RESOLUTIONS

Most of us are familiar with the saying that good resolutions serve as paving stones on the road to hell. A New Year is sometimes more than an adjustment of the calendar. To many it is symbolic of a fresh start, and it is in the planning of this new beginning that the old adage becomes operative. Don't believe the satanic reference. Even the striving after checking a particular weakness has merit. We ringers have our own weaknesses; we are a peculiar people in the eyes of the world. Exercise or entertainment with a ball is understandable by the public at large, but with a rope and a bell ten thousand times' no.

The first resolution on my list is walking circumspectly in the eyes of the public. In the midst of our enthusiasm for ringing is there not a danger of over keenness? The Church and the world do not revolve around ringing. Ringing has to be dovetailed into the scheme of things. Each tower situated in a centre of population should be examined as to the effectiveness of its louvres and whether the bells are likely to give offence to the non-bigot. (There is a section of the public who will attack bells and anything connected with the Church, whatever the circumstances, and it is impossible to cater for these people.)

When ringing a peal where the bells are heard by a large number of people there should be some purpose for the peal, and it is useful propaganda if this reason, provided it is a good one, could be published, even after the event. It should not be difficult to compile an appropriate list on a sufficiently broad basis to be understandable by the non-ringing public. With a purpose, ringing then becomes to them an understandable thing.

Another difficulty is over practices. These should be held on a regular evening each week with a limitation of time. People living around would know when to expect the bells and arrange their own recreations accordingly. We heard recently of a musical appreciation class which met to listen to gramophone records at the same time as the bells of the Parish Church were being practised on. The class could not be held. A meeting between representatives of the ringers and the class has resulted in an understanding being reached.

The fact that a practice is being held is no excuse for an absence of disregard for those who might hear the bells. The conductor should not hesitate to call 'stand' if the ringing degenerates into a type that is likely to give offence to the outside public, rather than give a display of his own consummate skill in unravelling ringing tangles. Two things are invariable at the bottom of such ringing—lack of knowledge of the method, or as someone remarked, 'absence of pencil and paper,' and lack of confidence as displayed in the inability of the individual to master his bell. There is a quotation of John Selden that runs, 'Never tell your resolutions beforehand,' but then it is the exception that proves the rule!

OBITUARY

MR. FREDERICK HARWOOD.

By the death of Mr. Frederick Harwood, of Preston, the Lancashire Association loses a life ringing member and the Preston Branch one of its past stalwarts. In his 80th year, Fred, as he was popularly known, was taken ill on December 20th and he died on December 24th. He retired from active ringing some eight years ago, but always liked to talk of old times.

The interment took place at the Church of All Saints, Higher Walton, on December 28th, this being his native village, and where he learned to ring over half a century ago. He migrated to Preston, where he was connected with St. Mark's for about 10 years and then with the Parish Church of St. John for over 30 years. Owing to the two-day absence of newspapers, it was impossible to arrange any tower bell ringing for the funeral, but the handbells were rung in rounds over the open grave by four of his old friends.

No record of his peals exists, but he must have rung about 40. They included several of Minor, Stedman Triples, Double Norwich, Treble Bob Major and Superlative. He was a regular and punctual service ringer, a safe ringer in peals and a cheerful companion at all times. R.I.P.

MR. WESLEY WATSON.

Mr. W. Keeble, Severalls Hospital, Colchester, writes:—

'May I be allowed to pay a passing tribute to the late Mr. W. Watson, of Romford, whose death was recently reported in "The Ringing World"? Although, like myself, of humble birth, he was a perfect gentleman. He would never enter into any dispute: always had a cheery smile and was a model to all. Ever ready and willing for a touch or a peal, he was equally willing to umpire. We were close friends for many years. Would that there were more like him.'

MR. E. J. CHINERY.

The recent death of Mr. Edward James Chinery, of Bury St. Edmunds, after a long illness patiently born in St. Mary's Hospital has deprived the Suffolk Guild of one of its best ringers. He was a noted ringer of some 50 years' standing and before the birth of the present Suffolk Guild was a member of the Ely and Norwich Guilds. He rang a considerable number of peals for the three Guilds, and for the past 20 years up to 1943, when ill-health overtook him, he was district secretary for Bury St. Edmunds District.

On December 23rd he was buried at the cemetery at Bury St. Edmunds, and a service was held at St. Mary's Church, where a number of his ringing friends paid their last respects to his memory. The same evening half-muffled touches of Grandsire Caters and Kent Treble Bob Royal were rung on the bells of the Norman Tower by members of the Bury St. Edmunds company of ringers. A.G.

CHRISTMAS BROADCASTS

Dear Sir,—Your last issue of 'The Ringing World' mentions the forthcoming broadcast of the bells of two churches. One on the Midland programme from Alesley Parish Church, and the other from East Hagbourne. But on what wave length could the latter be heard? It was not mentioned in 'The Radio Times.'

Would it be possible to have all broadcasts of interest to ringers mentioned in 'The Ringing World' each week—tower bells, handbells and talks—with the metre of the wave lengths on which they can be heard, and the day and time?

I was told Shaftesbury bells were 'on the air' one evening, also some handbell ringers were televised, but neither programme was mentioned in 'The Ringing World.'—Yours truly, AUDREY M. LOOK (Miss).

Sutton, Ditcheat, Bath.

Grundisburgh Bells Fund

Dear Sir,—The kindness and help I received from ringers during this festive season deserves public mention.

My warmest thanks go out to E. W. Pye, Hilda Snowdon, E. Jennings, L. Wiffen, Stedman Symonds, A. Pritchard, J. Raithby, R. Daniel, H. S. Morley, R. H. Howson, Ron Steward, E. Treagus, Joan Betts, H. C. Hill-yard, W. J. Root, Dan Cooper, Dr. E. S. J. Hatcher, A. D. Barker, B. Key, C. Gimbert, R. D. Langford, H. Baxter, H. Denman, Alan Andrews, C. J. Ball, E. Short, F. Wallington, J. Crampton, W. A. Richardson, H. Curtis, H. Rogers, H. Lofthouse, J. A. Brown, Percy Yeo, E. Taylor, B. Ashford Joe Corder, G. Goody. These ringers will have helped repair a badly cracked tower and the rehanging of our peal of eight bells.

Prize-winners in the competition were: E. E. Parker (24); H. Knight (99) (no address and unclaimed); G. Dodds (159); Frank Reed (797); E. Colinson (1097); H. Carter (1099); D. Forrest (1295); Mrs. A. J. Coldrick (1336); Maurice Symonds (1629); Hilda Snowdon (1725); I. Jarrold (1797); O. Barker (1992). Private donations, profits from competition and results of my carol party brought in £60, which raises my total to £190.

I have only another £810 to find! Will I do it? I've got to do it. This little parish has been milked dry and I wonder where the next drop is coming from. But who knows what is round the corner? In conclusion, my sincere thanks to everyone, and if I have omitted a helper's name, please forgive me.

When yar wanten a peal in Suff-olk bor (or mor) less hev a loine en will see wut we c'n dew. If yar want good and heavy bell's we're got um an we c'n stroike um along er the next. Un if yar never heard a borrb really called dew yon come to Ipsidge un you'll hear ut.

Thanks a lot, and a happy New Year to all.

Most ringers cherish secret ambitions. Mr.
W. J. Robinson, of Guildford, has 'ticked off' one by conducting a peal at Olney, Bucks. It was here that he learnt to ring, but although he has called many peals from Superlative downwards, this is the first he has called in his native village.

Just a word to district secretaries who send in notices. The rate is one penny a word for a single insertion and this has been in operation for two months. Count your advertisement as you would count your place in ringing.
Two 'bobs' will produce a 'maximus' of 24 words!

The Spliced Treble Bob Major at St. Margaret's, Leicester, was composed by G. Stedman Morris at the age of 16, and is now rung for the first time 23 years later! It was appropriate for W. P. Whitehead to call it, for he was born on the same day as the composer. By this peal Mr. Josiah Morris—'Old Joe'—has attained his ambition to ring all the 13 bells in this tower to peals.

Golden wedding.—Mr. and Mrs. T. Jennison, of Bulwell, Notts. On December 14th, 1,260 Grandsire Triples were rung in honour of the event by R. Harrison 1, T. Jennison 2, E. Pickering 3, J. Hayes 4, A. Scott 5, F. Smith 6, J. E. Hobbs (conductor) 7, W. O'dham 8.

No one who participated in the 1,260 changes of Doubles (480 Plain Bob and 780 Grandsire) at Brockenhurst, Hants, on December 13th, had reached 'sweet seventeen.' These local ringers were Stella Purkess 1, Brian Tiller 2, Myra Tiller (first quarter as conductor) 3, Frank Gilbert (first quarter) 4, John Purkess (first quarter) 5, Beryl Purkess 6.

BELFRY GOSSIP

On Christmas morning Mr. Frank N. Sinkins completed 70 years as a bell-ringer at St. Mary's, Slough. Although he will celebrate his 82nd birthday on January 30th, Mr. Sinkins is still most regular in his attendances. A peal of Grandsire Triples in honour of the event was lost after 2 hours 50 minutes' ringing.

Another Slough ringer, Mr. George Barkus, on Boxing Day celebrated his golden wedding. The two churchwardens visited the belfry on Christmas Eve to congratulate Messrs. Sinkins and Barkus and to present the latter with a monetary gift subscribed for by churchwardens and bellringers.

The news from Surfleet this week is not good. Mr. Rupert Richardson is not so well.

Mr. Walter Thomas, a veteran member of the Chester Guild, celebrated his 84th birthday on December 11th by joining in a couple of 720's on the back six at Farndon. The toast at the 'local' afterwards was 'Many happy returns,' and participated in very heartily by a few of his old cronies.

The Editor notes with satisfaction that the Whites are holding their own. At Appleton, Berks, was rung on December 1st 1,259 Grandsire Caters by F. White (first of Caters) 1, C. G. White 2, A. G. Holifield (first inside) 3, F. A. White 4, F. Messenger 5, F. C. White 6, H. C. White 7, G. Holifield (conductor) 8, E. White 9, F. Drewitt 10.

Of the notable peals of 1946 mention should be made of the peal of Stedman Cinques on Victory Day at Lincoln. It contained short courses throughout and had only once been rung before at Newcastle Cathedral, in February, 1921, conducted by W. H. Barber. The peal at Lincoln was conducted by John Freeman and the composition is by J. W. Parker.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Bedfordshire is a county with a long tradition of change ringing. The first record of change ringing dates back to 1655 as testified by a manuscript preserved in the Bodleian Library at Oxford and written about that date. The enthusiasm of John Bunyan as a ringer at Elstow is additional evidence of the popularity of ringing in those early days. In his book, 'Grace Abounding,' Bunyan's conscience pricked him on the matter of ringing, for he wrote:—

'I thought that such practice was but vain, and therefore forced myself to leave it; yet my mind hankered; wherefore I would go to the steeple-house, and look on, though I durst not ring.'

The association was formed at a meeting in Bedford on March 13th, 1882, when the following officers were elected:—

Patron: The Lord Bishop of Ely.

President: The Ven. Archdeacon of Bedford.

Vice-presidents: The Rev. R. E. R. Watts (Vicar of St. Paul's, Bedford), Mr. C. L. Higgins, of Turvey Abbey, and Mr. T. Bagnall, of Milton-Ernest.

Hon. Treasurer: Mr. L. G. Elger, of Bedford.

Hon. Secretary: Mr. C. Herbert, of Woburn.

The committee consisted of eight members 'of whom four shall be performing members.'

The first rule reads: 'That the society be called the Bedfordshire Association of Change Ringers. That it have for its objects the promotion of belfry reform, and the cultivation of scientific change ringing, and shall consist of honorary and performing members.'

In the first year there were 19 honorary and 29 performing members. The highest membership was achieved in 1931 with a total of 241, namely, 18 honorary and 223 performing.

Subsequent presidents were:—

Rev. Canon W. W. C. Baker	1910
Rev. Canon Albert Rust	1929
Miss Evelyn Steel	1946 to date

Secretaries:—

Rev. W. W. C. Baker	1887
Rev. A. Rust and Mr. Isaac Hills	1903
Rev. Albert Rust	1909
Mr. E. P. Duffield	1919
Mr. A. E. Sharman	1921
Mr. F. J. Plummer	1938 to date

Mr. H. D. Harris, of Woburn, was acting hon. secretary from 1940 to 1946 during Mr. Plummer's absence on active service up to the end of 1945.

PEAL RECORDS.

The number of peals rung by the association totals 1,050. The longest is a peal of 10,176 Kent Treble Bob Major in 1894. A 10,080 of Minor was rung in 1923. There is no twelve-bell tower in the county, but a twelve-bell peal was rung by the association on handbells in 1903, consisting of 5,016 of Bob Maximus.

The first peal by the association was a 5,040 of Bob Minor in 1884. Other 'firsts' were Grandsire Triples 1885, Bob Triples 1886, Bob Major and Kent Treble Bob Major 1887, Stedman Triples 1894, Double Norwich 1895, Oxford Treble Bob Major 1890, Grandsire Caters 1896, Kent Treble Bob Royal 1897, Superlative Surprise Major 1897, Stedman Caters 1902, Cambridge Major 1913, Bristol 1925, London Major 1927, Little Bob Major 1929, Little Bob Royal on handbells 1931.

The first recorded peal in the county was a 5,040 of Bob Major at Dunstable in 1776 by the College Youths. The College Youths also rang a peal of Grandsire Triples at Leighton Buzzard in 1801. The greatest number of peals rung in any one year was in 1937, namely, 45.

In 1882 there were eight rings of eight bells in the county, 13 of six, 47 of five, 18 of four, 18 of three and eight of two, total 112. At the present time there are two rings of ten, 12 of eight, 32 of six, 26 of five, 14 of four, 18 of three, and 8 of two, total 112. It will thus be seen that considerable augmentations have taken place during the 64 years of the association's existence. The most ancient bell in the county is the sanctus bell at Dunstable, traditionally reputed to have been cast about the end of the eleventh century.

When the Ely Diocesan Association was formed in 1882 the committee of the Bedfordshire Association placed before their annual meeting 'certain resolutions providing that for the future the society shall exist as the Bedford Archidiaconal Branch of the Ely Diocesan Society.' There apparently the matter ended as there is no further reference to the subject in subsequent minutes. The Bedfordshire Association is now in the St. Albans Diocese, of which there is no Diocesan Association, although tentative suggestions have been made from time to time to this end. In 1932 the association celebrated its jubilee by a luncheon in Bedford and an officers' peal at Biddenham, where the first peal was rung.

OUTSTANDING PERSONALITIES.

Of outstanding personalities, Mr. Charles Herbert naturally takes pride of place. He may truthfully be described as the 'father' of change ringing in Bedfordshire, and with the help of Canon (then Mr.) W. W. C. Baker, Mr. Edwin Ranson and Mr. Isaac Hills, started the association on its successful career, from which it has never looked back. In the preface of North's 'Church Bells of Bedfordshire' he receives an acknowledgment of his help towards the completion of that work, and amongst other of his activities in his endeavour to further the science of change ringing and belfry reform to the fore, he wrote out the full peal of 40,320 of Bob Major in order to convince a sceptic. This manuscript is now in the possession of the Central Council Library. Mr. Herbert died in 1923 in his 80th year.

In another sphere the name of Mr. Charles W. Clarke stands out as easily that of the leading peal ringer and conductor. He joined the association in 1883 and soon came to the front as a conductor and applied all his energy and spare time to teaching young bands, starting from scratch in every case. He rang altogether more than 700 peals, of which he conducted over 430. His death took place in January, 1942, at the age of 77 years.

THE PARISH CHURCH OF ST. MARY, LUTON.

where Surprise methods are invariably rung for Sunday Services. The eight-bell peal at this tower will shortly be replaced by a new and heavier peal of ten.

The Bedfordshire Association enjoys the unique distinction, for the first time in its history, of having a lady as its president in the person of Miss Steel, who was elected at the annual meeting on Easter Monday in the place of Canon Rust, who resigned on account of failing health. Miss Steel, as is well known, is also president of the Ladies' Guild, an honour of which the Bedfordshire Association feels justifiably proud. Miss Steel scored many peals during the years between the wars, especially in a great variety of Minor methods, and probably holds a record in this respect.

The association suffered a severe blow by the untimely death in the 1914-1918 war of John William Barker, of Bedford, who would undoubtedly have made a great name for himself had he lived, both as a conductor and composer. He had already a number of meritorious compositions to his credit.

Of other leading conductors during various periods the following deserve honorable mention: Mr. Alfred King, senior vice-president, Mr. L. A. Goodenough, both of the Luton tower; Mr. A. E. Sharnan, vice-president, Dunstable; the late Mr. C. Herbert, of Woburn, both hand and tower; and Mr. E. J. Hobbs, of Husband Crawley.

The other vice-presidents are Mr. J. Nicholls, of Leighton Buzzard, Mr. E. Herbert, of Woburn, Mr. W. Stapleton, of Bedford, and Mr. G. W. Heley, of Dunstable. The completion of 25 years' service by Mr. C. J. Ball as local secretary of the Biggleswade District is noteworthy.

The association, which is divided into three districts, suffered a slump during the war years, but is now almost back to its pre-war strength, thanks to an influx of young recruits. A local secretary is appointed for each district, who undertakes to arrange a meeting once a month. The annual meeting takes place on Easter Monday in Bedford, and a summer festival is held annually, usually on the first Saturday in July, in various suitable centres in the county. H. D. HARRIS.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD HISTORY

Appropos the history of Oxford Diocesan Guild, Canon G. F. Coleridge writes:—

I had to cut out a lot, but utterly failed to remember special mention of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch. I hear this morning that it existed two years at least before the Guild started, which was quite new to me, though I should have remembered its jubilee in 1929 at Boyne Hill, as I was present at it.

It was probably a printer's error in the note under the photo of Appleton Church, which cut off 5,041 changes and made the real 10,000 instead of 15,041, which surpassed the Cheltenham one of 13,043, in which I also rang the 9th a few months previously for the Gloucester and Bristol Association. Two of my old Oxford University friends were in it—G. H. Phillott and C. D. P. Davies—who founded the Gloucester and Bristol Association; they insisted on my standing in.

AUDLEY BELLS RESTORED

Audley bells, Staffordshire, formerly an old mixed ring of six, have been recast and augmented into a fine ring of eight with tenor of approximately 15 cwt. and the total weight approximately 62 cwt., by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd., of Croydon. The bells have been hung with the latest modern fittings in a new welded steel frame.

The dedication was performed by the Bishop of Lichfield (Dr. E. S. Woods). After the ceremony the bells were rung by the local band, consisting of Messrs. J. Jebb (captain), Reg. Proctor, Fred Millington, John Proctor, Hector Millington, R. Rowley, W. Millington and Ralph Proctor. Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd., were represented by Mr. Don Bradford.

Beverley & District Society

BROCHURE TO HELP BEGINNERS.

Despite the fog, there was an attendance of about 60 for the monthly meeting of the Beverley and District Society, held on Dec. 14th at St. Mary's Church, Beverley. Towers represented were Beverley Minster, Beverley St. Mary's, Bridlington Priory, Cottingham, Hesse, Hull (Holy Trinity), Hutton Cranswick, Kirk Ella, Market Weighton, Middleton-on-Wolds, Nunburnholme, North Cave, Pocklington and Sutton-on-Hull.

The ten bells were kept going to various methods and a very good touch of Grandsire Caters preceded a short service conducted by Canon Tardrew, who in his address said that bellringers were carrying on the tradition of John the Baptist, in that the bells which they rang were voices calling people—all too often in the wilderness—to worship.

Mr. F. Dale (vice-president) took the chair at the meeting which followed tea at the Rambler Cafe. He was supported by Canon Tardrew, the Rev. G. S. Storer, Mr. Clem Glenn (Ringing Master) and Mr. Albert E. Sellers (hon. secretary). Apologies for absence were from the president and ringers from Hedon, Patrington and Middleton.

The Ringing Master reported that he had produced a brochure on ringing to help those just beginning, and the committee had sanctioned it being printed, the society bearing the cost. Copies were presented to those present in the hope that they would be of real help and benefit to the individuals and their respective towers.

Canon Tardrew was elected an honorary life member on the proposition of Mr. G. Braithwaite, seconded by Mr. F. Dale. Sutton-on-Hull was proposed for the January meeting and Pocklington for February.

The customary vote of thanks to the Vicar and all who helped with the meeting was proposed by Mr. F. Dale and carried with applause. Thanks to the local company were voiced by Miss Thompson and Mr. P. Daggett. Mr. G. Braithwaite, in reply, stressed the importance of sending early notice of attendance for teas to make it easier for catering. A notice of alteration of rule to be presented at the annual meeting, 'that the entrance fee to active membership be 2s. and an annual subscription of 1s. each year after,' was moved.

Mr. Glenn proposed and Miss Heal seconded that a recommendation be made to all members that the Church Office (or prayers) be offered each Sunday before the commencement of ringing. This was carried unanimously.

The company then adjourned to St. Mary's tower for more ringing, which included Grandsire Caters and Triples, Stedman Triples, Bob Royal, Major and Minor, Kent Treble Bob, Bob Doubles and rounds. The society has now 114 members from 18 towers.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION MEETING AT BROCKDISH.

The South Norfolk Branch of the Norwich Diocesan Association held their last meeting for 1946 at Brockdish on December 7th, which was attended by members and ringers from Attleborough, Bergh Apton, Brockdish, Carbrooke, Diss, Hardwick, Long Stratton, Mendham, Mulbarton, Norwich, Redenhall, Saxlingham and Yaxley. The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. Lee Dodds), with the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow at the organ.

Tea and the business meeting followed in the Parish Hall, Mr. W. L. Duffield being in the chair, supported by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (general secretary), Mr. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master), the Rev. Lee Dodds, Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), Messrs. C. E. G. Banham and C. Loomes (members of committee).

The annual branch meeting will be held at Diss on Saturday, March 1st, 1947.

Southwell Guild at Home

NEWARK DIOCESE FORMED.

The Southwell Diocesan Guild's first visit to Southwell on December 14th (deferred till now on account of the difficulties of ringing when the Cathedral is thronged with visitors in the summer months) took the form of a special meeting to deal with rule revision and the opening of the Newark district, not a long agenda, but doubtless an early turning point in the Guild's history.

The bells were available for one hour before service, which was attended by about 30 members and conducted by the Provost, the Very Rev. H. C. L. Heywood. Tea, which followed the service, was augmented by later arrivals to the number of 40, not a poor attendance considering the weather.

Business followed under the capable chairmanship of the Provost, and was speedily dealt with. Apologies for non-attendance were read from the Guild president, the Bishop of Southwell, due to prior engagements, and from Miss I. B. Thompson, hon. treasurer, owing to illness. Best wishes were sent from the meeting for her speedy and complete recovery.

A few minor alterations to rules were needed to complete the fusion of the North Nottingham and the Guild, and as these had been thrashed out in committee a single resolution sufficed to complete this item. The meeting then ratified the findings of the Elston meeting, which voted for the formation of a Newark District and selected the district officers on November 23rd last, and the chairman formally declared the district opened and wished the newly-elected officers well in their new venture.

As this now made the Guild into three districts, Mr. T. Groombridge, jun., asked for members of the Nottingham District to elect a district secretary immediately in order to relieve him of district responsibilities while drawing up the first report. This was responded to by the nomination of Mr. T. V. Jennison, who was unanimously elected.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Provost for the use of the bells and for presiding at the meeting, also to Messrs. Foster and Pickard (of the local company) for their arrangements for tea and meeting concluded the business.

The tower was re-visited, all classes were catered for from rounds to Cambridge with varying degrees of success, but the 'yawning chasm' gradually lost its terrors for those unused to these peculiar conditions, and ringing concluded at 8.30 p.m. with two well-struck touches, one of Stedman and one of Grandsire Triples.

SELBY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

PROSPECT OF A NEW RING AT BRAYTON.

Owing to the very inclement weather, there was only a small attendance at Esrick on December 14th. Towers represented were Hemingbrough, Howden, Goole, Selby, Sherburn, York and the local company.

An excellent tea was provided by ladies of the parish, which came as a pleasant surprise. Immediately after tea short touches of Grandsire Triples were rung on handbells.

Some useful work was accomplished at the business meeting, presided over by the society's chairman, Mr. H. S. Morley. A set of rules was very carefully considered, amended where necessary, and is to be recommended to the society at the annual meeting. The secretary reported that there was the possibility of a new ring of six bells at Brayton, near Selby as a memorial to Brayton men and women who fell in the war, and it was decided that this appeal, along with that of Carlton, should come before the annual meeting for consideration. In the meantime the secretary was asking the Vicar of Brayton for particulars of his scheme.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar (the Rev. C. H. B. Trollope) for the use of the bells and the local company and the ladies for the excellent arrangements.

The members then adjourned to the tower for further ringing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Composer Wanted

Dear Sir,—The peal of Bob Major to which Mr. Lewis refers was rung at St. Mary's, Debenham, on June 7th, 1897, as the composition of Horace Howlett, of Framingham.

Those taking part in the peal were: William Oster treble, William Groom 2, A. W. Grimes 3, John Self 4, William C. Rumsey 5, Horace Howlett 6, Samuel Garnham 7, William Grimes tenor. Conducted by William Grimes.

With the passing of W. C. Rumsey I think the only one of the band still with us is my old friend Bill Groom.—Yours sincerely, GEORGE H. CROSS.

Barnehurst, Kent.

Dear Sir,—With reference to the enquiry by Mr. E. H. Lewis, the peal in question is, I think, by Horace Howlett. It was published in the B.U.R.G. Ringers' Directory in September, 1931, the singles being placed at the end of the second and fifth courses.

In addition to being a simple peal to call, it is good to listen to, as it contains the usual satisfying features. Only 4-5-6 are in sixths at course ends and the 2nd is never above fourths. The 2nd, incidentally, plays a part in all calls except the middles and is at home every part end. It is, therefore, a good observation bell for a ringer who cannot manage a heavy bell.—Yours sincerely,

OLIVER G. BARNARD,

Stowmarket, Suffolk.

Dear Sir,—I have a peal composition which I believe is a transposition of the one called by Mr. Lewis. The composition is the following:—

	5,040
23456	W	M	H
64235	—	—	—	—
62435	—	—	—	S
46235	—	—	—	—
24635	—	—	—	—
26435	—	—	—	S

Eight times repeated omitting the hob at Middle except in 4th and 7th parts.

The peal is composed by Horace Howlett, and I found it in the Bristol United Ringing Guilds' Directory, issued September 1931.—Yours, etc.,

WILLIAM R. HAMMONS.

30, Lower Mounts, Northampton.

[Mr. R. E. Cross, of Hove, also recalls Horace Howlett's peal.]

SURPRISE METHODS EXTENSIONS

Dear Sir,—I have several methods, chiefly of the Surprise class, which extend perfectly on all numbers from 6 to 12, i.e., Minor, Major, Royal, Maximus. Three of these are first class and maintain coursing order on all numbers almost, if not quite as well, as in Bristol Surprise Major, which is, I think, of the highest importance in Royal and Maximus. As you are aware, Cambridge below the treble is very deficient in this respect, especially in Royal and Maximus. Yorkshire Surprise behaves rather better, but it is not very popular, perhaps because it is a makeshift for Cambridge. I could pass the methods to any interested company.—Yours faithfully,

W. TAYLOR.

2, Cop Lane, Penwortham, near Preston, Lancs.

NO. 377 HAS 1,092 VARIATIONS

Dear Sir,—Re the question of when the peal No. 377 by A. Knights was first rung.

It was first rung at Penwortham on Feb. 21st, 1931, and was conducted by Mr. B. A. Knights and was a Preston Branch peal.

The composition is to be found in the Lancashire Association report (1930-31). The report says by the use of alternative calling, which may be used 38 different ways and its reverse. 1,092 variations may be obtained of this peal.
Chorley, Lancs.

F. RIGBY.

Slough Bells

BRICK UP THE LOUVRES.

Dear Sir,—It was with regret that I read in 'The Ringing World' Mr. Birmingham's letter containing the complaints that have appeared in Slough's local paper.

Having rung there many times and also having listened to them from various points in the town, I am afraid I am inclined to agree with the complainants; the bells are very noisy in the immediate vicinity. To remedy this would it not be possible to brick up the louvres? I should imagine that this would kill the harshness, and as the tower has a stone spire with several openings higher up, these would only allow a moderate amount of noise in the locality and perhaps give the bells a chance to sound further away.

I really do think that the matter of noisy bells will have to be looked into or, as Mr. Birmingham remarks, the bells will only be rung subject to by-laws.

I really don't see how we can compare aeroplanes, motor horns and pneumatic drills with bells, as the former are really a necessity in our modern life and are thought of as such by the local population, whereas bells are considered an unnecessary noise (unless quietened) by the vast majority.—Yours faithfully,

F. H. HICKS.

21, Garfield Road, Hailsham, Sussex.

'SALUTE THE HAPPY MORN!'

Dear Sir,—Can any readers beat this 'exploit'? On Christmas morning two ringers arose at 4.45 a.m. and cycled over six miles to a neighbouring tower to ring at 6 a.m. for a service at 7 a.m. and afterwards rang at two local towers at 9.15 a.m. and 10 a.m.—Yours faithfully, Canterbury, Kent.

CHRISTMAS BELLS AT A RAILWAY STATION

Dear Sir,—It may be of interest to the readers of 'The Ringing World' to know that a model church, standing 8ft. to top of spire, was built in the workshops of the Great Northern Railway (Ireland) and placed in the concourse of the Railway Company's station, Great Victoria Street, Belfast. The church has a tower with spire, on the south-west corner of the body. An electric clock is fitted in the tower and there are 'stained glass' windows in the church, which is internally lighted.

Loudspeakers have been concealed under the tower and chancel so that the travelling public may be entertained to gramophone records of carols and bells. When the church was 'opened' a record of bells and carols by St. Margaret's, Westminster, was played. The writer advised the Traffic Department that there were other records of bells, and by a strange coincidence, after telephoning most of the music shops, a H.M.V. record C.2093, with Grandisire Caters on one side and Stedman Caters on the other side, by St. Margaret's, Westminster, was located.

This record had arrived in Belfast an hour previously and the shop owner was going to send it back as he could see no hope of a sale for it. After this record was played there were regular demands for the bells. The idea was originated by the traffic manager, Mr. H. S. Knott, and the church designed by the company's mechanical engineer, Mr. H. R. McIntosh, and built by his staff. The lighting of the church and installation of clock and gramophone apparatus was the responsibility of the writer, who is the company's electrical engineer.—Yours faithfully,

FRED E. DUKES, Hon. Secretary.
Irish Association of Change Ringers.
Jenkinson, Dundalk.

CARICATURE

In more than three million homes in this country the Exercise was associated with the incoming of 1947. On New Year's Eve the 'Daily Express' published a belfry scene as the subject matter of Giles' cartoon on current events and by permission of that newspaper we reproduce it in this issue. We were not flattered, but the privilege of caricature is such that to be featured in 'Punch' is a stepping stone to fame, and to be noticed by the most popular daily newspaper in this country is undoubtedly some recognition. The question ringers will be asking is where does caricature end and ridicule begin?

Now it is a maxim of art for the cartoonist to use exaggeration to emphasise points of personality. The creatures of fantasy that Giles pictured in his ringing chamber as the companions of bats are devoid of personality and in true keeping with the words of the caption. Ringers are all too familiar with the gnomelike mockery. Incongruous situations cause many a smile, hence the Exercise will take the joke against themselves in good part. Caricature is no modern thing: King Rameses V. of Egypt, as early as 1100 B.C., was caricatured, and in the introduction of printing this art quickly flourished. The first printed caricature of 1460 depicts a group of richly-clothed ladies scrambling for the possession of a pair of trunk hose held aloft in a garland of two winged genii. To-day's caption would undoubtedly be 'Nylons'—so history repeats itself!

Virginia Woolf, in one of her essays, wrote: 'If you say to the public with sufficient conviction, "All women have tails and all men humps," it will actually learn to see women with tails and men with humps, and will think it very revolutionary and probably improper if you say, "Nonsense."' The same observation might equally apply to 'Bats in the Belfry,' as, unfortunately for us, there is a substantial section of the community who invariably associate the decrepit and the half-wits with bellringing. 'Bats in the Belfry' is a phrase most ringers have had hurled at them by the uninitiated, and it is popularly held that the intelligence ratio of bellringers is subnormal. It is only when the critic starts to explore the hidden intricacies of bellringing that an appreciation is gained of the concentration and high mental faculties required, and mathematical, too, if the art of composition and proof is registered.

There are, however, hidden joys to ringers in Giles' cartoon as revealing heights of absurdity unbeknown to the ordinary individual. Perhaps this humour was unconscious. 'The Ringing World' refrains from offering a prize for the maximum number of absurdities or impossibilities spotted by readers. Six ropes in a straight line, for example, make one wonder how Giles' phantoms mastered the principle of rope-sight. The length of rope below the sallies of elephantine proportions conjures up a series of problems as to what sort of a contraption was at the other end of the rope. 'Caricature, to be an art at all, must always be allowed its own way,' wrote an authority. The sore of ridicule is healed by the balm of absurdity, and our readers will laugh with the millions of others who look to the 'Daily Express' for their news and views.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Family tradition has been followed by 15-year-old Harry Briggs, who rang his first peal at Stoney Stanton, Leicestershire. His great-grandfather, grandfather and father also rang their first peals in this tower.
The first two named were for many years captains of the local ringers.

Within the past seven days we have received 73 peals. A publication delay is bound to arise as we cannot go to a larger size of 'Ringing World' until our next consignment of 16-page paper arrives.

By ringing his first peal of Little Bob Major at St. Giles' Church, Lincoln, Mr. Sydney A.
Chambers has now circled the tower.

Mr. Leonard Trevor, by a peal of Cambridge Surprise Minor at Allesley, Warwickshire, has rung from Minor to Maximus.

Broughton Astley ringers' golden wedding peal for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dury was accomplished after a number of setbacks, including the fifth casting a rope at back-stroke. They thank Mr. and Mrs. Dury for their hospitality.
The peal was an occasion of determination winning through.

There was only one peal on Christmas Day—at Ashbrittle, Somerset, which was completed in time for the 8.30 a.m. Holy Communion service.

Salisbury Guild announce two augmentations. Two new trebles have been added at Downton, making a ring of eight, and one treble at Codford, increasing the be's to six.

Northampton ringers and friends' annual Boxing Day tour was highly successful. Ringing took place at Oundle (with its difficult circle of eight), Cotterstock (a light ring of five), Massington (with its steeple built in three sections), Elton (with a good ring of five) and Warmington (a handy ring of six). Mr. Frank
C. Tysoe was thanked for making the arrangements.

BELFRY GOSSIP

If your friend has missed his 'Ringing World' this week it might be through the late arrival of his subscription. His copy is with Mr. Eldred awaiting the receipt of the remittance.

Edmonton ringers expressed their affection to Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas on their departure for Worcestershire by a farewell peal on December 21st.

Indisposition of one of the band prevented a Thomas name peal attempt at Beddington on St. Thomas' Day, December 21st. With the help of a Frederick, however, a peal was successfully rung, and the remainder of the band wish to thank him for the interest he took in the effort as planned but not accomplished.

There is no change in the condition of Mr.
Rupert Richardson from last week's bulletin.

More Yorkshire news. Mr. E. D. Tune, of Hemingbrough, writes commending St.
Clement's Minor for service touches in six-bell towers. Two 720's—one with 22 bobs and 38 singles and the other with 30 bobs and 30 singles—were rung last month by the Misses E. W. and E. B. Tune, Messrs. E. D., T. W. and J. J. Tune and Mr. F. Terry. Tune and method combined!

Another progress report from Whiston, near Rotherham, Yorks. Since our last report in our issue of December 13th the following local ringers have rung their first 720 from treble: George Preston (14), Bryan Thomas (15), Tony Willis (16), Jack Curwin (13), Malcolm Head (15). George Preston, Philip Coote and Mr. T. Cutts have also rung their first 720's on a working bell. If all Yorkshire towers enjoyed the enthusiasm Mr. N. Chad-docks imparts, its reputation as champion county would be unassailed!

Forty-two Years on

HARLINGTON BELLS AUGMENTED.

History has repeated itself at Harlington, Middlesex. On December 21st, 1904, the Bishop of London, according to a brass tablet on the west wall, rededicated the six bells at SS. Peter and Paul's Church (although frost and fog prevented him from attending). Forty-two years later to the day the bells, retuned and augmented to eight, were dedicated by the Rector (the Rev. Hector W. Reindorp, M.A.).

The bells, previously a light and not too tuneful ring of six, with a tenor of about 7½ cwt., have now been immensely improved, and Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated on providing a really tuneful and well-running peal of eight. Of the two additional bells one is in memory of Harriett Georgia Eason, who for 51 years was a worker in the parish, 11 of which she was churchwarden. The other bell was a thankoffering to God for the victory given to our arms in the late war.

The Rector, in his address, said that Harlington Church had had its bells for over 500 years. In Henry VIII's reign a bell weighing over 900lb. was sent to John Fford, bellfounder, of London, to be recast and tuned with the other bells numbering four. But the churchwardens omitted to take a receipt from Fford, who immediately proceeded to melt the bell down, but died a few weeks after. His widow denied all responsibility, consequently the bell was never returned. The case was taken to the High Court of Chancery, from which our record is taken, but the outcome and verdict has been lost, as was the bell.

In 1779 Thomas Mears, now Mears and Stainbank, Whitechapel Bell Foundry, recast five bells and added one more, making six in all. In 1893 the tenor bell, weighing 7 cwt., which had become cracked, was recast.

The Harlington bellringers desired to add a chiming apparatus, and collected the necessary funds, and to erect a tablet to two of their ringers who fell in the last war, Lionel Leonard Beale and Cyril Arthur Winter. The chiming apparatus would not be heard that evening as some adjustments had to be made. Nor must that tablet recording the two names be taken as a parish memorial to those who fell in the late war; that would come after.

The Rector then dedicated the bells, after which he requested the captain of the bellringers, Mr. J. Nelhams to unveil the tablet, which the Rector then dedicated.

Following the dedicatory prayers, the following members of the Middlesex County Association rang a few rounds: E. C. S. Turner (treble), T. G. Bannister 2, J. F. Lewis Cocker 3, F. G. Baldwin 4, J. J. Pratt 5, C. Imfrey 6, W. H. Coles 7, J. A. Nelhams tenor. At the close of the service, the first touch, one of Stedman Triples, was called by Mr. J. J. Pratt, of St. John's, Hillingdon, who it is interesting to note was one of the band who opened the old six after restoration, 40 years previously almost to the day. Mr. T. J. Clark deputising for Mr. Nelhams. Further touches of Stedman and Kent Treble Bob were rung.

The whole of the local company have joined the Middlesex Association.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

MEETING AT HELLINGLY.

A meeting was held at Hellingly on December 28th, when ringers from Mayfield, Rotherfield, Wadhurst, Chiddingly, Eastbourne (St. Saviour's and Christ Church), Hailsham, Heathfield, Hastings, St. Albans (Mr. T. J. Southan) and the local tower attended. Carols were sung during the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. L. Shaw).

By kind invitation of the Vicar and the local ringers, a good tea was enjoyed. At the business meeting Hellingly was elected an affiliated tower. The next practice will be at Pevensey in January and the annual meeting at Eastbourne in February.

Valuable Addition to South Yorkshire

DEDICATION AT THRYBERGH.

On December 14th, the ring of six bells was dedicated at St. Leonard's Church, Thrybergh, near Rotherham. There were five bells previously. Of these the fourth is inscribed with the date 1586 and the tenor is believed to be much older, probably at least 500 years old. These two were retuned only and the original canons retained.

The remaining three of the old five, also very old, dated 1609, 1638 and 1687, have been recast. Their dates and inscriptions have been reproduced in facsimile and the year of recasting is recorded on each of them.

A new treble, given by an anonymous donor, has been added and the whole rehung on ball bearings in an iron frame, making a very handy and tuneful peal of six, tenor 8 cwt. 26 lb. in B flat. The work has been carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co. with the assistance of Messrs. Belden, Ltd., of Thrybergh.

The new treble was dedicated by the Lord Bishop of Sheffield (the Rt. Rev. L. S. Hunter) and the old five by Canon G. H. C. Bowen, Rector of Thrybergh from 1901 to 1944.

The opening touch was rung by the following members of the Yorkshire Association: Colin Harrison treble, W. Eric Critchley 2, Arthur Firth 3, John J. L. Gilbert 4, Sidney F. Palmer 5, Norman Chaddock tenor. Mr. Harrison, who was representing the bellfounders, kindly stood in at the last minute owing to the unexpected illness of one of the original band.

About 25 ringers were present from the surrounding district to test the 'go' and the tone of the bells. Criticisms were very favourable and this ring has made a fine addition to the towers of South Yorkshire.

Ringings continued during the afternoon and evening. The Rector very kindly provided a free tea, which was very much appreciated. To end the day a 720 of Bob Minor was rung by John H. Brothwell 1, Gordon Briggs 2, T. Colin Ryde 3, George Tuke 4, Tom Cutts 5, John J. L. Gilbert tenor, this being the first 720 of Minor on the bells.

ST. DAVID'S DIOCESAN GUILD

About 40 members attended the quarterly meeting of the Guild at the Parish Church, Llanelly, on December 14th. The bells were available from 2.30 p.m. and the service was conducted by the Rev. D. Reece (assistant curate), who deputised for the Vicar (the Rev. J. C. Jones). For the first time the Guild's form of service, which has been sanctioned by the Archbishop of Wales, was used. Members were afterwards entertained to tea at the Church Institute.

At the business meeting the Rev. D. Reece, who presided, gave the Guild a hearty welcome to Llanelly. An apology for absence was received from the treasurer, Mr. E. J. Thomas, of Carmarthen, owing to the illness of his wife.

Elections included seven life ringing members and nine members. In recognition of his services in the interest of campanology, life membership was conferred on Mr. William Robbings, of Llanelly. Ill-health has, unfortunately, compelled him to give up ringing for the time being, but everyone was pleased to see him at the meeting, and wishes for a speedy return to health were extended to him.

A very hearty welcome was extended to the visitors—Mr. E. Stith (Aberavon), Mr. and Mrs. F. Roderick (Porthcawl), Mr. Hannington and Mr. Wood (Wigan), also to Mr. A. Hoare (Swansea) and the Rev. S. Rees (Burry Port).

The next quarterly meeting will take place at Burry Port in March. A collection for the Bell Restoration Fund realised the sum of £1 12s. 6d. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the Rev. D. Reece and also to the ladies, who provided tea. Methods rung included London, Cambridge, Plain Bob, Grand-sire and rounds for the learners.

A New Oxford Eight

DEDDINGTON COMPLETES THE OCTAVE.

A large congregation, including about 100 members of the Oxford Guild, assembled in the 13th century SS. Peter and Paul's Parish Church at Deddington, Oxon, on December 14th, when the Lord Bishop of Oxford dedicated two new bells recently added to complete the ring of eight in the tower, which with its crown of vane topped pinnacles is a notable landmark for miles around.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. M. Frost), the Rev. B. R. Buchanan and the Rev. R. C. West reading the lessons. The Lord Bishop gave the address. After the impressive dedication the two new bells were rung by E. C. Pearson and L. J. Malings, and the whole eight were then heard for a few moments rung by the local band of Sunday service ringers. After the service a touch of Stedman Triples was rung by Miss M. Cross, Mr. A. E. Locke, Capt. A. R. P. Poyntz, Mr. W. Hibbert, Mr. R. White, the Rev. H. Benson and Mr. F. Sharpe, conducted by Miss S. Davis, of Reading.

The company were entertained to tea, the Lord Bishop being present. Dr. G. M. W. Hodges, Vicar's warden, expressed the gratitude and thanks of all present to the private generous donor of the new bells, to the Lord Bishop for his presence and to the Vicar for the tremendous amount of work he had done in connection with the day. He congratulated the bell founders (Messrs. Mears and Stainbank) and Messrs. R. White and Son, of Appleton, on the excellent tone and the hanging of the new bells.

Capt. A. R. P. Poyntz (Deputy Master of the Guild) also congratulated the Banbury and District Branch in getting two new bells, completing the octave in one more tower, and for the service that day. After tea the bells were put to good use in touches from rounds to Major to suit all ringers who had come to hear and try the now very nice ring of eight. Messrs. R. White and Son rehung the six in 1929, making them an oak frame to take eight.

A collection taken for the General Guild Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £8.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

Nearly 50 ringers attended the annual meeting of the North Dorset Branch of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild at Blandford on December 14th, the towers represented being Blandford, Sturminster Newton, Stalbridge, Okeford Fitzpaine, Shroton, Buckhorn Weston, Kington Magna, Lydlinch, Childe Okeford, Whitechurch, Buckland Newton, Hazelbury Bryan, Templecombe, Lytchett Matravers, Salisbury, Semley, Amesbury and Leighton.

At the Guild service the Rector of Blandford (Canon B. T. Rosson) preached. The business meeting followed tea. Reference was made to the deaths of Mr. J. Braddock, prominent Gillingham ringer, who had acted as a bell inspector for the Guild, and Mr. H. Woolridge, for many years captain and instructor of the Fontmell Magna team. The gathering stood in silence.

Officers re-elected were: Chairman, Dr. E. W. J. Hellins; vice-chairman, the Rev. F. L. Edwards; secretary and treasurer, the Rev. W. Uphill; Ringing Masters, Messrs. W. C. Shute, L. Perrett, E. Coward and E. T. P. Field; committee, Messrs. J. Ralph and B. Ridout.

It was arranged to hold the spring meeting at Motcombe, summer meeting at Hazelbury Bryan, autumn meeting at Shroton, and the winter meeting at Gillingham.

The following new members were elected: Ringing members, Mr. A. Bollen (Stalbridge), Mr. A. Rothwell (Gillingham), Miss M. Davidge, Miss L. Davidge, Miss A. Davidge and Miss R. Short (Sturminster Newton); hon. member, the Rev. R. M. Taylor (Shroton); non-resident life member, Miss D. Webb (Templecombe).

A grant of £2 2s. was made to the appeal for the bells of St. Thomas', Salisbury.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CAMPANOLOGISTS AND ABSENTEEISM

Dear Sir,—Someone once asked, 'What is a campanologist?' After a little thought I replied, 'It is a curious bird seen flying from a belfry as the later worshippers enter the church.'

It is nice to know Mr. R. A. Post is an exception to this rule and also nice to know he does not 'hide his light under a bushel.'

On reading the life of John Bunyan, I discovered he was a ringer, but when converted thought it very wicked to ring bells. So he gave it up, thinking an angry God would cause the tower to fall on him.

To my surprise, on reading his 'Pilgrim's Progress,' he writes in the last chapter about the pilgrims entering heaven. 'Then I heard in my dream that all the bells in the city rang again for joy.' I thought to myself, 'Well, John, you think it very wicked to ring bells on earth, but up yonder it is quite all right and you think we shall have plenty of bellringing in heaven.'

Some people love bells, some don't. One of the latter said to me one day, 'I hate the sound of bells.' I replied, 'You won't get to heaven, for John Bunyan says there will be a lot of bellringing in heaven.'

Though the bad old days of the leather bottle in the belfry have faded away and we still have all sorts and conditions of ringers, yet there is something that binds us all together, and on the whole I find them a lovable lot and desire they may all 'hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life.'—Yours faithfully,

J. MAURICE TURNER, President.
N.E. Devon Guild of Ringers.

TWO SYDNEY TOWERS REOPENED

Dear Sir,—During Christmas two of the Sydney towers have been put in order and opened again.

On Sunday, December 22nd, the bells of St. Jude's, Randwick, were opened, after being out of order since before the war. The bells are a ring of eight by Vickers, Ltd., and are cast steel with a tenor of 21 cwt. The tenor has been put on rollers and a price has been accepted to put the 5th, 6th and 7th on rollers also. I was taught to ring in St. Jude's tower and it was good to hear the old bells going again.

The other tower is Christ Church St. Laurence, George Street, City. These bells, a ring of six with a tenor of 13 cwt. by Taylors, have not been rung for 25 years. The same old story, the tower was not safe. A little pushing by the N.S.W. Association and great enthusiasm from a newly-formed Christ Church Society eventually persuaded the authorities to get an architect to inspect the tower, which he passed as safe for ringing! In fact, there was no reason for them ever to have stopped.

The Christ Church ringers then got to work and dismantled the existing clavier, and after 12 months' hard work have the bells swinging again. They were opened on Christmas Eve for the midnight service. The ringers taking part were as follows: J. Campigli (capt.), K. Miller, R. Jones, P. Davis and W. M. Rowe from Christ Church, J. B. Watts and D. McGrainger (Tarramurra), H. Short (St. Mary's), L. Orme from St. Paul's, Melbourne.

With the addition of these two towers we now have six towers with swinging bells in Sydney, three 8's and three 6's.—Yours, etc.,
W. ROWE.

'THE STRANGE GOD CAMPANOLOGY'

Dear Sir,—Mr. Post in his letter states that only 20 per cent. of ringers attend divine service. I presume he has come to his figures from his own area. When I was a resident at Over, Cambs, and a member of the Over St. Mary's Society, at the five principal festivals we rang the bells for 45 minutes before the 7 a.m. Holy Communion and sometimes we have met 12 and 12 have stopped and partaken in that service. Very often two ringers, several being sidesmen, took up the collection.

Here at St. Ives, Hunts, our local captain, Mr. L. Fisher, assists at the altar table and sometimes 100 per cent. of ringers stay for service.

For myself, I know I am not a saint, but I also know that if I really get down to real worship and say the 'General Confession' in the spirit of truth my sin or sins are forgiven when the priest pronounces the 'Absolution.'—Yours faithfully,

St. Ives, Hunts. F. WARRINGTON.

PROGRESS AT CARBIS BAY

A pleasing ceremony took place in the ringing chamber at Carbis Bay Church on Dec. 20th, when badges of membership of the Truro Diocesan Guild of Ringers were presented by Mr. W. Polsoe (churchwarden), who was accompanied by Mr. T. L. Roberts (secretary of Church Council) and Mr. R. C. Ivey, O.B.E., to Miss Marion Lidgey, Paul Roach, Tony Roach, Kenneth Nicholls, Roy Nicholls, John Peters, Gerald Peters and Clarence Peters.

Mr. Polsoe congratulated these young ringers on their progress, and said he was glad they were taking such a keen interest in ringing.

'Five minutes before it's time to ring in the New Year, let's have one of they little unofficial strikes'

PROGRESS IN CHANGE RINGING.

Ringers from Londonderry, Lurgan, Carrickfergus, Bangor, Holywood and St. Thomas', Belfast, met at Holywood on December 26th for the annual meeting of the Northern Branch. Mr. Fred E. Dukes, general secretary of the association, was also present.

The ringers service was conducted by the Rev. E. S. Barber, Holywood, president of the branch, who in his address spoke of the threefold aspect of bellringing, as a call to worship, an act of worship and an act of witness.

At the business meeting the president welcomed the ringers, especially the eight from Londonderry.

The report, presented by Mr. W. Webb (hon. secretary) showed that the membership was now 107 and that progress was being made in change ringing. During the year the Holywood team had the honour of ringing a full peal of Grandsire Triples, the first to be rung in Ireland since before the war, and the sixth for the Northern Branch. Mention was also made of the fact that several of the peals in Northern Ireland had been included in B.B.C. programmes and this recognition of bellringing by the B.B.C. was welcomed by the members.

The bells of Hillsborough Church are now unringable and a fund has been established to raise sufficient money to have them rehung. The bells of St. Patrick's, Coleraine, are to be rehung on ball bearings as soon as conditions permit.

The rules of the branch were revised, and a copy of these is to be incorporated in a new form of membership card.

After tea the ringers went to the tower, where touches of Grandsire and Plain Bob were rung. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Londonderry.

RECORD PEAL TABLET UNVEILED

The Dean of Christ Church, Oxford, visited the Cathedral belfry on December 23rd, and in the presence of the Mayor and Mayoress of Oxford and a large company of Oxford ringers, unveiled a tablet commemorating the record peal of Stedman Cinques rung there on August 24th last.

The Mayor spoke of his amazement that ringers could carry on ringing for so long and congratulated the conductor (Mr. W. F. Judge) and three of the Oxford Cathedral band who were also in the peal, Messrs. V. J. F. Bennett, F. A. H. Wilkins and R. A. Post.

The tablet is a slate one, 2ft. 8in. by 2ft., with incised lettering silver painted, and is the work of Mr. Albert E. Lock, secretary of the North Berks Branch of the Oxford Guild, and forms a fitting and worthy record of an historical performance.

Some photographs have been taken of the tablet, and it is hoped to have these in due course. It is also hoped to get the band together some time in the summer of 1947 for a commemorative touch and to enable a photograph to be taken.

OXFORD RINGERS ENTERTAINED

A very pleasant incident took place in Magdalen College on New Year's Eve, when ten members of the Oxford Society rang a quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters, 1,259 changes, in 50 minutes, as a farewell touch to Sir Henry Tizard, who was vacating the presidency of Magdalen that day to become chairman of the Scientific Research Defence Committee.

The ringing was greatly appreciated by Sir Henry, who invited the ringers to dinner, which took place in the Senior Common Room. Small items of the college plate were placed at their disposal for the liquid refreshment, and a liberal supply of college ale was available and partaken of with much relish.

After spending a very pleasant hour, the ringers adjourned to ring out the old year. The ringers were: E. Moore 1, Miss M. Cross 2, V. Bennett 3, J. Higgins 4, P. Walker 5, C. Coles 6, G. Cross 7, N. Allnatt 8, W. F. Judge (conductor) 9, F. A. H. Wilkins 10.

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES BURGE.

With regret we announce the loss to the Taunton Deanery Branch of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association of its oldest member, Mr. James Burge, who died on December 20th in his 90th year. He was one of the foundation members of the association and had been for many years an hon. life member. He was conductor of St. Mary Magdalene's ringers for 40 years (1896-1936) and during that time did a good deal of instruction in rope handling and the first stages of change ringing. Among his pupils were Mr. A. Walker, of Birmingham, and the late Mr. J. Hunt, of Guildford and Taunton, both of whom rang their first peals with him at St. Mary's. For many years he was never absent from his post and was always punctual in attendance at both services and practice.

He conducted a few peals of Triples and Caters, and when St. Mary's bells were increased to 12 in 1922 he had hoped to call a peal of Stedman Cinques. Owing to a serious internal operation and advancing years, this was denied him, and he finally retired in 1937. The funeral service was held in St. Mary's Church on December 27th, the Vicar (Preb. Heaton-Renshaw) officiating, assisted by the Rev. C. Chitty. As the cortege left the church for the cemetery the bells were rung half-muffled by a band representing the three Taunton towers. Muffled ringing also took place later in the evening. S.P.M.

HAMPSHIRE AND SUSSEX RINGERS AT WESTBOURNE

A joint meeting of the Portsmouth District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild and the Western Division of the Sussex County Association was held at Westbourne, Sussex, on December 14th. Forty ringers attended from Angmering, Arundel, Chichester Cathedral, Fareham, Felpham, Heane, Henfield, Liss, Portsmouth Cathedral, Portsea, Storrington, Tarring, Titchfield, Westbourne, West Grinstead, and visitors from Ewell, Hull, Spalding and Stockbridge.

The Vicar (the Rev. M. T. Dodds) conducted the Sussex Association's form of service and joined the company at tea. At the Sussex County Association's (Western Division) business meeting ringers from Angmering (9) and Arundel (3)—where it is anticipated the ring of eight will be restored during 1947—were elected members; Miss Patricia Smee, Ewell, elected non-resident member, and the election before peals of W. H. Inwood, Guildford, and L. Cheeseman, Banstead, ratified.

Thanks were accorded the Vicar for the use of the bells and for conducting the service, and among other expressions in thankful vein the meeting passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Frederick W. Burnett for his assistance to Sussex ringers on numerous occasions. The following towers were suggested for forthcoming meetings: Storrington, January 18th; Wisborough Green, February 15th; Chichester Cathedral, March 15th (annual meeting).

Methods ranged to Superlative and Cambridge Surprise during the afternoon and evening.

MR. ERNEST MORRIS LECTURES IN ESSEX

Ringers of Woodford and district, Essex, were the guests of the Woodford and District Historical Society on December 16th, when Mr. Ernest Morris, F.R.Hist.S., of Leicester, gave an illustrated lecture on 'Bells of all nations—their history and romance.'

The chair was taken by Mr. George Black, a keen local ringer and a very active member of the society. He introduced Mr. Morris as an outstanding ringer, writer and lecturer, and expressed the great pleasure he had derived from the reading of the lecturer's famous book, 'The History and Art of Change Ringing,' a work that now finds a place in most public libraries and many ringers' homes and church towers.

MIDLAND COUNTIES GUILD MEETING AT TUTBURY.

Upwards of 30 members and friends attended the pleasant meeting held at the old Priory Church, Tutbury, on December 21st. Towers in the Guild represented were Burton (St. Paul's and St. Modwen's), Ashby, Measham, Repton, Overseal, Ticknall, together with visitors from Wolverhampton, Derby (Cathedral and St. Luke's) and Lichfield.

The Vicar (the Rev. N. Edwards) welcomed the members and conducted the Guild service, giving the history of Tutbury bells for the address. In this he spoke of the three bells and one handbell in the tower at the time of the 'Monks' and of the old custom of ringing the curfew and sanctus bell which still continues at Tutbury.

Tea was served in the schoolroom, after which the informal meeting was held, Mr. B. G. Key being in the chair. Four new members, Noreen Brain, Doreen Roden, Allan Foster and L. Chamberlain, of Burton St. Paul's, were elected.

It was resolved to adopt the 1947 meeting card suggested by the committee, and arrangements will be made for the next meeting to be held at Newhall on February 8th.

Thanks were accorded to the Vicar for use of the bells, etc., to the organist and the ladies who kindly provided the cups of tea, and the meeting closed with the chairman extending seasonable greetings to all present.

Methods rung included Cambridge Minor, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Plain Bob, Grandsire and Stedman Doubles.

RUPERT RICHARDSON

This week the Exercise remembers with gratitude the life of Rupert Richardson, of Surfleet, who completed his work on this earth on Sunday morning. There are hundreds of ringers, apart from his kith and kin and those living in the daffodil village of Surfleet, who will thank God for the example of his life. His friends knew that the call could be expected any day, and Rupert also knew. A big man with a big heart is how Rupert will be remembered. His friendship was as firm as a rock and was extended with that open-hearted sincerity and generosity to all who would grasp it. He loved his fellow-men for the good in them; he apprised goodness as some people might cattle, and that was what made him one of nature's gentlemen.

The little Lincolnshire village of Surfleet has for 50 years or more been a name known throughout the Exercise. Its Vicar was the Rev. H. Law James, and during his incumbency Surfleet bells were augmented to 12, the village having the lightest ring of 12 in the country. His churchwarden for many years was Rupert Richardson, who upon his death succeeded him in the Mastership of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild. Rupert regarded his Mastership as a sacred trust; he travelled the county and was familiar with every tower and every band of ringers. For his association he rang 514 peals, the last being at Spalding on September 26th. The only eight-bell tower in the county in which he had not rung a peal was Burgh-le-Marsh, and he had hopes of selecting a band to ring there.

Rupert did not confine his work for the Exercise to his own Guild. He was a familiar figure at meetings of the Central Council, where it frequently fell to his lot to smooth out difficulties. Ringers invariably turned to him when faced with perplexities, and he brought to bear that shrewdness of worldly affairs coupled with a comprehension of ringing problems. He and his wife and daughter were members of the party that toured Australia. British ringing could have had no better representative, not only as a ringer, but in matters of bell hanging he had that knowledge capable of improvising in unexpected emergencies.

'The Ringing World' had in Rupert Richardson a very sincere friend. He realised the importance of the journal to the Exercise, and was ever ready with practical advice to help forward its great work in cementing together ringers into one great brotherhood. The founder-editor,

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, was held by Rupert with very great affection, and upon his death he was one of the small body who negotiated for this journal to pass out of private ownership into the hands of the Central Council. On Thursday afternoon his friends from far and wide gathered at Surfleet to pay homage to one who gave so freely of his time and energies for the advancement of change ringing. To his widow and daughter, on behalf of the Exercise, we extend our deepest sympathy.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

A new handbell record has been established by that versatile Lincolnshire trio, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray and Mr. George E. Feirn. They have rung a peal of Minor in 53 methods, involving 129 changes of method. Full details in due course.

Oxford University Society are planning a big programme for the 75th anniversary of their foundation. Celebrations will take place on February 1st and will include a service in St. Mary's and a dinner.

Deddington bells, writes Mr. G. Noice, of Winchester, are not the only bells to be inscribed with a ringer's name. The tenth bell at Winchester Cathedral bears the inscription, 'W. Andrews, captain.'

The name of the 4th ringer in the peal of Little Bob Major at Measham on Wednesday, December 4th, was E. W. Beadsmoore and not William H. Beadsmoore.

It was very fitting that with the handbell peal at Leicester on the last day of the old year, Mr. Ernest Morris rang his 50th peal for the Guild, in the Guild's first year.

Alford and Mablethorpe ringers on a proselytising mission in the art of change ringing visited Legbourne on January 4th. These five very fine toned bells were installed by Messrs. John Taylor and Co. 50 years ago and the present ropes are stated to be the original ones fitted to the bells. This could well be believed as the sallies were in an advanced state of baldness and the rope ends appear to have been renewed from time to time with rope in similar thickness to that used by wagons. As a result of the visit there is a prospect of new ropes.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Dr. John E. Spice has called another first in a method. On Dec. 28th the first peal of Glasgow Surprise Major was rung for the Kent County Association at Frindsbury, Kent. It was a profitable vacation with peals of Superlative at Sittingbourne, Cambridge at Melton and Double Norwich at Gravesend, besides a Stedman Caters in hand.

At Minster, Sheppey, Kent, there is a young hand with an average age of 16½ who on Christmas Day rang 1,260 Grandsire Doubles. They were J. G. Rooke 1, E. Benyon 2, J. M. Watson (first quarter inside) 3, P. C. W. Neal 4, S. M. Evans (conductor) 5, B. S. McArthur (first quarter) 6. And now for the peal!

The regular Sunday ringers at SS. Peter and Mary's, Stowmarket, rang the peal of Bob Major recorded in January 3rd issue.

Mr. Lionel H. Pink informs us that the peal of Minor in three methods on November 30th was rung at Lytchett Minster and not Lytchett Matravers as published.

Will conductors please arrange for only one report of a peal to be sent in? If a peal does not appear and a second copy is forwarded, please mark it 'duplicate.' We regret two duplications recently. Christmas and New Year ringing has been prolific. Apart from those in this issue, there are another 54 peals to be published. As soon as paper arrives we will publish a 16 page issue.

A surprise awaited Mr. R. A. Reed while a patient in the Royal Hants County Hospital, Winchester, by the visit of Mr. George Noice, of the Winchester Cathedral band, and his daughter to give a handbell display. Mr. Reed was able to participate in a course of Doubles. Although Mr. Noice has given this entertainment regularly every year, this is the first time he has met another ringer able to participate in change ringing with him.

UNIVERSITIES' ASSOCIATION RE-UNION

BISHOP OF LONDON AND THE CHURCH'S TASK.....YOUNG RINGERS AND HOLY ORDERS.....DR. SPICE
RESIGNS SECRETARYSHIP ..... THIRTY-SIX NEW MEMBERS

The third annual dinner of the Universities' Association was held in London on January 1st. During the day there was ringing at St. Mary's, Battersea. St. Mary Abbot's, St. Stephen's, Westminster. St. Mary's, Lambeth, and St. Gabriel's, Pimlico; one novelty was a course of spliced Double Norwich and Bristol (a production of the fertile brain of Mr. B. D. Price) at St. Stephen's, Westminster.

The service was held at St. Gabriel's, Pimlico, when the preacher was the Bishop of London (Dr. J. W. C. Wand).

The Bishop, in his address, said: In these days of trials and anxieties a great opportunity lies before the Church of God, and signs are not wanting that the mass of the people may be readier than is sometimes thought for a return to Christianity. It is, therefore, your duty, as church workers, to look forward to the Church's task, and to see how best to forward it. I am going to suggest three ways by which such an approach can be made.

The first of these is by way of conduct and morals. It is widely recognised that society as we know it is in danger of a break-up, and that we are perilously near to sliding into a state of neo-paganism. But men and women are beginning to see that whereas man cannot work out his own salvation God can and will help him, and that the way back to stable homes and a stable society can only come through Christianity.

Thus, during my recent visit to Germany, members of the Forces frequently asked me just what demands are made on the individual by Christianity. In the past it has often been said that doctrine and dogma were unnecessary adjuncts to the Gospel message; but whenever doctrine and dogma have been dispensed with, then has Christianity tended to degenerate into a rather vague ethical system, and its force has been greatly weakened. So it is necessary for all professing Christians to be able to show just what the acceptance of Christian doctrine implies in our daily life—and this task can be best approached by pointing out the collapse of moral standards.

Christianity must secondly be approached through faith. The truths of Christianity are unchanging, but these doctrines need to be explained afresh to each generation, that their significance may always be apprehended. There are thousands upon thousands of people in this country to-day who simply do not understand the language of religious truth or the liturgical tradition of the English Church. For instance, when I was the Dean of an Oxford college, I was rather proud of a simplified yet beautiful service which we used to hold in the chapel on Sunday evenings. One day I was pleased to see at the service an American Rhodes Scholar. Next morning I asked him what he thought of it (he was a Christian Scientist) and received the reply that he had thought it was 'just a joke.' There are and will be tensions between the demand from those outside the Church for simpler services 'which everyone can understand' and the demand from those inside for richer and more beautiful services. For these reasons we must have a body of people who can translate Christian doctrines and ideas into everyday language.

The third line of approach to Christianity is through worship. Christianity is life itself, and its highest expression is in the adoration of God, our maker and redeemer—that is to say, in worship. The greatest popular heresy in England to-day is that Christianity is a sentiment; 99 per cent. of the people of this land are nominally Christian, but only a very small proportion observe the obligations of Christianity. On the contrary, Christianity is the life of Christ imbedded in the life of every member of the Church, which is the body of Christ. Christianity is intensely practical, as witness the importance given to the body in the marriage service. It is, therefore, essential to bring the people back to church. Once again we must be practical, and here I would urge the general acceptance of a bedrock rule such as the Archbishop of York has recently recommended—that all members of the Church should join in public worship at least once every Sunday. Such a rule should appeal especially to you, as you must feel particularly hurt when your invitation to come and worship is ignored.

A collection was taken for the Bishop of London's Reconstruction Fund.

THE DINNER.

Some 70 members and guests sat down to dinner at the Shakespeare Hotel. The visitors included the Lord Bishop, the Rev. H. E. Farrington (Vicar of St. Gabriel's) and Messrs. A. A. Hughes, G. H. Cross, C. W. Roberts, P. A. Corby and C. M. Meyer. After the loyal toast, a course of Double Norwich on handbells was rung in fine style by two members of the Oxford University Society and two members of the Cambridge University Guild.

The President (Mr. E. H. Lewis), in welcoming the visitors, spoke of the functions of the Universities' Association. It had proved, he said, and was proving, most useful in the training of missionaries for ringing who would go out from the universities and carry with them to all parts of the country the love of change ringing, and who from their university training could be expected to be well qualified in the teaching of the Exercise.

The secretary, Dr. J. E. Spice, proposed the toast of 'The Universities' Association,' first reading an apology for absence from Rev. A. C. G. Thurlow and a letter from Rev. M. Melville. He reviewed the year's activities and then the progress of the association since its formation. Last year's ringing week had seen two innovations which he hoped would become institutions—namely, the holding during the week of a Corporate Communion and of an informal concert. The time had now come for him to resign the secretaryship, but he had no doubt that the association would go on from strength to strength.

Miss Cross proposed a toast to 'The Ringing Visitors.' She stressed the fact that the main work of the Universities' Association was in teaching and, more important, in teaching how to teach, and she thanked the visitors and the various ringing organisations they represented for all they had done and were doing to help the association in various ways.

Mr. A. A. Hughes responded. He said that it was a pleasure for those ringers in London to do all they could to help. The Universities' Association was doing some very good work and the Exercise would reap the benefit in the years to come.

Mr. F. E. Haynes, in proposing the toast to 'The Clergy,' spoke of the happy memories he had of his early associations with the clergy of the Cambridge University Guild. He was sorry so few young ringers were now entering the Church—only 20 per cent. of the C.U.G. were now in orders. The great thing was to increase the numbers of ringing clergy. He congratulated the secretary on his engagement and announced the engagement of two well-known members of the U.A.C.R.—Mr. C. W. Woolley and Miss M. D. Telford.

Dr. Wand replied. He thought it was hard luck to have to work overtime like this, but he had greatly enjoyed the dinner and appreciated the pains Mr. Haynes had taken to draw the moral from his sermon. He now saw that his life had been largely wasted, for when he was at Oxford he did not take up ringing. Had he known that there were lady ringers (was that why the association seemed so flourishing?) he might have done so. But it was a great pleasure to him now to meet so many ringers.

THIRTY-SIX NEW MEMBERS.

During the general meeting which followed, the secretary reported on the favourable financial position—there was a balance in hand of £12 2s. 9d.—and the election of 36 new members was confirmed. The secretary then explained that for various reasons he had decided that it was time for him to resign office. The committee recommended that Dr. E. S. J. Hatcher be appointed as the new secretary, and this was unanimously agreed.

The President paid tribute to the late secretary's work. He had been doubtful at first about the wisdom of forming the U.A.C.R., but now he knew that it had been a good thing, and the fine work done had been largely due to Dr. Spice's efforts. The Rev. C. E. Wigg said that the late secretary's organising powers seemed to him incredible and that his amazement was always growing. He was especially grateful for the work he had done at Oxford. Dr. Spice, in expressing his thanks for these tributes, said that he had enjoyed the work and that he wished Dr. Hatcher every success.

A BOXING DAY TOUR IN THE NORTH-EAST

Ringers from Newcastle-on-Tyne and Thornaby-on-Tees joined forces for a busman's holiday on Teeside during Boxing Day. The rendezvous was the Church of St. Thomas, Stockton, and the bells were raised soon after 10.30 a.m. Stockton bells, a ring of ten with tenor 27½ cwt., have not been rung regularly for many years, and with the inevitable result of neglect have fallen into poor state of repair. Several adjustments, including the freeing of two ropes from the clock works, had to be made before the bells could be raised, but after some valiant efforts touches of Grandsire Triples, Plain Bob and Kent Treble Bob Major were rung.

The next call was Thornaby Parish Church, about one mile from Stockton on the south side of the River Tees. Here is a pretty little eight, tenor 11 cwt., by Llewellyn and James, and several good touches were brought round before adjourning to headquarters for the day—chez Addison. A truly sumptuous Christmas repast awaited the party here, but instead of being allowed to sit back and 'sleep it off,' the energetic host paraded the party for the journey to Middlesbrough.

St. Hilda's, Middlesbrough, was for many years one of the mainstays of the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association, but like many other towers it is undergoing a period of lean years. On entering this belfry it was found that there was no lighting in the ringing room, but with the Vicar's kind assistance two candles came to the rescue and ringing on this eight, tenor 12 cwt., was enjoyed by candle-light—a novel feature, with the ropes flashing grotesque shadows on the white walls.

A return was then made to Thornaby and more ringing enjoyed there until retiring to H.Q. for further festivities and handbell ringing. A very enjoyable day concluded with votes of thanks to the host-cum-organiser and hostess, and the 'Geordie' contingent departing on the long trek back home. K.A.

HONTON CLYST, DEVON.—On Dec. 8th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: E. R. Retter 1. Miss Q. Pring 2. G. E. Retter (conductor) 3. E. E. Retter 4. J. Salway 5. G. Richards 6.

A PROGRESSIVE FIRST YEAR.

Representatives from Barnby Don, Carlton, Doncaster, Eastrington, Escrick, Goole, Hemmingbrough, Howden, Hull, Sherburn-in-Elmet, Thorne, together with visitors from West Hartlepool, gathered at Selby on January 4th for the first annual meeting of the society. Unfortunately a broken stay at the start of ringing prevented full use being made of the fine peal of ten bells, but a good company made the best of the back eight.

A short service was held in the Abbey, conducted by the Vicar of Selby (the Rev. F. Read).

Following tea in the Hawdon Institute came the business meeting, with the Rev. F. Read in the chair. He extended a warm welcome to the members with a special greeting to the ladies, whose increasing numbers he described as a sign of the times.

The secretary in his report claimed that the society had had a successful first year. He thought that the clergy could do a little more towards encouraging young people to come forward and take up the art of change ringing. The treasurer's report showed a satisfactory balance in hand.

Future meetings are to be held on the third Saturday in each month during the coming year instead of the first Saturday. A rota of meetings for 1947 was approved. The possibility of an annual outing was discussed and referred to the committee for arrangements.

The society is taking a great interest in the new ring of six bells at Carlton and the proposed new ring at Brayton. Collections are to be taken at each meeting during 1947 and divided between the two appeals.

A set of rules for the management of the society was approved by the meeting.

The following officers were elected: President, the Vicar of Selby; vice-presidents, the incumbents at each tower visited by the society; chairman, Mr. H. Morley; Ringing Master, Mr. F. Terry; secretary and treasurer, Mr. T. H. Foster; committee, chairman, Ringing Master, secretary, treasurer, together with Messrs. J. Taylor and E. Bradley.

The Rev. E. Lawson Brewis, Vicar of Carlton, thanked the members for electing him vice-president and gave a short account of the progress of the Carlton ring which was now installed. Thanks were accorded the Vicar of Selby for permission to hold the meeting and for the service.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

An enjoyable time was spent by the Southern District of the Surrey Association at their meeting at Godstone on December 14th. Ringers were present from Burstow, Croydon, Horley, Limsfield Chart, Redhill and Reigate, together with the local company. The bells were available from 3 p.m. and everyone was able to take part in the ringing.

The Rector (the Rev. G. H. P. Karney) welcomed the visitors and conducted evensong, giving an interesting address.

Following tea the business meeting was held, presided over by the Master of the Surrey Association (Mr. D. Cooper). Interesting discussions on ringing matters took place, and it was agreed that by-monthly meetings be held in future to maintain and further the interest in change ringing. Six new members were elected. Subject to arrangements being possible, it was decided to hold the annual district meeting of the association at Belchworth early in February.

The thanks of all present were expressed by the hon. secretary (Mr. A. Gear) to the Rector for allowing the use of the bells and for conducting the service; also to Miss Barbara Meyers for making the arrangements for tea and meeting. The Rector expressed his pleasure at having the association meeting at Godstone, and assured them of a welcome whenever they could come.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

MEETING AT THORINGTON.

The musical ring of six at Thorington only attracted 22 members for the annual meeting of the North-Eastern Division of the Essex Association on January 4th. Towers represented were Clacton-on-Sea, Little Clacton, Chesterfield, Colchester, Harwich, Kirby-le-Soken, Mistley, Thorpe, Shimpling, Wormingford and Thorington.

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. H. Wilcox) with members of the Thorington choir present, and an interesting address was given by Mr. T. B. Millatt (lay reader), who narrated the history of the local bells from 1450 to present times, and especially mentioned the part played by Mr. G. A. Andrews and family in developing and maintaining interest in ringing.

Cups of tea were provided by wives of local ringers in the Church Hall, and at the business meeting the Master (Mr. C. J. Ellis) asked members to stand in silence in memory of Mr. F. L. Bumpstead, who was for many years steeplekeeper at St. Peter's, Colchester.

After the retiring Master had been re-elected the meeting received with deep regret the resignation of Mr. L. Wright as hon. district secretary. The Master spoke in appreciative terms of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Wright during the difficult war years, and the thanks of the district to them were recorded on the minutes. Mr. H. J. Millatt was elected district secretary, and Mr. G. Waterman and Mr. A. Andrews to the committee. Mr. A. E. Honeywood (Mistley) and Mrs. G. Button (Thorington) were elected ringing members. The next meeting will be held at Wormingford in the spring.

Some discussion followed on proposals to increase annual subscriptions to 2s. 6d., and members expressed their readiness to do this so as to keep the association on a sound footing. Finally the Master proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector and Mr. T. Millatt, the choir and organist, which was heartily carried. A return was then made to the belfry, where the bells were kept going in many methods from Bob Doubles to Cambridge.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild

DEVIZES BRANCH AT WESTBURY.

The annual meeting of Devizes Branch was held on January 4th at the Church of All Saints, Westbury, attended by 55 ringers representing the towers of Bratton, Bishops Cannings, Hoit, Keevil, Longbridge Deverell, Meckham, North Bradley, Southbroom, Devizes, Steeple Ashton, Trowbridge, Warminster and Westbury, with visitors from Amesbury, Bath, Bristol, Corsham, Clevedon, Deddington (Oxon), Kington Magna, Long Ashton, Peterborough, Reading and Salisbury.

The fine ring of bells (tenor 35 cwt.) was raised for ringing at 3 p.m., and methods rung during the afternoon and evening ranged from rounds to Cambridge Surprise Major. The Guild service was conducted by the Vicar, followed by tea at the Lopes Arms Hotel.

Mr. E. F. White, the branch chairman, presided over the business meeting, when officers elected were: Mr. White (chairman), Mr. A. T. Weeks (vice-chairman), Mr. W. C. West (secretary), Mr. Harold Smith (assistant secretary), Mr. P. Harding and Mr. E. Parker (Ringing Masters).

The Rev. F. Ll. Edwards said how pleased he was to attend this meeting and to see so many young ringers present.

DERBY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION A YEAR OF PROGRESS.

The last meeting of the year was held at Ripley on December 28th, when the attendance was below the average. A good range of methods was practised, including Bob Major, Grand sire and Stedman Triples, Double Norwich, Duffield, Spiced Treble Bob, Little Bob and Cambridge Surprise. The next district meeting was arranged for St. Andrew's, Derby, on January 25th, but ringers were reminded of the quarterly meeting to be held at St. Peter's on January 11th.

A good discussion developed on the best way to cater for learners at district meetings; the general opinion was that the present method was the best, viz., the ringing of an advanced method, and then a simple method, as this gave general satisfaction.

The secretary (Mr. W. Lancaster) gave a short resume of the year's activities, stating that 15 meetings had been held with an average attendance of 35. Twelve new hon. members and 17 new ringing members had been elected.

Ringing continued until 7.30 when the bells were lowered excellently in peal to everyone's satisfaction.—W.L.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN. CHELTENHAM BRANCH ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Cheltenham Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association was held at St. Mary's, Cheltenham, on January 4th. Tea was provided by invitation of the Parish Church ringers and there were several distinguished visitors present, including the Mayor of Cheltenham, the Rector, Mr. Ride (churchwarden) and 50 ringers from Cheltenham (St. Mary's and St. Mark's), Leckhampton, Charlton Kings, Prestbury, Bishop's Cleeve, Badgeworth, Alderton, Swindon Village, Gloucester, Hempstead, Norton, Stonehouse, Swindon, Hinton-on-the-Green, Southampton, Upton-on-Severn and Churchdown.

The business meeting followed, the Rev. D. R. Griffiths, curate, being in the chair. Mr. W. Dyer, St. Mary's, was re-elected chairman. Mr. S. Taylor not being able, through business reasons, to continue as secretary, Mr. Charles Rouse was appointed on the proposition of Mr. C. Aston. Mr. G. Simmons was re-elected as representative on the Management Committee. Members heard with regret of the death on the previous day of Mr. J. Causon, of Charlton Kings.

There were so many present that Mr. Dyer, chairman of the branch and captain of the tower, was unable to get hold of a rope.

The service at St. Mary's was conducted by the Rector, Canon Goodliffe.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WESTMINSTER ABBEY RINGING

Sir,—Would it not be possible for some influential member of the band to suggest to the Dean of Westminster that the time has come for the reopening of Westminster Abbey belfry to visiting ringers? I have to-day been standing outside the Abbey listening to some very well-struck Stedman Triples being rung on 1-3-4-5-6-7-8 with the tenor turned in and the 2nd omitted, presumably because the band was one short.

The ringing at the Abbey always has been and should continue to be of a very high standard, and it seems a pity that on one of the greatest feasts of the Church's year, Epiphany, the full ring of eight could not be rung.

There must be other ringers who, like myself, work within a few hundred yards of the tower and who would be honoured to be able to help with the ringing there, but are denied entrance to the belfry. After all, the original accident which caused the ban on visiting ringers—the breaking of the tenor stay by a visitor—was something which might have happened to anyone, and surely does not in these difficult days justify continuance of the ban.—Yours faithfully,
PETER N. BOND.

18, Orchard Road, Riverhead, near Sevenoaks.

AUSTRALIA'S WELCOME

Dear Sir,—On receipt this week of 'The Ringing World' dated November 8th, I was very interested in the letter from Mr. Trotman in regard to the likelihood of ringers coming to Australia.

If any of the associations in England who have ringers in this contingent write to me I can assure them that their members will be most cordially welcomed. As far as Sydney towers are concerned, new ringers with an expert knowledge of conducting and ringing in seven and eight bell methods would be of inestimable value in teaching our ringers the finer points of change ringing.

We have six towers in Sydney, and if we were fortunate enough to get a dozen or so ringers of experience it would improve our ringing considerably.

Trusting that any intending immigrants will either write to me or their associations.—Yours faithfully,
W. ROWE, Hon. Sec.,
N.S.W. Association of Change Ringers.

CHRISTMAS BROADCASTS

Dear Sir,—Re the above from East Hagbourne, the broadcast was a feature programme called 'Country Carol,' lasting 14½ minutes made up as follows: The bells, carols, a message from the Vicar, carols with the bells fading out. It was a recording made on Sunday, December 22nd, especially for overseas broadcast on Christmas Eve, on 16, 19 and 25 metres. As we were not informed of the wave-lengths till Saturday, December 21st, there was not time to send them to 'The Ringing World.'—Yours faithfully,
E.R.R.
East Hagbourne, Berks.

THE LATE MR. C. R. WALKER

At the last meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers a sub-committee was appointed to go into the question of erecting a memorial to the late Mr. C. R. Walker, of Newton Abbot. The committee now recommend that a memorial tablet be erected in one of the churches in the neighbourhood, subject to the consent of the Parochial Church Council.

The committee also resolved that an appeal for funds be launched forthwith, and any donations which any friends of the late Mr. Walker may wish to make will be gratefully received by the branch secretary, Mr. A. L. Bennett, of Cornerways, Buckfastleigh, and acknowledged through 'The Ringing World.'

CHRISTMAS EVE RINGING

Dear Sir,—Re Nomad's letter, 'Salute the Happy Morn,' I think my brother and I equalled his exploit. Leaving Wickford by bus in a dense fog on Christmas Eve at 9.15 p.m., we arrived at Prittlewell Church and rang from 10.30 p.m. till midnight, preceding the midnight service.

Owing to bad travelling conditions, the car which should have conveyed us home failed to arrive. We had no alternative but to walk the 12 miles home. Leaving Prittlewell Church at 12.10 a.m., we plodded on with heavy hearts and sagging knees.

After completing about 10 miles of the journey, my brother cracked a joke. He told me he did not go out for the ringing, but just for the walk! On reaching my brother's residence, he invited me to step inside and partake of liquid refreshment. This was the opportunity I had been waiting for, and I was quick to inform him that I did not come out for a drink, but just to stretch my legs. I continued on my weary way for another mile, reaching home at 3.49 a.m. and retired to bed at 4.15 a.m.—Yours faithfully,
W. S. MAY.

Wickford, Essex.
[Note.—A letter confirming this walk has been received from Mr. Frank B. Lufkin.—Editor.]

SALUTE THE HAPPY MORN!

Dear Sir,—In reply to 'Nomad,' on Whit Sunday, 1938, when Sandhurst bells were being rehung, I arose at 4.30 a.m., cycled into Wokingham (5½ miles) and rang for the 6 o'clock service, then rode on to Finchampstead, arriving in time to ring for the 7 a.m. service, then returned to Sandhurst and attended the 8 o'clock celebration at St. Michael's. Last Easter I cycled to Yateley (two miles), rang for the 6 a.m. service and then returned to Sandhurst and rang for 7 a.m. service, also matins and evensong.—Yours faithfully, Sandhurst, Berks.
W. J. PARKER.

BISHOP OF LONDON'S MESSAGE

Dear Sir,—I have been following with interest the recent correspondence about ringers and churchgoing, and I am sure that there is much truth in the contentions of Mr. Post and Miss Bedford, to name only two of your correspondents. It seems to me that the sermon preached to the Universities' Association on New Year's Day by the Bishop of London was very relevant to the present discussion. May I, therefore, crave your indulgence by asking you to print a report of this sermon? It is somewhat unusual matter for 'The Ringing World,' but I am convinced that all ringers would do well to take its contents to heart.—Yours sincerely, JOHN E. SPICE.

33, Hartington Road, Liverpool, 8.

A WARNING

Dear Sir,—Once again some despicable creature is trying to trade on the brotherhood and spirit of generosity existing among ringers. Recently an elderly man, who claimed to be William Green, a ringer from Leominster, called on several ringers in Coventry, told a plausible story about being stranded without money to get home, after visiting a son in hospital at Newark, and only wanted to borrow 14s. odd to pay his fare.

After making an appointment to meet him later at the railway station, I checked up on one of his statements and found it to be false, so I was therefore not surprised that he did not keep the appointment. As far as I know at present, I am pleased to say that the caller was no more successful with any of his other visits in this district, but it might easily have been otherwise. Hence this warning to all those who read 'The Ringing World.'—Yours faithfully,
FRANK W. PERRENS.

45, Engleton Road, Coventry.

THE CHURCH'S PENNY

Last year the Church paid the writer one penny for every occasion he rang for a service, and in consequence in the eyes of those who regard ringing as a sport he lost his amateur status. Probably most Sunday service ringers come within the same category. 'Don't ring like an amateur' is a saying frequently addressed to young ringers who have temporarily fallen from grace. The inference behind the observation is that professionalism denotes a certain grade of efficiency, a pride of craftsmanship or ability. Payment denotes a contract, and by the acceptance of the penny the individual becomes the servant of the Church.

Now there are types of professionalism in ringing which are viewed with disfavour by a number of guilds. Ringing for prize money has been condemned. In the areas of the Devon and Salisbury Guilds the opposition is definite, and in Cornwall competitions among call change ringers have been regarded with displeasure. The Salisbury Guild intervened in the matter of an Australian legacy which had as its objective the offering of prizes at ringing competitions in a Dorset town. It has been replaced by a ringers' festival, the legacy being devoted to providing a tea.

In the realm of sport the Amateur Athletic Association have laid down this definition of an amateur: 'An amateur is one who has never competed for a money prize or monetary consideration in any athletic sport or game . . . who has never engaged in assisting in or has taught any athletic exercise for pecuniary consideration or in any way exploited his athletic ability for profit.' Between the amateur and professional they establish a great gulf. In the history of change ringing there are probably not more than a dozen men whose livelihood has been gained from change ringing, but there are thousands who, like the writer, might be classified as being within the ranks of semi-professionals and have received some remuneration for their ringing.

This semi-professionalism in ringing fortunately causes no heartburns and raises no question of status. The fee or reward is infinitesimal when compared with what an enthusiastic ringer spends in furthering his art and in securing his maximum measure of enjoyment from the fellowship of ringing. There can be no qualms of conscience in taking the Church's penny. In a sense it should be regarded in the same light as the parable of the hiring in the market place, where the reward was in accordance with a definite contract. The primary object of all guilds in affiliation with the Central Council is to ensure that Sunday by Sunday the church bells of our land shall be rung faithfully and well. By the acceptance of the humble penny a contract has been entered into, and what finer or nobler service than that of His Church!

'The Ringing World' was founded in the year 1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.

Expressions of sympathy at the passing of Rupert Richardson have been widespread. Most of the letters the Editor has received contain a sentence or two in appreciation of his work for the Exercise.

New subscribers either by post or through a newsagent can still be taken. If your newsagent cannot get a copy, tell him to write to Rolls House Publishing Co., Ltd., Breams Buildings, London, E.C.4, giving the name of his wholesaler. For postal details see the adjoining column.

The peal at Motcombe on December 28th was specially arranged by Mr. W. C. Shute, Ringing Master, for Miss Gillian Edwards, niece of the general secretary, the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards, and great-granddaughter of Canon J. Smith, during whose incumbency at Motcombe the ring of six bells was installed. The band wish to record their gratitude to Mrs. Wareham, wife of the ringer of the fifth, for generous hospitality.

The peal of Stedman Cinques on Boxing Day at Worcester Cathedral was the annual peal for the Worcestershire and Districts Association. An interesting point about the second peal of Cinques published this week from St. Martin's, Birmingham, is that it marks the completion of the circle by Mr. H. H. Fearn.

Now that the bells of Audley, Staffs, have been augmented from six to eight by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd., more peals may be expected. The first on the new bells on December 28th broke a silence of 23 years as regards peal ringing at this church. After the peal the ringers were entertained by the Vicar and Mr. and Mrs. R. Rowley.

Correction.—The name of the sixth ringer in the peal at Shoreham on December 21st should be Frank Howe, not House as published.

BELFRY GOSSIP

We have had an advice note telling that the paper for the 16-page 'Ringing World' is on rail. If any of our railway ringers should spot it, please give it priority. In the meantime, apologies for delays in the publication of peals.

Mr. J. W. Clarke has relinquished the secretaryship of the Chester Branch after 25 years' service. His resignation is not through a desire for a rest, but that his election as Master of the Chester Guild last June prevents his continuing in the office of branch secretary.

The Exercise will join us in congratulating Mr. G. E. Symonds, of Ipswich, on completing 60 years as a ringer. The anniversary was commemorated by a peal of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus at Ipswich. By calling the peal of Little Bob Maximus on December 14th last he brought the number of different Maximus methods he had conducted to 15, viz.: Plain 2, Treble Bob 2, Little 2, Principles 2, Surprise 7.

'Caricature' seems to have been timely and appreciated. An Altrincham, Cheshire, ringer had the cartoon placed in his letter box with a comment. Other ringers have had 'The Daily Express' brought to their notice.

A correspondent, in noting the recent 'ringing activities of certain Varsity ringers, hopes no one got hurt in the striking and that a shift will not occur. Robins are usually tamest about this time of the year.

The 87th birthday of Mr. W. Sear on December 29th was celebrated by his taking the treble to 1,260 Grandsire Triples rung at Mangotsfield, Bristol. Other ringers were C. E. Jefferies 2, Miss N. Gardner 3, E. Palmer 4, W. Riching 5, R. Harding 6, J. G. Jefferies (conductor) 7, D. Gardner 8.

THE PASSING OF MR. RUPERT RICHARDSON

Ringers in all parts of the country received last week with deep regret the news of the death of Mr. Rupert Richardson, at Glyn Garth, Surfleet, Lincolnshire. His death followed an illness of nearly three months' duration. He was 64 years of age.

Rupert Richardson was born at Meanwood, Leeds, on August 21st, 1883. He came to Surfleet with his parents when nine years old, and later learnt his ringing under the Rev. H. Law James, Vicar of Surfleet. A farmer and bulb grower, his business frequently took him to Covent Garden, and he made many ringing friends in London. He took part in ringing tours throughout the country, and he was a member of 39 associations in the British Isles and six in Australia; these last he joined when taking part in the famous 'Great Adventure.' On this tour he rang what he always considered to be his most important peal, one of Grandsire Cinques at Melbourne Cathedral, in which six English and six Australian ringers took part.

His great work for the Lincoln Guild will long be remembered, and he was a familiar figure at meetings all over the diocese. On the death of the Rev. H. Law James he was appointed Master, which position he held until his passing. He represented the Guild on the Central Council for 44 years, and had attended 34 meetings, being absent on three occasions only (meetings of the Council were abandoned during part of the two wars). He had served on the Standing Committee since 1936.

In 1923 he married Miss Annie Parkin, a ringer of Woodston, Peterborough, and his only child, Mrs. Enid Wayman, has also followed in her father's footsteps.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral took place at Surfleet on Thursday, January 16th. The church was filled to overflowing with villagers and ringers from various parts of the country. The service was conducted by the Vicar of Surfleet, the Rev. G. H. Clark, assisted by Canon P. C. A. Carnegie, Vicar of Spalding and president of the Elloe Deaneries Branch of the Lincoln Guild. The hymns, 'Oh what the joy and the glory must be' and 'Peace, perfect peace,' were sung, and at the conclusion of the service the Nunc Dimittis was chanted. After the committal prayers a course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the open grave, which had been lined with evergreens and daffodils. The ringers were: Mr. A. Walker 1-2, Mr. J. Freeman 3-4, Mr. E. H. Lewis 5-6, Mr. H. Poole 7-8.

The family mourners were Mrs. Richardson (widow), Mrs. Wayman (daughter), Mr. R. H. Richardson, Sutterton (brother), Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richardson (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. William Rowbottom, Mr. Arthur Farr, Spalding, and Mr. W. Hollingworth, Spalding (brothers-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. Parkin, Crowland, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Mr. R. Parkin, and nephews and nieces.

The following were amongst the ringers present: Mr. E. H. Lewis (president of the Central Council), Mr. G. W. Fletcher (hon. secretary of the Central Council), Mr. J. F. Smallwood (Ancient Society of College Youths), Messrs. G. S. Swann and Albert Walker (St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham), the Rev. B. F. Sheppard (Cambridge Universities Guild), Mr. W. Ayre (hon. secretary, Hertford County Association), Miss Evelyn Steel and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher (president and hon. secretary, Ladies' Guild), Mr. H. Poole (president, Leicester Diocesan Guild) and Mrs. Poole, Mr. A. W. Coles (Middlesex County Association), Mrs. E. A. Barnett (Crayford), Mr. C. Dean (Croydon), Mr. A. H. Pulling (Guildford), Messrs. J. Bennett and W. H. Hewett (London), Messrs. J. Odham and J. Fidler (of Messrs. John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough), Mr. and Mrs. J. Brothwell (Rotherham), and the following members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild: Mr. F. W. Stokes (hon. secretary), Mr. J. Bray (hon. secretary, Northern Branch) and Mrs. Bray, Mr. J. G. Ames, the Rev. J. Atkinson, Messrs. J. F. Baines, C. H. Baker, H. Barsley, S. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell, Mr. F. S. W. Butler, Mr. W. E. Clarke, the Rev. H. P. Cole, Messrs. K. S. Croft, F. Dewey, W. Duffy, A. Farr, G. E. Feirn, J. A. Freeman, J. Freeman, — French, Lieut. Clement Glenn, R.N.V.R., Messrs. J. B. Halifax, H. Harrison, A. J. Holmes, P. Holmes, R. Howard, Norman Hutchinson, G. T. Lunn, K. W. Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. McGinness, Messrs. J. L. Millhouse, F. Payne, W. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Sellers, Messrs. G. Sewell, J. Smith, R. Smith, F. Taylor, Miss M. Telford, Messrs. J. Walden, C. Wander, S. Woods and A. Young.

The path from the gate to the church was lined with beautiful floral tributes, numbering 63, and including one each from the Central Council of Church Bellringers and the Lincoln Diocesan Guild and several branches, and the St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham. The bells were rung, open, before and after the service, and a peal of Stedman Cinques was accomplished later in the day. A peal attempt at Spalding on the same afternoon was, unfortunately, lost.

IN MEMORIAM PEALS.

On the day of his funeral, a peal of Stedman Cinques, 5,019 changes, was rung as a tribute at the Church of St. Lawrence, Surfleet, by the following members of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild: Kenneth S. B. Croft, Charles McGuinness, John Freeman, William H. Hewett, Albert W. Coles, Jack Bray, Kenneth W. Mayer, Frank I. Hairs, J. Frank Smallwood, George E. Feirn, Jack L. Millhouse and Walter Ayre.

In memoriam peals have also been rung at Nottingham; St. Martin's, Birmingham; Beddington, Surrey; St. Margaret's, Leicester; the Bell Foundry Campanie, Loughborough; St. Peter's, Woolton, Liverpool; St. Peter's, Halliwell, Bolton, Lancs.

AN APPRECIATION.

By the passing of Rupert Richardson into higher service the Exercise in general, and the Lincoln Diocesan Guild in particular, has lost a true and staunch friend.

Those who were privileged to visit him in his home at Surfleet to take part in his 'house parties' will remember with gratitude the generous hospitality and warm welcome which were always in evidence at Glyn Garth. Anything which had for its object the betterment of ringers or ringing had immediate support from Rupert, nothing being too much trouble. His wise counsel was sought by many and was always ungrudgingly given.

Although he had a peal record which was unique and outstanding, he was remarkably modest concerning his achievements. He was the lucky possessor of a great sense of humour, and that, combined with his natural kindness and modesty, endeared him to all. We mourn the loss of a good man, truly one of the outstanding characters in the ringing fraternity. 'O blest man, let this praise be given: Heaven was in him before he was in Heaven.'

J. F. SMALLWOOD.

In the passing of Rupert Richardson the Ringing Exercise has lost yet another of its stalwarts, and I should like, through the medium of 'The Ringing World,' to pay tribute to one of our dearest friends. It can truly be said that he was indeed one of nature's gentlemen, always ready to guide and assist and above all to make happy those who came into contact with him. Although he is no longer with us, his name will ever be remembered. My abundant store of personal memories of him I shall cherish in the knowledge that I have profited by meeting and associating with him. Such a loss can never be replaced, but we can follow the example he continuously and so obviously set by realising the joy of making and seeing other people happy.

Our kind thoughts turn to Mrs. Richardson and Enid in their great loss, and we trust that God may grant them health and strength to carry the tremendous burden which has fallen upon them.

HAROLD J. POOLE.

THE LADIES' GUILD

MAKE HISTORY AT MANCHESTER.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Ladies' Guild was held at Manchester Town Hall on January 11th, hitherto the province of the 'stronger' sex. Some 20 members attended from various parts of Lancashire and Cheshire and the bells were made full use of. A feature of the afternoon's ringing was rounds on the twelve bells by a band consisting solely of ladies, and considering that this was the first time many of them had rung on twelve and the weight of the bells (tenor 42½ cwt.), their efforts were a credit to them. This was the first time the bells have been rung by an entirely feminine band.

After tea, a business meeting was held, at which 14 new ringing members and two honorary members were elected. Votes of thanks were accorded to the Town Hall Superintendent and Committee for permission to hold the meeting, to the local ringers for having everything in readiness, to the gentlemen who attended and to all who helped to make the meeting a success.

It is hoped to hold the next meeting at St. Mary's, Handbridge, Chester, on April 19th.

M.E.

St. Martin's Guild

CCLR. PADDON SMITH HONOURED.

The annual meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held on January 4th at headquarters, the Tamworth Arms, Moor Street, the Master (Mr. Albert Walker) presiding.

Mr. Walker, in his opening remarks, expressed his pleasure in seeing such a large company—about 60 members and friends being present—and took the opportunity of wishing all the compliments of the season and a happy and prosperous 1947. He also mentioned the illness of Mr. Rupert Richardson, of Surfleet, and the secretary was requested to send him a letter expressing their sympathy and best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The following new members were elected: Miss Evelyn Fletcher, Harborne; Miss Ruth Russell, Harborne; Mr. G. E. Oliver, Lichfield; Mr. L. Fidler, Hitchin; and the following tower elections were duly ratified: Mr. J. L. Millhouse, Lincoln; Mr. K. S. B. Croft, Lincoln; Mr. G. J. Lewis, Powick, Worcs.; and Mr. P. K. Williamson, Allesley, Coventry. Mr. Harry Withers, reporting on the record long peal of Stedman Cinques at Oxford, stated that he was there the whole time and checked off each course, end and in his opinion it was a good peal.

It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Aston on April 5th and the bi-quarterly at St. Philip's Cathedral, Birmingham, on February 8th.

The treasurer, Mr. T. H. Reeves, in submitting the annual balance sheet, stated that subscriptions had come in very well, and although the results showed only a small increase in the balance carried forward, this was due to several non-recurring expenses incurred during the year. He considered the results satisfactory. The auditors having given their report, it was agreed that the accounts be adopted.

THE NEW MASTER.

All the officers were re-elected for 1947 with the exception of the Master. Mr. Walker stated he had now held the office for three years; in his opinion it was an office that should go round; he had thoroughly enjoyed his term and was now quite willing to give way for someone else, in fact he would like to propose Mr. W. C. Dowding, and this was seconded by Mr. L. Tuffrey. The Master now vacated the chair, and the secretary asked for any further nominations when Mr. F. Price proposed and Mr. H. C. Spencer seconded Councillor Paddon Smith; Mr. John Pinfold proposed and Mr. G. F. Swann seconded Mr. Albert Walker. The ballot was taken and the secretary announced the result as follows: Councillor Smith 15 votes, Mr. Albert Walker 14 votes, and Mr. W. C. Dowding 10 votes, and declared Councillor Smith duly elected. In the absence of the new Master, Mr. Walker again resumed the chair. The other officers are: Ringing Master, Mr. G. E. Fearn; trustees, Councillor Paddon Smith and Mr. F. T. Allaway; auditors, Messrs. H. H. Fearn and G. W. Critchley; librarian, Mr. G. F. Swann; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. T. H. Reeves.

SUFFOLK GUILD

On January 11th, the Bury St. Edmunds District met at the Parish Church, Ixworth, where 27 members representative of towers at Elveden, Redgrave, Great Barton, Rickingham, Lakenheath, Ingham, Great Saxham, Chevington, Hadleigh, Exning, Horringer, Chippingham, Cambs., Wetherden, Hockwold, Norfolk, Beds. and the local band were present. Some good ringing ranging from rounds and call changes for the learners to Plain Bob, Oxford Treble Bob, Kent Treble Bob, Cambridge Surprise, Double Court, St. Clement's and Grand-sire for the more seasoned were rung.

Tea was taken in the Village Hall, where the Rector (the Rev. — Meeks) welcomed the guests and hoped that many more such meetings would be held. Ringing concluded just before 9 p.m. after an enjoyable day.

ST. MARTIN'S.—Cont. from previous column.

Mr. Edgar Shepherd, in proposing a vote of thanks to Mr. Walker for his many services during his term as Master, said he thought Mr. Walker had discovered the secret of perpetual youth, for although he had now passed his 70th year and had just retired from active work, yet his enthusiasm for ringing was as keen as ever, and, having recently succeeded in ringing his first peal of Minor, there was every prospect of his becoming a really good ringer in time! As a Sunday service ringer no one was more regular at St. Martin's on Sunday mornings and at the various other churches in the district for evening service. The secretary, in paying his tribute to Mr. Walker, mentioned the fact that he had not only been a member of the College Youths for 50 years, but in May next he would have been a member of the Guild a similar period.

HENRY JOHNSON DINNER.

This is to be held on Saturday, March 1st, at the Imperial Hotel. There were two nominees for the post of chairman on that occasion, Canon T. Guy Rogers, Rector of St. Martin's, and Mr. Albert Walker. The voting resulted in favour of Mr. Walker, who suitably acknowledged the honour done him, and said he would be pleased to preside at the dinner. The general arrangements for the dinner were left in the hands of the secretary. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and change ringing on the handbells.

Winchester and Portsmouth

WINCHESTER DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of the Winchester District was held at Winchester on Jan. 4th.

The business meeting was held at Messrs. Dumpers' Restaurant and was presided over by the Archdeacon of Winchester (chairman), supported by Mr. W. G. Goodchild (hon. secretary and treasurer). Fifty-seven members and visitors attended, the towers represented being Aldershot, Alresford, Barton Stacey, Basingstoke, Bedford, Bournemouth, Bramley, Brighouse (Yorks), Broughton, Fareham, Farnham, Hugglescote (Leics.), Hursley, Longparish, Loughborough, North Stoneham, Southampton, Stockbridge, Twyford, Walsoken (Norfolk), Winchester, Wolverton and Wiston.

In welcoming members, the Chairman said he could not say how grateful he felt towards those members of the Guild who, Sunday after Sunday, maintained their contribution to the traditions of the churches in the land. It was, he added, the bells which called the people to church, and if the congregations were sometimes small, it was not the fault of the ringers.

Mr. Goodchild submitted the secretary's report for 1946, which stated that the year had been one of normal activity in the Winchester District. Meetings had been held at Alresford, Stockbridge, Wiston and Hursley, and attendance at all of these had been good.

The statement of accounts showed a balance in hand of £19 5s. 3d., compared with £15 4s. 9d. brought forward. Subscriptions had been paid by 107 ringing members and 40 hon. members, while 16 had been waived in view of service in H.M. Forces. This total membership of 123 showed an increase of five over last year.

The Guild had decided to make a donation towards the appeal for funds for restoration of the bells of Titchborne Church (subject to the contract being placed with the bell-founders).

The Archdeacon of Winchester was unanimously re-elected district chairman, Mr. Wilfred and Mr. H. Newnham were re-elected district representatives, and Mr. G. Smith was re-elected hon. auditor. Mr. Goodchild said he had decided to relinquish the office of hon. secretary and treasurer, and although it was the wish of the meeting that he should continue, Mr. Goodchild could not be persuaded to alter his decision. No substitute could be found to take over the office immediately, but it was hoped that Mr. L. Tremear, of Alresford, would be in a position to do so in about three months' time. A sub-committee, comprising the district chairman, Mr. Wilfred Andrews, Mr. H. Newnham and Mr. B. Smith was appointed to act in the interim.

Ten new ringing members were elected as follows: Wiston (2), Stockbridge (1), Hursley (1) and Winchester College (6). The first quarterly meeting was fixed for Twyford on April 12th, and the next annual meeting at Winchester on January 3rd, 1948. The usual votes of thanks by the secretary to the Dean and Chapter of Winchester and the Rector of St. Maurice's brought the meeting to a close.

Guild service was held in the Cathedral, at which the address was given by the Rev. E. Nicholl, M.C. (Rector of Alresford).

A Warning

BIRMINGHAM RINGER DEFRAUDED.

Dear Sir,—With reference to the letter from Frank W. Perrens in this week's issue regarding William Green, Leominster.

This individual called on me at my business address on December 20th, having obtained it from another ringer and told me a similar story to that mentioned by Mr. Perrens. In addition, he told me he had visited St. Martin's, Birmingham, and had rung there, and that he was a regular Sunday ringer at the Priory Church, Leominster. I lent him 16s. 3d., which he promised to return immediately he reached home, or at latest the following Monday. As this did not arrive I wrote him to the address he gave me, viz., 6, The Priory, Leominster, on the 8th inst., and this letter was returned marked 'Not known' on Tuesday last.

This bears out Mr. Perrens' statement, and I write to give an added warning to all fellow-ringers who may have a soft spot for helping any apparently distressed ringers—Yours faithfully,

THOMAS H. REEVES.

Sparkhill, Birmingham.

AT LEICESTER.

Dear Sir,—An individual answering the description given by Mr. Perrens 'touched' me on Sunday night last, just as I was about to lead the choir for evening service, consequently I had no time to argue or verify his statements. He gave the name of a brother verger and asked for me by name. I gave him some money and sent him on his way. For his 'faithful promise' to return it I gave him one of my visiting cards.

Since reading Mr. Perrens' letter I have thought it possible that such a plausible person might use this as a 'lever' to extort more alms. If any reader should, therefore, be approached by this man, will they beware of imposition such as has been worked on myself and others? ERNEST MORRIS.

24, Coventry Street, Leicester.

DOVER CAPTAIN'S EXPERIENCE.

Dear Sir,—The warning to ringers given in the last week's issue of 'The Ringing World' by Mr. Frank W. Perrens, of Coventry, resembles the same man who recently appeared at Dover. He has a plausible gift of the tongue and arrived at St. Mary's Vicarage for help, representing himself as a bellringer from Bournemouth.

The Vicar, not being satisfied, sent him with a note to me. I asked him how he came to be stranded at Dover, and his answer was that he had been on a visit to Margate with some friends and he did not want to return without having a look at Dover and he had run out of money. He asked me for 13s. 3d. to enable him to get home for Sunday, and when asked about his ringing he said he had taken part in two peals of Grandsire Triples with his father in Buckinghamshire, and he knew many ringers there. I told him I did not feel inclined to give him the amount he asked for, and to this he asked if I would lend him it so that he could get back home. This I did on his promising to return the amount on reaching home. He gave me an address as follows: Mr. F. Haslett, 26 Church Street, Aylesbury, Bucks. I heard nothing from him so I wrote a straight letter pointing out the seriousness of his action, and made it clear that I should report the case to the police and his Vicar. The letter was returned from the General Post Office 'Man Unknown.'

This man is easy to recognise. He speaks with a Durham accent. The back part of his head is bald and below thick hair lopping outwards. The fingers on both hands are deeply stained with nicotine through cigarette smoking, and he is somewhat shabby.

CHARLES TURNER.

Captain, St. Mary's Ringers.

Dover, Kent.

Bedfordshire Association

THE FIRST PEAL.

Dear Sir,—The record of early peals in Bedfordshire as published in 'The Ringing World' is not correct. We have at St. Paul's, Bedford, a framed peal rung by the Royal Cumberland Youths on Monday, May 11th, 1761, this being 15 years earlier than the recorded peal at Dunstable.

A copy of the peal is appended.—Yours sincerely,

S. FOSKETT, Tower Sec.

38, Miller Road, Bedford.

(Copy.)

Royal Cumberland Youths. Church of St. Paul, Bedford. The Society rang on Monday, the Eleventh day of May, 1761, a true and complete peal of 5,040 Bob Major Single in 3 hours and 25 minutes, being the only one ever rung there. Bells cast by Lester. Francis Wood treble, William Matthis 2, George Partrick 3, William Lister 4, Michael Purser 5, Richard Hilson 6, Samuel Wood 7, Robert Wight tenor. The Bobs were called by Sam Wood, peal 45.

JOHN R. SHARMAN AND CHARLES R. LILLEY.

Dear Sir,—As an old Bedford ringer I was much interested to read the article about this association in 'The Ringing World' of Jan. 3rd.

In the reference to the leading ringers I missed the names of John R. Sharman and Chas. R. Lilley. J. R. Sharman, who was born on June 9th, 1876, had learned to manage a bell before going to Bedford in 1893. He rang his first peal, 5,088 Kent Treble Bob Major, at Irthlingborough on March 31st, 1894. By the time he left Bedford in April, 1895, he had learned to ring Stedman, Duffield, Double Norwich and Superlative Surprise besides the easier methods.

When Mr. Sharman moved to Crawley, Sussex, he was fortunately able to join James Parker and his band there. On May 25th, 1895, he rang his first peal of Superlative at Cuckfield, and on Sept. 30th the same year his first of London Surprise Major at Crawley. In 1897 he moved to London, and, joining William, Ernest and George Pye the next year, he rang with them many peals of Stedman, Double Norwich, Superlative, Cambridge and London Surprise. Mr. Sharman has rung about 350 peals and conducted a good number on 8, 10 and 12 bells. In 1922 Mr. Sharman left London, returning to his old home at Cogenhoe, a village some four miles from Northampton. Since then he has had little opportunity to ring peals.

An account of C. R. Lilley's career as a ringer was included in 'The Ringing World,' March 24th, 1939. He died December 10th, 1942.—Yours truly,

A. N. WOOD.

Eastgate House, Cheyne Walk, Northampton.

TOWER CAPTAINS AND PEALS

Dear Sir,—As one of the visitors at a practice at Kington on Jan. 13th, I was astonished to hear that a peal of Hereward Bob Minor had been rung there during the afternoon and that neither the tower captain nor any member of the local band knew anything about the arrangement.

It appears that a telephone call was made to the Vicar about 9.30 a.m. on the previous day, and he gave permission for the peal to be rung, but surely someone should have approached the captain for his permission as well. Is it usual for peal-grabbers to arrange things in this underhanded way?

The views of other readers would be of interest, and also whether this method of arranging peals is often practised. I cannot believe that it is; it costs nothing to be well-mannered and courteous. 'Manners maketh man.'—Yours, etc.,

S. O. WATT.

Kington, Herefordshire.

OBITUARY

MR. CHARLES FREEMAN.

The funeral took place at Stoke Church (Coventry) on January 15th of Mr. Charles Freeman, aged 51, who for 36 years was a ringer at that church and a member of the Coventry Diocesan Guild. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung at the graveside by H. Summers, J. H. White, F. W. Perrens and F. E. Pervin.

After the service the church bells were rung half-muffled by members of the Coventry Guild, and a quarter-peal was rung later in the evening.

Mr. Freeman, who belonged to a ringing family (his father and brothers all being ringers), learned to ring at Bedford, being a member of the band at St. Paul's, Bedford. He took part in a number of peals for the Bedfordshire Association before going to reside in Coventry.

For the Coventry Guild, Mr. Freeman had rung 27 peals, ranging from Doubles to Bristol Surprise Major, and will be greatly missed at Stoke. He leaves a widow and two daughters to mourn their loss as he sleeps peacefully in the shadow of the tower where he spent many happy hours.

MR. CYRIL H. ISON.

With regret the death is announced of Mr. Cyril H. Ison, of Hinckley, Leicestershire, who collapsed and died while at work on January 8th. Not a great peal ringer, he could always be relied upon for service ringing and practice, where his cheerful disposition will be greatly missed.

The funeral took place on January 11th, the service being held at St. Mary's. As the cortege left the church for the cemetery the bells were rung half-muffled by the local company, assisted by Mr. C. E. Turner. At the graveside a course of Grandsire Triples was rung by A. Jordon 1-2, G. A. Newton 3-4, A. Ballard 5-6, E. Vallance 7-8. Messrs. Jordon and Vallance represented the local company, and Newton and Ballard the Leicester Guild.

On January 12th a muffled quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung by the following: H. Knight 1, F. Long 2, E. Vallance 3, E. Sowman 4, G. Charlton 5, A. Ballard 6, G. A. Newton (conductor) 7, B. Ridgway 8.

MR. F. HARWOOD.

Dear Sir,—In reference to your excellent appreciation of the late Frederick Harwood, I am informed that he rang 60 peals. In addition to the methods mentioned must be added Cambridge, and Superlative by the Preston Branch of the Lancashire Association.—Yours faithfully,

E. R. MARTIN.

Preston.

RINGERS' NAMES ON BELLS

Dear Sir,—Re recent correspondence on ringers' names on bells. Both my wife's and mine appear on separate bells at Carbis Bay, and also that of Miss Marion Lidgey, who jointly with her sister gave the fourth bell in memory of their father. Miss Lidgey has learnt to ring since the bells were dedicated three months ago and has to-day (January 18th) rung her gift to her first quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles. Both my wife and I were in this—thus three ringers whose names appear on bells rang together in the first local quarter-peal on them. It was Mr. Harry Miles' (late of Oxford) first quarter of Doubles. Oxford ringers will congratulate him!—Yours truly,

A. S. ROBERTS.

The Parsonage, Carbis Bay, Cornwall.

Dear Sir,—There is another bell which has a ringer's name inscribed on it, viz., the second of Headcorn, Kent, which bears the inscription: 'Philip Hodgkin, captain of ringers.' This was inscribed when the bell was recast in 1922 by Howell, of Ipswich.—Yours, etc.,

Winchester. (Mrs.) M. M. GETEHOUSE.

BOURNEMOUTH

There are a number of notable events in the bell-ringers' calendar. Such reunions that take place at the Central Council meeting, the Henry Johnson commemoration dinner and the annual assembly of the Ancient Society of College Youths play a significant part in promoting that fellowship which is a characteristic of the ringing fraternity. Bournemouth ringers have ambitions; they plan to introduce as an annual event the Bournemouth Rally. The first gathering last Saturday was very enjoyable and attracted a company of 126, visitors coming from as far afield as the Midlands and South Wales. The date was not happily chosen; the Basingstoke District was holding its annual meeting the same day, and there were other annual events which drew many of the would-be patrons elsewhere.

In their initial effort Mr. Arthur V. Davis and those associated with him secured a full measure of co-operation from the Church and the civic authority. The Archdeacon of Winchester, who is shortly to be installed as Dean of Hereford, is a great friend of ringers. Before receiving archidiaconal dignity he was Vicar of St. Peter's, Bournemouth, and proved to be a stout champion of the right of the Church to use its bells. He brought to the Bournemouth rally that friendly intimacy that spelt success for the gathering and proved an ideal chairman. Other clergy were present and were equally co-operative, and there is no question that such a gathering will receive the blessing of the Church.

An ex-Mayor and Rotary president gave the civic welcome. The cultivation of an understanding between ringers and those entrusted with local government is an avenue which should not be neglected. In many of our ancient boroughs on Mayor's Sunday there is special ringing, and it is well that those in charge of civic arrangements should be informed of the fact; so much is taken for granted, that civic officials at times need to be educated as to the true place bells occupy in expressing the sentiments of the people. At Bournemouth the ringers have friends in high places—public men who are prepared to speak in defence of bells and ringing, and with such friendship a festival, particularly if its date does not clash with the main season, is welcomed.

A dinner is not the only attraction to spell success for such a festival. Ringing facilities must be adequate to cope with the influx of visitors. Apart from the 12 bells at Christchurch Priory, where Mr. G. Preston has nearly completed sixty years as a ringer, there is a ten and two eights in Bournemouth, while the surrounding countryside offers other opportunities. The stage seems admirably set for including Bournemouth in the ringers' calendar, and if the organising committee choose their dates carefully the 126 who supported the first gathering will increase materially. Bournemouth has, in addition to its ringing, other charms which have placed it in the forefront of English watering places. The visitor is always welcome, whether in town or belfry, and with such a friendly atmosphere ringers from all over the country will be associating Bournemouth in their holiday plans. 'The Ringing World' has no desire to praise one holiday resort in preference to another, but naturally commends those towns which find a special niche in their plans of welcome for the Church bellringer.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Winchester and Portsmouth Guild have presented the Exercise with a new controversy—a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major with a Single. Writes composer Brian D. Price, 'Not original, but singular!' It was rung at St. Michael's, Southampton, on January 18th.

Princess Elizabeth's coming-of-age. They have started planning their peals in Worcestershire!

Cuckfield ringers have started the year well.
Their peal on January 5th was the first by an all local band for 36 years. The peal was rung for the Sunday evening service, the band being regular service ringers.

A word of special congratulation to those who participated in the peal of Stedman Triples at Bishop's Cannings, Wilts. It was the first in the method by all the band.

To mark his 19 years' service as Ringing Master of the Farnham District, Mr. R. Hasted on retirement was presented on Saturday with a silver-mounted walking stick and a certificate recording appreciation of his services.
Mr. C. W. Denver is the new Master.

The Rev. K. W. H. Felstead has consented to preside at the annual meeting of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths to-morrow.
Despite counter attractions at Acton, a big muster is expected.

Cheshire has something new—Oswald Delight
Major, the first peal of which was conducted by John E. Bibby at Frodsham on Jan. 17th.
On the treble was 'Oswald' Claybrook. The composer is C. Kenneth Lewis.

Many have shared with our cartoonist P.H. in finding the ideas of Fabian Stedman impossible!

Another 'first ever' comes from Erith, Kent, in Eardley Surprise Major, a composition of
A. G. Driver. The conductor was Frederick
J. Cullum.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Three months' hard practice was behind the peal of Minor in fifty-three methods 'in hand,' called by George E.
Feirn, and which is published this week. The previous record was held by the same Lincolnshire band, rung on December 26th, 1939, and consisted of 50 methods. Success was only achieved after half a dozen attempts. The company's next target is to ring a peal in 60 methods. Handbell ringers, we feel sure, desire us to voice congratulations.

Owing to bomb damage, no services are held at St. Lawrence's, Hawkhurst, Kent. The bells are, however, always rung for Sunday evening service at the daughter Church of All Saints, which is about one mile away. Ringing takes place between 5 and 6 p.m.

Mr. F. I. Hairs, Master of the Sussex County Association, was present at the funeral service for Mr. Rupert Richardson at Surfleet.

Additional memorial peals for Rupert
Richardson have been rung at Lincoln Cathedral, St. Peter-at-Gowt's, Lincoln, St. Giles', Lincoln, Scunthorpe, Leicester Cathedral, Isle-worth, and Ufford, Suffolk. There have also been a number of quarter-peals.

After six previous attempts in the past three months, the local band at Christ Church, Erith, with the aid of their conductor, rang their quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples on Jan.
19th. This is the first quarter other than Doubles since 1919. The ringers were: A. J.
Hill 1, C. Udell 2, Miss A. Catt 3, F. A. Coley
(conductor) 4, V. Benning 5, E. E. Jeffries 6, A. G. Hill 7, J. Benning 8. First quarter by ringers of 1, 3, 6 and 8.

An insight as to the number of new ringers is provided by the fact that the last edition of 3,000 copies of 'The Ringers' Handbook,' by E. S. and M. Powell, was disposed of in less than two years. The new edition of this popular textbook is advertised in this issue.

BOURNEMOUTH RALLY AND DINNER

CHURCH AND CIVIC AUTHORITY'S DEFENCE OF RINGING.....VETERAN MASTER TELLS OF PROGRESS ...
A PERMANENT FIXTURE IN THE RINGERS' CALENDAR

Bournemouth ringers and their friends started last Saturday what they hope will be a permanent feature in the calendar of the Exercise—the Bournemouth rally and dinner. Both the Church and the civic authorities combined in their welcome, and despite the wintry aspect, so exceptional for Bournemouth, the festival proved most enjoyable.

The Archdeacon of Winchester (the Ven. Hedley R. Burrows) presided at the dinner, held in St. Peter's Hall, which was attended by a company of 126. Supporting him were Ald. Harry C. Brown, former Mayor of Bournemouth; Mr. George Williams, Master of the Winchester Guild; Mr. F. W. Rogers, secretary of the Winchester Guild; Mr. A. F. Martin Stewart, past master, Salisbury Guild; the Rev. R. P. Price, Vicar of Christ Church; and Mr. Arthur V. Davis, who was hon. secretary to the organising committee, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Marshall. Say.

Informality was a keynote in the proceedings. After the chairman had proposed the loyal toast, in which he referred to 'the great adventure' of the Royal Family in their journey to South Africa, he expressed the sincere regret of the Bishop of Winchester at his inability to be present owing to pressure of other duties. He had a word of special greeting to Mr. George Williams, who he said had made a life study of their art and had given wonderful and devoted service to the craft of bellringing.

The Archdeacon commented upon the frequency with which he heard the words 'surprise', 'amazed', 'horrified' and 'disgusted' used, and he admitted that he had heard all these expressions used in connection with bellringers.

During the war years the Archdeacon was at St. Peter's, Bournemouth, and he recalled when war broke out ringing continued for a time. Some people wrote to him and said they were 'surprised' that the bells were still being rung. Quite a number of people said a little later they were 'amazed' as they thought the bells might attract the bombs, and then from time to time he used to have anonymous rings on the telephone and voices would declare that they were 'horrified,' and occasionally the expression went so far as being 'disgusted.'

He always thought that the members of the bellringers' guilds had two objects in view. One was not to disappoint the Rector and the other was not to annoy the neighbours. Those two principles they must keep firmly in mind the whole time. As he looked back on his past experiences he could honestly say that some of his happiest times had been with bellringers—when as a curate learning to ring rounds at Petersfield and his friendships afterwards. Bellringers had never disappointed him, and as far as annoying their neighbours—well, he had always been prepared to deal with them! (laughter).

THREE POINTS FOR RINGERS.

There were three things which he thought ringers should bear in mind and which he thought expressed the truth about their craft. When he visited Hereford recently the verger described the Cathedral 'as very reticent.' He knew what he meant; one did not see it all at first glance. The craft of ringing was very reticent; there was a mystery about it; no one had really mastered it without observing the principle of restraint. The second was that it was a great fellowship, and lastly it was the ante-chamber to the throne room of worship. The bells summoned the people to church—how hard a task it was in these days!

This rally was intended to sustain and stimulate the mysteries of their art to strengthen the fellowship among ringers and to make them aware and determined that as they prepared the people for worship they took part in that worship themselves. From the chair he thanked Arthur Davis for his courage, vision and enthusiasm in arranging the rally. He expressed his belief that the ringing guilds in this country were going under God to play a great part in the conversion of England.

Ald. Harry C. Brown, past Mayor and president of the Rotary Club, spoke with gratitude of how he heard St. Peter's bells in September, 1917, after being bombed on the East Coast. For 20 years he lived almost opposite the church and he loved the bells. On many occasions people had said to him, 'I do wish those bells would not ring.' He had politely quarrelled with the complainants and rejoined, 'If you are so neurotic that you can't stick a beautiful peal of bells for one week, I don't think I want you as a visitor and I don't think Bournemouth wants you.' These bells signified something they could not give, and he paid that tribute to the bellringers of St. Peter's.

STARTED CHANGE RINGING IN 1880.

Next to greet the assembly was Mr. George Williams, who in a reminiscent vein recalled that he had been ringing since 12 years of age, but he did not start change ringing until 1880. When he started ringing in earnest one had to scarify the diocese to get a band for Grandsire Triples; now they could get a band from any one tower. That was 60 years ago and before the Guild was founded in 1879. He congratulated Mr. Davis on his work.

Mr. T. W. White brought to the rally the good wishes of the Central Council. In a reference to 'The Ringing World,' he mentioned that they had had 700 new subscribers since the allocation of additional paper, and they could take another 600 under present arrangements. The vigour of the Exercise was most encouraging, particularly the influx of youth. The large number of young ringers was not to be found merely at Bournemouth, but practically every guild could report similar progress.

Mr. A. F. Martin Stewart referred to the continuous support to bellringing which had been forthcoming from the chairman, particularly when he was Vicar of St. Peter's. He thanked the incumbents for the use of bells for the rally.

In a word of welcome to the visitors, Mr. Martin Stewart mentioned that the following Guilds were represented: St. Martin's Bristol, the Worcestershire and Districts, the Llandaff and Monmouth, the Bath and Wells, Sussex County, Salisbury, Hereford, Middlesex, Oxford, and Guildford. He voiced the congratulations of the assembly to Mr. Preston, of Christ Church Priory, who in March will celebrate 60 years as a service ringer.

The Rev. R. T. Price assured the company that no thanks were due to the incumbents; it was the incumbents who should thank the ringers for carrying the voice of the Church over the trees and fields of England. At Christchurch he did not find that the people were amazed, horrified or disgusted by the bells.

Mr. Bell (churchwarden of St. Peter's) expressed appreciation of the splendid band at St. Peter's, ably led by Mr. Davis. It was encouraging to see so many young people carrying on the tradition.

FUTURE PLANS.

The Chairman called on Mr. Arthur Davis for a speech, and he modestly declared that he was not the only one who had been working for the success of the rally. In regard to the training of ringers, theirs was not the only tower in Bournemouth; much hard work was done at St. John's and other local towers. Bournemouth was well provided with rings of bells, with a twelve, a ten, two eights, and a ten at Wimborne. As to future rallies, they hoped to arrange for them in April and looked forward to welcoming those present in 1948.

Handbell ringing by Mary Davis 1-2, Bruce Rogers 3-4, Percy Brayshaw 5-6, Andrew Pearmain 7-8 (conductor) and John Davis 9-10, all members of the St. Peter's band, was commended. This company, conducted by Mr. Arthur Davis and with the addition of Kathleen Brayshaw, played a number of tunes. A short entertainment by 'The Merrymakers' followed. The organising committee consisted of the Rev. C. A. Phillips, Mr. A. F. Martin Stewart, Mr. Arthur Davis and Mrs. F. J. Marshall. Say.

Among others present were Messrs. D. Ayling and D. Ayling, jun., P. Ayling, Sgt. Ashman, H. Atkins, R. Brown (Southampton), Bond (Sevenoaks), Botwell, P. Brayshaw, Miss K. Brayshaw, Squadron Leader A. E. C. York Bramble (Netley), Mr. and Mrs. L. Bell.

Mr. J. Coles, Mr. W. Mrs. and Miss Cartwright (Birmingham), Dr. Cunningham (Wareham), R. Cook (Newbury), W. Cheater, Miss C. Chapman, Miss L. Crofts, the Rev. and Mrs. J. Coutts, Miss F. Childs, Mr. Dowding and party (Birmingham), Mr. R. Dear, Mr. Ivor Davis (Poole), Mr. J. V. Davis, Miss M. Davis, the Rev. and Mrs. K. W. H. Felstead (Southampton), the Rev. Farrow (Lutworth), Miss Fletcher.

Messrs. Goodfellow, A. T. Greenwood (Portsmouth), F. Haysom (Swanage), the Rev. E. C. Harris (Poole), J. W. and Miss Jones (Newport, Mon.), Jacobs, Mrs. King, Mr. Kingston (Shepton Mallet), H. A. Mitchell and 14 members from St. John's, Surrey Road, Macdonald (Poole), J. Munday (Southampton), A. Pearmain, the Rev. C. A. Phillips, T. Page (Portsmouth), G. Pullinger, L. Pink (Lythcott), G. Preston (Christchurch).

The Rev. R. F. Routh, Rose, W. Rex (Newbury), C. and S. Reed (Ringwood), B. Rogers, A. Rose (Poole).

Miss M. Stewart, Symonds (Hereford), Miss Sparshott (Christchurch), Capt. E. Samson (Loughborough), T. Setter (Yeovil), D. Trehane, F. Townsend (Poole), P. Taylor (Loughborough), True (Poole), J. M. Turner (Christchurch), Vacher.

Mrs. A. L. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Miss Wathen, F. S. Wilson, F. Waters, Weeks (Devizes), Mr. and Mrs. T. W. White, Young (Poole).

ADDITIONAL PEAL NOTES

War-time associations were renewed by the peal at Hitcham, Bucks, on January 4th. It was arranged for the visit of Frank Hicks (Eastbourne), who was so helpful to Burnham ringers during the war years.

Dr. E. S. John Hatcher will remember the first peal he conducted. It was Grandsire Triples at Aylesford, Kent, on January 11th. Four of the five first pealers had been taught to ring by the doctor since 1944. There was also a first 'inside.' To balance this youth there was Mr. John Homewood, who rang his first peal in 1894 and remembers the previous local peal in 1891.

In honour of the 55th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. L. Andrews, an attempt for a peal of Bob Minor was made at Longparish, Hants, but came to grief after ringing 1,680 changes with no discredit to Mr. Andrews, who was attempting his first peal at the age of 87; L. Andrews (longest length) 1, D. Smith 2, J. Pearson 3, F. Tonge 4, J. Holloway 5, V. Jarrett (conductor) 6.

A SELECTION FROM THE EDITOR'S POSTBAG

A Warning

AT NOTTINGHAM.

Dear Sir,—Ringers will, I am sure, be obliged to Mr. Perrins for his letter of warning. This person called on me on December 27th about 10 a.m. and informed me that his son had sustained a serious accident at Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire, and after paying his landlady he required 16s. to get home. I felt he must have some food and handed him 30s. He gave his name as Robert Haslett, but I am convinced he is the same person as 'William Green.'—Yours faithfully,

RALPH NARBOROUGH.

Nottingham.

AT LINCOLN.

Dear Sir,—It was with much interest, stimulated by the fruits of bitter experience, that I read Mr. Frank W. Perrins' letter of warning about the activities of one William Green, of Leominster.

Some few weeks ago this gentleman, travelling under the identity of Frank Hazlitt, of Church Street, Aylesbury, Bucks, called on me and told me that he was stranded after visiting his son (who must be a long-suffering creature and something of a nomad) in hospital at Scunthorpe. On this occasion the cost of his fare amounted to £1, and I loaned him this amount, which now I fear, like Clementine, is 'lost and gone forever.'

In all fairness I must say that he did state that he would not be able to let me have it back before Christmas—he did not specify which Christmas!—Yours sincerely,

JOHN A. FREEMAN.

Lincoln.

P.S.—To William Green, alias Frank Hazlitt, I say, 'Call again! The family would like to meet you!'—J.A.F.

WHY RUNG DOWN THE SCALE?

Dear Sir,—I was very interested on reading 'Country Questions at Sunday's Lunch,' by Brian Vesey-Fitzgerald, in this week's 'Radio Times.' First, in the knowledge that the question-master is Mr. Jack Long, and a mountaineer of Mount Everest fame: some will know the connection with 'North Col,' one of the camps of the three Everest expeditions 25,000 feet up; but more so in one of the questions which had been asked, 'Why are church bells rung down the scale?' I did not hear the question asked, and, therefore, not the answer, as probably this feature was then broadcast in the West Regional Programme.

This question has always interested me, and perhaps some of your readers will give us their views.

I once asked this question one practice night, but was told 'that it simply was not done.'—Yours sincerely,

H. FRANK STENSON.

Crewes.

RECORDINGS POPULAR

Dear Sir,—On the occasion of Choir and Bellingers' Sunday at Barwell (Leicestershire) Parish Church, recordings were made of extracts from the service, preceded by several minutes of part of a touch of Stedman Triples. The recordings were played to a crowded audience at the annual church social, and everyone was pleased at the excellent results. The ringers had particular interest in their contribution to the recordings, and have an opportunity of possessing a permanent record of a well-struck course of Stedman.

Mr. H. J. Poole, president of the Leicester Diocesan Guild, gave the address at the evening service, and spoke to a large congregation, including members from many towers about the formation and object of guilds and the Central Council.—Yours faithfully,

T. C. BELTON.

The 13th Bell at St. Martin's

Dear Sir,—Doubtless you will have been inundated with letters from correspondents all claiming knowledge of the 'mysterious' 13th bell at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, an article about which appeared in the 'Daily Mail' on January 17th. I think I should explain in advance how the article came to be printed and also how so many inaccuracies appeared.

Firstly, I did not, as the article suggested, ask permission to go up into the belfry. I am a member of the Royal Cumberland Youths and on the last practice night I climbed up out of curiosity as far as it is humanly possible to go. On the open ledge pointed out in the photo I found a bell, and as far as I could make out in the dark it was hung for ringing. This intrigued me, and, making inquiries, I was unable to find anybody who knew why or how such a bell came to be there, or when it was last rung. A number of people knew of its existence. I casually mentioned this to a friend who has journalistic acquaintances, and this is the result!

Hornsey, N.8.

E. J. ROWE.

NO MYSTERY

Dear Sir,—There is no mystery about the so-called unknown bell, and if the 'Daily Mail' had taken the trouble to verify the facts before publishing their article, there would have been no need to say anything about it.

The bell itself is the sanctus bell and was used up to the time of the ban in 1940, since when it has not been rung. I have written to the 'Daily Mail' explaining this.—Yours sincerely,

G. W. STEERE, Hon. Sec.,
Society of Royal Cumberland Youths.

WORSHIP AND RINGING

Dear Sir,—I was not surprised to read the letter from Richard Post supporting the view that to him bells are in no way connected with religious services, and the fact that they are housed in church towers and not secular places is merely a coincidence.

I came into contact with many such ringers during my 'tours' of the country in H.M. Forces, ringers who proudly support scores of peals behind their names in their respective ringing reports and yet fail to recognise the fact that the Church provides the bells at great expense for their selfish pleasure.

I grew accustomed to the looks of surprise from the resident ringers when I asked my way into the church from the belfry, and only once can I remember one of a local hand taking part in the service with me. The fault, I believe, lies with the clergy for failing to demand that ringers, the same as any other church workers, should be regular worshippers. The answer, of course, is, 'Very few bells would be rung' if this condition was imposed. Who would be the losers? In my own tower four members are choirmen and the remainder, who include the parish clerk and a sidesman, occupy regularly the ringers' pew.

It has been said many times that peals assist in the development of the art of campanology. But how does campanology further the work of the Church if its members do not belong to it? That is the only question that matters, and in the light of that question all the glorious peals—record or otherwise—are hollow and worthless unless they serve the purpose of holding together in the Church's work men willing to devote their time and knowledge for the good of the Church and not for themselves alone.

The sooner the clergy make a move to rid our towers of 'unattached' ringers the better it will be for the influence and good of our present and future church bellringers.—Yours faithfully, Barwell, Leicester.

A Westminster Abbey Experience

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. P. L. Bond's letter, may I be allowed to quote an experience my friend and I went through whilst visiting Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral and other notable churches during a visit to London last September?

We were looking round the Abbey with hundreds of others, and, being very keen campanologists, asked, very politely, if we might be allowed to go up into the belfry. Our request did not fall on favourable ears; we were sent hither and thither round the Abbey to many different officials and at length ended by having an audience with the Dean of Westminster, who granted us the required permission. Once again we started our tour of going from one official to another, all of them seeming very anxious to be rid of us. Then one told us that even if he could find someone to take us up, we would have to wait a long time, as it was nearly lunch time. We were very disappointed and gave it up as a bad job.

Sir, we spent over an hour wasting our time with the Abbey officials, all of whom were quite offended, it seemed, at our wishing to see the belfry. After all, we only wanted to see the belfry, and not to ring a peal.

Is it right that these officials should show thousands round their own part of the Abbey—the part that is interesting to ordinary people—and yet be so slow to please two innocent lads who wished to see something that interested them? Why is it that this belfry is so guarded? Have they no peal boards to display?

I need hardly add that, after lunch, when we went to St. Paul's Cathedral, we made, after very careful consultation and reflection, one tentative remark as to whether we might see the belfry. When told by a similar official that he did not think so, we very quickly told him that it did not matter and left him, intending that our previous experience at the Abbey should not be repeated.—Yours, etc.,

A. W. J. APPLETON.

Godalming, Surrey.

FUNDAMENTAL REASON FOR RINGING

Dear Sir,—With reference to the recent controversy regarding 'The Strange God Campanology,' it is lamentable that so many campanologists, often very advanced in the art of ringing, do not seem to realise the fundamental reason for the ringing of church bells, which is, surely, the summoning of people to worship Him whose birthday we have recently celebrated!

In our little church, however, the regular ringers are almost its mainstay! Five of us are members of the choir and church council and one also acts as churchwarden. My brother (who is now stationed in India and from whom you printed a letter a few months ago regarding his ringing experiences when in Ireland), apart from being a keen ringer, when home, was also a server for the Holy Eucharist and a choir member.—Yours sincerely,

LILY A. M. TALBOT.

Black Notley, Baintree, Essex.

RINGERS' NAMES ON BELLS

Dear Sir,—I can add to the instances of ringers' names appearing on bells. In 1939, Hitchin Parish Church bells were rehung and the treble recast. The local ringers subscribed and collected £184 towards the cost (which represented a lot of hard work). When the treble was cast, the fact that the ringers collected this sum was inscribed on the bell, and as I was the captain of the ringers and organised the collection, my name was included on the inscription.—Yours faithfully, Hitchin.

DON MEARS.

Devon Guild of Ringers

BRANCH MEETING AT SOUTH BRENT.

Well attended was the annual meeting of the South-West Branch of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, held at South Brent on January 18th. Visitors included the president of the Guild (Preb. E. V. Cox).

The handy ring of six bells was well utilised during the afternoon, and this was followed by a service, conducted by the Vicar of South Brent (the Rev. I. K. Jones). About 50 sat down to an excellent tea at the Royal Oak Hotel.

At the business meeting the Rev. E. W. Moore (chairman) presided. The treasurer reported a balance in hand of £2 10s. 4d. The secretary's report stated that four meetings had been held during the past year, including a joint meeting with the Mid-Devon, and that there had been an increase in the membership. There had been regular service and practice ringing, and one peal had been rung during the year. The reports were adopted.

The Rev. H. E. Bennett, of Plympton St. Maurice, was unanimously elected chairman in succession to the Rev. F. W. Moore, who has recently removed to Salcombe Regis. Mr. T. G. Myers was re-elected secretary and treasurer, with thanks for his past services; Messrs. S. O'Shaughnessy, J. Sims and W. G. Lavers, representatives on the General Committee; and Mr. H. H. Thomas, hon. auditor.

It was decided to hold the next three meetings on the third Saturdays in April, September and January respectively, and Bigbury was chosen for the meeting on April 10th, subject to the usual permission. Two new members from Emmanuel, Plymouth, and eight from Plympton St. Maurice were elected, and six certificates were presented to six other members by the president.

The branch voiced its great appreciation to the retiring chairman for his past services, and the usual votes of thanks concluded the meeting, after which the visitors again returned to the tower. The ringing included Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Minor, and Cambridge Surprise Minor, and rounds for less experienced.

AYLESBEARE DEANERY AT WOODBURY.

Between 60 and 70 attended the annual meeting of Aylesbeare Deanery Branch, held at Woodbury on January 11th. Service was conducted by the Rev. W. Williams (Vicar), Preb. E. V. Cox (Guild president) and the Rev. H. V. Christie (chairman of the branch) were also present. The tower of the church rocks considerably and novices were handicapped, but some good work was done in Grandsire, Stedman and Kent Treble Bob.

It was reported at the meeting that membership was about 100 and the balance in hand £21. Officers re-elected were: The Rev. H. V. Christie, chairman; Mr. J. L. Glanville, Ringing Master; Mr. B. Pidgeon, hon. secretary. Nine new members were admitted. Topsham was chosen on the next meeting on May 3rd, and thanks were tendered to officers and all who had assisted in the arrangements.

PEAK DISTRICT SOCIETY

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE THORPE.

Some 20 ringers from various parts of Derbyshire assembled at St. Helen's Church, Darley Dale, for a meeting of the Peak Society on January 18th. The bells were rung to standard methods during the afternoon and evening. A touch of 511 Grandsire Triples was rung as a mark of respect to the late Mr. George Thorpe, of Dore, near Sheffield, who was accidentally killed on his way to work the previous day. He was a valued member of the Peak Society and will be much missed at their meetings. Grandsire was his favourite method and the bells were fully muffled.

At the meeting it was decided to make the Peak Society a branch of the Derby and District Association, with Mr. G. H. Paulson as chairman, Mr. H. E. Taylor secretary, Mr. J. Sykes and Mr. A. Alexander committee men.

'Master Stedman, your ideas are impossible'

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

SALISBURY BRANCH REPORT PROGRESS.

The annual meeting of the Salisbury Branch was held at Salisbury on January 18th. Some 64 ringers attended from Kingston Magna, Wylde, Coombe Bisset, Downton, South Newton, Martin, Devizes, Warminster, Amesbury, Wilton, Bristol, Berwick St. John, Briford, Bishops Cannings, Codford, Breamore, Semley, Templecombe, Newcastle, Longbridge Deverill, Poole and Salisbury. The service was held at St. Thomas' and conducted by the Rev. P. Hayes.

The business meeting followed in St. Paul's Schoolroom, and was presided over by the Rev. F. L. Edwards, general secretary of the Guild, supported by Mr. J. Sutton, branch chairman.

The secretary in his report stated that one new tower had joined the branch and three others which had dropped out rejoined. During the year there had been three augmentations, two from six to eight, and one from five to six. One more augmentation was pending, and St. Thomas', Salisbury, bells were about to be rehung in a new steel frame.

In all 14 peals had been rung for the branch during the year, being Grandsire Triples 4, Bob Major 2, Grandsire Doubles 1, Bob Minor 5, Minor (three methods) 2.

The chairman, Mr. J. Sutton, was re-elected. The branch received with regret the confirmation of the resignation of the branch secretary, Mr. Theobald. After some discussion, Mr. J. E. Figgures was elected secretary and treasurer in his place. Ringing Masters, Messrs. L. Harris and W. Roberts, were re-elected, with Mr. F. Harris in place of Mr. Theobald, who had also been Ringing Master. Mr. L. Harris succeeds the Rev. — Davies, who has left Salisbury, on the committee.

Twenty-five members were elected, and the election of a non-resident member proposed prior to a peal confirmed.

Two ringers of very long service, Messrs. G. K. Norton and J. Sandell, were recommended to be submitted to the annual Guild meeting for election as hon. life members.

In the course of the elections it was mentioned that St. Martin's now had eight young lady ringers, five from the Godolphin School and three from the Training College. Votes of thanks included a tribute to the retiring secretary.

PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT MEETING.

At the annual meeting of the Portsmouth District, held at Fareham on January 18th, 48 members, friends and visitors attended from Alverstoke, Birmingham, Fareham, Hambleton, Liss, Loughborough, North Stoneham, Petersfield, Portsmouth (Cathedral and St. Mary's), Portsea, Shedfield, Titchfield and Wickham. Good use was made of the bells before the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. B. C. Daniell).

After the service an excellent tea was served in the Church of England School, thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Linter.

At the business meeting two minutes' silence was observed for Mr. H. Smith, of Wickham, an old member, who had been buried earlier in the afternoon. It was agreed that the cost of the wreath, given by Mr. Chappell on behalf of the ringers, be met by the Guild, and that the secretary send a letter of sympathy to the sons of Mr. Smith.

Mr. Linter and Mr. Burnett were unanimously re-elected as chairman and auditor respectively. As the district now has over 100 members, two members are allowed for the Central Committee, and these were found in Mr. L. P. Cook (re-elected) and Mr. T. Page.

The retiring secretary (Mr. R. J. Stone) expressed regret at leaving the district, and wished his successor (Mr. J. H. Hunt) and all members the best of luck in the future. A minute expressing appreciation of Mr. Stone's services was moved by the chairman (Mr. W. Linter).

Five new practising members were elected from Wickham, the election of 14 compounding members ratified and one new compounding member elected.

A letter from Mr. Pullinger suggesting a combined meeting of the Southampton, Portsmouth and Petersfield Districts at the Meon Valley towers (East Meon, West Meon and Privett), on August Bank Holiday, was agreed to as a very good proposition. Bishop's Waltham and Swanmore were selected for the next meeting on April 26th.

A vote of thanks was expressed by the Master (Mr. G. Williams) to all who made the meeting a success, including the Vicar, Mrs. Linter and the organist.

Methods practised during the afternoon and evening were Grandsire Doubles, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich, Cambridge and Sunerlative Surprise, London Surprise, and rounds and call changes for beginners.

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION

QUARTERLY MEETING AT STOURBRIDGE

Among the matters discussed at the quarterly meeting of the Northern Branch at St. Thomas', Stourbridge, on January 18th, were the ringing arrangements to celebrate the forthcoming 21st birthday of Princess Elizabeth. The meeting, under the chairmanship of the Rev. T. W. Keith-Murray (Vicar), decided that arrangements should be left in the hands of local bands of ringers.

The agenda included arrangements for the quarterly peal, which is to be attempted at Stourbridge, and fixing the next quarterly meeting at Redditch (with incumbent's permission) on June 21st. Monthly meetings on the third Saturdays in February, March and May were arranged at Wordsley, Brierley Hill and Bebbington respectively. The question of instructors for some towers with less experienced bands was raised, and it was resolved that the matter be referred to the Association Central Committee, with a view to the appointment of qualified men.

The service which preceded the meeting was conducted by the Vicar, and an excellent tea was provided by local ladies. A fair range of methods was practised, including Grandsire and Stedman, Plain Bob, Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob, Cambridge, London and Bristol Surprise.

THE ESSEX ASSOCIATION

MANY NEW MEMBERS IN S.W. DIVISION.

The annual meeting of the South-Western Division of the Essex Association was held at West Ham on January 11th and attended by 40 members and friends, towers represented being Fobbing, Wanstead, Leytonstone, Romford, Dagenham, Brentwood, Woodford, Hornchurch and Bentley, with visitors from Thorington and Chesterfield.

A delightful service, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Stafford Morris), included carols rendered by the choirboys. The Master (Mr. J. Chalk) thanked the Vicar on behalf of all present.

In opening the meeting, the Master referred to the deaths of three old and loyal members of the district, namely, Mr. W. Watson, of Romford, Mr. Hayes, of Loughton, and Mr. G. Brackley, of Shenfield, and asked the gathering to stand in silence.

The annual report, presented by the hon. secretary (Mr. J. H. Crampton), showed that good progress had been made in 1946. Elections were 29 ringing and seven honorary members, and membership now stood at 180 ringing members and 20 honorary members, with 25 towers affiliated in the district. Four district meetings and four 'crusade' meetings had been held, with an average attendance of 45 members. The bells of St. Edward's, Itouford, were again in ringing order, and a meeting had been held to mark their reopening.

The balance sheet showed an income of £18 4s. 6d., with a balance of £13 1s. 4d. to the general account.

Four new ringing members were elected, and the Rev. Stafford Morris elected an honorary member. It was proposed to hold the next meeting at Bentley on March 20th, and to hold 'crusade' meetings again this year, the first being at Romford on April 26th.

Mr. J. Chalk was re-elected District Master, Mr. J. H. Crampton hon. secretary and Messrs. G. Dawson and J. Armstrong committee members.

Some discussion followed regarding the raising of the annual subscription, and the majority of members present were in favour of increasing it to 2s. 6d.

Finally, Mr. E. J. Butler proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar, the organist, choirboys, the ladies for preparing cups of tea, and Mr. McPhail, the towerkeeper, which was carried with much applause. Ringing was renewed and methods rung ranged from Grand-sire to Cambridge Surprise Royal.

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD
WELLINGBOROUGH BRANCH ANNUAL MEETING.

Not since 1933 has the Wellingborough Branch met at Wellingborough, and the meeting on January 18th was popular, some 22 towers being represented. The Guild service was conducted by the Vicar (Canon C. C. Chambers) in the fine old Parish Church, the collection of £1 12s. 6d. being for the Bell Restoration Fund. A company of 88 sat down to tea.

The branch president (the Rev. W. R. Flex) presided at the annual meeting which followed. The report for 1946, presented by Mr. A. Bingley (hon. secretary), showed that 23 new members were elected during the year and two members re-elected. In addition, six lady ringing members were elected.

With two exceptions the officers were re-elected. Mr. W. G. Callis (Mears Ashby) succeeds Mr. I. R. Main as Ringing Master, and Mr. C. W. Partridge was elected to the branch committee in place of Mr. A. Boddington, who has left the district.

The meeting stood in silence in memory of Mr. Rupert Richardson. The secretary recalled his visit to the branch to show films of the Australian tour. Great Doddington was chosen for the next quarterly meeting. A vote of thanks to all concerned was proposed by Mr. J. R. Main (Finedon).

MISS H. G. SNOWDEN MASTER OF NORTHERN DISTRICT.

Fifty-two ringers attended the annual meeting of the Northern District at Braintree on January 18th. The Vicar (the Rev. Hartley Brook) gave an inspiring address at the service, the collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounting to £1 1s. 9d. Tea was served in the Church Hall.

Mr. L. W. Wiffen (District Master) presided over the business meeting, at which the district secretary's report was adopted. At the election of officers Mr. L. W. Wiffen expressed a wish to retire from the Mastership. Miss H. G. Snowden was elected his successor, Mr. H. A. Pratt was re-elected secretary, and Mr. H. W. Smith (Dunmow) and Mr. F. Claydon (Earls Colne) were elected district representatives to the General Committee. One new member from Black Notley was elected. Wethersfield was chosen for the next meeting on March 15th.

A discussion took place on the proposal to raise the subscriptions. A vote revealed that the majority of members were in favour of it being raised to 2s. 6d. per annum.

Mr. Mills (Bures) raised the question of broadcast ringing and outlined a proposal he was putting forward to the B.B.C. After discussing the matter, the meeting unanimously approved of Mr. Mills' plan.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, conducting the service and his address, and for having the tea in the Church Hall, also to Mr. L. W. Wiffen for his past services to the district, to Miss Snowden for playing the organ at the service, and to the ladies for preparing and serving the tea. Among those present were Mr. R. Heazel (association secretary) and Mr. H. Hammond, who is still a regular ringer at Braintree after 66 years' service. He is now 81 and he gave some amusing reminiscences.

After the meeting ringing was resumed on the tower bells. The towers represented were Halstead, Witham, Wickham St Paul's, Braintree, Harwich, Shimpling, Stanstead, Black Notley, Earls Colne, Colne Engaine, Dunmow, Pebmarsh, Sible Hedingham, Brentwood, Romford, Great Bardfield, Kelvedon, Thorington, Bures, Sawbridgeworth and Bocking.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION
BIGGLESWADE DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of the district at Biggleswade on January 11th was both pleasant and successful. Towers represented by the 42 members and friends present were Clifton, Southill, Henlow, Maulden, Blunham, Tempsford, Turvey, Risely, Biddenham, Brified, Great Barford, Northill, Sandy, Eaton Socon, Baldock, Meppershall, Bromham, Hitchin and Chatteris.

The Vicar (the Rev. S. B. Farbridge) presided at the business meeting, at which Mr. C. H. Harding was re-elected chairman and Mr. C. J. Ball hon. secretary. The committee were also re-elected, and three new members were added to the strength of the district. The Vicar was thanked by Mr. Ball for the use of the bells, as also were the Biggleswade ringers and their ladies for such an excellent tea, this vote of thanks being endorsed by Mr. D. Mears on behalf of the visitors.

Some good touches were rung, including Superlative Surprise, Cambridge Surprise, Double Norwich, Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Grandshire Triples, and rounds for the learners.

SUNNINGWELL, BERKSHIRE. — On Jan. 12th, at St. Leonard's Church, a quarter-neal of Doubles, comprising 240 Reverse Canterbury Pleasure, 240 Clifford Pleasure, 240 Pain Rob, 120 Old, 120 Norfolk, 240 April Day, 60 Grand-sire; F. J. Honey 1, Miss N. Honey 2, D. Wilkes 3, A. R. Pink (conductor) 4, J. Honey 5, W. Cudd 6. First quarter in seven methods by all except the conductor.

OBITUARY

RUPERT RICHARDSON.

Dear Sir,—I wish to add my tribute to one of the most human men it has been my good fortune to be associated with, and I can readily endorse the sentiments as expressed in your splendid leading article in 'The Ringing World' on January 17th and the appreciations by Messrs. Smallwood and Poole in this week's issue (January 24th). My association with Rupert extended over a period of 30 years, not only in Surfleet, but in many ringing centres throughout the land.

He was generosity and kindness personified, and I do not know of any other man who will be more greatly missed than Rupert Richardson, especially in Lincolnshire and Surfleet in particular, where he did a tremendous amount of spadework in teaching youngsters how to ring. As these young men in turn left the village for the towns or were called up for war service, his was a never ending job.

I particularly remember one of the large house parties at Surfleet, amongst whom was our late Editor, Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, who was taken very ill and had to return home. Rupert got his car and made the long journey to Woking, Surrey, and, after seeing Mr. Goldsmith comfortable, returned to Surfleet the same day.

Rupert's work for the church, where he was churchwarden for many years, was well known, and one of his last generous gifts was an electric clock to replace the existing old clock in the tower of Surfleet Church.

To his widow and daughter our thoughts turn in the tremendous loss they have sustained, and may God in his great mercy grant them health and strength to carry on with the good work as we know Rupert would wish.

ALBERT WALKER.

Birmingham.

MR. GEORGE M. THORPE.

The death is announced with regret of Mr. George M. Thorpe, of Dore, Sheffield, aged 53, who was accidentally killed while cycling to work on January 17th. A lorry travelling in the same direction pulled towards the left to turn into Shoreham Street, Sheffield. The cycle was knocked down under Mr. Thorpe, who fell under the wheels of the lorry.

Mr. Thorpe had been captain and steeple-keeper of Christ Church, Dore, for a number of years. He was not a great peal ringer, having rung 10 or 11 neals, but he was very fond of the social side of ringing, being a regular supporter of meetings in the Peak District.

The funeral took place at Dore on January 22nd. There was a service at Christ Church, and a course of Grandshire Triples was rung at the graveside by W. Alwood 1-2, H. Taylor 3-4, J. Thorpe 5-6, H. O. Chaddock 7-8. The tower bells at Dore were rung open after the interment. Four of his fellow workers from Messrs. Hodkin and Jones, Ltd., where he was production manager in the concrete department, acted as bearers.

STAFFORD ARCHDEACONRY SOCIETY

A quarterly meeting of the Stafford Archdeaconry Society was held at Christ Church, West Bromwich, on January 19th, when upwards of 40 members attended from Bradley, Coseley, Darlaston, Erdington, Lichfield, Tamworth, Walsall, Wednesbury, West Bromwich (All Saints'), Willenhall and Wolverhampton (St. Luke's and St. Peter's).

At the service the Rev. C. H. Barker read the prayers and an address was delivered by the Vicar (the Rev. Frank Jones). Tea was laid at a nearby restaurant. Mention was made of the passing of Mr. Rupert Richardson, a life member, and as a mark of respect the assembly stood in silence.

A bi-annual meeting is to be held at Cannock on March 8th and the next quarterly at Brewwood on April 12th.

THREE PEALS NOT COUNTED

On the assumption that the peal published in this issue is the last to be recorded for 1946, there were 1,797 peals rung during the year, which includes 240 on handbells. This is a substantial advance on 1945, when the number was 1,304, with 173 in hand. Peal ringing has now reached a state almost equal to that in pre-war years—in rosy years the number exceeded 2,000. The expanding number of peals creates a problem for the Editor; arrears so far have been dealt with by the occasional 16-page issue we are allowed, but if the same ratio of progress is forthcoming in 1947, then editorial ingenuity will have to be employed to provide accommodation. This peal ringing is a healthy sign, and denotes a pleasing vigour among a number of associations.

Three of the peals published in 'The Ringing World' have not been counted by the Peals Analysis Committee in their total for 1946. The committee's recommendation in this case requires the ratification of the Central Council, and it is probable that this will be challenged. The first exception relates to a peal rung at Norton, Stoke-on-Trent, on September 28th, for the North Staffordshire Association. This peal of Minor in seven methods was rung with a non-ringing conductor, and in the opinion of the committee it is not in accordance with the following decision of the Council: 'That no other person than those ringing in the peal shall take part in the calling or in rectifying an error.'

The second exception of the committee was respecting a peal of Minor in three methods (Oxford, Kent and Plain Bob) rung at Sefton, Liverpool, for the Lancashire Association with the tenor covering. The wording of the decision reads: 'The Council has declared its mind as follows: On six bells. That peals of Minor consist of at least seven true and complete 720's, the bells striking round only once at the end of each and immediately going into the next.' No mention is made in this decision of a covering bell, and as covering bells are specifically mentioned in regard to peals of seven, nine and eleven bells, the committee are not recommending this peal.

The final exception is in regard to a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Basingstoke, on October 12th. Here, again, rejection has been argued on omission and not on a definite negative. The decision states: 'On eight, ten or twelve bells. That there be no less than 5,000 true changes rung without interval.' This is unquestionably a matter for argument. The Peals Analysis Committee recognise that the law of England is built up on precedent, and when applied to bellringing the traditional procedure does give a lead. No rule or law exists on which some clever person might not devise some means of circumventing what is in view. In order that the Exercise at large can take a considered opinion of the points at issue, the Peals Analysis Committee have wisely lost no time in making known their recommendations.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

This seems to be an issue of youth. Apart from Mary R. Jaycock, of Burnham, who rang her first peal at the tender age of 12 years and 9 months, there is John E. Manners (13) at Swindon, Joyce Eng'land (16), Beddington, and Basil Osborne (16), Hasketon, Suffolk, who started change ringing less than six months ago. Good wishes to you all for a happy ringing career.

Linton, Kent, is the seventh tower in which Mr. Thomas F. Sone has 'completed the circle' as a conductor, the peal being called on Jan. 18th. Now then, 'circle specialists,' who has more towers to his credit?

To the Editor's collection of ringing cartoons has been added that which appeared in 'The Bulletin and Scots Pictorial' on December 30th. It depicts the haggard steeplekeeper oiling his bells and muttering, 'Crazy, that's what they are, plain crazy. Nae whisky, nae meat, nae coal, nae nothing. And yet they want the bells rung.'

Certain back numbers of 'The Ringing World' from 1943-1946 can be obtained from Anonymous, Aith, Little Chalfont, Amersham, Bucks, but carriage must be refunded.

Correction.—The ringer of the 4th in the peal of Cambridge Surprise at Milton-next-Gravesend on December 28th was Arthur S. Richards, not Alfred S. Richards as published.

Records kept by Wickham, Hants, ringers show that 75 complete 720's were rung during 1946. Of these 49 were rung at Wickham, 9 Titchfield, 8 Swanmore, 5 Bishop's Waltham, 2 each Soberton and Hambledon. Forty-two ringers took part, and the methods were Plain Bob 33, Oxford Single 26, Kent Treble Bob 10, College Single 6. G. E. Chappel conducted 42 and eight ringers rang their first 720.

BELFRY GOSSIP

To those correspondents who have kept the Editor and the Exercise informed concerning 'William Green,' we would point out that the matter is now sub judice until after his trial at Warwick Assizes.

Arrangements are being made by the Royal Society of Cumberland Youths to celebrate their bicentenary by a service and dinner in London in July.

Miss Pauline Jackson, whose first peal is recorded this week at Monken Hadley, Middlesex, was introduced to ringing less than 12 months ago. The name of Mrs. T. J. Lock appears in the peal columns for the first time; her last success was scored on April 5th, 1938, when she was Miss K. M. Bradford.

To be commended is what took place at evensong at St. Mary's Church, Gayton, Northants, on January 19th. Instead of the sermon, Mr. P. Amos gave a talk on bells and ringing illustrated with lantern slides. Church-people's knowledge of bells is frequently vague.

Mr. B. A. Knights, of Preston, writes that he called the peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major published in our last issue at Higher Walton, Lancs, on September 29th, 1934. Our Kentish friends must bow the knee to Lancashire!

Although William H. Male, of Warwick, has yet to attempt a peal on bells, he accomplished Holt's Six-Part peal of Grandsire Triples in three hours and four minutes on his violin. This was on January 29th. The strings of the violin were plucked in the style of a banjo, and the notes of the bells he reproduced from figures. The 'peal' was witnessed by Mr. T. Male, who turned the pages of the book containing the figures. Mr. Male believes in plenty of pencil and paper for learning a method. He has already written out seven peals of Grandsire in full, including John Garthorn's peal at Norwich in 1718.

BISHOP OF LONDON THANKS RINGERS

DEDICATION AT ACTON OF PEAL RECORD.

St. Mary's Church, Acton, is held in affectionate regard by members of the Middlesex Association. This ring of eight has not its own company, but the bells are rung on special occasions by the Association, a service most readily given which is appreciated by the Rector (the Rev. Percival Gough) and members of his congregation.

Recognition of this service has been expressed in a most gracious and generous manner. The Rector arranged for the seven peals rung at his church since the lifting of the ban on ringing to be specially recorded. This record is to be placed at the entrance to the tower and is of exquisite craftsmanship by Mr. E. M. Wilson, an artist of repute. The lettering is based on 10th century MSS., regarded as the finest period of English writing.

The dedication of this record of peals took place last Saturday in the presence of some 100 members of the Association. The service was of a three-fold purpose, other features being an act of commemoration to those ringers of the Middlesex Association who gave their lives during the war and to the children of Acton who lost their lives during air raids.

The seven peals recorded are as follows: Oct. 28th, 1944, Bob Major rung half-muffled in memory of Archbishop Temple; on Dec. 30th, 1944, Kent Treble Bob Major, an act of thanksgiving for seven centuries of Christian worship at St. Mary's, Acton; March 17th, 1945, Spliced Surprise Major, an act of praise; April 21st, 1945, Grandsire Triples for the enthronement of Geoffrey Fisher as Archbishop of Canterbury; May 8th, 1945, Grandsire Triples, to commemorate the conclusion of the war with Germany; Aug. 29th, 1945, Stedman Triples, conclusion of the war in the Far East; Oct. 24th, 1945, Stedman Triples in memory of the children of Acton who lost their lives in air raids.

Of special interest to the ringers was the message read during the service by the Rector from the Bishop of London. It stated:—

'I hear that you are shortly to unveil a record of the changes rung by the Diocesan and Middlesex ringers. I should be grateful if you would kindly let them know how much I appreciate the work they have done. I understand that the record included peals rung on the occasion of the death of the late Archbishop and on the enthronement of the present Archbishop. I am sure that we are all glad of the honour done to the presiding Prelate of our Church in this province. I should like to thank the ringers for their keenness, not only in my own name, but in that of the diocese.'

The lesson was read by Mr. E. C. S. Turner, general secretary of the association. Two carols appropriate to ringing, 'Ding Dong' and 'Bell Carol', were sung by the choir, and a touch of Bob Major was rung on handbells by W. G. Wilson 1-2, E. C. S. Turner 3-4, Eric E. Dench 5-6, Frederick W. Goodfellow 7-8.

Preb. W. P. Cole Sheane, president of the association, following the unveiling of the record of peals, read the names of those members of the Middlesex Association who lost their lives in the war. These were: F. H. A. Braybrooke, Ruislip; D. E. Cambell, C'apton; W. J. W. Davey, Hillingdon; W. R. Madgwick, Shepherds Bush; L. A. Royal, Pinner; L. R. Senior, Harrow; D. N. Sharp, Welling; R. Tinsley, Hadley; A. J. B. Wayman, Teddington; S. H. Wood, Bristol.

THE MINISTRY OF BELLRINGING.

The dedication of the record was by Canon Leonard Hodgson, D.D., Regius Professor of Divinity, Christ Church, Oxford, who also gave the address. Bellringing, he said, was the one form of music that directly and clearly spoke to them of God above everything else. There were so many kinds of music—military music that made them think of war, dance music and that of other different associations—but the one thing that the ringing of bells spoke to them of was the truth of God, involving them in loyalty to Him. The bells reminded them of God's love and care.

Whether they were in the country and heard bells coming across the fields or in the cities where above the clangour of traffic they still heard the bells, their message reminded them of the underlying truth of the loving care of God, who was constantly seeking to inspire them. Let them thank God for the ministry of bellringing and as they dedicated this record of their work dedicate themselves in two ways — to remember Him with gratitude, thanksgiving and hope and with the certain knowledge that those they were commemorating were in His keeping, and, secondly, to dedicate themselves with devotion to Him and His Kingdom.

Tea was served in the vestry to visiting ringers by ladies of the congregation. At the conclusion there was an unexpected tribute paid to Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey, hon. secretary of S. and W. District, Middlesex Association, who had assisted in arranging for the service. The Rector presented him with the original cartoon of Mr. Cockey, which appeared in the current issue of 'The Acton Gazette,' silhouetted against a background formed by a drawing of St. Mary's tower.

Expressions of thanks were to Dr. Hodgson, voiced by Mr. E. C. S. Turner, and to the Rector and ladies of the congregation by Mr. A. W. Coles.

Towers represented were Acton St. Mary's, Barrow-in-Furness, Beckenham (Kent), Cranford, Ealing (St. Stephen's, Christ Church and St. Mary's), Edmonton, Feltham, Finchley, Guildford, Hampton, Harlington, Hatfield, Hayes, Hillingdon (St. John's and St. Andrew's), Kensington (St. Mary Abbot's), Kingston-on-Thames, Lowestoft, North Mimms, Northrepps (Norfolk), Ruislip, Stoke Poges, Thames Ditton, Uxbridge, Wallasey, Westminster and Willesden St. Mary. Ringing was supervised by Mr. F. G. Baldwin (Ringing Master) and Mr. F. A. Finch (Deputy Master) and included Surprise.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

SOUTH-EASTERN DISTRICT ANNUAL

Galleywood proved a popular rendezvous for the annual meeting of the South-Eastern District on January 18th, when a company of 55 were present. The Vicar (the Rev. F. A. Roughton), who presided at the meeting, conducted the service, at which the collection of £2 1s. was for the association's Bell Restoration Fund.

Prior to the business meeting the members stood in silence in remembrance of Mr. F. Radley and the Rev. J. H. Upton, who had recently died.

The hon. secretary reported that seven meetings had been held during 1946 with an average attendance of 41, which afforded much encouragement to the district officers. Collections taken for the Bell Restoration Fund at these meetings amounted to £7 1s. 7d.

Mr. H. J. Mansfield was unanimously re-elected District Master, and as the retiring hon. secretary did not wish to be renominated, Mr. A. H. Everett, of Rose Cottage, New Hall, Boreham, was elected to this office. Mr. Shadrack was thanked for his work as hon. secretary during the last 13 years, and Messrs. L. A. Simmonds and R. Thrift were elected to the committee. Miss R. Eves, of Galleywood, was elected a ringing member and it was decided to hold the next meeting at Rettendon on March 8th.

The District Master brought to the notice of the members a proposition to increase the association's subscriptions. Congratulations were extended to Mr. G. Green, who will complete 60 years as a ringer at Great Baddow on February 14th. Ringing continued till 9 p.m. and ranged from rounds to Superlative.

Alias 'Mr. Green'

COMMITTED TO THE ASSIZES.

Michael Mulcahy (74), of no fixed address, was committed to the Warwick Assizes at Nuneaton Magistrates' Court on January 30th on charges of obtaining £1 by false pretences from Mrs. Billington at Nuneaton and 15s. from Ernest Morris at Leicester on Jan. 12th.

Mr. Ernest Morris, verger at St. Margaret's Church, Leicester, said that at the start of the evening service, accused came to him and said Mr. Hobson, of St. Nicholas' Church, 'had sent him. Accused said he had a son in hospital and he had been sent for. He was stranded and needed 14s. 3d. for his fare home to Leominster.

'I believed him—he seemed genuine enough,' said Mr. Morris. 'He gave me his name as Mr. Green, Ringing Master at Ludlow Church.'

Mulcahy was arrested at Kettering. When charged, it was stated, he admitted the offence and a number of other similar offences.

RINGERS' WELCOME TO SALVATION ARMY AT TROWBRIDGE

The peal of Grandsire Caters at Trowbridge, reported in our peal columns this week, has a special significance in view of the fact that one of the bells, at the time of recasting and augmentation from ten to twelve, about ten years ago, was contributed by the Trowbridge Salvation Army, through the interest and efforts of their Adjutant at the time, Captain Fenson. This bell is now known as the Salvation Army bell. Mr. S. Hector (Sam) was mainly responsible for the augmentation.

Major Fenson is no longer at Trowbridge, but during the week ending January 20th he paid a short visit to his old charge, which fortunately came to the knowledge of Sam, who arranged that a welcome by the church bells should be accorded to such a distinguished benefactor to the town and church in particular. The standard of striking of the peal was very high.

After completing the peal, the ringers were most generously entertained to tea by the Salvation Army at their quarters, and the ringers wish to record their very deep appreciation to their Salvation Army friends for such a hearty welcome and grand reiteration of goodwill between the Salvation Army and the Church.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

MEETING AT BATTERSEA.

A well-represented and successful meeting, attended by some 40 to 50 members and friends, was held at St. Mary's, Battersea, on January 11th. The start to the ringing was, however, slightly delayed owing to the presence of workmen at the top of the steeple. Subsequently the bells were kept going during the afternoon and evening, the ringing ranging from rounds to London Surprise Major. The Vicar of St. Mary's conducted a lively service, which incorporated a most interesting address.

An excellent tea, business meeting and handbell ringing took place in the Parish Hall. Two elections were ratified and three new members elected as follows: Ratifications, Mr. E. R. Randle (West Grinstead) and Mr. G. E. Green (Wicken, North Hants); new members, Miss Ann Dixon (Streatham), Miss Joan Smith (Oatlands Park) and Miss Audrey Castle (Merton).

In order to ensure that no important historical facts were omitted from the association's article for 'The Ringing World,' a committee was elected to 'vet' the final draft before submission.

The nominations of officers were received for election at the annual meeting at St. James', Clerkenwell, on February 8th. Hope was expressed that as many towers as possible in the London area would enter teams for the handbell contest, which would follow the annual meeting. The main consideration for this contest is that each team should ring a plain course of any method on eight bells.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

C. T. Coles Memorial

Dear Sir,—At the annual general meeting of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, held at Kilburn on May 11th, 1946, it was decided that the late Mr. C. T. Coles' great work for the association be commemorated by a suitable memorial. Apart from acting as secretary of the North and East District and one of the joint hon. secretaries from 1910 to 1938 and general secretary from 1938 to 1945, Mr. Coles was a most prominent figure in the Exercise. He represented the Middlesex County Association on the Central Council from 1921 to his death early in 1946 and was one of its most respected members.

It is suggested that the form of the memorial be decided upon when the result of this appeal is ascertained, but we hope that sufficient will be raised to provide one or more bells towards a peal in one of the war damaged churches to be rebuilt in the London Diocese.

Contributions should be sent to the General Secretary, E. C. S. Turner, 41, Windsor Road, Ealing, W.5.

W. P. COLE SHEANE (President), A. W. COLES, W. H. COLES (Vice-Presidents), J. E. LEWIS COCKEY, Thomas J. LOCK (District Secretaries), Ernest C. S. TURNER (General Secretary).

THE LATE MR. C. R. LILLEY

Dear Sir,—I was interested in the reference of Mr. A. N. Wood to leading ringers of the Bedfordshire Association, particularly to my late father, C. R. Lilley. I enclose some records from my father's books re the Bedfordshire Association.

Bedford St. Paul.—May 24th, 1897, peal Treble Bob Major (Kent). First peal in the method by entirely a Bedford company.

Bedford St. Paul.—Oct. 21st, 1897, peal Treble Bob Royal (Kent). First peal of Royal by the Bedford Association, and first peal of Royal on the bells.

Cardington, Beds, St. Mary's.—March 8th, 1902, peal of Superlative Surprise Major. First peal in the method in the county.

Houghton Regis, Beds, St. Michael.—July 5th, 1902, peal of Minor. First peal on the bells and first change ringing ever done on the bells.

Arlesey, Beds, St. Peter.—July 19th, 1902, Minor. First peal on the bells.

Leighton Buzzard, All Saints.—Peal Bob Major, April 25th, 1903. First peal of Major on the bells.

Handbell's, St. Neots, Hunts.—The Fly and Bedford Associations, June 21st, 1903, peal Treble Bob Major, conducted by C. R. Lilley. First peal in method in hand by the associations. The same associations at Bedford, Treble Bob Major, Nov. 7th, 1903. The first peal ever rung in hand in the county of Bedford.

Southill, Beds, All Saints.—Nov. 13th, 1906, peal of Minor. First peal on bells. Conductor, C. R. Lilley.

Bedford St. Paul.—Jan 11th, 1898, peal of Bob Royal. First peal of Bob Royal on the bells and first by the Bedford Association.—Yours faithfully, J. E. LILLEY.

Highweek, Newton Abbot.

PEAL AT PARBOLD

Dear Sir,—The peal rung at Parbold, published in 'The Ringing World' of January 24th, was not the first peal on the bells. Two trebles were added to the peal of six recently. The first peal on what are now the back six was rung on November 6th, 1920. It was a peal of Plain Bob, seven extents, called differently by myself.

The only difference to those six bells as far as the metal is concerned is that they are like the writer—older. The note should have read: 'First on the augmented peal.'—Yours, F. RIGBY.

Chorley, Lancs.

Youngest Girl Peal Ringers

Dear Sir,—I do think that we should be able to trace not only our youngest girl, but also our youngest boy peal ringer through the medium of our own 'Ringing World,' and not have to depend on daily papers for this information. I have been told in the past that this prominence gives the youngster a 'swelled head.' Under correct instruction no child will suffer from a swelled head.

Some time back I remember two ten-year-old boys taking part in peals, to wit, A. R. Price's youngest boy and Cecil Pipe's son, both well-known ringers. Naturally I am proud of the young ones that I have had the pleasure of teaching, and with my youngest yet, Mary R. Jaycock, Burnham, becoming the youngest girl to ring a peal of Major, I am more than satisfied (particularly as one member in the peal said she rang like a seasoned veteran).

The youngest girl (a pupil of mine) to ring a peal was Nancy Denyer, who on December 14th, 1923, rang a peal of Bob Major at the age of 13 at Aldershot. This as a peal of Major stood until October 31st, 1946, when within seven days of her 13th birthday Mavis Whitehead rang a peal of Bob Major at Kibworth. Then on January 11th of this year (at the age of 12 years 9 months), Mary R. Jaycock rang the third to a peal of Bob Major at Burnham, bringing back for me the Major record held by a pupil of mine for 24 years (it was only lost for two months in Major). We must, however, raise our hats to Mavis Whitehead as our youngest girl peal ringer, as she (at the age of 12 years and 7 days) rang the treble to a peal of Grandsire Triples in November, 1945.

Would it be asking too much for the parents of our youngest boy and girl peal ringers or their instructors to send, and you to publish, the dates of first peals by them, what the peal was and where rung and what bell they rang?—Yours, GEORGE GILBERT.

Burnham, Bucks.

RINGERS' NAMES ON BELLS

Dear Sir,—The following is a copy of the inscription on the treble bell at Ilmington, Warwickshire: 'Thanks be to God who giveth us victory and peace, 1921. (Rector and churchwardens' names.) H. L. Terry, Ringing Master.'

It would be interesting to know the correct term for the leading ringer. They are sometimes described as captain, foreman, leader or ringing master.—Yours faithfully, T. BOND.

Burford, Oxon.

NOT A GUILD PEAL

Dear Sir,—Re peal of Doubles rung at Yarn-ton, Oxon, on November 2nd, 1946, this peal must be deleted from the records of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, as W. Durham, ringer of the 4th, was not a member of the Guild.—Yours sincerely, WILLIAM HIBBERT.

Basingstoke, Hants.

MRS. RICHARDSON'S THANKS

Dear Sir,—It is very hard indeed to find words adequate enough to express my thanks for the very kind words written about my husband, Rupert Richardson. It is impossible to answer the numerous letters personally, but I do hope that everyone will understand and will accept my heartfelt thanks through the medium of 'The Ringing World.'

As I have now been elected captain of the Surfleet band, Enid and I hope to be able to carry on in the way he would wish so that any ringer coming to the district will know they have a hearty welcome waiting for them in the belfry of St. Lawrence's, Surfleet, and also at Glyn Garth.

Surfleet.

ANNIE RICHARDSON.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM AYRE.

The York Minster Society has lost one of its most valued members by the death on January 19th of Mr. William Ayre, a brother of Mr. Walter Ayre, hon. secretary of the Hertford County Association.

He was a member of the York Society from 1915-1920, when he removed to Hull. On returning to York in 1937 he rejoined the Minster company and was an enthusiastic and loyal comrade.

At the funeral service at Heworth Church on January 22nd a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells in the chancel immediately after the prayers, the ringers being L. Woodcock 1-2, E. Rickitt 3-4, T. F. Earnshaw 5-6, S. Steel 7-8. Other ringers present were G. Horner, F. Atkinson and H. Forden. The interment was at Fulford Cemetery. The sympathy of the society is extended to the widow, who shares her bereavement with her daughter.

Mr. Ayre is the fifth member of the York Minster company to pass away in approximately 3½ years.

MR. H. W. EMMETT.

By the sudden death of Mr. Harold W. Emmett, Prestwich tower has lost its second ringer this year. Although shy and diffident and by no means an avid peal ringer, his prompt and regular attendance for both service and practice ringing made him an irreplaceable asset to the band. F.R.

THE REV. A. C. TRANTER.

The Rev. A. C. Tranter, Vicar of Egham, who died on January 31st, although not a ringer, was a keen supporter of any activity concerned with the art. He was an hon. member of the Guildford Diocesan Guild and was held in affectionate regard by a wide circle of ringing friends. W.A.P.

BEVERLEY RINGING SOCIETY

Beverley and District Ringing Society started the New Year well with a well-attended meeting at St. James', Sutton-on-Hull, where a good touch of Grandsire Caters was rung for the service, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. Reynolds).

Mr. G. F. Williams (president) presided at the business meeting, which followed tea. The Rev. G. Storer was happy to announce further contributions to Hutton Cranswick Bell Fund, including £100 and another of £50.

The Rev. L. Reynolds expressed the hope that the society's aim to raise a good band of ringers for every tower in the area would be realised and that the Sutton team in particular would soon reach their former standard. The February meeting will be held at Pocklington.

COVENTRY DIOCESAN GUILD

A notice of motion was given by Mr. W. A. Stote at the quarterly meeting of the Guild on January 18th at Nuneaton that at the annual meeting he would propose that the positions of president and master be dispensed with and the two offices combined under the title of 'Master of the Guild.' If put to the vote, he said, the ballot would be secret. Mr. L. Trevor intimated that he would support the motion.

The Vicar (the Rev. F. S. Herbert), who conducted the service, presided at the meeting, at which the new members elected were R. Sanders, L. Sanders, R. Parker, R. Gee (Nuneaton), H. Dodd (Bedworth). The election of J. Statham, T. Chambers and J. A. Prentice as non-resident life members prior to a peal was ratified.

The members stood in silence as a mark of respect for Mr. O. Freeman, of Stoke, Coventry, who was interred the previous Wednesday.

Ringing included London and Bristol Surprise.

Guild of Devonshire Ringers

SIDBURY'S PROSPECTIVE OCTAVE.

A well-attended meeting of East Devon Branch was held at Sidbury on January 18th. The church is very interesting architecturally, with a Saxon crypt and a good deal of Norman work. A room over the porch is known as the 'Powder Room,' having been used as an armoury during Napoleonic invasion scares when women with red cloaks were trained to represent soldiers marching up and down.

The service was conducted by the Rev. H. Taylor, with the Rev. W. S. Airy reading the lesson. A sumptuous tea, with cream and jam 'splits,' was given by parishioners and friends.

At the business meeting the Rev. W. S. Airy was in the chair and 17 new members were enrolled. Mr. M. Denner, making a good debut as a speaker, referred to a gift of one bell by the Rev. W. S. and Mrs. Airy, alluded to the fact that Mr. C. Pinn had been captain of Sidbury ringers for 50 years and suggested that his services should be suitably recognised.

Sidbury at present has a ring of six, restored a few years ago by Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, and all in good going order. It is understood that they will carry out the work of adding two bells by Easter, 1948, and that funds for a bell to go with that given by Mr. and Mrs. Airy are already well assured. The prospective octave will be of handy weight and a distinct acquisition for East Devon.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

CAMBRIDGE DISTRICT MEETING.

Members and friends from Cambridge, Eastbourne, Fulbourn, Little Shelford, Newmarket, Sawston, Seaford (Sussex), Trumpington and the Cambridge University Guild attended the annual meeting of the Cambridge District on January 18th. The service at St. Andrew-the-Great was conducted by the Rev. W. W. Tyms in the absence of the president (the Rev. P. O. D. Chamier) through illness. Tea at the Parish Room was kindly provided by Mrs. Chamier, and a collection towards the cost of the recent repair of the tenor bell amounted to £12s. 6d.

Officers elected at the meeting, presided over by Mr. T. R. Dennis, were: President, the Rev. P. O. D. Chamier (with wishes for a speedy recovery); district secretary, Mr. H. L. Martin; Ringing Master, Miss K. Willers; committee, Messrs. C. W. Cook, T. R. Dennis, F. Hurry, A. Hurst, E. Chapman and E. G. Hibbins. Master David Mann was elected a member.

Ring was at St. Andrew's and the tower of Our Lady and the English Martyrs, and ranged from rounds to London Surprise Major. The next meeting will be at Stapleford on February 15th.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION

ST. ALBANS' NEW SECRETARY.

'A reasonably satisfactory year,' reported the secretary (Mr. R. Darvill), at the annual meeting of the St. Albans District at St. Albans on January 18th. Nine meetings had been held and seven peals rung with regular ringing at the majority of towers.

Mr. A. Lawrence presided and six new members were elected. The secretary did not seek re-election owing to pressure of other duties, and the Ringing Master (Mr. A. Day) also retired, stating that he believed frequent changes of this post had a beneficial effect.

Thanks were expressed to Mr. Darvill for his good work during a difficult period, and the following elections were carried: Secretary, Mr. T. J. Southam; deputy secretary, Mr. H. V. Frost; Ringing Master, Mr. C. F. Saver; committee, Messrs. R. Darvill, H. V. Frost, A. Day, A. Lawrence and A. W. Coles. St. Albans was chosen for the next annual meeting.

The service was held at St. Peter's Church and conducted by the Rev. G. Roe (Rector of Wheathamstead) and ringing took place at the Cathedral and St. Peter's.

Chester Diocesan Guild

25 YEARS AS SECRETARY.

After serving as secretary of the Chester Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild for 25 years, Mr. J. W. Clarke resigned his office on January 11th. The occasion was the annual meeting of the branch, held at the Cathedral, which was attended by a large number of members and visitors from North Wales and places as far distant as Plymouth. In expressing thanks to tower secretaries for their help and support during his term of office, Mr. Clarke asked for similar support for his successor, Mr. G. Griffiths.

The royal visit to the city was recalled by the chairman, the Dean of Chester, when he read extracts from the booklet issued to the 'Friends of the Cathedral' giving details of the presentation of the ringers to their Majesties and of the interest they showed in the ringers' art.

Special prayers were said for the Guild at the choral evensong, and tea was served in the ancient refectory of the Abbey.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

CREWKERNE DEANERY MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association (Crewkerne Deanery) was held at Ilminster on January 11th, when over 40 members were present. Officers elected were: Chairman, the Rev. G. G. Hickman, R.D.; vice-chairman, the Rev. Strutt Kennedy; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. T. Locke.

Towers represented were Ilminster, Barrington, Chard, Bristol (St. George's), Drayton, Kingstone, Bridgwater, Curry Rivel, Shepton-Beauchamp, Wellington, West Buckland, Yeovil, Burescombe, Puckington, Welwyn Garden City, Herts. There were eleven new members elected, including eight ladies from Puckington.

DERBY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

THREE NEW CONDUCTORS.

A successful meeting was held at St. Peter's, Derby, on Jan. 11th, when about 30 ringers attended, including the Rev. D. P. Roberts (Liverpool), Mr. B. Key (Burton) and Mr. E. Beadmoore (Ashby). An excellent tea was provided by Miss Wickman, assisted by ringers' wives, and at the tea the Vicar, the Rev. C. A. Shaw, gave an individual welcome to everyone.

At the business meeting Mr. Victor Taylor was appointed chairman for the District Committee, Mr. W. A. Parsons secretary, and Mr. Fred Shaw (Ilkeston) and Mr. Walter Shaw (Alvaston) as committee.

The general secretary (Mr. W. Lancaster) gave the information that eight peals had been rung during the past year, that six had rung their first peal, 21 first in the method, and three first as conductors.

A wide range of methods was rung during the meeting.

BARNSELY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

Canon W. E. Wilkinson (hon. president) presided at the annual meeting of the Barnsley and District Society at Barnsley on January 11th, when the following towers were represented: Bolsterstone, Cawthorne, Darton, Darfield, Eastwood, Felkirk, Monk Bretton, Ossett, Rawmarsh, Sandal, Shelley and Wath.

Officials re-elected were: President, Mr. J. R. Brearley (Bolsterstone); treasurer, Mr. H. Chant (Kelkirk); secretary, Mr. D. Smith (Felkirk); auditors, Mr. R. Ford and Mr. L. Steele. Messrs. H. Chant and D. Smith were elected representatives on the Central Council for the next three years.

The secretary was instructed to write to the Rector of High Hayland to see if it would be possible to restore the six bells which have been silent in that tower for many years. The next meeting will be held at Ossett on Feb. 8th.

Canon Wilkinson conducted the service, and the ringing in a variety of methods was most enjoyable.

Kent County Association

LEWISHAM DISTRICT.

Some 60 ringers and friends attended the quarterly meeting of the Lewisham District at Crayford on January 25th, enjoying scenery that was reminiscent of Alpine views, a warm welcome from the clergy and local ringers, the use of a beautiful peal of bells, a tea that didn't by any means emphasise austerity, and the opportunity to congratulate Mr. E. Barnett on the completion of 50 years' membership of the Kent County Association.

The association's service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. H. H. Hurwood). At the business meeting Mr. P. J. Stewart (churchwarden) presided. Nineteen new members, from Beckenham, Chislehurst, Crayford, Eltham and Sidcup, were elected. West Wickham was selected for the next meeting on April 26th.

The members unanimously recorded their congratulations to Mr. E. Barnett on celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of his election into the association, at Crayford, in January, 1897. Mr. Barnett, replying, thanked the members for their generous remarks, and delighted them by citing memories campanological and sartorial with honourable mention of Crayford's bells and his own first pair of long trousers!

It was agreed to arrange, if possible, the annual joint meeting with the N.W. Division, Surrey Association, in June. The meeting concluded with votes of thanks.

Further ringing on handbells and in the tower continued throughout the evening. Towers represented were Beckenham, Chislehurst, Crayford, Dartford, Erith (St. John's and Christ Church), Eltham, Lee, Lewisham, West Wickham and Woolwich, with welcome visitors from London and Gravesend.

EDENBRIDGE—A POPULAR MEETING.

A reputation of Edenbridge as a Stedman tower was well upheld at the meeting of the Tonbridge District on January 4th. Several touches of the method were successfully brought home on this easy running ring of eight, which afforded considerable enjoyment to the gratifyingly large company, despite the fact that the ropes were new and a little playful.

The Vicar (the Rev. E. A. Graham) conducted the service, and after the ringers had been liberally entertained to tea at the Church House by the joint efforts of the Vicar, the local band, the congregation and a number of lady helpers, he consented to take the chair at the business meeting.

The secretary's report on past tower visits and the possibility of a rotational system of visits for the future was read and adopted. By-meetings were arranged for Cranbrook in May, Kilndown in June, Sandhurst in August, and Lamberhurst in September.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

For 23 years Canon Coleridge has been chairman of the Sonning Deanery Branch. At the annual meeting at Wokingham on January 18th his resignation was received, the Canon stating that he felt through advancing years and failing hearing it was time another was appointed. The meeting decided to elect him president of the branch. The Ven. Thorndike Shaw (Rector of St. Paul's, Wokingham) was appointed the new chairman. Other officers were elected.

The 90 members and friends present included the Rev. C. E. Wigg, Capt. Poyntz, Mr. W. Hibbert and Mr. A. D. Barker. The branch voted £10 from its reserve fund towards the cost of rehanging St. Paul's bells. Encouraging speeches were made by the Master, the Deputy Master and the treasurer of the Guild.

The Rev. C. S. Edgington (Waltham St. Lawrence) preached at the Guild service; tea in the Parish Room was prepared by Mrs. Brooks and her helpers, and ringing was carried on until 9 p.m.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION NORTH AND EAST DISTRICT MEETING.

The annual meeting of the North and East District was held at St. Giles-in-the-Fields on January 18th, and was well attended. Nine meetings had been held during the past year and were supported by an average of 38 ringers. The two joint meetings were considered to have been successful. The district had lost three of its members through death, including Mr. C. T. Coles, its valued and highly respected vice-president. One honorary, 18 non-resident life and 28 ringing members had been elected. Of the 27 quarter-peals reported 16 shared in the conducting. The secretary (Mr. T. J. Lock) urged for more recruits to fully man the bells in their proper use for Sunday service ringing and looked forward to this, the fiftieth year of the association's existence, being witnessed by much greater activity.

New members elected were G. Cheshire and Miss Payne (Stanmore); D. and J. Towers, R. Beckett, R. Flitter, J. Roberts and E. Hawkins (St. Andrew's, Enfield); E. Thurlow (Pinner); D. Birkinshaw, S. Pacey and Mrs. Pacey (Kilburn); and D. Tinsley, A. Edge and the Misses Jackson, Gardener and Hunwicke (Monken Hadley); and F. Coley (Crayford). The district officers were re-elected.

Mr. A. W. Coles, vice-president, referred to the recent death of Mr. R. Richardson (Surfleet), and the meeting stood and acknowledged his memory in silent tribute.

Thanks were accorded to the Rector, to Mr. Parsons and Mr. Hewett for their parts in the successful outcome of the meeting, enjoyable ringing taking place at St. Giles-in-the-Fields and at St. Margaret's, Westminster.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION*MEETING AT WALPOLE ST. PETER.

The Wisbech Branch of the Ely Diocesan Association held its annual meeting at Walpole St. Peter on January 11th, attended by members and friends from Downham Market, Elm, Gaywood, Hilgay, King's Lynn, Marham, Shoutham, Terrington St. Clement, Terrington St. John, Tilney All Saints, Waoken, Walpole St. Andrew and the local band.

The service in the church was conducted by Mr. Elmer (lay reader), who also presided over the business meeting which followed. Officers elected for 1947 were: President, Archdeacon Evans; District Ringing Master, Mr. C. Cousins; district secretary, Mr. W. Buckenham; Belfry Repair fund treasurer, Mr. R. W. Crofts; committee, Messrs. E. H. Mastin, L. Bush, E. Barker, G. Mason, W. Rose and F. Wigmore.

Seven members of the local band were elected members of the association, also Miss B. Elsey, of Downham Market. It is hoped to hold the next meeting at Stow Bardolph on February 15th.

Winchester and Portsmouth*GOOD NEWS OF TWO FAMOUS RINGS.

Over 50 members attended the annual meeting of the Southampton District, at Southampton, on January 11th. Visitors were present from Salisbury and Poole, and service ringers from Hull, Spalding and Hugglescote (Leics.).

Good use was made of the fine ring of eight at St. Michael's, and a variety of methods up to London and Bristol practised.

The Rev. K. Felstead presided at the business meeting, and was supported by Canon Spencer Leeson, Mr. G. Williams, Mr. F. Rogers and the district officers. Seven new members were elected.

The district officers re-elected were: Chairman, the Rev. K. Felstead; secretary, Mr. G. Pullinger; Ringing Master, Mr. G. Williams; auditor, Mr. C. Fray; representatives on Executive Committee, the Rev. K. Felstead and Mr. R. Brown.

The secretary reported that the bells at Netley Abbey had recently been overhauled by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and Canon Spencer Leeson, R.D., informed the meeting that he had great hopes that the fine ring of ten at St. Mary's, Southampton, destroyed by enemy action, would be replaced by Messrs. Taylor and Co. within the next few months, and in any case before the rebuilding of the church.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Southampton on January 10th, 1948: District meetings were provisionally arranged at Sherfield English on April 19th, Eling on June 21st, Upham on September 27th.

The Portsmouth and Petersfield Districts are to be invited to combine in arranging an inter-district meeting in the Meon Valley on August Bank Holiday, the towers suggested being East Meon, West Meon and Privett, all three having good rings of eight.

The Popularity of Bells

Evidence of the affection with which Church bells are held by the public reached us from an unexpected source last week. The B.B.C. have a Listeners' Research Department which makes exhaustive enquiries as to the tastes and desires of the public in regard to their wireless programme. Subject of a special enquiry was the Christmas Day broadcast, and the following, ascertained from that cross-section of the public so frequently referred to as the 'Man in the Street,' is indeed a high compliment to bells.

Of the listening community who replied to the questionnaire, the King's speech was placed first with 58 per cent.; second was the Christmas bells, with 30 per cent.; and then followed 1 p.m. News, 21; Kentucky Minstrels, 15; Carols, 11; 8 a.m. News, 10; B.B.C. Symphony at 11 a.m., 3 per cent. It might well be argued that circumstances are special on Christmas Day, but the high percentage of listeners who enjoyed the ringing broadcasts denotes that the music of the bells still commands the attention of the public.

In the light of these figures it might be assumed that the recording of bells will be more frequent. The time has arrived when a closer understanding should be reached between the officials of the different Regions of the B.B.C. and the Central Council of Church Bellringers. A statement was made at the Norwich Council meeting of preliminary negotiations and discussions in one Region. At the present time selection seems rather an haphazard affair, although the B.B.C. on their part have precautionary tests of the recordings. According to information which reached this office two towers were selected last Christmas: East Hagbourne, North Berks, for the overseas listeners, and Allesley Parish Church, Warwickshire, which was heard on the Midland Regional on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. Both these towers contributed to the programme what might be called typical village bells and did well.

Ringers take a legitimate pride when their own bells are broadcast; in the case of the writer's own tower meticulous care was observed to ensure good striking. What the Exercise is anxious about is that the standard of ringing is good and that the towers selected are musical rings. The vast network of information available to the Central Council would readily be placed at the disposal of the B.B.C. if an appropriate liaison was established. The Exercise is proud of the bells of these isles; the people of this land have been accustomed to Church bells and, as the B.B.C. questionnaire shows, they are still listened to with affection.

In the ranks of radio listeners are to be found hundreds of ringers, as letters to the Editor have indicated. We would specially ask conductors when they have given a recording or are to appear in a programme to let the Editor know as early as possible. We are only too anxious to give publicity to such occasions; they should be recorded in 'The Ringing World,' and readers should be given an opportunity of listening-in to these broadcasts, which are almost of 100 per cent. interest to the Exercise. To the technical ear of the ringer there are a number of finer points about such broadcasts which would be missed by the average listener. There is not a broadcast of bells which does not bring back memories to some ringer, and among many peal ringers the knowledge of bells is unique. If discussions take place between the Council and the B.B.C. on ringing generally, we trust that this question of advanced publicity of bells will be raised. Some of the best broadcasts of bells have been incorporated in the overseas programme, and to our knowledge there are many of our readers who desire information as to wavelengths of such events.

Lastly, ringers as a body are grateful to the B.B.C. for the outstanding honour conferred on the Exercise when Bow bells were selected for the interval signal. While perhaps to the Cockney these bells have a special appeal, nevertheless the country has grown accustomed to the rhythmic beauty of this recording. It is the sincere hope that such a sound signal which is traditionally English will be maintained. Many have found courage and inspiration in the hallowed message of Bow bells apart from the legendary association with Dick Whittington.

1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

At the meeting of the Oxford Diocesan Guild at Slough on February 22nd a memorial tablet will be unveiled to Mr. W. H. Fussell. We understand the tablet has been beautifully executed.

As we were going to press we received a notification of the death at Saffron Walden on February 7th of Mr. Ernest A. Pitstow, aged 86.

Six of the band who rang the peal of Bob Major at Carrickfergus, Northern Ireland, on January 25th were from Holywood.

A half-century as a ringer at Knowle, Warwickshire, has been completed by William H. Smith. He rang the treble to a peal in honour of his record.

Corrections.—Regarding the peal of Stedman Cinques at Saffron Walden, the ringer of the seventh was Frank B. Lufkin and not Frank A. Lufkin. The church is dedicated to St. Mary the Virgin.

A helpful book for the young ringer is 'Elementary Change Ringing,' by the Rev. F. F. Rigby. The publishers are the S.P.C.K., Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C.2. Price 3s. 6d.

A pleasant surprise awaited the ringers of Adlington, Lancs, on the completion of their peal of Stedman Triples on January 25th. The Vicar came into the ringing chamber, and after congratulating the band, invited them to tea at the Vicarage.

The peal of Grandsire Triples at Edmonton on January 26th was rung by a local band in appreciation of the work done by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, who taught all the ringers except the 5th and 6th to handle and ring a bell. It was a farewell peal to Dennis H. Langdon, who is joining the Forces, and a welcome home to W. Douglas Smith.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Memorable was the annual meeting of the Southwell Diocesan Guild on February 1st for the dramatic termination of the ringing at Eastwood. It emphasises the importance of coöperation in the belfry when an emergency arises. Conductors should bring this incident to the attention of all young ringers with clear instructions as to what to do.

Watch the company Mr. F. Dunkerley has at Moorside, Lancs. They have rung their first together of Double Norwich and have Cambridge as their next objective, which they hope to complete this summer.

News has reached Wollaston, Worcs., of the death in Canada of Mr. Charles Frederick White, a former member of the local band. In his memory 720 London Surprise Minor was rung by J. Bass 1, R. Matthews 2, F. Handley 3, S. G. Thompson 4, H. V. Cooper (conductor) 5, C. Richards 6.

A noble effort comes from Weedon Bec, Northants, where five of the company rang their first peal of Doubles, and the conductor, Mr. Eric Nobles, called his first of Doubles in four methods.

The whole of the post-war girls' band at Burnham, Bucks, has now rung one or more peals of 5,000 changes, with Miss Gwen Murkitt completing the list on Saturday, February 8th, by ringing the treble to a tripple peal of Grandsire Triples. Moral: Train some more.

According to the copy received, the peal of Doubles at Duston, Northants, on February 3rd, was not rung for any Association. We hope the ringers are not outside the pale!

It was not intentional that three of the four districts in the Guildford Guild held their annual meetings last Saturday. Protests have been lodged.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD

Although this Guild in its present form only dates back to 1924, it is a continuation of the Raunds, Wellingborough and District Society, which was formed at Raunds on July 5th, 1883, by the Vicar of Raunds, the Rev. Hugh Bryan, who became the first secretary. By the end of that year 63 members were on the books. The society grew steadily and change ringing and some peal ringing became well established.

On his retirement in 1892, the Rev. Hugh Bryan was presented with an inscribed copy of North's 'Bells of Northamptonshire.' About ten years ago the Guild secretary recovered this book from a firm of dealers in second-hand books and presented it to the Guild to be in the hands of the Guild secretary and loaned to members.

In 1896 the title of the society was changed to 'The Central Northamptonshire Association,' and that year at the annual meeting a discussion took place on the advisability of forming a Diocesan Association, but it was thought that matters were not ripe for this at the time. This society was split into three districts in 1905.

GOLD MEDALS FOR 100 PEALS.

One rule of the early days was that 'all members who ring 100 peals for the association shall receive a gold medal.' From the reports, those who received these medals were Messrs. J. B. Houghton, J. Garrett, W. Perkins, A. Y. Tyler, W. V. Newman, T. R. Hensher, W. Hensher, J. B. Martin, A. H. Martin, F. Wilford, F. W. Sawfoot, D. J. Nichols and E. J. Chapman. In 1914 this was discontinued and a new rule passed that a certificate, which bore a photograph of Peterborough Cathedral, be awarded to all members ringing their first peal on a working bell. This is still in force.

By 1923 there were five districts, and as the outcome of a meeting at Wellingborough, addressed by the Bishop of Peterborough, it was decided to form a Diocesan Guild for the whole of the diocese which covers the counties of Northamptonshire and Rutland. This was formed at Wellingborough on January 5th, 1924, with the addition of Oundle and District Society and also the Peterborough and District Society.

The chief officers elected were the president, the Dean of Peterborough, Master, Mr. F. Wilford, and general secretary, Mr. D. J. Nichols. Mr. Nichols had done most of the routine work and the organising which made the formation of the Guild possible. There were now 81 towers in union, seven branches and over 600 members. In 1925 Daventry Branch was formed, and in 1930 the Towcester and District Society joined as the Towcester Branch of the Guild.

Early in 1926, Mr. Nichols, who had been in poor health for some time, had to resign his office. Mr. R. G. Black, the Kettering Branch secretary, was elected to succeed him. He still holds the office, combined with that of guild treasurer, and is the only official of the Guild to have held office continuously since its formation. Mr. Nichols died in 1928 at the early age of 48. He had rung about 130 peals, all of them for the local association or guild. He was the leader of Kettering band for several years and conducted peals by the local band in all the standard methods, and Cambridge, Superlative and London Surprise Major.

Rutland Branch was formed in 1933, the membership of the Guild in that year being 98 honorary and 843 ringing members. Mr. Wilford resigned the Mastership in 1935 and the Rev. E. S. Powell was elected to the office. Mr. Wilford died in 1936. He had been a representative on the Central Council for over 30 years and attended every meeting until prevented by his illness, from which he did not recover.

The Guild weathered the war years well, and were ably guided during this difficult time by the Rev. E. S. Powell, the Master. The latter recently resigned the living of Staver-ton, and on retirement has left the diocese. In 1944 there were 145 members in H.M. Forces, which is a high percentage. In 1945, 112 new members were elected, mostly young people of both sexes.

The late Mr. A. H. Martin, of Higham Ferrers who died in 1941, was believed to be the last ringing member who had attended the 1883 meeting and had a continuous membership. In 1943 the Ven. C. J. Grimes, Archdeacon of Northampton, was elected resident.

The general secretaries since 1883 were the Rev. H. Bryan to 1892, Mr. F. J. Dennes 1892 to 1902, Mr. T. R. Hensher 1902 to 1906, Mr. F. Wilford 1906 to 1920, Mr. D. J. Nichols 1920 to 1926, Mr. F. G. Black 1926 to present time.

The Belfry Repairs Fund was formed in 1917 from collections at services, and in 1933, when the Guild was ten years old, the sum of £229 had been collected and grants had been made of £126 to various towers for restorations and augmentations. The Belfry Restoration Fund is still flourishing and at the end of last year was worth over £209.

PEALS IN NORTHANTS.

The earliest known peals in Northants are the two peals of Grandsire Triples rung at Kettering in 1729 and 1731 and which are recorded on the ancient peal boards still in that tower. The first peal of Major was a peal of Bob Major at St. Peter's, Northampton, by the College Youths in 1739, and was conducted by Benjamin Annable, who rang the seventh. This peal is No. 45 in the College Youths records.

Peals rung from 1883 to 1893 were Minor, Grandsire and Plain Bob Triples and Bob

THE LATE MR. FRED WILFORD

Major; Treble Bob in 1894; Double Norwich in 1896; Stedman Triples in 1897; Superlative 1897; Real Double Norwich 1898; Grandsire Caters 1898. In 1900 Mr. A. Y. Tyler conducted 9,312 of Superlative at Irthlingborough; Stedman Caters in 1901 and Treble Ten 1903, at St. Giles', Northampton, London in 1903, Cambridge in 1905, Bristol 1912, Cambridge Royal 1922, and a peal of Minor, 1922, by six ladies, this being the first time a band of ladies had rung a peal with the tenor 'turned in.' Erin Triples were rung in 1922, and Surprise Minor 1922. The total of peals up to the end of 1923 was 986.

The peals rung from 1924 to 1945 totalled 722, and Mr. H. M. Day conducted several of Surprise Minor up to 32 methods. The Irthlingborough band, who rang the first of Surprise Major, Superlative, Cambridge, London and Bristol, have also rung Irthlingborough and Irchester Surprise (the first in the methods) and Yorkshire Surprise Major.

HANDBELL RINGING.

One peal in hand was rung at Irthlingborough in 1905, being 5,056 Bob Major, conducted by A. Y. Tyler. In 1910 the Kettering band, assisted by Mr. E. M. Atkins, rang Grandsire Triples and Bob Major. Bob Royal was rung in 1911, Grandsire Caters in 1912, also Kent Treble Bob and Little Bob Major. In 1914 Kent Treble Bob Royal and in 1921 a peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major. This band in the period 1910 to 1921 rang about 40 peals in hand.

According to North, 1878, there were them nine rings of eight bells, 43 of six bells and 105 of five bells in Northants. In 1938 the numbers were two rings of ten, 26 of eight, 70 of six and 97 rings of five. The oldest dated bell is the second at Cold Ashby and is dated 1317.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

75th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

The 75th anniversary of the foundation of the Oxford University Society of Change Ringers was celebrated in Oxford during the first week-end of February. The ringing programme was a full one, though there were no tower-bell peals. A proposed attempt for Stedman Cinques by the society at Christ Church had to be cancelled owing to several last-minute withdrawals. Handbell peal attempts began on the afternoon of Friday, January 31st, but unfortunately met with no success. On Sunday afternoon, however, the society rang the first peal of Winchester Bob Major on handbells.

Official proceedings commenced on the morning of Saturday, February 1st, with ringing at St. Ebbe's (8) from 9.45 to 10.45. The society's festival service, conducted by the president of the society (the Rev. C. E. Wigg), then followed at the University Church of St. Mary the Virgin. The preacher was the Lord Bishop of Oxford. His useful and inspiring address was based on the text, 'I have a message from God unto thee' (Judges iii. 20), and once again the reminder was given that absence from divine service was a negation of the message ringers were called to deliver.

Ringing in the afternoon took place at the Cathedral (12), St. Giles' (8) and at Magdalen (10), and following an informal tea in the New Room, Magdalen, this part of the day's proceedings ended with an enjoyable hour's ring on the magnificent heavy eight at Merton.

THE DINNER.

Sixty-six persons sat down to dinner at the Randolph Hotel, where the society was pleased to welcome as the guest of honour Mr. E. H. Lewis, president of the Central Council. The other guests were Miss M. R. Cross and Messrs. W. F. Judge, V. J. Bennett and W. C. Porter, of the Oxford Society, and the visitors were Messrs. R. F. B. Speed, P. K. Williamson, O. W. Woolley and Dr. F. S. Poole, representing the Cambridge University Guild, Miss B. Podger and Mr. G. T. Beynon from the Bristol University Society, Messrs. P. M. J. Gray and D. Layton from the London University Society, Mrs. C. E. Wigg and Mr. P. A. Corby. Before the dinner a photograph of all present was taken, and immediately afterwards three leads of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus were rung by resident members of the society.

After the loyal toast, the toast of the society was proposed by Dr. J. E. Spice, who noted with pleasure the presence of two other past masters, Messrs. H. Miles and A. E. F. Trotman. In sketching the history of the society since its foundation in 1872, Dr. Spice naturally had most to say of the period 1939-45 when he had been in residence, a period chiefly remarkable for the achievements of the society on handbells, and for the growth of the society to its present scale—a growth encouraged by the enthusiasm of lady members.

In replying to the toast, the present Master, Miss B. Spice, briefly reviewed the events of the past year. Notable inceptions had been the short tour held at Rochester in August, 1946, and the farming-cum-ringing fortnight enjoyed by present members at Honeybourne, Worcs., in the late summer. The present academic year had brought an unprecedented flow of recruits—as witnessed by the fact that 40 of those present at the dinner were resident members of the society—and, in addition to the hard work spent in teaching them, time had been found in the Michaelmas term for the ringing of nine peals, a record number for one term.

THE GUESTS.

The President then welcomed the guests and visitors. He regretted the absence of several old members, notably of Canon Co'erride, from whom a telegram of good wishes was read, and of the Rev. F. Llewellyn Edwards, both of whom had played a large part in the early life of the society. The good wishes of other old members were also conveyed to the gathering.

Mr. Lewis, responding to this welcome, expressed the pleasure of all the visitors at being able to be present. He recounted various amusing incidents which had taken place in joint peal attempts of the C.U.G. and O.U.S., and drew several morals from his stories in connection with good handling and striking of bells.

The toast of 'The Oxford Society' was next proposed by Mr. A. E. F. Trotman. He recalled with gratitude the invaluable help which the City ringers had always given to the society, making special reference to the period 1932-3 when he had been Master. Mr. V. J. Bennett, secretary of the Oxford Society, suitably replied.

Miss K. Higgins then briefly toasted 'Kindred Societies.' She hoped the younger University Societies would be able to look back on their lives with equal pride when they were 75 years o.d. In his reply, Mr. D. Layton expressed the sincere gratitude of the new University Societies to the O.U.S.C.R. for its hospitality on these occasions, and for the help and encouragement it had given, not only in providing new opportunities for ringing, but also in enlarging the friendship among ringers.

'ENGAGED COUPLES.'

The last toast was in a somewhat lighter vein, being that of the engaged couples, three and a half of whom were present. Mr. J. H. P. Slade (a present member) turned his ready wit to great advantage and obviously enjoyed his descriptions of Cambridge turning to Oxford and Oxford to the North. Miss M. D. Telford expressed the thanks of those concerned for the good wishes which had been given, and concluded by saying that she had always been brought up to 'follow the Master' in all things.

Before going on to a short general meeting, some reminiscences of the very early life of the society were given by Dr. F. S. Poole, whose father was one of the foundation members, and who had left an interesting record of the earliest touches rung by him and his contemporaries.

TOUR FROM SHREWSBURY.

The main business of the meeting was the alteration in the proposed date and place of the tour. This is now arranged for the first week in August, immediately preceding the U.A.C.R. tour, and it is hoped to be held at Shrewsbury.

Sunday rightly began with a Corporate Communion for the society, celebrated by the Rev. Blake Wood in the Eastern Crypt of the University Church at 8 a.m.

Visitors were then welcomed by the Oxford Society to the usual Sunday ringing at Christ Church, All Saints' and St. Giles', and some also joined the University Society at St. Mary Magdalene's, St. Cross' and St. Thomas-the-Martyr's. The bells of New College were rung for evensong, and finally the glorious six of St. Mary's heralded the opening service of the Mission to the University held during the week.

Thus concluded a most enjoyable week-end, and a fitting commemoration of the Oxford University Society of Change Ringers, 75 years ago.

MAKE HISTORY AT BLOXHAM.

When the Banbury and District Branch met at Bloxham on January 25th it was the first time, according to present records, that a meeting had been held at this beautiful parish church with its celebrated spire, one of three in line across the countryside. The local saying about it is: Bloxham for length, Adderbury for strength, King's Sutton for beauty. (King's Sutton is in Northants, but it doesn't give Bloxham many points.)

The ring of eight in the tower (tenor 27 cwt.) have not been rung together until recently for some 20 years. Permission has been given for the time being for the whole to be rung for short touches. The front six have been rung regularly each Sunday, and for practice when required by the local band during the 20 years. Sixty members attended the meeting; thanks to the efforts of the Vicar (the Rev. B. R. Buchanan) in trying to do all that is possible in order that the whole ring may be used, the members were able to ring Triples and Major. The service was conducted by the Vicar and the address given by the Rev. Sholto Douglas. Tea was prepared by the local ringers and relatives.

A record number of new members was elected at the business meeting, 15 in all from various towers. The next meeting, a joint one with the Bicester Deanery Branch, is to be held at Lower Heyford with Rousham in April.

The members stood in silence for a few moments as a tribute to the memory of Mr. J. Cuss, who had died recently.

The secretary was instructed to convey the best thanks and appreciation of the members of the branch to Mr. L. J. Malings, who had left Oxfordshire for South Wales, for the great assistance he had given to the Guild in teaching young ringers and in many ways furthering the art of change ringing in the right spirit, that of service to the Church.

Thanks were expressed to the Vicar and to all who contributed to make the meeting so happy and enjoyable. Rounds to Major again completed the day there, other members going on to Adderbury, making good use of the fine ring of eight in that tower.

OTLEY, YORKS.—On Feb. 3rd, at All Saints' Church, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: H. M. Heaton (first quarter of Grandsire) 1, Miss J. A. Southerst (first in method as conductor) 2, H. J. Roberts 3, R. F. Smith 4, J. F. Hodson 5, G. Benfield 6, D. Roe 7, P. H. Whitaker 8.

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS

PLANNING BICENTENARY CELEBRATIONS.

The main feature at the annual meeting of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths, held on February 1st in accordance with tradition at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, was plans for the appropriate celebration of the bicentenary of the society. There is to be a dinner on July 12th and it is also hoped to hold a commemorative service.

Preceding the business part of the programme, the bells were available from 3 to 5 p.m., during which time the capacity of the ringing chamber was taxed to the utmost, as at one period over 90 people were counted there. A number of young members had their first pull on twelve bells, and throughout the afternoon the range of methods rung extended from rounds to Cambridge Maximus. Apart from members of the society present, a goodly number of visitors were welcomed in the tower, among the foremost of whom was Mr. George Fearn, of Birmingham.

Tea was provided in the crypt, which, like the ringing chamber, was scarcely big enough to accommodate the large gathering in comfort, although all those who had notified their intention of being present were supplied with food and drink. In all 68 persons cut of 70 who said they would be present turned up.

The meeting was held in the Vestry Hall, a beautifully paneled chamber overlooking the church on the north side. The Rev. K. W. H. Felstead presided and called upon the meeting at the outset to stand in silence in memory of Mr. Rupert Richardson, Major J. H. B. Hesse and other ringers who had died since the last annual meeting.

NEW MEMBERS RECORD.

Mr. G. W. Steere (hon. secretary) presented the balance sheet, which showed a balance of £48 8s. 4d., against £36 11s. 9d. at the beginning of the year.

The annual report stated that the year could be considered a period of steady progress. Thirty-six new members had been elected, a number not approached during the last half-century, as on only two occasions had the figure reached 30. Mr. Frank C. W. Knight was in no small measure responsible for the large increase.

Eleven peals had been rung at High Wycombe, Beckenham, Milton-next-Gravesend, Bexley, Kingston-on-Thames, Calne (Wilts), Guildford (2) and Burnham (2), and one on handbells. The peal at Burnham was in memory of Brian O'Neill and Peter A. Blamey, two members of the society.

The peal of Stedman Cinques rung on Dec. 1st, 1945, at St. Martin-in-the-Fields to commemorate the termination of the war has been duly recorded in the belfry, and the tablet hangs side by side with a similar record of the 1914-18 war. In this respect thanks were due to Mr. C. J. Matthews, who secured the services of a capable artist to do the work.

The report and accounts were adopted and Mr. C. J. Matthews was thanked for his kind offices in regard to printing the report.

Apologies for absence were received from Messrs. N. Harding (Slough), J. Millhouse and K. Mayer (Lincoln). New members elected were Miss Gwen Murkett, Miss Betty Hill, Miss Betty Frost, Miss Betty Hewison, Mrs. O. Barnett, Miss Mary Jaycock, Messrs. Clifford Vessey, Edwin J. Upton, Charles R. Chambers, William Picthall, Robert G. Rayfield, Walter Lemon, Frank Hopgood and Eric Dodds.

Meetings to be arranged for 1947 were: Burnham, March 29th; Prittlewell, June 14th; and Ansley, September 27th.

At the election of officers, Mr. A. H. Pulling expressed the opinion that the Master should be changed annually, and as the Cumberlands were a national society, the Mastership should not be necessarily tied with Sunday ringing at St. Martin-in-the-Fields. With this end in view he proposed Mr. E. A. Barnett as Master.

Mr. Barnett, while thanking his proposer for the honour, declined, stating he could not undertake the Mastership, as he was not in a position to attend regularly at St. Martin's.

There were several who spoke against this proposition, and it was argued it would be most disloyal to Mr. Cross, who had held the post for so long and so successfully, to make a change just at the moment when the society was about to celebrate its 200th anniversary.

Mr. Cross was the only nominee and his reelection was carried with acclamation.

Other officers elected were: Treasurer and secretary, Mr. G. W. Steere; senior steward, Mr. T. Bevan; junior steward, Mr. F. Hawthorne; trustees, Messrs. C. J. Matthews and Ralph Winterton.

THE BICENTENARY.

With regard to the suggested dinner to commemorate the 200th anniversary, it was decided to go ahead with the arrangements and book July 12th as the prescribed date. The venue would be the Old Bell Restaurant, E.C.1, and the number would be limited to 100. An official announcement will be made shortly on this subject, but it was stressed that all applications for tickets would be treated in strict order of receipt, and that a remittance should accompany all applications for tickets.

In connection with the dinner, it is hoped to arrange a special service at St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

A dinner committee of the officers of the society, augmented by the inclusion of Mrs. E. E. Davis and Messrs. Frank C. W. Knight and James E. Bailey, was appointed.

In the absence of Dr. Perry (churchwarden), unable to attend through illness, the society were welcomed to St. Martin's by Mr. Ambler.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rev. Felstead for presiding, also to the Church Council for use of the bells and Vestry Hall, and Mr. G. Radley voiced the appreciation of the members for the work done by the officers.

SOUTH OXON BRANCH HAS 40 NEW MEMBERS.

Forty new members at one meeting; That is how enrolments are taking place in the South Oxon Branch as happened at their meeting on January 26th at Benson. The Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. Elliot Wigg) presided in the absence through illness of the branch chairman, supported by the Deputy Master (Capt. A. R. Poyntz) and the general secretary (Mr. T. Hibbert) and no fewer than five branch secretaries.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. Hughes), assisted by the Master and Deputy Master. As to the ringing, some new members had their first touch of Triples, while others had their first 'pull' on the bells.

OBITUARY

MR. FREDERICK C. PEARSON.

The recent death of Mr. Frederick Charles Pearson, of Donington, Lincolnshire, aged 37, after a long illness, was received with deep regret by ringers in the Boston and Spalding area.

He learned to ring at Donington in 1924 at the age of 14 and rang his first peal in the same year. He had about 10 peals to his credit, but was prevented through ill-health, while still in his teens, from further peal ringing. He continued to be a Sunday service ringer when his health allowed.

Following the interment at Donington on February 4th, a quarter-peal with bells half-muffled was rung at the Parish Church, being 1,260 changes Bob Minor, by H. Clark (first quarter) 1, J. E. Allen 2, E. Staples 3, A. E. Woods 4, C. Wander (conductor) 5, S. V. Woods 6.

MR. JOHN ROLLS.

Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancs, has lost its oldest ringer in the person of Mr. John Rolls, at the age of 94.

A native of Olney, Bedfordshire, Mr. Rolls helped to keep the bells going during the first world war at St. Peter's, Ashton-under-Lyne, and was a very regular ringer.

A man of most kind and genial nature, he was beloved by all who knew him. He leaves a very large family and many grandchildren. The funeral was on January 29th. W.W.W.

MR. TED SHAW

One of the oldest members of the Lancashire Association and a member of the old Midland Counties Association, Mr. Ted Shaw died at Leesfield, Oldham, aged 87.

He was laid to rest on Wednesday, January 29th. The bells at Leesfield were rung half-muffled, also a course of Grandside Doubles over the grave by Herbert Barlow 1-2, Walter W. Wolstencroft 3-4, John Walmsley 5-6. W.W.W.

MR. DAVID H. WHITING.

The funeral took place at Diss Cemetery on January 25th of Mr. David H. Whiting, aged 73. The Rector (the Rev. J. A. Appleton) officiated.

A lifelong campanologist, Mr. Whiting rang at Wakefield Cathedral, Yorkshire, in his younger days, later moving to Yaxley, Suffolk, where he became captain of the local company. He came to Diss about eight years ago and joined the St. Mary's Society. His peal total was 88, ringing in 30 for the Norwich Association and 58 for the Suffolk Guild. He was also a keen handbell ringer.

Four members of the local band rang handbells over the grave: W. Elsey 1-2, Mrs. J. Tonge 3-4, Miss Kathleen Harrison 5-6, A. G. Harrison 7-8. The bells of the Parish Church were rung half-muffled for morning service on February 2nd.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

THE YOUNGEST MEMBER.

By the election of Michael David Goodman, aged 10, at the annual meeting of the North Norfolk Branch at Mulbarton on January 11th, the Association has its youngest member. Also elected were Ronald Dove and George Adams.

The branch chairman, the Rev. Blyth, who was in the chair, was re-elected, as was Mr. H. Tooke, secretary. To the committee were elected Messrs. G. Bailey, C. Curson, W. C. Duffield, F. C. Goodman and the Rev. G. W. Wilson. Buxton was selected for the next meeting on April 19th.

The president (the Rev. A. St. J. Heard) conducted the service, and tea was served by Mrs. Goodman and friends. Members were present from Attleborough, Buxton, Diss, Northrepps, Hethersett, Garboldisham, New Buckenham, Fornsett, Gorleston, Norwich, Scottow, Saxlingham, Wymondham, Great Yarmouth, Yaxley and the local company.

CORRESPONDENTS' VIEWS AND COMMENTS

Vancouver Ringer's Distinction

Dear Sir,—I am writing this thanking you for giving us in Vancouver, B.C., so much space and notice in the front page, etc., of 'The Ringing World.' But in the issue of December 20th, 1946, there is a mistake about my ringing a peal at Macclesfield and other places in England. Those peals should be credited to Mr. Andy B. Lomas, who is now ringing at Christ Church Cathedral in Victoria, V.T., B.C. I, of course, rang at the Coronation of King George V. here at Vancouver, being the first peal ever rung in Canada.

I have never rung a peal in England. I learned on the bells I installed here; perhaps I have the distinction of installing a peal in a tower, learning to ring on them and ringing on them the first peal in the country. Whilst visiting in England in 1912 I rang at Old Windsor, some of the ringers I remember being J. L. McDonald, the late J. H. B. Hesse, A. H. Pulling and other well-known peal ringers. But I could not call it a peal, as there was an awful mix up about half-way; in fact, there were several rounds of good firing and I was astonished later to see it recorded as a peal in 'The Ringing World' on my arrival back here.

Our peal we rang here on July 1st, 1911, was, I can honestly say, perfect as to being a true peal, not a bell being out of place and the striking good throughout. Some 85 or 90 years ago a peal was rung in the tower of Christ Church, Philadelphia, Penn., U.S.A., and recorded in that tower as rung by nine men, the tenor man having to give up and was relieved by another. Therefore, I think we in Vancouver can say we have rung the first peal of Grandsire Triples rung by eight men on the American continent.—Yours very truly,

A. C. LIMPUS.

YOUNGEST GIRL RINGER

Dear Sir,—As Mr. George Gilbert appears to be keeping a record of the achievements of the youngsters in the Exercise, may I remind him that he has omitted one from his list? If he will look up the issue of 'The Ringing World,' dated November 1st, 1946, on page 511 he will read of Margaret Beamish having rung the 2nd to a peal of Grandsire Triples at Chilvers Coton on October 12th at the age of 11 years. True, at first glance, the footnote was rather misleading, but that was made quite clear in Belfry Gossip the following week. Margaret was 11 on June 24th, 1946, and so was 11½ when she rang the peal.

On December 28th last she was in a peal attempt for Cambridge Major, ringing the 2nd. Unfortunately, the attempt broke down after an hour's good ringing, but through no fault of hers. However, she achieved a peal of Cambridge Major on January 27th at Chilvers Coton, ringing the treble in faultless style.—Sincerely yours,

A. H. BEAMISH.

BELLS RUNG BACKWARDS

Dear Sir,—Regarding bells ringing backwards. This was always the ancient form of declaration of war, and I hope they remembered it in 1940.

There are two well-known literary references:—

(a) 'Bonnie Dundee':—

'The bells they ring backwards.'

(b) Sir Walter Scott in 'Last Minstrel':—
'The live-long night in Branksome rang
The ceaseless sound of steel.

The castle bell with backward clang
Sent back a louder peal.'

But how Sir Walter's men managed to ring one bell backwards still beats me.—Faithfully yours,

F. A. CLUETT.

Gravesend.

London Vergers

A WILTSHIRE RINGER'S EXPERIENCE.

Sir,—I feel I would like to express my views concerning the above as referred to by Mr. Appleton in the last issue of 'The Ringing World.' Doubtless, he and his friend were disappointed for not being permitted to visit the belfry at their first verbal request to a verger.

But why blame the verger?

To avoid a similar disappointment in future, Mr. Appleton would do better if he followed the procedure I have during the past few years, in which I have raised and taught a new band of ringers at our church, either for ringing or inspecting some notable peal.

I make my plans beforehand, then write to the incumbents requesting permission for the visit. I always enclose a stamped and addressed envelope for a reply. I do the latter because some of us ringers are better off financially than some clergy whose stipends have not been increased with the cost of living. I do not approve of them paying even the cost of a postage stamp to provide us with the pleasures of an outing. During last year I sent out 14 such applications and received favourable replies from them all.

During May I took the band to London after having requested permission to visit Messrs. Mears and Stainbank's foundry. I received a favourable reply from Mr. Hughes, who provided us with a most interesting hour. This was on a Saturday, and he was the only member of the staff we saw there. We were very much impressed, as it did appear to us that he had turned up specifically to oblige us. This is only one instance of the fruits of making the arrangements beforehand.

Regarding the places we visited on the same trip where we had no intentions of first visiting and did not make the arrangements. We went on to St. Paul's and enjoyed a good look round. Suddenly I met a verger, and after some conversation I asked him if we could see the bells. He was very polite and told me that we could not. He added that I should have written to the Dean beforehand. I accepted this and informed the band, but this verger was not satisfied, probably because I had mentioned to him previously that we had travelled a hundred miles that day to London. He took me to the Dean's verger, who again told me that such visits were at the discretion of the Dean only, but under the circumstances he took it upon himself to grant the request.

The first verger we met took us up the famous Wren's stairway to the ringing chamber, then on to the bell chamber, from which place we had a good view of the famous dome, also an interesting talk on its structure. Then one to the clock, Great Peter and the clock bells. Returning again to the nave, the verger expressed his regrets that he could not show us the crypt. Another hour well spent. Could anyone wish for more courtesy than this?

Next we visited St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, where a congregation had assembled for a service which was about to commence. I asked the verger there about seeing the bells, but he informed me that during the service he was to remain present, but would gladly take us up the tower afterwards, but being as we were strangers to him, he would not allow us to ascend without him. I commend him for such a decision. Time did not permit us to accept his kind offer.

I have no desire to question what is required of these vergers at their work. As a ringer, it is not my business. I look upon them as paid servants, and as such they have a duty to perform. Providing they satisfy their employers, I see no reason why ringers should rebuke them for not doing certain favours.

I have always found them obliging and courteous, but our chief interest, or that of a

Ringers' Names on Bells

Dear Sir,—I have read with interest about some of the names of ringers recorded on bells. We have one at Aldbourne, Wiltshire, and as it is of an earlier date than those already mentioned, I thought it would be of further interest to some of your readers.

When the six were augmented to eight in 1778, the bell founder, Robert Wells, gave the treble and two of the ringers gave the second with the following inscription: 'Jos: Pizzie, Willm Gwyn. Music and ringing we like so well and for that reason we gave this bell.'

These two ringers also rang in a peal of Grandsire Triples 19 years later, this being recorded on an old peal board, 1797.—Yours truly,

T. A. PALMER.

Baydon Hill, Aldbourne, Marlborough, Wilts.

AT BISHOP RYDER'S CHURCH

Dear Sir,—I was the instigator of having the old bad going eight bells, also bad tone, recast into a splendid peal of eight bells at Bishop Ryder's Church, Birmingham, in 1923. The following inscription was cast on the tenor bell:—

'To the Glory of God and in memory of George and Mary Stevens, the bells in the tower of this church were recast and rehung by their nephew, Robert Raisbeck Gelling, 1923. Rev. Canon G. E. Badger, Vicar. James George, Ringing Master.'

On August 18th, 1917, I conducted a peal of Stedman Triples on the old bells in 2 hours and 56 minutes at this church. On January 28th, 1924, I conducted a peal of Stedman Triples on the new bells in 2 hours and 57 minutes at this church.—Yours faithfully,

JAMES GEORGE.

63, Thurlston Avenue, Sheldon, Birmingham 26.

FORTHCOMING BROADCASTS

Dear Sir,—I should like to support Miss Look's suggestion in her letter under the above heading which appeared in your last issue.

If 'The Ringing World' could possibly mention forthcoming ringing broadcasts it would be of great value. I frequently 'twiddle the knobs' on a Sunday evening in the hope of hearing some ringing, and if there is any I probably get the correct station just before the ringing ceases.—Yours, etc.,

E. T. PAUL FIELD.

Bleak House, Alton Pancras, Dorchester.

BACK NUMBERS

Dear Sir,—Following the example set by two people recently, I shall be glad if you will make it known that I have a number of spare copies of 'The Ringing World' for 1935 and 1936; and I shall be glad to send these (so long as they last) to any who care to ask for them, enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope.

In return, I wonder if anyone can supply me with a copy of the issue dated November 28th, 1941? For this I should be most grateful.—Yours faithfully, steeplejack who would be pleased to see the weathercock, may not be theirs! Most vergers are advanced in years, while many of them suffer from some physical disability which only permits them to do a verger's work on the ground floor of a church, and I do think it is unfair to rebuke them because of an isolated matter as complained of. It is asking a lot of these elderly gentlemen to ascend sometimes a hundred steps to unlock a door.

L. K. BOWLING (Miss),

CARY DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting of Cary Deanery Branch was held on January 25th at the Church of St. James, Castle Cary, attended by 50 ringers, representing the towers of Barton St. David, Batcombe, Bruton, Castle Cary, Ditchat, Evercreech, Horsington, Maperton, North Cadbury, North Cheriton, South Cadbury, Templecombe and Wincanton, with visitors from Bath, Chilcompton, Drayton, Longbridge Deverell, Semley, Warminster and Yeovil.

The Vicar (Prebendary Kempe) welcomed the ringers.

At the business meeting the Rev. J. F. Holt (Batcombe) was unanimously elected president and the following officers re-elected: Mr. H. C. Lintern, secretary; Mr. H. J. Sanger, Ringing Master; Mr. H. P. Sparks, Deputy Ringing Master. Four new ringing members were elected.

The secretary, in a resumé of the year's activities, stated that at the four meetings held there had been an average attendance of 41; four honorary members and 24 new ringing members had been elected. A hearty welcome was extended to a very old member of the branch, Mr. Jack Norris, who had recently recovered from a serious accident. Mr. Norris, who is 80, has been a ringer at South Cheriton Church for 63 years.

Meetings were arranged as follows: South Cadbury, April 26th; Horsington, July 26th; Barton St. David, October 25th; with the annual at Wincanton on January 24th.

The tower was revisited, all classes were catered for and ringing continued until 8.45 p.m.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

DORCHESTER BRANCH'S GOOD REPORT.

The annual meeting of the Dorchester Branch was held at Dorchester on January 18th, and was attended by over 80 members and friends. The bells of St. Peter's (8) and St. George's, Fordington (6) were available from 3 p.m. onwards, and good use was made of both towers.

The Guild service was conducted by the branch chairman (Canon A. W. Markby), and the address given by the Ven. J. C. Shute.

The general meeting followed the tea in St. Peter's Institute, when it was stated that the branch membership had increased to 169, of whom 139 were ringing members. The meeting was honoured by the attendance of the Master of the Guild, the Rev. C. C. Cox, who congratulated the branch on its enthusiasm.

The secretary, in her annual report, mentioned with regret the passing of the Rev. R. H. Gundry, a former Master of the Guild. One tower (Wyke Regis) had been reopened and already a peal of Bob Major had been rung there, and it was hoped that the new ring of six at Martinstown would be ready early in the summer.

The Ven. J. C. Shute stated that he hoped soon to have the bells of Puddlehinton in ringing order.

Re-elections were as follows: Chairman, Canon A. W. Markby; vice-chairman, Canon D. F. Smeek; Ringing Master, Mr. F. Precey. Mrs. Godley, the hon. secretary and treasurer, not wishing to continue in office, Mr. J. H. Hayne was elected to the post, and Mr. F. V. Stedman was elected Deputy Ringing Master in place of Mr. Hayne, who had held this office during the past year. Twenty-one new ringing members, five associate members and one honorary member were elected.

It was suggested that meetings be held at the following towers during 1947: Wyke Regis, Buckland Newton, Martinstown, Charminster, and West Lulworth, final arrangements to be made by the secretary.

Votes of thanks were expressed to all who had helped in any way to make the service and meeting so helpful and enjoyable.

MR. R. HASTED RETIRES FROM MASTERSHIP OF FARNHAM DISTRICT.

For nearly 20 years Ringing Master of the Farnham District, Mr. R. Hasted, captain of the Farnham tower, has retired. At the annual meeting of the district on January 25th a copper beech walking stick bearing an inscribed silver band and a testimonial, which stated that the gift was made 'in gratitude and affection' by ringing members of the branch, was presented to him.

Mr. W. A. Dollimore, in making the presentation, said they wished him many years of continued interest in bellringing and hoped that with the aid of that stick he would walk round to all the churches in the district to see how they were behaving.

Mr. A. J. Stedman presided at the meeting, attended by 80 ringers. The annual report, presented by Mr. C. W. Denyer, stated that the standard of ringing at the five meetings held was somewhat disappointing. He appealed for extra effort to ensure ringing for all services on Sundays, the first duty of ringers.

The condition of certain bells and bell frames in the area was rather worrying. Some work was necessary at Bagshot and at Ash, and attention was necessary to ensure that the bells were kept going. The bells at Hawley were in a poor state, but there was little prospect of repairs there at the moment.

There were two candidates for Ringing Master—Mr. C. W. Denyer and Mr. W. H. Viggers. The former was elected by ballot. Other officers elected were: Hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. G. S. G. Joyce; to Guild Executive, Mr. P. Eldridge and Mr. W. H. Viggers (ringing), Mr. W. A. Dollimore (honorary). It was decided to support the nomination of the following Guild officers: Mr. A. Harman (Master), Mr. G. L. Grover (hon. secretary), Mr. J. Corbett (hon. treasurer) and Mr. R. Hasted (auditor).

Meetings during the year will be at Crow-dall, Hawley, Bentley, Bagshot and Ash.

The Guild service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. N. Selby-Lowndes). District members attended from Ash, Aldershot, Bentley, Seale, Farnham, Frensham, Yorktown, Farnborough and Bagshot, and visitors from Leatherhead, Croydon, Thames Ditton, Kingston, Guildford (Cathedral and St. Nicolas'), Alton, Pirbright, Godalming, St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, London, and Clandon.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

MEETING AT PUDSEY.

When the society held its first meeting of 1947 at Pudsey on February 1st an announcement was made that Canon C. C. Marshall's health showed continued improvement after his accident. The secretary was asked to send him the society's best wishes for his recovery.

The president was in the chair and members were present from Armley, Bat'ev, Bradford Cathedral, Bramley, Calverley, Drighlington, Guiseley, Headingley St. Chad, Idle, Pudsey and Shipley. Apologies for absence were received from Canon C. C. Marshall, Messrs. P. J. Johnson and F. Hutchinson.

Three new members were elected, viz., Miss Norma Bickerdike, Miss Mary Shearsmith, of Pudsey, and Mr. Donald Marshall, of Bradford Cathedral.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar, churchwardens and local company was proposed by Mr. W. H. Senior and seconded by Miss L. K. Bowling, this was supported by Mr. John McGlenn, who said that although the weather conditions were cold, the welcome to Pudsey was as warm as ever. Mr. W. Barton acknowledged the thanks.

The next meeting is due to be held at Birstall on February 22nd.

Southwell Diocesan Guild

A DRAMATIC TERMINATION.

The annual meeting was held at Eastwood on February 1st, and ringers from Nottingham, Daybrook, Sutton-in-Ashfield, Greasley, Derby and members of the local band rang from 2.30 p.m., including rounds for the learners, followed by Grandsire, Stedman, Kent and Plain Bob, also Double Norwich, until 5 p.m.

After an excellent tea, arranged by Mr. J. Johnson, of Eastwood, the meeting was held. The Rev. Robert Leaney kindly acted as chairman, and gave a warm welcome to all present.

The election of officers was the chief item. A summary of the past year's ringing in the diocese was reviewed by Mr. T. Groombridge, jun., who gave some good advice and encouragement. The past year's performances, he said, had been praiseworthy, five scoring their first peal, while 39 scored their first in the method, a figure which he hoped would be improved upon in 1947.

Mr. Groombridge also added that while five-bell methods were recognised for peals, he did not care to see these practised where eight and ten bells were available, as it pointed more or less to peal grabbing.

In conclusion, Mr. J. Hobbs, of Watnall, gave some interesting information on the history of Eastwood bells. Ringing on handbells followed the talk, while the rest of the members indulged in further ringing in the tower until about 8.30 p.m.

The bells were lowered in a most unusual fashion. A few rounds were followed by a loud noise from above, which startled the man on the tenor and caused him to make straight for the door, leaving the rope swinging to and fro. The rope then lashed around the electric fittings, tearing the wiring and bulb away from the sockets and putting the tower in darkness. The rest of the band did their best to carry on. An exciting five minutes, ending up fortunately with no one the worse for the experience, only a job for the steep-keeper of replacing the clapper in the tenor bell! T.V.J.

MARRIAGE OF MR. ROLAND PARK

The hon. secretary of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association, Mr. Roland Park, of Darlington, was married on February 8th to Miss Irene Richardson in Darlington. Mr. Park has been secretary of the association since September 1st, 1936. He and his wife, however, are leaving the country for Venezuela on a tour of duty for the South American organisation of his firm. Mr. and Mrs. Park will be away for two years.

Until the next annual meeting of the Association, therefore, his brother, Mr. W. Norman Park, of 10a, Woodlands Terrace, Darlington, will take over the duties of secretary.

Mr. Park says that one of the things he will miss most during his absence is his connection with the Exercise. He intends to make up for it on his return.

The 'Houseling' and the 'Passing Bells'

BY ERNEST MORRIS.

In the Middle Ages, when a man fell grievously sick, the priest with bell, book and candle proceeded to the sick bed, lest he should die 'unhousell'd, disappointed, unanneal'd.' The 'houseling' bell, which is sometimes mentioned in the Edwardian Inventories, was a handbell carried in procession and rung when the Eucharist was borne to the sick person, that all might be warned of its approach and pay reverence, and might pray for the sick and dying person. In 1305 Archbishop Winchelsey issued a statute which, broadly speaking, remained in force until the Reformation, ordering parishes to provide certain vestments, chalice, etc., and among various items we find 'a bell to ring when the Body of Christ is carried to the sick.' In an Inventory of 1488 at St. Christopher-le-Stock, London, there is mentioned a 'cloth of gold . . . that serveth to bere over the Sacrament, with iiij bellis longyng thereto.' The parish of St. Michael, Cornhill, in 1469 purchased 'a little bell that ryngeth afore the sacrament.' Among the jewels belonging to 'owre Lady Church' at Sandwich in 1483 was 'a bell of sylver to be boryn with the Sacrament of IX ounces j quarter.' This bell was sometimes called the 'Houseling-bell' as at Great Gonerby, Lincs, in 1566, or a 'bossell-bell' as at Ilkeston.

Its use is referred to and condemned by Cramer in his Visitation Articles (1549):—'Item. That going to the sick with the Sacrament the minister have not with him either Light or Bells.' These handbells were also used in processions on the Rogation days, and notices of them as used for that purpose and similar are occasionally met with: at Addington, Surrey, in 1552 they possessed 'a Procession bell' and at Wattenbury were 'ij procession bells.' The Injunctions of Archbishop Grindal in 1571, whilst directing 'perambulation to be used by the people for viewing the bounds of their parish in the days of Rogation commonly called cross-week or Gangdays,' prohibit the wearing of the surplice by the minister, or the carrying of banners or handbells.

Hon. Sec., 136, Newton Road, Sparkhill, Birmingham, 11.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.—South Forest Branch.—Ruardean, Mar. 8th, 3.15. Dedication of memorial to Wm. Bishop by the Bishop of Gloucester, 4.15. Names for tea by March 3rd to Oliver Thomas, 11, Victoria Road, Lydney.

PRELIMINARY NOTICE.—Two new treble bells, at the Parish Church, Mildenhall, will be dedicated by the Bishop of the diocese on Mar. 22nd. Fuller details later.—P. Fordham.

PRELIMINARY NOTICE.—The two new treble bells at Allesley Parish Church, Warwickshire, will be dedicated by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Coventry on Saturday, March 22nd.

Naogeorgus in his 'Popish Kingdome' (1570), refers to the custom thus:—

'Saint John before the bread doth go, and poynting towards him
Doth shew the same to the Lambe that takes away our sinne.

On whome two clad in Angela shape, do sundrie flowers fling,

A number great of Sacring belles with pleasant sounde doe ringe.'

An inscription sometimes found on bells, as in Dorset and Somerset:—

'I sound to bid the sick repent

In hope and life when breath is spent.'

may be regarded as having reference to this period of man's career. Then comes the next stage in the sick man's pilgrimage on earth, the tolling of one of the church bells called the 'Passing Bell,' or sometimes the 'Soul Bell.'

'Toll the bell a solemn toll;

Slow and solemn let it be;

Cry for the departing soul,

"Misere Domine."

The ringing of the passing-bell, which is peculiar to England, is one of the earliest recorded uses to which the church bell was put in this country. The Venerable Bede, in relating the circumstances of the death of St. Hilda of Stranaeshalch (Whitby) in the year 680 says:—

'This nun on a sudden heard the well-known sound of a bell in the air, which used to awake and call them to prayers when any one of them was taken out of this world.'

Among the many objections of the Brownists, it is laid to the charge of the Church of England that though we deny the doctrine of Purgatory and teach the contrary, yet how well our practice suits with it may be considered in our ringing of hallowed bells for the soul. 'We call them,' says Bishop Hall, 'soul-bells, for that they signify the departure of the soul, not for that they help the passage of the soul.' The word 'passing' as here used signifies clearly the same as 'departing,' i.e., passing from life to death. So that even from the name we may gather that it was the intention in tolling a passing-bell to pray for the person dying, and who was not dead. The following clause in the 'Advertisements for due Order' in the 7th year of Queen Elizabeth is much to our purpose:—

'Item. that when anye Christian bodie is in passing, that the bell be tolled, and that the Curate be speciallie called for to comforte the sicke person: and after the time of his passage to ringe no more but one shorte peale and one before the buriall, and another short peall before the burialle.'

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

Despite the cold weather on January 25th, 100 ringers sat down to tea at the annual meeting of the Basingstoke District at Basingstoke.

Canon A. W. Chute, who conducted the Guild service at St. Michael's Church, presided, and the secretary reported a year of steady progress. Ninety-five members paid their subscriptions and those from one or two towers were too late for inclusion in 1946 accounts. With those members in the Forces the membership was well over 100.

Branch officers elected were: Chairman, Canon A. W. Chute; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. Chesterman; executive committee, Messrs. C. J. Munday and W. Cift; Ringing Master, Mr. C. Ostler; hon. auditor, Mr. R. C. Flew. Eighteen new members were elected.

A hearty welcome home was given to those from H.M. Forces, and it was resolved to place on record those who had paid the supreme sacrifice from the district, viz., Donald Balaam and John Goldsmith (Wootton St. Lawrence), Ernest Hearnman (Vatelev), Ronald Kingham and Donald Nash (Basingstoke).

Both St. Michael's and All Saints' towers were visited during the afternoon and evening.

THE BLIZZARD

For 36 years 'The Ringing World' has maintained a continuous publication. The break that occurred after our last issue was unexpected. For the first time in history a nation-wide stoppage of an important section of the Press was ordered. The Trade and Periodical Press was one of the sacrifices insisted upon by the Government in its endeavours to conserve fuel. Testimony is not lacking as to the severity of the blizzard that has swept the country and disrupted communications by land and sea. We trust that the electricity not required for the production of this journal was used to bring warmth and comfort to some families and that the surrender has not been in vain. The first Sunday after the imposition of the ban had that famous epistle of St. Paul's in which he defines charity or, as the word was intended to be used, love. It was not the reference to 'tinkling cymbals' that appealed to the writer, but rather 'though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.' And so we trust that the sacrifice the Exercise has made has been accompanied by the greatest of those three virtues—charity.

In this issue is compressed three weeks' news. The most striking thing the pages of this journal show is the undimmed enthusiasm of ringers in almost every part of the country to carry on. Climatic conditions were not interpreted as cancellations; meetings were held and programmes carried through. Perhaps the most outstanding example of this 'Excelsior' spirit overcoming snow and ice comes from Pocklington, Yorkshire. All the roads into the village in the Beverley district were blocked with snow; the only approach was by train; nevertheless 30 members attended and were greeted with the sight of rescue teams of the R.A.F. going out on their errands of mercy to bring relief to snow-bound villages.

Naturally the veterans who remember the severity of the winter of 1884-5 were unimpressed by conditions that have prevailed during February. One member of 80 in the Oxford Diocesan Guild area walked two miles on the slippery roads from the nearest bus halt to attend a meeting at Chieveley. Kent will play second fiddle to no other part of England. Accordingly, Mr. F. J. Lambert, sen., for his 80th birthday on February 21st, left his own village of Horsmonden to go to Benenden and successfully rang his 250th peal! There is nothing anæmic about such forbears who show the pertinacity of the English ringers.

Another county apt to suffer from being snowbound is Derbyshire, especially in the Peak District. Three lady members were among those who made the journey to Newhall—Arctic Newhall. Our suffering correspondent described the occasion. On the journey home the drifting snow dislocated the bus service, and the three members experienced the greatest difficulty in trudging through the deep snow for the last two miles. The great thing, however, behind these past three weeks is that the bells of the British Isles have been rung proclaiming the message of the Church to her people.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

'Going without "The Ringing World" is worse than going without my dinner,' writes one of our subscribers, who has taken the journal every week since it was first published.

In future the names of Colleges or Universities will not appear after the names of ringers of University peals. The Publications Committee, in coming to this decision, had the wish for uniformity before them. Conductors of University peals will note this new arrangement by writing the ringer's name with one Christian name as in ordinary peals.

Corrections.—The peal rung at Penshurst, Kent, on February 1st, was Double Norwich Court Bob Major, and the name of the ringer of the 4th was Ernest V. Ladd. With apologies to all concerned.

Mr. Walter Idle, of Earlsheaton, Dewsbury, celebrated his 82nd birthday by entertaining some 20 ringing friends to tea. Proceedings started by ringing various methods at the Parish Church. After a bountiful tea there was handbell and church bell ringing. Many more happy birthdays was the sincere wish of the company.

Plans are in hand for a Leicester Diocesan Guild festival, consisting of ringing during the day, dinner in the evening and a dance at night. The de Montfort Hall, the largest in the city, has been booked for the date, Saturday, October 25th. The Exercise is asked to take a special note of the date.

The peal of Double Norwich rung at Westbourne, Sussex, on December 28th, 1946, was rung for the Sussex County Association.

Many favourable comments have been received by the Editor of the excellent broadcast by Mr. F. Grisewood with the co-operation of the bells of St. Mary's the Great, Cambridge. Addressed to the non-ringing public, it was full of interest.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The new Archbishop of Perth, Australia, is the Rev. R. W. Haines Moline, Vicar of St. Paul's, Knightsbridge. When Vicar of North Cadbury, Somerset, he was taught to handle a bell and took part in ringing. The Bishop of Liverpool on Feb. 15th rang after dedicating new bells at Emmanuel Church, West Derby, Liverpool. There are, therefore, at least two members eligible for the episcopal peal.

A Yorkshire memo. The local company at St. Oswald's, Guiseley, have rung their first peal since 1912. There were three first peals.

The peal of Cambridge Major at St. Mary-le-Tower, Ipswich, was rung after meeting short for Cambridge Maximus, which would have been W. P. Garrett's 100th peal of Maximus. It was a birthday compliment to W. P. Garrett and C. J. Sedgley, who are both on the sick list.

That fine ring of ten at St. Bartholomew's Wednesday, is to be rehung on ball bearings with new fittings by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd., who installed them 35 years ago. It is hoped to have the bells ringing again on Easter Sunday.

When Mr. George Hawkins, tower master of St. Michael's, Bath, went to switch on the light in the belfry recently for practice, there was a flickering. Suspecting trouble, he descended and found the fuse box near the nave on fire. A quick turn out by the brigade saved the church from serious damage.

Mr. Charles J. Sedgley has undergone an operation and is a patient in Lower D Ward, Borough and General Hospital, Ipswich. Another operation is to be performed and it is expected Mr. Sedgley will be in hospital until after Easter. He is, however, as well as can be expected and would welcome a letter from anyone who cares to write.

THE 59th HENRY JOHNSON COMMEMORATION DINNER

CONTINUED PROSPERITY OF ST. MARTIN'S GUILD ..... MR. ALBERT WALKER'S FIFTY YEARS' MEMBERSHIP ..... BISHOP OF BIRMINGHAM FORESEES DEEPER RELIGIOUS UNDERSTANDING

The 'Henry Johnson' Commemoration Dinner still holds its unique position among the ringing festivals. There was a full attendance for the 59th commemoration dinner at Birmingham on Saturday to do honour not only to the memory of that great ringer of the last century, but to congratulate the present chairman, Mr. Albert Walker, who this year has completed 50 years of conspicuous service to St. Martin's Guild. 'He has all the characteristics that mark a really good citizen and a good Christian,' was the happy phrase Canon T. Guy Rogers paid to the genial chairman.

Supporting him were the Bishop of Birmingham, Canon Blofeld (Vicar of Edgbaston), the Rev. J. S. Billings (Vicar of Shirley), Canon Rogers, the Rev. F. G. G. Werman (Vicar of Aston), Cclr. A. Paddon Smith (Master of the St. Martin's Society), Mr. G. E. Fearn (Ringing Master) and Mr. T. H. Reeves (hon. secretary and treasurer).

Among the many visitors were Messrs. H. Knight (secretary, Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford), F. Pervin (Master, Coventry Diocesan Guild), F. Skidmore (Bristol), W. H. Viggers and C. W. Denyer (Aldershot), A. V. Davis and Mrs. Marshall (Bournemouth), Capt. E. F. M. Samson (Leicester Guild), C. H. Kippin (Southampton), F. E. Collins (Croydon), W. F. Judge, W. C. Porter and Miss M. R. Cross (Oxford), D. C. Mears (Hitchin), H. Middleton and J. Hemming (Evesham), J. F. Smalwood (London), J. Freeman, R. S. B. Croft, J. L. Millhouse, Miss M. Lyon, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Wayman, C. McGuinness (Lincoln Diocesan Guild), J. E. Cawser (Rotherham) and Stafford Green.

Apologies were received from the Lord Mayor, the Provost, Canon Maskell, the Rev. A. E. Fraser, Messrs. S. F. Palmer, C. Dean, W. C. Dowding, (ill with gastritis and first dinner he had missed for 25 years), J. George, J. H. Shepherd, J. W. Jones (Newport), J. P. Fidler and R. Bragg.

Proposing the toast of 'Church and State,' Mr. E. O. Shepherd said to-day the State professed a great interest in the religious education of the children and no one could dispute its importance as they had a generation of children growing up who accepted the materialistic state of things as the natural course of life. As headmaster of a school of 400 children, the State required of him to produce a syllabus of religious education, but unless the individual teachers taught that syllabus as an inspired subject, there would be no religious instruction. He submitted a special plea that their teachers in their training colleges be given the help and encouragement to teach that subject, and it was a matter in which the Church could help the State.

The Lord Bishop of Birmingham, in reply, said it was difficult to imagine an occasion in which Church and State was not more naturally linked together than that. They carried the name of St. Martin's Church in their title, and that church, he supposed, stood for more than any other building in Birmingham. The first reference to their city was about 1520 or 1530, but St. Martin's Church went back to the 13th century and it also had distinct traces of Norman work.

CHURCHES NOT MONUMENTS OF THE PAST.

There were pessimists who suggested that religion was decaying and the State was becoming increasingly secular and they must look forward to the time when their churches so far as they existed were interesting monuments of a past that was slipping away.

MR. ALBERT WALKER
50 Happy Years With St. Martin's.

'I personally do not accept that prophecy of the future,' said the Bishop. 'At times there will be friction between Church and State when one seems in importance to outweigh the other, but during the centuries there has been a singular continuity, and I can quite imagine a century hence when the present turmoil and rapid intelligent advance has ceased that man will turn once again to reformulate Christian belief and realise how profoundly important it is for the well-being of this land.'

'We are likely to have many difficult times ahead, but as I see the situation a deeper religious understanding will arise. In the first half of the 18th century did not Wesley and his followers try to overcome social disorder by the message they carried through England, and did not they succeed marvellously in raising their own religious standard as they sought to raise man to understand the Gospel of Christ? Let us, therefore, look confidently to the future of Church and State continuing in happy association as in the past.'

'The memory of the late Henry Johnson' was submitted by the Chairman, who said that he had not the advantage of many who had presided at those gatherings of knowing Henry Johnson in the flesh. Henry Johnson was born 138 years ago at Lichfield and moved to Birmingham when he was about four or five years of age. At the age of 17 he started his ringing career. There was a man named Roberts, a change ringer at Aston, who taught Johnson to handle a bell. He progressed rapidly and conducted his first peal when he was 21.

ASSOCIATION WITH FAMOUS COMPOSERS.

In 1833 Henry Johnson joined the St. Martin's Society and remained a member until his death in 1890. A point about Henry Johnson was his early association with some of those great conductors and composers—Henry Cooper, Charles and Thomas Thurstans, Lates and Day. Some of these men took part in those famous peals recorded at St. Martin's—the 7,200 Kent Treble Bob Maximus, conducted by Henry Cooper, and the Stedman Cinques conducted by Thomas Thurstans. It was Thomas Thurstans who composed the famous four-part peal of Stedman Triples, and that was rung on the front eight of St. Martin's on May 18th, 1846. Eight members of their society on the centenary—May 18th, 1946—rang the same peal on the front eight. Johnson was famous not only as a ringer and conductor, but also as a composer, and it was recorded that he was a tremendous help to Lates and Thurstans in producing their peals.

In 1881, on his 72nd birthday, Johnson took part in a peal recorded on a tablet at St. Martin's of 9,238 Stedman Cinques, which he composed. He rang the sixth in 6 hours and 42 minutes. In 1886, when he was 77, he was presented on his birthday with his portrait and an illuminated address. On his 80th birthday in 1889 there was a three days' celebration at Birmingham at the invitation and expense of Sir Arthur Heywood. Johnson died in 1890 and was buried at Aston.

At the request of the chairman, those who knew Henry Johnson in the flesh stood up. They were Messrs. W. A. Clark, Charles Williams and G. T. Michieson.

The toast of 'Continued Prosperity to St. Martin's Guild' was proposed by Cclr. A. Paddon Smith, who said during the last year death had dealt very lightly with them and they had lost only two members—Mr. Rupert Richardson, Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild, who was a great ringer and a great man in every sense, and William Davis, who was for some years towerkeeper at Aston, a staunch member of the Guild and a regular Sunday ringer. The aim and object of their ringing was to provide the best ringing possible on a Sunday, and it was in that respect that the St. Martin's Guild took a just pride. They had members in almost every tower in the Diocese of Birmingham.

A LIVE ORGANISATION.

As evidence of their continued prosperity the following rings were recast between the two wars: St. Martin's; the Cathedral; Aston, which was augmented from 10 to 12; King's Norton, from 8 to 10; Edgbaston, from 6 to 8; Selly Oak; Bishop Ryder's; St. Chad's Roman Catholic Cathedral; Solihull; Shirley, from 5 to 6 (and now to be augmented to 8, the order having been placed with Messrs. Taylor); Knowle, from 6 to 8. Adjoining them were Walsall, which had been recast and augmented from 10 to 12; West Bromwich; Wednesbury; and Willenhall, from 8 to 10. He quoted those figures to show what a live organisation existed because augmentations and recastings only took place where they had good and enthusiastic ringers.

In extending the congratulations of the company to Mr. Harry Middleton, who would be 81 next birthday, Cclr. Paddon Smith recalled that he was one of the few remaining who rang in the 11,111 Stedman Cinques on Boxing Day, 1901. That had now been beaten at Oxford; he did not know if St. Martin's had any youngsters who would take up the cudgels. Their success was due in recent years in no small measure to Mr. Reeves, who had done 18 years as hon. secretary and treasurer, while he (the speaker) was secretary for 20 years.

Mr. T. H. Reeves, responding, said the prosperity was due to the spirit that permeated the Guild, the spirit of Henry Johnson, a real gentleman who was ever ready to help

A Selection from Three Weeks' Post Bag

Treble Bob Major Now In Hairdressing

Dear Sir,—Many bellringers who have read the Lord Peter Wimsey series of detective stories will recall the ingenious use of Kent Treble Bob Major made so cleverly by the authoress Dorothy Sayers in one of her crime mysteries—'The Nine Tailors.'

I was, however, intrigued by the words Treble Bob Major appearing as the title of an article in a recent issue of a hairdressing periodical through which I happened to be glancing. The article, which was fully illustrated, dealt with a particular style of ladies' hairdressing which the author had named Treble Bob Major.

He likened, in effect, three curls at the back of the head to three downward peals of bells and 'the centre sweep,' to quote the author's words, 'to the harmony of the second bell in a full peal of Kent Treble Bob Majors.' Doubtless due to my ignorance of the art of hairdressing, I failed to see any similarity, and my hairdresser friend, an ignoramus of change ringing, could not help me.

Many other styles of ladies' hairdressing could, no doubt, be invented in which our standard methods of bellringing play a part. However, this example opens up but another field of application in which 'the hidden intricacies' of change ringing can be utilised, and I shall be interested to hear the observations of any of your readers who may have read also the article appearing in the hairdressing journal.—Yours truly, the younger man. As secretary he must pay tribute to the assistance he got from his officers; the table plan, for instance, was the work of George Fearn, their Ringing Master.

Cheltenham. D. A. NEWCOMBE.

One of the features of St. Martin's Guild was their good striking which had been with them for generations. That tradition, he felt sure, would continue with their younger men. As evidence of good ringing Mr. Reeves called attention to the record that had been made of the broadcast of their Cathedral bells, of which a few still remained and were for sale.

Canon T. Guy Rogers proposed the health of 'The Chairman' and spoke of his services to the Guild and to St. Martin's. In reminiscent vein, the Canon recalled his induction to St. Martin's and the consternation that arose when the rope broke when he pulled it to toll the bell. Mr. Walker was not then Master of the tower, but he still remembered Mr. Walker's concern on that occasion and how he repaired the rope.

The Chairman acknowledged the compliment rendered with musical honours, and said Canon Rogers was the seventh Rector he had been connected with at St. Martin's. He had had 50 happy years with the Guild and it had been a most pleasurable service.

'Kindred Ringing Societies' was the toast submitted by Mr. W. B. Cartwright, who mentioned that among the societies represented at that gathering were the Ancient Society of College Youths, the Worcester and Districts Association, the Society for the Archdeaconry of Stafford, the Coventry Diocesan Guild, the Gloucester and Bristol Association, the Oxford Diocesan Guild, the Guildford Diocesan Guild, the Surrey Association, the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild, the Kent County Association, the Yorkshire Association and the Leicestershire Association.

Mr. T. W. White, Editor of 'The Ringing World,' and Mr. J. Frank Smalwood replied.

During the evening songs and duets were given by Mr. G. J. Hemming and Mr. G. Neilan, with Miss Joan Reeves, daughter of the hon. secretary, as accompanist. There was change ringing by members of St. Martin's Guild.

Ringers' Names on Bells

Dear Sir,—In the campanile at Beccles, Suffolk, the ninth has the name of a ringer. This bell was recast in 1909. Under the names of the rector and churchwardens is 'Henry Hopson, Captain.' It was through the latter's energy and contributions that the ten bells were rehung and ropes put in proper order; before rehanging they were 1, 9, 7, 8, 10, 2, 6, 5, 4, 3. Mr. Hopson was neither a naval nor army captain.—Yours truly,

G. E. SYMONDS.

57, Mornington Avenue, Ipswich.

EXAMPLES IN KENT.

Dear Sir,—At two adjoining parishes at Gravesend, Kent, ringers' names appear on a bell at each tower.

At Gravesend, the old peal of eight were recast and rehung in 1923, and on the 6th bell is inscribed, 'Edward Hadlow, a ringer of this town, collected the greater part of the subscription money.' The amount the late Mr. Hadlow collected was over £500.

At the adjoining parish of Milton-next-Gravesend the ring of six was rehung and two trebles added to complete the octave in 1930, and on the 2nd bell is inscribed, 'F. M. Mitchell, 21 years leader.' In this instance also the ringer mentioned was mainly responsible for raising the necessary funds.

'ANON.'

MR. W. H. FUSSELL.

Dear Sir,—In 1913 Slough Parish Church received a new octave, the tenor bell of which was inscribed, 'The gift of William H. Fussell, Esq.' Mr. Fussell, who died in 1944, became famous as organising secretary of the party of English bellringers who journeyed to Australia in 1934, as the only ringer to complete a peal in every county of England and Wales, and as one of that select company whose peal total exceeded a thousand.

A beautifully carved plaque to the memory of the late William Herbert Fussell was unveiled in the belfry of Slough Parish Church on February 22nd.—Yours faithfully,

W. BIRMINGHAM.

A DENIAL

Sir,—Mr. Limpus' letter in your last issue, February 14th, is rather misleading. We may have met somewhere, but I certainly was not in the peal he mentions at Old Windsor, and, in fact, never rang in the tower until 1942.

Anyone who has 'The Ringing World' for February 2nd, 1912, can see for themselves, and from my knowledge of that band I do not think they would find any necessity to fire the bells in Grandsire Triples.

A. H. PULLING.

CAMBRIDGE MAJOR 5,090 CHANGES

Dear Sir,—Report of peal of Cambridge Major, 5,090 changes. Is this correct, please, or are Messrs. Price and Kippin putting the cat among the pigeons?

Circle specialists.—Looking through my records I have nine towers to my credit with three more on the waiting list. Two of the towers I have circled twice. When my good health returns—I have been on sick list since January 15th—I hope to complete the dozen.—Yours truly,

FRANK WARRINGTON.

St. Ives, Hunts.

BELLS RUNG BACKWARDS

Dear Sir,—With reference to F. A. Cluett's letter mentioning bells being 'rung backwards,' further mention of this practice may be found in Nicholls' 'Bells Thro' the Ages,' page 123, is an inscription on the bells of St. Ives, Hunts.

'When backwards rung we tell of fire,
Think how the world shall thus expire.'

Yours faithfully,

PETER D. WENHAM.

Kington Ex-Captain's Protest

Dear Sir,—I saw the letter in 'The Ringing World' regarding the peal of Minor at Kington. I had been arranging a peal myself and I was going to attempt to call it. Imagine my disappointment when these peal snatchers sneaked into our tower and rang it. Three of our members had been in company with this 'peal snatching' band at a meeting at Eardisland on the previous Saturday, when nothing was mentioned about desiring a peal on our bells.

The ringers of Kington tower have raised £186 themselves towards the cost of two new bells for our tower. What encouragement have these 'peal snatchers' given us by going over our heads to get the bells for a peal?

I suppose it will please 'the peal snatchers' to know that as a result of their peal I have resigned by captaincy and membership of the Kington tower (my own native tower) where I have been a member for 30 years and where my father was a member for 40 years and captain for 18 years. This took a bit of doing, but if sportsmanship in ringing is so low as it appears to be, then I can do without it.—Yours, etc.,

TREVOR JONES

(late captain, Kington tower).

Kington, Herefordshire.

THE YOUNGEST MASTER

Dear Sir,—At a recent meeting of the Minster Abbey Guild of Bellringers, Master Stanley Evans was elected Master at the early age of 16½ years. He had previously held office as Vice-Master.

Is he the youngest Master?

Perhaps some of your readers could enlighten me.—Yours sincerely,

JOHN M. WATSON.

PEAL WITHDRAWN

Dear Sir,—After consultation with the Essex peals secretary, I wish to withdraw the peal of Superlative rung at Bocking on May 11th 1946.—Yours,

R. SUCKLING.

Braintree, Essex.

RANG HIS 250th PEAL FOR HIS 80th BIRTHDAY

On February 22nd, a grand old 'Man of Kent' braved the elements to go to Benenden for his 250th peal. Mr. F. J. Lambert, sen., of Horsmonden, who celebrated his 80th birthday on February 21st, rang his first peal 58 years and 9 months ago, and for a man who has lived all his life in a country village his list of peals is a very creditable one.

Mr. Lambert comes of a ringing family and has taught several of his sons to ring, not to mention his nephews the Bromleys. The Lamberts have managed to ring at least one 'family' eight-bell peal and hope to repeat the performance. The Lamberts and Bromley form the nucleus of the band at Horsmonden, where a great tradition of striking on the glorious ring of six has been carefully built up and worthily maintained.

In these days Mr. Lambert generally prefers the treble, but just before his 79th birthday he rang 'inside' to a peal of Cambridge Major, and on his present form could easily repeat the performance! Long may he live to ring many another peal! His peals are as follows:—

Doubles: 3.

Minor: One to seven methods 81, Fourteen methods 1.

Triples: Grandsire 39, Stedman 6, Plain Bob 2, Oxford Bob 1.

Major: Plain Bob 31, Double Bob 1, Oxford Bob 2, Canterbury Pleasure 1, St. Clement's Bob 1, Double Norwich 10, Kent Treble Bob 18, Oxford Treble Bob 2, Superlative Surprise 18, Cambridge Surprise 12, New Cambridge Surprise 1, Norfolk Surprise 4, Yorkshire Surprise 4, Bristol Surprise 2, Ashstead Surprise 1, Caters: Grandsire 1, Stedman 3.

Royal: Kent Treble Bob 5.

Total: 250.

The Rev. E. Banks James

By the passing of the Rev. Edward Banks James on February 20th, the Cambridge University Guild has lost its last link with the little group who were well-known members of the Exercise before the end of the last century, and the whole ringing fraternity has lost one who brought a powerful and original mind to bear on problems of composition. Together with his brother, the late Rev. H. Law James, he was a member of the well-known band at St. Michael's, Gloucester, before coming into residence at Cambridge in 1889. He took part in the Guild's first peal, Bob Triples on handbells in 1890, and from that time figured in many of the Guild peals, often as conductor or composer.

At the time when much attention was being paid to the composition of Grandsire Triples he produced several ten-part peals of great merit. As is well known, he produced Bristol Surprise, and Little Bob, conducting the first peal ever rung of the latter in 1911. He also produced Silchester, and was discussing it with the writer only a month before his death. These are by no means all the contributions he made to the theory of composition.

He was one of the party who toured Australia in 1934, and a peal of Bob Major (the Barrabool peal), composed by him in the Mediterranean, was rung on handbells in the Arabian Sea. It was rung half-muffled in his memory by the Cambridge University Guild on February 22nd at St. Andrew the Great, Cambridge.

In addition to his activities as a ringer he was a very fine chess player, representing Cambridge University against Oxford during his residence. He was very interested in printing and possessed a printing press with which he produced some very beautiful examples of printing.

It was always a pleasure to be in his company, for one could be sure of interesting conversation full of original ideas, and he was always willing to impart his knowledge and help any who brought problems to him. Most of his life was spent in teaching, among his pupils being C. W. Woolley, of Bushey.

THE FUNERAL.

The interment took place at the Church of St. Lawrence, Surfleet, on February 24th, when he was placed by the side of his brother, the Rev. H. Law James. The Rev. G. H. Clark (Vicar) conducted the service, at which the 23rd Psalm and the hymn, 'For all the saints,' were sung. After the committal prayers a course of Grandsire Doubles was rung by Mrs. E. M. Wayman 1-2, Edwin J. Lindley 3-4, Mrs. R. Richardson 5-6.

The family mourners were Miss B. Wasley (niece) and Miss Holland (housekeeper). Mr. and Mrs. Wasley (brother-in-law and sister) were unable to be present. Mr. E. J. Lindley represented the Cambridge University Guild, the Rev. F. B. Shepherd being unable to attend owing to clerical duties. Lincolnshire ringers were represented by Mr. A. J. Farr, Mr. W. A. Richardson and Mrs. R. Richardson (captains of Spalding, Pinchbeck and Surfleet towers), Mrs. E. M. Wayman and Messrs. J. Ames, C. Rawding and N. King.

Later the same day the bells of St. Lawrence's were rung half-muffled and a peal of Bob Major was rung in the evening. The floral tributes included one from the Cambridge University Guild.

MR. STEPHEN WIGHTMAN

Mr. Stephen Wightman, of Creetingham, Suffolk, who died on February 15th, aged 77, was one of six brothers. He learnt to ring in 1885, rang his first peal the following year at Easton, Suffolk, and was a member of the Framden band. For the Norwich Association he rang 155 peals, but since 1909 through rheumatism he had been prevented from ringing. His last peal was Cambridge Surprise at Helmingham, Suffolk. His longest length was 10,080 Bob Major at Helmingham in 1895.

OBITUARY

MR. RICHARD MOUNT

It is with deepest regret we report the passing of Richard Mount, of Waltham-on-the-Wolds, Leicestershire. He was born at Saltby and first learned to ring on the three old bells.

Later he took over the Glebe Farm at Waltham and joined the ringers at the Parish Church. Not an extensive peal ringer (he had rung 23 for the old M.C.A.), he was a most conscientious Sunday service ringer and hardly ever missed a meeting of the Melton Mowbray district, whether it was of the Framland Society or M.C.A. He joined the latter association in 1906, and on the splitting into Leicester Diocesan Guild, he was chosen as the chairman of the Melton District. Of a most cheerful yet retiring disposition, he was greatly beloved by all who came into contact with him, and in all the villages around Waltham his loss will be keenly felt and his place will be very hard to fill.

After the funeral Waltham bells were rung to his memory when a 240 and 720 of Plain Bob were rung. F.M.

ALD. W. S. B. NORTHOVER

Bridport, Dorset, has lost a leading personality by the death of Ald. Walter S. B. Northover. For many years he had been in charge of Bridport belfry, succeeding his father in this position. His public work included Mayor in 1934 and chairman of the Harbour Board.

It was entirely due to his efforts that the eight bells at St. Mary's, Bridport, were recast and completely rehung in 1924. He was also a very active Freemason in Dorset and also a member of Grand Lodge. The funeral was on February 26th.

Mr. E. A. Pitstow

Mr. Ernest Alfred Pitstow, whose death at the age of 86 was reported in our last issue, was the youngest of the three brothers who did so much for ringing in the 80's and 90's. It was their enthusiasm for the art which brought Saffron Walden to the forefront as a centre for good ringing and made their name known throughout the Exercise.

Ernest Pitstow never took up composing and conducting—he left that to his brothers Nathan and Frederick—but he was a very safe ringer in all methods and a first-class striker. Of a very modest and kindly disposition, he was beloved by all who knew him.

His list of peals is not a long one—he rang about 120—but it contains many that are landmarks in the progress made in his time, and some are historic.

His first peal—Kent Treble Bob Major at Sawbridgeworth on Boxing Day, 1883—was followed by a trip to London in January, 1884, when he rang four peals in four days for the Cumberlands—Kent Major, Kent Royal, Double Norwich and Grandsire Triples. His next was the first peal of Treble Bob in the City of Ely, and the next the first performance of T. Lockwood's 6,016 of Kent Major—rung at Lavenham in four hours.

In 1885 he went to Long Melford to ring in the late W. J. Nevard's first peal, and so started a lifelong friendship. In 1887 he rang in the first peal of Oxford Treble Bob by the Essex Association and followed this with a peal of Kent Royal at Chelmsford, the first on the bells and the first peal on ten by the Essex Association.

The next year saw him in Berkshire, where with the Rev. F. E. Robinson and J. W. Washbrook he rang four peals in four days.

In 1890 he toured the Eastern Counties with the Rev. F. E. Robinson, Canon G. F. Coleridge and J. W. Washbrook, when they rang nine peals in six days, including Kent Royal at Aylsham and Kent Maximus at St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, both on the one day, a considerable achievement in those days. This tour was rounded off with a peal of Stedman Caters at Great St. Mary, Cambridge, the first in Stedman's home town.

Following a peal of Stedman Cinques at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields in April, 1892, the first by the Essex Association, he toured Devon and Cornwall with the Rev. F. E. Robinson and Canon Coleridge, where they rang six peals. It was during this tour that the party rang the first course (Grandsire Caters) ever to be rung on Exeter Cathedral bells. There were four men on the tenor, the other bells being rung singlehanded.

In December of that year he went to Christ Church, Southgate, to ring J. W. Washbrook's 7,072 of Superlative, the longest length yet attempted in this method. The peal was successfully accomplished in 4 hours 58 minutes, but he had the mortification of being told a week or so later by his brother Nathan that the figures were false.

He next rang at Saffron Walden in the first peal of Superlative in Essex and followed this with the 8,800 Superlative at Loughborough, rung in 6 hours 16 minutes, composed and conducted by Nathan Pitstow. Canon Coleridge rang in this peal and is believed to be now the only survivor of the band. This peal stood as the record for the method for many years.

Within a month of this achievement he rang at Saffron Walden in the first peal of Cambridge in the Eastern Counties. In 1895 he was in Devon again with the Rev. F. E. Robinson and rang four peals. The next peal of note was the first peal of London Surprise Major in Essex, rung at Saffron Walden on January 10th, 1899. Another notable peal was one of Stedman Triples on the bells of the Roman Catholic Church, Cambridge, in January, 1904 (tenor 32 cwt.), the only peal to be rung on this grand ring until last year.

His last peal was at Saffron Walden on October 6th, 1936, when at the age of 76 he rang the 8th to the first peal (Stedman Cinques) on the twelve bells.

In addition to his ringing activities, Ernest Pitstow had taken a leading part in the musical life of Saffron Walden. His exceptional qualities as a musician enabled him to teach and inspire others, and for 40 years he was conductor of the Saffron Walden Excelsior Band.

The funeral service was held at Saffron Walden Parish Church on February 12th and was attended by a large congregation. It was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. M. R. Sinker), assisted by the Rev. Humphries, and the music was beautifully rendered by the organist and choir. As the cortege left the church for the Borough Cemetery the bells were rung muffled.

He leaves two sons—Harold and Leonard—to carry on the work which was nearest his heart, for both are ringers and conductors of music. His three grandchildren also are ringers.

MR. ANDREW SHUFFLEBOTHAM

A life member of the North Staffordshire Association and for many years a member of the Essex Association, Mr. Andrew Shufflebotham died on February 14th, aged 72.

A native of North Staffs, he learned to ring at Hanley and later joined the Stoke-on-Trent band until his work took him to Braintree, Essex, where he joined the local band and rang most of his peals in that society. He always visited Stoke for his holidays and made straight for the tower, always ready to lend a hand either for call changes or Cambridge, and was a sure and safe ringer. After a lapse of 25 years he rang his 140th peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Stoke on September 16th, 1944.

He was taken ill whilst on his annual holiday in August last year and died six months later in the City General Hospital. Four of the ringers of St. Peter's, Stoke, acted as bearers. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung at the graveside by F. Wilshaw 1-2, N. Holland 3-4, C. H. Page 5-6, A. D. Steel 7-8.

MEETING AT HATHERLEIGH.

Despite severe wintry conditions the North-West Branch of the Devon Guild held its annual meeting at Hatherleigh on February 15th, when members from Bradworthy, Bridgerule, Bude, Marhamchurch, Okehampton, Petrockstowe, Pyworthy, Sutcombe and the local band were present.

The Vicar-designate (the Rev. B. C. Gough) welcomed the company and conducted the service. Mr. Manaton being the organist. Tea, served in Jerwood's Cafe, was followed by a business meeting. Reports were presented and the balance in hand was £7 17s. 8d. The Rev. W. H. T. Ravenhill (chairman), Mr. J. W. Sangwin (secretary), Mr. W. Shears (treasurer), Mr. F. Sangwin (Ringing Master) were re-elected with the Rev. W. H. Smale and Mr. P. Sangwin (representatives to the General Committee) with the addition of Mr. W. H. R. Smale. Four new members were elected, and it was decided that a practice meeting be held at Holsworthy on May 17th with a branch meeting at Halwell in October.

Votes of thanks were accorded the Vicar for his striking address and the organist, as well as for the use of the bells. Methods rung were confined to rounds, call-changes and Triples.

POSITION OF MID-DEVON BRANCH.

Owing to abnormal weather conditions, the Mid-Devon Branch have found it necessary to alter the date of their annual meeting at St. James', Teignmouth, to February 22nd.

Despite the fact that this particular area is difficult to work, the past year has been a successful one. Four meetings have been held, at which a variety of methods have been rung, and the joint meeting with the South-West Branch last summer was highly successful, with a particularly high standard of ringing. Visitors from outside the county who have been on holiday in the area have also been provided for.

The branch laments the death of one of its outstanding personalities, Mr. Christopher R. Walker, and his death leaves a gap which will not very easily be filled. Financially, too, the branch has almost recovered its former status, and the branch generally is very grateful for all the help it gets from members of other branches and visitors from outside the county.

NORWICH ASSOCIATION

RETIREMENT OF MR. W. J. LEE.

Owing to advancing years, Mr. W. J. Lee tendered his resignation as chairman of the East Norfolk Branch at the annual meeting held at Gorleston-on-Sea on February 8th. The Vicar (the Rev. E. L. Corbell) presided, supported by the Rev. J. S. Heard (president of the association), Mr. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master), Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher, Mr. H. Tooke (secretary of North Norfolk) and Mr. J. G. W. Harwood (secretary of East Norfolk). Mr. H. J. Eldred was elected the new chairman, Mr. J. G. W. Harwood re-elected secretary, and Mr. P. Newstead added to the committee. On the proposition of Mr. Golden, a vote of thanks was expressed to Mr. Lee for his long service in the chair.

A silent tribute was paid by all standing to the memory of Mr. Rupert Richardson. Sir Nicholas Bacon and Mr. William A. Arnott. The next meeting is to be held at Ranworth on May 10th. Mr. Chand'er was thanked for playing the organ as well as for assisting in the ringing.

Owing to the very severe weather, the meeting was poorly attended, the local company being conspicuous by their absence. Fourteen members attended from Caistor-on-Sea, Folkestone, Gorleston, Mulbarton, Norton, Norwich, Wymondham and Great Yarmouth. There was no ringing after tea, as everybody was frozen up. Methods rung during the afternoon were Plain Minor, Kent Minor, Stedman Triples, Grandire Triples and Double Norwich.

East Grinstead Guild

DIVISION INTO FOUR SECTIONS.

The annual meeting of the East Grinstead and District Guild was held at East Grinstead on February 8th. The weather conditions restricted attendance, only 31 ringers attending from Balcombe, Buxted, Eastbourne, East Grinstead, Hartfield, Lamberhurst, Sevenoaks, Tunbridge Wells, Wadhurst and Witherham. The service was conducted by the president (Dr. G. Golding-Bird, D.D.), with a short but telling address by the Rev. Scott-Gardner.

After entertaining the company to tea in the small parish hall, the president took the chair for the serious business of the day, although, with such a chairman, no meeting is allowed to be very dull.

Dr. Golding-Bird was unanimously re-elected president, and the vice-presidents were re-elected except the Rev. H. Dennison, who had left the district. The Revs. G. C. C. Pepps and J. R. Missen are to be invited to become vice-presidents.

Mr. B. Collison intimated that in future he would not be able to attend very regularly, and asked for another chairman to be elected, but after Mr. A. Relfe had been elected vice-chairman to support him, Mr. Collison agreed to continue in office. Other alterations in officers were Mr. A. Ryman, hon. auditor, vice Mr. G. Lambert, and Mr. E. J. Ladd elected to the committee vice Mr. A. Batten, who has left the district. After some discussion it was decided that the Guild should be divided into four sections, North, South, East and West, and a meeting held in each section successively, so that all members had a meeting close handy at least three times a year. Mr. E. J. Oliver proposed that the Guild should hold a summer ringing outing. He was supported by Mr. E. J. Ladd and it was agreed to hold such an outing, the date and arrangements to be left to the committee.

The annual report showed that the Guild was in a very healthy state, the balance in hand being £55 2s. 5d.

DONCASTER AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

The twenty-sixth annual meeting was held at St. George's Church, Doncaster, on January 25th. A short service at 4 p.m. was conducted by the Vicar, Canon L. Davies. Members were present from Arksey, Barnby Don, Campsall, Handsworth, Felkirk, Sprotborough, Adwick-le-Street, York Minster, Rotherham and the local company.

At the business meeting the secretary presented the balance sheet for 1946, which was accepted. The Walker Cup for the most regular attendance for Sunday ringing was won by Doncaster, and was presented by its donor, Mr. Harold Walker, to the captain, Mr. E. C. Stacey.

It was decided to raise the subscription for the society to one shilling, as it was evident from the secretary's report that sixpence per member was insufficient to cover a year's expenses. Ringing was then resumed on Doncaster's fine ring of eight until 9 p.m.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

MILTON-NEXT-GRAVESEND.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mitchell kindly provided tea for the 40 members and friends when the Rochester District met at Milton-next-Gravesend on February 1st. The Rector officiated at the service with the help of the organist and choir, who were local ringers. Mr. G. H. Spice (general secretary) read the lesson.

At the business meeting the Rector presided and seven members were elected, including one life, one honorary, one non-resident life, one practising and two probationers. The next quarterly meeting will be held at St. Michael's, Sittingbourne, in April. A combined practice will be held at Meopham and Robbing on April 12th at 5.30 p.m. Ringing on this very fine ring of bells was most enjoyable and included Cambridge and Double Norwich.

Leicester Diocesan Guild

PLANS FOR FIRST ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

Important decisions were taken at the meeting of the Guild at Hinckley on February 8th regarding the holding of an annual diocesan festival at Leicester. The severe weather restricted the attendance, and the Market Harborough and Melton Mowbray districts were not represented.

The President (Mr. H. J. Poole), who was in the chair, explained that a proposition which had been favourably received by the General Committee was to hold each year a diocesan festival. This would include ringing at all the churches in the city; in the early evening there would be a dinner followed by a dance. Any profits would go to the Bell Restoration Fund.

The President said that the proposed date was October 25th, and the De Montfort Hall had been booked, as it was essential to make early application. He asked ringers from other districts to make the event known as widely as possible. He wanted the festival to be an outstanding event in the Exercise. The meeting gave the proposal its unanimous support.

Other business before the meeting was a reminder to members that according to a rule the annual meeting would be held at Leicester on the first Saturday in May. It was hoped that similar arrangements would be made as last year. Mr. H. G. Jenney and Miss Jill Poole were elected auditors.

The President reported that the General Committee had decided not to print the annual report this year, the treasurer (Mr. A. E. Rowley) pointing out that expenses had been very heavy owing to the provision of books and stationery for the first year. Life membership certificates were available on receipt by the general secretary (Mr. H. W. Perkins) of 1s. 6d., plus postage.

Reference was made by the president to the passing of two ringers, an honorary member and a life member. They were Mr. F. Sharmar, of Thurmaston, who had been an active ringer for more than 30 years; Mr. C. Ison, of Hinckley, who had died very suddenly a few weeks ago and had rung at Hinckley for more than 15 years; the Rev. F. T. Ingle, Vicar of All Saints', who had died in his sleep a week previous after taking the evening service. The last named was an enthusiastic supporter of the local ringers and had been instrumental the previous year in achieving his object to have the bells of All Saints' rehung and increased to six. The frame was made to hold eight. The life member was Mr. Rupert Richardson, whose achievements were known not only in Leicestershire, but up and down the country. The members stood in silence as a mark of respect.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar (the Rev. C. E. Turner), who conducted the service, and to Mr. B. Ridgeway, the steeple-keeper, and his wife, who with other assistance had so ably arranged the tea, attended by a company of 45.

After more tower-bell ringing there was change ringing and tune ringing on the hand-bells.

SALISBURY DIOCESE AGAINST 'SYNTHETIC' BELLS

The Salisbury Diocesan Advisory Committee for the Care of Churches has expressed itself strongly against the use of 'synthetic' bells. The observation of the committee is as follows:

The use of 'synthetic' bells (the playing of bell records by gramophone) has been considered. It was felt not only that the mechanical reproduction of bell-tones was unsatisfactory, but also that nothing should be done to discourage the time-honoured art of bellringing. The committee have advised that this mechanical device should not be used.

The committee report that new bells have been placed in six churches, in two of which (as well as in two others) repairs to the bell frames have been approved.

Beverley and District Society

SNOW DOES NOT DETER ENTHUSIASM.

Having accepted an invitation to hold its monthly meeting at Pocklington on February 8th, the Beverley and District Society decided to go through with the programme. All roads into Pocklington from the Wolds were blocked with snow, and the only approach was by rail. Upon arrival visitors saw a R.A.F. Mountain Rescue Service team leaving for the relief of Huggate, one of the cut off villages. The thirty members who braved these abnormal conditions were from the following towers: Beverley Minster, Cottingham, Hull (Holy Trinity), Hessle, Market Weighton, Nunburnholme and Pocklington.

The bells are a nice ring of six (tenor 13 cwt.), and the members received a warm welcome from the Vicar (Canon Richardson), who officiated at the service. A substantial tea was provided by the local company, the Vicar presiding amid an atmosphere of real comradeship.

At the business meeting Mr. F. Dale (vice-president) presided, supported by Mr. Clem Glenn (Ringing Master) and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary). The Chairman announced that Mr. A. S. Fox (vice-president of the Eastern District) had presented a peal record book to the society.

Invitations from the local ringers to visit Barton-on-Humber and also for a joint meeting with the Selby and District Society at Market Weighton were received and accepted, the secretary being asked to make the arrangements. North Cave was selected for the next meeting on April 12th. Thanks to the Vicar and local company for their warm welcome and splendid tea were voiced by Mr. Sellers, and Mr. Bairstow, in reply, expressed the hope that the society would come again. Seven new members were elected.

The company then adjourned to the tower, where the bells were rung to several different methods and rounds, and a most enjoyable meeting was brought to a close by 'ceasing' the bells in peal.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

NEWBURY BRANCH.

One determined member of 80 walked two miles on the slippery roads from the nearest bus halt to attend the meeting of the Newbury Branch at Chieveley on February 1st. Despite bad travelling conditions, 28 members attended.

After the Guild service, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. S. Hazel), tea was served in the well-warmed Vicarage Barn.

The Vicar presided over the business meeting, when six new members were elected and Thatcham was chosen for the spring meeting on April 12th. Ringing ranged from rounds to an attempt at Surprise Minor.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

BIGGLESWADE DISTRICT AT SANDY.

The 20 members who braved the bad weather on February 8th enjoyed the meeting at Sandy, at which the following towers were represented: Henlow, Blunham, Eaton Socon, Great Barford, Tempsford, Bromham, Chatteris, Turvey, Cambridge and Sandy.

The Rector (the Rev. C. G. Hooper) presided at the business meeting, and Southill was chosen for the next meeting on March 1st. Four new members were elected—two performing and two non-resident members. A collection for the bell fund amounted to 14s.

The Rector welcomed the ringers, and the secretary (Mr. C. J. Ball), in reply, thanked him for joining the ringers at tea and also for the use of the bells. Mr. C. H. Harding thanked the ladies for providing tea.

Ringing included touches of London Surprise, Cambridge Surprise, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Double Oxford, Single Oxford, Plain Bob, Bob Double and rounds.

Shropshire Association

RETIREMENT OF MAJOR E. V. F. CORBETT.

Through failing health and acting on doctor's advice, Major E. V. F. Corbett has resigned the Mastership of the Shropshire Association. This was received with regret at the annual meeting at Shrewsbury on February 1st, Mr. A. Pritchard presiding over an attendance of 45 ringing members, together with life members and visitors. A minute expressing appreciation of Major Corbett's services over a number of years was recorded.

Mr. Arthur Pritchard was elected the new Master. Other officers elected were: Central Council representative, Mr. G. L. Hewitt, trustees, Messrs. A. Woodvine and G. L. Hewitt; auditor, Mr. W. H. Hughes; hon. secretary, Mr. E. D. Poole; assistant secretary, Miss P. Fletcher.

The audited accounts, which showed an improved balance, were accepted.

The secretary, in his report, stated that six meetings had been held in addition to the annual, and had been quite well attended. Nine new members had been elected and nine new life members. Fourteen peals were rung during 1946. At the meeting 15 new members were elected, viz., Claverley (9), St. Michael's, Shrewsbury (4), Stockton (1) and one life member for Crewe.

Meetings for 1947 were discussed. The joint meeting with the Crewe Branch (Chester Guild) at Market Drayton was fixed for June 7th. This will be the third joint meeting and the hope is expressed that it will become an annual event. The next meeting will be at Shifnal on March 22nd. It is hoped to arrange meetings at Worthen, Bicton and Montford. Hodnet and Newport, towers not visited by the association during the war years.

Ringing took place during the afternoon at St. Mary's Church (10) and in the evening at St. Michael's (6) and St. Chad's (12). The service in St. Aidan's chapel of St. Chad's Church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. F. P. Huran).

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Ilchester Deanery Branch at Yeovil on February 8th attracted a fairly good attendance. The Vicar (Preb. H. Mortlock Treen) conducted the service and also presided at the meeting.

Officers re-elected were: Chairman, Preb. G. W. Saunders; hon. secretary, Mr. F. Farrant; Ringing Master, Mr. W. H. Poole. Twenty-one new members were elected and the election of seven members in belfries was confirmed.

It was proposed that a message of sympathy be sent to Preb. G. W. Saunders on his bereavement by the death of Mrs. Saunders. Votes of thanks to the Vicar and organist concluded the business.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

The District Master (Mr. B. G. Burton) gave a cordial welcome to the 41 members and friends who attended the annual meeting of the N.W. District at Harlow Town on Jan. 25th.

Officers elected were: Master, Mr. B. G. Burton; secretary, Mr. G. Blake; committee members, Messrs. S. Clark and W. Aley. Six new members were elected, and Mr. E. J. Butler an honorary member. The next meeting was fixed for Saffron Walden on April 19th.

The proposal to raise the Guild subscription was discussed, and a vote showed that the majority of members were in favour.

Mr. Springham (Harlow Common) thanked the Vicar (the Rev. F. G. Bevan) for conducting the service and for the use of the bells. Messrs. Wheeler and Cordell were also thanked for their services during past years. The compass of the ringing extended from Grandsire to Double Norwich.

Guildford Diocesan Guild

CLASH OF MEETINGS CRITICISED.

Three out of the four districts of the Guildford Diocesan Guild held their annual meetings on February 8th. This clash of meetings was commented upon by Mr. R. Whittington at the annual meeting of the Guildford District, which was attended by 40 members.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden, district secretary, explained that owing to the inability to secure the use of S. Nicolas' Hall on January 18th, the original date, the meeting had to be postponed until February 8th.

Mr. C. W. Denyer said that the Chertsey District had also postponed their annual meeting because of the Cumberland Youths' annual meeting. It was because of these reasons that the annual meetings of Leatherhead, Chertsey and Guildford districts occurred on the same date.

Mr. A. H. Pulling suggested that the hall should be booked twelve months ahead.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden, the district secretary, reported an increase of 18 per cent. in membership. There were, however, a few blank spots, Bramley with three members, Puttenham and Ockham with none. Despite this increase, the total balance of the district's finances had not increased accordingly, due chiefly to a grant made to the Dunsfold Bell Fund and more activity throughout the Guild. It had been the first post-war year in which a full programme of district meetings had been held.

Many rings in the area have been repaired and restored, and future work of this kind includes a war memorial ring of six at Sand and a target of £500 at Shere for restoring the bells has already been reached. A new frame is needed at Womersley, and minor reconstruction, long delayed, is to be done to the frame at S. Nicolas' Guildford. The Hascombe five have been recast and rehung, also the six at Dunsfold, and the six bells at Merrow have been rehung.

Mr. Hazelden was re-elected district secretary, Mr. C. Ernest Smith ringing master, Mr. S. Petter representative on the Guild Executive Committee, and Mr. L. C. W. Hunter auditor. Nominations for election at the Guild annual meeting were: Mr. G. L. Grover, general secretary; Mr. A. Harman, Master; Mr. J. Corbett, treasurer; and Mr. L. C. W. Hunter, auditor.

District meetings for 1947 were agreed upon at Dunsfold, Witley, Puttenham and Cranleigh and five new members were elected.

The meeting was preceded by tea and the Guild service at S. Nicolas' Church, conducted by the Rev. Guy Moss, with Mr. W. A. Dollimore (Aldershot) reading the lessons.

Towers represented were Godalming, Seale, Hersham, Ewhurst, Shalford, Clandon, Womersley, Cranleigh, Aldershot, Pirbright, Worplesdon, Holy Trinity and S. Nicolas' Guildford. The ringing included a touch of Cambridge.

LANCASHIRE TO-DAY

For generations the country has been reminded of those singular traits of Lancashire character of presenting a line of thought and action which is ultimately nationally accepted. We trust this is correct in matters of bell-ringing. The annual report of the Lancashire Association to hand last month starts with this stimulating preamble: 'The first post-war year has brought many signs of encouragement. It is reported that branch meetings have been well attended; peal ringing is increasing, both in the number of peals rung and also in the variety of methods attempted.'

The strength of the association is significant with a total of 1,609, of whom 1,202 are resident ringing members. During the year the association has gained 69 new ringing members, 27 new non-resident members and two hon. life members, while 21 members have rejoined. Other associations have had a greater accession of members; Lancashire, quite rightly, has a qualification for membership in having rung 120 changes on tower or handbells, or covered 500 changes on tower bells and, while proof of ability is desirable, there are guilds which are not insistent upon such a regulation.

As to peal ringing, during the year reviewed 85 peals were rung, a substantial increase on the 50 rung during the previous year. Twenty members rang their first peal, 75 their first in another method, two their first on an inside bell, three their first as conductor and four their first in another method. Two peals received a special mention—that of Oxford Royal at Worsley, which contained nine members who rang their first peal in the method, and the peal of Double Norwich at Woolton, which was the 250th for Mr. Lester L. Gray. Of individual performers, the name of Mr. G. R. Newton, hon. secretary of the Liverpool Branch, is pre-eminent. On August 2nd he rang his 370th peal for the association, thus beating the record of Mr. Harry Chapman.

Lancashire believes in continuity in office. The last annual meeting was the 50th that Mr. W. H. Shuker, a joint hon. secretary, had attended, and he has held the secretarial pen since 1911. The outstanding figure in moulding the Lancashire Association together was Canon Elsee, of Bolton, who was president from 1890 until his death in 1936. The area of the association embraces the dioceses of Blackburn, Liverpool and Manchester and parts of Carlisle and Wakefield, and operates through eleven branches. Doubtless Lancashire ringers are watching closely the effect of the division into three of the old Midland Counties Association. No complaints have reached us that the association is unwieldy, but certainly on a population basis the area centrally administered by the joint secretaries and their committee seems formidable. The test of efficiency, after all, is progress.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Will the ringer who achieved so much in 1946
please forward his name to the Editor so that his record may have the publicity it richly deserves? Anonymous contributions cannot be entertained.

A record of the bells of Birmingham Cathedral has been dispatched to H.M.S. 'Wolfe' for the use of the Rev. M. Melville in announcing church services to the ship's company.

Mr. F. T. Waite, of 38, Rosebury Avenue, Gloucester, is anxious to contact ringers in South Africa. Mr. C. Chambers, P.O. Box
1496, Durban S.A., had a letter in 'The Ringing World' of November 22nd on ringing in the Dominion.

The bells of Southwark Cathedral have been retuned and installed after being kept in safety during the war years. The cost is to be met by Friends of Southwark Cathedral.

Proposed a non-resident member of the Ely Diocesan Guild in 1931, Mr. Percy Amos, of Northampton, has waited 16 years before ringing a peal for that Guild at Stanground, Hunts, which, although only a mile from Peterborough Cathedral, is in another diocese.

The 69th annual report of the Durham and Newcastle Association for 1945-6 is a handy volume, giving membership up to August 31st, 1946, as 461. Of these 288 are ordinary ringing members. Of the 32 peals rung during the year, the compositions are given in nine cases.

Featured in 'The Children's Newspaper' recently was an article dealing with the sisters and nurses of the Royal Cornwall Infirmary, Truro, learning the art of ringing under the direction of Mr. W. H. Southard. Has any hospital its own company of ringers?

BELFRY GOSSIP

Another sacrifice is called for! The Paper Controller has cut the next paper allocation to 'The Ringing World' by 12½ per cent. Other similar periodicals also suffer.

Mr. H. Horier conducted the quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles at Croscombe, Somerset, reported in our issue of February 14th.

The peal of Grandsire Triples at St. Margaret's, Leicester, was in 21 varying parts and believed to be rung for the first time. It was by Albert J. Pitman, of Port Talbot. Specially arranged for the younger members of All Saints' and St. Margaret's, the band consisted of four members from each company.

The appeal on behalf of the rehanging of the bells of St. Thomas', Salisbury, has now reached £651. Ald. J. S. Rambridge, the hon. treasurer, informs us that £1,500 is required.

A broadcast to listen to—the bells of St.
Mary's, Ulverston, on March 16th, at 7.45 p.m. in the Home Service. The bells were cast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank in 1836.

The peal of Stedman Doubles at Swindon on Feb. 11th enabled Messrs. W. B. Kynaston,
C. J. Gardner and W. H. Trueman to complete the Stedman family—Doubles, Triples, Caters and Cinques. Mr. W. B. Kynaston has completed the circle of St. Mary's, Rodbourne Cheney.

Has anybody lost a handbell peal by a clapper coming out? This happened at Bournemouth on February 23rd, when an attempted peal of Grandsire Caters was lost two courses from home. The peal was arranged as a silver wedding compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Davis and also as a 72nd birthday compliment to Mr. F. S. Wilson.
Those taking part were Miss Mary Davis 1-2,
Bruce Rogers 3-4, Mrs. F. John Marshall 5-6,
A. V. Davis (conductor) 7-8, F. S. Wilson
9-10.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

'All Clear'

Dear Sir,—In connection with the recent warnings concerning the activities of one, William Green, I am very pleased indeed to announce the 'All Clear.'

He was arrested in the name of Michael Mulcahy, but his correct name is Frank Haslett. It is said that he has rung about 20 peals and originally belonged to the Christ Church band at Dublin. The peals were rung for the Irish Association, so it is said.

The above information was obtained by a personal interview, and from the conversation it is obvious that he either has done some ringing and has gained some knowledge from some other person. He mentioned Grandsire and Stedman Triples and said his peals included London Surprise Minor. It would be interesting to know from the secretary of the Irish Association if there is any record of a Frank Haslett ever having been a member of that association.—Yours faithfully,

HAROLD J. POOLE,

President of the National Guild of Police Ringers.

The Wayside, 150, Narborough Road South, Leicester.

ST. MARGARET'S, WESTMINSTER, RECORD

Dear Sir,—A few days ago I heard for the first time the recording of the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, ringing Stedman and Grandsire Caters. I was absolutely appalled. The striking is a disgrace to the Exercise, to the band and to the bells, and I am very surprised that such a miserable example of change ringing should have been allowed to be issued. We hear much, especially in these columns, about the urgent necessity for educating the public in the appreciation of our art; surely it is time that a recording of some merit was made to further, instead of hinder, the achievement of this desirable, nay imperative, object.

May I suggest that a band be assembled of the calibre of that which recorded the B.B.C. interval signal to practise and record some musical and sensitively struck touches of Caters and Royal, and that the existing most regrettable performance be withdrawn? — Yours faithfully,

A. R. BURGESS.

Notfield, Herts.

NOTE.—Such a sweeping accusation is hardly justified.—Editor.

TREBLE BOB—HAIRDRESSING

Dear Sir,—It was interesting to read Mr. D. A. Newcombe's letter on the subject of 'Treble Bob Major Now in Hairdressing.' I also saw the hair style in 'The Hairdresser's Journal.'

I looked at it from all angles and can only see a slight resemblance to a bell in the lower curl. I also fail to see why the stylist chose Kent Treble Bob in favour of any other method.

Perhaps someone more experienced in the trade than myself could help us.—Yours truly, BERYL R. COWLIN.

Bexhill-on-Sea.

A BUSMEN'S PEAL

Dear Sir,—Could I, through the medium of your correspondence columns, make a request as follows: Would all busmen, that is to say those who are actively employed as public service vehicle operatives, who are method ringers, kindly communicate with me (address supplied) with a view to a first busmen's peal? We have police, name and clergy peals, so why not a further novel step?

This, of course, is only practicable if those interested live within a reasonable distance of London.—I remain, yours, etc.,

E. J. ROWE, S.R.C.Y.

8, Effingham Road, Hornsey, London, N.8.

Peal Snatchers

Dear Sir,—Never before have I heard of peal snatchers 'sneaking' into a tower to ring the bells.

The belfry is the freehold of the incumbent; he has the custody of the keys and control of the bells (Phillimore's 'Ecclesiastical Law', vol. 1, p. 1,385 and Canon 88).

To enter the church and ring the bells without his consent is trespass and heavy penalties are incurred if against his wish.

As an incumbent, permission has always been asked for from me from outsiders to ring the bells, and I have invariably consulted the foreman ringer before giving that consent.

If these peal snatchers got this permission they could not be said to 'sneak in,' but as a matter of courtesy the incumbent usually notifies the foreman of the application and this gives the foreman a chance to explain why the band of outsiders should not ring just at that time, but should postpone their peal.

One cannot pronounce judgment until the whole of the facts is known. I hope the matter will be amicably settled.—Yours faithfully,

J. M. TURNER,

President, East Devon Guild.

Washfield Rectory, Tiverton.

MR. LIMPUS AND THE OLD WINDSOR PEAL

Sir,—I remember being asked to arrange and call this peal of Grandsire Triples on January 26th, 1912, for Mr. Limpus, of Vancouver, but cannot recall any incident during the ringing to cause him to make such embarrassing accusations about it after an interval of 35 years; the band certainly does not suggest a 'firing squad.'

As Mr. Pulling says, he was not in the peal, but it was July 2nd, 1932, not 1942, that he rang a peal of Bob Major here. I appreciate very much his note of confidence in this week's (March 7th) 'Ringing World.'—Yours truly,

W. WELLING.

Old Windsor.

NOTE.—Mr. Pulling also desires to correct the date of his peal at Old Windsor to July 2nd, 1932.—Editor.

CIRCLE SPECIALISTS

Dear Sir,—My congratulations to Mr. Frank Warrington and I sincerely hope he will complete the circle in a dozen towers.

My bag at the moment is also nine towers. These include 1 ten-bell tower, 8 eight, four of them twice and seven conducted round the circle.—Yours faithfully,

T. E. SONE.

Paddock Wood, Kent.

OBITUARY

MRS. THOMAS WEEKS.

The death occurred at Antigua, Estcourt Terrace, Devizes, on February 27th, of Mrs. T. Weeks, who for over 30 years was an honorary member of the Salisbury Guild, and a life-long parish worker at St. James', Southbroom. Although not a ringer herself she was very closely connected with the Exercise. Both her husband, who died shortly after the ban was imposed on ringing in 1940, and her father, the late Mr. Brownlee West, were both well-known ringers, the latter for many years being a vice-president of the Salisbury Guild.

She leaves two sons, both of whom are ringers at Southbroom and have held positions as officers of the Devizes Branch.

The funeral took place on March 3rd; there was a large congregation, and in the evening a memorial peal was rung half-muffled.

WISBECH, CAMBS.—On Feb. 2nd, 1947 Bob Major with 9.10 covering: A. Upsall 1, Miss M. Longbottom 2, H. Piggins 3, W. Jarvis 4, Miss M. Whitlock 5, F. Wignmore (conductor) 6, W. Storey 7, W. Freeman 8, G. Duffield 9, F. Moyes 10.

'A Pestilence'

PENAL SERVITUDE FOR WILLIAM GREEN.

Described by Mr. Justice Humphries as a 'pestilential old nuisance,' Michael Mulcahy (68), alias William Green, painter, was sentenced to three years' penal servitude at Warwick Assizes on March 7th for obtaining 15s. by false pretences from Ernest Morris at Leicester, and similarly a sum of £1 from Hannah Billingham at Nuneaton.

Mulcahy was stated to have had 29 previous convictions, the Judge remarking that for years he had been preying on the public and getting small sums of money from them.

BRISTOL UNITED RINGING GUILDS

A company of 120 attended the 20th annual dinner of the Bristol United Ringing Guilds at the Grand Hotel, Bristol, on February 15th, when a much regretted absentee was Mr. F. Guise (hon. secretary), who had met with an accident.

Proposing the toast of 'The Church,' Mr. B. Huddleston, who presided, described bell-ringing as a magnificent monument to their churches. It was one of the oldest customs in the country and it was the duty of ringers to see that they did not fail in their professional duty to the Church.

The Rev. J. H. Williams, who replied, deputised for the Bishop of Bristol, who was prevented through illness from attending. He spoke of the debt clergy owed to the ringers and added: 'Times are difficult, times are critical, but we beseech you to carry on with your great art.'

'Absent friends' were remembered on the call of the Rev. M. Paterson. Other toasts were 'The Gloucester and Bristol Association,' proposed by Mr. G. Pullinger and responded to by Mr. C. Rouse; 'Kindred Societies and Visitors,' proposed by Mr. W. S. Emery and responded to by Mr. J. S. Hawkins; 'The Press' by Mr. A. Prince; and 'The Artistes' by Mr. A. Bennett.

MARRIAGE OF MISS M. RICHARDSON

Members of the Universities' Association rang before and after the service at St. Mary's, Sundridge, Sevenoaks, on March 3rd, for the wedding of Mr. Christopher George Hugh Ditmas, son of the late Mr. Hugh Ditmas, of Debatgama, Ceylon, and Mrs. Ditmas, of Charing, Kent, and Monica Jane Fellows Richardson, second daughter of the late Rev. H. S. T. Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, of Sundridge. The bridegroom, formerly a Flight-Lieutenant in the R.A.F., is now a pilot in the B.O.A.O. The Rector (the Rev. A. T. Howden) officiated.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. E. H. Lewis. She wore a dress of white satin decorated with hand-painted cream flowers, and a net veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossom. Her ornaments were a string of pearls and she carried a bouquet of apricot coloured carnations tinged with red.

Her sisters, Brenda, Dorothy and Christine, were bridesmaids. Brenda and Dorothy wore long turquoise dresses and Christine pink. All wore headdresses to match and carried bouquets of deep red tulips. Major Harold Fellows Prymne, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man.

Eighty guests attended the reception at the White Hart, Brasted. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. J. Hooton, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. J. Hatcher, Miss J. Pym, Miss Betty Spice, Miss L. R. E. Martin, Messrs. Wilfrid Moreton, Vernon J. Benning and Philip Gray.

As the bride and bridegroom drove away the bells of St. Martin's, Brasted, were in the first course of a peal of Bob Minor, which was successfully brought round. The bride's travelling dress was a turquoise suit under a brown fur coat, a brown hat, with turquoise trimming, and a brown veil. They are spending their honeymoon in Eire.

SOME NOTES ON CONDUCTING

COURSE-ENDS AND COURSING ORDER.

In the two preceding articles we have studied the effect that bobs and singles have on the coursing order of the bells. In theory, therefore, a student who has successfully mastered the art of transposing as he is ringing should be able to know the effect on the coursing order of each call as soon as it has been made and should be immediately aware of any 'shift' that may occur. It is at this point, however, that theory and practice can sometimes be no longer reconciled. A dozen and one things may, and frequently do, happen in actual ringing to divert the conductor's attention. It may be that he has had to correct a trip, or that a fire engine has just changed by and he is wondering if the church is on fire, or it may be that he is lost in contemplation, or, more likely, he is just 'listening to 'em.' Whatever the distraction, it is necessary to be able to pull one's self together quickly if a trip occurs. Trips have a nasty habit of cropping up unexpectedly and it is in such a crisis that a conductor may have forgotten entirely what the coursing order ought to be. Fortunately, there are several means by which 'to save one's bacon' in such an emergency. The chief of these is in being aware of the essential difference between 'even' and 'odd' as briefly referred to in the first four paragraphs of the last article.

We have seen that once a single has been called an entirely new series of possible coursing orders is introduced. It may equally be said that once a single has been called an entirely new series of possible course-ends is introduced. Now the first (even) series of coursing orders and the first (even) series of course-ends are in mutual relationship, and likewise the second (odd) series of coursing orders and the second (odd) series of course-ends. There are 60 possible course-ends, and therefore 60 possible coursing orders, with the tenors together and the bells in-course, and a different 60 course-ends and coursing orders with the bells out-of-course.

It might be as well at this point to remind the reader that a course-end as normally written down is an abbreviation. For instance, 35264 as a course-end is intended to represent 13526478. 1 and 78 are not normally written down as they fall into their home positions at every course-end. In the same way we may also omit any reference to 7 and 8 when thinking of coursing order.

The following are the 60 in-course (even)

23456	32654	23645	64523	65432
42356	63254	62345	56423	46532
34256	26354	36245	45623	54632
53246	52364	43265	24653	35642
25346	35264	24365	62453	63542
32546	23564	32465	46253	56342
43526	62534	63425	54263	45362
54326	56234	46325	25463	34562
35426	25634	34625	45632	53462
52436	53624	42635	26543	36452
45236	65324	64235	52643	43652
24536	36524	26435	65243	63452

If the bells are in-course the natural course-end (i.e. the change that will occur at the end of the next course unless a further call is made) and the coursing order will both be found in the foregoing list. This is a most significant statement and the reader is advised to check it carefully with several examples. To illustrate the point we will take three examples at random.

If the natural course-end is 12345678 the coursing order is 7532468. If the natural course-end is 16543278 the coursing order is 7356428. If the natural course-end is 15642378 the coursing order is 7265438.

It will be seen that if the course-end belongs to the even group then, as night follows day, the coursing order belonging to that course-end is also to be found in the even group.

There is no need for us to write down the sixty possible odd course-ends and coursing orders. The reader would, however, be well advised to write them out for himself. It may be said quite simply that any possible arrangement of the numbers 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 which is not given in the list above must belong to the odd group.

The next stage along the road is to be able to recognise at sight whether a particular row belongs to the even group or whether it belongs to the odd group. It is hoped to give some hints about this next time.

The three articles now contributed have as their background Plain Bob Major. Much, indeed most, of what has been written can be equally applied to any even-bell method. One feels a great tendency in the Exercise to regard individual methods as watertight compartments, ignoring, in practical ringing, the close and very helpful relationship they have to each other. When methods are seen in this close relationship the words 'first in the method as conductor' frequently become rather meaningless.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD GRIMSBY DISTRICT MEETING.

Considering the weather, there was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Grimsby Branch on February 1st at Grimsby. Towers represented were Caistor, Burton-on-Stather, Scunthorpe, Mablethorpe, Alford, Ulceby, Barton, Barrow, Bigby, Gainsborough, Cleatham and the local members.

The service at St. James' Church was conducted by the president (Canon E. L. Marsden), who based his address on Rupert Richardson, late Guild Master.

The president was in the chair at the meeting when the officers were re-elected. He was asked to accept the bell fund collection of £1 13s. 1d. towards his restoration appeal for St. James', which was badly damaged by bombs. A pleasing feature of the meeting was the election of seven new members from Caistor, a band very keen to learn change ringing. It was decided to hold six district meetings during the year.

A silent tribute, by the members standing, was paid to the memory of Mr. Rupert Richardson, and the secretary was asked to convey the members' deepest sympathy to his widow and daughter. The president thanked the officers for their work during the year, and members then returned to the tower, where ringing was continued until 9 p.m.

ELLOE DEANERIES BRANCH.

The annual meeting was held at Spalding on February 15th, when over 40 members were present. Officers elected were: President, Canon Carnegie; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. E. Allen; Ringing Master, Mr. J. G. Ames; representative on Guild Committee, Mr. A. J. Farr; and auditors, Mr. A. J. Farr and Miss B. Duffy.

Members stood in silence as a mark of respect to their late Master, Mr. Rupert Richardson, after Canon Carnegie had paid high tribute to his life and work for the Guild.

Thirteen new ringing members were elected and meetings and outings for the year were arranged.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

For the annual meeting of the North-Western District 50 members and friends attended at Kingston-on-Thames on February 22nd. Eleven new members were elected and district officers appointed were: Master, Mr. F. E. Collins; treasurer, Mr. H. N. Pitstow; secretary, Mr. R. Lathbury, 15, Russell Road, Walton-on-Thames; auditor, Mr. C. Dean; committee representatives, Messrs. R. Davies, W. Massey and D. Parsons. The next meeting on Easter Monday will be either at Walton-on-Thames or Ewell.

Members attended evensong in the church and the bells were available until 9 p.m.

London County Association

MR. E. ALEX YOUNG RETIRES.

At the annual general meeting of the London County Association, held at its old headquarters, St. James', Clerkenwell, on February 8th, Mr. E. Alex. Young, A.R.I.B.A., requested that the association should accept his resignation, after serving faithfully as an officer (of one rank or another) for 55 years. The words of appreciation voiced during the meeting were ample proof of the value and confidence that had been placed in his services. In Mr. Young's official letter of resignation he stated: 'I now greet and thank all those who have been associated with me and helped me on the long trail, and I wish the association the best of good fortune, and a future of many useful years.'

The vacant appointment of treasurer was accepted by a great friend of the association—Mr. C. J. Strickland.

Another new appointment was that of Mr. T. W. Taffender as trustee, all other posts being filled by the re-election of the 1946 officers, these being as follows: Master, Mr. T. H. Taffender; general secretary, Mr. H. W. Rogers; assistant secretaries, Mrs. O. L. Rogers and Mr. F. W. Alleyway; stewards, Messrs. S. Croft and C. M. Myers; trustee, Mr. A. H. Keighly.

The Master, Mr. T. H. Taffender, in his report, stated that exceptionally well-attended meetings had been held in North, South, East and West London, and the standard of ringing at these had been maintained from rounds to advanced methods such as London Surprise. Thirty-three new members had been elected and the meeting stood in silence in respect of those members who had passed on. Fourteen peals had been rung, in which 45 different members and five conductors had taken part.

Referring to those towers in the area where no local band existed or in some cases only a few ringers are left, various bands of members had visited these churches in rotation and rung for evening service. The personal thanks of the clergy during these visits had shown how very much the ringing (which was generally of peal standard) had been appreciated.

A most valuable augmentation to the Association's Library was made by Mr. W. J. Ellis in the form of bound copies of 'The Bell News.'

Insufficient enthusiasm was shown in the handbell contest, the only team entered being from All Saints', Isleworth. In view of the fact that teams from this tower had been awarded the 'Dawe' Cup for the years 1939, 1940 and 1946, the meeting ruled that the entry should not be accepted and requested that as many towers as possible should enter teams for the 1948 contest.

Ringing took place on the fine tower bells of St. James' before the meeting, which was followed by handbell ringing in the vestry during the evening. The service was conducted by the Rev. Fulchermedcraft. Tea was provided in the Church Hall.

Chester Diocesan Guild

The annual meeting of the Wirral Branch, held on February 15th at St. Hilary's, Walsley, was well attended, 45 members and seven friends being present. Ringing ranged from Grandsire Doubles to London Surprise Minor.

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. R. Spencer), who gave a topical address. Following the service those present were entertained to tea in the Church Hall by the wives of the local ringers.

At the ensuing business meeting the Rector was elected to the chair. A statement of accounts showing a healthy balance was passed. The hon. secretary's report revealed a quickened interest in branch affairs, which was clearly shown by:—

(1) The increase in membership from 82 in 1945 to 111 in 1946.

(2) The popularity of branch meetings. Twelve meetings had been held, the average attendance being 35.

Officials elected were: Chairman, Mr. J. Cooke; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. A. J. Martin; hon. auditor, Mr. J. H. Dutton; Ringing Master, Mr. T. Rogers; Assistant Ringing Master, Mr. F. T. Parry; representative on General Committee, Mr. J. A. Webster.

It was announced that there had been a good response to the appeal for subscriptions for the H. S. Brocklebank Memorial Fund.

Following discussion it was resolved that a new peal book should be obtained in which only peals and performances scored in Wirral by resident members of the branch should be recorded. Mr. E. A. Webster kindly offered to present the new book, and his offer was accepted with gratitude. Four new members were elected. All who had helped to make the meeting so successful and enjoyable were warmly thanked. A.J.M.

IN MEMORY OF A HORWICH RINGER

In memory of Herbert Jackson, aged 27, a ringer at Holy Trinity Church, Horwich, Lancs, who was killed in North Africa on October 30th, 1942, a memorial tablet was dedicated at evensong on February 2nd.

The tablet, a small marble one, was carried during the singing of a hymn from the west end up to the chancel by the head ringer, Mr. E. Farnworth, followed by the remainder of the band in file. At the altar rail the tablet was dedicated by the Vicar, the Rev. Murray.

Later it will be erected in the ringing chamber. Mr. Peter Crook, hon. secretary of the Bolton Branch, attended to represent the branch. The memorial was erected by his brother ringers.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

BISHOP THANKS RINGERS.

About fifty ringers attended the annual meeting of the Western Division at Chichester on February 15th.

The Bishop of Chichester, the Right Rev. G. K. A. Bell (president), Mr. F. B. Tompkins (vice-president) and Mr. F. I. Hairs (Master) were guests of the ringers to tea.

Dr. Bell witnessed the ringing before evensong, and during the service, held in the Cathedral, he expressed pleasure at seeing so many young people and ladies present. Thanking the ringers for their work for the Church in Sussex, he concluded by wishing them God-speed.

The business meeting was in the belfry, the Master presiding. Officers were elected for the ensuing year: two Felpham ringers were elected members, and the tower election of Messrs. F. C. W. Knight and D. Chandler was ratified. The report and balance sheet was considered satisfactory. Mr. R. Wood, Divisional Ringing Master, proposed a vote of thanks to the Dean and Chapter for the use of the bells, to the Bishop for his attendance, and to Mr. R. G. Blackman and the Cathedral ringers for making the meeting arrangements.

Ringers ranged to Cambridge Surprise Major.

New Eight at Liverpool

THE BISHOP RINGS IN A TOUCH.

After dedicating the new ring of eight bells at Emmanuel Church, West Derby Road, Liverpool, on February 15th, the Bishop of Liverpool (the Right Rev. Clifford A. Martin) rang in a touch with the Rev. J. A. Briggs, Vicar of Ulverston, who was incumbent when the scheme for the new bells was first mooted.

The bells are the parishioners' memorial and thanksgiving for victory and were cast and hung by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank. For their weight their tone is remarkably good. The inscriptions on the bells are: Love, Joy, Peace, Gentleness, Goodness, Faith, Meekness, and Temperance. On the reverse side to 'Temperance' the tenor bell is inscribed: 'These bells were installed by the people of Emmanuel Church as a thanksgiving to God for victory, 1945.' The weight of the tenor is 8 cwt.

The ceremony was performed on the 80th anniversary of the church's consecration, and a select band rang a touch of Stedman Triples immediately after the dedication. After tea the tower was open to all ringers, and various methods rung included Double Norwich, Superlative and London Surprise.

On the following day a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung by P. W. Cave (conductor) 1, T. W. Hammond 2, G. R. Newton 3, D. Vincent 4, F. S. Almond 5, E. C. Birkett 6, T. W. Hesketh 7, A. Lintott 8.

BARNLEY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

REDEDICATION OF ROYSTON BELLS.

In the presence of 40 ringers, Royston bells were rededicated by the Bishop of Pontefract on January 18th. The service was also attended by Mr. Taylor, of Loughborough, and Mr. R. Dove represented Messrs. Potts and Sons, clock makers.

Immediately after the service the bells were rung up in peal and a touch of Oxford Treble Bob Minor rung by the following officials of the society: W. Green (Wath) 1, H. Chant (Felkirk) 2, J. W. Moxon (Sandal) 3, J. R. Brearley (Bolsterstone) 4, D. Smith (Felkirk) 5, A. Hoyle (Shelley) 6. Further ringing followed after the tea, which was provided by the Church Council.

The bells, which have been recast and made heavier, are a fine ring of six with tenor 14½ cwt. The fifth bell, a very old one, has been kept and a new bell made in its place. The old fifth is to be used as a sanctus bell.

A new metal frame with space for eight bells has been installed, and it is the Vicar's intention to get the other two bells added as soon as possible.

LAKENHEATH, SUFFOLK

On February 2nd, the unveiling of a memorial tablet and the dedication of a new thanksgiving treble bell took place at St. Mary's Church, Lakenheath. The bell was installed by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank and this now completes an excellent ring of six.

The back five, half-muffled, were rung for the service, and immediately after the dedication a two minutes' touch of rounds was rung on the six half-muffled, in memory of those men whose names were inscribed on the tablet. The new bell was rung by a young lady learner.

At the conclusion of the service, various touches were rung with the bells open. Visitors from Elvedon and Hockwold took part. The landlord of the BeE Hotel kindly entertained the ringers to a most delightful tea, and after this a band of Elvedon and Lakenheath ringers successfully completed a 720 Bob Minor for evensong.

STREATHAM, LONDON.—On Feb. 23rd at the Church of St. Leonard, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: C. Potchery 1, E. Miles 2, A. Miller 3, J. Chapman 4, W. J. Ellis (conductor) 5, T. Welbourne 6, C. Nicholls 7, S. Howard 8.

Midland Counties Guild

ARCTIC NEWHALL.

Those attending the meeting at Newhall on February 8th may have asked 'if their journey was really necessary,' as only 12 members were present from the following towers: Burton St. Paul's, Repton, Lullington, Overseal and the local company. But they received ample reward—an unrationed tea and good practice in various six-bell methods.

The countryside (Southern Derbyshire) was snow-bound when the 'faithful few' (including three lady members) met at the tower of St. John's and kept the bells ringing during the afternoon and evening to touches in the following methods: Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Double Oxford, Double Court, Oxford Bob and Plain Bob Minor.

After 'That's all' to the excellent 'Newhall' tea, Mr. B. G. Key presided over the business meeting when the entire Winshill band along with one honorary member from Burton and five ringing members from Overseal were elected members.

The annual meeting will take place at St. Paul's, Burton, on March 8th. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar (the Rev. H. H. Wright) for use of the bells and to the local members 'who brought round' such an excellent spread.

The bells were lowered in peal at 6.45 p.m., and in the biting wind and drifting snow three of the members experienced the greatest difficulty of the day in reaching home. The snow played havoc with bus transport, thereby causing the 'faithful three' to hike the last two miles home through the high drifts.

PROGRESS IN AUSTRALIA

The New South Wales Association held its first annual ring and dinner at Turramurra on February 1st, where at St. James' Church there is a ring of six bells by Taylor's (tenor 11 cwt.). Thirty-four ringers attended.

After the service, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. R. J. Cameron), a competition was held to decide which tower was to be regarded as the leading tower for 1947. This honour was won by the local team of St. James' under the captaincy of Mr. J. B. Watts.

At the dinner, Mr. Bettley-Cooke, who proposed the Association, said that he hoped that the members would strive to counter the growing tendency in some circles to introduce mechanical means of ringing the bells. He congratulated the instructor of the Association, Mr. W. M. Rowe, and his assistant, Mr. J. B. Watts, on their achievement in having no less than 18 members ring their first quarter during the year.

During the dinner the engagement was announced of Miss Laura Fisher to Mr. Ken Stacey, one of the most prominent members. A social evening followed.

The annual meeting was held on February 3rd, when the following were elected to the Executive Committee: Chairman, Mr. R. A. Joyner; treasurer, Mrs. Helen Macpherson; secretary, Mr. W. M. Rowe; other members, Messrs. J. B. Watts and A. Grant.

RINGERS IN U.S.A.

From Spencer, Massachusetts, U.S.A., comes a report of the activities of the Whitechapel Guild of Bellringers attached to St. Luke's Church, Worcester. The members of this company of change ringers are Mr. J. William Cooper (Master), Mr. and Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Ratcliffe, Miss MacGillpin and Mr. Norwood.

Mr. Cooper narrates that he was given a lift by a gentleman and explained to him that he was a bellringer, the same as John Bunyan. To his surprise the stranger said he was a direct descendant of Richard Bunyan, brother of John, who came to America with the Puritans in 1660. Mr. Cooper asked Mr. Bunyan what his faith was and he replied, 'A Roman Catholic!'

The Middlesex Association SOUTH AND WEST DISTRICT'S SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

A successful year's work was reported upon by the secretary (Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey) at the annual meeting of the South and West District at Chiswick on February 15th. Mr. W. H. Coles presided over an attendance of 45, which followed an excellent tea provided by the local company.

The Hon. Secretary stated that interest was well maintained and many new and enthusiastic members were coming along. There was still, however, a shortage of Sunday service ringers, and many bands were finding difficulty in providing a full complement for Sunday ringing, which was the real test of a band's usefulness to the church they served. As a district they faced a good deal of competition from other sources, from people who came into the district and rang peals for their own amusement and of no benefit to the association or to the church.

Twelve meetings had been held during the year with an average attendance of 30. A number of rings of bells in the district were undergoing restoration or augmentation. Harlington had been increased from six to eight and Hayes were to be similarly augmented. It was understood that the old peal of 10 from All Hallows', Lombard Street, City, would shortly be installed in the rebuilt tower of that church at Twickenham. Restoration would shortly be in hand at Christ Church, Ealing, and at Feltham.

Forty-three new members, four non-resident life members and one honorary member had been elected. This included the whole of the Harlington band. Seven peals and 24 quarter-peals had been rung.

In moving the adoption of the report, Mr. E. C. S. Turner expressed thanks to the secretary for his work during the year.

Officers elected were: District secretary, Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey; assistant secretary, Mr. W. G. Wilson; Ringing Master, Mr. F. A. Finch; Deputy Ringing Master, Mr. T. G. Bannister; Central Committee, Messrs. F. G. Baldwin, G. M. Kelly and J. Herbert; auditors, Messrs. E. C. S. Turner and D. R. Judd. Miss Barbara Thrush (Cranford) and Mr. J. Kent (St. Mary's, Ealing) were elected new members.

Meetings suggested were Harlington (March), Heston (April) and Isleworth (May). The annual general meeting of the association was fixed for the third Saturday in May.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. H. Rees). Ringing was under the supervision of Mr. F. G. Baldwin and Mr. F. A. Finch. In the votes of thanks special mentions were made of the Vicar, Mr. Thurley, the local company and lady helpers.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH ASSOCIATION

Despite wintry conditions, 22 members attended the meeting at Bonvilston on February 22nd, when after the service parishioners entertained the visitors to tea.

At the business meeting it was decided to form a bell fund by voluntary subscriptions taken at meetings. It was learnt with regret that the new ring to be installed at Abercarn is to be hung for chiming only. A letter from Blaenavon stated that the parish had nearly reached their goal of £750 for the restoration of their bells.

Ringing varied from rounds to London Surprise Minor. The annual meeting will be at Penarth on Easter Monday.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD LEATHERHEAD DISTRICT.

Owing to three other district meetings being held on the same day, the annual meeting at Leatherhead on February 8th was for once a real district meeting, the only visitors being Mr. and Mrs. C. Mayne and Mr. J. R. Mayne from Bushey.

Ringing was followed by the Guild's service, at which an address was given by the Rev. F. Page.

Nearly 40 sat down to tea at the Duke's Head, presided over by the Rev. F. Page, who also took the chair for the business meeting. The death of Mr. H. Baldock, an hon. member from Oobham, was duly observed.

New members elected were Mrs. Morgan and Messrs. Stanley James (hon., Cobham); Alfred Wren, Noel Underwood, Misses Anna Laken (Cobham), Nancy Cunliffe, Messrs. W. T. Symonds, W. H. Corbett (Ashted) and P. Layton (Banstead), ringing; and Miss Joan Houldsworth, compounding.

In addition to Mr. H. N. Pitstow as Ringing Master and the Rev. F. Page as district representative, the other retiring officers were re-elected. A vote of sympathy was passed with the new Ringing Master on the death of his father, which had prevented him from attending. The year's report, showing steady progress, and the balance sheet, showing an increased balance of about 30s., were adopted.

As a mark of the district's appreciation of his past 18 years as District Ringing Master, the chairman presented Mr. A. Harman with a copy of Nichols' 'Bells thro' the Ages', with best wishes for a similar term as Master of the Guild.

The business closed with votes of thanks to the Rev. F. Page, the organist and Mr. G. Marriner.

Ringing included Cambridge and Yorkshire Royal.

ETIQUETTE

Comparatively few ringers, except those who are members of the Hereford Diocesan Guild, have heard of the little town of Kington. Hitherto the name has conveyed nothing save a place name, but in future it is likely to have a permanent niche in the vocabulary of the Exercise. An incident in this quiet Hereford township has brought to a head the unwritten rule—the etiquette which governs the general practice of peal ringing.

What are the facts that have up to the present transpired as narrated in our correspondence columns? The ringers of Kington raised £186 towards the provision of two new bells, and under their veteran captain were planning the first peal on the rehung ring of six. A telephone call is put through to the incumbent by a responsible ringer holding office in the Guild, and the Vicar, not knowing the general etiquette governing peals, gives permission without consulting the captain of his ringers. The peal is rung on January 13th, within a few hours after receiving permission, but it is not until the issue of March 7th that the Exercise learns the names of the ringers.

The legal position was explained last week by the Rev. J. M. Turner, president of the East Devon Guild. The belfry is the freehold of the incumbent, and he has control of his bells. The Vicar of Kington was perfectly within his rights in giving permission; what he did not realise was the affront he innocently cast on his own ringers by not consulting with the captain. A peal, and especially a first peal after the bells have been rehung, is an occasion, and the local team, if they are peal ringers, naturally should have the privilege of ringing the first peal.

As to the ringers of the peal, it was not a case of ringing without permission. Technically they acted correctly in securing permission from the incumbent. It has been, however, the accepted practice in the Exercise, when asking permission to ring to approach the captain and head ringer, and he acts as an intermediary with the incumbent. This etiquette has prevailed for many years. What was peculiar about the conduct of these ringers was that the day before permission was sought they were in company with certain members of the Kington band and not a word was said about the proposed peal. Ringers will also note the method selected. Hereward Bob Minor has never been rung before for this Guild, and an attempt of that character would be planned and with many companies practised beforehand.

The sympathy of the Exercise is extended to the King-ton band, after raising such a substantial sum, being debarred from ringing the first peal. Some ringers might even regard the martyrdom of the captain in resigning after holding office for such a long period as justifiable. We do not believe that we are creating a 'mountain out of a molehill' in calling attention to this unfortunate incident. It might have been due to over-keenness or even an attempt to play a practical joke on the King-ton ringers. This must be understood by peal ringers: that when enjoying the privilege of ringing in a strange tower a courtesy is due to the regular band, who Sunday by Sunday ring the bells. Peal ringers are not, or should not be, in a class unto themselves. They are all part of the ringing fraternity who have their common bond of service in their regular Sunday ringing.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

This is a special Lancashire number, with an order for 500 additional copies. To all who have contributed to 'the hot pot' (tripe excluded) the Editor extends his sincere thanks.

The 23 years' silence of Farnworth (Bolton) bells has been broken. A quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung on March 9th by Pte. J. Thornley (first quarter) 1, Miss Annie Potter 2, J. Boyer 3, R. Collier 4, J. Potter (conductor) 5, J. V. Cheetham 6, P. Crook, sen. 7, H. Prescott 8.

The art of Spliced Surprise has been advanced by the Oxford Diocesan Guild, who have introduced in a peal Painswick, Pudsey, Superlative, Cambridge and Yorkshire Surprise Major for the first time. There were 135 changes of method.

With snow piling up outside, Mr. James E. Burles, of Barrow-in-Furness, writes on March 12th a line of congratulation to New South Wales ringers on getting their quarter home at Turranurra. 'It is a far cry from cold and hungry England to warm and sunny Sydney,' he adds.

Leicester Guild have some promising young people at Stoney Stanton. The following band, whose average age was 16½ and eldest 18, rang 1,260 Grandsire Doubles on March 8th: J. Smith 1, H. Briggs 2, T. Flint 3, Jean Taylor 4, G. Ball (conductor) 5, G. Fisher 6. And now for a peal!

Behind the peal at Ditcheat, Somerset, on March 8th, there is a story of great determination. Mr. G. H. Harding, with Mr. Sam Hector as passenger, took 2½ hours to cover 23 miles. Another ardent motor-cyclist wisely elected to drive himself over in his lorry. A fourth walked four miles to get to a workable telephone to ascertain if the attempt was to be made. The band was able to wish Sam many happy returns of his birthday, which took place on the following Monday.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The Rev. F. F. Rigby, president of the Lancashire Association, has now left parish work and has been appointed lecturer and worker for the Manchester Diocesan Council for Moral Welfare and also Bishop's Chaplain to the Youth Organisations.

Peals by the Cumberland Association are rarely recorded. Four ringers from Carlisle Cathedral joined two locals at Hensingham for a peal of Minor on March 8th and were successful.

Lancashire and other ringers should note that we are now taking new postal subscribers for the next quarter. Remittances (4s. 3d.) to be sent to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

'Elementary Change Ringing' has received a remarkably good press. Comments one reviewer: 'This useful little volume is not for Wranglers, but for Janglers, actual ringers who require only enough theory to be able to follow the method when devised.' Janglers is not a happy word to apply to ringers. Poetic licence, however, could justifiably be claimed. The author informs us that the book is selling well.

For 55 years Mr. Walter W. Wolstencroft has been a ringer and conductor at St. Peter's, Ashton-under-Lyne. He is shortly leaving the district for Buckinghamshire. Apart from his own tower, he and Mrs. Wolstencroft, who has rung at Ashton for 21 years, will be greatly missed in the district. A farewell quarter of 1,259 Grandsire Caters was rung on March 5th at Manchester Town Hall by the following in appreciation of his many years of faithful attendance and support: B. Jones (first quarter) 1, P.C. W. Robinson 2, P. Barraclough 3, H. Ludkin 4, ex-P.C. G. Pye 5, W. W. Wolstencroft 6, P.C. W. Pye 7, P.C. A. Ford (conductor) 8, Harold Walker 9, ex-P.C. J. Turner 10.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION OF CHANGE RINGERS

ST. MARY'S, LANCASTER

MANCHESTER CATHEDRAL

NUMERICALLY one of the largest Associations in affiliation with the Central Council, the Lancashire came into being as the result of the following circular:—

Sir,—It has been proposed to form an Association of Change Ringers for Lancashire. We would like to hear your opinion on the above proposition. The objects of the above are: (1) To promote the art and science of change ringing; (2) belfry reform; (3) to induce the clergy and churchwardens to take more interest in the ringers and the ringing.—Yours respectfully,

J. R. Pritchard,
W. G. Mann.
J. Aspinwall.

the young men to qualify by having rung 120 changes on tower or handbells, or covered 500 on tower bells.

There were frequent changes in the post of general secretary in the early years. The principle of continuity in office was established by the appointment of Mr. J. Redford as assistant in 1882, later to become general secretary. In 1898 he was succeeded by Mr. A. E. Wreaks, who held office until 1911, when Mr. W. H. Shuker, the present holder, took office. He has now a co-secretary in Mr. T. Wilson, of Blackburn.

Long and faithful service is also to be found among the treasurers, of which the Association has had five in 70 years. A noteworthy holder of this office was Mr. H. W. Jackson, who was elected in 1882 and was still in office when he died in 1928. The present treasurer (Mr. F. R. Williams) was elected in 1942.

When Sir A. P. Heywood was considering the formation of the Central Council he invited Canon Elsee to meet him at the Johnson Dinner at Birmingham in 1899. The Canon reported back to the committee, who asked him to represent the Association at any other meetings and also on the Council when it was formed. This he did faithfully until his death. It is thought that he only missed one meeting when he was in South Africa.

The membership certificate was designed in 1891 with etchings of four churches (three illustrated with this article), the bell and a bunch of handbells.

In 1893 a leaflet was printed with the four standard methods. From this small beginning has grown the present volume containing 20 minor, six Triples and 14 Major methods, with a chapter on Grandsire and Stedman Caters and Cinques.

In 1887 the Association decided to form branches. To-day there are 11, some of which were the outcome of smaller associations in the county joining the central association and then forming branches. The area of the Association embraces the Dioceses of Blackburn, Liverpool and Manchester and parts of Carlisle and Wakefield, and the existing branches and their secretaries are: Blackburn, Mr. C. W. Blakey; Bolton, Mr. P. Crook; Furness and Lake District, Mr. N. M. Newby; Lancaster, Mr. H. Parkinson; Fylde, Mr. J. H. Foster; Liverpool, Mr. G. R. Newton; Manchester, Mr. F. Reynolds; Preston, Mr. F. Rigby; Rochdale, Mr. Ivan Kay; Rossendale, Mr. H. Parkinson; Wigan, Mr. N. Heaps.

BLACKBURN CATHEDRAL

A meeting was duly held in the National Schools, Chorley, on June 10th, 1876, when officers and committee were appointed and subscriptions became due on July 1st. The entrance fee was fixed at 2s. 6d. and subscriptions at 1s. per year. Thus started our Association.

'The Church Bells' of the day did not give the Association much encouragement because it did not make more use of the clergy and also because it was open to all denominations which had bells.

At the first meeting 30 members were elected, and this number was increased to 60 during the first year. In 1879 when the annual meeting was held at Bolton the Association was reconstituted and the block of a bell which has graced the front page of the Association's annual reports was purchased; it is still going strong!

The first balance sheet showed an income of £10 9s., against an expenditure of £7 12s. 10d., which left £2 16s. 2d. to start the second year.

THE PRESIDENTS.

At first, Presidents held office for a very short period, the founder president being Mr. W. G. Wray, of Kirkham. He was succeeded in 1879, when the Association was reconstituted, by Mr. John Mason, of Southport, who was followed by Mr. W. Albinson (Stockport) in 1880, Mr. Joseph Scott (Manchester) 1881, the Rev. T. A. Turner (Bury) 1883, the Rev. C. Lowe (Bolton) 1886. In 1890 Canon Elsee, of Bolton, was elected, and he held office until he died in 1936. He was, indeed, one of the great leaders of the Exercise, and during his period of office the number of ringing members rose from 506 to 1,434. Membership of the Lancashire Association was a privilege; there was a keenness among

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Despite the wintry conditions, the South Norfolk Branch annual meeting at Diss on March 1st was attended by 39 ringers from 21 different parishes—Attleborough, Bunwell, Diss, Forncoett, Garboldisham, Palgrave, Redenhall, Saxlingham, Norwich, Swaffham, Mulbarton and Winfarthing. Also Suffolk ringers attended from Bury St. Edmunds, Cotton, Groton, Hadleigh, Horringer, Mendlesham, Stowmarket, Stowupland and Yaxley.

The Rector, the Rev. J. A. Appleton (vice-president), conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), with the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow at the organ.

The Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (general secretary) presided at the business meeting in the absence of the chairman, Mr. W. L. Duffield, supported by the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (president), Mr. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master), Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), Messrs. Bonnett and Banham (committee).

After the company had stood in silence to the memory of the late Mr. D. H. Whiting, of Diss, a late member of the association and Suffolk Guild, the officers were all re-elected. Two new members were elected—Mr. Dennis Poyntz (Saxlingham) and Miss Mattheolite (Diss).

The branch secretary drew attention to the forthcoming broadcast service from Diss Church on Sunday, May 11th, at 9.30 a.m., when it is hoped the bells will also be broadcast. The next meeting will be held at Bunwell on Saturday, May 3rd.

Chorley Bells

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF PRESENT RING.

To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the present ring of Chorley (Launcs) bells, a peal of Treble Bob Major was rung on March 8th.

The ringers of the peal, the Rector (Canon Wyatt) and other ringers and friends were afterwards entertained to tea, after which the Rector congratulated the team, making special reference to Mr. Gartside on his first peal as conductor, and Arthur Rigby on ringing his first peal on the treble.

Canon Wyatt recalled that his first curacy was with the late Canon Elsee. Later he went to Ashton-under-Lyne, where several long peals were rung. On going to Burnley as Vicar he was visited by Canon Elsee, who on hearing the bells being chimed said in shocked tones, 'Wyatt, tubular bells!'

Mr. T. Lofthouse, one of the wardens and a ringer for over 50 years, added to the reminiscences. He related how in his early days the Chorley ringers were asked to ring the bells at Blackrod whilst an architect tested the tower for stability, as the local squire had forbidden the bells to be rung on the grounds that the tower was unsafe. After the squire's death the bells were rung regularly!

The writer mentioned that some 10 or 15 years ago Chorley bells became more or less unringable, so much so that Mr. Gartside, the towerkeeper, had to oil them before every service. The writer decided to try out some of his own ideas and gadgets and these made the bells pealable, as shown by ringing the peal on March 8th under Arctic conditions, there being no heat in the tower through fuel shortage.

Chorley bells have a history. When the Commissioners of Edward VI. visited the church in 1552 there were 'three great bells and two little bells called sacring bells.' The register records that the great bell weighing 770lb. was increased to 863lb. in 1646 when it was recast by Geoffrey Scott, of Wigan, bell-founder. The six bells in the tower in 1883 were rehung by G. Mears, of London. Three were dated 1763, another 1800, another 1832.

These six were recast in 1886 and two added, making the present ring of eight by John Warner and Sons. Three bear old inscriptions; the others have the maker's name and date. The three inscriptions are:—

I bear my part in concerts pleasing sound,
 But when alone I summon to the ground.
 The day is over; cease from labour, I call to rest.

Our voices do with cheerful sound,
 The hills and valleys echo round.

A faculty for a ringers' gallery was granted in 1897; before that time the bells were rung from the ground floor.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

APPLETON FEAST.

Saturday, February 8th, at Appleton, was the day of the 129th annual feast. Appleton, in common with many other villages, was almost completely isolated, and a good deal of effort was needed to be present. Spartans were present from Launton, near Bicester, and Basingstoke, and an attendance of nearly 40 was most pleasing.

Stedman and Grandsire Caters, the methods towards which this well-known ring seems to lean, predominated, and the standard of striking demanded by the local band was fully maintained.

After an excellent tea at the Thatched Tavern, members of the White family entertained the company with both change ringing and tunes on handbells as well as vocally.

With the return of the younger members from the Forces, the ringing at Appleton has reached a new high standard, and this augurs well for the future as well as for the continuity of this ancient celebration.

OBITUARY

MR. ANDREW SHUFFLEBOTHAM.

Mr. D. G. Elliott, Groton, Suffolk, writes:—Andrew Shufflebotham came to Coggeshall and rang a peal with us in 1902 and he rang over 50 peals with us up to 1912. He was, as the writer says, a good and sure ringer and a good striker. He would cycle the six miles from Braintree to Coggeshall every Monday night if the weather was not too bad. With Andrew on the third and Frank Claydon on the fourth we were set up and had a good band. I moved out of the district after the 1914 war and lost sight of him. I should like the Stoke-on-Trent men to know how much we appreciated Andrew's ringing.

MR. ALFRED HINDS.

Following a fall, the death took place on March 2nd of Mr. Alfred Hinds, aged 76. He had lived at Tenterden all his life, was a member of St. Mildred's Church ringers for 40 years and had rung 41 peals in different methods.

A member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, he had rung peals with Challis F. Winney and Frederick G. Newman.

The funeral took place on March 6th and in the evening touches of Grandsire Triples were rung, with the bells half-muffled, by the following members of St. Mildred's band: Miss Mary Meynell 1, Pat Relf 2, Miss Vie Relf 3, John Smith 4, Percy Relf 5, Toby Want 6, William Tickner 7, Bert Stanger 8. R.E.

MR. C. F. FOWLER.

With deep regret we report the death of Charles Frederick Fowler, of Anston, near Sheffield, which took place on February 12th. He was buried in Anston Churchyard on February 17th, and a muffled peal was rung after the funeral.

Mr. Fowler, who was 86 years of age, was a ringer of renown on six bells, in fact he with his team of ringers at Anston Church in their heyday were known as the Kings of Six Bell Ringers. The team, of which Mr. Fowler was the conductor and captain, could ring well over 300 methods on six bells, many of which Mr. Fowler composed. One method he composed and called 'King George V.,' by kind permission of His Majesty.

Mr. Fowler had been ringing for 70 years and rang regularly up to his death. His great friend, Mr. Henry Stenton, who is 88, much to his disappointment had to give up last year after 74 years as a ringer.

There are two other ringers of the old band each over 70 and one almost 60. One died just before the war—Mr. S. Smith, aged 85, after ringing for 58 years, and one died last year, aged 76. Thus has this famous band been broken up.

In all the years that he did ring, His greatest friend ne'er heard him sing, He had no temper for to slip, A harsh word ne'er escaped his lip. But ring from morn till night would he And glory in bells minstrelsy, His compositions he would name, Towns, flowers and Generals of Fame.

F.S.

TOWER SNATCHING!

Dear Sir,—Can anyone exceed any of the following?

(1) To have rung in at least one tower every Saturday during the year 1946.

(2) To have rung in all 123 towers during 1946 (five bell upwards). These towers were in the following counties: Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Cambridgeshire, Cheshire, Huntingdonshire, Leicestershire, Lancashire, Northamptonshire, Oxfordshire, Staffordshire and Warwickshire.

(3) To have at least rung rounds for at least one service during 1946 every Sunday with the exception of one.—Yours faithfully, Duston, Northants.

ERIC NOBLES.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Universities and Colleges

Dear Sir,—May I, through the correspondence column, address an open letter to the Publications Committee concerning their decision briefly communicated to the Exercise in Belfry Gossip last week? I would address to them a strong protest, and an equally strong plea for reconsideration of the decision not to include names of colleges in peals by members of University Guilds.

In the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge it has always been the custom to put the name of a man's college after his name when publishing details of activities in which members of various colleges are participating together. This applies in all spheres of sport, politics or art. It is sad if this traditional custom is to be refused to the members of University ringing organisations.

Surely, Mr. Editor, this raises the question of the purpose of publishing peals. It would be possible to record peals without publishing them; thus it would seem that the reason they are published is to give information to those who may be interested. When new names appear in the reports of University Guild peals it is of great interest to older members who have 'gone down' to see in which Colleges the interest in ringing is centring.

Uniform may be essential in the Forces. Utility furniture and clothing may be desirable in time of war. But please let not the craze for standardisation enter into the realms of art. Are the clergyman and the medical practitioner to be stripped of their rightful descriptions? When the Freemasons ring a peal, may they not include the names of their lodges for the information of their brothers in the craft? May the Police Guild no longer issue details of rank or force? Is the married woman now forbidden the honourable title of 'Mrs.'?

One could continue this list to great lengths. I will not do so; enough is here to back my plea for freedom of expression in matters relating to our art.—Yours truly,

R. D. St. JOHN SMITH.

Manchester.

ST. MARGARET'S RECORD

Dear Sir,—To put it mildly, I must say that I was shocked at the contents of Mr. A. R. Burgess' letter regarding the recording of the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, published in the current issue of 'The Ringing World.' As you say, sir, such a sweeping accusation is hardly justifiable, and I would suggest that Mr. Burgess and his own selected band assemble at a tower to make the Grandsire and Stedman recording that is to replace the existing one.

Whilst admitting that this matter is no business of mine, I do feel that I should point out how detrimental these sweeping statements are to the Exercise. There seems to me to be a large amount of bad feeling abroad in the world of ringing that should not and need not exist. This bad feeling would not exist if, to use a vulgar expression, backbiting were non-existent.

We should all remember that change ringing is a purely voluntary activity. People do not enter its noble ranks for the purpose of personal gain, but for the state of fellowship which at the present moment does not exist to its greatest extent. I do feel that if we, one and all, would try to remember that every ringer is doing his very utmost to justify his presence in the tower as a ringer, the state of comradeship would soon be at its highest. Also, if the 'greater' will put themselves out to the task of helping the 'lesser,' a better standard of ringing would soon result.—Yours faithfully,

FRANK C. W. KNIGHT.

Camden Town, N.W.1.

The Kington Peal

Dear Sir,—There have been two letters in 'The Ringing World' during the last few weeks about a peal of Hereward Bob Minor rung at Kington on January 13th; the last letter written by the ex-captain of the local band appears in the same issue as the report of the peal.

It seems a shame that a local band should be broken up, even for a peal of Hereward Bob Minor. To me it is a tragedy because I learnt to ring with that band, and on the Saturday previous to the peal I returned with two other members of a Shrewsbury band and had a ring with my old comrades. Afterwards we travelled on to Eardisland to the Kington District annual meeting. At the business meeting the Ringing Master resigned. His place was filled by a member of the peal snatching band.

Was it coincidence which made them pick Kington tower for the peal attempt so soon after the local captain had resigned his position as District Ringing Master? I wonder. I believe the incubation period might have been shorter than two days except for the fact that at least one of the peal ringing band had other duties which would have prevented the attempt on the following day (Sunday).

I would like to point out that the incumbent acted in good faith and did not realise there was any breach of ringing etiquette.

As Mr. Jones states in his letter, he has rung at Kington for 30 years and none better than I know how much time and patience he has spent keeping up the standard of ringing in that tower and others. I can only deplore the fact that all his years of work and devotion have been brought to nought by six irresponsible peal snatchers.

No doubt it was a great joke for them to score one off on the local band, but was it worth it? On one hand, a peal of Hereward Minor, on the other a smashed local band. In years to come will they feel proud to turn up their peal records and say, 'That one smashed a local band'?—Yours truly, Shrewsbury.

J. F. BUTLER.

RECONSIDER, MR. TREVOR JONES

Dear Sir,—With reference to the 'snatched peal' at Kington, this seems to be a very exceptional case, and, as the Rev. J. M. Turner points out, until all the facts are taken into consideration one cannot come to any conclusion. I cannot remember hearing of a similar incident before.

In any case, I hope that Mr. Trevor Jones, the late captain of Kington ringers, will reconsider his decision to cease membership of his native tower after 30 years' association with it. This is especially important at a time like this when many towers are desperately short of leaders and ringers.—Yours faithfully,

PAUL BIRKETT.

Beverley & District Society

VISIT 'THE QUEEN OF HOLDERNESS'

St. Patrick's Church, Patrington, is as famous as it is beautiful and has the proud title of the Queen of Holderness. Its tall spire is a famous landmark and holds a nice ring of six bells with a tenor of 10 cwt. 24 lb.

The invitation of the Rector and ringers for the society to hold their meeting on March 8th at this church was gladly accepted, and despite Arctic weather, a large contingent of members attended. Towers represented were Beverley Minster, Beverley St. Mary's, Cottingham, Goole, Hull (Holy Trinity), Hessle, Hedon, Patrington and Sutton-on-Hull.

Efforts are being made to raise the sum of £500 as a thanksgiving memorial to add two more bells to complete the octave. A collection taken among members towards this effort produced £7 lbs., which was gratefully accepted.

A well-struck touch of Kent Treble Bob Minor preceded the service in the church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. T. R. Frost). A most substantial tea had been provided by the ringers and their lady friends in the Church Hall, which was greatly appreciated.

Mr. G. F. Williams (president) was in the chair for the business meeting, supported by Mr. F. Dale (vice-president), Mr. Clem Glenn (Ringing Master) and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary).

Mr. Clem Glenn brought to the notice of the meeting the compliment paid to the society in 'The Ringing World' on the occasion of their meeting at Pocklington, and members felt proud of the distinction put on their efforts and an incentive to carry on to further success.

As to future meetings, the committee was instructed to make final arrangements for the meeting at North Cave on April 12th; a combined meeting with Selby and District at Market Weighton on May 10th and an invitation from Nunburnholme for June 14th were accepted.

The Ringing Master reported that he had attended many practices and appealed to members to combine with neighbouring towers and make as large attendance as possible at practices. Two new members were elected.

Votes of thanks which concluded the meeting were comprehensive in character, and then all adjourned to the tower, where ringing to suit all tastes was provided. Many then had a 20-mile journey home, but it was well worth the effort.

LADIES' GUILD IN SOUTH SUSSEX

For their second meeting, the Southern Division of the S.E. District of the Ladies' Guild visited Henfield on March 8th. In spite of the inclement weather, the gathering was attended by some 70 ringers. Whether it was the attraction of the fair sex or the fine peal of bells, the gentlemen outnumbered the ladies by three to one. However, their assistance in both ringing the back bells and in helping beginners was very much appreciated.

Ringing during the afternoon consisted mainly of Grandsire for the many beginners who were present. Before tea eight ladies rang this grand peal of bells (tenor 16½ cwt.) to Grandsire Triples.

Forty-five ringers sat down to a sumptuous tea very generously provided by Mr. Crutten. as a welcome to the ladies on their first independent meeting in South Sussex. While the ladies held their business meeting the gentlemen returned to the tower for further ringing, the ladies returning in time to ring the service touch for the parish evensong. Unfortunately, the previous 'back enders' had to leave after the meeting for distant homes, so that the touch was not as successful. Still, practice makes perfect!

After evensong further ringing took place until 8.30 p.m. In spite of the majority of the ringing being in the simpler methods, time was found to fit in two courses of Surprise.

A FIRST YEAR REVIEWED

Closely watched by the whole Exercise has been the division of the Midland Counties Association into four separate associations, viz.: Burton, Derby, Leicester and Nottingham. The Derby Association has completed its first year, issued its first printed annual report (a comprehensive volume giving details of its 30 towers and a complete list of its membership), and forwarded to 'The Ringing World' a comprehensive survey of the year's work.

'We were entirely opposed to the idea of dissolution of the M.C.A.,' writes Mr. W. Lancaster, the first secretary of the new association, 'as we at Derby were having very good meetings and ringing was, generally speaking, in a healthy condition. After a year's hard work and splendid co-operation from all sides, we can say it was worth while, as it gives those in the districts more scope to go out and organise those in the more remote towers, which have to be neglected by a larger organisation. As all district officers are on the General Committee, it ensures all districts being conversant with each other's activities and generally good attendances at all meetings. Peals are easily arranged and a very good atmosphere maintained.'

Another benefit arising from the new Association is that the clergy are showing a much greater interest in meetings and their co-operation is appreciated. At the last meeting held at Ilkeston, the Vicar and the Rural Dean both became honorary members, and were very interested to know where recruits could best be obtained. It was suggested that choirboys and scouts were often induced to take up bellringing with every success, and the Rural Dean promised to assist the Association in this matter during his travels around the Deanery.

A new association is able to build upon the experience of the past. In planning the Derby Association it was felt that it would be an advantage to have several districts so that each tower could be visited annually, thereby maintaining interest and, from a secretary's point of view, collecting subscriptions and contacting members. Accordingly, three separate districts were formed — Derby, embracing the city and its environs; Peak, the towers in the district, including such well known names as Bakewell, Matlock and Darley Dale, and Ilkeston, consisting of the towers ceded by Nottingham outside the Southwell Diocese and a few others adjacent. Membership for the first year was 114 ringing and 22 honorary members, but a substantial increase is expected during 1947.

While the number of peals rung during the year was confined to eight, the standard of ringing can be regarded as good. At meetings, which were very well attended, methods rung included Cambridge and Superlative, Double Norwich, Duffield, Little Bob and the standard methods. The programme planned for this year includes the scoring of first peals for the Association of Cambridge and Superlative. In a new Association there is such a wide field open for making ringing history that keen peal ringers have every inducement. The Derby Association can truly look back with pride on their inaugural year.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL

The third session of the nineteenth Council (50th annual meeting) will be held on Whitsun Tuesday, May 27th, in the ancient Guildhall, Exeter (by kind permission of the Mayor).

Notices of motion should be in the hands of the hon. secretary not less than two calendar months previous to the meeting.

Secretaries are reminded that affiliation fees became due on January 1st, but up to the moment only thirteen have been received.

G. W. FLETCHER, Hon. Sec.

The White House,
Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk.

New facts concerning the Kington peal are published in our correspondence columns, including a letter from the conductor. The best item of this 'most unfortunate affair' is that the captain, Mr.
Trevor Jones, has agreed to carry on and that he will have an opportunity of scoring the first peal when the bells are rehung.

Other letters on this topic are held over until next week.

The first peal to mark the bicentenary year of the Royal Cumberland Youths was rung at Northfleet on March 15th.

Flood stories are now reaching us. For the Ladies' Guild meeting at Beccles, flood water was 6 inches over the railway lines. From the tower there was a wonderful view of miles of water. Sufficient ringers were present to man the 10 bells, the Ladies' Guild being in a minority.

The Exercise will receive with regret the news of the passing of four noted ringers this week, viz., William B. Johnson (Worcester), James Houldsworth (Oswaldtwistle), John Nixon Oxborrow (secretary, Westminster
Abbey band) and Walter Chibnall (Aspley Guise). They were all stalwarts in their day and generation.

Some new 'Parkerised' peals of Grandsire
Triples have been printed by Mr. A. J.
Corrigan, of Le Coteau, Ryedown Lane, Bitton, near Bristol. As opportunity presents itself, we hope to publish the same.

Market Drayton, Shropshire, have a local Surprise band. They rang their first quarter of Cambridge Major on March 16th.

Six brothers ring the six bells of Necton Parish Church, Norfolk, and their surname is Bell! At Ashill, also in Norfolk, there are three old ringers by the name of Ringer!

BELFRY GOSSIP

Surprise experts of the Oxford Diocesan Guild will have to rise early to get band. Their latest peal at Harnston contained 16 methods and was the greatest number of Surprise Major methods yet rung.

Oxford Diocesan Guild, however, are in the news this week with a peal of 15 methods of Doubles, the greatest number yet rung to a peal by the Guild.

Welcome to the Exercise's latest centenarian!
The peal of five Spliced Surprise at St. Ebbe's, Oxford, on March 11th, was the 100th peal on tower bells by Miss Betty Spice, Master of the Oxford University Society.

Mr. Charles Sedgley has undergone a second operation at the Borough and General Hospital, Ipswich, and is not too well. He would welcome letters from his friends.

A pointer to progress in 1946 comes from St. Peter's, Nottingham, where 17 peals were attempted with nine successes, viz.: 1 Kent
Royal, 2 Bob Royal, 1 Stedman Caters and 5 Grandsire Caters. In these were two 'first peals,' eight 'firsts' of Grandsire Caters, four of Stedman, six of Bob Royal and five of Kent
Royal, making 25 firsts in nine peals!

A peal that will go down in the annals of the College Youths was that of Stedman Cinques at Trowbridge on March 15th, which was a birthday compliment to Mr. Sam Hector and to celebrate his over 50 years' change ringing. After the peal the ringers were the guest of Sam to a birthday feast at a local hotel. The Vicar came and in his welcome mentioned his association with the College
Youths when he was the incumbent at St.
Leonard's, Shoreditch. It was only by the goodness of several of the band coming in at short notice to take the place of some who had declined that the band was 12 strong.

MACCLESFIELD BELLS REHUNG And Augmented to Ten

Chester Diocesan Guild has been enriched by the dedication of two new bells and the re-hanging of the original eight bells some 30ft. lower at Christ Church, Macclesfield, in an effort to combat the great oscillation caused when the bells were rung in their old position at the top of the tower. The dedication was performed by the Lord Bishop of Chester (Dr. Douglas Crick) on March 15th.

Macclesfield bells were originally installed in 1777. At that time there were eleven bells—a sanctus bell and a peal of 10. In 1815 the ninth bell cracked whilst being tolled for a funeral service. This bell was recast by William Dobson, of Downham, Norfolk, at the expense of Mr. William Roe, but only eight of the original peal were replaced, possibly in the hope that a decrease in the weight of bell metal would combat the swaying of the tower. The original treble and second bell were placed in Peover Church and Sankey Street Chapel, Warrington, respectively, possibly to help defray expenses.

SILENT FOR 60 YEARS.

Notwithstanding the re-hanging and decreased weight, the trouble was just as bad as ever, and in 1834 the bells at Christ Church ceased to be rung and remained silent until 1902, when during the vicariate of the Rev. St. Clare Hick and chiefly owing to the energies of the then curate, the Rev. Sandford Woods, the bells were rehung, the money being raised by public subscription. An extract from 'The Bell News' dated January, 1903, states:

'The bells of Christ Church, Macclesfield, were rung for the first time after a long sleep of over sixty years at the midnight service on December 31st, 1902. The bells, eight in number, have just been retuned and rehung by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. The tenor, weighing some 23 cwt., having been recast. The tower is being restored and a new clock put in.'

Unfortunately the bells were put back in the original unsatisfactory position in the tower as before, but despite the greatest difficulty experienced in ringing the bells, they were rung for service the whole time up to last year, when the work of lowering the bells commenced, except for the period during the war years when a ban was placed on such activities.

From time to time various experts have been called upon to give their views on how best to cure the trouble. During the Vicariate of the Rev. S. J. F. Sharples, Mr. E. H. Lewis, reputed to be the cleverest expert of that time on 'rocking towers,' made an inspection, and recommended that the bells be lowered at least 25ft., which would reduce the oscillation considerably.

This recommendation, however, could not be undertaken, and it was not until 1938 that a subscription list was opened by the ringers themselves, who agreed to forgo the fees due to them, providing the money was utilised towards the Bell Fund.

TWO GIFT BELLS.

In 1943, during the vicariate of the present Vicar, the Rev. A. Clarke, the Bell Fund was officially opened. The licence was obtained in 1946 for the work to be carried out, and was entrusted to Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. After the work of lowering the bells had commenced, the Christ Church Old Boys' Association generously offered to provide two new bells to serve as a memorial to their comrades who had served in the Great Wars of 1914-18 and 1939-45, and these are the treble and second bells of the present peal of ten, cast by Messrs. Taylor and Co.

The inscriptions on the bells are as follows: Treble and second.—'The gift of Christ Church Lay School Association.'

Third.—'Thos. Rudhall, Gloucester. 1777.'

CHRIST CHURCH, MACCLESFIELD

Fourth.—'We were cast at the expense of Wm. Roe, Esq. 1777.'

Fifth.—'Success to trade.' 1777.

Sixth.—'Prosperity to this Town. 1777.'

Seventh.—'Peace and Good Neighbourhood. 1777.'

Eighth.—'T.R. 1777.'

Ninth.—'This bell was recast at the expense of Wm. Roe, Esq., by Wm. Dobson, of Downham, Norfolk, 1815. Rejoice in the Lord.' Tenor.—'I to the church the living call, and to the grave do summon all. Recast 1902.'

For the dedication ceremony the ringing chamber had been decorated by a member of the local company. The service was attended by the Mayor and members of Macclesfield Town Council, and many visiting ringers from as far afield as Yorkshire and Staffordshire. The Lancashire Association was represented by the Rev. F. F. Rigby (president) and Mr. Shaker (secretary), and the Chester Diocesan Guild by Mr. J. W. Clarke (Master) and the Rev. J. D. Pearson (secretary), and the North Staffordshire Association by Mr. R. S. Anderson (Master). After the service the Bishop visited the ringing chamber and had a few words with the ringers.

Tea was served in Christ Church School, after which short speeches were made by the Mayor, the Bishop and the Vicar (the Rev. A. Clarke). The tower was open to all in the evening, and methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Caters, Treble Bob Royal and Surprise Royal.

Messrs. Taylor and Co. are to be congratulated on a splendid job, the blending of the new bells to the old eight being perfect, and there is a great improvement in the 'go' of the whole peal as a result of the lowering of the bells.

The bells being lower than the louvres had the effect of mellowing the sound, which although softened to the immediate vicinity, is diffused to a greater area, and the musical qualities can be much more appreciated.

Of the estimated cost of £1,500, the sum of £1,350 has now been raised, and there is thus still a deficit of £150. Further subscriptions will be gratefully received by the Vicar or wardens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wolstencroft

FAREWELL TO ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.

As briefly recorded in our last issue, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wolstencroft are severing their long connection with St. Peter's Church, Ashton-under-Lyne and are going to live in Buckinghamshire.

In their honour a farewell peal was rung at St. Peter's Church, where Mr. Wolstencroft had been a ringer and conductor for 55 years and Mrs. Wolstencroft for 21 years. This is the second tower Mr. Wolstencroft has circled to eight different methods.

The peal, Superlative Surprise Major, was the first in the method to be rung by the Chester Diocesan Guild and was the 60th peal together for Stephen Lloyd Parry and Fred Dunkerley.

Only two peals of Superlative have been rung at Ashton. A previous attempt was made on the 40th anniversary of the first peal, which was lost owing to the electric light being switched off accidentally after 2½ hours' ringing, and was to have been a memorial peal to Charles Jackson 1, Rev. A. T. Beeston 2, Bertram Prewett 3, George Dent 4, Isaac Shade 5, Gabriel Lindoff 6, William Pye 7, Ernest Pye 8, which was rung on September 12th, 1905.

CHESTER GUILD'S REGRET.

The Chester Guild said farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Wolstencroft at a practice meeting at Bowdon on March 8th, which was attended by some 60 members and friends.

Mr. A. R. Elkins, branch chairman, expressed the regret of the Guild that two of their friends and staunch supporters of the branch, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wolstencroft, were leaving Ashton for Buckinghamshire. His remarks were endorsed by a number of members, and suggestions were made that this was hardly the time to move South in view of the infinitely worse weather which they were experiencing than the North!

Mr. Wolstencroft thanked the meeting for their good wishes and for the many happy years he had had amongst them. It was not easy to move after so many years, but he had finally brought himself to do it.

Mrs. Wolstencroft, who has been connected with St. Peter's, Ashton, for over 70 years as scholar, Sunday School teacher and superintendent, in a witty speech urged all young people present to take an active part in the corporate life of their church.

The branch and the Church of St. Peter, Ashton, will be the poorer by their removal, but what is their loss will, it is hoped, be Buckinghamshire's gain. It is expected that another county will enter into the sphere of multi-method Minor ringing.

A new feature introduced at the Bowdon meeting was a short talk on some of the difficulties encountered by learners and how to overcome them in order that newcomers to change ringing might be spared some of the drudgery which the older members were compelled to go through to acquire their knowledge.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. D. P. Lowe), there was a bountiful tea and the ringing was mainly in methods of the elementary type with plenty of rounds for the learners. To those who suggest that change ringing is a dying art the ages at this meeting ranged from 12 to 75 with the accent on the younger generation. Verb sap.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Corleston, Great Yarmouth.

OBITUARIES OF THE WEEK

MR. JAMES HOULDSWORTH.

For many years the conductor of the talented band of ringers at Oswaldtwistle, who were pioneers of Surprise ringing in the Blackburn Branch, Mr. James Houldsworth, of Accrington, Lancs. (late of Oswaldtwistle), died on March 9th. He was cremated at Carleton on March 13th.

His Surprise peals included Palatine Surprise, Lancashire Surprise and Northampton Surprise, which were the first peals in these methods for the Lancashire Association. He was also a member of the band which rang a peal in seven Surprise Minor methods non-conducted which was also the first for the association. He will, however, be best remembered for the assistance and instruction he so readily gave to beginners.

He possessed that great asset of being able to impart his knowledge to others, and many ringers in the surrounding districts (including the writer) are very grateful and appreciative of the help and instruction he so willingly gave.

Mr. Houldsworth rang in all about 70 peals, a goodly proportion being Surprise, for most of which he acted as conductor. A.T.

MR. J. N. OXBORROW.

The death of Mr. John Nixon Oxborrow on February 14th marks the passing of another notable College Youth. He was the secretary of the St. Stephen's, Westminster, band from its formation, and when the band at Westminster Abbey was inaugurated he was elected secretary, and held this position until the ban was placed on ringing during the war.

Mr. Oxborrow was a native of Helmingham, Suffolk, and before coming to London rang at least one peal, Grandsire Triples, at Coddham, which he conducted, on December 26th, 1879.

Although he was not a prolific peal ringer, he was an excellent striker and very safe on all numbers of bells. As far as can be ascertained, he rang about 170 peals, among these three Surprise peals in one day—London, Cambridge and Superlative—non-conducted London and Cambridge Major and Stedman Cinques, and a 'John' peal of Stedman Cinques at Cripplegate. He was 86 years of age and had been a member of the College Youths for 60 years.

At the funeral at Streatham Park Cemetery on February 24th, the society was represented by Mr. W. H. Pasmore. A.B.P.

MR. EDWARD PAUL.

Mr. Edward Paul, of Stroud, Glos., who died on March 8th, aged 83, was a regular Sunday ringer for over 60 years. He was not a peal ringer, having rung only two peals, but he was always found in his place for service ringing and was always on time. Mr. Paul was instrumental in introducing several young men to the tower, of whom the writer was one. L.B.

MR. A. E. W. SMITH, SWINDON.

After a short illness, Mr. A. E. W. Smith, of Swindon, has died, aged 78. A native of Longcot, Berks, he learned to ring at Christ Church, Swindon, about 1900 and had been a member of that band since that date. He never mastered an 'inside' bell, but had rung the tenor to peals of Doubles, Triples, Caters and Cinques, and was an expert at tune ringing with handbells. Many a meeting or outing finished in a merry mood with William and partner performing with the handbells.

The funeral took place at Christ Church on March 14th, and was attended by members of the local and Rodbourne Cheney towers. A half-muffled touch of Grandsire Triples was rung. W.B.K.

MR. W. H. JOHNSON, WORCESTER.

Mr. William H. Johnson (Bill Johnson to his many ringing friends in Worcestershire) died on March 15th in his 83rd year. He was a very active member of Worcester Cathedral band until a few years ago, when his doctor forbade him making the arduous climb to the ringing chamber.

He was not a prolific ringer—probably having not more than 50 peals to his credit, and several of these were rung on the Cathedral bells upon occasions of national rejoicings and sorrow—but he was a regular attendant for Sunday service ringing.

Mr. Johnson first entered into the life of the Cathedral 60 years ago, when he joined the voluntary choir, and he was for 50 years secretary of the Cathedral Guild and treasurer of the Worcestershire Association of Ringers for 40 years—a fine example of continuity and devotion to his fellow ringers.

In June, 1943, recognition was paid to his services when at a social gathering in the College Hall he was presented with a handsome gift of War Saving Certificates by Guild members and friends of the Worcestershire Association.

He was a well-known business man in Worcester, being a partner in the building firm of Messrs. Phelps and Johnson. He leaves two sons, who are members of the firm. His wife died in 1939.

The funeral service, held in the Cathedral on March 15th, was attended by many of his ringing friends. The Dean (the Very Rev. Arthur Davies) officiated. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung at the graveside by T. W. Lewis 1-2, S. T. Holt 3-4, G. J. Lewis 5-6, J. J. Jeffries 7-8.

MR. WALTER CHIBNALL.

A stalwart of the Bedfordshire Association died on March 9th in the person of Mr. Walter Chibnall, of Aspley Guise, aged 82. His funeral took place on March 12th.

By trade, Mr. Chibnall was a bookbinder and for 50 years he was employed by the Powage Press, Ltd. His ringing career extended over 63 years, he having joined the Bedfordshire Association at the end of 1883, the second year after its formation. Throughout the whole of that period he rang regularly for services on the handy ring of six at the Parish Church of St. Botolph, where he was foreman of the company. He instructed recruits and kept the band at full strength.

It was his boast that from the time the Aspley bells were rehung over 40 years ago to the present time their upkeep had not cost the church authorities a penny piece. An accomplished amateur carpenter, he lined the walls of the ringing chamber with boarding at his own expense and saw to it that it was kept clean and in good condition at all times. He was capable of rehanging a bell and fitting new bearings, etc., when required.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

Despite the inclement weather, 19 ringers met at Rodbourne Cheney on March 8th for the quarterly meeting of the Swindon Branch, and methods up to Kent Minor were rung.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. R. Hassett), and tea was served in the Sunday School by wives of the local ringers.

The secretary announced that a tour of outlying towers was being arranged in place of the May meeting, and it was decided to visit Blunsdon and Bishopstone in April and June respectively. Three juvenile lady members of Rodbourne Cheney tower were elected members of the association.

Ringers were present from Swindon, Blunsdon, Lydiard Millicent, Rodbourne Cheney, Faringdon and Stratton St. Margaret.

Selby and District Society

BRAYTON BELLS—A DISAPPOINTMENT.

A successful meeting was held at Howden on March 15th, when nearly 30 members were present from Barnby Don, Carlton, Goole, Hemingbrough, Selby, Thorne and the local company.

The Vicar of Howden (the Rev. A. Waring), being unfortunately indisposed, was not able to preside at the meeting, but sent his greetings to the members. The Vicar of Carlton (the Rev. E. Lawson-Brewis), who is a vice-president, presided, and 19 new ringing members were elected.

The secretary reported that owing to difficulties which were not anticipated, there would not be a ring of bells at Brayton and the fund was closed. A proposal that the whole of the year's collection should now go to the Carlton Fund was referred to an extraordinary general meeting of members, as the original resolution was adopted at the society's ordinary general meeting.

The next meeting is to be held at East-rington, subject to local approval, and there are to be joint meetings with the Yorkshire Association (Eastern District) and Doncaster and District Society, also with Beverley and District Society.

The Chairman announced that Carlton bells are to be dedicated on May 10th by the Bishop of Sheffield and all were invited to be present.

Thanks were expressed to the Vicar of Howden for the use of the bells, also to the local company for their arrangements, which included an excellent tea.

An unfortunate occurrence at the start of ringing nearly deprived members of the opportunity to ring this fine peal. The clapper bolt of the sixth bell had worked loose at the headstock and could not be tightened. Thanks to the ingenuity of the Howden ringers, however, temporary repairs were effected which enabled the bells to be rung.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT WETHERSFIELD

Call changes to London Surprise Major was the all embracing programme supervised by the District Master (Miss H. Snowden) for the Northern District meeting at Wethersfield on March 15th.

The following towers were represented: Halstead, Finchamfield, Bocking, Black Notley, Pebmarsh, Shimpling, Braintree, Brentwood, Romford, Great Bardfield, Dunmow, Sible Hedingham, Stansted, Sudbury, Leverstock Green and the local company.

The service in the church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. B. Shepherd), who gave a helpful address. The collection for the Bell Restoration Fund amounted to £1 1s. 9d. Tea was served in the schoolroom.

A cordial welcome to the visitors was extended by the Ringing Master and two new members were elected. Earls Colne was selected for the next meeting on June 7th. Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar and Mr. B. Redgwell for making the meeting such a success. Handbells were also rung in various methods.

SOUTH-EAST DIVISION AT RETTENDON.

Thirty-two members and friends attended the meeting of the S.E. Division at Rettendon on March 8th, when the association's service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. R. P. Flute). Tea was served in the Village Hall by Mrs. and Miss Jay and Miss Cardy.

The Rector presided at the business meeting, at which seven new members were elected, and the next meeting was arranged for April 26th at Wiford. The thanks of the Association to all who had assisted in arranging for such an enjoyable meeting were voiced by Mr. H. Shadrack. Ringing extended from rounds to Cambridge Minor.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Kington Peal

CONDUCTOR'S EXPLANATION.

Dear Sir,—As the ringer responsible for the Kington peal, I had not thought it necessary to answer your correspondents' letters, but your leading article of March 21st forces me to say:—

(1) Much has been made of the idea that local sentiment was hurt because the first peal on rehanging bells was rung by outsiders. The bells of Kington were not rehanging by the date of our peal, and, as far as I know, are still untouched.

(2) There was not the slightest intention of ignoring the ringing captain. I am sorry that he has felt annoyance, but I fail to see why any annoyance with outsiders should make him sever his connection with the local band. The facts are simply these: We attempted the peal on Friday, January 10th, but failed. We then intended to try again at Eardisland on the following Monday, only to discover on the Sunday that these bells were not available. The possibility of Kington was thought of, and the Vicar gave permission by telephone for the peal to be attempted.

Such are the simple facts which need not have created a 'mountain out of a molehill.' On my many visits to churches it has been my invariable custom to ask permission from the incumbent, unless I personally know a local ringer, in which case I should assume that he himself would contact the incumbent. This is the first occasion when difficulties have arisen.

In conclusion, I may say that the peal was first reported less than a week after it was rung.—Yours faithfully,

W. F. MORETON.

The Close, Hereford.

A NEW BELFRY RULE.

Dear Sir,—Further light having been thrown on the Kington episode, your readers are now able to sum up.

(1) The Vicar is not to blame. Only a ringing parson can weigh up the susceptibilities and feelings of a ringer and his unwritten code of honour.

(2) Mr. Trevor Jones has had his feelings deeply hurt and an apology is due to him. 'Blessed are the peace makers.'

(3) The sterling qualities of the Kington ringers in raising money for the new bells, under the leadership of their captain, is brought into view.

(4) I have always found captains or foremen occupy their position on account of their skill, mental alertness, kindness and acknowledged leadership. They are fine specimens of English character and we can ill afford to lose them.

(5) I have had a hand in drawing up belfry rules with the unanimous agreement of incumbent, churchwardens, foreman and all the ringers. If I did this again I would add one more, viz:—

'That incumbent and foreman consult together if outside application is made to ring the bells.'

This would strengthen the unwritten code of etiquette, would not infringe the incumbent's rights, would put an end to peal snatching and convince the ringers that the parson was their friend.—Yours sincerely,

J. M. TURNER.

Washfield Rectory, Tiverton, Devon.

LADIES' GUILD'S SYMPATHY

Dear Sir,—I would like, on behalf of the Northern District, Ladies' Guild, to convey my utmost sympathy for those of our members and their fellow ringers who are flooded out, particularly those in the Doncaster area. I sincerely hope that their present unhappy circumstances will soon be overcome.

E. DORICE KELLY, Hon. Sec.

164, Richmond Road, Sheffield 9.

Captain Agrees to Return

Dear Sir,—I am an unattached member of the Kington district, but I would like to point out that there has been a misunderstanding over the peal of Hereward Bob Minor.

The bells have not yet been rehanging, the £186 raised is towards the cost of rehanging the present six and adding two new trebles to complete the octave.

The peal in question was the first of Minor on the bells. I understand it had always been the ambition of the captain to conduct the first peal of Minor on the bells with a local band, and one can well imagine his disappointment. He has, however, agreed to return to the tower as captain.

The whole affair has been most unfortunate.

—Yours faithfully,

(Mrs.) ELSIE C. CHANDLER.

Beechgrove, Kington.

INFORMATION FROM CANADA
WANTED

Dear Sir,—Your issue of February 14th contained an interesting letter from Mr. A. C. Limpus, of Vancouver, B.C., in which he mentions the peal rung there in 1911 for the Coronation of King George V. I have always had a particular interest in this peal, as I knew well and rang quite a bit with the conductor, Mr. G. W. Forster, in my young days. He came from Borden, Kent, and was an active member of the K.C.A. before he emigrated.

This peal (Holt's Original) appealed to me as a remarkably fine performance, especially on the part of Mr. Forster, who, I believe, came several hundred miles to conduct it.

It has always been a pleasure to see an occasional reference to him in 'The Ringing World,' and the last, several years ago, mentioned that he was seriously ill. I have often wondered whether or not he recovered. Perhaps Mr. Limpus can tell us so that his part in this historic peal can be placed on record in the report of the Kent County Association, of which he was a valued member.—Yours, Crayford, Kent.

E. BARNETT.

BROADCAST NOTICES

Dear Sir,—When broadcasts of bells are announced, would it be possible to give the wave-length?

The last issue of 'The Ringing World' mentioned a broadcast of the bells of St. Mary's, Ulverston, on March 16th, in the Home Service, but our programme in the Home Service at this hour was a service from Newton Abbot Congregational Church!

Whimble, Devon.

E. LOMAS (Miss).

A DATE TOUCH FOR 1947

Dear Sir,—The enclosed 21 leads of Treble Bob may be of interest to those who like to ring a date touch.

At the treble's snap lead at the start of the 22nd lead the change is 123546, and the bells can be brought round at hand the next change giving a touch of 507 changes, which, with two 720's, will give the 1,947 changes.—Yours faithfully,

A. RELFE.

Irish Association 'Cleared'

Dear Sir,—With reference to the letter by Mr. Harold Poole in 'The Ringing World' dated 14th inst., when he suggested that I should say if there was ever a Frank Haslett having been a member of this Association.

I have perused all the records possible and I can find no trace of any person of this name amongst them (nor was there ever a Michael Mulcahy a member either), and certainly no peals by the Irish Association included any person bearing either of the names.

There have been a number of peals of Grand-sire and Stedman Triples rung by members of this Association, but never any of London Surprise Minor.

According to records, there has not been any person of the name who was a member of the Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, Society. I will, however, make inquiries from their secretary, and should my information be incorrect, I will not hesitate to write again.

Trusting that this information will 'clear the air' as far as this man's statements regarding this Association are concerned.—Yours faithfully,

FRED. E. DUKES,

Irish Association of Change Ringers.

ST. MARGARET'S RECORD

Dear Sir,—The ringers of St. Margaret's, Westminster, do not need anyone to defend them against what was an unwarrantable attack upon their ringing, yet I feel bound to answer Mr. Burgess.

I am not in a position to judge the recording that he mentions, but I can say that bad striking would not be tolerated, for it has been a pleasure for me to ring with them on many occasions prior to 1939 when the bells were going badly.

As for the B.B.C. recording, it is quite possible that some of St. Margaret's ringers took part in it, in any case neither they nor Mr. Burgess can teach them anything about striking.

Hatfield is no great distance from London, and Mr. Burgess could profit by a visit there some time, when he would, I am sure, receive a very warm welcome, and at the same time enjoy some ringing which may be equalled but certainly not surpassed.—Yours faithfully, Maidstone.

WILLIAM T. GRICE.

RINGERS' NAMES ON BELLS

Dear Sir,—Re St. Peter's (Nottingham) 10 bells. The two trebles have the following inscription: 'To the Greater Glory of God. H. R. Cobbin gave me. Thanking God. 1919.' The donor (D.V.) hopes to complete 50 years' ringing service at St. Peter's on June 22nd next.

In your issue of March 7th, Mr. G. E. Symonds, of Ipswich, gave particulars of the 9th bell in Beccles (Suffolk) tower, saying amongst the inscriptions on the bell was the name of Henry Hopson. Mr. Henry Hopson was the grandfather of H. R. Cobbin.

DEVON GUILD OF RINGERS

MID-DEVON BRANCH ANNUAL MEETING. Preb. E. V. Cox, president of the Guild, presided at the 25th annual meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch at Teignmouth on March 15th, when the local ringers were joined with visitors from Exeter, Tedbury St. Mary, Newton Abbot, Paignton, Ashburton, Buckfastleigh and Plymouth. An apology was received from Mr. Harvey (Totnes).

The sub-committee reported on the memorial to the late Mr. C. R. Walter, and submitted three estimates for the work. These were referred back to the sub-committee.

The secretary's annual report stated that five meetings had been held and membership had increased. An increase in the general fund balance was reported by the treasurer, but a decrease on the Instructional Fund balance. The reports were adopted.

Officers elected were: Chairman, the Rev. W. R. D. Mills; secretary, treasurer and ringing master, Mr. A. L. Bennett; auditor, Mr. B. H. Cooper; general committee, Miss L. E. Cload, Mr. C. F. Austin and Mr. W. C. Wakley. An honorary member and an associate member were also elected.

Meetings suggested (subject to permission) were Totnes, April 26th, and Buckfast Abbey with the South-West Branch in June.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar (the Rev. S. W. Phillips) for conducting the service and use of the bells, the Rev. I. W. Watson for his address and those who contributed to the catering. Methods rung were Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Stedman Triples and Plain Bob Major.

EASTER

Out from the snowdrifts chilly,
Roused from drowsy hours,
Bluebell wakes and lily;
God calls up the flowers.

These lines from a traditional Easter carol seem particularly appropriate this year with a winter of amazing severity—weeks of snow being followed by floods which have inundated thousands of acres, with much death and destruction. Behind this desolation will come the miracle of the resurrection; it is presented each succeeding spring and is commemorated by the Church with the Festival of Easter.

For the past week the bells of our churches have been silent. It is a generally accepted rule that no practices are held during Holy Week. For those whose ears are attuned to sounds that matter it has been a still week. And it is well that ringers should ask themselves each succeeding year what is the message of the silent bells? No resurrection can come without death pains and decay; similarly no Easter, with all its joy of a new life, arrives without its travail which this year has been one of physical anguish for thousands of people.

Charles Morgan, in one of his essays, takes infinite pains to condemn those who desire to regimentise the human family into what they describe as the Common Man. 'I believe that the coming age will be that of the Uncommon rather than the Common Man,' he writes with conviction. And later he adds, 'Woe betide the priest who looks for the Common Parishioner and not for the child of God.' Thus, in the appeal of the message of Easter reactions are different. 'The world itself keeps Easter Day' is the glad message of another carol. Nature has a common denominator and gradually reveals its new life, but with mankind it is individualistic and uncommon. The promise of the resurrection is there to all, but it has to be sought individually.

The Easter morning bells are an expression to the world of the Church's alleluias. It is the ringer's privilege to be the chosen messenger—an uncommon responsibility which is not merely confined to ringing a touch perfectly. This ringing is a spiritual act; an act of worship which is entered upon with a fuller significance if the true meaning behind the silence in Holy Week is understood and observed.

To many Guilds and Associations Easter is the start of a new year and a new life. More than a dozen of such gatherings will take place on Easter Monday—occasions which are largely attended. It is indeed a happy thought to start anew with Easter and leave behind the dross of the passing year in the search for something far nobler and on a higher plane in our ringing. All the discouragements of the past are gone and buried; new hopes and aspirations will enable the coming year to give a better impetus to our work.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

One of the most promising of the Oxford Guild's younger ringers is James Higgins (15), who has rung his first peal of Spliced Surprise Major (London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative). 'Jimmy,' writes the conductor, 'is very modest with it all.'

There are other young people in the news this week. Master George W. Pipe has called his first peal of Bob Major at the age of 11. This was at Ufford, Suffolk. His father and mother both participated in the peal. A family of conductors!

Another youthful conductor is thirteen-year-old John R. Mayne. He has called this week a peal of Minor in seven methods in hand!

The peal of Surprise Minor at Darlington on March 22nd was arranged for Jack R. Worrall (Cardiff) and John A. Pumphrey (Aylsham, Norfolk), who are serving in the Royal Corps of Signals. It was their first peal of Surprise.

For 65 years Mr. W. A. Jeavons has been a member of the Coseley, Staffs, band. In honour of his 82nd birthday, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles were rung on March 19th by W. A. Jeavons 1, A. Baker 2, Miss E. Causer 3, D. Whatmore (first quarter) 4, D. Holden (conductor) 5, A. Cope 6.

The usual precaution of locking the belfry door was not taken at Pulford, Cheshire, on March 22nd, during a peal attempt. After ringing had been in progress for some time, a visitor entered the ringing chamber. He was quickly requested to leave and did so, but after the peal a postcard was found on the outside of the door apologising for the intrusion and very favourably commenting on the quality of the ringing! No name was given, but he stated he was from the Wirral area and was en route to Llangollen. Real courtesy!

BELFRY GOSSIP

Quarterly subscribers may deduct 7d. from their next payment for the two issues that did not appear in February. Writes one prompt payer in sending his full subscription to Mr. H. J. Eldred: 'No deduction made. Well worth the money.'

Will Mr. Robin Shuttleworth, who ordered 'Elementary Change Ringing,' please forward his address to the Editor?

The Frodsham, Cheshire, band have a new first in the Exercise—Double Mancroft Bob Major.

The Exercise will extend their best wishes to Mr. P. A. Corby and Miss Lucile M. Hubbert. Their marriage takes place on April 10th.

Latest caricature of the Exercise appears in 'Lilliput,' in which Gammidge introduces Bam, Bim, Boom, Bong and Beng.

Those attending the annual meeting of the Ely Diocesan Association should note a correction in the advertisement, which reads, 'Please bring food; cups of tea provided.'

Correction.—The peal of Little Bob Major at Tattenhall, Staffs, on February 22nd, was B. G. Key's 100th peal and not G. E. Oliver's as printed.

The example of Bournemouth in advertising holiday ringing opportunities has been followed this week by Brighton, who suggest that other holiday resorts should make similar announcements.

Steps are being taken to revive the Ladies' Guild in Kent, which lapsed during the war. It is hoped that the meeting at Tunbridge Wells on April 19th will place the Guild on a firm basis in Kent.

At Hobart, Tasmania, a half-muffled peal was rung at Holy Trinity Church when the news of the passing of Mr. Rupert Richardson was received. The visit of the Tourists to Australia is still remembered by Mr. A. R. Wilson and his fellow ringers.

ALTHOUGH the beginning of change ringing in Sussex cannot be determined with any accuracy, it is certain that there were centres of the art of Horsham, Bolney, Brighton and Eastbourne in the early part of the 18th century. Bolney is believed to be the first tower in the county with a peal of eight, but there are no boards in the tower recording early performances. By the courtesy of Mr. A. Gillings, the following extracts were made from the minute book of the local society, in which some attempt was made to record the old peals:—

April 22nd, 1799, 5,040 Grandsire Triples, conducted by Philip Tulley.

April 23rd, 1813, 5,040 Grandsire Triples, conducted by James Potter, Brighton.

April 6th, 1822, 11,216 Bob Major, conducted by Richard Cook, Bolney.

In the middle of the 18th century the heavy peal of six at Horsham, with its 36 cwt. tenor, was recast into eight, and between 1766 and 1821 twenty-four peals were rung. The band also scored the first peals at St. Nicholas', Brighton, 1777, and Uckfield 1785, besides travelling as far abroad as Dorking and Guildford. Unfortunately the ancient peal book of the Horsham Society, together with the peal book and certificate book of the Sussex County Association, disappeared in 1908 after an upheaval in the Association's affairs, and has never been traced.

At St. Nicholas', Brighton, the old parish church, ringing was kept vigorous by the constant visits of the Court to the town, and by its comparatively easy access from London. There is a board recording a peal of Bob Major, 11,088 changes, in 1779, rung by a mixed band, which included Sussex ringers from Horsham, Chiddingly and Cuckfield. The bells were originally eight, augmented to ten, reduced to eight again when the two trebles were transferred to the new Parish Church of St. Peter, and again augmented to ten, finally to be recast into a modern peal of ten. Very many peals have been rung here, and there is a record compiled in this century which is reputed to be a complete list. At one time there is said to have been two rival companies ringing on the bells, the Silver Spurs and the Straw Boots, the former having their headquarters at the Windmill Tavern in Upper North Street. Within living memory the insignia of the silver spur was attached to a notice board at the Windmill, but on the closing of the inn this, and possibly other records, was lost.

On these auspicious foundations, the Sussex County Association was formed from a meeting called in December, 1884, by George F. Attree at St. Peter's, Brighton. In the early part of the next year the Association was formally launched, with George Attree as its first secretary. Twenty-five bands of ringers became affiliated, and the Association at once became the third largest in the country.

In 1885 the peal at Warnham was augmented to eight, and there was found a public which loved to hear its church bells rung all day and every day. In consequence Warnham soon came to the front as a centre of change ringing, and many of its peals have the footnote, 'Begun at 4.30 a.m.' It was no unknown occurrence to have two or even more peals rung in one day. Naturally, it was an ideal place for record breaking!

'FANTASTIC EXTRAVAGANCES.'

The Association was inaugurated with an impressive list of honorary members containing the names of many of the Sussex clergy and a heavy sprinkling of the higher nobility, and it was from these that it obtained a large percentage of its income. For the first year or so it flourished exceedingly, then the subscriptions from the honorary members began to fall away, fantastic extravagances on dinners and teas and the erection of marble tablets began to tell their tale on the balance sheets, which went from bad to worse. Every year showed a deficit until in 1891, when the accounts were more than £60 on the wrong side, George Attree, on his elevation to the Mastership, wiped out the debt. Under the secretaryship of the Rev. Lother Coder the Association was enabled to start afresh without encumbrance.

The unique position of George Attree, as an influential business man in Brighton, and a churchwarden of St. Peter's, enabled him to attract to the town many good ringers, and to provide unlimited facilities for practice. Amongst his band figure such well-known names as George Baker, composer and method inventor, George Williams, Edward Merritt, Harry Weston, Frank Bennett, Keith Hart, George Smart—some employed by the Attree firm, others attracted to the tower by its growing reputation or the opportunities offered for practice in advanced methods.

The 1890's found the St. Peter's band at the top of its form: the first peals for the Association of Cambridge, Superlative and London were rung at their own tower, and the first of Grandsire and Stedman Caters at St. Nicholas'. These latter were not the first rung by the Sussex Association, as affiliated towers were listed as far away as St. Albans Cathedral, Herts, and All Saints', Fulham, claims the first peals of Caters credited to the Association. It is doubtful, however, if these peals can be reckoned truly Sussex ones. During this period the St. Peter's band travelled to London, and at St. Stephen's, Coleman Street, rang the first peal of London Surprise in the City. The attitude of the London ringers to this performance is not recorded.

The same decade found a new centre of ringing at Crawley, under James Parker, peals of New Cumberland Surprise, Superlative and Alliance Major being accomplished. At Henfield, too, Charles Tyler's band scored the first peal of Duffield for the Association and the first of Stedman Caters and Cinques on handbells.

The swift rise of the Association's reputation may be gauged by the fact that the first peal for the new Association was Grandsire Triples at Cuckfield, conducted by J. Jay, sen., and there were seven rung in the first year. In 1895 the total had risen to 98 for the twelve months, being at that time a record for any society. No less than 33 of these were rung at Warnham, and methods had included 10,080 Treble Bob Minor in 14 methods at Capel, conducted by D. Jordan, the first peal ever rung of Canterbury Pleasure, conducted by H. Chandler at Warnham, and the first peals of Stedman Triples and Treble Bob Major.

In 1908 George Attree emigrated to Canada, and it might well have been that the removal of his undoubted personality and powers of leadership would spell disaster both to St. Peter's and the Association. That difficulties and troubles attendant on his sudden departure should occur is only to be expected, but the foundations he had laid were sound and there were capable men to carry on his work. In the election of the new Master, F. B. Tompkins, and secretary, G. Watson, with Keith Hart succeeding to the leadership of St. Peter's, affairs settled down in due course.

DIVISION OF THE COUNTY

By 1893 it had been found necessary, owing to the peculiar shape of the county with its Cathedral at the extreme west end, to form three divisions of the Association. This arrangement lasted until 1932, when under the secretaryship of Albert Stone the central division was divided into a northern and southern. Although various attempts have been made to give the Cathedral City more prominence, it is generally agreed that Brighton is geographically and conveniently the natural centre. General meetings held at Chichester or Eastbourne have always proved unrepresentative and unsatisfactory.

The first World War broke on the Association at the height of its reputation. A record of 112 peals had been rung during 1913; the finances were in a flourishing state; the new Benevolent Fund was proving its worth. It was owing to these facts that the organisation came through the war years on a firm footing to face the problems of peace. Despite some opposition, meetings were regularly held and there seems to have been very little dislocation in any direction. By 1924 it was found possible to offer rail fares to members attending meetings, in addition to the benefits derived from the Benevolent Fund.

Between the wars Crawley had risen again under the conductorship of Oliver Sippetts, where peals of Surprise in new methods and in the latest discovery, Spliced Surprise, were becoming almost everyday affairs. St. Peter's, Brighton, were making good use of the heavy peal of ten which had been presented by the Master, J. Thornton Rickman, and the first peal ever rung of London Surprise Royal in George Baker's Brighton version had been rung by the local band with Keith Hart as conductor. The jubilee meeting was held in Brighton in 1935, three foundation members being present.

Again war interfered with progress, this time more severely than before, but again, despite the total ban on ringing, activities continued. The handbell band gathered round Frank and Mrs. Hairs at Burgess Hill scored peals with regularity. It is largely owing to these activities, carried on under the stress of difficulties attendant on war duties, that the Association was enabled to start again so vigorously after the lifting of the ban. The county has reason to be thankful that it has escaped with negligible damage to bells and towers, although it took its part in the front line.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

Over 40 members and friends braved the Arctic conditions on March 15th to attend the annual meeting of the Guild at Dudley. The president (the Rev. J. Waring), who is Vicar of Dudley, conducted the service and his address gave food for thought in these troublous times. Tea was served at the business meeting.

At the ensuing meeting the following officers were re-elected: President, the Rev. J. Waring, R.D.; Ringing Master, Mr. T. Townsend; treasurer, Mr. H. Shuck; secretary, also Central Council representative, Mr. F. Colclough; auditors, Messrs. T. Justice and D. Holden. Six new ringing members were elected. An invitation was accepted to hold the next quarterly meeting at Netherton in June.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

In spite of threatening skies, 51 members and friends attended the Canterbury District meeting at Hernhill on March 22nd. The achievement of the meeting was the electing of the Hernhill band of nine ringers in union with the Association, together with one junior member from Elham and one new hon. member. The next quarterly meeting will be at Elham on April 19th.

Ringing was in varying methods and degrees of striking, reports our correspondent. The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. W. J. Sharland), and Miss A. Foreman, who played the organ, recently completed 50 years as organist at the church. They were both thanked for their services.

Sheffield and District Society

1946 A PROGRESSIVE YEAR.

The annual meeting of the Sheffield and District Society was held at St. John's, Ram-moor, on March 8th. The weather was very difficult for travelling, but approximately 40 members attended from Rotherham, Staveley, Handsworth, Chesterfield, Whiston, Dronfield, All Saints', Pitsmoor, Sheffield Cathedral and the local company. The ten bells were available from 3 to 5 and 6.30 to 8.30 and were well occupied.

An excellent tea was provided in the Church Hall, after which the business meeting was held. Owing to the Rector, Canon Foster, meeting with a slight accident which prevented him attending, the president (Mr. F. B. Ditcher) took the chair. Eight ringers were elected members. The balance sheet showed the society in a sound position.

The secretary (Mr. H. O. Chaddock) in his report said he was very grateful to tower secretaries and officers for the help he had received in arranging meetings. Twenty-seven new members had been elected, and three had been lost by death. The attendance at the monthly meeting had improved, and the society was on good terms with neighbouring societies and received plenty of support, particularly in the Doncaster and Chesterfield directions. During 1946, 27 peals had been rung, viz., 2 on six bells, 21 on eight bells, 3 on 10 bells, and 1 of Maximus, all on tower bells. There had been five conductors and 12 different methods were rung—a creditable performance for a small society. The peal book was complete to January, 1946, and outstanding peals were in process of being written.

The following officers were elected: President, Mr. F. B. Ditcher; vice-presidents, Messrs. W. H. Taylor, A. B. Cooper, J. E. Turley and N. Chaddock; auditor, Mr. F. B. Ditcher; treasurer, Mr. S. F. Palmer; Ringing Masters, Messrs. N. Chaddock and G. Briggs; secretary, Mr. H. O. Chaddock; assistant secretary, Mr. W. Holland.

An invitation to hold the April meeting at Rotherham Parish Church was accepted. The committee are to arrange the competition for the society's silver cup. The secretary was instructed to write to Mr. George Lewis, whose health prevented him attending, expressing the members' good wishes and thanking him for his past services.

A suggestion that the annual subscription be raised was withdrawn, and it was hoped that the society would continue to pay its way for another year when the position could again be reviewed.

A vote of thanks to the Rector, local company and ladies for the use of the bells and the hospitality given to the society was carried unanimously.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM JAMES.

The passing of William James severs the last link of the Bromsgrove band which made ringing history 50 years ago. He rang his first peal over 62 years ago, and although not a great peal ringer, retained his interest to the last. He died suddenly on March 17th at the age of 78.

After the funeral on March 22nd the bells were rung half-muffled as a last token of respect for a steady and reliable ringer.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Corlestone, Great Yarmouth.

Middlesex County Association

MEETING AT HARLINGTON.

The first meeting for about ten years, and the first since the augmentation of the bells from six to eight, took place at Harlington on March 15th.

About 45 members and friends attended, from Bushey Heath, Ealing (St. Stephen's), Farnham Royal, Feltham, Harlington, Hayes, Heston, Hillingdon (St. Andrew's and St. John's), Oatlands Park, Richmond, Stanwell, Southfields, Uxbridge, Wembley and Willesden, and the musical little peal were kept going from 3 p.m. till 8.30 p.m.

Methods rung, under the supervision of Mr. F. A. Finch (Ringing Master) and Mr. T. G. Baumster (Deputy Ringing Master), included Grandsire, Stedman and Oxford Bob Triples, Plain Bob, Double Norwich, and Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, and Cambridge, Superlative and London Surprise Major. Learners were not forgotten, and were given plenty of opportunities in rounds and six-bell ringing.

A short service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. H. W. Reindorp, M.A.), who welcomed the Association. Tea was kindly provided by the local company in the Church Hall and was the more appreciated as the weather had again turned bitterly cold.

An informal business meeting was presided over, in the absence of Mr. W. H. Coles (the vice-president), who sent an apology, by Mr. F. A. Finch.

Elections were as follows: Miss Audrey Castle (Merton, Surrey) and Mr. C. A. Levett (St. Leonards-on-Sea) as non-resident life members; Mr. W. Pichall (Ruislip), Mr. P. Bettridge and Mr. H. W. Impey (Hillingdon, St. John's), and the Rev. P. C. J. Hoyal (Vicar of Stanwell), as ringing members.

The Secretary announced that the assistant secretary (Mr. W. G. Wilson) was somewhat seriously indisposed and was likely to be out of ringing for some time. On the proposition of Mr. E. C. S. Turner, seconded by Mr. F. A. Finch, the secretary was requested to write Mr. Wilson expressing the concern of those present, and to convey their best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The next meeting was fixed for Heston on April 26th, and if possible an evening meeting at St. Mary Abbot's, Kensington, during May. The best thanks of the Association were accorded to the Rector, to Mr. J. Nelhams and the local company, and to the organist, for all the arrangements made.

The general secretary (Mr. E. C. S. Turner) announced that the annual general meeting of the Association would be held at St. Mary's, Ealing, on May 10th, and not as previously announced. He also again drew attention to the appeal recently issued for the C. T. Coles Memorial Fund, and asked for members' support for this object.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

WESTERN DIVISION AT KEIGHLEY.

Officers were elected for three years when the Western Division held its annual meeting at Keighley on March 22nd under the chairmanship of Mr. P. J. Johnson (vice-president). These were district secretary, Mr. William Ambler (with warm thanks for past services); Messrs. J. Ambler, P. Birkett and F. Hodgson, district committee; Mr. J. Ambler, general committee. An invitation to hold the next meeting at Marsden in June was accepted.

Four new members were elected, and the collection given to the Belfry Repairs Fund amounted to 14s. 10½d.

Ringing before and after the meeting ranged from Plain Bob to Superlative Surprise. Evening ringing was marred by fumes from the boiler penetrating the ringing chamber: this, coupled with the bad 'go' of the tenor, caused ringing to be curtailed. Some 40 members were present and their enthusiasm may be the means of stimulating effort in this area, which has been at a low ebb for some time.

The Kingston Peal

'A PAROCHIAL AFFAIR.'

Dear Sir,—One cannot pronounce judgment until the whole of the facts is known. This sound advice given by the president of the East Devon Guild does not appear to us of the Hereford Diocesan Guild to have been taken by you, sir, before writing your editorial of March 21st.

You have not published any letter from the peal ringers explaining their action, to enable your readers to hear both sides of the question; and if you have received no such letter we submit that it was premature for you to write a leader on the subject. You have certainly read into Mr. Jones' letter more than he intended to imply and made the matter look far worse than it really is; for there was no question of a first peal—the two new bells are still only a future prospect.

You raise the question of the etiquette of peal ringing in a strange tower. The most usual practice is surely for the incumbent (not the captain) to be approached first. He will naturally consult his responsible officer (usually the steeplekeeper) before giving permission.

In the case of the Kingston peal, therefore, it would appear to us that the fault lay in the decision of the peal ringers (when the tower originally arranged for was not available) to try to get another one by telephoning to the Vicar at such short notice that he had no time to consult his steeplekeeper or captain.

Such a thing has undoubtedly been done by others many times before; but it is an act of discourtesy to the incumbent. Let this be a warning! Unless, however, an incumbent has a clear understanding with his own band he should very properly refuse to be rushed into giving consent in this way. But if he does give his consent, any trouble caused thereby is his own responsibility and not that of the visitors. It has become a parochial affair, and not one that can be usefully aired in the pages of 'The Ringing World.'—Yours, etc.,

E. G. BENSON, Hon. Sec.,
Hereford Diocesan Guild.

Burghill Vicarage, Hereford.

TOWER SNATCHING

Dear Sir,—In reply to the letter of Mr. Eric Nobles. In 1938 I rang in 163 new towers in 19 counties, and in 1939, during the first eight months of the year, I rang in 153 new towers in 21 counties. But for the war, I was hoping to reach the 200 mark! In addition to these new towers, I visited from 30 to 40 'old' towers during both these years, so my total for both years was over 350 towers altogether.

While on this subject, I should be interested to know how many ringers have rung in 1,000 or more? I know of only five, Messrs. J. H. Shepherd, A. A. Hughes, W. A. Stote, J. T. Dyke and myself. My total is now 1,041 in 45 counties, in England, Wales and Ireland.

Since the war, owing to pressure of work and other factors, I am unable to do very much 'tower snatching,' but I am pleased to hear of others carrying on their widening of experience. Good luck, Mr. Nobles, and may you one day join the '1,000' up band.—Yours faithfully,

A. PATRICK CANNON.

Eastbourne.

ANOTHER RECORD

Dear Sir,—Without wishing to enter a discussion regarding the merits or demerits of the record of the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, I would like to draw Mr. Burgess' attention to a recording of a touch of Grandsire Caters rung at Birmingham Cathedral, which may approach the high standard he desires.

Copies of this record are available from Mr. G. E. Fearn, 92, Etwell Road, Hall Green, Birmingham 28.—Yours truly, G. W. CRITCHLEY.

Sutton Coldfield.

What's In a Name?

Dear Sir,—I have thought for some time that the naming of some of our methods is somewhat misleading, and I wonder if other ringers are of the same opinion. As the following will show, it presents something of an anomaly.

If we take a course of the Plain Bob method on any number of bells and insert a second hunt bell we call it Grandsire, i.e., Bob Minimus becomes Grandsire Doubles, Bob Doubles equals Grandsire Minor, Bob Minor equals Grandsire Triples and so on. We will accept Grandsire as a distinct method as the calls are not Plain Bob calls, and, further, the method can be rung on all numbers by straightforward extension.

Now if we take the Oxford Bob method and 'Grandsire' it as we do Plain Bob, we still call it Oxford Bob, and in consequence Oxford Bob on an even number of bells is an entirely different method to that on an odd number of bells. Ask any six-bell ringer. Would it not be more correct to call the method we know as Oxford Bob Triples, 'Grandsire Triples in the Oxford Bob variation'? The method is far more akin to Grandsire than Oxford Bob.

I noticed in a recent report of a peal of Doubles that Oxford Bob was among the methods rung. How do we juggle with the Oxford Bob method on five bells without ringing either Plain Bob or Grandsire?

Again, if we take the Plain Bob method and extend it as we do it still remains Bob Doubles, Bob Minor, Bob Triples, etc., but if we take the variation of Plain Bob Doubles known as St. Simon's, when it is extended to Minor it becomes St. Clement's Minor. What accounts for this?

I have not rung St. Clement's Triples, but I presume that here again we introduce a second hunt bell and use Grandsire calls, thus making it far more akin to Grandsire than a variation of Plain Bob. There are no doubt dozens of other methods which are or could be treated as these two methods are. Perhaps our Methods Committee of the Central Council can enlighten us. I say 'us' as I imagine there are others besides myself who are equally fogged.

V.A.J.

Barton Stacey, Hants.

RECORD PEAL ATTEMPT

Dear Sir,—On Easter Monday, April 7th, I have a band going to attempt a 9,000 Bob Royal at Prittlewell, starting at 2 p.m. I think, should this be successful, it will be the longest length of Bob Royal rung. The composition, by myself, contains the 6th extent right and wrong in 50 courses.—Yours truly,

FRANK B. LUFKIN.

CONTINUITY

And who will carry on the torch? This question has to be faced by all organisations and indeed by all forms of human life where continuity is an essential factor. In bell ringing it is constantly to the fore; it is a major question for each tower. The need for an Elisha to wear the mantle applies not only to conductors and steeplekeepers (not all conductors are well acquainted with the care of bells), but also to the ranks of Sunday service ringers.

At Leeds Parish Church this continuity has been broken, as was pathetically told to the Exercise in the notice that appeared in 'The Ringing World' last week in the following terms: 'Until further notice Sunday ringing will be by arrangement only. Monthly Saturday practices discontinued.' We trust that the lesson of Leeds will be taken to heart by all towers and more particularly by those towers which are in key positions in Church and State. No tower can afford to be complacent as to the future; it must have its training school.

Leeds holds an honoured position among the famous rings of England. The bells are second only to St. Mary's, Redcliffe, in weight for a ring of twelve hung in a parish church, and are the ninth heaviest ring of twelve in the world, being recast in 1932 and increased from a tenor of 36 cwt. to one of 42½ cwt., with the addition of a semitone bell to provide a middle eight in F. Towers that take precedence over Leeds for weight are Exeter, St. Paul's, York, Southwark, Bristol, Worcester, Dublin and Manchester Town Hall.

Ecclesiastically Leeds Parish Church is equally renowned—it was considered for cathedral status at the time the See of Bradford was created, and was second favourite to Bradford Parish Church. From its clergy in the past hundred years have been chosen 13 Bishops and an Archbishop (Lord Lang had his first curacy after ordination at Leeds some 60 years ago). Famous musicians have been numbered among its organists, who included Samuel Sebastian Wesley, and the daily choral service is a regular feature of its church life.

Unfortunately, the unhappy state of ringing in Leeds Parish Church to-day is attributable largely to taking no thought for to-morrow. Within the last 13 years, we are informed, and possibly 20 years, no beginner has been taught in this belfry, reliance being placed on recruiting from ready made ringers drifting in from other belfries. Losses by death, retirement and advancing years have reduced the company to a mere half dozen, and those left had not the heart to break in recruits. To such a low ebb had ringing been reduced that the bells have been rung only four times for services this year. An attempt to remedy this state of affairs is being undertaken by Mr. R. H. Dove, and when he volunteered to take on the task he met with an overwhelming response in the way of recruits from ex-choirboys, youth club members and sidesmen.

We trust that the lesson of Leeds will receive serious consideration throughout the Exercise. There are other towers where the flight of years is not being observed. A Surprise band, with all its members in the veteran stage, will find that its accomplishments cannot stay in the hands of time. There must be no delay in finding men and women to carry on the torch for the good of bell ringing generally and their own tower in particular.

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

Southwark Cathedral bells will be rededicated by the Bishop of Southwark at 5 p.m. to-morrow (Saturday), when the annual festival of the Friends of Southwark Cathedral will be held. They were removed from the tower when war broke out, and through the generosity of Friends of Southwark Cathedral were sent to Whitechapel to be cleaned and tuned.

First peals on the bells are recorded this week in respect of two Lincolnshire towers—Dunston and Sempringham.

Farewell 720's have been rung at Llandudno to Mr. R. Oliver on March 24th and at Edgbaston, Birmingham, to Mr. J. F. Atkins, who is going to reside at Broadstairs.

Mr. Joseph J. Pratt, the beloved captain of St. John's, Hillingdon, ringers died on Saturday, aged 73. He had been a ringer for about 60 years. The funeral service is at St. John's Church to-day (Friday) at 3.45 p.m.

Correction.—In regard to the peal of Oxford Treble Bob at Woolton, Liverpool, on March 15th, the composition was A. Knights' (322 reversed) and not as printed.

Mr. W. Rogers, the latest campanological addition to the ranks of the grandfathers, is hoping for an early invitation to stand in a grandfathers' peal.

When ringers of St. Andrew's, East Hagbourne, paid their annual visit to Goring-on-Thames on March 18th they found the bottom of the tower flooded to the depth of a foot. Tiers of bricks with a ladder across, placed by Mr. Haines, the Goring foreman, made entry to the ringing chamber possible. Ringing was followed by the yearly game of darts between East and West Hagbourne at The Miller of Mansfield. Here the heavy bellringer scored 'three treble ones' to win the match.

BELFRY GOSSIP

A broadcast about Loughborough's bell-making industry will be heard on the Midland Home Service (296 metres) on April 17th at 7.20-7.40 p.m. This will be a recorded programme from the foundry of Messrs. John Taylor and Co., produced by Peter Cairns. Information about bellringing rules and customs will be introduced.

The bells of Walsall Parish Church will be on the air next Sunday (April 13th) at 12 noon in the Midland Home Service, 296.2 metres.

Of more than passing interest is the peal at Melbourne, Derbyshire, on March 29th. The last peal on these bells was rung by the Australian tourists on their return in 1936. The long draught of rope makes a peal difficult to secure.

Hadleigh, Suffolk, where no change ringing has been practised for many years, is now on the map. At the end of the war eight ringers decided to explore the mysteries of Plain Bob. The following members rang their first quarter-peal of Plain Bob Triples on March 26th: Mrs. J. L. Willis-Betts 1, Miss M. E. Jarvis 2, Mrs. Stephenson 3, F. Bloomfield 4, W. Clark 5, J. T. Corder 6, F. A. Willis-Betts (conductor) 7, F. Thorpe 8.

The Guild of Clerical Ringers are holding their ringing week from April 21st-25th, with headquarters at Highway Hotel, Burford, Oxford. Two peal attempts are planned. The party will include the Revs. J. H. B. Andrews, H. Benson, C. Carew Cox, Preb. E. V. Cox, F. Ll. Edwards, R. D. St. G. Edwards, R. P. Farrow, T. P. Hearn (non-resident), N. E. Hope, R. H. Palmer, E. S. Powell I. J. Richards, D. P. Roberts, B. F. Sheppard, R. D. St. John Smith, A. G. G. Thurlow, W. M. K. Warren, C. E. Wigg, and Canon R. F. Wilkinson.

IN AFFILIATION WITH CENTRAL COUNCIL

THE IRISH ASSOCIATION

IN 1896 a young man took up an appointment in Dublin and at the same time was appointed instructor to the ringers and keeper of the belfry at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin. By 1898 he had aroused the enthusiasm of the local ringers, who were now making progress in change ringing, and on Saturday, October 22nd, 1898, twenty-five ringers met to form a change ringers guild: thus the Irish Association of Change Ringers was born. The young man—Gabriel Lindoff—became its first secretary. Richard R. Cherry, K.C., became first president, and a William McCullough first treasurer. Of those twenty-five ringers, only three survive to this day, viz., Rev. Canon G. D. Scott, M.A., and Harold and Rawdon Greene, who were elected first life members of the Association two years ago. At that meeting five towers were represented: St. Patrick's Cathedral (10), Christ Church Cathedral (10), St. John-the-Baptist (10) and St. George's (8), all Dublin, also Christ Church, Bray (8); thus there were three rings of ten bells.

The Association adopted as its object 'That the Society shall be a bond of unity between all ringers in Ireland for the promotion and study of scientific change ringing.' By 1900 change ringing certainly had been promoted, for Plain Bob, Grandsire and Stedman were well established in Dublin, Bray and Arklow, and already peals of Grandsire Triples and Caters and Bob Triples had been rung by the local ringers.

The first report was printed in 1901. It gave a synopsis of the inaugural meeting and included an article on change ringing leading up to Doubles (Grandsire and Plain Bob).

By 1902 the membership had risen to one hundred members, embracing new towers from Belfast, Holywood, Drogheda and Kilkenny. Peals were on the increase, 17 having already been rung. This year the Association became affiliated to the Central Council of Church Bellringers, and Richard Cherry was elected the first representative.

The membership continued to increase—to 150 members—more towers joined up from Cork, Limerick, Waterford and Rostrevor. In 1905 the only peal outside Ireland was rung, at St. Stephen's, Coleman Street, London, on St. Patrick's Day. It was one of Bob Major, 5,024 changes, rung by Herbert P. Harman treble, John S. Goldsmith (conductor) 2, John W. Taylor 3, Isaac G. Shade 4, William H. Fussell 5, Ferris J. Shepherd 6, John H. B. Hesse 7, Ernest Pye tenor.

FIRST 12 OUT OF ENGLAND.

A red-letter day for the Association was Whit Monday, 1909, when through the munificence of the Attorney General (the Right Hon. R. R. Cherry, K.C.) two trebles were presented and the B flat bell hung for ringing at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin. Thus Ireland became possessed of the first ring of twelve bells out of England. The trebles were rung for the first time in peal on the previous day. The annual meeting on Whit Monday was attended by 150 out of a possible 185 members, and they were entertained by the donor of the new bells and the Dean of St. Patrick's.

The St. Patrick's Cathedral Society were not long in making full use of their twelve bells, for on January 14th, 1911, the first peal on twelve bells ever rung out of England was rung to Grandsire Cinques, 5,037 changes, in 3 hours 50 minutes; tenor 45 cwt. This team included the donor of the new bells ringing the 11th.

A challenge shield for competition amongst the affiliated towers was introduced in 1913,

RICHARD C. CHERRY, K.C.
Lord Chief Justice of Ireland.

the shield to be awarded to the society having the greatest percentage of bells rung for at least fifteen minutes before each service throughout the year.

During the Great War, 1914-1918, no meetings were held. This was also a troubled period for Ireland and was a serious set-back to progress, as so many ringers joined the Services and left bands depleted. The Civil War in Ireland and its consequences prevented the Association from meeting between 1920 and 1925.

Owing to the interest in ringing in the newly-formed State of Northern Ireland, the Northern Branch was founded in 1927. It elected its own officers and carried on as an independent unit.

FIRST BROADCAST.

Progress in change ringing is reported for 1929, when six bands are mentioned as overcoming the difficulties and ringing touches in various methods. This year the first change-ringing broadcast in Ireland was made at St. Columb's Cathedral, Londonderry, prior to the dedication ceremony of the new ring of ten bells there.

Another trophy was introduced in 1933. Mr. R. S. F. Murphy, P.C., offered a silver cup for competition between the various towers before the annual meeting each year, the team whose striking showed the least number of faults to be declared the winners. Also in 1933, a fund known as the 'Bell Restoration Fund' was established as a result of a stop-watch competition, which realised £72.

After many years of effort, Gabriel Lindoff was elected president in 1934, and at the same time acted as secretary in order to maintain his continuity in that office. This was a most popular election; for three other nominees withdrew their names when Gay's name was proposed, thus leaving him unopposed.

In 1937, the first broadcast of change ringing from the Irish Free State took place on St. Patrick's Day, when Stedman Triples was relayed by Radio Eireann and by many stations throughout the world. St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, took the honours.

The ban on ringing during the recent war put a stop to ringing activities in Northern Ireland, while their brothers and sisters in Eire were enjoying the use of their bells but most of the teams suffered as a result of their members volunteering to join the British and Eire Defence Forces or leaving the country for war work.

Gabriel Lindoff's death on November 7th, 1941, was a sad day for the Association in particular and the Exercise in general. He had been its hon. secretary since its foundation 43 years previously. A brass memorial tablet to his memory was dedicated in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, on the 76th anniversary of his birthday, November 19th, 1944.

During the recent world war, the Association met each year. Although the numbers were small, the standard of ringing and change ringing was well maintained in Eire. With the cessation of hostilities, the Northern Branch reorganised, and members of depleted bands returned in a number of cases, while new recruits were learning the art.

At present there are ten bands of the twenty-one affiliated societies practising change ringing in Plain Bob, Grandsire, Stedman and Treble Bob methods. The present membership is 285, including non-resident life members, and is the greatest number of members for any of the Association's forty-eight years.

THE FOUNDERS.

Richard R. Cherry, K.C., first president, was born at Waterford in 1859. He attached himself to the Waterford Cathedral Ringers' Guild and took part in the second peal ever rung in Ireland—Grandsire Triples in 1873 for the Ancient Society of College Youths. He went to Dublin to study law and remained out of ringing for about 20 years. He was largely responsible for reorganising ringing at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, and for the introduction of Gabriel Lindoff to Ireland. In 1913 he became Lord Chief Justice of Ireland and, although a very busy man, found time to ring at St. Patrick's on practice nights. He died in 1923.

Gabriel Lindoff was born at Leiston, Suffolk, in 1868. From Lincoln in 1896 Lindoff came to Ireland and at once introduced change ringing. In 1898 he became the first hon. secretary of the Irish Association, a position he held until his death in 1941. Gabriel Lindoff's greatest contribution to the Exercise was perhaps as a composer. His peals of London ran into five figures. He also composed new methods—Erin, Dublin Court, Rochester, Princess Marina are but a few. His health began to fail after bombs were dropped on Dublin near his home in December, 1940, and he died on November 7th, 1941.

Secretary.—Frederick E. Dukes, who was elected the first assistant secretary in 1938, has carried on the secretarial work since Gabriel Lindoff's death. He learnt to ring at St. George's Church, Dublin, and at 18 became conductor of the local band. In 1933 he was transferred to Cork, where he formed a team to ring the bells of St. Finbarre's Cathedral, which had been idle for 22 years. Returning to Dublin in 1937, he again attached himself to St. George's, and in 1944 was appointed electrical engineer to the Great Northern Railway with headquarters at Dundalk.

IRISH ASSOCIATION

Presidents.—Richard R. Cherry, K.C. (1898-1904), A. Tailyour (1904-6), Rev. G. D. Scott (1906-8 and 1912-13), R. T. F. Greene (1908-11), R. S. Blee (1913-14), W. Chamney (1914-19), Rev. Fergus Greer (1919-25), Sam Kennedy (1925-26), oldest ringer in Eire, aged 79, and still rings at St. John-the-Baptist, Dublin; C. T. Evans (1926-27), N. Robinson (1927-28), R. S. F. Murphy, P.C. (1928-29, 1937-38, 1945-6), being Association's ringing Master since the position was instituted in 1933, and is one of the Central Council representatives; Rev. W. B. Allman (1929-30), Rev. W. Carroll (1930-1), M. Hogan, P.C. (1931-32), W. H. Wilson (1932-3), R. Lynch and W. E. Lynch (1933-34), Richard died in office, G. Lindoff (1934-5), Dean of Waterford (1935-6), D. McNeice (1936-7), J. C. Cherry, M.B. (1938-9, son of the first president), T. B. Tough (1939-40), J. S. Gibb (1940-1), Dean of Waterford (1941-2), Dean of Christ Church (1942-3), Canon E. H. F. Campbell (1943-5), James Cunningham, J.P. (1946- ), who is 89 and still takes his place each Sunday in his tower at Rostrevor, Co. Down. He was one of the original members of Rostrevor when the bells were installed there 67 years ago.

A PEAL RECORD.

In all, 154 peals have been rung by members for the Association. Each peal is illuminated in the peal book. This number would not be so great but for the visits of 'expert English ringers' who toured Ireland on various occasions. To these bands go the credit for ringing the first peals in Ireland of Double Norwich, Superlative, London, Kent Treble Bob (Royal and Maximus) Stedman Cinques, Cambridge (Major, Royal and Maximus), Bristol and Yorkshire. These 'expert' ringers included Revs. F. E. Robinson and C. W. O. Jenkyn, James George, George, Ernest and William Pye, J. H. Cheesman, Ben Knights, W. Keeble, Bertram Prewett, William Fussell, G. W. Fletcher, J. H. Shepherd, J. Simpson, J. H. Riding, Frank Bennett, James Bennett, C. T. Coles, E. Duffield, Mr. and Mrs. R. Richardson, and Miss Edith Parker, who was the first lady to ring a peal in Ireland and also to conduct one—Stedman Caters at Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, on August 1st, 1927.

Peals were rung for the passing of monarchs, ringers and well-known personages, weddings and birthdays. Two notable birthdays were Mrs. Murphy, aged 94, mother of R. S. F. Murphy, and the Hon. Katherine Plunkett, aged 110, who died in her 113th year.

A roll of honour, in memory of those ringers who served in the Great War, 1914-1918, is illuminated on one page of the peal book. Forty-seven ringers served their country, of whom nine made the supreme sacrifice.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

For the quarterly meeting of the North Dorset Branch at Motcombe on March 15th, 28 members attended. The Guild service was conducted by the secretary (the Rev. W. Uphill), and the address given by the Vicar (the Rev. D. J. Jones).

Tea followed in the Memorial Hall, provided by the wives of the local ringers. At the opening of the business meeting the chairman (the Rev. F. L. Edwards) referred to the loss of Canon E. W. J. Hellins, from whose unflinching interest, counsel and generosity the branch had long benefited, and also of the Rev. C. H. Day, who was a keen ringer in his parish church at Thornford. The secretary presented the balance sheet, which showed an income of £21 7s. 3d., an expenditure £18 11s.

The following were elected ringing members: Miss P. Short, Miss I. Lintern, Mr. J. Hatcher, Mr. I. Mogg, Mr. L. Natter, all of Stalbridge. Thanks were expressed to the Rev. D. J. Jones and to the ladies who had provided the tea. Visits were made during the evening to towers at Holy Trinity and St. Peter's, Shaftesbury.

OBITUARY

MR. JACK BANCROFT.

On March 27th Mr. Jack Bancroft was buried, having attained the ripe old age of 80. His ringing activities were mostly connected with the old ring of six at Norbury. He spent a good number of years in Vancouver, Canada, where his work was in connection with the Post Office. Norbury ringers were represented at his funeral. A peal was rung last year for his 80th birthday.—J. F.

MR. THOMAS ARTHUR BOND.

After a brief illness, Mr. Thomas A. Bond, of Burford, Oxfordshire, died at his home on March 13th, aged 67. Mr. Bond was well known by ringers in many districts for his long established trade as a bell-founder, and many are the bells he has cast and rings augmented at the Burford Foundry. These include Taynton, Oxon, where a ring of four was augmented to six, Bledington, Long Crenodon, Minster Lovell and Church Knowle, Dorset.

He was for over 45 years a ringer at the local tower, and rang some thirty peals or more in the standard methods, the first of which when he was little over the age of 14. Although he did no peal ringing in latter years, he was often to be seen on the Church Green or walking round the churchyard when a peal was in progress. He leaves a widow and three daughters.

The funeral service on March 17th was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. R. F. S. Tucker, M.A., and in the evening a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled by B. J. Forest 1, F. Soden (conductor) 2, F. W. Soden 3, T. S. Stratford 4, B. S. Nichols 5, T. W. Timms 6, W. J. Dixon 7, G. R. Miles 8. A memorial peal was rung at Burford on March 21st.—B. S. N.

MRS. MAUD ALICE PYE.

Mrs. Maud Alice Pye, widow of the late Mr. William Pye, died at Porters, Castle Hedingham, Essex, on March 17th, and was buried at Alborough Hatch on March 22nd. The sympathy of fellow-ringers is extended to her son, Mr. Ernest W. Pye.

The bells of St. Peter's were rung half-muffled in 704 changes of Kent Treble Bob Major in Mrs. Pye's memory, the ringers being E. Brown 1, T. Bird 2, A. Catterwell (conductor) 3, C. J. Barker 4, S. Dace 5, R. Rippingale 6, O. E. Broyd 7, R. H. Young 8.

MR. JOHN HUGH WILKINS.

Secretary of the St. Mary's, Walthamstow, Society of Change Ringers, Mr. John Hugh Wilkins died on March 26th, aged 86. He had been connected with the belfry for a very long period, probably 70 years, having joined the ringers at an early age. He is the last of the original band which was formed in 1896.

Although not an outstanding peal ringer, his total of peals would be in the neighbourhood of 200, and were mostly Grandsire and Stedman Caters. He was seldom absent from Sunday ringing and practice nights, and was very safe and reliable. His most outstanding peal was one of Plain Bob Royal, in which he rang the ninth in his stiff white collar and a very short rope. Throughout the peal he had to stand on top-toes. However, a good peal was rung, the first of Bob Royal on tower bells for the Essex Association.

In his younger days he regularly attended the College Youth meetings. He followed his father and the late Mr. F. Rumens in the position of tower secretary, and the local society has lost a very efficient officer. Apart from bellringing he was interested in orchestral music, and for many years played a cornet in one of the local dance bands. The interment took place in the local cemetery, preceded by a service in the church which he had served so faithfully and well.—H. R.

A Yorkshire Week-end

After such a successful Lancashire ringing week-end that we had some months ago, it was decided to pay Yorkshire a visit. Headquarters were made at Ripon, which we duly reached on Friday evening, March 21st, about 9, and after a welcome meal, handbell ringing was enjoyed by all for the rest of the evening. The 'inmates' of the Spa Hotel became very curious and wondered what it was all about.

Ripon Cathedral with its beautiful ring of ten yielded a very good peal of Kent Treble Bob Royal. Back to lunch with everyone quite fresh and on to Middleham through flooded roads for the afternoon peal attempt. On arriving at Middleham floods and snow were still in great evidence and a small river was running through the churchyard. A peal of Cambridge was rung, the latter part of which was spoiled owing to water getting into one of the bearings; nevertheless, a beautiful ring of bells, and the unanimous vote of the company was that a return should be made in the summer to this beautiful spot. Back to Ripon, dinner, and more handbells, Double Norwich, Plain Bob, Kent, Stedman and Cambridge being rung.

Sunday morning, 9.30, Ripon Cathedral for two good touches of Stedman Caters and Grandsire Caters to the obvious delight of several of the local company. So much appreciated was our handbell ringing the previous evening that visitors from the hotel came to see the bells rung for service. On to Halifax and a peal attempt of Superlative in the afternoon, which unfortunately failed past the half-way mark. The ring was concluded by ringing service touches of Stedman with some exceedingly good striking.

Our thanks are due to our two conductors, Mr. Leslie W. G. Morris and Mr. John Worth, to the local ringers who made the trip so pleasant, especially Messrs. Tingle and Hudson, of Ripon, and the Rev. J. G. Hardwick, of Middleham. F. DUNKERLEY.

ALLESLEY BELLS

NOW A RING OF EIGHT.

Ringers from far and near gathered at Allesley, Warwickshire, on March 22nd, for the dedication of the two new trebles to complete a ring of eight at the Parish Church of All Saints.

The Bishop of Coventry performed the dedication, and the service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. Frank W. Moyle). An interesting feature of the service was the local ringers forming part of the procession, which led to the west end of the church, where the two bell ropes were handed to the local Ringing Master by the Bishop with the words—

'Receive the bells that we have here set apart, in memory of His servants in the greater life beyond our present sight, as a sacred trust committed unto you, and we bid you take heed that they be ever and only used in God's service and to His glory.'

The new treble was given by Miss E. M. Lancaster and her sister, Mrs. Wilcox, in memory of their mother, who gave the tenor in 1901, and the new second was given by the Rector and Mrs. Moyle and her brother, Mr. Geoffrey Faer, in memory of their respective mothers. They are an excellent splice with the old six, which have been rehung on ball bearings by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., and as a light ring of eight with a tenor 12 cwt. in G is a valuable addition to the rings of eight in the diocese.

After tea in the Parish Room, the Rector welcomed the visitors, who afterwards returned to the church and rang in various methods until about 7.30 p.m.

Ringers were present from Bedworth, Birmingham, Bulkington, Barrow-on-Soar, Ryfield, Chilvers Coton, Kereslev, London, Loughborough, Melton Mowbray, Meriden, Nuneaton, Rugby, Stoke (Coventry), Worcester and Wednesbury.

FURTHER ADVANCE IN COMPOSITION.

Dear Sir,—Following are the figures of my latest composition of London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative. In addition to all the bells having all the work of the four methods, there is actually a quarter-peal in each method for the first time.—Yours faithfully,

A. J. PITMAN.

SCOUTS AS RINGERS

Dear Sir,—We recently rang a peal of Boh Major on our new ring of bells at Guiseley and had three Boy Scouts in the team, two of them ringing their first peal, the other his second. These Scouts rang splendidly throughout the peal, being both accurate and with good striking.

After the ban on ringing during the war had been lifted, we had only three regular ringers left so we decided to build up a team from boys whose ages ranged from 11 to 14 years. Four of these were Scouts and they have made excellent ringers, and, what is more, realise their ringing is a church service, for after their attendance in the belfry go into church, thereby consecrating their efforts.

Scouts are sagacious and trained in the very things which go to make a first-class ringer, namely, observation, the intelligent use of their five senses, pertinacity and a strong sense of both reliability and responsibility is inculcated in them.

Here is a fine field for ringing recruits, and I suggest where towers are depleted in numbers or new ringers are desired with an eye for the future, the Scout should be given serious consideration.—Yours truly,

A. C. WALSH.

Guiseley, near Leeds.

SUPERLATIVE AT ASHTON-U-LYNE

Dear Sir,—The claim for the first peal of Superlative Surprise for the Chester Guild, stated in your issue of March 28th by the band as rung at Ashton-under-Lyne, is many years out of date.

I myself took part in one rung in the adjoining town of Hyde on April 11th, 1926, conducted by Mr. E. Jenkins, and even that was not claimed as the first by the Guild but as the first in the tower.

A. BARNES.

Stockport, Cheshire.

Canadian Visitor's Peal

Dear Sir,—Would you be so kind as to publish a complete apology from me to Mr. Alfred H Pulling for inadvertently mentioning his name in the ringing at Old Windsor on January 20th, 1912, which was so kindly arranged in honour of my visit through Mr. Macdonald, who was with us in Vancouver some six months and now, I understand, is with Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

May I explain to the best of my knowledge just what did happen whilst ringing. About half-way some bells clashed and ropes seemed to ascend and descend together. I, ringing the treble, was confused but not willing to give up as the conductor was getting the muddle straightened out. I kept on ringing. The bells seemed to be going O.K. again except my own, and I found I was at the wrong stroke. It was Mr. Macdonald himself shouted to me to set my bell for one stroke, and after doing so ringing settled down to its original compass. I am pretty certain Mr. Macdonald would remember this fact.

To my mind a peal of 5,040 is not a true peal unless all changes are rung. The mere fact of my setting my bell one stroke, to me at least, robs me of claiming a peal; in fact, if I should so happen to enter the church at Old Windsor and see a peal board commemorating that event I would not feel as though it was deserved. Would someone having a 'Ringing World' of January 20th, 1912, send me a copy of those who rang?—I am, yours truly,

A. C. LIMPUS.

208, Union Street,
Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

THE ST. MARGARET'S RECORD

Dear Sir,—I have in my possession a copy of the record of Stedman and Grandsire Caters rung by the St. Margaret's band. In my opinion the statements made by Mr. A. R. Burgess are wholly unjustified.

The actual recording is a bad one, made many years ago. The microphone must have been very badly placed, or else it is a pre-electrical recording. The actual striking of the bells is not in the least as Mr. Burgess would have us think. He should remember that bells, as organ music, do not record well. To the layman unacquainted with the intricacies of change ringing, I very much doubt that he would notice anything wrong with the recording at all.

I might add that this record is now unobtainable, and the only other record of bells issued is of the Victory peals rung at Westminster Abbey, York Minster, Coventry Cathedral, Bath Abbey and St. Mary's, Puddletown. This shows up the various qualities of bells excellently, but is spoiled, to my mind, by having a commentary.—Yours faithfully,

RALPH F. BOOTMAN.

St. Andrew's, Enfield.

FOUNDRY QUERIES

Dear Sir,—Could any of your readers please inform me whether the bell foundry at Ipswich under Messrs. Powell and the foundry at Burford under Messrs. Bond are still actively engaged in bell casting? I want the information for some notes that I am compiling on past and present bell founders.—Yours faithfully, (Rev.) F. C. CHAMPION.

The Rectory, Hinton-on-the-Green, Evesham.

THANK YOU, AUSTRALIA

Dear Sir,—Being of full age, I received a food parcel from Australia. It was nice food and my family and I enjoyed it very much.

There must be several old ringers who also received parcels, and they, like myself, I am sure would like to thank Australia for their kindness.—Yours faithfully,

ROBERT EDWARDS.

PRESENTATION TO MR. A. MAGGS.

An eight-day striking clock, suitably inscribed, was presented to Mr. Alfred Maggs at the quarterly meeting of Bristol Rural Branch at St. Ambrose's, Bristol, on March 29th, in recognition of his 16½ years' faithful service and leadership of St. Ambrose's Guild. Mr. Maggs has resigned in consequence of leaving Bristol to reside at Coal Pit Heath.

Speeches made indicated that it was entirely due to Mr. Maggs' encouragement and genial personality that the Guild is at present in such a healthy state. Mrs. Lee (wife of the Vicar) made the presentation, and Mrs. Skidmore handed Mr. Maggs an illuminated album as a remembrance of St. Ambrose's Guild. References to his work were made by the Vicar, Mr. F. Bromwich (churchwarden), Mr. A. E. Clarke (organist) and Mr. C. Harding (branch chairman).

Business transacted included the selection of Almondsbury for the April meeting and Dyrham for the May meeting. Thanks were accorded the Rev. F. S. Lee for conducting the choral service and to the ladies of St. Ambrose's Guild and friends for providing tea. About 40 members were present, and the ringing before and after the meeting was much enjoyed.

SUFFOLK GUILD

The ancient and beautiful Kedington Church was visited by the Guild on March 22nd. Mr. Howyer acted as guide, and an inventory of the church and relics of the 12th century were explained to those present. Towers represented were Sudbury, Cherington, Whepstead, Cowlinge, Pebmarsh, Stoke, Clare, Bury St. Edmunds and Kedington.

Business transacted was the election of 12 new members and the selection of Poslingford for the meeting. Methods rung ranged from Doubles to Cambridge.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

A combined practice was held at Carbis Bay on March 22nd, when about 25 ringers attended. Those present included Miss Eileen Symonds (diocesan president), Mr. W. H. Southard (Ringing Master) and Mr. C. E. Lanxon (secretary, Truro Branch).

Good practice was put in during the afternoon and evening at Grandsire and Stedman Doubles and Triples and Bob Minor. Two good touches of Stedman Triples, conducted by Mr. Harry Miles, were evidence of progress, and it was a healthy sign to find an increasing number of ringers from various towers who are enthusiastic about method ringing.

Cups of tea were provided at the Parsonage by Mrs. A. S. Roberts. The next practice is to be at Camborne on Saturday, April 19th.

YOUR PAPERS

Most peal ringers and, in particular, conductors keep records. Some are systematic affairs, with peals tabulated and indexed with professional efficiency; with others they consist of exercise books pasted up with ringing data or perhaps a card index file. Such records are to a degree personal secrets; to the individual concerned they are an unfailing source of joy and memories of past achievement, and they constitute a life record. In addition, most conductors have their scrap book of peals and touches, cherished possessions which are constantly being added to, invaluable to the Exercise at large. With the limitations on printing to-day, these must of necessity be mainly in manuscript form or of cuttings.

Recently we have had one or two private letters from well-known leaders in their associations who, while compiling Guild histories and biographies, have regretted that in the case of certain ringers who have passed over their papers relating to ringing have been treated as salvage and destroyed. Their executors had regarded these manuscripts and records as of no intrinsic value, and they had been consigned to the waste-paper basket. One naturally can understand the point of view of the tidy housewife when confronted with an accumulation of papers (one noted ringer left a garage full of documents, some of which were valuable, but they required hours of time spent in sorting.) Too frequently when death occurs premises have to be vacated at an early date, and it is when confronted with a time limit that the uninitiated unceremoniously hands over the mass of papers to the salvage collector.

The point we are asked to emphasise is that all ringers should leave instructions as to the disposal of their papers. So many noted personalities regard their records of little value to ringing in general—probably a characteristic of a modest make-up—that they take no thought as to the eventual disposal of their papers. What every noted ringer really requires is a ringing executor who will sift and sort the papers and make sure that nothing of value to the Guild or Association is destroyed.

In ventilating this subject we trust that ringers, both individually and collectively, will consider the creation of the appropriate machinery for dealing with such masses of documentary data. Each Guild or Association should have a ringing executor to whom relatives of a deceased ringer could send such papers. We note that the Irish Association have this week appointed a librarian to deal not only with the establishment of a library for the Association, but also the manuscripts left behind by that famous ringer and composer, Gabriel Lindoff. There are in most Guilds retired ringers with the necessary knowledge and aptitude for this work, and we feel certain, if general instructions and guidance could be issued from the Central Council, those inexperienced in this work would know what to look for and retain.

Quarterly subscribers are reminded that remittances should be sent without delay to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

Handbell ringers throughout the Exercise are rapt in admiration of Mr. Harold J. Poole's band in accomplishing the astonishing performance of a peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal 'in hand,' as reported in our last issue. Another milestone in human achievement as regards bellringing has been passed.

'Norwich Diocesan Leaflet' for April states: 'Cromer P.C.C. has gratefully accepted the Rev. A. Buxton's offer to pay for the rehanging of the bells and the addition of two more.'

A faculty has been applied for to retune the six bells and add two trebles at Towednack, Cornwall. This is a neighbouring parish to Carbis Bay, where a new eight was recently installed.

With the peal of Pudsey rung at Leicester Cathedral on Easter Monday, Ernest Morris has now rung peals of Major, Royal and Maximus in this method.

Hundredth peal congratulations this week to Reginald A. Reed and William J. Chester. Frederick Page has rung his 100th on handbells, and Edward V. Rodenhurst and Arthur Pritchard their 100th together.

A fathers and sons peal was rung at Kildwick, Yorkshire, on April 5th. The fathers rang 2, 3, 4 and 5, and the sons 1, 6, 7 and 8.

The many friends of Mr. T. W. Chapman, who for close on 60 years was a regular Sunday service ringer at Nuneaton Parish Church, will be very sorry to hear that he had a slight seizure recently and that it has affected his speech. He is now living at 338, Ombersley, Worcs.

Corrections.—Two typographical errors are regretted. The size of the tenor in the peal of Stedman Cinques at Weyside, Leicester, on March 22nd, was 17 in A; the peal of Little Bob Major at Hethersett on March 21st was 5,088 changes.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Bats in the belfry is a common expression. Experience of the same took place during a peal at Abbey Church, Minster, Sheppey. A bat came into the tower and dodged in and out of the ropes. The peal was a fine juvenile effort. Congratulations!

St. Thomas' (Salisbury) Appeal has now reached £741, writes Mr. William A. Theobald.

The sequence from quarter to peal has been achieved at Chester-le-Street. Congratulations to Conductor S. C. Walker on calling his first peal on Easter Monday and so keeping this northern association in the news.

'Bim, Bam, Boom, Bong and Beng' cartoon is going the rounds. Mr. Fred E. Dukes acknowledges the receipt of same from an unnamed Leeds admirer. As he is partly bald, the majority of his tower regard him as 'Boom.'

'Bellringing gets you. Try once; they are such lovely bells you'll keep on.' This is the appeal of the Rev. B. J. M. Thackeray, Vicar of Thatcham, Berks, to the youth of his village. Except for Easter, the bells have hung mute since last year. We will keep an eye on our quarter-peal column for Thatcham, Berks.

Standon, Herts, has now had its first quarter by a local band. Behind this achievement is the untiring work of Messrs. Walter and Sidney Smith. The 1,260 Grandsire Doubles on Easter Day was rung by J. Day 1, J. Smith 2, R. Stacey 3, H. Groom (conductor) 4, S. Smith 5, J. Burr 6. A first quarter for 1, 2, 5 and 6.

'Like Johnny Walker, young John Perkins (81), of Hemingford Abbots, Hunts, is still going strong,' writes a correspondent. This Eastertide he stroked the tenor to 1,260 Bob Minor. Other ringers were H. W. Pratt 1, F. Warrington (conductor) 2, F. Nicholls 3, G. L. Perkins 4, H. Lavender 5. John is a T.T. and non-smoker.

EASTER MONDAY ANNUAL MEETINGS

Bath and Wells Association

MEMBERSHIP OF 1,200.

The Bath and Wells Association has now 158 affiliated towers with a membership of 1,200. This gratifying statement was made by Mr. J. T. Dyke (hon. secretary) at the annual meeting of the Association at Bath on Easter Monday.

In the regretted absence of the Master through illness, the Rev. Beaumont Russell (chairman of the Bath Branch) presided. The meeting remembered in silence those of the Association who had died since the last meeting, in particular John Hesse, James Burge, William Hoyle and Preb. Knapp-Fisher.

The secretary in his report stated that the Association possessed in Government securities £171, the current account stood at £158 8s. 4d. and there was about £10 still to come in from the Frome Branch. There was also a small credit with 'The Ringing World.' He also gave a resumé of the committee meeting that morning and announced that Mr. W. A. Osborn, the Diocesan Adviser on Belfries, appointed by the Association, had been co-opted on to the committee. The Association had also benefited by a gift of £10 from a life member.

A grant of 10 gns. to the Bell Fund was approved, and it was decided to include the years 1946 and 1947 in the next report. A sub-committee was formed to take preliminary steps towards erecting a tablet in memory of those members who lost their lives while in the Services. Subject to the necessary permission, the meeting sanctioned the expenditure of £50 for this object.

Mr. H. J. Sanger gave a well-balanced account of the Central Council proceedings at Norwich, and he was congratulated upon it by the Rev. F. Llewellyn Edwards, the secretary of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild.

Mr. W. A. Osborn then told of his work during the year among the towers, at no fewer than ten of which he had given advice, which was either carried out or was to be acted upon.

Visitors from the Gloucester and Bristol, Salisbury and Universities' Associations were welcomed by the Chairman, who also proposed an omnibus vote of thanks to those who had earned them. Mr. H. H. Tucker was elected as a life honorary member.

The Association's service was held at St. Michael's Church, where the Rev. G. W. J. Catchpole (Rector) officiated and gave an appropriate address. Lunch was served at the Christopher Hotel, but it was regretted that accommodation could not be found for all those who applied.

Much ringing, most of which was of a good standard, was done, and the help of Mr. S. S. Woodburn, secretary and Ringing Master of the Bath Branch, was much appreciated.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

After a long discussion, the Bedfordshire Association decided at their annual meeting at Bedford on Easter Monday to send a resolution to the Hertfordshire Association informing them that the Bedfordshire Association are in favour of the formation of a St. Albans Diocesan Guild with the two Archdeaconry Branches of Bedford and Hertford.

Miss Evelyn Steel, the president, was in the chair, the meeting following a meat tea served at the Lion Hotel. She was re-elected, as were the vice-presidents. Mr. F. J. Plummer, the secretary, has now an assistant in Mr. H. D. Harris. Mr. Sharman proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Harris for the preparation of the history of the Association as printed in 'The Ringing World,' which would be added to this year's annual report.

A proposal to increase the subscription of life members to 5s. was carried and Rule 7 amended accordingly. Four new members were elected, and the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman and to the clergy for the use of the bells.

Norwich Diocesan Association

INCREASED SUBSCRIPTION APPROVED.

About 100 members attended the annual meeting of the Association at Norwich on Easter Monday. During the day the bells of St. Peter's, Mancroft, St. Giles', St. Miles' and St. John-de-Sepulchre were rung to a variety of methods. At the service, held at Mancroft, the Vicar (the Rev. J. A. H. Waddington) preached the sermon and also dedicated a new peal board, recording 5,000 Bob Royal rung on November 11th, 1944, commemorating Archbishop William Temple; 5,040 Grandire Triples, rung on January 20th, 1945, in memory of Canon Meyrick, formerly Vicar of Mancroft; and 5,280 Double Norwich, rung on June 5th, 1945, commemorating victory in Europe.

The annual lunch was at the Bedford Cafe, and was followed by the business meeting. At this the rule to increase the annual subscription to 2s. 6d. was approved.

The election of officers was as follows: President, the Rev. A. St. J. Heard; general secretary and treasurer, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow; Ringing Master, Mr. Nolan Golden; auditor, Mr. G. P. Burton. The vice-presidents were re-elected en bloc. The Standing Committee branch representatives were approved as follows: North Norfolk, Mr. Russell Curson and the Rev. G. W. Wilson; East Norfolk, Messrs. G. Fletcher and G. Walpole; South Norfolk, Messrs. E. G. Bennett and F. W. Munnings; West Norfolk, Messrs. L. Houghton and Cecil Ebberson.

It was noted that Mr. Lee, chairman of the East Norfolk Branch, had retired, being replaced by Mr. H. J. Eldred. The meeting unanimously decided to arrange to give Mr. Lee a testimonial in token of the Association's gratitude and affection for the work he has done over a long period. Donations are to be limited to 1s. each; it is hoped that each tower will collect from its members, and will send its gift to its branch secretary. The closing date for gifts is May 31st. The accounts, which show a satisfactory balance, were adopted.

New members elected were: Ernest Ames and Harry Reynolds, Lowestoft; the Rev. J. Idris Jones, Dr. Mary Wright and Mrs. K. Brown, Reedham; Nancy Hall, Mulbarton; and the belfry election of G. Sparks, Norwich, was ratified.

Votes of thanks were passed to the incumbents for the use of the bells, the Vicar of Mancroft for his sermon, and the organist for playing. It was a great pleasure during the day to welcome the Lincoln ringers on their annual outing.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH

About 50 members, including visitors from Swansea and Kilburn, attended the annual meeting at Penarth on Easter Monday.

The bells were raised at 2 p.m. and kept going in various methods until the service, at which the Rev. Dennis R. Brown officiated. Tea, kindly provided by Mr. Vivian Rogers, a churchwarden, was served at the Welsh Cafe.

The Rev. D. R. Brown presided at the business meeting and extended a hearty welcome to the Association to Penarth. The balance sheet showed that the Association was in a sound financial position with a balance of £70 10s.

Mr. Percy Jones, of Caerphilly, was elected Master for the ensuing year. The secretary (Mr. F. J. Hannington) was asked to carry on for another year, and Mr. W. Prosser and Mr. R. Addis were elected as auditors. The meeting learned with regret of the illness of Mr. W. J. Powell, of Llanfrehfa, also of Mrs. Perry, wife of Mr. C. W. Perry, of Bridgend.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Newport (All Saints'). A collection for the newly inaugurated Bell Fund realised £1 14s. 3d.

Kent County Association

OVER 300 AT ANNUAL MEETING.

Members and friends from all parts of the county and including some ringer visitors from other associations much enjoyed their visit to Canterbury on the occasion of the 67th annual meeting of the Kent County Association on Easter Monday.

The bells of the Cathedral were rung for two hours during the day and those of the city churches of St. Alphege's, St. Dunstan's and the outlying churches of Ash, Wingham, Chilham, Sturry and Wickhambreau were visited by parties of ringers.

Service in the Cathedral, specially arranged for the ringers, was at 12 noon. This was conducted by the Precentor, the lesson being read by the Archdeacon of Canterbury, and the address was given by the Dean (Dr. Hewlett Johnson). Following the service the ringers and friends, numbering just over 300, adjourned to the Drill Hall for an excellent luncheon in an atmosphere punctuated with that pleasing hum of chatter so reminiscent of the pre-war gatherings.

Mr. F. White, of Tunbridge Wells, presided and he was supported by Mr. G. H. Spice, of Sittingbourne (hon. secretary), Mr. Fred Mitchell, of Gravesend (hon. treasurer), and Mr. G. H. Cross, of Barnhurst (hon. auditor). Among the guests were the Bishop of Dover, the Dean, the Archdeacons of Canterbury and Maidstone, the Rev. J. W. Poole, the Rev. A. R. Barnes, the Rev. R. H. I. Williams, Mr. A. B. Beresford-Jones, a life member and president of the Cathedral ringers and the Association's sole surviving foundation member, Mr. E. S. Ruck, of Willesborough, who, accompanied by Mrs. Ruck, received the congratulations and best wishes of those present.

The business meeting, with Mr. F. White presiding, followed lunch. In his report the general secretary covered all matters of interest which had occurred during the past year, including a detailed record of peals, etc. This report showed that the Association was now well in its stride towards complete recovery after the war period, and if the same rate of progress continued during the present year there was no doubt that Kent ringing pre-war standards would be regained and surpassed. During the past year 155 new adult practising members and 25 juveniles had joined the Association as well as 22 non-resident life members and 28 new honorary members.

The treasurer presented the financial report, which showed a very healthy state of affairs and left no doubt in the minds of members that the Association was still going strong financially. During the meeting a donation of £25 from the Belfry Repairs Fund was unanimously voted to the Canterbury Cathedral Appeal Fund.

The various officers were all re-elected and were thanked for their work during the past year. At the close of the meeting thanks were accorded to Mr. B. Luck (the Canterbury district secretary) and his helpers for their good work.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Ely Diocesan Association was held at Wisbech on Easter Monday, when members and visitors from Walsoken, Tilney (All Saints'), Grantham, Ely, Cambridge, Shouldham, Sawton, Downham Market, Marham, Terrington St. John, Peterborough, Raunds, Stanwick, Leicester and Great Staughton were present.

Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. P. Pelloe), who afterwards presided at the business meeting. Owing to the fuel crisis it had been found impossible to print the annual report in time for the meeting, but this should be available shortly. Both the general secretary (Mr. W. W. Cousins) and the auditor (Mr. T. R. Dennis) were re-elected, and the committee were re-elected en bloc.

Next year the annual general meeting will be held at St. Neots (Hunts).

Bob Royal Record

PRITTLEWELL'S SUCCESS.

In ringing a peal of 9,000 changes of Plain Bob Royal at Prittlewell, Essex, on Easter Monday, a new longest length record has been established. The last longest length of Bob Royal, 8,100, was rung at Leeds, Kent, on Nov. 30th, 1751, in 5 hours and 26 minutes.

The band arrived punctually before 2 p.m., and after attending to the ropes and ringing a few rounds, started the peal at 2.5 p.m. The bells settled in well and a good fast beat was maintained until the peal was completed at 7.40 p.m. The ringing was good throughout and there were no serious trips. An occasional corrective word was spoken by the conductor, Frank B. Lufkin, or James Bullock, otherwise there was nothing spoken and the ringing was enjoyed by all.

The company blended youth with experience. The youngest, Leonard Bullock, is the 17-year-old son of Jim Bullock, who turned in the tenor. Jim is a College Youth and St. Paul's Cathedral ringer and lives at Dagenham.

Horace J. Mansfield hails from Maldon, Essex, and Eric Dench is the Middlesex ringer from Edmonton. Squire Croft, of Richmond, was included in the band during the last few days, deputising for a member who dropped out.

Frank V. Gant is from Hornchurch, the conductor and Fred Souter are local men, Peter Bond is from Chichester and rang his first peal on tenor. Frank Knight, from St. Martin's, London, participated in the record peal of Stedman Cinques.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION MEETING AT SHIFNAL.

Shifnal is of particular interest to Midland ringers as the home of Samuel Lawrence, a great ringer of bygone days whose peal book has a place in Shrewsbury Museum and is a truly great record of days when travel in this part of the country was very difficult.

Thirty-six members, representing a dozen different towers, gathered together at Shifnal on March 22nd for some most enjoyable ringing, which included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Little Bob Major, Double Norwich, Cambridge and Superlative.

The Vicar (Rev. John W. M. Finny) welcomed the association and conducted the service, during which special remembrance was made of Canon G. M. Bell, Rector of Worthen, a very old friend of the association and hon. member, whose death had occurred during the previous week.

Bring sandwiches was the order for tea which, with nicely arranged tables and cups of tea, made and served by friends in the Church Hall, was quite enjoyable. There was some handbell ringing, and several enthusiasts continued this in the train on the way home!

The next meeting will be on May 3rd, when two six-bell towers, Montford and Bicton, will be visited.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION BIGGLESWADE DISTRICT.

When the Biggleswade District met at Clifton on March 29th, a collection, which amounted to £2, was made for the Lord Mayor's Flood Distress Fund. Mr. C. H. Harding presided over the business meeting, attended by 40 members, and the sum of five guineas was voted to the Stoddard Bell Restoration Fund. Four new members were elected and Maulden chosen for the next meeting. Thanks were accorded the Rector for the use of the bells.

Some good touches were rung, including Cambridge Surprise, York Surprise, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob and Plain Bob. Bob Doubles and Grandsire Doubles were also rung for learners. The bells were rung down about 8.30 p.m., which brought a pleasant meeting to a close.

LETTERS

MORE FOUR FIGURE MEMBERS.

Dear Sir,—My old friend Pat Cannon seems to misunderstand the letter from Mr. Eric Nobles. Mr. Nobles asks how his record for the year 1946 compares with that of other ringers for the same year. I consider it would be hard to beat for 1946, both as regards the number of new towers rung in and Sunday service ringing. Congratulations, Mr. Nobles, on a very fine achievement!

Several names can be added to the five mentioned by Mr. Cannon. Mr. Alfred W. Brighton was the first ever to accomplish four figures in the number of towers. He gave up round the 1,700 mark. The lead was then taken by Mr. J. H. Shepherd, who has, of course, held it ever since. This information was given to me by Mr. J. S. Goldsmith at Bristol in January, 1938.

I believe Mr. John Thomas during his career as a bellhanger has run well into four figures. This number includes every ringable ring of bells in Somerset. Although he is of a modest, retiring nature, perhaps he would like to confirm this! The late Mr. Francis E. Dawe claimed to have rung in 1,100 towers, but it was always doubtful if he could produce a written record to substantiate this!

On looking at my own record I find the following: 1937, 164 new towers, 10 'old' towers; 1938, 201 new towers, 32 'old' towers; giving an average of 'new' towers for the two years of one every other day! I rang in my 1,000th tower, Southwell Cathedral, Notts, on March 12th, 1939, at the age of 31 years 7½ months. I should be interested to know if 1,000 has been accomplished at an earlier age than this.

My total is now 1,165. I have rung in all English counties excepting six, also four counties in Wales. Owing to pressure of work and family responsibilities, which are my first consideration, I only get an occasional chance of ringing in a new tower these days. Tower snatching, although laughed at by some ringers, has its values. Besides giving its devotees the opportunities of ringing under all sorts of conditions, it creates friendships of life-long duration. My best wishes to all who have an interest in this side of ringing.

WILLIAM A. STOTE.

Coundon, Coventry.

27 DIFFERENT ASSOCIATIONS

Dear Sir,—Within the last twelve months I was privileged to attempt peals in 25 different counties and for 27 different associations, and was successful in 22 of the former and 23 of the latter.

I neither claim any particular virtue nor attach special importance to having done so, since it was entirely due to favourable circumstances and, above all, the courtesy of ringers in general, but purely as a matter of idle curiosity. I would be interested to know whether it may be a record so far as this particular form of 'tower snatching' is concerned.

—Yours, etc.,

Leeds.

R. H. DOVE.

PHOTOGRAPHS WANTED

Dear Sir,—May I, through the medium of 'The Ringing World,' appeal to all ringers who have unwanted copies of photographs of bells, whether in the frame or not, to send them to me? I am trying to get as many photographs of bells as possible, and owing to the complete lack of books containing suitable illustrations I would appeal to other ringers to help me.—Yours faithfully,

RALPH F. BOOTMAN
(St. Andrew's, Enfield).

18, Palace Gardens, Enfield, Middlesex.

Congratulations!

Sir,—Hearty congratulations to Mr. Harold J. Poole and his band on their peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal 'in hand.' This must rank as a very notable achievement indeed.

C. W. WOOLLEY.

NOTE.—Other letters expressing similar sentiments have been received.—Editor.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY ANNUAL NOMINATION MEETING.

The Society's March meeting was transferred from Bramley to Armley and held on the usual Saturday.

When the bells were rung up some of the notes appeared very distant; investigation revealed that clapper lashings had not been removed! The ropes were seriously affected by the weather and were somewhat difficult to handle; consequently striking was not of the best. For tea visitors were accommodated in the homes of the local ringers.

At the business meeting, held in the tower, Mr. J. McGlenn, presided, and thanks were passed to the Vicar, churchwardens and local company. The Vicar's warden (Mr. Horace Buckle) replied. The general meeting will be held at Leeds Parish Church on April 26th.

Nominations for offices were received as follows: President, Mr. John McGlenn; vice-presidents, Messrs. S. Barron, F. Hutchinson and T. W. Strangeway; Ringing Master, Mr. W. Dixon; secretary and treasurer, Mr. H. Lofthouse; auditors, Messrs. F. Hutchinson and S. Helliwell.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD WIRRAL BRANCH.

The monthly meeting, held at St. Andrew's, Bebington, was well attended, 42 members (representing eight towers) and nine friends being present. Short touches were rung in the following methods: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob Major, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Major, Cambridge, Superlative and London Surprise Major.

The service was conducted by the Rector (Canon A. G. Bernard). The company was entertained to tea in the Church School.

At the business meeting a sub-committee was appointed to discuss the question of the encouragement and teaching of young ringers. The hon. secretary was also empowered to arrange transport for the June meeting. The votes of thanks included a special one to the ladies for providing and serving the excellent tea.

A.J.M.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

In spite of the inclement weather, the annual meeting of the Surrey Association, held at Reigate on March 29th, was attended by 59 members. Ringing at the Parish Church in the afternoon and evening comprised Cambridge Royal, Bristol, the standard methods and rounds.

After the service the company adjourned to the Parish Hall for tea. The business meeting which followed was presided over by Mr. Dan Cooper, the Master.

Mr. H. J. Skelt was elected a vice-president in addition to the Bishop of Croydon and Mr. John Crawford. Messrs. C. de Ste. C. Parks and E. G. Talbot were elected secretary and assistant secretary respectively.

A report covering the period from the issue of the last report until the end of 1946 is to be issued.

The committee's report revealed a very satisfactory state of affairs and enumerated the 22 peals rung for the Association during the year. These ranged from Doubles to Maximus. It is hoped to hold the next annual general meeting at Southwark.

Weddings

MR. P. A. CORBY—MISS L. M. HUBBERT.
The marriage took place quietly at All Saints', Edmonton, on April 10th, of Mr. P. A. Corby and Miss L. M. Hubbert. The bride, given away by Mr. T. J. Lock, has made rapid progress in ringing during the last year or two under the guidance of Mr. John Thomas, while the bridegroom, who has taken part in many noteworthy performances in various parts of the country during the last decade, is prominent as a very able conductor.

The bells of All Saints' were rung after the service, and at least six peals were attempted in honour of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Corby will shortly take up residence in Forest Hill, S.E.

CAPT. R. N. W. LYDEKKER—MISS M. J. M. LYDEKKER.

Capt. Richard Neville Wolfe Lydekker, of Tunbridge Wells, and Miss Margaret Julie Mary Lydekker, only daughter of the Rev. L. E. Lydekker, Vicar of Linslade, and granddaughter of the late Rev. F. E. Robinson, of Drayton, Berks, were married at Linslade, Bucks, on March 25th.

The Bishop of Oxford performed the ceremony, assisted by Canon Robinson, uncle of the bride. The bells of St. Barnabas' Church were rung after the wedding in touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Double Norwich by Miss E. Steel, Mrs. J. Newman, F. Dedman, G. Heley, W. Insley, W. Jeffs, J. Newman, F. Plumer, H. Whitney, F. Vickers and J. Vickers. F.D.

LADIES' GUILD

AT ANSTEY AMID THE SNOW.

Through the snow came 40 members for the joint meeting of the Ladies' Guild and the Leicester District of the Leicester Diocesan Guild at Anstey on March 15th.

Ringings included Bristol and Cambridge Surprise Major, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob and Kent Treble Bob Major.

A delightful tea in the Church Room was followed by the respective meetings. The Leicester District fixed their next meeting at South Wigston on April 12th, and the Ladies' at Daybrook (Notts) on May 17th. The gathering dispersed after more ringing at the church to make their way homeward through the snow.

DERBY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

The first monthly meeting of the Ilkeston District, held at Sandiacore on March 29th, brought together a good attendance of members and visitors, including the general treasurer (Mr. W. Steen).

Ringings on the tower bells was followed by service in church, at which the Vicar officiated. About thirty sat down to an excellent tea, kindly arranged under the direction of Mr. P. L. Parrott.

Mr. James F. George presided at the business meeting, and in his opening remarks expressed his gratification at the good attendance and stressed the importance of individual effort in a determination to make the new Ilkeston District a success. He called attention to the hard work ahead, and hoped that all would readily respond by loyally supporting the new venture. The district was extremely fortunate in having the services of Mr. E. C. Gobey as Ringing Master, with his son, Mr. E. F. Gobey, as assistant.

It is hoped to hold monthly meetings at all the towers allotted to the district during the next twelve months, the next meeting being arranged to take place at Heanor on May 10th. Votes of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the local band for making arrangements, terminated the meeting. Tune and change ringing on handbells and on the tower bells occupied the remainder of the evening, the methods ranging from Plain Bob to London Surprise.

Irish Association

OPPOSITION TO 'SYNTHETIC' BELLS.

A timely warning against the use of 'synthetic' bells was contained in the report of the Irish Association presented at the annual meeting at St. Thomas', Belfast, on Easter Monday, when 100 ringers were present.

Mr. R. Adamson (Belfast) presided in the absence of Mr. J. B. Cunningham (president). The attendance shield was presented to Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, and St. Mary's Cathedral, Limerick, each scoring 98.92 per cent.

The report stated that the bells of Mount St. Alphonsus, Limerick, Bray, Drogheda, Coleraine, Ballylesson and Hillsborough were in need of attention. Overhauls in some cases were either in hand or pending. Rumour was that there might be one or two more ringing peals up North.

'We hope they will bear fruit with real ringing bells of which ringers and churchpeople may be justly proud, and not with sounds of heavy peals coming from "ridiculously" small belfries by means of gramophone records and amplifying apparatus. We urge the clergy and churchpeople when considering bell installations that where the tower is suitable to make every effort to raise the necessary funds for the real thing, which will outlast for centuries any form of "synthetic" bells.'

The number of affiliated societies is 19 and the membership is: Life 3, honorary 8, ringing 278. N.R.L.M. 56.

A proposal to reorganise the Association by the setting up of three districts, which will each manage their own affairs, similar to other affiliated associations, was passed. All districts would meet together annually.

Officers elected were: President, Mr. W. Pratt (Holywood); hon. treasurer, Mr. D. Gibson (Dublin); Ringing Master, Mr. R. S. F. Murphy, P.C. (Dublin); hon. secretary, Mr. F. E. Dukes, A.M.I.E.E. (Jenkinson). Twenty-four members were elected, and Messrs. J. B. Cunningham and R. S. F. Murphy were elected to life membership.

It was decided to form a library with headquarters in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, which would house all Gabriel Lindoff's compositions and other works. Mr. T. McMorran was elected librarian.

The 50th birthday would be celebrated next year, and it was proposed to collect £50 for the augmentation of the Bell Restoration Fund. It was decided to compile a roll of honour for insertion in the peal book in honour of those from Ireland who served in the recent world war. The meeting for 1948 will be held at Dublin.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

EAST DEVON BRANCH ANNUAL.

Preb E. V. Cox (Guild president), who presided at the annual meeting at Seaton on Easter Monday of the East Devon Branch, extended congratulations to the branch on its progress.

Mr. J. Arbury (hon. secretary) mentioned its progress (it is the largest in the Guild with about 100 members), and that Sunday service ringing was well maintained and that the help of the leaders of bands was invaluable. The accounts showed nearly £33 in hand. Seven-teen proficiency certificates were presented.

Elections included: The Rev. A. Fane De Salis (branch chairman), Mr. G. C. Woodley (vice-chairman), Messrs. J. Arbury (hon. secretary and treasurer), C. Turner (Ringing Master), P. Davis, C. Turner and L. Baker (representatives on Guild Committee).

Sidmouth was chosen for next year's annual meeting, Payhembury for a meeting on June 28th and Luppitt for one on September 29th.

Members stood in silence in memory of Messrs. J. Chown, H. Skinner and D. Edworthy.

Seventeen proficiency certificates were presented.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild

WEST DORSET BRANCH.

The call of garden work probably kept many away from the quarterly meeting held at Burton Bradstock on April 12th, in spite of the charms of that picturesque Dorset village.

Members, however, attended from Beaminster, Bradpole, Bridport, Burton Bradstock, Evershot, Netherbury and Lyme Regis and good use was made of the bells, the ringing before and after tea including rounds, Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Plain and Kent Treble Bob Minor, Double Oxford, Cambridge and London Minor.

The Rector, the Rev. A. R. Dittmer, conducted the service, and in a short address welcomed the Guild. After tea the chairman (the Rev. C. Carew Cox) presided at the business meeting and asked those present to stand in memory of three ringers with long service who had recently been called to their rest, viz., Mr. J. Lathey, of Bradpole, Mr. W. S. B. Northover, of Bridport, and Mr. J. Poole, of Beaminster. The statement of accounts, in complete at the annual meeting, showed a satisfactory credit balance of £17 2s. 11d. The next quarterly meeting was fixed for July 19th at Whitchurch; also by-meetings in May and September at Hawkechurch and Netherbury respectively.

Thanks were accorded to the Rector, to Mr. Elsworth, the branch organist, and to the ladies who had provided the excellent tea.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

AT EWELL ON EASTER MONDAY.

The North-Western District meeting, held at Ewell on Easter Monday, aided by the weather, again proved a very popular venue for ringers. Over 70, representing 34 towers as far apart as Bedford, Hereford and Eastbourne, arrived, and soon a crowd were 'trapped' in the belfry, and under somewhat difficult circumstances ringing in various methods took place until 4.30.

The Vicar (the Rev. V. P. Davis) officiated at the service. A splendid tea was provided at the Congregational Hall.

Mr. F. Collins presided at the business meeting, which was carried through with the usual Surrey promptness. One life member, Mr. D. Carnley, of Isleworth, Messrs. J. Hillier and D. Parsons, Carshalton, W. J. Ellis, St. Leonard's, Streatham, and Mrs. A. K. Matthews, ringing members, were elected.

Chertsey, on June 21st, was voted for the next meeting. Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar and to Mr. J. Beams. Handbells were soon going to various methods. Under the direction of Mr. Collins, ringing continued at the tower until 9 p.m. and the standard of ringing was good. R. L.

SIXTY YEARS ON

Last Saturday, the 60th anniversary of the first ringing of Holt's Original peal of Grandsire Triples on handbells silent, was commemorated by a supper party given by one of the ringers, Mr. John C. Mitchell, J.P., and attended by another of the survivors, Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham. This silent peal was rung at the Goose and Gridiron, London, on March 11th, 1887, and it was originally planned for the commemoration supper to be held on March 8th, but owing to the very severe weather conditions it was postponed. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell on this happy occasion were Mr. E. H. Lewis (president of the Central Council), Mr. E. G. Fenn (past-master of the Ancient Society of College Youths), Mr. A. A. Hughes, J.P. (treasurer of the society), and Mrs. Hughes, and Mr. A. B. Peck (secretary of the society).

The story of this peal, in which the order of ringing was J. C. Mitchell 1-2, W. H. L. Buckingham 3-4, C. F. Winney 5-6, G. F. McLaughlin 7-8, was told in reminiscent vein by the survivors. The idea of attempting such a performance dawned upon Mr. C. F. Winney, the well-known ringer, after a peal of Holt's Original on January 25th, in which Messrs. Mitchell and Buckingham took part. These two ringers, whose ages were then 19 and 20 respectively, came from St. Albans daily to London for business. The first practice took place on February 9th, the condition being no calls, but mistakes corrected without stopping. On February 25th, this being the eighth time of meeting, the band met at the residence of Mr. Winney, and upon the arrival of Mr. Mitchell, who had been detained at business until 10 p.m., it was decided to commence the peal, which was successfully brought round at 1.20 a.m.

The public performance at the headquarters of the Ancient Society of College Youths was a different proposition. A demonstration that the band was equal to the task was given on March 2nd, when two-thirds of the peal was rung. Another start was made on March 8th, when 4,600 changes were rung, and the clock of St. Paul's struck eleven so hard that one of the band thought he counted 13 and in consequence came to grief! The peal was finally accomplished on the 11th, the day being the 33rd anniversary of the silent peal of Stedman Triples, which was rung at the Whittington and Cat, Bethnal Green, by Messrs. Cox, Cooter, Haley and Wood. The peal was umpired by Mr. W. Barron, of the Royal Cumberland Society, and Mr. J. W. Rowbotham, of the Ancient Society of College Youths, who took down each lead as rung.

Of the survivors, Mr. Buckingham celebrated his 81st birthday last Tuesday. He joined the Abbey Guild at St. Albans Cathedral in 1884, was elected a member of the College Youths in 1885, and has some 400 peals to his credit. A prominent Freemason, he is a Past Grand Standard Bearer of the Grand Lodge of England and a Past Grand Registrar of the Province of Hertfordshire. Mr. Mitchell joined the St. Albans Society in 1885 and was elected a College Youth in the same year. He had the distinction of being elected the first honorary member of the Central Council. His business life was spent in London Transport. Upon retirement in 1933 on the construction of the London Passenger Transport Board, he was secretary and treasurer to the London General Omnibus Company, Ltd., and allied companies. Since 1923 he has been a J.P. for the City of London. He is a Past Master of the Worshipful Company of Coachmakers and Coach Harnessmakers, and in Masonic circles is a Past Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge of England and a Past Senior Grand Warden of the Province of Hertfordshire. Of the other two who have passed over, Mr. Winney died in 1940, having been elected a College Youth in 1879, and Mr. Geo. F. McLaughlin was elected a College Youth in 1881, Master in 1886 and died in 1929. The anniversary is one which we can recall with just pride, and the coincidence is that it has been celebrated in a vintage year of handbell ringing with the first peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal in hand—a happy omen for the future of this side of the Exercise.

The LEADING BELL FOUNDERS

'THE RINGING WORLD'

The Official Journal of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers

EDITORIAL OFFICE: c/o Woodbridge Press, Ltd., Guildford, Surrey.

POSTAL SUBSCRIPTION RATES (prepaid): 4/3 quarterly, 8/6 half-year, and 17/- yearly. Orders, with remittance, to Mr. H. J. Eldred, 26, Springfield Road, Gorleston, Great Yarmouth.

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE:

EDWIN H. LEWIS, M.A. (President of Council)

GEORGE W. FLETCHER (Hon. Secretary of Council), The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk.

A. A. HUGHES, J.P. (Hon. Treasurer), 34, Whitechapel Road, E.1.

MRS. E. K. FLETCHER.

EDITOR: T. W. WHITE.

'The Ringing World' was founded in the year 1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.

Heavy bell issue might well describe this number of 'The Ringing World.'

The St. Martin's Guild with a peal of Stedman Cinques at Exeter Cathedral will receive many congratulations, and Mr. J. T. Dyke's band, who rang for the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association at Wells Cathedral, will certainly be not overlooked.

Peals at Exeter are no light occasions. Five of the company rang the Bank Holiday previous a peal of Cambridge Surprise Maximus at St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, with its 50 cwt. tenor. Wilfred Williams turned in the tenor at Bristol and was with John S. Mason on 'Grandison' at Exeter. George E. Fearn rang the eleventh at both towers.

Wells Cathedral tenor of 56½ cwt. required two men for the peal on April 12th. The late J. W. Washbrook had a companion on the tenor for the reopening peal on November 4th, 1891.

Started in 1893, the first Monday evening in the month practices at St. Mary's, Lambeth, were a regular feature until 1939. The London County Association announce their revival in this issue.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. Sam Petter (Worplesdon) at the Guildford Guild annual on attaining his 70th birthday. Tea was prepared for 110 and 130 arrived. 'Ticket holders only' is the threat of Mr. G. L. Grover for future meetings.

The Acoustics Group of the Physical Society, which is open to both members and non-members of the society, is arranging a special summer meeting which will take the form of a symposium covering a particular aspect of acoustical investigation. For details of the society's activities application should be made to the Joint Hon. Secretary, 1, Lowther Gardens, Prince Consort Road, London, S.W.7.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Central Council members desirous of attending peals during the Whit week-end and week following at Exeter should write to Mr. E. W. Biffin, 17, Sydney Road, St. Thomas', Exeter, who is in charge of arrangements. Many towers in the locality are available. Please state methods.

A jaunt to Broadclyst, near Exeter, is proposed by the Ladies' Guild. They are holding a meeting there on Whit Saturday.

The peal of Bristol Surprise Major rung at St. Mary's, Portsea, was A. T. Greenwood's 300th peal. Of his peals 286 have been rung with the conductor, F. W. Rogers.

To ring his 21st peal for his 21st birthday is a distinction. The ringer was E. Peter Rock, of the Hereford Diocesan Guild, and the coming of age celebration was at Preteigne, Radnorshire.

On two successive days peals of Double Norwich were rung in Bolton, Lancs, at different churches. Messrs. P. Crook, A. Tomlinson and E. Benson rang in both peals.

Peals were rung in honour of the wedding of Mr. Philip A. Corby and Miss Lucile M. Hubbert at Beckenham, Edmonton, Epsom, Crayford, Loughborough, Bell Foundry and Terrington St. Clement, Norfolk.

Cobham Surprise has been rung for the first time. The method, which was rung at Ashstead, was to the memory of William James of Cobham, who was for many years leader of the Cobham, Surrey, ringers. He was laid to rest at Cobham on the previous day.

Mr. H. Clarke, for many years a ringer at Kingsthorpe Parish Church, Northampton, celebrated his 80th birthday on April 10th. His many friends in the Peterborough Diocese will join us in wishing him many more happy years' association with ringing. A touch was rung in the evening as a tribute to him, and the team was later entertained at his home.

Exeter Cathedral Peal

An important ringing achievement was the peal of Stedman Cinques on the magnificent bells of Exeter Cathedral on April 12th rung for the St. Martin's Guild. The time occupied, 4 hours and 10 minutes, was precisely the same time as the first peal on the twelve bells, which took place on July 5th, 1924, and which was also rung by members of the St. Martin's Guild. Messrs. T. H. Reeves and J. F. Smallwood took part in both these performances. Congratulations to Thomas Myers, who rang the tenth faultlessly in this, his first peal of Cinques.

DERBYSHIRE ASSOCIATION

TITLE CHANGED AT ANNUAL MEETING.
After a lengthy discussion the Derby and District Association at their annual meeting at Derby on April 12th decided to change the name of the Association to the Derbyshire Association of Change Ringers. The decision was prompted in view of the inclusion of the Peak District in the Association's area.

About 60 ringers attended the meeting at Derby Cathedral from Sheffield, Staveley, Chesterfield, Ashby, Overseale, Repton, Ticknall, Darley Dale, Ilkeston, Sawley, along with ringers from the local towers. St. Peter's tower was also available. Methods rung included Cambridge and Superlative, Double Norwich, Treble Bob, Grandsire and Stedman, the youngest ringer, Master Peter Marriott, of Ticknall, having to stand on a chair to ring the treble to a touch of Grandsire.

Owing to catering difficulties, tea was served in St. Peter's Parochial Hall, where Miss Wickman along with help from ringers' wives provided an excellent tea.

The Vicar of St. Peter's (the Rev. O. A. Shaw) presided at the business meeting and gave a hearty welcome to all. The retiring officers, president, secretary and trustee F. Lowe were all re-elected, and the quarterly meetings fixed as follows: July, Peak district; October, Ilkeston; January, Chesterfield; and Easter, Derby. Ringing continued until 8.15 at St. Peter's and 8.30 at the Cathedral.

MIDLAND COUNTIES GUILD

BURTON A HOLIDAY ATTRACTION.

The Easter Monday meeting of the Guild, held at Burton Parish Church, proved to be a real holiday attraction for upwards of 60 ringers and friends assembled from Ashby, Measham, Overseale, Netherseale, Lullington, Repton, Rolleston-on-Dove, Ticknall, Derby (Cathedral, St. Luke's, St. Peter's and St. Andrew's), Rotherham, Norton-in-the-Moors, Stoke, Ilkeston (St. Mary's), Duffield, Burbage, Spondon, Bournemouth, Lichfield, Wolverhampton and the two Burton towers.

Tea was served in the Friars Walk Schoolroom, after which the secretary (Mr. J. W. Cotton) announced that the postponed annual meeting will be held at Burton St. Paul's on Saturday, May 10th. Thanks were accorded to the Vicar for use of the bells and to the ladies who had served tea. A retiring collection for the Bell Repair Fund amounted to £1 4s. 6d.

Touches brought round included Bristol Surprise, Superlative Surprise, Kent and Oxford Spliced Treble Bob, Little Bob and Plain Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Trips.

Southwell Diocesan Guild

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

For their first annual general meeting the Southwell Guild visited their newly-formed Newark District on April 12th and were rewarded with an attendance in the region of 60.

Ringing was indulged in on Newark's heavy ten from 2.30 to 5, when the entire company assembled at the Barnbygate Restaurant for tea, where they were joined by the Guild president, the Bishop of Southwell.

The Bishop expressed his pleasure at meeting the members of the Guild in force for the first time and emphasised the need for spade work in isolated districts where instructors are hard to find.

The meeting in the belfry was conducted by the guild chairman (Canon Wilkinson). After having accepted the secretary's and treasurer's reports, the members had a hard nut to crack with the problem of supplying each member with a report which would cost about 2s. each to print for an annual subscription of 1s. 6d.

After an exhaustive discussion it was decided that a report must be printed of this first year's operations, during which the membership had grown to 230, 31 peals had been rung ranging from Grandsire Doubles to Kent Treble Bob Royal and much fresh ground broken. The secretary was instructed to proceed with the compilation of a report which should be as concise as possible and be as nearly as possible a directory of the towers in the area.

It was further decided to make a charge of 6d. for this report when available with a recommendation to tower secretaries to ask those who could to pay 1s., and to increase the annual subscription to 2s. 6d. in 1948 to include a free report. No charge was made in the general officers, the Bishop, Canon Wilkinson, Miss Thompson and T. Groombridge, jun., being re-elected en bloc as president, chairman, hon. treasurer and hon. secretary respectively. Canon Wilkinson and Miss Thompson were elected trustees, and Messrs. F. W. Brown and P. E. Ball auditors. The sum of three guineas was voted from the Bell Restoration Fund to Rampton, where an augmentation is in hand.

Mention was made of the Leicester Guild's outstanding success in scoring the first of Surprise Royal 'in hand,' and the secretary was asked to convey to the band the congratulations of the meeting on such a meritorious performance.

In conclusion, the chairman noted the progress of 1946, not measured in any spectacular achievement, but in the opening up of new ground and getting the far ends of the area together, in short, the benefits of organising on a diocesan basis, which could never have been hoped for on the far flung basis of pre-1946 days, and looked forward to the day when the Bishop's exhortation to cultivate the village towers had borne fruit and every tower was an active unit of the Guild.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, to the local officers for the facilities given, and to the local district secretary (Mr. Raithby) for his excellent arrangements concluded the meeting and ringing was again the order till 8 p.m. T.G.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

East Ilsley's outing on Easter Monday was enjoyed by some 30 ringers and friends. Chipping Norton, Shipton-under-Wychwood, Wifney, Claxfield, Bampton and Appleton (Berks) were the towers visited, and the ringing all day was quite good.

The Ilsley ringers are most grateful to Mr. Harry Farmer for his splendid arrangements, and feel very honoured that Dick White with his records was quite happy to be with the Ilsley boys and girls, and that two branch secretaries, the deputy master and general secretary of the Guild found time to spend a very pleasant day with them. W. H.

Guildford Diocesan Guild

GOLDSMITH MEMORIAL BELL.

An announcement was made at the annual meeting of Guildford Diocesan Guild on April 19th that the sacring bell for the new Guildford Cathedral, which is to be the ringers' memorial to Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, the first secretary of the Guild, will be handed over on the anniversary of Mr. Goldsmith's death in June.

Mr. G. L. Grover (secretary) explained that the diocesan authorities had received a licence to complete the crypt into a chapel and had notified the Guild that the bell would be required. An order for the bell had been given to Messrs. Mears and Stainbank and delivery had been promised about the anniversary of Mr. Goldsmith's death. So far £56 had been raised towards the cost of £70, and contributions were invited. About the anniversary, in the first week in June, the Guild hoped to stage some ceremony for the handing over of the bell.

The Rev. K. C. Davis, who presided, said the Bishop felt that while there were so many people homeless, the work of completing the Cathedral should not be put in hand. It might be possible to start again in two years' time.

The report of the Executive Committee gave the strength of the Guild as 430 ringing members (70 life and unattached, 41 Service members) and 95 honorary. As to restorations, Chertsey (8) and Merrow (6) had been rehung; Dunsfold (6) and Hascombe (5) recast and rehung; Walton-on-Thames (8) rehanging in progress. Restoration work at Shere, Womersley, Ash and Bagshot was contemplated, and at Sand the church authorities intended to provide a peal of six as their war memorial.

Losses by death included Major J. H. B. Hesse (first Master), the Rev. A. C. Tranter (Egham), Mr. H. Baldock (Cobham), hon. members; Mr. A. E. King (Farnham) and Mr. H. Harris (Guildford), ringing members.

During 1946, 46 peals were rung against 52 in 1945. This slight falling off was more than counterbalanced by the fact that there were 20 first pealers compared with 12 in the previous year. Five of the peals were rung outside the diocese and 16 diocesan towers claimed one or more of the remaining 41. Although there were 10 conductors once again, unfortunately there were no claims to 'first as conductor.'

The balance sheet, presented by Mr. J. Corbett, showed that the balance in hand had increased from £47 2s. 5d. to £58. The Benevolent Fund stood at £83 13s. 5d.

The report and accounts were adopted. The Master (Mr. A. Harman) reported the death of Mr. James, of Cobham. In his memory a new Surprise peal had been dedicated Cobham Surprise. The Master also made acknowledgment of the services of Mr. W. H. Viggers in connection with the Guild's new peal book, and Mr. A. C. Hazelden mentioned that the Guild was indebted to Mr. Harman for making a fine box for the custody of the book.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden announced a valuable addition to the Guild library by Supt. Hilton (Surrey Police) of a copy of 'Campanologia Improved,' by C. A. Bettesworth, dated 1733. It was a third edition and the book had been restored by Mr. Viggers. A welcome addition was from Mr. Shaker (secretary of the Lancashire Association) of instructional books issued by his Association.

There was only one change in the elections. Mr. R. Hasted being succeeded by Mr. Leslie Hunter as hon. auditor. In appreciation of his services in the Farnham District the Guild conferred on Mr. Hasted a vice-presidency.

The Guild service was held in St. Nicolas Church, the Rev. K. C. Davis giving the address and Mr. W. A. Dollimore (Aldershot) read the lesson. Tea was served in St. Nicolas' Hall, and ringing took place at the Guild churches and Merrow and Shalford. Those who contributed to the success of the meeting were thanked.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM C. JAMES.

Captain of the Cobham (Surrey) band for over 40 years, Mr. William C. James died on April 8th, aged 69. He started ringing at Cobham in 1903, was elected captain in 1906 and continued in office until last year.

Cobham ringers earned the title of 'the happy family'. With Mr. James they were always prominent at Guild meetings, and this same friendliness prevailed in the village where there were over 30 honorary members of the Guild recruited mainly by Mr. James.

Mr. James was very methodical. He kept records of practice and service ringing and was a good instructor.

The funeral service was on April 11th, the Guildford Guild being represented by Mr. A. Harman (Master) and Mr. Arthur Smith (secretary, Leatherhead district). The bells of the Parish Church were rung half-muffled. Cremation was at Woking.

MR. J. J. PRATT.

As briefly announced in our columns, we regret to report the death on April 5th at the Hillingdon County Hospital of Mr. Joseph J. Pratt. His wife, who had been ailing for some time, did not long survive her husband, and died on April 8th. They were both buried together in Hillingdon Cemetery on April 11th.

The interment was preceded by a service in St. John's Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. M. Bashford), and was attended by many parishioners and over 20 ringers. A course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells over the open grave by A. R. G. Twinn 1-2, F. G. Baldwin 3-4, F. W. Goodfellow 5-6, W. H. Coles 7-8, T. G. Bainister 9-10.

At the express wish of the family, the bells at St. John's were not rung on the day of the funeral, but the following day an attempt for a memorial peal of Grandsire Caters on these bells failed after about three hours through a shift-course. A peal of Bob Major, however, was rung as a tribute to Mr. Pratt's memory at St. Andrew's, Uxbridge, on April 19th, at which tower he had done much ringing, including his first peal on April 16th, 1894.

Jack Pratt, as he was affectionately known, gave long and faithful service to St. John's Church for nearly sixty years, and for the last 21 years had been a popular and respected captain. Just before the war parishioners and ringing friends presented Mr. Pratt with an armchair, and his old friend William Honor a clock, as mark of appreciation of the 50 years' service of each in St. John's belfry. Mr. Pratt did a good deal of ringing locally and in neighbouring districts.

No accurate record of his peals is known at the moment, but it was round about a hundred. Steps have been taken to see that Mr. Pratt's ringing papers and his handbells are not lost to the Exercise.

Jack Pratt endeared himself to all who knew him. His kindly disposition, dry humour, patience and understanding made him well fitted to lead the ringers. He was particularly popular with the youngsters, who held him in great esteem and regarded him with undisguised affection. F.W.G.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

COMPETITION FROM TWO QUARTERS.

The fact that the Cheltenham Gold Cup race was being run and that the weather was ideal for gardening combined to keep all but 15 from the meeting at Charlton Kings on April 12th. This was a pity as tea was provided for 30.

The next meeting was fixed for Chiddwickham, in June if possible, and if sufficient support is forthcoming an outing in the Bristol-Bath area will be arranged later. Mr. C. Harding (general secretary) reported on details of management and annual meetings of the Association. The Rev. W. Wardle (Vicar) presided. Ringing continued afterwards until 8.45.

LETTERS

WELLS CATHEDRAL PEAL

Dear Sir,—I would like to congratulate those who took part in the peal on our Cathedral bells on Saturday last. As an old ringer and living so near the Cathedral I just smoked my pipe and listened to every round of the peal, wishing, of course, that I was taking part, and I must say that I have never heard better striking. I think special praise should be given to the ringers on the back bells, as most ringers know our Wells Cathedral bells are heavy, but in this peal they were rung beautifully.—

Thanking you, yours truly,
Wells, Somerset.

A. SAUNDERS.

RINGERS' NAMES ON BELLS

Sir,—The inscription on the 3rd bell at Stonham Aspal, Suffolk, reads as follows:—'Danl. Wade, aged 80 years, Wm. Last, two of the parish ringers. T. Mears, of London, fecht 1826.'—Yours faithfully,

P. LAFLIN.

25, Hallam Street, Stockport.

EIGHTY TO-DAY!

Dear Sir,—Mr. George Wilson, who celebrates his 80th birthday on the 25th of this month, started ringing at the Parish Church at Goring in 1880, and has been a regular member of the band ever since.

He joined the Oxford Diocesan Guild in 1889, and was one of the band who taught themselves to ring 120 Grandsire Doubles on the existing five bells, and so got the new treble which had been promised as a reward by the Vicar. This bell was cast in 1889.

He missed only one attendance for service ringing in 1946 (103 out of 104), and also waded through the recent floods to attend. His striking of the 7th or tenor in Triples or Major is exceptionally good, and in the words of one visiting ringer, 'extremely good for any ringer at any age.'—Yours faithfully,

L. G. HAINES (Foreman).

Goring.

BATH AND WELLS MEMBERSHIP

Dear Sir,—In 'The Ringing World' of 18th inst., I note that the membership of the Bath and Wells is given as 1,200.

On turning up the Master's reports for previous years I find the following: Year ending June 1st, 1920, new members 198, made up as follows, performing 181, honorary, etc. 17; report ending May 31st, 1931, membership 1,730; report ending May 31st, 1933, membership 1,620; report for 1938, nearly 1,400.

Surely these figures give room for thought.—Sincerely yours,

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

SPRING MEETING AT RICKLEIGH.

Gardening opportunities created by fine weather militated against large attendance at the spring meeting of the North-East Devon Branch of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers at Rickleigh, near Tiverton, on April 12th. However, the fixture provided a pleasant afternoon and good use was made of the six bells for Grandsire, Stedman and Plain Bob.

Service was conducted in the Parish Church by the Rector (the Rev. H. G. Hatch). Mr. N. T. D. Coleridge (a ringer and relative of Canon Coleridge) played accompaniments for hymns. Tea was kindly arranged by Mesdames Carew, Hatch, Vowler and Haydon and Miss Butt. The Rev. J. M. Turner (of Washfield, of which parish he has just written an interesting booklet) presided over business, which included approval of arrangements for a special combined meeting at Uffculme (8 bells) with Taunton Deanery Branch of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association on July 5th, and a quarterly meeting of the Tiverton Branch at Huntsham (8 bells) on July 19th. Preb. E. V. Cox (president of the Devon Guild) was at the meeting, with Mr. F. C. Smale (general secretary).

NORTH CAVE MEETING.

A hearty welcome was accorded the Society by the Vicar (the Rev. H. F. Elgood) on the occasion of the visit to North Cave on April 12th. The bells, a handy and musical six with tenor weighing about 12 cwt., are rung from the ground floor and these were set going to various methods, a touch of Kent Treble Bob Minor preceding the service, conducted by the Vicar.

Tea, provided by the local company, was thoroughly enjoyed by about 50 members. The president (Mr. G. F. Williams) presided at the business meeting, supported by Mr. F. Dale (vice-president), the Vicar, Mr. A. H. Fox (vice-president, Eastern District) and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary).

During the meeting Mr. A. H. Fox asked the president to accept on behalf of the Society the gift of a peal record book. In doing so he wished the Society a great future and that they would soon score their first peal. The President, in accepting the book, assured Mr. Fox that the Society appreciated the kindly thought and fine gesture that had prompted the gift.

Other business transacted was a rearrangement of forthcoming meetings to Nunburnholme on May 10th and Market Weighton (with the Selby and District) on June 14th. Three new members were elected. The gratitude of the assembly to the Vicar, the local company and the ladies was appropriately expressed by Mr. Arnbo, seconded by Mr. F. Dale. Ringing, which was most enjoyable, continued until 8.30 p.m.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

FARNHAM DISTRICT AT ASH.

In spite of the bad 'go' of the bells, the striking was quite good at the Farnham District meeting at Ash on April 12th, which was attended by more than 50 members.

The Rector (the Rev. H. M. Inley) presided at the business meeting, when the Ringing Master (Mr. C. W. Denver) spoke of the decision of the Parochial Church Council to raise funds for restoring the bells and bell frame in the tower to first-class order. This was a real necessity if the ringing was to continue. About £1,000 was required and every donation, however small, would help. A collection taken for the Bell Fund realised £2.

New members elected included Mr. and Mrs. W. Butler and Miss B. Rowe-Hunter (Aldershot), Mr. and Mrs. R. Woods, Mr. J. Waugh and Mrs. G. Joyce (Farnborough), Miss Jean Whelan (Ash), ringing members, and Mrs. R. Hasted (Farnham), the Rev. L. E. Jones, Mr. A. G. Pitt and Mr. G. Bartlett (Farnborough), honorary members.

Mr. Viggers (Aldershot) brought a gramophone record of the bells of the Cathedral Church, Birmingham, for the company to hear and this was much appreciated. Handbell ringing followed.

The service was conducted by the Rector, and Mr. C. Williamson (Aldershot), a bell-ringer, was the organist. Tea was served by ladies in the Catholic Hall.

AN EDBASTON WEDDING

A wedding of much interest to Birmingham ringers was that of Miss Jean Margaret Freemantle to Mr. Stanley George Wallis at St. Bartholomew's, Edgbaston, on April 9th. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. Sidney W. Freemantle, beadle and parish clerk at Edgbaston Church and a ringing member of St. Martin's Guild.

The bells were rung to Stedman Triples and 'fired' immediately after the ceremony. The reception was held at the Vicarage by kind permission of Canon Stuart Blofeld, who officiated at the choral service.

In the evening a peal of Double Norwich was rung at Edgbaston in honour of the occasion, the band being afterwards entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Freemantle's home.

AN OLD EVESHAM BELL FOUNDRY

As far back as 1690 Matthew Bagley, a member of the noted founders of Chacombe, Northants, set up a foundry in Evesham. He was followed by Clark and Bushell, who carried on business as bell founders in Evesham at Merstow Green. It was about 1705 that rings of bells cast by this firm became apparent, and two noted rings in the district, viz., Hinton-on-the-Green and Badsey, were cast by them. The Hinton bells were a ring of five, now augmented to eight by Taylors in 1931.

There are several individual bells bearing Clark's name or the founder's trade mark in Worcestershire and Warwickshire. This consisted of a square or oblong surmounted by the symbol IHS with a cross rising out of the H.

On a bell at Hinton enclosed in the square is a Latin inscription: 'Me RenoVaVit. Q.V. Clark I.V.V. Vs DaVi VVarrenI et pro VoItis' (William Clark recast me at the orders of David Warren and in fulfilment of vows).

Arranging the capitals as Roman numerals, we arrive at the date of casting, 1705. This clever and ingenious chronogram, as trade mark and inscription, is both unusual and interesting, and is peculiar to these old craftsmen, whose only memorial now is the tuneful ring of bells still in use in certain of our church towers.

REV. F. C. CHAMPION.
Hinton-on-the-Green.

Our Leicester commentator writes: 'Old Joe' Morris, of Leicester, who will be 80 on July 1st, holds the distinction of having rung the tenors to the lightest and the heaviest handbells ever rung to peals. We think, however, his latest achievement (as reported recently) of ringing 11-12 to Stedman Cinques with a tenor 17 cwt. in A will take a bit of beating! Good old Joe!!

'GRANDISON'

Every young ringer, if the word 'Grandison' is mentioned to him, would unhesitatingly reply, 'That's the name of the tenor of Exeter Cathedral.' Few, however, have heard of John Grandison, the Bishop of Exeter from 1327-1369, who is commemorated by this famous tenor of 72 cwt. 2 qr. 2 lb., which was recast by Messrs. Taylors in 1902 from the original bell of 1729. Grandison was a great builder. Under his enthusiastic leadership the nave of the Cathedral was completed and vaulted, and the bell is a worthy homage to the great Bishop.

The thoughts of the Exercise reverted to Exeter in our last issue, and congratulations are extended to the St. Martin's Guild on their fine achievement. In particular, mention should be made of Wilfred Williams and John S. Mason, who rang the massive tenor, and George E. Fearn who turned in the eleventh bell, which is named 'Stafford.' This is the first peal of Stedman Cinques at Exeter since the war. Peals here are no light achievement, and occupy a place of honour in any ringer's peal book.

Only on one occasion has 'Grandison' been rung single-handed to a peal. The performance is still spoken of with admiration, and it is well that the present generation should know of these stalwarts of old. That was on September 14th, 1903, the peal being Stedman Caters. The ringers on that occasion were John Thomas treble, Charles Mee 2, Isaac G. Shade 3, John Austen 4, Alfred W. Brighton 5, Gabriel Lindoff 6, Charles Jackson 7, William W. Gifford 8, Ernest Pye 9, William Pye tenor. The conductor was William Pye, who found the task exhausting, and on the completion of his performance the Cathedral authorities decided that in future two men should ring 'Grandison' to peals. Of these ringers of 44 years ago some are still with us and can tell the tale. Survivors include John Thomas, John Austen and Alfred W. Brighton.

There have been other noteworthy peals. The first on these bells after they were rehung in 1902 was of Grand-sire Caters on October 6th, 1902. The names are familiar to the older generation, and the treble man and one of the tenor men are still alive. They stood in the following order: George Williams treble, Henry White 2, Rev. W. S. Willett 3, Alfred W. Brighton 4, Rev. F. E. Robinson 5, Charles R. Lilley 6, Rev. H. A. Cockey 7, William W. Gifford 8, Richard T. Hibbert 9 Rev. G. F. Coleridge and Ferris Shepherd tenor.

An interesting sidelight on the old bells is contained in 'The Bells News' of 1892 of a ringing tour in Devon by the Rev. F. E. Robinson and the Rev. G. F. Coleridge. This states: 'The bells were raised, the front six in peal, ten or a dozen men being required for the job, and a few rounds rung on the ten, when someone suggested a course of Caters, no such thing ever having been rung by any men, the bad go of the bells and weight of metal, tenor 67 cwt., being supposed to militate against them. Though 16 men are accustomed to ring the ten, the visitors stuck to the nine changing bells single-handed, allowing only four to the tenor. Marvellous to relate, the course was rung, and well rung too, as testified by those outside. On this historic occasion, the first touch ever brought round on the ten bells, we may be permitted to append the names of the gallant band: H. G. Fruin 1, J. W. Taylor 2, E. A. Pitstow 3, N. J. Pitstow 4, Rev. F. E. Robinson 5, W. W. Gifford 6, F. Shepherd 7, Rev. G. F. Coleridge 8, J. W. Washbrook 9, Rev. W. S. Willett, E. Shepherd, B. Mundy and J. W. Carnell 10. While cooling down after their exertions, the six minutes' ringing being far harder than the nine hours occupied by the other peals, the local men kindly rang the minor eight with the noble 9th covering, that the visitors might listen to the wondrous and plaintive melody.' To use a colloquialism of this day and generation, 'Those were the days!'

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

That noted Lincolnshire trio of handbell ringers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bray and Mr. G. E. Feirn, have advanced still further by ringing a peal of Spliced Minor in 69 methods to 176 changes of method. They had the good fortune to ring this peal at the first attempt. Their next hurdle is one of 91 methods.

Next week's issue will be a Princess Elizabeth number. All peals and quarter-peals rung in honour of her coming-of-age received will be published.

This week's golden wedding is from Norton Subcourse, Norfolk, the happy couple being Mr. D. Fenn, a local ringer, and his wife. A quarter-peal of Minor (240 London, Cambridge, Norwich, Kent and 360 Oxford) was rung on April 21st by A. I. Walpole 1, A. E. Long 2, S. Goodswen 3, S. Fenn 4, G. G. Walpole (conductor) 5, D. A. Long 6.

We are informed that the peal of Norfolk Surprise Major rung at Oxford on April 11th and claimed as the first in the method for the Oxford Diocesan Guild was 13 years late. The first peal in this method was rung by members of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch on June 16th, 1934, at Hughenden, conducted by George Martin. Another peal in the same method was also rung on October 19th, 1935, at Hughenden, conducted by Harry Wingrove.

Christ Church, Swindon, ringers were called upon recently to perform an unusual task. A lady parishioner had left instructions that for her funeral the bells were to be rung as at a wedding! As there was no traditional procedure to give a guide it was decided to ring before the service and after the interment. Thus the cortege arrived to the music of rounds, queens and firing, and as the mourners left the churchyard the bells were again rung in wedding style.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Two ringers reached their century of peals this week. Miss Jill Poole did hers in flying style by conducting Yorkshire Surprise Maximus at Leicester Cathedral on April 17th. Few ladies have had the privilege of calling Maximus. The other century was scored by Mr. G. Sayer at Aylsham, Norfolk.

The first peal on the new peal of ten at Macclesfield was rung as a tribute to Mr. J. Worth on completing four years as Vicar's warden. All the ringers were Sunday service ringers at the church.

Another Leicester item is the peal of Grandsire Triples at Barwell, which is the first by a Barwell Sunday service band since 1902. It was in memory of Mr. William White, who rang here for over 50 years.

Mr. Cecil W. Pipe, of Grundisburgh, Woodbridge, Suffolk, has received permission to attempt a peal at Buckfast Abbey on Whit Monday, commencing at 1.30 p.m. Those ringers who would like to participate are asked to write to him at once.

Miss Margarie Johnstone, whose first peal is recorded this week, is believed to be the first lady to ring a peal for the Cumberland Association. This peal was the first by all the company, and the conductor hopes to announce soon a peal of Grandsire Triples. To-day there is only Sunday ringing in three Cumberland towers—the faithful few are on a campaign to get every tower ringing for Sundays.

St. George's Day was appropriately selected for the unveiling of a memorial stone to the late Lord Baden-Powell at Westminster Abbey: 1,280 Stedman Triples was rung by H. R. Newton 1, H. N. Pitstow (conductor) 2, W. S. Langdon 3, H. Belcher 4, W. H. Pasmore 5, A. B. Peck 6, H. Langdon 7, J. Rumley 8. How many of the band rang for the relief of Mafeking?

THE CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD OF CHURCH BELLRINGERS

At the Chester Diocesan Conference held in the autumn of 1887 a topic somewhat new to this august body was introduced by the Archdeacon of Chester. He spoke at some length on the position of ringers in relation to the Church and of the advantages to be gained from the formation of an Association of ringers within the Diocese. A lively discussion followed, and the resolution, 'That it is desirable to form a Diocesan Guild or Association of Church Bellringers,' was carried unanimously. It was to give effect to this resolution that a meeting of clergy and ringers was held in the refectory of the ancient Abbey of St. Werburgh on Saturday, November 12th, when representatives of some 30 parishes attended.

The project was received with great enthusiasm. Archdeacon Barber was elected to the chair and the meeting set to work with energy and determination upon the task before it. The title of 'Guild' was adopted in favour of 'Association'; its objects were clearly defined and rules drawn up. It is a significant fact that these rules, in the main, have stood the test of 60 years. A selected committee began the work of organisation, and by the following March four branches had been formed with some 170 members.

Of this very able committee, two members are especially remembered, though neither ever handled a bell. As founder of the Guild, Archdeacon Barber took an active and unbounded interest in its welfare for over a quarter of a century. His was the guiding hand in those early days and with pride he saw it grow to maturity and prosperity. He was elected the first Master in 1891, and though he repeatedly tried to resign in favour of one who should have practical knowledge, he was never allowed to do so and remained the undoubted leader to the last. His death in 1914 robbed the Guild of its greatest benefactor, and to keep green his memory a tablet was erected in the Cathedral and unveiled on May 27th, 1916.

Mr. H. A. Heywood (cousin of Sir Arthur) served the Guild faithfully throughout a long life, which closed but a short time ago. The first annual meeting elected him secretary and treasurer, an office which he maintained with characteristic vigour until a breakdown in health compelled him to resign in 1894. His interest, however, never wavered. He was Master in 1921-2 and held office in the Chester Branch until shortly before his death. He represented the Guild at the first meeting of the Central Council in 1890.

From a promising beginning the Guild rapidly developed. Seven branches had been formed by the summer of '88, and the secretary's report at the second annual festival recorded a membership of 437. The same year the Duke of Westminster became patron. The annual festival was an increasingly popular event with addresses given by outstanding clergies. The Bishop preached the festival sermon at Birkenhead in 1890 to a gathering of over 200, while the Rev. F. E. Robinson came up from Drayton to address an equally large congregation at Crewe a year or two later. There were signs of activity everywhere and the Guild grew from strength to strength. The position of the ringer as an officer of the Church was established and his craft recognised as an integral part of worship. The restoration and augmentation of rings in the diocese went on apace and the Guild gave of its increasing funds to help in all directions. It is perhaps a matter for regret that in the zeal for restoration many ancient bells of considerable interest were destroyed.

The Rev. Richard Greenall, Rector of Grappenhall, followed Mr. Heywood as secretary and held the office with distinction for 11 years. He had been a staunch supporter from the beginning and had quickly founded the Grappenhall Branch, which had the honour of ringing the first peal of Surprise Minor for Exercise generally. He was for many years a member of the Central Council, where he did invaluable work on the Analysis and Records Committees. His peals numbered over 400, among them being the first peals of Yorkshire and Peterborough Surprise, and he was also one of the band which rang the first clerical Surprise peal in 1912. Mr. Beeston was also a pioneer in spliced Minor ringing, in which he saw great opportunities and new interests for six-bell towers. Failing health compelled him to resign office in 1922, but he remained as treasurer for some time before he finally retired. He died at Knutsford in 1933, and a tablet in his church at New Mills commemorates his life and work.

From small beginnings the Crewe Branch maintained steady progress and is to-day one of the most active in the Guild. The energy of its officials and the enthusiasm of its members makes 14 meetings a year the normal practice, and the belfry at Christ Church is a lively ringing centre. A handy ring of ten hangs in the tower. The name of one church with its five bells is known to the whole Exercise—Brereton. Sir Wm. Brereton, first Master of the College Youths, was squire of this village and witnessed the casting of the bells of his parish church at Congleton in 1635. The branch had also the distinction of having one of its members, Mr. C. J. Bowen Cooke, elected as Master of the Guild, in which office he very ably carried on the work laid down by Archdeacon Barber. He was a capable ringer and took part in a number of peals, including one of Caters the Guild in 1898. From Grappenhall, too, came that able clerical ringer, the Rev. C. A. Clements, who was Master from 1925 to 1934.

Stockport, in the north-east of the diocese, has been an active ringing centre for well over a century. As long ago as 1819 it is recorded that an accomplished band from this town visited Ashton-under-Lyne on the occasion of the opening of the new bells, while a band from nearby Mottram rang a peal of Caters at the Chesterfield opening in the following year. As might be expected, the Guild has no keener members than those of the Bowdon and Stockport Branch and many 'first in the method by the Guild' peals have been rung by them. It was a great achievement when, in 1906, the then record length of Kent, 16,800 changes, was rung at Mottram, and the peak of Minor ringing was reached when 84 methods were spliced in a peal at Disley in 1938. Handbell ringing, too, has long been among the activities of this branch. Stockport possesses two rings of ten, and the Guild Library, founded by the late Rev. A. T. Beeston, is housed in the ringing chamber of St. George's.

The Rev. A. T. Beeston became secretary of the branch in 1904 and guild secretary three years later. He was a ringer and organiser of exceptional ability, and among the many able men who served the Guild during the present century his name stands out above all others. His counsel was much sought after not only in the Chester diocese, but by the in 1919 when he was Mayor of Crewe. The Guild was very much the poorer by his death the following year.

The Wirral district of Cheshire, between Dee and Mersey, has many bells, and some 70 of its ringers had enrolled as members when the Guild was but a few months old. With a preponderance of six-bell towers a keen interest has naturally been taken in Minor ringing with St. Peter's, Rock Ferry, as the main-spring. Here, until the church was badly damaged during the war, Surprise Minor was a feature of service ringing, and many multi-method peals were also rung. Mr. J. W. Milner, of Wallasey, became Master in 1935 and although not a ringer, his sound judgment and genial manner made him a popular figure. His resignation last year was accepted with sincere regret.

The Eastern Branch is centred round the silk town of Macclesfield, and the Guild is justly proud of its only ring of twelve in the tower of St. Michael's. These fine bells were installed in 1923, and the first peal, Kent Treble Bob Maximus, was rung a few months later. The diocese gained another ring of ten by the augmentation of the eight at Christ Church. The opening ceremony took place on March 15th, following an ambitious restoration scheme which also provided for the lowering of the frame by some 30ft. This lofty tower, with bells hung high within, had, by its excessive oscillation, presented a very considerable able problem to ringers since the late 18th century. The fact that these bells had been kept going and peals rung gives some indication of the enthusiasm of the members of this branch.

The Northwich Branch was inaugurated largely by the efforts of Mr. H. Hatt-Cook, another instance of a non-ringer who interested himself in Guild affairs and who was for a considerable time a member of the committee. In one way or another, Mr. Hatt-Cook was actively associated with the Guild and branch for 35 years. Until recently peal ringing was not a feature of the activities of this branch, although there are a number of first-class rings within the area where service ringing has always been well done. Of late years, however, peals have considerably increased, and it is gratifying to note the large number of 'first pealers' during the last year or two, a certain pointer to future activity. The Rev. W. R. Ingham, Vicar of Middlewich, was Guild secretary 1931-5.

Ringling in the Chester Branch naturally centres round the Cathedral, and in its massive tower the first Guild peal, Grandire Triples, was rung in June, 1889. The note of the tenor is as well known to the citizens as that of Big Ben itself, for the bell has been rung as the curfew every evening beyond living memory. Last summer, on the occasion of the royal visit to the city, the ringers were presented to their Majesties by the Dean, a happy incident which gave pleasure and satisfaction to the whole Exercise. The Central Council met in Chester in 1925 and its members had an opportunity of ringing on some of the fine bells in the neighbourhood. The eight at Eccleston are of outstanding merit, and the name of the late Mr. H. W. Wilde, eminent composer and conductor, was long associated with them. The Chester Branch is proud, too, of Mr. Robert Sperring, who at Over in 1923 conducted the record length of Kent Treble Bob Major, 17,280 changes, in ten hours, and who is the only member to ring over 500 peals for the Guild.

The year 1937 was a memorable one. The Guild celebrated its jubilee in a manner fitting to the occasion when it sponsored a project for the augmentation of the Cathedral bells and to which it gave very substantial help. At the annual festival, ropes attached to the new bells hung down to the crossing below and were handed by the Master to the Dean, who accepted them on behalf of the Cathedral. The Mother Church now possessed a fine ring of ten, and the B.B.C. broadcast a course of Caters, with a running commentary on the ringing, a few days later. A jubilee dinner was also held in the city and was attended by many Church dignitaries and ringers from all parts of the diocese, five of whom had been present at the inaugural meeting 50 years previously.

The Guild was now in its heyday. In 1938 no less than 124 peals were recorded in the annual report with 198 members taking part, a record of activity, progress and prosperity. There was no cloud in the sky save the cloud of war, which was so soon to stamp ringing temporarily out of existence. When the ban was finally lifted and a new start made, the Guild, like every other, found its ranks depleted and the old order changed. Its enthusiasm, however, was undaunted and it set upon the work of rebuilding with vigour. And what of the future? The Chester Diocesan Guild can look back with satisfaction over 60 years of achievement, and remember with pride the many stalwarts, ringers and non-ringers alike, who have given faithful service; signs are not wanting that it can look forward to the future with confidence.

FROM THE EDITOR'S POSTBAG

BATH AND WELLS MEMBERSHIP

Dear Sir,—It is not my usual practice to reply to anonymous letters, but in plain justice to those loyal and hard-working local secretaries of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association of Change Ringers, I feel that I must ask you to publish this reply. The strength of an association of ringers lies in the number of its men and women who Sunday by Sunday ring its bells for service, so that the figures I give are those of resident ringing members, and ignore honorary and life members.

In 1920, a year mentioned by your correspondent, there were 845 members; in 1931, 1,350; in 1932, 1,291; in 1933, 1,274; in 1938, 1,417. My figure of over 1,200 given at Easter, 1947, could not be definite, as returns from one branch had not come in, but here is the figure now. In 1946, 1,387. Indeed food for thought, and little sign of decadence. One item escaped, unaccountably, our critic's vigilance. More food for thought. Towers affiliated: In 1922, 106; in 1946, 158.

I regret that so far we have made only one ringer for every 310 of our Somerset population. But since our critic is so fond of figures, let him with Whitaker's Almanac and pencil and paper retire to a corner, and, using 310 as a divisor, work out some little sums. The results may surprise him. They may even teach him something.

I cannot prophesy the 1947 figures. We have raised our subscription from 1s. to 1s. 6d., and that may make a reduction in numbers, but there are few signs of it yet. On the other hand there are signs of increasing activity in nearly all our branches.

To my Somerset friends I would say I miss William Cave, and you are going to miss him. For some years he printed your report at a price which left him little or no profit. From the time he got the copy no more than 10 days or so elapsed before he delivered the reports. How different it is to-day. Your report will cost you three times as much per page, and although the printer has had the copy for ten weeks, he wrote this morning regretting that he has not yet been able to send me more than half of the proofs.

Your association managed to live on its shilling subscription, and to give away some not inconsiderable sums. It did this only because of its comparatively large numbers, and if it is to remain solvent on 1s. 6d., either some of its expenses must be cut down, or it must increase its membership. You will no doubt think that the latter is preferable, so will you please lend your best efforts to that end.—Truly yours, J. T. DYKE.

LOUGHBOROUGH BROADCAST

Sir,—I enjoyed the broadcast from Loughborough last week, but I may I express the opinion that it seemed to me a mistake to broadcast the carillon again just after the Parish Church bells. The difference of the tone between the open and 'fired' bells was too much for the latter! Both are beautiful apart, but was it quite just to the carillon? I thought not.—Yours truly, Bath. INA D. HUMFREY.

EXETER CATHEDRAL BELLS

Dear Sir,—In the details you give of these bells the 3rd is recorded as W. Evans 1729. But I would point out that this bell was recast by Messrs. Taylor in 1915 after being cracked.

The correct weight of the 6th is 10 cwt. 1 qr. 2 lb. The 7th is given as W. Evans 1902, but although the original bell was by Evans in 1729, it was recast at Loughborough in 1902.

The founder of the half-tone 6th is T. Pennington 1630. The tenor 'Grandison' was named as a bell as far back as 1396, but it has been recast several times, by Pennington 1629, Evans 1729 and at Loughborough in 1902.—Yours faithfully, W. SHEPHERD.

22, Chapel Grove, Addlestone, Surrey.

LOCAL PREJUDICE

Dear Sir,—I was pleased to note that you gave special prominence to the Easter Day quarter-peal at Standon, Herts, by mentioning it in Belfry Gossip, and I would like to be allowed to endorse your remarks regarding the efforts of Messrs. W. and S. Smith, and also the conductor, Harold Groom.

These people must have had a hard time against local prejudice alone, for when I lived there some years ago the ringing was performed by each ringer having before him a card showing which bells to follow. It must be admitted that, despite the fact that there was no indication of whether one was going up or down, or dodging (the ringers of that time didn't know what those terms meant, anyway) they rang their 120's tolerably well.

Woe betide the ringer, however, who lost his place on his card, for none could put him right and the ringing must inevitably stop. Mr. Groom, at the time of which I am writing, was but a lad and made a creditable effort to break away from tradition and learnt to ring without the cards. If anything went wrong with the ringing he was invariably blamed, but has evidently persevered and outlived the criticism levelled at him.

Mention of the cards reminds me that who ever printed them had no letters by which he could indicate that the ringer was required to lead, so he used the £ sign. Thus the card for the second read ££34513451££, etc., and the other cards corresponded. This was always a source of amusement to visitors.—Yours faithfully,

OLIVER G. BARNARD.

Stowmarket.

SPLICED SURPRISE MAJOR IN SIXTEEN METHODS

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to congratulate Mr. J. A. Freeman and his band on their peal in 16 Spliced Surprise Major methods, which is a wonderful performance.

Perhaps later I will have time available to tackle further methods. There is no doubt that here is a field for composers.—Yours faithfully, A. J. PITMAN.

NORWICH ASSOCIATION REPORT, 1946

Sir,—May I, through the courtesy of your columns, draw the attention of all who possess, or are about to possess, a copy of the above report to the following:—

Page 54, Peal No. 5,168: The course S5, 16 (315462) is omitted. This immediately precedes 'C'.

Page 57, Peal No. 5,200: The composition is to be three times repeated.—Yours faithfully, NOLAN GOLDEN, Ringing Master, Norwich Diocesan Association.

CHILVERS COTON BELLS

Dear Sir,—May I, through 'The Ringing World,' bring to the notice of the Exercise the efforts of the Chilvers Coton Society of Ringers to provide two trebles to augment the very fine ring of eight to ten.

The church was destroyed on May 17th, 1941, in a blitz on Nuneaton, leaving the tower damaged. This was restored and the bells rebung on ball bearings in 1944.

As the parish is faced with a £20,000 rebuilding appeal fund, no direct appeal has been made for contributions from non-ringing members of the congregation.

We at Coton feel there are many members of the Exercise who, having enjoyed a visit to Coton belfry, would like to be associated with this effort. The target is £350, towards which £222 is already in the bank.

Donations, however small, will be gratefully acknowledged by the treasurer, Chilvers Coton New Bells Fund, Mr. J. E. Moreton, 39, Coventry Road, Nuneaton.—Yours faithfully, DOROTHY E. BEAMISH, Secretary, Chilvers Coton Society.

Miss Jill Poole's 100 Peals

The Exercise will extend its congratulations to Miss Jill Poole on ringing her 100th peal at the age of 184. The century is unique by her calling Yorkshire Surprise Maximus, and her list is conspicuous by the large number of peals in higher methods. So far she has conducted on tower bells one peal each of Superlative Surprise Major, Stedman Cinques and Yorkshire Surprise Major. The list is as follows:—

Stedman Triples, handbells 4, tower 7: Stedman Caters, 7, 9: Stedman Cinques 11, 4; Grandsire Triples, 0, 1; Grandsire Caters, 1, 0; Plain Bob Major, 2, 0; Plain Bob Royal, 2, 1; Plain Bob Maximus, 1, 0; Kent Treble Bob Major, 1, 0; Kent Treble Bob Royal, 1, 0; Cambridge Surprise Major, 0, 8; Cambridge Royal, 1, 4; Cambridge Maximus, 0, 6; New Cambridge Surprise Maximus, 0, 1; Yorkshire Surprise Major, 0, 3; Yorkshire Royal, 0, 3; Yorkshire Maximus, 0, 5; York Surprise Major, 0, 1; York Surprise Royal, 0, 1; York Surprise Maximus, 0, 1; Pudsey Surprise Royal, 0, 1; Pudsey Surprise Maximus, 0, 1; Superlative Surprise Major, 0, 3; Superlative Maximus, 0, 1; Bristol Surprise Major, 0, 5; London Surprise Major, 0, 3; total, 31, 69.

STAFFORD ARCHDEACONRY SOCIETY LICHFIELD CATHEDRAL BELLS.

Quarterly meeting of the Stafford Archdeaconry Society was held at Brewod on April 12th, when more than 40 members and friends attended. A short service was held in church, conducted by the Vicar, who gave the members a hearty welcome and an interesting address. A capital tea was served in the schoolroom, arranged by the local ringers' wives, which came as a pleasant surprise—as visitors had been asked to bring their own food.

A communication was received from Lichfield stating that the restoration of the Cathedral bells was to begin on the 14th inst., and it was therefore agreed that the annual meeting should be held at Burton on June 21st.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar for his address, to the caterers for tea, and to Mr. York for presiding at the organ was received with applause.

THE CUMBERLAND YOUTHS

The meeting of the Society for April 12th at St. Peter's, Burnham, arranged by Mr. George Gilbert, attracted a company of 63 ringers. Ringing was comprehensive from Bob Minor and Major to Superlative.

Ten new members were elected—Mrs. G. Rolls, Miss M. D. Arnott, Messrs. F. J. Russell, H. W. Russell, A. E. Smith, J. Norsworthy and R. C. Howes, of the Bray band; P. B. Oldam, Hendon; E. F. Connock, Bath; and R. W. Kyte, of Evesham.

The Master, Mr. G. H. Cross, stated that the 200th anniversary dinner had attracted a large number of applications for tickets and advised those who wished to attend to get in touch with the secretary before it was too late.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION FIRST VISIT TO MARKSBURY.

When Bath Branch held their first meeting at Marksbury on April 12th over 100 members and friends attended and the service touch was rung by ladies. The Rev. Creswell conducted the service, the local secretary read the lesson, and the Rev. Beaumont Russell, chairman of the branch, gave the address.

At the meeting there was a discussion on the changing of dates of meetings because of the clashing with the neighbouring Frome Branch. It was finally decided to adhere to the second Saturday in the month for meetings.

New members were elected, and the votes of thanks included one to Mr. W. Prescott for having everything ready and making arrangements for the tea. The ringing ranged from Grandsire Doubles to an attempt of London Minor.

Lancashire Association

EXTENSION OF PRESENT YEAR.

A special general meeting of the Lancashire Association was held at Rawtenstall on April 19th for an alteration of the rules of the Association to make the present association year stretch to 17 months.

Also on the agenda was the place of the next annual meeting. It was Liverpool's turn, but as there was no guarantee of the Cathedral bells being ready, it was put back. For a similar reason Lancaster was passed over and the Rochdale Branch was asked to find a tower in their area.

A vote of thanks was recorded to the various clergy for the use of the bells and the tower-keepers for meeting the members. A special vote was accorded the Rev. R. J. Coates for arranging the service at short notice, and to Messrs. W. Rideough and Parkinson who made local arrangements.

The four towers—Haslingden, Newchurch, Waterfoot and Rawtenstall—were available from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., except for time off for service, tea and meeting, and 70 members and friends were present. A welcome visitor was Mr. L. W. G. Morris, who brought greetings from Yorkshire.

Some took advantage of the nice day to sit in the Memorial Gardens under the tower to tick off the course ends when they came up and sort out the methods. A suggestion which was favourably received was that a joint meeting should be arranged with Yorkshire later in the summer.

LADIES' GUILD

MEETING AT CHESTER.

The meeting of the Ladies' Guild at St. Mary Handbridge, Chester, on April 19th, a glorious spring day, well repaid some of the 20 members for their long journeys, those attending coming from Shrewsbury, Macclesfield and Manchester, as well as from neighbouring districts.

The Vicar, in an expression of gratitude to the ringers at the service, said probably no other service fulfilled the conditions of our Lord—"That which is done in secret shall be heard upon the housetops"—as does bellringing. He was struck by the fact that, although bellringing was a hobby, a Guild on a visit to a tower for ringing did not confine itself to mere ringing, but set aside a portion of time to prayer and praise to God in a short service.

Tea was partaken of at the Park Cafe, and after tea the business meeting was held, at which seven new members were elected, viz., A. Worth and R. Hough, Macclesfield; H. and J. Close, Chester; R. Lloyd and E. Duppa, Shrewsbury; L. Lawrence, Davenham. The meeting noted with regret the departure of their chairman (Mrs. A. Wolstencroft) for the South and hoped that she had now settled down in her new surroundings.

OBITUARY

MR. GEORGE S. TAYLOR.

With regret we announce the death on April 25th of Mr. George S. Taylor, of St. Ignatius' Bellringers' Guild, Sunderland. He was aged 74 years and had been in ill-health for a considerable time.

A keen churchman and bellringer, Mr. Taylor was, until prevented by failing health, a very active member of the Durham and Newcastle Association, having joined in 1898. He held various offices in the Association, having been a vice-president, secretary for eight years, and treasurer for three years. His peals numbered 58.

In the service of his own church, Mr. Taylor was for 30 years a member of the Parochial Church Council, had held the offices of both Vicar's and people's warden and had been secretary of the Bellringers' Guild since 1901.

Mr. Taylor was a contemporary of the late Joseph W. Parker; they were inseparable companions for more than 50 years. F.A.

A ROYAL COMING-OF-AGE

Collected in this issue of 'The Ringing World' are the peals and quarter-peals rung in honour of the coming-of-age of Princess Elizabeth. Bells perhaps more than any other method express the felicitations of the people, and ringing on April 21st was widespread—far more extensive than indicated by the peals and quarter-peals recorded. Of the 25 peals, these were distributed over 18 counties, extending from Devonshire to Lancashire and from Cardiganshire to Norfolk.

Naturally the civic authorities took an interest in the ringing. At Norwich the Lord Mayor ascended to the ringing chamber of St. Giles-on-the-Hill, accompanied by the Vicar (the Rev. D. E. Rae), to greet the ringers, and they remained in the ringing chamber during the opening courses of the peal—Superlative Surprise Major.

Another peal of Superlative was rung in the adjoining county, at Spalding, and this was the first peal in the method by all except the conductor. The spirit of venturing on something new was also displayed at Southport, where a peal of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob was rung, which was the first peal in the method by all the band.

The finest achievement of the day was in the Cardiganshire village of Llanbadarn Fawr, near Aberystwyth, where four of the band were ringing their first peal. One hour from the end the oil lamp in the ringing chamber went out—not from a lack of oil but from a short wick. Towards the end each ringer saw of the rest of the band as little more than shadows. Many a company would have abandoned the peal under such conditions. Llanbadarn Fawr were worthy representatives of the Principality.

An event of this character is an occasion for veterans. The oldest was Mr. A. H. Snow, who at Littleham, Devon, rang the tenor to a peal of Grandsire Triples on his 81st birthday. The stamina of many of our elderly ringers is amazing. To ring for 2 hours and 50 minutes continuously at the age of 81, while in no sense a record, is a feat in which any individual can take a just pride. Of all the bells that were rung, those most familiar to Her Royal Highness were at Windsor Parish Church. Here the peal was on the following Saturday, and was earmarked for a dual purpose—the 24th anniversary of the King and Queen's wedding day and the 21st birthday of Princess Elizabeth.

At Newport, I. of W., at the completion of the quarter-peal, the bells were fired 21 times. Good wishes and every happiness are extended to Her Royal Highness from the many belfries of the land.

EDWIN H. LEWIS, M.A. (President of Council)

GEORGE W. FLETCHER (Hon. Secretary of Council), The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Norfolk.

34, Whitechapel Road, E.1.

MRS. E. K. FLETCHER.

EDITOR: T. W. WHITE.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Selected as the method for the first peal together as man and wife, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Corby rang 'spliced' London,
Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative.

The peal rung at Ashby Folville on April 16th was a birthday compliment to R. H.
Bartram, of Melton Mowbray, who was 81 on the 12th.

Canon C. C. Marshall, president of the Yorkshire Association, has completed 40 years as Vicar of St. Chad's, Headingley, Leeds. Congratulatory peals were rung at St. Chad's and Pontefract.

Through a rope breaking half-way, Bolton
(Lancs) ringers lost their peal of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Major in honour of Princess Elizabeth's birthday.

The peal of Stedman Caters at St. Peter's, Brighton, on April 25th, was noteworthy for the reappearance of a number of veterans.
Arthur Gravett's last peal here was in 1923, and William C. Hart (brother of Keith Hart) rang his last peal 15 years ago. Frank Bennett at 78, states our reporter, is still as competent as ever.

Mr. Josiah Nichols, now 81, has retired from the post of foreman of All Saints', Leighton Buzzard, after holding the appointment for the greater part of his ringing career of 54 years. In appreciation of his long service he has been elected hon. foreman. Ringing friends will wish him a happy retirement.

Golden wedding congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodger, of Tilehurst, Berks. Mr.
Goodger has been 60 years a ringer at St.
Michael's, Tilehurst, and for 40 years as foreman of the tower. Participating in the congratulatory quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples on April 20th were Mrs. W. Lewington (first quarter of Grandsire Triples as conductor), W.
Marsh, H. Goodger, H. Hunt, J. Marsh, E.
Langley, C. Watts and D. Sellar.

BELFRY GOSSIP

In honour of his 80th birthday, W. T. Elson called 1,259 Grandsire
Caters (his own composition) at All Saints', Fulham, on April 26th. The company was
J. E. Chilcott 1, Mrs. E. Deal 2, W. Langdon
3, J. F. Smallwood 4, M. V. Chilcott 5, J. B.
Sansom 6, W. T. Elson 7, H. Langdon 8, J.
Phillips 9, W. J. Paice 10.

Mr. Francis R. Deacon has circled the tower at Kirkby Mallory, Leicestershire.

Correction.—The ringer of the 5th at Worth, Sussex, was Albert E. Laker and not Lake as published in our last issue.

Miss Doreen Wilde rang her first peal with her father, Mr. Tom Wilde, at Hyde, Cheshire, on April 26th. The composition of Kent Treble
Bob was by her great-grandfather.

Kington Magna, Dorset, was one of the many villages which rang the bells in honour of Princess Elizabeth's birthday. Quite a classical team of ringers was present, representing Marlborough, Eton, Winchester, Bath College and Gillingham Grammar School.

Is it in order to ring bells for service before dedication? is a reader's query. We should say emphatically 'No.' Bells are, we believe, included in the ornaments of the church, such as organs, vestments, lecterns, and these would not be used in worship before dedication.

There is a good story behind the peal of Pudsey Royal rung at Loughborough and reported last week. Following a car breakdown a taxi was hired for five of the band and the 11 miles from Leicester to Loughborough covered in record time. One of the company, on seeing the speedometer at 70, shut his eyes, felt queer and looked it! The Railway Company, unaware of the important passengers, cancelled the last train. Fortunately a late bus had not gone, and with the aid of a taxi at the Leicester end, all the party arrived safely home.

REPORT AS TO MEMBERSHIP AND REPRESENTATION.

The Hon. Secretary reported that the Council consisted of 52 affiliated Societies entitled to representation of 139 members. Of these Societies 23 were entitled to four members, 4 to three members, 10 to two members, and 15 to one member, an increase of four in the Associations affiliated.

APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE.

Apologies were received from Mr. F. Colclough (Dudley and District), Mr. W. J. Davidson (Durham and Newcastle), the Rev. E. G. Benson and Mr. L. Evans (Hereford), Mr. C. W. Woolley (Hertford), Mr. F. E. Dukes (Irish), Mr. F. M. Mitchell (Kent), Miss E. Steel (Ladies), Mr. J. A. Freeman (Lincoln), Mr. T. H. Taffender (London County), Mr. A. Thompson (North Staffordshire), Mr. A. E. Lock (Oxford Diocesan), the Rev. C. E. Wigg (Oxford University), Mr. H. Baxter and Mr. G. S. Valentine (Peterborough), Mr. A. Paddon Smith (St. Martin's), Mr. J. T. Godwin (Salisbury), Mr. H. Knight and Mr. C. Wallater (Stafford Archdeaconry), Mr. F. W. Rogers (Winchester and Portsmouth), Mr. G. E. Debenham, Major J. H. B. Hesse, Mr. W. H. J. Hooton, Mr. F. Sharpe, Mr. A. Walker (hon. members).

PRESENTATION OF NEW MEMBERS TO THE PRESIDENT.

In accordance with Rule 11 the following new members were presented: Mr. S. G. Coles and Mr. H. J. Sanger (Bath and Wells), Mr. H. Harding and Mr. A. C. Sinfield (Bedford), Mr. A. L. Bennett (Devon), Mr. C. Evans (East Derby and Notts), Mr. F. B. Lufkin (Essex), Mr. F. G. Waite (Gloucester and Bristol), Mr. A. Ballard, Mr. J. P. Fidler and Mr. A. E. Rowley (Leicester), Mr. H. W. Rogers and Mrs. O. L. Rogers (London County), Mr. T. J. Lock (Middlesex), Mr. J. W. Cotton (Midland Counties), Mr. W. C. Duffield (Norwich), Mr. W. F. Judge (Oxford Society), Mr. G. H. Harding (Salisbury), Mr. G. L. Hewitt (Shropshire), Mr. T. Groombridge, jun. (Southwell Diocesan), Mr. C. W. Pipe (Suffolk), Mr. F. E. Collins (Surrey), Mr. A. Hoare (Swansea and Brecon), the Rev. A. S. Roberts (Truro), the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead (Winchester and Portsmouth), Miss L. K. Bowling (hon. member).

ELECTION OF HON. AUDITOR.

It was proposed by Mr. G. R. Newton, seconded by Mr. P. Crook, and resolved that Mr. E. C. S. Turner be appointed hon. auditor for the remainder of the triennial session to act jointly with Mr. A. A. Hughes, the vacancy arising through the death of Mr. C. T. Coles.

ELECTION OF HON. MEMBERS.

The following were elected: Mr. C. H. Kippin, proposed by the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead, seconded by Mr. G. Pullinger, and Mr. W. M. Rowe, of New South Wales, Australia, proposed by Mr. E. A. Barnett, seconded by Mr. A. D. Barker.

LOSS OF MEMBERS THROUGH DEATH.

The deaths of the following seven past members were reported by the President and a silent tribute to their memory was paid: Mr. C. T. Coles, Mr. R. T. Hibbert, Mr. E. W. Marsh, Mr. J. W. Parker, Mr. J. T. Rickman, Mr. F. W. Romaine, Mr. C. L. Routledge.

MINUTES OF THE LAST MEETING.

On the proposal of Mr. E. C. S. Turner, seconded by the Rev. F. L. Edwards, the minutes published in 'The Ringing World' on May 24th, 1946, pages 239-240, were taken as read and approved.

REPORT OF HON. LIBRARIAN.

The Hon. Librarian's report was read by the Hon. Secretary and showed a steady demand for publications and a need for reprinting of the several books, etc., now out of print. The sales amounted to £27 11s. 9d., less expenses £4 17s. The report was adopted on the proposal of Mr. G. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. F. I. Hairs, and thanks were accorded to Mr. G. P. Elphick for the gift to the library of 'Sussex Bell Frames.'

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

The accounts, showing gross income of £44 16s., and balance from publications account of £22 14s. 9d., less expenses of £22 12s. 2d., with a final balance of £303 9s. 11d., were presented by the Hon. Treasurer, and on his motion, seconded by Mr. G. R. Newton, were adopted subject to audit. On the proposal of Mr. G. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. L. W. G. Morris, it was decided to repay to associations the sums advanced to finance the printing of the Surprise Book.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE CARTER RINGING MACHINE.

Mr. E. A. Young reported that the machine was still intact in its packing case after return from Wales. The report was seconded by Mr. P. J. Johnson and adopted.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

A formal report that recommendations would be placed before the Council was adopted on the proposal of the Hon. Secretary, seconded by Mr. J. F. Smallwood.

REPORT OF THE PEAL COLLECTION COMMITTEE.

The committee reported that it was revising the collection of compositions submitted to the Council at the 1939 meeting, particularly regarding Spliced Surprise, and it was proposed to augment the collection to 100 pages at least, including compositions in Grandsire, Stedman Triples, Bob and Little Bob Major, Double Norwich and Treble Bob, the four Standard Surprise Major Methods, and Spliced Surprise up to four standard methods.

The committee also reported that it had exercised the power of co-option granted in 1945, by co-opting Mr. C. W. Woolley.

The report was adopted on the proposal of Mr. H. G. Cashmore, seconded by Mr. G. R. Newton.

REPORT OF THE METHODS COMMITTEE.

Mr. E. C. S. Turner presented a verbal report chiefly in respect of the Surprise book. In reply to enquiries as to its contents, the committee stated that the book was primarily one of the best Major Methods, and that if there were a sufficient demand the committee would produce a book devoted to Royal and Maximus.

The report was seconded by Mr. F. I. Hairs and adopted.

REPORT OF THE PEAL ANALYSIS COMMITTEE.

Mr. C. Dean presented the report, printing of which had been delayed owing to lack of space in 'The Ringing World.' The committee requested direction as to whether a peal of Grandsire Caters rung without a cover (there being only nine bells in the tower) should be included in the analysis and recognised as a peal. On the proposal of Mr. C. Dean, seconded by Mr. W. Ayre, the secretary was instructed to write to the Society drawing attention to the rule governing a nine-bell peal.

The report was adopted on the proposal of Mr. C. Dean, seconded by Mr. R. Richardson.

REVISION OF DECISIONS OF THE COUNCIL.

Arising out of the discussion regarding this peal, the Standing Committee recommended that the Decisions of the Council be brought up to date, and on the proposal of Mr. G. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. F. I. Hairs, the officers of the Council were asked to undertake this work.

REPORT OF THE RECORDS COMMITTEE.

Mrs. E. K. Fletcher reported that no new methods or progressive lengths had been reported to the committee, and asked for particulars of new methods rung in the present year to be sent direct to the secretary of the Council. The final typing and binding of the records was in hand.

The report was adopted on the proposal of Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. P. J. Johnson.

REPORT OF THE TOWERS AND BELFRIES COMMITTEE.

A verbal report was presented by Mr. E. H. Lewis that the committee had been consulted in 15 to 20 cases and had given advice. Regret was expressed that the work of hanging the bells at Liverpool Cathedral was at a standstill owing to difficulties regarding building licences.

The report was adopted on the proposal of Mr. E. H. Lewis, seconded by the Rev. F. L. Edwards, and it was agreed that the following be addressed to the Ministry of Works:—

'The Council heard with great regret a report from Mr. Newton that the hanging of the bells at Liverpool Cathedral was held up indefinitely owing to the refusal by the Ministry of Works to grant a licence for putting the roof on the tower, in spite of the fact that the structural members are already fabricated.'

REPORT OF LITERATURE, PRESS AND BROADCASTING COMMITTEE.

The Rev. F. L. Edwards presented the committee's report (see 'Ringing World,' June 21st, page 287), which was seconded by Mr. J. E. Spice and adopted.

Arising out of the report on broadcasting, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow asked for assistance from the committee to enable him to reply to a letter received from the Religious Broadcasting Assistant Midland Region.

REPORT OF THE PEAL BOARDS COMMITTEE.

The committee report (see 'Ringing World,' June 21st, page 288) was presented by Mr. W. G. Wilson. The committee had decided to appoint district representatives as authorised by the Council in 1939, and appealed for offers of help from any person willing to assist in the task of collecting particulars.

The report was seconded by Mr. W. Ayre and adopted.

REPORT OF THE BIOGRAPHIES COMMITTEE.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden reported that the collection of information was proceeding and appealed for more assistance from members. The committee acknowledged the advice given by Mr. Viggers, of Aldershot. The report was seconded by Mrs. E. K. Fletcher and adopted.

REPORT OF 'THE RINGING WORLD' COMMITTEE.

The accounts for the year to 30th September, 1945, were presented, subject to audit, on behalf of the committee by the Hon. Secretary.

The results showed income of £1,743 13s. 8d., less expenses of £1,395 12s. 2d., a net profit of £348 1s. 6d. Assets amounted to £1,611 3s. 9d. and liabilities £564 8s. 10d. The balance on capital account being £1,046 14s. 11d.

On the motion of Mr. G. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. F. W. Perrens, the accounts were adopted; and on the motion of Mr. F. W. Perrens, seconded by Mr. F. I. Hairs, it was agreed that a copy be sent to each affiliated association.

PRESSENTATION TO MR. AND MRS. G. W. FLETCHER.

On the motion of the Rev. Canon C. C. Marshall, seconded by the Rev. Canon G. F. Coleridge, the sum of £200 was voted to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher for their work.

ALTERATIONS TO RULES.

The Hon. Secretary reported that owing to the death of Mr. C. T. Coles, no motion was before the Council, although notice of motion was given last year.

AS TO COUNCIL'S PUBLICATIONS.

The following resolution, proposed by Mr. C. J. Sedgley, seconded by Mr. F. Nolan Golden, was lost:—

'That in future all publications issued by the Central Council have the compositions in them printed correctly, i.e., with the notation in front of the resulting course-end.'

AS TO 'THE RINGING WORLD.'

The following motion, proposed by Mr. G. W. Steere, seconded by Mr. G. H. Cross, was, after discussion, not proceeded with, a resolution to pass to the next business being moved by Mr. C. Dean, seconded by the Rev. H. Drake:—

'That for some time past the contents of "The Ringing World" have not been conducive to the fostering of our art, especially among the younger generation of ringers. In their interests it is suggested that more space be made available for current affairs by the exclusion of irrelevant matter, by setting the leader in smaller type; also the notice of officials of the paper could be condensed or only inserted in alternate weeks.'

PLACE OF NEXT MEETING.

On the invitation of Mr. F. C. Smale, and on his proposal seconded by Mr. R. Richardson, Exeter was chosen for the next meeting.

VOTES OF THANKS.

On the proposal of Mr. W. Ayre, seconded by Mr. G. Pullinger, supported by Mr. J. E. Spice, thanks were accorded to the Lord Mayor for the use of the Council Chamber and his welcome, the Town Clerk for arrangements, the Lord Bishop of Norwich, the Rev. St. J. Heard, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow and the Norwich Diocesan Association for hospitality and arrangements, Mr. F. Nolan Golden for peal arrangements, all incumbents and tower-keepers for ringing arrangements.

The President also expressed the Council's thanks to the Rev. J. Waddington for the use of the vestry at St. Peter Mancroft.

A vote of thanks to the president, proposed by the Rev. Canon G. F. Coleridge, terminated the meeting.

A PASSING TRIBUTE

Dear Sir,—At the service at the Cenotaph held annually in memory of the dead, the silence is broken by the sound of the bugles, which is very impressive, and I should like to suggest that at meetings of bellringers at which announcement of the passing of members is made and the company present stand in silence that it is broken by the sound of bells. A course of Grandsire Triples on handbells would be very appropriate and impressive and full of meaning.

I was at Canterbury on Easter Monday when the names of those members who had passed away during the year were announced and 300 ringers and friends stood in silence, and I thought what a splendid finish it would have been to hear the sound of the bells break the silence.

CHARLES TURNER, Captain,
St. Mary's Ringers, Dover.

Suffolk Guild

RESTORATION FUND APPROVED.

The annual meeting of the Suffolk Guild, held on Easter Monday at Ipswich, attracted ringers from several counties when upwards of 100 ringers rang at the five churches. Divine service was held at St. Mary-le-Tower, conducted by the Rev. H. Drake, and assisted by the Lord Bishop of the diocese, the Rev. W. H. Trickett, and the Rev. F. Tucker-Harvey, who gave a short address.

A company of nearly 70 sat down to luncheon and among the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. Mayne and son John, Mr. Ernest W. Pye and Miss Olave Broyd, Mr. L. W. Wiffen, Mr. E. Jennings, Miss H. Snowden, Messrs. J. W. Ward, F. Dench, G. Dadds and F. Clayton.

At the business meeting which followed apologies for the absence of the Master, Mr. C. J. Sedgley, who was still in the Borough General Hospital, and Messrs. F. C. Lambert and Robert Brundle were read by the secretary.

In proposing the creation of a Guild Restoration Fund, Mr. C. W. Pipe said the matter had been before several general meetings and at the committee meeting earlier in the day. When put to the vote the motion was passed unanimously.

While thanking the Guild for their messages of condolence in the loss of his mother, Mr. Ernest W. Pye said he was glad a restoration fund had been agreed upon, and when it was under way he would be pleased to make a donation of £50 towards the object. Mr. Pye was thanked amid cheers and applause.

The officers of the Guild for 1947 were elected as follows: Master, Mr. C. J. Sedgley; general secretary and treasurer, Mr. Cecil W. Pipe; clerical secretary, the Rev. W. H. Trickett; Central Council representatives, the Rev. H. Drake, Mr. C. J. Sedgley and Mr. C. W. Pipe; committee, Messrs. C. W. Pipe, Messrs. W. J. G. Brown, L. C. Wightman, O. G. Barnard, A. Gillings, F. L. Fisher and E. Ellenger.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION

MEETING AT YATTON.

A quarterly meeting of the Chew Deanery, held at Yatton on April 19th, was attended by ringers from Bristol (St. Ambrose's, St. Philip's and St. Stephen's), Abbots Leigh, Clevedon, Kewstoke, Long Ashton, Swainswick, Ubley, Wrington and the local tower.

Ringing was followed by service and tea. The Vicar of Yatton, the Rev. G. A. Beechy, who conducted the service, was invited by the branch chairman (Mr. H. W. Knight) to preside at the business meeting. Chew Magna was chosen as the venue of the next quarterly meeting, with intermediate practices at Clapton-in-Gordano and Kingston Seymour.

The secretary (Mr. P. G. Yeol) recalled that at the annual meeting of the Association held at Minehead in 1946, it was decided to increase the individual subscription from 1s. to 1s. 6d. All towers affiliated in the branch had paid the new rate without question, with the exception of Nailsea, and the ringers there had remitted a shilling a head, and refused to pay any more. This action was regretted, and it was resolved that the secretary should write the tower correspondent at Nailsea, inviting the members to pay the balance of their subscriptions, failing which the only alternative would be to refund the instalments paid and lapse the members. As Nailsea is the most progressive six-bell tower in the Deanery and a valued member for many years, it was sincerely hoped this course would not be necessary.

The Vicar of Yatton welcomed the branch to his parish, the first visit since his induction, and said they all knew that a fund had been opened to raise £2,000 to recast and rehang the bells, which did not go at all well. The Rev. Beechy recalled that he came from the well-known bell-casting family of Purdue. A collection was taken at the meeting towards the Yatton bell fund.

WITH THE CLERICAL GUILD

RINGING WEEK AT BURFORD.

The annual ringing 'week' of the Guild of Clerical Ringers was held with Burford, Oxon, as the centre, from April 21st to 24th. A more delightful spot from the point of view of scenery—and peace and quiet until we got to work—could not have been chosen. The programme started—wisely—with dinner on Monday, followed by ringing on a fine eight, tenor 19 cwt., in the central tower of the magnificent church of Burford.

Next morning we started in earnest, with a tour, including Great Rissington, with a fine six by Rudhall. It is, as all ringers know, the usual thing for each member of the band to know where he is going next; it is not, perhaps, so usual for a party of motorists to show the same unanimity. A procession of three clerical cars was making its way round a blind corner, following a signpost which distinctly said, 'Bourton-on-the-Water,' when the leading driver was not a little astonished to see a fellow cleric at the wheel madly heading back again round the corner in the opposite direction. As often happens, the minority proved to be right, and the three others had to reverse to the hateful signpost.

However, Bourton-on-the-Water—now nearly in the water—was duly reached, and after getting some way with a quarter-peal of Cambridge Major, the model village was inspected. This marvellous creation lacked a church until visitors demanded one so insistently that the model church was added—complete with gramophone, which treated us to the most rollicking version of the 'Hallelujah Chorus' that I have heard!

On to Northleach, with a splendid eight (tenor 18½ cwt.), and many other treasures, in one of England's grandest churches. Then to Sherborne (which heavy bell ringers will be surprised to hear possesses, not England's heaviest eight, but a mere pleasant six by Rudhall, 1716, tenor 11 cwt. in G1), afterwards to Great Barrington, with a nice six rehung by Taylor in 1935, 202 years after Rudhall put them there. At Taynton, the nave of the church seemed higher than it is long—a feature noticeable in some other Cotswold churches. A nice little six here, some young ringers, and a new Vicar coming on the morrow.

On Wednesday we tempted providence by visiting Clanfield, where two clerical peal attempts came to grief some years ago owing to broken ropes. Bob Major came to grief this time owing to a broken train of thought in the conductor's mind. Others rang at Brize Norton and Bampton Aston, then we all met at the fine church of Bampton, where Double Norwich, etc., went well on a grand eight.

Braving the gale, we went on to Lechlade where we found a nice six, then to the glorious church of Fairford, where the ringers stand amongst the pews beneath the central tower. Why couldn't other great churches have been left in peace to keep their glass, choir stalls, brasses as Fairford has done? What a palace of beauty would have existed in parish after parish if this had been the case! The day concluded at Shipton-under-Wychwood, where we could well have spent longer on a fine eight. The journeys to-day were quite adventurous, with trees, branches and telephone wires strutting all over the place.

We started Thursday by making our Communion together in Burford Church, after which a peal attempt for Stedman Triples at Coln St. Aldwyn went quite well until the usual difference of opinion about who should be leading occurred—this kind of thing brings civilisations to an end time after time, as well as peals of Stedman.

Afterwards ringing was indulged in at Bibury (6) in a remarkable church in a very lovely village, Chedworth (6), then to North Cerney (6) with one of the loveliest small churches in the country, in which altars, rood loft, candelabra, screens, combine to make a most satisfying sight. Then to Watermoor, a modern district of Cirencester, with a fine modern ring of eight (tenor 20 cwt.), and finally Cirencester, where the fine ring of 12 (also semitone bell) gave opportunity for a fitting climax, with Grandsire and Stedman Caters, and rounds on the light eight and the 'minor' eight (with the 11th as tenor). Later we sang evensong together in Burford Church.

At the annual meeting that evening the Rev. C. Carew Cox was unanimously re-elected president and the Rev. Preb. E. V. Cox hon. secretary. Under their leadership the Guild looks forward to a happy future. A.G.G.T.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

LONG SERVICE RECOGNISED AT BLACKMOOR.

When the Alton and Petersfield District met at Blackmoor on April 19th two acts of long service to the Guild received special recognition.

The first was the dedication in the tower by Canon E. A. Berrisford (district chairman) and the unveiling by Mr. W. Read of a peal board recording a peal rung in June, 1946, as a 75th birthday compliment to Mr. Read and placed there by the Church Council as a token of his 33 years as captain of Blackmoor ringers.

Later after tea a presentation of book tokens was made to the Rev. F. G. Eyres (Vicar of Blackmoor) by Canon Berrisford on behalf of the district and in appreciation of over 20 years' service with the Guild. Mr. Eyres, in his reply, said he had been in Blackmoor just on 50 years and his retirement was officially taking place in June.

Canon Berrisford then spoke of Mr. W. Read's unflinching service and how privileged the meeting was to have been present at the ceremony in the tower. His remarks were endorsed by the hon. secretary.

Arising from the minutes, the hon. secretary reported on the steps taken in the revision of the Guild's Office. Three new members were elected from Blackmoor—Mr. J. Norris and the Misses M. Pay and J. Guy. The next quarterly meeting was fixed for July 12th at Bentworth.

The bells were rung to standard methods in the afternoon and evening and some good practice was put in by new ringers.

GUILD OF DEVONSHIRE RINGERS

SOUTH-WEST BRANCH.

Forty members and friends supported the quarterly meeting, held at Bigbury on April 19th. The musical ring of six was rung to rounds, touches of Grandsire, Plain Bob, Stedman and Kent.

The business meeting, held in church, was presided over by the Rev. H. E. Bennett (branch chairman), supported by Mr. G. H. Myers (vice-president), Mr. W. G. Hiscott (honorary member), and representatives from Newton Abbott, Plympton St. Maurice and Plymouth (St. Andrew's and Emmanuel), and Mr. Nicholas Coleridge, a former member of the branch now at Oxford University.

Arising out of the minutes, the secretary pointed out that the office of Ringing Master had been overlooked. Mr. H. Howard Thomas proposed, Mr. W. G. Lavers seconded, and it was carried unanimously, that Mr. T. G. Myers be re-elected with thanks for his past services. Subject to the necessary permission, the next meeting will be held at Kelly on September 20th. Ten certificates of proficiency were presented; nine to young members from Plympton St. Maurice, who show great promise under the leadership of Mr. W. G. Lavers. It was agreed that the instruction account be transferred to the general funds of the branch. Votes of thanks were accorded the Rector, the Rev. A. R. W. Law, and to the captain of the tower for having all in readiness for the ringers. A short service then followed.

During the evening ringing in the four standard methods was enjoyed on the fine heavy six at Modbury.

READERS' VIEWS AND COMMENTS

John Austin Called

Dear Sir,—It was John Austin who called the peal of Stedman Caters at Exeter in 1903, not William Pye as stated in your leading article this week.

Some year or so later rumours began to be current in London that he called the peal from manuscript. About this time I met Jack Austin for the first time at a meeting at Woodchester, Glos., and told him of the rumour. He told me that after trying the tenor to a few rounds Mr. Pye said, 'You had better call this peal, Jack. I shall have as much as I want here.' Giving a hurried glance at a composition, he started to call the peal.

About a course before the turning course he became uncertain of the calling of that particular course and asked the spare man, who was in the tower, to give Mr. Pye some assistance if it were needed, to get the peal from his pocket so that he could reassure himself, which he did. After glancing at the figures they were put away again. Mr. Austin told me that had he not seen the figures at all it would have been all right, but there was just that little uncertainty in his mind and he wanted to make quite certain.

John Austin died about two to three years ago.—Yours,
E. BARNETT.

NOTE.—Our informant regrets his error.—Editor.

WILLIAM PYE'S ACHIEVEMENT

Dear Sir,—You are not quite correct in saying that William Pye called the peal at Exeter to which he rang the tenor; it was the late John Austin.

What has not, however, previously been commented upon, as far as I can recall, is that William Pye had already called a peal of Stedman Caters, at St. Sidwell's, Exeter, on the day that his great performance took place. Small wonder if he was exhausted—and yet he had recovered sufficiently by the next day to call a peal of Stedman Caters at Taunton, and to turn in the 27½ cwt. at Bridgwater to a peal of Superlative, while the day after that he rang the 25 cwt. tenor at Martock to New Cambridge, and the 7th to a 27½ cwt. tenor to Stedman Triples.

It is no disrespect to those bands who have subsequently taken part in peals at Exeter to say that this peal at the Cathedral, coming as merely one of twelve rung during a week's tour, was thus perhaps the greatest performance of them all—excepting, of course, the peal of Cambridge Maximus.—Yours faithfully,
E. A. BARNETT.

RANG 'GRANDISON'

Dear Sir,—Re your article on the first Caters at Exeter Cathedral in 1892. I was present in the belfry when this took place on October 11th that year. Being only nine years of age, I was not permitted to ring, but I remember how glad they were to have a rest after their exertions.

Regarding 'Grandison,' I may say that I had the pleasure of ringing this famous bell on the opening day in 1902 (single-handed).

W. SHEPHERD.

PEALS AT EXETER

Dear Sir,—Having been appointed to make arrangements for peal attempts at Exeter during the period of the Central Council's visit, I would ask those who have written to me for peals and now desire to participate in the peal at Buckfast Abbey to inform me as soon as possible. They will then not be included in any peals I may arrange for that day. Applications for peals should be received not later than Monday, May 12th, to enable me to make final arrangements.—Yours truly,

E. W. BIFFIN.

Preservation of MSS.

Dear Sir,—Your leading article of April 18th dealing with composers' manuscripts prompts me to question whether the machinery suggested for their preservation should be considered adequate.

The establishment of repositories for manuscripts might prevent their wanton destruction, but would hardly preserve them from oblivion, since they would be geographically inaccessible to most people and not readily available to anyone but the custodian. A wider dissemination of technical literature would seem essential if the present generation of composers is to be relieved from the necessity of repeating for themselves the work done by their predecessors.

In your leader you cite existing restrictions as a bar to publication of such information, though even when rationing ends, it is doubtful whether prospective readers will be sufficiently numerous to support printed editions of advanced text books. There are, however, several methods of reproduction, employing stencils or lithographic plates, which are cheaper than letterpress printing and eminently suitable for runs of a few hundred copies.

I suggest that data at present lying dormant could usefully be duplicated by one of these processes for distribution to subscribers, and I will, if interest is shown in the idea, undertake a detailed investigation into the practical and financial aspects.

To this end I would be obliged if everyone interested would communicate with me, indicating:—

(1) The kind of information they would like to see published.

(2) Whether they would prefer separate booklets on specific subjects, or a periodical containing in each issue elementary and advanced articles of interest to theorists, composers and conductors.

(3) The amount they would be prepared to subscribe annually.

Since authors as well as readers are needed for success, correspondents should also state whether they would be willing to contribute articles and data for publication.—Yours sincerely,
M. HODGSON.

NEW ZEALAND GREETINGS

Dear Sir,—We have just received a new set of 10 ropes from England so the Christchurch Cathedral Society of Bellringers will now be able to attempt longer touches without the thought of a rope breaking. We ordered these ropes two years ago, so you will understand how pleased we were when they arrived; lucky for us that we have an ex-Naval man with us and he has been kept busy in the meantime splicing ropes to make them last out.

Mr. N. Reeve, a returned Service member, is now Master, and he is very keen for progress to be made, so with the help of Mr. George Clavdon, ex-Birmingham ringer (he came to New Zealand in 1911) we regularly ring 120's of Grandsire Doubles, Plain courses of Plain Bob Minor and Grandsire Triples. We are practising bobs and singles for Bob Minor and Grandsire Triples on the handbells, so I think that we are on the way to peal ringing.

In conclusion, the Christchurch Cathedral bellringers send greetings and best wishes to all bellringers in England.—Yours sincerely,
G. N. SLOAN, Deputy Master.

OBITUARY

MR. ALBERT S. ALLEN.

Whilst rolling the lawn in his garden, Mr. Albert S. Allen, of Bourne, Lincs, died suddenly on April 24th, aged 69. For over 40 years 'Tim' was captain of the Abbey Church ringers.

An enthusiastic and regular ringer at Sunday services despite the handicap of rheumatism and poor sight, he was a good striker and had rung about 50 peals, the majority of the latter being Spliced Surprise Minor. His one regret since the ban was that he was not able to give a hand in the training of the young band being formed. He spent his working life as a postman, and his happy disposition and jovial nature endeared him to his many friends.

The funeral service was on April 28th, and as the cortege left the church 720 Bob Minor was rung on the Abbey bells by W. F. Ayres 1, David Stainsby 2, Derrick Stainsby 3, C. Wade 4, F. W. French (conductor) 5, A. I. Holmes 6. F.W.F.

MR. THOMAS A. LAYBOURN.

Returning home from a ringing meeting at Gravesend, Thomas Alexander Laybourn, only child of Mr. and Mrs. T. Laybourn, of 35, Second Avenue, Dagenham, was involved while cycling in a collision with a bus and was killed. His death was on the 17th anniversary of his parents' wedding. He was 16 and for the past two years had been a ringer at SS. Peter and Paul's, Dagenham. Previously he was a chorister.

At the funeral service on April 26th a course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the grave by four of his fellow ringers: D. Blowes 1-2, J. Fleetwood 3-4, J. Armstrong 5-6, R. Funnell 7-8. On Sunday morning a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung half-muffled by D. Blowes 1, R. Funnell 2, J. Fleetwood 3, A. Chaplin 4, J. Armstrong 5, J. T. Groves 6, F. Gant (conductor) 7, F. Freestone 8.

MR. W. H. POTTER.

For 50 years a member of the Brierley Hill band, Mr. William H. Potter died on April 22nd, aged 75. The completion of his 50 years' service was marked by the presentation of a clock, suitably inscribed, from the congregation. Mr. Potter was leader for 25 years, and although not a prolific peal ringer, he was exceptionally keen and enthusiastic and was always amongst the most regular attendants for ringing at both morning and evening services.

The funeral took place on April 28th and he was buried as near as possible to the tower he had served so well throughout his life. He was borne to his last resting place by two of his oldest ringing friends, R. Matthews and J. Bass, and the four oldest members of his own band. Grandsire Triples on handbells was rung at the graveside and the tower bells, half-muffled, were rung before and after the service by members of the local band and friends from neighbouring towers. In the evening a half-muffled peal of Stedman Triples was rung.

MR. GEORGE S. TAYLOR.

The funeral of Mr. George S. Taylor, whose death was announced last week, took place on April 29th, preceded by a service in the Church of St. Ignatius the Martyr, Sunderland, conducted by the Rev. F. E. Marples.

In addition to the family mourners, many of Mr. Taylor's ringing friends attended and the bells were rung half-muffled. After the committal service, a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells at the graveside by F. Ainsley 1-2, Miss M. Fidell 3-4, K. Arthur 5-6, and J. A. Brown 7-8.

A quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung at St. Ignatius' with the bells half-muffled on April 28th as a token of respect by J. A. Brown 1, W. Armour 2, W. Oxley 3, R. Bell 4, R. Walker 5, R. L. Patterson 6, F. Ainsley (conductor) 7, L. Dixon 8.

Chesterfield Bells

The recast ring of ten bells of the Parish Church of St. Mary and All Saints, Chesterfield, have been dedicated by the Right Rev. O'Ferrall, D.D. The ceremony was attended by a large congregation.

Basing his address on the text, 'Woe unto me if I preach not the Gospel' (an inscription which he said was to be found on a bell in Madagascar), the Bishop affirmed that the sound of church bells should remind people of their duty towards the Church.

During the singing of the hymn, 'The Church's one foundation,' the choir and clergy, followed by representatives of several belfries, walked in procession to the south transept, where the bells were set on the floor. The Bishop then sprinkled the bells, blessing them by name, beginning with the treble and ending with the tenor, saying 'In the faith of Jesus Christ we dedicate these bells to the glory of God and thus we designate them for all time.' He then censed the bells and the procession continued with another hymn.

The bells are named as follows: Treble, The Holy Spirit; second, St. Chad; third, St. Oswald; fourth, St. Catherine; fifth, St. Peter; sixth, The Holy Cross; seventh, All Souls; eighth, All Saints; ninth, All Angels; tenor, Domina.

The ring was recast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD

The quarterly meeting at Llangattock on April 12th, when some 30 members were present, was voted as the best meeting in the district since the lifting of the ban both in the numbers present and the practice put in. The methods rung were Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Stedman Doubles and Triples and Bob Major. One welcome visitor was Miss M. Davies, of Kilburn. Several young ringers were piloted through their first 120 of Doubles and touches of Grandsire Triples.

The Vicar (Canon R. M. Cole-Hamilton), who conducted the service, paid a tribute to the work of Guilds as a means of improving ringing throughout the country and thanked the bellringers for all they were doing for the Church. An excellent tea was provided by the Vicar and local ringers. The next meeting is to be held at Llanelly (Brecon) on Aug. 16th.

THE BELLS OF DEVON

In view of the visit of the Central Council to Exeter at Whitsuntide, a few notes on some of the rings of bells in the county may be of interest. Ringers have their favourite towers. The relative qualities of the Heavitree, Tiverton, and Tavistock eights are often debated, while the magnificent tones of Pilton (Barnstaple), South Molton and Crediton are acknowledged. Even so, amongst the 82 octaves in Devon there are many other fine examples of the bellfounders' craftsmanship, and we must not omit the fine ten at St. Andrew's, Plymouth (35 cwt.) and the splendid twelve at Buckfast Abbey (44 cwt.) The Cathedral twelve are famous.

Exeter is the natural centre of the county, and rail and bus routes radiate from it. To the east there are eights at Sowton (tenor 9 cwt.), Honiton Clist (19 cwt.), Broadclyst (21 cwt.), Bradninch (20 cwt.) and Uffculme (24 cwt.), with a ten at Cullompton (19 cwt.). All these, except Bradninch, are good; the Cullompton ten, in a fine tower of the Somerset type, is of the highest repute. The fine old ring at Ottery St. Mary (20 cwt.) is out of action. In the Exmouth area there are eights at Withycombe Raleigh (15 cwt.) and Littleham (8). Both rings go well, though the ringing chamber at Littleham is rather cramped. Withycombe is one of the few Warner peals in the county.

On the bus routes from Exeter to Newton Abbot there are eights at Alphington (18 cwt.), Dawlish (14 cwt.), East Teignmouth (22 cwt.), West Teignmouth (14 cwt.), Kingsteignton (17 cwt.) and Chudleigh (15 cwt.). All these, except West Teignmouth and Dawlish, go well. East Teignmouth are difficult to hear inside the tower. At Newton Abbot are the eights at Highweek (14 cwt.), Wolborough (16 cwt.) and St. Leonard's (8 cwt.), a tower standing by itself in the main street. St. Leonard's bells do not go too well. A few miles west of Newton are the fine octaves of Ashburton (22 cwt.), Totnes (29 cwt.), Plympton St. Maurice (16 cwt.) and Plympton St. Mary (27 cwt.). Other eights on the borders of Dartmoor are Tavistock (24 cwt.), Bovey Tracey (4 cwt.), Moreton Hampstead (15 cwt.), Chagford (18 cwt.) and Okehampton (16½ cwt.), and within the moor the eight at Buckland-in-the-Moor (8 cwt.). All these go well, but to reach Buckland involves a drive through romantic country with precipitous inclines.

North of Exeter, along the Exe Valley, are eights at Silverton (17 cwt.), Thorverton (14 cwt.) and Tiverton (25 cwt.) The back bells at Thorverton go badly, but Tiverton is of real grandeur. To hear is to be impressed; to ring is to be convinced. A matter of eight miles north of Tiverton is Huntsham (15½ cwt.), made famous by Col. Charles A. W. Troyte, the first president of the Guild. Crediton has a fine eight (tenor 27 cwt.), but the circle is not too good. Further north, along the ridges of the Taw and Torridge valleys, are many octaves of high repute and quality. Of these, perhaps Pilton (25 cwt.), with tenor reputed to be one of the finest bells in the country, and South Molton (24 cwt.) are outstanding. Even so, the eights at Torrington (15 cwt.), Bideford (16 cwt.) and Northam (15 cwt.), are perfect in tone and go, and the dozen other eights will bear comparison with the best. Pilton are to be rehung. There are 224 six bell rings in the county, few of which can be classed as poor. Truly a ringer's paradise.—F.C.S.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Mr. George Williams, who provides a sidelight on the Exeter peal in our correspondence columns, was honoured by the Salisbury Guild with a birthday peal on attaining the age of 90. In his own Guild a peal of Bob Royal was rung at North Stonelham, 720 Plain Bob at Titchfield and 720 Oxford Single at Wickham, Hants, with the ringers' best wishes to their revered Master.

Oswald Delight Major is published this week. It is Kent above the treble and Cambridge below. First performance was at Frodsham, Cheshire. Now for a second.

A memo for tower and guild librarians. Include 'College Youths,' by J. A. Trollope, in your additions for 1947. Price 5s. 6d., 'Ringing World' Office.

Tamworth ringers were unlucky over their quarter-peal in honour of Princess Elizabeth's birthday. After 15 minutes' ringing they were interrupted by a request to stop, as a play was to be given in a nearby hall. Two morals arise: 'Lock the door,' and let the town know why you are ringing.

Five first quarters of Bob Major was the tribute at Whiston, Yorkshire, to Princess Elizabeth's birthday on April 21st. The company was J. Curwin 1, W. Thomas 2, G. Preston 3, A. Stamp 4, P. Coote 5, B. Thomas 6, T. Cutts 7, N. Chaddock (conductor) 8. First quarters of Major by 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7.

Stoke-on-Trent have a young company, all of whom rang their first quarter, except the conductor, at Dilhorn on April 19th. It was Grandfire Doubles and was rung after the peal attempt failed. The ringers were Miss B. M. Brown (16) 1, Miss M. Flackett (16) 2, J. G. Burton (16) 3, G. Mountford (17) 4, F. W. Grocott, jun. (16, conductor) 5, I. Wright (17) 6. The peal cannot be much longer delayed.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Peals of interest this week are a Freemason's at North Mymms, Herts, and a pensioner's at Erdington, Birmingham. In the latter peal the average age was 70½ years. Sunday service ringers of Great Baddow, Essex, have frequently appeared in our quarter peal column. Now they have accomplished their first peal since the bells were recast in 1924.

Visiting Hersham, Surrey, on May 3rd, the London County Association rang a peal of Stedman Triples. Surrey's charms resulted in the conductor's and sender's names being omitted from the peal.

Mr. Frederick Page, by his peal of Bob Minor 'in hand' at Hove (reported last week), has now rung Minor to Maximus on both tower and handbells.

Next week's 'Ringing World' will contain a special article on Exeter for the benefit of visiting ringers by Mr. A. W. Searle, chairman of the Exeter District and a member of the Central Council from 1903-1927.

Two days before he was due to attempt his first peal, Michael Collett (14), of Burford, Oxford, met with a serious accident at school whilst retrieving a missing ball on May 7th. He was taken to the Oxford Eye Hospital, where it was found necessary to have his right eye removed. His many friends extend to him their sincere sympathy and best wishes for his recovery.

When Mr. Patrick Cannon arranged his peal at St. Neots he nearly had an officers' peal for the Ely Diocesan Association. The company included the ringing masters of Hunts and Wisbech districts, the general secretary, auditor and Central Council representative of the Association and the district secretary of Wisbech branch. Non office bearers were Mr. R. F. B. Speed and Mr. Cannon.

Reorganises Finances to Meet New Situation

The Middlesex Association marked its jubilee meeting by an overhaul of its financial position to meet the increased charges of to-day. The meeting was held at Ealing on Saturday with the president (Preb. W. P. Cole Sheane) in the chair, supported by the Rev. H. Greatbatch (Vicar of St. Mary's, Ealing) and Mr. E. C. S. Turner (hon. secretary).

The annual report, presented by the hon. secretary, recorded the losses by death of Mr. C. T. Coles, general secretary and one of the leading men in the Exercise; Messrs. W. Fletcher (Beaconsfield), G. H. Gutteridge (Iver), J. H. B. Hesse (Wrighton), H. Hoskins (Greenwich), G. P. Mitchell (Hillingdon) and W. Watson (Romford).

The year had seen a great revival of activity and a full programme of meetings was held with an average attendance of 32. New members elected totalled 94, consisting of one honorary, 22 non-resident life members and 71 ringing members. Mr. W. C. Parker celebrated his 80th birthday in August by taking part in a peal of Grandsire Triples. Mr. A. Harding completed his 50th year of service as a ringer at St. Mary's, Ealing.

Peals rung during 1946 totalled 76, of which 39 were on handbells; there were 18 conductors. Methods rung for the first time by the Association were Hinton Surprise Major and Spliced Grandsire and Oxford Bob Triples. Seven members rang their first peals. Quarter-peals totalled 51.

The Association was pleased to welcome the entire Hillingdon band as members and congratulated them on successfully augmenting their ring of six bells to eight.

In December, Mr. J. Thomas moved to Hinton-on-the-Green, near Evesham. During his many years in Middlesex he proved himself without equal in his success at teaching beginners. The handbell performances of the Edmonton and Enfield bands during the war were the admiration of the whole Exercise. They wished him many happy years of retirement. The report concluded with a list of the valuable ringing books left the Association by the late Mr. C. T. Coles. The report was adopted.

In the absence of Mr. W. H. Oram (treasurer), Mr. Turner presented the accounts, which showed a deficit on the year's working of £19 5s. 9d. The accounts were adopted.

Officers elected were as follows: President, Preb. W. P. Cole Sheane; vice-presidents, Messrs. W. H. and A. W. Coles; Master, Mr. Charles Roberts; hon. treasurer, Mr. W. H. Oram; hon. secretary, Mr. E. C. S. Turner; assistant secretary, Mr. Leonard Bowler; auditor, Mr. E. M. Atkins; trustees, Messrs. T. J. Lock, W. H. Oram and E. C. S. Turner.

SUBSCRIPTION RAISED.

A series of resolutions to meet the increased costs and keep the Association solvent was submitted by Mr. Turner. These included raising the subscription from January 1st, 1948, from 1s. 6d. to 2s. 6d.; charging life members and honorary members 1s. for the annual report; that the sum of 6d. per ringer of a peal be charged for printing peals in the annual report. He explained that the last quotation he received for printing the report was 18s. a page, on which there were four peals. This worked out at 4s. 6d. a peal. In 1897 a charge of 3d. per ringer was made for printing peals.

These were seconded by Mr. C. Roberts. To the question of how much the extra 1s. subscription would produce, Mr. Turner replied £15, and to another question he stated that the assets of the Association were £192.

Opposition to the increased subscription was voiced by Mr. C. C. Mayne. 'We have accumulated £192 and have been putting money in the bank for a rainy day,' he said. 'Now it had come we should spend it.'

The Secretary: I shall refuse to do so. If the resolution is not passed I shall print the report every other year.

Mr. W. H. Coles commented that the subscription of 2s. 6d. was about what most members paid to go to the pictures, and Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey reminded the members that 2s. 6d. was not the price of a 'packet of fags.'

Mr. Jones suggested as an alternative a charge of 3d. be made for attendance at meetings.

The resolution to increase the subscription was carried by a substantial majority, as was that of charging life members and hon. members for the annual report.

Mr. Mayne was in opposition again over the charge of 6d. per ringer for printing peals. 'Peals will not be rung for the Association,' he said.

Mr. Turner replied that he was not frightened by that suggestion. They would find that other associations would adopt the same rule.

The new rule was passed and it was decided to make it operative as from July 1st next.

Mr. Turner: People will not be able to say in 10 years' time that they had a secretary who whittled away what had been saved up by his predecessor.

New members elected were Miss F. H. Friswell and Miss H. V. Hare (Upper Clapton), Mr. David Charnley (Isleworth), Messrs. N. G. Hollingworth, E. Prior and H. W. Barnard (Holloway), and Mr. F. Oakshott (non-resident life member).

ORIGINAL MEMBERS HONOURED.

Mr. Turner reminded the meeting that that was their 50th anniversary and they had still with them some original members of the Association. He proposed and Mr. A. W. Coles seconded that honorary life membership be conferred on these members. Those to be so honoured are Messrs. W. Baldwin (Barnet), H. Chandler (Heston), W. Honor (Hillingdon), C. H. Martin (Hendon), W. Pickworth (Richmond). The meeting expressed its approval by a hearty round of applause.

Returning thanks, Mr. Chandler said the spade-work for the formation of the Association was done in the Church Room, Heston. Most of them had now passed over—Mr. Pratt was one of them. He hoped the Middlesex would continue to flourish.

Mr. Pickworth also expressed his thanks and said the honour was quite unexpected.

The meeting decided to keep the books bequeathed by Mr. C. T. Coles to the Association at St. Augustine's, Kilburn.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER.

The hon. secretary reported that the committee formed to deal with the 50th anniversary proposed to hold a dinner at Slaters, The Strand, on October 25th, tickets 12s. Attendance would be limited to 120, and the first 120 who sent a remittance would be allotted tickets.

Another function in connection with the anniversary is the meeting at Acton on June 7th, at the invitation of the Rector, to be held in the Rectory or Rectory grounds.

Regarding the memorial fund to the late Mr. C. T. Coles, Mr. Turner said it was proposed to provide one or two bells in one of the blitzed London churches. It was unlikely, however, that they would be able to spend the money for a long time as bell founders were booked up. They had been waiting at Christ Church 18 months for the bells to be rehung. He asked members to contribute towards the fund as generously as possible.

Clerkenwell was selected for the next annual meeting, alternatives voted upon being Fulham, Southgate and Holloway.

The best wishes and Godspeed of the meeting were extended by Mr. Lewis Cockey to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Botham, of Willesden, who are shortly proceeding to South Africa.

A message was received from Mr. W. G. Wilson conveying his best wishes and stating he would be pleased to see any visitors in an evening. The meeting sent to him its good wishes for a speed recovery.

The work of Mr. Turner as hon. secretary was recognised by a vote of thanks moved by Mr. C. C. Mayne.

From the chair, Mr. W. H. Coles, who presided at the latter part of the meeting, thanked the Vicar of St. Mary's for permitting the Guild service to be held in his church and also for the use of the bells, the Vicar of St. Stephen's for the use of the bells, Mr. Harding for splicing the ropes, and Mr. Clarke and Mrs. Miller for providing teas.

Preb. W. P. Cole Sheane conducted the Guild service, which was attended by about 120 members and friends.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

MR. W. F. MORETON THE NEW MASTER.

The annual meeting of the Society was held on April 29th at New College, the president, the Rev. C. E. Wigg, being in the chair. The treasurer's report, showing a balance of £12 8s. 8d., was approved.

The Master's report stated that last term had seen steady progress, there now being a resident band capable of Double Norwich. Surprise ringing by this band should be attained in the near future. Week-end outings had also been very successful. No tower-bell peals had been rung, although there had been two attempts, including one made without the aid of the Society's usual conductors. Four peals had, however, been scored 'in hand,' including the first peal of Winchester Bob Major to be rung on handbells.

An encouraging feature of the term had been the appearance of several potential conductors in the ranks of the Society.

During the vacation three peals were scored during a long week-end at Hereford, including the Society's first peal of Surprise, Bristol Surprise Major, at Ross-on-Wye. Two members were to be congratulated on ringing their first peals, and a third on calling her first, during the vacation.

Officers elected were: President, the Rev. C. E. Wigg (Kemble); vice-presidents, Mr. H. Miles, M.A. (St. Cath's.), Dr. R. E. Harvard (Kemble), Dr. L. E. Sutton (Magd.). The Rev. T. R. Milford (Magd.), Dr. J. E. Spice (New), Miss B. Spice, B.A. (Som.); Master, Mr. W. F. Moreton (St. John's); secretaries, Miss K.

Higgins (L.M.H.), Mr. C. J. Dickinson (Magd.); treasurer, Mr. H. von der Heyde (B.N.C.). A new office, that of steeplekeeper, was created and filled by the election of Mr. M. H. Barrow (Exeter).

A suggestion by Mr. Moreton that Miss Spice should remain in office as Acting Master during her remaining term in residence was rejected by Miss Spice, who felt that she would prefer to enjoy a term free from responsibilities. The President then thanked Miss Spice, on behalf of the Society, for the unfailing energy and enthusiasm with which she had held the office of Master during the past two years.

Mr. Moreton was elected U.A.C.R. representative. A suggestion that this representative should always be the Master, ex-officio, was held over until the Society's constitution is revised in the near future.

The term's programme was then outlined. Three tower-bell peals and five outings, one being a coach trip, are included, as well as the normal practices and service ringing. The Society's ringing week at Shrewsbury and the U.A.C.R. tour at Chester (both in August) were also mentioned, together with a harvest camp at Honeybourne.

Mr. Slade (Kemble) then suggested that some of the Society's large balance should be used as gifts to the churches where the Society rang regularly, to compensate for wear and tear. Miss Spice pointed out that the Society's bank balance was a very variable quantity, and the suggestion was not pressed, although a vote of approval of the general principle was passed.

Lincoln Diocesan Guild

MR. JOHN A. FREEMAN THE NEW MASTER.

The annual meeting was held at Lincoln on April 26th. Ringing took place at the Cathedral and at St. Peter-at-Gowts in the afternoon, and the ringers attended evening at the Cathedral. Tea at the Wesley Schoolroom, Oasketgate, was followed by the business meeting, which was presided over by Canon Marsden, Vicar of Grimsby, in the unavoidable absence of the Dean of Lincoln (president).

Before the commencement of business, the chairman paid a tribute to the late Master, Mr. Rupert Richardson, who died in January last, and who had occupied the office since the death of the Rev. H. Law James in 1932. He said that besides being a great bellringer, Mr. Richardson was a great man in all respects.

Canon Carnegie, president of the Elbow Deaneries Branch, also spoke of the esteem in which the late Master was held, both as a ringer and as a good man and churchman. At the request of the chairman, the meeting stood in silence as a tribute of respect.

The Dean of Lincoln was re-elected president, and Mr. F. W. Stokes hon. secretary and treasurer. Mr. John A. Freeman, the well-known Master of the Cathedral company, was unanimously elected Master of the Guild. Mr. Freeman brings knowledge and experience to his office, and it is felt that he will prove a worthy successor to the two previous Guild Masters. Mr. Richardson was also one of the Guild's representatives on the Central Council, and Mr. Stanley Bennett, of Spalding, was elected to fill his place.

MEMORIAL TO MR. RUPERT RICHARDSON.

The question of a memorial to the late Master was brought before the meeting by Mr. J. A. Freeman, who said that at the committee meeting it had been suggested that a flat 6th bell should be added to the peal of twelve at the Cathedral, so as to afford a lighter eight for practice. This had been mentioned to the Cathedral authorities, who had signified their approval of the project. An estimate had been obtained for the work, which would cost £296, and in addition there would be the cost of a tablet in the Ringers' Chapel at the Cathedral and also one at Surfleet Olurch. It was unanimously resolved to proceed with the scheme, and the Guild Committee was authorised to deal with the whole matter. It was decided to invite subscriptions from the Exercise generally, as well as from the Guild, so that the many friends of the late Master would have an opportunity of contributing. Fuller details of the scheme will be issued later.

Since the close of the year 1946, two 'record' peals have been rung for the Guild, one at Harnston consisting of 16 Spliced Surprise Major methods, and one on handbells in 29 Minor methods, and the congratulations of the Guild were extended to the members taking part in these two peals.

Further ringing took place after the meeting at the Cathedral, St. Peter-at-Gowts and St. Giles. A notable feature was the large number of young ringers, and altogether the attendance approached the scale of the large pre-war numbers customary at the Lincoln meeting.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

A very successful meeting of the Portsmouth District was held at Bishop's Waltham on April 26th, with 50 members and friends present.

The eight bells were available at 2.30 p.m., as were also the ring of six at Swanmore. A short service at Bishop's Waltham was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. N. H. Stubbs), and one of the local ringers, Col. Clutterbuck, was the organist.

The business meeting followed tea, the Vicar presiding. The next meeting will be held at Catherington on July 19th.

Coventry Diocesan Guild

ANNUAL MEETING.

Coventry Diocesan Guild held its annual meeting at Stoke, Coventry, on April 19th. The attendance was small compared with last year, there being only 50 members and friends present.

The Guild service was preceded by ringing in the tower, and in the absence of the Rector, the Rev. E. Armon officiated. A splendid tea was served in the Parish Hall. The Rev. Armon occupied the chair at the business meeting which followed.

The hon. secretary's report revealed a total of 28 peals in a variety of methods with ten conductors. Eleven rang their first peal and 41 their first in the method. Total membership was 334, 20 hon. members, 177 non-resident and 137 ringing members. The loss by death of Arthur Taylor (Bedworth), Harold Argyle (Nuneaton) and Charles Rayson (Chilvers Coton) was recorded with regret. The balance sheet showed a balance of £37 10s. 10d. and the Bell Restoration Fund £16 19s. 5d.

Election of officers resulted as follows: President, the Rev. R. T. Murray (who sent a telegram apologising for absence); vice-presidents, Canon O. M. Jones, the Rev. J. H. Dingley, the Rev. F. S. Herbert, Mr. J. H. W. White and Mr. T. W. Chapman; hon. general secretary, Mrs. D. E. Beamish; district secretaries, Coventry and Rugby, Mr. T. Sheppard; Nuneaton, Mr. L. Trevor; Warwick and Stratford, Mr. D. Stanley; hon. auditor, Mr. A. H. Beamish.

A grant of £7 was made to the Chilvers Coton New Bells Fund from the Guild's Bell Restoration Fund.

Stratford-on-Avon was selected as the July meeting place. Mrs. M. Rayson and Dennis George, of Coton, were elected members.

Further ringing on the tower bells concluded an enjoyable meeting.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD

The annual meeting of the Guild was held in Clare College on April 23rd, when the president and treasurer (the Revs. A. C. Blyth and C. F. D. Moule respectively) were re-elected. The elections of junior officers resulted as follows: Master, R. Leigh (St. Catherine's), secretary, E. J. Lindley (Trinity); auditor, Lord Wrenbury (King's).

The statement of accounts was very satisfactory showing a total balance of £23. A discussion as to the best place to keep the library, bequeathed to the Guild by its founder, the late Rev. W. C. Pearson, was adjourned until the next meeting.

During the past year 12 tower-bell peals, including one each of Stedman Caters, Cambridge and Yorkshire Major, were rung. This is a record number for any one year. In addition 11 handbell peals, including one of Double Norwich, were rung.

The annual Guild Week will take place during the first week of September, in Birmingham and neighbourhood. Any members interested who have not received official notification are asked to communicate with the secretary.

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Thirty members, with welcome visitors from Wolverhampton, attended the quarterly meeting of the Western Branch, held at Ombersley on April 19th. The association service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. G. W. Gillingham).

Tea in the Church Room was followed by the business meeting, at which nine new ringing members were elected. Crowle was chosen for the next quarterly meeting, with Hanley Castle as an alternative.

After votes of thanks to the Vicar, the organist and the ladies who served the tea, a return was made to the tower and ringing, under the direction of the Branch Ringing Master, Mr. C. J. Camm. A large proportion of time was given to members not so conversant with the more advanced methods.

St. Martin's Guild

ASTON A SECOND HEADQUARTERS.

The first quarterly meeting of the year was held at Aston Parish Church on April 19th. For many years it has been customary to do so, and judging by the number present and the spirit that permeated the gathering, it is as popular as ever. The bells (12) were kept going in various methods until 4.30, when about 70 attended service in church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. F. F. Guy Warman).

An excellent tea, kindly provided by the ringers of Aston and their ladies, was partaken of in the Schoolroom. The Master (Councillor Paddon Smith) took the chair at the business meeting. Immediately after the minutes had been read, the chairman gave a hearty welcome to the Vicar, remarking that Aston was regarded by the St. Martin's Guild as their second headquarters, and he trusted that the happy relations which had existed for so many years would long continue.

The tower election of Mr. T. G. Myers, of Plymouth, as a life member, which took place prior to the peal of Stedman Cinques at Exeter Cathedral was duly ratified. Mr. Myers was also congratulated on ringing his first peal of Cinques on such a fine peal of bells.

It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Solihull on July 5th, and the bi-quarterly meeting at Shirley on June 7th, this being the occasion of the dedication of the two new trebles, making a peal of eight.

Mr. A. Walker, referring to the peal at Exeter, said he would like to congratulate the band on ringing such an excellent peal; it was a big job to ring a peal on these bells, and it was good to know that there were members now who could emulate those of July 5th, 1924, who rang the first peal of Stedman Cinques at Exeter Cathedral. He would also like to congratulate their Ringing Master, Mr. George Fearn, on the variety and quality of the peals rung during the past year, which included Yorkshire Royal and Maximus.

The Chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Aston ringers for providing such an excellent tea, and congratulated Mr. Fred Price and his friends on their efforts. This concluded the business, and whilst some returned to the tower others rang several good touches on the handbells, and so ended another good meeting at Aston.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

EARL OF SHAFTESBURY'S INTEREST.

It was a pleasure for the Wimborne Branch to have with them for their quarterly meeting at Wimborne St. Giles on April 12th their president, the Earl of Shaftesbury. He read the lesson at the service, joined the company of over 30 at tea, and, last but not least, joined in the ringing in the tower. His lordship takes part in the service ringing on Sundays, and told the writer that St. Giles' bells always pull off punctually every Sunday morning and evening to ringing time.

At the service a short address was given by the Rector (the Rev. J. C. Meyer), the singing being greatly helped by the young ringers from St. John's, Bournemouth, who are also chorists. The president, in his address at the tea, expressed his pleasure at seeing so many young members present.

Some German prisoners who work in the vicinity attended the service and were greatly interested on being invited to see the ringing in progress. A.R.M.

BANBURY BELLS

Sir,—While travelling from the Midlands in the early evening of Sunday, April 27th, I had occasion to stop at Banbury. To my intense delight the bells of the Parish Church were ringing out merrily, and I spent a most enjoyable half an hour listening to some very good touches of Triples. I would like, through the medium of your columns, to express my appreciation to those taking part.—Yours faithfully, S. R. MEAGER.

The Three Rejects

REASONS NOT LAMENTATIONS WANTED.

Dear Sir,—At its forthcoming meeting the Central Council will, no doubt, give serious consideration to the three peals which have been rejected by the Peals Analysis Committee in its total for 1946, viz., one each of Minor and Kent Major with the tenor covering and one with a non-ringing conductor.

There are, I know, many ringers who regard as harsh and unjust the somewhat odd rule which debars a keen conductor, who, by reason of infirmity, deformity or advanced years, cannot actually ring, from the pleasure of calling a peal. There are, also, others who, like myself, have at some time or other been confronted with the following three courses: (1) Calling a peal on an odd number of bells (above five) which would have performed a very definite service and amount of good to a struggling country band; (2) leaving out one of the members which would have done an equal amount of harm and created a local dissension; and (3) relinquishing the opportunity of a peal altogether for at least several years.

It is, therefore, highly desirable that the Council should approach these vexed problems with strict impartiality and, if it decides against a revision of the rules, give boldly the reason for its decision and not indulge in idle lamentations regarding Mr. Kippin's alleged 'stunts,' etc., or take refuge in worn-out dogma re not cutting across the well-established principles of the Exercise, etc.

In connection with the three peals under dispute it would be interesting to know whether the committee has actually acted according to precedent or whether any of the few similar peals rung in the past from time to time were recognised by the Council. If any such peal has been conceded previously members of the Exercise are, of course, justified in asking why the Peals Analysis Committee has suddenly gone 'all fussy' and become so particularly stringent in this matter and why 'fish' is made of some and 'fry' of others. Furthermore, is there a rule relating to 14-bell peals or did the famous and meritorious Birmingham handbell peal of Stedman Sextuples go unrecognised?

EXETER IN 1902 RECALLED

Dear Sir,—I have been most interested in your two last leading articles, as one living in those times to which you refer.

The first on the silent peal of Grandsire Triples (Holt's Original) by Messrs. J. C. Mitchell, W. H. L. Buckingham, C. F. Winney and G. T. McLaughlin, brings to my mind my first peal on handbells, in which my late wife took part, in 1892, and the complimentary letter from Mr. J. C. Mitchell in the following week's issue of 'Bell News.' I also received many congratulations from members of the Central Council at the annual meeting held at Birmingham that year.

Re the peals mentioned on Exeter Cathedral bells, the records are not quite accurate, as Mr. J. Austen has passed on. He conducted the first peal of Stedman Caters, not W. Pye, who rang 'Grandison' single-handed. W. Pye, I am afraid, felt its effects ever afterwards; one day when we were out on a ringing tour he remarked, 'I never felt exactly the same after any other peal I had rung.'

In addition to myself and Canon Coleridge, Mr. A. W. Brighton is a survivor of the first peal on the bells in 1902. Mr. Brighton also took part in the Stedman Caters with Mr. J. Thomas, and they are the only survivors of that peal. The late W. W. Gifford, of Salisbury, also rang in both these peals and was very fond of telling the tale why we rang Grandsire instead of Stedman for the first peal and the late Rev. F. E. Robinson's remark.—Yours sincerely,

GEORGE WILLIAMS.

Canada Replies

Dear Sir,—In 'The Ringing World,' March 28th, I read, 'Information wanted from Canada,' per E. Barnett. Mr. G. W. Foster arrived in Vancouver about the year 1907 or 1908. He rang with our band of round ringers for six months and then went to San Francisco. Some six months later he returned and rang again as a round ringer. We gradually changed our band with the addition of other change ringers to a very good band of change ringers. For a few weeks his half-brother, Jack Tassell, was with us; he went to California and has not been heard of since.

As to the peal rung and conducted by him, he first had us ring each quarter-peal. When sure of his band the whole 5,040 Grandsire, Holt's Original, was rung on July 1st, 1911. He left Vancouver and resided at Port Haney some 36 miles up the Fraser River from Vancouver and was very regular in driving in for Sunday ringing until about two years ago, when he entered the Royal Columbia Hospital at New Westminster, B.C., and died a few months later. We rang handbells over his grave at Port Haney, probably for the first time in Canada.

It was not Mr. Foster who came several hundred miles to conduct the peal at the dedication at Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, but Mr. E. Weatherby, from Los Angeles, California.—Yours truly,

A. C. LIMPUS.

NEW ZEALAND'S LOYAL GREETINGS

Dear Sir,—The bells of the Christchurch Cathedral were rung in honour of Princess Elizabeth's 21st birthday at 7.30 a.m. and were 'fired' 21 times. Dean Warren cabled to Princess Elizabeth the congratulations of the ringers and informed her that the bells had been rung. He received a cable the next day expressing her thanks, so we propose to frame her reply and hang it in the belfry.

We received a lot of publicity in our newspapers, which stated that the time schedule of the Empire makes it likely that the bells of the Christchurch Cathedral (New Zealand) would be the first in the British Empire to be rung in celebration of her birthday.—Yours sincerely,

G. N. SLOAN, Deputy Master,

Christchurch Cathedral Bellringers' Society.

Bath and Wells Association

Dear Sir,—Before being too critical over this association's declining membership it would be as well to look again into the figures quoted by '1947,' as it so happens that the smaller total membership in 1946 represents 158 affiliated towers as against 151 in 1936. All things being equal this should be a healthy sign.

As '1947' suggests a little food for thought, I would suggest a reference to your issue dated April 4th, in which appears notices of two quarterly meetings on April 12th in neighbouring towers, which happen to be in different deaneries, but only two miles apart. Whilst it was plain to all that one of the meetings was doomed to failure, nothing was done to avert disaster. Surely either or both of these secretaries could have contacted the other and saved the situation. It can only be assumed that the whole thing was left to the survival of the fittest.

It does seem necessary for someone to ask how the meetings in the Frome and Midsomer Norton Deanery can be expected to survive with none, other than the secretary, attending.

—Yours sincerely,
W. J. GAIT.

Hallatrow, Bristol.

CLASHING MEETINGS

Sir,—Some years ago the Saturdays of the month were, by mutual arrangement, divided up between certain Deaneries of the Bath and Wells Diocese, to avoid meetings clashing. It is to be regretted that the Bath branch, by appropriating the Saturday allotted to its nearest neighbour, should be the first to break this gentlemen's agreement.—Yours truly,

S. W.

Bath.

CAMBRIDGE SURPRISE MINOR

Sir,—Some few years ago a peal of Cambridge Minor was rung and a claim put in for seven different callings, with all 5.6's at back-stroke. I cannot remember the tower, but the figures were never published in 'The Ringing World.' We have just rung a similar peal and we would like to know if our figures are the same as those rung previously. Anyone interested can prick the figures from the following calling:—

6 ex 2 adding three bobs on 3.5 behind
6 ex 3 adding three bobs on 4.5 behind
6 ex 4 adding three bobs on 2.5 behind
5 ex 2 adding three bobs on 4.6 behind
5 ex 3 adding three bobs on 2.6 behind
6 ex 4 adding three bobs on 3.6 behind
6 ex 5 or 5 ex 6 as desired.

Thus the first six 720's each contain 12 bobs, and it does not matter which way the secondary observation pair are behind.—Yours faithfully,

E. R. MARTIN.

Kent County Association

100 MEMBERS WENT TO ELHAM.

Approximately 100 members representing 23 towers attended the meeting of the Canterbury District at Elham on April 19th. The Vicar (the Rev. R. H. J. Williams) conducted the service and Mr. G. H. Spice (general secretary) read the lesson.

Tea in the Vicarage, at the Vicar's suggestion, was held in two sessions, and the business meeting in the church. At this 11 new practising members from Barham were elected; here the ring of five bells have been augmented with the addition of a tenor. Margate was chosen for the next quarterly meeting (July 26th), and Whitstable (May 31st) for the next by-meeting.

After the meeting those seated on the south side of the church went off to tea, generously provided by the Vicar and Mrs. Williams, and the remainder spent the time in a conducted tour of the church.

Further ringing followed, and the bells of Barham and Lyminge were also open.

MEETING AT MARDEN.

The meeting at Marden on April 5th was not very well attended, only 21 ringers being present. The standard of ringing was, however, generally high. Four new members were elected, Miss J. Waters and Mr. M. Kibblewhite, of the local band, and Miss J. Pankhurst and Mr. G. Hitchcock, of Leigh. The election of Mr. D. Wood, of Northiam, was confirmed.

The attendance was much improved for the meeting at Cranbrook on May 3rd. The bells were somewhat difficult to ring mainly because of the long draught and the newness of the ropes. Those present persevered, however, and a number of touches of methods up to Double Norwich, Stedman and Oxford Bob Triples were rung successfully, the striking in some cases being of a very high standard in view of the difficulties of ringing.

At the business meeting four members were elected, Mr. O. G. Butler, the local captain, Mr. Thompson and Mr. Wilkes, both members of the Cranbrook band, and Mr. A. Beach, of Shipbourne.

BEXLEY, KENT.—On April 13th, 1,440 of Plain Bob Minor: K. Medhurst 1, R. Godfrey 2, Miss A. Holden 3, Miss B. Frost 4, A. Williams 5, A. Hall (conductor) 6.

OXFORD GUILD.—North Bucks Branch.—Annual meeting Newport Pagnell, Sat., June 7th. Bells 2.30. Service 3.30. Names by June 2nd.—R. H. Howson, 19, Greenfield Road, Newport Pagnell, Bletchley. 1393

ST. CRANTOCK, NEWQUAY, CORNWALL.—Rededication of restored ring of six by Rev. Chancellor R. Roberts, 2.30, Sat., June 14th. All ringers welcome. Reply by June 9th to Rev. H. Trehwella, Crantock. 1386

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON SOC.—Practices at St. Gabriel's, Pimlico, will in future be on Tuesdays at 6.15 p.m. during terms, and not on Mondays as previously.—P. R. Blackman, Hon. Sec. 1383

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD.—The Guild wishes to purchase, for its records, a copy of the 1929 jubilee photograph, and I should be grateful if anybody willing to sell a copy would notify me.—E. J. Lindley, Hon. Sec., Trinity College. 1381

SOUTH-EASTERN DIVISION.

The bells of St. Peter's, Tunbridge Wells, were 'manned' by ladies for Grandsire, Stedman and Double Norwich during the successful meeting of the South-Eastern Division on April 19th. The Vicar gave an interesting address at the service and welcomed the Guild. Thirty-five sat down to tea, the ladies being in the majority by one.

At the business meeting, Miss Belcher presided and 17 new members were elected, which brings the total of new members since the division was started last October to 40. Miss Belcher, for Sussex, and Miss Colgate, for Kent, were elected to the Central Committee. Ashford (Kent) was selected for the annual meeting in April, 1948.

For the time being it was decided to ask Miss Colgate to do all she could to get together the lady ringers in Kent. The dividing of the county for working purposes is to be left until the next annual meeting. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Hairs to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to Miss Colgate and Mr. B. Collison for arranging the meeting and having everything in readiness.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

The quarterly meeting of the North-Eastern Division at Wormingford on April 19th was attended by 24 members.

The Vicar (the Rev. D. E. Gilbert) conducted the service and tea was served in the school by Mrs. Leggett and helpers. At the business meeting three new members were elected, and Colchester was selected for the next meeting. Mr. E. Leggett (the local captain) was unfortunately unable to be present, having met with an accident the previous Thursday. Methods rung ranged from Bob Minor to London Surprise.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Some 41 members attended the North Norfolk Branch meeting at Buxton on April 19th and were entertained to tea by Mr. W. C. Duffield and friends. The service was conducted by the Vicar, and the Rev. E. W. Blyth presided at the business meeting, when Miss Bracey, Messrs. G. Moore, P. R. Banks and E. W. Martin were elected members. A collection for the Belfry Repair Fund amounted to £2 9s. The next meeting will be at Kingham on July 5th.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

The spring meeting of the Eastern District of the Yorkshire Association at Thorne in conjunction with the Doncaster and the Selby District Societies on April 26th was attended by 25 ringers.

A short service in the church was conducted by the Vicar, and tea followed in the Church Room. Three new members, Miss Margaret Graves (Carlton), Mr. A. Tate (Howden) and Mr. C. Thorley, jun. (Thorne), were elected at the business meeting. Goole was selected for the June meeting, and a collection for the Association's Bell Repair Fund realised 12s. 9d.

SUFFOLK GUILD

The nice light ring of six at Walsham-le-Willows was made good use of by the 28 members attending the meeting of the Bury St. Edmunds and Eye districts on April 19th. Ringing ranged from Plain Bob to Cambridge Surprise.

At the business meeting, which followed tea, the chief item of interest was the appointment of a district secretary for Eye District. After several names had been proposed, Mr. A. Lock, of Yaxley, was invited to stand, and it can now be reported he has accepted office.

The next district meeting for Eye District will be held at Eye, and for Bury St. Edmunds District it is hoped to arrange a meeting at Hopton on June 14th.

ADJUSTMENTS

There are periods when life has to be adjusted to a new set of circumstances. Such a condition confronts us to-day with prevailing inflation and loss of purchasing power of the £ sterling. Many are able to meet the new situation with an adjustment in their pay packets; others whose income is static find themselves at a disadvantage. This loss of purchasing power of the shilling or half-crown has repercussions in every walk of life. The Guild subscription, if it is not adjusted, will mean a lowering of the standard of service to members. Recently four Guilds or Associations—Southwell, Bath and Wells, Middlesex and Salisbury—have increased their subscriptions to enable members to enjoy a range of service on lines similar to those prevailing before the war. Other Guilds will have to adopt the same procedure unless they elect to eat rapidly into their reserves.

We would appeal to Guild committees, in considering their finances, not to limit their service to members in ratio to the decreased purchasing power of the subscription. A cheeseparating policy will not attract members; Guilds must offer as comprehensive a service as possible. In the forefront should be the oft-repeated urge from the Central Council that all who ring church bells shall be united in one body and fellowship. The programme of meetings and visits must be continued if the Exercise is to make progress, and there should be a printed report available for each member. Southwell Guild estimated that the cost of printing their report worked out at 2s. per copy, and at the Middlesex Association the cost of printing a peal was estimated at 4s. 6d. Knowing the charges to-day brought about by the changed circumstances, such figures cause no surprise. Costs in printing can only be effectively reduced by increased numbers, and that is why we welcome, and are anxious to procure, new readers for 'The Ringing World.' Printed Guild reports are of great value; some are really comprehensive documents, giving full particulars of practice nights, touches for conductors, peals rung and membership records. As is right and proper, just pride in continuous membership is frequently recorded in our pages. This long and faithful service to the Church is stimulated by the Guilds or Associations, who in their turn propagate that fellowship which is a remarkable thing about ringing.

No tower should be unable to adjust its finances to meet the new subscription rate. The secret is belfry organisation. Many towers work on the principle of a weekly subscription of twopence or threepence, which meets all Guild subscriptions and incidental expenditure. Others employ such means as steeppleage for raising funds. One Association at least collects a steeppleage fee from all members and visitors at meetings. Many ringers, we know, do not like imposing a steeppleage charge on visitors, feeling that the injunction in the Epistle for last Sunday, 'Use hospitality one to another without grudging,' should be the guiding principle in their fellowship within the Exercise. On the other hand visitors themselves would willingly pay for their enjoyment, as in other walks of life. For the good of the Exercise it is essential that our Guilds should be in strong positions financially, and if the greater part of the revenue comes from the practising members then is developed that sturdy independence, a characteristic of the present age. Cap-in-hand begging to meet the new costs should be discouraged.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Last Sunday, Mr. J. W. Wilkins, to celebrate his 84th birthday, travelled eight miles to take part in a quarter-peal of Bob Major at Beaconsfield for morning service, and in the evening he went to Hughenden and conducted a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, which he composed in 1881.

Oxford Guild's Doubles specialists have now rung 19. A new record for the Guild.

It is never too late to start. Mr. Ernest H. Brooks, now in his 73rd year, has rung his first peal at Gosberton, Lincs.

A bequest of £250 has been left by Mr. W. J. Baker, a well-known Devonshire farmer, for increasing the fine six at Exminster by two trebles.

Mr. George Williams thanks his many friends for letters and telegrams on reaching his 90th birthday. He hopes to reply to all in due course.

Life members and non-members of the Middlesex Association will in future be charged 1s. for their reports. There will be no charge for reports to honorary members.

Regarding the peal of Stedman Caters at St. Peter's, Brighton, on April 25th, this was the first peal of Stedman by A. Patrick Cannon, but not the first peal of Stedman Caters by Anthony M. Humphreys.

Happy birthday to Mr. W. R. Melville! His 75th was celebrated at Highclere, Hants, by ringing his first peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major with five others to the calling of his son-in-law, Mr. Charles H. Kippin.

Another birthday recorded is fifteen-year-old Joan Beresford, who called and rang her first peal on her natal day at Mavesyn Kidware, Staffs. Well done, Joan! Her twin brothers, who rang the treble and tenor, had then not reached their 13th birthday (May 12th). Are they the youngest trio in one family to ring a peal at first attempt?

BELFRY GOSSIP

At the annual meeting of the Hertford County Association last April at St. Albans, Mr. G. W. Cartmel was presented by the members with a silver watch, in recognition and appreciation of his services as assistant and general secretary for 56 years. The presentation was made by Mr. J. C. Mitchell, a very old friend. The watch was suitably engraved. Mr. Cartmel is one of the few remaining original members of the Association, which was formed on October 29th, 1884.

In the comparatively short compass of eight months, Mr. Sidney O'C. Holloway, of Smethwick, has completed peals of Cambridge from Minor to Maximus. They were rung at Evesham (Royal), St. Chad's, Birmingham (Major), Redcliffe (Maximus), Great Barr (Minor).

Hillingdon ringers had a successful tour of Surrey last Saturday, visiting Reigate, Dorking and Guildford. The Editor was able to apologise to them for the slip in the Middlesex Association report. It was the Harlington band that had joined the Guild and whose ring of six bells have been augmented to eight.

Encouraged by the success of their initial effort, the Bournemouth ringers' rally for 1948 has been fixed for April 24th, a time of the year when Bournemouth is usually at its best. An added attraction being planned by Mr. Arthur V. Davis is a coach tour of neighbouring towers.

Before H. W. Milford, of Plymouth, sailed for Simonstown, South Africa, on May 1st, he rang in a farewell quarter-peal of Stedman Triples at St. Andrew's, Plymouth, on April 27th. The band was H. W. Milford (first of Stedman) 1, G. H. Myers 2, S. O'Shaughnessy 3, A. Mitchelmore 4, A. W. Myers 5, H. F. Myers 6, T. G. Myers (conductor) 7, D. F. Wheeler 8.

CENTRAL COUNCIL AT EXETER

A Battered but Busy City

BY A. W. SEARLE

(Chairman of Exeter District, Guild of Devonshire Ringers; Member of Central Council 1903-1927).

THE boldness of the Devonshire Guild Committee in inviting the Central Council to hold its Whitsun conference this year at Exeter and the confidence of the C.C. Executive in accepting it have every prospect of being justified. There were some qualms among the Guild Committee about adequacy of accommodation because bombings by German aircraft had taken heavy toll of halls, hotels and cafes, or because requisitioning for public emergency purposes had absorbed so much of what was left undamaged. However, through co-operation by ecclesiastical and civic authorities, difficulties have been overcome, and local arrangements entrusted to Preb. E. V. Cox (Guild president), Mr. F. C. Smale (Guild secretary), Mr. E. W. Biffen (Ringing Master for the district), Mr. T. Laver (Guild treasurer) and an anonymous coadjutor are now completed.

Exeter itself needs no adulation. It is the gateway to the South-West and for strategic and geographical reasons must have been always of outstanding importance. There is a tradition that it has greater antiquity than London, but Exeter can be content with evidence of Celtic, Roman, Saxon and Norman occupation. It always has been a local capital; it is the capital of Devon to-day, and a separate Parliamentary constituency; it is also a county borough, and has regular Assizes and Sessions. The line of Reeves, Provosts and Mayors can be traced for 1,020 years. History shows that the city has endured many sieges, more, probably, than any other comparable place; it has received several marks of royal approval for its loyalty, and Queen Elizabeth conferred the motto, Semper Fidelis, 'Ever Faithful.'

ANCIENT WALLS.

Exeter must have had earthworks around it in very early times; the Romans are supposed to have erected walls, but there is no doubt that the Saxons and Normans completely encircled the old city. There is to this day Athelstan's tower betwixt Northernhay and Rougemont public grounds in the heart of the city, and the shell of the Norman castle on Rougemont crest. Nothing remains of the Castle itself beyond the gateway; the buildings now within the Castle yard are used for Devon County Council, Assize and Quarter Sessions and other purposes. There are considerable portions of the walls still in position on Northernhay, along Bartholomew Street, Westgate and on Southernhay; some bastions also remain.

AIR RAID DAMAGE.

The present century brought along a policy of conservation of the city's remaining antiquities, which were considerable, but air raids during the war years 1939-45 caused great havoc. There were 19 of consequence, resulting in 265 fatalities, 788 other casualties, destruction of 1,400 to 1,500 houses, 400 other buildings and nine churches or chapels; damage to between 16,000 and 17,000 houses, 800 other buildings and 22 churches or chapels.

More than half the heart of the shopping centre of the city was wrecked and great gaps were torn in districts composed mainly of working class dwellings. No other place

A WELCOME

In the name of all the members of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, I am writing to bid you welcome to our county. Your official visits to the South-West must necessarily be rare and therefore this one is all the more appreciated. Although you are coming primarily to transact much important business, we hope that you will be able to find time to enjoy yourselves, even without Devonshire cream! Personally, I am looking forward to tea time on Whit Tuesday when I shall hope to meet several old friends and make some new ones.—Yours sincerely, suffered more severely in proportion to size, and delegates may be surprised by the extent of the devastation that will confront them. Tons of high explosive bombs were dropped, but the most terrifying things were incendiary oil bombs. Thousands of these fell in the early hours of May 4th, 1942, and fires, fanned by a strong wind, swept through the city.

E. V. COX (President),

So it came about that Exeter lost several fine premises with ornamental timber fronts four centuries old, a Norman house, some notable Elizabethan or earlier buildings in stone, its general post office (one of the best equipped in the provinces), its modern arcade of shops, blocks of Georgian houses that had no rivals in the south-west region, and a mediaeval treasure known as the hall of the College of Vicars Choral, which had irreplaceable panelling and furnishings.

But it still has the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Mary, portions of which date from the 12th century with unique towers belonging to the Norman period, though the main portions of the existing building are in the Decorated style, or early 14th century. Special features are the vaulting (the longest unbroken length in England), the choir screen carrying the organ, minstrels' gallery, bishop's throne 50ft. high and beautifully carved, and a 14th century astronomical clock.

The choir aisle on the south side received a direct hit during the war and great damage was done by the explosion and blast. A good deal has been repaired, but much remains to be done. The Bishop's Palace almost adjoining the choir was also damaged; it is almost entirely 19th century; the charming grounds are open to the public; the Bishop lives elsewhere.

THE GUILDHALL.

Then there is the Guildhall where, by permission of the Mayor (Alderman W. O. Wills), the conference will be held on Whit Tuesday. The Guildhall is in the High Street and cannot be missed, for its portico constructed in 1594 is carried on granite pillars over the footpath. There is nothing else in the city to correspond with it. The hall itself dates from 1330; it was completely restored in 1888. The armorial bearings on the sides are those of mayors, incorporated trades and city benefactors.

The Mayor's Parlour over the portico has a fine collection of portraits of civic worthies and there is a remarkable treasure in civic regalia and plate. Other places of interest are the Albert Memorial Museum and Art Gallery in Queen Street, St. Nicholas' Priory in the Mint (the Priory and an earlier foundation have been traced back to the time of King Ethelred; the Mint is a survival of the period when money was coined in the city), the Tuckers' and Weavers' Hall in Fore Street, St. Mary Steps Church with an antique clock having figures that strike the hours or quarters and are popularly known as Matthew the Miller and his two sons, but the central figure represents Henry VIII.; and Mol's Coffee House in the Cathedral yard, dating from 1596. Parliament Street is facetiously dubbed the narrowest in existence, but it is merely an alley way to afford side entrances to business premises fronting the High Street; there is no roadway. The city had a remarkably fine series of subterranean passages, but only a small portion can now be viewed, usually by special arrangement.

GREAT LOSS.

There are rings in the south tower of the Cathedral (12), St. David's, St. Thomas', St. Edmund's and Heavitree (8) and St. Petrock's (6). Neither St. Edmund's nor St. Petrock's can be used at present; the others are in good order. There is a fine set of six awaiting installation at St. Mark's; these bells formerly hung in St. John's tower, Fore Street, and were given to St. Mark's when St. John's was dismantled.

The north tower of the Cathedral contains Great Peter, on which the clock hours are struck. It was reputed to be six tons, but is actually four tons. There was talk of using it as the tenor of the ring in the south tower when the latter was restored, but instead the old tenor ('Grandison') was recast and increased in weight from about 60 to 72 cwt.

A great campanological loss was caused by the destruction of St. Sidwell's Church during the war. A high explosive bomb struck the tower and then fell on the church. Nearly the whole of the latter was destroyed. The tower was badly shaken, but the bells remained in position. Examination revealed very dangerous conditions, and the structure was blown down by explosives. The bells—10 with tenor of 24 cwt.—fell with it; some were retrieved in sound condition; some were broken. Re-hanging will take place in due course by Messrs. Taylor, but several years must elapse before rebuilding of church and tower can be effected. St. Sidwell's was for many years the hub of change ringing in Devon with the brothers Shepherd—Ferris, Edwin, Alfred and Frank—as foremost exponents. All have now passed on; Edwin, the last survivor, died a year or so ago.

CALL CHANGE RINGERS.

There are only two other tens in Devon—one at Cullompton and the other at St. Andrew's, Plymouth. Charles, Plymouth, another ten, was lost during enemy blitzes. There are many good eights in various parts of the county. It should be understood that round and call change ringers are very strong in Devon and that the raising and falling of bells in peal and accurate striking are of prime importance. Scientific bands who have toured the county know that methods with the tenor turned in are not appreciated by round and call change men and are a drawback rather than a help towards the progress of the Guild, which comprises about 50 towers. But if there is good ringing, with the tenor beating the big drum, they can be interested and sometimes tempted to embark on Grandsire and Stedman.

WESTON UNDERWOOD, BUCKS.—On April 24th, a quarter-peal of Doubles, being 480 Plain Bob, 780 Grandsire: Miss E. Sharp 1, A. Armstrong 2, V. Adams (first as conductor) 3, O. Sharp 4, T. Watts 5, G. Wills 6. First quarter for ringers of 5 and 6. Rung as a wedding compliment to the Hon. Peggy Bowyer, only daughter of Lord Denham, churchwarden.

Midland Counties Guild*FIRST ANNUAL MEETING AT BURTON.

Burton-on-Trent, famed throughout the country for producing that stimulating and refreshing beverage 'beer,' was also noted by the Exercise during the latter part of the last century for its famous band of ringers at the Church of St. Paul.

The Rev. J. H. Fish, Messrs. J. Jagger, J. Austin, J. Griffen, A. Wakley and W. Wakley, to mention only a few, were indeed the pioneers of Surprise ringing. On November 20th, 1880, the first 'silent' peal of Stedman Triples was rung in memoriam to the Rev. J. H. Fish, Vicar of St. Paul's.

Following upon the first world war this tower was again to the fore when Mr. J. H. Swinfield, Ringing Master, organised that equally famous 'Wednesday' band, which rang so many peals of Stedman Triples, conducted by Mr. M. Swinfield, who in a remarkably long period of successes conducted over 230 different compositions of Stedman Triples.

This church, so enriched in ringing history, was chosen as the tower for the first annual meeting of the above Guild, which took place on May 10th, when upwards of 70 ringers and friends assembled from Melton Mowbray, Somerby, Derby, Stoke-on-Trent, Norton-in-the-Moors, Cheadle, Lullington, Hoar Cross, Ashby, Repton, Ticknall, Netherseale, Overseale, Measham, Winhill and the two Burton towers.

A short service was conducted by the Rev. Father Davis, followed by tea in St. Margaret's Schoolroom, which was kindly provided by the local company.

At the business meeting, Mr. B. G. Key, chairman, welcomed the members to St. Paul's in the absence of the Vicar, the Rev. W. Willis-Price. One non-resident life, three ringing and ten honorary members were elected members of the Guild.

After the presentation of the balance sheet by the treasurer, Mr. J. H. Brittan, the secretary, Mr. J. W. Cotton, presented his review of the first year's activities covering the ten meetings held with an average attendance of 33 and the 16 peals rung.

Officers elected were: President, Mr. W. W. Worthington; chairman, Mr. W. H. Curson; treasurer, Mr. J. H. Brittan; secretary, Mr. J. W. Cotton; committee, Mr. E. W. Beads-moore, Mr. B. G. Key, Mr. W. J. Leach and Mr. Syd Jones. The committee were empowered to revise the Guild rules, and the second Saturday in May was chosen as the date for the 1948 annual meeting.

The beautiful ring of ten was rung to standard methods during afternoon and evening, and some good practice was put in by new ringers. J.W.C.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION*JUNIORS' FIRST SOCIAL.

First annual social of the junior section of the Western District of the Hertford Association was a popular event on April 26th at Hemel Hempstead. Ringers numbering over 100 came from a wide area and found Donald Cartwright (Tring) a sprightly M.C. Other members of his committee were Olive M. Martin and Pamela A. Martin (Berkhamsted), Terence G. Morton and Betty Upton (Apsley) and Derek Latchford (Hemel Hempstead).

Ringing naturally found a place in the programme. Apart from touches of Bob Major and Bob Minor, Grandsire Doubles was rung amusingly by Messrs. W. Ayre, T. J. Southam, A. V. Good, W. C. Hughes, Miss Rona Minal and Miss Brenda Fells.

The general secretary of the Association entered fully into the festivities, contributing not only a couple of songs, but gave a congratulatory speech commending the keenness and enthusiasm of the juniors.

Devon Guild of Ringers*PREB. COX RETIRING.

Preb. E. V. Cox, president of the Devonshire Guild, has resigned the living of Tedburn St. Mary, where he and Mrs. Cox have had eight strenuous years. He had hoped to have been Rector when the six bells, unring for about 70 years, were rehung, but although the required funds are in hand, the restoration work remains in abeyance.

Preb. Cox has been in the ministry 43 years and decided to relinquish parochial responsibilities, but will continue activities in connection with diocesan organisations. He and Mrs. Cox will take up residence in July at West Hill, Ottery St. Mary, where, unfortunately, the bells are also awaiting restoration before they can be rung.

BRANCH MEETING AT TOTNES.

A quarterly meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch was held at Totnes on April 26th. Ringing took place throughout the afternoon, and this was followed by a service in church which was conducted by Preb. J. Heywood Waddington (Vicar), who heartily welcomed the visitors.

After tea at Warwick's Cafe, the business meeting followed, presided over by the Rev. W. R. D. Mills (chairman). It was reported that the order for the Walker Memorial Tablet had been placed, and that delivery would be in 810 weeks' time. One associate member from West Teignmouth was elected. The next quarterly meeting will be at Ipplepen on July 26th, subject to necessary permission, and a joint meeting with the South-West Branch will take place at Buckfast Abbey on June 21st. Votes of thanks were accorded to the Vicar and to Mr. Cooper (Newton Abbot), the organist. Ringing included Grandsire Doubles for the younger members, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, and Kent Treble Bob Major.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY*ANNUAL MEETING AT LEEDS.

The Society's 58th annual meeting was held at Leeds Parish Church on April 26th. The bells were rung up at 3 p.m. and touches were enjoyed at intervals until 8.45 p.m.

At the business meeting the president, Mr. J. McGlenn, was in the chair, and members were present from Armley, Batley, Bramley, Bradford Cathedral, Burley, Drighlington, Guseley, Headingley (St. Chad's), Idle, Elland, Leeds, Ossett, Pudsey, Rothwell and Tadcaster.

New members elected were Miss June Mitchell, Messrs. J. Ward, F. Bennett, M. L. Bennett, William Walker, W. Tattersall (all of Ossett), and M. Brown (Drighlington).

The vote of thanks to the Vicar of Leeds, churchwardens and local company was proposed by Mr. H. Lofthouse and seconded by Mr. Simpson.

A resolution confirming the nominations received at Armley was proposed by Mr. W. H. Senior and seconded by Mr. F. Davison, and the following were duly elected: President, Mr. J. McGlenn; vice-presidents, Messrs. S. H. Barron, F. Hutchinson and T. W. Strangeway; secretary and treasurer, Mr. H. Lofthouse; Ringing Master, Mr. W. Dixon.

HAWKHURST AND DISTRICT GUILD

Apart from the fact that some regular attenders were unavoidably absent, quite a good meeting was held at Sedlescombe on April 19th.

Owing to lack of facilities, ringers were asked to make their own tea arrangements. A break of one hour was allowed for this, after which the business meeting was held in the tower. It was decided that the next meeting should be a joint meeting at Rye with the Sussex County Association, to be held on May 24th.

Methods rung included Plain Bob, Kent, Stedman and Grandsire.

OBITUARY

MR. CHARLES H. BELTON.

In the passing of Mr. Charles H. Belton at the age of 84, the Hinckley District of the Leicester Guild has lost one of its oldest and most respected members. As captain of the local band, Mr. Belton leaves behind him an example of devout and most regular service in the Barwell belfry for over 56 years. His unflinching cheerful and generous disposition will be sadly missed by all who knew him. He was the eldest member of a family of three generations of ringers—his son, grandson and granddaughter are still members of the local band.

Mr. Belton rang 21 peals for the Midland Counties Association, and his absence from the belfry for service and practice during his service could be counted on the fingers of both hands.

As gardener at the Rectory for 56 years until his retirement a year ago, Mr. Belton served under the late Canon A. J. G. Tittley and his father, the Rev. Richard Tittley.

The funeral took place at Barwell on May 5th, preceded by a service at the Parish Church, when ringers from the Hinckley District paid their last respects to a grand gentleman. At the graveside a course of Grandsire Triples was rung by C. R. Belton 1-2, G. A. Newton 3-4, A. Ballard 5-6, and L. Trevor 7-8.

MR. THOMAS LAYBOURN.

Fortunately an appreciation of a sixteen-year-old is a rare occurrence, but by the death of Thomas Laybourn the Exercise loses one of its most promising pupils. His death under tragic circumstances was reported in the 'Ringing World' on May 9th.

Tom was a member of a young and enthusiastic band at Dagenham, Essex, and although only 16 already had peals of Grandsire Doubles, Triples and Bob Major to his credit. Keenly interested in composition and proof, he would undoubtedly have made his mark and been a credit to the Exercise of which he was so fond.

A regular attendant at the South-West District meetings of the Essex Association, his smiling face, unflinching cheerfulness and his youthful high spirits will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

F.V.G.

MR. FREDERICK WOOLWAY.

For many years the keen captain of the ringers of St. Peter's, Ightham, Kent, Mr. Frederick Woolway died suddenly in the Sevenoaks and Holmesdale Hospital on April 14th, aged 56. He leaves a widow and daughter. The funeral took place in St. Peter's Churchyard on April 19th, the bells being rung half-muffled before and after the service and also a quarter-peal on the following morning.

R.G.R. writes: His willingness at any time to lend a hand brought him many friends, and the quiet but effective way in which he kept his band going will be long remembered at Ightham and also in the Maidstone district.

He will also be remembered for the pressure he brought to bear upon the Church authorities, soon after he assumed the captaincy, when the tenor bell was going badly. Previously the tenor, having cracked, was welded and again she cracked. The church authorities suggested that the firm who welded the tenor should rectify her, but Mr. Woolway stood firm for a recast. After one ringer had alluded to the 'frying pan tenor' in the columns of 'The Ringing World,' more pressure was added by local ringers and, happy to relate, the tenor was recast. I think Mr. Woolway rang in the first peal on the bells after she was recast.

BIRMINGHAM.—At Bishop Ryder's Church on April 27th, 1,280 Cambridge Surprise Major: J. Scott 1, J. F. Harvey 2, G. W. Critchley (conductor) 3, J. Walton (first of Surprise) 4, S. G. Chaplin 5, E. T. Lloyd 6, G. E. Fearn 7, J. S. Mason 8.

LETTERS

'FOUR SCORE YEARS AND TEN'

Dear Sir, — Your interesting article on 'Grandison' has revived many memories of those who took part in the peal of Grandsire and Stedman Caters in 1902 and 1903. As a young ringer in those days and one who has been a regular subscriber to 'The Ringing World' over a very long period, I looked upon some of those ringers as 'heroes' in the same way as the younger generation to-day visualise their 'soccer,' cricket and picture favourites.

Memories of the 'Old Reverend,' the gigantic Canon Coleridge, the burly W. W. Gifford, the 'dapper' A. W. Brighton, the exploits of the brothers Pye and particularly the prodigious feats of strength of 'Bill,' the travels of 'Ike' Shade and last, but not least, George Williams, crowd upon the writer, and even after 45 years their names stand out like beacon lights on a dark night. How could it be otherwise when one reflects that at least four of them have created ringing history by having over a thousand peals each to their credit.

I was but a lad in those days. They were grown men and how, alas, I hoped to follow in their footsteps. My profession, however, never gave me the time to devote to the Exercise and those early aspirations never reached fruition. A modest 504 of Grandsire Triples on handbells was the extent of my achievements, but I had the satisfaction of ringing it with the first lady ever to ring a peal.

Of all those who took part in those Exeter peals only three are now with us. Strange to say, within a very short space of time I have had the pleasure of seeing the two senior of them. Canon Coleridge at 89 I 'spotted' getting into a train at Reading Station. He looked well and his great frame stood out conspicuously. A year his senior, I had the opportunity of spending the day with my uncle, George Williams, on the occasion of his 90th birthday. It was a memorable occasion and one I shall always cherish.

It was astonishing to walk with him in the afternoon around the new housing estates at Eastleigh and listen to many of his well-reasoned ideas of things in general of the present day. He was delighted that many of the younger generation should have remembered him on his birthday, and congratulatory telegrams came from as far as Easbourne and Folkestone. Many local towers also sent greetings, and among these were Portsea, Wickham, Winchester, etc. There were many letters conveying greetings from ringers and friends all over the country. There were some wonderful messages of affection for the 'Old Master,' who to-day is so hale and hearty and still plays such an important part in the administration of ringing as Master of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild.—Yours faithfully,

VICTOR P. A. G. SCARDFIELD.

East Hagbourne.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER

Dear Sir,—One often reads in 'The Ringing World' of sons and daughters following in father's footsteps, but the Whitstable peal published in 'The Ringing World' dated May 9th is noteworthy for the fact that Miss Brenda Philpott's enthusiasm for bellringing proved strong enough to capture her father's interest with the result that father and daughter have scored their first peal together. Congratulations to them both.

Dunstable.

J. NEWMAN.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Seventeen members and friends attended the recent meeting of the Cambridge District at Bourn. A short ringers' service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. J. Scott), and at the business meeting Mr. J. Mann (Trumpington) was elected a member. Barrington was chosen for the next meeting. Ringing included Stedman, Double Norwich, Cambridge, London and Superlative Surprise Major.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild

SUBSCRIPTION INCREASED.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild at their annual meeting on May 10th decided to increase the annual membership subscription from 1s. 6d. to 2s. 6d. and the subscription for non-resident life ringing members from 2s. 6d. to 5s.

The meeting was held at the Assembly Rooms, Salisbury, the Earl of Shaftesbury (president) being in the chair. In reviewing the work of the Guild, the President urged the importance of training young ringers and introducing them to the Guild. 'Bellringing as it is practised in this country,' he said, 'must never be allowed to die out, and we must be careful to bring in the young and train them to follow in our footsteps.'

The financial report, which showed a credit balance of £121 8s. 3d., was presented by the hon. secretary (the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards).

The following officers were elected: Vice-presidents, the Dean of Salisbury (the Very Rev. H. C. Robins) and Canon A. L. Helps, Vicar of Puddletown; Master, the Rev. C. C. Cox, Vicar of Lyme Regis; hon. secretary, the Rev. F. Ll. Edwards; assistant hon. secretary, Mr. W. C. West, of Melksham; committee, Canon R. E. P. Gorrington, Messrs. E. Coward, J. I. Davis, E. T. P. Field and P. Harding.

Messrs. C. J. Pretty, of Holt, G. H. Archer, of Melksham, G. Norton, of Salisbury, and J. Sandel, of Amesbury, were elected life members.

The meeting was followed by the Guild service in the Cathedral, at which the Bishop of Salisbury (Dr. Geoffrey Lunt) preached.

In his address, Dr. Lunt thanked the Guild for their services to the Church and said: 'I want you, as you go to your bellringing Sunday by Sunday, and on the weekdays too, to realise that you are going about God's work and that you are acting as His mouthpiece and messengers.'

The offertory for the Sarum St. Thomas' Bells Restoration Fund amounted to £5 2s. 9d. At the conclusion of the service a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by four members from Lyme Regis.

Thirty members and friends attended the meeting of the Dorchester Branch at Buckland Newton on April 26th. The ringing, under the direction of Mr. F. Precey (branch ringing master), consisted of Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob and periods of instruction for some keen young members of the local band.

The Guild's service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. F. FitzPatrick), who gave an interesting address, and Canon A. Wilkinson Markby, chairman of the branch, read the lesson. Cups of tea were provided by a band of ladies, headed by Mrs. FitzPatrick.

Business transacted was a decision to hold the summer meeting of the branch at Martins-town, where a new ring of six bells is expected to be ready for dedication in June, and the election of two new associate members.

SELBY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

ANNUAL DINNER SUGGESTED.

At the monthly meeting of the Selby and District Society at Eastington on April 19th, about 20 members were present. A short service in church with an address by the Vicar (the Rev. D. Wilkinson) was followed by an excellent tea in the Church Hall.

Business included the election of three new ringing members. A suggestion regarding the possibility of holding an annual dinner was referred to the extraordinary general meeting of members to be held shortly. The secretary is to try and arrange combined mid-week practices at closely situated towers. Members were reminded that the next meeting is due to be held at Tadcaster in May and also that the new peal of six bells at Carlton will be dedicated on May 10th at 3 p.m.

During the afternoon the fine ring of six was rung to various methods, including Woodbine, Violet, Oxford Bob, Double Oxford, St. Clements.

HALIFAX AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

ACTIVITY STARTS AGAIN.

The above Association held a committee meeting at Lindley on May 10th. This was the first meeting of the Association since April, 1939. A new secretary was appointed—Mr. S. Manchester, of 16, Green Street, Meltham.

It was decided to hold the next six-bell contest for the Association's cup on July 5th, 1947, at Longwood, or, failing Longwood, Lindley would be approached.

All arrears in subscriptions for the past few years during the period of inactivity of the Association are to be waived, and subscriptions will be due on July 5th for 1947-48. An appeal is issued to all local ringers to join the Association and bring new members with them and make the forthcoming contest a success.

The following towers were represented: Friezland, Liversedge, Longwood, Huddersfield, Meltham and the local company.

YORKSHIRE

News from Yorkshire predominates in this issue. Outstanding is the decision of Canon C. C. Marshall to resign the presidency of the Yorkshire Association, an office he has held with distinction since 1910. Next year Canon Marshall will have completed 50 years in the ministry, of which 40 years were spent as Vicar of St. Chad's, Far Headingley, Leeds. His resignation from both offices has been prematurely advanced by an unfortunate car accident last January. The Exercise re-echoes the sentiments of the general secretary, Mr. L. W. G. Morris, that a 'restful retirement will restore him to good health in the shortest possible time.' Since its foundation in 1875, the Yorkshire Association has had only three presidents. The first holder of the office was the late Jasper W. Snowden, whose great contributions to the art of ringing were, until the war intervened, commemorated by an annual dinner. So far it has not been possible to revive this function which brought ringers from all over the country to Yorkshire to pay homage to the memory of one of the giants of the Exercise. The next president was his brother William.

Ringling to-day in Yorkshire, as in most parts of the country, is progressive. The Association made last year 156 new members, and has now a record total of 1,357. The annual report indicates that in most towers there is no dearth of ringers, some having sufficient for two companies. Mentioned in the report is the young band at Whiston, near Rotherham, and it is a pleasure to feature in this issue as our illustration a photograph of these boys. We trust that, encouraged by their good start, the company will keep together and advance. Peal ringing in Yorkshire during 1946 was again satisfactory, with 96 on tower bells and one in hand. There were 36 members who rang their first peal and 167 instances of members who rang their first peal in one particular method. That nearly one-fifth of the members have taken part in the peals spread over 65 churches indicates that peal ringing still has a wide appeal, which the report suggests is a healthy sign.

The variety of Surprise methods is a feature of the peal analysis, and Aldenham Surprise Major appears for the first time. In other parts of the country ringers will be surprised to note that the peal of Oxford Bob Triples is recorded as the first by the Association. This, comments the report, is a very old method and one which is widely practised in some parts of the county, but Triples have never been as popular as Major in Yorkshire, which is, perhaps, the explanation why Oxford Triples has not appeared in the Association's records before. The year has seen first peals having been scored on the bells at Middleham, Bedale and Sprotborough, and on the present bells at Doncaster and Bawtry. Three towers appeared again after long absences—Kildwick after 18 years, Wetherby after 24 years, and Fishlake, where the only other peal on the bells was rung in 1910. Thus from the broad acres of Yorkshire is told the story of vigorous and enthusiastic ringing in many centres. The zenith of Yorkshire ringing has not yet been reached, and if proper attention to attracting young people to the belfry is fully encouraged, the present membership could be substantially enlarged.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

To the memory of the eight heroic Mumbles life-boatmen who sacrificed their lives in the gallant attempt to save the crew of the ill-fated 'Samtampa,' a half-muffled quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung at Sketty Church, Swansea, with 1 and 2 leading, by W. Meredith, F. Buttery, F. Thorne, J. T. Williams, L. Knight, A. Edwards, A. Hoare (conductor) and W. Rees.

Mr. Ernest J. Padgett, of Barnby Don, rang the most peals for the Yorkshire Association in 1946 with 24 to his credit. He rang his first peal as recently as May, 1945.

The band at Henfield congratulate Miss Stella Wickens on ringing the treble so faultlessly to the peal of Double Norwich. They would also like to thank Mr. Cruttenden, the local captain, for providing the excellent tea afterwards.

The peal at Cheriton, Kent, on May 10th, was rung by the ringers of 'Ye Olde Cinque Ports' and commemorated the presentation of the Medaille Militaire to Mr. Winston Churchill by the French Government on that day.

Good wishes are extended to Mr. Norman Chaddock, of Broom, Rotherham, who will be entering Peterborough Teachers' Training College in June. We have a number of ringers in Training Colleges; it is surprising that Mr. P. Cannon has not assembled six or eight of them together for a peal.

Our suggestion that Mr. Trollope's book, 'The College Youths,' should be in Guild Libraries has brought forth a letter from Mr. A. C. Hazelden stating that the manuscript of the book is stored in the library of the Guildford Guild. The library has also an unpublished manuscript of his 'London Ringers of the 17th and 18th centuries.'

BELFRY GOSSIP

Apart from the footnote published in our peals column, the peal at Truro Cathedral had several points of interest. It was the 60th peal together of the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Roberts, the 50th together of Messrs. T. G. and A. W. Myers, and recalled to Mr. G. H. Myers that he rang the 9th to the first peal on the bells on December 26th, 1911. Shortly before the peal commenced the infant daughter of the conductor (Mr. C. E. Lanxon) was baptised in the Cathedral by the Rev. A. S. Roberts.

In this issue we record the dedication of the bells of Carlton-juxta-Snaith, Yorkshire. The first peal on the bells was rung on May 17th.

The three Beresford children who recently rang their first peal are appearing in the B.B.C. 'Midland Magazine' programme tomorrow (Saturday) at 5 p.m. They have made a record of Mavesyn Ridware bells to be used during the programme. Wavelength 296.2 m.

Latest applicant for the brochure for beginners issued by Mr. A. E. Sellers of the Beverley and District Society comes the Holy Trinity Bellringers' Association, Hobart, Tasmania. An active society has existed at Hobart for many years; their bells came from the Whitechapel Foundry in 1846.

Mr. E. Bishop, sen., now in his 83rd year, rang the 23½ cwt. tenor at Rotherfield, Sussex, to 1,260 Stedman Triples on May 4th, when Bishop Horden dedicated the new side chapel. He has been a regular Sunday service ringer for 65 years and has completed 40 years as treasurer to the Rotherfield Guild of Bellringers. Mr. Bishop informs us that the Rotherfield band has never missed ringing for morning and evening services (except during the ban) for 40 years. Can any other church equal this?

Canon Marshall Retires

With very real regret and sorrow, the Yorkshire Association at their annual meeting at St. Chad's, Far Headingley, Leeds, received the resignation of their president, Canon C. C. Marshall, M.A., due to the effects of injuries sustained in a motor-car accident last January. For the same reason he recently resigned the living of St. Chad's.

The decision was first announced to a special meeting of the committee, and Canon Marshall suggested as a possible successor the Rev. C. O. Ellison, who possessed great qualities and was keenly interested in the art.

Mr. L. W. G. Morris (general secretary), after expressing regret at hearing the president's decision, hoped that a restful retirement would restore Canon Marshall to good health. He supported the president's nominee as successor.

Mr. P. J. Johnson recalled that Canon Marshall had held office since 1910 and was regarded by them all as a very old friend. He assured the Canon of their kindest thoughts and said no doubt steps would be taken to place on record their great appreciation of his work.

Mr. W. Barton (peal secretary) spoke of a keen personal loss and said the Canon combined the qualities of friendship with the office of president.

Thanking the speakers for their kind references, Canon Marshall said it was a very sad day for him. Throughout his tenure of office he enjoyed the friendship and loyalty of his fellow officers and the rank and file.

A resolution that a sub-committee should interview the Rev. C. O. Ellison, of Wetherby, to discuss with him the matter of his accepting office as president and to report back to the next meeting was later submitted to the general meeting and carried.

'HARD WORK AND LOYALTY.'

A brief service took place at 4 p.m., at which Canon Marshall in a farewell address drew attention to words which would be found in the annual report—'hard work and loyalty.' That, he said, had been the watchword underlying the growth and development of the Association from its earliest days to its present greatness. Without it no association could succeed, and the responsibility for this hard work and loyalty is one which rests with each individual member.

After a splendid tea, Canon Marshall presided at the general meeting, supported by the general secretary, the hon. treasurer (Mr. S. F. Palmer) and the hon. peal secretary.

The annual report recorded another successful year, during which 156 new members, a record, were elected, and the membership now stood at 1,357, also a record. A substantial part of the new members were from the Northern District, which reflected great credit on the district secretary, Mr. E. Hudson, and his fellow officers.

The peal secretary's report showed that 96 peals had been rung on tower bells and one on handbells at 65 churches and one handbell centre. The calling had been shared by 32 conductors and 36 members had rung their first peal.—An increased balance, which stood at £418 10s. 1d., was shown on the balance sheets.

Mr. P. Birkett moved and Mr. W. Critchley seconded the adoption of the report, which was carried with applause.

A vote of thanks to the treasurer and hon. auditors, who gave a brief report, was carried on the motion of Mr. S. Briggs, seconded by Mr. J. W. Moxon.

Acknowledging his re-election as peal secretary, Mr. W. Barton pointed out the importance of conductors seeing that the subscription of members elected in the tower were paid at the time, as much extra work was inevitably caused in tracing such members at the end of the year.

Mr. L. W. G. Morris was re-elected general secretary for a further period of three years. In thanking the members, he said that he had now held office for nine years and was a believer in official posts going round more. He had derived much pleasure in doing what he could and spoke of the team spirit that existed generally throughout the Association—a cardinal factor underlying its success.

The next general meeting was fixed for September 20th at Barnsley.

Considerable discussion took place on a motion of the General Committee 'that the committee shall have power to consider applications and make grants from the Bell Repair Fund up to a maximum of £5 in approved cases, always provided that such grant or grants do not when made reduce the balance of the fund below £20.'

Mr. E. Hudson moved and Mr. J. W. Moxon seconded the recommendation. An amendment, moved by the President and seconded by Mr. W. Barton, that no action be taken and the matter be referred back to the committee for further consideration, was carried. New members elected were R. Towler (St. Chad's) and Mary Shearsmith (Pudsey).

Mr. P. J. Johnson reported that he had made enquiries in the matter of the Snowden Dinner, but regretted that up to the present he had not found anything satisfactory at Leeds.

The usual votes of thanks included a special one to the local company and Mr. H. R. Parkinson in particular for their excellent arrangements. Replying to a vote of thanks to the chairman, Canon Marshall referred to the many kindnesses, happy memories and immutable friendships he had made during his tenure of office.

Ringing was comprehensive in character, extending from Bob Major to Superlative and Yorkshire Surprise.

OBITUARY

MR. FRED BARBER.

The Wellingborough Branch of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild has lost their strongest and most hard working supporter by the death of Mr. Fred Barber, of Doddington Ridge. He died rather suddenly at his home on May 16th, aged 74 years.

Born at Wilby, Mr. Barber, who was in the choir of St. Mary's Church for over 50 years, was also attached to Wellingborough band of ringers for many years. He left Wellingborough to live at Mablethorpe in 1934, but had to return to the district owing to the war. From July, 1921, to January 19th, 1935, Mr. Barber was branch secretary of the Guild, where he did most valuable work and was esteemed by all who knew him. His last act for the branch was organising a free tea for the last quarterly meeting of the district.

The funeral took place at Wilby on May 19th. The branch president, the Rev. W. R. Flex, assisted the Rector at the service, and a course of Grandire Triples was rung on handbells at the graveside by four members of the Irthlingborough band. The bells of the Parish Churches of Wellingborough, Wilby, Great Doddington and Earls Barton were afterwards rung half-muffled. Members present at the service were the Rev. W. R. Flex (branch president), Messrs. A. Bigley (branch secretary), W. G. Callis (branch ringing master), C. W. Partridge (committee), C. H. Chambers, J. J. Mawby, W. Perkins (Irthlingborough), A. W. Lovell and S. Frost (churchwardens, Doddington), C. Sharp (Doddington), H. Plowman, J. Stratford and H. Lilley (Wellingborough), Mrs. W. G. Callis, Messrs. H. J. Smith and J. Mabbutt (Mears Ashby), H. Saddington (Higham Ferrers), G. Basford (Finedon) and T. Towler (Wilby). Amongst the numerous wreaths were one from the Wellingborough Branch members and one from the choir and ringers of Wilby. A.B.

Leicester Diocesan Guild

A PROGRESSIVE YEAR.

A progressive year with 174 new members, making a total membership of 743, was reported by the general secretary (Mr. H. W. Perkins) at the annual meeting of Leicester Diocesan Guild, held on May 3rd.

The Lord Bishop of Leicester presided, supported by the president (Mr. H. J. Poole), the vice-president (Mr. E. Morris), the general secretary and the treasurer (Mr. A. E. Rowley). In a word of welcome to the company—there were 160 sat down to tea arranged by Mrs. H. J. Poole and helpers—the Bishop said how pleased he was to see such a large gathering from all parts of the diocese. He hoped the Guild would continue to progress.

Other points mentioned by the secretary were that 16 new towers had affiliated and the number of towers with members in the Guild was 91.

The peal secretary (Mr. E. Morris) said that 95 peals had been rung, 64 on tower bells and 31 on handbells, ranging from 5 to 12 bells. All the standard methods of Major were rung, and two new methods—Bognor and Syston Delight—were scored. Much progress had been made in all districts.

The general officers were re-elected en bloc, and Market Harborough was chosen for the next meeting on July 19th.

The President reminded the members of the Guild Festival, to be held on October 25th. The De Montfort Hall had been booked for that date and he asked for the fullest support from every member of the Guild. The election of 36 new members was confirmed.

The Bishop, in closing the meeting, congratulated the general and district officers on the excellent work they had done. It was quite clear to all, he said, that the Guild was being conducted in a very businesslike manner. The Guild Festival had his fullest support and it was appropriate that it should begin the week of celebrations on the coming of age of the Leicester Diocese.

A social evening followed, which included handbell ringing with a course of Stedman Cinques and three leads of Spliced Kent Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Royal.

Some excellent tune ringing was rendered by ten members of the Guild under the leadership of Mr. S. Harrison. The members very much enjoyed a bit of nonsense by five members of the Guild, which was a ringer's version of 'Ignorance is Bliss.'

Much fun was also derived from a quiz on ringing. The evening concluded with a dance.

Earlier in the day there was ringing at the Cathedral, St. Margaret's, St. John's and All Saints'. The Guild service was held at St. George's Church, the address being given by the Bishop of Leicester, and the service conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. Adams). Mr. H. J. Poole read the lesson.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

MEETING AT BUNWELL.

Thirty-nine ringers supported the spring meeting of the South Norfolk Branch at Bunwell on May 3rd. Numerous methods were rung, including London and Cambridge and Spliced Minor in eight methods.

The service was conducted in St. Michael's Church by the Rector, the Rev. I. G. Jones, assisted by the Rev. Heard, and the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow at the organ.

Mr. W. L. Duffield presided at the business meeting, supported by the president, the Rev. A. St. J. Heard, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (general secretary), Mr. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master), the Rev. I. G. Jones, Mr. A. G. Harrison (branch secretary), Messrs. S. G. Bennett and C. E. G. Banham (committee members).

It was decided to hold the next meeting on July 19th at Saxlingham. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector, local ringers, and ladies, who provided a bountiful tea.

A New Yorkshire Six

CARLTON BELLS DEDICATED.

An interesting and historical event was celebrated on May 10th, when a new ring of six bells was opened at Carlton, near Snaith, Yorkshire.

When the war-time ban on bellringing was lifted it was discovered that three centuries of use had left the three bells, then hanging in the tower, badly worn and damaged and hanging so dangerously that even climbing had to be stopped. The three ancient bells have been recast in facsimile and rehung as an act of thanksgiving, as expressed in the service of rededication.

Three new bells, at the treble end, have been added to complete the ring of six bells. These bells have been given by Dr. J. B. and Mrs. McGranahan, in memory of their two sons and all other men of the parish who gave their lives in the last war.

The tenor bell (weighing 6 cwt.), upon which the hours are struck, bears the date 1623 and the prayer, 'Fili dei miserere mei' (Son of God, have mercy upon me). The fifth bell, also dated 1623, bears the inscription of 'Glory to God: Soli deo Gloria.' The fourth bell is inscribed, 'Jesus be our speed, 1652.'

The new bells are inscribed: Bell No. 3, upon the collar 'Dona eis requiem.' Upon the waist, 'Ad glor, die et in mem. Charles Cromack, Albert Dunn, Henry Brian Hague, Robert Pierson, Roy Richardson.' Bell No. 2, upon the collar 'Quis Separabit.' Upon the waist, 'Ad glor, die et in mem. James Michael McGranahan.' Treble bell, upon the collar, 'In morte non divisi.' Upon the waist, 'Ad glor, die et in mem. Hugh Benson McGranahan.' The regimental crest of the London Irish Rifles is embossed on the second bell and that of the Northants Yeomanry on the treble. Above the soundbow of each bell is inscribed, 'The gift of J. B. and L. O. McG. 1946.'

The work of recasting and providing the bells has been excellently carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., Loughborough.

Carlton Parish Church was filled to capacity for the service of dedication of the three new bells and rededication of the three old bells, together with a memorial tablet, the Archdeacon of Doncaster officiating.

Following the dedication, ringers from Carlton, H. Longbottom, Margaret Graves, R. Coggan, W. Longbottom, E. Smith, and Joyce Hubb (tenor), rang call changes. At the end of the service two teams from Carlton, consisting of Margaret Graves, Jean Turton, W. Graves, Joyce Hubb, S. Watson and F. Sykes (tenor), and H. Longbottom, Jean Turton, W. Graves, W. Longbottom, G. Graves and E. Smith (tenor), also rang call changes, following which the first 720 changes of Kent Treble Bob Minor were rung by G. Waud (Goole), C. Hill (Goole), J. Waud (Goole), W. A. Hudson (Hemingbrough), J. Taylor (Eastrington) and L. M. Woodhead (conductor) (Goole). Ringers were also present from the Abbey Church, Selby, Hull, Thorne, Pishiake, and Mr. J. P. Fidler and Mr. Fidler (Loughborough), representing Messrs. Taylor and Co.

The Carlton teams only commenced to learn the handling of a bell in October last, under the tuition of Goole ringers. There is no doubt that an excellent light peal of six bells has been added to the Yorkshire Association (Selby District), and great credit is due to the Rev. E. H. Lawson-Brewis, Vicar, for his painstaking efforts in the organisation of a very successful and enjoyable event. L.M.W.

Young Yorkshire

PROGRESS AT WHISTON.

Until last year there had never been an established band of change ringers at Whiston Parish Church, near Rotherham, with its light ring of eight (tenor 14½ cwt.). With the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chaddock, all the present band have learnt change ringing since January, 1946. Now the band is ringing simple touches of Plain or Little Bob Major, Grandsire Triples and Kent Treble Bob Minor.

One of the band, George Preston (aged 13), has called his first 720. Nine have rung a 720 of Minor, six their first quarter-peal of Major and four their first peal during the last 12 months. A few months ago the first peal on the bells by a local band (Bob Minor) was rung and they hope to attempt Major.

Of the 12 members all are members of the Sheffield and District Society and 11 are members of the Yorkshire Association. Recruits are still being enrolled, the latest being two young ladies.

The whole eight bells have, with few exceptions, been rung for every service since January, 1946, though in the early months service ringing had to be call changes. Practices are held weekly and it is now customary to raise not less than six and lower eight in peal, moderately well, whenever they ring.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

DEVIZES BRANCH AT NORTH BRADLEY.

Good weather, a good attendance, excellent going bells and a great welcome by the Vicar and local band all made for a successful monthly meeting at North Bradley on May 3rd. An excellent tea was made possible by the collective efforts of the local band under the leadership of Mr. Percy Harding with the assistance of the ladies.

Methods rung during the afternoon and evening were Grandsire, Stedman and Plain Bob Doubles, Double Court, Plain Bob, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Cambridge and London Surprise Minor and rounds for the learners.

Over thirty members, including the local band, attended. Ringing was kept going by the energies of the two Branch Ringing Masters.

Members of the Young Wives Club, after being conducted around the belfry, clock chamber and bell chamber of St. Mary's Church, Handsworth, Sheffield, moved a warm vote of thanks to Mrs. Kelly for acting as their guide. One thing they had learnt, said the mover of the vote of thanks, was that all the ringers were not called Bob!

Kent County Association

LEWISHAM DISTRICT.

Fortunate representatives from Beckenham, Bexley, Bromley, Chislehurst, Crayford, Dartford, Erith, Lee, Lewisham, Penge, Sidcup and the local band, a total of 44, attended the quarterly meeting at West Wickham on April 26th, enjoying an ideal spring day in an apt rural setting.

Ringling during the afternoon preceded the Association service in church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. F. Hough), who gave an interesting address. Tea was served in the Assembly Hall, members being the guests of the local ringers and friends.

At the business meeting seven ringers from Erith and Penge were elected members, and the election of one non-resident member was ratified. Shoreham was chosen as place of next meeting, to be held on July 19th or 26th. The choice of Saturday, July 5th, for a combined meeting with N.W. District, Surrey Association, has since proved unsuitable, and the meeting has now been deferred to a later date.

A brief review of formal proceedings in committee at Canterbury on Easter Monday was given by Mr. P. A. Corby and Mr. J. E. Bailey, and members recorded their thanks and congratulations to Mr. G. H. Spice (general secretary) and his helpers for the excellent arrangements made for the annual general meeting. It was suggested that Dartford, having all the desired amenities, would be a suitable place for the next annual general meeting due to be held in the Lewisham District.

The meeting decided to ask the committee to prepare and publish a handbook for the instruction of beginners in the art of ringing, and to recommend the appointment of a peal secretary, to be elected annually.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. C. H. Walker on his fine recovery from a serious accident, and to Mr. H. Warnett, sen., on conducting a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples on his 84th birthday! Both of these stalwarts have been connected with St. Mary's, Lewisham, for 57 years, both have held office for 53 years, Mr. Warnett as towerkeeper, Mr. Walker as secretary. Mr. Warnett has rung 114 peals on the bells in his charge!

By a resolution of the meeting, the sum of 17s. 6d. collected at the service was paid into the West Wickham church funds.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION

On May 3rd some 30 members of the Association visited the six-bell towers of Montford and Bicton for the first time since pre-war days. The afternoon ringing was at Montford and the evening at Bicton, the bells being kept going in each case and the following methods rung at each tower: Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Bob Minor, Kent and Oxford, Double Oxford, Double Court and Cambridge.

The splendid tea provided by mine host of the Wingfield Arms was greatly enjoyed and much appreciated by all present. The pre-peal election of Mr. Arthur V. Pearson as a life member was confirmed.

The next meeting will be a joint one with Crewe Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild at Market Drayton on June 7th.

KERESLEY, WARWICKSHIRE. — On May 6th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: Miss June Griffiths (first quarter) 1, H. Folwell 2, L. M. Callow 3, F. W. A. Smith (first quarter inside) 4, W. A. Stote (conductor) 5.

Beverley and District Society

MEETING AT NUNBURNHOLME.

Spring time at Nunburnholme with bluebells and primroses at their best added to the enjoyment of this meeting on May 10th at the ancient church with well-preserved examples of Saxon and Early Norman architecture. In the tower are one of the best rings of six in the North of England, and these were installed by John Taylor and Co. about 40 years ago.

A warm welcome was extended by the Rector (the Ven. T. M. Laing), who conducted the service, attended by over 40 members. This was followed by a substantial tea, provided by Mrs. Wilkinson and the local ladies.

The president (Mr. G. F. Williams) took the chair at the business meeting, supported by the Rector, Mr. Clem Glen (Ringing Master) and Mr. A. E. Sellers (hon. secretary). An application requesting membership to the Beverley Society was received from five ringers from Barton-on-Humber, Barrow-on-Humber and Goxhill and was granted. Mr. J. W. Kneeshaw and Mr. W. Middleton were elected to honorary membership. Mr. Middleton is the late captain of Beverley Minster ringers and he retired owing to infirmity. He was present and thanked the members for their ovation.

Meetings arranged were Market Weighton, June 14th (with Selby and District), Beverley Minster, July 12th (annual).

After votes of thanks, including a special one to Mr. F. Wilkinson and the ladies, there was more ringing in the church, which included Kent, Stedman, Grandsire, Plain Bob and rounds. The Ringing Master announced that the striking by the society had recently improved and some of the touches that day were the best he had heard since coming to the district.

MILDENHALL'S TWO NEW TREBLES

'O'er moor and fen,
'O'er crag and torrent.'

Travelling from the south-east to the north-west of Suffolk by way of the East Anglian Heights, the words of the famous hymn came to mind as it probably did to the hundred or so ringers who assembled at Mildenhall on May 3rd for the dedication of two new treble bells. On the edge of the flat fen country this tower is visible from several miles.

As a memorial to those who lost their lives in the war, Mildenhall has increased its ring of eight bells to one of ten. The ceremony of dedication by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese was largely attended, and Dr. Brook, in his sermon, congratulated Mildenhall on their choice of memorial and intimated his fondness for bells, and what they stood for.

Immediately following the Blessing, the voices of the ten bells rang out from the high tower sounding over the four counties of Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridge and Essex.

The bellfounders, Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, are to be congratulated on a splendid splice. To a peal of eight bells with a tenor of 17 cwt. in E flat they have added two of the sweetest toned trebles one could wish to hear, weighing 4½ cwt. and 4½ cwt. respectively.

A word of congratulation is due to the Rev. J. B. Sawbridge (Vicar), who has been largely instrumental in completing the project. A lover of bells and a great friend of all who ring them, ringers will find a welcome from him when visiting Mildenhall. Congratulations are due also to Mr. Percy Fordham, the popular captain, who says he has attained his life's ambition in seeing the day his beloved church possesses 10 bells. C.P.

STAFFORD.—On April 30th at St. Mary's Church, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: F. Eley 1, E. J. Warlow (conductor) 2, F. R. Wiggin 3, W. G. Curtis 4, A. E. Garbett 5, J. J. Taylor 6, E. Vaughan 7, H. Bayley 8. A 21st birthday compliment to Miss Mary Elkington, a regular ringer at St. Mary's Church.

Sussex County Association

A RECORD ATTENDANCE.

The annual meeting was held in Brighton on May 3rd, when a record number attended from the Sussex towers and the neighbouring counties. Among the visitors was the Master of the Winchester Guild, Mr. G. Williams, the Rev. K. Felstead, of St. Michael's, Southampton, and Mr. C. Parkes, of the Surrey Association.

The two peals of ten at St. Peter's and St. Nicholas' were available during the afternoon and evening, and the eight at the Good Shepherd for a short period in the evening.

Service was conducted by the Vicar of Brighton, who also gave the address. The tea, under the able organisation of Mrs. Hairs, took place in St. Peter's Hall, about 150 being present.

New members elected included Miss Barbara Secome, of St. Peter's Brighton; D. E. Durrant, Varndean School; E. Farmer, W. Akehurst, Mrs. T. A. Russell, Mrs. J. Hill, Rotherfield; the Rev. David McGregor, J. H. Houghton, Chiddingfold; and Miss D. E. Colegate, of Sevenoaks, non-resident member.

After the balance sheet had been adopted, a discussion took place on the question of affiliation fees, the case for individual subscriptions being put forward by Mr. G. P. Elphick, supported by Mr. R. G. Cross and others. Members were urged to pay individual subscriptions in addition to the tower affiliation fees.

The Treasurer announced the levies to be drawn from the divisions as 65 per cent. of income, being Northern £12 8s., Southern £12 15s. 5d., Eastern £13 3s. 11d., and Western £12 7s. 8d.

At the election of officers, the president and vice-presidents were re-elected, with the addition of Bishop Hordem and the Vicar of Brighton.

Other officers were as follows: Master, Mr. F. I. Hairs; hon. treasurer, Mr. O. Sippetts; hon. general secretary, Mr. S. E. Armstrong; peal secretary, Mr. J. Dearlove; hon. auditors, Messrs. R. Overy and G. Cecil; hon. trustees of funds, Messrs. H. R. Butcher, F. B. Tompkins and F. Dallaway. A vote of thanks for past services was made by Mr. White to the retiring auditor, Mr. W. C. Hart.

After some discussion the three proposed alterations to rules were carried in a slightly amended form in order to clarify the wording.

Under 'Any other business' a long discussion took place regarding the rights of the Executive Committee to refuse rail fares and tea allowance to the meeting. Finally, on the proposal of Mr. H. Stalham, it was resolved to allow these sums to be paid to those who desired them. The motion was carried by 43 to 16, a large number abstaining.

THE LADIES' GUILD

A very successful meeting of the Ladies' Guild was held at Daybrook on May 17th, attended by 36 ringers. Methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob and Kent Treble Bob Major, Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major.

A short service was conducted by the Vicar, after which there was a delightful tea arranged in the Church Hall by the wives of the local ringers. A course of Grandsire Caters was rung immediately after tea.

Before the meeting a vote of thanks was proposed to the Vicar and churchwardens for the use of the bells and the hall, to which the churchwarden replied; also to the ladies who provided such an appetising tea.

Owing to the annual meeting being held in July, it was proposed that the next meeting be arranged on September 27th at Oxford. If these bells were unobtainable the alternative proposition was to go to Aston on the same date.

LETTERS

CAMBRIDGE SURPRISE MINOR

Dear Sir,—Mr. Martin's figures merely give us two different 720's. His first six extents are the same composition begun at different leads, Nos. 4–6 being reverse variations of the first three.

These figures were published in 'The Ringing World' some years back following correspondence by 'The Mad Hatter' and 'Major Ringer.' I have called them myself on five occasions at least, the first being at Wroxham on February 3rd, 1934, when I, too, was bold enough to call them 'different'! — Yours faithfully, NOLAN GOLDEN.

Norwich.

BATH AND WELLS MEMBERSHIP

Dear Sir,—May I be allowed to correct any wrong impression which my letter in your issue of the 16th inst. may have given by withdrawing the word 'declining' in relation to the above? My attention has been drawn to the fact that whereas in 1936 the membership was 1,323, the final figure for 1946 was 1,387.

I can only say my letter was written before Mr. Dyke's appeared in your issue of the 2nd inst.—Sincerely yours,

W. J. GAIT.

Hallatrow, Bristol.

EVERCREECH BELLS

Dear Sir,—The bells of St. Peter's, Evercreech, are to be recast and rehung in ball bearings, and the local ringers have undertaken to bear the cost of one bell, by their own subscriptions, those of ringing friends of Evercreech, and any others of the ringing fraternity who may be interested.

There are many ringers up and down the country who have rung peals, practised or in one way or another enjoyed the hospitality of Evercreech, and we feel sure there are many who would like to be associated with our scheme.

The bells are composed of an old six of varying ages, and by a number of founders, and two inferior trebles which were added about 40 years ago. They hang in one of the finest towers in the county and we hope to have a peal in keeping with their home.

All contributions will be most gratefully received towards our target of £100, and should be sent to me or to our treasurer, Mr. R. Whitehead, Southville, Evercreech.—Yours,

H. J. SANGER

(Captain, St. Peter's Ringers).

Oxford Diocesan Guild

EAST BERKS & SOUTH BUCKS BRANCH. The sturdy grey tower at Cookham with its fine ring of eight bells, set in a picturesque daffodil churchyard, seemed to breathe the spirit of joyous happiness to the ringers from some 20 different towers who attended the annual meeting of the branch. The Vicar of Bray (the Rev. E. C. S. Lowman) officiated at the service.

Tea was a happy informal affair, taking place on the Vicarage lawn in glorious sunshine. For the business meeting the Deputy Master (Capt. A. R. Poyntz) was voted to the chair. The sum of 10 gns. was voted for Slough augmentation and rehanging, plus £2 5s. collected at the meeting.

Officers elected were as follows: Branch chairman, the Rev. E. C. S. Lowman; Branch Ringing Master, Mr. T. J. Fowler; branch secretary and treasurer, Mr. A. D. Barker; branch representatives on General Committee, Mrs. A. D. Barker, Mr. W. Welling, Mr. W. Birmingham, Mr. F. D. Boreham, Mr. R. Reid, Miss J. Broomfield.

Capt. A. R. Poyntz and Mr. W. Hibbert, general secretary, wished the branch every success, the latter causing some laughter over his experiences in office. Good wishes were also sent by the president, the Bishop of Buckingham, and Master of the Guild, the Rev. C. E. Wigg.

PRESENTATION TO THATCHAM FOREMAN.

In the presence of the 40 members of the Newbury Branch who attended the spring meeting at Thatcham on April 26th, the Vicar (the Rev. B. Thackeray) presented Mr. Smith, the late foreman of Thatcham, with a note-case containing £21 as a token of appreciation from ringers and friends of his 20 years' service as foreman of Thatcham tower. A short business meeting followed, at which Kintbury was chosen for the next meeting place.

The service was conducted by the Vicar and good use was made of the bells.

EXETER, 1947

The 1947 meeting of the Central Council yields such a riot of happy reflections that it will probably go down as the most successful gathering so far in the Council's history. Some of those who were able to make a long week-end visit were able to take part in a peal on the very fine ring of ten at Culmpton, and they will long remember the solid enjoyment they obtained there. Others were fortunate in having an opportunity to try their skill on the new ring of twelve installed at Buckfast Abbey, where a representative 'all England' company succeeded in ringing a good peal of Stedman Cinques on Whit Monday. The complimentary remarks of the Lord Abbot on the ringing were very gratifying, and his invitation to pay another visit will most certainly be accepted.

Many of the visitors were able to hear or ring on the heavy peal at Exeter Cathedral, and no doubt found it to be one of their most thrilling experiences. At the eight-bell towers, Miss Hilda Snowden impressed everyone by her skilful and workmanlike handling of the tenors.

A happy and friendly spirit was very noticeable at the headquarters, and many old friends renewed acquaintance and many new friendships were formed. The painstaking efforts of Mr. F. C. Smale and his untiring committee to ensure the pleasure and comfort of the visitors played no small part in making the gathering such a great success.

At the Council meeting in the ancient Guildhall (the oldest in the country) the genial welcome by the Mayor and the Lord Bishop of Exeter sent off the proceedings on a happy note. Looking round the room, one could not fail to notice the smiling and alert face of that genial youngster of 90, George Williams, and that other fresh and dapper youngster, G. R. Newton, who never seems to alter and simply refuses to grow old.

Other things that will stick in the memory are the quiet and efficient dignity with which the president got through the long agenda (he was no doubt pleased that it was not necessary to consign any refractory members to the adjoining cells!); the determined and doughty manner of Mr. Percy J. Johnson and his championship of the 'Rules and Decisions'; the crisp 'I have nothing to add' of Mr. A. A. Hughes; the dulcet and persuasive tones of the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow and his reference to the 'sombre but dignified personages on the rostrum'; the surprise of the Editor when he learned he was the only one on the rostrum who had not been cajoled into buying Mr. Thurlow's book; the business-like appearance of Kathleen Bowling as she deputised a short time for Mrs. Fletcher; the lovely Irish accent of Mr. Dukes; and, last but not least, the earnest expression of the secretary which registered a determination to have things done properly. Altogether, a very delightful gathering and an experience which made the journey well worth while.—J. F. S.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

All the peals rung during the Exeter Conference were for the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, and in consequence a number of new members were made. The representative character of the bands is indicated by the peal rung at Buckfast Abbey, which consisted of members from Newcastle-on-Tyne, Lincoln, Coventry, London, Birmingham (3), Oxford, Bradford, Hemel Hempstead, Cheltenham and Ipswich.

Many of the visitors have now a higher opinion of those who rang the peals on Exeter Cathedral's magnificent 12. One well-known ringer admitted that the eleventh was too good a bell for him. Those who had never rung Cinques or Maximus were advised by the president to confine their ringing to rounds.

Standing in the peal of Treble Bob at St. Thomas', Exeter, was Mr. F. E. Dukes, of the Irish Association, who through lack of opportunities had never previously struck a blow in Treble Bob. 'He put up an excellent show,' reports our correspondent.

Not being a member of the Council, it was impossible for the Editor to express publicly at Exeter his thanks for the kind expressions of appreciation of his services. To old and new friends, thank you all very much.

Woodbury will be a name long cherished in the minds of the members of the Council who accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Stokes on Whit Monday. Their bountiful hospitality amid such pleasant surroundings made the occasion memorable. It was indeed a pleasant relaxation before the difficulties of the Standing Committee.

Back to the office from the Land Army, Miss Margaret Rigby is the first lady to join St. Peter's, Stoke-on-Trent. In less than five months she has become a regular Sunday service ringer and has removed the blisters by her first 720.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Two records are announced in our peal columns. The first comes from the Lincolnshire handbell team, who have reached 91 methods of Spliced Minor 'in hand.' Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bray and Mr. G. E. Feim were at Exeter and received many congratulations and good wishes for their next hurdle of 105 methods. How is it done? Two hard practices a week, states Mr. Bray.

The other relates to 22 Doubles methods by Mr. Alan Pink and his band. They desire to acknowledge the help and suggestions of Mr. F. Nolan Golden, as the methods are largely taken from his collection. In tracing the 'working up' of this peal it will be recalled that peals have been rung in 7, 13, 15 and 19 methods, in each case the first peal on the bells.

Wherever this band went they were received with enthusiasm and hospitality. In some of the towers a certain amount of 'bell hanging' had to be carried out before the peal could be started. The ringing of 22 methods should help to popularise five-bell ringing.

Who were the previous holders of the five-bell record (21 methods)? It is believed that it was set up at Cretingham, Suffolk, on April 30th, 1883, and equalled by Mr. H. D. W. Bishop's band a few months before the war.

In connection with the diamond jubilee of the Chester Diocesan Guild at Macclesfield last Saturday, the B.B.C. decided at very short notice to make a recording. Mr. Worth, the chairman of the Macclesfield Branch, and one of the young members spoke into the microphone. Two records of the 12 at St. Michael's were made—one of rounds and the other of Queen's, and the records were broadcast on Monday. The Chester Guild informed the B.B.C. a month previous about the festival, and, having heard nothing until 12 hours before, naturally concluded that they were unable to record.

CENTRAL COUNCIL AT EXETER

THE DIOCESE WITH MOST BELLS ..... WEST COUNTRY'S CONTRIBUTION TO RINGING ..... ROYAL TELEGRAMS ..... REJECTED PEALS, COMPLAINT OF GUILLOTINE ..... PRESIDENT INVESTIGATES GHOST IN BELFRY

EXETER Guildhall, which is one of the oldest civic halls in the country, made a fitting setting for the 50th annual meeting of the Central Council on Whit Tuesday. The welcome accorded the record number of members came from Church and State, greetings being delivered by the Mayor and the Lord Bishop of Exeter.

Formal introductions to the president (Mr. E. H. Lewis) were made by Preb. C. C. Cox (president of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers). On the aldermanic dais with Mr. Lewis were Mr. George W. Fletcher (hon. secretary of the Council), Mrs. Fletcher and Mr. W. H. J. Hooton (hon. librarian).

The Mayor, in his welcome to the Council, said they were all, no doubt, aware that the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, which was formed in 1874, was a very strong branch of the ringing world. He had been interested in reading of the development of ringing during the past 75 years and few people outside the ringers realised that it was really a great art.

'We were blessed in Exeter that during the enemy raids that three of their best peals of bells were saved, but one very fine peal, that of St. Sidwell's, was lost. . . . I feel the Church has done a great work by calling people to God by the ringing of bells as the Salvation Army has also done a great work by calling people to God by their bands.'

EXETER DIOCESE'S CLAIM.

The Bishop of Exeter, in his welcome, said the conference came to a city which bore the marks of great sacrifice and to a city which contained in its Cathedral what he believed was claimed to be the largest ringing combination in the world. They also came to a diocese which had the largest number of bells and therefore the largest number of bell-ringers, and, added the Bishop, amid the laughter of the conference—'the best bells and the best bellringers.'

It was an old custom that whenever the Bishop visited a parish the bells rung him in with a welcome, and he had no doubt that with equal joy they rang him out (laughter). He remembered in the anxious days of 1939 suggesting that a bell should be rung daily in each parish and that everybody who heard that bell should offer up a short prayer: 'Open, O Lord, the minds of all men forthwith to the Spirit of Jesus Christ that we may again find the way of peace.' That prayer would not have reached so many people if it had not been for the ringing of the bells.

'I would like to express gratitude to the bellringers—those loyal servants of the Church—and I am glad to think that the bad old customs (which he believed were exaggerated) of men coming to ring at the church and then adjourning to the public-house and not answering the call to worship—that those days were gone.

'GOOD FOR THE FIGURE'

'I notice in regard to bellringers that once a bellringer always a bellringer and that you can produce records of men who have rung for 60 or 70 years—old veterans of the belfry. It does suggest to me something that will need care—that if you have six or eight veterans how are we to train the younger generation?

'I have also noticed that women have invaded the belfry. It is a grand exercise and I think it is good for the figure (laughter). We have one ring of bells rung by the girls from an adjoining school. I ask you to be careful to see that the younger generation get a chance to become skilled craftsmen in their art, which, I am informed, is mathematical.

The Bishop added that his education had been on the arts side and he always understood mathematics required low cunning (laughter and applause).

The President, in thanking the Mayor and Bishop for their welcome, said he must say he felt a little shy in their Council Chamber because of the fact that Devon and Cornwall until comparatively recent times knew nothing about their peculiar art of change ringing, but the local style of ringing led to the most splendid striking, and if only throughout the country they could marry that excellent Devonshire and Cornish striking with their own more beautiful method of ringing, the result would be very gratifying indeed. He felt rather shy in coming into Devonshire that in their efforts to ring changes they had paid too much attention to the method and not quite enough attention to the accuracy of striking which was so much valued by the Devonshire ringers.

In a word of thanks to the Bishop and the Church authorities, Mr. Lewis said they had a great wealth of bells and Exeter and district was a perfect ringers' paradise. He felt that one of the strokes of genius of Mr. Churchill was that after the battle of Alamein he gave them permission to ring the bells. That act took a great hold on the country and since then there had been a general interest in ringing, and it had resulted in a very great increase in the number of young people anxious to ring. One of their oldest ringers, who recently celebrated his 90th birthday, did as much as anybody to teach the younger generation.

The President then presented copies of 'College Youths' to the Mayor and the Bishop, in which the early development of change ringing was told in detail.

REPRESENTATION OF SOCIETIES.

The Secretary reported that there was very little change in the constitution of the Council except that the North Notts had merged with the Southwell Diocesan Guild and the St. David's Diocesan Guild had affiliated and was entitled to one member. There were 23 associations entitled to four members, 4 to three members, 10 to two and 15 to one, making a total of 52 associations with 139 representatives. With their 17 honorary members the grand total was 156. He also reported that all subscriptions had been paid.

The President was introduced to the following new members: Messrs. C. H. Kippin, H. J. Mansfield, Wilfrid F. Moreton, G. J. Lewis, Rev. N. E. Hope, W. T. Poston, F. E. Dukes, J. Arthur Hoare, S. E. Bennett.

ROYAL TELEGRAMS.

The President said the Standing Committee decided to recommend that on this their 50th meeting they should send a telegram to Princess Elizabeth congratulating her on her 21st birthday and to Queen Mary on attaining her 80th birthday. The Council approved of this course. The telegrams were:—

'The Central Council of Church Bellringers assembled in the Guildhall, Exeter, on the occasion of their 50th annual meeting, beg to offer H.R.H. Princess Elizabeth loyal congratulations on the attainment of her 21st birthday with their best wishes for many years of health and happiness.'

'The Central Council of Church Bellringers assembled in the Guildhall, Exeter, on the occasion of their 50th annual meeting, beg to offer Her Majesty Queen Mary their loyal congratulations on the attainment of her 80th birthday with their best wishes for her continued health and happiness.'

The Council also sent telegrams to Canon Coleridge, Canon Marshall and Mr. J. A. Trollope with their best wishes for an early improvement in their health.

ELECTION OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

The President announced that there were three vacancies for honorary members. The Standing Committee considered this matter and recommended the election of Mr. W. Osborne and the other two vacancies be left open.

Mr. H. J. Sanger moved the election of Mr. W. Osborne, stating that he had done very good work in their diocese.

Mr. S. G. Coles seconded and the resolution was carried.

LOSSES BY DEATH.

The President reported the loss by death of the following members: D. H. Argyle, Warwickshire Guild, 1936-38; Edwin Shepherd, Devon Guild, 1932; A. E. Coles, Bath and Wells, 1906-1926; H. S. Brodclbank, Chester Diocesan Guild, 1918-1920, 1930-32; Major J. H. B. Hesse, Middlesex County Association 1912-20, hon. member, 1921-1946; John Evans, Oxford Diocesan Guild, 1912-1932; Rupert Richardson, Lincoln Diocesan Guild, 1903-1947; Rev. E. Bankes James, Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, 1894-1907.

The members stood in silence as a tribute to their memory.

THE MINUTES.

Mr. F. I. Hairs moved and Mr. E. C. S. Turner seconded that the minutes as published in 'The Ringing World' on May 9th be taken as read.—Agreed.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

The Librarian (Mr. W. H. J. Hooton) presented his report, which showed that sales during 1946-7 numbered 873 and totalled £29 17s. 7d. During the year the stock of the Doubles and Minor Methods book had been exhausted. The sheets of Stedman and Grand-sire had also gone and 500 of these had been reprinted. There had been a steady demand for the Triples book and again some enquiries for the book of Major and Cater Methods.

The report expressed gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher for their help in housing the library and in dealing with sales of publications during part of the year.

Gifts to the library included 'The Ringing World,' vols. 32-40, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher; 'Berkshire Bells,' Part 9, 'Radnorshire Bells,' Parts 1-4, Mr. F. Sharpe; set of reports, York-

EXETER GUILDHALL, where the Council met.

shire Association, Canon C. C. Marshall; books and papers of the late T. B. Worsley, sent by Mr. P. Crook.

A limited number of reprints of articles in 'The Ringing World' on the subject of composition of Stedman Triples would be available before long. Requests have been received for advice about an article on bells for Chambers' 'Encyclopædia' and about the compilation of a biography of bell literature.

The report was adopted on the proposition of Mr. W. H. J. Hooton, seconded by Mr. W. Ayre.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

The accounts of the Central Council showed that income during the year was: Affiliation fees, £34 5s.; hon. members' subscriptions, £2 10s.; sale of publications balance £26 10s. 1d., which, with £303 9s. 11d. carried forward, made a total of £366 15s. The year concluded with a balance of £324 9s. 1d., of which the main items were: Library and publications, £10 5s. 4d.; wreaths, £8 12s. 6d.; stationery and printing, £6 5s. 6d.

The Hon. Secretary said the subscriptions of the Barnsley and District Association and the Truro Diocesan Guild were received too late for inclusion in the accounts. The balance of £324 would be wanted with the reprinting programme which was coming along. Mr. Fletcher moved and Mr. Hairs seconded the adoption of the accounts.—Agreed.

CARTER RINGING MACHINE.

Mr. Alex. Young presented a report on the Carter Ringing Machine, which was now housed at the Science Museum. The demonstrator, Mr. Sharman, was satisfied that the machine was now working. He was able to make it do some 12-bell work—some Grandsire Cinques.

The machine had been deposited there since 1925 and was invented by a master craftsman, John Carter. It was placed there at his wish to be on public loan with the Council as its trustees. Mr. A. A. Hughes and himself were the trustees and he asked the Council to accept his resignation as a trustee. He was also anxious to find another demonstrator to serve with Mr. Sharman. He moved that the fees due to Mr. Sharman be paid and that Dr. Follet (the principal) be reimbursed for expenditure involved in repairs.

Mr. A. A. Hughes seconded and the report was adopted.

PEAL COLLECTION COMMITTEE.

The committee reported the co-option of Mr. E. A. Barnett. It was hoped that the collection of Triples and Major compositions in hand would be ready for presentation to the Council in 1948.

Mr. G. R. Newton moved and Mr. E. A. Barnett seconded the adoption of the report, which was carried.

METHODS COMMITTEE.

This amended report stated: During the past year we have contented ourselves with answering the many enquiries we continue to receive concerning methods, compositions, etc. The one enquiry to which we did not reply was received without the address of the enquirer.

Mr. E. C. S. Turner, in moving the adoption, said the report was discussed at some length at the meeting of the Standing Committee. He noted in the report of the librarian that the stock of Doubles and Minor methods had been sold out. There had always been a steady sale for these, and as he was not aware of any new discoveries he suggested that it be reprinted. The Plain Major Methods book would require complete revision. The Council would note that Mr. Trollope was seriously ill. He saw Mr. Trollope last Friday and he was very sorry not to be present as he was elected a member 50 years ago.

Mr. A. Walker seconded and the report was adopted.

PEALS ANALYSIS REPORT.

The Peals Analysis Committee appointed by the Council have to report that 1,796 peals (including 240 on handbells) were rung during the year ended December 31st, 1946.

There have been excluded the following:—

(a) Superlative Major rung at Bocking on May 11th, since withdrawn by the conductor.

(b) Minor in seven methods at Norton on September 28th, the conductor of which did not take a physical part in the ringing.

(c) Minor in three methods rung at Sefton on November 24th with a covering tenor.

(d) Kent Treble Bob Major at Basingstoke on October 11th, also with a covering tenor.

The three performances (b), (c) and (d) obviously do not conform to the usual ringing practice of the Exercise, and the committee feel that as no objections have been raised to the suggestions intimated in 'The Ringing World' leading article of February 7th last, the Exercise generally is in agreement, and the committee recommend such peals shall continue to be excluded from the analysis now and in the future.

Mr. C. Dean moved the adoption of the report and Mr. W. Ayre seconded.

Mr. C. H. Kippin said he was proposing an amendment that seven and nine bell peals be added to the report. He thought they would agree that if they recognised one they would recognise both. 'I do not wish to popularise seven-bell ringing or nine-bell ringing; I am merely pleading for justice for both these peals. I think up to the present neither peal has had justice.'

'First of all, the seven-bell peal would have been accepted without any question if the nine-bell peal had not been rung. As for the nine-bell peal, it was sent in and published in the Belfry Gossip and caused some surprise. Then it was gossiped from one committee to another. In the meantime I had sent a complaint and instructions were then issued that the peal should be published in its original form. I still feel that the peal was prejudiced from the start.'

'I know a lot of people will say it is only a stunt (hear, hear). Well, a good many peals were rung as stunts. I remember a handbell peal rung in bed—and there is the conductor here. I remember when the nine-bell peal was rung the conductor of that handbell peal was filled with righteous indignation at that peal.'

'What we are concerned with is do these peals comply with the rules or not, and my own personal feeling is that they do. When the report appeared in "The Ringing World" that these two peals were going to be omitted from the Peal Analysis report, a friend came to me and said, "The Council are getting busy. I conducted a peal of Bob Minor at Falfeld in Gloucestershire in 1923 with two covers, and they accepted that one all right."

'In my opinion, the Peal Analysis Committee have acted wrongly if they should regard these two peals as cuckoo's eggs in the nest. They should recommend to the Council that they do not like them, but they had no alternative but to accept them and to recommend the Council to take action in getting the rules amended. I do not think it is fair that the Peal Analysis Committee should have acted as they did. What they have done is to try and make black white.

'During the debate I should like to hear the answers of these two questions: First of all, I should like to know the chairman's unbiased opinion as to whether these peals comply with the rules or not. I should also like to know if one cover infringes the rules, what about a peal with two covers? Does a peal with a wide backstroke infringe the rule "without interval"? How can a peal be rejected this year and accepted in the past? Can the Council preserve its dignity by its inconsistency? I submit it is a case of impartiality and justice against prejudice and popular sentiment. I therefore propose that these two peals be added to the record.

Mr. G. H. Cross seconded the amendment.

THE DEFINITION.

Mr. A. D. Barker: Can we have the Council's definition of what constitutes a peal?

The President: 'On nine and eleven bells—that there be not less than 5,000 true changes rung without interval in each case with the addition of a covering bell.

'On seven bells—that the number of changes be not less than 5,040, rung with or without a covering bell, and without interval, being the extent of changes in the method or methods chosen; nevertheless, a performance on seven bells without the addition of a covering bell is to be discountenanced.'

The Rev. K. W. H. Felstead said it seemed to him that there were no rules. The rules are silent on this point, not because they dissent, but because the condition had not been contemplated. The proper course was for the Council to accept the peal, but decide to rule out any others in the future.

If they were to argue on matters on which the rules were silent the peal on 14 bells should be ruled out, but he gathered that the peal in question had been accepted. He would also point out that they seemed to be getting mixed up between two important items in connection with peal ringing. The first concerned 5,000 different changes and the second the music connected with the bells.

'I submit that the most important thing is the ringing of the 5,000 odd changes, and then there comes the question of the music of those changes. If 5,000 odd different changes have been rung that is a peal. Naturally we want to get the most musical peal and in normal circumstance we should not like a peal of Treble Bob Major with the tenor covering as we would like Stedman Triples with the tenor covering.

'Lastly we do hear that Grandsire is Plain Bob with a bell in the hunt. Look at it from another way. Plain Bob with two bells in the hunt. Logically if we allow covering to that number of Grandsire, why not allow that to Plain Bob, which is the same number. I wish to support the amendment.'

NEXT BUSINESS.

Mr. A. H. Pulling: May I remind Mr. Kippin that the conductor of the handbell peal in bed has unfortunately passed away. Another thing, that stunt in bed was a peal of Major. If you go for a peal of Major you go for the music of Major. I happened to hear of this peal before it came off and I said to one of the ringers: 'You can go and ring what you like, but the Council holds the right to sav through the Analysis Committee if they will have it as a peal or not.'

Some years ago a gentleman said they could not make rules: they could make definitions. Once you have rung a peal and you come out of the tower it is only your satisfaction that counts. If you go for a peal of Major with the tenor behind you have not had the enjoyment of Major. What did the tenor man do in that peal? Did he have the enjoyment of Major? Could the tenor say, I rang a peal of Treble Bob Major with the tenor behind? I think it would be more to the dignity of the Council that we ignore it. He moved that the Council pass on to the next business.

Mr. P. J. Johnson said the reason the definition of seven bells was allowed to stand was because of the fact that prior to the making of that rule there had been a peal of Triples without a covering bell, and it was because of that that the Council amended the rule 'that a performance on seven bells without the addition of a covering bell is to be discountenanced.' Are we going to permit anybody to come along and present the same horror on different bells and acknowledge this abortion of our art?

I want to say we have heard some curious points put forward during this discussion. One is that if you ring 5,000 changes that constitutes a peal. I am going to point out that the tradition of the Exercise and the reason for the rules is to get as musical a combination on the bells as possible. It was for that object that the rules were put in.

In a condemnation of nine-bell peals Mr. Johnson reminded the Council it was not merely a question of what the ringers could stand, but what the public could stand, and they should never forget that fact. He maintained that if they accepted these peals they would turn the Council into ridicule. He seconded Mr. Pulling's amendment to pass on to the next meeting.

The Rev. L. Edwards: Is this in order?

The President: Yes.

The amendment to pass on to the next business was then put to the meeting and carried by a very large majority.

A member: I certainly think it is a guillotine!

RECORDS COMMITTEE. NEW METHODS.

Tower bells.—Dec. 14th, 1946, 5,040 changes Belgrave Surprise Royal. Essex Association; Dec. 21st, 5,184 Norfolk Imperial Bob Major, Norwich Diocesan Association; Dec. 28th, 5,152 Glasgow Surprise Major, Kent County Association.

Handbells.—Aug. 3rd, 5,056 Hereward Bob Major, Oxford University Society; Aug. 10th, 5,056 New London Court Bob Major, ditto; Nov. 2nd, 5,040 St. Clement's College Bob Triples, Lincoln Diocesan Guild; Nov. 15th, 5,024 Yorkshire Surprise Major, Hertford County Association.

PROGRESSIVE LENGTHS.

Tower bells.—June 4th, 5,168 St. Laurence Little Bob Major, Norwich Diocesan Association; Aug. 24th, 12,663 Stedman Cinques, Oxford Diocesan Guild; Dec. 11th, 5,184 Winchester Bob Major, Universities' Association.

Mrs. Fletcher, in moving the adoption of the report, asked members ringing new methods or progressive lengths to send particulars to her. On no occasion did she receive notice.

Mr. Ernest Turner added a complaint on behalf of the Methods Committee that they had not seen the figures.

The report was adopted.

TOWERS AND BELFRIES.

The President said that since the last Council meeting the committee had suffered a great loss in the death of Major Hesse, who did a great deal of useful work for the committee. His sound engineering experience, coupled with his great love of bells, was of outstanding value to the Exercise. In the control of sound his patient work at Haslemere was an outstanding example of what can be done to improve conditions both inside and outside the tower.

During the year the remaining members of the committee had dealt with or were dealing with 16 enquiries. It would be an advantage if the committee could be strengthened, particularly if a suitable member could be found in the north.

Work had started on the revision of the 'Preservation of bells, etc.', and it was hoped to be able to publish a new edition before the next Council meeting.

As to the enquiries, the President said first of all he was asked to lay a ghost as part of the duties of the Towers and Belfries Committee. It appeared that in a tower in Hertfordshire there were noises in the belfry when the bells were rung and the ringers were frightened. He was asked to go and investigate. While the bells were ringing he went and investigated and found that the clock weight swung to within a quarter-inch of an iron ladder. He imagined that what caused the ghost was the pendulum striking against the ladder.

He had been asked what were the horizontal and vertical forces in ringing a bell. He had checked Sir Arthur Heywood's figures and found that the maximum horizontal force was equal to the weight of bell metal and the maximum vertical force was  $2\frac{1}{2}$  times the weight of bell metal.

There was a case he was called into 21 and 22 years ago, the oscillation on the bells of Christ Church, Macclesfield, and he recommended that the height of the bells be reduced from 80ft. to 50ft. He was pleased to note that this had been done and was satisfactory.

Last year it was reported that the bells of Liverpool Cathedral were ready for hanging if only a roof could be placed on the Cathedral. Shortly after the Council passed their resolution permission was received to proceed with the roof, but it was now found that they could not get the material. The Dean was unable to suggest any date.

Mr. F. Sharpe reported that he had dealt with six cases. In seconding the report, he said he thought the Council would be interested in one particular case he had to deal with. It was a case of extremely bad bell hanging and bad design. The ring of bells was heavy with a tenor weighing 28 cwt. The bells were hung in a very tall spire—the highest in Oxfordshire at Bloxham. Some 25 years ago the architect condemned them for ringing. It was obvious that it was a case of bad design that was the cause of oscillation on the tower. Upon investigation he found that the oscillation ceased when the trebles were rung at backstroke and the others at handstroke. The bell frame was an extremely bad one; there was no foundation for the frame and no means of taking the horizontal forces along the walls. The four largest bells were hung from north to south instead of east to west.

The President said that in 1911 he started and finished in 1914 his calculations on the horizontal and vertical forces which had become the standard theory on the subject. There was only one copy in existence and he had tried during the last six months, without success, to get it reprinted. It was suggested that a duplicate be taken photographically. The Standing Committee recommended that Mr. W. Osborne be added to the Towers and Belfries Committee.

Mr. A. Young suggested that the Council re-issue a very useful book—'Bell Towers and Bellhanging,' by Sir Arthur Heywood.

The report was adopted, it being decided to take a photographic copy of Mr. Lewis' book.

Wincanton Bells

'That thou mayest use them for the calling of assembly' (Numbers 10, v. 2).

This was the message of Dr. W. H. Bradfield, Bishop of Bath and Wells, in his inspiring address at the dedication of the augmented and recast ring of eight bells of the Parish Church of SS. Peter and Paul, Wincanton, Somerset, which took place before a large congregation of townsfolk and ringers on May 10th.

The service was conducted by the Rector, Preb. W. E. Hodgson, and nearly 20 robed clergy took part. After the singing of the ringers' hymn, 'Unchanging God,' a small procession, consisting of crossbearer, churchwardens, the Bishop, his acting chaplain and the Rector, proceeded to the ground floor ringing chamber. Receiving the bell ropes from the captain of the tower, Mr. John Chilcott, the Bishop dedicated afresh the six recast bells, and then dedicated the two new bells—the treble in memory of those of the parish who had fallen in the two world wars, the second in memory of Thomas and Rebecca Green. Then, to the sound of the bells being rung in rounds by members of the Wincanton company, the procession returned to the choir.

After the service over 150 clergy and ringers were entertained to tea by ladies of the parish. Here the Rector introduced Mr. D. Bradford, representing Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Ltd., of Croydon, and the Bishop, recalling that he had been Archdeacon of Croydon, said that this was an added reason for the pleasure he had felt in taking part in the dedication ceremony.

For the many visiting ringers then came the climax of a memorable day, a touch on the bells. Throughout the evening their music pealed forth, and all of us who knew the old bells realised that at last Wincanton has a ring of bells of which it can be justly proud.

The old ring of six consisted of five bells recast in 1793 by Robert and James Wells, of Aldbourne, at which time the tenor bell was added. They were unmusical, and their going-order had been atrocious for many years. The need for recasting and rebanging had long been felt in the town, and the Rector is to be congratulated on steering the enterprise to so successful a fulfilment.

The augmented ring of eight is hung on ball bearings in a metal frame with a tenor of 15 cwt. in F sharp. In the light of recent correspondence in 'The Ringing World' it is interesting to note that the six recast bells have been inscribed each with a different name. These names include, as well as those of the Rector and churchwardens, those of three ringers: on the 3rd, F. W. Hunt Obi 1945; on the 4th, F. Francis Obi 1936; and on the 5th, J. Chilcot, the present captain.

On May 17th, one week after the dedication, the first peal was rung on the new bells by members of the University of Bristol Society of Change Ringers, being conducted by one born in Wincanton, who received his early instruction there, and who extends his good wishes to the present band in their future efforts.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

PRE-WAR STANDARD REACHED.

The annual meeting of the Northern Branch was held at Sleaford on May 17th and was attended by between 60 and 70 members and friends. All the officers were re-elected with Mr. G. E. Fein to fill the vacancy on the Guild Committee. A grant of £25 from branch funds towards the memorial fund for the late Master, Mr. Rupert Richardson, was unanimously decided upon.

Acting on suggestions made by the president (Canon E. L. Marsden), it was decided to ask for the principal Guild meetings to be inserted in the diocesan calendar.

Great pleasure was expressed at the attendance at meetings, and the branch membership totals were back to pre-war standards.

Devon Guild of Ringers

EXETER AND MID-DEVON BRANCHES.

Exeter and Mid-Devon branches held a combined meeting on May 10th at Chudleigh, where there is a good ring of eight augmented from six and rehung by Gillett and Johnston in 1924.

The first bells of which there is any record appear to have been two that came in the 15th century from the chapel attached to a palace the Bishop of Exeter had in the parish and of which some remnants remain. By 1780 there were five bells, for in that year a licence was granted by the Bishop for making them with additional metal into six. This was done by the Penningtons, of Cornwall, in 1781. Three of these were recast by Gillett and Johnston.

Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. L. Stevens), and Mr. E. J. Ryall (Exeter branch secretary) reading the lesson. About 50 members and friends were guests of the Church Council at an excellent tea. Mr. A. W. Searle (chairman, Exeter Branch) conducted the business. He gratefully acknowledged the hospitality and suggested the collection, which yielded nearly £2, for parochial purposes. He also heartily thanked the Vicar, the ladies who arranged the tea, the organist and especially the local round and call change ringers for their cordial co-operation; some of the latter joined in mixed ringing. Mr. Collins, the local leader, acknowledged the friendly feeling and hinted that possibly his band would join the Guild. The next meeting was fixed for Aug. 16th at Crediton.

Preb. E. V. Cox (Guild president), on behalf of the Exeter Branch, presented Mr. W. Howe (former hon. secretary) with £5 which had been subscribed in appreciation of his services.

Methods rung were Grandsire, Stedman, P'ain Bob and Kent Treble Bob.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

BASINGSTOKE DISTRICT.

In brilliant weather members enjoyed the rural countryside of Wootton on April 26th. The bells at St. Lawrence's were made good use of, and the belfry being on the ground floor, members enjoyed the sunshine between touches.

Tea was served by Mrs. Balaam and helpers in the Parish Room, and Canon G. H. Jeudwine presided at the business meeting when five new members were elected. The next meeting was fixed for July 12th at Overton, Hants. Ringing ranged from Grandsire to London Surprise.

PETERBOROUGH GUILD

A company of 70 ringers attended the quarterly meeting of the Wellingborough Branch at Great Doddington, where the Vicar (the Rev. W. R. Flex) is branch president. The Guild service was conducted by the Vicar, and the tea was served by the wives and friends of local members. Irchester was suggested for the quarterly meeting in July. The vote of thanks to all who had helped was moved by Mr. W. G. Callis and supported by Mr. J. R. Main and Mr. F. Barben.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

The May meeting of the Swindon Branch took the form of an excursion to four outlying towers where ringing is at a low ebb. At Minety, three of the five bells were 'up' and the birds had filled the pits up to headstock level with sticks and rubbish, so nothing was attempted. At Ashton Keynes four of the five were 'up,' but the bell chamber was fairly clear and some good ringing took place. Latton and Castle Eaton were found in good order and local ringers turned up at both places. The 'rise' at Castle Eaton caused some amusement. The bells were pulled up in peal and it was later discovered that the peculiar music had been caused by raising the bells 2.3.4.5.6.1!

OBITUARY

MR. JONATHAN OWENS.

The funeral took place at St. Mary's Church, Bronllys, Brecons., Wales, on May 21st, of Mr. Jonathan Owens, at the age of 83. Mr. Owens had given 45 years' loyal service to the church as clerk and 65 years' service as a bell-ringer, a post his father before him had carried out for a period of 60 years. Thus, between them, they have given over 100 years' service to St. Mary's Church, Bronllys.

After the funeral service the bells were rung half-muffled as a tribute of respect.

MR. EDWARD JOHN ROWE.

On May 16th, at Stourton, Wilts, 'Uncle' Ted Rowe was buried in the churchyard of the estate he had served so well for 34 years, first as stud groom and then as head chauffeur. Ringers present included G. Harding, Urchfont; J. Parsons, Zeals; W. Keates, Mere; P. O. Baker, Gillingham; J. T. Dyke, H. J. Sanger, J. Metcalfe, of the Bath and Wells Association. Wreaths were sent from the Mere, Zeals and Gillingham towers, as well as one from the Bath and Wells Wednesday band. Handbells were rung at the graveside, and the ringers joined the local band in ringing half-muffled in the tower.

'Uncle' was a keen ringer, and his connection with the Royal Show enabled him to ring in many parts of the country. He was a member of the Ancient Society, the Salisbury Guild, the Bath and Wells and the Gloucester and Bristol Associations. It was nothing to him to attend a practice in Bristol, 33 miles away, even when the roads were icy, and then to go miles out of his way to take another ringer home. His greatness in physical stature was matched by his nobility of character. His thought for others often made us lesser men ashamed.

His last peal at the age of 61 was rung on the tenor at Redcliffe, when he put up a performance of superlative merit. It was typical of the man that while lying in a sick bed, he insisted on paying a life membership fee to the Gloucester and Bristol Association, having previously joined as a non-resident ringing member. He said that it was a shabby trick to go into another Guild's territory, ring the best peal he had ever rung, and only pay 1s. 6d. for it. Such was his principle throughout life, and we who knew him can only strive to emulate it.

Mrs. Rowe finds it impossible to reply individually to the many letters of sympathy from ringing friends, and would like through the medium of 'The Ringing World' to thank them, knowing that they will understand.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

V.W.H. ANNUAL MEETING.

'When in the tower ring well, as good ringing will help to get new ringers,' was the message Mr. W. R. Hibbert gave to the annual meeting of the V.W.H. Branch, held at Faringdon on May 3rd.

The Rev. C. G. Seymour Metford (branch chairman) conducted the service, at which the address was given by the Rev. C. E. Wigg (Master of the Guild), the lesson read by Capt. A. B. Poyntz (Deputy Master), and Mr. R. F. J. Gilling (branch secretary) was at the organ. Tea was served at the Swan Hotel.

At the business meeting the secretary reported a balance of £2 12s. 11d. on the General Fund and £11 7s. on the Restoration Fund. Elections were: The Rev. C. G. Seymour Metford, chairman; Mr. R. F. J. Gilling, secretary and treasurer; Messrs. V. J. Jones and F. Whipp, branch representatives. No new members were elected. Meetings arranged were: Autumn at Buckland on Oct. 4th, practice at Hinton Waldrist on June 7th, and Shrivernham on August 2nd. Ringing included Grandsire, Stedman, Kent Treble Bob and Bob Major.

North Wales Association

A NEW RINGING MASTER.

The North Wales Association held its annual meeting at Wrexham on Whit Monday, which was attended by members from Llandudno, Rhyl, Hawarden, Buckley, Gresford and Wrexham. A short service in the Parish Church was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Robert Davies) and assisted by the Rev. C. Davies.

At the business meeting the Rev. R. G. Wright (Bangor) was re-elected president. Canon Rowlands (Llandudno), the Rev. Robert Davies (Wrexham), the Rev. R. C. Williams (Tryddym), Mr. J. E. Austin (Llandudno) and Mr. G. Hewitt Buckley were elected vice-presidents.

Mr. F. R. Evans (Wrexham) was elected Ringing Master in place of Mr. A. J. Hughes, who unfortunately had to resign owing to ill-health. Other officers were re-elected as follows: Hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. Cathrall (Wrexham).

District secretaries: Bangor, Miss M. Jones; Rhyl, Mr. C. Powell; Wrexham, Mr. A. Lea. District instructors: Bangor, Mr. A. J. Hughes; Rhyl, Mr. J. Evans; Wrexham, Mr. F. R. Evans.

The balance sheet, which showed a balance of £8 15s. 6d. on the credit side, was adopted. A meeting is to be held at Rhyl or Llandudno on September 6th, and Bangor was chosen as the venue for next year's annual meeting.

About 40 members and their wives were afterwards entertained to tea kindly provided by the local ringers. A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. G. H. Randles and seconded by Mr. T. R. Griffiths.

The tower was re-visited for further ringing, which included touches of Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples and Caters, Bob Major and Kent Treble Bob.

NORBURY PEALS

A peal board in the belfry of St. Thomas' Church, Norbury, Cheshire, records a date touch of 1,897 changes on May 26th, 1897. To commemorate the 50th anniversary a peal of Yorkshire Surprise was rung. Of the original participants, only one—Mr. Joshua Dean—survives, and he will still take a bell if the band is short. Forty-two peals of Minor (including first spliced and first 35 methods) were rung on Norbury bells previous to augmentation to eight in 1925. Since then peals total 114, making the creditable record of 156.

GUILLOTINE

Looking back on the Central Council meeting at Exeter, the most talked of matter was the introduction of the guillotine to the amendment submitted to the report of the Peal Analysis Committee. To move to pass on to the next business is legitimate and a recognised procedure in public business. Its effectiveness as a guillotine depends on one thing only, the measure of support received. At Exeter this was not less than 75 per cent. of the members of the Council, and it came before a member of the committee had replied.

When it was too late, one sensed a consciousness in many minds that the motion to pass on to the next business was premature. The questions of Mr. C. H. Kippin had not been answered; they had been brushed summarily aside. It is true that much of the ground was traversed at Norwich, when the peculiarities of the nine bells at Basingstoke—two separate rings of eight and in no sense a Caters combination—were digressed upon at length. The arguments of the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead and Mr. Kippin were based on the decision not being explicit. In their minds there was uncertainty, but as far as the majority of the Council were concerned opinions had been formed. Unpleasant as it may sound to those who participated in the performance of Kent Treble Bob Major at Basingstoke on October 11th, 1946, with a covering tenor, the Exercise as a whole regarded it as a stunt and, in the words of the Psalmist, these changes 'travaileth with mischief.'

Mr. P. J. Johnson introduced Yorkshire wisdom and logic to the debate. His point that the backbone of our art is to secure as musical a combination on the bells as possible should be kept constantly to the fore. Ringers are largely dependent upon the goodwill of the public, and this is one of the reasons why so much emphasis is given by our leaders to the importance of good striking. The rhythm of the bells is no idle catchphrase, and it is purely from an interest in the listener's viewpoint that the Council decided 'that a performance on seven bells without the addition of a covering bell is to be discountenanced.' It is to be hoped that in peal ringing there will not be too great a concentration on 'polishing off' the 5,000 changes. There is no credit in the quickest peal on the bells if it becomes a jangle. No, the first consideration must be the musical qualities of the peal.

At the conclusion of the conference Mr. Harold Poole wisely warned the Council of the dangers attached to the premature introduction of the guillotine. It would have been a pretty point of procedure for the president to decide if, after the pass on to the next business motion had been carried, another amendment had been submitted not relating to the Basingstoke performance. The introduction of a new topic would, subject, of course, to the president's ruling, appear to be in order. It was generally felt that much was left unsaid, but the fact that the Rules and Decisions of the Council are to be revised is a crumb of consolation to our friends at Southampton.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Mr. Herbert Parkinson, hon. secretary of the Lancaster Branch of the Lancashire Association, is emigrating to South Africa. A farewell presentation of a leather writing wallet was made to him at a gathering at Morecambe Parish Church on May 31st by Mr. Herbert Palmer, the oldest ringer at Morecambe. Mr. John Wood and Mr. Peter Crook both spoke in appreciative terms of his work. The presentation was followed by a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples by Miss Betty Schofield 1, E. Swain 2, S. Clifford 3, J. Skeat 4, R. Rainford 5, J. Butterworth (first quarter of Grandsire Triples) 6, P. Crook, sen. (conductor) 7, H. Palmer 8.

By his peal of Grandsire Doubles at Ringwould, Kent, Mr. William Bottrill has rung peals in the Grandsire method from Doubles to Cinques.

The peal of Stedman Caters at Kingston is one of a series of attempts that have been arranged to celebrate the bi-centenary of the Royal Cumberland Youths.

Through an injury to his hand, Mr. F. J. Cullum was unable to conduct the peal of Cambridge Surprise at Erith in honour of his daughter's 21st birthday.

Miss Margaret E. L. Beamish will have a special reason to remember the Exeter conference. It was the day she rang her first peal of Surprise 'inside.' This she has achieved at the age of 11½ and she can claim to be the youngest lady to ring a Surprise peal 'inside.'

From Mablethorpe we have received a letter from the ringers of St. Mary's expressing their deep regret at the news of the death of Mr. F. Barber, of Doddington, Northants. During his stay at Mablethorpe from 1934-1940 Mr. Barber took a great interest in all branches of church work, being captain of the belfry.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. James George, now 93 years of age, has compiled a list of peals he has rung for Royalty. These date back to Feb. 26th, 1901, when he rang at Birmingham for the passing of Queen Victoria. Queen Mary has graciously accepted a copy of these peals and Mr. George has received the following acknowledgment: 'I am commanded by Queen Mary to thank you sincerely for your letter of congratulation on the Queen's birthday and also to tell you how interested Her Majesty was in reading of all the peals you have rung for Royalty. This record is to be put in the file of loyal service.—Margaret Wyndham.'

Mr. John W. Adshead, of Falfield, has written pointing out that the peal of Bob Minor with two covers rung in 1923 and quoted by Mr. Kippin was not performed at Falfield as mentioned in our report of the Central Council meeting. Mr. Adshead suggests that the peal was rung at Fairford as there is not a ring of bells at Falfield Parish Church. If we misheard Mr. Kippin, our apologies.

Veteran captain of St. Michael's, Basingstoke, is Mr. John E. Ballard, who has held the post for almost 30 years and has completed 60 years as a ringer. On May 25th a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in honour of his 75th birthday by Mrs. F. A. Munday (first quarter) 1, C. W. Munday 2, R. A. Hickman 3, J. E. Ballard 4, J. Weaver 5, D. H. Anstey (conductor) 6, F. A. Munday 7, J. B. Woodley 8. On the following Saturday a peal was rung in honour of the happy occasion.

Mr. Walter Brittan, who is 82 and has been a member of the Wednesbury Parish Church band for 66 years, rang in 1,260 Grandsire Triples on Whit Sunday, the 57th anniversary of his wedding. The band was G. Darlington 1, W. Brittan 2, H. Morton 3, K. W. Knowles (conductor) 4, A. Hubble 5, A. Hingley 6, D. Tranter 7, J. H. Morton 8.

FIFTIETH CENTRAL COUNCIL MEETING

BROADCASTING NEGOTIATIONS.....TELEVISION.....'RINGING WORLD'.....MR. J. A. TROLLOPE'S WORK RULES TO BE REVISED.....CENTRAL COUNCIL HANDBOOK.....SYNTHETIC BELLS
 THE NEXT BUSINESS—A PROTEST

THE second half of the agenda was of wide interest. The Revision of Rules debate was not such an uphill battle for the Rev. K. W. H. Felstead. In 'Other business,' a variety of topics was raised, including synthetic bells and commemorating fallen ringers. LITERATURE, PRESS & BROADCASTING COMMITTEE.

Many and frequent references to bells and bellringing in the Press at large during the past twelve months indicate that editors have reason to regard the subject as one of general interest, and it is satisfactory to note that articles and occasional paragraphs of this nature show a marked improvement in accuracy and afford proof of commendable care taken to acquire correct information.

On the lighter side two or three national newspapers made midnight ringing on New Year's Eve the subject of humorous cartoons, while a local publication, after reporting a peal rung at Wrexham, indulged in unconscious humour by stating that 'the same band set up a record in London by ringing a peal that lasted 18 hours.'

'The Ringing World,' after having been ably piloted through a most critical period under the erudite and resourceful editorship of Mr. J. A. Trollope, has during the past year been edited with marked success by Mr. T. W. White.

On the subject of broadcasting we are glad to be able to present a definitely gratifying report. Through the good offices of the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow, the criticisms and suggestions made in our report last year were communicated to the Rev. M. W. Willson, Religious Broadcasting Assistant, from whom a letter was subsequently received with a copy of a memorandum submitted by him to the Director of Religious Broadcasting. This memorandum embodied, though with some considerable modification, the points suggested by the committee. It is perhaps to be regretted that Dr. Welch shortly afterwards vacated the post of director, but in any case the recommendations made have to quite an appreciable extent been put into practice. The principle was accepted that bells broadcast before a service should be heard for a short time without any interruption, and only after that faded into the background to give place to any introductory statements, and that change ringers should have opportunity to bring the bells into rounds before such fading out. In some instances this has been done with complete success: a notable example was that of the ten bells at Watford on a Sunday morning.

It is satisfactory to note that in most of the broadcasts heard, whether method ringing or otherwise, the striking has been good, though there have been a small number of indifferent performances. Some broadcasts were supremely good.

Apart from religious services, both church bells and handbells have been heard in various connections, and here again a high standard has been consistently maintained. With assistance from members of this Council an admirable talk was broadcast to schools on 'Ringing the Changes.'

A perfect example of a broadcast designed to interest the general public was given from Cambridge. It included information about Great St. Mary's bells, the Cambridge Youths, method ringing and the Curfew, with corresponding illustrations. A recent broadcast from Loughborough gave a lucid explanation of the making, tuning and ringing of bells. The bells of Loughborough Parish Church and the famous carillon were heard to full advantage.

In view of the fact that most broadcasts of ringing take place without being specifically announced in 'The Radio Times,' the committee request on behalf of the Exercise that those arranging to broadcast make a point of notifying the fact, with details of date and time, through 'The Ringing World.'

The Rev. F. Llewellyn Edwards, in moving the adoption of the report, said in the Transatlantic quiz the English question master asked his American counterpart: 'What would a man be doing if he was hanging on to "Sally" and calling "Bob"?' Naturally, the American was stumped!

Mr. A. Walker seconded the adoption of the report.

Mr. W. Ayre said he had a tentative enquiry in regard to televising. He was going to continue his enquiries and then pass them on to the Central Council.

Mr. Atkins said he had also been asked about televising. The difficulty was to find a suitable tower within 15 miles of Alexandra Palace. Handbells had been televised.

The President: I took part in the first televising of handbells.

Mr. F. Dukes spoke of the good relations concerning broadcasting that had been established in Northern Ireland. The time signal was of bells rung by ringers instead of chiming of the bells of Armagh Cathedral. No less than five occasions were the bells broadcast, and on one occasion the secretary of the Northern Branch attended to give a talk on change ringing and gave illustrations on the bells.

The report was adopted.

PEAL BOARDS COMMITTEE

Mr. W. Ayre said unfortunately Mr. Wilson, the convener of the committee, had been sentenced to six months in bed. A few more records had come in and they hoped to have them copied out in the proper way.

Mr. P. Crook said he had been asked to give some assistance from the Northern District. These would be completed before long.

The President: How far have the committee got records of peal boards destroyed by enemy action?

Mr. W. Ayre: If we had a list of the boards destroyed we could check on that. I have had one of interest: On January 31st, 1911, a peal of Small Bob Minor, consisting of 12 changes.

Mr. Kippin: How does that comply with the rules? (laughter).

BIOGRAPHIES COMMITTEE.

The work during the past year has consisted mainly in obtaining biographies of present members of the Council. One hundred and twenty letters and forms were despatched, and so far 53 have been filled in and returned. We are grateful to these members, and hope that the remaining forms will be received shortly.

In some cases photographs of members have been sent to us on loan, and we ask the Council to give us permission to reproduce these, and others that we may receive on the same condition, in order that they may be returned speedily. We ask for this permission in these cases only, for the cost at the present time is rather prohibitive, being 6s. per photograph. It is estimated that at the present time there are some 30 to be copied.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden, in moving the adoption, thanked Mr. Dyke and Mr. Golden for their help.

Mr. Hair seconded and the report was adopted.

'THE RINGING WORLD.'

Mr. G. W. Fletcher presented the accounts of 'The Ringing World' for the year ending September 30th, 1946. The revenue for the year was £1,918 11s. 7d. and there was a profit of £158 9s. 7d. against £293 9s. 6d. in the previous year. He regretted that it had not been possible to complete the audit of the accounts. There was one serious question, that of income tax, which he would go into. He asked permission for the accounts in future to be brought up to December 31st in each year, which would simplify the apportionment.

He did not think there was much else to say. They had topped the 4,000 circulation mark for, he believed, the first time in the history of the paper. The introduction of 16-page issues depended on the release of paper. They could still take additional subscribers.

Mr. Barber proposed and Mr. Kippin seconded that the financial year as regards 'The Ringing World' end on December 31st.

On the proposition of Mr. F. Perrens, seconded by Mr. Hair, it was decided to circulate the accounts to all associations.

Mr. Fletcher said they had all heard that Mr. Trollope was seriously ill. He did feel that the services that he rendered throughout the war years should be recognised. It was discussed by the Standing Committee and they recommended that they grant to Mr. Trollope £1 per week for the coming year and the position be reviewed at the next annual conference. They knew that they did make a considerable profit during the war years and that was largely due to Mr. Trollope.

The Rev. F. Llewellyn Edwards: It was a wonderful work that he did when there were no meetings.

Mr. J. Jones, Mr. Harold Poole and the Rev. H. Drake supported the motion, which was carried.

REVISION OF RULES.

One notice of motion was before the Council, viz.:—

'That the rules of the Central Council be revised, especially those governing the ringing of peals.'

The Rev. K. W. H. Felstead said he hoped that if this motion did not meet with the wishes of the majority it would not be guillotined like the amendment. It would appear from the morning's discussion that there was every reason for a revision of the rules of the Central Council. If the rules had been revised there would have been no controversy that morning. A clever person could get round a rule, as the Editor of 'The Ringing World' said, but these peals that had been disallowed were not rung with that idea at all. They were rung because of certain circumstances which the Central Council rules did not face and these circumstances should be faced. The second point was that the rules should be logical. One point mentioned that morning was that a covering bell for seven may or may not be necessary, but is necessary for nine and eleven and not for five bells. As far as he could see, this was quite illogical. The third point was that the rules should be brought up to date to cater for new circumstances. The reason there was this talk of nine bells was because in that particular tower there were nine bells.

Mr. Frank Smallwood: On a point of order, is it in order to bring it up when we have already made a decision.

The President ruled that the mover was in order.

Continuing, the Rev. Felstead said the rules of the Central Council had grown up piecemeal. There was another point mentioned by Mr. Butler, of Liverpool, in asking whether local conditions could not be taken into account. He did not think that their rules should be hard and fast and thus prevent people getting on. Take the nine bells at Basingstoke; there was a chance of ringing Caters and it was the only chance for miles around.

Mr. G. Pullinger seconded on behalf of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild. Apart from peals, he said, there were other matters requiring attention as were mentioned at Norwich. It was possible for an officer to be elected by the Council to an important office and for his own association not to elect him to the Council.

Mr. Harold Poole pointed out the irregularity of the Basingstoke peals, as the bells were not a ring of nine, but two rings of eight. They had two rings at Leicester, he said, and although a peal of 13 bells had been suggested, he had not fallen for it. It might be argued that the first peal at Basingstoke was due to ignorance, but on the second occasion the views of the Council were known. His opinion was that with the exception of peals on five bells, only peals on an even number of bells should be permitted.

Mr. P. J. Johnson remarked that it was an elementary fact that the reason they could ring peals on five bells without a cover was because ringers were ringing the extent of that number of bells, but to suggest that one could extend that principle to the higher numbers would jeopardise the principles of ringing. He suggested that the words 'especially those governing peals' be deleted from the rules. If the committee was going to spring a surprise they would not have it.

The Rev. Felstead said his one idea was to get the rules logical so they knew where they stood.

Mr. Pullinger added that he had no time for the ringing of stunt peals, and when it was brought forward there was no intention of bringing the matter in again at a later date. So far as he was concerned he did not wish to lower the standard of peal ringing.

The President: If this is carried it does not go beyond the stage of a committee making suggestions.

Mr. Johnson: We have a Standing Committee and I am going to suggest that the Standing Committee be asked to set up a sub-committee for the purpose of revising the rules. You have a Standing Committee which is the consultative governing body of this Council, and I feel that they are the people to deal with this matter in order to present their views to the Council. To establish a further committee would be creating a precedent.

The Rev. H. Drake supported Mr. Johnson's point of view, and the Rev. Felstead said he was prepared to accept it.

The motion thus amended was carried.

Mr. F. Dukes: May I suggest that the draft rules be submitted to each member of the Council for comment and brought back to the Standing Committee before the next Council meeting?

Mr. Pullinger: Would it not be easier if it was done through 'The Ringing World'?

The Hon. Secretary: There seems to be some doubt as to what we are talking about. The thing that required revision was the decisions of the Council; the rules were a domestic matter.

HANDBOOK.

The Hon. Secretary said they wanted to give all members of the Council and secretaries of associations some handbook which contained everything in the Council's records. He had a rough draft showing sections and asked the Council for permission to print such a handbook. The first section would deal with the title of the Council when it was founded, past and present officers and leave room for additional officers. The second would give the objects of the Council, what they intended to do and what they had done and what the Council was formed for: the third would be the domestic rules as circulated; the fourth a list of all voluntary societies and addresses of secretaries; the fifth a complete list of honorary members past and present; the sixth a list of the contents of the library and the rules governing the borrowing of books; the seventh, decisions of the Council since it was formed classified to cover all the different branches of ringing. The whole thing would be bound in such a way that they could insert supplements.

Mr. J. P. Fidler proposed that authority be given for such a publication.—Agreed.

THE NEXT MEETING.

The Council decided to hold the next meeting in London.

The Secretary asked members to consider whether the 1949 meeting should not be held at Dublin and be ready to vote on the matter at the next Council meeting.

RINGERS AND THE WAR.

Mr. E. Alex. Young said at the end of the first world war they compiled a beautiful book which was deposited in the library of St. Paul's Cathedral containing the names of 1,200 to 1,400 ringers who fell in the war. He thought a similar list should be compiled of those who fell in the last war.

It was agreed that the Standing Committee appoint a committee of two to prepare such a list.

C. T. COLES MEMORIAL.

Mr. E. C. S. Turner called attention to the C. T. Coles memorial, which aimed at providing a bell in one of the rebuilt churches. Mr. Coles' activities, he said, were not confined to the Middlesex Association; he was a member of the Council for 25 years and he invited the members of the Council to contribute.

Mr. A. B. Peck supported the appeal.

The Hon. Secretary said the Standing Committee discussed the matter last night and recommended that the sum of three guineas be voted to the fund.—Agreed.

The Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow said he had been asked to give a lantern lecture at the Royal Archaeological Institute on October 15th on Norwich bells and bell frames. He would be grateful for photographs of Norwich bell frames, ringers and peal boards.

BROADCASTING.

The Rev. F. Ll. Edwards asked whenever bells were broadcast would the ringing master send word to 'The Ringing World' mentioning the time and programme.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.

Mr. H. Poole called attention to the Leicester Guild ringing festival, dinner and dance on October 25th.

Mr. G. Pullinger announced the Bournemouth festival for April 24th.

Mr. G. W. Steere said there were still a few tickets left for the Cumberland dinner on July 12th.

SYNTHETIC BELLS.

Mr. F. Waite asked if anything could be done about synthetic bells.

The Secretary: The matter was discussed at the Standing Committee and attention was drawn to the circular issued in 1938-9 to church authorities.

The Rev. A. S. Roberts said Cornish clergy were being sent a catalogue of carillon bells from an American firm.

Mr. J. W. Clarke: There is one thing we ought to remember—the Chancellor of the Diocese has to give the final decision before a faculty for such things is granted. The application for a faculty goes before the Advisory Committee and it seems to me that in the interest of ringing we should be represented on the Advisory Committees. I am from Chester and I am chairman of their Advisory Committee. The cost of synthetic bells is about £150. Ringers should be on their watch against these installations.

Mr. J. W. Jones said he knew of a tower designed by an architect to carry a proper ring of bells. Bluff had been brought to bear on the authorities and they had installed bells for chiming only.

MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH.

Mr. Richard Post called attention to the very great evil which the Bishop of Exeter referred to of ringers ringing for a service and not attending it. He was not accusing anyone because everyone knew where he stood individually. If they as members of the Council were going to stop this evil they would have to see that they were all members of the Church.

THE ATTENDANCE.

The Secretary said last year he was able to report the attendance at Norwich of 100 members. That day they had a record attendance of 113. There were 23 associations wholly represented, 22 partially represented and seven not represented. There were 52 associations and these sent 102 representatives and had 37 absentees; 11 honorary members attended with six absentees.

THE NEXT BUSINESS.

Mr. H. J. Poole registered a protest against resolutions 'passing on to the next business.' Last year and again this year, he said, where there had been discussion somebody had recommended that we take the line of least resistance. He felt it was a most slipshod manner and a means of dodging the issue.

The Secretary: When a resolution of that kind is placed before the meeting it is voted on and members can defeat the resolution if they want to.

VOTES OF THANKS.

The President moved from the chair the following votes of thanks: To the Mayor for his welcome; to the Lord Bishop for coming to give us his welcome; to the Dean and Chapter for the use of the Cathedral bells; to the incumbents of the various churches where we have rung; to the Guild of Devonshire Ringers for their hospitality and the arrangements they made for our comfort, particularly mentioning Mr. F. C. Smale and Mr. B. W. Biffin; to Mr. and Mrs. Stokes for their delightful hospitality; to all towerkeepers; to Archdeacon Thompson for taking the members round the Cathedral. (As they went round the Archdeacon pointed out the great damage done to the Cathedral. He suggested that they send the Archdeacon five guineas towards the cost of repairs. Agreed.)

Mr. W. H. Barber proposed a vote of thanks to the president and to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher for the great work they had done. The resolution was carried with applause.

Mr. F. C. Smale, on behalf of the Guild of Devonshire Ringers, thanked the conference for their visit. 'I have been looking forward to this day for a whole year,' he concluded.

Members of the conference were afterwards entertained to tea by the Guild of Devonshire Ringers.

OBITUARY

MR. F. W. BENNETT.

By the passing of Mr. Frederick William Bennett on May 29th at the age of 80 years, the Church of St. Swithin, Bicker, Lincolnshire, has lost its oldest ringer. Mr. Bennett was taught to ring a bell at this church by his father over 70 years ago and had been a ringer there up to his death. Four of his five sons are also ringers, viz., Mr. A. H. Bennett (Bicker), Mr. S. E. Bennett (Spalding), Mr. F. Bennett (Holbeach) and Mr. I. P. Bennett (Northampton). Three grandsons are also carrying on the family tradition. Mr. Bennett rang as recently as April 20th, 720 Bob Minor, two sons, A. H. and I. P. Bennett, and his grandson, N. B. Povargue, taking part.

The interment took place at Bicker on May 31st, when four ringers—Messrs. G. R. Dawson, W. B. Dawson, W. G. Short and C. Wander—acted as bearers. A course of Grand-sire Triples was rung over the open grave by W. B. Dawson 1-2, W. G. Short 3-4, C. Wander 5-6, and G. R. Dawson 7-8.

In the evening on the tower bells, 1,320 Oxford Treble Bob Minor was rung half-muffled by W. B. Dawson 1, R. Howard 2, J. P. Morris 3, W. G. Short 4, C. Wander 5, G. R. Dawson (first quarter as conductor) 6.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Truro Cathedral Peal

Dear Sir,—The ringers of Truro Cathedral are very much annoyed with the ringers who claim to have rung a peal to commemorate the diamond jubilee of our Cathedral. Like the Kingston ringers, we knew nothing about any arrangements being made for such a peal, and at a meeting of our ringers it was decided not to recognise the peal. Our ringers had hoped to ring, with friends from other towers in the Guild, at the right time for a jubilee peal, and they feel that the peal rung on May 17th was in the nature of 'peal snatching.'

The Dean and Chapter were misled by the letter which they received from the conductor of the peal, but in future all applications for our bells will come before our ringers. Anyone wishing to ring a peal will have to be a regular Sunday service ringer. This will not apply to older ringers who have done good work for the Exercise and are more or less retired.

I should like to point out that we have a good band of unpaid ringers, most of whom are active workers at the Cathedral. These include the Rev. R. E. Sibthorp (Succentor), the Rev. K. Peeke, Vicar of St. Paul's, and his two sisters, one churchwarden, a sub-warden, four sidesmen, one lay reader, one chairman and one server.

I think this is a band to be proud of and must be a record for one tower.—Yours truly,
W. H. SOUTHEARD, Ringing Master.

Truro.

I REMEMBER

Dear Sir,—About 30 years ago I visited Exeter Cathedral, when Mr. Shepherd asked me to ring the 72 cwt. tenor to 503 changes of Grandsire Caters for Sunday evening service. It took three ringers to pull it off the stay. I then rang it without the slightest difficulty. Mr. Shepherd then arranged for me to come and ring it to a peal of Grandsire Caters. He then wrote me stating the authorities had decided that the tenor bell must not be rung in future unless two men were on it. I then wrote Mr. Shepherd declining to come as I shall never ring a bell with the assistance of another man. The next time I met William Pye I told him it was the easiest tenor I had ever rung and that I should have had not the slightest difficulty in ringing this bell single-handed to a peal.

About 20 years ago I rang at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, for Sunday morning service. I rang the 10th bell to a touch of Stedman Cinques with two men on the 11th. Mr. Winney then asked me whether I would like to ring the 11th with Mr. Prime, as that bell was going very badly. I declined as I would never ring a bell with assistance, but I offered to ring if the second rope was taken off. He did this and I rang the 11th single handed quite easily to a course of Stedman Cinques. One of the ringers then asked me how it went, when I replied that I found nothing wrong with the bell and that it only wanted a man on it. I then rang the heavy tenor five minutes for the service bell.

Birmingham.

JAMES GEORGE.

EVERCREECH BELLS

Dear Sir,—On the authority of the Rev. F. E. Robinson, the seventh was put there when the tower was (c. 1450).

Several of the rest were subscribed by the Bibbie family, and I hope the bellfounders will do their best to live up to it.—Faithfully yours,
F. A. CLUETT.

Milton-next-Gravesend.

LICHFIELD TWINS—GREETINGS

Dear Sir,—My warmest congratulations to the twins, Peter and Dennis, and to their elder sister Joan, of Lichfield, who rang their first peal together recently.—Yours faithfully, MALCOLM MELVILLE.

H.M.S. 'Wolfe,' Malta.

Psychology and Beginners

Dear Sir,—If it were possible, it would be interesting to obtain a record of the number of potential ringers lost to our bellfries through lack of encouragement.

No one is more acutely conscious of his inferiority than the inexperienced among experienced ringers. Hence the reluctance on the part of the former to 'stand in' at meetings. And, having been prevailed upon to do so, hence, too, the uncertain striking caused by fear of ringing over the wrong bell.

It may be that this sense of inferiority is a phase in the life history of every ringer—a phase too long forgotten by many—too long experienced by more.

But it is a crucial stage, when the ringer still feels elated after ringing a new method, however elementary. If psychology is to be trusted, his elation must be made justifiable if greater confidence is to be gained.

Every new effort is worthy of commendation. A first plain course of Grandsire Doubles, rung unaided, gives as much comparative pleasure as a first peal of Superlative Surprise. For any such occasion, encouraging words are alone fitting. The criticism can await a more opportune moment when the learner has enjoyed his sense of achievement. His elation may only be short lived, but it will be found to serve as a foundation upon which the teacher can then hurl his criticism with far less likelihood of his efforts at teaching coming to nought, and of his bellfry being bereft of potential campanologists.—Yours faithfully,
R. MARY DAVIES.

London, N.W.2.

FILM STUDIO RINGING

Dear Sir,—The film 'Green Fingers' just released has a scene depicting the ringing chamber of Whithy Church tower. The sound track is of Whithy bells.

The ringers operating the improvised bells at the British National Film Studio were seven members of the St. Albans Cathedral, one from the Oxhey band and two artistes.

The artistes appearing in the ringing had to be taught to handle the rope in half an hour before the actual shooting of the picture. The ringers were H. Hodgets (Oxhey band), Miss B. Copeston, L. T. Hansell, G. N. Blake, B. A. Cornell, W. J. Arnold, E. Sprague and H. E. C. Goodenough.

The improvised bells were certainly interesting, the (bell) being made up of pieces of metal tube, blocks of lead and tubular scaffold clips, hung fairly well out, the action was quite good, in so much that we rang a silent course of Stedman Triples. I should imagine this is the first ever to be accomplished in a film studio.—Yours faithfully,
H. GOODENOUGH.

St. Albans.

CAMBRIDGE SURPRISE MINOR

Dear Sir,—Mr. Golden's letter calls for a reply. I made no claims, and the 720's were just as my friend Mr. W. Taylor, of Penwortham, gave them to me. I pointed out to him that they were not new, and he has only succeeded in reproducing what A. G. Driver did years ago. To the several correspondents who have written me privately, I say many thanks for the information which I asked for.

Finally a new generation of ringers has arisen since the Mad Hatter (A. G. Driver) gave these figures to the Exercise. So in their interest an occasional letter to 'The Ringing World' on a subject like this can do no harm.—Yours faithfully,
E. R. MARTIN.

86, Hartington Road, Preston.

STAGSDEN, BEDS.—On May 20th, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: M. Lockey 1, Miss Margery Watson 2, Miss Pat Gilbert 3, J. Davy 4, R. J. Sharp 5, A. C. Sinfield (conductor) 6.

INSURANCE

From Derbyshire we have received an interesting query concerning the insurance of ringers. In a form attached to the policy the amount of payment per annum to the various church workers is given, and the ringers are shown as receiving £52 yearly. Here the ringers are all voluntary; their services to the Church are gladly given. What is their position in the event of a claim in case of injury?

We submitted the question to a legal friend, who at once said that without seeing the policy it was difficult to express an opinion. He assumes that the liability of the insurers is limited to indemnifying the Church authorities in respect of any claim against them under the Workmen's Compensation and Employers' Liability Acts. Voluntary ringers or an unpaid steeplekeeper would not succeed in a statutory claim under the before-mentioned Acts against the Church authorities, and the insurers would not therefore be called upon to indemnify except perhaps to the extent of legal costs incurred by the policy holders in resisting a claim.

A voluntary worker might have a Common Law claim against the Church authorities for any injuries occasioned through 'negligence' of the responsible authority. Some years ago a boy was awarded substantial damages against the authorities at a church by reason of the fact that, while he was tolling a bell, the clapper fell out and struck him, causing severe injuries. The word 'negligence' should be taken as meaning something narrower than its accepted sense. Perhaps it would be clearer if we state that the volunteer was injured by reason of some defect which was known or which might, with due care, have been known to the authorities, but was not and could not without undue investigation have been patent to the volunteer. If such was the case, a good claim for damages would exist.

It must be remembered that a Church Council is a corporate body, and its members are not individually liable, and as a body are only liable to the extent of the funds in hand. In the case of paid workers, if there is a definite contract for service at an agreed remuneration the worker could in case of injury arising out of and in the course of the employment be entitled to the compensation prescribed by statute. The maximum weekly payment under the Workmen's Compensation Act for total incapacity is 35s., plus sundry small war-time additions which depend on the number of dependants of the injured persons. The total sum payable in respect of a fatal accident under this Act varies, according to the dependants left, from the cost of the funeral to £700. Generally speaking, the Workmen's Compensation, Employers' Liability and Third Party policies are not usually agreements by the Insurance Company to pay compensation in respect of accidents but are indemnities to the policy holder against claims which are legally substantiated. A subtle difference!

*The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

The Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow is leaving this week-end for a short holiday in Spain. Doubtless he is planning a new sales campaign for his book on Norwich bells, which proved a best seller at the Central Council meeting.

Thoughts and good wishes from many will go to Leicester next Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris celebrate their silver wedding.

Golden Wedding. — Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Youngs on June 10th. Mr. Youngs was at one time secretary of the Romney Marsh and District Guild. A peal of Spliced Kent and Oxford Treble Bob was rung in honour of the occasion.

It was Miss Edna F. Bedford and not Miss F. Bedford who rang in the peal of London Surprise Major at Tarporley, Cheshire, on May 10th.

Although he has only been ringing 12 months, 15-year-old Alan J. Hicks, of Marhamchurch, Cornwall, called his first peal at Poughill on May 30th. Two noted ringers—Messrs. F. E. Collins and G. W. Critchley—who were afterwards taken for father and son—can testify to Alan's good show.

Another youthful conductor this week is Miss Gladys Higham, who called a peal at Kewstoke, Weston-super-Mare. It is claimed on her behalf that she is the youngest member of the Ladies' Guild (Western District) to call a peal.

Sixteen-year-old B. A. Richards is captain of Holy Cross Church, Morton, Derbyshire. He called the first quarter of 1,440 Bob Minor by his company on May 31st, viz.: M. Richards (14) 1, P. Wright (16) 2, H. Franklin (16) 3, E. G. Holdgate (16), 4, E. Sterland (16), 5, B. A. Richards (16), 6. The first peal cannot be far distant.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The train taking the Leicester band to ring at Manchester Town Hall stopped at Millers Dale Station immediately opposite a railway engine. The handbells were tapping along merrily when the driver, leaning over the side, shouted, 'Open the window.' This was done and he said, 'Ring us a bit of Grandshire.' Said 'the Gaffer': 'You appear to know a bit about the game.' 'Ah!' replied the driver, 'I hope to be doing a bit myself this afternoon. I'm going to a meeting at Matlock!'

When Mr. Harold J. Poole was walking across Albert Square, Manchester, with two other ringers a stranger came up to him and asked how to get to the belfry. 'Why have you asked me?' came the reply. 'Well, you look like a ringer.' Inspector Poole has been told many times he looks like a policeman, but he did not know ringers had any special looks about them. The stranger was from Accrington. The Leicester ringers thank those of the Manchester band who helped to make the visit so enjoyable.

Mr. A. D. Barker, of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, proposed the vote of thanks to the president and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher at Exeter. We regret the error.

Mr. E. Alexander Young met with an accident on his homeward journey from Exeter. He dismounted from his bus just before it had stopped and fractured some elbow bones. Mr. Young is now in hospital for an operation. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

'Are there any works bands of ringers?' ask employees of the British Timken, Ltd., Duston Works, Northampton, who ring at Harpole, Northants. On June 4th they rang 1,260 Doubles (600 Plain Bob and 660 Grandshire): G. Smith (first quarter) 1, T. Bass 2, R. Finch 3, H. Downie 4, E. Nobles (conductor) 5.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD

DIAMOND JUBILEE FESTIVAL AT MACCLESFIELD.

In glorious summer weather the Chester Diocesan Guild held its diamond jubilee festival at St. Michael's, Macclesfield, on May 31st, when a large number of ringers from all parts of the diocese and friends from further afield were present. An early start was made with ringing, and the B.B.C. recording van arrived shortly after 1 p.m. Some speech records were made as well as two of the fine twelve at St. Michael's, one of rounds and the other of Queens, which were later used in the Northern programme. It is to be regretted that the B.B.C. gave only twelve hours' notice of its intention to make these records and no definite time appears to have been arranged for the subsequent broadcast, which was, in fact, made the same evening after the news.

Service was held at 3.30 p.m. and opened with a special bidding prayer fitting to the occasion. In the absence of the Bishop through indisposition, the festival sermon was preached by the Ven. F. J. Okell, Archdeacon of Macclesfield, who had formerly been associated with ringers at both Eccleston and Malpas.

The Archdeacon spoke of those whose convictions and foresight 60 years ago brought the Guild into being and whose efforts had resulted in its foundations being well and truly laid. He mentioned especially the names of Archdeacon Barber and Mr. H. A. Heywood. To its founders and to those who had so ably carried on since their day the Guild owed a debt of gratitude. He also stressed the objects which were in mind when the Guild was formed, including not only the advancement of the art of change ringing, but also the recognition of ringers as officers of the Church. Finally he emphasised the spirit of fellowship which existed, between members of any Guild and among all ringers everywhere.

Tea was served in the Beehive Cafe.

At the annual meeting, the Master, Mr. J. W. Clarke, presided and at the outset expressed the thanks of the Guild to the Archdeacon for his kindness in preaching a sermon which was so perfectly in tune with the feelings of all members on that occasion.

The report on the past year gave clear indication that the Guild had gone a long way towards the recovery of its pre-war prosperity. It showed increased activity in peal ringing with many members ringing their first peal, and with membership rising there is ample evidence that service ringing is almost back to its former high level. Several restoration schemes are contemplated and others have already been completed, notably the ring of ten at Christ Church, Macclesfield.

It was fitting, too, that in the report the names of several members who had given loyal service to the Guild throughout its 60 years of existence were recorded, and some who had but recently passed over proudly remembered. Among the latter the name of Mr. Harry Brocklebank, for over 30 years secretary of the Wirral Branch, had a special place of honour.

The Master gave a report on the meeting of the Central Council at Exeter, stressing the point made by the president of the importance of striking and of the lesson the 'scientific' ringer might profitably learn from the round-ringer of the south-west where great accuracy of striking is insisted upon.

In the election of officers the Master was re-elected and his first duty was to propose the re-election of the Rev. J. D. Pearson as secretary, at the same time paying high tribute to the work he had so willingly done in the past. The fact that Mr. Pearson was not a ringer made his efforts for the Guild all the more commendable. After having held office for a considerable number of years, both the report secretary (Mr. H. Parker) and the peal recorder (Mr. R. W. Worrall) asked to be allowed to resign. In accepting their resignations with extreme regret, the meeting expressed its keen appreciation of the work done by both these officers. Mr. Whittaker and Mrs. Lawton were elected to the vacancies.

The meeting concluded with hearty votes of thanks to the branch officials, whose untiring efforts had done so much to further the Guild's prosperity; to the Vicar of St. Michael's for his hospitality and to those members of the Macclesfield Branch who had been responsible for the arrangements for the day. Full use was made of the many bells available during the evening.

Six towers were visited by the Chester Branch on Whit Monday when they held their annual trip in Shropshire. The touches included Plain Bob, Grandsire, Kent Treble Bob, Cambridge, Double Norwich and London, both in Major and Royal.

ROYAL ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In response to the telegrams sent from the meeting of the Central Council at Exeter to Queen Mary and Princess Elizabeth, the following replies have been received:—

'I am commanded to express Queen Mary's sincere thanks to your very kind message of congratulation on the anniversary of Her Majesty's birthday.—Private Secretary.'

'The Lady-in-Waiting is desired by the Princess Elizabeth to thank the Central Council of Church Bellringers for their most kind message sent on the occasion of Her Royal Highness' 21st birthday, which the Princess very much appreciated.'

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Very successful was the Whit Monday meeting of the Wisbech Branch at Walpole St. Andrew, when the visitors included Mr. W. A. Stote (Coventry), Mr. C. E. Jefferies (Mauldon, Beds), Mr. A. Mason (London) and Mr. F. W. Lack (Great Staughton).

The Vicar (the Rev. A. Lee-Warner) conducted the service and presided at the business meeting. A special vote of thanks was accorded lady members of the local band, who provided cups of tea. The next meeting was planned for Terrington St. Clement. Ringing included Cambridge Surprise and Spliced Minor.

THE ESSEX ASSOCIATION

INCREASED SUBSCRIPTION DEFERRED.

In an uplifting address at the 68th annual meeting and festival of the Essex Association at Chelmsford Cathedral on Whit Monday, the Bishop of Chelmsford (president of the Association) called upon all ringers to greater efforts, saying that ringers could reach those outside the Church and remind all people that the Church had the answer to a great many of the vexing problems besetting the world to-day. The Precentor (the Rev. Dore) conducted the service.

The Master, Dr. P. T. Spencer-Phillips, J.P., presided at the annual meeting held in the Chapter House, supported by the hon. secretary and treasurer (Mr. Robert C. Heazel) and 150 ringers and friends.

The annual report recorded a very successful year with steadily increasing progress and membership. After a lengthy discussion the report was adopted. A slight decrease in the balance in hand was shown in the treasurer's statement.

Alterations made to the rules and on the recommendation of the committee included the creation of the new office of Deputy Master and increasing the number of trustees from two to three.

The Master spoke of the 60 years' service to the Association by Mr. George Green, of Great Baddow, and on Dr. Spencer-Phillips' proposition he was unanimously elected a life vice-president.

Durham & Newcastle Assn.

PLANNING THE 70th ANNIVERSARY.

Sixteen towers and visitors from Catterick Camp attended the half-yearly meeting of the Association at Darlington on May 31st.

Ringing was enjoyed at St. Cuthbert's (8) and Holy Trinity (6), and a service was held in Holy Trinity conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. J. Simpson), who gave an inspiring address. Mr. A. Minto, F.R.C.O., was the organist, and the lesson was read by Mr. W. N. Park.

A company of 45 sat down to tea at the Fleece Hotel. The president (Mr. R. L. Patterson) was in the chair at the business meeting.

Miss Armstrong said that the watch tower bells at Morpeth were in a very bad state and the local Council were disinclined to do anything towards their rectification at the present time. The President referred to the recent death of Mr. George S. Taylor, of St. Ignatius', Sunderland, formerly secretary and treasurer of the Association and whom he personally had known for 50 years. At the president's suggestion the meeting stood in silence as a mark of respect.

New members elected were Messrs. J. W. Addison, F. R. Addison and H. A. Ward, of Thornaby, and the Misses B. E. Shutt, N. Benson, M. Walton and D. M. Killingley and Messrs. G. A. Holmes and R. Spencer, of Richmond, to whom the president extended a hearty welcome.

The Hon. Treasurer referred to the difficulties encountered in catering arrangements at the present time, and reported that he had booked at the Three Tuns Hotel, Durham, for the annual festival, and this action was ratified by the meeting. It was felt that as the annual festival this year was the 70th anniversary of the Association's formation, some additional expense might be incurred, and on the proposition of Mr. Kenneth Arthur seconded by Mr. Fred Robson, the treasurer was empowered by a unanimous vote to spend up to £5 at his discretion.

After votes of thanks a move was made to the towers, where further ringing took place, which included Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Treble Bob, Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise. A collection for the Association's Bell Restoration Fund realised £1 12s. 10d.

The Master was re-elected and Mr. G. L. Joyce was elected to the new office of Deputy Master. Also re-elected was the general secretary and treasurer. In order to make way for a younger representative, Mr. E. J. Butler resigned his membership of the Central Council. He was thanked for his services and Mr. F. V. Gant was elected to fill the vacancy. The three representatives attending the Central Council meeting were thanked for their services and re-elected en bloc.

Mr. C. Ellis reported progress made with the Nevard memorial and said he hoped it would soon be completed. The Master reported that a £10 grant had been made to the Great Tey Bell Restoration Fund and that enquiries had been received from St. Mary's, Maldon.

Under the heading of 'Any other business,' the question of increasing subscriptions was raised by Mr. G. L. Joyce, who stated that to carry out the policy of the Association a greater income was necessary. Several members spoke on the same lines, but owing to the shortage of time no decision was reached.

A letter from Mr. George Gilbert re the appeal for Burnham bells was read.

A vote of thanks was accorded to all those who had helped to make the meeting a success.

Following the lunch the company split into small parties to visit the churches in the surrounding parishes, where a very pleasant afternoon with some good ringing was enjoyed by all.

Chesterfield's New Ten

An air of expectancy prevailed at Chesterfield on May 24th, the day of the dedication of the new ring of ten. Townspeople gathered in the vicinity of the Parish Church of St. Mary in the afternoon to hear the bells for the first time. Most of the ringers in the district attended with enthusiasts from Birmingham, Derby, Doncaster, Leeds, Manchester and other distant towers.

The bells had previously been baptised by the Assistant Bishop on April 12th, and the dedication by the Bishop of Derby took place during evensong. After the words of dedication, the bells were rung in rounds. In his address the Bishop said the bells were to be rung to the glory of God and to call people to worship.

A well-struck course of Grandsire Caters followed the service, the ringers being J. Thorpe, G. Briggs, F. B. Ditcher, B. Knights, A. P. Knights, L. Trevor, A. Firth, N. Chadock, E. A. Thorpe and W. Allman (tenor). Tea followed at St. James' Hall, a company of 130 being present, including the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Chesterfield. The ringers then returned to the tower and an endeavour was made for each to have a pull. Methods rung included Cambridge Royal and London Major.

The last occasion the old ring of ten was rung was in 1924, when owing to the oscillation of the tower and the weakened structure of the spire, which is built of timber covered with lead slates and stands quite a normal height and proportionate to the church, the authorities pronounced further ringing unsafe.

The tower and spire have now been fully restored, the old wooden frame removed and the bells recast into ten with a tenor a little over 25 cwt. and hung in a new steel frame with modern fittings. The bells are placed well below the louvred windows. They possess a delightful tone and their volume in the vicinity is reasonable. All the bells can be clearly heard in the belfry. The new ropes proved a little springy, but from a ringer's point of view an excellent ring has been provided, and Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated on a fine piece of work.

Chesterfield tower has a few qualified ringers and a number of learners who can ring rounds and are under the direction of Mr. S. Scattergood. It is hoped that the bells will be rung regularly for services, as they are a worthy asset to the church and a joy to the people of Chesterfield. H.O.C.

WEDDING OF REV. R. D. St. J. SMITH

Ringers gathered from far afield at Calverley, Leeds, on June 5th, for the wedding of the Rev. Roger Douglas St. John Smith, son of the Rev. and Mrs. D. G. Smith, of Chaplain's House, Ravenstone, Leicester, and Miss Frances Mary Calderbank, daughter of Canon and Mrs. J. Calderbank, of Calverley Vicarage. The Ven. Archdeacon S. E. Lowe conducted the service, with the Rev. D. G. Smith.

The bridegroom, who is a well-known ringer, was a chaplain of the Forces in West Africa, India and Burma during the war. The bride, who was physiotherapist at Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham, was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen Calderbank, and two friends, Miss Frances S. Pedley and Miss Patricia M. Creaser. Mr. A. W. Chalmers, the best man, was a friend of the bridegroom in the Burma campaign.

The company included ringers from Ashton-under-Lyne, Somersham, Norwich and nearer places. Immediately after the wedding the eight bells of Calverley Church were fired and rung in rounds and Queens, and later in the day a peal of Bob Major was rung. Handbell ringing—Bob Major and Grandsire Caters—was a pleasing feature of the reception.

Peterborough Guild

GIFTS TO THE RETIRING MASTER.

Appreciation of the services of the Rev. E. S. Powell during the 12 years he was Master of the Peterborough Guild was expressed in a tangible manner at the annual meeting of the Guild at Northampton on Whit Monday. The Rev. Powell gave the address at the service in St. Giles' Church, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. G. W. C. Thomas). A company of 103 sat down to tea.

The president (the Archdeacon of Northampton) presided at the business meeting. The officers elected were: President, the Archdeacon of Northampton; Master, Mr. E. E. Whitmore; secretary and treasurer, Mr. R. G. Black; representatives to the Central Council for the next session 1948-49-50, Messrs. G. W. Jeffs, W. Rose, G. S. Valentine and E. E. Whitmore. The office of auditor (vacant by the sudden death of Mr. A. P. J. Ward last March) was filled by the election of Mr. B. J. Saddington. Grants from Bell Restoration Fund approved were: Great Brington £10, Grafton Regis £10, and Paulerspury £5.

The President, in a very appropriate speech, made a presentation to the retiring Master as a mark of appreciation of the great work he had done during the 12 years he held the office. The presentation took the form of an illuminated address framed in old oak, expressing appreciation of his efforts and good wishes to him and Mrs. Powell on retirement. It was accompanied by a roll of notes. The Rev. E. S. Powell suitably replied, and thanked the members for the thought which prompted the presentation.

Mr. H. Baxter moved a vote of thanks to all who had in any way assisted in making the meeting a success. Four non-resident life members were elected, viz., Messrs. G. Hart, R. E. W. Wenban, W. Wenban and J. R. Mayne, all of Harrow, Middlesex.

All the bells in Northampton were available and good use was made of them. Among the visitors were some from London, Leicester, Chesterfield, Huntingdon and Wolverhampton. Wellingborough was selected for next year's annual meeting.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

PRESENTATION TO MR. W. H. SENIOR.

Batley bells are claimed by Mr. W. H. Senior to be the finest light ring in all Yorkshire, and it was after hearing these bells that the May meeting of the Society was held on May 31st.

The president (Mr. J. McGlenn), supported by the Rev. L. A. Smith and the full committee, presided and the most important business was the presentation to Mr. Senior. In making it the chairman said Mr. Senior was the sixteenth to hold the office of president, and during the nine years he was president and the seven years as vice-president he had put in a lot of very hard work. He had very great pleasure in presenting him with a silver cigarette case and a barometer in the hope that the Budget would not affect the supplies or prevent the case from always having some stock inside.

Mr. Senior, in reply, regarded when he joined the Society at Rothwell as the finest day's work he had done. He had learnt a lot and had had much pleasure, and formed friendships which had lasted through the years. He had also learned to ring Surprise methods, but the gifts he had received were the greatest 'surprise' ever. In conclusion he asked all present to support the president and the Society, paying their best attention to striking as the listening public did not like jumble bells.

Other tributes to Mr. Senior were from Mr. Walsh and Mr. Lofthouse. The latter, in thanking Mr. Senior for all he had done, said they could not expect the barometer always to be showing 'set fair' but they wished Mr. Senior's future would always be bright and happy and his path of life as fair as possible.

OBITUARY

MRS. GEOFFREY MARTINEAU.

Mrs. Geoffrey Martineau, who was interred at Solihull Church on June 10th, was the wife of Mr. Geoffrey Martineau, Ringing master at Solihull from 1892 to 1934. Mr. Martineau's contribution to the ringing life of the village was his unceasing work for the bells, beginning with the restoration and reorganisation of 1894 and culminating in the recasting of 1932.

His efforts provided the magnificent peal of ten that is rung regularly every Sunday. Mrs. Martineau was closely associated with her husband in all this work, and it was due to her interest and courage that the end was achieved so successfully.

In the evening of June 10th the local band rang as a tribute to her memory 737 Grandsire Caters with the bells half-muffled: W. Lesson 1, H. Bragg 2, J. N. Jukes 3, T. Warner 4, E. C. Shepherd (conductor) 5, A. D. Cook 6, H. Shepherd 7, C. W. Bragg 8, J. Bragg 9, V. W. Rigg 10. E.C.S.

MR. CHARLES H. WATTS.

The death has occurred at Dawley, Shropshire, of Mr. Charles H. Watts, who was well known, both as a bellhanger and a ringer, particularly in the London and Birmingham areas.

A native of Salisbury, he started work as a boy with the firm of Blackbourne and Greenleaf, afterwards working for Mears and Stainbank and for Barwells, of Birmingham. His work took him to every part of the country, and he assisted in rehanging the bells at Wells, Oxford and Hereford Cathedrals.

An accomplished ringer, both on tower and handbells, his total of peals must have been considerable. Many in his younger days were rung with J. W. Washbrook, W. W. Gifford, C. Hounslow and other prominent ringers. He rang in the first peal (Treble Ten) at Hereford Cathedral and in the first peal of Stedman Cinques at St. Chad's, Shrewsbury. His last peal was Grandsire Caters at Coalbrookdale in 1939.

Since going to live in Shropshire, he was a regular attendant for service ringing and practice at local towers right up to the time of his last illness.

MR. SHIRLEY BURTON'S 200 PEALS

With the peal of Cambridge Maximus at Manchester Town Hall on May 31st, Mr. Shirley Burton, of Braunstone, Leicester, has completed 200 peals. These have been rung for 14 associations in 13 counties and 53 towers and with 268 ringers. The list is:—

Maximus.—Cambridge 9, New Cambridge 1, Superlative 1, York 1, Yorkshire 3, Kent Treble Bob 1.

Cinques.—Stedman 15 (conducted 1). Royal.—Cambridge 27, New Cambridge 1, Princess Mary 1, Leicester 1, Pudsey 1, York 1, Yorkshire 1, Melton 1, Kent Treble Bob 1. Caters.—Stedman 9, Grandsire 1.

Major.—Cambridge 33 (conducted 1), New Cambridge 2, Superlative 13, Double Superlative 1 (10,400), York 1, Yorkshire 6, Bristol 21, London 24, Double Norwich 2, Kent Treble Bob 1.

Triples.—Stedman 16, Grandsire 2. Minor.—Cambridge 1. Doubles.—Grandsire 1.

THE FINISHING TOUCH

Scene—The Tower of a Liverpool Church, one Practice Night recently.

Two young men, about 20-22, came up into the ringing chamber and stood by the door till the short touch was finished. The tower-keeper wished them 'Good evening' and asked if they were ringing. They said, 'No, we came to ask if the ringers would stop ringing.' On being asked why, they replied that they were playing 'housey housey' in the street opposite and could not hear the numbers called! Collapse of towerkeeper.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

'Guillotine'

Dear Sir,—May I be allowed to make one or two comments on your very fair leading article in this week's 'Ringing World.' Firstly, concerning the 'guillotine.' Of course, there are times when it is better that 'we pass on to the next business' without further delay, but I believe this should be done sparingly and when there has been a fair time allotted for full discussion. I don't think there were any objections to this procedure at Norwich because there had been a chance for everyone, but at Exeter this was not the case. However, as the secretary remarked, it is up to the members to reject it.

Secondly, concerning the Basingstoke peals (and I am sorry to keep on bringing them up, but it seems to be necessary). There still seems to be some confusion about what the nine bells are (this is where I think the leading article is again misleading). These nine bells are unique (I think) in that they are the back nine of a peal of ten, i.e., nine bells in the diatonic scale, or an octave with a treble added (note re). It is no comparison at all to mention a 13 where one bell is a flattened 6th—the 13 are not the back 13 of a peal of 14, i.e., are not in the diatonic scale. In the usual sense, it is wrong to describe them as two rings of eight.

There would have been no peals rung on the Basingstoke bells if they had not been a nine in the diatonic scale, and if nine such bells are not a Caters combination, I don't know what is! Perhaps I ought to add that I neither took part in the peals concerned nor did I know they were being rung. I think it also ought to be mentioned that the second peal of Kent with a cover was rung because it was thought to be allowed by the rules (Mr. Kippin told me this after the performance) with the idea of showing how illogical they were. I confess I for one am still not clear why it was ruled out of order—the sudden ending of the matter prevented us from learning this.

Thirdly, concerning 'music.' All would agree that we secure as musical a combination as possible, but I still maintain that the first criterion of a peal is 5,000 odd different changes. I don't believe the public (if they ever really listen to a peal) would know whether a peal was a good one for music or whether it made all the most obvious 'mistakes' musically, as the ringer regards them. For instance, has there been any hesitation in parting the tenors in certain Major methods when a 'different' peal was required? Also, since it is usually acknowledged that odd bell methods with a tenor covering give the most musically satisfying peals, who is to say that a Major method with a tenor covering is less musical than on the eight bells alone? I would hesitate very much in denouncing it. No, sir, you cannot argue from the musical standpoint, I am certain (with all due respect to Mr. Johnson)—and remain logical, of course.

I am sorry to go on at such length about this matter, and I fear some think that I am just trying to be awkward; that is why we were 'guillotined,' I suspect. But until I am convinced that we have not a fair case I shall not be able to prevent myself having a firm opinion on the question. Being a newcomer to the Exercise, I believe I can see things with a more unprejudiced eye than many who have been many years on the Council (I say that with all respect), and anything which is illogical is more apparent to such as I. To me, illogicality savours of unfairness, and so, for the good of all concerned, I feel bound to fight to remove it, and may I add that I hope this point will be carefully watched when the revision of rules and decisions takes place.—Yours faithfully, K. W. H. FELSTEAD.

P.S.—How about the Central Council adding a treble at Basingstoke and thus removing its peculiarity and making a respectable ring of 10?—K.W.H.F.

A True Ring

Dear Sir,—We ringers at Basingstoke are much concerned that so many people are talking about the ring of nine bells at All Saints' Church, without a true knowledge of the facts. Without entering deeply into music, the facts are these:—

The nine bells hung in the tower are a true ring of nine, their notes being G, F, E, D, C, B flat, A, G, F. It is impossible to obtain more than one true ring of eight, in either major or minor key, and that is the back eight. This may be checked on a piano or handbells.

A previous incumbent used to insist on the ringing of the front eight during Lent, but those bells do not give an eight in a minor key, or, for that matter, any musical scale. This practice is now discontinued. To obtain an eight in a minor key a flat third bell, namely E flat, is required, giving the following eight: G, F, E flat, D, C, B flat, A, G. That bell does not exist. In any case the ringing world has its own means of expressing sadness, that of using muffles.

I repeat that the nine bells are a true ring of nine, and would be a true ten if another treble bell, note A, were added.

This case has no comparison with the 13 bells at Leicester, and that to be completed at Lincoln.—Yours truly, Basingstoke. DAVID H. ANSTEY.

50 YEARS REGULAR SERVICE RINGER

Dear Sir,—I noticed an item in the Belfry Gossip concerning the ringing of some church bells every Sunday over a period of 40 years. St. Peter's Bournemouth, can boast an unbroken record of regular Sunday ringing for morning and evening service for over fifty years. I wonder how many towers start their Sunday ringing every Sunday at 9.30 a.m. This has been so at St. Peter's since 1906 when the 10 o'clock Sung Eucharist was introduced before 11 o'clock Matins. Messrs. Charles Forfitt (84) and Eli Waters (81) are still most regular in their services. Mr. Waters cycles in from Southbourne twice every Sunday to do so. Both these veterans were ringing at the church 50 years ago, and since the removal of the recent ban have rendered valuable service and assistance with the training of young ringers.

A. V. DAVIS.

RINGING IN FILMS

Dear Sir,—On opening this week's 'Ringing World' (June 13th), I chanced to see Mr. Goodenough's letter on ringing, which took place in Elstree Studios, Herts, for the film, 'Green Fingers.' This is not the first time a studio has been treated to such an event.

Three or four years ago, during the Archers production, 'A Canterbury Tale,' at Denham, a complete bell frame was built by the studio pattern-makers, and a complete ring of 'bells' cast in plaster by the plasterers under the guidance of Mr. Richard Deal, a well-known London ringer. This 'ringing peal' was assembled and rung 'upset' in rounds. I'm afraid I forget by whom.

This sequence represented the interior of the Canterbury Cathedral bell chamber, and was eventually used as a background to the credit titles of this film. The bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, ringing Grandsire (or was it Stedman) Caters were dubbed on for the sound effect to complete the faking.—Yours sincerely, PATRICIA HOLMES.

From Australia recently we heard of a quarter rung in three methods (Old Doubles, Plain Bob, Grandsire Doubles) at St. Jude's, Randwick, Sydney, on Whit Sunday, by Miss R. Donnelly 1, I. Napper 2, N. Robinson 3, R. S. Rowe (conductor) 4, J. Duncan 5, G. Shaw 6. It was the first quarter in three methods on the bells for the N.S.W. Association and by all the band.

Chilvers Coton Dedication

NOW A RING OF TEN.

The dedication of two new trebles at Chilvers Coton, Warwickshire, on May 17th, completed the ring of ten. The church now shares with St. Mary's, Warwick, the honour of being the only churches in the Coventry Diocese with rings of ten bells.

The date of dedication was aptly chosen as the sixth anniversary of the destruction of the church by enemy aircraft. The service was held in the chapel, which has been built by German labour on the ruins of the old and is nearing completion. The tower was only slightly damaged and the ring of eight unhurt, although the ringing room suffered from fire.

The new bells were dedicated by the Vicar of Coton, the Rev. R. T. Murray, who is the president of the Coventry Diocesan Guild. Among those taking part in the service, which was well attended, were the Rev. J. Emrys Jones (curate) and Capt. R. Willett (Church Army). Mrs. D. E. Beamish (secretary of the Coton band and also of the Coventry Diocesan Guild) read the lesson. Mr. J. P. Fidler represented the Loughborough founders.

Among the congregation were Mr. Albert Walker, St. Martin's Guild; Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Evesham; Mr. F. E. Pervin, Master of the Coventry Diocesan Guild; Mr. E. Dodds, East Dereham, and Mrs. G. M. Mosedale, Taunton, son and daughter of the late Canon M. A. Dodds, some time Vicar of Coton; Miss M. V. Godderidge, Folkestone; and Mr. H. C. Spencer, Birmingham.

After the dedication of the two new bells the Vicar handed them over to the care of Mr. J. E. S. Moreton (Ringing Master). In his address, the Vicar spoke of the art of bellringing and stated that he had used some of the dedicatory prayers offered when the bells were dedicated 39 years ago. He praised the work put in by the members of the Coton band towards the completion of the ring, and congratulated them on the success attending their appeal for funds, stating that they had raised more than the original estimate of the cost of the bells. This was given to them over a year ago, but since that time the rise in the cost of materials and labour had added an additional £65 to the estimate. Of the revised total they now needed just under £30 to wipe off the debt, which spoke volumes for the ringers' enthusiasm and the generosity of the various subscribers.

The dedication was followed by a few rounds on the completed peal of ten, and after the service the following members of the Coton band rang a course of Stedman Caters: Mrs. D. E. Beamish, Miss Margaret Beamish, Messrs. A. H. Beamish, J. E. S. Moreton, J. F. Clarke, J. Draycott, J. Gibbons, J. Thompson, H. Harris and L. Trevor.

Touches by mixed bands from various parts followed, all pronouncing that a perfect splice had been effected. About 140 people sat down to tea prior to the service in the Parish Hall, the guests including parishioners, subscribers and German prisoners of war.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

Approximately 100 members of the South-East Branch attended the meeting at Pillaton on May 31st. Mr. Freeman conducted the service and the address was given by the Rev. Dr. Brown. A very fine tea was provided in the Church Hall. The branch secretary, Mr. H. J. Clark, thanked all those who had done so much to make the meeting a success, and welcomed the general secretary, the Rev. W. H. R. Trehwella, and the Ringing Master, Mr. W. H. Southard.

During the afternoon the ringing consisted of call changes and Grandsire. Some of the bands were congratulated by the Ringing Master, who said they had reached perfection with their call changes, also with rising and falling the bells. There was only one thing for them to do and that was to start half-pull ringing.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

MR. A. W. DAVIES THE NEW MASTER.
The annual festival and meeting of the Hereford Diocesan Guild was held at Ross-on-Wye on Whit Monday. The first festival ever held by the Guild, 1888, was at Ross, but the last time it was held here was over 30 years ago. The bells of Ross (8) and of Bridstow (8) and the six at Weston-under-Penyard were available from 11.30 and were kept going by the many ringers present.

In the afternoon the Guild Office was sung in the Parish Church and the sermon was preached by Preb. Barker (Rector of Ross). After tea at the Valley Hotel the annual meeting was held in the Church Room at first presided over by the retiring Master, Mr. William Poston, of Bridstow.

Mr. A. W. Davies, of the Hereford Cathedral tower, was elected the new Master of the Guild, and on his election took over the chair. All the other officers were re-elected: The Rev. E. G. Benson, hon. secretary and treasurer; Mr. L. Evans, assistant secretary and peal recorder; Mr. W. J. Benjams, auditor; and Messrs. G. J. Lewis, W. F. Moreton, G. E. Oliver and W. T. Poston, representatives on the Central Council (1948-50). The committee was re-elected with the addition of the Rev. R. H. Hill, of Borington.

The statement of accounts showed a balance of £25 6s. 8d. in the General Fund and £21 9s. 10d. in the Bell Restoration Fund.

It was decided that the annual subscription should be increased from 1s. 6d. to 2s. 6d. as from 1948, the whole of the increase to go to the General Fund of the Guild.

The secretary informed the meeting that the forthcoming report would contain a complete list of the rings in the diocese with details of the bells, and it was hoped this would add much to the interest of the report. Some discussion arose in connection with a proposal for a war memorial to the fallen, and a committee meeting is to be called to consider it. Hereford was chosen for next year's festival.

'FRIVOLOUS'

Periodically there are serious challenges at the whole basis and structure of bellringing and the Church's use of bells. One such incident took place at Sunderland, where the Chancellor for Durham Diocese, Mr. R. G. S. Banks, held a Consistory Court to hear a petition from Mr. Friend, a schoolmaster, that no faculty be given for the installation of a ring of ten bells in the tower of Roker Parish Church. The contention of Mr. Friend was that 'the noise of bellringing will destroy one of the most valuable amenities of the area.'

The Chancellor overruled the petition. Mr. Arthur Greaves, who appeared for the Vicar of St. Andrew's, Roker, asked for costs, pointing out that the delay caused by this 'frivolous objection' had already penalised the parish to the extent of £500 on account of the increased cost of material and labour. The Chancellor ordered Mr. Friend to pay five guineas Court costs.

We have not before us a full copy of the Chancellor's judgment, but he could not have ruled otherwise. A bell, or bells, is an essential part of the equipment of a church, and in common law the ringing of church bells has never been construed as a nuisance or an offence against the community at large. The society formed for the abatement of noise also does not regard church bells as coming within the category of its objections. Indeed, the society has admitted the Central Council of Church Bellringers to corporate membership, and the relationship between the two bodies has been most friendly.

Thus bellringers, both ecclesiastically and in common law, are upheld in their avocation. There is a sacredness about the trust; and while the great advance in our art came about by the secular development of ringing, as is so admirably told by Mr. Trollope in his book, 'College Youths,' the alliance between ringers and the Church is very real. Sunday ringing to the great majority of ringers is performed as an act of worship, and we commend the beautiful prayer composed specially for the ringers of Hull which appears in our issue.

The Epistle for last Sunday contains lines which we ringers should study: 'Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour; whom resist steadfast in the faith.' The days of the association of ringers with insobriety have long been dead; there are other matters which require vigilance. Our president is constant in his appeal to the Exercise for good striking, and it is a matter for congratulation that a number of reports reaching us point to a marked improvement in this respect. Not all are satisfactory. A few weeks ago we published a letter which commended the striking in a country tower. Before us we have a letter dealing with the ringing at the same tower during the performance of a peal: 'At times the bells were in a heap and firing,' was the comment. Peal enthusiasts should always consider two things—the outside public and the 5,000 true changes. 'Your adversary . . . may well be inside as outside the belfry. So be vigilant.

*'The Ringing World' was founded in the year
1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained
its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.*

Where is the most easterly ring in England?
The answer is Pakefield, Suffolk. This church was destroyed by enemy action in 1941 and only the tower and bells remain. A new danger is the sea, which has taken a corner of the churchyard. The bells are a ring of five, tenor 12½ cwt., by George Day, of Eye. The band ring each Friday evening and Sunday morning and would welcome visitors. On June 12th they had an outing, visiting six and five bell towers around the Norfolk Broads.

There will be a service broadcast from Melksham, Wilts, on Sunday, July 20th, at 9.30 a.m. The bells of St. Michael and All Angels' will be included. The bells are a ring of eight by Taylor, tenor 18½ cwt., in E (1924).

Does your Vicar see 'The Ringing World'?
A copy was shown to the Vicar of Childswychham, Glos., and the result was eight of his ringers joined the Gloucester and Bristol Association.

St. Budock's Church, Falmouth, is to have a ring of eight. The existing six bells are to be hung in a new frame, and Col. J. C. Annear is providing two new trebles. The order for the work to be carried out has been placed.

Those who have rung at Alfriston, Sussex,
'the Cathedral of the Downs,' will know that the ropes fall in the chancel arch of the church and are rung in full view of the congregation.
When the peal was rung here on June 14th there was at one time an audience of about 30 visitors viewing the church.

Twenty-one years ago the Northern District
Ladies' Guild held their first meeting at Hands-worth, Sheffield, on November 6th. It is hoped to celebrate the coming of age by a meeting at Handsworth on November 8th. Already a two-tier iced cake has been promised.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. Norman V. Harding rang his 100th peal at Warnham, Sussex, on June
14th. He rang his first peal on the same bells.
The peal was the 40th together of Mr. Harding and the conductor, Mr. A. H. Pulling.

Another 100th pealer this week is Mr. Leslie Evans, who reached his century by a peal of Grandsire Doubles at Eardisland, Herefordshire. His coincidence was that he rang the same bell as his first peal with four of the original band and with the same conductor ringing the same method.

Gratifying it is to read of four first peelers from Widcombe, Bath. The other two ringers scored their first of Grandsire Doubles.

The charge for notices is a penny a word or a minimum of 2s. Will secretaries please check. An attempt was made this week to get in 37 words for 2s.

A hardy Welsh ringer is Mr. Richard John, who rang in his 76th birthday quarter of Grandsire Triples at Llantrisant, Glam., on June 12th. The company was W. Jeffreys 1,
W. Huish 2, J. Westcott 3, R. John 4, R.
Westcott 5, R. Davis 6, F. Rowsell (conductor)
7, J. Evans 8.

Another veteran of the week is Mr. H. E.
Cook, age 76, of Chipping Norton, Oxon, who has been a member of the local band for over 50 years. He rang the treble to a peal of Grandsire Triples on June 14th. His last peal was 39 years ago in the same tower.

Correction.—The tenor to the peal of Cambridge at Wolborough, Newton Abbot, on May 28th, was rung by George E. Fearn, not George E. Feirn.

Hopes are being entertained by St. Mary's, Standon (Herts), Ringing Society that their bells will be rehung by July or August. Peal ringing is out of the question until then.

Consecration of New Bells at Lija, Malta

BY THE REV. MALCOLM MELVILLE.

The announcement that a remote country village on the island of Malta has a new chime of five bells would have little interest for English ringers but for the fact that these bells have been cast in England. For centuries Malta has had her bells from Italy or from the Low Countries, and many of great age and beauty can be found within her churches. The recent consignment of English bells is thus a break with tradition, and these flat-topped bells have been critically examined and compared with the domed bells from the Continent.

Five of the new arrivals were for Lija Parish Church and the writer was privileged in seeing not only the enthusiastic reception the bells had when they arrived in the village, but also their beautiful and solemn consecration a few days later.

Their journey from the dockside to the church was accompanied by all the wild enthusiasm and colour with which the Maltese are capable. Five gaily decorated lorries were provided and lots were drawn for the honour of driving the biggest bell. The fact that this monster of four and a quarter tons happened to be on the smallest lorry was an unfortunate coincidence, but a doubly great honour, and both lorry and driver rose to the occasion.

On the outskirts of the village they were met by the village band, and together with hundreds of joyous villagers and many more envious onlookers from far and near they made their triumphal way through the bedecked streets. A procession in Malta really is a procession, and nothing is spared to make it a magnificent spectacle. This one must have been equal to any that had preceded it, both for the numbers taking part and the length of time taken to cover the ½-mile through the village.

However, after three hours or so, and as darkness fell, the procession came in sight of the church. What a scene it was! The Square thronged with cheering people, the church illuminated with myriads of coloured lights, and what must have been one of the greatest displays of fireworks for many a year, formed a glorious background for their reception. As we left Lija that evening we wondered what these five strangers, if they could have spoken, thought of it all, as they stood there, majestically overshadowing the scene around, and having arrived at last at their journey's end.

The consecration of the bells took place in the evening of the Feast of Corpus Christi. Stone columns had been erected before the church, and the five bells hung between the columns with their mouths about 7ft. from the ground. The columns were draped in flags and arched with damask decorated with plants and flowers. The square was thronged with the people of Lija and with others from many towns and villages; flags fluttered from the roof-tops, among which could be seen the Union Jack, the Papal Flag, and the Flag of Malta.

The ceremony, which was performed by His Grace Mgr. Michael Gonzi, the Archbishop of Malta, took the form of the beautiful centuries old service of consecration used in the Roman Catholic Church, and with which many of our pre-Reformation bells in England must have been consecrated.

After preliminary blessings of water, oil and salt, each bell was sprinkled with the baptismal water by His Grace. While psalms were being sung priests then proceeded with the ceremonial washing of each bell inside and out. His Grace the Archbishop then, ascending an elevated platform, anointed each bell in turn with Holy Oil. After more psalms the Archbishop reascended the platform and anointed each bell with eleven crosses, seven evenly spaced around the lip, and four more on the inside.

Fires of incense were then lit and placed below the bells while the Gospel was sung. Then came the climax, the moment for which all had been waiting, the ringing of the bells. Accompanied by loud clapping from the people and fireworks from neighbouring houses, each bell was rung, first by His Grace the Archbishop, and then by their own sponsors and donors. Lady Strickland, the wife of a former Governor of Malta, who had given the third bell, gallantly rang hers, and produced further applause from the assembly.

Afterwards the bells were rung all at the same time, as is the custom in Malta, and it was noticeable how the harmonics of each bell blended together. His Grace concluded the ceremony by giving the Pastoral Benediction to the assembled people.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

Fifteen towers were represented when the Elloe Deanery Branch held their quarterly meeting at Long Sutton on Whit Monday. The Rev. Cuthbert Powell presided at the business meeting which followed an excellent tea provided by the local captain, Mr. H. Harrison. Thanks to Mr. Harrison were voiced by Mr. J. E. Allen, and Mr. A. J. Farr thanked the Rev. Powell for conducting the service. Ringing ranged from Bob Major to Cambridge Surprise.

Burton's Victory Bells

1,280 PEOPLE SUBSCRIBE.

Five bells have been added to the tenor at All Saints' Church, Burton, to provide a ring of six to commemorate victory. No fewer than 1,280 people subscribed to the gift.

The ceremony of dedication was performed on June 6th by the Archdeacon of Stafford (the Ven. W. A. Parker) in the presence of the Mayor and a congregation numbering 700.

In the course of his address the Archdeacon said it had been his good fortune to hear bells rung in all parts of the world, from the weird tinkling of the Russian bells to the amazing bells the Abyssinians used. But there was no other place in the world but England where the art of change ringing was practised. That was something specifically English.

'It is a great joy to hear that the bells have been rung by All Saints' men, some of whom have already done service in this church choir,' concluded the Archdeacon. 'You have started well, and I hope that those who ring the bells will ring them prayerfully, realising that they are ringing to the glory of God.'

Following the dedication, the beautifully toned bells were first rung by the band of All Saints', who had been taught by ringers at Burton Parish Church. Those ringing were H. H. Britten (capt.), C. Bower, D. Halford, P. Kilburn, C. Rabbetts and T. Mear (tenor). It is also hoped soon to have a band of lady ringers, as four—Jill Cochran, Monica Smith, Margaret Munro and Gloria Inwood—are already well advanced and will soon be able to ring without supervision.

Visitors were present from Leeds, Loughborough, Rolleston, Overseal and the local churches of St. Modwen and St. Paul. Mr. Paul Taylor, of Messrs. John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, also attended.

THE CUMBERLAND YOUTHS

In spite of the weather, a most enjoyable meeting was held at St. Mary's, Prittlewell, on June 14th, attended by 30 members. Mr. F. S. Lufkin presided in the absence of the Master (Mr. G. H. Cross). Six new members were elected, viz., Misses J. R. Brittain (Banstead), M. Janet Mattinson (Guildford), P. M. Steere (Sutton), M. and D. Lidbetter (London) and Mr. R. W. Croucher (Leigh-on-Sea). The service, of novel character, and dedicated to the 200th anniversary of the Society, was conducted by the Archdeacon of Southend (the Ven. E. N. Gowing).

Ringling ranged from rounds to Cambridge Royal, and to those of the party who had not visited the tower previously, the delightful bells and well-appointed ringing chamber were ample repayment for the long journey in the rain.

Mr. Lufkin and his wife were warmly thanked for their arrangements, especially in providing the fish tea, which was so much appreciated, and finally Mr. Lufkin was congratulated on ringing the record length of Bob Royal on Easter Monday.

Tewkesbury Abbey broadcast on June 8th of Grandsire Caters was by a band representative of Cheltenham and Tewkesbury branches of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, with Mr. W. Dyer as conductor.

Ladies' Guild

GENEROUS GIFT FOR GRUNDISBURGH BELLS.

Upwards of 50 ringers assembled at St. Mary-le-Tower, Ipswich, for the annual meeting of the Eastern District of the Ladies' Guild on June 14th. Ringing ranged from Cambridge Maximus to rounds with varying success.

Canon R. H. Babington (Vicar) conducted the short and pleasant service. One regret was the few ringers who attended service, which was a source of disappointment to the secretary, who had gone to a lot of trouble in the arrangements, especially in getting the services of a competent organist. It was felt that the words of Mr. R. Post in his letter were well founded.

Tea was partaken at the Tudor Cafe, and before the gentlemen retired the vice-president thanked them for their attendance and said how glad they were to see the Master of the Suffolk Guild (Mr. C. J. Sedgley) with them after a long and serious illness.

The secretary and treasurer of the Suffolk Guild congratulated the ladies on turning up in such good numbers. He reminded all those present that the Grundisburgh Tower and Bells Fund was still open and that a further £750 was required before the work could be put in hand.

A magnificent gesture of generosity and goodwill then followed, when Mr. Ernest W. Pye, of Sible Hedingham, arose to announce he would like to support Mr. Pipe in his great task and he had pleasure in presenting him with a cheque.

Mr. Pipe announced to the party present, in accepting the cheque with many thanks, that it was for the grand sum of £200. Amid great applause, he said that such a sign of generosity left him speechless, and it was difficult to say how grateful he felt to Mr. Pye for his goodness. At the moment he could only say 'Thank you a thousand times,' and if it could be called an honour to conduct the first peal on the restored Grundisburgh bells, then he extended to Mr. Pye that honour.

While the men returned to St. Mary-le-Tower and St. Margaret's for further ringing, the ladies held a brief business meeting, the chief item of which was the election of officers. The vice-president, Miss H. G. Snowden, and secretary, Mrs. S. R. E. Pipe, were re-elected. Mrs. F. Moor, Mrs. Willis-Betts, Mrs. Suckling and Mrs. Trendall were elected to the committee, with Mrs. Moor and Mrs. Trendall to the Central Committee. Two new ringing members and one honorary member were elected. The next meeting will be at Beccles on September 13th.

The meeting concluded with a hearty vote of thanks from the vice-president to the secretary for her work, to which the secretary replied with a heartfelt 'Hear, hear!'

A PRAYER FOR RINGERS

Canon F. Boreham, who has just left Holy Trinity, Hull, to take up duties at Truro Cathedral, composed at the ringers' request a prayer to be used before ringing for divine service. This has been beautifully illuminated by a member of the congregation and framed and hung in the ringing chamber after having been dedicated by the Canon on Trinity Sunday. The prayer reads:—

Almighty God, Who hast called us to Thy service, and appointed to each of us, a task to do for Thee, grant that we who serve Thee by the ringing of these bells may be filled with reverence and godly fear; and, uniting in the worship of Thy Church on earth, may be found worthy to stand with those who praise Thee evermore in Heaven.

And may all those who are called by the sound of these Bells to Thy House of Prayer, enter into The Gates with thanksgiving and into Thy Courts with praise.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Shirley, Warwickshire

DEDICATION OF TWO NEW BELLS AND NEW CLOCK.

In conjunction with the bi-quarterly meeting of the St. Martin's Guild, the dedication of two new trebles and a new clock took place at the Church of St. James the Great, Shirley, Warwickshire, on June 7th.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. E. Fraser (Rector of Solihull), and the service was fully choral and conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. S. Billings).

Immediately following the service, rounds, Queens and Grandsire Triples were rung by Shirley's own band: E. T. Lloyd 1, A. D. Cooke 2, V. A. Hemming 3, Mrs. J. Watts 4, G. Bailey 5, T. Abbotts 6, A. Morris 7, E. Ledsam 8. Tea, which was arranged by the ringers and their wives in the Church House, was partaken of by upwards of 50 friends.

During the evening ringers present from Birmingham, Sutton Coldfield, Solihull, Knowle, Coventry, Nuneaton, and Loughborough, and Mr. J. P. Fidler, representing the bellhangers, enjoyed ringing in the following methods: Kent, Double Norwich, Stedman, Grandsire, Plain Bob, Yorkshire, Bristol, Superlative, London and Cambridge.

The work was most efficiently carried out by Messrs. John Taylor and Co. They are an excellent splice and augment a six with a tenor of 6½ cwt. in B flat, the back five of which are by C. and G. Mears, 1854, the treble being added by John Taylor and Co. in 1929. The new bells are the Shirley ringers' memorial to victory and peace, the cost being raised exclusively by the ringers' efforts and bear the following inscriptions on the crown of the bells:—

Treble: Dei Gloria Qui Victoriam Dedit 1946.

Second: Rejoicing in Peace 1946.

The addition completes a most musical octave which can justly be claimed as an asset to the St. Martin's Guild.

The clock is an electrical system controlled by a master clock in the ringing chamber with an impulse movement driving the two dials on the tower, the hours striking on the tenor bell. The apparatus, which was supplied by Messrs. Gent and Co., of Leicester, is a thanksgiving gift from Mr. H. Norman Shirley, churchwarden of the parish, and Mrs. Shirley, and replaces the old weight-driven movement which had served the parish for 98 years.

RINGING IN THE COTSWOLDS

The half-yearly meeting of the Cheltenham Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association on June 7th in the lovely village of Childswyckham was a great success—grand weather, good going bells, a hearty welcome from the Vicar and a good tea provided by the inhabitants. There were 37 members and visitors present.

Eight ringers of Childswyckham were made members, including Barry Bindoff, aged 13, who is now the youngest member. Methods rung were Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob, Oxford Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise. Several were able to ring their first touch of Stedman.

WITNEY AND WOODSTOCK BRANCH.

About 50 members and friends attended the annual meeting of the Witney and Woodstock Branch at Bampton on June 7th. The service was conducted by the vice-chairman (the Rev. G. Bateman, Vicar of Bampton), and the address given by the Rev. B. C. Foulger (Vicar of Black Bourton).

The branch secretary (Mr. H. C. Farmer), in his annual report, paid tribute to the work which had been done by several members of the branch; notable among these were Mr. Harry Floyd, Mr. G. Wright and Miss L. Pimm, also Mr. Alan Pink, of Oxford, who had given valuable advice and instruction, travelling to various towers in all weathers, even through the snow and frost.

The accounts showed a balance in hand of £21 11s. 3d.; membership for 1946 totalled 138.

The Deputy Master of the Guild, Capt. Poyntz, briefly addressed the meeting, as also did Miss M. Cross, the Guild librarian. After the meeting good use was made of this fine ring of eight in various methods with rounds for the learners.

SONNING DEANERY.

A very successful meeting of the Sonning Deanery Branch was held at Waltham St. Lawrence on June 7th. The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. C. S. Edgington). Tea was provided by the Waltham ringers, to which about 40 sat down, including the chairman of the branch (Archdeacon Shaw).

After some handbell ringing all returned to the tower, where the excellent ring of six bells was kept going to various methods of Doubles and Minor until after 9 p.m.

DEDICATION AT HOLYWELL

On May 30th, a new treble bell, installed by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., was dedicated by the Rural Dean (the Rev. R. F. McNeile) at Holywell, Hunts. The service was intoned by the Rector (the Rev. A. G. McL. Pearce Higgins), and an address on the message of the bells was given by the Rev. A. Potter.

Mr. Gordon Ross, the donor of the new bell in memory of his brother, the Rev. A. J. Ross, was at the organ.

Immediately following the dedication, rounds were rung by H. Hodge (captain), R. Wilmer, J. Parish, O. Norman, W. Papworth and F. Warrington. After the service to mark the occasion a 720 of Plain Bob was rung by J. P. Stocker 1, J. Parish 2, H. W. Pratt 3, L. W. Fisher 4, F. Warrington (conductor) 5, H. Hodge (first 720) 6. The beautiful addition and the 'go' pleased both listeners and ringers. F.W.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD

PENZANCE BRANCH MEETING.

About 100 members attended the annual meeting of the Penzance Branch at St. Keverne on June 8th. Mr. W. H. Southard (Diocesan Ringing Master) and the Rev. W. H. R. Trehwella (Diocesan Secretary) attended. The fine eight (tenor 18 cwt.) were kept going until 9 p.m. The Rev. J. W. E. Brown conducted the service and gave the address, and the lesson was read by the Rev. A. S. Roberts. Tea was generously provided for all, and a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar and all concerned for this kindness.

At the business meeting the Rev. A. S. Roberts explained that the Central Committee had been unable to arrive at anything definite regarding a memorial to the late Dr. J. Symons. One proposal was to install a bell in a suitable tower. It was agreed that this would be a worthy memorial, and it was decided to earmark ten guineas from the branch funds for this purpose in the hope that the Central Committee would soon be able to make a definite move and issue the appropriate appeal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Film Studio Ringing

Dear Sir,—Mr. Goodenough and other readers may be interested in a 'ringing job' carried out a year or two ago in the studios at Denham, in connection with the picture called 'A Canterbury Tale'.

In the picture a peal of bells in motion had to be shown, and the expert technicians at Denham made a miniature set of ten, hung in a wooden frame. The bells were modelled in plaster (the largest 1ft. 7in. in diameter), accurately shaped and fitted with beautifully made wheels in correct proportion. Having got so far, I suppose they found that nobody knew how they should be rung.

The advice of our conductor at St. Paul's, Mr. Herbert Langdon, was sought, and at his request I went to Denham to see what could be done. I found that pulleys and one or two other details were missing, but deficiencies were soon made good, and sashcord 'ropes' provided. The clappers were of india rubber and bounced around in all directions. I arranged for the bells most prominent in the picture to be fitted with balanced clappers, which worked perfectly.

The frame was about 12ft. off the floor and ringing was done from a confined space under a platform, so the ringers did not appear in the picture. After a little experimenting, unobtrusively loading some of the wheels with lead, etc., I found it possible to raise and set the bells at will, except for two which for an obscure reason had only half wheels.

The arrangements completed, we assembled a mixed company of ringers, representing College Youths and Cumberland, with three from Denham, and after one or two practices were able to give the film people what they required—needless to say, these tiny bells called for very careful handling, as even a mild 'wallop' on the stay would cause loss of control.

As our proficiency increased, we were able to make a show at synchronising the movement of the back bells with the record used, which was of Grand sire Caters from St. Margaret's, Westminster. The small bells didn't matter so much—they were kept going as well as possible to give plenty of movement in the picture.

The effect on the whole was good, and I have since spoken to one or two practical ringers, who thought they had seen a full-scale peal of bells on the screen—they did not perhaps notice one or two peculiarities in the design of the frame. Personally, I got quite a 'kick' out of the experience. The studio people are very resourceful, and I found them excellent collaborators. I don't think even Hollywood could have done it better!—Yours faithfully,

RICHARD F. DEAL.

East Ham, E.6.

THE POUGHILL PEAL

Dear Sir,—Congratulations to Alan Hicks, who conducted the above, his first, peal. Also to Fred Sangwin, his tutor. This is no mean achievement in the north-east corner of Cornwall, and may this be the forerunner of further progress. Having two Cinques-Maximus-Surprise ringers in the band makes the performance the more creditable, for they would rightly be critical of the peal, but I have heard from one that it was well rung.—Yours faithfully,

A. S. ROBERTS, Vice-President,
Truro Diocesan Guild.

'Guillotine'

Dear Sir,—Whilst most of your readers will probably agree with what you say regarding the amendment proposed on the report of the Analysis Committee, it is possible that the suggestion of the use of the 'guillotine' would not be widely accepted.

So far as I was able to judge, the general feeling was that the matter was not sufficiently important to warrant a full dress debate, and most of those present voted for 'next business' not because they desired to evade any issue, but because they were bored by the laboured presentation of the case.

I cannot see why the time of the Council should be wasted in discussing these offences against good taste, neither do I see why the decisions of the Council should be pulled about to accommodate these stunt performances. These decisions were made by men of wide practical experience in ringing—much wider than the experience of the gentleman who is so anxious to have them overhauled.

It must be pointed out that the rules and decisions have resulted so far in building up a standard of good taste in ringing which is acceptable to the majority of ordinary people, who loyally abide by them, and who do not try to find loopholes or weaknesses in them in order to prove their cleverness.

Least I should be accused of getting excited over these freak performances, let me say at once that they leave me stone cold; but we live in a free country, and if it pleases certain folk to do unusual things, let them get on with it, provided they do not bring ringing into ridicule, or ask the Council to give its official blessing on them.—Yours faithfully,

J. FRANK SMALLWOOD.

West Ealing, W.13.

RINGERS AS CHURCH WORKERS

Dear Sir,—With reference to Mr. Southard's excellent list of church workers who ring at Truro Cathedral, the following, while in no way claiming to be a record, may interest your readers.

In the small Oxfordshire village of Launton are 15 ringers, among whom are eight choristers, three servers, three lectors, four church councillors, a verger, an organ blower and a churchwarden. Some ringers, of course, hold more than one other office.—Yours truly,

FREDERICK SHARPE.

Churchwarden and Captain of Ringers.
Launton, Bicester, Oxon.

Truro Jubilee Peal

Dear Sir,—Rule 11, (v) (e) of the Truro Diocesan Guild says: 'No member shall forward to the Press any communication reflecting upon any band in union with the Guild or upon any member. In case of any disagreement or complaint, the matter shall be laid before the General Committee through the secretary.' I fear that our Diocesan Ringing Master has disregarded this rule in saying that the conductor of the peal, Mr. C. E. Lanxon, misled the Dean and Chapter. This is a grave reflection. The suggestion that the rest of the band may be neglectful in Sunday service ringing is also a strange insinuation. Their names are far too well known to the Ringing Exercise generally for this to sink very deep.

The facts are these: The peal was suggested last November when a few enthusiasts agreed it was time a peal of Bob Royal was rung for the Guild. Easter Monday was chosen and application for the bells was made in the same way as for 11 successful peals which I personally arranged from 1926 to 1936. This time Mr. Lanxon made the application. This attempt lasted nearly two hours, and before leaving the tower everyone was eager to make a further attempt. May 17th was fixed as the date provided we could meet again and the bells would be available. All was well and the peal rung. This being the diamond jubilee year of the Cathedral, we decided that the peal should be rung in commemoration of this. If there had been the slightest suggestion that the Cathedral band wanted to ring a peal I think we would have all bowed graciously and withdrawn, and certainly we would not have honoured our Mother Church in the way we did if the local band wished to perform such an honour.

I cannot believe that the Dean and Chapter have handed over their authority over the bells, which they have properly retained for the past 37 years, to an uncertain number of persons, of whom only three have rung a peal, in order that they may be a kind of clearing house over the names submitted for their judgment. This cuts at the very roots of the aims and ideals of each and every ringing association, of which when one is a member that should be sufficient. It is such unfortunate publicity as this that makes for bad feeling, debarb progress in an area where method ringing is as elementary as it can be, and depresses the enthusiast so much that he feels like giving up in despair.

For love of my old tower where I learnt to ring I offer the local band every good wish for success, and also an open invitation to come to my tower to ring what they like without any reservation whatsoever.—Yours faithfully,

A. S. ROBERTS.

Carbis Bay.

A BREACH OF RULES

Dear Sir,—The letter appearing in your issue of June 13th regarding the peal at Truro Cathedral is distinctly inaccurate and misleading, since the facts of the peal bear no relation whatever to those of the Kington peal.

Since, however, the letter is, in itself, a breach of the rules of the Truro Diocesan Guild, I do not propose to reply to the allegations through the medium of your paper. I am, however, laying the facts before the Guild for a decision.—Yours faithfully,

C. E. LANXON.

Truro.
