OBLIGATIONS

Next Sunday is the National Day of Prayer, an occasion probably more than any other day during the year when the bells of our churches should be rung to summon the people to church. The emphasis is on the word 'national'; it is not merely the meeting together of those who worship Sunday by Sunday, but a call, at the request of the King, and with full concurrence of the leaders of the Anglican, Roman and Free Churches, to the whole people. Thus it behoves all who ring church bells to co-operate fully and proclaim the call. Let there be no silent belfries.

The Archbishop of Canterbury in his message states: 'Our need as a nation is for a sustained effort towards a better spiritual life and outlook, a real uplifting all round, and together to a more courageous, disciplined and compelling sense of spiritual obligation.' From time to time during the past year 'The Ringing World' has endeavoured to present, either by letters selected for publication or through its editorial columns, the sentiment that Dr. Geoffrey Fisher so admirably phrases as 'the compelling sense of spiritual obligation.' The uniqueness of ringing demands that in the midst of all the joys and achievements of the Exercise a sense of spiritual obligations should remain constant.

With the advance of science, the introduction of amplified gramophone music is a very real threat to bell-ringing as we know it. If there are no ringers to proclaim the message of the bells then the aids of science will be introduced, because so engrained is the love of bells among the public that many a parish would not hesitate to employ this medium rather than have a silent belfry. Ringers and bells must be an integral part of the family of the Church—not a distant mysterious body performing strange rites in an unseen part of the building. We sense in the holding of Bell Sunday in a Middlesex parish, as recorded in this issue, an attempt to bridge the gap and let the congregation better understand the association of bells with worship. Bell Sunday was followed by the ringers being 'at home' in their belfry and their guests numbered 100. Similar propaganda has been introduced before—a lantern lecture on bells was given in the place of the sermon in a Northamptonshire church—but it is by no means general, and explanatory visits to the belfry are in most parishes infrequent.

Finally, the National Day of Prayer is individual in its appeal. Our minds go back to that first day, with the deliverance from Dunkirk. Singularly the Sundays coincide in the Church's calendar, being the Fifth after Trinity with the Collect for peace—'that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that the Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness.' This Collect dates back to the days of Leo the Great during the period that marked the decline of the Roman Empire. Attila the Hun descended from Hungary into Italy. Pope Leo went to meet him unarmed, and so overawed was the Hun by the majesty of the Christian character that he consented to depart from Italy. To-day a feeling of frustration is apparent in all directions; that is an inability on the part of human endeavour to combat the modern Hun facing the world to-day with the spectres of famine, suspicion and distrust haunting not only nations but individuals. The guidance of 'the Unseen Hand' is more than ever a national and personal need.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Has an outing equalled that of the Witham (Essex) band? At Hitcham, as the bells were just going into Double Norwich, the clapper of the third broke. The local ringers were raising the bells at Baldock when a bump was heard and it was found that the clapper of the 5th was broken.

Mr. J. T. Dyke comments on last week's leading article: No informed churchman regards ringing as an act of worship. Service, yes. Worship, no.

The name of the ringer of the treble in the peal of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Major at Wye, Kent, on June 11th, was Mrs. T. Cullingworth and not as published.

Our Irish correspondent, Mr. Fred E. Dukes, of Jenkinstown, Dundalk, is in difficulties. A Mr. W. E. Cox, of Birmingham, wrote to him, but he is unable to reply owing to having lost the letter. Will Mr. Cox or a friend oblige with his address?

The only surviving foundation member of the Kent County Association is Mr. E. S. Ruck, of Willesborough. He called a peal of Bob Minor to celebrate his 80th birthday in his own tower, and a complimentary peal was also rung at Eastwell. The Ashford District also held a meeting in honour of the occasion on June 21st, when members presented him with an umbrella and fountain pen.

Works bands are being discovered. St. Werburgh's, Kingsley, Staffs, is manned by employees past and present of Thomas Bolton and Sons, Ltd., Groghall, Staffs. Working alongside our correspondent, W. Carnwell, is the leader of the Cheadle R.C. ringers and the tower secretary of the Cheadle R.C. tower. At St. Helens on November 15th, 1934, a peal of Bob Minor was rung by all but one employees of Pilkington's Glass Works. The company often ring at practice with nine Pilkington men. Moving to other districts has reduced the numbers.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Oxford's Spliced Surprise peal ringers are losing one of their keenest members in Miss Betty Spice, who is leaving Oxford for Bedford. Fortunately they have two or three other ringers progressing rapidly in spliced ringing. Miss Spice is also in the news with her 200th peal, rung at Great Tew.

His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. W. F. Judge was taken into Radcliffe Infirmary, Oxford, on Sunday morning, with acute appendicitis. He conducted a peal of Stedman Doubles (his first) at Cassington, Oxon, the previous Saturday.

Twenty-five years have elapsed since the Sunday service ringers at Taxal, Cheshire, rang a 720. The following rang 720 Bob Minor on June 4th: Miss Yvonne Botham 1, G. Cook (first 720) 2, E. Simpson 3, F. Wilde 4, S. Depledge 5, A. Hibbert (first 720 as conductor) 6.

Another 80th birthday celebrated this week is that of Mr. G. Newell, captain of the band at St. Mary's, Radcliffe-on-Trent, Nottingham, and a ringer at the church for 58 years. In honour, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor was rung on June 21st by G. Newell 1, A. C. Lygo 2, W. White (conductor) 3, F. Spencer 4, S. Loach 5, C. Knapp 6.

The peal of Stedman Cinques, 5,050 changes, rung at St. Martin's, Birmingham, on June 17th, was composed by John Carter in 1907 and has the back bells in the following four positions and order: Inverted Tittums 9, Handstroke Home 10, Backstroke Tittums 9, and Backstroke Home 10 courses. The peal has only been rung three times and on each occasion it was at St. Martin's for a 50th anniversary and called by Mr. Albert Walker. These were February 12th, 1907 (the late Tom Russam's 50th birthday), February 14th, 1922, and June 17th, 1947 (50th anniversary of the conductor's membership of the College Youths and the St. Martin's Guild).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Basingstoke's Nine

THE REV. FELSTEAD'S REPLY.

Dear Sir,—I fear Mr. Smallwood's letter this week only goes to prove my statement that a newcomer to the Exercise can see things with a more unbiased eye than many of the old stalwarts. As far as I am aware, I myself have never disobeyed the rules and decisions of the Council. I shall always maintain that the rules never contemplated the situation which has arisen at Basingstoke and that they should therefore be revised. There was certainly no question of finding loopholes.

The rules about Cater ringing presupposed there would be a tenor to cover and I would be only too happy to agree to the non-recognition of a peal in a tower where there were ten bells and only nine were used. It was never contemplated that there ever would be a tower like Basingstoke, but since there is, something ought to be done about it, which means a careful consideration of the new case and new conditions. Until this is done (and it has not been done yet, for the five minutes' discussion at Norwich and perhaps 15 minutes at Exeter cannot be called a consideration), then the situation should be accepted and the peal recognised.

Mr. Kippin's 'crime' is more concerned with his being the first to recognise the peculiarities of the Basingstoke bells than anything else. If I were a betting man, I would be willing to wager that the majority of the old stalwarts would have done the same as Mr. Kippin did if they'd realised how the nine bells had been tuned. Being the first in the field, I believe, means more than anything else (even music) to most ringers!

Again, isn't it rather absurd to talk about bringing ringing into ridicule? A non-ringer (I can remember being one more easily than many ringers) casually listening to bells does not know how many of them there are, especially if changes are being rung, and does not usually care. I would again be willing to wager that Basingstoke people would not have known how many bells were ringing in the controversial peals, and the most that could be expected of them would be the rather vague notion that they sounded a bit different from usual. How silly it all is to talk about stunt performances when the whole history of ringing has numerous examples.

Can it really be fairly argued, for instance, that a peal of Spiced Surprise is not a 'stunt' any more than one on nine bells when there are only nine bells in the tower? According to the rules, the 5,000 changes should be in one method, I believe, but that didn't deter the first performers of Spiced methods, and I gather there was a decision to accept the peal since the rules had not catered for such a contingency. I fail to see how the present conditions are different in their own way. Please, we must be logical and fair to all.—Yours faithfully,

EVERCREECH BELLS

Dear Sir,—I am afraid our friend Mr. Cluett is not quite correct in his letter regarding our bells, so for his, and your readers in general, information I append a list of their dates and founders.

- Tenor.—1746, T. Bilbie, Chewstoke.
- 7th.—1530 (approx.), T. Gefferies, Bristol.
- 6th.—1853 (recast), Jefferies & Price, Bristol.
- 5th.—1746, T. Bilbie, Chewstoke.
- 4th.—1778, W. Cokey, Frome (recast 1906, L. and J., Bristol).
- 3rd.—1853 (recast), Jefferies and Price.
- 2nd.—1906, Llewellyns and James, Bristol.
- Treble.—1906, Llewellyns and James, Bristol.

Having read the foregoing list, any further comment as to the quality of our bells is, I think, superfluous.—Yours sincerely,

H. J. SANGER.

Evercreech, Somerset.

The Dorian Mode

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent, Mr. David H. Anstey, is in error when he states that the front eight at Basingstoke 'do not give an eight . . . in any musical scale.'

The scale ray to ray is the authentic Dorian mode (one of the 14 Greek modes) which Vaughan Williams and latterly Benjamin Britten have used to good effect.

A large proportion of the Gregorian music now slowly regaining favour in the Roman Catholic Church is written in this mode. It's an acquired taste, however, and it is not surprising that, after 500 years of 'major and minor,' our ears cannot readily attune themselves to these older scales.—Yours faithfully,
E. W. BROWN.

'RHYTHM OF THE BELLS'

Dear Sir,—I again read with interest the leading article in 'The Ringing World' of June 13th. A specially attractive point is the 'rhythm of the bells,' a point which is not too well appreciated by some ringers; then there is the 'sing' or harmony, which is something to be listened for and enjoyed which on some rings of bells can be heard better than on others.

What effect a covering bell can have on this when ringing Major methods I cannot imagine. But experience of ringing Kent Minor with a covering bell, in spite of good striking and rhythm, left one wondering as to what method the music produced belonged to. If Major ringing should prove to be the same, it would be as well to discourage it.

Mr. C. H. Kippin must be indulging in a little harmless 'leg pulling,' but really we could do without it. At the same time he does appear to have received a raw deal at Exeter, and the Central Council should endeavour to answer his question.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MARGARET BEAMISH

Dear Sir,—May I, on behalf of all the members of the Leicester Diocesan Guild, offer to Margaret Beamish very hearty congratulations on her most recent achievement of ringing a working bell to a peal of London Surprise Major before attaining her 12th birthday. Only those who took part in or heard the peal can appreciate what a splendid performance this was, not only in the way she rang the method but also for the excellent striking she maintained throughout. For me, personally, it will remain a happy memory. I am very glad to have been associated with it and grateful for the invitation to go over and conduct it.

HAROLD J. POOLE.

Leicester.

Bishop's Cannings ringers were joined by friends from Devizes and Calne for their annual outing on May 24th. Towers visited were St. Mary's, Reading, Henley-on-Thames, Boyne Hill, Maidenhead, Windsor Parish Church, St. Peter's, Staines, and Newbury. Tea was kindly supplied at Staines by Mr. W. C. Parker and daughter-in-law.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Corlestone, Great Yarmouth.

Grappenhall's Three Veterans

Dear Sir,—It is with great pleasure that I bring to your notice the fine record of the three oldest members of the Grappenhall Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild, viz., Messrs. Samuel Horsfall, Noah Smith and John E. Ashcroft. Mr. Horsfall, who has attained the age of 84, celebrated his golden wedding last week and on behalf of his many ringing associates throughout Cheshire I take this opportunity of wishing Sam and his wife many more years of health and happiness. Until recently Sam was an active member at Grappenhall, where he rang for upwards of 60 years.

Mr. N. Smith and Mr. J. E. Ashcroft both reached the age of 70 last week, and I am pleased to say both are still active Sunday service ringers at Grappenhall. Noah, who has completed 50 years' ringing service, was a participant in an attempt for a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major in honour of the occasion; this unfortunately came to grief after an hour's ringing.

Mr. John E. Ashcroft, who has completed 53 years' service, holds the position of hon. secretary of the Grappenhall Branch, an office which he has filled with distinction and credit for 33 years. Jack, with his quiet, unassuming, efficient handling of his job, has earned the respect and gratitude of his many contacts throughout the diocese.—Yours sincerely,
WALTER ALLMAN.

SURPRISE MAJOR METHODS

Dear Sir,—As announced in your advertisement columns to-day, I have completed my first series of Major Surprise Methods, of which a small edition only is now available. The present series contains 100 methods, and I hope, with the co-operation of the Exercise, to issue a further series in the autumn of this year. If sufficient material should prove to be available, a third series should close the Major section, after which I shall issue such Royal and Maximus extensions as I can obtain.

The methods are given in an adaptation of the place notation which was used by Carter in his table of methods published in 'The Ringing World' some 50 years ago, and which is freely used for the exchange of methods between ringers. I have adopted this notation for two reasons; for economy of space, since it enables a method to be presented in a single line of type; and no less with the intention of not even appearing to trespass on the domain of the long-awaited Central Council Collection, which will give us a wealth of detail that I could not hope to emulate, even if I had the desire. Mine is and is intended to be purely a stopgap production, for the convenience of those who wish to obtain the figures of new Major methods.

I should be very grateful to any readers who forward to me the figures of any methods not included in the first series, with their Royal and Maximus extensions where available; also of any methods rung on the higher numbers.—Yours faithfully,
A. J. CORRIGAN.

INFORMATION WANTED

Dear Sir,—Could any ringers give me information and details of any peals rung at St. Giles', Northampton, other than rung for the Central Northants Association or the Peterborough Diocesan Guild since the bells were augmented in 1895?

I have reason to believe that peals were rung for the Middlesex County Association about 1905. I am putting the peals together in a bound book and I should like a complete list as far as possible.

WILLIAM R. HAMMONS.

Middlesex Association

MEETING AT ISLEWORTH.

The first meeting of the South and West District at Isleworth since before the war was attended by about 35 members and friends on June 21st. An unfortunate accident had occurred at a practice the night before, when the tenor clapper came out and broke the wheel of the treble, so that ringing was confined to eight bells.

However, some good ringing was accomplished in most of the standard methods, some particularly good courses of Cambridge and London being brought round. Ringing was under the supervision of Mr. F. A. Finch (Ringing Master) and Mr. T. G. Bannister (deputy), and special attention was given to the claims of a number of learners, mostly young ladies.

During the ringing the Vicar (the Rev. E. F. Grinston) visited the ringing chamber and welcomed the Association on its first visit since his arrival, and expressed the hope that other visits would follow. The secretary voiced the thanks of the Association and of their hope that regular meetings might take place at Isleworth, emphasising the fact that the Association had in the past been mainly instrumental in installing the two trebles when the peal was increased to ten and that in those days Isleworth was the leading tower in the Association.

A business meeting took place in the Church Hall, presided over by Mr. W. H. Coles, vice-president. It was decided to hold, if possible, the next meeting at St. Margaret's, Uxbridge, on July 12th. It was learned with regret that both Mr. F. G. Baldwin, of St. John's, Hillingdon, and Mr. J. Herbert, of Twickenham, were in the West Middlesex Hospital, and the secretary was requested to write to both, expressing sympathy and good wishes for a quick recovery.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Rogers and the local company for the arrangements made, and, in particular, for Mr. Rogers' efforts that morning in getting the tenor clapper repaired in time for the meeting. The Vicar was also thanked for the use of the bells.

JOINT MEETING AT STANMORE.

A most enjoyable joint meeting of the Middlesex and Hertford County Associations was held at Stanmore on June 14th. Mr. A. Cutler, the Ringing Master, made sure that everybody had an opportunity to ring something from rounds to Spiced Surprise.

The Rector (Dr. Carpenter) conducted a short service and gave an excellent address full of good and practical advice. Unfortunately rain prevented tea being served in the beautiful Rectory garden, but Dr. and Mrs. Carpenter kindly placed a room in the Rectory at the disposal of the ringers for tea, a social half-hour and ringing on Mr. C. Taylor's handbells. Members welcomed Mr. J. Bennett after his recent illness.

Sympathy was expressed for Mr. Lock, who was indisposed and unable to be present. His place was taken by Mr. A. W. Coles, who, on behalf of the Middlesex Association, gave a welcome to the Hertford County Association. Mr. Hoare, for the Hertford Association, responded.

A BELL EVENSONG.

To stimulate interest in bellringing, the Rector of Stanmore (Dr. Edward Carpenter) arranged a bell evensong on May 18th. The lessons were read by the Master, Mr. G. J. Leversuch, and the oldest ringer, Mr. George Hughes. Two courses of Bob Minor were rung on handbells instead of an anthem.

The sermon, preached by the Rector, was woven round the team work of ringing. At the close of the service the congregation was rung out to a well-struck touch of Grandsire Triples.

On the following Saturday the ringers held an 'At home,' when visitors were invited to the tower and over a hundred guests responded.

Guildford Diocesan Guild

CHURCH STRUCK DURING MEETING.

An alarming incident occurred during the Guildford District meeting at Witley on June 21st. Ringing was in progress when there was a loud clap of thunder—described by one of the ringers as a bomb exploding. The church was struck by lightning, causing tiles to be dislodged and fusing the electric light bulbs.

In charge of the ringing was Mr. C. Ernest Smith (District Ringing Master), who ordered the ringers to continue. The touch was successfully brought round.

The Vicar (the Rev. A. C. Holden) conducted the service. There were 22 members and friends at tea and the local arrangements were made by Mr. F. C. Hagley.

DUNSFOLD MEETING.

Fifty members and very welcome visitors attended the meeting at Dunsfold. The Guild service was conducted by the Rector and the lesson was read by the Rev. K. Davis. Tea was served in the grounds of the Rectory through the kindness of Mrs. Crowhurst, assisted by other ladies of Dunsfold, many of whom are learning to ring.

The most important item of the short business meeting was the election of a list of new members, all of Dunsfold, also a number of old members renewed their membership.

Full use was made of the newly recast peal of six bells, and after tea a contingent left for Hascombe, where also the peal of five bells were recently recast.

JOINT MEETING AT BENTLEY.

Between 60 and 70 ringers attended the joint meeting of the Farnham District and the Southern Branch of the Ladies' Guild at Bentley. Canon H. Le Fleming (Rector) conducted the service and the choir was composed of ringers with another ringer, Miss Nesta Smith, from Wonston, near Winchester, as organist.

Tea was served by Miss Trotman in the W.I. Hut. The secretary (Mr. G. S. Joyce) was asked to convey the meeting's sympathy to Mr. A. Raggett, the local captain, who is indisposed. Ringing was continued until 9.15 p.m.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Market Drayton with its fine ring of eight was again the venue for the joint meeting of the Shropshire Association and the Crewe Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild on June 7th. This is the third year that the meeting has been held at this tower and it is looked forward to keenly by members of both counties, Shropshire and Cheshire being equally represented by some 50 ringers present this year.

Full use was made of the bells, which were kept going during the afternoon and evening to a variety of methods, which included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Little Bob, Kent, Oxford, Double Norwich, Cambridge, Superlative and London Major. The striking generally was good and several young members scored their first courses in a new method.

SHIELD FOR GUILD COMPETITION.

The annual festival was held at Carmarthen on June 21st. The bells of St. Peter's were available to the ringers from 2 p.m. and 65 members attended the meeting.

The service was at 4 p.m., and the Archbishop of Wales, who is president of the Guild, officiated, assisted by the Rev. K. C. Herbert. After the service the ringers were entertained to tea at the Church House, which was followed by the business meeting.

Officers elected for the next 12 months were: Secretary, Mr. C. H. Hawkins (Llanely); treasurer, Mr. Ed. J. Thomas (Carmarthen); Master, Mr. H. Jenkins (Tenby); Ringing Master, Mr. J. Williams (Morrison); auditor, Mr. B. Rees (Burry Port); committee, Messrs. Owens (Carmarthen), Parmenser (Llanely), Scudmore (Llandilo), Langdon (Llangharn), Narbett (St. David's), E. Sage (Burry Port), T. Griffiths (Tenby), G. Morris (Llanstephan), W. J. Harris (Llanbadarn Fawr).

It was then proposed to hold the annual festival in 1948 at Carmarthen.

The treasurer, Mr. Ed. J. Thomas, gave a statement of accounts, which showed the Guild in a very satisfactory financial position, and Mr. A. Hoare gave a report of the Central Council meeting at Exeter.

The secretary (Mr. C. H. Hawkins), in his report, stated that he was very satisfied at the way the Guild was progressing. There had been a lot done and there was still a lot to do to encourage the art of campanology in the diocese. He then made a very pleasing statement that the president, the Archbishop of Wales, had found a friend to present the Guild with a shield for competition, which they hoped would be competed for next year.

The secretary urged members to encourage youth as much as possible to take up the art so that when the older ringers have to give up ringing they will have the satisfaction of knowing that their good work will be carried on.

Five new members were made, and a collection for the Bell Restoration Fund realised the sum of £2 13s. 1d.

A vote of thanks was extended to His Grace for officiating at the service and also for presiding at the meeting, and also to the Church authorities for providing tea.

The ringers returned to the tower to end a very successful meeting.

VICAR OF BRAY MARRIED

The village of Bray-on-Thames was in a festive mood on June 19th, when the young and popular Vicar and ringer, the Rev. Edward S. C. Lowman, K.C.L., chairman of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Guild, was wedded in his own church by the Bishop of Oxford (the Rt. Rev. Kenneth Kirk) to Miss Betty Jolly, the father of whom, the late Leonard Jolly, was for nearly twenty years churchwarden and a good friend of Bray ringers.

As parishioners and friends were assembling in the historic and world renowned Church of St. Michael, the grand old six, tenor 27 cwt., was rung for 40 minutes, and for one hour after the ceremony, to Plain, Grandsire and Stedman Doubles. Visiting ringers included Mr. T. J. Fowler, Cookham. Mr. George Martin, Boyne Hill, and Mr. Tom Goodchild, one time member of Bray band, now Boyne Hill.

A peal attempt, which was in the hands of Mr. George Gilbert, in spite of the bells going well, failed after three short attempts. However, to round off the day's ringing, a well-struck 720 Oxford Treble Bob and 720 Plain Bob Minor were rung by Mary Pemberton (Burnham) 1, Joyce Herne (Burnham) 2, W. Birmingham (Slough) 3, H. W. Barrett (Kingston) 4, F. H. Hicks (Hailsham) 5, G. Gilbert (conductor) (Burnham) 6. All were invited to the Vicarage afterwards. F.J.E.

Yorkshire Association

NORTHERN DISTRICT ANNUAL.

Recognition of the privilege of membership comes in different forms. Mrs. Neate, who has recently learnt, when the Northern District visited St. Mary's, Scarborough, provided a large iced cake inscribed: 'Welcome to Scarborough.' The cake was much admired and relished.

Archdeacon G. F. Townley conducted the service.

At the business meeting Mr. E. Hudson was re-elected district secretary, Mr. J. Ewbank was re-elected to the General Committee, and Mr. H. Rowsby was elected to the District Committee. Good wishes were sent to Canon C. C. Marshall, the retiring president of the Association.

Some indication of the keenness of Northern ringers is given in the fact that one member present at Scarborough travelled by bus, cycle and train a total distance of 140 miles.

WESTERN DIVISION AT MARSDEN.

The quarterly meeting was held on June 14th, and owing to the very inclement weather the attendance was disappointing.

Those attending were repaid through the enjoyment received from ringing and hearing this very fine ring of bells, and it is to be regretted that the local company are unable at present to man these bells regularly for Sunday service ringing. There is indeed scope for proficient instructors in this area, but situated as it is on the borders of the Pennines, it is difficult to get to and it is only on these rare occasions of meetings that much can be done.

DEDICATION AT CLECKHEATON.

A newly-installed ring of eight bells at St. John's Church, Cleckheaton, was dedicated on June 4th by the Bishop of Pontefract. These bells have been installed as a war memorial and the inscription on the tenor bell reads: 'These eight bells are installed in thanksgiving for deliverance from deadly peril, 1939-1945.'

The bells have been cast by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston and fitted with modern roller bearings. They are hung in a two tier frame, with the treble, 2nd and 5th on the top tier. The tenor weighs 10½ cwt. in A flat, and both the tone and go of the bells reflect great credit on the founders.

The bells were rung during the dedication by the ringers of Liversedge, assisted by friends from Batley and Mr. B. Newsom, who was present on behalf of the founders.

After the dedication a social evening was spent in the St. John's School, at which approximately 200 were present. An enthusiastic band of learners have been got together and are receiving instruction by the Liversedge ringers. F. H.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

GRIMSBY DISTRICT AT ALFORD.

When the Grimsby District met at Alford on June 7th, the Vicar (Canon W. Whitehead) conducted the service and gave an excellent address on the old adage:—

Who ryngs thys belle Let hym loke well
To hande and headde and herte.
Ye hande for work,
Ye headde for wyte,
Ye herte for worshyppe.

Mr. M. Graves, who this year completes 50 years' service as organist and choirmaster, accompanied.

The meeting was presided over by the Vicar. Ringers attended from Grimsby, Burton Latimer, Mablethorpe, Lincoln Cathedral, Kirton-in-Holland, Great Carlton, Ulceby and the local members. By the admission of seven new members from Great Carlton a further tower was added to the district. Owing to indisposition, the local secretary, Mr. Mingay, was unable to attend. The collection, amounting to £1 1s. 6d., was given to the Rupert Richardson Memorial.

Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild

A very successful meeting of the Southampton District was held at Eling on June 14th, when between 30 and 40 were present. An encouraging sign was a number of keen young ringers from Brockenhurst and Milford-on-Sea.

Good use was made during the afternoon and evening of the ring of six bells, a variety of methods was practised and several rang their first touch in some of the methods.

At the business meeting it was announced that the ring of eight at St. Michael's, Southampton, are to be augmented to ten. The order has been placed with Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., who are expected to complete the work at an early date. It was also reported that the bells at Andover Parish Church have been overhauled and rehung by the same firm and are to be rededicated by the Bishop of Winchester on July 30th.

The secretary announced an all-day meeting on August Bank Holiday in the Meon Valley.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

The quarterly meeting was held at St. Andrew's Church, Netherton, on June 7th. The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. C. Stevens), who gave an appropriate address, and the choirboys (24), under the direction of the organist and choirmaster, led the singing.

After the service the ringers and choirboys were the guests of the Vicar and wardens to a bountiful tea.

At the business meeting an invitation to hold the next meeting at Claverley was accepted. Further ringing was varied and enjoyable.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The visit of the West Norfolk Branch to North Elmham recently was the first to the tower since before the war. North Elmham was the seat of the bishopric before Norwich, and remains of the ecclesiastical buildings of that time are still to be seen. The Rev. W. G. Bridge, branch chairman, conducted the service and there was attendance of 34.

New members elected at the meeting of the East Norfolk Branch at Ranworth were Sir Edmund Bacon, of Raveningham Hall, hon. member; the Rev. K. O. Morris, hon. performing member; and Mr. A. More, of Matishall. The next meeting will be on July 26th at Norton Subcourse.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT EARLS COLNE.

Thirty-four ringers attended the meeting of the Northern District at Earls Colne on May 31st, when Miss H. G. Snowden, the District Ringing Master, presided at the business meeting and reported on the Central Council meeting at Exeter. Two old ringers—Mr. A. Saunders (Greenstead Green) and Mr. Turner (Earls Colne)—were welcomed and two new members elected. The next meeting was provisionally fixed for September 6th at Great Easton.

Canon H. Monks (Vicar) conducted the service and the collection for the Bell Restoration Fund was 17s. 6d. Ringing ranged from Bob Minor to Spliced Surprise Major.

AUSTRALIAN NEWS

Twelve members of the New South Wales Association on May 30th made a 125-mile journey by car to West Maitland to ring these six cast steel bells (tenor 14 cwt.). The bells went much easier than last time, a number of 120's being rung without undue effort, and the ladies rang in several touches. Grandsire, April Day, Plain Bob and Old Doubles were rung and several short touches of Bob Minor.

The service ringing on Sunday was 540 Grandsire Doubles, two men being necessary to ring the tenor. The Rev. Carlos Stretch and his family entertained the party with their usual hospitality.

TOWER SNATCHING

A somewhat derisive or contemptuous term is 'tower-snatching.' Who invented it we know not, but is there an enthusiastic ringer who will not confess that in his heart of hearts he is a 'tower-snatcher'? When the thrill of entering a new ringing chamber is lost to the individual then it might truly be said that his initial keenness as a ringer has evaporated. With what sense of expectancy does the newcomer climb the stairs of a strange belfry, for no two ringing chambers are identical. Some are palatial with rich apportionments; at the other end of the scale are those meagre boxlike chambers with barely sufficient room to handle the ropes, telling their own story of architects who knew nothing of bells and their ringing.

Charles Morgan in one of his essays writes of the power of the Abbey Church to refresh the spirit of private men; to which he adds 'a power the more gracious because it is shared by much humbler churches, each in its own manner and degree.' These visits to other churches are more than 'the bleak catalogue of photography.' They have something vital to give that develops the spiritual ego. There are some ringers to whom the grandeur of architecture makes but a fleeting impression, but they gain their sense of satisfaction through the peal of a bell by means of a bell rope. To them the bell is something living; a rope to them is as a rein to a horseman, and by its perfect handling that sense of mastery is secured. Each tower and its bells bring a fresh experience, a new delight and in itself a refreshment of the spirit.

In tower-snatching as in most things there are specialists. We know of some who delight in measuring their prowess by the tenors they have turned in. To them a sense of physical delight is an added pleasure. The weights and peculiarities, if any, of the 'go' are recorded with care. No one can deny that there is not something awe-inspiring to see a massive tenor revolving and to hear and almost to feel the vibration of a deep note which is frequently mellowed by age. Such a memory is constant, and the opportunity to ring such a bell by, say, the tenor enthusiasts, is one to be snatched at.

Then there is the spiritual experience of such visits. Ringing chambers react differently. Some we have visited are desolate and uncared for. Forelorn, they create a consciousness of not being part of the real life of the Church; no loving hands have swept them clean, and there is no joy in assembling in such a chamber Sunday by Sunday. There are others like a museum with the walls covered with peal boards giving messages of emulation to all who ring there of those giants of the Exercise who performed in bygone days. Finally the great joy of going into a belfry where evidence of loving care and attention is everywhere. The ropes in good condition, the same pride taken in keeping clean the furniture and other apportionments as in the body of the church itself. It is indeed the unsaid sermon; the consciousness of the consecrated building is very real; the visitor feels that something far greater than snatching a tower has been achieved. Presence exists in such a room, built up and hallowed by men and women who let all strangers know:—

We love the place, O God,
Wherein Thine honour dwells;
The joy of Thine abode
All earthly joy excels.

1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

We frequently receive quarter-peals from Australia. Now South Africa enters the lists with the following: On June 7th, at the Church of St. Mary, Woodstock,
Cape Town, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: J. Riley
1, V. Meyer 2, A. Collins 3, H. Milford 4, J.
Wood (conductor) 5, H. Meyer 6. A welcome addition.

By calling a peal of Minor in seven methods from the treble at Maulden, Beds, Mr. C. E.
Jeffries has conducted a peal from each bell in the tower. Mr. Andrew G. Sinfield has completed the circle three times.

Heavy holiday traffic across to the Isle of Wight made travelling difficult for the Winchester and Portsmouth meeting at Newport on Saturday. Two enthusiasts from Guildford reached the Island too late to find the main party or participate in the ringing.

Our editorial on insurance has resulted in our attention being called to a Bellringers'
Insurance Scheme issued by the Ecclesiastical Insurance Office, Ltd., aimed at covering ringing accidents. The premium is 1s. per ringer, minimum 10s. per tower.

Mr. J. C. Newman has completed 50 years

BELFRY GOSSIP

Recently at 4 p.m. a certain ringer who answers to the name of 'Jack,' after ringing the 6th at St. Paul's, walked into a milk bar in Fleet Street, accompanied by another ringer, and, to the consternation of the young lady behind the counter, said, 'Two pints of bitter, please, miss.'

Truro Cathedral's bells are to be broadcast for about one minute next Sunday evening.

From 3 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. and from 6.30 p.m. to 9 p.m., the bells of Saffron Walden were kept going on June 28th, the 324th anniversary of Great Ringing Day. The Vicar (the Rev.
R. M. Sinker) preached at the service. Next year, being the 325th anniversary special arrangements will be made to celebrate another quarter century of the Society.

Readers will be pleased to hear that Mr.
W. F. Judge is progressing well after his operation and was discharged from the Radcliffe Infirmary, Oxford, on Wednesday. He is hoping to attend the Guild Festival.

To reach their century of peals this week—
Mr. George A. Newton, with a peal of Little Bob Major at Earl Shilton, Leicestershire, and Mr. William Critchley, at St. Chad's, Birmingham. Congratulations!

About 40 years ago Mr. E. Barnett, of Crayford, rang in his father's (the late Mr. Edwin Barnett, sen.) 100th peal as conductor. On July 5th he took part in his son's 100th peal as conductor, when he called Carter's odd bob one-part. Has any ringer any recollection of a like incident?

When the Elloe Deaneries Branch of the Lincoln Guild met at Deeping St. Nicholas on June 28th it was decided to make a donation of £20 from the general fund to the Rupert Richardson Memorial Fund. The closing date for subscriptions to the fund was fixed for the last Saturday in September.

A LINCOLNSHIRE ATTEMPT.

Mr. John Freeman, of Lincoln, writes giving notice that on August Bank Holiday, August 4th, an attempt will be made by members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild to ring 14,144 changes of London Surprise Major at Heydour, Lincs.

The composition, by the Rev. H. Law James, is 32 changes longer than the present London Surprise Major record length, and is appended:

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

ASHFORD DISTRICT HONOUR MR. RUCK.

Over forty members and friends attended the meeting at Willesborough on June 21st, arranged in honour of Mr. E. S. Ruck's 80th birthday. The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. W. Loughborough), who in his address paid tribute to Mr. Ruck's work for the church during such a long period of 63 years. A full choir attended, with Mr. J. Ruck at the organ.

Tea was served at the Church Hall, kindly provided by Mr. and Mrs. Ruck. At its conclusion Mr. C. W. Everett presented Mr. Ruck with an umbrella and fountain pen from the district members. Mr. A. Battin said they were all proud of Mr. Ruck, he being the only surviving foundation member of the Association, and congratulated him on conducting a peal of Minor the previous evening.

Ringer Who Was Mayor

DEATH OF MR. J. HEMMING.

The Worcestershire and Districts Association has lost an outstanding personality by the death of Mr. James Hemming, a former Mayor of Evesham, on June 23rd, aged 74. Throughout a busy life he retained a love of bellringing.

A market gardener at Hampton, he was a member of the Parish Council from 1904 until the parish was incorporated in the Borough of Evesham in April, 1933. He was then elected an Alderman of Evesham and held this office until 1945. He was Mayor in 1941-42 and also a borough magistrate.

As a ringer Mr. Hemming will be recalled for the 25 years' service he rendered as hon. secretary and treasurer of the Southern Branch of the Worcestershire and Districts Association. On his retirement he was presented with a grandfather clock with Westminster chimes. Until ill-health intervened he was Ringing Master of Evesham Bell Tower, in which capacity his services will be greatly missed. His widow shares her bereavement with three sons and three daughters.

THE LATE MR. JAMES HEMMING

The Mayor and members of the Corporation attended in robes at the funeral service at Hampton on June 26th. The service was conducted by the Vicar of Hampton (the Rev. V. F. Honniball) and the Vicar of Evesham (Canon T. Charles Jones), in a tribute to his memory, said: 'He was a man of his word, who always had true regard for the interests of the people, and service was to him a kind of rent which he paid for the privilege of living in this world. He had paid it unstintingly.'

The bearers were members of the Hampton band of change ringers: Mr. S. Davis, Cclr. E. A. Andrews, Mr. P. Mills and Mr. W. Newman.

Representatives of ringing associations present included Mr. A. A. Checketts and Mr. H. A. Plumb (Evesham Bell Tower Guild), the Rev. T. Lloyd (Norton and Lenchwick), Mr. O. Attwood (Bredons Norton), Mr. John Hall, jun., and Mr. J. C. Perkins (Bretforfen), Mr. J. W. Heath (Willesley), Mr. Frank Jones (Badsey), Mr. R. Geden (Southern branch of the Worcestershire and Districts Association), Mr. L. W. G. Morris (general secretary, Yorkshire Association), Mr. W. C. Dowling (St. Martin's Guild).

A peal of Grandsire Caters was rung at Evesham Bell Tower on the day of the funeral with the bells half-muffled in memory of and in gratitude for his life and work.

Peterborough Diocesan Guild

DAVENTRY BRANCH VISIT FORMER MASTER.

On June 21st, a party of members of the Daventry Branch journeyed to Somerset to visit the Rev. and Mrs. Powell at their home at East Stoke Lodge, Stoke-under-Ham.

An early start was made, and while the driver was steering a course through the beautiful countryside to Bath, members of the party were endeavouring to steer handbells through courses of Grandsire Triples, Plain Bob Minor, Grandsire and Stedman Doubles.

During the hour and half stay in Bath lunch was partaken, and then on to Queen Camel, there to be met by the Rev. and Mrs. Powell, who had arranged for ringing the beautiful toned and heavy ring of six.

At East Stoke Lodge, where light refreshments were generously provided, a pleasant ceremony took place, a cheque and autograph album being presented to the Rev. and Mrs. Powell from branch members as a mark of appreciation of their work in the branch during their 13 years' stay at Staverton.

The five bells at Stoke Church were then rung to various methods until it was time to move on to Martock. The eight bells there were soon in motion and several touches were brought round before tea, which was had at the nearby Church Hall.

After thanks had been accorded to everyone who had helped to make the tour so successful, a start for home was made at 7 p.m.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Thirty-three members and friends from Angmering, Arundel, Chichester, Ewell, Felpham, Lynminster, Storrington, Walberton and West Grinstead attended the June quarterly meeting of the Western Division at Felpham.

The Association's form of service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. D. Manners), and Miss Manners was the organist. At the business meeting the Divisional C.C. representative reported on the recent meeting at Exeter, and ringers from Chichester, Goring, Lynminster and Westbourne were elected members. Steyning was suggested for the September quarterly meeting, and Easebourne (August) and Fittleworth (October) for practice meetings.

The Vicar and organist were thanked for their help towards making the meeting a success, and their appearance with the ringers during the ringing until the lowering of the bells brought many expressions of appreciation.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

NORTH DORSET BRANCH.

The summer meeting at Hazelbury Bryan attracted an attendance of 32 members. The Guild service was taken by the Rector (the Rev. J. Munro), and the Rev. A. C. Easan read the lesson. Tea followed at the Rectory.

At the business meeting the vice-chairman (the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards) referred to a recent loss to the Guild through the death of Mr. E. J. Rowe, of Stourton, an old member and a keen change ringer, who so long as his health permitted rarely missed a meeting. Members stood in silence.

Mention was made of the increased rate of subscriptions from 1s. 6d. to 2s. 6d., which would take effect in the coming year. Mr. F. Priddle, of Stalbridge, was elected a ringing member. Ringing also took place at Okeford Fitzpaine.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

Southwell Diocesan Guild

JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS AT ST. PETER'S, NOTTINGHAM.

An interesting ceremony preceded the peal of Grandsire Caters at St. Peter's on June 22nd, when about 30 ringers and church officers met in the vestry, where Mr. H. R. Cobbin was the recipient of a double presentation to mark his 50 years' service to the church.

After a few introductory remarks by the Rector, the Rev. T. A. Lee, Mr. J. A. Barratt (Deputy Ringing Master) presented Mr. Cobbin with an illuminated address from the ringers, and Mr. F. Trevitt (organist), on behalf of the church officers, presented him with a silver cream jug.

Both speakers emphasised the fact that this was something more than a mere 50 years' membership of the tower, Mr. Barratt pointing out that apart from his many years as Ringing Master, Mr. Cobbin had also been responsible for several sets of ropes, for the augmentation of the peal from eight to ten, and for the recent rehanging on ball bearings throughout.

Mr. Trevitt supplemented this with the information that they had many times to thank 'Bob' Cobbin for his timely help in difficult moments.

Mr. Cobbin, in reply, thanked one and all for their kind remarks, and expressed his one regret that time had left its mark and he could not now climb the stairs as before. He had been barred by his doctor from doing this now for some months, but had received permission to make the ascent again that day, and hoped to be able to continue for some time to come.

It is pleasing to record that his attempted ascent was successful, as was also the touch of Grandsire Caters in which he took part.

AT BARNBY-IN-THE-WILLOWS.

Barnby-in-the-Willows—remote from noise and bustle, and somewhat inaccessible—attracted a small company of ringers from a fairly wide area on June 21st. The gathering included that well-known personality, Mr. T. Groombridge, sen. Indeed, since the Newark Branch was formed, this stout-hearted veteran has attended meetings frequently, setting an example that could well be emulated.

The light ring was put to good use during the afternoon and evening. The ladies were agreeably entertained by the Vicar and Gillian, and were intrigued by the remarkable pew heads, which include a perfect Punch and Judy.

The next meeting will be at North and South Collingham on September 20th, if permission is granted, and the secretary was instructed to invite the Lincoln Diocesan Guild to participate in a joint meeting there as was done in the past when the old North Notts Association held sway in this area.

NORTH STAFFORD ASSOCIATION VISIT TO LOUGHBOROUGH.

Four buses were engaged to take the 146 ringers and friends on the association's outing to the Loughborough Bell Foundry on June 14th, and no fewer than 22 towers were represented in the party.

Arriving at the foundry at 11 a.m., the party was welcomed by Mr. Paul Taylor and Mr. J. P. Fidler and Mr. A. Fidler, who escorted them through the works and explained in detail the various aspects of bell making. Some enjoyed a ring on the light peal in the foundry.

An excellent lunch was served at the Boys' Club Sports Room, the Vicar of Dilhorne, Staffs, presiding. Ringing in the afternoon was enjoyed at Dathern, Shepshid and Loughborough Parish Church. When the company reassembled at tea thanks were expressed to Messrs. W. Carnwell (secretary) and R. S. Anderson for arranging the outing, and to Mr. P. Taylor and Mr. Fidler. The party arrived home at about 10.30 p.m.

Midland Counties Guild

OVERSEAL MEETING.

The handy ring of eight at Overseal, a 1914-18 war memorial, was tested by about 25 members of the Midland Counties Guild on June 14th. Ringing was kept going at intervals from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m., and although no great variety of methods were rung, good practice was put in by the younger members.

The Rev. J. Bryant conducted the Guild form of service, and after extending a welcome to the members, delivered an interesting address.

Immediately after tea in the C. of E. Schools, Mr. W. H. Curson presided over the business meeting, at which Mr. W. Darby, of Lullington, was elected a member. It was decided to accept the invitation of the Loughborough District of Leicester Diocesan Guild to a joint meeting at Castle Donington on July 12th, and the summer meeting of the Guild to be held at Hoar Cross on July 26th.

The secretary (Mr. J. W. Cotton) was thanked for his account of the Central Council meeting at Exeter, and the meeting closed with Miss G. Inwood proposing and Miss J. Cochrane seconding a vote of thanks to all who had helped to make the meeting, despite the weather, so enjoyable.

TICKNALL MEETING.

Despite many counter attractions, about 25 members representing 14 towers were present at the meeting at Ticknall. Mr. W. H. Curson presided and two new honorary members—Mr. T. Kirby, Overseal, and Mr. W. Noble, Ticknall—were elected. Thanks to the Vicar, the Rev. J. G. Pope, and to the ladies who prepared cups of tea were voiced by Mr. J. H. Brittan, seconded by Miss Jill Cochrane.

Touches were brought round in the following methods: Double Oxford, Double Court and Plain Bob Minor, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Stedman, Grandsire and Canterbury Pleasure Doubles.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD CHIPPING NORTON DEANERY.

When the branch held its annual meeting at Shipton-under-Kirkwood they received words of congratulation from the Rev. C. E. Wigg (Master) and Mr. W. Hibbert (Guild secretary). A grant of 3 gns. was made to the General Guild Funds. The officers were re-elected, and Chipping Norton selected for the next annual meeting.

DEATH OF MR. E. G. HEATH

For over 50 years a ringer at S. Nicolas', Guildford, Mr. Edward George ('Charlie') Heath died on June 28th, aged 75. For many years he was tower secretary and about two years ago he was compelled to resign the post due to health reasons, being no longer able to climb the belfry stairs. His kindly nature endeared him to many.

The funeral was at S. Nicolas' Church on July 1st, and in the evening members of his old company and friends rang half-muffled touches as a token of respect. He leaves a wife and daughter.

Beverley and District Society

JOINT MEETING WITH SELBY SOCIETY.

Fifty members from 15 different towers attended this joint meeting at Market Weighton on June 14th and they received a cordial welcome from the Vicar (the Rev. Massingberd Mundy) and Mr. J. W. Kneeshaw.

A well-struck touch of Stedman preceded the service, conducted by the Vicar. During the singing of the psalm and immediately after the words, 'Praise Him on the loud cymbals, two members from each Society joined in ringing a touch of Grandsire Triples on handbells. Mr. Frank Wilkinson, 50 years a churchwarden and ringer, read the lesson.

The historic church was explained to the members by Mr. J. V. Harwood, author of 'Market Weighton, its early history and church,' who was heartily thanked.

A splendid tea was followed by the business meeting, at which Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair, supported by Mr. F. Dales (vice-president), Mr. Clem Glenn (Ringing Master), Mr. H. S. Fox and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary) representing the Beverley District, and Messrs. H. Morley, T. Foster, F. Terry and E. Thorley representing Selby District. In his message of welcome the President expressed the hope that this combined meeting would become an annual event.

Attention was called to the annual meeting of the Beverley Society at Beverley on July 12th, and arrangements for the August and September meetings were left to the committee.

Acknowledging a vote of thanks moved by Mr. H. S. Fox and seconded by Mr. T. Foster, the Vicar said a move was on foot to have the bells recast and an addition of two more to complete the octave. This announcement was received with much satisfaction and the hope was expressed that this would soon be accomplished.

Other people thanked included Mr. J. W. Kneeshaw, the local company and the ladies for the tea and the most efficient arrangements. There was keen competition for the ropes at the evening's ringing, and apart from the standard methods, Cambridge Surprise was rung.

BARNSELY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The annual shield contest was held at Royston on June 14th, when seven bands competed. The result of the draw and the ringing was as follows:—

	Faults	Penalties	Total
1 Friezland ...	45	0	45
2 Liversedge ...	40	0	40
3 Silkstone ...	110	0	Rung out
4 Sandal ...	94	0	94
5 Darfield ...	199	20	219
6 Shelley ...	56	5	61
7 Cawthorne ...	107	4	Rung out

Silkstone rang Plain Bob and Shelley Violet Treble Bob; the others rang Oxford Treble Bob. The test piece was 600 changes, and Mr. H. Chant, Felkirk, and Mr. H. Roberts acted as judges. Liversedge were declared the winners and hold the shield for twelve months.

The weather was rather unkind, but, nevertheless, it was a good contest and a most enjoyable afternoon, nearly 100 being present.

SURREY ASSOCIATION MEETING AT CHERTSEY.

More than 50 ringers attended the North-Western District meeting at Chertsey on June 21st to sample these fine old bells, which have recently been rehung by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd. The fifth bell, cast in 1370, is the origin of the poem, 'Curfew must not ring to-night.' At the service the Rev. C. L. Holthouse gave the address and also extended a warm welcome to the ringers. Tea followed.

Mr. F. Collins (Ringing Master) presided at the business meeting, when Mr. F. Sangwin, Borden, Cornwall, and Miss Lawrence, Alverdon, Suffolk, were elected life members. Wimbledon was voted for the next meeting on September 27th.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Council's Duty

TO GIVE THE EXERCISE A CLEAR VISION.

Dear Sir,—I have just read Mr. Smallwood's letter, and I am afraid that my first impression was that good taste was entirely absent from the context, although the two words were frequently used in the phraseology.

Surely, when such a matter is brought up at a Council meeting, it would have been the correct procedure to get down to business and not side-track the issue, whatever the result might have been. This case could easily have been settled by diplomatic action in half an hour.

I do not know how many members agreed with Mr. Smallwood's remarks that 'they were bored by the laboured presentation of the case,' but it seems to me that when a person consents to serve on the Central Council it is his duty to concentrate to the best of his ability on the affairs of the Council and to give his unbiased decision when he is called upon to cast his vote.

The Council were not asked to decide whether the performance was a stunt or not; that is, of course, a purely personal affair. If, after careful consideration, the rules had been revised to state definitely that peals of the description under review would not be officially counted, I think everyone would have been satisfied.

After all, the primary object of the annual Council meeting is to make decisions, so that the Exercise may have a clear vision of modern requirements. If loopholes are discovered—and with rules that are not modernised this must be expected—it is the duty of the Central Council to provide the necessary legislation to meet the circumstances.

I sincerely hope that, in future, if the Council find a disagreeable subject on the agenda, they will really get down to tackling it, cast aside all personal bias, and give the Exercise the lead which it has the right to expect from its governing body.—Yours faithfully,

F. W. HOUSDEN.

Wanstead, E.11.

'GUILLOTINE'

Dear Sir,—I do not wish to discuss the drift of Mr. Smallwood's letter on the above in your last issue of 'The Ringing World,' but would like to point out I and other members of our Guild think the third paragraph of that letter, especially the last two lines, is very bad taste and a slur on one of our young and clever exponents of our art. To make a statement such as this on any one, I would say, 'First know your man.'

Having been closely associated with many of our expert committee-men on the Council for over fifty years, I hope I may be forgiven for any remarks I have made on behalf of one of our honoured colleagues.

GEORGE WILLIAMS.

1, Chestnut Avenue, Eastleigh.

NOT FIRST CLASS PERFORMANCE.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Felstead appeals, 'We must be logical and fair to all.' May it not be asked in what way the Central Council has not been so? If Hammond, during the Australian tour, had scored 200 against a country 15, would that score count in the first class averages? The Basingstoke 'peal' appears to have been a 5,000 of Major rung with a covering bell. Surely this 'peal' is not Major nor does it conform to the accepted rules of the Exercise for 'first class' performances. What name would Mr. Felstead propose that his performance should have?

F. C. SMALE.

Okehampton.

WICKEN, NORTHANTS. — On May 11th, 1,260 Stedman Triples: H. Ridgway 1, A. N. Wood 2, T. Roberts 3, G. Holland 4, W. Yates 5, F. Case 6, A. J. Green (conductor) 7, G. Foddy 8.

Film Ringing

Dear Sir,—Readers of 'The Ringing World' are indebted to Mr. H. Goodenough for drawing attention to the excellent English film, 'Green Fingers.'

The sound of Whitby Abbey bells is introduced early in the picture. 'Have you seen the ringing? It's very interesting,' says the old fisherman, as he conducts his friend up the 199 steps of the Abbey.

Interesting it certainly proves to be. The old tenor-man (who incidentally appears to be ringing the treble all the time) is obviously the veriest tyro. He makes a brave show, but to keep his bell up and in place is quite beyond his powers. Standing well back, one foot thrust forward, he does manage to catch the tuffing, and even sets up at the end of the touch.

Did I notice a faintly perceptible appearance of surprise and relief at this success, and was there an accomplice perched high above to grab the rope and hold it taut as it ascended? The actor's fumbling attempt at tying up the rope lasts so long that the camera tires and the scene is cut.

This inexperience in such an experienced old ringer is happily and rather uncannily not reflected at all in the sound of the ringing, which is a pleasure to listen to throughout. The end of the touch is ragged, half the bells failing to set up, but in that there is no inconsistency.

We are told that this actor had less than an hour's tuition in the handling of a bell-rope; great praise should therefore be accorded him for his level playing of this part.

Although the ringing sequences are short and merely incidental to the plot, it does seem to me that a little more time might usefully have been given to making sure of the details. They were so nearly right.

However, to the layman these inaccuracies will not be evident, a fact doubtless well realised by the director of the film, who knows his job and does it well.

'Green Fingers' will not do our Exercise any harm. See it if it comes your way. It is beautifully photographed, has a good story and is very well acted. I enjoyed every minute of it.

J. E. B.

POPULARISING RINGING

Dear Sir,—Our local Women's Institute approached me in an effort to obtain a handbell demonstration to be given at their garden fete. I was successful in getting Stedman H. Symonds, Ernest W. Pye, Edwin Jennings and Albert Catterwell.

The excellent entertainment provided has done much to further public interest in campanology locally, and I afterwards received several requests for a repeat performance. My four fellow ringers came free of charge, and I wish to extend my very sincere thanks to them.

If all petty differences can be discussed and then cremated, what a wonderful spirit of comradeship would exist in our world of ringing. I am acquainted with some Grade A ringers who are allowing their gift from God to rot away because of some minor dispute.

To these four gentlemen who live for bells and all they stand for again my thanks.—Fraternalty yours,

LESLIE MILLS.

Bures, Suffolk.

A CROSSWORD CLUE

Dear Sir.—Those of your readers who did not notice it may be interested to know that the 'Times' crossword puzzle of June 24th contained the clue, 'A slip of the tongue would be heard by a multitude in his case.' The solution was 'Bellringer.'

This is, I think, an indication that the general public is not quite so indifferent to bad striking as many change ringers seem to think.—Yours faithfully, Tiverton, Devon.

E. J. TAYLOR.

Norfolk Imperial Bob Major

Dear Sir,—With reference to the method published as Norfolk Imperial Bob Major, surely the figures would be better if arranged as follows:—

i.e., without the 3rd and 4th lying still at the start and in the 14th and 15th row of the plain lead. In the method as published the 4th place bell at the bob has to be four blows at one place (best avoidable).

I might say I got the figures out as above some time ago, and while on the subject I also sent some figures of a method on the lengthening lead plan to 'The Ringing World' some 26 or 27 years ago, which were published as Netherton Complex Major under my name, and this method has since been rung as Coslany Court Bob Major.

I believe the first plain major method on the lengthening lead plan was published by the late Gabriel Lindoff and he called it Dublin Complex. As these methods are on a different plan to Court methods, etc., I think Complex is a more suitable definition of this class of method. By the way, these methods are more difficult to ring than Surprise (or are they?).—Yours,

ALFRED DAVIES.

Netherton, Worcestershire.

JAMES HEMMING MEMORIAL

Dear Sir,—A scheme is in hand to install a complete new peal of eight at St. Andrews, Hampton, Worcestershire, the church with which the late Mr. James Hemming was associated and where he worshipped all his life. With his death, a suggestion has been made that one of the new bells should be provided by his friends in memory of his years of unselfish work for the community, and a happy note is struck here in the fact that the suggestion first came from a non-ringer. The committee responsible has given immediate approval, and I have been asked to give publicity to it through 'The Ringing World.' This is in no sense a widespread appeal, but there are many ringers up and down the country who knew him intimately and who received kindness and courtesy from him. Should any of these wish to associate themselves with the provision of this memorial bell, donations should be sent to the Hon. Secretary of the Bell Fund, Mr. F. Emstone, 80, Pershore Road, Hampton, Evesham, Worcestershire, marking them 'J. Hemming Memorial.'—Yours faithfully,

J. D. JOHNSON, Gen. Sec.,

Worcestershire Association.

Sedgeberrow, Evesham.

A TENOR'S YEAR'S WORK

Dear Sir.—It may be of interest to readers, particularly those who have visited our tower, to know that the meter operated by our tenor, and so recording the number of changes rung on the bells, has at the end of the first year reached a total of 80,885.—Yours faithfully,

JOHN ALSOP.

Ebbw Vale, Mon.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD WIRRAL BRANCH.

A record gathering of 83 ringers and friends was present at St. Nicholas', Burton, on June 21st. (The previous best was 76 at Capenhurst in 1923.) Fourteen of Wirral Branch's 18 towers were represented, together with friends from the Liverpool Branch of the Lancashire Association.

Ringing ranged from rounds to London Surprise, and the service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. H. Tyndale), who also gave the address. A picnic tea was afterwards enjoyed at the Village Institute.

Mr. J. Cooke presided at the business meeting and requested the company to stand as a silent tribute to the late Mr. W. Wilcox, a life member of the Guild, who died a fortnight previously. He had been Ringing Master of the branch, but had retired from active ringing in 1931.

Next meeting will be held at Oxtan on July 19th.

TRADITION

This week the thought uppermost in the Exercise is the bi-centenary of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths. There was a memorable gathering in London on Saturday to pay tribute to the contribution the Cumberlands have made towards the advancement of our art. What was indeed striking was the number of young people present, recruits of this ancient society, who are endeavouring to capture some of the tradition associated with the Cumberlands. Tradition is not a thing to be ignored; it is a priceless asset inasmuch as it invariably sets a standard.

Associated with the formation of the Cumberlands is a wealth of legend of the connection of the ringers of St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, with the victor of Culloden. Mr. J. Armiger Trollope describes in 'College Youths' as a pretty little tale the story of how, as the Duke passed by St. Leonard's Church on his return, he was welcomed by a merry peal, which so pleased him that he sent and congratulated the ringers and presented them with the medal which is still worn by the Master. To show their gratitude the ringers altered their name to that of the Royal Cumberland Youths. Mr. Trollope adds that the society was not founded until September 6th, 1747, and, according to contemporary newspapers, when the Duke returned he did not come by the old North Road nor through the City, but went straight to Kensington to report to the King.

There is no question that the Duke was a popular figure in London, and nowhere more so than among the Spitalfield weavers. Mr. Trollope, however, expresses grave doubts whether the Duke had any interest in bells or ringing, as is shown by his attitude at Carlisle in 1745, when his army attempted to confiscate the bells of the cathedral as 'a perquisite to the train of artillery.' Be that as it may, the word Cumberlands is an honoured one among ringers and the society has attracted into its ranks men who have been outstanding personalities.

The days of animosity between the College Youths and the Cumberlands are now gone. Both societies have capable and experienced leaders and draw their membership from the territorial associations. There is a school of thought which argues that the territorial associations should be all-sufficing, but the pull of tradition is strong, and these societies—the College Youths and the Cumberlands—who are the Alma Mater of much of the performance ringing, have a rightful and legitimate place among ringing associations. In a sense they are the Oxford and Cambridge of ringing, each rejoicing in its individuality and exclusiveness. The view of Mr. E. H. Lewis, the president of the Central Council, that it is an excellent thing that there should be this exclusive rivalry, is one generally accepted.

Tradition is of value in two ways. It weaves an air of romance and there is a sense of elation in being the direct descendants of those giants of our art and being responsible for carrying on the torch. The second is in the matter of example. Those feats of past years have to be emulated, if not surpassed, if the tradition of the society is to be worthily upheld. In the matter of performance the Cumberlands and College Youths have to look to their laurels in face of the challenge from Birmingham, Leicester and Lincolnshire. Of late years the Cumberlands have given particular heed to the matter of recruiting in attracting to their ranks young ringers of promise; it is the only way they will be able to maintain that rivalry with the Ancient Society of College Youths.

'The Ringing World' was founded in the year 1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

Behind the peal of Grandsire Doubles at Chiseldon, Wiltshire, the first on the bells since augmentation to six, is a story of fine achievement. Since 1914 Mr. Seward C. Archer has taught numerous people to ring, and now at the age of 69 he has rung his first peal.

The immortal trio—Mr. and Mrs. J. Bray and George E. Fein—have reached their objective of 105 methods in hand. Congratulations will be sent from all over the country to Cleatham, Lincs. The Ladies' Guild passed a special resolution of congratulation to Mrs. Bray at Manchester.

The peal record at St. John's, Erith, for 1947 reads: 12 attempts, 11 peals, 10 methods (Superlative, Eardley, Yorkshire, Belgrave, Belvedere, Pudsey, London, Cambridge, Ipswich, Bristol 2), 7 conductors.

An attempt to ring the first peal of Major on the steel bells at St. Clement's, Hastings, came to grief on July 5th after 2 hours and 50 minutes through the tenor rope fraying out on the wheel. Mr. A. Pat Cannon reports that the bells did not go too well.

The composition of Mr. Ernest Morris of Stedman Cinques rung at Lincoln Cathedral on July 2nd has the bells in the Tittums and handstroke Home positions at alternate course-ends throughout the peal.

In honour of the 80th birthday of Mr. Josiah Morris, a peal 'in hand' was rung in St. Margaret's belfry on July 1st. Mr. Morris, who was born at Weymouth, is at present spending a holiday with his younger son George. He rang his first peal at Loughborough Parish Church over 50 years ago and took part in the record peal of Double Norwich Major at South Wigston in 1904, of which he and Thomas H. Taffender are the only survivors. Since his 75th birthday he has rung close on 80 peals.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The bells of St. Peter's Cathedral, Adelaide, were opened by a band of ringers from Sydney. Ringers of St. Paul's Cathedral, Melbourne, who had rung peals in England and Australia, were very disappointed in not being invited to attend.

Mr. J. A. Freeman, Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, informs us that no closing date for subscriptions to the Rupert Richardson Memorial Fund has been fixed. The date mentioned in Belfry Gossip last week apparently refers to the Elloe Deaneries Branch.

Another veteran recorded this week is Mr. J. Holme, who on his 83rd birthday (June 13th) rang at St. John's, Silverdale, Lancs, a date touch, being 960 Kent Treble Bob, 960 Oxford Treble Bob, 27 Plain Bob. The ringers were A. F. Housley 1, T. Dobson 2, J. Holme 3, D. Holden 4, G. Lockwood 5, W. Bolton (conductor) 6. Mr. Holme has now completed 66 years in the belfry and is a regular attendant.

When the Rev. Malcolm Melville took a copy of 'The Ringing World' into the office of 'The Times of Malta' to show that their photograph of Lija bells being dedicated had been duly acknowledged, the news editor said: 'Oh yes, "The Ringing World." I've seen that paper several times. It gets about the world a bit.' Apparently he is a friend of Robert Robinson, a ringer from Portsmouth, who is now master of a tug at Malta.

The East Norfolk Branch meeting at Norton Subcourse has been postponed until August 9th and is not on July 26th as stated in our issue of July 4th.

Early accounts of the Oxford Guild Festival last Saturday indicate that the attendance surpassed all previous gatherings. One enthusiast informed us that he rang in every tower that was open, but he would not have achieved it without a first class hustle. His rival was the man from Wrington, Somerset, who rang one less. Tower snatching with a vengeance!

CUMBERLANDS CELEBRATE THEIR BI-CENTENARY

MEMORABLE GATHERING ..... OLD LEGENDS RECALLED ..... CENTRAL COUNCIL'S PRESIDENT AND MORE VARIETY IN HIGHER NUMBER PEALS ..... CONCERN OVER ST. MARTIN'S STEEPLE

THE high regard with which the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths is held within the Exercise was manifested on Saturday, when the 200th anniversary dinner was held at the Old Bell Restaurant, Holborn. Tributes were paid to the great contribution the Cumberlands had made to the advancement of ringing by Mr. E. H. Lewis, president of the Central Council, and by other speakers.

It was a memorable day for Mr. G. H. Cross, the veteran Master, and his officers. During the day the bells of St. Mary's, Lambeth, Southwark Cathedral, St. Giles-in-the-Fields and St. Margaret's, Westminster, were available. The sudden death of the Rev. Eric Loveday, Vicar of St. Martin's, prevented these historic bells, which for years have been associated with the Cumberlands, being used.

Evensong at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields was attended by the company, and the Rev. Kennedy Bell, who officiated at the service, extended a welcome to the 80 members of the Society present. Handbells were rung during the service in the vestry.

THE COMPANY.

The arrangements for the dinner left nothing to be desired. The Master (Mr. G. H. Cross) presided, and supporting him on the top table were Mrs. Cross, the Rev. H. Cecil (St. Leonard's, Shoreditch), the Rev. A. Taylor (St. Bride's) and Dr. A. B. Perry (St. Martin's-in-the-Fields), Mr. E. H. Lewis (president of the Central Council), Mr. G. W. Fletcher (secretary of the Central Council), Mr. G. W. Cecil (Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths) and Mr. T. W. White (Editor of 'The Ringing World').

The company included two past masters, Mr. C. J. Matthews and Mr. J. Parker, Mr. G. W. Steere (hon. secretary and treasurer), Mr. T. G. Bevan (senior steward) and Mrs. Bevan, Mr. F. E. Hawthorne (junior steward) and Mrs. Hawthorne, Mrs. G. W. Fletcher (Ladies' Guild).

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Ayre, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. C. Snowden, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Deal, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kirkby, Mr. and Mrs. H. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Harrington, Mesdames J. R. Hawkins, J. D. Matthews, F. Smith, C. J. Matthews, E. E. Davis, the Misses H. Snowden, A. E. Arkell, J. Britten, M. Lidbetter, D. Lidbetter, J. Mattinson, D. Townsend, B. Frost, A. Holden, S. E. Harris, P. Holmes, Radley and D. Colgate.

After the loyal toast the Chairman announced the passing of the Rev. Eric Loveday, suddenly in Australia. The company stood as a silent tribute to his memory.

The secretary read apologies and these included messages from Mr. George Williams, now over 91, who joined the Society in 1885, Mr. E. Keable, who was in hospital at Colchester, Arthur Hughes, Major Satow (in Austria), Canon Fitz-George and Mr. George Gilbert, who had fallen downstairs and hurt himself rather severely. A telegram was also received from the Oxford Diocesan Guild, who were holding their annual festival that day, reading 'Congratulations and happy day to all, from Hibbert.'

MR. G. H. CROSS,
Master of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths.

RINGING: SERVICE NOT WORSHIP.

Mr. W. Ayre, proposing the toast of 'The Church,' said if it had not been for the Church as represented by the clergy, where would their art be? The Church had provided them with their instruments and, generally speaking, the clergy had been very patient and long suffering towards them. The old idea was that the tower was separate from the Church and that when the ringers had finished their work they departed from the church and were not seen again until next Sunday or a practice. That was because of the lack of co-operation between the clergy and the ringers. Now there was more appreciation of each other and they were not looked upon as drunkards as they used to be. There was still room for them to do their part because ringing was service for the Church and not worship.

This Society in London was particularly indebted to three towers—St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, St. Bride's and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields. He coupled with the toast the Rev. H. Cecil, Vicar of St. Leonard's, and the Rev. A. Taylor, Vicar of St. Bride's.

The Rev. H. Cecil prefaced his reply with a word of congratulation to the Society on reaching his 200th year. 'We all hope that your work will continue and that in 200 years' time the bells of Shoreditch will be rung by the Royal Society of Cumberland Youths.'

The Church in these days, he said, did not appear to be in too much favour with the ordinary people. It made it pleasant to find a strong band of men and women who had not only a good word for the Church, but had continued to ring for years. There was a time when the arts and sciences looked to the Church as their mother. With the growth of civic consciousness these had gradually departed from the Church to the State or local authority and the art of bellringing was one of the few that were left.

THE DUKE AND SHOREDITCH.

'I myself like to believe that the tradition that we hear between your art and my church has a certain amount of truth. I was only reading the other day that it is recorded that when the Duke of Cumberland returned to London after Culloden it was the bells of Shoreditch that rang out in celebration of that great event and that the ringing band named themselves after him and he presented a medal to the Society in 1747. There is another in connection with the oil painting of the Duke which is in St. Martin's. It is said that it was originally in St. Leonard's and a band of ringers came along and purloined it and took it to St. Martin's. As St. Martin was kind enough to share his cloak with the beggar we might stand a chance of getting our picture back (laughter).'

'There is another fact. In the year 1807 your Society added two bells to our ring. I believe it was rather a ghastly business. When all the money had been paid for the bells the treasurer bolted and the money had to be collected again. The bells of St. Leonard's have been silent since 1939. We hope that when the architect says you can ring you will come back to Shoreditch again. The work of repairing the church has begun. We have a new roof, but it will be a year or two before we are completed. I think we all look forward to a resurrection following the crucifixion through which we have passed, and when we call our people back to worship the Royal Cumberland Youths will be there and by the ringing of the bells send a hearty invitation to our people again.'

The Rev. A. Taylor said there was no couplet associated with the bells of St. Bride's as there was with the bells of St. Clement's and of Shoreditch. He thought it might be 'Step inside, said the bells of St. Bride's,' which might apply to all bellringers. He had seen the big bell at the Kremlin and stood under the big bell at Tokyo and listened to the bells at Burma. It was something to be thankful for that there was this association between the bells of the Church and the people. The bells were the inarticulate expression of the voice of the community.

The toast of 'The Society of Royal Cumberland Youths' was proposed by Mr. E. H. Lewis, who said he was in the middle of a holiday in the West Highlands of Scotland and the following night he was going back there to his second home. He was afraid he would not receive a very warm welcome if he told them he had been to a function that in a way was of honour to the Duke of Cumberland. When in Scotland he belonged to the Episcopalian Church, which suffered great monetary loss by the troubles of 1745. Some good, however, did come out of the evil of those times, and General Wade provided a series of good military roads.

He was not going to be so foolish, as a College Youth, to say anything about the history of the Royal Cumberland Youths, for they knew far more about their Society than he did. There were two points which rather interested him. At one time, at the beginning of the 19th century, their Society was not content to stick to the plain methods on the higher number of bells; in fact an examination of their peal book looked as if their Society tried to find a new method each time. He wished to-day that ringers would do something of that sort. When an eight-bell tower got the addition of two bells they started on Grandsire or Stedman Caters and rang nothing else. There were hundreds of methods which could be rung with very little effort by a good band and were also good musically. He hoped the Cumberlands would encourage their members to vary their methods.

KEEN RIVALRY.

Another thing he noticed in his slight incursion into their history was the keen rivalry between their Society and his. He did not know whether they would permit him to quote a song written for the Cumberlands in 1802:—
The College Youths do boast of what peals they have rung, Saying by the Cumberlands such never could be done;
Their band the select eleven thousand and eighty rang complete,
But the Cumberlands rang twelve thousand and completely they did beat.

Next Treble Bob Maximus they at Overy's did ring,
And with twelve men only to beat their complete thing,
For with twelve men only they rang and brought them round,
Saying never with the Cumberlands will such a twelve be found.

Seven thousand one hundred and four we then did ring,
And with twelve men only to beat their complete thing,
On March the twenty-second eighteen hundred and two,
In five hours and thirty minutes rang the peal right through.

That showed the state of rivalry between the two Societies at that time, in which their Society, according to their own story, beat his Society. 'We don't bear you any grudge,' added the President of the Central Council.

There was some complaint a few years ago on the grounds of why have two Societies. Why should College Youths not join the Cumberlands and Cumberlands become College Youths? 'Personally, I think it is an excellent thing that there should be this exclusive rivalry. Several times when talking about ringing I have drawn an analogy between ringing and rowing. If a rowing coach told a crew that their finishing was like a peal of bells it would be the greatest insult they could get (laughter). A member of the Cambridge crew cannot row with the Oxford crew, but the two can row together for Leander at Henley even if they are beaten by Jesus in the Grand. I have no use for Mr. Horner and one big union (laughter). I hope our two Societies will retain their respective identities and work on the common ground for our art of change ringing.

COLLEGE YOUTHS' CONGRATULATIONS.

This afternoon our Society held a meeting at the Bell Foundry at Whitechapel and they passed a resolution sending the congratulations of the Ancient Society of College Youths to the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths on attaining their 200th birthday and their very best wishes for the future' (applause). He was asked to convey it to them, although it possibly might have come better from their Master. He coupled with the toast the name of the Master, Mr. G. H. Cross.

Mr. G. H. Cross, who was warmly received on rising to reply, thanked Mr. Lewis for his kind words in regard to the Society. They knew of his good work on the Central Council, although sometimes he thought Mr. Lewis told them too much about striking. He was afraid that he personally said too little about that. They met at Southwark that afternoon and he was very annoyed at the standard of striking.

With regard to the Society, it was formed between 1745 and 1747, and the first actual account of the Society was in September, 1747, but, as the Rev. Cecil said, there was a legend that the bells were rung when the Duke of Cumberland came through Shoreditch and that he became a ringer. But what he rang they had not been told. It was also said that he gave the Society the medal he was wearing as Master, but although he looked, he could find no date on it.

In any case, their Society was one of the oldest. The College Youths were formed in 1647 and the Norwich Scholars in 1727 and they were finally dissolved in 1914, when all their old property and pewter pots were shared among the surviving members. It was very sad to him because as a youngster he was very proud to drink hot rum and beer from a pewter pot.

With regard to their performances, in the 18th century the Cumberlands did put up some splendid peals. There was the 12,000 Treble Bob, which stood until 1911, when it was beaten at Ashton-under-Lyne. Another peal was the 7,000 at Southwark and the 5,200 at St. Mary-le-Bow. In those days they did not have such people as Mr. Hughes to hang bells and there must be great credit given to ringers of those days. Another performance was the peal of Court Bob Royal rung at Shoreditch in 1801 and conducted by George Gross. Another peal was that of the Norwich Scholars in 1778, who were all members of the Society of Cumberland Youths. The great ringers of those days were George Partrick, George Gross, John Reeves, Charles Purser, William Lyford and Henry Shipway.

In the latter part of the last century they had some fine ringers, including Mr. George Williams and Mr. James Parker, who had come from Yarmouth to be with them. In later years the Society owed a great deal to Mr. J. D. Matthews and to Mr. Frank Smith, and it was a pleasure to have their widows with them that day. He was very pleased to say that they had many young ringers who had joined the Society, and he hoped that they would stick with them so that they could ring better methods. Perhaps one day they would ring the first peal of Pudsey Maximus in London.

'The Visitors' were honoured on the call of Mr. W. R. Winterton, who mentioned especially Dr. Perry, the Senior Warden of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, to whom all Cumberlands who rang at St. Martin's were greatly indebted. He gave them a new set of ropes, and the speaker expressed the hope that he would find the means to give them a little neat this winter in their little room almost suspended in the stratosphere. The greatest thing Dr. Perry had done was to arrange practices, which had been of tremendous benefit to St. Martin's and all Cumberlands, and the fact that it was 15 years since there had been a regular practice showed how difficult it was. One difficulty was the close proximity to Charing Cross Hospital, but some time in the next 20 years Charing Cross is to be moved.

ST. MARTIN'S STEEPLE.

Dr. A. B. Perry, in reply, said it was close in 60 years that he had been associated with St. Martin's, and for 46 years he had held office. It might interest the Cumberlands that there was a record, which was unfortunately destroyed in the blitz, that in the year 1647 St. Stephen's, Bristol, Society, came for the purpose of visiting the belfry. It was his duty to say to their Society that they owed them a debt of gratitude. He was sorry to tell them that only on Wednesday that week he had been served with a notice by the London Surveyor that he would have to have the spire inspected. He did not know what it would mean; it might be that they would not be able to ring for a week or two.

Mrs. R. F. Deal proposed 'The London and Provincial Societies,' and said the toast of kindred societies was nearest to their hearts. They had to remember that the kindred societies struggled for years with their youngsters, sometimes lost them, but in a great many instances produced fine ringers and eventually sent them with their good wishes to them, and without them their Society would not exist. 'To-day I want on behalf of the ## Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford

The annual meeting of the Stafford Archdeaconry Society was held at St. Paul's, Burton-on-Trent, on June 21st. After a short service in church an adjournment was made for tea in St. Margaret's Schools, followed by the general meeting, Mr. G. E. Oliver presiding.

The committee's report and the treasurer's statement were passed. The report showed an increase in the number of peals rung, 32 as against 11 in the previous year, while the accounts showed a slight decrease on the year's working. There were 35 new members enrolled during the period under review. The officers were elected en bloc.

Places chosen for the coming meetings are: Cannock, September 27th; Bilston, January 10th; Wombourne in April; and Lichfield in June. Also a bi-quarterly meeting for practice at Codsall on August 16th next. Mr. C. Wallater gave a summary of the proceedings at the Exeter meeting of the Central Council.

Mr. F. Bennett announced that arrangements are being made to hold an open ringing meeting at Claverley on August 23rd.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The June meeting was held at Ossett on June 28th. The bells were rung up in peal soon after 3.15 p.m., the slight delay being due to weddings.

Tea was held in the Church Halls, followed by the business meeting. The president was chairman and he was supported by the Vicar (the Rev. J. Barton, M.A.) and members from Armley, Batley, Bradford Cathedral, Drighlington, Elland, Guiseley, Headingley (St. Chad's and St. Michael's), Idle, Leeds Parish Church, Ossett, Pudsey and Rothwell, also friends from Dewsbury.

Two new members were elected, Messrs. M. Lockwood and T. Duffin, of Ossett.

The vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens was proposed by Mr. J. McGlenn and seconded by Mr. W. H. Senior. The Vicar acknowledged the thanks, saying it was always a pleasure to welcome visiting ringers. The vote of thanks to the local company and ladies for serving at the tea tables was proposed by Mr. G. Benfield and seconded by Mr. H. L. Jones.

The next meeting is due to be held at Sherburn on July 26th.

CUMBERLANDS BI-CENTENARY

Royal Cumberland Youths to thank you all. Wherever we go we know we are welcome, and where there is a peal of bells we are sure of friends.'

Mr. A. A. Hughes, in reply, said when he looked round the room he wondered if it was a Cumberland dinner or a dinner of his Society, as they were represented by the Master, treasurer and junior steward. 'You have given us a very happy evening, a good meal and delightful company. How different to those bad old days when, speaking as a College Youth, the relations between our two Societies were not, putting it mildly, of the friendliest. To-day you are welcome in our towers and we have often seen your genial secretary at St. Paul's.'

The concluding toast of 'The Press' was ably proposed by Mr. J. E. Bailey, with special reference to 'The Ringing World' and its three editors. Mr. T. W. White replied and expressed the indebtedness of the company to Mr. G. W. Steere, the hon. secretary and treasurer, on the excellence of arrangements.

The artistes were Mr. and Mrs. W. Ayre, duet; J. A. Geerts, entertainer; Dorothy Townsend, soprano; Russell brothers, handbells; and V. S. Harrington, pianist.

The Rings of Pembrokeshire

Pembrokeshire possesses only four rings of bells, but is a county that holds much for one interested in old churches. Almost in every part of the county one can find a church. Most of these have square battlemented towers. One of the oldest bells in the county is that at Gurfreston Church, which is stated to date probably from 1350.

The four rings are at Haverfordwest (the county town), Pembroke, St. David's and Tenby, representing a fair distribution over the area. They are all rings of eight. There are in addition three other rings hung dead.

St. Teilo's, Penally (two miles south-west of Tenby), has a slim square battlemented tower at the west end with a set of five bells. They are crowded in line on a small wooden frame and have canons and wooden headstocks bolted to the frame. They are sounded by a chiming rack with wires attached to the clappers. The approach to the bells is via a vertical wooden ladder attached to the wall.

St. John's, Pembroke Dock, has a ring of eight hung dead. The tenor has weight 9 cwt. 3 qr. 32 lb., and is inscribed to commemorate the Coronation of Edward VII. The ring was completed by Mears and Stainbank in 1932.

St. Andrew's, Narberth, has a ring of six hung dead. Taylors completed the six in 1890, tenor 9 cwt. approx. Robeston Walthen has its two original bells in the original oak frame, cast about 1670.

At one time there was a peal of bells on Caldey Island, at the Monastery. Some years ago the monks there at the time moved to Gloucestershire and took the bells with them. There is now no peal there. These bells once were to be heard clearly in Tenby, 2½ miles across the sea.

St. Mary's, Haverfordwest, has a peal of eight bells hung on ball bearings in a 17th century bell cage. An original peal of five, which was rung to welcome Cromwell when he visited the town in 1645, was recast as six in 1765 by Thomas Bayly, of Bridgwater, who added two new ones. No. 6 bears the inscription, 'I do my best for Haverfordwest.' Only one peal has been rung here—Superlative by a visiting party in 1927 ('The Ringing World,' vol. 22, page 630). At present a band is learning and can ring Grandsire Doubles.

St. Mary's, Pembroke, has a ring of eight, tenor 12 cwt. Many have tried to ring a peal here, but all have failed. The bells are in bad condition and are now never rung. Change ringing has never been practised. Details are:

Treble.—Carr, Smethwick, 1897.

2nd.—Rudhall, Gloucester, 1784.

3rd.—Jeffries and Price, Bristol, 1845.

4th.—(No founder mentioned), 1765.

5th.—Thomas Biggins, 1763. Recast Carr, Smethowick, 1897.

6th.—Rudhall, Gloucester, 1809.

7th.—Rudhall, Gloucester, 1765.

Tenor.—Carr, Smethwick, 1897.

St. David's Cathedral is in the extreme north-west corner of the county, 15 miles from a railway. The Cathedral, of purple sandstone, is surrounded by part of the ruins of the city walls. It is in a restored octagonal tower forming one pillar of a gate in these walls that a modern peal of eight has been hung. In 1930 the tower (ruined and roofless) was restored and a concrete floor put in to hold the bells. As the tower is not high, the bells are separated from the ringers only by this floor, and the noise is tremendous. The conductor has, to shriek his calls. One

105 METHODS IN LINCOLNSHIRE.

In our peal columns we record the remarkable performance of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray and Mr. George E. Feirn in ringing in hand a peal of Spliced Minor, containing 105 different methods and involving 215 changes of method.

The peal was rung on June 30th, which day was also Mr. Bray's birthday. Mr. Albert Lambkin was the witness and he checked each change of method. In this performance four new methods have been rung, viz., Bigby, Elsham, Bassingham and Dunholme Alliance, and we hope at a later date to publish them and the figures of the seven extents, four of which were prepared by Mr. A. G. Driver and three by Mr. C. K. Lewis.

MADE HISTORY IN HANDBELL RINGING.—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray with Mr. George E. Feirn on the right, after their record performance of 105 methods in their spliced Minor peal, posed specially for a photograph for 'The Ringing World.'

This peal surpasses the one in 104 methods rung at Bigby on tower bells on July 19th, 1939. If it had not been for the war starting soon after the Bigby peal, Mr. Feirn writes that he is certain that band would have rung the 105 methods then.

peal—Grandsire Triples, March 28th, 1932—has been rung there by a South Wales visiting band. Change ringing has never been practised. The bells, tenor 24 cwt. 3 qr. 5 lb., were cast in 1930 by Mears and Stainbank.

St. Mary-the-Virgin, Tenby, has a ring of eight, tenor 14½ cwt. in F sharp. Since John Carter visited Tenby about 1900 and helped the original change ringing band, there has always been change ringing there. The church is of magnificent proportions and seats 1,800. The tower is on the south-east side and is surmounted by an octagonal spire 157ft. from the ground, forming a well-known local sea mark. The bells were augmented in 1888 and have a wooden frame and plain bearings. The dates are: 3, 4, 5, 8, 1789; 1, 2, 6, Barwell, Birmingham, 1888. Five peals have been rung here, three of Grandsire Triples, one of Double Norwich, and one of Bob Minor. The present band can ring Grandsire Triples and Plain Bob Minor. (Visitors are always welcome—writes Mr. Jenkins, Nythfa, St. Mary's Street.)

The county has, therefore, heard only seven peals—and most methods are still unring there, but the newly-formed St. David's Diocesan Association is doing much to help ringing in the county. As far as is known, no handbell peals have been rung in the county—a chance for 'first' enthusiasts!

St. Martin's Guild

A fine afternoon, an excellent peal of ten bells and an ideal belfry in which to ring them, coupled with a goodly number present, a short service with the accompaniment of a good organ, followed by an excellent tea, all combined to make the quarterly meeting of the St. Martin's Guild at Solihull on July 5th a very enjoyable event.

At the business meeting Mr. Vice-President Albert Walker occupied the chair in the unavoidable absence of the Master, Councillor Paddon Smith. The following new members were elected: As life members, Messrs. A. L. Bennett (Buckfastleigh), A. F. Thirst (Isleworth), J. J. L. Gilbert (Handsworth, Sheffield), and Miss Madeline M. Lyon (Leamington Spa); as ordinary members, Messrs. A. J. Morrall (Sutton Coldfield) and F. Morgan (Birmingham).

It was decided to hold the next bi-quarterly meeting at King's Norton on August 9th and the quarterly meeting at Sutton Coldfield on Saturday, October 4th.

The Secretary announced receipt of a letter from Mr. John Freeman, of Lincoln, giving notice that a band composed of members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild would make an attempt to ring a peal of 14,144 London Surprise Major on August Bank Holiday next at Heydour, and thus beat the present record held by the St. Martin's Guild. It is interesting to note that the previous record was rung at King's Norton on May 11th, 1903, and consisted of 14,112 changes.

An appeal for a donation towards the cost of new ropes for the bells of St. Chad's (R.C.) Cathedral was made by Mr. W. E. Box, and on the proposition of the treasurer, seconded by Mr. G. E. Fearn, it was agreed that a donation of £2 2s. be made from the Guild's funds. A subsequent collection from amongst those present resulted in a further 30s. being raised.

The Chairman also brought before the meeting the proposed memorial to the memory of the late Rupert Richardson. As every member knew, Rupert Richardson had done a great amount of good work in the interest of change ringing; he had also been a good friend to the St. Martin's Guild, and he hoped they would all support the appeal now being made. After some discussion it was agreed to make a donation of £3 3s. from the Guild's funds to head the subscription list in the charge of Mr. Walker.

A hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Mr. F. E. Haynes, to the Rector for the use of the bells and for conducting the service, to the local ringers under the able guidance of their secretary, Mr. V. Rigg, for so generously providing tea, and to their enthusiastic ladies for serving it, was carried with acclamation. It was good to see Mr. Roland Bragg at the service and to find that in spite of his incapacity he had lost none of his former cheerfulness and happy disposition. His many old friends in the Guild wish him a speedy recovery.

During the afternoon and again in the evening the bells were kept going in various methods ranging from Grandsire Caters to Cambridge Royal.

INGHAM, SUFFOLK.—On July 6th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: R. J. Stannard 1, W. Stannard, sen. (conductor) 2, J. G. Stannard 3, D. Rowlands 4, J. W. Banks 5.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Truro Peal

Dear Sir,—After reading the letters from the Rev. Roberts and Mr. Lanxon, I think ringers should know the other side of the story.

In the first place, I did not write the letter as Diocesan Ringing Master, and I do not agree that it is an offence to write to 'The Ringing World,' which is the ringers' own paper. If I have broken a rule, many of our life members have done the same thing. If we are going to keep strictly to rules, we shall find that two ringers who rang in the peal are not members of our Guild, and one is Mr. Lanxon.

As regards the peal, these are the facts: A few weeks before Easter Mr. Lanxon asked if I would mind him approaching the Dean and Chapter for permission to ring a peal on Easter Monday. I agreed, hoping it would encourage him to come on Sundays and for practice, but I am sorry to say we have not seen him.

Two weeks after the peal failed a few Cathedral ringers, including myself, were ringing with the Rev. Roberts, and some other ringers who were in the peal, at a combined practice held at Camborne, but not a word was mentioned to us that a date had been fixed for another peal attempt at our tower.

A few days before the peal was to be rung I received a letter from Mr. Lanxon saying he had obtained permission from the Dean and Chapter to start for a peal on the following Saturday. This was five weeks after the date was fixed. If Mr. Lanxon had said it was to be a jubilee peal I should have asked him to include at least one of our band.

We had been promised a ringers' meeting in the Truro Branch, which has gone dead, but it seems as if the peal must come before everything else. The Rev. Roberts, when arranging peals at the Cathedral, always consulted me, and in some cases I took part in the peal with other members of our band.

Asking the ringers for their advice before granting permission to people who wish to ring a peal is not losing authority over the bells. In case there is any doubt, I may mention that this week a person was sent to me by the Bishop regarding the ringing of our bells, and this morning the Sub-Dean phoned, asking me if it would be all right for St. Stephen's ringers to come and ring our bell's on Monday.

I would like ringers to know that in the Dean and Chapter we have the finest men that any ringers could wish to serve under. There is always that personal touch inside and outside the Cathedral, and that's why besides being ringers we are members of the Cathedral Fellowship.

I am sure we are not looked upon as an uncertain few.—Yours faithfully,

Truro. W. H. SOUTHEARD.

WHICH COUNTY?

Dear Sir,—They seem to have moved Gresford since I rang a peal there a few years ago! In those days it was in Denbighshire, but it seems to be in Flintshire now! The error is pardonable, as county boundaries do funny things in that part of the world. A portion of Flintshire is entirely cut off from the main body of the county. Gresford is very near the odd bit, but is in Denbighshire. I think!

THE WRONG LINE

Dear Sir,—Many years ago I used to get my 'Ringing World' through a newsagent who ticked off her weekly order on an alphabetical list which she sent to her wholesaler. Imagine my disappointment on being informed one week that it had not arrived. 'I am sorry,' she said, 'I must have got on to the wrong line when I made out my order. Will "The Racing Pigeon" do instead?'—Yours sincerely, H.M.S. Wolfe. MALCOLM MELVILLE.

The Diocese and Church Bell Ringers

Dear Sir,—I hope you will give me space to say how much I flatly disagree with certain statements in your leading article under the heading of 'Frivolous.'

As my former estimate that eight ringers out of every ten are non-worshippers has never been disputed, may I ask how the majority of Sunday ringing can be designated an act of worship?

The standing of ringing to-day within the Church would seem to rest on the fact that the Bishop is usually president of his Diocesan Association and that many clergy (not all) are well disposed towards ringers. Let me make the point that there is, I believe, no official mention of ringing in any diocesan handbook so far as I am aware.

A common fault of the whole Exercise is to regard progress in terms of peals rung and also to refer to ringers as belonging to towers rather than churches.

If we were half as particular over the truth of our standing within the Church as we are over the truth of a peal or service touch we should see ringing in true unity with the Church, to the mutual advantage of both—and it goes without saying that if the Church is again to become a dominant power in the life of this nation, then there must be above all loyalty on the part of every individual, whether bishop, priest, deacon, ordinary layman—or bellringer.

As a churchman, my own attitude to ringing at present is governed by I. Corinthians, chapter 8.—Yours faithfully, Headington, Oxford. RICHARD A. POST.

[NOTE.—The Guildford Diocese Year Book gives details of the Diocesan Guild of Church Bellringers.—Editor.]

GRAPPENHALL VETERANS

Dear Sir,—May I, as a dear friend to the three veterans of Grappenhall whilst serving in the Royal Navy and stationed in that district, send my congratulations and wishes for many years of health and happiness to Messrs. Samuel, Horsfall, Noah Smith and John E. Ashcroft?—Yours sincerely, Duston, Northants. ERIC NOBLES.

AN ACT OF WORSHIP

Dear Sir,—In reply to Mr. J. T. Dyke's comments on your leading article in the June 28th issue, I am an informed churchman who regards my ringing as an act of worship as I do my singing in the choir; and, just as singing by congregation and choir is often their best method of expression of worship, why should not ringing be also, even if it only be 'tenoring' Caters or Triples?—Yours sincerely,

W. FRANK STENSON.

Trearddur Bay, Anglesey.

SURPRISE METHODS

Dear Sir,—May I express, through the medium of your columns, my apologies to those whose orders for the First Series of 'Surprise Methods' have been delayed? The first printing was sold out in five days from the issue of the announcement in 'The Ringing World,' a demand that I had neither expected nor provided for. However, as stated in this week's advertisements, a second impression is now ready, and all orders will have been despatched before this letter appears.

Owing to the severe limitation of paper supplies, I shall be unable to print a third impression, so that early application should be made for the present supply.

In the dispersal of my ringing papers during the war I have lost my copy of the 1907 'Collection of Methods,' and if any of your readers can allow me to purchase a copy of it I shall be greatly obliged to him.—Yours sincerely, Bittou, near Bristol. A. J. CORRIGAN.

Truro Diocesan Guild

ST. CRANTOCK, CORNWALL.

June 14th was a great day for Crantock, a little parish on north coast of Cornwall a few miles from Newquay, for the six bells (tenor 9 cwt.) of the ancient collegiate church, famed for its wood carving and painted glass, had been hung for ringing and were to be rededicated.

The dedication was performed by Canon R. Roberts, Chancellor of Truro Cathedral. The church was full and in the congregation was Mr. D. Bradford, representing the firm of Gillett and Johnston, by whom the work was carried out. During the service a few rounds were rung by ringers from Truro Cathedral under the direction of Mr. W. H. Southeard.

Tea was provided for ringers by the parishioners, and ringing went on almost without a break from 3.15 to 9 p.m. The 'go' of the bells is excellent, and although the tower is small and they are hung in two tiers, they can all be heard distinctly both inside and out, and there is a good circle of ropes.

Besides Truro Cathedral there were ringers from St. Enoder, St. Columb Major, St. Columb Minor, Towednack, St. Endellion, St. Hilary, Camborne, Carbis Bay, St. Issey, St. Erme, Redruth, Penryn, Illogan, Withiel, Luxulyan, Perranzabulo, St. Dennis, Kenwyn.

A parochial band is being formed and has held its first practice.

NORTH WALES ASSOCIATION

A joint ringing meeting of Bangor and Portmadoc towers was held at Portmadoc on June 17th, and with the invaluable assistance of Mr. John Thomas and Mr. Smith, of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, some good practice was obtained in Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major and Kent Treble Bob.

DEVON GUILD OF RINGERS

JOINT BRANCH MEETING AT BUCKFAST ABBEY.

Buckfast Abbey again proved to be a popular venue for the Devon Guild of Ringers on June 21st, the visit being a joint meeting of the Mid-Devon and South-West Branches.

The bells were kept going throughout the afternoon, touches of Grandsire Triples, Caters and Cinques and Stedman Caters being rung as well as rounds for the younger visitors, several of them having their first opportunity of having a pull on twelve bells.

Tea was served in the Abbey Schoolroom, after which the Rev. H. E. Bennett, Rector of Plympton St. Maurice, who is chairman of the South-West Branch, voiced the thanks of the visitors to the Lord Abbot of Buckfast for the use of his bells, to the authorities for the use of the Schoolroom, to the Ladies' Committee for the tea arrangements, and to the Vicar of Buckfastleigh for the use of his bells.

The visitors subsequently adjourned to Buckfastleigh Parish Church, where a variety of methods was rung.

FOXEAETH BELLS

Dear Sir,—Many ringers have no doubt in the past enjoyed a pull on the tricky but delightful octave at Foxearth, Essex. The intense storm which swept our district recently has struck Foxearth a blow. The graceful and slender 80ft. spire was struck by lightning and ripped completely off the tower by a following whirlwind which cut a path through the village and neighbouring villages too. The Vicar has told me the bells are undamaged, but from what I saw of the tower I felt it would not be wise to ring them. A local fund for restoration has been opened by the Vicar.—Yours faithfully, A. A. FITCH.

Llandaff and Monmouth

TWO AUGMENTATIONS PROPOSED.

The 30 members who attended the quarterly meeting at Llangynwyd on June 28th were amply rewarded for their efforts to get to this remote village by the enthusiastic welcome they received from the local band and parishioners. There was plenty of ringing to suit all before the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Daniel Richards).

After the service the visitors were entertained to a bountiful tea by the local ringers and their wives, which was appreciated and enjoyed by all.

The Vicar presided over the business meeting, and the Central Council representatives gave a comprehensive report on the proceedings at Exeter. The meeting heard with satisfaction two welcome items of news, one that work was about to be started on the job of restoring and augmenting Abergavenny bells and that the six at Blaenavon were to be recast and augmented to eight. Chepstow was proposed for the next Monmouthshire meeting and Pontypridd for the next Glamorgan meeting. Votes of thanks terminated the business.

More ringing after the meeting brought to an end a very enjoyable day. Methods rung ranged from Grandsire Doubles to London Surprise Minor. A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund realised £1 2s. 6d.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The meeting of the North Norfolk Branch at Hingham on June 28th was attended by 42 members. In the absence of the Rector, the branch chairman (the Rev. Blyth) conducted the service. Tea was served in the Fairland School and the business meeting followed. Elected as probationer members were John R. Elliott, Hubert G. Peel, Sydney C. Long, Allan C. Haines, all of Hingham.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Rector for the use of his bells, to the organist and to Mr. Long for making the arrangements.

RINGERS' PILGRIMAGE

On June 28th, the Christ Church, Mitcham, and St. Leonard's, Streatham, bands combined for the second time in their annual pilgrimage.

The route chosen this year was through some of the most beautiful scenery in Surrey and Sussex. Ringing and refreshments were enjoyed at Warnham, Chichester Cathedral and Chiddingfold.

Many old friends renewed acquaintances during the day: Mr. W. H. Joiner, of Hastings, Mr. W. Smith and Mr. C. Potheary, who for many years were members of the Parish Church, Mitcham, band, were among the party, and also Mr. J. Parslow, Mr. G. Pidwell and Mr. E. Jones, old friends of the Christ Church band.

At Chichester the party had the unexpected pleasure of meeting Mr. C. J. North, a member of the St. Leonard's band at the beginning of the present century.

OUTINGS

The Wisbech Branch of the Ely Diocesan Association visited the following Suffolk towers: Newmarket, Clare, Long Melford, Sudbury (St. Peter's and St. Gregory's), Lavenham, Bury St. Edmunds (Norman Tower and St. Mary's) and Mildenhall. Altogether 63 ringers and friends took part in the trip.

Portsmouth Cathedral in the Thames Valley district on June 7th. Ringing took place at Alton, Egham, Staines (St. Mary's), Henley-on-Thames, Caversham (St. Peter's) and Wokingham. Organiser, Mr. F. W. Burnett.

St. Laurence's, Reading.—On Whit Monday, ringing at Saffron Walden. Great St. Mary's, Cambridge R.C. Church, Bury St. Edmunds, Ipswich (where the Stedman Cinques brought beams of joy to the faces of those who were ringing and hearty congratulations from the remainder).

VISIT TO COTSWOLDS.

June 14th was the day chosen by a small party of ringers from the Claverley, Wolverhampton and Stourbridge districts for a visit to the Cotswold country. It was an unfortunate choice in one respect, as it rained for almost the whole time, but in spite of this the party fully enjoyed ringing on the bells at Chipping Norton, Shipton-under-Wychwood, the fine peal at Witney, Burford and Northleach. Methods rung during the tour were Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Double Norwich and Cambridge Major. The remainder of the ringers join in sincere thanks to the car drivers and especially to the leader of the party, whose organising efficiency made the outing such a success.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION CAMBRIDGE BRANCH.

A meeting held at Barrington on June 21st was attended by members and friends from Cambridge, Ely, Great Staughton, Harpenden (Herts), Harston, Meldreth, Sawston, Sudbury (Suffolk), Trumpington and Willingham.

The ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. J. Button), followed by tea and a short business meeting, at which the Vicar also presided.

Some good practice was obtained on the six bells until about 7 p.m., when a move was made to the five-bell tower at Foxton. It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Sawston.

SUFFOLK GUILD

A very successful meeting of the Mildenhall District was held at St. Mary's, Lakenheath, on June 28th, attended by a goodly company, coming from St. Albans, Sudbury, Sawston, Elvedon, Mildenhall, Ingham, Bury St. Edmunds, Chevington, Hockwold and Horringer.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. N. E. Marshall), after which the whole party adjourned to the Bell Hotel for tea. At the business meeting it was decided to hold the next meeting at Elvedon at an early date if possible. Ringers expressed their thanks and enjoyment of the visit, and it gave the local band much pleasure in welcoming them. Ringing continued until 9 p.m.

REVERBERATING

'We have all been impressed by the length of time during which the reverberating hum of a great bell will linger on the air,' writes 'The Age,' Melbourne's daily newspaper, in an editorial on bells. The phenomenon intrigued the fancy of Charles Lamb, and Lord Frederic Hamilton, in his 'Here, There and Everywhere,' comments upon it most entertainingly. It has been the subject of scientific research, and we know there are competent pens within the Exercise who could give the correct answer to this question from Australia.

The immediate concern of 'The Age' is not so much an enquiry into physics as into the realm of romanticism. Whence do bells derive their distinctive genius for spanning the tyrannical chasms of time, they ask intriguingly, and quote the autobiography of Frank T. Bullen, in which he states that in his early days before the mast, nothing made him so homesick as the sound of bells. As the ship lay at anchor in some unfamiliar port, the bells from a nearby belfry would send his mind flying back across the oceans and across the years; his rough and roving sea life would be left worlds behind, and the surge of emotion would be almost uncontrollable.

This annihilation of both space and time is even more pronounced to-day by the introduction of broadcasting on a world-wide basis. 'The Age' reminds us of the poet of the African jungle expressing his sensations as his wireless set reiterated the chimes of Big Ben:—

Who shall appraise the hidden tears,
Born of the loneliness that sears,
As once more, sonorous and deep,
We hear the chimes that never sleep?
It sounds to us across the foam,
The beating heart of all that's home;
The very core of England's heart
That holds us close, though far apart!

Other poets have come under a similar spell. Longfellow, in his 'Golden Legend,' describes Prince Henry and Elsie standing in the twilight on the terrace of the old castle at Vautsberg on the Rhine. Suddenly they catch the strains of distant bells and Elsie asks the Prince what bells they are. He replies that they are of Geisenheim and ring out the curfew, and then, with a touch of sentiment (and who can escape the spell?), adds:—

Dear Elsie, many years ago,
Those same soft bells at eventide
Rang in the ears of Charlemagne
As, seated at Fastrada's side,
At Ingleheim, in all his pride,
He heard their sound with secret pain.

In fantasy, the vibrant hum of the bells is deathless. Another essayist, Mr. Arthur Scammell, in his 'Cheap-side to Arcady,' points out that, long after the last stroke of the bell is heard in the building beneath the tower, the sound survives in the belfry in a protracted diminuendo. These lines are not for the practical ringer whose outlook is bounded by the accuracy of his peal and the mechanical perfection of the bell. Most of us have a grossness of our perceptive faculties and are unable to find any logic in Mr. Scammell's argument, but to the poet the tower may be alive with the thin ghosts of all the joyous and mournful notes that have endeared and embittered the sound of bells to human hearts. Thank you, Melbourne 'Age,' for this incursion into the realm of fantasy, and giving to your readers a new interest in British bells that ring out from your cathedral in the traditional British manner of change ringing.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

A heavy postbag can be expected by that Birmingham veteran, Mr. Albert Walker, on ringing his 600th peal at Bishop Ryder's Church, Birmingham, on July 16th. Two days previously Albert rang his first of Yorkshire Surprise Major.

Mr. E. Jennings of Braintree, Essex, has called his 100th peal.

We do not as a rule feature 720's, but congratulations on two firsts—Arthur Rogers (15) and John Cottingham, at St. Mary-the-Virgin's, Elland, Yorks, on July 3rd. It was Kent Treble Bob Minor.

Varndean School for Boys has its own Ringing Society, which has now been in being a year. Tower bells are rung at Brighton churches and it is hoped shortly to score the school's first quarter on tower bells.

Mr. T. Jull, of Bobbing, near Sittingbourne, celebrated his 75th birthday by ringing the fourth to a quarter-peal of Minor (720 Kent Treble Bob, 360 Oxford, 180 Plain Bob) at St. Bartholomew's, Bobbing, on June 29th. Ringers: B. W. May 1, Miss D. Dobbie 2, S. Dobbie 3, T. Jull 4, G. Gartman 5, W. H. Dobbie (conductor) 6.

Dragged from his supper table to complete the band for handbell practice, Mr. David Gallop found that a course of Bob Major developed into a peal of 5,040 changes. He stuck to his task in spite of badly blistered hands on heavy bells. A product of Oxford University, he should go far.

Featured in the national newspapers is the dispute between 70-year-old Mr. W. Smith, who has been ringing at St. John-the-Baptist's, Knowle, since 1895, and the Vicar (the Rev. J. W. Sharp). The bells were only silent on one Sunday and were rung on July 20th. These disputes make sad reading for all who love church bells, and we trust that a happy solution will be quickly discovered.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Dublin honoured the royal engagement by a peal of Doubles in two methods. They take risks in Eire, for No. 2 had never rung Bob Doubles before, and No. 3 had never attempted Grandsire. The morning was spent looking up the rules, and in the afternoon the peal was rung and went off very well. The day was the 13th of the month!

The Ladies' Guild has decided to publish at an early date a list of names and addresses of members. Will Cupid keep quiet for the next few months to save author's corrections!

Congratulations to Miss Betty Brown, aged 14—a pupil of Mr. Fred Stokes, of Blankney, Lincs—who rang Caters for the first time in a peal of Stedman Caters at Ewerby, Lincs, on July 12th. Her only previous ten-bell experience was a course of Cambridge Royal at a Lincoln Cathedral practice. Miss Brown's father shared her success, ringing the tenor to this peal.

Mr. William H. Male, of Warwick, who a few months ago accomplished Holt's Six-Part peal of Grandsire Triples on his violin, has now tapped Holt's Ten-Part on the piano in the key of F sharp. This was on July 3rd, in three hours and three minutes, and was the fourth attempt. The 'peal' was read from the figures in the same way as the previous one on the violin.

Forty towers in a week's ringing tour in Wiltshire, Gloucestershire and Berkshire was the record of the following members of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild: Messrs. Eric Nobles, K. R. Holtom, Sydney G. Osborne, Stanley Ruddlesden, Victor Perry and E. Orland and a visitor, E. J. Rowe (Gospel Oak). The company express their indebtedness to all incumbents and to steeplekeepers, many of whom had everything in readiness.

OXFORD GUILD FESTIVAL

ENTHUSIASM FROM ALL DISTRICTS ..... 191 NEW MEMBERS .....
SUBSCRIPTION PROBLEM ..... CANON COLERIDGE'S WONDERFUL RECEPTION

Except on the occasion of the 50th anniversary, there was a record attendance at the 63th annual festival of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, held at Oxford on July 12th.

The festival opened with a service at the Cathedral, conducted by the Bishop of Dorchester (Dr. G. B. Allen), who is a vice-president of the Guild. The preacher was the Bishop of Oxford (Dr. K. E. Kirk), who is the Guild's president.

The Master (the Rev. C. E. Wigg) presided at the business meeting, held in the Chapter House, supported by Capt. A. B. Poyntz (Deputy Master), Mr. A. D. Barker (hon. treasurer), Mr. W. Hibbert (hon. secretary), Canon G. F. Coleridge (vice-president) and the Bishop of Dorchester. Visitors included Messrs. G. E. Fearn, H. Fearn, J. Harvey and several other Birmingham ringers, G. E. Lewis (Worcester), J. Hemming (Evesham), S. T. Holt, C. Gardiner, R. B. Speed, F. Newman, J. Caple, Capt. Samson, Miss Mary Davis and others from Yorkshire, Staffordshire, Bristol, London and other centres.

The meeting decided to send a congratulatory telegram to Princess Elizabeth on her engagement, the hope being expressed that the bells in all towers in the diocese would be rung on the occasion of her wedding. Later in the day the following reply was received: 'Please convey the Princess Elizabeth's sincere thanks to all who joined in your message on the announcement of Her Royal Highness' engagement.'

A telegram of congratulation was also sent to the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths on their bicentenary meeting.

191 NEW MEMBERS.

The Master's report stated the notable increase of membership (191 were confirmed) was an indication of the general enthusiasm of branch secretaries and tower foremen in all parts of the Guild. Oxford continued to be the centre of progressive change ringing, where practice in almost any method could be had for the asking. Good, steady progress was being made from many other towers in three counties. Of these he should like to mention Winslow, Eynsham (under the leadership of Mr. Harry Floyd) and the keen band at Sunningwell.

Several restorations had been carried out, notably at Bloxham, where the noble ring of eight bells could again be heard; Deddington, where two trebles had been added to make another fine ring of eight.

In the South Oxon and Mid-Bucks Branch, Mr. F. Woodward has retired from the secretaryship after very many years of hard and painstaking work. His successor is Mr. H. Badger, of Thame. Great keenness was being shown in several towers in this branch, including Shabbington, where the bells had been pronounced safe to ring after 30 years of chiming and where a keen young band was under instruction. Congratulations were extended to Miss Stella Davis and Mr. Farmer on having each completed a full year of office as secretaries of the Newbury and Witney and Woodstock branches respectively, in each case with conspicuous success.

The report contained a reference to the death of Mr. R. T. Hibbert, general secretary for nearly 30 years, stating: 'We continue to miss his inspiring leadership at Guild meetings most sorely, but we can feel thankful that his son, and successor in the office, is a chip off the old block.'

Miss Marie R. Cross presented the librarian's report, which mentioned that there had been a steady demand for the loan of books, especially for the bound volumes of 'Bell News' and 'The Ringing World,' which were presented by Canon G. F. Coleridge. If any member had any ringing books which were no longer required, would he inform the librarian before disposing of them elsewhere? There were still a large number of old books which the Guild did not possess, especially the type of 'The Bells of Gloucestershire' and 'The Bells of Cornwall.'

NEARLY 100 PEALS.

The secretary's report said it had been a sad year owing to the resignation of Canon Coleridge from the Mastership and the death of the secretary, and he must leave other pens to portray the valuable work his father did from 1917 until his death in March, 1946.

Nearly a hundred peals were rung during 1946, with Walter F. Judge well in the lead as conductor and with G. Gilbert still going strong with his lassies at Burnham. Two outstanding performances were the 12,663 Stedman Cinques at Christ Church, conducted by Walter Judge, and a peal of Stedman Triples at East Isley, conducted most admirably by James Higgins, of Oxford, aged 15 years; also seven different Surprise Major methods were rung and the first peal of New Cambridge Surprise Royal.

The hon. treasurer's report stated that the general funds of the Guild amounted to £491 16s. 8d., of which £415 17s. was in the Restoration Fund. The appeal to Parochial Church Councils resulted in £34 7s.

Officers elected were: Master, the Rev. C. E. Wigg; Deputy Master, Capt. A. B. Poyntz; trustees, the Rev. Canon G. F. Coleridge, Mr. W. Everts and Mr. A. D. Culium; hon. treasurer, Mr. A. D. Barker; hon. secretary, Mr. W. Hibbert; librarian, Miss M. R. Cross; committee, Messrs. C. J. Hibbert, G. Caudwell, W. Dixon, J. T. Fowler, R. White, A. D. Cullum, H. Sear, J. W. Wilkins, G. Holfield, W. F. Judge and A. Pink and Miss D. R. Fletcher; Central Council representatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker, Mr. A. E. Locke and Mr. F. D. Boreham.

It was decided that the festival should again be held at Oxford next year. The meeting agreed to 15 guineas restoration grants to Cuddesdon, St. Paul's, Wokingham and Slough.

After a long discussion on suggestions that the increased cost of printing the reports should be met by members paying 6d. for every peal they rang, or that the subscription to the Guild be increased from 1s. 6d. to 2s., the question was referred to a special sub-committee.

THE LUNCHEON.

A company of 258 sat down to luncheon at Christ Church Hall, which was attended by the Bishop of Oxford and the Bishop of Dorchester, both of whom welcomed the ringers and expressed the hope that the Guild would prosper.

The Master presided and the toast list included 'The Visitors,' proposed by Mr. W. Hibbert and responded to by Mr. J. Harvey (St. Martin's Guild) and Mr. R. Speed (president of Cambridge University Society). 'The Oxford Diocesan Guild,' proposed by Mr. J. Hemming (Worcestershire and Districts Association) and replied to by the Master.

Canon Coleridge, now in his 91st year, was present, and all were pleased to observe that he had recovered from his illness when on his way to the Central Council meeting. Having the chance of a ride home to Crowthorne, he left immediately after lunch, and as he walked down the long hall the company rose and with a spontaneous gesture of love and affection for a grand old English gentleman sang 'For he's a jolly good fellow.' The Canon, very much moved, wished the meeting a very happy day and the Guild long life and prosperity for the future.

The Ladies' Guild

NEW DISTRICTS BEING FORMED.

The annual meeting was held at Manchester on July 5th, when 38 members attended from Bowden, Burton-on-Stather, Caister-on-Sea, Duffield, Ealing, Epsom, Flixton, Halstead, Hyde, Leicester, Leeds, London, Macclesfield, Norbury, North Mymms, Nottingham, Pebmarsh, Scunthorpe, Stockport, Todmorden and Wallasey.

The bells of Manchester Cathedral and Town Hall afforded the members a good opportunity of trying their skill on heavy bells, and at the Cathedral rounds, Grandsire Caters and Kent Treble Bob Royal were rung by Guild members entirely.

Evensong at the Cathedral was conducted by the Precentor, the Rev. W. Megicks, and the lessons were read by the Rev. F. F. Rigby, president of the Lancashire Association, and the Rev. Canon H. F. Woolnough.

After tea, attended by 63 ringers, the Rev. F. F. Rigby welcomed the Guild to Manchester on behalf of the Lancashire Association, to which Mrs. R. F. Deal replied.

Through the unavoidable absence of Miss E. Steel, president of the Guild, the chair at the meeting was taken by Mrs. R. F. Deal, vice-president of the London District. The retiring president, Miss E. Steel, had notified the secretary that she would not seek re-election, but the members felt they would wish her to be present when she handed over the office which she had held for 20 years, and she was therefore re-elected. Mrs. G. W. Fletcher was re-elected hon. secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Richardson and Miss Steel representatives on the Central Council.

A long discussion took place regarding the new districts in course of formation, and it was eventually decided to form a North-Eastern and North-Western District in place of the present Northern District, a Midland District to replace the North Midland District, and to restore the former Lincolnshire District. The London District would revert to the original title of Central District. It was left to the members of the Southern and Central Districts to discuss divisions with the newly-formed branch in Sussex and Kent, and to report at the next meeting.

It was decided to hold the next meeting in London and if possible to arrange a reunion dinner the same day.

HIGH WYCOMBE'S TWINS

High Wycombe's twin sisters—the Misses Sylvia and Doreen Coker—are in our peal columns. At the age of 15 they first visited All Saints' belfry in the summer of 1945, and by the following spring were hunting the treble to Grandsire Doubles.

Then Sylvia injured her arm in the playing field and for nearly 12 months she dared not touch a bell rope. All this time she continued to attend the weekly practices watching her sister's progress and keeping in step so far as possible on handbells.

Eventually came the day when she was allowed to handle a bell rope and the sequel is to be found in our peal columns.

A Doctors' Peal

BAND TRAVELLED 562 MILES.

After two unsuccessful attempts and one postponement, a peal of Bob Minor has, for the first time, been rung by a band of six doctors at Abbots Langley, Herts. On June 12th, during the week following Victory Day, last year, Bob Minor was rung for 55 minutes; and on September 18th, Kent Treble Bob Minor for 2 hours 19 minutes. The dedication is that originally decided upon at the first attempt.

At no time since this peal was mooted some 18 months ago were more than nine doctors known to be active ringers, and the loss of Dr. J. Moreland-Smith, who stood in the last attempt, and who died in April, while the present one was being arranged, has been very keenly felt.

Another difficulty, which appeared to be almost unsurmountable, has been the distance apart of those available; the ringer of the treble has only recently retired from practice in Sevenoaks, but has travelled up from Tintagel, Cornwall, on each occasion to take part.

The rest of the band came, in the order of ringing, from Romford (Essex), Abbots Langley, Wareham (Dorset), Ash (near Canterbury, Kent) and Great Baddow (Essex). It is estimated that the band travelled a distance of 562 miles from their homes to reach the tower. Is this a record for a six-bell peal?

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

JUBILEE FESTIVAL.

Ringers from a wide area gathered in Ely on July 5th for the Association's jubilee festival. After ringing at St. Mary's Church, a service was held in the choir of the Cathedral, the Bishop of Ely giving the address.

Tea was served at St. Mary's Hotel, when the ringers were joined by the Bishop, Canon Covey-Crump, the Rev. J. B. Rowsell (Vicar of St. Mary's) and the Rev. H. M. Boswell (Vicar of Wilburton).

Canon Covey-Crump, who was the first general secretary (now 83 years old and still going strong) recalled the inaugural meeting of 50 years ago, and wished the Association every success in the future.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure at being present, and spoke of his interest in the Association's work in the diocese. On behalf of the ringers, the Rev. J. P. Pelloe (Vicar of Wisbech) expressed thanks to the Bishop for his interest and for giving the address.

After tea ringing was resumed at St. Mary's, and the bells of Littleport and Wilburton were also available.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

The Diocesan Festival was held at Saltash on July 5th, about sixty being present, including the president, Miss E. Symons, the Assistant Ringing Master, Mr. H. J. Clark, and several members of the Devon Guild. There were five towers available, Saltash, St. Stephen-by-Saltash, Botus Fleming, Landulph and St. German's, all with six bells except the last, which has eight. St. Stephen is about the finest six in England and ought to be better known; with a tenor of 16 cwt. the tone is glorious and the 'go' of the bells perfect.

A service was held in Saltash Church, conducted by the Vicar, Canon Prior, who had already welcomed the ringers in the belfry. The lesson was read by the Rev. W. H. R. Trehwella, secretary of the Guild, and the sermon preached by the Rev. H. M. Brown, Vicar of Torpoint, who is himself a change ringer. The arrangements for the tea and the ringing at Saltash were made by Mr. H. Batten, the captain of the Saltash ringers.

It was an experiment holding the Diocesan Festival on the extreme edge of the county, but it was justified if only that it attracted some of the Devon Guild, for the Truro Guild is an offspring of the Devon Guild and the two Guilds ought to mingle from time to time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Council Guidance Wanted

ON DELINQUENT PEALS.

Dear Sir,—May I most heartily endorse and add to Mr. F. W. Housden's remarks in your recent issue. The Exercise naturally expects to have the Council's guidance on obscure and difficult points, however debatable or tedious they may be, and, in shirking the issue of the three 'delinquent peals' (varied and rung under diverse sets of circumstances as they obviously were) without considering each one on its merits and in relation to the existing rules, I feel that the Council failed to do its job.

Stunts there are and always will be, in ringing as in everything else. Some, no doubt, are quite unnecessary and serve no useful purpose, others (such as the peal of Stedman Sextuples and that conducted from outside a tower some years ago) are extremely clever and interesting performances, whilst yet others are born of necessity or owing to peculiar local circumstances, and it is with the latter I am principally concerned.

Since I first wrote you regarding the Basingstoke 'peal' over a year ago, I have received many letters from ringers in various parts of the country, several of which I regret I have been unable to answer, but all of which at least imply that there is certainly no lack of interest in this subject. A most significant factor, I find, is that all those ringing friends who disagree with my views hail from such districts as London, Birmingham or Leicester, where, from the word 'go,' anyone with reasonable aptitude and keenness is assured of a comparatively successful ringing career and not from any tower where to start any change ringing at all involves a long, bitter and uneven struggle against powerful local influences and prejudices such as a well-established 'stoney' band.

I wonder if Mr. P. J. Johnson and those other gentlemen who talk so glibly of what the public want and do not want have ever in actual fact made any unbiased auditory test in this connection. I have and, as a result, am perfectly satisfied that the majority of non-ringers have, for instance, a distinct preference for Doubles, Minor and Major with a cover rather than without, but do not care a very great deal anyway. I suggest that Mr. Newman's dislike of Kent Minor with a cover is not actuated by any true musical consideration at all, but is solely because, as a ringer, he first became used to hearing it without.

No, sir, in my submission our art is brought into ridicule far more by the Council's inconsistent rejection of a peal which is similar to one it has recognised previously and by illogical rules which veto a peal on nine bells in the diatonic scale, but accept one on five which are cracked or out of tune. Does Mr. Smallwood seriously consider that a thorough overhaul of such a farcical situation (and there are others as ludicrous) is not required?

Finally, in fairness to Mr. Felstead, I would point out that, although he may be a comparative newcomer to the Exercise, several of his supporters are by no means as 'raw,' and, whilst perhaps they are in a minority, minorities have very frequently throughout the ages proved to be right, in the end.—Yours faithfully,

T. R. BUTLER.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Corleston, Great Yarmouth.

The Rings of Pembrokeshire

Dear Sir,—Referring to the above in this week's 'Ringing World,' as regards Haverfordwest bells, to say only one peal has been rung on the bells is not correct. Prior to the peal of Superlative as quoted, a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung, in which your humble took part, and conducted by Mr. A. J. Pitman, on Easter Monday, April 5th, 1926 (see 'The Ringing World,' April 9th, 1926). It was the first peal on the bells, which were rehung in 1923 by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.—Yours faithfully,

J. W. JONES.

Newport, Mon.

LITTLE OXFORD BOB MAJOR

Dear Sir,—If the footnote to the peal of Little Bob Major rung at Balcombe on June 29th is complete as published, it is not correct. The first peal in this method was rung for the Hertford County Association at King's Langley on February 22nd, 1936, conducted by Walter Ayre.—Yours faithfully,

E. A. B.

Crayford, Kent.

ALSO IN CHESHIRE

Dear Sir,—The footnote to the peal of Little Oxford Bob Major rung at Balcombe, Sussex, on June 29th, and recorded in this week's 'Ringing World,' does not seem to be correct.

A peal in this method was rung for the Chester Diocesan Guild at Malpas on Nov. 3rd, 1936, and no claim was made that this was the first in the method, although it was the first for the Chester Guild.—Yours faithfully,

J. W. GRIFFITHS.

BISHOP OF LIVERPOOL'S INTEREST.

The Lord Bishop of Liverpool took part in the ringing at the monthly meeting of the Wigan Branch at the Church of Emmanuel, Southport, on July 5th, and gave an address at the choral service. In his address the Bishop said how English bellringing was, and how appropriate this meeting was, it being on the eve of the Day of National Prayer.

After the service tea was held in the schools. Here the Bishop told of an old ringing book which had been presented to the Cathedral. It was a record of peals rung by the Liverpool Youths, who used to ring at St. Peter's, the old Pro-Cathedral of Liverpool. He brought the book with him, and members admired the beautiful penmanship. Votes of thanks were proposed by Mr. G. Newton and seconded by Mr. J. Ridyard.

Although there were not as many present as expected, it was a good meeting, with methods from rounds, Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Oxford and Kent and Double Norwich and Cambridge. The next meeting will be at Ha'sall on August 9th.

HALIFAX AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

FIRST POST-WAR CONTEST.

Six teams entered for the first post-war contest of the Association, held at All Saints' Church, Almondbury, Huddersfield, on July 5th. The adjudications of Mr. E. Betts were as follows:—

Friezland, 15 penalties, 138 faults, 153.

Longwood, 20 penalties, 210 faults, 230.

Silkstone, 10 penalties, 174 faults, 184.

Shelley, 20 penalties, 200 faults, 220.

Liversedge, 0 penalties, 95 faults, 95.

Meltham, rung out.

Liversedge were declared the winners and received the challenge cup from the Rev. T. A. Youngmire, curate of Almondbury, in the absence of the Vicar.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Liversedge on September 27th. A vote of thanks to the Vicar and all concerned was proposed by Mr. E. Earnshaw, seconded by Mr. H. Roberts.

OBITUARY

MR. JOSEPH WOODS.

The death is announced with regret on July 10th of Mr. Joseph Woods, of Padeham, in Blackburn Royal Infirmary after a very short illness.

Though not a prolific peal ringer, he was a regular service ringer, an excellent striker and a stalwart attendant at branch meetings, where he was always ready to pour oil on troubled waters. He learnt to ring at Helmshore, Lancs, and took part in the first peal of Bristol for the Lancashire Association. His last peal—Double Norwich—was on June 11th at Church, Lancs, at which tower he was for some years a member of the band.

His character was admirably summed up by the inscription on an anonymous floral tribute placed on his grave, which read, 'To a real British gentleman.' Representatives of the three towers to which he had been attached acted as bearers and at all towers the bells were rung muffled.

Only 58 years of age, the last call, 'This is all,' came very suddenly. We remember him with affection and sympathise with his wife and two daughters in their bereavement.

L.J.W.

A memorial peal of Kent Treble Bob was rung at Church, Lancs, on July 19th.

MRS. H. BEER.

Mrs. Harriet Beer, widow of the late Mr. W. Beer, who was for many years a ringer at St. George's Parish Church, Gravesend, died on July 9th. Mrs. Beer took a great interest in ringing and was an honorary member of the Kent County Association. The bells of St. George's Church were rung half-muffled in the evening of July 14th as a mark of respect.

THE LATE MR. C. R. WALKER

TABLET UNVEILED AT HIGHWEEK.

The tablet, which has been erected in the belfry of Highweek Parish Church, Newton Abbot, by the Mid-Devon Branch of the Devon Guild of Ringers, in memory of the late Mr. Christopher R. Walker, of Kingskerswell, one of its members, was unveiled on July 12th in the presence of members and friends from Okehampton, Teignmouth (St. James'), Newton Abbot, Paignton, Dartmouth, Ashburton, Totnes, Buckfastleigh, and Plympton St. Maurice, as well as visitors from Willesden, Middlesex, and Beeston, Notts.

The service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. Durling (Rector), who was assisted by the Rev. W. R. D. Mills (chairman of the Mid-Devon Branch). The tablet was unveiled by the Rector, and in an appropriate address the Rev. W. R. D. Mills remarked that the late Mr. Walker always did his best, whether it be in connection with bells or music or otherwise.

The bells were rung before and after the service, touches of Grandsire Doubles and Triples, and Stedman Triples, rounds for the less experienced ringers, and call changes by the local ringers. Handbells were also rung over the grave of the late Mr. Walker and the late Mr. C. R. Lilley, this consisting of two courses of Grandsire Triples by Messrs. A. L. Bennett 1-2, J. F. Lilley 3-4, A. Newman 5, C. F. Austin 6, and E. J. Taylor 7-8.

After tea, Mr. A. L. Bennett, branch secretary, voiced the thanks of the branch to the Rector and church authorities of Highweek for allowing the tablet to be erected in their belfry; to Mr. J. Case for doing the necessary fixing; to those who had subscribed; and to Mr. H. V. Jones, the Buckfastleigh U.D.C. surveyor, for the advice he had given.

The Rev. J. A. Durling, in his reply, expressed his great pleasure at having the tablet erected at Highweek. He thanked the branch officials for the efficient manner in which the memorial had been carried out. The tablet is of bronze with cream lettering, and is mounted on a mahogany block.

Devon & Somerset Combine

JOINT MEETING AT UFFCULME.

An event of great interest in the West was the joint meeting held at Uffculme, Devon, on July 5th, of the North-East Branch of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers and the Taunton Deanery Branch of the Bath and Wells Association. The meeting was arranged by Mr. C. G. Dymond, and the interest aroused was evidenced by the attendance of 70 members and visitors from 25 towers affiliated to the two associations.

The Devon members were pleased to meet again the Rev. E. S. Powell, who was their president from 1924-1932, and Mrs. Powell, and Mr. F. C. Small, general secretary of the Guild. Among the visitors were ringers from Walsall and Daventry.

Ringing during the afternoon was followed by service, conducted by the Rev. H. Alexander (Vicar), and the lesson read by the Rev. E. S. Powell. The Vicar in his address also drew attention to points of interest in this grand church and invited all to visit the gardens and grounds of the Vicarage.

After the service tea, arranged by a local committee, was laid on the lawn and full justice was done.

The Rev. E. S. Powell, elected to the chair, then read a letter from Preb. E. V. Cox, president of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, expressing regret at his inability to be present. The Chairman, in proposing a vote of thanks to the Vicar of Uffculme for the use of the bells and taking the service and to all who had helped make this such a pleasant meeting, said the attendance must be very gratifying to those who had made the arrangements.

Mr. Arthur Reed (secretary, Taunton Deanery), in seconding, said that the meeting was the result of hints passed on by members visiting each other's quarterly meetings, and was envisaged at a meeting held at Ashbrittle last year, and that they had been looking forward to it for months, and hoped that at some future date the event would be repeated.

Mr. A. G. Selley (Ringing Master, N.E. Branch), in associating himself with Mr. Reed's remarks, said that big things usually had small beginnings, and suggested a definite date and place and then proposed that another meeting be arranged on the first Saturday in July, 1948, and that the venue be Milverton in Somerset. This was carried unanimously. Touches on handbells by Somerset and Devon men jointly and separately ended the meeting.

The methods rung during the afternoon and evening were Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain and Kent Bob Major, and the Somerset men are to be congratulated on a splendid touch of Double Norwich, many present not often having the opportunity of listening to this grand method.

The meeting was marked throughout by a grand spirit of friendliness, which can do nothing but good, both from a social and ringing point of view. The duty of Ringing Master was ably carried out by Mr. Poole, of Yeovil. The bells are a grand ring, tenor 24 cwt.

Kent County Association

AT HAWKHURST.

Ringing took place in the bomb-damaged Church of St. Lawrence, Hawkhurst, which possesses a peal of eight, and methods ranged as far as Superlative Surprise. The service was held at the Church of All Saints some 1½ miles away in the centre of the village and was followed by tea and the business meeting.

Mr. V. Kinch, of Leigh, and the Rev. I. G. Jones, of Hawkhurst, were elected as practising members, and the Vicar, the Rev. Harrison Thornton, was elected an honorary member. There being no other business, the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, to the curate for conducting the service, to Mr. W. Gorringe, the local captain, for making the arrangements, and the lady helpers for serving the tea. Members then adjourned to St. Lawrence's Church for further ringing.

AT EAST PECKHAM.

East Peckham Church has a pleasant ring of six, which were usefully employed by the members on the occasion of the quarterly meeting on July 5th. At the service members were given an impressive address by the Vicar, the Rev. J. C. Starky, and after the service they were entertained to tea by Mr. T. Saunders, the local captain, and the local band.

At the meeting that followed Messrs. F. Acott, G. Acott, E. Drawbridge, J. Harris, W. Harris and L. Cutcliffe were elected members of the Association and the Vicar was elected an honorary member. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for the service, to the organist, and Mr. Saunders, the local band and the ladies who had provided the tea.

ROCHESTER DISTRICT.

About 80 members and friends from most of the towers in the district and some from the Canterbury and Maidstone Districts visited this fine old Minster Church at the Isle of Sheppey on July 5th.

The ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. O. H. Brasier), who is an honorary member of the Association and was ably assisted by the young members of the local Guild. The organist was S. Evans (the young Master), and the lesson was read by G. Rooke (a local ringer). The remainder of the male members assisted with the distribution of books and also took the collection for the Benevolent Fund, which amounted to £1 9s. 1d.

The Vicar, in his address, welcomed the ringers to the Minster and also stressed the importance of this branch of church work. He also thanked his own local Guild for their loyal co-operation in the work of the church.

Tea at the Blue Bird Cafe was kindly given to the members of the Association by the parents of the local Guild.

Upon taking the chair for the business meeting, the Vicar said that it was 17 years since their last visit and he hoped that they would not leave it so long before coming again.

The secretary reported that he had received two notices of motion from the Lewisham District to come up for discussion at the annual meeting. Mr. G. H. Spice, the general secretary, explained these to the members and further action was postponed to the next meeting to be held at Rochester Cathedral in October.

It was decided to hold a bi-meeting at Hoo on the second Saturday in August. Mr. E. Allen proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar and the local Guild for making the meeting such a great success.

More ringing was enjoyed after the meeting on the Minster bells, while others made their way to Eastchurch and Queenborough.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

NORTH-EAST MEETING AT COLCHESTER.

A very successful meeting was held at St. Leonard's on July 12th, when over forty members and friends attended and made use of the fine-toned six bells.

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. A. R. Johnston), who in his address extended a welcome to the ringers. After an excellent tea, the business meeting was held, with the Master (Mr. C. Ellis) in the chair, supported by the district secretary (Mr. H. J. Millatt).

Harwich was selected for the next meeting on September 13th, and Mrs. Joan Warner was elected a ringing member. The company were entertained by some amusing reminiscences from Mr. A. J. King, of Grantham.

Votes of thanks to the Rector and all who had helped were moved by Mr. C. Ellis and seconded by Mr. G. Waterman.

Members then returned to the tower for more ringing, which despite delays caused by a broken rope and a faulty clock hammer, was kept up till 8.30 p.m. in methods from Bob Minor to York and Cambridge Surprise.

WISBECH, CAMBS.—On July 6th, 1.259 Grandsire Caters: A. Upsall 1, Miss M. Longbofton 2, F. Wigmore (conductor) 3, H. Piggins 4, W. Jarvis 5, J. Phillips 6, W. Storey 7, W. Freeman 8, H. Means 9, F. Moyes 10.

WINCHESTER

By a coincidence the report of the annual meeting of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild is appearing in the same issue as the history of its vigorous daughter, the Guildford Diocesan Guild. The Winchester Diocesan Guild is among the senior of the territorial ringing organisations, being founded in 1879, the year after its veteran Master and a vice-president, Mr. George Williams, started change ringing. This story of continuity is a feature of the life of this Guild, as early this year we published a picture of six veterans who had each more than 50 years' membership and rang a 720 Bob Minor together at Swanmore, viz.: Messrs. A. Millard, G. Chappell, G. Williams, W. Linter, F. W. Burnett and H. W. Merrett.

Our subject, however, is not so much of the past as the present, as told in the comprehensive printed annual report for 1946, and it is a sign of better times as far as the Exercise is concerned that these reports are appearing. The Winchester and Portsmouth operates through eight districts, some of which are vigorous centres. Portsmouth district elected 27 new members, Southampton 16 and Winchester, the largest district numerically, 5. There are districts where the setbacks arising from the war still keep numbers below the pre-war level, and the immediate problem is to make good this deficit. The two dioceses have not yet a hundred per cent. coverage as there are two eight and eight six-bell towers not affiliated. Probably the majority of these towers are not satisfactory from a ringing point of view, but there is no lack of evidence that a substantial amount of work is necessary on the part of Guild and district officers to ensure that a full complement of ringers who are members of the Guild exists in every tower. This maintenance of bands of regular Sunday ringers, who efficiently discharge their duties, is the primary function of every diocesan Guild, and should never be allowed to recede into the background.

Good ringing will not be created by series of short touches at services or meetings, a point emphasised in this issue by a North Country Ringing Master. Performance ringing of lengths of 720 and upwards is essential for the furtherance of our art. This is well maintained by the Guild. Not all of it was of the publicised performance type. The bells at Wickham and in neighbouring towers were rung during 1946 for seventy-five 720's, in which 42 ringers participated. Peal ringing is in no sense neglected by the Guild. Of the 58 peals scored in 1946 10 were in hand, all by the Bournemouth enthusiasts. There was variety in the methods. Among the 13 Surprise peals were Painswick, London, Yorkshire, Cambridge and Superlative. No longer is it necessary to scarify the diocese for a Grandsire band, as the 90-year-old Master recently recalled. There were no fewer than 13 conductors for the peals, one of whom was a lady, Mrs. Marshallsay.

Finally, Basingstoke is within the area of this Guild. Under the heading of miscellaneous performances are printed the 5,021 Grandsire Caters and the 5,184 Kent Treble Bob Major with the tenor covering, with this footnote: 'The above 5,000's were not recognised by the Central Council as "peals" since they did not conform to its rule.' This loyalty is commendable.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Beverley and District Society have called their first annual meeting after seven months' existence. During this period the Ringing Master (Mr. C. Glenn) has attended several towers for practice on 78 occasions. We trust this paragraph is observed by 'S. Truggler.'

One is tempted to say, 'Hullo, ringing twins,' to two Lincoln ringers, Charles McGuinness and Jack L. Millhouse. They each scored their two hundredth peal together at Washingborough, Lincs.

The marriage took place at Tunstall, Kent, on July 30th, of Dr. John E. Spice, and Miss Betty R. Hollingworth, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hollingworth, of 42, Gorse Road, Blackpool.

Congratulations to the recently-joined Cumberland ringer, Miss Janet Mattinson, on graduating a B.Sc. (Econ.).

Extra copies of 'The Ringing World' containing a particular peal or quarter-peal should be ordered at the time of submission of a peal.

Miss E. Steel very much regrets that she is unable to accept the presidency of the Ladies' Guild, for which post she was re-elected at the annual meeting. Miss Steel wishes to thank all the members who voted for her continuing in an office which has been a very great pleasure to hold.

Barwell (Leics) ringers regard Tamworth (Staffs), Brewood (Staffs) and St. Chad's (Shrewsbury) as three of the finest rings they have ever enjoyed. There was a party of 70 for their outing to Shrewsbury. 'The bells of St. Chad's heard in the Quarry and on the river are not easily forgotten,' comments our correspondent who sums up the day.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The royal visit to Glasgow was commemorated by 1,280 Kent Treble Bob Major with tenor covering (Basingstoke please note!) on July 20th. The band was W. H. Pickett (conductor) 1, J. Hutcheson 2, E. Boumphrey 3, H. Sargent 4, L. Boumphrey 5, E. A. Stafford 6, T. C. Winderam 7, O. Barker 8, N. Sharpe 9. This was rung after meeting short for a Royal band.

Mr. R. W. Hayward, Taunton Deanery Ringing Master, was in charge of the ringing at the joint meeting with the Devon Guild at Uffculme.

The number of changes in the peal of Little Oxford Bob Major, rung at Balcombe, was 5,040 and not the number printed.

Subscriptions for the Rupert Richardson memorial should be sent to either Mr. F. Stokes, Blankney, Lincoln, or Mr. J. A. Freeman, 95, Sincil Bank, Lincoln.

Mr. A. J. Dadds, who has been examining the papers of the late Joseph Waghorn, has found a list of peals rung by him totalling 163, of which he conducted 27. He asks whether the record is complete.

For the dedicatory service of the parish war memorial 720 Grandsire Doubles was rung at St. Dunstan's, Canterbury, on July 20th, by R. J. Port 1, Mabel Brockman 2, Mrs. G. Stockbridge 3, J. Stockbridge 4, Brenda Philpot (conductor) 5, A. C. Philpot 6. Something more ambitious came to grief.

An Eighth Army peal of Minor appears in this issue. It is the desire of the company to attempt an 8th Army peal of Major. Any ex-Eighth Army men who live in the Essex-Suffolk area and would like to participate will they communicate with Mr. Urban W. Wildney, Laurel Cottage, Kirby-le-Soken, Frinton-on-Sea, Essex.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

The life of the Guildford Diocesan Guild is so comparatively short that this article must of necessity take more the form of an essay than a history.

In face of some opposition, which, as subsequent events proved, was purely on sentimental grounds, the Guildford Diocesan Guild of Church Bellringers was inaugurated on December 31st, 1927, as a logical sequence to the division of the ancient Diocese of Winchester, out of which the present Guildford Diocese was created by an Order in Council dated May 1st, 1927.

It must be said at once to the credit of those who were at the outset opposed to the creation of a fresh organisation that they bowed unreservedly to the will of the overwhelming majority, and from the first worked wholeheartedly in support of the new Guild.

The Diocese of Guildford covers about 300 square miles, comprising roughly the western half of the county of Surrey and a small strip of the adjoining county of Hants, and, of course, the new Guild rightly claimed to be, and set out to make itself, the principal ringing organisation in that area.

There were, on the formation of the Guild, 56 towers in the diocese with five bells or more hung for ringing and one further completely new peal of eight has since been installed.

For convenience of working, the Guild's area was divided at the outset into four districts, each a self-contained unit holding independent meetings, controlling its own finances and appointing officers.

The central organisation of the Guild derives its funds from a percentage levy on the districts.

Unfortunately, owing to the necessity of keeping in mind the question of inter-communication in each district, it was not possible to form four districts all of equal size, but generally the scheme of division has been successful and made for very efficient working.

A WORTHY TRIO

The Guild had the great fortune to enlist as its founder secretary the late J. S. Goldsmith, who served for ten years in that office, and it is not perhaps out of place to quote here part of the tribute that was paid to Mr. Goldsmith on his retirement from the office of secretary:—

'His inspiration and hard work has created a diocesan spirit among the ringers in the Guild, and, while many felt keenly the severance from the Mother Guild of Winchester, a spirit of youth and adventure has permeated the towers of this new Guild, and there is today a particularly solid foundation for ringing in this area. . . .

Our first Master was the late J. H. B. Hesse, who then lived at Haslemere and whose ringing abilities need no stressing here. He held the office without challenge until, to the regret of all members, in the early days of the late war he left the Diocese.

Another distinguished service man, in the person of Admiral T. P. Walker, D.S.O., of Old Woking, an enthusiastic and practical ringer, although he entered the ranks of the Exercise long after he reached the retiring age in the Senior Service, was our first treasurer, and it was with a deep sense of grief and personal loss that in 1932 we laid to rest this great-hearted Christian gentleman.

Reference could in all justice be made to the valued services to the Guild of many more of its founder members, but it is perhaps sufficient for the purposes of this brief history to mention only two others, both non-ringers and both of whom have passed from this life, namely, Canon E. C. Kirwan, Provost of the Cathedral Church at Guildford, and Mr. Walter Harrison, of Guildford. The Guild owes a debt of gratitude to them for their assistance and counsel in early days.

JOHN S. GOLDSMITH,
First Secretary of Guildford Guild.

A great deal of the Diocese of Guildford, especially in its southern half, is, in spite of the great housing estates which have been built within its borders in fairly recent years to act as dormitories for the great daytime population of London, still completely rural, and there are no really large towns in the area to form populous centres from which bands capable of practising advanced methods can be drawn from a compact area. In these circumstances it is understandable that the Guild has few centres at which ringing in the higher methods is generally practised. Indeed, the officers and tower leaders find that great efforts are needed to maintain Sunday service bands capable of ringing even the simpler methods, but throughout its existence the Guild has been fortunate enough to find many men who have been real leaders and workers in their own small and often isolated centres.

Up to the end of 1946 a total of 526 peals had been rung for the Guildford Guild, a large percentage of these being the result of Mr. A. H. Pulling's enthusiasm for that branch of the art.

It has never been the policy of the Guild to build up large balances on general account, and from the first the members have voted on every opportunity and to the extent of available funds donations towards bell restorations and augmentations within the diocese. In the comparatively short history of the Guild well over £100 has been applied out of central and district balances in this connection. In addition, an amount totalling nearly £50 has been collected and allocated to a fund to assist in providing a ringing peal for the new Cathedral of the diocese when eventually that building is completed.

Entirely apart from the last-mentioned fund, the members have subscribed, as a fund to provide a memorial to the late J. S. Goldsmith, about £60, out of which it is intended to give a Sacring bell as part of the furnishing of the new Cathedral.

It is, of course, quite outside the scope of this article to describe the ringing conditions at towers within the diocese, but brief reference to the bells at some of the more important places will not be out of place.

PRINCIPAL TOWERS

Guildford—the county town of Surrey and situated practically in the centre of the diocese—has three ringing peals within its borough boundaries: ten at S. Nicolas', eight at the Cathedral Church of Holy Trinity and a humble six at Merrow Parish Church. Perhaps S. Nicolas' chief claim to mention here is the fact that the Guild's library, which contains some rare and valuable volumes, is housed in the spacious ringing room, as the bells, although easily handled, are somewhat odd struck and the acoustic arrangements are interfered with by the fact that the draught is short and the sallies have, when through the eyelet holes, a tendency to muffle the back strokes.

A large proportion of the Guild's peals have been secured on the grand eight at the Cathedral Church in spite of the fact that they hang in a brick tower with marked elastic properties and that, in the words of a well-known ringer, you earn any peals you ring on these bells. The fact, too, that many peals are rung in the centre of a town without undue complaint from the neighbourhood is a testimonial to the efficiency of the shutters with which the louvres are blocked for these occasions.

That part of the diocese which lies north of Leatherhead and comprises the Epsom towers of Christ Church (eight) and St. Martin's (ten) lends itself best to inter-tower visits, and it is hardly to be wondered at that at Leatherhead alone the consistent ringing of advanced methods on its easily handled and fairly melodious, if somewhat clamorous, ring of ten, has been maintained from the formation of the diocese to the present time, although now another tower in the same district—Banstead, on the borders of the diocese—with a ring of eight, rung from the ground floor and rejoicing in a fairly long draught of rope, seems to threaten Leatherhead's former monopoly.

The light ten at Haslemere, rung from the ground floor, and on which our first Master lavished so much attention, are the Guild's show piece as regards ease of handling and musical and acoustic properties.

The recently recast and rehung eights at Shalford and Chiddingfold are both a delight to the ear and a joy to handle.

Ranmore's eight, on the high ridge above Dorking, had a reputation for quality, but, alas, of recent years they have been seldom heard, and at present, through lack of ropes, are unringable.

Although the spacious belfry at Farnham, which church was claimed in some quarters to be the most suitable one for the pro-Cathedral of the diocese, provides plenty of accommodation for a large meeting, its heavy ring of eight, mostly odd struck, hung in a large circle, and none too musical, require a better band, than is usually found haphazard at a meeting to make them sound their best.

Mention has now been made of at least one tower in each district of the Guild except the Chertsey area, and, as in all justice reference must be made to one tower in that district, it is fitting to include Chertsey, nominally the mother tower of the district, where a heavy eight with a long rope stretching from the ground floor has been going too badly in recent years to be attractive. These bells have now been rehung, and the Guild officers sincerely hope that this improvement will have its repercussions in the area.

Although the Nazi H.E.'s and incendiaries were scattered throughout the Guildford diocese with a fair degree of liberality and impartiality and many doodlebugs chose our towns, villages, woods and fields as landing grounds with the truly delightful uncertainty which was the essence of the entertainment afforded by these amazing examples of human ingenuity, our churches generally (but for one direct hit at a spot in the heart of rural Surrey) suffered little but blast damage, and our bells (except in that one instance—and it was not a ringing peal)—none.

Many bands, however, were seriously depleted by the call of their younger members to arms and the toll of war has robbed the diocese of a number of promising ringers. In addition, some who left us for war and who were fortunate enough to escape inclusion in the casualty lists have settled down in other areas, but many have returned, and with an influx of recruits most bands have resumed activities and are rapidly building up to their pre-war standard.

So, in a county whose population is not likely to decrease and where money for improvements should be readily forthcoming, with no long years of history from which to fashion precedents and no musty traditions to fetter its activities, the Guildford Guild looks confidently forward to a bright and prosperous future—to the day when its life will be centred around the great new Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, which, until the necessities of war called a temporary halt, was rapidly rising on high ground above the mean level of the town of Guildford, and in which it is intended eventually to hang a ringing peal worthy of the noble building housing them as they, in the words of Tennyson,

'Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land;
Ring in the Christ that is to be.'

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The South Norfolk Branch meeting at Saxlingham Nethergate on July 12th was attended by 45 members and friends, including three district secretaries of the Suffolk Guild. Ringers were present from Attleborough, Bunwell, Bergh Apton, Chevington, Caston, Diss, Fornsett, Garboldisham, Horringer, Long Stratton, Mulbarton, Norwich, New Buckenham, Pulham, Pakefield, Redenhall, Saxlingham, Sudbury and Yaxley.

The Rector of Saxlingham (the Rev. C. T. Hearn) conducted the service, and the address was given by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard, president.

At the business meeting the Rev. Hearn presided, supported by the president, Mr. W. L. Duffield (branch chairman), Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), Messrs. E. G. Bennett, F. Whiting and C. E. G. Banham (committee). The Rector of Saxlingham was elected an honorary member and Mr. A. Gillings a life member.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Rector and to Mr. George Poyntz for making arrangements, also to the ladies who served the tea and to the Suffolk ringers who attended. Mr. A. Gillings suitably replied.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at North Lopham on September 27th.

WINCHESTER AND PORTSMOUTH GUILD

ANNUAL MEETING IN ISLE OF WIGHT.

The 67th annual meeting was held at Newport, Isle of Wight, on July 5th, and was attended by nearly 60 members and friends. Despite the large holiday crowds travelling by boat, ringers visited the island from the following towers: Basingstoke, Bishopstoke, Bramley, Bournemouth, Brockenhurst, Blackmoor, Deane, Fareham, Eling, Highclere, Hayes (Kent), New Alresford, Petersfield, Portsmouth (Cathedral and St. Mary's), Ringwood, Southampton, Titchfield, North Stoneham, Wonston and also towers in the island.

At the outset of the meeting the Master (Mr. G. Williams) welcomed the various ringers and visitors, and the Archdeacon of the Isle of Wight, in reply, extended a hearty welcome to all to the island in the name of the various incumbents.

The meeting was presided over by the Master, supported by the hon. general secretary (Mr. F. W. Rogers), hon. treasurer (Mr. W. Linter) and the Archdeacon. Several apologies for non-attendance were received.

The treasurer, in presenting the accounts as published in the annual report, observed that they were satisfactory in most respects, but warned members that in order to meet increased costs it might be necessary to raise the annual subscription or to find other ways of either increasing receipts or reducing expenditure.

Mr. Rose (Eling) suggested that the allowance usually made on teas at district meetings be withdrawn, but this did not receive a favourable view, as, after the districts had rendered their quota to the central fund, they were at liberty to spend the remainder as directed by the district.

An increase of 126 ringing members was reported during the year, and the accounts showed a balance in hand of £338.

The Guild officers were re-elected as follows: Master, Mr. G. Williams; hon. general secretary, Mr. F. W. Rogers; hon. treasurer, Mr. W. Linter; hon. auditor, Mr. G. Smith; recorder of peals, Mr. A. V. Davis; representatives on Central Council, Messrs. G. Williams, F. W. Rogers, G. Pullinger and the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead. A vote of thanks to the officers for their services during the past year, proposed by Mr. W. R. Melville, was unanimously received.

The proposed revised Form of Service as drawn up by a sub-committee comprising Canon E. A. Berrisford (Bramshott), the Rev. F. S. H. Marle (Deane) and the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead (Southampton) was presented by the Rev. Marle and was approved, with minor alterations. The Archdeacon suggested that as a trial it might be used that evening at the Guild service, the Vicar of Newport (Canon W. B. Hogg) saying that it would give him the greatest pleasure to conduct it.

A detailed report of the Central Council meeting at Exeter especially covering the points raised by the Guild's representatives, was given by Mr. G. Pullinger, for which he was heartily thanked. It was suggested that the date of future annual general meetings be altered so that they would be held before the Central Council meetings, but after a discussion it was felt that no change was warranted. It was decided to hold next year's annual meeting at Andover (where the bells have been recently restored) on the first Saturday in July.

A discussion arose on the question of increasing the Guild's income, and on the proposition of Mr. Upton (Newport), seconded by Mr. Hunt (Portsmouth), it was suggested that the subscription be raised from 2s. to 2s. 6d. for ringing members. Mr. Tucker (North Stoneham) objected to the increase fearing a loss of membership, but it was eventually agreed to place it on the agenda of the next annual meeting to take effect as from January 1st, 1949.

An appeal was received on behalf of the restoration of the bells at Wolverton, and it was unanimously agreed to make a grant of £10 to the scheme.

This concluded the business, after which votes of thanks were accorded those concerned, especially Mrs. A. M. Guy, Isle of Wight district secretary, who had made all the arrangements which ensured the success of the meeting.

Tea was served in the Unity Hall, after which the members attended a Guild service in Newport Parish Church, at which the Vicar officiated and the Archdeacon of the Isle of Wight addressed those present. Further ringing took place in the evening at the various towers.

BASINGSTOKE DISTRICT.

When the Basingstoke district visited Overton for its summer meeting on July 12th, the local ringers showed a very fine gesture by providing tea for the company, which numbered 60.

The Rector (the Rev. E. G. Wells, M.A.) conducted the service and also presided at the business meeting. Two new members were elected and the chairman was elected an hon. member.

The date of the combined meeting with the Guildford Guild (Farnham District) was announced for August 30th (full details will be advertised), and the next quarterly meeting was fixed for September 27th at Baughurst.

Methods practised were Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Kent, Double Norwich, Cambridge, Superlative and London Major. The young ringers were helped over difficulties in the higher methods. A collection for Wolverton Bells Repair Fund amounted to £3 1s.

MEETING AT CATHERINGTON.

About 40 members and friends attended the Portsmouth District's quarterly meeting at Catherington on July 19th. At the business meeting it was decided to hold the next gathering at Curdridge on either October 18th or 25th, depending on which date the Portsmouth Football Club had no home fixture.

Service followed the meeting, and then there was more ringing. Methods rung during the day were Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob and Double Oxford Bob Minor, Kent Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Minor, with rounds and call-changes for beginners.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

SUMMER FESTIVAL.

A company of nearly 100 ringers was attracted to the Guild summer festival at Farnham. Ringing was under the leadership of Mr. G. L. Grover (Guild secretary), and the service was conducted by the Rev. A. J. H. Francis.

Following tea at the British Restaurant, the gathering divided and visits were made to Seale, Bentley, Frensham and Aldershot (St. Michael's), where the ringing was enjoyed.

FARNHAM DISTRICT AT CRONDALL.

An attendance of 40 was noted at the Farnham District meeting at Crondall on July 19th, when standard methods were practised and several recruits tried a course of Doubles for the first time.

In the absence of the Vicar on holiday, the District Ringing Master (Mr. C. Denyer) conducted the service, and Miss M. Cass read the lesson.

Following tea, Mr. W. Denyer (Aldershot) presided at the business meeting, when the following new members were elected: Mr. P. Collins (Aldershot), Mr. H. Harris and Miss E. Harris (Crondall). Thanks were expressed to Mr. W. Dimes (local captain) and to the caterers. The evening ringing included a visit to Bentley.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Bellringing in Melbourne

Dear Sir,—At the annual meeting of St. Paul's Cathedral Society of Bellringers, Melbourne, on July 16th, reference was made to the opening of the bells on June 29th.

About nine months ago, the Society wrote to the Bishop of Adelaide stating that they would like two or three representatives at the official opening of the bells. Mr. Rowe, secretary of the Sydney Association, visited St. Paul's in September, and arrangements were made with him to have a combined team.

Later one of the Sydney ringers visited the Bishop and made arrangements for the Sydney ringers to open the bells on their own. The attitude adopted by the Sydney Association towards St. Paul's Association was unsportsmanlike and not in the best interests of change ringing in Australia.

Special ringing for the 'Centenary of the Diocese' was held on Sunday, June 29th, when two touches of Grandsire Triples were rung, conducted by Mr. F. Boughton, 13 members being present. The sudden death of the Rev. Eric Stephen Loveday, Vicar of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, was deeply regretted, and the bells were half-muffled at the Cathedral on Sunday, July 13th, as a mark of respect.

We had a visit from Lieut. James Richard, of H.M.S. 'Glory' and St. Stephen's, Ealing, London. Any bellringers visiting Melbourne from the old country we would be pleased to see any time.—Yours, etc.,

EDGAR KNOTT, Captain,
St. Paul's Bellringers, Melbourne.

VISITING RINGERS

Dear Sir,—Having roamed around the country quite a lot, and always making a practice of visiting towers where there are rings of bells, I have many times had a lot of trouble to find out when they ring for service, and the address of the captain. Recently I visited a tower, and hung in the porch was a very neat framed picture of the upper part of the tower, artistically executed, and written underneath was the following, viz.:

ST. GEORGE'S TOWER.

Invitation to Ringers.

This Church has 8 bells, and the methods rung are Grandsire Triples and Stedman Triples. We ring every Sunday for services. In the morning at 10.20, and in the evening at 5.45 p.m.

Any visiting ringers who would like to join us will receive a hearty welcome.

STEWART OF THE TOWER.

Name and address.

I commend this gesture, a true brotherly spirit and a great help for visitors.—Yours, etc.

Bolton.

PETER CROOK.

Bellringing at Knowle

Dear Sir,—Warwickshire has become national news, and many reports have appeared in the press about Mr. W. H. Smith's dismissal by the Vicar. The true facts of the case seem difficult to obtain, and I am not going to attempt to pronounce judgment on this case. What I want to do is to draw the attention of you, Sir, and all ringers to the great significance of this report in the 'Daily Telegraph' of July 21st, and to ask that this village schoolmaster be asked, if he will, to write a series of articles in 'The Ringing World,' explaining his system of teaching learners. There must certainly be something in it when it can be successfully applied so speedily on such a bad going peal that seventeen people are required to ring them! What could not be done on a modern well-hung peal?

—Yours truly,

DENIS A. BAYLES.

St. Albans.

[Note.—The report in the 'Daily Telegraph' states: 'The bells of Knowle, Warwickshire, Parish Church were rung by a volunteer team of 17, headed by the village schoolmaster, yesterday, following the dismissal of the master bellringer, Mr. W. H. Smith, by the Vicar, the Rev. W. J. Sharp. . . .'—Editor.]

PETERBOROUGH GUILD MEETING AT IRCHESTER.

Largely attended was the quarterly meeting of the Wellborough Branch at Irchester on July 12th.

A Guild service during the afternoon was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. W. F. Rowley). Mr. Brown was the organist, and a collection for the Guild Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £1 8s.

More than 60 ringers and friends had tea in the schoolroom, served under the supervision of Mrs. C. Payne. Among those present were the Vicar and Mrs. Rowley, the Rev. S. F. W. Powell (Bozeat), the Rev. W. R. Flex (Doddington), the Rev. H. L. Hoar (Higham Ferrers), Miss E. Steele (Biddenham) and Mr. E. Whitmore.

At the business meeting the Rev. W. R. Flex presided. He paid tribute to the late Mr. F. Barber, for the fine work he had done for the Church and the Guild. He also paid tribute to another old late member, Mr. W. Pettitt.

It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Bozeat.

Miss F. Neal (Stanwick) was elected a ringing member and the Rev. H. L. Hoar was made an honorary member.

A vote of thanks to all concerned was made by Mr. W. G. Callis.

Ringing took place in the afternoon and evening both in elementary and advanced standards.

KETTERING BRANCH.

Good use was made of the suburban ring of eight at Rothwell on July 19th, the occasion being the quarterly meeting of the Kettering branch. Ringing extended from Grandsire to Cambridge and Superlative, and many of the younger members enjoyed good practice in Stedman and Double Norwich. In addition to 35 members there were present visitors from Newcastle-on-Tyne and London.

After service and tea the business meeting was held in the Parish Room. The next meeting was fixed for Brampton Ash and Dingley on September 6th, with the next quarterly at Corby and Weldon in October. A branch outing is to be held on September 27th.

After the meeting members had the pleasure of hearing two records, loaned by Mr. Pat Chapman: one of Grandsire Caters at St. Philip's, Birmingham, and the other, Stedman Caters at St. Margaret's, Westminster.

Swansea and Brecon Guild

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

The annual festival of the Guild was held at St. Paul's, Sketty, Swansea, on July 12th. Touches in standard methods and rounds for beginners made up the programme.

The Vicar, the Rev. J. C. Hill, M.A., entertained the company to tea at the Stuart Hall and also addressed the ringers at the service prior to tea.

This is the second time that the Guild has held the annual festival at Sketty, and all ringers were of the opinion that this year's festival was a great success, in spite of the opinion of some members that the Guild was dying out. This cannot happen when there are some stalwarts and founder members of the Guild prepared to help the younger members along and with such a number of young people present so keen and ready to keep the art of bellringing alive.

The annual meeting, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese presided. The Guild has been very fortunate in choice of president. In the past the Lord Bishops of the Diocese have been presidents of the Guild and have been good friends of it. It is very fortunate in its present president, who is a good counsellor and friend to the Guild of Bellringers.

The President stated in his opening remarks how pleased he was to see a very good number present, and of all ages. The treasurer, Mr. Charles Morgan, presented the balance sheet. After paying all expenses and a donation of £10 to Llanfychangel Tallylyn Restoration Fund, the balance is £37 11s.

Election of officers: Mr. Charles Morgan, treasurer; Mr. D. G. Williams, hon. general secretary; Mr. Albert Matthews, Ringing Master; Mr. A. I. Rowlands, auditor; Mr. D. H. Bennett, of Bronllys, Central Council representative.

Mr. Bennett gave his report of the Central Council meeting at Exeter.

Mr. Meredith, of Sketty, opened a lively discussion appealing for youth to be given a chance in affairs of the Guild. Mr. E. Stitch welcomed visitors.

The Bishop thanked the Vicar for his kindness in having the Guild's festival this year at Sketty, also the organist and all who helped to make the festival such a successful event. The general secretary moved a vote of thanks to the Bishop for presiding at the meeting and also for his lordship's guidance in all matters appertaining to the Guild.

At a committee meeting held prior to the general meeting, Mr. A. Matthews in the chair, it was decided that the competition be held next year at Neath on April 24th, and rules of the competition be the same as in previous years.

It was also decided that the general secretary should go ahead with the arrangements for a suitable memorial for members who made the supreme sacrifice in the 1939-45 war.

A PEAKLAND EXCURSION

The pre-war outings of Overseal ringers aroused such keen interest in the hills and dales of Derbyshire that this year the ringers planned a similar tour to Dinting Vale, Glossop, the home of a former curate of Overseal, the Rev. J. O. M. Dawson-Bowling.

The outward journey was via Sudbury, Ashbourne, Alsop-en-le-Dale, Bixton (lunch), Dove Holes, Chapel-en-le-Frith and Hayfield (where a good spell was enjoyed on the ropes).

At Dinting Vale a warm welcome and an excellent tea awaited the party and further ringing took place. The return journey started with the ascent of a shoulder of Kinder Scout (2,088ft.) known as 'The Snake,' which provided a thrilling experience. The coaches halted at the bottom to view the 'Lady Bower' reservoir opened by the King, and then the route was via Bamford, Hathersage, Baslow, Chalsworth Park, Matlock, Duffield (home of Sir A. Heywood), Derby and Buxton.

OFFICIAL WELCOME FROM MAYOR

In welcoming the society to Beverley for the first annual meeting on July 12th, the Mayor (Ald. H. S. Nicholson) said there was something more in bellringing than just pulling a few ropes.

Expressing the hope that the society would flourish for many years to come, the Mayor said Beverley was very fortunate in having two such fine specimens of architecture as the Minster and St. Mary's Church, and at each there was a fine ring of bells. The only thing Beverley lacked in this respect was a sufficient number of ringers, and this, he thought, in the past was probably because people had no security of employment and therefore could not remain in the town and give their whole thoughts to ringing as they would have done had they secure jobs.

Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair, and said the area now covered by the society was much larger than at first anticipated. Few of them had visualised stepping over into Lincolnshire, but now they had members in Barton, Barrow and Goxhill, and hoped that more would follow.

The Ringing Master's report stated that there was some improvement here and there in the quality of the striking, but much remained to be done before the high standard—second to none of some districts in Yorkshire—was achieved.

Members were recommended to go for frequent 720's or quarter-peals; by so doing they should by constant listening whilst ringing gradually become accustomed to the 'beat' or rhythm of the bells as the touch progressed. It took some time for even a first-class band to settle down to really good striking, and the necessary limitation of short touches at meetings was insufficient for the mixed bands of ringers to attain complete harmony with the bells.

Several members paid tribute to the work and enthusiasm of their chief officials, who were re-elected by a unanimous vote. They were: President, Mr. G. F. Williams; vice-president, Mr. F. Dale; Ringing Master, Mr. C. Glenn; secretary, Mr. A. E. Sellers.

There were eight nominations for six places on the committee, and those elected were: Mr. T. Southwick (Beverley St. Mary's), Mr. L. Daggett (Beverley Minster), Miss Lidgley (Hull Holy Trinity), Mr. G. H. Tyson (Bridlington), Mr. L. Rodmell (Patrinton), Mr. L. Rodmell (Patrinton), and Mr. C. Hunter (Hedon).

The Mayor and Mayoress were elected hon. members. Thanks were expressed to the Rev. F. G. Hansford, who conducted the service in the Minster, and to the Minster ringers and helpers for their hospitality to the company, which numbered 70, representing 19 towers.

HARTFORD, CHESHIRE.—On June 28th, 1,296 Cambridge Surprise Minor: D. Godfrey 1, E. Hornby 2, D. Smith 3, R. Worrall 4, Miss D. C. Osborn 5, A. G. Lawrence (conductor) 6. First quarter in the method by all the band.

LYME REGIS, DORSET.—On July 13th, 1,260 Stedman Triples: Mrs. C. W. Powell 1, Mrs. T. Cullingworth 2, H. G. Keeley 3, N. Adams 4, J. Morris 5, T. Cullingworth 6, G. S. Morris (conductor) 7, C. Tett 8.

Middlesex County Association

AT ST. MARGARET'S, UXBRIDGE.

A very pleasant meeting was held at St. Margaret's, Uxbridge, on July 12th, attended by about 40 members and friends. Ringing under the supervision of Mr. F. A. Finch (Ringing Master) and Mr. T. G. Bannister (deputy) included most of the standard methods and learners had plenty of opportunities.

A choral service was conducted by the Rev. R. Bruce Eadie (Vicar), who gave a helpful address, and an exceptionally good tea was provided by the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford and their helpers.

The Vicar presided over the short business meeting when the following elections were confirmed: The Rev. C. Carew Cox (Lyme Regis), Reginald W. Rex (Newbury) and Ernest C. Gosling (Maidenhead) non-resident life members, and Mr. T. E. Davies (Ealing), ringing member.

Future meetings were arranged as follows: August 23rd, Cranford; September 27th, St. Peter's, Staines. Mr. F. W. Goodfellow announced that the meeting at St. John's, Hillingdon, would be on October 11th. Photographs of the recent jubilee meeting at Acton, provided by the Rector, were on sale, the proceeds being for the Coles Memorial Fund.

Thanks to the Vicar, organist and Mr. and Mrs. Bedford were proposed by Mr. F. W. Goodfellow, and the Vicar, in replying announced that the order had been placed for the recasting and rebanging of the bells at a cost of over £1,000, but that it would be more than a year before the work could be put in hand.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

DEVIZES BRANCH.

About thirty members attended the half-yearly meeting at Trowbridge, representing Warnminster, Melksham, Holt, Southbroom, Keevil, Bishops Cannings, North Bradley, Urchfont and the local tower, with visitors from London, Chippenham and Swindon.

The Guild office was conducted by the Rector, Mr. A. T. Weeks being at the organ. At the business meeting, which was held after tea, Mr. E. F. White (chairman) congratulated Mr. Sam Hector on achieving 250 peals, 150 of which were for the Salisbury Guild, 50 being in Trowbridge tower, during his 50 years of ringing. Mr. Hector, he said, had always worked very hard for the branch and had been instrumental in getting many ringers through their first peal (applause). Mr. Hector suitably replied.

Before passing on to further business, the Chairman referred to the loss the branch had suffered in the death of Mr. E. J. Rowe, of Stourton. Mr. Rowe (known as 'Uncle' to many ringers) had always been a good friend of the branch, being a popular figure at meetings. The meeting stood in silence to his memory.

Towers chosen for coming meetings were Bratton (August), Rowde (September) and Bishops Cannings for the next quarterly.

The fine ring of twelve at St. James' was put to good use during the afternoon and evening, methods rung including Grandsire and Stedman Triples to Cinques, Plain Bob Major to Maximus, Cambridge Major and rounds.

Witham, Essex.—On June 7th visited Bengoe, Hitcham, Norton (for lunch), Baldock, Royston and Saffron Walden.

Finchley and Holloway.—On June 28th, a short touch of Minor was rung at Finchley before starting, and then to Sonning (met by George Gilbert), Thatcham, Newbury (lunch), East Hagbourne, Taplow and Burnham.

Chichester Cathedral Guild.—On June 28th, with ringing at Egham, Old Windsor and Chertsey. An enjoyable river trip from Windsor to Chertsey was included. Thanks are accorded all who assisted with the arrangements.

Balcombe, Sussex.—By early train to London, and then boat to Southend with handbells to the delight of the large company on board. After lunch at Southend, by bus to Prittlewell, where several of the local band met the visitors. The bells were soon going to Grandisire Caters and Bob Royal, and later some of the party rang for a wedding. On the boat home a 720 Minor was rung. The outing was a huge success.

THE OUTING

To those who will not this year enjoy a holiday by the sea we reproduce the experiences of members of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers on tour in the neighbourhood of Kilkhampton, Cornwall. All who revel in Cornwall and Devon will renew their holiday memories by these lines.

'The party met at Clawton, near Holsworthy and, after a few touches on a handy six, proceeded to Pancraswyke. The tower, standing on an eminence near the Bude main road, was at last "discovered." Friend A. A. Searle "led up" the really fine five (tenor 14 or 15 cwt.), and though he looked ruefully at the diminutive sally of the treble, he found her quite responsive to expert touch. The tower stands high above tall trees, and it may be wondered why Pancraswyke has been so elusive. And what a fine church; even as Clawton, it is beautiful.

'Our next objective was Morwenstowe in the northern tip of Cornwall. As we descended the hill from Shop we had views of the great Atlantic and Lundy Island, and we remembered the wonderful butterflies and lanes, the pure air and tall cliffs above Rose Passmore's beach. Morwenstowe Church tower is a landmark for sailors, built almost in a valley between headlands 400 feet high. The church is a gem for the ecclesiologist and the antiquarian. The Saxon font, of unusual shape, the Norman doorway and arcade with the Early English chancel are notable features. Prebendary Cox would have discovered "Hawker's Hut," where the eccentric old parson wrote:—

"Still points the tower and pleads the bell,
The solemn arches breathe in stone;
Window and wall have life to tell
The mighty faith of days unknown."

'When all the party had rung touches on the merry little six we proceeded to Welcombe, but the way was not easy. After taking wrong turnings through lack of signposts, we eventually arrived at the church and set the really beautiful light six going to Grandsire Doubles. Turning our backs once more on the expanse of the Atlantic, we ran on to Kilkhampton, arriving just in time to secure a cup of tea. Kilkhampton Church, so well known to tourists and famed for its wonderful oak pews, bench ends and fine monuments, has a good six rehung by Gillett and Johnston in 1925.

'By the time Poughill was reached the day was ending; even so we could admire what has been called the most beautiful village in our land. The really splendid six were a joy to ring. Stratton was our last tower. Mr. H. G. Myers led up the treble to a good rise and all the party, except the ladies, took part in touches of beautifully struck Triples. And so the end of a happy day had come; Messrs. Myers proceeded to Plymouth, the Rev. Cox and his party to Exeter and ourselves to Okehampton and Petrockstowe, leaving behind Jack, Charles and Fred Sangwin with Rounce Hill all well satisfied with a most interesting outing.' — F. C. *'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Isleworth ringers remind us of the ancient superstition that the ringing of church bells will keep away thunderstorms. They state they proved it during their tour of South Bucks on July 19th in almost perfect weather. Perhaps an advanced R.A.F. weather forecast was another factor in selecting the day, or was it a compliment to the French lady visitors?

Andover bells, which have been silent for nearly 10 years, were rededicated on July 30th by the Bishop of Southampton.

In honour of the wedding of Dr. J. E. Spice and Miss Betty Hollingworth a peal was rung at Frodsham, Cheshire.

At Long Ashton, Somerset, during the ban on ringing the clappers were removed from the bells and an electrical arrangement fitted whereby the ringers could hear their bells.

What is the language of flowers? Not only were the ringers of the peal at Wraxall, Somerset, most hospitably entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. Briggs after the peal but the gift of sweet peas to the ringers filled the bus with their perfume all the way home.

'Has it ever occurred to you that half-muffled ringing sounds better struck than usual, and that this is because the muffles cover up the multitude of backstroke sins brought about by the feeble and ineffective one-handed dabs at handstroke?'—J. T. Dyke, hon. secretary, Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, in his annual report.

We regret to record the death on July 30th of Mr. Keith Hart, who until recently was the leader at St. Peter's, Brighton. He had been in poor health for some months and was taken to hospital a week before he died. The funeral was at Hove on August 5th. A memoir will appear in our next issue.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The Leicester Diocesan Guild Festival on Oct. 25th is to be truly representative of the Exercise. An invitation has been sent to each Guild affiliated to the Central Council to be represented by its secretary or his deputy. Proceedings start with a service at the Cathedral at 4.45 p.m., followed by dinner at the Bell Hotel and a dance at De Montfort Hall. Peals are being arranged for those who wish on Saturday morning.

Two new trebles are to be added to Worplesdon (Surrey) Parish Church to complete the octave.

Within a month of ringing their first 720, Arthur Rogers and John Cottingham have rung their first peal at Elland, Yorkshire.

The Editor really never deserved it—a peal rung as a birthday compliment to him in his own tower.

Two Lancashire ringers rang their 50th peal on the same day—Mr. Arthur Mawdesley at Douglas-in-Parbold and Mr. Thomas Wilson at Worsley.

Genuine schoolboy howler (from Appleby, Westmorland): Master: What does 'ringing the changes' mean? Pupil: Squeezing out the washing!

Mrs. Ada Taylor has the distinction of being the first lady to ring in a peal for the Northern Branch of the Irish Association. Peals have been rung for the Association previously by ladies, the first, we believe, being the secretary of the Ladies' Guild.

Mr. W. H. Shuker's 50 years' membership of the Lancashire Association was not permitted to pass unnoticed by the officials of the Association, who rang an officers' peal of Bob Royal at Worsley. For 36 years Mr. Shuker has been secretary of the Association and still writes as legible a hand as any Editor would desire to see.

THE HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

THE INAUGURAL MEETING, 1886.

'On March 2nd (1886) I attended, and spoke at, a meeting at Hereford which resulted in the formation of an Association of Change Ringers for that Diocese'-so wrote the Rev. F. E. Robinson in his book 'Among the Bells,' and in the following July he records that 'it fell to my lot to conduct Holt's Original peal of 5,040 Grandsire Triples under the beautiful spire of St. Mary's Church, Ross.' Though this was the second peal rung for the Hereford Guild, the Rev. F. E. Robinson maintained no further connection with it, and it is not among the twenty-six societies of which he claimed membership on the title page of his book.

The Rev. C. D. P. Davies, another well-known clerical ringer, was also invited to speak at this inaugural meeting. He had recently come as curate to Redmarley, just over the Gloucestershire border, and was the newly-appointed Master of the Gloucester Association. But being a near neighbour, he joined the Hereford Guild as a ringing member, and in the following April came to Ross as one of 'eight members of the Association' who attempted, but failed, to ring the first peal for the Guild. For many years afterwards he subscribed regularly as a member, but he never accomplished a peal for the Hereford Guild. Unfortunately this early association of the Guild with both these famous clerical ringers was in later years forgotten.

The real founder of the Guild was the Rev. G. M. Custance, Rector of Colwall. He it was who arranged this inaugural meeting and became the first secretary of the Guild. He had also interested Canon Musgrave of the Cathedral, who took the chair, and a number of other clergy in the diocese, notably Preb. Phillott, Rector of Stanton-on-Wye, who was elected treasurer. But there is no doubt that enthusiasm came as much from the sons of two of these rectors, Arthur F. M. Custance and George H. Phillott. Both of them had been up at the University of Oxford (the latter with the Rev. C. D. P. Davies, son of the Vicar of Tewkesbury), and both had rung peals with C.D.P. and with the Rev. F. E. Robinson, Master of the Oxford Guild. Thus it was through them that these two clerical ringers were invited to speak at the inaugural meeting. Thus, too, Mr. G. H. Phillott was elected first Master of the Guild and Mr. A. F. M. Custance to the committee.

However, it was by no means only the clergy and their sons who were behind this movement for the formation of a Guild. There were already several centres of change ringing in the Diocese and a number of ringers, six of whom served on the first committee, and among these John Overton, of Bridgnorton, and John Wall, of Ross, conductor of the first local peal by the Guild.

EARLY CHANGE RINGING

Hereford Diocese, comprising the whole of Herefordshire and the southern half of Shropshire, is a rural diocese of scattered villages, a few small market towns and the Cathedral City. At the time of the formation of the Guild there was but one ring of ten (at the Cathedral) and some ten rings of eight in the whole Diocese, otherwise there were only fives and sixes in the village towers. There are now three tens and 21 eights.

Before the middle of the nineteenth century change ringing had been almost unknown. The first peal rung in the Diocese was one of Grandsire Triples at Condover (Salop) in 1842; but this was rung by a visiting band from Shrewsbury, which is outside the Diocese. In 1851 a local band at Ross accomplished the first peal in Herefordshire and the first in the diocese by a local band. Change ringing must therefore have been introduced at Ross somewhat earlier. In 1882 the Ross Society rang Holt's Original, and after the formation of the Guild in 1886 the first five peals in the Diocese (all of Grandsire Triples) were rung at Ross. Ross has ever since remained a stronghold of the Guild.

Bridgnorth, at the other end of the Diocese, was another early centre of change ringing for the Guild. In this tower it was due very largely to one stalwart ringer and leader, John Overton. In 1874 two bells had been added to the old six of St. Leonard's Church to make an eight, and a peal of Triples had been rung at the opening by a visiting band, which was afterwards proved to be false. This no doubt inspired Mr. John Overton to learn ringing, and a year later he became head ringer of the band, a post he held till his death in 1939 at the age of 88*. The first true peal on these bells was called by J. W. Washbrook in 1887, and although Mr. Overton rang in it, most of the band came from Kidderminster, so that it was not rung for the Guild. By 1891 the Bridgnorth band was ringing peals, and in 1907 they accomplished the first peal of Stedman Triples in the Diocese by a completely local band, and in 1933 of Double Norwich.

AIM OF THE NEWLY-FORMED GUILD.

Elsewhere call changes were the normal method of ringing throughout the Diocese. Thus the Guild, on its formation, set itself to cultivate the art of change ringing as being the keystone to its deeper object of belfry reform. The point of view of the founders is well summed up in the words of Preb. Phillott at the inaugural meeting: 'Round ringing is utterly dreary and spells monotony; monotony produces weariness of mind; weariness of mind that of body; weariness of body suggests thirst. Do away with monotony and have scientific ringing, which will elevate ringers.'

It was no easy task that the Guild set itself to accomplish in this Diocese of small scattered villages; but the history of the Guild shows that it started this work in the right way, and has gone far to accomplish what it set out to do—at least as regards the cultivation of change ringing and belfry reform.

QUALIFIED INSTRUCTORS.

To begin with, however, it was necessary to appoint a qualified instructor (on the lines of the Oxford Guild), and the first instructor of the Hereford Guild was the famous J. W. Washbrook. During 1886-7 Mr. Washbrook visited many towers in the Diocese as instructor, and it is to the honour of the Guild that the 'first peal achieved by this newly-formed Association' at Ross was conducted by him.

In 1887 Mr. W. H. Fussell, of Slough, was appointed the instructor, a post he held until 1895, when he was succeeded by Mr. J. E. Groves, and after 1902 by Mr. William Short, of Stourbridge. Thus many of the early peals of the Guild were conducted by these famous ringers, whose real homes were outside the Diocese.

The system of having a paid instructor continued until the Great War of 1914-18, although after 1902 several local ringers like Mr. Charles Layton, of Colwall, and Mr. T. J. Bratton, of Welshpool, acted as assistants.

By this method of systematic instruction, change ringing was introduced and developed not only in the bigger centres but also in the villages all over the Diocese, and many of the five and six-bell bands soon became proficient in the art, though all the early peals were of Triples. The first peal of Minor was rung at Mathon in 1896, but it was not until 1901 that the first peal of Doubles was rung at Eastnor. A few years later peals on five or six bells became common, and the present large proportion of peals of Doubles in the Diocese is clear evidence that change ringing has spread into the villages, for of the 140 towers in the Diocese with rings, only 24 have more than six bells.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

Besides the appointment of a qualified instructor, the other most characteristic feature of the Guild in its early days was the annual festival. It was held during the summer in a different parish in the Diocese each year. There were the regular features of a service with a special preacher, a dinner and a meeting, and of course ringing. Often several neighbouring towers were also available, and horse conveyances (and later motor-cars) were chartered to take parties to them. Occasionally, as at Ross in 1906, a steamer was employed instead to take ringers up the River Wye to ring at Foy. But other attractions than ringing were not despised. At Bridgnorth in 1909 barge trips were arranged up the Severn, and at Ledbury in 1911 most ringers also paid a visit to the agricultural show.

Since the formation of the districts the annual meeting has lost something of its festive character, and any outside attraction now that took members away from ringing would be frowned upon. For many years, too, it has been held on Whit Monday and usually at Hereford, though occasional visits to Ludlow or Bridgnorth have been arranged for the sake of the Shropshire members.

Presentation to Mr. W. Yeend

Cheltenham Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association held a special meeting on July 26th at Cheltenham Parish Church to present a watch to Mr. Walter Yeend, late secretary of the branch.

A quarter-peal of 1,263 Stedman Caters, was rung by: F. Nurdin 1, A. Reed 2, J. Thomas (conductor) 3, W. Dyer 4, C. Martin 5, G. Walters 6, G. Kilminster 7, L. Aston 8, J. Ballinger 9, R. Hemmings 10. Afterwards came rounds and Doubles to Grandsire Cinques until 8 p.m.

The chairman, Mr. W. Dyer, then mentioned the reason for the meeting, and called on the present secretary (Mr. C. Rouse) to give an account of the formation and progress of the branch, which was started in 1919 with 19 members. Mr. Yeend became officially secretary in 1923 and retired through ill-health in 1946. In that time 58 meetings were held, and £117 collected.

Mr. Waite, Gloucester, spoke of knowing Mr. Yeend and of his help when he was quite young. Mr. G. Kilminster, in calling on Rev. N. Hope to make the presentation, said a great point was how Mr. Yeend had helped and encouraged the young members.

The Rev. Hope stressed the danger of the public becoming used to recorded bells broadcast from towers, and urged all to strive for new bells where there are none. Mr. Yeend, in his reply, said the years had been happy ones, and especially so when teaching a young band.

The evening closed with a social gathering at the Western Hotel, ably organised by Mr. T. Boreham, who was also responsible for the subscription lists. Forty-five members and friends were present from Cheltenham and nearly every tower in the branch—Gloucester, Tewkesbury and Cirencester Branches, Taunton, Nottingham and Manchester.

MIDLAND COUNTIES GUILD

SUMMER MEETING AT HOAR CROSS.

The summer meeting of the Guild was held on July 26th in glorious weather at the wonderful Church of Holy Angels, Hoar Cross, near Burton-on-Trent.

Built by the beneficence of Lord and Lady Meynell Ingram, this church possesses features such as may be found in few churches of its size. Beautifully proportioned and rich in carving of wood and stone, its beauty holds one spellbound.

The magnificent ring of bells, reputed to be one of the heaviest six, was certainly an attraction, visitors being present from Derby Cathedral and St. Peter's, Alvaston, Spondon, Duffield, Daybrook, Coseley, Norton-in-the-Moors, Lichfield, Wolverhampton, Wighton (Somerset), together with members from Burton (St. Paul's and St. Modwen's), Ashby, Winshill, Lepton, Measham, Ticknall, Seales, Lullington and the local company.

A short service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. G. N. Strong), who based his address on 'Fellowship and Co-operation,' two very essential factors in the art of ringing.

After an excellent tea, the chairman (Mr. W. H. Curson) opened the meeting by thanking the Vicar for the inspiring address and for the use of the bells, also extending a welcome to the Rev. J. E. Bryant, of Seales. He also thanked the local members for tea arrangements.

Miss M. F. Munro was elected a member of the Guild, and the next joint meeting with the Derby and District Association is to be held at Repton on August 30th. The meeting closed with thanks to Mr. W. Minor, who at short notice deputised for the organist.

Handbell ringing was enjoyed by a few, while the majority revisited the tower for further ringing. During the afternoon and evening the bells were kept going in various methods ranging from Grandsire Doubles to Cambridge Minor.

Coventry Diocesan Guild

AT STRATFORD-ON-AVON

Upwards of sixty members, friends and visiting ringers were present at Stratford-on-Avon for the quarterly meeting on July 19th. The bells were rung in a variety of methods during the afternoon.

After tea, the Guild service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. Noel Prentice), and Mr. D. Stanley (district secretary) was the organist. The Vicar gave an inspiring address based on the text, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God.'

Following the service, members ascended the tower for the business meeting, the Vicar taking the chair. In the absence of the general secretary (Mrs. D. E. Beamish), Mr. A. H. Beamish acted as secretary. Warwick was selected for the October meeting. New members elected were Miss Jill Moyle (daughter of a former president, Rev. F. W. Moyle, Rector of Allesley), Miss A. Timms, Mr. A. E. Barley, all of Allesley; Miss A. Standing, Meriden; Mr. A. Twigger, Nuneaton; Miss M. Wigglesworth, Stratford; Miss C. Price, Warwick. The following members elected prior to peal attempts were also ratified: Miss Jill Poole, Leicester; Mrs. J. Thomas, Evesham; Mr. F. J. Stimson, Melton Mowbray; and Mr. E. T. Lloyd, Birmingham.

The Master (Mr. F. E. Pervin) congratulated Margaret Beamish on her achievement in ringing a peal of London before her twelfth birthday. He next informed the members of the illness of Mr. Ernest Stone, and it was agreed to send the good wishes of the meeting to him. In the absence of Margaret Beamish, her father thanked Mr. Pervin and the members for their congratulations.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for conducting the service and for the use of the bells, to Mr. Stanley for his services as organist, and to the local ringers for the excellent arrangements concluded the business. A collection for the bell restoration fund realised £1 5s. 3d.

Towers represented were Allesley, Chilvers Coton, Keresley, Leamington, Nuneaton, Southam, Stoke and the local band. Welcome visitors from St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, included Mr. A. Walker, Mr. T. H. Reeves, Mr. J. F. Harvey, Mr. H. C. Spencer and Mr. A. Short. Mr. T. C. Belton travelled from Barwell, and Mr. and Miss Gorringe from Hawkhurst, Kent. Also ringers from Byfield, Charlbury, Chipping Norton, Ilmington, Long Buckby, Newnham, Northampton and Weedon.

Further ringing brought a successful and enjoyable meeting to a close.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

CANTERBURY DISTRICT.

Favoured with glorious weather, a company of 70 attended the quarterly meeting at Margate on July 26th. Seventeen towers in the district were represented, with visitors from Gravesend, Tunstall, Bromley and Luton, Beds.

Ringing was held both before and after service, which was conducted in the cool of the church by the Vicar, Rev. H. M. Armstrong, assisted by his curate, Rev. V. C. Puplett.

Tea was held in St. John's Schoolroom, and was followed by the usual business meeting. Mr. R. Darby-Reeve, a very good friend to the ringers at Margate for many years, was made an hon. member of the association.

The two motions from the Lewisham District were dealt with, the meeting approving of one and disapproving the other.

St. Nicholas-at-Wade was chosen at the place of the next meeting, the district's chairman, Mr. J. A. Russell, undertaking the necessary arrangements.

Thanks were expressed to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for conducting the service, also the curate and organist.

OBITUARY

MR. FRANK MEDHURST.

By the death of Mr. Frank Medhurst on July 11th, at the age of 77, Christ Church, St. Leonards-on-Sea, has lost its leader and oldest ringing member.

Mr. Medhurst commenced his ringing career as a pupil of the late Mr. George Watson in 1897, and in 1898 was proved an efficient ringer and elected a member of the Sussex County Association.

Although not a lover of peal ringing, being content to ring quarters, he rang a fair number up to the year 1918, when he was appointed leader in the place of Mr. George Watson, who died in that year. Mr. Medhurst maintained the office of leader up to his death, and will be greatly missed by his Guild and colleagues in Hastings and St. Leonards.

The funeral, which took place on July 16th at Christ Church, St. Leonards, was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. Sir Percy Maryon Wilson, and was attended by the ringers of the Church Guild and of Christ Church, Blacklands, and All Saints', Hastings.

In the evening a half-muffled quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in his memory by a combined band of ringers from the above towers as follows: S. Bailey 1, J. Downing 2, F. Philpott 3, J. Pennells 4, S. Smith 5, G. Piper 6, A. Levett (conductor) 7, F. Hunt 8.

MR. F. ROWLINSON.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. F. Rowlinson, of Peterborough, which took place on July 18th.

A native of Sawston, Cambs, Mr. Rowlinson came to Peterborough over 30 years ago and worked as a joiner for an engineering firm. He joined St. Mary's band and was a most regular service ringer and also a member of the choir. He had rung thirty peals for the Ely and Peterborough Guilds and was for a time a member of the Central Committee of the Guild. Mr. Rowlinson was appointed verger of St. Mary's in the place of the late Mr. J. J. Jutson, and held that position until illness compelled him to resign. He bore his illness with great fortitude and was confined to his bed for the last six months.

The funeral took place at St. Mary's, and the Vicar paid suitable tribute to one who had served both his Church and fellow-men. The local ringers were represented by Messrs. W. Waldron and A. Joyce. In the evening a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung half-muffled as a last tribute of respect.

MR. WALTER BROCKHURST.

For more than 50 years Mr. Walter Brockhurst (70), who died on July 24th at Chiddingfold, Surrey, had been associated with ringing at the Parish Church. He also sang in the church choir. He rang his last peal on handbells, while still an invalid in his chair, on Sept. 7th, 1933, conducted by A. H. Pulling.

The Rector (the Rev. M. Bruce) officiated at the funeral service on July 28th. Two handbells which Mr. Brockhurst used were placed at the head of the grave, and at the conclusion of the committal service a touch of Grandsire Doubles was rung on handbells by A. J. Bartlett, G. Luff and M. Smither. Wreaths included one from the captain and past and present ringers. A quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, with the bells half-muffled, was rung at the church in the evening by Mrs. Harris 1, F. Bowden (Haslemere) 2, Mrs. F. Bowden 3, A. J. Bartlett (conductor) 4, A. E. Brown 5, M. Smithers 6, H. Mullard 7, Mrs. Herrington 8.

EALING, MIDDLESEX.—At St. Mary's, on July 27th, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: J. E. Churchill 1, J. P. Kent 2, A. M. Stacey (conductor) 3, P. E. Clark 4, D. H. Southard 5, T. Davies (first quarter) 6, A. H. Fulwell 7, F. Millar 8.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Rules

Dear Sir,—Writing as a Central Council delegate who has followed, with keen interest and some anxiety, all discussions and correspondence regarding our rules, I feel that we should, without further ado, ask ourselves in all seriousness the pertinent question: What are rules?

Rules can best be defined as being 'the formula of the unwritten law.' Their sole purpose is to guide, encourage, and assist members toward fulfilment of what are considered to be the highest principles forming the basis or foundation of any specific body.

For instance: A rule governing subscriptions is never primarily of monetary importance. Members are asked to pay subscriptions chiefly because it is 'an unwritten law' that no person can give of his best without some cost to himself, nor can he get the best out of that body of which he is a member unless he recognises this principle.

Or again; in the realms of sport. Handicaps are not placed upon respective competitors in order to give the other 'chaps' a chance. It is to ensure that the individual must give of his best to win. So with our rules, especially that governing peals.

When one seriously considers the many advantages ringers of to-day have over their predecessors it is difficult to believe that anyone who prides himself upon improving on past performances should advocate the relaxing of our rules. This, however, is of minor importance. What the Central Council have to consider is: Will the alterations suggested enhance the fulfilment of our highest principles by each of our members?

I say without fear of contradiction that one of our fundamental principles is 'responsive recognition of one's obligations,' and I suggest that alteration of the rule governing peals as has been advocated will undermine this principle.

No member should at any time be encouraged to ease his conscience with the thought, 'They can ring Minor with a cover if I'm not there,' either for peal or service ringing.

Consider also the member who has yet to ring his first peal. In the majority of cases his or her chance will come only when it is impossible to complete the band without them, and if the rule is relaxed in order to avoid the trouble of looking for them, not only will their opportunity be long delayed, but the time will not be far distant when it is the rule rather than the exception, that seven-bell peals are rung in eight-bell towers, and, what is far more serious, absenteeism from service ringing will be prevalent.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

EASTERN DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.

About 35 members attended the annual meeting of the Eastern District at Goole on July 19th, when a short service in the church was followed by tea and a business meeting.

Five new members were elected, viz., Messrs. F. Mason (Cottingham), H. B. Nicholson (Kirk Ella), G. W. Burt (Hemingbrough), J. Pool (Hessle) and W. Clift (Bramley, near Basingstoke, Hants). All the retiring officers were re-elected and the usual votes of thanks were passed. An invitation to hold the next meeting at Howden was accepted.

A collection for the Association's Bell Repair Fund realised 11s. 3d.

'The Peak of Minor Ringing'

Dear Sir,—May I offer my congratulations to Mr. G. E. Feirn and his band on their achievement? No words of mine can do justice to their wonderful performance, which is a landmark in the history of the Exercise since it marks the peak of all Minor ringing, being the maximum number of regular methods that can be legitimately spliced into seven true and complete extents.

The writing of these words of appreciation is, for me, tinged with a feeling of sadness because the real architect of the peal has passed over. Mr. A. G. Driver would have been delighted at the North Lines performance, and it is due to his kindness and helpfulness in laying bare the secrets of his discoveries that I was able in some small measure to contribute to their success.

I was therefore very glad to see that they had used his composition for the third extent instead of a rather simpler composition by myself. For the sake of those who may be interested I enclose the figures. Incidentally Mr. Driver's remarks on receiving it are worthy of quotation to show the type of man he was: 'Your new arrangement for the 17 methods is very welcome' (then follows a description of how he got his composition). 'But this new composition of yours is immeasurably superior in that it has two singles per part instead of six.'

Small wonder, therefore, that we who corresponded with such a figure feel it our duty and privilege to carry out his ideals so far as we are able.—Yours faithfully,
C. KENNETH LEWIS.

ILLUSTRATIONS WANTED

Dear Sir,—I am to give a lecture early in October to the Royal Archaeological Institute on 'Bells and Ringers of Norwich.' It is to be illustrated with a strip-film made up of any illustrations that I can get hold of, relevant to the subject. I should be most grateful if anyone who has any illustrations, photos, sketches, plans or diagrams, directly or indirectly connected with the subject, would be kind enough to lend them to me not later than about the first week in September. They will be carefully kept and returned with remittance for postage as soon as they have been used for making the strip-film.—Yours faithfully,

A. G. G. THURLOW.

Usefulness?

Dear Sir,—If the leader of an orchestra decided to tap out a violin concerto on a series of appropriately assorted handbells most of us would rightly consider that his usefulness as a responsible member, either of an orchestra or of any campanological fraternity, was nearing its end. We should think the same of any centre-forward who tried to play his game of soccer with a cricket ball. Mr. Male's enthusiasm for tapping (or is it playing or fiddling?) peals on violin or piano—recorded in your issue of July 25th—seems to me to be much on a par with these strange aberrations.

I should be loth to prevent anyone from misusing his energy as he pleases, provided he does not become a social menace in so doing (and I hope Mr. Male lives in a detached house so that there can be no possibility of this supposition being true), but I do strongly deplore your action, Sir, in thinking fit to publish to the world—and in the hallowed ground of Belfry Gossip, too!—a feat which is neither campanology nor music nor plain good sense.

Let these freaks be ignored in decent silence. Since, mercifully, I don't live in the next house, I couldn't care less that it wasted three hours and three minutes of a precious lifetime.—Yours faithfully, Thames Ditton.

A. M. HOUGHTON.

DEVON GUILD OF RINGERS

BRANCH MEETING AT IPPLEPEN

A quarterly meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch of the Devon Guild of Ringers was held at Ipplepen, Newton Abbot, on July 26th, when visitors attended from Okehampton, Kenn, Newton Abbot, Paignton, Dartmouth, Exmouth, Ashburton, Buckfastleigh, Plympton and Plymouth.

The bells were kept going throughout the afternoon, this being followed by a service in church conducted by the Vicar (Rev. T. P. Vokes-Dudgeon), who gave an excellent address.

Tea was served in the Schoolroom, and the Vicar occupied the chair at the subsequent business meeting. Apologies for absence were received from the branch chairman, who was away on holiday, and the president of the Guild. Three non-resident members were elected, viz., Messrs. C. McGuiness (Lincoln), W. Ayre (Hemel Hempstead) and Miss Marie Cross (Abingdon).

The next quarterly meeting was arranged for Bishopsteignton on November 1st, and it was also agreed to hold an extra meeting at Moretonhampstead on September 13th, both meetings subject to the necessary permission.

Hearty votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicar of Ipplepen and his parishioners for the welcome they had given the branch, and the visitors adjourned to the tower for further ringing. The methods rung were Grandsire Doubles and Triples, and Stedman Doubles and Triples.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The July meeting was held at Sherburn-in-Elmet on July 26th. Members were present from Armley, Headingley, St. Chad and St. Michael's, Idle, Tadcaster and Woodlesford. The bells were rung up at 3 p.m., and ringing continued until 8 p.m. except for the tea and business meeting.

The next meeting will be held at East Ardsley. Methods rung were Bob Major, Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob Major and rounds for the learners.

Ringers' Outings

EIGHT TOWERS IN A DAY.

The ancient superstition of the ringing of church bells to keep away thunderstorms was apparently proved on July 19th, when the Isleworth ringers organised a coach tour in South Bucks in almost perfect weather.

Starting from Hounslow soon after 9 a.m. and picking up some of our party in Uxbridge, we arrived at Beaconsfield. Ringing ranged from rounds, giving some of our girls their first pull on long-draught bells, to London Surprise. On to the beautiful 12 at High Wycombe where, though unsuccessful at Stedman, we rang a good three leads of Treble Bob Maximus with Cecil Mayne and Arthur Harding on the tenors.

After lunch and a stroll round the town, we made for Wooburn, near Bourne End. While awaiting the arrival of the key, handbells were put to good use in Grandsire and Stedman. Two French girls in our party, on their first day in England, were greatly thrilled to stand alongside the bells here and watch a good touch of Cambridge being rung. We were sorry to find the local captain, Mr. Martin, very seriously ill, and we hope it will not be long before he is up and about again.

The beautiful village of Cookham was our next call, where three leads of Bristol were rung on the recently augmented bells. Climbing up wooded Hedsor Hill, the scenery was so pleasant that many of us got out and walked—we had to, as the coach couldn't make it loaded!

Burnham bells presented us with their strange and wild assortment of sharps and flats. Noticing our surprise at the quality of the bells, George Gilbert, now recovering from his fall on the previous Saturday, remarked, 'Now don't you think the bells need recasting!' We certainly agreed.

The light six at Hitcham were also visited. Just before moving off, Bill Elson arrived from Burnham and 'snatched' the tower with a 120 of Grandsire Doubles which came round at hand, as do so many of his better-known touches of Triples. It was unfortunate that two bells crossed.

After an open-air tea, we visited Gray's church at Stoke Poges with its exterior iron stairway to the ringing chamber. The bells are as perfect to listen to as they are to ring, and up to Superlative Surprise was rung on them. A short shower fell on the way to our last tower, Iver, where, despite being in semi-darkness, the gas being turned off, we enjoyed a pleasant ring. It was only after this that the programme fell a little behind schedule, as eight towers on such a warm day do make one just a little thirsty! Then homeward bound to Hounslow in time to slake any remaining parched throats.

G. D.

Isleworth, Middlesex.

The St. Mary's, Portsea, ringers, together with friends and ringers from Portsmouth Cathedral, held their outing on June 28th. Towers visited were Ringwood (8), Downton (8), Amesbury (8) and Whitechurch (8), and methods rung up to and including London and Bristol. The organiser was Mr. A. T. Greenwood.

Steeple Ashton and North Bradley ringers for their annual outing were joined by friends from Westbury, Keevil, Trowbridge and Holt for a tour through Somerset. Ringing took place at Long Ashton, Yatton, Congresbury, Wrington, Hlagdon and Chewton Mendip. Methods rung included rounds, Plain Bob, Doubles, Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Stedman Triples, Plain Bob Major, Double Norwich, Cambridge Surprise Major, Grandsire and Stedman Caters. The arrangements were made by Mr. H. Gummer.

KEITH HART

The Exercise has lost by the passing of Mr. Keith Hart, of Brighton, one of its outstanding personalities, who was in that select band of ringers with more than 1,000 peals to his credit. Keith Hart will go down in history as an almost faultless performer, who had a complete mastery of his mental and physical faculties. Such were his gifts of concentration, that one who had rung scores of peals with him confessed that he had never seen him make a mis-blow. He was also a graceful ringer, and invariably performed on the back end. With his mastery of bell ringing he found it difficult to understand how other rational beings could make errors. Indifference in ringing and striking he would not tolerate, and because of his criticisms, for he had the reputation of being a John Blunt, he was at times misunderstood. No one, however, could be in his presence without having an admiration for his prowess as a performer.

When Mr. George F. Attree created his famous band of Surprise ringers at St. Peter's, Brighton, Keith Hart was already in the town. This company included two other 1,000 peal men in George Williams and Frank Bennett, but other names who come to mind are George Baker, E. C. Merritt, George Smart, Harry Weston, and Charles Palmer. Their performances were the talk of every belfry. Ringing weeks would be held, during which a peal of a different Surprise method would be rung each evening. Another memorable occasion was when Keith Hart rang three peals of London in 24 hours. Upon George Attree migrating to Canada in 1908, Keith Hart became the leader of St. Peter's band, a position he held with distinction and only relinquished this year.

Although he reached his 1,000th peal in 1931, to the regret of his many friends he did not participate in that peal at St. Olave's, Hart Street, on February 15th, 1936, in which each performer had 1,000 peals to his credit. Survivors of that peal are J. George, George Williams, F. Bennett and A. H. Pulling. Whether the fact that he never kept a record of his peals had anything to do with his not receiving an invitation we do not know, but he was the only other living ringer then alive with 1,000 peals to his credit. Since then two others have joined that select company in Mr. James Bennett and the late Mr. C. T. Coles. Perhaps the biggest day's ringing in Keith Hart's life was in September, 1912, when he rang the sixth at Sherborne Abbey to a peal of Stedman Triples, and in the evening the eighth to a peal of Stedman Caters at St. John's, Yeovil. Ringing in both these peals were W. and E. Pye, who shared the respective tenors of 46 cwt. at Sherborne and 42 cwt. at Yeovil. Preb. C. C. Cox rang in the peal at Yeovil and the Rev. E. V. Cox at Sherborne Abbey. A great ringer thus passes to his rest.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The attempt by members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild to ring 14,144 London Surprise Major on August Bank Holiday at Heydour was unsuccessful. The breakdown occurred after more than 11,500 changes had been rung in 6 hours and 36 minutes. All the band were resident members of the Guild, and all with the exception of the treble ringer ring regularly at Lincoln Cathedral.

It was a pleasing thought that the first peal on the new Chesterfield bells should be in memory of G. Arthur Knights, who had such a distinguished connection with the tower.

We cannot resist a word of congratulation to the company of 16-year-olds who rang a peal of Minor at Morton, Derbyshire. A useful company for any association.

Mr. Ernest Morris now knows the Leicester Diocese almost blindfold. Medbourne is the 125th tower in the diocese in which he has rung a peal.

Mr. W. H. J. Hooton assures us that he lays no claim to the handbell feat to which he was credited in our last issue. The size of the tenor was 14 in C sharp. We regret the error.

The marriage will take place at Chipping Barnet Parish Church on August 23rd at 2.30 p.m. between Mr. B. P. Morris, of Warkton, Kettering, and Miss Mary Swift, of 86, Normandy Avenue, Barnet.

Not only from London, but from all parts of the country will come birthday greetings to Mr. Thomas H. Taffender, who on July 25th celebrated his 70th birthday. The peal in honour of the event was at Lambeth on the following day. Also commemorated was the birth of his grandson (Thomas Richard Bruce Taffender) on July 20th, and the birthday of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. W. Taffender. The bobs were called by his son, Mr. T. W. Taffender.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. H. C. Chandler, one of the original members of the Middlesex Association, has completed 58 years of ringing, 55 of which have been at St. Leonard's, Heston. The anniversary was marked by 1,260 Stedman Triples on August 3rd at Heston by J. B. Sansom 1, W. T. Godfrey 2, H. C. Chandler 3, W. A. Lewis 4, J. Cobb 5, E. R. Gladman 6, F. E. Hawthorne (conductor) 7, W. J. Winter 8.

An even longer record has Mr. G. Thompson, of Hinckley, Leicestershire, with 59 years as a Sunday service ringer to his credit. He rang the treble in a quarter-peal on August 3rd, which was rung as his eightieth birthday compliment. Others were G. Ballard (conductor) 2, O. E. Turner 3, G. Charlton 4, H. Knights 5, B. Ritgway 6, E. Vallance 7, T. Friar 8.

Leicester is in the news this week with a peal of Superlative Surprise Maximus, in which there were nine firsts.

Will the Nottingham reader who offers for sale a set of handbells please forward his name and address? We cannot insert box numbers without knowing to whom replies may be sent!

Coinciding with the holding of the Scouts' Jamboree at Paris comes the suggestion of a Boy Scouts' peal in South London area. Particulars are given in our notice columns.

The peal at Probus, Cornwall, was Miss J. E. Withey's first 'touch' of Major. It was a good performance. Miss Withey rings at Cambridge, where change ringing has taken root and replaced 'stoney.' Several quarter-peals have recently been rung by the local band.

Mr. E. Connock, who rang his first peal in England at Farmborough, Somerset, on August 4th, had previously rung a peal at Melbourne, Australia. His fellow ringers would like to express their gratitude to him for the welcome entertainment provided after the performance. Incidentally everybody in the peal had a first of 'something.'

THE PASSING OF TWO FAMOUS RINGERS

Mr. J. Armiger Trollope

We regret to record the death on Friday, August 8th, at 52, Lammas Park Road, Ealing, of Mr. Jabez Armiger Trollope. As an authority on all matters appertaining to the Exercise, Mr. Trollope held a unique position. He was a vice-president of the Middlesex Association and an honorary member of the Central Council. His age was 71 years.

The following biography has been written by his close friend, E.C.S.T. :-

Jabez Armiger Trollope was born at East Dereham, Norfolk, on January 8th, 1876, and was educated at King Edward VI. School, Norwich. During his schooldays he and various school friends, including J. and G. Burton and C. Borrett, used to visit various five and six-bell towers of the city and taught themselves ringing. They also obtained some handbells and rang several peals of Plain Bob, including what was for many years, if not still, the record length of Bob Major on handbells.

In about 1904 he came to live at Ealing and for a few years his chief interest was photography. He joined the Ealing Photographic Society and was always very proud of a silver medal he was awarded at one of their exhibitions. The subject was St. Peter Mancroft Church, Norwich, taken from an unusual viewpoint. He never lost his interest in ringing, however, and eventually joined the Waterloo Society, who used to ring at St. John's, Waterloo Road. He later held the office of vice-president of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild for more than 20 years.

He was without a doubt the most gifted ringer of his age. His peals totalled well over 600 and he conducted a fair proportion of them. Twenty years ago they comprised a greater variety of methods than had been achieved by anyone else. He was even more talented in his knowledge of the theory of ringing, and it is only within recent years that a few others have caught up with and in perhaps one or two directions even surpassed him. Furthermore he could impart his knowledge to others, both in his writing and in his conversation. He devoted a considerable amount of time to the study of the history of the art of change ringing from its earliest days, and his work on this subject alone occupies at least ten hand-written volumes illustrated with his own pen and ink drawings of churches.

This wealth of knowledge was freely drawn upon when he was Editor of 'The Ringing World' in the many weeks when the amount of copy received by post barely filled a single page. Without it 'The Ringing World' must have ceased publication altogether.

His published works include most of the books prepared by the Methods Committee of the Central Council, the latest edition of 'Stedman' in the 'Snowdon' series and 'The College Youths'—a history of the Ancient Society of College Youths. He had recently been engaged on a new edition of 'Grandsire' for the 'Snowdon' series and had completed a book on Surprise Major methods, which has long awaited publication by the Central Council.

He had been a member of the Central Council since 1897 and served on the Methods Committee, of which he was for many years convener.

His work for 'The Ringing World' during the most difficult period of its existence when there was a complete ban on the ringing of church bells cannot be over-estimated, and it was a great disappointment to him to learn that his efforts were not adequately appreciated. He endeavoured and, in the opinion of many, succeeded in making the paper as interesting and as useful to the majority of its readers as possible, and steadfastly refused to allow its pages to be used to satisfy the personal vanity of a minority. His treatment at the Central Council meeting at Norwich in 1946 over this matter was the direct cause of a serious decline in his health, from which he never really recovered for any length of time.

AN APPRECIATION.

By the sad news of the death of J. Armiger Trollope, the Exercise will learn of the loss of one of its leading personalities.

I must leave it to others to write of his great work for the Exercise during the last 50 years—his technical knowledge and skill, shown in his published and unpublished writings; his unsurpassed knowledge of the history of ringing and ringers and his ability to make such knowledge live in his writing. (His book, 'The College Youths', is a mere selection of appropriate extracts from his manuscript history.) For many years he could claim to have rung a greater number of different Major methods than anyone else. Although a small man physically, he could turn in a heavy tenor to Major with the next man. His work for the Central Council and its Methods Committee over nearly half a century is well known.

All this led up to and was crowned by his greatest work for the Exercise, when, on the death of his friend, J. S. Goldsmith, he assumed the editorship of 'The Ringing World.' At that time there was no ringing and, therefore, no ringing news—no peals, no notices or reports of meetings. Mr. Goldsmith had managed, with his wide experience and his accumulated material, to carry on, largely with the help of special articles by Mr. Trollope. But during Mr. Goldsmith's illness and from his death in 1942 Mr. Trollope was able week by week to produce—often from nothing—our paper, without which the Exercise would have lost its homogeneity and perhaps have dwindled into a number of isolated units. Many weeks practically the whole paper was written by him—leader, special articles and correspondence, and yet he set and maintained a high standard and, as paper allowed, increased the journal's circulation.

J.A.T. did not shine in debate and was never at ease in public speaking. He was at his best in the company of a few friends—after a peal or on a day in the country. For although ringing was his life, he had, in full measure, the ability of the well-educated man of his generation to talk interestingly and knowledgeably on an infinite variety of subjects.

But to me, and I know that this is true also of Mr. Ernest Turner, his death is a great personal loss. He taught us to ring just over twenty years ago, and from then on he was our guide, philosopher and friend, and we were proud that he regarded us as 'his boys.' Week by week he rang with us at Christ Church, Ealing, and at other local towers content, if the band could manage no more, with call changes or Doubles, so long as the striking was good. Bad striking he could not tolerate. Many a visitor to the tower was surprised to learn that the little man ringing call changes or standing behind a beginner was the J. Armiger Trollope whose article or 'Notes by the Way' he had read in that week's 'Ringing World.'

I shall be grateful if you, Mr. Editor, can find space for my very inadequate tribute to the memory of a great ringer and a true gentleman. —Wilfrid G. Wilson, 28, Abbey Avenue, Alperton, Wembley.

Mr. Keith Hart

We regret to record the death on July 30th of Mr. Keith Hart, of Brighton, aged 73. The following memoir is contributed by F.I.H. :-

The name of Keith Hart probably means little to many present-day ringers, as his peal ringing career ended in 1938, but he was without doubt one of the outstanding ringers of his generation. He kept no record of his peals, but so far as can be ascertained he rang 1,164 in all, of which he conducted 462. No fewer than 924 of his peals were for the Sussex County Association, and one man only—William Pye—has ever rung more for one society.

His first peal was at Brighton in 1891, and his 1,000th some time during 1931, so that he must have been the eighth or ninth ringer to reach that total. In several years he rang over 50 peals—60 in 1898, 52 in 1909, 55 in 1912, while in 1913 he rang no fewer than 76, of which he conducted 61.

It was not only as a peal ringer, however, that his reputation was gained. One had only to see him handling the 25 cwt. tenor at St. Peter's, Brighton, with an easy, graceful style, and with perfect accuracy of striking, to realise that he was no ordinary ringer. Not only did he ring his bell supremely well, but it was said of him that rarely, if ever, did he make a mistake.

In January, 1905, he took part in three peals of London in two days, and 'The Bell News' of January 28th, 1905, referring to these, said: 'It is worthy of record as an instance of concentration of the mind that one of the company—"K.H."—rang the 15,296 changes without making a trip.'

Mr. Hart was associated throughout his career with St. Peter's, Brighton, and was a member of the band which made history there at the end of the last century. He took part at St. Peter's in the first peals of Champion, Oxford, Norfolk and Westminster Surprise, and in 1926, on the modern peal of ten, he called the first and only peal of George Baker's version of London Surprise Royal. It is not known how many peals Mr. Hart rang at St. Peter's, but the number must be close on 200.

In recent years he had done very little ringing, but until a short while ago he retained charge of the tower, and the condition both of the bells and the ringing chamber testified to his care and attention.

His peal list is as follows :-

Cambridge Minor, rung 1; seven Surprise Minor, 1; *Grandsire Triples, 29 (conducted 5); Stedman, 259 (178); Grandsire Major, 1; Bob Major, 47 (21); Double Norwich, 123 (60); Kent Treble Bob, 55 (28); Oxford, 2; Cambridge Surprise, 108 (28); Superlative, 195 (84); London, 92 (6); Bristol, 29 (1); Champion, 2; Gloucester, 3 (2); New Cumberland, 5; Norfolk, 3 (1); Westminster, 2; Yorkshire, 5 (1); four Spliced, 4; Grandsire Caters, 12; Stedman Caters, 72 (24); Bob Royal, 15 (4); Double Norwich, 1; Kent Treble Bob, 42 (14); Oxford, 1; Cambridge Surprise, 37 (4); New Cambridge, 1; London, 1 (1); Yorkshire, 7; Spliced Cambridge and Yorkshire, 1; Stedman Cinques, 12; Kent Treble Bob Maximus, 1; Cambridge Surprise, 1; total, 1,164 (462). *4 on handbells.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral took place quietly at Hove Cemetery on August 5th. The family mourners included Mrs. Hart (widow), Messrs. Harry and Stanley Hart (sons), Messrs. A. and W. Hart (brothers). Amongst the ringers present were Mr. F. I. Hairs (Master, S.C.A.) and Mrs. F. I. Hairs. Mr. O. Sippetts, Lt.-Comdr. R. G. Cross, Messrs. A. H. Pulling (Guildford Diocesan Guild), W. ## THE HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD, Part II

THE MASTERS.

The first Master of the Guild was Mr. George H. Phillott, son of the Rector of Staunton-on-Wye (to whom we have already referred), although he had already left home and was living in Cheltenham. Here, in 1889, while still Master of the Hereford Guild, he took part in the record length of Grand-sire Caters (15,227 changes). In 1890 he resigned the Mastership and was succeeded in 1891 by the Rev. G. M. Custance, who had hitherto been the secretary. Three years later, Mr. J. G. Buchanan, of Clun (afterwards at Hereford), became Master, which office he held until 1923.

In the early nineties, besides Ross and Bridgnorth, local bands (with occasional outside help) were ringing peals at Coalbrookdale, Welshpool and Colwall, and by the end of the century also at Ludlow and Hereford Cathedral.

Under Mr. Buchanan steady progress was maintained. Though he never conducted a peal, he was a genial leader of men, a fine figurehead, whose personal qualities inspired others and did much to maintain the spirit of loyalty in the Guild. This progress is exemplified by taking a few random notes from the reports of these years. In 1902, for example, it is reported that 'Ludlow and Ross have made excellent progress in Stedman,' and in the following year scored their first in that method. In 1903 'Colwall scored its first peal of Bob Major, while Ludlow and Hereford were busy but unlucky with peals.'

During 1908 there were 51 peals rung to the credit of the Guild, the largest number so far in one year.

After the Great War of 1914-18 an important change was made in the organisation of the Guild. It was no longer financially possible to engage a qualified instructor nor was it any longer necessary. Instead, therefore, a scheme was drawn up for the division of the Diocese into twelve Districts, each with its own Ringing Master. Henceforth, the duty of instruction was to fall largely on the District Ringing Masters, each in his own District. This was a wise move, and the scheme has worked well, though some Districts have shown greater activity and progress than others.

The other important event of this time was the recasting of the tenor bell of All Saints' Church, Hereford, by the Guild, as a memorial to the fallen ringers from the Diocese.

In 1920, Mr. Charles Edwards was appointed Ringing Master of the Guild to assist the Master, now there was no longer a paid instructor, and on the resignation of Mr. Buchanan in 1923 took over the office of Master. He threw himself energetically into the work of Master of the Guild, visiting the Districts to encourage and instruct. He also arranged and conducted many peals in the Diocese. By 1922 the Guild had well recovered from the set-back due to the war, and 60 peals were rung.

By 1924 the total number of members had reached 850, but in this year and the following the two Welsh Districts of Brecon and Welshpool withdrew from the Guild. Welshpool had been active centre of change ringing from the early days of the Guild. In 1926 the first peal of Grand-sire Caters at the Cathedral was rung; it was also the first peal of Caters by resident members of the Guild and was conducted by the Master.

In 1932 the first peal of Bob Royal was rung by the Guild at Leominster, also conducted by the Master, and in this year, too, Ross District was very active, scoring four peals of Stedman Triples and the first of

ST. LEONARD'S, BRIDGNORTH

Little Bob, Double Norwich (by a district band) and Oxford Treble Bob. In 1934 the 1,000th peal of the Guild was rung at Ross.

1936 marked the jubilee of the Guild, and this was fittingly celebrated at Hereford on Whit Monday by a dinner presided over by the Bishop, at which Mr. W. H. Fussell was the guest of honour. Sixty-six peals were rung in 1938, the record number in one year, and in the same year the Bell Restoration Fund was inaugurated.

One important work undertaken by Mr. Edwards was the visiting of towers at the request of incumbents, to advise and report on the bells. This has been a valuable work, and encouraged the proper rehanging and augmenting of the bells throughout the Diocese, a process which had been going on since the formation of the Guild as a direct result of its widespread cultivation of change ringing.

When Mr. Charles Edwards left the Diocese in 1939 he was succeeded as Master by Mr. William Saunders, of Coalbrookdale. Mr. Saunders was the leader of an enthusiastic band of ten-bell ringers in the far corner of the Diocese, and held the unusual position of holding office in two Associations at the same time, being Master of the Hereford Guild and representative on the Central Council of the Shropshire Association. Unfortunately the war broke out soon after his appointment, so that he could do little more for the Guild as Master than 'keep things going,' and his death in 1945 was a great loss to both Associations.

He was succeeded by Mr. William Poston, of Bridstow, near Ross, who has done a great work for the Guild in the Ross area since 1911. He has done much to encourage Minor methods in the six-bell towers, and as District Ringing Master since 1920 he has conducted many 'firsts' on the eight bells of Ross and Bridstow, including a peal of Cambridge Surprise by resident members in 1933. This year he was succeeded by Mr. Arthur W. Davis, of Hereford.

THE HONORARY SECRETARIES

From the first the Guild has done much to bring the clergy and their ringers together and to create a mutual appreciation and understanding between them. Under its influence many of the clergy started to follow the example of the Revs. F. E. Robinson and C. D. P. Davies and learn ringing. Thus in 1892 it was possible to report that 'in at least nine helfries in the Diocese the clergy are now found as regular ringers with their men.' Unfortunately such active interest of the clergy has not been wholly maintained, but it well illustrates the spirit of the Guild in its early days. The clerical contact has remained however. A number of clergy, for example, have been active members of the Committee, some serving for many years; and, except for two years, the hon. secretaries have all been clergy of the Diocese.

The first secretary of the Guild was the founder, the Rev. G. M. Custance, Rector of Colwall (1886-91). Mr. Buchanan held the post from 1891-93; since then the secretaries have been as follows: The Rev. A. C. Lee, Vicar of Lugwardine, 1893-1911; the Rev. J. S. Roper, Rector of Quatt, 1911-20; the Rev. G. W. Turner, Vicar of Madley, 1920-28; the Rev. H. S. T. Richardson, Rector of St. Nicholas', Hereford, 1928-37; and the Rev. E. G. Benson, Vicar of Burghill, since 1937. Most of these clergy have been themselves ringers, the Rev. H. S. T. Richardson being the most outstanding. As a fine ringer and conductor he had many peals to his credit; in his younger days he had rung several peals with the Rev. F. E. Robinson, and in 1910 took part in the clerical peal of Royal at Warwick. He was also a prominent member of the Central Council, and did a great deal of work on peal compositions for it. As secretary of the Guild he set himself the aim of ringing in every tower in the Diocese, and with bicycle and train or bus visited local bands far and wide, and was everywhere welcomed.

Finally some reference should be made to the many ringers who have done loyal and steadfast work for the Guild in their own towers or districts, who who are not widely known to the Exercise in general. The late Mr. J. P. Hyett, J.P., was one of these. He was a ringer at Clifford (8) for 35 years, secretary of the Clifford District from its formation and peal recorder of the Guild from 1923 till his death in 1944, and for many years a representative of the Central Council. He did much spade work for the Guild, visiting the smaller towers, encouraging beginners and getting them through their first peal of Doubles.

But most Districts have had, and still have, two or three such members on whom the vitality of the Districts so largely depends.

THE PRESENT POSITION.

The Hereford Diocesan Guild is steadily recovering from the serious effects of the war and the ban. Out of the 140 towers in the Diocese with rings of five or more bells, some 67 are in union with the Guild according to the latest report (in 1939 there were 103), with 538 ringing members. Amongst these there is a large number of young members, and in some Districts the Ringing Masters are very active, visiting towers and assisting in instruction.

Weddings

DR. J. E. SPICE—MISS HOLLINGWORTH.

The wedding of Dr. John E. Spice, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Spice, of Sittingbourne, Kent, to Miss Betty Hollingworth, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hollingworth, of Blackpool, Lancashire, took place at Liverpool at the Parish Church of St. Nicholas and Our Lady on July 30th. The Rector, Canon R. A. Reeves, conducted the ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial Mass.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of grey crepe-de-chine, and a hat of white crushed straw. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Constance Miller, was dressed in pale blue and carried red carnations. The best man was Mr. William Leese.

The reception was held at the Adelphi Hotel, where over 50 guests were present, amongst whom were the following ringers: Frances A. Edgar, Julia M. Preston, Jean A. Southerst, Betty Spice and Margaret L. Tutt, George R. Newton, Ralph G. Edwards, John Dickinson and Wilfrid F. Moreton.

The honeymoon is being spent at Shepton Mallet, Somerset, and in Cornwall.

A peal attempt was made at Emmanuel Church, Liverpool, by members of the Oxford University Society later in the day, which unfortunately came to grief after two hours' ringing, but a peal was rung in honour of the wedding at Frodsham, Cheshire, the following evening.

MISS NORA HOLMES.

Miss Nora Holmes, a ringer at St. George's, Doncaster, was married at this church on August 5th to Mr. Edward B. Wall, also of Doncaster. The local company formed a guard of honour as the bride entered the church and then climbed the 138 steps to the belfry to ring a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples on the magnificent bells (tenor 30½ cwt.). The ringers attended the reception and some of them left hurriedly to ring a peal of Bob Major at Conisborough in honour of the wedding.

EYNHAM'S PROGRESS

Dear Sir,—I should like to contradict one statement in the Master's report at the Oxford Guild festival regarding the progress made at Eynsham under the leadership of Mr. Harry Floyd.

May it be pointed out that Mr. Floyd has not rung at Eynsham for at least a year, but nevertheless good progress has been made with the helpful instructions given by Mr. C. G. Calcutt.—I am, sir, yours faithfully,

'AN EYNHAM RINGER.'

SOUTHGATE.—At Christ Church on July 6th, 1,263 Stedman Caters: C. Pothecary 1, W. Nash 2, W. J. Ellis 3, A. W. Coles (conductor) 4, G. A. Parsons 5, R. Charge 6, H. Miller 7, R. H. Begrie 8, J. G. Nash 9, S. Wade 10.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

It is not the largest or the most prominent of the ringing Associations of England, and with such a limited number of eight and ten-bell towers (especially as many of these eight are in small country parishes) there are few bands capable of ringing advanced methods, but it is striving for the same ideals as the others in its quieter way in the most rural Diocese of England, and it is not unworthily attempting to fulfil the objects of its founders. It is still alive and still has much to do in the service of the Church. Indeed it can proudly claim to be the oldest, largest and most active Church society for men in the Diocese.

E. G. BENSON.

Winchester and Portsmouth Guild

MEETING AT BENTWORTH.

Amidst beautiful surroundings and in glorious summer weather, the first Guild meeting ever to be held at Bentworth, near Alton, took place on July 12th. The Vicar, the Rev. Peter C. Cazalet, was present throughout the afternoon and evening and warmly greeted members who came from Blackmoor, Bentworth, Petersfield and Steep. Mr. C. W. Ward, a former Bentworth ringer, was present from Middlesex. The five bells were rung to various Doubles methods, and the Guild's service was held at 4.15. Tea and business meeting followed in the Parish Hall.

In the absence of the district chairman, the Vicar was unanimously elected to the chair. Two new members were elected—the Rev. Peter C. Cazalet and the Rev. A. D. Somerset Ward (Vicar of Blackmoor). New ringing members elected were R. E. Crockford (Petersfield), P. E. Ayling, H. Mills, W. Westbrook, F. E. Smith, W. Laney (Bentworth). The next quarterly meeting of the Alton and Petersfield District was fixed for October 18th at Buriton.

ANDOVER BELLS DEDICATED

After being silent for nearly ten years because they became unsafe, the bells of Andover rang out again on July 30th. The occasion was their rededication by the Bishop of Southampton, who was assisted by the Vicar of Andover (the Rev. A. C. Fletcher) and the district secretary of the Diocesan Guild (the Rev. F. S. H. Marle).

Among the large congregation, which contained many ringers, were the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead (Southampton), the Rev. P. K. Venner (Abbot's Ann), Mr. Geo. Williams, now in his 92nd year, and Mr. W. Andrews, captain of the Winchester Cathedral band.

In the course of his address the Bishop referred to the great effort that had been made by the Vicar and parishioners of Andover, and congratulated them on reaching their objective.

The work has been carried out by Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, and included re-hanging the fine peal of eight in a metal frame, recasting the treble and laying a new floor to the ringing chamber. The handsome sum of £1,500 has been raised, which will allow for a maintenance fund to be started. Andover may well be proud of her effort and her bells. Hearty congratulations to all who had any part in the matter.—P.S.H.M.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

MARTINSTOWN'S NEW BELLS.

Over 40 ringers were present, representing 17 towers from the Dorchester Branch, with visitors from Southampton, Lyme Regis, Bournemouth, Ringwood and Salisbury, at Martinstown on July 19th, to test the bells which had been dedicated the previous Sunday.

The Vicar (the Rev. C. M. Oswald), assisted by the Rev. A. F. Godley, of Stratton, conducted the ringers' service. At the business meeting which followed tea the ringers at Winterbourne St. Martin were elected to membership of the Branch, together with the new band at Fordington St. George. Thanks were extended to the Vicar and the local ringers, and the lady helpers at tea for their hospitality.

The thanks of the branch were also extended for the invitation to ring at the dedication when six towers in the District were represented by F. C. Preecy (Wool, Ringing Master of the Branch), Mrs. Godley (Stratton), J. H. Hayne (Abbotsbury), J. Squire (St. Peter's, Dorchester), F. Stedman (Wyke Regis) and H. R. Pink (Fordington St. George).

Yorkshire Association

NORTHERN DISTRICT NEWS.

The Northern District of the Yorkshire Association is larger than most counties, and includes, in addition to the whole of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in York Diocese and the Archdeaconry of Richmond in Ripon Diocese, parts of the Archdeaconries of York and the East Riding in York Diocese and part of Leeds Archdeaconry in Ripon Diocese.

Despite the largeness of the district successful meetings have been held recently and much progress has been made.

On July 5th a very good meeting was held at Middleham, famous for its association with Richard III. and for its racing stables. The fine old Church of SS. Mary and Alkelda possesses a fine ring of eight bells, and a visit was also paid to the neighbouring village of East Wotton, where there is a good light ring of six bells. The Rector of Middleham presided over the business meeting and also conducted a service at which the district secretary read the lessons.

On July 12th a few members of the Northern District visited Richmond and rang some good touches, including a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, recorded elsewhere, together with the local company. Tea, provided by the local ringers, was served on the Rectory lawn. This visit was made in connection with 'Ringers' Sunday,' observed on the next day at Richmond.

Saturday, July 26th, found the Northern District members meeting at Helmsley. Good use was made of the ring of eight bells, and the generous hospitality of the local ringers was greatly appreciated. A pleasant feature of this meeting was the ringing of evensong by the ringers, led by a choir of men and boys and with Helmsley's veteran organist, Mr. Buckley, playing the organ.

Helmsley has a noble church with a great reputation for dignified ceremonial and good music. The present Vicar is himself a ringer and is a son of the Bishop of Shrewsbury. Plans for assisting other towers were discussed at this meeting, and some excellent practice on tower and handbells was obtained.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

JOINT MEETING WITH LADIES' GUILD AT MONKEN HADLEY.

The meeting at Monken Hadley on July 26th, held jointly with the Central District of the Ladies' Guild, was attended by forty ringers, and opportunity was taken to welcome country visitors to the London area.

A short service was conducted by the Rev. Bentley, Rector, who expressed pleasure that his tower had been chosen for this occasion.

After tea, each Guild held a short business meeting in its own rights, and at the ladies' meeting six new members were elected, viz., Mrs. R. Darvill and Miss Audrey Bailey (St. Albans), the Misses Jean and Mary Burrows (Sandridge), Miss Amy Wren (Wheatthampstead) and Miss Pauline Jackson (Monken Hadley).

At the Middlesex meeting the following provisional elections were confirmed: Messrs. F. Oakshott (Epsom) and W. F. Moreton (Hereford), as non-resident life members, and Miss M. F. Emore (Edmonton) as a ringing member, and new members elected were Messrs. R. Waters (Harrow), J. V. Johnson (Tottenham) and A. H. Russell (Holloway) as ringing members, and Mr. G. F. Swann (Birmingham) as a non-resident life member.

The ringing catered for all tastes under the supervision of Mr. A. W. Coles, vice-president, in the absence of Mr. A. Cutler, who was on holiday.

AN AFTERNOON IN THE SHIRES

Saturday, July 19th, had been chosen by some enthusiasts of the Oxford Guild for an excursion amongst some of the lesser known towers in the Banbury district, and fortune favoured us, for the day was fine and warm. One member of the carload from Eynsham was quickly in good humour, for the route chosen took him close to his birthplace, which he had not visited for many years.

The first objective was South Newington, situated in delightful Cotswold country, which was at its loveliest, the hills and turns in the road revealing wide views over peaceful valleys and distant vistas of Edge Hill, and the roadside wastes were ablaze with poppies. At South Newington we were joined by members from Adderbury, Banbury and Aynho, and the musical ring of five in St. Peter's Church was soon in action to various Doubles methods. Half an hour was the allowance for each tower, and this sufficed throughout the day to give everyone a pull in each tower, and for a large variety of methods to be rung. South Newington's allowance was very nearly shortened by a fraying rope, but it just managed to last the time with some doctoring.

No time was wasted in getting away to the next tower of Tadmerton, our route lying through more glorious parklike scenery. Here the captain of the local band had the bells up ready for us, and we were fortunate, for a new treble had only just been added to the old ring of five in memory of one who died in the last war. The ascent to the ringing chamber is somewhat precarious, being a lengthy vertical ladder situated in a sort of wooden funnel in one corner of the tower, and the gentlemen waited in some trepidation to see if the lady of the party had a 'head for heights.' All was well, and a good touch of Plain Bob was soon under way. More Doubles and Minor followed, but the bells didn't know Oxford Bob, or was it the ringers? The splice was generally agreed to be a good one, and will be even better when the new bell has mellowed.

There was just time to take a quick look at the remarkable Early Norman font and the carved bench ends (14th century) in St. Nicholas' Church before embarking on the short run to SS. Peter and Paul's, Swalcliffe. Here again we were met by the local ringers, one of whom joined us in a touch. A good rise and fall was one of the features of the ringing here. The ring of six (tenor 13½ cwt.) go excellently, a tribute to the efforts of Messrs Gillett and Johnston, who rehung and returned them in 1933. We thought, however, that the trebles sounded a bit thin. Oxford Bob came round successfully in this 13th century tower, where the width of the spalls to the windows of the ringing chamber caused comment. Tea was partaken of in Banbury and enjoyed by all. No effort had been spared so far this day to point out the 'blondes' to one of the party who appears to have a weakness that way, and at this meal he was fortunate in almost rubbing shoulders with two excellent specimens.

After tea the Cotswolds were left behind for the green plains of Northants, and only a few of us knew what a treat was in store at the next stop in Middleton Cheney. The Church of All Saints is a magnificent building, mainly 14th century Decorated, but with a wonderful Perpendicular tower and spire rising to a height of 150ft. and a typical specimen of that great belt of spired churches which runs through Northants and Lincolnshire, the home of England's finest spires.

We had now been joined by the Bicester and Banbury branch secretaries, and one from Oxford 'fresh' from an abortive peal attempt, and the bells being up Stedman Doubles on this glorious six, tenor 24 cwt., was soon charming the ear. The long draught with no guides, although difficult, was successfully overcome, and the full glory of these beautiful bells was heard in a touch of Treble Bob. One is tempted to ask the old question whether there can be a better ring of six of comparable weight.

Inexorable time drove us to our next tower at St. Peter's, Brackley, where the handy ring of six (tenor 13 cwt. 2 qr. 28 lb. in F) was retuned and rehung by the Whitechapel Foundry in 1939, and is all that can be desired. Here we found our only evidence of the day of change ringing amongst the local ringers, and opportunity was given them to progress. Minor and several Doubles methods were rung before going to Croughton, where in the low tower of All Saints' Church we found a handy ring of five, recast and rehung in 1923 after a fire. Opportunity was taken further to confuse the mind of the member from Banbury, who was heard to declare that he hadn't the least idea what many methods were called but he didn't mind having a shot at them. Mr. F. H. Crossley, in his book, 'English Church Craftsmanship,' tells us that the finest of England's 14th century wall paintings are to be found in this church. Frankly, we were disappointed, but there was compensation in the shape of an excellent 15th century oak chancel screen with some of its original colouring still adhering. The benches are also of this date and well carved, although not comparable with the magnificent work of the West Country.

This actually concluded our ringing for the day, for our visit to Aynho was not to be, a death in the parish preventing the use of the bells. However, everyone was well satisfied, and farewells were said, coupled with the avowed intention of having a similar outing next year. Every ring of bells had been good, but how sad to think that change ringing is seldom heard from them. A. R. P.

OUTINGS

St. Margaret's, Ipswich.—A party of 31, including wives and friends, had a very enjoyable day in Hertfordshire on July 19th. In the morning there was ringing at Royston and Barkway. Lunch was enjoyed at the George Hotel, Buntingford, before going on to Aspenden, where the Rector arranged a short service. Superlative was rung on these light but musical bells. After an hour's ringing at Braughing the party proceeded to Bishop's Stortford for tea and ringing.

Lavenham (Suffolk) ringers visited Essex on July 26th and rang at the following churches: Great Waltham, Brentwood, Romford, Hornchurch, Widford and Chelmsford. Methods were Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob and Superlative.

J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE

Last week we published the sad news of the death of Mr. J. Armiger Trollope. The intimate biographical details and the appreciation were written by two of his close friends to whom in the early days of ringing he was guide, mentor and friend. This week others have added their tributes and thankfulness for his life. It is probably true to say that hundreds of ringers after having surmounted the elementary stage have secured that deeper knowledge of the art from his writings and the books he revised. His great contribution, however, was as an historian. 'College Youths' was an invaluable contribution to the somewhat scanty histories of ringing, but the greater part of his literary labours, we understand, are so far unpublished.

J. Armiger Trollope had no easy road in acquiring his knowledge of the history of ringing. It was accumulated by years of research. Day by day he would patiently search the files of the British Museum to find the facts that he wanted. And it was facts and facts alone that he searched for. Expressing his indebtedness to an individual for the privilege of perusing his magnificent collection of original and copied manuscripts he shrewdly observed, 'Almost all his opinions I have ignored.' That in a sense sums up so much of the scholar's mind that was behind his work. There must be personal conviction in everything he did and wrote, and that was the dominating feature of his work as editor of 'The Ringing World.' It was the advancement of the art of ringing that counted with him: the individual was merely an agent or instrument.

For 50 years he had been a member of the Central Council. With his unrivalled knowledge of methods and compositions he occupied an honoured position. Again the words are 'personal conviction.' By direct or indirect means he achieved his purpose, and it was said of him that no man exercised for a longer period such an influence on the affairs of the Council. With him there was no compromise; it was not in his make-up. The circumstances attending his last Council meeting at Norwich had, in a sense, been anticipated by him. When he completed 'The Ringing World' prior to leaving for Norwich, he bade farewell to the composing staff of this journal, and with an old-world courtesy that must have come from a character in Dickens, he thanked them for what they had done during his editorship and expressed a doubt as to whether he would be editor after the Norwich conference. There was expression of regret, but all were conscious that even then he was a sick man owing to his heart trouble; it was with difficulty that he mounted the stairs to his office. He was never dismissed from the editorship; he thought his best service was to withdraw, and it was left to another at a moment's notice to pick up the reins of office and maintain the continuity of publication of the journal founded by his friend, John S. Goldsmith. The Council did appreciate his work; at Exeter this took a tangible form, and it is to be regretted that he never lived to enjoy what his friends hoped would ease his closing years. But his memory will live, and it is to be hoped that his literary executor will find the means of giving to a wider public the results of his research into ringing in bygone years.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

In connection with the John Hardham commemorative visit to Chichester by the Ancient Society of College Youths, we have received the following from a Cicestrian: 'The high standard of ringing throughout was crowned by the service touch of Stedman Triples, the solid rhythm of which was indeed symbolic of the excellent workmanship of those who in the 15th century built this splendid campanile, of those who 200 years later laid the foundation of this great Society, and of those who, like John Hardman, have since assured its continuance.'

Congratulations to Miss Margaret Flackett on being the first lady to ring a peal of Major for the North Staffordshire Association. She rang her first peal on May 23rd, it being a junior peal for those 17 or under.

There was a typographical error in the list of 100 peals of Mr. Arthur S. Boar, M.P.S., of Sittingbourne. For 'Newbanbridge' should be read New Cambridge! Editorial regrets. Printers and chemists both have difficult 'scripts' to read.

Within 30 months of ringing his first peal, Mr. Harold A. May, of Guildford, completed his 100th peal at Billingshurst, Sussex, on Aug. 9th. The last report of the Guildford Guild contained a lamentation that no young conductors were forthcoming. Tony, by calling this peal and another in Kent, is one of a number of promising youngsters in this Guild who will carry on the torch. He is a pupil of Mr. A. H. Pulling. Congratulations to pupil and master!

On the subject of young conductors, mention should be made of the Beresford family of Mavesyn Ridware, Staffordshire. On May 5th we recorded that Joan called her first peal on her 15th birthday. Her performance was emulated on August 2nd by her twin brother Dennis, aged 13, calling his first. We are awaiting news of the other twin, who is also a ringer, from this talented family.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The veteran of the week is Mr. David Wright, of Southgate, late of Croydon, who rang the treble to 1,257 Stedman Caters at Christ Church, Southgate, as an 87th birthday compliment to him. Participating in this quarter were D. Wright 1, J. Armstrong 2, J. G. Nash 3, W. J. Bowden 4, S. G. Peck 5, J. E. Miller 6, N. A. Tomlinson 7, H. Miller 8, S. Wade (conductor) 9, M. Fenson 10. The conductor and John E. Miller are also not quite so young, as it is 50 years since they commenced ringing together.

Another octogenarian's birthday, commemorated by a quarter in which he participated, is that of 81-year-old Mr. W. C. Parker. Details are as follows: On August 10th at St. Peter's, Staines, 1,280 Bob Major: Arthur Coates (first quarter) 1, Mrs. V. Lathbury 2, W. C. Parker 3, Miss N. Shorter 4, R. Lathbury (conductor) 5, R. J. Andrews 6, W. A. Goldstone 7, J. B. Hessey 8.

Mr. H. Webb, jun., of Coventry, and his son, aged 15, and daughter, aged 13, will broadcast tunes on 12 handbells in the Children's Hour, B.B.C. Home Service, between 5 and 6 p.m. on Tuesday, August 26th. They are allowed six minutes.

The Bishop of London has consented to preach the sermon at the jubilee festival of the Middlesex County Association on October 18th. The service will be held at St. Giles-in-the-Fields and a dinner will follow. A programme of ringing in various London churches is being arranged.

The sudden death of the Rev. J. J. Elliott, Vicar of Aldbourne, Wilts, at Oxford on Aug. 7th, will be regretted by a wide circle of ringing friends. Although not himself a ringer, he was keenly interested in ringing and ringers. The village bells were rung half-muffled after the interment on August 11th.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral service for the late Mr. J. Armiger Trollope, whose death on August 8th was reported in our last issue, took place at Christ Church, Ealing, where he was at one time churchwarden and had done so much of his ringing.

On the afternoon of August 12th the coffin was taken into the church and rested before the sanctuary surrounded by candles.

A Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. R. W. F. Cowdry the following morning at 7.30. Those present included his sister, Miss L. E. Trollope, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. S. Turner and Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey (representing the Middlesex County Association).

The first part of the funeral service commenced at 2.30 p.m., conducted by Fr. Brewer, assisted by Fr. Cowdry. Those present included the Rev. Percival Gough, M.A. (Rector of Acton), Sir C. T. Flower (churchwarden, Christ Church), Mr. E. Alexander Young (St. Clement Danes and Ancient Society of College Youths) with Miss Newnham, and the following members of the Middlesex County Association: Messrs. A. W. Coles (North Mimms, vice-president), E. C. S. Turner (Ealing, general secretary) and Mrs. Turner, Messrs. T. J. Lock (North Mimms, secretary, North and East District), J. E. Lewis Cockey (Ealing, secretary, South and West District), A. Cutler (St. Mary's, Willesden, Ringing Master, North and East District), F. A. Finch (Ealing, Ringing Master, South and West District), W. G. Wilson, with Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, sen. (Christ Church, Ealing), Messrs. J. E. Churchill, A. H. Fulwell, F. Miller and A. M. Stacey (St. Mary's, Ealing), E. M. Atkins (St. Augustine's, Kilburn), H. Belcher (Osterley), F. W. Goodfellow (St. John's, Hillingdon), H. Kilby (St. Mary's, Willesden) and A. W. Brighton (Leytonstone). Messrs. Cockey, Finch and Turner also represented St. Stephen's, Ealing, and the combined band, of which Mr. Trollope was a member, responsible for the ringing at Acton, Brentford, Christ Church and St. Stephen's, Ealing. Messrs. Atkins, Cockey, Lock, Turner, Wilson and Young were also representative of the Central Council.

The service was quiet and impressive, one hymn being sung, 'The King of Love my Shepherd is'; and at the close the coffin, preceded by the processional cross, was escorted to the entrance. The committal service at South Ealing Cemetery was taken by Fr. Brewer, most of those from the church attending, the interment being in the family grave. At the close a plain course of Grandsire Triples on Mr. Trollope's own handbells was rung by T. J. Lock 1-2, A. W. Coles 3-4, E. M. Atkins 5-6, and F. W. Goodfellow 7-8.

Wreaths were from his sister and two nieces; Mrs. Hockley and Hilda; the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild of Change Ringers; the Central Council of Church Bellringers; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilson; and Ernest and Winifred Turner.

Owing to the condition of Christ Church bells, no ringing was attempted there, but later in the evening half-muffled ringing was carried out at St. Stephen's by J. E. Churchill, A. Cutler, T. E. Davies, E. C. S. Turner, J. E. Lewis Cockey, F. A. Finch, A. Harding and W. H. Coles.

In memoriam peals are to be attempted shortly at Acton and Willesden.

APPRECIATION.

May I, as a very humble research worker in our art, be allowed to pay my small tribute to the memory of J. Armiger Trollope? The Exercise has truly lost its greatest historian, for no one ever delved into past events and tabulated more data on the worthies of the past than did Mr. Trollope. I know from my own experience the vast amount of time and patience one has to exert in these matters, and I considered it one of the greatest compliments when Mr. Trollope came specially to Twickenham to see me and brought with him some of his notes and books on the College Youths history, before the publication of his work. He invited me to his home to see the rest of his searches and I was truly amazed at the great amount of data he had most assiduously collected. His whole life must have been spent in visits to the British Museum and other sources of information, and I should say no one ever put so much time and energy into this side of our art.

His work, too, on the practical side is too well known for me to reiterate, and his knowledge in the field of composition was boundless.

Truly the passing of this great historian will leave a gap very difficult to fill, and the Exercise as a whole will feel his loss most keenly.

I trust his collection of MSS., books and records will be preserved by those in authority, as they are priceless and irreplaceable.

ERNEST MORRIS.

Leicester.

AN ORDINARY RINGER'S TRIBUTE.

The passing of J.A.T. severs a link with the past, for he collected more material connected with bygone generations of ringers than any other person. He was once described by the late William Willson as an habitué of the London museums poring over ancient manuscripts. By diligent perseverance he gradually got together a great mass of material; one of the results we see in his book, 'The College Youths.' Not all of his books found their way to the publishers, and the one he wrote about the science of change ringing was never printed, chiefly owing to lack of capital. Clearly the Central Council should be given this book by his executors. He wrote also for the Snowdon series and had just finished re-writing Grandsire.

His work on the Central Council and the Methods Committee is too well known to be stated. He occupied the editorial chair of 'The Ringing World' during the difficult war years and many regretted the abrupt termination in 1946. Still, he was undoubtedly the best writer on ringing matters that the Exercise has ever seen, and he had the gift of making himself understood. The views he put forward did not always go by unchallenged, and critics assailed him, sometimes unfairly. But with all his human faults J.A.T. knew more of the science of change ringing than any other man. The Exercise is undoubtedly the poorer by his passing, but his great wish was to see the Exercise flourish. So we must carry on and spread the knowledge of our art to keep green his memory. May he rest in peace. E.R.M.

Preston.

LEICESTER DIOCESAN GUILD

More than 50 ringers attended the meeting of the Leicester Guild at Kibworth on July 19th. The service was conducted by the Rector (Canon Ottway), who extended a hearty welcome to the Guild.

Tea was provided at a local hotel and was followed by the meeting. Mr. J. P. Fidler gave a lucid account of the proceedings at the Central Council meeting held at Exeter.

The next general meeting was proposed for Syston on October 4th. A recommendation that the Guild subscribe £2 2s. to the Rupert Richardson Memorial Fund was carried.

Members were told of the arrangements for the Guild festival on October 25th. The President said that as many people would arrive on Friday night arrangements had been made to receive them at the Bell Hotel. All the clergy in the diocese had been asked that wherever possible to allow peals to be rung during the Saturday morning. Mr. E. Morris had agreed to deal with all requests for peals and make all arrangements for the ringing of them.

Members were reminded that the Guild certificates were now to hand and could be supplied for 1s. 6d. each.

Oxford University Society's Ringing Week

The annual tour of the Oxford University Society took place at Hereford from August 1st to August 8th. The party consisted of the Misses Spice, Edgar and Higgins and Messrs. Moreton, Dickinson, Grey, Wright and Robins, with the addition of Dr. W. B. Leese and the Rev. C. E. Wigg during the first and second parts of the week respectively.

The main purpose of the week was practice, which, owing to the small number present, was obtained in large quantities by all. Methods rung ranged from Grandsire Doubles to Bristol Surprise Major, some of the intermediate stages being Spliced Plain and St. Clement's Bob Minor, Cambridge and London Surprise Minor, Double Norwich, and Cambridge and Yorkshire Surprise Major.

Two tower-bell peals were attempted, Double Norwich being scored at Colwall and Yorkshire being lost at Ruardean. There were also two unsuccessful attempts in hand for Double Norwich and Grandsire Caters, but handbell ringing was otherwise confined to sampling some of the excellent sets which the party came across on its travels.

Twenty-one towers were visited, the most notable being the Cathedral and All Saints' in Hereford, Leominster, Leintwardine, where the Vicar kindly provided tea, Ludlow, Bronllys, Malvern Priory, Malvern Links and Ross-on-Wye.

Plenty of sunshine and beautiful scenery made the whole week memorable, but weather and scenery alone do not make a successful ringing tour. Our grateful thanks are due to all those whose assistance both before and during the week made everything possible. Special thanks are due to Canon and Mrs. Moreton for their hospitality in the evenings, and to John and Peter Rock, of Eardisland, who joined us on most of the outings, and whose car was a much appreciated means of transport. An inter-university friendship was firmly cemented on the day they answered an S.O.S. to transport part of a peal band to an attempt 20 miles from Hereford.

In the words of a well-known Yorkshire saying, the tour had only one fault—the end was too near the beginning. K.H.

THE LADIES' GUILD

CENTRAL DISTRICT AT ISLEWORTH.

A beautiful day favoured the members of the Central District of the Ladies' Guild for their riverside meeting at Isleworth on Aug. 9th. Though a cross-country journey for many, the meeting was well supported. A very welcome visitor was Miss Elkins, who was on holiday in the Thames Valley.

Turning from the view of a beautiful stretch of the river to the sight of the wantonly destroyed church (it had been deliberately fired by boys) was sad, but inside the ringing chamber the desolation is not apparent.

A short service was held in the temporary church, the Vicar giving an inspiring address. Miss Mitchell, of Gravesend, accompanied the singing on the piano.

After tea a meeting was held, at which the members expressed their regret on the retirement of Miss E. Steel from the presidency of the Guild. Five new members were elected, Miss E. Farrell and Miss S. Harris (Isleworth), Miss B. Denton (Heston), Miss B. Harris (Merton Park), and Mrs. E. Savory (South Ruislip).

Banstead, if available, was chosen for the next meeting, to be held on October 25th.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar for use of the bells and conducting the service, also to Miss Mitchell and Mr. Rogers and helpers for supplying a very enjoyable tea.

Ringing was resumed and included rounds for beginners and methods up to Cambridge Royal. Male support received was much appreciated by members of the Guild.

READERS' LETTERS: Critical and Explanatory

Ringing and Music

Dear Sir,—The report in 'The Ringing World' of August 8th of the peal of Kent Treble Bob Minor rung at Elland, Yorks, brings to my mind again the correspondence in connection with the 'Basingstoke' peals.

These peals, it must be admitted, were perfectly correct performances so far as the number of changes rung were concerned, but they were doubtless musically incorrect.

I know the peal of bells at Elland quite well, and as the tenor is reported as 9½ cwt., I am prompted to assume that the peal was rung on the front six of the peal of eight, which is as musically incorrect as the 'Basingstoke' peals, which have been officially disallowed.

If my assumption is correct, then I consider that this peal and any similar ones rung should also be discounted.

Elland bells are an excellent going peal of eight with a tenor 16 or 18 cwt., and should present no difficulty in ringing a peal of Minor on the back six, which would be correct musically.

In the case of the 'Basingstoke' peals, the unfamiliar number of nine bells being published, immediately brought to notice the obvious peculiarity of the music produced, whereas, if a peal is rung on a lesser number of bells than are in the tower, no one is aware by reading of the performance which bells in particular are used.

I am far from being in agreement with the Basingstoke performances, but if Mr. Kippin and his supporters are to be denied their peals on the grounds of being musically incorrect, surely the same action should apply to any other peals which are equally incorrect from the music point of view.

Obviously my argument falls flat if it can be said that Mr. Kippin's peal of Major would have been accepted had it been rung on the front eight of Basingstoke's nine bells.

If this should be so, then it would appear that we can jumble together any bells we like and ignore their respective tones so long as there are 6, 8, 10 or 12 of them as the case may be, and the composers' efforts to produce the 'best' music to a peal are in vain and an absolute waste of their time and study.—Yours faithfully, V. A. JARRETT.

Barton Stacey, Hants.

PEALS BEFORE MEETINGS

Dear Sir,—It is high time that some of the rules Mr. Blackman hinted at were put into operation with penalties attached, although what penalties could be imposed it is difficult to imagine.

On the other hand, if we clutter ourselves up with rules we approach a civilised standard where they are made merely to be broken or circumvented, so once again we are back again where we started. The 'unwritten law' does not seem to work except in theory. I imagine at the back of Mr. Blackman's letter is the Basingstoke controversy. Surely there are more important things than that.

What action, for example, should be taken when an official left a meeting to look after itself while he went peal ringing? Aha! everybody says, it is for that organisation to impose disciplinary measures. Quite, but what measures?

This is, I think, where the big associations and guilds should come into the picture and help by refusing to record such performances, or perhaps they, or someone at least, can suggest something even better. Guidance on this matter is very necessary if the elected authorities and representatives, both locally and nationally, are to receive the respect and the acceptance of imposed regulations from the ordinary member.—Yours faithfully,

ERNEST COOPER.

Arksey, Doncaster.

The Truro Peal

Dear Sir,—I have for some time past watched the correspondence about the peal rung at Truro. While agreeing that an affair of this nature should not be quietly smoothed over, I am of the opinion that before any of the disgusting affair reached your paper it should have received the judgment of the Truro Diocesan Guild of Ringers, and only the findings and verdict of the Guild need have been published. I think that I can safely say that in certain quarters of the Guild the matter is still sub judice.

Writing as a disinterested observer, may I state both boldly and frankly that the correspondence has had a deleterious effect on the character of the Guild; has undermined the confidence of the ordinary members in their Guild officers; and has shown a curious lack of politeness between two Guild officers at least.

If we of the Truro Guild want a row, and a row is building up, both over this and the question of prize ringing, then let us keep the row to ourselves, and when we have thrashed out the contending policies, let us announce our verdict as a Guild and not as half a dozen or so individuals.

The excuse of not having a Guild organisation does not hold water and I can find no others. It has been rather a curious experience for me to read of the affair at Truro in 'The Ringing World,' and I hope that I shall see no more correspondence until the Guild itself announces its verdict.—I remain, sir, yours fraternally,

E. V. WILLIAMS, R.E.M.E.

Redruth, Cornwall.

THUNDERSTORMS AND RINGING

Dear Sir,—Included in the peal records of the old Midland Counties Association is a peal of Doubles rung at Cottesmore, Rutland, on May 28th, 1934. As one who took part in this peal I well remember what was a coincidence. A violent thunderstorm broke out just as we were pulling the bells up. It lasted throughout the peal (3 hours and 3 minutes), and ended as we were lowering the bells. When we came out of church we had to wade through water ankle deep to the Rectory for tea. Thus the superstition referred to in last week's 'Belfry Gossip' about 'bells drive away thunderstorms' seems to have been reversed.

MORTON'S YOUNG RINGERS

Dear Sir,—I should like through the medium of 'The Ringing World' to congratulate the young band of ringers at Morton on achieving their first peal.

It may be of interest to other members of the Exercise to learn that this band have not yet been ringing two years. Other than the peal, they have rung several 720's and a quarter-peal. Also they have learned 11 or 12 various methods in Doubles and Minor.

Good luck to these ringers, and may they continue to do excellent service to the Church and the Exercise.—Yours sincerely,

J. W. PRICE, Secretary,
East Derbyshire and Notts Association.

CHAIR AS RINGING BOX

Dear Sir,—Whilst on the ringing tour of Wiltshire, Berkshire and Gloucestershire a few weeks ago, on arrival at one tower we found one bell rope did not touch the floor. In order to ring this bell, a chair was produced and the ringer stood on the same. I feel that this oddity takes a bit of beating.—Yours sincerely, ERIC NOBLES.

Duston, Northants.

Knowle Ringers

FOREMAN DENIES STRIKE.

Dear Sir,—I would like to thank Mr. Bayles for his letter in 'The Ringing World,' August 1st. No doubt you have heard the Vicar's point, but you have not heard the ringers' point concerned in this matter. On April 17th, which was a practice night, there was a vestry meeting in the Guild House. The Vicar came down to the meeting, saw two ringers waiting and remarked that he hoped they would not ring, but as it was practice night he told them that he could not stop the practice.

Other ringers came up and went into the belfry and started to ring the bells up. We had been ringing for about 20 minutes or so when his churchwarden came up and asked us to stop, which, of course, we did. After a few minutes' consultation we decided to drop the bells for safety's sake.

During the evening I told the ringers that I should not be present the following Sunday as I was going out. I still deny that I ever told any ringer to stay away from ringing on Sunday, April 20th. There were seven ringers in the tower that night and they all say I did not say a word about stopping. Two ringers turned up on Sunday morning and waited for others to arrive. As no one else came the bells were not rung for service.

On Friday a certain lady ringer, who had not attended the belfry for nine months, canvassed the village for ringers with a tale that the ringers were on strike, which was untrue. She did not go to any of the regular ringers.

I might add that the Vicar has not come in the belfry during any service ringing on Sundays since he was inducted in 1932. The only time I have seen him in the belfry was when the war put a ban on the bells when he instructed me to take the ropes off except on two or three bells that might be required for emergency. The last time I saw him in the belfry was on New Year's Eve, 1943, at midnight.

For Mr. Bayles' information I might say that the new ringers have broken three stays since they started. They have no one in the belfry to teach them to ring properly; it is only a jangle on Sundays.

The report in 'The Daily Telegraph' is not true. The voluntary band is not headed by the schoolmaster.—Yours faithfully,

WILLIAM HENRY SMITH.

Knowle, Birmingham.

Copy of letter received by Mr. W. H. Smith from the Rev. J. H. Sharp, April 20th, 1947:—

Dear Mr. Smith,—It is the duty of the ringers to ring the bells for divine service. By your express direction without consulting me the bells were not rung for morning prayer, and you are to consider yourself dismissed from the office of Ringing Master. You will please hand over any keys of the belfry or of any cupboard or other furniture contained therein to the verger, Mr. Hillcox, who will take charge of the belfry pending the appointment of a new Ringing Master. Until such appointment is made by me no weekday ringing will be permitted.—Yours faithfully, J. H. Sharp.

Copy of letter sent to the ringer who approached the Vicar about a meeting, April 30th, 1947:—

Dear Mr. Hayes.—Since our conversation, further facts have been brought to my notice, which have convinced me that no useful purpose would be served by a meeting of the bell-ringers.—Yours sincerely, J. H. Sharp.

ADDITIONAL COPIES of a particular issue of 'The Ringing World' can be obtained if an order is sent with the report, peal or quarter-peal. Otherwise, the reserve of back numbers is very limited.

BY AIR TO OPEN NEW BELLS

AN AUSTRALIAN EXPERIENCE.

Mr. W. K. Rowe, who is an honorary member of the Central Council, sends us the following report of the trip of nine Sydney ringers to Adelaide to open the new ring of bells at St. Peter's Cathedral, Adelaide.

At 5.15 a.m. on June 23rd, nine Sydney ringers left Mascot by A.N.A. plane for Adelaide. The object of the trip was to officiate at the opening of the new ring of eight bells at St. Peter's Cathedral, and give instruction in the art of change ringing to the Adelaide team. The team was as follows: R. A. Joyner (St. Mark's, captain), W. M. Rowe (St. Mary's, conductor), J. B. Watts (St. James'), R. S. Rowe (St. Jude's), J. Duncan (St. Jude's), G. Williamson (All Saints'), W. H. Short (St. Mary's), J. McCartney (St. Mark's) and A. R. Grant (St. Jude's).

I would like to make it quite clear that this was not an official visit by the N.S.W. Association. Mr. R. A. Joyner arranged the trip with the Bishop of Adelaide (Rt. Rev. H. P. Robin), and was in charge of the team. The journey was an eventful one, and after an exciting landing at Narrandera due to a blow-out of the tyre on the starboard wheel, the plane touched down at Adelaide nine hours late. Although it was 10.30 p.m., the visiting team was welcomed by members of the St. Peter's company.

The Cathedral of St. Peter is 100 years old and the bells were opened during the celebrations. On arrival it was found that the bells were not in perfect ringing condition. Minor adjustments to the stops and general tightening up were necessary. The new ropes were replaced by ropes brought from Sydney which had been used.

The bells have been installed in the south-east of the twin towers of the Cathedral, the north-east being used as a club room. The towers are joined by a large gallery. The ringing chamber is of a good height and very well lit, about 15ft. square and well appointed. Included in the furnishings is an electric clock presented by Mr. P. Vincent (one of the ringers) in memory of his son.

The bells, by Taylors, Ltd., are a ring of eight, the tenor weighing 40 cwt. 1 qr., and are hung in Taylor's patent frame. Nos. 1, 2 and 4 are swung on a plane above the remaining five bells, and provision has been made for an additional five bells at a later date. There is a properly constructed haffie chamber between the belfry and the ringing chamber. A chiming apparatus has also been provided. Entrance to the ringing chamber is in the centre of the floor. The ropes fall in a reasonably good circle.

The bells were consecrated by the Bishop holding the sally of each bell in turn, from treble to tenor, and saying, 'Praise thou the Lord,' after which each bell was sounded in turn. The bells were officially opened by the Bishop saying, 'Bless ye the Lord; praise Him and magnify Him for ever.' The bells were then rung in rounds for two minutes. Later they were rung to changes.

On July 1st the team went out to Walkerville, a suburb of Adelaide, and the following rang a 1,200 of Grandsire Doubles: W. H. Short treble, W. M. Rowe (conductor) 2, R. S. Rowe 3, J. B. Watts 4, J. Duncan 5, A. R. Grant tenor. To our knowledge this is the longest ring in South Australia. While there we met Mr. W. Knight, who rang at the opening of the bells in 1885 and still rings. He has been a chorister at the church for 76 years. On the Honour Roll in the porch of the church for the 1914 war are the names of Sir Ross and Keith Smith, St. Andrew's being their parish church. The bells are a ring of six by Mears and Stainbank with a tenor of 12 cwt. 3 qr. 17 lb.

While at Bishopcourt, one evening we had the pleasure of meeting the late Rev. E. J. Loveday, Rector of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields. The Rev. Loveday passed away the following week in Melbourne.

In closing I think this trip has put up a few 'firsts.' The first time a team has travelled so far to open a peal of bells—900 miles each way. The first time a team has travelled by plane to open a peal. On St. Peter's bells the first touch of Oxford Bob Triples rung in Australia.

In closing I wish to extend to the ringers of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields the condolences of my team mates and self at the loss of their Rector.

W. M. ROWE.

MEETING AT SAWSTON.

A meeting of the Cambridge District, held at Sawston on August 2nd, was well attended, 26 members and friends being present from Burton Latimer, Cambridge, Chippenham, Exning, Fulbourn, Harston, Ickleton, Little Shelford, Melbourn, St. Ives, Sawston, Sudbury, Terrington St. John, Trumpington and Wisbech.

The ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. P. K. Irwin, who is shortly leaving the parish for Wisbech, and an excellent tea followed, which had been kindly provided by some of the local ringers.

During the afternoon and evening some good touches in various methods were brought round. It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Bottisham on September 13th.

RINGING THE BELL

Sir,—A Kingswinford (Staffs) pub raised £500 in six months to help restore the church bells.

The 'cheap money' policy of the Government is reported to discourage people from investing in Government securities and to cause them to seek other forms of investment. The item above from 'The Sunday Express' is surely an example of an unusual but sound and far-sighted investment!—Yours, etc.,

D. A. BAYLES.

MEON VALLEY POPULAR.

A very successful inter-district meeting was held on August Bank Holiday in the lovely Meon Valley district of Hampshire. Some 70 ringers and friends attended from a wide area. Visitors from outside the diocesan area, from Crawley and Pulborough, Sussex; Fairford, Gloucestershire; Raunds, Northants; Salisbury, Newbury, Guildford, Croydon and London were present. During the morning the lovely ring of eight at Privett were available, and in the afternoon and evening the rings of eight at East Meon and West Meon.

Both service and tea were at East Meon. It is hoped to arrange a similar meeting next August Bank Holiday.

Preservation of Towers

ARCHITECT'S ADDRESS TO ADVISORY COMMITTEES.

At a conference of representatives of Diocesan Advisory Committees for the Care of Churches (Northern Province), held at St. William's College, York, a paper of particular interest to bellringers was read by Mr. Leslie T. Moore, M.C., F.R.I.B.A. We are indebted to 'The Builder' for the following points from his address:—

Towers and their roofs are often sadly neglected; they are much exposed, particularly their parapets, and defects may easily become dangerous. The condition of the church roofs can generally be seen to advantage from the tower, a point of view which should not be missed when inspecting the structure. Any loose masonry on the east elevation of the tower, which incidentally cannot be easily detected from the ground, may cause costly damage in falling on roofs below. Access to all roofs both for external and internal examination should be kept in order.

The fixing of flagstaffs and weather-vanes on towers is frequently the source of damage. To withstand the strain of even a moderate-sized flag the post invariably has iron stays from the parapet; by these, constant vibration is transmitted and the corrosion of the iron attachment loosens and damages the masonry. The fixing of such poles on ancient roofs which were not constructed for them is to be condemned.

All open belfry windows should have bird wire internally; a small mesh copper wire guard fixed on a frame is best for durability. Any accumulation of bird droppings causes decay in timber, and birds often attack lime mortar inside towers in a remarkable manner.

BELL TOWERS.

The hanging of bells in our ancient church towers needs much more care than is usually given. Most of the early towers were built for refuge and fortification and later to the glory of God—with spires in stone districts, and a small number of light bells which probably only chimed.

In future we are more likely to construct underground crypts as shelters rather than towers, so the preservation of our fine mediæval examples is very important. It should not be forgotten that the change ringing of bells as we know it was not introduced till late in the 17th century, when more and heavier bells were often added, and that the mediæval towers were not built to withstand the considerable strain involved. The thick walls of some towers faced with coursed stone inside and out may be very deceptive—for it is the condition of the core of the walls that matters.

Many towers are structurally weak in having no horizontal tie in the whole height. This is an important point, structurally.

To reduce the strain, bells should be hung as low as practicable—the sound from a bell emanates when the mouth is up—and the bell frame is best arranged if possible well below the belfry windows, and so more protected from the weather.

Wood frames should not be hastily condemned on account of some decay—they can often be repaired. Metal frames need painting and if neglected corrode.

WEEKLEY, NORTHANTS.—On August 4th, 1.440 Kent Treble Bob Minor: G. E. Watson (conductor) 1, B. Cone 2, Miss E. Walklate 3, G. R. Burton 4, R. Ide 5, P. I. Chapman 6.

Leicester Guild Festival

Dear Sir,—The above festival immediately precedes the 'coming of age' celebrations of the Leicester Diocese, and it would appear very fitting that they should commence with the ringing of the bells.

The city bells are being reserved for Saturday afternoon ringing and consequently there will be no twelve-bell peals arranged. There are only two peals of ten in the county, but we have many good peals of eight and six, and as far as is possible we hope to record the 'coming of age' with a peal on the village bells.

Peal arrangements are in the hands of Mr. Ernest Morris, and those desirous of ringing in the peals are asked to inform him as early as possible and state the type of peal in which they would be prepared to stand and if necessary conduct. Type of peal in this instance does not mean good, bad or indifferent; we trust they will all be good in that sense and most enjoyable.

Applications will be dealt with as received, and whilst there is ample accommodation for dancers and onlookers, there must of necessity be some limit for the dinner.

For the Leicester ringers and Guild it will be a memorable occasion, and we feel sure that each and every visitor will take away with him a good impression and happy memories of a most enjoyable week-end.—Yours truly,

HAROLD POOLE, President,
Leicester Diocesan Guild.

ANDOVER BELLS

Dear Sir,—The account of the rededication of the bells at Andover in the last issue of 'The Ringing World' says that they have been silent for nearly ten years.

On May 29th, 1944, a party of ringers from the Salisbury area, on tour in that neighbourhood, were readily afforded permission to ring at Andover; the bells certainly went badly, but we understood that the local band rang on Sundays at that time. In any case they have not been silent for the period suggested.—Yours faithfully,

E. G. CAPLE.

Wrington, Bristol.

DRAYTON 'SURPRISE'

Dear Sir,—With reference to Drayton 'Surprise' by Mr. Ernest Weatherby, of Los Angeles, I am afraid the author has forgotten his definitions. This is an illegitimate Surprise method, since on all numbers there is a pair of places made while treble is passing from one cross-section to another, of which pair of places neither is internal, as required by the definition of Surprise.

'Bristol Royal' has the same fault. Bristol Maximus and the London and Superlative extensions are free from this fault.

Mablethorpe Ringers' Tour

The Mablethorpe bellringers, together with guest ringers from Alford, Blankney and South Wigston (Leicestershire) and friends, held their second annual outing on August Bank Holiday, when the party travelled by motor-coach to North Lincolnshire.

The first tower, that of Ulceby, was reached shortly after 10 a.m., where the ringers were met by the captain of the local band, Mr. Martin Walker, who acted as guide for the remainder of the journey. The five bells at Ulceby were kept going to a variety of Doubles methods for about half an hour.

The party then journeyed on to Thornton Curtis, where a fine heavy ring of six bells is located. Several ringers tried the tenor (weight about 18 cwt.), and all of them agreed that it was not too well matched with six bells and required an additional two trebles to keep it company and help to reduce the labour which is now required to be expended upon it by the ringer. During the ringing at this tower the non-ringing members of the party paid a visit to Thornton Abbey, where they found much of historical interest.

The next tower to be visited was St. Peter's (Barton-on-Humber), but before trying this peal lunch was partaken of in the Assembly Hall, where tea was kindly served by Mr. Hoodless, captain of the Barton ringers. The magnificent eight bells at St. Peter's were found to be a very melodious and easy going peal, and the bells were rung to a variety of methods until the ringing was curtailed owing to a wedding service.

The sun now broke through the earlier leaden skies, and the next stage of the journey, along the bank of the River Humber to Burton-upon-Stather, produced many delightful views of the broad expanse of the river with the Yorkshire bank in the distance. At Burton-upon-Stather the ringers were welcomed by quite a number of local ringers. The bells, a light and musical eight, were soon in use, whilst the non-ringers had a walk to that well-known beauty spot, Burton Hills, where a marvellous view of the two tributaries of the Humber River, the Rivers Derwent and Ouse, can be seen joining the outlet to the sea.

The next stop was at Scunthorpe, where they were received by Mr. Frank Lord, captain of the local ringers. After some difficulty with the treble, which upon being raised jumped the slider stop, the bells, a delightful eight, pealed out over the industrial town and quite a number of methods were rung by all.

Leaving Scunthorpe, course was set for the last tower to be visited, that of Bighy, and some delightful country was passed through to reach this small village church, where the Vicar, the Rev. Thackeray, president of the Northern Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild of Bellringers, welcomed the ringers. The light ring of six bells was found at first to be rather difficult to handle, but eventually the feel of the bells was found and they were put to good use for about an hour.

After saying good-bye to the kindly Vicar and his wife and having expressed thanks to the former for his hospitality, the bus was boarded for the homeward journey, and so that none should sleep until they reached their beds, the handbells were brought out.

Mr. H. Dunnington, the popular captain of the Mablethorpe bellringers, was the organiser of the tour, and he was suitably thanked for his successful endeavours by Mr. I. Smith, an Alford ringer. K.K.

Marhamchurch, Cornwall.—On July 31st, to Altarnun, Bodmin, Lanivet, Newquay (lunch and tea), Crantock, St. Columb Minor, St. Teath. Perfect weather contributed to a most enjoyable day despite the fact that the local car driver lost his way, less than ten miles from home en route to Altarnun, and the party found themselves 'airborne' on the landing strip of Davidstowe Aerodrome. Grandsire Doubles were rung at each tower. Thanks must be expressed to steeplekeepers for the use of bells.

THE ANALYSIS

Five columns in this issue are occupied by printing the analysis of peals rung on tower bells during 1946. The space is not wasted. Tabulated in this fashion, it is possible for the practised eye to discern the trend of change ringing. The year 1946, with 1,795 peals, of which 1,555 were on tower bells, was a good ringing year and compared favourably with pre-war peal ringing. It marked a great advance on 1945, when the aggregate of peals was 1,304, with 1,126 on tower bells. The year was not only a good year as regards the number of peals but also as to the quality. There was an adventurous spirit afoot; a desire for variety in more difficult methods which was an encouraging sign.

More peals were also rung on higher numbers of bells. While in 1945 only nine peals of Maximus were scored, the number reached 15. Particularly praiseworthy was the work of the Leicester Guild with six peals of Surprise Maximus. In regard to Cinques, St. Martin's Guild stand pre-eminent with 12 peals of Stedman out of a total of 39. Cinques rung in 1945 were only 24 peals against 42. Peals of Royal showed a marked increase from 37 to 68. These peals were divided among 32 Associations, compared with 17 in 1945. Caters, however, still hold an unchallenged popularity in 10-bell towers with 86 peals. In this class of ringing the Worcestershire and Districts with seven peals head the list.

The most impressive thing about Major ringing was the big increase in Surprise peals. Of 676 peals, more than 40 per cent., or 282, were in Surprise methods. The previous year the total was 156 out of 464. Surprise peals were in 19 different methods, as against 14. Conspicuous is the list of the Kent County Association, with 14 peals of Cambridge and peals in 13 other Surprise methods. Double Norwich, with 115 peals, an increase of 21, was rung by 33 different Associations, compared with 21 in 1945. This method was most popular in Lancashire, with 16 peals. A similar honour is also held by Lancashire with regard to Treble Bob methods; in fact, peal ringing advanced considerably during the year in this Association. Peals of Plain Bob were almost stationary, numbering 137. With the desire for higher methods, Triples with 238 peals were only eleven more than in 1945, and it is in the Southern Counties that the desire for this class of ringing is most strong. Guildford head the list with 22 peals, followed by Oxford Diocesan Guild 20 and Kent 17. Grandsire Triples show a decline from 146 to 127 peals.

Roughly, 22 per cent. of the peals recorded were Minor, the total being 339 against 177. These were spread among 41 different Associations, and there is no question that the number of first peals was as great as in any year. Six-bell ringing is very strong in the agricultural Guilds—Lincolnshire, Oxford, Chester and Salisbury, all being prominent. There were two peals in 25 methods from the Chester Diocesan Guild which have been dwarfed by the performance of 1947. While there was little change in the number of Doubles peals, 94 against 89, the enthusiasm of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Guild with 18 peals calls for special mention.

The Kent County Association have the distinction of being at the head of the table with 125 peals (14 in hand), their total having been swelled by some successful tours. Other leading Associations are Lancashire 103 (4 in hand), Leicester 97 (32), Oxford Diocesan 96 (3), Yorkshire 92 (1), Lincoln 90 (15), Chester 83 (7), Middlesex 76 (39), Essex 70 (28), Norwich 69 (3). Last year the pride of place was held by the Midland Counties with 93 peals. This Association has been divided into three, and Leicester with 97 peals, in gaining third place, have had a very busy year.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Many will doubtless endeavour to cap Mr. Eric Nobles' oddity of ringing from a chair. From Somerset comes the story of the treble rope being so long that the sally nearly reached the floor. A youthful performer was equal to the occasion and rang it while kneeling on a hassock. He was able to control the bell perfectly in this posture, but nearly hanged himself with the superfluous rope when standing up.

A frequent saying of Mr. William Robinson, sexton and verger of Ambleside, Westmorland, who had dug 600 graves in his time, was, 'Nobody will ever sweat to dig a grave for me.' They did not. He was cremated at Blackpool. A memoir of this well-known Lancashire ringer appears in this issue.

Birmingham ringers were surprised recently to find in 'The Birmingham Mail' a photograph taken in the belfry of St. Martin's of Mr. Albert Walker, with Mr. George Swann and Mr. Frank Smallwood. The occasion merited a picture, for it was Mr. Smallwood's 100th peal on 12 bells, his 100th peal with Mr. Walker and his 100th peal for the Guild.

Seven members were ringing their first quarter of Grandsire at St. Nicholas' Church, Ash, near Canterbury, on August 17th, when the bells were half-muffled for the unveiling of the memorial to the fallen, 1939-45. The exception was W. Bottrill. The band was Miss E. J. Holman 1. A. C. Gambrill 2, Miss D. M. Jenner 3, J. D. Ogilvy 4, W. Bottrill 5, W. C. E. Goldup 6, E. J. Wells (conductor) 7, A. Kemp 8.

Enjoying her honeymoon this week near Sandown, Isle of Wight, is Miss Mary H. Cole, daughter of Canon and Mrs. Cole, of Oatlands Vicarage, Weybridge. Miss Cole was married to Mr. L. F. Hopgood last Saturday. She is to make her new home at Isleworth, Middlesex. The best wishes of her many ringing friends are extended to her in her new life.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Four peals were rung to the memory of Mr. J. Armiger Trollope. Mr. C. W. Roberts, the Master of the Middlesex Association, conducted a peal of Cambridge Surprise at Willesden, and the secretary of the Association that at Acton, which was a composition of Mr. Trollope's. The third peal was at Norwich and the fourth at Bromley, Kent.

It was at St. Peter Mancroft that Mr. Trollope rang his first peal on tower bells on June 8th, 1893, he having been elected a member of the Norwich Diocesan Association the previous year. Mr. Nolan Golden called this peal of Bob Major, 5,248 changes, the composition containing the extent of the combination of 4-5-6 in 5-6 and the 7648's and 7468's at course-ends. An attempt for a peal of Caters two days previously was lost after an hour's ringing owing to the tenor rope breaking.

Stationed at Gaza, Southern Palestine, 19059349 L.-Cpl. Turner R., 201 Provost Company, R.M.P., British Forces in Palestine, is anxious to hear of any other Service ringers stationed in this area. He receives 'The Ringing World' weekly and would be pleased to pass on his copy.

Misfortune befel Mr. Tony Appleton, of Godalming, during a ringing tour in Hants, Dorset, Somerset and Wilts. Cycling down a hill near Melksham, he collided with a motor-car. His colleagues left him at Melksham Hospital, suffering from concussion. He has since recovered sufficiently to return home.

Mr. A. J. Pitman will be interested in the peal of Spliced Bristol, Cambridge, London and Superlative rung at Frodsham, Cheshire, on August 15th. It was the peal we published on April 11th, and the conductor (Mr. J. C. E. Simpson) informs us that all the optional leads were rung as in Cambridge. A meritorious performance by a talented company.

COLLEGE YOUTHS HONOUR JOHN HARDHAM

It will be remembered that in 1946 members of the Ancient Society of College Youths kept green the memory of Benjamin Annable, who was Master 201 years ago. Annable was succeeded as Master by John Hardham, one of the members of his famous band. A happy suggestion by Mr. E. Alex. Young resulted in between 40 and 50 members of the Society visiting Chichester on August 9th to honour the memory of this famous Master of 200 years ago.

Perfect weather favoured the visitors, who were received by Mr. R. G. Blackman and the local Ringing Master, Mr. Falconer.

The bells at the Campanile were soon set going to well-struck touches in various methods up to London Surprise. Tea was served at the Tower Cafe and a distinguished company, including the Precentor of the Cathedral, the Mayor of Chichester, the president of the Central Council and the Master, secretary, treasurer and stewards of the Society, did ample justice to the good fare provided.

The company then adjourned to the Cathedral, where, on behalf of the Dean and Chapter, the Rev. Brown-Wilkinson very graciously welcomed the visitors.

The Mayor of Chichester, on behalf of the civic authorities, also welcomed them and paid a high tribute to John Hardham and the Society, of which he was Master and such a prominent member. The Master, Mr. G. W. Cecil, expressed the thanks of the visitors and called upon Mr. E. Alex. Young to say a few words about the purpose of the visit.

Mr. Young spoke of the sterling character of John Hardham, who was a native of Chichester. He came to London and founded a business in Fleet Street (just a few yards away from St. Bride's Church), which prospered and attracted many famous people to his shop, including the great actor, David Garrick. There was no picture of him which could give an idea of his appearance, but he pictured Hardham as a man of slight build, as he was inclined to ring at the front end.

Hardham was a great friend of the poor and very often he provided deserving cases with an annuity out of his own pocket. After making several bequests, he left the residue of his fortune—about £22,500—for the relief of the poor rates at Chichester. That was a very considerable sum in those days and would be in present-day values roughly about £100,000. Hardham was a man of very simple tastes and directed that not more than £10 should be spent on his funeral. Mr. Young mentioned that he had recently visited Hardham's shop and had purchased a supply of his famous snuff taken from the '37' box. The Mayor of Chichester tried this and pronounced it to be excellent. Photographs having been taken, a company of College Youths ascended the tower and rang a service touch of Stedman Triples: E. G. Fenn treble, W. H. Pasmore 2, A. A. Hughes 3, J. Waugh 4, J. F. Smallwood 5, E. H. Lewis 6, R. F. Deal 7, A. B. Peck tenor.

At the business meeting which followed, six new members were unanimously elected to the Ancient Society, and hearty thanks were accorded to Mr. Blackman for making such splendid arrangements for the comfort of the party.

Altogether a most enjoyable and successful gathering, and the visitors returned to London, Portsmouth and other places with happy memories of Chichester and John Hardham. J. F. S.

OBITUARY

DEATH OF A LANCASHIRE STALWART.

On August 11th, Lancashire lost one of its real backbone members by the death of Mr. William Robinson, of Ambleside.

In 1904 he was the pioneer in forming the Furness Branch of the Lancashire Association and its first secretary, a position he held for 15 years. He was a keen ringer and instructor.

His keen interest may be gauged from the following exploit—one of many. He followed a Rugby team, and when they visited South Lancashire he would be running about the field all the afternoon, have tea, then ring in a peal. The train service home was inconvenient, causing him several hours' waiting at Preston, and then it only took him to Oxenholme, whence he was faced with a '6 miles' walk home. This he did, and he was always in his place in the belfry at 10 a.m. He would attend meetings at Kendal and then walk the 14 miles to his home.

Mr. Robinson was the caretaker at Ambleside Church for 20 years, and his genial disposition to everybody, whether ringers or not, caused him to be well known. This was shown by the large attendance at the church on Wednesday prior to the cremation at Carlton, Blackpool.

Although the time of the service was inconvenient and such short notice, there were over 30 ringers present. These included representatives from the following branches, viz., N. Newby, Furness; John Woods, Lancaster;

William Taylor, Preston; Peter Crook, Bolton; and W. H. Trueman and his son, of Swindon, who were staying in the district.

He must have been well known to many ringers outside Lancashire, because Ambleside is a popular holiday resort and he always accompanied the members of the National Police Guild to their annual meetings.

He rang and conducted many peals, but his pet performance was a 720 Bob Minor, rung double handed and 'silent' in a train whilst returning from a monthly meeting with Alf Brighton and another.

A widow and son are left to mourn their loss. The son is a regular ringer at Manchester Town Hall.

At a meeting at Kendal on Saturday last the members stood in silence to show their respect. For the service and during the afternoon Ambleside bells were rung fully muffled.

MR. J. A. GODFREY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John Arthur Godfrey, of Caythorpe, Grantham, and formerly of Gressenhall, Norfolk, on August 19th. He had been ailing since Whitsun, when he suffered an attack of bronchial pneumonia, from which he never fully recovered. He was 73.

Mr. Godfrey was for many years Ringing Master of North-West Norfolk, and he retained his characteristically keen interest in the activities of his numerous ringing friends right up to the time of his death.

AN OUTING IN WARWICKSHIRE

Ringers from Burford, Oxford, had their outing on August 9th. Departing at 8.50 a.m., the journey was made via Stow-on-the-Wold, and the descent of the steep hill into Broadway, in perfect summer weather, afforded a magnificent view of the landscape. The first tower of the day was Badsey, Worcs., where an hour's ringing on the pleasant toned eight was enjoyed by all.

Stratford-on-Avon was reached shortly before noon, and after more ringing in this spacious belfry the party adjourned to the Royal Hotel, where an excellent lunch was served.

The next tower to be visited was St. Mary's Collegiate Church, Warwick, where Grandsire and Stedman Caters were the popular methods on this fine ring of ten. The writer also had the privilege of playing on the magnificent organ at this church. The coach was again boarded, to reach Leamington Spa a few minutes later, where the bells were soon set going to the standard methods, and the ringing on this delightful eight was a pleasure to all.

Tea was found in this town, which afforded a rest and put everyone in form for the last tower of the day—Southam. Arriving here at 6.30 p.m., the party were met by the Vicar, who extended a welcome to all, and ringing took place in various methods, including Double Norwich, and Spliced Stedman and Erin Triples. ## NEW MASTER OF THE WIGAN BRANCH.

The Wigan Branch at their monthly meeting at Halsall on August 9th received the resignation of their Ringing Master, Mr. A. Parker. Mr. J. Booth was elected as his successor. Mr. G. Cudwell (churchwarden) presided, and thanks were expressed to the Vicar, who conducted a short service and gave an address to the ladies who waited at table and the local ringers.

Methods rung were Plain Bob, Double Court, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Cambridge and London Surprise. Rounds were rung for the very junior members, the youngest being nine years old. About 30 members were present.

ANOTHER BOUQUET, MORTON!

Dear Sir,—May I congratulate the youngsters who rang the peal of Minor at Morton, Derbyshire, on August 1st, and wish them progress in the future. In the aftermath of war years we are sadly in need of new young blood in the Exercise, and the more enterprising young people we get such as these the better. In these days when amusement is 'laid on tap,' so to speak, it is gratifying to see at least one band of young men providing their own, and one which can be of service, and calling for real effort, team spirit and a fair amount of sacrifice.—Yours, etc.,

N. CHADDOCK.

Peterborough Training College.

More Oddities

Dear Sir,—Mr. Eric Nobles' memory must be very short about his illustrated oddity of ringing from a chair, or he would remember ringing with myself and others at Oundle last Boxing Day, where the treble man has to look up at the person on the 2nd, who rings from a similar contraption (only with no chair back to it), and the fourth ringer has to look up at the person on the 3rd, who rings from the stone steps as you enter the belfry. Between the 2nd and 3rd is the clock case. The ropes fall in a more or less half-circle.

There is also an oddity at Saddington, Leicestershire, where the 2nd ringer of the five has to stand on a stone platform above the level of the others to ring. When I got the ban removed on the ringing of Kelmarsh bells on December 14th, 1944 (and Mr. Frank Tysoe will bear me out), to try them we had to borrow four ropes from Bromham. One of these was very short, and the ringer had to stand on two hassocks mounted on top of a wooden form about 4ft. above the others. The bells had not been rung for 15 years owing to a dispute with the late Rector. Kelmarsh bells are now ringing once again. They are an interesting ring of six, all by Edward Arnold, 1774, tenor 9½ cwt. Shortly they are to be put on ball bearings, and contributions to the Rector, Canon Cattell, would be welcomed. About £230 is required.

Northampton.

P. AMOS.

P.S.—The church is a gem well worth pausing to visit by tourists. From 1812 to 1945 it had only three Rectors—George Hanbury, 1812-1862; Richard Dalton, 1862-1902; James Clifford Wall, 1902-1945. I am trying to find out where the longest ministry was held. So far Marston Trussell, Northants, has it, in John Whyte, who was Rector 61 years, from 1561-1622. Do any of your readers know of a longer ministry?

CHAIR AT GRAVESEND

Dear Sir,—If Mr. Nobles likes to come to Gravesend on any wet Thursday, we have a leaky steeple which will enable him to ring the 2nd from a chair.

The 2nd at Swanscombe has a disconcerting habit of wrapping its rope round the clock, which it hurls across the chamber. The tenor of Orsett, Essex, has the oddity of lowering itself in the middle of a touch.—Faithfully yours,

F. A. CLUETT.

164, Parrock Street, Milton-next-Gravesend.

ERIN TRIPLES

Dear Sir,—The peal of Erin Triples published in last week's 'Ringing World' is simply the original peal produced by Mr. J. W. Parker, with the omitted single transferred from the second to the twelfth course of the part.

Variations of ten-part peals of Erin Triples on the twin bob plan are confined to alterations of the positions of these omitted singles and corresponding inserted courses, and the transference of some or all of the two-bob courses from 34 to 56.

The number of these variations is strictly limited, and, in fact, they have already been worked out theoretically. So I fear there is no hope of further compositions being produced on this plan. Even six and three-part peals have been pretty well worked out.—Yours faithfully,

E. S. POWELL.

East Stoke Lodge, Stoke-under-Ham.

ADDITIONAL COPIES of a particular issue of 'The Ringing World' can be obtained if an order is sent with the report, peal or quarter-peal. Otherwise, the reserve of back numbers is very limited.

PRESENTATION TO MR. W. J. LEE.

A meeting of the East Norfolk Branch was held at Norton Subcourse on August 9th, and was attended by 46 members. Ringing started early in the afternoon and was carried on till late in the evening, various Minor methods being rung to suit all comers.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. O. Morris). Tea was held in the Church Hall and the business meeting followed.

The chairman, Mr. H. J. Eldred, invited Sir Edmund Bacon to take the chair. He was supported by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (general secretary), Messrs. H. J. Eldred and J. Harwood (branch sec.). Also present were Mr. G. W. Fletcher (secretary, Central Council), Mrs. G. W. Fletcher (Ladies' Guild) and Mr. H. Tooke (secretary, North Norfolk). John Ward, Percy Charles Punnett, Fred Charles Elke and Hilda Taylor were elected members of the Association. It was decided that Blofield be the venue for the next meeting, October 11th.

The President (the Rev. A. St. J. Heard) referred to the distinguished services rendered by Mr. W. J. Lee, who recently retired from the chairmanship of the branch, and of his long service as an officer. On behalf of the members he presented him with a cheque and wished him many more years to enjoy his ringing. Mr. Lee appropriately thanked the president and members for their kindness.

Members attended from Beccles, Bergh Apton, Caistor-on-Sea, Fornsett, Gorleston, Haddiscoe, Loddon, Mulbarton, Kessingland, Norton, Norwich, Reedham, Saxlingham, Thurlton, Terrington St. John, Wymondham, Great Yarmouth, Raveningham and Somerleyton.

BEVERLEY AND DISTRICT

BRIDLINGTON PRIORY VISITED.

A record attendance of about 80 accepted the cordial invitation of Canon J. W. Lamb to the Society to visit Bridlington Priory Church on August 9th. The bells are a musical ring of eight, with tenor 26 cwt., and their go is all that can be desired. The service touch, 275 Stedman Triples, conducted by the Ringing Master (Lieut. Clem Glenn, R.N.), was well performed.

Canon Lamb conducted the service and gave a most interesting address. Special buses had been chartered to convey the company to a cafe, where full justice was done to the tea.

At the business meeting the president (Mr. G. F. Williams) was chairman, supported by Mr. F. Dale (vice-president), Mr. Clem Glenn, Mr. A. H. Fox, Canon Lamb, the Rev. G. S. Storer and Mr. A. E. Sellers, secretary.

Elected as honorary life members were Mrs. A. E. Lamb, Mrs. Albert E. Sellers and Canon J. W. Lamb.

Burstwick was selected for the October meeting, and Mr. D. A. Fewster promised to try and make the arrangements. Barton-on-Humber is the venue for the meeting on September 13th, when two splendid light rings of eight will be available and the Society will be joined by Lincolnshire friends.

Thanks to Canon Lamb and local ringers were voiced by Mr. A. H. Fox, president of the Eastern District. At the ringing which followed the first touch of Double Norwich by members of the Society was accomplished.

MARRIAGE OF LIVERSEDGE RINGERS

The wedding took place at Liversedge Parish Church on Friday, August 22nd, of Mr. Gilbert Jones and Miss Hilda Paver. Both are ringers at Liversedge Parish Church and are members of the Yorkshire Association and the local ringing associations of Yorkshire. Curate Mr. Child performed the ceremony.

The Liversedge ringers and friends from Batley, Birstall, Earlsheaton and Mr. George R. Newton, of Liverpool, rang the bells before and after the service. The reception was held in the Parish Church Institute. The honeymoon is being spent in Devon.

UNDERSTANDING

The other man's viewpoint is constantly being exemplified. In the field of international politics some regard it as the basis of world peace; in industry it is the starting point towards team spirit; and among the all sorts and conditions of men who go towards forming the Church it is one of the secrets of unity. For example, the question might be asked, What is the price of coal? £4 a ton or more might be the answer. Through other spectacles the price is the mining village, the miners' homes, the conditions under which they live and work and the fatherless children.

True understanding will only be reached when we see the other side of the picture. The principle applies with equal force to ringers and parsons. Ringers are frequently reminded of their duty to the Church, and it is right that such talks and, if necessary, admonitions should be given. On the other hand mutual understanding will only be achieved if the parson succeeds in understanding the outlook of those in the belfry. The Rev. C. Carew Cox, in his notes as Master of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, makes a timely observation on this subject. He writes:—

'I do want to appeal especially for a knowledgeable backing of their ringers' work by the clergy generally, and would dare to suggest that the incumbent of every affiliated tower should become at least an honorary member of the Guild, if not a ringer. Also, that he should, whenever possible, accompany his ringers to the quarterly and annual meetings of the branches. The proceedings at the business meetings do help to widen interest and give some insight into the technicalities of ringing, and every parish priest should qualify himself to some extent to appreciate the prowess of his ringers beyond just thinking of them, perhaps, as pulling the bells.'

There is a school of thought which advocates that affairs in the belfry go sweeter without the presence of the incumbent. We do not subscribe to that view. Ringers desire to rank as servants of the Church in the same manner as the choir, and they need their priest just as much as any other section of Church workers. Their pride in service to the Church takes a different footing if it is understood that it is not the mere 'pulling of bells.' The Gospel for St. Bartholomew's Day has this telling phrase: 'They that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.' Yes we ringers want our priests to be benefactors—not in the financial sense, but in the spiritual sense; and the basis of benefaction is doubly increased when it is given with understanding.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The heartiest congratulations of the Exercise will go to Mr. Ernest Morris, of Leicester, who, after 41 years of ringing, reached the 1,000 peal mark last week. Mr. H. J. Poole, the conductor, tells us that the enthusiastic Morris insisted on getting the peal rung before he, Poole, left for a holiday!

Seventeen-year-old Mary E. Davis has reached 150 peals with the handbell peal of Grandsire Triples at Bournemouth on August 17th, and incidentally her first as conductor.

The peal of Grandsire Caters at Burton-on-Trent on August 22nd was Mr. J. T. Dyke's 600th peal. His first peal was rung at the same tower 38 years ago.

'Old Joe,' the Leicester Rhythm King on handbells, still retain his form, in spite of his 80 years, as he very forcibly demonstrated in the recent peal of Stedman Cinques.

The clock and chimes of St. Lawrence's, Surfleet, kindly given by the late Rupert Richardson, will be dedicated by Canon Carnegie, of Spalding, on September 7th, at 3.30 p.m. Ringing 2.30 and after service.

Had the peal attempt, which preceded the quarter-peal at Long Buckby, recently, been successful, it would have been the first peal on the bells, the only other attempt being in 1856, when unfortunately the 4th bell was turned over in the last 120.

In the columns of this journal is an appeal for the church bells of Hanslope, Bucks. About 18 months ago they were declared unsafe by the Church Council, and expert opinion advised that the bells be rehung, new fittings, new wheels and bell ropes provided; in fact, a complete overhaul. It was also decided to add two new bells, not recast the six into a ring of eight, in order to retain the individuality and depth of the bells. The cost will be in the neighbourhood of £750, but the Council have £500 in hand. The balance is needed.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The peal at Martin, Lincolnshire, marks the achievement of a years old scheme by the inhabitants of this small village to provide a peal of bells for their parish church. The church was built in 1876, a tower being added in 1911. Soon after this a bell fund was started, but it was left to the present Vicar, the Rev. J. T. Paddison, to bring the project to a successful conclusion. Only a small 'ting-tang' had been available for all purposes since the church was built, until the new bells were dedicated on June 7th this year by the Ven. K. Lamplugh, Arch-deacon of Lincoln.

The bells are a fine ring of six by Messrs. Taylor and Co., and are hung in a massive iron frame designed for eight bells. The tower being only about 9ft. square, the frame has had to be constructed in two tiers, the 5th bell and the two empty pits being in the upper portion. As there were no ringers in the village, an entirely new band has been formed, including three girls of school age, and instruction is being given weekly by ringers from the neighbouring tower of Blankney. Good progress is being made, and it is hoped that the bells will be rung by an entirely local band before the retirement of the Vicar in a few weeks' time.

To celebrate the eightieth birthday of Mr. Harrison Smith, ringer for over fifty years at Wickhambreaux Church, Kent, Frank Ellen 1, Jack Walter 2, Sidney Walter 3, Percy W. Smith 4, Edward Wood 5, and Stanley White (conductor) 6, rang a quarter-peal of Minor, 1,260 changes, on Aug. 21st. In spite of a recent serious operation, Mr. Smith continues to ring short 'touches.' He has an excellent record of service to the Kent County Association, and particularly to the Canterbury District, where for a number of years he held office as district representative. His many ringing friends will wish him well.

ERNEST MORRIS ACHIEVES AMBITION

SIXTEENTH 1,000-PEAL MAN

Fifty-eight-year-old Ernest Morris, of Leicester, now joins the ranks of those ringers who have rung 1,000 peals. Only 15 men before him have achieved this feat, and of these, five, James Bennett, Frank Bennett, Alfred H. Pulling, James George and George Williams are alive. The last two are no longer active peal ringers.

It has taken Mr. Morris 41 years to fulfil this ambition; in August, 1906, he rang his first peal at St. Andrew's, Grimsby, and on August 28th his thousandth, a handbell peal of Stedman Cinques in St. Margaret's Church, Leicester, to which he has been attached all his life. His father, that grand old man Josiah Morris, rang with him in his first, and with him in this, his latest.

As a boy, Ernest Morris, who was born in Leicester on July 28th, 1889, was not content to simply ring for services and an occasional peal. He wanted to know who made the bells, how they were cast, in fact, all about them. Numerous articles and books are the result. Morris wanted to be able to ring any kind of bell, large or small, good going or bad, and in any method and on any number. His record shows how he carried out this ambition, how he tackled some very tough propositions in remote country places where the bells were deemed impossible, sometimes going two or three times until he got through. With the exception of three only, Morris has rung a full peal on all the possible bells in his own native county. Peals at 125 churches in his native shire is a number not reached by any other ringer in any one county, and this includes 49 first peals on the bells.

Mr. Morris is well known as a conductor, and his first peal as such was at Melton Mowbray, where he called Grandsire Triples in May, 1908. He has rung and conducted peals on all numbers of bells from five to twelve, and he is a ringer who thinks as much of assisting in a peal of Doubles as he does a peal of Maximus.

HIS RECORDS AND LITERARY WORK.

Morris has taken part in many record lengths, including conducting the longest by the Midland Counties Association of Doubles (6,600), Minor (7,200 and 10,080), Bob Major (7,008 and 13,440), Kent Treble Bob (10,912) and Oxford Treble Bob (7,840). He also conducted the longest lengths of Bob Major by Central Northants Association, one of 7,488, and another of 9,760 with 400 singles. He called the record peals of Little Bob (6,720), Little Canterbury (6,720), Spliced Treble Bob (Ilkeston arrangement, 9,120), and rang in 9,600 Kent and Oxford Spliced. He also took part in the record peals of Cambridge Major (7,008 and 12,896), and the recent record 12,663 Stedman Cinques at Oxford Cathedral.

He called the quickest tower-bell peal ever rung, a 5,040 Cambridge Minor in 1 hour 50 minutes; and also the only 'Ernest' peal. He has rung peals with four sets of brothers, four fathers and sons, and five fathers and sons, while his handbell peals range from Doubles to Maximus and include the lightest and heaviest sets ever rung. His peals have been spread over 219 towers in 24 counties for 25 associations and guilds.

It is, however, not only in peal ringing that Mr. Morris has done some excellent work. He served the Midland Counties Association as its honorary secretary from 1925 until it was divided into Diocesan Guilds in 1945. He is now vice-president of the Leicester Guild and acts as consultant for bells on the Advisory Committee for the Leicester Diocese.

With a penchant for historical research, Mr. Morris has a complete record of every bell in Leicestershire and all historic facts known of them. He has completely revised and corrected North's book up to date, and it is hoped that this will be printed as soon as the paper crisis permits. He is the author of a 'Chronology of British Bell Founders' and many historic articles on other subjects, but he is, of course, best known to ringers as the author of 'History and Art of Change Ringing' and 'Legends of the Bells,' two volumes of great interest and value. He has in the publisher's hands a new work entitled 'Bells of All Nations,' which covers every type of bell in all lands.

He transcribed all the ancient baptismal, marriage and burial registers of St. Margaret's, where he is now Parish Clerk and Clerk of the Vestry, and for this and other works was made a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society. He is a member of the Johnsonian Society.

Latest is the contribution of an illustrated article on bells for the new edition of Chambers' 'Encyclopedia' and others to the B.B.C., Apollo Magazine, Nautical Magazine, Mecano Magazine and many journals on subjects as widely removed as horse brasses, fire backs, door knockers and, of course, 'Bells.' The art of illuminated design Mr. Morris taught himself, and this has enabled him to write peal tablets and peal books.

And all this has been achieved with one eye. Ernest Morris has been blind in the right eye from birth. Following is a list of the 1,000 peals.

Leicester Diocesan Guild

MEETING AT MEASHAM.

Breaking fresh ground, the Loughborough District of the Leicester Diocesan Guild held its first meeting at this north-western outpost of the diocese on August 23rd. The officers had every cause for satisfaction, for, blessed with beautiful weather, over 40 members attended, the following towers being represented: Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Copt Oak, Oaks-in-Charnwood, Hugglescote, Ibstock, Shepshed, Quorn, Loughborough and Whitwick, with members of the local band, and visitors from Netherseal, Deptford, Chilvers Coton and an officer cadet from Newark. Cups of tea (complete with 'jam sugar') were kindly provided by the wives of the local ringers.

At the business meeting, Mr. H. O. Over being in the chair, five new members were elected, and it was decided to hold the next meeting in September at Mountsorrel. The secretary also stressed the importance of early application for tickets for the diocesan festival on October 25th. At the request of the chairman, members stood in silence for a few moments as a mark of respect to the late Mr. J. A. Trollope.

It was hoped that this meeting might result in another district being formed to cover an otherwise isolated and neglected area. Unfortunately, support for this project was not sufficiently strong enough. Mr. H. Kirby, of Shepshed, voiced the thanks of those present to the Vicar for the use of the bells and the ladies for liquid nourishment.

Methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Little Bob, Kent Treble Bob, Oxford Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major, and good striking was the order of the day.

WEDDING BELLS

The bells were rung and afterwards 'fired' at the wedding of Mr. Burley P. Morris, only son of Mrs. Morris and the late Mr. Morris, of Warkton, Northants, to Miss Mary Swift, younger daughter of Mrs. Swift and the late Mr. Swift, of 86, Normandy Avenue, Chipping Barnet, Herts, which took place at Chipping Barnet Parish Church on August 23rd. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. C. A. Roche.

The bride, who wore a dress of white organdie, with veil and headdress to match, was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. Chapman, as matron of honour, whilst two little attendants were Miss Patricia Gardner and Master Roger Chapman. The best man was Mr. E. E. Whitmore, of Raunds, a friend of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at the bride's parents' residence, after which the happy couple left for Bournemouth, where the honeymoon is being spent. In the evening a peal of Grand-seal Triples was rung.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

TEWKESBURY BRANCH MEETING.

Most of the towers in the branch were represented at the annual meeting of the Tewkesbury Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, held at Tredington on August 16th. Visitors from outside the diocesan area from Upton-on-Severn, Kempsey, Rington, Hinton, Ross-on-Wye, Gloucester and Cheltenham were also present. The service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. O. C. Hughes, who also presided at the business meeting. An excellent tea was provided by the local ladies.

Five new members were enrolled, and the Rev. O. C. Hughes was elected an hon. member. Mr. A. R. Lister was elected chairman and also representative on the Management Committee. Mr. E. T. Newbury was re-elected hon. secretary. The annual outing, which this year takes in the Wye Valley district, was discussed.

The musical ring of five bells (tenor 7 cwt.) was kept going till nine o'clock to various methods, and a very enjoyable afternoon and evening were enjoyed by all.

Ringling and Music

CONDUCTOR ANSWERS.

Dear Sir,—Why the peal of Kent Treble Bob Minor rung at Elland, Yorks, brings to Mr. V. A. Jarrett's mind the correspondence of the Basingstoke peal I cannot imagine. Musically incorrect or not, the calling was true, and, most important to me as conductor, the striking was of the best.

The ringers' ropes were as tight in the last seven twenty as the first.

The light six were chosen for the benefit of two young ringers attempting their first peal, and the smiles of happiness which lit up their faces when they heard 'This is all' amply rewarded the efforts of Mr. F. Linfoot and myself.

This is not the first nor the last peal which has been rung on the front six at Elland, and if at any time it was deleted from the records of the Association, it will still be seen recorded on a peal board in the bell chamber of St. Mary's, Elland.

The tenor is 15 cwt. 3 qr. in F, the fifth is odd struck, the sixth rope slips the wheel if not kept tight, and the seventh is apt to drop when ringing. In the light of the above stated faults, these bells cannot be truly termed an excellent ring of bells.—Yours truly,

FRANK RHODES.

—AND A RINGER.

Dear Sir,—I was surprised to read Mr. Jarrett's letter on the musical demerits of the Elland peal, and was more than surprised when he stated that our bells were an excellent ring of eight and should provide no difficulty for a Minor peal on the back six. This is contrary to the opinion of many local ringers, whose considered judgment I have every reason to respect, and who for years have been telling me that the tenors run badly.

I can assure Mr. Jarrett that I considered which six would be best to ring before we started the peal, and decided on the light six in the interests of (1) good striking, which to my way of thinking is the major point next to the truth of the peal; (2) of the comfort of the ringers; and (3) in consideration for the ringer of the 3rd, who on the back six would be ringing the odd-struck 5th, and who incidentally is a young first pealer of 15 years. We started with the hope of ringing a good peal, well struck, and we were highly satisfied with our performance.

Elland, Yorks.

FRED LINFOOT.

LONGEST MINISTRY?

Dear Sir,—In reply to Mr. Amos regarding length of a ministry at Marston Trussell over a period of 61 years, I would point out that Gulval, near Penzance, had a 73 years' ministry by the Rev. W. W. Winkfield. Gulval had three bells prior to 1889, when they were made six to commemorate 50 years' incumbency, and in 1913 another two bells formed the octave. These were in memory of the late Vicar, who was parson, guide and friend for 73 years. He was born before Waterloo, lived in six reigns, and was Vicar of Gulval under seven bishops.

Addlestone, Surrey.

W. SHEPHERD.

ANOTHER CLAIM FOR IRELAND

Dear Sir,—In your issue of August 15th I see Mr. Dukes claims his peal of Doubles to be the first peal in two methods rung in Ireland, but this is not quite correct, as I myself conducted a double-handed peal of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob Minor at Lamberton Lodge, Arklow, Co. Wicklow, about the year 1915. This peal with several others of Minor from one to seven methods will be found in the Irish Association's peal book. I feel quite sure Mr. Dukes will not resent this correction.—Yours truly, West Ewell, Surrey.

A. HADLEY.

Tribute to a Great Man

Dear Sir,—May I also be allowed to pay my humble tribute at the passing of a great man? All in all, there is no doubt that Mr. J. A. Trollope is the greatest ringer of all times. Of course, there are some who in one particular line have outshone him, whether it be, say, Mr. J. W. Parker in certain branches of composition, or the few great names one can think of in the sphere of practical ringing, but considering everything, there is nobody who has reached so great heights in so many ramifications of the art, and it is hard to imagine that anyone ever will reach such heights again. One hopes that it won't be long before plans are set on foot for some worthy memorial—personally a memorial library seems to be most fitting (this could take any of several forms), but perhaps I am a little premature in this.

I am grateful for your leading article. I am sure you speak for all members of the Council in regretting that what was intended as helpful suggestions should have been wrongly thought to be lack of appreciation of all that Mr. Trollope had done for ringing. But perhaps it is almost inevitable that this is the case whenever both are required. Personally I believe one can be both critical and appreciative at the same time, and that the two are not necessarily incompatible—here was a case in point. Be that as it may, we shall be all agreed that in the passing of Mr. Trollope we have lost an exponent of our art unique and irreplaceable, and I shall always be proud to know that I did talk with him on one occasion.—Yours faithfully,

Southampton. K. W. H. FELSTEAD.

HANSLOPE CHURCH BELLS

Dear Sir,—At a meeting of the Hanslope Parochial Church Council, I was instructed to write and ask if your paper would assist us with our appeal for £250 needed for the addition of two bells to the present ring of six. The two bells will be a memorial to our late Vicar, the Rev. W. J. Harkness, and his wife, and to those who served in the two Great Wars. Anything you can do to assist us would be more than appreciated.

The existing six are as follows: Treble, 32½ in., 6½ cwt., Bowell, Ipswich, 1906; 2nd, 35½ in., 8½ cwt., Taylor, 1815; 3rd, 36½ in., 9½ cwt., Hall, Drayton Parslow, 1752; 4th, 38 in., 10½ cwt., Robert Atton, Buckingham, 1625; 5th, 42½ in., 14½ cwt., Robert Atton, Buckingham, 1626; 6th, 49 in., 22 cwt., Briant, Hertford, 1814. In the key of 'D', and a lovely mellow tone. No. 4 was recast by Bowell in 1906.

The two new bells were cast on Aug. 22nd at the Whitechapel Foundry, and it is hoped the dedication service will take place the last week in September.—Yours sincerely,

STANLEY W. PLATTEN,

Hanslope, Bucks.

Hon. Sec., H.C.C.

P.S.—We shall be the only village with eight bells in the north of the county.—S.W.P.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to congratulate Mr. J. C. E. Simpson and his ringers. I note that they rang my composition of Spliced Surprise Major, London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative, which was published in 'The Ringing World' on April 11th, in which all the bells have to do all the work of each method, at St. Lawrence's, Frodsham, on July 18th, and again on August 15th.

Seeing that most of the ringers rang their first peals of Spliced Surprise Major, their performances are all the more remarkable.

I think anyone studying the composition will agree that it is one of the most difficult in the four methods.—Yours faithfully,

A. J. PITMAN.

Port Talbot.

OBITUARY

MR. E. D. TAYLOR.

Bells of Loughborough's memorial carillon on August 28th sounded the sombre tones of Chopin's Funeral March as a token of homage to one of the world's foremost bell founders, Mr. Edmund Denison Taylor, whose death occurred on the same day at Loughborough, at the age of 83.

Mr. Taylor, whose home was at Buckland, Burton Walk, Loughborough, had been ill for about a week in a local nursing home.

A great-grandson of Mr. Robert Taylor, who founded the firm of Messrs. John Taylor and Co., the Loughborough bell founders, Mr. Denison Taylor took an active interest in the business for the greater part of his life, and even up to the time of his death concerned himself with its progress.

MR. T. LOFTHOUSE.

By the death of Mr. Tom Lofthouse, people's warden and ringer at Chorley Parish Church, the church has lost one of its most willing workers. Mr. Lofthouse, who was 68 years of age, had been ill for some time, but his death in hospital on August 15th was unexpected. He had taken part in ringing for both morning and evening services the previous Sunday.

Tom, as he was called, had been a ringer for over fifty years, and a member of the Lancashire Association for 40 years. He was one of the few practising ringers who were in the 'old Lancashire Six-Bell Association.' Though not a great peal ringer—he rang only seven—he took part in the only local peal in Chorley.

As a young man he was a Sunday School teacher, and later chairman of the Bible Class, sidesman and for the last 12 years people's warden. He was a member of the parish committees and at times was on the Church Council.

Prior to the interment in the local cemetery, a service was held at the Parish Church, a large congregation of his friends and fellows being present to pay their respects to one who was described by the Rector of Chorley, in his words of appreciation, as an honest Christian gentleman. Before the service the whole pull and stand was rung 68 times and then a touch of Stedman Triples by the following: F. Rigby, T. Barker, F. G. Bradley, H. Southworth, Ruth Bradley, A. Rigby, A. Tomlinson and A. Hatch. F. R.

MR. A. PRESTIDGE.

His many friends will hear with regret of the death of Mr. Albert Prestidge, who until 1936, when ill-health forced his retirement, was for over 37 years a ringer and for upwards of 30 years the leader of St. Andrew's Parish Church, Netherton, ringers. Mr. Prestidge died at his residence on August 10th after a long and painful illness. He was one of the oldest members of the Worcestershire and Districts Association and the Dudley and District Guild, and a life member of the Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford.

As a tribute to his memory a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples, composed by James George, was rung by the following ringers: Thomas A. Townsend, H. Hill, H. Hubball, Miss M. Tromans, H. J. Shuck, L. Clissett, W. Davies (conductor) and L. Prestidge.

MR. O. J. SMART.

The Andover District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild has suffered a severe loss in the death, after a short illness, of Oscar James Smart, Ringing Master for 16 years and steeple captain of Andover Parish Church for even longer. As Ringing Master he was untiring in his efforts to promote the art in his district, and many in and around Andover owe their knowledge of ringing to his kindly and patient instruction. The funeral service on August 23rd was conducted by the Rector, the Rev. R. A. C. Fletcher, assisted by the Rev. S. A. Gidlow, chairman of the district. The bells, which had recently been rehung, were rung fully muffled in his honour.

AN APPRECIATION

Members of the West Norfolk Branch of the Norwich Diocesan Association assembled at their meeting at Caston on Saturday last, stood in silence on hearing the news of the passing of John Arthur Godfrey, a former chairman and Ringing Master of the branch.

Elected a member of the Norwich Association in 1899, Mr. Godfrey was known to every ringer in Norfolk, he having lived in turn at Yarmouth, Cromer, Fakenham, Cawston, Dereham and Gressenhall. His first peal was also the first peal on Gorleston bells, then a peal of six, on April 11th, 1901, and altogether Mr. Godfrey had taken part in about 180 peals, 167 of which were for the Norwich Association—10 of them being on handbells.

John Godfrey was a great enthusiast and a great friend. He taught numbers of ringers, was diligent at his church on Sundays and would go anywhere at a moment's notice to assist in any special ringing or to take part in a peal attempt. He was a good striker, on six bells especially, where he was particularly 'at home.' He was rarely absent from meetings and never without a happy smile and a cheery greeting for everybody.

From 1934-9 he was the efficient Ringing Master of the branch, and then became chairman, an office he relinquished in 1944 owing to failing health. Recently he had gone to live with his son at Caythorpe, Lincolnshire, where he died on August 19th, aged 73. He will be much missed in the Norwich Diocese. N. G.

DEVON GUILD OF RINGERS

SPECIAL VISIT TO HIGHWEEK.

A number of members of the Devon Guild of Ringers, which included the president of the Guild (the Rev. Preb. E. V. Cox) and a visitor, Mr. E. Maurice Atkins, of London, spent an enjoyable evening at Highweek on Thursday, August 21st, at the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lilley, of Perry Farm, Highweek. Assembling at the Parish Church, an hour's ringing under the supervision of Mr. Lilley included some very good touches of Grandsire Triples, Stedman Doubles and Triples, and Plain Bob Minor.

At Perry Farm light refreshments were provided by Mr. Lilley and his relatives, after which a few courses of double-handed Grandsire Triples were rung on handbells. At the conclusion of the visit the President voiced the great appreciation of the visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Lilley and their family for the arrangements made and for their very kind hospitality, and he mentioned that it was his first visit to Perry Farm. The fine weather and pleasant surroundings added to the enjoyment of the visit.

ADDITIONAL COPIES of a particular issue of 'The Ringing World' can be obtained if an order is sent with the report, peal or quarter-peal. Otherwise, the reserve of back numbers is very limited.

PROPAGANDA NEEDED

Ambling around country villages and searching for bells and ringers is a broadening experience, full of pleasant surprises and at times rude shocks. The writer was in the 'round' and 'call changes' counties last week and had the privilege of discussing various ways of ringing with one who had had nearly 50 years' experience of 'stoney' ringing. And it was illuminating.

He was what he classified himself—a 'call changer,' and frankly admitted that he was not too struck with those 'methods' men. 'Methods,' he maintained, could only be rung on light bells and, further, there had been a 'methods' ringers' meeting at his church, and the striking had been very bad, which he attributed to the fact that the bells were heavy! To this argument a recent experience in a neighbouring county seemed an appropriate reply. Here some ringers on their 'outing' were contacted, and it was noted that they travelled complete with calling board. Accompanying them to one tower which had a light ring with the 'go' excellent and almost new bells hung on ball bearings, the writer was appalled by the bad striking. The veteran eventually agreed that there was good and bad amongst both kinds of ringers.

It then occurred to the writer that, while appeals for good striking could be made to 'method' ringers through 'The Ringing World,' as was constantly being done, there was no vehicle of approach to change ringers. A copy of this journal was shown to the veteran, and to a question if he had ever seen 'The Ringing World' before he replied in the negative, adding that he did not know such a paper existed! What a shock, after so many years of publication, to find a man who had been ringing for nearly 50 years was ignorant of this journal and its purport! A copy was given to him, and he was told how to procure it weekly.

The story does not end there. This tower was within a sixpenny bus ride from a city where there are several rings of bells and change ringing is practised. For such ignorance of change ringing to exist points to the need of propaganda. It is doubtful if my friend of nearly 50 years' experience will ever change his mode of ringing; he is too set in his ways; but it is incumbent upon all who cherish the art of change ringing to see that the younger generation are given an opportunity of learning 'method' ringing and come under its fascinating spell. There must be a concerted effort by all who love change ringing to proselytise these 'stoney' towers. The task is by no means easy.

Bells accompany Hymn Singing

The old saunce bell of St. Mary's, Acton, dated 1583, has had a new experience. After 360 years of continuous service, the last 60 of which have been spent as the treble of a peal of eight, it has with its companions had the novel role of leading the singing of a church service.

The Bishop of London, in his recent primary charge, asked that experiments should be made to reach the man-in-the-street, and that new methods and new types and times of services should be tried. The Rector of Acton, the Rev. Percival Gough, decided that St. Mary's should make such an experiment, and that the bells should play their part in it.

So on August 11th, the evening service was held in the church garden, a pleasant stretch of grass backed by trees and shrubs, with the church on one side and high buildings, which protect it from much of the main road noise, on the other. By 6 o'clock people began to arrive, and for half an hour the bells sounded their joyous message, and many well-known hymns and sacred songs were chimed. The Rector announced the first hymn, the bells gave out the tune, and, singing, the choir moved down the church steps and crossed the lawn to their appointed place, followed by the Rector, with the Rev. F. H. E. Harfitt, who was to preach.

The F to F range of the bells was suitable for singing, and the combination of bells and voices was pleasant. In spite of the distance between choir and chimer, the synchronisation of the Magnificat, 23rd Psalm and five hymns was excellent. The Nunc Dimittis was sung as the recessional.

Many passers-by stopped to listen and join in. The words of the hymns were striking and beautiful, set to familiar tunes within the scope of eight bells. That limitation, however, gives a wide choice of both hymn tunes and chants. The service aroused much interest and was felt to be a missionary effort well worth repeating.

Kent County Association

LEWISHAM DISTRICT.

Sixty-five members from Beckenham, Bromley, Bexley, Crayford, Dartford, Erith (St. John's and Christ Church), Lee, Lewisham, Penge, Sidcup, West Wickham, Woolwich and the local band, together with visitors from Gravesend and Wrotham, enjoyed a successful meeting at Shoreham in glorious summer weather on July 26th.

Ringing during the afternoon was followed by service in church, conducted, in the absence of the Vicar (the Rev. P. Giddons), by the Rev. W. James, Rector of Boscastle, Cornwall, who gave a very interesting address. The lesson was read by Mr. E. Barnett (Crayford), and Mr. V. J. Benning (Christ Church, Erith) played the organ.

After tea the business meeting was held in the west end of the church, Mr. V. J. Benning being elected to the chair. Five ringers were elected members of the Association, and the elections of six members previous to peals were ratified.

St. John's, Erith, was chosen as the place for the annual district meeting, to be held on Saturday, October 25th.

Suggested arrangements for a combined meeting with the Surrey Association, to be held at Beddington on Saturday, September 6th, were confirmed.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar, the Rev. W. James, Mr. V. Benning and Mr. J. Whiffin (captain of Shoreham ringers) concluded the business, and the tower bells were again put to use until 9 p.m.

During the afternoon and evening all tastes and ranges of talent were catered for, rounds and all the standard methods from Grandsire Triples to Bristol and London Surprise being rung as required.

ROSS-ON-WYE.—On August 15th, 1,264 Bob Major: A. Hazelden (first quarter) 1, W. Poston 2, C. W. Munday 3, H. Symonds 4, G. Hanks 5, J. J. Webb 6, W. T. Poston (conductor) 7, A. W. Davis 8.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The complete ring at Lichfield Cathedral has been recast by Messrs.
John Taylor and Co., Loughborough, as a gift from the Freemasons of Staffordshire.
Rededication is on October 26th.

With the 17 new towers he has visited on a ringing tour in Hants, Dorset, Somerset and Wilts, Mr. A. Pat Cannon's total is now 1,080.

Mrs. F. John Marshall has completed her 150 peals, and not Miss Mary E. Davis, as was wrongly stated in this column last week. Mary's enthusiasm will, we trust, enable her to reach this exalted position at an early date.

A young lady from Leicester, who rang Sherborne tenor during a recent tour, is anxious to know whether she is the first of her sex to have this honour.

Group Captain T. V. Lister, R.A.F. (retd.), is the new chairman of the Tewkesbury Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, and not Mr. A. R. Lister, as stated on page 428.

Mr. R. H. Dove informs us that the first peal at Tutbury, Staffs, was rung on February 2nd, 1935—Bob Minor, conducted by Mr.
Jack Bailey. The claim in last week's issue of the first peal since augmentation to six in 1934 is consequently not upheld.

Just after the start of the peal at Keevil, Wilts, on August 30th, the Vicar entered the belfry and—without disturbing the band—placed an envelope on the table. The delighted ringers later found it contained money for refreshments.

A friendly gathering followed the peal at Marrow, Surrey, on August 27th. The ringers had tea with Mr. J. Gould, the local captain, and his wife and members of the Marrow band in the Church Hall. The Rector, the Rev. A. C. G. Oldham, was also present.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Doyen of Manchester ringers is Mr. Edwin Burroughs, who reached the age of 90 on August 25th and is still remarkably fit. He completed 57 years as a ringer at St. James', Birch-in-Rusholme, but then found the steps too many for him; nevertheless, his interest in ringing is unabated. An attempt to ring a peal of Stedman Triples in his honour went astray after two and a half hours' ringing, but the band hope to try again another year and each succeeding year.
A pleasant hour was spent with Mr. Burroughs afterwards, handbells being introduced, which were much enjoyed by him.

The last peal of Grandsire Caters rung at St. Michael's Church, Aylsham, Norfolk, until the peal on August 24th, was almost 51 years ago, and was conducted by J. Armiger Trollope from the treble.

Errata.—In the analysis of peals rung during 1946 we are informed that two handbell peals were rung for the Swansea and Brecon Diocesan Guild which were not recorded although they are included in the total. Also Cambridge University Guild is credited with three handbell peals of Doubles. These should be three of Minor in one method.

Mr. Wm. H. Male, of Warwick, has at last accomplished a peal on bells. This was on July 17th, on the back eight of a chime of ten bells, constructed by Mr. T. Male. The apparatus consisted of ten house bells, tuned and fitted to play by keyboard, and the composition was Holt's Original, and occupied three hours and nine minutes. Then on August 4th a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was tapped on them in the morning, and in the evening one of Holt's peals of Bob Major was hammered out in two hours and fifty-eight minutes. Mr. T. Male witnessed the peals and turned the pages of figures from which they were read.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE DURHAM &amp; NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

THE Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association covers the counties of Durham and Northumberland, which are the respective dioceses of Durham and Newcastle. The Association was formed in August, 1877, and, in order to obtain a view of its operations, one is well repaid by a brief glance at the background of the country.

Bounded to the east by the coastline of the two counties, it extends from the north of Yorkshire to the Scottish border, and to Westmorland and Cumberland in the west; it is a land steeped in tradition. From earliest times matters ecclesiastical have been closely integrated with Northumbria, and recall the Venerable Bede, his monastery at Jarrow, his solitude on Holy Island, Lindisfarne, the Cathedrals of Durham and Newcastle, jewels of those northern cities, the deaneries and Collegiate Churches of Darlington, Staindrop, Chester-le-Street, Lanchester, and others, the Abbey of Hexham, with its monks' night stairs, and the names inter alia of Bishop Auckland, Bishop Wearmouth, Monkwearmouth and Monkseaton.

From the days of the Prince Bishops and the border raids, when men went about their occupations sword in hand, rural Northumberland has changed little; sheep still graze in the shadow of the Roman Wall, and Otterburn tweed is still spun, but on Tyneside and in Durham County a vast change was wrought by the Industrial Revolution. The dales of Tyne, Wear and Tees still preserve their charm, but the development of the coalfields and the opening of the Stockton and Darlington Railway marked the beginning of a new era. The busy ports of Hartlepool, Sunderland, Shields and Newcastle, and the great shipyards, steelworks, railway undertakings, collieries, and the diversified ancillary activities of a vast industrial expansion were the result.

Bells existed here from time immemorial, but records are very sparse. Three pre-Reformation bells, however, hang in Newcastle Cathedral, and three similar bells at Heighington were made a peal of six by the addition of three by Taylor. With the growth in population, more bells were heard, but the earliest known attempt at combination was the Newcastle and Gateshead Society, which was ringing peals some hundred and fifty years ago. There is evidence of continuing combination, culminating in the formation of the present Association. The inaugural meeting was held in the Choristers' Schoolroom of Durham Cathedral on Saturday, August 25th, 1877, with Canon Rogers in the chair. This was recorded in 'Church Bells' of that time, and was followed by the first ringing meeting at North Shields, on November 24th, 1877, the first President being William Reed of that town, the Secretary G. J. Clarkson, of Stockton, and a membership of 99, the title being The Durham Diocesan Association (changed to its present style in 1882).

Then began the building of an organisation to stand the test of time. With a not large number of rings available, perseverance brought its reward, and enthusiasm reached a high level. A scheme for recording Sunday service ringing, and awarding of certificates, introduced by S. O. Ferry, proved so popular that two divisions became necessary. Two wars, and industrial depressions, made their presence felt on the membership, however; this had risen to 380 in 1897, 460 in 1922, 712 in 1927, but dropped to 554 in 1930, 516 in 1939, and 481 in 1946. A tablet recording the names of the 41 members who fell in the 1914-1918 war was unveiled in Newcastle Cathedral on April 7th, 1923, upon which a wreath is laid at the Annual Festival.

A great day for the Association was in 1914, when its first ring of twelve became an accomplished fact by the augmentation of the ten in Newcastle Cathedral, although the first twelve-bell peal (Kent Maximus) had been rung at St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, in 1894.

The first peal by the Association was Grand-sire Triples (Taylor's six-part) rung at Christ Church, North Shields, on October 1st, 1878, by G. H. Park, J. T. Gibson, W. H. Park, R. Smith, J. Coulson, W. Reed (conductor), G. A. Overton and S. Nott. All were North Shields men except the 7th, who was from Darlington. It was the first peal for all.

DURHAM CATHEDRAL

In those days publications were few, and everything was done in the 'hard way'. It was not, therefore, until December 26th, 1903, that the first peal of London was scored, when two peals were rung in this method, one at All Saints', Newcastle, conducted by T. T. Gofton, and the other at St. John's, Newcastle, conducted by C. L. Routledge. Owing to an earlier start, Tom Gofton's peal came round first, and took priority, but two peals of London, rung simultaneously in the same city by local bands, was a feat in 1903.

Amongst other performances was the turning in of Newcastle tenor to Superlative (1894), and Double Norwich (1898) by F. J. Harrison, being the heaviest tenor rung to peals in those methods at that time; the first peal of Real Double Superlative (March 9th, 1922) at St. Ignatius', Sunderland, of Premier Surprise (February 28th, 1922) at Whitley Bay, the first peal of Spliced Surprise Major (Cambridge and Superlative) at Whitley Bay, composed by J. W. Parker and conducted by J. A. Gofton, the double-handed peals of London by the four Gofton brothers, and seven Surprise Minor methods double-hand by the three Parks.

Of stalwarts there are R. Story, president 1883-1905; F. Lees, vice-president 1877-97; C. L. Routledge, president 1908-20, 1926-8, and seven years secretary; T. T. Gofton, conductor of 186 peals; J. W. Parker, composer and conductor, whose research, compositions and untiring efforts stand as his monument; W. Story, W. Brown (founder of the Wednesday Guild), E. E. Ferry, J. Stuart and J. Symm. A faithful band of long service members is still with us: W. H. Barber with a relish for difficult compositions (e.g., Carter's odd-bob-and-single-one part, whilst blindfold), J. E. Keen, W. Sheraton, Dr. Barrow, O. Simm, G. W. Park, J. W. Shipp, R. L. Patterson, the reigning president, and many others, whilst juniors are Dick Gofton, double-hand London at 16, and R. S. Stratford, London 'inside' at 12 years of age.

In 1912 the territory was divided into districts, each with its own secretary and vice-president, and power to arrange its own meetings. This proved entirely successful and flourishing organisations now exist.

The Central Council met at Newcastle in 1913, when five peals were scored, and 610 members and friends, with the Lord Mayor and Bishop Wood, were guests of Gillett and Johnston and 'The Evening Chronicle' at the North-East Coast Exhibition in 1929, to a demonstration of the Wellington (New Zealand) War Memorial Carillon, tea at the exhibition, and a social evening and refreshments afterwards. A president's badge in enamel and silver gilt was presented to the Association in 1935 by the then president, Councillor A. Payne, O.B.E., J.P.

Enjoying the support of the Bishops and clergy, the members, whilst never monotonously unanimous, faithfully carry out the Association's objects, and preserve a spirit of friendship unaffected by triumph or disappointment, and nowhere can this be more clearly seen than at the annual festivals, which year by year come round to the pleasure and profit of all.

Entering upon its 70th year with one ring of twelve, 4 of ten, 37 of eight, 24 of six, and 2 of five, and 460 members, the Association views the future with the same confidence extant in 1877.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH ASSN.

The large number of out-diocesan visitors was a pleasing feature of the quarterly meeting held at Chepstow on August 23rd, when visitors were present from Hempstead and Norton in Gloucestershire, Newark-on-Trent, Ross, Gorseinon, Morriston, Sidmouth, Bristol, Cheitenham and Nailsea (Somerset), in addition to representatives from various towers in the area, about 50 in all. Visitors were entertained to tea by the local band and their wives.

At the meeting, which, in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar, was presided over by the curate, the Rev. L. W. Sapsford, points to be raised at the annual meeting, the increase of the subscription to 2s. and the division of the Association into districts, were advanced by Messrs. Stitch and Prosser.

Six new life members were elected, also six new members from the Chepstow tower. It was decided to hold the next Monmouthshire meeting at Penhow. The secretary was asked to send the promised donation towards the restoration of Blaenavon bells. A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund realised £1 17s. 9d.

OBITUARY

MR. E. DENISON TAYLOR.

The funeral of Mr. Edmund Denison Taylor, whose death in the Loughborough Nursing Home on August 28th was reported last week, took place on September 1st at Loughborough Parish Church.

Mr. Taylor had entered the nursing home the Thursday preceding his death following an examination by a specialist the previous day. On the Tuesday he had attended at his office as usual. His home was Buckland, Burton Walks, Loughborough.

The son of the late Mr. John William Taylor, sen., he was born in Pack Horse Lane, Loughborough, where the bell foundry was first established in the town. He was educated at Loughborough Grammar School and was then apprenticed to a Leicester iron founder, after which he took his share in the management of the bell foundry, together with his father and his brother, Mr. John William Taylor, jun.

Mr. J. W. Taylor, sen., died in 1906, and the brothers carried on together until the death of Mr. J. W. Taylor, jun., in 1919, since when Mr. E. D. Taylor had been assisted in the management by his nephews, Mr. Pryce Taylor, who died in Canada in 1927, and Mr. Arnold Taylor, who was killed in action in 1916. In recent years another nephew, Mr. Paul Taylor, has assisted to run the business.

AN AUTHORITY.

As a bellfounder, Mr. E. D. Taylor had a complete knowledge of all matters connected with the art of bell-making from start to finish. His opinions on bells were sought all over the world, and at any gathering of campanologists his words carried weight and were received with respect. During the time that he directed the business many thousands of bells, large and small, were cast and sent out to all parts of the world.

An expert of modern methods of tuning of bells, he had paid many visits to the U.S.A. and to the Continent. It was largely due to his enthusiasm for carillons that several carillons were erected in this country, notable among which is the Loughborough War Memorial carillon.

Many of the famous carillons in the U.S.A. were made under his direction at Loughborough, and at the opening ceremony of one he met President Coolidge.

HUNTING ACCIDENT.

In addition to being an active bellringer up to the time when he lost the proper use of his left arm through a hunting accident while out with the Quorn Hounds at Wysall early in the century, he was deeply interested in music and attended many concerts. He was a skilled performer on the violoncello and piano and in the late 1890's he formed and conducted his own orchestra.

As a sportsman he was well known, and played for Loughborough Town Cricket Club, being a useful all-rounder. He was a member of the Notts and Leicestershire County Cricket Clubs.

Mr. Taylor was a bachelor. The flag on the bell foundry tower hung at half-mast as a tribute to his memory.

His only surviving brother is Mr. Owen J. Taylor.

THE FUNERAL.

The Rector (the Ven. W. J. Lyon) officiated at the funeral service, when the representative congregation included the Mayor (Cdr. W. R. Banner). In a short address, he referred to Mr. Taylor's career as a bellfounder, and his paternal interest not only in his business but also in the workpeople, for whom he did many an unobtrusive act of kindness.

The chief mourners were Mr. Owen J. Taylor (brother), Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor (nephew and niece), Miss Margaret Taylor (niece), Mr. and Mrs. Moore, London (nephew and niece), Major Mears, Letchworth (nephew), Mr. Denison Mears and Miss Pamela Mears, Nurse Reeve, Mrs. Adams (housekeeper) and Mr. Jim Smith, an employee for 64 years.

The bearers were the six oldest employees of the bell foundry, Messrs. G. Black, T. Roper, B. Harris, W. Burnett, W. Smith, and A. Smith.

The Leicester Diocesan Guild was represented by Mr. E. Morris, and Mr. H. Withers represented St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham.

Present from the firm were Mr. John Odham (general manager), Mr. J. P. Fidler, Mr. F. H. E. Stubbs, Mr. C. E. Morley (cashier), Mr. W. Mitchell, Mr. J. Brailsford, Mr. E. Frisby, Mr. J. E. Littler, Mr. J. Humphrey, Mr. A. Fidler and others.

A course of Grandsire Triples was rung at the graveside by the handbell ringers, who were Messrs. J. P. Fidler 1-2, Harry Withers 3-4, Ernest Morris 5-6, Horace Stubbs 7-8.

In addition to the family and other wreaths there was one from the staff and employees of Messrs. John Taylor and Co.

MR. E. STONE.

The death occurred on August 28th of Mr. Ernest Stone, of Coventry, in his 59th year. He was a native of Nuneaton and for many years a member of the Parish Church Society of ringers. He also did a great deal of work for Chilvers Coton Church, having panelled the belfry in oak. His work as a joiner brought him to Coventry in 1938, when he became a member of the All Saints' Society of ringers at Allesley.

Interment took place on September 1st at Keresley Church, and was attended by a large number of ringers from Allesley, Bedworth, Bulkington, Chilvers Coton, Nuneaton, Rugby, Stoke-in-Coventry and Keresley. Those present were Mr. F. E. Pervin (Ringing Master of the Coventry Diocesan Guild), Mr. T. W. Chapman, of Worcester, Mrs. and Mr. A. H. Beamish (secretary and auditor of the Guild), Mr. A. Roberts, Mr. E. Sibley and many others.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Bastin, Vicar of Keresley, and the Rev. F. W. Moyle, Rector of Allesley, and at the close a plain course of Grandsire Triples was rung upon Mr. Stone's own handbells by the Allesley ringers: C. H. Webb 1-2, H. G. Summers 3-4, J. H. W. White 5-6, J. W. Taylor 7-8; and in the evening a half-muffled peal of Bob Major was rung at Allesley.

Mr. Stone rang 125 peals, 116 being for the Coventry Diocesan Guild and nine for the Midland Counties Association. He is survived by a widow, two sons, both ringers and both at present serving in the Forces, and one daughter. J. H. W. W.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The quarterly meeting of the Western Branch took place at Caston on August 23rd. This village is somewhat off the beaten track, and an attendance of twenty may be considered very satisfactory at this, the first meeting to be held there. All four branches of the association were represented.

Divine service was conducted by the Rector, Rev. King, who also presided at the business meeting. Supporting him at the meeting were the association president, general secretary and Ringing Master, as well as the branch officers. The annual meeting was fixed for November 22nd at Swaffham.

Tea was provided and served by the Rector and ladies of the church, who were cordially thanked by the president, Rev. St. John Heard. Prior to starting the business, all present stood in silence as a mark of respect to the late J. A. Godfrey, a keen supporter and sometime chairman of the branch, and also in memory of J. A. Trollope, a Norfolk man.

A Month of Tours

THROUGH SUFFOLK, HEREFORD, SOMERSET AND DERBYSHIRE.

The fine weather has made August a month of tours and outings, and many bands of ringers, travelling by coach and car, have visited the villages and towns within their reach.

On August Bank Holiday, members and friends of the Ely Association toured mid-Suffolk. The party from Downham, Terrington St. John, Shouldham, Attleborough, Cambridge and Ely visited North Lopham, Debenham, Framlingham, Wilby, Stradbroke, Fressingfield and Diss under the organisation of Mr. E. H. Martin. Standard methods up to Cambridge and Superlative were rung. The party were entertained at Debenham by the reminiscences of Mr. W. J. Groom.

Herefordshire was toured by the St. Paul's Society of Change Ringers, Burton, who began at Bromyard, visited the city of Hereford and rang at All Saints' (8) and the Cathedral (10) and continued to Eardisland (6) and Leominster (10). And to finish with, the band rang a course of Grandsire Caters in hand in the last-named town!

The Macclesfield Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild chose to visit the lovely dales of Derbyshire on August 16th. The varied countryside and the valley of the River Derwent promoted as great an interest as did the ringing at Chesterfield, Derby and Duffield. Mr. Pagett, Ringing Master at Derby, surprised the visitors by ringing 1-2 simultaneously in rounds on the whole ten, a noteworthy feat, for he has not rung for five years owing to ill-health.

A trip into the county of Somerset was taken by the Wotton-under-Edge Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association on August 30th. Ringing at High Littleton (6), Chewton Mendip (8), Wells Cathedral and St. Guthbert's, Wells, Ditcheat and Bruton was enjoyed, and Grandsire and Plain Bob, Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Kent Treble Bob were among the methods rung.

West Surrey ringers on August 23rd visited towers in Hants and Berks, Alton, Basingstoke (St. Michael's), where a wedding was in progress, All Saints', Newbury, and Bucklebury. Handbell ringing and refreshments were enjoyed before the return home.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

The district meeting, which was held at Puttenham on Saturday, August 23rd, will probably remain an outstanding memory for those present, because of the fortunate combination of a brilliant summer day with the beauty of one of Surrey's most beautiful villages. Ringing on the village bells began soon after three, and was continued until service time and resumed after tea and the brief business meeting.

The meeting decided to use one of the available Saturdays in November for holding an extra district meeting at Old Woking if acceptable to the Woking band. If not, the arrangement will be carried out at Worplesdon. About forty members and welcome visitors were present from Aldershot, Clondont, Carshalton, Guildford, Godalming, Ewhurst, Horsell, Seale, Sutton-in-Ash, Notts, Twineham, Sussex, Puttenham, Worplesdon and Pirbright.

Young Ringers go on Tour

FROM WINCHESTER TO MARLBOROUGH.

On Saturday, August 9th, twelve young ringers, whose ages range from 16 to 23 years, met in Winchester for the start of a unique and memorable ringing tour. Gathered from such towns as St. Albans, Bath, Bristol, Coventry, Godalming, Guildford, Leicester and London, and representing some ten or twelve associations, few had met each other before, but as is usual amongst ringers, a friendly band was quickly formed.

The tour, which lasted a fortnight during ideal weather conditions, took the ringers through the lanes and by-ways of Hampshire, Dorset, Somerset and Wiltshire. Travel was by bicycle over roads which sometimes became mere cart tracks, of, as in one case, a stretch of Hampshire downland. The nights were spent in youth hostels or in barns and fields where accommodation was unobtainable.

First ringing of the tour was at Sparsholt, where a band of ringers, a congregation and part of the choir were provided. No doubt a church organist could have been produced had the need arisen! Handbell ringing in the Close and service ringing at Winchester Cathedral, where a complete young band rang the opening touch, 168 Grandshire Triples, and, finally, attended at service, filled the afternoon. More service ringing, again by the tourists alone, took place at St. Maurice's for evensong.

Monday, the 11th, was the beginning of ringing at many famous and historical towers. Among the 55 visited were such well-known names as Romsey Abbey, Bath Abbey, Wimborne Minster, Queen Camel, Wells Cathedral, Trowbridge Parish Church and Holy Trinity Church, Bradford-on-Avon. At the beautiful Abbey of St. Mary, Sherborne, a member of the fair sex showed how a tenor bell should be rung!

On Friday, August 22nd, the tour came to an end. The finale was a well-struck 720 of Bob Minor on the fine six at St. Mary's, Marlborough, and although several attempts were made to ring a touch on the eight at St. Peter's Church, they were unsuccessful.

The standard of ringing, generally, was high, and methods rung included Grandshire (Doubles to Cinques), Stedman, Plain Bob (Minor to Royal), Cambridge Surprise, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Double Norwich Court Bob Major, Single and Double Court Bob Minor, Oxford Bob, St. Simon's, Reverse Canterbury Pleasure. Handbell ringing proved to be popular at the hostels, although double-handed ringing was too much for some of the band. Only one tenor was not turned in, and that was the 57½ cwt. tenor of Wells Cathedral, where the band voted against a touch of Bob Major, to the disgust of the tenor man.

Despite many warnings by 'old timers', the band did not suffer too severely from blistered hands, but how legs ached after climbing those Somerset towers!

The tour was made possible by the enthusiasm and the careful arrangements of Messrs. T. Mark White and Eric Lee, and with them the band wish to thank the many incumbents and tower-captains who co-operated so readily. Best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Tony W. J. Appleton, one of their number, who was unfortunately involved in a road accident while on the tour.

A Cornish Ringing Week

What seems to be developing into an annual ringing week in Cornwall took place during the last week in August, when there was another gathering at Carbis Bay. West Cornwall gave enough scope for a week's ringing, and a plan of a peal attempt each morning followed by visits to three or four other towers was worked upon.

The call of the sea and the sun was very strong, but the first peal was successfully rung on Saturday, August 23rd, at Carbis Bay. The peal of Kent Treble Bob at Gulval on Monday by four husbands and their wives created great interest, and later in the week, on Friday, they again scored with Bob Major at Penzance. Bad luck dogged the rest of the peal attempts, those at Helston, St. Keverne (someone lost the end of the rope after two hours!) and St. Anthony-in-Meneage failing. This last was among the best ringing of the week.

Other towers visited included Zennor—a lovely drive along the coast to ring the six—Madron, Ludgvan and St. Hilary (all 6's), Wendron (6), Tuckingmill, Camborne (two 8's where local ringers joined in), Landewednack, Mullion, Cury, Manaccan and St. Mawgan-in-Meneage (all 6's); and Phillack (8), where the local captain, Mr. Shepherd, conducted the last touch of the evening on Friday.

Col. and Mrs. C. F. Jerram entertained the party at the house, Pengwedhen, Helford, on Thursday, and Saturday morning saw the break-up of the party, but a remnant went to Crowan for Grandshire Triples. The attempt did not last long, however. Thanks were expressed to the many incumbents who took much interest in the ringing.

Local ringers, too, were interested and several shared in the ringing; at two six-bell towers a lady in each case completed a ladies' band. It is unfortunate that some helped in the arduous task of looking after the babe and three young children, and helped with the transport, and were involved in the three failures.

CHATTERIS RINGERS' MEMORIAL

For many years there has existed a strong feeling of comradeship among the ringers of Chatteris, Cambs, which found expression on September 3rd, when a tablet to the memory of two of their number, Russel Paul and Joseph Haylett, who fell in the second world war, was unveiled and dedicated.

Ringing preceded a short service conducted in the belfry by the Vicar, where the ringers were joined by the relatives of the fallen, the district secretary (Mr. C. Gimbert) and the general secretary of the Ely Diocesan Association (Mr. W. W. Cousins). The simply-worded tablet is of bronze with engraved letters in white enamel, the cost being defrayed by the local ringers.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

PRESENTATION TO FORMER SECRETARY.

Thirteen towers were represented at the Dorchester Branch meeting at Charminster on August 16th, when Canon A. Wilkinson Markby (Rector of St. Peter's, Dorchester, and chairman of the branch) presented Mrs. Godley, of Stratton, with an illuminated address and a gift from the ringers in appreciation of her services as hon. secretary from 1944-47.

The address had been prepared by the Rev. A. S. Bryant, Rector of Upwey, and accompanying it was a list of 128 members from all towers who had subscribed towards the gift. Canon Markby spoke of Mrs. Godley's outstanding work for the branch, a tribute that was warmly endorsed by the ringers.

The Vicar, Rev. D. B. Eperson, and Canon Markby conducted the ringers' service, and at tea thanks were extended to the Vicar, the local ringers, and the lady helpers for their hospitality.

Sanity Questioned

Dear Sir,—The various references in recent issues of 'The Ringing World' to ringing oddities can, I think, be capped by a recent experience of members of the Oxford University Society of Change Ringers. This should not, however, be regarded as typical of the ringing activities of the society!

On visiting the tower at Bronllys, during the society's ringing tour this summer, the ropes were found to be extremely low. One member found he could ring much better sitting down, but in a few minutes the whole band had descended to its knees, in which position a touch of Bob Minor and then a well-struck course of Cambridge Minor were brought round. In each case the word 'stand' brought the ringers to their feet, and the bells were set at the call 'stop'!

Although doubts were expressed by certain onlookers concerning the sanity of those participating, it was generally acknowledged that the striking was some of the best experienced at the tower.

BETTY SPICE,

Sittingbourne, Kent.

WELL-KNOWN RINGERS WED

The wedding of Mr. E. Dennis Poole, secretary of the Shropshire Association, to Miss Patricia Fletcher, took place at Malinslee Church, Shropshire, on August 27th. Both bride and bridegroom are well-known and keen ringers. The Rev. T. Eland, Vicar of Coalbrookdale, officiated. Ringers present at the reception included Messrs. A. Woodvine, J. Harley, L. Bray, A. Pritchard, W. A. Farmer, F. G. Beddow and J. W. Humphries. The health of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by the Rev. T. N. Crowther Green, Rector of Brierley Hill and a former treasurer of the Association.

Before and after the ceremony the six bells of Malinslee Church were rung to Plain Bob. Kent and Stedman, and two peals are to be attempted in the near future in honour of the event.

REVIEW

'DOUBLE NORWICH COURT BOB CATERS'

The complaint has often been made that the style of writing used in ringing text books is so involved as to go over the head of the average ringer. That criticism can hardly be made of the excellent work on 'Double Norwich Caters, the method and its proof,' written by Edgar C. Shepherd and just published in useful size book form. The work shows that the author has been at great pains to help the student to compose and prove touches and peals in this fascinating Cater method, and he is to be congratulated on having dealt with his subject in simple terms, easily understood.

The Rev. H. Law James and his brother made an attempt some 40 years ago to popularise this useful method by ringing a peal with the Gloucester St. Michael's band, under the conductorship of that great pioneer, the late John Austin. Tradition in ringing, as in many other things, however, dies hard, and the effort misfired, probably through the discouraging attitude of the Editor of 'The Bell News,' who regarded the method as a 'novelty.'

Those lucky bands who possess a ring of ten bells will do well to study this latest book, which provides us with a welcome alternative to Grandshire and Stedman Caters. We can well do with booklets of the kind under review, and it is to be hoped that others who are gifted in the same way as Mr. Shepherd may by his example be induced to deal with other methods in the same simple but effective manner.

AN AMERICAN WANTS TO KNOW

A copy of the Rev. F. F. Rigby's book, 'Elementary Change Ringing,' has reached Mr. Ralph R. Mahlum, of Long Beach, California, U.S.A., and has aroused in him and five other members of the choir of the First Congregational Church in Long Beach an interest in change ringing. His church hopes to introduce a carillon. He writes to the president of the Lancashire Association: 'The growth of bells and particularly carillons is apparent in America, but all too slow. Few of our churches have rings of bells—mostly one bell only—and many none at all. The only time they are rung is on Sunday morning, the five-minute period before 11 o'clock church service, as well as before Sunday School. Many communities have even dispensed completely with the bell, and it hangs idle on the roof-top in the dusty belfry.'

Mr. Mahlum pertinently asks what is the attitude of 'the man in the street.' Do they object to long periods of ringing? Do they thoroughly enjoy the sound of ringing bells, for instance in change ringing? Do they take them as a matter of course? 'Here the cry goes up to heaven when carillons are played, often "the bells are out of tune," and one has to play them softly lest they offend some crackpot who thinks his or her ears cannot withstand the sound of their playing. And how unfortunate that attitude is here where we daily live in a maelstrom of assorted sounds. I wish we might hear the bells more often; perhaps some day we shall, but there is need for a lot of conversion in America. People simply do not know how to listen to bells, nor what to listen for.'

This interest in bells is particularly welcome. There are in the States a number of English ringers who have settled there, among them being Mr. E. Weatherby, of Los Angeles, who is making the journey by air this month to British Columbia to renew his handling of bell ropes and, if possible, to stand in a peal with a distinguished English visitor. Change ringing is practised in Australia, where ringers produce a typescript monthly journal, and Canada, and also to a limited extent in South Africa. If this venerable English art should find favour in the United States it will be an added means of cementing friendship between the two peoples and possibly a means of earning dollars by the export of British bells and carillons. The leading bell founders, we know, are sparing no pains in endeavouring to increase this avenue of trade, and recent issues have mentioned new rings of British bells at Malta and in Australia. It is to be hoped that at an early day mention can be made of securing American contracts.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The peal of Belgrave Surprise Major at Tring, reported in our last issue, was the 80th method on tower bells rung by Mr. Maurice F. R. Hibbert, of Bushey. Such a variety in only 338 peals is unique in the Exercise. Mr. Ernest Morris in his 1,000 peals rang 81 methods—80 of which were on tower bells.

There is some sad news for Lancashire. The peal of Treble Bob Royal, 5,120, rung at Preston on April 7th, 1947, is false. See correspondence columns.

A 25-year-old error has been rectified by the Salisbury Diocesan Guild. The annual report for 1921 omitted a peal of Stedman Triples rung on Boxing Day, 1921, at the Minster Church of St. Denys, Warminster, which is now recorded in the latest report.

Mr. E. C. S. Turner is anxious to trace the whereabouts of a book written by Mr. J. A. Trollope entitled 'The Science of Change Ringing.' It is a handwritten book very handsomely bound.

Among the satisfactions of authorship to the Rev. F. F. Rigby is the recent order he has received for six copies of 'Elementary Change Ringing' from Long Beach, California. He never expected his work would be earning dollars for Britain.

Appropriately it was the Cathedral Sunday service ringers who rang the farewell peal to the Provost at Newcastle-upon-Tyne on August 30th. The peal was also a birthday compliment to J. E. R. Keen and John Anderson, and was rung on the 'Dixon Eight.'

The picture of Whiston, Yorks, young ringers which appeared in 'The Ringing World' has created interest among the handbell ringers of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Worcester, Mass. Mr. J. William Cooper, the Ringing Master, who is a native of Worcester, England, has forwarded to Mr. Norman Chaddock a photograph of his ringers.

BELFRY GOSSIP

This issue may rightly be described as a summer peal tour issue. In our peal columns are tours in Birmingham district by the Cambridge University Guild, another in Yorkshire and Durham and a third in Worcestershire.

In the schools broadcast on Wednesday, November 26th, at 2 p.m., the B.B.C. announced: Church bells—bellringing in an English village.

Notice is given by Mr. John Freeman that members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild will make a further attempt to ring 14,144 London Surprise Major at Heydour on October 4th. The composition was published in our issue of July 11th.

While on holiday recently in North Devon, Mr. Peter Crook located four ancient peal boards which had not been recorded by the Peal Boards Committee. Much useful work for this committee of the Central Council could be accomplished if ringers on their travels kept their eyes open.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Corby have followed a week's holiday in Cornwall with a second week in Worcestershire. The second week was memorable for Mr. Eric Dench. He had previously rung peals on six successive days and did not want to leave it at six again. His seventh was an early morning affair 'in hand.' He was to have called the party at 5 a.m. with a cup of tea, but, in fact, he had to be called himself at 7 a.m.!

Further information about the peal at Exeter Cathedral, when William Pye rang the 72 cwt. tenor single-handed, is that for that peal John Thomas cycled from Bristol to Exeter! He started at 6 and got there at 12, and then rang in the peal. Mr. N. E. Hope, late Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, our informant, says that Thomas told him it took 10 minutes to get any feeling in his legs at the end of the peal.

Hampton Court Bells

Recently the bells at Hampton Court Palace were cleaned and rehung. In the process an almost indistinguishable founder's mark was discovered on the two quarter bells. A tracing of the mark was made by the contractors concerned—Messrs. Mears and Stainbank—and identified as belonging to William Culverden, an early 16th century London founder.

An illustration of the tracing accompanies this article. The late H. B. Walters, F.S.A., in his work, 'Church Bells of England,' makes the following observations:—

... and finally we have William Culverden (1510-1523), whose foundry shield is the most elaborate of all, and a rebus device of the most subtle description (305). Long a puzzle, it was finally elucidated by the ingenuity of Mr. A. D. Tysen. The centre of the shield is occupied by a large bell, on which the letters FOWN of the word founder are visible: below are a W and a figure of a bird. On either side are inscribed the words, FN DNO COFIDO, with a trefoil and DE below: and in the base is a mark like two P's conjoined, one being reversed. The name of Culverden being known as that of a founder from records of the period, it was ingeniously pointed out that culver is an old English word for "pigeon," the kind of bird evidently here represented. Combined with the W and DE we thus get "W. Culverden." Now the significance of the text is apparent, for the Vulgate of Ps. x (xi). I. runs: "In Domino confido; quomodo dicite animae meae, transmigra in montem sicut passer." The other two marks are still unexplained, but the trefoil may indicate a reference to the Holy Trinity, Culverden having had some relations with the Priory of that name in Aldgate.

The Henry VIII. astronomical clock in the turret is being restored by the Ministry of Works, and regilding of the dial is in progress. The hour bell was cast by Thomas Harrys, a London founder, between 1478 and 1490. The astronomical dial of the clock was installed by Henry VIII., but the existing mechanism is of later date.

A NOTE ON METHOD RANGE

(WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO 'BRISTOL')

By A. Yorke-Bramble.

A correspondent in these columns, recently claiming that Drayton is 'an illegitimate Surprise method,' and giving his reason as lack of internal place-makings when the treble is passing the cross-sections, said, 'Bristol Royal has the same fault.' Now it may be shown that the 'natural' extension of Bristol Surprise from the Major to the Royal compass has no such fault.

It is now a quarter of a century since this matter was before the notice of the Exercise in the pages of 'The Ringing World.' During 1922 and 1923 in a series of articles on method construction and extension, and in correspondence, both public and private, with the brothers James (Banks and Law), C. D. P. Davies, E. S. Powell, J. Armiger Trollope, George Baker and others, I discussed, inter alia, the Bristol method range from Major to Maximus. In the issue numbered 615 and dated December 29th, 1922 (page 820), appeared the concluding article with the figures for the method on each compass. Needless to say, the correspondents voiced their various criticisms; but the Royal version as published embodied, I believe, more of the recognised features than any other one version at that time put forward; and it certainly had not the fault of no internal places at the treble's crossing of sections, such as the correspondent has alleged.

But it had one feature about which I was none too happy. This occurred in the changes at the quarter and three-quarter rows of the full 'lead,' i.e., those where the treble is dodging in 5.6. Here adjacent places were made simultaneously in 3.4 and 7.8. The figures of this section were included as from another version of the Royal, which my old correspondent George Baker sent me at that time.

Another arrangement of this same section, however, with places at 7ths and 10ths in the first two rows, and at 1sts and 4ths in the second two rows, was also sent to me in 1922 by the late J. Armiger Trollope, in the course of some very lengthy private correspondence, and it seems to me preferable to include this arrangement of the rows of the sections with the treble in 5.6 for the finalised mode of Bristol Surprise Royal.

In taking up again the threads of method research after an absence of some years I am uncertain as to whether these finalised figures have yet become generally known; but here they are, for the half-lead from rounds, spaced in the sections:—

In any event this 'natural' version has:—

- (a) Regular lead-ends.
- (b) Bristol-type shunts.
- (c) Mr. Baker's 'pivot bell' as for a double method, throughout the range; in this case No. 2.
- (d) Associated lead-ends of the Bristol range.
- (e) Corresponding section rows as found throughout the range.
- (f) The typical Bristol working-bell path throughout;
- (g) The best music obtainable in the Bristol method on Royal compass.

At this encouraging time of greater effort and achievement in ringing generally, it may be opportune to put forward the following point of view for the student of method construction: A method may be built or evolved originally in any one bell-compass of the range of rings; and this may be known as its 'basic compass.' For example, Bristol was evolved in the major compass. The basic compass of Bristol is therefore major; similarly that of Stedman is doubles. Once evolved, a method can be considered as to its application to higher or, in some cases, lower compass; and even, sometimes, to all compasses, both odd and even; as, for instance, the Grandsire system. Application upwards is properly known as 'extension,' while application downwards may be called 'contraction.'

Some methods are found to have quite 'natural' extensions above, and contractions below, the basic compass, while others are found to be strictly applicable only in one direction; that is to say, providing the conventions of method construction as covered by the Rules and Decisions of the Central Council are always observed.

Bristol applies both above and below its basic compass. In other words, contraction to Bristol Surprise Minor is possible. In fact, it approximates to No. 29 of the C.C. Collection of Legitimate Methods, in the Surprise Minor group, known as Norwich Surprise. The latter differs, however, in having one less pair of places made in the half-lead, which prevents it evolving as the double method that Bristol is throughout its range.

But this is material for another article.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The monthly meeting of the Leeds and District Society was held at St. Michael's Church, East Ardsley, on August 30th, when members were present from Armley, Guiseley, Leeds, Liversedge, Pudsey, Rothwell and the local company. After ringing various methods during the afternoon, a very enjoyable tea was served by the local company in the Church Schools.

The business meeting was held in the tower, with the president (Mr. John McGlenn) in the chair. A hearty vote of thanks was proposed from the chair to the Vicar and wardens for kindly allowing the use of the bells, and this was supported by Mr. G. Benfield. The Rev. C. A. Roberts, in acknowledging the vote of thanks, said they were always very pleased to receive the Society at East Ardsley and were more than grateful to the members for coming and ringing the bells. He felt that such Associations as these performed an excellent work in cementing the friendship between the various towers.

The vote of thanks to the local company for making such splendid arrangements was proposed by Mr. F. Rayment, who said that the way in which Mr. Watson and his friends had made the preparations was quite an achievement in such difficult times.

Mr. E. Watson, in replying, said they were always pleased to receive the Association at St. Michael's, in fact they welcomed anyone who would come and ring their bells. The local company were few in numbers now, but they tried to keep the bells going for service ringing. Mr. Pinder also expressed pleasure at receiving the Society and hoped they would come again soon.

The President announced that the next meeting had been arranged for Liversedge on Sept. 27th, and that a joint meeting with the Selby and District Society was being arranged for Kippax in November.

SUFFOLK GUILD

A sad lack of interest was shown at the meeting at Assington on August 30th, when only ten Suffolk Guild members showed up. from Assington, Hadleigh and Sudbury. Anxiety to make the most of the 'basic' ration brought visitors from Fulbourne and Sawston, Cambs, St. Albans, Herts, and Cheltenham, Glos., and Wickham St. Paul, Essex. After tea the fine eight at All Saints', Sudbury, were put to good use. It is probable the next meeting will be a joint one with the Essex Association, when the secretary hopes more support will be forthcoming.

CORRESPONDENTS' PAGE

New Era of Change Ringing!

Sir,—It would seem from the correspondence columns of 'The Ringing World' that we may be entering a new era in change ringing where all this rot about bothering what a peal sounds like outside will be discarded and thrown overboard. Let us hasten to salute these brave reformers, Linfoot and Rhodes, in comparison with whom even Kippin must be labelled 'reactionary.'

Just take a look at the present position and compare it with the golden future that may now be not so far away. Think of a youngster who learns to ring rounds at a tender age and might then pass on to 'covering' but for the weight of the tenor, which is too great for him. What a shame it is that the present antiquated rules of the Central Council debar him from ringing a peal when he could quite easily 'cover' with the treble. In future we may hope that this will soon be recognised, for, after all, with eight bells the treble has the same note as the tenor only an octave higher, and the ropes would still fall in a clockwise direction. It may sound a bit unusual to the 'old fogies,' but think of the pleasure that it will give the little chap!

Another valuable reform that is surely long overdue is one which will benefit ten and twelve-bell towers. No longer shall we have to bother about the music of the peal and be tied down by these ridiculous and out of date conventions so that a peal of Major will have to be rung on the 'back' eight. No, we shall be able to go to a tower with twelve bells and pick out the eight most suitable. For instance, we shall leave out the tenor because it goes up false and we should have to waste time turning the clapper; the seventh is odd struck, the fifth has a weak stay and the rope on the second looks a bit frayed so we shall leave those three out as well and use the eight left. Once again the reactionary old fogies are going to turn up their noses and make loud protests, but it will be quite all right as we shall take care to strike well, use a true composition and avoid any errors in the production of the changes.

Doubtless the Central Council will be bitterly opposed to these new ideas and will seek to shelter behind its antiquated rules drawn up years ago before progressive ideas like these were heard of. But all ringers who have the future of our art at heart must band together to compel them to move with the times. Let us show them that we are in earnest by holding meetings at Basingstoke and Elland if necessary and burying copies of their out of date rules with due ceremony. Surely the ideal is to abandon rules altogether, for it is impossible to lay down any set which will cover all possibilities. Think, for instance, how with the aid of wireless it would be possible through each ringer wearing headphones to have a peal rung where each bell was ringing in a separate tower. Do our present rules recognise such a possibility?

I could wish that my name were better known in ringing circles and that thereby my plea might be made the more forceful, but as the campaign for reform gets under way I feel that my name will be much more in evidence in the new era that is dawning for change ringing.—I am, sir, yours faithfully,

K. OSSE.

'ODDITIES'

Dear Sir,—Apropos 'oddities,' about four years ago I rang the treble at Holbeck, Leeds, from a chair placed on top of a table, not as an acrobatic performance, but being the only one who could reach the sally after the broken rope had been temporarily refixed, during ringing for the Vicar's induction.—Yours faithfully,

R. H. DOVE.

Leeds 5.

The late Mr. J. A. Trollope

Dear Sir,—Will you permit a further note on the lamented death of our late Editor? Some 55 years ago he, with two schoolfellows, George and John Burton, and Alfred Brighton and myself, shared in many pranks, escapades and excursions in our eager ringing quest for fresh towers to add to our lists, in Norwich and Norfolk. 'J.A.T.' was the chief instigator of these affairs, and it is a joy to recall his gaiety, humour and good comradeship when they were in progress. They were carefree and happy days, with tower or handbell ringing wherever and whenever possible at any time of the day or night, and we enjoyed them to the full.

The splendid tributes you have published from his later friends give an added sadness to his passing, for they make grievous reading. When he was practically writing our entire paper during the later war years he often referred in letters to his ever-present dread that his health would break down under the strain and anxiety of the job. Small wonder if it had—for what a job, and what a great one he made it! It could only have been his unquenchable will-power which kept him going.

I hope his critics now feel as unhappy about the whole business as do his friends of earlier days. May Mother Earth rest lightly on a gallant and joyous comrade.

CHARLES E. BORRETT.

Red Roof, Sheringham, Norfolk.

RECTORS' SERVICE

Dear Sir,—At Maidwell, William de Foxton was Rector 1282-1352. In more recent times the Rev. Thomas Holdich was Rector and Squire from 1800-1868. He insisted upon preaching until he was 95 years old. The inhabitants said of him, 'He saw us into the world and sure enough he'll bury us.'

CHARLES W. DIXON.

Post Office, Maidwell.

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent, Mr. P. Amos, may be interested to hear of the 69 years' incumbency of John Higgs, Vicar of Quatford, Shropshire, from 1694-1763. The son of a local miller, he reared a large family on a stipend of £15 per annum.

If your correspondent will communicate with me directly I shall be pleased to give him further particulars of this cleric and several other instances of long service in the church of which I have details, as I feel your space can be more profitably devoted to ringing matters than a discourse on ecclesiastical history.—Yours sincerely,

WILFRED E. BOX.

140, Wentworth Road, Harborne, Birmingham 17.

Dear Sir,—In the Parish Church of Ashill, Norfolk, there is a stained glass window to the memory of one Bartholomew Edwards, who served there as Rector for 76 years, 1913-1889, and died in his hundredth year. There are two other records of 76 years in the same county.

This information is given in Arthur Mee's 'Norfolk' in 'The King's England' series, and we are also told that the longest ministry in any pulpit is one of 77 years. Unfortunately we are not told where this took place.

WALLACE W. COUSINS.

Terrington St. John.

POEM WANTED

Dear Sir,—John Bunyan, the famous author of 'Pilgrim's Progress' and a ringer at Elstow, Beds, wrote a poem for boys and girls on 'Bells.' If any reader can supply me with a copy of this poem I should be glad if they would write me direct. ERNEST MORRIS.

St. Margaret's Vicarage, Leicester.

Another Claim for Ireland

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. Hadley's letter under the above heading, which appeared in 'The Ringing World' on the 5th inst., Mr. Hadley is quite right in his statement, and I must apologise for not making it clear that the handbell peal rung on August 4th was the first in two Doubles methods on handbells. I sent in the report with the full knowledge that more than one Minor method had already been rung. However, I have the peal already recorded in the peal book with the footnote, 'First peal in two Doubles methods on handbells in Ireland.'

For the benefit of your readers and Mr. Hadley's memory: Mr. Hadley conducted the first handbell peals for this Association of one Minor method, Plain Bob on March 23rd, 1914 at Arklow; two Minor methods, Kent and Oxford, on September 19th, 1915, at Arklow; three Minor methods, Plain Bob, Kent and Oxford, on August 21st, 1915, at Arklow; seven Minor methods, Oxford, Kent, Grandsire, College S., Canterbury Pleasure, Oxford Bob and Plain Bob on November 9th, 1915, also at Arklow; and Grandsire Doubles, September 10th, 1913, at Arklow.

I thank Mr. Hadley for drawing my attention to the error, which I can assure him was not intentional.—Yours faithfully,

FRED E. DUKES.

Jenkinson, Dundalk.

FALSE TREBLE BOB ROYAL

Dear Sir,—I greatly regret to inform you that the 5,120 Treble Bob Royal by E. Timbrell, published on page 440 of Sept. 12th issue of 'The Ringing World,' is false. The Wrong leads of the 2nd and 9th and 5th and 7th courses are false against each other. The natural course-ends involved being 42356 and 43265 respectively.—Yours sincerely,

CHARLES W. ROBERTS.

Waltham Abbey, Essex.

USEFULNESS?

Dear Sir,—Mr. A. M. Houghton's letter appearing in 'The Ringing World' dated August 8th is the most scathing and unchristianlike letter which I have had the misfortune to read. I would much rather read Mr. Male's report of his achievement than Mr. Houghton's conceited and distorted views, which have done untold harm.

Mr. Houghton should visit Mr. Male's home, and if he has any conscience at all he will fully appreciate the stupidity and usefulness of his own composition.—Yours faithfully,

F. I. EATON.

52 TOWERS IN EIGHT DAYS

Dear Sir,—Your contributor, R.O.F., cannot claim that a recent ringing tour from Winchester to Marlborough was unique. On Aug. 21st, 1937, a party of seven met and rang the bells of St. Mary's, Marlborough. Later that day, and on the eight days that followed, 52 towers were visited and many miles covered. Cycles were ridden when possible, and pushed over Exmoor and its spurs. Youth hostels were used for bed and breakfast, and village inns for mid-day meals. The tour was very successful and was repeated in 1938 and 1939. Accounts of these are to be found in 'The Ringing World,' 1938, page 542, and 1939, page 531.—Yours faithfully, E. B. HARTLEY.

43, Grendon Gardens, Wembley Park.

OSWALD DELIGHT MAJOR

Dear Sir,—I saw in 'The Ringing World' a few weeks ago a lead of Oswald Delight Major, a peal of 5,066 being rung at Frodsham, Cheshire, on January 17th. The figures are the same as my method of Drayton Surprise, which I composed in 1941. I called it Drayton because Market Drayton, Shropshire, was my birthplace and I conducted there for some peals.—Yours faithfully, E. WEATHERBY.

A FARMING-CUM-RINGING HOLIDAY.

Following the success of a similar enterprise of last year, 17 members of the O.U.S.C.R., with the addition of several ringing friends and relatives, have just spent an extremely enjoyable fortnight at the Honeybourne Volunteer Agricultural Camp at Weston-sub-Edge, near Campden, Glos. It was originally planned to work on the land by day and ring in the evening, but the dry weather and local labour conditions combined to provide less work and consequently more ringing than was anticipated.

Evening practices were held at Bretforton, Broadway, Willersey (sixes) and Campden and Badsey (eights), and on Sundays service ringing was enjoyed at Evesham, Badsey, Mickleton and Willersey in co-operation with local bands.

Two tower-bell peals of Bob Minor were rung for the Worcestershire and Districts Association at Offenham and Childswickham, each of which enabled first peals to be scored. A highlight of the fortnight's ringing was the day tour on August 30th, when Hinton-on-the-Green, Tewkesbury, Upton-on-Severn, Pershore and Evesham were visited. On this day the help of Messrs. W. Williams, G. I. Lewis, C. Camm and G. J. Hemming was much appreciated.

Not only was this a profitable fortnight's ringing—methods ranged from Grandshire and Plain Bob for beginners to Lincolnshire and Pudsey Surprise Major—but pleasant surroundings, glorious weather and convivial company combined to make a memorable holiday for all. This was due in no small measure to the unstinted hospitality of tower captains and clergy in the neighbourhood, and the Society wishes to thank most warmly its ringing friends for their ready and repeated co-operation this year. Their friendly welcome was most appreciated, and all members concerned in this year's farming-cum-ringing holiday look forward to renewing their acquaintance with the ringers and towers in the Honeybourne district next summer. B. S.

REPTON'S RECORD ATTENDANCE

Repton, the chief town in the great Anglo-Saxon Kingdom of Mercia and one of the places where Christianity was first proclaimed, was the venue for the joint meeting of the Midland Counties Guild and the Derbyshire Association on August 30th.

This historic town lies in South Derbyshire situated on rising ground above the Trent, which is about a mile distant, and to-day Repton has one of the great public schools of England, which is the pride of the county. The late Archbishop and the present Archbishop of Canterbury were at one time headmasters of Repton School.

Upwards of 80 members and friends were in attendance from Derby (Cathedral, St. Peter's, St. Andrew's and St. Luke's), Alvaston, Spondon, Ockbrook, Ilkeston, Ripley, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Stoke, Norton-in-the-Moors, Rotherham, Nuneaton, Chilvers Coton, Castle Donington, Melbourne, Ashby, Burton (St. Paul's, St. Modwen's and All Saints'), Newhall, Winhill, Overseal, Netherseale, Lullington and the local company.

During the afternoon and evening some good ringing was accomplished in most of the standard methods, with special attention being given to the claims of learners present. Tea was partaken of at the Boot Inn, after which Mr. W. H. Curson, chairman of the M.C.G., thanked the local people for arranging such an excellent tea.

Mr. W. Lancaster, secretary of the Derbyshire Association, suitably replied, after which he made reference to the passing of Mr. F. Denison Taylor, of the Loughborough Bell Foundry, and former president of the Midland Counties Association, whose achievements were known not only in the Midlands, but throughout the country. The members stood in silence.

NORTHERN DISTRICT NEWS.

Two very successful meetings of the Northern District have been held recently. On August 23rd about 35 ringers met at the ancient and magnificent Church of St. Gregory, Bedale, and after raising the bells in peal, rang a touch of Stedman Triples to welcome a newly-married couple as they left the church. The fortress-like tower of Bedale Church had at one time a portecullis and houses a pre-Reformation tenor bell; the floor of the ringing chamber consists of very old riven oak slabs.

At the business meeting, held after tea in the Chantry House, two new members were elected. Much use was made of the good old ring of eight bells, and touches were also rung on a ring of handbells, recently restored, which is over 100 years old and the property of the Northern District vice-president.

August 30th saw the members of the Northern District at Birstwith; in this Niddale village there is a fine modern ring of eight bells rung from ground floor level. Good use was made of the bells and many members obtained practice in new methods.

A short business meeting was held in the vestry of the church, at which Mr. P. J. Johnson (vice-president of the Western District) presided in the unavoidable absence of the Northern District vice-president, Mr. J. B. Hutchinson. In speaking to the members, Mr. Johnson recalled the difficult days through which the Northern District had passed and gave the members a message of encouragement for the future.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

Pitttlewell with its fine peal of ten bells was the venue for a very successful meeting of the South-Western Division on August 30th, some 40 members and friends making the most of a perfect summer's day.

The Vicar (the Ven. Gowing) conducted the service and extended a warm welcome to all. The collection for the Bell Restoration Fund was £1 4s. 6d.

Tea was served in the Church Hall. The business meeting which followed was presided over by the District Master, Mr. J. Chalk. Two new members of the Hornchurch band were elected, and it was decided to hold the annual meeting at Brentwood on January 10th.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar for use of bells, and to Mr. and Mrs. Lufkin for making all arrangements, which made the meeting such a success. Mr. Lufkin responded.

Good use was made of the bells, and methods ranged from Grandshire to Cambridge Surprise.

A visit was also made to St. Augustine's, Thorpe Bay, where many members had their first pull on this very fine ring of eight by Taylors.

THE MIDDLESEX AT CRANFORD

A most delightful meeting was held at Cranford by the South and West District of the Middlesex Association on August 23rd. Some good ringing was enjoyed by the 35 members and friends, ranging from rounds to London Surprise, under the supervision of the Master, Mr. F. A. Finch.

The business meeting was held in the vestry, under the chairmanship of the vice-president, Mr. W. H. Coles, who spoke with eloquence of the grievous loss the Association had sustained, particularly the South and West District, by the passing of Mr. J. A. Trollope, in which district he had resided and worked so unceasingly for fifty years. The loss was severe, but, said Mr. Coles, he had left a legacy of which they were justly proud, a name that would go down in history, and his 'two boys,' both officers in our Association, worthy successors of J. A. T. The secretary was asked to send a message of sympathy to Miss Trollope, and the meeting stood in silence.

GLASGOW VISIT CARLISLE.

Carlisle was the venue of St. Mary's Cathedral, Glasgow, Society for their outing on September 6th. A party of 30, comprising 16 ringers (including three from St. James, Paisley) and their friends left Glasgow at 9 a.m. by coach. With a break at Moffat they arrived at Carlisle in good time for lunch.

Met by Mr. Ling, the party was escorted to the Cathedral tower, where the bells were kept going until 4.15 with attempts at Stedman, Grandshire, Kent and Cambridge. After tea an hour was spent with the temperamental ring of eight at St. Stephen's. A start was made for home at 6.30 p.m., with a 'break' at Lockerbie, arriving back in Glasgow at 10.30 p.m. after a perfect day.

Thanks are due to Messrs. J. Boustead and J. Ling, of the Cathedral, and Mr. Forsyth, of St. Stephen's, for their arrangements and assistance, and to the Dean of Carlisle and the Vicar of St. Stephen's for the use of the bells.

FAST GRINSTEAD'S TOUR.

The Fast Grinstead and District Guild held their summer outing on August 30th, starting the day with some good ringing on the handy eight at Warnham, but not so good on the noisy eight at Pulborough, where, on descending from the tower, the hospitality of a local lady was enjoyed.

Soon after, experts and learners alike were having fun and games on the light and flighty six at Storrington. After taking a wrong turning, Washington was reached—a pleasant surprise, for none of the party had previously 'discovered' this lovely little six.

Then on to the joys of Henfield's beautiful octave and Frank Cruttenden's excellent teas. With everyone satisfied the day concluded with some good ringing on the light six at Ardingly.

NORTON SUBCOURSE.

On September 6th, the ringers of Norton, accompanied by their wives and friends, making a party of 25, held their annual outing. Towers visited were Gorleston, Happisburgh, Paston, Aylsham, Buxton, Scottow and Wroxham. In ideal weather a most enjoyable day was spent in ringing methods ranging from Kent Royal to Bob Doubles.

The ringers wish to thank all incumbents for the use of their bells, and steeplekeepers for making belfry preparations.

'RINGING TOWERS'

'The Ringing World' is not the only publication devoted exclusively to the art of change ringing. Last April 'The Ringing Towers,' the monthly journal of the New South Wales Association, made its first appearance, and the four issues which have reached us via Mr. A. G. Williams, of Bexley, Kent, are good reading. Much of the information is intimate and personal, but most issues contain an article of instructional value.

The New South Wales Association was formed in February, 1946, and since then has made considerable progress in raising the standard of ringing and in getting bells ringing again, not only in Sydney, its birthplace, but also in outlying places in N.S.W. The Association feels that the best method of establishing ties between the various centres of ringing in Australasia is by the journal, 'Ringing Towers,' and while present issues are in typescript it is to be hoped that funds will permit of a printed publication at an early date.

Although the standard of change ringing in Australia is below that of any Diocesan Guild or County Association in this country, the New South Wales Association embarked on a courageous policy when it was formed. The qualification of membership is the ability to ring a working bell to 120 changes of Doubles. Commonplace as this rule is to us, it was a revolutionary step to them, as no other organisation in Australasia had set any similar condition on membership. The qualification was difficult to introduce in the rules, as out of 40 odd foundation members only eight to ten could ring 120 changes of Doubles. To accommodate the majority, probationary membership was introduced.

Already 'Ringing Towers' has contacted the Christchurch Cathedral Society, New Zealand, and this society are giving the new venture every support. Apart from the Christchurch Society, other keen ringers in New Zealand are Mr. A. Roberts, of New Plymouth, Mr. Barnett, of Wellington, and the composer, Mr. J. S. Wilde, of Dunedin. At the moment, the Christchurch Society are trying to get a 720 of Plain Bob Minor on the light six. The ten bells at Christchurch are rung every Sunday. There is a ring of five at Papanui, three miles out, and hopes are entertained of buying or casting a treble for this church.

To Mr. W. M. Rowe, who we believe is acting as Editor, we wish every success. The first issue contained an Easter message from the Right Rev. C. V. Pilcher, Bishop Coadjutor of Sydney. He writes, 'I can never forget the bells of the churches of the English countryside at the season of Easter. I was in charge of a beautiful church among the Cotswold Hills of Gloucestershire. The sound of pealing bells, rung by the skilful English bellringers, floating over valley and hill from a neighbouring village, filled the air.'

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Mr. Frank Bennett, of Brighton, despite his 70 years, rang seven peals during a week's tour in the Thames Valley. Marlow was the 565th tower in which he had rung a peal. Does this constitute a record? Mr. G. R. Pye's total was 562.

The second section of 'Surprise Methods' will shortly be published by Mr. A. J. Corrigan. It contains more than 100 unnamed methods, so that bands wishing to adopt a new method for the royal wedding will be able to make their choice. Some 70 of them are unpublished ones by Gabriel Lindoff taken from his notebooks.

The bells of Twerton-on-Avon, Bath, will be broadcast on the West Region wave-length on Sunday, September 28th, before the morning service at 9.30 a.m.

The peal of Little Bob rung at Runcorn on August 30th was for the Chester Diocesan Guild.

An increasing number of notices arrive too late for publication each week. Remember, to guarantee insertion notices have to reach Guildford by first post Monday, not be posted first post Monday.

Cambridge University Guild have a good story to tell of a flat motor-car tyre and the anonymous note warning about parking too close.

Peals that delight an association's heart are those like that of Grandsire Doubles at Benwell, Newcastle. It was the first peal by all performing, first for the Benwell Guild and first in the method on the bells.

By his peal of Cambridge Surprise Minor at Newington (Hythe), Kent, Mr. William Bottrill has rung peals of Cambridge from Minor to Maximus.

Mr. T. W. Sheppard, of Foleshill, Coventry, came of age in true ringer's fashion. He called his first peal of Surprise and rang his first of Yorkshire Major on his natal day.

BELFRY GOSSIP

For 44 years Mr. George Stacey has been hon. secretary of the Dunster Deanery Branch of the Bath and Wells Association. The quarterly meeting at Wiveliscombe on September 13th was the second meeting of the branch he had missed during this long period. The day coincided with his 85th birthday, and a telegram conveying birthday greetings was sent to him.

Mr. A. Pat Cannon informs us that the peal at Merrow was the first on the bells since 1911.

Peals of Stedman at Ruislip, Middlesex, are rare. The last peal in this method previous to September 10th was on February 13th, 1898, by the Ancient Society of College Youths and Hertfordshire Association.

Congratulations on reaching their century of peals to Mr. J. A. Fenton, of Melton Mowbray, and H. William Barrett, of Kingston.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

To the list of blind ringers is added the name of Mr. A. H. Richardson, who rang his first quarter faultlessly at Finchley, Middlesex, on September 7th. It was 1,260 Bob Minor: A. H. Richardson 1, L. Tubb 2, P. Blake 3, F. Cherratt 4, B. F. Tubb 5, F. G. Nash (conductor) 6.

Two 70th birthdays were honoured by the 1,260 Grandsire Triples at Hillingdon, West Middlesex, on September 14th. They were S. Childs and R. Carter. The band was H. Imphy (conductor) 1, F. Cooke 2, S. Childs 3, P. E. Jones 4, G. Swift 5, W. Honor 6, R. Carter 7, S. Humphreys 8.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD TOUR

The annual ringing week was held from September 1st to 6th at Birmingham, headquarters being at Primrose Hill, Selly Oak, and arrangements being in the very capable hands of Frank Haynes. Other members present were E. M. Atkins, Dr. Poole, M. Lindley, R. Leigh, J. Butler, W. H. J. Hooton, C. W. Woolley, P. Williamson, B. Price, A. Rousel, Dr. Cunningham, G. Dodds and the Revs. E. G. Benson, B. F. Sheppard and A. G. G. Thurlow. Some of these were only present part of the time.

During a fairly good peal of Cambridge on September 1st at St. Laurence's, Northfield, amongst the many 'phone calls received by the Vicar was one asking whether 'those diabolical and selfish people' might be stopped—despite this we went on to the bitter end. Touches at Edgbaston concluded a pleasant opening day. On September 2nd a peal of Bob Royal was greatly enjoyed on the grand new ten at Solihull, and the afternoon passed pleasantly with Double Norwich, etc., at Shirley; one of H.P.'s queer touches—spliced Grandsire and Stedman—at King's Norton; then a visit to the carillon at Bournville, whose keyboard proved too great a temptation for some members. A very pleasant evening was spent at St. Martin's with members of the local band.

On September 3rd we visited Walsall, where we were encouraged to read on a peal board that on October 17th, 1859, a 'true and excellent peal of Grandsire Majors, 5,007 changes, was rung in one lesson.' Despite this encouragement, Little Bob Royal went west after 26 minutes, after which we rang a quarter-peal in the same method by way of 'prep' for our next lesson. We greatly enjoyed this fine twelve, also lunch at the George. We were interested to note here that on February 4th, 1861, 10.032 Grandsire Majors was rung in excellent style, also on June 20th, 1843, 7,248 Grandsire Majors was rung in a masterly style—our style had been too quick, and for our quarter-peal we tried to 'go slow and strike,' which policy proved more successful in ringing than in some other spheres. Walsall possesses two churchwardens and two foreign wardens, of what nationality we did not discover. It also has a peal board recording on October 25th, 1809, 5,040 Bob Majors, on the Grand National Jubilee.

Tamworth, our next tower, more appropriately records in 1913 a peal for the 1,000 year millenary of Tamworth Castle. This tower possesses a most convenient arrangement of two spiral staircases arranged round one newel. This is not immediately obvious to the visitor, and if a peal band were to notice a hostile crowd coming up one stair, they could silently descend the other stair. On the way from Tamworth, one car load nearly came to blows on the question whether such a stair could have both its bottom doors at the same level or not. Peace prevailed, and we enjoyed the pleasant eights at Sutton Coldfield and Erdington. In the evening we had a good time at St. Mary's, Selly Oak, and finished up with a business meeting, at which we decided to hold the 1948 week at Manchester if possible.

On September 4th some took part in a peal attempt at Willenhall, followed by a course of Cambridge Royal, whilst others rang at Lye, on England's lightest eight—the tenor weighs 3½ cwt. and the treble 60 pounds. The bells have to be rung 'wrong clappered' or the clappers will not strike hard enough. Despite these difficulties, several touches were more or less successfully completed. Then to the fine eight at St. Thomas', Stourbridge, and an enjoyable ring at Brierley Hill. The undersigned 'scribe' had to leave at this point, and takes no responsibility for the accuracy or otherwise of what follows.

Undismayed, the rest lunched at Dudley. At Wednesbury, Cambridge Royal, etc., were rung on a fine ten recently rehung by G. and J. At Coseley, hidden in the Black Country, the eight rehung by Taylor in 1936 provided enjoyment, as did tea kindly provided by some of the local band. A poem on the wall, including 'He giveth water for His thirsty children to drink,' aroused feelings of more or less sympathy amongst various readers. At Halesowen the Ringing Master was not unnaturally surprised to hear Cambridge, etc., emerge from the tower, as he had not been advised of our visit. Birmingham Cathedral that evening provided another welcome opportunity to ring with local members.

On September 5th, Holy Communion was celebrated by B. F. Sheppard for members at St. Mary's, Selly Oak; a very successful morning followed for the 14 who now comprised the party, as between them they rang a peal of Bob Major at Edgbaston and Cambridge Minor on the back six at Selly Oak. After lunch the fine 12 at Aston were rung to Stedman Cinques and Caters, also Little Bob Royal with the back bells in the 'Tittum'—one of B.P.'s novelties. London, etc., followed at Bishop Ryder's, and in the evening there was a visit to St. Peter's, Harborne, five of whose bells are by William Bagley, 1691.

On September 6th a good peal of Double Norwich was rung at St. Chad's. This was officially the end of the Guild week, but some members were privileged to take part in a peal of Stedman Caters at St. Philip's that afternoon, for the St. Martin's Guild, and some remained for Sunday morning.

We had too few members, we felt, to attempt a twelve-bell peal, but the week was highly successful, and we were most grateful to the weather, the local ringers, our very kind hosts at Primrose Hill, to the various tower keepers, the car drivers, and to F.E.H. for his organising.

A. G. G. THURLOW.

North Wales Association

16 MEMBERS ELECTED AT RHYL MEETING.

Forty members from Bangor, Llandudno, Abergele, Hawarden, Buckley, Gresford, Wrexham and the local band, together with visitors from Frodsham, Wolverhampton and Leek enjoyed a successful meeting at Rhyl on September 6th.

A service was held in St. Thomas' Church, conducted by Archdeacon Roberts, assisted by the Rev. Harris Jones. At the business meeting in the vestry, Archdeacon Roberts was elected to the chair. Sixteen ringers were elected members, including 13 ringers from Abergele, who have rejoined the Association. The Rev. Harris Jones was elected an honorary member.

Mr. A. J. Hughes was appointed to represent the Association at the next meeting of the Central Council. Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hopwood, of Buckley, on the occasion of their golden wedding.

Several suggestions were put forward to alter the organisation of the Guild, and a resolution passed that these be put on the agenda for the next annual meeting. Some concern was expressed at the lack of interest shown by a number of towers in North Wales, and it was decided to approach the Bishops of Bangor and St. Asaph for their co-operation.

A splendid tea, provided by the local ringers, was enjoyed. Full advantage was taken of the fine ring of eight bells. All tastes were catered for with methods from rounds, Grandsire, Stedman and Kent Major. The duties of Ringing Master were ably carried out by Mr. F. R. Evans, of Wrexham.

A WEEK-END IN LINCOLNSHIRE

For many years the late Mr. Rupert Richardson entertained his ringing friends to a week-end at Glyn Garth, Surfleet, and this year Mrs. Rupert Richardson kindly sent invitations, the objective being a peal attempt at Lincoln Cathedral, arranged by Mr. John Freeman, and the dedication of an electric chiming clock in St. Lawrence's Church tower, Surfleet, which was given by Mr. Rupert Richardson, he having placed the order during his lifetime.

The Birmingham and Coventry contingents arrived at Surfleet on Friday, and the London contingent on the Saturday. After a substantial lunch, three cars set out for the 38-mile drive to Lincoln, where tea was provided by Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman. At the Cathedral the other members of the peal band had already gathered, and the visitors were welcomed by the Cathedral ringers.

The peal, Stedman Cinques, was successful in 3 hours and 47 minutes, and it is interesting to note the band represented Guildford 2, London 2, Newcastle-on-Tyne 1, Spalding 1, Leversock Green 1, Coventry 1, Lincoln 1, and Birmingham 3.

Following the peal, the visitors were again entertained to a substantial meal at Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman's. It was midnight by the time the company reached Surfleet. Visitors from Guildford, Newcastle-on-Tyne and H. C. Spencer, of Birmingham, who had journeyed by train direct, spent the night at Lincoln.

On Sunday morning the Surfleet contingent rang at Surfleet and Gosberton Churches for services at 10 and 11 a.m. respectively. At 3.30 p.m. a large congregation assembled at St. Lawrence's Church, Surfleet, for the dedication of the clock, many ringers being present from neighbouring towers and Lincoln Cathedral; also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray, who had motored the 80 miles from Burton-on-Stather.

The dedication service was conducted by Canon P. C. A. Carnegie, Vicar of Spalding, who commenced with the words: 'We are met together to dedicate to the glory of God the clock of this church, which is the gift of His servant, Rupert Richardson, who has now entered into his rest. He was known, respected and loved by all of you, and his memory will remain green far beyond Surfleet for many years to come.' After the address the clock was set in motion at 3.59 p.m. by Miss Pat Wayman, granddaughter of the donor, assisted by Mrs. Richardson, the clock striking the four quarter chimes and the hour 4 p.m.

The chimes, which are very pleasing, are an arrangement by the late Henry Law James, one time Vicar of Surfleet, and strike on bells 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 of the ring of twelve, the hour striking on the tenor bell.

After the service a course of Stedman Triples was rung over Rupert Richardson's grave by G. F. Swann, F. E. Pervin, A. H. Pulling and A. Walker. The tower bells were also rung to various touches on 12, 10 and 8 bells.

Tea was kindly provided by Mrs. Richardson and Enid on the spacious lawn at Glyn Garth, approximately forty friends being present. Afterwards handbell ringing—Stedman Cinques, Treble Twelve, Erin and Double Norwich Major—previous to ringing for evening service on the grand eight at Pinchbeck Church.

Afterwards again to Glyn Garth, where farewells were said to Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman and their two sons, John A. and P. Michael Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. C. McGuinness, Walter Ayre, A. H. Pulling, A. H. May, Miss Fiddell, and to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray. Also to the local ringers, with many thanks to Mrs. Richardson and Enid, who had so generously and warmly entertained them.

The Birmingham, Coventry and London visitors returned home on Tuesday morning with many expressions of gratitude for a very good week-end, such as Rupert would have wished it to be.

A. W.

SWINDON.—On Sept. 7th, at Christ Church, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: W. W. Daniell 1, Miss M. E. Richards 2, Miss N. Davis 3, W. Carter (conductor) 4, J. Berry 5, C. J. Gardiner 6, G. Wells 7, E. Vincent 8.

Thames Valley Ringing Tour

Saturday, September 6th, started one of the most successful and happy ringing tours one could wish for. We arrived at our headquarters, Maidenhead, on Friday night, where we were welcomed by Mr. G. Martin, our guide for the week, who proved to be a mine of information. He seemed to know at least every third person we passed as well as the history of all houses, private as well as public. The ringing started on Saturday, when we rang Stedman, the first peal on the eight bells at Cookham, Berks.

Sunday morning saw us at Boyne Hill for service ringing. An invitation to dinner by Mr. and Mrs. E. Gosling followed. After tea with Mr. and Mrs. Birmingham we rang for evensong at Slough, following up with after service ringing at Stoke Poges.

Monday saw us with our guide at Bray, across the ferry, and along the towing path back to Maidenhead, then by bus to Farnham Royal, Bucks. Here we visited the graves of Mr. W. H. Fussell and Mr. J. J. Parker. We rang for the wedding of Mr. F. Rolfe (a member of the Clewer band) and Miss Bowyer, afterwards scoring our second peal, Bob Major.

Tuesday started with us trudging along behind our guide (his legs never seemed to tire) to White Waltham, then by bus to Twyford, Berks, where we rang 5,008 Double Norwich.

Wednesday we were off again by bus. This time to Shiplake in Oxfordshire. Here we rang Middleton's Cambridge Major. After the peal some renewed their acquaintance with a very old friend, Mr. O. Porter, now well past active ringing, a man (to borrow an expression from Canon Coleridge) full of years.

On Thursday morning we were steaming merrily down the river in lovely sunshine to Windsor, then by bus to Boyne Hill, Berks, where we were welcomed by the Vicar. Here we rang Kent Treble Bob. A jolly good peal was the verdict of Bob Reed, who listened outside, and that, coming from him, should satisfy anyone.

A peal of Yorkshire at Wargrave was Friday's programme.

Our week finished on Saturday at Marlow, where we were welcomed by Mr. F. Nicholls. Here we tapped off Superlative in well under three hours. This was the 565th tower in which Mr. F. Bennett had scored a peal, three more than the record set up by the late Mr. R. Pye.

After lunch came the farewells. A week week and truly spent. New friendships made, old acquaintances renewed and many more happy memories to store away and yarn about in days to come. Our thanks go to Mr. H. Wingrove and Mr. G. Martin, the organisers of the tour, on which we rang seven peals each in a different method, not one failure, not even a false start. Happy days. C.A.L.

SHEFFIELD AND DISTRICT SOCIETY SIX-BELL COMPETITION.

Last held in 1938, the revival of this competition at Old Whittington Church, near Chesterfield, on September 6th, proved a great success. Competing teams on this musical ring of six, tenor 5½ cwt., were from Bolsover, Whiston, Handsworth, Dronfield, Sheffield Cathedral and the local company. The test was 360 changes in any Minor or Doubles method.

Mrs. F. Ditcher and Mrs. D. Kelly were appointed judges, and the contest was completed in time for tea, which was held in the Church Hall and attended by 50 ringers and friends, including the Rector (the Rev. A. R. W. Andrews).

Adjudications were as follows: 1 Handsworth, 34 points; 2 Old Whittington, 37; 3 Sheffield Cathedral, 42. The Rector congratulated the winners and presented to them the Society's silver cup and a copy of 'Bells Thro' the Ages', the gift of the president. The awards were received by the team's captain, Mr. J. L. Gilbert. H.O.C.

Lancashire Association

WIGAN BRANCH MEETING.

When the Wigan Branch met at Christ Church, Aughton, on September 6th, the Vicar conducted the service, during which the hymn, 'We love the place, O God,' was sung. An additional verse had been provided by the Vicar as follows:—

We love the tower above,
Wherein the church bells ring
To call us to Thy love,
Thy glorious praise to sing.

About 40 ringers and friends sat down to tea, which was provided by the church.

The Rev. J. Roberts, Liverpool, proposed and Mr. J. Booth, Wigan, seconded a vote of thanks for the use of the bells, the service and the tea, and coupled to this were thanks to Mr. J. S. Webb, of Chester, for playing the organ.

Methods rung were Grandsire, Plain Bob, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Stedman, Cambridge, London and Superlative Surprise.

Altogether it was a very good meeting, but a few more Wigan Branch members attending would have been appreciated. N.H.

BEVERLEY AND DISTRICT CROSS THE HUMBER.

A pleasing innovation of crossing the Humber and bringing Lincolnshire and Yorkshire ringers together was the meeting at Barton-on-Humber on September 13th. Two rings of eight were available—St. Peter's (tenor 12 cwt.) and St. Mary's, where four additional bells have recently been added and the whole rehung on ball bearings to make a musical eight with tenor 16 cwt.

A sincere welcome to the Society was extended by the Rev. Gordon Sylvester (Vicar) at the service held at St. Mary's. A good meat tea was followed by a touch of Grand-sire Caters on handbells by Yorkshire and Lincolnshire ringers to introduce members to the business meeting, at which Mr. G. F. Williams presided.

Business transacted included election as member of Mr. Harry Nicholson (Kirk Ella); next meeting, October 11th, at Burstwith, and suggested venue for November meeting Kirk Ella. Acknowledging a vote of thanks to local ringers, Mr. A. Hoodless said it gave them the utmost pleasure to receive the society. This was endorsed by Mr. Jack Bray, who on behalf of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild hoped it would be the prelude to many joint meetings.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD IMPENDING RESIGNATION OF WEST DORSET SECRETARY.

A quarterly meeting of the West Dorset Branch was held at Netherbury on September 13th, when about 30 members attended from Beaminster, Bridport, Evershot, Lyme Regis and Netherbury, including visitors from Martinstown, Upwey, S. Cadbury and Queen Camel.

Service in church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. M. McAnally), who gave a warm welcome to the ringers in the course of a helpful address. An ample tea provided by the local ringers was all the more appreciated in that it had involved the sacrifice of some of their own ratings.

At the business meeting, the branch chairman, the Rev. C. Carew Cox, apologising for the absence of the hon. secretary, Mr. C. H. Lathey, read a letter from the latter asking members to be prepared to accept his resignation after 17 years' service at the next annual meeting. This prospect met with great regret. Bridport was agreed upon for the annual meeting on December 6th, and all towers were urged to send in members' subscriptions before that date.

Votes of thanks were accorded the Vicar and all who had assisted in making the meeting successful. The weighty and musical ring of six bells was kept going during the afternoon and evening, giving everyone a chance of practice from rounds to London Surprise Minor.

Mr. Denis A. Bayles Married

The wedding of Mr. Denis A. Bayles, of Acle, Norfolk, to Miss Margaret Elliott, of Chester-le-Street, took place at the Church of SS. Mary and Cuthbert, Chester-le-Street, on September 13th. The Rev. W. Bentley, curate of St. Michael's, Bishopwearmouth, and formerly curate at Chester-le-Street, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Peter F. Bayles, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Miss Margaret Gardner, cousin of the bride, bridesmaid.

Prior to the bridegroom taking his present appointment at St. Albans, he was employed in Chester-le-Street district, where he was an enthusiastic member of the belfry.

Among the guests present at the reception was Mr. R. L. Patterson, president of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association. The bells were rung as the happy couple left the church.

ST. DAVID'S DIOCESAN GUILD

A quarterly meeting of the Guild was held at Llanbadarn Fawr on September 13th, where the ringers were met by the Vicar, Canon D. J. Jones, and the captain, Mr. W. J. Harris, who extended a very hearty welcome to the ringers on their first meeting at the historic church of Llanbadarn.

After the service the ringers and company were entertained to tea at the Church Hall, where 70 sat down to a very nice tea, which was greatly appreciated.

At the business meeting two honorary and three ringing members were elected. A hearty welcome was extended to Mr. F. Sharpe, of Oxon, who also gave a very encouraging speech to the Guild. Thanks were extended to the Vicar and all the good people who provided such a nice tea. The ringers then returned to the tower to finish off a very happy meeting.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

It was a glorious summer afternoon when many ringers made their way to the old-world Shropshire village of Claverley and its historical church for the quarterly meeting of the Guild on August 23rd.

The Vicar and ringers welcomed the parties and the lovely bells were soon going. The service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. G. H. Rainbow, who gave a most appropriate address. The party of 80 then adjourned to the Recreation Room for tea.

The secretary announced that the company were the guests of the Claverley ringers; in appreciation a collection amounting to £3 12s. 6d. was taken and handed to the Vicar for the use of the church. Before closing the meeting with prayer the Vicar asked all to stand in silence and remember the late Albert Prestage, an old Guild member of Netherton.

Towers represented were too numerous to mention, and members of the following societies attended: Herefordshire, Shropshire, Worcestershire, Staffordshire, North Staffordshire, St. Martin's (Birmingham) and Ancient Society of College Youths. Handbell and tower-bell ringing continued till dusk, and two local ringers kindly ran a 'shuttle service' with their cars to the nearest bus route.

OBITUARY

MR. THOMAS W. CHAPMAN.

The death of Mr. T. W. Chapman, of Nuneaton, occurred on Sept. 13th, the date of his golden wedding. Mr. Chapman had been in failing health for the last five months due to a seizure which rendered useless his power of speech. Another seizure a week before his death rendered him unconscious, and he passed peacefully away without fully regaining consciousness. He leaves a widow, one son (Mr. S. T. Chapman, of Nuneaton) and a daughter (Mrs. T. H. Payne, of Worcester).

Mr. Chapman was in his 80th year and for over 60 years he rang at Nuneaton Parish Church, serving also as a sidesman for many years. He would often recount the early struggles of the Nuneaton Society to ring Grandsire Doubles for Sunday services and how they progressed until Surprise Major was the rule rather than the exception.

A good all-rounder, Mr. Chapman as a teacher was unsurpassed. The present band at Chilvers Coton owe much to his patient endeavour. Whatever the ringing had been, for peal, practice, or service, Tom loved a good fall in peal, and to see him lower the treble so faultlessly, and to hear his famous 'Don't thrash 'em about,' are things which will long be remembered.

Blitzed out of Nuneaton in 1941, he resided with his daughter in Worcester until May this year, when he returned to Nuneaton. He was a Freeman of the Coventry Diocesan Guild, of which he was a founder member. He also served the Guild as Ringing Master 1924-1930. Although his peal records were destroyed, he is known to have rung 119 (including the 12,896 Cambridge Surprise Major) for the Midland Counties Association and 193 for the Coventry Diocesan Guild, of which latter total he had conducted 11. His first peal was rung at Nuneaton Parish Church on April 13th, 1889, and his last at the same tower on July 15th, 1946.

The funeral took place on Sept. 16th. A short service in the church he loved preceded the interment in Nuneaton Cemetery, the Vicar (the Rev. F. S. Herbert) officiating. The bearers were Messrs. A. H. Beamish, J. E. Moreton and J. Lloyd, of Coton, and G. J. Stoneley, of Nuneaton. In addition to the family mourners a number of friends followed, including Mrs. D. E. Beamish, hon. secretary of the Guild, and Mrs. H. Billington (Nuneaton). Ringers present were L. J. Hinde and F. Ashley (Bulkington), J. Beale (Wolvey), F. Brassington, G. Freeman and A. Roberts (Stoke), W. Aldridge (Nuneaton). A course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the grave by H. Summers 1-2, J. H. White 3-4, F. E. Pervin 5-6, and J. Taylor 7-8.

In the evening the bells of the Parish Church were rung half-muffled to a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples, those taking part being L. Trevor 1, Mrs. D. E. Beamish 2, J. E. Moreton 3, J. Dravcott 4, G. J. Stoneley 5, J. Gibbons 6, E. H. Stoneley (conductor) 7, J. Thompson 8. A.H.B.

MR. FRANK NEWMAN.

A well-known Essex and Metropolitan ringer, Mr. Frank Newman, of Upton Park, died on September 14th, aged 73. He was one of the oldest members of the College Youths.

His first peal, Kent Treble Bob, was rung on February 13th, 1898, and of those who participated only two are now alive—Mr. T. H. Taffender and Mr. A. W. Brighton. Mr. Newman was a member of the old West Ham band, of which the only survivor is Mr. G. Haydon, who still rings, though advanced age (87) does not allow him to do much.

Messrs. T. H. Taffender, G. Dawson, G. Faulkner, C. Fenn, G. Haydon and R. W. Stannard attended the funeral at the City of London Cemetery, Manor Park, on Friday, September 19th, and it was noticed that another ringer, Mr. H. T. Pye, of Colchester, a brother-in-law of deceased, was amongst the mourners. R.W.S.

REV. D. W. W. CARMICHAEL.

By the death of the Rev. D. W. W. Carmichael, M.A., Vicar of Tenterden, Kent, at the age of 67 years, St. Mildred's Church ringers have lost a good friend. He had been Vicar of Tenterden for 13 years, and anything he could do for the ringers he was always pleased to do.

MR. JOHN MARDELL.

The Peterborough Diocesan Guild has sustained a great loss by the death of Mr. John Marcell at the age of 78. He was not only captain of the Sulgrave ringers, but, writes the Rev. W. S. Pakenham-Walsh, he was recognised as one of the leading campanologists in the diocese.

He will indeed be sorely missed not only in his own home circle, and in the garden where he was such a skilled and faithful worker, but also in the larger life of the church and village. He not only called people to the church services with his bell, but he was a regular worshipper and communicant himself and thereby set all a fine example.

The large number in the church at his funeral on August 16th was an eloquent testimony to the respect in which he was held, and in the congregation were bellringers from Helmdon and Lois Weedon, who placed a wreath upon his grave and then joined with the Sulgrave ringers in a muffled touch.

MR. BERTRAM WINDMILL.

For over 50 years a regular service ringer at St. Mary's, Hendon, Middlesex, Mr. Bertram Windmill died on Sept. 7th in his 71st year. Of late owing to ill-health he was unable to attend regularly.

The funeral was at Hendon on Sept. 13th, and in the evening at the Parish Church the bells were rung half-muffled—the whole pull and stand 71 times by R. Charge 1, P. Holman 2, F. A. Barker 3, B. Begrie 4, E. Prackett 5, W. Barnard 6. Followed by 1,440 Bob Minor (half-muffled) by F. Cherrett 1, R. Charge 2, G. Charge 3, B. Begrie 4, E. Prackett 5, F. A. Barker (conductor) 6.

LICHFIELD SEE THEIR NEW BELLS

Ringers from Lichfield, with ringing friends from Tamworth, had their outing on Sept. 6th. Loughborough Foundry, the objective, was reached at 3 p.m., where the party were met by Mr. J. P. Fidler, who conducted them round the works. Great interest was shown in the new bells for the Cathedral.

The foundry bells were tried out. Some difficulty was found in 'getting the touch' of this light ring. Eventually several touches were brought round.

After tea at The Eagle, the Parish Church was visited, and its fine ring of ten was soon off to Grandsire Caters, Bob Royal, Stedman and Bob Major.

A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Fidler, who was largely responsible for a successful outing.

JOINT MEETING AT YATELEY

Two Guilds, the Winchester and Portsmouth and Guildford, sponsored the meeting at Yateley on August 30th, when ringers attended from Aldershot, Ash, Bramley (Hants), Basingstoke, Betchworth, Feltham, Godalming, Guildford, Horsell, Highclere, Hugglescote (Leics.), Seale, Sherborne St. John, Sandhurst, Walton and Yateley.

The importance of ringers setting a good example was stressed by the Rev. E. L. Oliphant in his address at the service. A company of 72 sat down to an excellent tea arranged by Mr. Riddell and the Yateley band, whose efforts were much appreciated. Sandhurst and Hawley towers were available after tea, and good use was made of the bells. The methods rung ranged up to Cambridge and London Surprise.

LETTERS

AMBITION

Dear Sir,—In reply to the critics who exclaim that modern youth has no ambition, I would like to draw their attention to the tour described in 'The Ringing World' two weeks ago.

I was glad to observe that it was obvious that the persons concerned did not practise the abomination of 'tower grabbing,' but were on tour for the sake of ringing and experience.

They showed every sign of great ambition when they dared, with a band of average age 18, to ring at heavy towers like Sherborne Abbey, Queen Camel and Wells Cathedral. The lads these days do not seem so keen on ringing heavy bells, but there was obviously none of that in this party. They surprised many tower captains by their age and ability as they first surprised me, but when they left, had I been 40 years younger, I would have been proud to have joined them.

In this way I imagine their tour is unique.—Yours faithfully, A. DRYAS.
Herston, Dorset.

LITTLE BOB MAJOR AT RUNCORN

Dear Sir,—I see that the footnote to the peal of Little Bob Major rung at Runcorn on August 30th describes it as the first peal of Little Bob on the bells. May I point out that the second peal of Little Bob ever rung was rung on these bells on September 19th, 1911. It was the first exact 5,000 of Major to be rung in five equal parts, and was called by yours, etc., EDWIN H. LEWIS.

Moat Farm Cottages, Pitstone, Leighton Buzzard.
Mr. George R. Newton, who took part in the 1911 peal, adds: The first peal in the method was rung at Brading, Isle of Wight, and was conducted by the Rev. E. Bankes James, who first introduced the method.

FALSE PEAL OF TREBLE BOB ROYAL

Dear Sir,—I have been asked by Mr. E. Timbrell to offer his sincere apologies for the false peal rung at Preston. Quoting from his letter, he says that he must have omitted to prove the peal. The conductor (Mr. C. Crossthwaite) also wishes to state that the peal will be replaced as early as convenient.—Yours faithfully, E. R. MARTIN.
Preston.

Dear Sir,—I agree with my friend C. W. Roberts regarding the faleness of the Treble Bob Royal composition by E. Timbrell, but the courses involved are 2nd and 10th and 5th and 7th, and not as stated.—Yours sincerely, Croydon. FRANK E. DARRY.

Other correspondents have pointed out this slip.—Editor.

GREAT TEY BELLS

The rededication of the bells of St. Barnabas', Great Tey, Essex, on September 6th, was performed by the Rev. Johnston, of St. Leonard's, Colchester, who was assisted in the service by the Rev. Chute. The work, which has been carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, consists of the whole ring being provided with new ball bearings, a new iron headstock for the tenor, a new wooden stock for the third, with new clapper stables for third and fourth. New pulley wheels were also provided and all ironwork painted. Another £20 is needed. Towards the cost the Essex Association voted £10 and the collection at the service was £7 5s.

The bells were opened in rounds during the service by the local ringers. After the service touches of Cambridge, Kent Treble Bob, Bob Major and Grandsire and Stedman Triples were rung. Ringers were present from Brentwood, Thorington, Sudbury, Earls Colne, Pehmarsh, Coggeshall, Wormingford and St. Albans. Tea was provided in the Village Hall for all ringers. J.W.D.

READING'S BELLS

From the recently published Part X. of 'The Church Bells of Berkshire,' by Mr. Frederick Sharpe, can be pieced together the romance of 'Harry' or 'Kelsall,' the tenor of the ring of 12 at St. Laurence's, Reading. For five centuries no expense has been spared either to keep these bells in ringing order or to make alterations to the ring in accordance with the fashion of the time.

While it is known that there were three bells in this church in 1433, 'Harry' was consecrated in 1499. The first recasting was in 1567, but its weight was such that additional metal was required for the bells. In 1579 a ring of five was provided, the fourth and tenor being recast, the latter bell having a weight of 34 cwt. 1 qr.

The bells of St. Laurence's were frequently cracking, caused through 'clocking' (tying a rope to the clapper and pulling the latter against the side of the bell), so much so that the following resolution was adopted at the vestry meeting of 1593: 'Whereas there was through the slothfulness of the Sextine in times paf, a kind of toling ye bell by ye clapper rope: yt was now fforbedden and taken away: & that the bell should be toled: as in tymes paf: and not in anie fuch Idle forte.' 'Kelsall' was recast by Joseph Carter, the celebrated bell founder, who was then churchwarden in 1594-5. In 1646, Joseph Carter's 'lowd' tenor became cracked, whether or not on this occasion through the slothfulness of the sexton, we are not told, and was recast in the following year.

An important step forward was the decision of the Vestry in 1662 to recast the five bells into eight tuneable bells, using the same metal. The two largest bells were again cracked in 1703, and eventually recast, and it was on these bells that the first recorded peal in Berkshire was rung—Grandsire Triples in 1734. A ring of ten was introduced in 1748 by recasting the eight and adding two lighter bells. The tenor by now had been reduced in weight to 23 cwt.; four of these bells are in the present ring of 12.

History of these famous bells in modern times tells of how the Rev. C. Kerry in 1881 found them in a deplorable condition and that they had not been rung for several years. Three of the bells, including the tenor, were recast and the dedication and reopening ceremony was on February 21st, 1882. The augmentation to 12 was as recent as 1929, when the ring underwent a thorough restoration. It was through the enthusiasm of the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn and Mr. R. T. Hibbert that the £180 was collected for the two new bells within the space of two months, and Mr. R. T. Hibbert conducted the first twelve-bell peal in Berkshire on April 21st, 1930. Has any tenor been recast more times in the history of bellringing?

be sent without delay to Mr. H.
J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road,
Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

The death of Thomas Chapman, of Nuneaton, is a great loss to his many friends in the Exercise. A peal which had been arranged in honour of his golden wedding on September 13th was rung as a thanksgiving for 60 years' ungrudging service to ringing. The peal was rung within a few hours of his passing.

The first peal of Belgrave Surprise Maximus has been rung by Mr. George E. Fearn's company at Birmingham.

Will conductors sending in peals please curtail footnotes to bare essentials? The space situation is critical!

The Rev. C. O. Ellison, Vicar of Wetherby, has been elected president of the Yorkshire Association. The report of the meeting at Barnsley will appear next week.

The first meeting of the Grimsby District at Caistor since 1933 was held on August 30th. The Guild Master (Mr. J. A. Freeman) and Mr. W. Ayre received a warm welcome.

Mr. F. Dench informs us that the method called Bristol Royal that appeared in our issue of September 19th was first published in the first issue of 'The Ringing World' (March 24th, 1911) by the late Rev. E. Bankes James.

Very impressed were 'old stagers' at the promise of beginners who attended the ladies' practice meeting at Stanford-le-Hope, Essex, recently. Miss Chinnery was thanked for making the arrangements.

Mr. Herbert O. Chaddock 'circled' Whiston tower by the peal on September 13th. Another 'circler' is Mr. Frank C. May, who accomplished this feat at Rettendon, Essex, on the same day.

Mr. Albert Walker was in a new role at Shirley, Birmingham, on September 15th. He 'stroked' the tenor to a peal of Grandsire Triples, while Mr. E. C. Shepherd shepherded four firsts of Triples.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The finest handbell achievement to date was the performance last Sunday at Leicester of a peal of Cambridge Maximus, conducted by Mr. Harold Poole. The company included P. J. Stanforth, Jill Poole, W. P. Whitehead, A. Ballard and E. Whitehead.

Mr. A. H. Pulling has retired after 39 years as caretaker of the Guildford Royal Grammar School. Owing to housing shortage, Mr. and Mrs. Pulling are still living at the school.

Twenty-six ringers turned up for practice on a recent Monday at St. John's, Hillingdon, and after a couple of touches the 9th clapper broke. It has now been repaired.

Mr. Edward J. Lindley, secretary of the Cambridge University Guild, rang his 50th peal at Ewhurst on September 13th. Congratulations!

Mr. Vic Hemus has succeeded in breaking down local prejudice and started a new band of change ringers at Malmesbury. He will be remembered prior to the war as a member of George Fearn's band at Birmingham.

Congratulations to Mr. E. Morris upon his recent feat of ringing the tenor in the peal of Minor at Lulington, Derbyshire. It is believed to be 34 years since Mr. W. W. Worthington's band rang these bells to the last peal of Minor.

Two weddings were celebrated by the peal at St. Mary's, Leyton, on September 13th—Mr. James Albert Bullock and Miss Rose Quinell at Dagenham, and the Rev. J. Morgan James, curate of Leyton, to Mdlle. J. Hoffman de Visme at St. Mary's, Leyton.

Mr. A. J. Ford, who has been associated with Bury St. Edmunds ringers, is shortly returning to Australia. The peal in the Norman Tower on September 13th was a farewell to him and a 65th birthday compliment to A. E. Moore, who rang the treble.

N.E. YORKSHIRE AND S. DURHAM TOUR

A week's ringing tour in N.E. Yorkshire and South Durham, which concluded on Sept. 6th, produced 10 peals out of 14 attempts. One failure was due to a rope slipping the wheel at Northallerton, and the other three losses could be put down to physical strain due to lack of reserves. Ten ringers accepted Mr. J. E. Cawser's invitation to take part in this tour, but it was regretted that Mr. W. E. Critchley, of Doncaster, could only be present part time, thus a heavy strain was put upon the remaining nine ringers.

The party met at Thirsk at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 30th, and commenced by scoring a good peal of Yorkshire Major on the old bells there, most of which were cast in the 15th century.

After lunch a move was made by road to Northallerton, where an attempt for London was made. It soon became obvious that the band had to be fully awake to the job they had in hand; for not only were there one or two bad going bells here, but the 5th had a tendency to slip wheel occasionally even though rung with a tight rope, and once the treble ringer had to retrieve his rope from off the top of the clock case behind him. Despite these adverse conditions, a good beat was maintained, but with the end well in sight after 2½ hours' ringing, the 5th rope slipped again and the bell set at back-stroke. This put an end to what may have been considered the best performance of the tour. After a very fine tea at a nearby cafe, the party moved on to Middlesbrough, where they made their headquarters for the following three days at the Corporation Hotel.

On Sunday morning the party was cordially welcomed in the tower of St. Hilda's, Middlesbrough, by the Vicar and local ringers. After a course of Bristol, a touch of Stedman Triples was rung with two of the local band standing in. In the afternoon, the party went to Ormesby, some three miles out of town, and scored a good peal of London on the delightful Taylor eight there. A good touch of Stedman was then rung for Evensong with the local towerkeeper standing in.

Monday proved the most strenuous day of the week, for peals of Bristol and London were brought round on two heavy rings of eight. At Skelton-in-Cleveland, where the peal of Bristol was rung, three of the party put in a good hour's work on the ropes before the peal could be attempted. Eventually a start was made only to come to grief after 40 minutes owing to a change course, but the band seemed so determined to score a peal on this fine eight that a fresh start was promptly made and a good peal was brought round in 3 hours and 36 minutes.

At Saltburn the party were cordially greeted by the Vicar, even though they were then two hours behind their scheduled time. This very fine eight, although a little too noisy in the ringing chamber, were soon set going to London, but a fresh start had to be made after two courses owing to the tenor rope breaking beneath the sally. This was soon remedied by our ex-R.N. friend, who proved that his services in the Navy had not been entirely wasted. It was perhaps fortunate that Mr. J. C. E. Simpson had been asked to call this peal, for no other voice present could have penetrated the noise of these bells, but at least he did have the satisfaction of silencing his critics by calling a peal of London from a working bell.

Tuesday morning found a rather tired band attempting a peal of Pudsey Major at Middlesbrough. After two or three false starts the party adjourned for lunch and made a fresh start at 1 p.m. After a short interview with the local Press, when a couple of photographs of the party were taken, a start was made and eventually a peal was brought round. In the evening a peal of London was lost at Thornaby owing to a change course.

On Wednesday morning an early start was made for West Hartlepool, where the band had the satisfaction of scoring a peal of Yorkshire Royal, being the first peal in the method by all the band except the conductor. In most cases it was the first touch in the method. An attempt for London in the afternoon was lost at St. Aiden's, West Hartlepool, a light but musical eight, after an hour's ringing. It was at this point where it became noticeable that the strain due to lack of reserves was telling its tale. There were many very sore hands which called for careful treatment, such as yards of Elastoplast and handkerchiefs woven into the rope ends.

The Imperial Hotel, Darlington, was chosen as our headquarters for the remaining three days of the tour, and the party duly moved in on Wednesday evening. The next day found the ringers at Sheldon, where they did not find any difficulty in obtaining a beat on this pleasant ring of eight, tenor 16 cwt., by Taylors. Here a good peal of Bristol was scored, but once again the afternoon attempt failed, this time Norfolk at Bishop Auckland after an hour. Even after three losses in three days the band still considered they were equal to Spiced Surprise. This they rang in masterly style on the old ring of eight at Richmond, the writer having the pleasure of listening to every blow. Again it fell to Mr. Simpson's lot to call A. J. Pitman's most recent and difficult composition for the third time within two months, no other composition being available at the time. This proved a particularly pleasing performance, for three members of the band earned 'stars' for their first peal of Spiced Surprise.

At this juncture Mr. Simpson had to leave for home, which left the band seven strong, Mr. J. L. Millhouse also having left for a prior appointment. This gave the remaining party the opportunity to assist Miss Killingley, of Richmond, to score her first peal at first attempt—Bob Major—at Catterick, ably conducted by Mr. Leonard Trevor.

To wind up the tour a peal of Norfolk was decided upon at St. Cuthbert's, Darlington. This was successful on this fine new ring of eight by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, 1937, the band being particularly grateful to Mr. G. F. Newton for standing in at short notice.

Sincere thanks are extended to the many ringers who met and welcomed the visiting ringers at the various towers, also the clergy and towerkeepers for placing the bells at their disposal. In particular most sincere thanks are extended to Mr. Addison, of Middlesbrough, for the Yorkshire arrangements, and to Mr. W. N. Park for the Durham arrangements. The touring band wish to accord Mr. J. E. Cawser their most sincere thanks for the arrangements he made for their help and comfort during the whole week. He organised everything to the last detail, and they feel that they ought not really to have lost those three peals, as he left them nothing to do but—ring!
R.G.E.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

The autumn meeting of the Eastern District was held at Howden on September 6th and was attended by about 50 ringers, representing 21 towers, with visitors from Norfolk and Oxfordshire.

A short service in church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. T. G. Kitchen), who gave the address. An excellent tea was followed by the business meeting, presided over by the vice-president, Mr. A. H. Fox. Miss Patricia James, of Sedburgh, was elected a member. An invitation to hold the next meeting at Selby was accepted. A comprehensive vote of thanks to the Vicar, local company and ladies serving tea was proposed by the chairman, seconded by Mr. F. W. Dale, and supported by Mr. P. J. Johnson, and the Vicar responded.

A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund realised £1 ls. 6d. The secretary was asked to write to Mr. W. Pearson, of Pontefract, expressing sympathy with him in his illness and hoping for his speedy recovery.

OBITUARY

THE REV. E. S. POWELL.

The sudden collapse and death of the Rev. Everard Slade Powell, M.A., while ringing at Sheffield Cathedral last Sunday evening, is deeply regretted by his wide circle of friends and the Exercise generally. He was 71.

Mr. Powell was a scholar of Christ Church, Oxford, and had a brilliant university career. He was ordained in 1899 and held three livings—Holberton 1906-28, Clyst St. George 1928-33, and Staverton, Daventry, 1933-1946. He retired at the end of last year and made his home at Stoke-under-Ham, near Yeovil.

To ringers all over the country Mr. Powell is known as the author of 'The Ringer's Handbook,' one of the most popular of the instructional books, which has sold in its thousands.

From 1935 until he left the diocese last year the Rev. Powell was Master of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild. He proved himself to be an ideal Master, and the gratitude of the Guild was expressed to him and Mrs. Powell at the last annual meeting in the form of a presentation and testimonial.

MR. JAMES COX.

The death is announced of Mr. James Cox, of the Oldham (St. Mary's) Parish Church Society, on August 23rd, after a long illness. Mr. Cox was interred at Chadderton Cemetery on August 26th. Several ringers attended the funeral service at Oldham Parish Church.

MR. J. A. HART.

We regret to record the death, which took place suddenly on September 25th after working in his garden, of Mr. James Alfred Hart, of 27, Alexandra Road, Uckfield, Sussex. For over 40 years Mr. Hart had been captain of the Uckfield ringers. He celebrated his 77th birthday on September 1st last and his golden wedding last June.

MR. A. E. WEBB.

We regret to record the death on September 16th as the result of a road accident the same day of Mr. Albert Edward (Teddy) Webb, of Brecon, a member of St. David's band and of the General Committee of the Swansea and Brecon Diocesan Guild. He was carrying out his duties as a postman when the cycle he was riding came into collision with a motor-car.

Mr. Webb, who was 54 years of age, was very popular in his district. The funeral service on September 20th at St. David's, Brecon, was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. Davies), assisted by the headmaster of Christ College. The large congregation present included the Mayor of Brecon, the Member of Parliament (Ald. T. E. Watkins), and the Swansea and Brecon Guild were represented by Mr. A. Matthews (Master), Mr. D. G. Williams (general secretary), Mr. D. H. Bennett (district secretary) and Mr. M. Howcroft. There were over 100 wreaths, including a tribute from the Diocesan Guild.

After the service the bells were rung half-muffled, and in the evening a quarter-peal half-muffled by M. Howcroft 1, A. Matthews 2, G. Hardwick 3, G. Davies 4, D. H. Bennett (conductor) 5, D. Stokes 6, C. Morgan 7, R. Chambers 8. It was the first quarter for 1, 4, 6, 7 and 8.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Twenty members and friends attended the evening meeting of the South and West District at All Saints', Fulham, on September 18th, when owing to local restrictions the bells could only be rung for about an hour. Of the ten bells, only eight were in use, the trebles being under repair, but some good ringing was accomplished under the supervision of Mr. F. A. Finch (Ringing Master). Methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Triples. Double Norwich and Cambridge.

National Police Guild

The annual meeting for 1947 was held at Birmingham on September 20th, and was well attended by members and friends from all parts of the country. Lunch and tea were provided at Police Headquarters.

A company of 115 sat down to lunch, at which Mr. E. I. Dodd (chief Constable of Birmingham) presided. After the loyal toast he extended a very cordial welcome to the Guild. He showed a keen interest in ringing, and it is understood that he will be further enlightened by a prominent Birmingham ringer.

He also kindly undertook to adorn the worthy president, Inspector H. Poole, with an insignia of office, in the form of a suitably inscribed silver bell, the gift of ex-Supt. C. P. Hilton, of Surrey, and ex-Sergt. A. Lawrence, of Herts.

Ex-Supt. Williams, of Manchester, fully recovered from the illness which compelled his absence last year, welcomed the guests and visitors, notable amongst whom were the Rev. E. H. Waddleton, Mr. Albert Walker and the ever-green and ever-present J. W. Jones, of Newport.

The business meeting followed, at which Insp. H. Poole presided. He spoke of the happy renewal of friendships so well established. Referring to the absence of successful police peals during the year, he said that peals were not all that mattered.

The officers were re-elected and nine new ringing members and two life members enrolled. An invitation to Manchester for the next meeting was gratefully accepted and (d.v.) will be held on September 18th, 1948. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Hilton for their generous gift to the Guild.

Ringing opportunities were available for all and were fully exploited, not without incident. A worthy vice-president's bell went over the top, allegedly due to a cracked stay. A northern member with bold effrontery completed a bridal photographic group, shook hands with the bridegroom and kissed the bride on an assurance that the bells were being rung for the wedding. All this was accepted in the right spirit with characteristic good humour.

Sincere thanks were expressed to the Chief Constable for his support and the use of the Police Canteen, and to P.C. L. Tuffrey for arranging a splendid lunch and tea and a most enjoyable social evening. Great regret was expressed at the absence of Bill Dowding, who, ignoring anno domini, was said to have been gathering fruit the previous day and to have come down the tree by a quicker route than intended, with painful results. H.G.J.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

The quarterly meeting of the Swindon Branch was held at Purton on September 13th, and ringers were present from Blunsdon, Lydiard Millicent, Malmesbury, Swindon, Stratton St. Margaret, Rodbourne Cheney and Wootton Bassett, together with members of the local band. Various methods up to Cambridge were rung, and tea was provided at the Vicarage by Canon and Mrs. Willis.

At the business meeting a welcome was extended to Mr. Hemus and party from Malmesbury, where an attempt is being made to form a change ringing band. It is proposed to hold the next three meetings at Malmesbury, Wootton Bassett and Christ Church, Swindon.

Bristol Surprise Extensions

BY GEORGE BAKER.

Many years ago the late Arthur Craven gave the true extensions of Bristol Surprise Major to Royal and Maximus in 'The Ringing World,' and there is no question whatever that he gave the true extensions.

Following are the first ten changes of Bristol Surprise Major and the same place making on ten and twelve bells.

Major	Royal	Maximus

Lead Heads: Major 14263857. Royal 13527496*8. Maximus 17953240486.

It is useless for anyone to deny that the placemaking is not the same on 8, 10 and 12 bells so far as the first ten changes are concerned, and if we want to make a double method of the Royal, all we have to do is to reverse the place-making of the first ten changes as shown, and the Maximus then follows naturally.

In Bristol Surprise Major the bells are in proper coursing order in front and behind, and they are also in Royal and Maximus.

Mr. Bramble's so-called extension to Royal does not conform to that rule.

WHITLEY BAY 'OPEN DAY'

More than 60 people attended an 'open day' at St. Paul's, Whitley Bay, Northumberland, on September 20th, visiting the belfry and seeing something of the art of change ringing.

A talk on change ringing was given by Mr. Richard A. Gofton, during which he mentioned some of the achievements of Whitley Bay—the first peal of Spliced Surprise Major on May 14th, 1924, and a peal on handbells of London Surprise Major by the four brothers Gofton on November 3rd, 1920.

Mr. Gofton stated that the present band—half of whom were recruited since 1944, were now ringing service touches of London Surprise Major, and he hoped that they would continue to make progress and re-establish the tower in its former pre-eminent position in the Association.

Bagshot Bells Restored

The ring of eight (tenor 17½ cwt.) at St. Anne's, Bagshot, Surrey, has been restored, and the reopening ceremony took place on Sept. 20th, when a company of 60 ringers was present and expressed satisfaction at the work of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston.

After the choral service, conducted by the Rev. R. Gibson, the visitors were entertained to tea through the generosity of a Bagshot ringer. The congratulations of the company were voiced by Mr. C. W. Denyer (Ringing Master of the Farnham District), to the Vicar, Parochial Church Council and local ringers on their pluck in having the bells restored. It was now, he said, a pleasure to ring the tenor, whereas previously it needed a great deal of effort.

Mr. G. L. Grover (Guild secretary) also spoke in appreciative terms of the work, and his remarks were endorsed by Mr. F. J. Ewens (Camberley) and Mr. F. Stone (Blackmoor).

Mr. J. Corbett (Bagshot) thanked all who had spoken so well of their efforts. A considerable sum of money (£245) was required, but during the summer efforts had raised about £140 and now greater efforts for money raising would be made.

Mention was made of the long service to Bagshot tower by Mr. Nye (47 years) and Mr. Corbett (51 years), and the wish was expressed by Mr. H. Hunt that they would live many more years to enjoy the music of the bells. Three ringing members from Farnborough and one from Yorktown were elected.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

A very successful meeting of the South-West Branch was held at Kelly on September 20th, supported by ringers and friends from Plymouth (St. Andrew's and Emmanuel), Plympton (St. Maurice's and St. Mary's), Bridgerule, Stratton, Petrockstowe, Okehampton, Marham church, Carbis Bay, Lifton and Kelly.

The bells were rung to rounds, touches of Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Kent and Cambridge.

A service in church was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. B. M. G. Reardon). A collection for the Guild's Bells Restoration Fund amounted to £1 3s. 9d. Seventy sat down to an excellent tea.

The business meeting which followed was presided over by the branch chairman, the Rev. H. E. Bennett. Plymouth Emmanuel, January 17th, 1948, was chosen for the annual meeting.

The chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector and ringers for such an enthusiastic welcome to Kelly, and expressed the meeting's pleasure at having with them the Guild president (Preb. E. V. Cox), Mr. F. C. Smale (general secretary), the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Roberts, and so many of our friends of the North-West Branch.

Ringing in the standard methods was also enjoyed at Bradstone and Milton Abbott.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Some useful work in helping members of the local band was done during the meeting of the Cambridge District at Bottisham on September 13th, attended by 15 members. At the business meeting, presided over by Mr. Lack (Great Staughton), Mr. E. W. Brown (Cambridge) was elected a member. It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Ickleton. The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. P. Russell).

Ringers' Outings

ST. PETER MANCROFT.

A large party of ringers and friends had an outing to Cambridge on September 6th. At the Roman Catholic Church of Our Lady and the English Martyrs the long draught of this fine eight proved less embarrassing to Mancroft ringers. At St. Andrew's the best use was made of an indifferent eight. Various methods up to Treble Twelve were rung at Great St. Mary's, where opinions were divided as to which is worse—a long draught or a long staircase. After tea Cambridge Minor was rung on Fabian Stedman's bells at St. Benet's. On the way home Double Norwich was enjoyed at St. Mary's, Ely. Thanks are expressed to Mr. Nolan Golden for his efficient organisation and to the steeplekeepers.

BRISTOL RINGERS.

After getting lost in the Stroud Valley, the SS. Philip and Jacob's Guild, Bristol, reached Painswick, the objective of their annual outing, on September 13th. A pleasant hour was spent ringing Stedman Cinques and Treble Bob Maximus.

Then followed a short run back to Stroud for tea, with some more Cinques and tunes on handbells to aid the digestion. A move was then made to St. Lawrence's Church, where some excellent ringing was indulged in of Bristol Major, Stedman Caters, Treble Ten and Cambridge Royal.

RODBOURNE CHENEY.

Rodbourne Cheney ringers held their annual outing on August 30th and were accompanied by ringers from Christ Church, Swindon, Bunsdon, Chiseldon and Compton. The first stop was Beckington, where the long draught did not suit the young ringers. Mr. J. T. Dyke joined the party here and accompanied them to Corsley, where various methods were rung. Tea was at Warminster and here acquaintance was renewed with ex-Sergt. Norman Knee, who spent some months in the Swindon district during the war. Ringing at Codford and Shrewton ended the programme, the best ringing of the day being at the last tower. W.B.K.

WARMINSTER.

On September 13th, 24 ringers and friends from Warminster and Longbridge Deverill had a long day's tour of North Somerset. Heavy rain was experienced through Bath to Keynsham, the first stop. Here they were met by the Vicar, the local ringers and the reporter for the local newspaper (also a ringer). Grandshire Triples with some rounds and call changes for a fledgling making his first trip was rung.

From Keynsham the party went through Bristol to the charming little village of Portishead, with its strikingly pretty churchyard, and a very trim well-appointed belfry, whose peal boards record the popularity of the tower among the ladies. The pleasant, easy-going eight were rung to Grandshire and Stedman. A most picturesque drive by the coast and down narrow lanes brought the party to Clevedon by mid-day. The light eight here were much to the liking of all. Lunch, an excellent meal, was enjoyed here, and at Congresbury the heavy men were given the task of ringing up the 38 cwt. tenor and then ringing it down again to get it up right. The bells, a lovely eight with a most noble tenor by Bilbie, were successfully turned in to Plain Bob.

A half-hour run brought the band to Weston-super-Mare, where after tea there was ringing on the easy-going light at St. John's.

Evening was come when Blagdon was reached after a lovely ride through Somerset lanes and woods, but here a combination of new ropes and long draught proved too much for most of the party. Still undaunted, the band set out for the seventh tower of the day at Chewton Mendip, but, unfortunately, the wrong road was taken, and the village was not tracked down until 9 p.m., when the church was deserted, not surprisingly, and no ringing could be enjoyed. C.N.P.

LETTERS

YOUTH ON TOUR

Dear Sir,—As the contributor of the report of the ringing tour, 'From Winchester to Marlborough,' which appeared in 'The Ringing World' of September 12th, I should like to thank Mr. Dryas for his letter and kind remarks. I am glad to note that not all the writers in these columns attempt to split hairs, and, further, that some ringers have recognised and appreciated the aims of those junior members of the fraternity who took part in the tour.

All of the tourists, without exception, gained in some way. We all improved considerably our knowledge of Hampshire, Dorset, Somerset and Wiltshire; we made many new friends and acquaintances and made progress, to varying degrees, in the art. We experienced the pleasure of entering new towers and gained much valuable physical exercise.

The towers on the list were arranged in order that we might visit them comfortably, and we averaged four per day. It was gratifying to be told, as we were at several towers, that it was good to hear the bells again, for in many country churches a band of ringers is not always forthcoming.

In conclusion, I should like to say that I am sure the band would have been honoured by the company of Mr. Dryas had he been able to join us.—Yours sincerely,

ROGER O. FRY.

Bath, Somerset.

BEOLEY BELLS TO BE REHUNG

Sir.—Readers of 'The Ringing World' may be interested to know that the 14th century tower of Beoley Parish Church, which has been unsafe for a considerable period, is to be repaired, and at the same time the bells are to be rehung in a modern cast-iron frame by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston. The ring consists of six bells and was broadcast at Christmas, 1943.

The details are as follows: No. 1, founded by R. Sanders, 1708; No. 2, H. Oldfield, in 1622 (this is the only Oldfield bell left in Worcestershire); No. 3, R. Sanders, 1709; No. 4, Newcombe, 1611; No. 5, Rudhall, 1789; No. 6, Hugh Watts, 1601.

The church is famous for its association with the illustrious family of Sheldon, who introduced the art of tapestry weaving into England in the 16th century. Many of this family are buried in the church, and their names are on three of the bells.

The work of rehanging the bells and repairing the tower will cost £1,450, and we are advised to aim at raising a further £150 as a contingency sum.

This parish of 770 people has raised £1,400 in a year, and the Appeal Committee now hope that lovers of the art of bellringing may feel disposed to help us. Mr. W. Jackson, Keswick, Birmingham Road, Bordesley, Redditch, is the treasurer of the Appeal Fund.—Yours sincerely,

LEONARD J. BIRCH. Vicar.

ST. PETER MANCROFT BELLS

Dear Sir,—A recording of a plain course of Grandshire Caters was made last July for the background of a talk in a B.B.C. programme featuring Norwich to be broadcast on Monday, October 13th, at 6.50 to 7.30.

Copies of the actual recording of the bells will be available at 10s. each if a sufficient number of people desire them. Intending purchasers should let me know as soon as possible.

Incidentally the recording engineer on this occasion was most courteous and acted upon certain suggestions made in order to obtain the best possible recording. In the course of conversation I gathered that he had had considerable dealings with ringers and was fully conscious of their fancies, foibles and prejudices.—Yours, etc.,

NOLAN GOLDEN.

26, Brabazon Road, Norwich.

The Ladies' Guild

EASTERN DISTRICT AT BECCLES.

A most successful meeting of the Eastern District was held at Beccles on September 13th. Thirteen members were present, together with about thirty men. The fine ring of ten bells (tenor 25 cwt.) was put to good use during the afternoon and evening, and ringing ranged from rounds to Stedman Caters and Cambridge Royal, as well as London and Bristol Major. Twice during the afternoon a band of ladies rang the bells to rounds and the men were forced to admit that they were well struck.

Tea was served at the Y.M.C.A., and what a tea! Everyone agreed it was worth coming to Beccles if only for the tea. After tea the vice-president (Miss Snowden) thanked the Rector, the Rev. Rideal, for the use of the bells, and Mr. Goate for making the arrangements, and to the cook who produced the wonderful home-made pastries and cakes.

The Rector replied, saying how pleased he was to see the ladies at Beccles, and Mr. A. Gillings also welcomed them on behalf of the Suffolk Guild.

At the brief Ladies' Guild meeting which followed, one new member was elected—Miss Selina Moor, of Norwich. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Diss, but to leave it until next spring—April 10th or 17th—owing to the transport difficulties entailed by petrol rationing. Good use of the bells was also made during the evening, broken at intervals by ringers who, having had just one more pull, had to make a wild dash for bus or train.

SOUTH CAROLINA

From Charleston, South Carolina, George W. Williams, ex-sergeant in the 377 Infantry, U.S.A., has written to the Vicar of Basingstoke one of those human letters on bellringing's appeal to the stranger. The story starts with Mr. Williams arriving early at a Basingstoke Church for vespers. He writes: 'A gentleman came and opened a side door in the tower and asked if we would like to see the bells rung. We were bewildered and curious and went up into the tower with him. We were even more bewildered when we found ourselves in the ringing chamber, and became thoroughly confused when seven other men joined us. To see the ringers form themselves into a mystic circle and begin their alternating jack-in-the-box antics left us completely baffled. When the bells in the chamber above responded to the urgings of the mystic circle and gave tongue to Grandsire or Treble Bob, methodically and unrelentingly crashing out their coursings, our amazement and delight knew no bounds.'

Next steps in Mr. Williams' story were the reading of Dorothy Sayers' 'The Nine Taylors,' and while at Yale University getting a copy of Troyte's book on change ringing and mastering the principles. To take up his narrative: 'You can imagine my surprise when I discovered of the dozen rings of bells in this country hung to be rung in changes, one was in my own town.' St. Michael's, Charleston, was built in 1761 and equipped with bells cast in England the same year. They were taken down and melted into cannon for the Revolution 1775, recast in England, taken down for the war between the States 1860, again recast in England and returned to their original frames in the belfry in 1869. For the last hundred years or so they have been played as a carillon on important occasions. This year a new electric ringer, in memory of the dead of this war was installed.'

'This summer I was asked to serve as substitute organist for St. Michael's. As soon as I could I wrote out several hundred changes in musical notation of Grandsire Triples. There was considerable interest in the city. Those who had been to England immediately recognised the changes; those who had never heard changes clamoured to know what the jangling was. I was obliged to write a letter to the paper explaining what I had been doing. My letter in turn evoked an inquiry from St. Paul's, Cleveland, Ohio, and I was happy to send the organist there some scores of changes and the rules for making more. When the regular organist returned he was very much interested in what I had done. He is now carrying on the tradition I have re-established at St. Michael's. Thus the art of change ringing is being perpetuated in the United States. Per-adventure, the next stage, the ringing of the bells, will not be too far distant. The seeds are being sown.

Ex-Chief Inspector W. Bottrill, of the Metropolitan Police, of 110, College Road, Deal, is anxious to contact any serving or retired police officers, particularly in Kent, Sussex and Surrey, who are ringers and are not now members of the National Guild of Police Ringers, with a view to their enrolment and arranging a meeting in this area. Regular and War Reserve Police, full-time paid Special Constables, Port, Dock and Railway Police are eligible for membership.

Mrs. Sylvia R. E. Pipe has passed another milestone—her 200th peal. The list should make interesting reading.

Was the peal of Minor at Springfield, Essex, on September 22nd non-conducted? Will sender please reply forthwith giving missing details?

Writes a correspondent: The tenor man in the peal of Bob Major (in hand) at Sittingbourne wanted his first to be steady and long. It was—2 hrs. and 44 mins.

Will the conductor of the peal at Pelsall, Staffs, on September 27th, please notify the Editor if the peal was rung for any association or guild?

At West Ham on September 21st, an attempt was made for a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples in memory of the late Mr. F. Newman, but was lost through a rope slipping the wheel. The bells were not muffed by request.

Miss Mavis Botham, who rang her first peal of Major at Norbury, Cheshire, celebrated her birthday on the same day as her father, brother and twin sister. All were duly honoured by the peal.

The peal of Minor at Coppull, Lancs, was rung by veterans of the Lancashire Association who were all College Youths and Freemasons. After the peal the band visited the Coppull Lodge. At the festive board Mr. J. Booth and his daughter entertained the brethren with tunes on handbells.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Congratulations were extended to Mr. W. P. Garrett (aged 82) at the conclusion of the peal at Ipswich on September 20th on being the first to ring 100 peals of Maximus on tower bells, 98 of which he has rung at Ipswich and the other two at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields and Great St. Mary's, Cambridge.

His peals include 14 different methods, seven of which were Surprise, he being also the one and only to ring in all the first peals of Surprise Maximus on an 'inside' bell. The peal was also rung as a birthday compliment to the Society's esteemed member, Mr. Robert H. Brundle, who reached the age of 96 on Sept. 18th.

Mr. C. Valentine has completed the circle at Frodsham, Cheshire.

Appreciative comments have reached us concerning the ringing of Diss bells last Sunday. One writer recalls his peals on these bells.

Guild and tower librarians would be wise to include Edgar C. Shepherd's 'Double Norwich Court Bob Caters' in their libraries. Books like these are not reprinted.

Different stages in Stedman Cinques were in evidence in the peal at Walsall on September 23rd. It was George L. Roden's first and Arthur T. Dutton's 25th; Howard Howell's 75th of Stedman and 175th peal.

STOP PRESS. — The record peal of 14,144 London Surprise Major was rung in 8 hours and 25 minutes at Heydour, Lincs, on Oct. 4th.

The peal of Oxford Bob Triples at Claines, Worcestershire, was to the memory of Mr. T. W. Chapman, of Nuneaton, who was a very welcome visitor to Claines Church during his stay in Worcester, and to Mr. Robert Matthews, of Stourbridge, the doyen of Worcestershire ringers. They were both well known to each other and much alike in disposition and character.

REV. C. O. ELLISON ELECTED PRESIDENT

The September general meeting of the Association was held at Barnsley on September 20th attended by members representative of all the districts. The bells were available from 3 p.m. and made good use of in a variety of methods while a meeting of the General Committee took place in the vestry.

The general meeting took place at the Royal Hotel, when the chair was taken by the vice-president, Southern District, Mr. Dan Smith, supported by the general secretary, Mr. L. W. G. Morris, and the peal secretary, Mr. W. Barton. Apologies for absence were received from Messrs. P. J. Johnson, J. Ambler, W. H. Senior, W. Ambler and B. Sutton.

Consequent upon the untimely but unavoidable resignation of the president, Canon C. C. Marshall, following an unfortunate road accident earlier in the year, the election of a successor was the principal business before the meeting. The general secretary reported that in accordance with instructions given at the annual general meeting, the sub-committee appointed to interview the Rev. C. O. Ellison, Vicar of Wetherby, had carried out their mission, and had been pleased to report to the General Committee that the Rev. C. O. Ellison had very kindly consented to allow his name to go forward, and, if elected, had promised to do all in his power to uphold and further the interests of the Association, and to prove a worthy successor to Canon Marshall. The committee, therefore, had very great pleasure in recommending that the Rev. C. O. Ellison be elected president.

Mr. W. Barton moved and Mr. E. Hudson seconded, and following supporting speeches by Mr. J. R. Brearley, Mr. E. Hudson and Mr. J. W. Moxon, the Rev. C. O. Ellison was unanimously elected president, and accordingly took over the chair. He was received with acclamation when he rose to thank the members for doing him this great honour, and he pointed out that he could add little to what he had already promised the sub-committee when they approached him, beyond saying that he was keenly interested in change ringing, and that any gifts he possessed would most readily be placed at the disposal of the Association. His first duty, of course, was to his own parish and that alone would have prior claim on his services.

A vote of thanks to the Rector and churchwardens of Barnsley was moved by Mr. L. W. G. Morris, who pointed out that this was the third general meeting to be held at Barnsley within the last ten years, all during difficult times and one in particular midway through the war years. This was seconded by Mr. H. Lofthouse and carried unanimously. A similar vote of thanks to the local company and in particular to Mr. Dan Smith was moved by Mr. W. Barton, seconded by Mr. T. C. Ryder and carried with applause.

A discussion followed on the place and date of the next meeting, during which it was announced that the recast ring of 13 bells at Wakefield Cathedral would be dedicated on October 18th, and if arrangements could be made to hold the January general meeting there, it would give members an opportunity of trying the new bells. Mr. W. E. Critchley moved and Mr. E. Short seconded that the next meeting be held at Wakefield Cathedral on January 17th provided the necessary arrangements could be made. This was carried unanimously.

The President announced that the committee had considered the matter of a suitable memento to Canon Marshall in grateful acknowledgment of his very great work for the Association, and had appointed a sub-committee to deal with the matter. Mr. H. Lofthouse moved and Mr. E. Hudson seconded that the sub-committee be given full power to act and that the appeal be launched forthwith so that November 30th could be given as a closing date. This was carried.

Mr. Eric F. Lunn, of Barnby Don, was elected a member.

RINGING AT CUDDESDON

Most ringers would feel that a theological college situated in a village with a tower containing six bells should be used as a training ground for parsons of the future who could take an interest in bells and have a knowledge of elementary change ringing. At present this is the policy pursued at Cuddesdon.

On the writer's arrival last summer it was found that the bells had not been rung for at least 12 years, as the frames were said to have been condemned, but later this was found to be false. A few of the men of the village had rung in the past, but they said they were badly out of practice, also none of the students could handle a bell. However, we collected a band, and, thanks to the generous offer of a local tower some three miles away, we were able to get our men practising handling a bell, but it was hard work for one man to instruct six novices, especially when the instructor is still in the 'learner' stage himself. But we persevered and at last we tried our first open rounds—what a din! It was no use giving it up at this stage and so we continued to practise, cycling over to the tower once a week. During one practice we met Mr. White, of Appleton, who on hearing of our difficulties promised to come over to Cuddesdon and test the frames, which he duly did, and pronounced them safe to bear the stresses and strains imposed by the bells while they were being rung.

On December 4th, four months after arriving at Cuddesdon, we had our first ring in the tower, when the bells were heard to speak again after so many years. But there were many obstacles, the bells were hung in old frames, the gudgeons did not rest in ball bearings, and it was a great effort to keep the 14 cwt. tenor moving well; the lighter bells were either odd-struck or too badly hung to enable them to be rung with ease, and the ropes were in a very bad condition. Yet these difficulties discouraged neither us nor the members of the old village band who, led by a very steady tenor man, were glad to be back in the belfry once again. And from then onwards there has existed a very happy and successful co-operation between village and college ringers.

Most of the 'change ringing' done was taken from cards hung on a stand in the centre of the ringing chamber, each man following the number of the bell marked on the card, and in this manner it was possible to ring a plain course of Grandsire Doubles. We were greatly helped by the arrival of a student who had spent some time on the early stages in change ringing, and he was able to give considerable assistance, and attempts were made at ringing a plain hunting course, each man following the path of his bell unaided, but with so many learners in the band it was impossible to obtain regular striking, and as a consequence ringers occasionally lost their positions. But we are persisting in this method of learning and it may be hoped that when our ringers, who now compose a band of twenty, arrive as curates in various parishes in town or country, they will with help be able to stand in with the local bands and ring a straightforward method and handle a bell with accuracy.

In conclusion, the writer would like to mention the consistent help and friendliness which he has met with in all ringers, and on his part to say that as our 'ringing parsons' come out into their parishes they hope that they may be at the service of the local band, as their parson and as a fellow ringer, joining in a service to the Church and a pastime which makes a fellowship which is hard to better.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSOCIATION

70th ANNIVERSARY.

The 70th anniversary was celebrated at the annual festival, held in Durham on September 27th. Beautiful autumn weather prevailed and some 70 members and friends participated. Service was held in the Cathedral, and an address was given by the Bishop of Durham (Dr. A. T. P. Williams), who welcomed the Association to the Cathedral and expressed his pleasure at being with them. The Cathedral organist, Dr. Conrad W. Eden, was at the organ and rendered Purcell's 'Bell Anthem', which, in this massive building, was most impressive.

A meeting of the committee was held in the men's singing room in the Cathedral cloisters, and the Cathedral bells were in use during the afternoon.

At the annual meeting, the president, Mr. K. L. Patterson, was in the chair. Apologies were received from the Bishop of Durham, the Dean of Durham and the Cathedral organist and from Miss J. S. Armstrong, Messrs. G. A. Pickering, K. Arthur, J. Smith, M. D. Oubridge, Canon A. B. Parry-Evans, W. J. Davidson, E. A. Gallimore and North Shields ringers.

The secretary's report showed that 27 peals had been rung during the year ended August 31st, in which 79 members took part. A pleasing feature was the number of firsts and the youth of some of the participants. Nineteen members had scored their first peal, amongst them Harry Surtees, aged 12, and Kenneth Pickering, aged 15.

The treasurer's statement showed a balance in hand of £116 6s. The 71st annual festival was to be on September 25th, 1948, in Newcastle, and it was decided to hold a half-yearly meeting in Sunderland in March, to be known as 'Joseph W. Parker Memorial Meeting', and to be held on a date as near as possible to the late Mr. Parker's birthday. A vote of thanks was moved for the retiring officers by Mr. J. Anderson, seconded by Mr. G. W. Park, and carried with acclamation.

The following officers were appointed: President, Mr. W. N. Park (Darlington); secretary, Mr. J. A. Brown (Chester-le-Street); treasurer, Mr. J. Ainsley (Sunderland); editorial secretary, Miss M. Fidell (Whitley Bay); auditor, Mr. J. F. Bird (Newcastle).

An excellent dinner was provided, at which the guest of honour was the Bishop of Jarrow (Dr. C. J. Dunlop), who has more than a passing acquaintance with the art. The president introduced the Bishop to the members and called upon him for the toast of 'The Association'. The Bishop gave a most stimulating and instructive address, during the course of which he suggested that the Association might with advantage get in touch with several of the colleges in the dioceses where teachers were being trained, with a view to giving a series of lectures.

The thanks of the meeting were expressed to the Bishop by the president. An entertainment followed, by Paxton Lynn, the genial member of the Magic Circle, and Mr. Robert H. Gibson, tenor whose rendering of 'The Holy City' and 'English Rose' were greatly appreciated, the proceedings being brought to a close by a course of Grandsire Caters on handbells.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

A fitting tribute to the late Mr. J. Armiger Trollope was paid by the district's vice-president, Mr. A. W. Coles, at the meeting of the North and East District at St. Augustine's, Kilburn, on September 20th, and those present suitably acknowledged by standing in silence.

Four non-resident life members were elected, these being Mr. E. E. Whitmore (Raunds), Mr. G. Watson and Miss E. Walklate (Burton Latimer) and Mr. W. H. Southard (Truro). Ringing took place at Kilburn and Willesden.

OBITUARY

MR. F. S. BAYLEY.

The death took place at his home at Fareham, Hampshire, on September 26th, of Mr. Frederick Shelburne Bayley, F.I.C., after a long illness resulting from a flying bomb destroying his former home at Meon.

Coming from a Kent family, his early ringing career was spent mostly in that county, becoming attached to St. Alphege's, Greenwich, amongst other towers. On going to London, being a College Youth, he was a regular attendant at St. Paul's Cathedral and had vivid memories of John Murray Hayes and James Pettitt. He rang several peals at St. Paul's when the late William T. Cockerill rang the tenor single-handed to peals of Maximus.

Later he made his home in the provinces and became a member of St. Mary's, Portsea, conducting the first peal of Stedman Triples by the local band in 1897. For a time he gave up active interest in ringing, but took it up again 20 years ago.

Mr. Bayley was a very proficient striker and method ringer and took part in the first peals of Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Pudsey and Spiced Surprise by the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild. He also took part in the first peal of Yorkshire Surprise Major by the College Youths, which was rung at Curdridge, Hampshire. He had a charming disposition, and both he and Mrs. Bayley were never happier than when they were in other ringers' company.

The funeral service was held at Fareham Parish Church and cremation followed at Southampton. The Diocesan Guild was represented at the funeral by Messrs. G. Williams (Master), F. W. Rogers (hon. general secretary), W. Linter (hon. general treasurer) and W. Rowe (North Stoneham). F.W.R.

MR. ROBERT MATTHEWS.

The Worcestershire and Districts Association and particularly the Northern Branch have suffered a grievous loss by the sudden death of Robert Matthews, of Wordsley and Wollaston, on September 21st, after his return from a visit to Southport. He was at the Northern Branch annual meeting at Clent on the previous day, and his sudden death has been a great shock to all his friends who were with him at this meeting.

Bob Matthews was in his 69th year, and he was a great ringer and conductor, but he was an even finer man who gained the affection of all who met him by his genial disposition and his great unselfishness, for he was always just as willing to stand in a peal attempt or attend a practice for beginners as he was to take part in Spiced Surprise.

Until a few years ago he was a prolific peal ringer and had rung over 600 peals, more than half of which he had conducted. Included in these were 9,728 Superlative Surprise Major at Clent and 10,176 Double Oxford Bob Major at Brierley Hill, which latter is still the record length in this method. He had been a vice-president of the Association since 1927, and among other offices had held those of Master and Central Council representative.

The funeral took place at Wordsley, Staffs, on September 25th, and among those present at the church were Messrs. Albert Walker, George Fearn, E. Alloway and J. F. Harvey (St. Martin's Guild), F. Colclough (Dudley and District Guild), and representatives from the following towers in the Worcestershire Association: Selly Oak, Oldswinford, Stourbridge, Wollaston, Netherton, Brierley Hill, Halesowen, Wordsley and Kidderminster. The bearers were Messrs. John Bass, C. W. Cooper, William Gibbs and C. Skidmore, and handbells were rung at the graveside by Messrs. J. Bass, A. Walker and G. Fearn.

The bells at Wordsley were rung before and after the service, and during the evening half-muffled ringing took place at Brierley Hill, Stourbridge and Wollaston.

MR. JAMES PRESTON.

For many years a ringer and sexton at Kirkby Mallory, Leics., Mr. J. Preston died at Syston, Leics., on September 14th. Visiting ringers remember Jim and his wife living in the little cottage where there was always a cup of tea and a piece of cake available.

The funeral was at Kirkby Mallory on Sept. 18th. As a mark of respect the bells were rung half-muffled on Sept. 21st to 1,440 Plain Bob Minor by E. Sowman 1, T. H. Wright 2, G. Highton 3, F. Baileys 4, J. William Reynolds 5, F. R. Deacon (conductor) 6.

MR. HARRY STREET.

With the passing of Mr. Harry Street, St. Mary's, Walthamstow, band has suffered yet another loss in its ranks. Although Mr. Street was not keen on ringing peals, he was most regular in his attendance at the belfry on Sundays and practice nights, and was a safe ringer in most standard methods. A compositor by trade, in his early days he was apprenticed to Harvey Reeves, the founder of 'The Bell News,' and this was his introduction to our art, which held his interest for the greater part of 50 years. He died on Sept. 28th and was laid to rest at Walthamstow Cemetery on October 2nd. H.R.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION NORTH-EASTERN DIVISION.

Thirty members and visitors from Leytonstone, Galleywood, Newmarket, Sudbury and Hadleigh attended the meeting at Harwich on September 13th. The Vicar (the Rev. J. S. Hole) conducted the service, and a collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to 15s. 6d.

Harwich shrimps figured on the menu for tea. The Vicar presided at the business meeting in the absence of the Master (Mr. C. Ellis), to whom the secretary was asked to send a letter of sympathy with wishes for a speedy recovery. Mistley was chosen for the annual meeting in January.

NORTHERN DIVISION.

An enjoyable meeting was held at Great Easton on September 6th, although the small attendance was disappointing considering the beautiful day. The bells were ringing before the service, which was held in the church, conducted by the Rector (Canon Widdrington), and Miss H. G. Snowden was at the organ.

Tea was served in the Village Hall by the local ringers and their wives, and this was followed by the business meeting. The District Master (Miss H. Snowden) presided. A joint meeting with the Suffolk Guild was discussed, and it was agreed that next summer would be a better time to arrange such a meeting.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION WESTERN DIVISION AT OTLEY.

The quarterly meeting was held at the Parish Church, when a good attendance was recorded from a large area. Methods ranged from Plain Bob to Cambridge Surprise. The service was conducted by the Rector of Leathley in the absence of the Vicar of Otley. Tea was served in the schools by the members of the Mothers' Union.

The business meeting was held under the chairmanship of the vice-president (Mr. P. J. Johnson), who introduced the new president-elect, the Rev. C. O. Ellison, Vicar of Wetherby, who, having qualified for ringing membership, was duly elected a performing member of the Association. Thirteen other new members were also elected.

The meeting accepted with regret the resignation of Miss L. K. Bowling, who is leaving the district, from the committee, and it was hoped that Miss Bowling would carry with her happy memories of her association with the Yorkshire ringers. Miss Bowling thanked the members for their kind wishes for her future, and said she would remember with gratitude all the help that had been given her by the members of the Association.

Miss P. E. M. Barton was unanimously elected to the committee.

London University Tour Kent

37 TOWERS VISITED.

Fourteen members of the London University Society and three very welcome guests (not only because they had cars) met for the Society's Second Annual Ringing Week, held in Kent in the last week of August. Based on Folkestone, a fully-mechanised unit carried out highly successful ringing operations in 37 towers over a 30-mile radius of grand country in glorious weather.

The avowed object of the tour—that everyone should accomplish something he had never done before—was not forgotten, and, on the whole, very usefully achieved. People who arrived only in the round-ringing stage were soon trebling to Grandsire and Plain Bob with the best of them: a number of others got 'inside' and kept there; and although London Scholars' Pleasure belied its name to some, most got the measure of it by the end of the tour, and some well-struck touches of Oswald Delight, Original and Carshalton Bob Triples came to mind among the rather formidable collection of new methods previously set for homework by the Master.

Of the four peal attempts, the first (at Folkestone) was not so much lost as strategically abandoned: a rather mixed band had not shaken down sufficiently to do justice to this fine but heavy-going eight. The successes—Plain Bob at Cheriton and Kent at Lydd—were perhaps most notable for the gratifying number of 'firsts.' Bob Royal at Leeds came to grief after two hours—which was a great pity, since one unbiased listener was certain that it was quite the best striking of the whole tour.

More memories than can possibly be recorded here will doubtless enliven many an empty hearth during the coming winter: the detached wooden tower at Brookland, for one, built out of fotsam and jetsam from the seashore, and whose curiously atonic five were persuaded to render Stedman Doubles in the Hindemith Variation. This strange assortment of hardware, by the way, is visible as well as, decidedly audible from the ringing floor—a useful purgatory, one might suggest, for nattering conductors. Then there was the very sporting six at Lymington, rung from the chancel, and the equally tricky tinklers at Burmarsh, rung from a most exiguous vestry; the grand five at Eastry, surely one of the heaviest fives in the country; and then the cryptic telegram from London, which arrived too late to warn us off the bells at Wye, the front three of which magnificent eight were rung stayless and regardless.

The Society is most grateful to Mr. Willis, of Folkestone, for very helpful and active interest; to Mr. Peter Small, of Canterbury, for unfailing moral support, and unerring dragomanship in his home town: to our chauffeurs, who coped efficiently and patiently with the whims of the tower-grabbers and some abominable map-reading by their passengers.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

A happy welcome was extended to the Society when they held their meeting on September 27th at Liversedge, whose ringers hold the Barnsley and District Shield and the Halifax and District Cup for good striking, etc.

The bells were rung up in peal at 3 p.m., and ringing continued until 4.45 p.m., when a splendid tea was arranged by the local ringers and wives. After tea handbells were rung in the Institute, while others wandered back to the tower to further enjoy the tower bells until the business meeting.

The president was chairman, supported by members from Armley, Batley, Drighlington, Guiseley, Leeds, Pudsey and friends from the Halifax Association.

Thanking the ladies for the excellence of the tea, Mr. John McGlenn said it was a grand effort in these times of rationing. The next meeting will be at Rothwell on October 25th.

LETTERS

NUMBERS FOR TEA AT MEETINGS

Dear Sir,—Cannot something be done about those ringers who make a practice of turning up for tea at meetings without having informed the secretary beforehand? Such thoughtlessness not only causes inconvenience, but often extra work and expense for those responsible for arranging the catering. No one objects to the odd half-dozen, who through unforeseen circumstances arrive for tea without notice, but when you get twenty, thirty and even more, this is going too far. If branch officials would insist that only those who have sent in their names get tea, then I feel sure it would go a long way towards making ringers realise their obligations in this connection.—Yours faithfully,

FRED BENNETT.

Wombourn, near Wolverhampton.

SHERBORNE TENOR AND THE LADIES

Dear Sir,—A recent week-end I spent at Sherborne. On enquiry I was informed that a Bath lady, believed to be Miss Williams, also a Bristol lady, had previously rung the Abbey tenor single handed.

Rambling on to the south of Sherborne, I saw in the middle of a farm field a tower covered with ivy. Investigating, I found it to be the remains of a small church and churchyard (tower and gravestones with part of the boundary wall only existing). In the tower there were three bell frames, and lying at the bottom the remains of two headstocks, all age worn.

In a small church on the main road, which I found being swept out for harvest festival service, I found three bells, one hung for tolling (now in decay), two by the font, one cracked and one good (approximately 3 to 4 cwt. each). There is no inscription or date.

'CURIOUS.'

LITTLE BOB AT RUNCORN

Dear Sir,—I regret that I made a mistake in claiming that the peal of Little Bob at Runcorn rung on August 30th was the first on the bells, but this information was supplied to me by the local ringers and the claim was made in good faith.

I learn with interest that the second peal in the method was rung at Runcorn and apologise for my error.—Yours faithfully,

Upton, Chester. J. W. GRIFFITHS

CONGRATULATIONS!

Dear Sir,—May I be permitted, through the medium of 'The Ringing World,' to offer my personal congratulations and also those of the other ladies in this district to Mavis Whitehead on the peal of Cambridge Surprise Maximus before attaining her 14th birthday. Well done, Mavis, and best of luck in your future efforts. I was very much hoping to ring in the peal and was greatly disappointed at having to withdraw from the band through indisposition.

Congratulations also to Kathleen Tilley and Alan Cattell on ringing in the peal, their first on twelve bells.

JILL POOLE.

KENT SCHOOL INFORMATION WANTED

Sir,—It is good to read of the six copies of 'Elementary Change Ringing' on their way to Long Beach, California. I hope shortly to be forwarding to the same place a history of a famous Norfolk ringing family to a descendant now living there. Doubtless a seventh copy will eventually be needed.

We have heard nothing of recent years of the activities of Kent School. Has the pursuit of change ringing died out or has the secretary of the Society forgotten the existence of 'The Ringing World'? The Kent School should be informed that a record of its efforts would be of interest to us over here.—Yours, etc.,

NOLAN GOLDEN.

Norwich.

Oxford Diocesan Guild

VALE OF WHITE HORSE BRANCH.

An attendance of 33 was recorded at the meeting at Buckland on September 20th, the Rev. C. G. Seymour Melford presiding, supported by Mr. R. F. J. Gilling (branch secretary).

Three Buckland ringers—G. Hooper, C. Haines and J. Hutt—were elected members. Mr. Pryor suggested monthly practices at one tower during the winter months, and after discussion it was decided to hold practices at Buckland on October 4th, November 1st, December 6th and January 3rd from 2 to 5 p.m. Shrivenham was selected for the next meeting.

Thanks were expressed to the Vicar (the Rev. R. W. A. Dowds) for conducting the service, and to the ladies for providing such a bountiful tea. The Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. E. Wigg) gave an encouraging address.

Ringing included the four standard methods and rounds for beginners.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

DORCHESTER BRANCH.

About 60 members attended the autumn meeting at Wyke Regis on September 20th, Canon A. W. Markby presiding.

It was reported that a fund was being started to enable Fordington bells to be rehung. The question of an appeal to the Guild for assistance was deferred to the annual meeting.

A suggestion that every member should subscribe one shilling per annum to a bell fund was also left over until the annual meeting in view of the increase in the annual subscription from 1s. 6d. to 2s. 6d. that operates from January next.

New members elected were the Rev. G. L. O. Jessop, honorary, and Mr. G. Abbot (Wyke Regis).

A vote of thanks to the Rector for conducting the service and the ladies for providing the tea was proposed by Mr. Pink and endorsed by the chairman.

NORTH DORSET BRANCH.

The visit of the North Dorset Branch to Shroton attracted an attendance of 43, including visitors from as far distant as Redruth, Cornwall.

Business at the meeting included the election of Mr. C. Dupe Drayson (Ringwood), a life member, and the Rev. W. R. Mortimer, an hon. member. Subject to permission, the branch annual meeting is to be held at Gillingham in December. Thanks were voiced to the Rector (the Rev. R. M. Taylor), organist and choir for the service, and to those who provided the tea. Ringing also took place at Childe Okeford.

MR. E. MORRIS' LATEST LEICESTER TOWER

Ernest Morris attained another Leicestershire tower to his great total when on September 18th he added a peal at Croxton-Kerrial. This was his second attempt here, the first being 20 years ago when the tenor cast wheel and 'ye peal was lost.' The bells now go very badly and all very erratically; the frame rocks and groans; and it was only by perseverance and 'sweat' that the peal was possible. The second cast wheel frequently and the tenor goes very heavily. But the 5th! Its wheel is all askew and not only tends to cast the rope off, but grinds and jumps about very disconcertingly. It was left to E. M. to manipulate and he went home with a wet shirt.

This completes his 126th tower in the diocese, 125 actually being in the county. There now remains Bottesford (8) and Eaton (6) to be accomplished to complete all possible towers. The 'impossible' ones at the moment are St. Mary-de-Castro, Leicester (8), Church Langton (8), Skeffington (5), Shawell (5) and Stapleford (6). The latter are hung for chiming only.

Norwich Ringers' Outing

This, for want of a better title, describes a new venture. A motor-coach left St. Peter Mancroft on September 13th at 7.30 a.m., filled with ringers from Bergh Apton, Loddon, Mulbarton, Norwich (St. Giles) and St. Peter Mancroft, and Saxlingham Nethergate; others were picked up on the way from Caston, Hingham and Watton. We proceeded rapidly, via Peterborough, to our first stop, Oundle, which was reached about 11.30. Here we enjoyed the use of a fine eight rehung by Taylors in 1934; the ringers of 2 and 3 stand on high boxes to see each other over the clock. Then to St. Mary-the-Virgin's, Tichmarsh, whose fine pinnacled tower contains a grand ring of eight recast by G. and J. in 1913. Then to Thrapston, where we noted that the Rev. F. E. Robinson called the first peal of Stedman on July 6th, 1899.

A coincidence took place here. One of our members produced a column cut out of 'The Evening News' of the previous day, in which it was noted that, amongst other old public house games, that of 'Ringing the Bell' still survived at the Fox Inn, Thrapston. Naturally we gravitated thither, determined to play the old game. We found the paper had made a misprint, and the game was actually 'Ringing the Bull'—an ordinary bull ring hangs from the ceiling by a string, of such a length that it is just possible to swing the ring on to a hook on the opposite wall. Clouston, who had first produced the paper reference, succeeded in 'Ringing the Bull' at the third swing, though nobody else got anywhere near! Lunch being at a 'dry' place, our visit to the Fox was doubly profitable.

Then to Raunds, a magnificent church with a fine ring of eight (tenor 22 cwt.) in a grand Early English tower, under the tower arch of which, inside, is a 15th century clock face. F. E. Robinson called the first peal of Stedman here on July 4th, 1899.

Finedon, another magnificent church, notable for its organ in the western gallery, was our next call. The eight here, of which we made good use, were also rung by F. E. Robinson for their first peal of Stedman, on February 7th, 1898. We noted on the wall the names of the ringers and steeplekeeper painted in 1686. On to the Wickstead Park Pavilion, a sort of inland Blackpool, at Kettering, where we had a grand tea. Then at Kettering a touch or so of Grandsire Caters, etc., on a good ten. A fine peal board here records 5,040 Grandsire Triples in 3 hours 18 minutes, on February 28th, 1929.

Our last call was at Peterborough, where the fine recently rehung eight at St. John the Baptist's were made good use of. Finally we arrived home tired, but well content, and determined to run a similar outing next year. We are most grateful to the various steeplekeepers, to George Jeffs, of Thrapston, who made the local arrangements and accompanied us most of the day, and to Nolan Golden for his most efficient organising.

A. G. G. THURLOW.

THE LADIES' GUILD

MIDLAND DISTRICT.

Members from Aston, Birmingham, Castle Bromwich, Desford, Erdington, Leicester, Nottingham and Solihull attended the Midland District meeting at Aston on September 27th, and the bells were rung during the afternoon and evening to various methods ranging from rounds on the twelve to Stedman Caters.

The Vicar of Aston (the Rev. F. F. Warman) gave a short address and a few prayers in the belfry, and a delightful tea was afterwards served at the Holte Hotel. At the business meeting it was decided to hold the next meeting at Shepshed on Nov. 29th. Two new members were elected. It was proposed to send the best wishes of the meeting to Miss Iris Rowley, of Ibstock, for a speedy recovery from her illness.

SUSSEX PONDERERS

Some might regard the Sussex County Association's extraordinary general meeting as 'much ado about nothing.' We think not. The position was an interesting one and might well occur in any Association. The committee, in pursuance of their duties in making arrangements for the annual meeting, ruled that no rail fares or tea allowance be paid to ringing members. Sussex apparently is one of the few associations that in the past has been able to make lavish provision for the entertainment of members. Still more, the subscription of the ringing member is in the form of a block affiliation fee of one guinea, paid in most cases by the Church authority. The committee's decision was objected to at the annual meeting, and a resolution was passed that rail fares and tea allowance be paid. This was not so much on the grounds of parsimony but arose from a fear of being dictated to and the curbing of the rights of members.

Nevertheless, the position of the Master and his committee was untenable. They ruled that they were within their rights in deciding, and the matter was outside the jurisdiction of the general body of members. Before convening the special meeting they did the best possible thing in securing legal opinion upon the interpretation of the rules. Mr. F. S. Tomkins, an eminent Chichester solicitor and a former Master, was consulted, and he gave the opinion that the decision of the committee on these two points could not be revoked by the annual meeting.

Some might argue that the controlling body is the members themselves, and it rests with them to approve or veto the proposals of the committee. A Guild committee normally is appointed to carry out certain functions, prepare reports, arrange meetings and to see to the smooth running of the organisation, and the general principle is that in the absence of special executive powers they report to the members for confirmation. In the Sussex affair there were two principles upon which the committee justified their action. In the first place, it was their duty to make arrangements for the annual meeting and, secondly, Rule X, which reads: 'That third-class return railway fare (with or without limit as may be decided for the current year by the committee of the Association) may be paid to resident ringing members at an annual (or special) general meeting of the Association, provided always that this rule shall become inoperative when the amount of the balance of the general account shall have become less than the sum of £25. The meeting on Saturday concluded on a happy note with a resolution being carried that the committee were within their right in making the decision. The rule is not easy of understanding to the lay mind, and a very useful function the committee could perform would be to redraft the rules and the conditions of membership for the next annual general meeting. The present membership fee—a block tower affiliation to embrace all the ringers practising there—is to our way of thinking unsatisfactory. More practical is the individual subscription; membership always means more if it involves a payment by the member direct.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER

Quarterly subscribers who fail this

Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road,
Gorleston, Great Yarmouth, will be replaced from our waiting list of subscribers.

The Fredericks have rung a name peal at Bedding-ton, which is believed to be the first name peal of Royal. Any corrections, asks Frederick E. Collins?

The quarter-peal at West Clandon on Sept.
28th was the first since 1934. All who rang learned their elementary knowledge of change ringing in the tower, of which Mr. G. L. Grover is the conductor.

The peal of Kent at Chilvers Coton, Warwickshire, on September 29th, marked the rededication by the Bishop of Coventry of the rebuilt portion of All Saints' Church, which will serve as the Lady-chapel of the larger church to be built later.

The day after passing her 17th birthday.
Miss Margaret Ridyard rang her first peal of Kent Treble Bob Royal at Manchester Cathedral. The bells of the Cathedral were rung twice for the enthronement of the new Bishop on October 7th.

A seven-method peal of Minor, in which she participated, was the welcome the Bedfordshire Association gave to Miss Betty Spice, who now lives at Bedford. The peal at Maulden was the 50th together of Messrs. A. C. Sinfield and
C. E. Jeffries, and the latter's 75th peal.

The appreciation of the small party of ringers and their wives from London, Coventry and Birmingham to Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher for the pleasant week-end at Caister has been expressed by the scribe of the party.
Apart from a handbell peal, service ringing took place at Gorleston Parish Church.

An interesting fact concerning the annual peal for the Dudley and District Guild on September 27th was that it was the 200th peal together by the brothers George and Henry Fearn. When they rang their 100th peal together Henry's total of peals was 109. The 200th together brings his total to 209, so his brother has rung in every one of his last century of peals.

BELFRY GOSSIP

One of the youngest to qualify for the grandfathers' peal is Mr. R. W.
Rex, of Donnington, Berks, at the age of 44.
In honour of the christening of the twin grandsons on September 21st, 1,440 Minor (720 Kent Treble Bob, 720 Plain Bob) was rung by M.
Rosier 1, Mrs. S. Brown 2, Miss Stella Davis
3, G. Stocker 4, R. F. Crook 5, R. W. Rex
(conductor) 6.

Latest Surprise method to be rung is Eastcote, credit for which goes to the Middlesex Association, conducted by their Master (Mr.
C. W. Roberts).

St. Andrew's, Derby, have a promising band of young ringers who have rung quarters of Grandsire Triples and Cateters. They have ambitions towards a peal.

Mr. A. W. Searle, of Exeter, has completed his aim of ringing in every 5, 6, 8, 10 and 12 bell tower in Devon where the bells are hung for change ringing. Congratulations are due to him for a unique accomplishment.

Circle completed: Mr. Isaac Emery at Crayford, Kent (his first peal on the bells being in May, 1895).

Thirty-four years ago Mr. C. H. Dobbie and Mr. A. H. Pulling rang their first peal together. The peal at Holy Trinity Cathedral, Guildford, on September 27th, was on the anniversary of their respective wedding days.

This is a noted year for 600th peals. We have already recorded Mr. Albert Walker's and Mr. J. Dyke's. The latest to join them is Mr. George R. Newton, of Liverpool.

Letters of congratulation are to hand regarding the broadcast by eight members of St.
Mary-the-Virgin Society of Ringers, Diss, of touches of Double Norwich Court Bob Major.
Those who rang were W. Musk 1, W. Elsew 2,
A. G. Harrison 3, W. Saunders 4, T. Ford 5,
F. C. Roper 6, W. A. Lock 7, E. G. Bennett
(conductor) 8.

SUSSEX ASSOCIATION PROBLEMS

SPECIAL MEETING TO DEAL WITH FINANCIAL POSITION.

The Sussex County Association held a special general meeting at Brighton on Saturday to straighten out their financial position. A Sussex tradition has been to pay part of rail fares and provide a free tea or allowance for those attending the annual meeting. The committee announced the discontinuance of the privilege at the last annual meeting on financial grounds. The right to make such a decision was challenged at the annual meeting and resolutions were carried that rail fares and tea allowance be paid. The committee felt this decision keenly, maintaining that the rules permitted them to take such action. The Master and his officers also interpreted the decision at the annual meeting as a lack of confidence.

The Master (Mr. F. I. Hairs) presided, supported by Mr. S. E. Armstrong (hon. secretary), Mr. O. Sippetts (hon. treasurer) and the divisional secretaries, Mrs. Hairs, Messrs. G. T. Jennings, J. Downing and E. Treagus, Mr. J. Dearlove (peal secretary) and Mr. R. G. Blackman.

The hon. secretary explained that there were three points. At the annual meeting discussion took place on the subject of the Association's income, and it was decided to urge members to pay a voluntary subscription of 2s., in addition to the tower affiliation fee. Four months had elapsed since the annual meeting, which was attended by 140 members, and the total sum received in voluntary subscriptions was less than £2, which he thought was a disgrace.

The second point was the question of a raffle. At the committee meeting in March a lot of time was spent considering this matter. In previous years they had held raffles, and this year it was exceptionally well supported and cleared about £7. There were objections, but no other way had been found of clearing the cost of the annual meeting.

The third point was the question of rail fares and tea allowance. That was considered by the committee in March, and it was decided to look round and see what economies could be made. It was obvious that the working expenditure and income was not balancing. The greatest cost was the annual meeting, and the item of that which they thought they could justly economise on was the rail fare and tea allowance. It seemed to him that the Association had existed largely during the whole of its life on charity. In the early days there was a large number of honorary members, and when they became tired of dipping into their pockets the Association went bankrupt. For the next few years George Attree paid for the Association out of his own pocket and set it going. They had now £300 in hand, some of which was in the Benevolent Fund, but the main part of this sum had not come from the ordinary ringing members.

After the decision of the last annual meeting that the rail fares and tea allowance be paid, he decided in consultation with the Master and the hon. treasurer to get legal opinion. He wrote to Mr. Tomkins, who used to be Master and was a leading solicitor in Chichester. Rule 10 read: 'That the amount of third class railway fare (with or without limit as may be decided for the current year by the committee of the Association) may be paid to resident ringing members at an annual (or special) general meeting of the Association; providing always that this rule shall become inoperative when the amount of the balance of the general account shall have become less than the sum of £25.'

Mr. F. S. Tomkins, in his reply, wrote: 'Under Rule 3 the General Committee are the governing body of the Association. While it is true that rail fares have been paid in the past, my recollection is that this appears in the notice of the annual meeting, which is prepared by order of the General Committee, and this payment has always been made by resolution of the committee. The committee has executive powers to set the limit of the amount to be paid. . . . I think that the decision of the committee not to pay rail fares or tea allowance could not be revoked by the annual general meeting.'

It was quite obvious, continued Mr. Armstrong, from the decision of the annual meeting, that the committee did not hold the confidence of the general meeting, and that meeting had been called to find a way out of that difficulty.

Mr. Stalham: The main point was that it should be put to the meeting and not dictated to by the committee.

Mr. R. Blackman maintained that the onus was on the committee to keep the Association in a good position. They realised that it was necessary for them to show a slightly increased balance rather than a deficit at the end of the year. On finance there was always two sides—judicious spending or judicious saving. He thought if the money was available it was far better to spend it carefully than not to spend it. As to the powers of the committee, he had always held that the primary object of the committee was to act in an advisory capacity. Very seldom had a committee the right to legislate.

Mr. Armstrong: It is set out clearly in the rules that the committee is the governing body of the Association.

Mr. H. Stalham submitted that the activities of the committee were subject to the confirmation of the annual meeting.

Mr. Armstrong replied that the committee had gone to a lot of trouble and taken legal advice.

Mr. Downing explained that all the committee were concerned with was the making of arrangements for the annual meeting. It was open to members to decide what appeared on the agenda.

Mrs. Hairs contended that in these days it was not a hardship on any member to pay his own rail fare and tea.

Mr. S. White felt it was most necessary that rail fares be paid for youngsters.

In reply to a question, Mr. O. Sippetts said that at the meeting before the cost of rail fares was £5 2s., and at the last annual meeting it was 9s.

The Chairman: The point at issue is whether the committee is the governing body or not.

Mr. Levitt: You elect a committee to serve your interest. They spend a lot of time on it. They are in sole possession of all the facts concerning the financial position, and it was their decision that rail fares and tea allowances be not paid. You have in the past accepted their decision.

After further discussion Mr. W. C. Hart proposed a vote of confidence in the officers, and Mr. Russell, in seconding, said he thought their officers did a good job of work and they ought to support them much better than they did (applause).

The Chairman: There is only one way to show that confidence, by withdrawing the resolution at the last annual meeting.

Mr. W. C. Hart then proposed that the resolution be rescinded.

An amendment, moved by Mr. Stoner and seconded by Mr. A. F. Lewry, that in the opinion of the meeting the committee were within their rights in making a decision on rail fares and tea allowance, was carried by a substantial majority.

A discussion then followed on improving the finances of the Association in view of the expenses of printing the annual report. It was the general opinion that each tower should pay for its copies of the report.

Mr. Downing suggested that the rules be amended at the annual meeting to place the subscription on a proper basis.

Mr. Armstrong pointed out that if each member paid a subscription of 2s., the Association would be solvent.

Society Cumberland Youths

THIRTY-ONE NEW MEMBERS.

The Society of Royal Cumberland Youths held a most enjoyable meeting at St. Mary's, Apsley, on September 27th, over 50 members and friends attending from a wide area covering Brentwood, Bedford, Luton, Burnham, Wimbledon and the London area.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. J. Kaye), who also presided over the gathering when the business side of the arrangements had to be dealt with. This consisted chiefly of confirming belfry elections and making new members, of whom there were 31 in all, viz., Mrs. J. M. Kippin, the Misses B. Spice, E. Upton, P. and O. Martin, A. Wren, A. Bailey and J. A. Southerst, Messrs. E. H. Rayner, D. R. Marshall, G. Benfield, W. J. Puddifoot, H. Gates, H. C. Hillyard, P. M. J. Gray, R. A. F. Clark, E. Pennington, A. C. Sinfield, R. J. Sharp, C. H. Harding, George A. Sparks, B. J. Luck, F. G. Huckstepp, W. A. Oldfield, A. J. and M. S. Lancefield, P. Page, T. Morton, L. Baines, D. Latchford and H. Groom.

The Secretary announced the receipt of two books: 'Notable London Churches' and 'Notable Churches of the City of London,' presented to the Society by Mr. J. Hawkins.

Mr. W. Ayre, who welcomed the Society to the tower, said how pleased he was to see so many present, although he did regret very much that the Master, Mr. G. H. Cross, was not there. So far as he knew, he believed it to be the first occasion the Cumberlands had held a meeting in that particular part of the country, but he did hope it would not be the last.

The Secretary (Mr. G. W. Steere), in reply, thanked the Vicar, Mr. Ayre and his henchmen, Messrs. Hughes, Upton and Good, for the excellent arrangements.

In the evening the party transferred their activities to Hemel Hempstead for a ring on this fine old peal of eight, but it was regretted that darkness settled down so soon that it was not possible to get a clear view of this ancient church nor the historical old town itself.

THE LADIES' GUILD SUCCESSFUL MEETING AT MACCLESFIELD.

On October 4th, the North-Western District of the Ladies' Guild held a very successful meeting at Christ Church, Macclesfield, when some 40 members and friends were present. The bells were set going soon after three o'clock, and touches in various methods, together with rounds for the less advanced, were rung until service time.

The service was conducted by the Rev. F. F. Rigby, president of the Lancashire Association, who, speaking from the text, 'Be ye therefore perfect even as your father which is in heaven is perfect,' urged his hearers to strive for perfection in everything, though it might never be attained. He suggested three ways in which they could further the aim of perfection in ringing—through constant and diligent practice; the whole band working together as a team; and through striking. He commended the motto, 'Ears and eyes open and mouth shut.'

Tea, provided by the local ringers, followed in the school, after which, when the gentlemen had been dismissed to the tower, a short business meeting was held. It was decided, if possible, to hold the next meeting at Bolton in February, 1948, to be followed by a meeting at Southport in April. One new ringing member, Miss E. Gray, of Chorley, and one honorary member, Mrs. W. Fernley, of Hazel Grove, were elected. Votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicar and wardens for permission to hold the meeting, to the Rev. F. F. Rigby for his service, to the local ringers for their assistance, to the ladies who served tea and to all who had in any way contributed to the success of the meeting.

James E. Davis

MEMORIAL AT ST. BOTOLPH'S, BISHOPSGATE.

The chiming apparatus at St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, has recently been modernised, and an inscribed plate mounted on the case, in memory of James E. Davis, who died suddenly on December 25th, 1944.

For 22 years, with few exceptions, Jim had chimed for morning service, doing so, for the last time, the day before he passed away. Thus, it was felt, the improvement of the old apparatus would form a fitting tribute to his memory.

A short dedication service will be conducted by the Assistant Rector of St. Botolph's, the Rev. J. D. Richards, on Saturday, October 18th, at 1 p.m. It is hoped that old friends will find it possible to be present.

Many who used to take part in those enjoyable Monday night practices before the war will think of others who are no longer with us. The quiet personality of Jim Brett, the oddities of Fred Pike, which still bring a smile to the faces of his old associates when they meet together and recall old times—not a bad legacy to leave to one's friends after all, a smile.

Another would be William Madgwick, who used to turn up, when least expected, at all times and places. Strange to have wandered all over the world and then return home to be the only one of the immediate circle to meet death through enemy frightfulness.

Then there was Tom Coles, a frequent visitor to the tower for practice and service ringing, who took his ringing very seriously, but did much service for his fellow ringers and enjoyed their company.

The memory of Harry Hoskins (the Mayor of Greenwich) will long remain green. What a character he was. Doubtless the thoughts of some will go back a few more years and call to mind one other who heard his last 'This is all,' 'Stand,' at St. Botolph's one Monday night. Then Ike Shade started off for the earthly home he never reached. He was called higher. Heavenly Father, we leave them in Thy loving care 'and there we find them worthier to be loved.'

Footnote.—Owing to suspected structural defects in the tower there will be no ringing at St. Botolph's during the afternoon on Saturday, October 18th.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD NEWBURY BRANCH.

The autumn meeting of the Newbury Branch was at Aldermaston on September 20th, when visitors included Mr. E. Barnett, of Crayford. The compass of the ringing extended from Grandsire to Cambridge Surprise.

The Guild service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. F. Newham, and Mrs. Wilcox, a ringing member, was the organist.

Tea at the Hind's Head Hotel was followed by a business meeting, the Rev. W. Kingsley Kefford (branch chairman) presiding. A letter of thanks from the Rev. A. E. D. Youles, for a gift of two guineas towards restoring Midgham bells, was read.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION MEETING AT NORTH LOPHAM.

Forty ringers attended the South Norfolk Branch meeting at North Lopham on Sept. 27th.

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. T. Poole), who also presided at the business meeting, supported by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), Mr. W. L. Duffield (branch chairman), Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), and Messrs. E. G. Bennett and C. E. G. Banham (members of the committee).

The Rector of Lopham was elected an honorary member and Mr. A. E. Whiting, of Helmingham, made a life member. The annual meeting of the branch is to be held at New Buckenham on January 24th.

Peterborough Diocesan Guild

BOZEAT BELLS REDEDICATED.

Bozeat bells have been retuned and rehung in new fittings in memory of those who fought in the last war. The dedication took place at the quarterly meeting of the Wellingborough Branch.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. S. F. W. Powell) and the dedication performed by Canon R. E. Ford, R.D., of Finedon, who gave the address. A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £2 15s. 8d.

At the business meeting the Rev. S. F. W. Powell, who presided, spoke of the sad loss of the Rev. E. S. Powell, late Guild Ringing Master, and Mrs. W. Perkins, wife of one of the oldest bellringers, Mr. W. Perkins, of Irthlingborough. Members stood in silence in tribute to their memory.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting at Irthlingborough in January if possible.

Tributes were paid to the great improvement in the bells.

STAFFORD ARCHDEACONRY SOCIETY

A quarterly meeting was held at Cannock on September 27th, 74 members and friends being present.

A short service was held in church, conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. F. A. R. Chapman, who prefaced his address by giving a welcome to the members. The Rev. C. H. Barker was the organist. Tea was kindly provided by the Vicar and the local ringers, and served by ladies of the congregation.

When tea was over the following resolution, proposed by the Rev. C. H. Barker, clerical secretary and treasurer, and seconded by Mr. H. Knight, lay secretary, was carried unanimously: 'That this meeting, having in mind the age-long skill and personal devotion felt by all true ringers towards the art of campanology, strongly deplores the use of mechanical devices for the production of the sound of bells.'

A vote of thanks was carried with applause to all who helped to make the meeting a success.

The next meeting is provisionally arranged to take place at Bilston on January 24th.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION DUNSTER DEANERY MEETING.

Mention was made in a previous issue of the absence from the Dunster Deanery meeting at Wiveliscombe on September 13th of the veteran secretary, Mr. George Stacey. There was a gathering of 70 members and friends, Preb. A. J. Hook presiding in the absence of the chairman (the Rev. F. M. Etherington), who wrote resigning his office. Members decided to ask him to continue to the annual meeting.

The meeting remembered in silence two members—Messrs. G. Cridland (Old Cleeve) and F. J. Norman (Timberscombe), who had passed on since the last meeting.

Mr. F. C. Arscott (Selworthy) was elected a member and Withypole was selected for the next meeting. Votes of thanks included a tribute to the Vicar (the Rev. C. W. Bishop) for conducting the service and giving an address.

The bells were 'exercised,' methods rung being Grandsire, Stedman, Bob Major and Kent Major and rounds.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

The ringing competition for the shield given by the late Petty Officer Harry T. Chandler, R.N., for towers in the Clifford and Kingston districts was held at Kingston on September 27th. Mr. F. Jaine, Ringing Master of the Leominster District, was the adjudicator.

The competition was won by Eardisland with 35 faults. Other competitors were Clifford, New Rednor and Pembridge. The shield was presented by Mrs. H. T. Chandler, and a vote of thanks was passed to her and the Vicar of Kingston for the use of the bells.

Ringers' Outings

EWELL RINGERS.

'Seely' Sussex, happy Sussex—county of sunshine and little rain, rolling downs and spacious weald, ancient castles and exquisite village churches. Five of these West Sussex churches were visited by a party from St. Mary's, Ewell, Surrey, on Sept. 13th. With them were a number of very welcome 'paying guests,' the whole party numbering 28.

Setting off at 8.30 a.m. by coach, the first stop of the day was made at St. Mary's, Pulborough, tenor 13½ cwt. Hard by the ancient Stane Street, that relic of the Roman invasion of A.D. 43, a flight of wide steps leads up to a 14th century lych gate. A feature of the ringing room is the large wooden clock case almost covered with pencilled records of notable peals and touches. After an hour's ringing we said farewell to Mr. Stilwell and were soon back on Stane Street.

Westbourne, our next stop, has a large church, approached through an imposing avenue of very old and magnificent yew trees. The eight ropes are set rather close together in the middle of the big ringing room here, and the low worm-eaten wooden beams supporting the ceiling add to the impression of size.

Luncheon was enjoyed at Chichester, after which some of us had a quick look round the Cathedral before setting off for Walberton. Here all the company took the opportunity of trying the six bells.

Another five miles or so of glorious scenery brought us through Arundel, across the river and skirting the park, to Lyminster, an imposing Early English six-bell church, where we were welcomed by Mr. G. Lee.

By the time Henfield was reached, 20 miles further on, we were ready for the lavish tea prepared for us by Mr. F. Cruttenden. J.E.B.

A LINCOLNSHIRE TRIP.

On September 27th the Thorne (Yorks) ringers and friends, making a total of 30, had their annual outing by bus into North Lincolnshire.

Epworth was the first tower to be visited, and the grand peal of eight was rung to Stedman and Grandsire Triples and Bob Major. Leaving promptly on time, a pleasant run brought us to Gainsborough, where the half-yearly meeting of the North Lincoln Guild was being held.

Such was the attendance that it was almost impossible to get into the belfry, but several of the party were able to take part in a touch of Double Norwich. Unfortunately a broken rope cut short the ringing and we had to leave for our next tower—Lea, where touches of Hereward, Cambridge, Oxford Treble Bob and Single Oxford were brought round. Tea at Gainsborough was arranged by Leslie Lunn.

Our next port-of-call was Messington, where we found a recently augmented peal of six (tenor 9 cwt.). Touches of Woodbine Treble Bob, Hereward and Kent Treble Bob were rung to our usual quick beat on this handy ring, and David (aged 10), the youngest ringing member of the Thorley family, was able to ring rounds.

Burton-on-Stather, with its delightful ring of eight, was our last call. We were pleased to meet old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bray. J.T.

WELLINGTON ST. JOHN'S.

The annual outing to Weston-super-Mare on Sept. 20th resulted in ringing at St. Martin's, Worle, St. John's, Weston, and Bleadon. The ringing throughout was most enjoyable.

SIX SOMERSET TOWERS.

The Shepton Beauchamp ringers, together with friends from the neighbouring towers of Drayton, Puckington, Curry Rivel, Barrington and Kingstone, had a very successful ringing tour on Sept. 27th. Six towers were visited, Chewton Mendip, Burrington, Churchill, Banwell, Weston-super-Mare and North Petherton, where Grandsire Triples and Doubles. Bob Major and Minor were rung. R.B.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

IN DEFENCE OF DEVON

Dear Sir,—In your issue of September 12th, the leading article, under the headline 'Propaganda Needed,' recounted the impressions formed, and some of the opinions arrived at, by a ringer from Lancashire during a holiday spent in what he called the 'round and call-changes counties'—presumably Devon and Cornwall. The article ended with an appeal for a missionary effort on the part of half-pull ringers to convert the call-changers from the error of their ways.

Devon and Cornwall are very popular holiday centres, and despite the pre-war activities of the jerry-builder and the post-war attentions of the War Office, their appeal is not likely to diminish. Visiting ringers are always welcome, whether in method or call-change towers, and whilst most half-pull visitors are wise enough when in Rome to do as the Romans do, a minority of well-meaning but over-zealous individuals adopt a superior and somewhat patronising attitude. Their hosts are, of course, polite, but after the departure of their guests their comments tend to be in a slightly different vein. This letter is an attempt to describe the conditions obtaining in Devon—the writer cannot claim to have more than a superficial acquaintance with Cornwall—in order that future visitors may be spared the rude shocks and avoid the more obvious pitfalls which have apparently been experienced by at least one 'foreigner' this summer.

There are approximately 375 rings of five bells and over in Devon, whilst the Guild of Devonshire Ringers has about 55 towers in union. Not all of the latter, however, practise method ringing, but the Guild does make a valiant and by no means unsuccessful attempt to keep the flag flying, and its numerical strength is increasing. Although the number of methods rung may not be large, the average standard of striking does not compare unfavourably with that obtaining in other parts of the country. But in the majority of Devon towers call changes are the rule, and there exists the Devon Association of Ringers, under whose ægis over 300 towers are somewhat loosely organised, and whose avowed object is to promote the cause of call-change ringing. This it does by organising competitions, at which prizes, in the form of shields and certificates, are awarded. The Guild has approached the Association with a view to amalgamation, but negotiations, through no fault of the Guild, have, it is hoped temporarily, fallen through.

The quality of the striking, as well as of the rising and falling in peal, in most call-change towers is very high indeed. Whilst all are naturally not on the same level, it is not too much to say that the striking which is tolerated in very many half-pull towers Sunday after Sunday would horrify a Devon call-change ringer. It is this poor striking, heard perhaps at meetings or on the wireless, which causes the Devonian to regard method ringing not so much with indifference as with open hostility and contempt. Efforts to improve the striking of call-change ringers by selling them 'The Ringing World,' as suggested in your article, would not, it is feared, meet with any startling success.

Let it not be thought that this superiority of call-change striking is due to the fact that it is easier than method ringing. The writer can claim to have a good acquaintance with both, and to know what he is talking about. First-class call changes require intense concentration, and any man who attempts to take part in them without putting his whole mind to the task is making a great mistake. The reason for the high standard of striking in Devon is to be found in the fact that call-change ringers are trained from the very beginning to listen with both ears, every man to his own bell. The slightest infringement is instantly corrected by the leader of the band. Competitions, both the local affairs run by individual towers, and those officially sponsored by the Association, afford bands frequent opportunities of comparing their own striking with that of their neighbours, and it is this factor, perhaps more than any other, which tends to keep up the general level of striking.

Call-change ringers are not often stylists in handling their ropes, the open lead at hand-stroke is unknown, and the bells are rung at a much lower swing than in 'Scientific,' as method ringing is known in Devon. If the visiting ringer will bear these facts in mind, and try to strike his bell as best he can, he may well earn the high praise which was once bestowed upon an eminent member of the Oxford Diocesan Guild in the writer's home tower, 'Well, young man, you didn't ring that tenor too bad. One word of advice to visiting bands. Do not expect that call-change ringers will like to hear the tenor turned in: that is something which they cannot appreciate, and it is, therefore, much better to stick to odd-bell methods. If you can produce some really first-class striking do not, however, fear that your efforts will not be appreciated. The peals rung by visiting bands—of whom Canon Coleridge is now the only survivor—in the 80's and 90's are still remembered in North Devon and Cornwall, and the proudest moment of the writer's ringing career was at the end of a peal of Grandsire Triples in his home tower by a mixed band of Devonians and visitors, when the local call-change ringers were warm in their praises. The only note of criticism came from their captain. 'Don't tell me,' said he, 'that all Scientific is like that. I'll warrant you had to scour the country to get that band.' He was not, alas, very wide of the mark.

It is the considered opinion of the writer that it would be a thousand pities if call-change ringing were to die out in the West. It is a survival of the days of the three-quarter wheel when stays were unknown: it is capable of creating as much enthusiasm among its performers and of giving as much delight to its hearers as method ringing; and since it is, generally speaking, more strenuous than the latter, it raises a thirst in a much shorter time.—Yours faithfully,

E. J. TAYLOR.

HANDBELL ACHIEVEMENTS

Dear Sir,—I was rather surprised to read your comment in Belfry Gossip on the Leicester peal of Cambridge Maximus.

There is no question as to its being a fine performance, but it is certainly open to question whether it merits the statement 'The finest handbell achievement to date.' There would be, I am sure, several candidates for this honour, and I consider the Cashmore Spliced Surprise Major comes first, with the Lincolnshire Spliced Minor second, to say nothing of Mr. A. H. Pulling's band's marvellous peal of Stedman Caters.

It may be merely journalistic exuberance at a fine performance, but I would beg of you to reserve such comments for achievements which cannot be challenged.—Yours faithfully,

C. KENNETH LEWIS.

Marple, Cheshire.

Dear Sir,—Re item in 'Belfry Gossip' on October 3rd concerning the peal of Cambridge Maximus, are you quite sure that it is 'the finest handbell achievement to date'?

What about the peal of Spliced Minor in 105 methods rung at Burton-on-Stather, Lincs, on June 30th this year?

I would also like to congratulate the Lincoln band on their fine achievement at Heydour on October 4th.—Yours faithfully,

W. A. RICHARDSON.

Pinchbeck, Spalding.

OBITUARY

MR. C. POTHECARY, MITCHAM.

The death took place at his home at Mitcham, Surrey, on October 3rd, of Charles Pothe Cary, for many years a member of Mitcham Parish Church band.

Charles Pothe Cary had gained the affection of a great number of ringers in the Surrey Association, on the committee of which he served for a number of years, and also in London, by his quiet, humorous manner. He was a good ringer and always willing to stand in to help beginners.

The funeral took place on October 8th at Figgs Marsh Cemetery, Mitcham, and among the ringers present were Messrs. R. and G. Charge (Holloway), A. W. Coles (Middlesex Association), W. S. Smith and A. Miller (Mitcham), R. Saunders and E. Bish (Streatham), R. Lathbury and C. W. R. Grimwood (Walton), C. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. D. Cooper, Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Oatway (Croydon). A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells over the grave by D. Cooper 1-2, R. Lathbury 3-4, A. W. Coles 5-6, C. W. R. Grimwood 7-8.

In the evening 720 of Kent Treble Bob Minor was rung half-muffled at Christ Church: J. Chapman (conductor) 1, Miss A. Castle 2, F. Miles 3, T. Miller 4, S. Howard 5, R. Sanders 6.

MR. F. J. PORTCH, BRISTOL.

The death of Mr. Frederick James Portch, Bristol's oldest ringer, occurred on October 3rd, under tragic circumstances, as the result of injuries received in an accident while crossing the road near his home at 44, St. Andrew's Road, Bristol.

Mr. Portch, who was in his 90th year, had of late been troubled by failing sight, and for this reason was in the habit of carrying a white stick. He learned to ring nearly 74 years ago and was with the St. James' Society, Bristol, when that society was later re-formed under the leadership of his brother, Henry Portch.

Fred later became steeplekeeper at St. Peter's Church and occupied that office for many years. For the past 25 years he had been a greatly respected member of the SS. Philip and Jacob Guild.

The interment took place at Greenbank Cemetery and there were many floral tributes, including wreaths from the City Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association and the SS. Philip and Jacob Guild. The service was conducted by the Rev. R. C. W. Aldridge, and as a tribute to his memory a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells at the graveside by his colleagues from St. Philip's: Miss A. Brown 1-2, A. E. Reeves 3-4, T. Harris 5-6, E. J. Brown 7-8, A. L. Gale 9-10, followed by touches of Yorkshire Surprise Major on the muffled bells of the church.

MRS. POWELL'S THANKS

Dear Sir,—So many of our ringing friends from all over the country have been kind enough to write to me since my husband's death that I venture to ask the hospitality of your columns to thank them for their sympathy, which has helped me greatly. I hope to answer all these letters personally in the not too distant future—meanwhile my most grateful thanks.—Yours sincerely,

MOLLY POWELL.

East Stoke Lodge, Stoke-under-Ham.

BROADCAST CONGRATULATIONS

Dear Sir,—I am sure that those of your readers who happened to hear the broadcasts from Twerton and Diss on the last two Sunday mornings will join in congratulations to the ringers of both churches on their admirable performance. In the case of Diss one can also give a good mark to the B.R.C. The timing was perfectly done to allow that grand octave to come into rounds.

F. LI. EDWARDS.

THE MIDDLESEX

This week in the ringers' calendar the place of honour is occupied by the Middlesex Association, with the celebration of the 50th anniversary of its foundation. The most significant part of the title of this Association is the tailpiece added in 1903—'the London Diocesan Guild'—and this at times is apt to be overlooked. The Bishop of London, the Association's patron, spent Saturday afternoon with his ringers and gave to the proceedings the spiritual atmosphere of 'diocesan' rather than the territorial or secular side of a county Association.

Mr. Ernest C. S. Turner, the Association's Secretary, during the festivities gave an historical sketch of the birth and growth of the Association during the past 50 years, recalling to mind the names of those who by their labours and enthusiasm had developed its work and added to its prestige. He was not speaking about unknown personalities, as no fewer than eight of the nine surviving foundation members were present. That nine out of 338 should still retain membership after 50 years is an added evidence of longevity associated with ringing. The Middlesex 'Die Hards' extend beyond the narrow confines of its famous regiment.

In his speech Mr. Turner regarded Mr. Wm. Pye as 'perhaps the most outstanding practical ringer of this century.' He was elected a member in 1899 and was Master from 1910 until his death in 1935. A prolific peal ringer, his enormous total included 15,264 Bristol Surprise Major at Hornchurch, 7,392 Cambridge Surprise Maximus at St. Mary-le-Bow, and first peals of London and Bristol Major on handbells. Altogether he rang 1,114 peals for the Guild, of which he conducted 859. As a memorial to him, the bells of St. John's, Leytonstone, were augmented from six to eight through the combined efforts of the Middlesex and Essex Associations.

There were other names mentioned by Mr. Turner with affection: Mr. C. T. Coles; Mr. A. T. King, who had the vision of the London Diocesan Guild; Mr. F. A. Milne, first hon. treasurer and one-time president; and his special friend, Mr. J. Armiger Trollope, of whom the Association's secretary wrote a special memoir in 'The Ringing World' recently. To the Middlesex Association we would quote from Proverbs, 'Iron sharpeneth iron, so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.' The present leaders of this Association have been sharpened by great men in different spheres of ringing, and by maintaining the best of these legacies an illustrious future is assured.

Quarterly subscribers who fail this week-end to send their remittances to
Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road,
Gorleston, Great Yarmouth, will be replaced from our waiting list of subscribers.

The Editor congratulates the Exercise on its enthusiasm for quarter-peals, over 100 having been received during the past 10 days. Priority will be given to first quarters and very special occasions. Limitation of space will mean non-publication for some old friends to make way for the new.

Mr. Nolan Golden completed his 100th peal tower in Norfolk on October 4th at Besthorpe.

The contract for the new ten at Roker, Sunderland, has been placed with Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd.

Will 'Cambs.' Ely, who wrote on 'Teaching by Film,' please forward his address to the Editor?

Two peals are being attempted on November 8th to the memory of Gabriel Lindoff — at Leiston, arranged by Mr. Nolan Golden, and at St. James', Bristol, arranged by Mr. A. J.
Corrigan.

Good news of progress to hand from the Cheltenham Branch, who, in addition to the usual weekly practices at the various towers, have a special practice of Double Norwich on Wednesdays.

By the peal of Stedman at Wem, Mr. Arthur Pritchard has rung 100 peals for the Shropshire Association. The only other peal of Stedman on these bells was rung on March 11th, 1916, conducted by C. R. Lilley. This was before the bells were rehung.

Half-muffled 'touches' lasting an hour were rung at St. Mary's, Wimbledon, on October 14th, by ringers from Streatham, Mitcham, South Croydon and the local band as a mark of respect to the late Charles Potheary.

Mr. C. Popple (aged 66) rang his first quarter at St. Peter-at-Gowt's Church, Lincoln, on September 30th. Thirteen months ago he rang his first course. It was of Plain Bob, the ringers being C. Popple 1, G. A. Melton (first away from treble) 2, W. S. Hill 3, C. Jeffery 4, V. Briggs 5, H. R. Hurst (conductor) 6.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. E. Weatherby writes that he made the journey
by plane to Victoria, B.C., to meet Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hughes, and rang Grandsire, Bob Major and Stedman at Christ
Church Cathedral. Another letter from Mr.
A. C. Limpus tells of Mr. Hughes' visit to the Cathedral of the Holy Rosary, Vancouver,
B.C., where ringers from far and near gathered to welcome him.

Mr. James Marsh has completed 50 years as a service ringer at Christ Church, Aughton
Lancs. He is not too old to enjoy a peal.

Mr. Jack F. Hodson has now 'circled' St.
Giles', Lincoln.

Youth were performing at Warkton,
Northants, with a four-method peal of Doubles.
Very creditable!

Mr. H. Balcomb, of Appledore, Kent, is searching for eight bell tunes, either songs or hymns. He would like to know where to send for them. His bells are in C.

Three young ringers participated in the peal of Cambridge Maximus on October 2nd at Leicester, one, Mavis Whitehead, being under 14. The peal was Sidney O. Cheney's 100th.

An illuminated address, in recognition of 50 years' service as foreman of the local band, has been presented to Mr. Josiah Nicholls by the ringers of All Saints', Leighton Buzzard, Beds.
Mr. Nicholls, who retired owing to ill-health, was made hon. foreman.

Any ringers who are members of the craft and would be interested in the formation of a Masonic lodge for ringers are asked to communicate with Mr. Raymond Philpott, 2, Church Street, Leatherhead. Mr. Philpott also enquires if a peal has been rung by Royal Arch Masons.

Miss Pamela A. Martin, who started her peal ringing career with one of Minor in seven methods at Ansley End, Herts, had previously never rung a longer length than 720 Plain Bob.
Writes Conductor Walter Ayre: 'She had nearly as many blisters as I had when I rang my first peal, but rang excellently.'

JUBILEE OF THE MIDDLESEX ASSOCIATION

BISHOP OF LONDON AND RELIGIOUS INTENTION IN RINGING ..... NINE FOUNDATION MEMBERS HONOURED AT FESTIVAL DINNER.....HISTORICAL SKETCH BY ASSOCIATION SECRETARY

IN the historic Church of St. Giles-in-the-Fields, members of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild met on Saturday in honour of their jubilee, to remember those who during the past 50 years had given service to the Association and to pray for blessing on future activities.

Patron of the Association is the Bishop of London (Dr. J. W. Wand), and he attended to preach the sermon. He based his address on St. Luke's life—as evangelist, physician and artist, and it was, said the Bishop, on the art side that St. Luke touched them. Bellingring might be a different kind of art to that of a painter, but it was in its effect a very gracious art. It was in some respects the most typical English art—change ringing was a typically English pursuit, and the sound of changes being rung was part of the typical sounds of the countryside. He recalled the hearing of the bells across the Lincolnshire wolds and at Oxford, where on most evenings bells were rung from tower or steeple, sounds which one loved. In Australia one of the things he missed most was the bells. In his diocese of Queensland there was only one ring of bells, at Maryborough, where it was possible to keep up the art of ringing.

In ringing they had an art and skill which had contributed to religious endeavour. Not always on the part of ringers was there a good religious intention behind their ringing, but they should remember that with a religious intention the beauty of their art was enhanced a hundredfold. If religious intention was there then there was strength, beauty, truth and goodness. It was that beauty that it was their privilege to preserve, and in preserving that they were adding something to the totality of their life. Remember—

A thing of beauty, is a joy for ever;
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Percival Gough, and the lessons read by the Rev. J. D. Richards.

THE DINNER.

The president (Preb. W. P. Cole Sheane) presided at the jubilee dinner, held at Slater's Restaurant, the Strand. He was supported on the top table by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. L. Cockey, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lock, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coles, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. S. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Mr. W. Pickworth.

Others present were the Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Richards, the Rev. P. T. W. Tranter, the Rev. P. Gough, Mr. and Miss Prockson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Messrs. W. J. Bowden, J. Bennett, R. Sanders, J. E. Miller, S. Wade, W. H. Joiner, B. Newson, W. H. Oram, H. C. Chandler, W. Lewis, H. G. Hart, G. R. Goodship, E. B. Hartley, G. A. Parsons, F. Bannister, W. Honor, F. Blondell, F. G. Baldwin, H. W. Impey, R. G. L. Kilby and T. W. White.

Proposing the toast of 'Church and State,' Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey said the Church to-day was subject to great criticism, mainly from those who did not attend, who emphasised failures and ignored good points. The frequent criticism heard was, 'I am not good enough and they who go are not as good as they ought to be.' The Bishop of London said recently at a gathering he attended, 'The Church is a school for sinners and not a synod for saints.' It was a helpful thought.

MR. CHARLES W. ROBERTS
Master of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild.

The Rev. Percival Gough, Vicar of Acton, in reply, said he looked forward to the time when spiritual things in the Church would be free from secular control, and that eventually after an interval the Church would come back to the State and exercise that proper influence.

The toast of 'The Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild' was proposed by the Rev. J. D. Richards (St. Botolph's), who said it was a great thing to have reached 50 years. Their association was started by keen churchmen, so it was right and proper that they should have a fair sprinkling of clergy present.

CHARACTERISTICS OF RINGING.

There were certain characteristics about people who were enthusiastic about bellringing. One was a tremendous sense of brotherhood and good fellowship. Bellringers could always walk into another tower and be immediately welcomed and made one of the family. Another characteristic was their tremendous enthusiasm and sense of duty. It was like a disease—a kind of 'bug' that was caught by association with ringers. John Bunyan had it and his writings tell how he tried to resist it.

That afternoon he had a very great privilege of unveiling a memorial in the form of chiming apparatus at St. Botolph's Church to an old friend of theirs, Jim Davis. He was a man who made St. Botolph's a great ringing centre. In 1933 31 peals were rung in that church and many ringers rang their first peal with him. In association with him were men who made the Middlesex—William Pye, C. T. Coles and J. A. Trollope.

Concluding, Mr. Richards said the very activity of bellringing was of worship and giving glory to God and proclaiming the gospel. Their ringing should always be a glorification of God and they should never forget that theirs was one of the oldest methods of propaganda of the Church.

Mr. E. C. S. Turner, the association's secretary, in reply, said before 1897 there were two relatively small associations operating in Middlesex. The first was the Middlesex Association, established in 1889. Bands affiliated to this association were Barnet, Edmonton, Edgware, Finchley, Gospel Oak, Hadley, Hampstead (St. Stephen's), Hendon, Southgate, Stoke Newington, South Mimms and Tottenham. The second was the South and West Middlesex Guild, established in 1894, to which the bands at Acton, Ealing (St. Mary's and Christ Church), Staines, Hillingdon (St. John's and St. Andrew's), Harmondsworth, Heston and Isleworth were affiliated.

These two societies did not remain independent for very long; in 1896 the committee of the Middlesex Association approached the other committee with a view to uniting both organisations as districts of a Middlesex County Association. Behind these negotiations was Mr. A. T. King, the secretary of the Middlesex Association. His ambition was to form a Guild embracing all change ringers in the London Diocese. The first step was the amalgamation of the two independent Middlesex societies. It required the greatest diplomacy to overcome the objections, mostly based on misconceptions. On Whit Monday, 1897, these two associations were welded into one, a condition being that the two district secretaries should hold the office of secretary of the new association jointly and that each district retained a percentage of members' subscriptions for its own use. When the first report was issued the membership numbered 338, with 23 affiliated towers: to-day it was 846 with 48 affiliated towers.

In 1903 with the approval of the Bishop of London the words London Diocesan Guild were added to the title. Again objections had to be overcome. Some little feeling, which, however, was destined to be but of a transient nature, was expressed on the part of some of the older London ringing societies to the effect that the Middlesex had ignored their existence. Needless to say, they were never actuated by any such feelings. Membership of their association was, and they hoped always would be, compatible with membership of the older societies, to one or other of which very many of their members deemed it an honour to belong. This recognition by the Bishop of London as the Guild for his diocese had undoubtedly a great and lasting effect upon the history of the association, and only a man with an infinite amount of tact and good judgment such as Mr. King had could have overcome the difficulties of the first few years.

Outstanding personalities of the Middlesex Association recalled by Mr. Turner were Mr. F. A. Milne, hon. treasurer from 1897-1929; Mr. W. Pye, Master from 1910-1935; Mr. C. T. Coles, secretary from 1910-1945; Mr. W. H. Hollier, secretary of the South and West District and founder of the Peal Boards Committee of the Central Council; Mr. J. A. Trollope, vice-president from 1930-1946, historian and editor of 'The Ringing World.' All these men offered them a challenge to follow their example. He hoped at their centenary a further record of service comparable with that they were remembering to-day would be recalled.

Prevented by illness from being with them that day was the Rev. E. R. Moore, Rector of St. Giles-in-the-Fields, Mr. W. G. Wilson, who was at present in Clare Hall Sanatorium and would be pleased to hear from his old friends, and Mr. J. Herbert, of Twickenham. He was sure they would like him to write to each of

Truro Diocesan Guild

Sixty members attended the Penzance Branch meeting at Zennor on October 4th. Grandsire and Stedman Doubles and call changes were rung on the six bells (tenor 12 cwt.). The Rev. F. R. S. Byfield (Vicar) gave the address at the service, and welcomed the members to Zennor, saying he hoped it would not be another 17 years before they came again, the last time being in 1930.

Tea was served in the schoolroom. At the business meeting Miss Eileen Symons (branch chairman) presided. An invitation to hold the next meeting at Camborne was accepted. Lt.-Col. C. F. Jerram also gave a pressing invitation to visit Manaccan and St. Anthony, but it was agreed to make a visit to those two delightful parishes later next year. The Rev. A. S. Roberts (branch secretary) thanked the Vicar and his lady helpers.

The Vicar announced that he hoped that the returned six bells with the addition of two trebles at Towednack would be dedicated on Nov. 15th.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The Northern District held their first meeting at Norton, where the ring has been augmented from three to eight, on September 27th. Fifty ringers attended, representing 20 towers. The service was conducted by Canon J. H. Bailey (Vicar), who in his address said that four of the new bells were given, and the other was subscribed for by the parishioners of Norton.

The ringers were the guests at tea of the Norton band. The president of the Association, Mr. L. Fidler, congratulated Canon Bailey on now having a ring of eight. The work was carried out by John Taylor and Co. A.E.S.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

A pleasant meeting was held at Wimbledon on September 27th, where over 56 ringers, representing 24 towers, assembled. A service was held, and the Vicar (the Rev. Norman Hook) gave a short address.

At the meeting the Rev. Norman Hook and Major K. E. Hart were elected honorary members. The following joined as ringing members: H. Cox, Miss E. Dearing, Miss A. L. Neale, T. Brownhill and J. Tompsett (all from Wimbledon). Christ Church, Mitcham, and St. Leonard's, Streatham, were open after tea.

these on their behalf wishing them all a complete recovery (hear, hear).

'Foundation Members' were honoured on the call of Mr. W. H. Coles. There were nine members and eight of them were with them that evening, Mr. C. H. Martin, of Hendon, unfortunately not being able to be with them. Those present were W. Baldwin (Barnet), Frank Blondell (Ruislip), Henry Chandler (Heston), William Honor (Hillingdon), J. Miller (Southgate), William Pickworth (Southgate), E. E. Patchett (Hendon) and S. Wade (Southgate). These veterans were honoured musically, and Mr. Coles added, 'We are proud to call them our ringing fathers.'

Messrs. Pickworth, Baldwin and Chandler replied.

The concluding toast was 'Thanks.' Mr. T. J. Lock mentioned in this the Bishop of London, their patron, for his kindness and interest in preaching the sermon; the Rev. E. R. Moore, the Rev. C. L. Parker, of Clerkenwell, for the use of the bells; their president (Preb. Cole Sheane); and Mr. C. Ernest Turner, upon whose shoulders the organisation of that function devolved.

The President, in reply, said it was a great privilege to be present on that jubilee occasion and also to see those foundation members who had stood by the Guild for half a century.

Pianoforte solos were played by Mrs. W. H. Coles, and there was handbell ringing by Messrs. C. W. Roberts, F. C. S. Turner, J. F. Smallwood, E. Kilby and F. W. Goodfellow.

LONDON SURPRISE MAJOR RECORD

*THE STORY OF A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT.

On Saturday, October 4th, 1947, the record length of 14,112 changes of London Surprise Major rung at King's Norton, Birmingham, on May 11th, 1903, and conducted by William Pye, was surpassed when eight resident members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild rang 14,144 changes in the method in 8 hours and 25 minutes. Seven were from Lincoln Cathedral band and the treble ringer came from Sedgbrook.

At various times in recent years members of the Guild had expressed the opinion that since the longest composition of London Surprise Major had been produced by the Rev. H. Law James, sometime Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, it would be fitting if his peal could be rung by a Lincolnshire band. Nothing definite materialised until John Freeman decided that 1947 was the year for the attempt.

An ideal place for long peal ringing is Heydour, situated 'twixt Grantham and Sleaford. In late 1945 the old ring of five were augmented to eight and rehung on ball bearings. Coupled with this is the fact that there are only four houses in Heydour and two of these are an appreciable distance from the church. The Vicar, the Rev. C. N. Hodge, was interviewed and he readily gave his consent.

During the three months prior to August Bank Holiday much time was devoted to ringing London. Several ordinary peals were rung, and on July 5th the chosen band met at Heydour and rang 5,824 changes with the tenors parted for the greater part of the peal by way of rehearsal. A similar peal was rung at Washborough on July 23rd. During this period several visits were made to Heydour, when worn ropes were replaced, others adjusted and a curtain fitted over the belfry window as a protection against the glare of the sun.

To all ringers, sooner or later, there comes a day when, while they do not make serious mistakes, they are not at their best. Such a day for the Lincolnshire band was August Bank Holiday. Perhaps it was the occasion—none had attempted a long peal before—but whatever it was, the ringing did not run smoothly and during the second 'schemozzle' of the day the conductor called 'Stand.' The attempt had lasted 6 hours and 36 minutes, and umpire Harry Withers reported that up to that point the course ends had turned up according to schedule, but in the opinion of the band and of those listening, the ringing was not good enough for a record attempt.

Several weeks elapsed, blistered hands healed, and all were ready for the fray again. October 4th was selected for a further attempt.

If August Bank Holiday had been a bad day, October 4th was a good day, for everyone was at ease and master of his job. The bells went into changes at 9.30 a.m., and at 5.55 p.m. the last bob at home brought the bells round, without any serious hitch occurring throughout the day. Mr. Harry Withers again represented the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham and acted as umpire.

The listeners volunteered to lower the bells, while the band put in some steady demolition work among various parcels of food provided by certain good ladies well conversant with the requirements of their menfolk after ringing peals.

The bells lowered, the food eaten, the treble ringer returned to Sedgbrook, while the Lincoln contingent returned to Lincoln, where they were kindly entertained to supper by Mr. and Mrs. J. Walden. Followed some conversation, and then the party went to their various homes and so to what seemed a veritable heaven on earth, bed!

THE BAND.

Treble. George W. CREASEY. — Age 44, rung 87, conducted 25. A sound ringer on all numbers of bells—he has rung Cambridge from Minor to Maximus—and is quite capable of ringing 14,144 London Surprise on an inside bell.

2nd. Charles McGUINNESS. — Age 48, rung 203. Rang in the peals of Minor in 100, 102, 104 and 125 methods, and the peal of Spliced Surprise Major in 16 methods. Also took part in the first peals for the Lincoln Guild of Cambridge Maximus, Stedman and Grandsire Cinques, London Surprise Major, Spliced Surprise Major in 4, 6 and 10 methods and several 'firsts' in Major methods and 'in hand.'

3rd. Kenneth W. MAYER. — Age 31, rung 79. One of the wiser ringers who will not attempt to ring a method until he is absolutely sure of his ground. For this reason he only rang his first peal of London as recently as May this year. A safe ringer in all his peals, which have ranged from Minor to Cinques.

6th. Kenneth S. B. CROFT. — Age 25, rung 72, conducted 8. A past Master of the Cambridge University Guild, he rang his first peal on handbells in 1939. He has rung peals in a variety of methods, including the four standard Surprise methods.

5th. John A. FREEMAN. — Age 62, rung 178, conducted 98. Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild and one of the Guild representatives on the Central Council. He is an excellent conductor on all numbers of bells. He called the peal of Spliced Surprise Major in 16 methods and the first peals for the Lincoln Guild of Stedman and Grandsire Cinques, London Surprise Major, Spliced Surprise Major in 4, 6 and 10 methods, as well as a number of firsts for the Guild by resident bands. He took part in the first peal of Cambridge Maximus for the Guild, a peal of Superlative Royal—the first for 100 years—and has called peals of Cambridge from Minor to Maximus. The high standard of method ringing in Lincoln and district is entirely due to his untiring energy and leadership during the past 30 years.

6th. John WALDEN. — Age 55, rung 173, conducted 10. Took part in the peal of Spliced Surprise Major in 16 methods and the first peals for the Lincoln Guild of Stedman and Grandsire Cinques, London Surprise Major, Spliced Surprise Major in 4, 6 and 10 methods, Cambridge Maximus, Superlative Royal and a number of firsts for the Guild by resident bands.

7th. Jack L. MILLHOUSE. — Age 31, rung 219, conducted 61. It is doubtful if any Guild possesses a more enthusiastic ringer. He took part in the peals of Minor in 100, 102, 104 and 125 methods, the Spliced Surprise Major in 16 methods and the first peals for the Lincoln Guild of Spliced Surprise Major in 4, 6 and 10 methods and various plain methods. He called the first peal of New Cambridge Surprise Major for the Guild, and has called peals of London Cambridge and Superlative.

Tenor. John FREEMAN (conductor). — Age 28, rung 124, conducted 60. The subject of this sketch entered the field of ringing on a high plane, for at 16 he rang and conducted his first peal, one of Stedman Cinques. He has called most of his peals from working bells, including London Surprise Major, at the age of 17 and, more recently, a peal of Stedman Cinques in short courses throughout—only the second ever rung. He took part in the peal of Spliced Surprise Major in 16 methods.

The band wish to place on record their appreciation of the readiness with which the Vicar of Heydour, the Rev. C. N. Hodge, gave his permission for the two attempts to be made, the co-operation of the local ringers, and to Mr. Harry Withers, of Birmingham, for solving the problem of finding a suitable umpire.

THE PREVIOUS RECORD.

This was rung at King's Norton by the St. Martin's Guild on May 11th, 1903, in 8 hours and 40 minutes, by Harry Chapman 1, George R. Pye 2, William Short 3, Gabriel Lindoff 4, Ernest Pye 5, William Keeble 6, J. Motts 7, William Pye (conductor) 8. Umpire, H. Withers, who took down every lead as rung.

OBITUARY

MR. GEORGE CHESTER.

The Lincoln Diocesan Guild has lost a valuable member through the death of Mr. George Chester, who was a member of the old North Lincolnshire Association and later a foundation member of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild.

In the early part of the century he was a member of the band at St. Peter-at-Arches, Lincoln, which at that time included such men as Gabriel Lindoff and Arthur Craven, and later joined the Cathedral company, acting as secretary for a number of years.

He represented the Guild on the Central Council for many years, was secretary for the Lincoln District of the Northern Branch, and treasurer of the latter up to the time of his death.

Several ringers and friends, old and young, attended the funeral service at St. Michael's Church on October 9th, and at St. Nicholas' Cemetery, where he was laid to rest.

THE REV. E. S. POWELL.

The funeral service for the Rev. E. S. Powell, M.A., took place at Stoke-under-Ham, Somerset, on October 2nd. The service was conducted by Preb. E. V. Cox, the Rev. A. T. Stevens (Shepton Beauchamp) and the Rev. D. Ballard (Stoke-under-Ham).

The coffin was borne to the grave by six ringers—Mr. V. J. Farthing (Montacute), Mr. R. Beale and Mr. W. Marks (Shepton Beauchamp), Mr. H. Pester, Mr. H. Warr and Mr. J. Drew (Stoke-under-Ham).

The bells were rung half-muffled before the service by the local ringers and open after the service, when visitors to the tower included Preb. E. V. Cox, who succeeded Mr. Powell as president of the Devon Guild; the Rev. C. Carew Cox, Vicar of Lyme Regis; Mr. J. T. Dyke, general secretary, Bath and Wells Diocesan Association; Mr. F. Farrant, secretary, Ilchester Deanery; Mr. W. J. Osborne, Galhampton.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes were wreaths from the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, and from the Peterborough Diocesan Association, of which Mr. Powell was Master for many years.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

MEETING AT MORETONHAMSTEAD.

There was only a moderate attendance at the meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch meeting at Moretonhamstead. The bells were kept going to Grandire methods during the afternoon, after which the party adjourned to Marley's Cafe for tea, where they were joined by the Rector (the Rev. M. G. Leadbitter).

After tea ringing took place at Highweek Church, where touring ringers joined in. Here Grandire and Stedman Triples and Plain Bob Minor and Major was rung.

MEETING AT HALWILL.

The North-Western Branch held a meeting at Halwill on October 4th and some 35 members and local ringers attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Fowke (Rector), assisted by the Rev. W. H. Ravenhill (chairman of the branch). Tea was provided by the ladies connected with the local band, and all enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon. Votes of thanks to the Rector, organist and the ladies were passed, and four new members from Pyworthy were elected. The ringing included rounds, call changes, Grandire and Stedman Doubles and Bob Minor.

It may be added that in reply to a recent letter in 'The Ringing World' on 'propaganda,' that the Devon Guild and its branches are ever insistent on creating happy relations with call-change ringers and bringing to their experience the merits of change ringing. They do so by meetings and by ensuring that the ringing of changes is good so that the round ringer can admire the striking and rhythm.

P.C.S.

In his memory 1,248 Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at Thrapston on October 9th by A. Bellamy 1, A. Gibbs 2, B. J. Stubbs 3, W. Copperwheat 4, G. W. Jeffs 5, W. J. Whitmore 6, H. Richardson 7, E. E. Whitmore (conductor and present Master of Peterborough Diocesan Guild) 8.

MR. T. L. SPARROW.

The death occurred at Stowmarket on Oct. 5th of Thomas Langford Sparrow, aged 62. He had been ill for about eight months, bearing a very painful complaint with great patience and fortitude. He leaves a widow.

Except for a break in the 1930's, when he lived at Dagenham and rang with the Dagenham and Hornchurch companies, Tom Sparrow had been associated with the Stowmarket band for over 40 years. With his brothers Shelford and Walter, he learnt to ring at Great Finborough, where their boyhood was spent, and it was always a delight to see them displaying their skill, acquired at an early age, on handbells. The last occasion was only a few weeks ago, and it is interesting to record also that Tom's last touch on tower bells was on April 21st, when, ill as he was, he struggled up to take part in the celebrations for the coming-of-age of Princess Elizabeth. He loved bells and he loved talking about ringing, which, next to his work, was practically his only interest outside his home.

Although competent in many methods, he had rung only about a dozen peals, his chief interest being in service ringing and practices, at which he could always be relied on to turn up, however adverse the weather.

At the funeral service on October 9th, the Vicar of Stowmarket made reference to his long and faithful service to the church. Several ringers were present, and a course of Grandire Triples was rung at the graveside by Miss J. Freer, O. G. Barnard, H. D. Lister and C. Cracknell. In the evening a quarter-peal was rung on the tower bells with half-muffled clappers.

MIDLAND COUNTIES GUILD

Rollleston-on-Dove, former home of the Moseley family, was visited by the Guild on October 11th, when the titbit was Grandire Doubles by five young ladies, assisted by a male member on the tenor.

Mr. W. H. Curson presided at the business meeting, when Mr. A. E. Greening (Rollleston) was elected a member. 'Continue your ministry of ringing out a challenge to the world' was the theme of the address of the Rector (the Rev. F. Abbott) at the service.

Suffolk Guild at Sudbury

A very enjoyable meeting of the Suffolk Guild was held at Sudbury on October 4th, when about 40 members and visitors attended. Ringing commenced at St. Gregory's, when the standard was indifferent owing to bad handling. It is regrettable that so many young ringers will not let their arms rise above their faces at back stroke, thus losing control of their bell, which results in bad striking and loss of a definite beat.

A ringer visiting a strange tower and finding extra long tail ends can judge with a fair amount of certainty that ringing is not of a high standard.

By 3.45 Superlative was suggested and tail ends were heightened by at least a foot and an almost perfect course was rung. Stedman and other methods followed until 5 p.m., when an adjournment was made for tea, which was greatly enjoyed by 30.

Very little business was transacted, but following the question from the general secretary of 'Any complaints,' a member thought it very regrettable that services were not held at Suffolk Guild meetings except at the annual general. This matter will no doubt be raised again at a later date.

The General Secretary said he viewed with alarm the small number of young people entering the Ringing Exercise, and he made an appeal to every individual to find at least one young person to take up ringing.

It was agreed the next general meeting be held at Bury St. Edmunds on November 29th.

Votes of thanks to Mr. Harold Herbert for acting as chairman, to the Rectors for the use of the bells and Mr. Archie Fitch for arranging tea were accorded. Further ringing took place at St. Peter's and All Saints' until a late hour.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

CANTERBURY DISTRICT ANNUAL.

The annual meeting of the Canterbury District attracted a gathering of 100, representing 26 towers, to the cathedral city on October 11th. The Rev. C. Magraw conducted the service at St. Alphege's, and a collection for the Benevolent Fund realised £2.

At the business meeting which followed tea at the White Swan Restaurant, the healthy state of the district was shown in the secretary's report, which stated that there was an attendance of 69 at the eight meetings during the year.

Re-elections were: Chairman, Mr. J. A. Russell; secretary, Mr. B. J. Luck; Ringing Master, Mr. R. G. Port; district representatives, Messrs. H. R. French and J. W. Unwin. Two new members were elected. Deal was chosen for a quarterly meeting with Faversham for a by-meeting in December. It was announced that Dover bells will shortly be reopened after overhaul.

Ringing took place at the Cathedral, St. Dunstan's and St. Alphege's.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

The first meeting of the Cheltenham Branch was held at Stanton on October 4th, when representatives of ten towers spent an enjoyable afternoon in this Cotswold village.

With the Rector (the Rev. R. Milburn Crowe) in the chair, members discussed the possibility of forming a new branch to comprise the Winchcombe Deanery, or of transferring certain towers to the Tewkesbury Branch. Group Capt. Lister was in favour of the transfer, but found no support, and as there were only 18 members in the area at present, it was decided to leave the Cheltenham Branch as constituted.

The bells of Buckland were put to good use in the evening, the party being strengthened by members from Dumbleton. The members from Childswickham showed good progress, being able since the last meeting to ring Stedman.

Ringers' Outings

FARNHAM DISTRICT AT CROYDON.

Arranged primarily for young ringers and recruits, nearly 50 members and friends of the Farnham District of Guildford Guild had a visit to the foundry of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston. Mr. Cyril F. Johnston personally conducted the party round the foundry, and great interest was taken in the work in hand, which included a ring of eight for Buckland Monachorum, Devon, and rings of six for Cranham, Glos., Poughill, Devon, Send, Surrey, and Towdnack, Cornwall. The party also visited the clock room, where hundreds of clocks, mostly of church tower pattern, are repaired or made.

An excellent tea was served in the works canteen under the supervision of Mrs. C. F. Johnston. The Ringing Master (Mr. C. W. Denyer) expressed the indebtedness of the party to Mr. and Mrs. Johnston for their hospitality and invitation to visit the works. In reply, Mr. Johnston recalled that he was present at Guildford in 1928 when that Guild was formed and he wished it continued success.

Ringing afterwards took place at Croydon Parish Church and Banstead.

ANSTHEY VISIT LINCOLN.

St. Mary's, Anstey, Leicestershire, visited Lincoln on September 27th. At the Cathedral they were met by Mr. J. A. Freeman and some of the Cathedral band, who assisted in the ringing of Stedman Cinques, Triples, Cambridge Major and Bob Royal. Afternoon ringing was at St. Peter-at-Gowts and on the homeward journey at Harmston and Leadenham.

HATFIELD COLLEGE YOUTHS.

Five churches, including one cathedral, in Essex were visited by Hatfield College Youths on September 27th. Ringing took place at Hatfield Broad Oak, Chelmsford Cathedral, Felstead, Braintree, Thaxted and Stanstead (where the bells are hung anti-clockwise). The Rector (the Rev. Griffiths) accompanied the Youths, and at the lunch at Chelmsford thanked the ringers for their good work. Mr. A. Lawrence, the captain replied and welcomed the North Mimms ringers to the party.

THE COTSWOLD COUNTRY.

On September 13th, the St Ambrose Guild, Bristol, and friends had an enjoyable outing in ideal weather to Stroud Valley. Cheltenham and Evesham, returning via Chipping Campden, Chedworth and Cirencester, a round trip of 140 miles through some of the most delightful country. Ringing took place at Evesham, Chipping Campden and Chedworth.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

ILCHESTER DEANERY BRANCH.

Preb. G. W. Saunders, who presided at the meeting at East Coker on October 4th, attended by about 30 ringers, referred to the loss sustained, not only by the branch but to the whole Exercise, by the sudden death of the Rev. E. S. Powell. The loss would also be felt by the local clergy, whom he had so willingly assisted during his residence at Stoke-under-Ham. The meeting stood in silence for a few moments, and the secretary was requested to send a message of sympathy to Mrs. Powell.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar (the Rev. Ivor G. Sanders) and organist for the service concluded the meeting.

MEETING AT KEWSTOKE.

Nearly 100 members, believed to be a record, attended the meeting of the Axbridge Deanery at Kewstoke, ringing being under the leadership of Mr. G. Prescott (Ringing Master).

Mr. I. J. Burroughs (Mark) presided at the business meeting, when tributes of respect were paid to the memory of Mr. Ralph Popham (Mark) and Mr. G. Masters (Uphill).

The Vicar (the Rev. R. Knight) conducted the service, and the tea produced a profit of £2 13s., which was divided between Yatton and Evercreech Bell Restoration Funds.

LEICESTER

A triumph of organisation was the Leicester Diocesan Guild festival. The event attracted a most representative gathering from all parts of the country and also from Ireland, and for entertainment, both as regards ringing and hospitality, nothing was left undone on the part of those who planned the occasion.

And for the secret. Leicester Guild owes its success to a perfect understanding with the clergy from the Bishop downwards. Immediately this confidence is achieved a Guild will make progress. Ringing as work of the Church was the theme of the address by the Bishop of Leicester; when this is recognised a hallowed responsibility will be behind the changes. On both sides—clergy and ringers—there are individuals who classify ringing as purely an exercise or art and nothing more. When the spiritual dedication of ringing is recognised then our Guilds will flourish.

Is this compatible with peal ringing? Perhaps the best answer to this came from the Bishop of Leicester. When does ringing cease to become a clash and a clang and become perfect harmony? Every change ringer knows that perfection will only be reached by the thoroughness acquired through peal ringing. The Bishop and other speakers expressed their congratulations to Mr. Ernest Morris on having rung one thousand peals. The recognition of the peal as a standard is pleasing, and while in the distant past such a performance had its roots in the secular side of ringing and still is largely associated with pleasure, yet the training has an ultimate spiritual objective in the service of the Church.

Now the message of Leicester is clear and emphatic. With the recognition of ringing in the service of God there is an accompanying corollary. That recognition must extend beyond the mere act of ringing: there must be that personal relationship between the ringer and his Maker. The familiar words of Psalm 150, 'Praise Him on the loud cymbals; Praise Him on the well-tuned cymbals,' so often sung or read at ringers' gatherings, are shallow and hypocritical if the recognition of His service is absent in the act of ringing.

The Leicester festival of ringers was a prelude to a big diocesan festival in commemoration of the 21st anniversary of the founding of the See of Leicester in its present form. The anniversary is not to pass by informally as the ticking off of another year on the calendar, but to be commemorated by an act of personal rededication by all churchworkers. And let it be known far and wide: Leicester ringers are counted among the churchworkers and individually will be associated with this great spiritual act.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Congratulations to Mr. T. Groombridge, sen., who rang his 800th peal on his 80th birthday. He rang three handbell peals in the past month to bring off this unique double.

Those attending the Aldershot meeting are asked to note the alteration in the time.

The peal at Dilhorne, Staffs, reported in our last issue, was conducted by Mr. J. G. Cartledge, of Cheadle.

There has been a change in the Mastership of the Oxford University Guild. Mr. W. F. Moreton, who has gone down, has been succeeded by Mr. C. J. Dickinson (Magdalen).

We have had a cut in our paper allocation which will necessitate pegging our circulation. Any additional copies for the time being will be very limited.

The overwhelming success of the Leicester festival was marred by the failure to secure the peal of Yorkshire at Loughborough. After more than two hours' ringing, the conductor expressed his dissatisfaction by setting his bell. Expert ears outside regarded the striking as good.

'Birthday presents are difficult to buy these days, so here's a nice idea for country folk—a quarter-peal of country bells to bring pleasure and ring on in the mind for a twelve-month.'—'The Woman' gives this delightful thought in a special article. If this form of gift becomes the vogue, the Editor trusts that it will not be necessary to insert every quarter-peal.

Stafford ringers celebrated the 70th birthday of their head ringer, Mr. J. Warrilow, by a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples on Oct. 15th. The band was R. W. Lander 1, H. Bayley 2, J. Warrilow 3, R. J. Warrilow (cond.) 4, A. E. Garbett 5, J. J. Taylor 6, E. Vaughan 7, F. Eley 8.

BELFRY GOSSIP

After the Frederick peal comes the John peal from Penistone, Yorks. Just before the war an all Yorkshire John peal attempt conducted by the late John Flint, came to grief three courses from home. Enough Johns were not available in the Yorkshire area, so John Worth, from Macclesfield, and John Aubler, from Pudsey, participated.

Mr. John E. Bibby rang his 50th peal this year at Frodsham, Cheshire, on October 14th.

The quarter at Fulmer, Bucks, on Oct. 6th, was the first by Mr. E. J. Briden's youthful band with the exception of veteran E. Harding, 79, and was due to the patient coaching of Walter W. Wolstencroft.

Mr. Edgar Humfrey celebrated the 60th anniversary of his first peal by calling a peal of Stedman Caters at St. Laurence's, Reading. Now over 77, he has been a service ringer for nearly 60 years. In his first peal at Drayton, Berks, he rang with the Rev. F. E. Robinson and J. W. Washbrook.

From Lichfield comes news of the Beresford family. Joan and the two 13-year-old twins have rung their first peal in hand as a birthday compliment to their mother. 'The striking was regular and good throughout,' comments the umpire. Last Sunday the twins rang a course of Stedman Caters with two noted handbell ringers—Mr. H. J. Poole and Mr. A. H. Pulling.

The peal of Grandsire Triples at St. John's, Leicester, on October 11th, is a new irregular 12-part by Brian D. Price. It was rung at the second attempt, the first failing at Syston through a clapper breaking after 2 hours 50 minutes. It was the 100th peal of Grandsire Triples by Ernest Morris, who has called peals in this method containing the least number of calls—90 J. J. Parker's One-part; and 340 by A. J. Pitman.

LEICESTER DIOCESAN GUILD'S FESTIVAL

RECORD GATHERING OF REPRESENTATIVE RINGERS ..... BISHOP'S TRIBUTE TO HIS RINGERS.....
COMPANY OF 1,200 AT FESTIVAL DANCE

Probably the largest gathering of ringers since the end of the war was the Leicester Diocesan Festival, held at Leicester last Saturday. The representative character of the gathering was a tribute to the popularity of the Guild's president (Mr. Harold J. Poole) and his officers.

A programme to delight a ringer's heart had been arranged. In the morning a number of peals were planned, the afternoon was devoted to ringing in Leicester's well-known towers and a service in the Cathedral, at which the Bishop gave an inspiring address. The festival dinner was followed by a dance in the city's largest hall. For non-dancing handbell ringers a room was set apart for their enjoyment.

THE SERVICE.

A congregation approaching 400 attended the service in the Cathedral Church. The Provost (the Very Rev. H. A. Jones) conducted the service, and the address was given by the Bishop of Leicester (the Right Rev. G. Vernon South).

'The bells are like the heralds; they proclaim great events,' said the Bishop. That week they would be rung to proclaim the 21st anniversary of the restoration of the ancient diocese of Leicester. Bells were so fully Christian; they had never been commercialised. The great crash and clash of the bells was brought into perfect harmony and obedience by the still small voice which called the changes. They had a simile in the confusion in the world to-day. If only the nations would say, 'Christ is King,' and bring Him into everyday affairs, life would be so different from the discontent prevailing to-day.

THE DINNER.

There was a company of 270 at the dinner held at the Bell Inn. The Bishop presided, supported by the president (Mr. Harold J. Poole), the Provost (the Very Rev. H. A. Jones), the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress and Mr. Ernest Morris. Representative guests present included Mr. A. B. Peck (Ancient Society of College Youths), Mr. J. T. Dyke (Bath and Wells Diocesan Association), Miss F. Steele (Bedfordshire Association), Mr. E. Lindley (Cambridge University Guild), Mr. W. Lancaster (Derby and District Association), Mr. J. W. Price (East Derbyshire and Notts Association), Mr. C. A. Bassett (East Grinstead and District Guild), Mr. J. Armstrong (Essex Association), Mr. W. Ayre (Herefordshire Association), Mr. F. E. Dukes (Irish Association), Miss I. B. Thompson (Ladies' Guild), Mr. W. H. Shuker (Lancashire Association), Mr. F. J. Hannington (Llandaff and Monmouth Association), Mr. T. J. Lock (Middlesex County Association), Mr. J. W. Cotton (Midland Counties Guild), Mr. H. G. Jenney (National Guild of Police Ringers), Mr. C. Burns (Norwich Diocesan Association), Mr. W. Carnwell (North Staffs Association), Mr. W. Hibbert (Oxford Diocesan Guild), Mr. W. F. Judge (Oxford Society), Mr. E. E. Whitmore (Peterborough Diocesan Guild), Mr. J. F. Harvey (St. Martin's Guild), the Rev. F. L. Edwards (Salisbury Diocesan Guild), Mr. A. Pritchard (Shropshire Association), Mr. G. W. Steere (Society of Royal Cumberland Youths), Mr. T. Groombridge (Southwell Diocesan Guild), Mr. A. D. Collins (Stafford Archdeaconry), Mr. D. Cooper (Surrey Association), Mr. G. Williams (Winchester and Portsmouth Guild), Mr. W. B. Cartwright (Worcestershire and Districts Association), Mr. L. W. G. Morris (Yorkshire Association), Mr. A. H. Pulling (Guildford Diocesan Guild) and Mr. J. Bray (Lincoln Diocesan Guild). Those present also included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor.

After the toast of 'The King,' the Provost submitted the health of the City of Leicester, recalling that for 700 years the church which was now the Cathedral had been closely associated with the city. He always thought of the city as combining the attractions of a very long tradition with the efficiency of a modern outlook.

The Lord Mayor (Ald. W. H. Smith), in his reply, recalled his first association with ringing when as a boy he rang the bell at a mission church at Narborough.

The toast of 'The Diocese' was submitted by the Chief Constable of Leicester (Mr. Oswald J. B. Cole), who traced the development of the diocese from 713 A.D., and when it once extended from the Trent to the Thames. To-day, he said, there was a tendency towards materialism instead of looking towards the things spiritual. There was a great need for the rededication which was being associated with the 21st anniversary celebration, and he believed that bellringers were looked on as some of the most earnest churchworkers to be found in the diocese.

'A LONDON SURPRISE.'

In his reply, the Bishop of Leicester said he was a suffragan bishop of London before he came to Leicester, and his arrival at Leicester was 'a London Surprise' (laughter). Calling attention to the forthcoming visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury for the start of the anniversary celebrations, the Bishop mentioned that the Primate was born in a Leicestershire parsonage and received his early education in a Leicestershire school.

As a diocese they were proud to have Mr. Harold Poole, their president, as a lay canon and to congratulate Mr. Ernest Morris upon ringing his 1,000th peal.

What really was the diocese? He would describe it as a household of faith—a collection of men and women who had faith in God and faith in Christ the eternal Son of God. Secondly, the diocese was the Christian home of all sorts and conditions of men. When they drank the health of the diocese he asked them to say, 'Hold on to the faith and be strong, and may its love, beauty and strength put heart into people who are losing heart, and put courage into a world that is in need of hope.'

The health of 'The Leicester Diocesan Guild' was submitted by Mr. G. W. Hunt, who said that in Mr. Harold Poole they had a Christian gentleman, and they were all delighted when it pleased the Bishop of Leicester to confer on him the rank of lay canon not only for his services to the Church, but to his profession. Never was a better officer in the courts or one who would try to help mankind than the president. The Guild also had that wonderful ringer in Mr. Ernest Morris, who along with 15 others had completed 1,000 peals and had written a classic on bellringing.

Mr. Hunt also mentioned three of the young ringers of the Guild who had rung a peal of Cambridge Surprise Maximus—Mavis Whitehead, aged 13, Alan Cattell (16) and Kathleen Tilley (18). Last and not least he would mention Jill Poole, who had been secretary for their ringing festival and whose ringing performances were known not only in the diocese, but wherever ringing took place in the British Isles.

THE HUMBLE MESSAGE.

'You can't all be Surprise ringers, and those who rang in country towers with five or six bells ringing standard methods should not be discouraged; their message was just as sincere as the great peal from a cathedral tower.' He hoped the bells they rang with such enthusiasm would bring the message of God to men and that they would try to build a new foundation of peace for all times.

Mr. Harold J. Poole, who was coupled with the toast, in reply, said they had been told the Diocese of Leicester was celebrating in the very near future its coming-of-age, and those responsible for the activities of the diocese and its spiritual welfare were looking back on the first 21 years with a certain amount of gratification and satisfaction. While they could not put the clock back, it was just as well to reflect from a ringing standpoint where they were. Twenty-one years ago there was no Leicester Diocesan Guild; they were then part and parcel of the Midland Counties Association. Twenty-one years ago Fred Dexter was in full blast in Leicester, and those who knew Fred Dexter would appreciate that remark, and appreciate what he did for ringing.

The success of any ringing guild or association depended on co-operation with the Church authorities, and they in the Leicester Diocesan Guild were very fortunate in that matter. Without the co-operation of the incumbents they would be helpless. They provided them with the bells and they were very happy and getting a great encouragement from those responsible for the government of the diocese.

Mr. Poole also spoke of the pleasure it gave him to see so many of his friends from other associations as guests that day. It did show what appeal the Leicester Diocesan Guild made to the Exercise.

MR. GEORGE WILLIAMS GREETED.

The Bishop of Leicester gave the toast of 'The Visitors' and had a special word of welcome to Mr. George Williams, of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild, who was no less than 90 years of age.

Mr. C. Harrison, in presenting the toast of 'The Ringing World,' expressed appreciation of the work of the Editorial Committee in placing the journal in a sound financial position.

The Editor, Mr. T. W. White, in reply, called attention to the fact that the circulation had reached a higher figure than in any period of the paper's history and that circulation had to be pegged. With a waiting list of subscribers it would mean those who did not pay their subscriptions promptly on the appointed day would find that their copy had been allocated to a new reader. He also replied for the visitors and thanked the president and the Guild for their generosity and congratulated Miss Jill Poole on her ability in undertaking the secretarial work for such a large venture.

Malmesbury Abbey Bells

Malmesbury Borough Council at their October meeting passed the following resolution: 'That the Council considers the unnecessary and prolonged ringing of the Abbey Church campanile to be a public nuisance to the inhabitants of the built-up area surrounding, and recommends to the Parochial Church Council that in future these bells be rung for not more than 20 minutes on any day for any purpose, except on Sundays, and then for recognised periods only.'

The mover of the resolution, Ald. Hodge, said: 'Last Saturday we had a gang from Bristol and Gloucester, who exercised their peculiar hobby for five and a quarter hours and made the town a perfect bedlam with their cacophony. Why should private individuals have to interfere with law-abiding citizens? Why they cannot stick to something like darts and dominoes, goodness knows.'

Cler. F. Taylor, one of the Abbey bellringers, claimed that the bells were 'part and parcel of the church service.' 'The new bells,' he said, 'if and when they are put in—'

'God help us if they ever are,' interjected Ald. Hodge.

Cler. Taylor continued: 'When the belfry is bricked up in a proper manner the bells will not be heard by those living nearby.'

Cler. Taylor explained that the bells now were not properly tuned and said he appreciated the nuisance they caused.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM

A very enjoyable meeting was held on Oct. 4th at the ancient Parish Church of the Royal Borough of Sutton Coldfield. The bells were raised at 3 p.m. and were kept going in various methods until 4.30, when the Guild's form of service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. H. Boggon), who, in his address, first gave the members a hearty welcome to Sutton Coldfield.

The Master, Councillor Paddon Smith, presided at the business meeting, when the following new members were elected: E. J. Lindley (Epsom), G. Dodds (Isleworth), George W. Fletcher (Caister-on-Sea), A. Timmins (Quinton), T. J. Lock (North Mimms), all as life members; and D. Nock (Erdington) as an ordinary member. It was decided to hold the next bi-quarterly meeting at the Parish Church, Knowle, and the next quarterly meeting, being also the annual meeting, at headquarters, the Tamworth Arms, Moor Street, on January 3rd.

After some discussion as to the possibility of holding the Henry Johnson Dinner next March as usual, it was unanimously agreed on the proposition of the treasurer, seconded by Mr. Albert Walker, that the secretary be instructed to make the best arrangements possible to hold the commemoration dinner on March 6th, 1948.

Mr. G. F. Swann congratulated Mr. Edgar C. Shepherd on his recent publication, 'Double Norwich Court Bob Caters,' the method and its proof. It was a useful little book and a welcome addition to odd bell methods. He commended it to the members and it was agreed that a copy be included in the Guild's library.

LEICESTER FESTIVAL—Contd. from p. 523. THE DANCE.

The concluding event was the dance at the De Montfort Hall, the largest hall in the city. Here the Ambassadors Band played for a company of 1,200 people. Tune handbell ringing by the Beltonians, conducted by Mr. S. Harrison, was a popular interlude. The Bishop of Leicester attended the function and chatted freely with the guests.

On Saturday morning an outing to the Loughborough foundry was arranged. Three peals were rung during the morning, viz., Grandsire Triples at Anstey; Kent Treble Bob Major at South Wigston; and Stedman Triples at Wigston Magna. Peal arrangements were made by Mr. Ernest Morris.

WORCESTERSHIRE & DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL DINNER.

The tenth annual dinner on October 4th broke all attendance records, when for the first time the gathering was held in the Guildhall, Worcester. The Dean of Worcester (the Very Rev. Arthur Davies, D.Litt.) presided, supported by the Mayor of Worcester (Mr. W. R. Amphlett), the Rev. J. T. Davies (Rector of Halesowen), the Rev. J. G. Jefferies (Badsey), the Rev. A. M. Moreton Jackson (Leigh), Mr. J. R. Newman (vice-president) and Mrs. Newman, Mr. S. T. Holt (Master) and Mrs. Holt, Mr. J. D. Johnson (general secretary) and Mrs. Johnson.

All parts of the diocese were well represented and visitors were present from Bilston (Staffs), Terrington St. John (Cambs.), Newport (Mon.), Newbury, Bromyard and Nottingham. Just before dinner a message of apology was received from the clerical secretary, the Rev. H. Hartley, who with Mrs. Hartley was prevented from attending through indisposition.

Following the honouring the loyal toast, Mr. J. R. Newman proposed 'Church and State.' Ringers, he said, were churchmen. Through the bells they prompted others to remember and tried to attract them to the Church. They were also citizens of the State, and both Church and State needed help, for both had big duties. With each individual doing a little to help, the difficulties would lessen, and, he concluded, might they soon be solved.

The Rev. J. T. Davies, who first replied, referred with pride to his own noble church, the bells and his local band at Halesowen. Ringing was essentially an English craft, for there was nothing like it elsewhere in the world. Religion and ringing had much in common, for both had a humble origin. He expressed the hope that the voice of the bells would again mean something in the life of the country and then there would be a return to religion and to God.

The Mayor, who replied for the State, mentioned that he was a member of the Cathedral voluntary choir and had also a connection with ringing through his mother's family—the Hinton, of Bristol and Worcester.

'THE ASSOCIATION.'

The toast of honour was entrusted to the Master Mr. S. T. Holt, who said that in peal ringing the Association had, during the past two years, almost reached its pre-war efficiency. That was a cause for some satisfaction, but, generally speaking, no great strides were being made in the local bands. Worcestershire always had been self-supporting, and they had even provided several for export, as quite a number of well-known ringers had learnt their ringing in the county. He appealed to each tower to maintain its band at full strength.

In reply, Mr. J. D. Johnson said he could never understand why it should be looked upon as the perquisite of the general secretary, but his first duty was the very pleasant one of asking the Mayor to accept their sincere thanks for the use of the Guildhall that evening. It was a worthy setting for their record gathering, and they felt they had the privilege of meeting in the most beautiful hall in the most beautiful county in England.

The Worcestershire Association had much of which to be proud. They were one of the very few associations annually to print their reports during the war; they were the first of the territorial associations to revive their dinner since the war, and they had not yet had to consider raising their subscriptions. It was still eighteenthence, and to-day they were stronger financially than ever before. They had their problems, but these had always been with them, and they were no more acute now than in the past.

In proposing the toast, 'Kindred Associations,' Mr. B. C. Ashford referred to the fraternal side of ringing and quoted instances in the past where old bands did not even know the ringers in adjoining towers. To-day they not only welcomed visitors at such functions as this, but on all occasions.

Mr. F. Colclough (Dudley and District) replied, and said it was the second big surprise in his ringing career, as he had only been asked to speak that evening. He warmly thanked the Worcestershire Association on behalf of all the visitors.

The toasts were interspersed with a first-class musical programme and all items met with warm appreciation. The artistes were: Miss Molly Tromans (Halesowen band, violin selections with her sister at the piano); Mrs. H. Tamlyn (contralto) and Mr. G. J. Hemming (tenor), of Evesham, sang a duet and several solos; Eddy James, of the Cathedral choir (song); with tunes on handbells by Messrs. G. J. Hemming, J. Thomas and J. D. Johnson. A course of Grandsire Caters 'in hand' was rung by the Hinton band: P. Harris 1-2, Mrs. J. Thomas 3-4, J. D. Johnson 5-6, J. Thomas 7-8, Miss M. Rowland 9-10; and two courses of Stedman Triples by the middle three and the addition of T. W. Leuss.

*ROYAL BIRTHDAY PEALS

Dear Sir,—With reference to the 'name' peal at Beddington, Surrey, about which Mr. Fredk. E. Collins makes an enquiry, I rang in a 'William' peal of Kent Royal 5,000 changes, at All Saints', Fulham, on Saturday, April 16th, 1932. The ringers were: J. William Driver 1, William H. Wood 2, William H. Hewitt 3, William H. Hollier 4, William Welling 5, William E. Judd 6, William H. Fussell 7, William Henley 8, William Madgwick 9, William Bottrill 10. Composed by William Willson. Conducted by William Hewitt. This peal was arranged by W. H. Hollier to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the 'peal of Treble Ten' rung at this church by 'Williams.' Mr. J. William Driver stood in at the last moment, I believe, owing to the indisposition of one of the original band.

In addition, I have taken part in the following 'William' peals: Double Norwich C.B. Major at Twickenham, Middlesex, on February 24th, 1934; Stedman Caters at Isleworth, Middlesex, on February 23rd, 1935; Cambridge Surprise Major at St. Mary's, Ealing, Middlesex, on February 22nd, 1936. These later peals were all rung as birthday compliments to the late William H. Hollier.—Thanking you, yours faithfully, W. BOTTRILL.

Deal, Kent.

SUFFOLK GUILD

On the day the Bury St. Edmunds District met at Horringer (October 18th), the local captain (Mr. J. A. Ford), his wife and family had sailed for Australia to start a new life. Mention of his departure was made by the secretary, who moved that in recognition of his services to the Suffolk Guild, Mr. Ford be made a non-resident life member. This was carried with acclamation.

The musical light eight were put to full use, and the Rector expressed the hope that other people had enjoyed listening to the bells as much as he had.

HALIFAX AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

Eight teams entered for this six-bell contest at Kirkheaton on October 11th, and the decision of the judge, Mr. H. Roberts, was as follows: 1 Shelley (Oxford), 15 penalties, 56 faults, 71; 2 New Mill (Oxford), 94; 3 Meltham (Oxford), 97; 4 Silkstone (Plain Bob), 107; 5 Sandal (Oxford), 127; 6 Friezland (Oxford), 152; 7 Liversedge (Oxford), 162; 8 Huddersfield (Kent), 198.

Mr. Hoyle, of the Shelley band, said when they rang at Kirkheaton 32 years ago Shelley won the cup and there was still a member in the team to-day.

Tea was served by the local band and their wives, a company of about 80 attending.

WAKEFIELD CATHEDRAL BELLS DEDICATED

The great scheme of recasting and rehangng the bells of Wakefield Cathedral was carried out through the generosity of the Mayor of Wakefield's 'Cathedral Bells' Fund and the Cathedral congregation. The dedication ceremony was performed on October 18th by the Bishop of Wakefield (the Right Rev. Henry McGowan, D.D.).

It was early in 1936 that the bells were condemned as being unsafe, owing to the serious oscillation of the massive wooden frame. At that time the Cathedral authorities were faced with tremendous financial commitments. The ravages of the death-watch beetle threatened the fabric and the necessary restoration work cost some £6,000. In addition the old Chantry Chapel on Wakefield Bridge was being restored, and it was, therefore, decided to defer the restoration of the bells. Nevertheless, a sum of £800 was collected; last year the Provost (the Very Rev. Noel T. Hopkins) decided that the time had come to launch the restoration appeal.

The then Mayor of Wakefield (Cclr. Mrs. Crow) readily consented to issue such an appeal for £4,000. Deep satisfaction was at once felt when the Provost made an offer of £1,000 as the Cathedral congregation's contribution. The appeal met with an overwhelming response and in the matter of weeks the fund had been oversubscribed.

The work of recasting and rehangng was carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., and they have given the Cathedral a truly magnificent ring worthy of the grand old building, which for many years has been the centre of religious life in the city.

The inscriptions on the new bells are:—

Treble: Dion, Elizabeth and Angela Bell, 1946. Recast 1947.

2nd: From the Deanery of Birstall. Harry Tavener Robinson, Canon and Rural Dean. Recast 1947.

3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th: Recast 1947. Semitone: Cast 1947.

7th: Recast 1947.

8th: The gift of the employees of F. Green & Son, 1946. Recast 1947.

9th, 10th and 11th: Recast 1947.

Tenor.—The gift of the Cathedral Congregation, 1946. Noel Thomas Hopkins, Provost. Lord I have loved the habitation of Thy house. Recast 1947.

Each bell also bears the mark of the bell-founders. The tenor weighs 35 cwt. 1 qr. and is in C. The light eight have a tenor of 14 cwt. 2 qr. 13 lb. in F. A 14th bell, a sharp seconded (F sharp) is shortly to be added, giving yet another light octave.

THE SERVICE.

The impressive service attracted much attention. The Mayor and Corporation, the M.P. for the City and many civic leaders were present. About 140 ringers from as far afield as London were admitted into the Cathedral, which was packed to capacity by Friends of the Cathedral. Outside some thousands of people were gathered in the streets waiting to hear the bells. Traffic had to be diverted from the centre of the city.

The service opened with the singing of Psalm 150, and the lesson was read by the Bishop of Pontefract. This was followed by the hymn, 'Praise to the Lord, the Almighty. After prayers the familiar ringers' anthem, 'When morning gilds the skies,' was sung as a procession, which included the Bishop and the Mayor (Cclr. Harry Watson), went to the tower.

Here the Mayor asked the Provost's acceptance from the citizens of Wakefield of the ring of bells and the clock with its chimes. The Bishop then dedicated the bells and sounded one of them ten times, once for each century of the thousand years which have recorded the offering of Christian worship in the ancient church of Wakefield. The concluding hymn was 'Ye watchers and ye holy ones.'

As the Mayor stepped from the west door the bells rang out to the opening course of Grandsire Cinques by the following: J. Ward 1, R. H. Dove 2, P. Woodward 3, E. Smith 4,

WAKEFIELD CATHEDRAL CHURCH

F. Pickles 5, W. Walker 6, T. Duffin 7, F. Bennett 8, T. W. Strangeway 9, J. H. Kirby 10, J. T. Kirkby 11, M. T. Lockwood 12. The tower was then thrown open until 5 p.m., when tea was served in the Cathedral School.

After tea ringing continued until 9 p.m. Methods rung ranged from Bob Minor to Stedman Cinques. Everyone present was delighted with the go and tone of the bells. Messrs. J. Taylor and Co. were represented by Messrs. Paul Taylor and J. P. Fidler, and Messrs. William Potts, who were responsible for the clock and chimes, by Mr. R. H. Dove.

A set of new chimes had been composed for the Cathedral by Sir Walter Alcock, lately organist of Salisbury Cathedral. They are unusual in that the quarters strike upon 12 bells, including the flattened sixth, and the fourth quarter's chimes lead to the striking of the tenor bell.

PAST HISTORY.

The first reference to Wakefield Cathedral bells was made in 1552, when, according to a survey, there were five great bells. In 1639 the bells were rehung. In 1704 three new bells were obtained, and in 1739 all the bells were hung in a new frame by James Harrison, of Barrow-in-Lincolnshire.

A new ring of eight was decided upon in 1778, and these were supplied by Messrs. Pack and Channan, of Whitechapel, at a cost of

John H. B. Hesse

WRINGTON, SOMERSET. Oct. 18th.

Intimate friends of the late Major Hesse have assembled in the ringing room of the belfry here to-day for the dedication of a plaque erected to his memory. It is inscribed as follows:—

To the memory of John Harley Bridges Hesse, a lover of bells and ringers, who died at Wrington on 18th October, 1946, aged 74 years. He was devoted to this tower, and its bells were his constant care. It was largely through his inspiration that in 1911 the old six bells were increased to the present peal of ten.

The mural tablet, which is of bronze with lettering in relief, has been given by his close ringing friends; a general appeal for subscriptions was not made. Among those present were Mrs. J. H. B. Hesse (widow), Peter and John Hesse (sons), Mrs. John Hesse, Mrs. E. D. Marshall (sister), Preb. A. J. Hook (Master, Bath and Wells Association), J. T. Dyke (general secretary), Rev. Arthur Talbot (Rector of Wrington), R. Beck (Chilcompton), Major J. H. Cann (Kilve), E. G. Caple (Clevedon), C. W. Denyer (Aldershot), C. H. Dobbie (Teddington), Stafford Green (Lyme Regis), E. E. Hardwick (churchwarden), W. H. Kingcott (steeplekeeper), H. W. Knight (tower captain), Mrs. H. W. Knight (tower secretary), A. R. Macdonald (Parkstone), A. H. Pulling (Guildford), A. Reeves (Bristol), H. Sanger (Everecreech), F. Skidmore (Bristol), E. J. Taylor (Tiverton), L. R. G. Taylor (Salford), W. H. Thompson (Poole) and members of the Wrington company of ringers.

The dedication, by the Rector, was in the following words: 'In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.'

Immediately following the dedication, a peal of Stedman Caters (Louis Head, 5,019 changes) was rung in three hours twenty-five minutes by the following: S. Green 1, A. H. Pulling (conductor) 2, A. E. Reeves 3, H. Sanger 4, C. H. Dobbie 5, E. J. Taylor 6, H. W. Knight 7, W. H. Kingcott 8, J. T. Dyke 9, R. Beck 10.

During the peal, the remainder of the company assembled at the Golden Lion Hotel, where they were guests of Mrs. E. D. Marshall and Mrs. J. H. B. Hesse at tea. Later, the Rector, on behalf of Mr. Knight, thanked all subscribers; also Prebendary Hook for composing the wording on the memorial; Mr. A. A. Hughes, who was unable to be present, as he was on his way home from America, for getting the tablet made, and finally their hosts.

When the peal was over, the ringers were also entertained, and handbell ringing rounded off a memorable day. E.G.C

£124 6s. 9d., together with the metal from the old bells. The new tenor weighed some 24 cwt. Thirty-eight years later it was resolved to recast these bells and add two new ones to make a ring of 10, with the tenor weighing 31 cwt. in D flat. This work was entrusted to Messrs. Thomas Mears, of Whitechapel. In 1882 two trebles were added, but these did not prove satisfactory.

OBITUARY

MR. T. W. GILMOUR.

The Lancashire Association, particularly the Liverpool Branch, has sustained a great loss by the death of one of its oldest members, Mr. Thomas W. Gilmour. Mr. Gilmour died on October 11th and was buried at Sefton on Wednesday, October 15th. The bells of Sefton were rung by some of his old ringing friends. An impressive service was held at St. Peter's, Aintree, which was the parish in which Mr. Gilmour and his family resided. The Vicar (the Rev. W. K. R. Strickland) gave an appropriate address.

Tommy Gilmour, as he was affectionately known, became a member of the Lancashire Association upwards of 50 years ago, and in his early days was taught by the late Mr. Charles E. Wilson at the Church of St. Mary, Walton-on-the-Hill, where one of the finest six-bell companies in the country was then to be found. Mr. Gilmour was one of this band until 1919, when he became a member of the St. Nicholas' company and rendered valued service there for many years. He was an excellent ringer and striker on all numbers of bells.

The destruction of St. Nicholas' Church with the taking away of the bells from that tower was a great grief to him. Another sorrow was the loss through fire of the peal boards and records that were in the tower of St. Mary, Walton-on-the-Hill. Among these records were the ringing of 720's in the 41 Surprise Minor methods and the silent peal in seven Surprise Minor methods. Mr. Gilmour had rung many peals, but latterly he was more fond of short touches and an occasional quarter-peal.

MR. FREDERICK C. LAMBERT.

The Suffolk Guild has lost an old and very valued member by the sudden death of Mr. Frederick Charles Lambert on October 20th at the age of 78.

A ringer from the age of 10, he had been district secretary of the Halesworth Branch since the Guild's formation, and his work as instructor and conductor and local ringing organiser will be sadly missed.

Mr. Lambert was an authority on records of smuggling on the East Coast, and on the River Blyth and the Suffolk dialect. He was regarded as Halesworth's historian.

The Rector (the Rev. C. D. Hulbert) officiated at the funeral service on October 23rd and mentioned Mr. Lambert's service to the church as clerk and verger for 35 years as well as a bellringer. There was a large congregation and fellow ringers rang handbells at the graveside and the Parish Church bells half-muffled in the evening.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

MEMORIAL TO MR. W. J. NEVARD.

In the presence of a large gathering of ringers, a memorial tablet to Mr. W. J. Nevard was dedicated in Great Bentley Church on October 11th. The tablet was erected by the Essex Association; it is of bronze and black engraved letters, and has been placed inside the nave near the entrance.

Dr. P. T. Spencer-Phillips, Master of the Association, performed the dedication, and afterwards spoke of the sterling qualities of character of the late Mr. Nevard. The Vicar (the Rev. G. Colley) added his tribute in the course of his address. A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £2 5s.

The light eight at Great Bentley, which were relung in 1937 at the expense of Mr. Nevard, were rung before and after the service. Fifty ringers sat down to tea in the chapel hall. Thorington bells were also available.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

Ringing in a variety of methods, including Spliced Surprise and a touch of Stedman Triples by a band of ladies made the joint meeting with the Ladies' Guild at Banstead on October 4th most enjoyable. Mr. H. N. Pitlow was thanked for the arrangements.

BEVERLEY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The old church of All Saints, Burstwick, in the heart of Holderness, was the venue for the October meeting of the Society, a cordial welcome being extended by the Society by the Vicar (the Rev. R. George), who conducted the service.

At the business meeting, presided over by Mr. Williams, the resignation of Mr. Clem Glenn as Ringing Master on leaving the district on release from the Services was received. The meeting decided to hold the resignation over to the next meeting in the hope that he might return to the district. Mr. Len Daggett was appointed Deputy Ringing Master.

A lively discussion followed the committee's recommendation to hold combined practices. A request from Bridlington Priory for tuition received favourable consideration. New members elected were Messrs. W. H. Anstead and J. W. Procter (Hessle) and N. Logan (Pattrington). The November meeting will be at Cottingham. Ringing was in the four standard methods.

MARRIAGE OF MISS LANGDON

Miss Audrey Langdon and Mr. William Hughes were married at All Hallows', Tottenham, on October 18th. The service was fully choral, the Vicar officiating, assisted by the curate. The bride was in white satin and carried red carnations and was attended by three bridesmaids and a 'junior miss', all wearing pale blue taffeta and carrying posies of multi-coloured flowers.

As the bride and bridegroom came down the aisle the eight bells of All Hallows', manned by friends from a Holloway tower, rang out in Grandsire Triples. At the reception the Vicar of Tottenham proposed their health. The honeymoon is being spent in the Isle of Wight.

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD

NORTHAMPTON BRANCH.

On October 4th, a party of 59 spent an enjoyable afternoon and evening in Loughborough. The first objective was to visit Messrs. John Taylor and Co.'s Bell Foundry, where Mr. Harrison conducted a tour of the foundry, which proved to be very interesting. The bells at the Foundry Campanile were rung, and, owing to their lightness, were rather tricky to handle and caused much amusement, although a few touches were brought round.

The second place visited was Loughborough's War Memorial Carillon, and it was agreed by all that a high standard of craftsmanship had been bestowed on every detail. A special recital had been organised.

A high tea was served at Kynoch's Cafe. Mr. S. Millward proposed a vote of thanks to the Branch Ringing Master (Mr. E. Nobles) for arranging the trip. In reply, Mr. E. Nobles thanked Mr. Harrison for conducting the tour of the foundry. An hour's ringing was enjoyed at the Parish Church on the fine ring of ten.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

The Luton District held a very successful meeting at Leighton Buzzard on October 18th. About forty ringers visited the tower and a large variety of methods was rung. A strong party from Blethley enabled the light ring of eight at Linslade to be opened for ringing.

Mr. Head was in charge of the catering arrangements and provided the party with a first-class meal. The business meeting was presided over by Mr. H. D. Harris, of Woburn, and it was decided to hold the next meeting at Dunstable in November.

TWO CATHEDRALS

In two successive weeks the bells of two English Cathedrals, after being recast, have been dedicated. At Wakefield a ring of 12 with a supplementary bell to permit of a light eight being rung has been provided, and at Lichfield ten bells. That two of our Cathedrals should have been so enriched within the space of eight days is unprecedented in the history of ringing.

Both rings of bells have for many years required attention. Wakefield's bells have been silent since 1936, the frames having been condemned because of the oscillation. But even before that date the bells had not given satisfaction, as the trebles which were added in 1892 for calibre and tone failed to blend with the other ten. In consequence Wakefield has not the reputation of being a ringing centre. Ringers from Ossett helped substantially at the dedication festival, although the event created widespread interest. Wakefield have before them the task of training a new company, and we feel sure that the helping hand will be forthcoming from Yorkshire towers within easy reach, so that this skilled example of the founder's art will be truly used to the glory of God and for His service.

The story of Lichfield is in some respects similar. Here a Cathedral with beauties in architecture that, on first viewing, almost takes one's breath away with its magnificence, had as poor a specimen of English bells as one could find. Noisy and jarring to the nerves of those living in the vicinity, they had none of the mellowness that might be expected from a cathedral of such antiquity. Very little appears to have been done to these bells since the days of Waterloo, although endeavours had been made, without success, to tune the trebles. The gift of the recast bells from the Freemasons of Staffordshire is munificent and timely. There is a dignity about the new tenors that is pleasing to the ear, and the Exercise hopes to have the pleasure of recording the first peal on these bells on the occasion of the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. While Lichfield will have to train more ringers, they have the nucleus of a young band in the Beresford family, and if other young people can capture their enthusiasm, then Mr. G. E. Oliver and Mr. A. F. Sedgwick will have a company to be proud of, and there will be an added glory to the Cathedral of St. Chad of bells well and truly struck.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

A question for research experts. When was the last peal of Tiverton Little Bob rung? Mr. J. Swindley, now 75, found no difficulty in learning this method and rang it faultlessly at Buckley, Flintshire.

William M. Stepney, who rang his first peal at Warbleton at the age of 12 years 8 months, is believed to be the youngest ringer in Sussex to ring a peal. Mr. W. A. Kitchenside has now thrice 'circled' this tower.

What is the record for father and son peals? The Groombridges, of Nottingham, have rung 236 together.

A regretted omission from our report of the Leicester Guild Festival concerns the Coventry Diocesan Guild. Mrs. D. E. Beamish, the Guild secretary, and three other members attended to bring their good wishes and congratulations to their neighbours.

In the Worcester Variation of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Major, rung at Ipswich on October 18th, there are no bobs. It produced some excellent music on this grand old back eight, reports Mr. Oliver G. Barnard, the conductor. The company met short for Royal.

Peals of Cambridge from Minor to Maximus have now been scored by Messrs. W. F. Judge, F. A. H. Wilkins, N. I. Allnatt and Alan R. Pink. The last lap for these worthies was at Middleton Cheney, Northamptonshire, on Oct. 18th.

Mr. R. J. Brocklehurst, of Sneyd Park, Bristol 9, who has family connections with Charleston, South Carolina, has received a letter from Mr. George Williams concerning interest in change ringing. He states that the bells of St. Michael's Church, Charleston, are rung by an electrical device from a special keyboard near the organ console, the organist thus being able to chime the bells and then start his opening voluntary.

BELFRY GOSSIP

To hand is a copy of 'The Scout,' telling of the unsuccessful attempt to ring a peal by eight Scouts at St. Nicolas', Godstone, last September. For the attempt Scouts came from Guiseley, Yorks (3), Aylesbury, Edmonton, Farnborough, Leatherhead and Worthing, the conductor being Eric Dench.

Comments B.D.P. in telling the story: 'Change ringing has a brotherhood that is akin to Scouting. If you can ring, you can walk into almost any belfry, introduce yourself and make friends immediately. And, like Scouting, it isn't easy. It needs stickability and a helping hand from others, and the experienced ringer in his turn helps those who are beginning.'

Holy Trinity bellringers, Hobart, Australia, are attempting a peal on November 20th for Princess Elizabeth's wedding.

Sunday service ringing has been resumed at Holy Trinity Cathedral Church, Guildford, after closure through decaying roof timbers and for decorations.

The peal of Painswick Surprise at Ashlead was rung for the golden wedding of Mr. Alfred L. Brown, of St. Martin's, Epsom. Mr. Brown rang his first peal at Ashlead on March 10th, 1903. Unfortunately, the bells of St. Martin's were not available.

Mr. James G. Rumsey celebrated the 50th anniversary of his first peal by a peal of Bristol at Framlingham, Suffolk. The band tender their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maulden for their hospitality after the peal.

While there were four first pealers at Stalybridge on October 14th, the ringers in question learnt to ring in 1925 and 1927 respectively. Mr. F. Hodge, the conductor, who has been ringing since 1919, has two peals to his credit. While the 'go' of these bells is excellent, they are very noisy, being 13 or 14 feet above the ringers with only a 9in. floor between.

LICHFIELD CATHEDRAL BELLS DEDICATED

GIFT OF STAFFORDSHIRE FREEMASONS.....TENOR 31½ CWT.....ASSOCIATION OF BELLS WITH LIFE

LICHFIELD Cathedral was enriched on Sunday, October 26th, when the ring of ten bells, recast as a gift of the Freemasons of Staffordshire, was dedicated by the Bishop of Stafford. The gift commemorated the 750th anniversary of the Cathedral.

It was a memorable ceremony and was attended by a congregation that numbered over 2,000. The Masons entered the Cathedral from the west door in procession, wearing aprons and collars. The Provincial Grand Master, the Earl of Dartmouth, was attended by his officers. Another procession was formed by the Mayor and members of the Corporation of Lichfield, escorted by a detachment of the Special Constabulary.

SERVICE RELAYED.

The service opened with the singing of the National Anthem and the hymn, 'Before th' eternal Father's throne.' The dedication followed the first lesson, read by Canon J. E. W. Wallis. In the spacious belfry were assembled the Bishop of Stafford, the Dean, Precentor and singers, together with the Provincial Grand Master and his officers, and the ceremony of dedication was relayed by loud speakers to all parts of the Cathedral.

In making the offer of the recast bells on behalf of the Freemasons of Staffordshire, the Earl of Dartmouth asked the Dean's acceptance of the gift 'to the greater glory of God and for the enrichment of our Cathedral Church.'

The Dean (the Very Rev. F. A. Iremonger), in accepting the bells with due thankfulness, added, 'It shall be our endeavour to see that this gift is preserved for the purpose for which it has been offered.' He asked the Bishop to dedicate the ring of bells 'that it may thereby be set apart from all worldly and profane purposes and may be used in the worship and service of Almighty God in this church.'

The Bishop then hallowed and dedicated the bells, and the prayers he offered included one for bellringers—that they 'may be filled with reverence and godly fear, and mindful of the sacredness of Thy house, may put away from them all idle thoughts and light behaviour.'

The singing during the service was of great beauty. It included two anthems, S. S. Wesley's 'Lead me, Lord, lead me in righteousness' and 'Let their celestial concerts all unite' (Handel). The Te Deum was to Stanford's setting in B flat.

THE MUSIC OF THE STEEPLE

The Dean, in his address, said: 'You, whose generosity has made this gift possible, must surely feel a thrill of pride and joy when you reflect that for generations to come the bells of Lichfield Cathedral—now recast and more tuneful than any of us can remember—will ring out, as of old, over the Staffordshire countryside.'

'There is a music of the steeple as well as a music of the choir stalls and the organ loft. And it would be surprising if both the greatest and the least distinguished writers had not vied with one another in describing in verse or prose the emotions aroused by that music in their hearts.'

'On the sound of the church bells has centred some of the world's best poetry, and much of its worst, and most sentimental doggerel from Edgar Allan Poe's immortal masterpiece to 'The Miner's Dream of Home.' One verse of a poem describing the bells of Oxford which has haunted me from the day I first read it I will quote:—

Mind'st thou the bells? What a place it was for bells, lad!

Spirits as sharp as thrushes' bills to pierce the sky with song!

How it shook the heart of one, the swaying and the swinging,

How it set the blood a-tramp and all the brain a-singing.

Aye, and what a world of thought the calmer chimes came bringing.

LICHFIELD CATHEDRAL.
The bells are hung in the tower on the right.

Telling praises every hour
To His majesty and power, Telling prayers with punctual service, summers, centuries, how long?
The beads upon our rosary of memorable song.

THE VALUES OF ETERNITY

The greatest of all the associations to which the sound of church bells ministers is the associations of worship. Only one thing was needed, during the war, to make all days alike, and to secularise completely our communal life; and this the Government achieved when they stopped the ringing of church bells on Sundays. It was the snapping of the last link, however feeble a one, in the chain that bound many of our fellow countrymen to the values of eternity.

'Is it too much to hope that from this morning there may be formed in your minds some fresh association with the bells, which, thanks to the skill and initiative of Mr. Sedgwick, the captain of our bellringers, and his team, you will hear ringing as you leave the Cathedral? If the hope of any such association is justified, will you rest assured that we, in this Close and City, will do all in our power to encourage and sustain it. A thousand men and women have banded themselves together, under the name of the Friends of Lichfield Cathedral, to secure this aim—to hand down to the generations to come this Cathedral unspoilt and unimpaired.

Ringling during the dedication was two whole pulls in rounds, and the following took part, all local ringers: Joan Beresford 1, F. T. Hayle 2, F. A. Sedgwick 3, L. Smith 4, L. Monk 5, A. Smith 6, A. Bowler, sen. 7, W. J. Cope 8, A. Bowler, jun. 9, G. E. Oliver 10.

The opening touch after the service of Grandsire Caters was by ringers from Coventry, Birmingham, Stafford, Stourbridge, Wolverhampton and Lichfield, with Mr. Harry Withers as conductor. Over 100 ringers were present during the day, the ringing being in the capable hands of Mr. G. E. Oliver. Opinions were unanimous that a magnificent ring of bells had been provided by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough.

THE NEW BELLS.

The inscriptions on the recast bells are:
Treble: Recast at Gloucester by Thomas Rudhall, 1764.

2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8: Conflavit me Henricus Bagley anno salvtis, 1688.

9th: Prosperity to the Church of England. Cast by Abel Rudhall, 1758.

Tenor: Thomas Mears, of London, Fecit, 1815. Recast by John Taylor and Co., Loughborough. This peal of bells was recast as a gift of the Freemasons of Staffordshire, 1947. F. A. Iremonger, Dean; Masonic Emblem; Dartmouth, Provincial Grand Master. Ring out the false, ring in the true. Bishop: E. S. Woods. Precentor: S. G. B. Exham. Chancellor: J. E. W. Wallis. Treasurer: L. D. Hammond. Custos: J. H. Kempson, 1947.

The nine smallest bells also bear Taylor's shield with 'Recast 1947' below. The tenor bell weighs 31 cwt. 2 qr. 9 lb. and sounds note D natural.

HISTORY OF THE BELLS

The early history of the Cathedral bell's is purely conjectural, but in 1477 Dean Heywode gave a great bell called Jesus, which bore the following inscription:—

I am the Bell of Jesus, and Edward is our King,

Sir Thomas Heywode first caused me to ring.

This bell was destroyed during the partial destruction of the Cathedral during the Civil Wars. A Bodleian MS. says: 'One Pickens, a pewterer, on July 26th, 1653, knokt in pieces the fair bell called Jesus at Lichfield, he being the chief officer appointed for demolishing that Cathedral.' In 1670 Bishop Hacket, who restored the Cathedral, contracted for 'six bells becoming a cathedral.' When Bishop Hacket died on October 26th, 1670, three of the bells had been cast, but only the tenor fixed. On hearing this bell for the first time the good Bishop observed that it would be his passing bell and died shortly afterwards.

In 1687, the Hacket bells having become 'bad and useless,' a subscription was raised to replace them with a new peal of ten, and the contract was placed with Henry Bagley, of Ecton, Northants. This peal was completed in 1688. A fire occurred in the belfry in 1758, and the intense heat cracked the ninth: this was recast by Abel Rudhall. The treble was 'recast by Thomas Rudhall in 1764.'

The three smallest and also the sixth bell had been very badly chipped away on their edges, and still they were flat in relation to the tone of the other bells; the musical quality of the peal as a whole was very poor indeed, especially for such a magnificent Cathedral.

Oxford University Society

MR C. J. DICKINSON THE NEW MASTER.

A general meeting of the Society was held at Magdalen College on October 14th, the president (the Rev. C. E. Wigg) being in the chair. Thirty-seven people were present, including 15 new members. The treasurer's report, showing a balance of £9 2s. 5d., was adopted.

Miss Higgins gave an account of the Society's activities, ringing and otherwise, during Trinity Term and the ringing tour held at Hereford in August. This was followed by an account from Mr. Semmens of the ringing-cum-farming holiday at Honeybourne.

The Chairman announced that as the present Master, Mr. W. F. Moreton, had gone down, the election of a new Master was necessary. There were three nominations—Miss K. Higgins (L.M.H.), Mr. P. C. Wright (Univ.) and Mr. C. J. Dickinson (Magdalen). The nominees having withdrawn from the room, Mr. Dickinson was elected. The office of male secretary, previously held by him, thus fell vacant, and Mr. Wright was elected nem con.

The Chairman suggested that the secretaries should write to Mr. Moreton expressing the Society's regrets at his departure and thanking him for his many services during his term of office. The Society heartily concurred.

The date of the Society's annual ringing tour caused some lively discussion, the main question being whether it should be held in the summer as in previous years or in the Easter vacation to avoid interfering with the Universities' Association tour. It was decided to obtain the opinions of members who had gone down before making a decision. The tour will probably be held at Berkhamsted next year.

A proposal that a social should be held this term was eventually carried, and a committee was elected to make the arrangements.

With the aid of a model, Miss Higgins explained how a tower bell was rung, for the benefit of new members, and described the basic principles of change ringing. K.H.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SOCIETY

Nineteen members, representing ten colleges, and friends from Banstead, Chichester, Fulham and Greenford were present at the third annual meeting of the University of London Society on October 25th.

The Vicar of Battersea (the Rev. A. S. Hopkinson) made the Society very welcome to St. Mary's Church, and after their ringing conducted a short service, in which he gave an interesting and original address. After an excellent meal at the George II. Cafe, the business meeting and further ringing were held at St. Stephen's Church.

Capt. D. N. Layton, R.E.M.E., the first Master of the Society, acted as ringing master and also as chairman for the lengthy business meeting.

The reports of the Master, secretary and treasurer all showed that the main aim of the Society during the next year should be the finding and thorough training of recruits from the University, thus making available to the Exercise more ringers who could help depleted service bands and also help to bring into use for church purposes the very many good rings which now hang idle. An increase in membership and in the balance in hand was reported.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. J. C. E. Simpson; Master and representative for London on the Universities' Association Committee, Mr. V. J. Benning; secretary and treasurer, Mr. P. R. Blackman; committee, Mr. P. R. Layton, Miss J. Yearsley and Miss H. Y. Gardner; and auditor, Mr. G. C. Carter.

An ambitious programme is to be attempted during this session, details of which were left to the committee, and if possible a dinner in London on January 3rd if sufficient support is forthcoming and it does not interfere with other functions.

800 Peals

MR. T. GROOMBRIDGE, SEN.'s RECORD.

Many congratulations have been extended to Mr. T. Groombridge, sen., who rang his 800th peal on his 80th birthday. His ringing career seemed to peter out with his accident in July, 1939, and after his 794th on October 9th, 1941, Mr. Groombridge announced that he would not attempt another peal.

This held good until last year, when he rang a peal of Kent Minor at Stapleford and Grand-sire Caters at St. Peter's, Nottingham.

A few attempts which failed followed at intervals, but recently the suggestion was made to complete the 800 on his 80th birthday, and he just succeeded, as No. 799 was rung two nights before. To keep in practice, a quarter-peal of Stedman in hand was started for on the remaining evening, but it was not taken too seriously.

One of his most cherished memories is deleted from the 800, the record peal of Cinques at Southwark, which turned out to be false, but he often cites this as some of the best ringing he ever took part in.

He had handled the tenors at Bow, Southwark, Manchester Town Hall, Cornhill, etc., but was equally proud of managing Fooks Cray treble of 1 cwt. plus a few pounds to a peal of Stedman Doubles. His record is as follows:

Doubles: Stedman 1.
Minor Var.: 21 (conducted 15).
Triples: Grandsire 90 (47), Oxford Bob 4 (1), Plain Bob 1, Erin 1, Union 1, Stedman 162 (82 conducted, 1 non-conducted).

Major: Plain Bob 39 (11), Double Bob 1, Double Norwich 77 (12 and 1 non-conducted), New Double Norwich 3 (2), Double Oxford 5, Hereward 2, Kent Treble Bob 71 (28), Oxford T.B. 4, Spliced Kent and Oxford 1, Granta T.B. 1, Little Bob 2, Erith Little Bob 1, Cambridge Surprise 64 (5 and 1 non-conducted), New Cambridge 2, Superlative 32 (5 and 1 non-conducted), Yorkshire 1, Pudsey 1, Ipswich 1, Crayford 1, New Cumberland 3, London 22 (1), Bristol 11 (1), Four Spliced 1.

Caters: Grandsire 4, Stedman 35.
Royal: Plain Bob 2, Double Norwich 1, St. Clement's 1, Forward 2, Duffield 1, Kent T.B. 15 (4), Cambridge Surprise 10.

Cinques: Grandsire 2, Stedman 48.
Maximus: Plain Bob 2, Kent T.B. 7 (1), Cambridge Surprise 16 (3), Superlative Surprise 2.

Handbells: Grandsire Triples 3, Stedman Triples 1, Granta T.B. Major 1 (1), Granta T.B. Royal 1, Plain Bob Major 14 (1), Plain Bob Royal 4, Plain Bob Maximus 1.
Total 800, conducted 220.

HODNET BELLS

Two new trebles have been added to the ring of six at Hodnet, Shropshire, to complete the octave. These were dedicated by the Bishop of Shrewsbury on October 19th after a Confirmation service.

Immediately after the ceremony the bells were rung in rounds and 'Queens' by the local ringers, and the tower was afterwards thrown open to visitors, who rang methods ranging from Grandsire Triples to London Surprise Major. The striking was of a high order and the parishioners had a chance of hearing their bells at their best.

Both the new bells are inscribed, 'Thanksgiving for victory, 1939-1945,' on the waist, and round the shoulder, 'John Taylor and Co., Founders, Loughborough, 1947.' The treble weighs 4 cwt. 2 qr. 27 lb., and the second 5 cwt. 2 lb. They blend perfectly with the old bells (Rudhall, 1769), which were rebuned at Loughborough in 1931 and rehung in a 'low side' iron frame for eight.

Everyone was delighted with the peal, and the founders are to be congratulated on making such an excellent 'splice.' The Hodnet people now possess one of the best eights in the country.

Kent County Association

ROCHESTER DISTRICT.

An attendance of 120 ringers representing 18 towers was recorded at the annual meeting of the Rochester District on October 18th. Ringing preceded the service in the Cathedral, conducted by the Dean, assisted by the Archdeacon. Prayers from the Ringers' Service Handbook and the ringers' hymn were introduced into the service.

Following tea at the City Cafe, the Dean welcomed the company. At the business meeting the Archdeacon of Rochester presided, and the secretary reported an all-round improvement on last year in membership, finance and ringing. Three new practising members and an hon. life member were elected.

Mr. B. W. May was re-elected district secretary, as were the two district representatives. Rainham was selected for the next meeting. In the evening there was ringing at the Cathedral, Chatham and Frindsbury.

TONBRIDGE DISTRICT.

A suggestion by Mr. H. Goodwin that a collection should be made at each meeting for the benefit of the church concerned as a mark of the visitors' esteem led to a spirited debate at the annual meeting at Tonbridge on October 4th. The suggestion was rejected, and the matter was left as at present, viz., that deserving towers receive donations from the Belfry Repair Fund.

The secretary's report was adopted and the accounts accepted. Officers elected were: Secretary, Mr. R. Whitehead; district representatives, Mr. B. Collinson and Mr. E. Ladd; Ringing Master, Mr. B. W. Pankhurst.

Two proposals of the Lewisham District were considered: (a) That a peal secretary be appointed for the Association; (b) that a beginners' booklet on change ringing be produced for sale at a nominal price to learners and others.

The first was well supported, but the second was rejected, the district deciding to give it no support.

The Vicar (the Rev. Russell B. White) officiated at the service, Mr. A. H. James, a member of the local band, acting as organist.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

ALTON AND PETERSFIELD DISTRICT.

First Guild meeting to be held at Bursdon since its transfer to the Alton and Petersfield District took place on October 18th. The Rector (Canon G. S. Morley) conducted the service and presided at the meeting.

New ringing members elected were A. J. Garrett (Petersfield) and Miss A. Waller (Blackmoor). Those present included the Rev. A. D. Somerset Ward and Mr. F. W. Rogers (general secretary). The annual district meeting will be held at Alton on February 7th.

PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT.

Some 30 members and friends attended the quarterly meeting at Curdridge on October 18th. The Vicar officiated at the service. At the business meeting, which followed tea, members stood in silence as a token of respect to Mr. F. S. Bayley, a former member, who recently died.

Methods rung: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Double Norwich, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major.

VISIT TO RANMORE COMMON

On October 11th, 21 members from the towers of St. Leonard's, Streatham, Christ Church, Mitcham, and St. Mary's, Wimbledon, visited Ranmore Common, near Dorking. The trip was made by coach and the weather was glorious, which enabled everyone to enjoy to the full the scenery with its autumn tints.

Through the permission of the Rector (the Rev. H. G. Davies), about two hours' ringing was enjoyed, and touches of Stedman Triples, Grandsire Triples, Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major were successfully accomplished.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THANKS, LEICESTER

Dear Sir,—May I be allowed, in the name of many visitors to Leicester for the festival, to express our warmest appreciation and thanks for the memorable week-end so carefully planned and so ably carried through.

The organisers were obviously involved in a prodigious amount of preparatory work, and one hopes they will feel regarded by the unqualified success of the occasion. Our thanks are also due to the Lord Bishop and to the other speakers at the dinner and to the incumbents of the various churches who gave permission for peal attempts and other ringing.

Seldom has there been a more successful and enjoyable gathering of ringers.—Yours sincerely,
‘ONE OF THE VISITORS.’

THE LOUGHBOROUGH ATTEMPT

Dear Sir,—As a member of the band which attempted the peal of Yorkshire Surprise Royal at Loughborough on the day of the Leicester Festival dinner, may I make the following points in reply to your remarks in Belfry Gossip? First, if the opinion of the ‘expert ears’ was that the ringing was only ‘good,’ then it could not have been excellent, which I think should be the standard demanded on a ring of bells of the quality of All Saints’, Loughborough. While agreeing that the ringing at approximately 12 noon was good, it did not, however, improve, but gradually deteriorated, the ringing being marred by a series of irritating trips which continually upset the rhythm. When we descended from the tower at 1.15 p.m. none of the expected listeners appeared.—Yours faithfully,

DONALD G. CLIFT.

Stapleton, Bristol.

‘NAME’ PEALS

Dear Sir,—Mr. Bottrill’s letter in your last issue makes interesting reading, and it seems clear that a name peal of Royal was rung at Fulham in 1902. I am curious to know whether the 1932 peal rung there can properly be claimed as a name peal, seeing that one of the ringers had to use his second Christian name to ‘qualify.’

Having recently rung in the Fredrick peal at Beddington, and thereby feeling somewhat superior, I suggested that I might help out some Williams (who were unsuccessful in an attempt for Royal on the same afternoon as that on which the Beddington peal was rung) in their next attempt. Should I be eligible? If so, it is a pity that my mother bestowed on me only those names with which I sign myself—

FREDERICK WILLIAM GOODFELLOW.

Iver Heath, Bucks.

SUDBURY’S TENOR

Dear Sir,—We have at All Saints’ Sudbury, a fine peal of eight, tenor 28 cwt., in excellent order, marred in beauty by the faulty clapping of the tenor.

This has been examined and a provisional estimate of £50 has been given. The bell will have to come out and be correctly clapped and rehung. Under the auspices of the Vicar we have opened a fund to get this done, but as that gentleman is busily engaged in raising £1,000 to restore the church, we ringers have undertaken the task of raising the sum.

May I appeal to any reader who feels generously inclined to help us achieve our object? Any contributions, of whatever amount, will be graciously received and individually acknowledged by the Vicar, the Rev. Crowther Smith, All Saints’, Sudbury, or by the undersigned as trustee of the fund.—Thanking you, yours faithfully, ARCHIE A. FITCH.

7, Croft Road, Sudbury, Suffolk.

MITCHAM, SURREY.—On Oct. 5th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: F. Uden 1, A. Miller 2, H. Allen 3, T. Miller 4, P. Allen (cond.) 5, J. Uden 6.

INITIATING A NEW BAND

Dear Sir,—Your leaders often give rise to interesting questions. One is: Has the best way to initiate a new band into change ringing been discovered, published and adopted as standard practice? Not that I am aware of; but of the various possibilities, one must be the easiest for learners and therefore the quickest. Which is it?

In my experience the propagandist is very liable to be faced by two obstacles, either of which, singly, would make matters very difficult. When both are in evidence at the same time, the position is hopeless.

In my last opportunity I undertook the task at the invitation of vicar and curate. After the usual war-time difficulties had been overcome, a strictly local band of novices reached the stage of being able to ring the 14 hunting lines on seven bells (tenor covering) in preparation for Grandsire Triples. This success proved that I was working on the right lines; it only remained to bring the striking up to a satisfactory standard, and they were ready to tackle the Plain Course.

In the meantime, unfortunately, the sympathetic vicar had died, and his successor took the opposite view. Then the captain left the town, and the remnant (instead of making an intensive effort to replace losses) allowed themselves to be inoculated by some unknown counsellor with the opinion that the right approach to change ringing is by way of Grandsire Doubles. As it was known that in an eight-bell tower, surrounded by thousands of people, I do not approve of changes on five bells, I received no further requests to be helpful. Later, at the next branch meeting, there were handed in nine local names for associate membership; so why was there any need to give up eight-bell ringing?

It is now over two years since I was last in the tower as an invited guest, and (to the best of my knowledge) no local six have succeeded in ringing any Doubles. On the last three occasions that I have happened to pass during time for service ringing, the worshippers were being invited to attend by means of (1) one bell; (2) and (3), chiming on eight bells.

If the blame for the failure rests on me, where did I go wrong? ‘ADSUM.’

Devon.

ADELAIDE DEDICATION

Dear Sir,—In your issue of August 1st, which has just come to hand, is a letter from Mr. Edgar Knott, captain of St. Paul’s bellringers, Melbourne. Some of his statements are incorrect.

Mr. Knott states that I made arrangements with him to take a combined team to Adelaide to open the bells of St. Peter’s Cathedral. This is wrong. At the time I was in Melbourne the Bishop himself did not know what date the bells were to be opened, so how could I make these arrangements? I did say that some of the Sydney men would probably go to Adelaide if there were sufficient numbers to make up a band.

Mr. Knott states that he wrote to the Bishop in regard to a visiting team. The Bishop wrote and told him that Mr. Joyner was making all arrangements. Mr. Knott did not write to Mr. Joyner. The matter was a personal one between the Bishop of Adelaide and Mr. Joyner and had nothing to do with the N.S.W. Association.

The Bishop wrote on June 4th inviting St. Paul’s ringers to be present at the opening of the bells and that he would pay travelling expenses. As he had no reply, no doubt he assumed that St. Paul’s had changed their mind. I fail to see how Mr. Knott can say that the Sydney ringers were unsportsmanlike. He had his invitation, and if that letter did not arrive he should blame the postal authorities, not the N.S.W. Association, W. ROWE.

Sydney, N.S.W.

Suffolk Guild

ELECTION OF IPSWICH DISTRICT SECRETARY.

Six Ipswich ringers attended the tea and business meeting on the occasion of the election of a new district secretary on Oct. 25th.

Mr. C. J. Sedgley, Master of the Guild, opened the meeting by referring to the death of Mr. Fred Lambert, and gave a short history of his life and career and valuable work for the Exercise. The members stood in silence as a mark of respect.

Mr. C. W. Pipe, general secretary, said he had called the meeting for several reasons, but chiefly to elect a district secretary in the place of Mr. J. W. Jennings, who had left the town to reside at Branham. He thanked Mr. Jennings in his absence for the good work he had done in training recruits, Sunday service ringing and secretarial work. Mr. Pipe asked for a show of loyalty to the new district secretary by early payment of Guild subscriptions, attendance at meetings, the finding and teaching of recruits, Sunday service ringing and, last but not least, the observance of good striking on all occasions.

It was a great disappointment to find so few Ipswich ringers present, and had it not been for the visitors the tea arranged for 26 would have been cancelled.

Referring to the coming marriage of Princess Elizabeth, Mr. Pipe asked all ringers to make early arrangements to ring for the occasion. Touches or peals rung any time during the wedding day would be greatly appreciated by the public, and ringers had a great opportunity of drawing the attention of the populace to bells and bellringing.

Mr. Edward E. Ellenger, of Ipswich, was unanimously elected as district secretary. In thanking the members, he asked for loyalty and support. Both he and Mr. Fred Steward said they were keen to see more new members and more church bells rung, and with the help of Mr. Fred Bowell they hoped to get around and find more young blood and keep the head of Ipswich district above water. C.W.P.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The joint meeting with the Oxford Guild at Hillingdon attracted 80 members and friends. The Rev. E. S. C. Lowman, Vicar of Bray, who is a ringer, presided at the business meeting, when a letter was read from Miss G. E. Trollope thanking the Association for their expressions of sympathy on the death of her brother. Those present stood in silence in memory of the Rev. E. S. Powell (life member) and Mr. J. J. Pratt. Miss Ruth Geraghty (Pinner) was elected a ringing member.

The usual social evening followed. Handbell tunes were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker and Mr. John Ford, and the Gutteridge family entertained with songs and a pianoforte solo from Rosemary.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

MEETING AT CRANLEIGH.

Favoured by a bright autumn day, the Guildford District meeting at Cranleigh on October 18th proved to be a completely satisfactory function. Fifty members attended and ringing ranged from rounds to Surprise methods.

After the service, conducted by the Rector of Cranleigh, a very good tea was admirably arranged by Mr. R. Whittington, who was thanked for his effort.

At the invitation of the Rector of Dunsfold and Mrs. Crowhurst, who were present, a small party was organised to visit Dunsfold, where a new band has been formed.

THREE JOHNS

A feature at the annual dinner of the Ancient Society of College Youths is the concluding toast, in which the respective Masters of 100, 200 and 300 years ago are remembered. Mr. E. Alex Young, who since the death of Mr. J. Armiger Trollope has been the society's historian, delved into the past and gave sidelights of these three worthies, all of whom were christened John, when the 310th anniversary dinner was held on Saturday.

In 1847 the Master was John Bradley, who was one of those energetic men of the middle of the 19th century and was a contemporary of John Cox, who during Bradley's mastership was the leading conductor of the College Youths. Bradley joined the society in 1840, and at the time he came in he rang a peal of Oxford Treble Bob.

John Hardham, who held office in 1747, has been much in the news this year in view of the Ancient Society's visit to Chichester this summer. Chichester was his birthplace, and the town he endowed in a handsome fashion by his will. He succeeded Benjamin Annable as Master, having rung his first peal in 1725, and also stood in the record peal of Maximus. Mr. Young described him as 'a reliable man and one who did not push himself to the front.' In business as a tobacconist and snuff purveyor, he was a man of substance. His shop remains to this day at Fleet Street, and 'Hardham's Snuff Shop' is still to be seen on the fascia of the premises.

John Bayes, the Master in 1647, was elected a member a couple of years before, and he never filled the office of steward. There was no question that he was a man of standing, as the composition of the College Youths in those days was largely professional men or law students. His predecessor, John Houghton, was a writer of learned books and dealer in coffee, chocolate and other luxuries 'against the Ship Tavern in Bartholomew Lane.'

This pride in the achievements of the past and the maintenance of continuity is ever constant among the College Youths. Shades of past performances undoubtedly were present on the occasion of the peal by the society recorded this week at Southwark Cathedral. From those distant Stuart days when the society was formed until to-day it is doubtful if any great royal occasion has passed by without appropriate ringing. And next Thursday will be such an occasion when the bells of Westminster Abbey will express the rejoicings of the people on the occasion of the marriage of Princess Elizabeth, the heir to the throne, and her gallant sailor bridegroom.

'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.

Arrangements are being made on an extensive scale for ringing next Thursday in honour of the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. In expressing the feelings of national rejoicing, ringers will by good striking be conveying their personal felicitations.

The ringers of the opening touch of Grand-sire Cinques at Wakefield Cathedral were J. E. Kirby 11 and M. L. Lockwood 12, and not as printed.

Regarding father and son peals, Mr. E. Barnett, of Crayford, Kent, writes: I rang 235 peals with my father, Edwin Barnett, sen. In 16 of these three generations took part. I should not be at all surprised to learn that the record number by father and son was rung by Arthur Knights and one or other of his two sons.

The young ringers of Carbis Bay held their first outing on October 25th, when a party of 17, accompanied by the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Roberts and Mr. H. Miles, visited St. Agnes (6), Perranzabuloe (6), Kea (8), Perranar-worthal (6) and Mabe (6).

Mr. H. Carnwell has completed 59 years as a ringer at St. Werburgh's, Kingsley, Staffs. In thankfulness he called 1,296 Treble Bob Minor (360 Trinity Sunday, 720 Kingston, 216 Cambridge Surprise) on Oct. 19th. The ringers were J. Mosley 1, W. Edwards 2, H. Carnwell 3, E. Twigg 4, F. Edwards 5, W. Carnwell 6.

An interesting note accompanies the peal at Melksham, Wilts, on Oct. 31st. This was rung as a thanksgiving for the faithful service to the church of the following members of the local band: Robert H. Legg (70 years), Arthur W. Angel (57 years), Arthur J. West (55 years), Harry Prout (53 years) and George H. Archard (50 years). With the exception of Mr. Archard through illness, all are regular service ringers at St. Michael and All Angels' Church.

BELFRY GOSSIP

After ringing a peal at a Sussex church, the ringers were surprised to find a gallon of beer in a brass jug on the steps outside the belfry door. It was from the local landlord with his compliments. Writes the conductor: 'Although I have read all about the bad old days and would not recommend the consumption of beer in the belfry, this beer tasted better than any I have had for some time.'

The first anniversary of the dedication of the treble at Mulbarton, Norfolk, was commemorated by a peal of Minor. The occasion was marked by two first peals—by Miss Nancy Hall aged 15, and Mr. Herbert Nichols, aged 63. May succeeding anniversaries be similarly commemorated.

There has always existed a very warm spirit of friendliness between London and Birmingham ringers, and this was further strengthened recently when seven members of the St. Martin's Guild were invited to take part in a peal of Stedman Cinques at Southwark.

Under the capable conductorship of Mr. H. Langdon, course after course rolled by without incident and a very good peal resulted, free from any mistakes. In pre-war days, this ring was easily one of the best in the country, but the work done on them has brought a new beauty and resonance.

The peal of Doubles at Winhill, Burton-on-Trent, replaces one lost after 24 hours' ringing through losing a clapper on September 2nd. This was to have marked the 86th birthday of Mr. Charles Brown, who has just retired after being a ringer at the church for 77 years.

It is pleasant to read that at Wisborough Green, Sussex, on October 26th, the local ringers were thanked at evensong by the Rector for their work, and a course of Grand-sire Triples was rung on handbells in place of a hymn. After the service the Rector invited the ringers to the Rectory for light refreshments and a chat.

COLLEGE YOUTHS' 310th ANNIVERSARY

A YEAR OF PROGRESSIVE ACCOMPLISHMENT ..... THIRTY-SEVEN NEW MEMBERS ..... FOURTEEN HALF-CENTURY MEMBERS PRESENT

FOR the 310th anniversary of the Ancient Society of College Youths at Pimms, Bishopsgate, London, on Saturday, a dinner was substituted for the war-time expedient of a mid-day meal. The limitation of the company to 100 through Ministry of Food regulations meant many disappointments; nevertheless, there were 14 Youths with over 50 years' membership present to give that loyal support to the reigning Master, Mr. G. W. Cecil, the secretary, Mr. A. B. Peck, and the hon. treasurer, Mr. A. A. Hughes, J.P., after his tour of Canada and the United States.

The Master, in proposing the toast of 'The Church,' said they as churchmen-ringers owed a great deal to the Church—in fact, they might say they owed to the Church the very existence of their Exercise. During the last 50 or 60 years there had been developed a better understanding between the clergy and the ringers, and that probably dated from the time of the formation of the Central Council in 1891. Since then, particularly in the last 10 or 12 years, they had seen a greatly increased interest between clergy and ringers. It had been a great pleasure and honour to be Master for the past year, and he would like to thank his fellow officers and members for their advice and help during his period of office.

Canon Jocelyn Perkins, of Westminster Abbey, who replied, said he was sure that the ringing of bells must have an uplifting effect on people even if they were not conscious of the purpose. He recalled that when a glorious ring of bells was sent from the Whitechapel Foundry to Victoria Cathedral, British Columbia, he received most amazing letters about them. People stood in the streets with tears streaming down their cheeks, not having heard the sound of bells since they left England—in some cases 50 years.

ABBEY'S TRIBUTE OF LOYALTY.

He would like to pay tribute to the ringers of Westminster Abbey, where for 25 years he had had among his duties that of superintendent of the belfry. They were all great fellows. 'May the Abbey belfry successfully accomplish its tribute of loyalty next Thursday week to the bonny bride and the gallant sailor to whom she has given her heart' (applause).

Mr. E. H. Lewis, who proposed the toast of 'The Society,' said he would like to congratulate the Society and its officers on reviving the dinner. It was a pity that circumstances over which they had no control limited their numbers to 100 when they ought to have had 200. He would also like to congratulate them on the reopening of Southwark bells, and what a noble ring they were, especially after the little 'tickling' they had received. Another matter of congratulation was the little event at Chichester. It was a happy inspiration to celebrate the 200th anniversary of John Hardham being their Master.

There was one other event to which he would like to refer, and that was how sorry they were to hear of the passing of the historian of the Ancient Society. He felt that Mr. Trollope did a great deal in writing that masterly history of their Society. Whatever his failings, he had a great talent for historical research, and he did not think they should let his death pass without a tribute.

They were pleased to have with them Mr. J. C. Mitchell, and he would like to thank him for the opportunity of joining in the celebration of the 60th anniversary of ringing Holt's Original in hand, silent. Another striking thing during the past year was that they had admitted three new members from Western Canada (applause).

MR. G. W. CECIL,
The Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths.

That day they missed one who for years had proposed that toast—Canon Coleridge—and he hoped the Society would send him a message on his 90th birthday.

Membership of the College Youths had gained for him friends in all parts of the country. In 1906 he was in Lancashire and could not get to London, so four of them had their dinner together. There was John Aspinall, George Newton, who was still going strong, and William Davis, who was apt to get very excited and would cry out in his Welsh accent, 'Now listen at them.' Another old Lancashire worthy was Jack Eches, and he remembered attending a meeting at Wigan where the bells were pretty lumpy. Jack came into the belfry and said, 'Eh lads, what's t'matter? Is it mean or bells?' After a pause he added, 'I think 'tis men.'

Mr. A. B. Peck, the hon. secretary, whose name was coupled with the toast, said they had still four towers—St. Michael's, Cornhill, St. Paul's, Southwark Cathedral and St. Dunstan's, Stepney—and at all these four they rang the bells every Sunday. The Society had held 13 business meetings during the year and 43 ringing meetings, including a visit to Chichester, which was a great success. He thought with the help of Mr. Young they could arrange something similar during the coming year. Their visit to Chichester was to mark the 200th anniversary of John Hardham; perhaps in 200 years' time they would be going to Stepney!

CANON COLERIDGE'S MESSAGE.

From his dear friend Canon Coleridge he had received the following letter: 'An unexpected attack by some unknown germ was made on me when I was on my way to Exeter for the Central Council meeting six months ago, preventing my attendance. It is not a germ now, but weak knees and bad feet, which I am sorry to say will keep me from the 310th anniversary of the College Youths. I can only hobble about with the aid of two stout sticks to keep me up. As I must be here on Monday I don't want to be taken to hospital in case of an accident and disappoint many of my friends here (Crowthorne).

'I know many will be disappointed at my non-appearance at Pimms—but no one more so than myself. I can't tell you how disappointed I am in being forced to "give a miss" on Saturday—but I remember the old proverb, "Discretion is the better part of valour," and feel that I ought to show it. I have not missed many—if any—anniversaries of the College Youths for quite 50 years, and I feel that I should like to stand up with others during one's 68th year of membership of the Antient Society and in person offer my best wishes to all members present, in particular yourself, the Master and Stewards coming first—and also to the new officers to be elected next week.'

Mr. Peck said he had also received a letter from his old friend, Albert Walker, who had been a member for 51 years.

During the year the Society had rung the following peals: Chelsey, Berks, Stedman Triples; Trowbridge, Wilts, Stedman Cinques; Balcombe, Sussex, Cambridge Major; Southwark Cathedral, Stedman Cinques; Hornchurch, Bob Major; Croydon, Stedman Cinques; Stepney, Grandsire Caters; Crayford, London Surprise; Harlington, Stedman Triples; Cheltenham, Cambridge Maximus; Southwark, Stedman Cinques.

VETERANS OF 50 YEARS.

Mr. Peck then gave a special welcome to the following who were present and had a membership of over 50 years: John C. Mitchell, 62 years; Henry R. Newton, 61; Richard W. Stannard, 57; E. Alex. Young, 55; William T. Elson, 55; E. J. Menday, 53; Albert Cullum, 52; W. H. Pasmore, 52; Roland Fenn, 51; David Wright, 51; George N. Price, 50; Rev. L. Edwards, 50; George F. Hoad, 50; and F. Dench, 50.

The company stood when the following members who had died during the year were remembered: Rupert Richardson, Walter S. B. Northover, J. N. Oxborrow, J. H. Wilkins, E. J. Rowe, J. Armiger Trollope, F. Dennison Taylor, Fred S. Bayley, Charles Potchecary, E. J. Heath, J. Woods, J. Preston, F. B. Lambert, C. Fowler, A. Hinds, W. N. Johnson and W. Robinson. Two other ringers who had died during the year were Keith Hart and the Rev. E. Banks James.

NEW MEMBERS.

They had a magnificent lot of ringers in the College Youths, and he was pleased the way things were going. He welcomed the following new members who had joined during the year:

E. Armstrong (Weybridge), Sam Scattergood (Chesterfield), Willoughby E. Maulden (Framlingham), Albert T. Boomsma (Stepney), E. J. Exeter (Balcombe), J. E. Chilcott (Hounslow), J. W. Linnitt (Northampton), H. H. Alexander (Banbury), Fredk. A. H. Wilkins (Oxford), J. B. Sansom (Southall), W. R. Baxter (Trowbridge), G. E. Plater (Hayes), Fredk. E. Dukes (Dundalk), C. W. Blakey (Accrington), W. J. Paice (Kensington), R. G. Burton (Boston), W. Rogers (Rotherfield), F. W. Burnett (Portsmouth), J. H. Hunt (Titchfield), E. E. Whitmore (Raunds), R. F. B. Speed (Eastbourne), A. J. Butler (Branksome), the Rev. M. T. Marshall (Stepney), E. F. Salmons (Bishopstoke), E. S. John Hatcher (Ditton, Maidstone), J. Ginson (Meldreth), John A. Izard, E. H. Hewitt-White, Douglas Boniface (Victoria, B.C.), L. W. G. Morris (Bradford), P. E. Baker (Bishop's Cleeve), George E. Green (Wicken), E. E. Frampton (Taunton), V. J. C. Wood (Clitheroe), J. H. Gartside (Chorley), Harry Anderton (Blackburn), N. G. Hollingworth (Crouch End), A. H. Russell (Finsbury Park).

Mr. F. Smallwood, in proposing 'Kindred Societies,' said there were two main problems which confronted them. One was the recruitment of suitable material to carry on the art. There was a tremendous wastage which they would do well to analyse. He would say that it was no longer safe or desirable to treat youngsters as they were treated in his young days. He was reminded of a story concerning John Day, of Birmingham, who was very pompous. Seeing a stranger in the belfry, he went up to him with a patronising air and asked him where he came from. 'Walsall,' replied the youth. 'Can you ring 12?' asked John. 'No, I can only ring one!' was the rejoinder.

The other problem was how they could practise their art without giving annoyance to other people. He asked them all to give special attention to that problem.

SOMERSET AND WALES.

Mr. J. T. Dyke, who replied, said in Somerset they definitely looked up to the College Youths not only because of their high standard of ringing, but of the personalities in the Society. His earliest recollection of College Youths was in 1910, when he came to London to take his matriculation. In Somerset they were very bellminded and they liked to get about and ring, but he was afraid that owing to the decision of His Majesty's Government they would be stuck for some time.

Mr. J. W. Jones (Llandaff and Monmouth) also replied, and expressed his delight at being present. He had the pleasure of ringing a peal the previous Saturday and he was now 82.

The toast of 'The Ringing World' was submitted by Mr. J. A. Waugh (senior steward), who announced that there would be a cordial welcome at Southwark Cathedral to any young ringers coming to London.

The Editor, in his reply, in calling attention to the popularity of peal ringing, mentioned that two peals of Doubles had been rung in New South Wales. November 19th was an important anniversary in the history of the Society. Sixty years ago Holt's Original was rung in hand for the Society at St. Albans by John C. Mitchell 1-2, G. W. Cartmel 3-4, W. H. L. Buckingham 5-6, and Albert Barnes 7-8. All those four members were still alive.

The concluding toast was to the Master and the following old Masters: John Bradley, 100 years ago, John Hardham, 200 years, and John Bayes, 300 years, and was given with a wealth of historical data by Mr. E. Alex. Young.

THE COMPANY.

Supporting the Master on the top table were the secretary and treasurer, Dr. Jocelyn Perkins, the Rev. L. Edwards. Messrs. E. H. Lewis, J. Lewis Cockey, C. W. Roberts, J. C. Mitchell, E. Pengelly, A. R. Macdonald, W. H. J. Hooton, G. J. Strickland and E. Alex. Young.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Hairs, Messrs. E. G. Fenn, R. Overy, E. T. Exeter, A. Laker, G. F. Hoad, F. T. Hoad, J. T. Dyke, E. Nash, J. A. Mundy, S. T. Russell, A. Lewry, R. Lathbury, R. ## Essex Association

A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL ADVENTURE.

The 'Crusaders' of South-West Essex completed a two years' programme on October 25th, when 40 ringers met at Hornchurch and participated in touches of many of the standard methods.

The movement, initiated by Mr. G. L. Joyce, began in May, 1946. Twenty or so experienced ringers promised their support, and the average attendance has been eleven, augmented by visitors, numbering from twenty to forty, the number varying according to the weather and accessibility of the tower. The 'experts,' not prolific peal ringers, although most like a peal or two occasionally, have given up the last Saturday in most months of the year for carrying the art here and there over the district.

Visitors were invited, even 'bullied' into trying something new to them, with a willing 'coach' standing behind one who was not quite sure. Encouragement was given to 'look up' a method, or methods, for the next meeting, and the expressions of appreciation from those who made an advance in an unfamiliar method have made the efforts of the band well worth while.

It is hoped that the series will be continued in the next open season, probably from April to October, 1948. To date the following towers have been 'covered': Brentwood, Loughton, Dagenham, Rayleigh, Barking, Romford, Woodford, Langdon Hills and Hornchurch, with district meetings at Woodford, Epping, Leigh-on-Sea, Stamford-le-Hope, West Ham, Bentley (South Weald), Fyfield, Prittlewell, with Thorpe Bay. (The 'Crusade' meeting arranged for Chigwell Row in September had to be cancelled at the last minute due to a fete nearby.) This collection of towers comprises rings of five, six, eight and ten bells.

The officers of the district are grateful for the wonderful backing received from the 'Crusaders,' drawn from various towers in the district. Their loyalty, enthusiasm and forbearance have been outstanding, and many contacts have been made which should be treasured in the days to come. Also thanks are extended to the incumbents and the steeple-keepers—without their ready co-operation the scheme would have failed.

While some questions have been asked and answered on matters theoretical, it must be confessed that the burden has not been so heavy as might have been expected. The writer does mildly wonder why it is that more do not boldly ask to be allowed to try calling this or that touch. Are they too shy, or don't they aspire to conduct?

The district secretary, Mr. J. H. Crampion, 7, Cedar Avenue, Chadwell Heath, would be only too glad to hear from anybody who thinks that the conduct of the meetings could be bettered. By criticism only can improvements be introduced. The 'visitor' of to-day becomes the 'Crusader' of to-morrow! J.C.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

SOUTH OXON DISTRICT.

At the annual meeting at Thame on Oct. 18th, presided over by the Rev. F. N. Girling (branch chairman), the secretary (Mr. H. Badger) reported that membership had increased from 62 to 93 during the past year and there was also a slight increase in the balance in hand.

Mr. Badger was re-elected secretary, and Mr. Davis (Warborough) and Mr. Wells were elected branch representatives.

The Vicar (the Rev. C. N. Middleton Evans) conducted the service, and the Rev. F. N. Girling gave the address.

BRIGHTON.—On Oct. 12th at the Church of St. Nicholas, 1,260 Grandshire Triples: Miss E. M. Ralph (first quarter) 1, G. Wiggins 2, A. M. Humphrey 3, G. Adis 4, F. Bennett (cond.) 5, W. Hart 6, H. Statham 7, M. Richardson (first quarter) 8.

OBITUARY

MR. JOHN HANSON.

A ringer and chorister at St. Catherine's, Gorseinon, Swansea, from boyhood, Mr. John Hanson died recently at Weston-super-Mare.

Fellow ringers acted as bearers at the funeral at Gorseinon and after the interment a quarter-peal of Grandshire Doubles was rung by A. Jones 1, R. Dobbins 2, Reg. Dobbins 3, W. Dobbins 4, J. Williams (cond.) 5, H. Dobbins 6, A. Tew 7, G. Thomas 8 (7, 6 and 8 covering). It can be said of John, 'Enter into thy rest thou true and faithful servant.' J.W.

MR. J. W. WALDOCK.

The Mayor and Mayoress and Deputy Mayor and some of the councillors of Maldon, Essex, attended the funeral service at All Saints' Church, Maldon, on Oct. 27th, for Mr. J. W. Waldock, a well-known Essex ringer. Until his retirement last April, Mr. Waldock had been for 27 years macebearer and caretaker of the Moot Hall. He died on October 21st, aged 73.

At the service the bellringers were represented by Messrs. H. J. Mansfield, W. H. Chalk, A. South, C. J. Mann and J. D. Buckingham.

THE REV. J. F. HASTINGS.

Rector of Martley, Worcs., from 1907 to 1944, the Rev. James Francis Hastings died on Nov. 4th at Hartford House, Hartley Winney, Hants, aged 86.

Older members of the Norwich Diocesan Association will remember his keenness for ringing while a curate at Yarmouth (1888-91). He rang a number of peals for the Association and retained his interest when he accepted preferment in Worcestershire. It is believed that he took part in the clerical peal of Stedman Caters at Warwick about 40 years ago.

BARWELL REMEMBERS

On All Saints' Day two memorial tablets were dedicated in Barwell, Leicestershire, belfry by the Rector (Canon H. V. Williams) to Charles F. Belton and William White, who together had served for more than 110 years as ringers.

The tablets are of Welsh slate with gilt engraved lettering, the work of Mr. C. H. Webb, a ringer of Allesley, Coventry. Members of the Hinckley District subscribed for Mr. Belton's memorial, and the other was provided by Mrs. White, the widow.

The service, which was fully choral, was largely attended, and at tea at the Church Institute about 100 were present. The ringing was notable for very good striking, Mr. W. P. Whitehead being the ringing master.

COVENTRY DIOCESAN GUILD

The fine ten at St. Mary's, Warwick, were well employed on the occasion of the Guild's quarterly meeting on October 18th.

The Master, Mr. F. E. Pervin, presided at the business meeting, and asked all present to stand in silence to the memory of Mr. T. W. Chapman, a freeman and founder member of the Guild, who had done much for ringing in the Midlands; and also to the memory of Mr. E. Stone, a pupil of Mr. Chapman's who had done much spadework with struggling bands.

Bedworth was chosen as the meeting place for January. New members elected were G. Rathbone (Southam), Rosalind Griffiths and Colin Wharton (Allesley) and Eileen Vines (Meriden), the three last mentioned being junior members.

Mr. D. Stanley (Stratford) said that he would bring a notice of motion before the next meeting to include Stratford in the rota of annual meeting places.

After a question regarding the financial status of the Guild, it was decided to ask the secretary to proceed with the preparation of reports for the years 1946 and 1947 to be published in time for the annual meeting in April, 1948.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wakefield Peal Boards

Dear Sir,—I feel sure that all who visited Wakefield for the dedication of the Cathedral bells went home with the conviction that a really magnificent job had been made of the restoration. Indeed, some may have departed with feelings of envy.

We often hear it said, 'Nothing is as good as it used to be,' but this cannot be said of the new ring at Wakefield. All concerned are to be congratulated on the result, particularly the founders, who have made a notable addition to their already long list of beautiful rings in the County of Broad Acres.

In the Wakefield Cathedral Magazine, the Provost, the Very Rev. N. T. Hopkins, writes:

'I have had the large unsightly boards in the ringing chamber, recording the peals rung during the past 100 years or so, removed; they occupied an unjustifiable amount of space in the chamber, they darkened the place and, though perhaps possessing some interest to a very limited number of people, were of no particular antiquarian or historical value.'

'Nevertheless, I have taken care that the records inscribed on the boards shall be preserved and, for this purpose, a rather beautifully bound book has been procured and all the various inscriptions which have now disappeared from the walls have been inserted in the volume. An account of the present restoration of the bells and their dedication will also be included, together with any notable peals which may be rung in future years. I shall have the volume preserved in a dust-proof case in the ringing chamber.'

There will be many ringers who, whilst being thankful to the Provost for his good work in connection with the bells, will not see eye to eye with him with regard to the old peal boards. He must realise that the very limited number of people to whom the old boards were of interest are the ringers, who are the only people who use the ringing chamber.

One feels when ringing in a chamber with its walls covered by old peal boards that one is ringing against a background of history; history made by our predecessors in days when ringing knowledge was not what it is to-day.

The removal of the boards is to be deplored, but we get a few crumbs of comfort from the knowledge that the old records have been preserved in a book: a book, however, which, no matter how beautifully it may be bound, can never replace the old peal boards.—Yours truly,

HAROLD WALKER.

Clifton, York.

TIVERTON LITTLE BOB

Dear Sir,—With reference to your query in 'Belfry Gossip,' the peal of Tiverton Little Bob rung at Buckley was, in fact, the first in that method.

It may perhaps be helpful to place on record the methods in the Central Council's Plain Major Methods Collection in which peals have so far been rung. The following list is, I think, complete:—

Nos. 1-15, 17, 19-22, 32-34, 36-44, 51, 53, 70, 73-79 and 81.

Of the Cater methods, No. 5 only (Double Norwich) has been rung.—Yours faithfully,

E. A. BARNETT.

Crayford, Kent.

MARRIAGE OF MISS L. K. BOWLING

The congratulations of a wide circle of ringing friends will be extended to Canon Charles Cecil Marshall, former Vicar of Far Headingley, Leeds, and until this year president of the Yorkshire Association, on the occasion of his marriage to Miss Lucy Kathleen Bowling, who is also a member of the Central Council.

The ceremony took place at Broadclyst, Devon, on October 30th, the Rev. A. T. Allwork officiating.

The Loughborough Attempt

Dear Sir,—I hesitate to indulge in the washing of dirty linen in public, but I am so filled with righteous indignation at Mr. Clift's gallant but misguided attempt to excuse and condone the fiasco at Loughborough that I cannot refrain from one or two comments.

Excellence, as I would judge it, is a quality seldom experienced in ringing. If excellence is to be the standard, far less than one per cent. of the peals at present rung should be published. Certainly none of the ringing we heard at Loughborough was in that class. For one thing, there was a tendency for the treble to be rung just a shade slow at hand. For another, the first two courses were a trifle too slow (17 minutes a course) even for such a majestic peal of bells. But taking it all round, the ringing was good average stuff until the first trip of the attempt occurred. This trip could, and should, have been stopped at a missed dodge as it occurred at the easiest possible lead of the course (the third lead). Even so, the bells were right well within the lead, and with a proper effort at the back end to keep the beat going, an immediate recovery would have been possible.

Right or wrong, my opinion is that the conductor, having omitted to put the bells right himself, resented the fact that someone else did. It ought not to take 2½ hours to find out whether or not ringing is good enough for a peal, however excellent the bells, and in any case there are occasions when private feelings should be subordinated to the claims of common courtesy. As the popular song would have it, 'It ain't what you do, it's the way that you do it.'

In conclusion, may I say that I hope I shall have the pleasure of ringing a peal with Mr. Clift under more propitious circumstances at some future date. He can be assured that I, for one, having started for a peal, will make every effort to play my part in ringing it. This is the least that can be demanded of any ringer.

The opposing opinions having now been put in public, I trust the matter will be dropped and that an incident best forgotten will not be allowed to mar the pleasant memories and friendships of a very happy week-end.—Yours faithfully,

P. A. CORBY.

Forest Hill, S.E.23.

SOUTH AFRICA'S WELCOME

Dear Sir.—I wish to thank Harold Milford, late of Plymouth, now in Simonstown, South Africa, for his kindness to me on arrival at Capetown on September 24th. From the time I stepped off the ship he took full charge of me until it was time to leave by train at 9 p.m. the same evening.

Also to Cyril Chambers, who very kindly met me at Durban. He obtained accommodation, also a job of work for me, which I commenced three days after arrival. He is proving a most invaluable friend to me. The ringing is in a very poor state at the moment, but Mr. Chambers and myself are determined to send that 'quarter-peal' as soon as we can. We have a splendid peal of ten at St. Mary's, tenor 18 cwt., and a nice peal of eight, tenor 14 cwt., at St. Paul's, but there is a lot of hard work to be done. We are having every support from the clergy.—Yours very sincerely,

FRANCIS THOMAS WAITE.

Late of Gloucester, Eng'nd.

Linwood Villa, 150, Smith Street, Durban.

Lancashire Association

WIGAN BRANCH AT ORMSKIRK.

The Wigan Branch of the Lancashire Association held their monthly meeting at Ormskirk Parish Church on November 1st. About 40 ringers were present and all attended the short service given by Canon Redwood. After tea at a local cafe, the members stood in silence as a mark of respect to Mr. F. Rigby, secretary of the Preston Branch, who died suddenly during the week, and to T. Gilmour, of Liverpool.

It was a very good meeting, and, thanks to visiting friends, useful work was done from London to Grandsire Triples. Methods rung were Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Cambridge Surprise, Superlative Surprise and London Surprise.

At the meeting it was arranged to ring a half-muffled peal of Cambridge by a band of eight Wigan Branch men. The peal was accomplished on Monday, November 3rd, at Christ Church, Southport, it being the finest Surprise peal of Major by an entirely Wigan Branch band.

LADIES' GUILD JOINT MEETING

Miss H. F. Mills, who for the past 27 years has been secretary of the Southern District of the Ladies' Guild, was presented with a cheque as a small token of the members' gratitude and esteem at a joint meeting of the district with the Farnham District of the Guildford Guild at Aldershot on November 1st. The presentation was made by the Vicar of Aldershot (the Rev. A. L. E. Hoskyns Abraham). Miss Mills, in reply, said she thought it was time a younger member took office. The Ladies' Guild appointed Miss Winifred A. Oliver, of Guildford, as her successor.

Business at the Farnham District meeting included the renomination of the district officers for 1948 and the election of two new members—Mr. Cobb (Farnborough) and Mr. Wake (Yorktown).

Mr. G. L. Grover, Guild secretary, thanked the Vicar for permitting the meeting and also the tea hostesses, three local lady ringers.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

CAMBRIDGE DISTRICT AT ICKLETON.

When the Cambridge District met at Ickleton on October 25th, Mr. Hibbin spoke of the Association's jubilee, paying tribute to the following pioneer members: Mr. P. Webb (Ickleton), Mr. F. Hurry (Sawston), Mr. B. Buttress (Fulbourn), Mr. Fields (St. Neots), Mr. Abrams (Chatteris) and Mr. Dennis (Cambridge).

Mr. B. Threlfall (Bebington, Cheshire) and Mr. B. P. Crowley (Wiveton, Norfolk) were elected non-resident life members, and Mr. R. Iredale (Cambridge) a resident member. The next meeting will be at Harston on Nov. 29th.

Thirty-six members and friends attended, and the Vicar (the Rev. A. E. Penny) conducted the service.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The presence of 44 ringers at Rothwell for the Society's October meeting was an indication of the popularity of this tower and its leader, Mr. Strangeway. This point was made by Mr. W. H. Senior in his vote of thanks to the local company, with special thanks for the tea.

Mr. J. McGlenn presided, and the Rector of Rothwell and Mr. Cargill (churchwarden) also attended. Two new members elected were Mr. M. Petty (Idle) and Mr. T. Bradley (Armley).

The Chairman thanked the Rector and churchwardens for allowing the use of the bells, and the Rev. H. S. Tallents, in reply, said he was pleased to see the Society getting older and younger at the same time, for by the old and young working together the continued success of the Society would be assured. The next meeting is due at Kippax on Nov. 29th.

THE PRINCESS

YESTERDAY was a memorable occasion in the life of the British Commonwealth with the wedding of the Heiress Presumptive. It was not only at Westminster Abbey, where amid pageantry this solemn sacrament took place, that the bells rang out their message of felicitations, but also from all the great cathedrals of our land as well as the churches of our towns and villages. And the vibrant hum of the bell was not confined to this land; messages have reached us from Canada, Australia and South Africa telling of the plans to give expression to that devotion that in a remarkable manner has been displayed towards the House of Windsor.

This loyalty is almost a paradox, coming as it does in an era when men's minds are drifting towards communal ideas and objectives. Outlook has changed since the days when the first Elizabeth ascended the throne and the individuality of the Sovereign found expression in vigorous direction of the affairs of State. 'Have a care over my people,' she charged her judges. 'You have my people; do you that which I ought to do. See unto them; see unto them, for they are my charge.' To-day the great ties of the throne are by precept and example. The unity of this people has been brought about by the Christian example and the display of those homely virtues by the reigning sovereign and his family. They constitute a pattern for a great people, and while those virtues of truth, unweariness in duty, courtesy and consideration for others are revealed in our King and Queen, then will the traditional respect and homage knit the peoples of their dominions together.

The good wishes and blessings, which have been showered on the young lovers from the hearts and minds of millions are not mere platitudes; they have been stimulated by the words of the Princess in her famous coming-of-age broadcast from South Africa. There was the sense of statesmanship of the first Elizabeth behind her message, which read: 'I declare before you all that my whole life, whether it be long or short, shall be devoted to your service and the great imperial family to which we all belong. I shall not have the strength to carry out this resolution unless you join in it with me.' That dedication of service is not reserved to the Princess. We humbler folk of the ringing chamber will surely accept the challenge and share kinship with her by performing whatever tasks are before us to the best of our might and skill.

'THE RINGING WORLD'

The Official Journal of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers

EDITORIAL OFFICE: c/o Woodbridge Press,

POSTAL SUBSCRIPTION RATES (prepaid):
4/3 quarterly, 8/6 half-year, and 17/- yearly.
Orders, with remittance, to Mr. H. J. Eldred, Yarmouth.

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE:

EDWIN H. LEWIS, M.A. (President of Council).

GEORGE W. FLETCHER (Hon. Secretary of Council), The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk.

A. A. HUGHES, J.P. (Hon. Treasurer)
34, Whitechapel Road, E.1.

MRS. E. K. FLETCHER.

EDITOR: T. W. WHITE.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

We are reserving the issue of December 5th for the recording of ringing for the Royal Wedding. This number will be of 16 pages. Conductors of peals and quarter-peals will facilitate production if they send in reports early.

Before our next issue, Mr. James George, of Heather View, 118, Rossmore Road, Park-stone, the ringer of 1,279 peals, will have passed his 94th birthday. Best wishes from us all for Nov. 27th.

Mr. Peter Laffin has circled Norbury (Hazel Grove) Church, Cheshire, and Philip Barnes, Burton-on-Stather, Lincs.

A sign of progress from Ringwood, Hants.
Six first peals and all service ringers at the church.

Appeals have been made in the local Press at Driffield, Yorkshire, to provide ringers. A ring of six, with tenor 12 cwt., dated 1593, was restored in 1880, and during the past 67 years the tower has never possessed a change ringing band. The Beverley and District Society are only too anxious to help if the recruits are forthcoming.

Ernest Morris had hard luck at Bottesford, one of the only two remaining towers in Leicestershire he has not rung a peal. After 2½ hours' perfect Stedman Triples the tenor clapper broke! This is his second similar occurrence within the last three months. Recently at Syston after 2½ hours the 7th clapper broke!

Martock, Somerset, does not frequently appear in the peal column. Between the peal of Bob Major on November 1st and the last was a gap of 22 years. Only once before has a peal of Major been rung here—in 1903 when the late Mr. W. Pye and other well-known ringers were on tour. This was New Cambridge Surprise. Preb G. W. Saunders and Mr. Farrant, the captain, visited the belfry at the end and congratulated the ringers on their good striking.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Ringling history has been made in New South Wales
by the first peal for the local association. It is our pleasure to record two peals of Doubles this week from Australia.
It's up to you, Canada!

Mr. J. L. Millhouse rang his 50th peal this year at Horbling, Lincs, on November 1st.

Nine peals were rung on November 1st in churches dedicated to All Saints, and were for the patronal festival.

When was the last peal at Stoke Mandeville, Bucks? Will the conductor please enlighten the Editor, as it is omitted from copy in hand.

November 25th is the 55th anniversary of the first peal of Stedman Caters by the All Saints' Fulham, Society. Of the band, Messrs.
Adams (Warwick), Elson (Fulham) and W. S.
Smith (Wimbledon) are still with us.

The first peal of Royal by a band of the same Christian name was 5,000 Treble Ten at Fulham on April 19th, 1902. The band consisted of W. Weatherstone, W. S. Smith, W.
T. Elson, W. E. Judd, W. H. Hollier, W.
Pickworth, W. J. Jeffries, W. Berry, W. J.
Nudds and W. Pye (conductor).

Inadvertently omitted from the list of those who had completed 50 years' membership and attended the 310th anniversary dinner of the College Youths was Mr. Francis T. Hoad, of Reigate. With his father, the late Francis T.
Hoad, and his brother, George F. Hoad, he joined the Society in 1897 and is very proud of his membership.

What is probably the finest model bell in existence has been loaned to the tower at Wrington in Somerset. It belonged to the late Major Hesse, and is complete with wheel and steel frame, a remarkable engineering job of the utmost precision. The actual bell was cast at the Whitechapel Foundry from the cannons of Sherborne Abbey tenor, and it is fitted with a clapper of special design, perfected by Major Hesse, who built the model himself.

Ringling in British Columbia and the U.S.A.

Dear Sir,—During my recent tour in Canada and the United States I visited Vancouver and Victoria, B.C. Arriving at Vancouver on Sunday, September 14th, I was met by Mr. Limpus, the veteran of ringing in that far western part. In the evening a full muster turned up to welcome me at the R.C. Cathedral Church of the Holy Rosary, and we were able to ring Grandsire Triples. Later on we all spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. Limpus, jun., and wonderful hospitality was dispensed. The next move was to Victoria, Vancouver Island, a trip of exceptional beauty. Arriving on September 16th, we were met by Messrs. Izard and Lomas. In the evening a full band met at Christ Church Cathedral and we were able to ring Grandsire and Stedman Triples, and a course of Bob Major, the first on the bells (tenor 30 cwt.). The framework was erected and the eight bells hung in five days by local labour under the guidance of Mr. E. W. Izard. The band included Mr. Izard, his son and daughter, Miss Chandler and Messrs. Lomas, White, Melhuish, King, Lake, Merritt and Ernest Weatherby, who had flown from Los Angeles for the occasion. The tower is not yet complete and the bells are housed in a wooden structure on top of the walls. After the ringing the party was royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Izard in their home on the shores of a beautiful inlet.

On the following evening, further ringing, and an attempt for a quarter-peal of Stedman, conducted by Mr. Lomas. This unfortunately came to grief after 30 minutes. Three new members were elected to the Ancient Society of College Youths, viz., Messrs. Izard, jun., E. G. H. White and D. Boniface. On the following day I greatly appreciated a tour through Messrs. Yarrows' shipbuilding yards, through the kindness of Mr. Izard. These yards must surely be the most beautifully situated of their kind in the world; they have been described as a shipyard in a beautiful garden. A 7,000 ton ship under construction was to be launched two weeks later.

Ringling in Victoria is certainly making good progress. After visiting California we finally arrived in Boston, Mass., and it was a great joy to meet once again Mr. Warren Sturgis, his son, and Mrs. Arthur Shurecliff (daughter of the late Dr. Arthur Nicholls). Ringling for divine service at Groton School Chapel followed on Sunday morning. The ringing here is carried on by boys of the school, and it is a pity that their progress cannot be continued after school days, for in the great majority of cases the boys are settled where no ringing is possible. The same conditions apply to Kent School. They are, however, wonderfully keen and make good progress.

On the following Tuesday evening, after an enjoyable dinner party at the College Club in Boston, we attended a meeting of tune ringing handbell guilds, originated by Mrs. Shurecliff. The performances were of a very high order, and the harmony produced by some of the bands with only fourteen or fifteen bells was wonderful. Mrs. Hughes also contributed to the evening's entertainment. Mr. Sturgis, Mrs. Shurecliff, Mr. Walker (totally blind) and I were able to ring a course of Grandsire Triples. It was all a delightful experience.

A few days later we returned to Montreal, and after a rough passage arrived at Liverpool 14 hours late to face stern realities once again. The wonderful kindness and hospitality we received everywhere will never be forgotten.—Yours, A. A. HUGHES.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSN.

A successful meeting of the Eastern District was held at St. Oswald's Church, West Hartlepool, on November 8th, when 93 members from various districts attended. The meeting was notable for the progress made by some of the younger ringers. A short service with address was conducted by the Rector.

Old Hill Bells Rehung

RINGER'S WIDOW DEFRAYS COST.

The bells of Holy Trinity Church, Old Hill, Staffordshire, a fine, rich toned ring of eight originally cast in 1876 by Messrs. Taylors, of Loughborough, with a tenor 23½ cwt., have now been retuned and rehung, complete with new fittings and ball bearing movements, in a new steel frame by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, the Croydon bellfounders.

The cost of the work has been defrayed out of a legacy by the late Mrs. A. E. Parsons, widow of a member of the original local band. Many of the older members of the ringing fraternity will remember Albert Parsons, who, with Alfred and Charles Bessano and Harry Mason, were well-known ringers in towers up and down the country.

The bells were rededicated by the Lord Bishop of Worcester on Sunday evening, Nov. 9th. Amongst eight or nine hundred worshippers were many ringers from local towers. Messrs. Gillett and Johnston were represented by Mr. Donovan Bradford, who presented the local ringers with photographs of the bells as reassembled at the foundry. The ringing which followed the service was thoroughly enjoyed; the local band, particularly, are grateful that a somewhat hard-going ring has been transformed into a pleasurable one.

Details of the ring are as follows:—

Treble, note F, 6 cwt. 2 qr.; 2, 1.6 cwt. 2 qr. 7 lb.; 3, D, 7 cwt. 2 qr. 24 lb.; 4, C, 8 cwt. 2 qr. 12 lb.; 5, B flat, 10 cwt. 2 qr.; 6, A, 12 cwt. 12 lb.; 7, G, 16 cwt. 2 qr. 1 lb.; tenor, F, 23 cwt. 1 qr.

THE LOUGHBOROUGH ATTEMPT

Dear Sir,—When your remarks on this subject appeared in Belfry Gossip it was obvious that someone was annoyed at the outcome of this attempt. It was, therefore, not surprising to me when Mr. Corby 'rose to the bait.' In his display of righteous indignation he has, however, missed the essentials, and by stooping to level criticism at individual members of the band he has left himself open to similar treatment.

Had he levelled his criticism where it was really due I should have respected his opinion by allowing the matter to drop. In the circumstances I feel that I must ask him why he did not include in his letter a criticism of the manner in which the third was rung. It would be a conservative estimate to state that 90 per cent. of the faults in the attempt were caused by the bad handling of that particular bell. If this were not the case, can he say why he found it necessary to speak to that particular ringer so many times? Can it be that love is really blind?

I wonder how Mr. Corby would feel if someone took over the conducting from him in the middle of a peal; his behaviour on that occasion was such as to give the impression that a peal was to be scored at all costs.

I would, therefore, advise him to take the words of his popular song to heart, 'The way you do it,' counts for very much, especially among strangers, and while hoping that I shall one day ring a peal in his company, I would assure him that 'peal at all cost' methods will not be tolerated by—Yours faithfully,

Stapleton, Bristol.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD ISLE OF WIGHT BRANCH.

A well-attended meeting was held at All Saints', Ryde, on November 1st, the day of the patronal festival. This fine Taylor's ring of eight was set going to a variety of methods, not forgetting rounds for beginners.

After an enjoyable tea, kindly provided by the branch ringing master (Mr. W. Unton), the bells were again rung. For the service 1.260 Grandsire Triples was rung by A. Lambkin (Scunthorpe) 1, B. C. Stirling (first quarter on eight) 2, C. Taylor 3, F. Taylor (cond.) 4, A. R. Ward 5, W. Upton 6, A. Jackson 7, A. White 8.

OBITUARY

THE REV. J. H. HASTINGS.

A valued correspondent writes apropos the death of the Rev. J. H. Hastings that he rang in the first peal of the Oxford University Society—Stedman Triples at Drayton on Feb. 2nd, 1882. The first clerical peal (Stedman Triples) was also rung at Drayton two years later, but Mr. Hastings did not participate.

MR. WILLIAM HAYNES.

Many ringers knew Mr. William Haynes, who died on November 6th in his 90th year. He retired early in 1932 after 60 years' service with John Smith and Sons, Midland Clock Works, Derby.

In 1893 he undertook the installation of the new great clock at St. Paul's Cathedral, and during his long career travelled all over the British Isles on behalf of the firm. From 1913 until his retirement he was manager of the firm. His sound advice was in great demand by the clock making industry.

MR. FRED RIGBY.

The sudden death of Mr. Fred Rigby, secretary of the Preston Branch of the Lancashire Association, is a distinct loss to the Exercise. A most lovable character, he was serving his second term as secretary, the first being from 1920-33, and then from 1939 until his death. He was a service ringer at St. Lawrence's, Chorley, for 45 years.

The scoring of peals for him was a most difficult matter in years gone by than now, and he had to travel far, sometimes on foot or cycle, to collect his 106 peals. One of his regrets was the absence of Cambridge inside from his list. He had conducted quite a number of Minor and Grandsire peals, one of the latter being his own variation of Taylor's Six-part.

The funeral at Chorley Parish Church was preceded by half-muffled touches and the whole pull and stand. It was held on All Saints' Day, and the Rector (Canon Wyatt), who officiated, fittingly included Fred in that numerous company. As the cortege moved off to Charnock Richard, where the interment took place, a finely struck touch of Stedman was rung. Some of his most intimate ringing friends acted as bearers, and on theasket with the family wreath was a floral bell from the Preston Branch.

On the following day, All Souls' Day, a half-muffled peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major was rung to his memory, and on Monday a half-muffled peal of Cambridge was rung at Southport, which was incidentally the first Surprise peal by a Wigan Branch band. So 'That's all' and 'Stand' was called to the earthly changes of one who in his time and place called forth the love and esteem of his friends. F.G.B.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

LEWISHAM DISTRICT.

Very welcome visitors from the Rochester and Maidstone Districts and also from London were among the attendance of 65 ringers at the annual meeting at Erith on October 25th. The Vicar (the Rev. G. L. Bennett) conducted the service.

At the business meeting the Vicar presided and paid a tribute to Mr. F. J. Cullum and his band of ringers. The election of two members previous to peals was ratified. Penge was chosen for the meeting on January 31st.

After the adoption of the secretary's report, Mr. A. G. Hill was re-elected secretary, and Messrs. J. E. Bailey and P. A. Corby district representatives. Following precedent, the post of Ringing Master changed hands, Mr. W. J. Rawlings (Beckenham) being appointed. A cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr. A. S. Richards, the retiring Master.

Dartford was recommended for the annual general meeting of the Association which is to be held in the Lewisham district. A social evening is to be held at Erith on December 6th.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

EAST DERBYSHIRE AND NOTTS ASSN.

WITH the object of restoring Sunday ringing to its rightful place in the service of the Church, this Association was formed in 1887 at Clay Cross under the title of the East Derbyshire Association.

Its early existence was a struggle; at times the threat of extinction loomed large, but happily for change ringing in this area a stalwart invariably made his appearance in the hour of need and so kept burning steadily the flame of enthusiasm for our art. In the forefront of these is Mr. J. H. England, of South Normanton, who at the last annual meeting resigned the post of secretary owing to pressure of other duties after holding office for 16 years. In the less onerous post of vice-president he is still ever ready to help as opportunities arise, either in ringing or church work.

THE OBJECTS.

At the inaugural meeting the following were the four main objects of the Association:—

(1) The observance of good and peaceful behaviour in the belfries of our churches, as being an integral part of the Church, and therefore consecrated to the service of God; while the bells and ringers are intended to be exercised equally with the organ and choir, for His glory and worship.

(2) The refrain as far as possible from using the bells on the Lord's Day except for the services of the Church.

(3) To obtain full recognition of the Ringer's Office, as essentially a branch of the Church's work; that they and their services (which demand much time, skill and mental labour) may be placed upon a true and acknowledged basis.

(4) To cultivate the art of change ringing, by meetings in various centres for friendly peal ringing; and to provide, at a reasonable cost, instructors for those who may require them.

The first patron that can be traced is the Bishop of Southwell. Other officers elected at the inauguration of the Association were Canon Massey, the then Rector of South Normanton, president; and the late Rev. J. B. Nodder, Rector of Ashover, as vice-president.

At its foundation the Association was confined to six towers, these being Clay Cross, North Wingfield, Ashover, Brampton (Chesterfield), Crich and South Normanton. From these, which were all six-bell towers, there were 46 ringing members.

Of these towers, Ashover, Crich and Brampton have ceased to be members, but the Association has increased its scope and has members at the following towers: Alfreton, Ault, Hucknall, Blackwell, Denby, Heath, Heanor, Mansfield, Mansfield Woodhouse, Morton, Pleasley, Ripley, Silston, Swanick, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Shirland, Tibshelf and Warsop, with the original three. These towers are three eight-bell, five five-bell, one four-bell and the remainder six-bell.

Clay Cross was the centre of the Association until 1902, annual meetings always being held in this tower. South Normanton was selected for the 1903 meeting, and since then meetings have been held at different centres.

TWO ASSOCIATIONS.

Rivalry caused by the presence of two Associations covering much the same area was a cause of early weakness. In 1903 a joint meeting of the East Derbyshire Association and the old East Derbyshire Association was held, when a resolution was moved by Mr. Butler that both East Derbyshire Associations be merged into one association. This was defeated by a large majority and the Associations continued as two separate bodies. The change in the title was introduced in October, 1927, when the Association became known as 'The East Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire Association.'

The Association has always worked as one body and been centrally administered. A proposal was, however, made at the meeting at Wingerworth in 1918 that a northern and southern division be formed. This did not find favour with the majority of members.

JUBILEE SHIELD.

To mark the jubilee of the Association in 1937 a shield was presented, to be awarded to the tower showing the most progress during the year. This was judged on points, which were awarded as follows:—

CLAY CROSS CHURCH

Sunday service attendance	55
General progress	35
Association meetings attendance	10

Total 100

This shield is not rung for and cannot in any sense be classified as competition ringing.

The first tower to hold the shield was Kirkby-in-Ashfield, followed in 1938 by Sutton-in-Ashfield; 1939 Tibshelf, and this tower held it again in 1943, when ringing was resumed. Clay Cross held the shield during 1944 and 1945.

The E.D.N.A. have never been pealmindeed, but a few peals have been scored for the Association by different bands of ringers.

During the life of the Association six persons have held the office of secretary. These are Mr. J. J. Cook, 1887-1894; Mr. T. Allibone, 1894-1920; Mr. H. G. Fretwell, 1920-1926; Mr. W. Allin, 1926-1930; Mr. J. W. England, 1930-1945; Mr. J. W. Price, 1945-. Clay Cross provided the first secretary, and the present secretary also comes from that tower.

The oldest member is Mr. H. Dravcott, of Tibshelf, with 57 years to his credit, and he is still regular in his attendance at both Sunday service and ringing meetings. J.H.P.

Beverley and District Society

APPOINTMENT OF NEW MASTER.

The handy ring of eight at Cottingham (tenor 20 cwt.) were made good use of when the Society accepted the hearty invitation of the Rector (the Rev. W. R. Hebron) on November 8th. The bells were raised in peal and rung to various methods. The Rector conducted the service, the organist being Mr. A. H. Fox, president of the Eastern District of the Yorkshire Association.

For the business meeting which followed tea, attended by a company of over 50, Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair, supported by Mr. F. Dales, Mr. L. Daggett, Mr. A. H. Fox, the Rev. G. S. Storer and the secretary (Mr. A. E. Sellers).

The main business was the appointment of a ringing master in succession to Mr. Clem Glenn, whose resignation was regretfully accepted. The choice was Mr. Len Rodmell, of Patrington, who was proposed by Mr. Wood, seconded by Mr. T. W. Kneeshaw. In thanking the Society for the honour, Mr. Rodmell assured the members that he would do his utmost to further the art of change ringing. Mr. F. Wilkinson, of Minburnholme, was elected to the vacancy on the committee.

Mr. F. Dale (vice-president) moved that the secretary write to Mr. Glenn expressing extreme regret that circumstances had made necessary his leaving the district and the indebtedness of the members to him for his untiring and devoted services as first Ringing Master. The resolution expressed the hope that he would return at an early date to the Beverley district and resume his ringing activities. This was carried with applause.

The next meeting was announced for Hedon on December 15th, and St. Mary's, Lowgate, Hull, was selected for the January meeting.

The Rev. G. S. Storer offered to compile a short service for the use of the Society at their meetings, and said he hoped that they would soon have the bellfounders at work at Hutton Crauswick putting in their bells.

The next item on the agenda—new members—proved to be a great compliment to the Society. It was a personal application for enrolment of the whole company of nine members from St. Mary's, Scarborough. Their election was hailed with enthusiasm.

The customary votes of thanks included tributes to the Rector and the local company.

AN OLDHAM MEMORIAL

On October 29th, in the belfry of St. Mary's (Oldham) Parish Church, Mr. H. Barlow unveiled a memorial plaque to Mr. E. B. Sykes, a former ringer, who was killed in action in the Mediterranean on March 31st, 1941.

Canon Stephenson, M.C., Vicar and Rural Dean, gave an address in the presence of Mr. E. Sykes (mother) and other close relatives.

After the ceremony a quarter-peal of Grand-sire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled by the following band: H. Nutt 1, W. Howarth 2, H. Barlow 3, I. Kay 4, A. Taylor 5, V. Sykes, sen. (conductor) 6, V. W. Sykes, jun. 7, J. T. Walmsley 8. First quarter for 1st and 7th.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

VISIT TO ILSINGTON.

A number of members of the Mid-Devon Branch visited Ilington, near Newton Abbot, on November 8th, where the bells have lately been returned and relung. Touches of Grand-sire and Stedman Doubles and Plain Bob Minor were rung during the afternoon, after which the visitors adjourned to the Carpenters Arms for tea.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

EAST NORFOLK BRANCH.

Thirty-seven members attended the meeting of the East Norfolk Branch at Blofield on October 25th. The Rector (the Rev. H. Percival Smith) not only conducted the service but supplied tea in the Rectory. He was invited to take the chair at the business meeting, when three new members were elected, viz., H. Layt, Margaret Layt and Margaret Barrett, and Annetta Martins, promoted from probationer to full member. All of these came from Blofield.

It was proposed if possible to hold the next meeting at Acle on March 6th next year. A vote of thanks by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard was passed to the Rector and to the ladies who assisted at tea. Handbells came into use at the Rectory, and ringing was resumed at the church, an enjoyable afternoon being provided.

OURSELVES

'STIR-UP' Sunday has just passed—a day when our forefathers first stirred the Christmas pudding. While your Editor has no desire to cause a general 'stir-up' among his readers, he feels that there are certain domestic matters concerning 'The Ringing World' which he should ventilate.

At Leicester and at the College Youths' dinner he was privileged to mention some of his difficulties. The first was in the matter of circulation. The new regulations governing the control of paper mean a reduction by 600 subscribers if our present size is maintained, but any reserves in hand can be used to counterbalance loss. Fortunately our reserves are adequate to retain a 12-page issue until the end of February. New subscribers will only be taken on as old ones leave.

In the realm of performance peal ringing has increased considerably. Although we have allocated another half-page to peals and curtailed footnotes, the number of peals in arrears continues to grow. To grapple with the influx of peals arising from the Royal Wedding, our next issue will be 16 pages, but in order to husband resources we regret that the Boxing Day issue will be only eight pages. The decision to give prominence to the Royal Wedding will result in abandoning the chronological order of publication of peals and quarters in our next issue.

Just a word concerning quarter-peals. For a time the Editor did succeed in publishing all that were submitted. To-day it is necessary to make a selection, and the guiding principle in making a choice is first-quarters and firsts in the method. An exception is also made of special occasions. May we again remind conductors that the sender's name and address must accompany all peals and quarters. The frailty of human nature is such that errors do occur even among our regular contributors. It is also important to write peals and quarter-peals legibly and in a manner in which they will appear. Many are rewritten because the copy is not suitable for the compositors. Typographical errors can thus be substantially reduced.

To the many excellent correspondents who supply reports and letters the Editor would say 'Thank you.' The brightness and interest of 'The Ringing World' depend to a large degree on the material supplied. There is still much ringing news that does not reach us. After all, the purpose of 'The Ringing World' is to be a journal about ringers and ringing, the link that binds all ringers, whether in a village church or a great cathedral, into one confraternity as servants of the same Master.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

There will be genuine sympathy from all ringers with the band at Westminster Abbey that the peal attempt on Nov. 20th failed after an hour's ringing. Mr. J. N. C. Pitstow informs us that the Dean has authorised another attempt on Nov. 26th.

There is some good reading from Scotland this week-end. Four first peals at Paisley.

Mr. F. A. Adams, of Staveley, Derbyshire, has rung Little Bob from Major to Maximus.

Mr. Stanley E. Darmon has been elected Master of the Cambridge University Guild, as Mr. R. Leigh is 'going down' this term.

Mrs. Kathleen Jones had an unusual experience in her first peal at Newhall, Derbyshire, on November 8th. The treble rope broke during the attempt, and after the conductor (her husband) had spliced her rope, the second attempt was successful. Mrs. Jones started ringing seven months ago.

Two Bournemouth boys, M. J. Best and G. E. Evenden, had an unexpected pleasure on November 2nd of being allowed to strap St. Paul's Cathedral tenor. Later in the day they were invited to ring their first quarter of Stedman at Lambeth.

The 'Surprise' mentality has Alan Cattell, the 16-year-old Leicester boy, whose first blow in Yorkshire was a peal of Maximus at the Cathedral. Well done!

At the meeting at Aldershot on November 1st, combining the Ladies' Guild and the Farnham District of the Guildford Guild, no fewer than 20 officials were present. They were the Master, secretary, treasurer and a vice-president of the Guildford Guild; the president, retiring and prospective secretaries of the Guildford Guild; the Guildford district secretary; the Ringing Master, secretary and eight tower captains of the Farnham District, together with the two Farnham District Executive Committee members. In all 70 ringers from 20 towers attended.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Congratulations to 12-year-old Margaret Beamish on another fine achievement in ringing her first peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal at Melton Mowbray. Eight towers were represented in the band, who desire to thank Mr. Joseph A. Fenton (local captain) for arranging the peal.

Mr. Percy Page, the Kent ringer, has completed his century of peals. Congratulations.

Note the quarter-peal at Hughenden, Bucks, by veterans whose ages ranged from 73 to 82. They are to attempt a peal early next year and intend to make it an annual event.

Re father and son peals, Mr. Arthur Knights and his son, B. A. Knights, rang 255 true peals and three false; with his son, A. P. Knights, he rang 157 true peals and one false.

A peal at Stradbroke, Suffolk, is an achievement owing to the swaying tower, and to ring the seventh and eighth is no mean achievement. The peal of Cambridge Surprise Major on November 8th was the first for 40 years.

Made a full member in the Diamond Jubilee year (1897). Mr. Fred Oakhill, captain and secretary of Wotton-under-Edge, Glos., tower, celebrated his 50 years' membership by a peal of Grandsire Triples on November 8th.

Silk Willoughby, Lincs, is likely to be in the ringing news. The three bells here were augmented to six in October, 1945, and now comes the first peal by a resident band, all of whom have been trained by Mr. James H. Musson and are choristers. In addition, there are six others under training at the rounds stage.

Mr. T. W. Addison, captain of the Thornaby, Yorkshire band, celebrated his silver wedding appropriately with a peal, and was afterwards with Mrs. Addison host and hostess at one of those Yorkshire teas! With the exception of the conductor, the band were Yorkshire born, and the occasion enabled four (including a district secretary) to score their first peals for the Association.

The Bells of Dover

The Castle and the White Cliffs
Are known the world over,
Now listen to the sound
Of the church bells of Dover.

Once again the bells of Dover are ringing out their joyous message of 'Good will to all.' A special dedication of the work of the bells and clock took place on Sunday morning, Nov. 16th, by the Vicar, the Rev. A. Stanley Cooper. Among those present were Mr. Douglas Clark, who defrayed the cost in memory of his wife, who died during the war the Mayor and Corporation of Dover, members of the Dover Harbour Board, and masters and students of Dover College.

Considerable damage was done by the shells that fell all around St. Mary's Church from the cross-channel guns on the French coast, and the tower did not escape. For some time anxiety was felt about the tower. The Canterbury Cathedral architect examined it, and while he was satisfied it was all right, he was convinced that the contents had been shaken up.

The bells have now been repaired and placed in ball bearings by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank. They were cast in the year 1724 by Samuel Knight, and each bears an inscription. But St. Mary's had bells before that date, as old vestry books show reference in 1496 and 1603 and 1633. The clock was placed in the tower in 1866 and connected are the Bow chimes, which represent the sacred link of the town of Dover with the city of London.

Special touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples were rung for the dedication of the bells on Nov. 16th by Mrs. H. George, Messrs. P. Dennis, P. Slaughter, B. Moore, E. J. Walker, E. T. Ellender, G. Godfrey, H. J. Saunders, C. George, C. Turner (conductor), R. J. Harding (Royal Artillery), W. Kitchen and A. Binfield (Folkestone).

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH ASSN.

TWENTY NEW MEMBERS ELECTED.

A successful and enjoyable meeting was held at Penhow on November 15th. The 46 members who attended included ringers from over the border in Gloucestershire. The service was conducted by the Rector, Archdeacon S. M. Davies, who gave a short and homely address on ringers' service to the Church. After service the visitors were generously entertained to tea by local parishioners, who were thanked on the proposition of Mr. J. W. Jones.

The Archdeacon took the chair at the business meeting, and before asking for the minutes referred to the tragic death of one of the young members, Basil Smith, who was killed in a road accident during the week. He also mentioned the recent death of Mr. G. Forbes, of All Saints', Newport. The company stood in silence as a tribute to their memory.

A notice of motion to raise the subscription from 1s. to 2s. was read; also one to divide the Association into districts. Restoration work at Abergavenny and Trevethin was discussed, and it was learned that Trevethin bells were nearly ready. Twenty new members, including the whole of the Penhow band and the newly-formed Penysfawr band, were elected, also two life members. A hearty vote of thanks to the Archdeacon for his kindness ended the proceedings. More ringing was indulged in after the meeting.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION ASHFORD DISTRICT.

A very enjoyable meeting was held at Smarden on November 15th, about 30 members and friends being present.

After the service, conducted by the Rector, an excellent tea was served at the Chequers, followed by a short business meeting. The fine ring of six was kept going to various methods, ranging from Plain Bob to London Surprise.

50 Years' Service

TRIBUTES TO MR. WILSON'S WORK.

A joint meeting of the Calne and Swindon branches was held at Wootton Bassett on Nov. 8th to celebrate Mr. L. A. Wilson's 50 years' association with the church and bells. Twenty Wiltshire towers were represented, with visitors from Bath, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Faringdon, Lancaster, Leamington and Oxford.

Ringings ranged from rounds to Cambridge Major, and a short service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. G. Lummis).

Over 100 sat down to an excellent tea in the Institute, following which a presentation from the parishioners of a large framed photograph and a cheque for £40 was handed to Mr. Wilson by the Vicar.

Making the presentation, the Vicar said not only had they to thank Mr. Wilson for his work among the bells for 50 years, but for his interest in the church generally, including some steeplejack work.

Mr. Wilson briefly replied and touched on events which happened when he was a youngster at his native tower of Ottery St. Mary. Further ringing brought to a close another memorable day in local ringing circles.

W.B.K.

MR. L. A. WILSON

Mr. Wilson's work among the bells of North Wiltshire is being perpetuated in another manner. A new treble has been added to the ring of five at the Church of St. Mary-the-Virgin, Lyneham. This bell was presented to Mr. Wilson by Major and Mrs. Buxton, of Ickeham Manor, Wootton Bassett, in appreciation of his services to them during the last 50 years and also of his work among the ringers. The bell has been cast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and is inscribed, 'L. A. Wilson, Ringing Master.'

Mr. Wilson has been associated with the following restorations in North Wiltshire:—

Bremhill, six rehung; Calne, eight rehung twice; Yatesbury, five rehung, treble to be added; Heddington, five rehung; Purton, five rehung, treble added; Lydiard Millicent, five rehung, treble later; Broad Hinton, six rehung; Clyffe Pypard, six rehung in old frame; Wootton Bassett, eight rehung in old frame; Hilmarton, six rehung in old frame; Lyneham, five rehung and a treble just added; Dauntsey, five rehung. He also hopes to get a treble added to the five at Compton Bassett.

ARKLOW, CO. WICKLOW.—On Nov. 9th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: H. Annesley 1, S. J. Evans 2, W. Shaw 3, F. E. Dukes (cond.) 4, W. Jones (first quarter) 5, Capt. J. Kitch 6.

Swansea and Brecon Guild

NORTHERN BRANCH.

The branch held its quarterly meeting at St. David's, Brecon, on November 8th, when about 30 members and the general hon. secretary (Mr. D. G. Williams) were present. Ringing commenced at 2.45 p.m. until service time at 4.30, when the Vicar conducted and addressed all present on the duties, services and self-sacrifice of ringers throughout the country. Members were afterwards entertained to an excellent tea in the Parish Hall.

At the business meeting the Master of the Guild (Mr. A. Matthews) presided. Three new members from Talgarth were elected, viz., Messrs. W. Smith, S. Edwards and R. Pulling. The next meeting is to take place at St. Mary's, Brecon, in February.

Under the item 'Any other business,' a resolution was put forward regarding the 25th birthday of the formation of the Guild. It was resolved to ask for the support of the Southern Branch in arranging a celebration dinner on the evening of the annual festival, which is to be held at Brecon about the last Saturday in June, 1948.

During the meeting tributes of respect were paid to the memory of the late Mr. Teddy Webb, who died as the result of a tragic accident. All present stood in silence.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the ladies for providing the tea, and to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for giving a very interesting address.

'GREAT FREDERICK'

The largest bell in the Southern Hemisphere is Great Frederick, the 40 cwt. 1 qr. tenor of St. Peter's Cathedral, Adelaide.

Mention has already been made in 'The Ringing World' of the dedication of this ring of eight by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, and of how a team of ringers flew from Sydney to ring.

The tenor is named after the late Frederick Lakeman, a keen churchman, whose tall lean figure had been known to thousands during his long association with the firm of James Marshall, where he was a shop-walker. It was his bequest of several thousands that made the ring possible.

The Adelaide bellringers consist of Philip Vincent (secretary), Jim Lucas (conductor, who has ringing experience in Tasmania), Philip Cooper, Peter West, Harry and George Cox, John and Robert Westover, Bernard Porter, Roger Gray, Peter Henderson and Ron Brown.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION

The recent meeting at Malins Lee was well attended, some 40 members being present. The Vicar (the Rev. E. H. Tutt) conducted the service, at which an interesting address was given by the Rev. F. J. R. Mason, Rector of Little Wenlock.

The churchwardens were present to extend a warm welcome, and with the clergy accompanied the ringers to an enjoyable tea prepared and served by local ladies. Mr. Arthur Pritchard (Ringing Master), in proposing a vote of thanks for the tea, mentioned the pleasure it was to meet the churchwardens, as it was not often that non-ringing church officers display such interest in ringers' activities.

During the afternoon and evening the six bells were kept going to a good variety of Doubles and Minor methods, including Grandsire, Stedman, Bob Minor, Kent and Oxford. Double Oxford, Double Court, Little Bob and Cambridge.

The pre-peal elections of the following life members were confirmed: H. O. Baker and J. W. Best (Chester), F. S. Almond, T. W. Hesketh and E. C. Birkett (Liverpool).

Arrangements for the 1948 annual meeting to be held at Shrewsbury in February were discussed at some length. Details will be published later.

RULES: ORDER OUT OF CHAOS.

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent, 'K. Osse,' seems a little befogged, and I cannot allow his facetious indictment of our rules to remain unchallenged.

May I, therefore, be permitted to point out to him that they certainly do not, as he imagines, prevent any 'enterprising' young band from using for a five-bell or even-bell peal any of a ring of 13 bells or less; neither is he correct when he asserts that a ringer is debarr'd from 'covering' a peal with the treble.

I consider it extremely uncharitable of 'Mr. Osse' to belittle the 'old fogies' who drew up the rules. Surely the fact that these good rules also permit peals on 'imperfect' front oights of twelve-bell towers and on hopelessly out-of-tune rings (remember Christleton, Halewood, etc.?) should make him appreciate how far-seeing these ancient gentlemen actually were! Surely, too, he must realise how broad-minded are the many eminent dignitaries of the present Council who have taken part in such performances!

Our friend 'Osse,' therefore, can go right ahead and fix up the peal he requires for any 'dear little chap of tender age' whom he may have in mind. I would suggest that, for a start, any old five of 13 bells be selected for a peal of Doubles. If, as he says, the tenor goes up false, young 'Osse' (or is it old 'Osse'?) will perhaps want to conduct from the eleventh and the small fellow can be given the distinction of ringing the sharp second (or flat sixth)!

'Mr. Osse' need not have any qualms about being a bit unconventional or what the peal sounds like outside; it doesn't even matter if the bells are practically all the same note or how unmusical the method; providing a straightforward peal on the back 7, 9 or 11 is not rung and the jolly old rules (a bit hazy, perhaps, in this respect) are not transgressed, he will have the glorious satisfaction of knowing that the peal will be allowed by the Central Council.

One word of warning. If he wants his peal recognised, I would advise 'K. Osse' not to ring Minor with a 'cover,' neither should he attempt to emulate Harry Withers by calling a peal of that lovely method, Superlative, from outside a tower. It is true that at one time he could have done these things and rung Minor with a 'cover' or two, but since that 'bad man' Kippin put the Council's august back up and made the mere mention of the word 'Basingstoke' to that learned body as the proverbial 'red rag' is to a bull, the good old rules do not seem to have quite the same meaning as of yore.

Nevertheless, a little ambiguity is good for the soul, so how ridiculous it is for Parson Felstead and those other blokes to want to clarify and bring up-to-date our dear old antiquated rules, just like they do the laws in Parliament.

Strangely enough, my musical and lettered friends insist that the Elland performance and indeed any consecutive six bells in the diatonic scale are quite perfect musical combinations, and that 123680 of a ten-bell peal is exceptionally so. Now doesn't this nonsense just prove that we ringers know music much better than these listeners outside?

I must admit, however, that it does seem a shame that Mr. R. D. Blackman should be so upset and worried to death regarding seven-bell ringing in eight-bell towers when the golden rules actually permit five or six-bell peals, not only in eight, but in twelve-bell towers, and when indeed many fine peals of bells have no ringers to ring them at all. Incidentally, I wonder if Mr. Blackman is aware that some of his Council colleagues have taken part in a recognised six-bell performance in a twelve-bell tower, but forgive me, sir, I mustn't 'tell tales out of school.'—I am sir, yours faithfully, Shropshire.

SAUL BILL HONEY.

A School Guild

Dear Sir,—We at Kingsland Grange, Shrewsbury, are a Preparatory School of about 80 boys or more, and we run a Ringers' Guild. I am the fortunate possessor of a ring of Mears' handbells (12 in F sharp minor), and we practise on these. Most of us are arrant beginners. With small boys the motto is hasten slowly, and Bob Singles and Doubles are about the limit of their endurance. Recently however, we managed to achieve a fairly well-struck plain course of Grandsire Doubles with myself ringing 3-4, a small boy aged 8 on 1-2—Michael King—and another, John Jerman, on 5-6.

I don't believe I am flattering myself when I say that it is a fairly popular 'activity'—and if one drops out there seems to be a new recruit waiting. One must be content with very little at first—merely ringing well-struck rounds on handbells is quite a feat for a boy beginner, and the changes have to be learnt by custom and by rote. They must 'get the hang' of it by doing it again and again and by having it simply explained to them. This is, I know, not ideal belfry practice, but I don't think any other is possible with the very young.

A section of the modern youth lacks interest and background, and I can see nothing but good in filling the blank with an interest that is genuine and English. And another thing, sir, if I may trespass on your indulgence—being mentioned in the papers is a great thrill to little boys, and an occasional pat on the back from your excellent journal would, no doubt, encourage other recruits to the art and Exercise.—I remain, sir, yours sincerely,

T. S. WILLIAMS, Assistant Master.

P.S.—We hope for a six-score at Easter.

*CLOCKING* BELLS

Dear Sir,—I am told there is a danger in what is known as 'clocking' bells—tying the rope to the clapper to chime the bell instead of from the wheel.

In the course of my travels I often visit churches with 1, 2, 3 or 4 bells in search of history. At Claycote, Northants, the other day I found the tenor (a 1619 bell) had the rope tied round the clapper; needless to say, I released it and warned the responsible authority of the danger. This is about the 20th similar case I have come across within the last year or so.

We ringers may think three and four bell towers of no importance, but there is always the possibility of augmentation, and what may be an incentive to add a treble (or trebles) can be retarded if extra expense is involved in recasting other cracked bells, besides perhaps losing a bell of some historical value. Guilds should not only print a note of warning in their reports, but also make it known by some means to churches where there are less than five bells.—Yours sincerely,

Northampton.

P. AMOS.

NAME PEALS

Dear Sir,—It must have been a great day for Mr. Fred Goodfellow, when he rang in a name peal of Treble Bob Royal recently, to know that both his Christian names had been honoured in similar style, even if the 'Freds' had taken 45 years to catch up with the 'Williams.'

No doubt he must also have been proud to know that his second namesakes were attempting Cambridge Royal that day. Small wonder that he felt 'somewhat superior.'

I and nine other Williams were sorry not to have completed his gratification by ringing the peal of Cambridge, but we hope it won't be long before we too feel somewhat superior again, and not just the equals of the 'Freds.'—Yours truly,

WILLIAM H. COLES.

Hayes, Middlesex.

P.S.—We have no funds to cover transfer fees.

60 Years After

Dear Sir,—I was interested in your report of the College Youths' dinner with reference to the handbell peal we rang on November 19th, 1887, which I conducted. I called my first peal at the Goose and Gridiron, St. Paul's Churchyard, the meeting place of the C.Y. in those days (Ho't's Original), which was umpired by Mr. Murray Hayes and Mr. McLaughlin, who at the completion remarked that there was no need of umpires.

On September 19th, 1889, at the express wish of Mr. Challis Winney, I completed the circle, being the first to call Ho't's Original off each pair of bells. The respective ages of the band you mention are 79, 80, 81, 82, myself being the senior, 'goodness and mercy having followed us all the days of our life.' We thank Him; we are all workers together with Him.

I joined the College Youths on June 6th, 1885, my number being 3315. With all good wishes, Yours sincerely, G. W. CARTMEL.

Duffield, Russell Avenue, St. Albans.

[Note.—The ringers of the peal in question, which was rung for the College Youths and the Essex Association by members of the St. Albans Cathedral Society, were John C. Mitchell 1-2, G. W. Cartmell (conductor) 3-4, Walter H. L. Buckingham 5-6, Alfred Barnes 7-8. It was the first peal on handbells by A. Barnes.—Editor.]

ELY ASSOCIATION PIONEER MEMBERS

Dear Sir,—Reading the report of meeting at Ickleton re above, may I beg to add the names of Mr. H. Sharp, of Wilburton, and Mr. A. J. Ginn, of Over. Of those who have passed on, most respectfully we may mention the Rev. H. B. Woolley, York Green, John Taylor and Alfred G. Rivers. With Mr. Rivers Surprise ringing found favour, and his knowledge of conducting was excellent. When I started to conduct, Mr. Rivers was the man I consulted; he never failed me. I heartily agree with Mr. Hibbins.—Yours faithfully,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

St. Ives, Hunts.

FALSE COMPOSITION OF GRANDSIRE CATERS

Dear Sir,—The Grandsire Caters composition published in your issue of November 21st is false. The sixth handstroke lead after 34265978 repeats with the fifth handstroke lead after 63254978.

If the composer is desirous of obtaining a composition with alternate titum and handstroke home courses, may I urge him not to mar the grand music of the handstroke home position by fixing any other bell but the 6th in fifths place.—Yours faithfully, C. GLENN.

Oasby, Grantham.

SUFFOLK GUILD

A successful meeting of the Ipswich District was held at Henley on November 15th. Ringing during the afternoon and evening ranged from rounds for beginners to Cambridge Surprise Minor. Twenty ringers sat down to a delightful tea at the Vicarage, kindly arranged by the Rev. and Mrs. Knapp, who were warmly thanked for their hospitality.

At a short business meeting, Mr. C. Sedgley, Master of the Guild, made reference to the passing of the Rev. Herbert Drake and the work he had done for the Suffolk Guild. The meeting stood in silence to his memory.

The district secretary, in saying how much he appreciated the satisfactory attendance at the meeting, called for support for a campaign of meetings to be held in the outlying towers of the district, with a view of strengthening the hands of those striving to keep the bells going in those towers.

The Vicar of Henley was thanked for the use of the bells and for the amount of interest he took in the ringing, and was unanimously elected an honorary member of the Guild.

ROYAL GREETINGS

No finer salutation could have been given to H.R.H. Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh on the occasion of their wedding than that accorded by the ringers of the British Empire. To date, the number of peals rung was 162, which was far in excess of the total that marked the end of the war, when there were public holidays. It is not possible for us to gauge the number of quarter-peals and miscellaneous ringing, but naturally this was very much in excess of peals.

This large number of peals is an indication of the strength, ability and keenness of the Exercise. Summarised, they were:—12-bell towers, 4; 10-bell, 22; 8-bell, 92; 5 and 6-bell, 43; and handbells, 1. The pride of place of the associations is held by Lancashire, with 10 peals, followed by Winchester and Portsmouth and Chester with nine, and Lincoln, Kent and Oxford each with eight peals. In all, peals were scored by 41 Guilds and Associations, the peal at Westminster Abbey at the second attempt on the following Wednesday being for the Ancient Society of College Youths.

Standard methods were much in evidence. Grand-sire Triples, which this year has not been so popular (probably on account of the desire for progress), came into its own with 29 peals, followed by Bob Major with 22 and Stedman with a modest 12. In most towers it was the regular Sunday service band ringing, and probably many conductors, in view of the occasion, were playing for safety. Surprise peals were hardly as many as a normal week. In Major ringing there were only 11, including one of Spliced by that intrepid Banstead band which had to draw lots to select the ringers! Leicester Cathedral's choice was New Cambridge Maximus and Cambridge Royal was rung at Lincoln and Nottingham. In Minor ringing there was one of nine methods and four of seven methods.

Most gratifying about this wonderful royal salutation was the many who were taking their first step in the art of peal ringing. At the time of writing no fewer than 101 rang their first peal, the youngest of whom was a schoolboy aged 13. To all these new peal ringers 'The Ringing World' sends a special word of congratulation on behalf of the Central Council. We trust that, encouraged by what has been accomplished, they will extend their knowledge of the art of change ringing and add to the prestige and distinction of a study and pastime which is essentially British in origin and practice.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The magnitude of the performance of peal ringing for the Royal Wedding and the limitation of space has necessitated this issue being almost exclusively a catalogue of achievement. We hope to complete the publication of Royal Wedding peals in our next issue, after which we shall revert to dealing with the 'pre-wedding' peals.

Christmas greetings to your ringing friends may be sent through 'The Ringing World.' We are reserving a page in our issue of Dec. 19th for this purpose. Price 2s. 6d. for 30 words.

The peal at St. Jude's, Randwick, New South Wales, was conducted by Mr. Ronald S. Rowe and not by his brother as stated in the issue of November 21st.

Mr. J. George has received so many letters (including telegrams) of congratulation upon his 94th birthday that he finds it impossible to reply to them individually. He, however, desires to thank sincerely all those who have sent him such kindly messages.

Yet another clapper!—For the third time in as many months Ernest Morris has had bad luck with clappers. As already announced, twice after ringing 2½ hours at Syston and Bottesford, clappers broke. The latest was at Overseal, where his clapper came out whole-sale—pin and all!—after ringing half an hour with the local band in an attempt for a peal of Grandsire Triples.

When the Liverpool Branch met at Woolton on November 8th special reference was made to the loss the Association had sustained by the deaths of Mr. T. W. Gilmour and Mr. F. Rigby. The members stood in silence, and the branch secretary (Mr. G. R. Newton) was requested to write letters of condolence to the relatives. Mr. E. Boumphrey, of Glasgow, presided.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. Harold G. Cashmore called on Nov. 15th his 50th Surprise Major peal in a different method. The latest in his collection are Barnet and Jersey, which we hope to publish in due course.

Middleton Cheney tenor was recently published as 24 cwt. The correct weight is 2 qr. 15 lb. more, writes a correspondent.

Mr. F. Reed, of Barnby Don, Doncaster, one of our enthusiastic peal ringers, is due shortly to go overseas. Good luck and a speedy return! Blackburn Cathedral bells are to be recast. For story see next week's issue.

Mr. G. W. Cecil has been re-elected Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths. A happy year of office to you, sir.

Mr. H. J. Eldred is leaving Gorleston for London this week-end. Mrs. Fletcher is attending to postal subscribers and business matters relating to 'The Ringing World.' The editorial staff will miss Mr. Eldred; his work and efficiency was highly appreciated.

K. Osse has written chiding Saul Bill Honey for taking two months to reply to his letter, suggesting that he hails from Slough-on-the-Uptake. The Editor is to blame for tardy publication and pleads pressure in other directions. As to the age of K. Osse, he adds: 'My years exceed the number of true courses of Cambridge Major, but fall short of the number in Cambridge Royal!'

The Cumberland Society's attempt for a peal of Triples at Carlisle Cathedral on Nov. 20th came to grief; another attempt is to be made shortly.

Crayford, Kent, prepared something special for the Royal Wedding—Crayford College Bob, which was new to all except two of the company.

Six of the Sunday service band who participated at Macclesfield were ringing their first peal of Stedman Caters. It was the first of Stedman on the bells.

RINGERS SHARE IN THE ROYAL WEDDING

ST. MARGARET'S (WESTMINSTER) BAND OF VETERANS ..... BANSTEAD'S SPLICED SURPRISE .....
 LICHFIELD CATHEDRAL PEAL ..... A BLIND CONDUCTOR .....
 BATH ABBEY—1906 LAST OCCASION

It was the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, that were ringing as the Royal bride made her journey to the Abbey. These bells started ringing at 11.3 (the time of the Queen's departure from Buckingham Palace), and continued until the arrival of the King and Princess Elizabeth at 11.28 a.m. At the conclusion of the service the bells of the Abbey rang out their salutations and good wishes.

The failure of the peal at the Abbey was due to an omission in the calling, but we are happy to announce that full amends were made on November 26th, when a peal of Stedman Triples was rung in 3 hours and 15 minutes. The peal was under the auspices of the Ancient Society of College Youths and was conducted by Mr. H. N. Pitstow.

Mr. W. H. Hewett, who had the pleasure of calling a peal at St. Margaret's, Westminster, for the wedding of the King and Queen, conducted the peal there on Saturday. His band consisted of five College Youths and five Cumberlands. Three veterans were in the party, W. J. Nudds (79) ringing his 498th peal, R. W. Stannard (78) his 100th peal, and R. Sanders (74).

Mr. Walter Allman rang his 50th peal during 1947 at Runcorn, Cheshire, for the Royal Wedding. This peal was by the Sunday service band.

Mr. Leslie G. Brett, the Suffolk ringer, scored his 300th peal on November 22nd.

STARTING AT 70.

We lift our hat to Mr. Walter H. Goldsmith, who at the age of 70 has started peal ringing at Watton, Norfolk.

Probably the oldest was Alfred Barnes, who at the age of 79 rang at Manchester Town Hall. He rang his first peal over 60 years ago. His ambition is to set up a record for the ringing of Royal Wedding peals. He should consult the Birmingham worthy, Mr. M. J. Morris, who rang for Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee.

Veteran Darlington ringer, Mr. G. W. Park, was celebrating his 75th birthday by a peal of Cambridge Surprise Minor. Standing next to him was an old friend in Mr. George F. Newton.

His colleagues in Holy Trinity, Guildford, note with pleasure that Mr. Peter Davy is continuing his peal ringing proclivities with the Lancashire Association.

Ramsgate tower's captain, Mr. A. E. Jarman, will have to remember the Royal Wedding peal by proximity to his natal day. There were birthday greetings.

Mr. Ernest Morris for one of his wedding peals (Bob Major at St. Margaret's, Leicester) was surrounded by a young company—he was the only one not under 20. 'It was a great credit to them all,' was his comment.

The peal at Wymondham, Norfolk, by the local company was the 100th on the bells.

One of the more advanced efforts was the Treble Bob peal in nine methods at Disley, Cheshire, called by James A. Milner.

There were more local candidates than ropes for the peal of London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative Spliced at Banstead, so the conductor (Mr. H. N. Pitstow) selected his company by the spin of the coin. One who had to stand down was the conductor's daughter, Margaret. All the ringers are members of the local band, and with the exception of 7 and 8 learnt their ringing in Banstead. Is there another tower in the country whose local band could ring this peal?

Nottingham's contribution was peals of Kent Treble Bob Royal, Cambridge Surprise Royal and of Grandsire Triples.

LINCOLN CATHEDRAL'S FIRST OF ROYAL

The fact that the company met short for Stedman Cinques enabled Lincoln's tribute from the Cathedral bells to be one of Cambridge Surprise Royal. This was the first peal of Royal on the bells.

To select the Stedman method for a first peal is unusual. At Irthlingborough in the peal of Stedman Triples there were three first peals and one first in the method. To cap it all Mr. B. Jack Stubbs was calling his first of Stedman.

At Leatherhead Parish Church a peal of Treble Ten was lost after two hours' ringing by the tenor rope slipping the wheel.

Two lady ringers stood in the peal of Grandsire Caters at Burton-on-Trent. They were Miss Doreen Roden and Miss Noreen Brain, and they are the first ladies to ring a peal on ten bells for the Midland Counties Guild.

Bournemouth is maintaining its reputation as a happy training ground for young ringers. First peals were scored by three members of St. John's company—Michael Best (13), James Daniels (14) and George Evenden (15).

Great interest was displayed in the peal of Treble Twelve at Winchester. There were seven firsts. Peals on the Cathedral bells are rarely permitted, and the occasion will certainly go down in the history of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild.

The two brothers Collett, aged 14 and 15 respectively, scored their firsts at Burford, Oxon. Here again it was the regular Sunday service band which rang, all being members of the Burford Guild.

At Rodbourne Cheney, near Swindon, there were three 14-year-olds participating in the peal of Doubles called by Mr. W. B. Kynaston. Two, Bernice Strange and Keith West, were ringing their first peal.

Welcome into the company of peal ringers, Miss Benedicta Whistler, whose first was at Harston, Cambs. We believe she is the first 'Benedicta' to grace our peal columns.

TWO PEALS AT ONE CHURCH.

Two peals were rung at Holy Trinity Cathedral Church, Guildford, on November 20th, in the morning and evening. Four ringers participated on both occasions, viz., A. H. Pulling, W. J. Robinson, Harold A. May and Herbert G. Andrews.

Bath Abbey peals are rare occasions. The last was in 1906. The peal on November 20th was by a local band.

There were two weddings commemorated by the peal at Biggleswade, Beds—Miss Phyllis C. Smith, the organist, was married amid the local rejoicings.

Probably the youngest company to ring for the wedding was at Morton, Derbyshire, where the combined ages totalled 97 years, or an average of 16 years 2 months. We have commented previously on this company. Good work, Brynd, and good luck to all of you.

Gloucester Cathedral's peal, one of Grandsire Triples, was by Sunday service ringers.

St. Martin's, Birmingham, did not ring their Royal peal—Stedman Cinques—till the following Tuesday. Owing to the proximity of the market, peals are only allowed on that day.

The peal of Doubles at Powick, Worcester, was the first peal ever attempted by a local band on the bells, which has been formed since the war. The bells are the heaviest six in Worcestershire (tenor 23½ cwt.). On the treble was 13-year-old Ivor Cook ringing his first peal. Mr. Geoffrey J. Lewis, the conductor, has rung Grandsire from Doubles to Cinques.

Another local company to distinguish itself was at Birchington, Kent, with six first peals.

Mr. Roger Leigh, the retiring Master of Cambridge University Guild, called two peals on the Royal Wedding day—at Harston and Trumpington, Cambridgeshire. Mr. Peter Border rang with him on both occasions.

The quarter-peal of Doubles at Templecombe, Somerset, was conducted by Mr. F. J. Hazzard, who is completely blind. Participating was Mr. F. Hopkins, whose grandson, J. Brown (13), was ringing his first quarter.

Mervyn R. Shearn (15) will remember his first peal at Nailsea, Somerset, which gave him a crop of 12 blisters. He was ringing for Sunday service the following day. His brother and father also participated.

Bebington, Cheshire, have the first Sunday service band in the Wirral Branch to ring a peal of Surprise Major.

FIRSTS AS CONDUCTORS.

Conductors who were calling their first peals were Edwin S. Smith (Petersfield), James Cole (Trull, Somerset), William Rogers (Rotherfield, Sussex), Jack Russell (Birchington, Kent), Leonard Derrick (Nailsea, Somerset), R. Webster (West Hartlepool), Charles H. Moore (Hethersett, Norfolk).

Familiar with St. Denys' Church, Rotherfield, Sussex, is Mr. William A. Kitchenside, who has twice 'circled' the tower.

A similar feat was accomplished by Mr. Thomas E. Sone at Headcorn, Kent. This, by the way, is the eighth eight-bell tower that Mr. Sone has 'circled.' Any challengers?

Mr. Andrew J. Corrigan called a new six-part peal of Grandsire Triples, his own composition, at Bitton, Gloucestershire.

It was very much a Royal occasion at Watford with eight firsts of Bob Royal. Mr. G. W. Debenham called the bobs.

Messrs. Walter Copperwheat and Ernest E. Whitmore have 'circled' Raunds tower together. The former ended on the treble and the latter on the tenor.

The local band at Burnham, Bucks, which included six girls in their 'teens (one of whom rang the tenor), allowed Henry Hubbard to pay his compliment to the Royal couple by ringing his ten-part peal (tripless) of Bob Triples. The striking throughout was as near perfection as humanly possible. This was followed by exceptionally good firing. Would that Hubbard could have heard it.

It was the Sunday service band, as it should be, which rang the peal of Minor (three methods) at Halsall, Lancs.

Mr. John J. L. Gilbert has now called a peal from every bell at Handsworth, Yorks. The tower was given something new with the first of Superlative.

The young company which rang the peal of Grandsire Doubles at Ashton-under-Lyne had also a special thought for Mrs. H. Wolstencroft's birthday.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. M. J. Morris, who participated in a quarter of Stedman Caters at Aston, Birmingham, has rung on each Royal occasion, joyful and sorrowful since Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee in 1877.

Royal salutations came from Chesterfield with five 'firsts' on ten bells.

Lichfield Cathedral's peal was on the Saturday, and was the first on the bells since being recast. It was largely a visiting band, but Mr. G. E. Oliver had a special reason for remembering the event, which coincided with his wife's birthday.

The peal of Cambridge Surprise Major at Sutton Coldfield was the first of Major on the bells since rehanging in 1929.

A FORERUNNER

WITH December mists clinging with clammy fingers over the countryside, a little group of ringers climbed the eminence of Stag Hill, Guildford, to participate in a ceremony very near to the heart of most readers of this journal. Beneath the shell of the great Cathedral, whose building has been halted through the exigencies of the economic situation, is a crypt chapel with seating accommodation for 150 worshippers. This chapel was dedicated last Saturday, together with the bell to summon the faithful and to be a sacring bell at the celebration of the Holy Communion.

The treble seemed to utter three words, as after the dedicatory prayers by the Bishop of Guildford the Master of the Guild, Mr. A. E. Harman, rang it in the presence of the secretary and treasurer and other officers of the Guild: 'John Sparkes Goldsmith,' by the Exercise for ever remembered as the founder and first editor of 'The Ringing World'; by those in the Guildford Diocese as the first secretary of the Guildford Guild, a post he held for 10 years, afterwards becoming the guiding influence in its inner councils while holding the office of vice-president. Practically all in the little group assembled knew Jack Goldsmith intimately, and they expressed the wish that near the bell rope there should be a small plaque bearing his name. The bell is a memorial to his work in the Guildford Diocese, and has been subscribed to by his friends.

Everything about the service seemed singularly appropriate. The Bishop's text, 'Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope that it waver not,' came with heartening encouragement. Eleven years ago the start was made on the building of the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit. The dedication of the crypt chapel was a practical expression of a great enterprise. That people will assemble there Sunday by Sunday for worship is outward evidence of the working of the Spirit. To-day the voice is the plaintive one of Jack Goldsmith, but there will be a tomorrow when a Cathedral incorporating the vision, inspiration and imagination of the 20th century will grace this hill, and the mellowness of its bells will be wafted over the countryside in all its glory. To churchpeople of the Guildford Diocese and to others interested in this great building it is necessary, however, to be constant to the text given by Dr. J. V. Macmillan, 'to hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not.'

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

An air mail from Australia tells of an attempt for a peal of Grandsire Triples for the Royal Wedding failing after 1½ hours' ringing. A quarter was afterwards brought round and the bells fired 21 times (Royal Salute). All towers in Australia synchronised their ringing to between the hours of 8 and 9 p.m.

'Ringing Towers,' the monthly typescript of our Australian friends, has now a circulation of 120 copies.

Our overseas post contains a letter of greetings from our friends at All Saints' Cathedral, Christchurch, New Zealand. Any visitors or permanent residents would be welcomed by Mr. Colin Ward, 48, Kelmore Street, Christchurch.

Looking ahead?—All notices and reports for the issue of December 26th much reach this office by Friday, December 19th.

Christmas greetings will be featured in our next issue. For the erudite there will be a ringers' quiz to aid the digestion of the pudding!

A newly-formed Leicester Diocesan Guild of Vergers has been formed, with the Lord Bishop as president. Mr. Ernest Morris, of St. Margaret's, Leicester, has been appointed secretary and would like to get into touch with other verger ringers with a view to a vergers' peal. There are already five Leicestershire vergers ready to join—any others available?

Barwell, Leicestershire, observe an annual choir and bellringers Sunday. Last year the president of the Guild preached at evensong: this year Mr. G. Gray, the Cathedral organist, spoke on church music. At matins, the Rev. H. V. Ensor, whose father is an honorary member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, preached. A quarter of Grandsire Triples preceded the morning service, and a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung at night.

BELFRY GOSSIP

News from distant Kashmir is that Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Baybut, who for the past 12 years have been living in Srinagar, Kashmir, are safe and well after the trying times recently experienced in that part of India. They propose to stay where they are for the winter. Mr. Baybut had many ringing friends in the London area who have been anxious as to his safety.

Harlington ringers have revived their 'leg of pork' supper, stated to have been founded in 1605.

Good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Melville, of Kingsworthy. Their golden wedding day was yesterday.

Bathwick, Bath, bells have been dismantled for a complete overhaul. They will not be available for ringing for some months.

A quarterly fixture of the St. Augustine's, Kilburn, band, is to ring a quarter, have tea together and attend a short service.

Albanian Surprise Royal has made its appearance. First to ring 1,440 changes of same at St. Albans Cathedral were B. A. Cornell 1, D. C. Price 2, L. T. Hansell 3, T. J. Lock 4, T. J. Southam 5, A. Day 6, W. J. Arnold 7, C. F. Sayer 8, H. E. C. Goodenough 9, D. A. Bayles (composer and conductor) 10.

Just as we were going to press news was received that Mr. James George had celebrated his 94th birthday by ringing a peal of Grandsire Triples 'in hand.' Mr. George had the tenors and retained a steady beat throughout, although a bit slow (2 hours and 33 minutes). He finished just as calm as he started.

The peal was rung at the residence of Mr. Matkin, who reports that it was very cold that night, with sleet and rain. 'I don't think anything short of illness would have stopped Mr. George coming to my house. He had a taxi and also brought his own handbells, this being the first peal upon them.'

Blackburn Cathedral Bells to be Recast

The bells at Blackburn Cathedral, which have served the church and town for more than 200 years, are to be recast and rehung in a steel frame. The work has been entrusted to John Taylor and Co., the well-known Loughborough firm of bell founders.

The present bells are a light ring of 10, in bad condition, it being nearly 50 years since they were turned and rehung in the old frame.

A heavier ring is to be installed, which will be more in keeping with the dignity of a Cathedral, and follows close on similar work which has just been completed at the Cathedral of Wakefield and Lichfield.

The back six were cast in 1737 by Abel Rudhall, of Gloucester, from the previous bells, but there is no information as to the founder or date of them. The tenor bell developed a fracture and was recast 10 years later.

They hung in the old Parish Church tower, which stood behind the Old Bull until 1832, when they were transferred to the new church, which was consecrated in 1826.

The old church was pulled down in 1820, but the tower was allowed to stand in the churchyard until 1870.

The front four were added to make a ring of 10 in 1851, and for many years there was no ring of 10 nearer than Manchester, but in comparatively recent years rings of 10 have been installed at Leyland, Worsley, Preston and Wigan.

The old bells have been rung for all important national and local events, and the election of the Mayor of Blackburn has been heralded by their being rung—with the exception of the years of the last war, when ringing was banned—since the incorporation of the borough. They have been broadcast on two occasions, and were heard by local men serving in the Forces in many parts of the world.

THE INSCRIPTIONS.

The bells all bear inscriptions which will be reproduced on the new bells.

One, two, three and four have the name of the founders, C. and G. Mears, London, 1851, with the addition, on the fourth, of 'John Turner Hopwood, Esq., barrister-at-law, Rockliffe House, Blackburn, born March 2nd, 1829,' together with the arms of the Hopwood family:—

5. When us you ring we'll sweetly sing.
6. Peace and good neighbourhood.
7. May the Church of England for ever flourish.
8. We were all cast at Gloucester by Abel Rudhall.
9. The Rev. John Holme, Vicar, 1737.
- Tenor. Thos. Martin, Jno. Cross, Henry Drewitt, Robert Whitacre, Church Wardens. 1747.

The weight of the heaviest bell of the present ring is 15 cwt., but in the new ring it will be about 26 cwt. The recasting and rehanging of a modern ring is a costly matter, and no doubt subscriptions will be greatly appreciated by the Cathedral authorities.

THE PRINCESS' THANKS

In connection with the peal at Crawley on the occasion of the Royal Wedding, Miss F. E. Wyman has received the following letter from Buckingham Palace:—

Dear Madam,—I am desired by the Princess Elizabeth to thank you for your letter, and to say that Her Royal Highness was most touched and interested to hear of the bells of Crawley, Sussex, Parish Church being rung on the occasion of the Princess' wedding. Her Royal Highness thought it most kind of you to write and tell her of it.—Yours truly, Margaret Reynolds, Lady-in-Waiting.

His 90th Birthday

The 90th birthday of Mr. William Linter, sen., a veteran member of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild, was celebrated by a representative and family gathering at Bishop's Waltham on November 28th. Swanmore bells, which badly need overhauling, were not suitable for the occasion, and permission to meet at Bishop's Waltham was readily granted by the Rector.

Proceedings started with touches of Bob Minor and Grandsire Triples, which were rung until tea time. Relatives and friends joined the company at tea, and these included Mr. Linter's three ringing sons with their wives and children to the extent of four generations.

BLACKBURN CATHEDRAL (from an old print)

After an excellent tea the health of Mr. Linter was proposed by the Master of the Guild (Mr. G. Williams), who recalled incidents in their long acquaintance of nearly 70 years.

Those who had made the arrangements for the gathering were not forgotten and were accorded a special vote of thanks. The ringers then adjourned to the tower, where two courses of Bob Major were rung before lowering the eight in peal. This ended a delightful 90th birthday gathering. Ringers present were Messrs. Linter, sen. and jun., Walter and Roy Linter (sons), G. E. Chappell, H. W. Merritt, A. Millard, E. Wightman, W. Knight and G. Williams.

Oxford Diocesan Guild

NEWBURY BRANCH.

The branch held its annual meeting at Newbury on November 22nd, when over 80 members and visiting ringers were present, including the Master (the Rev. C. E. Wigg), the Deputy Master (Capt. A. Poyntz) and the general secretary (Mr. W. Hibbert).

Ringings commenced at 3 p.m. and ranged from rounds to Royal. The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. Bertram Russell). Tea was afterwards served in the Church Room.

The chairman (the Rev. W. Kingsley Kefford) presided at the business meeting. Seven new members were elected from East Ilsley, Thatcham, Bucklebury and Chieveley.

The Master remarked that the branch appeared to be progressing, and hoped all towers were doing their best to train youngsters to carry on.

The Deputy Master regretted that until the basic petrol was restored he could only attend meetings within reasonable cycling distance. He asked members to back up the branches abutting their own and so help to boost meetings in the diocese.

The Chairman reported with regret the resignation of the branch ringing master, Mr. H. Curtis. Mr. Curtis had held the office for the last ten years and previously had been secretary and treasurer for 13 years. On behalf of all members he thanked Mr. Curtis for the services he had rendered to the branch. Mr. R. Rex was elected to fill the post.

The branch secretary reported good attendances at meetings and combined practices. Some members had rung their first peal during the year and others their first in the method. A peal of Minor was rung at Peasmore for the Royal Wedding.

Votes of thanks were passed to the ladies responsible for tea arrangements and to the Rector for the use of the bells and the interesting history of church bells given in his address.

It is hoped to combine two places at the next meeting in February—Speen with Shaw.

MIDDLESEX ASSOCIATION

About 30 members and friends attended the meeting of the South and West District on November 15th at Norwood Green (the first in this tower since the war). This pretty and light ring of six was kept going to a variety of methods from Grandsire to Cambridge and London Surprise Minor with plenty of rounds for beginners.

An excellent tea was provided at the Plough Inn nearby, and a short business meeting followed, presided over by the vice-president, Mr. W. H. Coles. Mr. A. A. Tamblin, of Isleworth, was elected a ringing member, and the election of Mr. C. W. Ottley, of Fulham, as a ringing member, and of Mr. W. Lee, of Wendover, as a non-resident life member, was confirmed.

The secretary reminded the meeting of his forthcoming resignation, and urged them to consider carefully the choice of a successor. He also referred to the recent 'leg of pork' supper at Harlington, to which he and the vice-president had been invited, and congratulated the Harlington band on the revival of this historic function, dating from 1605.

A warm vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. W. Emmett for the excellent arrangements made for the meeting.

SHOULD PEALS BE ABBREVIATED?

Dear Sir,—The subject matter of your leading article on the control of paper, and its effect upon the size and circulation of 'The Ringing World,' must be as acute a disappointment to you as to your readers. This is an age of gaps, the import-versus-export gap, the purchasing power-versus-available goods gap, and hard decisions have to be made and accepted as a result of them. I therefore put forward the following suggestions, which are bound to be unpopular in some quarters, but which I think deserve consideration as emergency measures to close the circulation-versus-paper gap.

The present issue of 'The Ringing World' is made up roughly of 2½ pages of advertisements, which are no doubt necessary to the financial side of this paper as of any other, two pages of essential notices of forthcoming meetings, 2½ pages of general news, correspondence, etc., half-page of heading, ownership details, etc., and no less than 4½ pages of peals and quarter-peals. Surely this last is, under the circumstances, a disproportionately large amount?

I suggest that as soon as the paper restrictions are felt acutely, peal reports should be abbreviated almost to the form now used for quarter-peals. Further, that ringers of quarter-peals should impose a voluntary censorship upon themselves and refrain from sending in reports unless there is something of special interest in the performance—and not always then. Also, that no space be given to reports of meetings at which the Rev. Blank preached. Mr. Dash presided at the business meeting which followed tea, after which more ringing was indulged in, an enjoyable day being had by all. In place of these dreary recitals let us have more news and correspondence. We should, of course, still welcome reports of interesting discussions or happenings at meetings.

L. J. MALINGS.

Formerly of Oxfordshire, now of Rhooose, Glamorgan.

'CLOCKING' BELLS

Dear Sir,—From time to time I read in 'The Ringing World' about the danger of clocking bells.

Where I ring at St. Margaret's Church, Dunham Massey, Cheshire, our bells were clocked for about 50 years—until 1944, when another ringer and myself decided to try to get them rung again. We got the bellfounders to examine them and they passed them as safe for ringing. We started with the front six and later the ten. The bells were cast in 1854 by Taylors, the tenor being 27½ cwt. None of the bells are cracked, but they are hard going.

Originally ringing was stopped because the spire was declared to be unsafe, but that was taken down in 1927. On March 25th, 1944, a 720 of Oxford Treble Bob was rung on the front six.

We hope some day to get the bells rehung or recast, but many ringers say it would be a shame to have them recast as they are of such a good tone.—Yours sincerely,

HERBERT TURNER.

Salcey, Cheshire.

PEAL WITHDRAWN

Dear Sir,—I greatly regret that I should have called a peal which subsequently proved to be false, and would thank Mr. Glenn for pointing out the error, which is most elementary. I had looked for such sources of repetition, and can only offer the excuse of my notoriously bad handwriting which caused me to miss the handstroke lead at a single.

I, therefore, wish to withdraw the peal of Grandsire Caters rung at St. Paul's, Bedford, on Whit Monday, and would take this opportunity of expressing my sincere apologies to the Exercise in general and to my friends whose time was wasted in the ringing.—Yours faithfully,

J. E. ARNOLD.

Linslade, Leighton Buzzard.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A Ringer Talks

Dear Sir,—One advantage of knowing little about a subject is that you find it much easier to say what you do know. The undersigned found himself talking to two interesting audiences on bells and ringing recently. On November 7th he was invited to address the Ordinands at a Cambridge theological college on 'How the Vicar should treat his bells.' Here are one or two extracts from the lecture: 'I will divide my talk into three sections. (1) The Vicar and his bells'—guffaw from the 'funny member' of the audience—Lecturer, 'It's interesting to trace the mental process in some minds, isn't it?'—loud laughter. Lecturer, 'This is going to be a practical talk, for you will have to deal, in all probability, with bells, with ringers, and with the outsider. I will speak from these three points of view, therefore. I will not use up time speaking of the archaeology of bells nor about the science of change ringing. You can learn what you want to know about these from my new book, price 5s. (immediate loud laughter and cheers). It was, of course, impossible to desist from talking about change ringing, and four members of the Cambridge University Guild gave valued help in demonstrating its intricacies. The lecturer hopes that his opening gambit, 'I am out to catch you in my net, as the missionary said,' may bear fruit (to mix all available metaphors).

The other lecture was a much more serious affair, for the speaker had the honour to address the Royal Archaeological Institute, at Burlington House, on 'Norwich Bells and Ringers.' This was illustrated with a strip film, and made as lively as possible, with cine film shots of change ringers at work, also the amazing effort he witnessed this summer of the choristers at a church at Valladolid turning their bells round and round in the same direction by hand standing in a tiny gallery close to the bell-cote, also the more famous and equally spectacular work of turning the bells over and over in the Giralda at Seville.

A. G. G. THURLOW.

Norwich.

SEDBERGH BELLS

Dear Sir,—To-day (Nov. 30th) was the 50th 'birthday' of the bells. As I rang in the opening (owing to one of the visiting band breaking a stay), I have now completed 50 years' ringing at Sedburgh. It was a curious coincidence that I, coming down from Cambridge to take the post of senior science master at Sedburgh School, and the bells arrived the same term. I at once collected a band and we've done very well. One of my original band, Mr. T. Sisson, is still ringing here.—Yours sincerely,

G. F. WOODHOUSE.

Sedburgh, Yorks.

BIG BEN

Dear Sir,—I know there is a great deal of sentiment attached to the sound of Big Ben, but at the same time I do think that it is time something was done about its cracked note.

It seems to me rather unfair on our great bellfounders in Britain that this unsound note should come crashing through our wireless sets daily. Speaking for myself, I usually dash to the wireless and turn it at its lowest.

I stand to be corrected if my radio and ears are too sensitive, but I will take some convincing that the bell is sound.—Yours sincerely, (Mrs.) E. DORICE KELLY.

Sheffield.

The Kindergarten MASTERING ROPE-SIGHT.

Dear Sir,—'Adsum' of Devon raised an interesting point on teaching beginners in your issue of November 7th. Whether the Exercise as a whole is using the most scientific teaching methods is a question I would like to see aired in your columns.

My own experience is that beginners are pushed on far too quickly; there are no intermediate steps between rounds and the plain course. Ropesight is allowed to come by 'magic' as it were, after perhaps months of struggling with the plain course.

It has been stated in 'The Ringing World' that about one in twenty beginners eventually 'sticks' to ringing. Now, while a dimcult apprenticeship may ensure that only the really enthusiastic remain as ringers, recruits are not coming forward in such large numbers as to justify the low figure of 5 per cent., and if ringing is to flourish, something must be done to increase this percentage.

Admitted that astonishing results have been obtained in recent years with youngsters of 10 and upwards, but it is one thing when a single beginner learns with a band of experts and quite another when a whole 'stone' band essays to learn method ringing.

At school, the pupil proceeds step by step. Can ropesight be taught in like manner?

It is my contention that the system laid down in Snowdon's 'Ropesight' should be applied practically on the tower bells and not confined, as it so often is, to the teaching of the theory of change ringing.

By means of the three and four-bell extents, with suitable leading, covering and dodging bells, musical half-pull changes can be produced at once by any 'stone' band. Good striking, too, can be obtained an earlier stage, because of the frequent repetitions and few ropes for the beginner to pick out.

May it not be that in our haste to produce Major or Minor ringers for Sunday service ringing, and in our dislike of ringing 'kindergarten stuff,' we put stumbling-blocks in the way of our beginners and extend by months the period of apprenticeship?—Yours faithfully,

'MENTOR.'

Cambridge.

CAMBRIDGE MAJOR AT STRADBROKE

Dear Sir,—The remarks in last week's 'Belfry Gossip' re the Cambridge Major at Stradbroke being the first peal for 40 years is not quite correct.

On February 16th, 1911, a peal of 5,088 Oxford Treble Bob was rung in 3 hours 32 minutes. E. F. Poppy and R. Ruth, jun., ringing the seventh and tenor respectively.—Yours faithfully, W. J. G. BROWN.

Ipswich.

THE LOUGHBOROUGH ATTEMPT

Dear Sir,—Surely this peal ringing business is becoming something of a threat to our ringing fraternity.

All of us who like peal attempts never wish for anything but the best result, but 'to err is human,' and there would be very little in it if every peal was 'in the bag.'

The conducting of an 'inquest' in our journal should, in my opinion, be discouraged at all times. A hasty word is often spoken at the moment of disappointment, but, amongst ordinary folk, an apology will soon be forthcoming and in most cases accepted. The written word, however, is not so easily withdrawn. It can be turned up again and again and friendships destroyed for all time.

Let us keep a sense of proportion. Peal ringing is a 'sport,' and unless it can contribute something to the fraternal spirit of our Exercise or further the progress of our art, it is in no way justified. I speak as one who loves a peal attempt and am ready at all times to take my share of the blame when failure comes.—Yours faithfully,

ARTHUR V. DAVIS.

Bournemouth.

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES HERBERT BLAKE.

Mr. James Herbert Blake, born 86 years ago in Beckenham, Kent, there first served his church as a choirboy and afterwards as an ardent bellringer.

Moving later to Cowfold in Sussex, he became well known for his energetic keenness for service ringing around that locality, cycling almost every Sunday, often after many long hours in his bakery, to Warnham, and then to Horsham or some other tower in order to complete the band for the service touches.

Subsequently he opened a small business at Fishbourne, near Chichester, and on April 9th, 1893, became a member of the Chichester Cathedral Guild of Bellringers, serving faithfully for over 50 years until ill-health caused his retirement.

During this same period Mr. Blake became leader of the six-bell tower of his own Parish Church at Bosham, and it was here on the evening of Tuesday, November 24th, that the sound of half-muffled bells marked his having been laid to rest on that day.

Mr. Blake had a number of peals to his credit, but as with regularity each 120 of Grandsire Doubles pealed out across Bosham Harbour that evening one felt how typical it was of his devoted service and his love of simple well-structured ringing. R.G.B.

MR. JAMES PAGETT.

It is with deep regret we report the passing of James Pagett, Ringing Master of Derby Cathedral, which took place on November 29th at the age of 75. He was a well-known Midlands ringer, his cheery disposition making him a welcome figure at all meetings, few of which he ever missed.

He was one of the very few who could ring two tower bells, and although he never rang a full peal double handed, had rung many quarters and long touches of Double Norwich, Stedman and Grandsire. He was also a keen handbell ringer and a composer and conductor of no mean ability. For the M.C.A. he had rung 117 peals, but had rung several others in Worcestershire before coming to the Midlands.

The funeral took place on December 3rd from Derby Cathedral, where the muffled bells pealed a tribute. He was laid to rest at Mickleover Cemetery and handbells were rung over his grave by M. A. Ward, H. Lettis, P. Dudley and H. Taylor. A peal of Grandsire Triples was rung 'in memoriam' at Overseal, called by the late hon. secretary, M.C.A. By his passing the Midlands have lost another great stalwart whose place will be hard to fill. E.M.

MR. T. J. PALMER.

Ringers of North-East Wiltshire and those of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild who knew him will regret to learn of the death of Mr. T. J. Palmer, of Aldbourne, on November 27th.

He was a loyal churchman and a punctual and consistent ringer. He will be sadly missed especially at this time when everyone counts so much.

His last effort was to ring in a quarter-peal, which his son conducted on November 20th in celebration of Princess Elizabeth's and the Duke of Edinburgh's wedding. May his soul rest in peace.

COLLEGE YOUTHS

At a well-attended meeting of the Society, held at St. Mary Abbot's, Kensington, on Nov. 29th, Mr. G. W. Cecil was re-elected Master for the ensuing 12 months. The other officers were also re-elected, viz.: A. B. Peck, hon. secretary; A. A. Hughes hon. treasurer; J. A. Waugh, senior steward; T. Fox, junior steward; and H. R. Newton and H. G. Miles, trustees.

Mention was made of Mr. G. Cartmel's membership of 62 years and his certificate No. 2215. The secretary stated that 2,333 members had been made since Mr. Cartmel joined the Society.

Midland Counties Guild

LADIES RING AT ASHBY-DE-LA-ZOUCH.

The fine old Church of St. Helen, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, built in the year 1475, was the venue for the November meeting, and a cordial welcome was extended to the Guild by the Vicar (Canon H. D. Hanford), who conducted the Guild form of service.

Immediately after service tea was provided at Radford's Cafe through the generosity of the Vicar and Mr. E. W. Beadsmoore, captain of the local band, thanks being expressed by the chairman, Mr. W. H. Curson. Very little business was transacted at the meeting held in the belfry, but it was decided to visit Measham for the next meeting on December 20th.

The bells were put to good use in the evening, and one performance is worthy of note—that of eight members of the fair sex ringing rounds on this rather difficult ring to handle. This is probably the first time that the bells have been rung by ladies.

Upwards of 50 ringers and friends assembled from Burton (St. Paul's, St. Modwen's and All Saints'), Measham, Repton, Newball, Netherseale, Overseal, Ticknall Hugglescote, Chel-leaston, Derby Cathedral, Birstal and the local band.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

ELLOE DEANERIES BRANCH.

The Elloe Deaneries Branch held their quarterly meeting at Holbeach on November 22nd. Ringing started at 2.45 p.m. and the bells were kept going to a variety of methods until 4 p.m., when the Vicar of Holbeach, the Rev. P. E. Boswell, conducted a shortened form of evensong.

The Rev. Boswell presided over the business meeting which followed tea at the Bell Hotel. The members present stood in silence, paying tribute to the late Rev. E. C. Gee, who was the popular president of this branch for many years.

Mr. I. P. Bennett (Bicker) was elected a ringing member and the collection for the Belfry Repairs Fund amounted to 11s.

It was decided that the following resolution be forwarded to the secretary of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild: 'This meeting is of the opinion that the annual report should be issued before the annual meeting at Lincoln, and that the report be brought up to pre-war standard.'

Mr. A. J. Farr proposed a vote of thanks to the Rev. P. E. Boswell for the use of the bells, and for conducting the service. In his reply, the Vicar spoke of the difficulties experienced at Holbeach in trying to get a good band together.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

MEETING AT BISHOPSTEIGNTON.

Some excellent touches of Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob, Kent Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Minor were rung at the Mid-Devon Branch meeting at Bishopsteignton on November 1st.

Mr. T. G. Myers, of Plymouth, presided, and analogies were received from the president (Preb. E. V. Cox), the branch chairman and Mr. A. Newman (Dartmouth). The branch decided to record its appreciation to Mr. J. F. Lilley, of Newton Abbot, in connection with the weekly practices which the branch was at present holding.

The following programme of meetings was approved for 1948: February 7th, Kineston; April 24th, Ashburton; June 26th, joint meeting with the South-West Branch at a place to be chosen; July 24th, Kinnerswell; August 28th, special meeting at Highweek; and October 30th, in the Toroway area. The secretary undertook to notify all other branches.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicars of Bishopsteignton and St. James', Teignmouth, for the use of their bells, and to Mr. Myers for occupying the chair. A.L.B.

Christmas Eve

Who are ringing for Christ
In the belfries to-night,
With arms lifted to clutch
The rattling ropes that race
Into the dark above
And the mad romping din?

SUCH a question crossed the mind of Robert Bridges when he wrote his poem "Christmas Eve, 1918," and it is probable that a similar thought has occurred to many an individual as he listens to the bells from town and village tower as he wends his way to the Christ Mass. How the candles on the altar twinkle with a mysterious light! The miracle of Bethlehem those centuries ago comes afresh each succeeding year—baffling, mysterious, but with peace and quietude eventually giving way to inward happiness.

'Blessed be the towers that crown England so fair,' proclaimed Bridges. We, the people of the towers, rejoice with him for that blessing. The privilege of such service is great and should not be lightly regarded. The music of the bells on Christmas Eve is of the sweetest, bringing with it a spiritual happiness to those whose hearts are attuned to hear the message, and to the world at large a consciousness of the spirit of goodwill. Enmity and such evil thoughts associated with it give way to friendship between man and man that crosses the barriers of race, class and creed. It is the maintenance of this friendship—in the belfry, district and guild—which is the true essence of Christmas. It dare not stop, it must not stop with the passing of Christmas.

And on Christmas Eve, as the bells cease to ring, there comes from afar 'starry music—Angels' song comforting as the comfort of Christ.' There is not one of us who in this Christmas, 1947, does not need that comfort. Wherever one looks there are tribulations and difficulties which man himself seems powerless to surmount. The comfort of this Christmas with its accompanying goodwill will strengthen us in what lies ahead. Both spiritually and in mundane affairs we need that mystic touch told so expressively in the little-known Christmas hymn:

Now display thy saving power,
Ruined nature now restore,
Now in mystic union join
Thine to ours, and ours to thine.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The B.B.C. have decided to broadcast the bells of Kilbroney Parish Church, Rostrevor, Co. Down, on Christmas Day, at about 9.20 a.m. This is a small village church containing six bells, tenor 12½ cwt., erected in 1880 by Taylors. In charge of the ringing is Mr. James B. Cunningham, J.P., who is in his 90th year and is a past president of the Irish Association. He hopes to take the treble on Christmas Day. Mr. Cunningham is Ireland's oldest ringer.

The bells of St. Martin's, Birmingham, will be broadcast, approximately 9.20 to 9.30 a.m., on Christmas morning, December 25th, in the Round the World series, ending with the bells of Bethlehem.

Mr. E. T. Newbury, hon. secretary, Tewkesbury Branch, has been in Cheltenham Hospital since November 20th for an operation to an injured shoulder. He is progressing favourably and hopes to be back in the towers for Christmas.

Our attention has been drawn to an historical error in a recent issue. The Golden Jubilee of Queen Victoria's accession to the Throne was in 1837. Mr. C. H. Webb, of Coventry, recalls attending a village feast on that day.

Kipling's 'it's best foot first' is recalled by the experience of two members of the Salisbury Guild, who attended the meeting at Wimborne and missed the last bus for Salisbury at Cranborne. They decided to walk the remaining 18 miles, setting out at 9.40 p.m. and arriving at Salisbury at 3.35 a.m., weary, languid and sore distressed. Only one of the pair was present for service ringing later in the morning!

This missing of the last bus seems to be a habit in these parts. Recently a prominent member of the Guild was forced to walk from Warminster to Salisbury (25 miles) through the same cause. Perhaps proximity to the Plain gives rise to these pedestrian feats.

Holmfirth, Yorkshire, tower is in a built-up area. A number of bedroom windows are level with the louvres and not more than four yards away. Permission was granted for the first peal in the tower on November 11th, as it was in memory of the victims of the bus crash at Holmfirth, most of whom were members of the Bolsterstone Church Male Voice Choir.

Mr. John Downing, of Hastings, called his first peal on the occasion of the Royal Wedding.

The peal by the University of London Society on November 20th was Grandsire Triples and not Stedman Triples as was erroneously recorded in our issue of December 5th. Will those concerned please accept our profound apologies?

Miss Nora Honey is unique among the first pealers. Her first was rung in 25 methods of Doubles, the greatest number of Doubles methods yet rung. The development of five-bell ringing by Mr. Alan R. Pink during the year is a feature of the performances on lesser bells.

The peal of Grandsire Caters at Bourne-mouth on November 11th was arranged especially for Percy W. Brayshaw, a member of the young ringers at St. Peter's, Bourne-mouth, all of whom are now in the Forces. Percy Brayshaw is leaving for South Africa shortly for a course lasting two years.

Between the ringers of Bedford and the Mayor a close contact has been maintained since the bells of St. Paul's were rehung two years ago. It was a special pleasure for the band to ring a quarter of Grandsire Caters on the occasion of the wedding of the Mayor's daughter, Miss Margaret Canvin, to Mr. Edgar Coker. Miss Betty Spice conducted and there were scored first quarters of Caters by A. Lacey, Miss Pat Gilbert, L. Williams, J. Davey and E. Jeffries. Other ringers were H. Harlow, S. Foskett, N. Inskip and D. Thompson.

DEDICATIONS AND AUGMENTATIONS

TERRINGTON ST. JOHN

The recently rehung ring of six bells at Terrington St. John, Norfolk, was dedicated on November 29th by Canon Mowbray Smith, the address being given by the Rev. J. P. Pellow, Vicar of Wisbech, a well-known ringer.

Previously the bells were hung in a very slight and cramped oak frame, with the treble 'hoisted,' the frame being badly decayed. Owing to their high position, they set up a very heavy movement in the tall slender tower which affected the 'go' to a large extent.

They are now hung in a massive iron frame in two tiers of three, the base of the frame being some 14 feet lower in the tower. Hung on ball bearings with completely new fittings, the bells now 'go' as well as one could wish, and the movement in the tower is greatly reduced.

The bells, which were originally cast by Thomas Osborn, of Downham Market, have been retuned, and the treble and fifth recast, making a very satisfactory job indeed. The work has been carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, who were represented at the dedication by Mr. A. A. Hughes.

DOWNHAM BELLS

A moving ceremony took place at St. Margaret's Church, Downham, Essex, on November 22nd.

The Bishop of Chelmsford dedicated the new ring of six bells. The old four bells in this tower have been recast and a new tenor and treble added, and the ring hung in a new frame with new fittings by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Croydon, on the instructions of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Keddie, of Downham Grange, as a memorial to their three sons who gave their lives in the last war.

The service was conducted by the Rev. W. F. Vaughan-Jones, and the address given by the Very Rev. W. E. R. Morrow, Provost of Chelmsford. During the service, immediately after the dedication, a course of Bob Minor was rung by R. Thrift, E. Runter, P. Green, Dr. Patrick Spencer-Phillips, G. Green and Dr. P. T. Spencer-Phillips, and after the service some Kent Treble Bob.

Tea was provided at The Grange by Mr. and Mrs. Keddie for the ringers. Mr. B. Newson was in attendance on behalf of the firm of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston.

HANSLOPE, BUCKS

Two new trebles completing the octave were dedicated by the Lord Bishop of Oxford on Sunday, November 23rd, at Hanslope, Bucks. Following the service, the opening touch was Stedman Triples, after which the bells were available to visiting ringers, who numbered 60. Tea for these was kindly provided by the Church Parochial Council, and further ringing was enjoyed by all until 8 p.m.

The inscriptions on the new bells are:—Treble: Dedicated to the glorious memory of those of this parish who made the supreme sacrifice and all who served their King and country in two Great Wars, 1914-18, 1939-45. Second: Dedicated to the memory of a beloved Vicar, the Rev. William Jardine Harkness, M.A., and his wife, Frances, 1892-1929.

Mr. Richard White, of Appleton, added two new bell pits and rehung the old six. The architect was Major J. H. R. Freeborn.

The new bells blend perfectly with the old six, and this beautiful old church with its spire now contains a handsome ring of eight with a 22 cwt. tenor.

MIDDLETON CHENEY TENOR

Dear Sir.—I see in Belfry Gossip, December 5th, that Middleton Cheney tenor is still growing heavier. I had the pleasure of a peal on this tenor in 1938, and I was given the weight by Taylor and Co., who tuned and rehung this fine six. She is now 22 cwt. 2 or 15 lb. in D (after tuning and removing cannons).—Yours sincerely, Peltbam, Middlesex.

TONY PRICE.

A NEW TREBLE AT LYNEHAM

About 60 ringers from the surrounding villages attended the dedication of a new treble bell to complete the six at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Lyneham, Wilts, on December 6th. The bell was cast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank and weighs approximately 5½ cwt. It was presented by Major and Mrs. Buxton in appreciation of the work of Mr. L. A. Wilson during the past 50 years and is inscribed 'G. and M.B. 1947 and L. A. Wilson.'

The act of dedication was performed by Archdeacon Coulter, after which the local ringers rang rounds. In his address the Archdeacon mentioned the work of Mr. Wilson in North Wilts and elsewhere in looking after bells and training ringers, and thanked Major and Mrs. Buxton for their generous gift.

Tea followed in the Village Hall, which was also the gift a few years ago of Major Buxton. Before leaving, Major Buxton expressed his pleasure that he had been the means, thanks to the enthusiasm and persuasive tongue of Mr. L. A. Wilson, of giving so many people pleasure, and hoped the bells would be rung for many years, reminding them all of the House of God. He thanked Mr. Wilson for his kindness and help to the family over a period of 45 years.

Mr. Wilson said that Lyneham had now a grand ring of six, and he hoped that the local ringers would be able to tackle the art of change ringing. He thanked Major and Mrs. Buxton for their gift.

Another pleasing incident followed—the presentation to Mr. Wilson of a model bell hung complete in an oak frame with rope, slider and stay, which would be useful for demonstration purposes. The bell and frame were the work of Mr. Stevens' boys of the Hillmorton band.—Mr. Wilson suitably replied to this kind thought.

Ringling during the day included the first 120 on the bells by a ladies' band from Calne, Yatesbury and Wootton Bassett.

ALDEBY, NORFOLK

On Sunday, November 23rd, the Lord Bishop of Norwich dedicated a new bell at Aldeby, near Beccles. This fine old cruciform church, once collegiate, now possesses a ring of five in a minor key. The work has been done by the Whitechapel Foundry in their usual excellent manner, and the 'go' leaves nothing to be desired. The new treble is 2ft. 4in. in diameter, weight 4 cwt. 1 qr. 7 lb., and is inscribed: 'Given by Aldeby and Wheatacre in memory of the men who gave their lives, 1939-1946.'

At the dedication a large number of ringers attended, including the president, general secretary and Ringing Master of the Norwich Diocesan Association. Handbells were rung before the service, and afterwards the five were rung in various methods; also a grand tea was provided by the ladies of Aldeby.

A BRISTOL PEAL BOARD MEMORIAL

A ceremony of some interest took place during the annual meeting of the Bristol Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, held on December 6th at St. Mary Redcliffe, when a peal board recording peals rung in memory of Messrs. W. A. Cave and S. H. Wood was unveiled and dedicated by Canon S. E. Swann.

The board, which is beautifully executed, was designed by the students of the Merchant Vintners School of Printing, and presented by Mr. A. J. Corrigan. Following the dedication a course of Stedman Cinques was rung by D. G. Clift 1, Miss A. Brown 2, A. E. Reeves 3, A. M. Tyler 4, J. M. Stallard 5, G. Pearce 6, F. C. Mogford 7, S. Pearce 8, W. Williams 9, A. J. Corrigan 10, R. C. Seager 11, E. F. Hancock 12.

Guildford's New Cathedral

ARCHITECT AMENDS PLANS.

To enable better facilities for ringers, the architect of Guildford's new Cathedral in course of erection has amended his design of the tower.

Representation was made to him by Mr. E. H. Lewis, president of the Central Council, that according to the original drawings there was not an adequate space between the bells and the ringers.

Mr. Edward Maufe has replied to Mr. Lewis as follows:—

'I have always been very conscious of the defects in the height of the tower in my competition drawings, which did not allow adequate space between the ringing chamber and the bell chamber, but you will probably know that competition drawings seem invariably to be produced in a rush, and I had to keep the tower lower in height than I wish, because of cost.'

'However, at a later date I explained the necessity of increasing the height of the tower to the Guildford Committee, and they agreed that I should raise it. Actually I put another 17ft. in its height, which enables me to arrange the various floors even more generously than you set out in your letter.'

'I am very glad to have your clear statement of the conditions desirable for bellringing in such a tower, and I think you can rest assured that my tower now satisfies these conditions.—Yours sincerely, Edward Maufe.'

Mr. E. H. Lewis acknowledges in the following terms:—

Dear Mr. Maufe,—Thank you very much for your letter of the 4th. I feel quite happy that, while my criticism of the original drawings may have been justified, the alteration you have made should prove to be quite satisfactory. I will let Mr. Hazelden and his brother ringers at Guildford know that they need have no anxiety about the hanging of the bells.

PRESENTATION TO MR. E. M. ATKINS

At the quarterly meeting of the St. Augustine's, Kilburn, Guild of Ringers, on November 30th, Mr. E. M. Atkins was presented with a book in recognition of his 25 years' service to the belfry.

Mr. R. H. Gilbert, who made the presentation, said he well remembered Mr. Atkins first coming to St. Augustine's belfry and his teaching the local band the art of change ringing for the first time. Since those days Mr. Atkins had always been most generous in his help for those who expressed a desire to learn change ringing—a task which demanded much time, skill and patience. On behalf of the Guild, Mr. Gilbert thanked Mr. Atkins for his years of service and reminded members of how fortunate they were in having for their ringing master one who, while eminent among ringers, was happy in the company of those whose only qualification was the desire to learn.

Beneath the record of the peals are the following tributes:—

WILLIAM A. CAVE has mastered all the arts of ringing and was a conductor supreme qualities on any number of bells. He had been honorary secretary and later Master of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association and was an honorary member of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers up to the time of his death. He was associated with this tower for 43 years.

STEPHEN H. WOOD was Master of the Cambridge University Guild of Change Ringers 1926-7. He was honorary member of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers and a member of the Methods Committee of the Council. He was largely instrumental in founding the Scottish Association of Change Ringers and was instructor to this tower for some years.

A Christmas Quiz for Ringers

Three book prizes are offered to the answers nearest the correct solution. Closing date January 1st, 1948. Envelopes to be addressed 'Christmas Quiz,' c/o The Editor, 'The Ringing World,' Woodbridge Press, Ltd., Guildford.

1. One English and one Welsh cathedral have a ring of bells in a detached tower. Both are rings of 8. Where are they?

2. What method can be called into rounds with only one call?

3. Which Cambridge Colleges have rings of bells?

4. On how many bells would a plain course of Kent Treble Bob amount to a peal of 5,040 changes?

5. Which tower has the greatest weight of bell metal in Great Britain?

6. To ring a peal in every county in England and Wales where would one have to ring a peal?

7. A band rang a peal at Westminster Abbey. How many times did the tenor bell revolve on its axis in one direction, while striking changes other than rounds, if the number of changes rung was 5,001?

8. Which of these carols, popular tunes, may be chimed correctly on an ordinary ring of 8 bells? 'Good King Wenceslas'; 'Noel'; 'While Shepherds Watched'; 'Hark the Herald Angels Sing.'

9. After a ringer had written out a 720 of Bob Minor in one column, rounds only at the end, his wife thinking he was going to add them up did this for him. What was her result?

10. To celebrate Christmas our friends, the Bell family, rang a plain course of Bob Major at their church, which has 8 bells, the ropes falling in a perfect circle, in correct order. As they were ringing I noted the following:

Mary said to Walter, 'I take you off now.'

Mary and Sue dodged together in 3-4.

Walter nearly missed his dodge with Eric.

Walter and William were ringing opposite one another.

Henry and Bertram dodged in 5-6 together.

Henry stood opposite Eric.

John was not opposite Sue.

William never dodged with Walter.

Neither lady can ring the back 3 bells. Which was each ringing? 'KEWSETT.'

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION MEETING AT HARSTON.

Nineteen members and friends attended a meeting of the Cambridge District of the Ely Diocesan Association, held at Harston on Nov. 29th, the following towers being represented: Battle (Sussex), Cambridge, Chrishall, Fulbourn, Harston, Little Shelford, Sawston and Trumpington.

The ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. C. Askham), who extended a very warm welcome. An excellent tea followed at the Pemberton Arms.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mr. Cook, the elections of the following non-resident life members at recent peals were ratified: Miss B. Whistler, of Battle (Sussex), Mr. P. M. Freeman, of Lincoln, and Mr. R. Heath, of Newmarket.

Next meeting is the district annual at Cambridge in January.

Dorset Ringers' Enterprise

Sunday, November 23rd, was observed as Ringers' Sunday at Fordington St. George, Dorchester, and marked the launching of the £220 appeal to rehang the bells, which are the oldest in the town. A very mellow though hard going ring of six, they had long been silent until in May a new band was formed, and although all are beginners, with the exception of the captain and vice-captain, they have made good progress.

Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, who recently inspected the belfry, gave as their opinion that £220 was needed to put the bells in good ringing order, and the ringers have pledged themselves to raise this amount. They actually got going on the appeal—for 2,000 half-crowns—2-3 weeks before the Ringers' Sunday and made a promising start.

Mr. Charles Turner, a ringer at Charminster, and Canon A. Wilkinson Markby, chairman of the Dorchester Branch of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild of Ringers, were the preachers, and at both morning and evening services the ringers rang handbell touches of Grandsire Doubles and played a couple of hymn tunes—innovations which were much appreciated by the congregations.

Collections for these services were for the bell appeal fund, and by the end of the month the Fordington ringers had reached £70—one-third of their target.

Visiting ringers to the tower will remember it for two very fine pre-Reformation bells (the 3rd and 5th), which are among the oldest in Dorset. Would anyone who cares to help a keen and youthful band in their effort to restore these bells please send their donation to the correspondent, J. B. Whalley, 2, Chestnut Villas, Dorchester?

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER

Quarterly subscribers who fail this week-end to send their remittances to Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk, will be replaced from our waiting list of subscribers.

ANOTHER RINGERS' CROSSWORD

By 'KEWSETT'

THE MINSTER DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting held last Saturday attracted 60 members, and visitors, including two from (1 across), that fine detached tower with a ring of ten in Suffolk; and one from the Welsh ring of ten at (2 down).

The accounts had been (19 across) by the secretary, and when the chairman had (12 across) his pen, the minutes were signed.

Mr. Smith of (15 down), Herts, had been invited to say a few (5 across) on teaching beginners. He spoke of how he had (10 across) up enthusiasm and had planted (6 down) so deep that his band had taken all in their (4 down) and could now ring (12 down) Surprise. 'Nothing,' said Mr. Smith, '(18 down) keenness so much as to (12 across) beginners with advanced theory. The instructor must (7 down) the needs of elementary teaching first, or else he, and not his pupils, will be the (3 down). Also, the only permissible (8 across) to attract learners are promises of a hobby of interest and service.'

Mention was made of the (1 down) at Barton, recently given. There were no ringers, and the Vicar wanted them to (9 across) the old year. The secretary rose to (14 across) this had not already been arranged, and a motion was (16 down) that it should be done.

A report on the ringing at Whitchurch was given. Ringing there has ceased, the belfry (5 down) are blocked with nests, the (13 down) are dangerous to use, and only the ting-tang rings its (20 down). At one time Whitchurch was an (11 across) of ringing in the desert, but now the (25 across) hour has come when the bells are silent. The bearings had to be (21 down) with castor oil recently, and if the neglect (24 across) the ring will be lost. Men of action, and not (22 across) were needed.

The Vicar was thanked for the use of his Parish (23 across).

OBITUARY

MR. FRED CHALK.

Whilst reading 'The Ringing World' on November 29th, Mr. Fred Chalk, of Heybridge, Essex, collapsed and died. He was at work the previous day for Messrs. Bentall and Co., on whose staff he had been for 58 years. His age was 72.

A member of an old ringing family, Mr. Chalk's father helped to form the Essex Association in 1879 and taught his nine children to ring on handbells. Mr. Fred Chalk was a regular service ringer at All Saints', Maldon, and had rung about 100 peals.

The funeral service at All Saints' Church on December 4th preceded interment at Langford, Mr. Chalk's native village. A course of Grandshire Triples was rung over the grave by Miss A. F. Waldoock 1-2, J. D. Buckingham 3-4, H. J. Mansfield 5-6, C. J. Mann 7-8. Other ringers present were Messrs. A. South, S. Easter, S. Linnett, E. Richardson, W. Chalk, W. H. Chalk, P. Chalk and P. A. Chalk.

MR. F. BLAGDEN TOMPKINS.

With the passing of Mr. F. B. Tompkins, the Sussex County Association has lost another of its old and valued members. Mr. Tompkins, who died on December 6th, was elected a member of Chichester Cathedral band in 1890; he held the office of hon. treasurer of the S.C.A. from 1895 (in succession to the Rev. R. F. Tompkins) until 1908, when, on the departure of G. F. Attree for Canada, he was elected Master, which position he held until 1919 when he resigned, to be succeeded by Mr. J. T. Rickman. He was also delegate to the Central Council (1905-1913), trustee of funds (1916-1947) and vice-president (1920-1947). His position as senior partner of an old established firm of solicitors enabled him to give valuable advice and guidance to the Association.

Among his many public appointments were those of clerk to the Chichester City magistrates for almost 50 years, clerk to the old Guardians Committee, Deputy Town Clerk, Deputy Coroner, Superintendent Registrar and clerk to the Vagrancy Committee, also clerk to a large number of local charities. He was also a special constable for many years and Superintendent of Chichester 'Specials' for the first two years of World War II.

He leaves a son and daughter, his wife having died several years ago.

At the funeral service on December 10th at St. Pancras' Church, Chichester, the Association was represented by the Master (Mr. F. I. Hairs), the hon. general secretary (Mr. S. E. Armstrong), Mr. R. G. Blackman and others. Half-muffled ringing took place at the Cathedral in the evening. F.I.H.

SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD

The Southern District's annual meeting was held at Baglan on December 6th. The six bells were rung before the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. D. Ll. Jones), who is himself learning to ring with his new band.

The business meeting followed tea. Mr. E. Stith was re-elected secretary for the 21st time, Mr. T. M. Roderick auditor, and one life and nine ringing members from Baglan were elected. Ringing was kept going until about 8 p.m., methods rung ranging from Doubles to Surprise Minor.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

Over 50 members and friends attended the meeting at Brierley Hill on December 6th. The Rector (the Rev. C. N. Crowther-Green) conducted a short service and presided at the meeting which followed.

Three new members were elected. The next meeting (annual) will be held at Dudley in March. The members stood in silence in memory of Robert Matthews. Votes of thanks were passed to the Rector, organist and ladies who had served tea.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild

MAYOR AND RINGER-BRIDPORT'S MEMORIAL.

The annual meeting of the West Dorset Branch was held at Bridport on December 6th, with an attendance of about 50 representing Beaminster, Bradpole, Bridport, Burton Bradstock, Evershot, Litton Cheney, Loders, Lyme Regis and Powerstock, with visitors from Abbotsbury, Wimborne, Frome and Hardington.

Before the service in church the Rector of Bridport ascended the tower with the churchwardens, and in the presence of Mrs. Northover and members of her family, dedicated a tablet, unveiled by Mr. C. Crabbe, commemorating the late Mr. W. S. B. Northover, who had been not only a prominent citizen of the town and one time Mayor, but also a devoted ringer for over 50 years. Immediately following the dedication, members of the Bridport tower rang a short touch of call changes to his memory.

The Rector, Canon G. C. Clare, conducted the service and gave a helpful address. At the business meeting, following an ample meat tea, in the Church House, the chairman of the branch, the Rev. C. Carew Cox, was supported by the Rector, Col. Yeo (churchwarden) and the Rev. B. N. Carver.

Mr. C. H. Lathey (hon. secretary) presented the accounts, showing a balance in hand of £17 11s. 7d., apart from subscriptions still outstanding. Members received his consent to offer himself for re-election with acclamation. The following officers were elected: Chairman, the Rev. C. Carew Cox; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. H. Lathey; Ringing Master, Mr. H. D. W. Bishop. It was resolved that in future only two deputy ringing masters should be elected, Mr. H. G. Keeley and Mr. J. Barrett being chosen. Mr. Critchard kindly offered to assist the hon. secretary in every way possible, and this offer was warmly received.

Two new members were elected from Beaminster, one from Lyme Regis, three from Bridport and four from Powerstock. Canon G. C. Clare was elected as an hon. member.

Owing to the petrol restrictions, quarterly meetings were proposed as near the bus routes as possible, viz., at Loders, Beaminster, Symondsbury and Powerstock, with the annual at Bridport.

Both Loders and Bridport towers asked for the help of an instructor in change ringing and they were promised assistance by other towers next year.

The chairman voiced the thanks of all to the Rector of Bridport for his welcome and interest, and at the same time welcomed him in his new sphere of work, following Canon L. Barlett, who had always been such a good friend to the Guild. Thanks were also accorded Mr. Elsworth, the organist, Mr. C. H. Lathey, hon. secretary, and the caterers.

The ringing during the afternoon and evening ranged from rounds and call changes to Triples and Major in the standard methods.

LEICESTER GUILD AND LADIES GUILD

A joint meeting of the Loughborough District and the Midland District of the above Guilds was held at Shepshed on November 29th. About 35 ringers and friends attended. A service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. H. C. Hunt), and Mr. Paul Taylor (chairman of the Loughborough District) read the lesson.

Tea was served in the Charnwood Cafe, after which the respective meetings were held. The bells were rung during the afternoon and evening to Grandshire and Stedman Triples, Bob Minor and Major, and Double Norwich.

'THE CHURCH AND ART'

UNDER the above title the Central Council for the Care of Churches published this week their tenth report, a comprehensive survey of how our great cathedrals withstood the damages of war and also principles for general guidance of Diocesan Advisory Committees and Churchwardens on the care of churches. References are made to church bells and, while much of the information is of general knowledge to ringers, the comments will be of special interest.

What bells have we lost during the war asks the compiler of the report. We quote: 'First, perhaps, the well-known bells of St. Mary-le-Bow, Cheapside. In this case the bells were not those long familiar and recorded for wireless broadcasting, but a modern ring. More serious losses are splendid rings by Rudhall, of Gloucester, in St. Bride's, Fleet Street, and St. Nicholas', Bristol. Another fine ring by the same founder was that of St. Dunstan-in-the-East; one which survived of these bells is to go to Canberra, in Australia. The ring of eight at St. Lawrence Jewry is gone, and also that of Whitechapel. There is little doubt but that these famous rings in the City of London will be replaced.'

The report goes on: 'It is often pointed out that modern tuning methods are usually undesirable where ancient bells are concerned. But such treatment is possible in the case of 19th-century rings, and has just been successfully applied to a light ring of eight at St. Katharine's, Feltham.'

'But bell losses might have been much greater. The bells of Exeter Cathedral are untouched, so are those of St. Paul's, London, Canterbury, Lincoln, York, Westminster Abbey and St. Martin's-in-the-Field, and, indeed, the great majority of our ringing bells. Even at Coventry, where so much else went, the bells were untouched. Of ancient or mediæval bells, as far as our information goes, we have lost none or, at the worst, next to none.' As to protective measures in war time the report states that the earliest bells in the City of London were sent to Cleve Abbey, West Somerset, where they still remain for the present. They include mediæval bells from St. Bartholomew-the-Great and St. Bartholomew-the-Less, and early examples from the Whitechapel Foundry belonging to St. Andrew Undershaft.

At present there is only one member with a direct interest in ringing—the Rev. E. G. Benson—on the Central Council for the Care of Churches. Our Council should have direct representation or liaison with this body; the experts of our art could make a useful contribution.

EDITORIAL OFFICE: c/o Woodbridge Press, Ltd., Guildford, Surrey.

BELFRY GOSSIP

A list that denotes rare achievement is the 400 peals of Mr. Walter F. Judge, of Oxford. For details see next week.

Leicester handbell enthusiasts remembered Mr. James George's birthday. There was a peal on the eve.

The Ladies' Guild will note with pleasure that Miss Evelyn Steel has rung her 250th peal—seven Surprise Minor methods.

To peal ringers we would say have patience. We have 149 in hand at the time of writing. As far as possible publication will be in chronological order.

The first peal on the recast bells of Wakefield Cathedral was a silver wedding compliment to the Provost, the Very Rev. N. T. Hopkins, who gave such encouragement to their restoration.

'Aristophanes' is reminded that a rule governing the publication of letters is that the name and address of the sender must be forwarded to the Editor. The Editor is not an expert at guessing handwriting.

Sympathy is expressed with Mr. R. O. Fry, of Bath, who was taken suddenly ill last week-end. He was to have conducted in a peal attempt at Sherborne Abbey last Saturday. Because of his illness the attempt has been postponed.

We regret this is an eight-page issue. Unfortunately there are others to come, as the ration received from the Paper Controller is not what we anticipated. It is probable that 'The Ringing World' will alternate between eight and twelve page issues.

Steps are being taken to maintain interest. To conserve space, Notices are being set in a smaller type. May we remind secretaries that the charge is still one penny a word (minimum 2s.). Counting was particularly bad during the Christmas rush.

The peal at Seal, Kent, is the first peal on the bells since 1898 and was rung as a compliment to Mr. T. Groombridge, sen., and Mr. H. J. Ford, the only two surviving members of the band which rang that peal, the first on the bells.

In connection with the Nativity play at Kilburn Parish Church from December 30th to January 2nd, there will be ringing each evening. Mr. E. M. Atkins, of 18, Westbere Road, N.W.2, appeals for volunteers to ensure that a complete band will be available each evening. He would welcome information of attendance in advance (phone Hampstead 4510).

Veteran of the South Wigston band is Mr. John Clarke, who has been ringing there regularly since the bells were installed in 1901. On December 7th he called 1,260 Grandsire Triples in celebration of his 79th birthday, the ringers being R. Perry 1, G. Deacon 2, J. E. Clarke 3, C. Marshall 4, A. Bodycote 5, A. Patrick 6, J. L. Willars 7, F. Ford 8.

To mark the 40th anniversary of the formation of the Coventry Diocesan Guild, a peal of Belgrave Surprise Major was rung at Chilvers Coton. Those taking part were the Master, a former Master, the general secretary, a former general secretary, two district secretaries and the auditor and committee member.

History for the Peterborough Guild was made by the peal at Tichmarsh, Northants, on Nov. 29th. It was the first peal of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob for the Guild and the first peal of Spliced Major, on the bells and by all the band except the conductor (Mr. George W. Jeffs). There was, however, a first or two left for the conductor—the first to 'circle' the tower and his first Treble Bob as conductor.

The Banstead Peal

Dear Sir,—I, too, would like to congratulate the local band at Banstead on ringing a peal of Spliced Surprise Major in four methods.

To answer your query: Is there another tower in the country whose local band could ring this peal?

We have, at All Saints' Church, Oxford, a band who have progressed so far in Spliced Surprise ringing that eight and ten methods are rung regularly for Sunday service. On practice nights we are joined by some of St. Giles' ringers and university members, and have rung up to twelve methods spliced.

This local band is capable of ringing a peal in ten Surprise methods, but owing to two of its members not caring for peal ringing, no attempt has ever been made, though seven of its members—with the addition of Mr. Bennett, of St. Giles—have rung peals in four, five, six, eight (2) and ten methods.

Perhaps a short summary on how ringing in Oxford has reached its present high level would be of interest.

When the ban on ringing was lifted, there still existed in Oxford the nucleus of a pre-war band of Surprise ringers, and with the general public taking a more active interest in ringing, recruits began to come along and rapid progress was made. This progress, in the early days, was helped largely owing to the keenness of John Spice and a few other university members. If, at that time, the policy of the more advanced members had been a selfish one, a band could have been formed which, in a short space of time, could have rung almost any method. This would have been a grave mistake, for with the 'going down' of John and Betty Spice, Wilfrid Moreton, not to mention the secession from ringing of 'Dick' Post, the advanced ringing in Oxford would have broken up.

No, the policy of Oxford ringing has been a long term one. We have never neglected to teach recruits, and bring along the slow ones, until we have, besides the Spliced ringers, several ringing Surprise methods, and others in the Grandsire and Stedman stage. The combined ringers of the three active eight-bell towers also meet at 9 a.m. every Sunday and ring for the Cathedral services, when some good Grandsire and Stedman Cinques are rung.

The motto here is, 'Keep Teaching,' a motto which some of the experts would do well to adopt.—Yours faithfully, W. F. JUDGE.

NEW ZEALAND AND ROYAL WEDDING

Dear Sir,—Arrangements were in hand for the Christchurch Cathedral Bellingers Society to ring on the occasion of the Royal Wedding, and the N.Z. Broadcasting Service were to make recordings of the ringing. It is with regret that we have to report that these arrangements were cancelled because of the tragic fire in Christchurch at the time; this fire is the worst one in the history of New Zealand. Forty-one people were burnt to death and the city was in mourning for a week; a civic funeral was held on the Sunday, when an undenominational service was held in the Christchurch Cathedral, at the conclusion of which the bells were rung half-muffled as the cortege left for the cemetery.

At a later date the N.Z. Broadcasting Service visited the belfry and made three recordings of the Cathedral bells, one being set changes on ten bells, consisting of Queen's, Whittington and Titum changes. The second one was a plain course of Grandsire Triples on the heavy eight bells, and the third recording was 120 Grandsire Doubles on the light six. It is proposed to use these recordings occasionally prior to church services that are being broadcast.

With best wishes to all ringers. Yours faithfully, G. N. SLOAN, Christchurch Cathedral Society.

Royal Wedding Peals

DEFINITION WANTED.

Dear Sir,—When is a 'Wedding Peal' not a 'Wedding Peal'?

This question is prompted by a careful perusal of the issues of 'The Ringing World' for December 5th and 12th, in which 158 peals, purporting to be 'Royal Wedding Peals,' have been published. Of these only 86 can, in my opinion, be regarded as such, having been actually rung on the day of the Royal Wedding. The remaining 72 appear to be just ordinary peals.

Perhaps the term 'Wedding Peal' is subject to a periodic elasticity in order that certain bands will have ample opportunity to get a peal in.

On referring to the issue of May 9th, 1947, it is noticeable that only five peals not rung on the Royal Birthday were classified as birthday peals, although many were rung within a few days of that date.

If this kind of 'date-stretching' is allowed to continue, the whole point of ringing for these special occasions will become a farce.

Whilst on the subject of Royal Peals, it is interesting to note that in only six towers were peals scored both on the 21st birthday and the wedding day of Her Royal Highness. This means that only a very few ringers managed to score a 'double.'—Yours faithfully,

Maidstone, Kent. G. F. CANTRILL.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL CHELTENHAM BRANCH.

A year of progress was reported at the annual meeting of the Cheltenham Branch at Leckhampton on December 13th. Mr. J. Ballinger was elected chairman for the coming year in succession to Mr. Dyer, other officers remaining as before.

The secretary reported that the year started with 73 members (27 in arrears) and ended with 84 (one in arrears). The branch had lost by death Mr. J. Causon, a founder member. Nine members had been written off after consultation with the towers concerned. Elections totalled 17, including the whole of the Childswickham band, and four rejoined.

Service ringing had been maintained in most towers. St. Mark's, unfortunately, had been prevented from ringing through damage to the spire caused by the gales of last winter. He understood the repairs were to be put in hand as soon as possible.

Members heard with regret of the serious illness of Mr. Walter Yeend, and that the Association was losing the Rev. N. E. Hope, who is moving into the Oxford Diocese. A committee was appointed to organise an outing on June 19th.

There were 42 ringers at the meeting from 12 towers, including several visitors. Tea was provided by the local band and helpers. Ringing ranged from Grandsire Triples to Double Norwich.

A PONTEFRAC CELEBRATION

Mr. Harry Walters, of Pontefract, has achieved his ambition to ring 50 peals of Stedman Triples, of which he has conducted 38. At the conclusion of the peal at his own tower on November 29th, Harry entertained the band and a few friends to a substantial supper. The Vicar of St. Giles' spoke in appreciation of Harry's long and untiring service to his church, and presented him with a fountain pen from his friends as a small token of appreciation of his good work. The evening passed all too quickly with recollections of past ringing experiences interspersed with handbell ringing and a touch of Stedman on the piano.

For some years Harry has been greatly handicapped owing to a mishap to his left hand, which cannot grasp the sally, and the tail end has to be hitched on to the hand with a short bight. His ringing is perforce limited to light, easy-going bells with short draught. His striking, notwithstanding his disability, is of the best.

EVERARD SLADE POWELL

AN APPRECIATION.

The recent death of the Rev. E. S. Powell has removed from the Exercise one whose contributions to the art of ringing have been considerable, both in the theoretical and practical fields.

At the time he was completing his education at Oxford at the turn of the century, E. S. Powell had not taken up ringing, nor did he do so until several years later. It appeared that mathematics was his strong point, for he was a scholar of Christ Church and later achieved a first class in Maths. Mods. and in his Final Schools. However, he desired to enter the Church and after taking Holy Orders he was appointed curate of Esher in 1899. In 1903 he was appointed curate of St. Thomas', Exeter, and it was here that he became attracted to ringing and learned to handle a bell.

His next move was to Holbeton, Devon, where he became Vicar from 1906-1926. During this time his interest and ability in all that pertains to ringing were developing and maturing, and it is not surprising to see him becoming general secretary of the Devon Guild (1913-1924) and the president of the same body (1924-1935). During the last few years of this presidency he held the Rectory of Clyst St. George (1928-1935), and he was always very proud of being Rector of the church which had previously been in the charge of H. T. Ellacombe.

It is by his work on the Methods Committee of the Central Council that he will perhaps be best remembered in future. He had begun to represent the Devon Guild on the Central Council in 1914, and in 1927 he was elected to the Methods Committee. Here with two others whose names are famous in the Exercise, H. Law James and J. Armiger Trollope, he was jointly responsible for the compilation of the Central Council's 'Collection of Doubles and Minor Methods.' Later the committee, now consisting of E. S. Powell, J. A. Trollope and Stephen Wood issued a similar work—the 'Collection of Triples Methods'—and a notable contribution to this publication was E. S. Powell's work on Erin Triples.

In 1928 he married Miss Molly Davenport, of Sheffield, who was also a ringer, and for many years, in fact up to the time of his death, they were to have the great pleasure which accrues when husband and wife can share and actively pursue a common interest.

In 1932, taking the view that no up-to-date book existed by means of which newcomers to ringing might be introduced to the four standard methods, they undertook the joint authorship of 'The Ringer's Handbook,' which is still the standard work for beginners.

In 1933 E. S. Powell relinquished his residence in, but not his affection for, Devon, when the Dean of Christ Church offered him the living of Staverton, Northamptonshire, which he held till his retirement in 1946. His ability made itself as apparent in Northamptonshire as in Devon and in 1935 he became Master of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild and remained so for 11 years.

While the Central Council publications and his own work have ensured for his talents in the theoretical field the profound respect of the Exercise, a visit to one of his practice nights, or, better still, membership of one of his bands, would engender much admiration for his qualities as a teacher. He had all the attributes which make for success in such a sphere, namely, a thorough knowledge of ringing, immense patience with a beginner, a notable sense of humour, an ability to impart knowledge and an insistence on good discipline, while his personal example as a ringer could hardly be bettered.

Needless to say, it would never have done if the bells of the churches in his charge had been unsuitable for good ringing, and he was instrumental in securing the rehanging of the bells at Holbeton and Staverton.

He was not, in his own words, a prolific peal ringer, as he cared more for teaching, and strangely enough he kept no records of his peals, but it is estimated that he rang between three and four hundred; of these he conducted a good many. He was an able conductor, possessing to a high degree the attribute of knowing everyone else's work as well as his own, and thus being able to correct trips quickly and confidently.

The peal of which perhaps he had the happiest memories was one of Grandsire Cinques rung entirely by Devon men at Exeter Cathedral on January 6th, 1926, and composed and conducted by himself. The time was 3 hours and 55 minutes, and the peal proceeded with scarcely a trip and felt most comfortable. It is believed that there has been no other peal of Grandsire Cinques at Exeter since that one.

At the beginning of 1947 he retired from active work and went to live in Somerset. In September he was visiting Sheffield and was ringing for evensong in Sheffield Cathedral when he gave up his bell and a few minutes later died peacefully.

Thus passed on in the surroundings that he would have wished a grand and great man who made the lives of many others the happier for his presence and who by the exercise of his gifts left richer the art of ringing.

December, 1947.

OBITUARY

MR. W. A. COOPER.

The death took place on November 22nd at the Royal Hospital, Wolverhampton, of Mr. William Alfred Cooper, at the age of 78 years. He had been ailing for several months and went into hospital for a major operation, which proved to be too much for him to overcome. His remains were taken into St. Peter's Church for the service, and afterwards laid to rest in the Wolverhampton Cemetery.

William Cooper commenced ringing in his late teens at All Saints' Church, West Bromwich, and later joined the Wednesbury band. When he retired from his occupation as fitter in the engineering business he moved to Wolverhampton, and took up the post of caretaker at the Girls' High School. He then became a member of the St. Peter's band, and so remained until he found the climbing of so many steps was too much for him. But he would not in appearance when he felt fit to do so. His total number of peals for the Stafford Archdeaconry Society was 127, several of which he conducted. He was a member of the R.A.O.B. (Earl Haig Lodge). H.K.

MR. GEORGE HAYDEN.

The last survivor of the old All Saints' company, West Ham, Mr. George Hayden died on December 9th, aged 86. His passing was precipitated by a fall at his home a week previously.

A native of Braughing, Herts, he came to London about 60 years ago and joined the six-bell company at Leytonstone, where he remained for a few years. He then joined All Saints', West Ham, and was towerkeeper for many years. He had many peals on six, eight and ten bells to his credit and was an excellent striker.

The interment was in West Ham Cemetery on December 17th following a service held at All Saints' Church. Six of his ringing friends attended, viz., T. H. Taffender, R. W. Stannard, A. Prior, C. A. Hughes, J. Bullock and G. Dawson, four of whom rang a course of Grandsire Triples on handbells over the grave.

Our old friend will be greatly missed, as he had a cheerful word for everybody. May he rest in peace. G.D.
