

NORTH AMERICAN GUILD (founded 1972)

Founder member version

Circular, brass with red and black enamel Diameter 24mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse No manufacturer shown

'The Bournemouth Evening Echo for September 29 (1973) told the story that the North American Guild of Change Ringers have honoured Mr. Fred Price, of Southbourne. They have made him a life member in appreciation of his help and services in 1964 when taught a band at Washington, D.C. A photo of Fred and of the new North American badge are depicted, the latter having been made at Lymington, Hants, a few miles from Southbourne.' 'The Ringing World' 2.xi.1973 p877

Ordinary member version

Circular, brass with blue and black enamel Diameter 24mm

Brooch fastening with plain reverse No manufacturer shown 'Made in Tai Wan' on bag containing the badge

'Non-resident members living in the UK who want badges, send 85p to Tom J Lock within two weeks. Badges will be mailed as soon as received from the USA.' 'The Ringing World' 5.x.1973 p800