THE BROTHERHOOD OF THE BELFRY.

A happy note is struck by the writer of a letter, which appears in another column, upon the brotherhood that exists among ringers. There is an indefinable freemasonry among members of the Exercise which has grown up through the centuries, and it is a feature of which we all are proud. Ringers, it cannot be denied, have their faults, and in the tower are often difficult to handle. Sometimes this may be due to misdirected leadership—a point upon which we only recently commented—but when it comes to extending a brotherly hand to a stranger there is no body of men in any pursuit who can claim to excel ringers in the readiness with which they welcome a visitor. When a stranger enters a belfry the first question is, 'Are you a ringer?' A reply in the affirmative immediately produces a rope end, and, a touch rung, the visitor finds himself as much at home as the oldest member of the band. If there are exceptions, they only go to prove the rule. There are, of course, some surly individuals who would never attempt to extend the hand of fellowship, and there may be, here and there, a band who look askance at the appearance of a visitor, but such instances are few and far between. The general experience of ringers is that which has come the way of our correspondent, and ringers make it a point of honour to uphold this happy tradition of the Exercise.

Another feature which is noticeable in the belfry is the equality which reigns. Knight or artisan, professional man or labourer, all are on the same footing when they stand on the ringing floor—never was there a more democratic meeting-place. And what is perhaps equally extraordinary is the perfectly natural way in which exalted or lowly seem to slip into the recognised order of things. Perhaps it is that everyone who approaches the mysteries of the art feels, consciously or unconsciously, an initial ignorance which levels all at the very outset of their ringing career. As knowledge increases, so a bond of sympathy, as it were, springs up among those who follow the art, and this brings in its train that spirit of brotherhood upon which our correspondent dwells.

That we should do all we can to further this spirit goes without saying. The unity of brotherhood is as necessary as the unity of purpose, if the art of ringing is to be promoted, and it is not out of place at the opening of a new year to lay emphasis on this point. We can all do our little bit towards this end, in our towers and in our associations, and if we can, each one, during this coming year increase, by however small a degree, the spirit which marks the Exercise, and is felt by those who have come in contact with it to be an example to other church workers, our labours in 1922 will not have been in vain.

BELLS! BELLS! BELLS!

Let the Music of the Bells celebrate Peace.

ALL SAINTS', HEREFORD.

As the first peal on the fine ring of bells of All Saints', Hereford, has been the wish of so many ringers in the diocese, the Ringing Master decided to make it, if possible, a district secretaries' peal, but at the last moment this idea could not be carried out, owing to the sudden illness of Mr. S. T. Rackham, and the hour of starting, 10 a.m., making it impossible for Mr. Mead, of Clun, to reach the city. An excellent peal was rung in 3 hrs. 18 mins., and, while the ringing was a little slow, the striking was good. Although it is claimed as the first peal on the bells, the fact must not be overlooked that a peal of Doubles was rung on the middle six about 1913, but, as this did not embrace the full peal of bells, it is deemed wise to claim the Triples as the first peal.

The bells have recently been rehung and tenor recast as a memorial bell for the ringers of the diocese who made the supreme sacrifice. The work of restoration leaves nothing to be desired. The plugging of the clappers is a great improvement, as it prevents metallic jarring, and produces a beautiful hum, so pleasing to the hearers without 'catcalls.' Everyone is so delighted with the result that the Cathedral authorities are now having the Cathedral clappers treated in the same manner. This is likely to produce a little more hum in the ringing chamber, but it is hoped at a very early date to get a deadening floor put in the Cathedral belfry.

The Hereford ringers will be delighted to see visitors at All Saints on any practice night (Thursday), or at 10 a.m. on Sunday mornings, but peals cannot be arranged except on Bank Holidays and special occasions, as the tower is in the centre of the city.

WINCHESTER GUILD.

The annual meeting of the Isle of Wight District of the Winchester Diocesan Guild took place at Carisbrooke on Tuesday, December 27th, when some 24 ringers were present, representing Carisbrooke, Newport, Ryde, Shanklin and Whitwell. Ringing commenced soon after two.

A service was held at 4 p.m., and this was followed by a sumptuous tea in the Schoolroom, after which the Rev. Stony Busher, Vicar of Carisbrooke, presided at the business meeting.

Further ringing took place after, and good practice was had for beginners in Grandsire Triples, Bob Major and Stedman Triples.

PRESENTATION TO MR. J. W. JONES.

The bell ringers of St. Basil's Church, Bassaleg, South Wales, were left in no doubt that their services were fully appreciated, when recently they and their instructor, Mr. J. W. Jones, of Newport (hon. secretary of the Diocesan Guild) were entertained to supper in the church room by the church officials and others. The Vicar presided, supported by Messrs. A. R. Jones and J. Williams (churchwardens). Following the loyal toast, Mr. A. R. Jones proposed 'Success to St. Basil's Guild of Bellringers,' mentioning that Lord Tredegar was interested in the bells, and was carrying out certain improvements in the belfry.

Mr. Gould gave a brief history of the church tower. Mr. Will Taylor, father of the present village postmaster, with five of his sons, kept the bells going for over twenty years; and they were followed by a band who kept together for 25 years, led by the late Mr. Geo. Orchard. The bells, however, had been silent for many years.—The toast was supported by the Rev. Ebor Davies.

The Vicar presented to Mr. J. W. Jones a breakfast cnet and a pair of silver vegetable spoons, on behalf of the ringers, sidesmen and the Vicar. The Rev. D. Bowen thanked Mr. Jones for his services. Expert ringers had testified to the great progress of the Guild.—Mr. Jones suitably acknowledged the gift. Songs were rendered by Messrs. Palmer, L. James and D. Sparkes, Miss James presiding at the piano.

Mr. Jones took the hand in hand some eight or ten months ago, and taught them to handle the bells. Since then they have learned method ringing, and can strike Grandsire Doubles right well.

Unfortunately the bells are of cast steel.

A GOOD RECORD.

During the last quarter, viz., from September 29th to December 25th inclusive, 18,751 changes have been rung for Divine services at the Priory Church, Christchurch, Hants, as follows: 7,044 Stedman Caters, 6,149 Grandsire Caters, 2,688 Bob Major, 2,520 Stedman Triples, and 350 Grandsire Triples. On two occasions only have the members failed to complete what was attempted. Those taking part were: S. Best, A. Best, H. Bagshott, H. Croucher, W. Fowler, J. Frampton, E. Hinton, A. Heath, H. Lambert, H. Preston, G. Preston, G. Stone, L. Stone, Miss C. Sparshott, F. Sparshott, R. Street, A. Woolf, S. White, W. Cave, and C. Gordon from Bristol, for whom a quarter-peal of Stedman Caters was arranged.

The rest are all local men, and, with the exception of W. Fowler, learnt to handle a bell at the above church.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Ill-luck has been predominant so far at each attempt made for a peal of Caters on the bells of Llandaff Cathedral since they were made a ring of ten. To honour the old leader of the Cathedral band (Mr. J. Clutterbuck) and one of the pioneers of the Llandaff Association, a peal was arranged, with a band of practically all ex-Masters of the Association. A start was made on Tuesday week, the birthday of Mr. Clutterbuck. All were greatly disappointed to find a shift course had occurred when well on with the peal.

On the same day, and probably at the very moment the attempt was in progress, a fatal accident occurred in the hunting field to the donor of the two new bells, Mr. J. T. Duncan, J.P., a Cardiff ship-owner, who lived at Oaklands, Llandaff. Mr. Duncan was following the Duke of Beaufort's hounds in Wiltshire. Jumping a wall, his horse, on alighting, pecked, and Mr. Duncan was thrown. He fell on his head, and death was instantaneous, his neck being broken. He was a Churchman, and regularly attended Llandaff Cathedral, of which he was a generous benefactor.

The peal of eight bells at Sandbach, Cheshire, are now in first-class order, having been rehung with all new fittings by Mr. J. E. Groves, of Birmingham. The work has given every satisfaction. Mr. Groves has also rehung the peal of six at St. Peter's Church, Elford, Staffs. The peal of eight at Cradley, Staffs, the peal of five at Lock, Warwickshire, and the tenor at Salford Priors, Warwickshire.

Following upon the Rev. C. D. P. Davies' exhaustive analysis of Cambridge Surprise Major which has appeared in our two last issues, we hope next week, if space permits, to give a sketch of the ringing career of Charles Middleton (written by Mr. J. A. Trollope), and a photograph of this veteran Norwich ringer.

KETTERING BELLS AUGMENTED TO TEN.

DEDICATION OF NEW TREBLES.

On Saturday, December 17th, the Bishop of Peterborough dedicated the two new treble bells which have been added to the present peal of eight at the Parish Church, Kettering. The new treble was given by Mr. George and Mr. Harry Hordon, in memory of their father, the late Mr. William Hordon, who was a valued member of the band of ringers for 20 years.

The work has been carried out by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon, and they are heartily to be congratulated on making such an excellent splice, while the tone and 'go' of the bells are all that can be desired.

Among those who were present at the service were Mr. Cyril Johnston (bell-founder), Messrs. Wilford, Law, Rogers, Allen, Soden (of Northampton), F. Barber and J. Shafford (Wellingborough), and many others, including the whole of the local band. Ringing was curtailed owing to the death of Mrs. Woodcock (wife of the Rector's warden), who had unfortunately passed away in the morning.

As a mark of respect the bells were rung half-muffled in touches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters.

The first peal was rung on the bells on December 27th.

LLANDAFF DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

NEW DUAL TITLE.

The annual meeting of the Llandaff Diocesan Association was held at St. Woolo's Church, Newport (the pro-Cathedral of the new Monmouth Diocese) on Monday, December 28th, when a large number of members attended from both the Llandaff and Monmouth Dioceses. The bells were available from 12 o'clock, and full advantage was taken of them. Service was held in the afternoon, conducted by the Rev. T. Powell Davies (in the unavoidable absence of the Archdeacon of Monmouth), who gave a most useful address. One of the Llanguoyd ringers presided at the organ.

Following the service, tea was served in Waters Lane Mission Room, and was immediately followed by the business meeting.—The Chairman (the Rev. Powell Davies), on behalf of the Archdeacon, welcomed the association to Newport.

In accordance with notice of motion, a discussion followed on the question of the title of the Association, which has arisen owing to the formation of the new diocese of Monmouth. It was eventually unanimously decided that instead of forming a new association the one should remain, to be designated 'The Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association.'

The election of officers followed, Mr. J. Bailey, of Whitechurch, being chosen as Master for the ensuing year. Mr. J. W. Jones was re-elected hon. secretary, and Messrs. Dawe and Hobbs auditors.

The next annual meeting will be held at Llandaff, the next Glamorgan quarterly meeting at Llantrisant, and the next Monmouth quarterly meeting at Bedwas.

Quite a number of new members were elected, including the whole of the ringers of the newly-formed Guild at Bassaleg. The usual votes of thanks closed the meeting. The bells of both St. Woolo's and All Saints' Churches were kept busy during the evening.

BELLS OF ST. MARGARET'S, LEICESTER.*FORMAL OPENING OF THE NEW PEAL OF TWELVE.

The twelve bells at St. Margaret's, Leicester, were heard for the first time on Christmas Day, when they were rung by the local company for all services. No change ringing was attempted, but well-struck rounds and call changes were rung, and the new beauty and grandeur of the bells, compared with the old peal, were noted by all concerned.

On Tuesday, December 27th, the bells were thrown open to the Exercise, and ringing, which commenced at 10 a.m., was carried on at intervals throughout the day. A huge gathering assembled from all parts of the country, including Birmingham, Bolsover, Burton, Derby, Manchester, Northants, Notts, Twickenham, Warrington, and other places; many of the county towers—too numerous to mention—as well as all the local bands, were represented. The belfry was at times crammed with ringers and visitors, and it is doubtful if Leicester has ever seen such a gathering on an occasion of this kind. An excellent programme was carried through under the direction of Mr. E. Morris, and included courses and touches of Grandsire Triples Caters and Cinques, Stedman Triples and Cinques, Kent Treble Bob Royal and Maximus, and what is more unique, a course each of Cambridge Surprise Major, Royal and Maximus. A pleasing feature was, that although only a few names were sent in for tea, the Vicar kindly undertook to find a place for those who wished to attend, and a most excellent tea was provided, 57 sitting down. Many visitors had, however, made their own private arrangements.

After tea, the Vicar (the Rev. F. R. C. Payne, M.A., O.B.E.), said how pleased he was to see such a large company of ringers present on this unique occasion, and he hoped all had enjoyed the new bells, of which St. Margaret's was immensely proud. He was glad to be able to announce the fact that the whole of the cost of recasting, re-hanging and augmentation had been assured before the bells were first rung, and he was proud of his willing helpers in this great achievement. There only remained a few incidental expenses to clear, and any contributions now received would be used to defray these. He was pleased to say he was the first to chime the new tenor publicly, when, with the help of four of his ringers (who chimed the quarters) he had 'bumped' the hour of midnight on Christmas Eve. The Vicar concluded by stating that he would personally bear the whole expense of the tea.

Mr. Ernest Morris, supporting the Vicar on behalf of St. Margaret's ringers, said how pleased they were to be able to invite such a large and representative gathering, and trusted all concerned had been satisfied with the programme carried out, as they were anxious to give everyone a chance of a pull. They at St. Margaret's were proud of their Vicar, who had stood by them in this scheme (as he had in many others), and had encouraged all by his own strenuous efforts to secure such a fine peal as they now possessed. It was through him that the whole scheme was carried out, as, without his influence, the full peal would certainly not have been secured. Mr. Morris announced the fact that the Vicar had granted an hour's extension of ringing, and this would give a further opportunity to those who cared to accept it.

Mr. F. Wilford (Northampton) responded on behalf of the visitors, and, voicing the opinion of all, said they were highly delighted with the arrangements. He congratulated St. Margaret's on securing such a peal of twelve, and thanked the Vicar for his kind hospitality in providing tea, which was an unexpected pleasure.—Mr. A. Walker (Birmingham) seconded, and apologised for the fact that many had failed to notify their intention to be present, but he assumed that many had not been certain till the last moment whether they could get to Leicester. Birmingham had mustered 14, and they were glad they had come, for they had been 'done well,' and were delighted with the privilege of a ring on St. Margaret's most excellent peal. The tea was a most pleasant surprise, for which they were very grateful to the Vicar. Mr. Walker gave the local ringers some good advice on twelve bell ringing, and trusted all would pull together and become proficient on their added numbers, which at first would be difficult, but the difficulties would be overcome, if they carried on in the right spirit. Birmingham and other centres would watch with interest their progress, and none would congratulate them more than they, when success crowned their efforts.

After the ringing, the evening was concluded by handbell ringing, etc., in a private room at a near-by hostel.

SUDBURY, SUFFOLK.—On Friday, Nov. 11th, with the bells half-muffled, at the Church of St. Gregory, 560 of Bob Major and 504 Grandsire Triples. The ringers taking part were: W. Lee, M. Silvester, W. Heard, E. Dixon, A. Perry, G. Tatum, C. Clarke, D. Elliott (conductor), A. Scott.

NEATH, GLAMORGANSHIRE.—West Wales Association.—At St. Thomas' Church, on December 12th, 720 Kent Treble Bob Minor in 24 mins.: J. E. Bloxham 1, J. Hoare 2, *H. Boyer 3, *A. J. Pitman 4, S. Perry 5, *J. Hammond (conductor) 6. * First 720 of Kent.

BROTHERHOOD AMONG RINGERS.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—Travelling recently in the company of a clergyman we naturally talked about bell ringing and bell ringers. The conversation drifted into the subject of brotherhood among ringers, and the reverend gentleman made the following remark: 'There is a silent brotherhood among you ringers—an unwritten law, in fact—that is very remarkable. I do not know of any other hobby or sport in which that wonderful spirit of brotherhood is so prominent and sincere. You set a wonderful example to other branches of churchworkers which should be, but I am afraid is not, a matter of considerable envy.'

Now, Sir, I have been a bell ringer for over thirty years, and I wish to express, through your columns, my hearty agreement with the remark passed by this reverend gentleman. I have travelled fairly extensively; there is hardly a county in England in which I have not rung, and I must say that wherever I have been I have found that wonderful spirit of brotherhood prominent among every member of the noble art of change ringers. I count amongst my greatest and truest friends many bell ringers. It does not matter who one is, what one is, or where one comes from, as long as he is a bell ringer, that is sufficient! 'Take your coat off and get hold!' You are welcomed at once as one of the band, and you are trusted and respected.

To the outside public, this spirit of brotherhood is a revelation, almost astounding; and yet it is silent, never referred to in any way, but it is always there. Especially have I found this so in taking up my new abode in Bristol—the home of change ringing in the West. I have already visited seven or eight towers in Bristol, and everywhere I have gone I have received a real hearty welcome, and an invitation to come as often as I can. To my new Bristol friends I offer my sincere thanks. To my many late London friends I also extend my grateful thanks for their genuine friendship, and my appreciation of the welcome given me wherever I went. We are all ringers together, assembled for a purpose of calling people to do honour to God—and it is only right and fitting that we who follow this calling should set an example to others by attending church as often as we can, and keeping ever in front of us that enviable and beautiful spirit of brotherhood which has been the ringers' silent watchword for so many years past. To you, Sir, and all my ringing friends, old and new—and my enemies, too, if I have any, I offer my hearty wishes for a very happy and prosperous New Year. Let that spirit of brotherhood continue, and ringing will never die.—Yours fraternally,

FRANK BALL.

DURHAM & NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.*CHRISTMAS MEETING IN THE EASTERN DISTRICT.

This was held at Sunderland on Tuesday, December 27th, and as a gathering of the members of the Association it was a huge success. Only a few towers within the district were represented, but no less than 26 members attended. Ringing was timed to commence at 1.30 at St. Michael's, Bishopwearmouth, and a few minutes after that the eight bells were ringing merrily. Afterwards a party proceeded to Holy Trinity, and then on to St. Ignatius-the-Martyr (both eight bell towers). The remainder followed in their tracks later, and thus all present had a pull in the three towers. Ringing was carried on until late in the evening, and included Bob Triples and Major for the benefit of the beginners, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Double Norwich, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major.

St. Ignatius-the-Martyr Church Institute presented an animated appearance at 5 o'clock, when all gathered together for tea. Everyone seemed to be in a seasonable mood, and it was a happy throng. Mr. George S. Taylor, the vice-president of the district, presided, and he was supported by Mr. Wm. Story (president of the Association), Major Robert C. Hudson, O.B.E., Messrs. Joseph W. Parker (secretary), Allan F. Bailey (one of the famous Leiston brothers), W. H. Pickett, of London, Jas. Kemp, of Leeds, W. H. Barber, J. E. Keen, R. Richards, J. Pickering, and R. Thompson, of the Newcastle Cathedral Guild, J. Stuart, A. Payne, and T. Kell, of Gateshead, and a representative gathering of Sunderland ringers.

After the smiling faces had been broadened by the good fare provided, the loyal toast was honoured, and reference was made to the honour done to the district by the presence of so many distinguished visitors.

Mr. W. H. Pickett was elected a life member of the Association.

A short discussion followed as to the best means of livening up the district, after which the towers were again visited.

Votes of thanks were passed to the incumbents for the use of the bells, to the tower keepers for having everything in readiness, and to the ladies who attended to the arrangements for tea.

In the report of the centenary peal at Rotherham the number of changes should have been 5,021. It was not Mr. S. Briggs' first peal on ten, as indicated.

BILLINGSHURST BELLS RE-OPENED.*A SUSSEX RESTORATION.

On Saturday, December 31st, members of the Sussex Association accepted the invitation of the Vicar of Billingshurst (the Rev. R. C. Johns) to the reopening of the bells, which have been rehung by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

The proceedings began with some well-struck touches of Grandsire Triples, after which a service was held, at which a suitable address was given by the Vicar, who, before leaving the church, invited the ringers and friends to tea at the Red Lion Inn, where a good company sat down to an excellent repast, with the Vicar at the head of the table.

In proposing a vote of thanks, Mr. Keith Hart, of Brighton, remarked that he was very pleased with the sweet tone of the trebles.—The Vicar, in reply, said how pleased he was to meet the ringers on that special occasion. It had been his aim ever since he had come to the parish to have the bells improved, but it had been a hard struggle to collect the necessary funds. Thanks, however, to two or three of the ringers, and Mr. James Birdfield in particular, he was now most happy to say he had the whole of the funds in hand. He also wished to thank Mr. Hughes (of Mears and Stainbank) for the generous manner in which the firm had treated them. He could thoroughly recommend the firm to anyone who had trouble with their bells.

Mr. A. A. Hughes, in reply, said it was some 30 years ago that his firm supplied the two trebles to the tower, and he was very pleased at having the opportunity of improving the peal. He would be pleased to see a band at Billingshurst able to compare with any in Sussex.

The members then adjourned to the tower, where the bells were kept going in various methods till eight o'clock.

The bells have been thoroughly overhauled and retuned, the tenor recast, and the whole rehung and fitted with the most modern fittings, including ball bearings, etc. Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are to be congratulated on the excellent tone and 'go' of the bells, which now compare favourably with any peal of eight in the county.

FALSE COMPOSITIONS.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—I wish to point out to the Exercise in general, and to the possessors of Middlesex Association reports in particular, that a peal of 5,043 Stedman Caters, by Mr. C. Charge, published in the 7th report, is false. Mr. Robert Maynard, junr., of Walthamstow, drew my attention to this a short time ago, and I have consulted Mr. W. Pye, the conductor, and examined his peal book, and we find that the composition in question has only once been rung by this association. Fortunately, the peal is not the well-known one of that number with duplicate course-ends, but one with fewer good qualities, and for that reason it would probably not greatly appeal to conductors.

I enclose the figures of the false composition, which was rung by the Middlesex Association at St. Giles', Camberwell, on November 14th, 1903, and published as peal No. 394 in the 7th annual report. The false courses are the first, and that beginning 312465879.

Will all holders of the above-mentioned report please mark the composition in question, to avoid its being rung again. It would be as well if some means were adopted of advising conductors of false peals which have been published in Association reports, as there is always a great danger of their being used. If such could be done through the columns of 'The Ringing World' I would gladly furnish a list of such peals in the records of the Middlesex Association.—Yours faithfully,
C. T. COLES.

Hon. Sec., Middlesex County Association and 48, Wood Street, E.17. London Diocesan Guild.

Mr. Coles' suggestion is a valuable one, and we shall be glad to publish the references to false compositions which have appeared in the reports of any association.—Ed. 'R.W.'

THE EXTENSION OF METHODS.*DOUBLE NORWICH.

Before dealing with the extension of Double Norwich, it is necessary to remove certain misconceptions. The practical way of ringing the method is well known, and first work is said to consist of a whole pull and a double dodge. Now, this is a very satisfactory statement, from a practical point of view, but we must consider the nature of what we call a double dodge.

The 2nd hunts to lead, leads a whole pull and hunts up into 2nd's place; she then dodges back to lead and hunts up again into 2nd's, she dodges back to lead again and hunts up into 2nd's the second time, so that what we call a double dodge is really two single dodges joined together by a single step of plain hunting, and we must keep this fact clearly before our minds when we come to consider the extension of the method, or else we shall fall into the mistaken idea that double dodging is of the nature of the method, in the same way that it is of the nature of Stedman's Principle.

From what I have said before the extension of a plain method is the extension of the plain hunting only, and so the hunt of one place in Major between the single dodges will become a hunt of three places in Royal, because we have two more bells, and five places in Maximus, as we have four more bells.

H. LAW JAMES.

CLOCK WEIGHT FALLS.*NARROW ESCAPE OF RINGERS AT HODNET.

On Monday evening, December 19th, several members of the Salop Archidiaconal Guild visited Hodnet, with the intention of ringing some short muffled touches as a tribute of respect to the late Sir Beville Stanier, M.P. for the Ludlow Division, who was interred earlier in the day. A start was made to raise the bells in peal, but they had not been ringing long when a clock wire snapped, and the hour weight fell from a height of about 30ft. into the ringing chamber (which is on the ground floor), smashing the flooring tiles, and going several inches into the ground just behind the treble and second ringers, who thought the war had started again, and did a 'quick run out,' amid flying ropes.

However, a start was again made, and after raising the bells, two six-scores of Grandsire Doubles were rung (half-muffled), in spite of the heavy go of the bells, by: J. Hayward 1, W. Lycett 2, A. Bayley 3, H. Rixom 4, E. Rodenhurst (conductor) 5, H. Edwards 6. The band afterwards went to Stanton-on-Hine-Heath, and rang 720 Grandsire Doubles in 24 mins.: J. Hayward 1, H. Rixom 2, E. Rodenhurst 3, W. Lycett 4, A. Bayley (conductor) 5, H. Edwards 6.

FALSE COMPOSITIONS.

The problem of false compositions, such as that which has just been discovered in the Middlesex Association Report of 1903, is one of very considerable importance to the Exercise. In the case mentioned, about eighteen years has elapsed since the ringing of the peal before the falsity of the figures has been noticed; and there have been other instances, such as that of Mr. Fred Dench's peal of Cambridge Surprise Major, which went for something like twenty years before it was ascertained that the peal was false. The circumstances of the discovery, of course, differed in the two cases mentioned, for whereas the Cambridge was noticed immediately upon publication—delayed through no fault of the author—the Stedman Caters has been in print in the Association Report ever since the year after the peal was rung. To find that a peal is false after it has been rung is most annoying to the ringers, and the longer the time that elapses before it is found out, the more irritating is the discovery. It not only upsets association and individual records, but may often spoil the value of statistics compiled at the expense of much time and labour. Although, in the case of the Middlesex peal, we are informed that the composition has not been rung a second time for that Association, there is always the risk that a conductor, looking for a peal to call, may select one which is false, once the figures have been given in print, and in this way the annoyance may be multiplied.

It may be said that conductors should always prove a composition before they call it. That is a counsel of perfection; but there are many capable conductors who could no more prove all the compositions they call than they could fly; and, after all, we ought to be able to place some reliance upon our composers. They are not infallible, and it is difficult to know what check can be put on to ensure accuracy. The risk, when false peals that have been rung go undiscovered for a length of time, is that other conductors, seeing that the composition has been rung and published, and that the figures have gone unchallenged, place double reliance upon them. Happily, cases of this kind are few, but it would be well if something could be done to render the chances of the ringing of false peals still less than they are. It is not easy to suggest a remedy, but one method does occur to us, and that is that composers might 'pair' and submit all their new peals to each other to be checked before letting them go out to conductors. It would be a reciprocal arrangement and would certainly provide a safeguard, although we have some doubt whether it is likely to appeal to the composers themselves. But any scheme that would eliminate false compositions is worth considering.

BELL RINGER'S JUBILEE, 1871-1921.*SELBY ABBEY CAPTAIN HONOURED.

Mr. Frederick Cryer, of 5, Nalton Street, Selby, captain of the Selby Abbey Church band of ringers, celebrated his jubilee as a bell ringer, on Saturday, December 24th, 1921, and was the recipient of many congratulations from a large circle of friends. 'Freddie,' as he is generally known, is 63 years of age, and commenced his ringing career 50 years ago at St. James' Church, Selby, where there are three bells. He remained there for five years, and afterwards joined the band at Selby Abbey, where there was at that time eight bells. He was eventually appointed captain, and set out to try and secure a band of change ringers. After hard work and perseverance that object was attained. After the fire at Selby Abbey in 1906, which destroyed the bells, he and his comrades were the means of raising a substantial sum of money to restore the bells, and to augment the ring of eight to ten.

On Monday, December 26th, he stood in a peal of Grandsire Caters, at Selby Abbey to celebrate the occasion, and on Thursday, December 29th, he was entertained to a supper at the George Hotel, Selby, when a Chesterfield chair, pipe and pouch were presented to him by the members of the Abbey tower, and friends, in recognition of his services.

The presentation was made by the Vicar (the Rev. Canon Solloway, D.D.), who, on behalf of himself and members of the Abbey Church, congratulated Mr. Cryer on his jubilee as a bell ringer. Whenever there was any ringing, if at all possible, Mr. Cryer would be there. It seemed to be his most happy time when among the bells. He heartily thanked Mr. Cryer for the splendid work he had done, and wished that he might be spared to celebrate his diamond jubilee.

Mr. F. Wray (churchwarden) expressed delight to be present on such a unique occasion. It was pleasing to know that they had in Mr. Cryer such an enthusiast. He was always at his post, and took a keen interest in the bells. It was a pleasure to him to hear the Abbey bells, and he hoped Mr. Cryer would be able to continue for many years to come to captain the band of ringers at the Abbey.

Mr. Cryer, in acknowledging the gifts, said he had been taken by surprise. It was very good of the ringers and friends to think of him in that way on this occasion. He was proud to know that he had obtained what he set out to do, and that was to introduce change ringing at Selby Abbey, and that now they had a very good band. He thanked them all most heartily for their good wishes and nice presents, which he would value very much.

Touques and tunes was rung on the handbells during the evening, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

1921 RECORDS.

During 1921 the local band at Sandhurst, Berks, rang 82 720's at the Parish Church. Of these, 73 were rung for Sunday services in the following methods: Kent Treble Bob, 32; Oxford Treble Bob, 18; Woodbine Treble Bob, 20; Cambridge Surprise, 12. The following members took part: J. Moth, 80 (conducted 24); C. Doe, 60 (conducted 21); A. Collins, 32; G. Englefield, 66 (conducted 21); C. Barlow, 61; B. Barlow, 69 (conducted 11); G. Riches, 65 (conducted 5); A. Payne, 36; J. Pitts, 25.

At Norbury, near Stockport, 109 complete 720, covering no fewer than 36 methods, were rung during the year.

68,400 CHANGES IN 1921.

St. John Baptist Association, Leytonstone, with visiting friends, rang 95 complete 720's during 1921 at St. John's Church: Ipswich 13, London 12, Lincoln 11, Cambridge 9, Wells 7, York 6, Durham 8, Beverley 5, Chester 4, Carlisle 3, Chelsea 2, Cnuceastre 2, Norwich 2, Whitley 1, Morpeth 1, Munden 1, Warkworth 1, Canterbury 1, Newcastle 1, Alnwick 1, Leytonstone Delight 1, Oxford Treble Bob 1, Kent Treble Bob 1, Plain Bob 3. Bung by E. Smith 85, W. Miller 82, A. Prior 67, G. Dawson 65, G. L. Joyce 58, P. H. Avey 52, J. Moule 51, W. Riches 49, W. Theobald 45, G. Hadden 8, H. T. Butler 2, E. Butler 1, W. Pye 1, J. Horwood 1, W. Shute 1, H. Gowers 1, B. Brough 1. Conducted by W. Miller 69, A. Prior 8, G. L. Joyce 7, G. Dawson 6, W. Theobald 3, J. Moule 1. One 720 Cambridge was non-conducted. The total number of changes rung was 68,400.

The Wicken, Northants, ringers rang during 1921 42 complete 720's, consisting of Cambridge Surprise, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, College Single, Double Oxford, Double Court Oxford Bob, Plain Bob, and Grandsire and Stedman Doubles. The great majority of the 720's were rung for Sunday services, 41,528 changes having been rung altogether. As the band could only ring Plain Bob Minor at the beginning of the year, this is an excellent record.

BEVERLEY'S MIDNIGHT CUSTOM.

The custom of reading Tennyson's poem, 'Ring out the old,' at Beverley Minster after midnight ringing for the departure of the old year, was kept up this year, the poem being read by a lady visitor. The ringing included 395 Grandsire Caters before 12 o'clock, by: W. Gibson 1, C. P. Bradley 2, C. F. Lawes (R.N.) 3, J. Braithwaite 4, F. Osgerby 5, C. G. Constable 6, A. E. Sellers 7, J. E. Constable 8, W. Middleton 9, G. M. Daggitt 10; and immediately after midnight, 503 Grandsire Caters; A. Botham 1, C. F. Lawes (R.N.) 2, H. Ringrose 3, J. Braithwaite 4, F. Osgerby 5, C. P. Bradley (conductor) 6, A. E. Sellers 7, C. G. Constable 8, W. Middleton 9, G. M. Daggitt 10.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The accident at Twickenham Parish Church on New Year's Eve is another illustration of the serious danger of going in the dark among bells that are 'up.'

The Worcestershire band which has just rung six peals of London in six attempts in six weeks has achieved something to be proud of. There are familiar names among the ringers, and some of them learnt their London a good many years ago. But that in no way detracts from the merit of the performance.

Another band whose steady progress in the Surprise Methods must have been remarked by our readers, is the company at Leicester, who, having recently scored their first peal of Cambridge Royal have now, at the first attempt, rung their first peal of London.

Reference to peals of London reminds us that it was on January 14th, 1899, that the St. Peter's Society, Brighton, rang the first peal of London in the City of London. This was, we believe, at St. Stephen's, Coleman Street. In those days, St. Peter's company had no superiors as ringers in Surprise methods, and their 'ringing weeks,' when they attempted and generally rang a Surprise peal every evening, are well remembered by ringers of those days.

On January 15th, 1771, the Norwich Scholars rang 6,720 Norwich Court Bob at St. Michael's, Coslany, one of the earliest peals in the method.

The first peal of Grandsire Cinques was rung on January 19th at St. Bride's, Fleet Street, but it is a little uncertain, we believe, whether the year was 1724 or 1725.

The dedication service of the three new trebles added to the five bells in the village tower of East Ilsley, Berks, will take place on Saturday, January 28th, at 3 p.m., by the Lord Bishop of Oxford. Will any ringers or friends intending to be present please notify W. Hibbert, East Ilsley, so that arrangements may be made for a tea at a nominal cost?

The peal of Minor, rung at Leadenham, Lincolnshire, on Monday, December 26th, was conducted by George Scott, the ringer of the treble, and not by C. L. Simcock, as stated in last week's issue of 'The Ringing World.'

Readers will have read with interest that the Bristol ringers have taken up enthusiastically the suggestion that they should organise a dinner in their city to provide the opportunity for a reunion of ringers in the west. It is good to read of it as 'Bristol United Guilds.' It shows unanimity and foretells success.

A peal at Tring appeared in our last issue under the year 1919; it should, of course, have been 1921.

In the previous issue also a printer's error occurred, by which certain of the eight bell peals in Mr. T. J. Salter's list were stated to be 'on six bells.'

SERIOUS BELFRY ACCIDENT.

On New Year's Eve a serious accident befel Mr. F. Powell, in Twickenham, Middlesex, parish church tower. It is reported that when the ringers assembled to ring for Watchnight service they found that one of the bells had been 'clocked' for the purpose of tolling for a funeral that afternoon. Mr. Powell, who is deputy parish clerk, undertook to go up and untie the clapper. Picking his way in the darkness, along the frame, he stumbled, and to save himself from falling, caught hold of the wheel of another bell. The bell was pulled off the balance, and pinned him, bruised and bleeding, to the frame.

Below the ringers saw the violent oscillations of the rope, and heard the cries of the injured man. They hurried to his assistance, but the moving of the bell, weighing 15 cwt., and the conveyance of Mr. Powell to the bottom of the tower, was a work of great difficulty, and midnight passed before it had been completed.

A large congregation attending a Watchnight service were oblivious of what was going on above them, and they, and the whole town, wondered at the silence of the bells.

ST. BOTOLPH'S, BISHOPSGATE.

The Rector and Churchwardens of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, have appointed Mr. Frederick C. Lambert, formerly of Halesworth, Suffolk, as towerkeeper at this church. It is highly essential that an experienced man ought at all times to have the custody of peals of bells, and we feel sure that Mr. Lambert will justify the confidence placed in him. Regular Sunday ringing henceforward will take place at St. Botolph's on the first and third Sundays in the morning.

SOUTH DURHAM TOWERS.

By kind permission of the Rev. W. Kerr-Smith, on the bells of the Parish Church, Catterick, N. Yorks, on the 2nd January, touches, amounting to 2,212 changes in all, were rung in Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob and Bob Major, and 216 Bob Minor, in which one of the local ringers took part. Ringers attended from Holy Trinity, St. Cuthbert's and St. John's, Darlington, towers, and Shildon. Touches on the handbells on the homeward journey completed an enjoyable afternoon.

CAMBRIDGE SURPRISE MAJOR.

CHARLES MIDDLETON, COMPOSER OF THE FIRST PEAL.

By J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE.

There must still be living at Norwich men who recollect Middleton. When I began to ring there, nigh thirty years ago, he was remembered as an ordinary man, an ordinary member of a good band, and probably the last thing he or his fellows thought was that he was, or had done, anything out of the ordinary, or that anyone would sit down fifty years later and try to write his history. Such a man is like the majority of us; he has no history.

Charles Middleton was born in 1813 at Marsham, a small village about a mile from Aylsham, on the Norwich road. From quite early times this was a centre of good ringing. Aylsham bells were made eight in 1700, and as early as 1731 they claimed to have rung a peal of Grandsire Triples. No details of the performance have come down, but if the claim was sound it would rank among the very earliest peals in the method. The Norwich men had rung Grandsire Triples in 1718, and again on December 28th, 1719. Two or three other peals had been rung in different parts of the country, and that was all.

The tradition of good ringing thus early begun did not die out, and when Middleton began to ring in April, 1834, he found a good band at the two towers. His first peal is recorded in the belfry at Marsham as 'a touch consisting of seven different peals, each containing 720 changes, on December 14th, 1837, in 3 hrs. and 3 mins. Names of peals as follows: London Surprise, Cambridge Surprise, Kent Treble Bob, Oxford Treble Bob, Oxford Double Bob, Double Court Bob, and Stedman Slow Course.' The peal was conducted by Thos. Edridge, and Middleton rang the fourth. All the ringers apparently belonged to the local band. On January 9th in the following year he rang the 5th at Aylsham to 5,440 of Oxford Treble Bob Major, in 3 hrs. 31 mins., conducted by T. Greenwood. G. Clements, who rang the treble, was only seventeen years old, but had been ringing since his twelfth year, and he lived long enough to take part in a peal at Aylsham with several ringers still alive.

CHARLES MIDDLETON.

In 1839, Middleton left Marsham, and lived at Norwich. After his departure in 1842, the bells were made into eight, and for many years they had the reputation of being the lightest ring of that number in England. The tenor is 7 cwt. They were a poor lot, the trebles being very wild. So much so, that when they were restored a few years ago, the old second was left (untuned, I believe) as the new treble and a new second supplied. The ringers, however, made good use of them, as the following peals show: 5,280 and 6,400 Oxford Treble Bob in 1842; 10,080 in the same method in 1844; 5,083 Kent in 1846; and 5,152 Double Norwich in 1851. This last was a fine performance, and one of the earliest peals in the method.

When Middleton left Marsham to come to Norwich he left a good band to join a far better. Samuel Thurston, the greatest ringer Norwich has ever produced, died in 1841. He had found a band unsurpassed in England, and during the time he was ringing he led it to fresh triumphs. Ringing in Norwich was not quite the same after his death, but, at any rate, one thing survived long after: the tradition of good striking which was what the old Norwich ringers excelled in. Middleton was elected one of the St. Peter Mancroft Company, in 1843, and with them he rang the following peals: 5,040 Stedman Triples, 5,120 Kent Treble Bob Major, 5,600 Oxford Treble Bob Major, 7,126 Stedman Cinques, 5,295 Stedman Caters, 5,120 Oxford Treble Bob Major, 5,040 Stedman Triples, 5,440 Oxford Treble Bob Major, and 5,001 Stedman Caters. A very meagre list judged by present-day standards when a band will go and ring as many peals in a single week, but he would be a very foolish person who judged these old ringers by the number of peals they rang.

Of the peals the 7,126 of Stedman Cinques is the most noteworthy. It was the then record, and, according to tradition, was a very finely rung performance. In my young days, I knew well the last survivor of the band, William Freeman. He was thoroughly typical of the old ringers. Savagely severe in the matter of striking, contemptuous of anything done since his time, hard as flint on young ringers. There never was such a band and such ringing as the old band he belonged to, and the ringing they did. And yet withal, when you knew him, a kindly and most interesting old gentleman.

In many ways, the late Matthew Wood resembled him strongly. A sure way to win his favour was to praise the long peal of Stedman Cinques. In that peal the tenor was rung double-handed, and this suggests another thought. The bell is only 43 cwt., and yet, save once only, she had never been rung single-handed till quite recent times. It was not for want of trying, nor for want of good heavy-bell men. Bell hanging in old times was not what it is now. When you are comparing feats of heavy bell ringing then and now you have to remember this. Nowadays, it is no exaggeration to say there are dozens of men who could ring Mancroft tenor behind to a seven thousand. But could they have rung her if they had been living eighty years ago?

Middleton died on Sept. 14th, 1886, and was buried at Norwich Cemetery.

It is, of course, on account of his peal of Cambridge Major that Middleton is remembered. It is his fortune to have achieved a certain immortality, and as long as ringing lasts his name will be familiar. No one would call him a great composer. Apart from the Cambridge, the peals of his that have come down to us are an ordinary, a very ordinary, five-part of Treble Bob Major of the awkward length of 5,440 changes, a pretty good two-part Treble Bob Royal of 6,000, a 5,014 Stedman Cinques which is brought round from 312456 by bobs on 9, 10, 11, in two separate courses, and a fittum peal of Treble Bob Maximus. We can be pretty sure that these are his best peals, for he and Hubbard rang together, and the latter would have been sure to have printed any other good ones in his book, if there were any.

How then did he get his masterpiece? By knowledge and hard study, or by a fluke? I should be sorry to think it was altogether a fluke, but it is quite certain that he did not sit down and study Cambridge to see what could be done, and from that construct his peal. Evidently he first wrote out the course ends, and then tested it for false rows. The arrangement of bobs is just the sort that anyone experimenting with figures would hit on. I cannot verify it, but I believe that when it was first printed it was given as a peal of London, and only in the later edition of Hubbard's book is it recognised as a true peal of Cambridge. If so, who was it that found it out? Middleton himself or Hubbard? According to Mr. Snowden, Henry Johnson also composed the peal independently, and in any case he was the first to show how it can be shortened to the convenient length of 5,056.

There are a few compositions in some of the methods that stand out above all others. Such are Holt's 10-part and Original, Thurstons' 4-part and Parker's 12-part. Among them we must include Middleton's peal, with this to be said in addition: that it is the only true peal in the method with 7-8 together. In the 'Bell News' of March 5th, 1887, Sir Arthur (then Mr.) Heywood showed that not only was Middleton's peal the only true one, but that variations of it are limited. The original is 5,600. This you can reduce to 5,152 by omitting three Homes; or you can get 5,056 by using a Before; or you can get two 5,184's by using two Before, and slightly altering the calling of some of the courses. The first 5,184 published was by Mr. J. W. Washbrook; the second by Sir Arthur himself.

A short history of the ringing of this peal may be interesting. In 1843 the Norwich men tried hard to ring it, but did not succeed. They missed Samuel Thurston, and were not quite the band they were in his time. It was not till 1873 that the composition was rung at Bennington. It was conducted by T. Page, and rung complete as 5,600. It was given as the composition of J. Miller, who earned

I am not sure that this is not the best way to ring it. You get over the three 'plain' courses at the start. When they are left to the end some ringers begin to get fidgety when they come up, and it is surprising what a lot of peals in the Surprise Methods are lost in the plain course.

The Burton men rang the 5,600 in the ordinary variation at St. Paul's, on February 14th, 1887. Heywood's 5,184 was first rung at Burton on February 7th, 1887, apparently the second true peal in the method. Both peals were conducted by Wm. Wakley. Johnson's 5,058 was first rung at Duffield on February 19th, 1887, also by the Burton men, and a few days later, on March 1st, the Rev. F. E. Robinson called it at Appleton, J. W. Washbrook ringing the 6th. Washbrook's variation was first rung at Drayton on June 4th, 1888, conducted by himself.

CHRISTMAS RINGING IN BOSTON, U.S.A.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—May I once again trespass upon the columns of your valuable paper to send you a report of our activities at Christmas, which may possibly be of interest to your readers?

On Christmas Eve, for the first time since the Sunday following the Armistice of 1918, the bells of the Church of the Advent, Boston, Mass., were rung by members of the Boston Guild of Change Ringers. The following composed the band for the occasion: Messrs. Sturgess, S. Sturgess, junr., Zabnor, Allfrey, Newton, Bashford, Goodhead, Laker, Matthews, the three first named from Groton School. Ringing took place for an hour before, and twenty minutes after, the usual Christmas Eve Carol Service. This service is very popular at this church, and, as is usually the case, a large number failed to gain admittance to the church. Consequently, we were assured of a large audience, the result being an awakening of the former interest in our ringing. Many expressed their delight at hearing the bells, and hoped that we would ring again.

The following Monday afternoon we journeyed to the Perkins' Institute for the Blind, Watertown, Mass., where we were all glad to hear again this melodious peal, erected by Mears and Stainbank in 1913. We ring here again on January 2nd. Would that we were assured of the services of a few more ringers, so that we could ring these bells regularly!

Great credit is due to Mr. Allfrey, who made the trip to Boston and return on Christmas Eve and again the following Monday, a distance of, approximately, 50 miles each way, for the purpose of 'having a pull.' Picture to yourself a cold, raw, wintry day, with rain and snow battling for the mastery, the streets covered with about six inches of ice and slush, eventually turning into miniature skating ponds; then picture yourself leaving the blazing open fire, in a real old-fashioned house of the sort which is rarely found in these parts, but which takes one back to days across the sea, and making a trip of, approximately, 100 miles; repeating it two days later! Such was the achievement of Mr. Allfrey. Is not such a spirit to be encouraged? I doubt, if, under like conditions, this feat would be duplicated even in England!

Apropos my last letter which you published on December 9th, I have already received a few letters from some of your readers, to whom I wish to express my appreciation for their prompt reply, and to assure them that they will receive an answer—necessarily delayed, because of the need of consulting others—via the mails. It is reassuring to us to know that the ringing fraternity 'over there' is interested in us, if only in a way that lends us nothing more than moral support! We need, of course, much more than that; and we are hoping that, thanks to your valuable paper, we shall receive other support, by an influx of members to our organisation.

Thanking you for your assistance and courtesy,

Very truly yours,

ALEXANDER MATTHEWS.

KETTERING'S NEW BELLS.

NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION MEETING.

A special meeting of the Kettering District of the Central Northamptonshire Association was held at Kettering on Saturday week. This was regarded as the public 'opening' of the two new bells, completing the peal of ten now installed in the tower of the Parish Church of SS. Peter and Paul. There was a very large attendance, including the Rev. O. H. L. Hopper (Rector of Warkton-cum-Weekley); Mr. C. Dean (of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, Croydon); Mr. J. Saddington (treasurer of the Bell Fund); Mr. George Horden; Mr. D. J. Nicholls (general secretary); Mr. W. T. Wilson (treasurer); Messrs. R. F. Turner, W. Perkins and J. Nickerson (district secretaries); and ringers from Thrapston, Ringstead, Woodford, Islip, Weekley, Geddington, Barton Seagrave, Isham, Wellingborough, Burton Latimer, Fineson, Irthlingborough, Higham Ferrers, Great Addington, Broughton, Northampton, Desborough, Rothwell, Peterborough, and the local band. The Rector of Kettering (the Rev. C. B. Lucas) conducted a brief service in the church.

At the tea which followed, the Rev. O. H. L. Hopper, who presided, said that the Rector of Kettering had sent an apology for absence from the meeting. The churchwardens, Councillor E. Woodcock and Mr. J. A. Emerson, were also unable to attend, whilst Mr. Harry Horden, one of the donors of the bells, was kept away by illness.

Miss Phyllis Hare and Miss Annie Parkins were elected out-county members.

Mr. D. J. Nicholls explained how the bell scheme was first started. He spoke very feelingly of the late Mr. W. Horden. Mr. Saddington, he said, had made great efforts towards the scheme, and to him many thanks were due. On behalf of the ringers, he (the speaker) thanked Mr. Saddington, also Messrs. G. and H. Horden, and the Rev. C. B. Lucas, for their practical interest.

The Rev. C. H. L. Hopper congratulated the Kettering ringers on securing the two new trebles, but he added he thought they would not be happy until they got two more and had 12 bells.

Mr. Horden said he had been associated with the ringers for many years, and he and his brother—much as they regretted the cause that made them do so—felt it a great honour to be able to add their bell, especially as there was only one more peal of ten in the county.

Mr. Saddington, who was cheered on rising, said it had given him great pleasure to be able to help the scheme. He thanked Mr. Nicholls for his remarks, and also the ringers for the way they received them. He spoke very highly of Mr. Nicholls as a bell ringer.

Mr. W. T. Wilson proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, and also for his address.

Mr. E. M. Atkins, in seconding, said he thought that nine-tenths of the whole scheme was due to Mr. Nicholls, who was far too modest. His name should be added to the vote of thanks. In his estimation Kettering was the best peal in the county, and he hoped to soon hear them ringing a peal of Cambridge Royal.

Mr. D. J. Nicholls, responding on behalf of the Rector, said that any ringer would always be welcomed in the Kettering belfry. The churchwardens greatly regretted their absence. He said every man had contributed, both in work and money, and he accepted the vote of thanks on behalf of the Kettering ringers.

Mr. Dean, responding to a vote of thanks passed to Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, said that Mr. Johnston had unfortunately been called away, and he apologised for his absence.

Many methods were rung on the beautiful bells, including Grand-sire Caters, Stedman Caters, and Bob Royal.

WEDDING BELLS.

At Wragby Parish Church (Yorks), on the occasion of the marriage of John Arthur Adams, a member of the local band, and Miss Ellen Brooks, of Wragby, on Boxing Day, December 26th, 720 Oxford Treble Bob Minor: F. Marsden 1, G. Harrison 2, W. Jackson 3, W. Green 4, J. Hewitt 5, J. Adams, senr. (conductor) 6. Also 720 Kent Treble Bob Minor, by: F. Marsden 1, G. Harrison 2, W. Jackson 3, W. Green 4, J. Hewitt 5, J. Brewin 6. Conducted by J. Adams, behind the tenor.

FROM FIGURES TO METHOD.

At Felkirk Parish Church, near Barnsley, on Friday night, December 2nd, 1921, 720 Bob Minor was rung: T. White 1, A. Noble 2, M. — 3, F. Priestley 4, C. Normington 5, T. Hartley (conductor) 6. This is the first 720 ever rung on these bells (which have been a ring of six since the year 1876) by a local band. At the beginning of April, 1921, they were ringing by figures, but with the assistance and instruction of F. Atkinson, of Wragby, they have overcome their difficulties, and show signs of becoming a good band in the future.

BRIGHTON AND ITS NEW GUILD.

The social side of ringing is, or should be, of great value in the promotion of the serious side of the art, and by many it is looked upon as an important adjunct to the activities of the belfry. The social intercourse which very frequently follows ringers' meetings—whether for business or for peals—has a great deal to do with that good fellowship which is the boast of our fraternity. There were days—happily long since past—when these social gatherings were not synonymous with the best interests of ringing or of ringers; when the conviviality was sometimes carried into the belfry and was one of the reasons which brought bell ringers into disrepute.

The ringers themselves in the last two generations have by their own standard of conduct and by their own exertions eliminated the causes and removed the reproach. The social side of ringing is to-day on a totally different plane and plays no inconsiderable part in helping to keep the wheels of our various organisations going. Anything which will help in this direction is to be welcomed and ringers will read with interest that a Social Guild has been formed in Brighton with the avowed object of fostering the spirit of brotherhood and good fellowship among ringers in that district. It is the outcome of a gathering of the St. Peter's Society, and if it is maintained in the spirit in which it is promoted, the results to Sussex ringing ought to be valuable. Sussex ringers especially will read with interest the speeches made at the initiation of the Guild, and if the newly-formed organisation can remove the "differences" to which reference was made there will be much ground for satisfaction.

Brighton, in the past, has made no little history in ringing. There are to-day, of course, young members of the Exercise who do not know what was done about a quarter of a century ago in that district, where St. Peter's was not only the centre of progress in the county but a point of attraction for ringers from all over the country. Among other things they made new Surprise methods a hobby—incidentally they rang the first peal of Bristol, among other methods—and many an enthusiast made his way to this South coast watering-place in his eagerness to score a Surprise peal—in those days not the common performance it has since become. Brighton, therefore, has a reputation which has been not unworthily maintained through a considerable number of years. And with the launching of the Social Guild may we not look for another step towards future advancement—the establishment of a probationers' class in Brighton's principal tower? It is, we believe, long since any young ringers learned the rudiments of the art in this centre of ringing, and the future may be fraught with danger if not provided for in the present.

KENT RINGERS AT HARRIETSHAM.

On Saturday, January 7th, several members of the Kent County Association from the Weald of Kent paid a visit to Harrietsham by the kind invitation of Mr. O. Hodges, who has recently taken up his residence there at the Bell Inn. Unfortunately the weather put on its most wintry aspect, and prevented some of the less ardent ones from putting in an appearance, although one of the members was plucky enough to cycle twelve miles out and home, in spite of the snow. The rest took advantage of trains and motors. Touches of Grandsire Triples and several 120's of Grandsire Doubles were rung during the afternoon, and local men rang the cover bells to the Doubles. Ringing, however, is not altogether a pleasure on these bells, as they are badly in need of the services of the bell hanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges had provided a most excellent ringers' tea for their guests, numbering about 20, and the meal was made all the more enjoyable by the kind attentions of the ladies, who looked after the wants of the party. A very pleasant evening was afterwards spent with tunes and changes on the handbells, and songs, and cigars.

We understand that the question of repairs to the bells is being taken up by the church authorities.

DEATH OF MR. F. G. PERRIN.

The death took place on December 30th, of Mr. Frederick George Perrin, of Walworth, London, at the age of 62 years, after several weeks' illness.

The deceased was well known in the London towers, and also in the counties surrounding the Metropolis. He had rung a considerable number of peals.

The funeral took place on January 4th, at Nunhead Cemetery.

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL'S VETERAN. —HALF A CENTURY OF RINGING.

To have been present in the belfry of Canterbury Cathedral on New Year's Eve for 50 years without a single miss, and assisted in ringing in the New Year, is the remarkable record of Mr. A. A. Andrews, who, although not given to boasting, is naturally proud of his life achievement. Mr. Andrews is a native of Canterbury, having been born in St. Dunstan's parish on May 24th, 1851, and he has resided at his present address 48 years. He first visited the Canterbury Cathedral belfry to learn ringing in 1865, was made a full member of the company in 1869, and to-day is the only member living of that band of 1869. He has thus been actually connected with the Cathedral ringers for over 56 years, and he has held the secretaryship for 40 years. During his career he has rung for the enthronement of four Archbishops—Tait, Benson, Temple and Davidson—and he has also served under four Deans—Alford, Payne Smith, Farrar and Waco. He has taken part in 26 peals, including four of Stedman Caters, 17 Stedman Triples, five Grandsire Triples, his first peal being Holt's ten-part at St. Stephen's Church, Canterbury, in November, 1883. During the half century he has rung in most of the church towers in Kent. He joined the Ancient Society of College Youths in January, 1885.

Mr. Andrews holds another record of long service, having resigned this year from the St. Dunstan's Church Choir, after a membership of 60 years.

PRESENTATION TO MR. ANDREWS.

The half-yearly meeting of the Cathedral company was held last week at Sergeant's Restaurant. The business included the passing of the accounts and the election of officers for the year, which included the following re-elections: The Rev. F. J. O. Helmore (president), Mr. H. G. Fairham (treasurer), and Mr. A. A. Andrews (secretary).

The business over, the members sat down to a repast, followed by a pleasant social evening, under the chairmanship of the president. During the evening, the Chairman, in felicitous terms, referred to the remarkable fact that Mr. A. A. Andrews had just completed half a century of 'ringing in the New Year' on the Cathedral bells without a single break. The company, therefore, felt they would like to mark such an exceptional record by one of their band by making him a small present to show their appreciation of his past services, and the manner in which he had always carried them out. The chairman then handed to Mr. Andrews a handsome sugar and cream stand, and at the same time tendered to him their hearty good wishes.

Mr. Andrews, in acknowledging the gift, said it had come to him as a complete surprise. It was correct that he had completed his 50 years, and he had been their secretary just on 40 years. What he had done for the Cathedral company was, after all, no more than his duty, and it gave him the greatest pleasure to see that the company was progressing as it was. When he was a young man he had an old company to work with; they rang only three courses of Grandsire Triples, and they were always called by one man, so that he had no chance to advance into further methods. In the last 30 years, however, standard methods had come to the front with the young band, and he must say that the Stedman Caters with which the company rang in this New Year was one of the best touches he had heard for a very long time. He thanked them for all their kindness, and hoped they would be spared to meet another year.

NORWICH COURT BOB MAJOR.

THE FIRST PEAL.

The first peal of Norwich Court Bob Major was rung on January 10th by the Cambridge University Guild on handbells. A footnote to the peal says, 'See Shipway, page 68.' Not all of our readers have a Shipway to which they can turn, and for their convenience we quote page 68 of 'Campanologia,' and give the figures of a lead of Norwich Court Bob Major.

The Norwich Court Bob system is very much admired,' says Shipway, 'and is undoubtedly a most excellent composition, though altogether too intricate for common practice, especially the double method, which can be rung only by persons of the greatest experience in the art. Court Bob was, in its commencement, practised in its double state, in the original on six bells, whereby the places are made double, or following each other immediately. In this system, therefore, it seems to have been the endeavour of the composer to have the dodging and places as in the six bell method; but this is impossible on eight, nine and twelve bells, as it is only to be had on ten and eleven; besides, it makes more places than the six bells authorise. Had it been pricked in its single state, the difficulty would have been solved immediately; but on the whole it is admirably contrived and keeps the large bells together in a manner equal to that of the author's system.'

Then follow the figures of the single method on 8, 9 and 10 bells, and the method of ringing it.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

We understand that the ever-popular Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinner, organised annually by the St. Martin's Guild, will be held in Birmingham on Saturday, Feb. 25th. The Guild is to be congratulated on again having secured the beautiful cedar-paneled Connaught Room at the Imperial Hotel for the gathering.

On January 21st, 1898, a peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal, claimed to be the first in the method, was rung at Cheltenham. Possibly it may have been the first true peal, but we believe a peal of 5,400 Cambridge Royal was rung at Wakefield in 1822. We should be glad to have authentic information on this matter.

This reminds us that it is recorded that on Feb. 18th, 1822, a peal of New Cambridge Surprise (as we now know it) was rung at Huddersfield, although the Burton men claim that their peal on April 20th, 1837, was the first. If this point, also, can be settled, and settled in favour of Huddersfield, there ought to be some centenary peals rung next month.

January 21st, 1788, was the day on which 6,600 of Bob Maximus was rung at Great St. Mary's, Cambridge.

The peal of Grandsire Caters at St. Stephen's, Bristol, on January 7th, served a double purpose. It was a birthday peal for Mr. W. A. Cave, and a farewell to Mr. Wallace Read, who is leaving Bristol to take up a course of study at Kellam Theological College. Mr. Read learnt his ringing at St. Thomas's, under the tuition of Mr. F. G. Leaker, and has shown keen interest in the Gloucester and Bristol Association by regularly attending the meetings. This was his first peal, and it was also the first peal by Mr. S. Badman, one of the St. Nicholas' band, who learnt his ringing under the late Mr. R. J. Wilkins. The valuable work which the latter did at St. Nicholas' is being carried on by Mr. Leaker, himself an old St. Nicholas' 'boy.'

Mr. A. Bowell, of Ipswich, is very busy among the bells in Kent. At present the peal of five at Smarden is being turned into a ring of six, and being hung in a new frame. Benenden bells are then to be taken in hand. They are to be rehung and quarter turned.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

The annual meeting, 1922, will be held on Whit-Tuesday, June 6th, at Lincoln. Further and full particulars of this will be announced later. Notice of motions should be sent to the hon. secretary before May 6th, in order that they may appear upon the agenda.

Secretaries of the affiliated Guilds and Associations are reminded that the subscription for 1922 is now due, and should be sent to the hon. secretary, Mr. E. Alexr. Young, 155, Rushey Green, Catford, S.E.6.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

NORTH-EAST DISTRICT AT WIVENHOE.

The annual meeting of the North-East District of the Essex Association was held at Wivenhoe on Saturday, January 7th. The proceedings commenced with festal evensong. The full surpliced choir of men and boys were present, and the Association's special form of service was used. In the absence of the Rector (the Rev. J. R. Sinclair Carolin), who was seriously ill, and has since passed away, the Rev. A. O. Lukyn-Williams, Vicar of Elmstead Market, officiated, and gave a very impressive address.

A bountiful meat tea was provided in the Club Room, followed by the business meeting, at which Mr. C. E. Gooch, J.P., of Wivenhoe Park, presided, supported by the churchwardens. Forty members were present from Colchester, Mistley, Langham, Great Bentley, Thorington, Great Bromley, Edmonton, and Braintree, with the local ringers, who have recently taken up change ringing.

Mr. W. J. Nevard, Great Bentley, was re-elected District Master, and Mr. R. W. Stannard, of Colchester, was elected district secretary, in place of Mr. H. T. Pye, Colchester, who resigned owing to pressure of business. Mr. Pye was thanked for his past services.

Twelve new members were elected, including the whole of the newly-formed Wivenhoe band.

After the toast of 'The King,' the Chairman gave a hearty welcome to the visiting ringers.—Mr. C. H. Howard, Master of the Association, in replying, explained the objects of the Association, and thanked Mr. Gooch and friends for their generosity in providing such a sumptuous tea, and Mr. Douce for the excellent arrangements he had made.

During the afternoon some excellent touches of London Surprise, Double Court, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob were rung, including a well-struck 720 Cambridge Surprise: G. W. Moss 1, C. H. Howard (conductor) 2, O. Andrewes 3, J. Bowell 4, W. J. Hazell 5, W. J. Nevard 6. Several courses of Plain Bob, in which members of the local band took part, were also accomplished.

Despite the unfavourable weather, this was the most enthusiastic and successful meeting held in this district for some time past, some members travelling several miles in sleet and rain in order to be present at the first official visit of the Association to Wivenhoe.

A RINGERS' SOCIAL GUILD.*BRIGHTON'S LEAD.

Although unquestionably the spirit of brotherhood prevails, in general, within the tower, yet too often this precious element is found wanting apart from the belfry; and it would appear that, in many cases, if the strengthening of this bond could be specially catered for, an all-round benefit to the ringing would result.

It being resolved to submit this theory to a practical test, a social evening, in the shape of a dinner and 'smoker,' was arranged among the Brighton (St. Peter's) and visiting ringers, and held on Tuesday, January 10th, at the house of one of the band. In the absence of the Master of the County Association, (Mr. J. T. Rickman, who sent a last-minute message that he could not be present), Mr. Edward Merritt, being the senior member of the band, was unanimously elected to the chair for the evening.

At the close of an enjoyable dinner, the Chairman proposed 'The King,' which was loyally honoured; and then called upon Mr. A. York-Bramble, who gave the only other toast—that of 'The St. Peter's Society.' In so doing, the speaker remarked that that was the very first dinner of its kind held for Brighton ringers. He sincerely hoped it would not be the last; in fact, he was looking to great developments from the small beginning, for he desired that a 'Christmas' dinner should be perpetuated as an annual function in Brighton. Unfortunately, he said, there appeared to be a lack of cohesion amongst the ringers of Brighton and district, and he felt convinced that something definite must be done with the object of bringing into personal contact all those in the district who were then, or who had been, interested in ringing—even though they had ceased to visit a tower! He proceeded to outline certain proposals for the attainment of that end. A Social Guild should be inaugurated, the main object of which should be to foster a spirit of good fellowship amongst all ringing men. Only indirectly should it concern itself with the actual ringing. They had their County Association for the advancement of the art itself. The efforts of the Association, however, did not appear to be directed towards the composing of 'differences' between certain of its members; did not, in fact, accomplish much towards the removal of the not-altogether-pleasant element of tower opposition. Friendly rivalry promoted the art, but not the kind of rivalry to which he referred. Such a Guild should not only call all together on neutral ground, as it were, but should, also, actually promote the work of the Association—for example, by making certain stipulations as to qualification for membership of the Guild. Further, the activities of the organisation should be freely advertised in the Notices Column of 'The Ringing World,' and reported in its pages; and here again good should result, if these things led, as they should, towards a wider support of the paper. He asked for their earnest consideration of these suggestions, and begged leave to move later on, a formal proposition embodying them. 'Meanwhile,' he concluded, 'Here's lasting success to the St. Peter's Society. May the bells never lack ropes, and the ropes good ringers to pull 'em!'

The toast was received with acclamation, and was responded to by the 'Father' of the Society, Mr. Merritt, who gave a most interesting account of its history, from its comparatively early days in the '90's, when ringers came from the Metropolis, and from all parts of the country, to get a pull in the Surprise methods. He concluded by expressing his approval of the suggestions made by Mr. Bramble, as to a Social Guild.

Mr. Keith Hart endorsed the chairman's remarks. The St. Peter's Society, he said, stood for all that was best in ringing. Visitors were always sure of a hearty welcome, and only two things were expected of them; to exercise care in the striking, and to exhibit a manly spirit—a spirit of give-and-take.

Mr. York-Bramble then formally moved: 'That a society be here and now founded for the purpose of fostering the spirit of brotherhood and good fellowship amongst the ringers of Brighton and district; principally by means of organised social meetings, with an annual Christmas dinner; that it shall be called the Brighton and District Ringers' Social Guild; that membership be open (by means of simple registration) to all Sussex County Association resident members who have rung at least one peal in the Association; and that the following officials (few as possible until a more general election could take place) should be elected—president, hon. general secretary, and one other; these to form a committee of organisation.'

The motion was seconded by Mr. W. C. Hart, and carried unanimously.

Mr. Keith Hart then proposed 'that Mr. Edward Merritt be elected as first President of the newly-founded Guild, Mr. A. York-Bramble as hon. secretary, and Mr. A. D. Stone as the third member of the Organising Committee.'

This was seconded by Mr. John Capp, and carried unanimously.

The committee propose to make an early announcement as to the first of the periodical social meetings of the Guild; and hope that, in the meantime, intending members will indicate their desire to enrol by sending to the hon. secretary of the Guild at Addison Lodge, Montefiore Road, Hove, a postcard giving name and permanent address.

The business at the dinner-table having been concluded, the party adjourned to another room, where a rollicking three hours' of music and humour launched the new-born Guild with much success.

NORWICH AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.*WORK OF THE IPSWICH BRANCH.

In spite of the inclement weather, a most successful meeting of the Ipswich Branch of the above Association was held at Halesworth on Saturday, January 7th, eleven towers being represented. The bells of the Parish Church were at the disposal of the members, and were well utilised.

The Rev. H. C. Newberry, M.A., Rector of Halesworth, presided at the business meeting, supported by Capt. A. E. Reeves (Holton), Messrs. J. Howard (Halesworth), W. Last (Sibton), F. W. Naunton (Wrentham), and E. Evans (Ipswich, branch secretary).—The Rector gave the ringers a hearty welcome, assuring them it was a pleasure to have them there at any time they decided to meet there.—The Secretary read a report on the work of the branch during 1921, in the course of which he said the past year had been one of increased activity in the work of the Association, viz., the promotion of the art of change ringing. This was shown in the number of peals scored in the higher methods, whilst that branch of church work, the ringing of bells for Sunday services, had not been neglected. General meetings of the branch had been confined to the last annual meeting held at Ipswich on Easter Monday, and a joint meeting of the branches held at Lowestoft on August 1st (postponed from Whit-Monday owing to disorganised train service, through the Coal Dispute). District meetings and meetings for combined practice had been held at Grundisburgh, Wickham Market, Ufford, Otley, Wenham, Aldeburgh, Beccles, Bungay, Stonham Aspal, Gratfield, Kelsale, Peasenhall, Wrentham, Worlingworth and Eye. The number of peals rung by members of the branch, and published in 'The Ringing World' to December 30th, 1921, was 135. Especially noticeable among the performances were peals of Cambridge Surprise and Double Norwich on 8, 10 and 12 bells by the St. Mary-le-Tower Society, Ipswich, Norfolk, Suffolk and Yorkshire Surprise by the Leiston company, double-handed peals of Stedman Cinques and Caters by those gifted men, the brothers Bailey, of Leiston, and a peal of Surprise Minor by the Thornham company. The peals at six bell towers showed that those members, whose chances on higher numbers were few, did not intend to be left behind in placing five thousands to their credit. A rough estimate of the finances showed an expenditure of £17 17s. in excess of income, but as there were subscriptions still to come in, the General Secretary hoped this would be balanced without drawing on the reserve fund.

The officers were re-elected en bloc, on the proposition of Mr. J. Howard, seconded by Mr. J. O'Neill, and the following new members were elected: Hon. member, Rev. H. C. Newberry; ringing members, Messrs. Bowman, Hardwick, Moss, Rodwell, Sewell (Bramford) and Kidby (Tuddenham); probationers, Messrs. Garrod, Marjoram, Simpson and Wright (Tuddenham).

The election of Mr. H. Day as secretary for the Eye district, was confirmed, and Mr. W. Kerrison was elected secretary for the Halesworth district, vice Mr. F. Lambert.

Mr. O'Neill proposed that appreciation of the good work carried on by Mr. Lambert as secretary of the Halesworth district for 28 years be recorded. This was supported by the Rev. Newberry, who spoke of the help he had received in various ways from Mr. Lambert.

Votes of thanks to the Rector for presiding and for the use of the bells, and to Mr. J. Howard for the preliminary arrangements ended a most pleasant meeting, and the ringers returned to the tower.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*SOUTH AND WEST DISTRICT.

The meeting of the South and West District, held at Chiswick on January 14th, was a decided success, for no less than forty-two ringers attended from Acton, Battersea, Chiswick, Clapham, Croydon, Fulham, Heston, Hammersmith, Isleworth, Kensington, Leatherhead, St. Giles-in-the-Fields, Staines, South Hackney, Walthamstow, Willesden Westminster Abbey, and West Ealing. The tower of St. John's, Hillingdon, was represented by an enthusiastic member, who was the only lady ringer present.

Prior to the tea, a service was held, at which the Vicar of Chiswick (the Rev. R. W. Townsend) officiated, and gave a most suitable address, several well-known hymns were heartily sung, and Mr. W. Lawrence presided at the organ.

At the close of the tea, business was discussed, and some new members were enrolled from Staines and the local tower. It is pleasing to add that the Vicar joined as a 'ringing member.' It was a great treat to experience the joviality of the Vicar, who, during the tea, kept up a continual flow of good humour, and both the District Master (Mr. C. S. Bird) and the hon. secretary (Mr. W. H. Hollier), who were seated near him, will, with the others of the company, not easily forget the merry time that was spent.

CANADIAN CARILLON CAST AT CROYDON. SEVENTEEN TONS OF BELLS.

On Thursday of last week there was another royal visit to the Croydon Bell Foundry, the Princess Beatrice and the Duchess of Albany, and a distinguished company, including the High Commissioner of Canada, accepting the invitation of Messrs. Gillett and Johnston to inspect a remarkable carillon that is about to be sent to Toronto, and to hear a recital on these bells by Mr. Cyril Johnston.

The twenty-three bells of the carillon, weighing seventeen tons and ranging from the tenor of four tons to the little treble of a hundred-weight and a half, are controlled by a keyboard, which actuates their clappers or hammers. The tunes may be performed automatically by electric power in combination with a perforated paper band, like that of the pianola, or by human agency through a keyboard.

Mr. Johnston's recital included such familiar hymns and airs as 'Abide with me,' the 'March of the Men of Harlech,' 'I'll sing thee songs of Araby,' 'The Maple Leaf for ever,' and the British National Anthem, and were listened to with interest and appreciation.

The Royal visitors witnessed the process of casting bells, a glowing stream of copper and tin alloy being poured into the moulds, there to remain until cold. After this interesting spectacle Sir George Perley, the High Commissioner, expressed the gratification that would be felt by the citizens of Toronto at the send-off that had been given to their carillon by Princess Beatrice and the Duchess of Albany. It would, he said, convey a message of goodwill from the Old Country. He mentioned that he would cross the Atlantic on the same steamer as the bells, and that they were the gift of Mr. Chester D. Massey to the Metropolitan Church of the city in memory of his wife.

FALSE COMPOSITIONS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—As you have been good enough to offer your columns to enable Associations to advise members of the Exercise of the existence of false compositions in their respective reports, I herewith send you a complete list of such compositions, so far as I know of them, in the reports of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild. I trust that holders of these reports will be good enough to mark the compositions in question, so that they are not rung again.

Peal No. 394, Page 73 of 7th Report, 5,043 Stedman Caters by C. Charge.

Peal No. 1,125, Page 102 of 15th Report, 5,088 Bristol Surprise Major by A. Knights, is false, as shown. The 11th course should read which is true, and runs to the correct number of changes.

If Associations generally would advise the Exercise of such errors in their reports, I think a great deal of good would result, as there is no doubt at all that compositions in these reports are often used again.—Yours faithfully,

C. T. COLES,

Joint Hon. Sec., Mr. C.A. and L.D.G.

To the Editor.

Sir,—I think the ringing community at large owe you a debt of gratitude (if nothing more than that) for trying to stave off the publication and ringing of false peals. Why should not a composer of a peal be compelled, when sending forth a new peal, to add the words 'proved' or 'not proved,' as the case may be? In my opinion the composer and nobody else is the one responsible for the truth of a peal. With regard to touches, false touches are often rung, and a conductor knows them to be false, but calls them for the music they contain in a given number, as well as to fill up a required time.—Yours truly,

JOHN BEAMS.

We are afraid that even the label suggested above would not always be a safeguard, for sometimes a most competent composer will go laboriously through a peal, and, by overlooking some small point, quite unintentionally pass on to a conductor figures which are false. The process of independent checking is what is necessary.—Ed. 'R.W.'

SUSSEX LOSES TWO VETERANS.

GEORGE GATLAND AND THOMAS LINDFIELD.

We much regret to record the death of Mr. George Gatland, of Steyning, Sussex, who passed away at the age of 73 years, on Tuesday, January 10th, and was buried on Friday last. By his death, Sussex loses one of its foundation members.

'To know George Gatland was not only to respect, but to love him,' writes a correspondent. 'I met him first in his own belfry at Steyning, where the squat tower scarce reaches above the pointed roof of the church. A stranger always found a welcome from him, the hand of fellowship was always held out to the visitor. He took a keen pride in maintaining the bells in a high state of mechanical efficiency. He was a good steady ringer; had served a fruitful apprenticeship on six bells, and could always be relied upon when it came to ringing the standard methods on eight. He did not pretend to greatness, although he scored a considerable number of peals, but his retiring disposition and genial nature endeared him to all. Twenty to twenty-five years ago I used to meet him a good deal, mostly on peal ringing occasions. Things did not always go well, but I never recollect once seeing George Gatland's temper ruffled, whatever the trouble or whoever else got upset. I remember him as one of the band who rang the first "George" peal of Stedman, more than a quarter of a century ago, and he must have been the oldest of the party. Of late years, although as regular as ever in his attendance in the belfry, his name has been seen much less in peal records. He has gone to his rest, but we who knew him will remember his tall, patriarchal figure, and cherish happy memories of his friendship.'

The deceased had held the position of captain, steepkeeper, vergor, and parish clerk for 47 years, and had been a member of the Sussex Association since its formation. He took part in several peals, and took his share in teaching others to ring. During the late war he helped to teach a band of ladies, and kept the bells going for the Sunday services.

The last peal he took part in was on September 3rd last. The band had met one short, and he was asked to make up the party. Although in failing health he took the place of the absent one. For the first hour he thought he should have to give up, but the ringing, he afterwards said, was so good throughout the peal that at the finish he felt much better, and he thought he should soon be all right again. This, however, was his last peal, and a few weeks after it became necessary for him to undergo an X-ray examination, the result of which proved that he was suffering from an incurable disease, to which, despite unremitting care, he at length succumbed.

The funeral took place on Friday, January 13th. The Vicar (the Rev. E. W. Cox) officiated, and the bearers were four of the local band of ringers: Messrs. J. Matthews, H. Phillips, H. J. Green and R. Charman. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. A. Gatland, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gatland, Mr. H. Gatland, Mrs. Gullen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gatland, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gatland (brother and sister-in-law), and Miss Doris Gatland (grand-daughter). The members of the local band, with Messrs. J. Smart, C. Tyler (Henfield), W. Markwell (Henfield), R. Strudwick (St. Peter's, Brighton) and T. Searle also attended.

The choir was present, and a large congregation. The hymn, 'Let Saints on earth in concert sing,' and the Nunc Dimittis were rendered with solemnity, immediately after which a touch of Stedman Triples was rung, with the bells fully muffled, by: E. Bristow, J. Smart, J. Matthews, W. Markwell, G. Phillips, R. Strudwick, C. Tyler (conductor), R. Charman. The church officers present were: Messrs. C. Brown, F. Duke, F. Gratwick, and E. Holmes (sideman), Mr. C. Marshall (lay reader), and Mr. H. J. Burt (late churchwarden), Miss Turner (Sunday School), Mr. J. Kibblewhite (headmaster of C. of E. Elementary School), the Rev. E. T. Lea, M.A. (headmaster of Steyning Grammar School), Mrs. Congreve Pridgeon, Mrs. Cecil Horne, Mr. Percy Breach, Mr. Robert Breach, Mr. C. Fowler, Mr. C. Woolgar, Mr. W. W. Rapley, Mr. Walter Hills, with members of the C.E.M.S., the local troop of Boy Scouts, under Scoutmaster C. W. Catt, and others, showing the wide respect in which the deceased was held.

Another old Sussex ringer has passed away, in the person of Mr. Thomas Lindfield, who, after a short illness, died on January 12th, and was buried on Sunday last. He had been a member of the Sussex Association between 30 and 40 years, and at one time was well known in connection with the Angmering company, when that little company made a name for themselves in the Exercise as a 6-bell band, and could ring Surprise Minor methods almost as easily as shelling the proverbial peas. The men who formed the company are one by one slipping away, and those who are left to us are getting into 'the sera and yellow leaf.' Some of us, however, remember them as pioneers of change ringing in Sussex, and know the debt which the Association owed to them in the early days of its existence for the promotion of the art in that part of the county.

Touches of Grandsire and Treble Bob were rung with the bells half-muffled, after the funeral, as a last tribute of respect.

MISCELLANEOUS PERFORMANCES.

SHEFFIELD.—At the Cathedral, on January 12th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes), in 47 mins.: G. Holmes 1, R. Harrison 2, F. Ward 3, W. Chown 4, H. Thorpe 5, H. Naylor (first quarter-peal) 6, J. Thorpe (conductor) 7, G. Harrison 8.

CREWE.—At Christ Church, on Tuesday, January 10th, 720 Cambridge Surprise Minor, in 25 mins.: H. Overton 1, H. Holding 2, R. D. Langford 3, J. H. Riding 4, A. Crawley 5, R. T. Holding (conductor) 6. First by all the band, and the first on the bells; also the first in the Crewe branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild.

NEWBURY.—On Tuesday, December 27th, at St. Nicholas' Church, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes), in 46 mins.: C. Pool 1, E. W. Smith 2, S. Quinton 3, H. W. Curtis 4, W. A. Dormer 5, R. N. Runham 6, A. W. Osborne (conductor) 7, E. Challis 8. Rung after an unsuccessful attempt for a peal. This promising band are to be congratulated on their striking. It is a pity they are so far away from Reading, as the benefit they would enjoy from the help of a few first-class change ringers on their practice nights is out of the question. They have only to continue to pull together with their worthy captain, Mr. S. Quinton, and success will be theirs in the future.

THE COUNCIL AND THEIR PUBLICATIONS.

It would be for the good of the Exercise if more Associations would follow the example frequently set by Lancashire and discuss at their meetings matters outside their purely domestic affairs. The Manchester branch, for instance, has just debated the question of the publication of the Major Methods Collection, which the Central Council have had to hold up for want of funds, the present enhanced cost of production being such that to print the work would absorb all their reserve and put the publication of any other work out of question for many years to come. The Rev. A. T. Beeston put forward a suggestion that the work should be subsidised by the associations, but this met with opposition and we gather from the report that the general feeling was that the Council should publish the works at such a price as would recoup them for the outlay.

The Council, it is certain, would welcome expressions of opinion on matters such as this, if only the associations would have sufficient initiative and interest to discuss them. The associations exist to promote the art of ringing, and what could be better calculated to promote this end than the publication of a volume of new methods? The first portion of the Collection—the Minor Methods—has been responsible for a great advance in Minor ringing, and, as a criterion, ought to convince everyone that a collection of Major Methods would still further advance ringing practice. The financial difficulty, however, not only holds up the publication of the volume of Plain Methods that is ready for the Press, but subsequent volumes of Treble Bob and Surprise Methods, which the Committee are not very inclined to proceed with until they can see some chance of the work they have already done reaching the hands of the ringers.

Unfortunately, it is not merely a question of charging a sufficient price for the publication to cover the cost of production—that, we take it, would be done in any event unless the Council is to establish itself as a philanthropic body—but the difficulty is to find the capital which must necessarily be locked up in stock, or else, for the time being, cripple further work. We suggested, after the last meeting of the Council, one way out of the difficulty, and that was to publish the Collection in small sections, making one pay, more or less, for the next. This has more than one advantage. A section of, say, a hundred methods would be something for the Exercise to go on with; it would be as many as the average band would want at one time and, pending the printing of the next section, the cost would be almost certain to come down. Thus there would be much to be gained and nothing to be lost by adopting this course. If associations are not prepared to subsidise the Council for the purpose of printing the Collection, another alternative would be for each association to guarantee to purchase a number of copies, and this they could very well do by first approaching their own members. The difficulty of dealing with associations under the present constitution of the Council is that the process involves endless delays, for the Council and the associations have only one meeting a year at which they can pass financial resolutions. If, however, the Council were to take their courage in both hands and put the matter into the charge of one energetic business man with some knowledge of sales organisation, we believe they would get over all their difficulties and quickly see their money back.

The annual meeting of the Hinckley District was held at Hinckley, on Saturday, January 14th. Members and friends attended from Burbage, Barwell Croft, Earl Shilton, Nuneaton, Stoney Stanton, South Wigston and Hinckley, and the bells were kept going in Bob Minor, Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Bob Major.

The business meeting was held at the ringers' meeting room, Mr. C. H. Webb presiding. Mr. C. H. Webb was re-elected vice-president, Mr. S. White was re-elected on the committee, and Mr. F. C. Cotton local hon. secretary. Messrs. G. Mark Coe and Edward Clough were elected ringing members, and Mr. John Worthington an honorary member of the Association.

Thurleston was chosen as the place of the next meeting, and the business concluded with a hearty vote of thanks to Canon Hurrell for the use of the bells. Songs were afterwards given by Messrs. W. Humphreys and W. Reynolds; duets by Messrs. L. Cobley and W. Reynolds; Miss Abbots and Mr. W. Reynolds. Change ringing on handbells also took place, and altogether a very enjoyable evening was spent.

A CARILLON FOR NORWAY.

Stavanger, Norway, was on fete on Saturday, January 7th, when a fine carillon of 22 bells, tenor 22 cwt. in E, was opened by Mr. Harry Withers, the carillonneur, of Bournville, Birmingham. After a short dedication service in the Domkirken, where the carillon is hung, large crowds listened, some, no doubt, for the first time, to bell music. Mr. Withers gave a selection of tunes, lasting 1½ hours, concluding with the Norwegian Anthem, and, by the donor's special wish, 'God save the King.'

The donor of bells and clock, with Westminster chimes, is Konsul Segval Bergesen, of Stavanger. The whole work was carried out by Messrs. Warner and Son, the well-known Spitalfields Bell Founders, and reflects great credit on the firm.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.*MEETING AT ORDSALL.

The Christmas quarterly meeting was held at Ordsall on Saturday, January 14th. The weather was wretched in the extreme, wind, sleet and snow making itself conspicuous, and of the 25 members who had signified their intention of being present, only 14 put in an appearance, including Miss Ivy Barker, who bids fair to become an efficient ringer. All honour is due to those 14 ringers who turned up from distances far and wide under the inclement weather and most unfavourable circumstances, viz., Anston, Barlborough, Treeton, Gainsborough, Worksop and Ordsall. A nice light, sweet peal of six were at their disposal, and with the exception of 75 minutes' interval for tea and meeting, the bells were kept ringing continuously between 2 and 8 p.m. The ringers were few, but the methods were plentiful, and the striking both with close and open leads was excellent. The methods consisted of Plain Bob, Little Bob, Oxford Bob, Stedman, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Violet and Duke of York, including two 720's of Violet, conducted by H. Haigh, and a non-conducted 720 of Kent, the first on the bells, by: R. Reece 1, W. Platts 2, P. E. Hibbard 3, J. H. Brothwell 4, H. Haigh 5, C. F. Fowler 6.

Tea was served at the Gate Inn, and presided over by the Rector of Ordsall (the Rev. R. D. Foster), who also took the chair for the business meeting which followed. He was supported by the hon. secretary (Mr. H. Haigh), and others.

Two new members were elected, viz., Mr. C. Buxton, of Ordsall, and Mr. H. Hibbard, of Barlborough.

Tuxford applied for an instructor to coach them through a number of lessons, but as none of the Tuxford ringers were present, the matter was held over until the annual meeting in May.

A vote of thanks to the Rector of Ordsall for the use of bells and presiding over tea and meeting, was proposed, and carried with acclamation.—The rev. gentleman, in reply, gave the members a most hearty welcome to Ordsall, and said that if he did not attend all their meetings held in the old ancient borough of Retford, it was not because his heart and soul were not in their work, but because he had urgent duties to perform elsewhere. He looked upon the office of a bell ringer as a missionary and church worker of great importance. They at Ordsall had a nice light and sweet ring of six bells, and it was delightful to hear the bells when skillfully rung. The art of change ringing was a noble art; he could pull a bell; he understood the theory of the art from study at school, and also as a schoolmaster, but that was as far as he had got. Nevertheless he was delighted to hear them ring, and he wished the Association every success.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.*DEVIZES BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Devizes branch was held at Devizes on Saturday, January 7th, and was well attended (notwithstanding the very unpleasant weather) by ringers from Warminster, Westbury, Trowbridge, Bradford-on-Avon, Holt, Bromham, Keevil, Devizes, St. John and St. Mary, and Southbroom. Ringing commenced at St. John's, and a brief dedication service was held in the belfry, when the Rector (the Rev. A. H. T. Clarke) unveiled a stone mural memorial tablet engraved as under:—

THE SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD OF RINGERS.

This Tablet was erected by the Members of the Devizes Branch to the memory of their fellow ringers who gave their lives in the Great War, 1914-18.

Beneath this inscription is a record of a peal of Grandsire Triples rung half-muffled by a band of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild, all ex-Service men, on 20th February, 1920.

After this ceremony the ringers assembled in the church for the usual Guild service, which was conducted by the Rector, the lessons being read by Mr. C. D. Heginbotham.

Tea in the parish room was followed by the business meeting, at which the balance sheet was passed.—The Chairman (Mr. W. Hart, of Westbury) asked to be allowed to resign owing to inability to attend the meetings regularly, and Mr. C. D. Heginbotham, of St. John's, Devizes, was elected chairman of the branch for the ensuing year. The secretary, Mr. H. F. Brown, Westbury, was also unable to continue the duties for another year, and Mr. F. Green, of St. Mary's, Devizes, was elected as secretary. Both the retiring officers were heartily thanked for their services. The ringers then returned to the towers, some visiting St. James's, Southbroom, the remainder St. John's, where some good touches of Stedman and Grandsire Doubles and Triples and Plain Bob Minor were rung, as well as courses of Stedman Triples and Kent Treble Bob Minor. It was a great pleasure to the ringers that the Rev. H. E. Tilney Bassett, of Beccingstoke, and Mr. and Mrs. Brownlee West were able to be present at the tea and meeting.

LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.

Ten members of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, will (D.V.) attempt a record peal of Grandsire Caters, containing 19,115 changes, at Appleton, on Saturday, January 28th.

C. G. WHITE, Appleton.

OLD CUSTOM REVIVED.*NEW YEAR'S GATHERING AT SALEHURST, SUSSEX.

The members of the Salehurst Society of the Sussex Association met in the belfry on Saturday, December 31st, to bid adieu to the old year and to welcome the new.

Several touches of Grandsire Triples were rung till midnight, when the tenor was struck twelve times. The bells were then 'fired,' and further touches rung.

Several youthful members of the band, as well as the older hands, took part.

Following an old custom, the ringers again met on Monday, January 2nd, at 10 a.m., and the bells were rung at intervals throughout the day, several touches of Grandsire Triples, Bob Major and Stedman Triples being brought round. The band was assisted by Mr. H. Parks (Mersham), Mr. C. Tribe (Tenterden), Mr. A. Baker (Frittenden), Mr. W. Franks (Battle), and Mr. F. Lambert (Burwash).

In the evening the party adjourned to the Old Eight Bells Inn, where an excellent dinner had been provided by Host and Hostess J. Schnorr. Mr. F. T. Willsher presided in the absence of the Vicar, and was supported by Messrs. L. J. Hodson, F. Hudson, W. Hoad, W. Franks and F. Lambert, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

The usual loyal and patriotic toasts having been musically honoured, Mr. Willsher proposed 'the health of the ringers.' He assured them that the parish was greatly indebted to them for the way they rang every Sunday for service. They were also deserving of great praise for their regular attendance at practices. They had not met around the festive board for six years, and during that time many changes had taken place. He hoped, however, that all present would be spared to meet again next year and do honour to the old custom.

Mr. T. Booth (captain), in responding, said a great deal of the credit was due to the ringers, who had rallied round him so well. He hoped they would continue to attend the Sunday services as well as in the past, and also to follow up their peal ringing. He himself would always do his utmost to make the ringing a success. He then proposed the health of the visitors, referring especially to the kindness of Mr. W. Hoad, who, he said, had helped them in many ways, and was good enough to lend his motor-car whenever the band wished to visit any other church.

Mr. F. Hudson, in responding, said the parishioners would feel lost if there were no bells to summon them to service. He looked upon them as a great help to lighten people's hearts.

Mr. W. Hoad also replied. He said he always took a great interest in the bells, and had two sons belonging to the band. He hoped all would pull together and get 'to the top of the ladder.'

Mr. W. Franks said he hoped the members would try and attend the annual meeting of the association at Brighton in May next. They would then be able to hear the different speakers and vote on the questions that were discussed.

The remainder of the evening was spent in harmony, songs being rendered by Messrs. W. Franks, F. Hoad, E. Mills, F. Morgan, H. Weston and P. Weston, while Mr. Willsher also gave some capital recitations.

Just before the close, Mr. Booth, captain, on behalf of the company, thanked Mr. and Mrs. Schnorr for the excellent dinner they had provided. It was the first since the war ended, and it revived an old custom, which had existed for many years of ringing on New Year's Day, and having a good dinner afterwards. During the war the ringers had only had a tea after ringing, but they now thought it would not do to let the old custom die out, and so the dinner was revived this year.—The National Anthem concluded the proceedings.

FATHERS AND SONS IN SURPRISE PEALS.*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In regard to the suggestion that the peal of London Surprise Major at Kinner, on December 17th, was believed to be the first peal of London Surprise in which a father and son have rung together, may I point out that my father and myself both rang in a peal of London at St. Mary Magdalen's, Woolwich, on Sept. 6th, 1910, when I rang the treble; also at St. John the Baptist, Erith, on Dec. 3rd, 1910, when we both rang inside bells, and have since then rung three together. We have also rung together in Superlative, Cambridge Major and Maximus, New Cumberland, and Bristol Surprise.—Yours faithfully,

T. GROOMBRIDGE, Junr.

Mr. E. Hern, of 6, Victoria Place, North Shields, also writes: 'May I point out that a peal of London was rung at North Shields on January 2nd, 1911, in which my father (the late J. Hern) and myself took part.'

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD. ANNUAL MEETING OF PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT.

A well-attended meeting of the Portsmouth district was held on Saturday, January 14th, at St. Thomas', Portsmouth. Despite the fact that the weather and road conditions did not favour the cyclists, members to the number of 30 attended from Alverstoke, Fareham, Gosport, Portsmouth, Portsea and Wickham, while Mr. W. G. Edwards, of North Stoneham, and Mr. G. Pullinger, of Upham, were also present. The fine peal of eight were made good use of in Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob and Double Norwich Major. A short service was held, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. W. H. David). After giving the Guild a hearty welcome, he gave an interesting history of the bells. In 1702 the cupola on the tower was built, and five bells hung in it, these bells coming from the Roman Pharos at Dover Castle. They were recast at the expense of Prince George of Denmark, Consort of Queen Anne, and at some later date three more bells were added to complete the octave. When the church was restored in 1912 the bells were recast.

A move was then made to Smith and Vosper's, in Castle Road, where an excellent tea was served.

The business meeting was then held, the balance sheet being read by the auditor, and comments made by the secretary.

The election of officers for 1922 resulted as follows: President, Mr. W. Tate; district secretary, Mr. E. J. Harding, senr.; representatives on Central Committee, Messrs. H. J. Smith and F. W. Rogers; auditor, Mr. H. G. Reynolds.

Several full and probationary members were elected and Bishop's Waltham was chosen for the next meeting, to be held on April 22nd next.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and to the organist for his services concluded the meeting.

OFF TO SOUTH AFRICA.

On Tuesday evening, January 10th, 1,696 Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at Eckington, Derbyshire, to celebrate the wedding of the Rector (the Rev. W. R. Hewson, R.D.), and also as a 'farewell' touch to one of the ringers, Mr. G. Noden, who is leaving to take up an appointment in South Africa. The composition consists of 1,696 changes, and was successfully brought round by: F. Hancock 1, A. Tomlinson 2, G. Noden 3, B. Ditcher 4, P. Jervis 5, W. Ashman 6, C. Booth 7, J. Marton (conductor) 8.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION. WELLINGBOROUGH DISTRICT.

By kind permission of the Vicar, a quarterly meeting of the Wellingborough district was held at Wellingborough on January 14th, ringers being present from Irthlingborough, Finedon, Wilby, Higham Ferrers, Geddington, Broughton, Luton, Thrapston, Earls Barton, and the local tower. During the afternoon and evening touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples, Double Norwich, and Grandsire Doubles were rung.

A short service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. G. W. Smeaton), who gave a stirring address. The Rev. A. M. Baines was also present.

Tea was partaken of at the Granville Hotel, followed by the business meeting, and in the absence of the vice-president, Mr. J. C. Shatford was voted to the chair. It was decided to hold a special meeting at Wollaston on February 25th, and the next quarterly meeting at Yardley-Hastings, on April 29th.

The Secretary read his report for the past year, and also submitted the balance sheet, which was considered very satisfactory.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and to the local ringers brought a successful meeting to a close.

SOCIETY FOR THE ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD.

A quarterly meeting was held at Stafford on January 7th. The somewhat small attendance of members was disappointing, but at the same time not to be wondered at, considering the high cost of travel. The ten bells have recently been retuned and rehung—the front nine on ball bearings and the tenor on rollers—by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank. The tone and 'go' is a remarkable improvement upon the old state of affairs.

A short service was held in church, with a helpful address given by the Rev. J. H. Kempson, M.A., Vicar of Penkridge, in the unavoidable absence of the Rector of Stafford, the Rev. L. Lambert. At the conclusion of the service, the organist favoured the assembly with a pretty voluntary upon the very fine organ.

An adjournment was then made to the Gresham Restaurant for tea. Votes of thanks were accorded the Rector for the use of the church and bells, the Rev. J. H. Kempson for his address, and to the organist and choir boys for their valuable assistance.

The next meeting is provisionally arranged to take place at Lelsall on April 29th.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The coming week marks the anniversary of the death of three noteworthy members of the Exercise. On January 29th, 1886, Henry Haley died at Bethnal Green at the age of 66. Henry Haley's services to ringing are still fresh in the memory of many living ringers.

On January 30th, 1916, died Henry Burstow, of Horsham, at the age of 89. He was a link with a past generation of ringers, had tramped literally thousands of miles in his native Sussex and neighbouring Surrey, in pursuit of ringing, and had a repertoire of over 400 Folk Lore songs which he could sing from memory. He was born in poverty, and faced the hard side of the world all through life, but his indomitable soul was cheery to the very end.

The anniversary of the death of one of the greatest among pioneers of ringing falls on February 1st, for on that day, in 1756, Benjamin Annable was gathered to his fathers. Ninety years ago on February 1st, the first peal of Kent Treble Bob Cinques was rung—at St. Martin's, Birmingham—and very few, if any, have been rung since.

Another William Pye has rung his first peal. This was at Newchurch, Lancs. We wonder if he will become as famous as his namesake!

Two correspondents sent a report of a peal of Treble Bob, rung at Eckington, and consequently this peal has been published in two consecutive weeks. It is not always possible to check this kind of thing, and it would be well if the conductor alone would make himself responsible for the report.

We learn that tickets for Bristol United Guild's first annual dinner are going very rapidly, and it is good to note that some are being asked for 50 miles away from Bristol. The Right Rev. Bishop Clifford has kindly accepted an invitation to be present, and will be supported by many Bristol clergymen. The social programme is being kindly arranged by Mr. W. Emery, of Bristol University, and will be completed with handbell selections by St. Stephen's handbell ringers.

Ringers are reminded that, in order to be included in the Council's Analysis, the reports of all peals rung in the year 1921 must be published before the end of February. If there are any which have not yet appeared from any cause they should be sent to 'The Ringing World' without delay.

Something which ringers will be inclined to call 'hot stuff' is the composition rung on January 7th at St. George's, Southwark. It is a new composition of Stedman Triples by Mr. John Carter, containing odd and even bobs, and, we have been informed, is more difficult than the famous Odd Bob One-Part. The Exercise will look forward with interest to seeing the figures.

The footnote to the peal of Double Norwich at Bishopstoke in last week's issue refers to the ringer of the 3rd, and not the 4th, as printed.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

The annual meeting, 1922, will be held on Whit-Tuesday, June 6th, at Lincoln. Further and full particulars of this will be announced later. Notice of motions should be sent to the hon. secretary before May 6th, in order that they may appear upon the agenda.

Secretaries of the affiliated Guilds and Associations are reminded that the subscription for 1922 is now due, and should be sent to the hon. sec., Mr. F. Alexr. Young, 155, Rushey Green, Catford, S.E.6.

DEATH OF AN OLD RINGER.

The death has taken place at Knighton, Radnorshire, of Mr. John Perks, who passed away at the age of 84 years. Deceased was one of the oldest inhabitants of the town, in which he had lived all his life.

He was the oldest ringer at the Parish Church, where he was sexton until recently, and had rung the tenor bell for the band for nearly 70 years, his ringing having begun when he was a boy of 14. In addition he assisted to chime for Sunday and weekly services, and assisted in the care of the church.

He probably had a good claim to being the oldest regular ringer in the United Kingdom.

RINGER'S SILVER WEDDING PEAL.

A peal rung at Tonbridge on Jan. 14th was to celebrate the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Stonestreet, the former a respected member of the local band. It was arranged for November 21st (the actual anniversary), but had to be postponed at the last moment, owing to the death of a townsman close to the church. Unfortunately, Mr. Stonestreet's health prevented him taking part in the peal, but at his request the band adjourned to 53, Mableton Road, accepted his kind hospitality, extended hearty congratulations, expressed a wish that he might soon be restored to health, and that all might meet on the occasion of the golden wedding. It is interesting to note that the conductor of the peal (Mr. T. Groombridge, senr.), acted as best man at the wedding.

CHARLES MIDDLETON.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I am sure all your readers were, like myself, deeply interested in Mr. Trollope's excellent article on Charles Middleton. That he and Henry Johnson independently composed the one and only possible peal of Cambridge Surprise cannot, I think, be doubted. It was indeed an extraordinary coincidence, paralleled only by the simultaneous discovery of the planet Neptune by Professor Adams at Cambridge and Monsieur Le Verrier at Paris. Just as they, by abstruse calculations based on certain irregularities in the path of the planet Uranus, were able to indicate the exact position of Neptune, although invisible to the naked eye, earned a lasting name, so have Middleton and Johnson 'achieved a certain immortality' by their remarkable discovery of this peal. Amongst many things that have given me pleasure in the course of my ringing career, I look back with pride to having once conducted Middleton's peal, and I commend it as an object of ambition to all aspiring ringers.

Mr. Trollope has omitted, no doubt inadvertently, to tell us what was Middleton's business or occupation: this and any other personal details would be welcomed by your readers.—Yours faithfully,

Hill Top, King's Norton.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.
SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

The annual meeting was held at St. Luke's, Chelsea, on Saturday last, when various methods were rung on the ten bells, the go of which is excellent. Members attended choral evensong. Tea was afterwards partaken of in a cosy room in the King's Road, and a pleasant party sat down. Afterwards the tower bells were rung until 8 p.m., when the business meeting was held.

After the balance sheet had been adopted, the election of officers took place as follows: Mr. W. Pickett, Master; Mr. H. Burton resigning; Mr. F. Smith, secretary; Mr. H. Mance, treasurer; and Mr. W. Essery, steward, Mr. J. Herbert resigning.

A vote of thanks was accorded the officers for their services for the past year, which had been a successful one for the district.

A vote of thanks was also accorded the Rector and Mr. C. Hindes for the use of the bells; also Mr. H. Mance and Mr. W. Dean for making arrangements.

The evening concluded with a touch of Stedman Cinques on hand-bells.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Bristol Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association was held on Saturday, January 14th, at St. Thomas's Schoolroom. The bells of St. Mary Redcliffe were available, and were made good use of during the afternoon. Service was held in the Lady Chapel, the Rev. E. J. Philips, of Coalpit Heath, officiating, and a good number of members being present. After service, a touch of Stedman Cinques was rung, and the bells lowered. The business meeting followed tea, and over 50 members were present, representing twelve towers. The chair was taken by the Master (Mr. H. T. Howell), who extended a hearty welcome to the visitors, and expressed regret at the absence of the Rev. M. E. Thorold, through illness, and of the Rev. T. E. Fowler, who was in London.

The balance sheet was presented by the secretary, and adopted. This showed a balance of £7 on the year's working, to be handed to the hon. treasurer. The branch has added two new towers, Brislington (taken from the Bath and Wells and added to the Bristol Diocese), and Coalpit Heath, with its new ring of four, which it was hoped to increase to six in the near future. Mangotsfield has had its old six recast into a peal of eight, and the young band, under the leadership of Mr. J. G. Jefferies, has made good headway in change ringing.

The retiring officers were all unanimously re-elected.—Four honorary, three associate, two life and 48 performing members had been elected during the year, and at the meeting five ladies were elected associate members, three performing members elected, and Mr. C. D. Heginbottom, of Devizes, was made a life member of the Association.

The quarterly meetings were fixed as follows: Bitton in March; Coalpit Heath in June; and Marshfield in September.

A collection was taken for the Coalpit Heath bell fund and realised £3 10s. 1d. This was handed to the Rev. E. J. Philips, who thanked the members for their help, and remarked that he owed a debt of gratitude to the Association for the assistance given him.

Votes of thanks were passed for the use of the bells and Lady Chapel at St. Mary Redcliffe; also to the Vicar of St. Thomas's for the use of the Schoolroom for tea and meeting.

St. Nicholas' (10), St. Thomas's and St. Philip's bells were available during the evening.

The meeting for February will be held at St. Luke's on the 11th. It is hoped that ringers will turn up in good numbers for the first united Guild's dinner, to be held at the Grand Hotel, Broad Street, Bristol, on Saturday, February 18th, at 6.30 p.m. Several towers will be open for ringing in the afternoon.

SOME HINTS ON CALLING TOUCHES.

Mr. Brown is the captain of his band, an ordinary every-day sort of band that rings Grandeire and Treble Bob and a bit of Stedman. And Mr. Brown is an ordinary, every-day sort of conductor, that calls ordinary every-day sort of touches from the observation bell. Sometimes he goes into other towers at association meetings, or on practice nights, and sometimes he is asked to call. If he can get hold of seventh or tenor he is quite willing, but he can't always do that. Sometimes, perhaps, he is ringing the fourth in rounds before someone says, 'Go on, Mr. Brown, call a couple of courses.' He doesn't like to stop and ask the seventh man to change with him. That would be advertising too loudly that he can't call away from the observation bell. So he has to be modest and say, 'Oh, never mind, let Mr. Blank call.' He cannot help noticing with envy how Smith walks into a belfry, catches hold of the first rope, and proceeds to call anything; and he wishes he could do the same. Perhaps we can give him some hints. We are not going to try and turn him into a first-class conductor. The man who can really call anything from any bell, know what each bell is doing, bring up rounds almost when he pleases, and put mistakes right before they are made—that sort of conductor is as rare as he is valuable. Mr. Brown will never be such a one, try he how he can; and, to give him justice, knows it quite well, and not even a good second-class bob caller. All he wants is to be able to save his face when he is asked to call from an unaccustomed bell.

Our first hint is this: That within certain limits, you can call touches from any bell in the same way you would call them from the usual observation bell. You must know what the limits are. Take the case of Stedman. There are two sorts of touches people call in this method. One is the sort where you go in for music—4-6's and 7-4's and 6-7's behind, where usually you have bobs on the 7th. Mr. Brown had better leave them alone for the present. The other sort is what you may call 'peal' touches, which are made up of calling, such as you get in Thurstan's four-part—bobs at 3-4, 5-6, 7-8, or 12-13. In these the 7th is fixed throughout, and the bells come round at the fourth row of the six. The simplest of all these is a double course called 12-13; 12-13 is the 7th In and Out Quick. Well, you can call any bell In and Out Quick and get a double course. You will remember that if you are ringing the treble you will call the Out Quick at the beginning of the course, and the In Quick at the end.

Or take the calling, 3-4, 5-6, 12-12, which goes five courses. Here the 7th is called In Slow, 1st Whole Turn, 1st and 2nd half turns, In and Out Quick. If you are ringing the fourth you go straight into the Slow. You must, therefore, call your first bob at the go off, and then carry on as if you were ringing the 7th. If you are ringing the fifth, you go up behind and then come down quick. You must, therefore, start with the In and Out Quick first, and then when you come down slow carry on with the other calling. So, too, with the sixth. If you are ringing the third, a bob at the go off is the first half turn. You call that, then the second half turn, then the In and Out Quick, and finish up with the In Slow and first Whole Turn. Fancy you are ringing the 7th, and pick up the calling from that bell at the place you happen to be in.

When you have experimented with a few of these simple touches, you can try some more complicated ones. Wait till you get to a place where you would call a bob if you were ringing the seventh and carry on. If you have omitted any bobs at the start put them in at the finish. The bells will come round right enough. But don't try any touches that come round at hand, or any that come round at the second or sixth row of the six.

1. From the Seventh. 2314567	2. From the Treble. 2314567	3. From the Sixth. 2314567
3425167 Right	3425167 Out Quick	3461275 In Quick
4675312 In Quick	4632571 Right	4132675 Out Quick
6543712 Out Quick	6712453 In Quick	1743256 Right
5123674 Wrong	7264153 Out Quick	7563124 In Quick
1372548 In Quick	2534716 Wrong	5371624 Out Quick
3215748 Out Quick	5413267 In Quick	3241567 Wrong
3254167 Plain Six	Each has, of course, to be repeated.

You must remember that as the second, third and fifth start as bells in the Slow, or that have just come out of Slow, you can't call this touch from them, at least, not without repetition.

We should advise Mr. Brown to practise a few of these transpositions in his own tower first; then, when he goes into a strange belfry, he will know what to do. We have a few more hints we can give him, and perhaps if he finds this useful, we will later on. J. A. T.

LONDON.—On Wednesday, January 11th, at St. John's, Waterloo Road, 1,280 Bristol Surprise Major: F. Hairs 1, J. A. Trollope 2, T. Langdon 3, W. James 4, E. Pike 5, W. Hewett 6, R. Grimwood 7, J. Davis (conductor) 8. Also two courses London Surprise.

THE COLLECTION OF MAJOR METHODS.*SUGGESTIONS AT A MANCHESTER MEETING.

Following the custom of the past 25 years, the first meeting of the year of the Manchester Branch of the Lancashire Association was held at the Cathedral on Saturday, January 14th. A large gathering of ringers assembled, some of them having their first pull on ten bells. A feature of the proceedings was the ringing of the bells by a band composed entirely of members of the Manchester City Police.

At the business meeting, the Rev. A. T. Beeston was voted to the chair. He said the Exercise was gradually recovering from the effects of the war. This was apparent from the large number of peals now being rung in the higher methods, and he thought it was due in a large measure to the progress made in Minor ringing. He mentioned that the Central Council had a large number of Major Methods ready, but they had no funds to enable them to go on with the publication. He thought if the various associations could be appealed to for the money something might be done to get the methods published. This was, however, a matter for them to discuss at their other meetings.

Three new members were elected, Messrs. W. Savage, F. Brickell (of Christ Church, Barlow Moor), and Mr. R. T. Holding (of Crewe) as a non-resident member.—St. James', Birch-in-Rusholme, was selected for the next meeting, on Saturday, February 11th.

During the meeting, the Rev. Canon Elsee, President of the Association, put in an appearance, having broken a journey across Manchester to attend, and he was heartily welcomed by the members.

In reply to the chairman's suggestion, Mr. J. H. Banks thought the best plan would be to print the methods in book form, and sell them at a price to cover the cost of publication.

The President, having first wished the members a happy New Year, said he was afraid the associations would be against being budgeted for the purpose of printing the Council's Collection of Peals, as it would mean an increase of affiliation fees to the Central Council. He favoured the idea of Mr. J. H. Banks.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Dean and Chapter for the use of the bells; also to the ringers for having everything in readiness.—Mr. A. Ridyard replied.—A vote of thanks to the chairman was also unanimously carried, and closed the meeting.

Further ringing in the standard methods took place, also touches on handbells, which delighted a large company.

WORKSOP PEACE PEAL.*COMMEMORATIVE TABLET UNVEILED.

A pleasing little ceremony took place in the ringing chamber at Worksop Priory Church after morning prayer on Sunday, January 8th, when Mrs. Elliott, wife of Mr. A. E. Elliott, agent to the Duke of Newcastle, unveiled a tablet in commemoration of a peal of Bob Major rung on Saturday, December 13th, 1919, by the Priory Church ringers, with the assistance of Mr. J. T. Ladd, of Gainsborough. The unveiling was preceded by a short service, conducted in the temporary chapel at the west end of the church by the Rev. F. E. Franks, after which the company, including Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, the churchwardens (Mr. S. W. Pennington and Mr. J. P. Forrest), the ringers, Mr. J. H. Howard and Mr. J. Webster, and several other ladies and gentlemen, proceeded to the ringing chamber, where Mr. H. Haigh, captain of the ringers, officiated as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Haigh said they all regretted the absence of their Vicar, who had been taken ill on that day. They had assembled to unveil the tablet which commemorated the peal of Bob Major rung in celebration of the conclusion of the great war, the recovery from wounds of ex-Sergt. William Henry Johnson, V.C., and also to give a joyful welcome home to the 'boys' of Worksop who served in His Majesty's forces during the campaign. Some of the ringers thought the number 13 unlucky, but to him it had always been a lucky day, for on Dec. 13th, 1904, he went through the best ringing performance of his career, and he could truthfully say that ex-Sergt. Johnson, V.C., and all the other ringers never rang better than on Saturday, December 13th, 1919. He then called upon Mrs. Elliott to unveil the tablet, which was the work of two local craftsmen, Mr. W. Cartwright, son of one of their ringers, and Mr. A. Grant.

Mrs. Elliott then unveiled the tablet, which was covered with the Union Jack, and said she complied with the request with much pleasure. She thought it was an excellent idea. There were many memorials all over the country to the men who laid down their lives, and it was only just and fitting to have something in remembrance of those who, through God's mercy, came back to us.

Mr. H. Haigh moved a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, and mentioned that the tablet had been subscribed for by the ringers and friends in the town.

Mr. S. W. Pennington (parish warden) seconded the motion, and said all of them could go back to those anxious years of war. It was a kind thought on the part of the Priory Church ringers to remember what the 'boys' of Worksop had gone through, and to ring that peal to welcome them home. The church people and the parishioners generally much appreciated it. He was sorry that Dr. Kemp, who was churchwarden when the peal was rung, was unable to be present.

The ringers at the conclusion rang 224 Bob Major, the men at the ropes being the same as those who took part in the peal.

14,144 LONDON SURPRISE MAJOR.*REV. H. LAW JAMES' RECORD LENGTH.

On May 11th, 1903, a new London Surprise Major record was set up, when the peal of 14,112 changes was rung at King's Norton. That peal was looked upon for a long time as the longest possible length obtainable in the method, but in 1918 the Rev. Law James constructed a peal one lead longer, and below is published for the first time the figures of his 14,144, which contains the extent with the tenors together:—

ON NEW YEAR'S EVE.

On Saturday, December 31st, members of the Skipton company visited Gargrave (accompanied by Miss C. A. Parkins, Peterborough, who was on a visit to Skipton), when an enjoyable two hours was spent in the belfry. A 700 of Grandsire Triples was rung by: J. Bazley 1, Miss C. A. Parkins 2, C. Langstroth 3, J. Langstroth 4, J. Garlick 5, Dr. H. Wales 6, J. McKell (conductor) 7, H. Birtwhistle 8.

In a touch of 576 Kent Treble Bob the tenor was taken by Hy. Horner (Skipton). This was followed by odd lengths of Stedman Triples, etc., a 560 Double Norwich being lost when 'within sight of land.'

At the ending up of the old year 1921, and the entrance of the new, Mirfield Parish Church ringers rang a date touch, 1,922 changes of Kent Treble Bob Major, beginning at 10.55 on December 31st, and finishing at 1.15 a.m. on January 1st, on their heavy eight bells, the tenor being 31 cwt. The ringers were: B. Robinson 1, P. Gott 2, T. Crawshaw 3, A. North (conductor) 4, W. Smith 5, J. P. Lapish 6, A. Robinson 7, J. E. Dawson 8.

At St. John's, Weston-super-Mare, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes) was rung in 47 minutes, on New Year's Eve: W. Craudon 1, C. Parker (conductor) 2, W. Tanner 3, E. Parker 4, W. Popham 5, L. Tanner 6, W. Pitman 7, J. Blackmore 8. First quarter on inside bells by ringers of the 5th and 6th, and first attempt as conductor.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

SUNNING BRANCH'S SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The annual meeting of the Sunning Deanery Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Wokingham on Saturday week. A service was held in All Saints' Church, and was well attended. The Rev. B. Long (Rector) officiated, and an address was given by Canon Coleridge, from Eph. vi., 7, 'With good will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not to men.' He said that the past year had seen a flood of difficulties all over the country and the world, which could not possibly have been foreseen, but they were beginning to pass away, and better days were emerging. While the nations looked forward with hope, they of the Guild did the same. There had been a rapid recovery from the days of warfare, when the belfries had been stripped of their best men, and when many a noble woman had come forward to take their place. Goodwill had been exemplified among ringers, the few exceptions only proving the rule. The true ringer should always be willing to impart to others what he knew himself.

Mr. A. Yould, F.R.C.O., presided at the organ.

Tea was afterwards served in the Church House, when the chairman of the Branch, the Rev. K. H. Hart Davis, presided. Amongst those present were: Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn (Master of the Guild), the Rev. Canon Coleridge (Rural Dean), the Revs. B. Long, J. W. Anderson, S. M. Winter, A. P. Carr, F. M. C. Hare, Mr. R. T. Hibbert (secretary of the Guild) and Mr. F. Dentry (secretary of the branch).

The annual business meeting followed. The balance sheet was submitted, showing a balance in hand of £11 8s. 5d., as against £10 10s. 10d. last year. During the past year the membership had increased from 153 to 156. The non-members had decreased by two to 24, due to changes of incumbents. Ringing members had increased by five. Two peals had been rung within the branch during the year, one at All Saints', Wokingham, and one at Sandhurst. Combined practices had been held in nearly every tower, and had been well attended. The committee for these practices deserved every thanks.

A resolution to this effect was passed.

An application from Waltham St. Lawrence tower, asking for admission to the branch, was accepted.—Mr. W. E. Mortimer is the foreman of this tower.

The Rev. R. H. Hart Davis was re-elected chairman of the branch, and Mr. F. Dentry secretary and treasurer. The belfry foremen were elected to form the committee, and Messrs. Moth, Wright, Rance and Brooks were chosen representatives of the branch on the Guild Committee.—Messrs. Moth, White (Hurst), Rance, Brooks and Grant were elected the committee for combined practices.

During the evening a number of toasts were honoured, including 'the Rural Dean,' 'the Organist' (Mr. A. Yould), and 'the Ladies,' who served the tea.

In responding to 'The Guild,' the Rev. R. H. Hart Davis spoke upon the Guild finances. With a balance brought forward from last year of 4 guineas, the year had been a difficult one. After a grant from the reserve fund of £57 11s. 9d., a balance in hand of £47 19s. 9d. was left. The reserve fund balance was £1 2s. 9d., while War Stock still held (after selling £256) was £60, so the funds in hand amounted to £109 2s. 6d. The printing of the annual report still proved very expensive.

The War Memorial Fund of the Guild had £1 16s. 4d. in hand, after subscriptions of £70 16s. 5d., with 8s. interest had come in. The Guild Festival was to be held this year again at Oxford.

Mr. Hibbert, the Guild secretary, also responded to the toast, and referred to the photos of the Guild Memorial at Oxford.

East Isley bells had been augmented, and now numbered eight instead of five.

Two new and powerful branches had been formed to rival the Sunning Deanery. A branch like that was worth belonging to, and if backed up with goodwill they could not go far wrong.

The chairman was heartily thanked for presiding, and this closed the meeting.

The local towers were opened for ringing during the day.

YOUTHFUL RINGERS AT OLD WINDSOR.

Thanks to the energy and perseverance of Mr. W. Welling (conductor) and Mr. J. Gutteridge (steeplo keeper), the Parish Church possesses a band of boy ringers which is probably unique in the country. Their names are F. Tindall, W. Tindall, E. Neighbour, F. Middleton, A. Cross, R. Franklin, R. Wood and E. Gosling. The average age of the band is 15½ years, and all are members of the local Scout Troop (7th Windsor). On Christmas Day they took the principal part in the ringing, and now take their share in the Sunday Service ringing. Mr. Welling has also taught them handbell ringing, in which they can now give a very good account of themselves.

A 'LIVE' DIRECTORY.

A correspondent who was in London during recent holidays, and was unable to get any ringing at the towers he visited, raises a question that has several times been discussed before, viz., the publication of a directory of information giving the ringing times at all the churches in the country. This might prove of considerable occasional use to a number of ringers when paying visits to distant places, but there are serious obstacles to the carrying out of the suggestion. Obviously, unless the publication were undertaken as a private speculation, which we doubt if anyone would be prepared to face, the only body to issue such a directory would be the Central Council and here at once, assuming the practical utility of such a publication, the financial difficulty comes in, for the Council already has many important works hung up for want of funds.

But finance would be only one of the obstacles. Ringers are notoriously indifferent in matters which only indirectly concern them individually, and by the time all the information could be collected and printed, much of it would already be out of date—so constantly are changes made.

A system, however, suggests itself to us whereby the information—kept as thoroughly up to date as any ringing information can be—could be made available to all ringers, and it is this: Each Association should compile the particulars (which might include the number of bells and the methods rung, as well as the hours of ringing and the name and address of the secretary or other responsible officer) of every tower in its area, whether affiliated or not, and it should be impressed upon local secretaries that any alterations should be promptly notified. Much of the information is already in the hands of some societies, but the vital connecting link is that the secretary of every association should be supplied with the name and address of the secretary of every other Association (and here the Central Council could lend a hand). Then, when a ringer wished to visit another area, he could send to his own Association secretary asking for the information he needed. This could be passed on to the Secretary whose Association covers the area or tower proposed to be visited, and he, with the information at his disposal, could supply the required particulars direct to the original inquirer.

By this means there would be in existence an up-to-date directory, accessible to anyone in any part of the country, which could be maintained at very little cost and which, if in the hands of capable secretaries, would never become the useless collection of statistics which a printed volume would rapidly develop into. But to achieve success, the effort needs co-ordination, and in this the Central Council could take the initiative.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.

QUARTERLY MEETING AT BASFORD AND BULWELL.

The third quarterly meeting of the Midland Counties Association took place on Saturday, January 21st, when the bells of both Basford and Bulwell Churches were open for ringing. Interest centred around the new ring of eight at the former place, the patron saint of which bears a Latin name. On asking a Nottingham car conductor if he knew anything about St. Leodegarius, he eyed me suspiciously for a moment, then taking me for a racing man, he replied, 'Well, it won last time out, and is in the 2.30 at Lingfield.' I told him it was a church I was looking for, but he said it was not in his book. Strange to say, later on at tea, the Vicar of the place told us that the name was actually given to it in connection with the famous race on Doncaster Town Moor.

Ringers, to the number of fifty or more, made good use of the handy ring during the afternoon and evening, when everything from Grandsire to Bristol and London Surprise was rung to the satisfaction of all concerned. Contingents from Chesterfield, Bolsover, Derby, Nottingham, Loughborough, Leicester, and other branches north of the Trent, put in an appearance, and some first-class striking was heard.

The tea and business meeting was subsequently held in the Church Hall, when an excellent repast was put before the members, thanks to the untiring energies of Messrs. Coppock, Kirkby, and their wives and daughters. The President (Ald. R. B. Chambers, J.P.), with Mrs. Chambers, occupied the post of honour, supported by the Rev. T. B. Lawson (Vicar), the Rev. C. J. Sturton (Vicar of Orston), the Rev. R. F. Wilkinson (Mansfield), the Rev. J. F. Amies (Chesterfield), Mr. P. Taylor, Mr. A. O. Wright, hon. secretary, and Mr. W. Willson, hon. treasurer. It was worthy of note that of the four clergy, three of them were ringers. One missed the well-known figure of Mr. J. Griffin, of Burton (one of the stalwarts of the Association, when it was an uphill fight to obtain the prestige it now enjoys), but among those present were Messrs. A. Knights, J. Flint, W. Wallace, E. C. Gobey, A. Ward, and quite a number of the rising generation who bid fair to keep the flag flying in the years to come.

The business of the meeting was of a routine order, the Rev. C. J. Sturton and Mr. C. Draper being unanimously re-elected auditors.

The Hon. Secretary (Mr. A. C. Wright) gave a resume of the peals rung during 1921, which totalled 129 published. Of these no less than 48 were Surprise peals. The analysis of the year's ringing will be further dealt with in the annual report.

The Hon. Treasurer (Mr. W. Willson) said that although he was not able at that moment to give budget figures, it was a foregone conclusion that the Association had reached the high-water mark in their finances, chiefly owing to the valuable services of the president. The forthcoming balance sheet would show the gain they had made. The election of a number of new members was confirmed, and to the already illustrious roll of patrons, the Duke of Portland was added.

Votes of thanks to the clergy, the local officers, and the president, brought the meeting to a close. After the bells were lowered, a smoking concert was held at the local meeting-house. The Shoulder of Mutton (good name), when the Welbeck Male Quartette—which includes Mr. Albert Coppock—gave some delightful renderings of male voice music.

The annual meeting will be at Burton-on-Trent on Easter Monday. W. W.

QUIBBLE OVER A JOINT MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Leicester District was held at St. Margaret's, Leicester, on Friday evening, January 20th. Members were present from all local towers, and from Wigston, Anstey and Kirby Muxloe. The new ring of twelve were kept going throughout the evening.

The business meeting was held in the belfry, Mr. H. W. Needham (vice-president) being in the chair.

Ratby and Groby were chosen for the next quarterly meeting, on April 1st.

It was decided to carry on the fortnightly open practice nights, and to include as many towers as possible.

Mr. W. P. Whitehead was elected a member of the Association, and the general officers were nominated for re-election en bloc.

Mr. H. W. Needham said he could not stand for re-election as local vice-president on account of business ties, and Mr. E. Morris was elected to this post for the ensuing year. Mr. H. W. Needham could not escape office so easily, however, as he was, with Mr. S. Shelton, elected to the local committee.

Mr. H. E. Norman was re-elected local secretary. Mr. Broughton asked: 'How was the Leicester and Hinckley joint meeting of November last proposed, and on what authority was it held?' He was supported by Mr. H. W. Needham, who appeared to consider the expenditure of 1s. 6d. on a notice in 'The Ringing World,' a matter of grave concern. The Secretary replied that the meeting in question was a social one, and that he used his discretion as to the best way of informing all members.—A few words of well-meant advice from the chair brought the meeting to a close.

DUBLIN SURPRISE MAJOR.

A NEW METHOD BY MR. G. LINDOFF.

This new method is another production of Mr. G. Lindoff, of Dublin, from whence it received its name. It is a clean proof method, and its musical qualities are the same as Suffolk Surprise, which contains the seven pull dodge behind at a bob. The Leiston band, who have now rung the first peal, consider it an improvement on Bristol. Any peal of Treble Bob will run to the method.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION.

NORTHAMPTON DISTRICT DISCUSSES REDUCTION OF SUBSCRIPTION.

A quarterly meeting was held at Moulton on January 21st, but owing to the unsettled weather only 18 members attended from All Saints' and St. Edmund's, Northampton; Weston Favell, Pitsford, Broughton, Kingsthorpe, and the local ringers. The Rev. C. Bach, R.D. (Rector of Overstone), conducted evensong, at which a collection for the Belfry Repair Fund amounted to 3s. 9d.

Tea was kindly served in the Parish Room by the Ladies' Committee.

At the meeting which followed, a discussion was raised as to subscriptions. It was thought that now wages were being reduced it was time the Association returned to one shilling per year, the present fee no doubt making members think before they paid. No less than one-third had not paid last year's subscription. It was decided to put the matter before the Central Committee.

The next quarterly meeting will be at Collingtree, on June 10th, 1922, and a special meeting at Great Brington on May 13th.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Wotton-under-Edge branch of the Gloucestershire and Bristol Diocesan Association took place at Berkeley on Saturday week, the parishes represented being Berkeley, Dursley, Olveston, Thornbury, Wotton-under-Edge, Coaley, Wickwar, Stinchcombe, Slimbridge, and Chipping Sodbury. Methods rung during the afternoon and evening included Grandsire Caters, Grandsire and Stedman Triples. The Vicar (the Rev H. C. Armour) entertained the ringers to tea at the Church Room, and also presided at the business meeting, when the officers were elected as follows: Chairman of branch, Mr. F. Oakhill (Wotton-under-Edge); vice-chairman, Mr. A. Burcombe (Stinchcombe); representative on Management Committee, Mr. H. W. Fussell (Dursley); hon. secretary, Mr. W. A. Lewis (Berkeley).

In proposing Mr. Lewis for re-election, Mr. W. Dyer (Wickwar) paid a high tribute to the secretary's past services.

The next monthly meeting of the branch was fixed for Stone on February 11th.—Messrs. Gilbert Hall and Oswald Cornock, two young members of the Berkeley band of ringers, were elected members of the Association.—Thanks to the Vicar were voiced by Mr. F. K. Howell (hon. treasurer).

METHOD EXTENSION.DOUBLE NORWICH.To the Editor.

Sir,—Before proceeding to the extension of Double Norwich we must stop and consider the way in which the treble makes her way through the working bells in a plain lead.

Consider the following:—

Minimus: 2 a 3 b 4 c 2 a etc.

Minor: 2 a 3 b 5 c 6 d 4 e 2 a etc.

Major: 2 a 3 b 5 c 7 d 8 e 6 f 4 g 2 a etc.

Royal: 2 a 3 b 5 c 7 d 9 e 10 f 8 g 6 h 4 i 2 a etc.

Maximus: 2 a 3 b 5 c 7 d 9 e 11 f 12 g 10 h 8 i 6 k 4 l 2 a etc.

The working bells are arranged in plain course order and starting from rounds the treble is at a between 3 and 2 on every number of bells. We start every method by plain hunting, and the treble passes each bell in course order 2, 4, etc., until she crosses 3 at the back and then comes down under them again in the same order until she gets to lead 132, etc.

Now, in building a plain method the only bell that can make a place to alter the treble's position among the working bells is the third.

i. The third can make second's place when the treble leads and come behind the treble, and all the other bells have a single dodge; this puts the treble into position between 5 and 3 at b on the numbers above four bells, and this is the Grandsire Bob Method.

ii. The third can make 4th's place, change with the treble and make 3rd's place; then all the bells above 4th's dodge when the place is made, and all the bells below 3rd's when that place is made, and we get the same result, the treble now at b between the 3rd and 5th (vide Double Court).

iii. The 3rd can make a place; change with the treble in the middle; lead when the treble is behind; change with the treble in the middle again, and hunt down after her, the result is the same (vide Single Court).

iv. On eight bells and upwards the third can make 6th's (8th's or 10th's), 3rd's (5th's or 7th's), 8th's and hunt down behind the treble. The result is the same, the treble is at b between 3 and 5.

Now the majority of the plain hunt methods are made up of one or more of these shunts, and in extending any of these methods to a larger number of bells, we keep the same shunts and extend the plain hunting; if we alter the shunts we alter the method.

To prove this point, go back to Double Oxford Minor. There are four shunts in the lead.

1st: 4th's and 3rd's moving the treble from a to b.
2nd: 5th's moving the treble from b to c.
3rd: 3rd's and 4th's moving the treble from c to d.
4th: 2nd's moving the treble from d to a.
Now reduce the method to Minimus.
1st: 3rd and 2nd moving the treble from a to b.
2nd: 3rd moving the treble from b to c.
3rd: 2nd and 3rd moving the treble from c to a.
4th: 2nd moving the treble from a to b.

3241 3rd.

3214 2nd.

3124 3rd.

1342 2nd.

These shunts are the same, and the sum total of them equal to one, and the lead end is the same as Bob Minimus which has only one shunt.

Four shunts in Major will take us to e between 8 and 6, and give the lead end 867, etc.; in Royal to e, 860, etc.; and the same in Maximus; thus the same method must produce the same lead end, and, if not, then Bob Major and Double Bob Major are the same method, which is absurd.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The frequency with which the band at Leiston ring peals in new Surprise Methods is most refreshing. They have now rung the first peal of another new product by Mr. Gabriel Lindoff—Dublin Surprise Major, a half-brother to Bristol—which makes the tenth Surprise Method of which a peal has been rung in the tower.

It is hoped to hold the annual meeting of the Berks and Bucks Association at Boyne Hill, near Maidenhead, on Easter Monday. The bells, one of the finest octaves cast by John Warner and Sons, of London, are to be rehung by this firm, and the work is expected to be completed by Easter. Non-resident members of the Guild should be careful to book their seats early as a big muster is expected.

The Warrington ringers, writes a correspondent, are going strong for Forward Major—that reserved method, invented by the late Henry Johnson's young rival in the old Buffery days at Birmingham. No wonder the method was named 'Forward'—all the Bobs 'before'—in a touch or peal—must be made, and it's 'hot stuff' for the bob caller at any time.

A peal which certainly calls for a word of congratulation, is that at King's Langley, recorded this week. It is a peal of Grandsire Triples—the first peal on the bells and by all the band, who are resident members of the local company. Peals of this kind are meritorious performances.

Another, is the peal at Lincoln, with six 'first pealers.' By the way, it is good to notice the bells at the Cathedral are being rung, and that a quarter-peal has been scored on them.

The time of the handbell peal rung at Teddington, on December 29th, was 2 hrs. 30 mins., not 2 hrs. 13 mins., as published.

Those who desire to attend the Bristol United Guild's first annual dinner, on February 18th, should secure their tickets at once. Mr. C. H. Horton will officially represent the Ancient Society of College Youths, and he is sure of a welcome from his old ringing friends in the West. It is largely as the outcome of Mr. Horton's suggestion made at the last College Youths dinner, that this new social event is being held.

The number of 720's rung at Little Munden during 1921 was 47 in 15 methods.

The Lavenham company rang for every Sunday morning and evening service for the year 1921. The methods were Grandsire Triples, Steadman Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob.

On February 5th, 1783, a peal of 12,672 Bob Major was rung at Bromley, in 7 hrs. 48 mins., and on the same day of the month in 1888, the 12,041 Steadman Caters was rung in 7 hrs. 26 mins., at Appleton.

February 4th is the anniversary of a 10,032 Grandsire Major rung at Walsall in the year 1861.

The first peal of London Surprise on handbells was rung on Feb. 6th, 1904, at Romford, by: Messrs. G. R. Pye, W. Pye, E. Pye and W. Keeble.

Congratulations to the Yorkshire veteran, Mr. George Bolland, of Tong, upon his 70th birthday, yesterday. He was born on Feb. 2nd, 1852.

With reference to the communications which have recently appeared in our columns as to fathers and sons taking part together in peals of London Surprise, it is interesting to note that the peal of London at Whitley Bay, the record of which will be found in another column, is the third which Mr. R. Alder Goffon has rung with two sons.

Probably the first peal of London in which father and sons took part was the first peal of London in Essex rung by the Saffron Walden Society on January 10th, 1899, when Mr. Fred Pitstow and his two sons, Messrs. F. J. and Alfred Pitstow, were in the band. His two brothers, Nathan and Ernest, also took part, the peal being composed by Nathan, and conducted by Frederick.

A large number of ringers throughout the country will be pleased to learn that it is proposed to erect a memorial to the late Mr. William Gifford, of Salisbury, and contributions should flow in readily.

The Lancashire Association's report this year has been compiled on pre-war lines, and covers no fewer than 76 pages. It is published at a shilling.

There should have been a bob 'wrong' in the next to the last course (62453) of the last section of the Rev. H. Law James' 14,144 London Surprise Major published last week. The transposition of the course ends shows the calling as M. W., but the — does not appear under the W. Those who are preserving the figures for future use (!) or reference should note this.

BRENTWOOD.—On New Year's Eve, at the Church of St. Thomas-the-Martyr, Brentwood, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples: E. D. Baker 1. A. Rainbird 2. E. J. Butler 3. E. Firbank 4. W. Leggett 5. A. Tarbun, junr. 6. Wesley Watson (conductor) 7. S. Carroll 8. Composed by A. J. Perkins. This was followed by 630 Grandsire Triples, the band standing as before, with the exception that H. Twigg was at No. 2, and rang his longest touch as yet in the method.

THE APPLETON LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.

The attempt for the peal of 19,115 Grandsire Caters at Appleton last Saturday was unsuccessful.

Another attempt will be made on Saturday, February 11th.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—As a rule my ringing paper is delivered late on Friday, and being laid up with a cold, I had a chance of scanning the last issue instead of just glancing through it, as I generally do at first, otherwise I might not have read of the long peal attempt at Appleton until it was accomplished.

Now, Sir, I do not wish to say anything disrespectful to my old ringing friends at Appleton. I have always found them a jolly lot of claps, but what I do object to is the short notice given. I conducted the 15,227 of Grandsire Caters, rung at Cheltenham on April 22nd, 1889, and notice was published in 'The Bell News' for three weeks before the attempt, whereas this short notice and no specified time of starting did not allow of any arrangements being made between the three surviving ringers, viz., Messrs. Phillott, Humphris, and myself.

I begin to wonder if it is hereditary, as the long peal of Stedman Caters rung at Appleton on December 31st, 1888, which surpassed in length of time the 13,064 rung at Cheltenham in the same year and conducted by me, was notified in the same way. I think they fetched Harry Woodward off the hayrick, the notice was so short all round. I am sure a great many ringers would like to listen to 8 or 12 hours' good ringing. Could not the Central Council take this matter up and make some kind of rule with regard to these long peal attempts?—Yours truly, W. T. PATES.

P.S.—A post card to Mr. Phillott or myself at the time of posting to your paper would have given us ample time to make any arrangements.

The Central Council, in their 'Rules and Decisions,' stipulate various conditions which it is considered desirable to comply with. These include (inter alia)—

(i.) Not less than seven days' notice in the columns of the ringing press, stating the tower, day and hour at which the attempt is to be made;

(ii.) Similar notice to the conductor, or if he cannot be traced to some member of the band who rang the peal which it is proposed to surpass, or if no member of the band can be traced then to the Secretary of the Guild or Association under whose title the said peal was rung;

(iii.) That a sealed copy of the figures of the proposed peal be lodged previous to the attempt with the secretary or other responsible officer of the Guild or Association under whose title the band is to ring; and

(iv.) That if possible a competent representative of each of the bands shall be present during the whole of the performance.

It must be admitted that the notice given by the Appleton band did not comply with these reasonable and proper conditions, and it was really important because not only did the peal challenge the longest length in the method, but the longest length ever rung on tower bells.—Ed. 'R.W.'

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

PROPOSED REHANGING OF ST. MARTIN'S BELLS.

The annual general meeting of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths was held at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, on Saturday, January 28th, when the bells were kept going from 3.30 to 6 in various methods.

About 40 sat down to a sumptuous tea, which was followed by the business meeting, the Master (Mr. J. D. Matthews) presiding. The balance sheet was presented for 1921, showing the sum of £19 8s. 5d. in hand.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, Mr. J. D. Matthews; secretary, Mr. J. W. Cornford; treasurer, Mr. B. Foskett; senior steward, Mr. F. Smith; junior steward, Mr. C. Matthews.

The following is a summary of the report:—

During the past twelve months the respectable number of 15 peals have been rung, these including no less than five twelve-bell peals. It is doubtful whether the oldest living member of the society can recollect so many peals in one year on twelve bells. Moreover, they included peals in the four standard methods, probably the first time this has been accomplished in one year. The most notable of these, of course, was Mr. Foskett's golden wedding peal in November last, and no doubt those members who were not participants will be only too pleased to extend to him and Mrs. Foskett their felicitations through the medium of this report. Other gratifying features were the peals by country members in Kent and Surrey—a small beginning, which it is hoped will be increased. The 15 peals were made up as follows: Stedman Cinques 2, Grandsire Cinques 1, Plain Bob Maximus 1, Kent

Treble Bob Maximus 1, Stedman Caters 2, Superlative Surprise Major 1, Double Norwich Major 3, Grandsire Triples 2, Bob Royal (on handbells) 2; total 15.

It can hardly be a surprise to the majority of members to hear that there is every prospect of the much-needed rehanging of St. Martin's bells becoming an accomplished fact in the near future, as part of the Church Restoration scheme; and the best wishes and sympathy of the members will assuredly be with the Rev. H. R. L. Sheppard for the success of his great undertaking. St. Martin's peal of twelve is fast approaching its 200th anniversary (1927), and it must certainly be with something more than pride that the society will handle the restored peal in the near future, as did the members of the society nearly two centuries ago.

It was arranged to hold the annual dinner during October. At the close of the meeting, touches were indulged in on the handbells.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD.

MID-DEVON BRANCH.

The annual meeting was held at Paignton, on Saturday, January 21st, and in spite of the weather a good muster of ringers was present from Exeter, Christow, Dartmouth, Buckfastleigh, Cockington, and Paignton. A short service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. H. Mackworth Drake), who, in the course of a most eloquent address, pointed out the duties of the ringers in attending Divine service as well as in the belfry.

Tea and business meeting were held in the Church Schools.

The report of the branch showed an increased balance in hand, but two of the towers had not followed up the good work commenced, which was regretted.

Mr. H. W. Wilkes was re-elected chairman, and, in returning thanks, regretted he could not get the Dartmouth band to show the enthusiasm he would like them to, and he found great difficulty in keeping a company together.

Mr. H. J. Hole was unanimously elected hon. secretary, and thanked the branch for the confidence. He paid a warm tribute to Mr. F. J. Gover for his great assistance as instructor, not only to the Paignton band, but also in the combined practices that had been held in the district.

Mr. E. Sheppard (Exeter) addressed the meeting, and urged them to follow up the good progress being made. He also complimented Mr. Gover on his instruction, and gave some sound advice to all, which was much appreciated. The Vicar was thanked for the use of the bells and his splendid address. He said how pleased he was to welcome the branch, and wished them further success.

A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by: Mrs. Gover 1—2, Mr. C. Austin 3—4, Mr. Gover 5—6, Mr. J. Collings 7—8. This concluded a most successful meeting. The members then adjourned to the belfry, where ringing was resumed, with touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM.

ANNUAL MEETING.

At the annual meeting held at the St. Martin's Hotel, on Tuesday, January 17th, the chairman, Mr. Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., made sympathetic reference to the deaths of Mr. Raymond J. Wilkins, of Bristol, and Mr. Wm. Cheshire, of Erdington. The former had been a life member for many years, and frequently came to the Johnson Dinner, while the latter gentleman, himself a ringer, was an honorary member, and had long given the Guild practical support. On more than one occasion he had also entertained members at his beautiful house at Erdington, and his hospitality was gratefully remembered.

All present stood in silence for a brief moment, as a last tribute of respect to the deceased.

The whole of the officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, as follows: President, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese; vice-presidents: The Rev. Canon E. Grose Hodge, M.A., Rector of Birmingham; Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., B.C.L., Messrs. W. H. Godden, John Carter, J. H. Shepherd, Wm. Kent, and Thos. Russam; presiding Ringing Master, Alderman J. S. Pritchett; deputy Ringing Master, Mr. Albert Walker; trustees, Messrs. Thos. Russam and Chas. Dickens; auditors, Messrs. Jas. L. Wells and Thos. H. Reeves; hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. A. Paddon Smith.

Mr. Walker reported on the year's ringing, on which the Chairman remarked he was to be congratulated, it being a record for the Guild.

It was decided to hold the Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinner on Saturday, February 25th, the Connaught Room at the Imperial Hotel having already been secured for that date. It was also agreed that no one without a ticket should be admitted to the room, as several complaints had been made as to overcrowding during the musical part of the programme.

The next quarterly meeting will be held at Aston in April.

TWO WINDSOR RINGERS DEAD.

The everlasting Reaper has recently visited each of the bellries of the ancient borough of Windsor, and members of the St. John's Parish Church and the St. George's Chapel Societies have now to fill up two gaps in their ranks not easily to be made good.

Mr. Chas. Farr was a native of Kingsbridge, and learnt the art of joinery there, under his father, a builder, in this Devonshire village. For 22 years he was leading hand under the castle contractor at Windsor for the maintenance of the royal residence, and 21 years a member of the curfew band of bell ringers, under the Dean and Chapter, discharging for most of this time the office of steward to the society. His quiet, sociable disposition, his punctual attendance at work or in the tower, and his efficient discharge of duty endeared him to all his mates. His assistance in establishing change ringing in Windsor in co-operation with Mr. J. S. Smith was most valuable to the Berks and Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, of which he was also a member. Commencing late in life to master the intricacy of 'half-pull' ringing, he persevered until he had rung a peal of Grandsire Triples and several quarter-peals; and according to his 'diary of ringing' he had taken a rope in 100 towers, exactly—a good number being added a year ago whilst spending his holidays in his native district.

On Sunday morning, in mid-December, after ringing for the eleven o'clock matins, it was noticed Mr. Farr was not well as he came down from the ringing room, and on being questioned he said he would 'come along presently.' He was shortly afterwards found reclining on one of the churchyard's 'mouldering heaps.' He was conveyed to his home by Mr. Harman, and died in his 57th year, from cerebral hemorrhage, a malady that carried off his brother and his father before him.

Mr. Farr leaves a widow and three sons, one of whom is well advanced in the art his father loved. The deceased was laid to rest in Windsor Cemetery, with muffled bells and memorial wreaths from his fellow-ringers and friends.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. John Goodwood, a bachelor, in his 47th year, was accidentally killed on the main road from Maidenhead to Windsor, near Bray Court, whilst cycling home, after visiting his brother. He was a member of the Curfew team at Windsor Castle for about ten years, and also the Berks and Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild. He was able to ring treble to Grandsire Triples, an inside bell to Doubles, and was keen on making himself master of method ringing. For some years he was regular hand as gardener in the Royal Gardens of the Castle. It will be remembered that on Sunday afternoon, January 15th, the weather was very rough, with storms of sleet and snow, and in passing a passenger motor-bus his cycle skidded and threw him across the road, the front wheel of the vehicle crushing the deceased's skull. His death, instantaneous as it was, came as a great shock to all his friends and relations.—The coroner gave a verdict of 'death by misadventure.'

ROMNEY MARSH GUILD.*A SATISFACTORY YEAR.

The annual meeting of the above was held at Appledore, on Jan. 14th. The weather was ideal for the time of year, and resulted in a goodly attendance of members, to the number of 40. The towers represented were Ashford, Biddenden, Frittenden, Aldington, Mersham, Burmarsh, Stone, Tenterden, Rye, and several members of Appledore tower. Ringing commenced soon after two o'clock, and was kept up with spirit till 4.30, when a special service was held in the church, the president of the Guild and Vicar of Appledore (Rev. A. O. Scutt) officiating.

Tea was prepared in the Women's Institute by Mrs. Balcomb, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Banks, wives of the secretary, and members of the Guild, and right well did they carry out their task. They were heartily thanked at the meeting for their kindly services.

The business meeting followed, the Rev. A. O. Scutt (who presided at the tea and meeting) being re-elected president. Mr. H. Balcomb was re-elected hon. secretary, and unanimously thanked for his past services.

Several new members were elected, and Great Chart proposed for the next monthly meeting.

The secretary's report showed a very healthy state of affairs, both financially and generally, and as £4 of the balance was in War Savings Certificates, it was unanimously agreed to pay this over to the Kent County Association War Memorial Fund, while a collection made in the room brought the amount up to £5.

Some tunes on the handbells were rung by some of the members, and the touches on the tower bells included the four standard methods.

LINCOLN.—On Thursday, January 26th, at the Cathedral, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples (1,260 changes), was rung in 50 mins.: C. McGuinness 1, G. Chester 2, Lewis Snell 3, G. Flintham 4, C. H. Chester 5, J. Waldon 6, T. Pyle (conductor) 7, H. Leslie Park 8. Arranged to celebrate the coming-of-age of the ringer of the 3rd. It was also his first quarter-peal in the method, and first attempt.

MR. W. SHORT'S 700 PEALS.*AN INTERESTING RECORD.

Few ringers have rung in a greater variety of peals than Mr. William Short, of Clent, who has just completed his 700th and missed, by a single peal, combining with it his 300th as conductor. His list is one of much interest, for he was probably the first ringer to conduct a peal on all numbers from five to twelve, which he completed in 1912. He is probably, too, the only man who has called peals of Stedman from Doubles to Cinques, for he conducted the first, and, as far as recollection serves, the only peal of Stedman Doubles that has been rung. He has also conducted peals of Kent Treble Bob Minor, Major, Royal and Maximus. He has shared, too, in several record performances. His second peal of London was the record 14,112 at King's Norton; he conducted the record 11,111 Stedman Cinques at Birmingham; took part in the record 9,728 Superlative at Clent; 10,176 Double Oxford at Brierley Hill; the 8,888 Stedman Caters on handbells, and a 7,392 Double Norwich. He also conducted the only peal (Stedman Caters) rung on the sea. Mr. Short is among the 'masters' of the practical side of the art, and many a Midland ringer owes his insight into ringing to him, for Mr. Short was for a number of years the official instructor for the Hereford Guild. Appended is his list of peals rung in 176 towers (in 118 of which he has conducted peals) in 22 counties in England, Ireland and Wales:—

A DIRECTORY WANTED.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—Can you inform me whether there is any list or Directory of Ringing Towers, and also their hours of ringing, for London.

I was staying in Clapham for Christmas, and was desirous of ringing, or at least of being amongst the ringing, on that day. My experience was as follows: I went to St. John the Divine's, Kennington, getting there at 10 a.m. I found a service in progress, and on inquiring from the vergers ascertained there would be no ringing that morning, but there might be in the evening, although that was uncertain. I asked the nearest church where ringing was likely, and he recommended me to St. Giles', Camberwell. I took a bus there, and heard four bells, three being chimed and the 4th being rung behind. This didn't sound promising, but I went up to find that only the front six out of the ten were ringable, and that as there was doubt about a band turning up nothing was doing. Getting nicely wet on the way back to my friend's house, where I was staying, I decided to let ringing alone till I returned here.

I should imagine there are many visitors to London who would like to know, where, apart from the well-known towers, they may have an opportunity of meeting other ringers, while the same applies to Londoners visiting the country.

If there is no such guide, would it not be possible for the various Associations and Societies to publish such a list?—Yours faithfully,
Brentwood,
EDWIN O. BAKER.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*NORTH AND EAST DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the North and East District of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, held on Saturday, January 21st, at Southgate, was to a great extent marred by the very inclement weather, but in spite of the fact that the attendance was not above 40, it was noticeable that the great majority of those present were Surprise ringers, and that the ringing done was of a very high standard.

Before the service the bells were rung with half-muffled clappers, out of deep respect to the late Mr. George Burrows, aged 82, who had been buried that morning. Mr. Burrows was for 20 years an hon. member of the society. He had been resident in Southgate for 56 years, during the greater part of which time he had been churchwarden. He was largely instrumental in getting the original eight bells installed in the tower.

The service at 5.30 was conducted by the Rev. R. de G. Hampson, who preached a very interesting sermon.

After tea, which was served at the Woolpack, the usual business meeting was held. The balance sheet, which showed a credit of over £4 on the year's working, was passed; whilst the following were elected as the district officers for the coming year: Master, Mr. G. B. Lucas; hon. treasurer, Mr. F. A. Milne; hon. secretary, Mr. C. T. Coles; assistant hon. secretary, Mr. W. J. Kemp.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. J. Armstrong, who had expressed a wish to retire from the office of Master, after ten years of loyal and useful work for the society.

A vote of condolence to the relatives of the late Mr. G. Burrows was passed in silence, the Hon. Secretary mentioning that the society had lost a good friend and colleague.—Thanks were accorded to the Rev. O. F. Peploe for allowing the bells to be used; to the Rev. R. de G. Hampson for his address at the service; also to Mr. J. E. Miller and the local ringers for their usual very hearty welcome to the members.

The Hon. Secretary, too, was not forgotten, and in reply to a unanimous and sincere vote of thanks, which was moved by Mr. C. Dean, and seconded by Mr. J. Parker, he urged the members to stand together and to put their best into the Association. It was not what a man got out of ringing, but what he put into it, that counted, and the best thanks that members could give to the society's officials was their loyal help and trust.

Several touches were rung after the meeting, the methods practised during the day including Grandsire and Stedman Caters, Kent Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Royal.

CARDIFF RINGER BEREAVED

After a long illness, the wife of Mr. W. Coombes, one of Cardiff's oldest ringers, has just passed away. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Job Cook, who for many years was clerk of the Parish Church of Cardiff (St. John's), and in charge of the tower and bells.

As a last tribute of respect, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters (1,277 changes) was rung, half-muffled, on the bells of St. John's on Thursday evening last week: W. B. Biss 1, F. Bailey 2, T. Dawe 3, E. Hunt 4, J. W. Jones 5, H. West 6, T. Carter 7, W. Bolton 8, F. Chamberlain (conductor) 9, Seymour R. Barker 10. Composed by R. Deal.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS SADLER.*A CHANGE RINGING PIONEER IN SUFFOLK.

A veteran Suffolk ringer has passed away, in the person of Mr. Thomas Sadler, who has died at Ipswich at the age of 72 years. When the Norwich Diocesan Association was formed in 1877, Mr. Sadler was one of the most prominent ringers in the neighbourhood of Ipswich. Among the many peals he took part in were the first of Royal and Maximus by the Association, also of seven methods of Minor rung in his native village of Withesham. He also rang in a 10,272 of Kent Treble Bob Major at Debenham in 1880.

He did a great deal to help struggling bands, and despite the handicap of a wooden leg, walked hundreds of miles for this purpose. Among the places where his assistance was valued were Helmingham, Grandisburgh, Henley, Coddesham, and others. In a modest way his services to ringing in Suffolk have been extremely valuable, and many will regret the passing of an old friend.

ASSOCIATION FINANCE.

The Central Northants Association is the first to move in the matter of reducing members' contributions. On the score of falling wages, the Northampton District have decided to put before their Central Committee the suggestion that the Association should revert to the pre-war annual subscription of a shilling, and it was pointed out that one-third of the members had not paid last year's tribute. The conclusion was apparently drawn that the arrears were due to the fact that the contributions had not come down with the drop in wages. Every association must be its own judge in fixing its contributions; but we imagine that many associations felt the pinch last year from the excessive unemployment that existed, and a man without work cannot be expected to pay a shilling any more than he can pay eighteenpence. When things become more normal—as everyone devoutly hopes they may soon do—there is not likely to be much serious objection on the part of ringers to paying the slightly enhanced subscription which in the last two or three years they have been asked to pay. In any event, before taking any step which may handicap them financially in the future, associations should give the matter serious consideration. If they can weather the present depression, they will probably find the majority of ringers ready to continue the higher rate of subscription.

But while associations are considering whether or not they should reduce their subscription rates, we certainly think the Central Council should also consider the question of raising the affiliation fees which are now in force. The half-crown, which an association is asked to pay for each member it sends, was all right thirty years ago, when the Council was founded and had no special object in view for utilising surplus funds. As its work developed, however, it became necessary to provide the capital for the publication of books and pamphlets. When anything of size was issued, a considerable inroad was always made upon the reserves, but by carefully husbanding the resources, ends could always be made to meet. The heavy rise in costs, however, is now hampering the Council, but they have taken no steps to meet it except by holding back work—some of which at any rate would be of great value to ringers. None of the publications issued by the Council are sold at a profit, and the capital is therefore locked up for considerable periods without showing any gain. If the Council really want to do any good work of this kind in the future, they ought at least to double the affiliation fees. If it were put to the associations that the reason for the increase was to provide capital for matters of real benefit to ringers, we think little objection would be raised, except among those who never see any good in anything the Council do.

THE LATE MR. W. W. GIFFORD.

PROPOSED MEMORIAL.

A suggestion having been made that a memorial should be erected by the ringers of England to the memory of the late Mr. W. W. Gifford, subscriptions will be gladly received for that purpose.

It is hoped that this appeal will be responded to by the Guilds and Societies of Ringers throughout the country.

Mr. J. R. Jerram is the hon. treasurer, and subscriptions, which will be acknowledged through 'The Ringing World,' should be sent to Mr. L. Harris, Britford, Salisbury, or Mr. F. W. Roman, 41, Green Croft Street, Salisbury, St. Martin's company of ringers, Salisbury, joint hon. secs.

THE LADIES' GUILD.

The quarterly meeting of the Ladies' Guild, Midland district, was held at St. Giles', Willenhall, on Saturday, January 21st. The attendance of members was very small, due, perhaps, partly to the weather, which was not ideal. Certainly the 'flu' kept some away, but those who did put in an appearance had a very pleasant time. The bells, with the help of the gentlemen, were kept going until time for service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. H. P. Hyatt, M.A.), who also played the organ, assisted by the curate (the Rev. G. Fletcher). Both gentlemen joined the visitors at tea, which was prepared in the Church House. A pleasant surprise was provided by the announcement that the local ringers had provided the tea, and all the party had to do was to enjoy it, which they did.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar and curate, also to the local ringers.

Handbell ringing by the ladies and gentlemen brought a pleasant meeting to a close.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

NORTHERN BRANCH.

The annual Grimsby district meeting of the Northern Branch was held at Grimsby on January 21st, but owing to the inclement weather not many visiting members attended, but the few who faced the elements and the local ringers took part in a successful meeting. Touches in various methods were rung on the Parish Church bells, and prior to this a service was held, at which the Vicar of Grimsby (the Rev. Canon A. A. Markham) officiated, and gave a most suitable address. Mr. E. P. Guthrie, Mus. Bac., presided at the organ.

After tea, a business meeting took place, the Vicar, owing to the unavoidable absence of the vice-president (the Rev. H. T. Parry), taking the chair, supported by the Rev. J. Stewart Jobling. New members were elected, the officers re-elected, and places for this year's meetings, including Barrow-on-Humber, Waltham, Ulceby, and Barton-on-Humber, were decided upon.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for presiding and for the use of the bells, and to Mrs. Moore, who kindly undertook the catering, in the place of the caretakers (Mr. and Mrs. Kent). Mr. Kent was very ill at the time, and passed away on the following Tuesday.

The ringers returned to the tower, where further ringing concluded a pleasant evening.

THE RECORD LENGTH OF LONDON.*MR. LINDOFF'S CLAIM TO OWNERSHIP.*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In publishing the figures of the 14,144 London the Rev. H. L. James claims that it was composed by himself. All that he has done has been to splice my three main blocks in a different way.

The selection and proof of this mass of material has all been done by me. Not one lead had Mr. James to prove. There is plenty of scope in the method if Mr. James wishes to branch out for himself, without varying other people's peals.

AN OLD GRANDSIRE COMPOSITION.

Re the footnote to peal of Grandsire Triples rung at Hull on Jan. 12th. This peal has been in circulation for the last twenty-five years, as my composition.

As far as I know it was first rung by the Yorkshire Association on the old eight at Beverley Minster—in a slightly varied form—conducted by W. C. Hunt, about 1900 or 1901. I called it myself at St. George's, Dublin, in 1902. I might say I am not yet convinced that anyone else has a prior claim to the composition.—Yours faithfully,
G. LINDOFF.

A STURRY PEAL BOARD.

To celebrate the fixing in the tower of a peal board to record a peal rung in April last, at St. Nicholas' Church, Sturry, Kent, a quarter-peal of Plain Bob Minor was rung on Saturday, January 28th, in 43 minutes, by: P. Crouch 1, R. French 2, R. Maile 3, W. Thompson 4, W. Goldfinch 5, E. Slingsby (conductor) 6. The board itself is an oak shield, beautifully carved. The whole of the work has been done by Mr. R. French (ringer of the 2nd), to whom many thanks were expressed. A local peal, before the warm weather, is the ambition of the band.

MR. THOMAS JULL'S 100 PEALS.

Peals of Minor in 4 methods	3
Peals of Minor in 5 methods	1
In seven methods	88
In seven Surprise methods	1
Grandsire Triples	2
Bob Major	2
Kent Treble Bob Major	3

Total ..... 100

Forty-five of these peals were rung at Tunstall, including his first peal on December 31st, 1901. The time occupied in ringing the peals has given him 273 hours 30 mins, great pleasure, besides many ups and downs on the 'old iron grid.' The peals were rung in 16 Kentish towers and with 60 Kentish ringers.

DOUBLE NORWICH.

Having cleared the ground from certain false presuppositions, I proceed to the extension of the Double Norwich method. But first of all we must decide what the method is.

On page 46 in the late Jasper Snowdon's book on Double Norwich he gives an extract from 'The Clavis' as follows: 'The first peal that was rung in the above method was by the St. Peter's company in the City of Norwich, on the old peal of ten bells which formerly occupied that steeple.' And again, a little further down the page, 'in the Osborne MSS., in the British Museum, it is stated that the Double Norwich Court Method was invented by Thomas Porter, a trunkmaker, residing in the Market Place, Norwich, and that the first performance was a peal of Ten-In, rung in Norwich in 1769.'

Now, these two statements prove conclusively that Double Norwich was first produced as a ten-bell method, and this fact very much simplifies our inquiry.

Double Norwich Royal is given in 'The Clavis' in the form in which we all know it. The bell which passes the treble in 2-3 up goes up to eighth's place, makes it, changes with the treble, makes 7th's, and turns the treble from behind. The bell the treble turns from lead makes 4th's, changes with the treble, makes 3rd's and up. This place making causes dodging, of which we need take no notice.

Fourth's and third's are the two nearest interior places to 1-2, and 8th's and 7th's are the two nearest interior places to 9-0.

To mark the method out on any number of bells, 3rd's and 4th's will remain the same; 8th's and 7th's will be 6th's and 5th's on eight bells; 10th's and 9th's on twelve bells, etc., on any number. Thus, we get the well-known Major and Maximus, and nothing else can possibly be Double Norwich.

Now consider the Major; it is capable of extension in several ways.

1. We can make 4th's and 3rd's, 6th's and 5th's as the treble goes up; we have the same shunts and the same lead end; it is, therefore, a valid extension, but it is not double (Royal and Maximus).

2. We can make 5th's and 4th's, 7th's and 6th's as the treble goes up; this is double, but involves dodging in 2-3 and blows in front, and so is useless (Royal).

3. We can make 6th's and 5th's, 8th's and 7th's, as the treble goes up; this is double in Maximus, but not in Royal.

Some people have made the mistake of trying to make 4th's and 3rd's, 6th's and 5th's and 8th's and 7th's, etc., as the treble goes up, but this is not the same method, because you are putting in an extra shunt for every pair of places, and if you may do that in one method you may do it in all. Take Bob Major and make 7th's place with treble behind; you have only put in an extra shunt of the same nature, and so Bob Major and Double Bob Major are the same method, which is absurd.
H. LAW JAMES.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Fylde Branch was held at St. Anne's-on-Sea Parish Church on Saturday, January 28th. Ringing commenced soon after 3 p.m. on the splendid ring of eight bells (tenor 16½ cwt.), by Taylor's. This is the only ring from the Loughborough Foundry in the district. Bob Major, Grandsire and Stedman were successfully brought round; also touches, double-handed, on handbells, by A. Hague, F. Greenwood, W. Wilde and C. Sharples. Offers were made by these latter to give a few lessons in double-handed handbell ringing to any who wish to take up the art.

At the business meeting, a proposition by the Secretary that the Fylde Branch fall into line with all the other branches of the Association and advertise its future meetings in 'The Ringing World,' was agreed to.—It was also decided to attempt a peal of Grandsire Triples at St. Anne's on Saturday, March 4th.

A RINGERS' DIRECTORY.To the Editor.*

Sir,—In connection with the leading article and Mr. Baker's letter in your issue of to-day, there lies open before me a copy of 'The Change Ringers' Guide to the Steeples of England,' compiled by J. E. Acland-Troyte and R. H. D. Acland-Troyte, price 1s. 7d. post free. Wells Gardner, 1882, so that Mr. Baker's idea is not new. But, of course, as you truly remark, such a publication very soon gets out of date. There never was, so far as I know, any second issue of 'The Change Ringers' Guide,' and the volume now forms only a curiosity, albeit a most interesting one.

I rather think that I should be inclined to propose one or two slight modifications of the suggestions that you put forward. Would it not be possible for you to give in 'The Ringing World'—say, one a month—a list with addresses of hon. secretaries of Guilds and Associations, or (if the whole list be too long) a portion of them?

There cannot be more than about 60 all told, and you might give 12 or 15 at a time. Then any inquirer could write direct to the hon. secretary of the particular area he proposes to visit; and if each of these hon. secretaries, when his annual Guild report is printed, would order two or three dozen slips of the pages containing his list of towers, with number of bells and weight of tenor, name of captain or correspondent, and practice night, a copy of the slip for, say, 2d. post free, could be sent by return post, and the inquirer would have at command all the information that he would be likely to want. If he had to spend first 1d. in writing to the hon. secretary of the Central Council, then to wait for a reply to that, then to spend 2d. in writing to the Guild hon. secretaries, and then wait for a second reply—well, he might do it, but I rather doubt it. And besides this, there is the additional work put on the shoulders of the hon. secretary of the C.C., on which point I speak feelingly.

Feb. 3rd, 1922.

CHARLES D. P. DAVIES.

Our suggestion was not to put the work on the shoulders of the hon. secretary of the Central Council, but that ringers should apply to their own Association secretaries, who should forward the inquiry to the secretary of the Association which the member wishes to visit.—Ed. 'R.W.'

RINGING IN AMERICA.

DIFFICULTIES IN THE WAY OF FORMING A YOUNG BAND.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Among the letters I have received recently, one writer ventures to ask 'if there is not one man capable of taking a bunch of lads and instructing them as we do in England.' I should have forestalled such an erroneous, but pardonable, idea in my first letter. I will attempt to explain why one man—capable he may be—is not able to do it.

All told, there are only 12 peals of bells in the whole North America that are hung for ringing, as we know ringing, the ones in addition to those mentioned in my first letter being as follows: One peal at New York City, three at Philadelphia, Pa.; one at the University of Chicago, Illinois; one at Vancouver Cathedral, British Columbia; and one at Charleston, North Carolina. Coupling this fact with the following, one can readily see that one man would have to be a superman to turn out ringers on a large scale. Prior to the year 1913 no ringing on any of these bells had taken place since the year 1850, with the exception of the peal at Christ Church, Philadelphia, where, I believe, a Mr. Head has endeavoured at various times to instruct a band with varying success; and at Groton School. Therefore, to Americans, the art of bell ringing is as strange a mystery as Einstein's theory of relativity; moreover, anything that has the slightest taint of English parentage is taboo, and, whether good or bad, is ignored, except among a certain class of broad-minded persons.

Even if we found a few pupils we would find it difficult, at the present state of our activities, to teach them, as we get no practice ourselves—for reasons mentioned in my first letter. What we have to do, if we are to push bell ringing in this country, is to become sufficiently strong in numbers so that we can practise and reach such a point of perfection in the art as to arouse and hold the interest of the uninitiated. Americans always want to be shown that a thing can be done; then they usually accept it. If a band could be obtained sufficiently strong in numbers to ring a peal, and ring it well, I believe it would be the means of 'starting something.'

For the benefit of those who may be acquainted with them the following from England are located at Boston: Mr. Richard Newton, of Manchester; Mr. Phillip Alfrey, of Brighton, Sussex; Mr. J. F. Laker, of Tunbridge Wells; Mr. William Bashford, of Nutfeld, Surrey; and Mr. Joseph Goodhead, of Stoke-on-Trent. All are first-class ringers.—Yours faithfully, 24, St. Botolph Street, Boston, Mass.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

What is supposed to be the first true peal of Cambridge Surprise Major—it was referred to in Mr. Trollope's recent article on Charles Middleton—was rung on February 11th, 1873. Next year will thus be the jubilee.

The anniversaries of two noteworthy peals at Oldham occur next week. On February 12th, 1821, a peal of 14,016 Kent Treble Bob was rung, and on February 15th, 1825, 9,999 Grandsire Major.

On February 14th, 1731, a peal of 7,018 Grandsire Cinques was rung at Cornhill, 'the longest peal that had been rung on twelve bells at that time.' Benjamin Annuable called the bobs, and this famous College Youth played a similar part in the next longer length that was rung nearly five years later at Southwark.

By a coincidence the present record peal in the method was put up on the same day of the same month, as the long peal of 1731. It was on February 14th 1920, that the Painswick men rang their famous 13,001 Grandsire Cinques.

The anniversary of another long peal at Painswick falls on the 16th, for it was on that day, in February, 1858, that the 8,448 Stedman Cinques was rung.

On February 16th, 1789, St. Martin's Youths rang 14,244 Bob Major in 8 hrs. 45 mins., at Aston, and on February 16th, 1790, a peal of 6,000 Oxford Treble Bob Royal was rung at Great St. Mary's, Cambridge.

Conductors are reminded that any peal rung in the year 1921 and not published before the end of February will not be included in the Analysis. If there are any 1920 peal performances not yet published they should, therefore, be sent to us at once.

PUBLICATIONS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I am always very interested in your leaders and the same comments on topical matters contained therein, and as your article in the issue of January 27th re the publication of Major Methods rather invites suggestions, I take the liberty of offering one. Would it be a feasible idea to issue these publications in monthly parts of about 16 pp. demy 8vo., with a cover containing advertisements of a miscellaneous nature, and, of course, including other publications pertaining to change ringing. In such a form I should think it could be sold at a price which would be easily within the reach of most ringers, and if it was successful, perhaps, the Minor methods could be re-issued in the same form, and so make up a comprehensive volume.

With regard to the publication of instruction books in general, I think it is a great pity that two or three of the Snowden series have been so long 'out of print.' On the other hand, I am of the opinion that most of them are a little bit too technical for the ordinary ringer, and this point came home to me forcibly when a young ringer wrote to the author of 'Hints to Beginners' in your paper some time ago, stating that he had got so far with Double Norwich, but was rather puzzled with certain points, and 'Conductor' gave him a few useful hints, which I am sure helped him tremendously. Again, 'J.A.T.' gave us matter in one column of your valued Journal a fortnight ago that is of more use to the average ringer than 100 pages of some of the more technical publications issued. Therefore, I am wondering whether the Central Council could see their way to arrange for the issue of a series of quite small handbooks giving in quite simple and terse terms all that is necessary to enable a band to ring Plain Bob from Minimus to Maximus, even without instruction, in one handbook, Grandsire in another, and so on.

I well remember when I started change ringing 34 years ago, I said to my instructor (who was self-taught), 'If you can tell me how to find the bells I have to strike over, when dodging, I think I shall soon improve.' This was after much vain and laborious endeavour. Well, after less than an hour of pencil and paper the whole thing was made quite clear to me, and I went ahead as fast again, and started my ringing career on tower bells, with two peals in one day—one of Grandsire and one of Bob Triples. Likewise, I believe many a band would find the beginning much easier if they could obtain a little booklet giving quite simple rules for each method and all the useful hints gained by experience.—Yours faithfully, F. W.

BARNSELEY & DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting was held at headquarters, Barnsley, on Saturday, January 21st. Members assembled early and in fair numbers, in spite of inclement weather. Ringing took place during the afternoon and evening, and the variety of methods on 8 and 6 bells was greater in number and intricacy than ever known before at a meeting of the Association.

At the business meeting, a general review of the past year was considered as progressive and hopeful for the future. Mr. W. Rayner was elected president, the other officials being re-elected. The next meeting is to be held at Horbury, on February 11th.

NORWICH ASSOCIATION'S PROPOSED EXTENSION.*IPSWICH BRANCH TO COVER WEST SUFFOLK.

A committee meeting of the Suffolk Branch of the Norwich and Ipswich Association, representing 400 ringers in Suffolk, was held at Ipswich on Saturday, February 4th, when it was resolved

That this Ipswich Branch be known henceforth as the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch, the Branch to remain as heretofore united with the Norwich Branch (henceforth to be known as the Norwich Diocesan Branch) forming together one Association covering the two Dioceses, to be known in future as the Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association.

This resolution will come up for ratification at the general meeting of the Branch at Easter.

The result of this re-naming the Association will enable the boundary of the Association to be extended to include West Suffolk, and give the ringers in that district an opportunity of joining as annual subscribers.

FORTY YEARS IN ONE BELFRY.*PRESENTATION AT PULBOROUGH.

An interesting little ceremony took place in the belfry at Pulborough, Sussex, on a recent Sunday evening, when Mr. L. N. Corden, J.P., on behalf of the ringers, presented to Mr. Stephen Stone an illuminated address, silver-mounted walking stick, pipe, and tobacco pouch, as a mark of their esteem, and in recognition of having completed forty years as a bell ringer in Pulborough Parish Church.—Mr. Stone acknowledged the gift in a few well-chosen words, and thanked Mr. Corden for his kind remarks.

DEATH OF A PRESTON RINGER.

By the death of Mr. Robert Fisher, or 'Bob,' as he was popularly known, the Preston Parish Church belfry has lost its oldest member. The deceased was for over 40 years a ringer at the church, and rarely had any fines against him for being late or absent. He was a life member of the Lancashire Association, and up to a few years ago was invariably present at the meetings of the Preston Branch. Though he was not the master of many methods, he was a cheerful and interesting personality, ever ready to make up a band for what he could ring. About four years ago he had a seizure which deprived him of the use of his left arm. This paralysis finally resulted in his death on January 27th, at the age of 71 years. His last visit to the tower was on the occasion of the peace celebrations in July, 1919. It was a hard struggle to get him up and down the steps, but 'Bob' said, with tears in his eyes, how happy he was to have been in the belfry once again.

He was laid to rest in Preston Cemetery on February 1st, on Monday evening, January 30th, his comrades rang a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples, with the bells half-muffled, and on Saturday, February 4th, an attempt was made for a half-muffled peal in the same method. Unfortunately two muffles came loose after the bells had been going for half an hour, so a quarter-peal was rung, time not permitting another start for the longer length. The ringers taking part were Messrs. A. Martin, E. R. Martin, J. Bimson, B. A. Knights, E. Armstrong, F. Harwood, R. Sanderson, W. Heald and A. E. Woolhouse.

EALING'S 'LOCAL' PEALS.*UNVEILING AND DEDICATION CEREMONY.

On Saturday, February 4th, at St. Stephen's Church West Ealing, Middlesex, the Vicar (the Rev. W. Maynard, M.A.) officiated at the unveiling and dedication of a peal board which records the ringing of two peals of Stedman Triples, by the local band, for the Ancient Society of Collegio Youths. This is the first peal board to be fixed in the tower.

The bells were open for ringing, from 3.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m., when the ceremony took place, after which the bells were kept going till 5 p.m. The company (which included the wives of the local band Mr. W. T. Cockerill, secretary of the Collegio Youths, and several other well-known London members) then adjourned to the Parish Room, where tea was waiting.

Afterwards a course of Grandsire Caters was successfully brought round on the handbells, and Mr. J. Thomas greatly interested those present with a course of Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major on the piano. By kind permission of the Vicar (the Rev. C. J. Sharp) the bells of St. Mary's, Ealing, were open for ringing during the evening. The methods rung in the afternoon were Stedman Triples, Double Norwich, Cambridge and London Surprise Major. Despite the very inclement weather, a very pleasant time was spent by those present.

FIRST PEAL OF CAMBRIDGE ROYAL.*WAKEFIELD MEN'S ACHIEVEMENT.

Recently we referred to the first peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal, mentioning that, although it was supposed by many that the first in this method was rung in Cheltenham in 1895, there was on record a peal rung a hundred years ago at Wakefield. Happily, the record of this early peal still exists, and, what is equally important in a method of this description where there is possibility of the composition being false, the figures have been preserved to us. The peal is recorded, together with a peal of Stedman Caters rung only a few days previously, on a board in the belfry of All Saints' Church, and we have to thank Mr. J. T. Eason, the steepkeeper, and Mr. James Moorhouse, for taking a copy of the board for publication. It is as follows:

BELFRY OF ALL SAINTS' CHURCH, WAKEFIELD.

On Wednesday, the 19th day of October, 1821, the society of ringers executed a peal of Caters on Stedman's Principle, consisting of 5,073 changes, in 3 hours and 11 minutes, which was performed by the following persons, viz.: Wm. Woodhead 1, J. Sugden 2, J. Priestley 3, G. Pickering 4, T. Rafton 5, J. Gill 6, Josh Gill 7, John Hall 8, R. Collett 9, J. Wilson 10.

On Saturday, the 26th day of October, 1822, nine of the society of ringers at this church, with Josh Tebbs, of Leeds, succeeded in accomplishing a peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal, comprising 5,400 changes, in 3 hours and 35 mins., being the first peal ever attempted in the above difficult Method by any set of Men in the Kingdom, which will be a standing Laurel for the Society for ages to come. The above peals were composed and conducted by William Woodhead.

The composition, it will be seen, is the extension of the five-course block (obtained by calls at Middle and Wrong in each course) to fifteen courses by a bob at H in the last course of each part. William Woodhead was the composer of the peal, although, of course, the basis of it is really Annable's peal of Bob Major.

Regarding the performance in the light of the position of ringing a century ago, everyone will be prepared to agree with the statement that the peal will be a standing Laurel for the Society for ages to come.

Mr. Eason informs us that he believes there is in possession of Mr. Walter Scott, of Johnston Street, Wakefield, a printed copy of the record of a peal of Superlative Surprise Royal rung in Wakefield in the year 1821.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.*READING BRANCH MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Reading Branch of Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Reading on Saturday last, and in spite of the inclement weather was well attended, members being present from Henley, Caversham, Dursley, Tilehurst, Mortimer, and the three town beffries.

Service was held in St. Mary's Church, the Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) officiating. An appropriate address was given by the Rev. C. A. W. Aylen, Vicar of Shiplake.

The members and friends then proceeded to St. Mary's Schools, kindly lent by the Vicar (the Rev. Wickham Legg). Full justice having been done to a splendid knife and fork tea, the business meeting followed, 48 members being present, including Canon Coleridge (Crowthorne), Miss Davis (Bucklebury), and Mr. and Mrs. Paice (Basingstoke). The Master presided, in the absence of Mr. W. Pole, Routh, through illness, and was supported by the Guild general secretary (Mr. R. T. Hibbert), Messrs. A. J. Wright, A. W. Pike, Supt. Wiggins, E. J. Forster, A. W. Mendry, J. Swain, G. White, O. Collins, S. Neville, W. Appleby, W. Newell, W. Ford, etc.

The secretary's report showed good progress at all the towers of the branch, and gave special praise to the Dursley ringers. On the financial side the balance in hand was the largest the Branch has ever known.

All the officers were re-elected with the exception of Mr. H. Tucker, who was elected on the general committee in the place of Mr. A. Cullum, who is serving in another way.—Mr. A. W. Pike was elected deputy chairman.

During the afternoon and evening, ringing was indulged in at St. Mary's and St. Lawrence's, touches of Grandsire and Stedman Caters being rung at the latter, and London Surprise Major at the former.

This meeting proved one of the most successful gatherings the Branch has ever known.

WORCESTERSHIRE AND DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION.*NORTHERN BRANCH TO INSTITUTE MONTHLY MEETINGS.

The quarterly meeting of the Northern Branch was held at Kidderminster, on Saturday, January 28th, about 30 members being present from the various towers. A larger attendance would have been welcomed, but owing to illness, and the great amount of unemployment in the branch, it must be considered that the average was well maintained.

The business meeting was presided over by the Rev. S. J. C. Evans. It was decided, on the recommendation of the Central Committee, to institute monthly meetings in future, and it was suggested that monthly ringing meetings take place, as follows: Cradley in Feb.; Stourbridge in March (the annual meeting takes place at Worcester in April, on Easter Monday); Bransgrove in May; and the quarterly meeting in June, at Hartlebury. These fixtures are provisional, and the secretary will make the necessary arrangements. Due notice will appear in 'The Ringing World.' It is hoped that the members will rally to these monthly meetings, especially the younger ringers, as those responsible for the movement desire to encourage young ringers (and some older ones), who, in the usual way, do not get an opportunity to ring certain methods with their own particular bands. These meetings will provide the opportunity of ringing more advanced methods with experienced ringers, who would make a point of being present at these monthly gatherings. A special point will be made of getting members through their first touch, though it only be Grandsire Doubles or Bob Minor. It is felt that such meetings as these, with proper support from the more experienced members, and the attendance of young ringers and others desirous of learning more methods, will give the necessary impetus to change ringing, and the carrying on of the work of the Association.

The suggestion was heartily supported at the meeting, and due notice will appear in 'The Ringing World' as to the date of the 'first' monthly meeting.

Thanks to the Vicar and wardens for providing tea were proposed by Mr. A. E. Parsons, seconded by Mr. W. Short.

The wardens and chairman having replied, a move was made to the church for the usual association service, which was conducted by the Vicar, who gave an interesting address on the uses and misuses of church bells, and a few words of encouragement to the ringers.

Ringing took place before and after the meeting and service, touches in various methods from Grandsire to London and Bristol being successfully brought round.

It was exceedingly gratifying to see some of the old Kidderminster ringers, viz., Mr. R. Grove and Mr. J. Pagett, appearing again in the tower of their many successes in the past.

SURREY ASSOCIATION.*CENTRAL DISTRICT MEETING.

A successful meeting of the Central District of the Surrey Association was held at Mitcham, on Saturday, February 4th. The bells of Christ Church and SS. Peter and Paul were made good use of during the afternoon and evening by about 50 members, the methods ranging from Grandsire Doubles to London Surprise Major. Two touches that were noticeable were rung by novices who had not been ringing long, including four ladies from Clapham Park.

Service was held at the Parish Church, followed by tea at the Queen's Head, provided by Mr. Chas. Bance, one of the local ringers.

At the business meeting afterwards, the chair was taken by Col. N. F. Bidder, one of the churchwardens, supported by the Master (Mr. J. D. Drewett).

Two new members were elected, and the election of nine others was ratified.—It was decided to hold the next meeting at Dorking on Easter Monday.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

On Saturday, Feb. 4th, a quarterly meeting of the Winchester District was held at Alton, by kind permission of the Vicar (the Rev. R. T. Elwin). The following towers were represented: Bishopstoke, Bishop Sutton, Farnham, North Stoneham, Portsea, Winchester, and the local band.

Tea was provided at the Mikado Restaurant, the Vicar being in the chair.—A vote of thanks was proposed by the Secretary (Mr. W. T. Tucker) to the Vicar for his presence at tea, and for the use of the bells.—The Vicar, in reply, said he hoped they would visit Alton again and bring better weather with them.—A hearty welcome was extended to the Rev. C. D. P. Davies, secretary, Basingstoke district, who was present. Apologies were received from the Rev. N. C. Woods, general secretary; the Rev. W. C. Colchester, treasurer; and Mr. Wilfred Andrews, all of Winchester, who were unable to be present.

The methods rung during the day were Grandsire and Stedman Triples Bob, Treble Bob, and Double Norwich Major. The next meeting will be at Cheriton and Titchborne in May.

DUBLIN SURPRISE MAJOR.*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—It may interest your readers to know that I sent the figures of this method to Mr. Lindoff shortly after the appearance of Suffolk Surprise, and pointed out the advantage of having a clean proof scale, and he wrote and thanked me for them.

I also sent a copy of the method to Mr. C. T. Coles on May 22nd, and have by me a letter from him dated July 13th, in which he has picked down the first treble lead, and asks for some further particulars about it.—Yours most sincerely,

Seafeld Park, Feb. 3rd, 1922.

E. BANKES JAMES.

Dear Sir,—The method you published in this week's issue of your paper I produced in 1902, along with the others of its class—Peterborough and Lancashire Surprise. Bristol had been previously rung by the Brighton band, and as the Rev. E. Bankes James stated, that he had produced all the methods of that class, Peterborough was credited to his name when rung by the Sheffield District Society. The Rev. A. T. Beeston, and Messrs. Sam Thomas, Jno. Flint and Arthur Knights have all seen this method from my book.—Yours faithfully,

ARTHUR CRAVEN.

MR. LINDOFF'S DISCLAIMER.

After the above letters had been put into type we received the following from Mr. Lindoff:—

Dear Sir,—Mr. Bailey ought not to give me all the credit of this method. Practically three had a hand in it, the Rev. A. T. Beeston and the Rev. E. Bankes James, besides myself.—Yours, etc.,

G. LINDOFF.

DONCASTER & DISTRICT SOCIETY.*A GROWING MEMBERSHIP.

The annual meeting of the above society was held at St. George's, Doncaster, on January 21st. In spite of the wretched weather conditions there was a good attendance of members, about 40 being present. A short service was held in the Forman Chapel, and was conducted by the president (the Ven. Archdeacon Sandford), who gave an eloquent address, taking as his text, 'Work your work belimes, and in His time He will give you your reward.'

Owing to the organist, Mr. Wilfrid Sanderson, Mus.Bac., F.R.C.O. (the famous composer of songs, etc.), being unable to be present, those who had hoped to hear him play on the magnificent five-manual organ were disappointed.

Tea was partaken of in the Memorial Hall. At the business meeting which followed, the Archdeacon presided, and was supported by Mr. G. Halksworth (vice-president), Mr. G. Clark, Ringing Master, and Mr. H. Walker, hon. secretary.—Letters of apology for absence were read from Mr. A. A. Bell, churchwarden; Mr. Potter, of the Barusley Society; Mr. H. Haigh, of the North Notts Association; Mr. F. Willey, vice-president of the Yorkshire Association; and Mr. J. Eagles, A.R.C.Sc., principal of the Technical College.

The secretary's report for 1921 was adopted.—Mr. G. Halksworth was re-elected vice-president, and was heartily thanked for his services during his term of office.—Mr. Halksworth responded, and gave some good advice to the younger members.

A Bell Repair Advisory Committee was formed for the district.

The Archdeacon was thanked for his services in the chair, and for the use of the bells.—In reply, he said he was always glad for the ringers of the district to use the bells of St. George's. Referring to his own ringers, he said they ought to feel honoured that they had such a capable man as Mr. Halksworth in charge of affairs, also that they had a lady ringer (Miss K. Jackson). He wished he had her brains, so that he could disentangle the mysteries of change ringing. Perhaps he was stupid—(laughter)—as he knew how it should be done, but he could never put it into practice. He lacked rope-sight. Anyway, he could ring, and had qualified as a member of the Yorkshire Association by drumming in to a quarter-peal at Sheffield when he was a lad.

Ringing continued until 9 o'clock, when the bells were brought down in peal, thus bringing a successful meeting to a close.

In the annual report it was stated that in the history of change ringing in the Doncaster district the year 1921 would be a memorable one, for it was in that year that the Doncaster and District Society was formed, and the first steps taken towards bringing together the different bands in the district with a view to cultivating better ringing. Already the society has justified its existence, for the standard of ringing in the district seemed to be higher now than it was at the end of 1920. The companies are more enthusiastic, and are taking a greater interest in the art and science. Much, however, remains to be done. The total membership of the society was at present 132, and these were drawn from 30 different towers.

The financial position was very satisfactory, and left nothing to be desired, there being a balance on the year's working of about £2 2s. Only two peals were rung during the year, a peal of Stedman Triples at Arksey, and a peal of Bob Major at Conisborough.

SUNDAY SERVICE TOUCHES.*RINGING AT AN OLD CITY CHURCH.

On Sunday last, on the invitation of the vergers of St. Olave's, Hart Street, City, the following went to try the 'go' of the old peal of six bells, which hang in the tower, and which have not been rung for a considerable time, and 720 Cambridge Surprise was rung for morning service: G. L. Joyce 1, P. H. Avey 2, G. Dawson 3, E. Smith 4, W. Miller (conductor) 5, R. Sanders 6. A 360 in same method followed, with P. H. Avey treble, G. L. Joyce 2.

LONDON.—On Sunday, February 5th, at St. Mary Abbot's, Kensington, for evening service, 1,259 Grandsire Caters: A. F. M. Tuke (first quarter of Caters) 1, F. V. Sinkings 2, E. G. Tully (first quarter) 3, C. W. Roberts 4, A. Fisher 5, A. B. Bennett 6, P. E. Clark 7, A. V. Selby 8, W. E. Garrard (conductor) 9, H. G. Miles 10. Rung as a farewell to A. Fisher, who has joined H.M. Forces, also as a compliment to Irene Dorothy, only daughter of ringer of the 2nd married at St. Mary's, Slough, to Ivan Frank Bryant, captain, late Cheshire Regiment, the previous day.

DEPTFORD, KENT.—At the Church of St. John the Evangelist, on Sunday, February 5th, for evensong, a quarter-peal of Oxford Bob Triples: A. F. Bennington 1, E. J. Pannett 2, J. Crowder 3, E. B. Crowder 4, T. A. Easterby 5, A. Bradley 6, W. J. Jeffries (conductor) 7, H. J. Norgate 8.

LONDON.—At St. Andrew's, Wells Street, on Sunday, February 5th, for evening service, 1,260 Stedman Triples, in 42 mins.: A. Cutmor 1, H. Dyas 3, G. C. Iles 4, W. E. Judd 5, H. Crook 6, W. H. Wood 7, E. Skevington (conductor) 8. Rung without a cover, after meeting short of Double Norwich.

WRANGLE.—Lincoln Diocesan Guild.—On Sunday, Feb. 5th, for evening service, 720 Double Court, in 24 mins.: A. Rose 1, J. W. Lakin, junr., 2, S. Woods 3, A. Pickwell 4, W. Houghton 5, F. Hilton (conductor) 6.

STANTON, SHROPSHIRE.—On Sunday, Feb. 5th, for evening service, 180 Bob Minor: S. France 1, R. Turner 2, W. Lycett 3, A. Shotton 4, W. Clay 5, E. V. Rodenhurst (conductor) 6. First touch of Minor by ringers of 1, 2, 4 and 5, who had never rung Minor until a month ago.

HITCHIN, HERTS.—At St. Mary's Parish Church, on Sunday evening, Feb. 5th, for evensong, a quarter-peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major, in 51 mins.: H. W. Else 1, Miss A. M. Durrant 2, E. W. Day 3, L. Fidler 4, G. Wolfe 5, J. Hare 6, W. J. Croft 7, G. T. Croft (conductor) 8.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*NORTHERN DISTRICT'S SUCCESSFUL ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Northern District of the London County Association was held on Saturday, January 21st, at St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate. Ringing commenced at 3.30 p.m., touches in various methods being brought round. The service, timed for 5 p.m., was unfortunately cancelled owing to the Rev. Bullock, who had arranged to conduct it, being ill. Ringing was, therefore, carried on until 5.45 p.m., when a move was made to the Parish Hall for tea, to which a party of 28 sat down.

The business meeting followed. Letters from indisposed members were read, and it was agreed that letters of condolence be sent to them.

The cash statement was read and adopted, and all seemed pleased with the year's income and expenditure, it being agreed that a note be added to the effect that 'the balance in hand (12s. 11d.) is the best since the district's inauguration.'—The Master then made a short statement on the past year's work, thanking all for their support at the meetings. He hoped they would do all in their power to uplift the district, both in the ringing and social sides. The Secretary's statement followed, and it was resolved that it should be included in minutes. In the statement, thanks were accorded to the officers of 1921 for kind help and advice; the Master (Mr. Bullock) for his hearty co-operation in all matters connected with the district; Mr. Howell for his part in arrangements at practice meetings and sound advice on matters of business; Mr. P. Norton for acting as auditor for the year; to all steeplekeepers who did all in their power to make the meetings a success; and, lastly, to all members for their support. The meetings, which during the year totalled 15, were attended by 242 members, the average being a little over 16 members per meeting. It was hoped this would be increased, as otherwise with the cost of publishing a notice for two weeks and paying steepleage fees, there was bound to be a deficit. Fortunately other expenses had been low, and in some cases steepleage had been nil, and for that reason the statement showed a credit as already stated.

The following were elected officers for the year: Mr. J. Bullock, Master; Mr. E. C. Russell, secretary; Mr. A. Howell, steward; Mr. P. Norton, treasurer; Messrs. A. Turner and A. Riley, committeemen. This terminated the business, and a social programme was carried out, the secretary taking the chair. Through the kindness of the Master's brothers, sisters and friends (not forgetting his wee daughter), a programme which filled a jolly evening was carried out. Concerted items, harmonised songs, etc., by the whole bunch of 'Bullocks' were well rendered, and thoroughly enjoyed by all, encores being naturally in abundance.—Mr. Riley gave 'The old Mill,' Mr. Lambert, the new steeplekeeper, contributed a good song, and Stedman Triples by Messrs. F. G. Symonds, A. D. Barker, W. P. Smith, and Miss G. Bateman, and times by the Master and Mr. A. D. Barker were well rendered and enjoyed. Songs and dancing were merrily kept going until 10 p.m., when 'The King,' led by the Master's choral society, was sung, and a hearty vote of thanks to all artists who gave their help was accorded.

The district is greatly indebted to them for such a successful and most enjoyable evening, which, it was remarked, surpassed any social in history of the district.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.*SUCCESSFUL MEETING AT ERDINGTON.

The fortieth quarterly meeting of the Guild was held at Erdington on Saturday, January 21st. Members were present from Birmingham, Coventry, Erdington, Exhull, Rugby, Stoke, and Sutton Coldfield. The influenza epidemic was responsible for many absentees, including the hon. secretary (Mr. A. Wilkerson). It was, nevertheless, a very good meeting, and some excellent ringing was brought round, ranging from Grandsire Doubles to Cambridge Major. Mr. O. J. Hunt kindly acted as deputy for the hon. secretary.

The towers of the Parish Church and the Abbey were open for ringing during the afternoon and evening, and it is a pleasure to acknowledge the kindness of the local bands and towerkeepers to the visitors.

A short service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the president (Canon Back), who also presided over the business meeting held in the Abbey Schools. He was supported by the Ringing Master, Mr. A. Roberts, Mr. James George, also Mr. Bernard Witchell, who is a tower of strength in the Erdington district.

The President read a letter from Mr. James George, thanking the Guild for the letter of congratulation sent to him on the completion of his 700th peal, also a letter from the Church Authorities at Bulkington, appealing for subscriptions toward their bell restoration fund, and he commended the appeal to the members present.—A letter from Mr. H. A. Heath, of Street Ashton Lodge, asking for instructors for the newly-formed band at Monks Kirby, was also read, and it was announced that arrangements had been made with members from Rugby for this purpose.

The next meeting date falling on Easter Eve, it was decided to hold the meeting on April 22nd, at Solihull. Sutton Coldfield was proposed, but withdrawn on account of the bells being out of order.

Eight new members were duly elected, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the clergy for the use of their bells, to the towerkeepers for the arrangements made, to Mr. Bernard Witchell for arranging such an excellent tea, and to the Abbey authorities for the use of the Schools for the tea and meeting.

The Rev. Father Lambert Nolle, O.S.B., who came in during the meeting, replied, and gave the Guild a hearty welcome.

On the motion of Mr. George, a unanimous vote of thanks was passed to the President for conducting the service in church, and also for presiding at the meeting.—Canon Back suitably replied.

JASPER WHITFIELD SNOWDON.

The proposal made at the annual meeting of the Yorkshire Association that steps be taken to organise a gathering every year to honour the memory of that great Yorkshireman, Jasper Whitfield Snowdon, is one which is likely to find ready acceptance among ringers in the North, and with which members of the Exercise in a far wider area are likely to be heartily in sympathy. We venture to assert that to no one man does the Exercise owe as much as to Mr. Jasper Snowdon, who, born in the year 1844, died in the year 1885, at the comparatively early age of 41, after a life of intense energy and activity. His death cut him off in the midst of work invaluable to change ringing, but not before he had given the Exercise some of the results of years of patient investigation and research, incorporated in a form which has ever since provided the standard textbooks for ringers. All the publications in the 'Snowdon' series were written and issued originally by him, or completed upon the basis of lines he had laid down and prepared.

Apart from the numerous articles on the scientific and historic aspects of ringing which he contributed to the ringing Press, from 1872 onward, he published first his treatise on Treble Bob, which dealt more exhaustively with the mathematical side of change ringing than any other work previously issued. From this he turned his attention to an elementary work, and 'Rope Sight,' which is still looked upon as the best 'first book' for the beginner, resulted. Then came 'Standard Methods' and 'Double Norwich Court Bob Major,' the while articles on Grandsire Triples, Stedman's Principle and Surprise peals were appearing in the Press, with the ultimate intention of embodying them in book form. Then came his almost tragic death, and with it the untimely close of a career of energy, usefulness and inestimable service to the Exercise.

His memory is perpetuated by a beautifully stained three-light window placed in Ilkley Church, but this remains only as a reminder to those who visit the church. It is well that something should be done to recall to present and future generations their indebtedness to the patience, the enthusiasm and the enterprise of Jasper Snowdon. To thousands to-day he is nothing more than a name; but an annual memorial gathering would enable his great services to the Exercise, by which he did more to popularise change ringing than any other man, to be more fully realised. There were giants in the Exercise in his days. Jasper Snowdon has himself acknowledged the immense debt he owed to men like Henry Hubbard, Henry Johnson, William Harrison and James and Tom Lockwood, and it is only fitting that ringers in these days should acknowledge in

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the Lewisham district was held on Saturday, January 28th, at St. John's, Lewisham High Road. Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Treble Bob Double Norwich and Cambridge Surprise Major were rung during the afternoon, and at the service a very helpful address was given by the Rev. W. F. Jepson (Vicar).

The members afterwards adjourned to the Whitbourne Institute for tea. About thirty sat down and enjoyed the splendid fare. At its conclusion, the Vicar proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Arch. Bennington, his mother and sisters, for the very able way they had carried it out.

At the business meeting which followed, the Vicar presiding, nineteen new members were elected. At this point the Vicar had to leave, and after saying how pleased he was to meet the members, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him for the use of the bells, his address, and for presiding, and to the lady at the organ at the service.

Mr. W. J. Jeffries was then voted to the chair.—St. Mary Cray was selected for the next meeting-place, in April.—Mr. Jeffries read his report of the association committee meeting, and a very hearty vote of thanks was accorded him.

A discussion then took place with regard to the war memorial, and a committee of five was elected to try and arrange a concert or something of the kind to help the fund.

A hearty vote of thanks to the chairman concluded the meeting, the members returning to the tower for further ringing.

HEREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.
PROGRESS OF THE HEREFORD DISTRICT.

Excellent progress has been made by the Hereford District of the Hereford Guild during the past year, and not only has much good work been done in the belfries, but an adverse balance at the beginning of the period has been converted into a balance in hand. The Rev. G. W. Turner presided over the annual meeting held at Hereford. He was supported by Mr. Charles Edwards, (district secretary and Guild Ringing Master for the diocese), the Rev. A. Brooke Bradley, Miss M. Bull, and others.

The Secretary, in presenting the balance sheet, said the receipts amounted to £18 3s. They commenced the year with an adverse balance of £2 12s. 3d., but this had been wiped off, and they now had a balance in hand of £1 13s. 6d.

In Chairman, in complimenting the secretary on the satisfactory state of the balance sheet, said it was necessary that they should have enough money to carry on the central work, which consisted to a great extent of providing such things as certificates, getting reports printed and sent out, and also paying the expenses of the Ringing Master. Unless the Ringing Master did his work there would be no expense; therefore, when the expenses were more they knew his work was increasing. Mr. Edwards had accomplished a tremendous amount of good work on behalf of the Guild, and they all very much appreciated his efforts.

In his report, the Secretary said there was no disguising the fact that the Hereford district was making great headway and becoming more united. Their membership was increasing, and they had got fresh hands joining them, and the ringers were becoming more and more interested in their work. There was still a good deal of work to be accomplished, however, for several towers had to be got into the union. The membership of the district was as follows: Ninety-one ringing members, as against 55 in 1920; 36 probationers against 43, 16 honorary members against 18. Referring to the All Saints' tenor bell which had recently been recast and rehung, as a memorial to fallen ringers, Mr. Edwards said they had got a bell, which not only themselves but the whole of the Diocese could be proud of. The debt was not yet quite paid off; but he hoped it would be before long. He had received a cheque for £3, and recently he had received another for £2 10s., which was a considerable help.

The Rev. A. Brooke Bradley and eight of his ringers were elected hon. members of the Guild, as also were Miss Maude Bull, Miss Woodhouse (Burghill), the Rev. H. M. Fowler, the Rev. S. Scarlet Smith (Hampton Bishop), the Rev. Warren (Bodenham), the Rev. A. G. M. Rushon (All Saints), Mr. S. Searle and Mr. H. R. Rogers (All Saints).

Mr. C. Edwards was again re-elected secretary, whilst Mr. W. H. Williams (Hagley) was elected district Ringing Master. The following were elected official district instructors: Mr. Walter Taylor and Mr. Fred Arrowsmith (Lugwardine), Mr. W. Williams (Burghill), Mr. G. Biggs (Eownhope), Mr. H. J. Taylor (Hereford), Mr. H. Young (Allensmore), Mr. G. Couzens (Wellington), and Mr. W. S. Evans (Holmer).

The quarterly meetings for the ensuing year were fixed to be held at Burghill, Kingstone, Withington (or Hampton Bishop) and Hereford. Combined practices will be held at Lugwardine, Pipe-cum-Lyde and Dewchurch.

The Chairman made reference to the dinner which the district ringers had held recently. There seemed to be, he said, a general feeling that the event should be an annual one, to which all the members of the Diocesan Guild should be invited, and the matter would in all probability be brought forward at the annual meeting of the Guild.—On the proposal being first put to the meeting, it was generally agreed that the dinner should be held annually.

Mr. C. Edwards said Mr. J. G. Buchanan, the Ringing Master of the Guild, who had lent a set of handbells to the Cathedral had generously presented them as a permanent gift to All Saints (applause). An inscription had been affixed which read, 'Presented to All Saints' belfry by J. G. Buchanan, Esq., 1921, for the use of the Guild of Belfringers.'

STARTING A BAND AT PAISLEY.

Mr. J. E. Sykes, who is one of the keenest 'missionaries' in the Exercise at the moment, is at present in Glasgow. There being no active change ringing band anywhere round, he quickly set about making one. In nine weeks, with the help of Messrs. J. Holman, Tom O'Hara, and A. E. Wreaks, who has been residing for some years in Paisley, has succeeded in turning a 'call change' band into half-pull ringers, and several of the local men have rung their first six-scores: On February 3rd, at St. James' Church, 240 Grandsire Doubles: A. J. Rodgers (first 240) 1. J. Holman 2. J. E. Sykes 3. T. O'Hara 4. A. E. Wreaks 2. J. S. Sykes 3. T. O'Hara 4. J. Holman 6. J. Porteous 1. J. Foulter (first 120) 1. J. Holman 2. J. E. Sykes 3. T. O'Hara 4. A. E. Wreaks 5. J. Porteous (first 120) 6.—On Sunday, Feb. 5th, for evening service, 120 Grandsire Doubles, with 7, 6, 8 covering: A. J. Rodgers 1. A. E. Wreaks 2. J. S. Sykes 3. T. O'Hara 4. J. Holman 5. J. Porteous 6. R. Clark 7. E. N. Wreaks 8.

SHEFFIELD & DURHAM CATHEDRALS.*BELLS TO BE REHUNG.

The restoration of the bells at Sheffield Cathedral is to be taken in hand, and Messrs. Mears and Stainbank have been entrusted with the work. The 7th and 10th, which are cracked, are to be recast, the others are to be cleaned of all their corrosion, and the whole peal tuned, and rehung with the latest type ball and roller bearings. The tenor at Sheffield Cathedral is a 41 cwt. bell.

Messrs. Mears and Stainbank have also secured the contract to rehanging the heavy eight bells at Durham Cathedral on ball and roller bearings. At the same time a considerable amount of work is to be carried out to the beams of the tower by Messrs. Cornish and Gaymer, Ecclesiastical Builders.

These bells are an ancient ring, cast originally in 1693 by Christopher Hodson, a London bell founder. Three have been recast at various dates.

A NEW RING OF EIGHT.*HOW EAST ILSLEY GOT ITS BELLS.

Saturday, January 28th, 1922, will long be remembered by the parishioners and visitors to the old-world village of East Ilsley, Berks, when the dedication of the three new bells in the old tower, by the Bishop of Oxford (the Right Rev. Hubert Murray Burge, D.D.), took place. The old five bells have been in the tower since 1625, when the present tower was given by Richard Whitwick, a Rector of the parish. The old treble was cast in 1589 by Joseph Carter, of Reading, and is still a fine bell.

The Bishop, in the course of his address, said that of all the war memorials he had dedicated or unveiled none had ever appealed to him as this. It showed the grit and determination of the parish, as nothing else could have done, for when he had heard of the difficulties that had been surmounted, and had listened to the sweet tones of the bells, he felt that no memorial could be more fitting to the 21 men of the village who had died that we may live.

The third bell, which is the memorial bell, has the initials of the 21 men on it. The second, given by a lady interested in the parish, is inscribed: 'To the glory of God, in thankfulness'; and the treble, raised by subscriptions from the ringers of England, has for inscription, 'Ring we merrily unto God, our strength.'

The local men rang the old five in Bob Doubles for the service, and after the dedication the memorial bell was tolled 21 blows, and the eight bells rung (whilst the Bishop and clergy walked back to the chancel) by the local ringers. Immediately after the Blessing, 252 Stedman Triples was well struck by: W. Hibbert 1, R. T. Hibbert 2, F. Pounds 3, A. D. Cullum 4, J. Hands 5, G. Essex 6, E. W. Menday 7, W. Hibbert 8.

After tea a short touch of London Surprise was rung by R. T. Hibbert, A. D. Cullum, G. Essex, C. Giles, W. H. Pasmore, H. Tucker, Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn, and E. W. Menday. The bells were kept going until late in the evening, in Grandsire, Stedman, Kent Treble Bob and Double Norwich, by ringers from London, Abingdon, Bucklebury, Chalgrove, Caversham, Chieveley, Crowthorne, Drayton, Hampstead Norris, Newbury, Oxford, Reading, Swindon, Thatcham and Wokingham.

The bells are a fine-toned peal of eight, and sound much heavier than they are, the tenor being only 8½ cwt. in G. The work of tuning, spicing and hanging has been admirably carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

The history of the job throughout may interest the readers of 'The Ringing World.' It was decided two years ago to put a marble tablet in the church with the names of the fallen (which has been done), and to add a bell to make a peal of six. The money was raised in the parish and the job put in hand. It was then found that nothing could be done with the old frame and floors, so £500 had to be found, and some began to say, 'Let it slide,' but others said 'Go on with the job and make it eight instead of six.' Then the writer having promised to raise £100 began to pester all his friends and acquaintances, and has been able, through the generous response to his appeal, to send £115, and also the 2nd bell, and herewith takes this opportunity of expressing the heartfelt thanks of the committee and himself for giving him the great pleasure and pride of ringing on and listening to a fine little peal of eight in the tower of his native village.

MR. GEORGE BOLLAND'S BIRTHDAY.

In commemoration of the seventieth birthday of Mr. G. Bolland, of Tong, Yorkshire, the following rang 1,344 Double Norwich Court Bob Major, on handbells, at 10, Mitford Road, Armley: Malcolm Moorhouse 1-2 Miss O. L. Lumley 3-4, G. Moorhouse 5-6 J. W. Moorhouse (conductor) 7-8.

Mr. Bolland conducted a peal in celebration of the event, and afterwards entertained numerous friends.

THE MAXIMUM LENGTH OF 'LONDON.'*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I have no doubt that Mr. Lindoff does not wish to claim that which is not his, and I can only think that he has not gone carefully enough into the composition of the 14,144 of London Major. His 14,122 consists of 63 true courses all complete, my 14,144 of 64 true courses, 61 of which are complete, and the other three are each of them two leads short. Two of Mr. Lindoff's main blocks are in my peal, but the third is not, and, moreover, my 64 true courses are a limit, and cannot be added to.—Yours, etc.

Surfleet Vicarage.

H. LAW JAMES.

METHOD EXTENSION.

We have still have more shunts to deal with when considering the extension of plain methods. Consider Single Court Bob Minor. The 3rd makes 4th's place, and changes with the treble in the middle; she therefore leads a whole pull when the treble is behind, changes with the treble in the middle again, and turns the treble from lead.

Now this shunt can be put on to eight bells in two different ways; the 3rd can make 5th's and lead when the treble is behind and 5th's, and this is Single Court Major, but it is useless, as it causes blows behind.

On ten bells, 3rd will make 6th's (Single Court Royal).

On twelve bells 7th, unless for the same reason as Major.

Secondly, the 3rd can make 6th's, 3rd's when the treble is behind, and 6th's.

On ten bells, 8th's, 5th's and 8th's, and on twelve, 10th's, 7th's and 10th's.

This shunt can only be used once in a method, but it can be combined with the bob shunt or the double cast shunt, and it cannot be doubled.

The remaining shunt is College Single. On six bells, the 6th, 5th and 3rd all make 3rd's place when the treble is above that place, and it moves the treble from between 2-3 in coursing order to between 4-6, without passing through any of the intervening positions, which no other shunt on six bells in a plain method will do.

Now the treble is plain hunting, and the other bells are retarded, so that there is a three pull dodge in front, and the movement is three steps in course order from 2-3 to 4-6, and not two steps backwards; therefore, we must do the same in Major and College Single Major as here given.

Here we have three steps forward, as in Minor, from between 2-3 to between 8-7.

In Royal, make three 7th's places, and in Maximus three 9th's places.

Major will yield another similar shunt, 5 third's places, which will extend to Royal and Maximus by putting the places up. Royal, another 7 third's places, which can be made on 12 bells as 7, 5th's places, Maximus one more, 9 3rd's places, and this finishes plain hunt methods.

H. LAW JAMES.

DOUBLE NORWICH.*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Nothing can alter the fact that there are three simple transposition rows in Plain Bob, which, when used as the first lead-end, are unalterable in so far as the pivot bell is concerned, even when extended on the higher numbers to infinity.

These rows are the lead-ends in which the 2nd, 3rd and 4th are pivot bells respectively.

In Minor they are 124365; 153624; 165432.

In Major: 12436587; 15372846 16847253.

In Royal: 1243658709; 153729468; 1684029375.

In Maximus: 12436587091e; 1537294e6t80; 16840213e597.

Nothing can alter the following facts:

(1) That the 4th is the pivot bell of Double Court Minor.

(2) That Double Court Minor is the infant of Double Norwich Court Bob Major.

(3) That Double Norwich Court Bob Major is a correct extension of Double Court Minor and has the same bell, the 4th as pivot bell.

(4) That the extensions of Double Norwich Court Bob Major to Royal and Maximus, published in 'The Ringing World' on July 29th last, are correct extensions, and that both have the same pivot bell as Double Court Minor and Double Norwich Major.

(5) That any correct extension of Minor to the higher numbers will always have the same pivot bell, provided the first lead-end in Minor is any one of the three simple transposition rows given above.

(6) That extensions are far more likely to be correct when the Minor is extended upwards, than they are likely to be if the Royal or Maximus is first discovered and then a Major or Minor Method made to fit.—Yours faithfully,

GEORGE BAKER.

BATH & WELLS ASSOCIATION.*CHEW DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Chew Deanery Branch was held at Long Ashton. The bells at All Saints' Church were available, and the towers of Clapton-in-Gordano, Portishead, Chew Magna, Barrow Guerne, Bristol, Mangotsfield (Gloster), Bath, and Long Ashton, were represented.

A special service was held, after which the ringers adjourned to the Church House for tea. The Vicar (the Rev. J. E. Varley) was unavoidably absent, through a cold.

Mr. T. Wyatt (Clapton) took the chair for the business side of the meeting, and expressed, on behalf of the ringers, hopes for the speedy recovery of the Vicar. The election of officers took place.—Mr. Wyatt said he would like to vacate the office of chairman, allowing a younger man to try his hand, but after little discussion he was re-elected, on the proposition of Mr. W. Gillingham, seconded by H. Bridle.

The election of the secretary resulted in the office being again filled by Mr. P. Yeo, and Messrs. Court and Gale were elected as vice-chairmen. Mr. Gillingham resigning in favour of the latter, whose place he had filled while Mr. Gale was on active service.

Mr. Bond, of Chew Magna, and Mr. C. A. Grieves (Portishead) were elected members. (Mr. Grieves lost an arm during the war.)

A friendly argument ensued as to the place for the next meetings. Wrington was decided upon for the quarterly meeting, and Messrs. T. Wyatt, H. Babb, W. Gillingham or G. Yeo spoke in praise of Wrington, Chew Stoke, Easton-in-Gordano, or Chew Magna, and referred to the merits and demerits of the various peals, and of the manner in which the places could be reached. Easton-in-Gordano was finally decided upon as the next meeting-place.

A vote of thanks to the lady helpers was heartily carried, and the ringers returned to the tower, where ringing was continued until the late evening.

AXBRIDGE DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting of this branch was held at Weston-super-Mare on January 28th. The bells were open for ringing in the afternoon and evening. Service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Rector (Prebendary Norton-Thompson), and a very interesting address was given by the Rev. Stoley.

The business meeting was held at Glass's Restaurant after tea, the president (the Rev. M. I. Holme) being in the chair. Seven new members were elected, and Churchill was selected for the next meeting.

The balance sheet showed a balance in hand of £7 10s., and was adopted.

The Rev. J. H. H. Doorbar, Vicar of Kenstoke, was elected president for the ensuing year; the Rev. R. T. Gardner, Vicar of Brent Knoll, was elected vice-president; Mr. G. Chamberlain was re-elected hon. secretary.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Rector for the bells and arranging the service, to the Rev. Stoley for the address, and to the organist, was proposed by the retiring president, and a vote of thanks to the out-going officers by Mr. Iley.

LICHESTER DEANERY BRANCH.

The annual meeting was held at Martock on Saturday, Feb. 11th, members attending from Bridgwater, Ilminster, Langport, Martock, Milverton, Norton-sub-Hamdon and Yeovil. A service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the president of the branch (the Rev. G. W. Saunders, Vicar of Martock), who gave another of a series of addresses on the history of the bells, etc.

The annual business meeting followed tea in the Church House, the president being in the chair. A report of the year's work was read by the secretary (Mr. F. Farrant), who referred to the loss from the district of a promising young ringer, Mr. F. Westlake, of Muchelney, attached to the Langport tower, who had just sailed for British Columbia.

All the officers were re-elected, viz., the Rev. G. W. Saunders, president; Mr. F. Farrant, secretary; Mr. D. G. Taylor, Ringing Master, and the secretary to represent the branch on the general committee.

Seven new members were elected, and Yeovil was chosen for the next meeting, to take place about the middle of May.

The President reported that Mr. Fred Strickland, of Martock, who had broken his leg badly in two places, was now well on the way to recovery.

Mr. D. G. Taylor thanked the Vicar of Martock for his interesting address, the use of the bells, etc. He also thanked the ladies who had provided such an excellent tea.

The President referred to the forthcoming royal wedding, and hoped that as far as possible all bells would be rung on that day.

After the meeting another visit was paid to the belfry, and some nice touches of Bob Major, Grandsire and Stedman Triples were brought round.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The bells of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, as was announced at the meeting of the Cumberland Youths, are to be thoroughly overhauled. The bells themselves which are nearing their bicentenary are not to be touched, but they are to have an entirely new frame and fittings. The money for the work is already in hand.

We understand that the work necessary to put Southwark Cathedral bells in order is being carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, a generous friend having undertaken to defray the cost. The College Youths' practice meetings at that tower will be resumed on February 28th.

The restoration of the heavy peal of ten at All Saints', Maidstone (tenor 32 cwt.), is nearing completion by the Whitechapel Foundry, who also have in hand the rehangings of the bells at Beaconsfield, Bucks. and Elland, Yorks.

The band of policemen who ring the bells at Manchester Town Hall have just received a reinforcement, in the person of Mr. William Pye. He will be able to compare notes to mutual advantage with Mr. John Carter, who is also a very useful member of the company.

P.C. William Pye referred to hails, not from Essex, but from Newchurch, Warrington, where he recently rang his first peal; and P.O. John Carter is not, as some might suppose, the 'Genius of the Ringing Machine,' who probably has not contemplated the addition of police duty to his many activities.

On February 6th, seven of the Manchester constabulary, with P.O. Crook, of Bolton, rang a peal of Grandsire Triples, the second all-police peal that has been rung. The first was a peal of Grandsire Triples, by members of the Metropolitan Force, conducted by Cornelius Charge, about 14 years ago.

The opportunities for peal ringing in the police force are limited owing to the men's uncertain duties. The band at Manchester made several attempts for the peal, but did not have the best of luck; while twice they met short, and on four occasions failed owing to ropes breaking.

To-day is the anniversary of one of the disasters in the annals of ringing. On Wednesday, Feb. 17th, 1836, Christ Church, Spitalfields, was destroyed by fire, and with it the peal of twelve bells.

One hundred years ago to-morrow, the first peal of what we know as New Cambridge Surprise Major was rung at Huddersfield. There ought to be at least one centenary peal rung.

In connection with the restoration of Sheffield Cathedral bells, which is reported in another column, it is interesting to recall that on February 19th, 1833, a peal of 6.120 Treble Bob Royal was rung on these bells. This peal was the first by George Wilson who, born in 1809, rang his last peal on the same bells on December 26th, 1876.

The first peal of Double Norwich Major on handbells was rung by the Cambridge University Guild on February 23rd, 1891; and the first peal of Bristol Surprise Major was rung at St. Peter's, Brighton, on February 22nd, 1901.

On February 19, 1819, Henry Haley was born, and on February 18th, 1914, Nathan Pitstow died.

Mr. William Short's peal of Stedman Doubles was not the first that was rung. Mr. A. Harman, of Leatherhead, informs us that a peal of Stedman Doubles was rung at Burstow, Surrey, on November 19th, 1910, by the Sussex County Association.

THE BRISTOL DINNER.

The first dinner of the Bristol United Guilds to-morrow at the Grand Hotel promises to be a great success. Among visitors will be Mr. C. H. Horton (London), Mr. J. George (Birmingham), Mr. J. W. Jones (Newport), Mr. G. H. Phillott (Cheltenham), Mr. J. Hunt and Mr. R. E. Burgess (Taunton), Mr. H. Chapman and Mr. A. Trippier (Manchester), etc. Many of the Bristol towers will be open for ringing during the afternoon.

ANCIENT SOCIETY OF COLLEGE YOUTHS.

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL BAND.

The annual supper of the St. Paul's Cathedral band was revived this year on Wednesday, January 24th (St. Paul's Day). The gathering took place at headquarters, the Coffee Pot, Warwick Lane, the company including the Cathedral band, and several other members of the society. A most excellent meal was provided, and was followed by handbell ringing and a good musical programme.

These gatherings have always been most enjoyable, and it is hoped that they will now be uninterruptedly continued, after a lapse of seven years.

The chair was taken by the father of the society, Mr. Edwin Horrex, who is still as game as ever, and contributed to the musical part of the proceedings.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the London County Association on Saturday last, when the towers of St. Botolph, Bishopsgate, and St. Clement Danes, were open for ringing, and touches in the standard methods were brought round.

At St. Clement Danes, the Association's form of service was used, conducted by the Rev. W. Pennington Bickford, M.A. Several members assisted in the choir, and the lessons were read by Messrs. R. A. Daniell and E. A. Young. The address, which was an extremely appropriate discourse, was given by the Rev. E. C. Bedford, M.A., Rector of St. Andrew, Holborn.

The tea was kindly provided by the Rev. W. and Mrs. Pennington Bickford, in the Parish House, Clare Market, the tables being tastefully decorated. A company, numbering 76, sat down, the party including the Rev. J. A. Mayor, Rector of St. Mary's Magdalen, Whitechapel.

At the business meeting, 81 members were present, amongst whom were Mr. W. S. Cotter, churchwarden, St. Clement Danes, and Messrs. J. Carter, E. B. Dawe, J. Waghorn, senr., and E. Wightman. Members were present from the following towers: St. Clement Danes, Bishopsgate, Stoke Poges, Willesden, Putney, Hackney, S. Hackney, Highgate, Gospel Oak, West Ham, Rotherhithe, Whitechapel, Ealing, Hammersmith, Wells Street, Oxford Street, Barnet, Chelsea, Croydon, Walton-on-Thames, Battersea, St. George, Southwark; Camberwell, Streatham, Islington, Hampstead, Fulham, Holborn and Kensington.

The secretary's report was as follows: 'After a year of heavy expenditure, owing to new rule books being printed, we finished the year with an increase of £1 6s. 7½d., our total assets now being £31 8s. 6½d. We think that we may congratulate ourselves on a successful year. We regret to state that we have lost, by death, Messrs. Acland J. Perkins, William Doran, Walter S. Wise, Harry Flanders and Frederick G. Perrin. During the year we have set up new records, 46 members having been elected, and 35 peals rung. Of these peals, 29 were on tower bells and six on handbells, as follows: Surprise Minor 1, Oxford Bob Triples 1, Grandshire Triples 3, Stedman Triples 8, Caters 3, Cinques 3, Plain Bob Major 1, Kent Treble Bob Major 2, Royal 3, Maximus 1, Cambridge Surprise Major 3. On handbells: Stedman Triples 1, Caters 3, Cinques 2. The number of members taking part was 91, which averages just over three peals each. There were 62 'firsts', as follows: First peal 11, first away from tenor 2, first Major 3, first Surprise 5, first Caters 4, first Royal 5, first Stedman Cinques 1, first on twelve 5, first Maximus 3, first in various methods 14, first on handbells 3, first on twelve handbells 6. The conducting was shared by Messrs. T. H. Taffender 10 tower and 6 handbells, H. Mance 5, A. D. Barker 5, F. Shevington 3, I. J. Attwater 2, R. F. Deal 1, W. E. Judd 1, W. Miller 1, T. Newman 1, A. Turner 1, C. F. Winney 1. The Sunday ringing, under the direction of the general Master, has been well supported, but there is still room for improvement. Both districts have held very successful meetings, the Northern district making a marvellous recovery, due to the untiring efforts of its officers. In conclusion, the officers still live in hope that the turbulent spirits will one day live peaceably.'

The new district officers were ratified, and the following general officers were elected: Master, Mr. T. H. Taffender; treasurer, Mr. W. G. Matthews; secretary, Mr. A. D. Barker; assistant secretary, Miss G. E. Bateman; trustees, Messrs. R. A. Daniell and E. A. Young; senior steward, Mr. C. V. Ebberson; junior steward, Mr. T. W. Taffender.

The Master's re-election was welcomed with musical honours. The position of junior steward was the only office to be contested, there being four candidates.

Votes of thanks to the various friends, who had done their best to make the occasion a success, and touches on handbells brought an excellent meeting to a close.

LEEDS &amp; DISTRICT SOCIETY.

The usual monthly meeting took place at St. Chad's, Far Headingley, when members were present from Armley, Leeds Parish Church, St. Michael's, Headingley, and the local company. In the absence of the president, Mr. Fred Hutchinson, was voted to the chair, and the usual routine business was soon disposed of. The tower bells were kept going until 9 p.m., in the Double Norwich and Stedman Methods.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

SUGGESTED JASPER SNOWDON MEMORIAL DINNER.

On Saturday, January 28th, the Yorkshire Association held their annual meeting at Pickering, by the kind invitation of the Vicar and wardens. The fine peal of eight in the Parish Church (which is dedicated to SS. Peter and Paul) were at liberty from 11 a.m., and from soon after that hour the bells were rung in a variety of methods, for the remainder of the day, with the exception of a brief interval for Divine service, which was held at 4 p.m. Some forty visitors attended evensong, when an interesting and elevating address was delivered by the Rev. E. Drage (Vicar) who urged his hearers, in striving to make the best of circumstances in this world, to try to realise that as ringers they were called to a high office in the church, and to exalt the office by their own conduct in their lives, so that they would be worthy examples to their brethren who had not such opportunities to serve in the offices of the church.

The visitor to this church cannot fail to be struck by the many historical points in the building. A Saxon church stood on the same site, but of this building little remains except the font which is possibly of Saxon origin. The present nave consists of Norman arches, the aisles and transepts, and the lower part of the tower dating from the same period. During the 13th and 14th centuries the existing chancel, with a chantry chapel—of which no trace now remains—was built. The transepts were altered and the spire added. In the year 1851, during some repairs, paintings were discovered on the walls, these having been covered by successive coats of yellow wash. On the covering being removed the whole of the walls of the nave were found to be filled with paintings of Biblical and allegorical subjects, dating from about A.D. 1450. These were carefully restored, and now form a striking feature in this delightful old church.

A bountiful tea was served in the Schoolroom, after which the business meeting was held. The president (the Rev. C. C. Marshall) occupied the chair, and was supported by several of the principal officers of the Association. Letters of apology from several members were received, and the stormy weather of the previous week acted as a deterrent to many other intending visitors.

The annual report of the committee was passed, on the motion of Mr. H. N. Ineson, seconded by Mr. N. Addison.

A lengthy discussion took place concerning the proposed reorganisation of the Northern Division, and it was eventually decided to refer the question of reorganising to the Northern Division Committee for their consideration, and the general committee to finally deal with the recommendations of the Northern District Committee.

Mr. H. N. Ineson moved, and Mr. H. Morley seconded, that the general secretary make arrangements if possible to hold the Easter Monday meeting at Pontefract, and, failing Pontefract, to arrange for the meeting to be held at Kirkburton.

The President and Mr. J. Cotterell moved and seconded, respectively, a vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens of Pickering for their kind hospitality, to which the Rev. E. Drage (the Vicar of Pickering) responded, and assured the visitors he had much greater pleasure in receiving them at Pickering than the visitors had in coming, and hoped that the Association would visit them again in the near future.

The balance sheet was adopted, on the motion of Mr. W. A. Mason, seconded by Mr. W. A. Hall.

The President announced that a suggestion had been made to the General Committee that a memorial dinner should be held to the memory of one who was probably the greatest genius that the science of change ringing had yet seen, and the Yorkshire Association should, in the speaker's opinion, be the first to move in any function to do honour to so great and so familiar a name to all change ringers. He referred to the late Jasper Whitfield Snowdon, who was the first President of the Association, and the unsparring labours of his brother, the late William Snowdon, who was President of the Association for 25 years. Yorkshiremen are usually rather reserved in expressing their feelings, but it was hoped that the proposed dinner would give an opportunity to ringers from all parts of the county to do honour to their great first president and his brother. It was decided to leave to the general committee the details of making arrangements, if possible, for such a dinner, the meeting expressing its warm approval of the suggestion.

Application was made by Ossett and Pontefract towers to be transferred to the Western Division, but it was eventually decided to discuss this question in committee before any decision was arrived at.

Ringling in various methods on the bells of the Parish Church proceeded merrily until train time called a halt, the visitors carrying away pleasant memories of the hearty and kindly manner in which they had been received on all sides, while the picturesque scenery and historical connections of this old-world town gave an added attraction to the visitors to pay a further visit to Pickering.

NORTHAMPTON PEAL CLAIM CHALLENGED.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—With your permission, I should like to ask Mr. W. Rogers, the conductor of the peal, rung at St. Giles' Northampton, on Saturday, February 4th, to withdraw the footnote to the peal in question, which states that it was the first peal of Stedman Caters by a local band in the county of Northampton. A peal, rung by a local band, should mean that all the ringers who take part in it, are responsible members of the belfry in which the peal is rung. As the band in the peal referred to was a mixed one, drawn from four towers in Northampton, and one ringer from Weston Favel, I certainly cannot allow the footnote to be placed in the records of the Association, as the first peal of Stedman Caters by a local band in the county has still to be rung.—Yours truly, DAVID J. NICHOLS Gen. Sec., Northants Association.

THE LATE MR. W. W. GIFFORD.*PROPOSED MEMORIAL.

A suggestion having been made that a memorial should be erected by the ringers of England to the memory of the late Mr. W. W. Gifford, subscriptions will be gladly received for that purpose.

It is hoped that this appeal will be responded to by the Guilds and Societies of Ringers throughout the country.

Mr. J. R. Jerram is the hon. treasurer, and subscriptions, which will be acknowledged through 'The Ringing World,' should be sent to Mr. L. Harris, Britford, Salisbury, or Mr. F. W. Romain, 41, Green Croft Street, Salisbury, St. Martin's company of ringers, Salisbury, joint hon. secs.

The following subscriptions have been received: Canon Coleridge, 10s.; Messrs. Taylor and Co., bell founders, £1 1s.; St. Martin's company (Salisbury), first donation, £1 15s.; L. Harris, 10s.; total, £3 16s.

LONDON'S OLD TOWERS.

Southwark Cathedral, says 'The Daily Chronicle,' boasts the oldest unaltered church tower in London. It was built in 1520, and apart from necessary repairs has not been touched. But there are at least two altered church towers in London which are older. One is to be found at St. Andrew's, Holborn, which survived the fire and was much restored in 1704, and another is the tower of St. Clement Danes. 'The bells of St. Clements' hang in one of the most interesting towers in the Metropolis. The foundations are Norman, the plain part of the tower seen from the street is Early English Gothic of the 13th century, and the ornate steeple was added by Gibbs, the architect of St. Martin-in-the-Fields. During the Middle Ages the Gothic portion of the tower had buttresses at the angles. These were considered to be out of keeping with the classic church rebuilt in Wren's days, so masons were set to work to turn the buttresses into the obelisks which are to be seen to-day at the corners of the erection.

A NEW 10-BELL SURPRISE METHOD.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—I owe an apology to Mr. Lindoff. I ought to have guessed that the account of Dublin Surprise never came from his pen; and had I done so I should never have written my letter. Incidentally I might mention that by its nature Dublin Surprise is a double method, and need not be spliced on to Bristol in the manner in which it was rung. I came across a whole nest of these double methods in 1891, when first I discovered Bristol. It might interest your readers to note how I came to discover them.

In looking at the figures of a Treble Bob method it struck me that the back four bells might be made to hunt round and return to their original positions, while the treble was executing her two dodges in 1—2 and 3—4. First I made them hunt in a straightforward manner, but I did not like the consecutive places in 4—5, as the treble was coming from 2nd's to 3rd's; then I made them hunt round backwards, and thence came the method now known as Peterborough. By combining these two I obtained many more methods, of which Bristol Surprise was the best.

In those days there was little encouragement for those who wished to produce new methods, so several years elapsed before Bristol was published, and then there was another long wait before it was rung. I wonder if the same apathy exists now. I am inclined to think not. There is a go-ahead element in the Exercise at the present time which promises better things. Let us put it to the test. I send you here the figures of the finest ten-bell Surprise method that I have yet found. The music is as near perfection as you can get. The tenors are only parted for 88 rows in the plain course, as compared with 160 in Cambridge Royal. The proof scale is clean, thus allowing twelve courses with the 6th at home. Will it have to wait as long as Bristol before a peal is booked? We shall see.

With regard to the old Grandsire Triple composition, it certainly is old. I composed it in 1894, and it is to be found in the Central Council's collection, and in the new edition of Snowden's Grandsire. The peal consists in two long five-part blocks, each called alike, and ten B blocks left over. When these B blocks are put out of course the observation bell is found to be called 'before,' 'wrong,' and 'middle.'

The bob 'Before' is a shunting Bob, just like the bob where the second is called 'before' in Reeves's Variation of Holt's ten-part. If a single is called instead of either of the other two bobs the B block will join on to either one or the other of the two long parts.

In the peal as given in Grandsire, I have singled in the B block at one place, and used the single at the other lead to link on the other half.

In the variation to which Mr. Lindoff thinks that he has a claim, the B block is singled in at the other place, and the shunting bob with the observation bell is omitted.

There are hundreds of variations of this peal to be had. Surely Mr. Lindoff does not expect me to publish them all before I can lay claim to them.—Yours sincerely, E. BANKES JAMES.

RINGER AND RAILWAY OFFICIAL'S RETIREMENT.

Mr. William Crane, senr., the oldest of the Bangor band of ringers, has recently retired from the service of the L. and N.W. Railway Company, after 48 years. Mr. Crane went to Bangor, North Wales, in 1880, from Wolveston, and was carriage department foreman for 42 years. Mr. A. R. Trevethick, the carriage department superintendent, has expressed the thanks of the company, and their regret in parting with an efficient servant.

Through failing health, Mr. Crane has of late been compelled to give up his ringing. He was, up to the time of his retirement, always in his place in the belfry, a regular attendant since the bells were first rung, which is somewhere about 40 years ago, and a keen ringer. The band hope that the remaining years of his life may be spent happily, that his health will improve, and that, before long, he may be back in the belfry again.

TENTERDEN, KENT.—On Monday, Jan. 23rd, at St. Mildred's Church, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, taken from Grove's Variation of Parker's 12-part: F. Edwards 1, H. Baer (first on an inside bell) 2, C. Tribe 3, W. E. Pitman 4, L. Hones 5, R. E. Burgess 6, H. Parkes (conductor) 7, W. Bishop 8.

NORTHAMPTON ASSOCIATION'S SUBSCRIPTIONS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The annual meeting of the management committee of the Central Northants Association was held on Saturday last at Wellingborough, when the suggestion of the Northampton district that the Association should revert to the pre-war annual subscription of a shilling was discussed. It was agreed that the question be postponed, as the committee did not think the feeling in the Northampton district represented the wishes of the members of the association in general, seeing that the subscriptions in every other district had practically all been paid, and I was enabled to place before the committee the accounts for 1921, which showed a profit on the year's working of £12 19s. 2d.

I quite agree with your remarks, that if the associations can weather the present depression, they will probably find the majority of ringers ready to continue the higher rate of subscriptions.

In conclusion, may I ask my Northampton friends to rally round their district committee, and come into line with the rest of the districts, and help to place the association in a sound financial position?—Yours truly,

DAVID J. NICHOLS,
General Secretary.

THE APPLETON LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.*LOST AFTER RINGING 9,360 CHANGES.

The attempt by members of the Oxford Diocesan Guild to ring the long peal of Grandsire Caters at Appleton, Berks, as announced in 'The Ringing World,' was duly made, and failed through a shift course, after ringing 9,360 changes, in 5 hours and 40 minutes. The Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) was present to hear what he described as excellent striking throughout, and had only left to fulfil another engagement a few minutes before the bells stopped.

A number of ringers from various parts also testified to the quality of the ringing, and congratulated the band on their efforts to achieve success. The ringers were: F. S. White 1. G. Holifield 2. H. Holifield 3. J. W. Wilkins 4. C. G. White 5. H. A. White 6. F. S. Macey 7. G. Holifield (composer and conductor) 8. R. White 9. F. White 10.

Thanks are due to the Rector and churchwardens for the permission to ring, and no doubt exists that the villagers were as keen as the ringers for the accomplishment of the peal.

With the exception of J. W. Wilkins, High Wycombe, and F. S. Macey, Smarden, Kent, the whole of the band were born, and lived within a mile of the village.

At a gathering, assembled afterwards, in the Old Tavern, one of the churchwardens attended, and, after complimenting the ringers, wished them success for a third effort.

Some excellent handbell ringing by the five brothers White, which included tune selections, and a course of Grandsire Caters 'lapped,' and some part-songs were much enjoyed, as was also a song, about the 10,000 rung in November, 1921, by Mr. H. White.

TIME TO PREPARE.

Now is the time when associations should busy themselves in arranging their summer programmes, and the enterprising among them are doubtless already looking ahead in this matter. There are many ringers who do not look upon the summer as the best period for ringing, and it must be admitted that the long days offer many counter attractions to the belfry. On the other hand, there is a type of 'missionary' work which the summer calls forth. It is important that ringing organisations should use their best endeavours to prevent their members' from temporarily losing interest through the best six months of the year, when there is an inclination to leave the belfry severely alone for the pursuit of outdoor recreations. In many places it is still the rule to drop the weekly practice night as soon as winter is past, and the usual result is that when the band meets again in the autumn it has to begin where it started a year before, and very likely has to fill more than one vacancy which has developed by the complete loss of interest on the part of some of the more indifferent members.

It ought to be the aim of every local society to maintain regular practices throughout the year, and, after all, there is not much sacrifice required, even from the least enthusiastic, to put in an hour or so in the belfry once a week. It is the only real way of maintaining efficiency, for it is noticeable that in numerous cases where the practice is dropped the Sunday service ringing also suffers from slack attendance. This, it is true, is a matter which chiefly concerns individual bands of ringers, and it provides a good opportunity for the leader to show the quality of his leadership. The right man in the right place will keep his men together; indifference or lack of enthusiasm will leave members to fall away in their attendance, even if by so doing they are not following the example of their captain. The greatest drawback to a state of suspended animation in the summer is the lost ground that has to be made up when ringing is resumed, and one finds very few instances of real progress where ringing is looked upon as a winter pursuit only. All the bands that are counted among the best are those who keep up their practices all the year round.

But while, as we have said, this is a matter mostly concerning individual bands, the associations, on their part, ought to make a point of using every possible endeavour to prevent any lapse by their individual branches. Where influence fails, more energetic steps in the shape of informal meetings and joint practices at the towers in question could be tried. The essential point is that it should be a duty upon an association to induce activity into any of its towers where summer lethargy creeps in. Unfortunately, many of the county and other organisations hardly look upon such work as this as part of their responsibility, but in our view it would prove in time one of the most useful to which they could turn attention; for any action which will maintain interest in a tower must eventually react to the prosperity of the parent society. The subject of summer somnolence is not so much out of season at the end of February as some may think, for ringing associations do not bestir themselves rapidly, and this reminder may induce those who have not already done so to begin to plan a programme for the coming months.

BIRTHDAY PEAL.

On Feb. 11th, eight members of the Salop Guild met at Shifnal to attempt a peal which proved successful, in honour of Mr. J. Bradney's 72nd birthday. Mr. Bradney, who is one of the oldest members of the Guild, met the company afterwards, and congratulated the band on the excellent ringing. He kindly entertained them to tea at the Star Hotel, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him, on the motion of Mr. C. R. Lilley, seconded by Mr. C. Picken, and supported by Mr. F. Fallon (Wolverhampton). There were representatives of six towers in the peal, viz., St. Luke's, Wolverhampton; St. Chad's, Salop; Oswestry, Ightfield, Stockton and Shifnal.

IRISH NOTES.*DUBLIN TOWERS RECOVERING.—PROPOSED ANNUAL DINNER.

The various bands of ringers in Dublin are just recovering from a very bad time. Of late years there have been severe losses at St. Patrick's Cathedral, and much time has been spent in making these good. The results of the work which Mr. Gabriel Lindoff and the older members have had to face are now being realised, for the company is just getting back to Cinques again.

The three other towers in the City have also fared badly, but are now beginning to go forward once more.

For the remaining part of Ireland there is little to be said, for with the serious troubles that have been experienced, it has been difficult to keep touch with them. It is interesting to note, however, that Waterford won the Irish Association's shield for attendance at Sunday ringing, with a percentage of 98.

On Saturday, February 4th, a ringers' smoking concert was held in St. Patrick's Schools, Dublin. It was attended by the majority of the members of the various companies in the city. A good programme was carried out, and a very happy evening was spent by all.

It was decided to hold an annual dinner amongst the Dublin ringers, to take place between Christmas Day and the new year.

FIRST SURPRISE MINOR PEAL IN THE CITY.

St. Olave's Church, Hart Street, where what is believed to be the first Surprise Minor peal in the City of London was rung on the 15th inst., though small, is one of the most interesting and historic in the Metropolis, and contains many monuments. It was one of the eight City churches now standing which escaped the Great Fire. The greater part of the building dates from about 1450. The most notable monument is that to Sir Samuel Pepys, the immortal diarist, who regularly worshipped in the church, and, by ordering men up to London from Greenwich Dockyard to blow up a line of houses, saved this church from destruction.

Four of the bells bear the inscription, 'Anthony Bartlett made mee 1662.' Anthony Bartlett was second of three generations of that name who were proprietors of the Whitechapel Foundry in the seventeenth century. The first was Thomas Bartlett, who was foreman under the Carters, and the foundry passed to him in 1619. He died about 1647, and was succeeded by his son Anthony; and the latter by his son, James, in 1676.

WINCHESTER GUILD.*ISLE OF WIGHT BRANCH LOSES ITS FIRST PRESIDENT.

The passing of Bishop Macarthur, formerly Bishop of Southampton, who had lately taken up his residence in the Isle of Wight, is a very heavy blow to the newly-formed Isle of Wight Branch of the Winchester Diocesan Guild, which thus early loses its first president. The deceased Bishop took a keen interest in Island ringers, which was evidenced by his kind invitation last summer, at the dedication of Carisbrooke's restored peal, to the whole of the members, and many who were not members of the Guild, to partake of his hospitality. It is a matter of considerable satisfaction to all who were privileged to be present on that occasion that a group photograph of the whole party was secured, with the Bishop as the central figure.

In honoured and revered memory of a noble and generous leader, unflinched ringing took place in most Island towers on Sunday, Feb. 5th, a quarter-peal of Grand-ire Triples being rung at Brading on that day, and another at Ryde on Tuesday, the day of the funeral. A floral tribute from the branch, in the form of a bell, of white narcissi, with a clapper of violets, was not the least effective of a huge collection of loving tokens from many who feel the poorer to-day, and who mourn the loss of one who acknowledged the help of his humbler workers in the towers of his diocese.

Two attempts for quarter-peals of Stedman Triples at Newport unfortunately came to grief, one for lack of time, the other owing to a missed bob in the last course but one.

GUILDFORD DISTRICT.

A meeting of the Guildford District was held at Dorking, on Saturday, February 11th, and was well attended, ringers being present from Cranleigh, Godalming, Guildford (Holy Trinity and St. Nicolas), Leatherhead, and Shere, as well as members of the local company. A service was held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. W. J. B. Hayter), who also gave an excellent address. A capital tea was provided at the Wheatsheaf Hotel, the Vicar presiding.

At the business meeting, the Ringing Master's report was read by Mr. W. R. Melville, Mr. A. C. Hazelden, Ringing Master (who sent an apology), being unable to attend.

One honorary member and one probationer were elected.

A move was then made for the tower, and the bells were kept going in various methods till nine o'clock.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

London ringers particularly are likely to be busy on the occasion of the Royal wedding next Tuesday. The new eight at the Abbey will be rung for the service, and afterwards the Abbey band will attempt a peal. At St. Paul's Cathedral, St. Martin's and other leading churches, there will be ringing during the day.

The Middlesex Association's peal of Cambridge Maximus at Shore-ditch last Saturday is the first in London since the war, although numerous attempts have been made, including that by the Kent Association at Southwark a year ago, when failure came after four hours' ringing. At the same tower in July the Middlesex Association rang 3 hrs. 10 mins., and at Cornhill, Southwark and Bow, the College Youths have made a number of attempts.

The resumption of the College Youths practices at Southwark next week will be welcomed by members of that society. By the way, we understand that peal attempts at this tower are to be limited to one per month, and that the Ancient Society have got it 'hooked' for some months ahead.

Mr. J. J. Kendall, for many years one of the churchwardens of St. Martin's, Birmingham, and Mrs. Kendall, celebrated their golden wedding on February 15th. They have been the recipients of many congratulatory messages, and the congregation of St. Martin's have presented Mrs. Kendall with a handsome pearl pendant, and Mr. Kendall with a gold fountain pen. The presentations took place at a largely attended gathering at the Grand Hotel.

On the previous evening a specially composed peal of 5,050 Stedman Cinques was rung by St. Martin's Guild in honour of the occasion, Mr. Kendall having been a warm supporter of the Guild, in which he has shown keen interest. He has attended the 'Johnson' dinner for many years.

A number of interesting anniversaries fall on February 28th. On that date, in 1801, a peal of Norwich Royal was rung at Spitalfields. At the time it was believed to be the first in the method, and was so described on a peal board which was destroyed in the fire of 1836. The peal board recorded that 'this great performance (being the first in this intricate method) is highly esteemed for the correct striking and harmony it produced, and cannot be equalled, but by the same exertion and perseverance, which must ever reflect honour and credit to the performers.'

The peal was composed and conducted by John Noonan. It is the first in the method of which any details are left to us, but the first peal of Norwich Royal is believed to have been rung at St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, in 1769, and is mentioned in the 'Clavis,' and in the Osborne MS. in the British Museum.

On February 28th, 1809, Henry Johnson was born, and on the same date, in 1838, Edwin Horrex (who we still have with us, active in ringing, and, we all hope, good for his century) first saw the light.

Johnson's 72nd birthday, in 1881, was celebrated with a peal of 9,238 Stedman Cinques at St. Martin's Birmingham (the longest length in the method at that time), in which the old man took part. In the following year another birthday peal was rung in Birmingham, conducted by C. H. Hattersley. Tom Hattersley, of Sheffield, was also in the peal.

Although this latter peal was rung 40 years ago, there are three survivors, Henry Johnson, junr., John Buffery, and the 'father' of Midland ringers, William Rock Small. After the peal 25 ringers sat down to a supper at the 'Dog and Partridge,' and that gathering was the germ from which sprang the Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinner.

On February 25th, 1777, a peal of 10,080 Grandsire Caters was rung at Leicester, and on February 26th, in the same year, a 10,000 of Boh Major was rung at Shrewsbury.

On March 1st, 1734, 8,064 Grandsire Caters was rung at Paiswick, and on the same day in the following year (1735), 10,088 Grandsire Caters was rung in the same tower.

March 1st, 1889, was the date upon which the record length of Canterbury Pleasure Major (13,440) was rung at Warham, Sussex, where for a time round about that period, more peal ringing was done than at any other individual tower in the country.

Thirty-three years ago to-morrow, February 25th, 1889, the Birmingham and District Association visited Rowley Regis, Staffordshire, and rang 10,272 Grandsire Major, in 6 hours and 5 mins. The band was: J. Carter 1, J. Jones 2, T. Horton 3, W. Brook 4, C. Carmell 5, F. H. James 6, A. Hackley 7, J. T. Perry 8. The peal, composed and conducted by John Carter, contained the 120 courses with the tenors together throughout, and remains the longest peal ever rung in the method.

HIGH WYCOMBE, BUCKS.—Oxford Guild.—On Wednesday, Feb. 8th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters (1,259 changes): A. Hoing 1, E. Coles 2, F. Hayes 3, E. Markham 4, J. W. Wilkins (conductor) 5, E. King 6, J. Evans 7, C. Mayne 8, S. Goodchild 9, R. Ingram 10.

BRISTOL UNITED GUILDS' BANQUET.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE FIRST GATHERING.

The first annual dinner, organised by the Bristol United Guilds, which was held on Saturday at the Grand Hotel, was a great success. The company numbered about 130, and was representative not only of the ringers of Bristol and the West of England, but of many other centres besides. Members of the Exercise were present from London, Bristol, Gloucester, Bath, Southampton, Poole, Taunton, Milverton, Midsomer Norton, Wells, Paulton, Newport, Wotton-under-Edge, Thornbury, Cheltenham, Birmingham, Manchester, Chippenham, and Cardiff.

Mr. H. T. Howell, the Master, presided; Mr. William A. Cave was in the vice-chair; and the company included Bishop Clifford, the Revs. M. E. Thorold and E. J. Phillips, W. J. Heber Thomas, H. Whiteford, and F. H. R. Crews, Capt. A. A. Bennett, C.A., Mr. J. W. Jones, Mr. E. Guise, Mr. C. H. Horton (London), Mr. Frank K. Howell, Mr. James George (Birmingham), Mr. J. W. Jones (hon. sec. of the Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Guild), and Mr. A. Trippier, a member of the Corporation of Manchester.

After the dinner Mr. E. Guise (hon. secretary) read letters of apology from Messrs. W. T. Pates, A. Walker, C. H. Tomkins and J. S. Goldsmith.

The Rev. M. E. Thorold said he desired to make one addition. They had hoped to have with them the Archdeacon of Swindon. He was unable to be present, but had sent a letter, in which he said: 'The work of the church bell ringers in my Archdeaconry is much appreciated, and the music, heard over a rich, well-watered shore, or over rolling downs, has woven itself into the hearts of our people. There is nothing sectarian in a bell. It makes a universal appeal to the general breast.'

THE BEAUTY OF BRISTOL'S CHURCHES AND BELLS.

The Master invited the company to honour 'the King,' after which Capt. A. Bennett proposed 'The Church,' and observed that they as bell ringers desired that the Church should be spared from dangers. He wished its unhappy divisions would disappear, and that it would be in a still better position to do its work. Bell ringers, although they had diverse views, were united in one thing, and that was the art of campanology.

Bishop Clifford, responding, said he was glad to address ladies as well as gentlemen. It was a sign of the time. There was a connection between the Church and the ringers, as the latter brought the people to the church. He trusted that there would always be the closest harmony between the Church and the Guilds of ringers. He was a lover of bells and church towers, and Bristolians were proud of their churches and their bells, as they had reason to be. He knew nothing more inspiring than standing in the city on a Sunday evening just before service, and to feel the air pulsating and throbbing with glorious bell sounds. To stand on Brandon Hill and look down on the city, with its beautiful church towers, was a magnificent sight. There caught the eyes the towers of Redcliff, the Cathedral, All Saints', Temple, and the lovely crown of St. Stephen's. That was a sight of which Bristolians were proud. Nothing sweetened the air like the sound of church bells. Having referred to the health of the Church, he said there was still something lacking. There was need for unity among ringers, laity, and clergy. The Church might have been too respectable in the past. They wanted it to be the Church of the man in the street, who would feel that he was part and parcel of it. The Church was awakening, and was seeking the aid of the laity in its management. Everyone had to do his part, and then good would result.

BUILDERS OF THE GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSOCIATION.

Mr. J. W. Jones (Newport) proposed 'The Gloucester and Bristol Association.' He observed that it had been his pleasure to be connected with the builders of that association for a great number of years. He mentioned among those who had done great service, the Rev. H. Law James, the Rev. C. P. D. Davies, Mr. F. R. Howell, Mr. H. T. Howell, Mr. W. Cave, and the four Jacks—Messrs. J. Wilkins, J. Austin, J. Burford and J. Thomas. The last-named was a little Bristol boy, now living in London. He trusted that the younger men would follow in the steps of the older members.

The Master added the name of Mr. Jack Brown, a lad of great promise.

A course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells by F. G. Leaker 1-2, C. Horton 3-4, A. Reeves 5-6, J. Burford 7-8, W. A. Cave 9-10.

Mr. E. Guise (hon. secretary) having referred to the losses the Association had sustained (among them being Mr. Boufflower and the Rev. H. A. Cockey), said that was the 45th vicar of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, and Mr. F. K. Howell, their treasurer, had entered on his 41st year as member (applause). Mr. Howell was one of the builders of the Association, and had done magnificent work. He (the speaker) had been a member for 16 years, and yet must consider himself a junior. Looking back some years, Cheltenham Branch had held some very good records for length, and was allied with Painswick of the Stroud Branch. Gloucester Branch was the first branch to ring Surprise peals, and lastly but not least, Surprise ringing could be heard in Bristol almost every day (applause). The society started in 1878, and had made one continuous progress; and he saw no reason why it should not continue to go forward as it had done in the last few years.

KINDRED GUILDS.

The Rev. M. E. Thorold gave 'Kindred Guilds and Associations,' and remarked that their object was to promote brotherly feeling, friendship and fellowship.

Mr. C. H. Horton (London), replying told the company that it was many years ago since he was in his native city of Bristol ringing among them—and when he was a schoolboy with some of them—before the art had reached its present high standard. There was an enormous number of kindred societies doing admirable work in the country. The College Youths, of which he was a member, honoured Bristol and Birmingham, and were always delighted to visit these cities and associate with their brethren (hear, hear). Having spoken of the generosity of ringers to those in need, he said that more ringers could be obtained voluntarily to ring a peal than by payment. They wanted a wider brotherhood, and the laws and science of campanology more generally and willingly taught to the younger ringers, and then at each successive dinner the company would be larger and larger (applause).

In proposing the toast of 'The Press,' the Rev. E. J. Phillips stated that he had never seen an Editor, and wondered what they were like. He (the speaker) had heard it said that a parson was six feet above argument, and he thought that Editors must be about eight miles away. He wondered why a parson had been asked to propose the toast. He himself thought that it was because they were so different. Take, for instance, during the war, newspapers went up to 2d., but the sermons still remained at 1d., at least he gathered so from the amount of copper in the collection (laughter). Then again, a person could feel drowsy and nod over a newspaper, but it would be incorrect to say that anyone could be heard snoring during a sermon. In conclusion, he wished every success to 'The Ringing World,' and hoped that ringers in the West would rally with greater numbers to keep their ringing paper afloat.

The musical programme was a distinct success, so much that the artists were toasted with musical honours. The outstanding items were the exquisite cello solos by Miss Winnie Read (silver medallist), a girl of undoubted promise. Miss Edith Hill delighted the audience with her soprano voice, and Mrs. Howell and Miss Stinchcombe, with their beautiful songs, were loudly applauded. Mr. A. J. Mayo rendered some excellent songs. On the humorous side the entertainment was well sustained by Mr. W. S. Emery, who had arranged the programme. The Devonshire stories of Mr. W. J. Southwood kept the company highly amused, and were followed by a Zummerzet dialect story ('Ben and the Butter'), by Mr. Stowell.

Encores were numerous and responded to by the artists, whose one aim was to make the party a happy family. All their services were voluntary. Special thanks are due to Mr. W. S. Emery for the excellent way in which he arranged the programme, the distinctive feature of which was its variety.

In responding to the toast of the artists, Mr. Emery said it gave them great pleasure to assist one branch of the church, as they themselves belonged to another branch, viz., the choir, although they had no bells at their own church.

SOME IMPRESSIONS BY A BRISTOL RINGER.

The first Bristol United Guild's dinner must be written down as a success. Only one regret was heard, and that was that the date was so near the Henry Johnson Dinner. The first date suggested was January 28th, but it was found impossible to arrange a dinner anywhere on that day. It is hoped that in future the date will be either early in January (2nd or 3rd Saturday), or on the Saturday after Easter, thereby obviating all chance of clashing with our Birmingham friends.

Capt. Bennett spoke well and earnestly in proposing the toast of 'The Church.' Mr. J. W. Jones was in reminiscent mood when proposing 'Success of the Gloucester and Bristol Association,' and his references to past and present stalwarts of the Association were much appreciated. Mr. C. H. Horton, in responding to the toast of 'Kindred Associations and Guilds,' gave some excellent advice with regard to encouragement of beginners at Association meetings, but unfortunately it was, as far as the Gloucester and Bristol are concerned, many years too late. This was testified to by the Rev. E. J. Phillips in proposing 'The Press.' He said that he and his band of beginners had received every possible assistance and encouragement when attending meetings.

In the absence of the Editor of 'The Ringing World,' a representative of the 'Western Daily Press,' in an interesting speech, replied, and mentioned that his brother was a ringer, and when visiting Bristol recently he paid a round of visits to local towers, starting

The hon. secretary is to be heartily congratulated on the musical programme. All the items were well rendered and received, encores being the rule. Time was fully occupied, and there were no dull moments from start to finish.

The dinner has come to stay.

'MANY HAPPY RETURNS.'

On Sunday last, Mr. Samuel How, who is now residing with his son-in-law, Mr. Warne, at Southall, Middlesex, celebrated his 90th birthday, having been born on February 19th, 1832, at King's Kerswell, Devon.

To convey the congratulations of the College Youths of which Mr. How is probably the oldest member, Messrs. C. F. Winney and H. R. Newton paid the old gentleman a visit, and found him very well, except that he complained that his legs were a bit shaky! His memory is not so good as it was, but the veteran has no bodily ailment.

Rugged in appearance, not unlike the late Rev. F. E. Robinson, Mr. How has been an enthusiastic ringer in his day, and took part in 65 peals with many well-known men in London and other parts of the country, including both Charles and Thomas Hattersley.

One of a family of thirteen, Mr. How humorously describes himself as only 'half a one,' the other half being his twin sister, and it is interesting to add that his mother was three times blessed with twins.

Throughout his life, until age forbade it, Mr. How was an indefatigable worker, doing his 16 hours a day, and having 'a kick like a calf' left. He has brought up a large family, all of whom have lived up to the standard they inherited from him.

Many happy returns!

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Stroud and District Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association was held at Stroud, on Saturday, February 11th. Ringing commenced at 2.30, with touches of Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Bob Major and Stedman Triples. Tea was served in the Corn Hall, the president of the branch (the Rev. W. J. Clay, Vicar of Bisley) being in the chair. The annual business meeting followed. The hon. secretary, Mr. W. Hale, presented the accounts for the past year, and these were passed. The election of officers for the year followed. The Rev. W. J. Clay was re-elected president, Mr. A. Wright was elected hon. secretary in place of Mr. Hale, who was leaving the district, Mr. G. Orchard was elected joint secretary, and Mr. A. Wright was re-elected representative on the Management Committee of the Diocesan Association.

A vote of most cordial appreciation of Mr. Hale's work, and much regret at his resignation, was passed, and ordered to be recorded on the minutes.—The resolution was proposed by Mr. H. Smith, seconded by Mr. A. Wright, and supported by the president.—Mr. Hale thanked the members for their kindness, and said that as he was not going far away he would, he hoped, see them often.

All the officers were thanked for their services for the past year.

A service was afterwards held in the church, when the Association form was used, and an excellent address given by the Vicar (the Rev. — Swaine).

The tower was again visited in the evening, and the bells kept going in Grandsire Doubles, Triples and Caters until 8.30 p.m.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the South-West district was held at Isleworth on Saturday, February 11th. Ringing during the afternoon was followed by service, conducted by the Rev. W. J. Summerfield, who was assisted by the Rev. Harold Smith, the latter giving an address on bells and their uses.

After service, the ringers were entertained to tea by the Rev. Dr. H. M. Rulton (Vicar) and churchwardens. Mr. H. Edgeley (churchwarden) presiding, supported by the Rev. W. J. Summerfield and Rev. H. Smith.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar and churchwardens for their kind hospitality, which was very much appreciated by all present.

At the business meeting, the balance sheet was presented and adopted, showing a few pence to the good on the year's working. Thirteen meetings were held during the year, with an average attendance of 40. Three honorary and 36 ringing members were elected during the year, which was a successful one both in attendance at meetings and in the subscriptions received.

All the officers were heartily thanked for their past services, and re-elected for the ensuing year.

With the usual votes of thanks to all who rendered the Association assistance, the meeting closed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT TONG.

PRESENTATION TO MR. GEORGE BOLLAND.

On Saturday, February 4th, a gathering of ringers took place at the Greyhound Inn, Tong, to celebrate the 70th birthday of Mr. George Bolland. Some 40 invitations were issued to Mr. Bolland's older associates, and, with a few exceptions, caused by illness and the severe weather prevailing, these were able to attend. In the afternoon a peal was rung by the local band, and was a noteworthy performance on the conductor's part, from the fact that he has suffered for nearly twelve months from the effect of blood poisoning in the right hand.

Mrs. Ashton, the hostess, provided a liberal tea. The Rev. C. C. Marshall (president of the Yorks Association) was voted to the chair, and opening the proceedings by giving the toast of 'The King and Queen,' 'The Prince of Wales,' and 'Princess Mary,' the last named whom it is hoped to welcome ere long to the county. The toast having been duly honoured, the Chairman went on to speak of the object of that gathering to honour an old and valued friend and noted bell ringer—not alone in the county of Yorkshire, but throughout the whole ringing fraternity of England. Some of them had known Mr. Bolland a great many more years than he (the speaker) had, but his own knowledge went back 20 years to the early days of ringing at Birstall, where he made the acquaintance of many valued friends. Mr. Bolland he had met in many kinds of places, and times, and had rung with him, and he knew he was one they could depend upon as a safe ringer. He had worked with Mr. Bolland on his farm, and noted the same characteristic of thoroughness and hard work, and although he rose early, he found his friend had preceded him. At the Central Council meeting Mr. Bolland was a welcomed and respected member, and ringers from other parts of England would recall his hearty voice and broad Yorkshire accent. Continuing, Mr. Marshall said Mr. Bolland had brought into the annals of ringing in the Yorkshire Association the very highest traditions, and he was glad to say Mr. Bolland was churchwarden in his own Parish Church (applause).

Mr. Bolland's health was drunk with musical honours, and in responding to the toast, said he did not quite expect such a reception, but he was very pleased to have so much appreciation by the ringers of this county. He had been a ringer at Tong for 54 years, and was glad that he could still ring a peal of 5,000. The average age of his band that day was 59 years, and he gave them credit for their assistance.

Mr. Maude, who was called upon to make a presentation to Mr. Bolland, on behalf of the members who had comprised the various Whitsuntide parties, remarked that their friend had been looked upon as 'father' of the family, and he had pleasure in asking his acceptance of a gold-mounted walking stick, bearing name, date, and a bell engraven thereon. He trusted it would be of assistance in crossing the 3ft. bridge dividing Tong and Pudsey or Tong and Birstall (many of our readers have traversed this link).

The recipient, in acknowledging the gift, remarked that this was even a greater surprise, and he would value it highly. In referring to the various cities, towns and towers he had visited in their company, he mentioned the excellent and cordial greetings always extended to him.

Mr. Percy Johnson (Leeds), Mr. Lawson (Lightcliffe), Mr. Baxendale (Pudsey), Mr. C. Pratt (Calverley), Mr. Holgate (Bramley), Mr. Salmon (Halifax), Mr. John Thackray (Armley), Mr. Pearson (Pontefract), and Mr. Harcastle (Bradford), all added their testimony and good wishes.

It was a matter for regret that the Vicar of Tong was unable, through illness, to attend; but he sent his 'greeting' by letter, and expressed his desire for Mr. Bolland to arrange a weekly practice for young ringers.

The peal of 18 handbells was in much request, but the Yorkshire 'Clinking' course was missed by a few changes.

RINGER'S RECORD SERVICE.

BAND UNBROKEN FOR 25 YEARS.

A remarkable instance of long service of ringers at Marnhall Church, Dorset, has just been recorded, the same six men having given their services voluntarily without break for 25 years.

To suitably acknowledge this unique event, the local parochial Church Council have had testimonials especially designed and presented to each man, framed and suitably worded, and showing pictures of the church, the group of bell ringers, and the three Rectors of Marnhall in office during this quarter of a century. The inscriptions on the bells are also given, which show the various dates of their founding, the whole forming a splendid tribute to and souvenir of a wonderful achievement, of which the ringers and parishioners are very proud.

The presentation took place at the annual choir and bell ringers' supper, when the Rector suitably congratulated the ringers on being able to ring, and on living in the same village at the end of 25 years. He thought it was a wonderful record.

SUFFOLK DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.*COUNTY MEETING AT IPSWICH.

The first meeting of this Association for the whole of its area was held in Ipswich in St. Mary-le-Tower Church Room, on February 4th. The room was crowded, there being a very representative attendance from all parts of the diocese. Most of these, however, were not supporters of the new movement, and had, in fact, come to oppose it; many of the supporters of the Diocesan Association were absent through illness.

The Bishop, who presided, in a few appropriate words welcomed the meeting as the first that had ever been held of all the ringers in the diocese. His Lordship is evidently accustomed to persuade people, and after he had spoken the expected opposition did not materialise, but the meeting settled down to elect officers and a committee, which was authorised to draw up a constitution, new rules, and a scheme of working, and to report to another general meeting. It was mentioned that at present the Association consisted of about 50 members in East Suffolk and over 80 in West Suffolk.

HERTFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.*EASTERN DISTRICT MEETING AT SAWBRIDGEWORTH.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Eastern District of the Herts Association took place at Sawbridgeworth on Saturday week, when some twenty-one members and friends attended from places far apart—Brookley, Cambridge, Bishop's Stortford, Cheshunt, Edmonton, Harlow, Harlow Common, Saffron Walden, and Ware, with the Rev. B. H. Trewitt Drake, Vicar of Thundridge, and the hon. district secretary, Mr. W. H. Lawrence (Little Munden). The fine ring of eight were kept going during the afternoon and evening, with the tea interval and business meeting between, and well-struck touches from Grandsire to Cambridge were rung.

The Rev. B. H. T. Drake presided at the business meeting, at which Mr. F. J. Pittsow, of Saffron Walden, was elected a life member of the Association, and Mr. F. Bird, of Bishop's Stortford an ordinary member.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for kindly placing the bells at the disposal of the members, also to Mr. W. Tarling and the local band for kindly making necessary arrangements.

It was gratifying to find that the local band are getting together young hands, and that before long the Sawbridgeworth company may once more figure in the Association's report. Two of the beginners rang their best touch on an inside bell at this meeting, which seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The quarterly meeting of the Northern District was held at Baldock, on Saturday, 18th February, when some 30 ringers were present from Royston, Barley, Hitchin, Stevenage, Graveley, Fulbourne, and the local band. At 4.30 p.m., the new Rector (the Rev. C. W. Alington) conducted a short service, with an interesting address and prayers for bell ringers. Tea, at the White Lion, was followed by the business meeting. A hearty welcome was given the new Rector on his election to the chair.

It was decided to hold by-meetings at Great Offley and Barley (both six-bell towers), the former before Easter and the latter after Easter. Six new members were elected, and the new Rector was duly elected an honorary member.

A vote of thanks was passed at this meeting to the late Rector (Rev. Canon Nairne) for his many past kindnesses shown in many ways to the Association and to bell ringers generally, and a letter has been sent to him expressing gratitude, and wishing him the best of health and happiness in his retirement.

A collection was again made for the Barley Bell Fund and realised 19s. 2d., for which great thanks was returned.

Baldock bells have had a long silence, and have recently been in the hands of the bell hangers. It is hoped they may have a good record before them.

FORMER RINGER'S DEATH IN CANADA.

At Horbury, Yorkshire, on February 16th, at 88, Peter and Leonard's Church, 800 Kent Treble Bob Major: G. Pickles 1, G. Hunt (conductor) 2, C. D. Potters (Barnsley) 3, G. F. Pickles 4, G. Barstow 5, F. Lockwood 6, Herbert Dransfield (Earsheaton) 7, R. Thickett 8. Rung with bells fully muffled, on receipt of news from Alberta, Canada, of the death of Mr. William H. Giggie, who for many years was a ringer at Horbury, and a most ardent secretary, both for change ringing and handbell societies. He went to America some ten years ago with a party of handbell ringers, and toured the States, later on visiting Canada and other parts, eventually settling in Canada as a schoolmaster. He was well known throughout Yorkshire as a musician, especially in connection with ringing, and the news of his death, at the comparatively early age of 49 was received with expressions of regret from all his old friends.

ASSOCIATION SUBSCRIPTIONS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The Association subscription of 1s. was no use to an Association that held monthly meetings in each district before the war, and it should for financial safety in 1914 have been 1s. 6d., and in these days 2s. 6d. per annum. Even in 1914 there was more than one Association which had an annual subscription of 2s., the surplus being got rid of by paying for the tea. Ringers are all too prone to want their ringing kept up to date on nothing; one halfpenny per week won't hurt anyone.—Yours sincerely, ONCE A BEGINNER.

FEASTS IN BRISTOL & BIRMINGHAM.

The success which has attended the dinners at Bristol and Birmingham on the last two Saturdays is another evidence of the value which ringers attach to the social side of their doings. The Birmingham proceedings have long been an established institution—this was the thirty-fourth of the series—which has developed into an almost national gathering; but that at Bristol was a new venture. The experiment, however, fully justified the undertaking, and, organised on lines which have proved popular elsewhere, met with an instantaneous success. The one drawback was that this year it was impossible to avoid holding the dinner close to the Johnson Commemoration, and no doubt it had the result of somewhat affecting the attendance at both. If and when the proposed Yorkshire gathering comes to be established, four such festivals will be provided for the Exercise, well distributed over the country, and an effort should be made to space them out over the winter season. Already the two old established dinners have more or less fixed dates. The College Youths hold their annual banquet in London early in November, the Johnson dinner is at the end of February. If Bristol and Sheffield could arrange their dates to avoid these for the future, as doubtless they will try to do, the Exercise could well maintain four festivals of this kind and make each of them a real success.

The Birmingham gathering fully upheld the prestige which it has justly earned, and drew together a representative gathering. Birmingham has always been a home of good ringing, but there has probably never been a time in its history when it possessed a better band of ringers than the men now associated with St. Martin's Church, and certainly there has never been a more enterprising and enthusiastic company in the Midland metropolis. One keynote of this success is the fraternal feeling which animates the members, and visitors to Birmingham cannot but notice the warm spirit of goodwill which permeates the Guild. The great tradition which is there associated with ringing is being worthily maintained, and behind that tradition is the memory of men like Henry Johnson. His life and work for ringing is an inspiration, and while it is possible and, indeed, probable, that this annual gathering would be carried out without anything to prompt it but the immediate enjoyment to be obtained, the association with it of the memory of a man who did so much for the science, who laboured patiently and without desire for fame, adds immeasurably to the interest of the occasion. Henry Johnson's name is one which will go down in ringing history with those of Stedman, Annable, Holt, Shipway and a handful of others; and it is well that we should be periodically reminded of what we, the ringers of to-day, owe to these men of the past.

COLLEGE YOUTHS IN SCOTLAND.

A GATHERING OF THE CLANS AT PAISLEY.

The Bristol chaps were dining; mayhap they wined as well—not too well; oh no—the Birmingham laddies were about to dine, and someone would speak a few kind words about the old friends gathered around. Some of those who listened at the last dinner, however, would not be there; some were too far away, some do not own a contrivance called a 'Ford's magic carpet' or 'rubber bus'; such as one in South Lincs which will always hold one more when it's full; so we could not dine with 'em. But just to show we felt the fever up here in Scotland we thought we would hold harmony on our own. The word went forth to the 'boys,' 'The Ancient Society of College Youths will meet at St. James', Paisley, on February 18th, for a peal and a 'bit of a do,' and behold, five—no less—good youths and true turned up and made the welkin ring in Paisley town. Three members had to be made, but that was soon done, and three of the best were entered.

The band stood: A. J. Rodger, of Paisley, 1; J. Bevan, late of Woolwich, 2; R. J. G. Thorn, late of Edinburgh, 3; T. O'Hara, of Sheffield, 4; R. Carter, late of Woolwich, 5; J. Holman, of Sheffield, 6; A. E. Wrecks, the Paisley captain, late of Manchester, 7; and he, with the coat of many colours, beat the drum. That was only fitting, as the coat of many hues matched the shawl, the 'toun' is noted for. Friend Wrecks called the bobs, and all went well for 58 minutes; then he had to call the bells round owing to a change course. The writer thinks the graceless ones must have been thinking they were at Bristol, playing a game known in Sheffield and Hull as 'upsher' (goes again). Anyhow, 'twas a good try, and then we rang what was probably the first touch of Stedman on the bells, and the first two courses of Kent Six; then an attempt for 504 Grand-sire, and we finished. All credit goes to the treble man who only started change ringing three months ago. Mr. Thorn had done no ringing for years, and has been kind enough to come out and help to get the learners on a bit, and Messrs. Bevan and Carter ('the heavenly twins,' I think they are known as) had not rung for many years, but we are trying again, and we shall score yet.

Now, we could not adjourn to the Coffee Pot, nor to the Bristol dinner, so Friend Wrecks took us under his wing, and invited us to put our legs under his hospitable board—no bad board say you, if only you know the legs some of the band are blessed with. We feasted like only ringers can feast, on a feast only ringers' wives know how to spread. Then we rang the dust off our handbell ringing abilities, with courses of Grandsire Triples, Major and Caters, Bob Major, and a concoction known in the Black Country as the 'Scolding Bitch'—if you don't know what it is just ask Messrs. Short, Bass and Matthews. We tried Kent, but we never made up our minds whether it was a man of Kent or a Kentish man, and train time came all too soon, and brought hearty votes of thanks to Host and Hostess Wrecks for a most enjoyable day, and what was probably the first College Youths' re-union held in Scotland since the famous days when the society rang the first peals at Leith and Inverness. J. E. S.

BARNSELEY & DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

The monthly meeting was held at Horbury, on Saturday, Feb. 11th, at the Parish Church, a good muster of members assembled. The bells were kept going from 3 to 9 p.m., with an interval for meeting and touches of Major and Minor were rung in a great variety of methods. Tea was partaken of in the Tithe Barn Sunday Schools (schools, by the way, that at one time were the Sunday Schools for all the children of the place, and this within living memory). The local ringers and their smiling wives provided tea at a pre-war price, and there is much homely charm in such a gathering.

The Vicar (the Rev. F. B. Hill) occupied the chair for the business meeting. The deferred balance sheet for 1921 was placed before the meeting. This showed a loss of £3 on the year's working, and cash in bank £7 8s. 11d. This was considered satisfactory and passed. On the motion of the auditors, Messrs. G. Hunt and C. Smith. Alan Cuban (Sandal), W. Mitchell (Horbury) were elected members, and the Rev. F. B. Good (Vicar of Wath) was elected an hon. member.—A hearty vote of thanks to the ladies was passed with acclamation, and also a vote of thanks to the Vicar for presiding, whose pointed acceptance was 'Cum aggean.'

LATE NOTICE.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION.—Guilsborough District.—A quarterly meeting of the above will be held at East Haddon, on Saturday, March 11th. Bells available 2.30. Will those requiring tea please let me know by the 7th.—William Bott, Dist. Sec., Guilsborough.

A RINGERS' DIRECTORY.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—This is a subject in which I have been interested for a long time. About twenty years ago, when I was secretary for Dorset, I sent round to every clergyman in the county a form asking for the number of bells, their condition, the names of the ringers, stating whether they were round ringers or change ringers, or whether they held certificates, and the address of the secretary, the methods practised, and the day and hour of the weekly practice. All this information I published in so concise a form that it showed that a directory on those lines for the whole country would not be either a large or costly undertaking.

This could be carried out by all the Ringing Associations arranging to get you to print that part of their report, first separately for each Association, and then together for the whole country. A few pages could be added for matters worthy of special record each year, making it a publication which every ringer would wish to possess, especially as his own name would appear in it.

The completion of this particular report was, I believe, the greatest fillip to change ringing that it ever had in that county. The sending of the form to churches where there were no bells, or no ringable bells, put it into people's heads that there was something here that they might do for their parish; while the inquiry about change-ringers started a number of ringing companies which are now well established.

I do not propose that such an inquiry should be sent out every year to each parish. As a usual thing it would only be sent by the secretaries to parishes where there were ringers, but once every five or ten years it should be sent out to the wider area.

This proposal would in some ways lighten the work of secretaries. Your proposal would considerably add to that work, and I for one should not care to undertake it.—Yours faithfully, H. DRAKE.

Ufford Rectory, Woodbridge, Suffolk.

THE EFFECTIVE METHOD.

Dear Sir,—In my youth, now unfortunately a thing of the past, my parents presented me with a copy of those famous works known as 'Æsop's Fables,' and one fable impressed itself on my memory. Its moral was that the gods help those who help themselves. Now, when I do take a fit into my head to ramble off, my thoughts naturally turn to where I am going to get a pull, and so far 'Directories' have never helped me much. I have always been able to find as much ringing as I wanted by a little judicious perusal of that little paper 'The Ringing World,' which no real ringer is without—those who are too mean or too idle to buy it are not real ringers. When I want to ring in any specified district I look at the page containing 'Notices of Meetings,' and note the name and address of the secretary whose activities cover the district I am going to, and he has never failed to do the rest. All talk of Directories is useless. I wonder if the very good Directory published by the Association which covers Mr. Baker's district is really of much use to a casual visitor. I say that any ringer who really wants a ring can get it by saving 'The Ringing World' for five or six weeks and looking up the Sunday Service ringing, and the addresses therein, and he will obtain all he wants. The 'Bell News' published an exhaustive Directory, but a great percentage of it was of no use when printed. The only effective way to get ringing is watch the paper, and make careful note of the chief Sunday ringing centres, and then make for them. The rest will be easy.—Yours sincerely,

ONCE A BEGINNER.

LEEDS & DISTRICT SOCIETY.

On Saturday, February 25th, the Leeds and District Amalgamated Society held its usual monthly meeting at Pudsey, and a good many members were present. Ringers were present from Rotherham, Armley, Idle, Birstall, Bradford, Calverley, Tong, Leeds Parish Church, Mirfield, Bramley, and the local company. The tower bells were kept going up to a late hour in Kent and Oxford Treble Bob and Superlative Surprise. Touches of Grandsire Major and Caters, Stedman Triples and Caters, Treble Bob Minor, Major and Royal, were rung on handbells.

The meeting was held at the White Cross Hotel, Mr. J. Pencock being in the chair.—A vote of condolence was solemnly expressed by all present standing as a mark of respect and esteem to the memory of Mr. P. Cooper, late hon. secretary of the Western District of the Yorkshire Association, whose death occurred during the week, and who was laid to rest on the same afternoon.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Armley, if the bells are available, as they are at present in the hands of Messrs. Taylor and Co., who are rehauling and augmenting the peal to eight.

Mr. George Bolland proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens for the use of the bells, and the local company for their kind arrangements and generous hospitality. A supply of refreshments was at the disposal of the visitors during the afternoon and evening.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD. STOCKPORT BRANCH.

The annual meeting of the Branch was held at Norbury on Saturday, February 11th. After ringing during the afternoon a short service was held in the church, conducted by the curate (the Rev. A. C. Waggett, L.Th.). An address, given by the Vicar (the Rev. A. J. Humphreys) on co-operation, was much appreciated. A splendid tea was provided in the Schoolroom, to which about 70 members and friends (representing 15 towers) sat down. The business meeting followed, with Mr. J. H. Jackson (Disley) in the chair, supported by the hon. secretary, and the Rev. A. J. Humphreys. On opening the meeting, the Chairman, on behalf of the members, expressed his sympathy to Mr. T. Jackson (the esteemed towerkeeper of St. George's, Stockport), on his recent bereavement, and a two minutes' silence was observed, all standing.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

In the course of his report for 1921, the Hon. Secretary stated, that although progress had not been made to his entire satisfaction, the prospects of the present year were much brighter, and it was to be hoped that a better report would be presented at the next annual meeting. Nine peals had been rung, two only of which were on eight bells, the remainder being Minor. There was a slight falling off in membership, which was now 174, as against 189 for 1920. Five meetings had been held, with an average attendance of fifty. Appropriate reference was made to the late Mr. George Astbury, of St. George's, Stockport, whose death took place early in the year.

All the officers were re-elected. On his re-election, the Hon. Secretary thanked the members, but asked them seriously to think over and look out for a successor. With increasing years, he found his work, instead of diminishing, was really increasing, and he found it more difficult to carry out his duties as he wished.

Hayfield was fixed as the place for the next meeting, to be held on Saturday, April 22nd. Two honorary members and four ringing members were elected.

A matter which was brought up for discussion, and which it was decided to consider between now and the next meeting, was the question of combined practices and quarterly peals.

The usual votes of thanks concluded the meeting, after which further ringing took place, the bells of St. George's, Stockport, being also available.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION. ROCHDALE BRANCH MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Rochdale Branch was held on Saturday week at St. Mark's Church, Glodwick, and proved an event of exceptional interest, as it was the occasion of the unveiling and dedication of a peal board installed by the local band in commemoration of a peal of Grandsire Triples they recently rang to the memory of the men of the parish who made the supreme sacrifice in the great war. Prior to this very impressive ceremony the branch members present from East Crompton, Middleton, Milnrow, Newhey, Oldham, Glodwick, Miles Platting and Pendleton, rang touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples, Kent Treble Bob and Bob Major.

Mr. J. Whitworth (churchwarden) formally unveiled the peal board. The Vicar (the Rev. W. R. Hick-Canton, M.A.) dedicated the memorial.

The customary business meeting was then held, presided over by Mr. S. Stott (chairman of the branch).—It was decided to leave the arrangements for next month's meeting in the hands of the secretary (Mr. T. K. Driver).

Mr. John Smith (of Middleton) was elected a performing member of the Association, and the meeting concluded with resolutions of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the local ringers for having everything in readiness. Ringing was then resumed until about 9 p.m.

A meeting of the Preston Branch was held at Hoghton on Feb. 11th, and was well attended, over 30 members putting in an appearance, and making good use of the handy ring of eight. One lady ringer was present belonging to the local company.

The business meeting was held under the chairmanship of Mr. J. T. Miller. One new member was elected, and a vote of condolence with the family of the late Mr. Robert Fisher was carried by members present standing in silence.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the authorities for the use of the bells, also to the local company for having everything in readiness.

Standard methods were rung during the afternoon and evening, the towers represented being Leyland Parish and St. James', Whittle, Brindle, Chorley, Standish, Penwortham, Preston, and visitors from Blackburn.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Six of the bells from Sheffield Cathedral reached the Whitechapel Foundry on Friday. The whole of the ring of twelve is to be tuned (one or two of them recast), and the lot rehung. Sheffield will have a worthy peal when its bells are reinstated.

An attempt was made at St. Paul's Cathedral on Saturday for a peal of Cambridge Surprise Maximus, Mr. Alf. Peck turning the tenor in single-handed. Unfortunately the peal came to grief, after 2 hrs. 35 minutes' ringing.

Another 12-bell peal in the city also came to an untimely end on Saturday. The Middlesex Association attempted a peal of Stedman Cinques at Bow, Cheapside, and when things were going well, with only four courses left to ring, the 8th rope hung up, and the bells had to stop. Ringing had been in progress about 3 hrs. 15 mins. Mr. James George was the tenor man, and this, we believe, is the longest time that the tenor (53 cwt.) has been rung by a man 68 years of age.

A peal recorded last week as rung at Kirton, Leicestershire, was rung at Kirton, Lincolnshire.

The clapper buffers which Mr. J. E. Groves, of Birmingham, has put on the market is the result of a deal of experiment to find something reliable and cheap, and easy to adjust to any clapper. It improves the tone of the bells by retaining the vibration of the hum note, after the clapper has struck.

On March 3rd, 1778, a peal of 10,260 Grandsire Caters was rung at St. Mary's, Nottingham, and on the same day in the year 1886 an 8,448 Kent Treble Bob was rung in 5 hours 16 minutes at Bethnal Green. Mr. Ted Horrex is a survivor of this latter band.

Next Wednesday will be the anniversary of 12,603 Grandsire Caters rung at Norwich in 8 hours 15 minutes on March 8th, 1737, and on March 8th, 1859, 10,047 Stedman Caters was rung at Aston in 6 hours 16 minutes.

Mr. Tom Russam has attended every Johnson Commemoration Dinner. He is the only one who has been present at all of the 34 gatherings.

The peal of Treble Bob Minor, at Emberton, published last week, was rung on January 29th, 1921, not 1922. Our correspondent, who forwarded the report, informs us that he had mislaid it in his desk. The ringer of the 41th in the peal at Batheaston was George Jones, not James, as published.

MINOR IN THE CITY OF LONDON.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The headline to the paragraph on page 119 of 'The Ringing World' last week, 'First Surprise Minor peal in the City,' may appear rather misleading. The first peal of Surprise Minor rung in the City of London was rung on the front six of the peal of ten at St. Magnus, Lower Thames Street, on November 19th, 1901, by the Middlesex County Association (Leytonstone band), conducted by T. Hervey Beams. I myself took part in it.

The footnote to the peal at St. Olave's on the 15th inst., is, however, quite in order, giving it as the 'first peal of Surprise Minor at a six-bell tower in the City of London.' I apologise for omitting to mention this first peal when sending my report.—Yours truly,
W. MILLER.

A REMARKABLE SET OF HANDBELLS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—According to a local evening paper, Manchester possesses one of the most unique sets of handbells in the world. It says, 'Immediately below the mechanically-propelled carillon in the tower hall tower, which chimes out "Home, Sweet Home" as you pore over the office ledgers, there is a peal of ten handbells. These bells, varying in weight from the treble (7 cwt. 3 quarters) to the tenor (52 cwt.) are skillfully manipulated by twelve members of the City police force.'

Five men are generally considered sufficient to ring ten handbells, but I am not surprised that twelve are required in this case, even though the force, we all know, comprises a large number of stalwart and abnormally strong men.

The writer in the newspaper goes on to say that he visited the tower one practice night, and the practice began on a peal of six bells. The peal was not once repeated, and notes were sounded at the rate of 200 per minute.

The above may be of interest to some of your readers.—Yours, etc.,
Pendleton, A. W.

THANKS.

Dear Sir,—Will you please allow me to thank those members of the Exercise who sent me the copy of 'The Ringing World' of Jan. 6th? I appreciate their kindness.—Yours, etc.,
J. GEORGE.

JOHNSON COMMEMORATION DINNER.

ENJOYABLE GATHERING AT BIRMINGHAM.

All the success and enjoyment which have attended the long series of Henry Johnson Commemoration Dinners, arranged by St. Martin's Guild, once more marked this annual gathering at Birmingham on Saturday. If the numbers were not quite so large as usual, due principally to the present industrial depression, there was no lack of enthusiasm, and the Midland metropolis was the Mecca for ringers from many parts of the country. During the afternoon the famous peal in the Bull Ring formed the attraction for visitors, and the bells at St. Philip's Cathedral were also rung.

The party, numbering about 140, gathered at six o'clock in the handsome cedar-lined dining hall of the Imperial Hotel, and enjoyed an admirably served six course dinner. In the absence, through indisposition, of Canon E. Grose Hodge, Rector of Birmingham, the chair was taken by Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., B.C.L., Presiding Ringing Master, whose genial conduct of the proceedings greatly added to the pleasure. He was supported by Sir Edward Malins, Messrs. J. J. Kendall and Fred W. Blake (churchwardens of St. Martin's), Mr. J. W. Tilley, J.P., Mr. W. Ralph Heaton, Mr. G. N. Ediss, Mr. Pryce Taylor (Loughborough Bell Foundry), Mr. A. Paddon Smith (hon. secretary), and Mrs. Paddon Smith, Mr. Harry Mason, Mr. A. E. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goldsmith. Among the company, which included a considerable number of ladies, were Messrs. John Carter, J. H. Shepherd, W. Kent and Tom Russam (vice-presidents), Mr. Albert Walker (Ringing Master) and Mrs. Walker, Mr. Chas. Dickens (trustee), Messrs. J. L. Wells and T. H. Reeves (auditors), Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Groves, Mr. Joseph Johnson (younger son of Henry Johnson), Mr. A. A. Hughes (Messrs. Mears and Stainbank), Mr. O. Dean (representing Messrs. Gillett and Johnston), Messrs. H. R. Newton, J. Rowbottom and W. J. Kemp (representing the Ancient Society of College Youths), Messrs. G. Holmes, W. Bargar, J. Thorpe, R. Harrison, C. Harrison, H. Thorpe, F. Ward, H. Naylor and T. Lee (of the Sheffield Cathedral company), Messrs. F. Cope (Lichfield), T. J. Salter (Kidderminster), W. Maund and J. H. White (Coventry), H. W. Wilde (Pulford), S. Burton and H. Broughton (Leicester), J. Oldham (Loughborough), W. Griffin (Walsall), W. Short (Cient), B. Gough (Tipton), and ringers from numerous churches around Birmingham, as well as from the city itself. The menu card was again an interesting souvenir of the occasion, and was liberally besprinkled with apt quotations.

After dinner the toast of 'The King' was proposed by Sir Edward Malins, in a most interesting speech, in which he touched informatively upon historical facts, and concluded by alluding to the enthusiasm and courage shown by the Prince of Wales in making his trip to India, and expressing congratulations to Princess Mary upon her wedding.

The toast was heartily drunk and the National Anthem sung.

THE RECTOR'S DISAPPOINTMENT.

The Hon. Secretary read several letters of apology. The Rector of Birmingham wrote that he was tightly shut up with only half a voice. It was a desperate disappointment to him, for the gathering was one of the most delightful of the year. He added: 'I beg you to say to the members of our Guild and to our guests generally that nothing short of absolute necessity would have kept me away. I shall think of the feast of reason and flow of soul at the Imperial Hotel, and lament that another year must pass before I can again share it.'

Apologies were also received from the Bishop of Birmingham, the Rev. J. B. Mayall (curate of St. Martin's), Mr. W. H. Golden (vice-president), Mr. James George (who was taking part in a peal attempt at Bow), Mr. J. Buffery, the 'father' of the Guild, in point of years of membership (who was in hospital), and from the veteran, Mr. William Rock Small, who wrote that he had been compelled since his 82nd birthday to take things much easier, and dare not get away from home in the dark nights. He was also, he added, compelled to leave bell ringing alone, and he thought he had rung his last peal. He should miss seeing some of his old friends, whom he was afraid he might not meet again.

Before calling on Mr. J. J. Kendall to propose the toast of 'The Church and State,' the Chairman tendered to Mr. Kendall the most cordial and sincere congratulations of the company upon his having passed the 50th anniversary of his wedding day. The happy event took place on the previous Monday, and that day was also Mr. Kendall's 73rd birthday. The Guild had celebrated the occasion by ringing a specially composed peal of 5,050 Stedman Cinques (applause). They all hoped Mr. and Mrs. Kendall would live to celebrate their diamond wedding in due course (applause).

Mr. Kendall thanked the Chairman for his kind words. Their wedding day was rather a sad one in a sense, for his wife had to spend it in bed, and had been there ever since. He thought it was the result of the trying time they had when the members of St. Martin's Church gave them a reception at the Grand Hotel. The events of that evening overcame her.

Proceeding to the toast which he had to propose, Mr. Kendall said they were all loyal members of the Church and State, and as they had now become partners, as it were, with the clergy in the management of the Church, he thought they would more fully realise their responsibilities. These were times when the State as well as the Church needed their support, and he hoped they would realise their responsibilities. These were times when the State as well as the Church needed the popularity of the Church.

'THE MEMORY OF HENRY JOHNSON.'

To Mr. A. E. Parsons was entrusted the task of proposing the toast of the evening: 'The Memory of the late Henry Johnson,' and he did it in felicitous phrases. So much, he remarked, had been said at those dinners by men who knew Henry Johnson far better than he did, that it was impossible to say anything that was new. Others had spoken of his life and work in glowing but truthful terms, of his honour and his integrity, his humour and his kindness of heart, and his quick perception of all things appertaining to matters campanological. Whatever interest he (the speaker) might fail to arouse among them that evening, he was sure they would all desire to keep Henry Johnson in memory and revere his name. There was little that he could add in the way of personal anecdote, but there was one occasion, about the year 1879 or 1880, when Old Hill bells had been in for about five years, that a band came from Birmingham to attempt a peal on them. He (the speaker) was a young enthusiast then, and he determined to see the ringers and hear the ringing. He placed himself near the church about the time they were to arrive, and well remembered seeing them come down the road. With them was a venerable old gentleman, wearing a silk hat. He thought to himself, 'St. Martin's ringers must be a lot of swells, for they have evidently brought their parson with them.' The venerable old gentleman with a silk hat turned out to be Henry Johnson. A few years later another band came there from St. Martin's, and another Henry Johnson was with them—Henry Johnson, junior—and singularly enough he was wearing a silk hat. It occurred to him (the speaker) that should a further band from St. Martin's contemplate going over to Old Hill for a peal they might bring the other son of Henry Johnson, who was with them that night, and possibly old Joe would come wearing a silk hat (laughter). Continuing, Mr. Parsons said they had from time to time heard so much of what Henry Johnson had done in so many ways, he wondered if they had ever given a thought to what would have been the position if Henry Johnson had never lived. What would have been the position of St. Martin's Guild to-day? What would have been the ringing reputation of the Midland metropolis? Would they have been able to boast of such an honourable personage as their present chairman as Presiding Ringing Master, would they have been able to boast of such a secretary as Mr. Paddon Smith, would they have boasted of such ringers as occupied the tower to-day, would they have boasted of such a fine record of peals as the peal book in the belfry contained? He did not think so. If they thought of these things, he believed it would add more than ever to their desire to honour the name of Henry Johnson, who was the root basis of much that existed to-day appertaining to ringing in Birmingham (applause).

The toast was honoured in silence, and at the request of the chairman those present who knew Mr. Johnson personally again rose in their places. They numbered 23, and Alderman Pritchett said he was glad to know that there were so many with them that night who had managed to live for forty years after the death of their old friend.

An excellent course of Stedman Cinques was rung on handbells at this point by members of the Guild: T. Russam, A. Walker, P. Laffin, J. E. Groves, G. F. Swann and J. Neal.

A REVIEW.

Ald. Pritchett next proposed 'Continued Prosperity to St. Martin's Guild,' and in doing so made his customary review of the past year's doings of the society. He expressed the regret which they all shared that they had lost, by death, two members whom they respected and esteemed. Mr. Raymond J. Wilkins, of Bristol, was a life member of the Guild, and a frequent visitor to the tower of St. Martin's Church. His wife and son were both ringers, and he himself was a most enthusiastic and able member of the Exercise. The other was Mr. William Cheshire, who often entertained them at his beautiful residence and grounds at Erdington. He was an honorary member of the Guild for many years, and always a liberal subscriber to their funds. He (the speaker) was glad that this list was a short one, and that these were the only losses they had sustained, but they regretted the absence of several old friends that night whom they had been accustomed to see there year by year, and who would have been with them that night had they been able. He was sure, however, they were with them in spirit. The first was their dear old friend, William Rock Small. He believed he had missed that gathering only once before, but he was afraid there was little hope of seeing him there again. He trusted, however, that he would be spared for many years yet, and that those ringers who lived near him would look in and cheer him up from time to time. Mr. Buffery, they were sorry to hear, was in hospital, and they hoped he would have a speedy recovery. The only other name which he would mention was that of Mr. W. H. Godden, who was also on the sick list. While they regretted the loss of two valued members of the Guild, and the absence of several others, he thought they could congratulate themselves upon the success of the gathering, and upon the fact that everybody who counted in the Exercise was present there that night (laughter). They were very pleased to see their old friend, John Carter (applause), leaving for the moment his mansion in Park Lane (laughter), and condescending to come down to Birmingham to join them. They hoped, however wealthy he might become, that he would never be too proud to mix with them on these festive occasions (laughter). They were also pleased to see with them Mr. Banks, whom they congratulated upon having reached his 74th birthday on the previous day. He also noticed present his old friend, and one of his earliest associates in change ringing, Mr. William Short, who had done so much to spread the knowledge of the art and practice of change ringing throughout the length and breadth of the land. And last, he was glad to note they had with them the son of the grand old veteran, whose memory they were commemorating, Mr. Joseph Johnson (applause). It added something to the interest of the gathering that a son of Mr. Johnson should be present (applause).

A SPLENDID RECORD.

The Guild, continued the Chairman, had a very prosperous and successful year during 1921. The practices at St. Martin's had been well attended, especially those in the higher methods, viz., Cambridge and London. The number of peals rung in 1921 was a record for the Guild, viz., 46 (applause): Grandsire Triples 3, Caters 1, Bob Major 2, London Surprise Major 1, Double Norwich Major 1, Stedman Triples 5, Caters 5, Cinques 17, Treble Bob Royal 2, Maximus 2, Cambridge Surprise Major 2, Royal 2, Maximus 2. A splendid record. Both the peals of Treble Bob Maximus were on handbells, the first of them being the first ever rung on handbells in Birmingham. Among the things which they treasured in St. Martin's belfry was a photograph of a band, who, 34 years ago, rang the first handbell peal of Stedman Cinques in Birmingham. Most happily five of them were still alive, and four were with them that night (applause). It was singular to mention that Tom Miller, who took part in that peal 34 years ago, never rang another peal of Stedman Cinques on handbells until last Thursday. They were glad he had taken it up again, and hoped he would now ring many more. A notable incident of the year's work had been the two peals of Cambridge Maximus, both called by Mr. Walker. One was the first peal of Cambridge Maximus ever rung in Birmingham, and made the seventh method rung on the twelve bells of St. Martin's. He believed a peal of Double Norwich Maximus was now in contemplation (applause). He would like to mention that Mr. Harry Withers had further distinguished himself as a carillonneur, and his fame was growing worldwide. In January he went to Norway to open a carillon of 22 bells, and on Tuesday he was to go to London to operate a carillon specially erected at Harrods to be used as part of the celebrations in honour of the marriage of Princess Mary (applause). In conclusion, he desired to say how pleased he was to be present on that occasion, and they were greatly indebted to all who had taken a part in making the preparations. He invited them to drink to the continued prosperity of St. Martin's Guild, and he coupled with it the name of one with whom that prosperity was greatly bound up, their most invaluable secretary, Mr. Paddon Smith (applause).

Mr. Paddon Smith, who was warmly received on rising to respond, said it was a great pleasure to him, as it was to all the other members of the Guild who had assisted in arranging that function, to know that they were all so happy. With regard to the two peals of Cambridge Maximus, visitors to the tower that afternoon might have noticed the new tablet that had just been placed there to record the first of the peals. That was one of the things the Guild did to embellish the part of the church in which they were more particularly interested, and in doing that they were carrying on the tradition of the Guild (applause).

'KINDRED SOCIETIES.'

Mr. Ralph Heaton submitted the toast of 'Kindred Societies,' and said that they of St. Martin's Guild were glad on that occasion to reciprocate some of the kindnesses that they received from the members of other societies throughout the kingdom. He added that it was well for them to remember that the Exercise had had amongst its members not only composers, ringers and conductors like Stedman, Annable, Holt, Johnson, Carter, Lindoff, and a host of others, but they had included men of high position in the Church and State. Sir Matthew Hale, who lived in the days of Charles I. and II., and became Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, was a ringer; Admiral Francis Geary, who in 1760 commanded the Grand Fleet of those days, rang, when about 17 years of age, with the College Youths in the first peal of twelve, which was rung at St. Bride's about 1750. Coming to later times, they had had men like Canon Ellacombe, Lord Justice Cherry, and Sir Arthur Heywood. The visitors whom they had with them that night came from London, Coventry, Leicester, Lichfield, Wednesbury, West Bromwich, Sheffield, Loughborough, Bournemouth, Kidderminster, and other places, and they also had among them the representatives of three of the biggest of their bell foundries.

Mr. A. A. Hughes, who first responded, said he spoke more for the London Society of the College Youths, who looked up to St. Martin's Guild as being one with them in upholding everything that was good in 12-bell ringing (applause). They had a very warm feeling in their heart for Birmingham men. They sometimes saw them in London, and were always glad to welcome them. While they maintained their great traditions they were doing the best that could be done for the art of change ringing (applause).

Mr. R. Harrison (Sheffield) also replied, and expressed appreciation of the way in which the visitors had been received. They always looked on St. Martin's as being at the head of ringing in the Midlands, and one of their late leaders was a frequent visitor to Birmingham—Mr. C. H. Hattersley. They hoped in the near future to inaugurate in Sheffield something on the lines of that gathering by which they might honour the memory of Mr. Hattersley. Mr. Snowdon, and other of their Yorkshire worthies. But for the industrial position of the past few years this would already have been done, but he hoped the time was not far distant when steps to carry out the proposal might be possible. They congratulated the Bristol men upon having already beaten them in that particular effort.

Mr. Harry Mason proposed 'The Ringing World,' and pointed out the importance of the journal in maintaining the interest of the Exercise. Without a ringing journal, he said, such a gathering as the Johnson Dinner would be hardly possible, while, apart from the value of having a paper by which they could keep abreast of the happenings in the Exercise, it was most interesting sometimes to go back over the papers of past years and re-read many of the things which had appeared. If for any reason they were to be left without a paper, even for a few months, the effect would be lamentable. He, therefore, urged every ringer to do their utmost to maintain a ringing paper, and do their best to make it a success. 'The Ringing World,' he knew, had a warm place in the heart of all those present, and he hoped they would do all in their power to help it forward (applause).

A GIFT TO ST. MARTIN'S.

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith (Editor) responded to the toast, and thanked the Guild for the very kind reception always extended to him and to his wife when they came amongst them. Proceeding, Mr. Goldsmith asked the Guild to accept from him a framed photograph which commemorated a memorable tour by members of St. Martin's Guild in the year 1901. The photograph, the only one in existence, was of a group taken on board the s.s. Cambria immediately after the ringing of the only peal upon the sea. It was rung on the last day of an excursion to Ireland while the boat was crossing from Dublin to Holyhead, and the picture was taken as the boat came into harbour. The photograph which had been in his possession for many years had always recalled incidents of a most interesting and pleasurable tour, in the course of which the first peal of Treble Ten in Ireland was placed to the credit of St. Martin's Guild, as well as the first Surprise peal ever rung out of England, which he had the privilege of calling, two peals of Stedman Caters in Dublin, and a peal on handbells, in addition to the one on the sea, while the trip finished with the first Surprise peal in Wales. Mr. Goldsmith added some humorous reminiscences of incidents on the trip, and read the inscription on the photograph recording the details on the peal.

The ringers in the group were Messrs. W. Pye, E. Pye, G. R. Pye, W. H. Barber and W. Short, who rang the peal, J. George, I. G. Shade, J. Buffery and J. S. Goldsmith.

The Chairman, in thanking Mr. Goldsmith for the gift, said it would be one of the most treasured possessions of the Guild, and would assuredly find a lasting place in the historic ringing chamber of St. Martin's Church (applause).

Mr. A. Paddon Smith proposed the 'Health of the Chairman.' Their Presiding Ringing Master, he said, was a man of many parts. He was high up in the law, and a recent honour that had been accorded him was his appointment to the Recordship of Lincoln. He was an Alderman of the City of Birmingham—not a bad old city to be alderman of (applause)—and had reached the highest degree to which it was possible to attain in Freemasonry. He had told them, however, that of all the honours which fell to him he appreciated none greater than being from time to time re-elected Presiding Ringing Master of St. Martin's Guild (applause).

The toast was honoured with enthusiasm, and the Chairman briefly replied. He also thanked most heartily the artists who had provided them with such an enjoyable musical entertainment, and expressed great pleasure at seeing so many ladies gracing the tables.

The musical programme was a most delightful part of the proceedings. The vocal items were once more entirely sustained by the St. Martin's Quartette (Messrs. Hale, Chapman, Bayliss and Gorman, members of St. Martin's choir), whose splendidly rendered part-songs delighted the large audience. Their contributions included 'Peanutty Lullaby,' 'Jenk's Vegetable Compound,' and 'Summer Eve,' and for each an encore was demanded. In addition, Mr. Chapman sang 'The English Rose,' Mr. Hale rendered 'A song at twilight,' and Mr. Gorman 'Tommy Lad.' There were some capital handbell selections by Messrs. E. Mansell, Mansell, junr., and T. Jones, whose efforts received warm recognition. Mr. E. J. Woodhall was the accompanist.

A large party of visiting ringers gathered at St. Martin's for the service ringing on Sunday morning, and among the touches rung were Stedman Cinques and a course of Cambridge Maximus by ringers from Birmingham, London, Loughborough, Leicester and Woking. Other towers in the town also attracted visitors, and there was another gathering at the Cathedral in the evening.

GRANDSIRE TRIPLES.

THE DISPUTED CLAIM.

Dear Sir,—With reference to the peal of Grandsire Triples, the authorship of which is claimed by the Rev. E. Banks James, I wish to be perfectly clear and candid. I am sorry to say at the back of my mind I have a slight suspicion that the Rev. E. B. James has been trying to bluff me. If I am wrong I am willing to withdraw and offer what apology is necessary for having had such a suspicion. I have not the slightest wish to claim anything that is not mine, not even a variation.

With regard to this class of peal, my first endeavour was rung at Shipton-under-Wychwood on December 21st, 1895, conducted by W. Large. This peal I set out to improve upon. I was successful in producing various peals upon the 10-part plan, gradually reducing the number of singles till I got two with the minimum number, the peal in question, and the following 5040:

5 2 7 6 3 4 4
2 7 4 5 3 6 2
5 2 7 3 4 6 1
3 2 7 6 4 5 1
S 7 2 4 6 5 3 1
3 6 7 5 2 4 1
* 4 5 3 2 6 7 1
S 2 7 4 6 5 3 1
2 6 5 3 7 4 3
2 4 5 7 3 6 3
4 5 6 2 3 7 2

Thus four times repeated gives one-half, with part ends:—

2 3 4 5 6 7
4 5 6 2 3 7
6 2 3 4 5 7
3 4 5 6 2 7
5 6 2 3 4 7
2 3 4 5 6 7

The second half is called exactly like the above, but the part ends are reversed

2 6 5 4 3 7
5 4 3 2 6 7
3 2 6 5 4 7
6 5 4 3 2 7
4 3 2 6 5 7
2 6 5 4 3 7

A single at * shunts us to a part end in the reverse half. When the whole of that half has been rung a single at part end flings us back to * when the first half is completed.

Now it was not till about 1900 or 1901 that I noted a peal, rung, I believe in Gloucester, or near, of which the figures were afterwards published. I had the same peal, but without any further thought, put the Rev. E. B. James' name to it in my book. Seeing that that gentleman was on the same track as I had been, I thought it time that my two best specimens were published. I sent to 'Bell News' but they never appeared. All I could do was to give them to my friends. I have given the Rev. E. B. James unquestionable proof as to the genuineness of my statements. He will pardon me if I expect the same from him.—Yours, etc.,

G. LINDOFF.

A very successful day's ringing, organised by Mr. C. Tribe, of Tenterden, Kent, took place on Sunday, February 12th, when Frittenenden, Rolvenden and Tenterden were visited, and a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples at each tower was the result. Three men scored first quarters, and several of the others taking part have rung but few such lengths, so that much good was done to those who were in want of a helping hand. 'First peals' should be an event of the near future for several of the party. During the day members of the company were kindly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. Baker (Frittenenden), Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Burden (Rolvenden), and Mr. C. Tribe (Tenterden), and they return their best thanks for hospitality received.

JOHN CARTER'S MASTERPIECE.

We are enabled to publish to-day the figures of Mr. John Carter's new peal of Stedman Triples, which is likely to become known as his 'Odd and Even Bob Peal.' The figures will be examined with great interest; by composers who will desire to investigate the manner whereby the complete 60 courses can be pieced together by a method so complicated; by conductors who will desire to call a peal which, we think, the majority will write down as the most difficult that has yet been offered to the Exercise. Some few may be inclined to say that from the conductor's point of view the peal does not present greater difficulties than the famous Odd Bob One Part, but as there are a greater number of calls, it certainly will not prove any easier. Be that as it may, the task of calling the composition is one which only the most expert conductors of Stedman Triples are likely to succeed with, although it has already been shown that the peal is within the range of practical conductorship by the fact that it has been called by Mr. T. H. Taffender from a non-observation bell.

To turn, however, to the other side of the question—the task of the composer—it is, we have no hesitation in saying, one of the greatest triumphs that has ever been achieved. Only those who have made a study of the composition of Stedman Triples can appreciate the difficulties of the composer. At one time a peal in the method with only bobs and singles was considered impossible except on the twin-bob plan, and it was less than twenty years ago that Sir Arthur Heywood wrote that 'the slightest divergence at once lands the composer in apparently hopeless difficulties.' Yet in his Odd Bob peal and in his newest production, Mr. Carter has shown that even these hopeless difficulties can be overcome. In the old days peals of Stedman Triples were got on the multi-bob plan, by which composers utilised bob blocks to keep the bells behind together for as many sixes as possible, and which also involved the use of special calls in place of singles. Then, in the evolution of peals, came those on the bob and single plan, to be superseded by the twin-bob system, of which Thurstans' was the first and greatest. Peals with odd bobs and in which only two ordinary singles are used became the next step forward, and now Mr. Carter has combined both odd and even bobs in one peal.

Mr. Carter is a genius, but such things as the Odd and Even Bob peal do not come merely as a flash of inspiration. Long and patient investigation lies behind the production of such a composition. If he has in the past 'composed' five hundred peals of Stedman Caters, as we believe he has in his dinner hour, it is only because much patient labour has gone to prepare the way; if he has given us what ringers believe to be the most wonderful piece of mechanism ever designed by the wit of man—his ringing machine—it is only as the result of twenty-five years of untiring application, coupled with the exercise of that creative skill of which in the pursuit of his hobby, as well as in the serious tasks of life, he has so often given proof. The Odd and Even Bob peal may be to him but a step from the Odd Bob peal, but it marks a new departure which goes to demonstrate further how the Exercise is making progress, and, what is more, it provides us with an example of what may be achieved by those who care to devote themselves to study. From this standpoint should be an inspiration to others.

Bob.

This method is the variation of Bristol Surprise with seventh's place when the treble lies behind, and second's place when the treble is leading full.

As compared with Bristol, the effect of the alterations is to give lengthening lead music plainly, both when the treble is behind and in front. The music at the bob leads is, of course, exactly the same in both methods. For these reasons, the majority will agree that it is fairly entitled to be called the premier Surprise method.

Any half-peal of Bob Major with tenors together, and without singles, is a true peal of 'Premier.'

The first peal in the method was rung at Whitley Bay in celebration of the Royal Wedding on February 28th.

'ST. GUTHLAC.'

On Thursday, March 2nd, a 720 of No. 16, page 6, Legitimate Methods was rung at Market Deeping by the following: F. Simpson 1, A. Riggall 2, J. Landon 3, H. Holmes 4, W. A. Day 5, H. M. Day (conductor) 6. The ringers wish to name it 'St. Guthlac.'

HELD OVER.

Numerous other peals and touches than those appearing in this issue have been received, but are unavoidably held over until next week.

We are also compelled to hold over reports of several meetings and letters to the Editor.

THE ROYAL WEDDING.

The bells of many English churches rang out on Tuesday, February 28th, in honour of the wedding of H.R.H. Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles, K.G., D.S.O. Never perhaps in history were there so many wedding bells rung for the marriage of a King's daughter.

The new peal in the lofty tower of Westminster Abbey played their part in the ceremony, and the bells in the towers in town and village reminded the people of the happy event, and provided the outward symbol of joy which was felt in all loyal hearts.

Unfortunately the peal attempt at the Abbey was unsuccessful, but in accordance with the arrangements made the bells were kept going for over three hours. The Abbey company, who had the good fortune to be able to witness the wedding ceremony, were entertained after the ringing in the old Abbots' Dining Hall.

A large number of peal attempts were successful, as will be seen from our peal columns, and below are given particulars of some of the lesser performances:

OXFORD.—Oxford Society.—At St. Ebbe's Church 2,520 Minor in three methods, being two 720's of Oxford Treble Bob, 720 Oxford Single Bob, and 360 College Single, in 1 hr. 20 mins.: G. Stace 1, G. Stone 2, H. Tolley (longest length) 3, W. H. B. Wilkins (conductor) 4, F. Clinkard 5, W. Harris 6.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The first peal of Treble Twelve was rung on March 12th, 1758, at St. Saviour's, Southwark, by the College Youths, where, on March 10th, 1784, the Ancient Society rang 7,008 of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus in 5 hrs. 48 mins. The tenor was rung single-handed by Samuel Muggeridge, who some time previously had left the Cumberlands to join the rival society. This remained the record length of twelve-in until the year 1802.

The first peal on the bells at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields was 6,006 of Grandsire Cinques rung by the London Scholars on March 4th, 1727. On the following day, on the same bells, the College Youths—who seem to have been kept out of the tower until the Scholars had scored the first peal—rang a peal of 6,314 Grandsire Cinques. This peal was called by Benjamin Annable.

On March 14th, 1837, a peal of 10,133 Grandsire Caters was rung in 5 hrs. 54 mins., at Christ Church, Bristol. This was the longest peal rung in that city, and was composed and called by William Smith. Two men rang the tenor, which is a 20 cwt. bell.

On March 16th, 1767, a peal of 10,080 Bob Major was rung at Debenham, in 6 hrs. 1 min., a performance never before accomplished by eight men without assistance on such great bells. According to 'Bell's Life,' the Debenham ringers on March 16th, 1867, celebrated the centenary by 'ringing several peals on their bells.'

On March 16th, 1865, the first peal of Violet Treble Bob Major was rung at St. Peter's, Huddersfield.

Among those who rang for the wedding of Princess Mary was Mr. George Gray, who, although over 80 years of age, took part in a quarter-peal of Stedman at Stansted, Essex.

The Rector of Birmingham (Canon E. Grose Hodge) has evidently great faith in the abilities of St. Martin's band to score peals. He announced in the Birmingham papers that a peal would be rung, lasting about 3½ hours, for the Royal Wedding, and the announcement attracted a large number of people to the famous Bull Ring. Happily, the ringers did not let their Rector down, and the peal—Stedman Cinques—was duly 'landed.' The Rector brought a party of friends and remained throughout the peal.

The peal of Cambridge, rung at Worcester for the Royal Wedding, was the first by the revived society of All Saints' Youths, an organisation that existed in the city over half a century ago, and, judging by the records in the tower, were proficient in Treble Bob.

Following upon the gathering of College Youths at Paisley, reported last week, eight members of the Ancient Society rang a peal of Grandsire Triples at Edinburgh last Saturday. We understand it is 48 years since the society rang the last one there. At the time of going to press the full report of the performance had not reached us.

On the Royal wedding day, three generations of the family of Symonds—father, son and grandson—took part in a peal together at Lavenham, Suffolk. Has this, we are asked, been done before?

Mr. G. R. Newton writes to say that the peal of Treble Bob Major at Halewood, and published in our issue of Feb. 24th, was rung on Feb. 18th, 1922, not 1921, as printed. He makes the correction, as the case of Emberton, mentioned last week, shows it is possible to have peals reported a year after they are rung.

NEW BELL AT BARLEY.

CONTEMPLATED A CENTURY AGO.

On Sunday, February 26th, the Archdeacon of St. Albans (the Ven. Hon. Kenneth Gibbs, M.A.) dedicated an additional bell to the ring of five in the tower of the Parish Church of St. Margaret, Barley, Herts. These five bells are mentioned in the registers as having been in position in the time of Queen Elizabeth, and were of the united weight of over 37 cwt. In 1807 they were recast by Thomas Mears and Son, and room was left in the old wooden frame for a sixth bell.

The Archdeacon, in his simple yet striking address, mentioned that this old frame came out of the ancient oak wood in the parish, of which a few trees still remain. Messrs. Day and Son, of Eye, who hung the new bell (cast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, of London), were much impressed with the remarkable soundness and hardness of this old wood, which is in as good a condition as ever.

As the Archdeacon, the Rector (the Rev. J. Frome Wilkinson), and other clergy, the churchwardens, and choir, left the belfry to return to the chancel, the Barley band rang a touch of Bob Minor.

During the afternoon ringers also came from Anstey, Barkway, Baldock, Fulbourn, Royston, and a lady ringer (the first to take part in the ringing in Barley Church) from Trumpington. The following methods were rung during the afternoon and evening: Cambridge Surprise, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Oxford Bob and Bob Minor.

The Barley ringers kindly provided a capital and largely attended tea in the old Town House, opposite the church. The ringers are to be congratulated on their efforts in raising over £100 towards the cost of the new bell.

THE ODD & EVEN BOB PEAL OF STEDMAN.

MR. JOHN CARTER'S MASTERPIECE.

The figures of Mr. John Carter's new peal of Stedman Triples, containing sets of odd and even bobs in each course have now been 'released,' and will be studied with great interest. The composition is a masterpiece, and only a genius like Mr. Carter could evolve such a peal.

It was rung on January 13th for the first time, at St. George-the-Martyr's Church, Southwark, and Mr. Taffender is to be congratulated upon having called a peal of such intricacy. Whoever conducts this peal in the future will earn the highest merit.

Appended are the figures:

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY.

JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

The Oxford University Society, which was formed in February, 1872, celebrated its jubilee on Monday, February 20th and a number of past members came up for the occasion. The proceedings opened with an attempt at a peal of Stedman Triples on the bells of St. Mary's Church, Woodstock, by the Rev. Canon G. F. Coleridge, the Rev. C. D. P. Davies, and Alderman J. S. Pritchett, Recorder of Lincoln (past members); R. E. Havard (hon. secretary), H. Miles (Master), and J. F. Russell (present members), W. H. B. Wilkins (Master of the Oxford City Society), and Mrs. A. E. Lock (Abingdon). The Master of the University Society acted as conductor. Owing to a slight mishap to one of the ropes, the peal came to grief after 1½ hours' good ringing.

At 4.30 p.m., the society gathered at New College to be photographed, the Right Rev. Bishop Shaw (President), the Rev. the Warden of New College, the Rev. Canon H. E. Nolloth, Mr. G. H. Phillott, and Mr. A. M. Trendall (hon. treasurer), being among the numerous assembly.

After accepting the kind invitation of Bishop Shaw to tea at Christ Church, the society rang for an hour at St. Giles's Church, and afterwards took part in two hours' ringing at New College, the methods being Grandsire, Stedman and Kent Treble Bob Major.

It was a great pleasure to welcome the former members who came for this occasion, and their visit will undoubtedly give an impetus to the activities of the society.

The Oxford University Society, unlike that of Cambridge, has suffered in the past by having no permanent members of the University on its active official list; but it is more fortunate at present, for its President is the Right Rev. Bishop Shaw, Archdeacon of Oxford, who is very enthusiastic in forwarding the work of the society. During the war, and for some years before, the society did little or nothing; but in Hilary Term, 1921, it received fresh vigour, so that today the roll of resident members contains the names of some three dozen keen ringers who represent no less than fourteen of the Oxford Colleges.

On Princess Mary's wedding day a number of the members of the University Society co-operated with the City ringers in ringing joyous touches on the bells of the Cathedral, New College and Magdalen College. In each case the bells were rung up in peal fired, and then tapped in Grandsire Caters. This co-operation of 'town and gown' in the Exercise is a specially pleasing feature of the activities of the society, and it is looking forward with enthusiasm and pleasure to a very successful period in the future.

LADIES' GUILD.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETING AT STAINES.

The members of the Southern District of the Ladies' Guild, and their friends, spent a most enjoyable time at Staines on Saturday last. The bells at St. Peter's were in readiness at three o'clock, and short touches of Grandsire, Stedman, Bob Major, Treble Bob, and rounds, were rung to enable everyone to have a pull. The service touch was rung by: Miss Griffen (Staines) 1, Miss B. Mills (Aldershot) 2, Miss Nye (Bagshot), conductor, 3, W. Lawrence (West Ealing) 4, Miss H. F. Mills (Aldershot) 5, Miss Stella Davis (Bucklebury) 6, Miss V. Robinson (Wokingham) 7, Hector Hunt (Yorktown) 7.

The Guild service was conducted by the Rev. F. Marriott, who gave an interesting address, and extended a hearty welcome to the visitors. Sir Edward and Lady Clarke were present at the service, but were unfortunately unable to join the party for tea. When all had done justice to an excellent meal, a vote of thanks was accorded to the Rev. F. Marriott for his kindness and generosity.

The ladies then 'ordered' the gentlemen back to the tower whilst they held their business meeting, which, with Miss Robinson in the chair, was quickly carried through. Misses Griffen, Riggs, Mackie and Gundry, of St. Peter's, were admitted to the Guild, and after a short discussion it was agreed to hold the next meeting at Chertsey, on Saturday, May 13th.

After a little more ringing at St. Peter's a move was made for St. Mary's, where again everything was in readiness. The standard methods were rung, but when an attempt was made for Double Norwich the treble rope broke for the second time, and it being eight o'clock, the ringers took this as a sign that it was time to depart to their respective homes.

The following towers were represented: Aldershot, Bagshot, Bucklebury, Chertsey, Farnborough, Sandhurst, Slough, South Ealing, West Ealing, Wokingham, Yorktown, and the two local towers.

The meeting of the Western District for last Saturday, March 4th, at Weston-super-Mare, had to be postponed owing to a sudden death near the church on Friday. The secretary hopes she was successful in letting all those who had intended going, know of the change. She hopes to be able to rearrange the meeting for Saturday, March 25th, in which case all arrangements would hold good.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The pre-Lent meeting of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association was held at Chester-le-Street on Saturday, February 25th. Members (including two ladies) and friends, to the number of 48, attended from Newcastle, Gateshead, Whitley Bay, Sunderland, West Hartlepool, Darlington, Wulaton, and Blagdon. The bells (a fine ring of eight, tenor 22 cwt.) were kept going throughout the afternoon and evening to the tune of London, Cambridge, Kent, Double Norwich, Plain Bob, Stedman and Grandsire, so that all could have a pull. The Chester-le-Street ladies, Miss Donison and Miss Green, are to be congratulated upon their excellent ringing and striking in Kent Treble Bob and Plain Bob.

Tea was served in the Church Institute, and thoroughly enjoyed. The Rector and churchwardens were present, and were accorded a hearty vote of thanks, at the conclusion of the meal, for their kindness in allowing the use of the bells and the Church Institute.

There was no business meeting, but it was intimated that the memorial would be put in hand shortly and placed in Newcastle Cathedral, and that the reports were in hand and would be completed as soon as possible.

It is interesting to note that Chester-le-Street Church was once the Cathedral of the Diocese of Durham, and that a large portion of the present income of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners comes from the original endowment of the church which included all the land between the Wear and the Tyne.

W. W. GIFFORD MEMORIAL FUND.

LATE NOTICES.

ASHTREAD, SURREY.—Combined practices are held in this tower every Thursday, 7 till 9 p.m. (Grandsire to Superlative). All ringers welcome.—A. Harman, 27, Poplar Avenue, Leatherhead.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.—Grappenhall Branch.—The next meeting will be held at Daresbury, on Saturday, March 18th, commencing at 3.30 p.m.—Jno. E. Ashcroft, Hon. Sec.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

EASTERN DISTRICT AND THE PONTEFRACT TOWERS.

The annual meeting of the Eastern District of the Yorkshire Association was held at Selby on Saturday, February 18th, by the kind permission of the Vicar (the Rev. Canon Solloway). The fine peal of ten by Taylor and Co., with a tenor of 25½ cwt., were at the disposal of ringers, and various touches in the standard methods were successfully brought round.

Choral evensong was attended by between forty and fifty visitors, representing towers at Doncaster, Goole, Hemmingboro', Howden, Hull, Market Weighton, Pontefract, Sutton, Thorne, York. An inspiring address was delivered by the Vicar, who gave the members a most hearty welcome, and said he marvelled at the enthusiasm of ringers for their work. He wished that other branches of church workers would display as much earnestness in their respective duties as did ringers.

Selby Abbey, dedicated to SS. Mary and Germanus, may be instanced as the most perfectly preserved specimen of a monastic church in Yorkshire. The antiquity of the noble edifice may be gauged by the different styles of architecture—Norman, Transitional, Early English, Decorated and Perpendicular. Its great glory is its choir, described by the late Sir Gilbert Scott as 'in the finest Decorated or middle-pointed style, and of the most perfect design and execution.' The wonderful restored east window has been accorded second rank among the splendid examples of its class in the world. The proportion of its parts, the beauty of the tracery, and the slender lofty mullions unsupported by transoms, are unexcelled. Another very interesting feature, in one of the choir windows (the second light of the second window from the east end of the south side) are the arms of the Washington family, the most distinguished member of which became the first President of the United States. Selby folk, of all classes and creeds, take a justifiable pride and interest in their beautiful Benedictine church, whose fine architectural proportions form a notable landmark.

The business meeting of the district was held immediately after tea in the scriptorium, the vice-president (Mr. A. E. West) being in the chair, supported by the president (the Rev. C. C. Marshall). The retiring Ringing Master (Mr. H. Fairlam, Selby) was re-elected, as were also the three retiring committeemen, Messrs. D. England (Hatfield), J. E. Pickard (Pontefract), and H. N. Imeson (York), the latter to serve on the General Committee.

Mr. W. Pearson (Pontefract) moved, and the President seconded, a vote of congratulation to Mr. F. Cryer, the genial captain of the Selby band of ringers, on his attaining his jubilee as a bell ringer.—Mr. Cryer, in acknowledging the vote, thanked the meeting most heartily for their good wishes.

The observations of the meeting were required by the General Committee of the Association, on the application of the Pontefract towers to be transferred to the Western Division. After hearing the remarks of Mr. W. Pearson, of St. Giles, an animated discussion took place, after which the following resolution was unanimously carried: 'That this meeting is of the opinion that Pontefract be retained in the Eastern Division.'

It was decided that the next meeting should be held at Sherburn and the secretary was requested to make the usual arrangements.

The customary votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells and his address at the service; also to the organist and choir for their attendance, and to the local company of ringers for their very excellent arrangements.

Ringing was again indulged in until 9 p.m., when the bells were lowered, thus bringing a most delightful meeting to a close.

RINGER'S GOLDEN WEDDING.

CELEBRATION AT RAUNDS.

A tea and social gathering was held in the Church Institute, Raunds, on February 25th, to celebrate the golden wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilbert, and a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung in the afternoon in honour of the event.

After tea, the Vicar (the Rev. Cecil Curtis) congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert on completing 50 years of married life, and on the way in which they had both worked for the church during that time. He hoped they might both be spared to continue that work for many years to come. He also thanked the children of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert for providing the tea.

Mr. Lawrence spoke on behalf of the children, saying how pleased they all were to be present at the golden wedding of their father and mother, and hoped they might be spared to celebrate the diamond wedding ten years hence.

Mr. Smith (brother) offered his warmest congratulations, and Mr. F. Wilford spoke on behalf of the ringers. Having been a ringer at the Parish Church for many years, Mr. Gilbert had helped a great many to learn their favourite art. He had rung over 100 peals, and had walked many miles to assist others in parishes around.

The rest of the evening was spent in harmony. Altogether an enjoyable time was spent.

SUNDAY SERVICE TOUCHES.

BOYS' QUARTER-PEAL.

At Acton, on Sunday, March 5th, for afternoon service, a quarter-peal of Graudsire Triples (1,260 changes), from 'Holt's Original,' was rung in 42 mins. by a band of youths whose average age was only 17 years: H. A. Harding (age 16) 1, Robt. Fardon (conductor) (18) 2, C. Brown (20) 3, A. M. Stacey (15) 4, H. G. Wincote (18) 5, H. J. Hunnissett (18) 6, F. W. Goodfellow (16) 7, C. G. Cooper, first quarter (19), 8. Rung at first attempt.

CIRENCESTER, GLOS.—On Sunday, March 5th, for morning service, at Holy Trinity Church, Watermoor, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples (1,260 changes): F. W. Bond 1, W. G. Cook 2, F. J. Lewis 3, H. Lewis 4, J. Butler 5, W. O. Cuss 6, H. C. Bond (conductor) 7, J. Hayward 8.

ICKLETON, CAMBS.—At the Parish Church, on Sunday, March 5th, for evening service, 720 Bob Minor, 9 bobs, 8 singles: S. Brookes 1, R. Clements 2, P. C. L. Brookes 3, P. Webb (conductor) 4, W. Finton 5, A. G. Lilley 6.

DUNSTABLE.—The Bedfordshire Association.—On Sunday, Feb. 26th, for afternoon service, a quarter-peal 1,260 Graudsire Triples, in 50 mins.: B. Calcott 1, A. E. Sharman (conductor) 2, F. Ramsey 3, C. E. King 4, A. G. Matthews 5, J. B. Marks 6, G. Heley 7, R. Harris 8. First quarter-peal by the treble man, who hails from Houghton Regis. Rung with the bells half-muffled on the occasion of the unveiling the church war memorial by the Duke of Bedford.—For evening service, 420 Stedman Triples: A. E. Sharman (conductor) 1, R. Harris 2, F. Ramsey 3, G. Heley 4, F. Baldock 5, Canon Baker 6, J. B. Marks 7, A. G. Matthews 8. Also a short touch of Bob Major, with P. Ward and C. E. King for Canon Baker and F. Baldock.—On Saturday, February 25th, a muffled peal of Cambridge Surprise Major was attempted, but a change course unfortunately occurred in the 9th course, after 1 hour and 20 minutes' splendid striking. The band was: Canon Baker 1, C. Herbert 2, B. Fleet 3, D. Harris 4, E. Herbert 5, H. Smith 6, E. J. Hobbs (conductor) 7, A. E. Sharman 8.

WEST DIDSBUURY, LANCS. — On Sunday, Feb. 26th, at Christ Church, a quarter-peal of Graudsire Triples: W. Savage 1, A. Frost 2, G. Snowball 3, H. Brickill 4, W. H. Cooper 5, R. F. Deal 6, R. Davies (conductor) 7, F. Stoneley 8.

SOUTHGATE.—The Sunday service band at Southgate made an attempt on Saturday last for a peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal, which was lost half-way, after 1 hr. 42 mins.: A. R. Glasscock 1, J. Armstrong 2, G. Bester 3, E. G. Tomlinson 4, G. W. Fletcher 5, N. A. Tomlinson 6, W. Pickworth 7, H. Miller 8, J. E. Miller 9, S. Wade (conductor) 10. The attempt was the longest in the method by all except the ringers of the 2nd and 5th. Both on February 16th and 23rd the same band rang 1,080 Cambridge Surprise Royal.

DEPTFORD, KENT.—At the Church of St. John the Evangelist, on Sunday, February 26th, for evensong, a quarter-peal of Graudsire Triples: E. W. Pannett 1, E. B. Crowder 2, J. Crowder 3, H. J. Norgate 4, W. J. Jeffries (conductor) 5, T. A. Easterby 6, A. Bradley 7, A. F. Bennington 8.

PAISLEY. — On Sunday, Feb. 26th, for evening service, at St. James' United Free Church, two three courses of Bob Minor, with 7-8 covering: A. J. Rodger 1, A. E. Wrecks (conductor) 2, R. Thorn 3, T. O'Hara 4, W. H. Cooper 5, J. Porteous 6, R. Clark 7, J. Hobman 8. This is Mr. Cooper's first ringing in Scotland, his attention having been drawn to Paisley through seeing in the columns of 'The Ringing World' an account of some ringing done three or four weeks ago.

WALTHAM ST. LAWRENCE, BERKS.—On Sunday, Feb. 25th, 720 Oxford Treble Bob Minor, for evening service: J. Cooper, junr., 1, J. Cooper, senr., 2, C. V. Darvill 3, R. J. Darvill 4, G. Martin 5, W. Mortimer (conductor) 6.

A REGISTER OF COMPOSITIONS.

The friendly controversy now going on in our columns as to who has the prior claim to certain compositions once again directs attention to the desirability for an official register of these productions. In the case of the peal of Grandsire Triples, for example, there is no question that it was obtained independently by both Mr. Gabriel Lindoff and the Rev. E. Bankes James. The only point at issue is, really, who composed it first. The composition did not get published under the name of either gentleman for some long time after it was obtained, and after a lapse of so many years it is perhaps a little difficult, without precise memoranda made at the time, to settle the question. There have also been numerous instances of another kind in recent years—viz., the claim by young composers to peals which were originally obtained long before they came on the scene—peals which have been composed by genuine individual effort, but to which, of course, they are not entitled to put their names.

If a register, such as we have previously suggested, could be set up, the difficulties in both the cases mentioned could be settled satisfactorily. The right of authorship would go to the composer who first registered a composition, whether or not it had been rung or published, and it would be a help to composers of the future by providing them at once with the information whether their peals had been previously obtained. The trouble now is that they have no possibility of ascertaining with certainty whether their compositions are really new. There are a certain number of publications through which they can search, but they are not exhaustive, nor are they compiled with a view to ready reference.

Admittedly, a register would involve a good deal of labour to set up at the outset, but once established it would not be difficult to keep up to date if it were placed in the hands of someone who knew his business. Indeed, the register could very well be divided into sections and be split up among several. The point to bear in mind is, the longer the register is delayed, the greater will be the initial difficulties. The register would be a different kind of thing to the various collections of peals which the Central Council have published or intend to publish; but these collections would form a valuable nucleus upon which the register could be based, although the method of classification would, obviously, have to be different. We believe that those who give any thought to the subject will realise that the means here suggested is the only effective way of preserving the rights of authorship and securing for the future the credit which is due to composers of the past and present.

EX-SERVICE MEN'S PEAL.

HIS MAJESTY AND A FINE PERFORMANCE.

One of the most interesting performances in celebration of the Royal Wedding was the peal in three Minor methods rung at Belton, Rutland, by six ex-Service men, four of whom were wounded, and one, Corpl. Churchill, who called the peal, having lost his right arm on the Somme in 1916.

After the peal the Rev. G. J. Pallison, Vicar of Belton, wrote to the King congratulating him on his daughter's marriage, and also mentioning the peal rung at Belton, which he added would compare favourably in point of merit with any in the kingdom, as all the band were ex-soldiers. The population of the village was under 300, and all the band were Belton men except the conductor, who lived in the neighbouring hamlet of Loddington.

The following reply was received:

' Buckingham Palace,
 3rd March, 1922.

' Dear Sir,—I am desired to thank you for your letter of Feb. 28th, addressed to the King, and for the congratulation and good wishes to which it gives expression.

' His Majesty was interested to hear of the peal of 5,040 changes rung at Belton Parish Church on Princess Mary's wedding day, and considers it a fine performance on the part of the ex-soldiers, who constituted the band of ringers.—Yours very truly,

' A. H. L. HARDINGE.

' The Rev. G. J. Pallison, Belton Vicarage, Uppingham.'

CENTRAL NORTANTS ASSOCIATION.

A most successful quarterly meeting of the Kettering District was held at Weckley on Saturday, February 25th, about 40 ringers being present from Burton, Barton, Broughton, Cranford, Cransby, Isham, Orlingbury, Northampton, Kettering, Sudborough, and the local band.

A short service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. C. H. L. Hopper). Tea was partaken of in the Village Hall, presided over by the Rector, who also took the chair at the meeting.

One life member and one ringing member was elected, and Desborough was chosen for the next quarterly meeting soon after Easter.

The secretary's report and balance sheet for the past year were adopted, showing that there were nine honorary and 104 ringing members. Two honorary and 13 ringing members joined during the year.

A vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, the ladies for providing tea, and the local ringers, was passed.—Surprise Treble Bob and Plain Minor methods were rung on the handy ring of six bells during the day.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

One hundred and twenty years ago next Wednesday—on March 22nd, 1802—the Royal Cumberland Youths rang 7.104 of Treble Bob Maximus at Southwark Cathedral in 5 hrs. 30 mins.

On the same day, in 1734, a peal of 6,876 Grandsire Caters was rung at New College, Oxford.

To-day is the anniversary of the first peal of Duffield Maximus, which was rung at St. Martin's, Birmingham, in 1891.

Congratulations to Canon W. W. C. Baker upon having taken part in and conducted a peal to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the foundation of the Bedfordshire Association. He is the only original member now on the 'active' list, and his interest has never waned. With the President in the peal there were two vice-presidents, the general secretary, a district secretary, and three members of the committee. We hope they will all be spared to ring a jubilee peal together.

'It is like being on a lonely island, to be without any news of ringing,' plaintively writes a reader, whom a strike of packers at a London wholesale newsagents has robbed of his 'Ringing World' for three weeks.

Quite a praiseworthy performance is the peal of Bob Major rung at Handsworth, Sheffield, on Saturday. It was the first peal by all the band, except the conductor, and they have learnt to ring since the bells, which are a war memorial, were put in in December, 1920.

A peal in which three generations of one family took part was rung at Stoney Stanton, Leicestershire, on Saturday, December 10th last. The method was Grandsire Triples, and the father, son and grandson were Messrs. Henry Briggs, Chas. H. Briggs, and Wm. Briggs. This information comes in reply to an inquiry in this column last week.

Two peals by the College Youths in Scotland in a week! It shows what the determination of a few enthusiasts can do.

The peal at Paisley was a good performance on the tenorman's part, as he knew nothing about change ringing till after last Christmas, and the bell, we are informed, is one of the sort that doesn't 'go,' but has to be pushed one way and pulled the other!

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

The annual meeting, 1922, will be held on Whit-Tuesday, June 6th, at Lincoln. Further and full particulars of this will be announced later. Notice of motions should be sent to the hon. secretary before May 6th, in order that they may appear upon the agenda.

Secretaries of the affiliated Guilds and Associations are reminded that the subscription for 1922 is now due, and should be sent to the Hon. Secretary, Mr. E. Alexr. Young, 155, Rushy Green, Catford, S.E.6.

The following Associations and Guilds have been good enough to forward their subscriptions to date: Llandaff, Dudley, Central Northants, Salop, Kent, Essex, Salisbury, and Ladies.

AN APPEAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir.—At a meeting of the Middlesex County Association held on Saturday, an appeal was made on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. Harry Flanders, whose death took place in August last. Mrs. Flanders has just recovered from a serious illness, and is at present in none too good financial circumstances. It is hoped that the large circle of friends of the late Mr. H. Flanders will help. A collection, made at the meeting mentioned, realised £2, and I have since been handed 2s. 6d. each from two ringing friends. Any further sums will be thankfully received, and will be acknowledged through this paper. They should be sent to Mr. Alfred Pye, 126, Pembroke Road, Seven Kings, or to yours faithfully,
49, Wood Street, E.17.

C. T. COLES, Hon. Sec.

LONG SERVICE.

NORTH ANSTON'S RECORD.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir.—In your valuable paper of February 24th appears a remarkable instance of long service of six ringers at Marnhull, Dorset. At North Anston we can beat that record, as we have six ringers who have been ringing together over 30 years. We have not gone in much for ringing 5,000's but have learned a nice few methods, having rung 140 Treble Bob Minor methods, and only ten 5,000's during the time. We have been favoured very much in not losing any ringers during that long time.—Yours truly,

HY. STENTON.

On Monday, February 27th, was laid to rest at North Anston, Mr. Joseph Cocking, who had been verger for 23 years. During his time he had assisted at the burial of 560 persons, and at the baptism of over 600.

After the funeral the ringers rang a deeply muffled 720 of Minor, conducted by a boy of eleven years.

CARTER'S ODD AND EVEN BOB PEAL OF STEDMAN.To the Editor.*

Sir,—I must say that the above composition is a wonderful production, and Mr. Carter is to be congratulated on producing such a peal.

In your leading article last week, however, you greatly exaggerate the difficulties of calling such a peal. It certainly is not more difficult than the Odd Bob, if so difficult, when you consider that 29 of these 60 courses are called the same. The misleading way it is published makes it appear more difficult than it really is. If it is properly cut up, a lot of it will repeat. Of the seven different callings No. 1 is only used once; No. 2 four times, and then in succession; No. 3 once following No. 2, which means that after the first six courses you can dismiss these from your mind. No. 7 is only used twice, and that in the first 20 courses, which reduces the number of callings to three, viz., Nos. 4, 5 and 6. If we take No. 6 as the original calling, the only differences between 4, 5 and 6, is add 4—5 in No. 4; and omit 10—11 in No. 5. In addition to that, after the 6th course there are always calls at 2, 6, 7, 9, 14. In Nos. 4 and 6 there are two fixed bells, and the last 18 courses are simply a 6-course block twice repeated.

Such a composition as this should not present any terrors to anyone who has any system of calling. In my opinion the 7-part peal of Stedman Triples is far more difficult than the above, as there is more variety of calling, and you have to have a fresh observation bell in each part, which is a disadvantage, as small bells are not so easy to locate as the 7th, whereas in Carter's peal the 7th is fixed, and in 45 of the 60 courses you have another bell fixed as well.—Yours, etc., W. PYE.

Lest there be any misunderstanding, we desire to point out that the form in which this composition was published, whether misleading or otherwise, was exactly as sent to us by the composer himself.—Ed.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*SUCCESSFUL MEETING AT WALTHAMSTOW.

The North and East District of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild met at St. Saviour's, Walthamstow, on Saturday last, when a pleasant and successful gathering took place. Several towers were represented, whilst a number of visitors came from distant parts, including Cambridge and Great Munden. Before the service, several touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Double Norwich Major, and courses of Superlative and London Surprise were rung.

At evensong, the Vicar (the Rev. G. H. Siddons) gave a very interesting address on old customs connected with the ringing of church bells, which was much appreciated.

After tea, the business meeting was held, with the District Master, Mr. G. B. Lucas, in the chair, and thanks were accorded to all those who had helped to make the meeting an enjoyable one.

An appeal was made by Mr. A. Pye, on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. Harry Flanders, who has been seriously ill, and is at present in difficult circumstances. A collection was made amongst those present, which realised £2. An appeal is also being made through 'The Ringing World,' and it is hoped that the members of the above Association will generously respond.

After the business meeting, a large party visited the tower of St. Mary's, Walthamstow, where several touches of Stedman Caters, and a course of Cambridge Royal were rung, whilst others remained at St. Saviour's, good use being made of both the peals of bells open for ringing. An estimate of the number present would be well over 40, there being 33 at tea, and a large number of arrivals at both towers afterwards, amongst the company being several ringers whose names are household words amongst the ringing fraternity.

CHISLEHURST, KENT.—On Thursday, Feb. 2nd, at 68, White Horse Hill, on handbells, a quarter-peal of Bob Major (1,264 changes), in 37 mins., by the following: F. G. Groombridge 1—2, R. Brett Smith (conductor) 3—4, J. Brett Smith 5, T. Brett Smith 6, Cyril Brett Smith 7—8.

LATE NOTICES.

LADIES' GUILD.—Western District.—The postponed Quarterly Meeting will be held at Portishead on Saturday, March 25th. Bells available from 3 o'clock.—Edith Smith, Sec., 23, Somerset St., Kingsdown, Bristol.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT AMALGAMATED SOCIETY.—The usual Monthly meeting will be held at Armley on March 25th. The bells will be dedicated at 3 p.m. by the Bishop of Knaresborough, and will be available for ringing from 2 p.m. All ringers are welcome.—M. Moorhouse, Hon. Sec., 10, Mitford Road, Armley.

NEWCASTLE CATHEDRAL GUILD.*ANNUAL DINNER.

The Newcastle Cathedral Guild held their annual dinner at the Collingwood Restaurant on Tuesday, February 28th, at 6 p.m., having rung a peal of Stedman Cinques in the afternoon in honour of the marriage of Princess Mary to Lord Lascelles. The chair was taken by the Ringing Master (Mr. C. L. Routledge), who was supported by the Rev. E. Dudley Clark, Messrs. H. Ingledue, E. W. Lidderdale and R. E. Fisher, vice-presidents; W. Story, President of the Durham and Newcastle Association, A. Lewis, and others. The President (the Rev. Canon E. D. Newson) was unavoidably prevented from attending, and letters were received from the Vicar, Canon Newson, the Ven. Archdeacon Blacket Ord, Alderman Robinson, Mr. W. Lister Newcombe (donor of the two trebles of the peal of 12), Messrs. Percy Parmenter, J. W. Parker, R. and T. Hudson and J. Towns, regretting their inability to attend.—Forty-one sat down to a dinner of five excellent courses, composed by Mr. Thomas Townsend, the manager.—The King was given by the Chairman, who included the bride and bridegroom, wishing them every blessing and happiness.—This toast was most heartily received.

Four friends from St. George's Church choir, namely, Messrs. R. Graham, F. Madderson, J. Foster and A. Dunn, gave the Royal Jubilee glee, by Hollingworth, 'Here's life and health to England's King,' etc.

The remainder of the evening was spent in harmony, and a few speeches. Songs and glees by the friends from St. George's were much appreciated, and songs were given also by Messrs. J. Caslaw, B. O. Dixon ('The shy young man with a bassoon'), E. S. Kell and A. Payne. A course of Stedman Caters on handbells was rung by Messrs. C. L. Routledge, W. H. Barber, H. Lewis, J. A. and J. E. Gofton, and a course of Double Norwich Major by Messrs. Barber, Lewis and the Gofton Brothers.

The Chairman proposed the clergy, the Rev. E. D. Clark replying (in the absence of the Vicar).

Mr. Lidderdale proposed 'The Durham and Newcastle Association,' to which the President (Mr. Story) replied, and promised to give some of the clergy 'the rough end of his tongue' for not looking after their bells and ringers better. Fortunately this did not apply to the Cathedral clergy, for they look after their ringers well, and consider all their wants and wishes, and visit them in their homes.

Mr. R. E. Fisher replying, on behalf of the churchwardens, said how much they all appreciated the services of the Guild, and added there there was one Sunday in the year when the whole city seemed dead, and that was the Sunday the Guild took their well-earned rest, which they spent, as Mr. Clark put it, like a bus-driver's holiday, ringing bells somewhere else.

Mr. R. Thompson proposed 'The Guild,' and made some very complimentary remarks. Perhaps the most encouraging were what he heard at Beverley from the locals, after the peal of Stedman Caters rung by the Guild on the Minster bells. A fine oak peal board to commemorate this peal was on view at the dinner prior to its being dispatched to Beverley to be hung in the Minster belfry.

The Chairman proposed a very hearty vote of thanks to the friends from St. George's, and Mr. Chris Dadds, who so kindly and ably acted as accompanist for the evening. The members were glad to welcome friends from the neighbouring towers. E. E. F.

NORWICH AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.*DEATH OF TWO ORIGINAL MEMBERS.

The Norwich and Ipswich Association has lost two veterans, who were original members of the organisation. The death took place, on February 17th, of Mr. Robert Hulton, of Bunwell, Norfolk, at the age of 79 years. The deceased was well known in many of the Norfolk towers, and was for over thirty years Ringing Master of the Bunwell company. He was one of the first members of the Norwich Diocesan Association, to which he was elected on July 14th, 1877, and he had rung in 64 association peals.

The death took place on February 22nd, at Melbourne House, Wells-next-the-Sea, Norfolk, of Mr. James Skinner, at the age of 79 years. The deceased was for many years a carriage builder in Norwich, and a member of the St. Peter Mancroft company, Norwich, and the Norwich Scholars. He was also an original member of the Norwich and Ipswich Association, to which he was elected on July 14th 1877, and had rung in 25 association peals.

The first part of the funeral service took place in St. Peter Mancroft Church on Tuesday, February 28th, and the interment in the Rosary Cemetery, Norwich. The following members of the St. Peter Mancroft company, Messrs. Charles E. Borrett, Frederick Knights, sen., Fredk. H. Knights, junr., and Frederick J. Howchin, rang a course of Grandsire Triples on the handbells over the grave as a token of respect to the memory of their old comrade, and a muffled peal was rung on March 7th at St. Michael Coslany.

GRANDSIRE TRIPLE COMPOSITIONS.THE DISPUTED CLAIM.To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Lindoff asks for further information with regard to my 10-part peal of Grandsire Triples. I will do my best to satisfy him. I began to take an interest in Grandsire Triple composition in 1889, but was not successful in getting a peal until January, 1891, when I put together my irregular ten-part, which appears in the Council's Collection, Section 1, No. 31. I sent it to 'The Bell News,' but, as was usual in those days with regard to all young composers, it was not inserted, although it was the first peal of Grandsire Triples ever composed in parts with two common Grandsire singles only. This and my future experiences bear witness to Mr. Lindoff's statement with regard to the impossibility of getting new peals printed in 'The Bell News' at that time. It was afterwards sent to Mr. J. J. Parker, of Farnham Royal, who, through an oversight, pronounced it to be false, with the result that I had the greatest difficulty in getting it called, until my old friend, Mr. F. E. Ward, of Cheltenham, called it at Caerleon. It was afterwards published in the Council's report in 1894.

May I ask Mr. Lindoff at what date he first printed this peal as his composition? It was first brought to my notice by Mr. W. T. Pegler one Sunday morning in St. Michael's belfry at Gloucester, who showed me the printed figures with Mr. Lindoff's name attached to them as composer, and asked me what I thought of them. I replied at once that it was my peal. As Mr. Pegler was going to meet Mr. Lindoff during the week, I asked him to bring the matter to his notice, and, when I next met him he told me that he had done so, and that Mr. Lindoff had replied that 'Mr. James ought to publish his peals if he wanted to claim them,' and that of a peal which was already printed in the Council's report. The peal has been rung and published in 'The Ringing World' many times since as Mr. Lindoff's composition.

Now we turn to the ten-part peals. In the Council's report, pages 6 and 7, there are five ten-part peals with my name attached to them. Of these No. 14 is the one that Mr. Lindoff wishes to claim. I commenced work on the ten-part plan in 1893, and produced three peals on March 10th of that year. I am able to fix the date, because we rang the first peal of Double Norwich in the City of Bristol on March 11th, and I perfectly recollect taking copies of them with me and showing them to Mr. F. E. Ward and Mr. John Austin in the train on the way down. I went on working at ten-part peals until I left Gloucester for London, in October, 1894. After that time I did no more Grandsire Triple work. Therefore, those peals must have been produced, that is, No. 11 and No. 12 before October, 1894.

I gave all the peals that I produced at that time to Mr. John Austin, who was our conductor. When or how they first got published I do not know; perhaps Mr. Austin may be able to throw some light on the subject.—Yours, etc.,

E. BANKES JAMES.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.*NORTH BUCKS BRANCH.

A quarterly meeting of the above branch was held at Newport Pagnell on Saturday, March 4th, when about 40 members attended from Blechley, Beauchampton, Calverton, Chicheley, Emberton, Linslade, Old Bradwell, Olney, Stony Stratford, Fenny Stratford, Stoke Goldington, Tringham, and the local tower. The bells a splendid peal of eight, were set going at 2.30 p.m. The Rector (the Rev. L. Moxon) officiated at a short service, and gave a very interesting address. The reverend gentleman has only recently been inducted to the living of Newport Pagnell, and was quite new to the members of the branch; but he expressed the hope of knowing them more, and was enrolled as an honorary member. Tea was served, and afterwards the Secretary proposed a most hearty vote of thanks to the Rector and all who had assisted him in making the meeting successful. This was suitably responded to, and a further visit was then paid to the tower. The methods rung during the afternoon and evening ranged from Grandsire and Stedman Triples to Double Norwich Major. This proved one of the most successful meetings of the year.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A successful meeting of the Biggleswade district was held at Eaton Socon on Saturday, March 4th. The business meeting followed ringing during the afternoon. Miss E. Steel (vice-president) was in the chair, and members and friends were present from Bedford, Biggleswade, Emsbury, Great Stanton, Potton, Roxton, Sandy, Tempsford, and the local company.

Four new members of Eaton Socon were elected, and Potton was chosen for the next meeting, of which notice will appear in 'The Ringing World.'

A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the local company for having everything ready, was passed.—Mr. Smith responded for the local company.

The methods rung during the afternoon and evening ranged from Plain Bob to Woodbine.

THE LONGEST LENGTH OF LONDON.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—I am quite sure that Mr. Lindoff was honestly mistaken when he wrote his first letter; but most of his statements in that letter were inaccurate, because, instead of writing to me about the matter, he proceeded to guess how I had got the peal, and his guesses were all wrong.

His letter in last week's 'Ringing World' shows that he has been further into the matter, and so he has corrected several of his mistaken guesses, but there is still one point which he has failed to find out, and one guess which he cannot correct.

He is quite mistaken in supposing that I took his courses to build my peal. I had the 65 true courses of London in 1895, and put together a 7,840 on June 27th in that year, and there I stopped, as I was trying to put them together by calling the tenor M 5th W H, and never thought of moving the tenor. When the 14,122 appeared, I got out my courses and found that it contained 63 of my 65, and I was quite convinced that it was the longest peal that could be got in the method. There the matter rested, until the 12,000 of Bristol was rung, and then the conductor asked me for a longer peal of London than the 14,122. I replied that I would try, but I believed that it was impossible. I then examined Mr. Lindoff's peal to see if my idea that it was the limit was correct, and found that it could not be added to in any possible way. I had, therefore, to find a new set of courses or give the matter up. It took several years to get the new set of courses 64 in number, and then it took four more years to put them together, and that brings me to the fact which Mr. Lindoff has not found out. Call the tenor I, Q and 4th; also call the tenor I, M, M, W, W, and 4th, and you get the same result, and that is the key to the composition. Take my peal, drop the three bobs with the tenor in 5th's 2578463, 7258463 and 5728463, and the peal drops into three main blocks, one of these is Middleton's well-known peal of Cambridge, which also runs in London; the second is a plain course 4732658. The third is a round block 4537628, the third course in the peal to 643527, the 39th course end followed by M and I. Take that round block and plain every complete Q set in it, and we get this touch

2763548	M
3657248	M W
2547638	4th

Finally, Mr. Lindoff claims the peal because most of the changes happen to be the same. I would refer him to Mr. Jasper Snowden's remarks on page 92 in the first edition of Grandsire.

H. LAW JAMES.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Dunster branch of the above was held at Cutcombe recently, when just over 40 ringers attended, representing Timberscombe, Carhampton, Minehead, Withycombe, Wootton Courtenay, Selworthy, and the local band. The ringing during the afternoon and evening included Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Oxford, Kent and Bob Minor. The usual service in the church was well attended, the Vicar (the Rev. G. L. Fitzmaurice) officiating, and giving an eloquent address based upon the words, 'For my brethren and companions' sake I wish you prosperity; because of the house of the Lord our God I will seek to do good.'

After the service, the Vicar and Mrs. Fitzmaurice very kindly entertained the company to a splendid tea, which was laid in the reading-room, kindly lent for the occasion, Mrs. H. Norman and other local ladies looking after the guests. The Vicar presided, and also took the chair at the business meeting which followed.

The Secretary pointed out that it was very essential that with such a large deanery and increasing numbers of members they should have a good chairman, and he was pleased to say they had in their present chairman an ideal gentleman for the position, and they could not do better than re-elect him.—Mr. G. Atkins proposed, and Mr. Harold Arscott seconded, that the Rev. G. L. Fitzmaurice be re-elected chairman; and this being put to the meeting it was carried by acclamation.

On the proposition of Mr. Harris Arscott, seconded by Mr. H. Phillips, Mr. G. Stacey was re-elected hon. local secretary.—Mr. H. Phillips was elected committeeman to serve on the central committee, and Mr. W. Hoyle was re-elected Ringing Master. — Two new members were elected from Cutcombe and two from Carhampton, and Timberscombe was chosen as the next place of meeting, to be held in May if possible.

Mr. Stacey proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Fitzmaurice for their hospitality in providing tea, also for the service in the church, and the use of the bells, and to the ladies who assisted in making them so welcome.—A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Hayes for presiding at the organ. This concluded the business, and the tower was again visited.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Fylde Branch was held at Holy Trinity, South Shore, on Saturday, February 25th. Touches of Plain Bob, Little Bob, Kent, Oxford and Woodbine Treble Bob were successfully brought round, and courses of Bob Major and Grandsire Triples were also rung, double-handed, by: Messrs. A. Hague, W. Wilde, F. Greenwood, C. Sharples and C. N. Sharples. Several members who had never heard double-handed handbell ringing before expressed their delight and appreciation.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Lytham Parish Church.

REAL DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE SURPRISE MAJOR.

FIRST PEAL RUNG AT SUNDERLAND.

In 'Clavis Campanologia,' published in 1788, appears the method 'Superlative Surprise,' which the authors state 'is an original composition of our own on purpose for this work, and has never yet been rung: the principle upon which it is founded will, we doubt not, give it credit with the amateurs of the art, for on inspection it will plainly appear the most even Treble Bob peal that has hitherto been discovered, and if practised, will produce most excellent music. N.B.—The above method may be rung with bobs behind and before, like real double.'

Peals of Superlative Surprise have been rung for a hundred years past, but we have had to wait until the year 1922 for the first peal of real Double Superlative Surprise Major. This was accomplished at Sunderland on Thursday of last week.

To Mr. Joseph W. Parker belongs the initiative of composing a peal on the double bob basis, and below is given the composition rung at Sunderland. Real Double Superlative is, we are informed, enjoyable to ring, but variations in composition are extremely limited.

5,280, by JOSEPH W. PARKER.

62534	x	x	x		= 5 leads
46325	x	x	x
63425	x	x			= 6 leads
56234	x	x	x
45362	x	x	x
24653	x	x	x
46253	x	x
34562	x	x	x
23645	x	x	x
36245	x	x
53462	x	x	x
25634	x	x	x
34625	x	x			x = 7 leads
53246	x	x	x
32546	x	x
25346	x	x
62453	x	x	x
36524	x	x	x
65324	x	x
53624	x	x
45236	x	x	x
52436	x	x
24536	x	x

Repeat last 7 courses.

The bobs are in pairs. The first in the middle of the lead when the treble is behind, the second at the lead end immediately following.

First rung at the Church of S. Ignatius-the-Martyr, Sunderland, on Thursday, March 9th, 1922, conducted by William H. Barber.

For an equal three-part peal add bobs at 5 in the seventh course, omit the bobs at 4 in the ninth course, and repeat the first ten courses, as altered, twice.

In the reverse variation the first bob of the pair is when the treble leads, the second in the middle of the lead immediately following.

Reverse variation of 5,280 (three part).

34256			x	x
25634	x		x	x
63425	x		x	x
34825			x	x
62534	x		x	x
53462	x		x	x
46253	x		x	x
36524		x	x	x
52436	x		x	x
24536			x	x

Repeat twice.

The numbers of the leads given over the bobs in this reverse variation are as they occur in a plain course, the first bob coming at the beginning of each lead. The effect of the two bobs at 5 cuts out the sixth lead, thus the four bobs at 5, 7, come together.

WICKEN COURT.

Having rung on January 31st, 720 of Method No. 27, page 7 of the Central Council's Collection at Wicken, Northants, the band desire to name it 'Wicken Court.' The ringers were: G. Cooper 1, T. Roberts 2, F. Case 3, E. C. Lambert 4, A. J. Green (conductor) 5, T. Read 6.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

ROCHESTER DISTRICT AND THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The half-yearly meeting of the Rochester District was held at Gillingham, on Saturday, February 25th, and a good number attended from the towers in the district, over 40 being present. The bells were going at 3, and later a service was held in the church conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. C. E. Webb), Mr. W. E. Pitman, Mus.Bac., Canterbury, being at the organ. Tea followed in the Memorial Hall, and was followed by a business meeting, over which the Vicar presided.

Seventeen new members were elected, including the Vicar of Gillingham, who was made an hon. member of the Association.

A proposition by the district secretary (Mr. F. M. Mitchell), re alteration in the meetings, was carried unanimously, and it was decided to hold the meetings in the months of January, April (half-yearly), July and October (annual), as at the latter meeting the district could have the balance sheet and report placed before them, previous to the annual committee meeting in November.

Two towers were proposed for the next meeting.

On being put to the vote, Cobham was chosen for April meeting.

The date of the Association's annual meeting was again discussed, initiated by Mr. W. Harper, and it was unanimously decided that in the opinion of the district the date was too early, and the District Secretary was instructed to have the matter placed on the agenda for discussion at the annual general meeting.

The District Secretary proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for his excellent address, and for presiding over the meeting, and on behalf of the Association, heartily welcomed him as an honorary member. He also conveyed the thanks of the district to Mr. Pitman for his services at the organ.—The Chairman, in responding, said he was pleased to welcome the Association to Gillingham, and to become an hon. member, as he realised the amount of good they were doing for the church. He spoke in well-deserved praise of the amount of good work done at Gillingham by the captain of their band, Mr. William Haigh, who had toiled with the ringers continuously for 40 years, and without whose help he did not know how they would get on. He would be pleased to welcome them on his lawn at some future date in the summer.

A collection at the close of the service for the County War Memorial realised 14s., and during the meeting the collecting cards for that object were circulated among the members, Mr. Harper urging all to do their best, and try and make the memorial an accomplished fact.

Fourteen towers in the district were represented, and ringing from call changes to Cambridge and Superlative was indulged in during the day, the bells being lowered at 9 o'clock.

DEATH OF MR. P. L. COOPER.

LOSS TO THE YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

It is with regret that we have to announce the death of Mr. Percy Lawrence Cooper, of Holbeck, Leeds, who passed away on Wednesday, February 22nd, from pneumonia following influenza.

The deceased first commenced ringing at Wigston Magna, near Leicester, and owed much of his early instruction to Mr. F. H. Dexter, of Leicester. Coming to Leeds some fourteen years ago he attached himself to Holbeck tower, and remained in close connection with that tower until his death, at the early age of 34 years. When the Yorkshire Association was divided into districts in 1914, the deceased was elected secretary of the Western Division, and it is largely owing to his untiring efforts that the division is in the present flourishing condition, and much regret is felt at the loss of so able and zealous a worker for the Association.

The funeral took place on Saturday, February 25th the first part of the service being taken at St. Matthew's, Holbeck by the local clergy, assisted by the Rev. C. C. Marshall (president of the Yorkshire Association), a large congregation being present representing the choir, of which the deceased was secretary, the Church Brotherhood, and the local Midland Railway offices (where the deceased was employed), together with many ringers. The Rev. E. N. Deane read the committal prayers at the graveside, after which a plain course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells, by: J. R. Kemp 1—2, P. J. Johnson 3—4, W. Barton 5—6, J. Ambler 7—8.

Mr. G. B. Bolland, the vice-president of the Yorkshire Association, together with Mr. J. Cotterell, the treasurer, and many other well-known ringers, were present. Much sympathy is felt with Mrs. Cooper and her son in their bereavement, while the loss sustained by the Exercise will be deeply and widely felt by all who knew and had worked with the deceased.

WORSLEY.—Lancashire Association.—On Friday, February 17th, in 49 mins., a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples: W. Gundy 1, J. Ridyard 2, W. Jones 3, S. Harrison 4, F. Grundy 5, P. H. Derbyshire 6, J. H. Ridyard (conductor) 7, A. Burton 8. Rung for confirmation service by the Bishop of Burnley.

WEST DIDSbury.—On Friday evening, Feb. 24th, for confirmation service, at Christ Church, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples: W. Savage 1, W. Brown 2, F. Brickell, junr., 3, A. Frost 4, R. Brickell 5, F. Brickell, senr., 6, R. Davies (conductor) 7, A. Carr 8. * Longest length.

BUSINESS FIRST.

Easter, fast approaching, will, as usual, bring with it numerous gatherings of ringers, and among them, several annual meetings. In the weeks that follow the festival, also, there will be a number of important association meetings, and it is not out of place to remind ringers that it is by the keenness which they display in these proceedings that the measure of their interest, in the organisations to which they belong, can best be measured. The Associations exist for the promotion of change-ringing, and it is by associated action in dealing with the principles of belfry work that the best results will be attained.

Not infrequently, however, members who attend the annual meeting of their Association are much more anxious to get through the business and away to the towers, than to discuss matters which would be to the well-being of their organisation. There are many subjects of interest which could be debated with advantage, but the primary object seems to be to dispose of the agenda as quickly as possible so that there may be more time for ringing. In our opinion this is not the view that should be taken of the occasion of an annual meeting. The business should be, as in some cases, of course, it is, the main consideration, especially in those instances where an Association helps to defray railway expenses. Where the annual gathering is made merely an opportunity for an orgy of ringing, we think the two things should be divided. Have a ringing festival by all means, but when ringers assemble for an annual business meeting, let the business have first claim.

This would not only benefit the Associations themselves, by encouraging more discussion on questions which should be their serious concern, but might lead to a wider interest in ringing affairs. It would encourage ringers to introduce subjects affecting the general welfare of the Exercise and the advancement of the art, which could be forwarded to the Central Council for wider discussion. In this way the Associations, as we have pointed out before, could make the Council a more useful body, and extend its influence. At present, we should think, there is on an average not more than one motion a year which comes to the Council at the direct request of an Association—and there are some forty affiliated bodies. Those Associations which are meeting at Easter might lead the way for a fresh practice by ventilating subjects of general interest and getting them placed on the Council's agenda by their representatives. If this could be done, it might prove the opening up of a new phase of usefulness for the Council, which has been blamed in the past for inactivity, but which has been offered little or no encouragement by the bodies who are responsible for its existence, once the representatives have been elected.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A quarterly meeting of the Ely Diocesan Association which was held at Tilney All Saints, was attended by members from Holbeach, Wisbech, Walpole St. Andrew, Shouldham and Watlington. Through the kindness of the Vicar (the Rev. E. V. Smith) the bells of the Parish Church were placed at the disposal of the ringers for the afternoon and evening, and the ringing included 720 Bob Minor, by: T. W. Williamson 1, W. G. Cross 2, J. B. Hallifax 3, F. Lightening 4, F. Rose (conductor) 5, T. Price 6. Touches of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob were also rung. Tea was provided at the Bell Inn, the Vicar presiding. A letter of apology for absence was received from the Diocesan Secretary (Miss V. Shorter).

It was arranged that the annual meeting of the Association should be held at Cambridge on Easter Monday, and the Vicar was elected an honorary member of the Association. Master Tony Price 'tapped' a course of Double Norwich Major on the piano.

'PRINCESS MARY' SURPRISE ROYAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Allow me to congratulate Mr. Craven on his new method, 'Princess Mary,' which I consider is one of the best ten-bell methods ever discovered. From the diagram it should be by no means difficult to ring, and I trust it will have the success it deserves. Personally, if it were my method, I should add 2nd's place at the lead end, so that 4th's place bob might be used instead of 8th's place; and then all the place-making would begin and end with a single dodge.

Curiously enough 'Bristol' was one of the methods I was thinking of when writing the letter published in to-day's 'Ringing World.'

Bristol Royal and Maximus both have different simple transposition rows at the lead-end, and both differ from Bristol Major. I discovered both of these in September last year, only to find that Mr. Trollope had discovered them nine or ten years previously. There can be no question whatever about the method being the same from Minor to Maximus, and later on, with your permission, I will illustrate how the method of 'Bristol' is evolved from Single Court Minor. — Yours faithfully,

GEORGE BAKER.

Brighton, March 3rd.

Dear Sir,—With reference to 'Princess Mary,' I find I have given the first lead end 1352749608, which ought to be 1573920486. The alteration is effected with making 2nd's place, when treble leads. I ought also to have mentioned that it will extend to Maximus or any number upwards.—Yours truly,

ARTHUR CRAVEN.

Mr. Fred Dench writes that the method published by Mr. A. Craven as Bristol Surprise Royal was published, together with the Maximus, in 'The Ringing World' on December 3rd, 1915.

A 60th BIRTHDAY PEAL.

Born in a picturesque old thatched house in the quiet little village of West Meon, Hants, on March 16th, 1862, Mr. Francis Edward Dawe, who for many years was actively associated with ringing in London, and now resides at Guildford, returned to his native hearth last week to celebrate his 60th birthday by a peal on the church bells, as he did ten years ago on the occasion of his jubilee. To leave nothing to chance Mr. Dawe got together an excellent band of members of the London County Association, and thanks to the ready co-operation of London friends and Messrs. G. Williams (Southampton) and J. George (Birmingham) the peal was safely accomplished. Overnight, however, matters had not looked too promising. When Mr. Dawe reached the village he was given a hearty welcome by the local men, but while ringing was in progress the clapper of the tenor broke just above the ball, and the village blacksmith had to work late to effect the necessary repairs.

After the peal of Stedman Triples in the morning (for which Mr. E. Alex. Young, hon. secretary of the Central Council, kindly attended as reserve man), the bells were 'fired,' and a group photograph taken on the steps of the church.

A substantial lunch was partaken of at the Red Lion Hotel, and congratulatory speeches were made. The party then visited the thatched cottage where Mr. Dawe first saw the light, and afterwards drove by brake to East Meon, where a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was attempted at All Saints' Church—a grand old Norman structure. After nearly two hours' ringing, however, the attempt had to be abandoned, owing to the 'bumpy' go of the tenor when turned in. The band comprised: T. Walker 1, T. H. Taffender 2, C. F. Winney 3, J. Bullock 4, G. A. Card 5, A. D. Barker 6, J. George 7, F. E. Dawe (conductor) 8.

After tea, at West Meon, the party returned to town by the last train, and Mr. Dawe takes this opportunity of most heartily thanking the Rev. W. H. Thomas, Rector of West Meon, for his cordial permission to ring, and Messrs. Gregory and Todd for their assistance in making the visit a success; also the Rev. A. S. Crawley, M.C., Vicar of East Meon, for his ready permission, and Mr. H. Blackman, the head ringer, for his exceedingly kind attention.

The ringing chamber at East Meon Church can only be reached in church by means of an iron structure, which is unique, and has to be seen to be fully appreciated. The last part of the way is compared to the entrance to a tomb's nest!

Mr. Dawe has taken part in numerous excellent achievements in his long ringing career, but on this occasion it is particularly interesting to recall that he conducted a peal of Grand sire Caters on his 20th birthday at St. Clement Danes, and a peal of Stedman Cinques from the 11th at St. Saviour's, Southwark, on his 21st birthday. He also had the gratification of conducting a peal of Triples on the golden wedding day of his own father and mother, and a year later, on that of his wife's parents.

BELLS' ANNIVERSARY.

The 25th anniversary of the opening of the bells at Chorley, Lancashire, was celebrated on Monday, March 13th, when 1,280 Grand sire Triples was rung in 45 minutes: G. Hewitt 1, G. Brindle 2, R. Clayton 3, T. Lofthouse 4, J. H. Gartside, junr. 5, F. Rigby (conductor) 6, J. Booth (Standish) 7, H. Southworth (longest length) 8. The ringers of 1 and 4 were present at the opening ceremony.

THE EXTENSION OF METHODS.

Last week we considered the extension of Little Methods, and it will be noticed that I never mentioned the fact that the treble could make 2nd's place. I omitted that fact because it is the foundation of Kent and Oxford Treble Bob. In clearing the ground of misconception before considering Double Norwich, I mentioned coursing order, and gave a series of diagrams, beginning with Minimus; now we must go back to those diagrams, and anyone who wishes to understand Treble Bob must put those diagrams into the proper shape and study them. The first is printed thus: 2 a 3 b 4 c 2.

Draw a clock face, put 2 at twelve o'clock, 3 at four o'clock, and 4 at eight o'clock, and the next 2 will come at twelve o'clock again; put a at two o'clock, b at six o'clock, and c at ten o'clock, and treat the other diagrams up to Minimus in the same way. Now go back to Double Oxford and notice that the place-making moves the treble from a to b, and then to c, etc., so that in Shipway's mistaken Minimus we get 14263850719e, as the first lead end, and we have gone completely round the clock face, as the clock goes a step at a time from a between 2 and 3 to k between 2 and 4.

Take the plain hunting course, hunt the treble up into 2nd's place and make it; 2 leads a whole pull and 4 dodges back into 4th's place; the treble is now at k between 2 and 4, but she has got there by moving one step backwards instead of going round the clock face a step at a time; she then leads again and we get the course on six bells as shown at side.

This is the foundation of Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, the Treble being the bell in the slow, and you will notice that the Lead Heads and Lead Ends of this course of twenty changes are the same as those of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob.

Now to develop the method, and we will take Oxford. We have 214365, and then write 124356. We make 3rd's and 4th's instead of 1st's and 2nd's, and the 2nd is now in the hunt instead of the treble, and so we ring the course, the treble being a working bell until she comes back into 1-2. She then dodges with the 2nd again, while 3rd's and 4th's are made, and we have got back to 214356, the treble being in the hunt once more. The same thing happens in every lead, and the bell in the hunt never gets above 2nd's place; therefore, in extending the method we must always move the treble one step backwards among the working bells, and there is only one shunt in Minor, and that a shunt backwards; and the Major, Royal and Minimus which have come down to us are easily seen to be the correct extension. Next week we will consider Cambridge. H. LAW JAMES.

WHY ST. EDMUNDSBURY?

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I was surprised to see in 'The Ringing World' the peal rung at Wrentham, Suffolk, booked to the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury, and Ipswich Association, May I ask: Why the additional word St. Edmundsbury? If the ringers of St. Edmundsbury Branch had wished to amalgamate with the Norwich and Ipswich Association, they would have done so a year ago; instead of turning down the repeated offers extended to them by the N. and I.A. Surely this is plain to all concerned.

The Suffolk Association for the whole of the new Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich has come to stay, and with the help of its head, the Bishop (and, may I add, Suffolk ringers) intends to do its best to 'work up' a strong association, which I feel confident, the ringers of Suffolk will in the near future support and uphold, knowing it to be a just claim.—Yours, S. H. SYMONDS.

Lavenham.

P.S.—I am not blaming the ringer who sent the peal to 'The Ringing World.'

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

PRESENTATION TO FOUNDER OF THE FURNESS BRANCH.

The half-yearly meeting of the Furness and Lake District Branch was held in the picturesque old town of Kendal, on Saturday, March 11th, when between 20 and 30 ringers, including four ladies, from Ambleside, Broughton-in-Furness, Dalton-in-Furness, Kendal, Penwortham, and Silverdale, were enabled to have an enjoyable day, and rang touches of Plain and Treble Bob, Grandsire and Stedman on the ten bells of the Parish Church until a late hour.

Following tea, kindly provided by the Kendal ringers the meeting was held, and over which Mr. Atkinson (Kendal) presided, Ambleside was chosen for the annual meeting in September, and Ulverston for the quarterly ringing meeting in June.

A vote of condolence was passed with the widow of the late Mr. John Braithwaite, an old and respected member of the Kendal tower.

Opportunity was also taken of presenting the former secretary of the branch, Mr. Robinson (Ambleside) with a silver inkstand with a suitable inscription thereon, and Mrs. Robinson with a silver brooch, as a slight appreciation of the services which he had rendered in forming the branch in 1905, and carrying out the secretarial duties until last year.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the Kendal ringers for their hospitality, concluded the meeting.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The incident mentioned by the Rev. E. Banks James in our last issue as taking place on the occasion of 'the first peal of Double Norwich in the City of Bristol,' on March 11th, 1893, brings the information from Mr. F. G. Newman that the first peal of Double Norwich in the city of Bristol was rung on May 19th, 1891, at the Church of St. Mary-le-Port. It was composed and conducted by Mr. J. W. Washbrook, and the other ringers were the Rev. H. A. Cockey, W. H. Paddeck, H. H. Tucker, Tom Blackbourne, F. G. Newman, Richard French and the Rev. F. E. Robinson. It was rung under the joint auspices of the College Youths and the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association.

On March 23rd, 1837, Elijah Roberts tapped the peal of 19,440 Kent Treble Bob Maximus ('the full extent of the changes with the large bells at home'), in 13 hours 43 minutes.

In view of the recent controversy, which we do not intend to reopen, we must be very careful what we say about this performance, but we may, perhaps, be permitted to note that in a carefully kept book of cuttings upon interesting ringing events, Mr. Henry Johnson, of Birmingham, has preserved the record of this and other peals tapped by Elijah Roberts.

The Press cutting under notice begins as follows: 'In the manly and scientific art of change ringing Elijah Roberts is the most accomplished and unparalleled change ringer upon the handbells the world has hitherto produced.'

The 27th March is the anniversary of two noteworthy long peals. One, 12,000 Treble Bob Royal, rung in 1784, stood for more than a century as the record in the method. It was rung by the Cumberland Youths at Shoreditch, and was the culminating effort of long rivalry between the Cumberlands and College Youths for the longest length to be rung single-handed.

The peal occupied 9 hrs. 5 mins., and the tenor was rung by Allen Grant. George Gross composed and called the peal and writing in 'Treble Bob' as late as 1878, the late Jasper Snowden says it 'is probably the most wonderful performance recorded in the annals of change ringing.'

The other long peal of March 27th was rung in 1815, a 10,008 Grand sire Caters at New College, Oxford.

Berks and Bucks ringers cannot go to Boyne Hill on Easter Monday, as the rehangings will not be completed by then. Wooburn, Bucks, offers the branch a welcome for the afternoon and evening, with service and tea, followed by business meeting. In the morning, Slough and Cookham towers will be open, via G.W.Ry., and Beaconsfield and High Wycombe via Great Central Railway. The programme will follow in 'The Ringing World.'

Thirty years ago to-day was rung the first peal in which a lady took a pair of handbells. This was at 49, Clifton Street, Brighton, then the residence of Mr. George Williams, and the quartette which rang the peal (Grandsire Triples) were Mrs. G. Williams, Tom Blackbourne, George Williams and A. P. Goldard. That was an epoch-making event, for Mrs. Williams led the way to ladies taking an interest in ringing, which large numbers have followed since.

A short time ago the 5th bell at Hodnet, Salop (weighing about 11 cwt.), came down in the frame with a broken gudgeon. It has since been 'rehung' by the local blacksmith.

REAL DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The footnote to the peal of real Double Superlative rung at Sunderland, and published in your issue of March 17th, states, 'it is believed to be the first time the method has been rung in this form.'

At St. Martin's, Leicester, we have been ringing it for the last two years. I have compositions of Superlative constructed on the double bob plan up to and including several of over 10,000 in one, two and three parts, the best of which contains over 9,000 with tenors together, including 59 homes. It certainly liven's up Superlative having calls at both ends. The company who rang the peal at the first attempt are worthy of the best.—Yours truly, F. H. DEXTER.
50, Stuart Street, Leicester.

BRISTOL UNITED GUILD.

DATE OF NEXT ANNUAL DINNER.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In your leader of March 3rd you refer to the hope that Bristol will avoid clashing with London, Birmingham, or, perhaps, a Northern dinner. The latter, of course, is out of our mind for the moment; but the committee responsible for the Bristol feast have decided to hold their dinners in future on the second Saturday in January. Next year it will be held on January 13th. We shall be about midway between London (College Youths) and Birmingham (Henry Johnson Memorial). Mr. J. Gould, of Henbury, is Master for 1923 dinner.—Yours faithfully,
EDGAR GUISE.

Hon. Sec., Bristol United Guilds.

NORWICH & IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.*THE PROPOSED SUFFOLK EXTENSION.

A meeting of the Saxmundham District was held at Saxmundham on Saturday, March 18th, and was well attended, five districts and eleven towers being represented. Mr. C. F. Bailey (Leiston) presided at the business meeting, and welcomed the members, and explained the object of the meeting.

The Secretary (Mr. G. Wilson) read correspondence in respect of the Kelsall bells.—Several members protested against the attitude of the officials in giving way to one resident who had an objection to bells, thus allowing a good peal of eight to go into decay much to the regret of most of the parishioners.

The chief business was to discuss the newly-formed Suffolk Diocesan Association.—The Chairman and Secretary explained at some length the history of the association since its formation, and after several present had expressed disapproval of any kind of a split, and put forward the view that there ought to be joint working, it was proposed by Mr. W. Drew, and seconded by Mr. H. Hall, 'That this meeting approve of the resolution passed by the general committee of the Norwich and Ipswich Association, in January last, viz., that the Ipswich Branch be known henceforth as the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch, the branch to remain as heretofore united with the Norwich branch, to be known as the Norwich Diocesan Branch, forming together one association, covering the two dioceses to be known in the future as the Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association.'—This resolution was carried unanimously.

It was decided to hold further meetings in the district, to be arranged by the secretary at an early date.

The bells of the parish church were well used, and good touches were brought round; also several touches on the handbells kindly lent by Mr. F. Watling.

A vote of thanks to the chairman, and to the Vicar for the use of the bells, brought a successful meeting to a close.

SUPERLATIVE SURPRISE ROYAL.*THE FIRST PEAL.

Conclusive evidence of the ringing of the first peal of Superlative Surprise Royal has reached us through Mr. William Lomas, of Sheffield, who sends us a copy of the record of the peal, apparently issued at the time of the performance, which took place at Wakefield Parish Church on March 27th, 1826. Mr. Lomas informs us that he found it among his late father's papers, and thinks it must have been forwarded originally by the Wakefield ringers to his grandfather, William Hudson.

In addition to the record, the method and composition are given, and the figures of the former show it to be the method published as Superlative Surprise Royal, by Shipway, in 1816. Surmounted by a small woodcut of the church where the peal was rung, the record, which we are sure will interest our readers, is as follows:

On MONDAY, March 27th, 1826, the COMPANY of All-Saints RINGERS, Wakefield, ascended the Tower of the Parish Church, and had the honor of Ringing, in a masterly style, a true and complete Peal of Superlative Surprise Royal, consisting of 5400 Changes, in Three Hours and Twenty-Six Minutes, by TEN MEN only. (Tenor weighing 31 cwt.) The great superiority of this Peal over any other is it being the only true Peal ever rung in the Kingdom in so intricate a method, and will be a standing laurel for the Society for ages to come. The Peal was composed by Mr. JOSEPH TEBBS, of Leeds, and was by him presented to this Society, and rung by them at the first attempt. The Peal was nobly conducted by Mr. WILLIAM WOODHEAD, and Rung by the following Persons:—

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.*BISHOP OF SHEFFIELD AT SOUTHERN DIVISION MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Southern Division took place at Handsworth, Sheffield, on Saturday, March 18th, and was one of the most successful ever held in the area. Ringers and friends were present from Sheffield Cathedral, St. Maries' and All Saints', Sheffield, Ecclesfield, Rawmarsh, Norton, Bolsterstone, Wortley, Rotherham, Arksey, Doncaster, Ranmoor, Barnsley, Wath, Dore, Eckington, Mansfield, Chesterfield and Loughborough.

A service was held in the church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. W. A. Baker, M.A.), and the sermon was preached by the Lord Bishop of Sheffield, who referred to the great changes which had been brought about in church life in modern times. He said that those who had had to do with church matters as long as he had—over 45 years—knew perfectly well that the state of religion and the Church was far better now than ever it had been. He desired to impress upon them, contrary to what the newspapers said, and contrary to what many of our able and clever men said, that it was a pure myth to suppose that the times in church life were worse to-day than they were in the past.

After service, tea was partaken of in the Schoolroom, about 80 sitting down to a very substantial and well-served meal. The business meeting followed, the Bishop of Sheffield being in the chair, supported by the Rev. Lee Nicholls (Vicar of Ranmoor), the Rev. P. Wright (Vicar of St. Silas, Sheffield), the Rev. B. F. Sheppard (Sheffield Cathedral), and the Rector of Handsworth (the Rev. W. A. Baker).

Mr. G. Halksworth (Doncaster), the retiring Ringing Master, was elected for another term of three years, and Messrs. Cockey (Ranmoor), Panther (Wath-on-Dearne), and Wooler (Wortley), were chosen to service on the committee for three years. Two honorary members, the Rev. W. G. Largie, M.A., Vicar of All Saints', Sheffield, and Mr. Smith, School House, Conisbrough, were elected, as were the following ringing members: Messrs. G. Nolin and B. Ditcher (Eckington), H. Hirst (St. Maries'), W. Bingham (Dore), A. Firth (Rawmarsh), J. A. Brearley (Bolsterstone), J. Parkin (Wortley), J. H. Last, and ten of the local company, viz., Misses M. Gough and E. Hopkins, and Messrs. W. Taylor, H. Buckler, W. Godden, H. Wilson, F. Cardwell, J. Garth, P. Downing and J. Taylor.

Tickhill was chosen for the next meeting, on June 17th.

Votes of thanks to the Bishop for his address, to the Rector and churchwardens for the use of the bells, to the local company and their ladies for the most excellent tea, and their hearty welcome brought a successful meeting to a close.

The methods rung during the afternoon and evening included Grand-sire and Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob, Bob Major, College Single Major and Double Norwich.

ELLAND BELLS REOPENED.

On Saturday last, the bells of St. Mary's Church Elland, were officially opened by a representative gathering of ringers from Selby, Tong, Bradford, Dewsbury, Earlsheaton, Birstal, Armitage, Bridge, Shelley, Kirkheaton, Meltham, Huddersfield, Kirkburton, Lightcliffe, Halifax, Leeds, and other places. A special service was held in the church, an address being given by the Archdeacon of Huddersfield (the Rev. R. O. M. Harvey) on the art of change ringing. He commented on the ignorance that prevailed among the outside public on the subject of change ringing, which was an exclusive art, and said that it ought always to be the aim of a ringer not to rest content until he had explored further fields.

After the service, over 100 sat down to tea in the Parish Room, and during the afternoon and evening, until 9 p.m., the bells were kept going in various Minor and Major methods, after which the handbells were brought into use, and brought to a close one of the most pleasant gathering of ringers that the town of Elland has had for some years.

The easy running of the bells added much to the pleasure of those who had the chance of having a pull. G. H. S.

WORCESTERSHIRE AND DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION.

On Saturday, March 11th, the first monthly meeting of the Western District was held at Leigh, when about 25 members were present. A pleasant afternoon's outing and a useful practice was the result, touches in various methods from Doubles to Surprise Minor being rung, including Superlative, Cambridge, London and Wells Surprise Minor.

It was decided to hold the next practice at Upton Snodsbury on April 8th.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

At the Church of the Holy Cross, Milton, Northampton, on Thursday, March 16th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles (1,260 changes) was rung in 50 mins.: A. Turner 1, C. Yates 2, R. Asplin 3, J. Townsend (conductor) 4, P. Asplin 5. This was the first quarter-peal by all the ringers, and believed to be the longest touch on the bells. The average age of the band is 21 years. Change ringing was commenced last October.

APPLETON BELLS AND RINGERS.*KEEPING OF A CENTURY-OLD FESTIVAL.

On Saturday, March 4th, this renowned Berkshire village duly celebrated the 104th anniversary of its famed bells and ringers. Commencing with a well-struck peal of Grandsire Caters in the morning, particulars of which appear in the usual peal columns, a cold luncheon was served at the Thatched Tavern, to which visitors and peal ringers sat down. Further touches of 'Trobles Ten, Stedman Caters, and Triples followed in the tower, and in the evening a company of 35 enjoyed a most sumptuous meal, well served by Host and Hostess Brown at the Thatched Tavern. The Rector (the Rev. F. C. R. Jourdain, M.A.), of Pittsburg expedition fame, presided, supported by the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn (Master), and Mr. R. T. Hiboert (secretary of the Oxford Diocesan Guild), Mr. G. H. Philott, and Mr. W. T. Pates, of Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, this being Mr. Philott's 50th attendance. Amongst others were Messrs. G. Caulwell (Drayton), F. Webb (Kidlington), Mrs. and Mr. A. E. Lock, and Mr. F. Barratt (Abingdon), Mr. J. W. Wilkins (High Wycombe), Mr. F. S. Macey (Smarden, Kent), Messrs. Holifields and Whites, of local fame, and others from neighbouring towers. The Master took the chair for the post-prandial proceedings, and after the toast of 'The King, the Master submitted 'The Appleton Society of Church Bell Ringers,' coupling with it the name of the Rector, whom he wished to thank for his presence, and also for the support and interest taken in his own band, and ringers generally, by permitting peals, especially long ones, to be attempted on his bells. He expressed pleasure at the splendid striking he had heard in the long peal attempt. He had hoped for its success, though he knew what difficulties had to be overcome in ringing such a long length, and the great strain on the conductor. With regard to the steeplekeeper, he could say of him that he looked after the bells in a most efficient manner, as evidenced by the excellent 'go' of the bells. Moreover, in Mr. R. White they had a very practical man doing good work in restoring bells in various parts of the country.

After the toast had been drunk, some really good ringing by the five brothers White on a peal of twenty handbells was enjoyed.—The Rector first responded, expressing his pleasure in taking part in their festival, and assuring the ringers of continued interest. He added the hope that the next attempt for the long peal would be successful.

The conductor, Mr. G. Holifield, senr., in responding, explained why they kept March 4th as an annual festival. In looking up old statistics he found that before the year 1818 Appleton tower contained only three bells, but in that year the lord of the manor either gave three more or had a new peal of six; and on the 4th of March, 1818, the village celebrated the event by holding a feast and general rejoicing. From that date, more than a century ago, the 4th of March has been an annual ringing festival. In 1858 two more bells were added by public subscription thus making a peal of eight. At a later date, the Rev. F. E. Robinson, the late Master of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, promised the Appleton men, on their ringing a peal of Stedman Triples, two more bells. This was accomplished, and the peal augmented to ten. That was the origin of these far-famed Appleton bells.

Finally, Mr. R. White thanked the company for mentioning his name in connection with the toast, and said he would always see that the bells could be rung with the same pleasure as at present.

The next toast was 'The Health of the Master.' Mr. Wilkins said they had in him one whom they loved, and who put his whole being into the many duties connected with his office. It could be safely said that his influence was felt in every part of the diocese, and in the matter of bells and ringing generally, throughout the ringing world.

Some first-rate glees and part-songs were given by the White and Holifield families, as well as courses of Grandsire Caters lapped by the five brothers White.—The Master, replying to the toast, expressed pleasure to be once more at Appleton. He imparted much valuable information appertaining to his official position as the Master of the Guild.

'The Guild Secretary, Mr. R. T. Hibbert,' was proposed by Mr. G. Holifield who said that, like their Master, Mr. Hibbert was the right man in the right place.

Mr. Hibbert briefly replied.

It may here be said that Mr. Jenkyn and Mr. Hibbert 'footed' the six miles from Oxford to Appleton, owing to the former gentleman's car 'shifting course,' but the return journey was made by Mr. Caulwell driving them in his car to Oxford.

As plenty of good songs were rendered, including some by the Master and secretary, the time passed pleasantly away, but before separating, 'The health of the Host and Hostess and those who kindly assisted to make "the 4th" a success,' was heartily pledged, and responded to.

A most enjoyable item was the rendering of a song composed by Mr. H. White about the peal 10,000 changes Grandsire Caters, rung in November, 1921, when he himself rang the sixth.

Mr. F. S. Macey, who has been staying in the district for some months, and who has taken an active part in the ringing accomplished, said that he would be leaving shortly for his home at Smarden, in Kent, but before doing so desired to express his thanks for the great kindness shown him whilst among them. He would carry with him happy recollections which he would always cherish, and the knowledge gained from them he would be glad to impart in his own particular district.

Mr. J. W. Wilkins associated himself with this expression. The most successful '4th' on record closed with the National Anthem, and the hope that all might meet in the same way for many years to come.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD.

The annual meeting of the Dudley and District Guild was held at St. Thomas' Parish Church, Dudley, on Saturday, March 4th. The bells (10) were kept going in various methods until 4 o'clock, when an adjournment was made to the Parish Hall, where the President (the Rev. A. H. Phelps, M.A., R.D.) conducted the Guild service, and also gave an inspiring address.

At the conclusion of the service, the company were entertained to tea in the Schoolrooms. The business meeting followed, with the President in the chair, the secretary reading an apology from the veteran ringer of the Guild, Mr. W. R. Small.

The annual report and balance sheet were read and adopted, with the usual thanks to the officers for their services during the past year.

The officers were all re-elected, with the addition of Mr. Cyril Lloyd to the list of vice-presidents.—Messrs. J. Hopson, R. Newton and A. Clarke, of Tipton, were elected ringing members.

The next quarterly peal is to be attempted at Dudley, and the next quarterly meeting held at Cradley.

It was also decided that reports of peals rung be sent to the secretary within one month, and that the monthly practice of the Guild be resumed, commencing on Monday, April 5th, and practices to follow on every first Monday in the month.—A hearty vote of thanks to the president, organist and the donors of the tea, and also to the ladies who had prepared same, was accorded, on the motion of Mr. H. Sheppard, seconded by Mr. Hughes.

The ringers, who included several ladies from Smethwick, then made their way to the belfry again, and concluded a pleasant meeting, with further touches on the bells.

ST. GILES' SOCIETY, [READING.]

On Saturday, February 25th, the annual meeting of the society was held at the Rising Sun Institute, when 23 members and friends, including the Vicar (the Rev. F. J. C. Gillmor) and the Rev. G. F. C. Bond, sat down to a capital supper, Mr. H. Egley being in the chair.

The balance sheet, etc., proved very satisfactory.—Mr. H. Egley was elected chairman; Mr. L. T. Osborne, secretary and treasurer; Mr. A. W. Osborne, captain; Mr. R. N. Runham, vice-captain.

Mr. Osborne thanked the members for their past support, and stated that good progress had been made during the last two years. Peals of Grandsire Triples, Bob Major and Double Norwich Court Bob Major had been successfully rung. Also a peal of Stedman Triples at Caversham by all ex-service ringers, five of whom were St. Giles' members, including Nurse E. M. Goodship. He also wished to take the opportunity of thanking their Vicar for his ready consent for a peal to be attempted.

The Vicar responded in words expressing good feeling towards his ringers.

The Rev. Bond also said he hoped to be able to come amongst them more in future now that he found he was welcome at any time to visit the tower.—Mr. H. Egley thanked the members for the honour conferred on him by being elected as their chairman, remarking on the very happy hours he had spent in the belfry with the ringers. He hoped to be among them for some years to come. He urged all to do their best in ringing and striking their bells, whatever the method they were attempting.

Harmony was indulged in for the rest of the evening, and two courses of Grandsire Triples were rung by H. Egley 1—2, L. T. Osborne 3—4, A. W. Osborne 5—6, H. Osborne 7—8. Songs were sung by Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. Egley, Mr. Cook, Mr. Coldrey, and last but not least, Miss D. Batten, whose vocal abilities were much applauded. Mr. Bond gave musical 'ditties,' as did Miss A. Titcombe and P. Barnes at the piano. The singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem brought to a close a most convivial evening.

DONCASTER & DISTRICT SOCIETY.

The February meeting was held at Adwick-le-Street on Saturday week. Ringing on the peal of six bells commenced at three o'clock, and continued until 8.30. Touches of Grandsire, Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob, Kent, Oxford, Violet and Cambridge Surprise were rung in good style.

It is the first time the last-named method has been rung at a meeting of this society.

Tea was partaken of in the Institute, and was presided over by Mr. G. Halksworth. At the business meeting 16 new members were elected, this being a record number for a single meeting.

The usual votes of thanks were passed, and Tickhill was chosen as the next place of meeting.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*EASTERN DIVISION.

The annual meeting of the Eastern Division was held at St. Saviour's, Eastbourne, on Saturday, February 25th, when members attended from Brighton (St. Peter's), Battle, Chiddingly, Lewes, Waldron, Hailsham, Hellingly, Pevensey, Mayfield, Eastbourne (St. Mary's, All Saints' and St. Saviour's). Messrs. E. Bray and A. Piper, unattached members, were also present. Ringing was indulged in at St. Saviour's during the afternoon, when the members attended Divine service, the address being given by the Rev. Canon Whelpton, M.A.

Tea was provided at St. Saviour's Parish Room, where about 40 members sat down, and at the business meeting which followed. Canon Whelpton presided, supported by the Rev. Maurice Hands and Col. A. A. Oakden, churchwarden.

The Vicar having welcomed the Association, the following members were elected: Mr. R. T. Lambert (non-resident life), Mr. P. G. Waymark, Eastbourne, Hellingly, with a membership of nine, was also elected as an affiliated tower.

The secretary's report was as follows: 'The year 1921 had been one of steady progress; four new towers had become affiliated, viz., Brightling, Eastbourne (St. Saviour's), Iden and Westham. Four divisional meetings had been held at Hastings, Bexhill, Battle and Mayfield, the attendance being good on each occasion. At the end of the year 1920 the Association finance was at a remarkably low ebb, but he was pleased to report that during the past year there had been a marked improvement, and that a balance of £21 19s. 5d. had been passed on to the hon. treasurer.'

Mr. G. W. Stokes was re-elected as hon. secretary, and Messrs. G. H. Howse, W. Franks and A. R. Miles on to the committee.

Mr. G. H. Howse proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar (the Rev. Canon Whelpton) for the use of the bells, and for his original address at the service that afternoon; also for the interest the Vicar and churchwarden took in the Association.

The Rev. C. H. Clarke (general secretary), in supporting, stated that it was with pleasure that he seconded the vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the tower in which they had been ringing, and to the choirboys and organist for their services. He was shortly leaving the Eastern Division, but hoped to attend the meetings occasionally.

The Vicar, in reply, thanked them for their kind remarks, which he would share with the churchwardens, the choirboys, and the lady who played the organ. It was the first time a meeting had been held at this church since he had been Vicar, and he hoped it would not be the last.

It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Rotherfield, circumstances permitting.

This terminated the business, and the ringers then proceeded to All Saints' and St. Mary's towers, where, through the kindness of the Rev. G. M. Hands and the Rev. Canon Streetfield, the bells were available during the evening, and well struck touches from Grandsire Triples to Superlative Major were brought home. Taken altogether it was a most successful meeting.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*MAIDSTONE DISTRICT.

A by-meeting of this district was held at East Malling on Saturday, February 25th. After ringing during the afternoon a service was held, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. W. H. Hamilton). Tea was served in the Institute, kindly provided by the Vicar and Mr. Bird (churchwarden), to which 40 sat down.

At the business meeting which followed, the Vicar took the chair, supported by Mr. Bird and Mr. T. Mannering (who acted as secretary, in the absence of Mr. S. Hazeldon through illness). Twenty-one new members were elected, including the Vicar and Mr. Bird as hon. members, and 19 ringing members from East Malling (10), Bearsted (5), St. Michael, Maidstone (3), East Farleigh (1). East Malling has four ladies who are making good progress in the art.

Mr. Mannering proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for arranging the service, and for his and Mr. Bird's kindness in providing the tea, which was very much appreciated.

Replies from both these gentlemen brought the business to a close, when a move was made to the tower for further ringing.

Much credit is due to Mr. L. Newman for the progress East Malling band has made, also for arranging the meeting, with the result that the tower has joined the Association, which was his special aim.

The towers represented at the meeting were Burnham, Bearsted, Boxley, East Farleigh, East Malling, East Peckham, Frittenden, Hutton, Linton, Maidstone (All Saints' and St. Michael), Mereworth, Deal, Chart, Tenterden, and West Malling.

The next meeting will take place at Leeds on April 29th.

GREAT ADDINGTON.—On Tuesday, March 7th, 720 Cambridge Surprise Minor: G. Roberts 1, G. Blaxley 2, J. Bulls 3, A. Hall 4, J. Hudson 5, F. Ball (conductor) 6. First 720 in the method by the ringers of the treble and 4th, and first as conductor by F. Ball.

GET OUT OF THE RUT.

Whenever it pauses to survey the position, the Exercise is inclined to pride itself upon the advances which it has made in the last three or four decades, and in some respects, such as, for instance, the wider practice of change ringing, and the generally improved condition of belfries, there is justification. But when we read of such a performance as that which we published last week as having been accomplished in 1826 at Wakefield, we begin to wonder whether, in method ringing, we have advanced very far in the last one hundred years. How many bands are there to-day who could do as these Yorkshiremen did a century ago, ring a peal of Superlative Surprise Royal at the first attempt? And we may be sure that the peal was very well rung, for with bad ringing and numerous trips a peal in such a method would never have been got home. To-day, Cambridge Surprise Royal is looked upon as practically the highest stage to which ten-bell ringing has reached. These men of Wakefield rang Cambridge Royal in 1822.

Except for the comparatively new method of Bristol Surprise, which has gained a deserved popularity among advanced ringers, what do ringers—with one or two exceptions—content themselves with in the higher methods?—Superlative, Cambridge and London. Superlative Surprise was rung at Huddersfield in 1821, Cambridge Surprise Major in London in 1783, and in Sheffield in 1787, London Surprise Major in Norwich in 1835, New Cambridge Major at Huddersfield in 1822, and, as we have seen, Cambridge Surprise Royal at Wakefield in 1822, and Superlative Royal by practically the same band in 1826. So that, after all, in point of the methods we ring, we have not gone far in the last one hundred years.

We are not belittling the performances of those who ring the same methods to-day, but when we compare the present facilities with those of the men who scored these early triumphs, can we say that we are showing the initiative that should be expected of us? It cannot be said that these methods are the limit of what are good among Surprise methods. We are not sure that it can even be said that they are the most difficult. What seems to be lacking is enterprise. There are among peal ringers to-day too many who look to 'scoring' more than they look to progress, and are content to ring methods in which they feel more or less certain of 'bagging' a peal. Some make no effort to get beyond Treble Bob or Double Norwich; others are content with such Surprise methods as are to them as familiar as Grandsire. We need more bands like the men of Leiston, and like the ringers of Whitley Bay, who will lift the practice of ringing out of the rut.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

WESTERN DIVISION'S LOSS.

The annual meeting of the Western Division of the Yorkshire Association was held at Liversedge, on Saturday last. Some forty ringers took advantage of the opportunity of using the fine peal of bells cast by Dobson, of Downham Market, in 1815, and kept them going throughout the afternoon and evening in a variety of methods.

At the business meeting, a vote of condolence with the widow of the late Mr. P. L. Cooper was carried, the members rising in their seats as a last tribute of respect to one to whom the division owes much of its success. The quiet yet effective manner in which the deceased carried out the secretarial duties of the Division won him the respect of all who came in contact with him. In Mr. Cooper the Association lost an able and willing helper, and his early death leaves the Exercise all the poorer, and the sympathy of his Association goes out to Mrs. Cooper and her son in their bereavement.

It was decided if possible to hold the next meeting of the Division in June at Skipton, and, failing there, that the secretary try to make the necessary arrangements at Gargrave.

Mr. F. Hopwood was elected Secretary of the Division, Mr. J. Broadley being appointed as Ringing Master. It was decided to fill the two vacant seats on the District Committee (caused by the elevation of these two gentlemen to official positions) at the June meeting.

A long discussion took place concerning an annual dinner of the Association, and the matter was eventually left for the general meeting at Pontefract to decide.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar and wardens of Liversedge was replied to by the Vicar (the Rev. F. Clare, M.A.), who produced the parish log book and showed the meeting the actual agreement signed by the bell founder in 1815 for Liversedge bells, the quaint wording of the accounts being of great interest to the meeting. After the bells were cast it seems that a balance was left, and this balance is entered in the accounts as being disposed of by treating the ringers. Great regret was expressed that such a custom has fallen into disuse.

A vote of thanks to the local company and the ladies for their efforts, replied to by Messrs. A. Armitage and Halmshaw, who extended a hearty welcome to the visitors, and trusted that Liversedge would be visited again in the near future.

RINGERS' SOCIAL GUILD.

FIRST OPEN MEETING AT BRIGHTON.

The first 'open' meeting of the newly-formed Brighton and District Ringers' Social Guild was held on Tuesday, March 21st, at the Prince Albert Hotel (adjoining Brighton Station); the first part of the evening being occupied with the necessary business matters, while musical items filled the latter half.

Several apologies for absence had been received, together with good wishes for the success of the Guild. The minutes of the inauguration of the Guild, which took place on January 10th last, were read and adopted.

The Hon. Secretary (Mr. A. York Bramble) reported as to the enrolment of members; the choice of the Prince Albert Hotel as the proposed headquarters of the Guild (from the points of view of locality and economy); the financial position; the interest shown by others than resident County Association ringers; and the suggestions made as to the programme of activities of the Guild. In regard to these matters, the following proposals were put to the meeting and carried unanimously:

The adoption of Prince Albert Hotel as Guild headquarters, as being midway between the two principal Brighton towers, adjoining the station; and affording exclusive use of committee and general meeting rooms, with piano, billiards, etc.

The expenses being purely nominal (postages, etc.), no subscription is to be fixed; but expenses to be defrayed by occasional collections at Guild meetings; a petty cash book being kept by the hon. secretary.

Membership to be open to all interested in the social aspect of ringing; but only resident members of the Sussex County Association to manage Guild affairs, all others being 'associate' members; the 'peal' qualification to be dropped.

Two Guild meetings to be held each quarter, one being at headquarters, and the other at the conclusion of the Central Divisional quarterly meeting of the County Association; the annual Guild meeting to take place at Christmas time, with the annual dinner of the Guild.

The election of officers for the current year resulted in the following appointments: Chairman, Mr. W. C. Hart; hon. secretary, Mr. York Bramble; committee, Mr. George Ades, Mr. A. Stalham, and Mr. A. D. Stone.

The question of the next meeting was solved automatically by the resolution above mentioned. It will be at Ditchling on Easter Monday next, and will be the first of the two meetings to be held in the spring quarter.

Intending members of the Guild should send their names and addresses to the hon. secretary, and indicate whether they are members of the Sussex County Association.

WHY 'SUFFOLK DIOCESAN'?

To the Editor.

Sir,—No 'Surprise' seems to have been expressed by anyone at the recent assumption of the above title by a few ringers in West Suffolk. Yet that title would appear to be open to grave objection on the score of the following anomalies: (a) There is no diocese of Suffolk; (b) a considerable slice of that county (the deanery of Lotheringham, including Lowestoft), is part of the diocese of Norwich; (c) an overwhelming majority of the ringers in Suffolk won't have the title ('Suffolk'); they have chosen 'St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich'; and they prefer this latter, coupled with the name 'Norwich'; (d) the Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich is already one of the patrons of the Association (the N. and St. E. and I.A.), to which these ringers, who are in the majority, belong.

The situation may appear puzzling to some people in other parts of the country, but what all ringers will at once appreciate is that ringing organisations are essentially democratic institutions; that the wishes of the majority must prevail; and that, therefore, a body of 80 ringers (to give round figures) cannot expect to dictate to an Association of 400 (round figures again).

The St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch (of the N. and St. E. and I. Association) is already a very strong Association with ample resources to serve the needs of all the ringers of Suffolk, both East and West. It has over 40 years of service to its credit, and the majority of Suffolk ringers desire to remain within its fellowship.

There is, however, another and wider aspect. This 'Suffolk diocesan' disorder, as the authors of it should be aware, is causing confusion among ringers generally, and may well have a disturbing effect on the comity of ringing associations.—Yours very truly,

G. P. BURTON.

Bracondale, Norwich.

24th March, 1922.

WHY ST. EDMUNDSBURY?

Dear Sir,—If Mr. S. H. Symonds would kindly read the report of our Suffolk branch meeting held at Ipswich, on Saturday, February 4th, 1922, published in 'The Ringing World' of February 10th, 1922, page 89, he will find the answer to his letter in 'The Ringing World' of March 24th 'Why St. Edmundsbury?' He will also gather further information bearing on this matter from the report in 'The Ringing World' of March 24th, 1922, page 185, of the meeting of our Saxmundham district, held at Saxmundham on Saturday, March 18th,

ARTHUR L. COLEMAN,

General Secretary.

Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich
Diocesan Association.

DOUBLE NORWICH IN BRISTOL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In your 'Belfry Gossip' of 24th inst., a reference is made to the fact that a peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major was rung at St. Mary-le-Port Church, Bristol, on May 19th, 1891, under the auspices of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association and the Ancient Society of College Youths. I write to state that there is no such peal recorded in our peal book, but that the men referred to rang a peal of Stedman Caters at St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, on May 18th 1891, with the exception of H. H. Tacker, who rang his first peal for this Association in 1899. It would be very interesting to Bristol ringers to know whether there is an error, because, so far as we know, the peal mentioned by the Rev. E. B. James was the first peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major rung in the City of Bristol.—Yours faithfully,

EDGAR GUISE,

Hon. Sec., G. and B.D.A.

The information upon which our paragraph was based was supplied by Mr. F. G. Newman, who took part in the peal, and who sent up a copy of the report which appeared in the 'Bell News' at the time.—Ed. 'R.W.'

LADIES' GUILD.

WESTERN DISTRICT.

The postponed quarterly meeting of the Western District was held at Portishead on Saturday, March 25th, about 30 members and friends being present, including several probationers, who it is hoped may become members before long.

A short meeting was held in the belfry prior to the service, which was conducted by the Rev. H. S. Briggs.

An excellent ten was enjoyed at the 'White Cot' Dairy.

Two new honorary members were elected, viz., Mrs. Jukes, wife of the Rector of Portishead, and Miss Barnham, of Bristol.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Rector, and the Portishead ringers for the use of the bells, to the Rev. H. S. Briggs for arranging the service, and to Miss Orchard for acting as organist.

RINGING IN VANCOUVER.

ACTIVITIES IN THE FAR WEST.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—It is some time since you heard from this quarter of the globe, so my letter to you must be a little longer than usual. In the first place we are all lamenting the loss to our band in Vancouver of Mr. John Dearlove, who left some few months ago for Brighton, Sussex, after ringing a well-struck farewell touch of Grandsire Triples.

Shortly after Mr. Charles Willshire's visit and peal attempt here, I received a letter from Commanding Officer W. A. Cooke, R.N., of H.M.S. 'Raleigh,' at Bermuda, informing me of that ship's intending visit to this coast, and that two of her officers were looking forward to a ring. They arrived on December 27th, and left us on January 9th, and, it is needless to say, were in the belfry on every possible occasion. We rang the old year out and the new year in with 336 Grandsire Triples, the ringers being: Major C. R. Jerram, R.M.L.I., C.M.G., D.S.O., M.M., 1, A. O. Limpus 2, W. A. Cooke, R.N., 3, J. Parkinson 4, W. Sampson 5, H. Whiteman 6, George Roberts 7, Arthur King 8.

The following day we attempted a peal, but lost it after 1 hr. and 25 mins. good striking. On this occasion George W. Foster was our conductor, having come in from Port Haney, some 35 miles east, for the occasion, but the crossing of two bells deprived us of a good peal. We hope, however, for better luck on the return visit of the ship next year.

Now we have lost Mr. H. Whiteman, who is down in San Francisco, Cal., but we have gained for some time at least, a valuable ringer in Mr. A. P. Goddard, who is wintering here from the prairies. He was some time bell hanger for Messrs. Lewellins and James, of Bristol, the founders of our peal.

I am glad to be able to tell you that we, as a band of ringers, are getting a goodly measure of encouragement from the Press, also from the city. No less than three times have we been asked by the Mayor and Council to ring. The first occasion was the dedication of the peace arch on the international boundary at Blain, Washington, to commemorate the 100 years of peace between this country and the United States. The next occasion was on Armistice day, when we rang for 15 minutes half-muffled, on the conclusion of the two minutes' silence observed at 11 a.m., and again, open at the conclusion of the service in front of the Court House as the last note of the 'Last Post' died away. Lastly, to-day, we were requested to ring in honour of the wedding of Princess Mary. After various touches, including one of 504, a fairly well-struck quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was brought round, in 46 minutes, the ringers being A. King (first away from the tenor) 1, Geo. Roberts 2, A. C. Limpus 3, A. Goddard 4, Jack Powell (first quarter-peal) 5, W. Sampson 6, Jack Parkinson (conductor) 7, Farrington Jones 8.

This evening I received my 'Ringing World,' and see a letter from Alexander Matthews on the difficulties of forming a young band in America. There are just a few points I feel bound to correct him on. He omits any mention of two ringing peals in Quebec City, one in Montreal, and one at Brandon, Manitoba, but apart from 'stone' in Quebec, I do not think these bells are rung now. The second point is we have been ringing here in Vancouver ever since the bells were hung in 1906, on practice night (Thursdays) at 7.30 p.m., and for Sunday evening service, 6.30. Our peal of Grandsire Triples, 'Holt's Original,' was rung on July 1st, 1911.

We have a goodly number of change ringers in and around Vancouver. I can count from memory 18 within call, but most of them go on duty about the time we ring, which leaves us with an average attendance of eight. The methods practised are Stedman, Bob Minor and Major, and Grandsire. We have also a fairly good band of hand-bell ringers.

I deeply regret to read of the accident on New Year's night in the belfry of St. Mary's, Twickenham. Though having rung but one quarter-peal there on a visit some ten years ago, I always regard it as my mother tower, knowing every inch from the ground floor to the roof, my father having been Vicar for many years. I hope Mr. Powell is progressing favourably.—Yours truly, 1237, 8th Avenue E., Vancouver.

February 28th, 1922.

A. C. LIMPUS.

DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The writer, when penning the footnote to the peal of Real Double Superlative, had in mind the possibility of other bands having tried bobs behind. We now learn from Mr. Dexter's letter that St. Martin's, Leicester, have been at it for two years.

One is awestruck at the account of the wonderful productions on the double plan in the possession of this gentleman, 9,000 with 'tenors together' must be a bit of a shock to those who thought they knew something of Superlative composition and proof. They will wonder how it is done.—Yours sincerely,

JOSEPH W. PARKER.

GRANDSIRE TRIPLES COMPOSITION.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Rev. E. B. James's remarks re his irregular 10-part are careless statements, uttered for his own advantage. If as he says, I published his irregular peal as my own and he saw the printed figures, then nothing is easier for him than to produce this printed evidence. I say he cannot produce it, for like the conversation I was supposed to have with Mr. W. T. Pegler, which never took place, it does not exist. Now the figures, if I am not much mistaken, that he did see, would be the 10-part now under discussion. Mr. James seemingly published this peal in 1903, knowing at the time that it had previously been rung and published by me.—Yours faithfully, G. LINDOFF.

A TOUR IN SOUTH-EAST KENT.

VISITING THE SIX-BELL TOWERS.

The Brabourne ringers, with three members of the Elham band, had an enjoyable Saturday afternoon trip by motor to a few six-bell towers on the fringe of Romney Marsh on Saturday week. Ringing began at Brabourne, with Grandsire Doubles, followed by Stedman, Kent Treble Bob and Bob Minor. The half-hour allotted soon slipped away, and then the party were whirled away on the road to Aldington. The first person to greet them on their arrival was the 'young' veteran, Charles Slingsby, who, at 85, had rung the treble to 720 Bob Minor the previous Sunday. The old gentleman unwillingly consented to take part in a short touch, because, as he said, 'You all have come to ring, and I to look on.' But that would not satisfy the party, and a well-struck course or two was rung with the veteran at the treble.

Aldington's fine tower stands like a sentinel overlooking the country round, including practically the whole of Romney Marsh, and the view on a clear day is magnificent. The bells may not be what is termed musical, but are nicely hung and easy going.

Sellinge, the next stopping-place, found the party attempting Stedman on a peal the opposite of musical, and the 'hang' and 'go' not at all pleasing. One of the party who had viewed the broad expanse from the top of Aldington tower, found the range of vision much too limited in the small confines of an attempted circle of ropes, to ring Stedman (perhaps the writer had better plead guilty at once).

Saltwood was the next place on the programme, and soon, under the capable hands of the driver (a nephew of J. H. Cheeseman, by the way), the party found themselves drawn up at the entrance of the tower. The bells were set going in the standard methods. The bells here are a pleasing and musical ring, and pealsmen and colts alike much enjoyed themselves. The willingness to oblige in any way, on the part of those members of the local band who were present, was much appreciated.

The next item was tea at the Castle Hotel, and then Cheriton was visited, to find the tower deserted, and in darkness. A search for the sexton revealed the fact that the party were nearly an hour late, and the members of the local band who had intended to welcome them had gone, thinking the programme had been altered. However, the energetic one of the party found the key, and soon this handy little ring were bobbing up and down in various methods. Whether the comfortable little room at the Castle Hotel was to blame for the late arrival had better not be discussed here, but the time was all too short on this nice going little peal, as Newington the last 'port' of call, had to be taken into account.

This is an ideal ring of nice tone and easy going, so that bad striking is inexcusable. The pity is the old pilot (J. Marsh) has passed away, and another has not yet taken his place. It can only be hoped that this visit may be the means of restarting interest. Ringing, like all other good things, comes to an end, and the party found itself on the road once more, this time for home. Some lucky ones were deposited at their very doors, two brothers kindly offered to walk their mile, and the Elhamites had four miles of pedal work.

The party consisted of the whole of the Brabourne band. The brothers, L. and S. Finn, E. and W. Cheeseman, C. Cheeseman, E. Vickers and P. H. Pierce, S. Hopkins (Elmsted), F. Verney, A. and F. Castle, of Elham, and the last named, though not yet 13, has several 120's to his credit.

The best thanks are due to all those responsible for lending the bells, and in other ways helping to make the little tour a success, and if any interest in change ringing has been stimulated the party will be more than satisfied.

NEW BAND'S ENTHUSIASM.

At Capenhurst, Cheshire on Tuesday, March 21st, 720 Bob Minor was rung by: J. Bagley 1, Robt. Maddock 2, Richard Maddock (conductor) 3, E. Elwell 4, J. Maddock 5, A. Bagley 6. This is the first 720 by all, and first 720 on the bells by a local company. The bells are a fine new peal by Messrs. John Taylor and Co., and the local men are taking up change ringing with great enterprise and energy.

CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION.

The quarterly meeting of the above Association was held in the picturesque town of Keswick, in the centre of the Lake District on Saturday last. Between 20 and 30 ringers, including one lady, representing nine towers, attended. The meeting was held in Crosthwaite belfry, presided over by the Vicar (the Rev. Bradley).

Arrangements for the annual competition for the shield, given by the late Canon Rawnsley, were made, Aspatria being the place decided on, and Easter Monday the day. Arrangements were also made for a peal attempt, at Heusingham, on Saturday, May 7th to be rung in memory of the members of the Association who lost their lives in the great war. If successful, it is to be duly recorded by a tablet in the belfry.

A vote of condolence was passed with the relatives of the late Mrs. Hogarth. Her husband, the late Mr. Stephen Hogarth, was one of the pioneers of the Cumberland Association, and members of the family are still ringers at Crosthwaite.

Touches of Kent Treble Bob Major and Bob Minor were rung on the bells, which are a treat to ring. Tea was held at Wilson's Cafe, Main Street, Mr. Wilson himself being a ringer.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for presiding and for the use of the bells, brought a very successful meeting to a close.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

GLOUCESTER BRANCH'S DISAPPOINTING MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of the Gloucester Branch was held at St. Mary de Lode, Gloucester, on Saturday last. This tower had been selected at a previous meeting, after considerable discussion, because it was considered to be most central, and it was thought that a record attendance would, therefore, be assured. But in bell ringing, as in all other pursuits, hopes and expectations do not always materialise; the most carefully arranged plans do not always guarantee success; and such was the experience of the Gloucester Branch on this occasion, for there was anything but a record attendance. Trouble had been taken to secure one of the Residentiary Canons of Gloucester Cathedral to come and address the company, and a very excellent address was attentively listened to by only twelve men. However, a few more were present at tea, and by the time the meeting commenced the roll-call was 18.

The chairman of the branch (Mr. Walter B. Wood) occupied the chair and put the meeting into a good-humour at once, by announcing that he wished all present to consider themselves his guests, and allow him to pay for the tea. This request was very readily acceded to, and greeted with applause.

The Hon. Secretary (Captain A. A. Bennett) presented his report for the quarter, which was considered highly satisfactory, and was unanimously adopted.

Mention was made of a request from a young band at Longney for instruction in change ringing, with an intimation that they were prepared to become probationer members of the branch. After some discussion it was unanimously agreed that Mr. T. Baldwin be appointed instructor, and that the next meeting be held there, so that the whole matter could be talked over on the spot.

WHO WILL HELP?

We hear from Australia that the widow of the late Mr. Matthew Ellsmore, formerly of Portsmouth, who early last year left England for Sydney, and died there soon after his arrival, is in very straitened circumstances. Mrs. Ellsmore, who is 71 years of age, and past work, is now dependent upon a widowed daughter, whose husband fell in the war.

The many ringing friends of the late Mr. Ellsmore, and there are a considerable number who owe their early tuition in the art, to his efforts, will, we feel sure, be glad to extend a helping hand to his widow, left without means under such sad circumstances.

Contributions sent to 'The Ringing World' will be acknowledged in these columns, and forwarded to Mrs. Ellsmore.

We would also remind our readers of the appeal which has been made by the Middlesex Association on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. Harry Flanders. Contributions to this fund should be sent to Mr. Alfred Pye, 126, Pembroke Road, Seven Kings or Mr. C. T. Coles, 49, Wood Street, E.17.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I wish to acknowledge the following sums given to the fund opened on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. Harry Flanders, and to thank all concerned for their kind help. I shall be glad to receive any further sums, which will be duly acknowledged through this paper. I may add that this is a case for timely help, as the long illness of Mr. Flanders left his widow in straitened circumstances, and in very delicate health. Amounts already received are as follows: Collected at meeting at St. Saviour's, Walthamstow, March 11th, £2; Messrs. R. Sanders, 2s. 6d.; A. W. Coles, 2s. 6d.; W. H. Freeman, 5s.; H. T. Scarlett, 2s. 6d.; W. B. Manning, 2s. 6d.; F. Wilford, 2s. 6d.; A. Edwards, 2s. 6d.; R. K. Knight, 2s. 6d.—Yours truly,

C. T. COLES.

FIRST PEAL OF MINOR AT ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.

The peal of Minor rung at Ashton-under-Lyne is the first ever rung in the town. The conductor and the ringer of the 3rd are two typical Yorkshire men, and it is over 17 years since Mr. Heckingbottom called his last peal. The ringers of the treble and 2nd are two of Cheshire's keenest campanologists, and the ringers of the 4th and 5th are two modest men of the county palatine (Lancashire).

After the peal was over the band adjourned to receive the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Wolstencroft, who with the wives and sweethearts of the ringers, had a most enjoyable evening together, the esteemed hon. secretary of the Chester Guild (the Rev. A. T. Beeston) being also of the company. He complimented the ringers on their well-struck peal.

During the evening, Mr. George Hill, of Hoylandswaine, was the recipient of a beautiful fountain pen as a token of appreciation for his kindness in entering peals rung at St. Peter's Church in their unique and beautiful peal book. Mr. W. Wolstencroft made the presentation, and Mr. Hill made a suitable reply.

OLD ALDERMASTON RINGER'S DEATH.

We regret to record the death of Mr. William Frankum which took place at Aldermaston on February 21st, at the age of 78 years.

Mr. William Frankum was an old resident of the parish, and for over 40 years a ringer at the Parish Church. Some part of the time he was foreman of the band, and he rang the treble through four or five peals, of Grandsire Triples. He was also sidesman. He had to give up ringing a few years ago through an accident which made it difficult for him to get his hand up to his head. In recognition of his long service he was presented with an illuminated address, with the names of subscribers, and a purse of money. The deceased was liked by everyone in the parish, and a number of residents attended the funeral, which took place on Saturday, February 25th. There was a large number of wreaths from relatives and friends.

Mr. Frankum had a large family, and six of the sons took to ringing. Five of them were present at the funeral, and with Messrs. Green, Clark and S. Collins, who belonged to the band before the war, went to the tower after the interment and rang the bells muffled to 350 Grandsire Triples: W. Clark 1, S. Collins 2, H. Frankum 3, R. Frankum (conductor) 4, E. Frankum 5, A. Frankum 6, A. J. Frankum 7, F. Green 8.

A muffled peal, in which five sons took part, was rung on March 11th.

MR. E. H. LEWIS' 150th PEAL.

The peal of Stedman Cinques at Newcastle Cathedral on Feb. 28th was Mr. E. H. Lewis' 150th peal, and the list is interesting from the variety of methods it comprises.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., who have in hand the augmentation of the peal at St. Paul's Church, Burton-on-Trent, have promised to have the bells ready for the annual meeting of the Midland Counties' Association on Easter Monday, so that the members will have the added interest and attraction of a new peal of ten.

A peal of Minor has just been rung at St. Mellons, Monmouthshire, on a new ring of six put in in 1914. Probably this ring is unique among modern church bells, inasmuch as there has never been a dedication of the peal, owing to a difference of opinion between the Vicar and the architect in regard to the tower. The Vicar was anxious to have a ring of bells, but the architect considered the tower not good enough. The Vicar, however, carried out his wish. The bells were put in, and have been rung regularly ever since, but the dedication was allowed to slide. The tower had been thoroughly repaired and cement pointed, and, from the ordinary ringer's observation, appears very much stronger than many towers carrying eight and ten bells.

As further evidence of the youthful energy which Mr. James George puts into his ringing, we have the record to-day of his first peal of London Surprise Major away from the treble. Few men ring their first peal in this method when past 68.

Whatever else may be said about his performances, one cannot but admire the perseverance and talent of Mr. Arthur T. Morris, of Harwich, who, having tapped a second peal of London Surprise, has now added Superlative and Double Norwich to the list. We believe Mr. Morris would welcome any independent witness who cares to make arrangements to referee one of his performances.

April 1st is the anniversary of one of the earliest 'long' peals. In the year 1727, 10,080 Oxford Treble Bob Major was rung at St. Michael Coslany, Norwich, and the record, still in existence, is worth recalling.

A remarkable peal was rung by the eight persons as under, called the quarter-peal of Oxford Treble Bob, all eight in, or the Union Bob, consisting of 10,080 changes, which they rung in 6 hrs. 28 mins. on the 1st day of April Anno, 1727. There was no change alike or bell out of course. Performed by Richard Barnham 1, Thomas Melchior 2, John Harvey 3, John Webster 4, Thomas Gardiner 5, Thomas Barret 6, Edward Crane 7, Robert Crane tenor.

No record of the composition exists and, in view of the very slight knowledge existing at that time on the subject of the composition of Treble Bob, it can by no means be certain that 'there was no change alike' in this early peal. But whatever doubts there may be about the truth of the composition, the performance stands out as one of the best of early peals.

In 1777, on April 1st, a round 6,000 of Treble Twelve was rung by the College Youths at St. Saviour's, Southwark in 4 hrs. 58 mins. There were two men on the tenor. This record stood for barely a year, for on March 16, 1778, a longer peal was rung at Norwich by Cumberland Youths.

The 3rd April is the anniversary of the 15,072 Double Norwich at Erith rung in 1899, in 9 hrs. 24 mins., for the Kent Association. This superseded the 13,440 rung at Romford in 1894, by the Cumberlands, but was exceeded in length by the much-discussed 17,024 rung at Kidlington only seven weeks later by the Oxford Guild.

On April 6th, 1916, Henry Dains died, aged 78, and on April 7th, 1896, George Newson passed away. These were two of the greatest among the Cumberlands of the past generation, and both took part in the peal at Romford mentioned above. One was the composer and the other the conductor.

The peal of Doubles on March 4th for the Salisbury Guild, was rung at Zeals, Wilts, and not Neals, as printed in the report.

LONG SERVICE.

HEPTONSTALL'S RECORD.

To the Editor.

Sir,—In your valuable paper of Mar. 17, I noticed that Nor-a Anston have beaten Marhull for the record for long service ringing. I think we at Heptonstall can beat that. There are eight ringers, with an average of 40 years, the longest having 48 years' service. Of the others there are three with 46 years, one with 42, one with 36, one with 32, and one with 22.

We have not gone in for ringing 5,000's, but have gone in for contest ringing, having won the Halifax and District Association's silver cup three times, from 1907–1911. Our oldest ringer, Mr. Joseph Nowell in his 78th year, is still active, and ringing for services. The youngest ringer out of the above band is 48 years old. Is there any tower which can beat this?—Yours faithfully, F. ROBERTSHAW.

BURSLEM, STAFFS.—On Saturday, February 25th, after an unsuccessful attempt for a peal of Treble Bob, a quarter-peal of Treble Bob, viz., 720 Violet and 720 Kent was rung in honour of the birth of a daughter to the conductor: A. Lees 1, T. Hurd 2, L. Pennington 3, W. P. Deane (conductor) 4, T. Hilditch 5, W. Bourne 6.

THE LATE MR. A. T. KING.

A LOSS TO THE EXERCISE.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. Arthur T. King, I.S.O., President of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, and an honorary member of the Central Council, who died suddenly on his way to church on Sunday, at the age of 76 years. Mr. King resided at the 'Summit,' Stevenage, Herts.

Born in the Cathedral Close, Salisbury, on Sept. 30th, 1845, the late Mr. King was a son of the Rev. Charles King, Vicar of Stratford-sub-Castle, and Canon of Salisbury. He was educated at Winchester, and in 1864 joined the Civil Service, entering the National Debt Office, where he rose to an important position. In 1903 he was made a Companion of the Imperial Service Order, and retired in 1910.

By his death, the Exercise has lost an invaluable member, and the Middlesex Association, for whose success in its early days Mr. King was so largely responsible, an active and enthusiastic president, who, despite his years, was never happier than when he was among the members. Mr. King was always fond of handling a bell, and had some experience when, as a boy, in the early sixties, he used to spend some of his holidays with his uncle, the Rev. Canon King, who for many years was Vicar of Worstead, Norfolk. While at Winchester, Mr. King used sometimes to ring the curfew, but he took no active part in ringing as a science until about the year 1893, when the old peal at Barnet were recast, and he became a member of the local society. He had, however, come into touch with the old Middlesex Association in 1869, soon after it had been formed out of the remains of the North Middlesex Association and, having shown a practical interest in its affairs, he was pressed into service as hon. secretary in 1895.

The first thing he did on assuming office was to open negotiations with the South Middlesex Association, with a view to uniting forces, and in 1897 had the satisfaction of seeing one strong association formed under the name of 'the Middlesex County Association,' to which in 1903, was added with the express approval of the Bishop of London, the further title of 'London Diocesan Guild.' When the fusion took place, Mr. King was appointed joint secretary, with Mr. C. Edwards, of Hounslow, the first President being the Rev. H. G. Bird. The Association grew by leaps and bounds, largely owing to the organising ability displayed by Mr. King, who in 1901, on the resignation of Mr. Edwards, took over the entire secretarial duties, besides those of hon. secretary of the North and East District. Throughout the many years Mr. King occupied the office, he never spared any effort to promote the interests of the Association, and when, in 1910, on removing from London, he retired from the secretaryship, he was made a vice-president of the Association, and presented with a magnificent timepiece, striking the Westminster chimes, in grateful recognition of all he had done for the society.

He was not long out of harness, however, for, on the resignation of the Rev. H. G. Bird, there could be but one choice of President, and Mr. King was elected to the vacancy. Although residing at a distance from London, Mr. King took the keenest interest in all the doings of the Association, and was frequently present at the meetings. Despite advancing years and sometimes indifferent health, he kept in personal touch with his Association, and with ringing matters generally, although he had to give up practical ringing some few years ago on account of heart weakness.

In addition to serving his Association with devotion and singleness of purpose—to promote the interests of ringing, and to secure greater recognition of ringers as officers of the church, of which he was a loyal son—Mr. King rendered enormous service to the Exercise as a whole, and the Central Council in particular. As a member for many years of the Analysis Committee of the Council the one committee whose labours are ceaseless—Mr. King shouldered a considerable part of the detailed work required in compiling the statistics which are annually published. With methodical labour and meticulous care he devoted a great deal of his leisure to this task, and only his colleagues on this committee know what this work has been. At the last meeting of the Council his services were recognised by his unanimous election as an honorary member. Mr. King having previously been a member of this body as a representative of the Middlesex Association.

Mr. King's peal ringing activities were confined to ringing the tenor and treble, and it has always been surprising that he never ventured beyond this stage in the practical side of the art. He used to say it may have been 'partly laziness and partly specific density,' which prevented him going further; but to no one, we think, could these failings be attributed with less truth than to Mr. King. In all he rang about 150 peals, including Bob Triples, Grandsire Triples, Bob Major, Double Norwich Major, Stedman Triples and Stedman Caters. These peals he rang in 53 towers, and principally for the Middlesex Association. He was also a member of the Chester, Norwich, Salisbury and Winchester Diocesan Guilds, and the Essex, Hertford, Kent, Surrey, Sussex and Yorkshire Associations.

It is interesting to recall that in his youth, Mr. King was a great athlete, and among other things won the vaulting in the Civil Service sports in 1867, with a record height for these sports of seven feet. At Richmond about the same time he won the prize for throwing the hammer, beating a man who afterwards became amateur champion. He also won the chief swimming event at Winchester in 1862, and his prowess in the water more than once enabled him to save life. Indeed at the age of 65, he was able to save a girl from drowning in the River Nadder.

GREAT ST. MARY'S CHURCH, CAMBRIDGE.

To the Editor.

Sir,—I believe this is the University Church of Cambridge, and as many ringers may know, possesses a noble ring of twelve (with a tenor of about 29 cwt.) all rebung, and the trebles recast by Taylor a few years ago.

It may, however, be a surprise to some to learn that this fine ring has been allowed to hang for the past two years or more with the seventh bell cracked and useless.

The only other rings in Cambridge are the eight at the R.C. Church, a magnificent ring by Taylor (tenor 32 cwt.), the eight at St. Andrew's, a very poor lot of 'pots,' and the six at St. Benedict's (Stedman's tower), where, I believe, one 720 would be as much as any ringer would want, if it could be obtained.

I happened to be in Cambridge last Easter and heard St. Mary's bells being rung, the 6th and 7th being omitted, and very curious they sounded in rounds, the top five being answered by the bottom five, just an octave below. Now, Sir, surely something is wrong for this state of affairs to exist at a church of such importance, and I think it is up to the Ely Diocesan Association, who will hold their annual meeting there next Easter Monday, to endeavour to find out the cause.

'Lack of funds' is often a valid excuse in cases of this kind, but I cannot believe this to be the reason, if the University have any control or interest in these bells, and I am, therefore, forced to put it down to that bugbear, 'Apathy.' I hope I may be wrong in my surmise, and perhaps someone more intimate with ringing matters in Cambridge will enlighten me through the medium of your valuable columns.—Yours faithfully,

'PLAIN BOB.'

MR. T. H. PARKIN'S RETIREMENT.

At St. John's Church, Scunthorpe, on March 19th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung by S. Austin 1. A. Garbett 2. C. H. Bird 3. T. H. Parkin 4. T. Strickland 5. G. Dixon 6. R. Oliver (conductor) 7. C. Pye 8. This was a compliment to Mr. T. H. Parkin on his 65th birthday, and his retirement from scholastic duties, after 52 years' service as a day school teacher.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.*MANCHESTER BRANCH.

The monthly meeting was held at St. Philip's, Chester Street, on Saturday, March 18th. At the business meeting, held in the Institute, 30 members were present. The Rev. A. H. Barthram occupied the chair, and gave a hearty welcome to the visiting ringers. He hoped to see them again some time, when, no doubt, he and the local men would be able to provide them with a tea, as in the days of old.

The secretary was instructed to see if a meeting could be held at St. John's, Deansgate, failing this, Pendlebury, on Saturday, April 22nd.

The standard methods were rung during the afternoon and evening. Some of the younger ringers had a good lesson in change ringing, and the new ropes were appreciated, but some of the bells need a visit from the bell hanger.

Votes of thanks to the Rector and the local ringers closed the business.

The monthly meeting of the Rochdale Branch took place on Saturday, March 18th, at East Crompton, when members were present from East Crompton, Middleton, Milnrow, Oldham, Moorside, Mamer, Todmorden Parish, Cross Stone, and Balderstone. Touches of Kent, Oxford and Woodbine Treble Bob, Plain Bob and Grandsire Doubles were rung. Mr. H. Davenport presided over the usual business meeting, at which it was decided that the next meeting, on April 8th, should be held at Shore.

The following were declared elected as performing members of the Association: James Harrop (Milnrow), Miss May Westhead and Miss H. Bell (Cross Stones); also Mr. William Horan (of Cross Stones).

The proceedings terminated with cordial resolutions of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the tower and bells, and to the local ringers for having everything in readiness.

BARNSELEY & DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

The monthly meeting of the above was held at South Kirby on Saturday, March 11th. The bells, a handy ring of six, with tenor 13 cwt., old yet beautiful, in spite of modern methods in casting tuning; rung 24 years ago by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, the 'go' is still splendid. Lest some visitors should think that the practice of change ringing is new to this tower, they must be warned otherwise, for the time was when the local band could give out the best, and there were keen critics in evidence able to judge the past and present ringing.

Tea was provided at the hotel close by the church, and the business meeting followed. The President (Mr. Wm. Reynier) was in the chair, supported by the Vicar (the Rev. J. W. Greenstreet). The Chairman thanked the Vicar for his kind interest in ringers as a whole, and hoped his special interest in his own company would be long continued. The Vicar, replying, said his pride in his own ringers was very sincere, for their enthusiasm in their duties was beyond measure, and if by some means of brotherhood his ringers could attain higher rank, such aims would receive his help and approval.

The Vicar was elected an hon. member of the Association and the following members of the local company were elected ringing members: Messrs. J. Hill, George Breeden, G. Haldenby, C. Balus, T. Dumbriek, T. Bardsley, A. Edwards, A. Pender, J. Tait, T. Clayton, C. Smith.

The following towers were represented: Darfield, Arksey, Barnsley, Badsworth, Crofton, Royston, Felkirk, Sandal, Pontefract, Wragby and Wortley. Votes of thanks were passed separately to the Vicar and churchwardens for the use of the bells, the local company for their splendid co-operation, and to the host and hostess for the comfort and cheerful welcome given.

Penistone is proposed for the next meeting on April 8th.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD.

A meeting of the Exeter and District Branch was held at Thorverton on Saturday, February 25th. Proceedings opened with a service at the Parish Church, kindly taken by the Rev. J. H. Shaw (Vicar), who gave a very instructive address. Tea and meeting was subsequently held in the Schoolroom, amongst those present being Mr. E. Sheppard, chairman of the branch; Mr. J. C. Oke, assistant secretary; Rev. J. H. Shaw, Rev. F. Knight, and 38 members representing most of the bands in union. Letters expressing inability to attend were read from Rev. Canon McLaren, Exeter, and Mr. N. J. Southwood, secretary and treasurer.

The branch shows every sign of making progress, two bands having signified their intention of joining the branch, while four new members were elected.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Honiton Clist, on Saturday, September 16th.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar of Thorverton, the organist, the ladies for presiding at tea, and the chairman, brought a very successful meeting to a close.

The bells (a very nice eight) were kept going during the afternoon and evening, and some good touches of Grandsire and Stedman brought round.

BRISTOL ROYAL.*To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Some time ago, during the controversy on the subject of extension of London Surprise, Mr. Armiger Trollope affirmed that he could produce the extension of any method from the Major in 30 minutes. Your readers will remember that I issued a challenge to Mr. Trollope to produce Superlative and Bristol Royal. That challenge has not been accepted. But as far as Bristol goes, there is now no occasion for Mr. Trollope to trouble (?) since Mr. Craven has now given us an extension of Bristol, which has been discovered independently by no less than four of our experts. First by Mr. Trollope, secondly by Mr. F. Dench, thirdly by Mr. George Baker, and, lastly, by Mr. Craven. I admit that, in face of this fact, the extension appears, at first sight, to be the correct one. In fact, it looks as though my friend, Mr. George Baker, is right when he says there is no other extension. But is there none other? Is this in fact, the correct extension? Why, it has not 'associated' leads even! According to our conventions, all correct extensions should have such—i.e., the first treble lead of Bristol Royal should be 1243658709

And this is actually possible!

In other words, next week, with your permission, I will give my reasons for the fact that Bristol Royal has not yet been published; and will indicate how the true extension may be obtained.—Yours very truly,
A. YORK BRAMBLE.

BEACONSFIELD BELLS RESTORED.*A 'TRIAL TRIP.'

Ringling echoes joyfully aroused the evening drowsiness of the old town of Beaconsfield, Bucks, on Thursday week, when the octave of bells at St. Mary's Church tower was 'tested' by the Beaconsfield band, after complete overhauling by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank of Whitechapel. Poet sang never so sweetly as the 'Waller Bell,' nor statesman poured forth his eloquence with such pathos as the 'Burke Bell'—on St. Patrick's Eve, too—when in company with their old-time neighbours in the belfry they gave vent to their iron tongues in musical cadence after a long and regrettable ringing silence.

Methods known as Grand-are, Treble Bob and Stedman, were scored in short touches between 8 and 9 p.m., conducted by Mr. R. Buckland, the foreman of the tower, in which the following took part: Messrs. R. and F. Buckland, J. and L. Batting, B. Young, J. Blackmore, W. Fletcher, W. Turner, R. Wingrove, T. Eales, A. S. Bagley (late churchwarden), and Mr. J. Evans, of Hughenden, and Mr. W. H. Fussell, of Slough.

For the work done—mostly new fittings throughout, costing upwards of £150—all praise was given to the 'old firm,' established 1570, who erected the eight bells 40 years ago; and to their two hands responsible for its execution, Messrs. E. H. King and H. Hutchins, the latter going to Durham Cathedral for his next task.

The fund for this purpose was raised locally by bazaar, concert and donations, the leading figure in the restoration (delayed by the war) being Mr. C. A. Bennett, churchwarden, late of St. Albans, who, like his predecessor, is a practical ringer.

The old oak framework is just as sound as when it was first put up: it will do again for another half-century, and is quite equal to one of those of modern cast-iron design. The bells themselves were untouched and untuned to the modern craze for 'harmonics.' They will, perhaps, prove in years to come the wastefulness of destroying ancient and valuable bells in order to gratify a temporary fashion. One simple little device was introduced, which, while adding life to the vibrations, destroys much of the burr and rattle of the clapper on striking the mouth of the bell. A circular rubber buffer let into the ball of the clapper raises it from the sound bow after the blow is made, thus improving the quality and duration of the note produced.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Bedford District was held at Kempston on Saturday, March 18th. Ringing commenced about 3 o'clock, with Kent Treble Bob Minor. Miss A. M. Durrant of Ilitchin, taking part. A short service, with address by the Vicar (the Rev. G. H. C. Shorting), was held in the church, and tea in the school followed. The Vicar presided at the business meeting, at which members were present from Bedford, Woburn, Stagsden, Bromham, Desborough, Sandy, Roxtan, Elstow, Biddenham, Turvey, and the local company. Four new members were elected. — Willington was chosen for the next meeting.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for his address, and for presiding, was passed. The Vicar is to be congratulated on urging his ringers to take up method ringing, as heretofore call changes prevailed in the tower. The Vicar has chosen Mr. P. Taskin to take the ringers in hand, and they are getting on well with Bob Minor.

Methods practised at the meeting ranged from Bob Minor to Cambridge Surprise.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT AMALGAMATED SOCIETY.

AUGMENTATION OF ARMLEY BELLS.

On Saturday last, the above society held its usual monthly meeting at Christ Church, Upper Armley. The meeting was of more than ordinary interest, as the newly-added bells to complete the octave were dedicated by the Bishop of Knaresborough, at 3 p.m. The service was fully choral, special music being rendered by the organist (Dr. Wm. Bradley, F.R.C.O.) and the choir, including the Bell Anthem (Purcell) and Te Deum in B flat (Stanford).

The clock, which has been thoroughly overhauled by Messrs. Potts, of Leeds, was started by the Bishop during the service.

Ringers were present from Bramley, Leeds Parish Church, St. Francis, Holbeck; Wortley, Sheffield, Denton (Lancs), Pontefract, Wragby, Tong; St. Chad's and St. Michael's, Headingley; Burley, Guiseley, Earlsheaton, Calverley, Pudsey, Gargrave, Selby, and the local company.

Superlative, Double Norwich, Stedman, Grandsire and Kent Treble Bob methods were rung on the bells during the afternoon, and all spoke highly of the work carried out by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough.

The members were pleased to see Mr. Arthur Craven amongst them (at his birthplace), also Mr. J. Whitaker, of Burley who is in his 80th year, and is the only surviving member of the band who opened the peal of six bells fifty years ago.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Leeds Parish Church on Saturday, April 29th, when the election of officers will take place.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

BERKHAMPTSTEAD BELLS.

The quarterly meeting of the Western District of the above was held at Berkhamstead on Saturday, March 11th. The bells, which much need the attention of a bell founder (the 6th being badly cracked) were set going about 3 o'clock. Ringers and friends, to the number of 22, attended from King's Langley, Croydon, Linslade, Hemel Hempstead, Isle of Wight, Tring, Watford, Harpenden and the local tower. Tea was served at the Temperance Hotel the Rector (the Rev. W. C. Stainsby) and churchwarden being present.

The Rector, who presided at the business meeting, gave the ringers a hearty welcome to Berkhamstead, and said he was sorry the bells were not a good peal. He hoped, however, when the association paid them another visit the bells would have been put right.

Four ringing members and two hon. members were elected.

After a vote of thanks to the Rector for presiding and for the use of the bells had been passed, the ringers attended evensong at the Parish Church, at which the Rector officiated.

The tower was then again visited, and a few more touches rung. Afterwards the visitors proceeded to Northchurch, where there is a nice peal of six.

The methods rung during the afternoon and evening were Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob and Kent Treble Bob Minor, Grandsire and Stedman Doubles.

THE LATE MR. A. T. KING.

The Exercise is greatly poorer to-day by the death of Mr. Arthur T. King, whose passing it was our melancholy duty to record last week. The measure of his service to ringing is not to be gauged by what he did in the public eye; his greatest work was achieved unseen, but the results of his ungrudging labours have left a permanent mark in the progress of the Exercise. Mr. King came more or less casually into ringing, and office was thrust upon him when he did not seek it; but, once he plunged into the work, his characteristic energy carried him forward, and with him the association with which he was linked. The path was not a smooth one; the amalgamation of the two Middlesex Associations was not an easy task; and outside the ranks of these organisations his aspirations were in some quarters somewhat misunderstood. Yet he held on his way, and the strength of the present Middlesex Association is a monument to his initiative, determination and tact. Even those who found themselves in opposition to him in years gone by cannot but admit that his services to ringing have been immense, for unquestionably his efforts led to a considerable increase in ringing activity in and around the Metropolis, where the competition of the new society stirred the older organisations into more strenuous movement. It was one of Mr. King's earnest desires to see the Metropolitan societies intermixing in friendly rivalry, with a spirit of goodwill existing between them all, and he lived to see this hope advanced a long step towards realisation.

In his service to the Central Council, Mr. King probably gave more time than any other member, for upon him fell a large share of the work of the Peals Analysis Committee, of which he was chairman. This work went on from week to week ceaselessly, and, characteristic of the man, at the time of his death the statistics were completed up to date. Mr. King took an immense interest in this analysis, upon which he had laboured for many years, and in this connection his services will be greatly missed, for it will be hard to find a successor with the time and ability to devote to it. In the counsels of the central organisation Mr. King's opinions were valued. With a wide outlook, a keen intellect, and a broad mind, he used to speak with weight, and, if he differed in opinion from other members, his tact always enabled him to do it in a spirit which could leave no offence. In the fulness of years he has now been called to his rest, but he is one of a type of men all too rare in the Exercise, whose place both in his own association and in ringing generally it will be difficult to fill. His life was one of service; his death leaves us still with an example which all may emulate.

SURPRISE ROYAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I hardly think that the method that Mr. Craven calls Bristol Surprise Royal can claim that title, as it has different lead ends, and does not allow of the fourth's place bob.

'Princess Mary' is doubtless a fine method, but contains no novelty. I published a method in 'The Bell News,' I think it was in 1898, called Drew's Court Surprise, which, in addition to the other advantages that 'Princess Mary' has, allows us to use the fourth's place bob. I also give another method which is a first cousin to it, if you will be kind enough to make room for them. But to my mind none of them approach 'Wait and See' as a practical method. The point that I like about 'Wait and See' is that the work in this method is of the same character throughout. We all know the 8, 7, 8's and 6, 5, 6's of London. Well, the character of this method depends almost entirely on them.—Yours etc., E. BANKES JAMES.

Dear Sir,—Allow me, through your columns, to thank Mr. G. Baker for his frank and open-hearted expressions of approval re the merits of 'Princess Mary' Surprise, as enumerated when I introduced it.

With reference to Mr. Deuch's remarks re Bristol Surprise Royal, I had no idea of claiming any originality in publishing the figures. I produced them last November while attempting to extend Bristol Major to Royal, and sent them to 'The Ringing World' in a letter replying to Mr. James, when he stated that the figures he published ('Wait and See') were the best ten-bell method he had come across. I had no idea that the figures had appeared publicly and I don't think those of December 3rd, 1915, are the same. However, let it be perfectly understood how I produced them and why I published them. The method is worth all the publicity that can be given to it. I have heard that Mr. Baker had this extension, September 1921, and Mr. Trollope nine or ten years ago. If any apology is due from me I humbly tender it, but I am not sure to whom it is due.—Yours truly, ARTHUR CRAVEN.

Stannington, near Sheffield March 28th, 1922.

EAST HAGBOURNE, BERKS.—On Saturday, February 18th, at the Parish Church, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples: G. Caudwell 1, Mrs. A. E. Lock 2, T. East 3, T. Short 4, E. Humfrey 5, A. E. Lock (conductor) 6, J. S. Napper 7, W. Goodenough 8. Four new ropes having been put on the back bells just previous to starting, made an attempt for a peal impracticable.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

NORTHERN DISTRICT SOCIAL.

On Saturday, March 25th, a new venture on the part of Northern District of the London County Association, in the shape of a social evening and dance, took place in the spacious hall of Christ Church, Spitalfields. Commencing soon after 7.30 p.m. the floor soon filled, some enjoyable dancing being indulged in. Songs by Miss Dawson (who sang charmingly) the Master and his sister, the secretary and Mr. N. W. Russell, were well rendered and appreciated. Handbells, also figured very largely in the programme. Courses of Grandsire Triples, although very foreign to a good many, greatly interested the non-ringing section of the audience, who, however, were much more at home with the efforts in tune playing by the Master, Secretary and Mr. F. C. Lambert. Old-time airs were played—well known by all, who could not help assisting vocally to the utmost of their power. Naturally, encores were in great demand, and unfortunately the repertoire would not meet the demand without a repeat. The performance was nevertheless heartily applauded.

Refreshments were provided by Messrs. Thornhills, of Bishopsgate. Thanks are due to the Rector of Church Church for the use of the hall, and to the caretaker who had everything in readiness, also to the ladies who worked so hard in serving the refreshments. Members were present from Bethnal Green, Willesden, Holloway, Islington, Leytonstone and Fulham.

One of the chief ideas in holding this social evening, apart from furthering the aims of the district, was to give the ringers a chance to bring wives or relatives who, generally speaking, do not meet the society in any way, and have little knowledge of the general running of the organisation which provides ringing at least one or two evenings per week.

DONCASTER &amp; DISTRICT SOCIETY.

A most successful meeting of this society was held at Tickhill on March 25th. Tickhill is a sleepy old-world town, with some history behind it. It possesses an old Norman castle, which is partly surrounded by the old moat, which still contains water. On three occasions at least the castle was besieged. In 'Ivanhoe' there is a graphic story of how Richard stormed Torquilstone Castle, and it is not unlikely that it was Tickhill Castle which Scott had in his mind at the time. The tower of the Parish Church of St. Mary the Virgin was built between 1373 and 1399 by John o' Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, and is one of the most magnificent in South Yorkshire.

About 40 members were present at the meeting from some twelve different towers. The peal of eight bells were kept going all the afternoon and evening to the standard methods, and also Cambridge Surprise. Tea was served in the Parish Room, a quaint pillared and porticoed building standing in the High Street. This was formerly the St. Leonard's Hospital, and it was built in 1470. The Vicar of Tickhill presided, and he also took the chair at the business meeting, at which eleven new members were elected and General Sir Alington Berwick-Copley, of Sprotborough, was elected an honorary member.

The usual votes of thanks were passed.

RINGER'S DEATH AT BAGSHOT.

For morning service, on March 26th, the local band of St. Anne's, Bagshot, Surrey, rang half-muffled touches of Grandsire Triples, including 476 by Miss Margery Wood 1, Miss Mabel Nye 2, J. Corbett 5, H. Gould 4, T. Gould 5, F. Francis 6, F. Nye (conductor) 7, W. Varn-dell 8. This was rung as a token of respect to the memory of the late Mr. Henry Stapleton who passed away on March 7th, after a short but painful illness.

The ringers regret that owing to illness near the church they were unable to pay this tribute to a departed comrade before. Mr. Stapleton will be greatly missed by the band, of which he had been a member since 1885. He rang his first peal of Grandsire Triples at Leatherhead in December, 1890, and his last in April, 1921, at St. Anne's, Bagshot, which was the first peal on the bells and was rung by the local band.

OVER 70 YEARS A RINGER.

On Wednesday, March 22nd, at St. Mary's Church, Devizes, as a token of respect to the memory of the late Mr. William Taplin, who died on March 19th, in his 95th year, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung in 54 mins. with the bell half-muffled, by the following: Miss F. Rowe 1, S. H. Sutton 2, F. Green 3, G. W. England 4, S. Hillier (conductor) 5, H. Sutton 6. Mr. Taplin had been associated with St. Mary's bells for over 70 years, the last occasion on which he had a 'pull' being on the occasion of the peace day celebrations in July, 1919, when he climbed the long stairway to the ringing chamber without assistance, although then 92 years of age.

BEVERLEY.—At the Minster, on Tuesday, March 7th for practice, 503 Grandsire Caters: R. Owen 1, C. P. Bradley 2, H. Ringrose 3, J. Braithwaite 4, F. Osgerby 5, C. G. Constable 6, A. M. C. Field 7, W. Gibson 8, W. Middleton 9, E. S. Field 10. Also 168 Stedman Triples (W. Middleton conductor) and 395 Grandsire Caters.

REAL SUPERLATIVE.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—It does seem remarkable what ridiculous claims the common or garden variety of composers will advance; myself, as an instance, for having claimed to possess a truly wonderful impossibility (according to the tone of Mr. Parker's letter), i.e., 10,000 of Real Superlative, with over 9,000, tenors together. I infer from Mr. Parker's letter that he considers it to be utterly unattainable; that being so, what I now ask will cost him nothing. Being keenly interested in Leicester's Royal Infirmary, will Mr. Parker give a donation of £10 to that institution (it is upheld by public subscription) if my composition is true? Should he have the courage of his own conviction he will make that promise if the peal is false, then nothing will ever coax Fred Dexter to follow mirages again.—Yours truly,
F. H. DEXTER.

BELLS AND BELL RINGING EXHIBITION.

On a recent Friday the Acton Scientific and Literary Society held at their hall a demonstration and exhibit evening, comprising Fossil footprints, by Dr. Sherlock, F.G.S.; astronomical telescopes by J. B. Miles, B.Sc.; a collection of gem stones by Miss H. Mackenzie, B.A., B.Sc.; bells and bell ringing, by Robt. Holloway. Great interest was shown in the old bells and castings, and in the working models of the present-day bell.

Demonstrations of change ringing were given at intervals to a crowded hall on Mr. Lawrence's two sets of beautiful handbells—small and large—which fairly 'brought down the roof.' Altogether the evening was a great success, as at times Mr. Holloway was lost in the crowd around him all anxious to know exactly how church bells were rung, and it was apparent extraordinary ideas of ringing exist in some people's minds. Those who took part in the handbells were: H. Wincote 1—2, W. Lawrence 3—4, Robt. Pardon 5—6, Robt. Holloway 7—8. Models and old bells were very kindly lent by Messrs. W. Lawrence, Mears and Stainbank, and Warner and Sons.

LONG STANTON VICAR'S LOSS.

On Monday, Mar. 27, at Long Stanton, 720 Bob Minor was rung in whole pulls, with the bells muffled at back stroke, in 55½ mins., as a token of respect to the late Mrs. Adelaide Constance Maddock, eldest sister of the Vicar, who was buried in the churchyard next day: W. Hawkes 1, F. J. Cook 2, G. Crisp 3, Rev. H. B. Woolley 4, J. B. Woolley 5, C. W. Cook (conductor) 6.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.
TONBRIDGE DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of Tonbridge district of the Kent Association was attended by over thirty members. Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. S. H. Clark), Mr. A. M. Darling (churchwarden) read the lesson, and the Rev. F. L. Schrieber (Vicar of Shipbourne) gave an excellent address. The Rev. C. E. G. Myley, Mus.Bac., Vicar of St. Michael's, East Peckham, presided at the organ. Following the service tea was partaken of in the Parish Room, followed by the business meeting. The Vicar of Tonbridge presided, supported by the two churchwardens and the vicars of Shipbourne and East Peckham. The Vicar of Leigh (the Rev. G. E. Weston) was also present.—The District Secretary extended a hearty welcome to the Vicar of Leigh, and announced that the ringers of that church were to be proposed as members. The secretary's report congratulated the members on a most successful year: 26 new members had been elected and there was a total increase of three on the preceding year. He reported that some repairs had been done at Staplehurst by Mr. Bowell, of Ipswich, which were quite satisfactory. He regretted to announce that owing to the bad state of the frame and fittings the bells at Lamberhurst could not be rung, and that the authorities there did not take advantage of the offers that were made a few years ago, when, with a little perseverance, he thought that not only would the present six bells have been rehung but two trebles would have been added. The scheme, however, was allowed to drop. Four meetings had been held. The district had suffered a severe loss by the death of their old friend, Miss MacAlpine Leny.

The report was approved.

The Vicar of Tonbridge was elected an hon. member.

Mr. W. Latter was re-elected district secretary, and Messrs. Edwards and White representatives on the Central Committee. Fifteen new members were elected, and it was decided to hold meetings this year at Chiddingstone, Westerham, Staplehurst and Speldhurst.

Mr. White gave a short report of the business done at the last Central Committee meeting, stating that the annual meeting was to be held on Easter Monday either at Ashford or Tenterden.

The District Secretary made another appeal for the Association War Memorial, and asked the representatives of the various bands to take a collecting card and bring the matter before their members and return the cards with the subscriptions as soon as possible.

Mr. White proposed that votes of thanks be accorded to the Vicar and churchwarden of Tonbridge, and to the preacher and organist.—Mr. A. M. Darling replied.

The members afterwards returned to the tower for further ringing.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Good Friday will necessitate 'The Ringing World' being sent to press a day earlier next week. Advertisements and reports must reach us not later than Monday.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Owing to pressure on our space this week we are obliged to hold over a few peal reports, letters and articles by contributors.

The Towers and Belfries Committee of the Central Council have had several conferences in London with the Society for the Preservation of Ancient Buildings. It is hoped on both sides that considerable mutual advantage will be derived from this conference.

The peal of Double Norwich at Mitcham on March 25th, was rung in honour of Mr. J. D. Drewett, the highly respected Master of the Surrey Association, and a member of the College Youths, upon his having been made a Justice of the Peace for the county of Surrey.

The first peal of Treble Bob Royal was rung at St. Sepulchre's, Snow Hill, on April 7th, 1741. It was a peal by the Eastern Scholars, and remains as one of the landmarks in ringing history.

Twenty years later, in 1761, was rung that remarkable peal at Leeds in Kent, the extent of the changes in Bob Major (40,320) in which 13 men took part, and which began on April 7th and ended on April 8th.

Ten years ago to-morrow the Herts Association rang the 12,160 Bristol Surprise in 7 hrs. 18 mins., at Knebworth.

The first peal of Stedman Cinques in Yorkshire was rung 40 years ago next Monday. This was at Sheffield.

On April 11th, 1888, a peal of 13,265 Grandsire Caters was rung at Appleton, and on April 12th, 1909, that triumph of all tower bell peals, the 18,027 Stedman Caters at Loughborough in 12 hrs. 18 mins., which eclipsed for number of changes, weight of metal and length of time, anything ever before (or since) rung single-handed.

The anniversary of another record occurs next week, viz., the 14,000 of Kent Treble Bob Royal, in 9 hrs. 24 mins., rung at Ashten-under-Lyne on April 13th, 1914.

METHOD NAMING.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The time has now long since gone by when I was open to receive names for the unnamed methods in the Council's Minor Collection. The matter is now in the hands of the Peals Analysis Committee, and with all they have to get through in connection with the Analysis, I feel that its members have a big job in arriving at a final conclusion regarding names. Many claims have to be sifted, and members of the Exercise who have put forward claims must be prepared to receive some disappointments.—Yours truly,

CYRIL W. Q. JENKYN Hon. Librarian.

GRANDSIRE TRIPLES COMPOSITIONS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Lindoff is quite right when he says that I made my remarks about my irregular 10-part, for my own advantage. And the advantage that I want to get by them is this: to prevent that peal from being hawked about the country any longer as his composition. He says that nothing is easier than for me to produce the printed evidence, but how am I to do this? I only saw one copy at that time, it was a cutting and where it had been published, whether in a paper, or a report, I cannot say. This, however, I can do. I can bring forward evidence that that peal has been rung again and again as his. But this I cannot do until I can get hold of a file of your valuable paper, so he must wait about a month for the evidence that I shall be able to produce, as soon as I can refer to the back numbers of 'The Ringing World.' I may state that the variation that is generally rung as his is in a five-part form with ten singles. If Mr. W. T. Pegler should see this letter, I should be obliged if he would write and say whether he has any recollection of the conversation which Mr. Lindoff asserts never took place.

With regard to the peal under discussion, I can only say again, as I have said before, that I never published it at all, and never knew who first published it. In 1903 I was away in Switzerland, and I never saw a ringing paper, or had any knowledge of what was going on in the Exercise from 1902 until I took up ringing again in 1911, and I never knew that Mr. Lindoff had laid claim to my composition until he wrote and told me so last summer.—Yours faithfully,

E. BANKES JAMES.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. A. T. KING. INTERMENT AT STEVENAGE.

With a simple but impressive service, the mortal remains of the late Mr. Arthur T. King were laid to rest in the churchyard at Stevenage on Thursday of last week. Mr. King, whose sudden death is lamented by the whole Exercise, died, as recorded in our last issue, while on his way to church to attend morning service, on Sunday, March 26th. He got as far as the church, and on the steps he collapsed. He was taken into the vestry, but it was found that he had already passed away, death having apparently taken place instantaneously, from heart failure.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral, but the widow was unable to be present on account of shock from which she was suffering, and the bitterly cold weather which prevailed. The family mourners included: Dr. William H. King and Quartermaster Corporal-Major P. L. King, Life Guards (sons); Mrs. Margetts and Miss K. King (daughters); Miss Margetts (grand-daughter); Mr. King (brother); and a sister. Others present included the deceased gentleman's late colleagues at the National Debt Office, and friends from Barnet, as well as the following ringers, representing the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild: Mr. F. A. Milne, J.P. (hon. treasurer), Mr. Wm. Pyc (Master), Mr. C. T. Coles (hon. secretary), Mr. James Parker, Miss E. K. Parker, Mr. G. R. Pyc, and Mr. J. R. Sharman. Mrs. J. Parker and Mrs. W. J. Bowden were also present.

The service was conducted by Canon Morgan Smith (Rector of Stevenage), assisted by the Rev. Digby J. Leavoyd (Rector of Debden, Essex, late curate of Barnet, and a great friend of Mr. King's), who read the lesson. The organist and choir were present, and in addition to the special Psalm, the hymn, 'Let saints on earth in concert sing,' and the 'Nunc Dimittis' were sung. The committal was said by the Rector of Stevenage, and the closing prayers by the Rector of Debden.

Immediately at the close, a course of Grandsire Caters was rung over the grave by C. T. Coles 1-2, Miss E. K. Parker 3-4, G. R. Pyc 5-8, W. Pyc 7-8, J. Parker 9-10.

There were a large number of flowers, including a beautiful wreath with the inscription, 'With deepest sympathy from the members of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild of Change Ringers.'

A half-muffled peal of Stedman Triples (recorded elsewhere) was rung the same evening at St. Matthew's, Upper Clapton, by special permission of the Rev. O. R. Dawson, and on Saturday an attempt was made at the Church of St. George-in-the-East for a half-muffled peal of Bristol Surprise Major, but this unfortunately failed, after 2½ hours' ringing.

At Christ Church, Southgate, on Thursday evening, March 30th, by the local band, six courses Grandsire Caters were rung with the bells half-muffled, in memory of the late President of the Middlesex County Association.

At Willesden, Middlesex, with the bells half-muffled the 'whole pull and stand,' followed by 432 of Grandsire Triples, was rung by E. H. Kilby 1, B. Foskett 2, G. M. Kilby 3, C. Lankester 4, F. H. Crook 5, R. Kilby 6, H. Kilby (conductor) 7, P. Norton 8.

A letter of condolence from the Central Council has been sent to the widow by the hon. secretary (Mr. E. Alex. Young), who referred to Mr. King's service to ringing, and especially to the Council, where his knowledge, help and influential support, will be sadly missed.

'Once a Beginner' writes: 'I was deeply grieved to read in your issue of March 31st of the death of Mr. Arthur T. King, and hasten to tender my sympathy to the Middlesex County Association on their loss. Indeed, not only the Middlesex Association, but the whole Exercise, has lost a hand and brain that was for ever at their service. Mr. King was one of those rare men who was for ever doing something for the common good, and by far the greater portion of his work was never known to the rank and file of ringers.'

'I well remember the rather gusty meeting at Ealing in 1897, when the Association came into being as a county organisation. It had been my humble duty at the last minute to whitewash the belfry ceiling for the occasion, and I got such a wiggling from good old Jack Basden because I had not cleaned up all my "litter".'

'Mr. King had a task set him which only one with his powerful personality and keen brain could have safely undertaken. To launch a new ship in the midst of an already congested stream, in the face of very decided opposition from the older societies was a task that few would have been able to bring to such a successful conclusion as he did. In after years I have heard him alluded to as "the King of Middlesex," and he was in truth supreme, as no one could approach him for tactfulness and thought for others and their feelings, and I dare say without fear of contradiction that Mr. King's name will be found written on the scroll with ink that has not faded when those who sought to belittle his aims have long been forgotten among men. There are many who knew him by name only, but many more knew him and loved him for his ever hearty greeting on all occasions, and we all deeply feel the loss of our old friend and adviser.'

WHY ST. EDMUNDSBURY? SUFFOLK SECRETARY REPLIES.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Your two Norfolk correspondents are not quite in touch with the position as it is in Suffolk. I have always been in favour of such a move as the secretary of the old Norwich Association now advocates, but there are two objections to the way it has now been done: one external, the other internal.

(1) When I wrote on the matter in your columns last year, you drew our attention to the fact that the Ely Association has a residuary interest in West Suffolk. The latter has given up its largest branch in order that a society may be formed for the new Diocese. And it is clearly both wrong and discourteous for the Norwich Association to take advantage of this generous act, to try and snatch this territory, without consulting the Ely Association first.

(2) The title of the old Norwich Association is fixed by a rule which can only be altered at a general meeting after due notice. Yet we find that, without any notice at all, this alteration has been made at a committee meeting of a branch, at which, I am informed, there was not a quorum present; apparently a small district meeting has since supported the change, but how this effects its validity I do not see.

With regard to the Suffolk Diocesan Association, the criticisms are premature, for as will be seen from your advertisement columns, the latter is still in a preliminary stage, and will be till April 29th at least. Certain ringers in Suffolk wish to have a society of their own, now that they have a Diocese of their own. Whether they number 80 or 800, only concerns themselves. They wish no harm, but everything that is good, to the old Norwich Association, and as far as ringers in East Suffolk are concerned, would be glad to work in with the old Association; and I have no doubt that if Norfolk ringers would cease their well-intentioned but misdirected efforts, we shall 'all live happily together ever afterwards.'—Yours sincerely,

HERBERT DRAKE.

Dear Sir,—In reply to my friend Mr. Burton, I quite agree that Suffolk 'Diocesan' is incorrect. By the request of several clergy, and, at the suggestion of our general secretary, the word 'county' was dropped, and the word 'Diocesan' inserted. On my own part I am for the original word 'county.'

I would like to state that 'the body' of 80 ringers has never attempted to dictate to the Association of 400, nor wishes to do so. The Ipswich Branch of the N. and I.A., without doubt, is a strong one; but not the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Branch; as Mr. Burton must have known after the meeting at Hadleigh that the ringers of St. Edmundsbury district did not leave a weak sister society with the intention of strengthening a stronger one, which would have been a bit 'shady.' I still ask, 'Why St. Edmundsbury?' when the word is meaningless, as it is the members that make an Association, and not the territory.—Yours truly,

Lavenham,

S. H. SYMONDS.

RINGING IN AMERICA.

Dear Sir,—I was interested in the letter published in your issue of March 31st, from A. C. Limpus, Vancouver, B.C. He, with his fellow ringers, is to be congratulated in maintaining a band of ringers that enable them to ring regularly. There must be something of a 'home touch' that enables them to do it and no difficulties to contend with such as we meet with in Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

I appreciate his correcting me. My information as to location of peals, ringing activities, etc., was obtained from Dr. A. H. Nicholls, of Boston, who I understand, has kept himself in touch with all activities among bells in America for the last 40 or 50 years. Evidently his records were not complete. I feel sure he will appreciate any information Mr. Limpus can impart to him. After writing my letter—the one Mr. Limpus refers to—I received a letter from Mr. A. P. Goddard, I believe it was, if my memory serves me correctly, of Vancouver, too late for me to correct myself as to the activities of the band there.

I would take this opportunity of stating that I answered all letters received by me from England, up to the time of my departure from Boston. I hope that when I return I shall see a few additions to our band, as I received a number of promising letters.

I might add, for the benefit of any sailor ringers who might call at Boston, or some near-by port in the U.S.A., that we can be reached by telephoning or writing Dr. A. H. Nicholls, 55, Mount Vernon Street, Boston, or Richard Newton, Merchants Bank State Street, Boston.—Yours truly, Bedford, April 4th, 1922.

NEW METHODS.

MR. WILLIAM PYE CRITICISES MODERN PRODUCTIONS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—In your lewling article of the 31st March you launch an attack on present-day Surprise ringers. Your attack is a very poor one, and does not need a very strong defence to withstand it. My contention is this, that unless new methods are in some way superior to old ones we are not advancing in the least by ringing them. The only Surprise method on eight bells that is any good, which has been produced during the last century is Bristol, which is without doubt a beautiful method, and Mr. James has every reason to be proud of it. He has told us that he has had such methods as Dublin, Suffolk, Guildford and Premier, as long as he has had Bristol, and that they were taken from it, but were worthless, compared with Bristol—which is quite true. To place these methods, before the Exercise after Bristol is like giving anyone champagne till he could not drink any more, and then ask him to take water for a change. They are what you would commonly call 'throw outs,' which means they are all defective. Take Suffolk, for instance. The front work is Bristol reversed. The result is you have two places in a course when 7-8 do double dodging the wrong way, and there are four places in every lead where bells lie still in 5-6, which should always be avoided, for dodging is always preferable to that. In addition to that you have a bell in 7-8 for a whole lead and seven pull dodging at a hob, which is too long. It is also robbed of its clean proof scale, which gives less scope for composition. Dublin is a little improvement on Suffolk, as it has a clean proof scale and 7, 8, always dodge the right way. Premier has little to recommend it, as it is not on the lengthening lead plan, which does not improve its musical properties. It is like going back from Treble Bob to Bob Major for a change. Guildford, too, has little to recommend it, and it cannot be said that any of these methods are more intricate than either Bristol or London, for anyone who can ring Bristol has little or nothing to learn, and the only novelty in them is destroyed very often, as they are sometimes rung before publication, and the only persons they appeal to are those that will go for anything that is fresh. Double Dublin is about the best method, and that is spoilt by the work in 5-6 and behind. The latest bombshell is Double Superlative, which is a beautiful method spoilt. Too many calls spoil any Surprise method, but when you get four calls in two leads it's the limit. You have the treble hunting one bell for two leads, and another bell hunting that, so that it is like having three trebles, and 7, 8 are retained in 3-4 or 5-6 a lead at a time. Although you have the M and W leads, the method is robbed of a lot of its best changes, and by shortening the courses you do not often increase your scope for composition. I am afraid our Leicester friend will find, if he publishes a 9,000 with the tenors together, that he will have a rude awakening.

In conclusion I say let ringers please themselves what they ring. At any rate I shall. No one would welcome a really good method more than your humble, but I certainly shall not go for freaks of nature.—Yours, etc.,

W. PYE.

We wish Mr. Pye had carried his analysis further, and pointed out the defects of the three methods, to which so many Surprise ringers limit their operations—Superlative, Cambridge and London. We are sure he could have found many points to criticise. Like Premier, which Mr. Pye says has little to recommend it, neither of the methods mentioned are on the lengthening lead plan and thus their musical properties are not improved. Like Suffolk, they are without a clean proof scale, and nothing gives less scope for composition than Cambridge, which has a defect that would not be tolerated in any modern method, viz., that of four bells lying still twice in each lead. Then, too, the beauties of Superlative are marred by the fact that it is impossible in a peal to avoid having the 2nd dodge with the tenor—a 'musical' blemish which some, at any rate, of the other methods can be made to escape. In some respects, therefore, the old methods so religiously adhered to are no better than some of the new ones. But there are others besides those analysed above. The fact that the novelty of these new methods is destroyed by someone ringing them before they are published is no fresh detriment to the subsequent ringing of them by others, for Superlative, Cambridge and London had the novelty knocked out of them a hundred years ago. The whole point of our last week's article was to show that in Surprise methods the bulk of ringers practise little beyond those methods which were rung a century ago.

GET OUT OF THE RUT.

Dear Sir,—With reference to your article on the above-named subject, I feel that a slight has been put on many of the ringers that endeavour to keep the Exercise alive.

While it is great to see the many performances the men at Leiston and Whitley Bay have put up, yet it should be borne in mind that these ringers all reside very near one another, and are, therefore, able to practise continually with practically the same band.

Now, in many cases peals are rung by mixed bands at various churches, and some of these, although only in such methods of Grand-sire, Bob Major, Treble Bob and Double Norwich, are often only obtained at great trouble and expense to these ringers, besides the long distances they have to travel to ring them. Of course, in these circumstances, nobody would expect them to ring such methods as London, as they are unable to practise together regularly.

No disrespect is intended to the brothers Bailey or Goffon.—Yours sincerely,

D. N.

My reference was not to those who are unable to practise methods other than they now ring, but to those who, having the facilities, are content to go on ringing, without any efforts to introduce even variety, the methods which our great grandfathers rang.—Ed. 'R.W.'

TWO SUGGESTIONS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Permit me a word of comment on two points recently brought forward in your correspondence columns.

With regard to the first, I see that I am already too late as far as Bristol is concerned. Now that annual dinners are being established in various quarters, the question may be raised, whether such gatherings may not occasionally be held in the middle of the week, so that clerical members of the ringing fraternity may have a chance of attending them without the necessity of being absent from their parishes on the following Sunday. To provide for their Sunday duties is in most cases both difficult and expensive and the result of the present practice is to debar almost all the clergy from taking part in these enjoyable gatherings except the few that happen to live in the immediate locality.

The other matter is the 'Norwich and Ipswich' controversy. As one whose first recollection of ringing is the sound of St. Mary's bells, Woodbridge, in the seventies, I have been following this discussion with interest. Mr. Burton very properly points out that 'Suffolk' Diocesan' is practically meaningless. On the other hand, such a cumbersome title as 'Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Association' is destined to collapse under its own weight. (What a mouthful for the secretary introducing new members of the Central Council!) Is not the most sensible solution of the problem to rename the whole society 'The Norfolk and Suffolk Association,' and then divide it into two main branches (a) Norwich Diocesan, (b) St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan, with further territorial subdivisions, such as East and West Suffolk? This suggestion is somewhat analogous to the arrangement in Lancashire, where Liverpool Diocese forms a branch of the County Association.—Yours truly, F. L. EDWARDS.

SUTTON COLDFIELD RINGER'S DEATH.

We regret to record the death, on March 15th, of Mr. George Roberts of Sutton Coldfield, Warwickshire. The deceased joined the Sutton Coldfield Parish Church band about 34 years ago, and (except for a brief period) remained a member until his death.

Previous to the year 1889, change ringing had not been practised in Sutton Coldfield by a local band, but about the latter date, deceased with several other young men became associated with the Parish Church tower, the leader of which at that time was the present deputy parish clerk (Mr. T. Matthews). The band thus augmented decided, with the assistance and consent of the Church authorities, to learn the art of change ringing. Accordingly, an instructor was engaged, and such progress was made that on 3rd October, 1891, a peal of 5,040 changes was rung in which six of the local ringers took part; and this was the first peal that the deceased took part in. Since that time he had taken part in numerous peals, and had rung in practically every tower containing eight bells in the district. He was a member of the Warwickshire Guild, the Worcestershire Association, the Staffordshire Archdeaconry Society, and the St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham. Some of his peals were notable, and included a 'George' peal rung at Harborne Parish Church on St. George's Day, 1920. His last 5,040 was rung on the Abbey bells, Erdington, on 27th January—a muffled peal in memory of the late Pope.

The funeral took place on Saturday, the 18th March at the Cemetery, Sutton Coldfield, and in the evening his late campanological colleagues attempted to ring a muffled peal on the Parish Church bells as a tribute of respect; and very appropriately Mr. B. W. Witchell, of Erdington, who conducted Mr. Roberts' first peal over 30 years ago, acted as conductor. One of the sidemen of the Parish Church (Mr. F. Dickens) who also rang in the deceased's first peal, took part in the funeral peal. Unfortunately, a change course took place after 2,500 changes had been rung. The band was: F. Dickens 1, J. Pemberton 2, G. Garrison 3, T. Bloore 4, B. Witchell 5, C. Waitman 6, B. Leatham 7, J. Reynolds 8.

The ringers hope to fix in the tower some permanent record to his memory.

The deceased leaves a widow and young family, to whom the greatest sympathy is extended by a wide circle of friends.

GREAT ST. MARY'S, CAMBRIDGE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir.—In reply to 'Plain Bob,' re the cracked bell at Great St. Mary's, Cambridge, he is quite right. Apathy of the Ancient Society of Cambridge Youths who control the tower, coupled with the rotten system of £ s. d. for the ringing, which is done there only on that basis. Previous to 1914 I commenced cycling over to Cambridge for a practice at Great St. Mary's, hoping to find a band where one could learn; and they used to stand down in the street and debate whether they should go up or not, with the result it was more often 'not.' Cambridge, which should be the live wire of ringing in the association, is a dead letter. The various clergy always seem to find the £ s. d. to decorate the east end of the church, but the west end is very often a dustbin for any rubbish that may accumulate.—Yours truly,

R. LATHBURY.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

WESTERN DIVISION MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Western Division was held at St. Margaret's, Angmering, on Saturday, April 1st, members being present from Arundel, Brighton, Henfield, Shoreham, Kirdford Heene, and the local band.

Various methods were rung during the afternoon and the company, at the invitation of the Rector (the Rev. T. H. Pearson) partook of tea at the church rooms. An excellent repast was provided, to which the members did full justice.

The business meeting followed, the Rector taking the chair, supported by his churchwarden (Mr. O. Chaplin).

The Rector having given a short address of welcome to the association, Mr. A. W. Groves was re-elected hon. secretary, and Messrs. H. Stallham, P. Doick and E. H. Lindup were again elected to the committee for the ensuing year.—The committee of advice was also re-elected, viz. Messrs. W. Charman, J. Burdfield and T. Burtenshaw.

Five new members were elected: Messrs. L. West, C. Smart and W. Wadey, from Angmering; and Messrs. R. Birch and E. Jarvis, from Arundel.—It was proposed to hold the next meeting at Billingshurst in June.

The Secretary, after making his report, expressed regret at the recent loss of two respected members of the division, by the death of Mr. G. Garland, of Steyning, and Mr. T. Lindfield, of Angmering. As a mark of respect to their memory the company present stood in silence.

A vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for presiding, and also for providing the excellent tea.—Thanks were also given to Mr. Chaplin for supporting him.

After the meeting the company again visited the bells which were kept going till 8 o'clock in various methods.

It was the opinion of those present that these bells were sadly in need of the attention of a bell hanger.

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

The quarterly meeting of this Society was held at All Saints', Lower Edmonton, on Saturday, April 1st. The bells were kept going until 5.30 p.m., when tea was served in the Church Room, 24 members being present. The business meeting followed, and it was resolved to put the war memorial (to be erected in the porch at St. Leonard's, Shoreditch) in hand as soon as possible.

The next meeting will be held early in July, and the secretary was instructed to write to Beddington in the hope of holding the meeting there.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar and the helpers closed the meeting. The tower was again visited, and all methods up to London Surprise rung. A very pleasant time was spent.

ASSOCIATIONS AND THE COUNCIL.

No fewer than ten of the principal associations hold general meetings next week—chiefly on Easter Monday—and two or three others will follow with similar gatherings of members before the end of the month. We shall be interested to see whether any single question is raised at these twelve or more gatherings—which include meetings of some of the leading ringing organisations—that will provide anything for the Agenda of the Central Council. Very seldom indeed does an association send a resolution to the Council for consideration, which seems to be viewed as a body apart, instead of being treated as an integral and, indeed, a pivotal part of ringing organisation. When ringers speak of the Central Council, they not infrequently refer to it as a more or less useless body, apparently oblivious of the fact that it should be their business to make it a live wire in the constitution of the Exercise. Ringers must, at least, have some ideas as to the manner in which the Council could be of service, and they ought not to hesitate to ventilate these views in their own associations, so that the subjects could go eventually to the Council for consideration and decision.

Up to the present, we believe, there are no notices of motion for the Council's Agenda for the Lincoln meeting, but the forthcoming association general meetings ought to be able to, and we hope will, provide suitable topics for debate at the Whitsun gathering. The absence of any such resolutions does not mean that the Council will have no business to transact; indeed, there is always a considerable amount of work provided for the members from inside the Council, such as the reports of the Committees. At the same time it would show that the Council's position as the hub of the Exercise was more widely realised if, from the initiative and interest of the rank and file of the ringing organisations, subjects of general interest could be sent up.

What all those who have the wider interests of ringing at heart desire to see, is a closer community between the Council and the associations; and in this there is room for advance by the Council itself, as well as by the affiliated bodies. One step which we hope will be taken at the next meeting of the Council is so to amend the constitution that the Council will thereafter officially communicate its business to the associations after each meeting. At present it is left to the representatives to report to their associations, and if an association happens not to be represented, or to be represented by someone who is unable to attend the meeting of his own association afterwards, nothing comes officially before the association as to any decision taken. There is, of course, the report of the proceedings which appears in our columns, and long afterwards the official minutes appear; but neither of these has just the same importance as would be attached to a direct communication from the Council. Perhaps the Standing Committee could best take the necessary step to give effect to the suggestion, which, we believe, would go far to tighten up the relationship between the central and the attached bodies; but it is equally open to a private member to move in the matter. As things at present stand, none of the decisions are communicated through the officials, and this could easily nullify to a large extent the work of the Council.

THE LATE MR. A. T. KING.

At Isleworth, on Friday, March 31st, with the bells muffled, as a mark of respect to the late President of the Middlesex Association, the whole pull and stand was rung, after which the Rev. Summerfield, in the tower, gave a short address, referring to the loss which the Association had sustained, and to Mr. King's high character and his work. Two 360's Bob Minor were rung by Messrs. E. Webb, W. Lidbetter, F. Goddard, T. Beadle, A. Beckensale, W. H. Hollier and H. Brooks.

On Sunday, April 2nd, for morning service, at St. John the Baptist's Church, Barnet, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled as a mark of respect to the late Mr. Arthur T. King, I.S.O., President of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild: G. Herbert 1, R. Sturgeon 2, F. J. Chandler 3, J. Sumpter 4, H. Eldred 5, F. A. Milne (conductor) 6, R. Roffey 7, J. W. Langley 8.

On Wednesday, March 29th, at St. Mary the Virgin, Monken Hadley, the bells were also rung with half-muffled clappers by Messrs. J. Wicks, G. Herbert, J. Tarling, W. Tarling, J. Sumpter and T. Lilley, Grandsire Doubles being rung.

Reference to the death of Mr. King was made at the South and West District meeting of the Middlesex Association on April 1st, as reported elsewhere.

NEED OF A BENEVOLENT FUND.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The appeals appearing in your columns lately, for assistance to ringers and their dependants, recalls the idea of a formation of a benevolent fund, which has at various times been advocated in the ringing Press. If it could be brought about it would be a boon to all the Exercise, as it would enable needful cases to be assisted at once, instead of waiting weeks for subscription to come in. Perhaps some of the Associations this Easter, at their meetings, will find room on their agendas, so that it may be brought before ringers throughout the ringing isle.—Yours truly,

J. PUPLETT.

Benevolent Funds have been established in a few Associations, notably the Kent and Sussex, but there is scope for a much wider application of the idea.

We have to acknowledge receipt of 2s. 6d. from Mr. Puplett, towards the fund for the assistance of the widow of the late Mr. Matthew Ellmore, and contributions from the friends of the deceased are invited. They should be sent to the Editor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I wish to acknowledge the following sums received on behalf of the widow of the late Harry Flanders: Leytonstone Society, 8s.; Anonymous, 2s. 6d.; Messrs. W. Whitehead, 2s. 6d.; M. F. R. Hibbert, 2s.; H. W. Clark, 2s. 6d.; E. Barnett, senr., 2s. 6d.; A. Baynes, 2s. 6d.; F. C. Newman, 2s. 6d.; G. Hayden, 2s. 6d.; Wm. A. Pye, 10s.; L. A. Pye, 5s. The total received to date is 25 5s., and any further sums will be very thankfully acknowledged by yours truly,

C. T. COLES, Hon. Sec.

49, Wood Street, E.17.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A well-attended meeting of the Bolton Branch was held at St. George's, Bolton, on the 1st inst. Almost every tower in the branch was represented, and visitors came from Blackburn, Preston and Manchester. Touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob and Bob Major were brought round. The business part of the meeting was presided over by the Vicar (the Rev. Canon H. J. Elsee, President of the Association). Two new members were elected from St. Bartholomew's.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at St. Mary's, Reane.

ELLAND SOCIETY ENTERTAINED.

Through the kind hospitality of Mr. William Dobson, of Elland, the members of St. Mary's Church Society, together with a few Huddersfield brother ringers, were entertained to a most substantial repast at the Mexboro' Arms, Elland, on Thursday evening. An adjournment was made to the tower, where two short courses of Kent Treble Bob Major were rung by the following: J. Barraclough 1, G. H. Simon 2, A. Armitage 3, C. Hollas 4, W. Brearley 5, W. Frith 6, E. Carter (conductor) 7, A. Carter 8.

During the evening the company were entertained by Mr. Edgar Carter and Mr. Allan Carter with songs, with intervals of handbell ringing by others.—A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Dobson and other gentlemen present for the enjoyable evening they had provided, and to Mrs. Brier, the hostess, for the excellent manner in which the company had been catered for. The hope was expressed for the function to be an annual affair, as it had been previously for 50 years back, before the war caused the dinner to be abandoned.

BRISTOL—AN ANALYSIS.

By A. YORK-BRAMBLE.

From time to time there arises a controversy on the subject of the extension of this or that particular method. Many variations are produced, some obviously 'foreign,' others apparently 'native.' There follows a great division of opinion, and, as a result the inevitable shelving of the question until some later expression of view opens it up again. Now what is the cause of this failure to reach an incontrovertible decision? Apparently it is that the principles underlying the construction of the method have not been determined. Now, in the absence of a statement, by the original author of a method, as to what constituted his principles of construction, we are left to adopt a retrograde process; and from the original example of the application of his general principles of construction, we have to determine what those principles were. Failure to apply this process logically and mathematically leads to the discovery of—well, not the basic principles; but a means of producing a so-called 'extension' of that original example of 'method.' But the basic principles, once determined, will provide the truly 'scientific' extension of the method upwards; and will be such that, if properly expressed, they will enable the novice to produce extensions (true) forthwith, and without difficulty. Further, if any so-called 'extension' be found to vary from what these basic principles produce for us, then it cannot be the extension proper. Before proceeding with our investigation for these principles in the particular case of 'Bristol,' however (as is our intention), it will be advisable to make quite sure of our ground up to this point; although we may be stating nothing really 'new' in so doing.

First of all, then, what do we understand by a 'method'? It is generally accepted that a method is a modified form of 'principle,' in which one unit has a simple 'path' (the treble—either plain hunt or T.B. hunt), while all the other units have the same (and a more complex) path. But what, after all, is a 'principle' (e.g., Stedman) in this sense? It is simply a practical way of expressing certain mathematical facts regarding the Laws of Permutation; by means of changed order of sounds in the belfry, and by a graphical representation in symbols on paper. All the units to be permuted, or changed in successive order, obey the same 'regulations' (except that in the case of a 'method' proper, one unit, 'The Treble,' has a regular and symmetrical path; in relation to which, the complexities in the paths of the other units stand definitely fixed). Hence it is that these 'regulations' may be expressed, in general form relatively to the position of the 'exempt' unit (the Treble bell) amongst the other units (the working bells); or, in the case of the principle proper, relatively to the recurrence of certain well-defined features. These regulations may be framed and varied at the will of the method-builder; his only restrictions being those conventions which are laid down in the 'Rules and Decisions,' as published by the Central Council. Thus it is clear that a 'method' is simply a cartographical representation of the behaviour of certain processes of mathematical permutation, when those processes are modified and restricted: (a) by certain universally accepted conventions; and (b) by variations introduced at certain relatively fixed points, at the will of the method builder. These may be called his 'Principles of Construction.'

Our next point for consideration is as to what is meant by 'extension.' First of all, we must find out whether that which we want to extend is in itself already an extension, or not, of something yet more elementary. Investigation, on the lines indicated below, will immediately give us our answer to this question; and thus it is that we can determine, eventually, the simplest (or elementary) form of expression of the 'principles of construction' on which the method is founded. In proceeding towards our conclusions we must be careful to test, step by step, the generalisations which we are deducing; even to the extent of their restricted application when the working of the 'exempt' unit (the Treble bell) is modified from T.B. hunt to plain hunt. In fine, the generalised laws will, when determined, instantly produce any extension of the method, subject to the paying of due regard to the adjustment of relative working positions, and to the admission of natural 'developmental' features.

We are now face to face with the consideration of the third, and, perhaps most vital point; that of the distinction between modes of extension in relation to (a) 'Single' methods, and (b) 'Double' methods. Again let us make quite certain of our ground. Let us examine carefully our instrument of expression—commonly called 'a lead'—let us dissect and label its component parts; and incidentally, discover their inter-relationship. For purposes of illustration let us take the lead of a Major T.B. hunt method. Now each lead is marked off from its neighbours at the 'foremost' positions of the 'regulating' unit or treble bell. This 'foremost' or leading position occupies two rows of symbols, the upper being the last row of the 'lead' above; and the lower being the first row of the lead below. Thus the division between the leads occurs between these two rows:

Lead end 1 a b c d e f g

Lead head 1 b a d e f g

—the rows being termed 'lead-end' and 'lead head' respectively.

STEDMAN TRIPLES.

ANOTHER 'ODD AND EVEN BOB' PEAL.

Mr. A. J. Pitman, of Port Talbot, Glam., sends us the following new peal of Stedman Triples on the 'Odd and Even Bob' plan. He points out that it is composed differently to Mr. Carter's peal in the slow sixes, and is, perhaps, still more difficult to conduct. The 7th is never bobbed in or out quick.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

NORTHERN DISTRICT MEETING.

For the first time the Herts Association held a meeting at Offley, which was visited on Saturday, April 1st. Ringers assembled from Hushorne, Crawley, Barton-in-Clay, Woburn, Tring, Hitchin, and the local band. Ringing took place during the afternoon, and a capital tea was served at the Working Men's Hall.

At the meeting which followed, Miss M. A. Durrant was voted to the chair.

The Secretary read a letter of appreciation from Canon Nairne, thanking all the members for their good wishes and kind expressions on his retirement. He added he quite hopes to meet them again.

Regret was expressed at the sudden death of the late Mr. A. T. King, whose ringing activities extended to that Association, among at least a dozen other kindred associations and Guilds, and he had more than once attended meetings in the Northern district.

Thanks were returned to the Vicar for the use of the bells, to Mr. C. Monk for having the bells ready and for arranging tea, also to Miss Durrant for presiding; this being her last appearance amongst the Herts ringers before her forthcoming marriage.

Thanks for his services, and congratulations, with best wishes for her future happiness, were expressed, and brought a happy gathering to a close.

Further ringing in several Minor methods followed. The next district meeting is to be held at Barley, in May.

Offley Church tower is quite a plain red brick modern structure, originally it must have been much larger, as shown by some of its foundations which are still visible. The church is of the 14th and 15th centuries, with traces of 13th century work. Some of the old oak benches are worthy of notice, also some early stone coffins, but what struck one most were two tessellated tiles with an inscription on the south aisle wall, above which is placed another inscription stating that these tiles prove that King Offa was buried in this place.

An old chronicler, however, writes as follows, which is somewhat conflicting: 'Offa's grave was accidentally discovered in the churchyard of Hemel Hempstead. In digging a vault, the sexton, when he had excavated the earth about four feet below the surface of the ground, found his spade strike against something solid which, upon inspection, proved to be a large wrought stone, the lid of the coffin; and under it was found the coffin entire, which was afterwards taken up in perfect condition; but the bones contained therein, on being exposed to the air, crumbled to dust. On the lid of the coffin is an inscription partly defaced by time, but still sufficiently legible decidedly to prove that it contained the ashes of the celebrated Offa. The coffin is about six and a half feet long, and contains a niche or resting-place for the head, and also a groove on each side for the arms, likewise for the legs, it is curiously carved, and altogether unique of the kind.'

The chancel has been very much altered to suit some fine specimens of marble statuary placed there about 1777.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS.

The Midland Counties Association, which holds its annual meeting at Burton, on Monday, had an extremely successful year in 1921. The report of the committee which is to be presented to the members states that the number of members at the close of the year was 893, comprising 185 honorary and 708 ringing members. The report adds: 'It is a matter for profound satisfaction that during the past year some of the greatest names in our nobility have been added to the roll of patrons. Hitherto we have been content to acknowledge the patronage of the Bishops of the Dioceses within the area of the Association. We are now proud to add to our list the illustrious names of their Grace the Dukes of Devonshire, Portland, Argyll, the Most Hon. the Marquis Curzon, K.G., and the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, P.C. The patronage of the above is unique in the annals of the M.C.A., and an honour which we value highly.'

Another feature on which we can congratulate ourselves is the restoration and rehanging of bells within our area. Chief of these is the noble ring of twelve bells at St. Margaret's, Leicester. This is the first and only ring of twelve within the radius of our Association. Hitherto members of the M.C.A. have had to travel to other counties for twelve bell ringing. The privilege of ringing at St. Margaret's will be highly appreciated. The bells at St. Leodegarius, at Basford, Notts, are also an acquisition to the Nottingham district.

With regard to the performances during 1921, the progress in number of peals and also in quality have been very conspicuous, for of a total of 130 peals during the year no less than 48 have been in Surprise methods, including Yorkshire and Cambridge Royal, London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major. The Yorkshire Surprise Royal rung at Chesterfield early in the year, is the first, and, to date, the only peal of Yorkshire Royal ever rung, while the Cambridge Surprise Royal at Loughborough in April, rung by a band of Leicestershire ringers, stands as the first Cambridge Royal by the Association, and we offer our congratulations to the ringers of these peals. The majority of the Cambridge Surprise Major peals during the year are to the credit of the Leicestershire men, and it is noteworthy that in most of such peals there is at least one ringer starred as 'first peal in the method.' We are glad to further congratulate the Leicestershire ringers on scoring London Surprise Major on the last day of the year at the first attempt, and so ending in a very fine manner a very excellent ringing year. Duffield Major once again appears in our list of peals—a method in which it is far from easy to score.

Double Norwich may not have been often attempted and at any rate only two peals have been recorded. We would strongly recommend this musical method to some of the bands who can ring Bob Major and Treble Bob, as in addition to its own interest it is a very helpful method towards Surprise. Grandsire Triples appears in the list twelve times, and while some of these peals are noted to show progress by new ringers we strongly recommend members not to cease their efforts at this method. The fifteen Minor peals are divided into five classes, but one of these classes contains eight peals of Bob Minor. The number of bells, of course, prevents progress beyond Minor, but on six bells there are many excellent methods to be rung; in fact, it is an open question whether Minor ringers have not a better chance of progress towards the best methods than Major ringers.

The 130 peals rung by the Association, compared with 91 in the previous year, and comprised: Yorkshire Surprise Royal 1, Cambridge Royal 3, Kent T.B. Royal 1, Bob Royal 1, Stedman Caters 3, London Surprise Major 6, Bristol 3, Cambridge 20, Superlative 15, Duffield Major 1, Double Norwich 2, Kent Treble Bob Major 12, Oxford 3, Bob Major 5, Stedman Triples 9, Grandsire Triples 12, Bob Minor 8, Minor in two to five methods 7, Doubles 18.

A monthly meeting of Hinckley district was held at Nuneaton, on Saturday, March 4th, and was well attended by members and friends from Croft, Coventry, Burbage, Earl Shilton, Hinckley, South Wigston, Little Wigston, and Nuneaton. The bells were made good use of in Grandsire Doubles, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Kent Treble Bob Major, Double Norwich and Superlative Surprise.

The business meeting was held at the Ringers' Meeting Room, Mr. C. H. Webb presiding. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Sapcote.

Thanks were accorded to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and to the Nuneaton friends for having things in readiness.

Courses of Grandsire Triples, Bob Major, Grandsire and Stedman Caters on the handbells brought a pleasant meeting to a close.

WALKDEN, LANCASHIRE.—Lancashire Association.—On Monday, March 6th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes), in 44 mins.: A. Potter 1, J. Worthington 2, B. Welsby 3, J. Denner 4, J. Denner 5, A. Burton 6, J. Potter (conductor) 7, R. Denner 8. Rung for the coming-of-age of Miss E. V. White, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. White.—On Saturday, March 11th, a quarter-peal of Cambridge Surprise (1,344 changes): J. Leatherbarrow 1, R. F. Deal 2, T. B. Worsley 3, G. Pownall 4, R. Wallwork 5, T. Barlow 6, J. Potter (conductor) 7, A. F. Bailey 8.

A RUGBY MEMORIAL 'QUARTER.'

An interesting quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled, by St. Andrew's Society, at the Parish Church, Rugby, on Sunday, March 12th, to commemorate the unveiling of the town's memorial to those who fell in the great war, and upon which, amongst the names inscribed, is that of Corpl. R. W. Jesson, R.F.A., S.C.M., a former member of the society, who made the supreme sacrifice.

The ringers taking part were all ex-Service men, and members of the society: F. E. Wheeler, R.A.O.C., 1, A. G. Grant, R.E., 2, F. Rice, R.F.A., 3, C. W. Wheeler, R.A.S.C., 4, C. E. Joynes, K.R.R., 5, L. Bramall, R.W.R., 6, W. Malins, W.R., 7, S. Hopcraft, R.E., 8.

SOUTH AND WEST DISTRICT.

A meeting of the South and West District was held at Heston on Saturday, April 1st, and during the afternoon touches in various methods from Grandsire and Stedman up to Cambridge Surprise were rung. A service was held, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. — Wilkinson), his daughter presiding at the organ.—The Vicar, in his address, paid a high tribute to the late esteemed President of the Association (Mr. A. T. King) for his earnest and painstaking work, for which he was held in high respect by all the members.

As an act of reverence, all members rose from their seats, and, while the organist played a verse of the hymn, 'Days and moments quickly flying,' remained with their heads bowed. It was a most impressive incident.

Tea and business meeting followed in the Church Hall, the Vicar presiding, supported by Mr. H. A. Sawyer (churchwarden), when, in addition to disposing of routine matters, a vote of condolence was passed to Mrs. King and family on their sad bereavement.

Mr. Sawyer was elected an honorary member, and one ringing member was elected.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar, churchwarden and organist, and the meeting closed.

The tower of St. Paul's, Hounslow, was opened after tea, and the bells were kept going at both churches till 9 p.m., nearly 50 members being present.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

As there is certain to be a large number of touches for publication after the Easter Festival, we hope those responsible for sending in these reports will do so on Monday. Only those which reach us on Tuesday morning can be guaranteed insertion. Reports of peals rung on Monday should also be posted the same night.

Next Friday is the anniversary of the existing Treble Twelve record, which was rung at Ashton-under-Lyne on April 17th, 1911. The peal was 12,240 in the Kent variation, composed and conducted by Mr. Sam Wood. The tenor was rung by Mr. James George, and the time was 8 hrs. 31 mins.

It was on the same day of the month, but in the year 1820, that a previous long length of Kent Treble Twelve was rung. Then known as 'New' Treble Bob, 7,200 was brought round at St. Martin's, Birmingham, in 5 hrs. 8 mins.

The long peal of Double Norwich at Romford in 1894, to which we have recently referred in these columns, was rung on April 18th, so that the anniversary falls on Tuesday next. This 13,440 was rung in 8 hrs. 16 mins., after an attempt about three weeks previously at Brentford, when a rope broke after more than 13,000 changes had been rung.

Only two members of the band, we believe, survive, Messrs. Ben Foskett, the 'father' of the Cumberlands, and Mr. Edwin Barnett, senr. The latter writes to point out that the peal was not composed by Mr. Henry Dains, as we mentioned, but by Mr. George Newson, who also conducted it from the tenor.

Many long peals have been rung at the famous Fainswick tower, and one of the earliest was on April 18th, 1737—a 12,006—Grandsire Caters, in 7 hrs. 55 mins.

It was on April 18th, 1916, that Sir Arthur Heywood died.

The first peal of Cumberland Exercise Major was rung on April 16th, 1838—5,600 at Birstall, Yorks.

That promising young ringer, Mr. Albert E. Norman, of Birmingham, has called a peal of Stedman Cinques on handbells at the first attempt. He is only 19 years of age, and his ringing performances already include many peals in the higher methods up to Cambridge Maximus.

We understand that a long peal of Stedman Caters (21,000 changes) is to be attempted at Appleton on April 22nd, but at the time of writing no official notification of this attempt upon the existing record has been received.

REAL DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I had not intended to take up your valuable space by writing further on this subject, but Mr. Dexter's last letter calls for a reply. He raises the question of the 'courage of my own conviction,' which conviction he infers from my last letter. He evidently also takes me for a man of money, and as keenly interested in the Leicester Infirmary as he is. Let me confess at once. When a gentleman of Mr. Dexter's knowledge and experience is willing to stake so much on the truth of his productions, I dare not accept his challenge.

Apart from this, I fail to see why he considers that I should beat £10 to 'nothing' on what he can or cannot do.—Yours sincerely,
Sunderland, April 8th, 1922. JOSEPH W. PARKER.

Dear Sir,—I can fully vouch for the accuracy of the statement that the St. Martin's band of ringers at Leicester have been practising the above, because a year ago last October I was staying at Mr. Dexter's, and saw his diagram of the method, and after he explained it all to me I said I thought I could go and ring it with them. What he said cannot be printed. What Beethoven is to music, Dexter is to change ringing.—Yours,
16, Hare Street, Grimsby. H. RUSHBY.

EASTER AND VISITORS TO LONDON.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—A comment upon my letter of a year ago was 'yes, but where is the visiting ringer to go?' I would suggest the following for Easter Day, viz.: St. Paul's Cathedral 9.40 a.m., leave at 10.20 for either St. Andrew's, Holborn, or St. Clement Danes Strand (ringing 10.15 to 10.55), thence to St. Martin's-in-the-Fields Charing Cross. Ringing 11.5 to 11.30. Our visitor will now saunter down Whitehall, pass the Cenotaph, and finally enjoy the sound of the Abbey bells, ringing after service.

With the exception of the latter tower, there would be every likelihood of a 'pull' for a good ringer.—Yours faithfully

'TEMPLE BAR.'

COGGESHALL, ESSEX.—The Suffolk Diocesan Association. — On Saturday, March 11th, at St. Peter ad Vincula Church, 1,120 London Surprise Major: P. Langston 1, W. Sadler 2, W. Keeble (conductor) 3, F. Claydon 4, A. Shuffelbotham 5, W. Elliott 6, E. W. Beckwith 7, A. Saunders 8. Longest length in the method by the Association, and by ringers of the 6th and tenor.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.To the Editor.*

Sir,—May I be permitted a few remarks on the controversy going on between the ringers of East and West Suffolk. It is generally known that until recent years Ipswich and East Suffolk came within the Diocese of Norwich, and St. Edmundsbury and West Suffolk in the Diocese of Ely—hence these two Associations. Now we have the new Bishop of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, with the Cathedral Church of St. James, with its fine old Norman tower and grand peal of bells, at Bury St. Edmunds. As trade follows the flag so should Suffolk ringers follow their Bishop—with their Association of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich for the county of Suffolk; leaving out Norwich for the county of Norfolk—thus one county to each Association. The officials of the Ely Diocesan Association, whilst realising the loss of support the cutting off of this large slice of their Diocese would mean, were sportsmen enough to release the West Suffolk members (if they wished it), and wished them every success in forming their new Association. I would suggest that the members of the Norwich Association should do likewise. There is ample work for the two Associations in these two large counties of Norfolk and Suffolk. Mr. G. P. Burton tells us the Suffolk Branch of the Norwich Association has ample resources to serve the needs of all ringers in both East and West Suffolk. I am inclined to doubt this—resources they may have, but what about the missionary or spade work?

I was with a band of ringers in a part of Suffolk last summer where 'The Ringing World' and Norwich Association are practically unknown. I have since sent into this district five copies of Standard methods and a few copies of 'The Ringing World,' with a suggestion they should be taken weekly, and trust these few efforts may still bear fruit. It is these isolated corners of the large counties where Association work is so much needed.—Yours truly, W. MILLER.
Leytonstone.

AN EAST SUFFOLK VIEW.

Sir,—Having read with interest the correspondence with regard to the 'Suffolk Diocesan Association,' I would like to know why our friends in West Suffolk, if they had a grievance with the Ely Diocesan Association, and seceded, and thought a separate association was needed for the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, did not ask us in East Suffolk to have a voice in the matter, instead of a few getting together and forming a so-called Suffolk County Association, afterwards altering its title and thus bringing something into the Diocese which is not wanted by the majority of ringers.

I would like to know whether the meeting at Hadleigh to which Mr. Symonds refers was representative of ringers in the Diocese. I should say not, as I claim that 75 per cent. of ringers in the Diocese are in East Suffolk. We in this district consider that the resolution passed at Norwich and also at Saxmundham is essential in times like these when the whole world is clamouring for unity. If our friends in the West think a separate Association is needed then I say it has yet to be formed, if it is to be carried on in a democratic manner.—Yours, etc.,
GEORGE WILSON, Hon. Sec.

Saxmundham District.

BELL LECTURE AT BRAINTREE.

At the invitation of the Braintree Educational Society, a lecture on bells and change ringing was given at the County High School, Braintree, on Saturday, April 1st, by Mr. C. H. Howard, Master of the Essex Association. Mr. F. J. Weaver, M.A., headmaster, presided, and there was a good attendance of members. The art of change ringing was explained by diagrams, and an exhibition of double-handed ringing by Messrs. W. H. Dysou, H. E. and W. H. Hammond, and the lecturer. Interesting accounts were given of the ancient societies and their ringing records, together with the doings of present-day associations. As an expression of their appreciation, the society has, through their honorary secretary (Miss K. Jordan, B.A.), sent a donation to one guinea to the fund for rehanging the tenor of Braintree Parish Church.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

The monthly meeting of the Biggleswade District was held at Rotton on Saturday, April 1st. Ringing commenced about three o'clock, with Kent Treble Bob Minor, a lady from Thundington, Cambs, taking part. This was her first ring in Bedfordshire. Over 20 sat down to tea provided in the Schoolroom.

The Vicar presided at the business meeting, at which members were present from Biggleswade, Clifton, Northill, Everton, Tempsford, Sandy, Rotton, and the local company. Two new members were elected, and Arlesley was chosen for the next meeting.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for presiding, also to the local company for having everything ready, and to the ladies who helped with the tea, was passed.

Mr. C. Dean, of Croydon, joined the company after tea, and the bells were kept going until 8 o'clock, the methods practised being Kent, Oxford and Woodbine Treble Bob Minor, Double Oxford and Bob Minor.

NEW METHODS.To the Editor.*

Sir,—You mention in your last issue that I might have carried my analysis further, and pointed out the defects of Superlative, Cambridge and London. There is no need to do that, as they are too well known.

Superlative has always been considered the most musical Surprise method on eight bells, and certainly no method has ever been found to equal it, the only fault is the second and third cannot be kept away from the tenor. This little defect is, however, outweighed by its musical qualities everywhere else.

As regards Cambridge, it is the most perfect Surprise method ever produced. It has only one fault, and that is its small scope for composition. It does not, at any rate, have pairs of bells lying still in 5-6, and it has an advantage that no other Surprise method possesses; it will extend to any number of bells without introducing any adulteration, and the more you extend it the more attractive it becomes.

London has always been called unmusical, and it certainly is not to be compared to the others, from a musical point of view, but for intricacy it has never been beaten. It is still the most difficult of all Surprise methods, and will come to grief quicker than Bristol or any of the new methods. These methods have always been popular, and will probably be as popular a hundred years hence as they are to-day.

As regards your remarks about these methods not having a clean proof scale, you cannot always expect a clean proof scale in all Surprise methods. What I object to is this: in Bristol you have a most musical and attractive method, and none of the work is long enough to become monotonous, but such methods of Guildford, Suffolk, Premier and Dublin, are nothing more or less than Bristol adulterated, and all are very much inferior. It is unfair for ringers to be criticised because they do not feel disposed to ring them.—Yours, etc.,
W. PYE.

STANDARD METHODS FIRST.

Dear Sir,—While being entirely in agreement with the idea expressed in your leading article of March 31st, I wish you had added 'when opportunity arises.' My experience has been that bands will launch out in other methods when they have rung up to London. We have seen that in many cases, but you cannot expect men to learn a new Surprise method before they ring the standard ones, so that they may be able to ring at meetings. Your remark as to scoring of peals does not, I think, apply generally. No doubt other conductors, like myself, do not always ring just what they would like to. I have rung nearly 100 peals of Grandsire Triples 'in hand,' but I hope the Exercise does not think I sit down just to score a peal, or that I never want to ring anything else besides Grandsire. When you have taught people to ring 'in hand,' you cannot turn round and say, 'I have rung enough and do not want to ring any more Grandsire.' To me personally (as much as I should like to ring other methods) it does not matter what it is, so long as it advances my friends and gives them pleasure, but when the opportunity arises we shall get out of the rut.—Yours, etc.,
A. H. PULLING.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.*NO AMALGAMATION WITH CLEVELAND.

The annual meeting of the Northern Division of the Yorkshire Association was held at Helmsley on Saturday, April 1st. By kind permission of the Vicar (the Rev. H. E. Newton), an honorary member of the Association, the bells of the Parish Church were available from noon. Although the bells have been recently overhauled they are still not in a very satisfactory condition, and the ringers present, particularly the ladies, found great difficulty in keeping them running smoothly. Steps, however, are being taken to improve matters, and it is hoped they will soon be in better condition.

In the absence of the Vicar, the Rev. H. E. Newton, through bereavement, the Rev. J. W. Hicks kindly undertook to speak at the ringers' service, held in church, and later to preside at the business meeting.

It was unanimously decided that no further steps be taken to bring about the amalgamation of the Yorkshire Association and the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association, but that the Northern Division of the Yorkshire Association should continue to work with the Cleveland Association in the spirit of friendship and goodwill which is so evident amongst its members and to the best of their ability to further the art of change ringing in this Northern area.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Rev. H. E. Newton for the use of the bells, to the Rev. J. W. Hicks for his kindly help, and to the local band for the hearty welcome extended to the visitors.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Ripon, and it is hoped, favourable railway facilities permitting, that many ringing friends from the other divisions of the Association will be present and assist in making the meeting a great success.

LONDON SURPRISE COMPOSITION.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Rev. H. L. James, in his last letter, states that he got out a new set of course-ends. That is the whole crux of the matter. He did not. He might have thought he had, but he was sadly mistaken. He may spend the remainder of his life twisting and turning them about, split them up into whatever number of blocks he likes. The fact still remains that, barring 473265, they are all taken from my blocks. Why, the whole thing is so glaring that anyone but a blind man may see it. It is only a piece of Bob Major shunting, as I will endeavour to show.

Here are my 65 courses numbered 1 to 65, and Rev. James' connection, No. 66.

A. 1 to 25.				B. 26 to 40.				C. 41 to 65.

As 66 is false to 32 and 38, these courses must not be issued. Therefore, drop Bob I. in 32 takes us to 4th's in course 41. Therefore, drop Bob I. in 38 takes us to 4th's in course 61. Therefore, drop Bob 4th's in 41 takes us to 0 in course 33. Therefore, drop Bob 4th's in 61 takes us to 0 in course 39. If we try to see how it goes together, we find it now falls into two round blocks, the smaller of which is represented by: (41 omit 4th's to 33), 34, 35, 36, 37 (38 omit 1 to 61), 62, 63, 64, 65. The larger block is pointed out below. Now this small block must be spliced into the larger one. A careful survey tells us that by calling a bob I. in course 52 takes us to 65, and that when we arrive at 64 a bob at 4th's takes us to 53, and nearly the whole of the small block introduced. Let us write down the result. You will note that with the exception of passing through Mr. James' No. 66 the whole of our tour will be conducted within my 65 courses and, barring the shunts that the variation necessitates, the calling is taken as well.

1. (2 shunt Bob 5th's to 66), (66 shunt Bob 5th's to 26), 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 (32 omit I. shunts to 41), 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51 (52 call I. shunts to 65), (41 omit 4th's shunts to 33), 34, 35, 36, 37 (38 omit I. shunts to 61), 62, 63 (64 call 4th's shunts to 53), 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60 (61 omit 4th's shunts to 39), 40 (26 Bob 5th's shunts to 2), 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25. The large block I mentioned can be traced in above, thus: From 1 down as far as 51, then 52, 53, 54, and straight on to the end.

I am sorry to have trespasssed upon so much space, but law-makers ought not to be law-breakers.—Yours,

G. LINDOFF.

DEATH OF A NORTON RINGER.

We regret to record the death of Mr. William H. Baddeley, one of the old ringers of Norton, Staffs, who died on Tuesday, March 7th. He was interred in the Parish Churchyard on the following Saturday, and the local ringers, rang, half-muffled, a 20 Oxford Treble Bob: J. E. Wheeldon 1, J. W. Walker (conductor) 2, F. Triner 3, E. E. Johnson 4, G. E. Lawrence 5, J. Walley 6.—On Sunday morning, 720 Woodbine: H. Wibberley 1, J. E. Wheeldon (conductor) 2, F. Triner 3, W. C. Lawrence 4, G. E. Lawrence 5, J. Walley 6; and at the practice on Monday, March 13th, 720 Oxford Treble Bob: W. Corfield (first 720) 1, H. Wibberley (first 720 inside bell) 2, F. Triner 3, W. C. Lawrence 4, J. E. Wheeldon (conductor) 5, J. Walley 6.

CAMBRIDGE SURPRISE.

We saw last week that Treble Bob is derived directly from the Plain Hunting Course by causing the bell in the hunt to make second's place and return to lead. When we come to Cambridge Surprise we have to deal with a totally different arrangement. There is no Treble Bob Principle upon an even number of bells, because the result of the first dodge is to bring the bells round again, but if we try Treble Bob on odd numbers we immediately get the Principle shown by the figures at the side:

Now, examine this course, and you will notice that when the bells in front dodge the bells behind hunt, and when the bells in front hunt the bells behind dodge.

Add a working bell to this and let the treble be the bell in the hunt, and keep the rule as applied to the treble.

When the treble dodges every other bell shall hunt if it possibly can, and when the treble hunts every other bell shall dodge if it possibly can, and we get:

Now this not a regular method, but we can make it so if we allow two more bells to dodge when the treble dodges in the middle. Let 3 and 5 dodge at the back when the treble is in the middle, and we have just half a lead of Cambridge.

This gives us the rule for Cambridge Surprise on all even numbers from six bells upwards. When the treble dodges, every other bell hunts except the two bells behind when the treble is dodging next to them, and when the treble hunts every other bell dodges if it possibly can. Now, not only will this rule produce the method on all even numbers from six upward, but (although it is not a convenient rule to ring the method by) it will also ring the method on all numbers.

We begin with the treble in front, and all the rest hunting, the 4th must make 3rd's place because she may not dodge when the treble does. She then make 4th's because the treble is hunting, and there is no one for her to dodge with. This explains all the place making.

Six hunts straight down to lead, leads a whole pull and hunts up into 2nd's place. Thus, when the treble gets out into the middle somewhere, say, 7—8, on 20 bells we have three groups of bells: a group in front ringing an ordinary treble bob hunt; a group at the back doing the same, and all these dodge at the same time, and, when they dodge, the treble hunts over a cross section to her next dodging position; a group in the middle containing the treble and one more bell, or three. When a bell in the group behind comes to the limit of the group it must pass the treble in one of two ways. If it has just dodged it makes a place as the 4th does in 3—4, moves up one place, makes that and dodges with the treble, then makes the same two places again, and is now one of the front group of bells. The next bell down hunts straight through the treble, missing two dodging positions, and is now in her proper place in the front group. The next bell down makes places again one position higher up and the next bell hunts through, and so on until the treble dodges in 17—18, up and then there is a double dodge behind, and so the bell that hunts through only misses one dodging position.

I shall deal with Supralative next, and I advise anyone who wants to understand it to study this explanation of Cambridge, and thoroughly grasp it first of all.

H. LAW JAMES.

BELFRY ACCIDENTS.

LOCKING DEVICE WANTED.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Having read from time to time of the serious accidents in the belfry it has occurred to me that such accidents might easily be eliminated by a simple locking device.

One of the chief sources of danger is that of the handling of bell ropes by unauthorised persons. Why have not the bell hangers before now contrived some method of locking the bells when they are left up? In such a case as Mr. Powell's, when the ringer is obliged to climb among the bells for the purpose of untying a clapper, the danger of falling from the frame and pulling a bell off the balance would then be avoided.

The locks could be operated by a lever from the belfry, which would lift the lock from the 'stay' ready for ringing.

This would cause very little extra trouble, and certainly avoid all such accidents as those, which happen from ignorant people touching the ropes, and the most unfortunate accident of Mr. Powell.—Yours faithfully,

R. E. SADLER.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION'S 40th ANNIVERSARY.

At Woburn, Beds, on March 13th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Beds Association: Francis Gilby 1, C. Matthews 2, E. Herbert 3, H. Fleet 4, Cyril Herbert 5, D. James 6, H. D. Harris (conductor) 7, F. White 8.

On the occasion of the birthday of Mrs. Charles Herbert, and for a confirmation service, On March 20th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples: H. D. Harris (conductor) 1, C. Matthews 2, Cyril Herbert 3, H. Fleet 4, A. Markwell 5, E. Herbert 6, E. Hobbs 7, F. White 8.

THE UNIVERSITY GUILDS.

Among the most valuable of the ringing organisations of modern days has been the Cambridge University Guild, which, during an existence of over forty years, has brought into the Exercise a type of ringer which would have been secured, at any rate in similar numbers, in no other way. The foundation of the Guild in 1879, followed about seven years after the birth of a similar society at the sister university of Oxford, but in continuity of work Cambridge has been able to maintain the greater activity, chiefly through the keenness of the Rev. A. H. F. Boughey, its President, whose residence at Trinity College has enabled him to interest a succession of Undergraduates, and so maintain a live centre of the organisation.

The Guild has just rung its 150th peal, and it has taken nearly 32 years to reach this number, since the first was rung in 1890. Compared with the peal records of territorial associations, this is a small total, but the performances are not to be measured by such a standard. Those associations who show best in peal achievements are in happy possession of established bands, with peals of bells in their midst upon which to practise. The University Guilds are in a totally different position. The students go to Cambridge or Oxford for a limited period only; church bell ringing is banned almost entirely while the 'Varsities are in session, so that this means of teaching is largely denied them. The wonder is, in the face of the difficulties, that so much has been accomplished. A perusal of the peal list, moreover, shows that there has been enterprise in the ringing done by the Cambridge University Guild, and we doubt if any other association can point to peals in a greater number of methods on handbells.

The circumstances of University life make rapid expansion of the Guilds impossible, but the Exercise owes a debt to them for what they have done and are doing. They retain and develop the interest of young men who, having previously come into touch with ringing, join the University, and they bring in others who, but for these activities, would know nothing of the attractions of the art. These men pass out to their different spheres throughout the land, and not only bring their trained intellects to bear on the many-sided interests of ringing, but bring in others whose influence in the Exercise is greatly worth having. The Oxford University Guild is showing signs of revival, and the gathering which took place upon its recent jubilee indicates that there is the promise of a more active life than has been shown in recent years. We hope that Oxford will not again be without sufficient men to maintain interest in and promote the welfare of the Guild, and we look forward to a continued steady flow of men from both Universities to help raise the standard of ringing throughout the country.

NEW METHODS.

To the Editor.

Sir.—Mr. Pye's letter in 'The Ringing World' of April 7th is not very encouraging to a progressive band. There are plenty of good Surprise methods to mix with the old ones, which have little to recommend them, except London, which, in my opinion is the most intricate method. Bristol is a good method, but is spoiled by its lengthening leads. Mr. Pye says too many calls spoil a Surprise method yet Bristol is full of them. Take, for instance, 2 W 2 H 2 M, in which case you get nine leads with the tenors doing four bell work behind, and three snaps at lead. It is all right from a conductor's point of view, but it is very monotonous, and this is where Premier steps in. In Bristol you get three leads with 5-6 at home; in Premier you get three courses. Yet Mr. Pye says it is not so musical!

Now we come to Double Superlative. I do not wish to uphold the method either double or single, but it is certainly more interesting to ring on the double plan. I don't agree that it is 'a freak of nature.'—Yours sincerely,
 W. H. BARBER.

NORTHAMPTON CLASSED WITH LONDON.

Dear Sir,—After reading the critics on the subject of new methods, I am asked by my brother ringers to write to say that we very much admire your leading articles, and especially the one on New Methods. I find Mr. Pye makes no reference to Northampton, but he does say that 'the only Surprise method on eight bells that is any good, which has been produced during the last century, is Bristol'; further, that it cannot be said that any of the other methods are more intricate than either Bristol or London, and that they are sometimes rung before publication.

Now, the Rev. A. T. Beeston, of New Mills, who is a member of the Central Council, informs me that Northampton Surprise falls in Class 10 and earns 50 points, equal to London; and above Bristol, which is 48.

This method was published in 'The Ringing World' in March, 1916, and was rung for the first time last June. I am fully confident that it is as intricate as any method yet rung. We in no way despise London, as we have rung it twice recently, and hope to make a further attempt. We have never met the brothers Pye or Bailey, or Gofton, but we look upon them as brother ringers, and we do make a practice of giving honour where honour is due, and we find the same tone in your valuable notes.

For the Parish Church Ringers, Oswaldtwistle, Lanes.

Yours faithfully,

JAS. HOULDSWORTH.

The above letters reached us too late for insertion in our last issue.

PREMIER VERSUS BRISTOL.

Dear Sir,—Will you permit me to question Mr. W. Pye's criticism of 'Premier Surprise Major' in your two last issues? I do so with great diffidence, as Mr. Pye's practical acquaintance with Surprise methods is long and intimate. For this reason his expressed opinion must carry great weight, and anyone who differs from it must be in doubt. When I first saw Bristol it at once appeared to me that the variation with 7th's and 2nd's was the better. On inquiry about ten years ago of the Rev. E. Bankes James, through his brother, I was informed it had not been rung or named. The late Mr. C. O. Sayer and I endeavoured to get it rung by our local band, but we were not quite good enough. Last year I drew the attention of the brothers Gofton to it: they practised and liked it, gave it a name, and in a short time succeeded in scoring a peal.

If, in thinking it superior to Bristol, my opinion is a wrong one, I know Mr. Pye will not object to the trouble of correcting me. It is based on the fact that within the half leads the two variations are identical, and the changes in the whole plain course are exactly the same. The only difference between the two is when the treble lies behind, and when it leads, causing the half leads to come in different order. For comparison, take the position when the treble leads; in Bristol 8th's place is made and the other bells hunt from one working place to another; at a bob 4th's place is made, and the bells behind dodge. I believe it is generally held that there is a more pleasing effect when the bells behind the treble are dodging than when they continue hunting. If, then, this pleasing effect is obtained in Premier both at the plain and bob leads, the bob leads of both methods being exactly the same, it seems to mark Premier as the better.

I am aware that most ringers like to hear two or three successive M, W and H leads, but, even so, the value of the lengthening lead in a method with a clear proof scale is open to argument. At any rate, the partiality for the lengthening lead seems to be the only claim Bristol has to superiority. Bearing these things in mind it is difficult to understand Mr. Pye's statement that Premier is very much inferior.

Going back to his remarks about Real Double Superlative, I do not think Mr. Pye intended openly to express his scorn at a legitimate performance of another band. If a conductor and composer work together for a certain result, even if it can be termed a freak, it is solely a question for themselves and their band, so long as the performance is regular. No one is compelled to follow in their foolish (r) footsteps. If Mr. Pye does not like four bobs in two leads, I am almost afraid to publish the peal below, but he will forgive me when I explain its purpose.

It was known before our time that 6,720 changes is positively the extent with the tenors together in Superlative. Mr. F. H. Dexter has recently claimed that by using bobs behind he has obtained 9,000. Most people will read this as being 9,000 with the tenors continuously together, but such a feat is impossible. Mr. Dexter must mean that he has joined up odd leads and half leads with tenors together by parting the tenors. Even then it seems impossible to use up 9,000 out of the 9,600 available.

The following peal is only given to illustrate how true leads and half leads may be introduced into a peal. These give in the aggregate 7,872 changes with the tenors together, and the peal has 56 M, W and H lead ends:—

35264 A.B. (5 leads).

A—a bob at the first lead end followed immediately by a bob behind.

B—a bob when the tenor is in fourth's and treble behind, followed immediately by a bob in front.

This course, 55 times repeated, with bobs at H at the end of the 2nd, 3rd, 8th, 9th, 15th, 18th, 25rd, 24th, 28th, 33rd, 38th, 39th, 43rd, 45th, 46th, 51st and 56th courses.

In the 24th, 29th, 40th and 53rd courses call, instead of the first two bobs, consecutive bobs at every half lead to the number of eight, beginning by calling tenor out when treble leads. These courses equal 10 leads.

As this may be the plan used by Mr. Dexter, I have purposely made no attempt to reach his lengths. It would not be right to deprive him of any credit to which he is entitled for earlier productions.—Yours sincerely,
 JOSEPH W. PARKER.

GRANDSIRE TRIPLES COMPOSITIONS.

MR. PEGLER'S REPLY TO THE REV. E. B. JAMES.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I quite remember showing Mr. James the composition of Grandsire Triples under dispute. It was in November, 1902, that I left for Gloucester for Bangor, and in 1903 I went to Gloucester for Christmas. It was then I met Mr. James. I knew that he had peals of Grandsire Triples on the same plan. He at once claimed it as his own. I think I got it from 'The Bell News,' but I am not certain. I mentioned to him that I would most likely be meeting Mr. Lindoff shortly. Mr. A. J. Hughes and myself had written to Mr. Lindoff for a pull at St. Patrick's, and this was arranged for the Saturday at 5 o'clock. Later I had a letter forwarded to me from Bangor from Mr. Lindoff, saying they could not ring for some cause or another, which I cannot now remember. Mr. James asked me to mention the peal to Mr. Lindoff, and I should have done so had I met him then. Meeting Mr. Hughes in Birmingham as arranged, I showed him the letter from Mr. Lindoff, but having got our tickets, we decided to go to Dublin and have a look round. We did not, however, meet Mr. Lindoff. I have met him several times since, but never thought to mention the matter of the peal to him. I do not remember meeting Mr. James again till I met him in Bangor a few years since. Although I paid several visits to Gloucester, he was always away.—Yours,
 W. T. PEGLER.

MEMORIAL AT CLEATOR MOOR.

Five members of the band at St. John's Church, Cleator Moor, Cumberland, gave their lives in the war. They were: J. Bland, H. Black, E. Lister, D. Tembey and C. Dixon. On the occasion of the unveiling of the parish war memorial, upon which their names appear with the others of Cleator Moor, who made the supreme sacrifice, it was particularly fitting that the bells should be rung muffled. The memorial was unveiled by Col. Mason, D.S.O., and an address was given by the Bishop of Barrow-in-Furness.

In the evening, a 720 of Plain Bob Minor was rung on muffled bells as a token of respect: F. H. Tembey 1, J. Joyce 2, T. H. Kewley 3, W. Myers 4, D. Atkinson 5, J. Hutchinson (conductor) 6.

FAIRFORD, GLOS.—On Wednesday, March 29th, at St. Mary's Church, by the local band, members of the Gloucester and Bristol Association, a half-peal (2,520 changes) of Doubles in five methods, in 1 hr. 30 mins., being 480 Old Grandsire, 480 Plain Bob, 960 Canterbury Pleasure, 240 Grandsire, and 360 St. Dunstan's each called differently, by: G. Law 1, B. Guy 2, H. Acceck 3, G. J. Winters 4, J. Hope (conductor) 5, P-Sergt. Hastings 6. This is the longest touch for all the above men in five methods.

PEAL RINGERS' OPPORTUNITIES.To the Editor.*

Sir,—It may be well to point out that both the King's Accession, 6th May, and His Majesty's birthday, 3rd June, fall this year on a Saturday. As this is generally the most convenient day of the week for peal ringing, and permission to ring may be readily obtained on such occasions, these two days should give great opportunity to peal ringers. As was pointed out in the Central Council some years ago, it is a sound practice to select suitable occasions for long peals when it can be done.—Yours obediently,
F. LI. EDWARDS.

BEETHOVEN AND DEXTER.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—In your issue of the 14th inst., a short letter appears by H. Rushby, of Grimsby, the closing sentence of which reads, 'What Beethoven is to music Dexter is to change ringing.' There may be other readers who are, like I am, puzzled by this statement.

To name only Beethoven's Sonatas, pianoforte and violin concertos, and his nine symphonies, truly and aptly classed by Sir George Grove as 'the immortal nine.'

Is there anything by Mr. Dexter in change ringing, comparable with the above only by Beethoven in music? It will be interesting if Mr. Rushby will give it, and further enlighten us on the justification of the comparison.—Yours, etc.,
A. E. PARSONS.

Old Hill, Staffs.

SURPRISE METHOD AT TAUNTON.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—In your issue of April 7th, I notice a 720 of Cambridge Surprise Minor has been rung at Wilton, Taunton, and it is claimed to be the first Surprise rung by a resident band west of Bristol. I am pleased to congratulate our friends on their achievements, and hope to soon see other bands practising Surprise methods for the Bath and Wells.

I would like to point out, however, that before the great war we had a band at Carhampton, which rang London Surprise Minor, and a 360 was rung on March 12th, 1914, by J. Farmer, W. Hoyle, G. Stacey, W. Bennett, A. Stevens, H. Moore (conductor). Unfortunately the conductor, H. Moore, was taken ill shortly after, and died, and W. Bennett was killed in the war, which upset the practices. Our present band is recovering now and hopes to repeat the experiment shortly.—Yours truly,
GEO. STACEY.

DEATH OF A BOLTON RINGER.

MR. PETER INCE.

On Friday, April 7th, there passed away one of Bolton's prominent members of the Lancashire Association, Mr. Peter Ince.

He commenced ringing at the Bolton Parish Church in 1877; four years later he took charge of the band, a position he held until January of this year, when he retired owing to advancing years and respiratory troubles. On his retirement he was presented with a smoking cabinet by the members of his band.

The funeral took place at Heaton Cemetery on the 11th inst., when members of the Branch rang handbells at the graveside. In the evening an attempt was made for a peal of Grandsire Triples, with the bells half-muffled, at the Parish Church, but this came to grief, after 2 hours and 7 minutes, through a rope breaking. The following took part: Peter Nuttall, Ernest Cutsforth, Fred Morris, Tom Bratby, John Makin, John Howarth, Peter Crook and John Nuttall.

LEICESTER RINGER'S DEATH.

It is with deepest regret that we have to announce the sudden death of Mr. Thomas Henry Hardy, a well-known Leicester ringer and singer, connected with St. Margaret's and St. John's Churches. Deceased, who was 30 years of age, and was son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Willson, was ringing as usual on Sunday week, and sang in St. Margaret's choir for both services. He was taken ill on Monday, and died after an operation for appendicitis, at Leicester Royal Infirmary on Thursday evening. He was to have sung the leading bass solo in 'The Crucifixion' on Good Friday, but this service was consequently cancelled, and the bells rung muffled in its place by St. Margaret's Guild, assisted by St. John's, St. Martin's, and Anstey ringers.

The interment took place on Tuesday at Welford Road Cemetery, following upon a service at St. Margaret's.

Fuller details of Mr. Hardy's career will be given next week.

The deepest sympathy will go out to the young widow and her five-year-old son in the bereavement which has fallen so unexpectedly upon them.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The bells of All Saints', Wigston Magna, are now being recast, and are to be relunged in entirely new frames, with ball bearings, by the well-known Loughborough Foundry (Messrs. Taylor and Co.). When the bells are back in the tower a new clock is to be installed. This work, it is hoped, will be fully completed in a few months' time. The tenor will be about 16 cwt.

It was shown just recently that there is no novelty in a peal in which three generations of one family take part. We think, however, that Northowram, Yorks., can claim the first peal in which three generations in each of two families have taken part. Grandpa's Lawson and Kershaw, with their sons and grandsons, made up six of a band of eight to ring a peal of Treble Bob Major.

The extent of Bob Major, with the tenors together, has been rung on the Foundry bells at Loughborough. It establishes another Association record for the Midland Counties Association.

A long peal of Kent Treble Bob is in view at Moorside, Oldham. This week we publish the record of a 6,816, taken from W. Harrison's 10,176, which is the immediate objective. Perhaps there will be something longer still to follow.

The peal of Double Norwich rung at Hethersett, and published in our last issue, was peal No. 216 in the Central Council's Collection. In the composition, which is by Mr. E. Wightman, there are no bobs, and the conductor (Mr. G. H. Cross) desires to know if it is now rung for the first time.

The memorable peal at Bethnal Green, 15,840 Kent Treble Bob, then the longest peal ever rung in any method, was accomplished on April 27th, 1868, in 9 hrs. 12 mins. It was composed by Thomas Day, of Birmingham, and conducted by Henry Haley, senr. That was 54 years ago. Ted Horrex, who rang the 6th, is still with us.

Another notable peal of Treble Bob was rung on the 27th April, eight years later. This was the 8,896 by W. Harrison, rung by the Cumberland Youths, at St. Ann's, Highgate, and was the longest length composed in the method with tenors together.

On April 27th 1861, the College Youths rang the then longest length of Stedman Cinques, 8,580, at Cornhill, and on the same day, in 1901, another band of College Youth rang, for the first time, three Surprise peals in a day.

On April 24th, 1896, 10,400 Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at Shipley, Yorks., and on April 26th, 1894, 11,200 Bob Major was rung on handbells at Norwich.

A peal of Superlative Surprise Major has been rung at Loughborough Bell Foundry in 2 hours 30 minutes. It is thought to be the quickest peal of Major yet rung on tower bells. Is this so?

NORWICH, ST. EDMUNDSBURY AND IPSWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The title—'Norfolk and Suffolk'—Mr. Edwards suggests for this Association will not do at all. 'Suffolk' has already been dealt with; 'Norfolk' is equally impossible; and for the following reasons:

- (i.) The Association (N., St. E. and I.) is, and always has been a diocesan (and not a county) organisation.
- (ii.) The S.W. portion of the county of Norfolk, embracing two deaneries, and the half of another, now forms part of the Diocese of Ely, having been detached from the Norwich Diocese in 1914. The N., St. E. and I. Association, therefore, has ceased to organise in that area of Norfolk.

As for the title—Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich—being cumbersome, has Mr. Edwards forgotten our old friend, the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, to mention only one other association with a full name, to which by long habit we are endeared? The title, N., St. E. and I., is sufficiently euphonious; it has a ring all its own; and doubtless, the more we get accustomed to it, the better we shall like it. Anyhow, we must ask our friends to accept the inevitable, and kindly to take us as we are.—Yours very truly,

G. P. BURTON.

Bracondale, Norwich, 8th April.

Sir,—Permit me to point out, in reply to Mr. W. Miller, that the two cases of West Suffolk versus Ely, and East Suffolk in relation to Norwich, are not on a par. The West Suffolk ringers desired to leave Ely, and Ely had, therefore, no option but to accept the position; the East Suffolk men, on the other hand, will not hear of leaving Norwich.

The question of Norwich acting as Ely has done, therefore, does not arise; and as long as East Suffolk ringers are determined to stay in partnership with their fellow ringers of the Norwich Diocese, it is not for Norwich to say them nay. Does Mr. Miller refuse to East Suffolk the right of self-determination he allows to West Suffolk?—Yours faithfully,

G. P. BURTON.

Bracondale, Norwich.

OUR CONDUCTOR—By 'Non-Conductor.'

The above amusing sketches have been drawn by a very promising young ringer, who desires to remain anonymous. They are fleeting impressions of his Conductor.

RINGING AT MELBOURNE.

In honour of the enthronement of Dr. Lees, the new Archbishop of Melbourne, a 504 of Grandsire Triples was rung at St. Paul's Cathedral by the following members of the St. Paul's Cathedral Society, Melbourne, Victoria: T. Tyler (Bristol) 1, W. Preston (Kent) 2, J. Spencer (Leicester) 3, A. Fitzgerald (Melbourne) 4, H. Blakeley (Lancashire) 5, J. Guest (Stafford) conductor, S. F. Boughton (Worcestershire) 7, E. Knott (Lancashire) 8.

The Cathedral has a fine ring of 12 bells, and any ringer coming from the old country will receive a hearty welcome.

LONG PEALS CELEBRATED.

On Easter Monday, to celebrate the anniversary of the 12,240 Kent Treble Bob Maximus and the 14,000 Kent Treble Bob Royal, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung on the back eight at the Parish Church, Ashton-under-Lyne, in 54 mins.: Samuel Rowbottom 1, Daniel Heap 2, Charles Bower 3, Ben Thorp (conductor) 4, W. Brammer 5, A. Adams 6, Samuel Booth 7, Tom Jackson 8.

PRINCESS MARY SURPRISE ROYAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I note Mr. James's contribution on the above subject. I went deeply into the matter before I published the method, and I have six good variations. One is a double method, and I have every reason to believe it is the only one up to date with even-stroke dodging back and front. Variation No. 1, which Mr. James chooses to name 'Drews Court' Surprise Royal, is not a Surprise method. Had it been, I should have published the method in that form. Variation No. 2, which he says is first cousin, happens to be the first one I came across when I started the task of clearing the 1-2 places out of Yorkshire Surprise Royal. This came with starting the place-making in 7-8 instead of 3-4. Do not omit to recognise the relationship in the latter method. It is 'Grandfather' to the lot. May I, in conclusion, say that I also took the precaution to let certain members of the Exercise see the figures of these variations.—Yours truly,

ARTHUR CRAVEN.

LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.

We are officially informed by Mr. Herbert Langdon, of the Ancient Society of College Youths, that an attempt is to be made at Appleton to-morrow (Saturday) for a peal of 21,363 Stedman Caters, starting at 7 a.m.

The reason that earlier notice was not possible is that the attempt was uncertain on the date now fixed.

We understand the band will comprise a mixed company of London and Oxford Guild ringers.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Kent County Association was held at Ashford on Easter Monday, April 17th. The gathering was not so large as might have been expected at a place so convenient for a considerable portion of the county. Enhanced railway fares have a deterrent effect, and the prospect of a fine day seemed very doubtful. The weather, however, turned out fine on the whole, though the northerly breeze did not tempt one to stand about in the neighbourhood of the tower. Other towers open for ringing, in addition to Ashford, were Wye (8), Mersham (8), Great Chart (6) Witherborough (6) and Eastwell (6).

A meeting of the Central Committee was held in the vestry at 11.15 a.m., at which £3 3s. was voted from the Belfry Repair Fund towards the cost of re-creating the 6th at Biddenden.

At the service which followed at 12.15 p.m., the Association's Form was used, the Vicar (the Rev. T. K. Sopwith) intoning the prayers, and the honorary secretary (the Rev. F. J. O. Helmore) reading the lesson (Rom. vi. 1-13). The opening hymn was the Easter hymn, 'Jesus Christ is risen to-day.' Before the sermon a special ringers' hymn from the Oxford Diocesan Guild book, 'Unchanging God, Who livest enthroned in realms on high,' was sung, to the well-known tune 'Aurelia.'

The Rev. G. Brocklehurst, Rector of Mersham, gave the address. Taking no set text, he said he considered it a great privilege, as the Rector of the parish, which was the cradle of the Association, to be invited to address the members of a society which had grown to such goodly proportions in the forty or more years since the Rev. R. Knatchbull-Hugessen, the then Rector, first broached the subject of forming a County Association to a few friends in his study at Mersham. He spoke of the valuable work ringers could do and did for the church, and the influence they could bring to bear on others. We often, he said, spoke of man's need for God, but let them remember the other side, God's need for man, and how we can best serve Him by becoming exponents of a manly religion. If he had chosen a text he might well have taken the well-known words, 'Quit you like men, be strong.'

During the singing of the last hymn, 'Light's abode, celestial Salem,' a collection was taken for the War Memorial Fund, which amounted to £1 17s. Dr. Morrell, the organist of the church, accompanied the service.

At the dinner, served in the Parish Hall, eighty-two members were present, the Vicar presiding, supported by the Rev. G. Brocklehurst, Messrs. T. Groombridge (Chislehurst), F. White and S. H. Green (Tonbridge Wells) Dr. Morrell, Mr. W. J. Jeffries (St. John's), and others. After the excellent fare provided by Mr. R. Passmore (Ashford) had been properly discussed, and grace having been said, the Vicar gave the indispensable toast, 'The King,' and, as usual, a verse of the National Anthem was sung.

Mr. F. White then proposed the toast of the Archbishop and clergy, with special thanks to the Rev. G. Brocklehurst for his address. The preacher having briefly responded, the Hon. Secretary rose to read the minutes of the last general meeting, but before doing so said he wished to propose a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the kind way in which he had received the Association.

Mr. Sopwith expressed the pleasure he felt in being able to help to make the meeting a success, and to allow the bells to be rung throughout the day, a permission he was unable to grant on Saturday afternoons, as the noise of the bells was so deafening in the immediate neighbourhood of the tower.

It may be remarked that this night to a great extent be obviated by bricking up a portion of the belfry windows, and an alteration of the hours. The Vicar having then to leave, the chair for the business meeting was taken by the Rev. G. Brocklehurst.

The Hon. Secretary read his report and balance sheets. Reference was made to the death of Miss Macalpine Leny, the Revs. Canon Hichens, R. Patterson, J. Langhorne, and Mr. A. T. King, I.S.O., Messrs. Fred Hayes (Milton, Gravesend), F. Wellard (Maidstone), and others. Nine fresh towers had been added to those in union, viz.: Wye, Great Chart, Cheriton, Frittenden, Leigh, Sevenoaks, Herne, Farningham and East Malling, while only one or two had dropped out. The war memorial had hung fire, but lately there seemed to be a revival of interest; the Romney Marsh Guild had subscribed £5, and the hon. secretary had just received £55s. from the East Kent and Canterbury Conservative Club. Collecting cards had been issued by the district secretaries, and it was hoped by that means a goodly sum would be obtained. Several fresh grants had been made from the Belfry Repair Fund, and since the Armistice the committee had voted over £40 from this fund. In the general account the balance in hand was £63 12s. 6d., as compared with £47 2s. 7d. at the close of the previous year.

Mr. J. W. Steddy (Edenbridge) proposed that the report and balance sheets be passed.—This was seconded by Mr. E. J. Dixon (Willesborough), and carried.

The re-election of officers en bloc was proposed by Mr. T. Groombridge, seconded by Mr. W. Spice (Tunstall), and carried.

The question of the date of the annual meeting was raised by Mr. W. Haigh (Gillingham). He complained that Easter Monday was too early in the year.—Mr. R. Paine seconded the request for an alteration of date.

Mr. F. White remarked that many Associations met on Easter Monday, while as to weather conditions it was just as likely to be wet or uncongenial later on. Moreover, August Bank Holiday would probably be too hot, and Whitsun Monday had been ruled out on account of the Central Council meeting next day.

Several other members spoke, and, on the chairman putting the question to the vote, only three or four hands were raised in support of the alteration, the great majority voting in favour of the retention of the present date.

This concluded the business, and members left the hall, ringing being resumed in the tower, while some went off to visit some of the other towers open. While the writer wended his way to the station a touch of London was in progress, while other less abstruse methods came in for their fair share of attention.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY GUILD'S 150th PEAL

It is interesting to record the 150th peal by the Cambridge University Guild, which, like its sister organisation of Oxford, has very limited opportunities for peal ringing compared with the facilities which territorial associations have at their command.

The Guild was founded on February 4th, 1879. Its first peal was one of Bob Triples in hand on April 28th, 1890, and the Guild has since rung the following first peals: Little Bob Major (tower bells), Little Bob Royal (in hand and tower), Norwich Court Bob Major, Gonville, Granta, and Cam variations of Kent Treble Bob; Plain and Little Bob Major (spliced), Plain and Medium Bob Royal (spliced), Plain and Little Bob Royal (spliced); also the first peals in hand of Double Norwich C.B. Major, Little Bob Major, Double Bob Major, and Double Bob Royal. Forty-five members have rung peals for the Guild.

BRISTOL SURPRISE ROYAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—As my name has been mentioned three or four times lately in connection with the method published by Mr. Craven as Bristol Royal, may I say that, although I have had it for many years, and although it is a true extension of the construction of the Major, I have never publicly or privately called it Bristol. I need not say that I make no claim to it as 'mine.'

Further, may I say, that I have what I think absolute proof that no ten bell method is possible which is entitled to be called Bristol Royal.—Yours truly, J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE.

BELFRY ACCIDENTS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Your correspondent, Mr. R. E. Sadler, asks why have not bell hangers contrived some method of locking the bells when left up.

About 18 years ago a fatal accident occurred at Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire. I then experimented with and perfected a device for making the bells secure when left up, operated from the ringing chamber, and which could be locked. I submitted that idea to the then Vicar of Stoke (the Rev. H. V. Stewart), but got no reply, so did not proceed further with the simple apparatus.

Perhaps some day the Board of Trade may step in and compel the authorities to provide against such accidents as Mr. Powell's, and others.—Yours, JAS. E. GROVES.

A GREAT RECORD.

The attempt for a peal of record length at Appleton on Saturday was successful, and heartiest congratulations will be extended to the ten men who for the first time in history have rung more than twenty thousand changes without a stop. The actual number was 21,363, and the time 12hrs. 25mins., so that in both respects the peal exceeds all previous performances. It is a prodigious achievement, all the more remarkable when it is remembered that the peal was rung by a band which, without any disrespect, may be termed as, to some extent, a 'scratch' company. Made up of men from Appleton, Reading and London, who are not in the habit of meeting and ringing together, this band started off on the greatest campanological feat ever undertaken, and were successful at the first attempt. The only point in which this peal has not eclipsed anything that has gone before, is in the weight of metal. Appleton tenor is 14cwt.; the tenor at Loughborough, where the preceding longest length was rung, is 30cwt. This, of course, is an important factor in comparing record performances, but it does not detract from the merit of last Saturday's achievement.

What is the attraction and what is the value of these long peals? Ever since ringing began, the competitive element in the matter of lengths has been existent, and in the list of long peals which we publish elsewhere, there are two of over twelve thousand rung as long ago as 1737. Since that time ringers have vied with one another in their endeavours to gather laurels. The limitation of the possibilities of methods has had a restraining effect upon the length of some peals, but the scope which is offered by Stedman Caters and Double Norwich Major has provided the opportunities for greatest lengths of recent years.

The inducements which record-breaking in peal-ringing offer are largely personal, but it is the same spirit that has animated men through all the ages. The desire to excel, to achieve honour, were the inspiration of the Marathon runners of ancient Greece, and have been the factors which have ruled men in every clime, in every pursuit. Ringers have inherited it, and we should be poor successors to those who have gone before us if we could not produce men anxious to make an effort to gain new successes. Every record means a greater effort for those who beat it, and such a performance as that of Saturday stands for much that is best in human achievement. It means endurance, it means determination, it means self-discipline, it means concentration of mind and harmony of effort. The value of a long peal to the individual ringer lies in the fact that it helps to develop these characteristics; its value to the Exercise is that it spurs others to emulate the example, and, in the emulation, to strengthen these traits, and to add distinction to the art.

SUCCESSFUL GATHERING AT BURTON.

The annual meeting of the Midland Counties Association took place at Burton-on-Trent, on Easter Monday, about 150 members being present, from Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Birmingham, Chesterfield, Cotgrave, Coventry, Darley Dale, Derby, Duffield, Hinckley, Leicester, Long Eaton, Loughborough, Luton, Manchester, Measham, Midsomer Norton, New Mills, Nottingham, Nuneaton, Overseal, Ripley, Sheffield, Stoke Golding and Wells (Somerset). Ringing commenced at 10 a.m., and was continued until three o'clock at the three churches, St. Paul's with its new trebles being used almost exclusively for Caters and Royal methods, and there is no doubt that the new bells were thoroughly 'broken in.' The augmentation of this peal to ten is a matter of special pleasure to all ringers, and Messrs. John Taylor and Co. were deservedly complimented on the admirable way in which they had carried out the work. There was some very good ringing during the day at the various churches, most of the methods being brought into use by ringers, old and young.

The bells ceased at three o'clock, and members adjourned to St. Paul's Church at 3.15, a special service having been arranged, which included the 'Bell Hymn,' by the Vicar of St. Clement Danes. An excellent sermon was preached by the Rev. H. E. Worthington.

Afterwards the members found tea laid ready for all who had given the necessary notice, and full justice was done to the meal.

The business meeting followed, at which the President of the Association (Ald. R. B. Chambers, B.A. J.P., of Derby) presided, supported by Mrs. Chambers, and other honorary members, including the Hon. and Rev. S. G. W. Maitland, Vicar of St. Paul's, Burton-on-Trent, and the Rev. H. E. Worthington, Rector of Netherseal. Mr. Pryce Taylor, and Mr. A. C. Wright (the hon. secretary).—The President read letters from the Bishop of Lichfield, the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn, and others, regretting their inability to attend the meeting.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the clergy for the use of the bells and Institute, and for their presence.—The Revs. S. G. W. Maitland and H. E. Worthington replied welcoming the Association to Burton-on-Trent.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

The election of general officers was the next item on the agenda, and it was reported that no other nominations had been received except for the last year's officers. These gentlemen were cordially thanked for their past services, and unanimously re-elected, as follows: President, Ald. Chambers; hon. treasurer, Mr. W. Willson; hon. secretary, Mr. A. C. Wright.—In returning thanks, Mr. Chambers spoke of his continued and increasing interest in bells and bell ringing, and mentioned the number of hon. members introduced to the Association. He also strongly advised all members of the Association to support 'The Ringing World.' He then spoke with regret of the absence of Mr. W. Willson, the hon. treasurer, owing to the sudden death on the preceding Friday of his son-in-law Mr. T. H. Hardy. He mentioned that Mr. and Mrs. Hardy had recently rung together in a peal, both being accomplished ringers. He expressed, on behalf of the Association, deepest sympathy with Mr. Willson's daughter (Mrs. Hardy), and with Mr. Willson in their loss, and a vote of condolence was passed by all present standing in silence.

The Hon. Secretary thanked the meeting for their remarks on his re-election, and promised to continue for another year. He mentioned that although he was the only candidate at this meeting he would like to see more nominations next year, and would then be glad to be among the 'also rans.'

The accounts and reports were approved and adopted on the proposition of the President seconded by Mr. Jaggard, one of the founders of the Association.

MATTERS FOR THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

The following resolution was submitted by the President, who said he wished to bring it before the Central Council:—

That it is desirable to establish in the area of each ringing association a bell restoration fund from which grants may be made for the restoration of any rings of bells within the area when local funds are insufficient to meet the cost.

The meeting approved the resolution, and hoped that the President would bring it before the Central Council for consideration. It may be well to mention here that in committee another matter brought forward by the secretary was discussed. He stated that it had several times been suggested to him that it would be desirable that the Association should inaugurate a scheme for the granting of special certificates of merit for progress in method ringing. A sub-committee was formed to consider the matter and report to a later meeting. It was meanwhile suggested that this idea should be brought before the Central Council, and it was hoped an opportunity might be found for some discussion on it at the meeting at Whitsuntide.

The business being completed, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Griffin and the local committee for carrying out the arrangements for the meeting, and also to Ald. Chambers for attending and presiding, and to Mrs. Chambers for her presence.—This was carried enthusiastically, with musical honours, led by the ubiquitous Mr.

Jaggar.—Mr. Chambers suitably responded, and mentioned that instead of a speech Mrs. Chambers would recite a short poem called 'The Bells and Chimes of Motherland,' which she did in a very pleasing manner, meeting with hearty applause.

The meeting terminated with a splendid performance on handbells by some of the Birmingham members, Stedman Cinques being made to look very easy work.

The next annual meeting will be at Derby, while the three quarterly meetings will be held respectively at Melbourne, Wigston and Mansfield.

THE LATE MR. T. HENRY HARDY. EARLY CLOSE OF A PROMISING CAREER.

As briefly announced in our last issue, Mr. Thomas Henry Hardy, of Leicester, passed away, after an illness of only three days' duration, at the early age of 30 years. He was a member of St. Margaret's choir, and principal bass, and on the Saturday previous to his death sang at Hinckley Road P.M. Church in 'St. John's Eve,' and on Sunday in St. Margaret's choir for both services. He had on several occasions taken part in 'The Messiah,' and was announced for 'The Crucifixion' on Good Friday, but on account of his death this was cancelled, and a muffled touch rung instead. At last year's Leicester Musical Festival Mr. Hardy won the first prize for baritone solo, and was looked upon as one of the coming lights in the musical world, having on hand many high-class engagements in the city.

He married in 1915 Miss Lilian Willson, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Willson (herself a well-known change ringer), and shortly afterwards served three strenuous years in the army, which left him in somewhat poor health.

He was a keen change ringer, having rung 44 peals in all, in the standard methods from Doubles to Royal, and Superlative and Cambridge Surprise Major, the latter only as recently at February 11th of this year, at Loughborough Foundry, a peal in which his wife also took part. Mr. Hardy's last peal was the first on St. Margaret's new bells (Grandsire on the front eight), and he was looking forward to taking part in the first of Maximus on the new 12, but fate ordained otherwise. However, when this was accomplished on Saturday last, it was rung muffled to his memory, so that his name will still be connected with this performance.

Mr. Hardy served on St. Margaret's Parochial Council, and it was mainly his support on this body that helped the writer to carry forward the great scheme of recasting, rehanging, and, later, augmenting the bells, when on this Council both were faced with many difficult obstacles.

It is a tragic coincidence that the first time the new peal was heard muffled it was to one so keenly interested in them, and one of the society's own ringers.

The funeral took place on Easter Tuesday at Welford Road Cemetery, preceded by a service at St. Margaret's, which was conducted by the Revs. F. O. Scott, M.A. (Holy Apostles), T. A. Lee, M.A. (Vice-Principal of Leeds Clergy School), and F. R. C. Payne, O.B.E., M.A. (St. Margaret's). The service was fully choral, and the choir boys carried with them into the chancel, some of the floral tributes from the deceased's many friends and relatives. The Vicar read the lesson, and delivered a most striking and inspiring eulogy, outlining some of the late Mr. Hardy's attainments, and voicing for all the sad loss sustained at his passing. The organist (Mr. W. Beaumont) played Ernst's 'Elegie,' Mendelssohn's Funeral March and 'O rest in the Lord,' as voluntaries.

Messrs. Hall and Jackson (St. Margaret's choirman), E. Morris and A. Cattell (St. Margaret's ringers), A. J. Harris and W. Aldridge (St. John's ringers), acted as bearers, and after the Committal Service at the graveside, a course of Grandsire Caters was rung on handbells by A. Cattell 1-2, J. Morris 3-4, E. Morris 5-6, G. Cleal 7-8, W. Needham 9-10.

In the evening muffled touches were rung on the bells of St. John-the-Divine and St. Margaret's.

Mrs. Lilian A. Hardy (widow) and Mr. W. Wilson and family desire to thank all those friends who have sent floral tributes and letters of sympathy, also St. Margaret's, St. Martin's and St. John's Societies of Ringers for their kindness.

At Stoney Stanton, Leicestershire, on Tuesday, February 18th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes), in 44 mins.: Miss Stella Disney 1, G. Wood 2, E. Chamberlain 3, N. Walker 4, T. Atkins 5, H. Webb 6, C. Briggs (conductor) 7, W. Briggs 8. Rung with the bells half-muffled in memory of the Rev. John Martin, at one time Rector of the parish; also in sympathy with the wife and relatives of Mr. T. Henry Hardy.

REAL DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE. PROPOSED LONG PEAL ATTEMPT.

Mr. F. H. Dexter writes that on Saturday, May 6th, at the Bell Foundry, Loughborough, an attempt will be made by members of the Midland Counties Association to ring a peal of 10,400 of Real Double Superlative.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Owing to the pressure on our space, on account of the numerous Easter meetings, and peal performances, we are compelled to hold over several reports and letters to the Editor.

The Yorkshire Association have decided to hold an annual dinner to be known as 'The Memorial Commemoration Dinner to Jasper Whitfield Snowden and past officers of the Yorkshire Association.' The first of the gatherings will be held at Leeds on the fourth Saturday in September.

Mr. Harry Withers, the Bournville carillonneur, is becoming world-famous. Not long since he visited Norway to open a new carillon; now he has been to Toronto, Canada, for the same purpose.

The anniversary of the first peal of which there is any authentic record, occurs on Tuesday next, for it was on May 2nd, 1715, that the historic peal of 'Grandsire Bob Tripples' was rung at St. Peter Mancroft Church, Norwich.

The first peal of Cinques in Yorkshire was rung at Leeds on May 1st, 1892.

Last Saturday was the anniversary of the longest length of Grandsire Caters on record, the 15,227 at Cheltenham on April 22nd, 1889. There has always been a happy rivalry between Cheltenham and Appleton, and it is a coincidence that the latest record should have been achieved at the latter place on the anniversary of such a noteworthy performance in the Gloucestershire town.

Mr. Tom Hibbert tells us that if Messrs. Ben Foskett and Edwin Barnett care to have a day in the country and pay a visit to Little Milton, Oxfordshire, they will meet the 6th man of their peal of 15,440 Double Norwich. Mr. Albert Pittam, who was in both the peal and the previous long attempt at Brentwood in 1894. By a slip of the pen we referred to this attempt in a previous issue as taking place at Brentford.

In response to the inquiry as to the peal of Double Norwich with all singles (C.C.C., No. 216), we are informed by Mr. W. J. Allen, that this was rung at St. Peter's, Northampton, on September 23rd, 1909, conducted by Mr. A. J. Tyler.

WORCESTERSHIRE AND DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION.

COMPLETION OF THE WAR MEMORIAL.

The annual meeting of the Worcestershire and Districts Association was held at Worcester on Easter Monday. The attendance was good, and the number of young members was noticeable, the President remarking that it was a most encouraging sign. The business meeting was held in the Cathedral Chapter House, with the President (the Very Rev. W. Moore Ede, D.D., Dean) in the chair, for although otherwise he would have been away from home, so great an interest did he take that he had put off his departure until the next day, so that he might be at this meeting.

A vote of sympathy was passed with the relatives of the late Canon Southwell, a vice-president, who recently died while going to take a service at a church near the city.—The Secretary (Mr. J. R. Newman) reported that particulars of this Association were now included among the Diocesan organisations mentioned in the Diocesan Calendar.

A considerable number of new members were elected, and Mr. James Hemming was appointed conductor of the annual peal, and Worcester was again chosen for the next annual meeting.

The roll of honour had been completed, and was in the form of three bronze plates bearing the names and affixed to the sill of the memorial window, making an excellent finish to a memorial of which all members can be most proud.—The Treasurer reported that he had received sufficient to pay for these plates.

It was decided to make a grant of two guineas towards the repairs of the bells at All Saints', Worcester, and the officers were all re-elected.

The question of the best means to prevent the ringing or publication of false peal compositions was raised by the Secretary, and after discussion it was decided that the representatives should bring this before the Central Council, in order that arrangements might be made, if possible, to insure the proof and recording of all new peal compositions previous to being rung or published.

After the meeting, those present attended the afternoon service in the Cathedral, an address being given by the warden of the Cathedral Guild, at the conclusion of which a move was made to the College Hall, where tea was provided.

Throughout the day the various bells in the city were available, and, except during the meeting, service and tea, were not allowed to be idle. The methods rung show a decided advance, for whereas a year ago Surprise peals were only attempted by members of the Northern Branch, Worcester can now produce a band to ring Surprise Royal, besides which there are other members in the neighbourhood also ringing Surprise Methods.

This meeting was in all ways most successful, and gave much promise of progress in ringing in the county, and of the welfare of this Association.

NEW RECORD PEAL.—21,363 STEDMAN CATERS.

Great Achievement at Appleton.

The attempt for a peal of new record length was successful at Appleton on Saturday, when a mixed band of members of the Oxford Diocesan Guild and the Ancient Society of College Youths rang 21,363 Stedman Caters (a composition by Mr. Henry G. Miles), in 12 hours 25 mins., thus exceeding in length by 3,336 changes, and in time by seven minutes, the previous longest peal on tower bells.

The London contingent of the band were Messrs. C. F. Winney, H. Langdon, H. R. Newton and A. B. Peck; Reading contributed Mr. R. T. Hibbert, and his son, Mr. W. Hibbert; and Appleton supplied the remainder of the band, Messrs. George Holifield, senr. and junr., and Fred and Richard White. The bells had been got into magnificent order, and just about seven o'clock in the morning they went off upon the long undertaking, quickly getting down to the beat at which they go so well—about 28 changes to the minute. Hour after hour the Appended is a list of tower bell peals of 12,000 changes and over, of which we have a record. In view of last Saturday's performance they are extremely interesting.

APPLETON CHURCH, WHERE THE PEAL WAS RUNG.

course—ends rolled up with clockwork regularity, and those who came in the rain to listen were impressed with the excellence of the striking. Nothing seriously untoward occurred throughout the day, every man being keen upon his job, and ringing as if a twenty thousand were a regular occupation. As the time advanced there was naturally a growing anxiety to see a successful issue of the peal, and after more than ringing the clock round, the bells came home to a fine finish, and the band, tired, certainly, with their great achievement, had the satisfaction of knowing that they had put the world's longest length (rung without relief) to their credit, and they received the warmest congratulations of those who had assembled to hear the end of the peal.

The official record of the performance, which was rung on the eve of the Festival of St. George, the patron saint of England, appears in our peal columns.

DEDICATION OF LONGHOPE BELLS.

A COMPLAINT.

To the Editor.

Sir, — As secretary of the Forest Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, I feel it my duty to bring the following facts before the Exercise generally. I went to Longhope to attend the dedication and opening of the bells, and there met ringers from Ross, Westbury-on-Savern, Blaisdon, Newnham, Tittledean, and some of the local band. A splendid tea was kindly provided by the Vicar, after which the bells were raised in peal, the Barnwood ringers having previously asked and obtained permission to open them. The ringers then congregated and attended service, after which the Barnwood ringers again took possession of the tower, a touch of Bob Minor was rung, and the bells were stopped. Several ringers then entered the bellry, with a view to getting a short touch. Here, I am sorry to relate, a bad breach of ringing etiquette was enacted. Instead of the bells being handed over to a waiting band of anxious ringers the Barnwood company set them going again to Grandsire Doubles, and, when this was brought round, lowered them straight away, thereby showing they did not intend their brother members to ring.

This is the first time I have ever witnessed such a grave breach of courtesy, and I extended my sympathy to ringers who had come so far to get a pull and had to return home sadly disappointed and disgusted at the behaviour of the Barnwood men.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*ANNUAL MEETING AT ST. ALBANS.

There was a large gathering of ringers at the annual meeting of the Hertford County Association, held at St. Albans on Easter Monday, when, at the towers in the city, touches in various methods were rung, followed by evensong in the choir of the Cathedral, at which the attendance was probably a record for these services.

The address was given by the Rev. Canon Green, Rector of Little Munden, who chose for his text the words, 'My helpers in Christ Jesus' (Romans xvi. 3). He said he knew nothing about bell ringing, and had never rung a bell, but he thought those who rang in the church where he ministered would desire to be accounted his 'helpers in Christ Jesus'; that they would desire to be thought of as doing some work for Christ. Church bells were consecrated, but it was much more important that the men who rang them should be consecrated. They had joy in employing their brain and muscle in their work, but it would be as well if they could look upon it as many ringers did, as part of their vocation and ministry in the church. That was a high ideal, and he took it that it was one of the objects of the Association to keep before them that high ideal of the service they rendered.

The business meeting followed 'high tea' at the Abbey Institute. The outgoing President (Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham) presided. Amongst those supporting him were the Dean of St. Albans, Canon Green, Canon Nidd, the Rev. E. H. Evans, Major Wilkinson (Bushey Heath), and Messrs. E. N. Wix and L. C. Head (St. Albans), C. E. Head (Bushey), W. H. Lawrence (Little Munden), and the hon. secretary (Mr. G. W. Cartmel).

There were among those present, including several lady ringers, members from St. Albans, Harpenden, Luton, Hatfield, North Mymms, Hertford, Ware, Cheshunt, Berkhamsted, Hemel Hempstead, Tring, King's Langley, Watford, Bushey, Bushey Heath, Oxhey, Barley, Little Munden, Leighton, Leatherhead, Kensington, Walthamstow, Southgate, and other places.

The Secretary announced receipt of expressions of regret at absence from the Bishop of St. Albans and Canon Papillon.

NEW MEMBERS.

The Rev. W. C. Glainsby and Mr. R. E. Norris, of Berkhamsted, were elected honorary members of the Association. The provisional election of Mr. W. J. Nudds (King's Cross) and Mr. W. Ayre (Leverstock Green) was approved, as was the provisional election as life members of Mr. G. H. Cross (Norwich) and Mrs. C. V. Ebberson (Kilburn).

The following members were also elected: Messrs. P. W. Lewis, C. M. Deacon and R. Gulliver (St. Albans Cathedral Society), S. R. Gardener (St. Peter's, St. Albans), B. Malyon, H. Bedford and E. Warner (St. Stephen's, St. Albans), G. Kentish, D. Richardson, A. Symons and J. Dunham (Hatfield), S. Keen and A. Bachelor (Harpenden), H. Shapland (Aldenhurst), A. Tschumi (Bushey), F. Cobb (Bushey Heath), the Rev. Canon S. Green, and Messrs. E. Sharp and F. Oakley (Little Munden), Messrs. F. E. G. Askew and C. J. Badrich (Tring), N. Hayes (Barley), and C. W. Roberts (Kensington), and, as provisional members, Messrs. H. Wood and C. Rollings (Luton).

The financial statement, presented by Mr. Cartmel in the absence of Mr. E. P. Debenham, showed that the receipts totalled £31 12s. 11d., including a balance of £10 8s. 5d. brought forward from the previous year; subscriptions from ringing members, £17 2s.; hon. members, £8 5s.; and life ringing members, £2 15s. The expenditure amounted to £34 5s., leaving a balance of £5 7s. 11d. There was a reserve fund of £28 8s., in addition to over £15 in war stock.

It was explained by the honorary secretary that the depleted balance was accounted for by the drop in ringing subscriptions, while the honorary subscriptions had been raised, and there had been a decrease in the subscriptions for life members. Mr. Cartmel concluded with an expression of thanks to Mr. J. Prewett as auditor.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS.

The Hon. Secretary, in his report, said: 'The progress anticipated by me has been fully realised, as evidenced by the peal list, which for variety and the high standard of methods rung has never been reached. Whilst the trade of the country has been slack, bell founders and bell ringers have been exceptionally busy throughout the country. Hertfordshire has found work for many founders, by the casting of a new peal of eight for Bushey Heath, by Mears, and the rehanging of Stevenage, Baldock, Offley, Barley (made into 6), and other bells. Yet what is lacking to-day, according to a recent article in 'The Ringing World,' is enterprise amongst ringers generally. I would suggest that this is not entirely lacking in our Association, and Mr. Maurice Hibbert and Mr. J. Thomas, and their respective bands, are to be congratulated upon "getting out of the rut" by ringing the first peal of Erin Caters and Forward Major for the Association. Forty-five peals have been rung upon tower bells, and one on hawbells during the year, in 30 different churches. There have been 25 different conductors. Eighteen have rung their first peal, and many others have rung their first in higher methods. The first peal for the Association of Stedman Cinques, Kent Treble Bob Maximus, Cambridge Royal and Erin Caters, is a noteworthy advance, and we congratulate all associated in the performances.

After reference to the progress of the King's Langley, Watford and Royston bands, the Secretary went on to exhort the members to see that they had a representative on the Parochial Councils. "There are still," he added, "people who have vague ideas even of what a bell is like, and know nothing as to how bells are rung, or even their value. You can give your Vicar and Council much help by reporting on the condition of the bells and fittings from time to time. A word of practical advice may often save many pounds." Sympathetic reference was made to the death of Mr. A. T. King, and a tribute paid to his work for ringing, and also to the death of Canon Mills, of Bennington, a warm supporter of the Association. The Secretary again called attention to the Association's photographic album, which was still waiting for photographs of members. The album was a personal memento of men who have done their bit in their day and generation to advance the cause of change ringing, and the Association valued the man who rang Doubles as much as the one who had attained to higher methods. They were all workers together in one noble art. Passing on, the Secretary reviewed the work in the districts, and referred to the splendid services of the District Secretaries. He expressed thanks to them for all they had done, and to the clergy for their help, especially to the Dean of St. Albans for the interest he took in the Association. Thanks were also extended to the hon. members, the auditor, Mr. J. Prewett (who shouldered the work in memory of one who was the brightest ornament of the Association, and one whom they all loved), and the Librarian (Mr. Livermore).

The Hon. Secretary also referred to the setting up of a Benevolent Fund. 'The question of the formation of the fund by which ringers or their dependants might receive, in necessitous times, temporary monetary help, has been simmering in the minds of many ringers for years,' he said, 'and from time to time the subject is brought to our notice by appeals for help appearing in our ringing journal. It is a question needing most thoughtful consideration, and I would suggest that our representative on the Central Council give notice to that body of his intention to raise the whole question at the Whitsun meeting.'

The report was adopted with thanks to the honorary secretary.

In reference to the Benevolent Fund, the Rev. B. Tyrwhitt-Drake, as representative of the Association on the Central Council, said he doubted if such action as Mr. Cartmel had suggested would be possible, as it was felt by the Council that this would have to be done by means of voluntary contributions.

MR. W. H. LAWRENCE ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham, vacating the position of President, thanked the members for their support during the past two years, and proceeded to propose Mr. W. H. Lawrence, of Little Munden, as his successor.

The proposal was seconded by the Rev. B. Tyrwhitt-Drake (who remarked that Mr. Lawrence had no equal in England in Minor ringing), and was supported by Mr. G. W. Cartmel.

The members gave their unanimous approval to the motion, and the new President, in a brief speech, gave expression to his growing interest in bell ringing, and in the welfare of the Association. He emphasised the fact that their duty constituted a part of the services of the church. The importance of practice and the training of young members was also alluded to.

Mr. E. P. Debenham was re-elected honorary treasurer, and Mr. G. W. Cartmel as honorary secretary, thanks being expressed to both. The ex-President observed that Mr. Cartmel gave much time to the affairs of the Association and to change ringing in general. He felt they could not have a better secretary.

Mr. Cartmel spoke as an original member of the Association, and said his interest in it was unabated.

The Rev. B. Tyrwhitt-Drake was re-elected the representative of the Association on the Central Council, and Mr. E. D. Livermore was re-elected honorary librarian.

On the proposition of Mr. W. H. L. Buckingham, it was decided that a fee of one penny per head shall be charged for all peals rung, in order to assist in defraying the cost of entry in the peal book.

The district secretaries were re-elected.

On the motion of Mr. Lawrence C. Head, seconded by the Rev. E. H. Evans, a vote of thanks was accorded to the Rev. Canon Green for his address.

Replying to the vote of thanks, Canon Green confessed that his experience of bell ringing had not always been an unmixed pleasure. He had had no difficulty with the ringers, but sometimes the outside people had been a little troublesome (laughter).

Thanks were accorded to the Dean of St. Albans and the Vicars of St. Peter's, St. Stephen's and St. Michael's for the use of their towers for ringing during the day, and the Dean, responding in a cheery speech, expressed pleasure at seeing such a large number of young ringers present, which meant that the future success of the Association was assured.

NORWICH AND IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.

EXTENSION OF AREA AND TITLE.

The annual meeting of the Norwich Diocesan Branch of the Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association was held at Wymondham on Easter Monday, when, by kind permission of the Rev. S. Martin-Jones, Vicar of Wymondham, the fine ring of eight bells of the Abbey Church were placed at the disposal of the members.

Luncheon was served at the Green Dragon Hotel, the President (the Dean of Norwich) being in the chair, supported by the Rev. F. C. Oakley, and the following members of the committee, Messrs. G. P. Burton, W. L. Duffield, F. R. Borrett, and the general secretary (Mr. A. L. Coleman). Amongst others present were the Dean's son, the Misses F. L. and H. W. Bill, and Messrs. R. Spight, A. Pickling and G. T. Peggall, officers of the Wymondham company. After luncheon, the President proposed the toast of 'The King,' which was heartily responded to by all the members present.

The officers were re-elected en bloc, on the proposition of Mr. F. R. Borrett, seconded by Mr. R. Spight, and the following new members were elected: Messrs. E. P. King, P. C. Spence, S. J. Briggs, S. Parker, W. Wiseman, together with the re-election of Messrs. E. Chatten and A. J. Woodcock.

TO EMBRACE WEST SUFFOLK.

The General Secretary (Mr. A. L. Coleman) brought forward the Suffolk Branch motion, viz.: 'That this Ipswich Branch be known henceforth as the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch, the branch to remain as heretofore united with Norwich Branch (henceforth to be known as the Norwich Diocesan Branch), forming together one Association covering the two dioceses, to be known in future as the Norwich and St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association of Ringers.'

In supporting the motion, Mr. Coleman said that it had received sanction at a general meeting of the Standing Committee of the Association, and had been passed by the committee of the Suffolk Branch at a meeting held at Ipswich on February 4th 1922, and also by a district meeting of the Saxmundham district, held at Saxmundham on March 18th, 1922. The motion was also coming up for ratification on that day at the general meeting of the Suffolk Branch at Helmingham and Framsgden. In passing, Mr. Coleman said that the motion had already been adopted by members in practice, which was even better than by resolution. However, to bring the motion into accord with the spirit of the new rule dealing with alterations, etc., passed by both branches of the Association, he (Mr. Coleman) moved that the Norfolk Branch do ratify the Suffolk Branch motion; Mr. G. P. Burton seconded, and the Dean of Norwich spoke in support of the motion, which was carried unanimously.

The General Secretary thanked the members warmly on passing the motion, which was a confirmation of that bond of union between the two branches, and for the continuity of many years of close fellowship that has existed with the Norfolk and Suffolk members of the Association.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF DISTRICTS.

Mr. F. R. Borrett moved, and Mr. F. Housego seconded, that the East Harling district be disbanded; that the name of the 'Hingham district' be changed to the 'Wymondham district,' and that the parishes of Banham, Bunwell and Tibenham, be transferred to the Wymondham district; East Harling, Garboldisham, Market Weston and Thelnetham be transferred to the Thetford district; Kenninghall and Quidenham be transferred to the Diss district.—The motion was carried, and Mr. George T. Peggall was appointed district secretary for the Wymondham district.

Mr. A. L. Coleman moved that Mr. F. C. Lambert, late of Halesworth, and for 26 years district secretary of the Halesworth district, be transferred to non-resident life membership, in recognition of the many years of valuable service for the welfare of the Association in the Halesworth district.—The motion was carried unanimously.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar of Wymondham for the use of the Abbey church bells, and the President announced that the Whit-Monday (June 5th) meeting would be held at King's Lynn, and the August Bank Holiday (August 7th) meeting at East Dereham.

The members then adjourned to the belfry, and were joined by several more members, including the Misses A. M. and H. L. Durant, of Norwich. The ringing throughout the day was exceptionally good, and touches in the following methods were rung, viz.: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob and Treble Bob Major, Double Norwich Court Bob, Superlative Surprise and Cambridge Surprise Major.

A resolution confirming the extension of the title of the Association, and of the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich branch was also carried at a meeting at Helmingham, Suffolk, on Easter Monday.

OSWESTRY.—On Monday, April 3rd, 720 Minor (on handbells), in 34 mins.: H. Kynaston 1, H. Hughes 2, J. Hughes 3, W. B. Kynaston 4, R. Kynaston 5, R. Evans (conductor) 6. Rung as a birthday compliment to the conductor and H. Hughes.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Our friends in West Suffolk are perfectly entitled to ask 'Why St. Edmundsbury?' The Norwich Association has recently added St. Edmundsbury to its title, which it does not represent, and never will, I hope.

To fully understand this controversy one has to go back some considerable time to discover the aggressors. It, perhaps may be recalled that early in October, 1913, the Commissioners pronounced their verdict in favour of the division of Norwich and Ely dioceses. Following hard on the heels of this pronouncement we find the then general secretary of the Norwich Diocesan Association making the following statement at Ipswich, October 15th, 1913, which I quote word for word as it appeared in 'The Ringing World' of October 24th, 1913: 'It was clear that when the division took place their territory could not remain as it was. They must either divide, and have two separate associations for the two dioceses or have one association for the two. The latter alternative would mean adding to the present area that part of West Suffolk which up to now has belonged to the Ely Diocese.'

This statement caused some consternation among our members, who regarded it as an indiscretion on the part of the speaker. To the latter alternative, however, the Norwich officials steadfastly adhered, and appointed a sub-committee of four from Norfolk and two from East Suffolk to draw up a list of recommendations, which were distributed in June, 1914, throughout Suffolk.

Now, Sir, this was done entirely without the knowledge of the Ely Association, or its West Suffolk members, and your criticism published August 12th, 1921, under 'The position in Suffolk,' wherein you ask, 'Where the consideration for the Ely Association comes in?' is well merited.

Mr. Wilson, two weeks ago, suggested that a grievance existed between the Ely Association and West Suffolk. Well, if he studies the position carefully, he will find that West Suffolk's grievance was against the Norwich Association for so kindly providing for their future welfare without consulting them. He also suggests that East Suffolk has not been consulted with regard to the new association. May I refer him to the resolution passed at Bury St. Edmunds on May 9th, 1914, which appeared in 'The Ringing World,' August 26th, 1921.

The Norwich Association, rich in funds, has spared no efforts during this long controversy, to convince its members in East Suffolk, that it can provide for their interests, better than they can themselves. If East Suffolk on the whole, is content to swallow that doctrine, that is their affair, but there is great objection to the attitude recently assumed by Norwich officials in attempting to prejudice the new Suffolk Association in the eyes of their brothers in east of the county.

We have only to look at the report of the Lowestoft meeting last August, and there we find the true spirit of Norwich officialdom revealed. Afraid that the new association is going to curb their power in East Suffolk, Mr. Coleman stigmatises the Rev. H. Drake's inquiries among Suffolk clergy as mischievous, and Mr. Burton suggests writing to the new Bishop diplomatically.

The Ely Association has always looked upon the division as one for Suffolk alone to decide, and from that view it will not depart. It relinquished its interests in Suffolk, because it realised the new diocese was entitled to have its own organisation, and enter into the councils of ringers.

If this new association, formed by a few so-called malcontents in West Suffolk, chooses, as it has a perfect right to do, to peacefully penetrate East Suffolk, we fail to see what objection our Norwich neighbours can have? The mere fact that 50 or more members can be obtained by such methods, rather tends to disprove Mr. Burton's contention that East Suffolk is solid to a man for the Norwich Association—Yours,

T. R. DENNIS,

Late General Sec., Ely Association.

'POACHING.'

Dear Sir,—Are we not wandering rather far from St. Edmundsbury? If the Norwich Association are desirous of adding St. Edmundsbury to their title it must be because they hope to gain some members from West Suffolk. So they are busy making love to that fair country. But how tactless to make love by finding fault!

Mr. Wilson, the only champion so far in the whole of Suffolk for the Norwich Association, finds fault with the number of change ringers. I do not know whether proportionally the figure is so bad; but at any rate the West Suffolk men are hoping to increase it, or they would not have started a new society. Still, if we are to have numbers considered, let us look at them as a whole and see where in East Anglia are the numbers lowest. We shall then find that it is in Norfolk itself. Therefore, if we are to have an Association for the whole of these two counties, Norfolk and Norwich must come last. Mr. Burton seems to have a sort of wistful pride in the parent-age of his cumbersome title; but it is allowable to point out, that an even better sounding title would be: St. Edmundsbury, Ipswich and Norwich Association. Then we should no longer have the tail wagging the dog. Instead of having all committee meetings held in the inaccessible City of Norwich (except one every two years the findings of which can be so easily reversed at the next Norwich meeting), we shall hold all our meetings at Ipswich, a town everyone can easily reach (except, perhaps, one every third year at Norwich). How do our Norwich monopolists like the prospect?

At the Stowmarket meeting, the Norwich men found fault with the skill of the West Suffolk ringers. Now the records you publish of peals week by week in West Suffolk, does not justify this complaint. But at any rate the West Suffolk ringers cannot hope to improve their skill by joining the Norwich Association, the only society in my experience which makes no pretence of teaching the art it was founded to foster. The attempts that we in Suffolk have made to remedy this have consistently been thwarted by the Norfolk members. Therefore they cannot blame us if we have a society to do what they refuse to do.

At the Hadleigh meeting the Norwich men found fault with West Suffolk for quarrelling with their old Ely Association. They were told very plainly that nothing of the sort had occurred: that a friendly arrangement had been made with the Ely Association to enable ringing to be organised by a society for each diocese. The Norwich men admitted quite clearly that they had been entirely mistaken in this matter; but what have they done since to make the real position of West Suffolk, which had previously so grievously misrepresented, clear to the other members? It is this misunderstanding which underlies Mr. Wilson's letter. It is quite wrong to treat the West Suffolk men as if they were traitors to their old Association, and wanting ringers in East Suffolk to be similar traitors.

What the Norwich men must ask themselves is the question they so carefully avoid, why they should commit the sin, so unforgivable among ringers, of 'poaching,' which they seem to be contemplating?

SUBJECTS FOR THE COUNCIL.

Little time remains now for notice to be given of any motion to be brought before the Central Council at Whitsun, and any subject which members desire to discuss must quickly be in the hands of the Hon. Secretary, or it will be too late for inclusion in the agenda. We are pleased to see that our endeavours to bring home to the various affiliated associations the importance of taking a more active interest in this matter has not been entirely without result, as, from the reports of the Easter meetings which have been published, there have been some few matters ventilated which may find their way into the agenda of the Council.

For instance, two subjects were brought up for discussion at the Midland Counties Association meeting. One of them was before the Council last year, but no action was taken on account of the absence of the proposer. This motion is to come on again, and deals with the desirability of establishing a bell restoration fund in the area of each ringing association. Another proposal is a suggestion to award certificates of merit in method ringing. At the Herts County meeting the benevolent fund scheme was once more brought forward, although this is a subject in which the Council have been rather shy to take action in the past. At the Worcestershire Association's meeting it was suggested the Council should discuss the best means of preventing the ringing or publication of false peal compositions. Here are subjects of general interest to all ringers which the Council could profitably debate, whatever the ultimate decisions upon them might be.

At the moment we are not concerned with the pros and cons of any of these matters, but what we do feel is that this raising of questions which go outside the purely domestic affairs of ringing organisations must, in the long run, be for the good of the Exercise at large. The Central Council is established in the interests of ringing generally, and it is for the affiliated societies to see that it fulfils its functions. Hitherto, as we have so often pointed out, associations have been content to leave the Council to find work for itself, instead of giving it work to do. We hope that the action of the three associations mentioned is but a prelude to a wider and more direct interest in the business of the Council. We have always felt that, instead of sitting still and criticising the Council for an absence of usefulness, it would be far better if ringers, through their societies, provided the Council with matters to which it might devote its attention; and while we have done our best to move the Council out of the sterile condition into which it was falling, we have always urged that the most effective means of increasing its utility lay with the associations who elect it.

BARNSELY & DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

The monthly meeting was held at Penistone, on Saturday, April 15th, when the weather was a succession of rain and snowstorms. The town is, as the name indicates, one of stone; it is also suggestive of the Pennine range of hills that pass above. It is stated to be the highest market town in England. The church is a splendid building, noble in its ancient and unpretending dignity, rich in style, but sparing in ornament. A chapel has been renewed in memory of the fallen in the great war, and of this it may be said the work has been so reverently done that none can refuse to pay due homage.

The following towers were represented at the meeting: Anston, Barnsley, Darfield, Crofton, Sandal, Hoylandswaine, and members of the local company.

Tea and meeting were held in the Church Schoolroom. The Vicar (the Rev. Whittington, Rural Dean of Silkstone) kindly welcomed the visitors to the church and town. His praise of bells as instruments of the church and of the ringers as workers were very real and appropriate. His duties as Rural Dean, he said, caused him to examine the bells and their belongings, and also the ringing chambers. He was pained to find in some places used up matches. This did not satisfy him, when thinking of the danger from fire, and he hoped ringers would co-operate against this, and thereby prove the ringing room to be a sacred part of the church.

The President, in reply, warmly upheld the ringers' position in the church and their duties, and said he hoped all clergymen would prove as good as the Rural Dean. With such grand help, they could only try to be worthy church workers.

Mr. James Tinker was elected a member of the Association, and Sandal received most votes for the next meeting, which is to be held there on Saturday, May 13th.

DEATH OF A SWINDON RINGER.

The Swindon Parish Church Guild of Ringers have lost through the death of Mr. Thomas Robinson, one of the original band who took up change ringing under the guidance of the late Mr. Owen Wallis Layng in the eighties. The deceased succumbed to that malignant and dreaded disease, cancer, and after a recent operation passed to his rest on Saturday, April 8th, at the age of 57 years. The deceased lost his wife some few years ago, and leaves a grown-up family of three sons and two daughters.

He was buried on Maundy Thursday, the first part of the ceremony taking place at the Parish Church, and the body laid to rest in the Swindon Cemetery.

The bells were rung half-muffled as the funeral cortege was approaching and leaving the church. The service was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. C. A. Mayall. The whole pull and stand was rung at the conclusion by A. Lawrance 1, E. Bishop 2, R. W. Hyner 3, A. W. Bond 4, T. Ricketts 5, C. J. Gardiner 6, J. H. Shepherd 7, A. W. Harrington 8. The deceased took part in the first peals of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Treble Bob and Double Norwich in Swindon, and has altogether rung about 70 peals, mostly for the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association. He was a fine striker, and a most reliable ringer, seldom making a trip, and he will be very much missed in Swindon Parish Church tower, where he was a regular service ringer, when his health permitted.

THE LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.*MANCHESTER BRANCH.

The monthly meeting of the Manchester Branch was held at Christ Church, Pendlebury, on Saturday, April 22nd. Ringing commenced about 5.30, members being rather late in turning up. It would save disappointment if the ringing would begin about the time stated in the notice.

At the business meeting, the Vicar took the chair, and gave a warm welcome to the visitors, although they were not quite so numerous as on previous occasions.

Stretford was selected for the next meeting, on Saturday, May 20th. Mr. Harold Chapman was elected a member of the Association, and the Branch Secretary explained the reason why the meeting was not held at St. John's, Deansgate, as had been first decided upon.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for presiding, also to the local ringers, closed the meeting, and ringing in the standard methods continued till a later hour.

THE WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

The forty-first quarterly meeting of the Warwickshire Guild was held at Solihull on April 22nd. The bells were available at 3 p.m., and members were present from Allesley, Berkswell, Birmingham, Coventry, Erdington, Exhall, Knowle, Nuneaton, Stoke, and the local tower.

The Guilds' service was conducted in church by the Rector (Canon T. B. Harvey Brooks, M.A.), who gave an instructive address, and after service explained various items of interest connected with the building.

Owing to illness near the church, ringing on the tower bells was abandoned after tea, which had been served in capital style at Dascombe's Cafe in High Street.

For the business meeting an adjournment was made to the comfortable and spacious ringing chamber. The meeting was presided over by the President (Canon H. C. A. Back, M.A.), who extended his usual invitation to the Guild to hold the June meeting at Berkswell, an invitation which it is always a pleasure to accept.

Canon Back was supported by Mr. A. Roberts (Ringing Master), and Mr. G. A. Martineau, of the local band.

Monks Kirby was decided on for the May meeting and this year Warwick is the venue for the annual meeting, in July.

Three new members were elected.—Votes of thanks were accorded the Rector for use of the bells, and for his address, and also to the President.

There being no tower bells going, extra use was made of the hand-bells in various methods.

CHELTENHAM RECORD CELEBRATED.

Members of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association rang a quarter-peal of Stedman Cinques, in 55 minutes, on Saturday, April 22nd, at the Church of St. Mary, Cheltenham, to celebrate the record peal of Grandsire Caters (15,227 changes), rung there in 9 hrs. 45 mins. on April 22nd, 1889: W. T. Pates 1, G. H. Phillott, M.A., 2, A. W. Humphris 3, C. W. Martin 4, G. Walters 5, W. Brinkworth 6, H. Halford 7, A. C. Caudle 8, W. Townsend 9, A. G. Hannis 10, J. F. Ballinger 11, J. Parsons 12. It was the longest touch of Stedman Cinques on the bells, and was composed and conducted by W. T. Pates.

At St. Peter's Church, Leckhampton, for evening service, on Sunday, April 23rd, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples (1,260 changes), in 40 mins.: W. T. Pates 1, G. H. Phillott 2, A. W. Humphris 3, A. F. Hunt 4, A. C. Caudle 5, J. F. Ballinger 6, G. Walters (conductor) 7, W. Hunt 8.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

A reprint of the diagrams of Snowdon's 'Standard Methods' has now been completed, and can be obtained (price 1s. 6d.) from Mrs. Laura Snowdon, Cartmel, Lancashire. The complete work (letter-press and diagrams) can be had for 2s. 10d.

On May 5th, in 1817, a peal of 12,312 Tittum Grandsire Caters, 'the greatest achievement of change ringing in England by ten men only' (as the tablet records), was rung at Painswick in 7 hours 44 minutes. Except for one of the band, who died at the age of 50, all this company lived to a ripe old age, one, Giles Mansfield, reaching nearly a century. Of the rest three passed 70 years, and five exceeded eighty years.

The first peal of Grandsire Bob Maximus was rung at Southwark on Monday, May 7th, 1792, by the Cumberland Youths. It was called by John Reeves, and William Shipway took part in it. A peal of 5,040 in the method was rung on June 12th, 1815, at Birmingham, and claimed to be the first in the method, but Jasper Snowdon's investigations brought the earlier and longer peal to light.

In 1777, on May 10th, the Cumberlands rang 10,200 Treble Bob Royal in 7 hours 40 minutes, at Shoreditch. This was one of the peals which figured in the rivalry between the society and the College Youths for the longest length.

May 11th is the anniversary of the 14,112 London Surprise Major record, rung in 8 hours 40 minutes at King's Norton, in 1903.

On May 5th, 1887, the first peal in the county of Dorset was rung at St. Mary's, Bridport.

Sunday next is the 34th anniversary of the 10,176 of Kent Treble Bob Major, rung at Foxearth, Essex, on May 7th, 1888, in 5 hours 55 minutes. It was composed by W. Harrison, and conducted by Charles Sillitoe. Does this peal still stand as the Treble Bob record in the county of Essex?

The meeting of the South and West District of the Middlesex County Association, arranged for May 13th, at Ealing, has been unavoidably postponed to the 27th inst.

The attention of conductors of peals for the Midland Counties Association is directed to a notice in another column.

A flag day, organised by the Mayor and Mayoress of Gravesend, in aid of the Bell Restoration Fund, on Saturday week, realised £255, and, we understand, the fund now stands at over £250.

The first peal of Cinques in Yorkshire was rung at Leeds, on May 1st, 1842. By a typographical error it was stated last week that the year was 1892.

The Vicar of Arundel has, by special desire, kindly granted the use of the bells (eight) to all ringers wishing to avail themselves of a combined practice, and the local ringers will be glad to see a goodly number take advantage of this offer, the object of which is to render a little assistance to those willing to learn, and also that advanced ringers may meet for good ringing on their own. The first practice will take place on Saturday evening, May 13th, 6.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m., and then on each succeeding Saturday in the month.

Elijah Roberts, the first of the peal 'tappers' was born on May 7th, 1807. He eventually committed suicide at Liverpool.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD.

The annual meeting of the East Devon Branch was held at Colyton on Easter Monday, and was highly successful. The morning and early part of the afternoon were devoted to visits to Axminster, Lyme Regis, Kilminster and Seaton, by ringers from Ottery St. Mary, Honiton, Bucknell, Talaton and Seaton. A service was held at St. Andrew's Church, Colyton, at which the Vicar (the Rev. H. S. Wyatt) gave an appropriate address, and welcomed the ringers. Tea was laid in the Church Hall, where the annual business meeting followed. Mr. Edwin Shepherd, Exeter, presided, and among those who attended were the Revs. H. S. Wyatt (Colyton), R. S. Powell (general hon. secretary, Devon Guild), Mr. T. G. Bartlett (hon. treasurer, Devon Guild), Mr. A. S. Hutchinson (Shute), Mr. A. J. P. Skinner (Colyton), Mr. D. G. Taylor (Ilminster), Mr. Jeans (Bridgwater), Mr. J. H. Godfrey (hon. secretary and treasurer).

The Chairman tendered thanks to the Rev. H. S. Wyatt for his address at the service.

The Rev. L. B. Stallard, Vicar of Ottery St. Mary, was elected a member, and chairman of the branch, in succession to the Rev. J. W. Metcalfe, and Mr. J. H. Godfrey was re-elected honorary secretary and treasurer, and thanked for his past services.

Mr. Godfrey said he was gratified that so many ringers had met; he also thanked Mrs. Wyatt and the ladies who had kindly provided tea.

Mr. D. G. Taylor (Ilminster), a member of the Bath and Wells Association, suggested that bands of ringers from various towers should meet at such gatherings as that, so that those experienced in scientific ringing could make others more competent.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Sidmouth on August Bank Holiday.

The meeting concluded with thanks to the clergy for the use of the bells, and Mr. E. Shepherd for presiding.

THE LONG PEAL AT APPLETON.

By EDGAR HUMFREY.

As one of the few ringers who had the privilege and great pleasure of hearing the last two hours of the long peal on the lovely bells at Appleton, may I add a few words to what will surely be said by others more capable.

First, I think it was unfortunate that, probably owing to short notice, the reasons for which we were told, so few ringers were present from a distance, only about a dozen, besides twice as many local enthusiasts being in the village. Moreover, I think it was a pity that some competent ringer was not engaged and provided with the peal figures, 3 or 4 meals, and a comfortable seat near by, and so have furnished the Exercise with a reliable witness of this great performance.

As a mere listener, I should like to say how greatly I was impressed with the wonderful regularity and real excellence of the striking during the last two hours' ringing, when one might reasonably be expecting to hear—if not any mistakes—at least some bell lagging. Not so, but according to careful tests by the second hand of my watch exactly 29 changes to the minute were being rolled off with wonderful precision, and the course ends came up in grand style. As a small matter of mathematics it will be seen that if 29 changes per minute had been the speed throughout the peal the time would have been 12 hours and 13 minutes, but the time being 12 hours and about 25 minutes, the average speed was a fraction under 28½ changes per minute, so that in the last 'lap' at 29, the speed was just above the average.

It was remarkable to see the keen interest in the peal taken by all one met in this old ringing village. Some worthy rustic remarked, 'I think they be gvain to get un this time,' and the reply from another, 'I hopes they 'ull too,' showed that the parishioners were following the ringing with earnest interest.

At a quarter to 8 p.m., the welcome result was known by rounds coming up and tapered off as though the peal was starting, and, then in a moment, a clean 'stand.' Cheers and hand clapping from a mixed crowd round the tower door followed the shout of 'all right' from the belfry, and more for each man as he came outside—the greatest being given to the local tenorman, the next to the worthy conductor.

All of them showed signs of severe strain, but really much less than one might have expected to see, and they went off to seek refreshment without any persuasion or assistance.

'Well done, Langdon.' The best credit is due to you and your worthy band. It was a masterful performance, worthy of record for all time, and who shall say 'We will beat it'?

STEDMAN TRIPLES.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I have just returned from Belgium, and looking over your valuable paper, I saw in the number of April 14th, 1922, what is supposed to be an odd and even bob peal of Stedman Triples, by Mr. A. J. Pitman, of Port Talbot, Glam. I must say that the peal is a good variation of mine, published on March 10th, 1922, which he has evidently been working from, but having so many courses with odd bobs only, it spoils the peal. Now, if Mr. Pitman will work out a true course that will run to 60 courses he will do better.—Yours, etc.,

JOHN CARTER.

NEW METHODS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Mr. Barber says my letter of the 7th April is not very encouraging to a progressive band. I fail to see where any progress is made when you go from Bristol to Premier, for, if anything, Premier is simpler than Bristol to ring. He says in Bristol you get 5-6 at home for three leads; in Premier you get them for three courses. You can have 5-6 at home three courses in Bristol if you like. I have called peals of Bristol with the 6th 12 courses at home, but you cannot get the music that you get out of long courses. The music comes most with the large bells behind. He amuses me when he says Bristol is monotonous with too many calls. If he takes my advice he will think a little more before writing again. I do not think I am wrong when I say he has called peals of Forward, Duffield, Erie and Double Superlative, and if you can find four methods that are more monotonous than these, I should like to see them. They are nothing but calls. If you do get six calls in 9 leads, with 2 W, 2 H, 2 M, in Bristol, the work behind during that time is shared by six different bells; there are four different kinds of work, and you get plenty of music, whereas in Double Superlative you are crowding two bobs into a lead, and while you keep doing it, the trouble is sandwiched between the same two bells and spoiling the method in the bargain.

I have never yet heard any ringer say he got tired of the back work of Bristol, and I have rung peals of Bristol with a great number of ringers. I do not think I am wrong when I say Mr. Barber's knowledge of Bristol is limited, as I believe, writing from memory, the peals of Bristol he has rung can be counted on the fingers of one hand. I evidently hit the nail on the head when I said these methods only appealed to those who jumped at anything that is fresh, and I know he was always inclined to do that. He is welcome to continue, as far as I am concerned; but there is no need for others to be criticised because they do not feel disposed to do the same.

In reply to Mr. Holdsworth, I may say I have not seen Northampton recently, and almost forget what it was like, but I have always scanned those new methods pretty closely, and I do not think I should have missed it had it been so intricate. As to it being in class 10, I should not pay much attention to that. I should be loth to fall in with the way points are given for methods. Some of them are absolutely ridiculous. I have had enough experience at Surprise Methods to know which are the most difficult, without being guided by the Points Committee.—Yours,

W. PYE.

YORKSHIRE SURPRISE.

Dear Sir,—In his letter of the 14th April, on the subject of new methods, Mr. Pye says Cambridge is the most perfect Surprise Method ever produced, and has an advantage that no other Surprise Method possesses, viz., that it will extend to any number of bells without introducing any adulteration.

He must have overlooked Yorkshire, which extends as perfectly as Cambridge, and is a much more perfect method.—Yours, etc.,

A. CRAVEN.

REAL DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Parker, in his letter of April 21st, says that there are 9,600 changes available with tenors together. I think that he will agree with me that there are not 9,600 only, but 10,560. A perusal of the enclosed three part peal will explain.

I cannot accept any blame for the interpretation of those who thought (when claiming a composition with over 9,000 tenors together) that I meant continuously; for the most green of my variety knew that 30 courses was the limit.—Yours truly,

F. H. DEXTER.

I have used Mr. Parker's description of the calls in the following peal, which was composed in June, 1921.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.

EAST SUFFOLK RINGERS CONFIRM EXTENSION.

A well-attended meeting of the Ipswich Branch of the Norwich and Ipswich Association was held at Helmingham on Easter Monday. The bells at Helmingham, Framsden and Oley were at the disposal of members all day, and were kept going by ringers from Debenham, Framlingham, Earl Soham, Cretingham, Ipswich, Thornham, Hadleigh, etc.

The Rev. Wm. C. Pearson presided at the business meeting, and expressed the regrets of the Revs. Garrett, Wood and Dewing, who were unable to be present, as Easter Monday was a very busy day with them.

Three new members were elected, and Captain A. E. Reeves, of Holton, was elected a representative on the Central Council in place of the Rev. H. Drake, resigned.

Mr. E. Evans, branch secretary, proposed 'that this Ipswich Branch be known henceforth as the St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch, the branch to remain as heretofore united with the Norwich Branch, henceforth to be known as the Norwich Diocesan Branch, forming together one Association covering the two Dioceses, to be known in future as the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association.' He said that the average person reading the correspondence which has been appearing in 'The Ringing World' during the last few weeks would think that ringers in East Suffolk were held by the hand; one might almost say 'the scruff of their necks,' and compelled to continue members of the Norwich and Ipswich Association, instead of being free agents and quite able to follow out their own wishes. In the first letter that appeared, the writer took exception to 'St. Edmundsbury' Branch, etc. This was the first intimation to ringers that there was such a thing as a St. Edmundsbury Branch, as West Suffolk had always been looked upon as the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, and ringers in that district as members of the Ely Diocesan Association. These members discontinued their position of annual subscribers to Ely for the purpose of forming a new association. This would have been quite all right if they had kept to their own territory, instead of which they formed a County (afterwards altered to Diocesan) Association and encroached on territory already admirably served; holding meetings in various parts, with the object of drawing members away from their old association. This writer also spoke of the 'shady' action of leaving a weak society to further strengthen a strong one; he said nothing of the still more shady action of trying to split up one strong society into two weak ones. On April 7th there appeared a letter from the Rev. H. Drake, stating that the alteration of title was made at a committee meeting at which a quorum (as required by Rule 2 of Branch Rules) was not formed. This was, absolutely false, as those present were Messrs. Fisher, Mee, Poppy, Symonds and Wilson. He (the Secretary) being confined to the house with influenza. Mr. Symonds kindly acted in his place. This meeting of the committee discussed the matter, and decided that it should come up for consideration and ratification at that Branch meeting.

'What view,' continued the Secretary, 'do the clergy of East Suffolk take of the matter? This is best answered by the fact that the Bishop of the Diocese (who is one of our patrons) said at the meeting of the proposed Suffolk Diocesan Association on February 4th that he had no wish to interfere with present arrangements, and that of 230 circulars sent out by Mr. Drake, asking the clergy's opinion on the subject of a Diocesan Association, only about 50 were returned, and these were not all in favour of it. What object is there in forming this association? Can they give us a better organisation than we have at present? Most decidedly not; if there is room for spare work in East Suffolk (as another correspondent to "The Ringing World" would have us believe), and I do not say that we are perfect how much more so is the case in West Suffolk? Can they place us in a stronger position financially? The very fact that we are asked to break away from 400 annual subscribers and take in 80 to 100 is sufficient answer to this question, added to which the subscription of hon. members is at a reduced figure, and, I am sure, will not be compensated by additional members.'

'The sole object of this proposed society,' added Mr. Evans, 'is to provide a Diocesan Association for Suffolk and this we are in a better position to do than any new society that can be formed for this object; therefore, I propose that the title of this Association be altered from the "Norwich and Ipswich" to the "Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association," and this Branch be known as the "St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Branch."'

This was seconded by Mr. E. Youngs, and the Rev. W. Pearson said he would support all that had been said. He hoped he should not live to see the Association split up.

Mr. A. Lincoln asked if any other reason than supplying a Diocesan Society had been advanced; if that had not been done there was no need to split.

The Chairman then put the resolution to the meeting, and it was carried unanimously.

Votes of thanks to the clergy for the use of the bells and to the Chairman for presiding, concluded the business and ringing was kept up until buses returned, and it was necessary for cyclists to 'scorch' to save fines.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

PROPOSED MEMORIAL GATHERING.

A general meeting of the Yorkshire Association was held at Pontefract on Easter Monday, by the courtesy of the respective Vicars, the fine new peal of ten at the Parish Church and the handy ring of eight at All Saints' were available throughout the day, both peals being kept almost continuously ringing by enthusiastic visitors.

A meeting of the general committee was held in the Parish Church vestry during the afternoon, while the general meeting took place later at All Saints' Church House. The President (the Rev. C. C. Marshall) occupied the chair, and was supported by several of the principal officers of the Association, and about 80 members.

It was decided to transfer Ossett tower to the Western Division, but it was not deemed advisable to transfer Pontefract to the same division.

After a lengthy discussion it was moved by Mr. F. Cryer, and seconded by Mr. J. Cotterell, 'that an annual dinner be instituted by the Association, and that the said dinner be known as "The Memorial Commemoration Dinner to Jasper Whitfield Snowdon and past officers of the Yorkshire Association."—A sub-committee consisting of the President, Mr. G. B. Bolland, the hon. treasurer and hon. secretary (Messrs. J. Cotterell and P. J. Johnson) were appointed to make all arrangements for the first gathering, to be held at Leeds on the fourth Saturday in September, after which the dinner will be held at Sheffield, York and Leeds, alternately, so that each of these centres will have a visit once every three years.

The Vicar of Northowram sent a hearty invitation to the Association to hold its next meeting there, and it was decided, on the motion of Mr. A. Jagger, seconded by Mr. W. Clark, to hold the September meeting at Northowram.

A hearty vote of thanks to the clergy of Pontefract was moved by Mr. W. Reynor, and seconded by Mr. J. F. Harvey, this being carried unanimously by the meeting. The Rev. J. W. Capron and the Rev. A. G. Shipley responded, extending a cordial welcome to the Association, and expressing their best wishes for the Association.

Mr. G. Lewis gave notice of motion of amendment to Rule 2, to delete from the word 'member' in line 2 up to the word 'changes' in line 3, and substitute 'Who can raise and fall in peal, and have full command of their bell.'

A vote of thanks to the Pontefract ringers and ladies for their many kindnesses to the visitors, was responded to by Mr. W. Pearson, senr.

Tea was served immediately after the meeting, and proved a most popular part of the day's proceedings, the bountiful supply compelling the most hungry of visitors to say 'That's all.'

PREMIER versus BRISTOL.

To the Editor.

Sir,—In your issue of April 21, Mr. Parker says he still considers Premier 'superior' to Bristol. I beg to differ from him. I am not saying Premier is a bad method, what I say is, it is not on a par with Bristol. As regards the plain course there is not much in it, but when it comes to a 5,000 a different tale has to be told. In the first place, methods on the lengthening lead plan are more interesting to ring, as the bobs affect more bells, and, in addition to that, they always have an advantage where there is plenty of scope for composition. In 'Premier' you have to take the whole courses as they come; whereas in Bristol you have the privilege of putting in plenty of M calls when either 5 or 6 are in 5th's, and W calls when 4, 5 or 6 are 6th's, and that is where the music comes in Bristol—out of the bells in 5-6-7-8. To put it mildly, you can get as much music out of 5,000 of Bristol as you can out of 7,000 of Premier, and then, again, if you choose, you can ring a 20-course peal of Bristol with qualities equal to Premier.

As regards 2nd and 7th's places, I am by no means in favour of that. I prefer the bells in 2-3 to cross when the treble is in front, and the bells in 6-7 to cross when the treble is behind. It may be argued that 2nd and 7th's are made in Superlative and Cambridge, but it is unavoidable in these methods where there is continuous place making in 3-4 and 5-6, as there is in Superlative. Neither does three-pull dodging in 3-4 and 5-6 improve it. You do not get much music out of bells dodging in 3-4. If there is any three-pull dodging it should take place either in front or behind.

As regards Double Superlative, I hope Mr. Parker does not think he is enlightening me in any way. He will probably be surprised to hear that as long ago as April, 1910, I was on a tour in the Eastern Counties with a party that included the late Mr. C. H. Hattersley, and it was during a conversation about the proof of various Surprise methods that he asked me if I had ever gone into Double Superlative. I arose early the following morning, and pricked some of it out, and found he was quite right in what he had said about the extra scope it gave for composition; but he was of the same opinion as myself, that it was a good method spoilt. As to the 9,600 Mr. Parker publishes this week, I should think if it is possible for ringing to become monotonous, these 10-lead courses would be before they were all finished.—Yours,

W. PYE.

THE LONGEST LENGTH OF LONDON.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Mr. Lindoff has corrected some of his mistakes, but still persists in the mistaken notion that the 85 courses are his property; let me repeat I had them in 1895.

He next tries to prove that my peal is only a variation of his, and has succeeded admirably in proving that they are two totally different compositions: otherwise Harrison's 8,896 is really only a variation of Lockwood's 8,640, see pages 77 and 78 in Snowden's 'Treble Bob.' Davies' 5-part of Grandsire Triples is only a variation of Holt's 10-part, and every twin bob peal of Stedman Triples is only a variation of Thurstan's 4-part.—Yours, etc.,

H. LAW JAMES.

Surfleet.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

The spring quarterly meeting of the Eastern Branch was held at Freston, on Saturday, April 22nd. The Master of the Diocesan Guild (the Rev. H. Law James) and Mr. Rupert Richardson were present. Some forty members attended, and two lady ringers were amongst the visitors. The peal of six bells was in very good going order, and touches of Cambridge Surprise (with the help of the lady ringers), Kent and Oxford Treble Bob and Double Court were brought round. A short service was held at 4.30, conducted by the Vicar, who subsequently entertained the entire company to tea.

The usual business meeting followed, when five new members were elected. The ringers afterwards returned to the tower and the bells were kept going in various Minor methods until 9 p.m.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A quarterly meeting of the Rochester District was held at Cobham, on Saturday, April 22nd, and in spite of the inclement weather, over 30 members braved the elements and visited this old-fashioned place, made famous by Charles Dickens. The bells were kept going, with a short respite, during the afternoon and evening in various methods. The ringers' service was held at 5 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. A. H. Berger (Vicar), who, in his address, expressed a wish that the Association's visit would spur the local ringers to further improve their position in the ringing world.

A collection at the close, in aid of the Association's war memorial, realised 14s. 5d.

The business meeting followed in the vestry, and in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar, Mr. W. Harper was voted to the chair.

Mr. W. Haigh (in the absence of both district representatives), briefly outlined the decision of the members regarding the alteration of the date for the annual meeting.

On the proposition of the District Secretary, it was unanimously resolved to hold the next meeting at Rainham on Saturday, July 15th.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and conducting the service was heartily carried.

RINGING IN BIRMINGHAM.

To the Editor.

Sir,—May I crave a little of your valuable space to ask intending visitors to Birmingham who are anxious to know what arrangements there may be for ringing on certain dates, to communicate with Mr. Albert Walker, 81, Baker Street, Sparkhill, Birmingham?

The writer is frequently out of town, with the result that correspondence on this matter cannot always receive prompt attention.

Many inquiries are constantly received re the ringing at St. Martin's, and I would like to point out to intending visitors that there is ringing there on every Sunday morning throughout the year, from 10 o'clock to 10.45 a.m., and on the first Sunday evening in the month from 5.30 to 6.30 p.m. Practice Tuesday at 7.30 p.m.—Yours faithfully,

A PADDON SMITH.

Hon. Sec., St. Martin's Guild.

RINGERS WEDDED.*MR. F. M. MITCHELL—MISS E. M. GOODSHIP.

A ringers' wedding of unusual interest took place at St. Giles' Church, Reading, on Easter Monday, when Mr. Fredk. M. Mitchell, secretary of the Rochester District of the Kent County Association, and leader of the Milton-next-Gravesend Society, was married to Miss Ethel M. Goodship, daughter of Mr. W. H. Goodship, of Reading.

The officiating clergy were the Rev. F. J. C. Gillmor (Vicar and Rector), assisted by the Rev. G. F. O. Bond. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in a blue and gold shot silk taffeta dress, in which both her mother and grandmother had been married. She was attended by Miss Elsie M. Holmes, Miss Evelyn G. Goodship (sister), Miss Marguerite E. Goodship (Peggy), and Master Reginald H. J. Goodship (niece and nephew). The bridegroom's brother acted as best man. The Bridal March from 'Lohengrin' was played as the bride was escorted to the chancel steps on the arm of her father. During the service the hymn, 'Love Divine, all loves excelling,' was sung, and after the signing of the register the happy pair left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bells were rung both before and after the ceremony, and also fired by the ringers. The reception was held at 150, Southampton Street, and the newly-married couple left later for their honeymoon. Both were the recipients of many valuable presents.

The bride was formerly a member of the St. Giles' Society, Reading, for many years, having become interested in campanology through the influence of her brother. She left on the outbreak of war for service with H.M. Forces as a V.A.D., and it was whilst stationed at Gravesend Military Hospital that she met her present husband. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are very safe ringers in any methods up to London Surprise. Mrs. Mitchell is a very active member of the Ladies' Guild.

Among the many presents received was a handsome set of cutlery to the bridegroom from his fellow ringers at Milton, where he has been leader for many years, and a beautiful fumed oak reading table to the bride from her fellow ringers at St. Giles', Reading.

On Wednesday in Easter week, the marriage took place at Stanton Church, Worcestershire, of Mr. John Hall, of Bretforton, to Miss Edith M. Wiggins, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins, of Stanton. Mr. Wiggins is a ringer, and parish clerk at Stanton Church, and the bride and bridegroom are well known throughout the district. Much interest was evinced in the event, a large congregation assembling to witness the ceremony. The Rector (the Rev. W. J. Reynolds) officiated, and when the happy pair emerged from the church it was through showers of rice and confetti, and with the pealing of the tower bells. A reception was held at the bride's home, about forty guests being present, including about a dozen ringers. The health of the happy pair was drunk with much enthusiasm.

In the evening members of the branch rang a well-struck peal of Minor on the tower bells, which is recorded in another part of this issue.

The bridegroom is an enthusiastic member of the Bretforton band, and to mark the event his brother ringers presented him with an oak tea tray and cloth, the presentation being made in the belfry on Easter morning by the Rev. Canon Blake. He was also the recipient of a wine decanter from the officers of the Southern Branch, the presentation being made at the bride's home, after the peal, by the Ringing Master (Mr. F. Johnson).

The bride and bridegroom will reside at Bretforton, where Mr. Hall is in business as a fruit and vegetable grower.

On Easter Monday, at St. Michael's Church, Flexton, the wedding took place of Mr. G. Mason and Miss E. A. Graves, the bridegroom being a member of the local band of ringers. Quite a large company assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Vicar, the Rev. J. Jolly, B.A. Afterwards the ringers rang merry touches on the bells, being assisted by some visitors.

On Sunday, April 23rd, the ringers presented the bridegroom with a handsome clock as a mark of esteem, with their good wishes for the long life and happiness of the bride and bridegroom.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD. PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT.

A quarterly meeting was held on Saturday week at Swanmore, when members were present from Curdridge, Portsea, Wickham, Upham, and the local band; also Mr. G. Williams (Master). After an afternoon's ringing, the company adjourned to the Hunter's Inn for tea. An excellent meal was provided, to which ample justice was done, the company including the Rector of Swanmore (the Rev. H. Courtenay Wilson).

At the business meeting which followed, one full member (a lady ringer) was elected, and the Rector, who was desirous of becoming an honorary member, was also elected.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at East Meon on July 15th. It was resolved to send a letter of sympathy from the district to the Rector of Wickham (the Rev. E. H. Duke) upon his sad bereavement, in the loss of his son, who was killed in the aeroplane collision a few weeks ago.

The motion was carried, the ringers standing in silence. A vote of thanks was accorded the Rector for his kindness in granting the use of the bells, after which the tower was again visited. The ringing included Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Bob and Treble Bob Minor and Cambridge Surprise.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

RINGING IN AMERICA.

It has been pleasing recently to have been able to record some activity in ringing in America. There are very few places outside the British Isles where the art has been able to flourish; but it has been encouraging to read that in Vancouver the flag has been kept flying, and that the bells there are rung regularly. Mr. Limpus is the soul of the movement in that far-off spot, and despite the difficulties and the distances which separate many of the band, there seems to be always a good company obtainable for special occasions. In the United States, Boston and Groton School, which are comparatively near neighbours, are the only places where ringing has a foothold, and, up to the present, a precarious one at that. But for the sustained interest and persistent efforts of Dr. Nichols, who has many friends on this side of the Atlantic, it is unlikely that the art would have survived the many setbacks that it has received. Americans do not take to bells, rung as we ring them, and it is only on the nucleus of a band immigrated from Great Britain that ringing is now carried on there. But the 'worse trials are now over,' writes Dr. Nichols, and with five excellent rings of bells already available, and a sixth in prospect, there seems to be a future for change ringing in the Eastern city.

Simultaneously with the letters which reach us from Vancouver and Boston, comes one from Toronto, recounting the opening of a new carillon by Mr. Harry Withers, who made the trip from Bourneville expressly for the purpose. The occasion was made the most of by those 'exiles' from ringing who have settled in or near the city of Toronto, and we can picture the enthusiasm of these men in gathering to meet Mr. Withers. Our correspondent points out that it is a pity that when English firms instal carillons in the Colonies they do not do their utmost to induce those who give the bells to have at least an octave hung for ringing. For all we know, every effort may have been made at Toronto, and architectural or other difficulties may have prevented such a suggestion being carried out. But, in general, a great service to the art of ringing would be rendered if founders in preparing schemes for carillons could do something to provide a ringable peal among the bells they send out. This little band in Toronto, with a ring of eight, might have established another outpost of the Exercise, and have done it exceedingly well, if they could have started upon the wave of interest which was created by the opening of the carillon. They are, however, eager to revive their practice of the art by taking up handbell ringing, and we hope it may not be long ere they have the gratification of seeing a peal of bells for ringing installed in some tower in their midst.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

SECRETARIAL CHANGES.

The annual meeting of the Ely Diocesan Association was held at Cambridge on Easter Monday. The towers open for ringing were: Great St. Mary's (10), St. Andrew's (8), Roman Catholic (8), and Old Chesterton (6), ringing commencing at 10.15 on the fine bells at the Roman Catholic Church.

A meeting of the Diocesan Committee was held in the vestry of Great St. Mary's at 11 o'clock and at noon, the Association's form of service was conducted at Great St. Mary's by the Vicar (the Rev. C. L. Hulbert, The Rev. H. B. Woolley read the lesson, and a most useful and interesting address on 'Unity among ringers' was given by the Rev. A. H. F. Boughey.

The lunch was served at the Dorothy Cafe, Sidney Street, 65 ringers and friends being present. The Rev. A. H. F. Boughey presided at the lunch, and at the business meeting which followed.

The General Secretary presented the balance sheet and report.

The Chairman, in explaining the balance sheet, mentioned that the chief item of expenditure was the cost of printing the last report.

As the present balance in hand was not sufficient to print the report for 1921 the question was raised as to whether it would be better to defer the printing, and have, say, a three-year report, or to have the report for 1921 printed as soon as funds were available.

It was finally agreed to adopt the latter course. — Mr. W. Crose, King's Lynn, suggested that an effort should be made to induce local tradesmen to advertise in the reports.

Mr. J. F. Penning, Saffron Walden, said he was a strong advocate for reports, and supported the idea of advertising, and in some humorous remarks suggested that 'The Ringing World' might increase its revenue by including advertisements such as 'Monkey Brand Soap' and 'Bird's Custard Powder.'

Proceeding to the election of officers, the Chairman said he deeply regretted to announce that Miss V. Shorter wished to retire from the position of General Secretary; he expressed to her the thanks of the Association for all the work that she had done. — The Chairman then proposed that the Rev. R. Copeman, who had recently come to live at Cambridge, should be appointed as general secretary. — This was unanimously agreed to.

The Rev. R. Copeman said that this proposal came as a 'bolt from the blue,' but he agreed to undertake the duties.

Mr. F. C. Turner who wrote regretting his inability to be present, was re-elected as treasurer. — The election of District Secretaries was then proceeded with. For the Archdeaconry of Ely Mr. A. E. Austin was re-elected. For the Archdeaconry of Huntingdon the Rev. H. B. Woolley expressed the hope that a secretary resident in the Archdeaconry would be appointed, but as no names were forthcoming the Rev. H. B. Woolley was re-elected.

Mr. R. Lathbury having stated that he wished to resign the office of district secretary for the Archdeaconry of Wisbech and no names having been proposed, Mr. H. Giddings, of March, offered to undertake the duties. — His offer was gratefully accepted.

Mr. W. H. J. Hooton, the auditor, stated that he would be away from Cambridge next year, and therefore, unable to act as auditor again. — Mr. T. R. Dennis, Cambridge, was, therefore, elected.

One resident member and four non-resident members were elected. — The usual votes of thanks concluded the meeting.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING AT HILLINGDON
A CLERICAL PRESIDENT ELECTED.

The members of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild met for their annual general meeting on Saturday, April 22nd, at St. John-the-Baptist's Hillingdon in unhappy circumstances. The sudden death of their genial president, Mr. A. T. King, only four weeks earlier, threw a gloom over the whole proceedings, which the sound of the bells could not even dispel.

At the service, which was fully choral, the Vicar (the Rev. H. J. Kitcat) took for his text Ecclesiastes ix. 10, 'Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might.' After giving a sketch of the life and work of the late President, especially in connection with the Association, he showed how he had ever striven for a greater recognition of ringers as officers of the church. His was a life of service, which to him was joy, true to St. Paul's precept, in diligence not in sloth. The book of Ecclesiastes was the most pessimistic of any in the Old Testament. The spirit of the writer was full of gloom, because it was not lit up with hope of life beyond the grave. But the writer, if gloomy, was brave, and all the braver because to him life appeared to be so purposeless. How different St. Paul in his hopefulness that there would be a worthy end to all honest and faithful endeavours! 'Be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.' What was the key to the difference? Easter; with its joyful cry that Christ has risen! This had given to all life, yes, even to every hobby, a fresh inspiration. Nothing was vain if undertaken for Christ. Thus by our work in this world should we be fitted in the life beyond the grave for work of a like or even of a nobler kind. This was true of all work. It was true of bell ringing, which was the special ministry of the Association. It was true of every hobby. Who could tell whether some soul might not owe its awakening to the call of the bells? For the influence of God's Spirit was breathed into the soul of men in divers manners. Let them think of themselves, therefore, as ambassadors with the clergy in the cause of Christ; feel that they were doing a work of God; a service for their fellows which should one day reach out into all eternity.

After tea, the business meeting was held, the chairman being Mr. F. A. Milne J.P., vice-president, who was supported by the Rev. H. J. Kitcat, Mr. W. Pye (Master), Messrs. Bird and Lucas (District Masters), Messrs. Cole and Hollier (hon. secretary), Mr. T. Beadle (district vice-president), and about 70 members from all parts of the county and elsewhere, including ringers from places as far distant as Cambridge, Romford, Crayford, etc.

THE LATE MR. ARTHUR KING.

Before the usual routine business was commenced, the Chairman referred to the great loss sustained by the Association in the death of their old and valued friend, Mr. A. T. King, who died with such tragic suddenness on Sunday March 26th. 'No doubt,' said the Chairman, 'it was such a death as Mr. King would wish to have, as he was actually on his way to serve his Master. Possibly I knew Mr. King longer than anyone else in the room. When at Winchester, in 1867, he used to come down every summer to play for Old Wykehamists against the school, and always kept wicket and batted without either pads or gloves. For twenty years down to the time he left Barnet, in 1910, he was connected with me in diocesan and parochial work, and for some years he was a member of the St. Albans Diocesan Conference. He was a diocesan lay reader, and on the day of the funeral I heard from a friend with whom I had tea that quite recently, owing to the absence of the curate of Stevenage, through illness, Mr. King had taken the whole service at Holy Trinity Church on two successive Sundays, and had preached two admirable sermons. I should like to add as my appreciation of him that he was a man upon whose word you could absolutely rely, and in whose judgment you could implicitly trust—a man who never in my experience said an unkind word or did an unkind action.'

Mr. Milne then moved a sincere vote of condolence be passed to the widow and family of the late Mr. King, which was passed in silence, the members all standing.

The meeting then proceeded with the usual business. The report and balance sheet were adopted. The former showed that in 1921 there had been elected three honorary and 65 ringing members including new hands at Chiswick (St. Nicholas) and Staines (St. Mary's). Six members had been lost by death, the membership remaining at the total of 758. Twenty-three meetings were held, with an average attendance of about 40. The peals rung during the year numbered 59, including peals of London and Bristol Surprise Major, and Cambridge Royal and Maximus. No less than 133 members took part in the peals rung, 13 ringing their first peal, and 43 their 'first' in new methods, or on a different number of bells. Twenty members shared in the conducting, two for the first time. The quarter-peals ascertained to have been rung numbered 116, this being a large increase. No doubt others were rung without record being kept. Bell restoration work in the county was of not so extensive a nature as in the previous year, but was still of considerable importance. The fifth and tenor bells at St. Andrew's, Holborn, had been recast and the whole peal rehung and retuned, now constituting one of the finest peals of eight in London. At Hadley two new trebles had been added to the existing six, being the gift of the hon. treasurer, Mr. F. A. Milne; one in memory of his father and mother; and the other in memory of his son, Capt. Alex. Milne, who was killed on active service. Messrs. Mears and Stainbank carried out the work at both these churches.

The balance sheet, showing a credit of £17 8s. 5d. to the Central Fund, was considered satisfactory, and was passed unanimously.

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers was next on the agenda, and on the proposition of Mr. F. A. Milne, seconded by Mr. Wm. Pye, the Rev. F. R. Bonsey, M.A., Vicar of Northaw, Potters Bar, was unanimously elected President of the Association. Mr. Milne stated that it was thought that a ringing clergyman would be the most suitable president, and such a one was forthcoming in Mr. Bonsey, whom they had approached on the matter, and who was willing to serve them if elected. He was not only a keen ringer, and leader of his own band at Northaw, but he was also a good cricketer, and had played for Hertfordshire.

All the other officers were re-elected, viz.: Master, Mr. W. Pye; hon. treas., Mr. F. A. Milne; hon. secretaries, Messrs. C. T. Coles and W. H. Hollier; district vice-presidents, Messrs. F. A. Milne and T. Beadle; hon. auditors, Messrs. J. E. Miller and W. Pickworth.

The Hon. Secretary (Mr. C. T. Coles) read letters he had received from the London County Association and the Society of Royal Cumberlands, conveying to the Association the sympathies of the members of the societies at loss, by death, of the president.—It was resolved that a letter of thanks be sent to the London County Association, and a vote of thanks was also passed to the Society of Royal Cumberlands, confirming a letter which the Hon. Secretary stated he had written on receipt of their letter. The question of a memorial to Mr. King was also discussed, and was referred to the Central Committee, who were given powers to act. It was also decided that the cost of a wreath which had been sent from the Association should be paid out of the funds, thus making it, in effect, subscribed to by every member of the society.

Thanks of the members were accorded to Dr. Nichols, of Boston, U.S.A., and to his daughter, Mrs. Shurtleff, for their continued help to the Association, and also for the sympathy expressed at the recent loss sustained.

Votes of thanks were unanimously passed to the Vicar of St. John's for his very admirable sermon, and for the use of the bells; also to the Vicars of St. Andrew's and St. Margaret's, Uxbridge, for placing their bells at the disposal of the Association. The organist and choir were also thanked, and an 'extra special' vote was given to Miss Williams and friends for the very bountiful tea provided.

The ringing done during the day, in various methods, was of good quality. With one peal of ten, and two of eight in use, nobody had cause to go without a pull, and quite a large number of touches were brought round, including a well-struck course of Cambridge Surprise Royal, and some excellent Stedman Caters.

CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION.

A RINGING COMPETITION.

The annual competition of the above Association was held at Aspatria, on Easter Monday, by the kind permission of the Vicar. The day was very fine, and consequently brought together a good company of ringers. The shield was given by the late Canon Rawnsley to promote the art of change ringing in Cumberland, and was made by the School of Art, at Keswick. Six teams entered, each team being allowed to choose its own method, the winning team of last year to ring a more difficult method than they did on the previous occasion. The number of changes to be rung was 720 for six bells, and 576 for eight bells.

A start was made at 1 o'clock, Mr. W. H. Barber, of the Durham and Newcastle Association, being the adjudicator.

The ringing over, tea was partaken of in the schools, between 50 and 60 ringers sitting down.

The business meeting followed, presided over by the Vicar. It was decided to hold the next quarterly meeting at Arlecdon, and the annual meeting at Workington in November.

Mr. Barber then gave the results of the ringing. Cleator Moor rang 720 Bob Minor, in 27 minutes, with 124 faults. Carlisle were rather unfortunate. They rang Kent Treble Bob Minor for 18 minutes, when the 6th rope slipped the wheel. They were allowed another attempt, and the same thing occurred after ringing 22 minutes. Finally a third attempt was successful, and they rang 720 Kent Minor, in 28 minutes, with 100 faults. Bride Kirk rang Kent Minor but failed to complete the 720, ringing for 14 minutes. Cockermouth rang 720 Oxford Bob Minor, in 31 minutes, with 209 faults. Egremont rang 576 Kent Treble Bob Major, in 23 minutes, with 41 faults. Arlecdon rang Bob Minor, but failed to complete the 720. Egremont band were, therefore, declared the winners, and the shield was presented to the captain to hold for the next 12 months.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells and presiding at the meeting, to Mr. Barber for adjudicating, to Mr. Wilkinson, of Aspatria, for making the necessary arrangements for tea, etc., and to the ladies who waited at the tables.

This brought to a close one of the most successful meetings the Association has held, and steps were then retraced to the tower, where further ringing was indulged in.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The peal of 10,400 of Double Superlative was successfully accomplished at the Bell Foundry, Loughborough, last Saturday, and exceeds the longest length of Superlative previously rung, the 9,728 at Cleat, in 1910, which is held to be the extent in the method with bobs on the front only.

The combined practices, at Arundel, Sussex, to which all ringers are invited, is to take place on each second Saturday of the month, not each Saturday, as mentioned last week.

In the year 1837, on May 15th, a peal of 12,096 Grandsire Casters was rung at Fulham, in 7 hours 50 minutes, 'being the greatest amount of changes ever performed by ten men only, the truth of which is attested by several of the ablest judges of the art, who witnessed the whole performance, and which can only be equalled by the same ability and persevering exertions.' This peal was rung by the St. James' Society, after an unsuccessful attempt which reached over 9,000 changes on a previous date.

Unfortunately for the record, which it was believed this peal set up, the peal of 12,312 changes had been rung by ten men only at Painswick on May 5th, twenty years before.

It was on May 15th, 1894, that the then longest length of Superlative Surprise Major was rung at Loughborough, in 6 hrs. 16 mins. This was 8,800, composed and conducted by Nathan J. Pitstow. The present President of the Central Council (Canon Coleridge), then a curate at Caversham, took part in the peal.

On May 18th, 1883, Sam Wood conducted the 16,608 Kent Treble Bob Major, at Mottram-in-Longdendale, Lancs, in 9 hours 48 mins.

May 18th also brings another interesting anniversary, for it was on that day in 1846 that Thurstons' famous twin-bob peal of Stedman Triples was rung for the first time.

The first peal of Court Bob Major was rung by the College Youths on May 17th, 1735, at St. Lawrence Jewry.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

A most successful meeting was held at Llantrisant on Saturday week, when a goodly number of ringers from both the dioceses put in an appearance. The bells, a ring of six, cast by Evans, of Chepstow, in 1718, with a tenor of about 11cwt., were raised early in the afternoon, and rung in the standard methods. At 4.30, service was conducted in the Parish Church by the Rev. C. R. Rees (curate), in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar, who was called away to take part in the funeral of his only brother, Dr. John Howell Griffiths of Fulham Road, London.

Tea and the business meeting followed in the Church Rooms. Instructors' reports were presented, and new members elected.

The place chosen for the next Glamorgan meeting was Merthyr, subject, of course, to the approval of the Vicar.

The ever-welcome Mr. J. H. Shepherd, of Swindon, was amongst the visitors.

Mention was made that the members of the Bouvillstone tower had scored their first peal, which was most gratifying, seeing that it is not so very long ago that they became affiliated to the Association, and discarded call changes.

Before the meeting closed the wonderful performance of the College Youths at Appleton in ringing the record length was touched upon by the Hon. Secretary, who also mentioned that this Association was indebted to one of the performers, Mr. R. T. Hibbert, for conducting several of the earliest peals rung by this Association. Mr. Hibbert at the time being resident at Newport for a short period.

After the meeting, the bells were again rung until late in the evening, bringing to a close a most enjoyable gathering.

THE LADIES' GUILD.

The quarterly meeting of the Midland District was held at Solihull on Saturday, April 29th, members being present from Evesham, Cleat, Tipton, Handsworth and Smilthwick. Much regret was felt at the absence of Miss Pigott, owing to illness. The local ladies and the visitors, with the help of two visiting gentlemen kept the bells going during the afternoon. Tea was kindly provided by the local ladies. The Rector (the Rev. Harvey Brooks) joined the company at the meal. He also officiated at the service, at which the Guild form was used. The organist also assisted. Ringing was again indulged in until the usual rush for the train brought a very pleasant afternoon to a close.

KIDDERMINSTER. — On Wednesday, April 5th, at the Parish Church, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes), in 43 mins.: Ralph Davies (1st quarter-peal) 1. T. J. Salter 2. E. J. Brooks 3. K. Salter 4. J. Woodberry 5. C. H. Woodberry 6. J. George (conductor) 7. J. Davies 8.

THE APPLETON LONG PEAL. THE QUESTION OF WEIGHT. FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

Diverse opinions have been expressed concerning the merits of the long peal at Appleton. As the Loughborough record was rung under the auspices of the Midland Counties Association, the views of Mr. W. Willson, who rang in the 18,027, on April 12th, 1909, and who is also an officer of the M.C.A., have been obtained by a correspondent, and will be read with interest.

'What do you think of the Appleton peal?' Mr. Willson was asked. 'I think it a fine performance—considering the time it occupied.'

'You will admit it supplants the Loughborough peal?'

'No, I will not,' was the reply.

'Why not? It is longer in time and greater in the number of changes.'

'Yes, but when you have said that you have said all. Look at the weight of metal? Does that not count at all? Let me be fair. I am a College Youth myself, and I am fully convinced that the presence of men like Challis Winney and Langdon, is a guarantee that a straight peal was rung, but there are some points that require explanation.'

'What are they?'

'What are they? Why, where were the figures before the peal? Who were the umpires? Why was the peal sprung upon the Exercise at a few hours' notice? Why take a record length to a hole-and-corner place like Appleton, where not one ringer in a hundred could get to?'

'Well, it appears to be a regular place for long lengths.'

'Yes, and I should think they are jolly glad of its situation. Don't think I am jealous of their success, for I am not built that way; but when a big performance is beaten, it should be beaten on its merits.'

'But it was 3,000 longer than the Loughborough peal?'

'Yes, and they are entitled to every credit for that, but I ask you, which is the greater feat, to ring twelve hours and eighteen minutes on a ring with a tenor of 30½ cwt., or seven minutes longer on a ring with a tenor only 14½ cwt.? There seems to me no sort of comparison—although I may be considered an interested party.'

'On what ground could you upset it?'

'I have no desire or intention to try and upset it; but understand this, if the Central Council rules for record peals stand for anything at all, those rules have got to be observed, otherwise a record will not be recognised.'

'Are the rules regarding figures and notice always observed?'

'They have been as far as I am concerned. The Loughborough figures were common property, and ringers outside held them. Also when I went for the Wigston long peal, the composition was sent to the President of the M.C.A., to the Oxford Guild, and to the "Bell News." In addition, it stated where the place was and how to get there.'

'Did not the M.C.A. get the figures of the Appleton peal in advance?'

'Not to my knowledge. I should have heard something about it.'

'Is an umpire necessary?'

'Yes, for a record length it should be compulsory. No one can deny that there is an element of sport in record breaking, and a band can claim anything if not attested by others outside the band.'

'Will an attempt be made to beat it?'

A pause ensued, during which 'W.W.' eyed our correspondent carefully.

'Well,' he said, 'I suppose you know that Loughborough bell foundry now has ten bells. We should be justified in going there for 25,000—that is if you think Appleton has beaten Loughborough old church peal, but it won't be there. The tenor is only 6½ cwt.—mere handbells, and people would laugh and call it a farce—and they would be right. That's why I laugh when you suggest that the Appleton 14½ cwt. peal has beaten Loughborough 30½ cwt.'

'Then you are content to let it stand as it is?'

'I cannot answer that. I don't know the opinions of Mr. W. Pye, the conductor, and you cannot pick up ten men to ring the clock round, at every street corner. It's never safe to prophesy until you know.'

'Then an attempt to beat the peal is not likely?'

'You know Mr. Asquith's formula—"wait and see." I notice a writer in "The Ringing World" this week says: "Who shall say we will beat it?" You can take it from me that given a ten bell tower suitable for the job, this Appleton record, as far as it goes, is likely to come unstuck before this time next year.'

Under the regulations laid down by the Central Council a sealed copy of the figures should be lodged, previous to the attempt, with the secretary or other responsible officer of the Association, under whose title the band is to ring and in the event of the peal being accomplished, such officer should forward the sealed copy direct to the ringing journal for publication. The rules also add that, if possible, a competent representative of each of the bands shall be present during the whole of the performance.—Ed. 'R.W.'

SUFFOLK DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION. TITLE TO BE LEFT TO THE BISHOP TO DEFINE.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Suffolk Diocesan Association was held in Ipswich on Saturday, April 29th, Archdeacon Farmiloe being in the chair. The draft rules as presented by the committee were passed with slight revision. These were founded on those published as model rules by the Central Council, and contain no novel features, except that there is provision for a tower to compound for the subscriptions of the ringers, clergy, steepkeeper and clerk, by the payment during January of as many subscriptions as there are bells. A number of towers had promised to join, the subscriptions being paid by the Parochial Church Council, if this were passed. Another rule makes all decisions of the Central Council binding on the Association.

The question of title was then discussed. Mr. Ed. Evans attempted to defend the Norwich and Ipswich Association, but it was made clear to him by the chairman, that the Bishop both objected to the unauthorised introduction of the word diocesan into their title, and also to the use of his name in the columns of 'The Ringing World' as though he disapproved of his own Diocesan Association. It was decided to leave the title to the Bishop to define.

On the invitation of the Archdeacon it was decided to hold the annual meeting at Bury St. Edmunds in the early summer.

The Rev. H. Drake and Mr. Charles Mee were elected as representatives on the Central Council. Archdeacon Darling was elected as vice-president, as well as a number of new members, bringing the numbers from West Suffolk over 100, and those from East Suffolk not far behind.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.

Letters upon this subject from various correspondents are unavoidably held over.

CENTRAL NORTHANTS ASSOCIATION.

By kind permission of the Rector (the Rev. C. H. Beedle), a quarterly meeting of the Wellingboro' district was held at Yardley Hastings, on April 29th, members being present from Northampton, Wellingboro', Irthlingboro', Finedon, Higham Ferrers, Desborough, Wootley, Isham, Wollaston, Earls Barton, Easton Mauduit, Castle Ashby, Thrapston, Ringstead, Olney, and the local ringers. The bells are a very good peal of six, and were kept going during the afternoon and evening in various methods, amongst them being Cambridge Surprise Minor, Woodbine and Kent Treble Bob, Plain Bob, Stedman, and Grandfire Doubles.

A short service was held in the fine old church, conducted by the Rector, who gave a very warm welcome to the Association, and also gave a very interesting address on the inscriptions on the various bells in the tower, pointing out how they could be applied to each member individually.

The party then adjourned to the Schoolroom, about 37 sitting down to a very enjoyable tea, kindly arranged by the lady members of the Church Council.

The business meeting followed, the Rector presiding. Amongst others present were Mr. G. Randall, of Higham Ferrers the vice-president of the district, Miss Atkins, and Mr. W. Wilson of Isham, the treasurer of the Association.

Irthlingborough was chosen as the next place of meeting, on July 8th.

Votes of thanks were given to the Rector for the use of the bells and for his address, to the organist, and to the local ringers; also to Mr. A. Smart for his help in getting some of the members to the meeting, and the ladies who helped with the tea. Some of the members then wended their way back to the tower for another pull, while others looked round this interesting and old-time village.

RINGING IN VANCOUVER.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir.—I am sending you these few lines just to let you know we are still to be found at the end of a rope every Thursday and Sunday evening.

Last Sunday (April 7th) we had the very great pleasure of a visit from Mr. R. J. Carrier, who is now living at Victoria and also Mr. George W. Foster, from Fort Hanez, some 35 miles from here. Then with Messrs. Farrington, Jones, and myself, we had just half the old band, who had the honour of ringing the first peal in the Dominion, again in the tower. We have not had Mr. Carrier with us since 1911. The other ringers present were Messrs. J. Parkinson, George Roberts A. P. Goddard, Wm. Sampson and Arthur King. We passed most of the afternoon till service time ringing touches on the tower and handbells. We attempted a quarter-peal, which was lost near the finish, after excellent striking which though regretted, was compensated for by the pleasure of seeing old faces in the tower—once more.—Yours truly,
A. C. LIMPUS.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. ANNUAL MEETING OF CENTRAL DIVISION.

On Easter Monday, the annual meeting of the Central Division was held at Ditchling, 54 ringers being present. The musical peal of six at Keymer, by Mearns and Stainbank, was also open, and being about half-way between Hassocks Station and Ditchling, gave the opportunity for some very good six bell ringing. All assembled at 4.30 for the service at Ditchling Church, the address being given by the Vicar (the Rev. C. P. Williams), and a collection (amounting to 15s. 3d.) being taken for the Benevolent Fund. Afterwards, at the Schoolroom, a most liberal tea was provided by friends residing in the parish, and interested in their ringers.

The business meeting followed, the Vicar of Ditchling presiding, supported by the Rector of Keymer (the Rev. H. C. Bond), Mr. J. Brown and Mr. Geo. Mayston (wardens), and the Master of the Association (Mr. J. T. Rickman).

The following new members were elected: Messrs. J. Dearlove, H. E. Good and A. V. Good (St. Peter's Brighton), W. Pelling (Offham), E. Andrews (Ditchling), H. Richardson (Hurstpierpoint), R. Andrews and F. Andrews (Bolney), and the election of R. Richardson (Surfleet), G. Steer (Guildford), W. R. Madgwick (Surrey), H. Whitehead (Dover), and Alec Richardson (Tunbridge Wells) was confirmed. Mr. R. Newton (churchwarden, Balcombe) was also made a hon. member of the Association.

All the officers of the division were re-elected, viz.: A. D. Stone (hon. secretary), R. J. Dawe, E. C. Merritt and Wm. Watts, senr. (committee), Keith Hart, W. Palmer and C. Tylor (committee of advice).

The following brief report and statement of accounts for the past year was then submitted by the hon. secretary. During the year meetings were held at Burgess Hill, Crawley, and Bolney, the average attendance being 40. The methods rung at all these meetings ranged from Grandsire Triples to Surprise. At each of the meetings tea was provided for those attending by the kindness of residents in the respective parishes who were interested in their local ringers. The number of towers in the division affiliated to the Association remains the same, viz., 22, one tower (Worth) having left the Association, and one tower (Twineham) having become affiliated. If any members should know of a tower in the division where the ringers are sufficiently interested in change ringing to become affiliated, he should let the secretary know. An expression of thanks is due from the Association and the divisional hon. secretary, to those members who have assisted in the local arrangements for the divisional meetings, the success of which is, in a very large measure, due to their courtesy and willing assistance. It is hoped that local secretaries will send in particulars necessary for the report, as requested in the notice convening that meeting. In conclusion, the Secretary reminded members of the Association's Benevolent Fund, and said that if anyone should know of a qualified member being in difficulties, through illness or otherwise, he should bring the matter to the knowledge of the Association.—A statement of accounts was then read, and showed receipts, £27 0s. 9d.; expenditure, £4 2s. 10d.; balance paid to treasurer, £22 17s. 11d. The collections taken for the Benevolent Fund amounted to £2 15s. 7½d. Total amount received £29 16s. 4½d. Total paid to hon. treasurer (after paying expenses of division), £25 13s. 6½d.—The report and statement of accounts were received with applause.

Mr. E. C. Merritt then drew attention to the new rules, to be submitted to the annual general meeting for adoption, and especially to the rule stating that the subscriptions of non-resident members should be sent to the hon. general secretary instead of the divisional secretary, as has been the custom in the past. He strongly disapproved of the change; it would cause both trouble and expense. The general secretary did not require a fund. If he wanted petty cash he had only to apply to the treasurer for it. He also disapproved of the term 'council.' It was quite unnecessary, and he much preferred the term 'general committee,' as in the old rules. Finally, Mr. Merritt appealed to all who possibly could to attend the annual general meeting, and express their opinion by giving their vote one way or another.

The Master then proposed votes of thanks to the Vicar of Ditchling for the use of the bells for his excellent address and for presiding at the meeting; to the Rector of Keymer for the use of the bells, the churchwardens, the organist, to all those friends who had kindly provided tea, and to the ladies who had so ably waited upon the party.—The motion was carried with loud applause.

Both towers were again visited until eight o'clock, when the bells were lowered in peal. As is usual, the methods rung ranged from Grandsire to Surprise. The following tower were represented: Balcombe, Bolney, Brighton (St. Peter's and St. Nicholas'), Burgess Hill, Cuckfield, Ditchling, Hensfield, Heene, Hurstpierpoint, Keymer, Southover (Lewes), Lindfield, Twineham, Waldron.

SALISBURY.—On Saturday, April 1st, at St. Martin's, 720 Bob Minor: R. P. Knight 1, S. R. Roper (conductor, Croydon) 2, F. W. Romfene 3, E. Dibben 4, F. Precey 5, S. Macey 6.

NEW METHODS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Mr. Pye's letter in the current issue of 'The Ringing World' calls for some explanation on my part. I quite agree with him when he says my knowledge of Bristol is limited, having rung only three peals (no touches) in three attempts without practice. But surely Mr. Pye is not serious when he expects me (with my limited knowledge) to believe him when he says he has called peals of Bristol with the 6th 12 courses at home. If he had said 12 course-ends it would be nearer the mark.

Despite what Mr. Pye says about Premier, I still think it is the better method, for it allows more scope for extents without adulteration than does Bristol.

I plead guilty of calling such 'freaks' as Forward, Erin, Duffield, Dublin Complex and Double Superlative. My reasons for doing so were to obtain the best music. Mr. Pye has good right to be amused about my reference to too many calls in Bristol. If he refers to his first letter, he will find that he is the author of that phrase. In conclusion, I am accused of criticising others for not doing the same as myself. I will leave it to the Exercise to decide as to who is guilty of criticising.—Yours, etc.,

W. H. BARBER.

KIDDERMINSTER RINGERS ENTERTAINED.

MR. JAMES GEORGE CELEBRATES HIS PEAL OF LONDON.

There are many ways of spending an enjoyable evening, and to invite your friends to dine with you is one. To celebrate the successful ringing of a peal of London Surprise at Kinver, on March 25th, a party of twenty ringers enjoyed a well-served dinner at the Anchor Hotel, Kidderminster, at the invitation of Mr. Jas. George. The chair was taken by Alderman J. S. Pritchett, and after the toast of 'The King,' 'the Health of Mr. James George' was proposed by the Chairman, in his usual happy vein. He said they had met to celebrate a peal in which Mr. George had taken part, and although he had rung 713 peals he had never before rung a peal of London Surprise on an inside bell. It was believed to be the first time in the annals of change ringing that a man had accomplished his first peal in this intricate method inside at the age of 68. The more records Mr. George made the better they would be pleased, and on behalf of those present he offered his hearty congratulations, with thanks for his kind invitation.

Letters of apology were announced from the Rev. Canon Badger, Messrs. B. Gough, H. Chapman, J. E. Groves, A. P. Smith and A. J. Hessian. One writer said: 'I hope you will ring as many more as your heart can desire and your body support.' Another said: 'I have heard ringers say you would never ring one, am pleased they have been deceived.'

Mr. George, in reply, said how delighted he was to entertain them all, and wished there had been no apologies. He need not say how pleased he was to have rung this peal of London. He enjoyed it so much he hoped he should ring a thousand more. He was fully convinced that this method must be learned at home, and his charge now was 2s. 6d. a lesson (laughter). He could not speak too highly of the Kidderminster band, who had allowed him to attend their practices, and also altered their practice night to oblige him.

Mr. A. E. Parsons, in proposing the health of the peal band, said Mr. George was lucky in having the opportunity to stand in with such a good company. He mentioned that more than 20 years ago he took part in four peals of London rung in succession, but this band had accomplished seven peals, and he regretted he was not one of their number.—Mr. E. Matthews, the popular conductor, was called upon to reply, and emphasised the fact that the peal was well rung. He spoke feelingly of the kindness and help he had always received from Mr. Salter and Mr. Short, and to be asked to conduct the peal was a great honour. He congratulated Mr. George on the correct way he rang his bell.

Mr. George proposed 'Health and prosperity to the Kidderminster band.'—Mr. T. J. Salter, responding, said some people might perhaps think Mr. George had been specially favoured in coming there to practise London, but it was not so. There were a great many ringers who had come for peals or to practise the higher methods, in view of a peal, and the same channel was still open for any ringer, young or old, but he would advise him to persevere, and come in the right spirit. Mr. George had persevered and certainly acted in a gentlemanly spirit, which had helped him to be successful.—Mr. J. Woodberry proposed the visitors, to which Mr. A. E. Parsons replied.

Mr. R. E. Grove proposed 'The health of the Chairman,' which was heartily received, and Alderman Pritchett briefly replied. He said how pleased he was to come to Kidderminster once again. He remembered coming there some 30 years ago, and taking part in a peal of Stedman Triples, which was conducted by Mr. Grove. He (the Chairman) had to meet a great many people, but nothing pleased him better than to be amongst ringers.

The toasts were interspersed with handbell selections, courses of Stedman Triples, Grandsire Caters, Stedman Caters and Grandsire Cinques.

NOMENCLATURE OF MINOR METHODS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The Analysis Committee of the Central Council were in possession of a considerable amount of research notes in connection with the nomenclature of Minor Methods, but we have failed to find them amongst the mass of papers which our late revered chairman left behind. As he never destroyed even a postcard, it is probable that he sent them to some member of the Exercise. The compilers, unfortunately, have only very sketchy notes of their contents, and to reproduce them will involve a great amount of work. We shall be very grateful if anyone can throw any light upon the question of their present whereabouts, and still more so if the papers can be sent to me.—Yours faithfully, E. W. CARPENTER.
Kingerby Vicarage, Lincoln.

DOUBLE SUPERLATIVE.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Dexter cannot but accept the blame for making an ambiguous statement in the first instance. He is right when he says more than 9,600 changes are available, two other half-leads being admissible. He is also to be congratulated on being the first to discover that so many of these broken leads can be introduced into a peal.—Yours sincerely, JOSEPH W. PARKER.

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD SOCIETY.

PRESENTATION OF MR. T. J. ELTON.

A quarterly meeting was held at Pelsall on April 29th, with a very fair attendance of members. The four standard methods were rung on the six bells during the afternoon and evening. A service was held in church, conducted by the Rev. C. H. Barker, and an interesting address was given by the Vicar (the Rev. W. Armstrong).

A capital tea was served in the Schoolroom by local ladies, followed by the presentation of a silver bell-shaped inkstand to Mr. T. J. Elton, of Walsall, for his kindly assistance in helping the local band to grasp the intricacies of change ringing. The Rev. C. H. Barker was asked to make the presentation, and in doing so congratulated the band on having such a capable man to instruct them, with evident success as had been witnessed during the afternoon.

Mr. Cooper, on behalf of the band, thanked Mr. Elton for his valuable aid, and expressed the hope that he would continue to assist them.

Mr. Elton, who was taken completely by surprise thanked the donors for their kindly thought and action, and intimated that his services were still at their disposal, if they wished to make further progress.

A vote of thanks to the Vicar organist and choir and to the caterers, was carried with acclamation, thus bringing the meeting to a close.

The annual meeting is provisionally arranged to take place on June 17th or 24th, at Lichfield.

CLEVELAND AND NORTH YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

The Easter Monday meeting of this Association was held at Carlton, in Cleveland, by special invitation of the President (the Rev. J. L. Kyle). The gathering was most satisfactory, over sixty ringers attending from Grimsby, Leeds, Sharow, Northallerton, Darlington (St. John's and Holy Trinity), West Hartlepool (St. Oswald and St. Aiden's), Stockton-on-Tees, Middlesbrough, Ormesby, Skelton, Saltburn, Whitby, Wath, Shildon and Carlton. Dinner was kindly provided by the president, and ample justice was done to the good old English fare.

Afterwards the company honoured the toast of 'The King,' and votes of thanks to those who had provided the meal and attended to the wants of the visitors were carried unanimously.

At this meeting there is very little business done, and this allows the ringers more opportunity for social intercourse and to get considerably more ringing.

A short service was held in the church at 3.30 p.m. The address was to have been given by the Dean of Ripon, but he was unable to be present owing to indisposition. The president, therefore, undertook the duty at short notice, and gave a most interesting discourse, appealing to the ringers to try and be at peace with everyone, and reminding them of their duty towards God in the great work they undertook.

The ringing throughout the day was exceedingly good considering the mixed nature of the bands that rang together. The methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Major, Kent Treble Bob and Double Norwich Major, and several courses of Grandsire Triples on handbells. The day was a very pleasant one.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION. FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY MEETING.

The 40th anniversary of the formation of the Bedfordshire Association was celebrated in Bedford on Easter Monday. The bells of St. Paul's and St. Peter's were available all day, and were made good use of by the members and friends who attended.

The service was held at noon, conducted by the President (Canon Baker), in the absence of Canon J. H. Speck, Vicar of St. Paul's, through illness. An admirable sermon was preached by the Rev. Guy Beech, Rector of Turvey, and an hon. member of the Association, which was much appreciated by the members.

Luncheon was held in the Drill Hall of St. Paul's Mission, and the meeting which followed was presided over by Canon W. W. C. Baker, who recalled that Mr. Edwin Ransom and himself were the only two present who were at the formation of the Association. Other foundation members now living were Mr. F. T. Tanqueray, who called the first 720 of Bob Minor rung for the Association; Mr. H. Thody, and Mr. Charles Herbert, of Woburn, to whose efforts the success of scientific change ringing in Bedfordshire was largely due.

It was decided to send a message of respect and regret at his absence to Mr. Herbert, through his son, who was present.

Canon Baker said, on looking back, he remembered the early annual meetings. They had a great luncheon at the Swan Hotel, and, he believed, invited the High Sheriff. They had better ringing now, and ate less luncheon (loud laughter). They had in some ways exceeded the expectations of those days, in the adoption of Surprise ringing, for instance, as in the early days, Surprise seemed a long way off. But in other directions he was not sure they had achieved the expectations they reasonably cherished at that time, for there were still many villages in the county where change ringing was even now unknown. The war was no doubt responsible for that, as for a great many things.

Canon Baker was re-elected President, on the proposition of Mr. E. Ransom, seconded by Mr. Nicholls.—In reply, Canon Baker said he began as a committeeman, acted as assistant secretary, sole secretary, and as vice-president, so he had graduated in all positions of honour in the Association.

The vice-presidents were elected as follows: Messrs. E. Ransom, Charles Herbert, A. King and Miss Evelyn Steel.

Mr. A. E. Sharman was re-elected hon. secretary and treasurer, on the proposition of the Chairman; Mr. F. T. Tanqueray was re-elected hon. auditor; and Mr. H. Bacchus and Mrs. Leader hon. members.

The annual summer festival was fixed for Woburn, or failing that, Dunstable.

A discussion was raised by Mr. Harlow to amend Rule 9, relating to the fee for booking peals.—Mr. Harlow proposed, and Mr. Stapleton seconded, that the Association should go back to the pre-war figure of 1d. per member.

A very interesting debate took place, and finally Mr. F. Webb moved an amendment, which was seconded by Mr. E. J. Hobbs that 2d. per member be paid.—Mr. Harlow then withdrew his motion, and Mr. Webb's amendment was carried.

The Hon. Secretary was asked to obtain, if possible, a complete set of reports issued since the formation of the Association, and get them bound in book form, so that a record of office holders and members and all peals, would be at the disposal of the Association.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicars of St. Paul's and St. Peter's, and to the Rev. G. Beech for his address, was passed, and brought a very pleasant meeting to a close.

Members then vended their way to the towers, and ringing took place until a late hour.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

MAIDSTONE DISTRICT.

The annual district meeting was held at Leeds, on Saturday, April 29th. After ringing during the afternoon, a service was held, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. Swan). Tea was then partaken of at the George Inn, provided by the Association, to which between 70 and 80 sat down.

A business meeting followed, presided over by the Vicar.—The Secretary read his report for the year, which was very satisfactory, showing an average attendance of 45 at the six meetings held, and 27 new members and three honorary members elected.

Mr. S. Hryzelden was again elected secretary, and Messrs. T. Manering and H. G. Sone, district representatives. Six new members were proposed, and it was decided to hold the next meeting at Charing, on July 8th.

The Secretary proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for arranging the service, and also for presiding at the meeting.—The Vicar, in reply, welcomed the ringers, and hoped they would soon visit Leeds again, so as to give him the pleasure of providing tea for them. The towers represented at the meeting were East Farleigh, Barning, Linton, Hutton, Yalding, Bexley, Bearsted, East and West Malling, Hollingbourne, Leeds, St. Michael's, Maidstone; All Saints', Maidstone; Lenham; Snodland, Rochester, Gillingham, Tunstall, Frittenden, Tenterden, Staplehurst and Marden. There was further ringing during the evening.

THE POSITION IN SUFFOLK.

What is to be the outcome of the present position in Suffolk? With attempts made on both sides to claim territory previously recognised as within the borders of another organisation, there is, not unnaturally, some friction between the rival parties, and neither is inclined to give way to the other. The state of affairs is unusual. As most of our readers know, the eastern portion of Suffolk was formerly part of the Diocese of Norwich, and the western portion was within the Diocese of Ely. The formation of the Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich and the consequent rearrangement of the ecclesiastical boundaries, led the ringing societies to talk of reorganisation. West Suffolk ringers had a desire for a county (or diocesan) association of their own, and the Ely Association, taking the view that the Suffolk men were fully entitled to set up such a Society, withdrew from the area.

On the other hand, the Norwich Diocesan Association took an opposite view of their responsibilities, and, as soon as the Diocese in which they had operated was divided, put out a feeler which indicated a desire to unite the whole of the area covered by the new diocese with their own. Then came the war, and the proposal was temporarily shelved. After the Armistice the Norwich Association seemed at first inclined to content itself with its old territory, and accordingly adopted the title of Norwich and Ipswich Diocesan Association. Since then, however, it has added St. Edmundsbury to its title and resolved to include West Suffolk in its sphere. Meanwhile the West Suffolk ringers formed a Suffolk Association, which they afterwards decided to make a diocesan one, to embrace not only the west, but the east of Suffolk. It was, perhaps, to be expected that the older society should look upon the efforts of the new association in the east of the county as an intrusion upon their 'preserves'; and equally the West Suffolk men regard the extension of the Norwich and Ipswich Association into the St. Edmundsbury area as a trespass that ought not to be committed. That is the present position of affairs, and the cause of the somewhat strained relations existing in that part of East Anglia.

The discussion has now reached a stage when it can only be settled by the ringers themselves. Neither side in the controversy seems likely to give way, and it looks as if each will have to make up its mind to carry on in the face of the competition of the other. Individual ringers will have their own leanings, and will bestow their allegiance according to their own views. Is it not possible that the two associations may remain amicably in occupation of the territory, jointly? There are several instances of territorial and diocesan organisations overlapping, and we have only to look at the recent example of the Yorkshire and Cleveland Associations to observe how this may be done in a friendly spirit. The Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association at one time held more or less undisputed sway in the north of the county. Then the Yorkshire Association formed their northern division and began more active operations in the Cleveland area, and finally made overtures for the absorption of the Cleveland Association. This proposal was rejected by the latter, and, only a few months ago, a resolution was passed at a meeting of the northern district of the Yorkshire Association to drop the amalgamation scheme and continue as friendly rivals in the promotion of the art of change ringing. That is the spirit which, we believe, will presently manifest itself in Suffolk.

Conducted by NORMAN R. BAILEY.

Witnesses: L. W. BALE & J. PILGRIM.

* First peal. † First peal on handbells. Roy Pilgrim was proposed a member of the above Association before starting the peal, which was rung as a compliment to him on his 15th birthday, also as a birthday compliment to L. W. Bale.

WINCHESTER GUILD.

A quarterly meeting of the Winchester District was held at Cheriton and Titchborne on Saturday, May 6th, both peals of six being available during the afternoon and evening. The methods rung were Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Bob, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Minor. The Rector of Cheriton-with-Titchborne presided at the tea and subsequent meeting, at which the Rector (the Rev. H. Brownlow) was elected an hon. member.

Mr. Andrews proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, and for coming to tea with them, and this was carried by acclamation.

Members were present from Bishopstoke, North Stoneham, Southampton, Upham, Owslebury, Winchester, Alresford, Wickham and Portsea.

The next meeting of the district will be held at Fawley and Diden on August 28th. A combined practice will be held at Bishopstoke, Eastleigh, on Saturday, June 10th.

DONCASTER AND DISTRICT SOCIETY.

The April meeting of this Society was held at Selby Abbey. A pleasant afternoon and evening were spent by the visitors in looking round the Abbey and ringing the beautiful peal of ten bells. Some ascended to the top of the tower to see if St. George's Church, Doncaster, was visible, but owing to a slight haze it was not within view. In the opposite direction, however, the atmosphere was clear, and York Minster could be plainly seen.

The bells were made good use of and many ringers obtained their first touch on ten. The methods rung included Stedman and Grandsire Caters and Treble Ten.

Tea was partaken of at the Co-operative Cafe, and was an enjoyable affair. The business meeting was held in the belfry, and the usual votes of thanks were carried.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

WAR MEMORIAL ABANDONED.

The annual meeting of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild was held at Lyme Regis on Saturday, April 29th. Proceedings began with the business meeting, at which the Master (Major C. C. Hughes D'Aeth) presided, in the absence of Lord Shaftesbury on Government business. All the officers were re-elected. The accounts showed a reduced balance in hand of £30 0s. 2½d.

As the Cathedral chapter had refused to permit the erection of a cross in the close, it was decided, with regret, to abandon the memorial scheme.

The Master commented on the moribund performance of several young bands in ringing peals of Grandsire Doubles, and made sympathetic reference to the loss sustained by the Guild in the death of Messrs. W. W. Gifford and C. W. Goodenough.

The festival service was held in the grand old Church of St. Michael, overlooking the sea. The organist and surpliced choir attended. The Guild office was intoned by the hon. secretary (the Rev. F. L. Edwards), the Master (Major Hughes D'Aeth) reading the lesson. The Vicar (the Rev. W. N. Willson) preached a magnificent sermon on the message of the bells and the vocation of ringers. Dwelling in eloquent language on his own experience of bell music, he recalled the profound impression made on his feelings in early years by the bells of Leatherhead Church on Sunday evenings in summer, and by those of St. Martin's-in-the-Fields on a Saturday afternoon.

A collection was taken for the Gifford Memorial Fund. The lovely old-world seaside town was looking its best, in glorious sunshine, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

DORCHESTER BRANCH AT WOOL.

The quarterly meeting of the Dorchester Branch was held at Wool, on Saturday, May 6th, and proved very successful. Representatives attended from Bere Regis, St. Peter's, Bournemouth; Bridgwater, Fordington, Lytchett Minster, Kensington (London), Poole, Ringwood, West Lulworth and Wyke Regis, and the whole of the local band were also present. The bells were available from 2 p.m., and some excellent touches of Kent Treble Bob and Bob Minor and Stedman and Grandsire Doubles were brought round; in fact, the ringing was some of the best that has been accomplished at the branch meetings, and the Minor methods predominated.

The Vicar (the Rev. J. G. L. Anderson) who met the ringers, and gave them a hearty welcome, conducted the Guild service. There was a good attendance, and the full surpliced choir was present. The Vicar gave an excellent address, his text being taken from 1 Cor. xiv. 12, 'Seek to excel to the edifying of the Church.'

Service was followed by a bountiful tea, to which 30 sat down, waited upon by Mrs. Anderson and several local ladies.

A short business meeting followed, and in the absence of the chairman (Mr. R. N. Dawes), the Vicar was voted to the chair. — One ringing member was elected, and a letter was read from the Rev. H. A. Caryl, inviting the branch to Hilton in July next. This invitation was accepted with cordial thanks.

The Hon. Secretary reported that he had received a letter from the Sherborne Abbey, saying as soon as they had made a little more progress with change ringing the band would join the Guild, and wished to belong to the Dorchester Branch.

Mr. Coles proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for his interest in the Guild by taking the service, for his excellent address, and for the use of the bells; also to the organist and choir, to the ladies for waiting at the tea tables, and to the local Church Council for providing tea.—This was seconded by Mr. Witham, supported by the Hon. Secretary, and carried with acclamation.—The Vicar, in responding, said it gave him the greatest pleasure to assist in the good work of the Guild. He hoped they would come to Wool again in the near future.

Some members spoke on the subject of two additional bells to make an excellent octave in the Parish Church.

This concluded the business, and the ringers repaired to the tower, where ringing was again indulged in, and great assistance was given beginners in change ringing.—Other members went on to Bere Regis, where the bells were available.

THE LADIES' GUILD.

A quarterly meeting of the Southern District was held at Chertsey, on Saturday, May 13th, when ringers from Aldershot, Bagshot, Cranleigh, Camberley, Chertsey, Clapham, Ealing, Staines, Walton and Worplesdon were present.—The Rev. J. Smith (Vicar of Chertsey) conducted the service, and gave an interesting address bearing on the history of the church.

Tea was served in the Church Room, and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

At the business meeting it was decided to hold the next meeting at Horsell. The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the chairman (the Rev. J. Smith) for his kindness and welcome, proposed by Mrs. Hairs.

The ringers then returned to the belfry for a short period.

This method is constructed on lines, which I think I may venture to call a practical extension; and it is meant for a practical extension of Bristol Surprise Major.

When I call it a 'practical' extension, I mean that the man who can ring Bristol Major, will be able to learn and ring this method after a few minutes' perusal.

Following the work of the 2nd through the first lead, we find that there are two double dodges introduced, one before and the other after the whole pull at lead when the treble lies behind; the rest is Bristol work.

In the second lead, again, two double dodges are introduced, one in 1-2 and the other in 3-4, immediately after leading the whole turn.

In the 3rd lead 6th's and a double dodge in 5-6 down is introduced, then comes the Bristol run across with four double dodges, and a dodge with the treble in 5-6 woven into it.

As Clifton is a double method, what I have said will be quite sufficient to indicate all the changes in the work introduced.

The first peal in the method was rung at St. Stephen's, Bristol, on May 9th, after the band had been depleted by the departure of two of the company, Messrs. P. W. Cave, now of Southampton and G. Condict, junr., who has recently taken up a responsible appointment in London. However, the losses did not put the peal out of the question, and the band who were successful desire that the names of these two ringers should be associated with the performance.

CHANGE RINGING IN AMERICA.

To the Editor.

Sir,—It may be of interest to your readers to learn that the recent appeal of Mr. Matthews, expressing the desire to augment our local Guild, depleted by war and removals, has already met with gratifying responses.

That the situation as to change ringing in this country may be clearly apprehended, it must be confessed that our art has upon the whole failed to appeal to the general public, whose predilection is rather toward the execution of lugubrious hymns upon our inharmonious chimes. Thus it happens that nowhere, except in Boston, Groton School and Vancouver, has the Exercise attained a firm standing. Indeed, recent events seem rather to presage the introduction of carillons, two of which, products of English foundries, have been installed the present month. The carillon sent to Toronto, by the way, embodies a novel electric attachment, operating automatically by means of perforated cards as in the pianola. Daily recitals, given by the English carillonneur, Mr. Harry Withers, are reported to have attracted admiring crowds. The other carillon cast for Gloucester, Mass., has just been admitted by Act of Congress free of duty.

But in justice to our irrepressible ringers, it should be stated that steady progress has been made in the elucidation of the art, both by their sustained work in the various towers, and by lectures illustrated upon handbells. To converts thus made we are indebted for the chloroforming of the few disposed to protest at the noise of swinging bells.

Having thus passed the period of probation and acquired a reputation for meritorious service, it is believed that our worst trials are now over, and that we can look in future to more plain sailing, for no less than five rings of excellent bells are available for meetings, while the contract is about to be made for the sixth peal.

It is to be regretted that by an absurd Act of Congress we are inhibited from assuring to newcomers immediate employment; nor can a solatium for services rendered be expected from our indifferent church functionaries. Contributions are nevertheless made from time to time adequate to meet all running expenses. Recuperation from the effects of the war has been rapid, and the improvement in economic conditions is demonstrated by the launching of extensive business enterprises in all our cities.

To our English confreres, therefore, who may be moved to seek changed fortune under new skies, we would suggest that no locality presents more alluring attractions than those of Boston where they can count upon a cordial greeting from the members of our Guild.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

We regret that owing to pressure on our space we are compelled to hold over several reports and peals.

The death has occurred, at Kettering, of Mr. Cecil Chapman, at the age of 20 years, and the Tonbridge band have lost by death, Mr. George H. Stonestreet, who has been a ringer for upwards of 30 years.

Funds are being raised for the recasting of the peal of six at Combe Martin, North Devon, and increasing the bells to eight. The work is to be carried out by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank.

Harrison's 10,176 Kent Treble Bob Major is to be attempted to-morrow (Saturday) at St. Thomas's Church, Moorside, Oldham, starting at 8.30 a.m.

Some interesting statistics appear at the end of the peal records for 1921 in the Norwich and Ipswich Association report. It is stated that 230 members took part in the 190 peals, which made up a grand total of 963,987 changes, and the ringing occupied 561 hours 11 minutes. The tower peals were rung in 56 towers, and the handbell peals in five places. Thirty-eight members conducted peals during the year.

From its formation in 1877 to the end of 1921, the association rang no fewer than 3,614 peals.

The strength of the Association is a matter of interest in the present Suffolk controversy. The figures printed in the report show that there are six resident and 213 non-resident life members, and the following annual subscribers: In Norfolk Branch, 32 hon. members, 328 performing members and 13 probationers; in Suffolk Branch, 18 hon. members, 394 performing members and 18 probationers, a grand total of 1,022.

It is distressing to read in the Branch Secretary's report of the Salisbury Branch of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild that 'The bells at Tisbury have been very unsafe for several years, and cannot now be rung at all; the ringers are, therefore, very unwillingly compelled to resign membership of the Guild.' It is not stated whether the Guild have taken any action to endeavour to get this state of affairs remedied.

On May 20th, 1780, a peal of 5,220 'Tittom Bob Royal' was rung at St. Michael's, Coventry, in 3 hrs. 41 mins. by St. Martin's Youths, and on the same day, in 1795, the Royal Cumberland Youths rang a peal of Cumberland Treble Bob at Edmonton.

The then longest peal of Stedman Caters, 13,054 changes, was rung in 8 hours 16 minutes, at Cheltenham on May 21st, 1888, and on May 22nd, 1899, the 17,024 Double Norwich Major (at that time the longest single-handed peal on record) was rung at Kidlington in 11 hours 12 minutes.

On May 24th, 1768, the Sherwood Youths of Nottingham rang Holt's 'true whole peal of Grandsire Tripples,' at All Saints', Gainsborough, and a tablet in the belfry records the fact.

The first true peal of Treble Ten in Ireland was rung at St. Patrick's Cathedral on May 24th, 1901, a previous peal of Kent Royal on the same bells having been found to be false.

While a peal was being rung at Chester-le-Street on Saturday, two steeplejacks were hard at work on the spire. It is said they were in a good position to hear the bells.

The Ashford District meeting of the Kent Association, which was to have been held at New Romney to-morrow is transferred to Smarden. The tenor at New Romney has got out of order and, therefore, Smarden tower, where a new peal of six has just been opened has been secured at short notice by the hon. secretary, Mr. C. Tribe.

The peal rung at Isham, on Saturday, is the fourth to be rung by a band of ladies, and the first in which a lady has turned the tenor in. The other peals were the one at Cubitt Town, and the two which have been rung at Portishead.

Will Mr. C. J. Sedgley, of Ipswich, please send his address to Mr. W. Pye, 8, Sanson Road, Lansdown Road, Leytonstone?

THE HELPING HAND.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The following sums have been received by Mr. A. Pye, 126, Pembroke Road, Seven Kings, on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. H. Flanders, for which we beg to thank the givers: St. Margaret's, Barking, Society (per Mr. G. Faulkner), 15s.; Mr. A. Chaplin, 2s. 6d.; Mr. A. Stroud, 2s. 6d.; Mrs. A. Pye, 6s.; Mr. J. Hunt 2s.; Mr. C. S. Burden, 2s. 6d. As we are anxious to close this fund, will those who wish to help kindly do so as early as possible? Donations should be sent to Mr. Pye or to myself.—Yours truly,

49, Wood Street, E.17.

C. T. COLES.

THE LATE MR. M. ELLSMORE.

We have received the sum of 3s. from Mr. W. H. Fussell (Slough) towards the fund opened on behalf of the widow of the late Mr. Matthew Ellsmore. Mr. Fussell himself an old Cumberland, reminds members of that society that Mr. Ellsmore was an old and valued member, and the last words of his cheery message, when he sailed to Australia were, 'Farewell to England. God save the King.' Contributions to the fund should be sent to the Editor of 'The Ringing World.'

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.*MR. W. H. FUSSELL RETIRES FROM DISTRICT SECRETARYSHIP.

The annual meeting of the Berks and Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild was held at Wooburn, Bucks, on Easter Monday in the Schools adjoining the Parish Church, the comfort of heating being appreciated on a cold day. The Rev. W. Upton Wooler was voted to the chair in the absence of the President of the Branch (the Bishop of Buckingham), owing to serious illness; and the vice-president (the Vicar of Bray), through loss of voice and a cold.—The Chairman referred to the time when he came into the district 30 years ago, when the Guild was a prosperous institution, which to-day appeared to be growing stronger and stronger with newly-formed branches. He apologised for the absence of the Vicar of Wooburn (the Rev. A. E. Baynes), who had to leave after conducting an enjoyable service in the church, but he was authorised to propose him as an honorary member of the branch (applause). In his boyhood in Yorkshire he had been much impressed by the parental admonition that 'little boys should be seen and not heard'; but the members present, as ringers, were credited with the reverse dictum—heard but not seen.—The balance sheet was unanimously approved, showing a sum of £19 carried forward—the best on record. At this stage, the Chairman had to leave, and the Master of the Guild (the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn) was asked to fill the gap.—The Hon. Secretary gave a detailed report of the work of the branch for 1921, and referred to several matters of importance to the committee and the branch generally, so that they might realise the need of more personal attention to the management of the large district covered by them, which had 34 towers affiliated. In a few farewell remarks as their secretary, he thanked them all for their encouragement and co-operation during the nearly seven years he had tried to carry out their wishes, and pointed out that a good deal remained to be done in Mid Bucks, so as to form a strong link of connection between the north and south of the county.

The election of officers resulted in the president and vice-president being re-elected. The committee for 1922 was elected as follows: Messrs. Boreham, Buckland, Kirk, Martin, Smith, Truss, Welling and White.—Mr. S. J. Harman (Windsor) was appointed hon. secretary and treasurer pro tem.

THE GUILD'S ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

Considerable discussion followed a proposal that the Guild's annual festival be held in succession in the three Archdeaconries of the Diocese, Berks, Bucks and Oxon, instead of making the City of Oxford the place of yearly pilgrimage. The whole of the branch members present showed clearly their favourable opinion on this matter, and several members supported the resolution with forcible speeches.

A grant of £2 2s. in aid of the Bledlow bells restoration was approved, and it was agreed that Waltham, St. Lawrence, tower, be placed in union with the Sonning Deanery, while certain mid-Bucks towers were to go with the newly-formed South Oxford branch.

Reference was made to the value of the organised Surprise practices, arranged by the branch committee during the past year or two; the climax resulting in several peals in three of the higher methods (including London) being rung straight off the reel. No branch, it was urged, should consist of more than ten or twelve towers, and these ought to be 'grouped' for combined practices at fixed and regular times.

Several new members were elected, and one or two old members 'rejuvenated.'

A vote of thanks to the Master and Chairman was carried by acclamation, the company realising only too well that his sole aim was the welfare of the whole Guild.

A lengthy and discursive meeting closed at 8 p.m., the members adjourning to the tower—and elsewhere. There was a congregation of 73 ringers at the service at 4.30, at which the Guild's manual was used, by kind permission, and an address given by the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn from the text, 'If ye then be risen with Christ seek ye the things that are above.'

The thanks of the branch were conveyed to Mr. J. West, local foreman, for his work in organising the reception, service and tea, thus adding another successful day to the branch's record of the past. Slough and Cookham towers were very kindly thrown open to visitors in the morning, and Berks and Middlesex men availed themselves of the opportunity on the way down, whilst Beaconsfield and Wycombe were similarly open for Bucks and Oxon ringers. The branch was fortunate in being able to furnish bands for touches of Stedman Cinques and Treble Twelve and the three Surprise Major methods, with Double Norwich, the Caversham car being ushered into Wooburn by the welcome sounds of London Major. W. H. F.

THE LONGEST LENGTH OF LONDON SURPRISE

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I have made my accusation, and the Rev. H. L. James has made his defence. It is now the duty of the Exercise to judge between us. Let us have it, without fear or favour.—Yours, etc.,

G. LINDOFF.

THE LADIES' PEAL AT ISHAM.*A NORTANTS BAND'S SUCCESS.

The germ arose from a rash promise of chocolates made in a weak moment by a certain well-known ringer, if a band of Northants ladies could be got together, and, unaided, accomplish a peal. So confident were the ladies that this offer subsequently developed into a bet of 1lb. of chocolates per head to 1lb. of 'baccy' that the peal would be rung before Christmas, 1922. After many vicissitudes, including two punctures on the way, a band was gathered together, with the aid of the aforesaid ringer's car, and a start made at 3.30 last Saturday afternoon. Just when the bells appeared to be settling down to a nice beat, after 45 minutes' ringing, the listeners were horrified to hear that some disagreement was apparently going on in the belfry, and the attempt came to an untimely end.

After giving the ladies time to recover from their disappointment, the listeners carefully tip-toed into the church, only to find that the birds had flown. Fortified, however, by tea, and spurred on by the promised reward, which had now reached 1½lb. per head, five of the ladies decided to make a fresh attempt, but the sixth—alas!—had an urgent appointment which could not be missed. This was easily overcome, however, by the gentleman with the car, who promised that the appointment should be kept outside the church. Soon after a fresh attempt for the peal was well under way, and 'the appointment' formed one of the excited party of listeners.

During the ringing of the last 720, the excitement grew so intense that the listeners, whose number had been swelled by several local ringers, were unable to sit still, and walked round the church waiting for the moment when they might dash into the belfry and congratulate or commiserate the various ringers.

As the bells came round a loud cheer went up from the crowd, and a voice said sadly, 'Bang goes twenty-four bob.' Congratulations were poured on all the band, and especially on Cecil, as to turn in a tenor—though only weighing 9½ cwt.—and conduct a peal is no mean feat for a girl of 18. Kittie, 'the flapper,' is also worthy of mention, as this was her first attempt for a peal. The listeners were astonished and pleased at the splendid striking and beat of the bells, the part ends coming up with perfect regularity throughout the peal.

NEW METHODS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Mr. Barber says I should be more correct if I said I had called peals with the 6th 12 course ends at home instead of 12 courses; at any rate I have rung one composition which has the 6th at home 78 leads out of a possible 84, and these six leads are between the M and Before, which matters little from a musical point of view. If he has rung three peals of Bristol without practice, he has little to boast about when one considers the strength of the band he rang them with, and if I did introduce the phrase about too many calls, I have never started introducing two calls into a lead, and am not likely to. As regards his opinion that Premier is better than Bristol I take his opinion for what it is worth.

It would interest me very much to know where the music comes in in such methods as Forward, Erin, Dublin Complex and Double Superlative. To put the whole thing in a nutshell, he has said something which he now sees would have been better left unsaid, and has not the courage to acknowledge it.—Yours truly, W. PYE.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

A well-attended meeting of the Bolton Branch of the Lancashire Association was held at St. Mary's, Deane, on Saturday, April 29th. About 35 members were present from Bolton Parish, Holy Trinity, St. George's, and the Saviour's Churches, Walkden (St. Bartholomew's), Tyldesley and New Church, together with the local band and visitors from Crewe and Pendleton.

The bells were kept going from 4 p.m. until 8.45 p.m., with touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Kent, Double Norwich, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major. The Surprise Methods were the predominant attraction of the meeting, scarcely a member asking for anything else. This shows the interest in and activity of the branch.

It was decided to hold the May meeting at Tyldesley, a special invitation having been received from the Vicar.

A ringers' outing was arranged to take place on June 17th. This will be in the form of a charabanc ride, and visits to towers in the Preston branch.

DUBLIN RINGER'S BEREAVEMENT.

St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, on Saturday, May 6th, in 55 mins., on the back eight, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes): W. Gibson 1, T. McMorris 2, J. Cherry 3, W. Wilson 4, R. Taylor 5, George Wilmot 6, G. Lindoff (conductor) 7, W. Lynch 8. This was rung, muffled, as a last token of respect to Mrs. J. W. Townley, the wife of a respected member of the company, who passed away on Monday, May 1st.

MR. EVANS REPLIES.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Why do writers on the above matter labour the word Norwich so much? Is it that ringers in other counties are anxious to see our fine records and position in ringing annals relegated to the 'has-beens'?

Are we in East Suffolk not the most to be considered? Taking the letter of Mr. Dennis in this week's issue of your Journal, we find he is going back to history and telling us what happened in 1913-14. He very carefully refrains from saying that, when the officials of the N.D.A. found that their proposals were not acceptable to the ringers in Sudbury Archdeaconry they dropped the matter, and did not attempt to force the scheme on these gentlemen. Herein lies the difference in the tactics of the present. What we in East Suffolk are up against is the ramming of a society we do not want down our throats.

Peaceful penetration we are willing to stand or lose by, and if the new society is asked to hold meetings in any of our districts, I am sure none of the officers of the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich would object or belittle a genuine wish for a change on the part of its members, but the efforts of one in our midst who is trying by coercion to float an East Suffolk Branch of this new society is what we are fighting.

Those of the clergy who have been approached to use their efforts to coerce ringers to throw over their old society and join the new, have, on the true facts, coupled with the opinion of their ringers, being placed before them, left the ringers to please themselves. This, Sir, is what we are doing, and we fail to see what it has to do with outsiders. It is our funeral—not theirs.

I hope my friends in West Suffolk will not think I am attacking them in any way, as I have always received the most courteous treatment from them, and sincerely hope our comradeship will still continue.

To go further back in 'history,' it may interest Mr. Dennis to know that in 1802 the ringers in Bury St. Edmunds were very anxious to join the N.D.A. as annual subscribers (and at their very urgent request, the late Rev. H. E. Bulwer reluctantly consented to admit them), so that they might belong to a really live society. This I know, as I was living in Bury at the time, and joined the N.D.A. with them.

In Mr. Drake's letter, 'Norwich' men (poor old Norwich) are accused of a most contemptible action, viz., finding fault with other people's skill. Now, Sir, I really must ask Mr. Drake to withdraw that statement for the following reasons:—

1. There were no 'Norwich' men there, those representing the then N. and I. Association (exclusive of life members) being Mr. Coleman, Mr. Drake, and myself, and most decidedly none of us reside in Norwich.

2. The only question (so far as my memory serves me) that arose on skill was when the question of what inducement could West Suffolk offer East Suffolk to warrant East Suffolk throwing in their lot with West Suffolk? This brought the ejaculation of 'Ah! We don't ring enough 5,000's for you, that's the whole trouble,' from a Bury ringer, who then volunteered the statement that they had a company who could ring Double Norwich, upon which he was complimented.

Can Mr. Drake call that finding 'fault' with skill? If West Suffolk cannot gain by joining the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich, what can we gain by reversing the order? If we, in this part of Suffolk, have not fostered change ringing it is a certainty no other county has. I have come across no single case of Mr. Drake attempting to do things that have been thwarted by our Norfolk members, and one would think that I, as branch secretary, should be conversant with them.

I was also present at the Hadleigh meeting referred to, and am quite sure that the deputation did not go to that meeting with the idea that West Suffolk had quarrelled with Ely. Mr. Drake was one of that deputation. What has he done to enlighten other members on the point he raises? Nobody has, to my knowledge, treated the West Suffolk men as traitors to Ely; but can Mr. Drake say exactly what is his attitude to his old association? and perhaps he can tell us what is the difference between the Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich taking in members from West Suffolk as annual subscribers, and vice versa, Norwich, St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich were here first, and so long as its members are content to so remain, I believe the S.D.A. are the more flagrant 'poachers.'—Yours truly,

E. EVANS.

Dear Sir,—Would you allow me to say that I am not responsible for the heading under which my last letter was printed. I gave it all 'Why St. Edmundsbury?' The alteration seemed to write was a ~~deliberate~~ results which were not intended.—Yours faithfully, H. DRAKE.

Ufford Rectory, Woodbridge, Suffolk.

Dear Sir,—Your report of a meeting at Helmingham on Easter Monday states that Mr. Evans called my statement, that there was not a quorum present when the name of the Norwich and Ipswich Association was changed, 'absolutely false.' This is a rather unusual expression to appear in print; moreover it is Mr. Evans this time who is misinformed. Mr. Fisher was not at the meeting when the matter was discussed; the matter was settled before he arrived; therefore, on Mr. Evans' own showing, there was not a quorum present. It is rather strange that he should make such a point of this, when the matter had become of no importance, as it was then being decided by a full meeting. As, however, this meeting was only a Branch meeting, it clearly could not alter the laws of the whole Association.

Mr. Evans' deduction that because there were over 150 clergy who did not answer my circular, therefore they are quite satisfied with the old Association, is wrong. The true deduction is that there are over 150 Suffolk clergy who take no interest in ringing matters. Now it is up to the old Association to stop talking, and set about roping in those clergy and their towers, before the new Association gets to work on them. I think ringers will all agree that the society which gets hold of the most of these first, deserves best the applause of us all.—Yours, etc.,

H. DRAKE.

Ufford Rectory, Woodbridge, Suffolk.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED.

Sir,—In his letter in your issue of April 28th, Mr. Dennis says I suggest that there was a grievance between the Ely Diocesan Association and the West Suffolk ringers. I simply asked the question if that was so, as the same question was asked at the Ipswich meeting in February last, but without any satisfactory answer being given. Mr. Dennis says that it is for Suffolk ringers to decide whether they form an association of their own or not. I entirely agree, but had the thing been brought to the proper notice of the Suffolk ringers and voted on, I am confident that the scheme would have been turned down by a large majority. Mr. Dennis says there is no harm in peaceful poaching. I am sorry to note that the way in which some of the ringers have been approached in the matter is not in the best interests of that good fellowship which we as ringers pride ourselves on.—Yours, etc.,

GEORGE WILSON.

Leiston.

Sir,—Permit me a few words in reply to Mr. Burton's letter of the 13th inst. He tells us the cases of West Suffolk and Ely, and East Suffolk and Norwich, are not on a par. I fail to see the difference. Ringers are free to leave or join as they wish. My point is, all Suffolk ringers should support the new St. Edmundsbury or Ipswich Association, and the officials of the Norwich Association should give them every facility for doing so, thus showing the good feeling that usually exists between ringers' associations. Norwich being diocesan should finish at that, and certainly not attempt to grab the new diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich from the ringers of Suffolk to prevent them forming the association that is so much needed in that county.—Yours truly,

W. MILLER.

GLASGOW CATHEDRAL BELLS.

The peal of ten bells (tenor 32 cwt.), at St. Mary's Cathedral, Glasgow, have been silent for eight years, because of complaints as to noise, etc., but Mr. J. E. Sykes, after persistent effort has at last persuaded the authorities that he could get good ringing done, and has got the bells open again. The Very Rev. Provost Lethbridge is showing great interest in the movement, and has entrusted Mr. Sykes with the task of forming a band. It is no sinecure to be tower warden under the conditions which prevail, but he has secured a great helper in his bell warden, Mr. Tom O'Hara, who worked like a Trojan to make the opening possible, and deserves unstinted praise for his attentions to his noisy 'pets' above.

On Sunday, April 30th 1922, for evensong, 168 Grandsire Triples was rung by J. E. Sykes (conductor) 1, R. J. G. Thom 2, J. Holman 3, E. Astley 4, T. O'Hara 5, E. H. Lewis 6, A. J. Rodger 7, J. ## LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

ANNUAL MEETING AT LINCOLN.

The annual meeting of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild was held at Lincoln on Saturday, April 29th, when there was a large muster of members, due in part, no doubt, to the fine weather, and to the increased facilities afforded by the railway companies, excursion trains running from various parts to the Lincoln Pleasure Fair for the first time since 1914. At the same time, a good number found their way to the meeting by motor, this method of travelling having found great favour amongst those ringers who live in the more remote parts of the county. Ringing took place during the afternoon and evening at the Cathedral (8), St. Peter-at-Arches (8), St. Peter-at-Gowts (5) and St. Botolph's (6). A quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung on the Cathedral bells for evensong at four o'clock, after which nearly 200 members, including many lady ringers, sat down to tea at the Co-operative Hall. The gathering this year was in one respect noteworthy, in that the Lord Bishop of the Diocese (patron) and the Dean of Lincoln (President) were both present, this evidence of real interest in the work of the Guild being very much appreciated.

Not being able to stay for the business meeting, the Bishop addressed the members before leaving the tea-tables. He said that it had given him great pleasure to come amongst them for the first time at one of their meetings, and hoped that on a future occasion he would be able to stay longer with them. — A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to his Lordship for his presence and for so kindly addressing the gathering.

The usual business meeting was then held, the chair being taken by the Dean of Lincoln, who gave a most interesting description of the work that is being done in restoring the north-west tower and the west front of the Cathedral for which a very large sum of money will be required during the next few years.

The following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, namely, the Dean of Lincoln, President; the Rev. H. Law James, Master; Mr. F. F. Linley, treasurer; and Mr. F. W. Stokes, hon. secretary.

The Guild balance sheet and report were passed. The latter shows that 57 peals were rung during the past year, an increase of six on the previous year, nineteen members having rung their first peal. Two new methods appear in the peal list, namely, Granta Treble Bob Royal (on handbells) and Double Bob Royal (on tower bells), both rung at Surfleet.

Mr. C. W. P. Clifton raised the question of the Central Council meeting at Lincoln on Whit-Tuesday this year, and proposed that the Guild entertain the members of the Council to tea at the close of their meeting.—This was unanimously agreed to, the arrangements being left in the hands of the Committee of the Northern Branch.

The proceedings closed with the customary vote of thanks to the Dean and Chapter, and to the incumbents of the various churches in the city for the use of the bells during the afternoon and evening.

The meeting over, members again visited the various towers, the Master of the Guild (the Rev. H. Law James) controlling the ringing at the Cathedral tower. The methods rung included Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Double Norwich, Superlative, Cambridge and London Surprise Major, besides various Minor methods at the six-bell towers. A number of members made their first attempt in some of the higher methods, and there is evidence of a good deal of progress having been made during the past year.

GRIMSBY DISTRICT.

A quarterly meeting of the Grimsby district was held at Barrow-on-Humber, where there is a fine ring of six bells, on April 22nd, and was fairly well attended, considering the unsettled state of the weather. The ringing commenced soon after three o'clock, and during the day touches of Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Bob Minor and Grandsire were rung. The following towers were represented: Hull, Grimsby, Scunthorpe, Bigby, Ulceby, Thornton, Barton-on-Humber, and the local company. One lady ringer was present belonging to the Barton company.

The Vicar (the Rev. D. Stedman) conducted a short service, and gave an interesting address on bells and the history of the church.

Tea in the Vicar's Room, kindly provided by Mr. J. Bentley, churchwarden, was much appreciated and enjoyed.

The business meeting followed, presided over by the Vicar. Two new members (one honorary) were elected, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for his address, also for presiding, and Mr. Bentley was thanked for his kind hospitality.

GIFFORD MEMORIAL.

The following subscriptions to the late Mr. W. W. Gifford's memorial fund have been received: Amount previously acknowledged, £9 4s. 6d.; Mr. F. Sutton, 1s.; St. Paul's company ringers, Salisbury, 7s. 6d.; Mr. W. Prince, 2s.; Mr. J. R. Jerram 5s.; Mr. E. A. Foster, £1; Rev. F. L. Edwards, 5s.; collection at the annual £1; Rg. of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild of Ringers at Lyme Regis, total, £13 2s. 6d. ... Gifford company ringers, 12s. 6d.; ...

THE COUNCIL AGENDA.

The agenda of the Central Council meeting, which we publish to-day, seems likely to provide the members with a full and interesting session at Lincoln on Whitsun Tuesday. In addition to the reports of the committees, which usually occupy more than the morning sitting, there are half a dozen subjects included among the notices of motion, most of which promise material for debate, and none of them likely to prove matters for the "experts" alone, unless it should happen that the reference to Holt's peals is a technical question. As it stands at present the item is worded, it may be intentionally, to stir the curiosity of the ringing public. It certainly leaves most of us "guessing."

All the other motions appear to be within the realm of practical politics, and the one that seems likely mostly to divide opinion seems to be that which seeks to lay down a rule that every tower should be affiliated to some one society and one only. What, exactly, is the object of this we shall hear when the resolution is moved; but we doubt if it will prove acceptable to those ringers whose towers stand within the area of two societies which overlap, and who exist in amicable relationship. Indeed, unless a whole band joins an association for a specific inclusive fee, we doubt if it can be said that a "tower" is affiliated. It is the ringers who are affiliated, and, even if the rule were accepted, that the tower could be affiliated to only one society, would that prevent the individual members belonging to a second association? The resolution appears to us akin to that defeated a year or two ago, which sought to make it obligatory upon ringers to ring all peals for the association in whose area the tower, where the peal is rung, stands. But we shall see.

The motion with regard to the proof and record of compositions is, we think, important. It would have been in the interests of the Exercise if such a proposal had been put into practice twenty years ago, for the output of compositions since that time has been enormous. A plan of filing compositions for reference, so that those who first obtained them should not be robbed of their title, whether from "piracy" or ignorance, is badly needed, and it will be easier to take it in hand now than twenty years hence. The question of the proof of peals is also important, but the conditions under which this should be officially undertaken need to be carefully safeguarded, otherwise a vast amount of useless and avoidable work will be cast upon somebody. Unquestionably the agenda is one of the most interesting to the general body of ringers that the Council has had for many years past, and we hope it may be the beginning of a new era of useful debates.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

The Second Session of the Eleventh Council (29th annual meeting) will be held in the Chapter House, The Cathedral, Lincoln, on Whitsun Tuesday, 6th June, 1922, at 11 a.m. precisely.

The morning sitting will be adjourned from 1 p.m. till 2.30, from which hour the Council will sit, if necessary, until 5.30 p.m.

The Standing Committee will meet previously at 9.45 a.m. in the same room.

AGENDA, 1922.

1. Minutes of the last Meeting.
  2. Apologies for Absence.
  3. Statement of Accounts and of Sale of Publications.
  4. Election of Honorary Members.
  5. Presentation of new Members to the President.
  6. To receive and discuss the Reports of the following Committees, viz.:—
    - (a) Peal Collection.
    - (b) Literature and Press.
    - (c) Legitimate Methods.
    - (d) Peals' Analysis.
    - (e) Towers and Belfries.
    - (f) Records.
  7. That it is desirable to establish in the area of each Ringing Association a Bell Restoration Fund, from which grants may be made for the restoration of any rings of bells within the area when local funds are insufficient to meet the cost.
  8. To call attention to a point in connection with Holt's peals of Grandsire Triples.
  9. That the Council draw up a card of instructions on the Care and Use of Bells suitable for hanging in a Tower.
  10. That every Tower should be officially affiliated to some one Society, and only one.
  11. That the Council consider the advisability and practicability of proving and recording all new compositions, before being rung or published.
  12. To move that a Committee be appointed in connection with the new exhibit upon Campanology, at the Science Museum, South Kensington.
  13. To fix the place of next year's meeting.
  14. Other business, if any.
- 155, Rushey Green, E. ALEXANDER YOUNG.
Catford, London, S.E.6. Hon. Secretary.

PEAL ATTEMPT AT SURFLEET.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—In connection with the Central Council meeting at Lincoln, a peal attempt will be made at Surfleet (10) on Whitsun Monday. Anyone wishing to take part please communicate with me as early as possible, so that arrangements can be made. The time for starting will be fixed so that anyone wishing to leave for Lincoln that night may do so. If anyone wishes to stay the night at Surfleet, I will do my best to obtain comfortable lodgings for him.

—Yours, etc., E. RICHARDSON.
Surfleet, Spalding.

RINGING ARRANGEMENTS—A SUGGESTION.

Sir,—As the Central Council accepted the invitation to Lincoln this year, allow me to express the hope that ample opportunity will be given for ringing on the interesting bells of that city, after the meeting on Whit-Tuesday. It sometimes happens that most of the ringing arranged benefits only those whose circumstances permit them to be on the spot for the week-end. It should be remembered that there are others, who can only arrive late on Monday evening, or just in time for the meeting on Tuesday. It is on Tuesday evening that the fullest facilities are needed.—Yours, etc.

ONE OF THEM.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

The monthly meeting of the Biggleswade district was held at Arlesey on Saturday, April 29th, and members were very pleased to welcome visitors from Hitchin, Barton-le-Clay, and Tring. Twenty-two sat down to an excellent tea and Mr. W. Inskip presided at the business meeting, which followed, at which members were present from Clifton, Biggleswade, Northill, Sandy, Roxton, Everton, Potton.

Five new members were elected (four ringing and one honorary), and Everton was chosen for the next meeting.

The usual vote of thanks was passed.

The tower was again visited, and some good practice ringing done, the methods including Woodbine, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob, Plain Bob Minor and Grandsire Doubles, for the benefit of learners.

THE FOUR SHIRES GUILD.

The half-yearly meeting of the Four Shires Guild took place at St. Mary's Church, Ilmington, on Saturday, April 29th, when about 60 members and friends were present, from Shipston Moreton-in-Marsh, Chipping Campden Blockley, Willersey, Tredington, Ilmington, and the local tower. The visitors were welcomed to this old-world village by merry touches on the bells by the home team.

A competition took place between the various companies in raising and falling, call changes and method ringing, the first prize being the challenge shield of the Guild, which was awarded to the team getting the greatest number of points. Certificates were given to the teams winning the various events.

Willersey was an easy winner of the shield by securing (out of possible 100 points), for raising and falling, 92 points; call changes, 98 points; method ringing, 97 points. Shipston-on-Stour was second, with raising and falling, 80 points; call changes, 92 points; method ringing, 96 points. Moreton-in-Marsh was third, with raising and falling, 82 points; call changes, 92 points; method ringing, 90 points. The home team are not allowed to compete on their own bells, but they are given the average number of points on the day's ringing.

The ringing was ably judged by Messrs. E. Pardon, of Stow-on-the-Wold, and W. Large, of Todenham.

After the competition service took place in the church, the officiating clergy being the Rev. J. Tucker, Rector-in-charge, Mr. T. E. Boyd Wilson, and the Rev. W. E. Guerrier, Vicar of Ebbington.

The Rev. W. E. Guerrier preached an impressive sermon on the various uses of English church bells, and pointed out that the first use of the bells was to call the people to worship God in His house.

A splendid meat tea, provided by the home ringers and friends in the village, was partaken in the C.E. Schools, after which the business meeting was held.

The Secretary presented his annual report, which was adopted. Certificates of merit won at Moreton-in-Marsh at the last meeting were presented by Mrs. W. Gardner, to Ilmington, for raising and falling, and to Chipping Campden, for call changes, while Shipston-on-Stour retained the shield, having obtained the greatest total of points.

Votes of thanks were given to all who assisted in any way to make the meeting a success, and this brought a very pleasant day to a close.

This is the first meeting of the Guild at Ilmington where there is a grand ring of bells, with a tenor of 20 cwt. in E, which has recently been augmented to six by Messrs. Bond, of Burford, with a new 'Victory and Peace' bell, and it is considered to be the finest six bell peal in the district.

A fact worthy of record is that when it was proposed to raise funds to add the new treble to this ring of bells six ringers of Ilmington, who are chiefly farm labourers, came forward with one-quarter of the cash required to pay for the bell. This fact might be taken to heart by other ringers, who, when they require new bells, or their bells rehung or repaired, should be prepared to make a sacrifice themselves, and then they will find that others will respond in a like spirit.

LEEDS & DISTRICT SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the above society was held on Saturday, April 29th, at Leeds Parish Church. The bells were rung during the afternoon and evening to Stedman and Grandsire.

The business meeting was held in the Royal Oak, members being present from Armley, Guisely, Rawmarsh and Wortley, near Sheffield, St. Chad's, Headingley; Mirfield, Holbeck, Pudsey, and the local company.

The President (Mr. Peacock) was in the chair, and the officers for the ensuing year were elected as nominated at the Armley meeting. Mr. C. B. Lawson, of 10, Leather Street, Leeds, succeeding Mr. M. Moorhouse as hon. secretary.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the hon. auditors for their kindness in drawing up the balance sheet, also to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and the local company for the arrangements.—Mr. M. Smith responded, bringing the business to a close. Afterwards the handbells were brought into use.

NORWICH & IPSWICH ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Halesworth District of the Norwich and Ipswich Association was held at Wissett on April 29th, there being present representatives from Beccles, Wrentham, Henham, Chediston, Alderburgh, Bungay, Kessingland, Brampton Halesworth, Holton, and Wissett. Tea was kindly provided by the Rector and churchwardens, and, to save time, the business of the meeting was carried on while tea was being served.

The ringing during the afternoon and evening consisted of touches of Kent Treble Bob, Oxford Treble Bob, Cambridge Surprise, Double Court, and Plain Bob, and some good striking was heard.

Thanks were accorded to the Rector and churchwardens for the use of the bells, and for providing the ringers with a splendid tea.

This is the first district meeting arranged by the new secretary (Mr. Walter Kerrieon), who is to be congratulated upon the success attained.

THE SUFFOLK CONTROVERSY.To the Editor.*

Dear Sir,—As I have no wish to quarrel with Mr. Evans, I am quite ready to withdraw the statements he objects to. What he says in his letter appears to be quite correct, except his fairy tale about 'coercion'; and I trust he does not mean to sing the dirge of his society when he speaks of 'our funeral'!

My reason for speaking of the 'Norwich' Association is brevity.

Mr. Evans says he has not come across a single case of my attempting to do things that have been thwarted by our Norfolk members. He was at the last annual meeting at Norwich, when I brought forward a proposal to alter the rule prescribing the qualification for membership. I pointed out that the awkward way it had been worded had excluded over a dozen ringers from one tower for three years from joining as full members. A ringer who lives in Norwich said that the Association was not for such towers as that, but for towers where there was a full band of qualified ringers, or words to that effect. The other Norfolk men present agreed, and my proposal was thrown out. This also provides the answer to Mr. Evans' query as to my attitude to the old Association. It is that the new society is to do the work of banding together the towers which, when it was formed, were excluded from the old society. It is to supplement and not to supplant the old society; and I am quite sure that it will cause the numbers of the latter to increase. I have always taken every opportunity of dissuading anyone from leaving the old society. As I have said ever since, the diocese was divided: there is room for two societies in Suffolk.

'Poaching' means taking what someone else has a right to, without his knowledge. The new Association took no subscriptions in East Suffolk until after the joint conference between the two societies, which was on that very point. The old society proposes to infringe on the old Ely Association's ground, without consulting the Ely Association. If what Mr. Evans says is correct it has been poaching there for 20 years. The sooner, therefore, that it puts itself in a more correct position the better.—Yours etc.,

H. DRAKE.

Ufford Rectory, Woodbridge, Suffolk.

Dr. David, the Bishop of the Suffolk Diocese, has decided that the name of the new society shall be 'The Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocesan Association of Ringers.'

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.*PRESTON BRANCH.

A very successful meeting was held at Penwortham on May 13th, about 50 members being present. The bells were raised shortly after 3, and well utilised till 5 p.m. An adjournment was then made to the old school, where tea had been kindly provided by the Vicar and local ringers. Unfortunately a prior engagement prevented the Vicar from attending, but he sent his good wishes for the success of the meeting. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the providers of such a bountiful tea; also to the ladies who waited at the tables.—Mr. J. R. Taylor suitably responded, on behalf of the authorities of Penwortham Church, but the ladies smilingly declined to make a speech.

After the removal of the cloth, the business meeting was held, and a vote of condolence was accorded to the widow and family of the late Mr. John Bateman, members present standing in silence.—Two new members were elected, and the question of a peal book for the branch was left over till the next meeting.

The proceedings closed with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, and the tower was again visited for further ringing. In addition to members of the Preston branch visitors were present from Blackburn, Churchkirk, Standish and Parbold. The methods rung during the day were London Surprise, Woodbine, Oxford and Kent and Bob Minor.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*A 'SURPRISE' MEETING.

A Surprise meeting was held at Sevenoaks on Saturday, May 20th, and was attended by about a dozen enthusiasts, three hailing from Tunbridge Wells, one from Mersham, and the remainder from the London area. The bells were set going about 3.30 p.m., to Superlative, which was successfully brought home. Flushed by success, London was tackled, and in spite of one or two abortive efforts two plain courses were rung. Then followed a course of Cambridge and an excellent course of Superlative. During a halt for tea, skeleton courses of Bristol were feverishly consulted. Returning to the tower, strenuous efforts were made to ring a course to complete the quartet, but without success. In spite of this disappointment a very pleasant and instructive afternoon was spent, and it is hoped that it may be the precursor of others. It is proposed to hold another similar meeting at Edenbridge, in July, of which due notice will be given in 'The Ringing World.'

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. Sam Thomas has resigned the hon. secretaryship of the Sheffield District and Old East Derbyshire Amalgamated Society, and the duties have been undertaken by the Rev. J. F. Amies, of the Clergy House, Chesterfield.

Mr. Herbert Holmes, of Market Deeping, scored his first peal on May 6th, when he rang a working bell to ten different methods. Has a 'first pealer' ever done this before?

A UNIQUE PERFORMANCE.

What must be a unique performance was set up at Kelvedon, Essex, on Saturday. A peal of Minor was rung to celebrate the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, the same band, with the exception of Mr. A. Saunders, having rung a peal of Minor on the same bells for the silver wedding 25 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott reside in the house which was the birthplace of the late Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, and here, after the peal last week, they entertained the band, from whom they received hearty congratulations.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

MEETING AT CHISWICK.

On Saturday, May 20th, the Southern District of the London County Association held a meeting at the Parish Church of St. Nicholas, Chiswick. The ringers hailed from Camberwell, Chertsey, Fulham, Chelsea, Putney, Kensington, Marlow, Slough, Willesden, Walton-on-Thames, etc. The bells were ringing merrily between the hours of 4 and 7.30 to Graudsire Triples, Stedman Triples, Double Norwich Court Bob Major, Treble Bob Major, and Cambridge Surprise Major. The 'go' of the bells was pronounced to be excellent.

Tea was taken in the Parish Hall arranged by Mr. Churchwarden Thurley. The Master of the Association (Mr. T. H. Taffender) occupied the chair, supported by the acting honorary secretary (Mr. H. Mance), Mr. John Carter, and other well known ringers.

Councillor Sidney Godfrey, in according a hearty welcome to the ringers, said that Chiswick was honoured by the visit of such experts in the ringing world. He deplored the ignorance of the general public in the art of campanology and the lack of interest in so excellent a physical and mental exercise. He hoped that the local ringers would emulate the enthusiasm and the expertness shown that afternoon, and that when next the Association visited Chiswick they would find the hall filled with local talent.

After the initiation of new members, arrangements were made for further meetings of the Association during the year. — A vote of thanks was heartily accorded the Vicar of Chiswick for the use of the bells, and Mr. Sidney Godfrey for the arrangements made. Among the ringers who rang during the afternoon were Miss Shorter and Mrs. Hessey. The gathering was a great success.

DEATH OF A TONBRIDGE RINGER.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. George H. Stonestreet, who passed away on the 28th ult., at the age of 54. He had been a member of the Tonbridge Parish Church band for upwards of 30 years. During this long period he rarely missed an attendance for Sunday services, and was one of the most enthusiastic of ringers. He had been ill for about three months suffering from a painful malady, which he bore with courage and fortitude, and much sympathy is felt with Mrs. Stonestreet and her daughter in their bereavement.

Mr. Stonestreet was senior partner in the firm of Stonestreet and Sons, printers and stationers, and, although a busy man, he interested himself in various local institutions. As an Oddfellow, at the time of his death he was N.G. of 'The Town of Tonbridge' Lodge (having previously passed through the chairs some years ago). He had been for many years connected with the Juvenile Oddfellows, succeeding his father as secretary about 15 years ago. During the war he acted as secretary of the female branch, and for 10 years he served as honorary secretary for the Tonbridge Friendly Societies' Association for Medical Benefit.

Mr. Stonestreet had represented Oddfellowship on several town committees, including the War Memorial Committee and the Housing Bonds Committee. He also took part in the formal opening of the first local municipal houses.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, May 3rd, the first portion of the service being held in Tonbridge Parish Church and was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Stuart H. Clark), assisted by the Rev. S. Hutchinson. The bells were rung half-muffled as the funeral cortege was approaching the church by Messrs. Charles Cooke, John Chivers (aged 88), T. Groombridge, senr., F. Groombridge, W. J. Wolfe, W. Latter, W. Steed and Jas. Draper, and a course of Graudsire Triples on handbells was rung at the graveside by T. Groombridge, senr., 1-2, F. Groombridge 3-4, W. Latter 5-6 and W. Steed 7-8. During the evening a peal of Graudsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled, as recorded elsewhere.

Mr. Stonestreet had rung a considerable number of peals in the Standard methods but no record of these is available. He will be sadly missed in the tower amongst the bells he loved so well, and where his good striking, quiet sense of humour and happy disposition made him a general favourite.

We also find first peals of Doubles 22, Minor 65, Triples 35, Major 91, Caters 67, Royal 38, Cinques 14, and Maximus 12. Of particular methods 24 are recorded as ringing their first peal 'in the method' in Doubles, 133 in different numbers of methods of Minor, 151 in different Triple methods, 580 in Major methods, 73 Caters, 86 Royal, 27 Cinques, and 39 Maximus, making a total of 1,113. First in the method inside numbered 85.

Of new methods we find Yorkshire Surprise Royal, Plain and Medium Bob Royal on handbells, Gonville Variation of Treble Bob (on handbells), Granta Variation (on tower bells) besides a peal of Minor in 18 methods, and one in 24 (!) methods; also a peal of Stedman Caters on handbells by five brothers. The occasions of peals were much as usual, one novelty being a peal for the Festival (sic) of Advent.

The conductors of five peals and upwards are shown in the following list. Figures in brackets show the number of handbell peals conducted: 42 peals A. H. Pulling (32); 35 peals, G. H. Cross (3); 32 peals, W. Pye; 31 peals, C. F. Bailey (11); 27 peals, W. H. J. Hooton (20); 25 peals, R. Sperring; 23 peals, E. Morris; 22 peals, G. Williams; 21 peals, F. Bennett; 20 peals, R. White.

There were also 34 conductors of four peals, 49 of three peals, 71 of two peals, and 227 of one peal. All the band took part in conducting two peals one of Minor and one of Doubles; one peal of Doubles had two conductors; one peal of Grandsire Triples was rung non-conducted, and one peal of Stedman Triples was published without the conductor's name.

Six peals of above 7,000 changes were rung; a peal of 10,043 Grandsire Caters by the Oxford Diocesan Guild, 8,336 College Single Major by the Yorkshire Association, 7,488 Plain Bob Major by the Central Northants Association, 7,360 Treble Bob Major by the Suffolk County Association, 7,104 Treble Bob Major by the Norwich and Ipswich Association, and 7,011 Stedman Caters by the Middlesex Association.

Of the 178 peals of Treble Bob Major on tower bells, 138 were rung in the Kent Variation 33 in the Oxford Variation other variations being mentioned in the footnotes to the Analysis. Of the handbell peals 6 were in the Kent and 2 in the Oxford Variation.

The peals rung month by month in 1920 and 1921 are shown below:

MINOR METHODS.

At the Council meeting in 1921, it was decided that the names claimed for all unnamed Minor methods in the Collection should be sent to the Librarian within six months, after which the Analysis Committee should proceed to name the remainder.

The Librarian's list which we have received, however goes beyond the six months, which expired on November 17th, 1921. Names were accepted for Nos. 20, 21, 27 Plain methods, and No. 33 Third's Place Delight at dates between December 19th, 1921, and January 31st, 1922. Of these No. 21 has long been known as Cumberland, and No. 27 is called in both 'the Clavis' and 'Shipway,' Stedman Slow Course, the name which is given in the Collection to No. 9. The Collection differs also in several other cases from Monk's Art of Ringing, 'the Clavis' and 'Shipway.' Possibly the compilers may have had some earlier source of information which has not come to us; but if not, the principle of priority of use would seem to settle the matter. These points are, however, outside the limits of the reference to the Analysis Committee, but we feel that this real difficulty should be removed.

In the hope that the whole subject may soon be taken in hand, so that an end may be put to the state of chaos which exists in the nomenclature of Minor methods, we leave these names alone and append a schedule showing the names which we have given to the rest of the unnamed methods.

We are in possession of a very large amount of research work concerning nomenclature, which has been done principally by a member of our Committee, and we should be ready to undertake this task if the Council so desires. In that case we should be governed by the principle of priority, and the advisability of retaining as much as possible, consistent with our present definitions, all that has been in use in the past.

It will be seen that the Committee, in giving new names, have given different classes of names, e.g., flowers, etc., to different classes of methods.

The Committee feel strongly that some central authority should be appointed to control nomenclature in the future and so prevent difficulties arising which may extend beyond Minor methods.

BRISTOL RINGER'S LOSS.

Many ringers in various parts of the country will hear with feeling of deep regret of the loss sustained by Mr. Jesse B. Tyler, in the death of his wife, Amy Elizabeth, at the age of 42, the sad event taking place on Thursday, May 18th. Mrs. Tyler had not been really well for some considerable time, but it was only seven weeks ago that the illness took a serious turn, and the doctor's verdict, 'rapid consumption,' was comparatively soon followed by the inevitable end. The deceased was interred in the family grave at Thornbury, Glos., on Monday, May 22nd, and among the many floral tokens was a wreath from the Bristol Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association, who, at their meeting on Saturday last, passed a vote of condolence with Mr. Tyler.

NEW RING OF SIX IN KENT.

OPENING OF BELLS AT SMARDEN.

The 'old-fashioned world-worn village,' as Smarden is aptly described by a writer on the history of Kent, was the scene of great rejoicing on Thursday evening, May 11th, when the new ring of six bells were dedicated by the Rector (the Rev. H. L. Evans), assisted by clergy from the neighbouring parishes.

Interest in the matter was evidenced by the goodly number of parishioners gathered together in the 'barn of Kent,' as the church is called on account of the roof being built in one wide span. However, thoughts that the roof might fall in never entered the hearts of the villagers gathered there, as the sweet tone of the restored bells, heard in rounds, rung by the local ringers, fell upon their ears after the dedication. After this the bells were given up to change ringing, and a well-struck 720 of Kent Treble Bob was brought round by Louis Newman 1, Henry Castle 2, Chas. H. Sone 3, Frederick S. Macey (conductor) 4, Harry Parkes 5, Thos. E. Sone 6. Touches in various methods were rung by visiting ringers until nine o'clock, when the bells were lowered in peal by the local men.

The new bells, which form a memorial for those from the village who fell in the war, are the outcome of a fund started many years ago to rehange the old five—a scheme which was suspended owing to the war. However, all things come to those who wait, and Smarden now possesses a peal of bells worthy of the grand old church in which they hang.

The work of recasting has been admirably carried out by Mr. A. Bowell of Ipswich, who, from the old heavy peal of five (tenor 20½ cwt.), has produced a fine ring of six, as follows: Treble, 6 cwt. 0 qr. 5 lb.; 2, 6 cwt. 2 qr. 0 lb.; 3, 7 cwt. 2 qr. 19 lb.; 4, 9 cwt. 3 qr. 21 lb.; 5, 13 cwt. 1 qr. 21 lb.; tenor, 18 cwt. 1 qr. 21 lb. in E. the total weight being 3 ton 3 cwt. 3 lb.

Ringers, one and all, were unanimous in their opinion that the 'go' is excellent, and that the tone of the bells far exceeded all expectations.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE COUNCIL.

In addition to the matters specifically mentioned in the Central Council's agenda, there are one or two things which we hope will come before the meeting next Tuesday at Lincoln. One is the question of the official communication of the Council's resolutions to the affiliated bodies, when those resolutions are outside the purely private affairs of the central body. We have, on previous occasions, pointed out that although the Council may pass resolutions of importance to the Exercise, there is nothing in the rules or constitution which makes it necessary for the Council to inform the affiliated societies of any action taken. This is a weak link in the chain, and certainly detracts from the authority of the Council. It is true that in many cases representatives are called upon to report to their associations, but when an association happens—as does happen with some of them every year—not to have a representative present, there is no means of securing that a decision of the Council shall be transmitted to the affiliated body. Whether this defect in the machinery can be remedied without coming within the interpretation of an alteration of rules, of which one month's notice must be given, we do not know; but if it does, the recommendation of the Standing Committee, or an expression of opinion from the meeting, would overcome the difficulty for this year, and the matter could be more formally regulated by due notice next year. In any event, common sense dictates that the present rather absurd position should be altered.

Another matter which we hope will come up for decision is the question of the publication of the Plain Major methods. This work, which would be of great interest and use to the Exercise, has been delayed by the war and the subsequent high cost of printing; but if it is now found that the collection cannot be published as a whole, we commend to the Council our suggestion made long ago, that it might with advantage be published on the instalment plan, thus enabling the outlay on one section to be largely recovered before the next is embarked upon. At any rate, we hope something may be done, not only because it would be primarily in the interests of ringing, but also because it is a great pity that so much valuable work should be pigeon-holed and the labours of the Committee blanketed.

There is one other action which we should like to see taken by the Council. A great deal of trouble was taken to collect a list of all the ringers who fell in the war. That list, we presume, is now among the archives of the Council. We should like to see a resolution passed to have those names, with other particulars available, written on parchment, so that they may occupy an honoured place in the new library.

BELLS! BELLS! BELLS!

Let the Music of the Bells celebrate Peace.

Messrs. CHARLES CARR, Ltd.

The OLD-ESTABLISHED firm of Bellfounders, are now prepared to execute orders for all kinds of Bells, singly or in rings. Their foundry is equipped with every modern appliance for the manufacture of Bells of any size, weight or note, all their Bells being moulded and cast on scientific principles; while their knowledge of the 'Chemistry of Metals' enables them to produce that fine quality of Tone so much desired by all lovers of Bell Music.

In their finishing and fitting shops they have installed the most 'up-to-date' Tools and Machinery for the making of Bell Frames and Fittings, so that they are in a position to carry out the complete installation of Peals of Bells for Churches, or Sets of Chimes for Public Clocks, etc.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO THE RECASTING AND REHANGING OF EXISTING PEALS.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM.

A RING OF TWELVE FOR ASTON?

The spring meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held at Aston on Saturday week, and, as usual, when held at this old familiar tower, was well attended.

Aston! To Birmingham ringers—and especially to those who were young and are now of a certain age—the very name conjures up memories of doughty deeds of long ago; long peals (and short ones!) freak peals (as Stedman Major), and scores and scores of ordinary peals of all kinds, good, bad and indifferent, but mostly good, and mostly Stedman Caters.

Here it was that the Holt Society was formed in 1879, mainly owing to the efforts of Mr. Wm. Kent, and flourished exceedingly, to the no small concern of its ancient contemporary, the St. Martin's Guild. Here it was that the great Henry Johnson rang most of his peals, and here he now sleeps his last sleep, as also does Thomas Reynolds of blessed memory.

We have on previous occasions described the magnificent old Gothic church, and its stately Elizabethan neighbour Aston Hall, which was besieged by the Parliamentary forces in the days of Charles the First, and surrendered after a gallant defence.

Fortunately the old hall, and about 50 acres of the surrounding park, were acquired by the Corporation of Birmingham, and thus saved for all time from the depredations of the jerry builder who has already done untold damage to what, at one time, was claimed to be one of the prettiest villages in the country.

The following was written of Aston by the Rev. A. Cleveland Cox, of Baltimore, U.S.A. (afterwards Bishop of New York), who visited it in 1851 (An Easter Monday ramble took Mr. Cox and his friend to Aston):—'We came suddenly in sight of the old church, its beautiful spire and gables harmonising with the surrounding view, and telling a silent story of long past years. Beyond it, a majestic avenue of elms disclosed at its extremity a mansion of Elizabethan architecture and date, not the less revered from the fact that Charles the First slept in it just before Edgehill fight. The rooks were chattering in its venerable trees, which seemed to divide their predilections equally with the steeple. Had I challenged my friend to show me a genuine Roger-de-Coverley picture in real life, as the entertainment of my holiday, I must have admitted myself satisfied with the scene at Aston. Not only did the old hall, and the church, in all particulars, answer to such a demand; not only did a river run by the churchyard; not only were there fields beyond, with cattle grazing, corn sprouting, and hedges looking freshly green; but when I entered the churchyard gate, lo! a rustic party, in holiday trim, were hanging about the old porch, awaiting the reappearance of a bridal train, which had just gone in. It wanted but the old Knight himself and his friend the Spectator, to make the whole scene worthy of the seventeenth century.'

The scene thus depicted seems very far off when we think of this noisy, bustling corner of old Aston to-day, with its innumerable tram-cars, and the huge football crowds which fill it on so many Saturday afternoons (the ground of the famous Aston Villa Club is within a stone's-throw of the church). Yet it presented just such a picture as the writer describes within the memory of many living there to-day.

The bells are a peal of ten and somehow seem to have lost the charm they once possessed. Indeed two of them are cracked, and when this was pointed out to Mr. Phillips, one of the churchwardens, together with the fact that there was room for a really good peal of twelve, he became quite interested, and it is not altogether impossible that, in the not too distant future Aston may be the proud possessor of a ring of twelve. Funds are already being collected for repairing the tower and spire, and if the additional money can be raised for the bells, the job might be done at the same time. Who knows?

Through the generosity of the Vicar and wardens tea was provided in the Vicarage rooms, followed by the business meeting, under the chairmanship of the Presiding Ringing Master, Mr. Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A. An apology from Mr. Albert Walker having been read, and routine business disposed of, the Chairman proposed hearty thanks to the Vicar for the use of his bells, and to the wardens, Messrs. Phillips and Poole, for so kindly entertaining them. Mr. Pritchett reminded them that last year they invited the Guild to make the visit an annual one, and they had taken them at their word. So long as they received such a cordial welcome they would continue to come unless they received an intimation to the contrary. He also wished to thank Mrs. Phillips and the other ladies for their kind attention at table.

Mr. Albert Parsons seconded. He added he had come early that afternoon for the express purpose of looking through the old church, and was delighted with the grand interior, particularly the chancel and the Erdington chapel, which were full of historical monuments of great beauty.—Needless to add, the resolution was carried with acclamation.

The Vicar, the Rev. Canon W. J. Cole, M.A., in reply, alluding to Mr. Pritchett's remarks as to the beauties of Aston 100 years ago, said he did not wish it to be like that to-day. He thought it was far more beautiful now than it could possibly have been then. The teeming people were more interesting to him, and he would rather have it as it is than the sleepy old village of 100 years ago.

The writer made a mental note that this was the first time he had ever heard anyone prefer present-day Aston to the Aston described above by the Rev. Cleveland Cox. Ugh!

Mr. Phillips said they were grateful for the vote of thanks, but it was they who were honoured by the presence of the Guild. He loved the music of the bells, but the secretary had just told him that it was not as good as it might be, and also that a full peal comprised twelve bells. He did not want Aston to be behind other churches in this respect, and he would see what could be done to get a full peal for their old tower (loud cheers).—Mr. Poole also suitably responded.

Later the tower was revisited, while a good touch of Stedman Cinques was rung on handbells, by P. O. Laffin 1—2, A. Norman 3—4, G. F. Swann 5—6, J. E. Groves 7—8, W. Kent 9—10, M. J. Morris 11—12.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Boddmere, if the necessary permission be granted. A. P. S.

BARNSELY & DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

A HINT TO THE CLERGY.

A monthly meeting of this Association was held at Sandal Magna on Saturday, May 13th, and a large company gathered to ring on this renowned peal of six bells, cast by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank in 1812. Wakefield, Barnsley, Crofton, Wath, Wragby Pontefract, Felkirk, Selby, Badsworth, Earlsheaton and Royston were represented.

A substantial tea was provided by the local company, and Mr. Wm. Reyner (President) occupied the chair at the meeting. Some interesting discussions took place, after which the President introduced the Vicar (the Rev. A. Audley Parry), and said how important it was for the work of the church, that both ringers and clergy should meet together as church workers, in common with all other bodies connected with the church. In times past the ringers, in many cases, were almost a nonentity, but he was pleased to say the clergy and church officials were now taking a more lively interest in their work, and he thought this was in a great measure due to the efforts of the various ringers' associations. He, in common with all true campanologists, regretted the fact that many good peals of bells hung silent in the steeple. This was a deplorable fact, and ought to be seriously considered by all associations. He thought, too, that the rural deans, in their usual visitations, should make inquiry into both bells and ringers, and where dissatisfaction or a dormant peal was found to exist, a report should be made to the proper authority. The fault did not always lay in the condition of the bells, but sometimes in some unpleasant controversy which existed between the ringers and the incumbent, or in some other causes which ought to be ascertained. He also suggested that all clergy who were intent on providing recreations and amusement for young men, should endeavour to introduce the art amongst them, as both the physical and mental exercises in campanology were equal to any, and far superior to some of the recreations of the present day. This effort would probably stimulate and interest some young men and eventually they would not only be included in the army of church workers, but perhaps become adepts in the art and science of change ringing.

The Vicar gave the company a hearty welcome to the parish, and hoped they would be delighted with their visit. They and all ringers were professors of a noble art, and one full of reminiscences from times immemorial. He thought that to Chiusa one would have to look for the real origin of bells, but their various forms and uses were so wrapt up in antiquity that it was almost impossible to trace their origin. To bells could be attributed the responsibility for the beautiful towers and steeples in connection with places of worship, both in this country and also on the Continent. If the history of bells could only be correctly written, they could give the whole history of Europe. Ringers loved their bells, and where they could call thousands to places of worship, the clergy could only reach the members from the pulpit. Ringers were true ministers of God, and reminded people of their bounden duty. The various peals gave both joy and pleasure to both ringers and listeners, and served a good and holy purpose. When a mournful peal was rung, or a passing bell was tolled, it reminded them all that they too must sooner or later pay the debt of nature and pass away to the great beyond.

The Vicar was heartily thanked for his interesting and inspiring address, and after a vote of thanks to him and the ladies who served the tea, a very interesting meeting terminated, and the bells kept going again until 9 p.m.

It was decided to hold the next monthly meeting at Monk Bretton, near Barnsley, on Saturday, June 10th.

HOUSLOW.—At St. Paul's Church, on April 30th for evening service, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples, in 42 mins.: F. Goddard 1, A. Beckensale 2, C. Tricker 3, J. Shave 4, T. Beadle 5, G. Spencer (conductor) 6, A. Harding 7, H. Brooks 8.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.*LICHESTER DEANERY BRANCH.

The Lichester Deanery Branch paid a visit to Yeovil for their meeting on May 15th, and there was a large attendance of ringers from the towers of Norton-sub-Hamdon, Stoke-sub-Hamdon, Martock, Ilminster, Langport, Bridgwater, and Yeovil Parish Churches.

During the afternoon touches of Grandsire Triples and Caters and Stedman Triples were rung on the very fine peal of ten bells in the Parish Church tower, under the direction of the Ringing Master, Mr. Taylor, of Ilminster.

The usual service was held in the Parish Church in the afternoon, and this was conducted by the Rev. G. W. Saunders, Vicar of Martock, the president of the Guild, and the singing was led by the organ, played by Mr. F. G. Risdon, organist and choirmaster.

The Rev. G. W. Saunders gave a most interesting address, in which he gave details of the story of Yeovil bells, the history of which goes back to 1432. Tea followed in St. John's Schools, at which the Rev. G. W. Saunders presided. Included in the company was the Vicar of Stoke-sub-Hamdon (the Rev. H. Jocelyn Davies), the churchwardens of Yeovil Parish Church (Messrs. W. E. Tucker and J. Goodchild), and the branch secretary (Mr. F. Farrant, Martock). An excellent tea was served by Mrs. J. Goodchild, Mrs. H. Y. Standring, Mrs. Cridge, and Mrs. Denslow.

The usual business meeting followed.—The President said that the decision of the Association to come to Yeovil had been justified by the excellent arrangements made for their reception, and he thanked the ladies who had provided such an excellent tea for them. He had had a note from the Vicar regretting that owing to a previous engagement he was unable to be present.—Several names were presented for membership and accepted, and it was decided that the next quarterly meeting be held at Huish Episcopi.

Much interest was taken in two rolls of parochial accounts of the time of Queen Elizabeth, shown by the churchwardens. The accounts contain many entries for the care and repair of the bells and one of them (1587) recorded the ringing of the bells when 'the Queen's Majesty (Elizabeth) began the twentieth yere of her moste happie veigne.' The original contract, signed in 1728 by Thomas Bilbie and the churchwardens for the re-casting of the tenor bell in that year was also closely examined.

During the evening the bells were kept going in various methods by the Yeovil ringers and their visitors.

GREAT BADDOW BELLS.*SUGGESTED RECASTING OF AN ESSEX RING.

At the meeting of the South-Eastern District of the Essex Association, at Great Baddow, on May 20th, a suggestion that the bells should be recast was put forward, and the Vicar expressed the hope that it might be taken in hand at an early date.

The meeting began with a service in the Parish Church, the Association special form being used. The Rev. C. Neill, M.A., Vicar, officiated. The address was given by the Rev. F. A. Rough-ton, M.A., Vicar of Galleywood. Tea and a meeting followed in the Parish Room. Mr. W. Lincoln, District Master presided, supported by the Vicar, Messrs. F. Howard and F. Smyth-Tyrell (churchwardens), Mr. C. H. Howard, J.P., Master of the Association, Mr. P. Timson, district secretary, and thirty members from Rettendon, Broomfield, Sandon, Chelmsford, Maldon, Fryerning, Writtle, Braintree, and Great Baddow.

The Master thanked the Vicar for the excellent tea, and the Vicar of Galleywood for his helpful address. He also called attention to the unmusical tone of the bells, and expressed the hope that the Church authorities would consider the question of recasting the bells—a much-needed improvement. Great Baddow he said, was unique in that it possessed the most musical ring of bells for its weight in the diocese at the daughter church at Galleywood, and the peal at the Parish Church was the most unmusical.

The Vicar, replying, said he knew the bells needed re-casting and putting thoroughly in tune and he hoped the matter would be taken up by the parishioners at an early date, so that they might have a peal of bells worthy of their fine old parish church.

The Master said Great Baddow was a renowned ringing centre early in the nineteenth century. The peal of Bob Major 10,080 rung there on March 7th, 1818, still held the record as the longest length rung in that method in the county.

Ringings continued during the evening, Miss A. E. Waldoek, of Maldon, taking part in touches of Bob and Treble Bob Major, her first attempt on eight bells.

The next meeting was fixed for Fryerning in September.

Members of the North-Eastern Division had a very successful meeting at Great Tey on Saturday, May 27th, 35 members, representing 15 towers, being present. Touches of Stedman, Double Norwich, Cambridge, Superlative, and other methods, were rung.

After tea, presided over by the Master Mr. W. J. Nevard, ten new members were elected, and after discussion, Goldhanger was the place in favour for the next meeting.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Last Sunday was the anniversary of the first peal of Stedman Caters, which was rung at St. John's, Horsley Down, by the College Youths on May 28th, 1787. The tablet recording this historical performance adds this quaint comment, 'May this peal transmit their (the ringers') names to posterity with that of the ingenious Mr. W. Jones, on whose abilities his inimitable commentaries so happily concludes with "Here the Cynic and the Panegyrist stop" and join in eulogiums to such distinguished merits.'

Sunday was also the tenth anniversary of the Bristol Surprise record, 15,264, conducted by Mr. W. Pye at Hornchurch in 9 hrs. 40 mins.; and the anniversary of the first Surprise peal rung out of England, Superlative, at Bray, Ireland, in 1901, which the Editor of 'The Ringing World' had the privilege of conducting.

On the following day, the only peal yet rung on the sea was conducted by Mr. W. Short on s.s. Cambria, and the first Surprise peal in Wales, New Cambridge, was rung at Bangor by members of the same party.

The first peal of New Cumberland Surprise was rung at Burton on May 31st, 1886, and on June 1st, 1912, the 14,931 Stedman Caters on handbells was rung at Guildford.

On June 3rd, 1773, the first twelve-bell peal was rung in Birmingham—a peal of Grandsire Cinques. There have been a good many twelve bell peals rung in the famous Bull Ring since then and when the 150th anniversary falls next year, doubtless the first performance will be fittingly celebrated.

Next Sunday is an interesting anniversary for the bells of Bow, Cheapside, for exactly 160 years ago, viz., on June 4th, 1762, the new peal of ten bells by Lester and Pack, were rung for the first time.

Thirty years ago next Tuesday was rung the celebrated 16,698 of Oxford Treble Bob Major at Debenham, in 10 hours 32 mins., and on the 8th June, 1906, the 16,800 of Oxford Treble Bob was rung at Mottram in 9 hours 40 mins.

The death has occurred of Mr. W. J. Sedgeley, of King's Lynn who was for many years hon. secretary of the King's Lynn Branch of the Norwich Diocesan Association. An 'in memoriam' touch of 1,680 Kent Treble Bob Minor was rung at St. Faith's Church, Gaywood.

The many friends of Mr. J. Frank Smallwood, of Birmingham, will learn with regret that he has been in Queen's Hospital suffering from a very painful malady. He is now, happily, slowly mending, and has been able to leave the institution.

Mr. John Carter has left London for his summer sojourn in the Isle of Man.

Those who ring peals during Whitsuntide are requested to post off their reports at once so that they may reach us by Tuesday morning.

Messrs. W. Aggett and Sons, of Chagford, have orders for the restoration of the peals of bells at Coombe-in-Teignhead, Landulph, Whitechurch, Ashburton and Slapton, near Kingsbridge (Devon), etc.

We are asked to state that the peal of Stedman Triples at St. Stephen's, Clapham Park, on Easter Monday was Carter's O Bob One-Part.

DEATH OF MR. SAMUEL HOW.

A VETERAN COLLEGE YOUTH.

The veteran member of the College Youths, Mr. Samuel How, passed away on May 24th, and was buried at Fulham Cemetery, Mortlake, on Saturday, May 27th. The funeral service was conducted by an assistant priest of All Saints' Church, where Mr. How had, for about 25 years, rung twice a day for Divine service.

Mr. How was born at King's Kerswell, Devon, on February 19th, 1832, and there it was he learned to ring the bells up in peal. He also used to ring at St. Mary's Church, Torquay, his uncles also being ringers. He remembered the College Youths visiting Exeter, at the invitation of Mr. Troyte, when the British Association met there in 1869. In those days very little change ringing was done in the Western county, and after hearing a faultless 504 Stedman Triples, rung at St. Sidwell's Church, probably the first scientific ringing the Devon men had heard, Mr. How's uncle critically remarked that they 'ought not to call themselves ringers any more.'

Mr. How had taken part in 65 peals, all rung on the tenor. His first being Grandsire Triples at St. Mary the Virgin's, Putney, and his last at All Saints', Isleworth, both called by Mr. C. F. Winney. The deceased, who was in his younger days a very strong man, had rung peals with many of the old school of College Youths. He worked very hard, and brought up a large family, and with his wife, lived to celebrate his golden wedding. He was a man always devoted to duty and was a delightful company.

Mr. George Roberts and Mr. Robert Burgess were present at the funeral, and Messrs. C. F. Winney, W. T. Cockerill, H. R. Pasmore and T. Taffender, junr., rang, over the open grave, three whole-pulls in rounds with a pause between, and afterwards a course of Stedman Triples.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.

AGENDA, 1922.

1. Minutes of the last Meeting.
  2. Apologies for Absence.
  3. Statement of Accounts and of Sale of Publications.
  4. Election of Honorary Members.
  5. Presentation of new Members to the President.
  6. To receive and discuss the Reports of the following Committees, viz.:—
    - (a) Peal Collection.
    - (b) Literature and Press.
    - (c) Legitimate Methods.
    - (d) Peals' Analysis.
    - (e) Towers and Belfries.
    - (f) Records.
  7. That it is desirable to establish in the area of each Ringing Association a Bell Restoration Fund, from which grants may be made for the restoration of any rings of bells within the area when local funds are insufficient to meet the cost.
  8. To call attention to a point in connection with Holt's peals of Grandsire Triples.
  9. That the Council draw up a card of instructions on the Care and Use of Bells suitable for hanging in a Tower.
  10. That every Tower should be officially affiliated to some one Society, and only one.
  11. That the Council consider the advisability and practicability of proving and recording all new compositions, before being rung or published.
  12. To move that a Committee be appointed in connection with the new exhibit upon Campanology, at the Science Museum, South Kensington.
  13. To fix the place of next year's meeting.
  14. Other business, if any.

REPORT OF TOWERS AND BELFRIES COMMITTEE.

During the year 1921-22 the members of your committee have been consulted individually with regard to schemes of rehanging, etc., and advice has been given in some half-dozen cases.

At the end of 1921 your committee got into touch with the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings, and the members have attended four conferences with that society. As a result a statement has been drawn up setting out the points upon which your committee and the society are agreed in connection with the hanging of bells in old church towers. It is proposed that this document, after final revision, shall be printed and circulated to the ecclesiastical authorities concerned, including the Diocesan Advisory Committees, which have been recently set up. The society suggest that the expense of printing and circulation should be shared by the two parties to the conferences, and your committee ask for authority to contribute a sum not exceeding five pounds towards this cost.

For the purpose of these conferences your committee co-opted the Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn, and they request the Council to confirm this co-option to the committee.

17th May, 1922.

EDWIN H. LEWIS.

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I understand from Mr. F. W. Stokes of Blankney, Lincoln, that the Lincoln Diocesan Guild have kindly arranged to invite the representatives to tea, after the meeting on Whit Tuesday. This will probably be given at the White Hart Hotel, which, I understand, is near the Cathedral, and which I propose making my headquarters over the week-end, for the benefit of those who wish to get into touch with me or each other.

In regard to local arrangements, I am informed that the two Lincoln members of the Guild, Mr. G. Chester and Mr. C. W. P. Olifton, have kindly volunteered to deal with any applications for towers for ringing. The former's address is No. 61, Carline Road, Lincoln.

Mr. J. W. Seamer, of 9, St. Augustine's Avenue, Grimsby, is in touch with the Reception Committee. He states that ringing could be arranged for Whit Monday at both the eight-bell towers at Grimsby, and possibly at Louth, where there is a heavy ring of eight.—Yours faithfully,

E. ALEX. YOUNG.

Sir,—The bells of St. Peter-at-Arches (8) in this city (near the Stonebow) will be available for the convenience of members of the Central Council on Whit Monday, from 8.30 to 9 p.m. and on the Tuesday from 6.30 p.m. to 8 p.m., and from 8.20 p.m. to 9 p.m., the interval being necessary because of a service.

Our ringing times on Sunday are from 10.30 to 11 in the morning, and from 5.45 to 6.30 in the evening. The methods rung are Grandsire, Stedman and Bob Major, and, if we have sufficient visitors, Treble Bob and Double Norwich.—Yours, etc.

CHARLES MCGUINNESS.

NOTICE OF LONG PEAL.

FORTHCOMING ATTEMPT ON THE TREBLE BOB RECORD.

On Whit Saturday, June 10th, 1922, eight members of the Lancashire Association will start for Mr. Gabriel Lindoff's 18,240 of Kent Treble Bob Major at the Parish Church, Mottram-in-Longdendale, Cheshire, starting at 8 a.m.

NEW BELLS AT BROUGHTON.

STAFFS PEAL OPENED.

A new peal of eight bells has been installed at Broughton, Staffs, and has been dedicated by the Bishop of Lichfield. By the munificence of Mr. John Hall, the old six has been recast and two larger bells added, making a magnificent octave, with a tenor of 15½ cwt. in F. The bells are hung in a new H frame on steel girders, and swing on ball bearings. The roof of the tower has been raised so that the bells can be heard to the best advantage. The whole of the work has been carried out by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., who are to be congratulated upon the splendid execution of the task entrusted to them.

On each of the six smaller bells is inscribed: 'Pietatis ergo sr b Broughton Barti, 1720—Recast, 1922,' and on the seventh '1922,' while the tenor bell bears the following record: 'The six smallest bells recast and two larger bells added by John Hall 1922.'

The dedication ceremony was attended by a large number of people from the parish and surrounding district, and in addition to the Bishop of Lichfield, the Rev. W. S. Robinson (Vicar of the parish) and the Rev. J. Richards (Rector of Ashley) were present.

The dedication touch consisted of 168 Grandsire Triples, conducted by Mr. W. Weatherby, of Market Drayton, the ringers being R. T. Holding 1, J. H. Riding 2, H. Holding 3, R. Langford 4, V. R. Rodenhurst 5, W. Saunders 6, W. Weatherby 7, J. L. Hayward 8. Touches of Stedman Triples and Bob Major followed, Mr. R. T. Holding conducting the second touch of Bob Major, and the following ringers taking part: A. Hickman 1, J. H. Riding 2, H. Holding 3, R. Langford 4, V. R. Rodenhurst 5, W. Saunders 6, W. Weatherby 7, R. T. Holding 8. Additional touches of Grandsire and Stedman were also rung, the following ringers taking part, in addition to those named, Messrs. P. Taylor and J. Oldham (Loughborough), T. Tudor and A. Lawton.

The general opinion of the ringers who attended the dedication was one of unstinted praise of the fine tone of the bells and of the excellent finish of the workmanship.

On Saturday, May 13th, a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung.

NEW METHODS.

To the Editor.

Sir,—Mr. Pyc has evidently made statements which he cannot substantiate. In a previous letter he claimed to have called peals of Bristol with the 6th 12 courses at home. This week he reduces it to one peal, six leads short of the extent.

I am pleased to see Mr. Pyc recognises the strength of the Whitley Bay band, with whom I rang my peals of Bristol. It might interest him to know that this band from treble to tenor say that the back work of Bristol is monotonous.

As regards the musical qualities of Erin, Forward, etc., Erin is more musical than Stedman; Forward is more musical than Treble Bob. Dublin Complex is akin to Bristol for music, but is spoiled by its lengthening lead. Superlative is best left alone, both double and single. It says little for Mr. Pyc's opinion of a musical method, after praising it in the way he did in a previous letter. Duffield was composed to eliminate the bad patches in Superlative, but, as these methods (owing to their short courses) contain more calls, they do not appeal to the conductor who likes to score a peal at every attempt.—Yours, etc.,

W. H. BARBER.

LONGEST LENGTH OF LONDON.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The honour of producing the longest length of London belongs, in my humble opinion, to the Rev. H. L. James. That the peal is obtained on the same plan as Mr. Lindoff's is undeniable. It is an honour to be able to claim the longest length in any method, and many will regret that Mr. Lindoff having got so near did not persevere and get that 'little more' that Mr. James has.—Yours sincerely,

W. A. CAVE.

DEATH FROM EFFECTS OF WOUNDS.

The death has occurred at Upper Walmer, of Mr. J. Trinder, for many years a member of the Kent Association. The deceased, who was 45 years of age, served in the war, and it is to the effects of the wounds he received in 1917 that he has now succumbed.

Mr. Trinder had rung seven peals, one of Bob Major, one of Stedman Triples, and five on six bells.

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

On Saturday, May 27th, the Northern District held a meeting at Barley, which is situated in the north-eastern corner of the county. The tower, which is of Saxon architecture, contains a nice ring of six bells, which have recently been rehung by Messrs. Day and Son, of Erc, Suffolk. In the absence of the Rector, the Rev. Fossett conducted a short service, and gave a suitable address.

Tea was provided in a very quaint old fifteenth century hall opposite the church.

Unfortunately this meeting clashed with a meeting held at the same time at Bennington, but ringers from Barkway, Fulbourne, Hitchin and Royston were present, and spent quite an enjoyable afternoon.

A resolution was confirmed, on the proposition of Mr. R. King, seconded by Mr. E. Howard, that the June meeting be held at Knebworth as formerly.

Thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, to the Rev. Fossett for conducting the service, to Miss Wilkinson (the Rector's daughter) for presiding at the organ, to the ladies who did such excellent catering for tea, and to Mr. Mansfield for making the necessary arrangements.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

The May meeting was held on Saturday at the old-world village of Bennington, which in its spring beauty was looking at its best, and all who attended were well repaid for the labour which the journey involved. Members and friends assembled from places far apart, and one lady ringer had cycled the distance from Trumpington, a suburb of Cambridge. The towers represented were Barkway, Baldock, Hitchin, Ware, Hertford, Gravelly, Luton, Great and Little Munden, besides the members of the Bennington band, including the two veterans Messrs. J. Kitchener and S. Page.

Tea was provided by the generosity of the Rector (Rev. W. E. Mills), who had specially wished to do exactly as his father, the late Canon Mills, had done to welcome the association to Bennington for so many years, and a very hearty vote of thanks was accorded him for so doing.

The business meeting followed tea, Mr. J. Kitchener presiding, after which an adjournment was made to the famous tower, and Messrs. Kitchener and Page took a rope in a touch of Superlative Surprise, which gave them much pleasure, and brought back memories of the days 50 years ago, when Superlative Cambridge and London were the usual thing for morning and evening service, and when very few village bands could ring these methods.

WESTERN DISTRICT.

The quarterly meeting of the Western District was held at Apsley on Saturday, May 20th, when members attended from Hemel Hempstead, Tring, Laverstock Green, Berkhamstead, and one local tower. A short service was held, conducted by the Vicar, who, before giving the address, extended a very warm welcome to the association.

Tea, which was partaken of in the Church Room, was kindly provided by the Apsley ringers.

At the business meeting, at which Mr. H. Cutler presided, ten new members were elected, viz., Messrs. H. Cutler, W. Breed, R. Cutler, C. Henley, D. Birchmore, W. Humphrey and K. Runkham, of Apsley; and E. G. Benson, J. Blunt, and P. B. Curl, of Berkhamstead. Votes of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and his address, and to the organist and to the Apsley men for their kindness in providing the tea, brought a very pleasant meeting to a close. The tower was again visited, and the bells were lowered in peal at 8.30.

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.*ARCHDEACONRY OF WISBECH BRANCH.

A district meeting was held at March, on Saturday, May 20th, when ringers were present from Cambridge, Newmarket, Terrington, Shouldham, Chatteris, Somersham, and the local band. Touches were brought round in various methods during the day, and some double-handed handbell ringing was much appreciated. A short service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. S. Walker), who gave a hearty welcome to members. The Association form of service was used, and Mr. G. T. Bailey, the organist, was at the organ.

Afterwards a capital tea was provided in the Church Room by the Rector, Mrs. and Miss Walker were also present.

A business meeting followed, at which the Rector was elected an honorary member, and three ringing members were enrolled. Wisbech was chosen for the next meeting.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector and all helpers, on the motion of Mr. R. Lathbury, seconded by Miss B. Shorter, for lending the bells, taking the service, and providing the tea; also to the Rev. R. Ridge, Rector of Doddington for granting the use of his bells.

The tower was then again visited, and further ringing was indulged in. Some of the members went to the old village of Doddington, where touches were brought round on the fine-toned bells much to the interest of the local band, who met the party. Thanks are due to them for having everything ready.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.*NUMERICAL ADVANCE, BUT MEAGRE PERFORMANCES.

The 35th annual meeting of the North Notts Association was held at East Retford on Saturday, May 20th, and was attended by upwards of 60 members and visitors from kindred associations. The three towers in the old borough, viz., East Retford (10), West Retford and Ordsall, were at the disposal of ringers from 2 to 9 p.m., and were made good use of. The following towers were represented: Anston, Barlborough, Blyth, Harthill, Norton Cuckney, Laneham, Sutton-on-Trent, Ordsall, East and West Retford, Tuxford, Warsop and Worksop, while members from kindred associations were present from Wortley, Chesterfield, Staveley Town, Treeton, Doncaster and Tickhill.

A short service was held at East Retford Church, at which the Rev. C. Bailey gave an excellent address, in which he dwelt upon the sacredness and importance of the ringer's office.

An excellent tea was provided at Cooke's Cafe, in Carolgate, the gathering being presided over by the Rev. C. Bailey. At the business meeting which followed, the Vicar was supported by the Rev. J. S. Mumford (of Norton Cuckney, late of East Retford), the hon. secretaries, Messrs. H. Haigh and D. A. Piercy, and also by the hon. secretary of the Doncaster District Association (Mr. Harold Walker) and Miss K. Jackson, of the Parish Church, Doncaster, and Miss A. Taylor, of Worksop Priory.

A vote of sympathy was passed, the members rising in silence for a few moments with Mr. T. R. Flint, an energetic member of the committee, who has recently lost his wife, and the secretary was authorised to write him a letter of condolence.

The following new members were elected: 5 from Worksop, 7 from Edwinstowe, 6 from Harworth, 3 from Warsop, 4 from Tickhill, 2 from Doncaster, 3 from West Retford, a total of 30, and a new record for the association. This list included the Misses A. Taylor, E. Winrow, E. Weaver, of Worksop Priory; Miss K. Jackson, of Doncaster; also six non-resident life members and three vice-presidents among them the Rector, churchwarden, organist and sidesmen from one church, all proposed by Mr. H. Haigh, and seconded by Mr. G. Hardwick.

The officers were re-elected, viz., President, the Lord Bishop of Southwell; patrons, His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Grace the Duke of Portland; the vice-presidents, secretaries, and working committee.

The annual report was read and adopted. Whilst congratulating the members upon another year of advancement, numerically and financially, the Hon. Secretary reported that from a ringing standpoint the performances of the society were very meagre indeed, not a single peal of 5,000 changes having been rung by any company, and the only 720's in new methods were rung by Anston, Barlborough, Ordsall and Worksop. The report went on to review the work of the year, and bore testimony to the support accorded by the vice-presidents. The membership roll at the end of the year was 16 vice-presidents, 161 performing, non-resident and probationary members.

The balance sheet, audited by Messrs. A. Johnson and W. H. Johnson, V.C., showed a credit balance of £25 16s. 7d., a gain on the year's working of £2 15s.

A hearty vote of thanks was proposed to the Rev. C. Bailey for presiding, for his excellent address, and for the use of bells; also to the Rectors of West Retford and Ordsall for the use of their bells. A vote of thanks was also accorded to the clergy and all vice-presidents for their patronage and financial support during the past year.

Some good ringing was done on the bells at all three churches. On six bells, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, College Pleasure and Plain methods were rung, while at the Parish Church the touches included Grandsire Triples and Caters, Treble Bob Royal and Major, Plain Bob and Stedman Triples, a Worksop lady, Miss Taylor, ringing her first touch on ten bells, in which Miss Jackson, of Doncaster, also took part.

Harworth and Edwinstowe having now become affiliated, the association hopes to hold meetings in July and August at these two places.

An alteration of rule has now increased the meetings of the association from four to six each year.

SOUTH DURHAM TOWERS.

A combined practice was held on Saturday, May 27th, at Bolton-on-Swale (6), when ringers were present from Heighington, Hurworth, Shildon, Holy Trinity and St. John's, Darlington. Touches amounting to 2,592 changes were rung in Grandsire and Stedman Doubles, Plain Bob, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob and London Surprise Minor, a well-struck 720 of Kent, the first for 12 years on these bells, completing a very enjoyable afternoon. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Staindrop on June 10th. A very hearty vote of thanks was passed to the ladies and the Vicar for so kindly providing tea, and the Vicar for the use of the bells.

This was the first time Mr. Bangav had had a pull for 10 years, and great credit is due to him for the excellent way in which he handled his bell after so long a time. The above company hope to have the pleasure of ringing with him again before he returns to his home beyond the sea.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

VISIT OF LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT.

The May monthly meeting of the Guild, held at Monk's Kirby, on the 20th ult., may be classed as one of the most successful in the history of the Guild. This magnificent peal loses none of its fascination, and upwards of 60 ringers were present during the afternoon and evening, from Allesley, Coventry, Desborough, Ex-hall, Chilvers Coton, Croft, Rugby, Stoke, Polesworth, Green-on, Stoney Stanton, Nuneaton, Wolvey, and the local band, who are making excellent progress under the tuition of the Rugby members.

Just as the company were about to sit down to tea, provided at the Denbigh Arms, they were pleasantly surprised by the appearance of the Rev. Canon H. J. Elsee, President of the Lancashire Association, who is a native of Warwickshire, and received his first instruction in the art on the old five bells at St. Andrew's, Rugby.

The Ringing Master (Mr. A. Roberts) extended a hearty welcome to the Canon, and his remarks were endorsed by Mr. A. Wilkerson, hon. secretary of the Guild.—Canon Elsee, replying, said how pleased he was to be amongst his Warwickshire friends once again, and especially to be able to hear such a noble peal at Monk's Kirby. He remarked later, in the tower, that he never thought it would be his great pleasure to ring Superlative there.

Twelve new members were elected, including several of the local band. The Guild heartily thank the Vicar for his kind permission to use the bells, also to the local band for having them in readiness. Tune ringing and Stedman Caters on the handbells were indulged in after tea.

The methods rung during the afternoon and evening in the tower included London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Double Norwich and Bob Major. Stedman and Grandsire Triples. The lowering of the bells in peal about 8.30 p.m. brought a happy and successful meeting to a close.

DEATH OF MR. CECIL CHAPMAN.

A PROMISING YOUNG KETTERING RINGER.

The Kettering Parish Church ringers have lost, by the death of Mr. Cecil Chapman, at the early age of 20 years, one of the most promising young ringers in the county. The deceased, who was the youngest son of Mr. James E. Chapman, was taken ill on Saturday, April 29th, and on the Monday was removed to the Kettering General Hospital, but despite the skilful attention of five doctors, he passed away on Saturday, May 6th.

Cecil Chapman was one of those who commenced ringing at a very early age, and under the influence of his father, and the writer, made rapid progress in handbell ringing, showing every prospect of becoming an accomplished ringer and conductor on both tower and handbells. He rang 7—8 in a peal of Bob Major when only 12 years old, it being the 100th peal rung by his father for the Association. On June 6th, 1915, he was umpire, and ticked off every lead end of Holt's original rung on handbells, conducted by W. Perkins. His first tower bell peal was one of Minor in seven methods rung after the war. Altogether he had rung 21 peals in the following methods: On tower bells: Doubles 6 (conducted 4), Minor (1 method) 1 (conducted 1), Minor (7 methods) 1, Minor (8 methods) 1, Grandsire Caters 1, Bob Major 1, Stedman Triples 1, Double Norwich 1, Superlative 1, Cambridge 1. On handbells: Grandsire Triples 1, Bob Major 4, Double Norwich 1.

Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, always punctual and regular in attendance to ring for services, a keen and accurate striker, he made many friends, and his presence in the belfry will be sorely missed by all who came in contact with him.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, May 10th, the service being conducted by the Rector (the Rev. C. B. Lucas). As the funeral cortege proceeded to the cemetery the bells of the Parish Church were chimed by Mr. W. T. Wilson, of Isham (treasurer of the Association), Miss C. Hepburn and Miss Lewis of Isham (who represented the Ladies' Guild), Mr. C. Moor, R. Black, R. W. Lawrence, and A. Warren, of Weekley, assisted by Mr. C. W. Bird and A. V. Inns, of the Kettering band.

Four of the deceased's fellow ringers acted as bearers viz. Messrs. Nichols, Payne, Sawfoot and Turner. After the committal service at the graveside, a course of Grandsire Triples was rung by A. Inns 1—2, F. Sawfoot 3—4, D. Nichols 5—8, R. Black 7—8.

Among the many handsome floral tokens was one from the Kettering ringers, and others from the Rector, and ringers of Weekley: Mr. W. T. Wilson and Miss Hepburn, Isham; Mr. A. N. Wood, of Bedford; Mr. J. Palmer, of Acton Hall Gardens, Cheshire.

In the evening an attempt was made for a peal of Stedman Triples, with the bells half-muffled, but this was unfortunately lost owing to a shift course. The whole peal and stand was rung 20 times by the following: A. Inns 1, R. Lawrence (Weekley) 2, A. Henman 3, C. W. Bird 4, R. Turner 5, A. Payne 6, D. J. Nichols 7, F. Sawfoot 8.

At Weekley, where Mr. Chapman had been instructing the local band during the past year, a 720 of Bob Minor was rung in 24 mins., with the bells half-muffled, by the local ringers: C. Moore 1, Miss K. Moore 2, R. F. Lawrence 3, R. G. Black 4, A. Warren 5, R. W. Lawrence (conductor) 6.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.*MEETING AT BARNET AND HADLEY.

A successful meeting of the N. and E. district of the Middlesex County Association and Loudon Diocesan Guild was held on May 20th, at Barnet and Hadley. Quite a large number of members took advantage of the very fine weather to take a country outing, and to enjoy some good ringing on the two peals of bells available. A short service was held in Barnet Parish Church at 6 p.m., when the Rector (the Rev. W. Manning), after giving the Association a hearty welcome, paid a tribute to the late Mr. Arthur T. King, who, he said, was a man whose life all could take as an example. He mentioned that Mr. King was at one time a parishioner of Barnet, and during the short period, just after his own coming to Barnet, that they were associated, he had been able to note Mr. King's high character, and he summed up by saying that the deceased President was well worthy of being called 'A scholar, a gentleman, and a Christian.' He had now passed away, and had gone to receive the reward of his labours from the Master whom he had so faithfully served.

After tea, which was partaken of in the Church House, the usual business meeting was held, the new President of the Association the Rev. F. B. Bonsey, being in the chair. He was supported by the vice-president, Messrs. F. A. Milne and T. Beadle; also Mr. W. Pye (Master), Mr. G. B. Lucas (District Master), Mr. C. T. Coles (hon. secretary), and upwards of 30 members.

Mr. Milne introduced the President to the members, and Mr. Bonsey, who was given a hearty ovation, acknowledged the honour which had been conferred upon him, adding that he would do his utmost to further the interests of the Association.

Two new members were elected, and Willesden chosen as the place for the next meeting, on July 8th.

Votes of thanks were unanimously passed to the Rectors of Barnet and Hadley for the use of their bells, and to the towerkeepers for having everything ready for the members. Both peals were subsequently made use of in a variety of methods, and during the afternoon and evening the following methods were practised: Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain and Kent Treble Bob, Double Norwich, Cambridge, London and Bristol Surprise, several members ringing their first courses of the Surprise methods.
