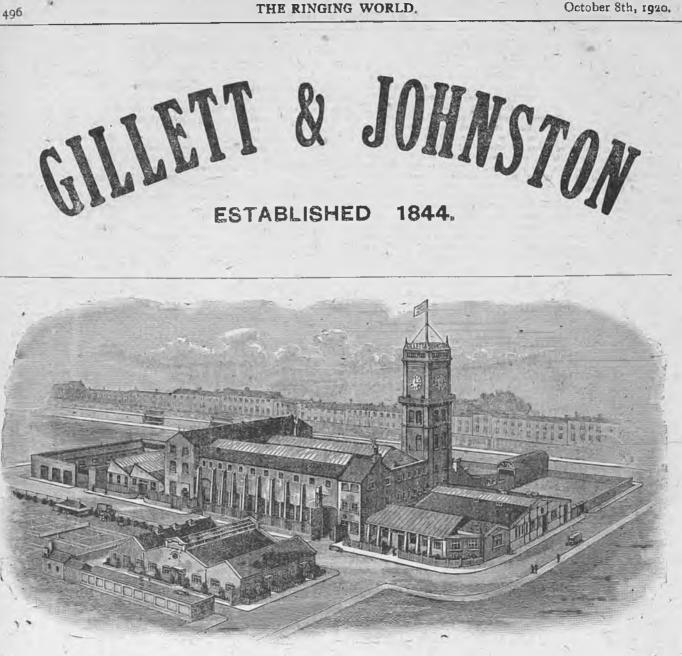

The visitors included Mr. J. H. Shepherd, of Swindon, and Mr. Walter Farley, of Wolls. Ten was taken in the White Hart Hotel, 40 sitting down.

At the conclusion, the Rector was thanked for his kindness in granting the use of the bells, conducting the service, and for his hos-pitality in inviting the members to tea. A ring of six at Tredunnoc, about 14 miles distant, were available during the evening, and advantage was taken of this by several who had never previously rung upon these bells,

THE HEREFORDSHIRE TOUR.

The anxiety, apparently, of our correspondent to let the world know of the failures of the ringing tour in Herefordshire and Shropshire before he announced the successes resulted in a misleading paragraph appearing in our last week's issue. After we had gone to press there came to hand the records of seven peals rung (which are given in this issue), and to which no reference was made in the summary of attempts sent to us by an earlier post. The commisseration expressed with the party was thus misplaced; instead they en-loyed quite a measure of success

The bells of St. Mark's being unavailable, through illness, it was also decided to abandon the service there. A visit was first paid to St. Michael's, and the bells there were kept going until tea, to which about 25 sat down at the City Cafe, Stall Street, A business meeting was afterwards held, with Miss Gillingham in the gluir. The secretary, committee, and the district representatives on the general committee were re-appointed to hold office for another year, and it was decided that the next quarterly meeting should, it possible, be held at Clifton Parish Church on December 4th, and an intermediate meeting for practice at Portishead on the last Saturday in October.

A vote of thanks to three Tower Masters (Mr. Cole, of St. Mark's: Mr. Alford, of St. Michael's; and Mr. Hill, of St. Andrew's), for the trouble they had taken, concluded the meeting. The ringers then visited St. Andrew's tower, and rang touches in various methods until about 7.30, when they returned to St. Michael's table. Interesting discussion took place respecting the duties of the in-cumbents and the interest shown by them in the art of cam-panology. It was also agreed that bell ringing might well be con-sidered an important part of the church service, and more interest might be taken by some of the clergy of various parishes in the condition of their bells and the interests of their ringers.

It was decided that the next meeting should be held at Watlington on Siturday, November 27th. After the meeting the members returned to the tower, and ringing continued until 8.30 p.m.

OUR 500th NUMBER.

This issue of the 'Ringing World,' as our readers may have observed, is our five hundredth number. It is a milestone on the road that merits passing attention, for it marks an interesting stage in the lifetime of the paper. Many changes have been rung since first 'The Ringing World' was launched upon the Exercise, and changes, also, have been necessary in the production of the journal to meet the vicissitudes which came with the war and war's after-effects. The troubles of the last six years in regard to newspaper production have not spared us, and we have been compelled to bow to the force of circumstances. We think we may, however, without egotism, take this to our credit, that we are one of the very few survivors of the class of journal existing before the war that catered for special and limited interests. We say limited interests because, in comparison with some of the other occupations of life, bell ringing appeals only to a small circle. Throughout our five hundred weeks we have ever striven to promote the advancement of the art and to extend its interests, and our desire to serve the cause of change ringing grows with our years. But difficulties which the war created, and which we struggled steadily to overcome, have unfortunately remained during the period of 'reconstruction,' and have effectively prevented that expansion which we had set our minds to achieve 'after the war.' While recovery in regard to circulation has been steadily maintained, it has not kept pace with the growing costs of production, and no good purpose can be served in hiding the fact that if the Exercise desires to have a paper run in its interests, one of two things must happen-either a much larger number of ringers must become supporters of the paper, and not merely readers on the one copy per tower principle; or the price of the paper must be raised. We would rather see the former alternative.

That the position of the 'Ringing World' is not an isolated one may be judged from the fact that in this year alone over six hundred newspapers have had to raise their price. We have endeavoured to stave off this action as long as possible, but unless the wider support comes, and comes promptly, an increase is inevitable. May we, therefore, appeal to our friends, who already stand and have stood loyally by us, to use their best endeavours to win for us the support of their fellow-members of the belfry who do not at present subscribe individually to the 'Ringing World'? Schemes for the expansion of the paper and an extension of features of interest have been long matured, but are held up by the difficulties which continually face us. We have indicated one line, at any rate,

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. John Carter has returned to Birmingham after his summer solourn in the Isle of Man. We are asked to state that the time of the peal of Cinques at Ipswich was 3 hours 44 minutes, not 3 hours 39 minutes as stated last week.

Another 'family ' performance is now recorded, five members of the accomplished Gofton family of the Durbam and Newcastle As-sociation having rung a peal of Stedman Caters ' in hand.' The peal of Bristol at Selly Oak, on Saturday, was rung for a variety of purposes. It marked the retirement of Mr. J. Dowler from variety of nurposes. It marked the retirement of Mr. J. Dowler from the office of secretary and treasurer to the Northern Branch of the Worcesterslure Association, after 9 years' good work, which is greatly appreciated. It acclaimed the appointment of Mr. A. Davies as his successor, and was a bitchday compliment to Messrs. John Smith and Robert Matthews, the ringers respectively of the 5th and tenor; and Mr. A. E. Parsons, Master of the Worcester Association. October 12th, was the 166th anniversary of the first occasion on which Holt's ten-part was rung. This was at Shoreditch in 1754, and it was rung by the Cumberlands, This celebrated old composition has probably been rung more times than any other peal of Grandsire. Owing to some amondment in Fost Office regulations, ' The Ringing World,' while it remains at its present weight, may be sent through

HONOURS FOR MR. J. S. PRITCHETT. HIGHEST OFFICE IN FREEMASONRY

Alderman J. S. Pritchett, of Birmingham, Presiding Ringing Master of St. Martin's Guild, and a member of the Central Council, has just received one of the highest honours which can be attained in Free-masonry. He has been offered by the Supreme Council 33rd degree and has accepted the office of Sovereign Grand Inspector-General of the War Control District and Market and Market Sources. the West Central District, carrying with it the 33rd and highest degree in Masonry. As he is already a Grand Officer of the craft, Mark and Royal Arch degrees, and has recently been appointed Grand Standard Bearer (V.B.) in the Masonie Order of the Knights Templar, he has attained the highest position it is possible almost to reach. This is the reward of an assiduous devotion to masonry extending over more than 40 years,

His many ringing friends throughout the country, and particularly those who are Freemasons, will join in congratulating Mr. Pritchett upon the great distinction conferred upon him by the craft, and also upon the fact that he has been appointed Assistant Recorder for the City of Birmingham.

IPSWICH RINGERS' EXCURSION.

The ringers of St. Mary-le-Tower, Ipswich, paid a visit to Bury St Edmunds for their outing, the party numberine 17 making the journey by rail. On arriving at St. Mary's Church they were wel-comed by Mr. Reeve, the verger, who had kindly got nermission for St. James' bells to be utilized. A nice touch of Stedman Cators was rung, in which Mr. Moore, one of the local men, took Part, and con-ducted by C. J. Sedgley. Various other touches in different methods on eight and ten bells were enjoyed throughout the rest of the mou-ing. After dinner, a brake was hired, and the party drove to Hor-ringer, where various touches were rung on the church bells two of ing. After dinner, a brake was inred, and the party inde to hor-ringer, where various touches were rung on the church bells, two of the local men joining in. On looking round the churchyard the visi-tors came across the grave of their late friend, Mr. H. Turner, whose tombstone is decorated with some beautifully carved bells. The party returned to Bury to catch the 7.15 train for Ipswich after an enjoyable day.

TENTERDEN BELLS RESTORED.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 23rd several members of the Kent County Association met at St. Mildred's Church, Tenterden, in answer to an invitation from Mr. A. Bowell, of Ipswich, Tentertoen, in answer to an invitation from Mr. A. Bowell, of Ipswich, who has relung the tenor of this famous peal in a new steel headstock and fittings, recast and rehung the fourth which was badly cracked, overhauled the remaining six, and strengthened the frame. Touches of Bob Major, and rehung the fourth which was badly cracked, overhauled the re-maining six, and strengthened the frame. Touches of Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples were rung during the evening, and a unanimous verdici was summed up in the three words, ' An excellent job.' There are many noted ringers who have tested the ' go ' of Tenterden tenor, and have gone away disappointed. There will now be a different result.

Mr. Ohurchwarden Meynell kindly provided refreshments after the ringing, and a vote of thanks was accorded to him. Alderman P. Edwards undertook the onerous duties of collecting the money to defray the cost of the restoration, and we are pleased to hear the results so far have proved very satisfactory.

'GOFER' RINGING.

On Oct. 3rd, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung by the Newark-on-Trent Parish Church hand to celebrate the revival of 'Gofer' ringing (an old-time custom), and which is carried on for six Sundays by meeting earlier for evening service ringing: E. C. Thrale 1, C. H. Chapman 2, J. H. Jennison 3, F. W. Foster 4, N. Holyoak 5, W V. Appleby 6, L. Bullock (conductor) 7, H. Thrale 8, PAINSWICK PERFORMANCES.

PEAL TABLET UNVEILED.

A permanent record of two long peals rung at l'ainswick has just been unveiled. The memorial is of Painswick stone, and has been erected in the helfry. It records the 7,325 rung in 5 hours in 1913, and the 13,001 Grandsire Cinques rung this year in 8 hours 45 minutes by the Painswick Youths. The first portion of the service was in the church, after which the Vicar (the Rev. C. H. Verey), headed by the churchwarvens and the ringers, proceeded to the belfry, and the Vicar unveiled and dedicated the tablet, and the twelve bells were rung, the congregation standing for a few minutes. Then all returned to the church, and the ringers' hymn, ' Hark, on high the joyful music,' was sung, and the Vicar gave the Benediction. Many of the congregation went up to the belfry to see the tablet, which was the admira-It is surmounted by a scroll-work on which is inscribed tion of all. ' The Ancient Society of Painswick Youths,' with a carved stone bell in the centre. On the large middle panel is the record of the two peals, the ringers' names, and those of the conductor and composer. Underneath is carved in bold relief the ancient regalia of the Painswick Youths, ringer's hat, sword, and staves, which were used when any new ringers were sworn in.

The twelve balls were rung before and after the service to Grand-sine Cinques, after which all adjourned to the Institute and partook of an excellent meat tea. The Vicar presided, and Miss Druct and Miss Williams assisted at the tables.

The Vicar said how glad he was to be present with the ringers on such a memorable occasion, and heartily congratulated them and the conductor in both peals, especially those that rang in the long peal of eight hours and 45 minutes. It was such a great test of skill, endurance, and concentration which was only realised by those who tdo! part and brought such honour to the ringers, the famous bells, and the parish.-Mr. M. E. Ireland, who very kindly volunteered to collect subscriptions for the tablet, said that owing to the kindness and generosity of the subscribers and friends he had received enough to pay for the tablet, and he thanked all the kind friends heartily who had helped to bring it to such a success.-Mr. Ireland was himself thanked by all present. heartily

Mr. W. Hale (hon, secretary) testified to the excellent ringing in the peaks, and reviewed the capital ringing talent that had existed in Painswick since 1731, which had made the Painswick ringers and bells so famous.

Mr. Albert Wright, the conductor of the peals, was received with acclamation, and said he had done his best. All the ringers co-oper-ated heartily, and rang so well, that his task was made easier. His father's name was on the tablet recording the last long peal in 1858 and now his own was on in 1920, which was right, ' and let Wright remain."

Mr. John Auslin (Gloucester) also spoke of the great enterprise of the Youths. During the 20 years he had visited Painswick and taken part in peals, he had always been welcomed heartily.-Mr. E. Millard warmly thanked the Vicar for bring present and unveiling the tablet, and for the great interest he took in the bells and ringors. The hells were again rung to Stedman Triples, Bob Royal and Grand. sire Cinques.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

S. AND W. DISTRICT TO HOLD MONTHLY MEETINGS. A meeting of the South and West District was held at St. Peter's, Staines, on Saturday afternoon, October 2nd. The Ringing Master (Mr. C. Bird), the past Master (Mr. Tom Beadle), and about 30 ringing members were present. After various touches had been rung, a ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. F. Marriot), who gave an address. Afterwards the ringers were entertained to tea in the Mission Hall by Sir Andrew and Lady Clarke, whose kind hosing which followed, it was decided to hold monthly meetings, and the next is to take place at Norwood Green, due notice of which with appear later. The Vicar was elected an honorary members of the association, and several ringing members were also elected. Business over, ringing again took place at St. Peter's and St. Mary's Churches

LADIES ATTEMPT PEAL OF STEDMAN.

A band of eight members of the Ladies' Guild attempted a peal of Stedman Triples at Clapton on Saturday, but much to their dis-appointment a trip brought it to an end. after 1 hour 35 minutes' ringing. The band was Miss Upsher (Edmonton) 1, Mrs. F. I. Hairs (Clapham) 2, Mrs. John Taomas (Edmonton) 3, Miss Stella Davis (Maidenhead) 4, Miss Gladys Bateman (Stoke Poges) 5, Miss Erelyn Steel (Bedford) 6, Miss Edith K. Parker (conductor) 7, Mrs. W. J. Kemp (Clapton) 8. It is hoped to make another attempt in the near future.

After the ringing the party sat down to tea, and then returned to the tower for touches, in which Messrs. J. Armstrong (Southgate) and Gray (Clapton) also took part.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD.

GOOD PROGRESS IN NORTH EAST BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the North East Branch of the Devonshire Guild was held at Bampton last Saturday. There were 50 ringers present from Bampion, Bickleigh, Calverleigh, Chipstable, Clayhanger Dulverton, Holcombe Rogus, Thorverton, Tiverton and Washfield. The ringing comprised Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, and a 360 Bob Minor. A short service took place in the church, at which the address was given by the Rev. E. J. Barton, chairman of the branch. Tea was served at the Vicarage, and was succeeded by the general business meeting.

The Hon. Secretary and Treasurer (the Rev. E. V. Cox) reported that there were 67 members of the branch, and considered that as the branch had only been formed one year good progress had been made. The attendance at quarterly meetings, with one exception due to the weather, had been very good. The statement of accounts showed a balance in hand of 17s. 3d.

The chairman and honorary secretary and treasurer were re-elected and six life members were admitted from Duiverton and Chipstable hands.—It was agreed to hold, the December meeting at Tiverton.

GRUNDISBURGH BELLS RESTORED. After a silence of 17 years the bells of Grundisburgh Church are again in condition for ringing, having been restored, and the 5th bell recast, by Messrs. F. Day and Son, Eye.

A special service for the re-opening and the dedication of the new bell was held on Sunday afternoon last, and consisted of a shortened form of evensong, the sermon being preached by the Rev. Sufton. THE LADIES' GUILD.

MIDLAND DISTRICT SECREPARY RETIRES. A quarterly meeting of the Midland District of the Ladies' Guild was held at Selly Oak on Saturday, Oct. 2nd, and despite a rather severe thunderstorm was fairly well attended, representatives being present from Solihull, Handsworth, Erdington, Stirehley and Smothwick, in addition to the local company. The bells were made good use of during the afternoon, and a service, at which the Guild form was used, was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. - Branceer), who extended a hearty welcome to the membrs.

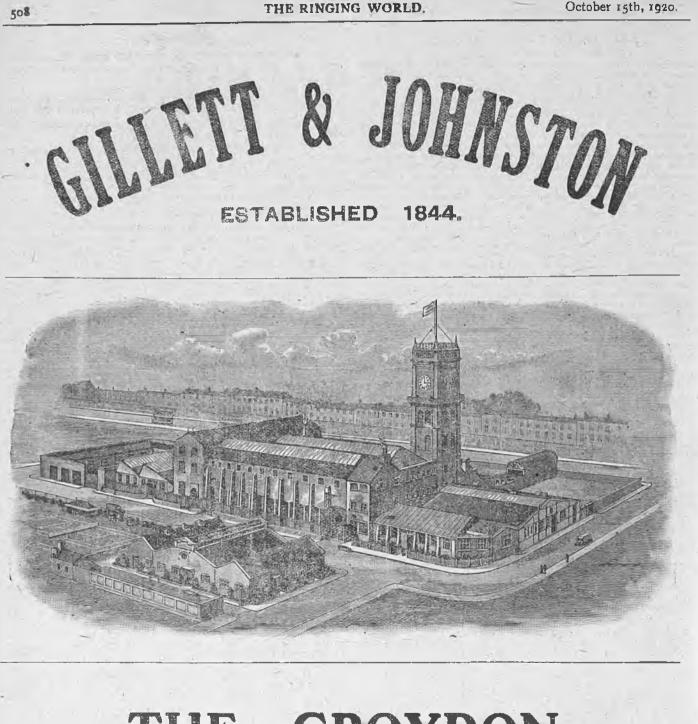

An excellent tea, provided by the local company, was served in the Schoolroom, upwards of 30 members and friends sitting down, presided over by the Rector.

Before proceeding with the meeting, Mrs. Groves proposed a hearly yote of thanks to the Rector for his services and his welcome to the Guild; to Mr. E. J. Dowler and the local company for having every-thing in readiness and entertaining the Guild to tea; to the organist. and the ladies who assisted at the tables .- This was seconded by MISS Warner, and carried.

The gentlemen then returned to the tower for further ringing whilst the business was transacted.—Three new members were elected, two life members and one ringing member.-It was decided to viz... hold the next meeting at Tipton in December, subject to the necessary permission being given permission being given The resignation of Miss S. Pigott as local secretary was received with much regret. Miss Salter, of Erdington, was elected to take her place, and the following committee were elected: Mrs. Groves, Miss S Pigott, Miss A. E. Foster and Mrs. Holbrook, the two former to serve on the general committee —Mrs. Walker proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Miss Pigott for the able manner in which she had carried out the duties of branch secretary since the formation as the Greit out the duties of branch secretary since the formation of the Guild, and expressed the hope that she would soon be quite restored to normal health again —This was seconded by Mrs. Groves, and carried unanimously. —Miss Pigott, in responding, expressed the pleasure she had always found in doing anything in connection with the Guild, and remarked, that although she was resigning as secretary, she slow hoped to take an active part in the branch, and offered to render any help possible at any time.—This brought a very happy meeting to a close

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

NOVEL FEATURE FOR ANNUAL REPORT.

A meeting of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association was held at Weston-super-Mare on September 18th, when about 30 members, were present, representing 12 towers. The bells (eight) were available dur-ing the afternoon, and touches in various methods were rung. Tea at Glass's Restaurant was followed by the business meeting, the Master (the Rev. C. C. Parker) presiding. Several new members were and it was decided to hold the next meeting at Bridgwater in elected. December.

The Secretary reported that about £60 had been received towards the ringers' war memorial, the net cost of which would be £85. At a committee meeting, held some time ago, it was suggested that a map of the diocese put in the annual report would be very useful for reforence, and Mr. Holmyard, of Midsomer Norton one of the mem-bers of the committee, undertook to produce one. He now hunded useful for bers of the committee, undertook to produce one. He now handed the Master the map on a photographic plate, which showed all the towers in the diocese, and gave the number of bells in each tower. It was handed round to the members present, and greatly appre-ciated. Mr. Holmyard stated that the map had been drawn by one of his scholars, Master Gunning, with the assistance of Mr. J. T. Dyke, the assistant master at the school, and that the expense so far incoursed he should be vary pleased to nev incurred he should be very pleased to pay. The Master voiced the feelings of the meeting, and moved a hearty

The master voiced the feelings of the meeting, and moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Holmyard for his kindness, and also to Mr. Dyke and Master Gunning, and this was carried with acclamation. Among the members present was Mr. T. G. Vincent who for 70 years has been a ringing member of Ditcheat tower. The bells there (six) are being recast and rehung in a new cage, and an effort is being made to add two trebles. As Ditcheat is a country Parish with very few wealthy people. Mr. Vincent made an carnest appeal to the member to hole them accomplicit the task that had in head. It is few weating people, Mr. Vincent index an enriced appear to the members to help them accomplish the task they had in hand. It is hoped the appeal will beer good fruit. This concluded the business, and a hearty rote of thanks to Preb. Norton Thompson for the use of the bells and to the Rev. W. Wi-liams for arranging the service brought the meeting to a close. A move was then made to the church for service, after which the bells were again made good use of.

DEATH OF A CREWE RINGER.

DEATH OF A CREWE RINGER. It is with regret that we have to record the death of Mr. Richard Langford, of S5, Rigg Street, Growe, after a long illness. He passed away on Sept. 26th, and was buried at Crewe Cemetery on Sept. 29th. The first part of the service was held at Christ Church. The Vicar (the Rev. W. Bidlake) conducted the service, and also officiated at the graveside. Beside the family mourners, there were present au the ringors from Christ Church and also ringers from Barthondey and Wrenbury, and members of the Pioneer Anglers' Club. The bells of Christ Church were rung half-muffled before and after the forweral the funeral.

The runeral. Deceased learned to ring at Whitchurch, Salop, and after going to Crewe, became a regular ringer at Christ Church up to the time of his illness. He had rung 47 peaks for the Chester Guild, and also several for the Salop Guild. He was well liked, and his place will be hard to fill,

Last May the ringers of Christ Church appealed to the Chester Guild on behalf of their old congrade. The Master (Mr. C, J. J. Cooke) started the fund with a handsome donation, and the members responded generously, the total amount received being £30 8s., and the whole amount was handed to Mr. Langford at various times.

The family of deceased and his fellow ringers at Crewe desire 10 thank all those who subscribed to the fund, and so helped to make the deceased's last hours more free from worry than they would otherwise have been.

'AMONG THE BELLS.'

The intimation that the late Rev. F. E. Robinson's book, 'Among the Bells,' is still to be obtained should result in the early sale of all the copies that remain. As these are comparatively few in number these who are not already in possession of the volume and desire to add this to their library of ringing literature should lose no time in securing the complete publication, while those who have some of the parts and desire to complete them should also do so at once.

As Canon Papillon tecently pointed out, a most interesting feature of the book is the large number of illustrations of churches with use details of the bells, but there is also another valuable side of the il-lustrations. While the churches will be always with us, the famous ringers with when the late Master of the Oxford Guild rang peals will not. Many, indee d, have already gone hence, and the photo-graphs of the celebritics of that day give a greatly added interest to the hook. the book.

Another point which makes it important that intending purchasers should secure their copy at once is that, the blocks from which the returns were reproduced having been commandeered for the sake of the copper during the war, the reprinting of the volume is out of the question.

VARIETY IN RINGING.

In some reflections upon the recent successful tour in Essex, our correspondent, a well-known ringer, makes a suggestion which should not only commend itself to those who contemplate future peal ringing tours of this kind, but should add to the interests of their expedition. Briefly, it is that at least one attempt should be made for a new method. For the majority of the men who took part in the Essex trip, peals in any of the four Surprise methods, which were included in the programme, are, what one may almost term, everyday occurrences. They are unquestionably the most intricate of the eight-bell methods that are now practised, but long and continual exercise in them makes them more or less an easy task, and although there is a keen desire in tours of this kind to score as often as possible, it would undoubtedly add a further spice of interest if something little less difficult, but much less familiar, were attempted. Nothing on eight bells more complicated than London Surprise has been evolved; but it does not follow, because peals in this method can be rung almost at will, that there are no fresh worlds to conquer. Our correspondent is a ringer who speaks with a wide experience, for he has explored, as far as most people, the field of six-bell ringing, and the eight-bell methods available are certainly not fewer or less interesting than those of Minor.

There is, too, a wider application of the suggestion which may be made. Hitherto the majority of bands who have reached the Surprise stage have been content to stop when they have put the three or four popular methods to their credit-indeed, it has been noteworthy that several good companies seen to have broken up once they have reached what has been the height of their ambition. We do not suggest that this has been always through failing interest, but there can be no doubt that nothing inspires a band to stick together like a united ambition to achieve peals in new methods. Just at present, of course, bands have got all they can do to recover themselves after the depletion of the war, and no one looks for more at the moment than a determined effort to re-establish ringing in the position it held in 1914. When that has been done, we shall hope to see enterprise characterising the work of the belfry; enterprise among those who have still the ladder to climb, by aspiring to methods of higher quality; enterprise among those who may be said to have reached the top of the tree by adding more variety to their repettoire. There have been some splendid instances of progress within the last year, which are indications of the revival which ringing is making, and there is every reason to be satisfied with the rate of 'reconstruction.' It is not, however, out of place to remind ringers that there should never be an end to their ambition, for the art is unlimited.

SALISBURY GUILD.

SPADE WORK IN ISOLATED TOWERS.

In pursuance of the policy outlined by the Master at the annual meeting, members of the Salisbury Guild have visited a number of sixbell towers during the summer season. Besides branch meetings held at Bore Regis, Lylchelt Minster (the tower that had twenty men at Bere Regis, Lylchett Minster (the tower that had twonty men eerving in the war) and elsewhere, special practices have been held at Sturminster Marshall, Bryanston (in Lord Portman's grounds on the hank of the Stour), Canford Magna (in Lord Wimborne's estate), and Wimborne St. Giles. St. Giles' church stands just outside the country residence of Lord Shaftesbury, the President of the Guild, the bells being a tunoful ring cast by Taylor to replace these de-stroyed by fire a few years ago. Among the touches rung here on Saturday, 11th September, was a well-struck 360 of Bob Minor by T. Bennett, Rev. F. Ll. Edwards, 11. Burling, A. Flowers, A. F. Martin Stewart, C. Goodenough (conductor). Also 360 Kent Treble Bob by A. Flowers, Major C. C. Hughes D'Aeth, Rev. F. Ll. Edwards, C. Forfitt, C. Goodenough (conductor), F. W. Townsend. In each of the tower yisited local ringers and others were put furoligh their first towers visited local ringers and others were put through their first plain course of Grandsire on the treble, and very good practice was obtained in the standard methods.

obtained in the standard methods. Difficulties of travelling constitute one of the greatest hindrances to the work of the Guild, especially in Dorset (Wimborne St. Giles is some seven miles from the nearest railway station), and the fact that members taking part in these gatherings came by road from places so far distant as Bournemouth, Bridgwater and Midsomer Norton, gives some idea of the enthusiasm shown in the cause of chance ripering. change ringing. On the last Saturday in September some twenty ringers met at

More, Wilts (4 miles from a station), where the fine ring of eight was kept going, on the eve of the harvest thanksgiving, for three or four hours, some very musical touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Bob Major being successfully brought round, while be-ginners were again initiated and young hands obtained useful exferience.

An extremely good performance, and one which demonstrates remarkable powers of mental concentration, is recorded elsewhere in the peal of Graudsire Triples tapped on handbells by Mr. Arthur T. Morris, at Harwich.

BELLS OF BELGUIM. PROPOSED ERECTION OF A BELFRY.

To the Editor. Dear Sir, - May I call attention to the newly-formed ' Ypres League,' of which the King has become patron-in-chief? Among the soveral objects of the League, one aim is to secure the erection of a worthy memorial to the 'glorious dead of the Ypres salient,' and at a recent meeting, it is reported that Lord Rawlinson supported a plan for ' the ordering, it is reported that Lord Rawmissin supported a just for ' the ordering of a belfy-lower on the battlefield with a peal of bells for special occasions.' It was suggested that a party of bell ringers could go out from England on some special annual day and ring a peal in honour of the dead. If this proposal is carried out— and it looks as if the scheme has been definitely launobed—a matter of appricharble interact is involved.

of considerable interest to ringers is involved. There has been for some years a committee of the Central Council to deal with the bells of Belgium. The enthusiasm of the prime ability of their ideas as to affording assistance in the restoration of the runed bells of Belgium. It has never been explained how this help could be given, nor where it could be amplied; and, above all, how a sufficient sum of money would be collected for such a purpose.

If the committee could be content with something much less ambi-tions, and if the Central Council could arrange to participate offi-cially in some way in this believ scheme of the Ypres League, here would be at least a practical object ready to hand. It is reported in the Press that the Church Army, which has collected a considerable sum for a battlefield memorial, has aiready approached the League with a proposal to defray the cost of the bells, and in this connection a sum of several thousand pounds is mentioned.—Yours very truly, Manor House, Bracondale, Norwich. 15th October, 1920. G. P. BURTON.

WEDGING OF WOODEN FRAMES.

Is it wise to have a wood bell frame wedged tight to the walls of a Is it wise to have a wood bell frame wedged light to the walls of a tower? This is the inquiry which is made by Mr. W. Bibby, of Frodsham, who would like to have an expert's view. We would refer him to the late Sir Arthur Heywood's 'Bell Towers and Bell Hang-ing,' in which it is stated: 'The driving of wedges between tower walls and frames is strip gently forbidden, and properly so, by archi-tects. . . By far the most prolific cause of injury to towers is thus wedging, which authorities cannot or at all events do not, stop.'

He thought their special thanks should be expressed to the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Inswich for attending their annual service that morning. The speaker added that they had to be extremely grateful to the clergy, and he referred to the mutual association between them and ringer, which could not be too fully recor-nised. He coupled with the toast the name of the cloquent preacher lies lud listened to earlier in the day (applanse).-The Rev. Francis L'Estrange Fawcett, who replied, said the clergy and church were indebted to the ringers, with their fine arms and splendid shoulders. Such an association as theirs was accomplishing splendid work for the church. He hoped their association would go on for ever. TWO NEW TREBLES AT GOSFORTH.

THE LATE LIEUT. FALCONER'S BEQUEST. On Sunday, Oct. 3rd, the two new bells bequentited to augment the old peal of eight at All Saints', Gosforth, to one of ten, by the late Lieut. R. W. Falconer, were dedicated by the Lord Bishop of Newcastle, and very impressive was the even only. Previous to this, his lordship unveiled a handsome marble tablet placed in the porch near the beffry door to the memory of the late donor, recording his gift to the beffry. This and the bells themselves will ever remind us of a modest, clean, vigorous life spent in the service of his God and of ms fellow-men, reminding us, too, of how we ought to live and what we have lost.

At the conclusion of the dedicatory prayer, the two trebles were raised in peal by two of Licut. Falconer's oldest ringing friends, and then the full peal of ten struck off to a course of Caters as the Bishop and clergy and wardons slowly returned to the chancel from the west end. This was rung in Lieut. Falconer's favourite method, Erin, and demonstrated the beauty of the two bells to perfection, everyone acknowledging that Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, had made an excellent 'splice.' The ringers were all old friends of the late donor, drawn from the Cathedral, St. Ignatius, Sunderland, Whitley Bay, and All Samts' belfries.

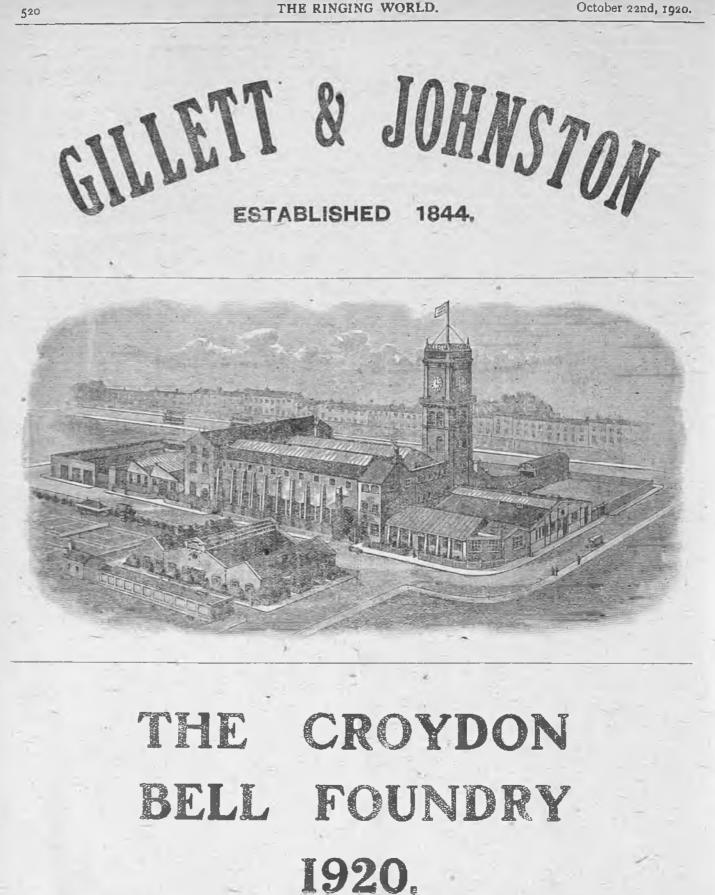

On the following Saturday the Vicar and wardens kindly threw the bells open to the Du-ham and Newcastle Association for a ringing day, and members turned up from Whitley Bay, North Shields, Newcastle, Gateshead, Chester-le-Street, Sunderland, Tanfield, Houghtonle-Spring, St. George's, Jesmond, etc. 'The ringing of Stedman, Grandsire and Erin Caters, Forward and Treble Bob Royal was kept up from 2.30 till 9 p.m., with a break for tea. This latter was of the ' high ' order, and was generously provided by Mr. J. W. Falconer, the father of the late donor, at the Masonic H-MI, West Avenue, for all, and a goodly company of 50 to 60 sat down to a thoroughly shjoyable meal,

The chair was taken by the President, Mr. C. L. Routledge, who was supported by the Vicar, the Rev. W. A. S. Kennedy (the brother, was supported by the Vicar, the fier, W. A. S. Keinedy (the brokker, by the way interesting to many old campaigners—of the famous padre 'Woodbine Willie'), Mr. J. W. Falconer, Messrs. Taylor and Lar-mour (churchwardens), the Rev. Professor Potter, of St. George's, the two curates of the parish, Messrs. John Bird, W. Story, A. Dias, E. Ferry, J. W. Parker, W. H. After ten, several courses of Oators were rung on handbells by Whitley and Cathedral ringers, and votes of thanks heartily tendered Falconer, the Vicar and wardens, and the ringers of All Saints'. to Mr. The Vicar, in roplying, gave a message of thanks from Dr. Wilde, the Bishop, who had told him how deeply he appreciated the accurate and impressive way the ringing part of the ceremony was carried out on Sunday, the 3rd inst.

Potter) was un-able to attend, Mr. J. Champion officiating for him at the mot-ing, with Mr. W. Jackson, of Wragley, as chairman.—A vote of sym-pathy was sent to Mr. C. D. Potter, with hopes for a speedy re-covery. About a dozen new members were elected, and a vote of thanks to the Vicar (the Rev. H. Brownrigg) for the use of the bells. also to the local band for having everything in readiness, was unan-nously accorded.—The next meeting will be held at Darfield. Particulars will annear later.

THE TOUR IN ESSEX.

SOME REFLECTIONS ON A SUCCESSFUL WEEK.

'Train leaves Liverpool Street at 2.34.' Such was the first direction on the programme sent to each member of the party, and in response the majority guthered at the barrier and shared in the pleasure of an exchange of greetings. Braintree was to be the headquarters for the week. Here we were joined by the remainder of the band, and by Mr. Howard, the Master of the Essex Association. Under his guidance we were soon settled at our 'disgings ' and ready to commence our efforts. The start was very encouraging, and, as it proved, gave the note to what was to follow, viz., a series of successes only sufficiently interrupted to revive wakefulness and determination to put the best into every attempt.

only sufficiently interview of revive watermines and thermatical to put the best into every attempt. As the peaks rung have been already published it will not be necessary to say more about them. But a lew general remarks may be made. And first about our conductor, Mr. William Pye. He already has a great reputation, such, perhaps, as makes it very difficult to be enhanced. But that is not our aim. It was a very interesting sight repeatedly to notice in action all that has made his name so well known. Nothing was left undone to ensure success; bells, ropes, bearings, and everything which usually needs attention, received it evidence when trips or 'bends ' happened. During all the peals he conducted he was only once at fault, as far as the writer is aware, and then, notiong it, he was able to save the situation. Forceful, inspiring and always in earnest, he is a great ringer.

Much of the pleasure of the tour was due to the excellent arrangements 'made by Mr. Howard, and to his attention to our wants at overy opportunity. We were able to see and enjoy much of the results of his long and hearty efforts on behalf of his association. He has been actively interested in the augmentation to eight of many of a band to have a week's ringing within the sphere of his labours. So much we gathered from a short speech he made in reply to a vote of thanks for his generous hospitality in providing dinner for us after the peaks on Monday.

Well is it for everyone when failure only acts as a stimulus. Our first failure was at Bocking on Sunday afternoon, where Superlative was attempted. Mine consecutive successes followed this, and then the needed stimulant was again administered at Great Bentley, much to the regret of all, and especially to our host whilst there, Mr. Nevard. He was keen to have 'Bristol ' added to the list of methods on the bells of his Pari-' Church in which he has such practical interest. The last attempt also proved a failure, Stedman Cinques at Chelmsford. After two hours' first-class tapping, indisposition in one of the band reached a point at which he was compelled to surrender. It is interesting to note that at the places of the first two failures, hospitality had been kindly provided for us, by Mr. L. Grow at Becking, and by Mr. Nevard at Great Bentley. This did not fail in either cnse.

In the list of peals it will be noticed that each of the well-known Surprise Methods received due attention. Wholly disclaiming any intention to be self-congratulatory it can be said that the results are great, imposing from some points of view, and indicate a recovery of skill somewhat lessened by compulsory inactivity through the war. All the same, if the writer may express with diffidence his private opinion, a repertoira of only four Surprise Methods where eight-bell towers alone are available, and for such a band, seems, under the conditions into which the Exercise is now coming, too small. Peals un any and all of the methods are now common events as compared with the number rung twenty years ago, and surely this frequency is a symptom of a demand, scarcely articulate as yet, for additional outlets for existing skill. Great as is the interest and pleasure of a week's fellowship with brother ringers in the successful pursuit of their common hobby, they would be considerably increased by the inclusion in the programme of even one attempt in a new method. It is not in the present occasion. It was enough to attempt to regain technique in the methods rung by a mixed band from different parts of the coun ry. Thus, was quite successful and meets the tour with read value.

Our personnel included several old friends; Mr. Shade as fresh and keen as ever, though occasionally showing signs of increasing years; Mr. James George, another evergreen, who joined us in mid-week, and was at once the centre of much interest; Mr. Nevard as outhusiastic as ever, and being an Essex man, ontertaining in local matters of interest. Messre, Coles, Fletcher, Lucas and Sanders, new in touring experience, yet proved themselves hardened practitioners The youngest member was Richard Gofton, one of the family of that name in the North, well known for its proficiency in the art. The youngest memoer was itlenand Gotton, one of the family of that name in the North, well known for its proficiency in the art. Though only screenteen years of ago he showed himself quile a master of method-ringing, and in every way brought credit to his training. Our tour this year leaves many very pleasant recollections. Not the least, perhaps the most valuable, is that of the brotherly goodwill which prevailed throughout. The great fellowship of mankind is essentially of the same nature ag the lesser fellowship found within itself. Does it need more than brotherly goodwill to make it pleasant and satisfying to every member? But every member must contribute.

WINTER'S WORK.

Some of the most valuable work done in the interests of change ringing is the spade work in towers in the country districts, and the associations have a great deal of scope in this direction. Many of them realise the importance of this phase of activity, and through the summer the Salisbury Guild has carried out a systematic campaign. In such a scattered area, where communications are comparatively poor, the task is no light one, but the efforts which have been made promise to bear good fruit. The coming months will not be suitable, perhaps, for similarly organised undertakings, but the winter is a period which can certainly be utilised with great advantage. With the coming of the long evenings we have the season when combined practices among neighbouring towers can be instituted, if they have not previously been established. These practices have, in some directions, a real value over ordinary meetings. In many respects the ringing at district meetings is of an uncertain kind, touches being 'put on' in haphazard fashion, but at properly organised combined practices the ringing can be regulated upon a systematic basis, and not only can one method be adhered to until it is mastered, but the individual ringers get more consistent practice.

We have constantly urged this method of seeking to advance change ringing, and in those districts where the suggestion has been adopted, the results have always been of a most gratifying kind. It is not necessary that any considerable number of towers should group themselves for the purpose; indeed, the uniting of three or four bands is probably the most advantageous, for larger numbers tend to make the practice 'crowded.' Ringers who find they are able to get only one or two touches in an evening would not be encouraged to make a habit of attending; and it is only by regularity that a ringer can get the full benefit of these combined meetings. We should like to see these practices set up all over the country. At present they are to be found only here and there; what is needed is that the officials of the various associations should take the matter up. Once a scheme was set up the association secretaries need be but little further troubled ; but it is the first move that is always the most difficult, and which local secretaries are often loath to take. If the officials were to make the first move to bring the towers together in small groups, we believe that a great step towards success would have been taken. We do not like to suggest putting more work on to secretaries-it is not always popular-but here is a direction in which there is really scope for useful service, which would soon show itself in the records of any association that takes the trouble to organise.

DEATH OF MR. O. L. TWIST.

It is with much regret that we have to record the death of Mr. It is with much regret that we have to record the death of Mr. Oliver L. Twist, who was a member of St. Saviour's Society Walthamstow, for about 20 years, and for the latter part of the time honorary secretary. He was also a member of the Cumberland Youths, Essex Association, Middlesex Association, and the London County Association, and was well known in ringing circles, being always ready to stand in Peals or fouches whenever required. His last outer well of Statingen Catars was at St. Mary's Walthamst last quarter-peal of Stedman Caters was at St. Mary's, Waltham-stow, on October 3rd, after evensong for harvest thanksgiving. He stow, on October Srd, anter evensong for narvest thanksgiving. He took to his bed the same night, and died the following Sunday (Oct. 10th), from septic pneumonia. He was interred at Queen's Road Cometery on Thursday, October 14th, and ringers attended from St. Saviour's and St. Mary's towers. The handbells were rung over the grave after the service, at which the Rev. H. E. Tilston, of St. Saviour's, Walthamstow, officiated. Wreaths were sent by the local running consisting. ringing societies.

In the evening the 'whole pull and stand 'was rung at St. Saviour's, followed by 720 Kent Treble Bob Minor, the bells being half-muffled; H. A. Edwards I. E. F. Pike 2, G. W. Cooper 3, C. A. Hughes 4. W. Steed 5. G. B. Lucas, setr. (conductor) 5. It was the intention to ring a muffled peal, but owing to travelling difficulties two of the hand could not get to the tower in time.

LLANDAFF RINGERS' OUTING.

The ringers of Llandaff Cathedral, accompanied by members from St. John's, Cardiff, Whitchurch, Penarth and Llanishan, with a sprinkling of the fair sex, had a trip into Somerset for their annual outing Arriving by boat at Weston-super-Mare, a char-a-bane was in waiting, which conveyed the party to Wells, where permission to ring on the grand peal of ten at the Cathedral had been obtained. After dinner, at the Globe Hotel, the journey was continued to Glastonbury and at the Globe Hotel, the journey was continued to Glastonbury and Street, a few touches being rung at each tower. The party then re-turned to Weston, where tea had been arranged at Brown's Restaur-ant. The boat reached Cardiff again about 10 p.m., and everyone agreed that a most endoyable day had been spent. In connection with the excursion, a pleasing incident occurred in the Cathedral belfry on Tuesday evening. Sept. 21st, when a small present was made to the organiser. Mr. S. Dawe. In a few well-chosen words Mr. J. W. Jones, hon. secretary, made the presentation, to which Mr. Dawe suitably vaniled replied

BELFRY GOSSIP.

It says something for the 'go ' of Southwark Cathedral's 50 ewt. tenor that a ringer of 9st. 6lbs. can ring it to a peal of Stedman Cinques.

The reference in our last issue to the tupping of a peal on handbells has raised the question: ' Of what use is tupping peals on handbells to the progress of change ringing?' Our readers' views may no doubt be diversified on this point, but no ano will question the skill of the performer or the amount of concentration necessary for the task. The peal of Grandsire recorded last week is followed by a peal of Kent Troble Bob this.

The bells at Churchill, Oxon, have just been relung, and the re-opening was performed by the Master of the Oxford Guild (the Rev. W. O. Jenkyn).

A meeting of the Oxford Guild at Cookham brought together a gathering of nearly 60 ringers from 18 towers. Cookham has a peal of six, with a frame for eight, and it is hoped ere long that the octave may be completed.

We wonder how many ringers can claim to have conducted peals on all numbers from five to twelve bolls. Mr. O. E. Borrett, vice-presi-dent of the Norwich and Inswich Association, has recently completed this performance by conducting a yeal of Doubles.

FINCHINGFIELD BELLS.

To the Editor. Sir,—The ancient ring of eight bells in our Parish Church is in very bad ringing order, and we propose having them rehung. The parishioners are doing their best to raise the necessary money, and £25 is already promised, but it is quite impossible to accomplish the task without help from outside the parish. I, therefore, venture to solve any accidence of the otherway big subary is often on the otherway the task without help from outside the parish 1, therefore, venture to ask your assistance by allowing this appeal to appear in the columns of your valuable paper. The appeal has the support of Mr. C. H. Howard, Master of the Essex Association, who has promised £10 to the fund. Any amount, however small, will be appreciated and aca-nowledged in 'The Ringing World.'-Yours faithfully, Finchingfield Vicarage, Essex. H. JORDAN.

NORTH NOTTS NONAGENARIAN. RINGER'S 90TH BIRTHDAY AT SHIREOAKS.

RINGER'S 90TH BIRTHDAY AT SHIREOANS. On Monday, October 11th, six members of the St. Luke's company, Shireoaks, and the hon.-secretary of the North Norts Association as-sembled at the tower to pay a tribute of honour and reneration to the oldest ringer of the association, William Hargreaves, who was born on October 11th, 1830, and has been a ringer at Shireoaks since the open-ing of the church in 1863, when a ring of five bells was installed and afterwards augmented to six in 1865. He is still ' doing his fittle bit.' Touches of Violet and Duke of York Minor were rung, and the bells fired in volleys at intervals to commemorate the event, the following taking part in the ringing : H. Mills, R. Knowles, H. Hall, T. Frizjohn, B. Hall and F. Hargreaves (conductor), H. Haigh (Worksop). After the bells had been lowered in paal, Mr. Haigh conveyed to Mr. Har-greaves the sincere congratulations of the Shireoaks colliery Company until he was 82 years of age, and he still cultivates his own garden: in fact, on his birthday he was to be seen wheeling home in his barrow a cwt. of newly-dug potatoes. His reminiscences of North Notts and old East Derbyshire six-bell ringers in the early 70's are very interesting. He recalls a walk to Beighton and back on a Sun-day, and meeting the Banks brothers, Jim Hayes, and Beighton's conductor, Jim Kitchen, who asked him if he could 'do aught,' and in-vited him to take his coat off and roll up his sheeves. He has rung about 40 six-bell methods, and conducted one 5,040 in seven Troble Bob Methods. In the prime of his career as a striker he was one of the best of ringers; 'a good one to follow, a bad one to beat.' Ite has always been keen and entivisatic in traching young ringers, and the writer's own record with him is ome of unbroken satisfaction. has always been keen and enthusiastic in teaching young ringers, and the writer's own record with him is one of unbroken satisfaction. Twenty-eight years ago they walked from Shireoaks to Risford and back 22 miles, and rang four 720's in Treble Bob Methods with the old gentleman as conductor. H. H. old gentleman as conductor.

KETTERING BAND'S RECOVERY.

No fewer than eleven members of the Kettering band served in the forces during the war, and three of them made the supreme sacrifice while one was permanently disabled. Despite these losses the band is again at full strength with 11 members who can ring all standard methods and Superlative, Cambridge and London Surprise Mafor as well. On October 16th, for morning service, 576 London Surprise Mafor as rung by E. Palmer 1, H. Peet 2, C. Chapman 3, J. E. Chapman 4, C. Bird 5, F. Sawfoot 6, D. J. Nichols (conductor) 7, A. V. Ims 8. For orening service, 448 Cambridge Surprise was rung by E. Palmer 1, H. Peet 2, O. Chapman 3, C. Bird 4, F. Sawfoot 5, R. Turner 6, A. Payne 7, D. J. CHESTER GUILD'S PRESIDENT DEAD.

By the death of Mr. Charles John Bowen Cooke, C.B.E., the Chester Diocesan Guild has lost its president, and the hand at Christ Church, Grewo, an honoured and esteemed member.

Mr. Gooke, who was chief mechanical engineer of the London and North Western Railway, had a breakdown in health in July, and on the advice of his doctor went to Falmouth to recuperate. He was the advice of his doctor went to reinforth to recuperate. He was making good progress towards recovery, when he had an attack of in-fluenza, and passed away from heart failure on Monday of last week. Mr. Cooke, who was Mayor of Grewe-last year, took a keen and practical interest in ringing, being, despite his multifarious outsure duties, very regular in his attendance at Sunday service ringing. had rung five peals, viz., three of Grandsire Triples and two of Grand sire Caters, one of which was rung during his Mayorally. The funeral took place at Falmouth on Friday last.

THE GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL WAR MEMORIAL. BELLS FOR BERKELEY ASSURED.

At a meeting of the Wotton Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, held at Berkeley, most of the towers of the district were represented, and some splendid practice took place during the after-noon aud evening. The Vicar (the Rev. H. C. Armour) conducted the ringers' service, and afterwards entertained the party to tea at the Vicarage,

At the husiness meeting, three new members were elected. It was decided to visit Coaley on October 30th.

Several matters were discussed, including the proposal to place two memorial bells at Berkeley, which will make a fine peal of ten, with a tenor 24 cwt.—The Vicar reported that the parish was going to try its best to get the money to put the bells in the tower, as it was felt it would be a great honour to have the memorial of the Gloucester and Bristol Association of bell ringers at Berkeley .-- A hearly vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar for his kindness. Since the above meeting au important announcement has been made by the Vicar of Berkeley regarding the bells. At a meeting of the local band, held at the Vicarage, he caused quite a pleasant surprise by stating that two very kind people had come forward and promised the money required by the parish.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION. ROSSENDALE BRANCH.

The monthly branch meeting was held at St. Mary's, Bury, on Salurday last, when the members, after enjoying two hours' ringing Saturday last, when the members, after enjoying two hours ringhts in the afternoon, were invited to the Rectory, where they were enter-tained by the Rector and Mrs. Hill to a substantial tea. Lafer they returned to the belfry, where the business meeting was held, and Mr. Banks (of Hehnshore) moved that the best thanks of the meeting he given to the Rector and Mrs. Hill for providing tea. After the meeting the bells were wept going till 9 p.m. in various methods. Members were present from Helmshore, Rawtenstall, Newchurch, Ramsbottom, and the local band, it being one of the best meetings held in the district for a considerable time.

BOLTON BRANCH.

There was a well attended meeting of the Bolton Branch at Walkden on Saturday last. This tower seems to be a special favourite in the Branch, as the meetings held there always seem the best attended. The following towers were represented: Belton Parish, Deane, Hindley, Worsley, Pendlebury, and a number of visitors, with the local band.—Mr. Thomas Marsh, of Hindley, was cleeted a mem-ber of the association, and Deane, Bolton, was selected as the place of the result. the next meeting.

MIDLAND COUNTIES RINGERS' WEDDING.

MIDLAND COUNTIES RINGERS' WEDDING. On Wednesday, October 20th, at St. Peter's Church, Higham-on-the-Hill, the wedding took place of Mr. C. R. Clifford, of St. Margaret's Society, Stoke Golding, and Miss Ida Rowley, of St. Peter's Society. Higham-on-the-Hill, the Rector (the Rev. K. M. Pitt) officiating. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. C. Rowley, and the brides-maids were Miss Alige Rowley and Miss Hettie Jordan, sister and friend of the bride, while Mr. B. Olifford, brother of the bridesroom, officiated as best man. The Rector gave an appropriate address, in which he expressed the thanks of the parislioners to the bride who along with her brother, took up change ringing during the war to fill up the place of these who had answered the call to arms, and great credit was due to them for the progress they have made. The bridegroom commenced ringing with the St. Margaret's Society on its formation in 1909.

on its formation in 1909.

The happy couple left the church to the tune of Stedman Doubles by the combined societies, and several six scores of Grandsire, Plain Bob and Canterbury were also rung during the afternoon. In the evening the ringers and friends were entertained at the residence of the bride, and a very enjoyable time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford have the best wishes of the combined societies for their success and happiness in the future.

THE LADIES' GUILD. A NEW PRESIDENT.

A NEW PRESIDENT. The annual general meeting of the Ladies' Guild was held at Claphan Park, on Saturday, October 16th. The attendance was very poor owing probably to prohibitive railway fares. The members were, welcomed at the towar by the Vicar (the Rev. G. H. Enser), who took part in one of the touches rung during the day, the methods including Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Bob Major. A service was held, at which the Vicar gave a very helpful address.— Tea was served at the Vicarage, when the members and their friends were the guests of the Rev. G. H. and Mrs. Ensor.—Before the business meeting the Vicar general the Guild and also said he housed that meeting, the Vicar welcomed the Guild, and also said he hoped that the ladies now being instructed at his tower would be able to join the Guild when the Guild next visited Clapham.

At the business meeting, the chair was taken by Mrs. F. I. Hairs, of Clapham. The statement of accounts showed a balance in hand of £13 18s. 6in -The Secretary (Miss F. K. Parker) stated that she had been anable to issue reports, as the funds were rather low at the beginning of the year, but she hoped to publish a report in the near future.

Mrs. Hairs announced that the esteemed President of the Guild Miss Alice White, had tendered her resignation on account of her marriage. -The resignation was received with much regret by the members Miss White had been president since the Guild's formation in 1912. The Secretary suggested that in future the President for the year should be chosen from the district in which the next annual meeting would be held, so that each district would in turn have one of its members as President.—The suggestion was unanimously agreed to, and as Birmingham or its vicinity had then selected as the place for the next annual meeting, it was proposed that Miss Satah Pigott, who had recently resigned the secretaryship of the Midland District, should he President for the ensning year. - This was carried unanimously,

Miss Parker was re-elected hon, secretary and treasurer

Various minor matters were discussed, and these will appear in full in the next Guiki report.

After the meeting some of the members returned to the tower, whilst others took part in touches on handbells.

Various touches of Minor were rung with the bells half-muffled, before a short service which was held in the church, and conducted by the Rev. Canon Back (Parsident of the Guild). Curven Back and the Reeder of Allesley the (President of the Guild). Canon Back and the Rector of Allesley, the Rev. A. D. The question of raising the annual subscription from Is. to Is. 6d. was discussed, and ultimately agreed to -- A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector for his address at the service, and also to the ladies for providing an excellent tea.—A further visit to the tower was made, and touches in various methods were rung.

DEATH OF MR. G. T. CLAYTON.

We regret to record the death of Mr. George T. Clayton, of Wal-thamstow, who passed away on October 3th, after an illness of several months. The deceased took up ringing late in life, and did not, there-fore, advance very far in the practice of the art, but he was keenly intervended in its advance. interested in it, and spent a great deal of time in theoretical studies. He approached Stedman from a more or less unorthodox standpoint, and put forward some original ideas upon the method, upon which he constructed a number of variations. Ho contributed a number of articles to this journal. In practice, Mr. Clayton was more at home on is bells than on higher numbers, and at Leytonstone rang the treble to more than one 720 of Bob Minor. He, however, was a member of the St. Mary's, Walthamstow, Society, and rang regularly at that tower. He belonged to the College Youths and the Middlesex and Essex County Associations.

The bells at St. Mary's Church were "ing half-muffled, after even-song, on October 17th, and a half-mubred peal was rung at St. Saviour's, Walthamstow, on October 19.

A number of visiting ringers were present, but the local band were re-sponsible for the first (ouch. For several years before the restoration the bells had remained silent, but their mellowness delighted the parishioners when once more their voices were heard from the steeple. Among those present were the Rev. A. T. Breston (New Mills), non-secretary of the Church Diocesan Guild: Mr. H. Shuker (secretary, Lancashire Association), Mr. V. Heap, Mr. B. Thorpe, Mr. J. BLIND RINGER'S DEATH.

BLIND RINGER'S DEATH. As time rolls on, one by one, the good old faces leave us, and we now record the passing away, at the age of 69, of Ruchard Phillips, a native of Devizes, and best known in the neighbourhood as 'Dick.' The deceased, who was blind, was a ringer for more than 50 years, and ag a tenor ringer he excelled. He had rung the tenor to peals of Grandsire and Stedman. On one occasion, at St. John's, on May 16th, 1908, he was complimented at the close of the peal by the Rev. F. E. Robinson, who rang the 7th; and the fact is alluded to in his work, 'Among the Bells ' (page 616), in these words: 'The tenor was rung excellently by a blind man.' So recently as July 2nd, 1914-at the age of 63-ine rang the 16owt, tenor to a peal at Bishop's Cannings (in which the writer of this notice took part), and he walked the distances from and to Devizes.

The first portion of the funeral service was held in St. John's Church, when some of his brother ringers officiated as bearers, and several wreaths were sent from the surrounding towers. W. L.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

THE SUGGESTED AMALGAMATION WITH CLEVELAND. A quarterly meeting of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire As-sociation was held at Northallerton on October 9th. Over 30 ringers were present, the towers of Scarborough, Pickering, Helmsley, Thorn-aby, Middlesborough and Saltburn being well represented. During the afternoon a Washest machine was held in the action of the Northallerton. the afternoon a business meeting was held in the vestry of the church, the chair being taken by the Rev. E. Drage, vice-president.

the chair being taken by the Rev. E. Drage, vice-president. The suggested affiliation of the Yorkshire Association and the Cleve-land Association was again discussed. Many of the ringers in the Cleveland district feel that so long as there are two associations cover-ing one area the work of one or the other is bound to suffer. A resolution was passed asking the officials of the two associations to meet and discuss the possibility of the suggested amalgamation. A vote of thinks was passed to the Rev. S. M. Thompson for placing the hells at the disposal of the visitors, and to Mr. Barnet, secretary of the local band, for his efforts towards making the visit to Northal-lerton a pleasure and a success.

BELLS, CARILLONS. CLOCKS.

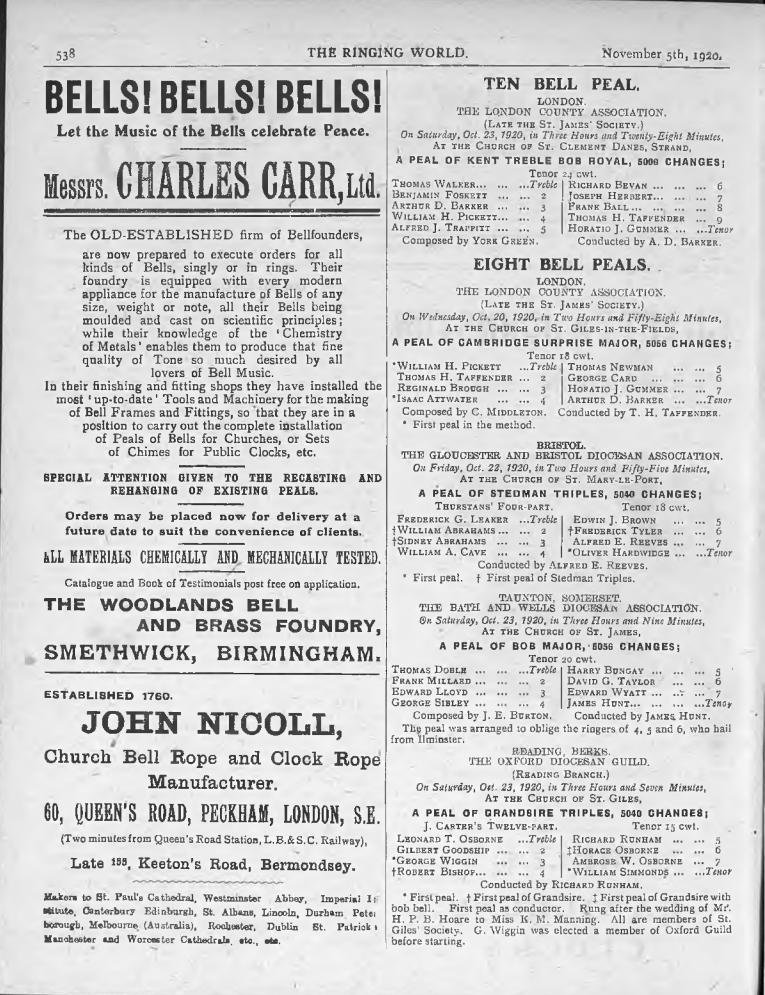

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

Price 2d.

A subject of very considerable importance, as well as of interest, to ringers, is raised by a correspondent's inquiry with regard to the wedging of wooden bell frames. It arose out of a previous question in relation to the same matter, and in order that our readers shall have the most authentic opinion, we have submitted the enquiry to one of the best-known experts and give his reply. We direct special attention to what he says, because there are probably hundreds of towers up and down the country where the pernicious habit prevails of wedging a loose frame to the walls of the tower.

Ringers are, after all, the actual custodians of the bells, and it should be realised that the care does not end with the good 'go' of the bells themselves. The tower, as well as the frame, should be their responsibility, and it is gratifying to know that in these more enlightened days ringers generally stand fast for the calling in of an expert bellhanger when defects begin to reveal themselves in the way the bells respond to the rope. But there are many cases, such as that which has led to the present inquiry, in which in days past the village carpenter, or some similarly inexperienced person, has been called in, and his handiwork is beginning to show itself to-day. The danger that arises from wedging is that the thrust of the bells is conveyed to the walls in the form of hammer blows, which must eventually have the effect of weakening the tower. The sooner this is realised in the case of all towers where there are wedges in existence, the better it will be, for attention now and the application of the proper remedy will be the cheapest method in the long run.

It does not follow, by any means, that every loose frame, or one that is tightened up by being wedged to the walls, need be scrapped. By means of good and careful workmanship, many old wood frames could be made thoroughly good and sound structures, without danger to the fabric of the tower. Indeed, there are even advantages in utilising the old frames, for, when this is possible, the timber is so thoroughly settled down that no further shrinkage is likely to take place after it has been tightened up. But it is not a job for the local blacksmith or carpenter. There is nothing to which the old saw of 'a stitch in time' can be more aptly applied than to the restoration of bells. Church authorities are too prone to consider that bells are things which require little or no attention, and there are numerous instances where the ringers have to provide even the necessary grease out of their own funds. It should be the aim of every tower band to bring home to the authorities, where the responsibilities are not already realised, the importance of maintaining the bells in good condition, if only for the fact that the longer they are neglected the more expensive will be the cost of restoratiou.

THE MIDDLESEX ASSOCIATION. SUCCESSFUL MID-WEEKLY GATHERING.

A mid-week meeting at a six-bell tower was held on Tuesday, Oct. 19th, at St. Ann's, Stamford Hill, quite a large gathering of ringors being present, the attendance numbering just over 30. For about two hours the bells were kept going in short touches, so that everybedy had an opportunity to ring, amongst the methods, up being Grand-sire and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob. and Cambridge Surprise Minor.

and Cambridge Surprise Minor. At a short business meeting held in the tower, a vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar (the Rev. H. de G. Rayner) for the use of the bells, and to Mr. T. C. Ringrose for the welcome given to the society It is to be hoped that as a result of this meeting the local band will be encouraged to further improve themselves in change ringing. The Hon. Secretary (Mr. C. T. Coles) stated that he was very sorry to have to report that since the last meeting they had lost, by death, two of their members, both of Walthamstow: Mr. George T. Clayton, of the St. Mary's Society, who died on October 8th, and Mr. Oliver L. Twist, of the St. Saviour's Society, who died on October 10th. Mr. Clayton was a few years ago the author of some interesting articles on Stedman Variations. He had been ill for some time, which had pre-vented him doing any sort of ringing. Mr. Twist had been hon. sectorary to the St. Saviour's Society, and had died suddenly from pneumonia. Only on the Sunday previous to his death he had rung two quarter peals at St. Saviour's and St. Mary's Churches.—A sincere vote of condolence was passed to the relatives of the deceased memvote of condolence was passed to the relatives of the deceased members by all present standing in silence for a few moments.

KETTERING RINGER'S DEATH.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Wm. Horden, of Kettering, who for many years was leader of the local band, and was much respected by a large circle of Northants ringers. Sixty-two years of age, Wr. Horden carried ou business as a watchmaker and jeweller. For 0 years of wears of the sector o of Stedman Triples and one each on the treble of Superlative and London Surprise, but he was always regular in attendance for service ringing. At the funeral four ringers acted as bearers (Messrs, D. J. Nicols F. Sawfoot, A. V. Inns and A. E. Payna). The service was choral, and at the graveside a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells by: A. V. Inns 1-2, J. E. Chapman 3-4, D. J. Niobols 5-6, C. Chapman 7-8, F. Sawfoot 9-10. In the evening an attempt was made for a peal of Stedman Triples on tower bells, but this was un-The 'whole pull and stand 'was rung 62 times to denote the deceased's age. Mr. Horden will be sadly missed by all who had enjoyed his friendship.

THE MAKING OF A CONDUCTOR. To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Having following the correspondence appearing on this subject, and knowing the importance of bands being guided to do the best thing and so give every member a fair chance, it appears to me that the one best thing to do is to have some practical sugges-To that end I wish to explain the system adopted at Halesowen tions. (an eight-bell tower), and started by our late Ringing Master Mr. Raybould. We had at that time several young conductors, and a Raybould. We had at that time several young conductors, and a weekly rota for four conductors for the quarter was made out. The weekly ringing comprised Stunday services, 10 a.m. and 5.45 p.m.: weekly practice, $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours; occasional ringing for festivals, weddings, etc. This rota was hung in the helfry, and the ringer whose name appeared for the week had the right to conduct whatever came along. Of course, difficulties arcse, sickness, holidays, etc., but this system has been followed for nearly 20 years, and has been quite successful and satisfactory to the band. The four conductors that started have successfully conducted peaks of Stedman Triples and other methods, and at present, we have five conductors on our toks out of a band of and at present we have five conductors on our rota out of a band or ten.

I give our system, in the hope that it may help and encourage leaders or Ringing Masters, and also young aspirants, and ringing bands to try it. I feel sure, with an enthusiastic leader and a loyal band success will come. G. CORKIN. Halesowen.

MORETON CORBET.—The Salon Guild.—On Sunday, August 29th, an altempt was made for a peal of Minor but the bells were allowed to run round after four 720's had been rung, owing to one of the band feeling ill. The four 720's were one 720 Oxford Treble Bob, two 720's Kent Treble Bob and one 720 Grandsire Minor (2,880 changes). Longest length of Minor on the bells: E. V. Rodenhurst I, W. D. Wase 2, O. R. 'Name ' peals are not a recent innovation, for on Nov. 3rd, 1796, ten Williams, including, we believe, William Shipway, rang a peal at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields

Mr. John Smith, ringer and verger at St. Martin's Church, Tipton died on Tuesday of last week, after a short illness. He was first secretary of the Worcestershire Association (1885 to 1904), and a member of the Dudley Guild and the Society for the Archdeaconry of Staffs.

The two last-named associations have also sustained a loss by the recent death of Mr. Albert Little, of St. Peter's, Wolverhampton, Society

The ringer of the 9th in the peal at Southwark Cathedral, published last week, was Charles W. R. Grimwood, not R. S. Grimwood, as nminfed.

The anniversary of the first double-handed handbell peal fell on the 30th October. On that day in 1811 a peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major was rung at Sheffield. Many of our readers will remember that a centenary peal was rung in 1911

THE WEDGING OF BELL FRAMES. DANGER TO TOWER WALLS

The question replied to in our issue of Oct. 22nd, as to the ad-visability of wedging losse bell frames to the tower walls, has prompted the further inquiry, ' When a peal of bells are to be relung in the old frame which has been wedged to the walls of the tower and become losse, is it wise to take out the wedges and make the tame good by other methods, or to insert new thin wedges, between the old wedges and the walls?"

This matter is one of great importance, and we append the opinion of one of the leading practical experts of this country, to whom the question was submitted He writes :-

If the bell frame has been wedged to the walls of the tower, it is If the bell frame has been weaked to the waits of the lower, it is evident that this was necessary on account of the loose or weak condi-liou of the framework. To merely make the wedges (which are said to have become loose) fast, would, in the great majority of cases, be a dangerous thing to do, as it would be throwing the whole strain of the bells direct, upon the tower walls. A property constructed bell frame. whether in wood or metal, is so braced that it is rigid in itself. It al-sorbs the strains, and by the time they are conducted to the foundation members, they are evenly distributed, and reduced to a minimum, A weak frame tied to the walls at the top timbers simply acts us a battering ram. Many old timber frames can be satisfactorily restored with the bolts and angle cleats. In the majority of old bell frames the diagonal fraces between the top and bottom timbers have their tenons merely pinned, and there are no vertical tie bolts litted to tighten up the joints. After the natural shrinkage of the timbers the joints become loose, and the framework develops lateral movement. If the timber is sound, of proper proportions, and supported by good sound floor beams, vertical the bolts can be fitted by boring through the whole depth of the frame (top timbers, braces and bottoms). These bolts are usually fitted with a nut and plate at each end for conveni-ence in insertion. A bolt should be inserted through every diagonal brace, and when all are tightly screwed up, the framework is nate rigid and can be kept so. If, however, the framework is weak, and poor in construction, it is most inadvisable to try and patch it up. Any bell frame, however strengthened, which has to depend upon wedging to the walls, ought to be scrapped. A careful examination should, however, be made by an expert before this could be decided upon.'

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION. A meeting of the N.E. Division was held at Tollesbury on Saturday, October 23rd. The Vicar took a rope in the rinEing, conducted the service, and gave an address, in the course of which he referred to the history of the bells. Two are by Miles Gray, dated 1604 and 1661; one by T. Gardner, of Sudbury, 1728; another is by T. Mears, 1794, while the 2nd is dated 1872, and treble 1796, recast 1904. An entry in the register states that bells were hung in the tower and oak beams placed there on November 26th, 1633. These beams still remain. Tea was partaken of in the Parish Hall, and at the business meeting Mr. W. J. Nevard, District Master, presided, supported by the Vicar (the Rev. W. Carter), and Mr. H. T. Pye, district secretary. The following new members were elected: Mr. H. B. Gardner, Goldhanger, hon, ringing member; Messra, Arthur Appleton and S. J. White, G Clarke and F. Clarke, Wormingford; J. R. Girling and A. C. Girling, Thorington; F. Garraq and T. Frost, Tollesbury, ringing mem-bers and probationers.—A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Rev. W. Carter for his able address, for arranging and superintending the tea, and for the use of the bells and Parish Hall, also to the organist and those assisting at tea.

BELL ROPES, MUFFLES, &c. The place of next mercing was left in the hands of the secretary to arrange.—The following towers were represented: Great Bentley, Great Bromley, Colobester, Chelmsford, Goldhanger, Little Horkesley, Mandon, Great Tetham, Tollesbury and Rettendon.

THE LATE MR. BOWEN COOKE. CLOSE OF A LIFE OF INTENSE ACTIVITY

As briefly recorded last week, the Exercise has to mourn the death of one of its honoured members in Mr. Charles Bowen Cooke, of Crewe, president of the Chester Diocesan Guild. Owing to work of national importance during the war-additional to the great responsi-bility of his position as chief mechanical engineer of the L. and N.W. Railway Company-Mr. Cooke recently developed heart trouble. His Icaliway Company-AP. Cooks recently developer near tradict. This ductor prescribed a complete rest, and accordingly he withdrew to his holiday home in Cornwall. From reports received he seems never to have gained any appreciable recovery, and, unfortunately, when in-fluenza supervened, it proved too great a strain upon the enfeebled heart. The end came on the 18th inst., Mr. Cooke being 61 years of age.

Mr. Cooke was a 'son of the Manse,' and hecame interested in bells in his earliest years in his father's parish. He brought his interest to Crewe when he moved there to serve an apprenticeship in the engine shops. It was then that he mot the late Mr. R. T. Holding, and (hrough him gained his knowledge of practical change ringing. Ho occupied the position of chairman of the Crewo Branch of the Chester acculated the position of chairman of the Crewe Branch of the Crester Guild, and in 1914 he successed the late Archdeacon Barber as Master of the Guild. In this expacity he proved a powerfully inspiring and uniting force. Always accessible, he won the confidence and respect of the members, and increasingly so as the Years passed. In one way or another he was in the habit of comparing his position as being under the activities of thousands of men with his position as being under the direction of a conductor when ringing, and would then enforce the necessity of a guiding authority in social matters generally, and of prompt surrendor to it if progress was to be made and success achieved Ho rang five peals-his last, Grandsire Caters, during his Mayoralty in 1919. A real gentleman, an attractive personality and a safe guide his death is a keen loss to the Guild and a cause of deep sorrow to every member. Conscious of that loss we are the better able to appre-ciate the greater loss sustained by his wife and family, and, in sin-cerity, to sympathise with them. One married daughter sailed for the Malay States only a few days prior to her father's death, anticipating he was well on the road to recovery. ticat

Educated at Cheltenham, King's College, and on the Continent, Mr. Cooke served an apprenticeship in the Crowe shops, of which he was subsequently to become the chief. After occupying various $post_s$ of importance, he was appointed chief mechanical engineer in 1909, and was responsible for the design of some of those wonderful engines, which have maintained the L.N.W.R. in the forefront of railways in this country. Mr. Cooke was a member of the Institution of Civil Engineers and of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, and apart from his professional position, fulfilled an important part in the social life of Crewe, where he devoted himself to the welfare of the townspeople, whose prosperity is so much dependent upon the railway Mr. Cooke was a member of the Town Council and Mayor in 1917-18 The vas also a borough and county magistrate; a member of the Cheshiro County Council representing the South Ward of Crewe, president of Crewe Cottage Hospital; president of the Crewe Men's Brotherhood; president of the Crewe Mechanics' Institution and Social Club; president of the Crewe Alexandra Athletic Club, and officially connected with other local organisations. Mr. Bowen Cooke led a strength of the Ward, when the greater part of the Crewe engineering shops were utilised for the manufacture of munitions. In June. 1916, he was gazetted a major in the Engineer and Railway Stall Corps. At the end of 1917 he went on a mission to America, and several times visited France in connection with railway engineering matters. The served on several committees appointed by the Government, and it was conferring honour where honour was due when, in January, 1918, he was made a Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

From this brief summary, it will be seen what an intensely active life Mr. Cooke led, and yet, as far as his dules permitted, he was present regularly Sunday by Sunday to lake his part in ringing for service at Christ Church.

The funeral took place at Falmouth, and a memorial service was held at Crewe.

Both before and after the memorial service, the bells at the above church were rung muffled by the Crewe ringers, all of them being L and N.W. Railway employees.

He took part in 23 peals, his first heing rung at Harrow-onthe-Hill in 1899, and his last (a peak of Stedman Triples by the local band) on July 5th, 1919, rung in commemoration of the signing of peace at St. Mary's Bletchley. He had held the position of sexion at St. Mary's for a great number of years, and was always a willing worker in any other branch of Church work. A very successful meeting of the Hunts District of the Ely and St. Edmundshury Diocesan Association was held at Huntingdon on Oct. 16th, when the three towers of St. Mary's (8) and All Saints' (6), Huntingdon, and Godmanchester (8) were open for ringing, and in them various touches were rung during the afternoon and evening. About 30 ringers were present from Huntingdon, St. Neots, Great Staughton, Chatteris, Everton, Long Stanton, Newmarket, Melbourn, Cambridge Town, Cambridge University, Peterborough, and one from far-off Grantham. There were three lady ringers present. A service was held at St. Mary's Church, conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. Noil Smith, who gave an excellent address.

BROCKLEY'S SILENT BELLS.

A correspondent writing to the 'Kentish Mercury 'last week says: It was with surprise that I heard that St. Peter's Church, Brockley, It was with surprise that I heard that St. Peter's Critter, Brockley, possessed a complete peal of hells, which have never been rung owing to local opposition. Possibly this information will be news to a large number of your present readers in the neighbourhood. It would be interesting to know whether these bells still exist, and, if so, whether the prejudice of thirty years are persists to-day, as, otherwise, there are surely many, like myself, who would delight in hearing the peal at with times main an ensuing continue of the peal at suitable times and on special occasions."

We are informed that a parishioner of St. Peter's, the late Mr. T. H. Fry, who learned to ring at St. John's Church, Lewisham Road, a church in close proximity to St. Peter's, offered to defray the cost of a ring of eight bells, but encountered a very large amount of opposition on the part of residents, who presented a petition to the Feelesiastical authorities. This was heard at Southwark, and to the great regret of ringers and sympathisers, was upheld, GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL WAR MEMORIAL.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,—Can I appeal through your columns for support in our object of adding two bells to the present ring of sight, at Berkeley Parish Church, Gloucester, as a memorial to our fallen members? As indicated below we have made a wonderful collection notwithstanding the fact that only about 30 per cent. of the collecting cards have been returned. I should like to appeal to all those who have cards to get returned. I should have to appeal to all those who have cards to get them filled in as quickly as possible, and I am sure that the association would be extremely grateful for assistance, large or small, from lif-members, even though they reside far from us. Any donations would be acknowledged through the post and in these columns from time to time.—Yours faithfully, EDGAR GUISE, 39, Tankards Close, Hon: Secretary, St. Michael's, Bristol.

Williams (Ringing Master), the Rev. E. B. Guy Landon, several items of interest were discussed.—A very hearty vote of thanks (proposed by the Rev. E. B. James) was accorded the Rector for the use of the hells, for taking the service, and for allowing the use of the Parish Hall for tea.—The Rector, in reply, said that it gave him great plea-eure to be with the Guild members, and he was pleased to hear the bells being rung. As an hon, member he wished to forward the in-terest of the Guild, and hoped they would soon meet at Alverstoke again. THE COLLEGE YOUTHS.

To-morrow the Aneient Society of College Youths will celebrate its 283rd anniversary. In the Exercise its record is unique, and can be exceeded among societies outside ringing circles by only very few—such, perhaps, as some of the ancient Guilds of the city. Among ringers the College Youths occupies a place of special distinction, whether viewed from the point of its long and unbroken career of nearly three centuries, its great performances throughout the annals of change ringing, or its pre-eminent position in the Exercise to-day, when, surrounded by comparatively young and virile societies, it maintains its place in the forefront of ringing organisations

From the very beginning the College Youths have embraced many, if not most, of the men distinguished in the art; its membership has spread to the four corners of the kingdom and beyond, and the Exercise to-day owes a great deal to the Ancient Society and those who have figured upon its roll. This is not flattery, it is simple fact. The history of the society is very largely the history of change ringing. Thirty years before Fabian Stedman published his first book on campanology, the Youths, who met on College Hill, in the City of London, had laid the foundations of this great society. That was in 1637, and there has been no advance in the practice of the art since that day which has not found the College Youths abreast of it. Think of the progress of method ringing from the days of those first Youths-when, at best, the changes consisted of moving only two bells at a time-to the ringing of complicated things like London Major or Cambridge Maximus. The College Youths have been in the van of it all. In the progress of time they have established many great records, and if these have afterwards been surpassed it has often been the efforts of the College Youths which have fired the ambition of others to excel the performances of the Ancient Society.

One of the great features of the Society's long career has been the way in which it has maintained the standard of twelve-bell ringing. Its members, nearly two hundred years ago, rang the first peal of Grandsire Cinques, and, later, the first peals of Treble Bob Maximus and Stedman Cinques, and the prestige which they gained by those early performances has never been lost. The tradition of the past has been worthily upheld, and to-day the Society retains the veneration and respect of thousands of ringers, not all of them members, who look upon it as embodying much of the history and the practice of change ringing in the days when the art was little known and less practised, and as still the premier ringing society of the world.

The augmentation of Rochester Cathedral bells as a war memorial is proceeding. Two new trebles are being presented by the Dean of Rochester, Mrs. Storrs and family in memory of a son who died on active service. Two other bells are being given by Alderman Willis, active service. Two other bells are being given by Alderman Willis, and one by the ringers of the Cathedral. At Rotherham, from the two towers of which 17 members served during the war in H.M. Forces, an exservice peal has been rung, one lady, Miss Winifred Hague, of the V.A.D., taking part. Fresh examples of enterprise among ringing companies are to be found this week in the peal of Erin by the Bushey baud-ble first in the method by all and by the association-and the peal of St. Clement's Minor at Woodston-a similar double first. It is proposed to add two new trobles to make a peal of ten at Ket-tering. The scheme has heen set on foot by the offee of each bell we

THE LATE MR. J. SMITH, TIPTON.

Mr. John Smith, purish clerk, verger, and towerkeeper, of St. Martin's, Tipton, Staffs, to whose death we briefly referred last week, was a native of Netherton, where he began ringing at an early age. MEMORIAL BELLS AT SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD OPENED WITH A WEEK'S RINGING.

On Sunday, October 24th, memorials to the fallen of Sulton-in-Ashfield, Notts, were dedicated at St. Mary's Church by the Lord Bishop of Southwell. The memorials consist of two beautiful marble tablets affixed to the west wall of the clurch on either side of the tower recording the names of the 213 men of the parish who haid down their live in the memory are half of the clurch on a holic tower recording the names of the 213 men of the parsh who hald down their lives in the great war; an oak helfs? screen and three new bells, added to the old three, and making a grand peal of six with a tenor of 15 cwt. After the screen and tablets had been dedicated the 'Last Post' was sounded by two buglers. This was followed by silent prayer, and then came the dedication of the bells, followed by a few rounds. The impressive service concluded with a touching sermon preached by the Bishop on the words of St. John xiii. 13, and fol-lowing unress. After the conclusion of the bells, followed by a few preached by the Bishop on the words of St. John xin. 15, and fol-lowing verses. After the conclusion of the service, the bells were sent on their mission to Kent Treble Boh by J. Flint 1, H. Greaves 2, T. Bettison 3, J. H. 1 rothwell 4, W. H. Turton 5, C. Emson, of Killamarsh, taking part.

The momorial services were continued during the week, when ringers from Swanwick, Mansfield Woodhouse, Blackwell and Tibshei, visited Sutton each night in the order named, the methods varying from Grandsire and Stedman Doubles to Canterbury and London Surprise.

Wilkinson, of Mansheld, when votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar and church authorities for the tea and use of the bells, and to the ladies for presiding at the tables.— The Sutton ringers were elected probationary members of the associ-tion.—After service the bells were again set going to Grandsire, Man-chester Plain Bob, Kent Treble Bob, Stedman Doubles and London Surprise. Surprise.

The new bells gave satisfaction to all who heard them, and it was felt that the splice could not be better, and the 'go' leaves nothing to be desired. The work has been carried ont by Messrs. John Taylor and Co. in a characteristically efficient and workmanlike manner.

The 43rd annual festival of the Durham and Newcastle Association was hold in Newcastle on Saburday, Oct. 30th, and was very well at-tended. Service was held in the latter church at 5 p.m., the Vicar (the Rev. A. E. Cornibeer) giving the address. The collection was given to the Parish Hostel, just being started, and amounted to £2 15s. He pointed out to the members the urgency and need of district meetings and combined practices, and closed his remarks with reminding them that he had now been ringing for 40 years, 37 of which he had held office in the association, and hoped they would relieve him by electing another president, an office he had filled for twelve years. He thanked Mr. Potter for hig nost excellent report, n behalf of the members, and regretted that he, too, was thinking of retiring from the office which he had held for ten years, with much acceptance to all.

The adoption being carried with acclamation, Mr. Whitehead pro posed a vote of thanks to the retiring officers, which was also heartily acknowledged.

Mr. Routledge then proposed Mr. William Story as president for the ensuing year, remunding the members that his was an honoured name in the association—his brother, Mr. Robert Story having held hame in the association—his orbiter, and horder boots and the the presidency for 22 years. DEDICATION OF BELLS AT BOLTON. UNIQUE CEREMONY.

Recast after the fire of November 11th last year, the bells of Holy Trinity Church, Bolton, Lancs, were dedicated and blessed on Thurs-day, November 4th, by the Rev. T. Taylor Evans, B.A., in the pre-sence of a large congregation and ringers of that district. Solemn and impressive, the ceremony was norecover unique, inasmuch as at was the first instance of its orthodox performance in Lancashire in the last 200 years, the custom having been to dedicate the bells after they were hung, whereas these were dedicated on the ground in the inner vorch.

porch. The tenor bell was raised about one yard from the ground, and, after the blessing, was tolled by Henry W. Jackson, captain of the band at the above church, with a rope attached to the chapper. Rov. Canon Elsee, M.A., President of the Lancashire Association, gave an address, to which the congregation listened with great in-terest. He briefly outlined the history of great bells, how the hells were first washed ceremoniously, wiped dry, signed by the sign of the cross in oil, and then censed with incense. Sponsors used to stand for them at what was called, erroneously, the baptism of the bolls. The Canon also spoke of the romance of bells, and musi have enlightened many to what is almost an unknown interest amongst the majority of congregations who hear the bells regularly.

'DOUBLE-HANDED' LONDON.

FOUR BROTHERS' GREAT ACHIEVEMENT The Exercise will unne in congratulating the members of the talented Gofton family on their notable achievement in ringing the fie-peal of London Surprise on handbells by four brothers. This was achieved on Wednesday, November 3rd, and stands to the credit of the Durham and Newcastle Association.

The band commenced to practise the method last May, and made good progress, several touches, including a 1,024, being brought round. Unfortunately on July 26th, through a fatal accident to he youngest child of Mr. R. Alde-Gofton, the practices were discontinued until the first week in October, when the band met twice weekly; and the pent was eventually recomplished at the first stream. The comparison he first week in accomplished at the first attempt. The composition, by Gahriel Lin-doff, is a one-part on the in-and-fifth's plan. The first peal of London rung on handbells was by the brothers G. R., W. and E. Pye, and W. Keeble.

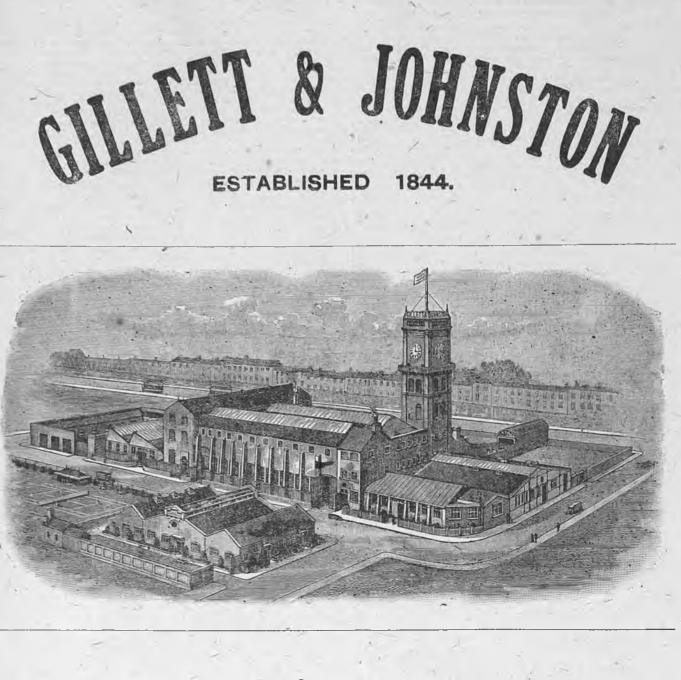

A PASTMASTER OF RINGING.

DEATH OF WILLIAM GREENLEAF.

The death occurred on August 26th, at Auckland, New Zealand, of Mr. William Greenleaf, who a generation ago was well known in the Exercise. Born on November 23rd, 1847, William Greenleaf was es-sentially one of the old school, and was not only a safe ringer, but one whose striking was always as nearly perfect as possible, for he had a remarkable car for accuracy. For many years he was with Messrs. Moars and Stainbark as a bell tuner, and once occupied the office of Master of the College Youths. He took part in many notable perincluding the 11,111 Stedman Caters at Fulham on Decemformances. ber 8th, 1883. Although that peal was rung nearly 40 years ago, Wil-liam Greenloaf is only the fourth member of the band to be called home, those who predeceased him being George Mash, J. Murray Hayes and James Pettit.

NEW BELLS AT BRISTOL.

On Saturday, December 11th, the dedication and opening of two new tradie bells to complete the octave at St. George's, Bristol, E., will take place. The local men have had this increase in the peal before them for over thirty years, and when the proposal was again brought forward as part of a memorial scheme to the men who had fallen during the great war, it was so well supported that the above date will see it brought to a successful conclusion. The second part of the memorial includes a fine marble tablet, crocted on the church-yard wall adjoining the entrance gates, and surmounted by a richly carved canopy, turrets and finial, to harmonise with the 14th cen-tury work of the church.

The annual meeting of the Southern District aftracted a large number of ringers to Granleigh on October 30th, nearly 50 accepting the invitation, from Dorking, Aklershot, Guildford, Worplesdon, Pulborough, Billingshurst, Ewharst, Godalning, Childingfold and Groydon. The eight bells were rung for the first time by ladies.

During the afternoon, Lady Chadwryk Healey unveiled a peal board which recorded the first Deal rung in by Miss Ida Charman in the early morning of July 19th, 1919, a ponce peal in which Miss Charman's father, uncle and two brothers also rang. A touch was then rung by the peal band, and following that Grandsire Triples for the service by a bund of ladies only.—Service was well attended, and an address from the Rector fully appreciated. At the conclusion of tea which was served in the spacebus drawing-room at the Rectory, Miss Fisher proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of his bells, and for the splendid address he had given them in church; to Mrs. Cunningham for her kind hospitality; also to Lady Chadwyck Healer for her prosence with them that afternoon.—Touches were then rung on hardbells at the request of the Rector.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Whittington was voted to the chair, and Mrs. P. Doick, of Pulborough, was elected an honorary member. The Secretary reported that the meetings held during the year had been well attended, five members had rung in peals, and others were

It was the unanimous wish of the meeting that the secretary should be re-elected, but Mrs. Hazelden, in proposing Miss Hilda Mills as secretary, regretted that she was unable to accept the position for the coming year.—Miss Mills was then elected to the office. SHANKLIN BELLS RESTORED.

The musical peal of eight at St. Savionr's-on-the-Oliff at Shauklin, J.W., have just been rebung, and the frame tightened by Messrs. Mears and Stainbark, and on October 28th they were given a triatrip, a large gathering of ringers being present, including Messrs. H. Burton and J. B. Williamson, of Ventnor; W. Pain, F. Chaffey, G. Wilkins and E. Simmonds, of Brading: W. Chambers, W. Johnson and W. Upton, of Newpork, the local ringers, and Messrs. W. 'Hazell and E. H. King, of the Whitechapel Foundry. The Shanklin men first tried the bells in rounds, after which 'touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples were rung, in which two of the local ringers took part. The Vicar and his wife paid a visit to the belfry during the evening, and they much appreciated a well-struck touch of Grandsire Triples, on handbells, by: W. Hazell (conductor) 1-2, H. Barton 3-4, J. B Williamson 5-6, E. H. King 7-8. The 'go ' of Shanklin bells is now very different to that on the occasion of the last visit paid to the tower by a party from Newport, and everyone present was delighted with the great transformation from slavery to ease, especially on the back four bells.

THE CLERGY AND THE BELFRY.

In proposing the toast of 'The Church' at the College Youths banquet on Saturday, the Master made an appeal to the clergy generally to take up change ringing, and to join one or other of the societies which exist for the promotion of the art. The appeal was well-timed, for the company included many influential clergy who, if they may be themselves past the age and without the leisure to take up practical ringing, can nevertheless pass on the suggestion to their assistants and to others with whom they come in contact. There is a general desire among ringers to see a far greater number of clergy coming into the belfry to share with them the duties and pleasures of bell ringing. The advantages would be found not all on one side, for the clergy would find the benefit from physical exercise and interest in the fascinating hobby, as well as having the satisfaction of knowing that they are encouraging the ringers by their presence and doing their part in bringing about the further recognition of the ringers as church workers.

Happily the status of the ringer is becoming much more widely recognised, and when we hear from the lips of such an eminent divine as Bishop Ryle that during his occupancy of such honoured and important offices as the Bishoprics of Exeter and Winchester, he made it one of his first duties to inquire wherever he visited into the state of the bells and the efficiency of the ringers, we realise that the time has gone by when the ringer's office is of no account in the service of Church. At the same time, while we can count to-day many clergy in the ranks of the practical ringers, there is room for many more, and in this, perhaps, the Central Council's circular, which is to go out to incumbents as well as Bishops and Archdeacons, may do something to help the matter forward.

That the majority of the clergy appreciate the ringers' work is now unquestioned, while the public also, on occasions of local or national importance, look to the ringers to interpret through the bells the feelings that are uppermost in the human heart. At that memorable ceremony at Westminster Abbey last week, when the Unknown British Warrior was laid to rest with all the honours a nation could accord, the muffled bells gave that final touch to the proceedings-which nothing else could give. The Dean of Westminster recalled it on Saturday when he said that on that day, full charged with moving and affecting incidents, nothing stirred the emotions more than when, at the moment the King left the Abbey by the west door, the bells sent out their nuffled music. It is on such occasions as this that the bells express the feelings of the people, and when the people recognise the part the bells play in our national life. 562

THE CUSTODY OF BELLS. The quarterly meeting of the Northern District of the Heriford Association was held at Hüchin on Saturday, 13th November. Ringers from Eastbourne, Tottenham, Barnet, Braughing, Dunstable, Steven-age, Bałdock, and the local band, assembled, and touches of Bob Major, followed by Grandsire Triples, Kent Treble Bob Major, Steve-man Triples, Double Norwich Court Bob, and Superlative Surprise were rung. The ringing and striking were good, and showed keenness towards progress, especially among those who rang their first touch of Superlative. The President of the Middlesex Association, Mr. A. T. King, honoured the meeting with his presence, and took part in the ringing. Service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. B. Ashby, was followed by tea and meeting, at the restaurant, over which the Vicar Dresided. The Secretary remarked that according to the leading article in the 'Ringing World' of the 5th inst, the custody of the bells was invested with the ringers themselves, but this the Vicar took up claiming the right of stewardship over the bells as part of the furnit-ture of the church.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for conducting the service presiding over the meeting and for the use of the bells, was carried unanimously.—Further ringing concluded a very enjoyable time, not soon to be forgotten.

The ringer of the treble had never rung in changes on ten bells before, and the ringer of the sixth had only rung one or two short touches of Caters previously A moeting of the Eastern Division of the Yorkshire Association at Goole brought together a gathering of 41 ringers. The two bells at West Leake have been recast and rebung by Sir Arthur Ernest Blake, K.B.E., and his wife, in commemoration of their silver wedding. The work has been carried out by Messrs. Taylor and Co.

On Armistice Day three new bells were dedicated at Exhall, near Coventry, as a memorial to the 33 men of the parish who fell in the war. The work was carried out by Messrs. On Sunday-week, two new trobles, making a peal of eight, were dedicated at Kinver, Staffs. A new from frame on steel girders has been nut in, and the old six relung in new fittings by the White-chapel Foundry. Last Saturday a peal of Stodman Triples was rung on the bells

GRANT FOR ROCHESTER CATHEDRAL BELLS.

At a meeting of the Central Committee of the Kent Association, at Chatham on Nov. 13th, it was decided to hold the annual meeting next year on Easter Monday at St. Nicholas', Deptford. A grant of £5 from the Belfry Repairs Fund was made towards the recasting of the third bell at Rochester Cathedral, for which the local ringers had made themselves responsible. Considerable structures was expressed that the Dean and Chapter of Rochester should have allowed the contract to be increased to £800 or £900 instead of the original estimate of only £300 or so

One of the most representative gatherings of ringers that has ever assembled to celebrate the anniversary of the Ancient Society of College Youths, met at the still more ancient London Tavern, Fenchurch Street, on Saturday last, when the 283rd anniversary of the foundation of the society was commemorated. There was ringing during the afternoon at the famous old Churches of St. Michael's ringin: Cornhill, and St. Magnus the Martyr, London Bridgo-lovo of the churches, by the way, which come within the Com-mission's scheme for demolition-and visiting ringers sathered in goodly numbers to take part in the touches. euthusiasm.

THE CHURCH.

Afterwards he proposed ' The Church.' One of the great reasons for honouring that toast, ho said, was that if it were not for the Church, that society, probably, would never have been formed, for the rery simple reason that there would be very little use for such a society in civic life. The Church, he continued, was the great corner-stone: indeed, it was the pillar of the Empire (applause); it might be said it was a pillar on which the sun never set, and they as churchworkers, although perhaps only in a small way, must give their greatest support in upholding its dignity. It was to the Church that people turned in time of sorrow, for prayers and for advice; it was to the Church they turned in times of joy, for the purtose of thanksgiving on a national occasion and sometimes even on family DCwas the Church which announced by its bells as well as by its services the death of kings and statesmen, and even the humble marishiener, it was the Church through its bells that announced fue loyful tidings of great victories; it was through the Church that they "ve thankseiving for fine harvests, or offered their prayers for thos who were sick. They as ringers took their part in all these things. whether in muffled ringing or in joyful ringing, and he thought he whome in infinite runging or in joynt ringing, and he thought be mucht be pardoned for expressing pride in the fact that the Church had never appealed in vain to that society for a band of ringers to help in those services from time to dime. He had made as Master several appeals for ringers for special occasions, both Sundays an week-days, and even though it sometimes meant loss of time at work, be had always bad sufficient and often more than sufficient men. They were very grateful to the clerov of the London churches for their courtesy in allowing them the use of the hells for practice; for the nice way in which the bells and belfrice were kept. There was our thing he would particularly like to see, and he hoped the clergy who were present would pass it along to their friends, that it would be a big help to the ringers if more of the clergy could spare time to learn change ringing and become members of that or some other society (applause). That evening they were honoured by the presence of several of the City clergy, and he appealed to them and to all those present to do their utmost to help in any reasonable scheme which might be put forward to save the nineteen threatened City churches (applause). These churches had been handed down to them as precious relics and heirlooms, and they should take care to hand them down to future generations (applause). These churches were the homes of the City of London, and he appealed strongly to them all to give their hearty support to any reasonable scheme brought forward to save these churches (applause). If it were a matter of money, surely in that wealthy city there were business men capable of finding it and saving those magnificent specimens of the work of past generations (hear, hear). He had to couple with the toast the name of the Dean of Westminster, Dr. Ryte (applause). It needed no words of his (the Master's) to say how welcome the Dean was among them, and the College Youths were proud to think he had honoured them by coming there to give them his support. The great work the Dean had done and was doing at the Abbey was well known to them all. The Abbey was the shrine and Meeca of Englishmen, and it oreupied in their hearis a place unequalled by anything else. The restoration of the peal of bells and the work that was being done to magnificent fal ric in repair was largely owing to the interest and activity of Dr. Ryle, and he could only hope the Dean would be spared for many years to continue that good work, and that he would be able to attend the annual banquet of the College Youths (anplause).

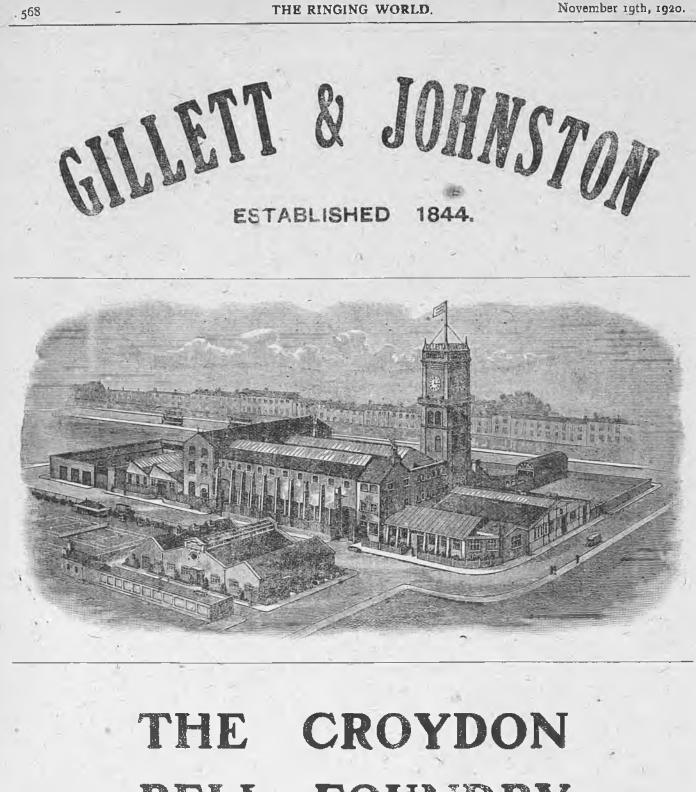

The toast was drunk with great cordiality.

THE DEAN'S PROBLEM.

The Dean of Westminster, who, on rising to respond, was received with cheers, said: I count myself highly privileged to be called upon to respond to the toast which you have drunk with so kindly, warmhearted a welcome. I count it a privilege to be standing here amongst you on this occasion of your banquet, and thank you, Master, for the extraordinarily generous words which you have used in refer-ence to the old Abbey. I know that I am privileged to speak to a roomful of men-Youths, I suppose, I should call them-who are greatly interested in the welfare of bell ringing throughout the country, and naturally, viow with sympathy and kindness the interests of our old Church. I used, as a boy, to wonder which came first, the bells or the tower. That is a problem which I commend to you, because I have not been able to answer it myself. I am setting an old man, but I am even now not quite sure which came first, the bells or the tower. Was the tower made for the bells, or were the bells made for the tower? I sometimes think that the tower was made first and that, in the past, when the church was very weak, the tower was used as a place of refuge, so that the people might repair to it to defend themselves against invaders and bandits. In later years, when bell ringing had become an art, everyone said, 'There is the place for the bells, in the tower.' If that were so, the tower came first, and the hells were added afterwards. But certainly in the case of a very large number of the church towers with which I have been acquainted since I was a boy, I should say that the towers were built after the bells and the art of bell ringing had become known. When I go back in memory to recall the great towers of the Eastern Counties, of Suffet and of Norfolk (applause). I know you will not find many towers to surpass them in beauty and strength, and they carry their bells well. I believe many of them were built in the fifteenth century, and that they were built with the idea that they would have to support the bells that wore rung at times of happiness, and also as sounds of warning and of sadness: and they have done so for five centuries. That being so, I think it is very likely historically the case that a large number of our finest towers in England were erected for the purpose of holding a good peal of bells (applause). As I have wandered about the country, whenever I have come to a good church tower, my first question has always been, ' How many bells have you Sometimes there has been a needlessly small number, and I There? There P sometimes there has been a needlessify small humber, and I have always said, 'Are you going to add to them P_{\perp} I have always found the people really keen to have, if possible, eight bells where there were only six. People were really dead keen to try to secure the addition of two more bells, and that, I am sure, is the right spirit.

A DUTY FOR THE CLERGY.

I would fain hope that my brother Bishops and Archdeacons and the I works fain hope that my brather bistops and Arendezons and the leading Church authorities will, as they go up and down in their parishes, always make it a duty to inquire how the bells are being cared for (hear, hear), whether the ringers are a good team; whether the belfry is in proper order: whether, in a word, the tower, the peal of bells and the ringers are worthy of the best traditions of the Church (applause). Sometimes I do not think in these days, but the times have been, when the Church neglected the subject of the bells and bell ringing. In these days I think a happy change has passed over the minds and feelings of the Church and the Church authorities, and they welcome the formation of a good band of hell ringers. I am glad to know that hady bell ringers are not unknown I do not know how long aga it is since ladies began to ring, but I remember, when I was Bishop of Exetor, twenty years ago, there was one exceedingly good lady bell ringer. I think sho was the ms³ in that part of Devonshire, and there have been several to follow her example. We go back in memory most of us to the time when we were boys, and looked up at the old church tower at might, perhaps where the test compares after and any other the tower. were boys, and looked up at the old church lower at nEBt, perhaps on the last evening of the year, and could see midway up the tower when the stars were overhead and the sky almost blue-black, a window letting out a bright stream of light. The bells are ringing out the old year, and you know that there are men who are ringing out, wit a sense of the solemnity of the duty they are discharging and disper-ing far and wild over many miles, the sacred message, which makes people in their homes, old and young, think of the past, and the possibilities and the hopes of the new year. That is one of my earliest recellections. I pass on to another slage in my life, when I was at possibilities and the hopes of the new year. That is one of my earliest recollections. I pass on to another stage in my life, when I was at Cambridge. I used to think that listening to St. Mary's bells was one of the privileges of University life. "I had my rooms at King" and used to have the window wide open to listen to the bells of St Mary's. I remember so well, on a bright summer evening, hearing for the first time a muffled peal, and being enormously struck with the beauty of that muffled ringing, and not knowing what it meant the beauty of that multiled ringing, and not knowing what it meant I inquired, and was told that one of the ringers had died, and hi brothers were ringing a multiled peal in memory of one who had been with them for many years. Side by side with that, I think of that other day in the Abbey, of that extraordinary service which we had on Thursday, when we tried to do honour to the Unknown British Warrior. As the King stepped out of Westminster by the west door -at that very moment, the bells sounded a multiled peal, and I am quite sure it was one of the most moving and affecting incidents in a day which was full charged with extraordinarily affecting and moving scenes scenes.

BELL FOUNDRY I920.

THE KING AND THE ABBEY BELLS.

I cannot refer to the Abbey bells without thinking of my friend opposite, Mr. Hughes (applause), who did our bells for us. No longer is the old tower of Westminster dumb. When I first came as Deau is the old tower of Westmuster dumb. When I first came as Deau I was told the bells were never rung because it was dangerous and the tower would come down, but I said, when the King was crowned, we must have the bolls rung, whatever happened (applause). I told the King that and he said, 'I suppose you do not mind if the tower does come down upon us?' (laughter). I told him I thought it was worth the risk (renewed laughter). Well, the tower survived; the King survived, and I survived (applause), so that was all right. But since then the bells have been done and two new ones added; a proper cradle put up and now we can ring the Abbey bells and personally since then the bells have been done and two new ones added; a proper cradle put up, and now we can ring the Abbey bells, and personally I delight in hearing them. It is a good sound (applause). I am not an expert, but it has been a perfect joy to me to hear Westminster Abbey tower speak again. I know that we have good ringers, and you are responsible. I believe, for securing that the ringing is good I am able to tell people, when they come to Westminster Abbey, that we have a first-rate peal of bells and a first-rate set of ringers (appleuse). If they more to hear mode hells and a first-rate set of ringers I am able to bail people, when they come to westminister Acody, that we have a first-rate peal of bells and a first-rate set of ringers (applause). If they want to hear good bells and good ringers they may, of course, go to St. Faul's; but don't let us forget that at West-minister Abbey we are indebited to Mr. Hughes and to his men for having put them straight. It is a matter for which I thank him, and I thank all of you, because I realise that you are College brothers and what is prosperily or fame or bonour for one man, Mr. Hughes is prosperity and fame and honour for you all (applause). There is a great privilege in belonging to a College, which is a congregation o-real brotherhood, and I am glad to think that the church towers which are the glory of the land, and the bells which are the glory of the towers, should be and are a bond of union between you, the the brothers of this society (loud applause). The other toasts included 'The Ancient Society of College Youths' proposed by the Rev. Canon Coleridge, and replied to by Mr Cockerill: 'The London and Provincial Ringing Societies,' submitted by the Vice-Chairman, and responded to by Mr. E. A. Young, Rev. F. Ll. Eduards and M* A. Paddou Smith: 'The Visitors ' and 'The Press.' The report of these speeches will appear in our next issue.

STOKE=ON=TRENT SOCIETY.

STOKE=ON=TRENT SOCIETY. A very pleasant and uniovable evening was spent at Norton (Staffs) on Tuesday, Nov. 2nd, when a party of ringers from Burslem paid a visit for the purpose of a combined practice with the ringers of Norton. It was a very successful and eventiful meeting, and the Burslem ringers would like to thank Mr. Wheeldon and his band for their advice and instruction, which enabled them to bring round touches in the following methods: Cambridge Surprise, Woedbin-Oxford Treble Bob, and closing with a 720 of Violet as a bifthday compliment to the conductor of the Burslem band. The Cambridge was the first Surprise ringing by the visitors. The ringers taking part were Messrs. Wheeldon, W. Deane, G. Lawrence, F. Dawson. Weatherby, F. Triner, T. Hildlich, T. Hurd, J. Hurd and A. Lees.

CILLETT & JOHNSTON

CROYDON, SURREY.

The 22 cwt. Tenor of the Ring of 8 Dedicated at Birstall, Leeds, on October 4th, 1919.

BELLS, CARILLONS, CLOCKS.

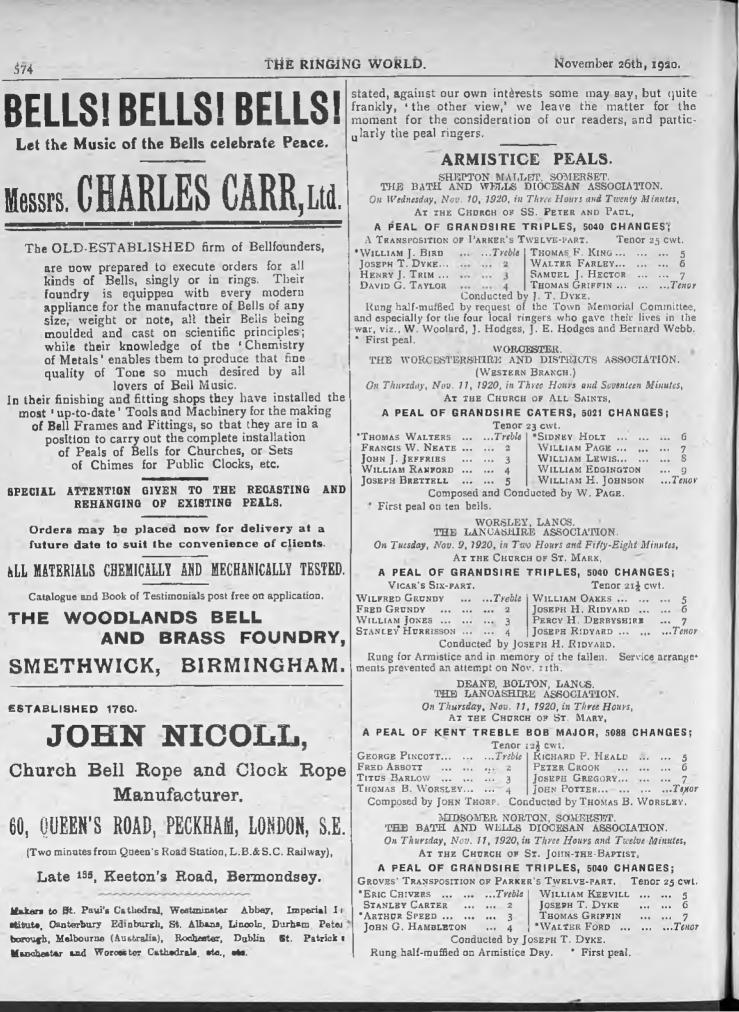

Every day almost brings us evidence of the concern of ringers for the future of 'The Ringing World' and expressions of a desire that the Exercise should rally to the su, port of the journal as the only link between the ringers of the kingdom. Many of these proofs of goodwill have been prompted by the article which appeared in our 500th number, and those who have the interest of ringing at heart are genuinely anxious that the Exercise shall not be left without a paper devoted to its affairs. From several sources have come the suggestion that an addition to revenue might be made by payment for the insertion of peals, which admittedly occupy a good deal of room and are given very considerable prominence. This proposal has been made to us on a number of occasions, and recently it has been discussed at more than one meeting. The other day a resolution supporting it was passed at a Middlesex gathering, and a very kindly letter urging the point has come from the Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association.

TO INCREASE REVENUE.

Need we say that the spirit of these proposals is deeply appreciated. The Exercise is a great brotherhood, and for that reason we are able to lay before it our views with the same feeling as in a family circle. There is every need to increase the revenue of the journal in the face of the present cost of production, but we have hesitated to adopt the idea of charging for peal reports, and for this reason : Peals are an important part of the records of the Exercise, and although the traditional method of reporting them in pealboard fashion is a costly one, they are news to which a great deal of interest attaches. Moreover, it is possible that the making of such a levy would deter some ringers from sending in their peals for publication, and while there are some who will say that ringers who were not prepared to pay, say, twopence each for this purpose, do not deserve to have their peals chronicled, yet we do not lose sight of the fact that the non-publication of a portion of the peals would irretrievably break the continuity of the present record of all peals rung throughout the country.

However, there seems to be among many ringers a desire that something should be done on the lines suggested by the Middlesex Association and also put forward by Mr. Cave, and we are open to receive the opinion of ringers upon the subject. We cannot undertake to publish all the views which we receive, but doubtless a selection will be interesting, and we propose not to commit ourselves to one policy or the other until we have heard other opinions. H we are to expand to those proportions and on those lines. which we desire and which the Exercise merits, additional income has got to be raised and we should be the last to despise such a source as that mentioned. However, having

LIVERPOOL BELLS RESTORED.

At the Catholic Church of St. Francis Xavier, Liverpool, the bells At the Catholic Church of St. Francis Xavier, Liverpool, the bells were unringable for three or four years. They have now, however, been restored, and gave great pleasure to the members of the Lan-cashire Association, who held a meeting there on Saturday week. Ringers were present from Aughton, Walton, West Derby, Hayton, Rainhill, Grassendale, Garston, Liverpool, and the local company, and were welcomed at the meeting by Father Bridge. Garston was chosen for the next meeting; there new members were elected, and the hope expressed that the new ringers at St. Francis Xavier's would soon become members of the association. Thanks were accorded to Father Bridge, and to Mr. Bond for having the bells in readiness. Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain and Kent Troble Bob Major were rung during the afternoon. were rung during the afternoon.

A TWO DAYS' CELEBRATION

A TWO DAYS' CELEBRATION. Born in Wednesbury, Staffs, on Nov. 12th, 1839, Mr. William Rock Small, the Tipton veteran, celebrated hig 81st birthday on the 12th inst. Mr. Small, whose first peat (Kent Trable Bob Royal) was rang in 1865, has been connected with Tipton ' Popper Box ' for over 40 years, and it was fitting that his birthday peat should be rang at that belfty. After the successful attempt the band, joined by Mrs. Gough, Mrs. Groves and Mrs. Horton, were entertained by Mr. Small at the Britamia Inn, and after the rebast handbell touches were rung and Mr. Horton sang ' The Trampoter.' To Mr. James George fell the happy task of proposing the health of Mr. Small, and in felicitous terms referred to the ability of their old friend and his remarkable viscor, both of mind and body, at his great age. He congratulated the hand on the way in which the peal of that afternoon had been rung, and Mr. Groves, on the perfect way in which he had conducted. He trusted that Mr. Small would live long to ring with him and others, as he had done with the speaker for betwon 30 and 40 years. Mr. Jaggar seconded, pointing to Mr. Small's name and fame in the ringing world, and describing him as the grand old man of cam-panological art and science. Mrs. Groves expressed the thanks of the ladies for their invitation we do he alconget the rung and Mr. Small's name the fame in the ringing world, and describing the Mr. Small's name and fame in the ringing world, and describing the mas the grand old man of cam-panological art and science.

panological art and science. Mrs. Groves expressed the thanks of the ladies for their invitation and the pleasure they had received, and wished long life to Mr. Small, who, she hoped, would be spared to join them round the festive board for some years to come. Mr. Horton spoke of the encouragement the older ringers gave to young men like himself, and said he only hoped he should ring as well, eventually, as Mr. Small did. Other complimentary and congratulatory remarks having been made, the tonst was drunk right heartily. Mr. Small, in response, spoke of his connection with bell ringing for more than 60 years, and drew a striking contrast between the old beer-drinking and disorderly bell-ringing days of his youth and now. He claimed that ringers had entirely changed for the batter. They were now looked on as a class that ought to be encouraged as part ile claimed that emgers had entirely changed for the better. They were now looked on as a class that ought to be encouraged as part of the real life of the church, and not looked down upon as they once were. The alteration and improvement in the men, in the couldition of the beffries and in other ways, had been brought about by the ringers taking an interest in themselves and their art. By forming associations and guilds to keep up the standard they had forced the elergy and the public to a better opinion of them. He trusted that the the improvement would be maintained, and that the young bands would be trained to grow up with an interest in and love for their would be brained to grow up with an interest in and love for their art and all that it implied in its best sense. He had always tried to do his best in that direction, and he hoped the kindly brotherhood established among ringers would continue and grow, for there was no art which contributed more to mental and bodily health. He hoartly thanked all for their kindness in giving up their time to come there that day, and he was deeply appreciative of the honour they had done him (applause). To further celebrate the event a ten-bell company of the Society for the Archdesconry of Stafford and the Dudley and District Guild had done him (applause). To further celebrate the event a ten-bell company of the Sociely for the Archdeaconry of Stafford and the Dudley and District Guild altempted, on the following day at Wedne bury, a peal of 5081 Stef-man Caters, specially composed for the occasion by Mr. John Carter, but this unfortunately was lost, after nearly two hours' ringing lames E. Groves (the Kinging Master of St. Martin's, Birmingham), J. John Jaggar (Oldbury and Burton) 2, James George (Birmingham), 3, Geo. Hughes (Wednesbury Parish Church) 4, Herbert Knight (Wolver-hampton, St. Peter's) 5, William Fisher (Coseley, and Master of the Society for the Archdeaconry of Staffs), conductor. 6, Alfred Rowley (Tipton) 7, Bert Horton (Wood Green and Darlaston) 8, Thomas Reeves (West Bromwich) 9, Ben Gough (Coseley Parish Church) 10. Mr. Small was unable to take part in this peal, but heard most of the ringing, and afterwards came into the old belfry which he loves so much. He invited the band and a few of the ringers' wixes (Mrs J. E. Groves, Mrs. Ben Gough and Mrs. Bert Horton) to the Three Tuns Hotel, Union Street (the ringers' Wednesbury homo), where a most sumptions spread was awaiting the company. Mr. Ben Gough was voted to the chair and Mr. James George proposed the toast of the evening in a most able speech. 'Congratulations to Mr. William Rock Small on attaining his 81st birthday.' Mr. John Jaggar and Mrs. Groves also endorsed the good wishes.

Rock Small on attaining his 81st birthday. Mr. John Jaggar and Mrs. Graves also endorsed the good wishes. Mr. Small, in response, made a happy speech, saving how pleased he was to be well enough to be with his friends that evening, although he felt the effects of the strain of the two hours and forty-five minutes of the previous day. He was very grateful to Him above for sparing him for 81 years, and giving him the health to take part in the splandidly-struck peal which had been accomplished on his anniversary day. He was sorry the second peal had not been successful, but he trusted there would be better luck on the next occasion. He was very pleased to see the ladies present on both evenings, and hanked them and all the ringers who had taken part in the peals at Tipton and Wednesbury. Wednesbury.

Mr. George proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Small for entertaining the company, and this brought to a close one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable evenings the ringers ever had. B. G.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. James George will be 67 to-morrow. If the Fates are kind he will fittingly celebrate it in the city of London.

The parish of Clau, Salep, has the distinction of having a ringing enrate and a ringing warden, who take their places regularly in the tower.

R. G. Marshull, who will not be 17 years old until next January, took part in a peal of Oxford Bob Triples at Deptford on November 11th, his tenth peal since the last Armistice anniversary. These peals included a peal of Bob Maximus at Southwark, and his tutor inquires if he is the youngest ringer to score a peal on 12.

We believe that some years also a ringer of only 15 years of age rang a peal of Stedman Cinques at Birmingham, but we have no recollection of a younger ringer than Reg. Marshall scoring a peal of Maximus. Perhaps some of our readers can tell us.

In discussing the financial position of the Lancashire Association in the annual report, the committee say there is a great leakage in sub-scriptions. The amount received from performing members last year. surintions. even assuming that it included to back payments, would only account for 602 members out of a roll of 1,084. If all whose names are on the books would pay their subscriptions at the present rate regularly, the expenses would be more than met.

A band that started to learn change ringing since the war at Bluns-don, Wilks, rang their first poul on November 13th on the occasion of the dedication of the church war memorial, which consisted of a lych gate. It was the first peal on the bells, and by all except the conductor. The treble man is 67 and the tenor man 64. It's never too late to learn.

Another member of the Lancashire Association has been added to those who hold civic office. At the recent election of councillors for the ancient borough of Eccles, Mr. Amos Trippier was elected out of four candidates for his ward, with a majority of 247 over his nearest onpouent.

The claim to the first peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major on the bells at Bocking, Essex, which was made for a peal published in our last issue will not stand. We are informed by Mr. A. Shufflebotham that the first peal in this method rung at Bocking was on April 24th, 1909.

Ringers will much regret to hear that Mr. W. W. Gifford, formerly of Salisbury, is in a very serious state of health. He is now paralysed, and, we are informed, his speech is entirely gone.

We are asked to state that owing to the unsafe state of the tower, ringing at Christ Church, Southport, is suspended until further notice.

ARMISTICE DAY AT THE ABBEY.

ARMISTICE DAY AT THE ABBEY. It will no doubt be of interest to many ringers to know the actual part taken by the Abbey Bells at that wonderful service when the unknown warrior received all those honours that the nation could give. From 10 a.m. until 10.58, the tenor was tolled at minute intervals; this in itself was almost the greatest honour the Abbey bolls could render, as the Abbey tenor is never tolled except for the King or a Dean of Westminster. At 11.5 the tenor was again tolled, but at half-minute intervals, until the funeral cortege reached the precincts of the Abbey. At the conclusion of the service, at the exact moment the King left the Abbey by the west door, the bells rang out half-muffled; first in very slow, impressive rounds; afterwards they went into changes with a touch of Stedman Triples. During the afternoon and evening muffled touches were rung at stated intervals. Two long courses of Kent Treble Hob Major are worthy of special mention, rung in slow time with perfect striking that produced a wonderful effect. in slow time with perfect striking that produced a wonderful effect.

The following members of the Ancient Society of College Youths took part in the ringing: S. Andrews, H. W. Belcher Rev. F. Li. Edwards, A. A. Hughes, A. R. Macdonald, H. R. Pasmore, W. H. Pasmore, J. Rumley, W. D. Smith and J. Wiltshire.

THE LATE MR. GREENLEAF.

Writing from Salisbury, Mr. J. R. Jerram says he well remembers the peal of 11,111 Stedman Caters, in which the late Mr. William Greenleaf took part, at Fulham, on Dec. 8th, 1883, and which oc-cupied 7 hours and 12 minutes. It was conducted by Mr. James Pettit. Mr. W. Greenleaf stayed with Mr. Jerram on the night before, and went off to Loudon in the morning somewhat doubtful as to the accomplishment of the peal, which he described as a 'big job.' After the peal was accomplished it was found that the rope of the seventh bell, which Mr. Greenleaf rang, was cut through at the fillet-hok in the wheel, and was only hanging together by one strand. The peal was, at that time, the longest length of Stedman Caters ever rung.

Fing. For some years before he left for New Zealand Mr. Greenleaf was in husiness at Hereford, in partnership with Mr. Tristram, as a church bell hanger. He did several jobs about Salisbury, including Downton, which wore cutirely rehung with new oak frame (6 bells, tenor 23 cwt.), and Barford St. Martin's, with east iron frame, on oak founda-tion (6 bells, tenor 13 cwt.), new treble added to peal of five to make six, and old treble recast by Mears and Stainbank at the same time.

'THE RINGING WORLD.' A PROPOSAL

Dear Sir,--In your leading article of the 500th number, you tell us frankly that if our paper is still to continue one of two things must happen--either it must attain a larger circulation, or the price must be raised. To take circulation first. How can we get new readers? I have tried myself, but have been met with. What is there in it to interest beginners?' (and it is to the beginners in the art that we shall have to look if there is to be any appreciable increase). Unfortunately there was nothing that I could give as an example that would interest or help a beginner. Let me assure you, Sir, that I do not attribute this fault to you. You have to 'cut the coat according to the cloth '; in other words, if the revenue only justifies a 12 or even 8 page paper it would be folly to give 20; for that way hankruptcy lies, and we should be without a paper at all.

Should be without a paper at all. You say further on in the same article, 'Schumes for the expansion of the paper and an extension of features of interest have long been matured, but are held up by the difficulties which continually face us.' I know something of the difficulties; paper about tan times pre-war price; wages three times what they were (in some places more than this), is only to mention two of the items that go to make up the weekly expense sheet.

Now, Sir, I have been thinking that perhaps if we had these new features you mention the circulation might go up considerably on their account, but at present receipts do not justify the necessary expansion. I wish to offer a suggestion to my brother ringers throughout the country, with your permission, and it is this, that in future the conductor of every successful peal shall collect from each of the ringers in the peal the sum of twopence and forward it with the account of the peal to the ' Kinging World.' If this suggestion is generally approved; and carried out, it would, I feel sure, be the means of developing our journal, and lead to that which is much to be desired, viz., a larger circulation.

viz., a larger circulation. I do not think the average ringer knows how much a successful peal costs his association. In annual reports they are usually printed three on a page, so that each peal will cost anything from 3s. to 4s., according to the number of reports printed. From this ringers should see what an advantage publication in the 'Ringing World' is. Were I left to decide the form in which peals should appear in ersociation's reports, after having appeared in extense in the 'Ringing World', they would take up one line only under the headings: date, time, method, etc.

I have said nothing about your second alternative, increase of price, as I think it would be fatal.

May I appeal to ringers generally to give my suggestion favourable consideration, and send their views to the Editor. W. A. CAVE.

P.S.-Since writing the above, I have gone into figures more fully, and I find that we could not expect to feel the benefit of even a 2d. love per ringer for some time to come, but it would come eventually.

At the meeting of the South and West District of the Middlesex Association, at Heston, a motion in favour of a charge being made for the publication of peal reports was carried, after a lengthy discussion, and it was decided to send a resolution to the Central Committee of the Association asking their assistance to further this object.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION. KETTERING DISTRICT MEETING.

A most successful ringing meeting of the Kettering District was held at Weekley on Saturday, Nov. 6th, 43 members being present from Burton, Broughton, Cranford, Cransley, Orlingbury, Desborough Isham, Northampton, Pytchley, Kettering, Warkton, Wellingboro'. Geddington, Weldon, and the local band.—The Vicar (the Rev. C. H L. Hopper) conducted the service, and gave a most helpful address.— A collection for the belfry repairs fund amounted to 11s. 4d.

At the meeting the vicar presided, and the General Secretary called members' notice to the alteration to Rule III., which comes into force at the beginning of next year.—The district secretary was instructed to express the sympathy of the members with the family of the late Mr. W. Horden. The Vicar was elected a ringing member, and the General Secretary

The Vicar was elected a ringing member, and the General Secretary (Mr. D. J. Nichols) congratulated the Weekley ringers on the rand strides they were making in change ringing.—A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the helk, to the ludies for arranging the tea, and to the local ringers was unminiously accorded, and the Vicar in reply, said if the help continued from the neighbouring towers ^Weekley ringers would soon make proficient members of the Association.—Plain and Treble Bob Minor and Grandsire Doubles were rung during the day.

REMINISCENT SPEECHES.

The toasi of 'The Aucient Society of College Youths ' was proposed by Gunon Coloridge, who had a cordial reception, and regaled his heavers with nnecdote and reminiscence in that style in which he excels. This, he sold, was an age in which youth would be served, and he felt that time had come when the more important toasts should be entrusted to the more youthful members, and not to those who, like himself, were now grey and bald. That was an Ancient Society of Youths, and although he was no longer youthful he could truly claim to be ancient (laughter). He preferred the title ' ancient 'because no less than 41 years had gone by since he joined the society. It was a very memorable year. In that year six members of the St. Sidwoll's Society, Exeter. Joined, and in the same year the band at Appleton Joined, the society, while shortly after he had the pleasure of ganing with them what, for 20 years, remained the record for Stedman Caters—15,000 in 9 hrs. 15 mins. In that year, he believed he was right in saying, they enrolled upon their books the names of some who held very high places in the Exercise. Those names included Challis Winney and John Carter (applause). This, continued Canon Coloridge, was a time of remembrance. To see the multitudes in Whitehall going to do honour to those who had departed this life was most impressive. The burial of that unknown warrior was a grand conception. It would have a great effect on the hearts and minds of Englishmen all over the world. It was, however, of those of their own society that he would like to say a worl or two, so that they might bear in remembrance some of their old friends. He called particularly to mind four, who used to come frequently to grace their annual banquet. There was their old friend, Mr. Dawies, with his Barking Youths; there was their dar old man. Mr. James Pertit, honoured by everybody; another who used to be with them almost every other year —one of the truest friends ringing ever had—was Sir Arthur Heywood, while only this week they h

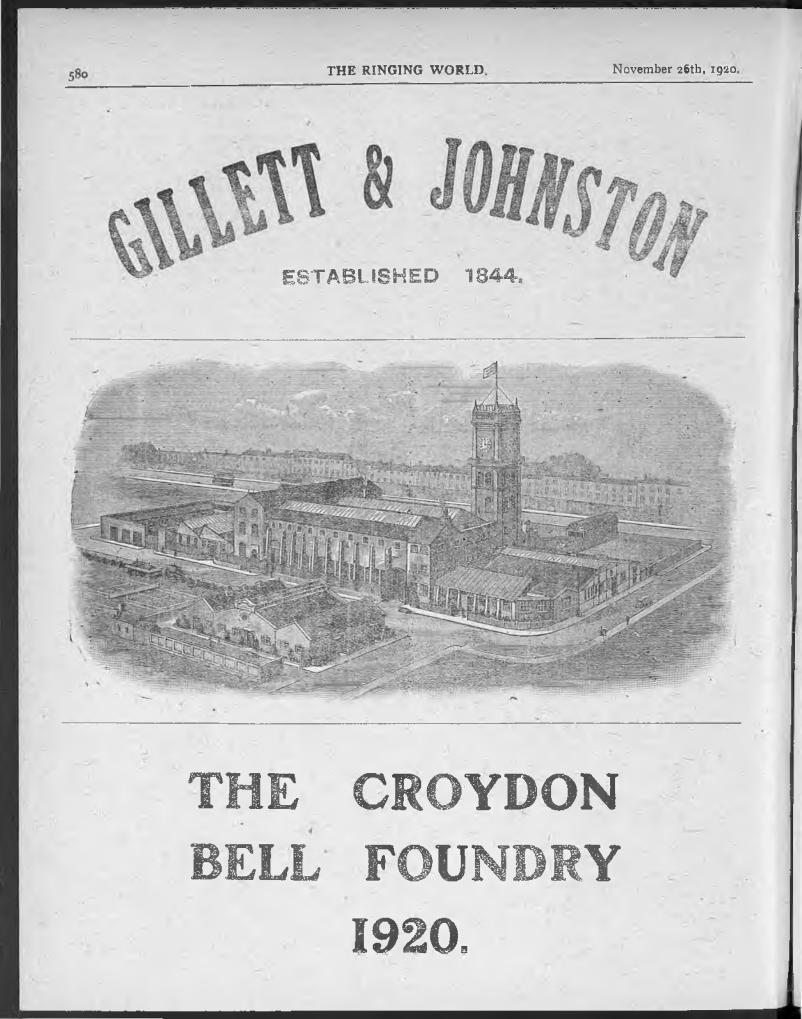

A HIGH STANDARD.

Proceeding, Canon Coleridge said the Dean had remarked how pleased he was to see so many young men among them, and he (the speaker) would remind them that they had a great heritage to maintain. What the College Youths had done in the past could be read in their records, but there was one thing to which he would specially like to refer them, and that was the tremendously high standard that they had always set in twelve-bell ringing. He had heard it equalled in other places—Birmingham, for instance—but he had never neard it excelled, and he trusted that the younger men would be as careful in their striking as their ancient forefathers had been. Great things had been done in the past with long lengths, and he dared say that in the future the young men would try to emulate these deeds (hear, hear). He had to couple with the toast the name of Mr Cockerill (applause), who was a genial compation and a good ringer; a prime of secretaries and a king among men (applatuse).

(near), near). He had to couple with the toast the mane of Mr Cockerill (applause), who was a genial compation and a good ringer; a prince of secretaries and a king among men (applause). At this stage a splendidly struck course of Stedman Cinques was rung by J. Thomas 1-2, Mrs. F. I. Hairs 3-4, C. F. Winney 5-6, A. Walker 7-8, H. Langdon 9-10, W. T. Cockerill 11-12.

CONTINUITY OF PEAL RECORDS.

Mr. Cockerill, who replied to the toast, said apologies for absence had been received from Mis. Leny (who was indisposed), Mr. W. P. Routh (Reading), Mr. J. W. Rowbotham, Mr. H. J. Walton, Mr. F. Smith (who had been taken suddenly ill), Mr. J. S. Prithert and Mr. E. Denison Taylor. During the year, since file last gathering, the society had held 59 practices at different city churches and Southwark Cathedral. The Master topped the list of attendances with 54 (applause), and the 59 practices had been attended at some time or other by 104 members. They made 29 new members during the year and they rang 22 peaks, including five on handbells, viz., one each of Stedman Caters and Clinques, Grandsire Cinques, Bol Royal and Maximus. Since the last dinner they had had to make some alteration in the rules. They had found it necessary to raise the steepleage and the booking fees for peaks. Sooner or later they would have to discuss the question of making further increases, and it had been suggested that they might raise the entrance fee. They would also have to raise the price of certificates and rule books. It would be a great advantage to the society if they could have a larger list of annual subscribers. The booking of peaks had become very costly. There were about 40 peaks being booked at the present time, and hy supposed the bill would run to close on £20. It seemed a sin that they should break the continuity of those magnificent oil hooks. Although they were cumbersome, they had been splendidly kept, and it would be folly to drop the records (applause). The only alternative was to try to increase the funds (hear, hear).

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL SOCIETIES.

The Vice-Chairman (Mr. A. A. Hughes) submitted the toast of 'London and Provincial Ringing Societies.' One thought, he said, at those happy meetings of the all-round good fellowship that existent, but such gatherings mean much more than that. They had gathered that evening from far and near with one cause at heart, and that was, the Church (hear, hear). It was very gratifying to see amony them so many representatives of kindred societies, and they realised that the progress of scientific change ringing throughout the provinces was due to the enthusiastic work of the various associations. The increase in their activities was to be seen in the very much greater number of peals and notices of meetings which appeared in the columns of 'The Ringing World,' now compared with the number in the ringing press of 15 or 20 years ago. These who had had the pleasure of visiting some of the chiof centres of ringing throughout the country, said Mr. Hughes, knew what a warm-hearted welcome taey saw the representatives of kindred societies with then that night. With rogard to the London Societies they were glad to know that the Royal Cumberland Youths were still going strong, and it was also nice to know that the London County Association still keept up the traditions of the old St. James' Society, and enabled members of the College Youths and Cumberlands to meet together under one roof (applause).

phase). Mr. E. A. Young (London County Association), responding for the London Societies, said while the London County Association could not claim the age of the College Youths or Cumberlands, yet it would soon celebrate its 100th birthday, and he hoped it would be fittingly commemorated. The London County Association, as the St. James' Society, was the outcome of the friendly rivalry between the College Youths and the Cumberlands, and it was a happy thing that their headquarters should be situated at St. Clement Danes, where they could hear the bells of both their founders, at St. Paul's and St. Martin's.

The Rev. F. Ll. Edwards (Salisbury Guild), in a facetious speech, next replied. ' Provincial Societies,' he said, was a wide term. If included those like St. Martin's Guild, Birmingbam, where they had such perfect twelve-bell inging avery week; the Winchester Guild, in parts of which they went into such wonderful performances on handbells every day of the week and sometimes twice a day (laughter); and the Norwich and Ipswich Association, where one team of brothers set to work and rang anything, whether on church bells or on handbells It also included out of the way and rustic districts like that of his own Guild, where change ringing maintained a precarious existence, where the towers were isolated, where there was not a single peal of twelve, and where only within the last few years had they succeeded in increasing one peal of eight to ten. For those who came from such an out of the way part of the country, to find themselves at such a gathering as that was a great experience. If was also a great experience to go into the London towers, and by the good fellowship, which was such a marked characteristic of the College Youths, to get a little insight into ringing the higher methods and on the ligher numbers of bells.

the higher numbers of bells. Mr. A. P. Smith, of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, whose name was also coupled with the toast, said the College Youths always made visitors welcome. Personally he had had the privilege of ringing at St. Paul's Cathedral on many occasions, and it was a neal. Positive pleasure to hear the ringing as it was done at St. Paul's Sunday after Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire a Sunday—not on specially big occasions, but every Sunday and twire college Youths for keeping it up so religiously and insisting on every member who aspired to become a member of the Cathedral baud reaching of the College Youths at their house of refreshment, and he afterwards described them as good, stendy smokers. Had he been there that night he would have had no reason to change his offician (haughter), and he might have added that they were good stendy eaters (humbter). Moreover, he might have gone further and said they were good stendy drinkers (laughter). But what was more to the point was that they were good stendy strikers (hear, hear). It was for that reason the College Youths had prospered, and should continue to prosper (applause).

CITY CHURCHES: REASONABLE SCHEME AFOOT.

Mr. W. D. Smith proposed ' The Visitors,' and referring to the presence of the son of Sir John Stainer (late organist of St. Paul's Cathedral), said Sir John was in a very great measure responsible for setting the twelve bells put into St. Paul's. He worked very hard to get the bells into the tower, and was a great admirer of them. He was an hon, member of the College Youths. They also had with them the Rector of St. Clement Danes, to whose labours for the restoration of his bells they as ringers were so much indebted. They also Continued on page 582.

much appreciated their presence, which they looked upon as a great encouragement. The Rev. J. H. Ellison (St. Michael's), who replied, referred to the fact that Mr. E. Horrex, although 82 years of age, was still tower-keeper at his church, and the church authorities and the ringors held him in high regard and respect (applause). At St. Michael's they were auxious to do all they could to consult the comfort and con-venience of the ringers, and he felt more and more that their Church could not get on without its ringers, for they were as important as any other body of people connected with the services. The question of the city churches had been mentioned by the Master, and he need hardly say how profoundly he felt with the speaker when he said he hoped ringers would rally round any reasonable scheme for preserv-ing those churches. A great deal of thought find been given to the matter, and he believed a reasonable scheme was afoot by which they would be able to keep (hese clurches (applause). If that was the case, he hoped all ringers would do their best to rally round the scheme. One of the saddest things about the report of the Commis-sion was, he thought, their advice that in certain cases—one was that of his own church—the clurch should be pulled down and only the towar left. He did not think many ringers would care to go ringing at a tower where the church had been taken away (hear, hear). One of their bells hore the inscription: 'To prayers we call St. Michael's people all.' If they pulled down the church they should take down that bell, or at all events remove the inscription (applause). With regard to the Master's appeal to the derry to get to know how to ring, he (the speaker) when ho was at Kensington, just learnt to ring a bell in call chances, and he had always been ashamed of himwith regard to the master's appear to the energy to get to know how to ring, he (the speaker) when he was at Kensington, just learnt to ring a bell in call changes, and he had always been ashamed of him-self that he had not gone further with it, for the more he heard the bells the more it seemed to him a perfectly wonderful art (applauso). Mr. Albert Walker submitted 'The Press,' and urged the vital im-portance to the Exercise of maintaining a paper devoted to its in-terests. He appealed to all ringers for a wider support of 'The cal bonours. Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, having thanked the company for their warm-heurted reception, referred to the difficulties which still faced the pro-duction of a journal devoted to the interests of a comparatively limited circle, and appealed to ringers throughout the country to use their best efforts to extend the sale of the paper. The journal had been carried on throughout the dark days of the war in the interests of the Exercise, without pecuniary gain, and it was now up to the Exer-cise to see that it was re-established in such a position as to relieve him from anxiety as to its forture (applause). him from anxiety as to its future (applause).

him from anxiety as to its future (applause). The musical programme was very enjoyable. In addition to the course of Stedman Cinques previously referred to, Mr. Percy Judd sang 'The Bell Ringer,' and Mr. W. H. Judd fairly 'brought down the house ' with his 'Ringing Reminiscences,' which was composed of verses of a topical nature. He had to give an encore. Mr. H. W. J. Jeffries rendered ' 1'll sing thee songs of Araby,' Mr. Francis Ciark gave handbell solos, with bells arranged upon a table, and Mr. Gyrif Johnston brought the programme to a close with selections tapped upon handbells. The exceedingly pleasant evening terminated with a vote of thanks to the accompanist and 'Auld Lang Syne.'

DEVON GUILD.

DEVON GUILD. The annual meeting of the Exeter District Branch of the Devou Guild was held at St. Sidwell's Institute, Exeter, on October 30th, preceded by a tea, at which about 36 members, including the Rev. E. S. Powell (hon, secretary of the Guild) and the Rev. H. Clarke (Clyst Honiton), were present. The report showed steady progress, and the revival of ringing with the bands in union, with an addition of three associate bands joining during the year and proving that the older bands helping neighbouring towers had increased the strength of the branch.—A very creditable balance in the hands of the treasurer was also reported. The officers were elected as follows: Mr. E. Shepherd (chairman), Mr. W. J. Southwood, secretary and treasurer, with the assistance of Mr. Joke, Mr. F. J. Davey having resigned the secretaryship. The next quarterly meeting is to be held at Tonsham, in January. Various towers were visited by the bands, and some very good ring-ing accomplished.

THE ADVANTAGES OF RINGING.

One of the advantages which bell ringing has over most other forms of exercise is that there appears to be no limit to the age at which one may indulge in it. This has been commented upon many times, but it is once more called to mind by the fact that Mr. William Rock Small, one of the pillars of ringing in the Midlands, celebrated his eighty-first birthday by taking part in a peal. Even this is not a record, for we know that Mr. Ted Hornex, the 'father ' of the College Youths, rang a peal at an age more advanced by a year. Then, too, Mr. John Heathorn, of Guildford, probably the oldest living ringer, who is now close upon a hundred, was able to ring in a short touch when well over ninety. Compared with such as these, a peal ringer anywhere under the age of seventy is a mere youth; but nevertheless such a performance as that accomplished by Mr. James George last Saturday, when he scored his one hundredth peal of Stedman Cinques by ringing the 41 cwt. tenor at St. Michael's, Cornhill, is no mean achievement. Many ringers have lived to a ripe old age, but we imagine there are few who have rung a bell of that weight to a peal at Mr. George's age.

Going to the other end of the scale, bell ringing can be practised by mere boys, and although it is not wise that youth should be tried beyond its strength, yet light bells that go well offer no obstacle to peal ringing by ringers of twelve years and upwards. The advance of the young people is an evolution of recent years, for in the days of our fathers the facilities given to youth were very limited. Indeed, it was the privilege of beginners in those days to watch others practise. To-day every effort is made to being out all those who show any aptitude for the art, and a striking example of what youth may now do is the performance of Robert Fardon, the son of a ringer, whose first peal was the Stedman Cinques above referred to.

Change ringing, once it takes a grip of a man, sticks to him for the rest of his days. He may give it up for a time, but unless circumstances have placed him out of reach of bells—and that is very difficult in this country scener or later they call him back to the belfry. Our art is one of remarkable faseination. Many who struggle with the elements give it up in despair, but there are few men who, once they have mastered some of its intricacies and become interested in its theory and practice, do not become wedded to it for all time. As a physical and mental exercise there is no pastime to excel it, age is no barrier, and it is always full of new interests to those who will seek them. The present season is the most suitable for securing new recruits to fill the gaps Continued on page 586. 586

A short business meeting was hold in the Church House, Mr. W. Drew, of Kelsals, presiding .-- One performing member and one proba-tioner were elected.

As these gatherings seem to be very popular it was decided that the next meeting be held at Peasesshall in the early spring.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar of Rendham and the Rector of Sweffling for the use of the bells brought a very successful meeting to a eloce.

THE DOUBLE-HANDED LONDON.

Mr. W. Keeble writes to congratulate the brothers Gofton upon their success in ringing the double-handed poal of London Surprise. 100 PEALS OF STEDMAN CINQUES MR. JAMES GEORGE'S BIRTHDAY OFLEBRATION.

Sixty-seven years young on Saturday last, Mr. James George, of Birmiagham, fittingly celebrated the event by ringing at St. Michael's. Cornhill, his one hundredith peal of Steaman Cinques. This is a memorable performance, and the ringers who have done this can be counted on the fingers of one hand. The peal was rung under the auspices of the Middlesex Association, and another noteworthy feature was the fact that it was the first attempt for a peal of any kind by Robert A. Fardon, the 15-year-old son of Mr. George R. Fardon, who also took part in the ringing, and who, naturally, had good reason to be broud of his eon's achievement. After the peal, the band were entertained to dinner by Mr. George at the Three Nuns Hotel, Aldgate: the company also including Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goldsmith and Miss Goldsmith (of Woking), and Mr. E. Mories, the steeplekeepor of St. Michgelb, Mr. A. P. Smith (At. Martin', Guild, Birmingham) and Mr. A. H. Publing (Guildford) were unfortunately prevented from attending. The party enjoyed a most oxcellent meal, under the genial chairmanship of their host, and during the evening a telegram was received from Wednesbury convering acegratulations to Mr. George, and announcing the success of a hirthday weal in that tower. Mr. C. T. Coles (kon. secretary of the Middlesser Association) pro-posed the ' Health of Mr. sames George.' and on behalf of the company, estended to him hearty congratulations upon his 67th birthday, and wished him 'many happy returns.' They all knew what Mr. George had done in his ringing career, and he had that night added further to his laurole by ringing his one hundredth peal of Stedman Cinques—a performance of which he might be justifiably proud. Mr Coles also congratulated Mr. R. Fardon upon having rung for his fir-peal, a peal of Stedman Cinques. He had rung excellently, and a though he had achieved success with the Middlesex Association, great eredit was due to the College Youths who had brought him out. The Horres. were, he added, very pleased to see with them that night Mr. to whom they were indebted for the excellent ' go ' of the bells.

The toast was heartily drunk, and Mr. George, in replying, specially thanked Mr. Horrex for his kindness. He said the tenor did go really splendidly, and it made his job a really simple one. He was sure he could have rung it for 20 hours (laughter and applause). Mr. George proceeded that he was very pleased to see Mrs. and Miss Goldsmith with them, and all the rest of the company, and he thanked them 'or gathering to celebrate his 100th Deal of Stedman Cinques. He was very glad to say the pent at Wednesbury had also been successful, and he believed other peals were being attempted elsewhere, including one at Lewes, Sussex. He thanked Mr. Pye for his great kindness in acranging and calling the peaket. Cornhill. They had rung a great many peaks together, and he hoped they would ring a great many more (nopplause). That was his (Mr. George's) 681st peak but he had got his peak book ready for 3,000, and he hoped he would ring them (laughter). He did not feel a hit like being in his declining hard integrater, and while many men were old at fifty, it did not seen this him that he would be old at 120 (laughter). He really felt as if he and that he would be old at 120 (langhter). He had now runs 114 twelve hell wore just starting life (hear, hear). He had now runs 114 twelve hell peals, and he thought he held a record for the number of towers he had rung twelve bell neals in. He did not beat Mr. William Pyc by many, but he believed he was two or three ahead. He congratulated Mr. Fardon, junr., upon his first peal being a peal of Cinques, and hoped he would ring as many twelve bell peaks as he (the speaker) had. Mr. George added that he loved bells, he loved peal ringing, and he hoped to live another fifty years to ring them (laughter and applause).

Mr. Horrex acknowledged the thanks that had been accorded him. Since he had been steeplakeeper at St. Michael's he had done his best to have the bells go as well as possible. It did not matter who the band was that came there they would always find it the same a_s long a_s he was steeplekeeper (applause). He was afraid, however, he would not be steeplekeeper when Mr. George rang his 200th peal of Stedman Cinques (laughter).

If the company present boasted of some excellent ringers, they were extremely shy of displaying their powers as vocalists, and the veteran of 82 years had to give the lead. Mr. George Fardon also sang, and one of the guests read some topical verse dealing with the occasion, which caused considerable amusement.

The happy proceedings terminated at eleven o'clock, with a cordial vote of thanks to Mr. George for his kind hospitality.

The bicthday was also celebrated at Wednesbury, Staffs, where it had been proposed to attempt a special composition of 5067 Stedman Caters. Owing, however, to meeting short, Triples had to be rung Arrangements had previously been made by Mr. George to entertain the band after the peal, and they enjoyed a sumptuous meal at the ringers' hotel. Mr. George's health was drunk, and a pleasant evening spent.

At Southover, Lewes, a peal of Grandsire Caters, composed by Mr George, was rung for the event, and two handbell peaks carlier in the week at Guildford, in which Mr. George participated, were also in connection with his birthday calebration.

Mr. George's 12-bell peaks number 114 out of his total of 681, and are made up as follows:

Grandsire Cinques Stedman Cinques Grandsire Maximus Kent Treble Bob Ma Forward Maximu _s	ximus	3 85 1 9	Handbells	Total. 3 100 1 9 1

The Treble Bob Maximus includes the 12.240 record at Ashton-under-Lyne in 8 hours and 39 minutes, in which Mr. George rang the tonor;

Lync in 8 hours and 39 minutes, in which Mr. George rang the tonor; indeed he has been found at the heavy end in most of these peak. No adher ringer has rung twelve bell peaks in so many towers as Mr. George, and the interesting hist of 22 is as follows:— St. Michael and All Angels. Ashton-ander-Lyne: St. Martin, Birmingham: St. Mary Redslifte, Bristol; Waterloo Tower, Quez Park; St. Mary's, Cathedral, Cholmsford; St. John the Baptist, Halffarz; St. Mary's-Tower, Lyswick; St. Michael, Comhill; St. Giles, Gripple-sate, St. Mary-le-Bow, Cheapside: St. Saviour, South-wark: St. Leonard, Shoreditch, Londoz; St. Peter Man-eroft, Norwich; Chuist Church Cathedral, Orford; St. Mary, Painswick; St. Chust Church Cathedral, Orford; St. eroft, Norwich; Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford; St. Mary, Painswick: St. Chad. MEMORIAL BELLS AT EXHALL.

AN ABMISTICE DAY DEDICATION.

AN ARMISTICE DAY DEDICATION. On Thursday, Nov. 11th (Armistice Day), the Lord Bishop of Coventry dedicated, at the Church of St. Giles', three new bells which have been added to make a peal of six, as a memorial to the thirty-three men of the parish, who fell in the war. The proceedings began with the processional bymn, ' In tokan that thou shalt not fear.' When the choir and clergy had reached their stalls, the Vicar (the Rev. C. Simmonds) recited the prayers. The 130th Fsalm was sunf and after the lesson the names of the thirty-three heroes were read by the Vicar, the congreation standing meanwhile. The choir anti-clergy then proceeded to the belfry, where the Bishop dedicated the new bells. Three buglers then sounded the ' Last Post ' and the 'Reveille.' The bells were raised in peal by the ringers of All Saints'. Allesley, and during the hymn, ' O God, our help in ages past,' the choir and clergy returned to the chancel. The Bishop delivered a short address, and at the conclusion of the service 120 Grandsine Doubles was rung: G. Gardner I, H. Summers 2, J. H. White 3, F. Gardner 4, J. Taylor (conductor) 5, C. Aylett 6. Short louches of Bol-Minor and Kent Treble Bob were brought round, and in the evening a poal of Bob Minor was rung by the same band. The new bells gave satisfaction to all who head them. The work has been carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and the tone and ' go ' reflects great credit upon the firm.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Lewisham District was held at St. Nicholas', Deptford, where the bells and those at St. Alfege, Greenwich, were at the disposal of the members, and touches on the eight and ten in various methods were accomplished.

Service was held at St. Nicholas' Church, and about sixty were present. The Rev. T. W. Pitman (Vicar) officiated, Mr. F. W. Thornton road the lesson, and the organist and a good sprinking of the choir being present, the service was a very bright one. — The Vicar gave an address, previous to which he extended to the members a hearty welcome to St. Nicholas.

hearty welcome to St. Nicholas. After the service, the members adjourned to Christ Church Hall, where the Vicar and Mrs. Pitman had prepared a sumptuous tea, and a numerous band of ladies were present to look after the wants of the guests. At the conclusion of the tea, the Vicar thanked the ladies for their kindness, and called on Mr. G. Daynes, as foreman of the tower, to make a presentation from the ringers to one of the choristers for improvements carried out in the tower. This Mr. Daynes did briefly, and the gift was acknowledged by the recipient equally briefly, the Vicar afterwards saving he thought it must have been arranged between them as to which could say the least. The business meeting followed in the adjoining room, the Vicar

The business meeting followed in the adjoining room, the Vicar presiding. Four new members were elected, and one election in the tower previous to a peal confirmed .- Dartford was selected as the place of the quarterly meeting in January. The District Secretary read his annual report, in which he stated that the meetings had been well attended. Forty-one peals had been rung, viz.: Grandsire Triples 21, Stednan Triples 7, Union Triples 3, Bob Major 2, College Major I, Kent Treble Major 5, Double Nor-wich Major 1, and Stedman Caters 1. He thought it a great pity that peals in the higher methods were not rung, as there were the men in the district who could do it. The report was accepted.

Mr. T. Groombridge, schr., was again unanimously re-elected dis-trict secretary.—Two district representatives had to be elected this year, and the following were nominated: Mr. W. J. Jeffries, the re-tring representative, and Messrs, I. Emery and J. Wheadon. On a show of hands, Messis, Jeffries and Emery were declared duly elected Mr. Thornton asked if any information could be given with regard to the war memorial. The District Secretary said he was not in a posi-tion to do so at that time, but a committee meeting was to be hold, and it might be possible at the next meeting to make a statement. He suggested that a silver collection to made towards the fund; and this being approved a sum of ± 2 11s. 3d. resulted.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for the use of the Vicar and Mrs. Fitman for providing such a splendid repast; to the vicar and Mrs. Fitman for providing such a splendid repast; to the organist, choir, and Mr. G. H. Daynes for their services, and to the Vicar of Greenwich for the use of the bells.—Rev. T. W. Pitman re-plied, and this concluded the business. The tower was again visited afterwards.

WESTERN BRANCH ANNUAL MEETING.

A very successful meeting of the Western Branch was held at Malvern Link. The Vicar (the Rev. A. Day) conducted the ringers' service, and, in the course of an address, mentioned that the tower of his church had been built exactly 21 years. The church tower, he wild use not a mere symbol it had its sneaking voice, the bells. The aid, was not a mere symbol, it had its speaking vorce, the bells. The said, was not a mere symbol, it had its speaking vorce, the bells. The silver trumpets of the Old Testament had given place to the bells of the churches of the New Covenant. Coming to the position of the ringers, the Vicar asked: 'Is your office in the bellry to amuse yourselves upon a set of musical instruments not very easy to control? a put it much higher. I claim the bolls for Christ, and I claim for you a ministry—a lowly ministry if you will—in the ringing of the bells. Reverence your office, discan it not, look up to it, and it shall uplift

After the service, the Vicar and ringers proceeded to the beilfry, where a peal board was unveiled recording a peal of Double Norwich Major rung by the local band, the Vicar remarking that it would be a great incentive to others.—A course of the same method was then rung by the same band, standing in the same order. After tea, at which about 40 were present, the business meeting was held, the Vicar presiding, supported by the Rev. F. C. Copeland, Rector of Madresfield.

It was decided to attempt the quarterly peal at Malvern Link, Mr. R G. Knowles to be the conductor, and to hold the next quarterly meeting at Hallow. Mr. W. O. Jones was elected Ringing Master; Mr. R. G. Knowles was re-elected secretary, and Mr. W. Page appointed to represent the branch on the Central Committee.

After votes of thanks the ringers returned to the tower, where the bells were rung to several methods, including Grandsire Doubles and Cambridge Surprise Major. A collection resulted in 21 shillings being sent to the treasurer of the Ringers' Memorial Window Fund.

PROPOSED POWERS OF CHURCH COUNCILS.

In a letter in another column Canon Baker, of Dunstable, points out the powers which the National Assemby of the Church of England proposes to confer upon Parochial Church Councils. These powers include the right, in con-junction with the Incumbent, 'to appoint and dismiss the organist, parish clerk, bellringers, and sexton, or any persons performing or assisting to perform the duties thereof, and to determine the salaries and conditions of tenure of their offices.' Canon Baker points out further that these proposals have passed the 'second reading' stage of the Assembly, and when that body meets again in February next the 'Revision' or, as its Parliamentary equivalent would be called, 'Committee stage' will be taken. That stage, as everyone knows, is generally the last opportunity for detailed amendment that presents itself, and if the clause referred to is added to the measure on that occasion as it stands, then, for good or ill, the Parochial Church Councils will have the controlling voice over the ringers in every parish, a control which not only applies to appointment and dismissal, but, as the terms include, 'the conditions of tenure of their offices,' will probably direct the occasions when the ringers will be allowed to ring the bells.

It is in this respect that Canon Baker raises a warning note, and invites ringers, who wish to express an opinion on the clause, or who desire any amendment to it, to communicate with him. Canon Baker is the only member of the Central Council who is a member of the National Assembly, and he does the Exercise a great service in thus opportunely calling attention to the matter. The question is eminently one which the Central Council should deal with, but, of course, the Council will not meet again until the terms of the measure are settled and it will be too late to act. We think, however, that the Standing Committee of the Council should meet specially to discuss this vital question, and their decision would immeasurably strengthen Canon Baker's hands when the clause comes up for discussion in the Assembly. Reasoned personal opinions will help the Canon, but the voice of the Central Council's Executive would be of real weight. The subject is urgent and fraught with issues of the greatest importance to the Exercise. It is, therefore, one which demands a meeting of the Committee, and not a long-drawn-out discussion by correspondence. Why, as Canon Baker points out, the measure should differentiate between the ringers and the choir is difficult to see, and if it is felt that the proposal is not in the interests of the art of change ringing, here is strong ground for arguing for the omission of bell ringers (Continued on page 598.)

BELFRY GOSSIP.

To-morrow is the date of the meeting of the Lancashire Association at Manchester Town Hall, and not the 4th inst., as advertised last week.

Mr. Matthew Ellsmore, of 7, Fearon Road, Portsmouth, asks if any ringer will be good enough to tell him if there are any peaks of bells in Sydney, Australia, and will give the number of bells, and where?

in Sydney, Australia, and will give the number of bells, and were' As an old ringer, and a 'Gunberland' for the past thirty-eight years, he would be extremely obliged for any information. The advantage of striking while the iron's hot applies in ringing as in other pursuits. The Gofton family have scored their third peal of London Surprise on handbells, within about a mouth, and the third is almost as memorable as the first, for the trebles have been rung by Richard A. Gofton before he reached the age of 17. This young ringer has a great fubure before him. We hear that Mr. John Carter is shortly taking up his residence in London.

Mr. Clement Gleun, who was hon secretary of the Yorkshire sociation before joining H.M. Forces, is settling down in France to a time.

THE FUTURE OF BELL RINGERS.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY'S PROPOSAL.

To the Rditor. To the Rditor. Sir,—At the meeting of the National Assembly of the Church of England, held at the Church House, Westminster, on November 15th, the draft measure for conferring powers on Parochial Church Councils passed the stage of 'general approval' (corresponding, roughly, to' the second reading stage in Parliament), and will come up for the stage of revision (or committee stage) in February next. Clause 5 (iii) of the measure works.

Clause 6 (iii.) of the measure provides that ' The Council of every Clause 6 (iii.) of the measure provides that 'The Colucil of every parish shall have power, in conjunction with the incumbent, to appoint and dismiss the organist, parish clerk, bell ringers and soxion or any persons performing or assisting to perform the duties thereof, and to determine the salaries and conditions of tenure of their offices.' I think that ringing societies and ringers generally should consider carefully the effect of this clause. Two questions suggest themselves

(1) Why should the appointment of ringers be placed under the Council if that of the choir is not? (2) Is it not probable that if the Council joins in the appointment and payment of the ringers, it will not be long before it claims a voice in deciding when the bells shall be rung? Some of us know parishes where peal ringing and dven weekly practices might not long survive. As I believe that I am the only ringer who is a member of the National Assembly—at any rate the only member of the Central Council—I shall be glad if ringers who wish to express opinious on this clause, or who desire that any amendment to it should be put down for discussion will correspond with me. Perhaps I ought to add that I want to look at this clause simply as it is likely to affect the well-being of change ringing, and not in the least as it limits my anteoratic powers as a parson.—Yours faithfully Dunstable Rectory, Beds. ESSEX ASSOCIATION

S.E. DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.

S.E. DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the South-Eastern Division of the Essex Association was held at Springfield on Saturday, Nov. 27th. A short service was held at the Parish Church, the Rector (the Rev. F. S. Paynter) officiating, gave an excellent address. The ringers ad-journed to the vestry hall for ten, about 30 members sitting down. At the business meeting, which followed, the Rector presided, and was elected an honorary member.—Mr. Lincoln (Master) and Mr. F. Timson (secretary) were re-elected. Six probationary members from Brentwood were elected ringing members, and Calleywood was selected for the next place of meeting. Mr. Kirton urged the necessity for furthering the circulation of 'The Ringing World,' pointing out that it was the only thing that kept ringers from far and near in touch with one another," and if this valuable paper was discontinued another one would not he forthcoming.

Mr. W. Lincoln proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, etc.; also the organist and the choir. - The for the fise of the bolls, etc.; also the organist and the choir. — The Rector, in responding, said he was pleased to welcome the association to Springfield, and realised the good work it was doing. The ringers again visited the tower, and several members adjourned to the Cathedral for 10 and 12 bell ringing. The towers of Boreham, Broomfield, Bentley, Chelmsford, Maldon, Writtle, Rettendon, Galley-wood, Goldhanger, and the local company, were represented.

THE RINGING WORLD.

PAYING FOR PEALS.

SOME OF OUR READERS' VIEWS.

In response to the invitation in a previous issue we have received a number of expressions of opinion upon the question of charging for the insertion of peaks as means of helping to meet the present heavy cost of producing 'The Ringing World.' Throughout all the letters runs a most kindly feeling towards the journal and a keen de-sire for an increased support, and we very, much appreciate these expressions of goodwill. As will be seen, views on the particular ques-tion at issue are varied.

At a meeting of the Northern Division of the Essex Association, at Halstead, on Saturday, Mr. J. H. Shepherd called attention to Mr. W. A. Cave's letter in the current issue of 'The Ringing World.'-A discussion followed, and the general wish expressed was that the sug gestion to make a charge for peals was a reasonable one, and would meet with general support.

The Master pointed out the importance of retaining the paper, and especially in the interest of their own association, reminding the meeting that the only notification members had of district meetings was the one published in 'The Ringing World,' and the cost of post-age which would be entailed if notices had to be printed and sent (every tower. He also pressed for members individually to give their support by each taking a copy every week rather than adopting the custom that too frequently prevailed of one taking one copy for each tower. He reminded them that whatever suggestions were put into practice it behoved them each to do their best to increase the circulation

Mr. G. W. Cartmel, hon, secretary of the Hertford County Association, writes :- I fully agree with your remarks in the Editorial column affords intenso interest to all ringers who take an intelligent delight this in their hobby. Even a small charge would jeopardise insertion, and the levy would fall only upon those who rang the peals, whilst the majority of ringers would be dobarred from helping. The Ringing World ' if the method was adopted. To my mind the peal list is the most interesting part of the paper, and appeals to the interest and imagination of everyone. It recalls to one's memory friendship tormed in years past, and keeps u_s in touch with the general progress being

The Ringing World 'n ceds the support of the whole of the Exer-cise. The idea that one paper is sufficient for a band should be scrapped, and every ringer should feel it his or her duty to purchase the weekly copy, an ideal state which should not be impossible to at-tain. In the meantime I would suggest that support should come through the association, either by a levy or a penny or twopence per of membership, or a voluntary fee voted from the funds. head would occasion no hardships, and would permit of all ringers having a share in keeping their Daper going. It is essential that if change ringing is to continue to flourish, we must have a journal, and the quicker we ease the mind of our Editor the better. By all means do something, get into a quick six, and cheer him by a thousand new subscribers in the New Year. I can anticipate your smile, Mr. Editor subscribers in the New Year. I can anticipate your smile, for. Editor Mr. J. R. Jerram, of Salisbury: You ask for suggestions re charge for publishing peaks. Might I suggest that they be published in para graph style (as with touches) free: but that if they are displayed (like peak hourds) the charge suggested should be made. The probability is that, if this rule were made, all, or nearly all, would prefer to pay the fee; and at the same time you would ensure a record of all peaks. Might I also suggest that our bell founding friends, and other advertions would be predicted by the same time you would ensure a record of all peaks.tisers, should be content with less space for advertisements, paying, of course, the same fees for them as heretofore. Mr. F. M. Mitchell (Rochester District secretary, Kent Association):-

certainly place this matter on the agenda at our next district meeting, and do my utmost to get a resolution passed, as knowing the difficul-tics under which you labour at present—I am in the trade myself— I can sympathise with you, and you are certainly to be congratulated for 'carrying on 'as you are. Mr. A. W. Osborne (Reading):-I think it is a splendid idea, and one that would held the finances of 'The Einging World.' I am sure no ringing member of our society would mind paying oven 3d, each; and when quarter-peals or touches are sent they would not mind, say, 2d each.

Mr. A. H. Pulling (Guildford) :- I have thought for a long time some societies the booking fees and steepleage, in addition to the postage in arranging peals, it would make some of them a dear job. You want, if possible, to strike a happy medium whereby you will still get all the peals that are rung, and also increase your own night defeat the ends in view. 'Youthful Ringer':-As Mr. Cave remarks, the unfortunate part about our valuable paper is that at present it contains very few items of interest to young ringers who have just entered the stage of change ringers. Of course, sir, as most ringers readily admit, your position regarding this is blameless; but again, how encouraging it is for ringers to see in print their names starred with such phrases as:-'First 500,' 'First quarter-peal as conductor,' etc., especially knowing that the journal is circulated between some few thousand ringers. R garding the proposal to collect from each ringer the sum of twopence or whatever it may be after accomplishing a peal, I do not think this method of increasing revenue would be fruitless. As every peal ringer knows that each peal that is recorded takes up one-tenth valuable page, I do not believe they would begrudge at least twopence each ringer. Again, their small outlay would eventually mean that through them they would be helping the less fortunate ringer and learner to have their performances, however small, recorded in 'The Ringing World.' There are no reforms or new suggestions that materialise directly they are launched, but I feel sure that with wholethe bearted support given by all classes of ringers to whatever decision the Editor, through his readers, thinks beneficial to the future wel-fare of 'The Ringing World,' the circulation, we hope, would in-crease, with the ultimate result of having a journal worthy of our art.

To the Editor. Dear Sir,-Mr. Cave's suggestion that peals which have been pub-lished in 'The Ringing World ' should occupy one line only in associa tion report, appears a most admirable one. But why not go a steep tion report, appears a most admirable one. But why not go a step further? Peals, as commonly printed in these reports, cost an associa-tion 3s. or 4s. each to print (I am taking Mr. Cave's figures). If you reakon 40 peals as a fair average for a year, the cost to an associa-tion will be from 25 to £8. Most of that money would be saved 1 Mr. Cave's suggestion were adopted. Out of the money thus saved, why should not an association make an annual payment to 'The Ringing World ' (say, two to four guineas, according to the size of the association), on the understanding that all peals rung for the association he inserted frody as hitherto? Yon, Sir, would gain financially, so would the associations, and there would be no need for the rather irritating collecting of two moneos proposed in Mr. Cave's manuality, so would the associations, and there would be no need for the rather irritating collecting of twopeness proposed in Mr. Cave's letter. If the above plan were followed, I would suffgest that every peal rung for an association should be sent for publication through the secretary of that association. This would be advantageous in two ways: it would help to prevent the publication of false peals, or peals to which reasonable and well-grounded objection could be taken, and all peals published would have an official sanction, which at present is backing. A further result result he to taken the taken and is lacking. A further result would be to strengthen the associations; peal ringers would not stand aloof, as is now sometimes the case, it they saw that membership really, meant something.—Yours failhfully. St. Philip's Vicarase, Bristol. MICHAEL E. THOROLD. P.S.—At 2d. per head per peal (reckoning eight bells as the average number) it would require 32 peals to reach the sum of two guineas, 48 to reach three guineas, and 63 to reach four guineas.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD. NEW SERVICE FORM ADOPTED.

The Horeford Diocesan Guild have recently adopted a special form of Guild Service, prepared by the hon! secretary (the Rev. G. W. Turner) from an order of service used in the Winchester Guild, and approved by the Bishop of Hereford. The new form was used for the approved by the Bishop of Hereford. The new form was used for the the first time at a Hereford district meeting at Lugwardine, and was much appreciated. The service was conducted by the Vicar, who gave a suitable address. Ringing took place both in the afternoon and evening, and at the business meeting which followed tea, the Vicar (Prebendary C. E. Warner) presided, and was supported by the Gen. Secretary (the Rev. G. W. Turner) and Mr. C. Edwards (District Secretary).

Secretary). In the course of the business, Mr. Edwards said the Guild was passing through a great crisis so far as peal ringing was concerned. It was uphill work learning to ring, and there were so many other attractions nowadays that it was difficult to keep young fellows to the towers. Later in the meeting, however, Mr. Edwards point out that under their new arrangements the holding of quarterly meet-ings such as they had that day was bound to be of value in stimulating interest, for it brought members together and gave them the opportunity of expressing their views and airing any grievances. Despite difficultics he had every faith in the continuance of the Guild.

Guild. The Secretary gave a short resume of the quarter's work, and mentioned that when they wont to Much Dewehurch for combined practice they found some of the bells unringable, but since then he had, with the help of the village blacksmith, put them right. It was decided to hold the December combined practice at Pipe-cum. Lyde on the first Saturday in December, and that for January at Holmer. It was also decided that Burghill be selected for another attempt for the quarterly peal, with Mr. Williams as conductor, and that the annual meeting be field in Hereford on the first Saturday in February. in February.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

Fine woather favoured the members of this association on the oc-Fine woather favoured the memoers of this association of the oc-casion of their first visit to Barlborough, and there was a representa-tive gathering of members of the association, and from kindred socie ties, the following towrrs were represented: Auston, Harthill, Killa-marsh, Treeton, Eckington, Staveley, Norton, Cuckney, Worksop, whilst the local company turned up with a full hand. A considerable amount of ringing was done, the methods rung including Plain Bob, Outcord and Kart Tradie Rep. Cambridge, Loudon, and Cartisies Sur Oxford and Kent Troble Bob, Cambridge, London and Carlisle Sur prise, and the striking of most of these touches and 720's were excel-lent. After tea, the Rector (the Rev. J. D. Griffiths) met the ringers in the vestry, and presided over the business meeting. The following new members were elected: The Rev. J. D. Griffiths, hon. member-Messrs. W. Kennan, P. Morris and R. Reece, of Balboro', performing members.—The next meeting was arranged for Shireoaks early in the Now Year.

The Rev. J. D. Griffiths, in the course of a most interesting address, said how heartily he welcomed the ringers of North Notts to Barlboro' for the first time. Prior to 1914 there was only a ring of five bells in the tower, but a new treble had been added, by dint of hard work and assiduons perseverance, to make a ring of six, and he welcomed the choice of the Barlboro' ringers to become affiliated to the association. He spoke of the growth of bell ringing in the early days in this country, and of its predominance in our eastern and south-eastern which the art came. He thought it was very creditable of bell ringers in these days to plod on with their work when they had not rugers in these days to plot on whit their work when they had bell the interest of the public to support them. Unfortunately bell ring-ing was not regarded with enthusiasm by the country. Ho did not know why, for it was a most beautiful art. It gave one the greatest delight in these times to hear the sound of a beautiful peal of church bells. It was the harder to go on with it in the midst of such cool-ness. It seemed as though a nation could only have one enthusiasm in such as are are be heard would scon come when hell ring. ness. It seemed as though a halfon could only have one ensutistant in such an age. The time, he hoped, would soon come when bell ring-ing would come to its own again. Men boasted of their own genera-tion, and took it for granted that they were more advanced than those of a former one. We had, however, lost some things in which our ancestors were very proficient, and he hoped it would not be so with the noble art of bell ringing, but that it would be handed down to perturb out that one while the source the handed for our

with the noble art of bell ringing, but that it would be handed down to posterity, and that our children's children would be grateful for our labour, our zeal and devotion. Let them then hope that the art of change ringing would flourish and survive all contingencies. At the conclusion of the address Mr. II. Haigh proposed, and ex-Sergt. W. H. Johnson, V.C., seconded, a hearty vote of thanks to the Rev. J. D. Griffiths for the use of the bells, presiding over the meet-ing, and for his most interesting and instructive address, and this we convide with accompanies. was carried with acclamation .- The Rector, in reply, said there would always be a hearty welcome at Barlhoro' awaiting them.—A discussion took place with regard to the late Rev. F. E. Robinson's book. ' Amongst the Bells,' and it was suggested that each tower in the association should purchase a copy.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD GUILDFORD DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the Guildford District of the Wincheste Guild was held on Saturday, November 20th, at Guildford, under something like pre-war conditions. About 100 sat down to tea at Brett's Restaurant. address was given. About 100 sat down to tea at Brett's Restaurant, the Mayor (Alderman G. W. Franks), wearing his chain of office, being in the chair. The company included the Rural Dean (Canon Kirwan), Canon Cooke-Yarborough, Canon Coleridge, Rev. Sir J. C. W. Herschei, Bart. (general hon. secretary of the Association), Mrs. Bruce, of Wor-plesdon, and a largo number of lady ringers. The election of officers resulted in the following appointments: Chairman of committee, Mr. Melville; Ringing Master, Mr. Hazelden; auditor, Mr. W. H. Tunnell; secretary, Mr. John J. The social was under the able management of Mr. A. H. Pulling, who mearthed a considerable amount of talent in songs, recitations and piano selections from those present. The handbells were also in evidence, and the ringing included a course of Grandsire Cinques-the first by the district.—Canon Coleridge contributed some stories and Sir John Herschel (general secretary) said the offertory to the Guild Memorial at the service amounted to £2 10s., and he gently chided he hearers on the fact that a neighbouring district of much smaller size had given nearly double the amount that that district had yet done and urged them to make up for lost time.

Many ringers will be surprised to read that John Carter has just rung the tenor to his first peal of Stedman—but it is not the Birming-ham wizard that is referred to; it * his namesake at Milverton.

CHURCH COUNCILS AND RINGERS.

The importance of the question raised in our last issue by Canon Baker in reference to the powers which it is proposed to give to Parochial Church Councils under the measure now before the National Assembly, has led us to ascertain the views of a number of representative men in the Exercise, and these opinions will be read with interest. They summarise, we think, the various aspects of the case from the ringer's standpoint and will help to direct consideration of the subject into the right channels. It is clear that there is a difference of opinion as to the exact extent to which the clause in question will apply to the management of the ringers and the bells, but it seems to be generally accepted by those whose views we publish that the contro to be exercised is that which is usually applied by an authority that holds the purse-strings. If this be the case, then there is reason for drawing a distinction between the paid and the voluntary ringers. Where the Parochial Council provides the funds for the payment of ringers' services there can be little ground to quarrel with the right of the Council 'to determine the salaries and conditions of tenure of their offices'; but in the vast majority of cases, the service ringers are voluntary office bearers, and, as such, it appears to us have a right to claim treatment equal to other voluntary church workers. Alderman J. S. Pritchett finds what appears to be an effective way out of the difficulty, by a suggested amendment of the clause.

Some of those who have kindly communicated their views emphasize the opinion that no hostility to change-ringing is intended in the clause, and we think most ringers will be inclined to endorse that opinion. But, as with Acts of Parliament, it is not always the intention of the draughtsman that becomes the accepted interpretation of the law, and therefore it is worth while, before it is too late, to endeavour to get incorporated into the measure, such terms as will safeguard the future of ringing. To accept the clause as it stands; would be to leave it in somewhat ambiguous terms, and, if only to strengthen Canon Baker's hands in getting it more definitely shaped and to remove some of the dangers which might arise from the present wording, it is essential that the whole subject should be carefully considered by the Standing Committee of the Central Council. There are a great many points which would arise out of the practical application of the clause as it stands, and these need to be thoroughly explored and their effects investigated before the Exercise can know exactly what its position would be under the measure. Such an exploration can only be carried out by men, fully conversant with the subject, discussing it round the table.

For that reason and because there is such a difference of opinion as to the exact intention of the clause as drafted, it is necessary that the Standing Committee, as representing the Exercise, should meet to consider, and if desirable, strengthen Canon Baker's hands with a resolution, for the National Assembly would, we hope, not lightly turn down the reasoned opinion of a representative body such as this.

CHURCH COUNCILS (POWERS) BILL.

VIEWS OF PROMINENT RINGERS

The important question raised by Canon W. W. C. Baker in our last issue in reference to the prospective position of ringers under the Church Councils (Powers) Bill is likely vitally to affect the future of ringing, and we have obtained the views of some prominent members of the Exercise whose opinions may be taken as representative of ringers generally.

It should be borne in mind that the proposal in the measure now before the National Assembly is to place in the hands of the Parachial Church Councils which are to be appointed, the power ' in conjunction with the incombent, to appoint and dismiss the organist, parish clerk, bell ringers and souton, or any persons performing or assisting to perform the dution thereof, and to determine the salaries and condition of the salaries and souton. and conditions of tenure of their offices."

BELL RINGERS SHOULD BE OMITTED.

The President of the Central Council (the Rev. A. H. F. Bougher):-Ringers are greatly indebted to Canon Baker for calling attention to the proposal now before the National Assembly, that the appoint-ment and dismissal of church bell ringers should be in the bands of Parochial Councils. The proposal seems to me both bad in itself and likely to lead to much barm. For the appointment of a single official such as an organist, or clerk, or sexton, a body like a Vestry or a Council is all right: such appointments occur comparatively seldom, and when they do occur can be considered at length with full test-monials as to fitness. It would be intolerable for this to be done in the case of every bell ringer, just as it would be in the case of every chorister. The mere summoning of a Council on every such occasion would be well-nigh impossible; whereas an incumbent, who is the natural representative of the parish, can be consulted at any moment, and surely may be trusted to decide fairly and impartially in such a matter.

matter. But further, as Canon Baker points out, the proposal, if carried, is likely to lead to harmful interference. Ringers will be regarded rather as servants (paid or unpaid) of this Council than as church workers. Difficulties and disputes about the performance of their duties may constantly be turning up. A wise incumbent, from his personal knowledge of both ringers and parishioners, and his desire for the final state percent to prote these away. for the good of all, is the best person to smooth these away. A Council, with the best of intentions, may possibly aggravate them.

The amendment required is simply that the words ' bell ringers' should be omitted from the clause. I carnestly hope that this may le done. A. H. F. BOUGHEY.

SHOULD BE RESISTED TO THE UTTERMOST.'

The Hon. Secretary of the Central Council (the Rev. C. D. r. Davies) :-

The points brought forward by the Roy. Canon Baker are very im-portant, and it is a matter for congradulation that we have on the National Assembly of the Church a member so well qualified in every possible way to speak for ringers and ringing a_S the Rector of Dunstable. It is manifest that unless the Bill, if it becomes law, i_S to stir up turmoil and confusion, not to say something far worse, there are many points in it calling for amendment, and not least amoug them the clause in question. If church bells are to continue to be used for any purpose except to make a certain amount of noise for a specified time before service, it is evident that there must be change ringinz, as no set of men worth their salt will be content with less, and change ringing necessarily entails regular practices, a brotherhood of ringers who must and will occasionally meet for purposes of comradeship and united practice. It also necessarily entails occasional peals by the home or by a visiting company. Without these things all enthusiasm and progress would be strangled. Under these circum-stances it appears to me to be a vital necessity that the control of the bells abould be vested in one responsible person. Occasions will the beins about be vested in one responsible person. Occasions will inevitably arise with which a Council or Committee could not ade-quately deal. Not only would there often not be time enough for calling them together, but in numberless ways such machinery would be too cumbersome. In 999 cases out of 1,000 the authority of the incombent has worked well and smoothly in this matter, and there does not seem to me to be any sufficient cause for upsetting the present arrangement. As things now are, no wise incumbent manages his hells ringers and ringing in annexitien to the human wishes of his his bells, ringers and ringing, in opposition to the known wishes of his devout parishioners, and with a Church Council in his parish I feel sure that every such incumbent will not fail to come to some general If posand friendly understanding with the Council on the subject. sible, he will suggest to the meeting of qualified electors the advisin Sets of any number. troubles more serious than we care to contemplate. It might seem harmless to give the Council some consultative voice in the matter, hut such devices almost invariably lead to encroachment (of which the Bill has already plenty), and are, therefore, to be excluded. After about five-and-forty years' experience as a ringer, and close on thirty as an incumbent, it seems to me best to leave things as they are. I anticely agree with you in holding that the Standing Committee of the Central Council should be summoned, and should fortify Canon Baker with their opinion, CHARLES D. P. DAVIES.

OBJECTION BETTER EXPRESSED THROUGH REPRESENTATIVE BODY.

The President of the Lancashire Association (Canon H. J. Elsee):-We are all grateful to Canon Baker for calling attention to this clause as it affects ringers. I take it that the phrase. ' in conjunction with the incumbent,' means that each party, the incumbent hy him-self as one, and the Parochial Church Council—with the incumbent as its chairman-as the other, has a separate voice in the appointment or dismissal, so that no mere majority on the Council can overrule the incumbent. Each party is in fact able to veto the other's action; both must be in agreement if any change is to be made. If this is the right interpretation of the clause, I do not see great objection to it It does not seem to alter the custody of the bells, which still remains in the hands of the incumbent alone. He, therefore, will still be the only authority to give or withhold permission for the ringing of the bells. But while this is and will still be his legal position, I do not resent the suggestion that the Council which represents the people of the parish should be able to express their opinion. In a broad sense, bells are a national possession, and ringers are trustees for the enjoyment of them by the public. We cannot rightly enjoy them all to ourselves without consideration of these outside who hear them. If there is reasonable objection to the way the bells are used in any place, it is better that this should be expressed through a representa-tive body than through individuals who may speak only for them-selves. I do not fear that the Church Councils will in general put obstacles in the way of reasonable use of the bells, whether f practice or for peal ringing. H. J. ELSEE. for

A SUGGESTED AMENDMENT.

Mr. J. S. Pritchett, Presiding Ringing Master of St. Martin's Guilt Birmingham :-

It seems to me only reasonable that the Council should have t same powers with regard to paid ringers as the Council has with regard to other paid officials of the Church, for the very good reason that it represents the people who in most cases will have to find the money. Control, however, of this kind is a very different thing from a right to say when and by whom the bells are to be rung, and this should be reserved strictly to the incumbent as heretofore. In other words, the Councils should have no power beyond that of paying or withholding payment, according as they approve or disapprove of the conditions under which the bells are rung. Ringers who expect pay ment will, of course, make their own agreements with the Council, taking care to provide against summary dismissal without good cause.

I suggest the addition to clause 6 (iii) of the following words, vided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall prevent the incumbent from permitting the organ to be played or the bells to be rune voluntarily by such person or persons at such times and under such conditions as he may think At.' J. S. PRITCHETT.

INTERESTS OF RINGING SHOULD BE PROTECTED.

Canon Papillon, formerly Hon. Secretary of the Essex Association :--

As it stands, clause 6 (in) of the draft measure concerning the As it stands, clause 6 (in) of the drait measure concerning the powers of Parochial Church Councils, now before the National Church Assembly, is open to the objection stated by Canon Baker, that it may lead to undue interference with existing facilities for peal or practice ringing. I doubt whether it is so intended. The draftsman, or those who inspired him, was probably thinking only of the regular paid officials of a church, among them the person or persons whose duty it is to ring the church bell or bells for services, funerals, ele.: or whose status and salary must necessarily fall within the purview of the hody responsible for the church funcces. The words ' any perthe holy responsible for the church function. The words ' any per-sous performing or assisting to perform the duties ' of the church hell ringors might be held to include voluntary or visiting ringers. with whom the Parochial Council need have no concern. I should suggest that those words be struck out, and that some words be added to safeguard the existing rights and responsibilities of the use made of the church bells and the pre-

(other than the official ringer or ringers) who may be invited or allowed to ring them. With reasonable ' give and take ' between the friends and enemies of clange ringing in any particular parish, there has not been in the past, and need not be in the future, any real trouble; and I hope that its friends in the National Assembly will be able to protect its interests against its enemies, if any, and against the ignorance or indifference of the great majority of that body. The House of Commons generally listens with respect to a real expert on any subject of which it knows little or nothing. I hope that the new Church of England Parliament will pay respectful heed to Canon Baker on this question. T. L. PAPILLON.

RINGER RANKS WITH CLERK AND SEXTON.

The Master of the Oxford Diocesan Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jonkyn) :---

Referring to Canon Baker's letter under ' National Assembly's proposal.

To his question i. I should suggest as answer: ' The bell ringer performs a necessary part of church worship (see Book of Common Prayer concerning the service of the Cliurch). He therefore receives some remuneration for his work unless he chooses to do it for nothing. Accordingly he ranks with the clerk and sexton. The choirman, on the other hand, is an extra (in many churches there is no choir), and as a rule gives his services free."

To his question ii. I should remark that I consider the answer to be ' in the affirmative.'

In view of the proposal generally, I will venture to state three points which seem to me of importance-

- Whatever service ringers as such can render to the church 1. should be voluntary service.
- There should be no grounds for members of the general congregation of a church saying of the ringers, any more than of the sidesmen or choirmen, that they do not know them by sich
- Ringers should take their proper part in church affairs, and it possible should put forward one of their number as candidate for election upon the Church Council.

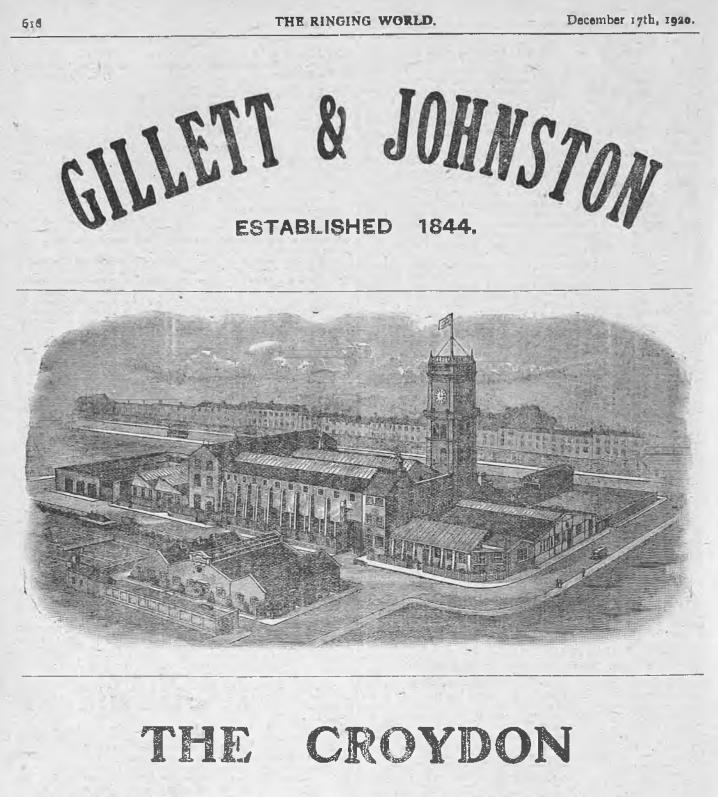

CYRIL W. O. JENKYN.

CLAUSE NOT HOSTILE.

letter, and I should just like to say that I do not necessarily read into the proposals that are being made by the National Assembly of the Church any such hostility to our church bell ringers as he seems to dread. My own experience in the past has satisfied me that the clergy have always considered the juste milieu between parishioners and ringers in the matter of using the bells, with very few exceptions, and I see no reason why, under the new regime, it should be any different. To me it seems that clause 6 (iii) is designed primarily for purposes of finance, and not of interference with ringers' privileges. It is true that it limits slightly what Canon Baker calls the ' autopower of the clergy, but I should like to draw attention in cratic this respect to the words of the clause, which gives power to every Parochial Church Council to do certain things, 'in conjunction with the incumbent.' If the Council looks after the finance, surely it has a right to see that it gets value for money, and that persons ap-pointed to fill posts are fit and proper persons. We must not forget that we are now dealing with communicants, not like the old vestrymen, when all sorts and conditions of men thought they had the right to dictate a parochial policy to the Church. I fail to see why, it ringers are to be under control, choirmen should go free. It may posibly be that in a very great number of cases the choir is a voluntary one, and that there is no finance attaching to it; but assuredly ...e same may be said of a multitude of ringers, most of whom get very little even when the voluntary members of a belfry take nothing. very little even when the voluntary memoers of a bedry take nothing. As for fees for ringing at weldings, it must not be forgotten that ringers have to leave their work to do it, and that what they lose in one way they gain in another. My own belief is that parishioners as a body do like to be proud of their ringers, and in all well-ordered parishes they are proud of them. Why should we go out of our way to imagine that, in future, parishioners are going to be hostile? Let us make hore that they will page a friendly view to the balfer some us rather hope that they will pay a friendly visit to the believ some times to see how the work is done, and take some interest in the ringers themselves. Let them come and recognise for themselves the beauty and the complexity of a ringer's art. Then on the one hand. we shall have ringers who deem it their privilege as well a their duty Sunday after Sunday, to proclaim the message of the bells; and on the other, we shall have parishioners seeing for themselve, that we do perform our part with the best of our intelligence, in the best passible way. I am not dealing with the fanatical enemies of the ringers. These will not be found, I feel sure, in Church Parochial Councils, as at present constituted. The language of the disturbing clause is doubtless loose and indefinite as it stands, but it is not hestile ARTHUR T. KING.

LIVERPOOL RINGER'S DEATH.

Death has removed a ringer of some years from the band at St. Death has removed a runser of some years from the band at St. Nicholas' Church, Liverpool, in the person of Mr. William Down, who passed away on November 25th. On the 30th, a half-muffled guarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung in 40 minutes as a token of remem-brance: W. Fisher 1, E. Ludkin 2, E. Lloyd 3, T. Hammond 4, S. Banks 5, C. Davies 6, J. BELL FOUNDRY 1920.

December 17th, 1926.

SHEFFIELD DISTRICT SOCIETY.

BISHOP'S AND ARCHDEACON'S INTEREST.

A largely altended and very successful meeting of the Sheffield District and Okl East Derbyshire Amalgamated Society was held at the Cathedral, Shefield, on Saturday, Nov. 13th. Over 70 members were present from Anston, Beighton, Chesterfield, Dore, Doncaster, Eckington, Eccleslield, Hoyland Swaine, Lonton (Notts). Norton, North Wingheld, Rawmarsh, Rotherham, Shefield (Cathedral, All Saints', and St. John's, Ranmoor), and Wortley. Ringing on the fine peal of twelve bells (tenor 42 cwt.) was comto 9 p.m. Touches of Kent Trable Bob Maximus and Royal. Steel man Cinques and Caters, Grandsire Caters, and Bob stator were brought round; a number of learners getting their first touches in mathed above sight mothods above eight.

A substantial tea was partaken of in the adjoining Wostenholm Hall, followed by a short business meeting, presided over by the Vicar and Archdeacon of Sheffield (the Ven. C. Lisle Carr, M.A.). supported by the President of the Society (Mr. J. P. Tarlton, North Wingfield), the Vice-Presidents, hon. treasurer (Mr. J. E. L. Cockey, Raumoor), hon. secretary (Mr. Sam Thomas, Cathedral), the Revs. J. R. Lee Nicholls (Vicar of Ranmoor), W. P. Wright (Vicar of St. Silas), W. G. Moeran, M.C. (Cathedral staff), J. F. Amies (Chesterfield Parish Church), and others Church), and others. The Lord Bishop of the Diocese (the Rt. Rev. Leonard Hedley Burroughs, D.D.) had intended being present at the tea, but was un-avoidably delayed until the commencement of the service.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, which included the elec-tion of six new members, a hearty vote of thanks to the Archdeacon of Sheffield for the interest shown in being present among the ringers, and for making arrangements for the service, etc., was proposed by Mr. J. E. L. Oockey, who expressed the pleasure that the members of the society felt in having an opportunity of meeting the Arch-deacon so soon after his induction as Vicer of Sheffield. The speaker referred to the loss which change ringers in the district had suffered in the departure of the ever-genial Archdeacon Gresford Jones (now Bishop of Kampala), but expressed the opinion that they had secured a worthy successor in Archdeacon Lisle Carr. He also referred to the great improvement which had taken place of late years in the relations existing between Ohurch authorities and the ringers, to the great respect in which the ringers were now generally held, and m which they held themselves, and claimed that this improvement had in the main proceeded from amongst the ringers themselves, being due to the influence of the various ringing Guilds; the speaker em-phasising the great work which these societies were doing in all parts of the country at the present time. He welcomed the presence of the Archideacon among them, expressing the hope that this might be the first of many similar meetings, assuring the Archdeacon that the ringers always responded cordially to any interest shown in them, and would always welcome the presence of the clergy among them. The Rev. W. P. Wright, in seconding, expressed the opinion that one qualification for the position of Archdeacon should be ability to ring a 720, a remark greeted with laughter and applause.

ARCHDEACON'S CONNECTION WITH BELLS

The Archdeacon, in reply, thanked the society most cordially for their welcome, stating that he considered it an honour and a privilege to be among such enthusiastic and able Church workers. He deepty appreciated the work of the ringers, and was very sensible of the food fellowship existing among them (in which they set an example to many other Church workers), and he further always appreciated their kind welcome to any stranger in the tower. He traced his connection with balls from his first curacy, where there were three bells, which played 'three blind nice,' to another church which one hell, at both of which he said it was difficult to work up much enthusiasm: then to a church in Liverpool with a fine peal of eight, and from there to Great Xarmouth and Sheffield, both with their great peals of twelve. the laughingly remarked that he was not going to get himself into trouble with either of these two places by drawing comparisons between the two peaks. Apropos the remark of Mr. Wright, the Arch-deacon stated, that while not a ringer himself, he had done the nexts best thing, in that ' he had "chivvied" one lusty youth up the tower at Yarmouth, ' his only son to wit, where they had been most kind to him, and he intended to introduce him to the Cathedral company, in the hope that they would make a ringor of him a remark greeted with much applause. He cordially endorsed the hope of the propose --that this might be the first of many meetings, and concluded by again expressing his pleasure at being present, assuring the socould be of service to them.

In proposing a very hearty vote of thanks to the Lord Bishop of the Diocese for coming to address them that evening at some incon-remience, the Rev. J. R. Lee Nicholls expressed the regret that all folt at his Lordship's unavoidable absence from the tea, and re-ferred to the Bishop's interest in ringing, and to the fact that it was the Bislop who preached the sermon at the memorable ringers' memorial service at St. Clement Danes Church not long since.-In seconding, the Rev. J. F. Amies referred to his presence at that gathering which would always remain an impressive memory to all who took part in it.

Very hearty votes of thanks to the Cathedral organist (Mr. T. W. Handforth, Mus.Bac., F.R.C.O.), to the choir, and to the ladies for helping at the tea, concluded the proceedings.

An impressive, beautifully rendered, and much appreciated musical service was afterwards held in the Cathedral, conducted by the Arch-descon, supported by the Key. W. G. Moeran, M.A., M.C., the Cathodral organist and choir, the Bishop being present on his throne. The hymns were heartily joined in by the congregation, as was the 122nd Psalm, while the Magnificat (Gadsby in C), and the anthem, ' Jesu, priceless treasure ' (Varley Roberts) were beautifully given by the choir. The lesson was read by the Rev. W. G. Moeran, and the prayers, including some special ones for the ringers, by the Arch-descon descon.

GOOD FELLOWSHIF BETWEEN OHURCH WORKERS.

In giving the address, the Bishop of Sheffield remarked on the great pleasure that he felt in being present to meet the society, assuring those present that he had made a great effort to be with them that evening, having motored straight over from an induction near Doncaster, and only just arriving in time for the service. He re-ferred to the recent meetings at Whiston and elsewhere, where he had met and addressed the ringers, and expressed the hope that these services might often take place. He emphasised the need of closer relationship between the vincer and other aburch meetfor closer relationship between the ringers and other church workers.

The Bishop added: We cannot be too thankful for the keen desire of bell ringers throughout their associations that they should come together in Cathedrals and Central Churches and hold festival services. These gatherings for corporate prayer and thanksfiving are important for several reasons: (1) They are an outward sign that the authori-ties of the Church recognise bell ringing as a form of definite church work; (2) they emphasise the fact that hell ringing which is both a science and an art needs also the consecration of a devotional atmosphere; (3) they show an important body of church workers that the Cathedral Church of the Diocese belongs to them, and ought to be the centre of gatherings of this kind: (4) they excite friendly relations between the bell mingers and the clergy and other church workers, and bring them into closer fellowship with each other: (5) they demonstrate to the world part the bells are a Christian symbol, with their notes of invitation, warning and triumph: ' Ring out the false, ring in the true.'

After the concluding hymn, his Lordship pronounced the Beuedic-false, ring in the true.' After the concluding hymn, his Lordship pronounced the Beuedic-tion, which was followed by Naylor's 'Fimal Amen,' by the choir. After the service, many of those Present spent an interesting few minutes looking round the beautiful old building, redolent of memories of ancient Sheffield; of the Earls of Shrewsbury, of James Montgomery, poet and hymn writer; of Sterndale Beunett, and others. Much interest was displayed in the magnificent war memorial of the Freemasons, consisting of the High Altar and an exceptionally beautiful reredos, Cauons' stalls, and chancel floor, and hardly less interest in the simple but exquisitely designed tablet in the south aisle, with its restrained yet moving dedication ' to the ever glorious memory of the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the Sheffield City Bat-talion, who at the call of duty and in the cause of right, nobly made the supreme sacrifice,' surmounted by a orucifix flanked by the badge of the York and Lancaster Regiment, and the cout of arms of the of the York and Lancaster Regiment, and the coat of arms of the City of Sheffold, with at the base, a single vase of white chrysanthe-mums, symbolic of purity and sacrifice; the tablet being the gift of the surviving members of the Battalion in memory of their comrades, The thanks of the society are due to Mr. Sam Thomas for his unobtrusive but very effectual efforts in arranging this successful meeting. BELFRY GOSSIP.

Owing to pressure on our space we have been obliged to hold over the interesting suggestions of many of our readers, on the subject of paying for peaks and in other ways increasing support for ' The Ringing World.'

A tablet recording a muffled peal rung in honour of the ringers of Solihull, who gave up their lives in the war, is to be unveiled at Solihull Parish Church to-morrow (Saturday), after a service at 5.30.

The tablet has been erected by the parishioners. The very excellent performance of R. A. Fardon in ringing at the age of 17, a poal of Stedman Cinques for his first peul, and that, too, at the first attempt, prompts the inquiry as to whether this is a re-Can any reader tell us if this or anything better has previously cord. been done?

A non-conducted peal of Grandsire Triples (Groves' Variation of Parker's twelve-part) was rung at Twerton-on-Avon last Saturday.

RINGERS TO DECIDE. GILLETT & JOHNSTON

• We publish to-day a further selection from the views of readers upon the suggestion by the Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association that, as an additional source of revenue for this journal, payment should be made for the publication of the reports of peals. Opinions as to the advisability of this step vary, as was to be expected, and some of our correspondents put forward alternative proposals. For all the many kind expressions which have reached us we tender our thanks, and now that the subject has been ventilated we may summarise as follows the suggestions which have been made: (1) A charge for the insertion of peals; (2) a subsidy from the various Associations; (3) an increase of revenue from circulation by a considerable number of readers buying more than one copy per week or paying more for their usual single copy; and (4) increasing the price of the paper.

Now, may we say at once that we have long since considered all these points, but it has been helpful as well as interesting to have the views of some of our readers, and we appreciate them. As to charging for peal reports, we feel that it would be placing a tax upon one of the most important and interesting features of ringing, and might tend to prevent the publication of the complete record of peals rung, thus defeating one of the leading functions of a ringers' paper, viz., providing a record of all peal performances. With regard to the suggested subsidy, quite apart from whether Associations would be willing, and, even if willing, whether they would be financially able to agree to such a measure, our strong opinion is that the paper should stand on its own feet, and that if ringers desire to have a journal they should individually pay for it. In any event, it is doubtful if the whole of the Alssociations would be prepared to support a scheme for subsidising the paper, and if only a portion of them did so, there would inevitably arise heartburnings over real or imaginary grievances, and the Editor's lot would certainly not be a happy one.

There remain the two last suggestions, and these we will deal with together. There is a division of opinion as to whether or not the price of -the paper should be raised, but those who oppose that step do so, we imagine, on the assumption that they do not favour any extra charge for a paper of the present size. It must be apparent to all that with the existing number of pages we are so eramped for room that it is impossible to publish anything like all the news that is sent to us. To make the journal worthy of the Exercise it must be enlarged, but before undertaking this additional responsibility we ask for some guarantee. Our proposal, therefore, is to provide a paper of 16 pages instead of 12 at a charge of 3d. per week, on condition that our present readers continue to support us, and that an additional thousand copies at least are sold weekly. There are two ways of achieving the last part of the proposal, the first by existing readers purchasing more than one copy, or the second and better, by securing new subscribers. What we now ask every one of our readers to do, is to send us a post card before the end of the year, stating whether they will or will not continue to support the paper at 3d. per week for 16 pages, and, adding, if they are able to do so, that they have obtained a new subscriber, or will themselves purchase an extra copy until they have secured a new subscriber. The future is in the hands of the ringers. By this plebiscite we shall be able to judge whether the Exercise really desires us to continue our efforts on their behalf, and we would impress upon all the importance of sending the post card we ask for. We believe that the loyalty of our readers will continue with us; if they meet us as is suggested we will do our utmost to make the ' Ringing World ' worthy of the Exercise; but we cannot be expected to do this unless the ringers themselves will back us up. Incidentally we would point out that next week's issue is to be supplemented by four extra pages at the higher charge of threepence, although this has nothing to do with the general scheme here put forward.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

BELERY GOSSIP. A new treble, to make a peal of six, has been added at South Stoke, Oxon, by Meesers. Means and Stainbank, and, with a new clock, was dedicated on Wednesday in last week. The bell has been given by Mr. A. D. Nind in momory of the parishioners who fell in the war, and the clock by his three surviving sons in memory of their father, the Rev. P. H. Nind, for 42 years Viear of the parish. D to the present £70 has been subscribed towards the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association War Memorial, and another £25 is needed. The Hon. Secretary of St. Martín's Guild, Birmingham, writing with regard to Mr. A. R. Fardon's first peal, congratulates him upon his in performance. He adds that on August 23vd, 1904, Harold Witchel, son of Bernard of that ilk, rang the 2nd to a peal of Stedman Cinques at St. Martin's, when he was just turned 16 years of age, and struck it well throughout. It was not his first peal. The following may not be better than Mr. R. A. Fardon's peal of Stedman Cinques, but it is certainly worth recording. Mr. H. J. Poole, in February of t is yoar, foined St. Martin's Society. Leices-ter, at 17 years of age, when his .nowledge of ringing was limited to Grandsire Doubles, on before his 18th birthday he had to his credit peals of Stedman Triples, Superlative, Cambridge and Kent Koyal. He has since added Stedman Cators, and is now ringing Cam-ber future. As regards Cinques, well, Loicester is badly paced for a peal of 12, so the opportunity is not present; otherwise — - O. W. HEREFORD GUILD'S PROPOSED MEMORIAL. PROJECTED RECASTING OF A CITY TENOR.

At a meeting of the Hereford District of the Hereford Diocesan Guild at Lugwardine, it was decided to recommond the Guild to raise funds for the recasting of the tenor at All Saints', Hereford, as a memorial to those members of the diocesan organisation who fell in the war.

The matter was brought forward by Mr. C. Edwards, the district secretary, who said that in nearly every diocese of the country the bell ringing associations had done something in the way of erecting a memorial to their ringers who had given their lives in the war. They in that Guild had lost upwards of 40 members, who had lake They in that Guild had lost upwards of 40 members, who had last down their lives to save our charches and our bells, and he thought that the authorities of the church he would mention might be ap-proached with a view to obtaining their permission to re-cast a bell as a memorial to those fallon ringers, and to have inscribed a suitable inscription. Proceeding, Mr. Edwards said the tower he had in mind was All Saints', Hereford, where there was one of the finest peaks of eight bells in the county. One of the bells-the tonor-had been cracked for some 50 years, and he mentioned, en passant, that Mr. J J. Jones, who was present that evening, had at one time rung this bell. He was confident that the necessary funds would be raised, and that the authorities could be interested in the project, and he, there-fore, moved that it be but on foot, and that the general sceretary communicate with the authorities on the subject. communicate with the authorities on the subject. In the discussion that followed Mr. Edwards agreed that the matter would have to go before the committee meeting and then the annual which have to go hence the committee meeting and then the inhality meeting, but he was all for going on at once with the preparation of the scheme. Later, Mr. Edwards said he entertained the view that one particular firm in England should be entrusted with the work, for, he said, ' if some firms get hold of it they will want to put the whole lot of bells in the melting-pot.' He further intimated to the meeting that he had even gone so far as to sound the firm he had in mind, and had ascertained that the whole cost of the project would be correlated by the full.

The Rev. G. W. Turner considered this would not be a large sum, spread over their whole district.

Mr. Edwards confidently expressed the opinion that they had only to make an appeal for money, and they could get it for bells at any time. This view was generally supported by the meeting, and Mr. Jones seconding the proposal, it was unanimously carried, Mr. Edwards expressing the wish that Mr. Jones would be spared to ring the restored bell many times.

We understand that since the meeting, the approval of the authorities at All Saints' has been readily given to the scheme.

'THE RINGING WORLD.'

READERS' SUGGESTIONS FOR MEETING THE COST.

Many readers have sent their views on the proposal made by Mr. Cave that payment should be made for the publication of the reports of peaks, and offering other suggestions to meet the situation. The Manchester Branch of the Lancashire Association, as will be seen, is against any charge being made, and the letters which are also pub-lished are representative of many others which have reached us.

At a meeting of the Manchester Branch of the Laucashire Associa-tion the question of the payment for the publication of peals was us-cussed, but met with no support. Everybody agreed that in the in-terests of ringing the paper should be supported sufficiently to enable it to stand on its own less and a eventually the General Secretary of the Central Council suggesting an arrangement between that body and the proprietors.

Mr. C. T. Coles (hon. sec. of the Middlesox County Association and London Diocesan Guild) writes: The lotters published show a variance London Diocesan Guild) writes: The letters published show a variance of opinion on Mr. Cave's proposal that a charge should be made for the insertion of peaks in The Ringing World,' and one cannot be sur-prised that there is such. There is much to be said both for and against the proposal, and whilst I have every sympathy with anything that may be done to assist our only paper, it certainly appears to me to be a dangerous policy to charge for the insertion of 'news,' whether peaks or anything else. During the past few years some hundreds of neurone hour exact while the insertion proventing for the same newspapers have ceased publication altogether, generally for the same reason, that of decreasing circulation, added to the ever-growing cost of production, and the surprising fact is that ' The Ringing World ' has not followed suit. It seems only to be expected that the circulation, which must have have got smaller during the war period, should take some time to recover, and it is still possibly much lower than the pre-war average. My own view is that an increased circulation is the only real remedy, much better than subsidies or payments for in putting more family the payments of the paym the only real remedy, much better than subsidies or payments for in serting news (and thus possibly keeping news away), and as an alterna-tive to Mr. Cave's suggestion might I put forward the following:-All those ringers who really value our paper should take an extra copy per wook for the next twelve months, and during that period use every endeavour to obtain new reachers. Even at a low estimate of the number of readers who might be expected to respond the invibition should thus or up he 50 year each elast at each might. of the number of readers who might be expected to respond the eirculation should thus go up by 50 per cent. almost at once, which would at any rate be a great help. During next year, association officials should do all in their power to push the paper, and every effort ought to be made to bring to an end the practice of one copy doing ' for one tower. Might I, therefore, appeal to ringers gene-rally to help increase the circulation by the above means, otherwise it appears to be inevitable that ' The Ringing World ' will go out of existence. As an association secretary myself. I hesitate to think of the consequences of such a calamity. The order for my own extra copy has already been given to my newsafent. copy has already been given to my newsagent.

The Rev. F. Ll. Edwards, hon, secretary of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild: I think a fee for insertion quite a legitimate and reasonable source of revenue, but if it were made a poll tax on the number of ringers taking part, the conductor might often fight shy of collect-ing it. It appears to me more practicable to charge a flat rate on all peaks published with practicable to charge a flat rate on all peals published, with, perhaps, a reduction on quantity in the case of peals rung by the same band on consecutive days.

Mr. G. R. Newton (Liverpool): With regard to Mr. Cave's excellent suggestion, my opinion is that if a peal is well and truly rung it is worth publishing at the expense of each individual member of the band that took part in it. I am quite prepared to admit that peal ringers who have to travel for peals have been very heavily hit by the high cost of railway fares, etc., but I am quite sure even those who are so situated would not begrudge payment of the torming sum surgering for the recording of the to the nominal sum suggested for the recording of their peals. I feel quite sure all that have the welfare of ringing at heart will do all in their power to make your valuable paper more successful. I feel quite

Mr. C. A. Valentine (Stony Stratford): I quite agree with Mr. Cave's suggestion. I don't think anyone would complain, and those who have the most benefit by it would be those who would have to pay. I also think the associations generally should make a grant once a year because they benefit by the reports which appear.

Mr. F. Kilborn (Leicestershire): I wonder how many ringers realise that 'The Ringing World' is the only link we have throughout the kingdom, and what it would mean to the Exercise if it should cease to exist? I wonder, too, how many ringers would cease to attempt a peal if they knew there was no journal through which their perform-ance could be recorder' I fear the Exercise would collapse. It is a great pity, but I'm afraid that ringers do not realise how their own little help might save the whole situation. We knew there are many pingers who do not take a copy of 'The Ringing World.' But worse than that, there are many belfries even where not a single member owns a copy of the publication. Mr. Cave's suggestion of a 2d. levy per ringer for every peal is a good one. But better still if every ringer would buy a copy of the paper instead. The journal is ab-solutely essential if the Exercise wishes to exist at all.

solutely essential if the Exercise wishes to exist at all. As suggestions are called for, may I put one forward. 'The Ring-ing World 'by post is 2s. 6d. per quarter. Could we not secure a list of 200 or 300 amongst the Exercise who would be willing to make it 5s. a quarter until things became a little more normal? If this should appeal to any of the ringing community, then you may include my name right away. This would not, of course, affect the price to the ordinary weakly subscriber. Or, another suggestion, that every as-sociation order a certain number of copies for sale and distribution at every monthly or quarterly meeting, etc. Undoubtedly in this way many copies could be disposed of, especially if the necessity was im-pressed upon the ringers of a larger circulation if the iournal is to be pressed upon the ringers of a larger circulation if the journal is to be kept in existence.

Mr. B. S. Thompson (Great Yarmouth): In the first place, would the payment of a small fee for publication of peaks be acceptable to the Exercise? To the ringer whose enthusiasm is unimpaired by the years of war-strain it would be, but to the majority it would not be, and I am afraid would to a certain extent affect the circulation, which, by the way, is not nearly so good as it should be. Secondly, would the amount thus realised be sufficient for the purpose of raising the standard of our paper. I think not. What then is to be done? either increase of the price, or a substantial income guaranteed from some source. Dealing with increase of price another penny per copy would do a lot towards bringing the paper more in line with its pre-war standard; surely the Exercise would not grumble at that, they are paying without so much as a murmur more than twice as much for their beer and 'baccy as in 1914. If this is considered inadvisable, then how can money be brought in to back the ringers' organ, and make it worthy of its name (nothing detrimental to you, Mr. Editor)? What's to prevent every Association, Society and Guild doing its part? The majority of these are in a financially sound position, and have balances in hand, and from what I read of the various annual meetings there is not much to fear that they will not be so in the future. Why should not all ringing organisations subscribe to 'The Ringing World,' say, a fixed sum annually per 100 members; for example, say, £1; that Why would give an assured substantial annual income.

The associations in turn to meet this expenditure could economise in their annual reports, by not publishing their peals in detail, but give them in a summary form; peals of exceptional merit and interest could be inserted in detail. The present method is extravagant, for could be inserted in detail. The present method is extravagant, for what need is there for peals to be published in detail twice? Personally, I think they should appear in the ringers' paper so that all the Exercise may know what everybody else is doing, and thus keep alive the element of competition which is very necessary. As all our associations are well organized, it would surely be no trouble for each one to obtain the feelings of its members on the sub-ject, and make it possible for the matter to be discussed at the next Central Council meeting.

MANCHESTER MEN ON THE WARPATH.

A few men from Cottonopolis have been peal hunting lately. Since A few men from Cottonopolis have been peal hunting lately. Since Mr. Amos Trippier was elected councillor for Eccles— a place famous for cakes—lo determined to uphold its reputation. A peal at St. Saviour's, Southwark, was followed by a ptal of Caters at Lough-borough, after which their guide, philosopher and friend, Mr. F. G. Rimmington, of Manchester, who, although not personally a ringer, is most onthusiastic, organised a trip to Leicester for two scalps, viz., Stedman Cators at St. Martin's, and Triples at an old-world village. King's Norton, in Leicester Mire. The Caters came off all right, but the piece do resistance was the Triples. King's Norton hells were out in by Source Fortrer—one of the subscribers to John Holt's broadthe piece do resistance was the Triples. King's Norton hells were put in by Squire Fortrey—one of the subscribers to John Holt's broad-sheet in 1750—and only one peal has ever been rung on them, viz., in 1816, by the Leicester ringers. The 'go' is terrible for the 7-R men, but by patching up it was thought it might be possible to screw a peal out of them. A 504 was, however, all that was possible, and, it seems that not even the great James—late of Rugby—could ring the tenor through. It may be mentioned that Amos had a succession of Turkish baths, while harry Chapman will certainly not be able to compete with the corputent Arbuckle for a season or so. However. tis better to have lugged and lost, than never to have lugged at all! The thanks of all concerned are due and hereby tendered to Mr.

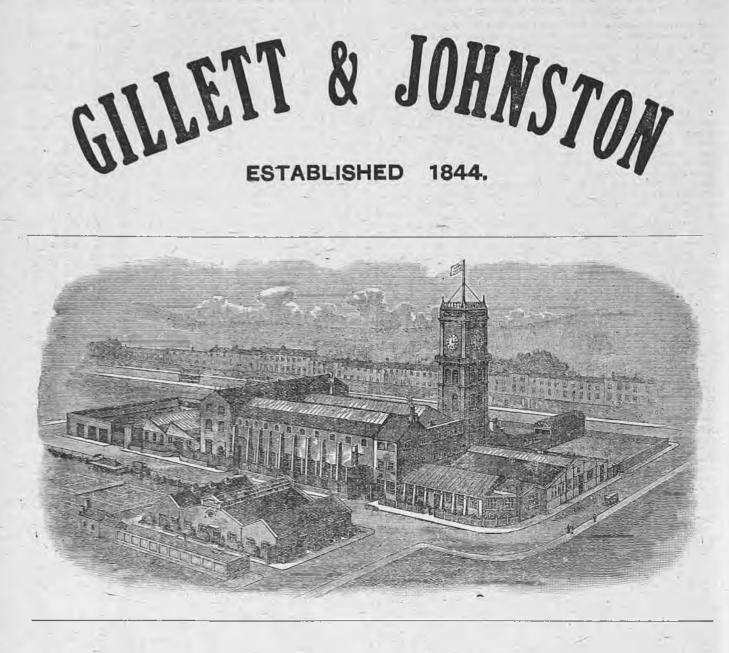

Rimmington, who left no stone unturned for the attempt, and should the bells of Norton be rehung it will be an ideal spot for peal ringing. Few people know that so grand a ring of eight, with a tenor of a ton, lie hidden some ten miles out of Leicester. W. W.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICTS GUILD. SUCCESSFUL MEETING AT BILSTON.

A quarterly meeting of the Dudley and District Guild was held at St. Leonard's Church, Bilston, Staffs, on Saturday, November 27th when over forty members, representing various towers, attended. The fine peal of bells (8) were available, and were kept merrily going. and the beautiful Guild service was conducted by the Rev. Canon G. E. Ford (Vicar of Bilston), who also gave a very interesting address. At the close of the sorvice, an adjournment was made to the School-room, where a bountiful tea was in readiness. Before sitting down to tea. Mr. Churchwarden Lingard, on hebalf of the Vicar, his co-warden, and the Church Council, gave the members a hearty welcome to and the Church Council, gave the members a hearty welcome to Bilston, with a sincere bope that they may visit them again som.— Mr. H. (Ringing Master), and Mr. Harry Mason.—The Secretary very feelingly reforred to the great loss the Guild had sustained since their last meeting, by the death of Mr. John Smith, parsh clerk, Tipton Parish Church, who was one of the founders of this Guild, and for 29 years secretary of the Worcestershire Association: also of Mr. Albert years secretary of the Worcestorshire Association; also of Mr. Albert Little, of St. Peter's company, Wolverhampton.—Mr. Mason also re-ferred to the work of the late Mr. Smith in connection with the Guild, and he proposed that a letter of condolence be sent to the families of the deceased.—The motion was passed by the members standing in silence.

The secretary was also instructed to send a letter congratulating

The secretary was also instructed to send a letter congratulating Mr. W. R. Small on his attaining his 81st birthday, with best wishes and a sincere hope that he may be spared for many years yet to come. Several new members were elected, including the Vicar of Bilston and his wardens, and Mr. F. G. Atking as hon, members.—It was pro-posed that the quarterly peal for the Guild be attempted at St. Leonard's, Bilston, the nocessary arrangements being left in the hands of Mr. F. Coleiough.

The next meeting, which is the annual one, will be held at Dudley, in Fobruary.

At the close of the meeting, a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar for his great kindness in consenting to the Guild holding its the vical for his great kildings in consuming to the data hereids in church, and for presiding at the meeting; to the churchwardens for their presence and support; to the donors of the tea, to the ladies presiding at the tables and those ladies who prepared and served it; to the organist and choir for their musical part of the service which greatly helped to make the service bright and cheerful; to Mr. F. Colclough and his fellow ringers for making the necessary arrangements, and to all who had assisted in making this meeting another After the Vicar had closed the meeting, the members again set the bells merrily going.

DEATH OF A WORCESTERSHIRE RINGER.

With deep regret we have to record the death of Mr. Hubert Salis-bury. of Ehmly Castle, Worcestershire, in his 46th year. Deceased was well known in the Southern Branch of the Worcestershire Associa-tion, being always willing to help young hands in their initial stazes. or go anywhere for a peal. He was operated on for tumour in a Lonor go anywhere for a peal. He was operated on for tumour in a Loh-don Hospital on November 27th, and passed away on the 30th. The funeral took place on Saturday, December 4th. The body was brought from London on Friday, and placed in Little Comberton Church (of which deceased was organist), a short service being held in the evening. Friends and ringers from the district attended the last sad rites on Saturday, and, with the family mourners, filled the church. The service was taken by the Rev. W. D. Loundes (Rector), and the Rev. Harcourt Fowler, of Elmly Casile, read the lesson. A course of Grandsize Trinles was rung on handbells at the graviside and the Rev. Harcourt Fowler, of Elmly Castle, read the lesson. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells at the graveside by: G. J. Hemming 1-2. Miss Ellen M. Johnson 3-4, F. J. Johnson 5-6, J. Hemming 7-8. After the service, a half-muffled quar-ter-peal of Minor (1440 changes) was rung at Little Comberton, heing 720 each of Oxford Bob and Plain Bob, by: H. Brown 1, Miss Ellen M. Johnson 2, O. Attwood 3, W. Ricketts 4, J. Hall 5, F. J. Johnson (conductor) 6. Half-muffled touches of Grandsire Doubles were also rung at Elmly Castle, in which the following took part: Miss Alice Lampitt, G. Hemming, W. Bennett, C. Holford, R. Harriss, G. Ashley and F. Rolls.

A very large number of beautiful wreaths were sent, including one from the ringers and choir of Little Comberton; one from Elmly Castle ringers, and one from the Southern Branch of the Worcestershire and District Association. Ringers present besides those mentioned were: Mr. J. Dolphin, of Pershore, the Little Comberton and Elmly Castle ringers.

The Sussex Association, which lost 30 members in the war, is discussing the question of a memorial, and the matter is to come up at the next annual general meeting.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION. WAR MEMORIAL FUND.

A tea and social, organised by a few Bristol ringers in aid of the funds of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association's War Memorial was a great financial success. Ringers and their friends provided sufficient food for 200, and even then there was over £1 in money not spent. The total receipts were £13 4s. 7d., which has been handed to the treasurer. The association extends its thanks to all those who assisted to make this great effort for its memorial fund.

Over 100 sat down to tea, and it is worthy of note that this is ..e biggest gathering of the Western ringers for several years. After the tea there was a most excellent display of vocal and instrumental talent, whilst two excellent and humorous recitations was heartily appreciated.

The Bristol Branch has been working very hard for the fund, and they now appeal to all their branches to do their utmost to secure the success so richly deserved. Twenty per cent, of the members who served in H.M. forces gave their lives. Surely those that remain can give a trifle. The amount received is given below, and an appeal for the last £50 is made in our notice columns :-

BELLS IN SYDNEY.

To the Editor Dear Sir,-In reply to Mr. Ellsmore's inquiry, re bells in Sydney, Australia, I am pleased to be able to give some information, which I hope will meet his requirements. I have not written to Mr. Ellsmore personally, thinking that the subject may be of interest to the majority of your readers. St. Mary's Cathedral (R.C.): 8 bells, tenor 26 cwt. St. Philip's, Winyard Square: 8 bells, tenor 20 cwt. (also two semitone bells).

St. Jude, Randwick: 8 steel bells, tenor about 20 cwt. St. Mark, Darling Point: 6 bells, tenor 9 cwt. There is also a peal of six, tenor about 11 cwt., in George Street. I have forgotten the dedication of the church; and at Parramatta (15 miles from Sydney): 6 hells, tenor 10 cwt. I believe this completes the list. The peal of six in George Street is by Taylor. The remainder (excepting, of course, Randwick) are by Mears and Stainbank. There was at one time a peal of six at St. Benedict's, but some of those bells have disappeared.

I have rung on all the above bells with the exception of St. Philip's where the tower is supposed to be unsafe, and has been closed for some years. The bells are said to be very good, and I believe the first peal in Australia was rung on them, conducted by Mr. J. L. Murray, of Melbourne.

The best peal is at St. Mary's Cathedral. The bells hang in a very large central tower, and while I was living in the town (1914-15) went well. I do not know that ringing is done there now, but at the time of which I am writing, it was usually possible to raise Grandsire Triples, occasionally Stedman and Bob Major. I do not know whether a pear betasionary Statinan and Bob Major. I the not know which er a pear has been scored on these bells. I think the nearest approach was an attempt for Holt's Original, conducted by Mr. A. E. Barnes, of Melbourne, which came to Brief through the collapse of the tenor man in the last few leads. The less said about Randwick the better. I believe the first peal on these bells has yet to be rung, but the job will require a band of heroes. The bells here have been christened 'camp ovens.'

The three peaks of six mentioned all went well, but on my only visit to Paramatta, it was impossible to score a 720, owing to the treble rope continually slipping wheel. It was possible to get some Minor ringing at Darling Point, and at the church in George Street there was a local band who rang ' stony' from boards on the floor, and made storible hard more of it torribly hard work of it. made

If Mr. Ellsmore is thinking of going to Sydney, I should advise him not to expect very much in the way of ringing, but he may find conditions more favourable there than in any other town in the Commonwealth. If he is interested in chees, some of the Sydney ringers will give bim a good game, particularly my friend, Mr. Chas. Porter. The give him a good game, particularly my friend, Mr. Chas. Porter. 14e address of Mr. R. H. Macdonald (conductor at St. Mary's) is 66, Great Buckingham Street, Redfern.—Yours faithfully.

MR. G. CLEAL'S CENTURY.

MR. G. CLEAL'S CENTURY. It has taken Mr. G. Cleal, of Leicester, many years to accomplish hig century of peals. Mr. Cleal helped to make ringing history a genera-tion or so ago. He rang his first in 1877, and since that time hus name has agured in some famous peals. He called the first handbell peal rung in Worcester, also in Leicester, the latter being the 'original' from 3-4. He also called the first handbell peal of Sted-man Triples for the Midland Counties Association, and rang in the silent peals of double-handed Stedman Triples, Caters and Cinques, the last-named peal being the first one ever performed. He has always considered quality before quantity, and the rising generation would be wise in copying this principle. He completed his century on Dec. 4th. A hundred peals in 40 years seems small, but, like diamonds, the morit lies in the value.

BELLS. CARILLONS, CLOCKS.

THE OLD YEAR AND THE NE

The immemorial custom of ringing out the old year and ringing in the new will be honoured to-night in many hundreds of towers throughout the land. Once more the ringers will play their part in awakening the emotions of the public, for probably at no other season, except at Christmas, are the sounds of the bells awaited with more popular expectancy than at the passing of the old year. There is always a solemnity about the occasion, as one hears the last seconds of the departing year tolled away; but, with the pealing of the bells that marks the advent of another year, these feelings give way to that new sense of hope and aspiration which dwells in the human heart, and which is so universally accentuated by the passage of time into a new year. We trust that for all our readers these hopes and aspirations will be fulfilled, and that the coming year may bring the fullest measure of happiness and prosperity.

The past year has been a very gratifying one for the Exercise, and recovery from the conditions compelled by the prolonged war has been most marked. The whole of the leading Associations have at last got back into working order, and there have been redoubled efforts made to wipe out the leeway of the years 1914-1918. The activities of the various organizations have been best displayed by the increasingly large number of meetings held and of peals rung, and there are very few towers now where the companies have not been brought up to pre-war strength. All this is very satisfactory evidence of the keenness of ringers, and shows what can be done by determined effort. Another extremely gratifying feature has been the growing standard of ringing, as exemplified by the greater number and wider distribution of the peals rung in the higher methods. This, of course, is not the only aim which ringers have, but it is happy evidence of increasing efficiency, and of the recovery of the Exercise after the drain of the war years.

There still remains much work for the Associations to do, and the coming year should see them strenuously occupied in strengthening their position and expanding their respective spheres of usefulness. There is no room for those who are content merely to sit down and let the future take care of itself. The new year is a time of good resolutions, and doubtless many will be made, only to be scrapped before a few days are over. It is better to make progressive efforts, and by steadily following them to achieve success, than to frame pretentious schemes which vanish with the progress of time. We hope that every Association will place still more prominently in the forefront of its programme, efforts, not only to teach beginners, but to Makers to St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Imperial I: estute, Canterbury Edinbursh, St. Albans, Lincoln, Durham Peter borough, Melbourne (Australia), Rochester, Dublin St. Patrick -Manchester and Worcester Cathedrale etc., etc. still further raise the standard of efficiency among those bands which are on the lower rungs of the campanological ladder, and who are striving without much success to climb to greater heights. This is a phase of propaganda work which has been but indifferently pursued in the past, and, as the future of the Associations largely depends upon these struggling bands, here is one important direction in which our large organisations can find definite and useful work in the year before them.

NEW BELLS AT BOLTON.

On Saturday, December 18th, the opening took place of the new bells at Holy Trinity, Bolton. From 5 p.m. the bells were kept going in touches of Stedman, Plain Bob, Kent, Double Norwich and Super-lative. Ringers gathered from all parts of Lancashire and the Altolands, and the unanimous opinion was expressed that they were a fine peal of bells both in the 'go ' and tone. Messys. Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated on the work. 'It's an ill wind that blows nobody good ' is again proved to be a true saying, because the fire which burnt this tower out in November, 1919, has secured a ring of bells that Bolton is proud of.

WEDGING OF BELL FRAMES. A CASE FROM CHESHLEE.

Mr. W. Bibby writes, with reference to the wedging of bell frames, which has been discussed in these columns: Of the six towers, comprising the Grappenhall branch of the Chester Guild, one has a light ring of six bells. These have been in bad going order for a long time. Some years ago they were repaired by a whitesmith and so-called bellbanger from an adjoining town, assisted by the local carbenter. I do not know whether corner blocks were put in at the same time, but they have been there for a long time past. Recently it was decided to have the bells rehung, and a firm of bell hangers were asked for an estimate, also an application was made to the Chester Guild for Assistance, which was granted. After the work was completed, a branch meeting was arranged to

After the work was completed, a branch meeting was arranged to take place at this tower, with the object of trying the bells. Having had a pull on the bells, I had a conversation with the Vicar, who is not a ringer, and knows nothing about bells. He expressed him-self as delighted with the way the work had been carried out, re-marking how pleased he was with the men who did the work; also saving they were so keen on Setting the job through that they had hardly time either to eat or sleep. Piecework may be all right, if the work is laying bricks, but I am sure the plan is not applicable to hanging bells. Before leaving, I ascended the tower to the bell chamber to took at the bells. I need hardly say how staggered I was to find that not only had the old corner blocks not been taken out to find that not only had the old corner blocks not been taken out, but new thin wedges had been inserted between the old blocks and the wall. I pointed this out to the Branch Secretary, who was with me.

I have read Sir A. Heywood's book on bell frames. I was also for some years personally acquainted with Mr. E. H. Lowis, who helped him to compile it, and know what his opinion was on the subject, hence my interest in the matter. I should like to suggest that the firm who carried out the work should immediately take out the bells, remove the old blocks and the wedges which they have put in, and strengthen the frame in the way recommended by the expert who has been kind enough to give his opinion in ' The Ringing World,' which would be quite possible, as the frame is not a weak one by any means.

There are other towers in Cheshire with the bell frames wedged to the walls, which will need attention sconer or later, and for which grants may be applied for to the Chester Guild, but before being given there will be some searching questions asked as to how and by whom the work is to be carried out.

ROYAL EXCHANGE BELLS.

UNIQUE GATHERING AT CROYDON FOUNDRY.

A gathering probably unique in bell history, took place at Messrs. Gillett and Johnston's Groydon Foundry on Friday week, when representatives of the +ondon, Provincial and Technical Press were invited to inspect the Royal. Exchange new bells which the firm have just recast. Few of the visitors knew anything of the mysteries of bell founding and tuning, and the few hours they spent at the wellequipped foundry was a revelation to them, and they went away with a considerably greater conception of the beilmaker's art, and the value of modern methods of tuning which make bells cast in these days so much more melodious than the majority of those of past genera-tions. The visitors were welcomed at the Foundry by Mr. Cyril John. Johnston presided. Afterwards the toast of 'The King ' was honoured, and the Deputy Mayor of Croydon (in the unavoidable absence of the alayor) welcomed the Pressmen to Groydon. He said they regarded those works as one of the most important industrial undertakings in the town, and he testified to the splendid work which was by Mr. Johnston, and mose associated with him, in the output done of munitions during the war. Mr. Johnston had shown equal energy in the conversion of the works from war to peace industry, and he (the ment the conversion of the works from white from white because inductors, and he as speaker) hoped and believed that under Mr. Johnston's able management the establishment would extend and grow and he as successful in the future as it had been in the past, for they recognised the business as not only of local importance, but of mational importance.— The welcome to the Press was acknowledged by Mr. Manning Foster, of the 'Daily Muil.' Mr. Watney next gave a brief outline of the history of the Royal Exchange bells, and remarked that the recasting was due to the musical ability and discernment of Sir Francis Green and the new. James Baden Powell, who with himself formed the Chimes Sub-Committee of the direction Committee. It was the persistent efforts of those two gentlemen which resulted in the old bells going into the melting-pot. The first chimes at the Royal Exchange went back 250 years to 1670, when the first order was given. 'These chimes existed until they were consumed in the fire of 1833, when they foll while playing the tune, 'There's me heck aboot the House' (laughter). The next chimes were put into place in 1844, and the carillon instrument was installed in 1894. During the war the chimes were silent, he when in 1918 they were again started it was pointed out that the bells were badly out of tune, and the mechanism of the carillon badly out of order. As a result of the efforts of the Chimes Committee they were now to have bells and chimes worthy of the City of London (applause).

Mr. C. F. Johnston then took up the story by describing the new bells, but he first of all acknowledged the enlogistic works spoken by the Denuty Mayar about the first proceeding. At Labour sold the Deputy Mayor about the firm. Proceeding, Mr. Johnston said: 'It is a well-known lact that we English are too backward and modest about what we do-and we bell founders seem to be the most backward of any. Great things have been evolved and great problems mastered in the ball world during the last twenty years, and yet the public-and particularly the musical public-know hardly anything of these things. The method of handing bells on engineering lines in motal frames, in place of the old wood ones, for change ringing putposes, has dove much to lessen the bard work of the ringers and facilitate good and even ringing. But the greatest revolution in bell work has undoubtedly come about by the vasily improved method of tuning hells. All musical instruments emit complex sounds which contain not only a basic or fundamental tone, but other tonescalled overtones or harmonics, which automatically range themselves in tune with the fundamental note. But bells are complicated in design and their harmonics can be anything. We shall presently ring the old Rochester Cathedral bells, which are about to be recast, but are at present tuned on the old system, to you and then ring the recast ones for the Royal Exchange-tuned on the new system-as a practical demonstration. I suppose the outstanding feature of the Royal Exchange Carillon is that it will be the first set of bells tuneo on the Five Tone Simpson Principle to be erected in the City of London. A ringing peal of eight or ten bells, following the simple distonic scale, are tuned to the scale of nature, whereas the Royal Exchange peal, which is for chime purposes and contains certain accidentals has been tuned to the scale of equal temperament, as a piano or The object of this is that you thus get the least possible organ is. discord as you modulate from one key to another in the rendering o tunes. It is a curious thing that the old Belgian bell masters-three centuries ago-know a great deal about harmonic tuning, the famous Hemony Brothers who made their first carillon in 1645 being preeminent. That art was subsequently lost in the Netherlands, and it has been left for England to perfect what was aimed at in Belgium 300 years ago-so that to day the finest hells in the world are being turned out by British hands (applause). And yet there are so far hardly any carillons with a large range of notes in this country, for 35 or 49 or even more bells are required to give a good compass, and there is no doubt that in this country there will gradually appear carillous, of ample compass, to give a vast range of music, having 35 or 49, and even more bolls—somewhat on the Continental plan, but of infinitely superior tone, and with much less cumbersome machinery to operate upon them. I fear that to-day the clocks are in the background, but clocks have very recently come in for the good things of the bell world, because enlightened bell tuning has been applied to our new industry of chiming house clocks, with the result that the Germans, who excelled in this particular work before the war, have been left many stages behind in the production of accurate and musical domestic chimes ' (applause).

In conclusion, Mr. Jchnston paid a tribute to his loyal and excellent staff, and on behalf of the firm, as well as of his mother and sister who were present that day, he welcomed the visitors to Croydon. The party then made a tour of the extensive works. In the foundry

The party then made a tour of the extensive works. In the foundry were the bells from Rochester Cathodral. These were struck round, and immodiately afterwards the Royal Exchange bells were chimed, enabling the visitors by the contrast to get an admirable idea of the advantages of modern tuning methods. It is interesting to note that, after the Royal Exchange bells had been chimed, the first tune sounded on them was ' Hark, the herald angels sing.' The visitors spent a most interesting hour in watching to the performances on the foundry carillon by Mr. Harry Withers, of Bourneville, England's foremost carillonneur. Mr. Withers played selections of all kinds, and the musical effects which he produced from the lofty tower were a source of great pleasure, and indeed, of wonderment to the party. It is hoped to have the Royal Exchange bells in operation towards

It is hoped to have the Royal Exchange bells in operation towards the end of January. The total weight of the 13 is seven tons, and of the tenor 1 ton 13 owt. S lbs. The carillon machine will play three tunes daily, and there will be a different tune on each occasion for the week. The airs on Sundays will be 'When I survey the wondrous cross,' Disposer Supreme,' and 'Abide with me.' The tunes on the other days are selected from English, Scotch and Irish airs.

DEATH OF WILLIAM GRIMWADE.

AN ESSEX VETERAN.

There passed away, on December 15th, at Bocking, after a painful and lingering illness, borne with Christian patience and fortitude, William Grimwade, one of the oldest ringers in the district. Seventy years of age, the deceased had for many years been a member of the Essex Association. When a young man, living at Chappel, he learned to ring at Great Tey. Some thirty years age he joined the St. Michael's Guild of Ringers, Braintree, and afterwards became a member of St. Mary's Society, Bocking, acting for some years as conductor. He called the last peal of Minor on the old ring of six. He had run 16 peals in all at the towers of Braintree and Hocking. His quiet and unostentiatious manner had gained for him a large circle of ringing friends, by whom he was held in highest esteem. Until his health failed he was a regular service ringer every Sunday for mating and ovensong. He was never known to have failed to attend a practice or ringing meeting, after making a promise to be present. The funeral took place at the cemetery, Bocking, on Saturday, Dec.

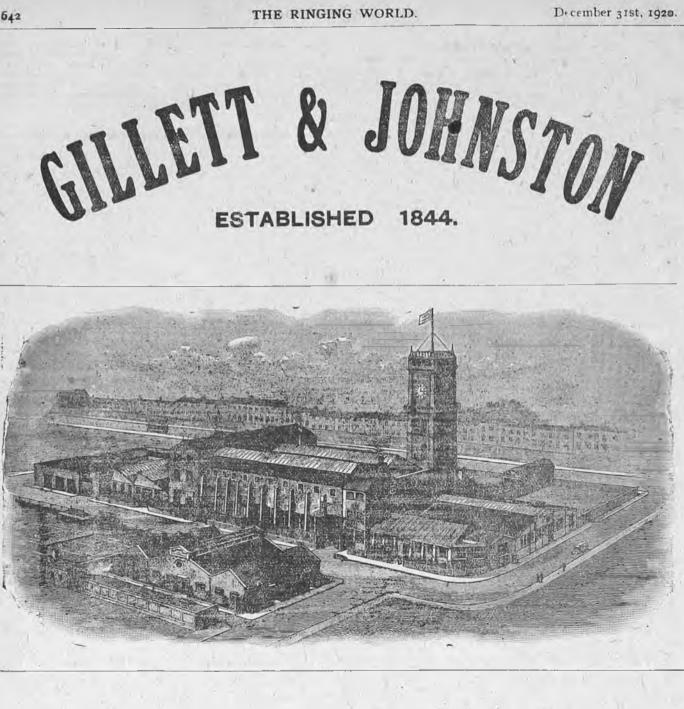

The funeral took place at the cometery, Bocking, on Saturday, Dec. 18th. In addition to his widow, two sons and one daughter, there were present Mr. C. H. Howard (Master of the Essex Association), Messrs. W. H. Dyson, F. Rudkin, H. E. Hammond (Braintree), L. W. Crow, F. Radley (Bocking), H. Redgwell (Rayne), E. Claydon (Stobbing), and P. Collard, an old friend, who knew him as a lad, and who walked in very inclement weather eight miles to pay his last respects to one of the most honourable and upright of meu. In the evening touches of Grandsire Triples were rang on the bells of Bocking with the clappers half-muffled, conducted by B. Shufflebotham.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A quarterly meeting of the Western Division of the Sussex Association was held at Heeno on December 18th, when members were present from Brighton, Shoreham, West Tarring, and the local band, —e attendance being somewhat restricted by the inclement weather. However, some very good courses and touches of Stedman Triples, Kent Treblo Bob, Double Norwich —ador, Superlative, Cambridge, Bristol and London Surprise Major were rung. An excellent tea was kindly provided by the Rector (the Rev. J. P. Fallows), who, unfortunately, owing to illness was unable to be present, but sent his son to welcome the members.—At the business meeting, Mr. J. T. Riekman (Master of the Association presided, and it was proposed to hold the next quarterly meeting at Shoreham in March.

The question of a memorial to the 30 members of the Association ¹ who fell in the great war, was discussed, but on the suggestion of the Master it was decided to bring the matter before the annual general meeting to be held in Brighton later on.—Votes of thanks were accorded to Mr. Rickman for presiding; also to the Hector of Heene for granting the use of the bells and providing the tea.

Another visit was then paid to the belfry, and after an hour's ringing the bells were lowered in peul, and six of the company pakt a visit to Tarring, where a capital 720 of Cambridge Minor was rung by: J. Paice I, J. Farmer 2, A. W. Groves 3, F. Bennett (conductor) 4, E. Merritt 5, K. Hart 6.

WAR MEMORIALS. DEDICATION OF BELLS AT HANDSWORTH, SHEFFIELD.

On Saturday, Dec. 18th, 1920, the Bishop of Sheffield dedicated the memorial to the sons of Handsworth and Richmond who fell in the great war. The memorial consists of a tablet in Portland stone, placed on the churchyard wall by the main road, and engraved on which are the names of the 50 men of the parish who had sacrificed their lives, a new ring of eight betts and a clock which have been placed in the rows, a new ring of eight betts and a clock which have been placed in the tower of the parish church. A great number of the inhabitants of the village and district had assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Major C. E. Levick, T.D., and the Last Post was sounded by P.C. 1 om Bates (late Sherwood Foresters). The bells wave raised with the clappers half-multicl, by: Arthur Arague, ex-RA.M.C. 1, Sidney Briggs, ex-N.F., 2, Mbss W. M. Hague, ex-V.A.D., 3, C. R. Wright, ex-R.F.A., 4, J. E. L. Cookey, ex-Y. and L., 5, Colin Harrison, ex-R.F.A., 6, Hadin Thorpe, ex-Y. and L., 7, Colin Ryder, ex-K.O.Y.L.1., 8.

The Bishop preceded the people into the church, where, after usdaoating the bells and clock he addressed the congregation which had filled the building. He congratulated the people of Handsworth upon the form their memorial had taken. It was one of the most complete, admirable, and lasting schemes he had had the pleasure of He had heard it said that England would soon forget dedicating. the mon who fell in the war. He did not believe that, and these memorials confirmed him in that belief. It was one of his great joys in dedicating those memorials to know that they had brought to gether people, who, in other circumstances, differed, and those beils in Handsworth were the symbol of the unity of a faithful people. They were more; they represented the sounds of triumph and victory and joy, and marked the end of a great spiritual conflict between right and wrong. The clock, ever before their eyes, would be a daily re-minder of those noble mon, who, by working in concord and unity. gained for them the great victory, and the tablet by the wayside would remind the passer-by of the noble sacrifice that had been made for all.

After the Blessing, a short touch was rung on the half-muffied bells by the ex-Service band. Muffles were then removed, and ringing friends from Anston. Bolsover, Bolsterstono, Chesterfield, Dore, Norton, Raw-mursh, Robertam, Sheffield Cathedral, All Saints' (Grinisflorpe), and St. John's (Ranmoor), Treeton, Worksop, Workley, and others, sept the bells going until 9 p.m., the methods ranging from Plain Bob to London Surprise Major.

An old bell, cast in 1590 by Hy. Oldfield, and which has done sor-vice in the tower from that date, has been relung above the octave to be chimed on special occasions.

The whole of the work has been carried out in a most efficient manner, and the people of Handsworth and Richmond have reason to be proud of the memorial they have erected to their gallant men. and of the splendid spirit of unity which has enabled them to carry through so permanent a scheme.

At the Parish Church, Luton, on November 14th, the dedication of the war memorials took place. One consisted of a marble tablet re-cording the names of 37 men, members of the Parish Church, and one a stone niche in the chancel arch, containing a "book of life" with the names of all men of Luton, numbering 900, written on vellam. who laid down their lives in the great war, 1914 to 1919. CHURCH ASSEMBLY'S PROPOSAL DISCUSSED

A quarterly meeting was held at Bridgwater on December 11th, when ten towers were represented. A short service was held in the Parish Church, at which the Rev. F. G. Shepherd (curate-in-charge) officiated, and gave an address. The business meeting was held in the vestry, the Master (the Rev. C. C. Parker) presiding—The Master announced that the next meeting would be hold at Wiveliscombe after Easter.

The Secretary announced that be had received a little over £70 to-wards the war memorial, and that over twenty towers had not yet wards the war memorial, and that over twenty towers had not yet subscribed. It is hoped to get another £25 to clear all expenses. Mr. J. Hunt urged that members should give greater support to 'The Ringing World,' and several suggestions were discussed, one being that peals rung should be paid for at a penny or twopence per head, and another that members should levy themselves a half-ponny or benny towards the upkeep of the paper. In the end an carnest appeal was made to the members to take 'The Ringing World ' and thus increase the circulation, which would go a long way towards making it a paying concern. towards making it a paying concern.

The proposals of the National Assembly of the Church with regard to ringers was also brought to the notice of the members in connec-tion with the statements which appeared in 'The Ringing World.' If was thought that it would be to the greater interests of ringers and ringing that they should remain as they are at present, under the direct control of the incumbent.

A hearly vote of thanks to the Rev. F. G. Shepherd for officiating at the service and for the use of the bells brought the meeting to a close.

Tea was then partaken of at Taylor's Restaurant, after which the bells were made good use of. .

DUNSTER DEANERY MEETING.

The recent meeting of the Dunster Deanery Branch of, the Bath and Wells Association was made the annual meeting of the district. It was attended by ringers from Corhampton, Chipstable, Cutcombe, Dunster, Minehead, Selworthy, and Winsford, and Mr. W. W. Thorne (Ockham). of the Winchester Guild. Touches of Grandsire Triples were rung before sor-vice, at which the Rev. W. T. Reeder officiated, assisted by the Rev G. L. Fitzmaurice (president of the branch). The president was in the chair for the business, meeting, and the Vicar proposed a vote of condolence with the family of the late Mr. John Tudball, whose death had removed a valuable permber of the Dunster band. The motion was carried in silence, and was acknowledged by Mr. Thorne (Mr. Tudball's brother-in-law). Tudball's brother-in-law).

Among the letters of apology was one from Lord St. Audrics, in which he gave evidence of a keen interest in ringing. Arising from the minutes, an application from the Wiveliscombe ringers that, for convenience' sake, their tower might be transferred to the Taunton Deanery was discussed.—Mr. G. Stacov (hon. secretary of the Dunster branch) acquainted the meeting with a suggestion made regarding the application at the annual meeting of the association held recently at Minehead to the effect that the diocese should be divided into ringing districts, with a ringing master for each district. As this proposal, it was stated, was under consideration, the matter was deferred.

The Rev. G. L. Fitzmaurice was unanimously re-elected President of the Branch, and Mr. G. Stacey hon, secretary, warm tributes being paid to their past services. It was resolved to appoint a Ringing Master, and Mr W. Hoyle (Minehead), whose enthusiasm for the art is so well known in the . strict, was elected to the office.

At the invitation of the Rector, it was decided to visit Selworthy for the next meeting, and the business concluded with votes of thanks to the Vicar, to Mr. Poele (the organist), and to the chairman. Further ringing afterwards took place.

The Secretary referred to the increase in contributions which will operate for the year 1921, and which had been decided upon by the Guild. He also suggested the advertising of all meetings in 'The Ringing World ' instead of circularising each tower for each meeting, thus saving secretarial work, and making it less expensive to the branch.—After discussion, a resolution was put to the meeting, and carried, that the scheme of advertising all meetings in 'The Ringing World ' only should be given a trial, the Secretary specially mention-ing that it was up to all the members to purchase ' Tue Ringing Workl ' so as to keep in touch with the movements of the branch.

COMMEMORATION OF THE FALL OF JERUSALEM. PEAL TABLET UNVEILED.

Readers of The Ringing World ' may remember that about a year ago appeared the report of a peal rung at the Church of St. John of beusalem, South Hacknoy, by eight ex-Service ringors (all of whom had served during the war in the Eastern campaign), in commemoration of the second auniversary of the capture of Jerusalem. On the following anniversary of that event the same eight ringers and a number of ringing friends attended at the church to meet the lector and churchwardens at the unveiling of a handsome peal board which has been placed in the tower as a record of the peal.

The proceedings commenced with a touch of 504 Stedman Triples, rung by seven of the original band, and the steeplekeeper, the eighth McLean) conducted the service, being supported by the Rev. G. E. H. Mort (curate), the churchwardens, and a number of parishioners. Psalm 122, as very appropriate to the occasion, was read, followed by responses and the Lord's Prayer. The Rector then gave a short address, explaining why the peal was rung the reduction of the rector of the erdening the events. a year ago, and the reason of the gathering that evening. He then asked the senior churchwarden (Mr. G. Frin) to unveil the board. When the covering flag had fallen away, a very handsome peal board was disclosed. Consisting of good stout oak, and measuring about 4 by 21 feet, it records the following in gilt letters on a polished black background :-
