

CC Library Committee

“RINGING HISTORY AND FUTURE TRENDS”

CC Biographies Committee

SATURDAY 27 FEBRUARY 2016

PROGRAMME

Plenty of time will be allowed for people to gossip and to visit the displays and sales tables. Bring something along.

- 10-10.30 Registration (£12 per head), Tea/Coffee, Networking
- 10.30 am Formal welcome
- 10.45 am Richard Johnston
'Ringings future - sacred or secular' – reviewing the legacy of Belfry Reform. Richard is a member of the Exeter Cathedral Society and rings method and Devon style call changes.
- 11.45 am David Jones
'Contrasting modern and historical issues in ringing' – and also about a possible place for ringing in academic history. David is master of the Chester Diocesan Guild.
- 12.45 pm LUNCH: Cottage Pie with vegetables (or pre-ordered vegetarian dish), plus Bakewell tart/fruit crumble and custard
Cooked and served by Veronica Quinn and her team
- 2.00 pm Brief update from the Library and Biographies committee plans
- 2.30 pm Steve Coleman
'Women in ringing – the past, the present and the future.'
Steve is a well-known author and secretary of the Gloucester & Bristol Diocesan Association.
- 3.30 pm Tea/coffee and networking
- 4.15 pm Departure

Library publications will be on sale including: Ringing World DVDs 1911-2000, Order & Disorder 18/19C.

The historic records of the Biographies Committee and other artefacts will be on display