

SURREY ASSOCIATION (founded 1880)

'In response to desires expressed by our keen young members, a discussion took place on the question of an Association badge, but due to the short notice and short time in which to obtain information, it was decided to hold over this matter until next year.'
'The Ringing World' 29.iii.1957 p201

'Following a proposal by the younger members, the meeting decided to adopt a badge which will be on sale in the near future.'
The Ringing World' 28.iii.1958 p206

Version A

Circular, brass with dark green enamel Diameter 19mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse Manufactured by 'Vaughtons, B'Ham'

'In 1958 the first, and current, Association badge was introduced.' 'The Ringing World' 23.v.1980 p455

Version B(i)

Circular, cupronickel with dark green enamel Diameter 19mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse Manufactured by 'Vaughtons, B'Ham'

Version B(ii)

Circular, cupronickel with light green enamel Diameter 19mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse Manufactured by 'Vaughtons, B'Ham' or none shown

SURREY ASSOCIATION (continued)

Version C

Circular, cupronickel with dark green and black enamel Diameter 19mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse Manufactured by 'Vaughtons, B'Ham'

'You will be invited to let us have your views on the entries for the badge designing competition which will be on display.'
'The Ringing World' 26.v.1972 p430

'The association has agreed to have a new badge. The designs submitted in response to last year's competition will be on display at this meeting and members attending will be asked to vote for the design of their choice.' 'The Ringing World' 16.vi.1972 p490

'The badge competition had been won by Mr. Bryant with an attractive design of a bell shape raised on a plain background, all in copper, but the meeting decided not to adopt it and asked to see other designs.' 'The Ringing World' 30.vi.1972 p531

'Lengthy discussion followed concerning the Association badge. A motion proposed by Mr. Dawson-Taylor that the Association reverse its decision to have a new badge and re-order the present badge was carried by a large majority, even though, as the Master discovered, only five of those present were wearing the badge.' 'The Ringing World' 8.vi.1973 p452